Miss Caylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caylor. Game time is at 8 o'clock.

Revival Starts Next Sunday At Methodist Church

A 15-day revival, sponsored jointly by the First Methodist and Wesley Methodist churches of Hereford, will begin Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Quay Parmer, approved evangelist of the Methodist church, will conduct services at 10 o'clock each morning and 7:45 o'clock each evening during the revival.

Earl Ward, who helped with a revival in Hereford several years ago, is scheduled to lead the song service.

Wide Background

A resident of Texas since 1915, Rev. Parmer had a wide background of religious training and work. After receiving his A. B. degree from Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C., he did special work in the Asbury Theological Seminary at Wilmore, Ky., and later received his B. D. degree from S.M.U. In 1951 he completed special work at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., and was awarded a master's degree in Theology.

For seven years before World War II, Rev. Parmer served as a pastor in city and country churches. He then entered the Army in 1941 as a chaplain, a duty he performed for five years, two of which were spent in Europe with a combat division.

The public is invited to attend all the services, Rev. S. M. Dunham, pastor of the First Methodist Church, said.

The Financial Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chapter, American Red Cross, headed by D. C. Kinsey as chairman, has approved the chapter's budget for next year. Others on the committee were Dyalitha Brady, Gladys Medkiff and Bill Deardorff. With the budget submitted to headquarters in St. Louis for approval, it is expected that the quota of the 1954 Fund Campaign to be even over last year.

Mrs. P. Lutz Funeral Held Here Tues.

Funeral services for Mrs. Parthina Lutz, 71, Route 4, of Hereford, were held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock with Father Bartholomew Paytas, pastor of the St. Anthony's church, officiating.

Mrs. Lutz died Saturday night in Deaf Smith County Hospital after a long illness.

Palbearers were W. J. Albracht, Mike Betzen, Earl Waltes, James Malone, Glen Rutter and Oscar Timms.

Special Program Is Planned For P-TA Meetings

"The Family Goes To School" will be the program at the P-TA meetings at 7:30 o'clock Monday night.

Parents are asked to go to the rooms that their children attend in each of the schools. Refreshments will be served in each school cafeteria. The sixth grade will go to the Junior High cafeteria. The Membership Drive of P-TA is on this week under the supervision of the room mothers, who are making an effort to contact all persons who are interested, according to Elmer Patterson, membership chairman.

Supervisors The supervisors are Mrs. H. E. Miller, Central School; Mrs. Herbert Haseloff, Shirley; Mrs. R. E. Lingenfelter, sixth grade; and Mrs. N. D. Bartlett, High School. Tables will be set up in the halls of each of the schools Monday night to offer membership to persons that room mothers missed.

Qualification Test Blanks Available At Draft Board

Application blanks to take the first of the fourth series of Selective Service college qualification tests on November 19 are on hand at the Hereford draft board office, 323 North Sampson.

College or university students can also pick up bulletins of information about the tests at the board office, Eunice L. Petersen, clerk, said.

November 3 Deadline The November 19 test is scheduled to be given in 43 Texas communities and on 51 college and university campuses. Applications for the test must be postmarked no later than midnight, Monday, November 2.

Applicants for the test will mail applications to Educational Testing Service in self-addressed envelopes, which will be given to them at local boards with information bulletins and application blanks.

To be eligible to apply for the Selective Service test, the student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student, (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction, and (3) not previously have taken it.

Paving Work Contracts Cancelled In Hereford

ABOUT 110 STOP SIGNS were put up this week by the City to designate Through and Stop streets set up in an ordinance by the City Commission several weeks ago. Signs were put on Grand Street through Highway

Commission Appoints Group To Plan Zones

All plans for paving work done on a strictly voluntary basis were cancelled by the City Commission and the contractor, West Texas Construction Company, when the commission met Monday night.

"Getting paving done on a voluntary basis won't work in more than one town out of 20," Jim Tierney of West Texas Construction Company said. "There are nearly always a few people in each block who won't go along voluntarily. Someone is needed to carry the thing on through if most of the people in a block are interested."

Plans for the paving work on a voluntary basis were made last spring, but various delays were encountered. It wasn't until a short time ago that S. O. Wilson and Robert Thompson actually started on the job of getting property owners to sign contracts for the work.

Zoning Commission A five-man zoning commission was appointed to work with city engineer Red Smith in preparing a zoning ordinance for Hereford. Members of the zoning commission are J. C. McCracken, Raylan Evans, Jim Bob Allison, Ben Childers and Neal Cooper.

Work on deciding on the various zones will not get underway for several weeks, as it will take that long for a complete land-use survey and map to be made by the city engineer and his staff. With the map on hand, the zoning committee will decide on the number and types of zones needed, and will hold public hearings, if necessary, before setting the zones.

Cost of the survey and map will probably be about $1,200, city engineer Smith told the commission. "This is going to cost us some time, effort and money, but if the town is worth anything at all, it is worth protecting with zones," Mayor Henry Sears commented.

A letter from Bob Wear, in which he submitted his resignation as president of the Hereford Safety Council, was read to the commission by Cecil Massey, city manager, and the resignation was accepted.

Council Inactive Wear pointed out that the council has been inactive for eight or nine months, and that he doesn't have time to continue the work of the Safety Council. "The Safety Council was created by a city ordinance on December 21, 1950, and much good was done because of the co-operation among the members of the Council, the City Commission, the public schools, the State Highway Department, county officials and the service clubs," (Continued on Page 2)

COLD WEATHER HELPING LETTUCE

About 30 Million Pounds Of Maize Is Harvested

More than 30 million pounds of maize have poured into Hereford elevators since the first load arrived about a month ago, but the harvest is just getting underway, grain dealers said Wednesday.

About five percent of the grain is "a little too wet," but that seems to be about the only trouble encountered now. One elevator reported that it had not received any of the grain which had been contaminated with diesel oil or kerosene, which some farmers were using to clean "bug juice" from combines.

Cotton And Lettuce Harvesting of lettuce and cotton is just getting started good, too, partly because a large percentage of the cotton acreage was set back somewhat by the hail. The cold weather should be helping the lettuce, according to Deaf Smith County Agent Hugh Clearman, who mentioned that the cold will cause the heads to tighten up.

If all lettuce in the county is harvested, there should be about 5,000 acres in all. Last year the lettuce acreage made from 175 to 200 crates to the acre and there is half again as much acreage now as there was then.

Cotton, Too

Only 305 bales of cotton have been ginned in the county so far, but 14,000 acres are expected to be harvested. Hail may have caught some of the bolls early enough to damage them somewhat and cause a lower grade, but the crop is still expected to be worth at least a million dollars for the fiber alone, with another goodly sum for the cottonseed.

Some potatoes are still in the fields, following the drop in the market, but even these may be harvested. One man reported that he has worked out a deal to sell his potatoes "field run," and the remainder of his crop is being dug and hauled away.

Killing Freeze

With nearly everyone, the date of the first killing freeze is a big question. Much of the maize will wait until after that date for harvesting, as will a big proportion of the cotton. At the same time, a freeze which drops the temperature down to 25 or below for very long could ruin the entire lettuce crop.

DISTRICT COMMITTEE ENCOURAGED

Registration Of Scouts Up

The Boy Scout movement in Hereford is taking on new life, with about 350 Scouts registered now compared with 271 a year ago, according to reports made at the monthly Deaf Smith County district committee meeting Tuesday noon in Hotel Jim Hill.

A number of other boys are expected to register soon, which will raise the total even higher. Among those which had been tallied there are 146 Cub Scouts, 123 Scouts, and 13 Explorer Scouts, as compared to 120 Cubs; 91 Scouts and 8 Explorers last year. Committee members reported that they had a number of registrations which had not been turned in for this year. (Continued on Page 2)

Plea Of Not Guilty Is Changed After Two Days In Jail

A man who plead "not guilty" in County Court last Saturday on a charge of driving while intoxicated had changed his mind by Monday after two more nights in the County Jail and plead guilty to the charge.

A. B. Gardenhire, who was arrested on Friday afternoon by Morris Brown of the Hereford Police Department, was fined $75 and costs and given a 10 day jail sentence by County Judge Horace Schloss after the judge heard the testimony.

License Suspended Gardenhire, who had been held in lieu of $500 bond, surrendered his Arizona driver's license to Judge Schloss, and was informed that his privilege to drive any type of motor vehicle in Texas had been suspended for six months from the date of conviction.

Judge Schloss gave the defendant credit for the time he had spent in jail between the time of his arrest and the time of trial.

Eleven Winners Tie In Brand Contest

Eleven people tied for first place last week in the Brand's football contest.

Each of the winners will receive 46 cents in cash from the Hereford Brand, and 46 cents in trade at Hereford Hardware.

An induction call of 12 men was taken from the Selective Board Monday according to Eunice L. Petersen, clerk of the local draft board.

Those men will report Friday, October 16.

They are: Herbert Louis Schueler, Friona; James Lee Lookingbill, Summerfield; Carl Vernon Howell, Dimmitt; Robert Walker Booth, Farwell; Walter Lloyd Davis, Hart; Joe Deane Abbott, Canyon; Pete Ernest Fischbacher, Canyon; Truman Ed Price, Wildorado; Doyle Talmadge Bushy, Friona; Robert Melvin Lewis, Dimmitt; Jess Marion Mitchell, Amarillo; and Warlick Thomas, Farwell.

Mrs. Leta Kau of Hereford will be among 20 teachers and administrators who will lead discussions during the sixth annual campus conference for elementary and junior high school teachers of the Panhandle area at West Texas State College in Canyon Saturday. The teachers were named by Dr. Ruth Lowes, professor of education.

Monday is Columbus Day, a legal holiday, and both of Hereford's banks will be closed. Those businesses that need large amounts of change should get the amounts they think they will need on Saturday, bank officials warned.

Dr. Milton C. Adams, provisional governor for the new Toastmasters International district 25-B, installed officers at the Amarillo Toastmasters Club Tuesday night. The new district will be made into an entirely separate district by July 1 if proper progress is made, Dr. Adams says. He was lieutenant governor for this section of Texas under the former arrangement.

The roof and the walls have been put up on the Farm Bureau building this week and work is progressing rapidly. The building is located just west of the County Jail.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK will always mean something a little bit special to children in the first three grades of Hereford schools, if the fun they have riding on the fire truck has anything to do with it. Wednesday morning these Central School students were given 15 minute rides, and students from the first three grades at Shirley and St. Anthony's school will be given rides today or tomorrow, according to Fire Chief Earl Phillips, who was helping some of these youngsters up on the big pumper here. Chief Phillips said that about 700 students will get to ride on the truck this week. (Staff Photo)

Wear said in his letter: "Other members of the Council were: Don T. Martin, Ray Cowser, Lyndal Murray, D. C. Martin, Ralph Smith, Dr. Ben Wiltshire and Wayne Lawrence. J. C. Reese, an ex-officio member, was also very helpful in our work." Wear concluded.

Street Lights Approved
The commission also approved the installation of four street lights on one street in West Haven addition, after receiving a petition from N. D. Bartlett. Street lights will be installed by Southwestern Public Service, and the commission agreed that Bartlett should pay the bill for electrical service for the four lights until 75 percent of the houses in that block are built, after which the city will take them over.

To obtain street lights, residents of a block must petition the city commission. Those who attended the meeting Monday night included Mayor Sears, city commissioners D. C. Kinsey and Wayne Edwards, City Manager Cecil Massey, S. O. Wilson, Robert Thompson, Red Smith, and Jim Tierney.

CARD OF THANKS
Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings, and other kindnesses, we are deeply grateful.

STARTS SUNDAY AT STAR

"Take The High Ground" Gives Realistic Picture Of Training

A training camp takes the young men out of civilian life and transforms them into men who are qualified to fight any enemy, actual or potential.

In "Take the High Ground," which will play Sunday through Tuesday at the Star Theatre, Richard Widmark plays the part of the tough Army sergeant whose job it is to transform civilians into soldiers in only 16 weeks. Karl Malden plays his buddy with conviction and a touch of humanity.

Fine Acting As usual, Widmark, who plays the part of a good, though embittered, soldier, does a fine job of acting. Despite this bitterness and discontent, his platoon exemplifies precision and pride at the end of their training period.

For anyone who has ever wondered what happened during those weeks of training, and for those who have been through it, this should be an enjoyable picture.

Napoleonic Era Is Featured In Robust Drama

A robust Technicolor drama of Napoleonic days will be shown at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday: "Sea Devils," an action movie with appeal for the entire family, features Rock Hudson and Yvonne de Carlo in the lead roles.

Hudson, as a Channel Island smuggler, agrees to aid De Carlo in France so she can rescue her brother from Napoleon's clutches, but later he is told that she is a French countess.

De Carlo Kidnapped Believing that she is a spy, he kidnaps the dark-haired beauty and takes her back to Guernsey. Actually, she is a British agent impersonating the countess, who is in the Tower of London.

De Carlo does get back to France, but is detected, and has to be rescued by Hudson, the sailor of fortune who had been living only for himself before meeting her.

The first boys' choir in the United States were those which supplied music for the mission churches of New Mexico.

Things are really humming. If you don't believe it, just try to rent a room. The "No Vacancy" signs are out in all directions. We hired a new man in the printing department and he arrived around 11 o'clock Sunday night. He tried all of the hotels and tourist courts—and finally wound up sleeping on a bench in the Santa Fe station. He looked for a room all day Monday to no avail. Finally he went to Amarillo on the bus, spent the night and came back to work on the Tuesday morning bus. Tuesday afternoon he located a room more as a result of Western hospitality than from availability.

I had no idea that rooms were so scarce. The result, no doubt, is from the influx of lettuce workers and will probably be over in November or December—but it sure is tough on some people right now.

Sam Nunnally is most unhappy. He says the City doesn't sweep the streets along the first block in Main and, as tax payers, the people down on that end of town are getting rooked. He says he has talked with everyone from the Mayor to the Health Officer and the Dog Catcher—and they still don't get swept. I asked City Manager Cecil Massey about the deal and he says the City does sweep down there every day—where it is possible. There is a lot of all night parking in front of the hotel, the apartment house and the café—and he says the sweeper cannot cover the entire area, since it is not logical to run over the parked cars. The sweeper just circles the parked cars and by-passes them. Moving the cars, according to Massey, would require additional help at considerable expense—and would cost the tax payers quite a bit of money, also leaving the City open for possible damage suits.

Does anyone have an answer for this situation? It looks to me like they are both in the right. What would you do if you were Sam? What would you do if you were on the City Council? It is a good question. I remember when Clovis had the same problem. They passed a "No Parking" ordinance—and made a lot of people mad. I know two salesmen who still refuse to stay in Clovis as a result of the ordinance.

Do you know anything worse than having a young duckling on the premises? The answer is two ducklings. Charles Sowell, the wretch, is dickering with Buz regarding the purchase of a "little playmate" for Oswald. Charley quoted an asking price of 25 cents—and Buz is ready to go but, fortunately, Charley seems to have been talking through his hat. Anyway, he hasn't delivered. Buz can't telephone him because he can't remember his name—and I am practically no help at all when it comes to remembering names. It shouldn't happen to a dog. Maybe it won't. I always thought Charley was a decent sort of chap. I hope I can continue to feel the same way. I sure do. I sure do.

Finally, the benches are gone, but now we are threatened by ducks. If this goes much further Uncle Sam is going to be ahead. I am going over to the post office and buy a duck stamp. It is the only way out.

This is Tuesday and we have several entries in the "Ad Slogan" contest—with another whole day to go. No one has run 50 percent correct yet. Mostly they average around 15 out of 50. Here is the list, complete with correct answers:

Springlake Man Killed Sunday When Car Rolls

A Springlake man, Alton Tommy McNamara, 28, died as the result of a wreck about 14 miles south of Dimmitt on Highway 51 about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

McNamara, who was pronounced dead on arrival at Littlefield Hospital, tried to pass two cars, one of which was already in the process of passing the other, on a two-lane highway.

The gravel shoulder of the road was freshly graded, the Highway Patrol reported, and McNamara's car went 468 feet out of control, turned over twice, and finished its journey in a cow pasture after going through a fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kelly, who live south of Hereford on Highway 51, returned Sunday evening from Fort Worth where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Kelly's sister, Mrs. Mamie Burgham, who died Friday morning at her home in Fort Worth.

Plant life being protected in Acadia National Park in Maine ultimately will represent a botanic garden of the entire Acadian region.

Curtis - Lipscomb Match Is Top Event Saturday

Jack Curtis, the Vicksburg, Miss., athlete who brought something new to the Hereford wrestling ring last week, comes back with more of the same Saturday night.

Curtis, "big brother" of former champ George, meets one of the less gentlemanly grapplers of the area in Buck Lipscomb, burly, unethical roughster from Eugene, Oregon, in the top section of a double main event.

Original Style

Curtis, who mixed with veteran Billy Weidner last Saturday night, won the fancy of fans with his quick attack, his "spinning head-

Consistency Paying Off For Bowler With Top Average

MILWAUKEE — Junie McMahon believes that consistency pays off—even in bowling. For the third straight year and for the fourth time in the last five years McMahon of Fairlawn, N. J., leads the American Bowling Congress' 10-year average race.

In the last 10 ABC tourneys McMahon has averaged 205-38. He has averaged 206 for his first 14 years in ABC tournament play.

McMahon won the ABC singles and all-events titles in 1947 and has twice been the All-Star match game champion.

lock," and other methods seldom seen in the ring here. His style is somewhat original, and he makes fans quickly.

In the first section of the twin feature, young Gene Detton of Amarillo, formerly of Idaho, takes on rough Larry Wright, who also calls Amarillo home.

Been Building Up

Each of the latter has been doing considerable refereeing in recent months while "building up" for active wrestling in the junior heavyweight division. Both needed to put on extra weight, and they have worked hard to condition themselves and still add the necessary tonnage. They're close to the 200-pound mark now, and are taking very seriously their opportunities to demonstrate their wrestling ability.

Each match Saturday night runs for two out of three falls or to a one-hour time limit.

NAVY JAYVEES PLAY FOUR GAMES

Coached by Frank Foster, the Jayvees open their season on Oct. 17 against the Princeton juniors. CHIP SHOTS

By Bud Posey

The second annual Invitational Hereford Golf Club Tournament is over and was a great success. I want personally, and also on behalf of the golf club, to thank all merchants and individuals who contributed to the cause, and Dale Tinnin, tournament chairman, who helped in many ways. I think John Patton did an excellent job of starting the people, and I want to thank him from the bottom of my heart for his services.

Champ Flight

C. F. McGinnis of Pampa is the 1953 champion, having defeated Bud Abbott of Phillips in the final match Sunday afternoon, one up. Frank Cogdell, medalist with an underpar 71, lost out to Abbott one up in the semi-finals Sunday morning. McGinnis and Abbott played a see-saw game with one under par 71 scores and McGinnis made a great putt on the last hole to win the match.

Championship Consolation
Cecil Holland of Amarillo beat John Forman of Pampa one up on the 19th hole.

First flight: Dell Troutman of Laredo beat D. B. Robertson of Hereford, three and two. First flight consolation: George Cox of Amarillo defeated Claude Chambers of Amarillo three and two.

Second flight: John Renner vs. Wendell Burdine next Sunday, October 11. Second flight consolation: Chink Tucker of Tulsa defeated Button Stevens of Morton four and three. Third flight: Dudley Malone of Muleshoe beat Houston Hart of Muleshoe three and two. Third flight consolation: Tommy Pooley of Pampa beat Charles Seed of Hereford, five and four. Fourth flight: Robert Narron of Pampa beat Joe Toombs of Lubbock one up. Fourth flight consolation: B. M. Shackelford of Friona defeated D. C. McWhorter of Hereford one up.

Prizes

Each flight winner received a set of $115 irons. Each flight runner-up received a 17 jewel, $57.50 wrist watch. Each flight consolation winner received a $25 electric razor and Medalist received a $25 golf bag.

In the Pro Division, J. D. Taylor of Clovis shot a sensational eight under par 64, after being five strokes back of the leader, Kenneth Wright of Littlefield. Starting the last 18 holes he beat Wright one stroke with a total of 203—13 under par for the 54 holes of medal play. He also tied the course record set on Wednesday by Pro Joe Lopez of Memphis. Taylor received $200 in cash and Wright received $100 in cash.

MEET YOUR TEAM—Arol Acton, No. 61, (top), Whiteface center, is one of the boys who has the responsibility for getting the pigskin back to the ball carrier on schedule, then trying to hold the line so the opposition can't get through his position. Weighing 155, Acton is just one of the unsung members so important to the team. Belq, Co-Captain Clarence Caywood, No. 60, 290-pound guard, is noted for being in on a lot of tackles which are made on opposition ball carriers. (W. H. Patton Photos)

Whitefaces Chances Are Good Friday

By SLEEPY

Hereford's first conference game of the season is scheduled here against Shamrock Friday, and the Whitefaces should have at least an even chance on the game, if not a slight edge.

Last week, while the Whitefaces were making a track meet out of the game with Friona, the Irishmen were being clawed by the Childress Bobcats, who took a 32-14 win. Childress is rated at the top Class AA team in the Panhandle, however.

Until now, the Whitefaces have really not gone up against the kind of competition they will have to expect in conference play.

How Tough?

Just how tough this competition will be isn't too clear from the games Shamrock has played this year, though. Against their lone win over Lefors must be balanced total losses to Quanah and Wellington, as well as the loss to Childress last week.

Phillips, another team which Hereford will tangle with only a week after hitting the Irish, took Wellington 39-0 only last weekend, which doesn't make the Irishmen look too good. Last year, just for the record, Phillips gave Shamrock a 44 to 7 shellacking, which seems to argue that Phillips is a rough ball club, regardless of what the Irish may have.

Other Games

Shamrock also dropped games to Dalhart and Dumas last year while Hereford was, at least, giving them a run for their money, or perhaps a bit more than they had bargained for. Shamrock and Hereford did not play last year.

From the way the Whiteface team was clicking against Friona, admittedly an outclassed ball club, they should be able to at least hold their own against the sons of Erin.

Russell is demanding, and getting teamwork rather than stars from members of the Whiteface squad, and they will have home-

Lipscomb, Curtis Won Matches Saturday Night

Toe Hold Used

Curtis took the third and deciding fall in one minute with a sherry toe hold.

Buck Lipscomb of Amarillo and Tommy Martindale, also of Amarillo, wrestled in the second event.

Lipscomb took the first fall with a hammer lock in 14 minutes. Martindale won the second fall in eight minutes with a cross body press followed by a series of body blocks off the ropes.

Kentucky Campaign Will Provide Books For All Citizens

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A project is underway to raise Kentucky from 47th place to first in the nation in providing books for its citizens. The goal of the Kentucky Bookmobile Project is to achieve this in one year.

Ten Bookmobiles are now operating in Kentucky, provided by the Friends of Kentucky Libraries and the Kentucky Library Association. Already pledged are 18½ more bookmobiles.

More Asked For
An $800,000 campaign is being conducted to raise funds for the undertaking. The state has been asked to contribute $200,000 for additional books. Private citizens and corporations are being asked for $300,000 to pay for 100 bookmobiles. And local communities are being asked to pay $300,000 operating expenses of the bookmobiles.

Mrs. Barry Bingham, chairman of the project, gives as an example of its effectiveness, the fact that the reading ability of children in Bell County has improved 60 per cent since a bookmobile began to operate there two years ago.

Arab Refugee Children Will Get The Three R's

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—The United Nations has started a vast program to teach the three R's to the children of around half a million Arab refugees now in Jordan. The program has been set by the United Nations Relief and Work Agency (UNRWA). The U. N. agency is in charge of the welfare of refugees who fled the Palestine war in 1948.

At present plans call for primary education only during this coming year. UNRWA officials here estimate the most urgent task is to prevent thousands of refugee children to grow up as illiterates.

Garden Club Homes Tour Friday Was Well Attended

The Garden Beautiful Club's annual tour of homes Friday afternoon drew a large crowd, including members of garden clubs in Friona, Vega, Dimmitt, Plainview, Texas, and Clovis and Portales, N. M.

Five new homes were thrown open to welcome the tourists, each home carrying out the theme of the tour "Parade of the Party Months," in a parade of flowers and appointments in autumn's own splash of colors, including the Christmas theme at the Carl Luke home which, perhaps, drew the greatest interest. Due to paving construction which had begun since the homes were listed for the tour, the Ray Godwin home on Beach street was not shown.

Hostesses in Homes
Members of the club who served as hostesses at each home included: Mesdames J. M. Thomson, E. W. Hobson, George Graham, Norris Larmer and D. C. Kinsey and the Sully Gleaton home, 1209 E. Grand. At the Kenneth Coker home, 119 Knight, were Mesdames Ray Cowser, W. J. Stanford, D. B.

Roberson, and G. P. Owen. At the Carl Luke home, 135 Texas Ave., were Mesdames F. P. Lyons, E. W. Harrison, Mary Seigler, J. B. Harlin, Tom Carter and Miss Frances Turrentine.

Serving as hostesses at the W. L. Winget home, 301 South Main, Mesdames Dick Miller, Chas. Hood J. L. Woodford and B. E. Roberson. Last on the tour was the Frank Bezner home on Highway 51. There Mesdames O. M. Dickey, Carroll Whiteside, S. L. Easley, and Frances Houston welcomed the guests.

Mrs. George Graham served as general chairman for the tour with Mesdames J. M. Thomson, Norris Larmer, Robert Veigel and E. W. Hobson as members of the committee. Mrs. D. B. Roberson is president of the club. Funds from the tour will go toward the club project—Beautification of public and home grounds in Hereford. State Flower Is Flower For Year
Since the Texas Bluebonnet, the state flower, was adopted by the club as its flower for the year, members hit upon the idea of selling bluebonnet seed on the tour as a means of augmenting their efforts in making Hereford more beautiful. "From all indications, Hereford will be beautiful in the spring with masses of the heavenly colored blossoms," Mrs. Roberson, the club president, said.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C. — Sociologists and educationists should seek the aid of criminals in curbing juvenile delinquency, writes "J. A." in "Transition," published by inmates of B. C. penitentiary here.

"As a former juvenile delinquent and graduate of a reform school, I think the reformatory returns would be much more fruitful if the educators and sociologists utilized a long-neglected source of information: the criminal who evolved from the juvenile delinquent."

"Granted that the majority of these reform school graduates are themselves incapable of comprehending all the forces that channelled their energies in the wrong direction, they could still contribute much that has never been print."

We Know Where the Next Fire in Town Will Start!

No, we're not smarter than other people. But we have made a study of homes that have gone up in flames—often with tragic loss of life. And in almost every case, the fire started in one of these 9 specific places (or ways):

● Matches left near children
(Don't leave them near children!)

● "Junk" in cellar, attic or closets
(Get rid of it!)

● Frayed electric cords
(Replace them when they're frayed!)

● Ordinary extension cords on irons, heaters
(Don't use ordinary extension cords on irons, heaters!)

● Overloaded electric outlets
(Don't overload your circuits!)

● Smoking in bed
(Don't!)

● Chimneys that spark
(If it sparks, get it fixed!)

● Cigarette carelessness
(Squash cigarettes out, use safety ash trays!)

● Flammable cleaning fluid
(Use cleaning fluids that can't explode!)

No one knows when fire will strike; where it will, strike is predictable! And preventable in 9-out of 10 cases! Take "Sparky's" advice:

Concern Over Johnson Grass, Bindweed Voiced

Concern over the spread of bindweed and Johnson grass in the county was expressed by members of the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District Committee at their meeting last week. All members agreed that both are a serious threat to the productivity of the area.

Early control of both of these plants is being urged by the committee members, who pointed out that control will become more expensive the longer the plants are permitted to grow.

Report On Field Tour
Luther Lesly and H. M. Benson, committeemen who recently attended a meeting and field tour at Plainview, reported they were especially impressed with the legumes they saw being grown in cotton and sorghums. They saw vetch and winter peas overgrown in late August in cotton and sorghums, and saw cowpeas that had been seeded with sorghums at the time of planting.

The two supervisors reported that the cowpeas had covered the middles and were ready to be plowed under as soon as the sorghum is harvested. They agreed that the district should encourage this type of planting in cotton and sorghums in the irrigated areas around Hereford, and pointed out that it furnished cover for the soil, as well as adding nitrogen and organic matter, thus making the land more productive, and providing for its permanent productivity.

Raymond Higginbotham, who farms south of Hereford, was at the meeting. He was questioned about soil conservation work he has done on his farm.

Irrigated Pasture
Higginbotham told them about his experience with irrigated pasture on bench-leveled land. The land has been watered every 15 days. Cut into five plots, the grazing is rotated, and he has averaged carrying about two head to the acre on the pasture since early spring, he told the supervisors.

A discussion of the coming election of a supervisor to serve Zone 5 of the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation district also took place. Carl Wimberly is presently serving that zone on the district board. No definite date has been set by the state board. Usually, the Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court makes it a practice to appoint the same men who are elected to the Soil Conservation District board as members of the advisory committee of the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District. When the group meets, it is for both districts.

Agreements Signed
Co-operative agreements between the Wind Erosion District and 10 farm operators were approved. They are Curtis Lowe, L. W. Denton, M. B. McGaughey, J. H. Burrell, Higginbotham and Hogan, Fred B. Welch, D. C. Banks, O. L. Jameson, H. L. Kearns and E. H. Kramer.

Those present at the meeting included Luther Lesly, chairman; H. M. Benson, Carl Wimberly and C. F. Rickles, members of the committee; County Agent Hugh Clearman Blue Turpen, who keeps records for the committee and Jim K. Wiman of the Soil Conservation Service.

Moving Safely Requires System

By Vivian Brown

You can even pack your troubles on moving day and go away smiling.

All you need is a system, advises the American Society of Interior Design.

You'll line up barrels, cartons, corrugated board, brown paper and tags in advance, and long before that big day arrives you'll weed out junk and discard it once and for all.

Send to the cleaners rugs, blankets, curtain and clothing that are soiled and arrange to have them delivered to your new home after moving day.

Start Early
Packing should be started a week before you move, according to these experts. They suggest marking each piece of furniture with a special color tag, representing the room the piece comes from. Then the movers will know exactly where the furniture goes when they arrive at the destination.

If chests and desk contents are too heavy, drawers will need to be emptied out into boxes. Otherwise simply seal the drawers with heavy masking tape.

Special Handling
Fragile pieces need special handling. Place about four inches of shredded newspapers in the bottom of a barrel. Wrap china and glass with heavy newspapers or wrapping paper, placing the heaviest objects in the center of the barrel. Plates may be wrapped in groups of four to six, and set on edge around the sides of the barrel. Cups, glasses and stemware should be stuffed, covered with tissue paper and may fill in remaining space. Add additional newspapers for compactness, and mark a big "fragile" sign on top of it.

Mirrors, Pictures
Wrap mirrors and pictures in quilts and blankets and the firmly. Cosmetic jars and perfume bottles may be protected against leakage by sealing corks and stoppers with natural color nail polish, paraffin or tape. Wrap and pack these items in a hamper, along with the contents of the medicine cabinet.

Small rugs may be rolled up inside large ones. Clothing may be put in portable clothes closets supplied by the moving man. At least one suitcase should be packed with personal clothing, tissues, towels, toiletries and nightclothes for each member of the family, so that the first night at the new home will not be a nightmare. Another suitcase may contain personal papers, jewelry and other valuables and this may be carried to the new home by hand.

Three Nations Lead In Sending Students To The United States

Of more than 33,000 foreign students studying in the United States during the 1952-53 school year, more came from Canada, China and Germany than from any other countries. These three nations sent a total of 8,619 students to study in America.

Other nations that sent more than one thousand students were India, Japan, Colombia, Mexico and the Philippines.

According to the "Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students" New York and California led in the number of foreign students enrolled in colleges and universities on a state-by-state basis, followed by Illinois, Pennsylvania and Washington state. New York was host to 6,146 students from other lands; California, 4,442; Illinois, 1,700; Pennsylvania, 1,337; and Washington state 1,072.

Young people travelled from remote parts of the world to study in America. They came from Afghanistan, Australia, Ceylon, Egypt, Ethiopia, Inner Mongolia, Tahiti, Tibet and the Tonga Islands. Out of the total group, nearly 200 were classified as "stateless."

The Committee, which has been serving foreign students for 42 years in a program designed to help the foreign student and the U. S. Community form a mutually advantageous relationship, considers the young visitors "an investment in peace."

THE DODGE WITH MORE THAN EVER BEFORE

More To It — More In It — More Of It

One of the outstanding features of the new 1954 Dodge is "color Harmony." Each of eleven different body colors and a wide variety of two-tone combinations are mated with the completely new interior trim. A new luxurious fabric—known as Jacquard—harmonizes with the instrument panel, steering wheel, deep-pile carpeting, garnish moulding and other trim items. Top of instrument panel features a grainy or leather-like finish to reduce glare. Bottom has smooth finish in same color.

Highlight of the 1954 Dodge line is the new super deluxe series known as the Royal V-8. A completely new interior styling is keyed to harmonize with 11 different body colors and 14 two-tone combinations. The 1954 Dodge line also introduces such engineering advancements as PowerFlite, a new fully-automatic transmission; the economy and endurance tested Red Ram V-7 engine stepped up to 150 H. Long Time Ago

45 years ago

After a most careful construction of a first-class plant, mains and laterals the Hereford Electric Light and Power Company made a trial run Wednesday evening when the "juice" was first turned on. A short run developed a "hot box" or two. The next day the fires were again started and a long trial run was made to train up the machinery.

The company has constructed for Hereford the best plant in the Panhandle. It has a capacity for a city four or five times the present population of Hereford.

Many of the business houses and residences have been wired and meters are being put in. Extensions will be made as rapidly as linemen can put up the work.

A. P. Murchison brought to The Brand office this morning a peculiar vegetable. Mr. Murchison says he planted some cucumbers in his garden. Later on he put a few horned frogs in to eat the insects. To his astonishment when he went to gather the cucumbers he found that they had assumed the shape of the frogs and had as many horns. He says that the resulting "pickle" is a cross between a cucumber and a horned frog.

The new $65,000 Baptist church is slowly but steadily reaching up into the sky, and the people are only now beginning to realize just what a magnificent structure it really will be when completed. It is an immense building of gray brick, with a pleasing architecture and will be a tremendous addition to the city when finished.

Texas Hat Won't Be Replaced By Homburg, Dallas Hatter Says

By Bruce Henderson
Associated Press Staff

Dallas. — "Relax, Texans. Our 'Texas hat' will never be replaced by the Homburg, says a man who's been selling Texans hats 30 years.

W. H. Sandusky, president of the Dallas Retail Hat Men's Assn. (cq), says the "Texas hat"—the familiar, toned-down version of the old 10-gallon—has lost none of its favor to the Homburg.

The Homburg, a soft, felt job with a dented crown first worn in Central Europe, enjoyed a boost in popularity over much of the nation after Dwight Eisenhower chose a Homburg over a traditional top for inauguration last Jan. 20.

Probably few Texans expected Eisenhower to approach the inaugural platform in a Stetson (although it was noted at the time that, after all, he WAS born in Denison.)

Texans Didn't Go For It. Be that as it may, Texans didn't have to join the Homburg bandwagon. And they didn't, says Sandusky.

"Of course, we sell a few more Homburgs than before," he reports. "But just a few. The 'Texas hat' has lost nothing to the Homburg. It's just as popular as ever." Sandusky heads the hat department of a men's store which does a lot of mail order business over the state.

He says Texans will never abandon the range-style hat because it has a personal meaning for them.

Broad Brim Traditional. "It's a tradition. That hat is a descendant of the hat their ancestors wore when they fenced off the ranges. Most Texans are proud to wear it anywhere—even down Broadway."

Sandusky says the old 10-gallon started going out of style about 20 years ago, although a few cowboys still wear it.

"It's hard to say why it went out. It was wide enough to protect a cowboy from the sun and rain. It could hold enough water for a horse to drink if the rider couldn't find a water hole. That's where it got its name, although I doubt that the crown could really hold more than one gallon."

More Standard Now

Sandusky says the present "Texas hat" has a standard 2 7/8 inch brim and a 5 1/2 inch crown. Like its predecessor, it is made of rabbit and beaver fur.

Many sartorial experts, he says, think combining a business suit with a "Texas hat" borders on the ridiculous.

"But I say if that's what they want, let them wear it," Sandusky claims. "A ranch hand wearing a Homburg would look worse."

THISTLES FOR WHEAT?

HERMISTON, Ore. — Thistles are being suggested as a cash farm crop instead of wheat. Dr. Carl Larson of the Umatilla Field Station says the safflower, a member of the thistle family, might do well on Pacific Northwest lands being taken out of wheat production under the new acreage controls program. The suggestion came originally from George Penrose, Union Pacific Railroad agricultural agent at Portland, Ore. He said safflower oil is used in paints because of its high protein content.

Kentucky had 468,000 more births than deaths between 1940 and 1950.

Luncheon Opens Season For Music Study Club

Initial session for the Music Study Club was a luncheon held at the Western Wheel Inn recently.

Decorations for the luncheon tables were in the hands of members of the hospitality and flower committees. Tables were arranged in the shape of a "U", and carried a musical note in black and white. Narrow black ribbons representing the lines of the staff, with black notes, centered the tables' length, and place cards in white represented the treble clef in black. New year books in white and black marked each member's place.

President's Table

At the president's table, a large musical staff was arranged with flowers carrying out the theme of fall season, which marks the beginning of the 1953-54 club year.

Mrs. H. A. Close, president, presided. The invocation was given by Miss Mattie Mae Swisher.

During the luncheon hour, Mrs. C. H. Dillehay of Bonham, a former president of the club, was introduced and three new members, Messrs. G. E. Mullins, S. M. Dunham and Howard Scott, were welcomed. Mrs. A. O. Thompson, who is a member of the state board, was also given recognition.

Secretary Named

A short business session was held during which Mrs. C. J. Mountz was named as secretary of the club to fill a vacancy, and plans for the coming year's work were discussed as new year books were inspected.

Those attending included Messrs. Ed Line, Jeff Gilbreath, C. R. Smith, S. O. Wilson, Cecil Massey, J. R. Allison, J. E. Beyer, Bill Bradley, W. T. Carmichael, Ellis Coombes, B. Y. Crosthwait, C. C. Ferguson, H. K. Fox, Bob Lawrence, J. C. McCracken, C. J. Mountz, J. D. Neill, C. W. Parker, Earl Phillips, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, Glenn Snyder, Steve Clements, W. J. Stanford, R. P. New Subway Transportation Idea Worked Out By Rubber Company

Subway straphangers on Manhattan's Grand Central-Times Square shuttle may be riding on a new type of transportation someday, if engineers at Goodyear Rubber Company have their way.

A working model of a new type of passenger conveyor belt transportation system recently was revealed at an exhibition in New York City.

The 15-foot model is a scale replica of a revolutionary passenger conveyor belt subway shuttle which has been proposed for New York by Goodyear and Stephens-Adamson Manufacturing Company.

Endless Track of Belts
The new shuttle would employ a continuous flow transit system. The plan entails use of moving loading and unloading platforms and small, closely spaced passenger cars riding on an endless track of sturdy conveyor belts made of cotton and rubber.

Passengers at either end of the shuttle would walk directly onto the loading platform, a six-foot wide moving belt. Alongside the loading platform and moving at the same speed is a continuous stream of small passenger cars.

Capacity Increased

Twenty-five cars, each seating ten passengers, pass the loading platform every minute. Capacity may be increased by using larger cars and speeding up the rate of flow.

It is said that capacity of the conveyor belt subway shuttle would be 16,000 persons an hour in each direction, or 32,000 people for the system. This compares with the present shuttle capacity of 23000 passengers per hour. Engineers say the conveyor belt shuttle would be more economical and efficient.

Cotton conveyor belts for years have proved efficient in mass transportation of bulk materials. Cotton holds a big stake in the growing belting industry. Out of the total belting market of approximately 130,000 bales last year, cotton accounted for more than 85,000 bales.

Bath Towels Gaining In Fashion Appeal

Not too long ago bath towels were just plain, ordinary items made to serve a practical need. Not so any longer! Today towels have entered the realm of home fashions and now play a colorful part in the bathroom decorating scheme.

Towels get high-style treatment these days. Inspiration for their designs comes from many sources, just as for fashion fabrics. One new towel recently put on the market has a design inspired by the delicate grid of a tennis racket. Called "racquet club," this design comes in delicate colors of azalea, lilac, and aqua and in tweedy shades of nutmeg and charcoal.

One home decorating expert even suggests the use of colorful towels for bathroom curtains. Just sew rings to one hem of a pair of matching towels, she says, and hang them on an ordinary rod. The towels drape gracefully without pleating and they absorb steam moisture without growing limp. The towel curtains can be washed frequently and require no ironing.

GUMMING THE WORKS
EAST HARTFORD, Conn. (U)—A teenager threw a wad of gum at the side of Clifford Benson's automobile, halted at an intersection for a red light. The impact startled Benson, and his foot slipped off the clutch. The car lurched forward injuring two pedestrians crossing the street.

New Status As Art Form Is Achieved By The Plow

DES MOINES — The humble plow has achieved the status of an art form.

In a farm theme exhibit at the Des Moines Art Center, an ancient nations will be assigned if possible accorded a place of honor.

Students placed the plow in the gallery as a joke. But Dwight Kirsch, center director, decided it belonged. So the plow was mounted on a pedestal for display flanked by 65 paintings of rural scenes by internationally known artists.

LUMBER YARD BURNS -- Black smoke and flames roared over the Groves Lumber Company yard in Oak Cliff Section of Dallas.

Basic Weapon Proves Best For Killing Fox

HADDAM, Conn. (U)—Gaston Schreiber, a World War I army captain with a reputation for marksmanship, took three shots recently at a fox raiding his chicken farm here. He missed each time.

The fox was less fortunate when it returned to Schreiber's farm two days later. Mrs. Schreiber hit it squarely between the eyes with a stone, knocking it cold, and killed it with a club.

Beauty At Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. How should I tweeze unwanted hairs from my eyebrows?

A. For a less painful job, try putting face cream on the area. Just before tweezing, place a hot washcloth over the eyebrows. Grasp one stray hair at a time, close to its root, and pull out in the direction of growth. After tweezing, wipe the area with witch hazel.

Q. What is an easy way to soften and bleach my skin?

A. Try adding some lemon juice to your regular cleansing cream. Keep this in a cool place, so it won't turn rancid. Some women like to keep lemon juice in their hand lotions, too.

Q. How can I treat wrinkles on my forehead?

A. Try this treatment: After a good cream cleansing, massage some more cream gently into this area. For wrinkles across the forehead, smooth the skin upward and outward. For wrinkles that are perpendicular between the eyes, hold the skin smooth and stroke upward and outward.

Q. How can I improve the sheen and gloss in my hair?

A. The gloss of the hair is usually dependent upon regular shampooing and thorough rinsing. But daily brushing preserves the gloss. Choose a brush with long, flexible bristles, set wide apart. Such a brush not only does the best job of brushing, but is easy to clean.

2. Cheese absorbs other flavors, so wrap it in waxed paper, aluminum foil or cellophane before storing it in the refrigerator.

3. Cook cheese at a low temperature, otherwise it becomes stringy and tough.

4. Serve pork or beef liver at least once a week for good nutrition.

HIS PLAN

How often shall I forgive? Peter thought he was generous when he forgave three times, since that is what the Jewish clergy required. But when Jesus said "seventy times seven," it exploded like a bomb-shell. Peter thought God should be proud of him. Seven is 233% of three. But Peter didn't know God; nor do we. Most men cannot believe how far the love of God will go. Seventy times seven means there is no end to God's forgiveness. As often as we sincerely confess, God will fully forgive. Little narrow souls can't realize how generously God forgives. "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors," is a dangerous prayer unless we forgive as Jesus did. He who forgives is victor. Seventy Times Seven, means the best way to "get even" is to forget.

Texans Individualistic Even In Census Report

By Raymond Holbrook
Associated Press Staff

While lacking the zip and zest of a Kinsey report the Census Bureau's 250-page study of population characteristics of Texas turns up some interesting facts on the people called Texans.

And if those 250 pages of detailed tabulations prove nothing else, they show that Texans, even when interpolated and correlated, into cold statistics are individualists that can't be wrapped up into a simple little package marked "Typical Texan."

Some Texans get an early start in life.

Take for instance, heads of households. They may not be old enough to legally drive a car, but in 1950 there were 250 boys and 60 girls between the ages of 10 and 14 who were the heads of their own households.

And they live all over Texas but mostly they are city dwellers. More than half—481,550—live in urban areas, towns and cities of more than half—481,550—live in urban areas towns and cities of more than 2500 population. Another 1,578,635 are rural nonfarm, which means they live in small towns or out in the country but don't do any farming and only 1,289,480 are considered rural farm.

Public school officials already year-old girls there were 25 married, another 25 widowed and another 30 divorced.

That represents a sharp rise in matrimonial ventures over 1940 when there were only 84 married, three widowed and two divorced boys among the 14-year-olds. The 1940 census showed only 331 married 14-year-old girls 12 widowed and five divorced.

Other Texans live a long time. There were 435 Texans 100 years or more in age in the last census. In between were lots of Texans—a total of 7,685,655 in fact—in assorted shapes sizes sexes and colors.

And they live all over Texas but mostly they are city dwellers. More than half—481,550—live in urban areas, towns and cities of more than half—481,550—live in urban areas towns and cities of more than 2500 population. Another 1,578,635 are rural nonfarm, which means they live in small towns or out in the country but don't do any farming and only 1,289,480 are considered rural farm.

Public school officials already know this but the biggest age group in the state are those six years old who are getting ready to start school this fall. Back in 1950 when the census was taken it was the three-year-olds—now the six-year-olds—from the bumper baby crop of the post-war era that constituted the latest single age group—122,435 of them.

The median age of all Texans is 27.9 years. But for urban areas it's 28.1, for the rural nonfarm areas 2.5 and 28.6 for the rural farm.

Dallas folks are the oldest of the big city dwellers with a median age of 31 years. At Fort Worth it's 30, years at Houston 29.3 and in San Antonio 27.2.

The decade 1940-1950 was one of great victory for women in Texas. Trailing in 1940 by a count of 3,193,721 to 3,221,103 they forged ahead, in ten years 3,846,456 to 3,839,200 to become the dominant sex.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I revive raisins and other dried fruits which have become stale and hard?

A. Put them into a strainer and set the strainer with a cover on it over a pot of boiling water for about 15 minutes.

Q. How can I make a good silver polish at home?

A. Buy a little loose prepared chalk from your drugist and make a paste of it by mixing it with ammonia in a small jar. Rub the paste on the silver with a rough cloth, rinse the silver in piping hot water, dry it briskly, and the job is done. Keep the jar of polish tightly covered when not in use; if it dries up just add more ammonia.

Q. How can I remove indelible pencil marks from fabrics?

A. These can often be removed by dipping the cloth in alcohol, then washing the article in soap and water.

Q. How can I get perspiration odor out of men's woolen shirts?

A. Ordinary laundering doesn't always prove successful for this. Try adding a little vinegar to the rinse water.

Q. What can I do about water bugs in my cellar?

A. Phosphorous paste works well. Smear this on slices of stale bread and put them around water pipes. Be sure, however, to keep youngsters and pets away from the phosphorous paste.

Chain Reaction Caused By Just One Flat Tire

GAFFNEY S. C. Ga.—A flat tire on a moving automobile caused this chain reaction here:

The car stopped on the highway.

Another auto stopped behind the one with the flat.

A third car stopped behind the first two vehicles.

A fourth car came along and crashed into No. 3, ramming it into No. 2. Two people were painfully, but not seriously hurt.

A trailer truck stopped to avoid piling on, and a second trailer truck rammed into it.

It took Highway Patrol Cpl. Frank Mastin two hours to get traffic moving again.

In the meantime the flat was fixed.

By Kent Snare

In the interest of space control and I don't mean the outer type, leave us pursue the runup of next Saturday's menage and follow with the hodgepodge at the windup. . . Arkansas at Baylor—Baylor did not exhibit adroitness in webfoot type ball against Miami, however Waco may not be wet this lap.

The Hawks upended the Frogs and their tenure in that direction could continue. . . Abilene Christian at Florida State—A nice trip for the Wildcats, if for no other reason, although they probably won't need one. . . TCU at Michigan State—The Frogs probable were peeking around Fayetteville at the Spartans when they lost that one, or it might have been what they saw that jarred them as well as the Wyatts. . . Texas A&M at Texas Tech—Surprising records up to now, for one and all of these two. 'Course Saturday, Tech will be marking on the SWC, as well as the Cadets, if possible. . . Texas and Oklahoma at Dallas—Hoo Boy and before all those paying type customers, too. Pittsburg may have brought the Okies back to earth after the heights they reached for in grabbing at Notre Dame. Wilkinson said he was going for defensive type linemen over the offensive hue. It showed against the Panthers. Pitt made 19 first downs to 6 by the Sooners and out grounded them 100 yards, net. The passing totals were near even. The Okies held the Pitts three times, when they hardly had room to breathe, but they failed to tally from the 11 and from the 6, where they faced first and the ten. That hasn't happened to the Wilkinsons for many a lap and Mr. W. will bend every footballer at his disposal to forestall a recurrence of such affronts, probable will get it done, also.

Trinity and West Texas at Amarillo Stadium — Mr. Kimbrough had better consult Hardin-Simmons about ways and means, after what the Cowboys had happen to them in San Antonio. . . Hardin Simmons at Rice—This one the Cowboys will anticipate but try to prevent. . . San Diego Navy at North Texas—If none of the Gobs haven't shipped out since their encounter with Tempe, they have the dope on the Dentons, who have only knots and abrasions to show for their last two outings. . . Missouri at SMU—The Bengals have showed their bicuspid to both Purdue and Colorado, although transpired events lead one to believe that neither is tough chewing. The Ponies didn't show much in the guise of scoring teeth but they seared the galligaskins off the Wrecks in Atlanta. Georgia Tech gratified the Woodwards one 2 pointer and had another shoved down their scoreboard and prevailed by that same margin, a scanty pair of pernts.

Wichita at Oklahoma A&M—General Jack will give the Cowpokes a second look at his backfield technique, this time, that of the current species. . . Minnesota at Northwestern—Last week, Giel didn't go, but to restraint is of a different ilk at Evanston. . . California at Pennsylvania—A long trek for the Waldorfs and one that promises to be more pleasant, although Mr. Munger is building up quite a swan song to bequeath the departed from Quaker Alumni. . . Kansas at Colorado—The Buffs still have their altitude and may need it.

Purdue at Duke—Duke has been going good even sans Lutz but the battered Boilermakers may have the hammer back. The Big Ten is still a tough schooling device, football-wise. . . Marquette at Indiana—After what the Hilltoppers did at the Cincinnati and after what the Cincinnati did to William and Mary, after the Indians had tied Navy off the top ledge, maybe Indiana will think the Guepes are back in Milwaukee. . . Kansas State at Iowa State—The K. Staters is after another long string of two in a row. They rang up a biggie, Nebraska, to initiate it and they may be off and running. It has been a long spell since they had won wun in the Big 7, 1949, to be exact, when they took Colorado at 27-13. They took the Huskers 27-0, just to be explicit.

Wisconsin at UCLA—This one should separate the Uclans from the boy category—or from that of the men, according to the view point. . . Georgia at Maryland—After the Cotton Bowl exhibition of Saturday last, I'd say that Bulldog don't eat up the Terrapins in '53. . . Nebraska at Pittsburg—This time it's the Panthers turn to see how much they left with the Okies, probable not that much. The Pitts have a line and a big one, plus a possible quarterback discovery, that Neft is better than a "Model T" Ford, in that spot. . .

Dam On Chinese River Is Reported Complete

HONG KONG — The Chinese Communist news agency says that the Sango dam of the Hwai river project has been completed eliminating the flood threat to hundreds of thousands of acres of land in Kiangsu province.

If it does what the Reds claim, a large section of the nation between the Yellow and Yangtze Rivers will be spared the periodic floods which have ravaged it for 700 years.

Church Membership Reaches New High

Church membership in the U.S., excluding the territories, has reached an all-time high of 92,277,129. Last year's gain, announced by the National Council of the Churches was 3,604,124 or 4.1 percent. Church membership gains for the year were two and a half times population gains.

A new high for the number of local churches was reached: 285,277, as compared to 284,592 for 1951. A new high for the number of clergymen having charges is reported: 183,899, as against 181,123 for 1951. Sunday school enrollments swelled to a total of 32,387,939—a one-year gain of nearly two million. Protestant and Roman Catholic church membership gains were virtually the same, as they have been for years past: 3.9 percent Protestant, 3.5 Roman Catholic.

Latest phenomenal gains accent an upward trend covering the past 50 years. In 1900 36 percent of Americans belonged to a church. In 1910 and 1920, 43 percent. In 1930, 47 percent. In 1940 49 percent. In 1950 57 percent—with two percentage points added since.

Missionary Called Father Of Republic Of Liberia

Liberia has issued a set of stamps honoring an American missionary as the father of the little republic, the Rev. Jehudi Ashmun, missionary from a New England Puritan family, set-out in 1822 from America with a party of freed slaves to help establish a colony in Africa where slaves from North America could live in freedom.

Although Liberia—meaning "land of freedom"—did not solve the world problems of human slavery and only a few thousand of the two million North American slaves were able to emigrate there—the republic became an international years was the only free nation on the African continent.

The former slaves proved capable of solving their problems and governing themselves, so that when he died at the age of 37, President Ashmun of Liberia knew his infant nation was destined to be a success.

The Navy emphasized the date as final. Examinations will not be given at any other time regardless of circumstances.

Successful candidates will participate in four years of college training as Midshipmen USNR, and commissioned as officers in the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation. While in college, Midshipmen's tuition, books and normal fees are paid for by the Navy. In addition Midshipmen are paid $600 a year and provided with the required uniforms.

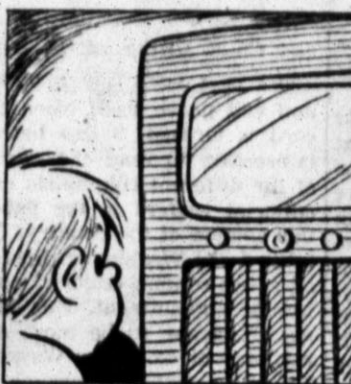

Applications Available
Applications for examinations are available to male U. S. citizens who are high school seniors or graduates, between the ages of 17 and 21. Quotas have been assigned to each state and territory, based on its high school population. Applications may be obtained at any high school college, or Navy Recruiting Station. Completed applications must reach the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, N. J., by November 21, 1953. Those passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations. If qualified their names will be submitted to state and territorial selection committees composed of naval officers and prominent citizens for final selection.

Two Thousand Expected
The Navy expects to enter about 2000 students into the program for the fall term of college, 1954. Those selected by the competitive examination wound in Adair County was within quotas to schools of their choice among universities and colleges which maintain NROTC units.

Between academic years, summer cruises of six to eight weeks are taken in ships of the fleet to provide practical shipboard training. After commissioning, NROTC graduates serve on active duty for three years before applying for retention as career officers.

The "Spanish Main" originally referred to the Spanish colonies on the mainland of South America but the term was extended to include the islands and waters of the Americas which were under Spanish control.

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS SAYS

Warren's Appointment, Sales Tax Are Capitol Topics Now

There are several controversial matters getting quite a bit of attention in Washington at the moment. Probably the two important ones, or that is, the ones receiving the most attention, are the sales tax issue and the recent appointment of Governor Warren to the Supreme Court.

SALES TAX ISSUE: The President, at his recent news conference appeared to be unqualifiedly opposed to a retail sales tax collectible at the retail level. I think the great majority of the Congress is in wholehearted accord with the President's position on this particular matter. However, there is a sharp difference of opinion with regard to the so-called "manufacturers tax." This is actually a sales tax under an assumed name. The only difference is in the method of collection. If a federal retail sales tax, collectible on the retail level, was enforced, it would simply mean that the tax would be collected over and above the advertised price of the product.

In other words, if a loaf of bread sold for twenty cents and a retail sales tax of five percent was in effect, the grocer would sell you the bread for twenty cents and charge you one cent sales tax before he delivered you the bread. If the tax was put on at the manufacturers level, it would simply mean that the government would figure out the tax and charge the baker who produced the loaf of bread so much for each loaf of bread that he sold. This would mean that, instead of the loaf of bread costing you twenty cents at the grocery store and your having to pay an additional one cent extra tax, you would simply pay 21 cents for the loaf of bread and that would be the advertised price for it.

Retail Sales Tax Folly
The truth is that a federal retail sales tax collected at the retail level would be utter folly. The cost of administering and policing such a program would be almost prohibitive. The most practical and the least expensive method of collecting a federal sales tax would be to levy and collect the tax at the source of the product to be taxed. This would not only save millions and millions of dollars in the administration of such a program and in the policing thereof, but it would put a stop to many, many loopholes and practices that could be indulged in by those who wanted to escape or dodge such tax.

The presence of such loopholes in such a program would simply mean that the taxpayers would again get it in the neck insofar as expenses were concerned because many people would be arrested for violation and tax evasion and the costs of trying these cases and in getting them ready for trial would run into the millions. State and municipal retail sales levies must be collected at the retail level, simply because many of the products sold, or we could say, most of them sold, at retail are not manufactured in the state in which they are sold. This would not be true insofar as a federal retail sales tax is concerned, because all of the articles that are sold over the counters in the United States are manufactured here with the exception of those would not create any problem, because all imports are of record anyway and such a tax could be levied and collected from the importers.

I want it definitely understood that I am opposed to a federal retail sales tax, whether it is put on to be collected at the retail level or at the manufacturers' level. The people of Texas have long opposed sales taxes and have been successful in their fight against this type of tax, both in the Texas Legislature and in the several municipalities. Therefore, I will say that I sincerely hope that a sales tax, either under its real or an assumed name, does not pass the Congress. I shall certainly do all in my power to prevent this additional levy being placed on the backs of the American taxpayers, regardless of what it is called.

The Supreme Court Appointment:

Although most of the people here feel that the appointment of Governor Warren of California as the new Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is a very fine appointment and will prove itself when the record is written, it has been very interesting to read the comments of the different columnists and the editorial writers in the papers in this section of the country. On October 1 the Washington Post printed a two-column editorial concerning the appointment. This editorial would appear to be most complimentary of Governor Warren and his appointment. However, there are two sentences in the editorial that struck me as very interesting. I quote you these sentences. "He is a man of sound judgment, with little partisanship in his make-up. His middle of the road political philosophy and his liberal attitude toward civil rights, as indicated by his successful fight to remove the detested loyalty oath required of teachers by the University of California, had a special appeal for Eisenhower."

It had been my sincere hope that the vacancy on the Supreme Court would be filled by the appointment of some outstanding jurist, wholly disconnected with politics, and of which we have many in this country. I have long deplored the appointment of political figures to the Supreme Court. This has been going on for many, many years, in fact, before the turn of the century. The three pillars or branches upon which our government rests are the legislative branch, the executive branch and the judicial branch. The judicial branch in the federal make-up is supposed to be the balance-wheel.

In order to support and fulfill the responsibilities incident to such status, it has always been my philosophy that the judicial branch of the government should be above, beyond and completely apart from the other two branches. I do not criticize any of those who have received appointments to the high courts of this land because they might have been political figures, but it is well to remember that high courts is a lifetime appointment, and the removal of a judge from the bench in almost an impossibility. Governor Warren has

Chinese Industrialists Find Way To Cheat Reds

HONG KONG —Red China's "five anti-campaign" —anti-bribery, anti-tax evasion, anti-cheating, anti-theft of state property and anti theft of state economic intelligence —apparently has failed to make any deep impression on industrialists and merchants.

Tientsin's Ta Kung Pao said in a recent edition reaching Hong Kong that many industrialists and merchants, infatuated with quick profits, have violated the five points by methods "cleverer" than before.

My best wishes for a successful career that will exemplify strict adherence to the Constitution and laws of the United States of America.
