Solons Reach Agreement On Foreign Aid

By H. K. REYNOLDS
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 13—Senate-House conferences reached complete agreement on the Marshall plan extension bill tonight carrying $5,580,000,000 to operate the program for 15 months.

All differences between Senate and House bills to extend the European recovery program were composed in a day-long conference, and the legislation prepared for final passage by Congress tomorrow.

The conference agreement provided fully for requests of the administration to cover Marshall plan costs until June 30, 1950—a total of $5,430,000,000.

Machinery Item Denied

Provision also was made for a special treasury fund of $150,000,000 to guarantee the convertability in dollars of European currencies accumulated by private American business firms in the Marshall plan countries.

Only administration request denied by the conferences was for a $150,000,000 item asked for purchases of machinery for delivery in Europe during the 1951 fiscal year.

The bill granted authority for an appropriation of $54,000,000 to continue U. S. economic aid to China until February, 1950, as a stop-gap measure while further study is given the Chinese situation.

The Chinese fund had been included in the Senate bill, and was accepted by the House conferees in place of a separate China aid bill passed by the House 10 days ago.

As the conference was agreeing on a ceiling for European aid during the next year, Foreign Aid Administrator Paul Hoffman indicated in a formal statement that price declines might permit a reduction in Marshall plan appropriations.

DUST SWEEPS SOUTH PLAINS

High Winds Lash Wide Section Of State As Cool Front Arrives

COOLER weather for the South Plains today followed strong winds that reached a 36 mile an hour velocity for a time Wednesday afternoon and stirred up a cloud of dust over the area.

High winds lashed a wide section of the state Wednesday, although no damage was reported at a late hour last night.

The Lubbock Weather station reported that a mild cool front moved into the area about 5 p. m. yesterday during the peak of the "blow." Shortly after the arrival of the front the winds began to diminish, and were expected to be relatively light today.

Temperatures, however, will be slightly lower than the 86 maximum and 48 degree minimum recorded yesterday, the station said. Readings are expected to range from a low of 42 this morning to a high of 75 this afternoon.

Friday's temperatures will be slightly higher, the weatherman said, with a low of 45 to 48 tomorrow morning, and a high of 80 to 82 tomorrow afternoon. Skies will remain

MAHON OPPOSES NAVY REQUESTS

House Okays Huge Outlay For U. S. Military Forces

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The House overwhelmingly approved tonight a $16,000,000,000 military money bill, the greatest in American peacetime history, after less than two days of whirlwind debate.

Only one vote was cast against it.

The House rejected the Navy's bid, however, for $300,000,000 extra for the naval air arm.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) shouted that in the event of war with Russia, it will be Air Force planes, not Navy planes, which will drop atomic bombs on Moscow.

Angry Clashes Mark Debate

Passage of the omnibus Army-Navy-Air Force measure was by a landslide 271 to 1 vote. Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY) was the lone dissenter.

The money is for the fiscal year 1950, starting July 1.

Angry clashes punctuated the debate over the Navy's demand for additional funds to build up its aerial striking weapon, with Rep. Mahon (D-Tex) shouting:

"If the Navy is so poorly operated it can't run a pretty decent establishment on five billion dollars, then there's something wrong with the Navy."

"The reason war hasn't already broken out," Mahon said, "is that we've got the atomic bomb and the planes to carry it."

Rep. Taber (R-NY) said the Navy doesn't actually need the extra planes.

Air Force Gets Biggest Slice

"The Navy has 10,000 planes now — probably 14,000," Taber said. "We've got plenty to take care of any situation that might arise."

Rep. Cole (R-NY) disagreed He said the rejection "indicates a trend which will spell the end of naval aviation."

However, the House voted 125 to 63—almost two to one—to back up the Appropriations committee which had turned thumbs down

Reaction Of Residents To Quake Varied

(By International News Service)

REACTION ranging from complete calm to utter panic was recorded Wednesday in reports of human behavior in the midst of a severe earthquake that rocked the Pacific Northwest.

In Seattle, a frightened woman leaped off a bridge into the Duwamish river, but was saved from drowning by a passing motorist. She was taken to New Renton hospital, where she was identified as Mrs. Freida Leaf, 71, of Tukwilla, Wash.

Army Offer Declined

In Olympia, the quake caught Gov. Arthur B. Langlie in his office. Said the governor:

"I put on my hat and went across the street (to the governor's mansion) for lunch. But lunch was delayed. A brick had fallen in the kitchen."

Mrs. Dorothy Hazel Rogers, of Seattle, delivered a six-pound baby boy during the quake. She was undergoing a Caesarian operation at Columbus hospital when power failure darkened the delivery room. The operation was resumed when power was restored.

Governor Arthur B. Langlie late today declined an offer of assistance from Gen. Mark Clark, Sixth Army commander in San Francisco.

Langlie said soldiers from San Francisco were not needed at this time.

Amputee Jumps Up

Seattle City Councilman Bob Harlin, who recently had both his legs amputated, was in Mayor William F. Devin's office when the quake came.

He was seated in a wheel chair, but involuntarily he tried to jump to his "feet." He fell to the floor, but was not hurt.

Business Manager J. J. Callaghan of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer was talking by long distance telephone to New York City when the quake almost jarred him out of his chair.

Callaghan told his New York

Thousands Flee In Panic From Swaying Buildings; Seattle, Olympia Hard Hit

(By International News Service)

SEATTLE, April 13—A violent earthquake struck with terrifying and deadly force today in the entire northwest section of the United States, claiming at least seven lives and injuring at least 50 of the frightened four million residents of the area.

Property damage was expected to run into the millions.

Big downtown buildings in Seattle, Portland, Olympia, Tacoma and other cities in Oregon and Washington swayed with sickening motion as the temblor hit shortly before noon.

Many persons in the big downtown business offices, just getting ready to go to lunch, were panic stricken when the first rumbling of the quake was felt at 11:55 a.m. PST (1:55 p.m. CST).

Schoolhouse Roof Collapses

It reached its maximum impact 40 to 60 seconds later, stopping clocks at 11:56 a. m. when big cracks in reinforced concrete buildings began to open.

And it was precisely at this hour that the roof of a schoolhouse collapsed in Tacoma, 40 miles south of Seattle, claiming the temblor's first victim, an 11 year old schoolboy, Marvin Klegman, who was crushed to death under tons of falling bricks.

The earthquake was felt throughout Oregon and Washington, and on the Oregon-Idaho border, and even across the Canadian border in the province of British Columbia.

Residents of more than 40 and 50 years in the Pacific Northwest described the quake as the most violent they ever experienced.

(Seismologists reported from university seismograph stations throughout the west that the quake was registered with violent force on their delicate instruments.

Disaster Crews Begin Work

(Dr. Perry Byerly, noted University of California seismologist, reported the quake registered on his seismograph with a magnitude of "7," described as well above the intensity of a destructive quake.

(Dr. Byerly recalled that the disastrous earthquake which destroyed much of San Francisco on April 18, 1906, was rated at magnitude of 8.25.

(Dr. Byerly said no earthquake registers a magnitude greater than 8.50.)

The Red Cross disaster service swung into action in the stricken areas. Four disaster workers set up a dormitory in Olympia for persons barred from downtown hotels in the Washington state capitol city.

King county (Seattle) Red Cross headquarters reported that the entire downtown area of Olympia was ordered evacuated tonight—not because of visible damage, but as a "precautionary measure" against falling debris.

State patrolmen blocked off the streets. Olympia authorities voiced fear that the Kneeland hotel, an old brick structure in the heart of the business district, might collapse. The building was condemned for occupancy above the first floor more than a year ago.

In the Olympian hotel, one of the capital's two largest hotels, the roof over the kitchen collapsed, but no one was trapped or injured.

Victims Are Identified

In addition to the Klegman boy, who was killed when the roof of the Lowell elementary school in Tacoma collapsed, the following lost their lives in the quake:

Konrad Sorenson, 70, of Cosmopolis, Wash., who suffered a fatal heart attack which physicians said was induced by the quake.

Jack Roller, 18, president of the Castle Rock, Wash., high school student body, killed by falling bricks.

Percival Blisson 40, killed by bricks from a falling chimney.

Mrs. C. M. West 50, died of a heart attack in Olympia. Physicians attributed her death to the earthquake.

Mark Kuverick, an elderly man, killed at Centralia, Wash., when the front of an old brick building caved in on him.

Alfred Welander, 60, died of a heart attack in Seattle. He was a

Lubbock Solon Hurls Blast At Governor

By BO BYERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, April 13.—Rep. Preston Smith of Lubbock accused Gov. Beauford H. Jester today of trying to decide "when and what legislation should be considered" by the House.

Smith's bristling attack on the governor was prompted by Jester's statement Monday that the Gilmer-Aikin school bills should be acted on now—not later.

The House worked on the first of the reorganization bills again today for the third consecutive week but made little progress toward a second reading.

To Adjourn For Easter

One amendment was adopted doing away with provision for an advisory investment commission Several proposed changes were killed by close votes. Sponsors said they would have crippled the bill.

The House and Senate adjourned until tomorrow after approving each other permission to adjourn from tomorrow until Monday for the Easter holidays.

The Senate finally passed and sent back to the House with amendments legislation to setup a judges retirement system under the constitutional amendment adopted at the polls last summer.

School Aid Okayed

The Senate struck out a provision that would make retirement mandatory at 75. As changed, the bill would permit retirement at the age of 65 after 10 years of service, or at any age after 25 years of service. Retirement pay would be 50 per cent of service pay. The vote on final passage was 23-6.

The Senate also concurred in House amendments and sent to the governor a bill to cover the $9,750,000 deficit in the rural aid school fund.

A 21-6 vote passed the measure over the objection of Senator W. R. Cousins, jr., of Beaumont and others who complained that it was unconstitutional.

Also passed by the Senate and sent to the House was a resolution by Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg to create a 22-member legislative interim committee to study the state's water laws and

Endurance Fliers Within 25 Hours Of New Flight Record

FULLERTON, Cal., April 13 (INS) — Endurance fliers Bill Barris and Dick Riedel passed their 701th hour in the air at 7 p.m. (CST) today, only 25 more to go before setting a new record.

The two pilots, flying in their light plane "Sunkist Lady" hoped to crack the 726-hour record at 7:44 p. m. (CST) Friday.

Barris radioed to his ground crew at Fullerton, Cal.:

"We think we can make it okay, but we are gamblers enough not to 'count our money before the game's over.'"

They plan to remain aloft 1000 hours.

Seasonal Drop In Deposits Noted

Bank deposits in Lubbock at close of business Monday totaled $74,840,653.64, statements issued by the four banks Wednesday afternoon following a bank call revealed.

The figure shows a decline of $8,916,439.34 from deposits of $83,757,092.98 last year at this time.

However, First Federal Savings and Loan association was not affected by the call and if its deposits as of the close of business Monday are added to the figure, the total deposits now amount to $78,617,491.51.

The association's deposits totaled $3,776,837.87.

The decline from Dec. 31, 1948, was $16,634,802.64. from the total at that time of $91,475,456.28.

The drop in deposits is seasonal and reflects in large part the fact that farmers and businesses of many types withdraw and spend, rather than deposit, money at this season, bankers pointed out.

Statements of the banks contained announcements of several changes in officers and directors.

At First National bank, J. B. Castles, former cashier, was named vice president and cashier and Jewel Hodges was named as assistant cashier Dr. Ben B. Hutchinson was named a director.

Taft Scores Plan To Arm Western Europe

WASHINGTON, April 13 (INS)—Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) declared tonight that an American program to arm western Europe would be "a direct violation of the United Nations charter."

The GOP policy leader said the Atlantic pact will be "more of a deterrent to war if we don't arm Europe," and that the arms plan "might reasonably be interpreted by Russia as aggressive."

Taft appeared on the "Meet The Press' broadcast to answer questions fired at him by four journalists.

He withheld a flat statement of opposition to the administration's arm-Europe program, which is estimated to cost $1,250,000,000 the first year.

Taft said he was "dubious" about the arms plan and "inclined" against it, but "we don't know the details yet."

Mahon Again Takes Spotlight As Huge Program Approved

By SARAH McCLENDON
Avalanche Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 13.—A Texan stood out today as a man who ran through the House not only the largest money bill of the session and the largest military budget in the nation's history but one who spelled out the country's future military policy.

By approving this bill, the House gave top priority to air power and military defense. There was not a single change in the bill as presented with much conscientious forethought by Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock.

Even the veteran representative Carl Vinson of Georgia, known as "The Admiral" because of his friendship with the Navy, could not change the bill which Mahon presented, giving an additional $851,000,000 over budget requirements to the Air Force. Vinson had wanted more funds for the air arm of the Navy.

Texan "Gratified"

Mahon was "highly gratified" that the House members "did not dot an 'I' or cross a 'T.' No longer will there be an equal division of funds among the services." Mahon said.

The Texas congressman must in history assume much responsibility for the new departure in military policy He was chairman of the subcommittee which for the first time heard the complete unified budget picture — Army, Navy and Air Forces. Heretofore separate groups had angled for funds for seperate branches.

"Unification must start at this committee," Mahon said.

Policy Is Explained

The committee realized that on the amount relegated for scientific development and choice of weapons in future would mean the country's very life.

Therefore, they gave ample

Pact Nations Claimed Planning Atomic War

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko charged today the North Atlantic treaty nations are isolating Russia and plotting aggressive atomic warfare against the Soviet Union.

The Soviet deputy foreign minister launched the blast at the 12-nation pact in the United Nations Assembly. He made no demands for UN action at this time.

Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, promptly issued a statement saying the pact is not an aggressive instrument. Austin said it is rooted in purposes and principles of the UN charter.

Gromyko declared the pact signers are trying to encircle Russia. He said Russia knew the pact was aimed at her simply because she was the only great power not signing.

After a long attack on the treaty and countries signing it, Gromyko declared the agreement undermined the basis for the existence of the UN.

Two Burglaries Are Probed Here

Burglaries of two negro residences, one of which apparently happened some weeks ago, were under investigation of police Wednesday.

Jessie Walker, of 2304 East Ave. G, told police that a blue steel .38 caliber Super automatic pistol, a blanket and some dress material were removed from the residence "sometime during the month of March." Total value of the missing property was set at $53.72.

Burglary of the residence of Jackie Carroll, described on their reports as a negro woman, was complained of Wednesday to the police.

She said $3 was removed from her purse when she was asleep.

A negro man was questioned in connection with the case, but released without charge, detectives said.

Tools and other properties, valued at $35, were reported taken from N. N. Ligon of 1408 Ave. N.

County officials said Raymond Salazar, 26, of Lubbock, pleaded guilty of the theft Nov. 1, 1948, of a $45 overcoat from Levine's and was sent to county jail for five days. A fine of $75 and court costs were assessed in a drunk driving action naming June Kimble Cannon, 42, of Lubbock.

Clay Urges Quick Action On Allied Offer

Germans Warned To Set Up Government

By TOM AGOSTON
INS Staff Correspondent

FRANKFURT, April 13—Gen Lucius D. Clay warned delaying Germans tonight that if they do not want to form a western government they "will live under the occupation rule much longer."

The U. S. military governor urged the Germans to make up their minds fast about accepting the "occupation statute" which would supervise a limited German self-government.

The statute was handed to West German leaders last weekend and all of them expressed disappointment although most termed it "substantial progress" on the German road to recovery. The Social Democratic party is the most vocal in opposition.

Clay Holds Conference

The plan calls for an eventual tripartite Allied civilian overlordship retaining control of foreign policy, trade, disarmament and other key factors. In an emergency the Allied commissioners could transform Germany back to control of the Allied military.

Clay held a news conference with Allied and German newsmen for the first time since the statute was announced, and was bombarded with questions.

German newsmen especially wanted to know who would decide and how they would decide if security was threatened, and if there could be any appeals.

Gen. Clay did not answer all the questions but said, "it would not be difficult to visualize such an emergency." He said that if Allied rule had to be invoked again "the step would not be taken lightly."

Clay also referred questioners to the unidentified civilian commissioner who is to succeed him. This was interpreted to mean that his return to the United States and retirement is much nearer than had been expected.

Asked if he would be prepared to take over the commissioner's post after he became a civilian, Clay said: "If I were offered it, the answer would have to be no."

Clay is in Frankfurt for talks with German leaders who have been trying to work out a constitution for a self-governing Western Germany. He also will discuss the German question with the British and French military governors.

Clay stressed that the Allied offer to permit the Germans to participate in the European recovery program as a full member meets the wishes of "a majority

Allies Relax Curbs On German Production To Boost Recovery

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 13. — The United States, Britain and France rounded out plans today to revive Western Germany by lifting or relaxing restrictions on shipbuildin and many other industries.

Ignoring Soviet Russia, the three western powers ruled that 159 plants previously marked for removal as reparations shall be retained to add to Germany's productive capacity.

The announced purposes are to speed the day when the 45,000,000 Germans in the western occupation zones will be self-supporting and to enable them to contribute to general European revival.

Today's action resulted from the general agreement on the postwar German tangle reached last week by Secretary of State Acheson and the British and French foreign ministers. The overall settlement included also the offer of limited self-government, which the Western Germans are now considering, and the proposed shift of the western zones from military to civilian control.

Under terms of a detailed agreement, the Western Germans

Hundreds Crowd Outside Chapel As Rites Are Held For Kathy

INS Staff Correspondent

ALHAMBRA, Cal., April 13 — They said goodbye today to little Kathy Fiscus.

They said goodbye with music and with prayers and with flowers.

And they said goodbye with love, spoken and unspoken, for the 3½-year-old blue-eyed baby who perished in the black depths of a 230-foot abandoned water well.

Hundreds Attend Rites

Hundreds of mourning relatives, friends and neighbors filed silently past the little blue casket in an Alhambra funeral chapel during the last rites for the tot whose fall down a San Marino well shaft set off a sadness which touched the ends of the earth.

Those who cried quietly when they walked past the casket were comforted somewhat by the serenity and the near-smile which hovered on the little girl's lips.

Kathy wore a frilly white dress, one which she was to have worn for an Easter egg hunt this Sunday.

Her favorite doll lay beside her as it had during the nights of childish slumber before a dark fate ordained that she must die. She looked doll-like herself as if she were asleep in her own little bed, her golden curls nestling on the pink silk pillow.

15 Minute Eulogy Given

The Rev. Bertrand Crist, pastor of the San Marino Congregational church, voiced the sympathetic words of the funeral oration, which was heard by the huge crowd outside the chapel by means of a loudspeaker system.

In the 15-minute eulogy, Dr. Crist, who had baptized Kathy last year, comforted the family, touching briefly on the childish beauty and helpfulness of the little girl. He also thanked the heroic rescue workers for their brave but futile efforts.

Favorite Song Sung

Eula Beal, noted Los Angeles concert soprano, sang Kathy's favorite Irish song, "Too-Ra-Loo-Ra-Loo-Ra."

Dr. Crist said:

"We give thee thanks, oh Lord, for this child, for her kindness, her truth, and the gentle goodness of her life which she has passed into our lives.

"We are thinking of her home and family, and the companionship of her playmates, of her joy in music, and of the happiness she shared when she knew she was being helpful."

Praises Rescue Workers

He also spoke of the "high courage, the neighborliness, and the unrelenting efforts of those tireless men of special skills who attempted the valiant rescue task. They have taught us the brotherhood of man."

Dr. Crist then recited the 23rd Psalm.

Many of those men who risked their lives and volunteered to get her out were present at the services, notably Homer E. Blickensderfer, 43, one of the major heroes of the 52-hour futile race with death.

Blickensderfer and others of the dauntless rescue squad acted as honorary pallbearers. They wept, as they did last Sunday night when Kathy's lifeless body was brought to the surface.

Her sorrowing parents, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Fiscus, and their other daughter, Barbara, 9, sat apart from others who shared their grief.

Floral tributes filled the 175-seat chapel, despite the family's plea that none be sent. Some of the flowers came from as far away as Texas and Illinois.

American Legion Head Cites Need For Unified Armed Forces

AUSTIN, April 13 (U.P.)—S. Perry Brown of Beaumont, national commander of the American Legion, told a joint session of the legislature today that achieving a full unification of the armed forces is the biggest single problem facing the nation.

Brown, flanked by Texas officials of the Legion, was introduced by Gov. Beauford Jester.

He spoke in the House chamber.

The national commander also complimented members of the legislature for their recent action in attempting to purge state colleges of Communists.

Their action, he said, indicated Texas' lawmakers recognized "the problems apparent in our school system."

Brown touched briefly on what he termed the veterans' problem of housing, aid to an estimated 500,000 needy veterans and proposals to simplify applications for Veterans administration assistance.

He suggested that in addition to "the $5,000,000 or $6,000,000" in federal funds allocated for veterans aid in Texas, some $500,000 should be made available for use by the state in seeing that "claims are properly handled."

Railroad Gains Permission To Discontinue Waco-Yoacum Run

AUSTIN, April 13. (AP)—The Court of Civil Appeals said today that the Texas and New Orleans railroad company could discontinue passenger train service between Waco and Yoakum, if it wants to.

The decision reversed a judgment of a Travis County District court against the railroad. It also enjoined the Railroad commission from enforcing an order issued June 9, 1947, which stopped the T&NO from discontinuing passenger service on the 171-mile line.

The railroad asked discontinuance of the service — one train daily each way—on the grounds that passenger service had shown an operating loss for several years.

The trial court sustained the commission order and found that the railroad "had not changed its type of train service in the last ten years in an effort to attract additional passenger train business."

The appeals court held today that "the trial court erroneously concluded that the Railroad commission order was reasonably supported by substantial evidence."

REWARDS FOR HEROES POUR IN—At the rate of 100 per hour, letters are pouring in to the post-office in Los Angeles containing money to reward the 50 to 60 men who lost the heartbreaking race with death in their attempt to rescue little Kathy Fiscus. Looking Better, Handsomer!

LUBBOCK, TEXAS, April 13,

So many women have been commenting on the improvement in male appearance hereabouts that we put a sleuth on the story. He snooped, he interviewed, he checked all over town. Here's his scoop: "The men who look better are using Pal Hollow Ground razor blades 100%. I've talked to dozens and the story's the same — Pal Hollow Ground. They tell me they shave better, cleaner, with no irritation to tender skins. Pal still gives you 4 for 10¢, 10 for 25¢, 21 for 49¢, and 44 for 98¢ — Single or Double Edge. So I bought some myself! How do I look?" adv.

Floyd County Men Take Honors With Cattle At Plainview Show

Improvement Noted

Eaton recalled the first show which was a two-day event having about 80 entries. All of these, he remembered, were Jerseys with the exception of one or two Guernseys.

"The diversity of breeds is the best thing that could have happened to the show," Eaton stated. "I haven't been able to get back to every one of the 22 shows but I have noticed improvement each time I have been able to make it."

At noon some of the officials and Jersey show superintendent D. W. Sherrill, Lubbock county agent, were guests of the Plainview Lions club.

The High Plains Guernsey Breeders association announced that they had chosen a new panel of officers and directors for 1949. P. B. Harbin, Whitharral, was named president; A. B. Buchanan, Brownfield, vice-president and Clifford Throckmorton, Levelland, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Directors named were, S. O. Ellis, Earth; Marvin Mason, Muleshoe, and C. K. Teaff, Muleshoe.

Field Day Planned

The Guernsey breeders also revealed plans to hold a field day at Levelland, August 11. The field day will coincide with the district breeders meet. At that time they will decide whether they will enter a herd in the Dallas fair.

The annual A & M Round-Up entertainment started at 4 p. m. with agents and instructors from the extension service acting as hosts to the officials, breeders, exhibitors and visitors.

A banquet for all breeders was given at the Hilton hotel last night to climax the day. Thursday has been named official Milking Shorthorn Day.

The complete list of Wednesday's winners and their entries is as follows:

New York Liberal Party Names FDR, Jr., For Congress Race

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—The Liberal party nominated Franklin D. Roosevelt, jr., today for a seat in Congress.

The party decided to place his name before the voters in a special election May 17 to fill a seat left vacant by the death of Rep. Sol Bloom (D-NY).

Young Roosevelt, whose father's name was political magic in New York for many years before and after he became president, will face at least three opponents.

Tammany hall Democratic organization leaders rejected him and gave the Democratic party nomination to municipal court Justice Benjamin Shalleck.

New Move Seen In China's War

NANKING, April 13. (INS) — Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, former president of China, was reported today to be planning a new move against the Communists from Yunan province in the event peace talks between Nationalists and Reds at Peiping bog down.

This possibility came to the fore after the independent newspaper Ta Kung Pao, reported that Gen. Lung Yun, a former governor of Yunan, had written acting President Li Tsung-Jen that a "reactionary" is planning to lead his "remnant military strength" into the province to continue the war against the Reds.

Quick Action Sought

Observers in the Nationalist capital believe that Lung was referring to Chiang, who returned to his home at Fenghua in South China after retiring from the presidency.

Lung was reported to have warned acting President Li to be "prompt in his decisions" in concluding peace with the Communists in order to avert new dangers of war.

The Chinese newspaper quoted Lung as saying he supported Li's efforts in seeking peace with the Communists. Lung was ousted as governor of Yunan by Chiang in 1945 on the grounds that Lung was a pro-Communist. Last winter Lung escaped to Hong Kong and reaffirmed his support of the Communists.

Meantime, Red forces, after taking North China, are poised on the north bank of the Yangtze river, apparently marking time pending the outcome of the Peiping peace talks. The Communists are expected to launch an offensive across the river and smash toward Nanking if the current peace parley fails.

General Agreement Reached In Washington Newspaper Strike

WASHINGTON, April 13. (INS) —The three-day pressmen's and stereotypers' strike against all four Washington daily newspapers ended tonight with announcement of agreement on all issues in dispute.

The Washington Times-Herald and Post said they would resume publication of their newspapers tonight.

A joint statement by union and management representatives disclosed that the pressmen and stereotypers won a $6 per week increase with an additional $1 a week hike beginning Nov. 1, 1949.

The work week for pressmen and stereotypers was reduced from 37½ hours to 36¼ hours with an agreement to pay time and a half for a sixth day of work over 36¼ hours.

The pressmen and stereotypers were given three weeks vacation for employes with five years service or more on Washington newspapers.

An extra man will be added to each of the two different press arrangements on Washington newspapers when plans can be made for the employment of experienced pressmen.

Soviets Warned By British That Western Armies Are Superior

LONDON, April 13. (U.P.)—British broadcasts have warned Russians that the Soviet Army is inferior to the forces of the western nations, it was learned today.

The broadcasts are featured by a western counterpart of the Axis Sallys and the Tokyo Rose of World War II in the person of former Russian Lt. Col. Gregory Tokaev, former assistant professor at the Zhukovsky military aviation academy in Moscow.

Tokaev has advised the Russians in his broadcasts beamed to the Soviet to "think" over his warning.

Is Former Communist

The Russian, an active Communist party worker for 11 years, walked out on the Soviets last year while he was part of the Russian military administration in Germany.

In recent broadcasts transmitted by the British Broadcasting corporation he has told his former comrades that they are worse off than workers in the western world and that their Communist masters are deliberately deceiving them.

"We have been told that our armed forces and our military equipment are better than those anywhere abroad," Tokaev said in a broadcast. "But this is an absolute lie."

"Here, too, we are lagging far behind. All of these problems could not fail to make me think. I consider that the whole of our people should think them over. No one else will do the thinking for us."

Holland will direct the orchestra.

Leading roles are to be filled by Don McGaughey of Washington, D. C.; Romadene Alexander of Abilene; Stanley Lockhart of Charleston, W. Va.; Jeannette Scruggs Lipford of Abilene; June Nalley of Merkel; and Don Finto of Lamesa.

CITY COLLEGE STUDENTS CONTINUE PICKET LINE—In their strike against the alleged anti-Semitism and racial discrimination of two faculty members, City College of New York students march in a picket line in front of the main campus buildings. As the strike went into its second day an increasing number of students joined the picket line. Unlike first day of the strike, no brawls marked the demonstration. (AP Wirephoto.)

$16 Billions Approved For Armed Forces

House Makes Speedy Job Of Passing 'High Finance' Bills

By ARTHUR EDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 13—It was pleasant sitting in the House today, listening to the money pile up in attractive heaps.

"Five billion dollars," cried a voice. A moment later, "eight billion dollars." And then "sixteen billion dollars."

This was a day the House did its high financing.

There was a $595,890,000 item for veterans' education and unemployment benefits. But mostly there was a $16,000,000,000 item for the armed services.

Solon Congratulates Colleagues

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) was so carried away with it all that he got up to congratulate the House on the speedy way it has dealt with money bills.

The House has worked so rapidly, he said, it is going to get all it regular appropriations passed by Easter.

"A splendid record," he said. "An unprecedented record . . . an unexampled record."

Rep. Shafer (R-Mich) wasn't impressed. He said if Cannon hadn't offered so many objections the 80th—i.e., Republican—Congress would have got out of the money trenches by Easter too.

More Demands Seen

Rep. Keefe (R-Wis) wasn't impressed, either. He said there would be plenty of other demands for money ere this Congress ends.

"It's a little too early to pat ourselves on the back, sir," he cried.

Fortunately, with all that money going out, it's pleasant to report that the government figures on taking a little in.

The House passed a bill which would permit the sale of housing developments near Washington, Cincinnati and Milwaukee. The projects cost $40,000,000.

"Will the gentleman tell us how much this will cost the government?" asked Rep. Joe Martin (R-Mass). "How much will we lose?"

The gentleman, Rep. Spence (D-Ky), said he couldn't tell.

RADAR USE REVERSED

WEST SPRINGFELD, Mass., (U.P.)—Radar, employed in some states to trap automobile speeders, will be used here to forestall them. Radar will aid in a scientific survey of traffic. From the results, recommendations will be made for the location of traffic signs to control speeding.

They are Pablo Escobar, 44, of Elsa, and Francisco Hernandez, 34, and Leonardo Galvan, 24, both of Edinburg.

Tons of dirt slid in on them yesterday as they sealed a tile sewer line behind a ditching machine.

Volunteer firemen hurriedly summoned directed the rescue.

WOULD AID ATOMIC ENERGY, FLOOD CONTROL SETUP

Truman Requests Creation Of Columbia Valley Authority For Development Of Pacific Northwest

By DARRELL GARWOOD
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 13—President Truman asked Congress today to establish a Columbia Valley authority to carry forward atomic energy, power, irrigation and flood control projects in the Northwest.

The President, in a special message, said that aluminum and other electro-metallurgical industries and atomic energy projects in the Pacific Northwest depend on "turning hydro-electric potentialities into realities."

Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash) immediately said he will introduce legislation to carry out the President's wishes.

Solon Praises Plan

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), a supporter of the Tennessee Valley authority which Mr. Truman praised in his message, said a Columbia authority would be "of tremendous benefit to the nation."

The new authority, to be known as the Columbia Valley administration, would take over Grand Coulee dam in Washington state and Bonneville in Oregon—two of the greatest power and irrigation projects in the world.

Grand Coulee's irrigation alone is to provide homes for 350,000 families. The President pointed out that the Pacific Northwest's population has increased 37 per cent and its crop tonnage 25 per cent since 1940.

Would Consolidate Activities

The proposed authority would take over functions now held by the Bureau of Reclamation, Bonneville Power administration and Army engineers. Mr. Truman said:

"The Tennessee Valley authority has been spectacularly successful in achieving many of the goals of wise and balanced use of resources.

"There should be unified treatment of the related resources within each natural area of the country—generally the watershed of a great river.

"It is plain common sense that the planning and operation of a system of river structures is a job for a single agency."

Broad Program Planned

The Columbia administration would be directed to plan dams, and irrigation, flood control, navigation and fish and forestry protection projects possibly costing billions of dollars. Mr. Truman said:

"This consolidation will provide not only for a balanced program of constructing dams, irrigation works; power transmission lines and other facilities, but also for a workable operating plant for using these facilities simultaneously for flood control, navigation, power generation and transmission, fish protection and other purposes."

The lengthy presidential message said the proposal would require no new federal authority, but only the consolidation of existing powers.

The President said the Columbia administration should seek the "advice, assistance and participation" of state and local governments, and "observe existing water rights and water rights laws of the several states."

Headquarters of the administration, he added, should be established within the region, "accessible to the people who live there."

YOU CAN ENJOY GOOD HEALTH

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS

and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can, now, hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results seven days after you start taking it.

DRUGGISTS, Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Mineral Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize its priceless value.

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite when your eyes lack that bright spark and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

Read What They Say!

"We not only sell Geo-Mineral"—says G. A. Littlefield, Manager of Smith's Drug Store, Gastonia, N. C.—"but as pharmacists, we know good medicine, and we believe there is none better than Geo-Mineral as a supplement for mineral deficiency. Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums know the value of natural minerals. We are not surprised at the many users who came back to buy more and told us stories of amazing benefit. We recommend it to our friends, relatives, and beloved ones, and to every one wishing for better health."

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Woman's Stomach Serves As 'Safe' For Wrist Watch

KANSAS CITY, April 13 (INS) — Medical authorities at a Kansas City hospital wondered what to do tonight about a 17-jewel, dime-size watch swallowed by a young woman who deposited it in her stomach for "safekeeping."

Doctors utilized X-rays to confirm that the watch was inside the woman, gave her some pills and waited to see what might happen.

The 23-year-old patient was held on a police charge of drunkenness.

Held By Police

The watch was smallowed in the presence of Kansas City police who had found the blonde young woman "walking home from a date" early this morning.

Officers in a patrol car took her into the station for her own protection, they said, and a station sergeant suggested she surrender her valuables until she was released.

They said the young woman objected to handing over her valuables and raised her arm, bit through the slender strap holding the tiny watch and then gulped the timepiece down.

She jeered:

"Let's see you get it . . ."

Police didn't try to recover it. They called an ambulance.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Margaret Turner, Woman's Editor of Lubbock Avalanche and Journal publications, is sending back articles from Europe where she is vacationing. The third of the series, which was written on shipboard, appears today.)

AT SEA—This is written on a Tuesday night and we have been up to check the sailing chart on the bulletin board and to be made to realize that our trip is nearing the end of the voyage. One could not have prayed for better weather. The sun has shown throughout most of the days, pouring its rays on an ocean as smooth as glass and as blue as a ribbon. The easy sailing has caused a great languor to sweep over most of the passengers and you see them sleeping in the lounges and in their deck chairs.

We had thought that we would hear many accents once we landed on the Continent, but we were not prepared for the foreign tongues to start as soon as the Nieuw Amsterdam got underway. Judging from the list of passengers and what we have seen and overheard, most of the voyagers are of foreign extraction—in the main Dutch. This is their shop, of course, and they are headed for Rotterdam. The crew, which seems to be made up of about 700 youngish looking men and women, is almost altogether Dutch. They are polite and answer our questions with soft voices, charming words and a great many smiles.

We have made one acquaintance on the ship; one Johnny Brandenburg, who is librarian for the cabin class. We went by the first day to ask for a few post cards and for a Reader's Digest. Having dropped an airmail letter in the slot with an American stamp, we were slightly startled to discover it wouldn't be any good in Southampton, so we went by to ask Johnny to fetch it back. He is completing his contract with the line this this year and will return to his beloved Amsterdam next winter to continue his favorite work as a guide. His English being more understandable than the other Hollanders we had encountered, we plied him with questions.

JOHNNY was horrified to discover we have not included a trip to Holland in our plans. Their tulip celebration is April 30, birthday of Queen Juliana, and the young librarian's face was wreathed in smiles as he showed us snapshots of the flower fields and described the culture and harvesting of the world famous bulbs. When we complimented him on his excellent English, he told us he had studied the language for five years in public school, along with French, Dutch and German.

The Nieuw Amsterdam provides a program of activities throughout the day for those who can stay awake. These attractions include recently released movies, such as "Connecticut Yankee," "Knock On Any Door, "Sorrowful Jones" and "Take Me Out to The Ball Game." There are tea and evening dances in the lounges with the ship orchestra furnishing the music. Horse and turtle races are staged in the early hours after dinner and a ping pong tournament has been in progress on the prom deck since the first day out.

This afternoon a brilliant young Dutch pianist named Jan de Man played a concert of Chopin numbers. He has been on a concert tour in the eastern states, winding up in Carnegie hall.

KNOWING that the Queen Elizabeth was leaving the day after we embarked, we were interested whether or not she would pass us. Early Saturday morning Mrs. John D. Lynch awakened to hear hurried steps and much chattering. Hastily throwing a few clothes she dashed out and rounded a corner to inquire of a stolid faced steward "Is the Queen passing?" To his startled look and Teutonic shrug she added, "The Queen Elizabeth, that is!" Seeing she was getting nowhere, Mrs. Lynch turned away and asked of a woman rushing by the cause of the great commotion. "The people are going to breakfast," she shouted, without stopping and Mrs. Lynch was so taken aback she did not yell her thanks until the woman was half a block away.

Before we finally were told that the good queen ship passes sixty miles from us, we had decided that the Dutch would not look out to see if any English ship was passing by, if she were towed by jet planes and accompanied by two icebergs.

DEATH PENALTY ASKED

Sentences To Be Passed Today In U. S. War Trials Of Germans

By DONALD DOANE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NUERNBERG, Germany, April 13.—An American court completed tonight the reading of verdicts convicting 19 former German officials of war crimes.

Sentences will be passed tomorrow. The prosecution has asked the death penalty. Only two of the 21 Germans who went on trial 15 months ago were freed. The trial, longest of the war crimes hearings, involved a total of seven counts.

Objection Is Filed

Judge Leon W. Powers of Dennison, Ia., filed a dissenting opinion. He complained that a strange doctrine of "mass or collective guilt" was applied in the majority ruling of the two other judges.

His dissent, however, will not affect the validity of the other convictions. Judges of the majority are William C. Christianson of Red Wing, Minn., and Robert T. Maguire of Portland, Ore.

Powers insisted that an American war crimes court is not empowered to lay down new international law or to enforce, as international law, any code which has not been enacted in writing.

The court found the 19 guilty, in one way or another, of helping in the Nazi program of aggression, plunder, brutality and murder.

The international military tribunal in Nuernberg nearly three years ago convicted the top Nazis who conceived these crimes. Wardens, guards and others who carried out the programs were convicted at numerous trials here and in Dachau.

It took the court three days, including night sessions, to read its 833-page verdict.

Former Dancing Star Sues Film Company

DENVER, April 13 (INS) — Gilda Gray, toasted internationally in the roaring 20's as queen of the shimmy dancers, sued Columbia Motion Pictures corporation for a million dollars today in Denver.

The still-glamorous dancer, who took up a quiet country life some time ago on a ranch near Larkspur, Colo., charged that Columbia's picture "Gilda," was based on her life, and "invaded her privacy."

Miss Gray said that the box office hit starring Rita Hayworth, the Aly Kahn's fiancee, and Glenn Ford, also "subjected her to humiliation and public notoriety."

She alleged that the corporation realized a gross profit of more than $7,500,000, and that she was not asked for permission to use any part of the material assertedly drawn from her actual life.

The suit seeks one-half million dollars in actual damages and another $500,000 in exemplary damages.

The former Broadway favorite appeared with one of her attorneys, Ivor O. Wingren of Denver, to register the legal action in U.S. District court this morning. Three Colorado Springs lawyers, Martin J. Murphy, H. T. McGarry and Rowan Thomas, also are representing her.

Miss Gray alleged in her complaint that she has used the name "Gilda" since 1919, and that it sets her apart from other actresses, dancers and people of the theatrical world. The name, the suit alleged, "has acquired a unique significance as exclusively identifying plaintiff in the minds of the general public both in the United States and in other countries."

The massaging was carried out through a "buttonhole" incision in the child's chest.

Today, Tommy was allowed to get up for lunch. His mother said he shows no ill effects from his experience.

South Plains Relays Opens At Texas Tech On Friday

456 Athletes Are Entered In Meet

If the success of a track meet can be judged by the number of athletes participating, then the South Plains Relays Friday and Saturday at Texas Tech should be a whooping success with 456 boys already entered.

Preliminaries get underway at 2 p.m. Friday, and the finals begin at the same hour Saturday. No finals will be run on Friday, and at least the top six performers in the field events will advance to the finals. It is probable also that only six individuals or teams will compete in the track events Saturday.

Sponsored by the City Recreation department, Texas Tech, Lubbock Public schools, and the Chamber of Commerce, the relays this year will be the second annual track show and one that apparently is becoming the top cinder meet in West Texas.

35 Schools Entered

The addition of Anton and Memphis to the entry list has moved the total of schools entered to 35, and the competition should be the best of the season. A staff of 35 persons will be used to help run the relays smoothly and with least loss of time, and they will help keep the spectators off the field and in the stands. The track and field managers are E. J. Lowrey, Curtis Barrett, Maxie McKnight, Morley Jennings, and A. C. (Stump) Hamilton.

To meet expenses of the meet and provide trophies for individuals and teams, an admission price of 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for children will be charged.

First, second, and third place awards will be given to individuals in the form of miniature track shoes,—gold for first, silver for second, and bronze for third place. The top three teams in the relays will be awarded trophies. All trophies and awards may be seen at Baker company.

Stag Supper Slated

A stag supper honoring all coaches will be held at Texas Tech gym Friday at 7 p.m., sponsored by the Double T alumni. All visiting coaches, whether or not they have teams entered, are invited to the party, and a "Bull Throwing" trophy will be awarded to the coach with the biggest yarn.

Winner of the team trophy last year was Odessa with 30 points, and Lubbock was second with 25, just nosing-out third place Abilene which had 24½. Byron Townsend of Odessa took first place individual honors in the meet with 18½ points, almost two-thirds of the total for the winning team.

The Odessa team has an even chance of finishing first in the meet this year, but Amarillo, victor over Odessa at the West Texas Relays, may emerge in front. The Sandies are very powerful in the field events, with Charles Seiber being the best bet for Amarillo.

Fourteen events will be run on both days, and records are expected to fall.

OTHER LEAGUE CLUBS BETTER LOOK OUT—George Schepps, left, Hubber general manager, and Jackie Sullivan, Hubber playing manager, get their heads together for a discussion of the 1949 Lubbock Baseball team. The fabulous Schepps is a solid backer of the Hubbers, using players from his Class B Greenville club to bolster the Hubbers and players from both teams to bolster the Class D Corpus Christi nine. In all of Schepps' years in baseball, he never has had a club that finished out of the first division. He maintains that he won't start this season. Other WT-NM League clubs take warning.

Tinker Nine Drubs Boys Club, 18 To 8

Thomas Tinker's baseball team unlimbered its big guns Wednesday afternoon at Boys club diamond, defeating Boys club, 18-8, with a 12-hit barrage that used up three club hurlers.

With the aid of a sharp wind which helped carry the ball, the Tinker batters connected for five home runs. Leading the hitting was Whistle Banks with two singles and a homer in three trips to the plate, and Jack Butler with two home runs and a triple.

Buddy Lewis of the Tinkers had two four-ply blows and a single, batting in seven runs. Two men were on base each time he homered. Lewis, incidently, was the winning pitcher, and Bob Coffee caught.

Leading the 10-hit Boys club attack was Buddy Maner with two doubles in four trips, and Jackie Whitehead singled once and walked three times.

Boys club pitchers were Jackie Martyn, Joe Hall and Carroll Walker.

Tony Savage, coach of the Fort Worth Rangers of the U. S. Hockey League, shot a 64 on the golf course in Texas recently.

Weaver Wins Go From Kasabaski

Age and experience proved to be a little more than Alex Kasabaski, the Boston Russian, could cope with last night at Sled Allen's and Buck Weaver copped two out of three falls in the main event.

The two preceding matches also produced plenty of action, with George Blackley and Ace Abbott wrestling 20 minutes to a draw in the preliminary and Rod Fenton and Pierre LaBelle went to a draw in their two out of three falls 45-minute time limit semi-final bout.

Russian Wins Second

Weaver and Kasabaski wrestled 14 minutes in the opening fall before Weaver tossed the aggressive Russian with his Texas bulldogger grip. The winner took a lot of punishment before he slipped the fatal toss on Kasabaski.

Boston's Russian pride and joy came back to win the second fall in nine minutes with a pull crab, after he had worked effectively on Weaver's left leg. Weaver barely was able to leave the ring under his own power.

But the veteran was not to be outdone. He came back to get himself all but pinned before slipping a head scissors on Kasabaski after eight minutes of wrestling.

Fenton Subdues LaBelle

In the semi-final, Fenton went 28 minutes before subduing the improved LaBelle with an armlock. After the usual rest period, the two grapplers came back and went 27 minutes without a fall. LaBelle was on the verge of slipping a pullcrab on Fenton when the bell ended the match.

Blackley and Abbott gave the crowd a good show for its money in the opener, using plenty of action and applying holds that came close, but failed. After 20 minutes, the bell rang stopping one of the better opening matches.

DUSTY WEATHER SLOWS PRACTICE

Tech Track Squad Prepares For Dual Meet With Lobos Saturday

South Plains weather blew up no good for the Texas Tech track and field squad, which is getting ready for its first dual meet of the season Saturday at Albuquerque, N. M., against the University of New Mexico.

Yesterday's stinging sand and high winds again virtually halted Coach Maxey McKnight's efforts to get the Red Raiders into top form. A bare few brave and hardy souls ventured forth to run and limber up, but the majority of the Raider cindermen remained behind the shelter of dormitory walls.

Reynolds Rests Leg

At least the bad weather hasn't been all bad for the Raiders. It gives speedster Charley Reynolds a chance to give his bad leg a good rest. And Ben Wilson, whose left leg is bothering him still, also has a chance to get additional rest.

But the bad weather also interfered with efforts to develop Charley Pinnell into one of the best pole vaulters Tech has boasted in recent years. In the triangular meet at Abilene Saturday, Pinnell went over the bar at 11 feet, six inches. That kind of vaulting could give Tech, dreadfully weak in field events, the additional strength it needs.

Coach McKnight and his squad is due to leave Friday morning at 8 for Albuquerque. They will meet the Cherry and Silver cindermen Saturday afternoon in a dual meet that may give some insight into how the two squads will fare in the Border Conference meet in May.

Lobos Not Impressive

The Lobos haven't been especially impressive on the track so far this year, but the Raiders will have to pile up points in track events to offset their weakness in the field. It could be a close meet. And if Reynolds and Wilson aren't in shape, it probably will be.

McKnight is pinning his hope on his sprinters, including Reynolds, Moon Mullins and Seth Murphey. His quarter-milers will include Joe Wilson, Ben Wilson, and Costin Bufkin. In the longer track events, McKnight will rely on Edgar Hawkins and Claude Freeman.

Ed Clepper, top point man for the Raiders, will go along to give Pinnell help in the hurdles, as well as taking part in his best event, the high jump. Pinnell also will attempt to scan the bar in the jumping event.

As for the other field events, the path is wide open. At least McKnight has received one blessing; the temperature is up in the 80s for him.

Monroe Men's, Women's Fives To Play Teams From Carlisle

The basketball stars of yesteryear will shine again Friday when the Monroe men's and women's teams, sponsored by the Home Demonstration club play the teams from Carlisle, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The two teams are composed of club members and other women and men in the communities 30 years old and upward to include grandmothers and grandfathers.

Some of the players have not played for 15-25 years.

Westerners Face Altus On Friday

Three rough baseball games face the Westerners this week when they meet Altus, Okla., on their trip Friday and Saturday.

Only luck and the breaks can keep the Westerner victory streak intact since the team is lacking pitchers for three contests in a two-day period—one game Friday and two Saturday.

Coach Fred Taylor said Wednesday that probably the only way his team can win is to hit the ball more often than Altus. Last year the Westerners lost the first game by a large margin and came back with a hitting spree in the second, only to lose a close decision by one run.

One of the two pitchers being counted on, Bennie Day, is not in shape at present because of a bad back. He pulled a muscle in practice several days ago, and Tuesday hurt it again. So that leaves only Jimmy Hamilton in top condition. His presence on the mound may give the high school nine at least one of the three games.

Wednesday afternoon the emphasis was on batting and fielding practice, and the boys spent the entire workout chasing flys and batting, except for the infielders who had a fast infield drill. A strong wind and blowing sand took most of the fire out of the practice, however.

A special bus will carry the team to Altus, leaving at 8 a.m. Friday.

Lubbock Preps For Plains Relays

A throat infection may keep Alfred Adair, Westerner cinder star out of action for the preliminaries in the South Plains Relays Friday.

If Adair is unable to compete it will seriously hamper the Westerner bid for places in the field events where Adair was tops in the high jump and pole vault. Last week he also ran on the 440-yard relay team.

The thinclads have been tuning up for the relays this week, and Tuesday competed against Texas Tech freshmen in several events.

Wednesday's practice was primarily to limber up as the wind prohibited a hard workout by the boys on the squad. But Coaches Pat Ferris and Fred Brown have hopes of winning a few first places Saturday.

The complete list of entries in each of the preliminaries is unknown at present, but at least 20 Westerners will enter the meet.

Sixteen Westerners qualified last week at the district meet for the regional to be held at Texas Tech April 23. They are Charlie Williams, Donald Decker, Alfred Adair, W. J. Blake, Cecil Caddell, Richard Allen, Douglas Ross, Donnie Rawls, Bob Davis, Danny Boone, Eddie Goetze, Morris Moyers, Dale Young, Malcolm Young, Don Hancock, and Wayne Stroud.

Seventh Street Eagles Drop Junior Optimists, 13 To 4

The Seventh Street Eagles defeater Junior Optimists, 13-4, yesterday at the Optimist diamond in the first scheduled baseball game between the two teams.

Billie Tucker was the winning pitcher, getting eight strikeouts, and Heavy Boyd got credit for the loss. James Solly homered for the Eagles with the bases loaded.

Practice Slated—Weather Permitting

Sandstorm Welcomes Hubber Squad Home

Initiation exercises were conducted yesterday noon for six members of the Lubbock Hubbers, who accompanied 10 other players back to this city.

The exercises consisted only of exposing the players to their first sand storm, West Texas kicking up its warmest welcome in favor of the Hubbers. The storm was so strong that a scheduled afternoon practice session was blown out.

The Hubbers arrived by bus from Abilene yesterday noon going directly to the Hilton hotel, where they will stay temporarily. The squad was scheduled to go through an afternoon workout at Rosenthal Field, but Manager Jackie Sullivan called it off after a second look at the weather.

Session Slated Today

Today the Hubbers will report to Rosenthal Field at 11 a.m. for a two-hour session which may last even longer. Certain weaknesses have shown up in the two exhibition games played on the road back from Greenville that Sullivan wants to correct. And other mistakes made during their Greenville training camp days also will be worked on.

The Hubbers have only today for a practice session, meeting the Abilene Blue Sox here Friday night, Pampa Saturday night and Amarillo Sunday afternoon. Both night games will begin at 8 p.m. and the Sunday game at 3 p.m.

Tickets On Sale

Meanwhile, Mrs Sam Rosenthal, club owner, said that opening day tickets had gone on sale at the Hub Clothiers and were being sold around the city by Junior Chamber of Commerce members.

The Jaycees broke into the act when they expressed a desire to increase their limited treasury. The general admission tickets for the opening game will sell for $1 even, the Jaycees receiving the difference between the usual price and the price for the opening night.

Mrs. Rosenthal also announced that persons buying season reserved seat books could pick up their books at the Lubbock Baseball Club offices any time. The club offices now are located in the Shaw building.

Squad In Good Shape

Hubber players are returning from a spring training grind that opened March 20 in Greenville. They come home in good shape, with no serious injuries and with most of the players in condition. Southpaw Herby Pitts has a slightly sore arm, Manager Sullivan has shin splints and sore feet, Outfielder Chick Fowler is recovering from having two teeth pulled and there are assorted other minor ills. But on the whole, it is a healthy, strong club.

This year's Hubber team gives the appearance of one destined to go a long way. The infield has defensive strength, as has the outfield, while the pitching apparently is capable. There isn't great batting strength, off performances in exhibition games, but the players are opportunists. Give them an opening and they bang in the runs. It looks like a good season.

Sears-Roebuck bowling team last night took a clean sweep of the three game series against the Reeves Insurance Agency Keglers to clinch a tie for the 1949 championship in the Men's City Bowling league at Plamor Lanes.

City Employee pin-topplers entered the tie with Sears due to a forfeit of three games by the Cunningham Amusement quintet.

West Texas Gas, sparked by a fine 607 series by Charles Begey, won two games out of three in their series with the Hub Laundry bowlers. Doug Mitchener's 531 was high for Hub.

Sid Claiborne led his Household Supply crew to a win in two out of three in a match with the Carl Maxey Lumber topplers by rolling a nice 536 series which was his high for the season and for the match.

A championship playoff series of three games is scheduled for next Thursday night at the Plamor Lanes between the two league leaders. This will mark the finale of the league in season marked by fine competition and sportsmanship.

James Opponent To Be Selected

The opponent for Gene James, Lubbock heavyweight who signed to appear in a four-rounder on the Jaycee-sponsored boxing card April 26, has not been named, but a suitable boxer will be selected.

In his first professional fight last week, James scored a TKO over James Wortham of Amarillo in a very good bout, and the local boy looked very good in doing so, putting on the best performance of his career.

The 10-round main event of the card will be the rematch between Lightweights Bill Henderson and Jean Mougin of Paris, France.

Mougin is the only professional fighter to defeat Henderson. The former French lightweight champion stopped the Texan last month at El Paso in the ninth round of an action-packed battle.

Jaycee officials reported brisk activity at the ticket office Tuesday as sale of ducats began. More than 500 of 2,540 available seats were sold the first day.

Tickets are on sale daily in the lobby of the Hilton hotel. Reservations may be made by phoning 6861. Prices are scaled at $4.80 for ringside, $3.60 for reserved seats, and $2.40 for general admission.

Chandler Meets With American Moguls

CHICAGO, April 13 (INS)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, who met with National league clubowners a week ago in Cincinnati to discuss the legal attacks against the game by former players, held a similar meeting today with American league magnates in Chicago.

As was the case last week, there was no comment from today's two-and-a-half hour meeting. Chandler said there were not any plans afoot for a joint meeting of the two leagues.

Present at today's meeting, besides Chandler, were his attorneys, Judge John Lord O'Brian and Graham Claytor, both of Washington; American league president Will Harridge; Benjamin Fiery, Joe Hostetler, and Ray Jackson, league attorneys, all of Cleveland; and the following club officials:

Philadelphia — vice president Roy Mack; Washington—secretary Edward Eynon; Boston — owner Thomas Yawkey; Cleveland — president Bill Veeck; Chicago—vice president Charles Comiskey and general manager Frank Lane; St. Louis—president Bill De Witt; New York—secretary J. ## DiMaggio's Heel To Get Treatment

BALTIMORE, April 13 (INS)—Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankee outfielder, is suffering from immature calcium deposits in his right heel and will undergo treatment for an indefinite period after his probable discharge tomorrow.

The announcement was made by Dr. Edwin L. Crosby, director of Johns Hopkins hospital, after DiMaggio was examined by his physician, Dr. George Bennett, who removed a "spur" from his left heel last November.

The statement said:

"He (DiMaggio) was seen and examined by his orthopedic surgeon who found immature calcium deposits in the tissues adjacent to his heel bone.

"He will receive the usual treatment for this condition which is seen in many parts of the body.

"It is expected he will be discharged on April 14, but will continue to receive treatment at the hospital as an out-patient.

"The length of the disability will be determined by results of the treatment.

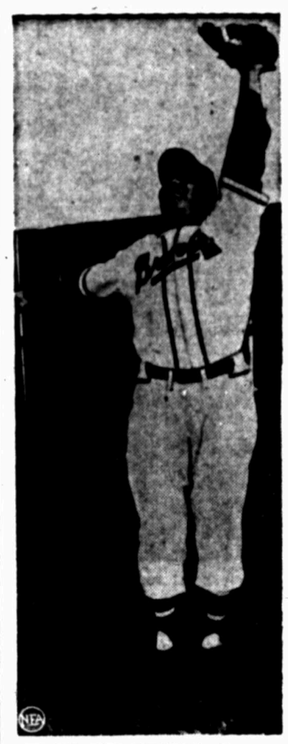

Dr. Bennett described the new ailment as a "hot heel" and said it will not require surgery. The injury will be treated with saline and novocaine injections and X-rays.

Dallas Defeats Oklahoma City

(By The Associated Press)

The Texas league race got off to a rousing start as the Dallas Eagles slaughtered Oklahoma City 23-2 and San Antonio, Shreveport and Fort Worth won their games Wednesday night.

The game at Oklahoma City was one of the most one-sided for opening day in the circuit's history.

San Antonio beat Houston, 5-3, in a lively pitching duel, Shreveport battered Beaumont, 11-3, and Fort Worth downed Tulsa, 7-5.

It was a night of home runs, featured by two circuit pokes by Bill Serena of Dallas. He hit one with the bases full and the other with the sacks empty. Vernon Kennedy, former major leaguer, handcuffed Oklahoma City with seven hits.

Dee Sanders limited Beaumont to three hits in the Shreveport victory.

The Fort Worth-Tulsa melee was a parade of pitchers with Fort Worth getting 12 hits and Tulsa 10.

Roughnecks Beat Red Devils In Sandlot Baseball Game

The Roughnecks defeated the Red Devils, 9-7, Wednesday at Jumbo Webster field in a sandlot baseball game, with Mack Love as the winning pitcher.

Pitching for the Red Devils was Charles Galimore, and he was charged with the loss. One hit was a home run by Nelson Starr, with Douglas Salmon and Charles Gilliam on base, in the bottom of the fifth inning.

Steers Sport Five Hurlers

AUSTIN, April 13 (AP)—A remarkable pitching staff holds the key to the Texas Longhorns' quest for their sixth consecutive Southwest Conference baseball championship.

Many coaches would feel lucky to have two good pitchers to rely upon, but Bibb Falk has five proven hurlers.

Charlie Gorin, a disappointment in three early appearances because of a sore arm, has pitched 13 scoreless innings in conference play and won two games.

During this stretch the Longhorns racked up three consecutive shutouts. This brought their Conference record to six victories and ran their conference winning streak to 14 games.

The Baylor Bears spoiled otherwise perfect league records the last two seasons, and two games with the Bears in Waco remain on the Texas schedule this year.

Murray Wall, the Texas reliefer last year, has virtually cinched the No. 1 starting assignment on the Texas staff. The right-hander has won three Conference games.

Coach Falk also has two outstanding sophomores—slender Jim Ehrler and left-handed Frank Womack, who won three pre-conference games.

The fifth Texas hurler is Milton Deason, a slow-curve and control pitcher. He has not been needed in conference work but was extremely effective in early season showings.

Outside of pitching, the Longhorns have been extremely shaky. Only first baseman Tom Hamilton and shortstop Al Jo Hunt have appeared in all of Texas' games. A dislocated thumb kept workhorse Dan Watson from steady catching work.

East Texas State Teachers College Drops Hardin, 14-8

COMMERCE, April 13 (AP)—Treating three opposing pitchers roughly, the East Texas Lions won from the Hardin Indians, 14-8, today for their first Lone Star Conference baseball victory this season.

Kenneth Faulkner, Albert Richardson and Leroy Finkler were the Hardin hurlers.

Taft Sickles pitched the full game for the Lions and gave up 11 hits.

Man-Wife Specialize In Winning

Colorful Managers Spark Midland Nine

MIDLAND, April 13 (AP)—They call them the Mr. and Mrs. Baseball of the minors—this husband-wife team that makes everybody a fan.

He watches the ball players, she keeps an eye on the treasury. This oil city of 25,000 has gone quite baseball mad because of Harold and Lois Webb.

They are a colorful team that specializes in winning baseball. In 1947 they had Midland in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the Longhorn league, a Class D circuit that spans big West Texas and a slice of New Mexico. Last year Midland won the pennant.

And 1949 is going to be the best y , they vow. They expect 100,000 fans to fight their way into the park during the season opening April 27.

Fans Like Webb

Mrs. Webb is vice-president, business manager, secretary-treasurer, bookkeeper and concessions manager. He is the president and whistles the boys to work on the ball diamond.

Webb is a walking advertisement for baseball in this sports-minded city. Kids follow him like the pied piper. There's a reason—his heart is big and generous and he gives away balls and bats.

The rotund Webb is a drawing card all over the league. He is the favorite target of outspoken West Texans, who like him but really like to bait him. His short, bandy legs carry him toward umpires in a hurry. When the Indians lose he really cuts up. Last season he was chased many times. Once he parked his bus by the fence and directed his club from there, defying the umpires or cops to eject him from his personal property.

Whe.. Webb measured the bases at Sweetwater, hundreds of fans berated him. But they chipped in and bought him a steel tape measure on the next trip.

$ Marks To Mrs. Webb

Webb wouldn't make a move without Lois' okay. When he shuffles up to her with a salutation of "Now honey—," she stops him automatically with "Not another cent for that rookie outfielder."

That 100,000 fans they think will be crowding in this season will be howling supporters to Webb's rabbit ears; to Mrs. Webb they will be dollar marks.

Once last season when Midland was in the heat of the play-off with Vernon for the pennant, Mrs. Webb came rushing out to the stands. This was unusual. The husband noted her presence and said: "Guess you just couldn't stand it and had to come out and see us win." "What do you mean, can't stand it," she shot back. "I'm out here because of some guy slipping in this ball game and I'm looking for him."

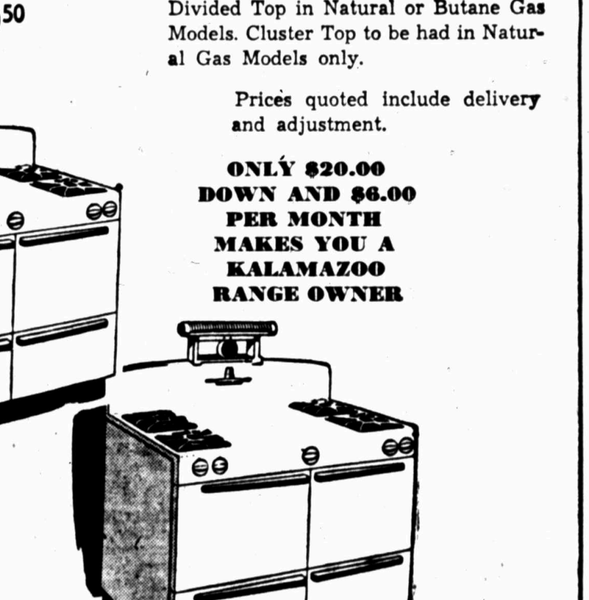

They have different slants but one common interest — winning baseball.

Drawings Slated For Bowl Seats

DALLAS, April 13 (AP) — The Cotton Bowl ticket option committee decided today that public drawings of Cotton Bowl bond and option holders names will be held May 17-18.

Names of bond holders of 12,000 Cotton Bowl seats will be drawn May 17 and those of option holders the next day. Allocation of seats—on a priority basis resulting from the order in which the names are drawn—will begin May 23.

The committeeman set May 10 as the deadline for purchase of options to be included in the drawing. Thereafter purchasers of options will be assigned whatever seats remain in the new Bowl section being built through option sales. Options are sold for $50 each.

Seven Killed, Scores Injured As Quake Hits Pacific Northwest

Severe Cracks Appear

Among the injured were three students leaving for the noon lunch hour from the Castle Rock high school with Roller. They were hit by falling bricks. Two of the injured students were taken to the hospital for treatment.

Thirteen others, including men, women and children, also were hospitalized in the Longview-Castle Rock area.

The quake apparently centered in the Seattle-Tacoma-Olympia area.

In Tacoma several cracks developed in the 14-story Washington building and the 12-story Rust building.

In addition to several of the downtown Olympia hotels, the old capitol building and the State Insurance building in Olympia were ordered closed.

In Vancouver, B. C., tall buildings, notably the 17-story newspaper building of the Vancouver Sun and the 10-story Marine building, swayed so violently that some workers fled in screaming panic into the streets, fearing an explosion.

Stairways Jammed

When power failed in downtown buildings in Seattle, elevator passengers became almost panic stricken as the buildings swayed sideways—to and fro.

Stairway exits became jammed with frightened persons running to the streets, some of them in utter panic during the terrifying three minutes that the quake lasted.

The Coast Guard at Seattle reported that two houses plunged off a cliff and were floating in Puget sound between McNeil island federal prison and Steilacoom, Wash.

Acting on a report from the warden at the prison, the Coast Guard dispatched a patrol boat to attempt to reach the houses.

Bridge Is Bowed

The warden said his prison launch had checked the floating houses without finding anyone in or clinging to them.

Seattle waterfront damage ran into hundreds of thousands of dollars as pier and other harbor installation were hit hard and most maritime activity was disrupted for the balance of the day.

Badly damaged were Seattle port of embarkation piers and publicly owned Port of Seattle terminals.

Seattle's Spokane street bridge was bowed slightly and was closed indefinitely to water traffic. Auto travel continued, however.

Homes Are Damaged

The port's Spokane street cold-storage plant was shut down after a huge watertank fell into an elevator shaft, and water breaks and ammonia leaks occurred throughout the plant.

This resulted in unestimated damage to valuable perishables stored in the huge freezers.

In West Seattle six houses were reported badly damaged but no once was injured. Two families were forced to abandon their homes. Ground in the residential area split open at several points.

Several hundred workers, eating their lunches at desks, fled from the administration building of the Puget Sound Navy yard at Bremerton when plaster began to fall from the walls.

Traffic Tied Up

Highway traffic was temporarily tied up five miles south of Port Orchard, Wash., when the earth sank an estimated three feet over a distance of several hundred feet along the road.

Rail traffic was slowed by the quake. The Northern Pacific railroad said its service was halted for two hours because approaches to bridges near Castle Rock, Wash., sagged blow the track level. After repairs were completed service between Seattle and Portland was restored.

No detailed damage estimate was immediately available, but police and fire department reports from cities in the two states and the Canadian province indicated wreckage will total multi-millions.

Seattle Police Chief George D. Eastman estimated damage as:

"In the millions."

Chief Eastman, citing spring vacation in Seattle schools, said:

"Thank God for that, or the toll would have been terrible."

Money Bill Okayed

on the Navy's more-money request against cries of protest from the House Armed Services committee.

As passed, the bill gives the Navy $5,018,873,600.

There were no changes in the Army's allotment of $4,481,834,200. The Air Force gets the largest slice—$6,215,609,000.

The total for the three services is $620,735,000 more than President Truman requested.

War Possibility Discussed

Talk of relations with Russia dominated the debate. By coincidence, Russia was accusing the United States and the 11 other Atlantic treaty countries of plotting atomic war against the Soviet Union. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko made the charge before the United Nations Assembly in New York.

In the House, the possibility of raining atomic blows on Russia in case she should launch an attack came in for perhaps the frankest discussion yet heard on Capitol Hill.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) told the House that if war with Russia comes, American bombers will have to pulverize every military center in the USSR within the first three weeks.

"With the signing of the Atlantic treaty, we have the bases," Cannon said.

Then in the next two weeks, all key points must be wiped out. Otherwise he said, Russia would occupy all Europe in 60 days.

Rep. Bentsen (D-Tex), a former squadron commander, told the House the nation's primary need is "unquestioned supremacy" in long-range bombing.

Bentsen said dictators will hesitate to start a war if they are convinced it would end quickly as a result of long-range bombing.

C-Of-C Meeting

wake up and assume our responsibilities," he stressed.

'Better America' Urged

Dollinger asserted that no longer can people "live on Main street" in their thinking and attitudes. He said that "we must find a better way of making the general welfare the responsibility and concern of everybody" and "find a way of demonstrating to the world that our system is workable and practical, with the help of freedom of enterprise."

In conclusion, he urged that local chambers of commerce be the "stepping stones" toward a better America. "Let's never forget that stocks and bonds, churches and banks, don't make a nation great. It is the nation's people who make it great," he said.

Chamber Operation Explained

Watson, a Texas Tech graduate, explained briefly the operation of the governmental affairs department of the United States chamber, pointing out that a long-range program is carried out. Activities within it include forums, public opinion polls, letters to members of Congress, and co-operation with schools and colleges to encourage students to think more deeply of the nation's problems, particularly those of a governmental nature.

Following, Watson discussed proposed legislation. He pointed out that the proposed national budget for the coming fiscal year stands near the 42 billion dollar mark. Yet, he said, no money is earmarked for payments on the national debt; moneys are provided only for payment of interest on the debt.

Warns Against Controls

He warned against the proposed "Economic Control Bill," which, he said, is dangerous since the general provisions are not of a nature that any one group will be unduly disturbed about until too late.

He said that proposals to change the minimum wage-hour law and to replace the Taft-Hartley act with a modified Wagner act will become "hot potatoes" before Congress. Watson also predicted that reports of the Hoover commission for the reorganization of the executive branch of government will be of foremost interest in the coming five or ten years.

Following conclusion of Watson's talk, a round table discussion was directed by Dollinger.

Burglaries Probed

Lubbock was fined $100 and county court costs Tuesday when he pleaded guilty of carrying a pistol. Delmar Ford, an Amarillo negro, was fined $50 and costs and sent to county jail six months for theft by bailee, officials said.

Men Post Bonds

Bonds of $600 each were posted Wednesday by Horton B. (Bo) Sessums, 26, of Lubbock route 1, and Claude Othella Randolph, 27, of Morrow addition, after both had pleaded innocent of charges of resisting arrest.

The charges grew out of a Tuesday night incident in which the car of Sessums and Randolph was allegedly chased at high speeds from the city and stopped east of Lubbock by a car in which three members of the liquor control board were riding.

Bond of $500 was set Wednesday for Willie Jones, 40, of Lubbock, who pleaded innocent of a charge of check law violation.

A $54.40 bike was reported stolen from T. W. Dyer of 2611 East Ave. D, and Thelma Hunter of 2139 Nineteenth said a bike valued at $37.50 had been stolen from 1000-block Main, police reports showed.

TCU TRACKMEN WIN

DALLAS, April 13 (AP)—TCU edged SMU 72 to 64 in a dual track and field meet today. Cleburne Price, SMU's second hurdler and field man, captured high honors, winning both hurdle events, high jump, broad jump and anchoring the sprint relay team, for 21¼ points.

Quake Recorded On Tech Seismograph

Shock waves from the Pacific coast earthquake reached Lubbock at exactly 24 seconds after 2 p. m., central standard time, Dr. Leroy T. Patton, professor of geology at Texas Tech, reported Wednesday.

The shock was one of the strongest ever recorded on the seismograph at Texas Tech, Dr. Patton said, and lasted approximately 45 minutes, shaking the indicator so strongly that, during the big shock, the entire width of the recording tape was needed to record the fluctuations.

The quake began in Seattle at 1:55 p. m., (CST), thus approximately five minutes were required for the tremors to travel through the earth to Lubbock.

Reaction To Quake

caller:

"Get this. The whole building is shaking. This is a bad quake."

Hiram Gale, 102, Washington's last surviving civil war veteran, said tonight that he slept right through the earthquake.

The temblor rocked Gale's bed in Marine hospital, atop Seattle's Beacon hill.

Gale, past national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, has been confined for treatment of what attendants describe as the "infirmities of old age."

In 10th floor cells of King county jail, Seattle, prisioners screamed for freedom, shouting their fear that the building would collapse and trap them in their cells.

Sheriff Harlan S. Callahan said several prisoners fainted.

Students Avert Tragedy

In Portland, where damage was light, hundreds of people ran into the streets fearing that buildings would collapse.

A kindergarten teacher at the Portland school of music avoided possible tragedy by keeping her class of 15 children indoors when she felt the first shocks. A few seconds later a chimney crashed onto the steps and walk. It may have crushed some of the children had they left on schedule.

At Reed college, students stood by with fire extinguishers in the chemistry laboratory while teachers with gas masks swept up the pieces of thousands of vials, glasses and chemicals shattered on the floor.

Duane Hennessy, just returned from a three and a half years news assignment in Japan for a press service, said the quake was sharp and lasted longer than the 50 he felt in the Far Eastern islands. He pointed out that he went through only the "usual Japanese variety," not the shock that destroyed Fukui last June 29.

House Damage Heavy

Mrs. May Pohsl, Seattle housewife, was returning to her home from a grocery store when she felt the quake.

She ran into a neighbor's house and, later, stopped by to check the extent of damage at other neighbors' homes.

None showed much damage.

When she entered her house, dishes, vases, many family heirlooms and curios from Cuba and China were smashed to bits.

The family cat bolted out the door.

Said Mrs. Pohsl:

"I wonder how much of the wreckage is quake, and how much cat?"

Even last rites for the dead were interrupted by the earthquake in Seattle cemeteries.

Relatives and friends of the late Harold Louis Powers were gathered at a Washelli cemetery graveside when the quake struck.

The temblor almost shook the coffin off its supports and the canopy above the grave swayed.

The officiating minister, however, spoke reassuring words and the committal ceremony continued.

Allies Relax Bans

were told they may now resume production, under varying restrictions, aluminum, ball bearings, shipbuilding, light machine tools, synthetic ammonia, heavy tractors, vanadium, and commercial radio transmitting equipment.

Remaining under the Allied ban aimed at keeping Germany disarmed are the production of arms ammunition and implements of war, synthetic gasoline and oil, synthetic rubber, magnesium and radio-active materials.

Agreements Set Aside

The reprieve of 159 plants was disclosed in a separate announcement by the State department and Paul G. Hoffman, economic co-operation administrator.

The plants to be retained include 32 in the steel industry, 88 woodworking plants, 32 chemical plants and seven in the non-ferrous metal industry.

By their latest move, the Western Allies set aside some of the Big Four agreements made at Potsdam. American officials said there is no alternative in view of Soviet Russia's continuing refusal to go along with postwar efforts of the three Western Allies to treat Germany as an economic whole.

The revised shipbuilding ruling permits Western Germany to build cargo vessels and tankers up to 7,200 gross tons and with a maximum speed of 12 knots. The Potsdam ceiling was 1,500 tons.

Senator Seeks Passage Of Uniform Texhoma Fish Law

AUSTIN, April 13 (AP) — Sen. Charles R. Jones of Bonham said today he will seek passage Monday of a uniform Texas-Oklahoma fishing license law for Lake Texhoma.

He said he was advised the Oklahoma house passed a bill setting up a $5 annual fee. Jones said he would offer an amendment to his bill pending in the Texas senate to make it conform. It now calls for a $2.50 fee.

Merrill, right, points to a photostatic copy of the receipt for a garage bill which the Hungarian government says he refused to pay and for which reason he was expelled from the country. With him is Lt. Col. Peter Kopcsak, left, former West Point football star, who also was expelled from Hungary. Both were assistant military attaches of the U. S. Legation at Budapest. Hungary also accused the two U. S. Army men of spying and "brutal abuse of diplomatic privileges." (AP Wirephoto via radio from Vienna.)

Phil Harris Tested For 20th Century-Fox Movie; Audie Murphy Signs For Two Films

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 13—Phil Harris was on the 20th Century-Fox lot today — and not for a visit! He was there having a test made for the Betty Grable picture "Wabash."

I can remember when Betty and Alice Faye were rivals and were considered the two queen bees of the lot. Now Alice is so busy with radio that she hasn't made a movie in a long time. Moreover, she's happy with her family and her home.

Maybe if Phil does make this picture with William Perlberg, he will coax Alice to come back. That's what 20th has been hoping for a long time. Let me say, Phil was good in London on the stage with Jack Benny.

Actress Praised

I have always thought that Marta Toren, Universal-International's Ingrid Bergman, was one of the prettiest girls on the screen, but just at first Marta seemed a little shy and nervous. Now, with each picture, she's been getting better. Today William Goetz told me he had exercised her option and given her the lead in "Panther's Moon," a post-war story.

He said, "I saw some of her rushes in 'Sword In The Desert' which she's making with Dana Andrews and Stephen McNally, and it's the best thing she's done."

He has assigned Robert Arthur to produce and Freddie De Cordova to direct.

Audie Murphy Gets Role

Audie Murphy and Wanda Hendrix are planning a little fishing trip. It will have to be brief, because Audie, who is now a hundred per cent well, goes into "The Kid From Texas," (which he certainly is) at U-I.

Now that he's added five pounds, Audie will make two pictures in rapid succession. The second one, which has been arranged for him by his producer and discoverer, Paul Short, is "Buckskin," a thriller about the Indian wars.

Beatty Picture Planned

"Danger In Our Life," now on the program of the brothers Nassour, Ed and William, is aptly titled since it's the true story of Clyde and Harriet Beatty, famed lion tamers.

When Clyde married Harriet, she begged him to give up the dangerous business. Then he gave her a baby lion, and that started her off as a lady lion tamer.

Maureen O'Hara's handsome brother, Charles Fitz-Simons, who has been appearing with the Abbey players in Dublin, arrives here soon. If he isn't signed for a movie, I will miss my guess.

Marguerite Churchill, the ex-Mrs. George O'Brien, has opened a hat shop in Farmer's market, and is personally designing and making the hats.

Star's Daughter Starts Career

Sarah Marshall, daughter of Edna Best and Herbert Marshall, shows great ability as an actress. Why wouldn't she? She joined the Century theatre group a month ago to try for a career.

The duet from "Maytime," which John Charles Thomas and Jeanette MacDonald sang at the Jean Hersholts' dinner, was so beautiful the guests cheered them. The duet was impromptu and sung without any rehearsal, but John Charles had sung it on the stage and Jeanette, of course, in the movies.

The fine toast Jean made to his bride of 35 years should be heard by some of the youngsters of today.

Jean, who has just finished his translation of Hans Christian Anderson's fairy tales after ten years work, has them published in a deluxe edition beautifully illustrated. He found some in Denmark last summer that had never been published. In the Hersholt library are many deluxe editions and manuscripts and many early copies of Dickens.

J. Carroll Naish is starting a school for character actors — at least, he will start it when he gets back from Ireland this summer. Well, he ought to be a good coach.

Judy Holliday and Paul Douglas had a reunion at the Hollywood Brown Derby.

James Mason, who is rapidly adding grey hairs to the publicity department at Columbia, with the interviews he's giving against Hollywood, is looking for a play to do with his wife.

Alexis Smith, who faces a suspension at Warners for refusing "Return Of The Frontiersman," has been replaced by Julie London.

Overton Elementary School Students Given Audiometer Tests To Check Hearing Defects

Pure tone audiometer tests are being given to students of M. C. Overton Elementary school this week by Ernest H. Rolston, educational consultant of the Texas State Department of Health, School Service division. With the assistance of Mrs. Bennie Sanford, elementary school nurse, these "hearing" tests are being given as another step in the experiment in health examinations being conducted this semester at Overton school, Superintendent R. W. Matthews said.

According to Rolston, 50 per cent of adult deafness could be prevented if detected in childhood, and the method used in testing the Lubbock children is the most modern. The full program of conservation of hearing being conducted throughout the state of Texas has the endorsement of the Committee on Maternal and Child Health of the State Medical association of Texas, Rolston said. The audiometer tests were also endorsed by the Lubbock Public School committee on health.

Students Are Tested

Equipment brought to Lubbock by Rolston enabled him to test up to forty students at once, a method formerly impossible, since each student had to be tested individually. Previously group testing had been possible only in the area of hearing of speech, but the pure tone equipment makes possible testing throughout the human hearing range, Rolston demonstrated with receivers through which students hear some low pitched buzzing sounds and some high pitched whistling sounds. Charts were provided on which students could check whether or not they heard groups of sounds.

The pure-tone audiometer used by Rolston provided individual ear phones for each child in the room. Experience in Texas thus far is that from four to six children per hundred need immediate medical attention on account of their ears. This process is one of finding which children need attention, and has the educational advantage of giving better opportunity to those who do not hear. The machine test also detects loss of hearing sufficient to interfere with the learning process, and is completely non-diagnosis, Rolston said.

Equipment Is Installed

Many of the larger schools of Texas have installed pure tone audiometer testing since it makes it possible to test the hearing of all the children in a school system within a year, Rolston said.

Types of audiometers are being studied now in the Lubbock school, Superintendent Matthews said, with the hope that equipment might be added to the schools of Lubbock.

Mrs. H. W. Thomas, 77, Is Claimed At Residence Here

Mrs. H. W. Thomas, 77, resident of Lubbock since October, died in her residence at 2610 N. First about 10 p. m. Wednesday. She had been seriously ill about six weeks.

The body today will be carried overland to Morrison Funeral home at Graham, Rix Funeral home said last night. Services are to be conducted Friday afternoon in the First Methodist church at Loving, near Graham. Interment will follow in a Loving cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas moved here from Fort Worth. Survivors include three sons, Cecil Thomas and Clarence Thomas, both of Plainview, and Carl Thomas of Abilene; three daughters, Mrs. P. O. Owens and Mrs. B. D Stevenson, both of Lubbock, and Miss Ann Thomas of Austin; two brothers, John Davis of Graham and Oakley Davis of Dallas; one sister, Mrs. Anna King of Wichita Falls; and seven grandchildren.

IN NO HURRY TO CHANGE

LEHIGHTON, Pa. (U.P.) — Louis Dubenow, a traveling salesman from Los Angeles, was picked up driving a car with 1947 plates. Dubenow, police said, had been using the license for 15 months and was carrying the 1948 and 1949 tags with him. He was fined $10.

Lubbock Solon Assails Jester

report their recommendations to the next legislature. The committee would be named by the governor lieutenant governor and speaker of the House.

Speaking on personal privilege, Smith told the House Jester is incapable of making up his own mind.

He said an example was Jester's decision last week "to ponder" whether a special session should be held on the Gilmer-Aikin school bills.

"What else has he ever done except ponder, piddle and mess up everything in general?" Smith asked.

Delay Prevents Debate

The West Texan criticized Jester as the House prepared again to take up the first of the Gilmer-Aikin bills.

The measures appeared caught today in the uncertainty of a few House members. More delay—deliberate or not—had prevented debate of the initial bill this morning.

Smith took the afternoon floor to make his remarks from a prepared statement.

"I would say that the Corsicana squire is confused again," he declared as some members encouraged him with yells of "pour it on."

"At the very beginning of this session of the legislature, Gov. Jester submitted as emergency legislation the so-called Gilmer-Aikin proposal. Last weekend, and according to his press report, he was confused as usual as to whether or not the proposal should be acted on now or postponed for a special session."

Citrus Bill Passed

Mrs. Rae Files Still, teacher-legislator from Waxahachie, told a reporter she thought indecision of 15 or 20 representatives was the reason Sen. Taylor's administrative reform bill had not already passed the House.

After long stalling, the Senate voted final passage of a bill setting up a Texas Citrus commission. The proposal goes back to the House for consideration of Senate amendments.

Lengthy House debate of resolutions on adjournment for Easter brought more accusations that the Gilmer-Aikin bills are being chubbed (delayed).

A House bill by Byron Tinsley of Greenville setting up a Sabine river authority passed the Senate and was sent back to the House with amendments.

The state's much-amended constitution seemed likely to remain in its crazy-quilt condition after a measure aimed at its rewriting was sent to a sub-panel of the House Committee on Constitutional Amendments last night. The subcommittee was given no instructions.

Rep. George Nokes of Corsicana wrote the proposal for a commission to study the 76-year-old document and to recommend revisions.

"Beat Around Bush"

Smith wondered out loud why the governor waited until after Taylor had knocked the idea of a special session to decide against the suggestion.

Jester said Monday he would not go along with the proposal, urging immediate action.

"Last weekend," said Smith, ". . . he (Jester) was confused as usual as to whether or not the proposal should be acted on now or postponed for a special session.

"Now we members know that he has no idea of calling a special session, yet he wanted to ponder."

Smith said he took time to 'beat around the bush and stall long enough for him to confer with the brain trust."

"What I would like to know," said Smith, ". . . is this: Do we have a governor or do we have a water boy as our chief executive?"

"It seems to me," he added, "that Beauford Jester is nothing more than a water boy incapable of making up his own mind on any important issues."

Not Fooling People

He compared the governor with "an old Spanish grandee" who would ride around his plantation on Sunday to "strew a few words of good cheer to the peons."

". . . only this time the plantation is all of Texas and the peons are us members of the legislature.

"Let him realize now that he is not fooling the members of this House, nor the people of Texas with his dictatorial attitude and that we members are fully capable of deciding what legislation should be considered and when," Smith said.

Scattered applause followed.

Rep. John L. Crosthwait of Dallas, in another personal privilege speech, predicted the school bills could not be passed before expiration of the 120 days suggested by the constitution as the length of a general session.

Trying To Help Program

He said he thought the House should know what happened when he and Rep. Jimmy Horany of Archer City went to see the governor about their request that the school bills be put off for a special session.

"I told him it could be done in 10 days then," Crosthwait said.

Crosthwait said he had been called a "traitor" and had been severely criticized for making the request. He insisted he is not opposed to the bills and to the schools. Crosthwait said he was trying to help the program.

"I just think we have the cart before the horse," he said.

"We need to study the costs first."

Two Measures Pending

Pending before the House is the school reorganization bill. The other two Gilmer-Aikin measures, including financial aspects are also pending but they have not been taken up.

Rep. Sam Hanna of Dallas, arch opponent of the G-A bills, offered an amendment to create a nominating committee of college officials to select three candidates for state commissioner of education. He wanted the state board of education to choose from the three candidates.

The nominating committee would have been comprised of the dean of education of the University of Texas, the dean of liberal arts at Texas A. and M., and presidents of nine state colleges.

A vote to table the amendment failed, 65 to 68. This was a victory for Hanna. But on a direct vote on the amendment several minutes later, a switch in strength killed the proposal, 72 to 63.

Debate of the bill is to resume tomorrow.

Prison Proposed By Court Official

BALTIMORE, April 13 (AP) — Persons interested in a modest vacation in a choice Maryland hoosegow might apply to Magistrate James Cadden.

That's about what Leroy Campbell did. He asked a Baltimore patrolman to arrest him as a vagrant. The cop obliged. A sympathetic magistrate Cadden the next day gave him three months and asked, "where do you want to take it? In Baltimore city jail or the Maryland House of Correction?"

"What's the difference?" asked Campbell.

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the magistrate. "They're both nice. The cuisine is much the same at both the jail and the House of Correction. Both institutions boast hot and cold showers. Both have nice rooms."

'Ah," said Campbell, nodding.

"But I think the climate is a little better at the House of Correction. That's out of town," Cadden explained smoothly. "I think the air is better there. Indeed, I suggest you go there."

Campbell thereupon selected the House. He'll vacation there until June.

"You shouldn't be too anxious," said the bride.

CONVICTED IN STOMPING DEATH

Youth Facing Death In Electric Chair Prays For Execution Stay

By DON REID, JR.
(Written For The Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, April 13—"If God wants me to go, I'll be ready," Buster Northern, 20-year-old condemned youth told me today.

Northern is scheduled to die in state prison's electric chair early Saturday morning. If present plans go through, they'll lead him out of the death cell about midnight Friday to the execution chamber.

I visited him in the death cell today. Northern, now 20, was convicted of stomping a 69-year-old woman to death three years ago.

Still Has Hope

"I still have hope that my sentence will be stayed," the husky, curly-haired youth told me. "I have almost three days left, but my case is in the hands of God. If he wants me to go, I'll be ready. If he doesn't, I know I will be spared."

Northern, a Catholic, said he prays constantly. The many letters he has received from church people have helped him, he added.

"People everywhere have been mighty nice to me and I have tried my best to answer all their letters. I also have sent Easter greeting cards to those who visited me here in the death cell."

Northern was convicted of fatally stomping Mrs. W. H. McHenry near Dallas March 27, 1946. The elderly woman had been living at Taloga, Okla. Driving to Dallas to visit a daughter, Mrs. Fred S. Morgan, she befriended Northern, then 17, by giving him a ride near McAlester, Okla.

Following his arrest, Northern freely admitted that he had beaten the woman, had left her unconscious, and had fled in her car.

But in conversation with me today, he said he was innocent of Mrs. McHenry's death.

"I admit being in on the robbery, but had nothing to do with the killing of the woman, there were two other men and one woman in on the deal whose names I mentioned in a statement given to the board of pardons and paroles shortly after I was received at the prison."

Northern was convicted in Dallas of murder May 6, 1946, but the conviction was reversed on a technicality. An appellate court made the reversal because although the indictment had alleged Northern stomped the woman to death. It had failed to stipulate "with his feet."

He was convicted again in January, 1948, in a second trial at Dallas.

On Nov. 10, 1948, the second conviction was affirmed and last Jan. 5, a rehearing was denied. On Jan. 12, Northern was sentenced to die Feb. 15. But January 17, he was granted a reprieve until March 17. And March 4, on recommendation of the board of pardons and paroles, Northern was granted a second 30-day stay until April 16. The board wanted to further investivate the case.

Northern knew that I frequently cover executions.

He shook hands with me as I left, and he smiled as he said: "I hope I won't get to see you Friday night."

Texas Appeals Court Reverses Ruling On Carbon Black Taxation

AUSTIN, April 13 (U.P.)— The Third Court of Civil Appeals held today that a law passed in 1941 levying an occupation tax on carbon black applied only when the material is produced from gas.

The court therefore ruled in favor of the Philtex Chemical company, reversing a decision of the trial court here.

The chemical company brought the suit to recover taxes paid in protest to the state, amounting to some $15,000 a month since Feb. 17, 1948.

George Sheppard, late state comptroller, on that date demanded payment of the tax from the chemical company.

The Philtex company paid the taxes under protest, and brought suit against Sheppard under the state's protest statute.

The company contended that the occupation tax levied under the 1941 law applies only when carbon black is produced from gas, and said it was producing carbon black from crude oil.

The appeals court said "the legislature may impose a tax on the manufacture of carbon black in any manner if it should care to. . . ."

However, it said, the present act applies to carbon black when produced from gas.

Oil Well Flows In Beaumont City Limits

BEAUMONT, April 13 (U.P.)— Oil flowed in the Beaumont city limits today for the first time in the history of this oil-ringed center.

The Liberty Workover and Drilling company's Masterson No. 1 located five miles west of the city hall, came in yesterday. It flowed clear pipeline oil at 80-100 barrels daily with a 12-64 inch choke.

Tubing pressure was 200 pounds. The crew shot perforation in the casing at 5632-47 feet, and the hole was drilled to 6061.

The producer is on the northeast flank of the west Beaumont field, which the Stanolind Oil and Gas company has operated since 1936. It was drilled for H. E. Dishman, Dr. C. B. Claypool and Harry Lucas, all of Beaumont; F. H. Carpenter, H. D. Carpenter, and J. D. Scott, all of Sour Lake, and Earl C. Hankhamer, Houston independent.

Cellulose Insulation, Paint Are Blamed In Fatal Hospital Fire

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 13 (AP) —The swift spread of flames which destroyed St. Anthony's hospital, says the Illinois state fire marshal, was helped by a cellulose wall material, old and fresh paint on the walls, and unprotected openings.

Origin of the April 5 fire, in which 75 persons died or are missing, has not been determined, said Pat Kelly, state fire marshal. Kelly, however, told a reporter that in his formal report to be made within several weeks he will include at least these three causes of the speedy progress of the flames:

"A cellulose material used as a sound-deadening tile on ceilings and walls of upper floors. This was the principal factor.

"A lot of fresh paint and old paint spread on walls.

"Unprotected vertical and horizontal openings, such as stairways and door construction between buildings."

A solemn memorial to the fire dead was held yesterday near the ruins of the three and a half story hospital building. Mayor H. D. Rinehart read a letter from President Truman in which he promised federal aid in the plans to raise $2,400,000 for a new hospital.

Sahloff was the fourth vice-president to quit Wards since Saturday.

Albert O. Steffey, vice-president in charge of retail store operations, resigned yesterday. C. A. Maxey, a former regional manager from New York, was appointed to succeed Steffey as manager of the retail store operations, but has not been made a vice-president.

5 doctors prove this plan breaks the laxative habit

If you take laxatives regularly—here's how you can stop!

Because 5 New York doctors now have proved you may break the laxative habit. And establish your natural powers of regularity. Eighty-three per cent of the cases tested did it. So can you.

Stop taking whatever you now take. Instead: Every night for one week take 2 Carter's Pills. Second week—one each night. Third week—one every other night. Then—nothing!

Every day: drink eight glasses of water; set a definite time for regularity.

Five New York doctors proved this plan can break the laxative habit.

How can a laxative break the laxative habit? Because Carter's Pills "unblock" the lower digestive tract and from then on let it make use of its own natural powers.

Further—Carter's Pills contain no habit-forming drugs.

Break the laxative habit . . . with Carter's Pills . . . and be regular naturally.

Texas High Court To Determine City's Responsibility For Sewers

AUSTIN, April 13 (U.P.) — The State Supreme court agreed today to determine whether a city can be held responsible for a child drowning in a storm sewer.

The court, granting application for a writ of error, took jurisdiction in a case appealed from Harris county.

The action involved the death of John Arthur Dilley, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Dilley.

The parents, suing the city of Houston, claimed their son died when he fell from his bicycle into an open storm sewer and was swept by flood waters to his death. The city, they said, was negligent in not having a grating over the sewer.

However, the appeals court, holding with the trial court, found that maintenance of the sewer was a governmental function necessary to the public health and that the city could not be held liable.

Radio 'Hams' Protest Greenville Decision

DALLAS, April 13. (U.P.)—Amateur radio operators in five states today were protesting a Greenville, Tex., city council order which will force a Greenville "ham"to silence his transmitter.

The council handed down the order after 11 complaints were received from commercial set owners who said an amateur station (W5IYO), operated by Bill Camp was interfering with their radio reception.

The ruling ordered the Greenville chief of police to restrain Camp from operating his station ten days after April 11.

But fellow-hams in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and Oklahoma rallied to Camp's support.

The Federal Communications commission has a complaint division where it attempts to settle controversies similar to that at Greenville. However, the Dallas office thus far has not received any written complaints from Greenville citizens concerning Camp's station.

Camp sought advice from the FCC office here and was told to seek legal advice and notify the American Radio League at Hartford, Conn.

The FCC here sent a report on the Greenville situation to its Washington office. The city council there notfied it of the order against Camp. It termed his amateur station "a nuisance."

George Becker of Dallas described the city council order as a "violation of our civil rights."

"As long as it suits Uncle Sam, the city (Greenville) is not concerned," he said.

Becker said the amateurs were appealing to the American Radio Relay League for legal retaliation.

U. S. Officials Probe Cause Of Philippines Ammunition Blast

MANILA, April 13. (INS)—Military officials today began an investigation of the ammunition explosion at Clark field which resulted in the death of one person and injuries to several others.

Military authorities temporarily withheld the names of the dead and wounded.

Flames from the explosion of 200,000 pounds of stored bombs started grass fires which for a time threatened the Army's 20th station hospital. The fires were brought under control before evacuation of patients became necessary.

Air Force officials at Clark field, near Manila, reported the blast killed a Filipino civilian employe and first reports said that two American Air Force personnel were slightly injured.

The explosion, which officials said was limited to one "terrific blast," demolished a nearby cement pipe manufacturing plant and broke windows in buildings a half mile from the center of the explosion.

Arguments Are Set Today In Sand Case

By R. C. HANKINS
Avalanche Staff Writer

A sand dune approximately five feet high and 100 to 160 feet wide lay along the line between wheatfarms operated in Deaf Smith county by Charlie Hoover and G. K. Horton before Horton leased land there in 1945, it was testified to in the damages suit of Hoover against Horton Wednesday afternoon in 99th district court.

Afterward, both sides closed. Judge G. V. Pardue said a charge will be in readiness at 2 p.m. today for being read to a jury, after which attorneys will present their arguments.

Works Large Acreage

The witnesses who testified to the sand dune were Horton and Robert Draper.

Draper, who said that he operates approximately 6,800 acres of wheatland in Deaf Smith county, perhaps 1,600 in Lynn county and a ranch stocked with cattle in North Dakota, related under direct examination of G. H. Nelson of defense counsel and under cross-examination of George Dupree that Horton, because of the condition of the land when he took it under lease, could not have used any other method of plowing than a "one-way" or disk—"outside of a big caterpillar tractor and a fresno."

Hoover had charged in his suit that Horton's use of a one-way plow had been contrary to the best farming practices of Deaf Smith county and had resulted in $2,500 damages to the Hoover farm through sand that blew from Horton's onto the Hoover farm in 1945 through 1947.

Says Land Has Improved

Draper testified that Horton's land has continuously improved in farming condition as a result of his practices of working it.

Further, he testified, he did not know "any Deaf Smith farmer who farms much land but who has a one-way." He said it was general practice to use one-ways there.

The sandstorm of Jan. 29, 1947, which was alleged by Hoover to have done most of the damage to his farm was termed by the weather station of that section as a 70 miles-an-hour wind current, Draper said. Judge G. V. Pardue, presiding, excluded that testimony under Dupree's objection that it was "hearsay." Under different questioning, the witness said the wind blew so hard he couldn't "see how to drive a car." He said dirt was "blowing everywhere" so that he "couldn't see the sand

Enroute to her new home in Oklahoma from East Texas she realized her child was due. Her husband called a physician who met them on the highway between Bonham and Honey Grove.

The child was delivered, and after hospital checkup, the couple continued on its way to Oklahoma.

Brandeis Forced To Cancel Lubbock Visit

Erich Brandeis, whose internationally syndicated column appears in The Lubbock Morning Avalanche and 165 other newspapers, will not be able to fill his speaking engagement here on April 29, Cecil Horne, head professor of journalism at Texas Tech, announced late yesterday.

Mr. Brandeis, who was to have delivered the principal address at the Southwestern Journalism Congress' annual meeting, has been forced to cancel his Lubbock visit because of his doctor's orders. The columnist, who, with Mrs. Brandeis, planned to spend a week in Lubbock visiting friends, has a heart ailment of 10 months duration. His condition has been given a recent setback due to heightening of his blood pressure.

In a letter to Lubbock friends, Mr Brandeis said an improvement in his physical condition might make it possible for him to visit Lubbock later in the year when, if his health permits, he and Mrs. Brandeis will go to California for a visit.

They reside in Westport, Conn.

GERMANY STILL MAJOR PROBLEM

ERP Faces Failure In Five Of 19 Areas Receiving U. S. Funds

PARIS, April 13 (AP) — The European recovery program risks failure in five of the 19 areas it is trying to make self-supporting.

Presumably the program will be continued to mid-1952 by the U.S. Congress and will cost the American treasury up to $17 billion.

But its hopes for general European self-sufficiency three years from now are jeopardized in these specific cases:

Western Germany, which is counted as two areas; the French zone and the U.S.-British bizone.

Greece, a victim of Communist rebellion.

Congress Set Policies

Austria, still occupied by four foreign powers although on paper a "liberated nation."

The free territory of Trieste, a helpless politico-economic freak carved from the northeastern extremity of Italy by the big four in 1946 to satisfy Russia and Yugoslavia.

The European recovery program is controlled by the Economic Cooperation administration, a zealous American governmental agency with a high proportion of practical businessmen.

The ECA did not choose the areas in which it would be obliged to operate. American foreign policy, as interpreted by the Congress and State department, marked them out.

That's why China, a country not even in Europe, was also dumped in ECA's lap.

In all of Europe, western Germany is the worst hornet's nest of disputes between the United States and her foremost allies, Britain and France. The ECA, mixing in, has already been stung.

Germany Big Problem

ECA views western Germany as an economic problem. But it is one in which political and military problems inevitably overshadow anything economic.

Presumably American policy is based on the belief that western Germany's quick recovery is escential for the economic health of Europe. Both Britain and France, but France particularly, have shown alarm that western Germany may become a strong industrial competitor and an aggressive threat. Their maneuvers have impeded western Germany's revival.

Austria boosted her exports and revived her industrial production last year to a level nearly equal to prewar, but this required using $27,000,000 gift dollars from ECA.

Prewar Austria staggered through one financial crisis after another. The possibility of postwar solvency for occupied Austria is still out of sight.

The free territory of Trieste, which the United States, Britain and France now want to hand back to Italy, has cost ECA $17,000,000 in a year. The money repaired some port facilities, encouraged the rebuilding of several factories, and kept the people from starving.

As long as Trieste dangles alone at the edge of the iron curtain, it probably will be a candidate for U.S. charity. Just to protect it requires 10,000 American and British troops—one soldier for every 33 civilians. A third of the working population is unemployed.

Arguments Set Today

dump" between the principals' section.

Lubbock Man Takes Stand

B. Sherrod, a Lubbock business man who also owns farmland in Deaf Smith county, was called by the defense as the last witness. He agreed that the Dust Bowl of 1934 to 36 probably deposited the dune on the line between the two sections involved in the lawsuit. He described the dune as probably four feet high in 1944, when he first began farming land in that county. That was the year before Horton took over his land next Hoover's.

He also testified that one-way farming was in general usage in Deaf Smith county, particularly up to the last two years when use of Hoeme (chisel) plows was suggested so that clods might be brought to the surface to retard wind erosion.

Horton maintained he farmed his land according to an accepted practice calculated to prevent blowing.

Horton said he, immediately after he was informed of a heavy sandstorm Jan. 29 of 1947, hired two men and went to his Deaf Smith county farm and began "chiseling" it.

Clods Brought Up

He said he attached a Graham Hoeme plow to one of his tractors, three chisels on a four-row lister to the other tractor. He explained that he chiseled his land—"deeply so that clods were brought up and deposited on the ground's surface"—from "southeast to northwest" until a great acreage had been conditioned against blowing, "then listed an additional 20 acres."

Horton admitted that he "one-wayed" his land at some stages of his farming practices, particularly in efforts to pull down sand dunes so that he could "get over the place with the Hoeme equipped with sweeps." He said the dunes were on the property when he took over control of the farm. He one-wayed with 21-inch disks, not 12-inch discs as pleaded in the plaintiff's petition, he testified.

Horton testified further that when he bought his farming equipment for the Deaf Smith farm in 1944 he couldn't buy anything except his John Deere one-way. Farm equipment was difficult to procure then, he told the jury, and other farmers were having similar trouble. He borrowed a Hoeme chisel in the fall of 1946, then bought it in the summer of 1946, he said. He added that his tractors were "adequate" for plowing deeply enough to constitute "good farming practice."

15-Acre Strip Blew

Only a 15-acre strip of his property blew in the heavy windstorm of January, 1947, Horton testified.

Deaf Smith "generally blew" that day, especially in his section of the county, Horton said, adding that the storm was of "unusual velocity."

meeting a man from the Texas Plains will be nominated for a place on the State Soil Conservation board.

Other members of the Hockley Soil Conservation committee as selected recently by County Judge LaVern I. McCann include Bond, Lawson and Caddell.

A dozen interested farmers and businessmen attended the grass planting demonstration on the Lawson farm last week. The district was assisted by J. C. Ebersole of Abilene, agronomist with Soil Conservation service. Much interest is being shown in revegetation and a number of farmers are planning to plant a cover of sudan on land that will be planted to grass in the spring of 1950, the sunpervisors reported.

Several farmers who are cooperating with the district and have sufficient cover on their land to prevent wind erision have requested assistance for planting grass this spring.

Fireman Answers Husband-Seeking Divorcee's Plea

SALT LAKE CITY, April 13 (AP)—The pretty divorcee who offered herself in marriage — with her eight children as her dowry — got the first response today.

A Salt Lake City fireman, whose name the 30-year-old brunette wouldn't disclose, rang her doorbell.

"He asked me for a date," said Mrs. Elena Lebaron. "I didn't say yes, I didn't say no. I just said maybe."

Then she added this comment:

"Now that I've come this far I might as well take my time and select any prospects scientifically.

"I would like to marry an artist or a writer, but I don't believe there are many artists or writers who could support a wife and eight children."

Mrs. Lebaron asked yesterday for help in locating a husband. She said she is three months behind in payments on her house.

Insurance Man Given Five-Year Term In Franklin Check Swindle

His attorneys filed a motion for a new trial. District Judge W. S. Barron set a hearing for 2 p.m. Saturday.

The state had asked that the former Hearne, Tex., insurance man be sent to prison for 10 years, maximum sentence under the law.

Jones is charged in the $81,000 worthless check swindle of the First State Bank of Franklin. He was tried on one of six indictments against him on worthless check charges. The indictment charged him with giving the bank a bad check for $10,850.

The case went to the jury at 2:40 p. m. It returned its verdict about 5 p. m.

Boat In Trouble In Pacific Taken In Tow By Coast Guard

HONOLULU, April 13. (INS)—The 96-foot motor yacht Pasada Manana, which yesterday reported it was in distress in Mid-Pacific, was taken in tow today by the Coast Guard cutter Iroquois.

The disabled yacht was picked up by the cutter early today at a point 475 miles from Honolulu. Coast Guard officials said it would take the yacht several days to reach port. A tug has been dispatched from Honolulu to take over the rescue from the Iroquois and is expected to rendezvous with the yacht and cutter tomorrow morning.

The Pasada Manana, with eighteen persons aboard, left San Pedro, Calif., April 2 bound for Honolulu. Reports received at Honolulu said all the passengers apparently were unharmed, though some of them were suffering from seasickness.

The yacht reported yesterday that its oil line had broken and the Iroquois was immediately dispatched on a rescue mission.

Law Allowing Manufacture Of Tin By Private Firms Urged

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer today asked Congress to pass a law enabling private firms to manufacture tin from low-grade ore.

Sawyer told the Senate Banking committee:

"The maintenance of a diversified tinsmelting industry in this country is of very great importance for our national security."

This country's supply of tin ore comes almost entirely from Bolivia, and is processed at a government-owned tin smelter at Texas City.

The bill Sawyer endorsed would let the government sell low-grade tin concentrates, which are processed at a loss by the Texas City plant, to private companies submitting the highest bids. The reconstruction Finance corporation, which operates the Texas plant, could not sell the ore at a loss greater than is the case under government processing.

Railroads Prepare For Wheat Shipment

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 13. (AP)—Five railroad leaders agreed today that the problem of wheat movement would be a large one again this year but expressed the collective opinion that the lines serving the great wheat area would be able to meet it in better shape than last year.

John Farrington, Chicago, president of the Rock Island, and William T. Faricy, Washington, president of the Association of American Railroads, estimated that there was between 350 and 400 million bushels of last year's wheat still in the area. That will come out from under loan April 30.

"Freight cars now in this area are ready to handle this wheat," Faricy said.

Here besides Farrington and Faricy were Arthur K. Atkinson, St. Louis, president of the Wabash; W. N. Deramus, Kansas City, president of the Kansas City Southern, and L. R. Capron, St. Louis, vice president in charge of traffic for the Burlington.

$75 Million Drop In U. S. Pork Bill Seen Under New Farm Plan

WASHINGTON, April 13. (U.P.)—Agriculture Secretary Charles F. Brannan said today that if his proposed new farm program were in operation now consumers would stand a chance of getting $75,000,000 knocked off their pork bill.

Brannan is trying to persuade Congress to approve a program under which taxpayers would finance permanent high farm price supports on basic crops. In return they would get a break in the form of low-cost subsidized foods.

Pork Prices Drop

Testifying before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee, Brannan used the current pork situation to make his point.

Because pork prices are dropping, the Agriculture department has set aside $75,000,000 under the present farm program to buy pork in the market and thus maintain its price at the legal support level.

In other words, the department is preparing to hold up the prices consumers must pay.

Under the proposed program, Brannan said, his department would let the pork price drop "to the level it finds in the market place."

Consumer Benefits Seen

"If it went below support," he said, "the consumer would get the benefit.

"We would let the price go to the demand level and take that $75,000,000 and pay it to the farmer directly."

The farmer would get the difference between the average market price and the support price.

But if the money is spent under the current program, he said, it will go to the packer, the government will have a lot of hogs on its hands, and consumers will be paying propped up prices.

Original Estimate Is Low

The question in congressional minds is how much the new farm program would cost. Brannan promised to work out a comparison with the cost of the present program.

"If anyone thinks the present program is not going to cost more (than anticipated) he'd better get out a pencil and start figuring it," Brannan said.

The subcommittee recessed indefinitely while Brannan works out the comparison.

The House Agriculture committee has postponed further consideration of the proposed program until after the Easter recess.

Inventor Offers Piano Designed To Make Children Study Lessons

PHILADELPHIA, April 13 (AP)—Louis Luberoff says he's got the answer for mothers who despair of making their children practice the piano.

It looks like a spinet. But underneath three separate "lids" that open on top of the piano you find, from right to left, a record player, a radio, and a recorder.

The name of the three-in-one instrument is the "Trio-Art" piano and it went on sale today.

How will it make Johnny practice his scales when he'd rather be out playing baseball?

Luberoff explains. Put on a recording of what Johnny is supposed to play and while the record spins, Johnny can play right along with the recording artist. The motor of the turntable has changeable speeds so Johnny and artist can get together.

And just to make sure that Johnny knows how he sounds, he can turn another gadget on the piano and cut a record of his own playing.

Three Heavily Armed Bandits Rob West Virginia Bank

FOLLANSBEE, W. VA., April 13 (U.P.)—Three young gunmen, brandishing a submachine-gun and 45-caliber pistols, held up the Bank of Follansbee today and escaped with approximately $5,000.

The bandits, described as in their late 20's, walked into the bank shortly after 11 a. m. They fled five minutes later after emptying two cashier tills, slugging cashier Maurice Dunlope, and threatening "to blow your guts out if you move."

Three customers, five employes, and the bank president, Mrs. C. M. M. Hume were in the bank at the time.

New B-36 Order To Have Little Effect On Convair Employment

FORT WORTH, April 13 (U.P.)—Purchase of additional B-36 super bombers by the Air Force will not materially increase the number of workers employed at the Consolidated-Vultee plant here, division manager Ray Ryan said today.

Instead he indicated, the construction of more bombers will extend production beyond the period planned when the Air Force awarded Convair its initial order for 95 planes.

The Air Force yesterday announced purchase of 39 more of the big bombers at a cost of $172,000,000 bringing to 170 the number ordered from Convair.

Wichita Falls Oil Man Accepts Prison Term

WICHITA FALLS, April 13 (AP)—Ben H. Langford, convicted of murdering his divorced wife, today accepted a prison sentence of 99 years.

Langford, scion of an oil-wealthy pioneer family, thus decided not to appeal for a new trial. A jury last night found the 39-year-old oil man guilty and set his sentence at 99 years.

Longford was escorted into the court by Deputy Sheriff Dick Mann.

The defendant stood with bowed head.

"Do you accept the sentence of the court? Judge Floyd Jons asked him.

"Yes," said Longford. His head remained bowed.

Langford was arrested shortly after his former wife, Mrs. LaFon Langford, 34, was found shot to death in her Wichita Falls home last Jan. 3.

The couple's 13-year-old son, Ben, jr., found the body. The son was a witness at the trial.

Langford's attorneys rested their case without calling a witness.

The jury returned its verdict after two hours and 42 minutes of deliberation.

Fort Worth Judges Back Plan To Authorize 'Public Defenders'

FORT WORTH, April 13 (U.P.)—Two Fort Worth district judges proposed today the naming of a public defender to represent defendants financially unable to obtain court counsel.

The suggestion was contained in a proposed legislative bill sent the Tarrant county legislative delegation by Dist. Judge Willis McGregor, assisted by Judge Dave McGee.

Under terms of the projected measure, commissioners court could authorize judges of felony district courts to appoint a public defender to represent defendants unable to financially hire counsel.

Pay for the proposed new official would not be more than $250 monthly. Another section of the proposed law would make it possible, in certain cases, to hire additional state-paid lawyers for the defense, with a fee limited to $100.

Commissioners court would have authority to fix the public defender's pay as well as amounts additional counsel would receive.

As drawn, the law would apply only to Tarrant, Jefferson, Dallas, Harris, and Bexar counties.

EMBASSY OFFICIAL INTERVIEWS RELIEF DIRECTOR

American Woman Is Arrested By Czech Police, Jailed For Investigation Of Political Activities

By DAVID SCOTT
INS Staff Correspondent

PRAGUE, April 13—The U. S. embassy disclosed today that Miss Vlasta Adele Vraz, head of the "American Relief for Czechoslovakia," was arrested last Saturday by Czechoslovakian police.

The 38-year-old woman of Berwyn, Ill., told an embassy representative who visited her in prison she understood she was being held for investigation of her alleged political activities.

She said she was not mistreated.

(In Chicago 72-year-old Mrs. Vlasta Vraz, mother of the relief official, nearly collapsed when she learned the Communists had seized her namesake daughter. She expressed belief her daughter might be held as a hostage and denied there could be any valid grounds for political charges against her).

An embassy spokesman told International News Service Miss Vraz, who has been distributing relief parcels since 1945, was arrested Saturday afternoon, reportedly at her home.

He said the embassy was not notified of the arrest until a representative called at the Czech foreign office to check a rumor, whereupon an interview was arranged yesterday.

A representative of the government's foreign office and two police officials attended the interview.

The Czechoslovakian Communist government which seized power last year recently sentenced two American soldiers to long jail terms at hard labor on spy charges during a secret trial.

The soldiers, Pvts. George Jones, of Owensboro, Ky., and Clarence Hill, of Pampa, Tex., were without leave from their unit in Germany and were picked up shortly after crossing into Czechoslovakia.

The American embassy still has not been notified by the Prague government of the specific charges against Miss Vraz, who had been planning to return home next month for a vacation.

Parent's Day To Be Held At Tech May 1

Parents Day at Texas Technological college has been officially set for Sunday, May 1, according to Clint Formby, president of the student council at the college.

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Tech, will make the principal address of the day.

Dormitories have begun to make tentative plans for the Sunday meal at which parents will be guests, Formby said. Ted Forsythe, Lubbock, who is an arts and science representative to the student council has been named head of the committee for arrangements.

Red-Backed 'World Peace' Group Threatens Revolution To Prevent 'Imperialistic' Wars

Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, April 13—Communist backing of the Paris "World Peace Congress" has disclosed its goal—revolution if necessary to stop "imperialist" governments from going to war.

The Russian revolution of 1917 which overthrew czarist rule was given as an example of what the sponsors have in mind.

European anti-Communists, meanwhile, announced plans for a counter-demonstration—also to work for peace. This self-styled "Assembly For Revolutionary Democracy" is to follow by a week the World Peace Congress scheduled for April 20 to 24. It was formed more than a year ago by literary and scientific men of France, Belguim, England, the Netherlands, Austria and Italy, who called themselves left-of-center but opposed to totalitarian government.

Permanent Organization Planned

Louis Aragon, editor of the Communist newspaper Ce Soir, announced at a news conference, as spokesman for the congress, its plans to form a permanent world peace organization at the Paris session. The congress also will fight against French ratification of the North Atlantic Defense alliance, and protest the French foreign ministry's restrictions on visas for congress delegates from eastern Europe.

Aragon said the congress plans a wide program which will denounce armaments races and war propaganda, and discuss the United Nations, world economic relations, women's role in peace, safeguards on national sovereignty, and establishment of an organization of world peace partisans.

The anti-Communist Assembly for Revolutionary Democracy made public its plans through an official spokesman. The announcement said Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is among Americans invited to its sessions. It named other Americans invited as Prof. Sidney Hook of New York university, Edmund Wilson, New York literary critic; labor leaders Walter Reuther and David Dubinsky; and authors John Dos Passos and Richard Wright.

Texas Weather Continues To Aid Crop Conditions; Outlook Good

AUSTIN, April 13 (AP)—Texas weather continued to favor most farmers last week.

The United States Department of Agriculture reported today that field work made fair to good progress. Most areas had adequate soil moisture.

Wheat made good growth and prospects continued favorable. Oats were beginning to head out in south central counties.

Corn planting continued in northern counties.

Much cotton land was ready, but planting was not general beyond south central counties as farmers waited for warmer weather.

Feed Is In Good Shape

New range and pasture feed was plentiful to abundant over the eastern two-thirds of the state. Only warmer weather was needed to bring native grass along in extreme western and northwestern areas.

Cattle and calves gained flesh rapidly during March on the improving supply of new green feed. The calf crop was getting off to an excellent early start, USDA said.

Cattle were reported at 80 per cent condition on April 1, a four point improvement during the past 30 days.

Sheep and lamps were improving rapidly on the generally abundant supply of early spring grass and weeds available in the main sheep country. Losses of lambs since the January and early February storms were reported to be unusually low.

Sheep and lambs were reported at 82 per cent condition, a three-point improvement during March.

Two Men Held In Slaying Near Beaumont To Face Trial May 2

BEAUMONT, April 13 (U.P.)—Two men charged in the rice paddy slaying March 25 of Elbert Lide Langston will go to trial separately here May 2.

Henry Robert Giles, jr., 30, and William Earl Pelham, 23, both of Houston, have been charged with the shooting and are held without bail.

Langston, 22-year-old native of Florence, S. C., was found in a muddy field near Nome, Tex., the morning of March 26. Giles was arrested near the city hall here the same day, and Pelham, whom he implicated, was apprehended April 4 in Bossier City, La., a Shreveport suburb.

Another companion in a tour of night spots and a wild ride the night of the killing, John C. Brunson, jr., 23, was no-billed by a grand jury and released on $500 bond as a material witness.

Criminal District Judge Owen M. Lord has summoned a special venire of 175 persons for selection of the jury.

Chicago Teen-Agers Fail In Second Attempt To Elope

CHICAGO, April 13 (INS)—Two Chicago teen-agers who trotted down a bridle path toward a bridal suite were taken into custody today in McHenry, Ill.

It was the second time an elopment attempt had gone awry for 15-year-old Barbara "Mickey" Stafford and 17-year-old Robert Robinson.

Barbara and Robert disappeared yesterday after renting two horses from the Greentree stables, west of Chicago. The horses were found later in a forest preserve.

The girl's guardian, Mrs. Maxwell Johnson of Oak Park, said she found a letter from Robinson in the girl's room urging that they elope to Minnesota.

State police said the couple ran away last month but were found in Missouri.

HOLLYWOOD HOT SHOT—Hollywood actor Bruce Bennett starts his son, Chris, on the path which he, under his real name, Herman Brix, traveled to five U.S. shot put championships.

Fire Causes Heavy Damage In Borger

BORGER, April 13 (U.P.) — Fire in the business district gutted a hotel and heavily damaged two stores today, but there were no injuries.

The Smith hotel was heaviest loser to the flames. It was gutted. A C. R. Anthony store and a variety store nearby were damaged by water and smoke. In the latter, a huge stock of fireworks was touched off, affording a July 4th "preview" for spectators.

Mexican Ranchers In Chihuahua Fear Uprising Among Indians

MEXICO CITY, April 13 (U.P.)—White and Mestizo ranchers from the rough, remote mountains of Chihuahua state today were reported taking refuge in central Mexican cities in fear of an uprising of the Tarahumara Indians.

Press reports from Chihuahua said the Indians were "planning action" against the whites, although no attacks had been reported.

The rebellion, according to the reports, would not be against the government, but against the "whites who exploit and deceive the Indians."

It was reported that large family groups of whites and Mestizos had taken refuge in Urique, Chihuahua City, capital of the state, to ask for troop support in the High Sierras.

TEXAS LADY LOSES 47 POUNDS

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger. Barcentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is what Mrs. H. P. Bishop, Route 2, Stamford, Texas, wrote us:

"I am very glad to endorse Barcentrate, so please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for the great benefit I derived from its use. I not only lost weight, but also looked and felt better in every way.

"I had to have a very serious operation and was told that I must lose a lot of weight before the operation could be performed. I went on a diet and tried very hard to reduce, but wasn't losing much weight until I heard of Barcentrate. I began taking it and could soon tell the difference in the way I felt and the weight I was losing. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and I lost a total of 47 pounds and was able to undergo my operation. I can truthfully recommend it to others, since it did so much for me."

At all druggists

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Texan Dies As Truck Burns In California

LOS ANGELES, April 13 (AP)—A gasoline truck driver lost a thrilling 100-mile-an-hour downgrade race with death today and another was fatally burned.

Nolie J. Glover, 43, died in a flaming crash when his truck failed to negotiate the bottom turn on winding five-mile hill.

Patrolmen flagged down traffic but suddenly the gasoline caught fire. Ralph L. Harris, 31, Houston, had just alighted from his truck and was trapped. He died later at a hospital.

Bradfield signed a decree ending the second marriage of Mrs. Hohl when she said she discovered that her first husband, Samuel Covey, was still alive. She had married Hohl 31 years ago, thinking Covey was dead.

Lubbock Delegation Visits Idalou American Legion Post

A delegation of eight members of Allen Bros. post 148 of the American Legion, headed by Don Davis, went from Lubbock Tuesday night to present a child welface program before Idalou post 668.

James H. Goodman, of Lubbock, fifth division child welfare chairman was the chief speaker. He stressed the Legion's support and cooperation of the three major youth character-building institutions—the home, the school and the church—in the setting up of a coordinated child welfare council composed of representatives of all agencies and organizations having a major child welfare program.

The Idalou post is sponsoring a donkey basketball game April 23 at the high school gymnasium there, and invites the public to see it.

Rotary Club Hears Cancer Discussion

Dr. Sam G. Dunn, chief surgeon of West Texas hospital, talked on diagnosis, control and cure of cancer at the luncheon program of the Lubbock Rotary club at the Hilton hotel today noon.

Dr. Dunn, who started his talk by declaring "one out of every group seated at each of these tables will die of cancer," gave a brief outline of various symptoms of cancer.

"Early diagnosis is the best cure," he declared. He cited radium, X-ray and surgery as the three principal treatments, but said they are ineffective except on early diagnosis and to prolong life in advance stages of the disease.

Visitors Named

E. J. Parsons was program chairman.

Tom B. Duggan, jr., James H. Milan, Fenner Tubbs, Eric Pond, and Joe Phillips were introduced as new Rotarians.

Out-of-town visitors at the luncheon included: Earl W. Rogers, Borger; E. S. Lee, Spur; Bill McKee, Walker Watkins and Ernest Joiner, Ralls; J. K. # People Turn To Literature In Effort To 'Escape' Atomic Age

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 13 — The passing show:

One of the wonders of this dawn of the atomic age is the solid determination of so many people to escape from it to re-examine the almost forgotten truths of life.

This determination has expressed itself in the literary field in a way that has no parallel.

Rabbi Liebman's "Peace of Mind" led the best-seller list for weeks and is still upon it. The trappist monk Merton's "Seven Storey Mountain" is near the top and so is Oursler's "Greatest Story Ever Told"—a new life of Christ.

Other Volumes Popular

Douglas' "Big Fisherman" is a winner and his "The Robe" still sells strongly. Carnegie's "How To Stop Worrying and Start Living" is around the top. John Gunther's incredibly touching story of the delayed death of his son from a brain tumor, "Death Be Not Proud" is among the top books of the year in sales. The death vigil of Little Kathy Fiscus was kept by millions of newspaper readers and radio listeners.

The great success of Father Keller's "You Can Change the World" is making book history. Hugh Kelly, of McGraw-Hill, tells me that Msgr. Fulton Sheen's book, "Peace of Soul," out less than a week, has sold 50,000 copies and a third printing has just been ordered.

Joke Book Sells Well

The only war book on the last best-seller list I saw was Audie Murphy's "To Hell and Back"—but it is a stark thing without glory and is as much an incident of war as is the gentle philosophy of the above-mentioned works. As another token of the escapist times, a joke-book, Bennett Cerf's "Shake Well Before Using" remains among the leading sellers.

Serious books giving ominous warnings are not selling these days, including Stanislaw Mikolajczyk's "Rape of Poland," a valid blow-by-blow account of how the Soviet Union can seize an entire nation and its people. It has sold fewer than 5,000 copies.

Poison Gas Story Told

A nerve-shaking review of what Germany would have been able to do if she had used her poison gas in World War II is contained, in a precise Army prose, in the current issue of the "Armed Forces Chemical Journal."

Col. Charles E. Loucks, chief of the Chemical corps of the European command, and Lt. R. Bruce Elliott have put together a quietly vivid report on a sinister step that was never taken. Col. Loucks had the job of finding and disposing of Germany's poison.

". . . Large stocks of toxic-filled munitions and toxic chemicals in bulk were scattered throughout Germany and in some neighboring countries," he writes, and adds phlegmatically, "inspection of these plentiful reserves confirmed the conclusions of wartime intelligence that Germany could have waged effective gas warfare."

Vast Supplies Found

He and his men found gas-laden aerial bombs, artillery shells, land mines, rockets, candles and bulk containers. The Germans had put captured Russian, Czechoslovakian, Italian, French and Hungarian plants to work making the stuff. Fillings included mustard, nitrogen mustard, phosgene, diphosgene, chloracetaphenone, adamsite, chlorpicrin, chlorine, arsenicals and lewisite.

Hitler had more than 100,000 long tons of it, ready to use. But he also had his own intelligence corps, and these experts assured him that the moment he uncorked the first bottle the Allies were ready to hit him with even more potent poisons.

We destroyed more than 60 per cent of the captured stuff by burning it or dropping in into the deepest sections of the Atlantic. More than 12,000 tons was shipped to this country for study. More than 10,000 tons were reclaimed and sent to Italy for various chemical purposes.

All in all, the poison gas end of World War II would have been appallingly worse than was the atomic bomb end. Hitler plainly dreamed of it as a weapon to be used against civilian populations. And, it must be presumed, so did we.

POLICE GET TAGGED

ST. LOUIS (U.P.) — The St. Louis police quartet journeyed to suburban Kirkwood to perform before a ladies' night gathering at the First Presbyterian church, then got a ticket for overstaying their time at a parking meter. Kirkwood Councilman Fred Farrow paid the fine for the visiting cops.

Martin Names House Members For GOP's Policy Committee

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass) named three House members today to serve on the Republican National Policy committee. Capitol Hill Republicans have now reached agreement with GOP Chairman Hugh D. Scott, jr., on 1950 campaign tactics.

Martin, the party's leader in the House, picked Reps. Leonard Hall of New York, Francis Case of South Dakota and Donald L. Jackson of California for the policy group set up by the GOP national committee at its January meeting in Omaha.

Group Is Named

Senate members will be Owen Brewster of Maine, Henry Cabot Lodge jr., of Massachusetts and Hugh Butler of Nebraska.

Indications are that Republican governors will pick Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey, Frank Carlson of Kansas and either Arthur B. Langlie of Washington or some other far westerner for their representatives.

The moves to speed the GOP vote drive organization included an informal agreement between Scott and Congress leaders on the roles of the Senate, House and national committees. They came in the wake of generally favorable political reaction to President Truman's two informal visits to Capitol Hill yesterday.

Visit Is Success

In one of these Mr. Truman lunched with senators of both parties. Then, in a chatty, 475-word speech to the Senate, he expressed hope that history will judge as "not in vain" his "level best" efforts to serve the American people.

Three hours later Mr. Truman went back to Capitol Hill for a visit in the office of House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex). It was from Rayburn's office, almost to the hour four years earlier, that Mr. Truman was called to the White House to learn of the death of President Roosevelt.

The President's visit to his old friends of the Senate was arranged by Senator J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island, the Democratic national chairman. It was an obvious part of the administration's new efforts to create better feeling between the White House and Congress.

One old English recipe for a banquet pie called for 18 sparrows, eight marrow bones, one pound of potatoes, lettuce, chestnuts, dates, oysters, artichokes, eggs, spice, and "liquor when it is baked, with white wine, butter and sugar."

British Might Not Appreciate American Cornbread And Grits

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Writing commentaries on foreign affairs is a tough job these or any days. People who know won't talk. People who don't know talk all the time. You just have to try to grope your way along. When something develops that you think you really know about, boy, that's the day, and the typewriter sings.

So I thought, when the Senate said the British should eat some cornbread and grits, whether they liked it or not, "here's something I can go to town on." Having been exposed to food in Britain, and being a native of Kentucky, I proposed to display some real authority.

Terms Are Confusing

Now, I'm as confused as usual. I'll never be able to make it clear to the British. Their corn is our wheat, our corn is their maize. But some dictionaries in the United States get confused about hominy and grits, and figure they are the same thing. And in England, according to the encyclopedia, grits, or groats as some people call them, go back so far that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. But it's the kernel of oat, not corn.

That, so far as I can find, is the only reference in the encyclopedia to one of nature's great gifts as refined by man. And hominy is just mentioned, without description, as a use to which corn (or maize) is put.

Still, I would like to reassure Britain.

Southern Meal Served

When I want to kick over the traces, my North Carolina wife knows exactly what I mean when I say "let's splurge and to H - - - with the waistline."

"I cut some slices from a salt-cured North Carolina ham while she mixes a batter of corn meal, egg, salt, baking powder, soda and buttermilk. She goes to the stove with the ham in a frying pan, the batter in a pie pan, liberally lined with butter, and a cup of grits (not hominy grits) with a pinch of salt in the top of a double boiler. I deal a hand of gin rummy.

Just before I'm about to go out she takes the ham out of the pan, pours in a little water to make this gravy, and then puts three eggs in the pan to be fried over light (two for me and one for her). In one whirl there comes to the table cornbread, grits, gravy, butter, ham, eggs and syrup. Buttermilk, tea or coffee, depending. I like the gravy on my grits. My wife likes butter. Some like syrup and some like cream and sugar. I like butter on the cornbread and sometimes syrup (sorghum molasses is better, but not many New York stores know what it is). Some people like to pour over hot molasses and butter, already mixed. This is also mighty good on left-over grits cut into small cakes and fried.

Now the grits to which I refer are rice-like but tiny chips from whole grains of hominy.

As for corn meal, it can be to the western world what rice is to the east.

I hate to think of Uncle Sam giving up any corn meal and grits to people who don't appreciate them.

Flying Romeo Caught On Embezzlement Charge In Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 13. (U.P.)—A flying romeo who commuted across the country weekly to visit his two wives and spent time in between entertaining local basketball teams was charged today with embezzling almost $28,000 of his company's money to pay the bills.

Police arrested David Prager, 29-year-old coal company cashier, after a call from one of his wives. The husky, curly-haired native of New York City signed a confession detailing his amazing activities. But he scaled down the amount of money he was accused of taking to $19,000.

Detectives arrested the $200-a-month cashier Monday as he stepped off a California plane after a visit to the second of his two wives.

Divided His Time

Police said Prager spent week days with one wife and child here and weekends in Los Angeles with another wife.

Chief of Detectives M. A. Hinds said Prager was arrested on a state warrant charging embezzlement, but had not been docketed formally.

In a written confession, Prager said he began to take money from his employer, the Berlin-Hunt Coal Co., four or five months after he began work in February, 1948. He said he used part of the funds to "entertain" two amateur basketball teams.

The rest of the money apparently was spent, Hinds said, in commuting as a transcontinental lover between Los Angeles and Memphis.

Wife No. 1 is dark-haired, brown-eyed Mrs. Annie Katz Prager of Memphis, to whom Prager was married 2½ years ago. They have a year-old son, Jerry. Wife No. 2 is tall, shapely Mrs. Anita Prager of Los Angeles, formerly of Memphis, whom police said Prager married in Hernando, Miss., Jan. 31.

Wife No. 1 said she first learned of her husband's financial troubles March 23 when he told her to inform W. T. C. Berlin, head of the coal company, of his embezzlements.

"I told Mr. Berlin and he told police," she said.

She said her husband left home nearly every weekend, telling her he was on business trips. He told the same story to wife No. 2, after the weekends, police said.

Mrs. Prager No. 1 indicated she planned a divorce.

"What else can I do?" she asked.

Meantime, 19-year-old wife No. 2 headed for Memphis from Los Angeles to "see what I can do to help."

"I can hardly believe it, even now," she said. "And I was so sure he had divorced his wife. He told me so."

Texans Are Urged To Buy 'Easter Seals'

DALLAS, April 13. (Special)—Texans who have not yet responded to the Easter Seal sale are urged by Roscoe L. Thomas, president of the Texas Society for Crippled Children to send their contributions this week. Continued support by generous Texans is the only way the Society can continue the crippled children's program which has put our state foremost in the nation, Thomas said.

Dr. John Lee of Wayne University, president of the National Society for Crippled Children, this week told Thomas that Texas is leading the way in the treatment of cerebral palsy. No other state, according to Dr. Lee, can compete with the 16 cerebral palsy centers now in operation in Texas.

Direct Aid Provided

In addition to the cerebral palsy program, the Texas Society for Crippled Children continues its campaign for greater educational facilities, provides rehabilitation and direct aid in the form of crutches, wheelchairs and transportation.

The annual Easter Seal sales are the society's sole means of support. No personal solicitations are made.

"The 1949 response to the Easter Seal sale is very gratifying" Thomas said. "However, a growing population in Texas is putting greater demands on our free services for handicapped youngsters. That is why it is necessary for the current sale to be the most successful in our history."

VA To Waive Defaulted GI Loans Only In 'Meritorious' Cases

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—The Veterans administration served notice today that it expects most veterans to pay up on their GI loans, in full or in part.

Debts to the government resulting from defaulted loans will be waived only in "meritorious cases," the agency said.

Since the GI loan program started in 1944, VA has paid claims against guaranteed loans totaling about $10,000,000 on behalf of 11,200 veterans. Claims currently are being paid at the rate of 450 to 500 a month.

Officials Predict Lower Oil Prices

"The petroleum industry outlook for 1949 appears to be one of further increases in volume, but with lower prices and consequently lower profits."

This opinion was expressed jointly by the two top officials of the Gulf Oil corporation in an annual report to the stockholders. J. F. Drake, chairman of the board, and S. A. Swensrud, president, were the men making the prediction for the coming year.

Comparative Figures Given

The 1948 annual report contained comparative figures on the progress of the big oil concern during the postwar years. Well completions reached a new peak which was nine per cent over 1947. Pipe line deliveries were two per cent above the 1947 record figure. Water transportation of crude oil and the derivative products jumped 18 per cent to hit the highest volume in the company's history.

While the volume of production reached new highs the Gulf report indicated that their total proved reserves had also increased. At the end of 1948, the report shows, the estimated proved reserves in the United States alone amounted to 1,276,000,000. Their reserves in foreign holdings, such as Venezuela, were also above the figures reported in 1947.

Refining Capacity Boosted

The largest forward step was in refinery capacity which jumped 50 per cent above the capacity of 1941, the final prewar year. Eight refineries were processing 384,000 barrels of crude oil daily with a capacity of 410,300 available. Based on standard barrels of 42 gallons this amounts to 16,129,638 gallons per day going through the eight plants. Total daily production of crude in the entire system of holdings in the Western Hemisphere was 425,722 barrels or 19,098,324 gallons.

More than half of the production was in the continental United States.

The report also disclosed that Gulf had 47,323 employes in domestic and foreign operations at the close of 1948.

Mark E. Wood, who has been conducting research work at Texas Technological college for the Cotton Research committee, has accepted a position as head of the engineering research department of the H. & B. American Machine company, Pawtuckett, R. I.

Wood said he would leave for the new post on May 1. The company is a manufacturer of textile machinery.

Wood, who graduated in textile engineering from Tech in 1931, has worked with the New Braunfels textile mills, the Pacific Textile Mills, the Calloway Mills, La Grange, Ga., and served for a time as technical editor of The Textile World.

B-36 Superbomber Changes Name To 'The Peacemaker'

FORT WORTH, April 13 (U.P.) — The widely-publicized, far-ranging B-36 superbomber operated under a new name today—The Peacemaker.

Officials of Consolidated-Vultee, where the huge six-engine ships are turned out, announced unanimous selection of the name by a three-man judging board after it was proposed by 60 employes in the Fort Worth and San Diego plants.

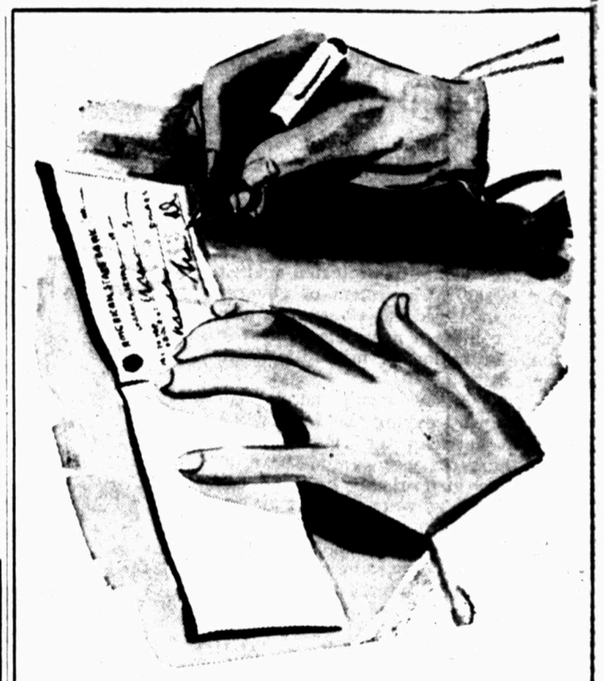

The Air Force and Munitions board aircraft committee will be asked to make the name the official designation of the big bomber.

New Farm Program

ONE of the first and most vivid impressions of the newly proposed administration farm program is the apparent pretense of its authors that it would mean all things to all men.

Producers—meaning the farmers—are assured they would be protected against income losses by a system of government price subsidies. Consumers are told they could get necessaries cheaper by the elimination of minimum price guarantees.

The government would accomplish this miracle by paying the farmer the difference between the retail cost of food at the grocery store and the minimum price guaranteed the producer by the U.S. Eggs were cited as an example illustrating the scheme. If the farmer should be guaranteed 35 cents a dozen for his eggs, and the shopper should buy them at 25 cents, Uncle Sam would reimburse the farmer for the difference.

But everyone with a grain of intelligence knows that extra dime would have to come from some place. Everyone also knows what that "some place" would be. It would be taxation, not only to obtain the dime for the eggs, but also enormous sums to administer a subsidy program so gigantic. Ordinary logic should tell anyone that the consumer would pay the full price for eggs, either to the producer or the tax collector.

Between the two, the direct payment to the producer would be far cheaper. It would not necessitate the huge financial cost, among many objections, of a new or vastly expanded government controlling agency.

A Poor Risk

REPEATED attempts have been made in recent years to drum up U.S. support for recognition of Franco Spain, almost invariably by interests which would profit thereby. No attempt has gotten far. Public opposition has been too swift for official Washington to challenge by acknowledging serious consideration of the resumption of diplomatic relations with the dictator created and used as a willing tool by Hitler and Mussolini.

The latest attempt to build up Franco sentiment isn't likely to get as far as some of the others. Certain unidentified banking interests are behind it. One of their spokesmen whose name, significantly, was not used, was quoted the other day as outlining some of the conditions under which they might make private loans to Spain.

The conditions won't impress many Americans to whom Franco, as the wartime intimate and boot-licking admirer of Nazis and Fascists, symbolizes just about everything that is repugnant. The conditions are concerned wholly with changes in Franco laws which would guarantee profits on proposed loans. Not one word suggests objections or alterations which might modify the tyranny of the Franco dictatorship. On the contrary, the loans probably would entrench Franco in power stronger than ever, because the interests of lenders would be more secure with him as the head of state.

It will be surprising if the possibility of profitable private bank loans to Spain will modify popular American distaste for the dictator. They may dislike even more the possibility of private loans which they might be urged to collect by force some day if Franco should repudiate them—and his record proves he would repudiate without hesitancy if his interests would be served and if he thought he could get away with it.

(THE STORY: After being captured by Mr. Barselou and held prisoner in his gambling ranch, John Henry and Sin Conover are released by Faye Jordan, an unpredictable girl who figures in the tangled murder mystery at Azure, Calif. Faye had come to the ranch in search of her car and as soon as the Conovers are released, she disappears, leaving the Conovers to find their own way home.)

XXX

NOT far ahead of them twinkled the lights of Azure, set in an incandescent halo against early evening. The burly driver turned a knob and twin beams leaped out ahead of the speeding truck.

"Whereabouts you want to go this time?" he asked wearily.

"Any place there's a phone," John Henry said, feeling a bit embarrassed. He wished they hadn't flagged the same truck and trailer that had given him a lift earlier in the day.

"Drive-in up here has one."

"That'll be swell."

The driver eased down on the brake pedal near a big neon sign TOMAHAWK in red and then DRIVE INN in blue. John Henry jumped down from the high cab and held up an assisting hand to Sin. She gingerly came to earth.

"Thanks for the lift," John Henry called up. The driver nodded as the truck pulled away.

"Gosh, am I glad to see people again," Sin burbled happily. "Just plain old unarmed people!"

"I'll bet that driver thinks I'm nuts."

"Forget him, honey. We're just five minutes away from the police. Then we'll be all right. I feel like hugging Lieutenant Lay."

The phone booth was inside and at the far end of the counter. The room was almost deserted. The girl behind the counter whistled as she concocted a chocolate malt. The solitary customer was a pompous-looking man in his fifties who was reading a newspaper near the phone booth and munching absentmindedly on a double-deck hamburger. As the Conovers came in, he gulped down the last bite, dropped a coin by his plate and squeezed by them.

John Henry pulled the folding door to the booth open and said, "I guess you just ask for the police."

"That's what it always says in the front of the phone book." Sin sat down at the counter next to the telephone booth and ordered two hamburgers — "with everything!" Then she reached out a bare arm and scooped up the newspaper the departed customer had been reading.

JOHN HENRY folded the door shut behind him and got comfortable on the built-in stool. He took the receiver off the hook. He listened for the buzz of the clear wire. He dropped the coin in the proper slot.

There was a sudden banging on the glass by his head and he reared back, startled. Sin was hammering one small fist against the pane and pointing to the newspaper.

"Operator," a precise voice said in his ear.

Sin was pointing to the top of the newspaper where it said EXTRA! in red ink. She shook her head furiously at him.

"Operator," the voice said again.

"Wrong number," John Henry answered mechanically and replaced the receiver. He pushed open the door, asking irritably, "What's wrong, Sin?"

"You didn't get the police, did you?" Sin grabbed his shoulders. Her face was white and strained.

"Not yet. Why?"

"Johnny—look at that!"

Her pointing finger trembled over the front page of the newspaper. AZURE HOTEL MAN BRUTALLY SLAIN. The tall black type blurred. John Henry shook his head, plopped on a seat beside his wife and, focusing carefully, began to read.

POLICE SEARCH FOR PHANTOM KILLER IN SECOND WEEK-END TRAGEDY HERE

Azure police this evening combed the city for a mysterious killer who has struck twice in twenty-four hours, following the discovery of the body of James V. Gayner, 35 assistant manager of the Las Dunas Hotel. Gayner was stabbed to death in one of the hotel's guest cottages early this afternoon, police said.

Lieutenant R. Fenton Lay, homicide bureau chief, claims that the murder is apparently closely related to the shooting of Homer Anglin, 41-year-old prospector, in Azure last night.

A statewide alarm has been issued for the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Conover, of San Diego, occupants of the cottage in which Gayner's body was found. The Conovers, present at the scene of the first slaying, have disappeared from the hotel, Lay announced.

"I expect an arrest within forty-eight hours," he said.

Gayner's body was discovered, stabbed in the back with a hotel letter opener, by Vernon Stebbins, 22, Las Dunas employe. There were no signs of a struggle. An automatic pencil, believed to be the property of the missing Conovers, was found beside the body. . . .

"WHAT are we going to do?" Sin demanded.

"They think we did it!" John Henry gasped in amazement. "Can you imagine that?"

"But what are we going to do?"

He read the story again, rubbing his jaw irresolutely. This was a tight spot. Tighter and tighter. They were present at, perhaps implicated in, the first murder. Their alibi for the second murder was Barselou. And Barselou was certainly no friend of the Conovers.

Suddenly John Henry slapped the counter. "The prize—the quiz contest," he cried triumphantly. "Part of your winnings is a fairy godfather. He's supposed to take care of us and see that we have a good time, remember? He said so himself. Well, we're not having one."

"Oh, but honey—what can Mr. Trim do?"

"I don't know, baby. That's his department. But anything at all would be an improvement." John Henry banged the booth door to and began to call feverishly for the operator.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

IF this new idea of mine works out, I am going to be a millionaire!

My Electroman idea petered out. As you may remember, I was working on a human being without blood or sickness — everything electrical, everything mechanical.

BRANDEIS

It was a marvelous scheme. But then, a fellow whom I told about it, said "That's o.k. for your Electro-MAN, but how about an ElectroWOMAN?"

I dropped the whole thing right there and then. Much too complicated.

But this idea is different.

As you know, there are all kinds of "—of-the-Month" clubs nowadays. There is the Book-of-the-Month club; the Fruit-of-the-Month club; the Candy - of - the - Month club; the Picture - of - the - Month club; the Show-of-the-Month club, and many others.

My club is going to be the Marriage-of-the-Month club, or rather, because of my conservative nature, I'll make it the Marriage-of-the-Year club.

The idea came to me when I read about a movie actress breaking up with her sixth husband, who himself had been married several times before.

There is hardly a day that you don't hear of somebody getting divorced from a third or fourth or fifth spouse, and some of these displaced persons haven't any idea where their next husband or wife is coming from.

That is where I come in.

My club is not only going to find "next ones" but it is going to attend to all the little chores that go with annual remarriage.

For instance, we will store bridal dresses for female members and even have dressmakers to let them out as the brides middle-age spread increases, and remodel them to fit the prevailing style.

We will register the children so that each son or daughter will know at a moment's notice which one of the mother's husbands was his or her father. That also goes vice versa for the mother.

We will arrange sixty-day excursions (American or European plan) to Reno, furnish lawyers and justices-of-the-peace for our members and provide the necessary causes for divorce.

SOME of the book-of-the-month clubs send books on approval to their members.

I had been thinking of doing that with prospective husbands or wives in my marriage-of-the-year club, but I am afraid it wouldn't be quite practical. The traveling expenses might be too high, and there is all that bother about wrapping and expressing and so forth if they want to return the merchandise. So that is out.

Please don't apply for membership as yet. There are still a lot of details to be worked out, and I want to make sure that my proposed enterprise won't be subject to a Senate investigation.

However, I'll keep you posted.

Funny Business

"In addition it has a built-in calendar which automatically flashes the date when the next payment is due!"

FOR EITHER PARTY

No Top Candidates

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The recasting and reshuffling of the political scene in recent weeks have thrown a new light on the stature of prospective candidates for the Democratic and Republican presidential nominations in 1952.

While it is not possible to forecast accurately or scientifically the major parties' choices so far in advance, here is a current analysis of the plans and chances of the numerous hopefuls:

TUCKER

President Truman: He will not seek a renomination. He has told friends that he will be glad to quit the White House if he can preserve world peace and the present level of prosperity.

He is not subject to the three or four-term ambitions of a Roosevelt. With his increased salary and tax-free spending allowance, he can save enough to live modestly but happily at Independence, Mo.

Vice President Barkley: He will be too old to run, and he feels his age. A fine public servant in the House, in the Senate and in his present post, he will retire to his bluegrass farm in Kentucky.

POLITICS: "Ike" Eisenhower. The popular military figure has forsworn politics. While not entirely happy in his academic assignment at Columbia university, he would be even more unhappy in partisan politics.

His health is poor. In 1952 he will not be the vote-getter that he might have been in 1948. The soldier sheen will have worn off by then, and he knows it.

Chief Justice Vinson: The able and likable "Fred" would run only if he felt that his party needed him. He will be only 62 in 1952, and would be available from many standpoints. But he doesn't want the presidential job, being quite content where he is now.

George C. Marshall: Too old, and would not take the White House responsibility on a bipartisan platter. Wants to recover his health, and putter around his flower gardens at Leesburg, Virginia.

ANATHEMA: Associate Justice William O. Douglas: The darling of the Roosevelt New Dealers, and always receptive if he thought he could win. But he has no political connections or roots. Not a chance.

Secretary of State Acheson: Again, not a chance. His hoity-toity manner, though more superficial than real, would kill him as a candidate. Never belonged to a political organization in his life, and loathes them.

Moreover, by 1952, when the costs of all our foreign aid programs will pinch and punish the local pocketbooks, the man who has to sponsor such a program may be anathema to the voters.

AMBITIOUS: James A. Farley: "Big Jim," despite his $75,000 job with Coca Cola, is making lots of speeches. The presidency has long been his ambition. He might be the man to weld the New Deal and conservative wings of the Democratic party, assuming that the back-room politicos dared to nominate a Roman Catholic.

Flotsam and Jetsam: The Democrats have such possibilities as Senate Majority Leader Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, Senator Paul H. Douglas of the same state, Governor Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, Governor Frank J. Lausche of Ohio (also a Catholic), and Governor Chester A. Bowles of Connecticut.

All are ambitious, but they must work fast to build up a reputation entitling them to a presidential nomination. It is doubtful if they can do it in this politically atomic age.

NAME: The Republicans are as short of presidential stuff as the Democrats, to wit:

Governor Thomas E. Dewey: He would like another chance. But he will not get it. He conducted such a woeful and inept campaign in the best year of a G.O.P. life that the bosses will not try him again.

Governor Earl Warren: Ditto.

Senator Robert A. Taft: It is the general impression that he wants to try again. He stepped aside or lost in the years when the G.O.P. named such neo-New Dealers as Willkie and Dewey twice.

If the Republicans want to nominate a sensible liberal, and have a showdown with the Truman-Roosevelt philosophy of government, they will name the Ohioan.

The change of name of the federal labor law from Taft-Hartley to Thomas-Lesinski, even though there may be no change in its basic provisions, may help the son of the former President and Yale professor.

OPPORTUNIST: Senator Henry Cabot Lodge: He wants it badly. But he is a young, regional politician and has been deemed an opportunist. Might be a possibility for second place on the ticket.

Harold A. Stassen: He aches for the nomination so violently that he has mental and physical pains. He accepted the presidency of the University of Pennsylvania only on condition that he could seek the 1952 nomination.

Not trusted by the politicians, and a doubtful winner unless the G.O.P. turns vocally liberal from ballot-box necessity.

WATCH: Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg. Along with Senator Taft, with whom he has no fundamental disagreement, the best of the lot. But he will not run. Wants to retire and write.

Governor James H Duff of Pennsylvania: He is the man to watch. He will probably run against Senator Francis J. Myers in 1950, and if he should win against such a prominent Democrat, representing such a politically important state, Governor Duff would be a distinct possibility. Moreover, a small but influential bloc of G.O.P.-ers are in his corner.

"Present-day world-wide upheavals only mean that civilization is under construction," asserts a sociologist. Under construction? Heck, we had been thinking it was being razed.

"The best thing for an insane person to do is to work hard 16 hours a day," asserts a psychiatrist. In our opinion there would be very little hope for a person crazy enough to take this advice.

---

"Life on earth began in hot water," says a scientist. We earthlings are certainly in a rut, aren't we?

"All men are your relatives; therefore expect trouble from them."—Chinese proverb. So that's what's the matter with the world!—it's populated by kinsfolk.

"Three per cent of the people have visual hallucinations," says a psychologist. The percentage is much higher than that, as there should be included the optimist who think they see a bright future.

Today's couplet: Here's a tip, lady fat and fair: Your slacks are too small for your derriere.

Invariably the optimist is unprepared when hard luck overtakes him. It's the price he pays for living in a fool's paradise of his own making.

Demos' Situation Is Improving

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — As discouraging as the prospect has been thus far, Democratic leaders in Congress are beginning to feel somewhat better about their situation as regards President Truman's legislative program.

They realize now that they are headed for a long, hard battle, and that realization, itself, is the beginning of wisdom. Consequently, there has been a re-assessment of their position, a re-alignment of forces, and a consolidation for a slow but steady advance.

The hard-headed practical politicians who constitute the Democratic leadership were conscious of the difficulties ahead very soon after Congress met and they had taken stock, even though they underestimated them. But many voters and some new Democratic members of Congress swept in by the election had a feeling of high optimism, which should have been justified by the election, that many things would be done quickly.

STOKES

More Backing Seen

While that illusion has been dispelled, they have reached the second and more healthy stage, which is a determination to buckle down to the fight ahead. For the large segment of the public interested in the Truman program that means intensified organized effort in behalf of the things they believed they were voting for last November.

One of the most encouraging developments for the Democratic leadership is the assurance being given privately that more Southern Democrats than had been expected, including some generally regarded as conservative, will go along on most of the social welfare program. It was such assurance, given voluntarily, that turned a Democratic party conference in the Senate early this week into what was described as the most harmonious thus far.

Senator George (Ga.) stated that most of the Truman program must go through. He is a leading conservative and influential, not only in his party but in the Senate at large. Afterward, Senator Stennis (Miss.) got up to say that he did not know of any plan among southerners for a coalition with Republicans, whereupon Senator Holland (Fla.) rose to support him in this statement.

The reference was to a hard-and-fast agreement with Republicans such as had been reported likely after the bitter three-week fight over the administration's attempt to curb the filibuster practice, which had irritated many southerners. Some Southern Democrats, of course, will continue to vote on some issues with Republicans, which they reserve as their right, as some Republicans side with the administration on some issues. But the hard feelings stirred up by the anti-filibuster fight seem to have been assuaged.

It may be recalled that southerners contributed the necessary votes to enact a rent control extension law that President Truman accepted as satisfactory.

GOPs Are Blamed

The strategy henceforth will be twofold. First, to push ahead on all fronts, in committee and on the floor, with the Truman program. Second, to keep the spotlight turned constantly on the Republicans, how they vote, what dilatory tactics they employ, in order to counter what Senator Lucas (Ill.), Democratic majority leader, calls "an attempt by the Republicans to make the 81st Congress look worse than the 80th."

Democratic leaders are aware that they must have a substantial list of accomplishments by the congressional elections next year, and they are charging that the Republican aim is to hold this down to as little as possible.

Democratic leaders likewise are aware that they much get a good deal done in this first session. They can take no chances. They do not want to get caught in the dilemma in which Republicans found themselves in the 80th Congress when that party failed to get through its social welfare program, which had been scheduled for the second session of that Congress. That failure gave President Truman his text.

Accordingly, the plan is to keep Congress at work until July 31, when it must adjourn under the congressional reorganization act, and bring it back here in special session about the first of October to continue its work. If progress has been slow by the regular July 31 adjournment date, then President Truman may take a tour here and there and tell the story, as he did once before so effectively.

He is the party's "secret weapon," though hardly a closely kept secret any more.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP) — Corn figures sank on the board of trade today under the weight of heavy offerings of cash grain by country elevators. Dealers reported they bought close to 400,000 bushels of cash corn on a to-arrive basis.

Wall Street

MARKET IS UNSTEADY

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Trading attention centered on a handful of stocks in a wavering market today.

The bulk of the market see-sawed in aimless fashion. Final quotations were a mixture of fractional changes with losses outweighing gains. The day's business amounted to 910,000 shares.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co common stock rallied sharply from a break of more than 6 points at the worst Tuesday. It was a second-day reaction to news that the company planned to offer stockholders the right to subscribe to an additional 784,235 common shares at a price of $50 each.

Electric Power and Light reaching a new high for the year at 24⅛.

Others reaching new 1949 highs, although closing under the best, were Caterpillar Tractor, up 1 at 89¾; American Power and Light, up ¼ at 10½; and Warner Bros. up ⅛ at 11½.

Corporate bonds moved narrowly. Several U. S. government issues inched ahead, gains were posted in the curb for Lone Star Gas, National Fuel Gas, Standard Cap and Seal, Niagara Hudson Power and Kaiser-Fraser.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular today in active dealings. Heavy covering in nearby May futures, prior to first notice day April 26, paced an upturn in old crop deliveries. Some of the buying was against export sales. New crop positions were lower on profit taking with little interest in those months.

Futures closed 90 cents a bale higher to 25 cents lower than the previous close.
