Thant Election Is Due In U. N. Today

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. AP—The U.N. General Assembly meets this afternoon to elect U. Thant Burma secretary-general to serve until Nov. 3, 1966. He will lose the "acting" handle attached to his title for the past year.

The 11-nation Security Council scheduled a private meeting this morning to vote the necessary recommendation that the 53-year-old Burmese continue in the top U.N. post.

Thant's election by the assembly was expected to be unanimous.

The United States and the Soviet Union agreed earlier to give Thant a full five-year term as secretary-general. But on his insistence it will expire Nov. 3, 1966, five years from the date he became acting secretary-general as successor to the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

Hammarskjöld was killed the previous Sept. 17 in a plane crash near Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. Thant, then Burma's chief U.N. delegate, was named to serve the rest of Hammarskjöld's second five-year term, until April 10, 1963.

Besides running the U.N. secretariat of more than 5,000 employees, he has spent much of the past year since in tough negotiations on the problems of New Guinea, the Congo and Cuba. Friends say that, for personal reasons, he does not want to remain longer than four more years in the U.N. post.

Diplomatic sources report that the major Western powers—for technical reasons—also are opposed to a full five-year term for Thant.

These informants said the Soviet Union told Thant Wednesday it was willing for him to serve five more years starting with his re-election today.

The Western powers reportedly wanted the five years to start Nov. 3, 1961, the day he became acting secretary-general, so that the acting secretary-generalship would be wiped off the books.

The United Nations said the U.N. would not agree to this but did agree to a five-year term ending Nov. 3, 1966—the same time expressed in a different way.

When Thant was named to succeed Hammarskjöld, the Soviets insisted that he be titled acting secretary-general because they were on record in favor of replacing the secretary-general eventually by a three-man "troika" board.

The Americans disliked the acting designation but went along to get the vacancy filled.

The Soviets have not publicly withdrawn their proposal for a three-man secretary-generalship, originally made by Premier Khrushchev here in 1960. But they no longer mention it.

The proposal aroused strong opposition from many governors and some influential members of Congress.

A Pentagon spokesman said Thursday consultations are still going on with governors and Congress members, but it was understood the talks center on ironing out details.

The President and Mikoyan met for more than three hours late Thursday. U.S. officials had hoped the meeting would produce evidence of change in Soviet policies on arms control, or other global problems, in the wake of the crisis over Cuba.

In this hope, they were apparently disappointed.

White House sources said that from the U.S. point of view the meeting did not provide any surprises that Mikoyan's discussion of Soviet policies produced nothing of a new or different character.

Mikoyan, who just spent three weeks in Cuba, told reporters as he left the President's office shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday night.

"We had an exchange of views with the President on questions of interest to both our countries, chiefly about Cuba. As a result of this conversation, we agreed to issue certain instructions to our representatives in New York—we to our negotiators, and the president will instruct their negotiators—to continue negotiations to finally settle the Cuban question."

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the two men had agreed "that, as a followup of this meeting, the conversations would continue in New York between Ambassador Stevenson, Mr. McCloy and Mr. Kuznetsov."

That until some kind of on the spot inspection is provided, the United States will continue aerial surveillance over the island.

2. That even though Soviet missiles have been removed from the United States strongly objects to any use of Cuba as a military base by the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union still has thousands of military technicians and troops units in Cuba and a number of short-range missile bases, including 24 aircraft missile installations, which Kennedy would like to have dismantled.

The prospective Indian-Pakistan negotiations eased India's necessity, at least for the time, of keeping the bulk of her troops on guard against Pakistan during an undeclared border war with China. Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada told the conference the unpolished mortarman he proposed should be "of limited duration, perhaps a year or six months."

It would permit the conference to reach quick agreement on ending nuclear tests in all environments by Jan. 1, and "give the way something he proposed should make a happy New Year," he said.

Each nuclear power would have an annual quota of 50-site inspections, but these could take place only by agreement of the suspected country.

India Denies Red China Charge Of Provocation

1st Witness Is Called In Vote Probe

MCALLEN AP—The first witness at an investigation of Starr County absentee voting today was a deputy sheriff who said he did not speak, read or write English. He is Filiberto Salinas of La Rosita in Starr County.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Sam Wilson asked the man where he was in October, and he replied that he was in Levelland with a crew of cotton pickers. He said he still drew his salary as a deputy sheriff at that time. He said that he was paid very little, and was allowed to work outside the county two or three months a year.

Wilson asked Salinas if he helped his crew apply for absentee ballots. He said he did not. He denied helping anyone apply for absentee ballots, or intervening in the election procedure in any way.

Salinas was one of 39 persons who answered when the subpoena list was read. A total of 41 subpoenas of the 75 issued have been served. Wilson declined to say whether service of additional subpoenas was being attempted.

Withdrawal Still Slated

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
NEW DELHI, India AP—India denied today Red Chinese charges that it engaged in armed provocations by rushing troops to Himalayan borderlands as the deadline approached for a promised Communist withdrawal.

The Chinese said they were watching the situation closely but an authoritative source here said the Indian government had received indications the Communists planned to go through with their withdrawal Saturday, Peking time, as they announced with their self-imposed cease-fire nine days ago.

India has not yet accepted Red China's proposals for the withdrawal.

It has been sending reinforcements by land and air into the crucial northeastern sector of the battlefield since the cease-fire went into effect.

India's hand has been strengthened, for the time being at least, by a lessening of pressure in its dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir.

Prime Minister Nehru and President Mohanlal Abub Khan have agreed to negotiate their 15-year dispute but the going may be rough.

The agreement, however, will allow India to breathe easier as it pulls troops away from the Pakistan border to face the Red Chinese.

Peking said it would withdraw its troops 12½ miles behind what it called the line of actual control in November 1959. India doesn't go along because it would leave the Red Chinese still on territory claimed by India.

It has sent off a second note to Peking seeking further clarification of the Chinese proposals. A first request brought what an Indian Foreign Ministry spokesman called a vague reply.

The spokesman said India wants restoration of the positions both armies held last Sept. 8, before the Chinese swept into northeastern India and threatened its rich and fertile state of Assam.

Nehru and Ayub Khan are expected eventually to get together on the Kashmir issue but first lesser officials are to lay the groundwork.

Nehru indicated today he was prepared to retreat little if any from his position.

An uproar of opposition rose in Pakistan's National Assembly. A Pakistan newspaper, The Times, said officials wanted concrete results from talks and were not prepared for "academic discussions on Kashmir with anybody."

Nehru told Parliament he was not committed to a partition of disputed Kashmir as a basis of settlement and could not "bypass or ignore our basic principles."

Any "upset of the present arrangement would be very harmful to the people of Kashmir as well as to future relations between India and Pakistan," he added.

The present arrangement is a partition by a cease-fire line which has been in effect for 13 years under U.N. watch.

Nehru consented to the talks under the pressure of the Red Chinese offensive which broke through India's Himalayan frontier.

A joint Indian-Pakistan communiqué announcing the talks was issued as Red China charged India with conducting provocative troop movements up to the Himalayan cease-fire line.

The Chinese charge, made on the eve of the Saturday deadline set by Peking for a pullback of its troops, raised prospects of fresh fighting instead of a Chinese retreat.

Guard Change Plan Is Due

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department says the controversial reorganization plan for Army National Guard and Reserves will come out in final form probably next week, without major changes.

The plan, proposed by the Army last spring and supported by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, consists mainly of breaking up eight infantry divisions, setting up streamlined brigade organizations in their stead and dropping about 730 company-size units which are considered obsolete.

The proposal aroused strong opposition from many governors and some influential members of Congress.

A Pentagon spokesman said Thursday consultations are still going on with governors and Congress members, but it was understood the talks center on ironing out details.

More Talks Are Due

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON AP—President Kennedy and Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan have agreed that the United States and the Soviet Union will continue negotiations for a final settlement of the Cuban crisis.

But their lengthy White House conference failed to yield any evidence of progress toward agreement on other critical East-West issues.

The President and Mikoyan met for more than three hours late Thursday. U.S. officials had hoped the meeting would produce evidence of change in Soviet policies on arms control, or other global problems, in the wake of the crisis over Cuba.

In this hope, they were apparently disappointed.

While no details of the conversation were made public, Kennedy presumably emphasized to Mikoyan two main points about the U.S. attitude toward Cuba.

1. That until some kind of on the spot inspection is provided, the United States will continue aerial surveillance over the island.

2. That even though Soviet missiles have been removed from the United States strongly objects to any use of Cuba as a military base by the Soviet Union.

Texas Mostly Cloudy Today

By The Associated Press
Texas closed out November with mostly cloudy and milder than usual weather.

Skies were overcast in all sections early Friday except for a clear patch around Abilene and partly cloudy conditions in South Central Texas. There was fog in the San Angelo area.

Occasional showers or light rain were predicted for Northwest and Southwest Texas during the evening. Otherwise little change was in prospect.

Thursday's top temperatures ranged from 51 degrees at Amarillo up to 76 at Brownsville.

Readings early Friday varied from 40 at Junction to 64 at McAllen.

Irate Hoffa Fires Attorney

By GAVIN SCOTT
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Teamsters President James R. Hoffa and George S. Fitzgerald, his legal counsel and friend for 27 years, have parted bitterly in the midst of Hoffa's $1-million conspiracy trial.

As the prosecution rested its case Thursday—following six weeks of testimony by 29 witnesses and featuring 263 exhibits—the Detroit News said in a copyrighted article that Hoffa fired Fitzgerald, who is from Detroit.

Fitzgerald's firing, the News said, followed a heated exchange last Monday between the men outside the federal courtroom here.

Fitzgerald, under subpoena as a government witness in Hoffa's trial, told the jury on Monday he swapped his personal check for $15,000 to Hoffa in return for a dividend from Test Fleet, a trucking firm involved in the trial, made out to Hoffa's wife.

Fitzgerald testified the transaction was made at Hoffa's request and that the latter offered no explanation.

The News quoted Hoffa as telling Fitzgerald: "You're all through! Turn in your books and records. And you'd better start thinking about the $75,000 loan."

The News said the loan purportedly had been obtained by Fitzgerald from the Teamsters Central State Conference, of which Hoffa is president.

Fitzgerald, who has been a Teamsters attorney since 1935, is a former Michigan Democratic committeeman.

Hoffa said the Detroit paper was in error and told a newsman:

"We didn't fire him, he resigned."

Fitzgerald, in a telephone interview from Detroit, told a newsman for the Nashville Tennessee Thursday night that "there was no talk of resigning at any time," and adding: "It happened just like the paper (the Detroit News) said it happened."

As for turning over union books and records, as requested by Hoffa, Fitzgerald said he had neither books nor records.

"I talked with him (Hoffa) twice after that," Fitzgerald said, and he repeated it (the firing).

Hoffa said the union had "made certain requests of Mr. Fitzgerald and that 'rather than comply he severed his relations with the union.'"

As for Hoffa's statements about him resigning, Fitzgerald told the Detroit Free Press Thursday night, they were "strictly a fabrication—garbage."

Hoffa said he had told all union lawyers—not just Fitzgerald—they would have to drop some of their clients and if necessary spend their full time with the union. He said he made other requests of Fitzgerald.

"I told him he had to stop drinking and he had to take our business first—before he takes his other clients," the union chief said.

Commented Fitzgerald: "As far as all this stuff about my drinking, that is a lie right out of the gutter. It had nothing to do with this situation at all."

Fitzgerald said Hoffa fired him "because I think he was displeased with my testimony. But the testimony was the truth to the best of my recollection. And I was sworn to tell the truth."

Test Ban Treaty Proposed By India

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
GENEVA AP—India proposed today a nuclear test ban treaty without compulsory inspection provisions.

Indian Delegate Arthur Lall made his government's proposal to the 17-nation disarmament conference after Canada urged the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union to accept a Swedish proposal for a temporary, uninspection moratorium on underground nuclear tests while scientists seek agreement on an on-site inspection system.

Lall suggested a system of on-site inspections, in effect by invitation.

Each nuclear power would have an annual quota of 50-site inspections, but these could take place only by agreement of the suspected country.

If the suspected country refused to allow inspection after a suspicious earth tremor had been reported, the treaty would automatically "fall to the ground," Lall said.

Lall's proposal constituted a substantial departure from the American and British position that a ban on underground tests must be policed by compulsory on-site inspections.

Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada told the conference the unpolished mortarman he proposed should be "of limited duration, perhaps a year or six months."

It would permit the conference to reach quick agreement on ending nuclear tests in all environments by Jan. 1, and "give the way something he proposed should make a happy New Year," he said.

Christmas time is fast approaching, and Snyder's Goodfellows earnestly need your help in order to further their annual drive aimed at helping give assistance in the form of food, clothing and toys to needy families within the county.

Donations of goods are now being accepted from 9-12 daily at the headquarters building located in half black south of the square in the former Phillips Hardware Store, while donations of money may be made at desks provided in both of the local banks or by mailing in care of The Goodfellows, Box 661.

Persons needing aid from the organization may apply for it from 9-12 a. m. Monday through Saturday in the former Chamber of Commerce building next door to Wolfe Studio on the southeast corner of the square.

A need for volunteer workers to help out in the drive exists now, and will be a continuing requirement from now until Christmas. Any persons able to lend a hand are asked to contact Rev. Jack Dean, Goodfellows chairman, and inform him of the capacity in which they would be able to serve.

CHURCH NOTES

CHAS. R. GIBBS III

First Presbyterian

Charles Russell Gibbs III, senior student at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, will be guest pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in Austin.

Mr. Gibbs has a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from The University of Texas. Before entering the Seminary he was employed as a soils analyst for the Texas Highway Department and as an electrical engineer for Shell Oil Company in Houston. He has served five years in the U.S. Army Signal Corps in the Far East.

He has his church membership in the First Southern Presbyterian Church in Austin.

Church members and friends are reminded of the chili supper tonight at the church which is being given as a fund raising project of the young people. Money raised will be used for the annual mission study trip. Next year's trip is planned for visits to Trinity University and Austin Theological Seminary.

Since there will be no Circle meetings in December, all women of the church are urged to attend the UPW organizational meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4. In addition to installation of officers, a special Christmas program is planned. Mrs. John R. Covey will install the officers. Mrs. W. R. Everett is in charge of the program; and Mrs. R. T. Roberts is hostess. Those attending the meeting have been asked to bring a gift for a child to be forwarded to the Amarillo Children's Home.

Looking Back

From The Snyder Daily News Nov. 25, 1959

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower filled another top post today in the international policy sphere of his forthcoming administration.

He designated Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge to head the U.S. mission to the United Nations.

Snyder was chosen Friday as the site for the regional match between Stamford and Seminole, 2-1, at the new tennis club, decided in a meeting with M. E. Stanford, assistant superintendent of Snyder schools.

The Snyder Quarterback Club and the Chamber of Commerce were all set this morning to welcome some 3,000 fans from Seymour and Lockney for tonight's regional championship football game at Tiger Stadium.

DALLAS (AP)—This country's hopes for the future rest on its success in educating scientists and political leaders. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) told Texas school teachers last night.

Kennedy, often mentioned as a possible candidate for president in 1960, addressed the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers Assn.

Pope John Makes Good Recovery

By JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII is making a good recovery, with medical treatment "obtaining the hoped for results" in his battle against anemia, a Vatican communiqué said today.

The 81-year-old pontiff got out of his sick bed briefly again this morning and "occupied himself with some problems regarding the government of the Church, giving the relative dispositions," the statement added.

It was the second time he had been able to get up since he was stricken Tuesday.

Vatican sources said the Pope's doctor was concerned, however, that he was rushing things in his determination to get back to work.

"As soon as he feels a bit better, he wants to get out of bed," Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini was quoted as saying. "It is difficult to keep him there."

If he were widespread—but unconfirmed—reports the Pope has a stomach ache.

Dr. Gasbarrini was quoted by the Milan paper Il Giorno as denying "speculation the Pope suffers from cancer of the prostate."

Dr. Gasbarrini, 80, was quoted as explaining about the pontiff's condition:

"Certainly he is prostatic. Everybody is at his age, including me. But there is absolutely no cancer."

Il Giorno also said Gasbarrini denied that surgery was contemplated. There have been reports in Rome papers—and among sources at the Ecclesiastical Council of prelates meeting in Rome—that the Pope might have to be operated on for a long-troublesome prostate condition.

Fines Assessed In County Court Cases

Fred B. Wilkerson, Jr. of Snyder who had pleaded not guilty Tuesday to charges of DWI and illegal transportation of alcohol, changed his plea yesterday afternoon in county court.

He entered a plea of guilty on both counts. He was fined $100 plus costs of $26.35 on the transporting charge, and fined $100 plus costs of $26.35 and given three days in jail on the DWI charge.

The pickup Wilkerson was driving overturned near Ira Monday afternoon.

Dr. Gasbarrini, 80, was quoted as explaining about the pontiff's condition:

"Certainly he is prostatic. Everybody is at his age, including me. But there is absolutely no cancer."

Il Giorno also said Gasbarrini denied that surgery was contemplated. There have been reports in Rome papers—and among sources at the Ecclesiastical Council of prelates meeting in Rome—that the Pope might have to be operated on for a long-troublesome prostate condition.

Rev. Copeland On Morning Devotions

The Rev. D. W. Copeland, pastor of Knapp Baptist Church, will be the speaker on the Morning Devotions Radio program next week.

The program is presented at 9:30 a.m. daily, Monday through Friday, over KSNV. It is scheduled by the radio committee of the Snyder-Scurry County Ministerial Alliance.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner, 2202 Fort - fourth street, are the parents of a 7 lb. 6 oz. baby boy born at 11:27 a.m. Nov. 30 at Cogdell Hospital.

First Christian

"The Lamp and the Light" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Alan Lynch, pastor of First Christian Church, at the 10:45 a.m. worship service Sunday.

Sunday School will begin at 8:45 a.m. and youth groups for junior high and high school ages will meet at 6 p.m.

An adult study course of "Christian Faith and Experience" will be conducted at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

SIX-YEAR SAFETY AWARD—M. L. Broman, right, Standard Oil Co. of Texas SACROC District superintendent, receives the award from Paul Jones of Midland, division superintendent. At left is L. A. Swanson of Houston, president of the company. The SACROC District's record is the best in the company.

Standard SACROC District Safety Record Recognized

A safety milestone was chalked up Sept. 6 by the SACROC District of Standard Oil Co. of Texas.

On that date the division completed six continuous years of operation without a "time-loss" accident. That record is unequalled in all of the Standard of Texas divisions.

Presentations of individual safety awards as well as the district's award were made at a banquet Thursday evening at the Snyder Country Club. On hand to congratulate the recipients of the awards were several high executives of the Standard Oil Co. of Texas.

Making the trip from Houston for the affair were the president of the company, L. A. Swanson; vice president in charge of production, V. L. Taylor; and C. R. B. Hopper, construction and mechanical supervising engineer and head of the safety program.

Attending the dinner from Midland were Paul Jones, division superintendent, and Jack Lawton, division engineer. Another guest was Tom Sinclair, district superintendent of Standard's Snyder District.

Jones, in making the presentation of the district award to M. L. Broman, SACROC District superintendent, noted that the district was in striking distance of completing a half-million man-hours without a time-loss accident, and that when such mark is achieved, the district will be honored by the American Petroleum Institute.

In Broman's remarks he recognized the individual contribution of each employee in making the record possible. Taylor noted that safety is often relegated to a second-place role, but that as far as he was concerned, the company policy is that nothing is more important than safety. He added that good safety habits and attitudes pay benefits not only on the job but in personal life as well.

President Swanson complimented the district not only on their safety record, but on their operation of the SACROC unit as well. He noted that when he was located in Snyder 10 years ago and was working on the unitization project, he had some doubts as to whether it could ever be done, and even if the unitization could be accomplished, he had some reservations as to whether or not it could work. He said that he was most gratified to see the operation working out so well.

Individual safe driving awards and service awards were also presented at the banquet.

BSA Banquet Set

The Lone Buffalo District of the Boy Scouts of America is to have its annual banquet Monday at 7 p.m. in the West Elementary School cafeteria, and all Scouts, Scouters, parents and friends of Scouters are urged to attend.

The program of the evening is primarily one of appreciation to the Unit Leaders who will be honored during the program.

The District Officers for 1963 will also be presented and installed as part of the program.

Goodfellows Hold Meeting

Goodfellows workers met here Thursday night in order to map out final plans for the "big push" which is getting underway as the organization sends out food, clothing and toys to needy families at Christmas.

Rev. Jack Dean, chairman, presided over the meeting. The group set a figure of $2500 in donations which will be needed to put the program over to the fullest.

All donations to the Goodfellows are unsolicited and of a strictly voluntary nature. Tables have been set up in both banks here for the convenience of persons wishing to donate to the cause, and contributions by mail may be made to Box 661.

Attending the meeting in addition to Rev. Dean were vice-chairman W. R. Wright and secretary Billie Payne.

Other committee workers in attendance included Mrs. T. J. McKinnon, Blake Walker, Ray Weber, Tommy Iverson, Claude McCormick Jr., A. J. White, J. D. James, Roy McCloskey, and Jerry Jackson.

Mrs. McKinnon is chairman of the applications committee, Weber of the clothing committee, Iverson of toy repair, McCormick of the theater phase, and White of box procurement.

Walker represented the Sheriff's posse, which will be in charge of distributing the goods just prior to Christmas.

White, whose Boy Scouts will be picking up boxes for use in distribution of goods, reported that a large number of large cardboard boxes will be needed, and that any merchants discarding such boxes contact him of possible so that they may be collected and put to use.

McCloskey, representing the Kiwanis Club, announced that the club's annual pancake feast will be held December 8 at Sallie's Dining Room, with the bulk of the proceeds from the venture going to the Goodfellows.

World War I Nonfiction Handled By Dos Passos

MR. WILSON'S WAR. By John Dos Passos.

The title is misleading for the book covers more than the two years of America's participation in the war. It goes back past the turn of the century to show how and why situations developed in America and abroad — he could change his views completely and calmly on woman suffrage and government intervention in wages and hours for labor.

Much of the book is devoted, as the title implies, to an account of World War I but it all comes back to Wilson as Dos Passos shows again he's as much at home in nonfiction circles as in fiction writing.

As much as anything, the vividly written 822-page book is a fascinating series of biographies of American leaders of that period — William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, William Jennings Bryan, Charles Evans Hughes, William G. McAdoo, Charles G. Dawes, John J. Pershing, Robert La Follette, Col. Edward M. House and most of all, Woodrow Wilson himself.

The picture of Wilson that unfolds in Dos Passos' second contribution to Doubleday's Mainstream of America series is far more interesting than anything else in the book.

Smith Wedding Held Thursday In Fort Worth

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Sue and Ann and Mrs. J. G. Landrum left early Wednesday morning for Denton to visit their son and grandson, D. Gene Smith.

From there they went to Fort Worth to attend the wedding of D. Gene Smith and Lee Hodges. The double ring ceremony was held in the Magnolia Street Christian Church.

The couple will make their home in Denton where Mr. Smith is a student at North Texas State University.

Almond Crescents

1-3 cup butter
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup grated blanched almonds
2-3 cup unsifted flour
1/4 cup confectioners sugar
Cream the butter, granulated sugar and vanilla. Add the almonds and flour; blend thoroughly with your fingers. Hand-Shape into small crescents about 1/2 inch thick. Bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a slow (325 degrees) oven about 20 minutes, until bottom surface of cookies are tinged a golden color. Remove to wire rack to cool slightly; while still warm, roll in confectioners sugar. Makes 2 dozen.

Store cold cookies in tightly closed container. This recipe does not call for salt, and we use unsalted butter in it. If the almonds are blanched at home, they should be dried at room temperature, not toasted in the oven; grate them in a small hand-operated rotary-type nut grater so they are fine.

If you like to "doctor" baked beans, there are a good many savory ingredients with which you can heat the beans. Choose among chopped onion and green pepper, sliced ripe olives, bits of crisply cooked bacon, finely sliced celery.

Victory Can Help Make A Coward

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions.

There are those who have won success in their careers are more fearful of failure than those still on the way up. Victory makes almost as many cowards as does defeat. It is only when you realize you have something to lose that you become really courageous.

Junior Editors Quiz on INDIANS

QUESTION: Do Indians still have tribal rituals and ceremonies?

ANSWER: Before the white men came, North American Indians had their special religious beliefs, around which their rituals and ceremonies were built. As the white men took over the country, the Indians became isolated in special areas or reservations. In them they could go on with their own way of living to a certain extent, or they could adopt the white man's civilization. Efforts have been made by the United States Government to help the Indians. The Navajos, now have schools and hospitals; many Navajos have irrigated farms or steady jobs in the oil and uranium industries. In spite of such developments and conversions to Christianity, many Indian tribes still carry out ceremonies and dances on occasion. In Florida, for example, toward the end of June, the Seminoles hold the important Green Corn Dance, a kind of tribal meeting where matters are taken up according to ancient custom. The Zuni Shalako ceremony, held in November or December, is attended by many friends of the Southwest Indians; the Snake Dance of the Hopis is also famous. We illustrate the Apache Fire Dance, a spectacular event held each August in Gallup, New Mexico.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try an Indian dance. Get some friends and line up in a row. Indians don't twist around or jump; they dance with knees slightly bent, lifting their feet up and down. Grunt in rhythm as you try it: "Hoo, hoo-hoo hoo."

Hogs' Moore Only Unanimous Choice

DALLAS (AP)—Arkansas was named in the league championship race but it has placed three men—including the only unanimous selection—on the 1962 All-Southwest Conference football team.

The unanimous selection was Billy Moore, the Razorbacks' all-purpose quarterback.

Texas, winner of the loop's grid crown, and Baylor each placed two men on the stellar squad while Texas Tech, Rice, Southern Methodist and Texas A&M wound up with one each. Only Texas Christian failed to place a man on the first team.

The two University of Texas selections—quarterback Johnny Treadwell and back Tommy Ford—lacked only one vote each of being unanimous choices.

Lacking only two votes for unanimous choices were Texas

Tech end Dave Parks and Arkansas tackle Jerry Mazzanti.

Jerry Hopkins of Texas A&M was picked for center. Rounding out the first team are end Gene Raesz of Rice, tackle Ray Schoenke of Southern Methodist, guard Robert Burk of Baylor, fullback Danny Brabham of Arkansas, and halfback Ronnie Goodwin of Baylor.

Scott Appleton of Texas was within one vote of a tackle spot. Ray Trail of Arkansas was the same at guard. And Jesse Branch of Arkansas lacked only one vote of tying for a backfield spot.

The second team is made up of Tommy Lucas and Tom Magoffin of Texas Christian at ends, Appleton and Melvin Simmons of Texas A&M at tackles, Trail and Robert Mangum of Texas Christian at guards, John Hughes of Southern Methodist at center, and Don Trull of Baylor, Ray Poole of Texas, Pat Colquhoun of Texas and Branch in the backfield.

Sonny Gibbs, Texas Christian's mighty passer, almost made the second team as did fullback Tommy Crutcher of Texas Christian. Both were given honorable mention.

Other players given honorable mention were:

Ends—Ben Nix, Texas Christian; Jerry Lamb, Arkansas; Sandy Sands, Texas; Jim Grizzle, Arkansas; Bill Harlan, Southern Methodist; John Sylvester, Rice.

Tackles—John Kne, Southern Methodist; John Mims, Rice; Ben Krenk, Texas A&M; Rudy Matthews, Texas Christian.

Guards—Jim Phillips, Texas A&M; Marvin Kabin, Texas; Henry Simmons, Rice; Ray Kubala, Texas A&M; Johnny Nichols, Rice; Jim Harper, Texas A&M; George Brucks, Texas.

Centers—C. C. Willis, Texas Tech; Ronnie Caveness, Arkansas; Dan Malin, Rice.

Backs—Larry Elkins, Baylor; Don Campbell, Southern Methodist; Duke Carlisle, Texas; Jim Fawcett, Texas Christian; George Walker, Arkansas.

Defensively it was Acuna, mid-guard; Colson and Narrell, tackles; Dwan Walker, Robert Lee, and Lloyd Williams, Trent, ends; Hallmark, Malcolm Johnson, Bronte, Griffith and Phillips, linebackers; and Stanley Moore, Lorraine, and Barry Currie, Bronte, halfbacks.

Included on the list of honorable mention selections were Hermleigh's Dane Hudnall and J. B. Robertson.

MY MA CAN LICK YOUR MA—Snyder High's senior girls square off at 4 p.m. today in Tiger Stadium in the Powderpuff Football Game, and Terry Alexander looks like she might be having just a little trouble in bringing Sandra Autry down during Thursday's practice session. Senior gridders are coaching the girls, and include Kenny Wellborn, Gail Read and Tim Hardin at the helm of the Golds and Glen Banks, Dalton Walton, Jerry McDowell and Darrell Aldridge over the Blacks. QBC Winds Up Season

"We played our worst offensive game of the year, but fortunately still had enough to win," Tiger grid coach Horace Bostick informed Quarterback Club members here Thursday night in opening comments referring to Thanksgiving Day's 14-13 district win over Lake View.

He added, too, that his charges were hampered in their running game throughout by the wet, slippery Chief Stadium turf—a point that was emphasized by the game film which followed. Second half passing tended to bring the Tigers out of the offensive doldrums, however, and earn for them the closing victory.

Bostick also lauded the stellar defensive play of senior end Tim Hardin. His work helped the Tigers cop wins in two of their final three contests, with the one loss over that late-season span being a 3-0 squeaker at the hands of Sweetwater.

Tiger basketball coach Ned Underwood outlined the cage program which will get underway at the school next week. He specified that he is planning to carry 12 players on the varsity squad—five seniors, five juniors, and two sophomores—and that they are all busy at present preparing for Tuesday's opener in Hamlin.

From a district standpoint, he pointed out that Sweetwater and Lamesa look powerful once again. Sweetwater has three starters returning from its 1962 championship outfit—all timbertoppers—while Lamesa has Wallace Franklin, who was described by Underwood as "probably the most outstanding boy in the district."

Underwood added that Tiger fortunes have received an early boost when it was learned that junior Benny Minor will be unable to play at all this season due to knee trouble. As a sophomore, Minor was leading scorer on the Tiger B team.

The 1962-63 Tiger B edition, coached by Bill Hartfield, numbers 16 on its roster, and will also open its season Tuesday against Hamlin B.

Underwood explained to club members the change which will be made this year revolving around seventh grade basketball competition on the local level. He outlined that both Travis and Lamar will have two teams each which will play each other on an intramural basis only. The one exception involves the Colorado City Tournament of January 2-5 when an all-star team made up of players from both Travis and Lamar will be entered.

The seventh grade coaching staff will be composed of Charley Sparks (Travis Blue), Ray Courtney (Travis White), Tommy Echols (Lamar Red), and Dub Holt (Lamar Gray).

Coaching Travis 9th and 8th, respectively, are Larry Roberts and Wayne Tyrone. At the helm of Lamar 9th and 8th are Bob O'Day and Ace Ames.

President Jack Hoffman presided over the meeting, which was the final regularly scheduled session of the year.

Dolf Schayes of Syracuse is in his 15th season in the National Basketball Association.

Brownfield Going Up Against Lions

The battle between Irving and Bostick, undefeated and untied powers of Class AAAA, highlights a weekend schedule listing a number of crucial games in Texas schoolboy football.

Class AAAA and AAA district champs swing into bi-district action while Classes AA and A move into the second round of the playoffs.

The Irving-Bostick fray and the clash of Houston Bellaire and Spring Branch are expected to provide the finalists for the top bracket championship.

Class AAA likewise offers El Paso Austin-San Angelo, Fort Worth Eastern Hills-Dallas-Snell, Sherman-Lufkin, Beaumont South Park-Galena Park, Austin-Brownsville and San Antonio Highlands-San Antonio Brackenridge.

Dumas vs. Seminole, Denver City vs. Dalhart, Donna vs. Sinton and Albany vs. Munday are other games in the spotlight.

Dumas, defending champion of Class AAA, and Seminole will set up what may be heralded as the division's real championship game, since the winner meets the Brownwood-Brownfield winner. Brownwood is rated the top team in many quarters.

Other Class AAA games send Hurst Bell against McKinney, Corsicana vs. Jacksonville, Orange vs. Conroe, Bay City vs. La Marque, Austin Johnston against San Marcos and South San Antonio vs. Pharr-San Juan-Alamo.

Denver City, the undefeated and untied No. 1 team of Class AA, plays Dalhart. Other second round contests in Class AA match Winters and Crane, Jackboro and Rockwall, Dainergfield and Mineola, Mason and Rockdale, Livingston and Humble, and Missouri City Dallas and Pleasanton.

Donna, Class AA defending champion, tackles Sinton. The Indians, who surprised everybody by winning the 1961 title, are back with a team rated considerably weaker than last year's.

Albany, the Class A champion, takes on Munday. The Lions are expected to come through but it could be a tough one.

Also in Class A, Sunray goes against Petersburg, Rotan against Big Lake, Clifton against Van Alstyne, Jefferson against New Leno, Waco Midway against Southville, Waller against Three Rivers and Blanco against Ingleside.

Rotan and New London long been favored to reach the finals.

Coyotes Seek Regional Title

Gall's 2-B Coyotes go in quest of the Region 1 eighth-title in Childress tonight at 7:30 when they take on the 2-B Booker Kiowa.

The Coyotes polished off 1-B Kingpin Three Way last week, 36-4, while Booker moved into the regional round of play with the help of a bye.

Coach Jim Hooper's Gall "night" is undefeated through 11 games this season, while Booker—coached by Ray Robinson—stands 8-1.

All One Gives to God

COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

Firmly Rooted

How strong are your roots? In Sequoia National Park one may read: "These Sequoia Giantes are of a noble lineage which bridges humanity back through eons of the age of reptiles. — Here dwell venerable forest kings in reveries which carry back a thousand years before Jesus Christ walked the shores of Galilee." How strong are your roots? "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." These reflect being well rooted. In a spirit of unity let us read: "Unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout the ages, world without end. A-men." — Eph. 3:17-19, 21.

So They May See — Psalm 91 — So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation.

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
