The SDN COLUMN

George Washington, whose birthday Americans celebrate today, 192 years after the Declaration of Independence, probably is better known than any other person who was prominent in early American history. Yet, many events and situations that figured prominently in Washington's career are little known.

For example, it was recently pointed out by some researchers that the war that Washington led (the American Revolution) was not a unanimously popular event among the colonists. At the time that Washington had 8,000 assorted troops at Valley Forge, some historians estimate that at least 9,000 colonists were in the active ranks of one British army that was trying to squelch the revolution.

But Washington was equal to the challenge and his men responded. Consequently, since the successful revolution Americans have been in charge of their own destiny as a nation, although at times it appears that there may be more on the other side than there are battling for the republic.

"They are going to realize that something is going on in town."

That was the conclusion of Bill J. Hood, Snyder School Superintendent when asked what effect the teachers convention here March 7-8 would have on Snyder's routine.

Hood is president of District IV of the Texas State Teachers Association, which will hold its annual convention in Snyder for the first time. Previously, the convention has been held each year mostly in Midland and Odessa, since other towns in the district lack facilities for handling the crowd.

Looking over the membership roll of the district, which extends all the way from Scurry to Loving County, Hood said that attendance could run as high as 4,000 for the general session on the morning of March 8.

The Scurry County Coliseum will be convention headquarters, but many other facilities over the city will be pressed into service for luncheons. Various section groups schedule their own luncheon meetings each year at the convention. Usually, it bcomes necessary, even in larger cities, to use dining facilities of country clubs, churches, schools, etc., as well as public eating establishments. It will be the same here this year.

Excepting a few football games, the teachers convention will be the biggest gathering of people ever to assemble in Snyder for anything.

"The townspeople are going to know that something is going on, because there will be a lot of traffic and local cafes are likely to be crowded during the noon hour," Hood declared. —WACIL McNAIR.

Today In History

Today is Thursday, Feb. 22, the 53rd day of 1968. There are 313 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1732, George Washington was born at his parents' plantation near Fredericksburg, Va.

On this date —

In 1810, the Polish composer, Frederic Chopin, was born.

In 1879, F. W. Woolworth opened his first "five cent store" in Utica, N. Y. It was not a success, and in the following one he moved the store to Lancaster, Pa.

In 1889, Dakota was divided into North Dakota and South Dakota.

In 1943, an airliner carrying American show business people to Europe to entertain troops crashed into the Tagus River at Lisbon, Portugal. Twenty - four persons were killed. Singer Jane Froman was among the survivers.

In 1945, also during World War II, the U. S. 3rd Army crossed the Saar River south of Saarburg, Germany.

Ten years ago — Arturo Fendizi was elected president of Argentina in that nations' first free election in 30 years.

Five years ago — An earthquake in Libya killed at least 260 persons.

House Committee Urges Viet Military Escalation

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid indications White House talks between U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and President John. n produced no new moves toward peace talks, a House panel has urged stepped-up U.S. military action in Vietnam.

Chairman Porter Hardy Jr. of a House Armed Services subcommittee told newsmen Wednesday the panel believes: "The enemy cannot be defeatd within any acceptable time frame so long as we continue to fight a primarily defensive war.

"Our slow rate of military progress has encouraged North Vietnam to reject our efforts to bring about peace negotiations."

The panel's news conference came several hours after Thant wound up a brief Washington visit in which he reported to Johnson on his recent peace-probe journey to India, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

Thant had talked with leaders of the four countries and with North Vietnamese diplomats in New Delhi and Paris. His findings reportedly were not encouraging.

Johnson gave red-carpet treatment to his U.N. visitor, who said their one-hour talk had been useful.

Afterwards, Thant lunched with Secretary Dean Rusk and other high U.S. officials at the State Department before flying back to New York.

A White House statement said Johnson had reaffirmed to Thant "our continuing desire to achieve a peaceful settlement and the continued validity of the San Antonio formula."

The basic U.S. peace talks offer voiced by the President in a San Antonio, Tex., speech last September is to stop bombing North Vietnam provided Hanoi promptly enters into productive negotiations and does not take military advantage of the bombing halt.

Hanoi has continued to call for an unconditional end to the U.S. air attacks.

Hardy a Virginia Democrat, said his subcommittee feels that the United States must cut off the enemy's supply routes into South Vietnam and:

"If necessary to achieve this end, all routes, whether by land, sea or air, should be closed or destroyed'.'

Saying the subcommittee's military conclusions represent a summation of testimony given it by military leaders, Hardy said the panel "would like the civilians in the Defense Department to pay more attention to the advice from the military."

Harold Brown, secretary of the Air Force, meanwhile urged continued bombing of enemy targets in North and South Vietnam. He appeared before a closed session of the Senate Armed Services Committee to ask for $29 billion to maintain and expand the Air Force. Parts of his testimony were later made public.

Jets Attack New Targets

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes for the first time in the war attacked the Hanoi radio station that beams out all Communist propaganda from North Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today. But monitors said Radio Hanoi was still on the air.

The strike Wednesday against the station, which military spokesmen said has the most powerful transmitter in Southeast Asia, coincided with these other developments indicating a sharp escalation in both the ground and air wars:

—Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs attacked another target for the first time, a sprawling military storage area 41 miles southwest of Hanoi.

—The number of Americans killed in combat jumped to a record high for the war last week, 543, and there were 2,547 wounded, 210 less than the record. It was a week of hard fighting in the Viet Cong's lunar new year offensive against South Vietnam's population centers.

—Official U.S. sources disclosed that a new Communist rocket, designed and manufactured by the Chinese without any foreign help, has been used in the war for the first time.

—The same sources said elements of two Communist divisions are still menacing Saigon, and some enemy forces are poised within six miles of the capital city of nearly three million people. The sources also disclosed that intelligence had detected heavy shipments of Communist arms coming in from Cambodia.

—With U.S. Marine jets bombing in front of them in a priority effort to end the 23-day battle for Hue, Marine infantrymen pushed 150 yards through the fortressed Citadel and seized all of their assigned sector of the south wall.

The Marines drove to within about 50 yards of the historic inner palace grounds. There they came under heavy fire from the inner Citadel, once the ornate home of 19th century Vietnamese emperors and now the command post for the Communist holdouts. The Marines raised an American flag on the south wall facing the Perfume River.

U.S. sources also disclosed that the North Vietnamese 324B Division had moved across the demilitarized zone to the area of Quang Tri City, key provincial capital 34 miles north of Hue. About 50,000 Communist troops were reported to be in or just on the fringes of South Vietnam's two northernmost provinces—Quang Tri and Thua Thien.

The attack on the Hanoi radio station apparently was intended as a blow against Communist propganda claims of great victories in the South and of shooting down more than 2,000 U.S. warplanes in the three-year bombing campaign against the North. The I.S. Command has accused Radio Hanoi of gross exaggeration and distortion.

Rap Brown Is Back In Jail

By BILL CRIDER
Associated Press Writer

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Black Power advocate H. Rap Brown was in jail today as his lawyer drafted a defense on a new charge and tried to raise $100,000 bond.

Attorney William Kuntsler of New York hoped to get the bond reduced at the preliminary hearing, the next legal step facing the militant Negro leader.

The new charge was imposed on Brown, a spokesman for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, after he lost a legal argument in federal court about a court order limiting his travel.

The FBI said Brown, during a recess, told FBI Agent William H. Smith Jr., also a Negro, that: "We will get you . . . We better not find out where you live, and if you have any children we will get them, too."

When Brown walked out of the courtroom Wednesday, vowing to go on a hunger strike in jail, the FBI hustled him to a U.S. commissioner's office to hear the charge of intimidating and impeding an FBI agent.

Commissioner Fritz H. Windhorst fixed bond at $50,000.

In federal court, a few minutes earlier, Brown's bond on another charge—violation of a federal firearms law—had been reset at $50,000 and he had been ordered to forfeit $5,000 of his old $15,000 bond.

Judge Lansing Mitchell ordered the forfeit as punishment for violation of his order that Brown confine his travel to Louisiana, New York and Atlanta, Ga., pending trial.

Brown turned up at recent Black Power rallies in Los Angeles and Oakland, Calif. He was then arrested on a Louisiana warrant Tuesday at a friend's apartment in New York City.

"This is being done for only one reason: to silence this man," argued Kunstler. "This is naked rape of the First Amendment (Guaranteeing free speech)."

The firearms charge against Brown said he violated the law by carrying a gun around while under federal indictment.

Specifically, the charge was that he took a .30-caliber rifle from New York to New Orleans and back while under indictment at Cambridge, Md., on charges of arson and inciting riots.

Changes To Delay Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — Technical problems reportedly will keep the nation's proposed supersonic transport plane grounded until at least 1972.

Government sources said Wednesday that recent design changes authorized to improve the performance of the 1,800-mile-an-hour SST have delayed its development by about a year.

The Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash., refused comment on reports about the plane it is developing with the help of federal subsidies. The White House referred questions to the Federal Aviation Administration, which in turn referred them to the White House.

There have been calls on Capitol Hill for cutbacks in spending on the SST project, especially in view of mounting Vietnam war costs and federal budget deficits. Sources said the delay could sharply reduce the $223 million the administration has earmarked for the SST in the next fiscal year.

Scott Lucas Dies Today

ROCKY MOUNT, N.C. (AP) — Scott W. Lucas, Senate Democratic leader until his 1950 defeat by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen in Illinois, died early today following a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 76.

Once mentioned as a possible running mate for President Harry S. Truman, Lucas generally supported New Deal and Fair Deal legislation during his 14 years in Congress that included two terms in the House.

Lucas was admitted to Park View Hospital here late Wednesday after suffering the stroke on a Florida-bound train. Dr. Rufus Ratchford of the hospital staff said he died at 5:50 a.m.

Gets Transfer To Beaumont DPS

BEAUMONT (AP)— Lt. Ira W. Dees has transferred to Beaumont from El Paso as second in command of the Beaumont District of the Department of Public Safety.

Dees, a native of Kyle, joined the Department in 1957 and was stationed in San Antonio before going to El Paso.

Athey Rites At Hermleigh

A former Hermleigh resident, Bertie Inez Athey, 49, died at 5 p.m. Wednesday in Wichita Falls.

Miss Athey was born July 1, 1918, in the Bronte community, and was proprieter of Bertie's Cafe in Hermleigh from 1954 to 1960. She had resided in Wichita Falls for the past five years.

Funeral services are slated for 2 p.m. Saturday at the First Baptist Church in Hermleigh with the pastor, Rev. Bob Creswell, officiating. Burial will be in Hermleigh Cemetery under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Miss Athey is survived by three sisters: Mrs. Era Boucher, Grayford; Mrs. W. L. Best, Cortez, Colo.; Mrs. R. R. Phillips, Blackwell; two brothers, John Athey, Odessa, and Jake Athey; six nieces and six nephews.

Ambulance Calls For Gov. Lurleen Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace, who has been under treatment for a possible new recurrence of cancer, was taken to a hospital by ambulance early today.

Aides said a statement on the condition of the 41-year-old governor would be issued later in the day after her doctors completed their examination.

LBJ Sets Goal In Home Building

AUSTIN (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to "set a far reaching goal" to build 26 million new homes and apartments during the next 10 years.

This was the dramatic center piece of Johnson's longest special message to Congress this year, labeled "The Crisis of the Cities."

Johnson said the housing and urban development act he seeks would, among other things, replace six million "shameful substandard units of misery where more than 20 million Americans still live."

In the first five years of the program, Johnson said he wants $2.34 billion of contracting authority to build or rehabilitate nearly 2.5 million housing units.

Some other key points in the cities program were proposals to:

—Authorize adjustment of FHA interest rate ceilings "to reflect the economic realities of the financial markets." Similar to a recent administration call for flexible VA home loan interest the upshot would be to raise the FHA rates in this period of tight money.

—Establish a cooperative federal-state industry program to reinsure property insurance policies in high-risk city areas—notably those that might be targets of urban rioting—by chartering a national insurance development corporation within the department of housing and urban development.

—Permit insurance companies to defer taxes to the extent that they participate in the plan to provide property insurance in the high risk areas.

Johnson's blueprint was a longrange one, calling for only relatively modest increases in federal outlays during the first year.

"No single statement or message," he said, "can embrace the solutions to the city's problems. No single program can attack them."

He said that despite his 10-year goal, "no one can say how long it will take, or how much of our fortune will eventually be committed."

The cities package included a new appeal for the administration's stalled request for a 10 per cent income tax increase and a recommendation that Congress appropriate $2.18 billion in the coming year for the anti-poverty program, compared with the current year appropriation of $1.77 billion.

GULF OF TONKIN INCIDENT

Fulbright Says Solons Were Misled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright says the administration misled Congress and is deceiving the public about the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident, which generated U.S. military escalation in Vietnam.

He also charged Wednesday that the Pentagon hauled off for mental examination a Navy commander who had volunteered to tell Congress what he knew of the incident.

Fulbright accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara of deceiving the public in releasing a 21-page statement the defense chief presented Tuesday to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Fullbright told newsmen he does not subscribe to a position he attributed to one-time McNamara aide Arthur Sylvester, whom he quoted as saying "the government has the right to lie to the people of this country."

The Arkansas Democrat's charges came after the committee, which he heads, refused his request to make public staff findings on the Gulf of Tonkin incident.

Fulbright told newsmen after Wednesday's committee meeting he felt the staff report was necessary to counter-balance what he termed the one-sided McNamara statement.

At issue is the August 1964 incident in which the administration said two U.S. destroyers, the Maddox and Turner Joy, were attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The incident produced the so-called Tonkin Gulf resolution in which the Senate, by an overwhelming vote, called on President Johnson to take all steps necessary to "prevent further aggression."

The first U.S. bombing attacks on North Vietnam—and a sharp escalation of U.S. military forces commited to the war—quickly followed.

Fulbright, who was floor manager for the administration-requested resolution, has since strongly opposed U.S. policy in Vietnam and contends Congress was given inadequate information about the Tonkin Gulf incident.

His committee initiated a staff study of the naval engagement and reportedly found evidence conflicting with the administration's version of what happened.

Fulbright said the Pentagon was guilty of "greatly intimidating" the naval officer—he did not name him—by requiring him to undergo a psychiatric examination last summer the day after he called on the committee to volunteer information.

He did not identify the officer, who reportedly is now stationed in New York State. He said the Pentagon found the officer sane. But, Fulbright added, when he took up this matter with McNamara Tuesday, the defense chief replied he had never heard of it.

"They only hear what they want to hear," Fulbright said.

Cuba Frees US Airliner

MIAMI Fla. (AP) — A gunman wearing a white cowboy hat and tennis shoes pushed a stewardess into the cockpit of a DC8 jet over Florida Wednesday and held a pistol under her ear until the pilot detoured his craft and 109 persons to a landing in Cuba.

About five hours after the hijacking, Delta Air Line Flight 843 returned to Miami, leaving behind in Havana a young man who gave his name to the airline as "S. Wilson."

Havana Radio today identified him as a 29-year-old former St. Petersburg man with a name that sounded like Laurenzo Roberts. The broadcast monitored in Miami said the man asked for political asylum and that the Cuban government took the request under consideration.

The man boarded the Chicago-Miami flight with 64 other persons at Tampa. Other passengers said he had been drinking heavily at the airport bar.

Delta officials said he bought a $21 first class ticket at 12:44 p.m. Wednesday in the airline's downtown Tampa ticket office. It was a one-way ticket to Miami.

"He told us he didn't care who he killed or how badly he shot up the plane," said Joy Bleil, 28, of Elmwood Park, Ill. Mrs. Bleil, the senior stewardess, was held in the cockpit as a hostage until the giant, $8 million airliner was escorted into Cuba by four MIG fighters and touched down at Jose Marti airport.

"He said he was facing a death sentence for the hijacking anyway," said the pert brunette in a news conference by the crew at Miami International Airport.

In Havana earlier, speaking with an Associated Press newsman, Mrs. Bleil said, "I don't know why he did this, but I can still feel that cold thing (the pistol) below my ear."

The pilot, J. D. Gainey, 49, said the crew made no attempt to overpower the hijacker.

"The man was all wrought up," Gainey said.

He was described as about 25, dressed in a sloppy manner, dark complexioned and claiming to be South American although he spoke with no apparent accent.

At 3:37 p.m. seven minutes after the jet took off from Tampa airport with 102 passengers and a crew of seven, the flight was hijacked over Florida's Lake Okeechobee. The plane landed at Havana at 4:29 p.m. It took off again for the United States at 7:36 p.m. and arrived at Miami at 8:17 p.m.

This was the first commercial airliner hijacked over the United States to land in Cuba. In 1961, a Pan American flight was diverted over Mexico to Cuba. Two National Airlines flights were hijacked in flight but passengers and crew disarmed the hijackers and the planes landed in the United States. Many small planes have been successfully hijacked to Cuba.

Passengers said they were treated well during the airport stopover in Havana. Some were interviewed and photographed by Cuban newsmen, they said. Others brought back souvenirs including Cuban rum, some of which was consumed on the return flight, and political posters.

"They gave us Cuban coffee and juice and permitted us to go through the airport," said Lex Hawkins, 42, a lawyer from Des Moines, Iowa.

Soldiers at the airport passed around Cuban cigars.

"We were given orange juice, lemonade, cigarettes and propaganda," said Don Bedwell, aviation writer for the Miami Herald, who was a passenger.

Among other passengers was professional golfer Barbara Romack, Sacramento, Calif., who was listed among PGA money winners in 1967.

Two U.S. Air Force F104 Interceptor jets were scrambled from Homestead Air Force base when the hijack was reported. The planes, armed with Sidewinder air-to-air missiles, made no attempt to force the plane down or to turn it about.

The U.S. planes turned back near the Cuban defense lines, but the plane was tracked by American radar as it decended over Cuba.

Bedwell said a crew of uniformed militiamen carrying automatic weapons boarded the plane and a Cuban officer said in English that passengers should not be nervous.

The soldiers brought the hijacker out of the cockpit.

"As they took him off, he wasn't getting roughed around," said a passenger, Jack Estabrooke of Lake Oswego, Ore. The 210-pound Estabrook added, "and it was a damn good thing we didn't get our hands on him or he would have gotten roughed around."

SP. 4 MICHAEL TARPLEY

Sp. 4 Tarpley Is Wounded In Vietnam

Word has been received that Sp. 4 Michael Tarpley has been wounded in Vietnam while serving as a member of Co. B, 2nd Bn., 506th Airborne Inf., 101st Airborne Div.

He was hit when a grenade exploded near the Cambodian border. Sp. 4 Tarpley sustained a split top lip, had four teeth knocked out and required 30 stitches to repair abrasions.

"I'm real lucky," he said. "By all rights I should be dead because the grenade exploded about 15 feet from me."

Sp. 4 Tarpley has been awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star.

He attended Snyder High School, but his parents have since moved to Big Spring. However, his wife, the former Linda Gayle Payne, now resides at 3005 Forty - first Street in Snyder.

He enlisted in the Army with SFC Joe Welch, local recruiter, here on Dec. 6, 1966 and chose Airborne as an enlistment option.

Jury Finds Mishap Was Unavoidable

A car - truck collision which occurred April 23, 1964, on the U. S. 84 bypass at Huffman Street was ruled an unavoidable accident in a jury decision in a civil case in District Court here.

Plaintiff in the action is S. M. McCann. Defendants are J. H. Strain & Sons, Inc. and David Lee Snyder. The suit stemmed from the collision, which resulted in injuries to Snyder.

A Scurry County jury which heard the case ruled the accident resulted from an unavoidable collision and that the absence of warning signs was the sole proximate cause of the accident.

Judge Sterling Williams, presiding judge of the 132nd district court, accepted the findings of the jury and ruled that plaintiff take nothing as a result of the suit.

The collision involved Snyder and Nina A. McCann. Argonaut Insurance Co. acted as intervenor in the suit. Intervenor also was refused judgment.

The jury also ruled that Snyder failed to yield the right of way, but stated that such failure did not constitute negligence.

The mishap occurred while the road was under construction.

Reds Dig In Near Khe Sanh

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

KHE SANH, Vietnam (AP) — The 40,000 North Vietnamese troops surrounding the Khe Sanh combat base have closed their siege ring so tightly that neither withdrawal nor reinforcement of the U.S. Marine garrison could be carried out except at a cost of heavy casualties, Marine officers at Khe Sanh believe.

Under the cover of several days of heavy fog, the Communist troops have established bunkers and trench positions within 300 yards of Marine positions.

Snipers are close enough to fire on Marines planting mines and strengthening barbed wire defenses around the two-mile-square combat base 14 miles south of the demilitarized zone.

It appears that the battle for Khe Sanh, expected to be the biggest of the war, is still some days and possibly weeks away. A veteran Vietnamese battalion commander whose troops hold part of the eastern perimeter said he believed the North Vietnamese would continue to dig bunkers and tunnels and reposition supplies for some weeks to come.

He said history had proved North Vietnamese commanders expend massive effort to prepare battlefields so they will have the maximum advantage tactically and enjoy the maximum protection from air and artillery strikes.

North Vietnamese tanks have been reported in Khe Sanh village less than two miles from the Marine perimeter around the base's air strip. Two weeks ago, North Vietnamese tanks spearheaded the assault which overran the Lang Vei Special Forces Camp four miles west of Khe Sanh.

It is not known how many tanks the North Vietnamese have in the Khe Sanh area, but the number is assumed to be considerable.

Despite one of the largest aerial campaigns in history to cut the North Vietnamese supply routes, the Communists' trucks have made it as far as Khe Sanh village with supplies.

Senior Marine officers remain confident that they can beat back any North Vietnamese attack. But they concede that any defensive positions can be overrun if the opposing commander is willing to commit enough troops.

Some Marine officers are concerned about the strictly defensive, "let them come to us" role assigned to the 5,000 Leathernecks and 500 Vietnamese troops defending the Khe Sanh complex.

One Marine officer said the North Vietnamese high command is being allowed to set up the chessboard with the knowledge that the Communist troops will have the first move when the battle is joined.

One officer, asked how he felt about being cooped up behind barbed wire, replied: "I've got a fever. It's what Gen. Rommel called panzer fever." Many other Leathernecks here felt the same way the commander of Germany's Afrika Korps did: They want reinforcements so they can move out to attack their besiegers.

Some Marine officers fear the opportunity to reinforce Khe Sanh and return the Marines to an offensive role has passed.

Any force coming into the base by helicopter would suffer heavy casualties from the artillery and machine-gun fire that zeroes in on the landing strip.

A helicopter assault outside the perimeter also would be extremely risky because the North Vietnamese hold key hill positions that could rake landing zones with heavy fire.

Virtually all resupply at Khe Sanh is done by airdrop.

Marine officers also say retreat or withdrawal from Khe Sanh is almost unthinkable. The Leathernecks say the closeness and number of North Vietnamese artillery and mortars dooms any attempt to evacuate Khe Sanh by air. They say a fighting withdrawal toward the coastal lowlands 20 miles to the east would almost certainly run into massive ambushes. The twisting narrow road the Marines would have to use is almost perfect for enemy ambush.

GETS DEGREE—David Kent Sterling received the BBA degree in marketing at the University of Houston recently. A 1963 graduate of Ira High school, he attended Texas Tech three years before moving to Houston. He is employed by Internal Revenue Service as a tax assistor, but plans to enter Army Officers Candidate School in April. Bench Boy Gets Hot

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Rayl shot his way back into Indiana's starting line-up, but the celebration he held after he got there received better results.

Rayl, out of the starting line-up for a month, came off the bench Monday night and scored 30 points, not enough to keep the Pacers from losing to Kentucky.

But Wednesday, as a starter, he pumped in 33 markers, his prn high, and played a sharp floor game that carried the Pacers to a 123-110 victory over Denver at Indianapolis.

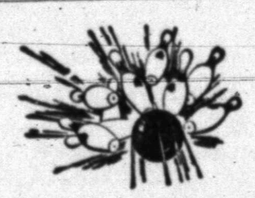

In the other scheduled American Basketball Association game, Dallas fought off Houston for a 122-119 road victory.

Rayl got plenty of help from Bob Netolicky and Fred Lewis, who scored 26 and 21 points respectively as Indiana built a 60-47 halftime spread. The Rockets never got closer than nine in the last half.

Grant Simmons and Larry Jones each had 23 points for Denver, which dropped five games back of New Orleans and 1½ behind Dallas in the Western Division.

The Pacers climbed within a half-game of third place in the East.

Hagan totaled 24 points and John Beasley 28. Willie Somerset had 37 and Wilbert Frazier 27 for Houston.

Absentee Soldier Is Acquitted

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (AP) — A Texas soldier who awaited orders for 13 months at his home a few miles from this sprawling Army base has been acquitted of being absent without leave.

It took the courtmartial board less than an hour Tuesday to find Pfc. Charles W. Coffman, 23, of Jacksboro, Tex., innocent.

Coffman, who had been in the Army 10 months, was transferred Nov. 7, 1966, from one engineer unit bound from here to Vietnam to another just being formed. He said when he reported at the personnel section of his new unit he was told his records hadn't arrived and he should check back later.

Coffman testified that he checked three or four times a week for about three months, then gave up and just telephoned. That continued until he was arrested Dec. 27 by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for desertion. His records finally arrived last November.

Coffman and his wife Linda lived on her $92.20-a-month allotment check and the money he received from odd jobs. Mrs. Coffman said they didn't know he was considered AWOL until they got a letter from his parents in Texas saying the FBI was looking for him.

Army officials haven't decided whether he will have to make up the time he was "missing" or if he is entitled to some $1,170 in back pay.

Selection Of Jury To Be Resumed

BEAUMONT (AP) — Selection of a jury was to be resumed today in the murder trial of Walter Lee Tyler of Galena Park.

Eight jurors — seven men and one woman—had been selected when court recessed Wednesday and attorneys said they expected to pick four more today.

Tyler is charged with murder in the Aug. 3 shooting death of a Port Arthur policeman, patrolman Paul Emerson. The slaying occurred when Emerson and a fellow officer attempted to arrest a burglar suspect.

Officers Destroy Patch Of Marijuana

WESLACO, Tex. (AP) — An estimated $250 worth of marijuana found growing in a apparently cultivated "patch" was destroyed Wednesday, said police Chief Harold George.

George said the patch was found in a residential section by sanitation Superintendent Oscar Garcia and was destroyed after police were unable to catch the owner "harvesting" his illegal crop.

Officers said the marijuana was growing in an apparent pattern and had been cut recently.

Laredo Employers Adhere To Wage Law

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — The acting director of Laredo's city minimum wage law says that employers apparently are complying with the three-week old ordinance.

Frank Maher, the acting director, said that so far he has received only one official complaint from an employe.

"It is my belief that we are getting tremendous compliance, otherwise we would be getting repercussions," he said.

The ordinance sets the minimum hourly wage at 85 cents, covering employers not under the federal wage law.

Laredo is the third city in Texas to adopt such a law. The others are Mathis and San Antonio.

Jim Bunning twice led the American League pitchers in strikeouts as a member of the Detroit Tigers. Last year as a Phillie he paced the National Leaguers with 253 strike-outs.

Americanism Program Heard At Altrurian Club Meeting

The Altrurian Club observed Americanism Day at a recent meeting at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. Mrs. R. H. Odom was hostess to 14 members and four guests, Mrs. Bonnie Moore, Mrs. Lida Rhoades, Mr. Gene Merrifield and Mrs. Lila Caruthers of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Ross Blanchard, president, conducted the business session at which time the members of the club voted to join with the Art Guild in endorsing the candidacy of Mrs. Lida Rhoades for the office of third vice president, Mesquite District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mmes. J. W. Leftwich and Roland Irving were directors of the program of the day.

Mrs. Leftwich introduced Mr. Merrifield, manager of Chamber of Commerce and pianist, who presented a group of patriotic songs. He spoke of this music as being significant in the development of American culture. The selections were: "Faith Of Our Fathers," "Battle Hymn Of The Republic," "Yankee Doodle," "Marching Through Georgia," "Dixie," "America The Beautiful" and "God Bless America."

The second part of the Americanism program was a talk "Freedom Strategy" given by Mrs. Rhoades. She said that freedom means many things to many people, but to those of us who have been fortunate enough to enjoy the liberties of this blessed land, it means defending to the death the rights of religions and political justice — to stand boldly before the tides of ill conceived measures which would sweep away God-given rights. "Only respect for law such as we find crystallized in the Constitution of the United States, and the Magna Carta, stands between political freedom and despotism."

Mrs. Rhoades pointed out that our forefathers came to a land of natural wealth vitually unprecedented in human history. Sturdy and courageous people they were, they could not have survived had it not been for the boundless forests, the rivers teeming with fish, the rich soil; proper climate and their unflinching courage, and their rigid endurance. Now the supreme tests come as to whether those things which are ours, this freedom which is ours, can be preserved for ourselves and our children.

"In the time of transition of values, the home and church and school bear the responsibility of training the youth. Today in the struggle for the minds of young men and women, America is especially opposed by two deadly enemies — Godless communism and crime. America's heritage of freedom of speech and religion, stands as a major barrier against these enemies. The false philosophy of communism will never be able to stand up to the ideals of wisdom, temperance, courage, justice, spiritual and moral integrity — if the individual citizen can be made aware of the issues. The historieal cycles of the body indicates that man progresses from bondage to spiritual faith — from spiritual faith to courage — from courage to freedom — from freedom to abundance, and then comes the warning, from abundance to selfishness — from selfishness to apathy — from apathy to dependence — from dependence back into bondage again. It does not require the talent of the highly political scientist to show us where we are in this cycle. It only requires a little serious thinking on the part of any reasonably intelligent citizen.

"May we dedicate ourselves to perpetuating this freedom which is ours."

Note In Bottle Delivered— Half Century Late

MELBOURNE (AP) — Cpl. Martin James Young was headed for France in 1916 to fight in World War I when he decided to send a message to his girlfriend in Australia.

So he wrote Kate Harris sending "fond love," and put it in a bottle and threw it from the troopship into the Indian Ocean.

A few weeks ago the bottle and the note, stained and fading, were found on a beach near Perth, Western Australia.

The note was delivered to the girl for whom it was intended, now a 78-year-old grandmother. The sender, she said, died 10 years ago.

Kate Harris, today Mrs. Catherine Rollason, recalled when handed the note:

"He was always a bit of a cheeky devil.

"We used to go to the silent pictures and dances together.

"But I got engaged to another man, a truly good man, who was killed in France. Mart was wounded and then he married an English girl."

Snowtop Cake

2 cups sifted regular flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
1 cup sugar
¾ cup corn oil
1½ teaspoons vanilla
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ cup milk

On wax paper, sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. In a medium bowl, beat egg yolks slightly; stir in sugar, then corn oil, vanilla and lemon rind. Add flour mixture and milk; stir until smooth. Beat egg whites until they form soft peaks; fold into flour - egg mixture. Turn into a loaf pan (about 9 by 5 by 3 inches). Bake at 350-degrees until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — 45 to 60 minutes. Turn out on wire rack; turn right side up; cool. Sift confectioners' sugar over top of cake before serving.

If you use lots of chopped onion in main dishes, you'll find the frozen variety a boon. As much as is needed may be removed from the package and the rest kept on hand in the freezer.

PTA Hears Mr. Boren, G. Merrifield

Travis PTA met in regular session Monday evening with Mrs. Billy Campbell presiding in the absence of Mrs. Kenneth Smith, president.

Mrs. James Bellamy read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. James Beckham gave the treasurer's report. It was voted to send two delegates to Spring Conference in Paducah. Mrs. James Patrick is chairman of the Travis Spring Banquet to be held May 4.

Mr. Gene Merrifield, chamber of Commerce manager, and Mr. Brud Boren, chairman of the Scurry County Historical Society, were guest speakers.

Mr. Merrifield noted that over 17 organized groups from surrounding towns have been here since the opening of the Scurry County coliseum and several thousand out - of - town dollars have come into Snyder.

Mr. Boren and Mr. Merrifield told of the Scurry County Historical Trail to encourage tourist trade in Scurry County. Mr. Boren stated that tourist trade is the third most important industry in Texas. In the past five years the Society has been responsible for getting 33 historical markers in this country. The SCHS is trying to promote an area historical museum in Snyder and would appreciate the opinions of the public, and they welcome any suggestions and offers to help in this project. They are asked to contact Mr. Brud Boren or Mrs. Wayne Boren.

Biography From Mr. Kerouac

VANITY OF DULOZ. By Jack Kerouac.

The hero of this novel has the name Jack Duluoz, but it is obvious that at least part of the story is based on Kerouac's life — just how much is not sharply defined.

This fictional form, then, chronicles the boyhood and early manhood of Kerouac, with the subtitle reading "An Adventurous Education, 1935-46." The time span covers the 13th through 24th years of Duluoz-Kerouac's life, prior to the period when he became one of the literary figures of the Beat Generation.

At 13 Jack was a bright boy enamored of sandlot football in his home town of Lowell, Mass. A brash youngster with a high opinion of his football talents, he played the game in high school, prep school and — briefly — at Columbia University, but was always complaining that the coach didn't let him play enough.

Dropping out of Columbia, he became a drifter, tried to teach himself to write and finally served several war years as a merchant seaman.

When a friend killed a man in self-defense, the police picked up Jack for helping dispose of the weapon, and while in jail he became acquainted with some very interesting gangster types. At the end of the novel Jack describes briefly the beginnings of a drug-taking, beatnik period among "the despairists."

Duluoz devotes considerable space to the influences of Saroyan, Hemingway, Joyce and paticulary Thomas Woolfe on his early attempts to make a writer of himself. Kerouac's style is rather like a garrulous raconteur talking endlessly into a tape recorder.

Louisville Grabs Share Of Title

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Louisville clinched at least a share of the championship, Cincinnati stayed closed in National Invitation Tournament consideration, and North Texas State snapped a 12-game losing streak in Missouri Valley Conference Basketball Wednesday night.

As Westly Unseld scored 29 points and grabbed 19 rebounds, The Louisville Cardinals put away Drake 86-80 and kept a nine-game victory string going. This extended their conference record to 12-2 and their over-all performance to 17-6.

Drake was ahead 46-38 at halftime and led five minutes into the second half before Unseld scored seven straight points to start a Louisville rally.

Willie McCarter pulled Drake into a 78-all tie with 54 seconds left, then fouled out. Marv Selvy's shot from the side put the Cardinals ahead to stay with 40 seconds remaining. McCarter went out with 26 points.

Cincinnati, trailing Louisville and Bradley in the Valley, ran its record to 9-5 in the conference and 16-7 overall with an 85-81 decision at Wichita State, where the Bearcats had lost six straight games.

The Shockers stayed even until, with 9:46 to go, Jim Ard sent the Bearcats ahead 61-59 to stay on a jump shot. Ard and Ron Mendell of Wichita State tied for scoring honors with 26 points.

North TEXAS State broke out of its long slump and won its first conference game with a 65-64 upset of St. Louis, which had a five-game winning skein going into the game.

The Billikens led 64-63 with 1:50 to play before Leroy Winfield sank a jump shot for the winning North Texas basket. St. Louis held the ball for one last shot but threw it out of bounds, and the Eagles stalled out the remaining 57 seconds.

Bradley and Cincinnati appear to be the best bets to represent the Missouri Valley in the NIT, which has picked as many as two teams from the conference in the past.

Both have three conference games to play. Each must win at least one more to remain in NIT consideration. Bradley is 9-4 in the coference and 16-8 in all games.

Ambitious Shortstop?

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Denis Menke—apparently determined to win the Houston Astros' starting shortstop job, has reported to spring training camp a week early.

Menke, who was acquired by the Astros from the Atlanta Braves after the 1967 season, arrived in camp Wednesday although he was not due until Feb. 27.

Menke is expected to battle Hector Torres for the regular shortstop jobs. Torres was obtained by the Astros from the California Angels.

Twenty-one pitchers and four catchers took part in workouts Wednesday and Manager Grady Hatton said he was pleased with the condition of the hurlers.

PAY RAISE

Baseball Rookies Get Good News

NEW YORK (AP) — Most major league baseball spring training camps are just on the verge of opening, but a lot of rookies have already received some good news. Three thousand dollars worth of good news.

One of the most important provisions of an agreement between club owners and the players association that was announced Wednesday was the raising of the minimum major-league salary from $7,000 a year to $10,000.

In addition, the players won some other monetary concessions including an increase in meal allowances, spring training expenses and a lessening of the amount salaries may be reduced from one season to the next.

Top non-economic concessions included studies of possible alternatves to the reserve clause and of the length of the season, both to be completed next yaer.

The agreement was announced by John J. Gaherin, advisor to the owners' player relations committee. Negotiations for the owners were carried on by Joe Cronin, president of the American League; Warren Giles, president of the National League; Gaherin and other lawyers.

Representing the players were Marvin. J. Miller, executive director of the players association; Richard M. Moss, counsel; and player representatives of 12 major-league clubs.

The agreement is for two years and was made effective as of last Jan. 1.

Meal and tip allowances for players when their teams are on the road were increased from $12 to $15 a day. Spring training meal allotments for players living away from club headquarters went up from $8 to $12 a day. Miscellaneous spring training allowances went up from $25 a week to $40.

Salaries may only be reduced 20 per cent from the previous season rather than 25 per cent as in the past. Moving expenses for players called up from the minors will be paid and provisions for first-class travel and hotel facilities were agreed upon.

In addition, the practice of continuing salary payments to players who spend two weeks during the season in Army Reserve or National Guard summer camps was formalized.

The study of alternatives to the reserve clause, the one under which players are traded, will be completed by December 31, 1969, while the study of the length of the season is to be finished before next season's schedule is drawn up.

Other non-economic considerations included improvements in the uniform player's contract, a procedure for the handling of grievances, with the commissioner of baseball arbitrating and a prohibition of exhibition games, except charity games, during the All-Star break.

FOR 3-AAA CAGE CROWN

Tors, Panthers Vie Tonight

Weather permitting, it should be one whale of a ball game in Scurry County Coliseum tonight when Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes tangle with Lubbock Dunbar's Panthers for the District 3-AAA championship. Tip off is set for 8 p.m.

The Tors of Coach O. W. Follis bring an impressive 29-4 season record into the showdown while the Panthers of Coaching Curtis Gipson arrive with 24-5 credentials.

Snyder's Ned Underwood perhaps summed up the collision of the two titans best when he was asked who would win.

Said Underwood "I don't know."

The fight for the 3-AAA marbles pits two talent-laden teams with size and strength against each other. Both have stable fuls of accurate shooters, and both units are adept at blocking opponents' shots.

Possible starters for the Tornadoes include All-State Pat Fees (6-5½), Jerry (Tap) Mason (6-3), Carl (Burton) Collins (6-5), Glenn Flemming (5-7), and Dub Minnix (5-8).

The outcome of the contest could easily hinge on Mason's gimpy knee. This knee injury could prevent him from going at full speed and it also could limit his rebounding ability. But, even a half-healthy Mason is a dangerous man to contend with, and there's always the versatile Fees around to take up any slack.

Dunbar's boys all reportedly are in good health. Possible starters are seniors Robert Williams (6-3), Jerry Phillips (6-3½), John Hollins (6-6), James Skief (5-6) and Marc Wilson (6-2½).

The starting alignments for both teams reads like a Who's Who of schoolboy cage circles. Fees and Mason share third place in district scoring with 260 points each. Collins also rates in the upper echelons with 141 points to his credit.

No less than four of the Panthers are listed in the Top 20 in district scoring. Phillips leads with 54 points, followed by Hollins (225), Skief (209) and Wilson (139).

Dunbar's run - and - shoot tactics against Lamesa's more deliberate style of play should provide some interesting fireworks for the large crowd expected to see the Tornados defend their district and state crowns.

Would you believe the Tors will win it by one point in overtime? It could well happen.

Tickets will be sold at the door at the rate of $2 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Cajuns Move Up In Poll

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The McNeese State Cowboys of Lake Charles, La., riding high on a 20-2 record, moved into third place in The Associated Press' small-College basketball poll today.

Unbeaten Long Island University, a solid leader, and Kentucky Wesleyan, the runner-up, have the same positions they held a week ago. There were considerable changes, though, in the other ranking spots.

McNeese State rushed up from fifth place. Pan American advanced from eighth to fourth. Trinity, Tex., climbed from sixth to fifth. Evansville slipped three notches to sixth. Norfolk State went from ninth to seventh while Southwestern Louisiana fell one place to eighth.

Illinois State, the only new team in The Top Ten, took over the No. 9 slot, and Guilford held 10th.

LIU received eight first-place votes and 145 points in the latest balloting by a national panel of 16 sports writers and broadcasters based on games through last Saturday. Kentucky Wesleyan drew three votes for the top position and 113 points while McNeese State had one first-place vote and 93 points.

The Top Ten with first-place votes in parentheses and total points through games of Feb. 17:

1.	Long Island U. (8)	145
2.	Kentucky Wesleyan (3)	113
3.	McNeese State (1)	93
4.	Pan American	69
5.	Trinity, Tex.	59
6.	Evansville	55
7.	Norfolk State	51
8.	SW Louisiana	45
9.	Illinois State	31
10.	Guilford	27

Schoolgirl Shines In Tennis Match

WINCHESTER, Mass. (AP) — A 14-year-old school girl who overpowered the nation's third-ranked player for a while before finally losing out was still the talk of the gallery today as the U.S. Women's Indoor Tennis Tournament moved into its second day.

Andrea Voikos of Pawtucket, R.I., put on an extraordinary display as she stunned Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis, 8-6, in the first set of their match Wednesday night. The youngster couldn't keep it up, however, as Miss Eisel rallied to win the next two sets, 6-2, 6-0.

Top-seeded Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., seeking a record-tying third straight victory, had a much easier time Wednesday. The 24-year-old Wimbleton and U.S. outdoor champion needed only a little more than half an hour to blitz Rollins College freshman Jade Schiffman of Riverdale, N.Y., 6-0, 6-0.

Bulls Capitalize On Free Throws

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Washington missed a free throw. The Chicago Bulls will forgive him.

The Bulls took 31 shots from the foul line in their 108-106 squeeker over Seattle in the National Basketball Association Wednesday night. They made 30 of them including 14 straight by Bob Boozer who led the scorers with 26 points.

Washington, second to Boozer with 23 points, was seven for eight from the line; his miss was the Bulls' only one.

In other NBA games, Baltimore beat San Francisco 126-117 and Los Angeles turned back Boston 122-117.

Bob Rule's basket for the SuperSonics tied the score at 106-106 with 52 seconds left, but Clem Haskins hit on a one-hander from the foul line with eight seconds left for the Bulls' victory.

The Bullets got 54 points out of their backcourt combination of Earl Monroe and Kelvin Loughery. Monroe collected 29 points and Loughery had 25. Jeff Mullins scored 29 points for the Warriors.

Elgin Baylor came through in the clutch with 28 seconds remaining in the Lakers' victory over the Celtics before a turnout of 17,011, the biggest crowd ever to see an NBA game on the West Coast.

With Los Angeles leading by one point, Baylor connected on a 13-foot jump shot and then converted a pair of free throws. Boston had trimmed a 12-point Laker lead early in the fourth period on the shooting of Bill Russell and John Havlicek.

Russell topped the Celts with 24 points and Havlicek chipped in with 20. Jerry West was high for Los Angeles with 34 and Baylor contributed 32.

Foreigners Meet In Net Finals

MACON, Ga. (AP) — Top-seeded Jan Leschly of Denmark meets Luis Arilla of Spain in a headliner match today in the final round of the Macon International Tennis Tournament.

During second-round matches Wednesday, Jim Osborne of Honolulu upset Mark Cox of England 6-1, 6-2. Cox was seeded fourth among the foreign players.

Top-ranked American player Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., survived a challenge from young Pancho Guzman of Ecuador, defeating the Latin American 3-6, 6-4, 6-4. Richey's teammate, second-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, defeated Zeljo Franulozic of Yugoslavia 6-4, 6-4.

In other matches in the indoor meet, Ron Holmberg of Dallas beat Istvan Gulyas of Hungary 6-3, 3-6, 6-3; Mike Sangster of England sidelined Torben Ulrich of Denmark 11-9, 6-2, and Jan Kukal of Czechoslovakia ousted Bill Shippey of Atlanta 6-2, 6-0.

Golf Team Heads For Andrews

The Snyder High School golf team left this morning for Andrews where it will compete in its first match of the season.

Play begins Friday morning, according to Coach J. P. Ward, who said Mitch Rambin, Benny Ward, Jay Kidd, Phil Ator and Johnny Powell have qualified for the tourney.

Qualifying rounds to determine the first team were held yesterday.

The Tigers are defending champions in District 3-AAA.

Washington Saved Country Wearing A Powdered Wig?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — On the 236th anniversary of his birth, George Washington is hardly a popular teen-age pinup hero.

First called "the father of his country" during the American Revolution, his fate — like that of many of today's modern fathers—is to be somewhat misunderstood and taken for granted by his children.

The youth of our land have been a bit mistrustful of Washington ever since 1800, when Parson Mason L. Weems, in writing a life story of our first president, invented the famous cherry tree tale.

"I can't tell a lie, Pa," he quoted young George as saying. "You know I can't tell a lie. I did cut it with my little hatchet."

That fable has probably hurt the influence of George Washington upon youth more than anything he ever actually did or didn't do in his remarkable life. To every kid since then it has made him appear as a prissy, sanctimonious prig.

He wasn't that way at all, of course. By rights he should be one of the greatest of teen-age heroes, and a model for them to emulate. For he had his troubles as a teen-ager, too.

Acne is a source of acute embarrassment to sensitive adolescents. George didn't have that, so far as we know. But his features were disfigured by a scar on his left cheek, a black mole under his right ear and deep facial pits left by an attack of smallpox.

He was tall, a bit gawky, sickly.

Left fatherless and shillingless at 11, he dropped out of school before he was 17 and became a surveyor. It would have been easy for him to become wilderness bum, but he didn't.

He yearned for greatness instead. He educated himself by reading, wrote out his own rules of conduct that guided him throughout his life. The main thing: he decided himself to become a man worthy of his own respect. Nobody made up the rules for him.

At maturity the spartan life of the frontier had turned him into an imposing figure. He stood 6 feet 2, weighed 175 pounds, had blue eyes, sandy hair, broad, sloping shoulders.

He had built physical strength in his body and a will of iron determination, all through his own choice of self-discipline.

Although he was to meet temporary failure many times, he never ceased to persevere until he met with final victory. He simply didn't know how to quit.

It was the traits he had acquired as a teen-ager in the wilderness—patience, fortitude, tenacity—that enabled him to win the long drawn out battle for American independence.

He might have been named king. The idea appalled him. The new nation twice unanimously elected him president. Finer minds than his were available, but his countrymen knew of no one whose character they trusted more.

Washington has been too often pictured as remote, austere and unapproachable. But in truth he was a lively man, a man with strong passions he had to fight to keep under control. —

Long-haired teen-agers, who fight parental attempts to get them to shear their locks, might be comforted by this fact: George Washington was something of a long-hair, too. He saved his country while wearing a powdered wig.

Junior Editors Quiz on CHINAWARE

QUESTION: Did china come from China?

* * * *

ANSWER: China, or porcelain, is distinguished from other pottery by being white inside and translucent, so some light shines through. Tap it lightly with a pencil and it gives a ringing sound. Once, china only came from China, where it originated. It became known in Europe in the 1400s and at first was rare and valuable. The spread of tea and coffee drinking created a great demand for china cups and saucers. The Chinese tried to keep the secret of how their porcelain was made, which had to do with the use of the two materials kaolin (China clay) and petuntse (China stone). But the secret was learned in Germany in 1709, and china-making spread to other localities. The German Dresden china became particularly well known. In England, china factories were started in 1745. The Englishman Josiah Spode, trying to imitate the beautiful Chinese ware, discovered, in 1799, a way of adding calcined ground animal bones to the kaolin and petuntse base. This made the materials fuse together better and gave a pleasant feel to the ware, which came to be known as bone china.

New Splits Threaten Democrats

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — The optimism evident these days around Democratic party headquarters fails to obscure one essential fact: The disrepair of the party machinery in the big states necessary for President Johnson to be re-elected.

The party coffers are unusually full, the staff has been rebuilt and everyone concerned seems happier now that election year is finally here and the National Committee knows what its job is.

This is to provide a support structure for registration, women's activities and other organizational work necessary for a successful national campaign.

In addition, party leaders report enthusiasm at regional planning conferences, and the organization of Citizens for Johnson-Humphrey groups is ahead of schedule under the direction of Washington lawyer James H. Rowe Jr., Johnson's choice to be over-all head of campaign strategy.

But the state of the party in the big states, where Republicans scored smashing victories in 1966 and 1967, remains questionable, with serious new splits threatening in a number of places.

Of the 10 largest states, whose 255 electoral votes are only 14 short of the majority needed for election, Democrats have governors in only 3—New Jersey, Texas and Illinois.

But in New Jersey, Republicans scored smashing statewide victories last fall; in Texas, the retirement of Gov. John B. Connally has created a void at the head of Democratic ranks; and in Illinois, Republicans scored significant victories in 1966.

Illinois presents the Democrats—and Johnson in particular—with a unique problem.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who has strongly supported the President on Vietnam, is seeking a fourth term. Unless Democrats run a strong race against him, the President could lose the state and its 26 electoral votes.

However, the retirement of Democratic Gov. Otto Kerner gives the party a chance to come up with its most star-studded state ticket in a generation —antipoverty director Sargent Shriver and State Treasurer Adlai E. Stevenson III, son of the former governor and two-time Democratic presidential nominee.

The other seven big states present even greater problems for the Democrats, who carried all of them in their landslide 1964 victory. Consider just these three:

In California, the party is reduced to one statewide officeholder, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch; is racked by intramural fighting; and must face popular GOP Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel in November.

In Michigan, Gov. George Romney led a substantial GOP sweep in 1966, and Zolton Ferency quit as Democratic state chairman because of opposition to the Vietnam war.

In Ohio, Republicans are firmly in command, and Democrats face a bitter intraparty Senate fight between conservative incumbent Frank J. Lausche and former Rep. John J. Gilligan, backed by party leaders.

Yarborough, Tower On Opposite Sides

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas' two senators were on opposing sides again Wednesday as the Senate refused in a 58-34 roll call vote to table the open housing amendment of Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., voted with the majority, Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., voted to table the amendment.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are an elderly couple, and childless. We have lots of nieces and nephews who used to be brought to our small place when they were young. We loved them and kissed away their bruises and always remembered them with nice gifts at Christmastime and birthdays and so on. Now they are grown men and women with families of their own, and we are quitie forgotten. We have written them letters, which were all ignored. However we are still on their Christmas card list, altho none of them has ever taken the extra five minutes to add a personal line or two.

Well, back in the thirties, the Mrs. and I inherited a little property, which we sold. On the advice of a banker friend we bought IBM and General Motors stock, and as you probably know, the investment was a good one.

We never lived extravagantly with fancy automobiles or showy homes. Never took expensive vacations as we like it here. We gave to charities, modestly, but never appeared rich because of the many dangers that threaten rich folks. We enjoy simple pleasures like gardening and cozy nights around a fireplace. We have watched the mailbox for years for letters from our "kids," but none have come, save their printed store-bought cards at Christmastime.

Our best friend is our mailman. On several occasions he has rung our bell, wanting to know if we were all right because he didn't see us stirring inside. Last Christmas he bought me a nice pipe and a can of tobacco. And he gave the Mrs. some powder and perfume. We gave him a turkey as he has a good wife and five small children. One day he is going to get a real big surprise, Abby, because in our will we have left our mailman $60,000. The rest will go to our church, crippled children, and the blind. Our relatives will get nothing because they gave nothing of themselves. I don't care how you sign this as long as you don't use our name or town. Sincerely yours,

A QUIET COUPLE

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I like the guy I double-date with more than the guy I date.

How can I get his mind off the girl in the front seat long enough to notice the girl in the back seat?

GREEN EYES

DEAR GREEN EYES: You had better try to get his attention some other time. If the girl in the back seat shows any interest in the boy in the front seat, she's apt to wind up sitting at home.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LOVED AND LOST:" Your "problem" reminds me of an old Chinese tale: "One tear met another tear floating down the river. Said the first tear, 'I am the tear of the woman who lost her lover.' The other tear replied, 'And I am the tear of the woman who got him'."

Problems Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

FOR ABBY'S NEW BOOKLET "WHAT TEEN - AGERS WANT TO KNOW," SEND $1.00 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069.

Antique Picture Sure Looks Familiar

PARIS, Tex. (AP)— Martin DeWitt was prowling through a Paris antique emporium recently and spotted a dusty 8 x 10 portrait atop an old bedroom dresser.

"Who does that look like to you?" he asked his wife.

"Why, it looks like you," she confirmed.

The photo was of DeWitt in 1921 when he was a Paris High School student. He agreed that it was an antique, sure enough, but has no idea how it got into the shop.

Two Texans Drill Viet Water Well

SAIGON, SOUTH VIETNAM (AP) — Two Texans drilled a water well on an island here.

Bob Tucker and Mark Wales, both formerly of Wichita Falls, Tex., sought water at the Saigon Island Depot to save about $8,000 a month.

Two 6,000- gallon tank trucks each made four trips daily to Bien Hoa to haul good water back to the island. The cost ran about $8,000 a month.

The drillers are employed by the RMK-BRJ Co., which has drilled a number of wells in Vietnam.

The Easter Seal Society says that 15,000 occupational therpasists are needed to help rehabilitate the nation's handicapped.
