Weigh-in of the 254 animals entered in the 18th annual Garza County Junior Livestock Association Show and Fair began Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. as The Dispatch went to press and was expected to continue until 9 p.m. that night. This will be the third year for the stock show and fair in the new facilities located north of Post on US 84. Two new doors have been added to the scale and wash rooms to improve the weighing-in and washing.

One-hundred twenty-seven young people from age nine who are enrolled in public school in Garza County are entered in the five events.

They have carried these animals as projects for the past 90 days at least, and are a member of a Garza County 4-H Club or enrolled in Vocational Agriculture in Post or Southland.

The animals entered include 112 lambs, 107 hogs, 25 steers, 9 horses and one pen of rabbits.

The steer show this year will be one of the largest in a number of years with 25 steers and is expected to be one of the toughest in competition. Superintendent of the steer show which will be held Saturday morning at 9 a.m., will be Neal Clary. Lawrence Winkler, County Extension Agent from Albany will be the judge.

The rabbit show, a new event, has only one pen of rabbits, due to the severe weather conditions of the year. It will be at 2:30 p.m. Thursday. Rabbit show superintendent is Tommy Young.

The swine show will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday night with Tony Conner, the superintendent for the first time. The judge will be Scott Doss, the Vo-Ag instructor at Frenship High.

The horse show has 9 entries and will begin at 2:30 p.m. Friday afternoon at the Post Stamped Rodeo Arena. Judging the two classes of horses, mares and geldings, will be Randy Upshaw, Lubbock Co. Extension Agent. Bill Hedrick is the horse show superintendent.

The lamb show is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday evening with Superintendent Bobby Terry in charge and Kyle Smith, Extension Agent from Gaines Co., judging.

A noon meal is being sponsored by the Garza County Extension Homemakers on Saturday at the barn. It will be a ham lunch and tickets are $3.00 per plate.

Rhonda Rogers is FHA sweetheart

It's "support time" for all the youngsters showing animals this weekend in the Garza County Junior Livestock Show. We trust business and agricultural firms will rally around for the big Saturday afternoon sale.

Noel White, president of the youth association, told Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon that at the price of feed these days selling animals at the sale can't produce a profit, but only help with the expenses.

"They learn a lot though and that's what it's all about," White stressed. He said that raising the animals is "a family affair" these days too because the whole family gets involved in the feeding and care.

State Senator E. L. Short has passed along to us what we at least consider to be quite an unusual house bill. It's HB 487 and if passed by the legislature would provide a penalty for farm employers who provide farm workers with short handled hoes.

Hoe handles must be five feet or more in length, according to the act which provides that an employee who is injured as a result of using a short-handled hoe may sue the employer for damages or for temporary or permanent injunctive relief. It's also listed in the act as a class C misdemeanor. (See Postings, Page 12)

The 19th annual FHA Sweetheart Contest was held Saturday night, Feb. 14, in the primary auditorium with Miss Rhonda Rogers, daughter of Rosemary Rogers, crowned FHA Sweetheart.

Rhonda is a senior student at Post High and for her talent number, sang impersonations of Julie Andrews, Karen Carpenter, Tanya Tucker and then her own thing, a gospel rendition of "Special Delivery."

Sharla Macy, daughter of Bob Macy and Nancy Alexander, was named first runnerup. Sharla is also a senior student and for her talent did a pantomime of "I Can't Say No." Penny Davidson, a freshman and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Williams was second runner-up and did a Shirley Temple pantomime and a tap dance.

Phil Tyler, FHA Beau and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Tyler, presented the winners to the audience and presented each with a bouquet of flowers.

Dr. Charles McCook, master of ceremonies, introduced the 18 contestants, who entered the stage on a red carpet with a huge white

With new hot water heaters — Hospital cuts its gas bill

Garza Memorial Hospital directors received a report at their February breakfast meeting last Thursday from Physical Plant Director Bill Terpening showing the hospital had reduced to almost half the amount of natural gas used by the hospital in the five months from August through December.

This resulted in a savings of $1,083.84 for this period. The hospital installed two hot water heaters in July and August enabling Terpening to cut off the hospital's boilers early in the summer.

For the five months period, the hospital used only 532 MCFs of gas compared with 1,025 MCFs for the same period in 1979 at a cost of $1,517.23 as compared to $2,610.07 for the same period in 1979. Terpening said in the report that over a year's time the gas savings should total at least $1,700.

The directors adopted five changes or additions to various hospital policies and procedures to bring them into line with Medicare requirements as outlined in a Medicare survey report. The survey or inspection was conducted Jan. 19 and

In Lubbock musical, "Fiddler on the Roof" —

Kirkpatrick in lead role

When the actor cast in the lead role of Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof" took a walk just two weeks ago, Frederick S. Roffman, who was flown in from New York City to direct the famous musical in Lubbock, handed the pivotal part to Kent Kirkpatrick.

The Post youth, who will graduate from Texas Tech University this spring with a degree in drama, thus will appear as the father of five daughters in the Lubbock First Methodist Church production at 8:15 Friday and Saturday nights in the Lubbock Civic Center theater.

(Tickets are on sale at the church office and Hemphill Wells at South Plains Mall.)

Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirkpatrick. He attended Trinity University for two years after his graduation from Post High School to study drama under the legendary Paul Baker of Dallas.

For attempted murder —

Kent rancher indicted here

A Garza district court grand jury Tuesday afternoon indicted William McLaury III, Kent County rancher, on a charge of attempted murder in the shooting of Roy Don Hodges, Spur oilfield worker, in a tavern parking lot here the night of Nov. 19, 1980.

McLaury has been out on a $25,000 bond since the day after the shooting when he walked into Sheriff Jim Pippin's office here with his attorney and gave himself up.

Hodges and his wife, Ann, filed the largest damage suit in Garza history against McLaury here Dec. 5, 1980, seeking a total of $3,353,000 in damages as a result of the shooting.

Hodges was shot in the head by a .38 caliber pistol bullet causing loss of his eyesight and severe facial damage, according to the damage suit.

The McLaury indictment was the only one returned by the grand jury which heard a number of witnesses in the case.

Contracts extended for principals, AD

Post school trustees last Thursday night extended the contracts of Principals Dan Rankin, Joe Giddens and Bud Davis and Athletic Director David Thompson for next year and asked the administration for merit pay proposals for the four by budget making time.

Teacher contracts will be on the agenda for the board's March session.

Trustees spent a major portion of their two and one-half hour meeting discussing the high school gym remodeling, possible air condition of high school classrooms, agreeing to the purchase of $12,000 worth of bleacher seats immediately for use this spring track season, and raising the possibility of expanding vocational agriculture facilities, and returning industrial arts to the high school curriculum.

Duane McQueen of the Lubbock architectural firm of Whitaker and Hall appeared before the trustees to keep them abreast of developments in the upcoming 1981 school improvement program.

On the high school gym remodeling, McQueen said the firm is proceeding with planning for all the new seating for the gym to be on the west side of the playing floor with the basketball court moved to the east to provide more room for stands on the west.

He cited these advantages to such an arrangement:

(1) This would better utilize space and enable a large storage area to be built under the stands, (2) it would put all spectators on one side for school assemblies, and (3) it would enable spectators to enter the stands without getting on the playing floor.

McQueen said the new stands would seat approximately 500 fans with the first row based two feet

Jordanian minister in visit to Post

Post had a visit last weekend from another of those distinguished visitors from foreign lands.

He was Hassan Al-Moamini, of Jordan, minister of municipal, rural and environmental affairs in that Mideastern country.

Accompanying him were Sadallah Sadallah, also of Jordan, who is director general for environment, in the ministry of municipal, rural and environmental affairs, and who served as Hassan Al-Moamini's interpreter.

Sadallah Sadallah is a Texas Tech University graduate and his son, Dean, who is now a Texas Tech student, joined his father for his Post visit.

The visitors from Jordan were dinner guests of County Judge and Mrs. Giles Dalby Thursday night at their Cross H Ranch east of Post. They were accompanied here by Dr. Jack McCoskey of Tech's ag department, and Dr. Kevin Traylor, from Tech's department of international affairs.

On Friday, the group returned to tour Burlington's Postex Plant and visited land waste projects there and viewed conservation practices in Garza County. Dick Tanner conducted the plant tour and Judge Galdy and Mayor Giles McCrary accompanied them.

On Friday evening, the three were the honored guests at a barbecue at the Cross H Ranch.

Barbecue guests included county officials from Dickens, Rotan, Crosbyton, Morton, Matador, Snyder, and Lubbock as well as Post city council members.

Judge Dalby took the three Jordanians Friday to Bob West's Western Wear store here and had them fitted with his gifts of western hats and western belts.

At the barbecue that night, Hassan Al-Moamini presented Judge Dalby with a Jordanian head dress, presented Mrs. Dalby with a small Bible with inlaid mother of pearls, and to both of them gave a Persian rug.

Well worth the price

The annual Garza Junior Livestock Show which begins here today is the "in thing" in town this weekend.

Over the 16 years since the first was held, the beneficial effects on Garza's young people is quite evident. Each year the show continues to grow in size, and usually in quality.

Its worth is recognized by the adult and business community as is evident by the rising total of dollars spent on the animals purchased at the sale to conclude the show.

The show is in new quarters now — and still growing.

We were made even more aware of its worth at the school board meeting last Thursday night when it was pointed out to school trustees that vocational agriculture in Post High School has doubled its enrollment in the last three years.

The need now is for larger vocational agricultural training facilities at PHS, and the trustees are looking into the matter.

The reason for the increase is pure and simple — it's the growth among our youth of interest in vocational agriculture. Certainly, the junior livestock show and sale has in large measure helped to create this interest.

The Garza show and sale is a tremendous undertaking and requires a lot of dedicated work by parents and adult leaders. But all one has to do is to go out and take a look at what's happening there this weekend and you'll come away convinced it's worth every single ounce of energy put into it.

A real community loss

Post in the months and years ahead will miss the Post Music Club and its many music appreciation projects we all enjoyed.

After 20 years, the club is disbanding. Changing times have brought its end, members say. For the community that will be a real loss.

Seldom has a club such as this one had such a favorable impact on its home community.

Everyone enjoyed those sacred music concerts each year with virtually every local church participating.

The musical shows the club sponsored as fund raising efforts brought all of us who love music many evenings of enjoyment.

The support, financially and otherwise, they gave to the high school band and choir programs boosted and strengthened them.

Musical scholarship opportunities were literally the hallmark of the music club. They encouraged local youngsters with musical talent to pursue the improvement of that talent.

Times do change of course and this is simply one of the changes we hate to see occur.

Sponsorship of the U.S. Air Force Band of the West in concert in the community center last Thursday night was the Post Music Club's "swan song". Certainly, it was a suitable one.

Post hasn't hosted such a talented musical organization as the Band of the West in years, and years.

What is your answer?

President Reagan's budget-cutting call sounded across the nation Wednesday night.

For the first time in decades, America is being called to see that its own government starts to live within its means. How will Americans answer the call?

Some will protest every step of the way, every dollar not spent. No matter that the nation is beginning to face a fiscal crisis of tremendous proportions. Borrow — and spend — has become their way of life.

Soon our national debt will exceed a trillion dollars — probably before the year is out.

That debt is the culprit that keeps those interest rates so high. The government is borrowing so much money there isn't enough left to go around for individuals and industry.

So today we find it hard to afford to buy a new car or a new home. Industry can't afford new equipment.

To get the mess straightened out, we're all going to have to sacrifice. We're going to have to give up some things — a lot of which the government has been giving to us, one way or another.

President Reagan's effort will fail if the American public who mandated his tough approach to our economic plight fail now to support him and force congressional politicians to accept his economic program.

Where do you stand on America's tomorrow? What is your answer?

IT'S TIME TO BUNDLE UP

Here are some tips that will help you wrap up your home to use energy more efficiently.

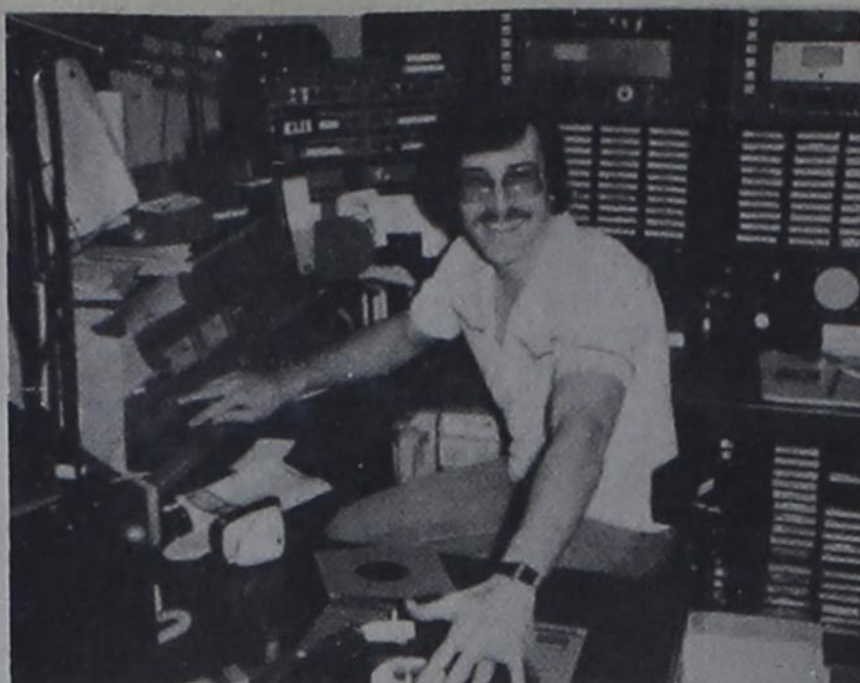

* Add an extra blanket of insulation in the attic. * Secure ductwork joints with screws and wrap with tape to stop air loss. * Feel warmer by installing storm doors and windows.

Winter is here and time to bundle up to be warmer and more efficient with the energy you use.

* Change the heating unit air filter when dirty. * Caulk and weatherstrip air leaks and infiltration around all doors and windows. That about wraps it up for the basics. It's good to know there are some things you can do and depend on to be more comfortable this winter.

Post Music Club ends 20 years of service

When the Post Music Club co-sponsored the concert of the Air Force Band of the West here last Thursday night with the Post Chamber of Commerce, the club ended its 20 years of musical promotion for the Post community.

Changing times generally accounts for the membership voting to disband the club. More women hold jobs these days and so much is going on its is difficult to find time for everything.

The club probably will be remembered here most for its musical productions.

These include "Snow White" produced both in 1966 and 1971; "The Nutcracker" in 1968 with a club chorus, puppets, and guest ballerinas; "Komedie Kapers", also produced twice in 1969 and 1973 with different skits each time; "Post Toasties Caper", a musical melodrama in 1977.

The club also presented "The Messiah" with the community chorus in 1967; and annually sponsored the Sacred Music Programs annually with all church music groups invited to participate.

It sponsored the district convention of music clubs in 1976 in the First Christian Church.

The club through its funds aided in the development of the primary music program and the high school band and choir in Post schools.

Music club funds through the years were used for all kinds of musical scholarships, including scholarships for individual students, the District II scholarship fund, to sent students to music camp, and for private voice lessons for deserving youngsters.

Post Music Club presidents through its 20-years or community effort here include Mrs. K. W. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Garland Huddleston, Mrs. Ed Sawyers, Mrs. Ronnie Bouchier, Mrs. Bo Jackson, Mrs. Maxine Marks Earl, Mrs. Bill Pool, Mrs. Boo Olson, Mrs. Bill Shiver, Mrs. Nancy Alexander, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Jim Wells, Mrs. James Dietrich, Mrs. Earl, Mrs. Bud Sparlin, and Mrs. Jack Gordon who was president for the final year.

Patricia Davis, Keith Whitworth are wed

The Broadway Church of Christ Chapel was the scene of the double ring wedding ceremony uniting Miss Patricia Davis and Keith Whitworth Saturday.

The 7:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by Horace Offman, a minister at Broadway, before three-tiered brass candleabrum entwined with greenery and tied with a large burgundy satin bow.

The bridal aisle was marked with large burgundy satin bows.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvus R. Davis are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Don Whitworth of Lubbock are parents of the bridegroom.

Wedding music was provided by the Broadway Church Wedding Chorus. They sang, "One Hand, One Heart"; "More"; "The Wedding Song"; and the recessional, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

Rick Reynolds, brother-in-law of the bride from Denver, Colo., and Miss Debbie Davis, cousin of the bride from Midland, sang "With This Ring". Then Reynolds sang the theme from "Ice Castles" and Miss Davis sang the theme from "The Promise."

The father of the bride presented her in marriage. She wore a gown of white organza and Chantilly lace designed with an empire neckline. The Queen Anne neckline featured a row of ruffled lace which extended around to the back of the dress, where the bodice featured the sheer organza designed in a low circle effect. The stand-up collar, embellished with seed pearls, extended from the neck to the throat in front, around to the back. The bodice of the dress also featured a row of lace appliques richly enhanced by seed pearls. The fitted sleeves were of organza and featured rows of Chantilly lace running the entire length of the sleeves, ending in ruffled organza cuffs. The full skirt featured two rows of lace and three rows of organza ruffles at the bottom of the skirt. One row of the lace ruffles and two rows of the organza ruffles swept up the sides and ended at the waistline in the back, forming a bustle effect. The skirt swept into a full chapel train.

All of the flowers for the wedding were made by Donna Williams, a friend of the bride.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old and borrowed, pearls; something new was her dress and pearl earrings from her parents; something blue was her garter made by Mrs. Quannah Maxey.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Rick Reynolds of Denver, Colo. Miss Stacia Hill, niece of the bride of Lubbock, was bridesmaid.

Her attendants wore cranberry lustreglow gowns with spaghetti strap bodices featuring a shirred effect. The gowns were enhanced by elbow-length chiffon capes. Their matching derby hats featured elbow length illusion veils enhanced by seed pearls. The band around the crown of the hat was also of illusion and was scattered with seed pearls. They carried nosegay bouquets of burgundy silk rosebuds and baby's breath tied with pink and burgundy satin ribbon streamers.

The serving table was covered with a white silk organza cloth edged in wide lace and shirred at three points. The shirred points were tied with burgundy silk rosebuds, baby's breath and pink satin ribbons.

The three-tiered heart-shaped wedding cake trimmed with burgundy and pink rosebuds centered the table. It was flanked by single burgundy tapers and burgundy silk rosebuds. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

The bride is a graduate of Post High School and Texas Tech University. She is a business service representative for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The bridegroom is a draftsman for High Plains Underground Water Conservation District 1.

NEW YEAR FACTS & FIGURES

U.S. Census Bureau statistics show, America could become the land of the middle-aged. Our comparatively low birth rate has encouraged experts to predict that 55 percent of the population will be over 35 by the year 2000. Transportation of the future might also include the jet-propelled hydrofoil. Such a boat can cruise at 50 miles an hour. Two are already taking commuters and tourists around the Hawaiian islands.

Scrounged together a bit of news this week so here goes!

Todd Wilson and Jimmy Ticer will represent our school in the state choir contest in May. Todd and Jimmy both received a I in solo at the All Region Contest held in Lubbock recently. Gail Scott also received a I and the boys quartet made up of Jimmy, Todd, Jack Rylant and Mark Stark received a II. A big congratulations to you all for a job WELL DONE.

Happy Birthday goes to Rhonda Williams, D'Lynn Young, Patti McClellan and Brad Greer. You'll find Lil Brad strumming his guitar elsewhere in the paper.

This is proving to be a busy weekend. The stock show and Junior play both on the agenda. Don't forget either on your calendar. The kids have worked for many months with their animals and would like to show them off for everyone. Good luck to you all, wish everyone could be a winner.

The Junior play is set for Saturday night and you haven't seen anything till you see Mike Sullivan in that slinky outfit. The play is set for 7:30 in the primary auditorium with tickets going for $3 for reserved, $2 for adults and $1 for students. See ya there.

Hope all the girls received that special Valentine from that special guy and the Sweetheart Contest was a perfect way to end the day. All the girls looked so pretty in their long dresses. I'm glad I didn't have to judge cause it would be a hard decision. But congratulations to the sweetheart, Rhonda and runnersup Sharla and Penny and to the other 15 who were entered.

Also a belated congrats to Luann and David for being selected Basketball Sweetheart and Beau. Speaking of basketball the season is over and now it's time to start running around and around the track. Thanks teams for an exciting season.

Had a small reunion at the ole home place Saturday afternoon and it was so good to see everyone again. Those stopping by included Chuck Black and Jackie Stelzer, David Poole and friend, Nanette (very pretty), Leanna Davis and her roommate Shawnee Reynolds, Shawnee's dad used to coach here, Donna of course Randall Stotts, Jerri and Patti McClellan. Patti celebrated her birthday Saturday and we helped her eat her Valentine Candy.

Jay Young was also home for the weekend from Angelo.

Bruce Waldrip and his friend, Lisa also visited at home this past weekend.

Albert Gonzales received a nice birthday gift for his 18th, his parents bought him a new Silverado pickup. Nice.

See ya at the stock show and fair.

Kirkpatrick in play—

The Lubbock church is sponsoring the production of "Fiddler on the Roof" as a fund raiser for its Western Singers, a youth choir, to help defray tour expenses. The choir toured Europe one recent year.

Kent will sing several numbers in "Fiddler" including the ever popular, "Sun Rise, Sun Set." He has taken singing and dancing lessons to further his stage career.

In the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal's Sunday edition, William D. Kearns wrote in his "Real to Reel" column in the entertainment section:

"Director Roffman remained diplomatic when discussing his original choice for Tevye, never mentioning him by name. The actor, whose company transferred him to another city, was, he said, very good — but, according to Roffman, 'Our new Tevye is even better.'"

"Kent Kirkpatrick, who has yet to earn a negative review in a local production, is that new Tevye, but it took Roffman and musical producer Gordon McMillan a while to find him — even though he was right under their noses all the time. "We were about ready to panic when the first actor left. We kept it a secret from the cast for a while, first to maintain the mystique and also because I didn't want them worrying about my problems."

"We were prepared to bring in an actor from New York, Dallas, or Houston if worse came to worse. It is, after all, a pivotal role. I had already cast Kent in a rather small part, but hadn't had much of a chance to work with him yet. Then, one day I asked Kent to run through the Tevye part, and while he was doing it I looked over at

Gordon and said, 'What are we wasting our time for? We have Tevye right here.' "So I moved Kent to the lead, and everything smoothed out immediately. Everyone else in the cast pulled together to help Kent and, in so doing, of course helped themselves at the same time."

He continued: "I like Kent because he's a gutsy actor. He has good instincts, and he's not afraid to take chances. I can give him just a hint of what I want, and let him take off from there."

Director Roffman, after the Lubbock presentation, will go back to preparing a new performing edition and recording of "Naughty Marietta" for the Smithsonian Institute and then will produce a new Victor Herbert work for the Bel Canto Opera.

Of Kirkpatrick, Roffman added: "He has a future ahead of him. I think Kent now wants to go on to New York or someplace to further his acting career."

Roffman says Lubbock upcoming "Fiddler on the Roof", "Is as good as any professional dinner theater or regional theatre production in the country."

The busts of Mount Rushmore can be seen from 60 miles away.

Two on Angelo State honor roll

SAN ANGELO — Two Post area students attending Angelo State University, are listed on the Dean's honor roll for the fall semester at the university. Those listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 honor roll include Tina A. Rogers, a psychology major, and Cindy Lynn Terry, a health and physical ed major.

It's not so much the temperature as the wind chill factor which makes you feel cold.

Sure, I go to the Diet Center . . .

It just makes good sense. I know that I'll enjoy more in life once I lose these extra pounds I've picked up over the years. And at the Diet Center, I can do it without giving up the nutrition that my body needs. Chances are I'll live a lot longer, too!

Why don't you decide to join me?

★ Senior Citizens News ★

Algerita Senior citizens had another fantastic night of entertainment by some of our own local talent. If you were not here you sure missed a blessing. Also, we had our Valentine King and Queen crowning.

Our Queen was Inez Grantham, and our King was Ralph Grett. They each were presented a gift by Joe Williams. We also had some good stew and chili again. There were fifty-nine who ate with us and about ninety there for the musical entertainment.

There was quite a variety of this including singing and playing. We really do appreciate these who take time out to come down and entertain for us. We owe Bea Dodson a very special thank you for getting up these musicals for us. They consist of Nancy and Danny Shaw, Bill and Durwood Bartlett, Aubrey Ritchie, Esker Stone, Dennis Huntley, Dwight Funk, Dr. Rodriguez, Bob Durham, or Bob Cat, Rev. Don Travis, dra Valdez have done it again; in addition to the recently decorated score box, the two girls have now designed a huge eagle on the south wall of the gymnasium.

Lisa and Sandra drew and painted the mascot in the colors of red and black. The eagle is approximately nine feet tall and is depicted dribbling a basketball.

The girls were assisted in their efforts by girls' basketball coach Sheryl Neff, and Olga and Terri Hirscheta, who helped with the painting of the mascot.

The eagle certainly adds color and vitality to the gymnasium, and Lisa and Sandra and their assistants are to be commended for their creative talents and hard work!

The boys secured a second place tie in district with a 33-22 win over Wilson. Dee Farquhar led in scoring with 15 points. They finished district with a 4-4 record.

Rev. Kenneth Cook, Mildred Stewart and her daughter. I do not know Mrs. Stewart's daughter's name, but she did some beautiful singing, and she lives out of town. Also Faye Mathis and Mr. Moore of our own group performed, Faye helped sing and Mr. Moore played his harmonica.

We will be having a musical once a month the dates to be announced later.

Post splits at Cooper

Coach Sid Wright's Post Antelopes edged by Cooper at Cooper Friday night, 66 to 63, while Coach Sonja Curry's Lady Lopes were bowing to the Cooper girls for the second time in the district season, 47 to 43.

The win and loss left both Post clubs in third place in the district race with one to play with 5-4 records.

Will Kirkpatrick and Irvin Price led the Lopes to their triumph with 19 and 18 point performances respectively. Mark Holly was the other lone in double figures with 11.

Post and Cooper went into the final period all knotted at 54 all. Sparkman of Cooper who topped all scorers with 30 points, had 28 going into the final period but was shut off with only a single fielder as Post outscored the Pirates 12 to 9.

Coach Curry's Lady Lopes dropped only their sixth start in 22 games this season in bowing to Cooper, which clinched second place in the district race with the win.

The Layd Lopes couldn't get their offense rolling in the first half and trailed Cooper 21 to 14 at intermission. The locals outscored Cooper 29 to 26 in the last two periods but couldn't quite catch the Cooper girls.

Doris Pringler and Luann Kennedy led the Post shooters with nine points each. Lana Dunn had eight, Marinette Hays six, Jean Price four, Darla Jackson three, and Dee Dee Redman and Tina Greene two each.

Kennedy kept Post in the game in the first period with eight of Post's nine points. Hays' two baskets in the second accounted for four of Post's five points. In the third period, Pringler was outstanding with seven points and in the fourth it was Dunn's four baskets which kept Post close.

The Post boys JV club won its game of the quadrupleheader, 46 to 40, but the Post JV girls bowed to Cooper 38 to 34 in the opener.

Bill Black had 11 and Curtis Clinesmith and James Lee had 10 points each for the boys.

Trushell Marts and Lora Pringler each had 10 to lead the JV girls who got bombed out in the final period 16 to 8 after leading through three.

Heatly chairs budget group

AUSTIN — State Representative Buck Florence, chairman of the House Committee on Judicial Affairs, today announced the appointment of Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah to chair the Budget and Oversight Subcommittee and to serve on the Judicial Districts Subcommittee.

"As dean of the House, Representative Heatly has a wealth of knowledge and expertise on which to draw," Representative Florence said.

"There is no one who understands the State budget process better than Mr. Heatly," Representative Florence said.

Florence added, "And no one in the legislature has the background in dealing with the court system of Texas. Mr. Heatly will help guide us in our work in maintaining our excellent state court system while being sure that taxpayers' dollars are being spent cautiously and effectively."

Post jumped into a 24 to 5 first period lead and led 37 to 11 at the half.

Every player on the local squad got into the action with 13 of them scoring.

So spread was the point making only Milton Williams was in double figures with 13 points.

8th girls in closing win

Coach Lu Allen's 8th grade girls team edged Roosevelt, 25 to 24, at Roosevelt Monday night despite a fourth period rally by the host team.

The victory put the Post girls on the winning side for the season with eight wins and seven losses.

Jan White led the Post girls with five baskets for 10 points.

Post trailed through the first half and was down 8-7 at the intermission, but rallied to take a 17 to 12 advantage in the third and held on in the fourth when White got three of her baskets.

8th boys in fourth win

Coach Randy Josey's Post 8th grade boys wound up a losing season with a victory Monday night as they edged Roosevelt here, 44 to 40.

The team won four and lost 10 for the campaign.

Jay Valdez led Post in scoring with 13 points, followed by Mike Ollison with 12 and Greg Massey with 11. Completing the scoring were Chuck Morris with six and Curt Cowdrey with two.

Post led 19 to 18 at the intermission, added three points to their margin in the third and stood off the visitors at nine points each in the fourth.

Smith then was turned over to Crosby officers on other charges.

A trio pleaded guilty in city court to charges of public intoxication and disorderly conduct charges. Osbaldo Armandez Lugan, Jesus Garcia Ortiz and Ray Antonio Gomez paid $103.50 each in fine and court costs.

above the playing floor. He suggested the board consider a synthetic playing floor over concrete instead of a new hardwood floor. He said it is difficult to get good hardwood these days. The present hardwood playing floor has some dead spots and some nails are showing.

Cost of the two floors are comparable though the hardwood floor will cost 50 cents more per square foot, $1.50 per square foot to $4 for synthetic.

He said he was not yet prepared to recommend either surface.

The school trustees have yet to make the decision on whether or not to air condition all local classrooms, but have agreed to pay for the architect's installation and operating cost study.

McQueen said his firm "is looking at" two air-conditioning systems for the high school.

One would have individual rooftop units for each classroom. The other would be a variable air volume system. He said the rooftop system would require 93 tons of air conditioning at a cost of $900 per ton, whereas the variable volume system would require only 80 tons at a higher cost of $1,150 per ton.

McQueen told trustees that the air conditioning system must carry a third bigger load to offset classroom lighting and one-sixth bigger to offset classroom windows.

Trustees acknowledge that air conditioning will be awfully expensive to install and operate just for two months of school year cooling to 78 degrees in May and September. Trustees are awaiting operating cost estimates before making up their minds.

The board decided to spend up to $12,000 for purchase and installation of bleachers for the new running track in advance of the spring track season which will open here March 13.

Post now has the only metric measured track in the district and both district meets are scheduled this year for Post as well as four other track meets.

Athletic Director Thompson asked for seating of 600 spectators.

McQueen said weathered steel bleachers to seat 300 persons would cost $7,000 delivered to Post with installation costs coming on top of that.

Other types of bleachers, McQueen said, like aluminum are higher. The board agreed that it wanted professional installation and decided to authorize the purchase of as many bleachers installed as $12,000 would permit.

McQueen said he can obtain shipment within 10 days.

Trustees argued whether or not there should be an admission charge for track events to help pay cost of the bleachers. Supt. Bill Shiver said a check would be made with district sports authorities to see if such charges would be permitted for the district meets.

The board's thinking is that if Post is the only school to have a usable track for district events, an admission charge should be levied to help pay the cost here for at least the seating facilities.

In another decision, the board authorized McQueen to take bids in the immediate future for carpet for all high school classrooms. The carpet would be stored for installation during the summer vacation.

McQueen promised the architects would be ready to take bids in April on the total 1981 school improvement package. All of which would indicate that in March the board will make its decision whether or not to air condition the schools, as this could be the major portion of the package.

Eight local teachers are now commuting here for classes from their homes in Lubbock and another is driving in from Slaton.

They presented a written request to the school board for help with their travel expenses, possibly even obtaining a van in which they can drive back and forth together.

Trustees turned down the request with little comment.

In another action, trustees put on their March agenda consideration of publishing the names of school district tax delinquents together with tax amounts owed. The city during the past year has been very successful with collections through such a program.

A letter to Supt. Shiver from Hulan H. Harris, Area II supervisor for vocational agriculture, sparked the discussion of expansion of vocational ag facilities here and the consideration of returning industrial arts to the high school curriculum.

Harris said he had reviewed the local vocational agriculture program, which he termed one of the best quality ones in the area, and "was excited about the possibility of improving facilities for it here."

Harris enclosed with his letter a facility guide containing some suggested floor plans.

Mike Flanigan reported the welding courses at the present facility are really crowded and limits class

Bloodpressure course Sunday

The Garza County Chapter of the Red Cross will sponsor a community class in taking one's own blood pressure from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the Algerita Senior Citizens Center.

The course is free and will be taught by volunteer instructors. There will be a $1.75 charge for the course work book, however.

The Red Cross also has purchased several cuffs and stethoscopes which will be left in places here where they will always be available for public use in taking one's own blood pressure.

size for adult night courses.

The high school vocational agriculture program has increased approximately 100 percent in size in the last three years with some 70 students now in the program, trustees were told.

With some trustees suggesting a return to industrial arts here to fill a vocational training need in the high school program, Supt. Shiver was asked to look into such a program here as to facility needs and costs.

Trustees set the spring school board election for Saturday April 4, but were told by Supt. Shiver that Post's "majority vote requirement" for election of school trustees is now under scrutiny by the United States Department of Justice for possible bias against minorities.

Copies of a letter requesting additional information on the local situation from Gerald W. Jones, chief of the voting section of the justice department, were given board members.

"Somebody has turned us in," Shiver told the board. The letter lumped the local district with Lynn and Kent Counties on the majority vote requirement.

Supt. Shiver pointed out there "was no minority implication whatsoever" in the November request for approval of the majority vote rule in which there would be a runoff election to get a majority for a school board seat if the regular election did not produce a majority vote from among contested candidates.

Trustees pointed out the system worked well last year when a minority member was elected to the Post board.

Trustee Flanigan reported to the board that the board's attorneys are looking into how to return property now held by local taxing units because of tax delinquency back on the tax rolls via a sheriff's sale, and if the cost of such actions would be prohibitive.

Two bids were received for the sale of an old International school bus. Trustees accepted the high bid of $350 from Bill Gandy.

The board nominated Jack Alexander to be appointed to fill a vacancy left on the new Garza County Tax appraisal board by the resignation from it of Dr. William Wilson. Alexander would represent both the city and hospital district on the board.

The board itself will fill the vacancy but taxing bodies can nominate candidates. Dr. Wilson originally represented the city when he was a member of the city council.

Hospital—

20. Hospital Administrator Maritta Reed provided board members with copies of the survey report and said all but one deficiency already has been corrected. That one, an antibiotic study, will take 90 days to complete.

Directors also approved the application of Joe Max Word to the hospital staff as a radiologist.

The board wrote off the unpaid balances of some 72 patients totaling $5,340.53 from hospital books but these will be sent further collection letters and will be finally turned over to a collection agency.

The January hospital report showed the hospital continuing to run behind 1980 in patient load, although Administrator Reed reported there is now a February upsurge due to many pneumonia cases.

The hospital admitted 48 patients in January, as compared to 57 for the same month in 1980, had only 177 patient days as compared to 315 such days a year earlier, and with an average patient load for the month of 5.7 as compared to 10.2 in January, 1980.

Six babies were born in the hospital in January as compared to seven in January, 1980. Outpatients treated in the emergency room totaled 219 as compared to 223 in January of 1980.

For the fiscal year to date (beginning Oct. 1) the hospital has admitted 184 patients (197 in 1980), has total patient days of 675 (980 in 1980), for an average of 5.5 patients per day (8.0 in 1980).

Due to hospital rate increases, probably more than anything else, the hospital in the first four months of the fiscal year has collected $97,902.17 on accounts as compared to $95,957.36 for the same period in 1980. Hospital district tax collections for the period were up substantially (due mainly to increases in oil valuations) from $265,995.01 in 1980 to $331,671.19 this year to date.

Total operating revenue for January (money from patients) totaled $32,159.77 with monthly expenses totaling $46,728.85 requiring the balance to be paid from tax receipts.

Winter Warning: WATCH THE WIND!

When it's cold, the combination of temperature and wind takes on more importance than ever. Meteorologists of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), a Department of Commerce agency, call the combined effect on the body the wind chill factor.

There already is a contest for the Post city council's two seats up for decision in the spring election April 4.

Two more candidates, Jackie L. Gordon and Johnnie Q. Ward, joined Ray Bagby in filing for the council positions during the past week.

The only other candidate filing was that of Mike Flanigan for reelection to Place 6 on the Post School Trustees.

So far, no candidates have filed for mayor, the other school board position or for the three positions on the hospital district's board of directors.

Deadline for filing in the city and school races is March 4 with the deadline for the hospital races March 10.

TRASH COMPACTORS

Household trash—no matter what our income level, whether we're single or have a large family, handling the trash is something we all must deal with. A home trash compactor helps eliminate kitchen clutter—overflowing baskets and messy spills—and the daily arguments about whose turn it is to take it out.

According to home economists from Whirlpool Corporation, the amount of trash we handle in our homes today is enormous and, it is growing due to the fact that just about everything we purchase nowadays is wrapped in something else. Because of this growing problem, they believe that the trash compactor is becoming an important and necessary appliance for kitchens of today and will be basic to kitchens of the future.

An especially nice feature is its small size—only 15 inches wide and countertop height, a trash compactor can fit just about anywhere. All it requires to install it is an electrical outlet, the same as for a toaster or a TV set.
