Majority Of Voters Favor Junior College In Trustee Vote Saturday

The largest turnout of voters ever to be recorded here in a school trustee election was tabulated in the school election Saturday when a total of 1046 votes were cast. C. A. Pitts was the election judge and the election was held under the surveillance of two sworn-in supervisors, Mrs. Hall Hardin who observed the voting and Mr. Maurice Risley who observed the entire counting of ballots.

The election was an overwhelming victory for Clarendon Junior College as well as the two trustees, Warren Hardin and F. E. Chamberlain, Jr., who were definitely for the continuation of the college.

The voting line was long throughout the day with many senior citizens leaving their sick bed or wheel chairs to come and cast their ballot.

It is gratifying to all of us to see almost 100 percent of our voting strength put into action. The results, a two to one majority vote, gives everyone a clear picture of what the majority of our residents want. We can say also, there was a vigorous vote of opposition and those folks can be commended for turning out and voting the way they thought best. When people vote in an election such as the one held Saturday, there is no doubt left only the facts, and we feel with such a representative vote as this, we can look forward to bringing about the sincere wishes of the majority.

There were four good men in the trustee race and we can truthfully say that each received very good support. In the final tally F. E. Chamberlain, Jr., led the ticket with 691 votes and was followed closely by Warren Hardin with 689 votes, a total of 1380 votes of confidence and trust. Bill Craft received 353 votes and Lee Palmer 338, a total of 691 votes, slightly less than half the total votes received by Chamberlain and Hardin.

In the voting regarding the Lelia Lake School District, 706 voted for the maintenance tax with 180 against; 975 voted for the assumption of bonds with 169 against.

In the County School Board of Education, returns were incomplete but all candidates were unopposed outside of write-in votes; County trustee at large, J. R. Gillham received 557 votes; G. W. Estlack, precinct 2, received 460 votes and A. G. Alexander, precinct 3, received 22 votes from the Lelia Lake area.

In the local situation regarding the college, a number of those who have been opposed, have already made the statement "If we're going to have a college, let's make it a good one" and we only hope this sentiment will be found among many others. None of us like to live in discord and even though our thinking may not be the same, our friendship can continue in the future without interruption.

The Leader is proud to serve a people who will turn out in strength and voice their opinion through their right to vote.

Easter Cantata To Be Presented At Baptist Church Sunday Evening

The Easter Cantata "For He Is Risen" will be presented Sunday evening, April 14, at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church under the direction of Mr. Lynn Whitten of Amarillo. The program is sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance and the churches it represents and the public is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Mr. Whitten is Director of the Organist Guild and organist and choirmaster at the First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo. His wife will be guest pianist. Mrs. Bill Williams will be at the organ.

Also taking part on the program will be soprano soloist, Mrs. Frank Phelan, Jr.; alto soloist, Mrs. Richard Gilkey; tenor soloist, Philip Abel; and bass soloist, Paul Hancock. There will be a trio composed of Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton, Mrs. H. M. Breedlove, and Mrs. T. M. Caldwell, Jr., and an antiphonal duet with Mrs. Charles Carman and Mrs. Dennis Bradshaw. The High School Chorus under the direction of Willard Edgett and other singers in the area will round out the program.

High School Graduation Site To Be Changed

In a recent class meeting, the Senior Class of CHS decided not to hold commencement exercises in the football stadium as was announced previously. Because of the possibility of rain, it was determined that the program should be held indoors, but the place has not been definitely set yet. Watch your Leader for further announcements.

Word was received from J. R. Gillham that he will be the speaker.

Annual Spring Cemetery Fund Drive Underway

As has been the custom in previous years, the Citizens Cemetery Association is launching its annual spring fund drive to raise money for upkeep of the grounds during the growing season ahead.

We have a beautiful, well kept cemetery and it is through the donations of those who have friends and loved ones resting there. More land was purchased recently in order to care for future needs and this land purchase left the Cemetery Fund at a low level.

You may leave your contributions with Lee Bell at the Farmers State Bank or mail to him or any of the other trustees will be glad to receive your contribution.

Following the death of Walter Taylor who was so faithful to the Cemetery Association for many, many years, two new trustees were named on the board. They are Homer Bones and Chauncey Hommel. Mr. Bell and Odos Caraway are the two other trustees who have been serving the association for a number of years.

Payne And Knorpp Win Golf Tourney

The first Spring Golf Tourney of the year held here Sunday afternoon was acclaimed one of the best to be held. The partnership of John Payne and Walt Knorpp carried off top honors with a combined low total of 70 for the 18 holes. They had a total of 33 on the first nine and 37 on the last.

They were followed in second place by Robert Mills and James Moffett who had a combined total of 74 and the third place winners with a total of 75 were John Stepp and Phil Hart.

A total of 14 teams played in the tourney which was a grand sight to see so many golfers on the course at one time. Each foursome was assigned a certain tee box to start from and the tourney got underway promptly at 1:45 and all play was completed by 5:30.

Alvin Scott, sophomore student at Clarendon Junior College from Quanah, was seriously injured in a one-car auto accident early last Saturday morning six miles east of Childress.

The accident occurred about 5:00 a.m. as Scott was on his way home for the week end. He apparently went to sleep at the wheel and his car crashed into the end of a bridge and went over an embankment. He suffered a broken pelvis, broken nose and broken rib, a puncture of one lung and multiple cuts and bruises. He was taken to the Bethel Hospital in Wichita Falls where he is said to be progressing fairly well at the present time.

POSTMASTER'S CORNER

In an effort to improve the mail service of our patrons, from time to time we will point up and explain certain postal regulations which are meant to facilitate the handling and safeguarding of your mail.

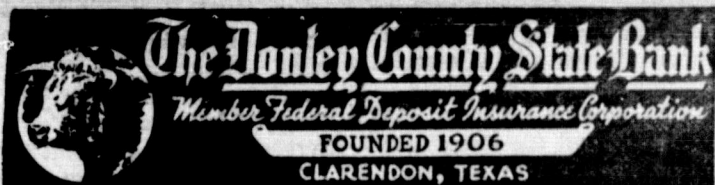

This will probably come as a surprise to everyone. The Postal Department has advised me that we must have an application for all post office boxes on file in our office regardless of how long you have been renting the box. Since no one has ever filled out an application, you can readily see what a terrific job we have ahead of us. The same thing applies to star and rural routes. You will be furnished with an application, Form 1093, and we ask that you return them promptly being particularly careful to note on the form all parties who are to receive mail in this box.

Another misunderstood regulation concerns star and rural routes. The Postal Department requires that all boxes on star and rural routes be erected on the right hand side of the road in the direction of the carrier's travel. For a carrier to cross a lane of oncoming traffic to deliver mail is a violation of the State traffic laws and obviously dangerous. The State exempts no one from violation of the traffic laws, and we have no choice other than to comply immediately.

One of the most common complaints we receive is that of mail being thrown to the wrong box. When the office moved to our present building, it became necessary for a great number of patrons to change their box numbers. With 1,000 boxes and with from one to four families receiving mail in each box, and in most instances no box number or an incorrect box number on the piece of mail which we are attempting delivery, I'm sure you can understand that errors are possible and quite probable. It would greatly speed up delivery and save a lot of confusion if everyone would attempt to ascertain the correct box numbers of their friends and customers and use them when at all possible. We have boxes available for those who are now receiving their mail either in general delivery or in the same box with someone else and would like to have a private box.

The OLD RANCHER

I'M GETTING READY FOR THE NEXT DROUGHT: THE GREAT PLAINS CONSERVATION PROGRAM IS HELPING.

It has been said, "A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT" and again "The Old Rancher" is trying to do his part to the best of his ability to give good sound advice.

The Great Plains Conservation Program is no longer something new. It has been tried, and we might add to this by saying it is successful. Like all programs there are little problems that must be worked out. We can say all the kinks have been worked out and the Program is sound. As of December 31, 1963, Donley County has twelve (12) land owners who completed their contracts in the Great Plains Conservation Program as a result of this if and when the drought comes they will be ready. By being ready we mean they completed the planned treatment for their land through the Great Plains Conservation Program. The GPCP as commonly referred to provides complete treatment for each acre of your land within its capability.

It's worth investigating — a drought can be a costly thing and hard to recover from as most of us know. If properly prepared a land owner need not suffer a permanent loss from a drought. For further information contact one of your local Soil Conservation District supervisors, he can assist you in obtaining help from trained technicians of the Soil Conservation Service.

The Postal Department is a service organization, and we are anxious to render the very best service possible to you, our friends and patrons. We ask your cooperation solely for the purpose of improving our efficiency in handling your mail to your complete satisfaction, and we will not be satisfied with anything short of just that. If you have an unusual mailing problem, let us discuss it with you, and if you will let us, we might even do more than is required of us by Civil Service.

A reel with built-in drag is preferred since it is almost impossible to stop the mad rush of a king by biting down on the reel arbor with your thumb without losing several inches of skin.

Kingfish are found in tremendous numbers along the Texas coast. Usually they put in an appearance in May (Memorial Day normally signals the beginning of the peak kingfish run). And they stick around until early fall.

They are caught near off-shore reefs or alongside offshore oil rigs, or in similar spots where their favorite food is abundant.

It is well to remember that kings run in large schools and where one is caught, usually you'll take several.

Many anglers troll until they pinpoint a school, then they anchor and start casting.

That's when the fun begins. And it's even greater fun using light tackle where the fish really has a sporting chance.

SUPPORTING
INSTITUTIONS

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

—THE YEAR'S FIRST BIG MONEY BILL—

The first major appropriations bill of the Session, the fiscal 1964 appropriation for the Department of Interior, came before the House last week. The Appropriations Committee had done its work well in paring the original departmental requests. As the bill reached the floor for debate, the committee had cut the requested amount by $92 million to $935 million, a total that stood $21 million lower than the sum advocated by the fiscally-conscious U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

That $935 million amount was cut still further. I offered one amendment that pared another $5.5 million from the appropriation. Another Democrat, Rep. Sam Gibbons of Florida, successfully pressed an amendment paring another $1.6 million.

My amendment eliminated from the bill a sum earmarked for remodeling the Old Patent Office Building in downtown Washington for use as a gallery to house valuable portraits and other art works. I noted in presenting the amendment that I hesitated to do so because I might be branded as lacking in cultural appreciation. But I declared that considering the financial pressures on the nation, the building could better be used to house essential government operations. When the vote was tallied, my position prevailed by the close margin of 112 to 106. Mr. Gibbons' amendment, passed by voice vote, eliminated a proposed $1.6 million in architects' fees and planning costs for a National Air Museum to house and display historic aircraft.

Another amendment, one offered by that great Democratic Party conservative from Virginia, Rep. Howard W. Smith (chairman of the House Rules Committee), would have cut another $10 million from Interior's request. It would have eliminated the purchase of what Howard Smith, in his usual good-humored way, described as "marshland for the use of migratory ducks to go back and sit down on and spend the winter." He said, "The ducks have been right patient with us. I wonder if they would be willing to wait a year or two. I do not think it would do the duck hunters much harm." However, despite the efforts of those of us who joined Mr. Smith in advocating patience among ducks and duck hunters, the amendment failed of passage by one vote, by 122 to 121.

I'd like to emphasize this point: All over the United States there are groups that advocate Federal expenditures for favored projects. The budgetary items cited to you above were backed by well-organized groups of Americans — art lovers, airplane enthusiasts, duck conservationists. The art lovers and the fans of old airplanes suffered setbacks; the friends of ducks won their round. You can count on the art and airplane people to be back next year for another try at the Federal treasury. Most Americans, being natural joiners, are members of one group or another that has its eye out for Federal assistance of some kind, and the result is difficult pressure on the Congress.

At any rate, those of us who are working within the majority party to keep spending down did meet with some success last week. Our efforts, I assure you, will continue.

WASHINGTON NOTES

There is the feeling in some quarters that if wheat producers turn down the 1964 Wheat Program in the May 21 referendum Congress will produce another wheat program this year. I am convinced that this will not be the case. I quote from the remarks of the House Majority Leader, Rep. Albert of Oklahoma, who discussed this prospect Monday, April 1, on the House floor: "The 1964 Wheat Program provides wheat growers with clear and unmistakable economic choices in this referendum.... The wheat farmers have a choice under the law, and in my judgment the Congress will take them at their word. I am convinced that there will be no new wheat legislation this year." On the same day, the Majority Leader of the Senate, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, said this: "I see no need to consider new legislation on wheat this year." And the Majority Whip of the Senate, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, said, "It seems to me the prevailing attitude of Congress is if wheat farmers reject the 1964 Wheat Program it is because they prefer the alternative in the law."

I have access to a limited number of copies of the House

Agriculture Committee report issued when it passed the feed grains bill along to the full House. As long as they remain available, I will be glad to send along to anyone who writes for them copies of the committee report on this important agricultural legislation.

The cherry trees are in bloom in Washington, and last week brought the years first major influx of tourists to the Nation's Capital. If you're planning a visit to Washington, please include in your plans a visit to my office in Room 1330, New House Office Building.

BLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

Most folks who are always raising Cane do so because they are not Able to raise anything worthwhile....

Next to the hardest decision in life is when to start being middle age — the toughest decision is when to stop.

We know that many many women over the Panhandle area listen to The Pat Denton Show. We'll admit that we like it too, and listen when around the house at that time. Anyhow, Pat took time off from her busy day to send us a copy of the poem A Bag Of Tools as requested by Mrs. G. L. Lasley of Dalhart, Texas, and as per our request the name of the author. According to Pat it was R. L. Sharpe....

Bless Pat, and Mr. Sharpe.

If you have news items on temperance or intemperance the editor of The National Voice, P.O. Box 95, Norwalk, California, would appreciate your sending them to him. Of all the so-called dry publications in the country we like this one most of all. They not only call a spade a spade, but they also call poison a poison....

One of our favorite programs on TV has been Sam Benedict. We notice that it is going off of the air at the end of this season except for re-runs. Guess we are not a fair sample of humanity.... Our only objection has been the regularity with which Mr. Sam had to have his drink. I don't suppose that had anything to do with his rating as this habit seems to follow most of those on a large number of programs....

It is not always the Blow'ers and Go'ers that accomplish the most in life — often it is the Know'ers and Show'ers....

Usually we think as we do, Because other folks think that way too....

The best way to "Get with it," is to go after it....

Duty makes us do things well, but love makes us do things beautifully.

The main reason no one in Washington wants to cut down on expenses is the fear of also cutting down on votes.

The main trouble with the husband putting his foot down around the house is that he might get it stepped on.

If Junior can have the keys to the car he is willing for father to have the keys to success.

It's pretty easy to bury the hatchet, but awfully hard to forget where we marked the spot.

Often we pray for God to bless other people — likely we would be real upset if He should ask us to help with the job.

A credit card is a good way of putting off 'til tomorrow that which we shouldn't have spent at all....

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

CONSERVATION BENEFITS
What are your acres willing to do for you? Are your acres continually producing to their full capability? Here are some suggestions that will determine what your acres are willing to do for you. The particular kinds of soil on each acre of your farm are top-soil, subsoil, and their varying qualities. The slope of the land affects the amount of water available for plant and animal use and the past use of the land.

Here are three things you can do to help your acres to produce up to their full capabilities. Properly treat the kinds of soil you have on your farm. Control the slopes, and rotate the right crops and livestock to build the necessary organic matter and bacterial action for continuously productive soil.

How do you tell how willing your acres are? How do you know exactly what to do? The first step is to take part in the free soil conservation activities in your area. A field technician will go over your farm with you and discuss your farming preferences and objectives with you. At no time are you obligated to follow all or any part of the plan.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

FORD GALAXIE 500/XL SPORTS HARDTOP

YOU'LL KNOW WHY FORD SWEEP THE FIRST FIVE PLACES AT DAYTONA...WHEN YOUR '63 FORD IS STILL GOING STRONG YEAR AFTER YEAR

Daytona's big, banked oval puts unbelievable stresses and strains on engines, steering gears and frames. The Fords that won at Daytona took all the punishment this famous track could dish out over 500 miles of grueling competition without missing a beat.

In this toughest of all stock car events, mechanical failures claimed over fifty per cent of the starting field. But of twelve Fords entered, nine went the distance. Ford took six of the first ten places.

Five-hundred-mile events like Daytona are a public demonstration of toughness, reliability and sheer engineering excellence that are part of the new generation of Fords. A test like this can't be duplicated on anybody's testing grounds—it's run right out in the open. Any car can enter. But only the car that has the best total combination of strength, balance, precision control and road-clinging suspension can win... that's what we mean by total performance.

Visit your Ford Dealer before you buy any other new car. Here's what you'll find: a new kind of total-car durability, a new kind of handling ability, a suspension that is startlingly smooth yet sticks to the road like tar. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Remember, if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance... total performance!

Then the soil conditions, top and sub-soil, together with the slopes of your fields are accurately plotted on a capability map. Recommendations of ways to get the most out of each acre of your farm, and yet build them up, year after year, are discussed with you.

Soon after putting their plans into effect, most farmers start getting results, increasing productivity and income, and their farms are being constantly improved. The technician will tell you that in most cases, the plan costs nothing, the operating costs are no greater, and it takes no more labor or time. HOME ECONOMIST VISITS HOMEMAKING CLASSES

Mrs. Katherine Ball, Home Economist for West Texas Utilities visited in the Clarendon Homemaking Department on April 2 to explain the Frigidaire range and to demonstrate efficiency of electric cooking. Approximately forty girls enjoyed her lecture.

"You are living in the most wonderful age," she declared. "In your life time this range will be slow in comparison to electronic cooking. Learn to use this range to its capacity though." Among the desirable features were, minute minder (timer), the automatic oven controls, the burner which keeps food warm indefinitely if oven is in use, the burner which boils one cup water in one minute, and the popular pull out oven liner. "Read your manuals," she emphasized. "The majority of service calls on ovens are due to your neglect to turn oven control from off to manual after having used it for automatic cooking. Do not use aluminum foil to line drip pans. There is danger of ruining your element if it should come in direct contact."

Boiled cookies, Parmesan cheese tid-bits and Cokes were served during the discussion periods. These refreshments were compliments of the local West Texas Utility Co., Mr. C. A. Pitts, Mgr. Mr. J. C. Randel, Dist. Manager of the Panhandle District, Childress, Texas, also encourages these school visits. The school buys the first stove on a contract basis, and each year the company replaces the old stove with the current model. All the the homemaking students enjoy the thrill of cooking electrically when it is their week to use an electric stove. —Rep.

LEAFLET ON TORNADOES MADE AVAILABLE

AUSTIN — "If spring comes, can tornadoes be far behind?"

Texasans can appreciate the paraphrase of Shelley's poem. In the past two years, the U.S. Weather Bureau tallied 253 tornadoes and 383 other severe storms which resulted in millions of dollars of property damage, 85 deaths and 668 injuries.

With tornado season soon to be in full swing, the Office of Defense and Disaster Relief of the Texas Department of Public Safety has issued a special leaflet containing safety information for coping with these destructive storms. Titled "Tornado Precautions," the leaflet details procedures to follow when tornadoes threaten, whether in open country, in cities and towns, schools, factories or industrial plants. Knowing a few basic rules of what to do when a tornado is approaching may mean the difference between life and death.

The leaflet also contains descriptive material on occurrence, frequency and weather conditions most apt to produce tornadoes.

Free copies of the special leaflet can be obtained through local civil defense directors and from the Office of Defense and Disaster Relief, Texas Department of Public Safety, in Austin.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

BEEVILLE, TEX., BEE-PIC-AYUNE: "There is much talk, of a tax reduction — a popular proposal, indeed — but how can this be possible if more spending is approved by Congress and we can't even pay for what had already been appropriated? We are deceiving ourselves if we believe we can reduce taxes and spend more. This is an inflationary measure and we are still in an inflationary spiral. If you doubt this last statement, talk to any merchant you may meet. Retail prices on many articles may be going up only a few pennies on some items, but the merchants are having to absorb an increase in wholesale costs from the manufacturers."

ST. JOHNS, ARIZ., INDEPENDENT-NEWS: "We helped Ceylon after it gained its independence, and for that they nationalized the oil industry, largely American owned. They, according to a treaty made a few years ago, were to pay for industries so nationalized. Now they refuse to do so. 'We won't be dictated to,' they tell us."

"Once you've typed on an electric portable, you'll never type on a manual typewriter again!"

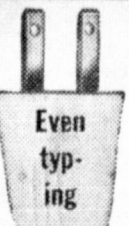

Electricity lets you underline a full row of words just by holding down the key, rat-tat-a-tat, just like that. The same is true for dashes, spaces, dots and the letter "X" for crossing out.

Electricity lets you type as fast as you want even if you're a speed champ. And there's no jumbled letters, no jumpy lines, no uneven spacing.

Electricity does the work for you. There's no pounding the keys. And you can adjust the touch from featherlight to the same as a manual's.

Electricity gives you an expert's even touch on the keys. All letters are typed with the same even blackness... your typing looks perfect.

You adjust a dial and can make up to ten carbon copies. More important, the tenth is just about as clear and readable as the first.

SMITH-CORONA CORONET—Crisp, modern styling. Four decorator colors. Full office keyboard. Choice of many type styles. Lightweight all-steel carrying case. ONLY $10 DOWN.

AUSTIN — Texas' Padre Island National Seashore project is getting closer and closer to reality.

Already approved by Congress, it now is waiting for financing by the U.S. and approval by the State of Texas. Project could become a vast tourist attraction for Texas.

Final version of the bill giving the state's submerged lands in Laguna Madre and the state's approval of the project was worked out in conference committee. It won Senate approval. House endorsement virtually is assured.

This will convert the northern 81 miles of Padre Island into a natural reservation of seashore, to be kept unspoiled for the enjoyment of future generations.

LOANS — One phase of the battle over interest rates has ended. But more rounds likely are to come.

Senate spent two tough days in debate before passing a bill which allows those who lend $1,500 or less to charge more than 10 per cent interest. It does not apply to banks, savings and loan institutions, credit unions and many types of cooperative lending organizations. But it does apply to all finance companies.

Sponsors of the bill wanted to allow more than 10 per cent interest on loans up to $3,000. But the Senate cut it down to $1,500. Rates as high as 464 per cent were permitted on loans as small as $5, under a fixed fee basis of calculating charges on loans under $100.

Further revision in the House, and probably thereafter in conference committee, is expected.

NETS — While one state agency was burning fishing nets, another was advertising for bids to buy some net. So a law change sailed through the Legislature to put a stop to that.

Old law says that when Game & Fish Commission men find an illegal net, confiscate it, advertise for the owner, and when he does not appear to claim it, they burn it.

New law will say that when they get to the burning stage, they can give it to the Marine Research agencies of the University of Texas or Texas A&M.

BILLS KILLED — Legislators appear to have killed some hot proposals.

One is the effort to abolish the state tax on property. Senate voted 23-4 to kill a proposed constitutional amendment to do away with the smallest part of that tax — that which furnishes cash for state office buildings and pensions for old Texas Rangers and Confederate widows.

House killed a bill by Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth to prevent city councils from saying that employees of their cities must live in the cities.

Also, House killed a proposal by Rep. "Red" Berry of San Antonio to allow 18-year-olds to vote. It got a bare majority — 72-71 — but as a constitutional amendment, it needed a two-thirds majority. Berry abandoned his proposal to allow betting on horse races in Bexar County.

Another bill to regulate companies which sell funerals in advance on the easy payment or "lay-away" plan was killed on a point of order.

FASTER SPEEDS — The long talked-about proposal to allow 70 miles an hour speeds on open highways went to Gov. John Connally for signature. Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo was the sponsor.

Proposal sets top speed at 70, but gives State Highway Department the power to reduce that speed limit where it is not safe.

LICENSE FEES — House passed a bill to exempt anhydrous ammonia tanks from the license plate fee if they weigh less than 4,000 pounds and are on wheels. If weight is between 4,000 and 10,000 pounds, license fee will be $5.

Cotton seed trailers were given the same treatment, extending to them the exemption which already applies to stock trailers.

Senate action now is required.

HOME-TOWN TREATMENT — A program aimed to save money and do a better job on treating mental illness went to Governor Connally for signature.

Rep. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso and Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth sponsored the plan. It allows the Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools to contract with local city or county hospitals to treat mentally ill or tuberculars in their home counties.

Authorization of such a program on a statewide basis followed a test at El Paso which proved highly successful from both medical and financial standpoints.

STUDY ORDERED — A group of 25 Texans to be named by Governor Connally will take a long look at the state's system of education beyond the high school. Bill to allow him to appoint such a group went to his desk.

Group will report back to the next Legislature in 1965.

LAND FUSS — A dispute over ownership of 1,812 acres of land in Laguna Madre in Cameron County has resulted in a House resolution by Rep. Eligio (Kika) de la Garza of McAllen.

Resolution now is in a House State Affairs subcommittee. It would allow J. W. Luttes and Shell Oil Company to sue the state and establish title to the Laguna Madre tract.

WATER FOR ALICE — The city of Alice in Jim Wells County proposes to solve its water problem by creating a reservoir to capture water from Chiltipin Creek and by drawing on Lake Corpus Christi for an additional supply.

Project was approved by the Texas Water Commission.

Alice has been depending on wells, but C. R. Marks, engineer for the project, said the wells are no longer sufficient. However, they will be continued in use after the Chiltipin-Lake Corpus Christi program is completed.

SLICK OPERATORS IN LIQUOR — An illicit liquor scheme, being worked along the Texas border in such a way as to escape taxes, is the target of Rep. John E. Blaine of El Paso.

He says his bill — or the committee substitute for it — would mean thousands of additional dollars to state and federal governments.

Bill, which is in a House Liquor Regulation subcommittee, would authorize Liquor Control Board to require a bonded liquor exporter, with a state license fee of $750 per year, and eliminate a "bootlegging" operation along the border, Blaine said.

Operation, which is devious and complex, would be hampered by requiring the Texas-Mexican liquor traffic to move by common carrier.

CANDY BARR — Governor Connally approved recommendation of the Board of Pardons & Paroles to parole Juanita Dale Phillips, known as Candy Barr, who has been serving a prison sentence for narcotics violation.

SHORT, SHORT SHORTS — Governor Connally urged Congress to reject the changes in oil and gas tax laws proposed by President Kennedy.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said he will send an assistant to help in the Jim Wells County grand jury investigation of last November's general election.

Hardin, Jasper, Stonewall and Tyler Counties are among those for whom hospital district laws are being passed under a new constitutional authority. If legislators authorize them, voters in the counties can tax themselves to set up and operate hospitals.

Rep. Charles Wilson of Trinity wants to outlaw professional boxing in Texas, as an aftermath of deaths of fighters.

A Senate committee killed a bill which would have prohibited the state or local units of government from discriminating against anyone because of sex, race, creed, color or national origin. Vote was 12-4.

Flying while intoxicated will be against the law if Governor Connally signs a bill to that effect by Rep. Stanford Smith of San Antonio.

Texans who run crop-dusting services want a state licensing agency, but there is legislative resistance to setting up any new state agencies. Trend this year is to abolish them, not create them.

Higher retirement benefits for teachers will be possible under a bill by Rep. George Hinson of Mineola awaiting the Governor's signature.

Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton, one of the original sponsors of the bill, voted against it on final passage because he felt it had lost its original purpose — improvement of benefits for those who retired when teacher salaries were low.

CLOSED MIDWEEK

April 3rd. Melissa McCully, a sophomore daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike McCully and Melinda Moore, a freshman daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Gilkey, walked off with the first place blue ribbon in the high school senior girls' doubles division. These girls will advance to the regional playoff at Lubbock on Friday, April 19th. These games are scheduled to begin at 11:30 a.m. on Friday, the 19th.

Jerry Elmore and David McBrayer won over Wellington and McLean before they lost to Memphis in the finals to win a second place red ribbon.

Regina Borden won her first match from last year's district champ only to meet Betty Courtney from Wellington to be defeated in the semi-finals and to lose the flip for 3rd place ribbon.

Richard Bell, a sophomore son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Bell, reached the semi-finals by defeating McLean's senior entry to meet Bill Pounds from Memphis, and take the first set 6-4, but dropped the next 2 sets 6-2, 6-3. Due to the way the bracket was drawn up, time would not allow the third place ribbons to be played off. The 3rd place ribbons were decided by a flip of the coin. If we could play a round robin bracket in tennis as we do in basketball and football this would not be necessary and we could get a true 2nd and 3rd place.

Lynn Bourland and Ann Allen won second place in the junior girls' doubles division, after having defeated Wellington entries and losing to Memphis in the finals.

Douglas Bradshaw represented the junior boys singles and Cheryl Fedric was the junior girls' singles entry. Phil Hart and Steve Stewart fought hard in junior doubles, but fell to Wellington after splitting sets with them, 6-2, 2-6 and 6-2.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Clean Tillage On Diverted Acres
Farmers who wish to carry out clean tillage on their diverted acres through the summer and plant a fall seeded crop must sign a request to do so from the county committee.

1964 Wheat Program

The date which has been announced for the 1964 Wheat Referendum is May 21, 1963. We have received our county allotment from the State Office and have begun our work in setting the allotments. You will receive your wheat allotment by the last of April which will give you time to determine how you want to vote prior to referendum time.

Wheat growers will have a choice of two programs for 1964. The first program would limit production of wheat to market and export needs. It would provide price support at an average of $2 per bushel for most wheat marketed. It would offer payments for wheat acreage diverted to conservation use. It would maintain farmers' income from wheat at the average of recent years.

The alternative program would provide no limits on production or marketings, and — only to growers who stay within their allotment — price support at 50% of parity, about $1.20 per bushel. It would result in increased wheat production and a sharp decrease in income for wheat growers.

If a feed grain program is in effect, participating farmers who have produced both wheat and feed grains can swap wheat acres for feed grain acres. This would be a major step toward more flexibility for the farmer in his management of the farm.

Through the program for 1964 and subsequent years, farms which grew wheat under the 15-acre rule will get an allotment based on their average acreage for 1959, 1960 and 1961.

Operators of these farms who register their intention to participate will be eligible to vote in the referendum. If they participate, they will receive marketing certificates and price support just as larger producers do. They will also earn diversion payments. Entire farm allotments, up to a maximum of 15 acres, may be diverted.

Operators of "small allotment" farms who do not wish to participate in the program may — without penalty — plant an acreage of wheat based on their 1959, 1960, and 1961 average wheat acreage but not over 15 acres. These farms will not be eligible for price support, wheat certificates, for land diversion payment or to vote in the referendum.

Dates To Remember
May 1 — Final date to dispose of excess wheat.
May 21 — Wheat Referendum.
