Lamesa National Bank Location to Be Modernized

Improvements Will Be Finished Within Two Months

New fixtures, complete renovation and remodeling has been ordered by the directors of the Lamesa National Bank, according to announcement confirmed Thursday by C. A. Hollingsworth, vice-president, who stated the contract has been awarded for the interior remodeling of the present location. The renovation will start Thursday, April 21, which incidentally is a bank holiday, and tentative arrangements will be made to locate the various departments conveniently in order that business can be conducted while the improvements are being made without interruption.

All improvements and fixtures are due to be installed within forty days. After that period the Lamesa National Bank will have one of the most modern convenient and attractive institutions in this section.

Under the new arrangement the business space will occupy the south portion of the building and the portion used for the various banking departments will be devoted to lobby space. A vault will be constructed in the rear part of the building and the one now located in the center will be torn out, thereby giving quite a bit of additional space.

New low-top fixtures will replace the out-of-date cage type that has been in service for many years. The new type will be of modern glass, metal and marble design that will add much to the appearance and service.

Floors will be covered throughout with rubber tile and a double front door will replace the present small door. The ceiling will be covered with acoustical board to eliminate noise made by the machines.

$37,435 Paid For Auto License Tags

County Tax Assessor-Collector Herr-don, reports that through April 1, there have been 2,966 vehicles registered in this county. The total included 2,452 passenger cars, 285 commercials, 202 farms & motor cycles, 25 trailers. The total fee to the county on those vehicles amounted to $37,435.25 as compared with $30,259.19 for '37.

The increased revenue will augment the county fund considerably. The 1937 registrations together with tax payments enabled the county to have a $10,000 increase at the beginning of the current year.

RICHARDSON STORE READY FOR BUSINESS

Extension, renovation and general improvements on the Richardson building, on North Austin Street, were rushed to completion this week and the variety and grocery store that have been operated under separate roofs by Sam Richardson are now housed under one large store building that is 50 by 90 feet.

Further expansion of the business is planned for the immediate future, when a brick and tile building will be erected at the rear of the building for produce and poultry. It is planned to use the basement while the building is under construction.

Mr. Richardson recently purchased the P. L. Alexander building, formerly occupied by the Dawson County Abstract Company, and added forty-two feet to the west end of this building making it the length of his former variety store location. A brick partition was removed and a basement 44 by 28 feet was constructed under the extreme corner of the south building. The basement will serve primarily for storage and an outside opening will afford a convenient unloading place for shipments of stock. An inside stairway provides access to the storage room.

New hardwood floors were laid throughout the new addition and the building was wired with modern diffusion lights. The display windows which are of the most modern type, have special lighting effect.

The variety business will occupy the front portion and new fixtures were installed. All the woodwork was re-painted in the store color of red.

A white stucco front, new canvas awning and large display windows give the establishment the appearance of a large city store of this type and is an outstanding project that is regarded as a worthy improvement in Lamesa's business area.

Mr. Richardson came to this city fourteen years ago and opened a business here that has continually grown

Brought to Light . . .

By HARVEY SMITH

About sixty local people are employed at Henningsen Brothers' Egg Cracking plant at the Kraft-Phenix factory in the north edge of Lamesa. Crews have been working in two shifts and the plant is operated day and night. The thirty-two ladies employed in the "breaking room" break approximately 450 cases of eggs daily. With 30 dozen eggs to a case, those girls are cracking 162,000 eggs every twenty-four hours.

The key men are Bill Howell, chief engineer and Pat Cartwright foreman and James, assistant and W. F. Hessler is manager. Several are employed in the drying and powdering departments. The plant has been turning almost at capacity for two months and will be in operation for at least three months, according to Mr. Cartwright.

162,000 eggs might sound like quite a few to some, but when you stop and think of the large flocks to be found on every established rural farm, then it seems only a few. Many families throughout the county produce from one to three cases per week with flocks of about 150 hens. One lady was heard to remark that her chicks and cream netted her $32 every month and she only has 150 hens that supply the major portion of the amount.

The sudden change in temperature last week brought death to hundreds of baby chicks and poultry in addition to countless dollars in damages to the early crops, fruits and vegetables, but from all accounts gardeners will be busy Friday when everyone will be planting on "Good Friday." Reports reaching the Courier early this week were to effect that farmers throughout the county started the week off in a hurry again preparing their bedded land for planting season and also taking precaution to check wind erosion.

Reports from cities to the northwest of Lamesa who received the worst of the recent storm, were to effect that snow drifts were 20 feet deep in places.

Apparently this county seat only received a sample of what others received. As far southwest of town as Patricia reports were to effect that snow was still on the ground in isolated spots early Sunday afternoon. That drifts there were four and five feet deep in places. Other reports from school districts were to effect that in many instances there were no schools conducted on Thursday and Friday due to the cold snap, but the temperature climbed almost as rapidly as it dropped and things in general were getting back to normal as early as Saturday. It will take sometime for shade trees to put forth new leaves.

Elliott P. Peter in writing, "Why Can't I Serve Two Masters," for a religious magazine Forward states that William James, that most human of philosophers, confessed that he would like to be handsome and well-dressed and a great athlete and make a million a year and be a wit, a gourmet, a gambler, a philanthropist, a philosopher, a statesman, a warrior, an African explorer, a poet and a saint. "But all this was of course, impossible. The millionaire's wish would run counter to the saint's and the gourmet and the athlete and the philosopher could not inhabit the same body."

It is surprising according to reports from various parts of the state and nation on business "Recession" that Dawson county should be experiencing the biggest building program since the years of 1923 and 1924. Not only are there more substantial dwellings being erected than in those years, when Lamesa is credited with one of its largest development periods. Business and residential development now is said to be at the highest peak. Considerable improvement is noticeable at local gins where additions are being made, and this perhaps is playing a leading role in making Lamesa the hub of activity on the Plains.

Forms were being laid for an extension to the Houston Street paving project to intersect with the Seminole highway in the north part of town and arrangements were completed lately to extend the paving project on the extra block. At present it seems that only the east half will be topped with asphalt, but this has been the cause of the entire paving delay. The entire project will now be topped after caliche has been applied to the north block.

WELCH H. D. CLUB REPORT

Six hands went up when the Welch Home Demonstration club was asked how many would make a frame garden this year, by Miss Phenix, Home Demonstration agent, April 6, in the home of Mrs. J. D. Gove.

A frame garden is the very garden to have where wind, sand and a shortage of moisture are the limiting factors to successful home gardening. The dimensions of the frame garden should be 5 to 3 feet wide, and any desired length. The walls of the frame may be 12 to 18 inches in height and strips 1 by 1 inch should be nailed across the frame every 5 feet apart to support the cover. A good grade of muslin cloth should be tacked on one side and some means for holding the muslin down over on the other side and ends. Prepare the soil with well rotted manure and spaded up to a depth of 10 inches or more. Watering may be one from home, tile, or even from a sprinkling pit.

Twelve members answered the roll call with a noted person who had an admiration for pretty yards. Mrs. Hoyt Sires was elevated to recreation leader. Mrs. Johnnie and Clifton Martin was appointed to attend the Dairy Show in Lamesa, April 15.

by GASOLINE CLAIMS

- The answer is so easy

Stifle that yawn . . . our story is brief . . . just four fast-reading facts to help you decide which gasoline gives greatest value:

1. The highest test gasoline without higher price is Phillips 66 Poly Gas.
2. Every gallon is packed with extra power units by the patented POLYMERIZATION process.
3. No other gasoline is so accurately matched to your weather all year round.
4. Millions of drivers have proved for themselves that it piles up miles at rock bottom cost.

If these four facts persuade you to try a tankful of Phillips 66 Poly Gas, your own motor will tell you the rest of the story . . . in a difference you actually feel in performance . . . a difference in what you pay per mile. Look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

METHODIST NOTES (Welch Charge)

Sunday school well attended Sunday. Pastor able to attend but unable to preach. A large attendance Sunday night and the play, "The Warm Heart" put on by Brother Pike and his good people from O'Donnell was enjoyed by all.

We are feeling fine at this writing and hope to continue.

Expect to be at Bartlett next Sunday. Sunday school at Welch will have Easter program next Sunday at 10 a. m. until 11:00 a. m. Come you will enjoy it.

Let all begin now to collect suitable material for Mothers Day program, second Sunday in May. We are inviting people of all faith to help us make the program. We hope that we may be able to use the entire day.

Come to singing each Thursday night. Since the pastor has lost so much time it is very necessary that each member increases his or her effort to make up the loss.

Our people have wrought well and have kept the work going in a good way. For which we are very thankful. Our desire and aim is that we make ours a friendly and a real fellowship church.—J. G. Walker, pastor.

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty 60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in—as well as easy to buy and run. There's a Ford dealer near you.

New Fire Truck Is Big Asset To City Fire Department

Demonstration Made By Lubbock Fire Chief Tuesday

A demonstration was made with Lamesa's new $3,800 fire truck Tuesday afternoon at the City Park when it passed the Underwriter's test and was turned over to the city fire department after testing 582 gallons of water per minute on the test conducted by W. E. Twitty, of the Lubbock department. The truck arrived and was unloaded with considerable difficulty at the Santa Fe siding in the east part of town last Friday afternoon.

Among other features the new truck has six spot lights, including a powerful front spot light that will reflect for a distance of five miles. The siren is also the very latest type and it built in connection with the reflector. A 200-gallon water tank and 100 feet of hose, 60 feet of ladder and rear dual wheels were included with the purchase.

The city has good fire fighting equipment and a good group of volunteer firemen, who are now prepared for such emergencies as occurred recently with the $190,000 damage to the Dawson County Warehouse. And with this equipment it is hoped to minimize fires of that nature in the future.

Mayor Marr expressed the hope that Lamesa will now receive a credit rating for 1939 that will equal the possible penalty that is expected to result from the big fire, which was the larger loss of recent years.

In reality the owners of the warehouse were paying an insurance penalty, according to reports, and the key rate for Lamesa may not be affected due to the fact the buildings were out of the fire zone and considerable distance from fire plugs.

Old Martin County Ranch To Be Turned Into Farming Land

Announcement was received here this week that the old Slaughter ranch located 15 miles south of Lamesa in Martin county, and one of the oldest ranches in this section, is to be colonized and cut up into farms.

Announcement was made by C. C. Slaughter, owner of the ranch. F. Z. Bishop, who has the contract for colonizing the land. It is reported the 25,000 acres are to be turned into farms, and it is estimated that 125 families will settle on the land.

Mr. Bishop is noted for his colonization work, and was the leading figure in settling a big section of the Rio Grande Valley. He states that he hopes to have the land settled within a year.

Baptist Sunday School Workers Conference Soon

Rev. E. F. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist church, has announced that plans were made Wednesday night for about thirty members of the local congregation to attend the annual Baptist State Sunday School Convention which is meeting this year for the first time in the western section of Texas. The convention will convene with the First Baptist church, San Angelo, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week from April 19 through the 21st.

Messengers will attend from over 3,000 Baptist Sunday schools in Texas with a total enrollment of 481,000. Among the local leaders who are definitely making arrangements to go include J. E. Barron, superintendent; Rev. and Mrs. Cole, Mrs. E. R. Yates, superintendent of the primary department and others including teachers and laymen.

Boy Scout Troop Of Lamesa Wins First Aid Test

Scoutmaster Leslie Pratt and Assistant Weldon Lindsey's Troop 23, which is sponsored by the Methodist church, took first honors in a first aid contest for the South Plains Council at Lubbock Friday night.

Troop 5, of Lubbock took second honors and Troop 35 of Spur, sponsored by the Rotary club, were third place winners. The other competing troops were also from Lubbock. Attendance was cut because of disagreeable weather and four teams in the Council were prevented from competing because of their inability to reach Lubbock.

Members of the local team were Elmer Treston, Paul Cameron, Allan Barnard, Aubrey Hardwick, Edward Jackson and Harold Pickens, Allan Barnard and at the patient.

A trophy, that was displayed in the Collins Dry Goods window this week, was awarded the Lamesa team and Lubbock and Spur entries each received ribbons. For the benefit of those who did not see the trophy, it is a bronze Scout Statute with the troops' identification engraved on it.

Troop 23 will compete now in the sectional contests in Sweetwater Saturday and if they are fortunate enough to win again they will be eligible for the regional contest at Dallas when Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma teams will compete for regional honors. The latter event will likely be staged immediately following the sectional event. There are twelve regional meetings scheduled throughout the entire United States.

Farm Security Plan For Family Of Five Revealed In Chart

Miss Gladys Wright, home management supervisor for the Farm Security Administration, has arranged a large chart designed especially for families who are clients of the Security program. The chart is displayed in the City Grocery, on South First Street, where it will remain for one week.

The chart is outlined to demonstrate a year-round garden for five. In the display are five groups consisting of leafy and starchy vegetables with other types, fruits and herbs that are good salad mixtures.

Seed and plants are demonstrated that are adaptable to the soil and moisture of this area and the display emphasizes the need of variety as a health feature.

This demonstration is very timely as the spring planting season opens this week and Miss Wright is stressing the variety in order that a well planned budget of fresh, stored and canned vegetable will be available at all times during the year.

A GRAVE IN A GARDEN

In the Gospel of John, the 19th chapter and the 41st verse, we have these words, "In the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulcher."

From the very beginning gardens have occupied a conspicuous place in the history of the human race. Man planted his earthly career in a garden by the hand of God himself. In a garden he first met and was vanquished by the enemy. It was in a garden that the second Adam fought His last battle with the Prince of Darkness, and won a right of way to the Tree of Life for all the children of men. Just outside a garden He made the final offering of Himself to God as a lamb without spot or blemish. Within a garden, in a rockhewn tomb, the mighty conqueror rested over the Hebrew Sabbath; and from that garden He came forth carrying in His hand the keys of death and the grave.

A grave and a garden seem a strange combination. In our thought we associate with the tomb all that is somber and sad, and with the garden all that is bright and beautiful; yet the glory of Joseph's garden was its grave. The world has long since forgotten all the other plants that blossomed there, but that passion flower is still filling the world with its fragrance and charming humanity with its beauty.

There are three great gardens mentioned in the Bible. The first is Eden with its serpent; the second is Getsemane with its sorrow; but the garden of Joseph with its empty grave and its risen Christ is the greatest of them all. Toward it, thoughts of millions will turn this Easter morning with gratitude and hope.

I would not want to go to Eden or Getsemane or to Joseph's garden without Jesus; but with Him we can pass triumphantly and victoriously through them all.

You will notice the text says a new tomb. Christ gives us a new birth, a new nature, a new life, and a new tomb. It was new because no one had ever been buried there, but there is more in this than we see on the surface. It was new because it was the first grave to receive the body of a sinless man. Good men and great men have gone there but not one without the mark of sin. Jesus only could throw out the challenge to the whole world, "which of you convinceth me of sin."

Again it was a new tomb because it was the first grave to be captured by its captive. Like Samson coming forth from Gaza, He carried the gates of death with Him to set the captive free. Death masters humanity, but Christ mastered death and made the servant of the Christian; and so to die is gain.

Again it was new because it was a borrowed tomb. We say at last we will all own six feet of earth; but His was borrowed. We borrow what we need a little while and purchase what we wish to retain. All that Jesus purchased on earth was His church and she is to be His forever. Christ was born in a borrowed manger; He borrowed a boat for a pulpit; He rode into Jerusalem on a borrowed colt; ate the Last Supper in a borrowed room; died on a borrowed cross; and was buried in a borrowed tomb; but these things He would need only for a little while.

Again it was a new tomb, inasmuch as it was the first and only grave of sin. According to scripture, sin is the mother of death. So before grappling with death Jesus slew sin, the mother of death, and carried her into her son's prison house and gave her an eternal burial. So "living He loved us; dying He saved us; buried He carried our sins far away, rising He justified freely forever; and one day He is coming again."

Yes, Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, was buried and rose again the third day. He lived to die. He died to live, and now He is alive forevermore. Because He lives we shall live also. So when this corruptible shall put on incorruption and this mortal shall put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying, "Death is swallowed up in victory." So as we come again to Easter, let us come with thanks unto God who gives us the victory over death through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Find your way to the House of the Lord of Easter morning and bring your unsaved friends, and let us have a great day of worship, consecration and soul winning in all of our churches.

With Christian love to all.

Mrs. W. K. Crawley left Tuesday for Throckmorton where she will visit friends and relatives this week.
