Cancer Crusade In Progress

The Rt. Rev. Eugene Erdelt, President and Crusade Chairman of the Aransas County Unit of the American Cancer Society, urges all citizens of Aransas County to participate in this important Crusade to speed the victory over cancer.

The 1969 goal for Aransas County is only $2,000. For the state of Texas, it is $2,100,000, which roughly represents a dollar for every Texan living and who will have cancer unless current trends are reversed.

Mrs. Thomas McArdle, III, House to House Chairman, hopes that everyone will fill out the confidential health survey card which will be given to each person contacted during the house to house drive, which begins April 14.

This information will be compared to last year's results to determine what new educational measures are necessary to help people better understand the nature of cancer and the value of early diagnosis and treatment. Please give a few minutes of time on the 14th to the volunteer worker who calls.

Quoted below is a timely article which recently appeared in a publication for responsible volunteers in the American Cancer Society:

Inflation Hits Cancer Control

The Crusade slogan, "To Cure More, Give More," has never been more appropriate than now. Local cancer control programs are community investments. Few people realize, however, how much the Society's program demands have increased during the past five years. Nearly every Texas community has an active program, thus creating an even heavier demand for educational and service materials.

Nationwide, the Society has over $20 million invested in cancer research, but last year alone, $4 million in approved research grants had to be turned down because of lack of funds.

ACS programs are faced with rising costs. Research laboratory assistants cost

Chamber Happenings

Editor's Note: This is the introduction of a column decribing happenings at the Chamber of Commerce which, individually, do not constitute news articles but which we hope will be of interest.

Recent new members of the Chamber of Commerce are Shoreline Drive-In Grocery, Joe's Enco Station, Harper Real Estate, Dan's Texaco Station and the Rev. Lester G. Hill, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

For the past few years the Chamber building has been cooled in the summer by an old air conditioning unit which the Sandollar Motel contributed when the management replaced a number of old units with new ones.

Finally the old one conked out, having reached the point where additional repair work would have been throwing money out the window.

So now the Chamber has ordered a new unit which will keep the temperature comfortable for visitors and the staff.

City Calls Election For $125,000 Bonds

The City Council has called an election for Apr. 18 to authorize the issuance of $125,000 in sanitary sewer revenue bonds.

Recently the city received the offer of a federal grant of $125,000 from the Housing and Urban Development Agency. To take advantage of part of this grant authorized for sanitary sewers, the city needs the approval of the citizens for issuance of the $12,000 bonds.

Originally, the city had planned to use the existing authorized but unsold water bonds for this purpose. However, Mayor Delmar R. Hiller explained that the scope of the project has changed as a result of the water line extensions to be provided by the Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District.

The project now contemplated, Hiller said, involved all sanitary sewer work, allowing for extension of service in the northwest area of the city, the replacement of old lines, and providing needed increased capacity in main lines running into the sewage treatment plant.

The City Council is preparing a more detailed explanation to be mailed to qualified voters. It is estimated there are 450 qualified voters who meet the requirements to vote in this election: 1) they have been registered to vote, 2) they own property within the city limits, and 3) they have been residents for six months or longer.

Voting will take place in the city hall from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Friday, Apr. 18. The last day for absentee voting will be Apr. 14.

R. L. Phinney, district director of Internal Revenue in Austin urges taxpayers preavoid the last minute rush—to make every effort to prepare and file their own returns now! "Many taxpayers prepare and file their own returns by following the instructions, but a qualified tax specialist is a sound investment for highly complex tax problems," Phinney said.

Phinney reminded taxpayers to mail their tax returns in the special envelope, or address them to: Internal Revenue Service Center, 3651 Interregional Highway, Austin, Texas 78740.

LESS THAN A WEEK REMAINS FOR AUTO INSPECTION

Austin—Colonel William E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today reminded motorists that less than a week remains until the state motor vehicle inspection deadline.

State law requires that cars, trucks, and certain trailers be inspected at an approved inspection station, and that a current inspection sticker be displayed in the lower right-hand corner of the windshield by midnight, April 15. The fee for the inspection is $1.75, plus charges made by the inspection station for mechanical adjustments, if any.

The required inspection procedure requires that mechanics check a vehicle's brakes, lights, rims and wheels, horns and warning devices, windshield wipers, mirrors, steering, and front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment.

Speir urged motorists to get the inspection soon to avoid long lines which will develop at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches.

There are 5,466 licensed inspection stations, located throughout the state.

THERE GOES THE PARKING SPACE

By the end of this year, out on the highways and streets of the nation there will be almost 100 million automobiles, says the Federal Highway Administration.

This will be an increase of about three million over 1968. Actually, the number of cars, trucks and buses to be registered will be 99,958,000.

These figures spotlight the tremendous role the automobile plays in the economy of the North American continent today. If suddenly all automobiles were stalled, or fuel for them became unobtainable, the country would be in an awful shape. Business and social life would come to a grinding halt.

But for right now we won't worry about that happening. The frightening aspect of these figures just released is one of finding an empty parking space nearest the entrance to the supermarket this weekend.

FLOWER POWER STICKERS OUTSIDE, PLEASE

We can just see the squawks abouts rights and accusations of discrimination coming in the orders issued at the military post at Ft. Carson, Colo.

The military police there have been ordered to ban from the premises those automobiles bearing flower power stickers and psychedelic paint jobs.

But cars having racing stripes are allowed.

Military orders are usually pretty strict with no ifs, ands and buts. A military reservation is ruled by edicts, not by political gestures and when a commanding officer says no cars with those flowers and spots, painted all over them will be allowed chances are they will not get past the guards at the gate.

One doesn't see any of the long-haired characters in uniforms around military bases. They're against regulations. Those spotted cars are now against regulations.

Some parents could take a lesson from the hard-fisted decisions of commanding officers.

H. HILDENBRAND DIES

Word has been received of the death in San Antonio on Feb. 26 of Herman Hildenbrand, 91, formerly of Rockport. He was born in Switzerland.

Hildenbrand and his wife moved here in 1937 after building Sea Gull Cottages on South Austin Street. They operated the cottages until 1954 when they moved to San Antonio. During World War II he was Aransas County Ration Board chairman.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Esther H. Eliker, and two grandsons, Hadley and Herschel Eliker.

MRS. O. J. BOCQUET DIES

Beeville — Funeral services were held last Thursday in Galloway & Sons Funeral Chapel for Mrs. O. J. Bocquet, 79, who died Mar. 31 after a short illness.

Burial was in Glenwood Cemetery. A native of San Antonio, Mrs. Bocquet had been a Beeville resident 52 years.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church, Order of Eastern Star and Woodmen of the World.

Survivors include three sons, Malcolm Bocquet of Rockport, Phillip E. Bocquet of Fayetteville, Ark., and Robert Bocquet of Beeville;

A daughter, Mrs. Blanche Beechie of Mexico City; a sister, Miss Ida Henderson of San Antonio; two brothers, Robert Henderson of Tampico, Mexico, and August Henderson of San Antonio;

Seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

Front to rear: Kingswood Estate Wagon, Concours Station Wagon, Sportvan and Suburban.

No other wagons have such a capacity for enjoyment.

Show you what we mean.

Say you're in a Chevrolet Kingswood or Concours Walk-In Wagon, when suddenly the road becomes nothing but chuckholes and ruts.

Only you can't tell it's rough.

You see, Chevy wagons float along on computer-selected coil springs that smooth even the meanest road.

Maybe you're a bit more serious about the great outdoors. So are we. That's why we offer the Chevy Sportvan and Suburban. To an outdoorsman, they're like clear skies and no mosquitoes.

So before you head out to see the U.S.A., better stop by your Chevrolet dealer's.

SECURITY
REAL ESTATE
Incorporated

John A. Lewis, President — Lois Townsend Gurley, Office Manager

Usually, Security does not encourage open listings for the reason that when everyone is selling your property, nobody is selling your property. However, there are exceptions to all rules and the Rasch home in Little Bay Shores was an outstanding example of one of these exceptions. Security had an open listing on the property and so did three other real estate firms in Rockport and all four placed their signs on the property. To make a long story short, the property was sold by Security.

The Canoe Lake Project is the greatest single project going on in the Rockport Area at this time. Living in Harbor Oaks (Canoe Lake) will be like 'having one foot in heaven'. Security does not have these properties for sale but we have for sale properties adjoining in Sylvan Heights where there have been no increase in prices. These are good buys for investment.

Security is a corporation, little affected by change in personnel. It is housed in a single purpose building built as a real estate office. At this time we have a full staff with the exception of one salesman. Security will be here long after some of the others have gone on down the road.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CREDIT ALLOWED FOR EXCESS S.S. TAXES

A credit for excess Social Security taxes against 1968 Federal income tax may be taken if you held more than one job last year and wages subject to Social Security taxes were more than $7,800, according to Asa L. Crow, Administrative Officer of IRS, Corpus Christi. This credit may be claimed on line 18, Form 1040, he said, and W-2 statements showing the amount withheld for Social Security taxes must be attached to the return.

Excess Social Security withholding occurs when an employee works for more than one employer because Federal law requires each employer to withhold these taxes on the first $7,800 in wages paid to an employee. If a joint return is filed, separate computations must be made for the husband and wife to determine the excess credit if both had wages subject to Social Security tax withholding.

Misunderstanding of the amount of wages subject to Social Security withholding has caused some taxpayers to claim credit for what they consider to be excess Social Security withholding. This situation arises when a taxpayer has received more than $7,800 in wages from one of his employers and erroneously uses this amount rather than $7,800 to determine his Social Security tax credit. If a taxpayer worked for only one employer during 1968 and more than $343.20 of Social Security tax was withheld, the excess may not be claimed as a credit against his income tax. In this case, the employer must adjust the overcollection with the employee.

Mistakes in erroneously claiming Social Security tax credit can lead to an underpayment of income tax or a delay if any refund is due.

IDENTIFY TAX PAYMENTS

Each year the Internal Revenue Service receives many tax payments from taxpayers that cannot be credited to the proper account.

Unidentified payments delay action on the tax account because these payments are placed in a special account until they can be properly identified, Asa L. Crow, administrative officer of Internal Revenue, Corpus Christi, said.

Checks or money orders for payment of taxes should be attached to the bill or notice received. If a bill or notice was not received, a note should be enclosed stating what tax the payment is for, the year of the tax, and the type of tax owed. The taxpayer's name, address, zip code and correct social security number should be included.

Money order stubs or cancelled checks should be retained in case you are requested to verify any tax payments.

Tax returns should be mailed in the special envelope provided, or addressed to: Internal Revenue Service Center, 3651 Interregional Highway, Austin, Texas 78740.

MAY DRAFT CALLS FOR 1,453 TEXANS

The May draft call for Texas is 1,453, down from 1,737 for April, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Thursday.

This is the state's share of a national quota of 27,600 men, 25,600 for the Army and 2,000 for the Marine Corps.

A total of 8,234 men is scheduled to be forwarded for armed forces pre-induction physical and mental examination in May to prepare for future calls, Colonel Schwartz said.

A total of 10,210 is scheduled for this purpose in April. In early March, a quota of 7,293 was announced for this purpose, but this was increased in mid-March.

The state received a reduction in its current call for doctors of medicine from 18 during the period July 1969-January 1970 to 9, brought about by revised personnel needs from the Department of Defense.

The call for two optometrists in January 1970 was reduced to one, and the quota for one doctor of osteopathy in the last half of 1969 was not changed in Texas, despite a reduction in the national quota.

The order of selection to fill draft calls through May may be from among examined and acceptable men who are (1) delinquents 19 years old and older, (2) volunteers under age 26 in the sequence in which they have volunteered, oldest first, with those married after Aug. 26, 1965, being selected a head of those married on or before that date.

Ulysses S. Grant lived at Galena, Ill, for several years prior to the Civil War.

Headless Shrimp Landings Down

Landings of headless shrimp at Texas ports amounted to 1.8 million pounds in February.

This was some 200,000 pounds below landings in February 1968. The Brownsville-Port Isabel area landed 58 per cent of the state's total volume. Pink shrimp from Campeche accounted for 609,000 pounds of the current catch compared with 605,000 pounds in February 1968. The following represents landings of headless shrimp for specified areas and periods:

Port Arthur-Sabine Area: Feb. 1969, 24,800 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 56,600; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 62,900.

Galveston - Seabrook Area: Feb. 1969, 46,200 pounds; Jan-Feb. 1969, 106,300; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 83,300.

Freeport Area: Feb. 1969, 210,900 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 411,600; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 355,400.

Port Lavaca-Port O'Connor-Seadrift Area: Feb. 1969, 39,800 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 84,800; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 115,600.

Aransas Pass - Rockport Area: Feb. 1969, 414,200 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 909,200; Jan. Feb. 1968, 685,700.

Brownsville - Port Isabel Area: Feb. 1969, 1,063,600 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 2,124,700; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 2,121,600.

Totals: Feb. 1969, 1,828,000 pounds; Jan.-Feb. 1969, 3,746,300; Jan.-Feb. 1968, 3,458,500.

Weather conditions dominated the Texas fishery throughout February. On Feb. 13, hurricane force winds hit the coast Brownsville to Sabine Pass. Twelve vessels were lost at sea and 20 were sunk or beached in port. In addition, many small bay craft were destroyed or damaged. Nine fishermen were drowned at sea—the greatest number of fishermen lost in any storm in the Gulf in recent years. Dockside facilities in and around the upper Galveston Bay area were damaged by high winds and tidal conditions. The counties affected were declared a disaster area thus some Governmental aid to fishery interests is anticipated. Weather conditions were unusually rough and temperatures below normal the last half of the month along the entire coast, however, rainfall accumulations were near normal for most coastal counties.

Vessels made short, broken trips along the entire coast with catches of 100-200 pounds per 12 hours for both brown and white shrimp. White shrimp catches were very spotted and scattered in waters out to 15 fathoms. Pink shrimp catches averaged about 200 pounds per night's effort with vessels from all major Texas ports working these distant waters.

Oyster landings amounted to 17,000 barrels in February compared with 29,000 in February 1968. The current drop resulted from the closing of Galveston Bay on Feb. 14. All commercial reefs were closed by health authorities after the turbulent weather produced possible contamination from receding flood waters from low-lying areas on upper Galveston Bay. Reefs remained closed for the rest of the month.

Blue crab landings totaled 300,000 pounds in February compared with 60,000 pounds in February 1968. The demand for crab meat is very good and ecological conditions were conducive for the blue crab fishery in coastal bend bays.

Five vessels made maiden voyages during the month—all were large steel hull units in the 70 to 80-foot class.

The Artic Ocean covers 4 million square miles.

Research Probing Marihuana Puzzle

In this day of increasing interest in drugs and drug abuse, one of the most common—marihuana — remains a mystery.

Medical science does not know nearly enough about marihuana.

We don't know how marihuana changes ability to think, concentrate, and perceive things. We don't know how personality factors, expectations, and past experiences influence a person's reactions to the drug.

Natural marihuana varies tremendously in strength and composition. Uniformity in scientific studies, so that results can be compared and checked, has been almost impossible.

Not long ago the active ingredient of marihuana, tetrahydrocannabinol, was produced for the first time in history in pure form.

This exciting discovery, made by NIMH-supported research in Israel, produced the chemical compound synthetically. This means that researchers can now precisely measure the drug's action.

For the first time in history, they can accurately study the short-term and long term effects of marihuana on the human body.

Research projects are being conducted in universities and other research centers all over the country with NIMH support.

The NIMH is also developing a public education program to disseminate research findings to provide current, factual information about marihuana—and other drugs and their misuse and abuse.

CHAMBER MANAGERS NAMED TO ASS'N.

Managers of the San Antonio, Port Lavaca and Karnes City chambers of commerce have been elected to the top leadership positions of the Chamber of Commerce Managers and Secretaries Association of South Texas, an organization that works to promote close cooperation among the local chamber of commerce managers in the region and to develop the professional standards of its members.

Melvin Sisk, executive vice president of the San Antonio Chamber, was elected president last weekend at the organization's annual two-day Short Course for chamber managers and secretaries, held this year in Edinburg. The workshop is co-sponsored by the CCMSAST's counterpart in the Rio Grande Valley, the Valley Chamber of Commerce Managers Association.

In elections for the group's other two top posts, Bob Janca, manager of the Port Lavaca Chamber, became vice president and Maxie Lou McNally, manager and secretary of the Karnes City Chamber became secretary-treasurer.

Managers elected as directors for the organization's six regions include: Edward H. Phelps of Laredo, Region 1; B. A. Myers of Kenedy, Region 2; G. P. Kiel of Seguin, Region 3; Raymond Beck of Wharton, Region 4; Arthur Cain of Yoakum, Region 5; and John Kinsey of Rockport, Region 6.

Roger B. Westrup, executive vice president of the Greater Bellaire Chamber, was named Manager of the Year, an honor given each year to the manager that in the opinion of the group has contributed most to his community and his profession.

The CCMSAST, in addition to the annual Short Course, works in other projects dealing with the development of better chamber of commerce management. In January, the organization co-sponsored a leadership conference for voluntary leaders with the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, and in the past two organizations worked successfully together to help form a series of smaller area chamber manager councils that meet periodically for workshop sessions.

WAIT 10 WEEKS BEFORE WRITING IRS ABOUT DELAYED TAX REFUND

Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax return calling for a refund is mailed, the taxpayer either has his check or a letter explaining why it is held up, R. L. Phinney, district director of Internal Revenue in Austin, said today.

For this reason, a taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should wait 10 weeks before writing IRS. By waiting this length of time, most taxpayers will find their inquiry unnecessary, Phinney said.

Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the IRS Service Center which serves the eight-state Southwestern Region. The volume of processing operations there makes it practically impossible for IRS to locate a particular return and to answer any questions about it until processing is complete.

If it becomes necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his name, address and Social Security number, Phinney stated.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—My refund came and it was lower than I expected. How can I find out why it was reduced?

A—In cases such as these, mistakes in arithmetic account for most of the adjustments. You should receive an explanation from us shortly after your refund check arrives explaining the adjustment.

This year, many mistakes in arithmetic are being made on the surcharge. Taxpayers are either reading the surcharge tables incorrectly, making mistakes by not adding it to their tax, or making a mistake when they multiply by .075 to determine the amount of the surcharge.

Q—When do I have to file my estimated tax declaration?

A—Estimated declarations and first quarter payments are due April 15. Use the pre-addressed 1040-ES voucher form you received in the mail when you file. It will assure proper crediting of payments to your account.

Q—How does the $100 limitation apply to casualty losses? We suffered damage from two different storms last year.

A—The $100 limitation applies to each separate non-business casualty. Deduct the excess over $100 not reimbursed by insurance for each separate loss. See page 9 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q—Is a company pension taxable?

A—Your tax liability depends on how much you contributed to the pension fund. This is explained in the instructions for Schedule B of Form 1040. Copies of this schedule and the instructions are available at many banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

Q—Can I add the medical insurance premiums I pay for my dependent mother to my own for the purpose of tax deductions?

A—Premiums paid for medical care insurance for yourself, your spouse and your dependents are deductible. Total all of these premiums you paid last year and deduct one-half of them up to $150 without regard to the three percent rule. The balance of the premiums should be included with you other medical expenses which are subject to the three percent limitation.

You must itemize your deductions to use this rule.

Q—When does a person have to pay self-employment tax?

A—To be liable for self-employment tax, a person must have income from a business or a trade or profession which he conducts as an independent contractor or as a member of a partnership. To be subject to the tax, net earnings from self - employment must be at least $400. For additional information see Schedule C-3.

Q—It's been more than six weeks since I sent in my return. Shouldn't I have my refund by now?

A—Yes, most refunds filed early can be processed in five to six weeks. However, if there is a mistake on the return, the refund will be delayed until it is corrected.

Practically all tax payers have either received their refund or a letter about it within 10 weeks from the time they filed their return. Therefore, taxpayers should wait at least 10 weeks before inquiring about their refund.

Q—When I took my present job I was reimbursed for my moving expenses. Is that considered income?

A—Whether the reimbursement is taxable depends on the nature of the moving expenses you were reimbursed for. Certain distance and length of employment tests also have to be met. Page 6 of the 1040 instructions explains this in greater detail.

Q—Do you have to be 65 to claim the retirement income credit? I retired at 62 and the credit would help me.

A—If you received a pension or annuity under a public retirement system (one established by the Federal Government, a state, county, city, etc.), you may be entitled to a retirement income credit even though you are not 65. This credit, which is computed on Schedule B (Form 1040), is discussed on page B-3 of the instructions.

Copies of the form and instructions may be obtained from your local IRS office or, in many cases, your post office or bank.

Q—My income doubled last year because of profits I made on the stock market. Can I use income averaging to cut my taxes?

A—No, income from capital gains cannot be included for averaging purposes. However, if you owned the stock for more than six months, only one-half of your net profit has to be included in income.

Q—Do I have to send in the statement on bank interest I received?

A—This statement on interest earned does not have to be attached to tax returns. Report this income on your return as it is taxable.

Q—I lost the envelope that came with my tax forms. Where should I send my return?

A—Your return should be addressed to: Internal Revenue Service Center, 3651 Interrigional Highway, Austin, Texas 78740.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Snyder of Akron, Ohio, registered at the C of C recently, saying they were on the way to the Valley and planned to stay here only two days. At the end of the two days, they liked the Rockport area so well they decided to stay two weeks.

A cup of coffee is always available at the Chamber to help make a visitor feel at home when he comes in for information or a visit. Now, the Chamber plans to add an extra bit of hospitality: cookies, doughnuts or sweet rolls to go with the coffee, thanks to the help of the members.

The Chamber wrote for and received a supply of booklets on Texas wildflowers published by the state. The copies were in such demand that the Chamber has re-ordered some more booklets.

HARBOR OAKS—

major channels into the wooded area to the west and to provide four residential waterways. The major channels are called Turkey Neck and Long Reach. Residential waterways have been named Balboa, Bali and Capri and Claude's Cove. dredged material has been used to increase the elevation of residential sites.

A deep-water boat channel will connect Canoe Lake with the Little Bay channel to the east, providing convenient access to Aransas Bay and the Gulf of Mexico.

All waterways have been dredged to a minimum depth of eight feet and residential site locations are from 7½ feet to 18 feet above water level. All waterfronts will be bulkheaded with tongue and groove reinforced concrete panels topped with a concrete cap. Bulkheading will be tied back into the land with steel rods. Asphalt surfaced streets will be installed, along with concrete curbs and gutters.

Because Harbor Oaks will be within the city limits of Rockport, it will have municipal police and fire protection, as well as city water service, waste collection and sanitary sewers. Natural gas will be available and all telephone and electric service lines will be underground.

Unit One of Harbor Oaks includes, in addition to 63 individual building sites, an 11-acre condominium area on the south shore of Canoe Lake and overlooking Little Bay. Although all waterfront lots will have boat docking facilities, a community launching ramp also will be provided.

Residential lots average 80 by 90 feet with several lots having as much as 150 feet of frontage on the water. Some include woods growing down to the water's edge. A high, rolling wooded area to the west provides an attractive backdrop for property in Unit One.

According to James E. McCord, executive vice president of the corporation, who is in active charge of the development, Unit One of Harbor Oaks lends itself particularly well to tropical and semi-tropical landscaping with emphasis on palm trees, thus complimenting the native growth of live oak, sweet bay, yaupon and various kinds of shrubs found in the wooded area of the property.

Within a month, contracts will be let for construction of a highway bridge on the Rockport-Fulton road. The bridge will be of sufficient elevation to provide a minimum of 20 feet of clearance for boats using the deep-water channel connecting Canoe Lake and Little Bay, according to Mr. McCord.

Miss Rennie Owens, student at A&I, spent the Easter weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Owens.

HOUSE SPEAKER AND MEMBER DONATE ORGANS TO LIVING BANK

Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives Gus F. Mutscher signs forms donating organs of his body for transplantation or medical use through The Living Bank of Houston. Looking on are (left to right) Representative Jack Ogg of Houston, who also signed forms; Mrs. Floyd L. Karsten, president of The Living Bank and Dr. Robert D. Bloodwell, a member of Dr. Denton Cooley's transplant team and the first surgeon to sign up with The Living Bank. Speaker Mutscher and Representative Ogg co-sponsored a House Resolution commending The Living Bank for pioneering in the field of providing help to persons wishing to donate parts of their bodies. The Living Bank can be contacted at P. O. Box 6725, Houston, Texas, 77005. Representative Ogg is also a co-sponsor of House Bill 244 governing the gift of all or parts of the body after death. It is known as The Texas Anatomical Gift Act and hearings were completed recently concerning it.

CANCER CRUSADE—

more, service items for cancer patients and paper for educational pamphlets cost more. The 1969 dollar just does not buy as much as it did five years ago.

Five years ago, the average person contributed $1.00 in the Residential Crusade. Then—as now—a portion of this gift went toward the purchase of cancer films. At that time, 20 prints of a film would cover the state. Now, to adequately serve our needs, a minimum of 50 to 100 prints or more are required. But, our average donor has not increased his contribution.

The victory over cancer begins at home. It begins when a donor writes a larger check than he has in the past. Much of this gift will be invested in research where the final answer will be found. The remainder will go to work now to meet the needs of the Society's growing educational and service programs.

Our goal is in sight. We are beginning to win! As more people know the facts and are motivated to act positively, more lives will be saved. But an urgent question remains—will inflation delay the final conquest?

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—If a tax expert prepares your tax return isn't he responsible for mistakes?

A—No. You are legally responsible for the accuracy of your return. For this reason, check it over before sending it in to make certain there are no errors.

To help avoid delays in processing your return, have your tax expert fill out the preaddressed tax form you received in the mail. This form contains your name, address and Social Security number just as they appear in IRS files. If any of this information is wrong, correct it and send it back with your return.

Q—My wife died last year. I have not remarried, can I still file a joint return?

A—You can file a joint return for the year of death. You may also file as a "surviving spouse" using joint return rates for the two years succeeding the year of your wife's death if you meet certain requirements. Check page 3 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q—Do you need to keep tax records as long as they are needed to substantiate information shown on Federal tax returns. Generally, this is a minimum of three years from the date the return was due to be filed.

Some records, like those on the purchase of a home or stock, may have to be kept indefinitely.

Q—I was divorced last month and my ex-husband wants me to file a joint return with him so he can save on his taxes. Is that alright?

A—If you were married on the last day of 1968, then you can legally file a joint return with your husband for that year.

Whether filing a joint return will be to you advantage is something you should consider. Keep in mind that if you file a joint with your husband you will be legally responsible as he is for any tax that may be due on the return.

Q—Are gifts ever taxed?

A—The recipient has no Federal income tax to pay but the giver may be taxed if the gift is sizable. The law generally requires a gift tax return to be filed by the donor when a gift or gifts to any one person during the year exceeds $3,000.

However, income earned on gifts is taxable to the reciepient.

Q— I was married last month. Since my name has changed do I have to change my Social Security number?

A—When your name change,s, notify your local office of the Social Security Administration as soon as possible. Your number will not be changed, but your record will be corrected to reflect your married name.

Q—Who can file the short form, 1040A?

A—This form can be used in the following circumstances:

1. Income is under $10,000; and 2. Income consists entirely wages subject to withholding and not more than $200 from dividends, interest, and other wages.

The Form 1040A cannot be used by taxpayers who either itemize their deductions or who claim specail tax credits or deductions such as the retirement income credit, sick pay exclusion, or moving expense deduction.

Further details on filing requirements are given in the instructions that accompany both the 1040 and 1040A tax forms.

This and That

JOHN KINSEY

Barney Davis, recently elected president of CPL, and Supt. of Schools J. D. Gray were college buddies in the middle 1930's. They ran around together for a number of years while in attendance at Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Huntsville, Texas. Also in the crowd was Barney's brother, Sid.

BARNEY M. DAVIS

After they graduated from college, they became separated and lost track of each other for approximately 25 years. They crossed paths again in 1959 at a Methodist Laymens' Retreat at Camp Wesley in Kerrville. At that time Mr. Davis was located in Uvalde. Since coming to Corpus Christi, Gray and Davis have kept in close contact. Each threatens to divulge to the other's wife some of their experiences while in college.

For the past few days Mrs. Kinsey and I had the opportunity to make a fuss over our daughter's baby. Mike Herbort, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Herbort of San Antonio, is quite a guy even though he's only 3½ months old.

Mrs. K and I, and our daughter, Pam, and Mike went to church Easter Sunday. Mike was quiet during the singing and even seemed to try to sing along with everybody.

But when the Rev. Cecil H. Lang, Jr., started his sermon, Mike started making the kind of noises he usually makes when he is hungry. So Pam gave his bottle and he gulped away. Then he started crying, so Mrs. K headed for the door with the baby and just before they reached the door, Mike let aut a loud burp which everyone in the back of the church heard. Once outdoors. Mike promptly fell asleep in my wife's arms.

When Col. and Mrs. W. Pundt arrived here last week for a day at the Balboa Courts, they were impressed by the array of flags in the center medians on Austin and Broadway, placed there by the VFW in respect for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower whose death was mourned throughout the world. Colonel Pundt said that on the drive from New Braunfels to Rockport the only flags he saw were on Federal buildings. Col. Pundt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pundt of Moulton, also have visited here frequently, staying at the Balboa Courts.

Even though Charlie Garrett and Norvell Jackson were unopposed for aldermen, it was disappointing that only 57 voters exercised their right to vote in the election. Voters in Ward 1 gave Garrett 25 votes, voters in Ward 2 gave Jackson 31 votes. One ballot was mismarked and therefore didn't count.
