Labor Party Regime Stays Amid Defeats

LONDON (AP) — Spokesmen for Britain's Labor government said today that Prime Minister Harold Wilson would not resign despite three staggering defeats in the House of Commons.

The spokesmen said the issue at stake was not considered vital to the government's program.

It was clear, however, that the government had suffered great embarrassment and its floor managers in Commons had been outwitted. The Conservatives apparently had tricked a number of Labor members into going home too early.

STIFFER TAXES

The votes came early today during debate on the government's finance bill embodying stiffer taxes and a new system of company taxation. The votes added a clause limiting the effect of the new capital gains tax on mutual funds.

Until midnight the debate droned on. Some Conservatives appeared to be going home, leaving only 40 or so in the chamber. The lobbies Labor floor managers assumed they had plenty of supporters in case of a surprise vote and let some of their more elderly members go home.

Most of the Conservatives had parked their cars nearby and trickled back unobtrusively.

"SHOULD RESIGN"

Edward Heath, Conservative finance spokesman and the architect of the ambush, told the House: "The lesson for the government is plain — it should resign and resign quickly and let the country record its verdict."

Since its election last October, the Labor party's majority in the 630-seat Commons had varied from three to six, according to the number of special elections pending. It now stands at four.

Despite this slender margin the government had suffered only one previous Commons defeat, and that on a minor matter of House procedure.

Red Division, U.S. Marines At Showdown

SAIGON (AP)— A showdown appears imminent between U.S. Marines and what U.S. intelligence believes to be Communist North Viet Nam's 325th Division.

At stake is central Viet Nam —a huge area of jungle-covered mountains, with a string of vital coastal communities running along the South China Sea. One of these is Da Nang, the land Anchor of U.S. air raids on North Viet Nam.

For the past few weeks, guerrilla forces of unprecedented strength have roared across the Vietnamese highlands, smashing one important post after another. Thousands of government soldiers have died or been captured.

A week ago, guerrillas managed to breach the inner defenses of Da Nang air base, blowing up three American planes and damaging several others.

Some of these attacks are believed to have involved Viet Cong guerrilla units that have been working in the area for years. But the backbone of Viet Cong strength in this area now is believed by many top U. S. officials to be the North Vietnamese 325th Division, which is said to have begun infiltrating into South Viet Nam early this year.

Luci 'Bettered Relations' Of Two Churches

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike, who Sunday ignited the controversy over the rebaptism of Luci Baines Johnson, says she has innocently helped better Catholic-Episcopalian relations.

Bishop Pike's comments came Tuesday after a member of the Christian Unity Secretariat at Vatican City—in effect—backed Bishop Pike's denuncation of Miss Johnson's rebaptism into the Roman Catholic Church.

CHURCH TEACHING

In his sermon last Sunday, the bishop pointed out that both Episcopal and Catholic churches teach that baptism is "an unrepeatable sacrament."

The President's youngest daughter had been baptized in the Episcopal Church as an infant, but was baptized again last Friday, her 18th birthday, when she joined the Catholic Church.

SPOTLIGHTS IT

By requesting the rebaptism, Bishop Pike said, Luci had spotlighted the agreement between the two churches on baptism.

"Her request, contrary to the teachings of her new church, has resulted in a clear reaffirmation that such denigration of Christian baptism should never occur again—and I doubt that it will," the bishop said.

Astronauts To Shoot Light Ray To Desert

HOUSTON (AP)— U.S. astronauts will shoot a ray of light from the Gemini-7 to the New Mexico desert next December, hoping the beam will bore a clear channel for voice communication.

Air Force Maj. Frank Borman and Navy Lt. Comdr. James Lovell Jr., the Gemini-7 crew, will use a hand-held LASER in the communications experiment, it was revealed at a news conference Tuesday.

They will be aiming for the White Sands, N.M., tracking station. The station will use a radar-guided LASER in an attempt to contact the spacecraft at the same time.

Normal light scatters in all directions from its point of origin. The LASER (light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation)is a revolutionary device that concentrates light into an intense beam.

GOP Sub For Voting Rights Bill Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Efforts to build a Republican-Southern Democratic coalition in support of a Republican substitute for the administration's voting rights bill were under way today in the House.

The move suffered a setback Tuesday when Rep. John V. Lindsay, R-N.Y., GOP candidate for mayor of the city of New York, came out strongly for the administration measure.

But the coalition got a big push from Rep. Howard Smith, D-Va., chairman of the House Rules Committee.

TAGGED VENGEFUL

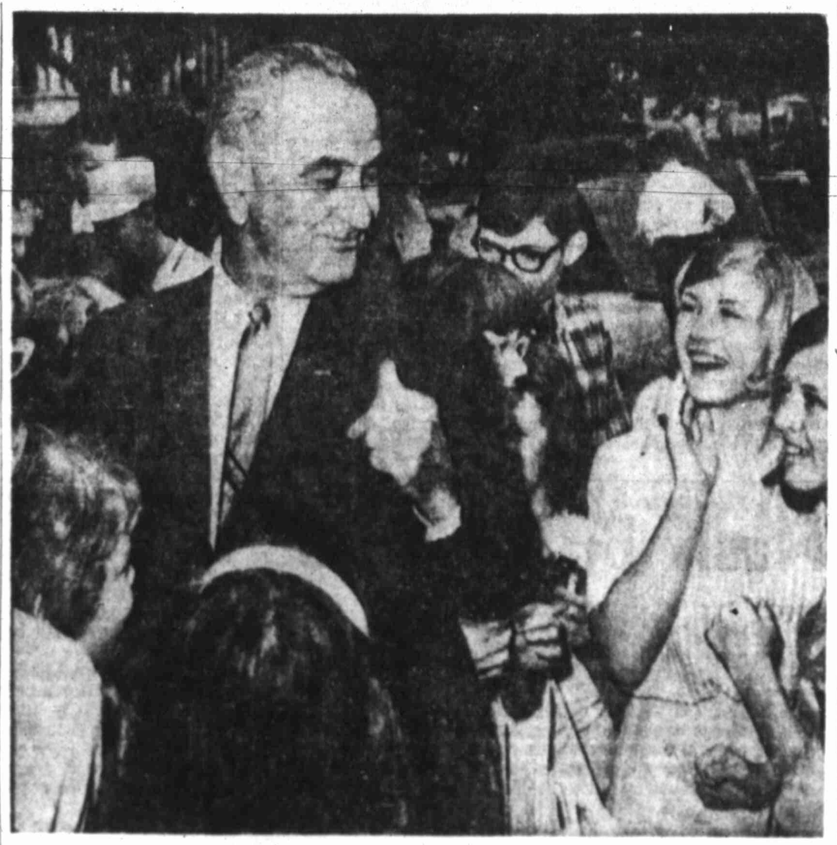

Smith, speaking to his Southern colleagues as the House opened debate on the legislation, told them the administration version was vengeful and flagrantly unconstitutional. But he said they could support the Republican bill.

"See how it lacks the dripping venom that pours from every paragraph and sentence of the (administration) bill," said Smith of the GOP measure. It is cosponsored by House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford and Rep William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, senior Republican on the Judiciary Committee.

McCulloch said his bill was fairer and sounder than the administration one, and added some arguments designed to appeal to Southerners.

U.S. REGISTRARS

"Under the Ford-McCulloch bill there will be no 'carpetbagger' examiners from far away places to perform their important duties in strange surroundings," he said. He referred to a provision requiring that federal registrars activated under the bill be residents of the state in which they are to serve. There is no restriction on the residence of such officials in the administration bill.

'Where You All From?'

President Johnson is surrounded by a group of youngsters as he returned to the White House after a stroll around the grounds today. The touring group broke out in song: "The Eyes of Texas are Upon You." The President asked, "Where you all from?" and the kids let him know. They came from 10 of 12 cities and towns in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Marines Land To Beef Up Coast Force

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Some 3,400 U.S. Marines landed on beaches in central Viet Nam today, a U.S. spokesman announced, and 4,600 more will land in the next week to boost American military strength in Viet Nam to nearly 60,000 men.

As the Marines began coming ashore, B52 bombers of the U.S. Strategic Air Command flew 2,200 miles from Guam for their third strike against the Communist-infested D Zone jungle 35 miles northeast of Saigon. A spokesman said it was another "spoiling mission" to destroy Viet Cong encampments and communications.

MARINES ENTER

Swarming in from U.S. Navy ships in the South China Sea, about 2,000 Marines landed 10 miles north of the big air base at Da Nang, where some 9,500 leathernecks are already stationed.

Another 1,400 were beaching at Qui Nhon, 170 miles to the southeast. A spokesman said they would replace 500 Marines who landed there last Thursday on a crash basis, and the smaller force would return to the 7th Fleet.

SUPPLY FORCE

Qui Nhon is a supply port of the campaign against guerrillas in the central highlands.

The U.S. spokesman said the new arrivals would be deployed along the strategic coastal strip to beef up forces already there. Marine units now are stationed at Da Nang, takeoff point for many of the air strikes against Communist North Viet Nam; in the Hue-Phu Bai area, at Chu Lai, and at Qui Nhon.

Viet Cong guerrillas slipped through the heavy Marine guard surrounding Da Nang last week, killed one American and destroyed three U.S. Air Force planes.

FEAR OFFENSIVE

American and Vietnamese authorities have believed for some months that the Viet Cong was readying a major offensive in central Viet Nam, aimed possibly at destroying Da Nang air base. Provincial capitals and coastal towns like Quang Ngai and Qui Nhon are also considered likely targets.

The Viet Cong overran the jungle outpost of Ba Gia, 10 miles from Quang Ngai, Monday and made off with two 105mm howitzers and a large stock of ammunition. They were the largest weapons captured by the Communists and could be used against such key positions as Da Nang.

LBJ, Surprise Visitors ...Young Texans...Chat

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Johnson canvassed the legislative outlook with Democratic congressional leaders today, chatted with a throng of singing, shrieking Texas youngsters, and applied a dash of cold water to the upcoming National Governors' Conference.

Johnson told reporters that he has no plans to attend the session of governors, who meet July 25-29 in Minneapolis. Told that the conference program lists him to speak on the 27th, he inquired: "27th of what?"

An official release from conference press headquarters says Johnson is slated to speak at the state dinner Tuesday, July 27, while Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will talk the day before.

Johnson didn't deny flatly that he will show up.

WEEKLY SESSIONS

Humphrey and Democratic Senate and House leaders held one of their weekly sessions with Johnson this morning. The President received assurance that the House is going to pass the voting rights bill and the Senate the medicare bill.

After the leaders left, Johnson strolled down the White House driveway and took a look at work going on to replace foundations of the front fence. By the time he got back a few minutes later, 40 Texas youngsters who had been on a special tour of the office end of the White House broke out in song: "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

WADES IN

Johnson smiled and heard them out then waded into the throng when photographers wanted a picture of him with the group.

He learned they were from 10 or 12 cities and towns in the lower Rio Grande Valley and, along with eight adults, are on a camping trip that will take them to the New York World's Fair. The youngsters call themselves the Apache Travelers.

Egyptian Plane With Russian Crew Crashes

CAIRO (AP) — A Soviet-built Egyptian air force plane with a Russian crew crashed in the desert near Suez today, killing 30 of the 31 persons aboard, a military announcement said.

A Russian gunner bailed out safely and walked to the nearest military post to report the crash, a spokesman said.

YEMEN DESTINATION

The big Antonov transport was bound for Yemen with one Egyptian officer, 21 soldiers and a Soviet crew of nine, the spokesman reported.

The plane went down within sight of the main highway across the desert between Cairo and Suez.

Bus passengers arriving at Cairo said military guards sealed off the crash site. Wreckage was scattered over a wide area, witnesses said, and two engines were the only parts of the plane that could be readily identified. They reported the rest was charred and destroyed by flames.

TO EMBASSY

The surviving gunner reportedly had bruises on his face but refused to be taken to a hospital. He asked instead to go to the Soviet Embassy, the reports said.

The embassy said it had no report of the crash.

Webb Marks 22nd Birthday Of Air Training Command

Birthday cake was served in all Webb Air Force Base mess halls today to celebrate the 22nd year of Air Training Command.

A special cake-cutting ceremony, presided over by Wing Commander Col. A. F. Taute, was held at 11:30 a.m., in Dining Hall 220. Sharing hosting duties with Col. Taute were: Col. Joseph H. Sherwood Jr., base commander; Col. George E. Franks, deputy commander — materiel; Col. Edwin J. White, deputy commander — training; Lt. Col. Mount E. Frantz, hospital commander; and Lt. Col. Michael W. Shareck Jr., commander of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron.

Air Training Command, of which Webb is a component, was born during World War II, with the basic mission to train men to fly and to maintain aircraft for the U. S. Army.

Since then, approximately 10,000,000 men have passed through the classrooms of the command, which has become the world's largest schooling system.

The Army Air Forces Training Command, as it was known when it was originated, became a fact on July 7, 1943, in Fort Worth. In January, 1946, the command headquarters moved from Fort Worth to Barksdale AFB, La. Three years later the headquarters moved to Scott AFB, Ill., where it remained until 1957, when it moved to its present home, Randolph AFB at San Antonio. It was in July of 1946 that the name Army Air Forces Training Command was shortened to Air Training Command.

At the start, in 1943, basic pilot trainees were utilizing the T-6 propeller - driven aircraft with speeds up to 150 miles per hour. Today undergraduate student pilots train in the supersonic T-38 Talon, with speeds of 850 mph.

If a person were to attend every course offered by ATC today, it would take him nearly 380,000 hours, or 244 years to complete. At present it costs $80,000 to train one Air Force jet qualified pilot at Webb AFB, or any of the other seven pilot training bases.

Each year, more than 100,000 specialists graduate from one of 2,000 technical training courses available in ATC.

It costs $10,000 to train one Air Force electronics technician with some courses lasting as long as 53 weeks.

The impact of the space age has been great in ATC. Ten years ago the first intercontinental ballistic missile was developed. Today ATC is training missilemen in 485 courses of the 12 major missile systems.

More than 85,000 missilemen have been graduated from ATC missile schools. These schools taught men to maintain and operate the Atlas and Titan I before those weapon systems were phased out of the inventory. Now they are teaching men in the operation and maintenance of the Titan II and Minuteman missiles.

Rights Group Backs Suspect

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Civil rights leaders have rallied to the support of one of their number, the Rev. Frederick D. Reese of Selma, who is charged with embezzling $1,850 from the organization which he heads.

Reese, a lieutenant of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in the Alabama civil rights campaign, was indicted Tuesday on three charges of embezzling from the Dallas County Voters League, a key organization in the lengthy civil rights drive in Selma and Dallas County earlier this year.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, vice president of King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, flew into Selma Tuesday night with other leaders assigned by King to investigate the charges made against the Negro minister.

Before flying back to Atlanta, Abernathy announced the full support of the organization for Reese.

Selma Mayor Joe Smitherman and City Safety Director Wilson Baker stressed at a news conference after Reese's indictment that the investigation was begun only after Negro civil rights workers complained.

Senate OKs Option Of Retiring At 60

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted today to allow all persons covered by Social Security the option of retiring at age 60 with monthly payments at two-thirds of the rate that would apply at age 65.

It accepted by voice vote and with only brief debate an amendment to accomplish this offered by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., to the Social Security-health care bill.

AT 62 NOW

Byrd said he was primarily interested in persons "in the twilight zone over age 60" who lose their jobs and cannot find new employment.

Under the law now, a worker may retire at age 62 with a monthly payment equal to 80 per cent of what would be received at age 65.

The Byrd amendment provides that, if the worker retires at age 60, the payment would be at 66 2-3 per cent of the full rate.

A wife entitled to 50 per cent of her husband's benefit at age 65 now gets 37½ per cent of his payment if she elects to retire at age 62. Under the Byrd amendment, she would receive only 29 per cent of his payment at age 60.

FOR WIDOWS

The bill as it came from the House already had provided an age 60 retirement for widows with a reduced benefit.

Byrd estimated that 3.5 million persons would be eligible for earlier benefits under his proposal, and that 900,000 would take advantage of this in the next year.

He said the estimated initial extra cost would be $500 million a year, but that reduced payment figures had been worked out actuarially so there would be no long-run cost to the Social Security system.

In other words, a person retiring at 60 would receive about the same total sum based on his life expectancy as he would if he had waited until 65.

HOUSE BARRIER

Sen Russell B. Long, D-La., floor manager for the bill, accepted the amendment. However, he indicated he expected some difficulty in getting the House to go along with the proposal.

The main provisions of the bill — one of President Johnson's major legislative proposals — would set up health care programs for 19 million Americans 65 or older and boost Social Security benefits.

The cost is estimated at $6.8 billion yearly. Most of it would be met by increased Social Security taxes paid by workers and employers.

Youth Corps Projects OK'd After Delay

AUSTIN (AP)—The state approved five Neighborhood Youth Corps projects Tuesday and apologized because a bog down in processing had cut the length of time the programs will be in effect.

Gov. John Connally approved projects for Houston, San Marcos, LaGrange and Bastrop County and said he will approve a San Diego project still pending in Washington.

Federal funds for the five projects will total $354,256 and will give employment, with counseling and educational advice, to 805 youths.

Terrell Blodgett, director of Texas' Office of Economic Opportunity, said processing problems in Washington have delayed some Youth Corps projects.

Projects approvals went to:

LaGrange Independent School District, $170,315 federal funds, $22,165 local money, for 300 youths.

Bastrop County commissioners, $77,900 federal, $12,230 local, for 200 youths at Smithville, Elgin and Bastrop.

Harris County department of education, $76,071 federal, $17,988 local, for 155 youths.

City of San Marcos, $13,320 federal, $12,230 local, 24 youths.

San Diego School District, $16,650 federal, $4,750 local, 126 youths.

The San Diego project calls for wages of $1 an hour, the rest for $1.25 an hour.

Opening lead: Queen of ♠

Holding nine cards in a suit—missing the queen—the usual procedure is to play for the drop. Altho the percentages run slightly against a finesse, the margin is extremely narrow, however, and other considerations may exert a key influence on the final decision.

Less reliance on strict percentage tables and a more direct examination of the problem which confronted him might have proved highly refreshing to South, the declarer at four hearts.

West opened the queen of spades which held the trick as all hands ducked. He continued the suit and South ruffed away East's ace on the third round with the trey of hearts.

A heart was led to North's ace and a heart was returned. East played the ten, and South—after a brief moment of indecision—put up the king. When West showed out, declarer tried to run the club suit by playing the queen and then crossing to North's ace. He disposed of one diamond on the king of clubs as East also took a discard; however, West retained a stopper in clubs in the form of the jack, and declarer ultimately conceded a diamond and a heart to the opposition.

South could have assured his contract against anything short of a very bad break in clubs, by taking the heart finesse. The advantage of this play becomes obvious when all hands are exposed to view. There is a sound reason for not trying to drop the queen, however, despite the fact that declarer has nine trumps.

Suppose, for example, the heart finesse should lose to a doubleton queen in West's hand. Now both opponents are out of hearts, and North's seven becomes a late entry to dummy. If West shifts to a diamond, South wins the trick with the ace, casbes the three top clubs—discarding a diamond from his hand—and then ruffs a club to establish North's long card in that suit. Dummy is reentered with the seven of hearts and South's last diamond goes on the eight of clubs.

Flash Brilliant As Tanks Blow Up

GRANBURY (AP)— Two big gasoline storage tanks on the northeast edge of Granbury in Central Texas blew up with a flash visible for miles before dawn today.

Although there are houses little more than a block distant, none was injured. Firemen kept the ensuing blaze from spreading to other tanks in a Gulf Oil Co. tank farm managed by W. R. Summers.

ATOP TANK

A. O. Howeth, 54, a tank truck driver from Fort Worth, spotted a small fire licking from a vent atop one of the tanks while he was unloading about 2 a.m.

Howeth warned residents in the area to flee and summoned Granbury's 25-member volunteer fire department. Failing to quench the blaze in a 45-minute battle, firemen retreated just before the two tanks exploded. One contained 14,600 gallons of gasoline, the other 12,000 gallons.

SEE FLASH

Persons in Fort Worth, 36 miles north of here, and in Cleburne, 31 miles southeast, told of observing the brilliant flash of light. Coupled with a heavy roar, it roused most of the 2,700 Granbury residents who weren't already awake.

How the initial fire started had not been determined.

Ringo Notes 25th Birthday

LONDON (AP) — Beatle drummer Ringo Starr celebrated his 25th birthday today — a moderately good musician, an expectant father, a millionaire and a talented comic.

He is the oldest of the quartet, the others being John Lennon, 25 next Oct. 9; Paul McCartney, 23 on June 18, and George Harrison, 22 on Feb. 25.

"When the pop bubble finally bursts," the Daily Mirror said recently," Ringo could be the Beatle with the career as a comic."

"He has that great gift of being natural," said Walter Shenson, the American producer of the Beatles' two movies. "Many an actor longs for this. The first time I talked to him about acting, he said, 'Me? Why I can't act.' I told him, 'All right, but whatever you do — just keep doing it.'"

Senate Votes Fag Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is expected to mirror the Senate and approve compromise legislation to require a health warning on all cigarette packages.

This compromise bill cleared the Senate Tuesday by voice vote. How quickly the House acts depends on when the Democratic leadership decides to put aside temporarily its debate on the voting rights bill.

House approval would send the cigarette measure to the White House.

Plans For LBJ Park Have Drag

AUSTIN (AP) — Plans for Lyndon Johnson State Park across the road from the President's ranch are moving slowly, the director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said Tuesday.

"We are still in the process of trying to acquire land down there," said Weldon Watson, the director.

One piece of property is in condemnation proceedings.

States' Okay Seen For Plan On Disability

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has given its final stamp of approval, and now it's up to the state legislatures to decide whether an amendment covering presidential disability should be added to the Constitution.

Sponsors believe that sometime in 1967 the proposal will be approved as the 25th Amendment by the legislatures of 38 states — three-fourths of the nation's 50 states.

Such action thus would seal into the Constitution the first definitive answer to the query of John Dickinson of Delaware when he asked the Constitutional Convention in 1787:

"What is the extent of the term 'disability' and who is to be the judge of it?"

Senate approval of the proposed amendment came Tuesday on a 68-5 roll call vote. Voting against it were Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, Eugene J. McCarthy and Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and John G. Tower, R-Tex.

The House had given its approval on a voice vote last Wednesday. President Johnson's signature is not required.

The proposed amendment would supplant a provision of Article II, Section 1, of the Constitution.

Article II says that in the case of the inability of the president to carry out his duties "the same shell revolve on the vice president." It stipulates that Congress can provide for the inability of both the president and vice president, set up a line of succession to the office, with such officer to act as president "until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected."

In acting on the proposed 25th Amendment, the Senate brushed aside Gore's contentions that the language needed further clarification.

Debate centered on a provision under which the vice president and a majority of the Cabinet — or such other body as Congress might set up — could notify Congress in writing that the president was unable to perform his duties and the vice president would take over.

However, if the president sent a written declaration to Congress that he had no disability, he would resume his office unless the vice president and a majority of the Cabinet notified Congress of their disagreement within four days.

If it were not in session, Congress would be required to meet in 48 hours and resolve the dispute within 21 days. If both houses decided by a two-thirds majority vote that the president was disabled, the vice president would continue to function. Otherwise the president would resume office.

Gore told the Senate he would not like to speculate that "some diabolical character" some day might become vice president and take advantage of the provisions to oust a president. He said such a vice president could gain acting status and appoint a Cabinet to help him keep it. If a Cabinet gave him a majority but another body set up by Congress didn't agree, he asked, "Who would control?"

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., sponsor of the measure, said that if Congress established another body, it would supersede the Cabinet.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said that to give Gore's fears substance, "you'd have to assume a venal vice president" acting in league with "venal Cabinet members."

"I doubt if we need to be afraid of the ghosts that have been raised," he said.

Gore suggested that "the country might be rent asunder" if a dispute arose as to whether the president had "lost his balance" from "some psychiatric cause."

There was no argument over the provision of the proposed amendment in which a president voluntarily could notify Congress he was disabled and could resume his duties by certifying he was well again. Debate centered only on the sections dealing with a dispute over his resumption of office.

Neither was there any opposition to a provision under which a president could nominate a vice president to fill a vacancy in that office. The president's nominee would take office if a majority of both houses confirmed the appointment.

President Johnson asked for action on the matter in a message last Jan. 28 in which he said "we have neither perfected the provisions for orderly continuity in the executive direction of our system nor, as yet, paid the price our continuing inaction so clearly invites and so recklessly risks."

Fatigue Believed Factor In Death Of Rubirosa

PARIS (AP) — Police speculated today that fatigue may have been a factor in the death of Porfirio Rubirosa, 56, the international playboy whose sports car smashed into a tree as he was heading home from an all-night party.

The ex-diplomat and former husband of heiresses Doris Duke and Barbara Hutton died in an ambulance after his Ferrari clipped a parked car and rebounded into a tree, police said. He was flung against the wheel and windshield.

CALL AMBULANCE

The driver of the parked car and a passing cyclist gave first aid and called an ambulance.

The accident, in the Bois de Boulogne, was not far from the spot where Prince Aly Khan, a close friend of Rubirosa, died in an automobile collision in May, 1960.

Rubirosa had spent Sunday night celebrating the victory of his polo team over a team led by his friend, Elie de Rothschild.

WIFE LEFT

Rubirosa's wife, French actress Odile Rodin, left the party at 5 a.m., saying she was tired. Rubirosa and several friends continued the celebration.

In the dawn hours Rubirosa drove off alone in his convertible.

Bomb Scare Prompts Hunt

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. military demolition experts searched one of Saigon's largest American military hotels late Tuesday in response to a telephoned report that a bomb had been planted there. They found nothing.

Officials said they believed the call was a hoax, but wanted to take no chances. More than 100 U.S. officers live at the hotel.

Colorful Sheep Not New Species

GLENWOOD, N.M. (AP) — The two bighorn sheep with bright orange horns in the Gila National Forest are not a new species.

The State Game and Fish Department sprayed the horns with paint to track the sheep in their new location.

Airlines Purchase Lot Of Equipment

NEW YORK (AP) — The busy airline purchasing agents are even more free-handed than earlier reports indicated.

A new survey by the Air Transport Association shows orders of new equipment should top $3 billion before the end of the year.

The airlines say this rate of capital investment exceeds that of any other major industry in the country.

WILL BENEFIT

Others than the planemakers getting the orders will benefit. The airlines point out that most of the new equipment will be short- and medium-range aircraft designed to serve the intermediate cities. This would answer some of the complaints that these cities have been bypassed by the big jets.

The new equipment, when all is delivered by the end of 1967, will increase available seat miles by 48 per cent.

The airlines also say that the investments and the increased productivity from the new equipment should create 50,000 new jobs by 1970. The airlines now employ about 190,000 in the air and on the ground.

$2.4 BILLION

The survey to be released later this week shows that as of June 30 orders totaled 480 aircraft at a purchase cost of $2.4 billion. Of these, 308 are Boeing 727, 737, Douglas DC9s and British made BAC 111 jets, designed primarily for the short-haul and medium-range markets.

The big expansion comes on top of a spurt in 1964 which found the airlines new spending equaling 23 per cent of the purchase cost of the property and equipment they had in service at the beginning of that year.

The association points out that at the end of World War II the cost of property and equipment operated by the airlines was $125 million. By the end of 1954 this had multiplied to $1.25 billion. By the end of 1964 the investment totaled $5 billion.

COSTS CLIMB

Finding the money to finance this growth has been a headache at times. And ahead is the supersonic age, when the planes will be priced at $25 million to $35 million each.

The airlines have gone deeply into debt at times to finance their growth. Today the ratio is 60 per cent debt and 40 per cent equity. The association says the goal is to reverse this by the early 1970s. If so, they'll be in better condition to finance the expensive switch to supersonic planes.

Helping with the financing of the new rush of orders for the medium-range jets is the increased earnings of most airlines this year.

The new equipment is counted on to make the lines even more profitable in time. And that is why they have chosen to expand now rather than retrench after the four lean years of 1960 through 1963 which saw many report losses.

Drivers License Lines Growing

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The waiting lines of persons seeking to be photographed under Georgia's new drivers license program are getting long. Women applicants are fussy about how they will look.

The program requires all applicants to be photographed, in color.

New Caparol controls weeds in cotton at layby without residue problems in crops planted next spring.

You can spray new Caparol* at layby for control of most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses, without fear of a soil residue carryover to harm crops planted in the spring of 1966. Just apply Caparol after your cotton is up six inches or more and before weeds are two inches high.

Spraying Caparol at layby will give you control until your cotton is up high enough to shade out any weeds that may germinate late in the summer. You can even apply Caparol where other herbicides have already been used and you find weeds breaking through.

Caparol is easy to handle and apply. Just direct the spray at the base of the cotton plants. You'll get quick knockdown of the young weeds and grasses. Then the action of Caparol continues to control weeds and grasses through the roots as they germinate for the next several weeks.

With Caparol on the job, you won't have weeds to compete for moisture and plant food. And you won't have rank weeds to foul up harvesting . . . to stain and downgrade lint.

So plan now to use Caparol at layby. It's available through your local supplier.

DEAR ABBY

She's Got A Choice

DEAR ABBY: I am a 31-year-old woman who has been divorced five years. I have two children. We live with my parents as my mother is always at home, which makes it convenient for me to work. Besides, if I had my own place it would put a strain on my budget, and my job requires that I dress well and own my own car. I do pay room and board, however.

All my life my father has been domineering, unreasonable and very narrow-minded. Even my mother has never dared to cross him. If I am not in by 12 o'clock, he goes out looking for me. He has burst into places, insulted my escort, and has literally dragged me home with him. My friends have all been respectable, but after such a scene, they never call again.

I don't want to move out as it is so very comfortable and convenient having Mother to look after my children, and do all the laundry and cooking and cleaning. But I can't live like this, either. What would you do if you were in my shoes?

WANTS FREEDOM

DEAR WANTS: Which do you want more? The convenience of a live-in cook, cleaning woman and 24-hour baby sitting service? Or the right to live your own life? Obviously, you can't have both. If I were in your shoes, I would prefer the latter. And the longer you wait, the more difficult the break will be.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I suspected that my husband was running around with a certain girl so I had him tailed by a private detective. They followed him to a motel where he checked in with this girl. They stayed only 32 minutes and then left. Do you think he could be guilty of wrongdoing?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: You're his wife; I'll ask you. Could he?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: In a club initiation recently I had to shoplift a pair of shoes. I did this easily at a self-service shoe mart by taking a new pair of shoes and replacing them with an old pair I wore in. I didn't feel guilty while I was doing it, but I do now. I wanted to get into this club at all costs because all the cool kids belong. What should I do?

FEELING GUILTY

DEAR FEELING: Return the stolen shoes to the manager of the shoe mart, explain the circumstances and take the consequences. Since you wore the shoes out of the store, prepare to pay for them. I suggest you find "cooler" kids to go with before you end up in the "cooler."

Brown Takes Oath For Legislature

By PEGGY SIMPSON

AUSTIN (AP) — Roger Dale Brown, 29, newest member of the Texas House of Representatives, is a former oil field roughneck who has a yen for flying and sailing.

Brown took the oath of office Tuesday as representative from the 78th District, composed of Coke, Glasscock, Howard, Irion, Martin, Reagan and Sterling counties.

The slender newcomer has practiced law in Big Spring since 1961. He's a Democrat and already has announced as a candidate for a full term.

Before taking his law degree from the University of Texas in 1960, Brown worked summers in the oil fields and at other odd jobs, including cook in a hamburger stand and on ranches.

MANAGES RANCH

He now manages a ranch near Big Spring for his brothers and sisters.

Brown made his first political race in the June 26 special election to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Rep. J. Ed Carpenter. He beat another Democrat and a Republican.

His father was a county judge at the time the elder Brown died and for 10 years previously served as county commissioner. Part of the time Carpenter was a fellow commissioner.

Brown is a private pilot but sold his small plane before the election.

He and his blonde wife, Anna Mae, are concentrating their energies at present on finishing two small sailboats, one for each. They plan to sail at Lake J. B. Thomas between Big Spring and Snyder.

GIVES OATH

House Speaker Ben Barnes administered the oath of office to Brown before a handful of friends and legislators.

Among those present were his wife, his mother, Mrs. J. E. Brown of Big Spring, and a sister, Mrs. Calvin R. Clark of Longview. An informal coffee was held afterward.

Evidence Of Legend

Mrs. J. C. Porter, English teacher at Wichita Falls High School, holds small pocket type pistol and chamois belt belonging to one John St. Helen, who confessed to her grandfather in Grandbury, Tex., almost 100 years ago, that he truly was John Wilkes Booth, slayer of President Lincoln. Mrs. Porter's grandfather, F. J. Gordon, 22 years old at the time, heard the confession and was sent to find the hidden weapon and cartridge-filled money belt. They were wrapped in a newspaper giving account of the presidential assassination. (AP WIREPHOTO)

New Teener Club Starts Campaign Against Bias

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Twenty five teenagers hope their new interfaith, interracial club will halt ingorance and prejudice they say is spread among children by parents.

They hope their idea will take root across the country.

"This is the way to fight racism," said an adviser to the Greater Utica Youth Service Guys. "Give all the facts to all the children."

ADOPT IDEAS

"Kids hear their parents talking and adopt their ideas without knowing anything about it," said an 18-year-old charter member.

A girl who said her parents had objected to her joining Guys added: "We want to spread knowledge about race and religion to teen-agers before their minds become closed."

The group was organized during a five-week, adult seminar called "Operation Brotherhood," sponsored by the Interreligious Commission on Religion and Race. It includes several Negro boys and girls.

OWN MEETINGS

Seminar leaders, noting that the youngsters remained after the sessions to talk, encouraged them to hold their own meetings, and Guys was formed with these aims:

To foster brotherhood and understanding through youth.

To promote respect for the race, religion and ideals of others.

Woman Found Wounded, Dies

LAVERNIA, Tex. (AP) — Lucy Fredrich, 67, who was found wounded at her home here Monday, died in a San Antonio hospital Tuesday.

Sheriff Asa Fuller theorized she was shot elsewhere and taken to her home. He said no weapon or signs of struggle were found in the house but he did find small drops of blood near the back door.

Mrs. Fredrich's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Stanish of Converse, discovered she was wounded when they arrived for a visit.

Former Mitchell County Resident Dies, Rites Slated

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Luther Lasseter, 66, former Mitchell County man, died in Lindsey, Calif., Saturday after a short illness and will be returned to Colorado City for burial.

He was born in Amyrok, Ga., Aug. 13, 1898, but had farmed in Mitchell County for many years prior to 1944, when he moved to California. He returned to Mitchell County briefly, but following the death of his wife in 1945, the former Leona Phillips, he moved back to California.

Funeral will be held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Kiker and Son Funeral Home in Colorado City. The Rev. R. S. Day, Midland, will officiate.

He is survived by two sons, J. W. Lassetter, Bend, Ore., and James Lassetter, Colton, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Prentice Gamble, Napa, Calif., Mrs. Joe Gamble, Big Spring, and Mrs. Weldon Thompson, Lindsay, Colo.; two sisters, Mrs. Murtie Cox, Jayton, and Mrs. D. D. Parsons, Hereford; 18 grandchildren.

Coahoma Schools Call For Bids

Bids will be received until 2 p.m. July 19 for remodeling of an elementary school building at Coahoma, trustees have announced.

This is the first unit of a $395,000 improvement and expansion program.

Proposals will be for remodeling the building, particularly in converting the old auditorium space into classrooms. Bids will also include plumbing, heating, electrical work and evaporative air conditioning. Plans and specifications are available from Gary & Hohertz, architects.

Stanton School Awards Contract For Unique Plant

STANTON — The Stanton Independent School District board of trustees has awarded a contract for its novel underground elementary school.

The contract is with J. D. Jones Construction Company of Big Spring in the amount of $102,595. Work order will be issued soon, said Olen Puckett, architect, who designed the unique eight - classroom structure. Bids were opened recently but original proposals exceeded funds available. Deductions were worked out to bring the plant within the money.

Besides the eight 24x28 ft. conventional classrooms which will have additional wall space because of lack of windows, the building will contain a bookroom and a storage room as well as restrooms.

It will be air conditioned with a 25-ton refrigerative unit and will have a 66 KW electric heater system. The underground location will make for smaller units because of greater efficiency. Illumination will be strip flourescent lights, but there also will be an emergency five KW generator built in so that there will be ample light for movement, although not for study.

Entrance will be by a U type stairwell, but there also will be an escape hatch which will exit into an overhead penthouse which will shelter the vents, etc.

The roof will not be as high density as first planned, due to a cost factor, but it will offer some fallout protection. The main advantage, however, is to supply protection from high winds or tornadoes.

The maximum depth is about 12 feet, but the top of the slab roof will be flush with the ground and may be used as a playground area. The plant is as totally fireproof as is possible to build. Corridors and restrooms will have an epoxy paint on the walls. Ceilings will have acoustical tile.

Pioneer Dies At C-City

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Miss Nell Riordan, 83, Colorado City pioneer, died early Tuesday morning at the Root Memorial Hospital.

Miss Riordan was born in Waxahachie, July 26, 1881, and came to Mitchell County in 1882. Her father, Jerry Riordan was an early day banker, and a brother, the late Jerold Riordan, operated a hardware store in downtown Colorado City for many years.

Funeral was held today at 10 a.m. from the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Fred Brewton, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery.

Mrs. Rogers Dies Tuesday

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Mrs. Mollie C. Rogers, 91, Colorado City, died in the Root Memorial Hospital Tuesday morning. She was born in Lampasas, Aug. 30, 1873, and had lived here since 1905. She had married J. F. Rogers in Cleburne, in 1889. He died in 1951. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. from the 22nd Street Church of Christ, with Roy Holland, minister, officiating. Burial will be in the Colorado City Cemetery.

She is survived by five sons, J. M. Rogers and Elmer Rogers, of Colorado City, Curtis Rogers, Midland, Olin Rogers, Manitou, Colo., and W. T. Rogers, Fort Worth; three daughters, Mrs. O. W. Britton, Portales, N. M., Mrs. Ruby McClain, Marysville, Calif., and Mrs. Lora Philbrick, Fort Stockton; 48 grandchildren and 101 great - grandchildren and 38 great-great-grandchildren.

A Devotional For The Day

Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousnèss. (Romans 6:18)

PRAYER: Divine Creator of man and freedom, we thank Thee for the blessings of Thy creation. Teach us to see that freedom must be shared with others if we are to find it for ourselves. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Core Of The Issue

One of the hottest issues before Congress and one that could go either way is the proposal to repeal section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley act. In essence, this would make it impossible for states to have what have come to be called right-to-work laws.

In the earlier stages of the current session, the President gained almost automatic endorsement of anything he proposed. Lately, measures have been running into more resistance, and it is possible that the defeat of the repeal proposal is in better position than it was a month or so ago. However, it is still a nip and tuck fight.

While we can appreciate the feeling of union officials and members over non-union members who benefit through the result of bargaining by unions, we still do not believe that it is right as a matter of principle to require organization membership for any person to practice a trade or profession. After all else is shaken out, this remains as the core of the matter. It is true that some will be freeloaders on unions, but there are freeloaders in churches and in other areas of our society. This irritation, however, does not warrant the sacrifice of the principle of an individual right of choice.

It Improves The Community

The City of Big Spring is progressing on the enforcement of an ordinance to remove buildings which have been hazardous or injurious to public health.

This is a project on ticklish legal grounds, and understandable action must be brought about after due deliberation. If honest corrective action is possible, then this must be given ample opportunity to be brought about. There must be a distinction, however, between honest effort and token effort.

The end result, on the basis of what we have seen, is in the public's interest. None will argue that several eyesores have been removed, either through demolition, or through repair and remodeling, but the important thing is that places which have become fire traps, a harbor for winos, vagrants, or unshackled juveniles, or have become harborage for rodents, offal and human excretion have been done away with. The community is bound to be better without these sort of places, and the city is due commendation for moving with discretion but firmness.

'ASHES TO ASHES . . .'

Around The Rim

Long Way In 50 Years

Within the past month The Herald joined with others in pressing for a bond issue to finance roadway for highway improvements. Editorially we stressed the importance of modern highways.

THIS MAKES A copy of The Herald on Sept. 22, 1916 (which my wife dug out of the family archives) doubly interesting. Several stories in the issue were devoted to efforts to secure and develop two national highways through Big Spring.

E. J. Herman, who was assistant director general of the National Highway Association in Washington, D.C., was making his way along the T&P and proclaiming a gospel of good roads. He had stopped in Stanton on the afternoon of Sept. 19 and addressed 40 people from Big Spring (it took 10 cars to transport them there), 20 from Midland, 20 from Lamesa and 60 from Stanton. He urged his listeners "to get busy and secure a national highway along the T&P Railway."

THIS ROUTE, he pointed out, was a natural, and The Herald, commenting on a visit by Mr. Herman the next day in Big Spring, predicted that "the highway along the Texas & Pacific will become one of the most popular and most desirable highways in the country . . . if we organize and make it first class from Fort Worth to El Paso."

There was added impetus, for Mr. Herman reported that Congress had finally appropriated the handsome sum of $85,000,000 as federal aid for national highways. Texas was in line for $4,500,000 of this upon the condition that it establish a highway commission and provide for a continuous highway for those given federal designation.

"WE CAN continue to hold the Pugent Sound to Gulf Highway and the El Paso to Dallas link on the Ocean to Ocean Highway if we band together and work," The Herald noted.

"Thousands and thousands of these tourists will travel these highways. . . and hardly a car can get by our city without a purchase of some kind. Automobile travel will become greater and greater each year, and we cannot grasp the immense benefit it is going to be to the towns located along a national highway."

NO TIME WAS lost in organizing the Howard County Highway League with S. A. Penix as president, T. H. Johnson as vice president, and W. B. Hayden as secretary - treasurer. Johnson, Joye Fisher and C. D. Ambrose were named as a membership committee, and they had a head start of 15 men who planked down $5 for annual dues. A goal of 500 members was set.

Plans were made to organize a 50-car caravan to go to Midland the following week for a meeting to formally organize towns from El Paso to Fort Worth into an association to press for federal designation. Judge Adrian Pool of El Paso had been going up and down the T&P promoting interest in this route, citing the potential benefits, "not the least (of them) the actual contact of these visitors with the country and the advertisement they would give us."

THE NEWLY-FORMED chamber of commerce named a roads committee comprised of B. Reagan, T. H. Johnson, T. S. Currie, P. G. Stokes, M. H. Morrison and Joye Fisher.

That "highway along the Texas & Pacific" became State Highway 1, then US 80, and now Interstate 20 with its system of super bridges, grade separations, divided lanes, access roads and signs. The Puget Sound to Gulf (or Glacier to Gulf as some called it) Highway became State 9, then US 87 with divided lane practically all the way to Amarillo and much of the way to San Antonio. This reminds us of the vision and enterprise of those men who ventured out 50 years ago, and the obligation to honor their faith with continued effort for good roads.

Our Message Of Independence

WASHINGTON — Was Independence Day celebrated properly? News dispatches tell of disorders at crowded resort areas and excesses of all kinds, including careless driving on the highways.

How many of the millions of citizens who are given the right to vote can read or understand the words of the Declaration of Independence itself?

THERE'S AN even more important question that might well be asked: How should the occasion of America's famous pronouncement on the right of self-determination of peoples have been celebrated? A golden opportunity was missed by failing to dramatize and publicize throughout the world the immortal principles written in the document proclaimed 189 years ago by the Founding Fathers.

Condensed into simple language, the Declaration of Independence could have been applied to the situations existing among the oppressed peoples on every continent in the world. The rules of international and national conduct contained in the Declaration are in every sense pertinent today. If these were taken to heart by the peoples of those countries now living under dictatorships, the whole world might rid itself of the perennial fear of autocratic governments which threaten the peace.

THE DECLARATION of Independence expressed no desire to be unfriendly to the British people, but instead recognized that they were themselves the victims of an arbitrary and irresponsible monarch whose actions were hardly different in many respects from some of the rulers who today are causing so much unhappiness in the world.

The British King in 1776 had, for instance, interfered with the right of the American colonists to retain the legislative bodies they had formed. He called together legislative bodies "at places, unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures." He also "obstructed the administration of justice" and made "judges dependent on his will alone."

THE WHOLE CASE was summed up in the following sentence: "A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people."

These words have a fateful meaning today for the people on the mainland of China as well as for the peoples of the autocracies established in southeast Asia which are financed and controlled by Moscow or Peiping. But most of all, the principles bear directly on the plight of the Soviet Union and of the Communist-bloc countries in Eastern Europe, whose peoples are pawns in the hands of the ruling oligarchy in Moscow.

ALTHOUGH THE Declaration of Independence enumerated the basic reasons for initiating a revolution against the British crown, our forefathers also outlined a philosophy that teaches a significant lesson to malcontents who are impatient even with representative processes and seek to undermine them, notwithstanding the fact that the existing machinery provides an orderly means of redress. The following excerpt, rarely quoted abroad, is pertinent:

"PRUDENCE, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty; to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security."

Translated into many languages, these and other passages in the Declaration of Independence could become a most powerful summons to concerted action by oppressed peoples everywhere. This could have been and still can be to them the true meaning of a worldwide Independence Day.

Congress Ideal From Presidential Standpoint

WASHINGTON (AP) — At another time what Congress is doing now would be wrapped in breathless attention and conflict. But success feeds on itself and in these peculiar days what seemed impossible now seems routine.

This is a busy Congress and, before this session is over, will have been a highly productive one. However, public interest has been distracted by the war in Viet Nam and the personality of President Johnson.

IN GETTING Congress to trot along with him, Johnson has had two things working for him: his own endless pressure on the men in the Capitol and the fact that his own Democrats thoroughly outnumber the Republicans.

And there is not now in Congress a controversial figure — like Sens. Joseph McCarthy, Robert A. Taft or Barry Goldwater — who splits public thinking and, while getting attention himself, draws attention to Congress.

From a presidential standpoint this probably is an ideal Congress: legislators who for the most part stick to their knitting, don't fuss much and grind out the legislation.

Besides all this, some of the most important legislation moving through Congress this year was fought over wildly or loudly so many times before it lost its edge.

TWO EXAMPLES: federal aid to grade and high schools, passed earlier this year, and medicare which will almost certainly go through.

There was hardly a ripple when Congress only Tuesday completed what no Congress in history ever managed to do before:

This was approval, by the House last week and the Senate Tuesday, of a proposed constitutional amendment spelling out procedures to deal with presidential disability and to keep the vice presidency filled.

This won't become part of the Constitution until at least 38 state legislatures also approve but they're expected to without any trouble, although not before 1967. Action on this was a major achievement in itself.

BEFORE CONGRESS took its Fourth of July vacation it already had passed — in addition to the school aid bill — two other top Johnson programs: reduction in federal excise taxes and aid to the Appalachia area.

As soon as it returned Tuesday, after clearing the proposed amendment, the Senate went to work on the Social Security-health care bill.

Today: An Open Letter Home

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — An open letter home:

Dear friend wife:

Believe me, baby, when I get back home you're going to be the one who carries out the garbage. It's an old Vietnamese custom that a lot of American men over here are beginning to think makes sense.

I know that there is nothing makes a U.S. woman madder than to tell her she has an easy life — that she is overprivileged and underworked. But I tell you, roundeyes, your eyes would get even rounder if you saw how Vietnamese women live — and apparently like it.

MEN HAVE only two chief labor-saving devices in this country — women and water buffaloes. The women work harder.

In the rice paddy country the men and the buffaloes feel they've done their bit when they've finished plowing. But women toil in the fields, tend the kids, do the cooking and the laundering, and take care of the chickens, ducks and pigs. The ideal wife is one who produces a good rice crop and a baby every year.

Most of the country's products seem to be transported on women's backs. They use bamboo shoulder poles from which heavily loaded baskets are suspended fore and aft. To balance the baskets, the women walk with a peculiar rhythmic shuffle.

THE VIETNAMESE toiler earns her dough the hard way in the city, too. About 20 per cent of the labor force is feminine.

Women work as ditch diggers, dock wallopers, hod carriers, plasterers and as laborers on heavy construction projects. They get a daily wage of from about 85 cents to $1.20 — depending on their skills.

"The average woman gets almost twice as much done as a man in a day," said an American construction engineer. "Of course, I don't know whether she lasts as long.

"But they're all pretty cheerful about life, hard as it is. They aren't nearly as frustrated as our women back home. Maybe they've got the answer over here."

IT SEEMS that the harder wives work, the fewer husbands die of ulcers and coronaries.

Well, I guess that's about all the good news I have to report for now. When I get home, get ready to set another rice bowl on the table. By the way, I'm bringing along a bamboo shoulder pole — to make your trips to the supermarket a little easier. You'll get the hang of it in no time, and be the envy of all the other wives in the neighborhood.

Your ever-thoughtful husband, Harold.

He Loved Life And Lived It

WASHINGTON — The ordinary person who finally clerks his way to a coronary or succumbs to a mortgage offers the obituary writer no problem. You list the fraternal connections and the next of kin, and you record the dispiriting fact that he chored for 35 years for the Grindstone Bank and Trust before he finally turned his face to the wall and died, and that's that.

BUT IT IS HARD to chronicle the passing of one of the rare ones who has really lived, whose vitality matched his wit and whose frailties were of a size to equal his talents. Bob Ruark, an old friend who died in his 49th year last week, is tough to write about in the past tense simply because it is difficult to think about him that way.

He was ailing and shaky the last time I saw him, which was in London last winter when a lot of reporters gathered to preside over the passing of Winston Churchill. Bob Ruark, Bob Considine and I, all products of starveling apprenticeships in prewar Washington, spent a long time eating a good lunch in front of an expensive coal fire in the best restaurant in London, reminding each other how great it had been to be 20 years old, lean and hungry, and still not deprived of the splendid illusions and ideals that time so quickly withers.

BOB HAD LONG since been put on notice by the doctors that his giblets couldn't endure the abuse he'd heaped on them for the span of time that bridged the gap between Carolina moonshine and 20-year-old Scotch. But Bob was no man for the milk-toast regimen; he ran at life full tilt, with merry scorn for the prudent ways of prudent men.

HE TOOK PRIDE in his craftsmanship. "This is a good 'un," he told me earlier that day, handing over the fat manuscript of his last book. "It tells an awful lot about women that women won't like." The book, "The Honey Badger," is scheduled for publication this fall, and I am looking forward to reading it.

BOB LOVED KIDS (he'd groan and curse to read those words) and it was an eternal sadness to him that he never had any of his own. Whenever I saw him, and it was rare enough these past few years, he'd question me in great detail about the age, size, ambition, and orneriness of my own.

Bob had his share of detractors in the trade; the newspaper types can be as bitchy as he-hairdressers. But, if he knew it, he ignored it with the same fine disdain that he had for the melancholy foreboding of the doctors. Most newspapermen talk about the great books they have stuck inside themselves, but Bob wrote his. He wrote a lot of words. Many of them were great, and all of them were professional.

NO ONE WHO really knew Bob will shed many tears for him. "He missed the worst trauma a man can experience," one old friend said the day we heard he was gone. "He never had to look in the mirror one bleak morning and say to himself, 'You old crock, you are 50 years old. You are an old man.' That was the smartest thing he ever did."

Billy Graham

Could it be, in the light of world trends, that Christianity is irrevelant? It seems that the future will be so different than the past, that the idealism of Christianity may not be practical. Could this be true? F. M.

Moral law will never change no matter how hard men may try to alter it. There is a law written in our hearts that will forever make us uneasy when we go against the laws of God.

Christianity irrevelant? The brave new world that men are building with its tremendous speeds and tensions will need the stabilizing power of Christ more than ever. The Bible says, "By him all things consist." It would not be amiss to say, "Without Him all things are inconsistent."

Professor Brightman once wrote of Jesus: "A Being, who 1900 years after His death, can cause a civilization to question its own foundations, is no mean carpenter." The Soviets today are disturbed by the renewal of interest in this carpenter of long ago. He will come again and again, and cause us, instinctively, to measure our lives by His life.

Man has not changed in his basic moral and spiritual needs — he needs Christ even more than the men of the first century!

Too Much Sun Can Be Bad For You

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it bad for me to stay out in the sun for about six hours a day throughout the summer to get a deep, dark tan? Also will a combination of iodine and baby oil hurt my skin if I use a lot of it?—M.C.

Certainly a fair amount of sunshine is good for us, but when the goal is to get as close as you can to the color of a seared, a withered leaf, it can coarsen your skin, or result, over a period of years, in a higher risk of skin cancer.

My advice is to settle for a moderate tan.

A little iodine in oil or cocoa butter will stain your skin brow and maybe give the impression that you have a tan sooner than you really have.

Too much iodine can, however, irritate sensitive skin. It won't prevent sunburn. The oil itself will filter out some of the ultraviolet "burning" rays, and most of the commercial suntan lotions also contain other materials which enhance the filtering value.

I prefer the commercial lotions because they are carefully blended, effective and convenient. I know, however, that a lot of people make something of a fetish of mixing their own. It's sort of a messy process, but if you want to do it, it's all right with me, provided you are careful not to include too much iodine.

* * *

Dear Dr. Molner: I am an 18-year-old boy. My problem is that hair will not grow on any part of my body except my head. I am in perfect health otherwise. Will you give me some advice?—"No Hair Sam."

This is a peculiar abnormality of hair growth but not by any means unknown. In fact, you are lucky to have hair on your scalp, because often in such cases there is none at all.

This can be due to an adrenal gland deficiency, and in some cases the use of ACTH and certain steroid hormones has helped. These are powerful medications and must be used under the direction of your doctor. He will have to decide whether such treatment is needed or likely to be of benefit, and he may advise against it. In that case, make the best of things; there is nothing you can buy for self-treatment.

* * *

Dear Dr. Molner: I know you don't have time to read letters, but I feel ungrateful not to let you know what relief I got from learning about diverticulosis in your booklet.

After X-rays, the doctor said I had diverticulosis. I saw blood after a bowel movement and was afraid of cancer. I had been constipated and took Epsom salts for nine nights. The doctor said that caused the blood. Thanks for your answers.—Mrs. D. D.

And thank you! But please don't think I "don't have time to read letters." I read thousands, and try to choose the ones that will answer questions that are bothering the most readers.

Obviously I can't answer them all individually, but I try to select a fair cross-section for use in the column.

* * *

Fat! My leaflet, "The Lost Secret of Reducing," tells how to get rid of it the easy way. For your copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

* * *

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Dr. Molner answers readers' questions in his column whenever possible.

Wins 'Dance'

NEW YORK (AP)—Some lively competition for Broadway production rights to "Sergeant Musgrave's Dance" has been won by Ivor David Balding.

The play, described as "an unhistoric parable" by its author, John Arden, was enthusiastically greeted during London run six years ago. For a time thereafter the Actors Studio held an option. When it lapsed, Balding hurried to England ahead of several other interested stagers and convinced Arden and his advisers that he was the man to handle New York production.

Balding is executive director of the Establishment Theater Company which owns the long-running Broadway hit, "The Knack."

How The Commies Use 'Coalition'

WASHINGTON—There is, as Dr. Gerhart Niemeyer has pointed out in a paper that deserves wide readership in the White House and State Department, nothing exceptionable in the formation of coalition governments among non-Conmmunists and Communists. It has happened so many times that we can predict with utter confidence what will take place if we should permit such coalitions to form in the Dominican Republic and/or Viet Nam.

SO WELL-KNOWN is the pattern that our policy makers could take Niemeyer's essay and write a preview of history simply by filling in the proper names. For the pattern is as follows:

1. It will be agreed that, after all, there is a common cause—"peace"—which is shared by Reds and local democrats alike. The common cause is the rationale for all such coalitions. Communists have become the hated outcasts in all free societies, and they have both political and psychological need for joining the company of respectable persons. They are not insincere in their desire to associate, but only insincere in pretending that they mean to keep the association. For as soon as they gain inside positions in a government, they commence to rend it.

2. THE NEXT STEP is to establish an agreement that there is something worthwhile about gathering dissidents under the same umbrella.

3. After that, there is an agreement between Reds and non-Reds on common "national goals." These are not difficult to find. Everybody is for the abolition of hunger and poverty, and everybody wants to see full employment and public tranquility. It is easy enough to reach an accord with these lofty generalities, and they exist among peoples of the Caribbean and Southeast Asia, just as they did in East Europe and China, where coalitions were the prelude to Communist take-over.

4. NEXT IS AN agreement on what Niemeyer calls "non-tolerance" toward certain political parties and individuals. Both Communists and Democrats will coincide in their dislike for Fascists and dictators.

5. Finally, there is the distribution of power among the coalition partners. Since the Communists run true to form, they will let the ceremonial positions—possibly the presidency itself — go to the non-Reds. But the Communists will try for the ministries of Interior (secret police), Justice (the courts of law), Industrial production (to control the workers) and Agriculture (to control the peasants.

IT IS IMPORTANT for the Communists to advance thus far by legitimate means.

Once clothed with legitimate power, they soon eliminate their non-Red partners and hold the fort. It would not be a bad idea for some of our policy makers to clip this outline and paste it on the wall. For it foretells with certainty the future in the Dominican Republic and Viet Nam once we decide to buy peace by accepting coalition with Communists.

New Slate Installed By Legal Secretaries

New officers were installed at the Friday evening meeting of the Howard County Legal Secretaries Association. The group met at the home of Miss Mary Madison, Kentwood Apartments.

The new slate of officers will be Miss Madison, president; Mrs. Bob Stewart, vice president; Miss Sue Faulkenberry, secretary; Mrs. Ray Null, treasurer; Miss Jean Fannin, historian; Mrs. Camille Patterson, parliamentarian and NALS representative.

Committee chairman were also appointed. They were Miss Maedell Castleman, publicity; and Mrs. Null, ways and means.

Two new members were welcomed into the club. They are Miss Castleman and Miss Dorothy Love.

It was also proposed and accepted that hereafter the club will meet on the second Friday of every month at the Community Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

'Slanguage' Of Oil Field Explained

The program topic for the Tuesday noon meeting of the Desk and Derrick Club was "Oil Field Slanguage." The members met at the Downtown Tea Room with Mrs. Adrian Randle presiding.

Mrs. S. Gorman presented the program. She clarified some of the codes and terms used for the different branches of the oil business. Mrs. Gorman prepared a cross-word puzzle of some of the slang words used.

Mrs. Bill Thompson was introduced as a guest, and Mrs. Joe Roberts won the attendance prize.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Randle, 1903 Mittle, Aug. 10.

D.M. Zants Honored At Wedding Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Mack Zant were honored at a reception following their wedding Saturday evening in the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ with Perry Cotham, minister, officiating. The bride is the former Miss Patricia Susan Manuel.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Manuel, 613 Colgate, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zant, 2407 Morrison.

The ceremony was performed at 8:30 p.m. before an altar centered with an arch of greenery.

Vocal selections were presented by a choir composed of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Conley, Mr. and Mrs. David Elrod, Miss Karen Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Stasey, Mrs. V. E. Sorrels and Stanley Peurifoy. Numbers heard were "Oh Promise Me" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a formal wedding dress of white satin and lace. The satin sheath was styled with a high jewel neckline, brief sleeves and pleated skirt, and was topped with a short lace jacket which closed with satin bows at the back. Her veil of illusion fell in tiers from a crown of seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet was formed of white orchids and carnations carried atop a white Bible.

ATTENDANTS

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Cheryl Bell who wore a pink lace skirt and overblouse and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

James Bowen was the best man, and ushers were Jackie Bowen and Warren Kelly. The bridegroom's sister, Sara Zant, served as flower girl wearing a full-skirted dress of pink sheer cotton with puffed sleeves. Candles were lighted by Jackie Bowen.

The reception, which followed the ceremony, was held in the educational building of the church. The newly-married pair were joined by the parents and maid of honor as they greeted guests. Mrs. Clarence Bell presided at the register. Guests attended from Big Spring, Odessa and Abilene.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a white eyelet cloth and centered with an arrangement of white Frenched chrysanthemums and pink carnations. The tiered wedding cake was accented with pink and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver and crystal appointments were used for serving by Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Dick Collier.

For a wedding trip to Midland, the bride chose a white linen sheath topped with a dress-length double-breasted coat of lace.

The bride attended Big Spring Senior High School where she was a member of the Thespians, Radio Club, Bible Club and Future Teachers Club. The bridegroom was graduated from Big Spring Senior High School and Howard County Junior College. He will be a junior at Texas Tech this fall.

The couple will make a temporary home in Big Spring.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zant were the host couple for a party following the Wednesday evening rehearsal. Approximately 25 guests gathered in their home where the couple presented gifts to their attendants.

Political Crises Effects Baptist Missionaries

How the political upheavals in West African countries relate to Baptist missionaries and their work were detailed at the First Baptist Church Tuesday morning.

The Woman's Missionary Union program was entitled "Harvest of Freedom in West Africa," and was directed by Mrs. F. C. Gambill and given by the Evening Circle. The countries under discussion were Nigeria, Ghana, Liberia and Togo, and the panel consisted of Mrs. Robert Bouldin, Mrs. J. C. Pickle and Mrs. Omer Williams.

Mrs. Ben F. Johnson opened the gathering with the call to prayer, and prayer was worded by Mrs. W. F. Taylor. Mrs. R. F. Polk, mission study chairman, suggested that each member read a mission book this summer.

Re-elected to the term beginning in October, were the present slate of officers. They are Mrs. Pickle, president; Mrs. Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Johnnie Winham, recording secretary; Mrs. Inez Lewis, assistant recording secretary; and Mrs. Fred Clark, corresponding secretary and treasurer. The new directors are Mrs. Polk, Young Woman's Association; Mrs. Carl McGlothlin, Girls' Auxiliary; and Mrs. Don Priddy, Sunbeans.

The Aug. 3 program will be given by the Ann Dwyer Circle.

Areas Lashed By Rainstorms

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms and rain pummeled scattered sections of the Midwest and Southeast early today and an unseasonal chill dipped into portions of the Northeast.

But there was only a little break in the crippling drouth that gripped portions of the Southwest, the Northeast and sections of the Far West.

Rain fell over wide sections of the Midwest, starting mostly late Tuesday night.

Among low eastern readings today was 38 degrees at Old Town, Maine.

TORNADOES, RAIN

Tornadoes and heavy rain, in some places accompanied by hail, struck portions of the nation's midsection Tuesday.

Wide sections of Minnesota reported up to one inch of rain, and in the Twin Cities more than 1½ inches fell Tuesday. At least two tornadoes dipped over Minnesota towns during the day.

In the Chicago area, more than two inches of rain fell over a wide section north and southwest of the city. Some utility lines were downed, causing power breaks from 30 minutes to two hours.

LEAVES DAMAGES

A tornado was sighted over Chicago's South Side in the early evening. A tornado did some property damage near Milledgeville, in Carroll County, in northwestern Illinois. Tornadic winds uprooted trees and downed utility lines at Crystal Lake, Ill., about 50 miles north of Chicago, where heavy tornado damage occurred in the spring.

A flash flood in Hays, Kan., forced several families from their homes. There was some light flooding also in west central and northeastern Kansas, and northwestern Missouri Tuesday night.

Winds of tornadic proportion raked sections of Oklahoma and at least two tornadoes were sighted Tuesday. There were some injuries and property damages. Winds hit 80 to 90 m.p.h. at Oklahoma City and Ponca City. Hail up to an inch in diameter fell during a half-hour storm that brought an inch of rain at Oklahoma City.

Forsan Man Found Shot In Bedroom

Death by gunshot wound, self inflicted, has been ruled in the case of Charley Roy Walraven, 44, oil field pumper of Forsan.

Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, held an inquest Tuesday night at the Walraven home in Forsan, where the shooting occurred.

Sheriff Aubrey Standard and Deputy Bill Whitton investigated the case.

Walraven, employed by the Standard Oil Co., shot himself in the right temple with a 16 gauge shotgun, officers said. The shooting occurred in a bedroom at his home. The sheriff's office was called at 7:55 p.m.

Deputy Whitton said that no one seems to have seen the actual shot fired. Mrs. Walraven had just left the bedroom. She heard the blast of the shotgun. She ran back into the room to find her husband sprawled against the bedroom wall.

Slaughter said there were no notes left by Walraven.

Mr. Walraven was born April 1, 1921 in San Angelo. He was employed as a water flood operator for the Standard Oil Co. and had worked for that organization 20 years.

He moved to Forsan from Big Lake in 1953. Prior to that time he had lived in Iraan.

He served in the Navy during World War II and was married to Miss Norma Lee Stover, Jan. 14, 1946 in San Angelo.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Forsan.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Rosewood Chapel with Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. The Rev. Thomas B. Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Garden City, will officiate. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Sherry and Kaye Ann, both of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Gid Ainsworth, Water Valley; Mrs. Reed Cobb and Mrs. Fred Wright, of San Angelo; one brother, James Walraven, Water Valley.

Pallbearers are to be D. E. Scudday, Woodrow Scudday, Forsan; Paul Reynolds, Big Spring; and M. L. Baker and L. W. Puckett, San Angelo.

Water Usage Hits Peak

Water consumption reached a summer's peak Tuesday for the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

The district produced 52,000,000 gallons of water to supply its customers.

Odessa hit its peak for the year in drawing 27,290,000 gallons, second only to the all-time peak of 27,590,000 gallons on July 24, 1963.

Big Spring had its heaviest day of the summer with 13,110,000 gallons. Snyder took slightly over four million.

The trend has been up sharply for the past 10 days, and there is no indication of immediate let-up, said O. H. Ivie, general manager.

No Jury Cases Ready

No jury cases were ready for trial in Howard County Court today.

Pleas of guilty, however, and a dismissal, plus a continuance, reduced the docket five cases.

Ester Ramirez pleaded guilty to a charge of DWI and drew a fine of $100 and 10 days in the county jail. J. P. McCormick pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault. He was fined $100 and costs.

Jesus Madrid Flores, charged with DWI, drew $100 fine, costs and three days in jail on a plea of guilty.

A case of non-support pending against Roy Payne was dismissed. Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, informed Judge Lee Porter that Payne is in a hospital in California in a critical condition from a gunshot wound in the stomach.

A DWI complaint against Reginal W. Hyer was continued on defense motion.

Thursday, the first of three cases against George T. Thomas, attorney, is slated for trial. He is facing charges of aggravated assault in two cases and a third charge of carrying an illegal weapon.

A jury panel has been reporting daily to the court since Tuesday morning. So far no jurors have been needed.

The jury panel will be back on Thursday morning.

Youth Says Wounded Sheriff Shot At Him

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A youth charged in the Sunday night wounding of Crosby County Sheriff Fletcher Stark claims he shot only after being fired upon, authorities said Tuesday.

Texas Ranger W. E. Renfrow and Asst. Dist. Atty. George Nelson said Juan Rodriguez told them he fired to keep the sheriff from taking a second shot at him. Rodriguez was quoted as saying he did not shoot to hit the peace officer.

Renfrow said the assault to murder charge against Rodriguez may be dropped. He reported the State Bureau of Vital Statistics placed the youth's age at 15, making him under age for adult charges.

Stark remained in grave condition at the Crosbyton hospital. He was shot in the chest Sunday night at Crosbyton when he sought to question a youth.

An uncle led officers to the hiding place in the Bar Wise community of Floyd County where the youth fled after the shooting. Rodriguez received a superficial scalp wound when Stark fired at him, officers said.

Laborers Strike On Building Jobs

DALLAS (AP)—There was no indication of any break today in a laborers strike which all but paralyzed major construction jobs in Dallas County.

Pickets were posted Tuesday by Local 859 of the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union at about 35 building sites. Leaders alleged the Dallas County Construction Employers Association had refused to bargain.

Spokesmen for the association said it held contracts with a number of unions and is negotiating with brick layers, carpenters, cement masons, operating engineers and millwrights.

In addition, the contractors questioned whether Local 859, which they called a Fort Worth unit, held authority to bargain for most Dallas laborers, who at one time were represented by Local 518.

"VOTED MERGER"

John Wallace, business agent for Local 859, in turn said members of Local 518 voted near the end of 1963 to merge with his group.

Elmer Davis of Fort Worth, regional director of the National Labor Relations Board, said he had told the contractors informally to bargain with Local 859 or a hearing would be called on union complaints.

"We are willing to start bargaining with Local 859 right now," said lawyer William Keller for the contractors. "Any agreement reached, however, would be subject to the union's proving that it does, in fact, represent these men."

$300 MILLION

It was estimated the strike had halted work on projects being built at a combined cost of up to $300 million.

About 2,000 laborers were idle, plus more than 5,000 members of craft unions who honored the picket lines. The laborers had been working under a contract which expired July 1.

Wallace said in event of negotiations "we probably will ask for a 60-cent hourly increase over the next two years, plus medical insurance." Current laborers' pay is $2.10 per hour.

City Car In Traffic Crash

Four accidents, one involving a city vehicle, were investigated by Big Spring police in the past 24 hours.

Minor damage was done to a city car, driven by Johnnie Johansen, Parks superintendent, at Fourth and Scurry about 1 p.m. Friday when it collided with a car driven by Lonnie B. Childs, Morton.

Locations of other accidents, and drivers of vehicles involved, were: FM 700 and Birdwell Lane, Lillian B. Davidson, 220 NE 11th, and Henry Leroy White, 1609 E. 5th; Northwest Third and Gregg, Antonio O. Chaves, 410 NW 9th, and Stanley Edwin Haney, 1103 Mulberry; 2205 Main, properly parked car owned by Herbert C. Reynolds, 2205 Main, and driver of vehicle who left the scene.

Mrs. King Dies Tuesday

PLAINVIEW — Mrs. Bessie E. King, 75, who lived in Big Spring at 304 Johnson many years before moving here in December, 1964, died at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday. She had been seriously ill about a month.

She was born in Mansfield July 13, 1889, and was a member of Temple Baptist Church, Big Spring.

Funeral is scheduled at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Wood-Dunning Colonial Chapel here, with Rev. Billy Rudd, East Fourth Baptist Church in Big Spring, and Rev. Herbert Rowe, Edmondson Baptist Church, officiating. The remains will be taken to Big Spring for 4 p.m. graveside rites.

Survivors include three sons, Willis J. King, Carswell, Mich., Floyd H. King, Long Beach, Calif., J. B. King, Dallas; three daughters, Mrs. E. T. White, Big Spring, Mrs. J. S. Mitchell, Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. J. R. Duvall, Edmondson; 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Carnival Man Injured In Fall

George A. Osborne, operator of one of the rides at the carnival at College Park Shopping Center, was injured in a fall about 9 p.m. Tuesday and taken to Howard County Hospital Foundation.

His physician said he suffered fractures of both wrists and some bruises in the fall, but that he was doing satisfactorily this morning.

Osborne reportedly fell about 12 feet while working on one of the machines at the carnival. A Nalley-Pickle ambulance carried the man to the hospital.

Melon Load Dumped On Golf Course

Lovers of the hearts of cool watermelons, passing over the bridge across the draw on US 87 running through the municipal golf course, got their fills this morning shortly after 6 o'clock. A truck loaded with melons lost its right wheels—and the load—on the bridge.

Gill Luebano Romo, 19, of Charlotte, Texas, driver of one of the two trucks loaded with watermelons, escaped injury when his truck lost both right rear wheels.

Highway Patrolman Jimmy Parks, who investigated the accident, said Romo's load shifted when the wheels came off, and that the side was broken out of the truck. Melons spilled over the bridge guard rail and down onto the golf course.

"It was a juicy mess," he said, "but the truck did not turn over. There were plenty of melons down on the golf course, but all of them were ruined."

AF Identifies Slain Sergeant

AMARILLO (AP)—The body of an airman found stuffed in a wall locker at Amarillo Air Force Base was identified today as that of Staff Sgt. Robert J. Roeske, 38, of Iowa Falls, Iowa.

Amarillo authorities ruled that an autopsy showed strangulation was the cause of death.

The probe into Roeske's death is being handled by the Air Force's Office of Special Investigation.

Kiwanis Elect New President

NEW YORK (AP)—An Oklahoma educator was elected president of Kiwanis International's 270,000 members today at the 50th anniversary convention of the organization.

Edward C. Keefe, 55, executive vice president of the Oklahoma Independent College Foundation, Oklahoma City, was unopposed on the ballot and won by acclamation.

Bomb Missile Sites In Viet, Solon Urges

WASHINGTON (AP)— House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said today the United States should bomb Russian-built missile sites in North Viet Nam.

The bases, Ford said in an interview with Mutual Broadcasting System, are a threat to the security of American forces in Viet Nam.

VITAL TARGETS

"There are, therefore, significant military targets which should be bombed by our U. S. forces that are in Viet Nam," he said.

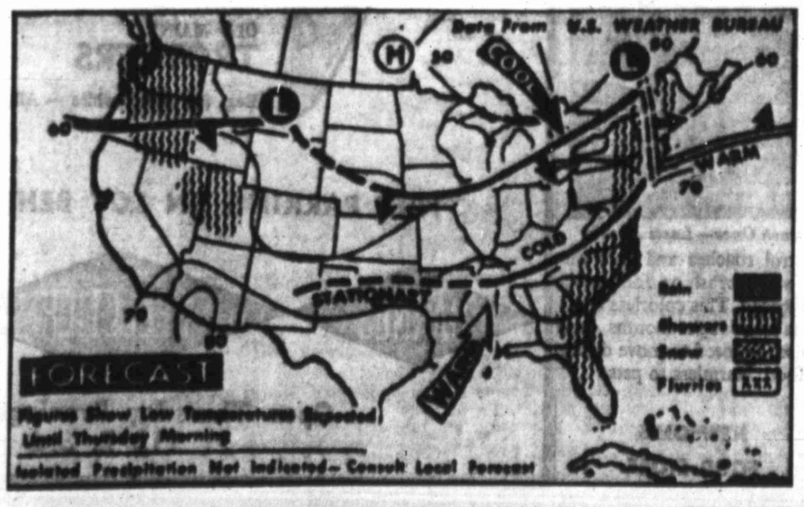

"This can be done and should be done at the present time.

"And it is possible to do it without bombing or destroying nonmilitary targets."

NEAR CAPITAL

The antiaircraft missile sites are being prepared near North Viet Nam's capital and its chief port.

Any decision on whether the United States should try to knock them out would be up to President Johnson, sources said today.

Weather Forecast

Showers and thundershowers are forecast for Wednesday night along the Atlantic Coast, parts of Pacific northwest, and Great Basin. Cooler weather is likely in upper and mid-Mississippi Valley and milder weather expected in New England. Little temperature change is expected elsewhere. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Recommendation Pending On Eubank's Extradition

Crawford Martin, secretary of state, will make his recommendation on the Jack Eubank case to Gov. Connally either Thursday or Friday.

Lanny Hamby, attorney for the New Mexico fugitive lifer who is opposing efforts to take him back to a New Mexico prison, said that he felt "encouraged" by the attitude shown at the hearing Tuesday before Martin in Austin.

"He told us he would let us know as soon as he made his recommendation to the governor," said Hamby. "He also said we would have a 48-hour advance notice before the new warrant for Jack is issued — if the warrant should be authorized.

"This will give us time to file a new petition for a writ of habeas corpus, if we elect to do so. We will wait to see what he recommends to the governor, naturally, before we plan our next step."

Hamby said he had half a dozen witnesses on hand who had made the trip to Austin to voluntarily speak up for Eubank and advise the secretary of state that the man has led a peaceful, lawabiding life in the seven years he has been in Big Spring. During that time, Eubank was a fugitive from the New Mexico penitentiary where he is under sentence for murder.

"When these people had been heard," said Hamby," "We (Hamby and Roger Brown, his law partner) began our attack on the validity of the New Mexico extradition request."

Wayne Burns, district attorney, appeared for the state and insisted that, in his opinion, the documents sent by New Mexico were valid and adequate to justify Texas honoring the extradition request.

Hamby said there were no representatives of attorney general's office on hand to speak for the state. New Mexico had been expected to send an attorney to the hearing. None appeared.

British Drop Top Role In Peace Effort

LONDON (AP) — The British government announced today it has dropped, for the time being, its efforts to lead a Commonwealth mission in search of a Viet Nam peace settlement, because of Communist opposition.

Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley told the House of Commons in answer to a question: "Her Majesty's government does not intend at the moment to take any further initiative with our Commonwealth partners on Viet Nam."

At the same time Prime Minister Harold Wilson announced that he had invited U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to stop for talks in London on his way back to New York from Geneva.

A spokesman at No. 10 Downing St., said the Viet Nam question was one of the main subjects Wilson wanted to discuss with Thant.

The Commonwealth peace mission was proposed by Wilson at the June 17 opening of the 21-nation Commonwealth prime ministers conference.

House Mover's Truck Burns

LAMESA (SC) — A truck, owned by R. O. Baker, a house-mover from Seminole, burned on the road 12 miles southwest of Lamesa about 5 p.m. Tuesday. Baker was moving a house to Seagraves.

The butane tank on the truck reportedly "popped off" when pressure built up, and the escaping gas caught fire. The truck, valued at $2,500, was listed as a total loss, and about $100 damage was done to the house. The Lamesa fire department was called to the scene to extinguish the fire, and saved the house.

Third Daughter For Bustamentes

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bustamente have announced the arrival of a third daughter, yet unnamed, born at 2:25 a.m. today in the Howard County Hospital Foundation. The baby weighed in at seven pounds, 12 ounces.

Both mother and daughter are doing well. The Bustamentes' other daughters are Paula Lisa, age 6; and Danna Jo, 3. Bustamente is a teacher-coach at Runnels Junior High.

OIL REPORT

Sterling Gets Queen Strike

A discovery completion was field for Sterling County when HMH Operators of Midland, listed the potential for its No. 3 Ross Foster at 18 barrels of 30 gravity oil, with 50 per cent water.

The Seven - Rivers (Queen) producer is on the west side of the Parochial Bade, East (Glorieta) field and about eight miles southwest of Sterling City.

The operator drilled to 2,217 feet in the Clear Fork which yielded some small quantities of oil and some water. He plugged back to 1,030 feet to complete in the Queen. He perforated from 978 to 985 feet and fractured the formation with 3,000 gallons of acid.

Location of the producer is 1,787 feet from the south and west lines of section 24-22, H&TC survey.

Troop Pullout Plea Canceled

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Director James Farmer has talked the Congress of Racial Equality into killing a resolution calling for U.S. withdrawal of its troops in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, headed by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. approved such a resolution last week.

The CORE delegates passed the resolution in Farmer's absence at the closing session of their annual convention in Durham. Farmer then appeared and urged the delegates to withdraw the resolution. The delegates obliged.

All discussion on the resolution took place during a closed session.

New Club Plans Talked

Plans for organizing a new Optimist Club were discussed at a meeting of the Optimists at Coker's Wednesday morning. It was the first meeting for Van Terry as president.

Sydney Clark was named chairman of the committee to consider the possibilities of a new club.

George O'Brien was the guest speaker and explained the work of Gideon's International. Since 74 per cent of American youths do not attend church, the distribution of Bibles and New Testaments helps fill this religious void, he said. Gideon's have distributed over 17,000,000 Bibles or Testaments to young people, servicemen, or placed them aboard ships, in motels, hotels, etc.

Truett Newell discussed plans for a family night picnic set tentatively for Aug. 7. At the Wednesday meeting were two guests, Bill Cadzou and Gordon Myrick.

Injured Youth Reported Better

Robert Abbott, 7-year-old boy who was injured Monday when a tire blew out, received a broken bone in the lower part of his back, according to his mother, Mrs. P. W. Abbott. She said the boy was doing some better at Webb Air Force Base Hospital, but that his left leg is partially paralyzed.

Robert had accompanied his brother, Timothy, 17, to the service station at 1111 W. 4th where tires were being changed on a pickup. Robert was sitting on a tire while the station manager was putting air in it. The tire blew out, throwing Robert in the air. He landed on his back on the concrete, and was taken to the base hospital.

Dodge Ancestor On Honeymoon

SARATOGA, Calif. (AP) — Delphine (Dede) Ione Dodge, great-granddaughter of the founder of the Dodge Motor Car Co., was married this week in Saratoga, Calif.

She and the groom, Charles Boyer Richards Cornelius of Providence, R.I., left after a champagne reception for a Hawaian islands honeymoon.

Tony Lema Stores Driver, Sees Win

SOUTHPORT, England (AP) — Tony Lema said today he's put his driver away and so he sees no reason why he shouldn't retain the British Open Golf Championship.

The San Leandro, Calif., professional discovered in 24 hours that the 7,037-yard par 73 Royal Birkdale course requires straight and sometimes short tee shots.

As the field of 130 teed off in the 72-hole medal play today, Lema said he was leaning on brassies and spoons and irons off some of the tees.

He had something on his side. Last year he came to St. Andrews and with only nine holes of practice captured the crown.

"I learned the run-up shot there," he said. "And so my wedge which was my darling, had to go back into the bag."

Now he contends, his driver has to disappear from time to time.

In the winds that sweep off the Irish Sea onto the Birkdale course, Lema said he has found that tee shots must be "absolutely straight, placed just so."

Jack Nicklaus shot a practice round of 65 Tuesday but admitted he was not satisfied because he got away with a little luck off the tees.

Arnold Palmer went around in about even par, but he, too, was experimenting with tee shots.

Lema began defense of his title as only a 7-1 shot. Nicklaus was quoted at 3-1, Palmer and U.S. Open champion Gary Player 5-1.

Other American professionals entered were Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif.; Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif.; newcomer Terry Dill, 26, of Mule Shoe, Tex. and the hardy perennial, 53-year-old Samuel Jackson Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va.

Drillers Surge To Edge Tribe

Duncan's Drillers rallied for two runs in the fifth to edge McMahon's Indians, 7-6, in a Hi-Junior League game nere Tuesday evening.

Paul Biffle and Mike Gartman crossed the plate for the Drillers in the fifth. Biffle had reached base on a bobble while Gartman had walked.

The Indians concentrated most of their fire power in the fourth, at which time they scored all their runs.

Each team collected seven safeties. Sammy Mims got credit for the mound win while Ronnie Wrightsil was charged with the loss.

Wrightsil and Archie Wyant each smashed two blows for the Indians while Jerry Ryan was the only Driller to connect safely twice.

One of Ryan's blows was a solo round tripper in the fourth inning. Ryan and Lonnie Clanton also saw mound action for the winners while Wrightsil lasted the distance for the Tribe.

Webb's Team Stays Busy

Winner in three of four starts last weekend, the Webb AFB softball team faces another busy two days starting Saturday.

The local contingent goes first to Laredo for two games with Laughlin AFB Saturday night, then moved over to San Antonio Sunday for two engagements Lackland Field.

Webb defeated Laughlin, 10-7 and 3-2, then turned around the split with Sweetwater's AF detachment, coming back to win the afterpiece, 10-7, after losing the opener 7-4.

Pinch hitter Vick Figalan hit a seventh inning pinch hit home run with two on to win the opener for Webb against Laughlin. Jim Distasio got credit for the mound win. John Terry smacked a bases-loaded home run for Webb in the second inning of the opener.

Figalan also clubbed a round tripper with none on in the third inning of the second game. He was also the winning hurler.

Against Sweetwater, Webb outhit the victors in the opener, 5-3, yet lost. Sweetwater turned around and outhit the locals in the second go, 8-6, but Webb won that one.

The Webb team goes to Sweetwater for two games July 14. The local team has a 4-4 record for the season.

Brock Swift, Giants Find To Sorrow

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Brock may be only the No. 2 thief in the National League but he tops San Francisco's most wanted list today.

Brock, who has been chasing Maury Wills' shadow in the stolen base derby, ran the Giants to the ground Tuesday night in a 3-2 St. Louis victory that stretched the Cardinals' winning streak to seven.

The St. Louis swifty collected three hits, drove in the first run and scored the last two — after setting them up with his base-running larceny.

But, despite his 35th stolen base, Brock lost ground to Los Angeles' Wills, who swiped two — for a total of 51 — as the Dodgers outlasted Cincinnati 11-7 and regained the league lead from the Reds. The Cardinals, meanwhile, stayed in seventh place, one game under the .500 mark and seven games off the pace.

Pittsburgh whipped Philadelphia 8-4, Don Cardwell pitching a six-hitter for his seventh straight victory, in the only other NL game. The New York Mets and Chicago Cubs had the day off and the Houston-Milwaukee game was rained out.

STRING SNAPPED

Brock snapped Giants ace Juan Marichal's string of scoreless innings at 20 with an RBI single in the first. Lou stretched a fourth-inning hit into a double and scored the tying run on Ken Boyer's single, then beat out a bunt in the sixth, stole second and broke the 2-2 deadlock on a single by Curt Flood.

The Dodgers, although outhit 14-13 by Cincinnati, dropped the Reds back into second place, one game out, Lou Johnson leading the way with three hits. Johnson, Dick Tracewski and John Roseboro each knocked in two runs.

Don Drysdale ended a five-game losing streak and belted his fourth home run but was knocked out in the seventh, when Frank Robinson and Gordy Coleman hit successive homers.

Skateland Is Upset, 9-5

The 3560th Squadron team shocked Skateland with a 7-2 victory and Pepsi-Cola outlasted Seaboard Finance, 9-5, in American Softball League games unreeled here Monday night.

Vic Figalan hurled the win for the Webb team, setting the Skateland bunch down with four hits. Two of those were by Farris.

The Webb club could collect only five hits off Jerry Don Paige, the Skateland hurler, but one of those was a third inning solo home run by Shane that put the 3560th ahead to stay. Shane also had a single.

Figalan helped his own cause by driving out a triple and a single. His triple occurred in the sixth inning and accounted for two runs.

T. Henry smashed four hits in Pepsi's victory over Seaboard. A four-run fifth inning stashed away the decision for Pepsi.

Joe Blasingame, on the mound for Pepsi, throttled the Seaboard team with five hits. Two of those were authored by Tito Arencibia, both doubles.

Clarke Avenges Track Defeat

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Australia's Ron Clarke, beaten by Kenyon flash Kipchonge Keino in his 5,000-meter specialty last week, avenged the loss Tuesday by defeating the African policeman in an international track meet here.

Clarke was timed in 13:26.4, best ever for the 5,000 in the Olympic Stadium. Keino, who clocked 13:26.2, second fastest 5,000 ever in beating Clarke last Friday, did 13:30.4. Belgium's Gaston Roelants, world record holder in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, was third in 13:34.8.

Talons Slam Tribe, 9-3

The International league's Talons, who wound up second in their own circuit, defeated the Texas league's third place Indians, 9-3, in the first round of the Little League's City playoffs in the International park Tuesday evening.

Frankie Peralta hurled one hit ball for the Talons. That was a single by O. Martinez in the sixth inning. Peralta fanned 13 in his six-inning stint.

Peralta boosted his own chances with a double and a single. He also scored twice.

The Talons collected six blows off R. Morales, the losing flinger.

Ogletree Named Sul Ross Coach

ALPINE—Al Ogletree, baseball coach at the University of Dallas, has been named to a similar position at Sul Ross College here.

He succeeds Ray Van Cleef, who will be retained by the college as dean of men. Ogletree has coached at the University of Dallas for the past nine seasons. He is a graduate of Texas A&M.

D'Amato Will Go On Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a flashback to the rosy-hued days when Jack Dempsey and Rocky Marciano were heavyweight champions, a House committee looks today at the way things are now in the boxing age of Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston.

"You're going to hear a different story," fight manager Cus D'Amato told newsmen after listening to Dempsey and Marciano tell how things were and how they should be now.

D'Amato, who was in Floyd Patterson's corner when he won the heavyweight championship, didn't explain what he would tell the House Interstate Commerce Committee which is considering a bill to establish a federal boxing commission.

Also scheduled to testify were Nat Fleischer, editor of Ring magazine who was at ringside for the Clay-Liston bout in Lewiston, Maine; Fred Brooks of Sportsvision, the firm that handled the theater TV showing of the bout, and Melvin L. Krulewitch, chairman of the New York Athletic Commission which barred Liston from fighting there.

Although the names of Clay and Liston keep bobbing up in the inquiry they are not yet scheduled to make a personal appearance.

A bill introduced by Committee Chairman Oren Harris, D-Ark., would set up a boxing commission. It would give the commission authority to prohibit a wire service, radio or television from carrying an account of a professional bout in interstate commerce whenever it determines that the bout "will be in any way affected by bribery, collusion to effect the result, intentional losing, racketeering, including terrorism, extortion, organized use of threats, coercion; intimidation, or use of violence."

Both Dempsey and Marciano urged that the commission be given authority to license boxers, promoters, managers and even seconds. Both said that a bout should not be allowed on television without approval of the proposed commission.

Dempsey and Marciano argued that boxing was in such sorry shape that it needed drastic help.

Recalled

Dennis Musgraves, 21-year old righthander, has been recalled by the New York Mets from their Buffalo farm club, it was announced in New York. Musgraves, who received a reported $100,000 bonus when he signed with the Mets, has a 2-5 record with Buffalo but his manager, Sheriff Robinson, considered him his best pitcher. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Hall Repaying Boss With Heroic Deeds

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Like the hero of the old weekly movie serials, Minnesota's Jimmie Hall was snatched from the edge of the cliff just before plummeting into the icy gorge below.

His rescuer was Twins' President Calvin Griffith, who, incidentally, put him in the precarious position in the first place. But Griffith plucked him off at the last moment and now sits back and watches as Hall leads the Twins' assault on the rest of the American League.

The slugging center fielder drove in four runs with two homers and added a single in three times at bat Tuesday night, sparking Minnesota to a 9-0 victory over Boston.

The Twins' sixth consecutive triumph gave them a two-game lead in the American League, the biggest bulge they've had since June 9.

It was about six weeks ago that Griffith maneuvered Hall to the brink. At that time, he seriously offered the 27-year-old lefty in a trade to Charles Finley and the last-place Kansas City Athletics.

"IT WOULD HURT"

But Hall clung to the edge by one finger, the deal fell through and about two weeks afterward Griffith conceded:

"I can't trade Hall now. We might get something to help us, but it would sure hurt us to give him up."

In other AL games Tuesday night, Detroit whipped New York 8-0, Baltimore defeated Kansas City 4-1 and Los Angeles downed Washington 6-2. Rain washed out Cleveland and Chicago.

Detroit's Denny McLain won his sixth straight contest by stopping the Yankees on seven hits. Bill Freehan and Norm Cash, both hitting near .200 each hit two-run homers and drove in three runs. McLain, now 7-3, didn't allow a Yankee past second base until the ninth inning.

Steve Barber drove in two Baltimore runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly and stopped Kansas City on three hits before Dick Hall relieved him in the ninth and ended a threat. One of the hits off Barber, now 7-6, was Rene Lachemann's third-inning home run.

Dean Chance gave up eight hits in five innings but still picked up his first victory for Los Angeles in five weeks. Chance, now 5-4, left for a pinch hitter in the fifth, and Marcelino Lopez finished up.

Devils Outlast Hawks, 23-19

The National Little League Devils pushed 12 runs across the plate in the fourth inning and hung on to defeat the American Little League Hawks, 23-19, in a City playoff game here Tuesday night.

Buddy Merrick slammed a bases-loaded home run for the winners in the second while George Anderson drove one out with a mate aboard for the Devils in the fourth.

Rickey Aslin smashed a round - tripper for the Hawks, the blow coming with two aboard in the third.

Zane Anderson, Alan Hill and Gregg Phillips divided time on the mound for the losers while Mark Powell, Buddy Merrick and Aubrey Huff toiled for the Devils. Powell got credit for the win.

David Hanson drove out five hits in six attempts for the winners. Zane Anderson, Aslin, David Anderson and Randy Grimes each accounted for two of the losers' hits.

The Devils thus qualified to meet the National League champions, the Braves, at 7:30 o'clock Thursday in the National League Park.

Defending City champions are the VFW Angels of the National Little League.

Sisler Eyes Lead Spot

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's stay in first place in the National League was short-lived. It lasted just 24 hours.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, who gave up the league lead to the Reds Monday night, grabbed it back Tuesday night with an 11-7 victory over Cincinnati. The Dodgers are now in front by one game.

Cincinnati Manager Dick Sisler said, "It felt good while it lasted. I think we will be back up there. It's a question of pitching."

Sisler's big question mark is southpaw Jim O'Toole, who failed to survive the second inning in going down to his eighth defeat. Sisler announced after the game O'Toole is being sent back to the bullpen.

Anthony Signed

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns said today that Mel Anthony, fullback for the University of Michigan Big Ten champions, has signed a contract for the coming season.

Venturi Played With One Hand

ST. LOUIS (AP)—When Ken Venturi stroked a 40-foot birdie putt into the cup on the 18th green at Bellerive he knew it might be the last golf shot he would hit for some time.

It was only the midway point in the 65th U. S. Open championship won by South African Gary Player after a playoff with Australian Kel Nagle. But for the game 33-year-old Venturi it was his swan song. He had missed the 150 cutoff point with 81-79 by 10 strokes.

"That's a gosh awful score," he told his beautiful wife Conni.

She offered wifely sympathy for she had known moments like these for more than six months because the man who had thrilled the sports world one year ago with his brilliant comeback in taking the Open with 278 at Washington hadn't been able to place together four good rounds of golf, much less two.

Actually, Venturi defended his Open title playing from memory. He played with one hand. He had Renaud's Phenomenon, a strange malady which cuts off circulation. Venturi had this in the fingers of his right hand, and earlier on this final day for him he had heard something pop in his right wrist.

"I'll go to Mayo Clinic and put myself in their hands," Venturi told friends in the clubhouse. "I've got to get this licked. I can't go on like this.

"I'll rest and when I come back it will be when I really can play well. I couldn't even hand the clubs to my caddy (Charles Hobbs, 17) with my right hand. I couldn't even take the glove off my (left) hand.

"What bugs me is that I have no loss of strength in my arms and legs."

But half the shots Ken Venturi took he hit with one hand because whenever he completed his backswing with the driver and long and medium irons the right hand would drop off the club's grip.

"I just couldn't hold on," Venturi said apologetically.

"When I came to the last hole all I wanted to do was just finish. But then I said to myself, 'this is one hole I know I can birdie.'"

And he birdied it the hard way. He hit a long tee shot but it hooked and rolled into the rough under a television truck. He had out-driven Gene Littler and was even with Billy Campbell, who were in this threesome.

Littler, for his second shot, used a 4 wood but was short of the green. Venturi took a free lift, to which he was entitled, and hit a 5 iron shot to the front of the green. When it came his turn he putted boldly, the ball dropped into the hole and hundreds lining the green applauded.

Yankees Win By 2-0 Tab

Ford Farris and David Hilario crossed the plate with the runs in the fourth inning that enabled the Yankees to subdue the Red Sox, 2-0, in a Sophomore league game here Tuesday night.

Farris fashioned the mound victory, doling out three hits to the losers. He fanned 15 while walking four.

Farris was also a threat at bat for the winner, driving out a single and a two-baser. Charley Rodriquez also had two of the winners' eight hits.

Walt Hagen Will Undergo Tests

DETROIT (AP) — Walter Hagen, 72, one of the grand old men of golf, was scheduled to check into Henry Ford Hospital today for a throat examination.

Hagen won the British Open title four times and the U.S. Open twice.

Hagen's son, Walter Hagen Jr., representative here of a sports magazine, said his father had been undergoing cobalt treatment at his home in Traverse City Mich., for the past year.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

That new Continental Football league, which has lofty ambitions although it has yet to line up a television contract, will be a circuit that (1) won't put a premium on booming kickoffs and (2) may make baseball look like a piker with its marathon contests.

The league rules makers actually are going to penalize the kickers who propel the ball beyond the end zone. You kick it out of play and the ball is brought back and you're assessed a five-yard penalty. You do the same thing again and you're assessed five more yards.

The receiving team must handle the ball, even if it is in the end zone. If it is run out and the ball carrier doesn't reach his 20-yard line, it will be put in play on the 20. If the receiver decides to down it down in the end zone—say on a badly bouncing ball—it goes to the 20.

No fair catches will be allowed in the circuit, the officials have decided.

If a game ends in a tie, a sudden-death "fifth quarter" must be played. In other words, the opposing teams will play until some one scores.

The rules in all four professional leagues (including the Canadian circuit) differ quite a bit from each other. That's one reason the game officials working for one circuit are never hired by other leagues.

The Continential league has big ambitions and has in Happy Chandler a commissioner who talks a good game. Whether it can get off the ground is something else again, however.

* * * *

Jodie Beeler, who played for Lamesa in the old WT-NM baseball league years ago and emerged as one of the circuit's top hitters, has a son named Mike who was a catcher for Dallas Samuell High the past season. Mike weighs in at 235.

Some observers reason Mike can accomplish something his father was never able to do, go all the way to the big leagues. Jodie was active immediately prior to and after World War II.

* * * *

Donnie Anderson, the Texas Tech football phenom who spent last summer working for the Reed Roller Bit people here, passed up the opportunity at the same job in order to remain in summer school at Lubbock.

He is taking a couple of subjects in order to graduate with his class next spring.

I see by the papers that three persons, including a 20-year-old woman, were arrested in Flagstaff, Arizona, not long ago for attacking and beating a Little League umpire.

The arbiter, a volunteer worker, had two teeth knocked out and suffered facial cuts. The seven-team circuit suspended operations for the summer after the incident. The umpire had worked the bases and was jumped as he left the park.

Charley Goldman, the veteran fight trainer, says the next heavyweight boxing champion will be Ernie Terrell.

"He has the style to beat Cassius Clay," Goldman explains.

Charley is the fellow who in 1948 foresaw the fact that a short, squatty novice heavyweight named Rocky Marciano would someday be the ruler of the heavyweight division.

Wininger Team Odessa Winner

ODESSA—Bo Wininger, Bobby French, Millard Jones and Johnny Fields combined to shoot a 56 Tuesday to capture the special pro-am tournament at the Odessa Country Club.

The foursome came in 16-under par to pick up the win. Two club members were eligible to team with a pro-am squad in this special tourney.

Bill Lively, Ray Flippen, Jack Elliott, and Jack Freeman tied with Charles Luke, David Miesmer, Ernie Schuer and Roy Rash at 57 for runner-up honors.

The pro - am contestants stage practice rounds today over the par-72 course before starting regular play in the $20,000 Odessa Pro-am Thursday.

It's No Joke To Ump

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Luke Appling, Kansas City A's coach, scratched his head and said, "This is the first time I ever got throw'd out in the runway to the dugout before I ever got on the field — and I was only joshing."

APPLING

The Hall of Fame shortstop said he was sitting on a bench in the runway and joshing with Cal Hubbard, supervisor of American League umpires, as Hubbard and the game umpiring crew walked down the runway.

Appling said Hubbard, here on a routine tour of the league, "was kidding me back." A moment later, Appling said, Al Salerno took his words seriously, Appling called Salerno a "swell head" and the ejection followed.

"Old Aches and Pains," as Appling was known in his playing days, told his story calmly, puffing on a cigar in the stands as he watched Baltimore beat the A's 4-1 Tuesday night.

"I was talking only to Hubbard and we were laughing and joshing," he said. 'It had nothin' to do with nothin' and neither of us was serious.

"The last thing I said was, 'this is the only umpire you got,' and I patted Nestor (Chylak) on the fanny — he was the last one in the line.

"A little later Salerno — he was already up the dugout steps — comes all the way back and tells me I can't talk that way.

"I said, "are you serious?," and he said yes, he was serious. I told him I hadn't said one word to him, I wasn't even addressing him and I was only joshing with Hubbard.

"Well, one thing led to another, and I wound up telling him, 'you can't take joshing and you're just a swell head.'

Church Remains Shut After Priest Eviction

ISLETA, N.M. (AP) — The 350-year-old St. Augustine church remained closed today after a confrontation between the archbishop of Santa Fe and a pueblo governor about the eviction of a priest.

Archbishop James Peter Davis told worshipers Sunday that the church would remain closed until the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fred Stadmueller, whom Pueblo Gov. Andy Abeita handcuffed and evicted last Sunday, is allowed to return. The archbishop also demanded an apology.

Abeita, the pueblo's highest elected official, replied that Msgr. Stadtmueller would not be allowed to return as long as Abeita is governor.

"The people don't want him," he said, "and that's the way its going to be."

Abeita charged that Msgr. Stadtmueller had ridiculed Indian traditions, interfered with pueblo politics, and caused conflict between Roman Catholics and nonpracticing Catholics. The monsignor had been at the pueblo, a tiny reservation about 20 miles south of Albuquerque, for nine years.

Archbishop Davis celebrated three Masses at the church Sunday, the last of which was attended by Abeita. Then the two men met outside.

"I'd like to talk to you now," Abeita told the archbishop.

Archbishop Davis replied that he didn't have time because he had an appointment.

Abeita then asked for the key to the rectory, which he said was pueblo property.

"I wouldn't do that. The priest's property is in there," said the archbishop, pointing a finger at the governor.

The governor said later, "I'm not about to go running after him (the archbishop) again. He'll have to come down here, I assume."

Archbishop Davis said during his sermon that Msgr. Stadmueller "is still your pastor."

"You are welcome in any Catholic church," he said, adding that Msgr. Stadtmueller now is living near an Albuquerque church and will perform priestly services for his Isleta parishoners there.

"When I leave today, I will not be back until this matter is settled," the archbishop said.

He told the Indians they were not being punished and warned against the taking of revenge, as "two wrongs do not make a right."

Missionary To Speak Tonight

Robert Vance, missionary from Kaiserslautern, Germany, will speak tonight and show colored pictures of his work to the members of the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ, one of the churches supporting his work. Mr. and Mrs. Vance and their three daughters arrived in Big Spring Friday evening. He spoke at the morning and evening services of the church Sunday.

Mrs. Vance is the former Doris Jean Clay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clay.

A native of Portland, Ore., Vance has spent three years in Germany and is now visiting relatives and friends. He will return for another period of work with the churches of Christ in Kaiserslautern and Pirmasens the last of August. He serves as minister for both the German and English speaking churches, and assists in training native young men for the ministry.

Accountants, Bankers To Meet

Permian Basin bankers and certified public accountants will have a point program and dinner July 16, at the Sands Motor Hotel in Midland.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. and is sponsored by the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the West Texas Area of the Texas Chapter of Robert Morris Associates, the national association of bank loan officers and credit men.

Jack Orr, First National Bank of Big Spring, is area chairman.

Police Check Two Thefts

A camera, an ice cream cabinet, and a money box from a coke machine, were listed for investigation on the Big Spring police activity report for Friday and Saturday morning.

George T. Thomas told police that a 35-millimeter camera with a 100-millimeter lens was taken from his car while it was parked in front of the Spanish Inn, shortly before noon Friday. He said the camera was in the bottom half of a black leather case.

Mrs. George Hanks, 507 NW 11th Street, reported the theft of an ice cream cabinet, with compressor, from 606 NW 7th some time in the past week. She said she left the cabinet and compressor at this address, and that they were taken while the occupants of the house were out of town.

Someone apparently was frightened away from a cold drink machine about 2 a.m. today at the Reed Service Station on Wasson Road. Patrolman Pete Stone, who checked the station while on patrol, noticed that someone had tampered with the box. He tried the door and it came open. The money box spilled all the change on the ramp. He took the box and money to the police station until the owner was contacted this morning.

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two (42) days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 2nd day of August, 1965, at or before 10:00 o'clock A.M. before the Honorable District Court of Howard County, Texas, at the Courthouse of said County in Big Spring, Texas.

Said Plaintiff's petition was filed in said Court on the 14th day of June, 1965, in this Cause No. 15707 in the docket of said Court and styled MARSHALL CATES vs. J. A. COSTLOW et al, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, tawit:

Plaintiff is suing in Trespass to Try Title for the title and possession of the following described tract of land: Lot No. Ten (10), in Block No. Seven (7), JONES VALLEY ADDITION, to the City of Big Spring, in Howard County, Texas, according to proper map or plat thereof of record in Howard County, Texas.

Plaintiff is further alleging that he holds the title and possession of the above described land and premises under and by virtue of the five (5) year statute of limitations of the State of Texas, which he is affirmatively pleading and seeking to recover said land under allegations of peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land for a period of five (5) consecutive years, claiming same under deed duly registered, and paying all taxes thereon as same became due during said period.

Plaintiff further alleges that he holds the title to the above described tract of land under the ten (10) year statute of limitations of the State of Texas, which he is affirmatively pleading and seeking under allegations of peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land for ten (10) years using and enjoying the same, to recover the title and possession of said land from Defendants.

Plaintiff further alleges that he holds the title to the above described tract of land under the twenty-five (25) year statute of limitations of the State of Texas, which he is affirmatively pleading and seeking under allegations of peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land for twenty-five (25) years, and under claim of right and good faith, under deeds and instruments purporting to convey and vest title to said lands in Plaintiff, which said deeds and instruments have been duly recorded in the Deed Records of Howard County, Texas.

If this citation is not served within ninety (90) days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

ISSUED AND GIVEN under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, Texas, on this 14th day of June, A.D. 1965.

Buried cable:

$10,000,000 in new life insurance for your telephone this year

Put telephone wires underground and you've put them in a safe place. Safe from wind, rain, hot weather, cold weather, stormy weather. Safer from the slow death of ordinary weathering. Safer from man-caused damage, too. All around safer from the kinds of trouble which most often affect the talkability, hearability and dependability of your phone service.

That's why this year Southwestern Bell is spending $10 million burying hundreds of additional miles of telephone cable underground. In effect, buying life insurance for your telephone service.

There's another tangible benefit, too. Because of this buried cable construction program, new jobs will be created. Some in the telephone business (which already has 52,179 persons on the payroll), but most important, an estimated 500 new jobs among the hundreds of firms which sell supplies, services and materials to the telephone company.

This is a 1965 communications bonus from Southwestern Bell. Part of a massive construction effort (our biggest ever) to make the world's best telephone service even more useful, dependable, convenient and valuable seven days a week, good weather and bad.

UNUSUAL TERMS

32,800 Acres, 20,350 deeded and 12,450 cheap lease, 20 miles from Santa Rosa. Well fenced and watered, some 80% rolling to smooth, about 20% in the hills, good turf all over. Small amount of minerals. Price $30.00 acre, 29% down, balance only 3% on principal for 20 years, plus 5% interest. You would have a hard time finding as good a ranch at the price, and when you consider the large amount of lease and the terms, it certainly is an unusual buy.

Air Pollution Seen Future Killer In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall has predicted that air pollution may someday reach killer status.

"My own guess," he said, "is that sooner or later we are going to have a very severe incidence of air pollution and we are going to have deaths that will be directly attributed to it and then the country will get alarmed about it."

Bank Deposits Reflect Boom

Bank deposits reflected Tuesday a booming Texas economy, with some cities unexpectedly showing all-time record money in the bank.

Most records are set at year's end and all-time highs in mid-year are rarely expected.

Almost all the early reporting cities showed gains over mid-year of 1964.

The reports were made in response to requests from national and state banking authorities.

SET RECORDS

Among cities reporting early that they had set records were Denton, Orange, Fort Worth and Corpus Christi.

Denton reported a total of $68,499,467 on deposit, compared with $57,917,351 a year ago. It was the 13th straight quarterly gain for that city and county.

W. C. Orr, president of Denton's First State Bank, attributed the increase to general growth in the economy and a tremendous amount of construction.

Orange County's five banks reported deposits of $55,663,138, compared with $52,386,829 a year ago. Bankers attributed the increase to rising construction payrolls as work got under way on major industrial plants.

OTHER TOTALS

Some other totals, first figure for mid-1965 and second for mid-1964.

Tarrant County (Fort Worth) $1,232,098,265 and $980,761,009.

Corpus Christi and Portland $217,840,382 and $211 million.

Cooke County (Gainesville) $22,586,447 and $22,971,965.

Bexar County (San Antonio) $956,987,104 and $868,808,784.

Navarro County (Corsicana) $43,438,297 and $38,938,797.

Hidalgo County $99,457,913 and $103,200,000.

Kilgore $19,273,580 and $17,774,857.

Palestine $19,304,647 and $18,233,705.

Jefferson County (Beaumont, Port Arthur and others) $316,120,797 and $298,571,843.

Dallas County $3,764,852,599 and $3,489,314,752.

Victoria $129,059,554 and $114,707,019.

Harris County $3,378,522,734 and $3,188,576,980.

Midland $185,460,513 and $171,632,860.

San Angelo $98,854,932 and $90,582,661.

Amarillo $250,255,683 and $244,255,683.

Hutchinson County (Borger) $26,101,946 and $24,409,750.

Howard County (Big Spring) $40,689,969 up 12.7 per cent.

Taylor County (Abilene) $143,146,892 and $133,314,092.

Winkler County (Kermit) $11,724,666 and $10,662,563.

OEO Health Grant Of $529,241 Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Community Council of Austin will receive a grant of $529,241 from the Office of Economic Opportunity for such programs as health and dental care, the agency said.

Nuclear Curb Bid Gets No Response

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House and State Department have declined to comment on a five-month-old report to President Johnson on the need for an agreement to prevent spread of nuclear weapons.

French Put Common Mart On Notice

PARIS (AP) — The French government has put its five Common Market partners on notice that the economic community has to mark time as far as Paris is concerned until it reaches an agreement on farm policy.

The French appear to be trying to give a subtle hint that she may pull out of the Common Market if her position is ignored or circumvented.

DENY IT

Official spokesmen strongly deny, however, that France has any intention of withdrawing.

On the operational plane, France is applying the doctrine adopted last week by President Charles de Gaulle in the wake of a deadlock in Brussels on the farm policy. A Cabinet spokesman said France would not participate in any new Common Market meetings for the time being.

French experts withdrew Monday from committee meetings on relations with the states of North Africa and on regulations for trade in fruit and vegetables. The French also stayed away from a committee session on possible relations with Nigeria.

NEW DEPARTURE

In the French view, all these matters represent new departures and are to be shunned.

The French position is that Common Market policy already agreed upon should continue, but the six nations should not enter any new domain while the farm policy remains unsettled.

Trade barriers that have been removed or lowered would stay down, but no others would be set aside for the time being.

Many econominsts feel that the economic community must either go on to complete economic union or drift back into economic nationalism.

Argentina To Import Crude

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina disclosed today plans for massive crude oil imports.

The reason: The nation has an acute shortage building up as a result of canceled contracts with petroleum companies.

Yacimientos Petroliferos Fiscales (YPF) has already undertaken crude purchasing totaling 1,350,000 cubic meters. Trade circles estimate this is worth about $17.5 million, not including freight.

YPF, Argentina's state agency, has exchanged letters of intent with the National Iranian Oil Co. for a deal tantamount to bartering 350,000 cubic meters of Persian crude for 350,000 tons of Argentina wheat, mutton and fruit.

Invited by YPF to submit private bids were: The Soviet Union, Rumania, Texaco, Gulf Oil, Royal Dutch, Sinclair, Esso, Shell, Socony and others.

Argentine oil production has been dropping since November 1963, when President Arturo Illia canceled oilfield work contracts with 13 private companies—nine of them American.

Universities Win Grants

AUSTIN (AP) — The U. S. Office of Education has granted three Texas universities $1,819,277 for graduate school buildings, Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said Tuesday.

Rice University got $985,333 for a four-story research library as part of a total cost of $2,956,000.

Texas A&M received $394,579 for a four-story biological science building, with total cost of $2,437,705.

The University of Texas, will apply its $439,365 grant toward a $1,400,000 six-story humanities building.
