Four New Locations, Three Producers Listed in County

Oil activity in Mitchell County this week took a sudden jump with three new producing wells listed and four new locations staked.

At the same time, a Pennsylvanian wildcat in the northwest corner of the county was plugged and abandoned at 7,610 feet.

Turner-Kogen No. 2 Schumacher, in the Iatan E. Howard field, fractured with 10,000 gallons and yielded 68 barrels of 27-degree oil and only one per cent water in 24 hours.

Location is 1,671 feet from north and 2,290 feet from east lines, section 15, block 29, T-1-S, T&P Survey, nine miles southwest of Westbrook.

The hole bottoms at 2,610 feet with top of the pay section at 2,560 feet. Oil string is set on the bottom of the hole and perforations extend from 2,563-78 feet.

Blue Danube No. 1-B Leroy Gressett completed in the Westbrook field for a daily potential of 80.35 barrels of oil and 12 per cent water.

It is located 990 feet from south and 330 feet from west lines, section 26, block 28, T-1-N, T&P Survey, and is three miles north of Westbrook.

Total depth is 3,033 feet and top of the pay zone is at 2,909 feet. Oil string is set at the top of the pay level. Gravity measured 24 degrees.

Magnolia No. 5 W. W. Watson is another new producer, located in the Westbrook field, 330 feet from north and 430 feet from west lines, section 20, block 29, T-1-S, T&P Survey.

It yielded 100 barrels of 30.3-degree oil and four per cent water after treatment with 120,000 gallons.

The hole is plugged back to 2,775 feet from 2,820 feet and 55/8-inch casing is set at 2,820 feet.

Top of the pay zone is 2,468 feet and production is from perforations extending from 2,468-734 feet.

Hamilton, Jordan and Blackwell No. 9 Hamilton is located in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field.

Both city and county officials expressed relief this week after a fire protection agreement was reached between the city council and the county commissioners court.

The agreement came late Thursday afternoon after four days of discussion and meetings by councilmen and commissioners.

Under the terms of the contract between city and county, the county will pay the city $60 per hour for fire department services outside the city limits. The total cost to the county per year is not to exceed $900. The contract expires Dec. 31.

Settlement of the fire protection issue came in time to avoid curtailment of fire department services in rural areas.

The school will continue through Friday, Selcraig said. Sessions will be held from 7:15 until 9 p.m. The school will be divided into two major divisions for persons 15 years of age and older and for children under 15.

In the adult division, the school will consist of five sections—the Bible, administration, teaching, doctrine and evangelism and department.

HOT-RODDERS DEVISE PLAN TO FOIL THEFTS

The "Rebels"—a Colorado City automobile club composed of 15 teenage auto enthusiasts—has a plan for foiling current widespread thefts of hub caps, fender skirts and other automotive accessories.

According to Billy Wood, vice-president of the club, the "Rebels" have ordered an electric engraver from an auto accessories firm in California.

Club members plan to use the engraver to raise funds for the club and to offer local car owners protection against theft at the same time.

Wood said that the engraver would be used to print owners' names and addresses on hub caps, fender skirts and other articles—thus making them useless to thieves who steal the accessories and re-sell them to auto parts dealers.

Parts dealers and police are cooperating with the club in the project.

Wood said that the club would charge 25 cents for each article engraved with the machine. He added that in Sweetwater had used the engraving device with a high degree of success.

School Week Observance Slated Here

Full program of activities is planned here for Texas Public Schools Week, March 3-7.

The observance here is being promoted by the local Masonic Lodge No. 563.

Bob Kirschbaum is chairman of the Public School Week observance, that is intended to point out the importance of our public school system.

Kirschbaum said the prime objective is "to acquaint all our people with programs and accomplishments of our public education system."

Slogan of the week is "Texas Public School—Democracy in Action."

Kicking off the activities will be a Teacher Appreciation Banquet on March 3 in the Civic House. This activity, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will pay recognition to our local teachers.

On March 4, school program will be presented at the Masonic Lodge.

School programs will also be presented to the Kiwanis Club on March 4, to the Jaycees on March 5 and the Lions Club on March 7.

A trophy will be presented to the school registering the most visitors in proportion of their student enrollment.

FOR APRIL ELECTION

Two Vacancies on City School Board

Two new trustees are assured for Colorado Independent School District in the board election April 5.

Both board members whose terms expire with the election have announced that they will not be candidates for re-election.

They are Lon A. Strain of Cuthbert and Thurston Smith of Buford, both of whom have served as school trustees since 1950.

New candidate for one of the two board places is R. Y. Hammond, well known ranch-farmer in the Buford area. Hammond filed this week for a place on the April 5 ballot.

Under new state law candidates in the school board election must file officially for a ballot place 30 days before the election date. That means they must sign filing papers at the school tax office by March 6.

Ballots must be ready for absentee voting 20 days before the election.

Date for the election was set officially Monday night at the regular February session of the school board.

Strain told board members "he thought he would not be a candidate for another three-year term."

"I think I've been on the board long enough," he stated as he expressed appreciation for the opportunity to serve

TESCO Lists Kite Flying Safety Rules

Safety rules for boys and girls who fly kites were outlined today by A. L. McSpadden, manager for Texas Electric Service Company here.

As explained by McSpadden, the five safety rules in order of their importance are: First, fly your kite out in the open where it won't get caught in wires or trees. Second, use only string made of cotton, silk, linen, nylon or rayon. Third, use only wood in your kite frames. Fourth, fly kites only in good weather. You don't want to get them rain-soaked. And fifth, if your kite should get caught in electric wires, call Texas Electric Service Company. They will send someone to get it down for you.

Safety Program Begins at Dowell

"Knowing's Not Enough," an accident prevention program undertaken by United States Steel and adopted by Dowell Incorporated, was presented to Dowell Employees at Colorado City this week. It has been revealed by B. J. Nunley, station manager.

Harold Briscoe, Tulsa, Personnel Development Manager for Dowell, who conducted the film presentation, said the program is designed to help prevent accidents by reviewing four states of mind responsible for the majority of accidents.

He briefly outlined the program as follows:

1. Introducing bulletin board "teasers" for two weeks prior to showing of a film.
2. Presenting a color film "Knowing's Not Enough," demonstrating possibility of accidents caused by four mental attitudes. These attitudes are shown as "IMPS"—IMP, IMPUNITY, IMPATIENCE and IMPULSIVE.
3. Using "yellow caution flags" in danger areas as a reminder of accident possibility.

Attending the program were Nunley, T. V. Tipton, T. H. Strickland, R. V. Brown, C. G. Wehba, J. L. Holt, W. D. White, W. C. Greaves, C. M. Rhodes, T. H. Blalock, H. T. Childs, H. L. Crabtree, B. D. Harris, also W. B. Perry, D. G. Trice, J. W. Turnbull, E. F. Spiller, P. J. Lunsford, J. D. Bolin, T. A. Edge, D. R. Harris, P. P. Nivickas, J. D. Nobles, D. G. Rollins, J. W. Smith, E. A. Spann, J. W. Igo, H. Lee.

Others were A. E. Conder, W. J. Camp, J. W. Ross, I. B. Gilbert, W. E. York, H. D. Wilson and C. A. Westerman.

The program is kept alive by follow-up material on bulletin boards for several weeks following the presentation.

Briscoe said the program, which lasts 16 weeks at each Dowell location, is being presented regularly by the company as part of a continuing accident prevention effort.

Sweat, Cox Help to Set New Record

W. H. Cox and Olson Sweat, both of Colorado City, have participated in a world's record for life insurance companies.

Oil Industries Life Insurance Co., a firm with numerous stockholders in the Colorado City area, has just set another world's record, its executive vice president and director of agencies, Duane E. Kuntz, said Saturday.

Cox and Sweat are representatives of the company here. In three and half years, said Kuntz, Oil has achieved $100,247,303 ordinary life insurance in force. A search of Best's Insurance Guide shows the best previous record in "teaching" $100,000,000 was five years after an insurance company was organized. Iowa Life held the old record, Kuntz said.

Earlier in its career, Oil Industries Life also established other insurance industry records. The first company in Texas to post $1,000,000 capital and surplus paid in cash before writing business, Oil proceeded to set a production record of more than $33,000,000 in its first year, again beating Iowa Life world's record.

It was also the first life insurance company in Texas to concentrate on the oil business.

J. V. Younger is District Manager for the Colorado City area.

IN HOME CEREMONY

Betty Sue Hammond Becomes Bride of Richard L. Gale

Miss Betty Sue Hammond became the bride of Private First Class Richard Lee Gale Tuesday evening in a double ring ceremony in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hammond.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Bill) Gale of Route One.

Rev. James Carraway, pastor of Oak Street Baptist Church, read wedding vows at 7:30 o'clock before an improvised altar, banked with a basket of stock and emerald foliage and trees.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a two-piece dress of pink taffeta faille, complemented by black accessories. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a large Berta collar and three-quarter length sleeves. A veil, accented by rhinestones, was held by a pink matching hat.

The bride carried a detachable corsage of red roses with a white ribbon.

Recorded wedding music included the wedding march—Miss Carolyn Geer and Baron Bloomer were the couple's only attendants.

Miss Geer wore a navy blue faille dress, light blue hat and gloves and black shoes. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

The wedding couple was honored at a reception following the ceremony.

Bridal table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and centered with an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons. Pink streamers, inscribed with the couple's names in silver, extended from the bouquet. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. George Herring, the bride's sister, registered guests. Mrs. Billy Hammond, the bride's sister-in-law, and Miss Barbara Hammond, cousin of the bride, presided at the refreshment table.

For a short honeymoon trip to Abilene the bride changed to a gray sheath dress accented by black accessories and her bridal corsage.

Private and Mrs. Gale will leave Sunday for El Paso where they will reside while he is stationed at Fort Bliss.

The bride, a 1956 graduate of Colorado High School, attended Cisco Junior College for a year. She was employed at Rhode-Cowan Clinic before her marriage. Pvt. Gale was graduated from the local schools in 1956 also.

Wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Taylor and Marion Beatty of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weeks of Roscoe, Mrs. J. M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hammond.

Ministers to Participate in Day of Prayer

Morning devotions by members of the Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance this week over the local radio station will coincide with the observance of "world day of prayer".

The annual observance is being sponsored here Friday by the Colorado City Council of Church Women.

Theme of the devotions will be "Bread of Life" the same that will be used in special programs Friday in First Methodist Church.

Ministers participating in the week's broadcasts will be Rev. Earl Clary of First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Don McCoy of First Christian Church, Rev. Lyward Harrison of St. Luke Methodist Church, Rev. Don Hungerford, vicar of All Saints Episcopal Church, and Rev. Clarence Collins of First Methodist Church.

Programs for the Friday observance will be conducted at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

This will be the seventy-second observance, which was begun in 1887. On the first Friday of Lent, local persons will join thousands of Christians in the United States and around the world who will be united in a service of prayer and thanksgiving prayer for a better world and thanksgiving for our Christian heritage. Purpose of the "day" is to unite all Christians in a bond of prayer and to make an offering for Christian missions at home and abroad, according to Mrs. J. D. White, president of the local Council of Church Women.

Offering from the program is allocated for interdenominational mission work through Divisions of Home and Foreign Missions of the National Council of Churches after the cost of promotion and extension has been met.

The public is cordially invited to attend either of both special programs, Mrs. White said Saturday.

1. Every weekday an average of 57,000,000 copies of newspapers are sold in the U. S. — more than packs of cigarettes, quarts of milk, or loaves of bread.

2. People in the U. S. spend for their newspapers $3,120,000 a day, $25,851,000 a week, $1,344,236,000 a year.

3. According to a Market Research Corp. of America study, on a typical day 88 per cent of America's homes receive one or more newspapers.

4. There is no "summer replacement" for newspapers. Monthly variations in circulation show virtually no change in newspaper circulation from season to season.

5. People like to read newspaper advertising. According to the Continuing Study of Newspaper Reading, men rank advertising third (just ahead of sports news); women rank advertising first.

6. The Continuing Study of Newspaper Reading also reveals that the average newspaper page, with both news and advertising on it, enjoys a median readership of 64 per cent by men and 73 per cent by women.

7. More than one-third of all ad money spent is invested in newspapers. In 1956 newspapers got $3,305,000,000 — more than was received by radio, TV magazines and outdoor combined — according to McCann - Erickson, Inc. Preliminary Estimate.

8. TV in the homes does not affect newspaper readership. Cunningham & Walsh's continuing study of "Video-town" reveals that newspapers alone of all major media remain unaffected by TV's arrival in the home.

9. Since 1940 newspapers have maintained a constant level of popularity. Newspaper circulation has virtually paralleled growth in U. S. households.

TWO BOYS TOSSED OUT OF GAME

Lamesa Beats Wolves, 63-41 In Season Basketball Finale

Colorado High Wolves basketball team closed the season Friday night at Lamesa, losing a 63-41 District 3-A-A-A contest.

It left the Wolves with a 16-10 record for the season.

It was a rough and tumble game from the start with Lamesa eager and a C-Clity boy thrown out of the game.

Wolf Coach Homer Jefferson said Lamesa played one of the roughest basketball games he had seen in years.

Lamesa's Ronnie Reeves was tossed out of the game when he suggested Richard Compton in action under the basket.

Wolves' Marlon Elppin was sent to the showers for using obscene language.

The game officials and Lamesa had little mercy on the Wolves. Don Black, Wolves' ball-hawking little guard, had four personal fouls called on him in the first quarter. All the Wolves had 21 fouls called on them.

The win handed Lamesa third place in district standings with Snyder holding down first place after their 4-46 win Friday over Sweetwater in Sweetwater.

Snyder must defeat Lake View Tuesday to win a clear title to the crown.

Richard Compton was the only Wolf to hit his double figures against the Golden Tornadoes as he whipped in 20 points to take the district scoring lead.

Lamesa leaped into a 9-4 lead the first quarter and a 25-15 lead at halftime.

Wolves held their own the third period but Lamesa took a larger lead in the final period.

Wolves were told on their field goal shooting, hitting only 28 per cent. They fired at the basket 43 times and hit only 12. Lamesa hit 38 per cent of their shots with 21 connections in 55 attempts.

Rebounds were closed with Lamesa getting 41 to the Wolves' 40.

Jefferson played all 10 boys in the game, giving the subs a taste of varsity competition and the feel of Lamesa's elbows.

Wolf B team played a fine game, whipping the Whirlwinds 63-59 as Kerry Kendrick whipped in 17 points for the little Wolves.

Lamesa's B team outscored the C-Clity B during the first quarter but the local quintet took the lead the second period and held it remainder of the way.

Coach Dean King used all 10 of his boys and they experienced the same "whistle-happiness" by the officials as the A team did.

They had 24 personal fouls called on them, but countered with effective field goal shooting to offset the Lamesa fire throws.

Clarkie Mires had 25 points for the Lamesa B.

Ronnie Hamilton had 18 points for the Lamesa A team.

By W. L. Penney
Soil Conservationist

The Mitchell County Soil Conservation District and the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce will co-sponsor a soils and range judging contest, according to announcements made by M. A. Dunnahoo, vice-chairman of the board of supervisors.

Plans were developed for the contest as the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Supervisors which was attended by Elmer Martin, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, and Jack Burkhalter, county agent.

The following committee was appointed to formulate the program and function as judges: M. A. Dunnahoo, chairman; Elmer Martin, Jack Burkhalter, A. V. Sheppard of the local SCS office, and agriculture teachers, John P. Hines of Westbrook, James Trammel of Colorado City, and Raymond Holt of Lorraine High School.

The Board of Supervisors tentatively decided that the contest should consist of four phases: (1) Soils classification including land use and treatment, (2) range site determinations, (3) range condition classes, and (4) plant identification.

Local Vocational Agriculture teachers will train teams to participate in the contest. Appropriate trophies and or banners will be awarded to winners of team and individual competitions.

Our present agriculture students will be the farm and ranch managers of the future. It is the purpose of this program to further their interests.

C-Clity's 9th grade Jackrabbits lost a narrow one to Post, 37-35 in the night's finale.

In the 7th grade victory, Coach Ronnie Gurley's cagers used the eight-point scoring effort of Beeny Bollinger and the defensive play of Robert Cide to whip the Post boys. The win left the PeeWees with an 8-9 record for the year.

The Ragnois finished their season with a 10-19 record as they whipped Post. They led 19-14 at the end of the first quarter and went on to win 54-30.

15 YEARS SERVICE

This is the 15th in a new series of special Col-Tex presentations recognizing long and valued service of those employees who have been associated with Col-Tex 10 years or longer. Col-Tex is proud of its workers who have contributed their efforts so many years to the company's success.

Manufacture of asphalt is a job every day at Col-Tex Refinery that stretches from pre-dawn into the night hours. There's a variety of asphalt products, too, including roofing and road asphalts as well as road oils.

An experienced Col-Tex "senior" whose craft is blending and pumping the materials to process these asphalt products is Lester Horn. He has been at the same craft for more than 10 years.

His continuous service at Col-Tex amounts to 15 years, beginning Jan. 29, 1942, when he went to work in the refinery's maintenance department. He served on special guard duty for the government at Col-Tex during World War II, returning to the refinery staff immediately after completing the Civil Service duty.

Horn is a native of Cisco. He moved here in 1939, working for Sinclair Oil Company in the oil field near Lorton before joining the Col-Tex staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Horn live at 603 Oak. Both are members of Oak Street Baptist Church where Mrs. Horn assists with the nursery department. They sometimes meet each other, so to speak, leaving and returning to the house since Mr. Horn has a five-day work week at Col-Tex with Wednesday and Thursday off days. Mrs. Horn has a six-day schedule at Max Berman's Department Store with Sunday holidays.
