Retroactive Pay Hike Asked By Steel Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Steelworkers Union asked the industry today to make strike settlement terms retroactive and to pay before Christmas a cost of living wage increase expected Jan. 1.

An interim agreement to that effect now "would contribute to the collective bargaining climate of the final settlement," President David J. McDonald said in a letter to heads of the various companies.

He made the letter public as union and company negotiators were summoned to another joint afternoon meeting with federal mediators.

There was no immediate comment from industry sources.

McDonald asked that whatever settlement terms are agreed to be made retroactive to Nov. 7, when a Taft-Hartley law injunction sent the men back to work after a 116-day strike.

Contending the men have helped the industry return to quick production, he said "we trust that the industry does not wish to reap the sole benefit of this period of enforced production."

The contract which expired last June 30 provided for cost of living adjustments as of each July 1 and Jan. 1 and McDonald said that under the court order, terms of that contract remain in effect.

The January adjustment would be based on the November living cost figures due about Dec. 21, McDonald said. A wage increase of several cents an hour may be indicated. The industry has not indicated whether it considers that part of the contract still in effect.

The industry meantime turned down a suggestion by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell that outsiders be invited to recommend a solution in the dispute.

The secretary had proposed Monday that the strike issues be put up to a fact-finding board or to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for a suggested solution, or to binding arbitration of points on which there was no agreement.

The union agreed to either method of outsider recommendations, but opposed arbitration.

R. Conrad Cooper, head of the steel negotiators, said third party intervention in past steel disputes always has produced "a highly inflationary result" and the industry is unwilling to have it happen again.

Steel-labor settlements in recent years have been followed by steel price increases.

Cooper said "certainly, it can hardly be denied that the companies have reached the very outer limits of what might conceivably be a non-inflationary offer."

He declined further comment when asked if he meant the industry has reached the very outer limit of labor concessions without boosting steel prices.

Renewal of the strike is threatened when a Taft-Hartley injunction expires Jan. 26.

The industry is clinging to its offer of a three-year contract with benefits it values at 30 cents an hour and the union values at 24 cents. The union wants 22½ cents hourly gains over 20 months. There also is disagreement over work rules.

Steelworkers averaged $3.11 hourly before the strike.

To Withdraw Iceland Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department announced today that all U. S. Army troops will be withdrawn from Iceland.

Some 4,000 U. S. Air Force and Navy men will remain.

The force to be pulled out consists of an Army battalion combat team of about 1,200 men.

The Army troops will be redeployed during the first six months of 1960.

"Army units stationed in the United States will continue to maintain their capability for immediate deployment to Iceland in case of emergency," the headquarters said.

These other troops would be from the Strategic Army Corps—units of the 82nd and 101st Airborne divisions from Ft. Bragg N. C., and Ft. Campbell, Ky., and of the 4th Infantry Division, Ft. Lewis, Wash.

An Army spokesman said troops could be rushed to Iceland within a matter of hours if necessary.

The Army said the transfer is part of the normal redistribution of forces, and has been under consideration for 2½ years.

A spokesman said the withdrawal will have no effect on United States commitments to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Since 1951, troops have been in Iceland under a two-nation agreement with that country, and have not been a part of the NATO force.

Nevertheless they have constituted an element in North Atlantic defenses in view of Iceland's flanking position on U.S.-Europe air and sea routes. U.S. forces first went there under other arrangements in the months before the United States entered World War II.

Defense officials said the change has no connection with recent difficulties with Icelandic civilians, or with the change two weeks ago in the Icelandic government.

13 Convicts Recaptured

IVY BLUFF, N.C. (AP)—Thirteen of North Carolina's toughest convicts, who escaped Tuesday and took an arsenal of weapons with them, were behind bars today.

All surrendered without resistance. But seven others were at large and presumed carrying 11 weapons including a sub-machine gun.

Twelve surrendered in Virginia and Ohio after hardly 48 hours of freedom. Another prisoner was retaken near Ivy Bluff the day of the breakout from the maximum security prison here.

The FBI said the captures yielded two rifles and four revolvers of the 17 weapons taken from Ivy Bluff.

A huge manhunt focused on an area 20 miles west of Roanoke, Va., where several of the escapees were believed surrounded. The FBI said Charles W. Stewart, one of the desperate ringleaders in the daring breakout, might be in the pocketed group.

Local officers and the FBI, corralled eight of the original 20 in Virginia.

Robert Lee Council, 30, Fayetteville, N. C. Negro serving 20-25 years for armed robbery, was taken as he walked along a highway near Rustburg, Va., this morning.

Earlier, four others were captured in Cambridge, Ohio. One was taken Tuesday in North Carolina.

Still at large were Stewart, 52, Wilmington, N. C., serving 25 years for armed robbery and storebreaking; Johnny Miller, 26, Albemarle, N. C., 9 years for arson and manslaughter; John Kilborne, 34, Winston-Salem, N. C., 28 years for robbery with firearms and storebreaking; Wiley Cummings, 34, Winston-Salem, N. C., 15-20 years, breaking and entering and robbery;

Woodrow Stewart, 26, Boone, N. C., 18-20 years, highway robbery and escape; Willie Shaw, 29, Rougemont, N. C., Negro, life for rape; and Cleveland McNeill, 27, Fuquay Springs, N. C., Negro, 15 years assault, housebreaking and escape.

In quick succession, authorities captured two of the escapees near Ruckersville, Va., three near Pilot, Va., and two near Lynchburg, Va.

Taken near Pilot were James W. Strickland, 34, of Columbia, S.C., serving life for burglary; William Vaughn, 39, Halifax County, Va., serving life for murder; and Douglas Anderson, 24, Atlanta, Ga., serving life for kidnaping.

James Edward Christy, 26, of Concord, N.C., and Ralph Byers, 27, of Winston-Salem, N.C., were picked up near Ruckersville, Va. Christy was tabbed by North Carolina prison authorities as a ringleader in hte mass breakout. Both he and Byers were armed with 38 caliber pistols but offered no resistance.

Christy was serving 19-25 years for breaking and entering and manslaughter; and Byers 35-42 42 years for robbery with firearms and auto theft.

Santa Due Here Today

Santa Claus always gets a warm reception but he may get a wet one when he arrives this afternoon to start off the Holiday Festivities in Snyder. Water (in its natural state coming down or lying around mixed with dirt) has never been known to dampen the enthusiasm of any child, but to reassure the parents the Chamber of Commerce has hopefully predicted that there will be no "drown-out" of this afternoons program.

"The Rodeo parade went on despite the rain and we feel that the people of Snyder will do no less for Santa Claus," stated a chamber of commerce spokesman.

The arrival of Old Saint Nick will start an afternoon's round of festivities which will be highlighted at 4:30 by a parade including area and local bands and floats entered by Churches and civic organizations in the community.

High school girls Choral Groups will serenade visitors in the downtown stores with Christmas carols from 2:30 to 4:40.

DRAMA TO OPEN CONCERT SERIES

The Scurry Concert Assn. will present its first program of the season here this evening when Joan Blondell will appear in the starring role in "Dark At The Top Of The Stairs."

Curtain time is set for 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Local members have been asked to take their seats early, since members of the Big Spring Assn. will be admitted shortly before curtain time. The local association has a reciprocal agreement with the association in Big Spring.

Texas Girls Still In Race

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Three Texas girls are among the 22 young beauties named today as finalists in the 1960 Maid of Cotton contest.

They are Genevieve Hogue of Commerce, Flo Burris of Houston and Enna McDaniel of Amarillo.

The new maid, who will be selected here Dec. 30th after two days of judging, will make an international tour as good will envoy for the nation's cotton industry.

Eighteen of the finalists were chosen from hundreds of applications and photographs sent to the National Cotton Council here. Four others automatically qualified after winning their state Maid of Cotton contests earlier this year.

The day after her selection, the new maid will fly to Dallas for her first public appearance—the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. From there she will go to New York to be fitted to an elaborate cotton wardrobe before opening her tour in late January.

Big Titan Fails To Get Off Ground

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A powerful engine of a Titan intercontinental range missile ignited today, but the giant failed to get off the ground in an attempt to fire its second stage for the first time.

When the countdown reached zero, flashes of flame burst from the base of the rocket. They died quickly and the 98-foot rocket remained locked on its pad engulfed in billows of black smoke.

U. S. Ready To Aid India

By JOHN SCALI

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — President Eisenhower reminded India today that weakness in arms invites aggression, and said a strong United States is ready to come to the aid of its friends.

He told the Indian Parliament the United States is committed to a search for genuine disarmament but is maintaining strong forces against aggression.

"They serve not only for ourself but our friend and allies, who, like us, have perceived this danger. They so serve for defensive purposes only," he said.

The members of Parliament applauded frequently. But there was not a sound when the President spoke of the fruits of weakness. With the threats of Red China in mind, it was possible they were shaken by his remarks.

Nor was there any audible reaction when the President made clear American determination to provide adequate forces to resist aggression, though it seemed plain he was referring to the threat to India from Red China.

Eisenhower spoke to a joint meeting of the Indian Parliament, which for weeks has been discussing what attitude India should take toward China. This week it upheld Prime Minister Nehru's policy, which is a go-slow attitude of firmness and preparedness.

There were 17 interruptions for applause but some were mere ripples. At the end the applause and desk thumping lasted only 20 seconds.

Eisenhower got his biggest hand when his voice rising strongly, he declared:

"In the name of humanity can we not join in a 5-year or 50-year plan against mistrust and misgivings and fixation on the wrongs of the past? Can we not apply ourselves to the removal or reduction of the causes of tension that exist in the world?

"All these are creations of government, cherished and nourished by governments. Nations would never feel them if they were given freedom from propaganda and pressure."

The President declared the United States is committed to a ceaseless search for disarmament and that "controlled universal disarmament is the imperative of our time."

But, he said, "Weakness in arms often invites aggression or subversion or externally manipulated revolution."

The speech, possibly the most important he will make on his 22,000-mile journey to 11 lands, was delivered after he had talked with Prime Minister Nehru for more than four hours.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty and Indian spokesmen refused to disclose anything about the talks. Hagerty said there would be further talks and it is too early to say anything about them.

Exhilarated by the colossal welcome in New Delhi, the President appeared chipper as he began the rounds of a crowded day that started with a wreath laying and tree planting in honor of Mohandas K. Gandhi.

Indian authorities, alarmed by the overpowering demonstration by perhaps 1½ million people who turned out to greet the President Wednesday, called in thousands of extra police to handle crowds during the rest of the visit.

The President spoke in a strong, clear voice, often departing from his text.

He was most eloquent and unequivocal on the problem of disarmament.

"The demand for it by the hundreds of millions whose chief concern is the long future of themselves and their children will, I hope, become so universal and insistent that no man, no government can withstand it," he said.

He pictured disarmament as the only alternative to a "stumbling from crisis in one place to crisis in another, forever fearful that inevitably some aggression will blaze into global war."

"Must we continue to live with prejudices, practices and policies that will condemn our children and our children's children to live helplessly in the pattern of the past, awaiting possibly a time of war borne obliteration?" he asked.

"We all fervently pray not. Indeed there can be no statesmanship in any person of responsibility who does not concur in this worldwide prayer."

As the President strode down the aisle to address the 600 legislators, he was flanked by Vice President Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan and the House speaker, A. A. Ayyangar, both wearing white achkans or tunics.

Nehru listened intently from the right of the vice president and occasionally fingered a rose that was tucked in his brown achkan.

At no time did the President directly mention Red China or the dangers of communism. But these were clearly in his mind.

He said a long series of alarms had caused anxiety and suffering.

Storm Easing Its Fury In Europe

By DENNIS NEELD

LONDON (AP)—Europe's worst storm in 23 years was blowing itself out today, leaving shattered ships and 109 dead in its wake.

But coastguardsmen, weary after a five-day battle, warned the tempest might still have a deadly sting in its tail.

A little Dutch motor freighter sank in a collision in the Elbe estuary, some seamen remained in trouble and blinding blizzards blanketed parts of Scandinavia.

The toll in lives and shipping was the heaviest since the great storm of February 1936, in which more than 200 died.

The 44-ton Dutch freighter Flamingo went down after a collision with the 3,128-ton Gerfan freighter Brunswick. All members of the Dutch crew were rescued.

In all, a half dozen vessels have gone down.

Four others flashed distress calls today.

A flooded engineroom forced abandonment of the British trawler Janet Helen in the North Sea. Its crew was taken off by another British fishing vessel.

In the Baltic the Finnish Vessel Borneo, 348 tons, reported it was drifting with a 25-degree list. It called urgently for a tug.

The Danish fishing cutter Stornoway, wallowing in North Sea swells with a broken rudder, called for assistance. Then its radio went dead.

In the Baltic, rescue ships put out to aid the crippled Swedish motorship Birgitta. That 850-ton craft, with nine men aboard, had engine and propeller trouble, but reported it was in no immediate danger.

Three other Danish fishing boats with a total of at least 12 men aboard also were missing, but officials said possibly they had lost their radio antennas and could not report in. They were the Nilan, 50 tons; Jytte, 47 tons, and Lyngvig, 46 tons. Two Danish salvage vessels and planes of the Danish and British air forces were looking for them.

Snowy gales whipped across Sweden for the sixth straight day.

The air-sea hunt for crewmen of the Norwegian freighter Elfrida and the German ship Merkur was abandoned when darkness closed in Wednesday night. All 20 men aboard the Elfrida and the seven who manned the Merkur were assumed lost.

The 1,719-ton Norwegian vessel turned turtle off the south coast of Norway Wednesday. The Merkur, 995 tons, was found wallowing and abandoned in the same general area by the British trawler Benella.

Cotton Futures Market Hurt By Government Competition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cotton brokers and an industry spokesman said five administrative changes are needed if cotton futures markets are to survive through the 1960-61 season.

Their views were presented Thursday at a joint hearing of the Senate and House cotton subcommittees.

William J. Lodwick of New Orleans, chairman of the Industry Wide Cotton Group, said in prepared testimony that unless something is done, "the exchanges and other segments of the industry are doomed to oblivion and will not be available to the cotton trade when they are again needed."

The situation arises because the government, under a new two-year cotton program, is buying and selling directly the major portion of the cotton crop. It is buying rather than provide price support loans which would not be paid off.

The five changes listed by Lodwick as the minimum essentials for survival were:

1. A simpler and more efficient method for handling and marketing choice cotton through normal trade channels.

2. The setting of Commodity Credit Corp. carrying charges at approximately commercial costs.

3. Removal of CCC carryover stocks from competition with the farmers' current crop, by requiring the CCC to charge higher prices.

4. An easier way for the purchasers of CCC stocks to have their cotton reclassified.

5. Facilitating the export of American cotton by stabilizing the price of payment in kind certificates.

William K. Love, president of the New York Cotton Exchange, said in prepared testimony the five changes are needed because new cotton law has caught the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges "in an unfortunate rip-tide from which we must be extricated or we will drown."

He said he understands Congress cannot make the changes in time for the 1960-61 crop season, "and therefore relief must be secured administratively."

Love said the proposed changes "are desirable from all but obstructionist points of view" and asked help in obtaining them.

Morris Wolf, president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, said in his prepared testimony that "a fixed floor as well as a fixed ceiling, at approximately the same level, has crushed our function as one link in the orderly marketing chain." He added:

"We must have living room between the government floor under cotton and the government ceiling above the same stock."

U. N. Resolution Raps Repression

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United Nations has called once more for an end to acts of repression against anti-Soviet Hungarians and for free elections in Communist North Korea.

The 82-nation General Assembly overwhelmingly approved resolutions Wednesday containing the appeals. The Communist bloc voted against both resolutions which the Reds are sure to disregard as they have similar ones in the past.

The mildly worded resolution on Hungary, approved 53-10 with 17 abstentions, deplored the "continued" disregard by the Soviet Union and the present Hungarian regime of the General Assembly's resolutions adopted after the Soviet army crushed the 1956 Hungarian revolt.

It asked Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand U.N. special representative on Hungary, to continue seeking implementation of the earlier resolutions. These demanded withdrawal of Soviet military forces from Hungary and restoration of political freedom for the Hungarian people.

It also requested the Soviet Union and the Hungarian government to cooperate with Munro.

Not voting on the resolution were Finland and 16 nations of the Asian-African bloc. Afghanistan, Ceylon, Ethiopia, Ghana, Guinea, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Sudan, Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Republic and Yemen. Morocco and Haiti were absent.

Meanwhile the assembly's nine-nation credentials committee voted 7-2 for a U.S. proposal that the committee take no action on credentials presented by the Hungarian U.N. delegation.

The resolution urging free elections in North Korea was approved by a 54-9 vote, also with 17 abstentions. It was similar to appeals that have been issued by the U.N. and ignored by the Communists since 1954.

The assembly also gave three more years of life to the U.N. Relief and Works Agency. The agency is responsible for the care of a million Palestine Arab refugees.

ACLU Urges Regulation Of Network

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union today urged the Federal Communications Commission to ask Congress for authority to regulate radio and TV networks.

The FCC now has no direct supervision over the networks although it has indirect powers through its authority to license individual stations which make up the network.

Noting that the networks provide at least 80 per cent of prime evening television programs, the ACLU said: "The commission should have the right to regulate networks directly and thereby to apply sanctions where they will do the most good."

Patrick Murphy Malin of New York City, the Union's executive director, presented the Civil Liberties position at a public hearing at which FCC is re-examining its powers to control program content.

Malin testified:

"Instead of viewing the right to broadcast as a public trust, networks and stations have viewed it almost exclusively as an open door to private gain. An unholy alliance of most broadcasters, most sponsors and most advertising agencies has gravitated to the sole criterion of salesmanship and all but destroyed other standard for broadcasting."

Crosby Brothers To Try It Again

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The four Crosby brothers will put their singing act together again in January, says Lindsay Crosby.

Bing's sons broke up their act in Montreal last week and canceled an engagement tonight at Palm Springs. Lindsay denied they were feuding. He conceded they had a "beef in Canada, but nothing serious."

He said the reason for tonight's cancellation is that Gary, oldest of the four, has a throat ailment. The brothers plan to open in Miami Beach, Fla., in January, he said.

Council To Spend Promotion Funds

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — The American Sheep Producers Council says that in the future it will spend on its own promotion the more than a million dollars it has been giving each year to the Wool Bureau.

Casey Jones, council secretary, said the directors felt they would rather spend their own money for promotion of American made wool products. He said the council will continue to work closely with the Wool Bureau and other industry organizations.

Singing Sisters Are Model Girls

VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The four singing Lennon sisters are a part of one big happy family — an even dozen, including Mom and Pop, who live in a 50-year-old Venice, Calif., house. These unusual girls are so happy, as a matter of fact, that they don't want allowances, even though they're big wage earners who have Dad to manage the payroll.

"Why de we need money?" the girls chorus, and Peggy, 18, cheerfully explains:

"We have a full refrigerator a bulging freezer, and can invite our friends to stay for meals or as long as they like. We have plenty of clothes, so except for a little mad money, we don't need anything else."

Dad Lennon, who was in New York with the girls for a recent TV appearance with Perry Como, corroborates what they say.

"The girls are regular youngsters," he says proudly. "They have a normal home life and no desire to be glamor girls. Eight out of ten people we meet in this business are affected, unreal and phony, and so contrary to what we conceive a family life to be that the girls have no desire to go out with them. They spot a phony before I do."

The girls — Janet, 13, Kathy, 16, Peggy, 18 and Dianne, 20— have their own ideas of what sort of young man fills the bill for them:

1. He must be strong in religious faith, regardless of what faith he happens to be.

2. He must enjoy sports because the girls love sports and baseball and football are the big topics at home. (Mom and Dad play baseball with their brood.)

3. He must have a good sense of humor.

4. He must love children. (And that goes along with your sense of humor, adds Peggy.)

Dianne already has found him, and she's engaged. He's a telephone cable splicer. Says she:

"I've met his friends when I have visited him down in manholes, and once in a while he calls me from the top of a telephone pole."

The girls all laugh at Dianne's adventure with her boy friend. Peggy doesn't believe in going steady, but is fond of a particular football player.

Dad Lennon invited Dianne's friend and his telephone buddies to go to Washington recently to watch the girls perform for President Eisenhower.

"That was a thrill," Peggy says. "The President greeted us with 'Well, here you are.' He had invited us before but we couldn't get away from school."

The six Lennon girls and four boys are agog at the prospect of a new baby expected soon. Dianne and Peggy help care of the youngest aged 15 months, in between rehearsals for the Lawrence Welk show, a regular stint. Janet and Kathy attend school, and had a tutor with them on this trip, according to California law.

"The girls pay me a salary," says their young - looking father, who used to be in the wholesale milk business." Twenty per cent of their earnings are put away to assure college educations for the boys and marriage nest eggs for the girls. Then my wife, Isabelle and I may start a little business of our own and raise the younger generation."

Beef-Chosen Combination Winner In TBC Contest

Mrs. Lee Hudgins, Sherman young member of one of North Texas' oldest ranching families, was selected a winner in the recent Texas Beef Council recipe contest.

"Beef in Casserole," Mrs. Hudgins' entry, was named the best use of economy beef with dairy products by a judging panel of three prominent Dallas and Fort Worth businessmen.

The five contest winners will be honored at the TBC's sixth annual Beef Dinner to be held at noon, Saturday, December 5, in the Memorial Student Center, Texas A. & M College, College Station. Dairy farmers of Texas, through the American Dairy Association of Texas, participated in the Beef Council's recipe contest on behalf of their products.

Mrs. Hudgins, the young mother of three pre-school children, has two hobbies: experimenting with cooking and horseback riding. Since their ranch is close to Sherman, it is frequently possible for her to spend a day riding on the ranch, and her winning recipe is evidence of her facility with cooking.

Her beef casserole is an interesting and delicious use of sour cream and is ideal for entertaining, since it may be prepared, refrigerated and reheated just before serving freeing the hostess from last-minute party preparations. This recipe makes 8 servings.

BEEF IN CASSEROLE

1 pound ground beef
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1 16-oz. can tomatoes
1 8-oz. can tomato sauce
2 cloves garlic, crushed
Pepper to taste
1 8-oz. package thin egg noodles
1 cup Sour Cream
1 3-oz. package Cream Cheese
6 green onions chopped with some of top
1 cup Cheddar Cheese, grated

Combine and simmmer 5 to 10 minutes: beef, salt, sugar, tomatoes tomato sauce, garlic and pepper. Cook noodles, drain, and add to mixture of sour cream, cream cheese, and chopped onions. Arrange in layers, in greased casserole, meat mixture, noodle mixture and grated cheee. Heat until bubbling, about 35 minutes at 350 degrees.

Pumpkin Muffins

INGREDIENTS: 1½ cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon mace, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, 1 egg, ½ cup canned pumpkin, ½ cup milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted).

METHOD: Sift together the flour, baking powder, sugar, mace and cinnamon. In medium mixing bowl beat egg until yolk and white are combined; gently beat in pumpkin, then milk and melted butter. Add sifted dry ingredients; stir just until they are moistened; do not beat. Fill buttered muffin-pan wells about two-thirds full. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 25 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 8 to 12 — depending on the size of muffin-pan wells.

LUNCH BOX TREAT

Split a sponge-cake layer and put the layers together again with frosting; sprinkle the top of the cake with confectioners' sugar. Send along wedges of the cake for a lunchbox dessert treat.

Soup With Beef Shortribs

INGREDIENTS: 2 pound beef shortribs, 1 quart water, 1 medium onion (cut into thin strips), 2 ribs celery with leafy tops (cut into short lengths), 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes, 1 can (8 ounces) sliced beets, 1¼ teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon cracked black pepper, ½ teaspoon garlic salt, ¾ teaspoon sugar.

METHOD: Remove most of fat from shortribs. Simmer in kettle with water, onion and celery for 1½ hours. Add tomatoes (including juice), liquid drained from beets, salt, pepper, garlic salt and sugar; simmer 45 minutes longer. Discard celery. Add beets cut into strips. Cover and refrigerate overnight. Remove solid fat from top of soup. Fish out shortribs, cut off fat and slice; return meat to soup. Reheat. Makes 1½ to 2 quarts — enough for 4 main-course servings.

SHEILA BECKETT....With sons Sean and Ian.

Impish Small Boys Model For Cherubs

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The Most Precious little cherub on a Christmas card is likely to be an imp in real life. So says greeting card artist Sheila Beckett whose angelic little Christmas card people are modeled by her sons, Sean, 3, and Ian, 13.

"Oh, they don't sit still while I draw," she laughs. "I just try to remember how little Sean looks when he's asleep and how Ian used to look as a small boy, and I look at old photographs, and go on from there."

Sean is at that interesting age, climbing all over Mom as she tries to draw, getting into the paints, racing away with the brushes. Aside from that he's an angel. A new dog, a basset hound, has been introduced on the family scene and Sean is paying him some attention.

Sheila draws everything from greeting cards to nudes. She does ribald readers and children's book. She likes to do costume drawings, because she's always had a yen to be a fashion designer or ballet dancer.

She has been painting for 13 years — displays, brochures, billboards, backgrounds for windows in Los Angeles, where she had moved from Portland, Ore. — until she began the Christmas cards about seven years ago. She was born in Canada but lived in Ireland, her mother's home, during her teens.

"I always did my own Christmas cards and someone suggested I do them for others. I enjoy it more than anything else. I'm not really a painter, though. I draw and then sort of fill in the drawing with paint," she says.

Sheila's rich celestial scenes are best sellers each year. A typical one is a madonna-like figure, colorful flowers and a number of gay, angelic fairhaired children dancing about.

The family lives on two and a half acres in Ossining, N.Y. Her artist husband, John Frederick Smith, has turned to commercial photography, but can still help her with perspective in her drawing, she says.

Ian shows promise of becoming an artist, but flirts with photography now like Dad.

DELIGHTFUL CHANGE

Sandwich change: Spread sliced bread with a mixture of butter and Roquefort cheese when you are using fillings of smoked tongue, baked ham or luncheon meat. Lots of men like these served with marinated onion rings.

Eels And Lasagne Favorite Holiday Foods In Italy

ROME (AP) — Eels for Christmas dinner? Don't be shocked. Italians eat them and love them. On New Year's day, Italians stow away as many lentils as they can. They believe the more lentils they eat the more money they'll make the coming year.

Green lasagne with a red tomato sauce is a delicious pasta dish most Italians like to eat on Christmas day.

Here are two Italian holiday recipes:

Lentil Soup: Wash 1 lb. lentils. Place in pot with 3 quarts of cold water. Cook over medium flame 1½ hours or until lentils are soft. Add salt and pepper. Melt 2 tbs. butter in separate saucepan. Add 2 tbs. olive oil. Saute 1 chopped onion for about 5 minutes or until soft and slightly brown.

When lentils are done strain lentils and liquid through sieve or colander. Add onion and oil mixture. Stir. This produces a thick soup. Keep warm over low flame. Serve hot with parmesan cheese sprinkled over top.

Green Lasagne: Make a mound of 3 cups of flour on a large pastry board. Scoop out a well in mound. Place ½ lb. cooked, drained and strained spinach, 2 eggs and ¼ teaspoon salt in well and work into the flour. Knead for 20 minutes, adding a little more flour if necessary. Divide kneaded dough on clean towels to dry for 1 hour. Fold each sheet. Cut across dough with sharp knife. Make ribbons ¾ inch wide. Shake ribbons loose. Cook in boiling salted water ½ hour or less to taste. Drain. About 3 cups of tomato or meat sauce, 6 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese and ½ cup butter is needed.

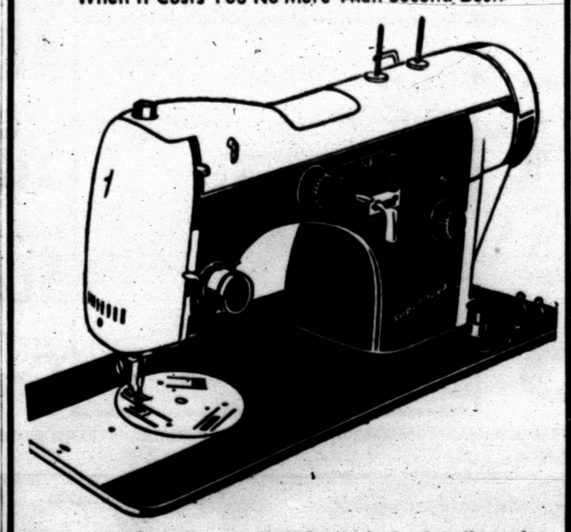

In large casserole place a layer of lasagne, cover with sauce and continue layers. Sprinkle with parmesan cheese and dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven ¾ hour. Sprinkle with additional parmesan before serving. Serves four.

Important Talks Launched

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—His role as a world peacemaker enhanced by landslide ovations and his heavy psychological impact on free Asia, President Eisenhower today began what probably are the most important talks of his 22,000-mile tour.

The American President and Indian Prime Minister Nehru had much to talk about. All of it was vastly important, not only to India but also to the future course of the Communist-free world competition in the uneasily stirring continent of Asia.

Communist China undoubtedly was at the top of the agenda as the leader of the free world and the leader of Asia's neutrals talked.

China is now at the harshest and perhaps the most difficult stage of her fight to develop through a regimented Communist system. Because of this, she is likely to be increasingly a troublemaker to neighbors struggling against odds to pull themselves up from poverty and misery.

China's aggressive gestures in South Asia have radically changed the international political climate of the continent. The Red Chinese attitude has rebounded to the advantage of the United States, and Eisenhower is reaping the benefit of Peiping's belligerence.

Despite Nehru's protestations that India will meet the Chinese threat alone, it seems more than likely now that should Peiping's threat become more danger the Indian leader would appeal to the United States and Britain for support. It is just as likely that the United States would help, and quickly.

This puts the squeeze on Moscow, which could hardly align itself against its big Chinese ally on the drive toward world communism.

But while Nehru is worried about the Chinese, the biggest danger from Red China seems some years away. This gives the United States time to enlarge on the opportunities in non-Communist Asia which Peiping's impatient truculence has given it.

Hearing On Payola Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators have all but formally announced they will conduct hearings early next year on "payola"—gratuities to disc jockeys and others for plugging music.

The House Legislative Oversight subcommittee, which has had investigators looking into payola, discussed the future of its inquiry at a closed-door session Wednesday.

Afterward Chairman Oren Harris, (D-Ark) told newsmen five or six weeks of further investigation will be needed before the subcommittee makes its final plans. Asked whether the decision to conduct hearings has been made, Harris said "if we develop information that justifies them, yes." He said present indications were that such information was developing.

Dick Strong In Midwest

CHICAGO (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon appears to have stronger Midwest support for the Republican presidential nomination than Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, say several state GOP chairmen.

The party leaders said, however, that the New York governor is not completely without support.

The Nixon vs. Rockefeller question has not yet appeared on the agenda of the meeting of the Midwest and Rocky Mountain Republican State Chairmen's Assn. But delegates to the 22-state group indicated it has the No. 1 spot on the unofficial agenda.

The association is made up of chairmen from Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Cub Meeting Set

A special Cub Scout meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Central Elementary auditorium. All boys interested in scout work are asked to be present with at least one of their parents.

Roughly one-half of the world's cargo vessels are controlled by Greek shipowners.

New Plants Due To Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government expects industry spending on new plants and equipment to continue its slow rise early next year.

Present spending for such purposes—a major indicator of business trends—is estimated at about 34 billion dollars yearly. That figure is a smaller than had been forecast earlier, indicating the steel strike and other factors have caused a cutback in some planned projects.

The Commerce Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission said Wednesday an industrial survey indicated the annual rate is expected to increase about 500 million dollars in the first quarter of 1960.

This year's outlays, estimated at 32½ billion dollars, are about 7 per cent above 1958.

TRYING TO CATCH UP—Don Carter, four times national bowling champ, is behind in this year's world invitational tournament in Chicago. He barely made the finals, but predicted he would finish strong. (AP Wirephoto)

Golembiewski In Meet's Top Spot

CHICAGO (AP)—The World Invitational Bowling Tournament Bowling Tournament moved into the last half of the final rounds today with Billy Golembiewski, a 30-year-old pro, in the top spot.

Golembiewski, a member of the ABC champion Pfeiffers team of Detroit, was the big gun in Wednesday's firing in the $30,000 tourney in the Chicago Coliseum.

Sixteen more games are scheduled today and the final 16 on Friday, with part of the shooting to be nationally televised Friday night (9 p.m. CST, NBC).

Golembiewski vaulted from third place into the lead with spectacular shooting. He averaged nearly 240 as he won 12 of 16 games in the second day of match competition. He was the leader in all categories, games won, pinfall and points.

Billy G., as the pros call him, was red-hot in the final four games Wednesday night, sweeping the series from Billy Welu of St. Louis with a 903 series on games of 215, 237, 224 and 227. Welu, all-star champion from St. Louis, posted 736.

Golembiewski, with 21½ games won and 10½ lost, had 161.40 Petersen points. In the first 32 games he knocked down 7,015 pins for an average of 219 per game.

In second place was Ray Bluth of St. Louis who won 12 of 16 games as he moved from eighth place to runnerup. He had 21 wins and 11 losses and 159.33 points.

Lou Frantz of Louisville, Ky., the leader after the first 16 games, dropped to third with a 20-12 won-lost record and 154.41 points. He won 7 games and lost 9 Wednesday.

In the women's division, Mrs. Olga Gloor, 39-year-old Chicago housewife, held her lead as she continued her sensational shooting. She has won 2 games and lost four, has 79.03 points and has averaged 209 for 16 games. The women bowl only eight games a day.

Closest to Mrs. Gloor was Donna Zimmerman, a 26-year-old typist from Akron, Ohio, who had 74.35 points and was averaging a shade under 203, and Robbie Frey, an attractive 35-year-old redhead from Dallas, who was third with 73.40 points.

Liston Not Happy Over His Victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — Sonny Liston, who wants a shot at the heavyweight title, isn't too satisfied with his decisive defeat of Willi Besmanoff Wednesday night.

"I wasn't too sharp," he said in his dressing room after the nationally televised (ABC) fight. It was his 19th straight victory.

"I didn't start to warm up until the sixth," added Liston, third-ranked heavyweight contender.

Besmanoff absorbed a barrage of punches in the sixth and was bleeding from several bad gashes over his eyes. The referee stopped the bout between rounds and it was scored a seventh-round technical knockout.

The 27-year-old Besmanoff, German-born but now fighting out of Milwaukee, said glumly:

"That cut over the left eye bothered me from the first round, but I still thought I could go the distance and probably beat him. He was punching himself out and I thought I could come on."

Liston, 27, of Philadelphia, started slowly, relying on sharp left-hand punches which caught Besmanoff with regularity. The 210-pound Liston was nine pounds heavier than Besmanoff.

Liston now has won 26 of 27 fights.

Besmanoff, loser in his last two bouts, has a record of 41 victories, 17 defeats and seven draws.

The fight drew a crowd of 7,710. The gate was $27,897.

Pete Rademacher, who started his professional fighting career in an unsuccessful bid for the heavyweight title, easily bested Johnny York of Norristown, Pa., in a preliminary. He won on a unanimous decision in the eight-rounder.

Final Spurt Gives Atkins Two Crowns

By The Associated Press

A big final splurge against the University of Mexico carried Pervis Atkins of New Mexico State to two major college individual football championships—scoring and rushing.

The junior halfback rolled up four touchdowns and 237 yards in a 55-0 rout of a poor Mexican team and wound up the season with 107 points and 971 yards.

Atkins, a transfer from Santa Ana Junior College, also scored the most touchdowns (17) and had the highest rushing average per game (97.1 yards), according to final NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

Atkins' rushing mark was the lowest winning total in 15 years, however, and it's the first time in 21 years the rushing leader failed to average at least 100 yards a game.

In scoring, three tied for the runner-up post with 100 points apiece. They were Skip Face of Stanford, Nolan Jones of Arizona State and Ger Schweds of Syracuse's national champion Orangemen.

Tom Watkins and Dwight Nichols, Iowa State's one-two punch, finished second and third respectively in rushing. Watkins romped for 843 yards while Nichols rolled up 746.

Dick Bass, last year's triple winner (total offense, rushing, scoring) for College of Pacific, was fourth in rushing (742) and 27th in scoring this season. New Mexico's Bill Brown was fifth in rushing with 740, but his average of 7.79 yards a carry was tops. Atkins was second with 7.47.

Oklahoma's Prentice Gautt gained the most yardage without a single loss—597 in 109 carries.

Carver Bows To Lincoln

Lincoln High School basketball teams swept two games from Carver of Midland here Tuesday night.

The Lincoln boys nosed out the Carver boys, 48-44 in a game which saw the lead change hands several times. Lincoln held a 23-20 advantage at half-time.

John Choy paced the Lincoln scorers with 14 points, while Randolph Williams had 12 and Mack Taylor and Gene Taylor had 9 each.

Flood Jones and Henry Woods were Carver's top scorers with 12 points each, while Wallace Davis had 10 points for the losers.

The Lincoln girls decisioned the Carver girls, 21-12, with Louis Archie scoring 13 points to lead the winners in scoring. Lincoln led at the half, 8-3.

Louline Brooks had four points for Lincoln, and Emma Garrett and Mary Goosby had 2 each.

High pointer for Carver in the girls game was Claria Roberts with six points.

TIL Marks 50th Year

ABILENE (AP)—The birth 50 years ago of the fabulous Texas Interscholastic League will be commemorated here today.

Dec. 10, 1910, this union of schools that grew into the world's largest organization of its kind, saw the light of day as a debating society. It was formed during a meeting of the Texas State Teachers Assn.

Speakers at a luncheon today include Kathryn Grant Crosby, wife of the famed singer, who once competed in drama. D. X. Bible, former football coach at Texas A&M and Texas and now consulting athletic director of the university, will discuss athletics.

DeWitt Riddick, director of Texas University's School of Journalism and founder of the league's journalism program, and Texas Supreme Court Justice Meade Griffin, who once debated, are other speakers.

Two of the men who were present when the league was formed—W. T. Lofland of Austin and J. O. Webb of Houston—will be among the special guests.

Great Lullwater, Zoom Hanover, Cardinal James and Sky Eden each made 19 starts during the 115-night harness racing season at Yonkers, N.Y.

In 1939 Alabama's football team set a Southeastern Conference record when it lost the ball only once on a fumble in nine games.

Frogs Dump Tulsa, 99-77

By The Associated Press

Texas Christian scored 99 points Wednesday night to win its second basketball game of the season while Texas Tech managed to get only 16 points in the second half of its game with Oklahoma.

The Frogs dumped Tulsa, 99-77, at Fort Worth while Oklahoma defeated Tech 56-43 at Lubbock in the only Southwest Conference basketball action Tuesday night. The victory gave Oklahoma a 3-0 season record while Tech has won one while losing three. TCU has a 2-1 record.

The only conference team in action Thursday night is Rice which meets Vanderbilt at Houston.

Oklahoma threw a balanced attack at the Tech Raiders with three men getting 11 points each. They were Dennis Price, Darrell Heidebrecht and Brian Ethride. Sophomore Del Ray Mounts led the Raiders with 14 points.

Schoolboy Football Race Heading Into Semi-Finals

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas schoolboy football race hits its semi-finals this weekend with the three defending state champions left in the field—Wichita Falls, Breckenridge and Stamford—overwhelming favorites to reach the big games once more.

Wichita Falls and Corpus Christi Ray are long choices to brush side Fort Worth Carter-Riverside and Port Arthur in the Class AAAA penultimate battles Saturday afternoon.

Breckenridge plays Mt. Pleasant at Fort Worth Saturday, and is a four touchdown favorite. The other part of the Class AAA semi-finals is scheduled Friday night when Cleburne tackles Falfurrias at Falfurrias. Cleburne, too, is an easy favorite.

Stamford, the defending champion of Class AA, is the only team facing another undefeated, untied outfit. The Bulldogs meet Olney at Wichita Falls Friday night and Stamford is a two-touchdown choice.

At the same time Brady takes on unbeaten, untied Palacios at Austin.

Class A's top clash send Sundown against Crowell, the team with a perfect record and favored to win the championship. The teams play at Plainview Saturday afternoon.

It will follow the battle of Madisonville and Katy at Spring Branch Friday night. Katy is the choice in this one.

Wichita Falls and Carter-Riverside get together at Wichita Falls while Port Arthur tackles Ray at Houston. Wichita is undefeated but once tied and is a heavy choice over Carter-Riverside.

About the only game that has the critics divided is the Sundown-Crowell struggle in Class A. Sundown lost only to Denver City, a Class AA team, but had no trouble with anybody else. Crowell hasn't lost a game but had difficulty beating Albany.

The record last week was nine selections out of 16 tries. Here's how they look this week:

Fort Worth Carter-Riverside at 14 points.

Port Arthur vs. Corpus Christi Ray at Houston—Ray looks even stronger than Wichita Falls so it's Ray by the same margin.

Breckenridge vs. Mt. Pleasant at Fort Worth—Mt. Pleasant has gone farther than expected but Breckenridge appears to have too many guns.

Cleburne at Falfurrias — Cleburne should make the finals this time.

Stamford vs. Olney at Wichita Falls—A strong vote for the unbeaten, untied, unworried Bulldogs of Stamford.

Brady vs. Palacios at Austin—Brady by two touchdowns.

Sundown vs. Crowell at Plainview—It looks like Crowell.

Madisonville vs. Katy at Spring Branch—Katy has too much offense for Madisonville.

Mississippi State Misses Scoring Of Bailey Howell

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

No more All America Bailey Howell and no more winning streak for Mississippi State in major college basketball.

With Howell, the 6-7 scoring ace who led the way to a Southeastern Conference crown, now graduated and playing pro ball, State's unbeaten string ended at 18 games with a 71-62 upset by little Louisiana Tech Wednesday night.

A tight zone defense and a hot 43-point second half, did it for Louisiana Tech, which had a three-way scoring punch in Ray Germany, with 17 points, and Jackie Moreland and Joe Daigle, each with 16.

It was only the second defeat in 34 games, stretching back to the 1957-58 campaign, for the Maroons, who had a 24-1 record last season but passed up the NCAA tournament because of racial issues. State won its last 15 games last season and breezed through its first three games this season.

Mississippi State wasn't the only team jolted with a first defeat Wednesday night, however. Once-beaten New Mexico State, trailing by 10 at halftime, spilled Colorado (3-1) from the unbeaten list 77-69 with 6-7 George Knighton scoring 20 points. And little Hofstra spoiled things for Army 58-56 on Stan Einbender's driving layup at the final buzzer.

Among unbeatens who stayed that way, Dayton whipped Miami (Ohio) 61-45, Oklahoma defeated Texas Tech 56-43, touring Miami of Florida rapped Houston 72-63 and Maryland beat Virginia 70-62 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. The East's top-flight four also rolled with NYU whipping Rutgers 82-56, Dartmouth defeating Rhode Island 74-65, St. Joseph's (Pa) smacking Gettysburg 75-54 and Providence beating Brown 84-53.

Once-beaten Notre Dame defeated Northwestern 93-88 in double-over time on the Wildcats' court. Three baskets by John Tully did it for the Irish.

Texas Christian walloped winless Tulsa 99-77, an alltime high by a Tulsa foe and TCU's top total since scoring 101 against Abilene Christian four years ago.

In other games, Temple defeated Princeton 68-65, Yale beat Fordham 82-65, Columbia defeated Baltimore U. 69-62, defending champ Connecticut whipped New Hampshire 75-51 in a Yankee Conference game, and Harvard held off Williams 69-67, Oklahoma State cracked Texas Western 68-41, Denver beat Air Force 56-53, Marshall hit touring Pepperdine 82-76 and Boston U. beat Massachusetts 71-56.

Junior High Teams Play

Three junior high basketball teams travel to Big Spring today for games with the Runnels Junior High School teams there.

The Travis 7th graders, the local 8th and 9th graders all will be in action in Big Spring. Lamar 7th graders are idle.

The 8th and 9th grade teams hold victories over San Angelo Edison in their season openers Monday night, while the Travis 7th graders dropped an opening decision to Colorado City.

The 7th grade game begins at 5 p.m. in Big Spring, with the other two games to follow.

Meredith Named Loop's Top Sport

FORT WORTH (AP)—The Fort Worth Kiwanis Club has named Don Meredith, Southern Methodist's great passer, to receive its 10th annual Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Trophy.

Meredith won out in keen competition with Jack Spikes, Texas Christian fullback, and Charley Milstead, Texas A&M quarterback.

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED

Sen. Johnson May Be First Southern Candidate In Years

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson seems to be doing what he has done in the Senate for years: Avoiding sticking his neck out until he counts the house.

There's nothing impulsive about this 51-year-old Texan, leader of the Senate Democrats, whose native state has started a boom to get him the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Johnson says he isn't seeking the nomination. All he wants is re-election to the Senate in 1960, he says, but if the Democratic convention were to pick him "I would look at it."

Some political observers, taking it for granted Johnson would like to be president, seem puzzled because he hasn't imitated other would-be Democratic candidates, particularly from the Senate.

They've been beating the bushes across the nation, looking for support. Not Johnson. Except for one speech in Philadelphia and some speeches this week in the Midwest, he has confined himself to Texas. But there he has made an astonishing number of speeches. He has stayed away from big Democratic centers like New York and Chicago. That's understandable, if he really wants the nomination.

He has two strikes against him, starting out. First, he's a Southerner, and it's been a long time since a Democratic convention wanted a Southern candidate. Second, among Northern liberals, or some of them, Johnson is considered a conservative.

View this against the way he runs the Senate. He never dashes in, waving a bill, yelling: "Come on, boys, let's see how we do on this one." Just the contrary.

He does his homework. Before he even lets a bill loose on the floor he checks thoroughly to find out what its chances are. Then, when he does turn it loose, he knows pretty thoroughly what the vote will be.

Before the Democratic convention next summer there may be some changed thinking about him among northern liberals — that is, if he puts on next year the kind of performance that would attract them.

For instance, if he gets through a meaningful civil rights bill and some other social legislation. He has already indicated he intends to get some kind of civil rights bill on the books next year before convention.

Then it might be possible — if the other candidates knock one another out and there's a deadlock — that the convention would turn to Johnson as a compromise.

The boom for Johnson started last May when the Texas legislature put through a Johnson-for-president bill. But it really got moving Oct. 17.

That day Johnson's fellow-Texan and mentor, Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House, announced he was starting a drive to get Johnson the presidential nomination. Johnson-for-president clubs sprang up all over Texas.

And just recently Johnson got ardent support in Kentucky. There former Sen. Earle Clements quit his job as Democratic senatorial campaign director to boost Johnson's presidential chances and try to swing Kentucky's 31 convention votes behind him.

Central offices for state and national campaigns to back Johnson for president were set up in Austin, Tex., last month with a full-time staff manning the headquarters.

Johnson is in an enviable position for a politician: If he misses out on the presidential nomination, he's still a cinch to be re-elected to the Senate from Texas.

Here's Hal's Letter To Santa Claus

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to Santa Claus:

Dear Santa,

Again it is time to make up your Christmas list of presents for all the good and naughty children of the world.

There isn't much you can do for a cantankerous middle-aged columnist, so all I'm asking for myself is a bottle of feel-younger pills and a sure cure for baldness. Last year I asked for something to keep my hair from falling out, and all you brought was a jar of glue.

But I thought you might need some help in making out your list for other people. So here are some suggestions on what you might bring some well-known names or institutions in the news:

Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees—A new ball club.

Adlai E. Stevenson—A guided tour of the White House.

Sen. John F. Kennedy—A crew cut.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon—A cat named Chess, to play with his dog, Checkers.

Poet Ogden Nash—A rhyme for orange.

President Eisenhower—At least one 300-yard drive.

Ingemar Johansson—The check from his last fight, and another opponent before his 40th birthday.

CBS President Frank Stanton—A fix-proof quiz show in which the contestants receive the answer and try to figure out the question.

NBC Chairman Robert Sarnoff—Ditto.

Ex-President Harry S. Truman—A player piano with a recording of "The Missouri Waltz" by Van Cliburn.

Rock 'n' roll music—A year's rest.

Dave Garroway — An evening show.

Jack Paar—A morning show.

The whole world—A year of warmer peace.

Press Statement Is Repudiated In Trial Of Addison

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A Dallas bus driver has repudiated a press release he signed stating that John Milton Addison's guarantee on a $14,600 loan "is good enough for me."

Twyman H. Dew of Dallas testified Wednesday about the loan during uranium promoter Addison's trial on charges of theft, conspiracy and violation of state securities laws.

Dew repudiated an affidavit and the release in which he swore the only inducement for lending money to Addison was return of the money with 10 per cent interest. Dew said he signed the two papers because Addison told him it was the only way he could get his money back.

Dew was questioned about the documents by defense attorney William "elderman.

The state charges that Addison has swindled hundreds of persons to obtain money for his uranium ventures. Addison claims the money was given him in the form of loans. If convicted on all counts Addison could be sentenced to 17 years in jail.

Testimony showed that one of Addison's lawyers, William Groom of Denver, Colo., purchased Dew's note and deposited $18,801, representing the loan plus interest, in the Republic National Bank of Dallas.

Under a three-year contract Dew signed with Addison he is to receive the money Feb. 15, 1961.

In purchasing the personal loan note, Groom paid the money out of his own funds, Dew's testimony showed.

Dew testified he loaned Addison $7,000 in 1957 and when Addison told him he needed more money to finish his ore upgrader he got relatives to put up an additional $4,000. Later these loans and others were incorporated into one note.

It was the loan of money from Dew's relatives in Bastrop, La., that led the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission to enter the investigation of Addison's business operations.

Finest Hour For Belsnickel Ahead

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — When the Yule log flares and the cadence of carols makes the sweetest of music, then comes Belsnickel's finest hour.

For then it is Christmas Eve and nobody, the story goes, can touch Belsnickel at such a time.

Belsnickel is the Pennsylvania Dutch Santa Claus, the patron saint, the grandfather image of Christmas Eve. And if you go along with the folk tales, he is the oldest and most picturesque Santa in the country. He is right out of the legends of Middle Europe.

Belsnickel wears the livery of the Santa everybody knows. He is likely to be less chubby, though. In no sense is he airborne. His own stout legs, not reindeer, carry him. He comes openly to the front door.

If he does not strew largesse as if there were no tomorrow, that is because he moves in the frugal ways of his people. The presents he gives—and receives, according to custom—are sturdy, practical, down-to-earth. The kids get toys, but nothing easily broken.

Belsnickel's merry trail leads from city streets to country lanes. With him often goes a little German band. Young and old join the march, stopping to serenade persons especially chosen for the honor. It is all done as it has been for well over 100 years.

Belsnickel, a wise old man, gets an early start. That is why he is now laying the groundwork for his travels. In the midst of his preparations he stopped long enough to talk about the Christmas spirit.

"You moderns are wonderful silly," he said. "So vain about being up-to-date. So sure you can improve on the old-time Christmas by being astronauts. Well, let me tell you, if you try to launch Christmas into outer space you'll spoil its real meaning. There can be no countdown for Kris Kringle."

Johnson For Sensible Farm Plan

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa (AP) —Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) ended a two-day tour of Iowa Wednesday with the charge that the Eisenhower administration is "rewarding the success of the American farmer with ridicule."

"The time and place has come for America to come to its senses about agriculture," the Senate majority leader said.

Johnson is on what observers call a "pulse-feeling tour" of the Middle West. He is generally conceded to be a contender for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination.

"We live in a world that is hungry," he told his farm belt audience. "Only by the greatest presumption can we suggest that there are such things as surpluses of food. There are no food surpluses. There is only wasted food.

"Men have imitated our industry in other lands. Men have duplicated our technology. But no nation, no people, has yet equaled or approached American agriculture.

"If this nation has a destiny, it may well be a destiny to feed the world. Where we have always been the arsenal of Democracy, I say now that America must become the food bin of freedom."

Johnson ended his tour of Iowa by speaking out again and again against the Eisenhower farm program. But he also charged the administration with conceding leadership to Russia in ballistic missile development and exploration of outer space.

"America cannot stand at the pinnacle of world leadership if, by its policies, it wastes the strength of freedom," he said.

Pair Escapes From State Hospital

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP)—Two men described as dangerous by police escaped the Big Spring State Hospital for mental patients Wednesday night.

Hospital authorities said the missing patients were Charles Henry Evans, about 35, and Richard C. Elkins, about 30. Both had been under treatment at the hospital about two months.

Satellite For Weathermen

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., (AP) —U. S. weathermen may soon be able to make forecasts by studying pictures taken by a satellite whirling 400 miles in space.

In mid-January, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is scheduled to launch the first of two experimental meteorological satellites containing cloud-scanning television cameras. The second will be sent up later next year.

The operation is known as project Tiros.

If successful, the Tiros satellites will provide meteorologists with enough pictures to reconstruct cloud patterns over a large portion of the earth. This will enable them to detect quickly developing storms and cold fronts.

The first satellite, to be launched by a Thor-Able rocket, will be a 40-inch sphere weighing 150 pounds.

Actress, Playright Will Marry Friday

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) —Actress Teresa Wright and playwright Robert Woodruff Anderson say they'll be married in Los Angeles Friday.

The couple, who took out a marriage license Wednesday, met two years ago at the christening of a friend's baby.

It is the second marriage for each. Miss Wright, 41, was formerly married to writer Niven Busch. She has two children.

Anderson, 42, authored the play "Tea and Sympathy" and has written screenplays for MGM and other movie studios.

Ex-Union Official Cleared Of Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph P. Ryan, former president of the International Longshoremen's Assn., has been freed of a six-year-old embezzlement indictment.

Ryan, now 74 and ailing, was accused in 1953 of embezzling $48,187 from proceeds of the official ILA Journal between November 1946 and October 1952. A 1954 trial ended in a jury deadlock.

In General Sessions Court Wednesday, Asst. Dist. Atty. Francis X. Clark said he doubted that a retrial would result in a conviction. Clark cited "the dimming recollection of witnesses" and Ryan's "advanced age and apparent senility."

Judge John A. Mullen then dismissed the charges.

Texans Lose Plantation

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro has taken over the 3,000 acre rice operation of three Tyler investors.

Raymond Hedge, Billy Bridewell and J. C. Wynne said the Cubans seized the rice operation Tuesday in Las Villas Province, 130 miles east of Havana.

Hedge said the group had considerable money in Cuban bank deposits which have been frozen.

He said the land is known as the "Lone Star Farm of Cuba" and is valued at more than one million dollars. He said the Cubans gave no reason for their action.

Hedge, who was in Cuba last week, said the government had ordered the farms combines halted and Cuban hand labor used in harvesting.

The three men bought the plantation in 1954. Hedge said the Texans set up the only rice experiment station in Cuba and resisted the insects that almost destroyed the rice industry in Cuba. The new strains put the industry back on its feet, he said.

The Texan said the Cubans seized the land, the rice crop, the rice mill, a drier worth about $150,000 and the machinery and buildings on the property.

The 16 international airlines made 10,066 scheduled passenger flights across the Atlantic during the summer of 1959.

More Jobs Best Gift Santa Could Bring Some Americans

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—More jobs is the best gift Santa Claus could bring the five per cent or so of the working force that is jobless in the Christmas season.

Many are returning to work as factories get steel and increase their own operations.

Hopes for still more jobs in the next few months underlie the optimistic predictions for the economy now being widely aired.

But the trooping back of steel strike victims to the factories tends to gloss over a hard core of unemployment that still remains, and it hides the tendency of unemployment to concentrate in certain areas and among certain groups.

The over-all problem ahead is made more urgent by the fact that the labor force is growing and will grow even faster in a few years as the war and postwar baby crops mature. Many more jobs will be needed.

For many would-be workers this month is a big help, if only a temporary one. Stores take on extra clerks to serve the Christmas shoppers. The Post Office takes on extra help to tote the huge loads of Christmas cards and packages.

This is a boon to many of those laid off because their usual outdoor jobs are closed by winter weather, or whose old factory isn't enjoying the general good times.

The December employment figures this year should make pleasant reading when they come out a month or so hence.

By then, though, the temporary relief will be over, and only high industrial output and stepped-up economic activity can take up the slack again.

Labor leaders point out still another obstacle to job finding now. This is the growth in the last two or three years of automation—that is, the installation of machines that can do the work once done by several workers.

Management replies that in all the nation's history the introduction of machinery has always led to greater economic activity and thus in time to a much greater total of available jobs.

Smoke Signals For Emergency Proposed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — James A. Rork, Arizona employment service director, suggests Indian smoke signals as the answer should nuclear attack wipe out all modern communications.

Rork made the proposal at an emergency manpower conference of civil defense officials Wednesday.

"In Arizona we use smoke signals to reach Hopi Indian firefighters in an emergency," he said. "We burn old automobile tires to make good black smoke."

4 Children Die In Fire

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Four children perished Wednesday night in a fire which destroyed their home.

Police Sgt. Stanley Rogozinski said the blaze apparently was caused by an overheated oil stove.

He identified the victims as the children of Dolores Waites, 26.

They were Diane Wright, 9; Don Wright, 8; Keith Waites, 5; and Gregory Waites, 2.

All were negroes.

Mrs. Waites escaped through a window she smashed. She was treated at Chester Hospital for a laceration of the arm.

Her husband, Phillip, 38, a welder, was at work at the Sun Shipbuilding and Drydock Co.

Vegetables, Fruits Are Plentiful

By The Associated Press

Homemakers continue to find a wide assortment of attractively priced fresh fruits and vegetables at Texas food stores this week the Agricultural Marketing Service reports.

These are highlights of the government agency's weekly summary:

Supplies are mostly from Texas and California, as shipments from Florida have been curtailed by heavy frost.

Ruby red grapefruit, and oranges from South Texas are abundant and prices a bit lower. Shipments of California Valencia oranges are heavy and prices favor heavy consumer use.

Apples are featured in most fruit bins. Avocados are abundant and prices unusually low.

Huge stocks of cranberries are unchanged in price.

Economy buys in vegetable bins include potatoes, onions, lettuce, sweet potatoes, turnips and cabbage.

Items slightly higher than a week ago are green beans, green peppers, radishes and tomatoes. The California tomato supply is running short and Mexico is furnishing only a trickle.

Broiler prices are higher because fewer birds are being marketed. Egg prices are about unchanged in most Texas areas.

All cuts of pork remain plentiful at budget prices, especially pork loin and shoulder roasts.

Safety Sunday Is Set By Governor

Sunday, Dec. 13, has been designated by Governor Price Daniel as "Safety Sunday" in Texas to signal the opening of the Christmas-New Year's holiday traffic safety campaign throughout the state.

The Governor's proclamation said efforts to "end death and destruction on the streets and highways of Texas will not fully succeed until each driver comes to realize that traffic safety is a spiritual concern." The Governor urged each citizen to help "awaken in the conscience and mind of every driver the realization that negligence at the wheel of an automobile is a transgression of God's Own Command, "Thou Shalt Not Kill."" He also asked the assistance of every pastor in Texas by reminding each church member of his moral responsibility in obeying the traffic laws.

Numerous organizations have already pledged their support of the annual campaign to reduce the holiday highway slaughter. In anticipation of the Department of Public Safety's annual prediction of holiday deaths, a statewide program is now getting under way through the coordination of the Texas Traffic Safety Council the state's official unit, the Governor's Highway Safety Commission and the Texas Safety Association.

Members of the Outdoor Advertising Association of Texas and other outdoor poster firms have contributed space for about 800 highway signs which will carry the Governor's holiday safety message, "Don't Let A Collision Spoil Your Holiday." The posters were contributed by organizations and individuals interested in the Texas traffic safety movement.

"Last Christmas, "Governor Daniel recalled," the tremendous effort put forth in behalf of traffic safety during the holiday season saved one-third of the lives expected to be lost. The prediction anticipated 95 deaths; there were actually 63 deaths. If Texas can do this once, they can do it again, and I am certain we will again receive the same fine cooperation from everyone that helped bring about the major reduction last year."

But he reminded Texans that traffic deaths are up about 6 per cent for the first ten months of this year over the same period in 1958, and fatal crashes are up 9 per cent. Since December is always one of our deadliest months, "The Governor concluded, "our campaign will cover the whole month and reach a climax during the holidays, when human life should be more precious to all of us because of the special occasion we observe."

Profanity Ban Is Proposed

AUSTIN (AP) — A mild-mannered Texas state senator says he will offer legislation to prevent the use of profanity on radio and television stations in this state.

Sen. David Ratliff, Stamford lawmaker, said Wednesday a NBC network show, "Star Time," Tuesday night "taught murder and profanity" to millions of young viewers.

The senator raised his protest in a telephone call from Stamford to The Associated Press.

Ratliff, who has been in the radio business for 12 years, said the use of profanity on TV channels is growing steadily. He said the words "damn," "hell" and "bastard" were used on the 90-minute telecast.

"The arrogance and utter disregard of decency on the part of television networks must not go unchallenged. Profanity on television is inexcusable. Last night's 90-minute program, Star Time, taught murder and profanity to millions of innocent young Americans right in their own living rooms," he said.

Schools Set Choral Event

The Snyder Public Schools will present the Annual Christmas Choral Festival Monday evening, Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Approximately 600 students from 14 organized choirs will participate in a program of Christmas music. Bob Clinton, high school choral director, announced today.

Featured on the program will be the 84-voice A Cappella choir which for the first time this year has as many boys as girls. Sharing the feature spot will be the 42-voice boys choir.

Also appearing on the program will be the combined sixth grade choirs from all six elementary schools, two high school girls groups—the Diamondaires and the Merrinotes, two choirs from Lamar and two from Travis Junior Highs, and four ensembles.

The program will conclude with the Nativity Scene.

One Indian Family Believes Eisenhower Came From Gods

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—One Indian family considers President Eisenhower an incarnation of Vishnu, a benevolent god sharing worship in the Hindu trinity with Brahma, the creator, and Shiva, the destroyer.

A 70-year-old grandmother named Kanthi gave her reasons from her seat in a bullock cart:

1. Eisenhower, like Vishnu, has the might to destroy the world by a mere wish, but keeps it in check as a final defense against evil.

2. Like Vishnu he is a great benefactor—"Did he not send us wheat when we needed it and build us dams?"

Kanthi's daughter, Shanthu, added: "Does not this avatar (incarnation) also smile like Vishnu—a divine, radiant smile?"

"The emperor of America is like our own Emperor Asoka," said Radha Piyari, 50, "preaching the same message of love, peace, nonviolence and truth."

Asoka renounced war at the peak of his glory in the 3rd century B.C. and devoted the rest of his reign to the propagation of Buddhism.

Barbara Eisenhower, the president's daughter-in-law, developed a mild coughing attack while at exhibits at the Indian Red Cross national headquarters.

She was rushed downstairs for emergency first aid—a cup of hot black coffee with one lump of sugar.

"That helps," Barbara said. "It comes on you all of a sudden."

"Probably dust," commented Mrs. Ellsworth Bunker, wife of he U.S. ambassador.

A 17th century tie between India and America is reflected in Prime Minister Nehru's gift for President Eisenhower.

It's an oil painting of Elihu Yale, the Boston-born patron of Yale University who served for a time in the late 1600s as governor of Fort St. George College in Madras, India. The painting is from the college museum.

Eisenhower's gift for Nehru is a bust of Abraham Lincoln, whom the Indian leader admires greatly.

Indian President Rajendra Prasad presented a number of gifts today to President Eisenhower after they had tea together in the garden of the presidential palace, magnificent carving of sandalwood, rosewood and mahogany featuring a horse-drawn carriage in ivory.

The two Presidents sat on a sofa beneath a large blue and white canopy, flanked by aides.

Phone Calls Lead To Altar

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If the Pacific Telephone Co. had itemized its monthly bill, Julia Nye could have saved $100, she told the Public Utilities Commission Wednesday.

One of several witnesses protesting phone company billing procedures, Mrs. Nye said her daughter had been placing toll calls on the sly to a suitor of whom she disapproved.

"The utility refused to render itemized bills," she complained, "and I went on paying the phone bills but protesting every one of them."

Finally, she said, the company monitored her line and told her the calls were made by her daughter. The calls ceased forthwith.

Mrs. Nye was asked for her daughter's name.

"Goodness, is this necessary? She married the guy. She is very happy."

Williams' Condition Listed As Critical

HOUSTON (AP) — Walter W. Williams, last surviving veteran of the Civil War, was in critical condition Thursday.

It was the first time for the 117-year-old Confederate veteran's doctor to use the word critical.

"His heart rate is up and irregular," the doctor said. "His fever is coming down but fluctuates. It looks bad."

Hope, Network In Script Argument

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Did NBC pull some of the plugs out of Bob Hope's TV skit? Tune in Friday night. But you won't learn the answer.

A row over Hope's sketch with Ernie Kovacs developed Wednesday. NBC and the comedian have different versions of the outcome.

But one thing's fairly certain: Hope's viewing audience probably will be larger because of the fuss.

The comedian says NBC tried to eliminate a payola skit from his Friday night show. The network denies this. It says it simply eliminated a few gag references to commercial lines. Hope denies this. He says the filmed sketch was shot as originally planned.

Payola, for the uninitiated, is show business slang for bribing disc jockeys to play certain records. In Hope's skit, Kovacs plays a senator investigating Hope. The latter portrays a low salaried disc jockey who owns a yacht—Herman Payola of station KLIP.

Was it necessary to use product names in identifying payola gifts received by disc jockeys?

"That's a hard thing to explain," Hope replied. "But you have to use them to get the point over."

"In the skit," he said, "Kovacs finally pounds his gavel on the desk, picks up this watch and says 'My Timex is still running'."

Hope said NBC "went to everybody on the show and tried to get the payola spot off. They put the pressure on the producer and everybody else to get if off. They went through the (sponsor's) agency—but the sponsor okayed it. They have backed down since."

Hal Kemp, an NBC program director, denied the network tried to delete the skit.

"It was just that there were more plugs than were good for the show," he said. "Our general policy always has been that if there are plugs unrelated to any comedy incident we want them out."

Livestock Move Rapidly To Markets

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's livestock farmers are pouring an increasing volume of cattle, hogs, sheep and lambs into slaughter markets to fill meat counters for consumers.

Accompanying this upturn in supplies are reduction in prices of both the meat animals and of the meat and other livestock products.

The Agriculture Department's marketing service reported Thursday that sales of hogs for slaughter last week were the largest since the week ended Dec. 1, 1956.

The volume was 14 per cent larger than in the corresponding week last year.

Meat production last week also was the largest since the first week of December of 1956.

The year 1956 was a big livestock and meat production year, featured by a very large hog crop and by heavy sales of cattle from Southwestern drought areas. Production moved downward in 1957, leveled off last year and started expanding again this year.

Last week's slaughter of cattle was 21 per cent greater than a week earlier and 5 per cent above a year earlier. Sheep and lamb slaughter was 15 per cent larger than the same week last year.

The heavier marketing of hogs has been reflected in producer prices. Hogs averaged about $12.22 a hundred pounds at Chicago last week compared with $13.05 a year earlier. This was a reduction of about 32 per cent.

Cattle prices, on the other hand, were down only about 4½ per cent. Supplies of beef have not increased as much as pork.

Agriculture Department officials said there has been some decline in retail prices of pork from a year ago but not as much as in producer prices of hogs.
