Industrial Body Considers Codes

EARLY ACTION LOOMS ON MINIMUM WAGE, MAXIMUM WEEK

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Strategists of the Roosevelt recovery campaign sought common ground in conference today on setting up a minimum wage and maximum work week standard for the entire country, with indications of an early announcement.

Preliminaries to promulgation of specific codes were hastened, meanwhile, through hearings in which spokesmen for the electrical and shipbuilding industries spoke on behalf of agreements reached toward improving employment and compensation in those industries.

Roper Presides

Secretary Roper presided over the meeting of the "industrial advisory board," comprised of various cabinet members and their assistants.

What extent to go on the proposed voluntary national code, which would be aimed to enhance purchasing power until such a time as many individual "codes" can be completed, was the question.

At a hearing in the house office building, electrical manufactuers testified application of their proposed code would restore the full 1929 employment level in the industry upon a return of only 60 per cent of that year's production.

Clarence L. Collens, president of the Reliance Electrical Engineering company of Cleveland, O., gave these figures in endorsing the proposed 35 cents an hour minimum wage and a 36 hour week in the agreement.

Code Is Revised

Appearing at the commerce department hearing, the shipbuilding people sustituted a revision for their first code—a major change being that all employes engaged in designing, engineering, and other occupations preparatory to starting new work, such as the pending naval construction program, shall be exempt for six months from the

Negro Plows Up His Cotton Free

TEXARKANA, Ark., July 19 (AP)—Hagar Smith, negro, is so convinced that President Roosevelt will lead the nation back to prosperity that he refuses to accept money for plowing up his cotton.

When Tom Martin, committeeman in the cotton acreage reduction campaign, visited Smith's farm, he found the negro plowing up three acres on his 15-acre farm.

Martin explained to the negro that his action was premature and that if he would sign a contract he would be paid by the government for cutting his acreage.

"I don't want any money to help Mister Roosevelt, boss," Smith said with a grin. "I'se gonna plow up my part and everybody else ought to do the same."

PRISONS WILL BE IMPROVED

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD APPROVES $851,000 FOR U. S. PENS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 19—For the improvement of federal prisons in 12 states the public works administration today set aside $851,000 out of its $3,300,000,000 fund.

Most of this money, however, will be spent on quarters for wardens, medical officers, guards; less than a quarter on improvement of the prison buildings themselves.

To Start At Once

These projects were picked from a larger list and approved by the president because they can be started at once, thus carrying out the announced policy of putting the three billion dollars into job-providing construction as soon as possible.

The 12 states in which the prisons are located are Georgia, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

With this done, the cabinet board in charge of the program planned to take up next the federal public buildings plan which once called for $750,000,000 but was reduced by the board and President Roosevelt.

The president soon may have to decide whether an army housing and motorization program will be included in the public works schedule.

A controversy within the board over this subject came to the surface yesterday in a statement by Secretary Dern that he had asked delay in consideration of the army's program when he foresaw adverse action.

Improvements for federal prisons announced included:

El Paso, Texas, detention farm—medical officer's residence $10,000, warden's residence $12,000, deputy warden's residence $10,000, guards residence $5,000.

Committees Are To Issue Crop Permits

Permits to plow under cotton will be issued by the several local community committees, and not by the county agent, O. G. Tumlinson, county agent, said this morning.

"We will not issue any permits from this office," he said in explanation of his latest order from O. M. Martin, state director. "I am expecting blank permits forms today. Not until they arrive will it be known just the procedure.

"It is my plan to prepare these blanks in the office and distribute them through the local committees. If we get the blanks in time we probably will be able to start distribution through the committeees by Saturday."

(By The Associated Press)

Arkansas and Alabama, first states of the "solid south" to speak on the prohibition amendment, have voted for its repeal. Incomplete figures showed today that Alabama favored repeal by about two to one. The vote for repeal in Arkansas was three to two.

Yesterday's vote brought the number of states on record for repeal to 18, with prohibitionists yet to score their first victory.

Thirty-Six Necessary

Tennessee voters will register their decision tomorrow, with Oregon following Friday. Thirty-six states must vote for repeal if the prohibition amendment is to be nullified.

In addition to Tennessee and Oregon, 15 states have fixed definite dates before early November to vote on repeal.

States that have voted for repeal are:

Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Wyoming, New Jersey, Delaware, Indiana, Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, Iowa, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Nevada, California, West Virginia, Alabama and Arkansas.

States voting next month are: Arizona, Missouri, Texas and Washington.

In September six other states will give their verdict—Vermont, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Idaho and New Mexico; and in October, Florida.

FARMERS BORROW OVER A MILLION

AMARILLO, July 19 (AP)—Panhandle farmers, in 28 counties, have borrowed $1,304,505 from the government in wheat and row crop loans.

Fifty per cent or more of the wheat farmers in the area, obtained $771,965 in 3,034 loans. Row crops farmers obtained $532,540 in 3,350 loans, according to figures released by John E. Hill, chairman of the Panhandle agricultural relief committee.

Ochiltree county borrowed the greatest amount, $99,025 for wheat and $53,615 for row crops. Hansford county was second with $20,000 less for all crops. Dallam, the hardest hit of the drouth-stricken counties, borrowed $58,000 for row crops, but only $37,000 for wheat.

WEATHER CUTS DOWN LEAD OF FLIER

BLAGOVESCHENSK SET AS GOAL OF SIXTH LAP AROUND GLOBE

(By The Associated Press)

IRKUTSK, Siberia, July 19—His lead over his 1931 record having been cut sharply to three hours and 24 minutes, Wiley Post zoomed out of Irkutsk today toward Blagoveschensk, nearly 1,000 miles eastward, on the sixth lap of his world flight.

The American airman hopped off at 7 a. m. Moscow time (11 p. m. Tuesday, E. S. T.) after remaining here since 3:35 p. m. (7:35 a. m. E. S. T.) while his advantage over the time recorded by him and Harold Gatty two years ago was whittled to a slim margin.

Delayed By Weather

Bad weather, which caused him to lose precious hours on the jaunt from Moscow to Novosibirsk, again dogged him, and forced him to stay here, longer than he wanted to.

He still had unfavorable conditions before him, however, but he announced he would land at Blagoveschensk—where he and Gatty suffered a mishap on the earlier flight—which lies between the Vablonovoi and Sikhota mountain ranges.

The Oklahoman might push on to Khabarovrk, his scheduled stop about 400 miles farther on, he said, unless bad weather retards him too much, in order to make up time.

When he halted here from Novosibirsk he was 16 hours and 34 minutes ahead of his previous mark. He left that place at 9:02 a. m. Tuesday, Moscow time, having rested for only two hours and 35 minutes there. He and Gatty stayed in Irkutsk two hours and 15 minutes.

They were 91 hours and 59 minutes out of New York when they landed here, but Post reached Irkutsk in 75 hours and 25 minutes.

Wester Asks Demos To Do Their Part

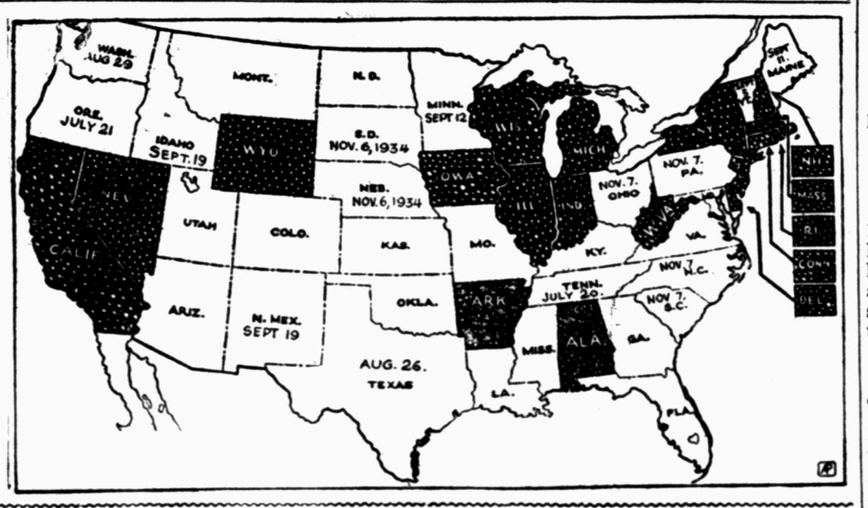

Loyal Lubbock county Democrats wishing to contribute their part toward eliminating the party's national deficit should make their donations to County Chairman J. K. Wester before July 30 as the state campaign is to close on August 1 until later in the fall. That was the announcement made today by Mr. Wester.

"Lubbock county's quota of $533 isn't one-eighth subscribed", Mr. Wester said. He expressed a hope that donations in the next few days would increase the total considerable.

Each Democrat over the nation is expected to contribute in the campaign, National Chairman James A. Farley refusing to let wealthier party leaders subscribe the amount before the people had a chance to contribute.

ARMADA HEADS FOR GOTHAM

TWENTY-FOUR ITALIAN SEAPLANES TAKE OFF AT CHICAGO TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 19 — Italy's armada of 24 seaplanes began taking the air at 6:42 a. m. (Central Standard time) today en route to New York, on the first leg of their long journey to their homeland.

The weather was clear as the first of the twin-motored flying boats, piloted by General Italo Balbo, lifted itself from the waters of Lake Michigan and headed south and then east in the general direction of South Bend, Ind.

Route Announced

The route, as planned by General Balbo, lay along southern end of Lake Michigan and thence over Toledo and Cleveland, O., Erie Pa., Buffalo, and Albany, N. Y., to Newark, N. J., with a landing in Jamaica bay, off Floyd Bennett field, N. Y.

Prior to his departure from Chicago, General Balbo announced that if weather conditions are favorable, he would undertake a trans-Atlantic journey more ambitious than the east to west crossing. The proposed route would be via Newfoundland to Ireland and would keep the flyers over water a little less than 2,000 miles.

To Visit Roosevelt

Within seven hours they expected to be in New York, where they plan to remain for three or four days. Meanwhile, General Balbo and his 24 officers will fly by American planes to Washington, where they will be greeted by President Roosevelt.

Their take-off from Chicago marked the close of a three and a half day visit to this mid-west metropolis and its Century of Progress exposition during which they were given cordial receptions by officials and many thousands of Chicagoans and visitors to the World's fair.

PARSONAGE AT ANGELUS TEMPLE BEING GUARDED

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, July 19—David L. Hutton's divorce action today developed into a squabble over occupancy of the parsonage at Angelus Temple, the evangelistic edifice of Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton.

Open hostilities were initiated by the husband of the evangelist when he ordered a temple guard to barricade himself in the parsonage and defy any and all members of the congregation or its leaders to enter.

The guard, William B. Levins, discharged Monday by Miss Harriet Jordan, acting business manager of the temple, followed instructions.

Hutton, whose divorce complaint against the evangelist was filed in superior court Monday, and Miss Jordan are not on speaking terms, largely because of a remark attributed to her by the portly baritone to the effect that he, Hutton, was "knifing a sick woman in the back" by filing for divorce.

Levins was discharged immediately after Miss Jordan announced there would be a "house cleaning" at the temple incident to the divorce action. Hutton explained his orders to Levins by saying there were many articles of value in the parsonage belonging to him and his wife, and he was going to make sure they were not molested pending her return from Europe.

Levins told Hutton he had thwarted one attempt by temple workers to force their way into the parsonage.

From mid-Atlantic, en route home from Paris where she underwent an optration, the evangelist pleaded with the baritone singer to postpone the

TWO ARE HELD IN SHOOTING

SPECIAL RANGER SHOT AND WOUNDED AT HIS FORT WORTH HOME

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 19 — Two men and a woman were arrested here early today in connection with the shooting of Charles Lee Allison, 45, special Texas ranger, working in the East Texas oil field. The woman later was released.

The men, 26 and 23, were arrested at their homes.

May Lose Arm

Allison was wounded last night as he sat beside a window reading a magazine at his home. Fired from a distance of a few feet, the charges struck him in the right arm and head. Physicians said the arm, fractured just below the shoulder, may have to be amputated.

Other members of the family were in the room, but escaped injury as three charges, fired apparently from an automatic shotgun, blazed through the window screen.

As the report of the shot gun died away, six pistol bullets thudded into the side of the house. Three of them pierced an awning on a dining room window, adjoining the room where Allison was sitting. The pistol bullets, either were fired to cut off pursuit or were set up as a cross fire by a second assailant, officers believe.

No Motive Known

Although the family could give no reason for the attack, Allison called officers to his bedside and gave them the names of several suspects. He did not know positively who shot him.

Allison, who has been employed as a guard on East Texas oil leases, returned home Monday.

Others in the room at the time of the shooting included Mrs. Allison; his daughter, the former Mrs. J. D. Tripp, 22, and her son, Dean Tripp, another daughter, Mrs. Hollis

THIRD MAN IS NEAR DEATH IN MISHAP

PLANE CRASHES INTO SIDE OF MOUNTAIN IN OKLAHOMA

(By The Associated Press)

MANGUM, Okla., July 19.—Two passengers were killed and the pilot critically injured today when an airplane crashed into the side of a fog-veiled mountain 28 miles from here.

The dead:

Don Tinsley, of Shamrock, Tex.

Jarrett Todd, jr., son of a former county judge here.

The injured pilot is W. F. Hearne. He was believed to have little chance for recovery.

Dr. Fowler Border, who brought Hearne here in his airplane-ambulance, said the collision might have been avoided if the pilot had been able to get his ship ten feet higher.

Bodies Found

The physician said a farmer in the neighborhood saw and heard the plane circling about several moments before the crash. Later rescurers found the bodies of Tinsley and Todd in the twisted fuselage. Summoned at once, Dr. Borden landed about 200 feet from the scene of the accident, on a small plateau just beyond the crag.

Hearne left here about 8 a. m. with his passengers, bound for Shamrock. Apparently he became lost in the fog and crashed either from lack of visibility or because he could not lift his plane over the peak.

The pilot, son of a former candidate for governor and former Mangum city manager, had been flying for about two years. He attended an army aviation school for a time.

PARTS OF TEXAS GIVEN MOISTURE

(By The Associated Press)

Slow, soaking rains yesterday and today—the first in weeks—and prospects of additional showers augured well for crops in many sections of Texas and threw aside the threat of another heat wave.

North central Texas apparently received the greatest precipitation. Cotton and late crops were reported to have been aided materially. At Dallas a light rain began early in the day and continued for hours.

A light shower fell at Corsicana last night and kept the temperature from going above the 100-degree mark but it was insufficient to help crops. Heavy clouds today gave promise of more rain. An inch rain at Tyler will enable farmers to plant feed in place of cotton to be plowed up under the government's cotton acreage reduction program.

In the Panhandle, Amarillo had about a third of an inch of rain, Groom a half inch, Wildorado an inch, from Happy to Lubbock .75 and row crops and grass were aided. Abilene had .04, El Paso .08 and Palestine a trace.

MATTERN BELIEVED STILL AT ANADYR AFTER NO WORD RECEIVED OF FLIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

NOME, Alaska, July 19—Alaskan observers expressed the wish today that if aviators insist on flying the "top of the world" route, Russia and the United States get together on wireless communications.

The observers have been on the alert for news of, or the sight of, Jimmy Mattern, round-the-world flier, who was reported in an unconfirmed dispatch Monday to be flying across the Bering sea from Russia where he was forced down last month on his projected globe-girdling flight. But Mattern has not been sighted or heard of and it was believed here today the Texan still was in Anadyr, Siberia.

Somewhere in Siberia was Pilot Levanovsky, detailed by the Soviet government to fly his seaplane to Nome with Mattern.

Here in Nome sat William Alexander, head of a relief expedition which flew here to rescue Mattern and help him resume his flight.

So far as willing assistants from Nome to Point Barrow knew today, the three groups were unable to communicate.

There is a Soviet wireless at Anadyr, an American station here, but the two are not on "speaking terms," because there are no official diplomatic relations between the governments.

Unofficial chatterings of these stations and those on ships at sea, vague, indefinite, in various languages, often interrupted by weather conditions and "fading" because of greater distances — these are the means of communication.

IF ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT DECIDES TO MARRY AGAIN HE'LL TELL ABOUT IT

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 19 — If Elliott Roosevelt ever decides to get married again he says he'll certainly let the people know about it. Until then he apparently intends to keep his own counsel.

He indicated as much upon his arrival in Chicago by airplane from Nevada, where he and his former wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Donner Roosevelt, Philadelphia society girl, were divorced.

Many questions, particularly concerning his reported romance with Miss Ruth Googins of Fort Worth, Tex., were put to young Roosevelt after he had reached Chicago yesterday, but he parried them.

When he was asked about a possible second marriage he said:

"Really, you haven't given me time to ask her yet."

"I'm not going to spend my time answering anything personal," he added. "If I'm asked, 'is it so' I'll say nothing until I get ready to announce it. I'll certainly let all you know if I ever decide to marry again."

Last night young Roosevelt called at the hotel where Miss Googins was registered.

He said he expected to stay in Chicago for a few days to visit the World's fair with his sister, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, who is expected to reach Chicago today, and then return to the west.

Someone asked him about a report he was to be married in a day or so and he said:

"That's all wet."

AMARILLO WOMAN HURT IN MISHAP

A severe laceration of the neck was suffered by Mrs. B. R. Carter, of 316 North Tyler street, Amarillo, in an automobile accident about 5:35 p. m. Tuesday immediately north of the Avenue H underpass. She was weakened from loss of blood.

After treatment at West Texas hospital, where she remained for several hours, she was moved to a hotel here, Mr. Carter, an Amarillo salesman, said. The Carters were en route to Dallas on their vacation. They hoped to continue the trip in several days.

A Chevrolet coupe driven by Mr. Carter collided with a sedan which was being turned in the middle of a block by J. B. Cowan of Tahoka, Carter said.

BANKER AGAIN BEHIND BARS

HARRIMAN RETURNS TO NURSING HOME AFTER HIS DISAPPEARANCE

NEW YORK, July 19 (AP)—Bars confined Joseph W. Harriman today while a judge considered whether to charge the former banker $25,000 for his latest journey to nowhere.

Harriman, awaiting trial on a charge of falsifying the accounts of the Harriman National Bank & Trust company, turned up late yesterday after a second disappearance from a nursing home.

He appeared a few hours after Federal Judge Caffey had ordered his $25,000 bail forfeited. The judge committed him to a Bellevue hospital ward, which has barred doors and windows, for mental observation. Then the judge agreed to hear new arguments about the bail today.

The former banker hailed a taxi near the Hudson river yesterday. His clothes were dripping. Directing the driver to the nursing home, he said:

"Step on it. I just fell in the river."

He is saying that he spent the time since vanishing Monday morning in parks, he fell into a deep sleep at Bellevue.

Officers were told by witnesses that Morris drove up to the Moseley home yesterday, where Huddleston was lying on a bed in the yard, and called to Huddleston to come out to the car. The witnesses said Morris began shooting and Huddleston ran into the house, falling dead on the floor.

The cause of the shooting was not determined immediately.

forty hour week proposed for the bulk of employes.

Also the forty hour week was changed to make it based on a six months period with provision that if any worker was employed more than eight hours in any one day he should receive time and a half for the overtime. Exception to the overtime provision was made for the great lakes area during the navigating season.

The minimum pay for labor was left unchanged at 35 cents in the south and 40 cents in the north.

Changes Considered

Meanwhile, Hugh S. Johnson — administrator of the law—was considering etensive changes in the publicity machinery of his organization.

Expected soon was announcement that the entire unit would be put under direction of Charles F. Horner, who organized speaking campaigns for the war time liberty loan drive and has been framing plans for a similar campaign to stir public enthusiasm in support of the "blanket code" proposition.

Reports, not confirmed, were that he was seeking the services of Charles Michaelson, who conducted publicity for the Democratic national committee between 1928 and the last election. His energetic work was credited with much of the party success.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 19 (AP) — Cotton had a comparatively quiet opening today. Liverpool came in better than due and sterling made a new high, but first trades showed losses of 4 to 8 points, the easier tone being attributed to good rains in Texas.

Prices soon rallied on overnight buying and in sympathy with firmer stocks, October trading at 11.87 and December at 12.07, or 3 to 7 points up from the opening to levels one point under yesterday's close.

The market turned easier again, however, on selling on the Texas rains and in anticipation of a favorable weather report due during the morning. October dropped to 11.78 and December to 11.97, down 11 to 12 points from the previous close.

Towards the end of the first hour the market rallied one to three points in light trading.

The market was rather quiet most of the morning and prices eased off steadily.

The weekly weather and crop report while favorable for the eastern belt was not so favorable for the west but the rains reported postdated the weekly survey. October dropped to 11.65 and December to 11.85, or 23 points down on both months from yesterday's close.

Near mid-session the market rallied and became somewhat more active in sympathy with firmer stocks which prompted covering by shorts. October recovered to 11.73 and December to 11.94, or 8 to 9 points up from the lows to levels 14 to 15 points under yesterday's close.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 19 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 3-5 lower under liquidation and reports of showers in Texas. July unquoted; Oct. 11.87; Dec. 12.06; Jan. 12.12; March 12.28; May 12.42.

Selling was attributed largely to realizing, particularly in the October and December positions, while there was some trade and Wall Street buying in the later months. Near positions stiffened a point or two after the call, but the profit-taking continued and by the end of the first half hour active months were about 6 to 10 points net lower with December selling at 12.00 and March at 12.21.

The early decline extended to 11.95 for December and 12.16 for March, making net losses of about 14 to 15 points. At these figures, however, some buying limits were reached and the market steadied on trade and commission house demand coupled with covering or rebuying by recent sellers. At midday December was 11.98 and March 12.18 with active months generally 3 or 4 points up from the lowest.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—Severe setbacks of more than 13 cents a bushel in wheat prices took place late today, with a 3 cents drop in corn, 2 cents in oats, 6 cents in rye and 5 cents in barley.

Pit observers said the breaks in values were largely the result of readjustment of accounts after a period of nine days of incessant speculative buying on the part of the general public which disregarded marketing conditions and the relation of cash grain to futures. The markets snapped under the strain of overbought conditions.

Towards the close of trading, immense selling on orders to stop losses overwhelmed the wheat market and toppled prices wildly. The descent of values was at the rate of fully a cent a bushel a minute.

Reports of big falling off in purchases of flour at Minneapolis contributed to the acute weakening of grain values.

The extreme fall in wheat was 13 1-4 cents. This was in May wheat which reached a minimum of $1.12 as compared with $1.25 to $1.25 1-4 at yesterday's finish.

The close for wheat was wild but at rallies of 1 cent to 2 cents from the day's bottom.

Final quotations on wheat were 9 7-8 to 12 1-4 under yesterday's finish, corn 3 1-2 to 4 3-4 down, oats 2 3-4 to 6 3-4 off, rye 11 1-4 to 12 1-4 lower and provisions showing setbacks varying from 2 cents to 52 cents.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 19 (AP)—Stocks and staples hesitated today as profit taking breezes tended to cool the recently heated ardor of most of the markets.

Share trading, especially, received a jolt when leading distillery issues slumped 3 to around 17 points on an avalanche of selling which apparently followed the old rule of realizing "on the good news." Gold mining shares also turned heavy, as did several other specialties.

Wheat was off a cent or more a bushel and other grains were easier. Cotton and other leading commodities were slightly lower and silver futures sagged. The dollar was a bit steadier in foreign exchange markets. Bonds continued to plod upward. American Commercial Alcohol opened with a block of 5,000 shares, down 12 3-4 points. It later extended its loss to more than 17. National Distilleries was off about 14, Commercial Solvents 8 and Standard Brands, Crown Cork, Anchor Cap and other allied alcohol issues dropped 3 to 5 or more. Westinghouse, U. S. Steel, Du Pont, American Can, Case, American Smelting, U. S. Smelting, Alaska Juneau, McIntyre Porcupine and Dome gave up 1 to around 4. Some of the utilities and rails improved.

FORT STOCKTON, July 19. (AP) —Defense testimony was in order today at the trial of Mrs. Bessie Sharp, accused of murder for the poison death of her husband, Telefus Sharp.

BRITISH BRIDGE TEAM HAS LEAD

LONDON, July 19 (AP)—The British team, after having its lead whittled down below the 1,000 mark, came back to lead the American team by 1,400 points when the second day of the Anglo-American contract bridge match was concluded last night on the ninety-sixth hand.

The score stood: England 30,550; United States, 29,150.

The match is at 300 boards of duplicate, with 50 scheduled daily, for a trophy posted by Charles M. Schwab of the United States.

Beginning the afternoon play 1,170 points down, Ely Culbertson, leader of the American team, and his companions were unable to make much progress for 14 hands and the American captain used a favorite phrase, "wrecked on the invisible rocks of distribution."

The home team bucked up, and the afternoon session closed with their lead just 10 points less than those with which it was started.

Dalrymple Claims Prohibition Doomed

HOUSTON, July 19 (AP)—Prohibition is doomed and probably will be wiped off the statute books within eight months, Major A. V. Dalrymple, national prohibition administrator, said here today as he advocated immediate distillation of whisky and wine to meet the future needs of the nation.

"Prohibition is on the skids," he said. "We can't escape it and we might as well not 'kid' ourselves."

Major Dalrymple defended 3.2 beer as a pledge of the Democratic party and said the federal prohibition forces would not attempt to keep beer out of dry states unless the United States supreme court declared it unconstitutional.

Two Posse Members Wounded In Battle

FENNVILLE, Mich., July 19 (AP)—Two members of a posse were shot and wounded, one probably fatal, today in a chase which resulted in the capture of a man and a woman who had held up the Old State bank at Fennville.

Russell McKellups, one of the posse, was shot in the head and may die, and Kenith Jackson, Fennville councilman, was shot in the ear.

The man and woman, who gave their names as Edward Austin and his wife, Grace, both 45, of Bravo, Mich., were not injured.

Sheppard Predicts Defeat Of Repeal

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—Senator Sheppard of Texas, one of the authors of the 18th amendment, said today he was still confident prohibition repeal would be blocked despite repeal victories yesterday in Alabama and Arkansas.

"I still say they won't get 36 states for repeal," he commented. "I am still optimistic and think we will stop the tide."

Sheppard did not care to name the states which would block repeal, but asserted Texas would be one.

Youth Apologizes For Halting Train

DALLAS, July 19. (AP)—R. L. Smith, 23, thought there were no trains early in the morning in South Dallas so he stretched himself out and went to sleep in the middle of the track.

The engineer of a fast freight saw him but not in time. He set the air brakes and put the locomotive in reverse but the heavy train passed over him. The crew jumped out and prepared to see a mangled body.

Smith crawled from under a car, apologized for stopping the train and went on his way.

CONSUL IS TO HANDLE CASE

TO SEEK RELEASE OF FIVE AMERICANS HELD IN SPAIN

MADRID, July 19 (AP) — Claude Dawson, American counsel general at Barcelona, will leave for Palma, Mallorca, tonight to handle personally the case of five imprisoned Americans who allegedly attacked a Mallorcan civil guard 42 days ago.

United States Ambassador Claude G. Bowers will confer tomorrow with Manuel Azana, Spanish premier, on the case, which the envoy said might result in "unpleasant" publicity.

Government Silent

The government, meanwhile, was silent about a report Juan Fraicisco de Caerednas, ambassador to Washington, is understood to have made on his conversations with Acting Secretary of State Phillips.

(A dispatch from Washington said Mr. Phillips expressed deep concern over the situation and asked the ambassador that prompt action be taken to try the prisoners or free them on bail.)

Those held in the Palma jail are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Lockwood of West Springfield, Mass.; Rutherford Fullerton, of Columbus, O.; Roderick F. Mead, of New York, and Edmund W. Blodgett, of Stamford, Conn.

Resentment Aroused

Dawson also will take up the case of Theodor Pratt, an American writer, whose article on Mallorcan life aroused resentment, in case he asks for assistance.

Pratt went to Palma yesterday from Pilensa, on the other side of Mallorca, escourted by a civil guard, whose protection he had asked.

No formal statement of charges has been made against the five Americans, but Spanish officials explained it is understood the jurisdiction of the war department since the civil guard the Americans allegedly attacked is a member of the military organization.

HERE ARE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF NEW DEAL

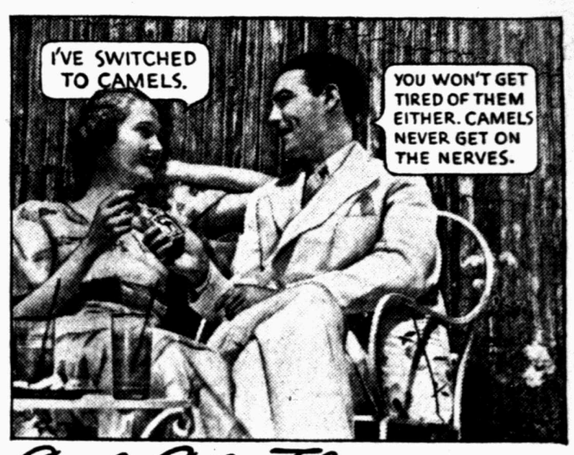

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP) — These, the University club heard today from Harry F. Payer, assistant secretary of state, are what he considers "the ten commandments of the new deal."

1. Thou shalt not live beyond thy means x x.
2. Thou shalt not lose confidence in thyself.

4. Thou shalt not forget that when thy price level is achieved, the next layer on the road to prosperity is stabilization.
5. Trou shalt not make gold thy God but thy servant.
6. Thou shalt not permit the unemployment of thy people well beloved.
7. Thou shalt not fail to manage well and rationalize thy industry and stimulate and encourage it.
8. Thou shalt not suffer the paradox of poverty amid plenty.
9. Thou shalt not indulge the fallacy of neglecting thy own domestic economy. This does not signify that thou shalt isolate thyself like a hermit.
10. Thou shalt not over-simplify nor complicate thy problems.

Thought For Today

Good deeds ring clear through heaven, like a bell.—Richter.

Pulling Power

One of the things the depression years seem to have taught American business men is that the newspaper advertisement is the surest and most effective means of reaching the consuming public.

Figures just made public by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association show that newspapers receive 59 per cent of the total advertising appropriations of 432 national advertisers in 1932 and constituted the preferred advertising medium of 19 of the principal trade groups in the United States.

Newspapers, for example, got 82 per cent of the automobile advertising, 74 per cent of the gasoline ads, 92 per cent of the railroads' ads and 87 per cent of the shoe and clothing advertisements.

The figures are a remarkable tribute to the "pulling power" of the newspaper advertisement.

Upon reading the statement of Elyria, Ohio, bank tellers that 75 per cent of women depositors carry their money in their stockings, one naturally reaches a conclusion. The conclusion is that Elyria bank tellers should pay more attention to banking.

"HEAR the beat of dancing feet, on the avenue I'm takin' you to—Forty-second Street!"

If you're looking for some snappy entertainment tonight or tomorrow night, wend your way down to the Lindsey where one of the biggest hits in the history of talking films is playing a return engagement.

"Forty-Second Street", with its galaxy of stars and featuring the four best song hits of the season, is the offering.

* * *

Cliff Lindsey and Brownie Akers usually are fairly truthful advertisers but on "Forty-Second Street's" return playing here aren't telling the entire story.

Their ads say "Return Engagement By Popular Demand." While there was undoubtedly a popular demand for "Forty-Second Street" to come back to Lubbock, the real reason it was brought back was because The Plainsman convinced the boys that it would pay!

* * *

STARRING Bebe Daniels, Ruby Keeler (who is Mrs. Al Jolson and who steals the show); Warner Baxter, Dick Powell the new singing find, and George Brent (Mr. Ruth Chatterton), the picture is in a class by itself as a musical offering. Listen to the song hits, "Forty-Second Street", "Young and Healthy" "Shuffle Off To Buffalo" and "You're Getting To Be A Habit With Me"—then try to go home without whistling parts of them.

It can't be done if you've got music in your soul!

* * *

The Plainsman isn't making a nickel out of the return of this peach of a picture and, aside from the fact that he thinks everybody ought to have another chance to see it, has no personal interest in how many customers it draws.

But since it's one of a half dozen pictures in movie history worth seeing twice, this column figured it was a public service to talk the Lindsey bosses into bringing it back.

And that's all there is to it.

* * *

PROBABLY because it is still in a pioneering stage, the air transport business has been booming in spite of the depression.

Companies have been chary about adding new lines, to be sure—as witness Lubbock, sitting out in the cold without an airway.

But business has been so good, regardless of the times, that the big lines are adding to their equipment and their service all over the country as greater demands are made by the public.

* * *

For instance, planes connecting New York and Washington have been leaving every hour on the hour for the past several weeks.

Travel between Gotham and Chicago has caused schedules to be added to and still one must often reserve space three days in advance.

American Airways, helping build the Southwest, has just purchased 23 new super-speed liners with practically sound-proof cabins at an outlay of $800,000—planes that will operate on 200-mile per hour schedules instead of 110 miles.

* * *

THE day of air travel as a commonplace thing is already upon us and more people are monthly turning to the clouds to get somewhere in a hurry.

When conditions get back on an even keel the next few years will show a surprising expansion in air travel with trans-oceanic service booming along like over-land travel is today.

Watch and see.

AMONG the things The Plainsman never has gotten used to and doesn't care if he never does: Married women going under their maiden names. . . The hoopla, hip, hip hooray sensational type of evangelism. . . Grown men acting as if golf is the most serious thing in the world and grown women ditto on bridge. . . Stunt flying. . . Hide-bound party politics under which it is a sin to suggest that a member of an opposing party is a good man. . . Morning bridge parties and teas. . . . Midnight shows. . . . Finger bowls. . . Coffee served in thimble-like cups (can't spell demitasse or pronounce it either) . . . Cottage cheese. . . Cinema actors whose broken English is too hard to understand and not important enough to try to. . . . Stabilization, international finance, inflation and the reason for a tariff on spruce gum and moth balls.

* * *

Funny how times and opinions change.

Back in 1925, The Plainsman worked right across the street from where the City hall was being built and the noise liked to have worried him into a nervous rigor.

Now with the present office next to the construction of the new Montgomery Ward building, the music of the hammer and the saw is the most soothing thing in the world!

The bang and clatter reminds us all of the days when men were working and everything was hunky dory.

And, oh, yes. A palm to the Charlie Lambie Construction company for the nicely painted fence and walk separating the street from the structural work and workers.

It looks good as well as protecting the passerby against possible injury during building operations.

Women Claim Discrimination In "New Deal;" Ask Removal Of Restrictions Against Sex, And Better Representation

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Evening Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 19.—"New Deal" or "Raw Deal"?

Several groups of women want to know.

Hundreds of married women have been released from government service under a provision which forces either a husband or wife to leave when both are federal employes and the economy axe hits a bureau in which one works. Unmarried women have suffered heavily during wholesale dismissals of clerks.

Butcher

The National Woman's Party insists the sex is being discriminated against everywhere; that women are being pushed from trades and professions back to destitution or a state of "unlovely dependence" on men and that they "still count for almost nothing in deciding the policies of the country. It's world-wide, they say, pointing to Hitler's Germany as the worst offender.

Women Democrats, usually prominent in the Roosevelt campaign, are uniting to demand more and better jobs for themselves. They want a number of "little cabinet" jobs and aren't content with appointment of Secretary of Labor Perkins, of Ruth Owen as minister to Denmark and Nellie Ross as director of the mint.

* * *

Mrs. Roosevelt's Views

Mrs. Roosevelt broke into an old and bitter dispute when she declared for legal restrictions on women's employment. The Woman's Party hotly opposes special legislation for women and its proposed "equal rights" amendment to the Constitution would prevent it. Other groups of women and labor groups take Mrs. Roosevelt's position.

General Hugh Johnson put his foot into this dispute during the cotton textile code hearings before the recovery administration — and gracefully withdrew it. After Maud Younger had presented the Woman's Party position he lavished flowery praise upon her exposition, assuming she spoke for all women. But when she was followed by another woman, representing a larger organization, who developed the opposite view, his praise of the second speech was equally unstinted.

The Scotch Is Coming!

Look out for a heavy influx of Scotch whisky, to compete with America's own rye.

The coast guard defenses against foreign rum fleets have been so weakened under the economy program and Rum Row already is flourishing again, according to reports here. A large supply of the Scotch beverage already has begun to stream into Washington from the Virginia ports, at low prices.

* * *

"New Deal" Crowds Capital

The ordinary government employe can't call his office his own as the new organizations created under the emergency program continue to crowd in on federal buildings. A large section of the Commerce building has been upset lately, with assignment of a whole floor to the recovery administration. The halls have been full of furniture and moving crews.

The Federal Radio Commission has been kicked from place to place. It started out in the old Commerce building, outgrew that and went to the Interior building. Then it rented a floor in the National Press building. Appropriations were cut and it retreated to Interior. But the public works administration had to move in there and now the F. R. C. is in a temporary federal building which will sooner or later be demolished. (Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)

With 'Whiz' BARRY Under The Capitol Dome

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, July 19 (AP)—Some longtime, strong political friendships have been snapped over anti-prohibition in Texas recently. The element against prohibition, eager to have the Eighteenth amendment removed from the costitution, certainly stirred plenty of trouble for itself.

There was the case of former Governor James E. Ferguson and John M. Mathis for thirty-five years they had been warm political friends. They always had stood together and always agreed on principles and policies.

Widely Separated

Along came Texas' campaign to repeal the Eighteenth amendment and the two men every one expected to stand shoulder to shoulder on the firing line of the repealists are widely separated.

Mathis was put forward for chairman of the anti-prohibition state convention. Ferguson's friends wanted the former governor to hold that office. Both became candidates. Mathis and Ferguson could not agree on that detail. The parting of the political ways came to two old war-horses and cronies.

Mathis did not permit his candidacy to go through but he opposed Ferguson to the end. The upshot of it was neither Ferguson nor Mathis won the place. Ferguson's next best friend, Charles C. McDonald of Wichita Falls, received the assignment.

Before MrDonald was put forward to bring the warring factions together behind the move to repeal there were some bitter things uttered.

Gives His Opinion

Congressman Joseph Weldon Bailey of Dallas, a long-time friend of Ferguson, was against Ferguson for chairman. He had to tell tht convention why, and Ferguson promptly gave the convention his estimation of Bailey, which was not the high regard he held only a few days before for the son of the former United States senator.

While the anti-prohibitionists were in perfect step, at peace with the world—except the anti-prohibitionists, who in spite of internal troubles were a unit about this repeal proposition.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Win First Battle

FORT HOYLE, Md.—Three hundred fifty soldiers of the citizens' military training corps cheered as the first battle of Fort Hoyle was won after a sharp skirmish by the air force.

Thousands of hostiles bit the mud as two fighting planes, equipped with apparatus used in case of war for spraying poison gas, cleared the marshes of the entrenched enemy.

The dead invaders were the mosquitoes which have been invading the camp nightly to the sorrow of the soldiers.

Hey! Governor

BELLINGHAM, Wash.—Lieut. Gov. Victor A. Meyers, Washington state's dance band leader and executive, has run afoul of the law, and it's going to cost him one perfectly good police dog if he doesn't straighten it out. County Treasurer P. I. Snyder said the lieutenant governor owes Wyatcom county $1 dog tax and that the dog will be impounded unless the money is forthcoming by August 1.

"Looking For Me?"

WHITEHALL, Wis.—Search of a river for a body ended abruptly as a youth walked up and learned citizens were hunting him.

"Looking for someone?" Clarence Mathson inquired.

"It's one of the Mathson boys."

"Well, my brother Henry is shoveling coal so it must be me," Clarence replied, then went home to comfort his mother, ill from shock.

She had found Clarence's clothes on the river bank. He left them there to swim, but she didn't know that.

The brothers are students at Luther college, Decorah, Iowa.

SIGNS MARK 'PURE AYRAN'

BERLIN (AP) — As part of the campaign to divert German business into "pure Aryan" channels the Economic Union has begun distribution of signs to business houses showing that the proprietor is a German in the nazi sense of the word.

The signs show a rising sun, the swastika and the German eagle.

Houses entitled to display the sign must pay a year's dues to the organization. Money so derived is devoted to alleviating the condition of poverty stricken members of the nazi party.

Prospects Good For Tournament

...here's a hot ball game scheduled this afternoon in the City softball association. Lee Jones' P. & J. Sports tangle with the City Hall ten for the championship of the first half of the National league race. One of the teams is due to suffer its first defeat of the season, since both thus far are unbeaten. It is slated to start at 6:15 o'clock, at the Fair Park field. We kinda have a leanin' toward Jim Holt's men, but you never can tell how that balloon ball will go.

• • •

One more day for Avalanche-Journal Invitation tournament entries. Let's have 'em, managers, before noon tomorrow. The more entries we get, the more money you get, so talk yourself into it and then see your nearest opponents. Call us collect if you want to enter, or telegraph.

• • •

Lamesa is coming up to defend the championship it won last year. We circled that part of the Plains yesterday and found an eager bunch of ball players and managers everywhere. Lamesa is building up a strong team for the last part of the season, and the boys want to express themselves in the tournament. Tahoka and Post also expressed a keen desire to get into the fray and the fun. You should look out for those southern teams when they get here. The northern teams, too, Enochs, Amherst and Levelland come through with their plans to be here. It ought to be a great tournament.

• • •

We have waited for the return of Coach Weldon Chapman to spring this next spasm. He's been away from home most of the summer but is back now to get things lined up for another high school football season. We got together last night and went over the following paragraph, clipped from the column of Prexy Anderson, Abilene scrivener. It's rather interesting, although several days old.:

• • •

"We shall not buy any drinks for repeating this," writes Mr. Anderson, "but somebody was telling us the other day that there's been a story current for sometime that the Lubbock Westerners will be hard to hold this fall, and why. According to information, four of the brightest Lobo prospects moved from Cisco to Lubbock last fall. The idea was that they could play just as much official interscholastic league football in Lubbock last fall as in Cisco, the Lobo squad at that time being in the midst of the same thing the banks had in March. It was one of the rare opportunities that will come to a young man under the transfer and eight-semester rules of changing schools without losing an extra season. If the former Cisco sparklers actually are residents of Lubbock at this time, they will be turned on full force this autumn by Weldon Chapman, the ex-coach at Cisco, who never liked to use a transfer—when he had a home boy for the position who was better."

• • •

We were about ready to accuse Coach Chapman of holding out on us, of suppressing news, of disorderly behavior and attempt to cheat, but when the Westerner mentor read it, he raised a weary hand to his wrinkled brow and muttered in all seriousness, "I only wish it were true."

• • •

Those six words settle the matter. We figgered all along that it was just a pop-off by one of Prexy's pals or maybe by himself, because this city isn't so large, and our association with the coach not so infrequent that we wouldn't have heard of a headline story like that.

• • •

Maybe this is how the rumor started. The following is a true story: A couple (two, not four) of Cisco high school footballers hitchhiked to Lubbock last fall, at the conclusion of the season as we remember it, and interviewed Coach Chapman along the lines of football. Chapman was surprised at the visit by the lads, who wanted to know "could they play football here if they and their mommas moved to Lubbock" at that time. Chapman was somewhat pleased, to be sure, but set about explaining the requirements. It is doubtful if he ever had any idea of ther staying [illegible]

• • •

But before plans could be made for the legal transfer, Cisco's court case ended, the verdict favoring the Lobos and returning them to membership, if not prestige, in the Texas Interscholastic league. What did Chapman do then (it was the day or maybe the day after they arrived here) but pat the lads on their broad backs and say, "Now you kids hustle back to Cisco and get in school. You're in the league now." It must have pained him more than somewhat to say that. When they lingered, Chapman said, "Now beat it on home before I cry." We were in the presence, and know whereof we write.

• • •

So there are no former Cisco huskies here to bear the Westerner banner. Chapman has three letter men, two of them substitutes last year, around which to fashion his 1933 club. The youngsters coming up from reserve ranks promise to develop into a good club, but they will play without the help of four Lobo gridsters .... "I only wish it were true."

AT LEAST TEN TEAMS EXPECTED TO ENTER INVITATION MEET

Probability that at least ten, perhaps twelve teams would enter the second annual Avalanche-Journal Invitation baseball tournament Friday loomed large after communications and visit with clubs over the territory yesterday and this morning.

As a result of some personal campaigning yesterday, Lamesa, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Post and Lorenzo accepted the invitations and asserted that they would send teams here unless unforeseen obstacles prevented. The Lubbock Hubbers are definite entries.

Other teams showing an inclination toward tournament play are Ralls, Enochs, Amherst, Abernathy, Wolfforth and the Lubbock Ramblers. The "visiting" campaign will be continued today, efforts being made to contact as many club managers over the South Plains as possible.

Delay League Game

Because of the interest shown by teams of the South Plains League, President J. R. "Dutch" Leuenberger has issued a proclamation declaring all league games postponed until after the tournament. Any league team entering the tourney will not be subject to a loss of a league game by forfeit, Leuenberger's proclamation said. However, any league teams not entering the tournament and scheduled to play on July 23 or July 30 may go ahead with the original schedule.

If drawing so results that league teams scheduled to play each other come together during the tournament, the games may be counted as league contests, as well as tournament games. Leuenberger said, provided there was mutual agreement to that effect between the managers.

Peterson Brings Lamesa

The virtual assurance that Lamesa would be here has added considerable zip to the tournament. Lamesa is the defending champion, having won the first tournament at Merrill Park last year. Manager "Pete" Peterson and his mates are extremely anxious to defend the title, and the plans yesterday were to "haul freight" to Lubbock this week-end.

Tahoka's entry also adds pepper to the tournament. Manager Skip Taylor probably will have his regular South Plains league setup here, and the team is tough enough to furnish plenty of opposition.

Post Team Anxious

Manager W. O. Thaxton appeared somewhat in doubt, but his boys rallied around to offer encouragement and their anxiety to play for the large cash purse. Post is reported to have a powerful team, and should prove a serious threat to any team with tournament championship ambitions.

Lorenzo will strengthen its team for the tournament, Manager Dillard has announced, and is coming here for prize money. The team already is strong enough to provide stiff competition, and is not to be left out of the list of "favorites."

League Teams Enter

Probability that other South Plains league teams will be here looms large. Enochs, Amherst, Abernathy and Levelland may enter. No indication has come from Morton, although it is hoped that all the league members will enter.

Drawing for first round games will be held at the J. & J. Sporting Goods company store Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and times for first round games will be set. All managers of teams seeking to enter the tournament are requested to be present, to send an official delegate or to notify the tournament management to draw by proxy. All entries must be in by that time, in order that first round pairings may be announced Thursday night and Friday morning.

The tournament will be based on the two-game elimination process, giving each team a chance at the prize until it has been defeated twice.

Sixteen Players Allowed

Under the tournament rules, each manager is requested to submit a player list not to exceed 16 men, including manager, by 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Players appearing on the lists will be required to remain with the club for whom they are listed throughout the tournament. Where South Plains league teams are concerned, managers have the right to submit a list including players who do not appear on the league books.

Managers of teams who do not receive a personal visit by tournament officials and who desire to enter the tournment are requested to mail, telegraph or telephone their entries to the sports department of the Avalanche-Journal by Thursday afternoon. The tournament is wide open for any and all amateur or semi-pro clubs interested.

An entry fee of $10 is payable with the submission of acceptance. Three cash prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the tournament, first, second and third place winners being favored with the purses.

The average expense of operating general-purpose tractors on Illinois farms in 1932 was $257, the state university department of agricultural economics reports.

YANKS REGAIN FIRST PLACE IN LEAGUE

TAKE NINTH STRAIGHT GAME AS SENATORS DROP ANOTHER

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees have regained the top of the American league standing very much in the manner of a team which is merely asserting its right as world champion.

By defeating the Chicago White Sox 9 to 4 yesterday, the Yanks stretched their winning streak to nine games, the longest in the major leagues so far. Yesterday's triumph coincided with Washington's 4-3 defeat at the hands of the St. Louis Browns and gave the Yankees a lead of one game.

Hits Made Good

In nine games, the Yanks have piled up a total of 97 hits for 80 runs. And while this clouting eased the pressure on their mound staff, the flingers have shown considerable improvement.

The Senators made ten hits off George Blaeholder and Sam Gray—but a couple of errors in the first inning gave St. Louis a head start of three runs that Washington never could overcome.

The Detroit Tigers backed Vic Sorrell's six-hit pitching with home runs by John Stone and Ervin Fox and stepped a game closer to the first division with a 5 to 2 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics. Monte Pearson outpitched Lloyd Brown as the Cleveland Indians scored their second 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Standing Unchanged

First division clubs of the National league all won and the race remained unchanged. The first-place New York Giants rolled up their biggest score of the season in beating Cincinnati Reds, 14 to 1. Starting when Johnny Vergez walloped a homer with the bases full in the first inning, they piled up 19 hits.

Chicago's Cubs remained 3 1-2 games behind as they bunched hits to beat the Boston Braves 4-1 in a duel between Lon Warneke and Ben Cantwell. The Pittsburgh Pirates, nicking Hollis Thurston for the last four of their 17 hits and three runs in the eighth inning, defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 11 to 8.

Chuck Klein's 18th homer was one of the few effective blows the Phillies could get off Dizzy Dean and the St. Louis Cardinals romped in with a 9 to 4 victory.

NATIONAL LEAGUE TITLE AT STAKE IN SOFTBALL TILT

Jim Holt's City Hall team tangles with the J. & J. Sporting Goods company club this afternoon in the battle for the championship of the first half of the National softball league schedule.

The teams are tied for the leadership, neither having been defeated. The contest is due to start at 6:15 o'clock at the Fair Park field.

Lubbock Printers meet A. W. McKee company this afternoon in the American league game, at the 22nd street park.

The West Texas Gas company soft ball team won a National league victory yesterday over the Meinecke Bros. Hardware ten, 18 to 7. The sterling pitching of Quinlan, who fanned 14 Hardware hitters, helped prevent additional Meinecke scoring. Hale hit a home run.

The American league game between Huie-Ribble and Dee's Coffee Shop was postponed.

The Rotarians defeated the Kiwanians, 10 to 3, yesterday in a Junior Baseball league game. Hard hitting and close pitching featured the contest.

Pitcher Davidson for the Rotarians whiffed nine batsmen while allowing but seven scattered hits. The Rotarians got 14 bingles off Bynum, Miller, Rotary first sacker, pounded a home run for one of his three hits, and Barnett, going in in the fifth inning, got three straight hits in as many times up.

The lineups: Rotarians: Haney, 2b; Buckeer, 3b; Miller, 1b; Campbell, c; Gantz, cf; Smith, lf; Hill, ss; Tyson, rf; Davidson, p.

Kiwanians: Jones, lf; Robertson, 1b; Murry, 3b; Jones, ss; Stout, 2b; Stevens, cf; Venable, rf; Sanford, c; Bynum, p.

SANDE STABLE HAS WINNERS

EX-JOCKEY IS MAKING SUCCESS TRAINING THOROUGHBREDS

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 19 (AP) — Earl Sande, who forsook the saddle to train thoroughbreds, is on his way back to the top again.

After a disappointing start with the stable he assembled last fall for Maxwell Howard, of Toledo, the Earl is riding the wave of prosperity and receiving the cheers of the crowds much as he did during the last 15 years when he rode to fame and fortune abroad some of America's greatest thoroughbreds.

Has Six Horses

His stable comprises only six horses but within the short space of six days he won four races with three of them at Empire City. St. Huberts captured two events while Miss Snow and St. Stephen won one race each.

The other three, True Romance, Orphean and Resurrection, have not faced the barrier since recovering from a siege of coughing that swept the eastern stables during the spring, but they are about ready for the races. Resurrection, once considered a Kentucky derby prospect, probably will start at Saratoga, where, with St. Stephen, he is heavily engaged in the three-year-old stakes.

Could Ride Again

Although liking his new job too well to give it up and return to his first love, Sande still believes he could get down to riding weight and hold his own with the best of the present crop jockeys.

"I weigh 116 pounds stripped," said Sande. "Galloping my horses every morning has kept me in conditon and with a little extra work I firmly believe I could ride in old time form again."

RAMBLERS MEET ABERNATHY HERE

The Lubbock Ramblers, local traveling ball club, stays at home this afternoon to meet Abernathy at the College Avenue park.

The game will be the second in recent weeks between the teams, the Ramblers having won a 9 to 8 decision over the South Plains league team in the other.

The contest is slated to start at 4 o'clock. Ralph Bumpass is carded to start on the mound for the locals.

Both teams are probable entrants in the Avalanche-Journal invitation tournament starting at the College Avenue park Friday afternoon.

GUS MORELAND TO DEFEND HIS TITLE

DALLAS, July 19 (AP)—Gus Moreland, Texas golf champion, Trans-Mississippi and United States Walker Cup star, leaves tomorrow for Memphis, Tenn., where he will defend his western amateur championship next week. Moreland has played only four rounds of golf since returning from Colorado Springs where he won the Trans-Mississippi for the second consecutive year.

U. S. NETTERS CONFIDENT

EXPECT TO WIN OVER BRITISH FOR RIGHT TO MEET FRENCH

AUTEUIL, France, July 19 (AP)—It may be overconfidence but America's Davis cup tennis stars are convinced they can sweep to a decisive victory over England in the interzone finals starting in Roland Garros stadium Friday, and thus advance into the challenge round against France next week.

Not only are Ellsworth Vines, Wilmer Allison, George Lott and John Van Ryn confident of victory in the series but they decline to concede England a single triumph in advance.

Perry Injured

The shoulder injury Fred Perry suffered last week when England defeated Australia in the European zone finals and his present doubtful condition led most experts to pick the United States to win without particular trouble.

In shape, the erratic Perry conceivably might beat either Vines or Allison on one of his good days, but H. W. (Bunny) Austin does not seem to have the strength to withstand either of the two American singles aces, and Lott and Van Ryn look like a better doubles combination than either Perry and George Patrick Hughes, or Hughes and H. G. N. Lee.

Perry will play doubles as well as singles if his shoulder can stand the strain of three successive days of competition. Otherwise Lee will be called in to team up with Hughes.

Tarleton Singing Financial Blues

DALLAS, July 19 (AP)—Bob Tarleton, vice-president of the Dallas Steers was singing the financial blues today. Bob had been cutting corners to save expenses at the ball park, but was the loser last night when a woman, driving her automobile, shoved it into reverse and stepped on the gas thinking she was stepping on the brake. The car tore through two ticket booths and partly crushed a third before coming to a stop.

Looking mournfully at his wrecked ticket booths, Tarleton crooned the following blues:

"And to think the car was loaded with women and not a one paid a cent to see the game."

It was ladies free night.

BUCS TROUNCE PACE SETTING BUFFALOES

THREE DOUBLE PLAYS AND ONE TRIPLE AID GALVESTON

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Galveston Buccaneers found several ways to stop the league leading Houston Buffaloes Tuesday night.

Phenomenal support behind the airtight hurling of Frank Tubbs that featured a triple play and three double plays, each play preventing one or more runs, gave the Buccaneers a 4 to 3 decision.

The triple killing was started from the outfield. With Kalbitz on third and O'Dea on first in the fourth inning, Binder popped a short fly to Moses in rightfield. Moses caught the ball. Kalbitz tried to score after the catch and Moses' throw beat him to the plate. Mealey quickly touched Kalbitz out and fired a perfect peg to second to nab O'Dea who had torn out from first.

Galveston's two doubles, a single and a pass accounted for three runs off the veteran George Payne in the sixth. It was a lead that left the Buffs trailing in the dust of defeat.

Joe Judge Schulz of Beaumont won a hurling duel from L. White of San Antonio, 2 to 0. "Pid" Purdy, the league's leading hitter, proved White's downfall. With the score 0 to 0 and Beaumont batting in the seventh, Purdy lost Tommy Hughes' high fly in the sun, let it drop for a hit and Parker scored. Pasek then followed with a long single that scored Hughes from second. Both pitchers allowed five hits.

Collecting eight runs the first two innings, Dallas opened a long home stay by beating Oklahoma City 8 to 3. Vangilder went the route for the Steers to out-pitch Benton, Chamberlain and King.

The Fort Worth and Tulsa game was postponed because of rain.

COLORADO NET MEET OPENS

PLAYERS FROM OTHER STATES ARE RANKED AS FAVORITES

DENVER, Colo., July 19 (AP)—Net stars from other states continued today to rank as favorites in the Colorado open tennis tourney here.

Mel Gallacher, Salt Lake City star, defeated Leonard Patterson, Los Angeles, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3.

Jack Tidball, intercollegiate singles titleholder from the University of Southern California, continued on his way toward the crown with a victory over Sam Milstein, Denver, 11-9, 7-5.

Dick Lusch, Los Angeles, beat Vernon John, Denver, 6-4,6-4.

Dave Freed, running mate of Gallacher, beat back the aspirations of Nelson McIninich, Kansas City, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5.

In another encounter between lads from the Pacific coast Billy Seward turned the tables on Bob Stanford, winning 6-4, 6-1.

In the doubles matches Jack Tidball and Larry Myers of Los Angeles defeated Sid and Sam Milstein, 9-7, 7-5. Jerry Phipps, Denver, and Leonard Patterson, Los Angeles, eliminated Stanford, Los Angeles, and Raymond Wiese, St. Louis, in another doubles tilt.

Play in the woman's singles division also started yesterday with only one foreign entry, Mrs. Vance McCuley, Rye, N. Y., who won her first match from Peggy Davis, Denver, 6-2, 6-4.

RUSHING WINS TENNIS TITLE

FORMER STAR OF TECH BEATS GORDON MAY IN FINAL MATCH

Youth met its master in a slightly older head yesterday when a former Texas Tech ace defeated the present ranking player to win the annual Lubbock City open tennis championship.

W. B. Rushing, who graduated from Tech this spring, defeated Gordon May, undergraduate and ranking member of the Tech tennis team, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4 and 7-5. Rushing was No. 1 player at the college in 1931 and 1932.

Lasts Two Hours

The final match extended over a period of two hours, and saw some fancy work by both players. After winning the first set Rushing was overcome by the driving attack of May in the second and for a time it seemed that the younger player would win. Rushing took the third after a hot battle and was forced to two extra games to win the fourth and deciding set.

Rushing then paired with T. J. Turner of Rochester, former McMurry college ace, to defeat the Taylor brothers, Renford and Larry, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3 and 6-2, to win the doubles crown.

In semi-final matches, also played yesterday, May defeated James Cullar of Slaton, 4-6, 9-7 and 6-1, in an exciting match, and Rushing won his way to the final round with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over C. G. Farr of Lubbock.

Rushing and Turner beat Frazier McCrummen and Farr in the one doubles semi-final and the Taylor boys got a forfeit.

The final matches were played before a fairly large gallery at the court at the 2400 block on 20th street.

OMAHA, Neb., July 19 (AP)—The first round of the midwest tennis tourney here Tuesday ran true to form with all of the favorites moving up into the second round. Other results:

Gus Boehmer, jr., St. Louis, beat Nate Cutler, Omaha, 6-0, 6-1.

Bill Kiley, Kansas City, beat Harold Swenson, Omaha, 6-0, 6-1.

Bob Winstock, St. Louis, defeated James Paramalee, Omaha, 6-1, 6-3.

H Stephens, St. Louis, defeated Walter Hagen, Lincoln, by default.

Mark Martin, St. Louis, beat Tom Clofer, Fremont, Nebr., by default.

OLD RAIL LAW DISCARDED

UNWORKABLE MEASURE REPEALED TO AID THE RAILWAYS

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—This is another of a series of stories by staff writers of the Associated Press explaining new legislation now in effect.)

By J. H. JENKINS

WASHINGTON, July 19 —(AP)— One of the "unworkable" laws of the nation went into the limbo of repeal when congress wiped the "recapture clause" from the transportation act.

This relieved the railroads of the possibility of some day having to find $378,000,000 or more to pay into the treasury—funds that never could be used for government purposes, but which would have to be kept in trust for loans to needy carriers.

Conceived In 1920

Back in 1920, when the railroads were almost as hard-pressed financially as in the last two years, a group of security holders conceived the idea of a compulsory revolving fund in the United States treasury from which roads in monetary difficulty could borrow.

The plan, backed by the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette, father of the present senator from Wisconsin, was written into the Esch-Cummins railroad bill.

It provided for valuation of the railroads for rate-making purposes and payment to the government of one-half of all income above an earning of six per cent, on that value, the money so taken to be used for loans to weak roads.

I. C. C. Given Task

The interstate commerce commission was given the task of enforcing the law, which from the outset was a center of contention.

About 100 short line railroads paid into the treasury slightly more than $10,000,000, most of it under protest.

A half dozen very small lines paid small sums without protest.

This fund, with interest from its investment by the treasury approximates $13,500,000 and is being returned to the roads.

DAWSON FARMERS SPEED PLANTING

LAMESA, July 19—(Special)—Farmers in Dawson county are using every available team and tractor, and some trucks, in an effort to plant a third of the county's cotton acreage this week.

Following the rains of the week-end over the south two thirds of the county, farmers began to get their crop out. It was the first rain since long before the planting season should have opened.

Many farmers who had abandoned tractors for horse power in planting crops, dug out the old machine, tuned it up, got a supply of fuel and started down the rows of the cotton patch. Often tractors and horses and mules were seen in the same field.

In a number of cases farmers used their farm trucks to pull planters. Others secured trucks and other power as best they could.

Dawson county farmers had pledged over 16,000 acres of their less than one-fourth normal acreage, to the government to be plowed under. The normal acreage is around 200,000.

Farmers hoped that before the week-end there would be another 60,000 acres in cotton. Following this, grain sorghums will also be planted.

South Plains Area Spotted By Rains

Planting moisture was provided in several parts of the region by showers which Tuesday spotted the South Plains.

The Spur experiment substation recorded .74 of an inch of rain yesterday afternoon, the first to fall since May 28. The rain was general over the county, and planting of feed for home use will be begun as soon as possible.

Southwestern Bell Telephone company reported Slaton had a good shower yesterday afternoon. There was rain in Amarillo, also. Littlefield and Olton had no precipitation.

The telephone company also reported showers at Crosbyton and Dickens.

HISTORY OF PASSION PLAY DATES TO MIDDLE AGES WHEN SUPERSTITIONS PLAYED BIG PART AMONG MEN, WOMEN

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of six articles upon the history of the Passion play, which will be presented, in English, at Texas Technological college athletic field, Friday night, August 4, under auspices of the Avalanche-Journal newspapers.

• • •

Men and women of the middle ages believed the devil could manifest himself physically. They were as certain of his ability to materialize as they were of the miraculous power of the saints. Superstitions, both good and evil, played a tremendous role in their lives. All the phenomena of nature—thunder, lightning, wind, rain, and snow—left them in wonderment. Their spiritual fortress was the church, and they turned to the priests for assistance when they considered their immortal souls in danger.

In the 1150's, a town such as Freiburg was both strong and weak. The men were able soldiers, ready at any moment to leave their work and dash to the city battlements to repel the attack of besiegers. But from these same battlements, they could see the dense, green mass of the Black forrest, within the dark glades of which they were afraid to set foot, for had not their grandparents told them of the fearful inhabitants? The haunts of Satan were within sight of their homes. Each day, traveling merchants, bearing new tales of horror from out of the woods that made the citizens doubly anxious to complete the cathedral already towering above the walls of the town. Within the bare nave, the worth priests had augmented the ceremonies of the church with the symbolic story of the life of Christ.

The townsfolk flocked to this primitive form of drama, although they could not understand the spoken Latin word. It gave the simple folk spiritual stamina with which to withstand the fear of the unknown which surrounded them. As a result, the early religious drama in Freiburg and her kindred towns came in response to a definite need. As early as the ninth century, a dramatic device had been resorted to by the church to impart religious instruction to the masses, and the choirs had sung: "Whom seek ye in the sepulchre of Christ?" "Jesus, the Nazarene"; "He is not here—He is risen as He foretold", but the words were in Latin and held no meaning for the majority of the listeners. It therefore was inevitable that some ceremony with popular appeal would be introduced. The first methods were the most simple imaginable. A portion of the altar was draped on Good Friday to resemble a tomb. A crucifix wrapped in linen was deposited in the presence of the worshipers. On the morning of Easter Sunday, before the arrival of the congregation, the cross was removed. Later during the services, three monks walked down the church aisles, searching to the right and left. On the altar, stood another monk, representing the angel. As the three searchers approached, he cried to them: "He is not here", he lifted the draperies that all might see that the crucifix was gone. From this crude start, there developed through the ensuing years, the gorgeous and complicated ceremonies of the 14th and 15th centuries.

Florist Perfects A Seedless Tomato

AMARILLO, July 19.—A seedless tomato has been perfected by W. J. Beechler, Amarillo florist.

Beechler has been experimenting with tomatoes a number of years in an effort to eliminate the seed, keeping his plants growing summer and winter inside his hothouse. Each year he takes cuttings from the plants producing tomatoes with the smallest number of seeds and starts new plants.

He now has a group of plants showing the various stages of seed elimination. Only an occasional seed is found in the fruit of the more advanced of these. It is Beecher's opinion that the flavor is improved with the seed elimination.

MEN WHO GUESSED GRAND OPERA WAS WHAT PUBLIC WANTED PROVE POINT

BY MORRIS WATSON

NEW YORK, July 19 (AP)—The gentlemen at the Hippodrome have that feeling that comes once in a lifetime to him who guesses the correct answer to "what does the public want?"

They guessed grand opera—and they guessed the prices down to 25-35-50 with a few deluxe seats at 75 and 99 cents.

Some six thousand peoplt see the show each night. Another 1,000 to 3,000 can't get in. It has been thus for eight weeks.

That's grand opera, A. D. 1933.

It was Cal Harris, booking manager for the Hippodrome, who had the idea of popular prices, and it was Alfred Salmaggi, director of the Chicago Opera company, who had the idea of operating opera along sound theatrical lines.

The two ideas "clicked."

"We have no angel, no subsidy of any kind," Harris said today. "We have found out that the general public likes grand opera if it is properly staged and priced within its means.

"Grand opera heretofore has failed to interest the general public because those directing it strove to make it of social importance, and forget the theater altogether.

"They thought they had to pay ridiculously high salaries to people who earned a few lire a month on the other side. It threw the artists out of kilter, spending so much time worrying over what to do with so much money that they couldn't sing."

Another precedent will come Saturday night when Caterina Jarboro of Wilmington, N. C., sings the title role of Aida. She will be the first negro prima donna in America.

Mrs. William Van Allsburg, of Coopersville, Mich., has a group of nine jack-in-the-pulpit plants three years old that grew to a height of 36 inches this year.
