1932 Political Fireworks Set Off As Democrats Launch $1,500,000 Drive

DINNERS HELD IN 50 CITIES IN CAMPAIGN

Hoover Informally Entered In Race as Opponents Lay Plans

CAUTION SOUNDED

Al Smith Silent on Plans After 'Draft' Move Is Suggested

(By The Associated Press)

Political firecrackers bursting in all sections of the country last night reminded the nation a campaign year had arrived.

In some 50 cities, the Democrats held a series of simultaneous dinners, launching thier "victory campaign" for $1,500,000 to erase the party deficit and put it in position for a flying start after the Chicago convention.

Hoover Entered

During the day, President Hoover's name informally was entered for renomination. The announcement was made by Postmaster General Walter Brown, who said whatever necessary would be done to obtain the needed number of convention delegates.

Several thousand Democratic leaders gathered at the dinner in New York and heard Gov. Frank D. Roosevelt, candidate for the presidency, say the party "can never tolerate abuse heaped upon the person" of the president.

"Hand in hand with the campaign to spread knowledge and thereby in the long run elliminate prejudice," he said, "we have a further task as a party—so to conduct ourselves that we shall never be made the object of the accusation that we have dealt our opponents a blow below the belt."

Roosevelt was endorsed yesterday as the party's prsidential candidate by the resolutions committee at the North Dakota state Democratic convention.

Also addressing the New York meeting, John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee in 1924, said the fund-raising campaign has "no connection even the most remote with the aspiraiotns of a possible candidate."

Praise Raskob

Both Roosevelt and Davis praised the leadership of John J. Raskob, chairman of the national committee and of Jouett Shouse, chairman of the national executive committee.

At Boston, Alfred E. Smith, the 1928 nominee, had the platform for an extemporaneous address. Before hand when asked if he would discuss the possibility of becoming a presidential candidate, he said:

"No sir! That issue is not before the house tonight. This is a fund raising campaign."

Later, Mr. Smith maintained silence on his plans for 1932 in the face of a prediction that the party will "draft" him as its candidate.

The prediction came at the close of the address by Smith. The former governor had appealed to the members of his party to make a "frank, open and honest declaration" on prohibition in its 1932 platform and to take a straight forward platform stand generally but had avoided all references to whether or not he would himself be a candidate.

As he stopped speaking, Daniel Gallagher, of Boston, jumped to a chair. Addressing the governor, he said:

"Governor Smith, the newspapers have been saying to you for the last few days, 'tell us your plans,'

"Keep That Derby"

"Go slow with your plans until

Stock Exchange Seeks Facts of Corporations

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—The New York stock exchange today sent a letter to the presidents of corporations whose securities are listed, urging the corporations to supply the exchange with many facts respecting finances, which not all corporations have been in the habit of giving in their annual statements.

The purpose is to enable stockholders to gain a clearer idea of the actual value of their securities and to give them other facts which the exchange contends they are entitled to.

The letter lists 11 requirements among which the following are the most important: Segregation of earned surplus from capital surplus; disclosure of differences between cost and subsequent retirement of or resale of a company's own stock; full disclosure of any change since previous report in basis of valuation in investments, inventories on property account; full disclosure of any change in depreciation policy; explanation as to source of "other income."

Parley on Railroad Wages Is Postponed

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (UP)—Railroad presidents asked and obtained today postponement for 24 hours their wage parley with representatives of nearly 2,000,000 workers.

Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio, thus spent the afternoon in conference with eight other rail heads, "ironing out" as he put it, doubts regarding the powers of the men representing one far western and one eastern railroad to negotiate with the unions.

Governor Of Hawaii Defends Acts Attacked In Congress

Figures in Hawaiian Crime Muddle

Gov. Lawrence M. Judd of Hawaii yesterday defended himself against charges in congress that he was to blame for crime conditions on the island. The situation reached a climax when a native was killed after five men had attacked Mrs. Thomas H. Massie (above, right) whose husband, a naval lieutenant, (below) is one of four persons held for the slaying. Besides Massie, Mrs. Granville Fortescue and two enlisted men are held. As Governor Judd answered the charges contained in a report made to the house in Washington, the Honolulu district attorney yesterday announced that "outside counsel" would be sought to aid in the prosecution of the four defendants as well as in retrial of four men on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Massie.

HONOLULU, Jan. 14. (AP)—Defending himself against congressional charges blaming him and other officials for crime conditions here, Gov. Lawrence M. Judd today announced he would ask the territorial legislature to make the offense of criminal assault punishable by death or by life imprisonment.

Answering the report of a house naval subcommittee that he had contributed toward the recent crucial situation by pardoning a man accused of assault upon a woman and that the man later was one of the five accused of the attack on the bride of a naval officer, Judd asserted the person informing the congressional investigators had been "grossly misinformed."

Judd admitted granting executive clemency to the man but said he had issued no pardon.

Outside Help Asked

The engagement of "outside counsel" to prosecute four persons accused of the murder of Joseph Kahahawai, suspected attacker of a naval officer's wife, and to handle retrial of the attack itself was asked today by James F. Gilliland, city and county attorney.

"I feel," said Gilliland, "that it is absolutely necessary to engage outside counsel due to intermingling issues in both cases that will create an embarrassing situation in my office."

The case of Mrs. Granville Fortescue, society matron; her son-in-law, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie and two navy enlisted men charged with the abduction and slaying of Kahahawai, one of the five suspected attackers of Mrs. Massie, tentatively had been set for hearing before the grand jury immediately after its organization tomorrow but Gilliland could not definitely state that the matter would come up as scheduled.

Gilliland indicated investigation would continue pending the engagement of assisting counsel.

Grand Total	$1,380.00

In the quiet hours just before midnight Thursday night, Wichita Falls closed its school lunch fund campaign with all the money the City Council P.-T. A. estimated necessary to feed hungry children until the end of the term.

The final total was $1,380, and to a group which must remain known to the public only as the "Hardily Able Oil Operators and Map Makers" went the honor of putting the drive over the top. At 11 o'clock The Record News made its final count and placed the fund at $1,252, just $128 short of the amount estimated two days ago by the P.-T. A. as necessary to assure a warm luncheon for every needy child until the end of school. Then the telephone rang.

"How much do you need to put that school lunch fund over?" asked a voice.

"Come and Get It"

Some hasty figuring followed, and then the answer was given, "just $128."

"Well, come over here and get it," said the voice, giving directions as to where the group would be found.

And a Record News staff member went over and received a check with a half dozen names that spell power and influence and many other fine qualities in Wichita Falls' daily life. "No names, no names," said the spokesman, "just say the hardly able oil operators and map makers want to close this drive up."

So there you are.

With the $128 gift, receipts on the final day of the campaign totaled $220.75. Among the other large contributions during the day was a gift of $50 from the Wichita Falls Ice company. Contributions came in slowly during the morning Thursday and it appeared the fund would be closed with less than $1,200 collected. Then came the $50 check from the ice company and $10 checks from Mrs. J. B. Marlow and the Benjamin Franklin P.-T. A. and a number of others to swell the fund to more than $1,250. The final midnight gift reached the sum believed necessary to assure warm luncheons for all needy children until the end of school.

No appeal for funds in recent years has demonstrated so forcibly the willingness of the people of this city to aid those in distress; nor has any campaign so clearly shown Wichita Falls' ability to care for its needy.

Oil Operators Honor Eddleman In Banquet

150 North Texans and Visiting Leaders of Industry Hear Talks on Conservation of Resources

With "glory, glory, conservation" as their theme song 150 North Texas oil men gathered at a banquet at the Wichita club Thursday night in honor of Capt. E. H. Eddleman for many years a leader in business and in civic life in Wichita Falls who has recently been made active vice president of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association necessitating his removal to Fort Worth.

A number of men from other cities prominent in the oil industry of Texas joined with members of the North Texas Oil and Gas association at the banquet complimenting Captain Eddleman. Included in this number were J. D. Collett, former president of the Midcontinent Oil and Gas association; Charles F. Roeser, chairman of the American Petroleum institute and president of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association, and E. A. Lundreth, treasur of that association.

Captain Eddleman's service to the community and to the oil industry of the state were lauded, his especial fitness for his duties in his new position were set forth and the necessity and benefits of conservation, not only to oil men but the entire citizenship of Texas were emphasized. T. F. Hunter, president of the North Texas Oil and Gas association, presided as toastmaster. He called upon N. H. Martin who told his long association with Captain Eddleman and of Captain Eddleman's record of service in this community and to the oil industry. Mr. Eddleman responded with words of appreciation to the compliment of the meeting and told something of his duties in his new position.

J. S. Bridwell introduced Mr. Roeser who discussed the necessity of controlled oil production in Texas. Mr. Roeser said Texas was now producing 40 per cent of the oil produced in the United States and that conservation engineers estimated there were four billion barrels of oil stored in proven pools in Texas. Producing at the rate of 300 million barrels annually, he pointed out, it would require 12 years to bring this oil to the surface if no new pools were discovered. He said that only 15 per cent of the oil produced in Texas was used by the people of Texas, 85 per cent going out of the state. He said that in one year the oil industry had paid more than $59,000,000 in state taxes. All these facts, he

Bank Robberies Prod Search for Outlaw

PADEN, Okla., Jan. 14. (UP)—Charles Arthur (Pretty Boy) Floyd, notorious outlaw wanted for the murders of 11 men, was hunted throughout east central Oklahoma tonight as one of three bandits who looted two banks of $6,000 today.

Three men robbed the First State bank of Castle, west of here, of $3,000 at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Less than two hours later they took $3,000 from the First National bank of Paden.

Floyd was identified as one of the bandits in both cases, bringing to more than a score the number of bank robberies he is believed to have committeed within a year's time. One of his companions was a tall blond man.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Jan. 14 (US)—William Hightower, president of the miner's union at Evarts, was found guilty today of the murder of Deputy Sheriff James Daniels and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

Later today his attorneys appeared before Judge H. R. Prewitt to ask that the court set next Monday for hearing a motion for a new trial. The request was granted.

Hightower's conviction is the second in the campaign of the state to punish the men responsible for the ambush and slaughter of three mine guards in the Harlan county coal fields last May 5.

$25,000 RAISED IN C-C DRIVE

Junior and Senior Groups Near Goals

Workers plied up signed membership cards and money in the chamber of commerce offices here Thursday afternoon as the first reports of the joint junior and senior membership drives, launched Wednesday, were made.

The senior body already had $25,000 in cash and pledges, just $10,000 short of the budget goal. No tabulation of members enrolled had been made Thursday night. Many corporations with out-of-town offices have not been heard from, and a large number of prospects have not yet been reached. The work will go on until early next week, when final results will be known.

The junior organization counted 250 members at the close of Thursday's work. One hundred more are wanted. Collections were for only the first quarter, but amounted to approximately $800. The 1932 budget calls for $4,200.

In this organization, too, results were far from complete and many new names are expected to be added before the drive formally closed next Wednesday. Officials were unable to determine which teams had won the box of cigars offered to every unit signing up 70 per cent of its prospects. R. F. Noe and George Gardner were tied for the individual grand prize with at least 40 new members to their credit. The winner will be named at the close of the campaign.

A similar deadlock appeared in the senior drive, with several members having signed up 100 per cent of their prospects and some having exceeded the list.

H. R. Cramer, general chairman for the junior campaign, will sort all unsigned cards Friday and divide the remaining work among the working units for the final push. Mr. Cramer said at least 600 young Wichita Falls men have been or will be approached.

C. H. Featherston, senior chairman, declared his workers met with an enthusiastic response even when the prospect had been unable to subscribe to the budget.

"They seem to know the chamber of commerce is needed more than ever," the chairman said, "and to realize that the individual's future depends upon the future of the community."

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14. (UP)—The federal government today brought to a close its prosecution of mail fraud charges against the Universal Oil and Gas company when the organization's officials were assessed penitentiary terms and fines by Judge Edgar S. Vaught.

S. E. J. Cox, who once served a prison term with the arctic explorer, Dr. Frederick Cook, was sentenced to 10 years in the Leavenworth, Kan., federal penitentiary as Judge Vaught overruled his motions for a new trial. He was fined $5,000.

Cox's wife, Mrs. Nell E. Cox, was sentenced to 18 months and fined $200.

Big Oil Concession Given Few Days Prior to Grant of Loan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Assertions that Secretary Mellon, in his private capacity as a capitalist, intervened last June in negotiations to extend a loan to Colombia were heard and at once denied today before committees of congress.

A charge that the treasury secretary was active in obtaining a Colombian oil concession during the loan discussions was made by Representative Patman, a Texas Democrat, before the house committee hearing his plea that Mr. Mellon ought to be impeached. The accusation largely was based on newspaper dispatches and a letter from an unnamed citizen of Colombia.

Connection Denied

State department officials, appearing concurrently before a senate committee investigating foreign loans, denied there was any connection between the Colombian credit and any oil discussions which may have taken place. Tomorrow Mr. Mellon's own representatives will reply to Patman before the house committee.

The story of the state department's activities with reference to the loan and the concession was related to the senators by Francis White, an assistant secretary of state, and Freeman Matthews, assistant chief of the department's Latin-American division.

White flatly refused to give the committee for publication correspondence between the department and the Colombian legation regarding the oil concession. He continued to refuse, after Senator Johnson, Republican, California, had drawn from him a statement that he had read one of the communications to a New York banker.

From Matthews, Johnson obtained testimony that the $4,000,000 Colombian loan was held up by

The Byrns bill is favored by Speaker Garner and other Democratic leaders and is opposed by the administration.

Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas, suggested personally to White House officials that Jesse H. Jones, Houston financier, and Nathan Adams, president of the First National bank at Dallas, be considered.

Bernard M. Baruch, New York financier, has been spoken of repeatedly as one of the directorate, and possibly its chairman.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 14. (US)—Josephus Daniels, war-time secretary of the navy, tonight was in a serious condition as a result of a brain concussion suffered yesterday when the automobile in which he was riding brushed a second car, went over an embankment and hit a tree.

Attending physicians and specialists agreed tonight that while Mr. Daniels' condition was serious, it was not critical. His wife was at his bedside, however, after she had been summoned here from Raleigh, N. C., where the former aide to the late President Wilson owns and edits two newspapers.

Mr. Daniels was not thought to be injured seriously when he was admitted to the hospital, but his condition became steadily worse. He also was suffering from cuts about the face, painful body bruises and his wrist was fractured.

HOUSE RAISES FARMER LOANS

Recnostruction Measure Is Amended

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (UP)—Two hundred million dollars of the $2,000,000,000 Hoover reconstruction finance fund was set aside by the house today, despite administration protest, for loans to farmers.

The closing debate on the leading feature of the president's economic program brought a parliamentary tangle, however, which probably will delay the bill's final enactment until next week.

After a long day of argument, punctuated by an attack on Gov. Eugene Meyer of the federal reserve board, the house prepared to vote tomorrow on its own measure. This is certain of passage with Democratic and Republican support. Afterward the senate's own reconstruction bill, passed Monday night, will have to be consolidated with the house measure and then sent to conference for adjustment of differences.

City Loans Defeated

Meanwhile the last hope of near bankrupt big cities for loans from the new corporation fund was wrecked, when Representative Lindsay Warren, Democrat, North Carolina, presiding over the house, ruled that an amendment authorizing such financing was not germane to the purpose of the bill.

The house also took decisive ac-

Houston's 'Poor Neighbor' Counties Threaten Boycott Over License Suit

HOUSTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Denounced by the officials of 28 surrounding counties for their action, the Harris county commissioners today began a court attack on the validity of the state automobile license tax law.

Just before the court convened, county judges and commissioners of the 28 neighboring counties, members of the East Texas County Judges and Commissioners association, met here in extraordinary session and passed a resolution condemning the Harris county commissioners for bringing the suit and threatening a boycott of Houston and Harris county.

The larger counties, the plaintiffs charged, bore almost the entire burden, while some 195 "poorer" counties were required to turn over to the state none of their collections.

Assistant Attorney General T. S. Christopher, outlining a defense plea, said the tax was not an ad valorem tax, but one to permit a motorist to operate over the highways of the state. He said "immense traffic," originated in Houston daily and used highways in other counties, as well as this one.

The resolution of the visiting county officials called the suit a "near sighted, bigoted and narrow minded," effort; declared many poor counties were "almost bordering on bankruptcy largely due to good roads activities fostered by Houston and Harris county interests"; suggested that if the commissioners persisted in the action the business interests of Houston and Harris county should "keep their automobiles, truck and commercial vehicles off of our roads and out of our counties."

Building Projects Already Under Way In Texas Total More Than 70 Millions

Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio and Austin Lead Larger Cities in New Construction

By ROBERT WEAR
Associated Press Staff Writer.

DALLAS, Jan. 14.—The brightest streak showing on the Texas business horizon just now is the fact that public and private construction projects already planned for 1932 will amount to approximately $70,000,000.

Of that amount, funds for most of the projects already either available, contracts awarded, or plans are being drawn and financing is practically accomplished. The survey touches most of the larger cities of the state.

Public and private building projects already in definite form will total from $8,000,000 to $11,000,000 at Houston; probably $10,000,000 at Fort Worth, $7,500,000 at Dallas, $7,000,000 at San Antonio, $4,000,000 at Austin, $750,000 at Beaumont, $500,000 at Galveston, and in Panhandle-Plains communities, approximately $6,000,000. In addition to these, the state highway department contemplates the expenditure of about $32,000,000 on highway projects in 1932.

New Houston Hospital

At Houston, municipal improvements definitely planned for 1932 would cost $4,831,000. One of the largest of these will be a $1,500,000 charity hospital. The remainder of the money would be used for streets, bridges, sewer lines and similar improvements.

The city of Houston already has spent about $2,000,000 as its part and the Southern Pacific railroad $1,000,000 on a passenger station project which will cost in all about $6,500,000.

Although the projects have not been announced by their backers, C. F. Brown, city permit clerk at Houston claimed he had information he could not divulge at present that an 18-story downtown office building to cost about $1,750,000 and a 12-story downtown office building to cost about $1,000,000 would be started in 1932. The only known private building project of consequence for 1932 in Houston was a four-story downtown manufacturing plant, the cost of which was not announced.

Perhaps the largest single project in prospect for 1932 at Fort Worth was a federal neuropsychiatric hospital on acreage near Forest Hill, the estimate cost of which was $4,350,000.

Plans now are being drawn for a new federal building in Fort Worth, a $1,000,000 structure which will be erected on a $300,000 site fronting on Burnett plaza. The greater portion of a new postoffice building at Fort Worth, costing $1,225,000, yet is to be completed. It is to be opened about Oct. 1. A new Masonic temple costing $500,000 is approximately half completed.

Railroad Projects

The city of Fort Worth, the Texas and Pacific and Frisco railroad will join in a short time in construction of three viaducts at railroad and street crossings there, one costing $167,000, another $218,000, and the third $102,000. The Santa Fe railroad plans to construct a new freight house in Fort Worth and the Union Passenger Station company has announced plans for a new Jones street station, the entire program costing in the neighborhood of $1,500,000. Completion of a $1,000,000 Sinclair oil refinery also is in prospect during 1932.

Dallas projects for which funds are available include a Corinth street railroad underpass, $245,000; Trinity heights road, $120,000; Turtle creek crossing, $20,000; Kessler outer boulevard paving, $40,000; Dallas-Fort Worth pike widening and a Commerce street cut-off, $750,000; Garland pike widening $200,000; Dallas county jail addition, $100,000; and smaller road projects, $35,000 to $50,000; two new junior high schools, $500,000.

The Texas and Pacific railroad has announced its intention of erecting a $500,000 freight terminal at Dallas. Plans are drawn and financing is being arranged for an 18-story downtown office building and also for a 25-story downtown hotel in Dallas.

In addition to these, the city of Dallas plans the expenditure of $500,000 on sanitary sewers, $1,550,000 on storm sewers, $2,200,000 for street widening and $750,000 for paving.

Schools Planned

Actual building projects for 1932 in San Antonio will bring the total for 1932 within $900,000 of the total of $3,281,864 for the entire year 1931. Topping the list is the plan for school expansion, contemplating the expenditure of $1,341,550 for new buildings. A new federal building is the second largest project, with a $1,400,000 appropriation made by congress. Of this amount, $325,000 has been spent for additional space for the new building, which is to occupy the site of the present San Antonio postoffice.

In addition to the two major building programs in San Antonio, the city is seeking to dispose of a $2,450,000 improvement bond issue to be used this year. Bexar county is preparing to ask a bond issue of $5,670,000 for road building. If voted, this money would be matched by $3,000,000 in state funds.

Army construction at San Antonio is expected to continue this year at about the same rate as in 1931, the major development proposed being a skyscraper hospital at Fort Sam Houston to cost between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000.

Contracts for eight buildings aggregating $3,500,000 in cost probably will be let by University of Texas regents early this year. The state highway commission also plans to start construction on a $500,000 office building.

Beaumont Activity

Leading the list of definite construction projects for 1932 in Beaumont is a new postoffice, to cost approximately $400,000. Plans are in the hands of architects and bids are expected to be asked early this year. Within the year, wharves and other facilities for the Intra-Coastal canal will be built at a cost of $98,000. Contracts have been awarded for street paving costing $50,000 and $40,000 is to be spent on buildings and developments of the new Beaumont airport. Plans are being drawn for a $15,000 waterworks warehouse and city park improvements will total $12,000. Sewers and other city work will total approximately $27,000 and a department store owner has announced plans for a $20,000 residence.

HAWAII CRIME PROBE STARTS

Justice Department Sends Agent to Island

Mitchell made public a suggested program for the inquiry, which was ordered by the senate.

Mitchell proposed investigation of the operation of federal courts in prohibition and narcotics cases in the islands, and of the law and administration of Hawaiian courts, police, jury system and parole board.

Of prohibition and narcotic cases, the attorney general said:

"While offenses of the kind which have recently attracted attention are not within the jurisdiction of the United States court and are not dealt with by the United States attorney or officials of this department, it would be well to consider how efficiently violations of federal statutes are prosecuted within the district as this has a bearing on the general crime situation."

Richardson—51-year-old chief of the department division handling land cases, investigated Ralph Kelley's sensational charges against the interior department's oil land leasing policies.

The attorney general acted as a move toward direct inquiry by the senate pressed forward on Capitol hill, and while a demand came from Honolulu for "outside counsel" to prosecute four Americans accused of murdering an alleged attacker of Mrs. Thomas H. Massie.

On the equities of this case, which brought conditions of reported lawlessness to concentrated attention here, cross-talk continued today between men in the capitol and leaders in the Pacific territory.

A house committee ordered sent to Mitchell a report demanding steps to insure "a fair trial" to Mrs. Granville Fortescue and other Americans accused of the killing of Mrs. Massie's alleged assailant. Another resolution for investigation of the government of the territory was introduced by Representative Gibson of Vermont. Without touching the merits of the Massie case, Mitchell emphasized that "cases of the type which have recently attracted public attention are not within the jurisdiction of the United States district court nor of the United States attorney."

Regarding the weight of evidence required in certain criminal cases in Hawaii, also, the attorney general suggested study. Criticism has been heaped on the circumstance that Hawaiian laws prevent conviction for assault solely on evidence of the prosecutrix. A jury disagreed in the trial in which Mrs. Massie testified to the alleged attack.

There were 8,015 saloons in New York City before prohibition.

Wife Was Fat

No Longer Attractive

Lost Husband's Love

The above headlines appeared in a New York newspaper of April 4 in connection with a divorce trial that has attracted wide attention.

"She was a beautiful woman," one witness testified, "but she got fat and is not attractive any more."

Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do.

If you are fat how would you like to lose it and at the same time gain in physical charm and acquire a clear, clear skin and eyes that sparkle with buoyant health?

And gain in energy and activity?

Why not do what thousands of women have done to get rid of pounds of unwanted fat? Take one-half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast and keep it up for 30 days. You can help the action of Kruschen by cutting down on pastry and fatty meats and going light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar. Then weigh yourself and see how many pounds you have lost.

Kruschen Salts are a blend of 6 mineral salts most helpful to body health. Best of all, a bottle of Kruschen Salts that will last you for 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Ask Allison Drug Store or any druggist for a bottle and start to lose fat today.

Its the safe way to reduce but be sure you get Kruschen—your health comes first and remember this if you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.—Adv.

MELLON NAMED IN OIL TRADE

Patman Lays New Charge Against Seecretary

American bankers several weeks and finally granted after the state department had interceded.

Concession Debated

During that time, Matthews said, the Colombian legislature was debating restoration of the Barco oil concession to the South American Petroleum company, which is chiefly owned by the Gulf Oil company, known as one of the "Mellon companies."

The resolution passed the legislature June 18, Matthews said, and was signed by President Olaya June 20. The loan was extended June 30.

"We will let the facts speak for themselves in that regard," Johnson replied.

"Strange Coincidence"

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, characterized the proximity of the events as "a strange coincidence."

Patman wants to establish that Mellon should be removed from office for taking part in private business while serving as secretary of the treasury.

Other major contentions in Patman's closing statement today were:

That Mellon, a large holder of the Aluminum Company of America, used his position as the head of the federal building program to further use of aluminum; that he authorized large tax refunds to himself and corporations; that internal revenue bureau employes are afraid to make a ruling against one of Mellon's companies in a tax case.

The cup is offered each year to the rural school making the best improvements on the school grounds. No admission fee will be required for the fiddlers and there will be no admission charge at the door. First, second and third winners will be selected in the fiddlers contest. A ring will be given to the most popular girl, and the prettiest girl selected will be presented a cake. A prize will also be given to the man with the largest feet. Pop corn, coffee, candies, and sandwiches will be offered for sale. The proceeds will be used to improve the school grounds.

Women Arms Delegates Will Present Petitions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Four American women will carry to the Geneva disarmament conference disarmament petitions signed by approximately half a million of their sex.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, chairman of the national committee on the cause and cure of war, said today these petitions will be added to those of millions of women from 46 other countries.

The delegation, which will sail next Wednesday, on the same boat with the official United States delegation, is composed of Mrs. Ben Hooper, Oshkosh, Wis., chairman; Mrs. Frank Day Tuttle, New York City; Mrs. L. H. Fradkin, Montclair, N. J., and Mrs. Nathaniel Bilder, New York City.

LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 14. (AP)—Andres Ortega, 19, died today of an abdominal wound. He was cut with a piece of glass Tuesday at a Laredo bakery. A charge of murder was filed against Francisco de la Rosa, 18, accused of responsibility for his injury. De la Rosa said the cutting was accidental.

forced him to stop work. He died at 10 o'clock Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. G. A. Brewer in Dallas.

When he first came to Wichita Falls Mr. Hill was associated with the North Texas Furniture store as embalmer in the undertaking department. The Hill Undertaking company, now the Merkle organization, was his next business project. He was also a partner in the Landon-Hill sporting goods store.

Mr. Hill's business interests later branched into the oil industry where he was an independent operator for some time before his connection with the Petroleum Producers company.

Leading Sportsman

Sporting interests and participation in civic projects brought Mr. Hill to leadership in Wichita Falls and her neighbors. He was instrumental in the organization of the local Izaak Walton league and was its first president. He also headed the West Texas Fish and Game association, parent organization of the Walton leagues.

Past exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, a leader in Rotary, a Mason, and active in many civic clubs, Mr. Hill was a significant factor in the life of Wichita Falls for many years. He served the city as alderman and at one time was a candidate for mayor.

Survivors include two daughters, a brother and three sisters. The daughters are Misses Madeline and Kathryn Hill. Owen Hill, Moody, is the brother. Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Lev Covey, Dallas, and Mrs. Carver King, Winnsboro, Texas, are the sisters.

HOUSE RAISES FARMER LOANS

Reconstruction Bill Is Amended

tion to rewrite the bill's specifications for the seven-man board of directors of the reconstruction corporation, which was cited by one member as the "largest financial entity ever set up by a government."

Terms Restricted

On motion of Chairman Henry B. Steagall of the banking and currency committee, the house adopted an amendment restricting the term of the four appointive directors to two years, instead of five. This, it was brought out in debate, will enable the Democrats to put in new members in 1934 if they win the 1932 presidential election.

The huge farm relief appropriation was adopted by a vote of 120 to 112 on motion of Chairman Marvin Jones of the agriculture committee.

This amendment may be brought up for another vote tomorrow before final passage and the administration is expected to try to eliminate it there or in the senate when it comes up for final adjustment of differences.

Meanwhile, with the $125,000,000 farm loan bill awaiting final adjustment of differences after passage by both houses, Hoover's project for establishment of 12 federal home loan discount banks was given critical scrutiny by a senate committee. More opposition is in prospect to this than to the other measures now nearing enactment.

THE DAY IN WASHINGTON
(By The Associated Press)

Committees in the house from the Republican organization for prohibition reform and the bi-partisan wet block agreed they should unite in supporting a state liquor control referendum.

Rear Admiral George H. Rock told the house naval committee ships under the proposed Vinson $616,250,000 building program would help prevent disorganization of private shipbuilding yards.

The senate recessed to give committees time to get proposals in shape for action.

Oliver Townsend, former commerce department attache in Peru, told the senate finance committee his superiors instructed him to be cheerful in reporting Peruvian business condition. Secretary Lamont sent a denial the department had received from Townsend warnings against loans to Peru.

Postmaster General Brown announced President Hoover would stand for renomination.

Assistant Attorney General Seth W. Richardson was given command of a justice department investigation of law enforcement in Hawaii, and a house committee ordered a report to the attorney general demanding steps to insure "a fair trial" for the Americans accused of murder there.

"I WAS determined to have a clear skin."

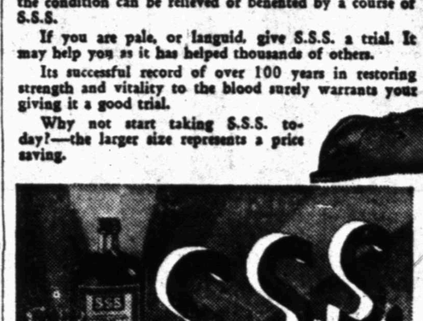

"Some one told me of S.S.S. . . . now I am so glad the last pimple is gone."

Whenever bad complexion or blemishes on the skin are due to a low blood count, or to a lagging appetite, the condition can be relieved or benefited by a course of S.S.S.

If you are pale, or languid, give S.S.S. a trial. It may help you as it has helped thousands of others.

Its successful record of over 100 years in restoring strength and vitality to the blood surely warrants your giving it a good trial.

Why not start taking S.S.S. today!—the larger size represents a price saving.

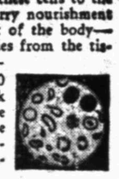

Builds Sturdy Health

Why you should be interested in your Blood Count

(Left) Microscopic view of healthy red blood-cells. The blood stream should contain about 5,000,000 of these cells to the cubic millimeter. They carry nourishment and oxygen to every part of the body—they also remove impurities from the tissues.

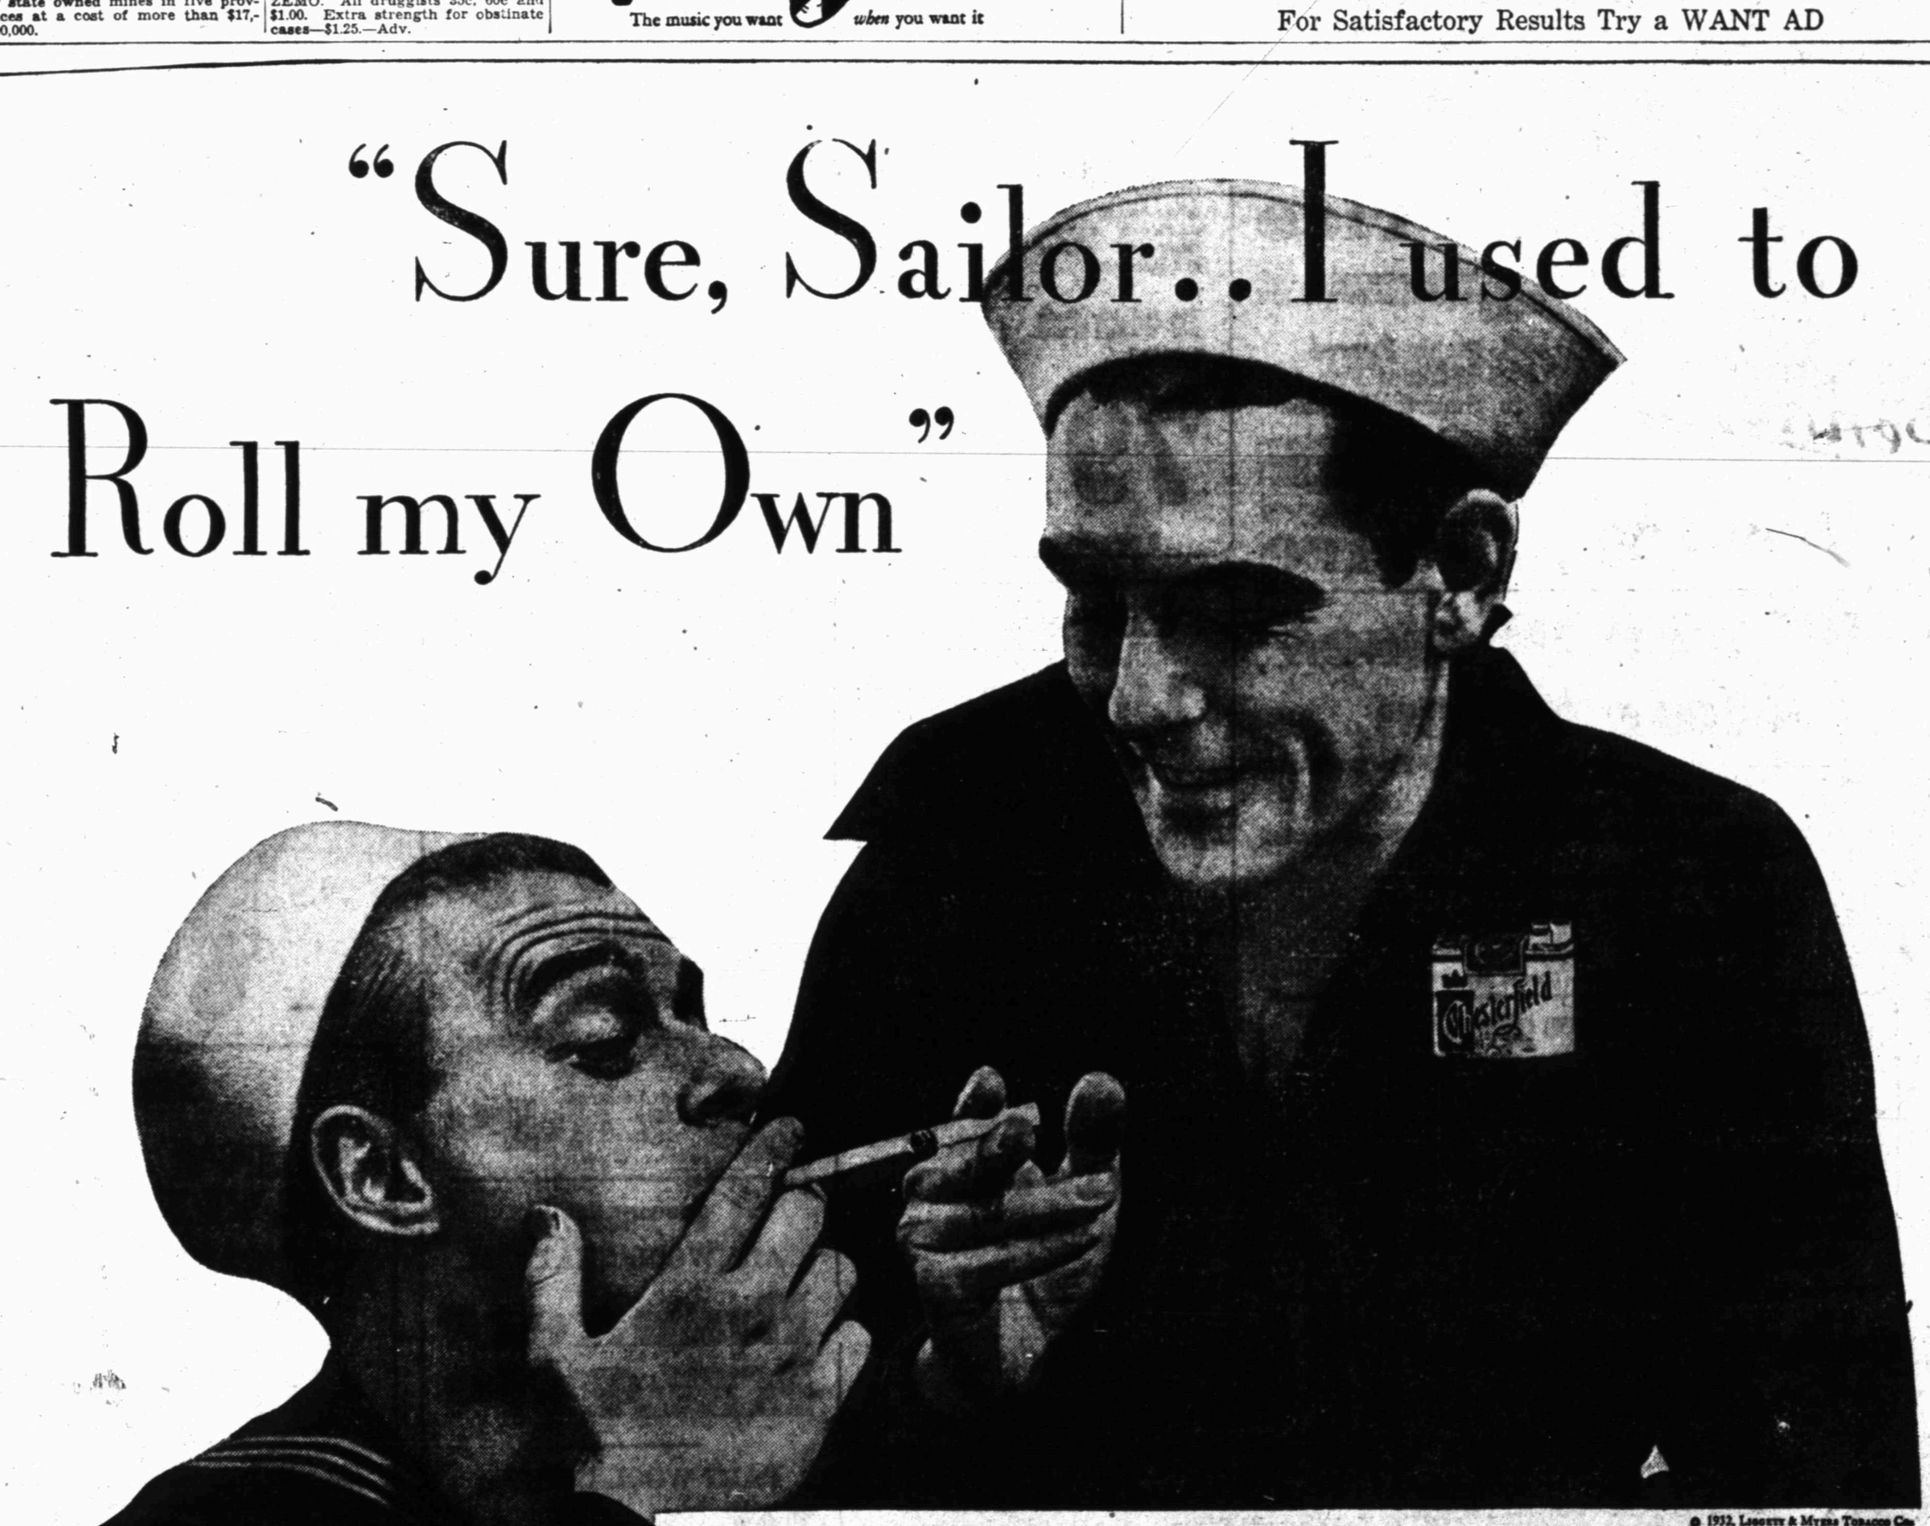

(Right) Weak red-blood-cells—only 60 per cent of normal strength—they lack the power to resist infection and disease or to rebuild flesh and to carry away the impurities. Such a condition is often responsible for body weakness, paleness, sallow complexion, pimples and boils.

Don't let them count you out!

HAWAIIAN CASE STUNS SOCIETY

Friends of Mrs. Fortescue Recall Courage

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Aghast over the Hawaiian murder, with its prolog of attack, society can talk of scarcely anything else these days.

Patrician Grace Fortescue, with her graying hair, arrested for the slaying of a native Hawaiian—her friends living here 5,000 miles away—say they cannot believe it.

Only an inner circle knew why Mrs. Fortescue so suddenly left the comfortable mid-Victorian house of the Roosevelts at Bayport, L. I., last September after a cable from Honolulu.

But those who have known her since girlhood say they can well imagine her state of mind when she learned her youthful daughter, Thalia, wife of Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, U. S. N., was in a hospital after an attack by Hawaiian natives.

"Grace would have been president if she had been a man," The World-Telegram today quotes a saying of her late father, Charles Bell, head of the American Security and Trust company, in Washington.

A courageous, able, brilliant, and lovable woman, the newspaper says her friends describe her. She has blue eyes and a slim, straight figure, is an excellent golfer, likes bridge, and loves riding.

A mutual love of horses and the thrills of canters and jumps were a strong bond of interest between her and her adventurous husband, Maj. Granville Roland Fortescue, who now is ill with pneumonia in a hospital here.

At school, Grace was at the head of her class.

Mrs. Fortescue's father died two years ago.

When Grace Bell and Granville Fortescue were married in Washington 21 years ago this June, it was an important event on the social calendar. Miss Bell was pretty and popular. Fortescue was a cousin of Theodore Roosevelt, and had been a roughrider in the famous troop.

The Fortescues went to Central America after their marriage, and there the bride learned to speak Spanish. She knows French, German and Italian also.

Vice Runs Rampant in Honolulu, Federal Intelligence Officer Says

Special Report Declares 'Booze, Women and Games' Are Plentiful in All Parts of Island Resort

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (US)—Honolulu is a city where vice runs rampant, according to an official report of the situation written for the federal government by a special intelligence officer in federal service.

Dope peddlers, bootleggers and the more sinister peddlers of commercialized vice, find the land of Aloha a utopia, according to the report. Disorderly houses are said to flourish in nearly all parts of the city, the inmates for the most part young girls in their teens—white girls, Japanese, Chinese, mixed-bloods, black-and-tans, Portuguese and Hawaiians.

"Soaked in Rum"

The city is described as "soaked in rum," and the report states that practically any form of dope is easily obtainable, whether it is cocaine, morphine, or any of the many other forms of narcotics.

"Anything you want, mister, anything at all—booze, women, games—what will you have?"

This is the boast and the "selling line" of the touts who nightly ply their grisly trade on numerous streets almost within a stone's throw of the business section and some of the highest class residential districts of Honolulu.

Police Inactive

Police are aware of the location and activities of scores of houses of ill fame, bootleg joints, gambling dens and hangouts for hoodlum gangs, but have taken little or no action to close them up.

White women, most of whom come to Honolulu from the United States mainland, cruise the business section and exclusive residential streets in limousines, distributing their cards to prospective guests.

This is but a sketchy summary of vice conditions in Honolulu, as described in fullest detail in an official report of the situation, written for the federal government by special intelligence officers in federal service.

15 Vice Districts

This report states that brothels are scattered throughout the city and county of Honolulu, but 15 separate streets are listed as comprising the "real vice districts."

The report then describes each street of vice. Of River street it says:

"This street is infested with dives of the lowest order. Commercialized vice is rampant. In the block between Hotel street and Pauhai street and in the block of Pauhai street are numerous establishments conducted by Orientals.

"Beginning at Beretania street, and continuing along River street, practically one out of every three stores or houses, is a bootleg liquor shop.

Liquor Prices

"Most of these establishments peddle liquor in bottles, half-pint selling at 75 cents or $1; pints at from $1.50 to $2, and quarts at $2.50 or $3."

On Aala street and Aala park, the report says:

"Practically every building on both sides of this street is used for commercialization of vice."

Turning to the Ala Mona road, where Mrs. Thomas H. Massie, wife of a young naval officer was criminally attacked by five natives, the report said:

"Squatterville, situated on Ala Mona, on the side toward the mountains, near the Waikiki drainage canal, consists mainly of hastily constructed shacks—infested with bottleggers."

FREDERICK, Okla., Jan. 14.—Frederick's amateur radio enthusiasts, members of the Radio Amateur club, were hosts to other amateurs in nearby Texas and Oklahoma towns, at a dinner given at the Hotel Frederick Tuesday night.

Lewis Browne Will Lecture On "This Believing World"

Lewis Browne, author and lecturer, will be presented by the Woman's Forum Thursday, Jan. 21, at 8 p. m. in a lecture on "This Believing World."

The book that brought Mr. Browne fame is "This Believing World." Seldom does a book so completely meet the desires of many diverse thousands of readers as this simple account of the religion of mankind. In the vivid manner of which Lewis Browne is master, the book pictures man's religious beliefs through the ages—the ancient Celts, Babylonians, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, Hindus, Chinese, Persians, Hebrews, Arabs, and peoples of Europe—down to our own times.

Lewis Browne has a simple, direct and charming way of telling his story. He proves that in the hands of a competent writer, religion may be made as fascinating as romance. His earlier books on religious history have been translated into many languages, and have already found a sure place for themselves in contemporary literature.

Although Lewis Browne has just entered his thirties, he is recognized as one of the outstanding figures in the intellectual life of the United States. His historical and biographical works have been read by millions of people; some of them are now in use as texts or as collateral reading in institutions of higher learning both here and abroad.

"Since Calvary," an interpretation of Christian history, his maturest and best documented work thus far, is being received with even greater acclaim than was accorded his other books.

Crockett Mothers Study Child Habits

Approximately 12 mothers of the Crockett School Primary Study club met Thursday morning at the school to continue the study of "Every-day Problems of the Every-day Child." The themes discussed in the meeting were "Habits and Discipline."

Mrs. D. J. White talked on habits, stressing the thought that they were tools by which one achieves health, happiness and efficiency and that conservation of time, strength and material resources, depended on the habits. She stated that habits limited ones ability to make and retain friends and to take part in community life.

Discipline was discussed with Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, chairman, leading. Discipline was emphasized as the greatest responsibility of the parents and interesting moral equivalents for punishment were suggested. Among these were tact, the manipulation of the environment of the child and self-discipline on the part of the child. "We are not trying to beat obedience into our children, one mother said, "but rather to teach them to discipline themselves."

Travis School P.-T. A. Studies Child's Work

The causes of failure in grade schools were discussed in a splendid talk given Wednesday afternoon by Miss Merle Barnette, third grade teacher, when members of the Travis school P.-T. A. met at the school in the regular monthly session. The child's health, eyesight, nervous system and his regular attendance were emphasized as important factors in his work and parents were urged to visit schools while classes were in progress so they might know how to deal with these problems.

An impressive talk on "Patience," was given by Mrs. Margaret Mix and W. E. Walker, principal of the school, gave an instructive talk on interesting work in the school.

Children of the second grade under Mrs. Bessie Johnson, gave an impressive pageant, "Time," and an eloquent plea for clothing for the thrift exchange was made by Mrs. R. E. Phillips.

Mrs. J. D. Frost gave an inspiring devotional and in the room count, Mrs. Bessie Johnson's room was high and won the banner. There were 52 members present.

Mrs. Hogsett, who has spoken in the city several times, is a favorite with all who have heard her. She is not only well informed on all Y. W. C. A. matters, but has a beautiful depth of sentiment and a scintillating wit that make each of her talks brilliant and effective. More than 250 invitations have been sent out to her friends, but the general public is invited. The meeting will be in the form of an inspirational session. Mesdames Glen Laskey and P. P. Langford will be in charge of the program.

BenFranklinP.-T.A.Hears Lecture On Food Selection

An address on "Food Selection and Food Purchasing," by Miss Pearl Rorabaugh, Red Cross nutritionist, featured the monthly meeting of Ben Franklin Parent-Teacher unit Thursday afternoon. "Scars that may result from improper feeding are scars that cannot be wiped out," Miss Rorabaugh stated. She stressed daily needs for the body whether for children or adults as milk, vegetables, fruit, small amounts of meat, eggs, fats and sugar and said, a serving of whole wheat is worth while. A diet of this kind, Miss Rorabaugh said, contained the proper amount of vitamins, minerals and even calories.

Each member was presented by the speaker, with a list of three types of menus.

Mrs. Ray Wilhite led the singsong opening the meeting, with Miss Bernice Ewing at the piano. Mrs. Solon Featherston gave a beautiful devotional from the Psalms. Mrs. N. M. Clifford was in charge of the program and announced the numbers.

Actually over 40—

"I am over 40!"
MARY BOLAND

"There's no magic about keeping the charm of youth," says this popular Broadway star who triumphed last season in The Vinegar Tree. "It's just a matter of regular complexion care. For years I've used Lux Toilet Soap."

"I'm over 45!"
NANCE O'NEIL

"It is said that a woman is as old as she looks, and a man as old as he feels," says this famous star of the stage and screen. "Several years ago, I discovered that regular care with Lux Toilet Soap would do wonders for my skin and I use it regularly."

"I'm over 40!" says
NAZIMOVA

"Only the woman who looks it is afraid to admit her age," says this famous screen star who is now winning fresh laurels on Broadway in Mourning Becomes Electra. "For years I have used Lux Toilet Soap and my skin is so smooth."

...But these lovely stars know the Secret of keeping Youthful Charm

ANY woman can laugh at birthdays—if she is wise. The recent photographs above are proof of it! "Very few actresses look their age, you notice," says lovely Alla Nazimova. "It is easy to be lovely at sixteen or seventeen, but to be still lovelier at thirty, at forty, and over . . . well, that is easy, too, if a woman is wise."

Because keeping youthful charm is vitally important to them, actresses take vigilant care of their skin. You will want to know how!

9 out of 10 Screen Stars use it

One favorite soap keeps lovely 98% of the exquisite complexions you see on the screen. Of the 613 important actresses in Hollywood, including all stars, 605 use Lux Toilet Soap for their skin. The stage stars, too, overwhelmingly prefer this gentle, fragrant white soap.

"There's no reason to care about birthdays if you realize the importance of complexion care," says Mary Boland wisely.

Start today to give your precious complexion the care nine out of ten screen stars use to keep youthful charm!

BODY OF MAN FOUND IN BOAT

New Murder Mystery at Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Jan. 14. (INS)—The third murder mystery to confront South Texas officers in the past six months was baffling Nueces county authorities here today as result of finding the body of a 60-year-old unidentified white man in a 14-foot skiff on the south side of Nueces bay, about five miles west of Corpus Christi this afternoon.

Rudolph Garza and Francisco Charco had been oyster fishing in Nueces bay and discovered the skiff in the high grass near South Short. They investigated and found body clad in trousers cut off at knee and long winter underwear. There was no shirt or coat on the body. A lumber jacket was folded up under the body. The head was caved in and near his body was a jack handle. The handle was clotted with blood and gray hair. His pants pocket was turned inside out, indicating robbery.

The body was badly decomposed. It was estimated he had been dead between five and six weeks.

"Safety-Sealed" FOR FLAVOR-PROTECTION

-That's why

Death Valley's scorching sun could not impair it!

Because of the exclusive "Safety-Seal," M·J·B's rich flavor remains unchanged after 67 days exposure at temperatures reaching 165°

"Identical in freshness and flavor," declared experts after comparing Death Valley "test" coffee with coffee just roasted . . . On this committee were Chef LaFaille, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco (shown here); Professor W. W. Ogier, Jr., Calif. Institute of Technology; and Geneviève Callahan, Editor Sunset Magazine.

The most grueling test any coffee has been put to!

For over two months the blazing sun of Death Valley* beat down upon it.

M·J·B Coffee stood this test! Returned from Death Valley, a committee of impartial experts found this coffee as fresh and flavorful as the day it was packed!

The exclusive M·J·B "Safety-Seal" that guards its precious flavor proved impregnable against time and temperature. Flavor "Safety-Sealing," invented by M·J·B is the truest vacuum process, because the seal on the bottom of every M·J·B tin can close only if all oxygen is out. No other coffee has this protection.

Remember, flavor once escaped is not there to enjoy. There is one sure way to know that you are getting a richer blend with all the original flavor. Ask for M·J·B —highest quality coffee in the only "Safety-Sealed" tin.

Death Valley, Calif., 276 feet below sea level. Lowest, hottest and dryest point in United States. This was one of 61 different flavor tests to which M·J·B was subjected.*

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE SIMPSON

WASHINGTON.—In the light of developments in Paris and London after formal ratification by congress of the Hoover debt postponement project, the history of section five of the ratifying resolution takes on new significance.

That is the tail added by congress on its own motion, a tail which some of its sponsors, at least, expected to wag the whole governmental dog.

It expresses the "policy of congress" against cancellation or reduction of war debts due the United States and, in so far as it can, serves advance notice that no such proposals will be favorably considered by congress.

A Solid Front

And on that part of the resolution, at least, it is to be inferred that both houses were unanimous.

No vote was taken in either house on the direct question. But the list of those who voted against the resolution includes virtually every man who wanted to go even farther than section five does in an effort to restrict presidential freedom—even to talk with other governments about the debt question.

Congress could not, in any direct way move to limit the constitutional powers of the president over foreign relations.

The chief executive may undertake any character of negotiations he sees fit. In this instance, however, any action he might take as to cancellation or reduction of war debts would be in the face of specific warning from congress that any resulting agreement probably would not gain approval.

As French statesmanship pressed for an international conference on reparations and, presumably, on inter-governmental debts, it is conceivable that this expression of congressional policy might have seemed more of a help than a hindrance to President Hoover and his advisers in meeting urgings for American participation.

Ready-Made Argument

It could at need be made an unanswerable argument for keeping out of that picture.

And there was some intimation as plans for the Geneva parley were carried forward abroad that the Washington administration promptly availed itself of that interpretation of section five.

As a matter of fact, the apparent unanimity in congress on this anti-cancellation or reduction rider strongly suggests that the policy expressed is apt to be presented at both party conventions this summer for embodiment in 1932 platforms. It is now in no sense a partisan issue.

Cotton Continues to Move in Childress

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, Jan. 14.—Those who are closely connected with the cotton business express the opinion there are close to 10,000 bales of cotton still in the fields of Childress county. The weather has been against picking for the past two months, only a day or two at time being favorable. But as the weather is clearing off and becoming warmer considerable cotton is now coming in.

Buyers state a large amount of cotton is being held by the farmers, which will not be sold until later in the spring, as many believe prices will go up about that time. The compress at Childress will handle about 35,000 bales. The local cottonseed oil mill will have a run of about six months, according to present indications.

Duncan Man's Patent Held Valid by Court

Special to The Record News.

DUNCAN, Okla., Jan. 14.—Patents of Erle P. Halliburton of Duncan on a process for mixing cement for oil wells and the apparatus used were held valid in a decision by the federal circuit court of appeals at Denver, according to word received by Ben F. Sayre, attorney for the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing company.

Making Restitution

A MAN walked into a Kansas City drug store the other day and insisted on giving the manager 50 cents. He explained that the store had given him 50 cents too much change upwards of two years ago, and it had been preying on his mind ever since; so, having given it due thought, he finally came in and made restitution.

Little incidents of this kind aren't uncommon. Almost every storekeeper has experienced them. Public officials are forever getting tiny sums from conscience-stricken citizens who got away with something on their tax bills a decade or more ago. It happens all the time.

But the funny thing is that it's almost always on such picayune little wrongs that conscience does its most effective work. When a man decides to make restitution for some long-dead misdeed, the total cash involved is generally something under five dollars. We seem better able to live with mortal sins than with venial faults.

And this, very likely, is due to a queer quirk in human nature; a quirk that enables us to get along with our consciences by picking out for atonement some perfectly trifling peccadillo that our creditor has long since forgotten. Paying an ancient 50-cent debt is a kind of salve that eases the smart of much larger debts which never will be paid.

It may be that that is simply our way of recognizing that we are helpless. For the really damaging mistakes that we make—the bits of folly and blindness that keep us awake nights—are things for which we can never, by any means, make restitution. The friendship that we shattered, years ago, the youth whose ideals we carelessly demolished, the person whose life we helped to make bitter by prejudice or misunderstanding—these things we cannot remedy. To try to turn back the clock is foolish; to try to set right an old wrong is, in many cases, equally futile.

So we pick out some little thing, put it right, and hope that conscience will be appeased.

What to Publish?

THE extensive survey of the publishing industry in America, concluded recently by investigators for the National Association of Book Publishers, asserts that the publishing industry is in a very bad way because publishers are incurably hopeful and fail to chart the sales possibilities of projected books as accurately as they might.

Publishers, the survey says, have a habit of believing that each book that is published may, with a break in the luck, become a best seller. This permits unsound principles of book selection to operate, with the result that the publisher loses money on a tremendous percentage of the books he issues.

That there is room for vast improvement cannot be doubted. But the publishing industry will always be exempt, to a certain extent, from the rules of ordinary business. There will always be books that need to be published, whether they are to make money or not. A good publisher must be something of an optimist. If he is too good a business man, literature is apt to suffer.

Rosenwald's Wisdom

ONE OF the finest things the late Julius Rosenwald did for the nation was to preach and act against the establishment of perpetual trusts.

Himself one of the greatest givers the nation has ever had, he had the wisdom to see that times change from generation to generation, and that it can be highly risky to tie up a huge sum of money for all time to be devoted to one specific cause. He felt that a charitable bequest should not exist from generation to generation, under the rule of a dead hand; instead, he preferred to see such a fund spend its money and do its work with comparative rapidity, leaving to future givers the problems of future times.

Mr. Rosenwald thus not only gave lavishly, but gave wisely as well. The nation has suffered a profound loss in his death.

An Interesting Experiment

ONE of the most interesting experiments of the year is being undertaken by a group of people in Pratt county, Kansas. These people have bought 100 bushels of wheat at a price of $1.25 a bushel—a long way above the market price, you will notice; and they have sent it to a milling company to be made into flour, after which a baker will turn it into bread which is to retail at the prevailing retail price.

How much will the organizers of this little stunt lose on each loaf of bread? Or will they, perchance, not lose anything at all? Will they even find it profitable to turn wheat into bread, at prevailing prices, when the wheat costs $1.25 a bushel?

The answers to those questions will be worth seeing.

A Columnist's Sec'y Jots Down a Few Notes

Dear W. W.: Jeff Machamer, now doubling on Chas. Dana Gibson's weekly, and Jack Shuttleworth will be in at 10:30 tonight, wants to clown a profile on you... The Morntelly repudiated your Joyce de Ruyter item with a yarn in which it claimed it interviewed Peggy...She phoned to say no one from there talked with her—and that what you said was correct... Beatrice Blinn phoned...Said she is legally separated from Crane Wilbur, that she wasn't his 5th frau, but his 6th!...That Wilbur and Lenita Lane probably want to marry, but BB won't give him a divorce and son on...I told her that their severest friends and best critics were saying that Crane and Lenita were secretly sealed, not you...Too many of your better-wishers phoned to remind you not to be a loafer—no matter what happens in the night places—that you have too much at stake and nothing is that important...The cocktail quip credited to Maceyoor Laval appeared in a New Bedford throw-away several weeks ago, according to Levy of International News Photos...I told him, however that you finally recalled hearing George Hassell use it in "The Circus Princess" many seasons ago.

Will you please mention the Press Photographers' Ball, due Jan. 29 at the New Yorker,...I traced the writer of that letter—just as you suspected—but let it drop, please, he's sick over it, and is afraid you will not appreciate his sincerity... He admitted, too, sending complaints in the same manner to other critics...Say, it wasn't so long ago that you went in for hero-worshiping yourself, you know...J. W. Simmons called. Says that the present depression is like a drunken woman...No one knows what either will do.

Harold Seton says that you indicate femme's seems thuswise ! ! and the Thomaston, Ga., Times says it gees lots that look like ( ), but Seton insists that it is not as bad as seeing those that look like) (...If you want to see what drug stores looked like 20 years ago—before they were given over to everything but drugs—look at the chemist shop at the NE corner of 3d Ave. and 18th St....The Santly Brothers' latest is called "Starlight"...One clown wants to know why you are not called a Horridscoper?...Since you've been going in for public improvements, Dana L. Cotie wonders why you don't ask the authorities to fix up Broadway between 65th and 70th Sts.... The worst looking sector along the whole Artery.

Jane Franklin wants to know if you ever used "gigoloafer"—Jane being another of your inconstant constant readers...The Columbia Spectator phoned—wanted to know the name of the professor being considered for appointment to the Transit Board...Vallee will sing that song Thursday night. It seems the writers of it had arranged a wrong orchestration for last night ...775 letters last week—this does not include the mail from ciggies or the station...Norman Anthony called. Said you are the damnedest guy he ever saw. Just because some guy writes you and says his mag swiped an idea you have to go and tell everybody—and that if you don't like this country, then why don't you go back where you came from?...Had me in sections...Tell all those writer-inners that "y" and "w" are vowels only when they begin a word or syllable...I'll learn you yet!

Some Syracuse clown called to offer: New York is divided this way—Sassiety on the West Side—Society on the East—and sousiety in between...Sam Redbeard, of Astoria, offers: "Prohooverbition" ...Not bad...Hoffman called and said that he hears that since Wrigley became associated with Paramount they are thinking of changing "Chico" Marx's name to "Chicle" Marx...Did you see the announcement at the Capitol for "West of Broadway?"—maybe too late now...Here's a joke: "What's the difference between the Pulitzers and Scripps-Howard?"...The answer, which is supposed to leave newspaper men limp, is: "All the difference in The World!"...The war against that type of magazine is something to make Ballyhoo sick about...It has to suffer for the drivel of its poor imitators—and now the censors in the South (in sweeping the mimics off the stands by law) decided to include Anthony's mag. That's a shame...I appreciate your point all the more now...I know you are happy over the statement given out by the Will Hays' office on the charges against your carbon copies on the coast... Get in touch with Charlie Freeman or Arthur Willi at the RKO offices.

When you gave a boost to the "dime full course dinners" served at the Seamen's institute you put your foot in it . . . At least 20 of the men phoned and were bitter about it, because they do not rate a full course dinner for their dimes, but considerably less . . . And they all wondered how you fell for such propaganda . . . It's marvelous isn't it? . . . I mean that every time you pen a posey lately you get socked back with a scallion?...People I'm afraid, prefer the below-the-belt stuff . . . If you say something nice they decide you got paid to say it . . . If you seem mean, they rate you as a good critic or a person "Who Isn't Afraid, etc."

. . . You were a little premature on the Barbara Smith-Oscar Levant elopement when you announced it several weeks ago . . . The Junnel carried the confirmation yesterday, however . . . No, that Jane Meagher - Herndon's brother item was not in the script. You ran it in the col'm and said; "Jane Meagher, the outstanding deb of the year and Herndon's brother are uh-huh now that Woolworth Donahue has gone to Africa to hunt with Gary Cooper," or something like that—too lazy to look it up.

I was looking over the old Vaudeville News files for Machamer today and found so many squibs you could use all over again . . . How you played up Joe Frisco in those days! . . . Those gags are good again—use them! . . . Why not run some of that "torch" verse—you big sentimentalist! . . . Found the column where you first used the title "Your Broadway and Mine"—over a poem—March 24, 1922 . . . "It rehearsed me how to brood—it prepared me to be shrewd" . . . "Broadway fooled me, Broadway ruled me, Broadway schooled me how to cry—though it bumped me, thumped and trumped me—Broadway's where I want to die!" . . . I liked, too, the parody on Arthur Chapman's "Out Where the West Begins" . . . "But I hope and pray when I go to my Maker—my cortege goes slowly somewhere near Longacre—and not where the West commences!" . . . Gee, 1922—a decade ago . . . When you didn't write such cracks as "Get the gravy while you can and the hell with the fellow who comes in second!" . . . or "Get it while you're hot—you stay cold a long time!" . . . Somehow, those files reveal something more human, mister—honest.—R. C.

125-MILE RUN IN ONE DAY—Euchidas of Plataea, Greece, ran from Plataea to Delphos and return in a single day between sunrise and sunset. CHAPTER LIX

Like a bricklayer piling up bricks, Dolan piled up his evidence, and piled it up uncombated. He was trying this case better than he had ever tried a case. He was afraid of Steve Ashe, who had said to him on the opening day with a grin, "Well, Pat, you've come up in the world since I last saw you." And he knew that politically he could count on the Sutro papers and the Sutro millions if he won. These things sobered him, and quieted the nasty antagonism and personal feeling that usually carried him away.

He had little enough to make him lose his temper or to worry him. Stephen Ashe sat staring ahead of him, half dozing in his chair. Weak and futile were his efforts now. He let Williams, who testified damningly to Ace's first visit and to his absolute coolness on the night of the murder, go without a question.

"The old man's blown up, that's all," said Mikkleson, who was star reporter for the phalanx of Sutro henchmen in the press box.

They were standing around in the judge's chambers after court had adjourned. The judge had gone home.

"I was in this very courtroom," said the fat old bailiff, who had been a stage driver in his youth, "when he broke old Hauptmann. The old Dutchman didn't have a nerve in him, he didn't, but Ashe got him after six days. Six days he had him on that stand, but he got him."

"That wasn't a patch on the Kerrigan cross-examination," said Scotty, speaking for the first time. "That's in the books as the best piece of cross-examination ever done in an American courtroom. Why, he led old Supervisor Kerrigan along just as gentle, and as nice for two days. He's asked him a lot of questions and then he'd drop an innocent little one in and go right on like he hadn't asked it. And on the third day he asked Kerrigan one question—just one—but it was the last of that innocent little string he had buried all through, and when Kerrigan saw the trap he'd got into he yelled and fainted high off the stand."

"And that's the man," said young Osborne bitterly, "who sits in there—oh, it makes me sick!" Osborne was very strong pro-defense.

"I seen him once," said the clerk, "I seen him right in this courtroom once, in a highway robbery case. There was the witness that had been robbed on the stand to identify the defendant. And Ashe was sitting there at the table talking to a young fellow. And he says to the witness, 'Just as a formality, will you identify the man who robbed you?' And Ashe looks straight at this young fellow. And the witness points to him and says, 'That's the man.' And then Ashe looks way in the back of the courtroom and beckons another fellow and says, 'Well, this is the accused.' What could they do?"

Explosively, Gwennie said, "You'll be sick, that's all. This trial isn't over yet. You need your strength."

"All right," said Mikkelson, "all right. But he's blown up now. He's drinking, too. I suppose he don't dare quit, or he'd go completely. But they are sure making things look bad for Wilfong. If ever I saw the evidence of a cold-blooded murder, Dolan is giving it to that jury."

"If it gets much worse," said young Osborne, "she'll sure have to tell some story to get him off. Everything's against him."

"They'll never put her on the stand, never," said Scotty slowly.

"I don't know as she's got so much to tell, anyway," said Mikkelson. "It's beginning to look to me like maybe this guy did go off half-cocked."

Scotty looked at him coldly. "Whether she's got anything to tell or not," he said, "she'll never get on that stand while Ace and Steve Ashe are above ground."

"Then it looks to me," said Mikkleson insolently, "like Ace Wilfong has got a good chance to hang."

The little fire flickered with persistent cheerfulness, but its effort was wasted. There was no cheer in that room.

"I guess I can't do it, Jan," said Steve Ashe, with a white smile. His eyes were lost, they pleaded pitifully, they were filled with shame and hopelessness.

"You can too, daddy," said Jan. She said it loyally, fiercely, but there was no conviction in her words. "You can."

"I guess I'm through, Jan," said Stephen Ashe. "I—I can't do it."

"Then you'll have to let me," said Jan.

And as she said it, for the first time he knew how she shrank, how she dreaded such an ordeal. For the first time, he knew that she saw herself on that stand not as Jan Ashe, but as Ace Wilfong's wife, and Stephen Ashe's daughter. The shame which she must bring on the two was like a burning fire into which men she loved in order to save them she must walk. He felt her shrink from the realization of what it would mean to take that witness stand and brand herself Dwight Sutro's mistress, brand Ace Wilfong a betrayed and dishonored husband. The headlines in every paper, the sneers of her enemies, the eyes of that courtroom—they closed in on her now; and he knew that, though she would go through it if she had to without a whimper, she would be game, she stood aghast at the thought. After all, she was Deborah Beecher's granddaughter, no matter how much she pleaded to be allowed to do this thing for her man and to right the wrong she had done.

He hated it. He hated it for her. The patrician in him rose in fury. But he, Stephen Ashe, was only a shell of a man. He knew it now. He was only a shell.

He reached out and took her hand. Hemmed in they were on every side. They tried to smile at each other. They sat staring into the fire as it flickered, glowed red, went gray. Almost any one, seeing them then, would have said that the Ashes were licked at last.

"I get up," said Jan. "I eat, after a fashion, and I go to the courthouse, and then I eat again. I sleep, after a fashion. The days are endless, yet I seem to die each time a day dies. I can feel my heart beating all the time, feel it, and one's heart should beat without calling attention to it. My breath is a traitor. I never know where it will be or how long it will last. I suppose that is called suspense, Gwennie. I can't say much for it." Her voice died. She smiled at Gwennie. "I am double-minded in all my ways nowadays. I cannot wait, and yet I cling to every passing second."

She stared at the row of felt hats on the shelf, a row of felt hats like huge, gray flowers—crimson, orange, blue, brown, gray, green. She took down a black one and put

Q.—How strong are the lights in the Lindbergh beacon at Chicago? —A. V. S.

A.—The upper one is the beacon proper and has an output of 2,000,000,000 candle-power brought into a beam five feet in diameter, and revolving at the rate of two revolutions per minute. The lower light has an output of 1,100,000,000 candle-power brought by a parabolic reflector into a beam 36 inches in diameter fixed to direct visiting airmen to the municipal airport. It is computed that at a distance of 55½ miles the Lindbergh beacon becomes equivalent in brightness to the full moon.

Q.—Why was the contract match between the Culbertsons and Lenz and Jacoby fixed at 150 rubbers?—T. H. N.

A.—Because it was assumed that in 150 rubbers the element of luck in the distribution of the cards would be approximately even as between the teams and the result therefore would be a test of the systems and skill of the players.

Q.—Is a zebra a white animal with black stripes or a black animal with white stripes?—L. G. B.

The Record News Offers Booklet, The Handy Letter Writer

The first essential in writing a letter is to be able to address the envelope so that it will either reach the person for whom it is intended or be returned to you, and not go to the dead letter office of the post office department. That should be and is a simple thing, and yet millions of letters and packages find their way to the graveyard of misdirected communications every year.

The Handy Letter Writer not only tells all about addressing envelopes, but also all about writing the letters that are called for in business and social relations and in the more intimate correspondence classified as love letters.

No one should be without a copy and in ordering one today, use this coupon.

A wild ovation broke loose and Smith stood silently while it continued. When quiet was restored he stood for a moment as if preparing to speak and then took his seat.

A cordon of policemen escorted him from the ballroom of the Hotel Statler where 2,000 New England Democrats had gathered for the dinner.

The New York Evening Post said yesterday Smith would have no objections to the use of his name in state preferential presidential primaries.

VERNON C.-C. ELECTS HEAD

Fay E. Eggleston Named As New President

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Jan. 14.—Fay E. Eggleston was chosen to head the Vernon Chamber of Commerce as president for the next year when members of the board elected officers here this morning.

Other officers elected are J. L. Showers, who served in 1931 as president, first vice president; E. H. Pigg, second vice president; and T. Edgar Johnson, treasurer. L. A. Wilson, secretary, was reelected to his post in November.

The election of officers Thursday follows the Vernon chamber's annual banquet held here Tuesday night, when five new directors were announced elected to the board.

The board of directors, with its new members, meeting Thursday adopted the 1932 program of work presented at the banquet. The program for the coming year includes five major projects, one of which is the development of agricultural resources.

Other business transacted included preparation of plans for conducting the annual membership drive, and the appointment of a committee to work toward the payment of school taxes by citizens.

The membership drive, it was announced, will be launched Feb. 10. The president, two vice presidents and the secretary, were named as a committee to arrange for the campaign.

Decision to conduct a drive for payment of school taxes followed the receipt of a letter from W. T. Lofland, school superintendent, who urged the necessity of protecting the schools. E. H. Pigg, R. M. Fielder and L. A. Wilson were named as a committee to advance this project.

Lunch Fund Reaches Goal

lished the first statement of conditions, and the appeal of the P.-T. A. council for public aid in feeding these hungry youngsters. Wichita Falls' response was quick and generous. Contributions have averaged nearly $150 daily. The three Wichita Falls theaters, the Majestic, State and Gem, turned their entire relief fund of more than $230 over to the fund.

Dr. J. H. Massie went out among his friends and personally solicited and received some $300 of the amount collected. Many Wichita Falls individuals and business firms made contributions of $50 and scores of others gave substantial amounts. The largest single gift came from the Lehrack-Ferguson Dairy Products company, which agreed to supply a bottle of milk for every child on the lunch list until the end of school. Between 20,000 and 30,000 bottles of milk will be required, it is estimated. If the same amount of milk were purchased for the children out of the lunch fund, the milk alone would amount to between $1,000 and $1,500.

Luncheons Cost Five Cents

Each five cents subscribed for this fund will buy a warm, nourishing luncheon for a school child. Many of these children come to school without breakfast, and would then go from eight to 12 hours without food but for the aid of the lunch fund. Each dollar will give a hungry child luncheon each day for a month and each $5 will feed a child every day for the remainder of the term. Those who gave $10 have provided for two children every school day until the end of the term and those who gave $50 have provided for 10 children for the remainder of the year.

Luncheons from the school fund are given after careful investigations by school officials and P.-T. A. members. Lester Jones, vice president and cashier of the Wichita State bank, is treasurer of the fund and Mrs. Paul Barnett, president of the City Council P.-T. A., is the leader of the scores of P.-T. A. workers who are responsible for opening the fund and for its supervision.

Receiver Named For Gas Company

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14. (UP)—Logan Carey of the Consolidated Gas Utilities company late today was named receiver for the Western Service corporation, serving natural gas to communities in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

Carey posted $25,000 bond and Judge Ed S. Vaught ordered him to take over management of the company at once.

The appointment was not opposed by Western Service attorneys.

Charles A. Jones, attorney for the Oil Well Supply company, told the court Western Service owed his firm $182,000 and that the utilities total debt was about $515,000.

Fire Destroys Home On Iowa Park Road

The six-room home of Steel Thames, five miles from Wichita Falls off the Iowa Park road, was completely destroyed by fire Thursday night. Damage was estimated at between three and four thousand dollars. Occupants of the home were away when neighbors discovered the blaze. The Wichita Falls fire department answered the call, but the house was razed to the ground, all its furnishings destroyed. Origin of the fire was unknown.

Courts Probe Loss of Pancho Villa Documents

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 14. (AP)—Dispatches from Parral today said the courts had begun an investigation of the disappearance of documents in connection with the death of Pancho Villa, the old rebel chieftain who was killed in 1923.

The missing documents, it was said, dealt with charges that Villa's head had been removed from the grave.

FARMERS BACK TOM HUNTER

Support Pledged at Rally At Friberg School

Organization of Wichita county farmers for an aggressive campaign in support of Tom F. Hunter's campaign for election as governor of Texas was inaugurated Thursday night at the Friberg school house when about 500 persons attended a rally and pledged their community to Mr. Hunter's candidacy.

Thursday night's meeting, according to Charles Quanstrom, at whose call it was held, was preliminary to a county-wide meeting to be held at Iowa Park High school next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. That rally is expected to attract at least 800 Wichita county farmers. Mr. Quanstrom said, and will be conducted entirely by residents of the county's rural sections. Mr. Hunter will conclude the Saturday meeting with a short address, it was announced.

J. D. Cooper was made chairman of Thursday night's meeting at Friberg, and Mrs. Joe Marlow was elected secretary. Mrs. Alfred Friberg, Otho Lamb, and Joe Mataska reported that solicitation of all farmers in this part of the county revealed a 100 per cent support for Mr. Hunter. More than 1,000 farmers signed the pledges of support circulated by the workers, it was said.

Mr. Quanstrom declared that the Friberg meeting was the first held by farmers of Texas to advocate Mr. Hunter's election, and that the "Hunter for Governor" movement should be recorded as starting there. Short talks were made by Mike Emmert, Joe Marlow, Lou Leslie, John Leslie and C. K. Walsh.

Frederick Bearcats Win Tough Game

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., Jan. 14.—In a tight game where Frederick and the opposing team played neck and neck, Consolidated No. 13 Tuesday night won by the narrow margin of 22 to 21.

Cecil Billingslea and Cody Fondren starred in their positions, Fondren scoring as the high-point man for both squads.

Baxter and Hasley for No. 13 got in some good work, and also starred.

During the last half of the game, the score reached a tie four different times.

To End a Cough In a Hurry, Mix This at Home

To quickly end stubborn coughs due to colds, it is important to soothe the inflamed membranes, get rid of the germs and also to aid the system inwardly to help throw off the trouble.

For these purposes, here is a home-made medicine, far better than anything you could buy at 3 times the cost. From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey to fill up the pint. This takes but a moment, saves money, and makes a remedy so effective that you will never do without, once you have used it. Keeps perfectly, and children like it.

This simple remedy does three necessary things. First, it loosens the germ-laden phlegm. Second, it soothes away the inflammation. Third, it is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes. This explains why it brings such quick relief, even in the obstinate coughs which follow cold epidemics.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest medicinal agents for severe coughs and bronchial irritations.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

CURTAIN CLUB PLAY IS 'HIT'

'Kempie' Wins Audience At Junior College

By HELEN BROODO

"Kempie," the play, and Kemp, the character dramatized by Wilment Hunt, struck the keynote of success, while a well filled auditorium of enthusiastic patrons yielded palpitating applause Thursday night to the Blue Curtain hit of the season.

The Junior college auditorium held a crowd of people whose spirits changed each moment, either from a bombastic outburst of "Paw" Bence, a cranky parent's role played by Bryant Creighton, or from the intriguing emotions of Duke Merrill, played by Fred Barron. An unusually complicated situation, arising from the presence of Kempie James, the plumber who was really an architect came to a climax when Kate Bence, artistically inclined daughter of Paw, spontaneously decided to marry Kemp, whose own ambition forced him to submit.

Innocent, self-willed little Ruthie Bence, played by Charlotte Joiner, became the heroine in the end, winning Kempie's admiration, her heart's desire. But Kate also got what she at first didn't admit she wanted, namely, the Duke Merrill, worth $1,000,000.

Jane Wade and her husband, Ben Wade, played by Kay Cason and Jerome Allen, both revealed their capacities as actors and furnished amusement every other minute.

"Kempie" was directed by Miss Juanita Kinsey, who was also in charge of the make up and setting.

Preceding the play, Misses Lorraine Mathis and Margaret Bone entertained the waiting audience. Miss Mathis, accompanied at the piano by her mother, played a violin solo, and Miss Bone sang an Italian song.

Mrs. Zilch Horse Laughs At Popularity Sponsors

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP)—Mrs. M. Zilch is giving sponsors of the popularity contest out in suburban River Grove the horse laugh.

The contest started long ago but they did not begin to count votes until yesterday.

Mrs. Zilch got 440 votes, but as none of the judges had ever heard of her before they decided it was time to investigate.

A committee was sent to interview the lady and to congratulate her, as she was pretty high up in the voting. They got the address which turned out to be a stable owned by a cemetery company.

"Does Mrs. Zilch live here?" inquired one of the committee men.

"Yes," her groom replied, "but she's a mare—in fact an old gray mare."

Oil Men Honor E. H. Eddleman

declared, spoke for the conservation and the control of production to the market demand.

John O'Donohoe introduced J. D. Collett who cited the development of civilization in Texas from the days of frontier individualism when every man was for himself and when the six-shooter was the right and the law. He said that there was no more justification for unrestrained and uncontrolled individualism in the oil industry in which one man might trample on another's rights and property with the impunity, power and greed than there was in the rule of the six-shooter.

J. B. Flynn introduced Ed Landreth, treasurer of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation, who said that not only moral but financial support was needed and that the laundryman and the groceryman were hardly less interested in the conservation movement than the oil man himself.

Mr. Hunter told of the fight the North Texas Oil and Gas association was making for an adequate tariff on oil, saying that in the fight before the last session of congress Wichita Falls had contributed seven times as much money as was contributed by all the rest of Texas. He told of the progress that was being made not only in congress but of assurances that had been given by prospective presidential candidates of both major political parties.

Mr. Hunter called upon A. C. Smith of the Texas company. Mr. Smith cited the waste and destruction of other natural resources of the country. He said we had killed the wild game, taken the fish from the streams, cut down our forests, taken the coal from the ground and were taking out the oil and gas by wasteful and extravagant methods. He said that in a generation we were destroying what the Creator of the universe had taken millions of years to store up. He described waste as unmoral and conservation as moral and a duty.

The meeting closed with the choir led by W. D. Cline giving its best rendition of the theme song.

Police Arrest Man On Indictment of 1926

H. F. Pool, indicted in Wichita county on a burglary charge in 1926 and never brought to trial, was arrested by Plainclothesmen Dowdy and Daves here Thursday. Pool's bond had been forfeited when he failed to appear for trial.

The prisoner was turned over to the district attorney's office and later lodged in the county jail. Assistant District Attorney Mike Anglin said his trial on the charge would depend on his record during the past six years and on whether witnesses could be assembled after so long a time.

POLICE SEIZE STOLEN GOODS

$300 in Loot From Bourland Home Recovered

Approximately $300 worth of loot taken from the Charles M. Bourland home on the Iowa Park road was recovered and a young suspect arrested here by members of the police department Thursday.

The recovered goods, part of it found on a flat car in the railway yards north of the city, included a silver set valued at $250. Clothing, boots, bags, and other articles brought the total to more than $300. Mr. and Mrs. Bourland identified the goods after the arrest Thursday.

The 20-year-old suspect had a part of the loot in his possession when he was arrested at a hotel here by plainclothesmen from the police department. The hidden goods were discovered later.

Police Chief Dick Morris said burglary charges would be filed against the youth Friday. The Bourland home, three miles out on the Iowa Park road, was burglarized Tuesday afternoon while the family was away. The sheriff's department Wednesday arrested two suspects.

LaGuardia Proposes 49 Per Cent Tax on Big Incomes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Representative Laguardia of New York advocates a tax of 49 per cent on incomes of $2,000,000 or more.

Asked why the bargain counter figure, and just how he arrived at it, Laguardia said he wanted nobody to complain that congress was taking away half of what he made.

Iowa Park P.-T. A. Holds Club Meeting

IOWA PARK, Texas, Jan. 14.—Members of Iowa Park Parent-Teacher Study club held an interesting meting at the club room in the ward school building Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Marshall Clark, president, due to the absence of Mrs. W. G. Shipman, study club leader, conducted the lesson. The study topic was the reading and round table discussion of Dr. Frank Howard Richardson's story, "What Makes a Good Parent," published in the October issue of Holland's magazine.

Such subjects as "What Constitutes a Good Parent," "Does Wealth Prove a Hindrance to Character Development?", "Does the Child Owe the Parent a Debt of Gratitude?", "To What Extent Should Parents Enter Into Sports With Their Children?" Kindred subjects were discussed by Mesdames M. B. Cain, King Abernathy, Curtis Sewell, Marshall Clark, Urb Farmer, R. C. Acuff, T. M. Black, S. B. Custis, and others. Mrs. W. H. Caylor was a visitor.

Those present were unanimous in the conclusion that fatherhood should receive more honor and recommended that a father's day observance, similar to the annual mother's day program would do much to place fatherhood in prominence.

Sack of Dirt Will Be Admission to Program

Special to The Record News

ELECTRA, Texas, Jan. 14.—A sack of dirt may not be of any value to an individual, but if he takes the soil to the Rocky Point schoolhouse Friday night, Feb. 5, it will pay his admission to the program which is being arranged. Mrs. Roy Ackerman, president of the P.-T. A., states that the soil is needed to use on the school grounds and the P.-T. A. is unable to have the soil hauled; therefore the P.-T. A. will give a program for the dirt. A small admission fee will be charged those who do not bring the sack of dirt. Rev. Finis Cruchfield, pastor of the Wichita Falls Highland Heights Methodist church will be the principal speaker. Reverend Crutchfield is well known in the Rocky Point community, and a large crowd is anticipated. Other numbers will be included on the program.

Auto Registrations Mount in Baylor

Special to The Record News

SEYMOUR, Texas, Jan. 14.—Automobile registration in Seymour and Baylor county for the first dozen days of 1932 shows an increase of 16 cars over the number in the same period of 1931, according to information received from officials in the county tax collector's office.

A total of 258 new plates had been issued at closing hour of the 12th while the number had reached only 242 at the same time in 1931. The number of trucks had fallen from 39 to 25 in the same period. More than $2,350 had already been collected from this tax, according to Sheriff Holmes, and with more than half a month yet in which to pay the tax it is expected the registration may even exceed that of 1931 when the count reached 1,602 for the year.

To Stop Itching In Two Minutes

This formula for skin diseases is astounding the most skeptical in the marvelous way it heals severe cases of eczema, tetter, ringworm, itch and athlete's foot. The minute it touches the sore you feel a cooling, soothing sensation; in a few days you marvel at how your skin has healed. BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Sausage Scramble
Four sausages.
Four eggs, slightly beaten.
One-eighth teaspoonful pepper.
One-half cupful milk.
One-half teaspoonful salt.
Toast.

Cut sausages in small pieces and saute in a frying pan until tender. Pour off part of the fat and add eggs slightly beaten and mixed with milk, salt, and pepper. Stir lightly with a fork until egg is set and creamy in consistency. Serve on hot buttered toast. Serves six.

Orange and Gingerale Cocktail
Two cupfuls orange sections.
One and one-half cupfuls pale gingerale.
One teaspoonful finely chopped mint.

Prepare the orange sections from seedless oranges by paring oranges with a sharp knife, cutting deep enough to remove every particle of membrane with the peel. Insert point of knife at stem end of orange close to membrane that divides sections. Carefully work knife in, separating membrane from section. Then carefully separate section of orange from membrane on its other side. Remove whole orange sections completely in shape and entirely free from membrane. Arrange in six sherbert glasses and just before serving cover with gingerale. Then sprinkle with a chopped mint. Serves six.

Steak de Luxe

Rub a steak one and one-half inches thick with a clove of garlic. Broil as follows: Wipe the steak with a damp cloth. Preheat the broiler oven with the heat on full for 10 minutes. Grease the broiler rack slightly, then arrange the meat in the center of it. Place the broiler pan with the rack and meat in position as near the heat as possible without coming in actual contact with the heat. Broil the steak five minutes on one side, then turn and broil 10 minutes on the other side. Turn again and broil five minutes, making 20 minutes in all for a medium rare steak. When done put on a hot platter, salt it lightly. Meanwhile prepare the following sauce:

One fourth to one-third pound of butter or margarine.
One tablespoonful catsup.
One teaspoonful paprika.
One-half teaspoonful dry mustard.
Two teaspoonfuls vinegar or lemon juice
One tablespoonful Worcestershire or similar sauce.

Put the butter in one side of a small sauce pan. In the other side blend the catsup and Worcestershire sauce, then add the paprika, mustard and vinegar. Place the saucepan over a low heat and stir butter around in the condiments until it is melted, and the sauce is smooth and rich. Do not overheat or it will curdle. When done, pour over the steak. After carving, mix the meat juices with the sauce and give each serving a spoonful. Serves six.

BEGINNING TO LIVE

An appetizing cereal, bringing "bulk" and Vitamin B, stopped the source of those dull headaches, and premature wrinkles

How could so simple a thing as eating a cereal effect this great change? Here's why. ALL-BRAN brings two things that check common constipation. "Bulk" which exercises the intestines. Vitamin B which helps give them tone. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

SHE had been a sufferer from constipation for many years. It sapped her enthusiasm and energy, took the sparkle out of her eyes, and made her skin sallow.

Every night she dosed herself with pills and drugs — in bigger and bigger quantities as time went on. They gave only temporary relief. Then, fortunately, she read an advertisement about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN (just as you are doing now).

She tried this delicious cereal. The results were surprising. She found she had a lot more energy at the end of a day. Her skin lost its sallow hue. Her drabness departed. Her friends discovered in her a new and colorful personality.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar in action to that of lettuce. Inside the body, it absorbs moisture, and becomes a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Try two tablespoonfuls daily. If you suffer from intestinal trouble not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming. Equally tasty as a cereal with milk or cream, or cooked into fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, waffles, etc. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Chicken Chop Suey Placed On Sunday Menu

can bean sprouts, drained, and one can bamboo shoots to the chicken mixture and season with soy and brown sauce.

Jellied Cabbage Relish

One package lemon jell-o.
One cupful boiling water.
Three-fourth cupful cold water.
One-fourth cupful vinegar.
One teaspoonful salt.
One-fourth teaspoonful mustard.
One-fourth teaspoonful white pepper.
Two cupfuls cabbage, finely shredded.
One green pepper, chopped.
One pimiento, chopped.

Dissolve jell-o in boiling water. Add cold water, vinegar and seasonings. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in vegetables, mixing lightly. Turn into individual molds, filling them half full if large. Chill until firm: Unmold. Serve as a garnish or relish with meat. Makes about 12 molds.

Dishes Made With Canned Soup

If the pantry shelf is supplied with a variety of canned soups many appetizing dishes may be quickly prepared. Old time favorites such as braised liver and escalloped ham and potatoes, when made with one of the canned products take on a delightful flavor.

Tomato sauce made with concentrated soup is especially good. Try the recipe given below with spaghetti some day for luncheon. The sauce may be made in advance and kept in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

The following recipes which call for concentrated soup are recommended. (Salt is seldom needed with these soups).

Eggs Louisiana

One cupful condensed tomato soup.
Three-fourths cupful cold water.
One cupful stale bread crumbs.
One-half cupful left-over cooked vegetable.
One small onion, grated.
Four eggs.
One-half teaspoonful salt.
One-eighth teaspoonful pepper.
One-half cupful grated cheese.

Combine the soup, water, crumbs, vegetable and onion. Pour into a greased baking dish. Break the eggs carefully on top and sprinkle with the salt and pepper. Cover lightly with grated cheese and then bake in a hot oven of 400 degrees F. until the eggs are set, about 15 minutes. Serves four.

Chartreuse of Meat and Rice

One cupful cooked meat chopped.
One-fourth cupful bread crumbs.
One egg, slightly beaten.
Worcestershire sauce.
One tablespoonful chopped parsley.
One-half teaspoonful chopped onion.
Salt and pepper.
Two cupfuls cooked rice (left-over seasoned rice may be used).

Combine chopped meat (lamb, veal, ham or chicken), bread crumbs, egg, parsley, and onion. (Omit onion if chicken is used). Season to taste with salt, pepper and Worcestershire. Line a greased mold or coffee can with boiled or steamed rice. Fill center with meat mixture, covering with more rice. Lay a piece of heavy waxed paper over the top and cover. Steam about 30 minutes, unmold on platter and serve with tomato sauce.

Tomato Sauce

Three tablespoonfuls fat.
Two tablespoonfuls onion, finely chopped.
One-fourth pound fresh mushrooms.
One and one-half tablespoonfuls flour.
One tablespoonful capers.
One and one-half cups (one can) tomato soup.
Three-fourths cupful water.
Few grains pepper.
One-half teaspoonful Worcestershire.

Melt fat, add onion and mushrooms, peeled and chopped. Cook five minutes. Add flour and stir until blended and slightly browned. Add soup diluted with water and simmer five minutes longer. Season with pepper and Worcestershire; add capers if desired.

Bubble and Squeak (English)

One pound round robin steak cut in one-inch cubes.
One tablespoonful fat.
Two cupfuls fat.
Two cupfuls cubed potatoes.
Two cupfuls sliced onion.
One No. 1 can (one-half pint) mock turtle soup.
Two teaspoonfuls salt.
One-eighth teaspoonful pepper.
Flour to thicken.

Saute meat in fat. Put a layer of saute'ed meat in a greased casserole, then a layer of onions and then a layer of potatoes, salting and peppering each, using all of the measured salt and pepper and continuing until the casserole is filled. Over all pour the mock turtle soup and enough cold water to cover. Measure liquid used. Cover closely and cook in a slow oven of 350 degrees F. for two hours. For every cupful of liquid used stir in one tablespoonful flour mixed in an equal amount of cold water. Stir gently until it is mixed. Cook 15 minutes longer. A baking powder biscuit crust may be put on the casserole after the thickening is added. If this is done, raise the temperature to 450 degrees F. for about 15 minutes to bake the crust. Serves six.

Escalloped Ham and Potatoes

One to one and one-fourth pound slice of ham.
Two cupfuls raw potatoes sliced very thin.
One-half green pepper.
One and one-half cups (one can) pea soup.
One-half cupful milk or water.

Soak ham one hour in luke warm water. Drain off water, place ham in casserole and cover with potatoes; sprinkle with finely-chopped green pepper. Over this pour the soup and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about one hour, or until potatoes are soft. Remove cover during last part of baking and allow to brown. Garnish the top with parsley.

Braised Liver With Vegetable Soup

One pound calf's liver.
Salt and pepper.
Beef suet.
One onion.
One and one-half cups (one can) vegetable soup.
One-half cupful water.
Worcestershire sauce.

Wash liver, purchased in solid piece, in cold water and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cut up a small piece of suet and try out in a small frying pan. Add onion, sliced, and cook two or three minutes. Turn into a casserole, place liver on top and pour around it the vegetable soup and water. Add a few drops of Worcestershire, cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about one hour. Garnish with crisp bacon.

Rabbit Supreme

One young jackrabbit.
Six tablespoonfuls fat.
One-half clove of garlic.
Six medium sized onions.
Flour.
Six sprigs parsley.
One sprig mint.
One can condensed tomato soup.
Two teaspoonfuls salt.

Soak the jackrabbit in salted water overnight, after it has been cleaned and disjointed. Then pour off the water and dry each piece of rabbit carefully. Place fat in a kettle, together with the clove of garlic, onions chopped fine, parsley and one sprig of mint. Cook until lightly browned, then add the condensed tomato soup and mix well. Place the rabbit in the kettle and cover with boiling water. Add salt and cook until the rabbit is tender—about one and one-half hours or longer. Replenish the water when necessary. When the rabbit is tender, remove it to a hot platter. Thicken the gravy, allowing one tablespoonful of flour to each cupful of broth. Pour the gravy over the rabbit and serve with boiled rice and currant jelly. Serves from six to eight.

Chicken-Mushroom Waffles

Three tablespoonfuls butter.
One-half pound fresh mushrooms or One and one-half cupfuls canned mushrooms.
Three tablespoonfuls flour.
Few grains pepper.
One and one-half cupfuls chicken soup with rice.
One and one-half cupfuls milk or water.
Two tablespoonfuls chopped pimiento.

Melt butter, add mushroom caps, peeled and sliced, and cook slowly for 10 minutes. Add flour and stir to blend thoroughly. Add chicken soup, diluted with milk or water, gradually; bring to boil and stir until mixture thickens slightly. Add pimiento, and pepper to taste. Pour over freshly cooked waffles (or toast); garnish with parsley and a bit of currant jelly and serve at once. This is delicious for after-theater parties or Sunday night supper.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14. (AP)—Erma J. Lime, E. M. Evans and John E. Gillespie were arraigned today on charges of bombing, brought under a statute which provides capital punishment. They entered no pleas. Their preliminary hearings were set for Jan. 27.

Lime and Evans, president and business agent of the Sound Projectionists union, yesterday made signed statements in which they admitted preparing the bomb which exploded in the Midland theater Monday night, killing a negro janitor. BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 14. (AP)—Five officers charged with an aggravated assault on Eliseo Cantu near Brownsville Nov. 28, denied the accusation at their trial today.

The defendants were C. L. Austin, Roy Mansfield and O. V. Moreland, border patrolmen; and R. L. Longoria and E. M. Yznaga, deputy sheriffs.

The prosecution attempted to prove Cantu had been partially hung. Witnesses told of seeing injuries on his neck such as might have been made by a rope.

A. P. I. OFFICIAL SERVED WRIT

Citation in Ouster Suit Delivered to Roeser

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—James V. Allred, attorney general of Texas, was advised today that service had been obtained at Fort Worth on Charles F. Roeser as a vice president of the American Petroleum institute, one of the defendants in Allred's suit to oust certain major oil companies from business in Texas.

The American Petroleum institute and the Texas Petroleum Marketers' association were named with 15 oil companies as conspiring to control and dominate the business of marketing gasoline and petroleum products in violation of Texas anti-trust laws.

When the case was called in Travis county district court last week, Edward T. Moore of Dallas, who said he was a director in the A. P. I., claimed that service had been made on him, but that he was not a proper person against whom to issue process, questioning adequacy of the service for that reason.

Elsie Janis Tells Why Marriage Was Not Made Public

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Elsie Janis, who, it became known yesterday, was married New Year's eve to Gilbert Wilson of Los Angeles, said today the only reason why she hadn't told about it before was that no one had asked her.

"No one asked us if we were married," she said. "They just asked us if we were engaged, and I said I never would be engaged."

The actress and Wilson were married at the home of Mayor Eugene Lehman of Tarrytown, where Miss Janis has an estate.

"We walked up the hill to Mayor Lehman's house, and we were married by Police Judge Daniel Dwyer," she said. "The mayor was the witness.

"Then we walked down the hill again, and my colored mammy, who has been with me 25 years, gave us her blessing. That was all there was to it."

They say they have jobs and savings ranging from $300 to $10,000. Their husbands have been refused permission to enter the United States on the ground they are likely to become public charges.

Only Woman Sir Thomas Lipton Loved Recalls Early Romance in Scotland

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 14. (AP)—The only woman the late Sir Thomas Lipton ever loved was revealed here today as Mrs. Catherine Stewart of Duluth.

She confirmed a newspaper story in which the writer told of a conversation with the noted Irish sportsman, who said he had remained a bachelor because his first love married some one else.

Mrs. Stewart said that when she was Catherine McLeod, living near Glasgow, Scotland, she met "Tommy" Lipton, a poor merchant. "Tommy" proposed to her, but her parents advised her to wait until she was older before marrying.

Lipton moved to England and later to India and Catherine McLeod married Robert Stewart.

Senator Hastings Obtains New Stay

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—State Senator John A. Hastings halted contempt proceedings against him for the second time today and the Hofstadter legislative committee then turned its searchlight on former Sheriff Charles W. Culkin, who refused to sign a waiver of immunity after being accused of embezzlement and grand larceny.

Hastings, who has refused to obey a subpoena issued by the committee stay in the appellate division to replace one voided in the supreme court yesterday. This temporarily stopped action on a resolution certifying him for contempt which was voted as the committee's first business of today's session.

When Culkin was called to the stand to be questioned about evidence that he had personally retained about $25,000 representing interest accruing on money he held as sheriff, he declined to waive immunity and was excused.

Mailed Fist Rule In Pen Described

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 14. (AP)—A "mailed" fist rule in the Ohio penitentiary followed the 1930 Easter Monday fire in which 320 convicts were burned to death, former employes told a senate committee investigating charges of cruelty at the prison today.

Former guards and a construction foreman employed to rehabilitate the cell blocks in which the prisoners met death, told the committee of many instances of brutality on the part of guards.

Charles C. Rickett, the construction foreman, said he saw two guards beat four prisoners over the head until a deputy warden stopped them. Had the deputy warden not intervened, Rickett said, he believed the prisoners would have been beaten to death.

Guards, he said, often bragged about the number of notches they had on their blackjacks.

Goree Poultry Show To Open Friday

Special to The Record News.

GOREE, Texas, Jan. 14.—Goree's second annual poultry show will open here Friday with the best exhibit ever shown in this part of the country. About 500 birds are expected when all exhibits are in.

The Goree Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the show for the purpose of getting more people of this section interested in the poultry business. Especially is it interested in increasing the number of laying hens on the farms of Knox county and increasing the number of capons produced in this section. Those who are growing capons here this year are realizing a very nice profit from them, it was said.

BRITAIN SENDS WISE-CRACKER

'Will Rogers of England' Visits in U. S.

By SEYMOUR BERKSON
Universal Service Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—A visiting Irishman with a British accent who has been dubbed "the Will Rogers of England", pressed a cautioning forefinger to his lips today and whispered:

"There are more than 100 speakeasies in jolly old London today."

And, having thus begun in that humorous vein, Capt. H. Plunket Woodgate, London humorist, continued:

"One of those beastly places that begin to sell spirits at 11 p. m. when the English law says you must halt was raided recently when they let some blighter in who said he knew somebody who knew Mr. Jones. Next day, all the regular patrons got a comforting notice that read:

"Business as usual during repairs and altercations."

Which may not exactly be the American Will Rogers' idea of a side-splitting wise-crack.

Here's Good One

But here's some humor that the captain confides seldom fails to bring the house down when he's lecturing about the bloody tower of London:

"When I come to the part about Henry VIII for example I call him the king of widowers . . . Ha! Ha! Ha! . . . And there are some amusing anecdotes about Sir Walter Raleigh when he had his head chopped off, you know. Oh, there's lots of humor in the tower."

And then the captain departed from England and the farther he got the more he improved.

Here's one he told about dark Africa where he was stationed during the world war:

"An Indian station master got a telegraph message that the nearest town had just been taken by a troop of 300 German cavalrymen so he sent the following telegram to the British general at Nairobi:

"Three hundred Germans come attack me, please send rifle and three hundred cartridges."

On American Politics

Captain Woodgate even had a few things to say about American politics:

"Your Republicans always seem satisfied with things as they are while your Democrats always want to change everything, which is one reason why I think your next president will be a Democrat."

About Hoover, the captain seemed mystified:

"In England, we have heard very little about him since the world war. He seems to have become the man that nobody knows."

Captain Woodgate, who is a guest of the Explorers' club here, began his career of international travel as an itinerant tea planter in Ceylon. He served on four fronts during the war: in East Africa, Palestine, Germany, and North Russia.

GOP DISCOVERS REVOLT CAUSE

Hoover, Not Party, Brings Ill Feeling

By LOUIS SEIBOLD
Universal Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The troubled leaders of Mr. Hoover's party have made an important discovery. Progressing party revolts are not directed at their party, but against Mr. Hoover himself.

This revelation (long since established in the public mind) explains the persistence in trying to dig up another candidate.

Charles G. Dawes is the latest beneficiary of developing plans and hopes. His renunciation of friendly gestures with a characteristic "damn nonsense" is not accepted at face value; neither is the rather positive and convincing veto of Calvin Coolidge.

Mr. Dawes' retirement as ambassador to Great Britain made him natural game for worried Republican leaders who are as firmly convinced as ever that Mr. Hoover cannot be re-elected.

These men hope that, if the pressure is high-powered enough, Mr. Dawes will be compelled to come to the aid of his party. They propose to apply pressure to convince him he is the one man available to fill the bill—next to Mr. Coolidge.

As far as the Northampton philosopher is concerned, Republicans of all shades of opinion, are absolutely certain that it would be "all over but the shouting" if Mr. Coolidge would heed their Macedonian cry.

Wherefore, the impressive army of the Republican pessimists propose to leave no stone unturned to induce Mr. Coolidge to change his mind. The prospects for doing so are not very bright.

Democratic leaders are profuse in their praises of the "unselfish and patriotic" stand of Mr. Coolidge. What they really mean is that they don't want him to run.

Mr. Hoover's present position is somewhat uncomfortable. He must know by this time that the great majority of the leaders of his party would rather have some other candidate.

Hoover "Wakes Up"

For the first time, Mr. Hoover appears to have properly assayed the situation in his own party. Senators and other important party men who have discussed the matter with him assert that he is "beginning to wake up."

Confidences following conferences between the president and his advisors tend to show a greater degree of accord between the president and erstwhile skeptical leaders than has prevailed since he has been president.

Hiram Johnson's demand that Mr. Hoover eliminate himself by retiring from the impending contest, has recruited support from unexpected quarters.

Ruth McCormick's endorsement of the Johnson suggestion has caused a greater degree of concern among the Republicans than appears on the surface.

Critics of Mr. Hoover assert that the California senator—a potential candidate—and Madam McCormick have started rolling a ball of opposition that will grow in proportions.

During the next two or three weeks many Republican leaders expect a move which they hope will rescue their party from the difficulties in which Mr. Hoover has involved it.

SERVE SOME EXCITEMENT!

SERVE DIXIE WAFFLES! THEY'RE EASY! THEY'RE GRAND!

THANKS TO CALUMET'S DOUBLE-ACTION!

MAYBE you're a pretty swell waffleer already. And maybe you can't see how any baking powder could improve your waffles. But try this recipe just once—make Dixie Waffles with Calumet, the Double-Acting Baking Powder—and you'll be a Calumet waffleer for life!

For Calumet's Double-Action does something to waffles that makes them positively tantalizing. Beautifully golden and delicately crisp outside—light and fluffy, deliciously tender inside!

Calumet's Double-Action—there's the secret. That's what makes the difference. Here's how it works. In the mixing bowl, Calumet's first action begins. It starts the leavening. Then, on the hot waffle iron, Calumet's second action begins. Steadily, evenly, this new fresh rising swells through the batter and holds it light and fluffy until the waffle is perfectly baked. And the same thing happens when Calumet goes into your cakes and quick breads. Calumet's first action gets the leavening properly started. Then, in the oven, the second action gets on the job and carries your baking through to a super-delicate, delicious finish.

An added saving too!—The simple, tested recipe given here is a Calumet recipe—specially designed for the Calumet proportion—only one level teaspoon to a cup of sifted flour. That's the usual Calumet proportion and should be followed for best results. A splendid economy for you—thanks to the perfect efficiency of Calumet's Double-Action.

Yes, Calumet is the real baking powder bargain. The real bargain—because it prevents costly failures—because it always brings top-notch success! Try it—and see why it is the world's largest-selling baking powder, too. Get Calumet at your grocer's to-day! Calumet is a product of General Foods Corporation.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Oranges and Rheumatism

Question—T. O. asks: "Will you explain my trouble with oranges? It seems that I suffer with attacks of rheumatism whenever I eat oranges."

Answer—If you will use the orange juice alone, the rheumatism could not become worse. However, the orange juice fast sometimes causes a greater elimination of toxins which make the pains seem a trifle more irritating for a time, but this clears up after the toxins are eliminated.

Bare Legs in Winter

Question—Mrs. Dora H. asks: "Do you think it is injurious to small children to go with bare legs in the winter time when the weather is rather damp but not so terribly cold? Some tell me that it is liable to cause them to have kidney and bladder trouble in later years. Is this true?"

Answer—I do not believe that allowing the children to be bare-legged will prove injurious in any way if the weather is not too cold. Kidney and bladder trouble are internal disorders and could not come from this source. I really believe that people are becoming more sensible in not allowing the children to be overdressed and allowing freer movement to the body.

No Honey for Diabetes

Question — Mr. Norman M. inquires: "Will bee honey take the place of sugar for sweets? I have a tendency toward diabetes."

Answer—Honey may be substituted for other sugars in an ordinary diet, but I do not consider it superior. It should not be used in diabetes where the diet excludes the use of sugars. One should also exclude maple syrup or any of the other so-called natural sugars.

Gwennie said, "You haven't eaten your breakfast."

Jan's eyes found the tray by her bedside. She pretended to be surprised. "So I haven't," she said.

"You'd ought to. Drink your coffee, anyway."

Jan studied the coffee. "I'm afraid I can't," she said. "The spirit is willing but the flesh—ah, the flesh, Gwennie, is weak. As usual."

Explosively, Gwennie said, "You'll be sick, that's all. This trial isn't over yet. You need your strength."

Jan squared her shoulders. "I'm strong as anything," she said. "I'm frightfully strong. Never been sick in my life. I have a constitution like an ox. All the Ashes have. Disgusting, really. I should be pale and wan."

"You're pale enough," said Gwennie.

Jan tugged on her heavy white gloves. "I've always been like that—white. No color. Wish I had. Aunt Dorothea has one of those San Francisco complexions. My aunt Grace had, too. She's gone to India. You never suspected me of a missionary aunt, did you? I like those pink complexions. And a little meat on the bones. But me—I've always been white and skinny. Never be fat now, I expect." Carelessly she flung the sable scarf over her right shoulder. "Why, Gwennie," she said, and crossed the room quickly. "You're crying. My dear, you aren't crying about me! Oh, Gwennie."

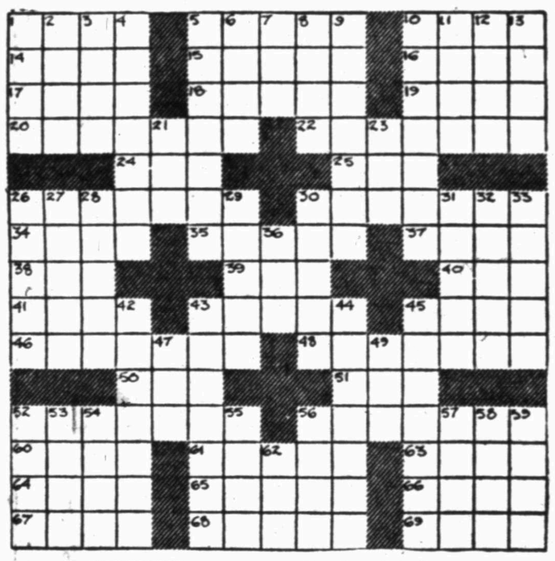

"Your eyes!" said Gwennie furiously.

BUSINESS LEADERS DISCUSS PLANS FOR SPUDDER CAMPAIGN

LETTER FROM M'EVOY READ

Club Prexy Confident Of Snappy Club Here

Suggestions ranging from the appointment of a committee from the chamber of commerce athletic group to spread the news of the Spudders to this and all outlying cities, to that of Dr. "Josh" Kimbrough's that "they ought to hold a school for those damned umpires" were heard Thursday afternoon at a meeting of civic leaders who informally discussed plans for boosting the Wichita Falls Baseball club the coming season. The meeting was held at the chamber of commerce.

Pending the appointment of the 1932 athletic committees by the senior and junior chambers of commerce, the leaders took no definite action yesterday in the Spudder campaign, which has been included by the senior organization as one of its major projects for this year. President Albert E. Kelly, however, indicated that as soon as the new committees are named, a definite program will be formulated.

Jones Explains Purpose

The meeting yesterday, attended by about 20 members of both the senior and junior chambers of commerce, was called at the instigation of Dr. Everett Jones, who explained its purpose was to obtain views on the manner in which the Spudder campaign should be conducted. Dr. Jones, in a preliminary address, reviewed the baseball situation here, explaining that the baseball club was in a "tough spot," but that the St. Louis Browns, majority stock owners, had agreed to leave the franchise here after receiving assurances that the chamber of commerce and other organizations had promised unqualified support of the team, provided the Browns placed a team here that could with reason be supported.

Discussion developed a tendency on the part of some present to withhold a definite campaign of support until it is learned what kind of team the Browns will send here.

Guy Airey, Spudder secretary, pointed out, however, that such a move would be disastrous, since the Browns themselves will not know what players they will send to Wichita Falls until "cutting down" time arrives in the spring training camps at St. Louis and at Milwaukee, the Browns' other subsidiary.

He further explained that fans of this section need not worry about the caliber of players Wichita Falls will receive.

"The St. Louis club is the one that meets the deficits of the Wichita Falls Spudders," he explained, "and it certainly will not send a team here in 1932 that will make as bad a showing as that of the team last year."

L. C. McEvoy of St. Louis, president of the club, sent a telegram which was read at the meeting, expressing his regrets at being unable to attend. A letter to Dr. Jones, giving the proxy's "dope" on some of the talent to be sent here, was also read.

Young Team Promised

"I am hopeful," the letter said, "of putting another young team in the field at Wichita Falls the coming season, doing away with many of the players who have been there some time and who in some instances have worn out their welcome. We have some splendid young material coming into Wichita Falls and many of these boys are now giving glowing accounts of themselves in the California winter league. If, however, we should find that despite their great native ability they are still too inexperienced to form a winning team at Wichita Falls, rest assured that we are properly protected.

". . . We have a young outstanding second baseman at Milwaukee who could be easily sent to Wichita Falls on option, if necessary. We have three or four outstanding young shortstops reporting, and hope from these to choose one who will become another Levey. At first base we have a prospect from the coast who is creating much attention in the winter league, and if none of our young material makes good on third base, we always have Euller to fall back upon. Even though his work last season was his worst in professional baseball, he should be due for another good year.

"With Severeid to do most of the catching, and three young catchers reporting, we should be well fortified behind the bat. Of course we always have Sharein for infield duty. In the outfield we are also well fortified in addition to the members of last year's team. We should have no trouble making a real pitching staff, as the young talent which will report has been picked from all over the country, and we are also expecting some pitching help from our Milwaukee club.

". . . I feel confident that our choice of a manager has been a happy one, and already he is planning to visit the young players on the coast who will report to him for spring training. He will thus come to Wichita Falls having judged their ability under fire. You will also find Severeid a very likeable fellow and a man who can undoubtedly give a good account of himself under any circumstances. His big bat should be of immense help, apart from his experience behind the plate in the direction of pitchers.

". . . While I dislike at this season of the year to even border on a prediction, it is my sincere purpose to give Wichita Falls an outstanding team in 1932, if such an accomplishment is possible."

"Whispering Campaign"

Mr. Kelly concurred in Carter McGregor's suggestion that the chamber of commerce about the middle of February should appoint a committee from its athletic group, members of which should visit surrounding cities from which a majority of athletic patronage comes.

Dr. Kimbrough suggested a "whispering campaign" similar to that responsible for the outstanding success of the Wichita Falls High school football season last year, be inaugurated, and that a program and rally similar to the "Let's Go Athletic" campaign be inaugurated soon. John Boswell, chamber of commerce secretary, agreed heartily, contending that citizens right here in Wichita Falls in the past have not shown the same loyalty to the Spudders as that in surrounding towns.

This situation, according to R. O. Harvey, has existed here for some time. "When I was president of the ball club," he said, "we got more attendance from outlying cities than from Wichita Falls itself."

Ticket Selling Discussed

A ticket selling campaign, which probably will be inaugurated soon, was discussed. Secretary Airey explained that tickets would be sold in groups of eight for $6. The club hopes to sell enough of these tickets before the season starts to pay for training camp expenses, he said. The selling campaign probably will be placed in the hands of the committee that is to be appointed, it was indicated.

Claude Woods reminded the group that about half of the stock in the Wichita Falls club is owned by Wichita Falls citizens, and that the people of this city apparently had overlooked the fact, and had come to the belief that the Spudder club was merely a cog in a machine whose owners reside elsewhere. "This impression should be corrected," he said.

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

Today's Pome

My gal has eyes of gold, her heart
Is also of that metal;
Her hands are softer than the skin
Of any lily petal.

And yet she is not satisfied,
These riches she disdaineth;
Instead she grabs my pocketbook
Which generally she draineth.

Which is another way of saying the Rambler is first in war, first in rags and first in debt to his countrymen.

Ward Schools Play Today

The ward school football race in districts one and two will be resumed today. In district one, the Fannin eleven will meet the Austin; Barwise will play Bowie; and San Jacinto will play Travis. In district two, Carrigan will meet Sam Houston, Huey will play Ben Franklin, and Crockett will play Alamo.

Which reminds me of an occurrence in the Bowie-Fannin game played Wednesday afternoon. The boys were talking about it yesterday. The game was a scoreless tie, but it wouldn't have ended in this fashion had Newman Smith, coach of the Fannin eleven, been able to put over his point with J. Z. Powell, coach of the Bowie men.

It seems that Robinson, Fannin fullback, got off on a long run for a touchdown, but was called back when Powell claimed he had hurdled his quarterback. Smith maintained that Robinson had done no such thing, that what Robinson had hurdled was a stray dog that had wandered on the field.

Plenty of Talent

A perusal of excerpts of L. C. McEvoy's, letter to Dr. Everett Jones, printed in another column of this page, should convince even the most skeptical of fans that the Browns will earnestly strive to put a good team on the Spudder field this year.

Already the Spudders have on their roster no less than 19 rookies, in addition to the holdovers. Of course we can't expect the world and all from those rookies. Many will get the pink slip. But the encouraging thing is that the Browns are actually haunting the smaller leagues and loading the Spudders up with a bunch of material from which to choose. We must remember that Jim Levey and Lin Storti, to mention only two, were discovered in just this manner.

Other clubs in the Texas league are not so fortunate in the matter. Bill Parker, writing a general story on the rookie situation in the Texas league, writes for the Associated Press as follows:

"Unless a few class D leagues are organized, the inexperienced rookies of 1932 are going to have a tough time finding their usual free lodging and meals this spring.

"Most clubs in class A and higher have announced drastic squad reductions—meaning they do not intend to transport flocks of untried material to camps.

PACK WHIPS CASHION FIVE

Coyotes Win Seventh In Row, 38-15

The Coyotes stretched their winning streak to seven successive games Thursday afternoon by defeating the Cashion Cats, 38 to 15, in a fast contest on the Junior college courts. Bob Brandon led his team to victory with a total of 17 points.

The Cats made the first score by a free throw, but they were never ahead again throughout the contest. Not once did the Cats threaten the lead of the victors. The Coyotes had a seven-point lead at the end of the first period, and a nine-point lead at the half mark, but they failed to make a score throughout the third period. They made up for this with a prolonged rally in the final canto.

Brandon was high point man of the contest, while Reeves, capable center was second with a total of 10 points. Besides accounting for a few points, Janeway and Greenwood were the large factors in holding the fast Cashion team to 15 points. Rutledge was high point man for the losers with a total of five points.

The passing and shooting attack of the Pack worked almost to perfection in this contest with the Wichita county champions. Brandon found little trouble in finding the basket, while his teammates worked the ball into shooting area with baffling passes.

The Coyotes will open their conference next Saturday night with the Childress Bobcats on the home court. This is the first game that will be open to the public, and it will also be the first time that the home fans will get a chance to see the Coyotes in action.

On the following Wednesday night, the Coyotes will meet Electra in their second conference game. These are the only two Coyote games that have been scheduled.

Tillman County Track Meets Discontinued

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., Jan. 14.—Members of the executive committee of the Tillman County Interscholastic association Monday afternoon voted to discontinue the annual county track meet, and prorate funds set aside to finance the meet to the schools represented with basket ball teams this season.

The basket ball tournament will be held in Frederick from Feb. 18 through Feb. 20, it was decided, with Frank Malone, Consolidated No. 13, managing the games.

Adults and students will be admitted for the season for 75 and 50 cents respectively. Single admissions are 15 and 10 cents.

Electrans Hosts to Clara Teams Tonight

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Jan. 14.—The Electra Tigers and the senior girls volley ball team will meet the Clara teams on the local courts Friday night. The games are expected to be interesting as Clara is said to have fast teams this year. Results of the games will count toward the round robin championship of the county in each event. Coach E. M. Tampke has been putting his charges through strenuous workouts this week, and Miss Ethel Varnell, coach of the girls, has been practicing the girls daily. Saturday night the Vernon Lions play the Tigers here. The Lions defeated the Tigers at Vernon several weeks ago by a topheavy score.

Babe Ruth Refuses to Sign Contract Calling for $70,000 Per Year Salary

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Baseball's greatest wage earner, Babe Ruth, cast a withering glance today at a contract calling for $70,000, a reduction of 12½ per cent from last year, stuffed it back in his pocket and hurried out to get in a few rounds of golf.

The big fellow is a holdout again. He doesn't like Col. Jacob Ruppert's offer for 1932. He's going to stand firm either for $80,000 for one year or $70,000 for a two-year contract.

"No, sir, I won't sign that thing," said the Babe, stabbing the papers with a stubby forefinger. "I think I'm worth the other $10,000 after the season I had. They're making a joke of this cutting business."

Stirs His Wrath

He was standing stiff-legged before a window of his Riverside drive apartment, studying the figures on the soldiers and sailors monument across the way. Somehow, the scene appeared to muster his martial spirit.

"Where do they get all this cutting?" he demanded. "If they keep it up, pretty soon the public's going to want its cut, too. Then where'll they be? I haven't heard of them reducing the admission prices.

"Nope, I'm not going to call Colonel Ruppert about it. I'm just going to send this contract right back."

By that time the big home run knocker had climbed into his overcoat, slung a bag of clubs over his shoulder and was heading for the great outdoors, impatient to swing at a golf ball. Contract troubles slipped from his mind as he stepped into the sunshine.

"Boy, what a day for golf."

Ruppert Philosophic

The owner of the Yankees, meanwhile, had adopted his usual philosophic attitude where the Babe and money matters are concerned. They've always gotten together before, he reasons, so why get excited. Informed of Ruth's demand, Colonel Ruppert said:

"I do not think we can do better than a one-year contract at $70,000. I haven't talked with Ruth yet, but we will discuss the matter and I am sure we can reach an agreement quickly. We have never had much trouble doing so before."

Memphis Picks Honor Basket Ball Team

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, Texas, Jan. 14.—After the victory of the Whirlwind, champions of the Navy league in the physical education classes, over the Sing Sings, an all-high school basket ball team was selected. The players winning berths on the honor team are Alfred Burks, center, of the Vanishing Five team; Jack Sitton, forward, Sing Sing; "Bo" McMillan, forward, Whirlwinds; Floyd White, guard, Whirlwinds; George May, Whirlwinds.

The Whirlwinds were the only team to place three men. These men figured prominently in the success of their teams.

Sitton played good ball throughout the schedule, leading his team in the final playoff. McMillan was high point man of the Navy league. Burks and May figured prominently in the success of their teams. The men picked were not chosen for the success their teams enjoyed but for their individual playing.

Seymour Noses Out Red Springs, 12 to 10

SEYMOUR, Texas, Jan. 14.—The Seymour Panthers opened their 1932 basket ball season here Wednesday when they nosed out the Red Springs squad by the small score of 10 to 12. Both teams showed good form, the Panthers in particular, since they had been rated as the "under dogs", and since the local squad was the less experienced of the two fives.

Coach Jenkins of the Panthers has announced that the local school will be entered in the tournament to be held in Munday the latter part of this month. Since Red Springs had been considered the strongest quintet in Baylor county the local squad has been in high hopes since Wednesday. They hope to show some fire in the tournament.

PONIES MEET HERD TONIGHT

Mustangs Go Through Final Workout at Dallas

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Jan. 14.—Taking their final workout here today, the Southern Methodist Mustangs will embark tomorrow morning for Austin where they start their 1932 Southwest conference campaign tomorrow night against Texas. The Mustangs are the only team that did not play last week. Texas split a two-game series with the University of Arkansas.

Coach Jimmy St. Clair of Southern Methodist scouted the Texas-Arkansas series and has spent this week imparting to his cagers some tips he picked up at Fayetteville. The Mustangs were runners-up in last year's conference race but are not expected to prove as formidable this season.

Starters Indicated

St. Clair indicated after workout today that he will start Ray Johnson and Williams at forwards, Bill Johnson at center and McLaughlin and Browning at guards.

The Southern Methodist and Texas tilt is the only conference affair tomorrow night. The other conference game will be Saturday night at Fort Worth where Rice will play Texas Christians, winner of last year's championship. Rice is tied with Baylor for first place by virtue of having defeated Texas A. & M. last week, 40 to 29.

Victorious over the Denton Teachers, 36 to 17, the Southern Methodist Mustangs are confident of taking Texas. The Mustangs will have practically the same team that was barely nosed out for the conference title in 1931. Bill Skeeters and Jake Reynolds, two outstanding stars are gone, but the Mustangs have capable replacements.

Two Regulars Back

Captain Elkins and John Tullis are the only members of the Texas lineup who were regulars last season. They will start at forwards against the Mustangs, with Bill Kubright, one of the conference's leading scorers, at center and Ed Price and Bennie Rundell at guards.

Spectators who witnessed the Rice and Texas Christian game Saturday night are due to see a torrid contest. Texas Christian turned loose a lot of reckless shots from mid-court against Baylor that failed. As a result, their intensive drills this week have been in the fundamentals of passing and free-goal shooting plus a few lectures from Coach Schmidt on the folly of taking wild shots.

Rice, led by Hess and Dixon, scored fast and often against Texas A. & M., and if the Hess-Dixon combination is working again Saturday night, Texas Christian is in for trouble.

DIEGEL AHEAD IN GOLF MEET

Leo Supplants Morrison At Agua Caliente

AGUA CALIENTE, Baja Calif., Jan. 14. (UP)—Leo Diegel, former P. G. A. champion, scored a 68 today to take the lead for the world's richest golf stake, the $15,000 Agua Caliente open.

Diegel's 68 gave him a total of 138, six under par, for the first 36 holes of the 72-hole tournament. He scored a 70 yesterday.

Diegel's clubs produced four birdies on the last nine holes of the second round this afternoon to score a 33.

Ahead at Half

Diegel was playing in the best form of his career, to lead at the halfway mark by two strokes over Charles Guest, Deal, N. J., who shot a 69 today to couple with his 71 of yesterday for 140. Gene Sarazen, New York, finished the day in third place with a par 72. Along with a 70 for the first round he had a total of 142.

Fred Morrison, big Culver City pro and Southern California open champion, after setting the pace yesterday with a 69, three under par, ran into all kinds of trouble today with his approaches and putting to card a 74 for 143. In this spot he was tied with Harry Cooper Chicago, who shot a 71, one under, along with his 72 on the first 18.

One thing that stood out was the withdrawal of MacDonald Smith. He shot under par to take the $2,000 first prize in the $7,500 Los Angeles open last week. He shot a 78 yesterday, which put him way out of the money and withdrew today, saying a severe cold was the cause.

As for some of the other stars:

Walter Hagen, former British and national open champion, found the going very much to his liking and recorded a 70—two under par—to get back in the running. Hagen now rests in a tie with Paul Runyon, of New York at 144 and should the leaders show signs of slipping he is liable and able to move in.

Von Elm Sinks

"Business Man" golfer George Von Elm of Los Angeles, and Johnny Golden of Noroton, Conn., who tied for first money last year, remained in the tournament, but their positions were not any too favorable.

Von Elm, by reason of a 74 Wednesday and a 76 today, was in the 150 bracket—12 strokes behind Diegel. Golden, however, was somewhat better off, being in the 146 class. It was only a brilliant 70, however, in the second round today that enabled the Connecticut devotee to get back in the race for a portion of the $15,000 stakes in the offing.

Weather conditions were much better for the second round and scores improved accordingly, despite fairways that were heavy and slow from the rains of yesterday.

For tomorrow, officials in charge announced, the field will be reduced to the 80 low scorers and ties for the first two rounds. Inasmuch as a great number of amateurs dropped out during Wednesday's rains all the professional entrants managed to make the grade and will continue in the fight tomorrow.

If your child hates his bath perhaps it would be a good idea to buy him a gay colored fish which contains a tiny spring. Even a very young child can "wind them up" and the way they zip around the edge of the tub makes a bath fascinating to a child.

Grunt and Groan Show Tonight

After twice wrestling to no decision draws in the past two weeks, Cowboy Teddy Waters of Childress, and Doc Muller, the Austin chiropractor, meet tonight in a finish match at the weekly grunt and groan show staged at Bob Connor's arena at 607 Scott. Since the wrestling show returned to Wichita Falls no pair of grapplers have received the favorable comment this pair has received in the past two weeks and a great cry has gone up for the pair to meet in a finish match. The two have displayed a willingness to mix it from start to finish.

Whitey Grove will be back again on this week's card and his opponent comes to Wichita Falls as a stranger to the fans, but as a wrestler with a big reputation as a mixer behind him. Grove meets Juan Humberto, the Mexican sheik, in the semifinal match on the card. This match will be 45-minute time limit match.

There will also be a 20-minute preliminary on the card between Emmett Disheroon and Curly Pink. Disheroon has lost very few battles in Wichita Falls and is a great favorite. The Electra wrestler threw Disheroon last week in a one-fall match.

The second string players, with Jewell Smith as their leader, had to fight from start to finish. Elbert was leading at the half with a score of 17 to 10. The Olney girls rallied in the last half and won with a wonderful display of teamwork.

Thompson, Riggins and Roberts were the outsanding players for the losers while Smith, Diggs and Beacham showed their ability as defense players for Olney.

The lineups:

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and punk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food don't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

To take these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get them two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Accept a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Cotton was more active today and prices again advanced, touching the highest levels reached since about the middle of November.

There was active buying by foreign spinners, including the continent and the Far East, while the early sharp upturn in the stock market and evidences of a more optimistic feeling regarding credit and business developments, brought in a more general demand and resulted in a considerably broader interest.

The March position at one time sold at 6.71 an advance of 9 points from the previous close and while the market reacted from the top under profit taking the tone of the general market was steady and the final was 3 to 7 points net higher.

The South sold moderately at times, but offers from that quarter were not large and reports from the South said that the basis was holding firm, although low grades seemed to be offering rather more freely.

The firmness in the Bremen market attracted considerable attention, especially as continental spinners seemed more disposed to fix prices here. The census bureau placed the domestic consumption of cotton during December at 415,517 bales, against 428,870 in November and 405,518 in December, 1930.

Liverpool cabled that the market there advanced on general buying and trade calling and reacted partially under realizing and on higher sterling and reported sales of 40,000 bales of Russian cotton there. Exports today 16,989 making 4,390,001 so far this season. Port receipts today 39,546. U. S. port stocks 4,858,063.

Futures closed steady, 3 to 7 points higher. Spot steady; middling, 6.75.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 14. (AP)—Cotton showed more active trading today, and although prices gained 8 to 10 points in the morning later they lost nearly all of this improvement on realizing and hedge selling of the later months. The day's fluctuations were mainly due to the course of the stock market. There was a slight rally of 2 to 4 points at the end on covering and the close was steady, showing net gains for the day of 4 to 7 points.

The markets opened active and firmer as Liverpool cables came in one to three penny points better than due. Private Liverpool cables stated that there was general buying. Manchester cabled further cloth sales to India.

March closed at 6.66, up 6 points net for the day, while May closed at 6.82 and July at 6.98, up 4 points net on both months.

Liverpool is due unchanged to one penny point down tomorrow on New Orleans.

Stock and Bond Prices Close Higher But Market Is Lacking in Enthusiasm

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (US)—Both stock and bond price averages finished higher today, but there was lacking in the markets the enthusiasm of the previous day.

It was quite logical to expect considerable profit-taking to develop after the sizable upturn of yesterday.

There is also, of course, continued skepticism apparent toward the present advance, although no concerted bear opposition is yet evident. This is a factor of considerable importance, especially since some of the die-hard bears suddenly assumed a constructive attitude and have for the past few weeks been actively sponsoring the market.

Their abandonment of the bear side of the market naturally lifted a cover of pressure from many stocks which they had been continually bearing; this itself might have been sufficient to allow the market a fair-sized recovery.

So that there was a two-edged source of aid to the market: Removal of organized bear opposition, and addition of the former bear operators to the bull ranks. Trading volume was sharply larger today in stocks, exceeding two and a half million shares.

The last thing the best friends of the market desire is a runaway advance, even if this were possible. More than anything else a stabilized market is the objective of the most influential interests. Especially is this the objective in the government bond section of the markets; today the treasury issues continued strong. Once the doubt passes concerning financial integrity of the government, a real start will have been made toward sustained and lasting improvement in the general situation.

The strenuous efforts of Washington to achieve a balanced budget as largely as possible from revenues rather than borrowing emphasize the direction in which the great financial powers are aiming.

By reducing the size of necessary government borrowing, there will be removed an influential factor for doubt in the bond list.

For this reason, there is more than ordinary significance in current developments at Washington pertaining to the ultimate plan for meeting the huge treasury deficits.

There were few unusual price fluctuations in stocks, although considerable churning was noticeable throughout the list. Particularly is this the case in those issues in which newly-organized pools are operating.

Practically every active issue is responding to the pool activities.

A good many pools have selected rail shares as their media, encouraged of course by the prospective wage cuts and the hope for governmental assistance to those needy roads which have necessary qualifications.

There was disappointment in the continued delay on the Chicago railway wage negotiations. The markets are taking it for granted that some reduction in wages will be effected.

One thing is certain: If a 10 per cent unrestricted wage slash is obtained by the roads it will mean enormous increase in net available for their securities.

It is hardly surprising under the circumstances that speculative rail bonds should have rebounded so sensationally; some issues have more than doubled in value from their December lows.

Failure of the New York Federal Reserve bank directors to lower the rediscount rate, as expected in some quarters, is hardly surprising.

Money rates can hardly be blamed for continuing the depression; they are low enough to stimulate business and the stock market if all other factors were favorable.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP)—Multiplied pressure to sell that developed in the wheat pit shortly before the finish of trading today disclosed that the market had been overbought. A quick tumble of more than a cent a bushel followed.

Waning of aggressive support which grains had borrowed from strength shown by Wall street securities was partly ascribed to snowfalls in Kansas and Nebraska and to denials of a report that the federal farm board had sold 10,000,000 bushels of wheat to Greece. Enlarged Russian exports of wheat counted also as a disturbing influence.

Wheat closed unsteady, ½@1c under yesterday's finish, corn ⅛@¾c down, oats ⅛@¾c off, and provisions at 2 cents to 7 cents advance.

Corn and oats gave way with wheat, despite colder weather and snows over part of the corn belt.

Broader general demand for lard and meats proved more than a counterbalance for downturns in hog values.

Closing indemnities; Wheat, May 55⅝@¾c, 56⅜@¾c; july 54⅞@55c, 56c; Sept. 56⅛c, bids.

PIT NOTES

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (US)—Although the close in wheat was rather weak the trade saw no reason to change views regarding the market. Most locals are inclined to the belief that the market will hold to a narrow range and remain largely a trading affair until there is some development of sufficient importance to create new interest.

Some of the wheat selling was based on failure of the cold wave to reach territories where it might be damaging.

The Kansas weekly crop report said it had been a favorable week for wheat in that state though there was some complaint of damage by alternate freezing and thawing in southeastern counties.

A little business in Canadian durums to Hamburg and American durums to Italy for January shipments was reported today.

CASH GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP)—Wheat—No. 3 yellow, hard, 55@55¼c; No. 1 northern spring, 65c.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14. (AP) (U.S.D.A.)—Limited receipts proved to be a beneficial factor in the day's trade on cattle in maintaining generally steady prices for most killing classes. Figures at eastern dressed beef centers to live weight cattle values would have worked materially lower. Receipts at 11 markets totaled 21,200 as compared with 37,456 last Thursday. Accumulated arrivals for the week number around 4,000 less than the same four days last week. Majority of slaughter steers and yearlings cleared at $5.00@7.00. Most heifers and mixed yearlings turned at $4.25@6.00. Trade in stockers and feeders was very limited with prices quotable steady.

Weak to $1.00 lower prices on dressed pork at eastern centers reflected an even 5@25c decline in values on live weights during the day's trade. St. Louis reported one load up to $4.30 which was out of line with the general market while high sales elsewhere ranged within a spread of $3.80@4.15.

Lambs were able to keep a steady to strong hold on yesterday's 25@50c advance at most points with most better grade wooled kinds at $5.75@6.35. Strictly choice natives in Chicago sold up to $6.60. A few fed shorn Texas lambs made $4.75@5.00 while other clipped kinds were noted at $5.00@5.50.

Lieutenant Commissioner and Mrs. Alexander M. Damon of Atlanta, Ga., who will conduct a three days' young people's congress of the Salvation Army for Northwest Texas here beginning Saturday.

Salvation Army Commissioner Noted For Solving Industrial Disputes

Lieut. Commissioner Alexander M. Damon of the Salvation Army, who will arrive in Wichita Falls Friday afternoon to conduct a three-days' young people's congress here for the Northwest Texas division, is one of the foremost officers in that organization in the United States.

A native of Massachusetts, the commander for 15 southern states began his career at the age of 6 as a business man, selling apples to employes of a mill engaged in spinning Texas cotton. At the age of 17, he came into contact with the Salvation Army, and soon forsook a prosperous grocery business for that work. He has been constantly in the Salvation Army service for more than 40 years.

Featuring social service in his activities, Lieut. Commissioner Damon has been called frequently into conference by large corporations to assist in solving problems of unemployment, strikes, etc. He is the author of numerous pamphlets of wide circulation dealing with efficient methods of handling such crises.

The southern commander holds a degree of doctor of divinity, and is known as one of the most forceful speakers in the service. He is accompanied by Mrs. Damon, who has organized the Salvation Army's social work in many of the larger cities of the United States. The commissioner will speak from radio station KGKO Friday night from 9 to 9:15 o'clock.

Young people's leaders from Abilene, Amarillo, Graham, Big Spring, Lubbock, Pampa, Plainview and Wichita Falls will attend the congress which opens here Saturday morning. Lieut. Col. David Main of Dallas, state commander, and Mrs. Main will be present, and will be introduced by Miss Fontella Warren of this city. Three sessions daily will be held on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. All services on the first two days of the congress will be for the public, it was announced.

SHIPMENTS OF GASOLINE GAIN

Refiners Reduce Stocks During Week

Special to The Record News.

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 14.—Refiners of the mid-continent continue the task of getting their house in order. Analytical figures of refinery operations for the week ended Jan. 8, show that gasoline shipments totaled 41,594,000 gallons for the week, an increase of 1,600,000 gallons over the previous week.

Production of motor fuel was stepped up 6,322,000 gallons, due to the need to manufacture more kerosene, distillate and gas oil, now in steady demand. However refiners were able to keep stocks turning downward and reported a decrease of 527,000 gallons.

The weekly report compiled by staff writers of National Petroleum News and Platt's Oilgram tend to accentuate the curtailment policy that refiners have voluntarily and individually put into effect.

The refineries of the province produced 41,067,000 gallons of gasoline, compared with 34,745,000 gallons the week previous. Daily crude runs for the area in barrels follows:

Area—	Past Week	Pv. Week
Kansas	62,071	56,734
Oklahoma	78,931	63,117
North Central Texas	49,311	42,121
West Texas	20,549	11,391
N. Louisiana-Arkansas	42,484	[illegible]
Totals	253,346	211,146

Motor fuel production follows in gallons:

Kansas	10,992,000	8,667,000
Oklahoma	13,281,000	11,873,000
North Central Texas	8,872,000	7,514,000
West Texas	2,128,000	1,623,000
N. Louisiana-Ark.	5,794,000	5,068,000
Totals	41,067,000	34,745,000

How gasoline shipments increased is revealed as follows:

Kansas	11,334,000	9,183,000
Oklahoma	13,378,000	15,916,000
North Central Texas	9,847,000	6,089,000
West Texas	1,095,000	2,105,000
Louisiana-Arkansas	5,940,000	6,649,000
Totals	41,594,000	39,942,000

Changes in gasoline stocks for the province also follow:

Kansas	33,913,000	34,255,000
Oklahoma	39,169,000	39,266,000
N. Central Texas	35,126,000	36,101,000
West Texas	14,868,000	13,835,000
N. Louisiana-Ark.	4,218,000	4,364,000
Totals	127,294,000	127,821,000

Fifty-nine and three-tenths per cent of the total gasoline produced was by straight running at the plant, or 24,359,000 gallons; 31.5 per cent was by cracking, or 12,924,000 gallons, and natural gasoline supplied 9.2 per cent, or 3,784,000 gallons.

Refiners increased their output of kerosene to 5,282,000 gallons, or a 10 per cent step up over the 4,800,000 gallons made the previous week. Shipments totaled 5,282,000 gallons, or 16.3 per cent less than the week before and stocks totaled 22,649,000 gallons, a gain of 1.3 per cent.

THEY BOTH BELIEVE IN SIGNS . . . BUT DIFFERENT KINDS OF SIGNS

The gentleman on the left is a firm believer in signs. He has had a "For Sale" sign on his house for months although nobody seems to notice it.

But look at the cheerful chap on the right. He hasn't a care in the world. And he believes in signs, too! But he wisely let his sign take the form of a classified ad with an attractive description of his property.

Realizing that only a limited few would pass his house, he placed his ad in the Daily Times-Record News where he knew that countless hundreds would read it. The house was sold—and he's joined that ever growing army of satisfied advertisers who know from experience how dependable and profitable a classified ad in this paper can be!

Childress Rotarians Attend Meeting Here

The uses of adversity were extolled as factors which make men capable of complete success in an address given Thursday noon before the Rotary club by Rev. Garland Shell, pastor of the Childress Presbyterian church. A delegation of Rotarians from Childress joined the Wichita Falls club in Thursday's meeting.

Mental readjustment is necessary if we are to advance under present conditions, the speaker said. Increased faith and courage as the antidotes of anxiety and fear may be possessed as surely now, he declared, as during supposedly "easy" times.

Dr. O. T. Kimbrough read a report of the activities of the Wichita Falls Boys club for the year 1931. The meeting was in charge of Linton Estes, president of the local club.

Burk Man Asks Election as Commissioner

Jim Snoddy, member of the Wichita county school board, has announced his candidacy for the office of county commissioner from the Burkburnett precinct. His announcement follows:

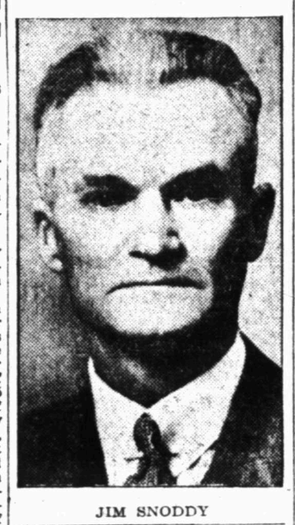

"I take this opportunity of announcing my candidacy for the office of county commissioner from the Burkburnett precinct.

"I came to Wichita county when a boy, 41 years ago, in the year 1890. When a young man, I was employed for several years on the old Speck ranch, one of the pioneer institutions of the early history of Wichita county. For the last 25 years, I have been farming west of Burkburnett. I believe that my long residence in the county, coupled with my knowledge of what I believe the people need and should have in my precinct, as well as in the county, qualifes me for this office. I am opposed to further increase of taxes. I am in favor of cutting the expenses of the county. I note this year, that taxes are higher than they were last year in this county in the face of the greatest depression we have ever seen.

"I am fully aware of the fact that the commissioners of the county have a very important duty to perform. It is they who must preside over the expenditures of the county's money. If I am elected commissioner of this county, I am going to oppose tax increase; rather I am going to be in favor of tax reduction. People can't pay this enormous tax burden, when it's mounting higher and higher each year. If my people want me as their commissioner, I will promise them an efficient and economical administration, and no taxes will be increased except over my protest.

"I am not seeking this office merely in order to have a job, but rather feel it a patriotic duty, at the solicitation of my friends, to help inaugurate a period of economy in the administration of the affairs of Wichita county."

Two Held Under $1,500 Bond in Store Robbery

Aubrey Tarkington and Robert Tuck were bound over to the grand jury under bond of $1,500 each on charges of burglary at the conclusion of a preliminary hearing before Judge O. L. Gibbs in justice court Thursday afternoon.

The youths were accused of having burglarized the James Morgan Grocery store, 1809 Holliday street, last Sunday night. They were arrested about 8 o'clock Monday morning by City Officers Noah Daves and Luke Hart. A quantity of groceries, allegedly taken from the Morgan store, were found at the house where the two defendants were arrested, it was shown.

CLERK SEEKS DISTRICT POST

Mrs. A. B. Eichelberger Makes Announcement

The Democratic voters of Wichita county are asked to return to office, for a second term, Mrs. A. B. Eichelberger, district clerk, who seeks a return to that office based upon the service rendered and the results accomplished while in charge for the past two years.

Mrs. Eichelberger is probably one of the best known women in Wichita county, not only because of the public service which she has rendered as chief deputy in the district clerk's office and as clerk herself, but for the reason that she was reared from infancy and has spent her entire life in Wichita Falls and this community, and has devoted her entire life to affairs of this county, and the past decade in rearing a family, of which she is now the sole head.

Every attorney, litigant and juror who has served in this county for the past seven years is well acquainted with Mrs. Eichelberger's pleasing personality and the courteous service which she and her deputies have rendered.

"I am not asking the Democratic voters of Wichita county," Mrs. Eichelberger said, "to return me to office merely because I ask it of them, but cordially invite the voters as a whole to make a thorough investigation, from those in a position to know, as to the manner in which I have conducted the affairs which come under my jurisdiction. The records will bear out that the money of the taxpayers has been carefully guarded and handled, and with pardonable pride, I refer to the report of the auditors most recently made in which they stated: 'The books of the district clerk's office are in the best condition and more accurately kept than any others we have come in contact with.'

"At the close of the year 1930, the district clerk's office, while I was in charge of the affairs thereof, returned to the county treasury more money than was ever returned in any one year prior thereto.

"Although I have attempted to personally thank all those who gave me their active support two years ago, and have further endeavored to show my appreciation for the honors reposed on me by giving that kind of service to which the public as a whole is always entitled, and at this time I again want to express my sincere appreciation for all that which the voters of my county have done for me and my family, and earnestly solicit their sincere consideration in the coming primary this summer, and give you my whole-hearted promise that if returned to office I will continue to do and perform my duties in the same manner as I have done in the past."

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Coughs

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute relief for colds and coughs due to colds. Authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk sixty cents for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold or cough fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night.—Adv.

The new tournament was arranged with preliminary games to be played as follows: Roland Brown vs. A. F. Edwards; Louise van Emden vs. Frances Hyland; Lee Ellen Boardman vs. Katherine Stewart; Betty Jane Sehmann vs. Loreta Nichols; Jane McCulloch vs. Athlea Roberts; Joe Long vs. Harry Daugherty; Rowan Fisher vs. Bill Huper; Harry Lewis vs. Lovelle Deselle; Oral Jones vs. Paul Jones; Thomas C. Students to Make Up Work

The San Jacinto holiday on April 21 and Jan. 23 will require the presence of local public school students at their various schools to make up for the two days lost during the Christmas holidays, according to H. D. Fillers, superintendent of public schools.

Mr. Fillers explained that his decision Wednesday that the students should make up the lost days on those two days was caused by the fact that the Southern Association of Secondary Schools requires that the city have 175 school days per year. As the local system is a member of that organization, Mr. Fillers made the adjustment to comply with the rules.

On Jan. 23, only the students who need to be recalssified in the different grades will be asked to come to school.

Girl Reserves

T. F. Richardson, chemistry instructor in the high school, led members of the high school and Junior college Girl Reserves in a devotional on "Thought" at the regular meeting Thursday morning in the high school auditorium.

Miss Jesse Warren was in charge of the entertainment, which included a Mexican dance by Miss Maurine Adams, who wore a costume imported from Mexico.

Announcement was made of a banquet to be given the Girl Reserves Saturday to honor the midyear seniors.

COMFORT for COLICKY BABIES

with Castoria's gentle regulation

"The best way to cure colic," says a famous doctor, "is to prevent it." And the best way to prevent it is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste.

But there's one thing to remember here. A tiny baby's tender organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged.

This is just the place Castoria comes to a mother's aid. Castoria, you know, is made specially for the delicate needs of babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation which is absolutely harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics.

Children never fight Castoria. They like its taste and the relaxed comfort its gentle regulation brings.

For many years it has helped mothers through trying ordeals with colicky babies, with children suffering from digestive upsets, colds and other little ailments. Keep it on hand for your children. You can always tell genuine Castoria by the name Chas. H. Fletcher.
