Chamber lawyer says settlement denied until now

Attorneys representing the Snyder Chamber of Commerce said that "until Monday evening," no offer was ever made by them or lawyers representing the county to settle the $2 million lawsuit brought against both entities by the Glenn Polk family.

A settlement of $40,000 was granted the Polks Tuesday morning, an amount which must also pay plaintiff attorney's fees incurred by them and medical and funeral expenses related to the death of their son Jeff.

Brad Crawford of Lubbock, who handled the majority of cross examination during the four-day trial, said Tuesday, "It was the first offer of settlement we felt we could accept."

Both the county and chamber were covered by liability insurance in connection with the accident, some $500,000 for the chamber and an estimated $250,000 to $300,000 for the county.

Insurance companies for both could have been held liable for

Polk family accepts...

$40,000 settlement ends suit

A settlement of $40,000 was reached Monday evening and finalized Tuesday morning in the $2 million lawsuit filed against the county and chamber by the Glenn Polk family.

The judgment awarded the Polks, which entails 2 percent of the original sum sought, represents a "full, final and complete settlement" to the lawsuit, attorneys for both sides noted.

In the words of David Cobb, one of three lawyers representing the county in the matter, "There will be no more days in court."

It was noted that the settlement will be jointly shared by both the county and chamber.

The settlement itself was agreed to by the insurance companies which carried liability insurance for both entities at the time of the accident.

Regarding this, by far the majority of the settlement, with the exception of some attorney's fees, will be borne by the insurance companies.

As a stipulation of the settlement, $4,000 of it will be legally set apart for use by the Polk's 15-year-old daughter Amy.

From the remaining $36,000, deducted from it will be attorney's fees for the lawyer representing the Polks and the medical and funeral expenses the family incurred in connection with the death of their 12-year-old son Jeff.

These expenses were listed during trial testimony as $10,700 in medical expenses and $3,700 in funeral expenses.

The attorney fees for the plaintiff were not disclosed, but a rule of thumb for such costs is at least one-third of any final judgment.

The settlement itself was awarded to Glenn and Twila Polk as Jeff Polk's parents and his twin sister Amy. The Polk's oldest son Jason had been removed as a party in the lawsuit earlier since, according to chamber attorneys, he was not actually present at the accident which killed his younger brother.

Jeff Polk died Oct. 8, 1984 as a result of head injuries suffered when he fell through a suspended ceiling area in the Scurry County Coliseum.

The accident occurred during a rehearsal for the chamber-sponsored "Whirlagig" celebration.

The $2 million lawsuit was filed against both the chamber and Scurry County as owner of the coliseum since, it was alleged, both entities were liable because of their failure to warn the family of potential dangers at the facility.

The Polks contended that such warnings would have prevented their son from climbing a series of three ladders to gain access to the facility's suspended ceiling

In Brief

Override vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan, apparently conceding defeat in his first spending fight with the 100th Congress, is not trying to save his veto of popular $20 billion clean water legislation, lawmakers say.

"I see no sign he's putting together his troops," said Senate Environment and Public Works Committee Chairman Quentin Burdick, D-N.D. "As far as I can tell, he's not even trying."

GNP increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's main gauge of future economic activity shot up 2.1 percent in December, the biggest increase in almost four years.

The increase in the Commerce Department's Index of Leading Indicators was the fourth in a row and followed a substantial 0.9 percent November gain.

Analysts, who had been expecting a strong performance out of the index, cautioned against reading too much into the December number. They said it reflected various temporary factors such as a year-end rush to beat tax law changes rather than reflecting any significant long-term rebound in the economy.

Jury indicts for rape

A Scurry County grand jury, meeting for its regular February session Monday, returned eight felony indictments against eight individuals including one suspect indicted for rape.

Indicted for one count of aggravated sexual assault was 29-year-old Jaime Ortegon of 1203 Ave. O.

Ortegon was arrested by sheriff's deputies in January and charged with the forcible rape of a 22-year-old Snyder woman at a residence in the 1700 Block of Ave. R on Jan. 11.

Ortegon is being held in the Scurry County Jail in lieu of bonds set at $35,000 on the indictment which was "enhanced" with the mention of two previous felony convictions.

Ortegon had previously been convicted of burglary in Scurry County in 1979 and in Jackson County, Tx. in 1983.

Indicted for one count of possession of a controlled substance was 29-year-old Melvin Riggins of 2900 Ave. J.

Riggins was arrested by city police on a routine traffic stop Jan. 24 and charged with the possession of the drug Hydromorphone. He is currently free on bond of $5,000.

Explosion in car kills 1, injures 2

TEXARKANA, Texas (AP) — An explosive device tore apart a luxury automobile, killing the president of a drug company and injuring his wife and 10-year-old daughter, federal authorities said today.

The blast occurred Monday evening in the parking lot of Walsh-Lumpkin Drug Co., a pharmaceutical distribution company, said police spokesman Earl Cox.

Daryl Crouch, 36, was killed in the explosion, while his wife Rebecca Jan Crouch, 35, and the couple's 10-year-old daughter, Sandra, were injured, authorities said.

The late-model Mercedes exploded shortly before 7 p.m. Monday in front of the drug company, located on State Line Avenue, which divides Texas and Arkansas, Cox said.

Agents from the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms were at the scene today examining the wreckage, said Bob Switzer, acting agent in charge of the ATF office in Dallas.

"There was an improvised explosive device used," said Switzer, who refused to discuss how the device was triggered.

Switzer said evidence recovered from the scene would be sent to an ATF laboratory in San Francisco. He refused to say how many federal agents had been sent to Texarkana.

Ron Gray, a spokesman for Walsh-Lumpkin, said today the company had no reason to believe the explosion was related to an extortion attempt against the firm last August.

According to Gray, Walsh-Lumpkin received an anonymous letter that company officials interpreted as a tampering threat aimed at an unnamed product. Gray said local, state and federal authorities investigated and found no evidence of tampering.

Witnesses said the explosion jolted buildings in the area.

"It shook us pretty bad. We thought we were on fire," said Lorann Ables, who works at the Taco Tico restaurant on the Arkansas side of the street.

She said a passer-by removed a woman from the car.

"She was on fire with a little blaze on her. She tried to get back into the car to pull the man out, but they wouldn't let her," she said.

Mrs. Crouch and her daughter were running around the car, screaming as they tried to pull Crouch out of the wreckage, Ms. Elmore said.

A spokeswoman at the Wadley Regional Medical Center said Sandra Crouch was admitted with burns to her face, hands and back and was in fair condition today.

Filipino opposition concedes defeat

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — Former Defense Minister Juan Ponce Enrile, a leader in the fight against President Corazon Aquino's new constitution, conceded defeat today as returns pointed to a huge win for the government.

"I take great pride as a Filipino in the triumph of the democratic processes in our country," Enrile said. "We accept the verdict of the people."

He was the first major opposition figure to concede. Opponents on the left refused to concede and repeated calls for Mrs. Aquino's 11-month-old government to shake up the military and make good on land reform promises.

Final, official returns from Monday's vote were not expected for several days.

The National Movement For Free Elections (NAMFREL) said its unofficial count from 28,820 of the 86,703 precincts showed 6,230,237 votes for the constitution and 1,673,035 against, giving Mrs. Aquino 78.8 percent of the vote counted.

The plebiscite marked the first time Mrs. Aquino turned to the electorate for endorsement of her government since she was swept into office last February in a military-civilian uprising that ousted President Ferdinand E. Marcos.

Her supporters described the balloting as a "vote of confidence," and she predicted that ratification of the constitution would lead to the stability that so far has eluded her administration.

The Commission on Elections estimated that 80 to 90 percent of the 25 million eligible voters cast ballots, and Mrs. Aquino called the turnout an "admirable demonstration of democracy."

Voters were asked to state "yes" or "no" on whether they supported the charter, which sharply reduces the power of the president, restores a bicameral legislature, bans the military from political activity except voting.

District set to name two for review board

Two expiring positions on the appraisal review board are expected to be filled Tuesday during the regular session of the Scurry County Appraisal District board of directors.

Board members will name two persons to fill the expired terms for Ross Carroll and Harold Lacik. Traditionally, review board members are asked to serve again.

New members named will join Walter Stirl, who has one year remaining on his two-year term.

Review board members generally hold hearings in July to answer questions or hear complaints from taxpayers who disagree with property assessments made by appraisal staffers.

If the property owner or appraisal officials do not accept the board's ruling, they may appeal in 132nd District Court.

During the session, set for 7 p.m. in the district office at 2612 College, board members will also hear minutes from last month's session and approve district bills.

Miles hearing is next week

A pre-trial hearing in the case of Amanda Lynn Miles previously set for 9 a.m. Tuesday has been reschueduled for 9 a.m. Feb. 12 in 132nd District Court.

Miles is indicted for capital murder in connection with the March 1986 killing of an Allsup's store clerk.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "An expert is a guy from out of town who takes a subject you already know and makes it sound confusing."

A notice in the Wall Street Journal reveals that it now costs more than $100,000 to raise a kid from birth.

And each year the cost is even worse.

During tough economic times, it's refreshing to come across information that lifts the spirits. We recently ran across a list of qualities of a winner and a loser.

The winner is always part of the answer. The loser is always part of the problem.

The winner always has a program, but the loser always has an excuse.

The winner says, "Let me do it for you." The loser says, "That's not my job."

The winner sees an answer for every problem. The loser sees a problem in every answer.

The winner sees a green near every sand trap, while the loser sees two or three sand traps near every green.

The winner says the glass is half full. The loser says it is half empty.

The winner says, "It may be difficut, but not impossible." The loser says it may be possible, but it's too difficult."

A recent article in a golfing magazine made a point that is applicable to the current economic "storm."

According to the golf writer, 90 percent of the golfers allow adverse weather conditions to control their game. Only a small percentage of golfers are able to concentrate on their game and are able to put bad weather conditions out of their minds.

It's much the same in business. Many businessmen are like golfers. If playing conditions are not just perfect, then it's hard to maintain the necessary concentration and we forget the basics.

Two of the basic things in business is not only do we have to attract customers, but we have to give service to keep them.

Liberace is near death

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Pianist Liberace's death appeared to be imminent today, with friends and relatives gathering at his home here to say farewell, aides to the entertainer said.

"I don't think there's much time," spokeswoman Denise Collier said in a telephone interview Monday night from New York. "I don't know if it's going to be a day or two days but I don't think it's going to be much more than that."

Liberace was resting comfortably and there was no change in his condition today, said attorney Joel Strote.

Questions for new director

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before CIA veteran Robert M. Gates can win Senate confirmation as head of the spy agency, he may have to explain his failure to tell Congress about the use of Iran arms money to help Nicaraguan rebels.

But despite his involvement in the Iran-Contra affair, his political skills and reputation for innovation could make Gates what one lawmaker called "a breath of fresh air" between the White House and Capitol Hill.

And his hard-line views give him the ideological credentials to succeed William J. Casey, who echoed President Reagan's anti-communist rhetoric and dramatically expanded the agency's budget and its covert operations.

Senate hearings on the nomination begin Feb. 17. If confirmed, Gates, 43, will become the first intelligence professional to head the American spy agency since William E. Colby stepped down in 1976.

Gates' selection came after former Republican Sen. Howard Baker of Tennessee reportedly turned down the job.

"Better known political figures may not be interested in getting involved in the trauma of the last two years of the Reagan administration," said Adm. Stansfield Turner, who headed the CIA under President Carter.

Gates has made his career in analysis rather than secret operations, serving in Washington during all of his 20-year tenure.

"His nomination represents the final arrival of an analyst at the CIA," said Colby, noting that the transfer from Casey to Gates would mark a transition from a World War II cloak-and-dagger spy to a computer generation technocrat.

Gates is a scholar and experienced bureaucrat. After obtaining a doctorate in Soviet history from Georgetown University in 1974 while working at the CIA, Gates spent six years on loan to the White House National Security Council, serving under Reagan, Ford and Carter.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1987 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Something has been nagging at me, and I will have no peace of mind until someone helps me figure it out. Five years ago, after 45 years of marriage, my husband died. It wasn't much of a marriage because shortly after we were married he told me he loved another and would always love her, but she was unattainable. Now in my declining years I am thinking about what will happen when I die. This may sound silly to you, Abby, but people say when you go to heaven, you will be reunited with your first true love.

Now I'm wondering if I will be reunited with my husband or if there is a chance I will be reunited with my first true love whom I loved all through my high school years. We fell in love but not into bed, if you get my drift. But I really did love him. He died eight years ago, but before he died he found me to tell me that he had loved me all his life.

Abby, I want my old high school sweetheart to be waiting for me in heaven, not my husband. Is this blasphemy? Or must I be reunited with my worthless husband?

LOOKING HEAVENWARD

DEAR LOOKING: What happens when (or if) we reach the gates of heaven is anybody's guess. Think your happiest thoughts, dear lady, and God may hear your words and make them true!

DEAR ABBY: Every year I'm sure you receive many letters from people who say they do not appreciate mimeographed newsletters tucked in with Christmas cards. Well, I am one person who loves them. It adds to my joy to learn of the triumphs, adventures and travels of my friends and their offspring. We may not have seen each other for many years, but through these yearly newsletters I can share an important part of their lives and continue to feel close to them.

In addition, I have reached the stage where I am shedding possessions and definitely do not need more cologne, guest towels, scarves or perfumed soaps. And if someone wants to honor me by contributing to some worthy cause in my name, I feel doubly gifted. Such donors reflect the true spirit of the holiday season, and show true generosity in assisting others rather than giving to people who already have more than they know what to do with.

NAMELESS IN TENNESSEE

DEAR NAMELESS: Well said. Read on for another view on making a donation instead of sending a gift:

DEAR ABBY: It's very nice of people to inform me that a contribution to their favorite charity has been sent in my name. But the ultimate in generosity was the friend who made a contribution to my favorite charity as her gift to me.

DEAR ABBY: That man, "Al," who hated to see women in pants must not have been around when women first started to wear them. About that time, this little poem came out:

"Pants are made for men — not women

"Women are made for men — not for pants

"When a man pants for a woman, and a woman

"Pants for a man, what do you have?

"A pair of pants!"

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If your emotions rule your head today you could be jockeyed into a awkward position; you may have to defend a premise in which you don't truly believe.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Take time today to carefully evaluate your financial involvements. If there are situations where you're getting in over your head, start backing out.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You may be too protective of your own self-interests today. Objectively analyze your motives. Let your better instincts prevail if you're biased.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't get drawn into an arrangement today that has hidden strings attached. What you'll derive will be disproportionate to what you'll have to give back.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Gentle tactics will achieve goals for you today that flexing your muscles won't. Where possible, try to praise instead of push.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Don't kid yourself today into believing that the end justifies the means. If your behavior is not in accord with your high standards, you'll regret it later.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You might have a bit of a chip on your shoulder today. This could cause you to display displeasure at the remarks of companions where no ill will was intended.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you deal with the wrong types of people today, you'll be at a disadvantage. What you'll give as opposed to what you'll get will be poles apart.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Valued relationships will require delicate handling today. You might experience opposition from people who are usually staunchly in your corner.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Give credence to your instincts today in your monetary affairs. If your intuition warns you against a certain deal, it's best to look for a new one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Steer clear of social situations today where you could encounter an arrogant acquaintance with whom you've recently had cross words. The wounds haven't healed yet.

Diet Pill System Sweeping U.S.
Super Dream Pill
Guaranteed Weight Loss

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH — According to a review of customers' files, here's what people are saying about the amazing, vastly improved "new version" of the world famous Dream Pill System for fast, guaranteed weight loss featuring Super Lite Dreams tablets:

"I lost 25 lbs. with a 30 day supply." Mrs. J.N.S., Ft. Payne, AL.

"Losing 1 lb. per day." Mr. J.G., Pineville, KY.

"I've lost 34 lbs. and I'm still losing." Mrs. J.K., Garden Grove, CA.

"I have been on Dream Pill for one month and feel great . . . have lost 27 lbs. Mr. A.D., Anadarko, OK.

The System's Dream Pill combines two natural substances called L-arginine and L-ornithine which can stimulate the body's production of growth hormone. Diet researchers believe that growth hormone may be what's responsible for allowing teenagers to down thousands of calories in hamburgers and other foods and still be thin as a rail.

Growth Hormone is present in people up through the teenage years, then slowly diminishes with age. But L-arginine and L-ornithine make the body 'think' it belongs to a teenager again, allowing adults to eat as much as they want — and still be thin and wiry.

Life Extension Authors Confirm Results

Durk Pearson and Sandy Shaw, graduates of MIT and UCLA respectively, introduced these miracle substances to the public in their runaway best selling book, Life Extension. Much to her amazement, while taking L-arginine for its healing effects on a broken foot, Sandy lost 25 pounds of fat and put on 5 pounds of firm-toned muscle in six weeks. According to Durk's calculations, the pill caused Sandy to lose 400 times as much fat as she would otherwise have lost — without dieting!

Stargazers meet

Extension agent Kathy Roberts presented a program on classic collars. She pointed out that the collars are limited only by a person's creativity. She demonstrated collars made of table napkins, placemats, breadcloth, doilies, bandannas, men's and ladies' handkerchiefs, and crocheted collars.

Kathy also showed the art of making baskets with rope and fabric strips.

Officers for 1987 were elected; they will be installed at the next club meeting to be held at the extension office. The club will be meeting on the third Monday of each month with the place to be announced.

New club officers are: Lori Withers, president; Daizey Lewis, vice-president; Pauline Withers, secretary-treasurer; Mildred Rogers, council delegate; Joy Early, reporter.

Opening lead: ♥ 4

It is certainly right to draw inferences from the opening lead. The next step is to draw inferences from what is not the opening lead.

The bidding was simple — one no-trump, which was raised to three no-trump. Since the defenders were playing standard leads, the four of hearts lead indicated only four cards in the suit, since declarer was looking at the two and three in dummy. East took the ace and returned the suit. Declarer won and played a club to dummy's jack. East won the king and returned his last heart. Declarer now played a second club, on which West discarded a spade. That left declarer with only eight tricks, unless the jack of diamonds happened to fall. But perhaps there were other possibilities.

It is a sound principle of defense against no-trump to lead your longest suit when you are leading blindly. Thus it was apparent that West did not have a longer suit than hearts unless he was embarking upon a flight of defender's fancy with his opening lead. Furthermore, he had shown up with only one club. Should it not then be obvious that West had started with four-card holdings in both spades and diamonds? The right play for declarer thus becomes equally obvious. He should play the king and queen of diamonds. When the jack does not show up, he should play West for that card by leading to dummy's A-10 and finessing. The reason? If West held only three diamonds, he would have held five cards in spades originally and would surely have selected that suit for his opening lead.

Pimp scam feared

NEW YORK (AP) — Runaways trying to phone a Times Square shelter probably found themselves talking to a pimp who had rerouted the calls to him at a bus station as a way to recruit young prostitutes, shelter officials say.

"We have no way of knowing how many kids called that number and got picked up" in the three weeks before the scam was detected, said the Rev. Bruce Ritter, founder and director of Covenant House, which puts up about 200 young people each night.

Ritter and his aides said a pimp apparently called a runaway hot line, identified himself as a Covenant House official and said the shelter's phone number had been changed. He gave the hot line the number of a pay phone at the Port Authority bus terminal, then waited for calls, Ritter said.

"These pimps are animals, they're barely human," said Ritter, who keeps armed guards at the shelter 24 hours a day to keep pimps away. "Anyone who would try to merchandise young kids like that, it's outside the pale of human compassion."

Officials of the hot line never checked with Covenant House to see if the change was legitimate, said John Kells, Ritter's assistant. A man who answered the hot line Monday night referred calls to a supervisor who was to be available later today.

Although police said they suspected a prank, Ritter said his experience led him to believe that no one but a pimp could develop such a scheme.

The shelter learned of the problem one week ago, when an airline clerk at LaGuardia Airport called Covenant House to ask when they were going to pick up a runaway girl who had called the shelter hours before.

Shelter officials had no record of the girl's call and began checking. When they discovered the hot line was giving out a different number, they called that number, posing as runaways.

"The person answered, 'Covenant House,'" said Anne Donahue, a counselor at the shelter. "(He) said, 'I'm going to put you on with the director.' And then a second person came on and made the arrangements to meet her.

"So we have very strong reason to believe that there was something very very, very disastrous going on, and somebody with extremely evil intent — that it was not just a prank or anything random."

"The kid would say 'I'm scared and lonely,' and he'd say, 'Don't worry, 'I'll come and pick you up,'" Kells said.

Port Authority police tapped the phone and held a three-day stakeout but caught no one, Kells said.

"Somehow he got wise," Ritter said.

Port Authority Police Sgt. Bernard Roggioli, who heads the Youth Services unit, said he suspected a prank.

"I think it's one of the kids," Roggioli said. "These kids are very capable. They're very adept. They've come up with more scams to run the telephones than anything I've ever seen."

Kells and Donahue rejected that theory, saying the voice was that of a mature man.

"There could be a lot of tragedies out there," Kells said. "The only way we'll find out about it is when some kid comes to us and says 'I was raped.'"

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

Fluid retention tied to heart failure

DEAR DR. GOTT — My husband filled up with fluid overnight and had trouble breathing. The next day the doctor told him he had what amounted to congestive heart failure. He takes potassium, Lanoxin and furosemide. What do these drugs do? Would his heart be stronger if he were less sedentary?

DEAR READER — Congestive heart failure consists of excess fluid retention caused by ineffective cardiac-muscle contraction. Lanoxin (digoxin) increases the strength of the heart muscle. Furosemide (Lasix) stimulates the kidneys to excrete more water. Potassium is used to counteract the mineral loss that furosemide tends to cause. The three medicines work well together and are appropriate treatment for heart failure. Your husband's heart will not be made stronger by exercise.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I read in a medical magazine that doctors at the University of Texas in Austin found that 23 milligrams of zinc gluconate taken every two hours shorten a person's cold by seven days. Could it work for other viruses, particularly AIDS?

DEAR READER — The use of zinc in treating any viral illness is experimental. I doubt that the mineral will prove to be useful for AIDS. Don't get too excited about isolated reports of scientific achievements. The treatments have to be independently evaluated before they are recommended for general use.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have about 55 lesions all over my body. The dermatologist says this is granuloma annulare. What is this disease?

DEAR READER — Granuloma annulare is a chronic skin disease, of unknown cause, consisting of pimples and bumps in a ring-like distribution. The disease is not serious and usually does not respond to treatment. Its primary importance is that it must be distinguished from other, more serious, skin disorders such as allergic reactions and infections, which are treatable.

DEAR DR. GOTT — While moving, I lifted something heavy and hurt my back. The doctor just pressed around the area and prescribed Elavil. It made me sweaty, lightheaded and nauseated. Then the pharmacist told me it was a mood elevator. I couldn't believe it. I thought, he'd given me something for the inflammation. Is this a general practice or was I used as a guinea pig?

DEAR READER — Elavil is an anti-depressant. It is not considered to be useful for back strain, and your doctor should have chosen a more appropriate treatment. Find another doctor, one who is more interested in back problems than in mood elevators.

I might add that there seems to be an increasing tendency for patients to expect (and doctors to prescribe) tranquilizers or mood elevators for a variety of conditions. This tendency is not appropriate. All drugs produce side effects; many medicines react with one another and with food. Simple temporary tension and depression are normal and do not require drugs for treatment. Before prescribing psychotropic drugs, a doctor should explain to the patient the reason for the drug, its side effects and possible interactions with other medicines.

Dr. Gott's Health Report on DIGESTIVE GAS tells what causes this common problem — and how you can manage it. For your copy, send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to mention the title.

Family suing in man's death

SAN ANGELO, Texas (AP) — The family of an oilfield worker who died after picking up a live wire uncovered by a tractor blade is suing Exxon Inc. for $2.5 million.

Exxon employees failed to cut the power or to tell the man where the underground cable was buried, the family's attorney Frank Guinta said as the trial began Monday.

Federal air surgeon steps down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal air surgeon, who has been under fire for allegedly certifying medically unfit pilots, quit his post after a special panel found shortcomings in the way his office handled medical appeals.

The Federal Aviation Administration announced Monday that Dr. Frank Austin will be reassigned within the agency at his own request.

SMU expects to learn fate of program by mid-month

DALLAS (AP) - The NCAA is expected to notify Southern Methodist University officials today that the fate of the school's football program will be decided at a Feb. 13-16 hearing in San Diego, the faculty representative says.

Lonnie Kliever said Monday night he expects school officials will be told they will appear before the NCAA Committee on Infractions meeting in San Diego.

"Our expectations have been all along that we would be in San Diego," he said. "I'm certainly optimistic that we will be appearing before the infractions committee and that's what we've wanted all along. It's been a long, difficult and arduous business but it has been well worthwhile."

NCAA enforcement director David Berst said he couldn't confirm SMU will get a hearing in San Diego, but he said university officials would be notified of the decision today.

SMU officials have postponed hiring a football coach and athletic director while waiting for the committee to rule on allegations against the school.

Berst said last week he did not know if investigators could complete the case in time for presentation in San Diego. If the case was not completed in time for the San Diego hearing, it could not be heard until committee hearings scheduled for April 11-12 in Kansas City, Mo., or April 22-24 in Hilton Head, S.C.

The investigation into SMU's football program began after former linebacker David Stanley said he received $25,000 to sign a national letter of intent with SMU and was paid $750 a month while playing for the school.

Stanley also said he was paid after SMU was placed on probation in August 1985 for recruiting violations.

The football program could be suspended for up to two years if the school is found guilty of additional violations.

NCAA officials also are investigating a report that senior tight end Albert Reese was supplied a rent-free apartment by an SMU booster banned from associating with the football program.

Berst said SMU officials cooperated with the NCAA to try to get the investigation completed in time.

"This was our joint investigation that we committed our full cooperation with the NCAA," Kliever said. "It has been entirely an amiable and cooperative venture. There has been a lot of communication between the university and the NCAA."

Texas Tech's football program, accused by the NCAA of 36 violations, was also scheduled to appear before the committee in San Diego.

SPC upsets 'Birds in WJCAC contest

The mild upset was the first conference loss for the Thunderbirds, who fall into a 9-1 tie with Midland for first place in the standings. Midland bombed New Mexico Military Institute 94-68 Monday.

South Plains is holding down third place with a 7-2 record.

In the only other men's game played Monday, Howard College's Hawks skinned the Bulldogs of Clarendon 144-88 in Big Spring. Clarendon drops to 2-7 with the loss while Howard moves up to fourth in the standings with a 5-4 mark.

Odessa, idle Monday, is in fifth at 4-4 while Western Texas, also idle, is holding down sixth with a 3-6 mark.

In women's action, Howard slugged Clarendon 73-58 while South Plains ran to an easy 88-67 win over New Mexico JC.

Western and Odessa continue to hold down first place with 5-1 records. South Plains is 4-2, Howard 4-3 and Clarendon 3-3. Frank Phillips and NMJC are 1-6 and 1-7 respectively.

Only the top four men and women's teams will advance to the mid-March Region V tournaments.

Two WJCAC double headers are scheduled Thursday as Western Texas travels to Borger to play Frank Phillips and New Mexico JC is at Big Spring to play Howard. In men's only contests, Odessa buses to Midland and Clarendon goes to Roswell, N.M. to play NMMI.

Gun club meets tonight at 7:30

Canyon Gun Club will award trophies for its Big Buck Contest at a 7:30 meeting tonight in the Texas Electric Reddy Room, located at 3201 Ave. N.

All members and anyone interested in joining the club are urged to attend. Dues are $20 a year and an extra $5 for the spouse of a member.

Prospective members must be 18 years of age or older and those between the ages of 18 and 21 must attend an NRA approved hunters safety course.

Frosh girls defeat Big Spring

BIG SPRING -- Snyder freshmen girls improved their record to 11-8 for the season with a 35-11 victory over Big Spring here Monday.

Anne Osborn scored 8 points for Snyder while Neosha Beach added 6. Seven other girls scored.

Playoff hopes strong as Tigers play Steers

Big Spring's girls are looking for a championship; Snyder's girls are looking for a playoff berth; and both boy's squads are trying to get in the playoff picture as the two schools square off in District 2-4A action here and at the Steer gym tonight.

In Big Spring, Coach Ken Housden's Lady Tigers will be trying to hold on to their second place standing in the district. The Tigers are 9-4 in loop play and have won their past seven outings. They are 17-8 on the season.

Big Spring girls have all but wrapped up the 2-4A championship, and in fact can do so tonight with a win over the Lady Tigers. The Lady Steers are 11-1 in district competition and a sizzling 21-4 for the season. Those records include a 53-34 early January win over the Tigers, who were outscored 20-9 in the final quarter.

Here at home, the Snyder-Big Spring boy's game pits a couple of teams hoping to get into playoff contention. Big Spring is in third place in the district with an 8-2 mark while Snyder is a game behind at 8-3. Big Spring is 16-9 overall while Snyder is 15-10.

Both squads took losses at the hands of frontrunners Andrews and Lamesa. Snyder also lost earlier to Big Spring, 73-65 in Big Spring.

Locally, action begins in Scurry County Coliseum at 4:30 p.m. with a sophomore contest. Junior varsity teams take the floor at 6 p.m., followed by the varsity squads at approximately 7:30 p.m.

There are just two girl's games slated in Big Spring as junior varsity teams play at 6 p.m. and varsity squads at 7:30 p.m. They will be played at the Big Spring High School gym.

Tonight's games are the only ones of the week for Snyder varsity squads, which take Friday off, then prepare for Lamesa next Tuesday.

Mavs hang tough; drop Los Angeles

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) - The Dallas Mavericks could have made excuses, but instead chose to fight it out to the end.

The Mavericks had to hold off a late Los Angeles rally Monday night to score a 103-99 victory, defeating the Lakers for the third straight time this season.

"It was our fourth game in five nights and we had every reason to quit," Dallas Coach Dick Motta. "We knew they were rested and we knew they would come out and try to fast break it down our throats. I told my players not to get discouraged if they're coming at us at a thousand miles an hour, because that's the way they were set up to play us."

The Lakers cut a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to just two with 1:10 to play, but the equalizer would not fall as a 15-foot shot by Earvin "Magic" Johnson bounded away.

"They know from years back that we're going to fight back and not quit," said Dallas forward Mark Aguirre, who scored 27 points to lead the Mavericks.

One key to the Mavericks' victory was their 62-46 edge in rebounds. The Lakers have been outrebounded in seven of their last eight games.

"We are playing defense well enough to win, but we have got to do a better job on the boards," Laker Coach Pat Riley said. "We couldn't make the plays tonight and they made a lot of key plays when they needed them."

Byron Scott scored 21 points to lead Los Angeles, and Johnson added 18 as the Lakers had a 13-game home winning streak snapped. It was only their third loss in their last 35 home games.

The Lakers led 55-50 at halftime and had been undefeated in the 26 previous games this season in which they led at intermission.

"We weren't concerned," said Derek Harper, who scored four of his 15 points during a late fourth-quarter run. "We had control of the game, even though they were ahead. We knew that if we stuck to our own thing and slow down their fast break, we'd be in good shape."

The Lakers won't meet the Mavericks again this season, but they'll have to be prepared to meet them at some point during the playoffs.

"Now they're going to go back to the drawing board and get their Xs and Os together and see how they can improve," Aguirre said.

Joe Louis fought for the heavyweight title 27 times and Arthur Donovan was the referee in 12 of the bouts.

SMU expects to learn fate of program by mid-month

DALLAS (AP) - The NCAA is expected to notify Southern Methodist University officials today that the fate of the school's football program will be decided at a Feb. 13-16 hearing in San Diego, the faculty representative says.

Lonnie Kliever said Monday night he expects school officials will be told they will appear before the NCAA Committee on Infractions meeting in San Diego.

"Our expectations have been all along that we would be in San Diego," he said. "I'm certainly optimistic that we will be appearing before the infractions committee and that's what we've wanted all along. It's been a long, difficult and arduous business but it has been well worthwhile."

NCAA enforcement director David Berst said he couldn't confirm SMU will get a hearing in San Diego, but he said university officials would be notified of the decision today.

SMU officials have postponed hiring a football coach and athletic director while waiting for the committee to rule on allegations against the school.

Berst said last week he did not know if investigators could complete the case in time for presentation in San Diego. If the case was not completed in time for the San Diego hearing, it could not be heard until committee hearings scheduled for April 11-12 in Kansas City, Mo., or April 22-24 in Hilton Head, S.C.

The investigation into SMU's football program began after former linebacker David Stanley said he received $25,000 to sign a national letter of intent with SMU and was paid $750 a month while playing for the school.

Stanley also said he was paid after SMU was placed on probation in August 1985 for recruiting violations.

The football program could be suspended for up to two years if the school is found guilty of additional violations.

NCAA officials also are investigating a report that senior tight end Albert Reese was supplied a rent-free apartment by an SMU booster banned from associating with the football program.

Berst said SMU officials cooperated with the NCAA to try to get the investigation completed in time.

"This was our joint investigation that we committed our full cooperation with the NCAA," Kliever said. "It has been entirely an amiable and cooperative venture. There has been a lot of communication between the university and the NCAA."

Texas Tech's football program, accused by the NCAA of 36 violations, was also scheduled to appear before the committee in San Diego.

Tap your own pure water.

You can get purified, clear fresh-tasting water right from your own water supply with the Aqua-Pure® Reverse Osmosis System. Water that's more pure than bottled spring water because bottled water isn't necessarily pure ...it's just spring water.

The reverse osmosis system removes up to 95% of the common impurities found in water by forcing it through a semipermeable membrane. The impurities are washed down the drain and you're left with fresh, clean water that is stored in dispensers, ready for your enjoyment... and your health.

With five models to choose from, we have one available to meet your requirements.

The difference is perfectly clear.

SPC upsets 'Birds in WJCAC contest

South Plains' 95-85 victory over fourth-ranked New Mexico Junior College has left the top spot in the men's Western Junior College Athletic Conference wide open.

The mild upset was the first conference loss for the Thunderbirds, who fall into a 9-1 tie with Midland for first place in the standings. Midland bombed New Mexico Military Institute 94-68 Monday.

South Plains is holding down third place with a 7-2 record.

In the only other men's game played Monday, Howard College's Hawks skinned the Bulldogs of Clarendon 144-88 in Big Spring. Clarendon drops to 2-7 with the loss while Howard moves up to fourth in the standings with a 5-4 mark.

Odessa, idle Monday, is in fifth at 4-4 while Western Texas, also idle, is holding down sixth with a 3-6 mark.

In women's action, Howard slugged Clarendon 73-58 while South Plains ran to an easy 88-67 win over New Mexico JC.

Western and Odessa continue to hold down first place with 5-1 records. South Plains is 4-2, Howard 4-3 and Clarendon 3-3. Frank Phillips and NMJC are 1-6 and 1-7 respectively.

Only the top four men and women's teams will advance to the mid-March Region V tournaments.

Two WJCAC double headers are scheduled Thursday as Western Texas travels to Borger to play Frank Phillips and New Mexico JC is at Big Spring to play Howard. In men's only contests, Odessa buses to Midland and Clarendon goes to Roswell, N.M. to play NMMI.

Men's softball meeting Feb. 9

Snyder Men's Slow Pitch Softball Association will hold an organizational meeting Monday, Feb. 9, at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room, located at 2301 Ave. R.

Officers will be elected and information concerning the 1987 season will be discussed.

Anyone interested in participating in the softball league is urged to attend.

Playoff hopes strong as Tigers play Steers

Big Spring's girls are looking for a championship; Snyder's girls are looking for a playoff berth; and both boy's squads are trying to get in the playoff picture as the two schools square off in District 2-4A action here and at the Steer gym tonight.

In Big Spring, Coach Ken Housden's Lady Tigers will be trying to hold on to their second place standing in the district. The Tigers are 9-4 in loop play and have won their past seven outings. They are 17-8 on the season.

Big Spring girls have all but wrapped up the 2-4A championship, and in fact can do so tonight with a win over the Lady Tigers. The Lady Steers are 11-1 in district competition and a sizzling 21-4 for the season. Those records include a 53-34 early January win over the Tigers, who were outscored 20-9 in the final quarter.

Here at home, the Snyder-Big Spring boy's game pits a couple of teams hoping to get into playoff contention. Big Spring is in third place in the district with an 8-2 mark while Snyder is a game behind at 8-3. Big Spring is 16-9 overall while Snyder is 15-10.

Both squads took losses at the hands of frontrunners Andrews and Lamesa. Snyder also lost earlier to Big Spring, 73-65 in Big Spring.

Locally, action begins in Scurry County Coliseum at 4:30 p.m. with a sophomore contest. Junior varsity teams take the floor at 6 p.m., followed by the varsity squads at approximately 7:30 p.m.

There are just two girl's games slated in Big Spring as junior varsity teams play at 6 p.m. and varsity squads at 7:30 p.m. They will be played at the Big Spring High School gym.

Tonight's games are the only ones of the week for Snyder varsity squads, which take Friday off, then prepare for Lamesa next Tuesday.

Mavs hang tough; drop Los Angeles

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) - The Dallas Mavericks could have made excuses, but instead chose to fight it out to the end.

The Mavericks had to hold off a late Los Angeles rally Monday night to score a 103-99 victory, defeating the Lakers for the third straight time this season.

"It was our fourth game in five nights and we had every reason to quit," Dallas Coach Dick Motta. "We knew they were rested and we knew they would come out and try to fast break it down our throats. I told my players not to get discouraged if they're coming at us at a thousand miles an hour, because that's the way they were set up to play us."

The Lakers cut a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to just two with 1:10 to play, but the equalizer would not fall as a 15-foot shot by Earvin "Magic" Johnson bounded away.

"They know from years back that we're going to fight back and not quit," said Dallas forward Mark Aguirre, who scored 27 points to lead the Mavericks.

One key to the Mavericks' victory was their 62-46 edge in rebounds. The Lakers have been outrebounded in seven of their last eight games.

"We are playing defense well enough to win, but we have got to do a better job on the boards," Laker Coach Pat Riley said. "We couldn't make the plays tonight and they made a lot of key plays when they needed them."

Byron Scott scored 21 points to lead Los Angeles, and Johnson added 18 as the Lakers had a 13-game home winning streak snapped. It was only their third loss in their last 35 home games.

The Lakers led 55-50 at halftime and had been undefeated in the 26 previous games this season in which they led at intermission.

"We weren't concerned," said Derek Harper, who scored four of his 15 points during a late fourth-quarter run. "We had control of the game, even though they were ahead. We knew that if we stuck to our own thing and slow down their fast break, we'd be in good shape."

The Lakers won't meet the Mavericks again this season, but they'll have to be prepared to meet them at some point during the playoffs.

"Now they're going to go back to the drawing board and get their Xs and Os together and see how they can improve," Aguirre said.

Joe Louis fought for the heavyweight title 27 times and Arthur Donovan was the referee in 12 of the bouts.

Ex-leader's kin arrested

MOSCOW (AP) — Yuri Churbanov, son-in-law of late Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev and a former deputy interior minister, has been arrested and accused of corruption and bribe-taking, the Foreign Ministry announced today.

Ministry spokesman Gennady Gerasimov reported Churbanov's arrest during a briefing for Soviet and foreign journalists.

"He has been arrested, an investigation is under way and he is accused of corruption and bribe-taking," Gerasimov said.

Asked for details of the case, Gerasimov said he did not know when or where the arrest was made or in what prison the 50-year-old Churbanov is being held.

Gerasimov did not make clear whether formal charges have been filed against Churbanov, who married Galina Brezhnev when her father was Communist Party leader.

Soviet officials, including party leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev, have harshly criticized the Brezhnev era as a time of high-level corruption and mismanagement that contributed to economic problems that continue to trouble the country.

Churbanov was appointed first deputy minister of internal affairs in 1980, a post he held until two years ago when he was removed and assigned to other, unspecified duties in the ministry responsible for uniformed police and the KGB secret service.

It was not known immediately whether Churbanov's arrest was connected with a bribery scandal that touched the Brezhnev family in 1982.

Soviet sources leaked reports at that time that a top circus official friendly with Galina Brezhnev had been arrested and that a valuable art collection was confiscated from the apartment of another circus performer friendly with Brezhnev's daugther.

Settlement ends Polk lawsuit area.

The defense had maintained that the younger Polk was in effect a "trespasser" since no permission had been given for him to be in this area.

It was noted Tuesday the settlement by both the county and chamber "is not an admission of liability," and that by accepting it, the Polks waive their option for any future legal action in the case.

Before granting the settlement, District Judge Gene Dulaney asked the family if they understood that it represented a "full, final and complete settlement." To this question, each answered yes.

A jury had been seated to hear testimony in the case last Wednesday. After four days of testimony, both sides rested their case Monday at 3 p.m.

The settlement agreement was reached around 6 p.m. Monday.

Jury members were contacted Monday night that they would not be required in court Tuesday.

Representing the Polks during the trial was Alton Griffin of Lubbock. For the chamber, attorneys were Brad Crawford and Rodney Satterwhite of Lubbock; and for the county, David Cobb of Abilene, Pete Greene of Snyder and County Attorney Mike Line.

jury judgments up to these amounts. Any settlement greater than the coverage would have been borne by the respective entity if a jury decision had directed this.

"When faced with what could happen, we feel comfortable with our settlement," Crawford said.

Under the nature of such policies, the decision to settle rests first with the insurance companies rather than either the chamber or county.

"The policy dictates us that right," Crawford said.

He noted that offers of settlement had been extended by attorneys representing the Polks. A settlement figure of $600,000 was extended at one time prior to the trial, he noted.

He again emphasized that no counteroffers were made until Monday night at the conclusion of both side's case.

During testimony related to the settlement Tuesday, it was noted that the offer does not include an admission of liability by either the county or chamber.

In addition, the judgment is a permanent end to legal matters associated with the case, including an agreement by the Polks that it represents a "full, final and complete settlement."

Grand jury indicts for felonies

$5,000 each were 23-year-old Lazarus Garcia of 601 25th St. and 18-year-old Reymundo Gutierrez Perez of 2012 27th St.

Garcia is charged with the Nov. 9 burglary of the Rainbo Bread warehouse on Ave. F and Perez is charged with a Jan. 10 burglary of Timely Pawn Shop on Ave. R.

Both remain in the Scurry County Jail in lieu of bond.

Grand jurors indicted 17-year-old Raymond Oliva of Snyder on charges of forgery in connection with the theft and passing of a check on Linda Mize on Jan. 8.

Oliva is alleged to have taken the check from Mize's son at Snyder High School. He is currently free on a $3,000 bond.

Indicted on charges of felony driving while intoxicated were Elisello Usevio Delao, 24, of 1107 Ave. P and Bobby Frank Roemisch Jr., 26, of 2208 44th St. Both are free on bonds of $2,000.

The eighth indictment returned named a Snyder man on one count of forgery in December but was sealed pending arrest of the suspect.

Wall Street Journal said working for man's release

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Wall Street Journal is trying to work through Iranian and other diplomatic channels to gain the release of reporter Gerald F. Seib, apparently being held by the Iran government as an alleged spy, a newspaper official said.

Warren H. Phillips, Journal chairman, called Seib's detention a "dreadful mistake" and said he had been seized "without any cause at all."

After conferring with Secretary of State George P. Shultz on Monday, Philipps said of Seib's detention, "We believe that a dreadful mistake has been made in the detention and we fervently hope that the government of Iran realizes it has made a mistake and will set him free."

Iran's official Islamic Republic News Agency, monitored in Nicosia, Cyprus, said during the weekend that a "spy of the Zionist regime" was arrested after entering the country with a false passport and disguised as a journalist. It did not identify the person by name or nationality.

Phillips said the Journal is trying "to convey to the Iranian government that this is a well-respected American reporter who has been seized without any cause at all." He said no charges have been placed against Seib.

"He has not been seized by some mysterious elusive band of terrorists but by the government of Iran, the government that had invited him personally and by name to come there in the accompany of more than 50 other Americans and foreign journalists," Phillips said.

Minor mishaps occur Monday

Two minor traffic accidents were reported in Snyder Monday.

Involved in the first — at 11:29 a.m. in the 2800 Block of 38th St. — were a 1983 Pontiac driven by Judson Othniel Morrison of 2605 34th St. and a 1972 Chevrolet driven by Clifton Tom Marvin of 207 30th St.

The second mishap was reported at 6:40 p.m. in the 2000 Block of College Ave.

Involved in it were a 1981 AMC driven by Arlie Burklow Rodgers of 212 Elm St. and a 1981 Chevrolet driven by Robert Roy Robbins of 1905 West Dr.

No injuries were reported from either accident.

Obituaries

WYATT SWINT

Wyatt Swint

Services for Wyatt Swint, 64, of 3008 38th Street are set for 2 p.m. Wednesday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, and the Rev. L. W. "Buck" Hatfield, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will follow at Snyder Cemetery.

He died at approximately 5 a.m. Monday at the VA hospital in Kerrville. He was born July, 5, 1922 on the J. Wright Mooar Ranch in Scurry County. He had lived here several years, moving from Lubbock where he had lived from 1956 to 1980.

He was a lifetime member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans. He was married to Minnie Deatherage Goodwin May 21, 1980 in Lubbock. She survives.

He had been a purchasing agent and parts manager for Hobbs Trailer in Lubbock. He retired in 1977.

He was a member of Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

He is survived by a daughter, Janice Sue Van Meter of Amarillo; one son, Ronald Lee Swint of Lubbock; two step-sons, Jesse Gregg of Andrews and Forrest Gregg of Gainesville; one brother, Robert Swint of Snyder; two grandsons; three step-grandsons; and six step-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Valton Buchanan, Kenneth Palter, Mutt Hanback, H. L. McCormick, Cecil Jordan and Dave Haywood.

Vehicle theft is reported

Snyder police are investigating a vehicle burglary reported Monday morning.

Rick Nesmith of 4503 College Ave. called police at 8:54 a.m. to file the report.

He reported a General Electric brand AM-FM-8 track portable radio tape player taken from his car.

The theft is thought to have occurred while the vehicle was parked at Western Texas College.

In other action Monday, city officers logged two misdemeanor arrests charging two men with public intoxication late that evening.

Kalko hit twice by burglaries

Scurry County sheriff's deputies are investigating two burglaries last weekend of the Kalko Industries yard on the Old Lubbock Highway.

According to investigators, three spare tires were taken from pickups parked on the yard Saturday night and three Gott insulated water cans were taken from trucks on the yard Sunday night.

Employees of the Snyder Kalko office had also reported the yard broken into and fuel taken from a storage tank during the previous week.

Taxes can be raised

AUSTIN (AP) — The Legislature has the power to force school districts to raise local taxes to better support their schools, a state district court was told.

"I don't really think we have to have a state property tax," Craig Foster, executive director of Equity Center, testified Monday before state District Judge Harley Clark.

Foster was a witness for the 67 school districts that contend state school funds are not being distributed equitably. The trial began Jan. 20 and is expected to last more than a month.

The state property tax was repealed in 1982 by voters, leaving taxation of property to local governments. State school funds come from other sources, largely sales and gasoline taxes.

"In other words you think the state still has authority in the Texas Education Code to say to school disticts to tax at certain levels for their schools?" asked attorney Dave Richards.

Foster agreed, saying, "as long as property appraisals are fair and the Texas Education Agency sets the local fund assignment rate."

Generally, the current local fund assignment is 29 cents of each dollar spent for school financing.

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you haven't had the courage to tackle the new W-4 tax-withholding form, wait a few days. You may get your choice of two different versions.

The Internal Revenue Service, under pressure from lawmakers who are fielding complaints from taxpayers, is considering replacing the month-old form with two options: one simpler and one more complicated.

Announcement of the agency's proposals was made Monday by Sen. David Pryor, D-Ark., head of a Senate Finance subcommittee that oversees the IRS, after conferring with IRS Commissioner Lawrence Gibbs. Pryor said Gibbs had assured him the IRS would not merely "go through the motions" in trying to respond to taxpayer complaints.

Senate debates speed limit increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate bill to spend tens of billions of dollars on the nation's roads and mass transit systems is being used for two other causes: raising the federal speed limit to 65 mph and focusing attention on the budget deficit.

The Senate planned to resume debate today on a $52.4 billion, four-year program that would provide aid to the states for roads and bridges. A $10.8 billion measure that would provide assistance to the nation's mass transit systems was expected to be attached to the highway measure.

An amendment was offered Monday by Sen. Steven Symms, R-Idaho, that would allow states to raise speed limits to 65 mph on portions of rural interstates. There was no vote on the amendment Monday.

Symms, whose measure was supported by 17 senators from Western states, countered opponents' arguments that the higher speed limit would result in more traffic deaths.

"I don't think anyone doubts that a lower speed limit on some of the nation's highways has indeed saved lives," Symms said.
