'Back to Prosperity' Campaign Announced

Tornadoes Outplay Antelopes In Fast Armistice Affray, 19-0

The Tornadoes furnished the spectators with plenty of thrills Wednesday afternoon when they downed Post High by a score of 19 to 0.

The Tornadoes reached down in the bag and pulled out some fancy foot ball to out wit and out class the Post boys. The Tornadoes headed by the backfield play of Marr, Treadway and Cox was just too much for them.

While Marr was calling the plays Treadway and Cox were carrying the ball. Cox's kicking was the feature of the game, kicking equally as far with as against the wind. Boswell and Lowmore were the stars in the Tornado line. Both played heads up foot ball and were always in Post's way. Koger is due mention in his play also. Playing good ball and in the last quarter intercepting a pass and running 35 yards for a touchdown. In the first quarter Marr intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards but was downed on the forty yard line.

The Post team was headed by Captain Hawthorne at fullback, Stanley at center and Key at left end. Key being the key to their passing attack with Hawthorne doing the kicking and majority of running with the ball. Stanley was the defensive star breaking through and stopping the Tornadoes for losses several times.

Post based her attack upon her passes which were not completely broken up. Speck did the passing and was a very neat little player however he was out classed on his returning of punts by Treadway.

The game was rather lengthy being several times out and lots of penalties enforced. Lamesa was penalized six times for a total of 80 yards while Post was penalized four times for 30 yards.

The features of the game was the kicking of Cox, punt returning of Treadway, passing of Speck and defensive play of Stanley. Both teams were rather evenly matched in weight with Post having the edge but Lamesa's boys had the most fight.

The starting line ups were:

Lamesa	Post
Womack	Center
Gable	Right Guard
Boswell	Right Tackle
Koger	Right End
Marr	Quarter

Lamesa Fittingly Observes Armistice

A very fine patriotic program under the auspices of the local American Legion was enjoyed by Lamesans here the 11th, celebrating the thirteenth anniversary of the armistice which brought to a close the world war. The program opened by a band concert at 10:45 A. M. on the Court House Lawn, followed by the singing of America, led by V. Z. Rogers. A short talk by Post Commander Reed and the main address of the day by the Rev. Cooper of the Church of Christ on the subject of World Peace. Mr. Cooper emphasized that world peace could never become a reality until the nations and people of the world can let the Golden Rule dominate in their dealings.

A beautiful flag raising ceremony followed Mr. Cooper's address, the large audience joining heartily in the service of respect to the flag. A firing squad of World War Veterans fired a salute, after which Conway King blew taps as a dismissal.

A most delicious basket dinner was then enjoyed at the Legion Hall by the veterans and their families. Carl Rountree acquitted himself in a very fine way in an after dinner address on Service to the Nation. Others coming in for short talks and jokes were G. M. Roberts, Rev. Cooper, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Bailey, J. D. Dyer, L. B. Reed, S. Richardson and others. Phillip Yonge presided at the hall. Many beautiful seasonal flowers decorated the hall most pleasingly. Mrs. W. K. Crawley, Mrs. J. J. Robinson and others having contributed largely to the collection. After the program ended the flowers were taken to the grandmothers of the town and to the hospitals.

Poultry For Food and Profit

Realizing that greater profits can be made from the sale of a finished poultry product home demonstration club members have been learning to dress and can a marketable poultry product. Frying and baking size birds were killed by sticking to insure a good bleed so that the meat would be more attractive and have better keeping qualities, then dressed and prepared to can as fried chicken, cubed white meat, dark meat and ground meat for salads and creamed chicken and sandwiches.

LAMESA CLUB WOMEN ATTEND FEDERATED CLUB SESSION IN LUBBOCK

YOUR CITY

(This article was spoken by Billie Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Warren, before sixty men and women at the regular Ladies Evening Program of the Lamesa Luncheon Club, Nov. 3, 1931. It was arranged by Wm. A. Wilson, manager of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.)

I am your city make me what you will. I shall reflect you as clearly as a mirror.

If outwardly, my appearance is pleasing and inviting it is because you have made me so. If within my elvish atmosphere is kindly, friendly, sincere, strong, vigorous and humanly expressed it is but the manifestation of the spirit of those who make my citizenship.

If you should by chance find me a bit cold, dull, sluggish, inhospitable, and indifferent, I beg of you not to condemn me; for I show forth only the kind of life or spirit or individuality which you have shown.

If I have paved streets, good schools, fine churches, splendid business, it is because you as one of my citizens, helped me make them. If I have a spirit of loyalty it is because you are loyal. If my boys and girls are proud of me it is because they are happy to call YOU their parents. You have made me, I am YOUR CITY.

If some sit around on my curb and berate me—they are that part of me likened unto a cancer which is eating its own source of food, and because you permit them to do so. You are the doctor and the surgeon with ample knife facilities to perform your own operations—I am your city and will look just like you wish me. A city proud, prosperous, thriving, and happy; or a city bum—with curb stone lizards and a lazy citizenship—ANY WAY I AM YOUR CITY.

You may always be assured I will respond instantly to your every wish, practically expressed, for I am the reflected image of YOU. Make of me WHAT YOU WILL, for I am YOUR CITY.

Wm. A. Wilson

If You Don't Pay Your Taxes We Lose

The school will have to shut down short of nine months term if taxes are not paid. The State cannot pay the per capita distribution for like the local School tax it depends on your payment for the school to run. So it behooves each and every one to pay their taxes promptly that we may have a full term of school, and by so doing we can hold our Classification, our Affiliation and our graduation class can complete their courses and receive their diplomas. If you do not pay your taxes it means a loss.

Home Made Cheese On The Increase

American cheese made from the surplus farm milk supply has become a popular addition to the list of many farm families. Since the rural women began making cheese last fall.

Three clubs organized during the summer were given the demonstration on making cheese at their request.

Miss Mickey Allen and Alline Howard were Lubbock visitors Monday night. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Claude Mason of Temple, Okla.

The State Meeting of Texas Federated Womens' Clubs is being attended so much better than even Lubbock expected. The banquet hall will not accommodate all who wish to attend. The President's address Monday evening was very good. Mrs. R. N. Lindsay has been one of the outstanding Presidents. Congressman J. Marvin Jones of Amarillo held the attention not all during an interesting address urging more club women to take an active part in government affairs.

Dr. Waghorn, pipe organist, who will give a recital in Lamesa soon was heard with interest.

Mrs. Whitmore of Snyder President of the Seventh District delivered her annual report Tuesday morning.

Lamesa appreciates the part of her club women who have helped to make this report what it was.

Big Subscription Drive and Thrift Coupon Books Feature

Workers Wanted In Every Part of Dawson County

Daily Pay To Workers

Drive to Last Only Three Weeks Offering Participants A Wonderful Opportunity to Make Big Earnings.

The Dawson County Courier today makes announcement of one of the most stupendous subscription campaigns ever offered by any newspaper in this section, and offering employment to any number of men, women, boys and girls in this and adjoining counties.

The plan will be known as the "Back to Prosperity" campaign, and is a co-operative effort between this newspaper and the merchants of Lamesa to increase the circulation of the Courier and expand the trade area of Lamesa business firms.

Those who join the "Back to Prosperity" club will receive liberal cash commissions and their earnings will be based solely upon the amount of effort they put into it. In addition to the cash commission each will have an opportunity to win the beautiful bed room suite purchased from Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. the retail value of which is $110. Should the winner decide they do not want the bed room suite they will be paid in cash the equivalent of the cash cost of the prize to the newspaper. So that the Courier will go into practically all of the homes of Dawson county the plan of the Texas Circulation Audit Company of Lubbock was adopted and the manager in charge will maintain an office in the Courier office during the life of the campaign and give assistance in every way possible to club members.

This will be the fairest and without doubt one of the most attractive campaigns ever held in this section.

WORKERS WANTED EVERYWHERE

In this drive this newspaper desires workers in every section of the trade territory. Whether you live in Dawson county or not, your chances of cashing on your spare time are wonderful.

To men and boys of this section we are furnishing an opportunity to make possible those desires for a greater income and a chance to increase their earning power come true. To the women and girls who have wished for money of their own, new furniture, new clothes, the Dawson County Courier offers an opportunity to make those secret dreams come true.

The Courier desires to secure workers in all of the communities of Dawson County.

This Campaign Different

Do not get the idea that this is just an ordinary "contest" such as are put on by many newspapers. And it is positively not linked with the well-known "Beauty Contest." We want active workers from all sections of Dawson County. In the towns as well as the rural sections, for the more who enter the easier it will be for someone to win the big special prize.

The pay you receive is liberal, and you receive daily pay, ten per cent of what you report each day, and ten per cent additional at the close of the campaign, if you remain active until the finish. What could be fairer? There is positively no chance for you to lose.

Early Start Big Help

The official opening day for the "Back to Prosperity" campaign is Nov. 13, but one need not wait until then to start work. Begin now. The campaign is of short duration—only three weeks and an early start will be a big help. We have set our goal at 2,000 new subscribers during the three weeks. This is a big undertaking.

and that is why we are offering such liberal commissions and offering a big special prize. We want results and are willing to pay to get results.

No Cost to Enter

There is no cost to enter, either now or later. There are no dues or membership fees. All that is necessary is to come to the Courier office with your entry blank, which you clip from the advertisement in this issue. We give you a working outfit, explain the proposition to you fully, then you are ready to begin work.

The campaign is open to anybody, with the exception of employees of this newspaper and members of their families. Correspondents are not employees and are therefore eligible to membership. We urge them to enter the campaign. The club is for individuals but you may get as many of your friends to help you as you wish. You are not restricted to any certain territory, but may work where you wish.

You do not have to devote all your time to the club, although of course you stand a much better opportunity to win the big special prize if you can spare full time. Get your friends to assist you. And we advise you to get an early start.

After reading this, turn to the big double page announcement in this issue and read it carefully, then decide to enter this club and come to the office at once. You do not even have to be a subscriber to enter this club. You never know what you can do until you try, and you must try before you can win. Let's go!

HOW TO ENTER—HOW TO WIN
Entering is easy. All you need to do is to fill out the ENTRY BLANK (to be found in another space in this announcement) and send or bring it to the campaign office. This is the first step. All necessary supplies and information will be given you immediately.

On your way to the office, tell your friends and acquaintances that you have joined the club—that you are in to WIN—and pick up one subscription as soon as possible.

REMEMBER THIS: There is positively no chance to be taken in winning the big special prize offered. It will positively be given to the club member who merits it by turning in the most work. The prize is free of any cash cost to the club member, and will be earned only by entering the club and securing new and renewal subscriptions to this newspaper and selling "Thrift Coupon Books." It does not cost you a cent to enter—either now or later—and you will be paid a cash commission on all the work you do, and at the same time you have an opportunity to win the big prize in addition.

YOU SAY YOU 'HAVEN'T THE TIME
One of the commonest expressions used to day is: "I haven't the time." Generally that person has plenty of time, if he would only use it. How often leaders of men and women have observed: "If you want something done, commission the busiest person you can find."

The successful person is one who budgets his time, spends it wisely as he spends money, save it as judiciously, invests it as carefully. Failures are not those who have tried and failed, but those who made no effort—who "Had not the time." The man who tries has his reward, as inescapable as the law of cause and effect. Its the same way in this campaign. If you enter early, if you work hard during your spare time, if you take advantage of every opportunity, you can't help but come in a winner. There is no "luck" about this proposition—no gamble—and you need not fight shy of taking the thirteenth subscription, for all are lucky in this campaign—and there will be no losers.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1—Any man, woman or child is eligible to join the club, but the management reserves the right to reject objectionable entrants.
- 2—No employee of this newspaper or member of an employees immediate family, may become a member of the club. This does not apply to carrier boys, newsdealers or correspondents.
- 3—This club is for individuals—not organizations.
- 4—The winner of the special prize will be decided by receipts issued by the campaign manager to club members and the prize will be awarded to the club member whose receipts show the best work done.
- 5—Club members may work where they please, collecting for back subscriptions and renewals as well as new subscriptions.
- 6—Cash must accompany all orders. Each club member is an authorized agent of this newspaper, and it is distinctly understood that each member will be responsible for money collected and remit amounts in full each DAY to the campaign department.
- 7—One member cannot withdraw in favor of another. Subscriptions cannot be transferred from one member to another, and any transferred business will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the campaign manager.
- 8—In the event of a tie for the special prize a prize identical in value will be awarded to each tying club member. The prize will not be divided.
- 9—ANY club member failing to make a cash report daily will be declared inactive and will forfeit their right to the prize or cash commission.
- 10—This newspaper reserves the right to correct any typographical errors that may occur in any of its announcements.
- 11—No statement or promise, either written or verbal, made by any one varying from the rules as set forth will be recognized.
- 12—In becoming a member or participating in this campaign club members agree to abide by the above conditions.

PAY DAILY

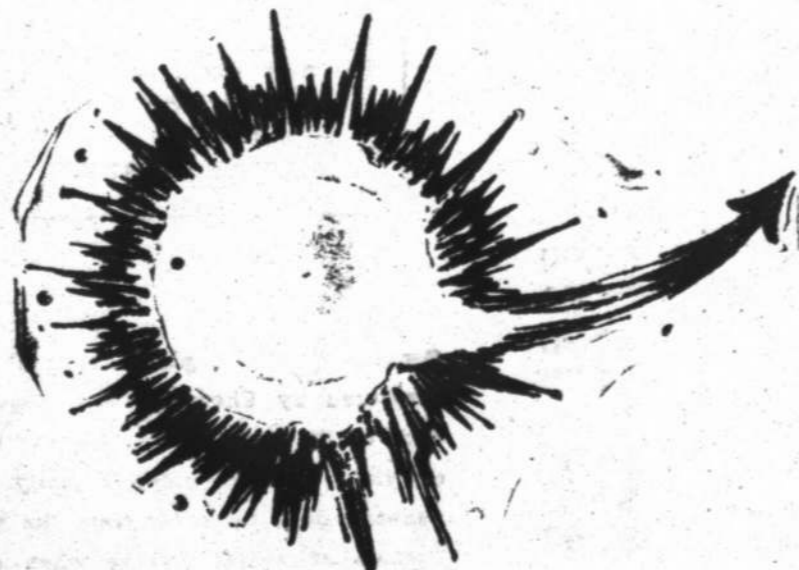

A unique and very desirable feature of this campaign is the Daily pay plan. Under this plan every worker is Paid Every Day for all subscriptions and coupon books collected for. Ten percent of all money collected is turned over to the club members every time a report is made. This ten percent represents half the commission money due the club members. In addition to this ten per cent paid daily, ten percent more will be paid to each club member at the close of the campaign if they remain active. No part of this commission will be deducted from the earnings of the winner of the special prize or prizes. The plan is simply this—every person entering this campaign earns $1.00 out of every $5.00 reported on the sale of subscriptions and coupon books half at the time of the report and the other half at the close if the club member remains active.

THE CASH
er of the special prize pay the cash cost of the prize instead of the special prize.

Read Before Venturing to Quote Shakespeare

When you have written some verses or made a wireless set, or achieved something of which you are rather proud, have you never said, with becoming modesty: "A poor thing, sir, but mine own." The quotation really begins "An ill-favored thing." Again, do you not often hear of something becoming small by degrees and beautifully less? That is a useless phrase, but it is not what the author wrote. He said "fine by degrees."

A common misquotation is "A goodly apple rotten at the core." Heart, not core, is the correct word. Similarly you should chew the food (not the cud) of sweet and bitter fancy.

There are some quotations which we make correctly, but with an entirely wrong meaning. When, for instance, we quote "One touch of nature makes the whole world kin," we usually imply that some particular event has drawn all creeds or nations or classes closer together. All that Shakespeare meant by the line was that in one way all human beings are very much alike.

Perhaps the strangest instance of all is to be found in the phrase "More honored in the breach than in the observance," which we take to mean that some rule is more often broken than kept. If you turn up "Hamlet," Act 1, Scene 4, you will find that Hamlet is speaking of the drinking bouts which disgrace the court. "It is a custom," he says, "more honored in the breach than the observance," meaning a custom that it would be more honorable to abandon than to keep up.—London Tit-Bits.

Cremation Long in Use for Disposal of Dead

Cremation is one of the three common methods of disposing of human remains which antedate history, the others being simple exposure and burial or entombment. Cremation was originally widely prevalent among the Indo-European races. Throughout northern Europe graves of the Bronze age contain not skeletons but urns for funeral ashes. Cremation was the general practice of the Romans for hundreds of years, while the Greeks also practiced it to a great extent. Many of the early American Indians burned their dead; the custom was common of old in England and in Gallic and Germanic Europe; and in India and parts of other oriental countries it is regularly followed today.

With the spread of Christianity, however, cremation became a rare thing. Charlemagne is said to have punished with death those who practiced it. Discussions looking toward its re-establishment began a century or two ago, but nothing came of them until Italy sanctioned cremation in 1829 by revoking prohibitory laws. It was legalized in France in 1887, and had been instituted in England two years earlier. It is now practiced to some extent in almost every country.

The Bell That Never Told

The Czar Kolokol lives in no palace and rules no nation; in fact, he does not live at all, being not a ruler, but a bell. The Czar Kolokol is the name of the largest bell in the world and the tourist may see it on its pedestal of granite at the foot of the tower of Ivan in the Kremlin, Moscow. It weighs 200 tons and at the base is 11 inches thick, while it is 54 feet in circumference. It is a broken bell; broken, it is said, when it was first tested, but it was never hung; the injury occurred before it could be made to ring, so that it is devoid of all tone. It has bas-reliefs showing the Czar Alexis Mikhalovitch and the Czarista Anna Ivanova.

Curious Request

In the old parish church of a small village not far from Swindon, Wiltshire, England, is an interesting tablet. It bears the following inscription: "To the memory of John Harding's 'will,' who died September 20, 1721. He gave by his will to the poor of the parish that have no collection out of the parish the sum of ten shillings a year, to be paid yearly at that time of the year he died, out of his ground called Pills, now in the possession of his widow, who duly pays the same, and after her death to be paid by the next taker of the ground, and so on to the world's end."

Beauvais Tapestry

Beauvais, so often seen by tourists on the way from Dieppe to Paris, now has a new, although sad, interest as the scene of the great dirigible disaster of October 4, 1930. It is an ancient town, where great tapestries have been made for centuries. Tourists have chiefly sought it for its interesting cathedral and for its Place de l'Hotel de Ville, which contains a statue to Jean Hachette, who led the women of Beauvais to victory against Charles the Bold in 1472.

Just a Suggestion

The owner of a large business was interviewing applicants for the post of office boy. He had a boy in front of him and was asking him all manner of questions.

"Now," went on the employer, "I'm looking for some one who must be exceptionally sharp and who must cost me very little."

"Well," said the boy, "I reckon you'd better send out for a lemon."

BALLARD NEWS
By Bob Lindsey

Miss Ruth Cox, teacher, spent last week end with her brother Gerald Cox who resides at Bartlett.

The school received four pictures of our first president. These pictures have been hung in each room directly over a set of Graves Schipt Charts which have recently been set up. Senator Marvin Jones sent these pictures and Ballard take this way of expressing its appreciation. Thank you Senator Jones.

Mrs. C. P. Crow was appointed a trustee of District 14 by the County School Board. Mr. Crow succeeds Mr. Cox who resigned earlier in the year.

H. H. Barron of Liberty, submits that if teachers imprint on the hearts of their pupils the single creed, "Tell the Truth," that better citizens will be the result.

Last Wednesday morning Ballard school had a very educational and interesting Armistice Day Program which included songs, peace scriptures, papers and patriotic poems. The program was concluded by the pupils giving the Allegiance to the Flag. Lucille Hamilton, student, was called to the bedside of her uncle in Lorenzo, Texas. He had been hurt in an accident.

Church services were suspended at Ballard last Sunday. The community went to the all day Methodist meeting at Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wage Bartlett has as their guest this week Mrs. Bartlett's mother an father, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shissette of Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. Wade of Harlingen, Texas.

MISS NIX AND GOODWIN ENTERTAIN

Miss Lunelle Nix, assisted by Misses Goodwin and Massengale entertained with a dinner party Saturday evening November 7 at the Nix suburban home in celebration of her parents' silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Nix returning from the office at 7 o'clock were welcomed into their own home by the guests, who had by arrangement preceded them. Dinner was immediately announced, and as the guests entered the dining room, a silver hand painted wedding bell, suspended from the chandelier over the center of the table, marked with the number of years of wedded life, first revealed to the honorees the meaning of the occasion. The table beautiful in all of its appointments, was laid in lace over white, centered with a silver bowl of white chrysanthemums. Tall white tapers burned in silver holders and place cards of miniature silver wedding bells bearing the monograms of the honorees further emphasized the anniversary motif. During the lovely three course dinner the party engaged in many happy reminiscences of the past quarter century after which Miss Nix entertained with games. Mr. and Mrs. Nix received many lovely gifts and warm wishes from their friends that they might be permitted to celebrate many more wedding anniversaries. Lesson for November 15 PAUL IN JERUSALEM

GOLDEN TEXT—For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.
LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:17-23:32.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul in Trouble.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in Trouble.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Faces His Enemies.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Bearing Testimony in the Holy City.

I. Paul's Vow (21:17-26).
Upon Paul's arrival at Jerusalem representatives of the church there gave him a cordial reception. In order that the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. They recognized that such an act would in no way compromise or involve the Gentile brethren. Nor did it compromise his own principle of action; namely, to the Jews he became a Jew and to the Gentiles a Gentile, all things to all men in order to gain them for Christ.

II. Paul's Arrest (21:27-40).
How far this act conciliated the Christian Jews we are not told, but it enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These maddened Jews seized Paul, dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly, intending to put him to death. He was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard. In order to protect him from the murderous frenzy of the mob, the soldiers lifted him upon their shoulders and bore him up the stairs. Paul kept himself under control and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people. When he addressed him in Greek and mentioned his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

III. Paul's Defense (22:1-27).
Paul's chief concern was not his own safety. He used this last opportunity to witness unto them of Christ.

1. His claim for a rightful hearing (vv. 1-3).

a. His birth (v. 3). He was a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation.

b. His education (v. 3). He was educated under the tutorship of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers.

c. His zeal (v. 3). He was as zealous toward God as the Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His former attitude toward Jesus (vv. 4, 5). "I persecuted this way unto the death."

3. How his attitude was changed (vv. 6-16). This change of attitude was brought about by the intervention of the Lord. While on his way to Damascus with authority to bind the Christians at Jerusalem, he was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou me?" When Paul inquired as to what he was to do, he was told to go into Damascus where he would receive instructions. Ananias was sent to him by the Lord for this purpose.

4. The Lord commissioned him to go to the Gentiles (vv. 17-21). It was not of his own will that he preached to the Gentiles but by the Lord's direct commission.

IV. Paul before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).
The Roman officer in order to learn why Paul was arrested commanded the chief council to assemble and brought Paul before them. This shows that there was an effort made by the Romans to give justice to Paul.

1. Paul's earnest look at the council (vv. 1, 2). This was a solicitation of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage.

2. Paul's stern rebuke of the head of the council. "God shall smite thee, thou whited wall." Paul shows that he had the highest respect for the office, but the man now occupying it was not worthy of it.

3. Paul's appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 6-10). Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees, for his preaching had something in common with their belief.

V. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11).
He was in great need of grace. He may have begun to question the wisdom of his going to Jerusalem, but the Lord assured him that his course was right.

VI. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 18-22).
More than forty men banded together for the purpose of getting Paul out of the way.

The Divine Presence
Of the reality of fellowship with God every religious man is assured. Religion implies such a fellowship of love and grace on the part of God. How such a consciousness brings strength and comfort to a human heart let every one who knows the power of salvation attest.

Chain of Blessing
Promise—prayer—performance are three links in the chain of blessing. If the middle link is missing, we have no right to expect the third.
