LUBBOCK COUNTY AT THE CROSSROADS

"TO PAVE, OR NOT TO PAVE, THAT IS THE ONLY QUESTION!" VOTE 'YES' ON TUESDAY

Find a city—in Texas or any other state—and radiating from it will be found a system of hardsurfaced highways.

Four municipalities of Western Texas, namely Amarillo, Abilene, San Angelo and Lubbock, are jousting for the position of this section's great metropolis. One of the quartet will climb to an unparalleled position. The other three will trail along behind.

Shall Lubbock trail behind or shall Lubbock lead? Look at San Angelo. Already it has a network of paved highways leading into it. Today men are working, augmenting that network.

Peer at Abilene. A fine system of paved roads radiate from it, tapping a well populated territory from every direction.

Consider Amarillo. The North Plains metropolis is likewise the center for other paved highways, connecting it with the smaller communities of the Panhandle.

Now look at Lubbock. You'll find not a foot of paving outside the city limits of Lubbock and Slaton. Is that keeping step?

With a larger trade territory—one with countless more potentialities than any of its three rivals—Lubbock is trailing behind. What will we do about it? Tomorrow will tell the story.

Do you think for a minute that Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio or Houston would trade their systems of paved highways for the cost of laying them? To do so would be equivalent to building a fifty foot wall around either of those cities. Their paved highways are among their greatest paying investments. Is it anything but logical to believe that paved highways would mean any less to Lubbock?

This is an era of far flung and rapid transportation. Neither Lubbock, nor any other city, can serve a trade territory without paved highways. We face the crossroads tomorrow. Either the city and the county will move forward—or be sidetracked again. Which shall it be?

The Daily Journal wants to see Lubbock and all of Lubbock county go ahead, wants to see the majority of the citizens of this county benefit by one of the greatest of modern improvements—paved highways. Do not be misled. The only issue before the voters is: "To Pave or Not to Pave."

Let's vote "Yes" tomorrow and put the job over in typical Lubbock county style.

CHOOSE SLIPPERS TO HARMONIZE WITH PAJAMAS

BY LUCY CLAIRE Fashion Writer for Central Press

So important a place has the pajama taken in fashions that it, too, must now be considered in relation to the ensemble, the most important item of which, with the indoor costume, is the shoe. It is interesting to note that while all boyishness has disappeared from our street and formal costumes, we cling with greater favor than ever to the trouser, or pajama ensemble. Not only has this costume established a place in the sun for itself at the winter and summer resorts, where it is designated under the classification of spectator sportswear, but it carries right through the entire year as an indoor costume for lounging, for hostess wear at informal luncheons, and even for housework. It may be worn, in fact, at almost any hour of the day for anything but formal and evening wear.

Slippers, whether they be boudoir mules or something a little more elaborate, such as the hostess wear at the informal luncheon, may match or contrast with the costume, but must fit the ensemble idea. The red kid mule is a very attractive slipper for wear with the black satin pajama, especially if it is trimmed with a little red.

A rather stunning model is sketched at the left. The boudoir jacket and trousers are of black satin, while the tuck-in blouse is of eggshell crepe trimmed with white. A red sash girdles the waist and ties at the side, and red kid mules complete the ensemble.

For Tea or Luncheon The pajama costume sketched at the right is the type that the hostess might wear at her informal tea or luncheon. It is of water blue tulle in a light weight for the pajamas and blouse, and in a heavier quality of the same printed in turquoise blue, clear green and cherry red. With this the cherry kid slipper would be the best bet.

Three types of slippers, or mules, they are wearing with the more dressy pajama, are sketched in the center. The first is of silver kid with baby French heel, and trimmed at the side of the vamp with tiny crystal flowers. The second is of white kid with gold pipings, with a heel built on slightly placed surfaces rather than entirely rounded, and in keeping with the somewhat square toe. The vamp is in open straps to within a couple of inches of the toe, and was probably inspired by an openwork sandal found in the California gallery, which has recently come famous as the inspiration for many slippers. You will find this sketched at the lower left center.

The new shades in pastel kid are especially appropriate for both the more formal business slipper and the boudoir footwear. The third model, sketched at the right center, is of pink pastel kid with pipings and in-

Successful Poultry Raising Evidenced

LAMESA, Dec. 16. (Special)—Poultry raising for profit is being practiced by a number of Dawson county farm club women, according to Miss Genevieve Chipman, county home demonstration agent. Poultry is fast becoming a leading source of industry among the farm women. Miss Chipman states, as is shown by the interest they are taking in the poultry short course week to be held here sometime in January. As an instance where poultry has been raised for profit Miss Chipman cited Mrs. Claud F. Gowen's record. Mrs. Gowen started the first of this year with 200 laying hens, and by careful study and culling managed to clear $460.25 profit.

Registered Merit Bull Is Purchased

West is preparing to increase his number of cattle in view of supplying milk for the new $200,000 powdered milk plant, which is being constructed here.

1 SUPERTWIST CORD IN CARCASS

The part of the tire that can not be seen has more to do with the service you may expect than has the tread. The carcass or body, of all Goodyear tires is made of a special designed and patented cord known as Supertwist. Supertwist was designed for greater flexibility . . . to absorb rather than to resist shock. It stretches farther . . . up to 60 per cent farther . . . before it will break. It stretches thousands of times every day and comes back like a rubber band while the regular cord will stretch and stay stretched. And in Balloon tire service nothing is more important than the ability of a carcass to stretch and come back millions of times and that is why Goodyear has greater durability. We prove this to you on the supertwist cord stretching machine.

These sharp edged All-weather blocks of rubber are in the center of the tire where they are most usefully used in gripping the road. Goodyear is the only tire having traction in the center of the tire, where it belongs.

Notice too, that the edges are scientifically placed to resist skidding. The rubber blocks on the shoulder are to resist skidding on turns and down on the side walls All-weather treads give you traction in ruts. The riding ribs take the brunt of wear.

BRECKENRIDGE AND PORT ARTHUR MEET IN FINAL SATURDAY

SHIRES AND TRAFTON SAY IT WITH GLOVES TONIGHT

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
Journal Sports Editor

Site of the championship interscholastic League battle between the Breckenridge Buckaroos and the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets will be decided today in the offices of Roy B. Henderson in Austin. Coach P. E. Showell's machine is already being acclaimed the 1929 champions despite the fact that they must defeat Tam Denton's fighting crew from down south first.

A striking variance in opinion exists over the Waco-Breckenridge tussle at Breckenridge last week. All agree that the running attack of both teams was stopped almost cold but it still remains a question as to which club really held the edge. From all indications it was Boyce Magnus, the Buckaroo flash, that beat the Tigers of Waco. His remarkable kicking kept the men of Paul Tyson at a continual disadvantage and his passing gave the Buckaroos the two touchdowns, the first of which would have won the ball game.

Waco's stellar scribe informs the world that their failure to kick goal after touchdown cost the Tigers the game and the state championship and he may be right. Had the goal been kicked, the sport would have been tied and Tyson would have left his first string crew in the game. Waco's penetrations would have won the decision had the goal been kicked and the Buckaroos prevented from scoring their second quarter. This sort of reasoning is all very well for the consolation of the Waco fans, but the majority of critics who saw the game do not agree with Tucker. The Buckaroos had the best team on the field and the best team.

As for Port Arthur's chances in the title bout this week-end, there seem to be none. On their home field the scrappy Yellow Jacket aggregation might have a fighting chance, but it's mighty hard to figure any way but a Breckenridge championship. There are plenty of Lubbock fans who believe that the Lubbock club that humbled Cleburne here last Friday can outscore the powerful Buckaroos. On a Lubbock field we would stake just about all our ready cash on the Westerners and on any field it would be a battle royal. The 25 to 13 decision over the Cleburne eleven furnished further proof that the best club was defeated in the Lubbock-Amarillo game on November 2. But now the Westerners can only sit back and wait until next year to get revenge, and how sweet it will be!

The last football game of the year has been played in Lubbock and now we turn our attention to basketball. We have been informed that the Tech Matadors will resume cage training just as soon as the present stage of parties is over at the gymnasium. This will be either Wednesday or Thursday night. Coach Victor Payne believes that his crimson-clad dribblers will give a good account of themselves this year if they are allowed to practice occasionally. Twenty games with Texas Conference and T. I. A. teams are on the Tech schedule for the county season. The regular-cards contests are to follow three practice tilts—one with the local city team and the other two with the Wayland College Jackrabbits. The dates for the games with Frank Klumbrough's boys have not been set. One is to be played here and the other at Plainview.

Coach Del Morgan will take charge of the Lubbock High school basketball team today and things are certain to begin popping in a big way. More than sixty cagers are working for positions on the Westerner quintet and the process of weeding out will start immediately. All indications point to another tough scrap for the district basketball crown this year and the Lubbock crew will be in there among ten scrappers to the last. The Westerners are not forced to compete in the county meet this year and as a result a host of practice games will be played between now and the time for the championship tournament. Ralls, Idalou and Slaton are expected to be even stronger than last season and this means that the Westerners will have to be vastly improved if they force their way into the finals. Strange to say, the Lubbock team has poorer basketball facilities than any other club in this immediate section but the new building is coming and will fit a new era in Lubbock's basketball history.

Infantry Team Wins Over Kelly Fliers

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 16 (AP)—It took three bombardments from their siege guns to go it, but the 23rd Infantry football team finally proved its superiority over the Kelly Field Aviators, 12 to 6. The victory gave the doughboys the right to meet Fort Crockett Saturday. Yesterday's game was the third between the two teams. The first two resulted in ties, one a scoreless tie, and the other a 6 to 6 contest.

VANCE TO GIANTS?

Danny Vance, who has been pitching fast balls for the Brooklyn Dodgers for the last eight years, probably will be offered to the highest bidder as first move of new Brooklyn manager. The Giants likely will get first chance.

MANERO WINS IN CATALINA

AVAILON, Catalina Island, Calif., Dec. 16.—Tony Manero, 24-year-old professional of New York City, today held the Catalina Open golf title as a result of superlative shooting in final play yesterday, when he wound up the 54 holes for a 186 card, 12 under par.

Trailing Manero was Olin Dutra, Californian, one stroke behind, while "Wild Bill" Melhorn of New York, won third money with 188.

For his performance, Manero got $1,500, while Dutra, Los Angeles, got second place money of $1,000. Melhorn's 188 for third place won him $750.

Frank Walsh, Chicago, who turned in a score of 189 for fourth place, was awarded $500, while Charles Gugert, Los Angeles, John Golden, Paterson, N. J., and Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente, who also turned in 189 scores, each received $450.

Most of the well known professionals were entered today at the San Gabriel Country Club's annual $1,000 tournament.

Random Scraps of News Pertaining To Sports World

Jimmy Nolan, varsity end on the Florida eleven, spent five of his 21 years in foreign countries. When he was nine years old he was shipwrecked near Japan and didn't reach port safely until 42 days later. Nolan's father is a captain in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army, which accounts for Jimmy's varied travels. William O'Dowd, Texas Aggie end, walked barefooted in a blinding rain and hailstorm down the street from Clark Field to the center of Fort Worth's business district. On his back was the sign, "Aggies 7, Texas Christian 13—1 last year." O'Dowd's agreement with the T. C. U. players stands next year, too, with the loser walking barefoot five miles from Kyle Field to the business section of Bryan. After Tulane had triumphed over Georgia Tech, Coach Bill Alexander said, "Banker of Tulane is death and condemnation."

SITE FOR TILT NOT DECIDED ON AT NOON

NEUTRAL FIELD LIKELY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP GAME OF TEXAS

Representatives from Breckenridge and Port Arthur high schools are in Austin today for a settlement on the location of the championship football game between the Buckaroos and the Yellow Jackets. While the flip of a coin has decided the site for all previous games in the race for the state school-boy title, several prospective neutral grounds have been mentioned for the 1929 final struggle. With both Breckenridge and Port Arthur holding out for the game to be played on their home fields, the meeting at the state capital city this morning opened with indications that the game would be played on a neutral field. It was said that in the event a neutral field could not be agreed on, a coin would be tossed to decide if the game should go to Breckenridge or Port Arthur.

Two Points Decided After officials of the two schools, together with Roy B. Henderson, director of athletics for the Interscholastic League, had been in conference for two hours, no settlement of the site for the play-off had been reached. Two points were decided—one that the game will be played Saturday and the other that the gate receipts should be split 50-50.

N. S. Holland, superintendent of Breckenridge schools, stated that unless Breckenridge was given the game, he would prefer to play at Fort Worth or in Dallas. Port Arthur, in return, held out for Port Arthur as the location, then suggested Austin or Houston as the neutral grounds. Waco has also been mentioned as a neutral field.

T. C. U. officials have offered use of the T. C. U. stadium without charge if the game is played in Fort Worth.

Breckenridge went into the final game with a victory over the Waco High Tigers last Saturday, 14 to 6. Port Arthur's Yellow Jackets moved into the final clash for the second time in as many years when it turned back the Denton Broncoos, 13 to 0. Representatives of the two surviving schools attempted to reach a decision as to the time and site of the championship game by long distance telephone Sunday but failed to reach an agreement.

CADETS TO BE PLENTIFUL

COACH JONES TAKING 110 MEN TO PLAY IN CALIFORNIA

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 16.—Football interest has begun to die out in most parts of the east, but at West Point it is approaching its highest pitch. It is only two days until the cadet team starts its journey to Palo Alto, Calif., for the final, and perhaps the most important game of the 1929 season against Stanford.

The squad, which comes closer to being a full company, is to leave here Wednesday aboard a special train. Head Coach Buff Jones has planned stops for workouts at Gallegos, Ill., Syracuse, Kans., and Needles, Calif., before reaching Palo Alto Sunday for a week of hard practice and the game on Dec. 28. The return tour, which includes visits to movie studios at Los Angeles and a day's stop at the Grand Canyon, is to wind up at West Point Jan. 4.

Party Totals 142 The party which will make the long trip will total 142 people, of which 110 are football players. As a reward for their services during practice, the scrub and piebe teams will be taken along. Only members of the squad or varsity will take part in the game, but the others will be used in practice.

A train of thirteen cars, fitted with every convenience for a traveling football team has been made up.

Greek Ship Brings In Surviving Crew

VIGO, Spain, Dec. 16 (AP)—A damaged Greek ship, Hiera, lumped into port here today with twenty surviving members of the crew of the Spanish ship Antonio Garcia sunk by collision with the Hiera about 20 miles from the Island of Cies near Vigo. The Antonio Garcia was registered at Santander. Four men drowned.

STARS TO MAKE UP LINE-UP OF EAST ELEVEN IN ANNUAL SECTIONAL TILT

Five of the star backfield men who will make up East's attack in the East-West football game at San Francisco for the Shriner hospital for crippled children are Tony Holm of Alabama, Frosty Peters of Illinois, Lloyd Brazil of Detroit, Willis Glasgow of Iowa and Bill Calderwood of Northwestern. Among the star linemen picked to represent the east in the east-west all-star football game at San Francisco for the Shriner hospital fund are Bronko Nagurski, Minnesota, tackle, and sometimes fullback; Captain Mooney, Georgetown, tackle; Cannon, Notre Dame, guard; Sleigh, Purdue, tackle; Cox, Colgate, guard.

TECH CAGERS ARE DELAYED

USE OF GYM PREVENTS TEAM FROM WORKING THIS WEEK

Use of the college gymnasium for other purposes will postpone for several days the resumption of training for the Texas Tech basketball squad, Coach Victor Payne announced this morning.

A practice game with the Lubbock Hornets, local city team, is scheduled for the first night following the "Waxland" series being with the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets here on January 13 and 14. Ten home games are carded for late January.

Two games with the Wayland College Jackrabbits will furnish the first test for the Patrons; the game is to be played here and the other at Plainview. Dates for these games have not been set.

Twenty games with Texas Conference and T. I. A. teams are on the Tech schedule, the first two following the "Waxland" series being with the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets here on January 13 and 14. Ten home games are carded for late January.

TERRY SCHOOLS TO GET STATE FUNDS

(Special to The Journal) BROWNFIELD, Dec. 16.—John Lee Smith, rural supervisor for the state department of education, has just completed an inspection of the schools of Terry county and allowed a total of $7,775 to the thirteen applicants for rural aid which is the largest amount ever granted for the purpose and $1,150 above the sum that was granted last year.

Mr. Smith complimented County Superintendent H. R. Winston upon the condition of grounds and buildings and upon the very noticeable improvement in facilities and the conduct of the schools in general, since his first visit three years ago.

X-RAY REVEALS LOST FORCEPS

Mrs. Mary de Sainte Croix, of Jersey, England, has been walking about for nearly seven years with a pair of arterial forceps in her abdomen. Early in 1922 she underwent an operation in a London hospital for internal trouble. Afterward she experienced pains which became so acute that an X-ray was taken recently and revealed the forceps. An operation will be necessary to remove the instrument.

WAS THROUGH WITH BASEBALL; NOW HE RUNS TWO MINOR LEAGUES

BY NEA Service TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 16.—Fifteen years ago, Dale Gear of this city announced he was through with baseball for good. He had enjoyed a brilliant career as a player and manager but he'd had enough and determined to develop his milling business here and forget all about the game. To show that he was in earnest he witnessed only three professional ball games in the first eight years of his retirement.

The old urge came back to him in 1923 and it didn't take much talking on the part of a Topeka business group to put him into the manager's seat of their team. Two years later he was named an official of the league.

When the Professional Baseball Association met in Chattanooga early this month, Gear was there, representing two minor leagues and the national board of arbitration. He is president of the Class A Western League and the Class C Western Association.

SNYDER GIVES 15 FOOTBALL LETTERS

SNYDER, Dec. 16.—(Special)—According to Head Coach Red Moore of Snyder High school fifteen Tigers won letters during the season that has just closed. Those to receive the coveted sweaters include: J. T. Trice, captain; Huents, Martin, Jenkins, Isaacs, Clements, Jones, Drinkard, Erwin, Dan Trice, Pettit, Ferguson, Clark, McClintock and Smith. Robert Garner, a valuable aid to Coach Moore also receives a sweater. The Tigers will only lose two men from this year's team.

With a basketball squad of more than thirty men with five lettermen heading the squad, Snyder High is looking forward to a big season with the opening game here next Friday night with Idalou. Coach Moore will head the basketball efforts.

Sixteen girls are fighting for position on the Tigresses who are being coached by R. S. Sullivan. An invitational boys tournament is being considered here for early in March that will be sponsored by the Lions club.

Bus Hearing Dates Set For Dallas

DALLAS, Dec. 16 (AP)—Applications for certificates to operate interstate bus lines into Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas will be heard when members of the railway commissions of those three states hold a hearing here Monday, December 30.

The proposed lines would be from Fort Worth to Little Rock, Dallas to Oklahoma City, Dallas to Camden, Ark., Amarillo to Baton, New Mexico, Greenville and Honey Grove. India is sending so many eggs to England that it threatens to take the place of China as chief egg supplier of Britain.

Japan Issues Net Fling In European

TOKYO, Dec. 16 (AP)—The executive committee of the Japan Lawn Tennis association decided today to issue its 1930 challenge for the Davis Cup in the European Zone in stead of the American zone, as it has done heretofore, because the European zone offers a greater variety of competition.

The team named today included Takeichi Harada, Yoshiro Ohta, Tamio Abe, and Yotaro Sato. The first three are veterans of international matches, while Sato is rated as the best of the newcomers.

TOD MORGAN AND BENNY BASS MEET

NEW YORK, Dec. 16 (AP)—Tod Morgan will give Benny Bass of Philadelphia a shot at the junior lightweight championship in Madison Square Garden this week.

The Morgan-Bass struggle of Friday night heads a boxing schedule enhanced by the second ring appearance of Art Shires, who apparently would rather fight than play flat base for the Chicago White Sox.

CAGE OUTLOOK HERE BRIGHT

SIXTY YOUNGSTERS OUT FOR WESTERNER FIVE UNDER MORGAN

Approximately 60 Lubbock High school basketball candidates will get down to serious training today with Coach Del Morgan in command.

Two weeks of preliminary workouts under the direction of Joe Bailey Powers has started off basketball activity at the Westerner stronghold during the closing days of the football season and now the high school cage mentor will give his full time to the gold and black dribblers.

Outlook Is Bright While the greater part of the horde of basketball candidates are of the green variety, the outlook for a strong quintet for Lubbock high is much brighter than at this time last year. Two letter men and several squadmen from last season will form the nucleus for the Westerner five.

John R. Green and Jessie Holmes are the returned letter men but the class of newcomers indicates the veterans will have their hands full in holding their positions.

Coach Morgan's first problem is to reduce the size of the squad to a working unit and this will take several days. The weeding-out process is certain to produce a host of promising players for the Westerner team. Preliminary practice games will be arranged for the Christmas holidays.

Nearly half the people of Japan, Chosen, Karafuto and Taiwan have opened postal-savings accounts.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites laughed long and loud. The monkey had amused the crowd. The way he messed the bowling pins was quite a funny sight. But Mister Elf was rather mad. "If I could catch you it will be sad," he shouted as he chased the monkey quickly out of sight.

The elf returned and said, "Oh, my, I fear that now we'll have to try and paint all of those bowling pins. You boys can lend a hand. Into the paint shop we will go and there I'll very shortly show you how to use a paint brush. I am sure you'll understand."

"That will be fun," we Scouty cried. "It's been a long time since we've tried our hand at painting things. I'm sure that we will get along. Watch closely, though, because it's my guess that he will get into a mess. The rest of us are always fixing things that he does wrong."

Into the paint shop they all went and just a little time was spent in getting paint pots ready. Then the elf said, "Well, let's start. Besides the bowling pins, you'll find a lot of toys of every kind. Be careful how you paint now, lads, 'cause painting is an art."

All sorts of things were spread out very soon the Tinymites found that painting was a heap of fun. They worked with all their might.

"It is Better to Have it and Not Need It Than to Need It and Not Have It"

The Citizenship of Lubbock have again demonstrated that spirit by which "Cities are Made" in so wonderfully taxing care of the needs of its charitable institutions.

And it brings forcefully to mind the duty one owes to their families to provide in ADVANCE OF NEED a last resting place to those near and dear to them in a quiet, dignified PERPETUALLY CARED FOR cemetery.

MEMORIAL BURIAL PARK offers for a limited time at prices never before duplicated in a cemetery of this character four burial estates as low as seventy-five Dollars, these prices will never again be available to you and an early choice assures you the best selection as to location.

Call our office for appointment. We will take pleasure in showing you Memorial Park. Our cars are at your service with no obligation. Or see our Mr. Brodie at the Park office.

FORT WORTH GAS TAX ROW STILL ON

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Dec. 16.—Fort Worth's legal step to meet a possible suit for collection of the Texas State tax of four cents a gallon on gasoline was taken by the city legal department today when it completed an office brief to show that the tax on municipally used gasoline is unconstitutional.

Although the city has not yet evaded the tax, all indications point to an order Saturday for a tank car of gasoline from some Oklahoma refinery of the Texas-Pacific Coal and Oil company. City Manager O. E. Carr, who is handling the matter, would neither deny nor affirm a rumor the order had been placed. "Too much has been said about this already," he explained.

The view of the city manager is summed up in his statement of Friday that he does not believe the state has the right to tax a municipality.

The office of the Texas state comptroller has announced that if Fort Worth purchases its gasoline in Oklahoma, it will be requested under the law to remit the amount of the tax to Texas, regardless.

TERRY COUNTY HAS 20,241 BALES

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 16.—(Special)—Total number of bales of cotton ginned in Terry county up to Wednesday night had reached 20,241, with the five gins at Brownfield accounting for 10,800, and there yet remains a considerable amount of unspiced cotton in the fields and estimates of the total crop run from 22,000 to 25,000 and if the latter figure is reached it will be the largest crop ever produced in the county.

The local chapter of the F. F. T. will close down on December 21st and remain so until after January 1st.

FUTURE FARMERS CLUB CHAPTER ORGANIZED AMONG BOYS

(Special To The Journal)

SPUR, Dec. 16.—The vocational agricultural students of the Spur High school organized a chapter of the Future Farmers of Texas, electing as their officers, Herman McArthur, president; Sam T. The purpose of the organization is to promote improved methods of solving agricultural problems, with a definite aim of attack in reaching their goal.

Objectives Set

The boys will have these objectives a good project program, financing a trip to A. and M. for their stock judging team, entertaining with a Father and Son banquet, and to assist in a county-wide program for better livestock for Dickson county.

This is the second year for vocational agriculture in the Spur High school, and the course is well supported as there some fifty boys who are enrolled in this department.

WABAL CHURCH GETS SPUR MAN
SPUR, Dec. 16.—(Special)—Rev. A. G. Abbott, pastor of the First Christian church of Spur, has resigned his place with the church here to accept the pastorate of the Christian church of Sabinal. Bro. Abbott has been very successful while here and has done some outstanding work with the Boy Scouts who will look a long time for so good a friend and counselor as has been this good man. There has never been a movement that would merit the attention of good citizenship, the development of this and adjoining communities, and that would help make the world a better place in which to live, but that Rev. Abbott has not come in for his bit of service in support of the movement.

Rev. Abbott is an active Rotarian, and the local club will lose one of its most enthusiastic members when he leaves Spur. The American Legion and the Volunteer Fire Department have always found Bro. Abbott at his post of duty, and each organization regrets losing him. Any tribute that might be paid Rev. Abbott could equally apply to his good wife, who has been just as ardent a supporter of the women's work as he has of the men's and boys' organizations.

IMPORTANT PEOPLE AND THINGS MARCH BY IN PARADE OF SATIRE AS CAPITAL SCRIBES ENTERTAIN IN ANNUAL FEED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Important people and important things were seen Saturday night through the eyes of newspapermen, editors, philosophers, jesters and caricaturists, at the annual December dinner of the Gridiron club.

If some of the wit shaped like whips sharply cracked, the sting was taken from the satire and irony by melody and broad good humor, and the knowledge that the members were taking the one night for satire on grave and ponderous questions: Foreign relations, taxation, the farm problem, the tariff and all that solemn group that march day after day across the front pages of the country under a Washington date line.

President Hoover There
President Hoover was there but that did not prevent a sharp, yet droll scrutiny of his administration, nor the presentation by the club of its own super-classic movie, "The Good Will." It depicted the visit of the foreign minister of a country the club called San Marino. There were conferences, acclaim, 420 interviews and the reel showing his departure was captioned "hands across the sea."

The picture closed with a display of newspaper headlines six months later.

"Senate rejects good will pact 95 to 0."
Commissioner A-Month
A comment on the Hoover penchant for naming commissions to gather facts and make recommendations was consideration by the "commission-a-month club" of a motion to take a recess "before this becomes the commission-minute club."

The president had his opportunity to speak his mind freely before the evening was over but only those present knew what he said. An old established rule is: "Reporters are never present at gridiron club dinners."

Jimmy Walker Speaks
Other speakers were the sometimes late and always affable Jimmy Walker, mayor of New York, and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. In one of the sketches two recent incidents were "killed" with one "gridiron stone." The club gave its version of the failure to invite Senator Hiram Johnson of California to a White House dinner in honor of Ambassador Dawes. At the same time it managed to convey its respects to Senator Brookhart of Iowa who recently told the grand jury the senate and the world about a "Wall Street booze party" he attended three years ago.

Crash Is Heard
Just as the dinner began there was a crash outside as if a fat man and a chair had collapsed at the same time.

"Great Heavens! What is that awful noise?" exclaimed the club president, Roy Roberts, of the Kansas City Star.

"I'll bet they're keeping Hiram Johnson out of this dinner by an inadvertence."

"Not at all," answered another member, "they're keeping out Senator Brookhart and it's no inadvertence."

Shortly afterwards the orchestra began playing softly and out stalked an Indian chief, who gloomily and to the refrain "in this land of many-hah-hah" recited a tragedy: "the banishing of firewater."

Makes Hurried Exit
At the end, the chief's blanket accidentally fell open and a belt with many bottles showed itself and he made an undignified and hurried exit.

Uncle Sam appeared to shout "an extra added attraction, George Moses, the senatorial tenor, will sing: 'who set the wild ass free?'" less millionaire" because of difficulty experienced in realizing upon his wealth, mostly invested in real estate.

The tariff fight was reproduced, as a championship football game between "Joe Grundy's college of lobbyists and the democratic-insurgent team, champions of the western conference."

A man of courage as well as prodigality, he was known to cab drivers, bar tenders and persons in all walks of life as one of the important men of town. Even at the age of 75, Capt. Morrison would take his drinks with young and old. He was regarded as a connoisseur of the Tom and Jerry, and bartenders vied to prepare the kind that best satisfied an epicurean palate.

An effort was made in 1916 to have him declared incompetent. The court, instead, ruled Capt. Morrison a spendthrift to safeguard his fortune. At the time of his death Saturday, his annual income was estimated at $140,000 a year.

From the time he was seven years old, Captain Morrison had lived at 759 West Harrison street—not an imposing address as residential communities go today, but good enough half a century ago. Efforts to have him move always were without avail. It was only seven years ago the place was wired for electricity, and it get the marrow, probably considered a delicacy.

The scientists who have worked in the limestone excavations were sworn to secrecy, but they regarded the discoveries as the greatest human find of its kind ever made. Both the skull and the ten skeletons were in a splendid state of preservation. The discoveries were made in the same limestone quarries where "monkey man" jaw teeth were found in 1928. The scientists believed that with the discovery of the skeletons site of a prehistoric, probably pre-neanderthal home of a distinct time of primitive man has been uncovered.

The scientists believe they have enough material to reconstruct the entire life-drama of the prehistoric colony, or at least to sketch a portrait of man as he existed near Peiping more than a million years ago.

Scientists have placed the life of the so-called "Peking man" at probably 1,000,000 years ago, and dating the neanderthal man and probably contemporaneous with the Heidelberg man of Europe. Two teeth of the "Peking man" have been discovered. Some consider the Peking man on a stage of development between the modern human and the anthropoid apes.

Dr. J. G. Anderson, Swedish geologist, and others have now entered upon a particular search for heads of the skeletons.

Passing over Cape Juby, Rio De Oro, shortly before that the fliers radioed their trip thus far had been without incident and under favorable conditions. They sent their greetings to the officials of Rio De Oro, Spanish province.

Rate of speed established by the plane over the first part of its course was about 100 miles an hour. Should it maintain that speed the plane might be expected to reach Montevideo sometime Tuesday afternoon, Montevideo time.
