KREMER ARRAIGNS REPUBLICAN PARTY; CONVENTION STAGES A BIG WILSON DEMONSTRATION

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The democratic national convention got under way today with a tremendous demonstration for President Wilson.

The demonstration was a big Wilson demonstration. The convention went into a delirium of cheering, applause and demonstration.

At the sight of the president's features, roars of cheers swept the hall and state delegations taking up the standards which marked the convention on the floor paraded about in such a demonstration as usually accompanies the nomination of a successful candidate.

After the prayer, the taking of the official photograph, a band again being used to bring the convention to attention. Vice Chairman Kremer then began his address.

He said that the republican party was a party of destruction and reaction. He named Jefferson and Jackson as some of the great men of the party.

When Mr. Kremer declared the world was waiting to hear the decision of the American electorate on the league issue, the corollion rose and went in for some prolonged cheering.

The band broke out again amid the cheering which followed conclusion of Kremer's speech but quiet soon was restored and the formal reading of the call of the convention followed.

here," all were supplied with words of political meaning predicting democratic victory at the election.

The big dome which hitherto had been a handicap to acoustics was cut off with a new false ceiling of drab colored canvas decorated in black and white figures like an overgrown fancy paragon.

The seats and gallery floors also were in drab and there was only enough of flags and bunting to complete the harmony of the scene without a touch of gaudiness.

It looked much different than when President Wilson made his speech here last September for the league of nations and the Irish questions were nothing but confusion, the acoustics went to pieces and only a few of the many thousands who came in could hear the president's words.

The band swung into medley of national airs and when it struck "Dixie" the southern delegation got their first chance to let out the rebel yell. They stood on chairs and waved their banners, beating time with the music.

At twenty minutes past twelve platform officials said the delay in starting the convention was due to the confusion and the doors.

Chairman Cummings and other officials of the national committee were in the committee's office back of the stage waiting for the doorkeepers to get the ticket situation straightened.

When the band swung into "I love you California" the California delegation was the first to enter the hall.

STANDS UNFLINCHINGLY IN SUPPORT OF PREPAREDNESS

Officers Would Not Follow Secretary Daniels to Limit for Degrading Navy

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 28.—That a sense of duty to his country and to the navy moves him to stand unflinchingly in the support of the principles of organization and preparedness, is included in a statement issued by Rear Admiral William F. Fullam.

Because his name is mentioned now in news dispatches he said he was compelled to issue the following statement: "I was officially ordered to appear before the senate sub-committee investigating the conduct of the war."

PHILIPPINES SEEK INDEPENDENCE PLANK

By United Press. SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Insertion of a plank in the democratic platform favoring immediate Philippine independence will be asked by a delegation of Philipinos, James C. De Veyra, resident commissioner of the Philipinos in the United States, announced today.

"The United States went before the world in the recent war as the avowed champion of self determination," De Veyra said today. "Twice in a period of eighteen months the American congress went on record as being in sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for independence."

"We have played the game on the square with America," said De Veyra, "and we feel strongly that the time has come when America should return the compliment and grant us that which is ours both by divine right and by the terms of America's own agreement with us."

PALMER AND COX FACTIONS CLAIM VICTORY; M'ADOO MAY BE ETERNAL TRIANGLE PARTY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Opposing forces in the democratic national convention declared a brief truce today when they assembled in the opening session to perfect preliminaries for the week's work.

The big fight over prohibition and the lesser lights over the league of nations and the Irish questions were laid aside but not forgotten while the party chiefs and delegates met in the auditorium to hear National Chairman Cummings sound the keynote to which they hope to hear the country respond.

More than ten hundred delegates and more than thirteen thousand spectators and spectators jammed in the big convention hall for the spectacle of a great national convention getting under way.

The net income earned by these companies on their capital stock outstanding during the period 1916-1918 ranged from 20.4 per cent to 26.6 per cent, as compared with a net income in 1912-1914 of 14.2 per cent to 18.4 per cent.

Edmond H. Moore, manager for the Cox candidacy, said he had no statement to make and referred inquiries to "any body from Dayton." Governor Cox's home town, to learn what Ohio people most familiar with the circumstances thought.

"The Texas delegation is more confident than ever that W. G. McAdoo will be the presidential nominee. The probability is that his name will not be formally presented to the convention at all but that when the roll is called votes will be registered for him."

"The first sight of the Texas delegates at the caucus of the national committee was a scene of confusion. J. A. Kemp was chosen associate national committeeman for Texas and R. E. Huff was chosen as the platform committee, the threatened contest between Governor Hobbs, Cullen Thomas, T. M. Campbell and Cullen Johnson who are regarded as senatorial aspirants failing to materialize."

CUMMINGS STRESSES NEED OF APPLICATION OF COMMON SENSE IN MEETING NATIONAL ISSUES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Assembling at noon today for their first session, delegates to the democratic national convention heard a keynote speech by National Chairman Cummings and preliminary remarks clearing the way for the real work of finding a presidential candidate.

Decorations of the convention hall were simple and tasteful with the Stars and Stripes as the dominant feature of the beautiful interior standards, made of California redwood, showing the locations of the delegations. Directly behind were the seats of the alternates and all about them in an almost imperceptible way were more than ten thousand other persons.

Not Unlike Prior Conventions. With the exception of a patriotic touch given at the start by the presence of the colors by a detachment of marines, the opening preliminaries were not unlike those of prior conventions. The outstanding feature of the program was the keynote speech, understood to have had the approval of President Wilson.

By United Press. SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Making it his duty, and the league of nations the dominant issue of the coming presidential campaign, Homer Cummings, as temporary chairman of the democratic national convention today delivered the keynote speech. Cummings devoted half of his time to a discussion of the treaty and its reception by the senate.

Speaking of the league of nations plank in the republican platform, Cummings said: "It praises without discrimination all the republican senators who participated in its defeat."

After naming the nations that have ratified the peace treaty, Cummings said: "That nations stand outside Revolutionary Mexico, Bolshevist Russia, unrepentant Turkey and the United States of America."

"The president made every sacrifice for the cause of peace," Cummings said, "while at home there was widespread propaganda making it imperative that he take up in his own country a struggle for the preservation of that which had been done at incalculable cost."

"The republican party," he said, "became so fixated by its inorganic habit of conducting investigations that it finally turned to the fruitful task of investigating itself. For the first time since they entered upon this program the republicans have discovered the highest bidder, however, did not get the prize. The publicity that overtook the proceedings frustrated the initial purpose."

spread propaganda making it imperative that he take up in his own country a struggle for the preservation of that which had been done at incalculable cost. Following the superhuman labor of several years and graft and service, this meant the wreck of his health and worse than physical sickness, the sickness of heart which comes from the knowledge that political adversaries are savagely destroying peace. This was the affliction—the crucifixion.

Regarding preparedness, he said that in a situation such as that which is never prepared for war but that "America was made ready in a way that was far more effective than by maintaining at enormous cost great armaments, which the republicans ever advocated and whom our people would never approve."

He referred to the Irish problem only incidentally. During a discussion of the republican platform, he said: "It contains no message of hope for Ireland."

"The income tax, he said, relieved the law of the reproach of being unjustly burdensome to the poor; a non-partisan tariff commission, which would provide scientific revision of the tariff hereafter. Pan-Americanism was encouraged; Alaska was opened to commerce and development; dollar diplomacy was destroyed; a corrupt lobby driven from the national capitol; an effective seaman's act adopted; the federal trade commission created; child labor legislation enacted; parcels post developed; secretaries were seated in the cabinet; eight-hour laws adopted; labor was removed from the category of commodities by the Clayton anti-trust act; a system of nominating a reactionary for president established. He said:

"Cummings detailed the achievements of the nation during the world war. He credited to American patriotism and added: "But surely the time has come when, because of the calculated criticism and the premeditated calumnies which have been heaped upon me, I call attention to the fact that all of these things were achieved under the leadership of a great democrat and the great democratic administration."

"The president made every sacrifice for the cause of peace," Cummings said, "while at home there was widespread propaganda making it imperative that he take up in his own country a struggle for the preservation of that which had been done at incalculable cost."

"The republican party," he said, "became so fixated by its inorganic habit of conducting investigations that it finally turned to the fruitful task of investigating itself. For the first time since they entered upon this program the republicans have discovered the highest bidder, however, did not get the prize. The publicity that overtook the proceedings frustrated the initial purpose."

BRYAN AND BURLESON TO LOCK HORNS IN PROHIBITION FIGHT

By L. C. MARTIN. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The fight over the prohibition amendment has now taken on a new phase.

Every indication is that on two and perhaps three questions the fight will be carried from the resolutions committee to the convention floor. The wet and dry and league of nations issues seem certain to go to the floor, and the Irish question be in debate there.

The first clash between the forces supporting the Wilson administration and those opposing it was expected to come in the selection of the chairman of the resolutions committee, scheduled to occur late today.

CUMMINGS URGES NEED COMMON SENSE

Americans, irrespective of party, should begin to praise the achievements of our country, rather than criticize them? The American flag must not be lowered."

Cummings said the republican platform "seeks to shame and besmirch this shining record of tremendous achievements." He referred to the various congressional committees as "smelling committees."

"Over 80 investigations have been made by congress and over $2,000,000 wasted," he said, "and the one result has been to prove that it was the cleanest war ever fought in the history of civilization."

"More than 40,000,000,000 of dollars passed through the hands of the democratic administration, and that the 'finger of scorn' did not point to one single democratic official in all America."

This, he said, was a record never before made by any political party. "Despite all their investigations, the republican party has not been able to find a single democratic official has either been accused or even suspected; and the only dignitary in America of any outstanding political position, moving in the direction of the penitentiary is Truman Newberry of Michigan."

"The very power of the republican party to conduct a partisan investigation of the war, to criticize the president, to control the organization of the senate and to wreck the prospects of world peace, rests upon a bare majority of one secured through the tainted senatorial vote from Michigan."

Cummings then referred to the recent session of the primary election campaign.

"If the Democratic party had accomplished nothing more than the passage of the federal reserve act, it would be entitled to the enduring gratitude of the nation," Cummings said. "Panic, he said, 'are now but a memory."

"Under the republican system there was an average of one bank failure every twenty-one days for a period of nearly forty years. After passage of the federal reserve system there were in 1915 four bank failures; in 1916 and 1917 three bank failures; in 1918 one bank failure, and in 1920 no bank failed at all."

Passing to the record of the Republican Congress, he said it had ignored the President's recommendations for measures relating to profiteering, taxation, and appropriate action relative to the returning soldiers, etc. He termed the session "barren of achievement, shameful in waste of time and money."

Ratified Treaty.
Cummings launched into a detailed defense of the treaty and the league and said that America is in honor bound to ratify the treaty, and cited events in chronological order to prove his point.

"Thus, before we entered the war, we made a pledge, during the war we restated the pledge and when the armistice was signed all the nations, ourselves included, renewed the pledge; and they rested upon the faith of these promises that Germany laid down her arms," he said.

He called the league of nations covenant a "national disgrace" and said the world and said its purpose is "to give notice that if any nation raises its bloody hand and seeks to cross the line into any other country the forces of civilization will be aroused to suppress the common enemy of peace."

Such a covenant, he said, would have prevented the world war. The republican plank regarding peace he termed as a "vague promise," which does not name "our proposed copartners" in a different form of association among nations of a tenuous and shadow character.

He defended the league along much the same lines as were followed by President Wilson before his sickness. He attacked the republican members of the senate foreign relations committee as "designating from the outset to mutilate the treaty" because it was "tampered with by democratic president."

He said Senator Lodge had refused to suggest amendments to the treaty, but that President Wilson had seen to it that amendments offered by Taft, Root and Hughes had been incorporated.

Regarding the senate foreign relations committee, he said: "The foreign relations committee, immediately following the last election, was reorganized with a personnel consisting of the open foes of the treaty. Amongst the number was Senator Borah, who declared that he would not be for a league of nations, were the savior of mankind to advocate it. Senator Johnson, Senator Knox and Senator Moses, whose hatred of the president amounts to an obsession, were also members, and Senator Lodge was chairman."

PALMER AND COX CLAIM VICTORY

didates was gaining more and more attention as the rival managers got down to cases with the big body of unfrustrated and unpledged delegates.

Today for the first time the entire program personnel was here and the opposing elements were taking definite bearings.

McAdoo Boom.
The latest turn of the McAdoo boom furnished a new angle to the convention preliminaries, but its precise effect on the relative situation as the day and at the same time the newly formed credentials committee was to take up the Georgia and Missouri contests, while the rules committee was determining on a list of permanent floors for the convention.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas had been selected by the administration group for the permanent chairmanship and his endorsement by the committee seemed assured.

Bryan Has Little to Say.
Contrary to the expectation of many delegates, William J. Bryan was having little to say about the permanent organization of the convention and its committees. Busy with his fight to put a dry plank into the platform, he apparently was interposing no active opposition to the administration or ganization program, though he was credited with lending encouragement to the candidacy of Senator Wash for the resolution chairmanship.

As in more than one previous national convention, Mr. Bryan was looked upon as an unknown quantity which might turn out to be the deciding factor in almost any of the political questions now confronting the party leaders. No one professed to know what new and unexpected element he might bring into play at the critical time.

J. Bruce Kremer of Montana, vice-chairman of the national committee, had to be selected to call today's session to order. At the conclusion of the keynote address of Mr. Cummings all delegates remained to complete the day's program was to approve the selections for the various committee members already made by the state delegations.

AMERICAN LEGION TO URGES BONUS PLANK.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Service men among delegates today perfected plans for obtaining the endorsement of the Democratic party for bonus legislation. It was decided to adopt the American Legion "four way" plan of rewarding veterans of the late war by extending paid-up insurance, rural or urban home, aid, vocational education or flat cash compensation.

Richard Seely Jones, chairman of the Washington state delegation, Major Bennett Clark of Missouri, son of Representative Champ Clark, Colonel Berry of Tennessee and E. W. Robertson of Spokane, Wash., were selected to appear before the resolutions committee with the plank drawn for its approval.

2,000 DROWN WHEN A BOLSHEVIK STEAMER SINKS.
LONDON, June 28.—Two thousand British, Austrian, German, French and Finnish drowned when a Bolsheviki steamer was sunk recently in the Neva River, according to a Helsinki dispatch to the Central News. A Reuters report from Stockholm would seem to confirm the dispatch, saying that a ship was sunk the 6th of June with many prisoners on board, however, did not mention any loss of life.

The fighting triplets of the convention, Irish freedom, light beer and wine and the league of nations are all on the battle field, but Irish freedom has put one over on the other two, having occupied the front line trenches in opening headquarters only a block away from the convention hall, at Market and Eighth streets, America's traditional policy, recognition without intervention. ### CONVENTIONALITIES

Only Irish freedom in sight. Score one for Erin.
Sounds as if the bell boys were reading from the political blue book when they start paging.
"Call for Vice President Marshall."
"Call for Mr. Colby." (Secretary of state).
"Mr. Murphy, Mr. Murr-r-phy" (Tamm).
Governor Smith, wanted at the phone booth. Governor Smith.
"Call for Mr. Francis." (Former ambassador to Russia).
"Senator Philan."
And so on indefinitely.

Sam Gompers, De Valeria and Bryan all in one town at the same time. Some folks predicted a quite convention.

It's a bit difficult to talk about public men in San Francisco hotels these days without having the men themselves overhear. A couple of delegates were arguing about Palmer in the Palace corridor. "Fardon," said Palmer, edging past them.

"This man Bryan is—" a sightseer pipped up, then stopped short as Bryan shouldered through the crowd. A ground swell poured toward a man erroneously pointed out as Senator Glass and the senator himself, a diminutive figure, was swept along in it, while people nudged him and asked: "Do you see him?"

GOMPERS, AT FRISCO, IN INTEREST LABOR PLANK.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Samuel Gompers is here today to fight for adoption in the democratic platform of labor planks which the republican platform framers declined to accept. Gompers wants a declaration against anti-strike legislation; approval of collective bargaining; minimum wage, eight-hour day and child labor legislation.

Frank P. Walsh and William J. Bryan are supporting an anti-strike plank.

The fighting triplets of the convention, Irish freedom, light beer and wine and the league of nations are all on the battle field, but Irish freedom has put one over on the other two, having occupied the front line trenches in opening headquarters only a block away from the convention hall, at Market and Eighth streets, America's traditional policy, recognition without intervention. A Reuter's report from Stockholm would seem to confirm the dispatch, saying that a ship was sunk the 6th of June with many prisoners on board, however, did not mention any loss of life.

CONVENTIONALITIES

Only Irish freedom in sight. Score one for Erin.
Sounds as if the bell boys were reading from the political blue book when they start paging.
"Call for Vice President Marshall."
"Call for Mr. Colby." (Secretary of state).
"Mr. Murphy, Mr. Murr-r-phy" (Tamm).
Governor Smith, wanted at the phone booth. Governor Smith.
"Call for Mr. Francis." (Former ambassador to Russia).
"Senator Philan."
And so on indefinitely.

Sam Gompers, De Valeria and Bryan all in one town at the same time. Some folks predicted a quite convention.

It's a bit difficult to talk about public men in San Francisco hotels these days without having the men themselves overhear. A couple of delegates were arguing about Palmer in the Palace corridor. "Fardon," said Palmer, edging past them.

"This man Bryan is—" a sightseer pipped up, then stopped short as Bryan shouldered through the crowd. A ground swell poured toward a man erroneously pointed out as Senator Glass and the senator himself, a diminutive figure, was swept along in it, while people nudged him and asked: "Do you see him?"

GOMPERS, AT FRISCO, IN INTEREST LABOR PLANK.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Samuel Gompers is here today to fight for adoption in the democratic platform of labor planks which the republican platform framers declined to accept. Gompers wants a declaration against anti-strike legislation; approval of collective bargaining; minimum wage, eight-hour day and child labor legislation.

Frank P. Walsh and William J. Bryan are supporting an anti-strike plank.

NO BILL RETURNED AGAINST C. C. SPENCE

Grand Jury Makes Final Report—Mentions Condition Jail and Other Matters

C. C. Spence, patrolman who shot and killed Allen Mansfield early last week, was exonerated of criminal intent by the grand jury in its final report made to Judge H. F. Weldon in the 30th district court at 10 o'clock Monday forenoon.

Sheriff Bob McFall and his deputies were complimented on sanitary condition of the county jail, the jurors asserting that the sheriff's department is to be "complimented in keeping the county jail in as good sanitary condition as is found" when the overcrowded condition that exists in the county prison is taken into consideration.

The matter of the Thrift-Wagoner bank was not gone into due to the fact that the investigation had not been completed.

The report in full follows: "We, the grand jury for Wichita county Texas, for the June term, A. D. 1920, beg to submit the following report:

"We have been in session eight days during which time we have examined 185 witnesses, found fifty-six bills of indictment, all of the grade of felony, indicting seventy-four men out of fifty-six indictments.

"We made careful inspection of the county court house and the county jail and found them to be in good sanitary condition and wish to compliment the sheriff's department on the keeping of the jail in said condition under conditions which they now work, knowing that the same is very crowded and that they are very short of jail room. And in this suggestion we wish to suggest that the district judges of the respective courts expedite the trial of criminal cases in order that they may alleviate the crowded conditions which exist in the jail at this time.

"We investigated very thoroughly the very sad and tragic occurrence in which young Allen Mansfield lost his life a few nights ago when he was shot and killed by Policeman C. C. Spence of this city, and from the testimony which was produced before our body from the examination of a number of witnesses, we are unable to find testimony under which to return a bill, for all the testimony tended to show that C. C. Spence, the policeman, at the time of the shooting did so in self defense or in fear of serious bodily injury.

"We have had called to our attention the fact that one or two of the doctors in Wichita Falls have possibly been guilty of illegal practices and while we have not been able to secure sufficient evidence to warrant indictments we recommend that should any further notice of such practices be brought to the attention of the office to any grand jury hereafter that they make a thorough investigation of the same and that any doctor found guilty of these practices be punished to the full extent of the law.

"There are a few matters that we are unable to take up at this time as the evidence is not in shape to be presented to us for instance the fair of the Thrift-Wagoner bank at Newtown. We understand that an audit of the books has not been completed at this time.

"We wish to thank the district attorney and their assistants for working the evidence in the cases we have passed upon so that it could be passed on by us with the smallest possible waste of time. We also wish to thank the sheriff and his bailiffs for their services in waiting on the grand jury.

"Having investigated all matters that have come to our hands at this time, we respectfully ask that we be discharged.

G. D. ANDERSON, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

EXPERT COMING FOR PLAYGROUND WORK

Three Weeks Course for Recreation Leaders Will Open Next Monday

According to information just received at the city headquarters of the block and neighborhood organizations, J. C. Twichell of National Community Service, Inc., will arrive in Wichita Falls either Thursday or Friday of this week to conduct a three weeks' course for volunteer recreation leaders. The first classes in this work will be held next Monday.

Plans worked out by a special committee on arrangements headed by C. N. Reid call for classes at seven different well distributed points in the city. Secretary W. W. Brown in behalf of the board of education has tendered the free use of the city school buildings and adjoining grounds and it is planned to hold classes in the High, Alamo, San Jacinto, Houston, Pannin and Washington schools. Under this arrangement the instruction offered will be placed within reach of all residents of the city who desire to take advantage of it.

A separate class has also been arranged for Call field. Some work has already been done on a playground for the children of that community and at a meeting held at the Methodist hospital last Friday morning it developed that sufficient number of volunteers could be secured to make a special class. This work will be given in one of the hangars now used as a play center.

According to reports being turned in by various members of the committee recently appointed to canvass their respective districts, considerable interest in the school has been manifested and a good attendance is promised.

Attention is again called to the community meeting to be held at the Travis school Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Every family residing between Third and Seventh and north and east of the tracks is urged to have a representative present in order that final arrangements may be made for sprinkling the streets in that part of the city.

The meeting further plans for the paving of Lee street later in the summer will be worked out.

Detective W. S. Johnson, who was involved in the fight that occurred Saturday morning in the city hall corridor between police officers and several prisoners awaiting trial, was returned to duty today, following a lengthy investigation conducted by Police Commissioner Bralley. Johnson was severely reprimanded for his action in the matter, and a warning was issued to all men in the department that a recurrence of the offense will mean instant dismissal from the force.

"I talked with every man who knew anything at all about the trouble," Commissioner Bralley said. "I found there was no feeling among the officers against these prisoners, except in the case of Detective Johnson both of whose sons had been badly beaten by the men. Johnson told me he had been unable to restrain himself; that he realized later his action was not that of a police officer, and he assured me he now had no further feeling in the matter and would attend rigidly to his duties in the future. In view of the many extenuating circumstances, and the fact that Detective Johnson has a good record in the department, I did not feel that he should be punished by dismissal, however, will mean dismissal. I want to make that plain. The department cannot endorse the action of any man in taking the law into his own hands."

The Knights of Pythias will have an open session in their lodge room, 602 Scott avenue, next Tuesday evening, June 29th, at 8 o'clock. All members of the order, and all members of the Pythian Sisters, whether in good standing or not, are urgently requested to be present, and bring with them their wives, daughters, mothers and sisters, as a Pythian Sister Temple will be instituted at that time. For further information phone Dr. J. W. DuVal, at 195.

For automobile electrical troubles, Starter Service Co. Quick service; quality service. 812 Scott avenue. Phone 606. Next door to Willard Station. 44-5tc.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM: CHAUTAUQUA CLOSE

Joy Night Numbers and Dr. Gordon's Lecture Will be the Closing Numbers

Large crowds attended the Chautauqua programs Sunday and were rewarded by hearing three fine numbers. In spite of the heat of the afternoon the big tent in Bellevue Park was well filled when the Charles F. Horner company took the stage and presented a short comedy sketch. Although different than the large comedy-drama "Nothing but the Truth" which scored such a tremendous hit last Friday, Sunday's play was presented in excellent fashion and was well received.

Following the Horner Players, Dr. R. E. Pattison Kline was introduced and delivered a splendid lecture entitled, "Strategic America." His talk was scholarly from every view point and Dr. Kline revealed himself as a true student of American Economics. He treated the vital questions of the day in a straight forward manner, discussing them from an unbiased, non-partisan standpoint. The lecture was designed with the idea of assisting American to a better understanding of national issues and to aid them in more constructive thinking, and in this it succeeded beyond any manner of doubt.

The Horner company were in charge of the evening performance and for the third time in three days delighted their audience. After Sunday nights play those who have seen the company on more than one occasion were convinced that it would be more versatile and talented actors. Without exception the players presented their parts in a manner that stamped them as true artists and the contributing factors to the play such as costumes stage settings left nothing to be desired.

The Chautauqua programs will come to a close Monday with Jess Fugh's "Joy Night Numbers." In the afternoon Miss Beulah Marty and Miss Lillian Sellers, two accomplished musicians, will open the program and they will be followed by Dr. F. E. Gordon who lectures on "Shooting the Goal." Dr. Gordon's talk is especially designed for young people and it has a message which any young man or woman will do well to hear. In the evening Miss Marty and Seller will again appear in a musical program and following them Jess Fugh will close the Chautauqua with his inimitable philosophy and humor. Fugh is a polished speaker who uses wit as an ornament to idealism, and the varied subjects which he treats in a novel and entertaining manner give a fitting climax to the series of Chautauqua numbers.

Former Ranger Night Chief of Detectives J. M. Fox, a former Texas ranger and for 25 years a police officer in various sections of this state, was today made night chief of the plainclothes force by Police Commissioner Bralley. Fox resigned his captaincy with the rangers in 1918, and for the past two years has been doing police work along the Mexican border. He was recommended to the local department by Chief of Police Goodfellow, who has known him for several years.

WICHITA FALLS WILL CONTINUE TO GROW.

Wichita Falls is proud of its showing in the 1920 census.

The figures are short of the 50,000 that has been claimed, yet they show a larger percentage of gain than any other city of Wichita Falls class in the Southwest. And Wichita Falls has grown in every way as it has in population. Its transportation facilities have been largely increased and are being further expanded. New transportation lines already in sight, including the Ranger and Wichita Falls railway, the extension of the Rock Island, and the Dallas Interurban will equal the transportation expansion of the past ten years.

The foregoing are a few of the things that can be expected to contribute to Wichita Falls' growth during the next ten years. The big factor in Wichita Falls now, as it was ten years ago, is the unity of purpose among its people and their competent and broad visioned leadership.

It is reported that some people are belittling the campaign against the common house-fly in Wichita Falls. Only ignorance can actuate such a course. It has been proven in many ways that flies are the carriers of disease infection and many communities have been able practically to eliminate flies. Anti-fly campaigns meet with success in proportion to the participation of the whole population in the campaign.

The convention at San Francisco ought to adopt a plank for better pay for postal employees, who are being inadequately paid, a condition that has already resulted in the deterioration of the mail service. The present congress made some attempt to remedy the situation but it appears that little real relief was afforded. What is needed is a genuine and substantial advance all around and until this is granted the best men will continue to leave the postal service and it will be impossible to replace them.

The San Angelo Standard's red rooster again made its appearance last week. For many years the Standard has printed the red rooster on its front page following every good rain in the Concho country. The precipitation at San Angelo last week was in excess of three inches.

With Other Editors

Harding and Coolidge. The Dallas News editor customer with a Dallas letter. I writes in to commend the liberalism of this paper's attitude toward the Republican national ticket. Our friend particularly praises the editorial we ran by way of introducing Honorable Harding and Coolidge to the closer acquaintance of our readers. But State Press did not write that editorial, therefore he can not rest in good conscience under the credit due to the gentleman who did write it. State Press is not as liberal as some of his conferees of The News staff. Being both narrow and partisan, as well as prejudiced and hidebound, S. Przan not police himself on him; he can not detach himself from his temperamental restrictions and deal in a large-minded way with either men or events. Consequently, State Press is what is sometimes called "narrow-contracted." His idea of a Republican is a person who aims to take away from the many for the benefit of the few; his idea of a Socialist is an individual who hopes to ruin the country by organizing it to "eat"; his idea of a Bolshevik is a saboteur with pickers and the idea of a Democrat is that he is a scoundrel a gentleman who aspires to help set up and support a Government without regard to any natural or artificial stratification of society. On top of that, his opinion of Senator Harding is that he is a clean-minded and able man, rating ability as that quality which spurs common sense to useful activity. His opinion of Governor Coolidge is that he is a man of firm convictions, courage above the average in politicians, and a sincere desire to serve the public capably. The objection of State Press of the Republican nominees is not lodged in the persons of those nominees, but in the party and the platform for and upon which they stand. Even clean and able men can not gather figs from thistles. The Republican party being ruled mostly by old men and cold men, its vision is foreshortened and its usefulness impaired by that vein of selfishness which has run through it like a living stream ever since the Civil War. It is the buttress of those special interests which sheltered themselves behind protective tariff walls. As Americans, Messrs. Harding and Coolidge are to be congratulated. Republicans, they may be tarred with a stick wielded by men who lack a good deal of being all that statesmen should be.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel." (Copyright, 1919, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Monday, June 28, 1920. Neptune rules strongly for good this day, while Saturn and Uranus are adverse. The planetary rule is held to impart vision and sound judgment. Although Saturn and Uranus exercise sinister power likely to be revealed in underestimating the achievements of men and women, Neptune gives power to foresee events according to logical sequence. When the planet supposed to rule the sea is well aspected, it is believed that persons who wield power may be directed to do the right thing. Since Neptune is supposed to govern the base of understanding the rule is especially favorable for decisions that involve great responsibilities.

Uranus opposed to Saturn threatens new troubles in dockyards. Railway difficulties are prognosticated, and a strike may cause grave results, owing to midsummer conditions. The imperative need of extreme cleanliness is emphasized by astrologers who foretell danger of epidemics during the hot weather, especially those that affect the digestive tracts, fevers and nervous disorders. Horses will gain favor among the wealthy who will revive an ancient fashion.

Theaters continue under a sway puzzling to the seers since they appear to enter more and more into the national life and yet to be subject to some great changes that will involve sweeping reforms. There is a sign read as foreshadowing an educational reform that will insure widespread benefits to the poor.

Women and children are now subject to a direction of the stars making for protective measures of many sorts. Persons whose birthdate it is should not travel or remove. They should attend strictly to business, which will then be successful. Children born on this day will be gifted and endowments with traits that should win success. Girls are likely to be exceedingly fascinating.

WOMEN CAUSED THE DEFEAT SEN. REED

By MRS. KELLOGG FAIRBANK (Member of the Executive Committee, Democratic National Committee; writer for the United Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Every paper in the country has printed both sides of Senator Reed's case, but there is contributing cause to his failure before the democratic national committee to be recognized a delegate which has escaped them. They have overlooked the news. The story begins back in Missouri at one of the "early county meetings" called to elect delegates to the convention. When the men of the machine told the women they need not trouble to attend the meeting, they didn't—except five of them who happened to have a free morning. They went in, the five, unassuming and placid, five nice women, mildly curious.

When a speech was made lauding Senator Reed and his record they began to be glad they had come. When a second speaker praised him for the part he had played in defeating the peace treaty they began to feel like crusaders.

Monday, June 28, 1920. They did not want the country kept out of peace, and when a resolution was passed to endorse the senator's stand there were five votes against it. The men smiled covertly.

During the adjournment for lunch the five didn't eat. Each went to a telephone and when the meeting reconvened all the democratic women of the county were there. A great gathering of nice, plain, indignant American women. The machine slate for delegates to the state convention was presented.

It was promptly defeated, an anti-Reed one was put up in its place and the candidates, only half of them women—we are the fair sex after all—were elected. The resolutions of the morning were rescinded and others were passed condemning Senator Reed's stand on the league. When it was all over the women went to the phone and rang up a woman in every county in Missouri which had not had its meeting and told her the story.

Women Caucus When the state convention met Senator Reed was among those nominated for delegate at large to the national convention. He failed of election. Then the caucus of the district presented Senator Reed's name for approval by the convention, according to the rules in Missouri.

The convention promptly sent it back for re-consideration upon which an effort was made to adjourn the convention so that when the senator's protest was made to the national committee in San Francisco the claim might successfully be presented that there had been no opportunity to ratify. This was a blind move but by that time the women were suspicious so they began a filibuster in order to gain time.

They kept on filibustering until 5 o'clock in the morning when the district caucus sent back word they had no name to present when they blithely adjourned and went home to give their husbands' breakfast. Last Saturday at the end of the hearing.

ing. Mrs. W. W. Martin of Cape Girardeau, was invited to speak for five minutes to present the women's opinion in the case. Every one was tired, tense and irritated. The vote was by no means certain. It was a difficult moment to capture, but capture it she did and thoroughly. It was dramatic, a Missouri woman giving the coup de grace to the old enemy of her sex. She made a wonderful speech and at the end the men of the committee sprang to their feet, they applauded, they cheered—the vote was taken and it stood 24 to 12. It was the women who "showed" Senator Reed.

WICHITA FALLS PAPER HANGER ENTHUSIASTIC OVER BIG CHANGE

E. R. Mefford is Built Up by Orgatone. He Was All Run Down.

"WHAT PEOPLE ARE NEEDING"

E. R. Mefford, the well known paper hanger, residing on rural route five, Wichita Falls, Texas, comes forward with his unqualified endorsement of Orgatone Treatment.

"Judging from the results of six bottles of Orgatone in my case," said Mr. Mefford in an interview at Young Drug Company, recently, "it is beyond the question of a doubt a treatment of unusual merit."

"I had been in a pretty bad shape for ten years, suffering from what was called intestinal indigestion and gas on my stomach. I would have the cruelest burning and swelling sensation in the pit of my stomach for hours at a stretch that any human ever endured. I was also badly constipated, and I had severe headaches. I lost in weight and felt tired, weak and worn out all the time. "Realizing the importance of getting something, if possible, to check up this run-down condition and setting me right, and seeing Orgatone so highly endorsed by my own personal friends, I proceeded to get a bottle. "Well, before I had finished my second bottle I found my condition was yielding to the treatment and I then knew I had struck it right. Since that time I have used four more bottles also and have gotten entirely rid of my stomach and other troubles. "I have also been relieved of bloating, constipation and headaches and am feeling stronger and more vigorous than I have in years. In fact, my entire system has been built up and invigorated and I have never known of a medicine or treatment I can say as much for as I can for Orgatone. I believe it is just what lots of people need, especially those suffering from stomach trouble and a run-down condition, and I am glad to pass the good word along. "Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form, and is sold in Wichita Falls by the Young and the Miller Drug Stores exclusively, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative.

BEARS CLEAN UP SERIES BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF SPUDDER MISPLAYS; ZINN IS HIT FREELY IN PINCHES

The Bears wound up their short stay in Wichita Falls yesterday in a blaze of glory by taking the final game of the series 5 to 1. As was the case in the two previous games, the Bear twirler had the Spudders beaten from the drop of the bat, and they could do nothing with him in the pinches. Sid Ross worked for the visitors and he did even better than his two predecessors. He held the Spudders to four lonely hits, two of which were very scratchy. The only solid blow cleaned off his delivery were made by Kitchens and Tanner, the former getting a double which was useless and the latter a triple which was eventually turned in to the only Spudder tally.

Jimmy Zinn, spitball Spudder Ace, hurled for the Spudders and in justice to him, let it be said, that his support was terrible. Nevertheless Jimmy was hit in the pinches and the Bears estranged enough to beat him. He was as wild as he has been in the last few games and issued five passes.

Brownlow and Tanner erred at critical times in the early stages of the game and kept Zinn in the lead while Frank Kitchens dropped a throw that presented the Bears a run.

Jake Miller arrived at last and was rushed into the fray by Manager Salm. Jake hit two home runs and looked pretty sweet out there in center. His fielding was flawless and he got on base three times on a hit, error and pass.

The Spudders continued their habit of spitting the visitors at least one run in the open season. Fuller's blow was too hot for Tanner to handle cleanly and he was safe at first on a hurried throw that went wild. After Northern flow out to Josephson, Fuller pursued second. Brown drove a hard single to left that Moken fielded perfectly. His throw to the plate got Fuller arrived in plenty of time and Kitchens did not have to stride out of his tracks to get the ball, but it hit the end of his glove and Fuller was easily safe. Brown went to second on a throw in and third on a throw in safety to right. He and Knisely attempted a double steal after Tanner had taken care of Booe but Brown was out at the plate, Kitchens to Brownlow to Kitchens.

The Bears put the game on ice in the next round when the infield around second cracked. Gross hit one to hit for Tanner after Johnson had fanned and although Gross had reached second as the play was first, Buddy Little tried to second and both men moved up a notch. Fuller's walk populated the corners. Northern hit one on the ground to right, between Brown and Snedecor, scoring Ross while Fuller halted for a minute at third. The Bears then tried another double steal and it should have resulted the same as the first one, but Brownlow dropped Kitchens' pretty peg and Fuller halted. Brown fanned for the final out.

The visitors' first run came in the next session and they never should have had it. Knisely and Booe were quickly disposed of, but Gibson was a pass. He took second while Gibson was at the bat and Tanner dropped a nice throw from Kitchens and Gibson was safe. Sentell had called Gibson out as the play was not even close until Buddy dropped the peg. It was a disastrous error as Gross poked a hit to center that scored Gibson. Gross went out beyond that and threw in and was caught between the bags. Miller to Zinn to Snedecor to Tanner.

The Spudders got a runner on the sacks in the second, third, fourth and fifth frames, but they could not push him around. Tanner opened the sixth with a long fly to center and scored and Snedecor's crack to Knisely. Knisely made a circus catch on the drive and robbed "Pete" of a sure-thing. He ran and cut it off the fence with his gloved hand.

Kitchens opened the next inning with a double, but Ross held his mates helpless and he romped in the second. They went out in order in the last two sessions. Score:

The development of a proper philosophy in sport is even more important than the development of any mere physical form in playing a game.

Men have reached great heights of sporting glory whose playing form was well off key, but none has ever reached any lofty peak whose philosophy was cracked or warped.

By philosophy here we mean the mental attitude held in regard to any game that you may play—held and put into action throughout each contest.

PHILOSOPHY AND SPORT

What are some of the more important ingredients of this sportive philosophy? One is to understand in advance that the game is replete with kno-

Stop, Look and Listen for Would-Be Suicides.

A "Stop, Look and Listen" sign for would-be suicides in Japan has been the means of saving nearly 200 lives. The people of that country are more or less prone to this style of death. Under the slightest aggravation they will journey to the crater of some seething volcano and throw themselves into the depths or they will throw themselves on the wires of some powerful electric plant. Lately the favorite method has been to drop in front of a train at a certain point which seemed to be favorable to the act. Some time ago a sign was erected upon an electric light pole at this point which read as follows: "Stop a minute. If you must take your life see Mrs. Jo at the Woman's Welfare association." At the last count this has been the means of saving 178 persons who had reached such a state of
