AAUP Enters Rainey Scrap At Texas U.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Relations betweent the board of regents of the University of Texas on the one side and President Homer P. Rainey and the faculty on the other "apparently have deteriorated" to such a point that a clarification of policy is imminent, Ralph E. Himstead, secretary and managing executive of the American Association of University Professors, said today.

Himstead plans to meet with the regents Oct. 27 in Houston to discuss a series of incidents, including the discharge in 1942 of three Texas U. faculty members.

Academic Freedom

Representing an organization whose membership of 1,600 includes about a fourth of all junior and senior college faculty members in the country, Himstead said he was interested only in seeing that "academic freedom" is maintained at the University of Texas.

He said Dr. Rainey presented last week to a faculty meeting in Austin a report enumerating 16 specific matters which the president declared had caused disharmony in the institution.

"We're interested in all of these things brought out in Dr. Rainey's report," commented Himstead. "The case of the three instructors who were discharged only foreshadowed what has and is happening at the university."

Faculty Referred To

The faculty members to whom he referred were Wendell Gordon and W. Nelson Peach, now in the Army, and Fagg Foster, presently with the federal housing agency in Cleveland, Ohio.

Himstead said he would arrive in Austin Oct. 25 to confer with Dr. Rainey and others and leave the next day for Houston. He plans to return to Austin to address a meeting of the faculty Oct. 28.

Joining him in the conference with the regents as an official representative of the A.A.U.P. will be Fredrick Edward Kester of the University of Kansas.

Commenting on the long-standing friction that he said has existed between the Texas U. regents and some of the faculty, Himstead asserted:

Matters apparently have deteriorated and gone from bad to worse. We will hear the regent's side of the issues involved and enter the conference with an open mind and a hope that the outcome will be a complete and satisfactory understanding."

Himstead said that in cases where the association concludes that academic freedom has been throttled the university or college involved is put on a censored list.

GOP Turns Down Coalition Plan

DALLAS, Oct. 18 (AP) — Texas Republicans today turned down what they said were coalition propositions by the Texas Regulars.

The Dewey-Bricker campaign committee issued a prepared statement, over the signature of R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman from Texas, which said "it is now too late for a mixed ticket."

The announcement made it plain that the only common ground for a unified campaign is in behalf of the Republican nominees, Tom Dewey and John Bricker.

Called Only Half-Vote

The statement, urging Texans to support Dewey and Bricker, said "a vote for the Texas Regular electors is a half-vote for Dewey. Why not a whole vote?"

The statement, which, according to the committee, was dictated by Creager over the telephone from Brownsville, suggested that "the logical course would be for the Texas Regulars to withdraw their ticket, organize as anti-Roosevelt Democrats of Texas and support the Dewey-Bricker electors.

The Texas Regulars, the Republican announcement said, had proposed that the Dewey-Bricker electors withdraw entirely, Republican support to be thrown to the Texas Regular electors; or, that both sets of electors remain on the ballot, the Dewey-Bricker supporters to cease active campaigning and gradually drift over to support the Texas Regulars.

Creager was quoted as saying that there were "quite a number" of Dewey-Bricker electors "who definitely would refuse to withdraw. No matter how earnestly I and other leaders might endeavor to throw Dewey-Bricker support to the Texas Regulars, a large element—the majority — would refuse." The method by which the Texas Regulars nominated their electors, the statement continued, is "legally questionable," and adverse litigation might leave both the anti-Roosevelt people and the Republican party in Texas without a ticket.

Recheck Reveals More Jap Losses

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Oct. 18 (AP) — Carrier planes swept northern Luzon Tuesday, sinking or setting afire seven ships and destroying 19 planes as a recheck of Japanese losses in the Formosa raid of Oct. 11 showed 37 additional ships and 68 small craft sunk or damaged there.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, in a communique today, announced that a reassessment of Japanese plane losses, based upon still incomplete reports, showed 915 enemy airplanes were destroyed in the Philippines-Formosa-Okanaya area from Oct. 9 to Oct. 15.

Another Atoll Occupied

Nimitz also announced the occupation by U. S. ground forces of Ngulu atoll in the western Carolines, 80 miles south of Yap and 210 miles east of Palau, Oct. 16. There was only slight resistance at the tiny group of islands encircling a lagoon about 22 miles long and 15 miles wide.

Nimitz said in the Oct. 11 Formosa raid, 21 more U. S. planes were lost with 31 pilots and 31 crewmen.

The additional Japanese losses hitherto unreported, were five cargo ships and 34 small craft sunk, and 32 ships and 34 small craft probably sunk or damaged.

Tuesday's Luzon Raid

In the Luzon raids of Tuesday two medium transports were sunk and five ships set afire and 18 planes destroyed aground and one shot down.

Action is continuing and further details will be released as they become available.

The biggest haul in Tuesday's raids was near Camiguin island, north of Luzon, in the Babuyan islands group. Two medium transports were sunk there, one large transport and a small oil tanker set afire and two medium transports left beached and burning.

One coastal cargo ship and waterfront fuel storage areas were set ablaze at Aparri, important port of the northern coast of Luzon.

The 18 enemy planes destroyed on the ground Tuesday were found parked at Laoag, in northern Luzon. One Nipponese aircraft was shot from the skies over San Vicente, on the northeastern coast of Luzon.

Additional Jap Losses

The additional enemy losses in the October 11 raid on Formosa were divided as follows:

Sunk — three medium cargo ships, two coastal cargo vessels and 34 small craft.

Probably sunk—one large cargo, one oil tanker, three medium cargos, five coastal cargos, one mine-

Powerful Wallop Of B-29s Is Emphasized

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP) — The Army disclosed today that B-29 Superfortresses on their Oct. 14 raid against Formosa, dropped almost as many tons of bombs as were loosed by six times as large a force of smaller Italy-based B-17 and B-24 bombers on the same day.

An Army Air force spokesman, emphasizing the tremendous striking power of the B-29s, said they flew a round trip of 2,300 miles between China bases and the target of Okayama, major Japanese aircraft repair and supply station. This is about 1,000 miles farther than 15th Air force planes flew to reach their targets in Italy and Germany.

Neither the number of B-29s nor the exact bomb tonnage was given, but the AAF official said "the comparison gives a very good indication of the effectiveness of the B-29."

U. S. Flag Of Trees Planned As Memorial

BROOKFIELD, Mo., Oct. 18. (AP) —An American flag of living trees is the war memorial planned by the Brookfield Garden club.

The blue field of the flag, 800 feet by 600 feet, is to be of Colorado blue spruce, the white stars and stripes of Russian olive trees, the red stripes of red maple, the halyard rope of yellow willows and the standard of evergreen. Each tree will be tagged to honor a boy or girl in the armed service.

Adolf Orders Home Guard Into Action

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 18. — Old men and boys—and "if need be women and girls"—were ordered to defend Germany with guns, swords, pitchforks, scythes and clubs as Adolf Hitler proclaimed tonight the formation of an armed home guard for a last-ditch defense of the Reich.

With Allied armies beating against the Reich from the west, east, southeast and south, Hitler established by decree the "volkssturm" (people's army) composed of every able-bodied German man and boy from 16 to 60 and proclaimed them part of the German Army under international law.

Himmler Chimes In

Then Heinrich Himmler, commander in chief of the home front, addressing the nation from a volkssturm barracks in East Prussia, ordered the defense of Germany by "every village, every house, every farm, every ditch, every forest and every bush."

Himmler was followed by East Prussian Gauleiter Erich Koch, who fanatically pledged Hitler "we in East Prussia will not retreat an inch."

Hitler's proclamation was read over the Berlin radio. The fuehrer, whose voice has not been heard on the air since shortly after the reported assassination attempt July 20, was quoted as saying:

Facing Enemy Alone

"Just as in 1939 we are facing the enemy alone. In a first enormous effort of our German people's strength we succeeded then . . . Germany's second all-out effort must and will succeed. Relying on our own force, we will not only break the enemy's will of destruction, but we will throw him back again. I call on all able bodied men to fight."

For this the German version of Prime Minister Churchill's call to the people of Britain in 1940 after the fall of France to "fight on the beaches and in the hills," the Nazi leaders asked for a "fanatical hatred" of Germany's "dirty Jewish international enemies resolved to totally destroy us."

"Never must a volkssturm man capitulate," Himmler declared in exacting an oath from each to "be faithful to our God-sent fuehrer."

Prepare For Storm

Thus the Nazis prepared the beleaguered nation for what their propagandists called the "greatest storm in the world history which is about to descend on us."

The Paris radio asserted that the home army already was in operation with its first task "the liquidation of foreign workers in the Reich" to prevent them from forming a fifth column.

Tonight the Moscow radio told the German people that Hitler's guerrilla army could not save the Reich and that "central Germany will be a battlefield tomorrow."

"There is nothing that Himmler, Goering or Hitler can possibly do to stop the final Allied onslaught against the Reich," the Moscow radio said in a special broadcast to the Reich. "The German nation is being called to arms solely for the purpose of facilitating the escape of high Nazi officials. The Nazis' last hour has come."

With the bottom of the German manpower barrel already scraped to the extent of mobilizing ill and one-eyed and one-armed Ger-

Ice-Laden Planes Pound Naziland

LONDON, Oct. 18 (AP) — Ice-laden Allied heavy bombers flew through freezing clouds today and bombed Cologne, Bonn and Kassel in Germany, while fighters swarmed as far east as Kassel on strafing expeditions.

The Eighth Air force sent 550 Fortresses and Liberators, and about 600 fighters on the mission. About half the bombers hit Cologne for the fourth time in five days, while the remainder cascaded destruction on Kassel, 100 miles east of the Rhine. Both cities contain industrial targets of great importance, including tank and truck factories.

Trains, Airfields Shot Up

Besides acting as escorts, fighters shot up trains and air fields in the Kassel, Brunswick and Hannover areas.

Bonn, 20 miles below Cologne, was hit by a force of RAF Lancasters. The city, famed as a university center, also is an important railway hub on the west bank of the Rhine, and presently believed full of German troops.

Other RAF Lancasters attacked the Walcheren island dikes in Holland, while divebombers slashed at communications targets in the Siegfried line. One RAF bomber and one fighter were missing.

Recent Session Of Grocers Said Illegal

WACO, Oct. 18. (AP)—Texas Retail Grocers association, alleging in a petition that the recent Galveston convention was "illegal," today sought an injunction in 19th district court here to restrain the Galveston-elected officials from acting for the association.

B. H. Green, who identified himself in the petition as association president, filed for the retail grocers' organization against "Julius Coselli of Harris county and others."

Green said in the petition that he had called off the 1944 convention due to wartime restrictions, and that his action was ratified by the directors.

The petition further seeks $5,000 damages for loss of membership fees and "other alleged interference by defendants."

No date has been set by the court for the hearing on the temporary injunction application.

Candidates Shocked When Lightning Hits

OSBORNE, Kas., Oct. 18. (AP)—A bolt of lightning struck in a field near the automobile of Thurman Hill, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator from Kansas, and Harry Anderson, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, shocking both severely.

Commented Anderson: "Well, when the boys suggested I run for office they told me the lightning might strike.

Venray Falls As Allies Cut Deeply Into Maas Salient

First Beats Off German Blow As Rain Mires Area

By HOWARD COWAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 18. — British forces with American armor on the right flank and rocket-firing Typhoons overhead, pushed through the Dutch rail and road junction of Venray today and captured two more towns beyond, cutting deep into the enemy's Maas river salient with a steady advance toward the German border and the Ruhr valley.

The American First Army beat off a small German counterattack at Aachen to the south and strengthened its encirclement of the great German border city, which Berlin radio commentators for the first time publicly wrote off as lost.

Rain Blankets Area

A great rain fell all along the Western front from Holland to the Swiss border, turning the ground into mud and making Allied advances difficult, but everywhere there was evidence of a build-up for a vast Allied offensive which a British Second Army spokesman said today may lead to one of the war's great decisive battles within the next ten weeks. The Germans were said to have no strategic reserves left.

For the seventh consecutive day American heavy bombers attacked the great German city of Cologne, a Rhine industrial center the size of St. Louis, punishing it with another 1,000 tons of bombs, and the Germans, whatever their purpose, began preparing their public for a great American land assault on this strategic city 40 miles beyond Aachen.

Others Advance

Elsewhere along the front, Canadians squeezed the German pocket on the south bank of the Schelde estuary down by one-third, the American Third Army in eastern France drove to within four miles of Metz with a one-mile advance, and the French First Army in the foothills of the Vosges mountains advanced nearer to three important passes on the route to the southwestern Reich.

British Tommies after taking Venray, eight miles short of the German border, liberated Veulen three miles to the south and Overbrook two miles to the southwest giving the Allies a 45-square-mile bite into the German Maas river salient since Oct. 12 and shortening the German front there from 15 miles to 12.

In this drive over the last miles of Dutch bog country for a firm footing on higher and drier ground leading to the Ruhr junction city of Duisburg, the Allied troops

Sweeping Red Dash Virtually Seals Off Nazi Balkans Area

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Thursday, Oct. 19—The Red Army has plunged across the Carpathian mountains southward into Czechoslovakia on a 170-mile front, cutting clear across the eastern tip of the country and placing the Germans in a dangerous 100-mile deep salient from which they must flee quickly or be annihilated, Marshal L. Stalin disclosed last night.

Moscow remained resolutely silent concerning the reported Soviet offensive against East Prussia, which German broadcasts said was lashing against the province's eastern borders along a 30-mile stretch and had reached the frontier around the German town of Schirbotin. The Nazis portrayed it as the biggest of all the battles on the eastern front.

Several Passes Captured

In a triumphant order of the day, Stalin said Gen. Ivan D. Petrov's Fourth Ukrainian Army group had captured the Carpathian mountain passes of Tatar, Jablonica, Lupkow, Ruska, Uzok, Vereczke and Wyskow, advanced 12 1-2 to 31 miles on Czechoslovak territory, and seized the north Transylvania town of Sighet.

By this great thrust Petrov's Army evidently joined forces with Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Russian and Romanian troops which had driven northward through Transylvania to the Czechoslovak border.

The regular Moscow midnight communique announced further advances for Malinovsky's men all across northward Transylvania from the Hungarian border at Valea-Lui-Mihai to the Signet vicinity.

Nazi Casualties Heavy

An early morning supplement to the communique reported heavy German casualties both in Transylvania and Czechoslovakia. It noted particularly that "the population of Czechoslovakia is acclaiming our troops with great joy and exceptional friendliness."

Having won the towering passes of the Carpathians and killed "several thousand Germans in three days of bitter battle against long-fortified positions protected by many mines, Petrov's men reached the upper stretches of the Tisza river and now had only downhill routes before them through the Tisza valley.

With Malinovsky's men they formed three sides of a great 100-mile square enclosing a large but undisclosed number of German and Hungarian troops—the latter of doubtful value.

Difficult Withdrawal

Other routes remained open, but the mountainous terrain and absence of through railways confronted the Nazis with a desperate effort if they were to get any sizable forces out to fall back down the narrow Tisza valley and thence westward into Budapest.

Aware of their peril, the Germans already were trying to disengage their Transylvanian Army, Moscow dispatches declared, but were so hard-pressed that they were having to stand and fight to keep the escape route open above Debrecen.

It appeared that for the most part that the Germans would have to write off as lost the forces in northern Transylvania, eastern Hungary and southeastern Czechoslovakia.

Hurricane Moves On Florida After Cuba Severely Lashed

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 18. (AP) — A tropical hurricane dealt Cuba a lethal blow today, sideswiped Key West and moved on to offer a dangerous threat to the southwest Florida coast.

Seven deaths and 300 to 400 injured in Havana alone were reported in the wake of the storm's passage over Cuba during the early morning, and a heavier toll was expected once communications could be established into outlying areas which were swept by 110-mile winds.

The hurricane whipped out of Cuba into the Gulf of Mexico, still pursuing a northward course, and tonight was reported by the weather bureau to be centered about 60 miles northwest of Key West.

Key West On Fringe

Key West was on the outer fringe of the strong circulation, and had 100-mile winds only in gusts. Steady winds did not exceed 80 miles an hour, and the island city apparently came through in good shape.

An 8 p. m. weather bureau bulletin, which kept south Georgia on an alert, said the storm center will pass over the Florida mainland tomorrow on the west coast between Fort Myers and Tarpon Springs.

All of the Florida peninsula was warned to prepare for strong gales, and possibly stronger winds, and the bureau extended a hurricane alert into South Georgia.

The weather bureau issued tonight this 11 p. m. hurricane advisory.

"Hurricane alert indicated 11 p. m. north of Fernandina to Hatteras.

"The hurricane is centered about 50 miles southwest of Fort

British Troops Occupy Island

ROME, Oct. 18. (AP) — British warships have seized Scarpanto island, midway between Rhodes and Crete, in the name of the United Nations, with landing forces meeting no enemy opposition, the Allied command announced today.

The communique said "Scarpanto, like other islands in the Dodecanese, is ex-enemy territory."

The wording of the communique appeared intended to make clear to Italians, who had occupied Scarpanto and most of the Dodecanese nearly 25 years ago, and to the Greeks who already are pressing demands for those islands, that the United Nations as a whole intend to take over administration of the islands until final peace settlements.

Greeks Whip Nazis

The communique said the Greek population of some 8,000 persons already had contained the German occupation garrison on Scarpanto before the British destroyers Terpischore and Cleveland arrived before dawn yesterday. Nothing was said of the size of the garrison.

The liberation of Greece continued evenly. Additional British parachute troops were landed without opposition. Allied warplanes hammered German targets both in northern Greece and along the escape routes through Yugoslavia.

An official announcement said German demolitions had caused severe damage to harbor installations at Piraeus, port of Athens, but that most utilities at the port were functioning.

Woman Finds Way To Keep Maid Happy

CHICAGO, Oct. 18. (AP)—A Los Angeles matron plans to "book" her maid for the duration.

Pan-Am Plans New Giant Air Transport

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Details of a new mamoth transport plane, weighing 92 tons and capable of carrying 149 passengers, were disclosed today by Pan American Airways in exhibit data prepared for the Civil Aeronautics board's joint hearing on North Atlantic route applications

Known as PAA type 10, the aircraft is designed for a range of 3,500 miles and a cruising speed of 288 miles an hour using only 64.3 per cent of normal power at 25,000 feet altitude. Its four engines would be rated at 3,500 horsepower each for takeoff and 2,800 normal.

In trans-atlantic operations, Pan American promises to carry 128 passengers by day and 119 at night, the latter arrangement including berths for 30 persons and 89 seats. The crew of 11 will include four pilots, three stewards, two radiomen, a navigator and a flight engineer.

Soldier Hopes To Get Away From It All

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 18. (AP) — Bert Swanson, Artlington, Mass., stationed at the Topeka Army Air field, has a postwar plan of his own.

"I'm going to fill my car with gasoline, stick airplane pictures all over it and when I get someplace where people point at the pictures and ask—what are those things with wings—that's where I'm going to settle."

MINING ENGINEER SLAIN

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18 (AP)—A young Marine apologized to a fellow taxi rider for failing to help unload her bundles, explaining he felt a little dizzy.

Pressed for details he said that two hours after he arrived on furlough from the Pacific he was told of a stranger who needed blood of his type so he gave a transfusion.

He declined to give his name, stating firmly "You don't give blood for publicity."

Johnson Tells Rally GOP Blocked Defense

CORSICANA, Oct. 18. (AP)—Rep. Luther A. Johnson, (D-Tex), charging that Republicans blocked every possible preparedness before Pearl Harbor, said today he believed if the Arms Embargo Act had been repealed sooner Hitler "may not have started the war."

The vice chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee addressed a Democratic rally here.

LURE SAID FAILURE

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 18. (AP)—Chairman John Fred Odom of the Democratic State Central committee today predicted "that the strenuous efforts being made by certain Democrats in this state to lure good Louisiana Democrats into the Dewey fold will fail."

British Eighth Nearing Cesena

ROME, Oct. 18. (AP)—The British Eighth Army's drive from the southeast corner of the Po river valley placed vanguards within two miles of the important road junction town of Cesena from both the east and south today.

Capture of Cesena would put the Eighth Army units in position both to continue their drive northwestward along the ancient Via Aemilia toward Forli, 11 miles distant, and due north along another first class road toward Ravenna, 19 miles away.

Bitter Bologna Battle

A furious battle still raged south of Bologna, the main German supply and communication inforced German units holding base in northern Italy, with re-the Fifth Army's American spearhead to a virtual standstill nine miles south of the city.

The Allied communique said the Americans had moved forward slightly and had captured Monte Belmonte on the Bologna front.

Although hampered by bad weather, the Mediterranean Allied Air force gave strong support to ground forces especially in the Adriatic sector, the communique said.

Greeks Wildly Acclaim Returning Chief After Grievous Suffering Under Nazis

By STEPHEN BARBER
Associated Press Staff Writer

ATHENS, Oct. 18. — The Greek government headed by Premier George Papandreou returned to newly liberated Athens today amid the tumultous cheering of citizens who had suffered grievously during the years of Axis occupation.

The premier arrived aboard the flagship Averoff, was met by members of his cabinet at the quayside and driven through the streets packed with masses of wildly excited Greeks.

Since the liberation of the city last Sunday a committee of three headed by Philip Manouilidis had governed the country pending the arrival of the premier.

Manouilidis, in reviewing hardships suffered by the Greeks during Axis occupation, said more than 500,000 Greeks were slain or died of privation.

In Thrace, he related at a press conference, 45,000 were slaughtered by the Bulgarians and more than 100,000 persons living in Thrace fled into Greece itself.

Manouilidis said the Germans and Italians shot a total of 40,000 hostages, and he estimated 8,000 Greeks were killed in guerrilla warfare, while 450,000 died of privation, during the occupation, mainly in the winter of 1941.

To this account of what the war cost Greece must be added 11,000 who died on the Albanian front before the conquest of Greece and 60,000 wounded, Manouilidis said. Crippling blows were struck agriculture with the requisitioning of livestock and the burning of forests.

The committee has ordered all citizens of Greece to surrender any arms and weapons they may have, with the exception of members of organized guerrilla bands actively engaged in fighting the retreating Germans.

Manouilidis, who lived in Athens throughout the occupation, talked freely through an interpreter. He said that one of the major problems the Pandandreou government would face on its return would be inflation, which is reaching new peaks. The committee chairman said he believed it would be possible to establish a new currency based on the existing gold reserve.

Limit Placed On Bale Weight By Compresses

Scarcity of labor and shortage of repair parts have forced the Texas Compress and Warehouse company and affiliated companies on the South Plains to notify ginners that no cotton bales "in excess of 600 pounds" will be accepted for compressing by the company.

Damage to compress and gin machinery is caused by the overweight bales and they are also a problem for handlers at the compresses, the announcement by the company Wednesday stated.

Normal weight of bales should be between 450 and 500 pounds, the company's letter to ginners said.

WPB Asks Cities To Curtail Lighting

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—The War Production board today asked cities to refrain from Christmas displays of outdoor decorative lighting this year, as in 1942 and 1943. The request was based on the short fuel supply in many areas. Indoor lighting in homes or stores is permissible, it was stated.

General Principles Approved On Cotton And Wheat Subsidy Plans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—The Commodity Credit corporation announced today that industry advisory committees have agreed on general principles to govern cotton and wheat subsidy programs designed to regain for this country its share of the world market and to bring about the sale of surpluses at competitive world prices.

Both plans call for payment by the government of a subsidy amounting to the difference between the domestic price and the lower world price. The CCC is authorized by the recently-signed surplus property act to dispose of surpluses in the world market either for cash or goods.

Textile Export Subsidy

Agriculture department officials indicated that a textile export subsidy may be considered later as part of the cotton program.

The CCC reported a two-day conference with the cotton industry committee that details of the program are to be worked out by a committee of six shippers and exporters.

Upon its completion the plan still must be approved by other government agencies. In principle it provides that the CCC might sell its cotton to exporters at a price equal to that of middling 15/16 inch cotton in the ten spot markets on the preceding day, less the announced export differential. Quality differentials would be the average on the ten spot markets.

Shippers could register sales within 24 hours with the CCC, then buy from CCC at export prices the same amount as replacements. Or CCC could agree to buy cotton from exporters at domestic prices and resell to them at export prices.

Subsidy Repayment

The plan proposes that subsidies must be repaid to the government if exporters fail to make eligible exportations within six months.

Based on the present Brazilian market, the subsidy would amount to about four cents a pound.

The proposed wheat program calls for daily announcement of prices at which CCC will sell its stock of the grain for export or for milling into export flour. CCC would be authorized to buy export wheat at domestic prices from exporters and resell to them at export prices.

Regulars To Hold "Council Of War"

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—State headquarters of the "Texas Regulars, composed of Democrats who oppose the New Deal and re-election of President Roosevelt, announced today that a conference of area chairmen will be held tomorrow at Houston.

Strong county organizational work will be stressed, a statement from headquarters here said.

Scheduled to attend are: E. B. Germany, Dallas; Roy Sanderford, Belton; Wright Morrow, Houston; Malvern Marks, Fort Worth, and campaign manager Merritt Gibson, Longview.

The "council of war," as the meeting was called by state headquarters, will be followed by a night rally with an address by Cong. Martin Dies of Orange.

Health Program For Schools Advocated

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Frank Williams, superintendent of Mexia public schools, today advocated a general school health program at a conference of a Texas inter-professional commission on child development held at the University of Texas.

Williams said teachers can do much by daily observation of children, inspection of the school physical plant for unsanitary conditions and by using bulletins of the state health department.

Statistics on a survey of 354 elementary school children in Austin were given to the conference. It said 58.7 per cent needed medical attention; 59 per cent visual attention and 92 per cent needed dental attention.

Ex-Italian Shipping Official Arrested

ROME, Oct. 18. (AP)—Admiral Guiulio Ingianni, former director-general of the Italian merchant marine, was arrested today on a charge of plotting to prevent Italian shipping in Spanish ports from falling into the hands of Marshal Pietro Badoglio and the Allies after the September, 1943, armistice.

The government also announced a case was being prepared against Gen. Fernando Soleti, who is under house arrest charged with aiding the Germans in the release of Premier Mussolini from Gran Sasso Sept. 12, 1943.

Report On U. S. Bank Claimed Buried For Political Purposes

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18. (AP)—Roland W. Bush, Farm Credit administration examiner of Houston, today announced his resignation and charged in a statement that an examination made of an unnamed federal bank for co-operatives was being suppressed "until after the November election for political reasons."

"I am resigning a $5,200 a year job so that this situation can be brought to public attention," Bush said. "The federal law forbade me to reveal the facts while I was a civil service employe."

Bush directed his resignation to M. J. Fox, chief examiner, and I. W. Duggan, governor of the Farm Credit administration, with headquarters here, and also made public a letter signed by A. C. Utterback, FCS supervising examiner, to Duggan charging pressure had been brought on him to suppress and falsify his report on the bank, and that subsequently his report was buried.

W. J. Snow, acting FCA governor in the absence of Duggan, today said that no politics was involved in handling of the bank report and that the FCA had decided upon a re-examination of the bank, which now was in progress.

Flier Who Evacuated Hundreds Back Home

LONGVIEW, Oct. 18. (AP)—First Lt. William C. Gruver, who transported by air more than a thousand wounded men, then one day himself became a patient in a cargo plane, arrived at Harmon General hospital this week after an air trip from New Guinea.

Gruver's wife, Mrs. Burnell Gruver, lives at Tyler. He has more than 1,300 multiple motor hours to his credit, and was the first casualty in his squadron. He was injured in an accident in a takeoff.

The transport was loaded with bomb denotators, shell fuses, and other fireworks, says Gruver. It wouldn't take off, and in an effort to avoid a crash he was afraid would have been just a hole in the airfield, Gruver banked the craft in a manner which jerked a red hot engine from its moorings. Part of his foot was sliced off and his leg was gashed as the engine went through the plane's nose.

Army To Establish Schools In Europe

PARIS, Oct. 18. (AP)—The U. S. Army is going to open service high schools and universities in France and England when the war in Europe ends so that soldiers may resume their education as soon as possible, it was announced today.

Seventy-five thousand teachers will be rounded up from the Army. Arrangements are being made with schools and colleges in the United States to honor army school credits.

CATCH SAME FISH

PLYMOUTH, Ind. (U.P.) — Carl Nelson of Grovertown and his wife, while fishing in a nearby lake, noticed a bite on their lines at the same time. Up came the lines—but only one fish. The bluegill was hooked securely in its mouth by the hooks of both anglers.

The Panama railroad and the steamships run in connection with it between New York and Colon are owned and operated by the U. S. government.

Some Like 'em Raw

SALADS
Keeping the Fruit Bowl well filled, serving fruit for breakfast and a salad for lunch and dinner, is no longer considered a luxury; for more fresh fruits and vegetables in the daily diet are now known to be a sound nutritional investment. Save labor and be economy-wise, serve some fruits and vegetables raw every day ... you get full flavor and all their natural vitamins and minerals.

Some Like 'em Cooked

QUICK COOKING
Conserve vitamins and minerals, cook fresh fruits and vegetables quickly and in as little water as possible. Cook until just done with some of the original crispness left. Do not add soda because it destroys the vitamins. Serve as soon as possible after they are cooked and seasoned. Use cooking water in gravies, soups or sauces. Quick-cooking is the modern method of insuring fruits and vegetables of finer flavor and greater food value for your table.

Have a Coca-Cola = The family welcomes you

... or greeting new and old friends

Unexpected visitors can be expected in wartime. Sons bring home their wives. Soldiers on furlough drop in without notice. New neighbors come to call. With wartime shortages, a simple but hearty welcome is best. It's what you share in friendliness, not what you have, that counts. There's no more friendly greeting than Have a "Coke". And you can play host on a moment's notice when you have Coca-Cola on hand in your refrigerator. Have a "Coke" says Welcome ... makes new and old friends feel at home with you and yours.

Coca-Cola

Texas Regulars Outline Strategy To Swing Texas Away From FDR

LONGVIEW, Oct. 18. (AP) — An elector of the Texas Regulars and the campaign manager for the party went on the air tonight to outline their strategy in seeking to swing Texas' vote away from the Roosevelt-Truman ticket.

Horace Blalock of Marshall, a presidential elector nominee of the party, in a speech prepared for radio delivery (station KFRO, Texas State network) said "we are first of all interested in defeating Roosevelt and his communistic masters."

"We prefer to do it with a Democrat," he said, "but if our course results in the election of Dewey, we feel that this is more to be desired than to have four more years of administration under the influence of Sidney Hillman, Earl Browder and Felix Frankfurter."

Merritt H. Gibson of Longview, campaign manager for the Regulars, in a speech prepared for the same broadcast, said "the Texas Regulars is the white section of the Democratic party in Texas" and that the September convention of the party (controlled by pro-Roosevelt forces) did nothing toward "restoring the Democratic party in Texas, as a white man's party."

He said leaders of the Republican party "in a conference in New York last week . . . conceded that the Texas Regulars have a better chance to win in Texas than the Republicans. As evidence of that belief, they have taken the $100,000 which they collected for campaign purposes in Texas and sent it to other states where the money would be better spent."

Electoral Vote Placement

Blalock, discussing the question of for whom the Regular's electoral vote will be cast, said:

"Let me say in the first place, that my vote and the vote of the other Texas Regulars would not have any effect on the election on Dec. 18 if either Roosevelt or Dewey secures 266 pledged electors outside of Texas on Nov. 7. The meeting of electors in the respective states on Dec. 18 would then be only a formality.

"However, if neither Roosevelt nor Dewey should get a majority on pledged electors outside of Texas on Nov. 7, Texas would have the balance of power.

To Seek More Support

"That power would be exercised by the 23 Texas Regulars electors.

"Between Nov. 7 and Dec. 18 we would try to get the support of electors in other states for a Democratic president who believes in preserving the traditional principles of the Democratic party. If they do not then join us, I would still cast my vote on Dec. 18 for a president who believes in constitutional government.

"If the other Texas Regulars electors did the same thing, the election would be thrown into the House of Representatives. There we would still have the chance to elect a real Democrat, or else the House might select Dewey and Bricker."

Guard U. S. Ideals, Newspapers Asked

CHICAGO, Oct. 18. (AP)—Robert M. Gaylord, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, today declared "In this day of double talk" when "all those talking about free enterprise are not for it" that the nation's newspaper editors "must be the guardian of our ideals."

"The only cooperation wanted from the press is adherence to the truth and to the ideals which have made it great," Gaylord told the 60th annual meeting of the Inland Daily Press association.

The NAM president, in his prepared speech to the editors, said that "people who 'talk out of one side of their mouth' to one group and out of the other to a different group are having a field day."

Asserting there was a "growing army" of press agents in both government and industry, Gaylord said "one of the most subtle of the indirect attacks on freedom of the press lies in the releases, handouts, and 'statements' that come from every source.

"Streamlined multigraphed sheets with details of all the 'news' are available in such quantities that the mere reading of them causes such reportorial indigestion that it is only natural to yield to temptation and write up the news from these skillfully prepared releases."

Original Manuscript Of Poe's Rue Morgue Goes Under Hammer

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—The original manuscript of "The Murders in the Rue Morgue," Edgar Allan Poe's grisly tale that set the fashion for the modern detective story, went under the auctioneer's hammer tonight.

Twice rescued from the rubbish heap, saved three times from fire, this first American detective story is one of 269 literary treasures which Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, is selling through Parke-Bernet galleries.

Poe's Rue Morgue story — the original title, "The Murders in the Rue Trianon Bac," is neatly scratched out of the manuscript —is the one which introduces C. Auguste Dupin, the detective whose "method" was perfected by Sherlock Holmes and followed by a host of other fictional sleuths from Philo Vance to Nero Wolfe.

First published in 1841, the manuscript, in Poe's firm, neat handwriting, was plucked from a waste-basket by J. M. Johnston, later a hotel keeper and pioneer photographer in Lancaster, Pa.

Johnston had it bound in the present two volumes after rediscovering it in an old music book which he was about to throw away. Previously his father, unknowingly, had carried it on long trips, and three times it was unscorched in fires that destroyed other papers in the same room.

There is no record of what Poe was paid for the story, but later in 1841 he offered it and 32 other tales to a book publisher—in exchange for 20 free copies. To make the irony complete, the publisher turned down the offer.

NO CERTIFICATE NEEDED FOR THESE "SPARES"

Keep spare lamp bulbs on hand in your home to replace burnouts as soon as they occur. Most electric dealers now have bulbs in all common home sizes. You need no points, coupons or certificates to buy them —never did, in fact. So don't be without light these dark fall days and longer evenings.

It costs you little to have light in your home where you need it. You can be sure you are getting all you pay for if you keep your home lighting equipment in shape this way:

Begin by putting the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each lamp or fixture. Then keep the shades and diffusing bowls, as well as the bulbs, free of dust and dirt.

Use white or light-lined shades on your lamps, to reflect more usable light.

Move lamps closer to points of use, to shed more light directly on the work. You can often increase their usefulness by rearranging furniture so that one lamp will serve two people.

Your eyes need the correct amount of diffused light to perform difficult seeing tasks like reading or sewing without strain. Now is the time to see that your home lighting equipment can furnish proper illumination.

HALLOWE'EN FUND

WE HAVEN'T checked with Mrs. Grace Dyess, city recreation chairman, but we're wondering if anyone is planning to follow a suggestion made by the council and hold informal open houses for their children or for young friends Hallowe'en following the downtown parade?

Men and women are really just children—grown up—you know, and seldom so stuffed-shirt they don't enjoy good old-fashioned fun. Hallowe'en is the youngsters' favorite party time. But why should they have all the excitement of this black magic celebration? Why not combine business and pleasure and end your next club or church meeting with some Hallowe'en merry making?

The decorations and refreshments shouldn't be fancy in these times. This beloved old American custom literally features simple time-honored "fixins"—black cats, pumpkin jack-o-lanterns, orange crepe paper streamers. Folks big and little still get a kick out of these and out of old time Pilgrim palate-pleasers like cider, popcorn, apples and nuts.

• • •

YOU might serve a cider punch and fix an attractive canape tray to go with it. Besides the usual carrot sticks, stuffed celery and olives, here's a suggestion for a new hors d'oeuvre to give your tray that extra something — in looks and flavor. One-half cup shortening, one half cream cheese, one and one-half cups enriched flour, one-half teaspoon salt, if desired, salted peanuts, finely chopped and butter.

Cream shortening and cream cheese. Work in flour and salt, sifted together. Chill. Roll to 1-8 inch thickness. Cut in strips one-half inch wide. Brush with melted butter, twist and roll in finely chopped peanuts. Bake in a pre-heated oven.

• • •

By the way, you might place alternating tablespoons of vanilla ice cream and chocolate pudding in a parfait glass, to give the kiddies a thrill. Serve with orange colored cookies.

• • •

TIMIDITY TEST

TIMID people who give up too easily remain routine workers neglecting their own interests, says psychologist Dr. Donald A. Laird. They are pleasant to have around, but unambitious.

On the other hand, those who are over-confident are likely also to be over-critical. They enjoy being bosses, but are usually too bossy to be successful ones. They are also difficult to live with.

• • •

1. Are you inclined to talk about your aches and troubles?
2. Are you easily upset by criticism?
3. Do some people seem to enjoy slighting you?
4. Do you enjoy talking about things you've done, people you've seen?
5. Do you ever try to make others feel small?
6. Do you often think others are talking about you?
7. Would you shop elsewhere if you disliked a certain sales clerk?
8. Are there some thing about you you wish people wouldn't mention?
9. Would you resign from a club if you disliked the president?
10. Do you often disagree with other people's opinions?
11. Do you watch for mistakes in people around you?
12. Do you try to dress better than your friends and associates?

• • •

THE average person, says Dr. Laird, has at least five "Yes" answers. If your score is lower than that, watch out . . . you're too timid.

If your score is very high, you may have a better job and more prominence, but you rarely get much fun out of life. To be happy and popular, you'd better overcome that innate feeling of hostility towards people and learn to appreciate, instead, their good qualities, Dr. Laird suggests.

Public Warning!

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Wartime living conditions may be the cause of spreading Pin-Worm infection. Scientific reports in many communities have shown as least one-third of the examined children and grown-ups to be victims of Pin-Worms—often without knowing what was wrong!

Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself: the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch, the uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous fidgeting, finicky appetite.

New Discovery Hailed By Doctors

After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a new and highly effective way to deal with this stubborn pest has recently been discovered. This scientific discovery, hailed by medical authorities, is a remarkable drug (gentian violet). It is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to destroy the creatures.

So don't take chances with Pin-Worms. At the first warning sign, ask your druggist for P-W, and follow the directions.

P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Mesdames Crowlie, Seawell To Visit

When Mrs. Philip L. Crowlie, community service officer of the OPA department of information, Washington, D. C., visits here Friday she will be accompanied by Mrs. Manon Seawell, who is with the consumer group service and stationed at the regional office in Dallas. They will attend a war service program at Seaman hall which is under sponsorship of the City and County Federations and the Parent-Teacher council. Mrs. Crowlie is to speak on the program theme for the day: "Price Control Through the Reconversion Period."

Business meetings of the federations are scheduled for 9:30 o'clock and the program opens an hour later with Mrs. T. Euel presiding and Mrs. Ida Farris leading in the salute to the flag. Miss Ruth Towne will lead group singing, accompanied by Mrs. Don Mitchell.

After Mrs. Crowlie's talk, a question period will be conducted and a covered dish luncheon will follow.

Mrs. J. H. Hankins, president of the County Federation, will preside for the afternoon session which will include a solo by Mrs. Gordon Treadway, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Webster and a panel discussion led by Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent, and in which Dr. Mina Wolf Lamb, Mrs. R. O. Bennett and Mrs. O. R. Copeland will take part.

Mrs. Crowlie is coming to Lubbock from El Paso and on this tour she will speak in Austin, Port Arthur, Houston, Little Rock, Hot Springs, New Orleans and Shreveport.

Miss Howard To Be Honored By Council

A reception, sponsored by Texas Tech Student Religious council of which Miss Maxine Deardorff, is president, will be given tonight at 7 o'clock in honor of Miss Mary Howard, traveling secretary of the World Student Service fund and graduate of Wheaton college, Norton, Mass. Miss Howard is here for a two-day stay on the Tech campus to solicit funds to further work of the organization. The reception will be at the First Christian church.

The World Student Service fund, it is said, provides relief for students and professors who are victims of war, is the American student's part in the world enterprise of student-to-student help, and provides aid on a non-pre- judicial basis.

Clara Pratt Speaks To Hurlwood HD Club

"Wall paper in large, bold design with strong contracting colors tends to fill up a room and make it look smaller," Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent, told the Hurlwood Home Demonstration club members Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. F. Williamson, home improvement demonstrator.

Miss Pratt continued, "Inconspicuous design and subdued colors are best suited to small rooms."

The members voted to unite with the county federation.

Mrs. Williamson reported that her biggest accomplishment was re-working the cushions in the upholstered chairs.

Members present were Mesdames G. K. Horton, C. E. Moreman, C. M. Eoff, J. P. Pace, P. C. Mitchell, W. A. Martin, J. A. Burroughs, V. L. Cade, C. R. Moore, L. V. Preston and L. E. Huffaker.

AAUW Course May Be Organized Tonight

A class in parliamentary law is to be organized at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. Ethel Terrell, 1915 Ninth, if enough women attend to warrant continuation. The Lubbock branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring the course which will be taught by Mrs. H. F. Godeke.

Members of the AAUW, or those who are not members of the organization but are interested in the class, are invited to telephone Mrs. Terrell, 9938, sometime today.

Randall Bridwell Is Honored At Party

Randall Bridwell was honored with a party on his eighth birthday Wednesday afternoon when his mother, Mrs. H. L. McClinton entertained in their home, 2112 Ninth.

A Hallowe'en theme was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Those present were Delinabeth Connell, Medford Hunt, Ray Weed, William Sinclair, Bobby Brown, Nolan Vincent, Charles Gallimore, Jack Lynn Bridwell and Delbert McClinton.

Four Needle Clubs Hold Sessions

Members present were Mesdames C. B. Lively, H. H. Panninger, Levi Duncan, Lester Cooper, Paul Warren, C. R. McLaurin, Glenn Hammonds and C. R. Rodgers.

• • •

Members of the Arnett-Benson Needle club filled two boxes of gifts to be sent to wounded soldiers at McClosky General Hospital in Temple, when they met with Mrs. G. W. May, 2519 Elm. Two more boxes will be filled Nov. 1 at the all day Red Cross session to be held at the Locust Street Chapel.

Work was done on a quilt for the Red Cross and members attending were Mesdames R. P. Housouer, A. N. Johnson, L. W. Parker, A. L. Cranfill, J. E. Reid, C. R. Minor and C. C. Heatley. Guests present were Mesdames Charles Noble, Floyd Tapp and E. E. Wright.

Plainview HD Club Elects New Officers

Plainview Home Demonstration club members elected new officers Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. S. C. Rawlings, 2516 Twenty-third.

They were: Mrs. Ralph Robinson, president; Mrs. L. A. Peeples, vice president and program chairman (re-election); Mrs. O. H. Mitchell, secretary-treasurer (re-election); Mesdames C. A. Tisdell, T. C. Hudson and T. A. Hulin, council members.

Mrs. Hudson was program leader of a program based on "Save Precious Hours." Mrs. Rawlings discussed "A Plan of Work;" Mrs. Tisdell talked on "The Home of Tomorrow" and Mrs. J. M. Caddell on "How Do You Iron?"

Mrs. Robinson read "Lubbock County Crops."

A game, "Excuses," was played. Refreshments were served to those mentioned, to a visitor, Mrs. Ralph Guthrie and three other members, Mesdames M. H. Kinard, sr., J. L. Moore and H. F. Williams.

The Nov. 7 meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Caddell.

MEETING PLACE CHANGED

Meeting place of the Lubbock Garden club has been changed from the Hilton to the east ballroom of the Hotel Lubbock at 3 p. m. Friday. Mrs. Herbert Mueller will give a travel talk illustrated with slides on Guatemala and other southern neighboring countries. Mrs. Mueller and Lt. Mueller, flight instructor at SPAAF, have traveled extensively and have taken pictures of interesting scenes as a hobby.

SMART-CANNON

Mrs. Ector Greene Cannon and Charles Smart were married at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the home of the officiating evangelist, F. S. Vance, 1707 Twenty-first.

Brothers-Grizzle Wedding Is Read

Miss Oma May Grizzle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Grizzle, Route 2, became the bride of S-Sgt. Leonard M. Brothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Brothers, Route 2, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Jack Welch read the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a tan suit and brown accessories with a corsage of red roses. She was attended by Miss Lola May Brothers, maid of honor and sister of the bridegroom, who wore a tan suit and green accessories with a corsage of white carnations.

Morris Grizzle, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Only families of the wedding couple attended.

A reception followed the ceremony and a two tiered wedding cake was served from a table laid with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of red roses.

The couple are in Lubbock for the remainder of S-Sgt. Brothers' furlough. He recently returned from the European theatre after seven months stationed with the 15th Air Force. He is to report to Miami, Fla.

MEMBERS MAKE CURTAINS

Eleven members made curtains for the Redeemer Lutheran church's recreation room when the Ladies aid met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Wallace Klatt. Refreshments were served.

To Relieve Bad Cough In a Hurry, Mix This at Home

Swift Acting, and Saves Big Money. Easily Mixed.

You'll be surprised how quickly an easily you can relieve coughs due to colds, when you try this splendid recipe, mixed in your own kitchen. It gives you about four times as much cough syrup for your money, and you'll find it wonderful, for real relief.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's no trouble at all. (You can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) Then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (obtained from any druggist) into a pint bottle. Add your syrup and you have a full pint of medicine that will amaze you by its quick action. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it.

This simple mixture takes right hold of a cough. For real results, you've never seen anything better. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

HOW TO RUIN DRESSES AND LOSE FRIENDS

IT'S tragic how some girls lose their friends and ruin their dresses because of perspiration odor and stains. And there's no excuse for it. It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends.

Use Arrid, the new cream deodorant that helps keep your armpits dry and removes the odor from perspiration. Arrid is safe and dependable for these five reasons:

1. Arrid does not irritate skin. Does not rot dresses or men's shirts.
2. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.
3. A pure, white, antiseptic, stainless vanishing cream.
4. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering — harmless to fabric. Use Arrid regularly.

Arrid is the largest selling deodorant. Sold at all stores selling toilet goods — 39c and 59c a jar. (Plus Tax)

Nazi Desperation In Face Of New Blows Seen In Decree By Hitler

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

There is more than a hint of Nazi desperation in the new Hitler total mobilization decree calling all male civilians from 16 to 60 years of age to arms for a home guard defense of the Reich. Its effect on German public morale is open to question for its offers in Hitler's own words little prospect of keeping converging Russian and Allied armies off German soil.

"Relying on our own force, we wil not only break the enemy will be destruction, but we will throw him back again," the man who led them into that closing trap told his people, already bled white.

That is a far cry from the bombastic Hitler utterances of the past. It summons all able-bodied males in Germany to fight—for what? Not victory; but escape from total destruction. And it is only the total destruction of Nazism and its brutal, blood stained authors in Germany to which advancing armies of the United Nations stand pledged. It is to save himself and his like from the fate that surely awaits them that Hitler is now asking the German people to fight to the death.

New Blows Impending

The decree also lends official Nazi confirmation to radio warnings by Nazi military commentators that the supreme Allied-Russain attack from west and east is impending.

"The enemy believed that he could get ready for the last knockout blow," it said adding that the home guard it created "will defend our home soil with all weapons and all means, insofar as they are suitable to that purpose."

Just what that final reservation as to weapons of defense may mean is difficult to say. It could be a face-saving cover up for the non-appearance of the super V-type mystery weapons so long foretold by Nazi propagandists. Robot bombs certainly would not be "suitable" for defensive use on German soil.

Howitzer Destroys Two German Tanks

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY, France, Oct. 18. (AP)—When an air spotter reported a large and small German tank close together about seven miles behind enemy lines recently it was decided to let a 240-millimeter howitzer battery commanded by Capt. J. M. Kraft of Fort Smith, Ark., have a go at them.

Firing shells weighing more than 350 pounds, the howitzers ordinarily are not regarded as anti-tank weapons. But the second round hit the heavy tank directly on the turret, and the flare of the explosion fired the smaller tank a few yards away.

"Since then," Kraft lamented, "we haven't been able to find two tanks together, and we can't afford to fire $900 shells at single ones."

Applications Filed For Helicopter Lines

DENVER, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Post-war accomodations were really underway in Denver today.

The Greyhound Skyways, Inc., an affiliate of Greyhound Bus lines, has filed the first application with the state public utilities commission, to operate a helicopter passenger service.

Seven passenger helicopters would operate from Kansas to Denver, via Burlington and Limon, and to New Mexico by way of Colorado Springs, Pueblo, and Trinidad. Other routes would follow U. S. highway 50 from Kansas east to La Junta and U. S. 350 to Trinidad.

This service would be available for charter and taxi service and will follow the route traveled by Southwestern buses.

Big Bertha's Shell Lands Near Patton

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY, France, Oct. 18. (AP)—A 700-pound shell from one of the new, huge railway guns wheeled up by the Germans landed today within eight feet of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, jr., but it was a dud and the Third Army commander was uninjured.

The projectile was one of many which have been tossed loosely over a wide area of this front for some weeks.

Playing hide and seek in the area from Metz to Nancy, it fires a few hours in one area and a few hours in another. Until today there has been censorship on mention of the weapon.

Reports this morning said shells were landing in the area of Pont-A-Mousson, midway between Nancy and Metz.

The Germans moved up the gun, which may date from the first World war, when the front was stabilized. Firing at a range of more than 30 miles, the gun is extremely inaccurate and the crew is lucky if it hits within a mile of where it is aimed. Therefore it is useful only in harrassing fire against big targets such as cities.

FDR's Trip To New York To Be "Open"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—President Roosevelt's movements will be publicly "on the record" for the first time outside Washington since the war started when he reaches New York Saturday for a foreign policy address.

Censorship forbids disclosure of the time of the President's arrival there but Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said today Mr. Roosevelt's New York visit will be public and that his plans for the day there will be announced when details have been worked out.

"There is no desire on the part of the President to use wartime censorship to conceal himself on an occasion of this kind," Early said.

Ah___a neat knack had Ivan, that hushed back-seat drivin'

Driving that's easy on passengers and cars is one far-reaching good outcome of War!

Handling the wheel and pedals like a professional became a wartime necessity. It favored the car—and quit scaring the rear-seat riders. Now it's a great point of pride. Yet an even more envied proof of fine car-sense is to own an engine that isn't showing its age. That demands sparing your engine from acids; from fiercely corrosive acids inside. You can do it by having your engine OIL-PLATED. All you need is a change to Conoco N*th* motor oil...oil that OIL-PLATES.

In the extra-limited seasonal driving that's now the rule, your engine "hoards" a surplus of acids. Every explosion adds to these acids. You don't drive enough for engine heat to eject them safely. But they won't go biting right through OIL-PLATING! This highly corrosion-resistant surfacing is attached all over your engine's fine inner finish as if by magnetism—an effect you must credit to costly pioneer research, responsible for the special ingredient in popular-priced Conoco N*th* oil.

You can't apply keener intelligence to the car that must last you, than to equip it with an OIL-PLATED engine—simply by changing to Conoco N*th* oil for Winter. Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station knows your correct grade. Go now. Continental Oil Company

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

Improper diet, overwork, undue worries, colds, the flu or other illness often impairs the stomach's digestive functions and reduces the red-blood strength.

A person who is operating on only a 70 to 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped.

At such times Nature needs extra help to restore its balance and function properly. Undigested food places a tax on the system...insufficient blood strength is a detriment to good health.

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need!

SSS Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient.

These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat . . . to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality . . . pep . . . become animated . . . more attractive!

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits SSS Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "SSS Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 oz. sizes. © S.S.S. Co.

"Personal Secret Diplomacy" Of FDR Draws Heavy Fire By Dewey

By GARDNER BRIDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Assailing what he called President Roosevelt's "personal secret diplomacy," Gov. Thomas E. Dewey tonight declared the absence of any official plan for Germany had invited Propaganda Minister Goebbels to "terrify the Germans into fanatical resistance."

"They are fighting with the frenzy of despair," he said in a prepared broadcast." We are paying in blood for our failure to have ready an intelligent program for dealing with invaded Germany."

The Republican presidential nominee said Mr. Roosevelt failed to obtain Russian recognition of the Polish government in exile although he "undertook to handle this matter personally and secretly with Mr. Stalin."

Examples Are Cited

Citing also the cases of Italy, which he said is receiving an "improvised, inefficient administration" by New Deal alphabetical agencies, France and Rumania, the New York governor said:

"If we are to be successful in our future labors to bring about lasting peace, they cannot be the property of one party or one man. . . . Of that I am deeply convinced.

"I am equally convinced that to the extent that we leave our international relations to the personal secret diplomacy of the President, our efforts to achieve a lasting peace will fail.

Dewey, who came here from Albany for his second foreign affairs speech of the campaign, addressed the New York Herald Tribune's annual forum on current events. His speech was broadcast over the Blue network.

Said Bi-Partisan Job

Dewey, emphasizing his stand that the building of an international peace organization should be a bi-partisan job, served notice on members of his own party as well as the Democrats that "we must not be diverted from our goal by the irreconciliables of either camp."

"There are two great disasters which could occur to us," he said. "The first would be if a few individual rulers should in secret conferences try to shape the future peace of the world.

"The second would be for any nation involved to break up into quarreling groups over individual proposals.

Reiterating his belief that the recent Dumbarton Oaks conference between the United States, Britain, Russia and China had made a "great beginning," the GOP candidate said:

Profound Tragedy

"It would be a profound tragedy if, after having reached a broad general area of agreement on the major principles, we should now fall to impatient quarreling over things still to be settled."

Stressing the importance he attaches to postwar world planning, Dewey said at the outset that the Nazi's last desperate act in launching "Hitler's blind weapon of revenge, the robot bomb," serves to warn us that another world war will not begin by a surprise attack on an outlying base, such as Pearl Harbor.

"It will begin," he said, "when robot bombs launched thousands of miles away suddenly rain death and destruction on our major cities."

Secretary Of State's Job

In his criticism of the Roosevelt-Stalin negotiations, Dewey, who has contended that this type of mission should be performed by the secretary of state, said:

"At their only meeting (Roosevelt and Churchill), neither our secretary of state nor the undersecretary was present. Instead Mr. Roosevelt took along Mr. Harry Hopkins who acquired his training in foreign affairs in running the WPA.

"But, because of the secret nature of the meeting, American public opinion has been silenced by the fear that some delicate negotiation might be embarrassed."

Film Star Off For White House Visit

ATLANTA, Oct. 18. (AP)—Film star Bette Davis boarded a train here today for Washington and "the greatest thrill of my life"—her first meeting with President Roosevelt.

The blonde academy award winner said she had only one regret—that she wasn't accompanied by her little dog, Tibby, so he could meet Fala, the President's scottie.

Miss Davis, who spent three weeks near Columbus, Ga., said she expected to be in Washington only a few days.

"I have long been an admirer of Mr. Roosevelt and never before had the opportunity to meet him. I expressed a desire to do so when I spoke at a rally in Madison Square Garden, just before coming to Georgia, but only received word of the appointment this week."

The star said she did not anticipate campaigning for Mr. Roosevelt because of her limited time.

RECREATION TALKS SET

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—Recreation for employes in industries will be among topics discussed at the 10-day recreation seminar at the University of Texas, beginning tomorrow.

If U. S. farm fire losses could be reduced by 50 per cent, about 1,750 lives would be saved each year.

Blow At Hong Kong Announced Heavier

CHUNGKING, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—A supplementary report from the coordinated mission against Japanese shipping at Hong Kong Monday indicated the 14th airforce hit a harder blow than first announced, sinking eight Japanese ships totalling more than 40,000 tons, damaging seven totalling 23,000 tons and probably damaging five others, a communique said today.

A large steamer alongside a pier mentioned in yesterday's communique was caught by Liberator bombers and left in ruins at the Kowloon docks.

Fighters returning from the Hong Kong mission attacked the Wuchow dock area in the West river and strafed and divebombed a steamer, leaving it in flames.

Bomb-carrying fighters skip-bombed a freighter off Hong Kong island and left it sinking.

At Amoy, fighters attacked shipping in the harbor and strafed gunpits at the airdrome.

The 14th also continued to harass Japanese ground forces.

Fall And Winter Gardens Are Urged

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Texas tillers of victory gardens—who harvested more than $72,000,000 worth of produce from their home plots this summer—were urged today to get their hoes out again and plant fall and winter gardens.

The extension service at Texas A&M, reminded the state in a special news release that vegetables can be grown during the fall and winter season in most backyards in South, Central and East Texas. The service suggested onions, cabbage, spinach, lettuce, radish and Irish potatoes as prime winter crops.

SONNY COMES BACK

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (U.P.) — When a small boy became bewildered at the enrollment process at the McCoy kindergarten here recently, his mother reassured him with the words, "You're just a little boy now, but school will make a man of you." The child, with great feeling, exclaimed, "Yes, that is what I'm afraid of."

Rivers, Harbors Bill Is Opposed

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP) — The southwest section of the American Water Works association today unanimously adopted a resolution opposing the omnibus rivers and harbors bill and flood control bill pending before the Senate, unless those proposals carry amendments approved by the recent water conservation conference in Chicago.

The resolution, read by Frank Baldwin, water division, Houston, holds that: "The omnibus rivers and harbors bill (H. R. 3961) and the omnibus flood control bill (H. R. 4485) contain in their present form various provisions inimical to the sovereign rights and interests of the states."

One Section Added

At the suggestion of V. M. Ehlers, chief engineers of the state board of health, a section was added to the resolution providing that "in the planning, construction, and operation of any project under the terms of these bills, ample provisions be made to control all health and sanitation hazards, and state regulation regarding pollution of streams by domestic or industrial waste be observed."

Prior to adoption of the resolution, A. F. Mitchell, president of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, Corsicana, and J. E. Sturrock, attorney for the Texas board of water engineers, Austin, outlined what effect pending legislation would have on the state's water resources, and why in their opinion, the proposed amendments are essential.

Restrictions Necessary

Mitchell said that although early passage of the omnibus bills is desirable to release $12 billion in post-war projects over the nation, restrictive amendments are essential to protect both the agricultural and industrial interests of Texas.

He objected to that section which gives the chief of army engineers supreme right to examine and condemn any privately owned dam across navigable waters, and demand compliance with his order to change or cease operation.

"This is a most startling innovation and superimposes federal authority over state control in such matters," said Mitchell.

Connally At Home, Rests For Speeches

MARLIN, Tex., Oct. 18. (AP)—Sen. Tom Connally arrived here today to spend several days before he speaks at two state Democratic rallies and predicted the "Roosevelt-Truman ticket will carry Texas by a large majority."

In an interview, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, who speaks at Democratic rallies at Dallas and at Houston next week, predicted a victory for the Democratic candidates, Nov. 7.

He said, "President Roosevelt is better equipped by experience and association with the statesmen of Allied countries to perform these gigantic tasks (of conducting the war and peace) than any other American."

Connally and Rep. Poage of the eleventh congressional district attended a luncheon club meeting here today. Connally arrived from Texarkana where he attended funeral services for his wife's brother, Paul T. Sanderson.

NAZIS LOSE 138 GENERALS

LONDON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Berlin radio said tonight that 138 German generals had been killed at the front during the war. The announcement said they were among 30,000 officers who died in battle.

HEALTH QUIZ

	YES	NO
Do you have poor digestion?	☐	☐
Do you feel headachy after eating?	☐	☐
Do you get sour or upset easily?	☐	☐
Do you feel tired—listless?	☐	☐

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pill aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10¢ and 25¢.

Officers Named By NAA Chapter

Robt. H. Bean, Lubbock attorney and member of the City Airport board, was elected president of a Lubbock chapter of the National Aeronautics association in a meeting perfecting a permanent organization of the chapter Wednesday night in the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Bean, previously named temporary president of the chapter, was elected a district vice president of the state association in a recent meeting at Fort Worth.

Others Elected

Last night's meeting also approved election of Robt. J. Walker and Clent Breedlove as vice presidents and M. D. Fanning as secretary-treasurer. A. F. Holt, Dr. Fred W. Standefer, Virgil L. Musick, Chas. Akey and C. D. Doggett were named directors.

Walker, Holt and Standefer were named members of a constitution and by-laws committee and Fanning, Musick, Akey, Breedlove and L. D. Thomas membership committeemen.

Next meeting of the association was set for Monday night, Nov. 6.

Organization of at least five other chapters on the South Plains will be one of the objectives of the local chapter.

NEW MENACE

PORTLAND, Ore. (U.P.) — If a traffic signal falls down and lands on your head, it's all your fault, the city attorney holds. "Traffic signals constitute a part of police activity for controlling traffic; that is a governmental function and the city is not liable for damages because of an accident experienced by a person," he said, when just such a case was brought before him.

CLAN McMANUS

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (U.P.)—The McManus children of St. Joseph almost have a monopoly on the Cornelius School here. Out of a total enrollment of 15 children, seven of them are children of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McManus, according to Leonard Jones, county superintendent of schools.

Group Passes Up Statler Battle

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP) — The Senate campaign expenditures committee decided today that it was without authority to investigate the so-called "Battle of the Statler," involving firsticuffs between two Naval officers and members of the AFL Teamsters union following a political argument.

The Senate group, headed by Chairman Green (D-RI), announced it was dropping the subject as none of its business. It has been making a preliminary inquiry during the last two weeks and had obtained affidavits from those reported to have been involved.

The fight occurred shortly after President Roosevelt completed his opening campaign speech to a dinner given by the teamsters at the Statler hotel here.

Full Consideration

"After full consideration," a statement issued today said, "the committee voted not to institute a formal investigation or to hold public hearings or to investigate the matter further."

Green said the vote was four to one. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said he cast the dissenting vote "as a firm believer in open hearings and this being a public matter."

Green stated the committee itself would not make public the affidavits obtained during the preliminary inquiry adding that the information in the affidavits was "conflicting."

"It depends on which side you take whether to believe there is a violation of any law," Green said. "We were not deciding on the merits."

The naval officers claimed the fisticuffs occurred after teamsters leaving the dinner questioned them about their voting intentions.

CAT DOES A "LASSIE"

HOUSTON, Tex. (U.P.)—Roscoe, a most remarkable cat, proved that Lassie isn't the only pet to come home by walking from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to his master's home in Houston. Roscoe's walk halfway across the country was an arduous jaunt, it was evident by the cat's thin, scarred body. But his joy to get back home apparently was worth the trip.

Yanks On Western Front Have No Hope Of War's End By Christmas

By WALTER CRONKITE
United Press War Writer

WITH BRITISH SECOND ARMY, In Holland, Oct. 17—We might as well face it: Barring a political collapse inside Germany, we won't be out of the foxholes by Christmas.

For a month since the bold airborne descent on Holland, we have sat on this salient. We have broadened its flanks just enough to protect the lifeline corridor up the middle of it.

68 Fighting Days Left

With 68 fighting days left before Christmas, here is the situation: To the east, the Germans still have a broad bridgehead on this side of the Maas (Meuse). Our west flank is still exposed, and the Germans have thousands of troops between the Waal and Belgium. The Germans still hold the most important communications centers — Breda, Tilburg, and Hertogenbosch. They still hold defense lines on the Waal and the Maas.

Their campaign to destroy the channel ports vital to our buildup has been at least partially successful. By holding pockets on the Schelde they still deny us the use of Antwerp.

Supply Line Extended

The plain fact is we have considerably extended our supply line. This applies to the American front as well as the British and Canadian fronts.

This is as obvious to the Germans as it is to us, and we can expect a difficult fight on the west side of Holland for every communications center.

This campaign to reinforce and shorten the supply and maintenance lines must be won before the battle for Germany can shift into high gear.

Encountering Mine Fields

Along the Overloon-Venray highway we are encountering the first mine fields of any consequence since Normandy—evidence that the Germans have been busy during the breathing spell.

A factor which military leaders have boreseen for two years now has come into play.

While we have pursued the Germans, cutting their transport and armies to ribbons, we have shortened to nearly one-third the defensive line must maintain.

There's The Weather

We have shattered their tanks and artillery all along the way, but what they have left is banked tread to tread and hub to hub along the Siegfried line. We are operating over territry they have held for four years and their guns are ranged in an operated at the very points on which they knew we must concentrate.

Then there's the weather. Even if the normal rain and snow come, this country is going to be hell. Already the flat Dutch fields are bogs in which tanks cannot operate. The fighting must be done one the hard roads. And it is againts them that the Germans can concentrate their mines, mortars, artillery and men.

Committee For Dewey Formed In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18. (AP)—J. T. Prowell, New Orleans attorney and a former state senator, announced today the organization of a "Democratic Committee in Favor of Dewey."

Prowell said the committee's purpose would be "largely educational" and that its activities would be devoted to "explaining to Democrats how they can vote against a fourth term (for President Roosevelt) and retain their status as party Democrats."

Jap Prisoner Killed In Rocket Bomb Blast

SPARTA, Wis., Oct. 18. (AP)—Col. George M. MacMullin, post commander at Camp McCoy, reported today that one Japanese prisoner of war was killed and five others injured when a rocket bomb which he said they had smuggled into their barracks exploded Monday night. The prisoners had been on a work detail. It was not explained how they obtained the bomb.

Should our way of making peace treaties be changed?

Senator R. E. Willis vs. Congressman J. W. Fulbright

WHEN WAR ENDS, and a peace treaty needs to be signed—how much power should Congress have? As it is now, the Senate alone votes, and a two-thirds vote is needed to ratify. On America's Town Meeting of the Air tonight, four noted authorities will discuss a proposed change that would make it possible to ratify the next peace treaty by simple majorities in both houses. Representative Fulbright, author of the famed Fulbright resolution for a world organization to keep the peace, favors this change; so does Representative Kefauver, who for years has worked for a streamlined Congress. But Senator Willis, member of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee, and Professor Borchard of Yale, expert on international law, will tell why they are convinced that the present way of ratifying treaties is safest and best. Hear both sides of this exciting and important question—tonight.

TONIGHT'S QUESTION:

Should treaties be ratified by a majority of both houses?

Injury Jinx Hits Red Raider Team

The injury jinx began to creep into the ranks of the Texas Tech Red Raiders as the team began to prepare for the battle here Saturday night with the Marine bolstered veteran club of Southwestern university Pirates.

The club worked Wednesday afternoon with two men on the sidelines from injuries suffered in workouts this week, and a shortage of quarterbacks loomed in the making.

Gene Hardey, who has been showing up well in recent games, and who threw touchdown passes for all the scoring against the Texas Aggies and Tulsa university, suffered a leg injury, and T. M. Cox, second string quarterback, injured his foot Tuesday evening, and was on crutches Wednesday morning.

The injury to Costin Bufkin, forced the removal of one quarterback to the halfback position as Bobby Barron was shifted back to the halfback post, but he will likely be moved back to quarterback this week.

There still remained a good chance that both boys will be able to go Saturday, but Coach Dell Morgan didn't appear too optimistic Wednesday afternoon.

The injuries left Ernest Hawkins from Lamesa in the role of quarterback during the workouts.

The team spent most of Wednesday afternoon polishing the offense, and working on smoothing out the wrinkles of their ball handling.

Coach Morgan promised another rough session this afternoon, then will taper off for the game Saturday.

Tickets Sell Fast For Sunday's Game

Only a couple of hundred choice reserved seats remain for the annual "Khaki Classic" between South Plains and Lubbock army air fields at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Tech stadium, it was announced as tickets were put on sale to civilians today.

A few good boxes are available for civilians, but it is anticipated that boxes and remaining reserved seats will go swiftly. General admission tickets also will be available at the ticket booth.

Officers and enlisted men at both SPAAF and LAAF have been gobbling up the tickets, both reserved and general admission, ever since the ducats were offered for sale to military personnel at the two fields a week ago.

Always the "biggest" game for both air fields, the tilt this year is expected to draw a near sell-out crowd, with the teams, perhaps more evenly matched than at any time previously.

Tickets will be on sale today through Saturday in the afternoons in the lobby of the Hilton hotel. Reserved seats tickets are 90 cents each; box seats are $1.20 each; general admission tickets for civilians are 60 cents each. Military personnel general admission tickets are 30 cents.

Former Tech Frosh Returns With Bucs

Bill Latch, Marine football player of Southwestern university and survivor of the Cruiser Helena, will be facing the team on which he played freshman football in 1940, and perhaps his final college game when he takes the field against Texas Tech here Saturday night.

LATCH

Latch will complete his officers training at Southwestern next week, and it is very likely that the Texas Tech game will be his last for Coach Medley's Pirates.

Latch, packing 185 pounds of tough salt seasoning on his frame, played on the Texas Tech "Frosh" team in 1940, but is starting left tackle in the Southwestern lineup. His number is 62.

Before coming to Texas Tech, Latch played four years at Cisco, and was captain of his team in his final year. He is now a candidate in officer's training at Southwestern.

Latch saw plenty of service in the Pacific during the early months of the war after joining the Marines in the spring of 1941. He was at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7 when his ship, the Cruiser Helena, was torpedoed and strafed, but remained afloat. He was next in action in the Solomon theater, where the Helena helped to cover the first Marine landings on Guadalcanal, and for 14 months blazed her way to glory in expendable combat.

It was the "13 jinx" that caught up with the Helena, and in her 13th engagement was sunk in the Kula Gulf on July 6, 1943, after exacting a toll of four Jap ships in eight minutes of continuous fire, and Latch was captain of turret No. 3 gun crew. He was among survivors later picked up from the water.

Petersburg, Purples Battle To 6-6 Draw

The Lubbock Cowhand Purples and the Petersburg Junior battled to a 6 to 6 deadlock Wednesday afternoon at Junior High school field.

Petersburg scored first, getting a touchdown in the opening period as Carl Rambo broke away for a 50 yard gallop for the touchdown. The try for extra point failed.

Jackie Davis slashed off tackle for about ten yards and a touchdown for the Purples in the second period to knot the count, and again the try for extra point failed.

Petersburg offered a threat in the final period, and carried the ball over the goal line, but the play was called back for a roughing penalty.

Cowhands Play Two Home Tilts

The Lubbock Cowhands, both Black and Gold teams, will provide the week's grid menu for the local fans with the Blacks swinging into action this afternoon at 4 o'clock on Chapman field, while the Golds will play the feature battle for Friday.

The Blacks will square off with the Brownfield B team this afternoon in a battle that looms as a tossup. The club under Coach George Philbrick has shown a steady improvement this season, and has played some good ball.

Nothing is known here of the Brownfield B team, but they are reported to have a good club.

Coach Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst's Gold team will go into action Friday in the feature game for that day, facing the tough Slaton High school club. Slaton defeated the Blacks earlier in the season, and the Golds will be seeking for revenge for their "brothers."

The Golds have started a winning streak in recent games, and have been traveling at top speed, but this game will offer one of the toughest tests of the year.

Tahoka, Seagraves Play 5-A Headliner

SEAGRAVES, Oct. 18 (Special) Two teams battle here Friday night in a clash to keep alive the spark of hope for the District 5-A flag with the Tahoka Bulldogs moving in to battle the Seagraves eleven in the top feature of the week.

The Denver City Mustangs, winner over Tahoka last week by a 12-to-0 count, plays a non-conference game with Andrews visiting Denver City. The high flying O'Donnell Eagles, who clipped the wings of the Seagraves club by a 38-18 score, is expected to have but little trouble in their game at Seminole Friday.

It will be the swan song for the loser of the game here, and the ten-count will be sounded. But the winner will still be a contender in the race with Denver City still to face O'Donnell and Seagraves before the close of the season.

Many critics, however, agree that the Mustangs covered their greatest hurdle last week at Tahoka.

Dupre, Carter Show Fine Passing To Win

The Dupre Dogies and the K. Carter Coyotes uncovered a pair of fancy aerial artists Wednesday afternoon, and both clubs hung up wins in the grade school touch football conference play.

Norman Lindsey pitched the Dogies to a 20 to 0 win over the Wilson Wranglers while Jimmy Grace did the pitching honors for the Coyotes in their 26 to 0 victory over the Guadalupe Sombreros.

Dupre scored first on a pass from Johnny Tatum to Norman Lindsey, then Lindsey passed to Tatum for the extra point, and the only scoring done in the first half.

In the last half Lindsey took over, and threw touchdown passes to Dick Lowrey and Johnny Tatum, and tossed another pass to Lowrey for the extra point after the last touchdown.

Frank Ford, Wrangler back, was a constant threat.

Grace did all the pass pitching for the Coyotes, throwing passes for four touchdowns and two extra points. Gene Nelson caught the first touchdown pass, Bob Ed Bailiff the second, James Dunlap the third and Giles Florence the fourth. The extra point passes were to Dunlap and Florence after the second and third touchdowns.

LONGHORNS LOSE PAIR

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—Second string end Joe Abbey and back Zeke Martin, both of Denton, turned in their football suits at the University of Texas today to don uniforms. Abbey will take selective service examinations and Martin plans to re-enter the Merchant Marine service.

HUGHSON MOVES ON

SHEPPARD FIELD, Texas, Oct. 18. (AP)—Pvt. Tex Hughson, leading pitcher in the American league last year, has been transferred from Sheppard Field to the Army Air Forces navigation school at San Marcos, Texas. The former Boston Red Sox ace came here from Fort Sam Houston in August for basic training.

Lubbock Westerners Taper Off For Abilene Invasion

Coaches J. Mule Davis and Dixie White heaved a great sigh of relief Wednesday afternoon, and sent the Westerners to the showers after the last tough scrimmage session before the battle Saturday night at Abilene with the powerful Eagles.

Seeking to keep their record for the season unblemished, and add the fifth 3-AA scalp to the "war belt," the Westerners pronounced themselves ready for the toughest test of the pre-season games.

Eagle Star Ailing

The word that Abilene had suffered the loss of Paul Bailey because of a throat infection offered little ray of hope for the Westerners, for his place will be taken by Kenneth Tate, who played a great ball game against Odessa last week.

Bailey is a 201 pounder, and has started every game this season for the Eagles. Tate is a 218 pounder and will move into the left tackle slot of Bailey's without weakening the team in the least. There also remained a good chance that Bailey will be recovered in time to play.

Eagles Are Tough

The Eagles have made it tough on two of the best teams in the state, losing by 9-7 to Breckenridge, and holding the mighty Amarillo club to two touchdowns, then defeated another of the state's top teams, Odessa, last week.

Coach Davis indicated Wednesday afternoon that there would be no shifts in the Westerner lineup, and that he thought the lone injuries of the club would be healed by Saturday. Stoney Wall and Jim Lowrey were both nursing injured ankles.

E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic director, said Wednesday that he had been notified that 50 reserve seat tickets and 100 student tickets had been sent from Abilene, and expects them this morning. They will go on sale as soon as they come in. They can be purchased at the principal's office at the high school.

Armour Bowlers Pull Farther Into Lead

Armour's bowling five took three in a row from Coca-Cola Wednesday night at the Plamour lanes in the City-Commercial league feature, and increased its lead to two full games over Lions club, which won only two from Hub Laundry.

Other matches on the card also resulted in three-game victories with DeKalb Oilers winning over S. and Q. Clothiers and Meads Bakery winning over the Optimists.

Glen Welch set the pace in the scoring for three games with a hefty 603 series, but there was a close battle for single game honors with James Buckner's 237 the best. Welch also shot a 223 and Harry Holcomb turned in a 220.

TWO REEL COMEDY

Jacksonville Hides Behind Eight-Ball

JACKSONVILLE, Tex., Oct. 18 (AP)—Listen to the story of the forgotten team of Texas schoolboy football — Jacksonville's Indians who finish the season undefeated and still not win the district championship.

Today they stand with the 17 undefeated elevens of the state. They have scored 59 points to the opposition's 6. Only a scoreless tie with Overton in the opening game of the season—before they got the intricate T formation to working—mars an otherwise perfect record.

But here's the trouble:

Jacksonville refused to play Lufkin in the district race as the result of an eligibility squabble. So did Palestine. Thus, Lufkin started the season with forfeits over both teams.

So Jacksonville, one down without firing a pass, would have to win all its district games and Lufkin would have to drop one for the Indians to even tie the Panthers. And Lufkin, ranked with the state's top elevens, plays only three conference foes and their opponents aren't accorded an outside chance.

But Jacksonville rolls on as if every yard meant part of the title. They've beaten Gladewater, an outfit that gave the heralded Tyler Lions a hefty battle, and they've downed Carthage and Grapeland, two strong Class A outfits.

They have gained 596 yards rushing and 212 passing while the opposition has made 264 and 71 respectively. Thus the Indians' defensive record is less than 84 yards per game.

Coach of the Indians is J. M. Moorman, who came here from Brenham via College Station where he conditioned AAF cadets. He had some fine teams at Brenham a few years back.

Women's Golf Meet Reaches Semi-Finals

Play in the women's golf tournament at the Lubbock Country club reached the semi-finals this week with the playing of all the first round matches with only one default.

In the championship flight, Mrs. Fenner Tubbs defeated Mrs. J. H. Stiles 4 and 3, then fell before Mrs. A. A. Foster, who drew a bye in the first round. The latter match finished 2 and 1.

Other Scores

Other first round games found Mrs. Bess Jennings winning 7 and 5 over Mrs. Charlie Young, Mrs. Willie Akey nosed out Mrs. Berta Widener, one up on 19 holes and Mrs. Loys Patterson defeated Mrs. Billie Soash, 4 and 3.

In the semi-final round of the championship flight, Jennings will play Foster and Akey will play Patterson. Pairings for the championship flight consolations will match Stiles and Young, and Widener and Soash.

Mrs. Rose Mary Crawford reached the semi-finals in the first flight by default over Mrs. Harriat Freeman. Other matches in the first flight included Mrs. Evelyn Eisenberg's win over Mrs. Nora Brown, 6 and 4, Mrs. Jeannine Helwig nosed out Mrs. F. L. McRee, one up, and Mrs. Peggy Autry won over Mrs. Georgia Mae Key, 6 and 4.

Semi-final pairings in the championship bracket will pair Crawford with Eisenberg and Helwig with Autry. In the consolation semi-finals of the first flight, Freeman will play Brown and McRee will play Key.

The nine-hole flight produced four tough matches, and the closest play of the tournament with three of the four matches needing an extra hole to determine a winner.

Jo Atherton defeated Marilyn Dube, one up on 10 holes, Barbara Mosher nosed out Sally Shoop, one up, Celia Camp defeated Louise McWhirter, one up on 10 holes, and Len Nitschke defeated Barbara Johnson by the same score.

Pairings for the semi-finals in the championship bracket will pit Atherton against Mosher and Camp against Nitschke. In the consolation semi-finals, Dube will play Shoop and McWhirter will play Johnson.

PADRES SEEK MARTIN

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Negotiations were under way today to sign Pepper Martin of the St. Louis Cardinals, as manager of the San Diego Padres, Bill Starr, Padre president, announced today. Starr said the club and Martin "weren't too far apart," and that he would not consider any other manager until the deal was closed, one way or the other.

OUR PLEDGE

WE pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Vision—Plus Individuality!

MANY glittering generalities are being dropped from political stumps and shouted into microphones these days—high-sounding pronunciamentoes which are beautiful to hear but may mean anything, or nothing.

We don't "go" for them. We don't believe many Americans do.

But just because someone expresses an altruistic opinion does not mean he is emitting verbal soothing syrup. Many opinions, although altruistic, are none-the-less basically sound.

Such an opinion was voiced the other day by a real Democrat—a man who has been honored by his people and his party, but who has nothing personal to gain from public statements because he soon will end a long and honorable career to return to private life.

James F. Byrnes, former senator, former Supreme court justice and currently winding up his service as War Mobilization director, said:

"Our country is so richly endowed and so marvelously equipped that only the lack of vision stands in the way of our handing down to the next generation a heritage of even greater promise than our forefathers bequeathed to us."

We believe Mr. Byrnes is on the right track.

We believe Americans of this and succeeding generations can do "just about anything they're big enough to do."

But the vision Mr. Byrnes deems as essential to our future progress and expansion must be backed by ambition, desire and energy—and the opportunity of the individual to gain personal reward for the correct employment of those talents.

Neither we, nor those who are to follow us, can expect to collect the sort of heritage Mr. Byrnes describes without thought and effort—through it's being dumped into our laps by the government.

There will always have to be individual initiative, individually applied if the nation and the people which make it are to get ahead.

Just A Temporary Stop-Gap

WHETHER true, or not, the recent Stockholm dispatch alleging that Germany is planning to send King Leopold, of Belgium, and other prominent European hostages or prisoners-of-war to Japan as a "bargaining reserve" fits in perfectly with Hitler's mentality.

According to the reported plan, the hostages would be used for exchanges with captured Nazi leaders. Then, if the Allied Nations refused to "exchange," tried and executed Nazi war criminals, instead, hostages in Japan would be summarily killed to "even up the score."

The scheme is diabolical enough to have sprung from the warped brains of the German leadership. It might even be developed a little, and Jap-held hostages might even be tortured before being killed as the enemy made extreme effort to save the skins of its war criminals. That the Japnazis will go to any extreme cannot be doubted by anyone with good sense and we may expect of them the very worst in human behaviour.

Should the plan be carried into effect, United Nations leaders might be forced into exchanging German war criminals for such innocent personages as Leopold, King Christian, of Denmark, (who, although not technically a prisoner now, could be shipped off to Tokyo at any minute) and numerous other Scandanavians, Poles, Dutch and others now unluckily in enemy hands. Happily, however, the exchange would be only temporary.

For sooner or later, the gates of Japan, itself, will be cracked open and the whole Axis world will be in the steel grip of the Allies. Then the last "great roundup" of war criminals could be made, their trials could be held and their executions be carried out.

Hitler's idea—if it is correctly reported from Stockholm—is nothing but a stop-gap and, in the long run, is doomed to failure.

Someway, some day, all living perpetrators of wartime beastiality will fall into the hands of the victors and perhaps the justice then applied will be all the sweeter for its postponement.

Bishop Seaman Resigns

ANNOUNCEMENT of the other day of the forthcoming resignation of the Rt. Rev. E. Cecil Seaman, D. D., as bishop of the Episcopal church's Northwest Texas Missionary district was read by regret by all people in this area who appreciate a good man and who honor good works.

Bishop Seaman has served his district well over a 20 year period. What is important, too, is that he has been a fine force and a valuable example to the people of all faiths. Cheerful, even in the face of ill health; helpful to many worthy causes; kindly and tolerant, the bishop has represented to a high degree the cloth of all denominations.

As he enters well earned retirement he takes with him the good wishes of thousands of his West Texas neighbors, those outside his church as well as those in it.

Germany Will Try It Again

By Sigrid Schultz

(Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.)

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

• • •

ANTI-SEMITISM had provided Adolf Hitler with his first real success in the barracks outside of Munich. His cosmopolitan associates remembered that just as they had met Germans wherever they traveled, they also met Jews. The Nazis early chose the anti-Semitic platform because, as Hitler's first press chief, Adolf-Viktor von Koerber put it after he had separated from the Fuehrer, "It furnishes an excellent international vehicle. There is a certain measure of anti-Semitism in almost every country of the world. By assuming leadership over the anti-Semitic movement, Hitler intended to get his finger into every national pie throughout the world. And he was right."

Hitler even deceived his anti-Semitic followers. For many years a number of Jews held important posts in Nazi Germany.

There is another angle to anti-Semitism which the Nazis have worked overtime: cupidity. By promising the small dealer, the unsuccessful doctor, that Jewish-controlled department stores and Jewish doctors would disappear under Nazi rule, they won the allegiance of the mediocre dealer or doctor whether his lack of success had anything to do with Jewish competition or not.

• • •

During his rapid rise from paid informer in 1919 to leader of a party that was winning seats in parliamentary elections only four years later, Hitler had fully realized the astonishing power that words have over men. With this realization came his carving for publicity — for propaganda. He seized greedily on the studies of psychologists submitted to him in Landsberg; on them he based his mammoth campaigns to win control, first of Germany, then of the world.

The psychologists talked much about the dissatisfied elements. Hitler knew them well. He himself had been tortured with dissatisfaction in his days of poverty. But he knew that conditions other than poverty alone bred unhappy restlessness. His propaganda must reach every dissatisfied person in Germany and magnify his frustrations, whatever the cause. Women seemed more brittle, more imaginative than men. Openly the Nazis excluded them from politics, covertly they elaborated schemes with which to exploit women. The Nazis had won the lower middleclass women of Bavaria by pledging to respect the "sanctity of family and religious life." (Their men had succumbed to promises of spoils from the future expropriation of Jews.) In their thorough quest of dissatisfaction, they sought out young women artists, not quite good enough to succeed alone, but glad to listen to men who told them of future wealth—when the Nazis seized power. They went after them to their evil-smelling cart of slander and intrigue, and found them docile and useful.

• • •

While some Nazis traded on sentimentality, others deliberately turned men and women guilty of sex irregularities into agents for the Nazi cause. The fact that many such held high posts in Hitler's Party, Captain Roehm for example, made the Nazis popular with abnormal elements in other countries.

Hitler was fully aware that the captain was a notorious offender. I have seen photostats of letters addressed to Hitler in 1923 warning him that co-operation with Roehm and his clique endangered the national cause. Sworn statements attached to the photostats said that Hitler had shrugged off the warnings as "old stuff."

By 1934, however, Hitler realized that Captain Roehm had secured a dangerous hold on the Storm Troops and on many members of the Party. He knew himself strong enough to come to terms with the Reichswehr leaders on his own. So he suddenly remembered Roehm's misconduct. On June 30 of that same year, Hitler personally arrested the man who had befriended him when he was penniless, to whom he owed much of his career, had him thrown into jail and executed.

• • •

Being convinced that he himself had strong occult powers, Hitler directed the activities of astrologers and fortune tellers as Nazi propaganda tools. Soon after the Putschists swaggered out of Landsberg fortress, all sorts of small magazines cropped up on German newsstands, purporting to reveal the message of the stars, forecasting happiness for Germany, provided, of course, that the local Nazi chieftains won whatever point they were fighting for at the moment.

Hitler, like the Kaiser, was certain that his mission came from God. He made that quite clear in an interview I had with him, when he stepped forward and proclaimed loudly, "My will shall be done." I glanced quickly at Hess and Hanfstaengel, both of whom stood near by. They gazed at Hitler raptly, as though indeed the Deity had spoken. Hitler repeated. "My will shall be done," and I had no doubt that the sacrilege was deliberate.

Then he dropped the oracular tone and explained very sensibly just why his will should be done. "I have 750,000 men behind me, all eternally sworn to me. They are blindly obedient to me," he said. "The Republicans are more numerous. But they are divided. Therefore I shall be the strongest. My will shall be done."

Lt. Hastings Funeral Is Scheduled Saturday

Last rites will be conducted at 3 p. m. Saturday in Hereford for Lt. Roy Hastings, Navy pilot who was killed Sunday in a crash of his plane near Lake City, Fla., F. E. Shyrock of Pampa, father-in-law of the officer, said Wednesday.

Former student of Texas Tech and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hastings, of Hereford, Lieutenant Hastings had only recently returned to this country after active aerial service against the Japs. Two other Navy men died in the accident which took his life.

Shryock said his daughter, Mrs. Hastings, who had been with her husband in Florida since the flier's return to the states, is en route home with her husband's body. They will arrive in Amarillo at 9.55 p. m., today, and proceed directly to Hereford.

Rev. James Aiken, Presbyterian pastor, will be in charge of the funeral, to be held in Hereford's First Methodist church. Masonic rites will be held and members of the Hereford post of the American Legion will participate.

Looking At Life - - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

I CAN'T remember when I enjoyed any piece of lierature as much as the deed to my house which I just read.

Here it is—written exclusively for me and my wife, a most important document, a "Survivorship Deed!" "Received for record September 2nd, 1944 a. m. and recorded in Brookfield Land Records, Vol. 35, at page 314, by Viola M. Waidelich, Town Clerk."

To Viola this deed is just another chore in the days job.

To my wife and me it is ownership, contentment, security, happiness.

As I write this I look out upon the hills—our hills. I see the maples turning yellow and red—our maples. I see the dogwood trees, all thick with fat, red berries—our dogwood trees.

Perhaps you people who have always owned land and always lived in the country, perhaps you don't get the full meaning of that thrill which takes possession of you when every foot of earth you tread is your own earth, when you eat the grapes that you have picked in your own arbor or look at the flowers that have grown in your own garden.

• • •

I was sitting in a night club last night with a friend of mine who lives at the Waldorf-Astoria. There was music and gaiety and liquor and lights and women.

Everybody was having a grand time, except myself.

"Why do you look so glum?" my friend asked.

"Oh, I was just thinking of the full moon out over my place tonight" I said, "My wife's enjoying it and here I sit in my clothes, stiff collar, necktie, tight shoes and a lot of noise."

"Shut up" said my friend, "Don't you know I'm trying to forget?"

And then I remembered that he and his wife are separated, that their lovely place out in the country is boarded up and neglected, that he is listening to the trumpets and the drums and the saxophones only to drown the memories of crickets and cows and birds.

• • •

WHEN I came home this morning I stopped at the gas station on top of the hill near my home.

"What a wonderful view you have here" I said to the owner. "Doesn't it thrill you?"

"What view?" he said "So many people have mentioned it but I never see it. I've been here 25 years and to me hills are hills, green is green, cows are cows and work is work."

Well, maybe so. But I guess it's different when you have always dreamed of something and then finally the dream comes true!

And if, in 25 years from now, I won't see the glories of my land any more, then I hope I won't be here to be able to see them.

When you stop dreaming you stop living.

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

(Now on tour, surveying political and reconversion situations.)

NEW YORK CITY—A barely whispered fear in Democratic National headquarters here and in Washington stems from the belief that President Roosevelt is now getting all the bad campaign breaks for the first time since he entered politics as a New York state senator in 1910.

Having observed FDR for more than 20 years, and recognizing his recuperative political powers, the writer does not subscribe to this viewpoint wholeheartedly. But here is a short, factual review indicating that his lucky star may be dimming, if not disappearing altogether.

He was a child of fortune in his early days. He got his start because he bucked the late Tammany Boss "Charley" Murphy, the late Al Smith and the Ryan-Belmont financial crowd from New York. At the 1912 Baltimore convention he supported Woodrow Wilson. When the latter became President, he asked Josephus Daniels, the distinguished North Carolina editor, "Who is that nice, young New York boy who stuck by me?"

• • •

HOOVER: Daniels identified the newcomer to big-time politics, and that is how FDR became assistant Secretary of the Navy. In that office he acquitted himself well. He loved the fleet as a sailor loves a gal in every port.

Even his illness was a political asset. He had shown boyish ineptitude as a national figure when he was James M. Cox's running mate against the Harding-Coolidge ticket in 1920. One day he was for the League of Nations, and the next day he was against. He strewed the countryside with contradictory statements.

His infantile paralysis stroke permitted him to mature, to read, to sit on the sidelines and observe the other fellow's mistakes. His enforced retirement enabled him to escape taking stands on the controversial questions of the middle twenties—the Ku Klux Klan, "Coolidge boom," foreign loans, tariff, taxation and the problem against which the "Happy Warrior" butted his head—prohibition.

A gay and gallant soldier of political fortune, he reappeared on the national scene when Smith persuaded him to run for governor of this state in 1928. He won; Al lost. As if he had waited for the proper historical moment, almost like an actor whose cue had been forewritten by Providence, he reached for the great prize at a time when even the lowliest Democrat in the land could have been elected over Herbert Hoover.

Now, as his friends reluctantly realize, no human being, even such a master politician and psychologist as Mr. Roosevelt, can brave fate too long. No man can reign as governor of our most populous state for four years, and as President during the world's most stormy period, without challenging a churchful of fair godmothers.

• • •

WAGES: Russia, for instance, chose this campaign moment to enter Poland and the Baltic states, and to block extension of lend-lease aid to General Bor in Warsaw. Many Americans of Polish descent attribute their fatherland's tragedy and the apparent Allied indifference to the White House-Kremlin alliance.

Naive Henry Morgenthau advanced a postwar plan for plowing under Germany. Although most people of Teutonic stock here are philosophic heirs of the Carl Schurz 1848 immigrants, and have proved their loyalty to Uncle Sam, they may not relish the thought of destruction of the land of their forebears.

Mr. Roosevelt has championed the worker, but professional elements are biting the hand that fed them, literally and economically. His Hillmanite and Tobin pals presumed to stage strikes, browbeat workers, refuse to make music records for lonely boys overseas, tap pay envelopes for political cash, roughhouse a Navy hero. More important, the labor bosses in his camp demand wage raises which would precipitate inflation. The McCarran Senate report recommending a wholesale postbellum shift of wartime plants from the East to the West was another bad blow for the White House.

• • •

THREAT: Liberated Italians still lack food, shelter, clothing and a normal life for reasons beyond the President's personal control. But their sorrowful letters to relatives here may be more effective than propaganda dished out by the Republicans. To a certain degree this condition applies to the kinsmen of inhabitants of France, the Balkans and Slavic areas.

The Army "leaked" the news that it intended to segregate negro soldiers home on rehabilitation leave. Southern politicos have not relented on their poll tax stand. Three leading negro newspapers, the Pittsburgh Courier, the Afro-American and the Amsterdam News of Harlem, have declared for Gov. Tom Dewey.

The deaths of Smith and Wendell Willkie have emphasized man's evanescence and stirred public discussion of FDR's health. Many votes may be lost because those who admire the President regard with dread the prospect that in the event of a Democratic victory Sen. Harry S. Truman will stand only a heart-beat from the White House.

Mr. Roosevelt recognizes the threat inherent in all these situations, as his reception of the pledge to a Polish delegation last week reveals. By word or deed he will seek to placate all these dissident factions between now and the hour when the polls open on November 7. To watch him do his stuff as only he can should be an entertaining and informative spectacle.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

THE NAZIS may be trying to prolong the war through the winter not so much because they wish to save the Fatherland from invasion as to give Hitler and the party bigwigs more time in which to perfect preparations for escape—or that failing—to write alibis.

It is rumored in European capitals that a huge plane is being readied to fly Der Fuehrer to neutral Eire—as though the Irish wanted the likes of him. Another tip is that a giant submarine awaits word to shove off for Japan. A third bit of gossip concerns a Zeppelin that will ascend from northern Norway—away from Allied air patrols—soar across the Arctic and come to earth in Hirohito's back yard. This might please the descendant of the Sun Goddess; he would want to borrow the big balloon for his own getaway.

These speculations probably are merely tittle-tattle. Nevertheless, a serious question intrigues the world: How will Hitler cash in his checks?

• • •

MYTH: Goebbels once admitted that in the crucial election of 1932 when it was nip and tuck whether or not the new National Socialist party would win, Hitler declared, "If we lose, I will end it all with a pistol shot." American correspondents in prewar Berlin were told that he carried a lethal dose in a pocket vial, just in case.

A distinguished American statesman with wide knowledge of German personalities told the writer last week, "He is too much of a coward to commit suicide. He is more likely to shave off his mustache and sneak off in disguise." The doomed Napoleon at Fontainebleau rejected the idea of killing himself. Instead, he surrendered to the British so that he could write an autobiography vindicating himself.

Hitler, as well as his generals, must know that defeat is inevitable. There is a possibility that now his chief concern is the marshalling of documents—not soldiers—and the penning of memoirs which he hopes will build the myth that he was a much misunderstood benefactor who tried to save Germany—and Europe—from Communism and the American and British "democratic plutocracies." He knows he may not have a chance to publish his apologia if he falls into Allied hands too soon.

Livestock On Highways Are Adding To Accident Toll

By GORDON SHEARER
United Press Correspondent

AUSTIN, Oct. 18 (U.P.) — Recently a state official was driving down a Texas highway when a cow in a herd grazing on the right-of-way had a sudden urge to cross the road—this, of course, unknown to the driver.

So suddenly did the cow have the notion and start her trek that the official had not only to skid the car tires, but also nearly swerve into the barrow pit to avoid a collision.

"I was so mad when I got out of the car that I wanted to get out my gun and kill that cow," the official commented later.

Many persons who have had reason to travel highways in recent months have had similar experiences. More than ever since the advent of barbed wire and improved roads livestock is plaguing motorists.

• • •

Figures Reflect Condition

For the first eight months of the year, records of the Department of Public Safety show there were 91 accidents where motorists collided either with animals or animal-drawn vehicles. These mishaps resulted in 10 fatalities and 54 persons were injured.

However, these figures are not all-inclusive, Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, jr., believes. In many instances where a motorist collides with an animal, the motorist after examining the extent of the damage to his vehicles will drive off, fearing he will be forced to pay for injuring the animal.

• • •

OF COURSE, it may or may not have been the motorist's fault in ploughing into the animal. But all the same, it is difficult to convince a jury of farmers or ranchers that the driver was not in the wrong, especially if there are no witnesses, as is generally the case.

Texas does have a law which fixes a fine up to $200 as penalty for persons permitting livestock to traverse or roam at large, unattended, "on the right-of-way of any designated state highway . . . where the same is enclosed by fences on both sides."

Convictions are few and far between under this law. It is not sufficiently explicit, Garrison says.

Stock raisers are having their troubles now more than in recent years because of the wartime shortage of hands. That might account for some fences being down and not being repaired as in normal times. Too, there is more livestock in areas where they were not kept in large numbers before.

Guns Once Used

In any event, state police are hopeful that conditions will not develop to the extent that they did several years ago near Houston. There was a great deal of heavy equipment being hauled on Highway 35 and the roadway was also thick with livestock.

Drivers started carrying caliber rifles with them while driving. When animals would get in the road they would shoot them. The bullet in most instances would not cause death immediately, but the animal would expire a day or so later.

So flagrant did the practice become that one stock-owner wrote the highway department demanding it pay for the killed livestock since the department had the road put through that territory.

SECRETAR Frank D. Quinn of the State Parks board is ordinarily a mild-mannered, reserved sort of fellow—the type on whom stories are told by friends—and when he went to the World Series this one beat him back.

You remember in the first game it was George "Lefty" McQuinn who blasted out a homerun which brought in Gene Moore and gave the Browns a 2-1 victory.

The feat so excited fan Quinn that he started a hand-shaking spree with the St. Louis gentry, in this manner: "Quinn is my name—Frank Quinn — and my nephew McQuinn has just hit a home run for the Browns."

Comptroller Keeps Busy

A chart of the state comptroller's department looks about as complicated as one from the Inter-Allied command in Europe. The department has 17 divisions, besides its main supervising office, some entirely independent and others coordinating.

The office was created by the state constitution, but nothing was said in the constitution specifically about its duties. They were to be such as "are or may be required by law."

Result of this has been that when some new state agency was needed that had an accounting side to it, the duties were added to those of the Comptroller's department. These included considerable tax collection as well as accounting supervision over the county tax collecting agencies.

Divisions under the main department are: claims and warrants, inheritance tax, store tax, bonds, statistical and bookkeeping, cashier, mailing, ad valorem taxes, cigarette and occupation taxes, gross production taxes, motor fuel tax enforcement, motor fuel tax refunds, intangible tax, redemption, supplies, confederate pension and auditing division.

MORE PORK WITH MANAMAR

SEA PROTEINS, MINERALS, VITAMINS CAN DOUBLE YOUR PORK PROFITS

If you are growing hogs on grain alone, you can DOUBLE the SALABLE PORK you get from your grains by using a ManAmar Hog Supplement.

If your present feed does not contain ManAmar, it will pay you to arrange a Pen against Pen Test. See "what a whale of a difference ManAmar makes."

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED "Satisfaction or your money back" is our guarantee if you make a Pen against Pen Test of an approved ManAmar Feed against your present feed. Ask us about our ManAmar Hog Feeds.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (AP)—The cotton market made slight progress today on mill buying and local covering coincident with reports from Washington that a tentative export subsidy plan had been worked out between the Commodity Credit Corp. and trade representative. Final prices were 10 to 25 cents a bale higher.

Commission houses were small buyers in the distant months, including the October, 1945, delivery, which traded for the first time.

The government weather report indicated favorable conditions in all parts of the belt for harvesting.

mans, and Red Cross workers and munitions employes into the armed forces, there is no estimate of the number of armed men who could be raised by the new order.

Himmler said the task of the members of the volksstrum was "to fanatically grab the enemy and if possible to wipe him out where he steps on our home soil, be it by advance on the ground or by descending from the air. Our enemies must learn to understand that every kilometer which they want to advance into our country will cost them streams of their blood."

This guerrilla army, which the Nazis proclaimed legal with armband identification, was placed under the control of Himmler and Reichsleader Martin Bormann with supreme power to impress anyone and everyone.

In a special broadcast tonight the Berlin radio said the announcement of the founding of the volksstrum "struck like a stroke of lightning. Everywhere it was the topic of the day."

"Young boys with red-cheeked children's faces and whitehaired men discussed the possibility offered by the fuehrer's decree in actively participating in the country's defense with a rifle in hand," the broadcast continued.

Created at the time he wrote "One World," Willkie donated all his royalties from the book to the fund to aid philanthropic causes in which he particularly was interested.

ODT Orders Taxis To Suspend In Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 18. (AP) —By order of Earl T. Amrine, district manager for the Office of Defense Transportation, taxicab service in Illinois' capital city will be suspended at 6 a. m. tomorrow.

Amrine said the order, freezing all but three of the approximately 60 cabs operated by three cab companies serving this city of 75,000, is the result of "continuous violation of ODT regulations" by by the cab drivers. He charged them with reckless driving and said the cabs are in bad repair.

Each company is to be permitted to operate one cab for emergency service to hospitals, railroad stations and an ordnance plant.

Progress Of Tiny Infant Satisfactory

BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 18. (AP) —A baby girl which weighed one pound and nine ounces at birth three days ago is progressing satisfactorily in a St. Lexius hospital incubator, physicians reported here today.

The tiny infant is fed a teaspoonful of breast milk every four hours with an eyedropper.

Military Rules Set Fair Terms

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Paris, Oct. 18.—Extermination of Nazism with all of its works and symbols, and stern but just treatment of the Germans generally are the terms of the military law being imposed in German territory wrested from Hitler's army.

Brig. Gen. Julius C. Holmes, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's deputy assistant chief of staff for military government, said today in outlining the scope of the measure that its main object was to facilitate the work of the armies in continuing their push.

The present code already is posted in those small areas of Germany so far occupied and deals only with the war period. Plans for long-term occupation of the Reich are left for the Allied governments to decide upon later.

Eisenhower In Control

The war law for Germany sets aside the sovereignty of the German state and makes Gen. Eisenhower supreme judge and administrator. It is effective in all areas occupied by the armies under his command.

The main provisions are the elimination of Nazism, apprehension of war criminals, protection of Allied and neutral property, abrogation of Nazi laws, surrender of all arms by Germans, suspension of civilian travel, courts, newspapers and radio stations, control of postal, telegraph and telephone services and preservation of all existing records, archives, artistic and scientific works and property generally.

Western Front

won control of the entire road from Venray to Deurne, to the southwest, and pushed across it.

Venray, which lies five miles west of the Maas, fell to the British during the night after a two-day battle, and was cleared of snipers this forenoon, front dispatches related.

With the smashing of the latest German counterattack against Aachen the Americans have now badly cut up two Gedman divisions, Associated Press correspondent William Smith White wrote from the front. One has been substantially destroyed as a fighting unit and the other materially reduced.

Artillery Given Credit

American artillery was credited in front dispatches as having been the weapon mainly responsible for the smashing of every German attempt to regain Aachen. American shells have been falling on the Germans as far back as Duren, 20 miles east of Aachen, at the rate of about 50,000 rounds a day.

Canadians along the Schelde estuary were reported to have driven within 3,000 to 4,000 yards of Breskens. The continued thunder of German demolitions indicated the enemy had given up his last hope of a get-away through this ferry port to Vlissingen and that he intended to dig in and fight here to the bitter end as he has in other ports of the western front. The Canadians reached Ijeznidjke, six miles south of Breskens.

Four Miles Of Metz

The American Third Army drove nearly a mile north from Nancy Sur Moselle in an attack which put the Yanks within four miles of the great French fortress city of Metz, front dispatches disclosed. Only light opposition was encountered and it was apparent that the Germans had made no determined attempt to hold this sector.

The American Seventh Army held firm against German counterattacks at Embermenil, east of the forest of Parroy, and the French beat off counterattacks north of Bruyeres and near Rochesson in this area of the approaches to southwestern Germany.

Nazi Belgrade Fight Becoming Slaughter

LONDON, Thursday, Oct. 19. (AP)—The Germans' hopeless, last-ditch fight for Belgrade is becoming a slaughter and Marshal Tito reported early today that his Partisan forces alone had killed 5,000 Nazis.

Liberation of the Yugoslav capital was at hand and the Belgrade radio, closed down a week ago, came back on the air during the night—this time to broadcast the Allied communique.

"Our units are capturing one stronghold after another, even though the Germans are defending them to the last man," Tito announced. "The population of Belgrade is procuring arms to help our forces and is showing our units and the Red Army men where the enemy is hiding."

Truck Thief Sought In Soldier's Death

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 18. (AP) — The Camp Bowie public relations office said military and civilian officers today were searching for the drived of a stolen army salvage truck involved with an army jeep in a collsion which resulted in the death of a Camp Bowie soldier.

Dead on arrival at the station hospital after the crash on the military reservation yesterday was Pvt. Harry H. Davidson, 32. His next of kin was listed as an aunt, Mrs. Viola M. Farmer, Philomath, Ore. Two other soldiers riding in the jeep with Davidson were injured.

The public relations office said the driver jumped from the stolen vehicle and escaped.

CHICAGO BIRTHS DOWN

CHICAGO (UP)—Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the Chicago Board of Health, reports that the city's birth rate declined in the first six months of 1944 from 18.8 per 1,000 population in the same period of 1943 to 16.0.

News Briefs

Gaming stands at the carnival playing here on East Broadway were closed down voluntarily by the management, chief Deputy Sheriff Grady Harrist said last night. Harrist said the action followed a conference with carnival officials in which he, Ranger Capt. Maney Gault and County Attorney Syrian Marbut participated. Complaints reportedly had reached officials of "big takes" at the stands.

"It is attended by winds up to 100 miles per hour near center, with dangerous gales over a wide area.

"This severe storm will continue to move northward, with indications of a turn to north northeast later tonight.

May Hit Jacksonville

"It should cross the west Florida coast between Fort Myers and Tarpon Springs early Thursday, and probably pass into the Atlantic near Jacksonville Thursday evening, threatening the coast northward to Hatteras.

"Gales to whole gale winds will be experienced over entire area of Florida east of the Apalachicola river, with winds of full hurricane force within a 30 miles radius of path of center along the Florida west coast and inland to central Florida.

"Every precaution should be taken by all interests in Florida until the hurricane passes.

"All interests along the Atlantic coast from Jacksonville to Hatteras should be on the alert for further advices."

There was no late word from Key West, where the war-swollen population sought refuge in substantial buildings of the naval operating base and in other parts of the small, flat island.

Navy Tug Unreported

Nothing was heard from a Navy tug with a crew of three which picked up 21 men from an abandoned lightship off Key West.

The Navy was hopeful, however, that the tug had put in to another port.

As early as 2:30 p. m. the flat, low-lying string of keys extending southwestward from the Florida peninsula was being attacked by hurricane winds from Alligator Reef to the Dry Tortugas.

The storm center at the time was spotted by the weather bureau about 40 miles southwest of Key West, moving northward about 10 to 12 miles an hour.

Boy, 7, Hurt When Run Over By Auto

Seven-year-old Jessie Ray King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe King of Lubbock route 6, was seriously injured about 8 o'clock Wednesday night when he was run over by a car.

The accident occurred in the road in front of the King home and the driver was a woman who was leaving after visiting the Kings.

Full extent and the nature of the boy's injuries will not be known until after a more complete examination this morning. He is in Lubbock General hospital.

OPA Agents Can Make Arrests, Carry Guns

DALLAS, Oct. 18. (AP) — Allen Bell, regional chief special agent of the Office of Price administration ration currency protection branch, said today his agents have been given authority to make arrests and carry firearms in connection with their investigations of black markets in ration coupons.

Bell's statement was made in connection with the arrest of a travel bureau driver who, Bell said, was struck over the head with a blackjack when he resisted arrest after refusing to produce rations for inspection by OPA agents.

"My men have been instructed not to use strong-arm tactics unless absolutely necessary, but black market thugs might as well be advised that OPA special agents are not in the business of protecting the public's ration currency for nothing and thugs will be handled as such when they resist arrest," Bell said.

Texas Livestock In Good Condition

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—Livestock were in good condition to go into winter and winter range feeds were assured in most Texas areas, the U. S. department reported today.

In a review of conditions for the week ended Oct. 16 the department reported also:

Cotton was ready for harvest in many northwestern and western counties.

Harvest of corn, feeds and hay continued at a fairly good pace.

The late grain sorghum crops neared maturity in southern counties.

Commercial vegetables made satisfactory progress with tender vegetables such as snap beans, eggplant, peppers and squash becoming available in increasing volume. Transplanting of cabbage continued and seeding of other hardy vegetables was active.

Father, Son Apart 34 Years Reunited

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 18. (AP) — Seabee Edwin Paul Stewart, 36, had not seen his father, Alvin E. Stewart, retired Brownwood railroad man, for 34 years.

Stewart, arriving at the Seattle Naval hospital after 11 months in the Pacific, received word his father was struck by an automobile in Brownwood. An emergency leave was arranged, and the reunion here followed. The elder Stewart is recovering.

"We've been keeping in touch the last 19 years by letter" the son explained.

"Buy A War Bond TODAY"

Testimony Ends In Bell Wage Dispute

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Testimony was concluded today in a regional War Labor Board panel hearing on a proposed wage increase for 33,000 empoyes of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

The Southwestern Telephone Workers' union (Ind.) has requested a 17½ cent-an-hour-increase for all non-supervisory employes, contending the weekly pay rate in the five-state area served by the company is $7.03 per week below the national average for telephone workers.

George C. Gephart, vice president and head of the personnel department of the company, testified today wages paid by the system are in keeping with general policy and any increase would be a violation of the Little Steel formula.

Both sides were given two weeks to file briefs. Dean Alexander S. Langsford of Washington University, chairman of the panel, said it probably would require another two weeks to prepare a transcript and forward the panel's decision to Washington.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone company operates in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

HEAVY BLOWS DEALT CERAM AND BOERSE

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Thursday, Oct. 19 (AP) — One hundred fifty Allied planes smashed installations, shipping and airdromes on Ceram and Boeroe islands, flank bases to the approaches to the Philippines, headquarters announced today.

This raid Monday was the second 150-plane assault in recent days on these bases. A total of 90 tons of bombs was unloaded in the Monday assault.

Airfields Cratered

Heavy bombers cratered airfields at Namleaand at Ambon, Amboina island, while medium bombers and fighter-bombers smashed small shipping nearby and swept the coastlines of Ceram and Amboina Monday.

Fighter planes paid widespread attention to shipping. P-38's damaged and sank small shipping along the coasts of Halmahera island.

They also proceeded as far northward as Cagayan harbor, Mindanao, for the second consecutive day and set fire to two freighters.

Australian P-40's swept Manokwari harbor in Dutch New Guinea, hitting supply dumps and installations Tuesday.

BOX SCORE FOR WEEK SHOW BIG JAP LOSS

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Oct. 18 (AP) — Incomplete official box score, Oct. 9 through Oct. 17, on Japanese plane and ship losses in the powerful U. S. Third Fleet carrier strikes against the Ryukyu islands, Formosa, the Pescadores and the northern Philippines:

Planes destroyed, 934: in air 566, aground 368.

Ships sunk or damaged — 192 vessels, mostly cargo carriers, and 155 small craft.

Until Adm. William F. Halsey, jr., commander of the Third Fleet sends in a complete summary, the full picture is not available. Halsey has been under a radio blackout most of the time.

War correspondents with the carriers have made occasional references to successes which as yet have not been mentioned in the communiques.

Post Office Clerk Charged With Theft

DALLLAS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Emil Francis Nieper, veteran Corsicana postoffice clerk, pleaded innocent today when arraigned on a charge of "embezzling" an air mail letter containing $8 in currency. The arraignment was before U. S. Commissioner John Davis. Nieper was released on his own recognizance bond of $1,000.

REVOLT SPREADS

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, Oct. 18. (AP) — The revolutionary movement against the government of President Tiburcio Carias Andino of Honduras which began last week along the border of Honduras and El Salvador has spread to several points in the country, dispatches from the border area said today.

Stakes Are High In Currency In Greece

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Newbold Noyes, jr., war correspondent of the Evening Star, submitted to its business office today the following expense account covering his first 24 hours in Athens which is plagued by currency inflation:

Shoe shine, 75,000,000,000 drachmas.

One martini cocktail, 40,000,000,000 drachmas.

Dinner, 210,000,000,000 drachmas.

Hotel room for night, 420,000,000,000 drachmas.

Breakfast, 35,000,000,000 drachmas.

One cigarette (local), 400,000,000 drachmas.

One satchel to carry around reasonable supply of drachma notes, 300,000,000,000 drachmas.

The correspondent appended a footnote explaining he was making his account brief as it was costing the star 3,500,000,000 drachmas per word—"unless exchange rate has changed for the worse since I checked it 10 minutes ago, which is highly probable."

Freed War Prisoners To Get Home Quickly

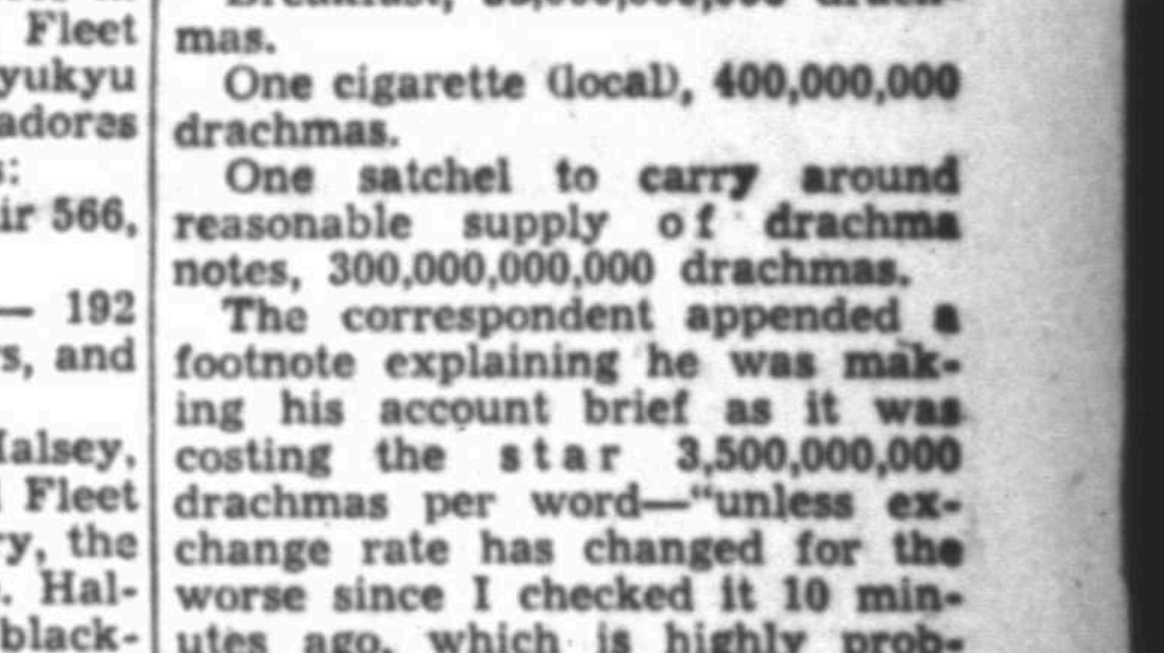

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP) — The War department announced today that military personnel who have been prisoners of war for 60 days or more will be returned to the United States as soon as possible after being freed unless they specifically ask to remain overseas.

Forrestal Review Reveals Giant Jap Shipping Losses Since June

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal disclosed today that the U. S. Third and Fifth fleets have destroyed 3080 enemy planes and blasted 1,110 enemy ships since early June.

At the same time, Forrestal released to a news conference a Navy communique disclosing that U. S. submarines have sunk 32 more Japanese ships, including seven combat ships.

The accumulation of these sea and air blows, he told reporters, is steadily and relentlessly "crowding the Jap back into his own corner. Eventually, he added, the enemy fleet "must stand and fight."

Recent Submarine Bag

The latest submarine bag included three destroyers, three escort vessels, a mine layer, 16 cargo vessels, seven cargo transports, one naval auxiliary and one tanker. These sinkings raised to 804 the total of Japanese ships sunk by American submarines.

Forrestal issued a summary of losses inflicted on the Japanese by the Third fleet, commanded by Admiral William F. Halsey, jr., and the Fifth fleet, commanded by Admiral Raymond A. Spruance. It showed that in four major sweeps by these fleets—beginning with the Marianas-Bonins attacks which started June 6 and running through Oct. 16, including part of the current Formosa-Luzon attacks—1,827 Japanese aircraft were shot down and 1,253 were destroyed on the ground.

In addition, the summary showed that during this period the two fleets and their airmen sank 356 Japanese ships and probably sunk or damaged 549.

Loss Ratio Is 9 To 1

American aircraft lost in combat totalled 341 in all of these operations, or a ratio of better than nine to one over the Japanese. Forrestal did not list the hundreds of small enemy craft sunk or damaged.

Commenting on Japanese merchant losses which constituted the greater portion of the sea destruction wrought on the enemy, Forrestal said that they are undoubtedly now at a point "where it is limiting their free movement over the sea."

"These losses," he added, "are now hitting below the point at which we had expected they would encounter serious difficulties."

Recent strikes by the two fleets along Japanese defense lines running from the Marianas down into the Philippines, he said, are "the opening moves in the unremitting pressure that is to be applied against Japan in the western Pacific."

Must Fight Some Time

"No one of these operations," he continued, "is in itself an overwhelming victory, but the steady accumulation of these blows is steadily and relentlessly crowding the Jap back into his own corner. For many months Japanese naval strength has been at bay and eventually it must stand and fight.

"In the operations between Oct. 9-15, units of the Japanese fleet came within air reconnaissance range of our fleet but evidently decided that the time to fight has not yet come."

Extra Effort Stated Necessary For Peace

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18. (AP)—Prayer and faith alone cannot solve the world's ills, Dr. Albert Edward Day of Pasadena, Calif., told 2,000 delegates and visitors attending the 86th annual session of the Southwest Texas conference of Methodist churches here today. The Christian people must exert themselves toward bringing about a better world, he declared.

"We cannot banish war by faith or save our beloved," Dr. Day declared. "We cannot by prayer toss our responsibility back in the lap of God."

"If we do not want our women and children burned by bombs, our boys sent out to drop death on inocent people of other lands, we must shake off the shackles of political tradition, escape the spell of economic imperialists, turn a deaf ear to seductive columnists, who still preach the fatal doctrine of power politics, and organize our world for peace," Dr. Day admonished.

The Texas mission home and training school here will be dedicated in ceremonies tomorrow, signifying that the $100,000 institution has been freed of its indebtedness.

Reading of appointments of ministers will be made Friday noon.

Nazis Confirm Taking Of Edward Beattie

LONDON, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Confirmation that Edward W. Beattie, veteran United Press war correspondent, has been captured came today from a German source, for the first time.

A German DNB agency dispatch quoted the Nazi war commentator, Alexander Schmalfuss, as reporting:

"Prisoners of the past few days also include the War Correspondent Beattie of the American news agency, United Press."

Beattie was captured by the Germans more than a month ago while on the American Third Army front east of Nancy.

Together with two other correspondents, Wright Bryan of the Atlanta Journal and John Mecklin of the Chicago Sun, he was captured by the Germans while making a jeep tour of the front.

Texan Gives His Life To Save Village And People Are Grateful

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—An El Paso staff sergeant told today how an Oklahoma City Liberator bomber pilot gave his life to save a small Belgian village from destruction.

Members of Lt. Floyd Addy's crew have written and telephoned his wife here the details of the pilot's death.

S/Sgt. H. C. Bomar of El Paso, gunner, wrote Mrs. Addy that the crew was balling out over Belgium after three engines of the heavy bomber had quit.

Headed For Village

"The lieutenant nad I were last," he wrote. "Just as I jumped I saw him turn and go back to the control room. As my chute opened I saw what he must have seen, the plane was headed directly for a Belgian village. Its crash would have wiped out the village.

"Then the plane turned. It couldn't have done that by itself. The lieutenant must have taken over the controls. It turned and as it fell, it struck a high tension line and burst into flames just outside the village."

The sergeant said the surviving crew members were captured by the Germans and held prisoner for nine days before being liberated. He said the next day after the crash, the Belgians persuaded the Germans to permit the crew members to see Addy's body.

Covered With Flowers

"Every inch of the wreckage had been assembled and was covered with flowers," the sergeant wrote. "A huge cross of white flowers stood at Floyd's head which rested on his unopened parachute. Somewhere the grateful people had found an American flag and the body was wrapped in it.

"The villagers were not allowed to bury him. He was buried in a marked grave in the German cemetery, but on the day of the funeral all of the shops were closed and the day declared one of mourning for the brave American who saved their little town."

Mecklin was released by the Germans but Beattie and Bryan who was wounded were retained, presumably being sent into Germany.

Stevenson Not Excited At Fuss

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said today he did not think the University of Texas was suffering any great injury as an institution because of differences between the board of regents and University President Homer P. Rainey.

At a press conference he said also that he was willing to do what he could but that he would not set himself up "as a dictator to run other departments of state government."

He said further:

The board of regents, the university president and other groups have full right to air their expressions, whether religious or secular.

Strickland Within Rights

Regent D. F. Strickland of Mission, named specifically by Dr. Rainey in a list of instances of "repressive measures" Dr. Rainey said the board imposed or attempted to impose, has acted within his statutory rights and his interest in the university is sincere.

He replied in the affirmative when asked if he thought it was his responsibility to step into the situation if he thought the university was on the brink of serious injury as a result of differences between the governing board and the president.

"I do not think the future of the university is in jeopardy," he added.

Former State Bank Commissioner Dies

LIBERTY, Texas, Oct. 18. (AP)—Charles O. Austin, 67, former state banking commissioner and Liberty county judge, died today of a heart attack while convalescing from pneumonia.

Funeral services were set at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at the Cleveland, Texas, Methodist church.

Chaplains are not provided on U. S. war ships smaller than heavy cruisers.

Nine Stills Taken By Liquor Board

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (U.P.)—Nine illicit stills were captured by Texas Liquor Control board inspectors in September, the board's monthly report showed today.

Five of the stills were taken in Harrison county, two in Smith, and one each in Bastrop and Gaines counties. Capacity of the stills was 455 gallons, and with them inspectors captured 1,370 gallons of mash, 35 gallons and one quart of liquor. They made seven arrests.

The 16 enforcement districts reported filing 338 criminal complaints, with 279 convictions resulting in 62 jail sentences and $49,122 in fines.

Tax collections at international bridges totaled $27,224 on beverages brought into Texas from Mexico. Liquor, wine and beer tax stamp sales in the state aggregated $1,386,306, an increase of $345,074 more than in September, 1943.
