Haskell County History

20 Years Ago—Nov. 29, 1924

In appreciation of the excellent record made by the Haskell Indians during the current football season, Haskell Lions Club will honor the team with a banquet on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11. It will be held in the Tonkawa Coffee Shop.

Mrs. Virgil Reynolds and little son, Robert Bruce, were returned to their home here Wednesday from the Knox City hospital. Fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove resulted in destruction of a residence occupied by the family of A. Dunn, Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. Located one and one-half miles from town, local firemen were able to be of little assistance in fighting the blaze.

Tommy Davis, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis, was slightly injured late Monday when he was struck by a car while crossing the street near his home on an errand for his mother. Driver of the car stopped and carried Tommy to the home of a neighbor and summoned a physician, who said the lad suffered only bruises and scratches.

The census bureau reports that 10,033 bales of cotton from the 1934 crop had been ginned in Haskell County prior to Nov. 15.

Chester Carrigan of Boulder, Nevada, arrived this week for a visit with his father, Will Carrigan, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brannan and family have returned from Kilgore, where they spent several days in the home of his sister, who has been ill.

Congressman-elect George Mahon will be a visitor in Haskell Monday, according to word received by The Free Press. Mr. Mahon was recently elected Congressman of the 19th District by one of the largest popular votes ever recorded a new man for office.

Mrs. Willie Chapman and children of Arp, Texas, are here visiting relatives and friends.

The Haskell Indians and Seymour Panthers will play a post-season game here Friday night, Dec. 7.

30 Years Ago—Nov. 28, 1924

F. T. Baldwin of Houston was here this week visiting relatives and friends. He will return by way of Wichita Falls, where he will look after business interests in that section.

J. M. Maxwell and W. M. Harrison, Haskell building contractors, left this week for Spur. They have the contract for a large brick theatre building in that city. They estimate the job will require four months or longer to complete.

The Sheriff's department captured a complete whiskey still last week near Rochester. It had been installed in an automobile and could be transported from place to place, even while in operation. Two men were arrested in connection with the seizure and will be held for the Grand Jury.

Miss Blanche Baldwin and Walter Keith of Stamford were visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Fields.

Miss Lois Norton was home during the week end to visit her parents, Miss Pauline McDonald, also a student at Simmons, accompanied her to Haskell.

Sam A. Roberts and Chas. M. Conner left Monday morning for a short business trip to New Mexico and the South Plains.

State Representative E. L. Covey of Goree was a visitor in Haskell Wednesday. He was on his way home after a business trip to points on the Plains.

T. L. Atchison of Roberts was in the city Saturday and reports he has just returned from a visit on the Plains. He says that is a pretty country but "too cold during the winter." About half the cotton crop on the Plains has been gathered, Mrs. Atchison said.

A broken electric power line which fell across a wire fence, caused the death of a Mexican farm worker near Benjamin Saturday morning. According to reports, the man started to cross the fence, not knowing it was charged, and was killed instantly.

50 Years Ago—Dec. 3, 1904

Reports from the San Angelo country are to the effect that the pecan crop will be extremely short this year. To date only five cars have been shipped, compared with 45 at this time last year.

G. Griffith of Wise County, who formerly lived here, is back looking after some interests he retains in this section.

Miss May Fields left a few days ago for Fort Worth, where she will remain several days before going on to Sherman.

S. A. Little of Sipe Springs, who recently purchased J. E. Hubbard's farm three miles north of town, was here this week. He says he does not plan to move his family here until next spring.

John Therwanger made a business trip to Austin this week and secured a lease on 1,500 acres of good land north of town.

P. G. Yoe now holds a position of nightwatchman, succeeding R. E. DeBard, who resigned.

H. T. Buie has purchased G. J. Miller's place five miles southeast of town.

Caleb Terrell is sporting a new rubber-tired buggy.

E. A. Pendergrass of Martin, Tenn., is in Haskell to recuperate his health in our wonderful climate. He is stopping with his oldtime friends, John L. Robertson and A. H. Day.

W. T. Simpson of the Marcy neighborhood says most of the cotton in his neighborhood has been picked, though some farmers still have a few bales in their fields.

Dr. S. L. Post made a business trip to Sherman last week, returning the first part of this week.

E. H. Lindsey, who left here last summer, has returned to Haskell after travelling extensively through central and eastern Texas. He says Haskell County is good enough for him and he intends to stay put this time.

Today, as we gather around the festive board, eager to partake of the fine bird and all the trimmings, we pause in a word of prayer of Thanksgiving.

On this purely American Holiday there are many things, we, a free people in a free land have to be thankful for—freedom of worship, freedom of speech, free enterprise, which means we have the privilege of being served and serving anyone we choose. Through the past years it has been our privilege to serve many of you and we want you to know we are thankful for that privilege. Your fine spirit of fellowship, loyalty and patronage means for us a happier Thanksgiving.

AS GENERAL ELECTRIC SEES IT...

Every year Americans live better because electricity costs so little

These 30 everyday General Electric appliances lined up on the front lawn dramatize the impact of low-cost electricity on American life. Per capita use of electricity, in U.S. is 2 times Britain's, 5 times Russia's, 167 times India's.

An average U. S. family uses enough power each day to equal the energy output of 35 hard-working men

Nowhere on earth has electricity been put to work more widely than in the United States, and its price been kept so low.

We've come a long way since Thomas Edison invented the first home use of electricity — an electric light — just 75 years ago. There are three reasons for this progress.

First, America's electric utilities have invested in facilities ($18 billion in the last ten years!). And the electrical industry has steadily increased the efficiency of power equipment. Turbine-generators made by General Electric, for example, produce 10 times more electricity per pound of coal than Edison's original generators.

Second, appliances have been constantly improved and are mass-produced to bring their price within reach of everyone. The first 60-watt lamps cost about $1.00 and gave a light equal to 7 candles; a G-E 60-watt lamp today gives a light equal to 67 candles, and costs only 19 cents.

The third reason for progress is our free economy, which has allowed industry to grow, create jobs and produce effectively for everyone's benefit. As we see it, it adds up to a good example of progress in the American way.

Meanwhile, we're hard at work to make the future even better.

HD Club Leaders Continue Work of Instruction

Haskell County tailoring leaders spent this past week teaching 21 other home demonstration club women how to put the collars, facings and sleeves into their coats and suits. These women have found that there is more to it than just doing it. They are not difficult, but do take time and the application of special tailoring technique. To do these things you must stitch accurately, press and grade seams in such a way that you never see the seam from the top. For the sleeves it is important to ease the fullness from notch to notch across the top of the sleeve, not all on the very top. This meeting got everyone to the fitting stage. Everyone will agree that this was a very simple step since most of the fitting was done in muslin garments and patterns were altered before the garments were cut from the wool material.

Leaders to receive this first fitting are Mmes. Rex Murray, Flournoy, Bill Fouts, T. E. Beason, Will Stogemoller, Carl Bailey, J. L. Toliver, Jr., Gene Rose. All of these leaders are making fitted suits, which require more fitting than the loose fitting coats. The tailoring workshops will end this next week. Each person taking part in the tailoring program will model in the tailoring revue, Thursday, Dec. 2 in the First Baptist Church annex at 1:30.

The girls drew circles inside the square, listing things each one liked to do, in the circles. Our previous meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. K. Graham. After a business session, the girls gathered autumn leaves on the lawn, and used them to splatter paint on plastic articles that Mrs. Graham had cut out for them. Revival Meeting

REV. AND MRS. WESTBERG

A revival will begin at the Weinert Foursquare Church, Tuesday November 30, with the Rev. Wayne Westberg as evangelist.

Rev. Westberg is from California and is a very dynamic and forceful speaker who is being wonderfully used of God, according to the Rev. Parrish, pastor of the Weinert church.

With this statement in mind it was decided to evaluate the reading program of the Haskell School. "It was the objective of the administration to find out how much reading was being done, and how we encourage our students to read," Supt. Allen said.

312 Library Books Used There were 312 books checked from the High School Library from Nov. 15 through Nov. 19. This is an average of 1.29 books per student for the entire High School. Book reports followed normal routine during the week, with 205 book reports being given. Only 38 students who are enrolled in High School did not give a report during the week.

Projects Encourage Reading In addition to the outstanding amount of work which had been done, a number of good projects were being carried out which encourage students to read good books. A few of these projects are listed.

Books are keys to wisdom's treasure. Books are gates to lands of pleasure; Books are paths that upward lead; Books are friends, come let us read."

This jingle of unknown authorship is the theme of the sixth grade for every week, not just during American Book Week. Children cannot realize the truth of the above lines without motivation. It is believed that all children can derive a great deal of pleasure and knowledge of lasting benefit from all types of supplementary reading and are eager to read if they know about the books.

That a child can "sell a book" to other children was well demonstrated by sixth graders in the past few days. Each child made a series of drawings which were suggested to him from the materials read. Originality was expressed as to shape, size and color.

"King of the Wild," a horse story, was the shape of the horse greatly enlarged; "Beautiful Joe," the shape of a dog's head; and "Strawberry Girl," the shape and color to represent a huge strawberry. The report on "Horses Across America" was a large cardboard showing the various breeds of horses throughout America.

Each child stood before his class, showed his drawing, and told the part of the story which had suggested the illustration. Often this led to the climax which was given by the student who gave this comment, "If you want to know what happened, read the book." Many children immediately put this title and author on their "Book to Read list."

All booklets and drawings were placed on the bulletin boards, making a very attractive display for American Education Week and American Book Week, and also making it possible for all the three sections to share their "book sales." Children are guided to evaluate what is worth while and to plan his extra reading so as not to detract from other studies.

Book Jacket Many other interesting motivation projects were found in the Elementary School. Making book jackets for the books read was found in at least two rooms in the elementary school. The child correlates his art work with his reading and produces a jacket or cover for the book which describes the contents of the book.

Another project, "Reading Books Bear Fruit" in which a colorful piece of fruit is placed inside the names of pupils when they have finished reading a library book.

Still another project is where a miniature book which contains the title of the book is placed opposite the child's name when he has completed a book.

Although elementary students are not yet able to read as readily as students in the upper grades, there were 223 books read during American Book Week, Supt. Allen reported.

In all, a total of 978 books were read during the week by Haskell school students. This prompted Supt. Allen to comment: "We celebrated American Book Week by reading good books. After this survey I am prone to agree with Dr. Strong that children of today are reading not less, but more than in the past."

American Book Week, Nov. 14-20, Widely Observed in Haskell Schools

The week of November 14-20, American Book Week, and the occasion was widely observed in Haskell schools. The slogan for the week was "Let's Read."

The administration of the Haskell School System realizes the ever-increasing complexity of present-day living requires that education provide a broader, richer background of knowledge, and that reading good books is a medium by which people acquire this knowledge.

Each curricular area of the Haskell Schools requires reading information, he added. Dr. LaVerne Strong, Curriculum Consultant for Connecticut State Department of Education recently said, "Contrary to fallacious statements made in regard to our modern reading program, the children of today are reading not less but far more than in the past."

With this statement in mind it was decided to evaluate the reading program of the Haskell School. "It was the objective of the administration to find out how much reading was being done, and how we encourage our students to read," Supt. Allen said.

Emilee Griffith to Represent Texas At National Meeting in Cincinnati

A Haskell County 4-H Club girl, Emilee Griffith of Paint Creek, will represent the state of Texas at the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 5-10.

While attending this meeting, Emilee will give a vegetable preparation demonstration entitled "Short Cuts and Left Overs." This demonstration includes various uses of the nutritious baked potatoes. Her idea for the demonstration came when she was served a stuffed baked potato with meat while attending National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in 1953.

Emilee was awarded this trip when she gave the first place winning vegetable demonstration at the state 4-H contest in June. This contest was held on the campus of A&M College during 4-H Round-Up. Previous to this Emilee was the Haskell County and District III winner in the same program.

Emilee is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Griffith of the Paint Creek community in Haskell County. She is a junior in Paint Creek High School.

During the eight years Emilee has been a 4-H member, she has completed projects in food preparation, dairy foods, food preservation, vegetables, clothing, garden, marketing and home management. She has also served as a junior leader, club president, vice president, reporter and secretary. She is now the county delegate to the district council.

She has received many awards and honors for outstanding county, district, state and national 4-H club work. She received ribbons and medals for county work. She has attended state 4-H Round-Ups two years as district awards. In 1953 she was the County Gold Star Girl as well as County, District, State and National Dairy Food demonstration winner. She attended National 4-H Club Congress for the National Award and received a 19-jewel wrist watch as the state award. This year, 1954, Emilee's record was the district winning record in the National 4-H Club Camp award and her vegetable demonstration was the county, district and state winner.

Miss Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent, has coached this demonstration and will attend the meeting with Emilee. Expenses for Emilee and her coach are paid by Sears, Roebuck Foundation.

Rat Eradication Program Termed Successful

The rat and mouse eradication demonstrations conducted in Haskell County on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week were very successful, according to B. J. Terrell of Rodent Control Division of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

F. W. Martin, county agent, said that a total of 1400 pounds of poison bait for the control of rats and mice was and will be distributed in the next few days.

Any farmer who has already received poison, but did not get enough should contact the county agent's office immediately if they desire more poison, as the bait will only be distributed during the rat killing campaign.

The bait used in these demonstrations is Pival, which is a bait which causes the blood to coagulate and the animal bleeds to death.

The animal dies after eating the bait five to ten consecutive nights. This is the reason the bait is so safe to use around children, dogs, cats and other animals, Martin said.

Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflow Drive!

So Buick engineers asked themselves—"If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil—the oil inside a Dynaflow Drive?"

And to make a long story short—they could, and they did.

They designed and engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflow Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

That provides one setting for more miles-per-gallon, and another for an instant safety-surge of power when it's needed.

All you have to do is push the accelerator pedal down to the last half-inch beyond the full throttle position and a-way you go!

Of course, there's a lot more to make a visit to our showroom "must" of the new-car year.

There's a step-up in styling as national as the step-up in performance.

And the step-up in horsepower is this: 236 in the ROADMASTER SUPER and CENTURY—188 low-priced SPECIAL.

But the thrill of the year is Buick's latest engine "first"—and it does for man or machine who drives the latest and greatest Dynaflow Drive.

Pay-off on progress!

Buicks today go a lot farther on a gallon of gas, thanks to constant improvement in Dynaflow and in engine design. Even the new 234-hp ROADMASTER averages 4.8 more miles per gallon than Buicks of six years ago.

Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Buicks.

Thank You

It is only appropriate in this month of Thanksgiving that we give special recognition to these two important words "THANK YOU". We try to make these words a part of every transaction at this bank. They sum up our appreciation to you for the opportunity of being of service; our gratitude for the privilege of living and working in this progressive community — all of which of course, is made possible by the blessings that are ours in this country where Thanksgiving originated.

In observance of Thanksgiving this bank will be closed all day Thursday, November 25.

HHS Indians

ated by driving 71 yards after the second Albany touchdown to narrow the count to 12-6. With less than a half minute remaining in the second half, Indian halfback Clarence Callaway intercepted Albert Burton's pass at midfield and returned to the ten, where he fumbled.

Tackle Wayne Conner recovered the ball on the three-yard line for the Tribe, and Jimmy Love blasted through the right side on the next play. Wendell Jones kicked the extra point and the Indians moved ahead 13-13 at the end of the first half.

Albany regained the lead in the third period. A pass put the Lions on the 17, from where David Mitchell scored, with extra point conversion good to put Albany ahead 19-13.

However, it took the fourth quarter safety to cinch the game. Haskell was backed up to its one yard line following an Albany punt and a clipping penalty midway in the final session. Don Mullins tried to run the ball from the spread formation but several Albany linemen nailed him behind the goal line for the all-important two-pointer.

The safety looked mighty important as Haskell rolled to a first down on Albany's five-yard stripe, where the Lions were able to shove off the Indian's threat.

Don Mullins Named "Back of Week" In Schoolboy Football Honor Roll

Don Mullins, described by Wichita Falls sports writer Bud Worsham as "Haskell High's jet-propelled tailback" was recognized as "Back of the Week" by the Wichita Falls Times and Record News in their 10th weekly Schoolboy Honor Roll.

Mullins was honored for his heroics in Haskell's 41-7 win over Munday. The 134-pound tailback in the Tribe's wing-T formation carried the ball seven times and scored on three of those tries.

Mullins' touchdown scampers developed on dashes of 75, 45 and 37 yards. The little speed merchant gained 139 yards while leading Haskell to its eighth straight triumph.

Providing the oldest competition for "Back of the Week" winner Mullins were Hal Sandefur of Paducah, Don King of Holiday, Junior Beall of Seymour and David Laird of Tipton, Okla.

Other Indian stars receiving honorable mention in the Football Honor Roll included Haskell's John Holt, Clarence Callaway, Wendell Dixon, John Pitman and Wendell Jones.

This Week's Honorable Mention

Haskell players receiving honorable mention this week on the Schoolboy Honor Roll of the Wichita Falls newspaper were Wayne Conner, John Holt, Don Dendy, John Pitman and Glenn Kreger.

Three-Point Plan Will Help Speed Xmas Mailings

Postmaster Harold R. Spain today announced a three-point program designed to insure delivery of all Christmas cards and gift packages by December 25.

"I've found," he explained, "it is not enough to slap up posters all over town, 'Shop Early, Mail Early.' That's the main idea of course, but I'd like to be more specific."

Specifically, then, the Postmaster first urged business firms to mail their regular correspondence before 4:00 p. m. throughout the Christmas season. They can help even more, he added, by withholding all circular and catalogue mail until after the critical period, Dec. 15-25.

"This will leave elbow room at the Post Office to process the tremendous volume of holiday mail we'll be handling. I'm quite sure it will exceed any previous year's cancellations," the Postmaster warned.

Point 2, consequently, requires the public's cooperation. Begin by checking your Christmas card list this week. Each address should include the full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

After this, visit the Post Office to order the stamps you'll need. Lay in a supply of heavy wrapping paper and strong cord as well. Then there will still be a week left for leisurely Christmas shopping—one New Year's resolution you can keep!
