"Boom Town" Begins

"Boom Town" Revue began with a 'BOOM' Monday night, as the first performance night kicked-off shortly after its scheduled time and concluded at 11:30 p.m. The colorful firework finale, following the revue, ended around midnight.

Edmund Nejaimey directed the John B. Rogers Company production which thrilled an audience of more than 600 with the history of Mitchell County re lived before their eyes.

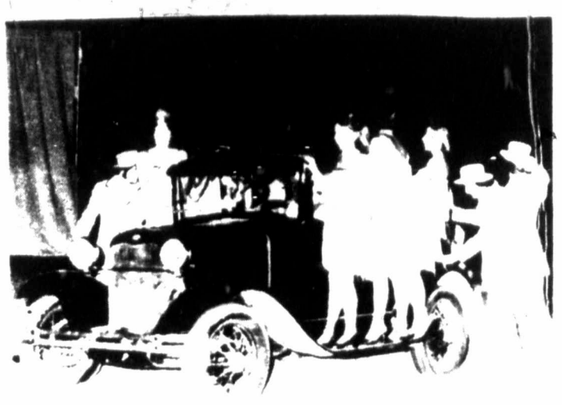

Nejaimey stated, less than a month ago, that he described himself as a "mad" director who would hiss and yell and he assurred everyone that he would give a performance the county would be proud of and that is exactly what he did.

The costumes, lighting, music, narrations and performances, given by more than 125 local men, women and children showed they had put in quite a bit of work and preparation.

The crowd cheered, laughed and sighed as they enjoyed the two hour production that was held in Wolf Stadium.

There will be three more nights of performances; tonight (Thursday), Friday and Saturday, beginning at 9 p.m., each night.

Tickets may be purchased at the gate and everyone is invited to attend.

THIS IS WHAT they're talking about when they say "The Good Old Days!"

Centennial Parade To Fill Downtown Streets

The Mitchell County Centennial Parade is set for Saturday at 5 p.m., in downtown Colorado City.

Starting at 2 p.m., everyone is asked not to park on either side of the parade route from Chestnut and 2nd Streets to 4th and Oak Street, according to Mrs. Jan Lemons, director.

The parade will start from the old Round Top Cafe on 2nd Street and travel down to Oak Street and then up Oak Street to 10th Street. The judging stand will be located in front of the Mitchell County Courthouse.

Participants in the parade are asked to line up between 4 p.m., and 4:45 p.m. The parade will begin promptly at 5 p.m., and will move at approximately three miles per hour.

If entries need dressing rooms, they may use the First Baptist Church, which is located at 3rd and Chestnut Streets, stated Mrs. Lemons.

If local participants do not know their entry number or do not have an entry number, they should contact Mrs. Lemons at Centennial Headquarters or the information trailer on parade day.

Horse groups are encouraged to unload their horses at the Lone Wolf Co-Opatorium at the Old Highway 80 and Highway 208 intersection, added Mrs. Lemons.

Parade numbers will be painted on Highway 80 and there will be signs placed along the parade route to help participants find their starting place. If there is any difficulty, you may contact one of the parade personnel in charge who will be wearing a red bandana and name tag.

Senior citizens who wish to review the parade from the C. C. Thompson Room should get in touch with Janie Benson, who is the head of the Hospitality Committee.

Ranch Gathering Has Huge Turnout

Sunday afternoon at about 3:30 p.m., a bus and numerous cars left Colorado City for the Centennial Camp Meeting at the Renderbrook-Spade Ranch where an estimated 1,500 people attended.

Persons attending were the guests of Marian Bassham, owner.

The evening began with a tour of the historic buildings located on the ranch. Two of the buildings toured included the old white house that was built in 1883 and the bunk house.

After the tour, a picnic supper was held on the grounds under the shade trees of the ranch.

Following the picnic lunch, there was a sermon given by former cowboy, Grand Ole Opry Star, stunt cowboy actor and rider, "Little" George Havens. He gave his sermon, using his guitar for musical illustrations.

All throughout the afternoon, there was special music and singing provided by the local and area churches.

Congregational singing was led by Judge Bill Carter prior to the sermon.

This Centennial event was attended by many local people and some out-of-town people.

Those attended stated they really enjoyed the gathering and looked forward to another.

"CAMP TOWN MEETING SING MY SONG DO-DA"--No that isn't what they're singing. They were one of many groups providing special music at the Camp Meeting.

Gassiot & McPhaul United Saturday Evening

Miss Tracey Gassiot became the bride of Ricky McPhaul on Saturday evening, July 18. Their marriage vows were exchanged before family and friends at First Baptist Church at 7 p.m.

Miss Gassiot is the daughter of Mrs. Kay Fite and McPhaul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McPhaul.

Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt officiated the double ring ceremony.

Organ music was presented before the beginning of the ceremony by Mrs. Chris Hubbard, with selections including "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "Theme From Romeo and Juliet" and "The Wedding Song." Selections sung by Mrs. Hubbard and Chris Hubbard, the bride's uncle, were "Walk Hand In Hand," and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding march was played as a processional for the bridal party and "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" for the recessional.

The church was decorated with a brass arch and spiral brass candelabra. Four brass pots with Boston ferns accented the altar, with burgundy and pink bows accenting the arch and prayer bench.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Scott Gassiot, was attired in a Victorian fashioned gown, of chantilly lace and satin with a Victorian neckline, beaded with pearls. Bishop shadow sleeves gave an added touch to the dress.

Lace tiers draped from the front of the dress to the back to form the chapel length train. The veil was designed and made by the bride's mother and was of chantilly lace and tule.

The bride carried a bouquet made by her mother and Mrs. Tex Blankenship, made of pink and burgundy roses and status. She also wore a garter made by Betty Shawn.

Attending the bride were her matron of honor, Mrs. Dee Ann Morris and Miss Sherry Fite, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, both from Colorado City.

The other attendants were Elizabeth Brewer of Wellington, Darlene Mitchell, of Colorado City and Becky Raesz of New Braunsfels. All the attendants wore gowns fashioned of soft pink and trimmed with pink ribbon and lace. Each bridesmaid carried a single burgundy silk rose.

Serving as flower girls were Christen Kay Hubbard and Haley Thruman, cousins of the bride and groom and candlelighters were Julie McPhaul and Donnell Fite, sisters of the bride and groom.

Serving the groom as best man was Russell Erwin and groomsmen were Randy McPhaul, brother of the groom, Robert Parker, Ronald Proctor and Alan Boyd. Ushers were Blake Reynolds, Kirk Stubblefield and Rusty Merket. Serving as ring bearer was Eric Thurman, cousin of the groom, carrying the rings on a silk pillow designed and made by Mrs. Cheryl Williamson. They were in burgundy tuxedos with light pink shirts.

The fellowship hall of the church was the site of the reception. At the register table was Mrs. Ann Gassiot, sister-in-law of the bride, and at the bride's table, Mrs. Ed Raesz of New Braunsfels.

Kakai Calloway serving at the groom's table was Medina Thurman of Big Spring, Candy Calloway and Carroi Miller. Cindy Calloway passed out the rice bags.

The bride's table was accented with a cake designed and made by Mrs. Jo Miles and the groom's cake was made by Mrs. Tex Blankenship.

The bride wore burgundy slacks and an ecru blouse accented with burgundy flowers for their wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M.

Both the bride and groom graduated from Colorado High School and the groom attended Western Texas College in Snyder. They will make their home here in Colorado City.

Guests attending the wedding from out-of-town came from Wellington, Tex., New Braunsfels, Hurst, Arlington, Hamlin, Amarillo, Oklahoma, California, New Mexico, Snyder, Mt. Vernon and Big Spring.

Local Men Qualify For State

Five local athletes from the Rejects softball team of Colorado City, Rudy Castillo, Jim Petty, Randy Anderson, Pete Parham and Tanis Moreno, Jr., have qualified to compete in Abilene on August 21-23 in state competition.

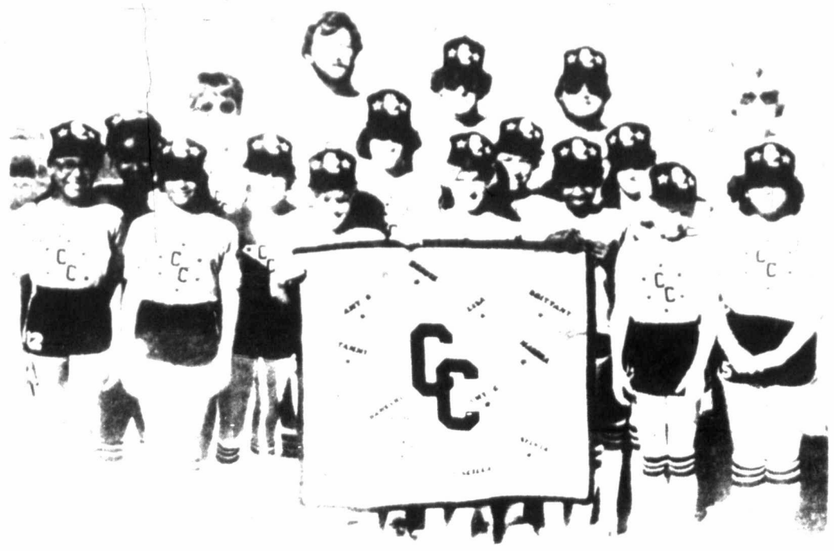

They will be playing with Lupe's Day Care Center of Midland in the tournament in the "B" division.

To qualify for the tournament, (to make the "B" division), they had to place from 5th to 8th place, which they placed 8th, in the Midland regional tournament competition.

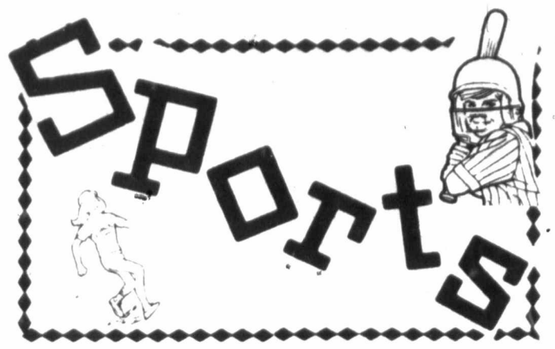

If they place high enough at the state competition, they will then advance to national play.

In the regional competition in Midland, they were playing with national contenders and teams that placed in national finals the previous year.

Phenix Completes Book Of Boyhood

Vance D. Phenix has just completed a book titled, "Three Speeds Forward and One Reverse." This book is a collection of his boyhood memories of events that happened, in what was then Colorado, at the end of the 18th century and early nineteen hundreds.

Phenix is a well-known architect of Houston. He spent his early days here in Colorado. He was the son of Dr. N. J. Phenix, one of the prominent doctors in this area during that time. Dr. Phenix had five sons and no daughters. It was a well-known fact that if nothing was happening around town during their time, they would make something happen for their own pleasure and amusement, whether it was legal or not, stated Phenix.

He retired from his architectural profession several years ago and spent much of his time since then writing his memoirs. He has just recently put this all together in book form.

The book is illustrated by his son, Harold, who is a well-known Houston artist, having had many individual showings in recent years.

His other son, John, has continued the architectural profession and has designed many of the high rise structures sprouting all over the Houston area.

Saturday from 2 p.m., until 4 p.m., Phenix and his son, Harold, will be honored with a reception in the C. C. Thompson Room where autographed copies of the book will be available at publication price of $10 each. Additional copies may be purchased from the publisher for $18.50.

For those who are interested in the activities and happenings of the early days of Colorado, this is an opportunity to get it right from the "horse's mouth," concluded Phenix.

Bollworm Management

By Bill Jany

Cotton is growing good, but so are the bugs!! Our bollworm egg lay has begun as expected and is already relatively heavy in some fields in both counties. Grasshoppers are still reducing stands of cotton in fields in both counties. Fleahoppers are still feeding on squares but the time when you could spray for these pests and escape a bollworm fight has passed. The worst news, however, is that our beneficial insect and arthropod population has declined during this week.

The most important insect in cotton during the next six-eight weeks will be the cotton bollworm. From all indications, this insect and the way you manage him will directly effect your final yield.

To help you learn about the bollworm and how to manage him, we will be conducting turn row meetings each week at the places listed at the end of this newsletter. Also, we will be providing up to date management information on bollworm population levels, beneficial insect and spider population levels for each area of both counties. But you are going to have to do your part, too. Day dreaming on your John Deere won't make the worms go away. Wake up; and learn about how to manage them before you have a serious problem.

Scouting Hints: Since female bollworm moths usually lay their eggs on the young tender leaves of the terminals of the plant, these are the first places to look. Usually larvae which can be easily controlled with microbial insecticides will be found in the terminals, you have to look close on the young squares near the terminal, too. You have to open the bracts of each square around the terminal to do a good job of scouting. During the past several years, bollworm female moths have been laying their eggs randomly all over the plant, so to be safe check several plants completely in each area of the field you check.

I will be at the following locations Wednesday and Thursday of the next six-eight weeks.

Wednesday: Scurry Co.

9 a.m. - Von Roder Seed Farm; 1:30 p.m. - North East Community Center and 4 p.m. - Dunn Gin.

Thursday: Mitchell Co.

9 a.m. - Costin Implement Co., (Ford house); 1:30 p.m. - Cree Mee in Loraine and 4 p.m., Dunn Cafe.

If you need more information about managing bollworms, or need to learn more about field scouting, come by any of these locations on Wednesday or Thursday.

Marriage Licenses Available

Mitchell County Clerk Jo Ann Beach has announced that they have marriage licenses from 1880-1927 in their records that have never been picked up but recorded.

Family members or descendants may pick up the documents at the courthouse at no cost.

The man's name, along with an approximate year of marriage, will be required in order to find them.

According to Mrs. Beach, it will be on a first come, first serve basis to the family members.

Hettie Wilson Dies

Hettie A. Wilson, 81, of Colorado City, died at 6:10 a.m., Sunday in Root Memorial Hospital.

Funeral services were Monday at 2 p.m., in the Kiker-Seale Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in the Dunn Cemetery in Scurry County under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Born Hettie Appleton April 21, 1900 in Johnson County, she married Sam Frank Wilson July 26, 1925 in Scurry County. He preceded her in death on Sept. 12, 1975.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. F. A. Werner of Colorado City, Eva Stevens of San Antonio and Mrs. Pat Bullock of Dallas; a brother, Howard Appleton of Dallas and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Martin Murphy, Bobbie Ruddick, O. J. Stevenson, Billie Jack Scott, Bill Hairston and Ralph Wilson.

5¢ Admits All To See Silent Film At Playhouse

If you have not been to the Colorado City Playhouse yet, to see the "flicker" or silent film, you have really missed a very entertaining 45 minutes, according to Porter Richardson coordinator.

As their contribution to the Mitchell County Centennial celebration, the Playhouse is showing "The Gold Rush" starring Charlie Chaplin, or as he is better known, as the "Little Tramp." Chaplin was the foremost comedian of the 1920's, stated Richardson. The playhouse will be running this silent film for an admission of 5 cents through Saturday.

The movie will be showing continuously each afternoon from 1 p.m., until 8 p.m. The Playhouse will close for the Centennial parade Saturday afternoon, but reopen after the parade is over.

The silent film, from a long-ago era, does not have any sound except for the background music of the old-style nickelodeon theater organ and has printed captions.

Calloway stated that the aircraft flew over I-20 several times, causing many trucks and cars to stop and a few persons to leave their vehicles. For a short time, the east-bound lane of I-20 was closed down because it was thought the aircraft might need to make an emergency landing. Some truck drivers wanted to shoot the aircraft down, Headrick reported.

Two local pilots, Don and Jimmy Browne, advised that their aircraft was available to assist and help land Huerter's plane. Deputy Calloway and the Browne brothers went up in the aircraft to see if Huerter was having mechanical troubles. They stayed up and watched the aircraft for about an hour and a half and then went to the new city airport to see if the aircraft had landed. Huerter had landed at the Trulock Ranch landing strip according to Deputy Headrick and Chief of Police Jimmy Roundtree and they made the arrest.

The subject's airplane was taxied by one of the Browne brothers over to the airport where it was secured.

The subject was charged with public intoxication and taken before Henry Doss, justice of the peace. He was charged and given the maximum fine allowed, $203.50 and released.

Roundtree said The Federal Aviation Administration of Lubbock was investigating the matter.

Loraine Area Personals

By Ida Baird

Mrs. Beatrice Bruce arrived home Friday after visiting in Arlington and in California the past 16 days. She visited a son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Daylon Bruce in Arlington several days and flew from there to San Diego, Calif., for a visit with another son.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bruce, Jr. While gone, she visited a grandson and family in Bakersfield and two granddaughters and families in San Diego.

They also visited Disney Land, Sea World, the Wax Museum, had brunch at Lawrence Welk's golf course tea house, attended Sunday School and church and sat in their class, where there were more than 200 members. One treat she enjoyed was a visiting friend of her daughter-in-law, and seeing her assortment of dolls and doll houses. She makes the doll houses and dresses all size dolls for sale. Mrs. Bruce was given a doll which she says she now prizes very much.

xxx

Visiting Mrs. Frances Porter and Mrs. Lois Hobbs last week were their sisters and brother and wife, Misses Essie and Wanda Gillean from Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Gillean from Odessa. Also, others visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newcomb and daughter, Janet and Mr. and Mrs. David Newcomb, Austin, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thompson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson and family of Midkiff.

xxx

Mrs. Barney Popnoe of Comanche visited her mother, Mrs. J. D. Norman and she returned with her. They visited another daughter, Irene Norman in Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas where she was recovering after undergoing major surgery. Also visiting there, was her other daughter, Mrs. Rodney Lee of Waco. After visiting in Waco and back to Coleman, Mrs. Popnoe brought her home Friday.

xxx

Ginger Duke of Rotan visited her grandmother, Mrs. Trixie West, July 14 and 15. She also visited her other grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Duke. She and her mother, Mrs. Bonnie Duke visited again Sunday and Mrs. West joined them and attended the services and activities at Spade Ranch Sunday afternoon.

Leisure Lodge

by Marsha McAdams

Drawing a large crowd up to the lobby was accomplished by the appearance of Colorado City's Centennial "Blue Belles." Several melodies about Mitchell County's Centennial was sung for our enjoyment then leaflets were handed out outlining all the programs and entertainment during the Centennial Celebration.

The "Blue Belles" also presented the home with a cake which they enjoyed after supper. These ladies' dresses were commented on by many for the colors were many and the style was depictive of early pioneers, muddy street and boardwalk days. Their visit will be remembered by us for some time to come. Members of the "Blue Belles" visiting were Mmes. Raymond Fuller, Mrs. G. D. Foster, Mrs. W. O. Daniel, Trina Taylor, Josie Randle and Ray Anne Carlock.

The activity department provided a trip to Loyd's Place in Colorado City for Ann Parham, Vera Robinson, Alice Tucker and Emma Shaddix. These ladies really like fried chicken and enjoyed the trip out.

At our last musical, a large crowd showed up and we also had a doll cake presented to Ruth Walker for her birthday. The cake was made by Jean Boyd who works here at the home. On that same evening, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jordan celebrated their 49th anniversary with a cake brought by Naomi Jordan and family of Colorado City.

Many visitors and family were here for the anniversary celebration and enjoyed our musical as well.

Naomi Forbus celebrated her 87th birthday at a party provided by her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brewer of Loraine and granddaughter, Theresa of Big Spring. The cake decorated with yellow flowers and served from a table laid with blue lace decorated with an arrangement of spring flowers. Many family members were in attendance as she opened her gifts. Celebrating birthdays in July with Naomi were also her daughter, Melverna Brewer and granddaughter, Theresa from Big Spring.

Bingo gifts were given to us by Ruth Sunday School Class of Loraine Baptist Church. They were brought to the home by Clara Butler, president and Stella Harris, treasurer. Many thanks for remembering us.

Michael Hackfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hackfeld, has been a good volunteer in assisting us with bingo this summer and we will miss him after school starts. He has provided enjoyment to us all.

Thanks to Mrs. Percy Bond for clothes, Marvin King for cucumbers, Mrs. Lee for clothes, Melverna Brewer, for bingo prizes, Jo Ann Merket for squash and cucumbers, and Punk Hale for bingo prizes.

Henry Ring provided church services for us Sunday and we wish to thank him for such a strong voice in singing and for the good service.

Eldon Graham Is Honored Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Graham and children were treated to a homemade ice cream and cake supper at the Lions building Saturday night before Eldon had to leave for Germany.

Visiting and picture taking went along with enjoying the ice cream and cake.

Present with Eldon and family were Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Graham and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graham and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Graham and Holly Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Graham, Howard Preston, Ellis Phillips, Sharon Meza, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rainey, Mrs. Edwin Hallmark, Rev. and Mrs. David McNary, Christa and Scott all of Loraine and Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Graham, Elizabeth and Jennifer of Colorado City, Joyce and Steven Fortenberry of Big Spring and Mr. and Mrs. James Graham of Lubbock.

Sgt. Eldon Graham flew from Midland Monday for Rhinemaine Air Force Base in Frankfurt, Germany for a two-year assignment. His wife and two daughters will make their home in Loraine while he is away.

Smiths' Annual Reunion Is Held

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Smith of Loraine, met July 11 in the Housing Authority Center for their annual reunion with 63 persons present.

Their children and their spouses present were Mr. and Mrs. Burl Smith of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Smith of Rosoce, Mrs. Mary Caswell of Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Lee of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Loal Brown of Odessa.

Sixteen grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren were there from Odessa, Lubbock, Stephenville, Plainview, Miles, Amarillo, Loraine, Colorado City and Stanton.

Others visiting with the family through the day were from Odessa, Muleshoe, Plainview, Loraine, Colton, Ca., Amarillo and Abilene.

UNDER ONE ROOF!

It gives you clout with your banker. It's nice to know that you have "influence."

When you save where you bank, you save time, energy and it's scarcely worth the gasoline to drive down the street to collect that extra ¼ of 1% interest.

A bank makes every kind of loan, offers every type of savings account and a large variety of Certificates paying high rates. Just save where you bank. It makes life easier.

Live warmer and help hold down your bills.

You may not feel quite comfortable at first when you set your thermostat at 80° or higher, but most people adjust very quickly to living warmer. At the same time, if you dress cooler and use a fan, you may not even notice the difference. But it will help hold down your electric bill.

Letter To The Editor

Loraine's daredevil, Dave Smith, not satisfied with jumping motorcycle over autos, will now attempt jumping a semi-tractor over autos.

The truck that will be used is a '79 International Transtar II Eagle, which is used to transport items from coast to coast. The truck has not been altered in any way, which means it is stock, and Smith says this can be done, but will take hours of thought and practice.

Smith, who has been injured in cycle jumps, said it is the most difficult jump that he has ever attempted, but hopes all will turn out all right.

Promoters have billed this jump as "The Great American Truck Jump."

Several people have jumped autos, busses, and cycles over autos, but this is the first time anyone has attempted a jump with a truck.

Smith is employed as a truck driver for Matlock Farm Supply in Colorado City, and is one of the finest daredevils in the U.S.A.

The sight and date of the jump has not as yet been disclosed at this time. Dave Smith may be crazy, but I sincerely hope that all goes well and the great American truck jump, is a success, to Dave Smith I say, Good luck, and may God bless.

Safety Week Proclaimed

County Judge Bill Carter has proclaimed July 25-31, 1981 as Farm and Ranch SAFETY WEEK in Mitchell County, at the request of Dwayne Harris, Mitchell County Farm Bureau President.

This marks the 38th Annual National Farm Safety Week, co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The theme for the 1981 observation of Farm Safety Week is "Enjoy Life-Safely."

In his proclamation, Judge Carter said "accidents involving farm and ranch residents, employees and guests at work, in the home, at play and on the highways accounted for more than 330 Texas fatalaties and more than 3,300 disabling injuries, costing millions of dollars in 1980.

Time, planning & educational efforts using engineering ingenuity could help prevent much pain, expense and even death. National Safety Council accident surveys indicate that nearly half the accidents were traffic related, with home accidents, recreational accidents and work related accidents following. With 106,000 fatal accidents in the United States in 1980, and with agriculture accounting for more than 4,200, we need to endeavor stronger to "Enjoy Life-Safely."

In concluding his proclamation, the Judge urged all agricultural producers, their families, employees, and guests to read, take training courses to prepare for a safer life or to administer to those who become involved in an accident. Therefore, we are more fully prepared to "Enjoy Life-Safely."

Officers Installed For Ruth Class

In the business, the class voted to give fifteen dollars to purchase bingo gifts for the Loraine Nursing Home. They also voted to serve the meal on Tuesday, August 4, for the evangelist, singer and pastor and family during the revival scheduled for that week.

The following slate of officers and teacher were re-elected: president, Mrs. Clara Butler; vice-president, Mrs. Pauline Smiley; secretary, Mrs. Eathel Mearse; treasurer, Mrs. Charlie Harris; group leaders, Mrs. Teance Hays and Mrs. Vada Preston and teacher, Mrs. Frances Porter.

CHS Flag Corp Take Big Honors

The Colorado High School 1981-82 Flag corps recently attended the Howard Payne University Flag Camp.

The flag corps competed in evaluation exercises every day. On the first day, the girls received a third place ribbon after a shaky performance.

After that, they could do nothing but improve and this is exactly what they did. The next two evaluations, the girls received two blue ribbons. This year, only two trophies were given.

One was for the "Most Outstanding Flag Corps" in which Colorado High lost by 18 points to a Dallas school, Richardson-Pierce. This trophy was given to the corps with the most points totalled after three evaluations.

The other trophy, "The Honor Corps" trophy, was given to the corps with the most enthusiasm, discipline, as well as talent. It is a traveling trophy, meaning if one corp wins it for three consecutive years, they keep it permanently.

The Colorado High Flag girls succeeded in winning this trophy, thus bringing it home to add to the many band honors of Colorado High School.

This year's flag corps consists of Nina Bodine and Angi Neff as co-captains, along with Robie Raschke, Kristy Frizzell, Debbie Hull, Becky Albin, Janice Glasscock and Sonja Mercer.

Their sponsor, Mrs. Kitten Arthur, made a great contribution to the flag corps' success at camp. We expressed our appreciation to this special lady, stated the girls.
