GUARDS' INDIFFERENT TO CONVICTS' VAIN BEGGING

Three Inquiries Are Started Into Tragedy In Which Eight Negro Prisoners Were Asphyxiated

By Associated Press. Harlem, Texas, Sept. 8.—Three separate investigations into the tragedy at the prison farm in which eight negro convicts were asphyxiated in a dark cell Sunday night, are apparently under way. The four survivors were permitted to talk freely this morning and they joined in saying that repeated warnings of the conditions in the cell were given during the night.

"Men are dying in here," they claimed they yelled repeatedly to the guards, and that frequently the reply was, "You will all wish you were dead if you don't make less noise."

In behalf of the guards, it was said it was always the custom for prisoners confined as were the twelve men to make such cries and it is asserted the guards had no reason to think anything unusual was transpiring.

Three Holes in Floor. Justice Pennington visited the death cell today and started the probe. The party almost fell back, so sickening were the odors. This was after the cell had been aired for hours and lime had been thrown in. The investigators found three small holes in the floor. There had been a fourth hole, but it was plugged up. Each hole was just large enough to admit a quarter.

It is said three of the survivors passed the night each with his mouth glued to one of the holes. The fourth who lived had his nose to a small crack in the bottom of the door. Prison Commissioners Cabell, Little and Brahan were all at the prison farm this morning. In company with Manager Blakely of the farm, the investigation was started. Doctors Law and O'Farrell, after hearing testimony and examining the bodies that death was due to asphyxiation caused by lack of air.

Convicts May Not Testify. There seems to be a difference of opinion about admitting the testimony of the survivors. Assistant Attorney General Swenson believes that the convicts' testimony will not be admissible. He also says he does believe the guards can be held for their part of the tragedy.

Before two of the newspaper men they submitted to a test of the black cell. Although the door was open, two of them and the cell had been aired and cleaned, they said the heat became almost intolerable and that a minute seemed like an hour.

Dr. O'Farrell said he would not stay in the cell two hours for $1,000. Six holes were found in the ceiling. Each was just large enough to permit a half dollar enter. These holes do not lead to the open air above, they simply enter another chamber and do not give any great amount of ventilation.

The convicts were placed in the cell Saturday for insubordination. The cell is 8x10 feet in size.

Sunday morning one of the survivors called to one of the guards and told him there was a dead man in the cell. This led to an investigation and eight dead bodies were taken out, together with the four men that survived.

Judge Penn held the inquest and placed two guards and one sergeant under appearance bonds on charges of murder. They will have a hearing on Wednesday.

The four who escaped death did so by sheer brute force, fighting their smaller and weaker fellows away from the air vents.

The dead men, the terms of service and county from which each was sent, are as follows: Miles Berry, Kaufman county; three years for violation of local option laws.

Carlton Brandt, Garza county; two years for burglary. Robert Carpenter, Harrison county; two years for horse theft. William Campbell, McLennan county; two years for burglary.

Jesse Cox, Travis county; two years for burglary. Calvin Jefferson, Harris county; five years for robbery with firearms. Tom Read, Trinity county; two years for burglary.

Philly Pine, Kaufman county; two years for violating local option laws. Cell Extreme Punishment. The dark cell in which the eight men died during the night is the extreme punishment at the Harlem State farm for an unruly convict since the abolition of the bat.

It is eight feet long by ten feet wide, and its walls are seven feet high. It is mostly underground, all of it being beneath the surface of the soil, but two and one-half feet. Four vent pipes bisect the punishment cell.

Dark Cell More Cruel Than "Bat" Says R. B. Humphrey

"The tragedy at the Harlem farm simply emphasizes what many authorities have often contended—that the dark cell, as a means of punishment is more inhumane than the bat," said Representative R. B. Humphrey of Throckmorton county here today. Mr. Humphrey, who was a member of the legislative investigating committee of the present legislature, is in the city on business. He said he knew nothing of the affair beyond what he saw in the papers.

"Mr. Blakely the manager of the farm, is one of the most competent men in the prison system," continued Mr. Humphrey, "and he has the reputation of being able to get along well with men. I don't know many of the details of the affair, but it certainly seems to me that someone should be punished. The bat in all the history of the prison system, never caused any tragedies like that at the Harlem farm. I don't say that as an advocate of the restoration of the bat, but the dark cell is certainly not the way to punish prisoners."

Mr. Humphrey said that so far as he knew the dark cell in which the men met death was similar to those in other parts of the prison system, being simply a small unventilated room. He did not believe, he said, that it was the custom to put so many men in at one time, although the dark cell was used frequently as a means of punishment.

He said he had liquidated last week seemed to be rebuying.

County Commissioners Consider. The county commissioners at their meeting today ordered all county officers cited to attend the meeting of the court on the second day of the next term to discuss methods of making reports to the commissioners' court. Justices of peace are to be included in the citation. Reports of many officials came into the court such form that it requires much time to go over and check them. It is believed that a discussion of the matter between the commissioners and the officials will result in more satisfactory reports being made.

The commissioners this afternoon had taken up the consideration of bills.

EARLY GINNINGS RECORD BROKEN

TOTAL OF 794,006 BALES REPORTED PRIOR TO SEPTEMBER FIRST

TEXAS SHOWS DECREASE

Increase Believed to Be Due to Efforts of Farmers to Defeat Boll Weevil

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 8.—The greatest quantity of cotton ever ginned in the season prior to September 1, was reported by the census bureau today when it was announced 794,006 bales of the growth of 1913 had been ginned throughout the South.

The heavy ginnings for the first period are the result of an early maturing crop and an effort by farmers to beat the boll weevil, in the opinion of census bureau officials. All states reported an increase in the ginnings for the period over last year's total for that time, except Texas and North Carolina. Last year's total ginnings were 720,355 bales.

Texas ginnings this year were 649,694, last year 674,249.

Oklahoma—this year 494,312, last year 322,323.

SENATE NEARING VOTE ON TARIFF

MAY REACH ROLL CALL ON MEASURE BEFORE ADJOURNMENT TONIGHT

TAX ON LARGE FORTUNES

Amendment Aimed at Astar Estate is Debated—Other Changes Are Made in Bill

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 8.—The democratic tariff bill introduced by majority leader Underwood five months ago and passed by the House four months ago today may pass the Senate before adjournment tonight.

Good Roads Plan Fails. When the measure was called up today by Chairman Simmons of the finance committee, it was the intention to hold the Senate in session until a vote was reached. Leaders of both sides agreed the bill surely would be rejected back of the House sometime tomorrow. In conference, the measure is expected to be debated less than two weeks.

Senator Dillingham's amendment to turn back each State's income tax for good roads, with the provision that each State appropriate a like amount, was rejected. Foreign books were returned to the free list as originally provided by the House.

Senator Smoot moved to reduce the duty on cut, but not set, diamonds, pearls and other precious stones from twenty to ten per cent. He said he would not object to the high duty if it were possible to collect it and prevent smuggling. The senator held in his hand eight pearls which he said cost $78,000. His amendment was lost.

Urges Tax on Incomes. Senator Norris, progressive Republican, called up his tax amendment proposing a tax on inheritances graduated from one per cent on $50,000 up to seventy-five per cent on inheritances exceeding $500,000.

He said it was designed to break up immense fortunes. Senator Clapp said he would support the amendment although he believed the time had come when the government should go further and not permit people of great wealth, like the Astors, to take what does not belong to them from the people.

Senator Norris took the case of Vincent Astar to illustrate his amendment. He said the younger Astar did not accumulate the fortune of $80,000,000 he received from his father. Norris added:

"Under this proposed amendment the tax Vincent Astar would pay to the government would be $42,795,500. He would then have more than $36,000,000 tipped into his lap, a fortune made by millions of people of the United States, a fortune for the accumulation of which he did not sweat a drop, a fortune accumulated without an effort of his hand or brain. Such a tax would not be robbing Mr. Astar."

PAPERS IN NORRIS CASE

Attorney for Defense Springs Surprise by Asking for Them to be Produced

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 8.—Because only fifteen of the special venire summoned for the trial of Lee Weatherford, accused of burning the First Baptist Church, were left after a recess, Judge Buck adjourned court until two o'clock this afternoon. Meanwhile more veniremen will be summoned.

A sensation was created when Attorney Albert Baskin for the defense announced that County Attorney John Baskin would be summoned as a witness and would be requested to bring all the records in the trial of Rev. J. Frank Norris, First Baptist pastor, at one time accused of the burning and tried once for perjury.

The records in the perjury trial, when Norris was acquitted, are the ones wanted. The perjury charge grew out of the church burning and the writing of threatening letters to the pastor and to Deacon G. H. Connell.

LIGHT SHOWER FALLS IN CITY SUNDAY EVENING

Lays Dust and Cools Atmosphere—Rain Reported at Number of Texas Points

A light shower, sufficient to wash the dust out of the air and settle the dust in the streets, fell in Wichita Falls Sunday evening. Light showers were reported up the Fort Worth & Denver as far north as Quanah but they did not extend more than a few miles south and east. Saturday night however, a good shower fell from Fort Worth to Decatur. Showers also were reported from points along the Northwestern in Oklahoma.

Monday morning's Western Union report indicated cloudy weather over all of Oklahoma and Texas with rain at a number of places.

Among the towns reporting showers last night were Corsicana, Weatherford, Waxahachie, Sherman and Denton. In Oklahoma light showers fell at Hallettsville, Shawnee, Okage, Norman, Perry and Oklahoma City.

Last night's shower here came down from the north and was preceded by a wind which swept a dense cloud of dust over the city. Just before the rain fell these dust clouds were so thick that it was impossible to see more than a few feet and twilight was hurried into the darkness of night.

STARCH BATHS REACH LONDON FROM PARIS

Said to Impart Feeling to Flesh as if One Had Taken Plunge in Real Cream

SELECTING JURY FOR ARSON TRIAL

CASE OF LEE WEATHERFORD COMES UP TODAY IN COURT AT FORT WORTH

By Associated Press. London, Sept. 8.—Starch baths are the latest "cure," having been introduced here from Paris. A society woman who is recommending her friends to try this latest idea describes the manner in which the baths should be taken. She says: "All you have to do is to buy a pound of ordinary pure starch from your grocer. Then dissolve the starch in a saucepanful of hot water and pour the solution into a well-filled bath of water at a temperature of 95 to 98 degrees, but not exceeding blood heat. Then to take the cure lie down flat in the bath—with all but the face and hair, immersed—and remain there for at least twenty minutes. No more hot water must be added, or the beneficial effect will be considerably marred. Paris is raving over the stimulating effects of such baths, which impart to the flesh a feeling as though one had bathed in rich cream. A starch bath is restful and soothing to the nerves and leaves a delightful sense of exhilaration for several hours afterward. If you feel limp or washed out the starch bath will make up your crumpled shirt. The bath is best taken before breakfast or before dressing for dinner."

A London doctor said that he believed that starch would have a soothing effect upon the skin—just as powder has. He added that there would probably be some danger of catching cold if a full bath were spent in water of such reduced temperature.

MAN'S DEAD BODY FOUND ON ELEVATOR PLATFORM

Believed to be Taylor of Amarillo—No Evidence of Foul Play Discovered

The dead body of a man apparently about 26 years of age believed to be that of Taylor Beal of Amarillo was found Sunday morning lying on the platform at the Jones Grain Company's warehouse. The body was discovered by C. R. Brinkley who had known Beal at El Paso. Officers were notified and Justice W. J. Howard was called and made an investigation of the body and the surrounding area.

When discovered at about 7 o'clock the body was lying face downward and from a distance it looked as if the man were sleeping. There were no evidences of foul play and Justice Howard ascribes the death of natural causes or to an overdose of morphine or other drug to which it is said the dead man was addicted.

Julius Markey, cook on a boarding car in the freight yards told Justice Howard that the dead man had asked him for a meal late Saturday evening and that he had fed him. Markey said the man told him that it was the first time in his life that he had ever begged a meal or anything else and he seemed greatly depressed. When Markey saw him he wore a nearly new Stetson hat. This was gone when the body was found and in its place was found an old ragged one. One dollar and ninety cents was found in the pockets of the dead man and it is believed that this was from the proceeds of the sale of his hat.

Beal had been employed as a cook at El Paso and is said to have come to El Paso from Childress. His mother lives in Amarillo and wired Undertaker Hill that she would be here tonight to look after the funeral arrangements.

MYSTERIOUS LIGHTS IN HEAVENS ARE VIEWED

Wichitans on Katy Train Witness Supposed Meteors in The Sky Thursday Night

C. W. Bean and T. S. Freeman of this city saw the two meteors which chased across the skies Thursday night. The two Wichitans did not know what they had seen until they read Sunday morning's paper and saw where the phenomena had been seen at other places. Mr. Bean and Mr. Freeman were on a Katy train leaving Whitesboro for Wichita Falls.

"We saw two lights apparently floating across the sky," said Mr. Bean describing the meteors. They looked very much like air lights only they were of a greenish blue. They appeared to be connected and did not move as swiftly as meteorites usually do. I thought at first they were lights of an airship or some other mechanical contrivance."

O'SHAUGHNESSY'S PUBLIC DENIAL

SAYS HE HAS RECEIVED NO ASSURANCE THAT HUERTA WILL NOT RUN

CANDIDACY NOT LIKELY

Washington Believes Mexican Constitution Will be Invoked When Contest Begins

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Charge O'Shaughnessy's public declaration that no assurances had been given him that Huerta would not be a candidate at the coming election and the authoritative declaration here that such assurances had been aroused a disposition in some quarters to question whether Mr. O'Shaughnessy and the state department were working in accord, but officials denied it flatly.

Diplomats regard O'Shaughnessy's denial as being required by the politics of the situation in the Mexican capital and the administration's view is that Huerta will not be a candidate. The understanding is that Mexico City authorities will maintain to the last that the constitution alone prevents Huerta becoming a candidate to succeed himself and thus avoid appearance of having acceded to the American demand.

Negotiations With Zamacoia. Some advice to the Mexican government as to conditions under which Washington will continue negotiations with Senator Zamacoia now en route to the United States are expected to go forward within the next few days.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy's statement was not surprising in Washington, as it had been pointed out from time to time by officials here that they had relied only on the reported emphasis of Federico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, of the statement that Huerta was ineligible by the constitution to succeed himself. Mr. O'Shaughnessy incidentally disclosed the fact that the Mexican officials had supplemented the argument of the second Gamboa note, calling attention to Huerta's ineligibility by verbal references to that part of the note.

He also encourages the Washington officials that the Huerta candidacy will not materialize. They realize that Huerta could circumvent constitutional obstacles by remaining in advance of the election, but such an act, it has been openly stated by high administration officials, would be regarded as a breach of faith, and they are proceeding on the assumption that Huerta has been eliminated.

Huerta Afraid of Generals. The story that Trevino would be appointed to the Cabinet and Gen. Blanquet, the present minister of war, sent to the front in the Mexican army, reports that have reached here of the alleged infidelity of some of Huerta's military chiefs.

When Huerta recently issued an order redistributing his generals to various frontier points of Mexico the move was interpreted as being of military character and more recently Washington officials have been led to believe that Huerta fears the instigation of plots and intrigues among his generals and is moving them about to prevent any concerted action against him. Gen. Blanquet was the right hand man of Huerta in the days just preceding the overthrow of Madero.

The war department received a report of the killing of Lieut. Acosta, a Mexican federal officer, by American immigration agents at El Paso, Texas. The report contained press dispatches of the incident.

OFFICERS WATCH FOR MAN IN VAIN

ALLEGED LAWTON KIDNAPPER FAILS TO SHOW UP IN THIS CITY

ON WAY TO NEW MEXICO

Believed to Have Caught Train at Iowa Park After Driving Across From Oklahoma

The Lawton kidnapper for whom local officers kept a watchout Thursday night drove to Iowa park, according to the Lawton Democrat, where he took a train for New Mexico. Officers here watched for him all night.

The Lawton Democrat of Saturday has the following account of the kidnapping and the flight of the kidnapper:

Local officials were scouring the country yesterday for additional evidence in the Nesbit kidnapping case, and as stated in yesterday's Constitution, the theory that C. N. Andrews was the driver of the mysterious black car which swooped down on the little boy Thursday evening, was run to the ground, with the result that a warrant has been issued for Andrews, and officers will serve same on him some time today. The result of this work on the part of the police in discovering the identity of the driver clears up the case, and incidentally lays Andrews liable to punishment under the provisions of the above quoted statute, a section of the Oklahoma laws on kidnapping, the laws of the state providing that although a man does not take active part in the actual taking, the fact that he is present, aiding and abetting in the crime makes him equally liable under the law with the principal in the act, to a sentence of not exceeding ten years in the state prison.

The facts in the case, as reported, are that Nesbit, who is about 29 or 30 years of age, arrived in town Thursday, and about 10 o'clock in the morning went in to Snowhill's garage, and asked for a car to take him to Wichita Falls, Texas. He asked for some driver who was well acquainted with the country roads, and was referred to Andrews, who was in the garage at the time.

On being asked by Andrews what time he wished to start he suggested that they drive around a bit, and after visiting the railroad stations to ascertain what time the various trains left, headed west, past the place occupied by T. A. Rowley, parents of Mrs. Nesbit, and where she was visiting with the boy.

It was not until they were on their way out of town that the purpose of the trip was mentioned to Andrews. It being reported that Nesbit said, "The court told me to come and get him. They're going to take him to Canada in September, but he's my boy and I've got to have him." "I couldn't bear the thought of the kid being away up there."

According to Andrews it was Nesbit who sprang from the car and gathered the boy into his arms, at about five o'clock and the race was on. Residents of a neighboring house state that the cries of the child could be clearly heard above the exhaust of the speeding car, but Andrews states that the child's whimpering ceased after a couple of miles and Nesbit was addressed as "My Daddy."

After the party had arrived at the river, Nesbit made a new contract with Andrews to the effect that Burk Burnett would be the destination instead of Wichita Falls, but it seems that things didn't look good for a landing there, so they went on to Iowa Park. Here Andrews left them

MRS. W. W. LITTLE HOSTESS TO FAMILY REUNION DINNER.

Mrs. W. W. Little entertained Sunday with a one o'clock dinner in honor of her mother, E. E. Clayton and her sister, Mrs. H. W. Head of Sherman. The dinner was in the nature of a family reunion, Mr. Clayton having just returned from the Orient after an absence of several years. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Little, P. W. Nolen, H. W. Head, H. L. Baker, W. J. Nolen, Misses Cawley of Gainesville, Bertha Taylor, and Grace Nolen, E. E. Clayton, Cliff, Phil and Nolan Bulloch, Chas. Robert, Lawrence, Ruth and Dorothy Nolen.

to board a train for a point in New Mexico, presumably Albuquerque.

Arthur Nesbit and Mrs. Nesbit, who is 22 years old, were married in Estancia, New Mexico about five years ago. Mrs. Nesbit obtained a divorce and custody of Buell, the 3 year old boy several months ago and announced to her friends there her intention to go either to Fort Scott, Kansas or to Lawton, to visit with relatives, but in a statement to a Constitution reporter this morning, she denies absolutely that she ever made to anybody any statement that she was going or intended going to Canada.

She has just filed on a claim five miles out from Estancia and will go back there the latter part of the year, in accordance with governmental requirements.

According to her statement, there were several witnesses, who, besides herself, saw the man at the wheel of the black car on Thursday afternoon, swing down out of the driver's seat, pick up the boy, and lift him over into the back seat of the car, then getting in and applying the gasoline. They could not see whether the back seat was occupied owing to the fact that curtains were up, obscuring the view.

In the meantime, pending action on the case by county officials, Mrs. Nesbit will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rowley. Andrews was taken in custody by Deputy Sheriff Ike Summers, and after appearing in the justice court of S. Armstrong, was admitted to bail in the sum of $500.

Canadian Crowds Cheered Thaw As He Entered Court To Fight Being Deported

When Harry K. Thaw was taken from the county jail at Sherbrooke, Canada, to the courthouse, where he fought against being turned over to the immigration authorities, crowds of Canadians thronged the sidewalk in front of the courthouse and the steps of the building. They cheered Thaw as he entered and waved their hats. They seemed to be with him to a man in his fight against the New York lawyers who tried to have him handed over to the immigration authorities so that he could be deported to the United States. Thaw was serious as Governor La Force, warden of the jail, conducted him to the court room, paying little heed to the cheering, for he was downcast over his prospects of further avoiding deportation.

ICE COMPANY PLANNING 5000-TON STORAGE PLANT

Will Build Addition to Permit of Manufacture of Ice During Winter Months

Plans are being prepared for a five thousand-ton storage plant for the People's Ice Company. The contract for the plant will be let soon after the plans are completed and it will be ready for use by the beginning of winter. The storage plant will enable the company to keep its ice plant running throughout the winter, the surplus to be stored for summer consumption.

The storage plant will be 30x150 feet and is to be built of brick. The walls will be lined with cork. It will cost approximately $25,000.

A contract has also been let for the erection of an electric sign 42½ feet long advertising Schlitz beer.
The sign will be suspended from the smoke stack of the ice plant.

New York Faces "School Shortage." New York, Sept. 8.—Because of inadequate facilities, New York City officials today were forced to order 100,000 pupils to attend half time classes. Figures today were basis for the calculation that this year's enrollment in all five boroughs of Greater New York will exceed 600,000 the greatest in the history of the local public school system.

PHONES

AUTO
DELIVERY

Perhaps you have thought more than once that you would like to have the liberty of taking your choice of the finest meats in the best market in town. In other words, that if there was a meat shop in your family you would have better meats than anybody else.

You can consider my meat shop as yours if you want to for I will treat you just the same as I treat my own family. I would not send you any meats that I would not be willing to put on my own table. I am very particular about what I eat especially in the summer time. I take just the kind of a cut as you would if you came to my shop. They are all the same as far as quality is concerned and you can get this service over the phone or in person.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 8, 1913

The Fort Scott, Kansas, man who failed to land a government job because he failed to pass the civil service examination in spelling, geography and arithmetic, had better luck before the school board. He was given a certificate to teach school.

The Baptist Standard dubs our governor a "statewide affliction," and judging from the way both pros and antis are criticizing his action in using the power of the veto the Standard is not far wrong.

Thanks for the small sized shower of Sunday night. It was the first that had fallen in this city since July 21st and while it did no more than settle the dust for a day or so and cool the atmosphere, it is something to be thankful for.

"Using a shot-gun as a poker has its disadvantages," says the Bartlettville (Okla.) Examiner, in giving an account of a Kentucky woman who stirred the fire under the wash kettle with the family shooting iron. She made a handsome corpse, looked perfectly natural and the floral offerings attested the esteem in which she was held by her neighbors.

Just before sunrise on the morning of Sept. 15 the harvest moon will pass into the shadow of the earth and a total eclipse of our satellite will occur. At this time, as viewed from the Eastern states, the moon will be low in the west and will set just as the eclipse is beginning. West of the Mississippi river, however, the moon will not set until it has become completely immersed in the shadow, while in the far western portions of our country the entrance into and the emergence both will be visible. The succeeding full moon will move over the disc of the sun and cause a partial solar eclipse at about midnight on Sept. 29 but this eclipse will only be visible to observers within a small part of the earth's surface.

Our sympathy somehow is with Thaw. He was never crazy. If the State couldn't convict him for the killing of White, it ought not to imprison him on a pretense.—Waco Times-Herald.

Had he been tried in Texas he would have been acquitted. The people of New York State do not think and ac-like the people of Texas. They know that Thaw did the right thing when he killed the despoiler of his home, but were afraid to acquit, and committed him to an insane asylum. If he deserves to be punished it should have been given him like other criminals. He is no more insane, perhaps, than 90 per cent of the male population. At any rate, the fact that he shot and killed Stanford White was no proof of his insanity. It rather strengthened the hope or belief that, after having committed an error in marrying the woman, Evelyn Nesbitt, he had the nerve and manhood to protect her. If that is a proof of a man's insanity, we need more asylums for the insane.

MAKING THE DESERT BLOOM

Philadelphia Record.

It has cost $7,000,000 to bottle up the water of the Colorado River for irrigation purposes, but the money appears to have been well spent. About 175, 000 acres of dry waste land in the vicinity of Yuma, Ariz., will be turned from a region of fruitless barrenness into a watered area of extreme fertility, capable of producing corn, cotton, cattle or whatever else may be grown under temperate tropical climatic conditions. Orange culture may possibly be one of the leading industries. A great tract of country covered with sand dunes and sage brush, along the old Santa Fe trail will soon be made to blossom in the year round to the coasting distributed Colorado refreshment.

Of all the irrigation schemes undertaken with the aid of the federal government this Arizona venture seems to promise the most satisfactory return.
Grave engineering problems have been successfully solved in getting the water in the main canal on the California side of the Colorado River across to the Arizona side. This involved the construction of an 800-foot tunnel and carrying the water through a siphon sixty feet below the bed of the river.
Now that the work has been completed farmer emigrants from all parts of the country are rapidly buying up the irrigable land. Eventually the sale of the land and water will reimburse the federal treasury for the original outlay. The public money has seldom been expended to better purpose or with more encouraging promise of op-erant return and continuing beneficial result.

THE SULZER CASE

New York Post.

One thing stands out in all the manifestations in favor of Governor Sulzer.
They are intensely anti-Murphy. It is not that Sulzer is admired and trusted, but that Murphy is detested and feared. In the face of the grave charges against Governor Sulzer, which are so strongly evidenced and which he has not met in a way at all satisfactory, he could hardly have a friend—or, at any rate, a defender—in the state were it not for one circumstance. That circumstance is named Murphy. Hatred of him almost takes on the guise of love of Sulzer.

It is an extraordinary phenomenon.
Men are writing letters to the press and talking to each other on the street who completely admit the worst hat is alleged against Sulzer, yet who, in the same breath, declare that he ought to be appointed simply because Murphy is fighting him. "If you would rise," was the advice of an old politician to a beginner, "make for yourself enemies." But the most skilled practitioner in politics could scarcely have been prepared for the remarkable demonstration of the value to William Sulzer at this political juncture, of Charles J. Murphy's implacable enmity.

A Wichita Falls physician has declared that he has found the germ that produces pellagra. If he has he ought to take it out in the back yard and decapitate it with an axe.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Twelve convicts, who had violated some of the prison rules at the Harlem State farm near Richmond, were placed in an 8x10 cell Saturday night or punishment of their various offenses, and on Sunday morning eight if them were taken out dead, and it took hard work on the part of the prison physician to bring back to life the other four. They had been smothered to death, or asphyxiated, Gov. Colquitt has ordered a rigid investigation into the matter and those responsible will more than likely be punished. Such cruelty is more than the "bat," which Gov. Colquitt has caused to be abandoned, and it is not likely that he is going to stand for this smothering process.

HONOR SYSTEM IN ILLINOIS PRISON

CONVICTS ALLOWED TO TALK FREELY WITH EACH OTHER AT TIMES

NEW METHODS EMPLOYED

Old Ideas About Guarding and Handling Prisoners Have Been Supplanted

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 8.—Free speech behind prison walls—they dub it privilege of conversation—is as essential to free speech in public places as it permits people to "blow off." It acts as a safety valve, according to Edmund M. Allen, the new warden of the Joliet state prison, whose policies for "humanizing" prison administration are rapidly attracting widest head attention.
"It is the silent man who conspires," declared Warden Allen today, in explaining his order permitting convicts to converse with one another—an unheard of thing several years ago, and even today considered preposterous by many prison reads. "Force a man into mooniness by refusing to permit him to talk to his fellows, and he will occupy his mind plotting. Give him a chance to air his views among his fellow prisoners, roast the country or the prison administration if he sees fit and he will feel contented when he gets through. Kicking is a great American privilege and a convict feels like a human being when he has a chance to indulge in his heart's content."

The honor system, according to Warden Allen, will some day be in vogue in every prison in America.
He put it in force when the first gang of convicts was sent out on road work near Dixon under the new state convict labor law that went into effect July 1. Forty convicts were in the first gang. They will be employed on road construction in Lee county until December 1 and the warden declared the honor system is to be used entirely during the ninety day period.

"There is not a gun in the camp," said the warden. "Of course, the men I send out on road work are among the best prisoners and I would not be afraid to send them without guards to China, but I believe there are several scores more like them in the prison workshops. They know they'll get a chance at outside work if they're good and they are 'being good.'" Governor Dunne has agreed to commute the sentence of every convict employed with the road gangs ten days for each thirty days he is employed.

The new warden smiles at the suggestion that he is a "reformer." Apparently, he feels that he will be classified with the "vros" who enthusiasm over their appointment to warden-ships announces the adoption of reform policies—and subsequently abandon them. Allen knew all about prison life when he took the job.
His father was warden of the same prison when the present warden was a boy and there are "others" here who recall the youngsters in knickerbockers. One or two of the trustees still call him "Eddie."

The banishment of the "silence rule" was only one of a number of changes Warden Allen has wrought in his uplift policy at Joliet. Prison

BROADWAY HAS NOT MATERI-ALLY CHANGED IN THIS PAR-TICULAR

SOME RECENT INSTANCES

In Spite of Auto's Popularity, Horse Drawn Vehicles Still Largely Patronized

New York, Sept. 8.—The horse is coming back. In all sections of New York especially on Broadway and Fifth avenue the horse drawn vehicle public and private, is coming into its own again. The novelty of the automobile is wearing off along with the price and people who ride for pleasure are turning back to man's true and true equine friend.

With the horse the handsome cab is coming into favor again and they may be seen now in large numbers before all the big hotels and at the public hack stands. Five times as many horse cabs are in evidence now in New York as were used even such a short time as a year ago. Women shoppers especially seem to prefer them to automobiles and pleasure drivers in Central Park and on Riverside Drive now use horse vehicles more than formerly. There are not so many horses to be seen as before the days of the motor, of course, and there never will be again, but the automobile, as a recreation vehicle is steadily giving ground to the horse.

Along that part of Broadway known as the "Upper Tenderloin" may be seen a great many one horse victorias of the type colloquially known as low neck and sea going backs, most of them driven by negroes. They are innocent enough in appearance, as they stand invitingly near the hotels or pass slowly up and down the street, close to the curb seeking fares, but nearly all of them are in the employ of the half world.
Their drivers are in league with women of the street, pick pockets and keepers of Tenderloin resorts. Of course if these hack drivers pick up men or women living in New York who merely want to be driven home from the theatre or to some restaurant, they are decorous enough, but usually the lecher angle for strangers and little story from life will illustrate the ways that are dark and tricks that are vain in which these predatory night hacks have been caught.

Chinese backed off the boards and gasping for air.

A young man from somewhere out West stood at the corner of Forty-third street idly watching the sights of the Great White Way and wishing wistfully that he were a part of the gay and rollicking night life swirling past him, yet not knowing exactly how to go about it.

Along came one of the inviting victorias, with its low wide seat, rolling slowly, alluringly close to the curb, its rubber tires silent and soothing. "Keb, suh?" drawled the negro respectfully, touching his top hat of straw.

The youth thought that a hack ride would surely give him a little taste of the excitement he craved and he climbed into the vehicle. "Where to, suh?" queried the negro and "To the Park," ordered the stranger airily.

They drove up Broadway and in the glaring lights before several cafes saw numerous young women wearing slit, diaphanous and X-ray gowns with sheer grey hose.
"Wouldn't you like a lively companion for your ride?" asked the black man ingratiatingly and the joy rider believed he would. The negro explained that the women on the street were suspicious and not to be relied upon but he knew several nice young girls, any one of whom would be glad to ride with the young man.

They drove into a side street and a white man hopped familiarly into the hack without waiting for it to stop and explained that he was the employer of the negro driver, that he owned a bunch of hacks and was always on the job to see that his patrons had a good time and were respectfully treated. "No rough stuff goes in my carriages," he declared affably.

The stranger thought it a compliment that the owner of all the hacks should single him out for attention and together they visited several houses, where the youth bought drinks at one dollar for each person and inspected various women whom his companion called. Of course none of them were young and the man from the West refused to drive in the Park with any of them.

At the man's suggestion they started off down Broadway for a place further away and the "owner" suggested that the joy rider pay him then for the hack, his charge being only one dollar. That struck the westerner as reasonable enough and again he was respectfully treated. He produced a dollar and tipped his companion "off as, to the place where he carried his wallet. Half a block further his wallet was in the man's possession and he "saw a friend." He left the young man but assured him that the negro would take him to the right place. Soon they stopped at a house and the negro reported that nobody was at home. He demanded his money and the stranger told him

PROPOSES FEDERAL HELP FOR AGRICULTURAL WORK

Washington, Sept. 8.—A modified form of the agricultural extension bill, passed by the house in the last congress but which failed in conference, was introduced Saturday by Representative Lever of South Carolina, chairman of the house committee on agriculture. The bill proposes general co-operation between the federal and state government in experiment work at the various state agricultural colleges, with a direct and unconditional appropriation of $10,000 to each state for field demonstration and home economic work; an additional appropriation of $3,000,000 a year, increasing at the rate of $300,000 a year for ten years, until the total appropriation shall amount to $3,480,000 annually.

GENERAL CARRANZA OFF TO THE FRONT.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Sept. 8.—Following the reported constitutionalist victory yesterday near San Buenaventura, General Jesus Carranza left Piedras Negras for the front this morning to enter the campaign. Constitutional advisers say 100 federalists were killed while their loss is put at eight killed and more than twenty wounded. The great havoc among the federalists is attributed to the surprise attack and the use of masked machine guns.

Alberto Guardio's band is also reported routed after attacking La Tabla ranch and to have fled into American territory.

Sulphur Springs.—It has been announced by Secretary Kerbow of the local Chamber of Commerce that the prizes offered by the business men of this city to the best exhibit of agricultural products on display at the Chamber of Commerce rooms will be awarded at the close of the contest, which is October 1st.

Aldine.—A carload of figs was shipped from this place several days ago to New York. This is said to be the first car of the luscious fruit to be sent out of the state this year. The two big preserving plants here are running at full capacity and it is estimated that over thirty carloads of preserved figs will be put up this season.

Fort Worth.—Ten carloads of horses left this city a few days ago en route to Havana, Cuba, in charge of Fred Wolfe, a horse and mule dealer of Patena. This is the largest consignment of 500 Texas ponies which were purchased here by Dr. J. A. McLean and Capt. George L. Linn, representing the Cuban government.

Women Wouldn't Wait

One-third of all our Hoosier Cabinets taken the first day. Tomorrow night none may be left. $1.00 puts the Hoosier in your home. Better join the Hoosier Club early tomorrow

All for $1.00

We were surprised when so many women hurried to our store the first day to enroll in the Hoosier Club. We knew that these Hoosiers would go fast, but for so many to be taken the first day was astonishing.

We delivered the cabinets for merely $1.00 each; balance in small weekly dues of only $1.00, and now the new owners are happy, using their cabinets and enjoying them today.

Only a Hoosier owner can appreciate how they feel—the steps they are saving—the time they are gaining—what it means to sit and reach instead of walk back and forth all day long.

If you realized, as these women did, how the Hoosier turns kitchen drudgery into pleasant, easy congenial work, you would have your hat on the first thing in the morning and be the next woman to add your name to the Hoosier list.

Delay Means Disappointment

Women who keep waiting just a little longer to make up their minds will surely have to wait a long, long time before we can arrange with the Hoosier Company to form another club.

Join tomorrow, and you can have the comfort and ease and satisfaction that comes with the Hoosier, all these next months, instead of the poor consolation of wishing you hadn't waited.

If one of these new Hoosier owners is a friend of yours, we needn't say anything more. You already know its value. If not, be the first in your circle to make over your kitchen with this greatest of all kitchen helpers. You will find that you could start a little Hoosier Club of your own.

Saves Miles of Steps

Women see instantly how this cabinet saves steps, but only the users can tell you how many miles they save, as you will know the first day your Hoosier is in use.

OTHER NEWS FROM FRANCE

Aerial Signposts To Show Aviators
the Way, Are Planned As Latest Innovation

By Associated Press.

Paris, Sept. 6.—Senor Miguel Diaz Lombardo, European representative of General Carranza, leader of the Mexican Constitutionalists, directs the work of the propaganda from the luxurious apartment looking over the Avenue des Bois de Boulogne, which he first occupied as President Madero's minister to France. Ready to his hand he keeps a map of Mexico, upon which he marks out in black each part of territory wrung from the forces of President Huerta, reported by cable or letter.

Senor Diaz Lombardo is a quiet, earnest man, neither given to invectives against his adversaries nor to exaggerating the successes of his friends. He does not believe that General Huerta and his party are going to be overcome with ease, but he is full of confidence that Senor Carranza will triumph eventually, though the moment of his triumph may be a long way off.

While expressing the greatest admiration for President Wilson as a man of uprightness, a friend of peace and of Mexico, Senor Diaz Lombardo considers that the step he advocated, the resignation of Provisional President Huerta, and a clean-slate election, would not have the effect of pacifying Mexico even assuming that General Huerta would consent to it. The elections would be carried out under the present government and it was hardly to be expected that they would allow themselves to be turned out if they could help it. In other words the election would bring about no change whatever in the situation, and would not be accepted by the Constitutionalists, nor by the followers of Zapata, who though not actually co-operating with the Con-stitutionalists, have the same social, political and economic program.

Senor Diaz Lombardo points out that many of the customs ports are in the hands of his party, and that most of the other sources of revenue available to General Huerta are crippled by the destruction of means of communication. The total income of the Huerta government is now about $2,400,000 per month, most of which is wanted for the army, whereas at least $5,000,000 is necessary to carry on the work of the administration. If the troops are not paid they will desert, an eventuality which cannot be staved off indefinitely. In view of the prohibition by the French government of French loans to Mexico, upon which the Huerta government had been counting.

Aviators Lose Their Way Brutalizing des Moulins, the champion long-distance flyer, says that by far the greatest difficulty to the touring aviator is that of finding his way. After several years of study and experiment, the National Aerial League of France has devised a method of directing signs which will remove this trouble. This system has been approved by the French Ministry of Public Works, and the League authorized to put it into practice.

Many devices were considered by the one which appeared to meet all requirements in the best and simplest way consists in painting the figures representing the latitude and longitude of each town in huge white letters on the top of the gasometers in every town possessing a gas plant. The latitude will be to the north and longitude to the south. Thus an aviator flying over the town will know not only what the town is but also if he is on his right course, and if not, how far and in what direction he has deviated from it. In other words, he will be supplied with the same information as a ship's captain would obtain from taking an observation with a sextant.

The managers of the gas plants at Amiens, Toulouse and Nancy have already undertaken to place the signs, and the recent congress of gas companies pronounced in favor of the requests of the League. As there are 250 gas companies in France, every town of any importance will in the near future have its aerial sign-post. The League, however, will not be content with this; it contemplates placing signs in every village.

As the system is applicable to every country using the ordinary numerals, it is hoped that the initiative of the French League will be followed by every similar organization in Europe.

Graham Crackers baked by the National Biscuit Company have a flavor and zest all their own. You will relish them. They will nourish you.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY GRAHAM CRACKERS

Made from the finest materials and perfectly baked, they come to you fresh, crisp and clean—in the moisture-proof package. Eat them at meals and between. Give them to the children without stint. Always look for the In-a-seal Trade Mark.

10c

Mr. Rene Quinton, president of the League, has devised a series of figures after exhaustive experiments conducted from the summit of the Eiffel Tower. The outlines are somewhat different from those of ordinary numerals, notably in the case of 4, 9 and 8 so that they may be read distinctly and easily from a great height.

Branding American Goods

An antiquary in the Ministry of France has found laws of 1814 and 1892, never enforced, under which importations bearing trade marks must also bear the words "Importe des Etats-Unis d'Amerique" if, for example, the importation should be from the United States. A ministerial order has been issued declaring the laws in force as from January 1, 1914. The inscription showing the country of origin must be stamped into the material in the same as the maker's other marks. Consequently in the case of agricultural machinery, of which great quantities are brought from the United States and Canada, every part of the machine must have the phrase in French cast into it showing where it came from. Some of these machines have as many as 2,000 pieces, into each of which, according to the ministerial decree, the words must be cast.

The obvious effect of the ministerial order is to exclude absolutely all metal articles bearing marks, because within the six months allowed it would be impossible for the manufacturers to remake their patterns and molds. Even if years were allowed it is doubtful whether foreign companies selling machinery in France would find it profitable to remake all their patterns and molds and would not prefer to abandon the French market.

Protests have already been lodged with the Foreign Office, it is understood, by the German, British, and Swiss governments, and the matter has been brought to the attention of the State Department at Washington.

The while importing interest in France is excited over the government's decision, and the Minister of Finance finds on his table every morning piles of protests. It has all grown out of the desire of the French automobile tire manufacturers to exclude a German make.

How Detroit Boosts Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 6.—Fifty blocks in the heart of the city's business district today were given over to a display of "Made in Detroit Products." It was strictly a show for the "home folks" but other cities might well have had representatives here to see how Detroit is boosting Detroit. The exposition is being handled entirely by the wholesalers and manufacturers bureau of the Detroit Board of Commerce and will continue throughout the week. Practically every merchant in the downtown district donated fifty per cent or more of his window space for the display of the city's manufactures. For the housing of Detroit's motor car exhibits two big structures were erected in Grand Circus Park.

All vehicle traffic except that of street cars, on practically all streets at the exposition district, was suspended today and will continue throughout the remainder of the week. The committee of the Board of Commerce in charge today announced that the chief purpose of the exposition is to direct attention to the fact that Detroit stands first in the manufacture of stoves, adding machines, varnishes, freight cars, motor car sand parts, men's working clothes, drugs, aluminum castings and lubricators and that it has a great and varied production of other materials.

ANOTHER RAIN FALLING HERE THIS AFTERNOON.

Rain began falling here again at 1:50 this afternoon and continued to three o'clock. The rain started with a heavy shower which lasted several minutes and then settled to a steady gentle rain that gave promise of continuing several hours. Early reports indicate that the rain was general over this section.

Automobile tourists coming down today from Oklahoma report a heavy shower last night between Grandfield and Burkburnett that made the roads almost impassable. The roads are also very muddy in the Clara community, and reports indicate that the rain last night was much heavier in the northern part of the county than here.

In regard to Miss Jordan the Boston Monitor has the following to say:

"Miss Elizabeth Jordan gave a Dramatic Reading of 'The Little Rebel' on Wednesday evening, April 10th, at Irving Hall. Her impersonation of the several characters was highly entertaining and technically admirable. As a dramatic reader she ranks among the best—gifted with a charming personality and keen dramatic instinct she endows her characters with life and movement. Miss Jordan is a Virginian by birth and possesses that rich charming Southern accent which makes her work attractive. She is able to sway any audience at will."
