COMMITTEE IS TOLD OF GIFTS IN CAMPAIGN

BROOKHART-CREAGER TILTS ENLIVEN HEARING

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman for Texas, charged before the Senate patronage committee today that Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, only Republican member of Congress from Texas, had violated the penal law by "collecting contributions" for his campaigns.

Wurzbach entered a categorial denial of all of the charges and asserted he had "never solicited a dollar" in his life.

"In the campaign of 1926," Creager said, "while a congressman and a candidate for re-election, Mr. Wurzbach received contributions for his campaign from at least four officers and employees of the United States.

"On June 28, 1926, Mr. Wurzbach received a campaign contribution of $100 from H. M. Holden, at the time United States attorney at Houston, Texas.

Tells of Contributions

"In July, 1926," Mr. Wurzbach received a campaign contribution of $100 from S. C. Kyle, at the time district director of the United States Veterans bureau, stationed at San Antonio, Texas.

"On July 8, 1926, Mr. Wurzbach received the sum of $25 as a campaign contribution from H. F. Geyer of San Antonio, Texas, who at the time was a railway clerk of the United States.

"On July 8, 1926, Mr. Wurzbach received $50 as a campaign contribution from E. J. Keudell of San Antonio, Texas, who at the time was a railway mail clerk of the United States.

NEW FIRE MURDER ROUSES STATE

Finding of a dead woman's blazing body in the snowdrift of a road near Cranford, N. J., has caused a widespread man hunt throughout northern New Jersey. Similar murder and burning a year ago of Miss Margaret Brown, a middle-aged governess, on a road near Benrandsville, N. J., never has been solved. Camera view shows a policeman examining the spot where the mystery woman's body was found. Above is artist's sketch of a bakery wagon driver discovering the Cranford slaying.

YOUNG WOMAN FACES BOOZE CHARGE HERE

GEORGIA LIST OF DROWNED RISES HIGHER

HIGHLAND SECTIONS SEE RELIEF FROM RAGING WATERS

(By Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Mar. 1.—Georgia's list of dead in the week's floods reached nine today as streams in this state, Alabama, Northwest Florida and the Carolinas began recessions in upper courses, and mounted higher in lower areas.

South Georgia still bore the brunt of the damage as the Ocmulgee, Oconee, Flint and Chattahoochie rivers spread over highways, railroads, lowland homes and manufacturing plants.

L. M. Fussell, prominent Ben Hill county farmer, was added to the death list today. He was drowned last night in a captizing boat in the Ocmulgee river. The other deaths occurred Wednesday and Thursday at Lincolnton, Butler and Augusta, Ga.

Between 200 and 300 automobiles bearing fans northward from the Miami Beach Sharkey - Stribling fight were caught at Perry, Ga., and nearby towns below washouts in the Dixie highway. Likewise, scores of tourists, bound for Florida were held up at Macon.

Meteorologists here today said the Chattahoochie and Flint rivers were above flood stages from West Point, Ga., where the Chattahoochie enters Georgia, and Woodbury, Ga., along the upper Flint. The water had begun to recede at those stations, bu twas mounting further south. The Apalachicola was at flood stage and above through northwest Florida.

In Alabama, the Coosa river was the only major stream causing anxiety today. It rose five feet over night at Wetumpka. Bus service had been disrupted, and highway travel in south Alabama generally was halted. Train schedules were disorganized by detours and damage to thousands of acres of lowlands was yet unestimated.

STONE MOUNTAIN BLAST KILLS SIX

STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga., March 1 (AP)—Two investigations were in prospect today into the tragedy which yesterday brought death to seven men and injuries to six others in the explosion of a compressed air tank at the quary of the Stone Mountain Granite Corporation.

The compressed air tank, five by fifteen feet, exploded as the men entered the time keeper's building to turn in their tools.

Employes immediately placed the dead and injured on a work train which brought them to Stone Mountain. Five of the men had been killed instantly while two other died in a hospital.

The dead: C. G. Davis, 33, superintendent of the company; O. Z. Cowan, 24, driller; J. D. Glaze, 50, driller; Cal Howard, negro, driller; Cody Smith, negro, driller; Charles Haynes, negro, ledge foreman; Will Maddox, negro, breaker.

Of the injured, John Swain and Morris Brown, white, and Carl Sewell, negro, were hurt the most seriously.

MINING PAIR ARE SLAIN BY BANDIT GANG

SIXTEEN INSURGENTS PAY WITH LIVES FOR MURDERS

MEXICO CITY, March 1 (AP)—Sixteen Mexicans have paid with their lives for the alleged murder of W. M. Underwood and G. C. Aiesthorpe, American mining officials, in the state of Guanajuato.

Two others, held as prisoners, today faced summary action by court martial, and probable execution for their part in the slayings. Troops were in pursuit of the remainder of the band.

The military commander of the state of Guanajuato reported to the chief of the Presidential staff here that federal troops yesterday encountered the bandit group which kidnaped and killed the two Americans and in a two hour battle killed ten of them, capturing two others. Six others were killed in a previous battle.

Presumably in retaliation for the attack the two Americans were killed, their bodies being found near the scene of the battle by pursuing troops.

COMPROMISE SUGGESTION ON PRO FUND

THREE MILLION MAY BE VOTED TO AID IN ENFORCEMENT

WASHINGTON, March 1—A compromise between the Senate and the House on an increase in prohibition funds was in prospect today as Senate conferees in the dispute offered to accept a $3,000,000 increase in place of the $24,000,000 previously voted. The House has proposed an increase in dry funds of $2,724,000.

The $3,000,000 compromise was proposed at a conference on the two deficinecy appropriation bills with the consent of Senator Harris, demcrat, Georgia, author of the $24,000,000 dry fund provision.

Another conference was called for later in the day and meanwhile the house spokesmen returned to their chamber to sound out sentiment there on the proposition.

After Senator Harris had won his fight for $24,000,000 in the Senate, the first deficiency bill in which it was incorporated was abandoned. President Coolidge then recommended an increase of $2,724,000. The House accepted this and incorporated in it the second deficiency measure.

Both bills are now in conference between the Senate and House. They carry more than $215,000,000 for a variety of federal projects throughout the country.

PAIR ATTACK OFFICIAL ON MASON ROAD

HUNDREDS OF ARMED MEN IN SEARCH FOR SLAYERS

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 1.—Ofilio Herrera, Bexar county resident, Friday was held in the Mason county jail in connection with the slaying of Sheriff Allen T. Murray of Mason, Thursday, near Mason, while a search for a companion of Herrera continued, according to District Attorney F. H. Hammond of Mason.

District Attorney Hammond told a representative of the Light by telephone that a charge of murder had been filed against Herrera who was arrested Thursday night eight miles from Mason on the Brady road.

Herrera was arrested when information was brought to Deputy Sheriff Tom Baker of Mason that there was a car stalled on the Brady road, according to the Mason county prosecutor who said Herrera was believed to have had a companion with him. The suspect made no statement.

Deputy Sheriff Baker found his superior dead when he responded to a report that a drunken man was lying in the road by his car in a lane near Mason. The sheriff had been last seen when he left Mason to search for two men whose arrest had been requested by officers of Laurel Valley, village near Mason.

Martin Lively and Walter Irvin of Brady, drivers of a gasoline truck, after the discovery of the sheriff's body, told officers of having seen the sheriff talking to two men in the lane. There was a small gray coupe and the sheriff's car stopped in the lane, they said.

The car, which it is charged that young Rummel stole, was taken from the strets of Slaton and later recovered at Dallas in the hands of an insurance company. Rummel and his younger brother picked cotton near Slaton for several weeks last season.

The case of Sam F. Gentry, under indictment charging violation of the prohibition laws, yesterday was postponed until March 18, due to the illness of a material witness.

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—Three United States circuit court judges were nominated today by President Coolidge as follows:

Eighth circuit, Archibald K. Gardner, of South Dakota.

VELMA MARTIN DUE TO GO ON TRIAL HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Velma Martin, 28-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Kerr who was tried earlier this week on a charge of violation of the prohibition laws, was scheduled to go to trial on the same charge this afternoon in the 72nd district court before Judge Homer L. Pharr.

The jury in Mrs. Kerr's case was dismissed after the jurymen were deadlocked, eleven favoring conviction and one favoring acquital. She was the first woman to be tried on a liquor charge before Judge Pharr and the first to be prosecuted by District Attorney Durwood Bradley. Her daughter makes the second.

Velma Martin was arrested about two days after the arrest of her mother. They are charged with running a "liquor joint" in a local residence.

Farmer Sentenced To Die For Murder

AMITE, La., March 1 (AP)—Lige Wall, 56, a farmer, awaited death on the gallows here today for slaying Percy Roberts, a youth of 18, several months ago.

The defendant's appeal to the state pardon board for a recommendation of celemency was fruitless. He claimed Roberts had wronged his daughter.

PARKWAY TO BE PAVED IN CITY

Paving of the parkway on Broadway, extending from where Avenue P would intersect the boulevard to College Avenue, yesterday was ordered by the commission, in regular session at city hall. This stretch of unpaved breaks in the street have long been a menace to the motorists, proving not only to ruin the beauty of the street but to make driving along the boulevard unpleasant.

Failure of property owners to pay their share of the cost is the only thing that can stand in the way of the paving. The city commission also ordered other paving from Main to 19th on Avenue Q and from 14th to 19th Texas Avenue.

Prohibition Force Battles Rum Gang

TAMPA, Fla., March 1.—Federal prohibition agents and rum runners fought a pitched battle three miles south of Wimauma last night with three automobiles loaded with liquor as the prize. When the last shot of the half hour's battle had been fired three officers were wounded, one rum runner was in custody, and another was believed to have been killed.

Acting on information that liquor unloaded from boats in the Gulf of Mexico, was to be taken from its hiding place in the woods, the federal agents lay in wait and opened fire as the three-car caravan filed past.

Double Suicide Is Laid To Scientist

VIENNA, March 1 (AP).—Double suicide to escape the travail of illness and financial reverses was the police explanation today of the death yesterday of Professor Clemens Pirquet and his wife.

The bodies of the two were found in a close embrace in a bed at their home. There were evidences of narcotics to indicate they had weighed life, found it wanting, and taken the drug, lying down together to die in each other's arms.

Professor Pirquet, who developed a serum skin test for tuberculosis now in world-wide use and who was mentioned for the Austrian presidency in succession to former President Hainisch, recently had lost a suit involving heavy financial obligations to his brother-in-law. Madame Pirquet had been ill for two months after an operation.

Reform A Sinner By Pies, His View

GAFFNEY, S. C., March 1 (AP)—The way to reform a sinner, in the opinion of Leonard Smith, is to give him a nice, big, juicy cherry pie.

Accordingly, Mr. Smith proceeded to bake a score of cherry pies, which he distributed to neighbors whom he thought needed attention in the sinning line. The neighbors instead of calling for mercy, called for police and Mr. Smith landed in the hoosegow.

Smith, under observation, said a spirit had ordered him to bake and distribute the pies.

Blush Of Chorus Girl Measured

NEW YORK, March 1 (AP)—An instrument so sensitive it can measure the blush of a Broadway chorus girl is one of the achievements of science during the last year.

In one of a series of demonstrations arranged by the American Institute, Miss Joanna Allen of a musical show sat before a device resembling a small automobile horn and blushed. Dr. E. E. Free, chemical authority, who conducted the demonstration, recorded the blush at five one-hundredth of a degree Fahrenheit.

The measurement is made by noting the amount of heat radiated from the cheeks when emotion sends the blood rushing into them.

HUNT IS GIVEN DEATH IN CHAIR

DALLAS JURY INFLICTS EXTREME PENALTY TO SLAYER

DALLAS, March 1 (AP)—For the third time in two months a Dallas jury assessed the death penalty last night when Dewey Hunt was sentenced to the electric chair for the murder of Samuel Cole, street car operator, last November.

The jury apparently overlooking Hunt's plea of insanity, found him guilty on the first ballot last night. The state introduced witnesses to connect Hunt with the crime on circumstantial evidence.

Strapped to a chair, a gag covering his mouth, the burly defendant could do no more than roll his eyes when the verdict was read. He was trussed up on the opening day of his trial when his ravings threw the court room into confusion.

Cole was shot to death at the controls of his car the night of November 3 when resisting an attempted holdup.

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

The modern girl speaks for herself in the following letter. Do you realize her in yourself, your daughter, your sweetheart? And how does she qualify? Would you exchange her for the old-fashioned type who guiltily dabbed a bit of powder on her nose in secret and occasionally acknowledged to her most intimate friend that she HAD just tried to smoke a cigarette just for fun? She wanted to see what the men saw in the habit.

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE. This is just another letter on that much discussed subject, the flapper girl of today. I'm a girl 20 years old. I wear the latest styles, use powder, rouge and lipstick. I smoke and take a drink when the occasion calls but I can really say it's the bunk.

"I can cook, sew and keep house. Now, what troubles me most is that I am called a flapper. I really don't mind being CALLED one, but some people think that a flapper is a scandalous sort of person. But under the flapper's paint and dress, she has a heart of gold—I mean nearly all of them have—for there is some bad in all of us. Some things the flapper does are uncalled for. They can't expect boys to think good, clean things about them if they pick up boys at dance halls. They don't have to pet to be popular. Girls, leave married men alone. You are tres-passing on some one else's property.

"I would also like to say a few words to the flapper haters. Really, boys, did you ever stop to think that such boys as yourselves are to blame for what some of these modern girls do? You won't go out with a certain girl because she's slow; then, when she tries to learn your game you say she is red hot and you hate all flappers. Suppose when you take girls out you treat them as you would have boys treat your sisters.

Virginia, I wish you would please publish this letter if you think it is all right. I am a high school graduate and am training to be a nurse. GIRL FRIEND."

Thanks, Girl Friend, you modern girls always have a champion in me, you know.

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE. I am a boy 17 years old. I have been going with a girl about nine months or more. This girl has proven that she loves me, and I love her. Only the other day I found out that she is about a year and a half or two years older than I. Do you think that this difference is great enough to ruin our happiness? I am considered, due to my physical build, appearance and manners, to be at least 19 or 20. A TRUE LOVER."

Not a bit, my dear boy. I know two happy couples intimately where the wives are both more than two years older than their husbands out by radio, searched this region unsuccessfully last night for two men believed to have killed Allen T. Murray, sheriff and tax collector of Mason county, late yesterday.

Murray's body, pierced by three bullets, was found in a lane off the main highway a few miles from here. His automobile was found a quarter of a mile away.

Shortly before his death Murray left here intending to intercept two men reported to have stolen a suit case at Loyal Valley and headed this way in an automobile. It is believed he was shot when he accosted them.

A San Antonio radio station broadcast a description of the two men last night.

Murray is survived by a widow and two children. He was serving his second term as sheriff.

CONFESSES CHICKEN THEFT, OFFICERS SAY

Vibert Peters, arrested yesterday with E. S. Pendergrass by Chief of Police U. L. George of Slaton, this morning signed a written alleged confession that he had stolen a large number of chickens near Idalou and Canyon.

Peters stated in his confession, signed before County Attorney Vaughan Wilson and Deputy Will Earnest, that he was living with Pendergrass, his brother-in-law, who did not know that the chickens were stolen. He confessed to making a recent poultry raid, visiting three hen houses the same night, leaving the poultry in the back of a car owned by Pendergrass.

He claims that he and his brother took the chickens to Slaton and sold them to a poultry house for $47.89 the next morning after he had stolen them. His arrest followed the sale of the chickens by about an hour.

Both Peters and Pendergrass were still in the county jail this morning, their bonds not having been set.

$60,000 Suit Is Aftermath Of Honduran Deal

Growing out of the sale of valuable gold mining properties in Honduras, Central America, the $60,000 damage suit of W. D. Benson against H. C. Burt was scheduled to come to trial today before Judge Clark M. Mullican in the 99th district court.

The original petition claimed that commissions from this property originally were due to M. G. Abernathy of this city and that the contracts as signed were transferred to Benson for a valuable consideration. Starting March 1, 1928, the contract alleges that the defendant was to have paid $50,000 to Mr. Abernathy at the rate of $10,000 per month. Another contract, signed by A. E. Burk, alleges that Burk agreed to pay $50,- at the rate of $1,250 per month. Benson claims that the defendant has failed and refused to pay, and seeks judgment and damages to the amount of $60,000.

French Restrict American Films

PARIS, March 1 (AP)—Relations between American and French movie interests today approached a crisis because of the decision of the French Syndicate to ask the government to restrict importation of American films to a ratio of four incoming productions for each French film exported to the United States.

WILSON LOSES OPENER OF BI-DISTRICT PLAY-OFF HER

So His Friends Say

It often has been said of Leo Diegel by his many admirers that he might be the greatest golfer in the world were he able to control his nerves.

In view of the fact that Diegel is said to have gained control of this bugaboo to his golf, it will be interesting during the next few months to see how he fares in the important tournaments.

Diegel is one golfer who can look back at his record and find three big spots where opportunity was beckoning him and he couldn't control his nerves. He missed a grand chance to win the naitonal open at Cleveland in 1920, he missed another chance in 1925 at Worcester, and again in 1926 at Columbus.

Those days, however, are in the past, his friends say, and they point to his victories in the Canadian open and in the P. G. A. meet as conclusive proof that he has control of his nerves.

The change in Diegel's demeanor is attributed to the fact that he had himself psycho-analyzed and all of his faults were laid out for him by a friend. And this talk on his faults had an effect. Diegel decided then and there to curb them.

Since the time that he was psycho-analyzed, Diegel has been playing a consistent brand of golf. He has won several minor meets, finished second many times, and seldom worse than third in any meet of importance.

All of which is worth keeping in mind. If Diegel has gained control of his nerves, it may be that he will be dragging down a lot of the important money that is to be won by somebody during the next few months.

A Vote For Wisconsin

Les Gage, the hustling young publicity writer for University of Wisconsin athletics, sends in his vote for the Badgers as the best basketball team in the United States.

Mr. Gage writes:

"I fully believe the Wisconsin team has the best record of any of the recognized leaders in basketball in the United States. Michigan was the only team to beat the Badgers in their first 13 games. This included conference as well as non-conference games, one of the latter being with Pittsburgh.

"To my way of thinking, Notre Dame, Butler, Pittsburgh and the Big Ten leaders are head and shoulders above other college fives. All of these teams have lost two or more games, except Wisconsin.

"The Badgers have a great defensive club, which held its opponents to an average of less than 22 points a game in its first 13."

What About These?

It isn't an easy task to place your finger on one team and term it the best in the United States. There will be too many people to disagree with you.

Wisconsin, on its record, has one of the best clubs in competition this year and it is what one expects with Doc Meanwell running things at Madison. Michigan and Purdue also rate high.

However, there are other crack teams about. This Arkansas team of Coach Francis Schmidt must be pretty good. They have been winning the championship of their conference year in and year out for several seasons.

Penn looks rather strong. Georgia Tech appears the best in the south. California also has a fast one. And there are others whose records entitle them to ranking with the best.

TEAMS ROUND IN CONDITION BY TRAINING

AGED VETERAN LENDS SPICE TO INDIAN CLUB WORKOUTS

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 1.—Reports drifting back from Catalina Island so far are unanimous that Rogers Hornsby and his big stick have already made a hit with Manager Joe McCarthy and his ambitious Cubs.

The "Rajah", say the reports, has jumped into the vigorous training grind like a rookie who has to make good. He is anxious to train, obeys orders quickly and smashes out base hits with his usual skill.

The twenty Cleveland American Leaguers arriving at their training camp at New Orleans, found among them an ambitious fellow past forty out to prove he is not a worn out warrior. He is Grover Hartley, catcher, who says he is after Luke Sewell's job and means to have it. At any rate Hartley, who is death on left handers, is doped as a good reserve hitter.

Roy Meeker "Lame"

At Orlando, Florida, the Cincinnati Reds, most of them, appeared to be near big league condition today. The only dark spot on the Red horizon was caused by the lameness of Roy Meeker, little left hander, who was suffering with a bad arm. He was sent home for a time last season when he had an attack of neuritis.

This is supposed to be the season for the rookies to cavort in the spotlight, but at Tampa, Florida, where the Washington Nationals are training, two old-timers yesterday were preparing to renew their bid for the plaudits of the baseball world. Manager Walter Johnson warmed up for the first time this year and showed the same easy motion with a zip on every throw that made his name one of the most feared in baseball for years. At the same time one of his former battery mates, "Patsy" Gharrity, who has been signed as coach, was working gradually on his arm and Johnson said that "Patsy" who is past 35, may take his turn behind the bat.

Louis Martin Stars

At Paso Robles, California, long distance drives of recruit outfielder, Louis Martin, have brought joy to Donie Bush, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The stickwork of Earl Sheeley, new first baseman, also showed the rangy lad can poke the ball.

Freddy Maguire, former Chicago Cubs second baseman, has made a big hit with "Right Eye" Evers and "Left Eye" Gowdy, aides of President-Manager Fuchs of the Braves who are training at St. Petersburg, Florida. Maguire jumped right into practice with the rest of the Braves an hour after he had reported in camp here.

Maguire, imported from Chicago to take Roger Hornsby's place, was watched closely as he raced around the short field after ground balls. He showed speed, so much of it, that Gowdy had to caution him and finally send him to the showers ahead of the rest of the squad.

BOSS WRIGLEY MEETS SOME OF HIS CUBS

When William Wrigley, jr., owner of the Chicago Cubs, arrived at Catalina Island, Calif., where the club does its spring training, he found a lot of new faces. S rangers on his ball club would never do, so he enlisted Manager Joe McCarthy's aid and went right down the line meeting the newcomers and telling the old-timers hello. Wrigley, in golf knickers, is shown here, with Manager McCarthy at his elbow.

SOUTHERN FISTIC CLASSIC WILL BE FEATURE FOR AT LEAST FOUR YEARS

(By Associated Press)

MIAMI BEACH, March 1.—The turnstiles will click for at least five more winters underneath the palm trees, by the terms of a new agreement between the Miami city commission and Madison Square Garden corporation calling for an annual heavyweight feature bout to be staged here over the period including 1930-34.

Negotiations, carried on by William F. Carey for the Garden corporation with the Miami city commission, were completed yesterday.

The agreement mean further fulfillment of the dreams of Tex Rickard, who not only laid the ground work for the Sharkey-Stribling battle, but revealed before his death definite plans to establish a permanent winter fight headquarters in this section.

Jack Dempsey's name was not mentioned in the annouhcement of the agreement, but it is believed the former champion will be induced to support the forthcoming annual southern fistic features.

Miami Beach, scene of the Sharkey-Stribling fight, offered no counter bid for future bouts, as a consequence of local objections to either retaining the Flamingo park arena or building another in that city next winter.

DEFIES DOCTORS TO WIN TITLE

CHICAGO, March 1 (AP)—Physicians and swimming instructors once said she couldn't do it, but Jane Fauntz, 19-year-old Chicago mermaid, did it just the same.

Gaining speed and grace with every year, Miss Fauntz, who once was injured so severely in an automobile accident that she was told she could never swim again, last night won two National Amateur Women's swimming titles at the National Meet at the Lake Shore Athletic club.

She outclassed a fancy field to win the National Women's low board diving title and after a few minutes rest, she came back to capture the 100-yard breast stroke championship. It was not only here greatest aquatic triumph, but the first time in the history of the Women's National Championship meet that a diving champion has won the breast stroke event.

DEMPSEY BIG FIGHT ENIGMA

DYNAMIC FIGURE OF EX CHAMPION CRUX OF FUTURE

BY ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 1 (AP)—The main mystery in the boxing business, if not the success of the whole heavyweight program for 1929 still revolves around the dynamic figure of Jack Dempsey.

The fight crowd that came here for the big show left apparently more interested in whether Dempsey will fight again this year, than in what will happen next to either of the principals of the melodrama of Miami Beach.

Dempsey would like to fight once more; first, because he loves the cuffing game; second, because it would afford him a chance to regain heavyweight championship recognition and retire at least $500,000 richer. Jack admits all this. The reasons are potent in favor of a comeback but it is a question whether they will be sufficient.

"I don't know, honestly, what I shall do," he said. "I've been turning things over in my mind, of course. It's hard to keep away from the game. But you know, I'm no spring chicken any more."

If Dempsey does not return to the ring, it is entirely conceivable that the final test for number one ranking position among the heavyweights for 1929 may involve two foreign sluggers—Max Schmelling of Germany, who punched his way to fame with a knockout victory over Johnny Risko, and the acrobatic Basque, Paulino Uzcudun.

Paulino is confident he can "take" Sharkey if they meet, as appears likely, at the Yankee Stadium in June. Schmelling has passed all tests with honors so far. A Paulino-Schmelling match would lack nothing in color and interest.

Believe She Will Take Turn At Piloting Plane

MEXICO CITY, March 1. (AP)—This capital was inclined today to the belief that Miss Anne Morrow might be an aviatrix before she became Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh and might be able to take her turn at running a honeymoon plane.

There is nothing new to indicate when her marriage to the trans-Atlantic flight hero will take place, but friends see in events of the past two days possibility that Colonel Lindbergh is teaching her to fly.

Miss Morrow's known enthusiasm for the air and the quickness with which she submitted to "Army Medicine" yesterday after her crash of Wednesday lent foundation to indications that she wishes to handle a plane herself.

Cuernavaca with its lazy beauty will draw the aviator and the Morrows again this week-end.

DENY REPORT LUBBOCK WILL STAY IN LOOP

SNODGRASS STATEMENT REFUTED BY LOCAL CLUB PREXY

Following an announcement from the office of D. L. Snodgrass of Coleman, that he thinks Lubbock will stay in the West Texas baseball loop, H. H. Shell, president of the local club told the Avalanche-Journal this morning that no definite steps had been taken to retain the Hubber franchise on the part of the owners.

"So far as I'm concerned, Lubbock will not be in the league," Mr. Shell said. "We have given the people of Lubbock an opportunity to take over the franchise and other assets of the organization and no response has followed. The present owners are willing to help put over the team for this coming season but are not willing to take an active lead."

Jimmy (Buck) O'Neal, experienced baseball manager and former professional player, was in the city this week seeking to get sufficient backing to run the Hubber aggregation, but returned to his home at Big Spring Thursday without any definite promise on the part of local enthusiasts.

While in Lubbock O'Neal was in communication with President Snodgrass, informing the league head that Lubbock would likely stay in the loop. O'Neal secured the addresses of the players under contract with the local club and wired each to report for spring training at an early date.

According to club owners, the players were free agents after February 28, their contracts expiring on that date. The president of the league informed Lubbock officials that the other clubs in the league were anxious for the Hubbers to stay in the loop.

So far as could be learned this morning, no one here has taken steps to raise the necessary cash to start the ball rolling.

Acuff School Has Arbor Day Program

Arbor day was celebrated in the Acuff school with a program consisting of patriotic and Arbor Day numbers, violin numbers and Victroal numbers. The music consisted of patriotic pieces. After the program the ladies of the Home Demonstration club assisted by the pupil planted ten Chineses elms on the lawn of the school house. The school plans to beautify the front yard with flowers. The lawn of the teacherage will be planted also.

Luke Schaggs has returned to his home at Stamford after a brief visit with friends in Lubbock.

NO REQUEST ON NEW RAIL LINE

STATE BOARD HAS NO WORD ON PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 1.—Members of the Texas railroad commission were without information on construction of the proposed line from Roswell, N. M., to the Gulf of Mexico. They said they had not received any word from the I. C. C. indicating an application for building the line would be received.

KENNEDY TO BE IN SNYDER MARCH 12

SNYDER, Tex., March 1 (AP).—Captain Ed Kennedy, Houston, advised officials of the local Chamber of Commerce yesterday he would be here March 12 to complete preliminary plans for construction of a railroad from Roswell, N. M., to a point on the Gulf of Mexico, to pass through here.

The Houston financier, original promoter of the Snyder, Roswell and Gulf railroad, said contracts had been signed assuring construction of the line.

SPECIAL MEET FOR APRIL 10

DATE OF OPENING FARM RELIEF CONGRESS IS MOVED UP

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The special session of congress for consideration of farm relief and tariff revision probably will be called on April 10 as a result of suggestions placed before President-elect Hoover by house republican leaders.

Representative Tilson, Connecticut, majority floor leader, announced today that this date, subject to change, had been proposed to Mr. Hoover after consultation with chairman of the house agriculture and ways and means committee. The president-elect he added, had previously informed the leaders that he would be willing to abide by their judgment. April 15 previously had been mentioned for the start of the session.

Tilson said the farm bill would be given precedence over the tariff measure.

The house agriculture committee will meet tomorrow to consider plans for calling of witnesses on a proposed farm bill. Republican members of the ways and means committee have been called to meet Saturday to map out a course of procedure for the sub-committees which will draft the rate changes to be incorporated in the new tariff measure.

Though the administration hopes to confine the session to tariff and farm relief, Tilson said the house might be willing to take up the reapportionment bill.

New Production Is Down In Past Week

DALLAS, March 1 (AP)—New production in West Texas oil fields last week fell considerably under that of the preceding week. Wells completed numbered 13, while a like number of tests were abandoned. Winkler county with six wells, good for 18,060 barrels, led other counties in that section.

WASHINGTON BECOMES CITY OF FLAGS

CAPITAL IN GALA DRESS FOR INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT HOOVER NEXT MONDAY

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Bunting, red, white and blue, like strange flowers suddenly blooming out of stone and brick, drapes capital buildings. Washington has become a city of flags. On Pennsylvania avenue there is the incongruous sight of crude wooden stands, built of unpainted lumber. Every incoming train brings its group of visitors. The inauguration of Herbert Hoover as the thirty-first president of the United States is only three days away.

Four years ago the city outwardly was much the same. Bunting draped brick and stone buildings, flags were flying and every train brought its group of visitors—but today Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States, is preparing to go back to the quiet town of Northampton, Mass. He will not even wait to ride up Pennsylvania avenue with his successor after the inauguration but will go to the train almost directly after Herbert Hoover takes the oath as president. Herbert Hoover was secretary of commerce four years ago. He had been mentioned for the presidency; had even been put in nomination at a republican convention. He got much applause from the galleries but few votes from the delegates.

Dawes Ready to Leave

Charles G. Dawes, vice president of the United States, today was also preparing to leave Washington. He plans to leave for Evanston, Illinois, Monday evening. He will not go unnoticed but four years ago he was drawing almost as much attention as the president. His fame as a banker, soldier and a used of the expression "Hell and Maria" in moments of stress had preceded him and due notice had been taken of one of his closest companions, an underslung pipe. The senate was in session then but it could not foresee that Dawes was to astound them by his vigorous lectures on that body's rules.

Charles Curtis, vice president-elect, was a senator then and today he was still busy in the senate but his time there is short. Senator Curtis has a strain of Indian blood, and at the inauguration more than 100 Indians are to be present. They will wear at the inaugural and in the parade, feathers, paint and buckskin, and during their stay here will pitch their tepees on the ground around the Washington monument. Almost all the tribes in the country will be represented and lest the memory of old quarrels and feuds make them forget their purpose in coming to the capital, diplomacy will be exercised in pitching tepees.

Parade Plans Complete

Plans for the inaugural parade are almost complete. General Charles E. Summerall, grand marshal, has arranged for the escort of President Coolidge and President-elect Hoover from the White House to the capitol. Twenty Confederate veterans from Mississippi plan to be in Washington for the ceremonies and the governor of Mississippi, Theodore G. Bilbo, has announced that he would be accompanied by a formidable staff of colonels. John Coolidge, son of the president, will be in the line of March but as a major in the staff of Governor Trumbull of Connecticut. Bands will be spaced at intervals through the line of march but as the procession passes the presidential reviewing stand only the army band at the head of the parade and the Quantico marine band, head of the second grand division, will play "Hail the Chief."

Brownfield C. Of C. Selects Secretary

BROWNFIELD, March 1—Directors of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, held a meeting Wednesday for the purpose of electing officers and filling the position of secretary. Morgan L. Copeland was elected president and Claude Hudgens as vice-president. The position of secretary was offered to J. F. Shelton, and was accepted by him.

In addition to the above, the following citizens will serve as directors for the year: Dr. G. W. Graves, Ben Hurts, A. W. Enderson, W. A. Bell, H. R. Winston, W. H. Collins, R. L. Bowers, A. J. Stricklin, Al Stephens, Cecil Smith, Roy B. Davis. No committees were appointed as it was decided to formulate a program and afterward appoint committees to deal with each activity adopted.

The first will in the English language was the will of a chandler who bequeathed candles to various churches.

CIVIC CHIEFS HERE ARE TAKEN FOR RIDE IN BIG PLANE

Lubbock city commissioners were, not figuratively but actually, "up in the air" yesterday when all who could be found and would go were taken for a ride over the city in the twelve-passenger tri-motored plane, which has been in the city for the past several days.

H. L. Allen, president of the Lubbock Board of City Development, and other members of the directorate of the organization also made the flight. For several, including City Commissioners J. H. Hankins and D. N. Leaverton, it was their first flight, and everyone expressed themselves as enjoying the experience. City Manager G. W. McCleary and Commissioner J. B. Bacon ware among the ones to take the flight, but Commissioner A. V. Weaver could not be induced to go.

The flight carried the passengers for a bird's-eye inspection of the proposed airport sites for the city of Lubbock, with George E. Benson, chairman of the airport committee of the Board of City Development, pointing out the sites.

Due to the popularity of the visit here, the huge all-metal plane will remain here over today, according to a wire late yesterday from headquarters of the Golden State Airways, owners of the monoplane, at Los Angeles. Abilene will be the next stop on the plane's itinerary.

Foreign Monoply On Potash Ended

Thought For Today

They have mouths but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not.—Psalms 135:16.

The idol is the measure of the worshipper.—Lowell.

Unruly Giant

You may say what you please, but you can not deny that this modern life of ours has plenty of color and excitement.

The latest exhibit of Chicago's turbulent subterranean life is about the most startling of all. Seven men, lined up against a wall in the middle of the second city on the continent, and butchered by machine gun fire! It is incredible—the sort of thing that one might imagine but that could never really happen.

Yet happen it did—in Chicago, in the year 1929. It is part of the mosaic of modern American civilization, just as the Ford factories and the New York skyscrapers and Babe Ruth and Lindbergh and the magnificent Lincoln memorial at Washington and all the bravery and nobility and sacrifice of unnumbered common lives are parts of it. It deserves the same consideration that they deserve.

There is no use for any of us to hold up our hands in horror about it all. Shocking and dreadful it surely was; yet when was there a giant that did not misuse his strength and commit excesses? Chicago is a giant, the nation of which it is a part is a giant; and side by side with progress and achievement there are, and will continue to be, fearful displays of ignorance, rage, and untamed strength.

We make a mistake, too often, in assuming that our life is as cut-and-dried and routine as the novelists and essayists say it is. On the surface we have a great deal of order and are well regimented. We all put on straw hats on the same day in the summer and take them off on the same day in the fall. We all indulge in the same movies, play the same baseball and golf, read the same magazines, swallow the same slogans, wear and eat and use the same nationally advertised products; but order and monotony are not and never have been real parts of the current scene.

Underlying all surface appearances in America there is a tremendous power, vital and all-compelling. It strings huge steel mills and blast furnaces from Gary to Chicago and the length of the Mahoning valley, thrusts great buildings up to the clouds on Manhattan, bores for miles beneath the Rockies in the west, hems in Detroit with incredible factories, turns Birmingham into a great manufacturing center, flings bridges across the Mississippi and fills the air with speeding planes; but it also has its darker side. It is the cause of Chicago's gang wars, and the similar disturbances from which none of our cities is wholly free.

This power is still untamed. It is a great mistake to think that we have left our frontier behind us. Deadwood and Dodge City and Tonopah may be quiet and peaceful these days, but the roistering, lawless, hard-hitting pioneer strain is as strong now as ever.

The nation is super-charged with energy. Slowly we are learning how to shackle this energy and put it to work. But it will be a long time before we entirely succeed. We are still young and turbulent.

Public Lands

Since natural resources are largely responsible for America's rapid rise to the front rank of industrial nations, any information about the extent of such resources that still remain untapped is bound to be of interest.

A bulletin from the Department of Interior relative to the United States public lands is highly reassuring.

On these lands there still remains an untapped coal reserve of more than 200,000,000,000 tons. There are also deposits of 8,000,000,000 tons of phosphates. Oil shale areas will yield 60,000,000,000 barrels of oil when the need becomes acute.

It is comforting to know that such enormous reserves still exist. These, of course, are in addition to the huge reserves that lie in private lands. Apparently our great store of natural riches is by no means near exhaustion.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says there is one thing a married woman will admit she doesn't know—that is why she married her husband.

The new "blush tests" which have been used in New York recently show that blondes blush hotter than brunettes. Wonder if there's any connection between their blushes and their tempers?

In regular session yesterday afternoon the city commission ordered the paving of the "wide open spaces" in the center of Broadway from Avenue P to College; Texas Avenue from 14th street to 18th; and Avenue Q from Main to 19th street. The problem is now strictly up to the property owners. If they desire to pay their share of the cost of closing up the ugly parkways, the parkways will be closed. If not they will remain as they are.

About four or five years ago—whenever it was that Broadway was first paved on out to College avenue—there was a long discussion throughout the city regarding the parkway in the thoroughfare. At that time The Plainsman argued that the entire street should be paved but the folks who visioned a beautifully shrubbed and flower-decked slit between the right and left traffic streams were finally victorious and the parkway was left. Of course it has been anything but an eye-sore and has served to injure the traffic bearing qualities of the street.

Now if Lubbock was a city of a hundred or two hundred thousand souls and had a park commissioner on full time with plenty of money to run his department The Plainsman and most other people would be glad to see parkways in the center of every thoroughfare in the city. In other words if there was a provision made to improve and keep the parkways the idea would be a good one. As things stand now, however, we can't say so much for it.

Although it is to be hoped that property owners fronting those parkways will see fit to pave them the writer has a lot of sympathy for the fellow who has to spend his dough on something which will benefit the entire city about as much, if not more, than it does himself. Paving the parkways will increase adjacent property values, all right, but paving them means a lot to the appearance of the city as a whole.

That Man on Avenue Q says the saxophone is the only instrument which sounds as well while you're learning to play as it does afterward.

Yesterday a host of friends paid their last respects to J. B. (Uncle Johnnie) Green, Confederate veteran and one of that noble band of trail blazers who laid the foundations of modern-day West Texas. With the passing of Mr. Green, who was one of the founders of Lubbock county, the remainder of the pioneers to which we are all so much indebted has lost a tried friend and a comrade of many hardships.

It is the law of the universe that we must pass on when it is decreed that our time has come. As soon as we reach an age where we can realize some parts of life's mystery we learn that to all men comes the time when their days on earth are ended. Most of us have been able to see death in a philosophical light, save of course when it touches our immediate hearthstone. Yet as our pioneers are drifting one by one across the vale, even those who knew them only by their deeds and not in person, must pause to regret.

Time goes marching on. There is nothing we could do to stop it, even if we so wished. The calendar has been moved up until the men, who at an early age pushed into a strange new country, have now past the crest of life and their hair is thatched with gray. More of them will leave us in the next few months and years until at last they will have all gone away. Yet their relatives and their scores of friends may take solace in the fact that they did not leave the world without adding to it—that they left the world and particularly this part of it to a better place in which to live.

February's building permits, totalling $502,662, set a new high mark in Lubbock's history as the city plunges on at a break-neck pace. The figures which reflect Lubbock's growth and progress over the past few years are astounding. They become amazing when it is taken into consideration that there is no boom on in the city.

The growth of the city, the building records divulge, is based mainly upon homes, which is a good sign. When people choose a city for the erection of their homes that means it is a good place in which to live and rear a family. It is a mute testimony of a clean town—one which offers advantages of the age, educationally and in every other way. Lubbock's future is being builded with these scores of residences and on these broad plains of ours an embryo metropolis is lifting its head to the sun.

News Letter Circulated By Modest Senator McWhorter Capital Statesman, Relates Its Writer's Great Work

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Senator J. Boomboom McWhorter has been his own press agent of late. Formerly he used his secretary for that job, but the girl was guilty of such gross errors of understatement that the senator decided to do it himself.

You must know, if you don't, that many members of Congress are accustomed to mail out weekly Washington news letters to the newspapers in their home states. These news letters are confined to the various activities of the member with especial emphasis on the herculean labors he has been performing for his constituents.

A few of the congressmen even write regular columns under their own signatures for their home town newspapers and it is to be noted that these journalists are almost invariably returned to office, so the effort must be worth while.

Senator McWhorter, of course, does not write under a signature. He was not born to blush unseen, but he is altogether too modest for that. One will observe as much if we reproduce Senator McWhorter's latest weekly news letter herewith:

WASHINGTON—The secretary of the treasury has been reported ill at his home for the past few days. That is the official version. But 'those in the know" are well aware that he isn't very sick.

The truth of the matter is that Senator J. Boomboom McWhorter has been waging his annual campaign for the proposed new federal building in Goozleton, the state capital, and that the secretary has only fled before the devastating vehemence of the senator's arguments.

It is commonly understood on Capitol Hill that Senator McWhorter is prepared to engage in a one-man filibuster which would block all other legislation during this session of Congress if his demands are not met. The result is that poyerful forces, realizing the danger in the senator's threat, are now working for Goozleton's new federal building.

WASHINGTON — President-elect Herbert Hoover is expected soon to return to Washington to confer with Senator J. Bommboom McWhorter concerning the makeup of the Hoover cabinet.

It is common knowledge in the nation's capital that Mr. Hoover has kept the wires hot from Miami urgently requesting Senator McWhorter's presence at Miami. But Senator McWhorter has politely but firmly replied that his first duty is to his constituents and that if the president-elect is so anxious for Senator McWhorter's advice, why then he can return a few days earlier and Senator McWhorter will gladly give him as much time as he needs.

Washington meanwhile continues to seethe with reports that Senator McWhorter has been offered his choice of cabinet posts, but those "in the know" sometimes discount these rumors because of the well-known fact that Mr. Hoover will not select men of outstanding ability but only those best adapted to taking orders. Senator McWhorter's well-known devotion to his own "great and glorious state," as he calls it, and which he believes can best be served in the upper house of Congress, also tends to discount these reports.

WASHINGTON — Senator J. Boomboom McWhorter is prosecuting a valiant one-man fight for his anti-walnut bill, the same anti-walnut bill which he first introduced in 1904.

Senator McWhorter believes that he is gradually convincing Congress that the walnut is a great menace and that if it were not for the popularity of the dangerous walnut the pecan growers of his state would experience great prosperity because the walnut is the pecan's great rival and keeps down the nation's consumption of pecans by millions of kernels. The senator is confident that this session of Congress will enact his bill, which would gradually abolish all walnut trees.

A 13-year-old boy in California has received a letter from Professor Einstein, commending him on his grasp of the relativity theory. Now wouldn't it be just like some kindergarten pupil in Florida to prove Einstein's all wrong?

A small town is one where the newspaper prints a short story about the death of one of the city's leading draymen's work horses.

A duffer is a fellow who can't tell his bridge and golf scores apart.

We read in the paper that William Wrigley was going to support Colonel Stewart, but read no headlines such as "WRIGLEY STICKS TO STEWART."

After that terrific cold wave Europe has been having, the reparations committee needn't be surprised to find most of the assets over there have been frozen up.

A West Virginia woman found a diamond in a can of lard. That wouldn't have been news at all in New York, where big butter and egg men are continually casting at least pearls before swine.

Plow Demonstration Given At Brownfield

BROWNFIELD, March 1—County judges and commissioners from several surrounding counties were in attendance upon a deep plowing demonstration, which is being conducted on the A. A. Sawyer farm, near Brownfield, under the direction of Roy B. Davis, county agent for Terry county. Among other visitors passing judgment upon the test was Don L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station and Prof. Bowers of the Agricultural Department of Technological College of Lubbock. Noon luncheon was served to the visitors by the Chamber of Commerce and many interesting talks were indulged in at conclusion of the meal. Both Prof. Bowers and Mr. Jones, voiced an opinion that a good start had been made toward final control of the sandy soil of West Texas although each of them believed that a tool capable of deeper penetration would have to be developed before success was fully attained.

Caucuses Ordered By House Members

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—Preparatory to the special session to deal with farm relief and the tariff, republicans and democrats in the House yesterday ordered caucuses. The democrats will meet today to name John N. Garner, of Texas, as their candidate for speaker, and probably John McDuffie, of Alabama, as party whip. Garner will automatically become his party's floor leader on his defeat in the speakership contest.

Senate Approves Nicaraguan Survey

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—The Senate today agreed to the $150,000 item in the deficiency appropriation bill for a survey of the Nicaraguan Canal after Senator Dill, democrat, Washington, had reiterated his opposition to it. Dill concluded a one-man filibuster against the provision which kept the senate in session until 2:40 o'clock this morning.

Fort Worth Man Is Shot By Detectives

FORT WORTH, Mar. 1 (AP)—E. D. Wilson, 40, Fort Worth, was shot today in a chase with three city detectives. At noon he was reported to be in a serious condition.

Wilson was accosted by city detectives at a street intersection where he had parked his automobile.

At the end of 1927 Canada ranked fifth among the countries of the world in import, export and general trade.

In New York

By Swan

NEW YORK, March 1—Just a few little tales today! Tales of this and of that, flavored by the ironic and tragic which make Manhattan what it is!

Take, for instance, the raiding of Broadway's most recent "dirt play". It concerned a rowdy Long Island party at which a group of show girls were guests. The lines were of the double entendre variety. It had been valiantly spanked by the critics, one of whom used the prevalent stock market term, "it established a new low," to describe it. Well, on the night of the raid, one of the actresses arested was a youngster of 21, who but recently began to break into the bright lights belt. She was cast as the hardest of the hard boiled. Yet when the police broke in her first reaction was to break into tears and cry out: "Oh please, please . . . I want mamma."

O yes, a very hard boiled street is Broadway!

Or take Mary. Mary is just another of those tens of thousands who married a man with a $25 a week salary, and yet was expected to bring up a vast brood of children upon it. Mary is the type that produces arguments for the birth controllers. But her brood kept increasing year by year. At 35 she had seven and the income was just the same.

And another was coming! Would it always be like this? Each year another child and $25 a week to rear them on! What would they do? What would become of them? Would they all have to struggle as she had, live in a tenement and bring up other children on $25 a week—or less? For days she must have brooded.

The other morning someone smelled gas. Neighbors broke in.

The mother lay dead in bed—and one went with her who shall never be born.

And Walter Kingsley died the other day. Just to indicate the amusing nature of fame, Walter was the fellow who first discovered Peggy Joyce. Peggy was 15 then. But she was just one of his finds. It was said of Walter that he selected most of the girls fated to be glorified by M. Ziegfeld. To be sure, Ziegfeld did glorify them, but Walter was the man with the unerring eyesight.

That isn't the story, however, that's merely to identify him. Walter had been on Broadway for years on end. He was looked upon variously as the sage, seer and encyclopedia of "the big street." Whenever a city editor wanted to know something he'd knit his brow for a moment and say: "Oh, Walter Kingsley will know that. Call him up, Gus." And so it went—a legend through the newspaper world. It came to the point that Walter was consulted on anything and everything—and always gave the answer, even if he had to take time from his work to look it up.

Well, Walter got the flu and from the flu came an attack of meningitis. He went into a coma and died.

One of the Broadway reporters came into a newspaper city room, saddened by the news. And the reporter also was perplexed by the nature of this malady. He turned to one of the desk men—"Say, how can a fellow with the flu die of meningitis. Never heard of that before!"

"How the devil should I know," shot back the desk man. "Call up Walter Kingsley . . . he'll tell you!"

Stolen Money Found In Cache In 'Bottom'

CAMERON, March 1 (AP)—Most of the money stolen from the Buckholts bank Tuesday night was recovered when one of two Houston youths held here led officers to a cache on the river bottom, Sheriff Blaylock said today.

One of the youths, the sheriff said, admitted participation in the robbery. When they were arrested, one of them had a $20 gold piece in his shoe. A coin of that kind was taken from the bank, officers declared.

EARLY WAKING BABY MAY GO TO BED LATER FOR LONGER SLEEPING

Answers to Mothers

God could not be everywhere; therefore he made mothers.—Jewish Proverb.

"1. Will you please tell me how I can train my baby not to soil and wet her napkins? She is a year old, and though I have worked very hard with her since she was six months old. I see little improvement. When she was three months old, I started taking her up after breakfast every morning for a movement. She seemed entirely trained; then I began taking her every hour to train her not to wet. She seemed to confuse the two and no longer has a movement at the exact time.

"2. Is it necessary that she should wake up at 5 o'clock in the morning? People tell me that she will do this all through her early babyhood. If I put her to bed later—she goes at 6—do you think it would help?

"3. Will you please give me a diet for a baby of 12 to 15 months old? My baby is two or three pounds underweight, and always has been, in spite of my efforts; but she is absolutely healthy. She is at all times happy, contented, laughing and very active, has rosy cheeks and dimples. Indeed, she gives the appearance of being a very fat baby and I cannot help but feel that the underweight is due to the fact that she is short and small boned. Can she go on a three-meal a day schedule?

"MRS. R."

1. Keep right on with your plan for teaching the baby, Mrs. R. It may take some time before she fully understands. To start the bowel movement, you may use a little glycerine or mild soap suppository, until the habit is established at a certain hour.

2. For that inconsiderate habit of waking up at 5 in the morn you might try putting the baby bed at 7 instead of 6 o'clock, a perhaps she will make up later the morning. Is her sleeping roo darkened? Children and adu rest better in a darkened room.

3. Your baby is probably norm weight is she round and dimpl and healthy The following is t feeding schedule you ask for:

Table of Feeding from 12th to 15t Month

6 a. m.—Milk, 8 ounces, from cup by 13th month. (No sugar.) Dry crisp bread and butter, about 1-3 ordinary slice; increase gradually Juice 1 orage at 9 a. m.

10 a. m.—Milk, 8 ounces, from cup Cooked cereal, 3 to 4 level table spoonfuls, with milk (part of above) No sugar. Dry crisp bread and butter, 1-3 to 1-2 slice. Egg yolk 2 or 3 times a week or oftener; cooked slightly or raw—on toast or in milk or in custard form.

2 p. m.—Milk, 4 to 8 ounces from cup (no sugar) after solid foods eaten. Meat or vegetable broths (3 to 4 ounces), with rice or stale bread in it, 2 or 3 times a week. Crisp bread and butter. Scraped beef or cottage cheese, 1 tablespoonful, 2 or three times a week when meat broths are not given. Cleaned bone to bite and suck on, 2 or 3 times a week. Pureed vegetables 3 to 4 tablespoons, or more. (Pota to and one other. Spinach or kal 3 to 4 times a week, if possible Fruit pulp cooked or raw, 2 to level tablespoonfuls, or more.

6 p. m.—Milk, 8 ounces from cup (no sugar) after solid foods eaten. Dry, crisp bread and butter, 1-3 to 1-2 slice. Cereal, 1-4 to 1-2 cupful, some of above milk on it. Fruit pulp, 2 to 4 tablespoonfuls. Water, 1-2 to 1 glassful between meals.

ACCURACY OF IMMIGRATION DATA QUESTIONED BY HENRIK SHIPSTEAD
Senator From Minnesota

(Henrik Shipstead was born in Kandijohi county, Minnesota, Jan. 8, 1881. He was graduated from the dental school of Northwestern university, later practising at Glenwood, Minn. In 1920 he moved to Minneapolis and continued his practice there. He was mayor of Glenwood for two terms, and a member of the Minnesota house of representatives in 1917. He was elected to the senate on the Farmer-Laborite ticket in 1923.)

It is not within the province of congress to legislate for or against any person or group representing any nationality composing its citizenship. We legislate as Americans. The constitution does not distinguish between racial groups.

SENATOR SHIPSTEAD

I think on reading the report of the senate committee on immigration that they have arbitrarily divided the American population into two classes. The native American stock and the immigrant stock. The native American stock is held by the committee of experts to be composed of those whose ancestors were here before 1790, and that part of our population whose ancestors came here after 1790 are designated as immigrants and the children of immigrants. This arbitrary classification is the foundation of the report of the committee.

That is a new theory that I nominate to stand on a par with Dr. Einstein's Fourth and Fifth Dimensions, interesting for speculative purposes but surely not to be relied on to form the foundation of an American immigration policy. I know of no provision of law nor do I desire any such that may prohibit those whose ancestors were here before 1790 from purchasing for themselves championship belts for the purpose of designating to the world that they are the only "simon pure" Americans. But for purposes of legislation we can not distinguish or give any preferred status to any particular group.

It is therefore plain that the committee has discarded the report of the commission appointed by law and if the national origins clause is to be put into effect and used as a basis for our immigration policy it can only be done by amending the immigration act of 1924.

WILD FLURRY OF TRADING FEATURES STOCK EXCHANGE TODAY

RALLY THAT STARTED LATE YESTERDAY IS MAINTAINED

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 1—The rally in stock prices, which started in the last hour of trading yesterday, was resumed at the opening of today's market under the leadership of the steel shares. Bethlehem opened a point highe rat 104, a new high ground, and a block of 12,000 Central Algy Steel changed hands at 50 3-8, up 1 3-8. Radio (new stock) opened wit ha block of 10,000 shares at 81 1-2, up 1 3-8. U. S. Cast Iron Pipe and Cerrode Pasco moved into new high ground. Union Pacific more than made up the $2.50 dividend, which came off the stock today.

One of the largest accumulations of overnight buying orders this year greeted the opening of today's market. Blocks of 5,000 to 35,000 shares changed hands at frequent intervals, with the price tendency uniformly upward.

Coppers quickly forged to the lead, Kennecott opening with a block of 35,000 shares at 91 7-8, up 4 points, while Anaconda, Nevada consolidated, Calumet and Hecla, Park Utah, American Smelting and Inspiration opened with blocks of 7,000 to 15,000 shares at advances of a fraction to 2 1-2 points.

Radio issues were heavily bught in anticipatin of a favorable annual report tomorrow, the new stock crossing 81 to a new high while the old stock returned to the 400 class by advancing 5 points to 402.

High priced specialities were again whirled upward in spectacular fashion. Adams Express added 20 points to its 60 1-2 point gain of yesterday; Midland Steel products ran up 9 points; Goodyear Rubber 8, and Union Carbide, Johns Manville and American and Foreign Power sold 4 to nearly 6 points higher.

Foreign exchanges opened steady with sterling unchanged at $4.85 1-4.

Cotton Markets

NEW ORLEANS, March 1 (AP).—The cotton market opened higher in response to better Liverpool cables than due and on reports of floods in the eastern belt. First trades showed gains of 7 to 9 points and prices continued to improve after the start until March sold at 19.70, May 19.91 and July 19.98, or 12 to 13 points above yesterday's close. The bulge attracted profit-taking. At the end of the first hour the market was steady and a few points above the lows.

A flurry of realizing and price fixing later in the morning carried May off to 19.82, July 18.89, and October 19.64, or 9 to 11 points under the early highs but still 3 points above yesterday's close. Secretary Hester's pointer for the week indicating good mill takings had no visible effect on the market and at noon prices were at the lows with the undertone quiet.

OPENING TODAY IS UNCHANGED

NEW YORK, March 1 (AP).—The cotton market opened unchanged to 6 points higher. Active months showed net advances of 10 to 14 points during the early trading on covering or rebuying by some of yesterday's sellers, together with some trade and commission house demand. May sold up to 20.58 and new October to 19.94, or within 4 or 5 points of yesterday's high prices.

The volume of business tapered off on reactions of some 8 or 9 points from the early high prices and the market was quiet but steady late in the morning. At midday May was holding around 20.52 with the general list about 2 to 8 points net higher after having absorbed a considerable amount of realizing during the earlier trading.

March Off To Good Start In Building

Following on the heels of February's record building permit total of $502,622, the highest mark ever to be reached in a single month in Lubbock, permits for March were given a rapid send-off this morning as two permits totalling $8,500 were issued from the city offices.

One of the permits was to G. A. Gunn for the construction of a brick veneer residence at 2317 17th street at a cost of $8,500, and the other of $50 was to H. A. McDaniel to move a residence.

The total for the year now stands at $772,940 for 141 permits. February's total of more than half of a million dollars exceeds the highest previous monthly total by more than $100,000. The highest total before last month was in May, 1928, when permits reached $402,158.

LARGE DELIVERIES INFLUENCE WHEAT

CHICAGO, March 1 (AP).—Larger deliveries here on March wheat contracts than expected had an early bearish effect today on wheat values.

Opening at 1-8c decline to a shade advance, wheat later underwent a general sag. Corn and oats were also easier, with corn starting unchanged to 3-8c up, and subsequently receding somewhat. Provisions tended to advance.

HOUSE OKEHS NEW DRY BILL

GREATER PENALTY FOR PRO VIOLATORS IS PROVIDED

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Approved by both houses, the Jones bill today needed only the president's signature to become law. The measure was passed by the house yesterday by the one-sided vote of 183 to 90.

The bill provides as a maximum penalty for a first violation of the prohibition laws five years in prison, or a fine of $10,000, or both. Discretionary power is given federal judges to discriminate between minor and major offenders.

Introduced by Senator Jones, republican, of Washington, the measure, was probably the only one considered during the session in which the issue between the wets and drys was well defined. It passed the senate by almost as large a margin, comparatively speaking, as it did the house.

During the debate on the bill in the house, F. Scott McBridge, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, sat in the gallery. His presence was noted by Representative O'Connor, democrat, New York, in an attack upon the bill. Representative O'Connor intimated that the advocates of the Jones measure were not supporting the constitution were passing the bill because of the Anti-Saloon league.

Representative Moore, republican, Ohio, attacked O'Connor because the New York member declared he despised the eighteenth amendment and would not vote for any measure to enforce it.

Grand Jury Meets To Resume Inquiry

The county grand jury of the 72nd district court convened at the courthouse today at the call of Judge Homer L. Pharr to resume investigations.

Judge Pharr recently recessed the jury for several weeks but called the grand jurymen back together for today to consider other investigations deemed necessary to be taken up immediately.

Egg Marketing To Be Four-H Topic

The home demonstration clubs of Lubbock will study "marketing eggs" during the month of March, it was announced this morning by Miss Louise Baird, Lubbock county home demonstration agent.

Working on this one problem, the clubs will study the value of proper grading and marketing of eggs, which will result in better market prices, Miss Baird said.

MOODY VETO OF LAND-GRABBING BILL LOOMS IN UNCONSTITUTIONAL RULING

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 1.—Interest has been directed to probable action of Senator C. C. Small of Wellington and other sponsors of the bill validating patents and awards issued on lands lying across water courses or navigable streams and abandoned beds of water courses and streams, should Governor Dan Moody veto the measure.

Forecast of his veto is made on action of the attorney general's department in holding the bill unconstitutional, in reply to an inquiry by the governor.

The bill was passed by both houses with many votes to spare and it is understood proponents will endeavor to enact it into law over the governor's head. To do this will require a two-thirds majority vote in each the House and Senate.

Stating that "it is with much reluctance," he holds the proposed law unconstitutional, the attorney general said:

"I am firmly convinced that there is a condition particularly in West and Southwest Texas of which some relief should be given and a more definite and certain definition of navigable streams should be enacted into the law, and I have not hesitated to so express myself to many mmbers of the Texas legislature by a written communication to a member of the state senate. I am also of the opinion that there should be a reasonable law of limitation as against the state as to actions for the recovery of vacant land which has been held under a claim of title and in possession for a long number of years, and that provisions should be made by the legislature to locate and mark upon the ground all of the public land within its domain. These, in my judgment, would be wise enactments but the act under consideration does not attempt to do either of these things or in any way remotely relate to them."

State Relinquishes Rights

If the bill should become a law, the attorney general said, "The result will be that the state relinquishes all of its right, title and interest in ten miles of the main channel of the mouth of the Trinity river, in 20 miles of the main channel of the Brazos river in Brazoria county; in 100 miles of the Canadian river which is the widest river in Texas; in all of the main channel of the Trinity river from Dallas to beyond Fort Worth. A very hurried investigation of the records of the land office discloses that this act will result in the state relinquishing its right, title and interest to portions of 14 separate navigable streams in this state in forty counties and in approximately 400 original surveys."

It was held that the bill contravenes that part of the constitution "which provides that the public free school lands shall be sold and which would prohibit them being given away, and the further provision of the same section that the legislature shall not have power to grant any relief to the purchaser of public free school lands, and that it is also in violation of the constitutional inhabition which prohibits the appropriation of any public school land which is a part of the permanent school fund to any other purposes than in the investment of bonds of a defined kind."

Captain Brennan Endorses Orgatone

Well Known Plainview Salvation Army Leader Makes Strong Statement

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with the introduction of Orgatone throughout the south and west has been the large number of ministers of the Gospel who have unhesitatingly and voluntarily given this wonderful medicine their unqualified endorsement.

Captain Chas. Brennan, well known leader of the Salvation Army at Plainview, Texas, and residing at 1403 Nassau street, is one of the latest to come forward and add his testimony to the thousands of others who have been restored to health by its use. Captain Brennan has been in charge of the Plainview Salvation Army for the past two months having been transferred there from Childress, Texas, and is not only held in the highest esteem by the hundreds of his church followers, but is exceedingly prominent as a man and citizen. In describing his troubles and failure to heretofore find relief, Captain Brennan said:

"I suffered from a general run-down condition and nervousness more or less for the past year. I could not sleep soundly and for the past several months I suffered from attacks of indigestion. The pains in my head would sometimes seem like they were going to put my eyes out they so severe, and the relief I got from them was only temporary. I had to diet myself with great care, and I couldn't get any restful sleep at night. I had practically no appetite at all and what I did eat always caused that gas to form and bother me for hours at a time. I not only suffered a great deal of pain, but became so weak and run down that I would tire quickly in trying to do my work.

"After hearing of the good work of Orgatone was doing I decided to give it a trial, and the results I have gotten have been most satisfactory. I sleep well at night now, eat anything I like, and relish every meal. I'm not nervous any more, and fell full of life and vigor. My headaches are a thing of the past. Orgatone has proven to be the right thing for me and I am glad to recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried."

Commenting on the above statement, Harvey Martin, the Orgatone representative said:

"I distinctly recall a number of other members of this high calling who have publicly expressed their indebtedness to this medicine and who felt it their duty to tell suffering humanity of the great benefit they had derived from its use and not a day passes but what the Orgatone drug stores over the country receive dozens of statements from people in all walks of life who have been relieved after suffering for years."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold exclusively in Lubbock by Bowen's drug store under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative who is meeting the public daily. Out of town customers are being supplied by mail upon receipt of price $1.25 for one bottle or 6 bottles for $6.25.—Adv.

gress and a candidate for re-election, received a campaign contribution of $25 from Roy B. Nichols, postmaster at Houston, Texas. This last contribution was received by Mr. Wurzbach in person in the office of Mr. Nichols in the federal building at Houston, Texas. This contribution was by check on the Union National bank of Houston, Texas, the check being numbered 1,493 and now I offer the original check to the committee as evidence."

Admits Taking "Gifts"

Wurzbach admitted he had received all of the contributions but declared they were unsolicited and came from men who had given the money voluntarily and were his lifetime friends.

"I do not understand," he said, "that it is a violation of the criminal law to accept voluntary contributions."

Creager testified that in October, 1924, C. K. McDowell, then of San Antonio, entered into an agreement with Wurzbach whereby the representative was "to support McDowell for the position of collector of customs" and that he was "to pay Wurzbach $1,000 as a campaign contribution."

"Mr. Wurzbach, at the very time," Creager said, "signed a written endorsement of McDowell for the position stated and this written indorsement was mailed by Mr. McDowell to the secretary of the treasury, Andrew Mellon. Mr. McDowell delivered and caused to be delivered to Mr. Wurzbach prior to the election, the sum of $290. Immediately after the election Mr. Wurzbach called upon Mr. McDowell and demanded balance of the $1,000 and on November 3, 1924, Mr. McDowell delivered his check, on the Guaranty State bank of San Antonio, Texas, to Mr. Wurzbach, said check being payable to H. M. Wurzbach, in the sum of $710. This check was subsequently indorsed and cashed by Mr. Wurzbach. I now offer the committee the original check."

Denies Agreement

Wurzbach denied that he had entered into such an agreement with McDowell.

Creager read an affidavit made by D. H. Morris, former administrator of prohibition in Texas, and a letter from Frank Cole, another former prohibition director there, to refute testimony that he had "protected" Texas hotel from dry raiders.

Morris said that "Creager did not discuss or request protection from me," and Cole charged that Wurzbach was "drunk" during one of the republican state conventions and that Cole "threatened to lock him up."

Wurzbach denied the charge.

The hearing was enlivened by frequent tilts between Chairman Brookhart and the Texas committeeman.

"I would wipe out all automatic machines," Brookhart said, declaring he had "an experience with a machine in Iowa," which, he said, was "just like" Creager's.

"Ours is not an automatic machine," Creager replied. "Every member is elected under the Texas law. In no line of human endeavor is an organization more important than in political campaigns."

"No organization is back of me in Iowa," Brookhart said.

The Iowan then submitted figures to show that from 1921 to 1928 the Creager organization in Texas had received contributions totalling $205,190 and that the "peaks" of the donations had come following presidential elections, with $66,000 in 1921, and $38,000 in 1525, indicating, he said, that the "pie counter was opening up."

"These facts," Brookhart said, "condemn the system."

"I resent your expression of pie counter," Creager said. "It is taken from Wurzbach."

"I know what a pie counter is myself," Brookhart retorted.

Creager explained the "peaks" by saying that "every four years there is a flurry of excitement," and the "pie counter doesn't open up right after election."

"Harding," he said, "let the democrats remain in office in Texas until their terms of office expired."

BILL GIVING COMMISSION POWER ON MOTOR TRUCKS UP IN SENATE TODAY

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 1.—The Woodward bill giving the railroad commission regulatory powers over motor trucks was the special order in the senate today.

Perhaps the main point at issue, whether the bill would force truck lines to obtain a certificate of convenience and necessity, was expected to be considered first.

The senate again engrossed the Holbrook or administration prison concentration measure last night. This time it was substituted for the house bill, opposite on the principal controversial points, in order to save time.

Supporters of the governor's measure in the majority in the senate on practically every vote, since the prison bills first were considered, succeeded in engrosing the Holbrook bill by a vote of 16 to 9.

After some argument on the house junior college bill the senate last night adopted all amendments without debate and then passed the measure.

The bill would permit the creation of junior colleges in independent school districts having a minimum valuation of $12,000,000. The house had set the minimum valuation at $25,000,000. Another senate amendment provided that the legislature should never appropriate money for the colleges.

The bill introduced by Senator Julian P. Greer of Athens legalizing voting machines met vociferous opposition but it was finally passed with more than ten votes to spare.
