MEMBERS of the board of directors of Texas Technological college disclaimed in a meeting at the college Friday afternoon any intention of seeking to establish a medical branch of the school at Dallas.

A statement of the board's views was issued after it had heard State Rep. Preston E. Smith of Lubbock explain the possibility of establishing a medical school branch at Dallas as a substitute for a proposed branch of the University of Texas there. Smith appeared in the board meeting at the request of the directors after press reports from Austin last week had linked Tech with talk of the new medical school.

Statement Is Issued

The matter was disposed of within a 30-minute period, including Smith's presentation of the proposal which he said "stood a good chance of going through the legislature," and writing of the board's statement of policy on the situation.

The board's statement said it stood ready when requested to cooperate fully with the legislature and other institutions of higher learning in "any of the problems of higher education in our state falling within the area of its responsibility.

But the statement said it wasn't the board's desire, nor did the board consider it within its province "to determine whether or not additional medical colleges are needed, nor where they should be located, nor how they should be financed, nor under whose direction they should be operated.

"It is not our desire, nor our intention to promulgate any plan for establishment of a medical college nor to actively seek the support of the legislature or other groups interested in the establishment of a medical college," the board's statement said.

To Meet Again Today

Consideration of the medical branch question climaxed two sessions of the board's first two-day meeting in several years. Other college business will be considered in a meeting starting at 9 o'clock this morning.

Previously during Friday morning and during the afternoon session, the board had approved a variety of recommendations including the launching of a complete rehabilitation and repair program on the campus which will entail a total estimated expenditure of $182,793, and authorization for Dr. Wiggins to seek appropriations for such work from the legislature; approval of annual appropriation requests to be submitted to the legislature for the next biennium; and tentative discussion of a long-range campus building and improvement pro-

Tax Hearings Postponed By House Group

By FREDERIC TUTTLE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 — The House Ways and Means committee today postponed consideration of new taxes in favor of legislation to achieve President Truman's expanded "fair deal" social security progra.n.

The revenue-raising committee voted in closed-door session to begin social security hearings Feb. 28 and put off Mr. Truman's request for four billion d.'lars in new taxes until an undetermined date.

Complexity of the social security program made it likely that new tax legislation would be delayed until May.

Action of the committee was expected as the President has asked congressional leaders to give his recommendations for a broadened social security program priority over the tax request.

Rough Reception Seen

The projected social security expansion — including federal health insurance and boosted social security benefits — faces a rough reception from many Republicans in Congress.

Charges were made by some GOP leaders in Lincoln day addresses that if all of the President's program became law the nation would be headed toward "state socialism" and possible "national bankruptcy."

The Ways and Means committee made no specific decision when to consider the President's tax request, which also is scheduled to become the subject of a bitter legislative fight in committee and on the floor.

Committeemen agreed, however, that the subjects of social security and taxes would not be tackled simultaneously.

Tax Action May Be Delayed

Capitol observers were quick to point out that if the social security legislation is completed before taxes are considered, it will mean a delay of at least two months and probably postponement of new tax discussions until May.

Members of the committee pointed out that if it was warranted, the social security legislation could be laid aside before completion and taxes taken up.

Such procedure would conflict, however, with the President's request that social security expansion be expedited.

Indications were strong that the committee would take no tax action until after submission of a legislative budget, estimating future income and expenditures.

Congress voted yesterday to ex-

TO CONTINUE DRILLING—Disappointment is mirrored in the faces of Lubbock city officials after they tasted samples of salt and bitter water from a 942-999 foot sand on the city's deep test northeast of Lubbock. They had hoped the sand might hold the answer to the long range water problem of Lubbock and the South Plains. However, further study of the water and continued drilling in deeper sand was authorized. Mayor W. H. Rodgers is seated at the left in the picture and Commissioner W. B. Price at the right. Standing, from left to right, are City Engineer R. L. Oldham, City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr., and Commissioners E. K. Hufstedler, jr., and Clarence Whiteside. Water Search Will Continue

THE search for deep water for Lubbock and the South Plains will continue.

This was the unanimous decision of members of the City commission at a recessed meeting Friday after having been advised that water in a sand between 942 and 999 feet in the deep test being drilled northeast of the city apparently is too salty for any known use.

The commission had hoped, but not expected, that the sand known to exist at this approximate depth would contain good water in sufficient quantity to ease or solve the long-range water problems of the area. Present supplies are obtained from formations at approximately 150 feet and above.

To Continue Operations

The Layne-Texas Co., of Houston, which is drilling the test under contract with the city, was directed to carry operations on down to 2,000 feet in the search for another reported water sand reported to exist i nthe vicinity of 1,400 feet.

When the drill reaches the new depth, the commission will decide whether to go further. The indications were that a further deepening will be approved if anything encourages the hope that good water might be found.

"While we are about it, let's try to determine once and for all whether good deep water is to be found," suggested Commissioner

Truman Recalls 'Ike' As Military Advisor

By LEON SHLOSS
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11—President Truman today designated Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to serve temporarily as his principal military advisor and presiding officer in the joint chiefs of staff, reportedly to intensify unification of the armed services.

The White House indicated that Eisenhower will also temporarily carry out the duties of the President's chief of staff, Adm. William D. Leahy, who is recuperating at Key West, Fla., from what was described as a severe operation.

In making the announcement, the White House denied that it has any connection with the present tense international situation.

To Advise Forrestal

White House assistant news secretary Eben Ayers was asked whether the move "betokened a worsening of the international situation." He replied:

"Not that I know of."

A Defense department spokesman said that one of Eisenhower's principal duties will be to work out problems of U. S. military assistance to western European countries in connection with the proposed North Atlantic defense pact.

President Truman also ordered Eisenhower to advise Defense Secretary Forrestal. Eisenhower has been serving in this capacity, sup-

Hungarian Envoy Ousted By U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—The United States today ordered the expulsion of a Hungarian diplomat, and charged that the Communist high command is driving to smash religious freedom all over eastern Europe.

Simultaneously, Great Britain issued a separate but strikingly parallel denunciation of what was termed a "concerted assault" on churches in eastern Europe.

The expulsion of John G. Florian, first secretary of the Hungarian legation, was in retaliation for the ejection of two American representatives from Hungary during the trial of Cardinal Mindszenty.

Bulgarian Action Flayed

The State department issued a statement striking out against the impending trial of 15 Protestant religious leaders in Bulgaria.

It said the similarity between the "fantastic accusations" made against them and those against Cardinal Mindszenty "strikingly emphasizes the concerted nature of the continuing Communist assault on religious liberties in eastern Europe."

Cardinal Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment on treason charges. An indictment made public in Sofia, Bulgaria,

New York Blaze Kills Mother, 7 Children

CLAYTON, N. Y., Feb. 11. (INS)—Seven children and their 29-year-old mother were burned to death today when a kerosene heater exploded and set fire to their one-story frame home near Clayton, a St. Lawrence river village. The children ranged in age from one to eleven.

The father, Clifford Richmond Conant, a trapper, and a 13-year-old daughter, Susan, escaped. Both attempted to re-enter the house in a vain attempt to rescue the family and suffered shock and hysteria.

Police said the family of ten lived in the three room house, sleeping on coats and bunks which were removed during the day.

Officials identified the victims as Mrs. Clifford Conant, and her children, Clifford, jr., 11; Stanley, 10; Larry and Louise, eight-year-old twins; Robert 6; Frederick, 4, and Nancy Ann, 1.

4,000 Persons Marooned By New Storm

(By The Associated Press)

ANOTHER snow storm bore down Friday on the wind-swept northern plains states, already buffeted by more than a month of winter's worst misery. Heavy snows cut off 4,000 dam workers in a California canyon and a small town in Idaho.

The Canadian-born storm wave started toward Wyoming, western South Dakota, Nebraska and northeastern Colorado. Forecasters said the storm probably would last about 36 hours. The area has been smacked by storm after storm since the first of the year.

Winds of from 30 to 35 miles per hour blew old snow across roads in the plains states, undoing the labors of bulldozers and men.

The dam workers marooned in the Father river canyon near Quincy, Calif., fear their trailer homes will be washed away if warmer weather or rains flood the river. The trailers are scattered throughout the canyon.

Five inches of fresh snow fell in the Quincy area, causing a snowslide which halted Western Pacific rail traffic between Quincy and Oroville.

Raging storms which hit California also grounded the haylift in Nevada.

Relief Operations Hit

A mercy flight is to drop 4,700 pounds of food on Stibnitz, Idaho, Saturday. The mining town of about 500 persons has been snowbound for a week.

New blizzards hampered relief operations in south central and eastern Idaho. Road crews halted work in several areas because they were losing ground in the race to keep roads open.

The construction camp at Anderson Ranch dam, Idaho, threatened by snow slides, reported the situation has improved and no damaging slides have occurred since Thursday. A temperature drop helped ease the slide problem, at least temporarily.

In the Green river area of southwestern Wyoming, winds hit 70 miles an hour, hampering relief operations.

Norway Claimed Assured Of Aid

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11. (AP) — The United States was reported to have assured Norway today that it can enter the proposed North Atlantic alliance as a full partner and with assurance of substantial military backing from this and other member countries.

This summary of the basic American attitude toward Norway's defense problems is understood to have been given to Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange by Secretary of State Acheson in an 80-minute conference at the State department this afternoon.

Earlier in the day, Lange conferred briefly with President Truman, and after meeting with Acheson, he wound up his week-long visit to Washington with a call on Senator Vandenberg, the Republican foreign policy leader.

Joint Statement Issued

Acheson and Lange issued a joint statement saying they had held a "full and frank discussion of the objectives and nature" of the North Atlantic security project.

Lange subsequently told the Associated Press, just before he left by plane for New York, that he had had "a very good reception" and a "very good discussion" which had yielded "very frank information." At the State department he informed reporters he planned to meet British Foreign

Slavs Shut Out Of 'Stalin Plan'

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Saturday, Feb. 12 — Russia told Yugoslavia Friday that she has no chance of cutting herself in on the Communist equivalent of the Marshall plan until she drops her "hostile position" toward the Soviet Union.

In an exchange of notes at Belgrade between the two countries, reported by the official Soviet news agency Tass, Yugoslavia protested her exclusion from last month's Moscow economic conference. Russia replied Yugoslavia had shut herself out by showing hostility toward other eastern European countries.

Reprisals Charged

Russia and Yugoslavia have been at odds since last June when Marshall Tito's Communist state was thrown out of the Cominform (Communist Information bureau) for not following Moscow closely enough and showing "nationalistic tendencies."

The Tass dispatch was broadcast by the Moscow radio and distributed here by the Soviet monitor.

The Russian note said Yugoslavia was "conducting wholesale reprisals against, and arrests of, Yugoslav citizens who stand for friendship with the USSR and the countries of peoples' democracy."

It said this can only mean a hostile policy toward those countries.

Hostile Policy Hit

The note declared Russia "considers desirable" Yugoslavia's participation in ECMA but this would be possible only in the event Yugoslavia gives up that hostile policy and "reverts to its old policy of friendship."

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania, and Czechoslovakia formed ECMA avowedly to counter a trade boycott by the western powers led by the United States.

Russia's reply to Yugoslavia said it was established "for broad economic co-operation of countries which pursue an honest, friendly policy with regard to each other."

In this respect, the note said, it differs from "ordinary co-operation which exists, let us say, between the USSR and Belgium or Holland along commercial lines."

Bomb Plot Against UN Group Thwarted

SEOUL, Saturday, Feb. 12 (AP) —Korean police today disclosed a plot to dynamite the Seoul stadium at a welcoming rally for the United Nations commission on Korea later in the day.

Police Captain Park Po Yung said nine men were under arrest.

Of the nine, three Korean men who confessed the plot gave information leading to the apprehension of six more during the night, Park reported.

The officer said the trio were nabbed in the act of carrying 70 feet of wire in the vicinity of the stadium.

The UN commission has just arrived here to see what it can do to unify Korea—divided into American and Soviet Russian occupation zones, with rival Korean governments in each sector.

LIMA, Peru, Feb. 11, (AP)—An airliner with 16 passengers aboard, including a woman and three children, was more than 30 hours overdue today on a flight from Tingo Maria to Huanuco, Peru.

High Winds, Snow Seen For Plains

SOUTH PLAINS "false spring" was slated for a sudden and chilly end today as the Weather station north of Lubbock predicted relatively balmy temperatures would be smashed aside by a high velocity cold wave which last night was lashing Nebraska and Kansas with winds up to 40 miles an hour.

Warnings were issued to stockmen and other interests to be prepared for rapidly dropping temperatures beginning about noon today, and high winds ranging in velocity from 25 to 30 miles an hour with occasional gusts up to 40 miles an hour.

Some Snow Forecast

Forecasters warned that the mercury probably will dive to a low of eight to 12 degrees Sunday morning before the cold blast, and that snow flurries likely will sweep over the Panhandle and South Plains tonight and Sunday.

Today's readings, before the arrival of the cold wave, will continue to be springlike, the weather station said. A minimum in the middle 40's to predicted for this morning, with mercury rising to near 55 degrees before the front's expected arrival between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. A reading between 28 and 32 degrees is foreseen by sunset.

Strong southwest winds ranging up to 25 or 30 miles an hour may precede the arrival of the chill north winds. Dust was reported blowing late Friday and Friday night at many Panhandle points. Meanwhile, north winds were whipping up dust clouds in sections of the Midwest not covered with snow. Blizzard conditions were forecast in many areas north of Texas.

No Warmup Before Monday

Light showers today were regarded as likely by the weather forecaster. The showers, however, likely will change to snow flurries as the cold air "underruns" the moist Gulf air that has brought the recent warm weather to the

Suspects Named Here Arrested

Two men named in felony charges here were held late Friday at Midland and San Angelo for the Lubbock sheriff's office, Sheriff Grady Harrist said.

They are T. P. Crowson, at Midland, and J. W. Real, 50, at San Angelo.

Crowson, a mechanic, was described in records of the sheriff's office here as a mechanic charged Monday in the court of C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, with theft by bailee Oct. 15 of a car owned by E. B. Jarrett. He also was said to be under a misdemeanor check charge in county court.

Man Is Released

Real is under grand jury indictment charging forgery Oct. 28 of a $64.85 check passed to Sears Roebuck & Co.

The sheriff said custody of Crowson probably would be accepted today or Sunday, but that San Angelo may retain custody of Real an indefinite time.

The sheriff's department said that Ray Dreiling, 29, of Lubbock, who a day earlier had signed a waiver of extradition to Colorado, had been released.

"Colorado authorities informed us the matter in issue had been settled," it was announced.

Orville Eugene Belk, 32, of Lubbock, was held late Friday in lieu of $750 bond set by Lynn in binding the defendant over to grand jury action Monday in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair. The charge is wife desertion, sher-

Acheson Urges Funds For ERP

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP) — Congress was in recess today but its members dealt nevertheless with such problems as foreign aid, housing and labor.

The Senate Foreign Relations committee heard Secretary of State Acheson state his case for the $5,580,000,000 second installment in this country's investment in European recovery.

however, that Senator Fulbright however, that Senator Fullbright (D-Ark) was "quite unfair and quite wrong" in saying the State department had adopted a "hands-off" attitude toward European unity.

Home Builders Costs Decline

The State department, Acheson said, tries to help and encourage but not direct the Marshall plan countries in their efforts to achieve a stabilizing economic unity.

On the price front, the Senate-House Economic committee centered its attention on housing, the nation's steel supply and utilization of its natural resources.

Raymond M. Foley, the housing and home finance administrator, told the group that the cost of home construction had taken a downturn. But he said there was need for 15,000,000 housing units by 1960.

PRICE INDEX TAKES SLUMP

Government Says Living Costs Continue Decline Over Nation

By FELIX COTTEN
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.— The government today reported that the cost of living is still dropping and unemployment is still increasing.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its wholesale price index, which foreshadows retail price levels, dropped 1.2 per cent for the week ended Feb. 8. BLS blamed the latest price skid on the commodity markets slump.

The Bureau of Employment Security reported that in the week ended Feb. 5, claims were filed for unemployment insurance by 348,225 newly-unemployed workers.

The bureau reported that claims for continued unemployment insurance also spurted by 46,400 to 1,707,000.

It was the tenth straight week that the total volume of claims increased.

The wholesale price index now stands two and one-half per cent below its mark a year ago and at the same level it was in September, 1947. It is 2.2 per cent lower than it was a month ago.

BLS singled out last Tuesday as "big drop day." It pointed out that seven key farm products declined

House Committee Investigator Says Power Back Of Scenes Kept Pressure On Him In Army Career

By ROBERT E. STRIPLING
(Chief Investigator, House Un-American Activities Committee, 1938-1948; Edited by Bob Considine.)

THE only reason I mention my time in the Army, and the only way in which my experience differs from that of millions of others, is that whoever was desirous of placing me there never lost sight of me — though I was undistinguishable from millions of other privates.

No. 10

After a week at Fort Meade, and the first two weeks of what was for me, a desk worker more or less, a physically difficult 18 weeks of basic training, I was visited at Camp Joseph T. Robinson (Little Rock, Ark.) by a secretive captain from Washington. He ordered the room cleared of all personnel before he spoke to me.

Would Get Commission

"We want you," he said. "You will be given a commission and be permanently assigned to the State of Washington, or Tennessee or New Mexico. I can tell you nothing else. Will you accept?"

I had turned down a commission in Air Force intelligence work several years before, without many qualms. But the events of the past two weeks had made me doubt the wisdom of my action.

It is, I found, difficult for a man in his thirties to keep up with 18, 19 and 20-year-old farmboys and athletes. On the first day I was ordered to run a mile with them, I fell over on my face about 100 yards short of the finish line. For punishment, I was ordered to get down on the parade ground, in front of the rest of the trainees, and do 100 push-ups.

I told the young lieutenant that I'd be happy to try, but I just doubted that I could do more than

Bank Official Says Price Drop 'Healthy'

HOUSTON, Feb. 11 (AP) — The chairman of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve system today said he sees nothing alarming in adjustments now being experienced by the nation's economy.

Thomas B. McCabe, Swarthmore, Pa., said it is a "healthy adjustment" resulting from decreases in inflationary pressures.

Recent price declines in commodities, McCabe said in an interview, indicate a slackening of inflationary pressure as supplies of goods are catching up with and in some instances even exceeding demand.

Good Business Foreseen

McCabe came here from Dallas where he attended a combined meeting of directors of the Dallas Federal reserve bank and its branches at Houston, El Paso and San Antonio.

He said indications are there will be good business this year despite price structure changes.

"There will be comparatively high levels of production, income and employment throughout the year," he said. "However, it is only being realistic to recognize that adjustments in various parts of the economic system may affect some business and industries."

Business investments may be lower than last year, McCabe continued, but increases in public building expenditures, coupled with foreign aid and military programs, should maintain a good demand for goods, services and employment.

Jobs with the FHA include construction examiner, mortgage credit examiner, and valuator, with salaries ranging from $3,727 to $4,479 a year; and mortgage credit aide, valuation aide, construction aide, and underwriting aide, with salaries ranging from $2,724 to $2,974 a year. March 8 has been set as deadline for applications.

Engineer-trainee jobs, paying $2,498 to $2,724 a year, are with the Bureau of Reclamation in Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Industrial hygienist positions pay $3,727 to $6,235 a year. Work is in connection with a program of industrial hygiene at establishments engaged in shipbuilding, ordnance, aircraft assembly, etc., located mostly in field activities of the Navy department in Washington, D. C. and throughout the nation. Vacancies in similar positions in other federal agencies may also be filled.

Film Star Wants To Complete Sentence

Mitchum Is Refused 'Leave' From Jail To Finish Movie

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 11, (INS)—"Model prisoner" Robert Mitchum today lost a motion which would have given him temporary freedom from a 60-day jail term and returned to his chores in the Los Angeles county lock-up.

The stay of execution was brought by Mitchum's attorney, Jerry Giesler, who asked that the actor's jail term on a marijuana charge be postponed until April 1 so that the picture, "The Big Steal," could be completed.

Judge Clement D. Nye flatly refused the stay of execution and ordered Mitchum to serve out his time.

Mitchum Favors Jail

Mitchum, who appeared in court during the 10-minute session, said that he would rather go through with the original sentence anyway. The actor declared:

"Now that I've started my sentence, I'd just as soon get it over with."

It was understood that the action was initiated by the RKO studio. Studio officials said that if the half-finished picture were further delayed it would wreak a hardship on scores of people signed for work on the cops and robbers thriller.

After leaving court Giesler came up with a novel proposal to get around postponement of Mitchum's picture. Without indicating whether he was serious or not, he said:

"Why not film it at the county honor farm? The scenery is just about like Mexico. It might be something for the studio to consider."

If his suggestion was a trial balloon, it got little encouragement from the sheriff's office. Under-Sheriff A. C. Jewell said:

"My personal answer would be 'no.' You can imagine what a movie crew would do to the morale of the prisoners."

Meanwhile, it developed that work on "The Big Steal" is not to be entirely suspended despite Mitchum's absence. The filming of scenes in which the actor does not figure is to start immediately in Mexico.

The director and technicians were to leave by plane for Mexico City tonight while members of the cast—Jane Greer, William Bendix, John Qualen and others — will leave Saturday night.

Russian Group Demands Hand In Possible Antarctic Plan

MOSCOW, Feb. 11. (U.P.)— The Russian All-Union Geographical society claimed today that two Russian explorers had discovered the Antarctic and declared that the Soviet government would not recognize any settlement without Russian participation.

A society resolution denounced American efforts to regulate Antarctic affairs.

The resolution, passed at a meeting in Leningrad, was given full-page treatment in the press here, including the newspapers Pravda and Izvestia.

The society claimed that the Russian ships Mirny and Vostok, carrying Admiral Mikhail Lazarev and Capt. Fadei Bellingshausen, had explored Antarctic lands in 1819 making the two men the "Columbuses of the Antarctic."

Bolshevik Pattern Repeats As Reds Open Attack On Churches

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer

The concerted Communist campaign against the churches of Russia's captive states in Europe falls directly into the pattern followed by Bolshevik revolutionaries for many years.

It is a repetition of the religious persecution carried out in Russia 25 years ago. Unless the satellites are liberted, it will have the same result. The churches which remain alive at all will become tools of the government.

Program Explained

David Shub, himself a former revolutionary, tells in his biography of Lein how Michael Bakunin, one of the fathers of the Red revolution, repudiated morals.

"The evolutionist," Bakunin write in 1869, "has severed every link with the social order and with the civilized world; with the law, good manners, conventions and morality of that world. He is its merciless enemy and continues to inhabit it with only one purpose —to destroy it. . . . He hates and despises the social morality of his time . . . (he) excludes all romanticism, all tenderness, all ecstasy, all love."

As a prophet of what Communist revolutionary governments would look like in 1949, Bakunin stands pre-eminent. Their law is the law of Lenin—take non-Communists by the hand now in order that you may take them by the throat later. Their manners are those of Vishinsky. Their conventions are those of the jungle, without regard for human life and dignity. Their morals are, as Bakunin, also wrote, "everything which promotes the success of the Revolution."

Morality Repudiated

Lein adopted the Bakunin line with embellishments of his own. "In our opinion, morality is entirely subordinate to the interests of class war," he wrote. "We do not believe in the external principles of morality."

Communism, spurning the idea that the class war could ever be compromised through social evolution, had to make revolution the only religion.

As Shub says: "Lenin, who detested hero worship and fought religion as an oriate of the people, was canonized in the interest of Soviet politics and his writings were given the character of holy writ."

It is that writ which the Communists are following now. The simultaneous anti-clerical campaigns in Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania and Bulgaria are the demonstrations of a system which lives in fear, resorting to force for what it cannot accomplish by reason.

Public Hearings Are Slated On Basic Science Proposal

AUSTIN, Feb. 11. (AP) — The basic science bill which chiropractors and naturopaths bitterly oppose will be given a public hearing in Austin next Wednesday at 7 p.m.

The bill is one of 75 measures which House and Senate committees will consider at public hearings next week.

Also on the list is the oil unitization bill by Senator George Moffett of Chillicothe, in which oil men are interested. It would make it legal for oil operators to co-operate in the development of a field. It will be heard Monday night at 7:30.

The basic science or "minimum standards" measure, by Senator Walter Tynan of San Antonio, would require all persons who wish to practice any branch of the healing arts to pass an examination first. In one form or another it has appeared in many past legislatures and just as regularly has been fought by chiropractors and naturopaths.

Six constitutional amendments proposed by House members will be heard Feb. 16 at 2:30 p. m. Five of these would either raise legislators' pay or require annual legislative sessions. The sixth would extend old age assistance benefits.

Bergen And McCarthy Will Switch Over To CBS In Fall

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting system today added ventriloquist Edgar Bergen and his assistant, Charlie McCarthy, to its talent fold.

Starting next fall, Bergen, who had been on NBC for a decade until temporarily retiring from radio at the end of 1948, will be heard on CBS Sundays at 7 to 7:30 p. m., CST. He will be sponsored by Coca Cola.

The switch of Bergen to CBS is the latest in a series that followed the big money, capital gains deals in which the network got Amos 'N' Andy and Jack Benny away from NBC. Others who have announced they will go to CBS include Bing Crosby, Red Skelton and Ozzie and Harriet Nelson. Frank Sinatra announced this week he was negotiating to switch to CBS and was leaving his NBC show.

FBI Holds Two San Antonio Boys Charged With Plotting Extortion

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 11. (U.P.) —The FBI disclosed today that two 'teen-age boys were in jail, charged with a $3,000 extortion plot against five Catholic priests.

C. E. Weeks, special FBI agent in charge of the San Antonio office, said the two suspects, of Latin-American descent, admitted sending a threatening note to the five clerics in an attempt to raise "some ready cash."

They threatened the clergymen with bodily harm, of an unspecified nature, Weeks said. The unsigned letter concluded on this note: "I have two American gangster friends from Chicago, and they don't play."

Weeks said the note was sent to five oblate fathers of St. Adolphus' Roman church. The note ordered the $3,000 dropped in a bag at a westside intersection at 8 a. m. yesterday.

James succeeded in outlasting the other two Lubbock fighters, Flyweight Carlos Martinez and Featherweight E. E. Sparks, both of whom lost decisions tonight. Martinez lost by a thin margin to Jesse Herrera of San Antonio and Sparks lost a unanimous decision to Valentina Luna of Austin.

James will fight Don Thompson of Odessa Saturday night in the semi-final round of the tournament. If he wins that fight, he will fight in the finals Monday night.

Crowd Is Larger

The third night of the tourney was witnessed by 4,651 paid fans, an increase over the first two nights. They saw a card of 29 scheduled bouts that produced plenty of leather slinging and a few upsets. It was the best night of the tournament so far.

James fought a good fight, cautious, but strong, while both Martinez and Sparks fought the best they could. It wasn't enough against two boys that many think will go all the way.

Martinez took a slight licking from the judges in a fight that was close all the way, but Herrera didn't bother him. The San Antonio fighter was the aggressor all the way, even though Martinez fought a cagy fight, jabbing and retreating.

The first round was typical of all three, with Martinez scoring on a solid right to the stomach, a right and left jab to the head and the best of the in-fighting. Herrera got the best of the second round, throwing three rights to the head that staggered Martinez.

Split Decision Given

The San Antonio fighter failed to observe a clean break in both the second and third rounds, the latter sending Martinez into offensive action. But Herrera landed the heavier blows, even though it seemed that Martinez landed more for points.

The decision was not unanimous, one judge voting all three rounds to Martinez, the other two giving all three to Herrera.

Valentina Luna of Austin, fighting mainly as a southpaw, but switching in the third round to right-handed, didn't give Sparks much of a pounding, but there was no question that Luna won the decision, which was unanimous.

Sparks kept away from Luna's always-cocked left, swinging looping rights and then clinching. Luna upset Sparks mid-way through the first round with a left uppercut, but didn't stun or hurt Sparks. The Lubbock fighter ended the round with a bleeding nose that continued to run througout the fight.

Half through the second round, Luna landed a second short left uppercut that moved Sparks backward. He slipped as he went back and the referee called it a knockdown. Just before the bell, Luna landed another left that staggered Sparks.

The final round of this dull fight, made so by Sparks' defensive tactics, speeded up a little due to Luna's efforts for a knockout. He switched from left to right, but Sparks gave him no opportunity to land his punishing blows with their full force. There was no question about the decision.

James boxed well tonight to chalk up a unanimous decision. He was slow with his punches, but he was getting a sharp left jab through consistently. He stalked Haddad about the ring, never giving him a chance to get set.

He opened the first round with left jabs that soon had Haddad's face red. He drove a right to the ribs that hurt, then near the end of the round connected with a left to the jaw.

James opened the second by stalking his opponent again and when he finally pinned him on the ropes, he threw a sharp left hook to the jaw. A right to the neck stung and he followed with right to the jaw. Haddad tried to rush him, but James held him off with short inside blows.

The third round started slowly and it was half over before James suddenly came out of a clinch with four left jabs in succession that found their mark. James sank a right to the stomach and it slowed up Haddad. From that point on, James was in complete charge.

By winning tonight James became the last Lubbock fighter to remain in the tournament. He will meet Don Thompson of Odessa, all-state high school tackle, who knocked out Jess Fussell of Lufkin. It will be a semi-final bout. If James wins that fight, he will remain here for the finals Monday night.

In second place was dandy Dick Metz, the fashion plate from Virginia Beach, who laid down a 68 to go with his 66 of yesterday for 134.

Tech Gets Back In Race For Border Conference Crown

By AL WILLIAMS
Avalanche Sports Writer

The Texas Tech Red Raiders broke loose in the second half Friday night to defeat Arizona's Wildcats, 60-58 in a high-scoring, fast-moving Border conference contest.

The loss was the second in league play for the defending champions and pulled Tech closer up the ladder in percentage points. Tech has won eight of 12 conference tilts while Arizona has won seven out of nine starts and puts Tech back in the race for the crown. The Raiders have four games remaining, and Arizona must play six.

Big Don Grove led the Raider attack as he took high point honors for the evening with 22 points. During the first half he kept the Techsans in the ball game with his hook shot from either side and steady backboard work. Grove scored 13 points in the first period. Whistle Banks made seven points in the first stanza and added eight more in the last half to emerge with 15 as runner-up for Tech.

The hottest man on the court, however, was Arizona's Junior Crum who scored 20 points in the initial period and fouled out with 17 minutes and 5 seconds remaining in the last half with a total of 21 points. He brought the crowd to its feet when, with 20 seconds left in the half, he sank a two-handed running jump shot from approximately 50 feet out from the basket. He could not seem to miss as he swished the nets from every conceivable angle.

Crum's substitute, Linc Richmond, who played with a heavily taped right leg, scored 13 points at the relief role in the second frame.

Both teams used a man-for-man defense and fast breaks, and each set a torrid pace as the ball went up and down the court in a furious, hard-fought battle. During the game the score changed hands eight times and was tied thrice. At no time was the margin greater than seven points, and it fluctuated between this margin as first Arizona and then Tech led.

The Raiders suffered in the first half from inaccurate passing as Arizona's defense tried to keep them away from the basket, and offensive maneuvers were broken up consistently.

The contest was marked by numerous fouls, and Arizona committed 20 while Tech made 10. The Raiders made good on 14 of 19 attempted charity tosses while Arizona connected with 10 of 15.

Arizona went ahead after seven minutes of the first half, and Tech was unable to go ahead until eight minutes of the second period had elapsed. Then Wimpy Hill and Gene Gibson scored six points in 45 seconds. Tech controlled the ball the last minute and 20 seconds after Arizona had come from seven points behind to trail by one slim point.

Numerous fouls were called on Arizona as they attempted to get the ball, and Tech took the ball out of bounds after each foul to keep control of the sphere.

Arizona played without the services of Bob Honea, regular forward.

Former Stars Fail To Make Hall Of Fame

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 (AP)—Baseball's scribes whipped a third strike past Charley Gehringer, Mel Ott, Hank Greenberg and other former stars today when they failed to elect a single player into baseball's Hall of Fame.

In an annual Hall of Fame poll, conducted by veteran members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, no past performer was able to garner sufficient votes to join the 55 others already immortalized in the shrine at Cooperstown, N. Y. A candidate must receive at least 75 per cent of the total vote cast.

Gehringer, former star Detroit second baseman, drew the most votes, 102. However, he was 12 shy of election as 51 of the 153 voting writers left his name off their ballots.

Space was allowed on each ballot for 10 or less names. To be elected, a player had to appear on three of every four of these ballots.

Mel Ott, home run king of the National league, who spent 22 active seasons with the New York Giants, placed second with 94 votes. Al Simmons, 89; Dizzy Dean, 88, and Jimmy Foxx, 85, were next in order.

The Hall of Fame committee rules provide that in case no player receives 75 per cent of the votes, a final ballot will be prepared on which will appear the names of 20 candidates receiving the highest number of votes.

The writers will then vote for any five or less of these 20 nominations. Any player appearing on 75 per cent of these final ballots shall be elected.

Only players of the 1923 to 1947 era were eligible. In all, 98 received mention.

Huge Garden Crowd Sees Slashing Fight

Pep Regains Title From Sandy Saddler

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 (AP)—Willie Pep, his face a gory mess from cuts around both eyes, recaptured his world featherweight title from Sandy Saddler, spindly Harlem slasher, on a unanimous 15-round decision tonight at Madison Square Garden. It was a sensational form reversal of his four-round knockout loss last October. Pep, who held the title for six years, weighed 126, Saddler 124.

A jam packed mob of 13,057 who paid $87,563 for the first Garden sellout since 1946, roared throughout the 15 savage rounds as the little gamester from Hartford, Conn., survived a furious last round assault by Sandy.

Wild turmoil broke out in the Garden which was loaded with rabid Pep fans as announcer Johnny Addie gave the unanimous decision.

Referee Eddie Joseph had it 10-5, Judge Jack O'Sullivan saw it 9-6 and Judge Frank Forbes found for Willie 9-5 with 1 even. The Associated Press scoreboard had it 9-6 for Pep.

Pep boxed brilliantly all the way against his heavier punching opponent, bouncing in and out with his dazzling array of jabs, hooks and right crosses.

Almost always Saddler was moving forward, measuring Willie with unblinking eyes, but the artful dodger from Hartford was too much for him with his counter-punching.

Time after time in the thrill-packed brawl, Pep jabbed five or six times to Sandy's face. The pattern of the fight was an early lead for Pep, a middle spurt by the free punching Saddler and then an eye filling display of ring craft by Willie in the final seconds.

There were no knockdowns, but both were well battered at the end, Pep more so than Sandy. The skinny 22-year-old kid from Harlem who held the crown less than four months, gashed Willie's right eye in the third.

Westerners Trounce Brownfield, 62-20

Galey, Sexton Pace Lubbock To District 1-AA Triumph

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

Lubbock High's speedy Westerner cagers, paced by the sparkling offensive and defensive work of Forwards Charles Galey and Jimmy Sexton and Guard Bob Rooker, chalked up an easy 62-20 District 1-AA triumph over the scrappy Brownfield Cubs here Friday night at the Chapman field gymnasium.

The win was the seventh in nine district games this season for the Westerners, against two defeats, and kept the Lubbock schoolboys in the torrid conference race. The Westerners can deadlock for the 1-AA championship if the Amarillo Golden Sandies defeat the loop-leading Pampa Harvesters tonight at Pampa—and if the Westerners can close out their regular schedule with a victory over the Plainview Bulldogs at 8 o'clock tonight at the Chapman field gym.

Turn In Good Performance

The Lubbock quint turned in one of its best offensive performances of the season in drubbing the Cubs Friday night before a crowd of approximately 1,000 well-pleased fans, although the Westerners' big center, Jim Wilson, was hampered by an upset stomach and saw only limited service. But the Lubbock cagers were hot in the scoring department and turned in their usual strong defensive game to coast to the win.

Lubbock jumped into the lead early in the first quarter, when Rooker sank a free throw and then dropped in a field goal. Sexton boosted the count to 5-0 with a pivot shot, then Galey followed up with a push shot that made the count 7-0. Sexton and Galey hiked the tally to 10-0 before Brownfield's Dale Cary and Glenn Gorby dropped in baskets to cut the Lubbock margin to 10-5. Rooker added two more field goals to make the count 14-5 at the end of the initial period, however.

Sexton, Galey Pace Locals

Galey, playing a brilliant defensive game in addition to his point-making chores, and the smooth-working Sexton shared scoring honors in the second stanza. The two Westerners gave Lubbock a 23-11 lead, then Wilson racked up two field goals. Guard Morris Turner hit a basket just before halftime to make the count 34-11.

Rooker, Galey and Wilson kept the fire burning in the Westerner machine in the third stanza, while the Brownfield cagers tried desperately to find the range on the basket. The Cubs' John Thompson and Jim Billings connected for three points during the quarter, but Lubbock held a 44-14 edge at the start of the final period.

Everyone got into the act for Lubbock in the last stanza, with Galey, Sexton, Rooker and Turner all hitting the loop, and Coach Roy Morris used substitutes for every starter except Galey. Thompson, Gorby and Farris collected six points for Brownfield, but the Westerners led, 62-20, at the final whistle.

Galey copped individual scoring honors for the night with 18 points, which boosted his total for the season to 293. Sexton was close behind, however, with 17 points and Rooker chalked up 12 for the home quint. Gorby paced Brownfield with 10 points.

The Lubbock "B" trounced the Brownfield "B" by a 56-15 margin in a preliminary setto, with Forward Jimmy Hamilton notching 13 points. Fred Crosslin and Tom Franks topped the Brownfield team with four points.

Rockdale Students Learn Safe Driving Through Adult Errors

ROCKDALE, Feb. 17. (INS) — Experimental education reached a new high in Rockdale recently for high school students learning how to be safe drivers.

The students were stationed for two hours at a downtown intersection with instructions to issue "courtesy" tickets to every driver violating traffic regulations.

Before the period was over, 209 adults had been halted by the youngsters and given "tickets."

AUSTIN, Feb. 11 (AP) — The Texas Longhorns today lost a promising back to scholastic ineligibility and have two reserve linemen temporarily out of action from injuries.

Coach Blair Cherry announced the loss of left halfback Gerald Miller, a top freshman sprinter as well as a good football prospect. Miller of Harlandale (San Antonio), is now ineligible for competition next fall.

The casualties of the daily scrimmage sessions which started yesterday are Howard Hurt of Borger, a second-string guard, and substitute Center Wally Tassos of San Antonio. Hurt has a sprained ankle; Tassos an injured knee.

First workout under actual game conditions is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 19.

Two freshmen are currently running on the first-team. They are fullback Byron Townsend of Odessa, and 220-pound right End Paul Williams, Lufkin. Townsend is replacing Ray Borneman who is being kept out of spring training because of an injured knee.

These other men are running on the first team as the first week of training ends:

Veeck May Sue Weiss

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. (AP)— Bill Veeck of the Cleveland Indians and George Weiss of the New York Yankees squared off today in a hot verbal duel over Veeck's signing of Artie Wilson, a negro shortstop, culminating in a threat by Veeck to sue the Yanks general manager for terming his action "unethical."

"I'm not sure that that's not a court word," the youthful Cleveland club president declared hotly. "He'd better be able to prove it."

Weiss in a lengthy statement today accused Veeck of having cut some corners in flying down to Puerto Rico yesterday to sign Wilson after the Yankees had conducted lengthy negotiations with the player and thought they had closed a deal to purchase him from the Birmingham Black Barons of the Negro American league.

When informed of Weiss' remarks, Veeck, who returned here today, threatened to blow a gasket.

"All that happened to Weiss was that he got caught at the switch and now is trying to cover up," Veeck declared. "So he's going to protest to Chandler is he? There's nothing I would like better. I'll do better than that. I'll be in to see the commissioner in Cincinnati in a few days."

Veeck said that all he did was go to Puerto Rico and sign a player whom his scouts had been looking over for a year and who had approached him for a job.

A smoldering feud between the two American league clubs burst abruptly into flames when the Yanks announced they were protesting Veeck's action to Commissioner A. B. Chandler and other baseball officials and growled that:

"There is no place in baseball —major league, minor league or negro league—for tactics of the sort encountered in this case."

Wilson is the heavy hitting playing manager of the Mayaguez club of the Puerto Rican league and property of the Birmingham Black Barons of the Negro American league.

The Yankees had announced on Feb. 2 that they expected to sign Wilson, and today they produced a telegram from Tom Hayes Jr., president of the Birmingham club, in which he agreed to terms. The wire, dated Jan. 29, said:

"Agree to assign Art Wilson contract to Newark (Yankee farm club) for $5,000 on signing and reporting, $5,000 additional if retained June 1, 1949."

Committee Official Says He Was Under Behind Scenes Pressure

a dozen. I did ten before my arms refused to lift my body another time.

On the second mile run I got to within 50 yards before I caved in. That called for additional punishment, but I told the young man that, if he gave me a little time, by God, I'd run my mile with a full pack—which I eventually did after I had lost 40 pounds.

BUT at the time the mysterious captain appeared (he was, of course, interested in having me assigned to security work in the A-bomb project) I was filled with every muscle ache known to any out-of-shape draftee. Besides, I felt that I could be of more use to the Army in the work I knew than in the job of running a mile each day.

So I told him I'd be very glad to accept his offer.

"We'll send for you in a couple of days," he said, and marched out. I never heard from him again.

V-E Day came and went at our infantry replacement training center, but my own infantry training was prolonged to 18 weeks instead of 13. During that training period there was, to my knowledge, at least two more requests for me—for assignment to intelligence work—but I was kept at Little Rock.

Sent To San Antonio

Then I was sent to Camp Bullis, near San Antonio, for a course in the Criminal Investigatign school of the CID. That was much more in my line, and though rudimentary, I enjoyed it and profited by it. While I was there the Japanese surrendered.

I was ready to go overseas with other products of the school, and was actually packing my things, when a young officer ran down our company street one afternoon calling my name. He was tremendously agitated.

"The Secretary of War's on the phone!" he shouted at me. "He is sending special orders concerning you, and we're to keep you here."

My classmates packed and went off. I waited five days for the special orders, and then was transferred to Fort Meade for a similar course in investigation work.

IN October, 1945, after I had been at the Fort Meade school for a short period, I was permitted a little time to go to Washington to see my family. I went by the old House Office Building, too, and it was a strange feeling to see old friends of mine look around uneasily when I spoke to them, or turn tail and walk the other way when they saw me coming down the corridor.

My favorite commentators had done a very thorough job. I would have liked to meet either of them just about that time. Or both.

At Committee headquarters the new Chairman, Rep. John S. Wood (D., Ga.), and Rep. Thomas deplored the manner in which the latest investigations had failed to produce fruitful information. Wood was very friendly.

"There's no reason in the world why you should be kept in the Army, doing nothing, when we need you," he said. "I'm getting you out immediately."

That suited me. I had another 24 hours with my family and then reported back to Camp Holabird, near Baltimore, to which camp my new school had been moved during my furlough. This, indeed, looked like the end of my Army life.

Gets New Surprise

I groped my way to my bunk in the darkness and was just settling down when I heard a voice in the darkness of the bunk above me ask "Are you Stripling?"

"Yes."

"They been looking for you."

"That right?" I asked, pleased that Wood had acted so speedily.

"Yeah. You're being sent to Tokyo."

I guess I probably waited a while before saying anything. Then I asked, "When?"

"Tomorrow . . . good night."

"Good night."

The next day I applied for the usual furlough given to all those about to be sent out of the country, and returned to Washington.

Rep. Thomas hit the ceiling when he found out about my new assignment. He had Gen. Persons, the Army's representative on the Legislative Deferment Board, call the colonel commanding my school at Holabird.

The colonel at Holabird said there was little he could do about the order.

"The request from Tokyo is for a man with exactly Stripling's qualifications," he told Gen. Persons.

"Listen," Persons shouted into the phone, "if this fellow Stripling is so ——— ——— important, why don't you at least promote him to private first class?"

BUT my furlough ended without further incident and I returned to camp to pack my gear again. A Lt. Murray interrupted that chore to call me to his office.

"I don't know who yau are, soldier, but I've never had as much trouble in my life. I get a call from the Secretary of State's office today . . . "

"You mean the Secretary of War's office, don't you, sir?" I asked.

"I said the Secretary of State, soldier," Murray went on. "You're to be taken off orders."

For the next few months I was a casual around the camp, working now and then at latrine duty and at other times as a sweeper around the officers' club. Toward the end of that period I became a messenger boy, but in January, 1946, I got my first definite assignment.

Finally Got Out

I was made a member of the faculty of the training division of the Counter Intelligence Course Center at Holabird, and put in Headquarters Company. The other professors ranked from first lieutenants to majors. The subject assigned to me, of all things, was subversive activities in the United States.

It was in this role that I completed my Army career. I got a kick out of it, of course, and was a little proud to rise dizzily to the estate of master sergeant after being a yardbird for so long. The extra money, I might add, came in very handy. We had had a difficult time in that department.

It took an act of Congress—the bill which enabled all servicemen with 18 months service to get out—to return me to civilian life.

BACK in Washington I was asked to give a course in subversive activities to a special class of 50 high-ranking Air Force officers at the Pentagon. A little later I spoke at the War College on the same subject, with a number of general officers in attendance.

The day I accepted the War College invitation, a general there called my office and asked my secretary to give him a brief biography, including my Army career and the various ranks I had held.

"Tell him I was a yardbird, and proud of it," I told her. The general seemed flabbergasted.

As for the House Un-American Activities Committee, it had fallen into a depressing state. I got a taste of what a lot of returning servicemen suffered when the Committee's new counsel offered me two days' work at $10 a day ". . . if I cared to return."

I had worked too hard to turn away in disgust. I brought up the question of the GI Bill of Rights, and soon was back in my job as chief investigator. There was a lot of work to do . . . as well as some work to undo.

In the latter category I did what I could to remove the aroma from what had been a recent investigation of Kreml hair tonic. It seems that a new member of the staff had detected a similarity between the words "Kreml" and "Kremlin."

Two Suspects Held

iff's deputies said.

County Attorney Waggoner Carr said V. D. Isaacs had been fined $1 and court costs in each of two charges of check law violation.

Walter Emery of Lubbock route 3 said two hub caps and a pair of fender skirts and a spare tire had been removed from his car.

Two Rifles Foud

James Butler of 1405 Ave. L said that a bike valued at $39 had been stolen from the vicinity of the Boys club, police reports showed.

The burglary of property at 122 Ave. K, reported by Jesus Romas, netted the burglar only a watch and a cigaret lighter valued jointly at about $30, City Detectives Lee Rice, jr., and Leroy Boling said.

The sheriff's department was told by E. C. Hines of Waxahachie that the following property had been taken from the farm of Mrs. H. G. Sanders in Bailey county: A knifing attachment with knives; 12 lister bottoms; a stabilizer for a tractor; a grease gun; a drag platter bottom; three sweeps; and 10 cultivator feet. A $25 reward was authorized.

E. D. Holt of 1909 Fifteenth said a tricycle with a "half-wagon" between the rear wheels had been stolen there. He valued it at $25.

Two rifles were found behind a trunk in an outhouse at 802 Third, a man called to inform police. One was described as a .22 caliber automatic, the other a .22 bolt-action weapon. Police sought to determine ownership.

4,000 Marooned

blown away, in western Nebraska, dust storms developed.

At headquarters of the Fifth Army's giant operation snowbound, Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick acknowledged that the road opening accomplishments of his snowplows and bulldozers were largely blotted out by the shifting drifts.

The West's worst winter in the Weather bureau records continued to menace isolated farm families in southern Wyoming, northwestern Nebraska and western South Dakota. There, too, hundreds of thousands of cattle and other farm animals remained in dire straits. Many of them have been fed limited amounts of hay hauled by truck through temporarily opened corridors in the snow or dropped from planes. But few herds have been fed adequately since the blizzards of early and mid-January.

How many cattle and sheep lie dead beneath snow-mounds can only be guessed.

Many Are Stranded

A brief period of thawing mild temperatures in the northern Rocky Mountain region, Washington and Oregon Wednesday was over. The above freezing temperatures played havoc in the pass and canyon areas in northern Idaho and central and western Washington. Avalanches of deep-piled snow thundered from mountainsides into the lower areas, trapping trains and isolating the mining town of Burke, a community of 800 northeast of Wallace, Ind., and 400 persons in a construction camp at Anderson Dam, Ida.

Two Milwaukee road passenger trains were still held fast by snowslides in the Cascade mountains, but passengers were being removed by bus.

PEACE TALK HELD

NANKING, Feb. 11 (AP) — An unofficial "peace delegation" of Nanking professors flew back from Peiping today "greatly encouraged" by talks with Communist leaders. Prof. Wu Yu-Hou told reporters that progress was made on Communist demands for punishment of "war criminals" and for reorganization of the Nationalist army along Red lines.

Three Are Injured In Minor Mishaps

A charge of drunk driving will be filed today against a 38-year-old man as a result of an accident at Seventeenth and Ave. O about 4:20 p. m. Friday, police indicated.

Mrs. Ona Williams of Shallowater route 1, who was riding in a pickup truck with her husband, George W. Williams, was treated at West Texas hospital for minor injuries and released. The pickup was struck from the rear by a late model Oldsmobile.

Man Is Jailed

The driver of the car, who said he lived at a local hotel, was confined to city jail pending filing of formal charges today.

James R. Henkle, jr., 27, of Lubbock, suffered a broken nose and possible fractured ribs about 7:30 p. m. when a car in which he was a passenger turned over a mile north of Lubbock on the Plainview highway, the Texas Highway patrol reported.

He was taken to West Texas hospital by a passing motorist, and admitted for further examination and treatment.

The car, driven by Joe Bailey Kemp, 28, of 1519 Ave. E, a driver for a local taxi company, turned over when it ran unexpectedly up to the rear of another car and the driver applied the brakes suddenly, the investigating patrolman said. Kemp was not reported injured.

Ronald Beck, 11, of 2418 Thirty-second, suffered bruises and abrasions of the legs about 10:15 a. m. Friday when his bicycle struck the rear of a truck at College Avenue and Twenty-sixth street, police reports showed. He was taken to West Texas hospital by Plains ambulance, treated and released.

U. S. Ousts Envoy

last night said 15 leaders of the United Evangelical churches are to be tried on charges of espionage for the United States and Britain.

Britain Lashes Reds

A common element in both Hungary and Bulgaria has been the accusation by the Communist prosecution that the churchmen were guilty of various crimes against the state through co-operation with American agents. It was in connection with such charges that the Hungarian regime expelled Stephen Koczak, second secretary of the U. S. legation, and Robin E. Steussy, third secretary.

A spokesman for the British foreign office said today:

"The Communist governments of eastern. Europe, having eliminated all democratic parties in their countries, now have launched a concerted assault on the churches in order to get a clear run for their Communist ideology."

Czech Leaders Hit

Meanwhile portents of rising conflict over religion were reported in the Soviet satellite countries of Czechoslovakia and Poland—and in Red China.

Reports from Czechoslovakia said a new campaign is rising there against the Roman Catholic hierarchy. The state-controlled Czechoslovakia news bureau told of complaints from Communist action committees that the church takes no action against priests accused of anti-state activity.

In Poland, the bishop of Katowice has accused Polish government officials of abolishing religious teaching in some schools in southern Poland. One unconfirmed report said six to 20 priests were arrested for reading the bishop's letter of complaint.

Reds Require Teaching

An Associated Press dispatch from Nanking said reports seeping through the "bamboo curtain" of Red China are to the effect that church missions operated by foreigners are being required to give daily lessons in Communism.

Protestant mission authorities were said to be compelled to pay the salaries of Red instructors whose teachings are largely anti-Christian and atheistic.

The reaction on Capitol Hill to the expulsion of Hungarian diplomat Florian was quick and enthusiastic.

Senator Connally (D-Tex), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, said:

"I highly approve the action of the State department."

Move Is "Coincident

No charges were made against Florian. He was simply declared no longer acceptable to the United States.

State department press officer Michael J. McDermott said with a straight face that it was "pure coincidence" that this move came so soon after Hungary expelled the two American legation officials, Koczak and Steussy.

This remark by McDermott was diplomatic double talk. The United States began two months ago to follow a general policy of retaliation when Americans are thrown out of iron curtain countries.

Asked about the latest espionage in Bulgaria, McDermott said most of the Americans named in that country's indictment of 15 churchmen have left Bulgaria. Twelve Americans and Britons were named in the indictments as alleged spy contacts for the Bulgarian church officials.

'Spotty' Earthquake Shakes-Up California's San Joaquin Valley

FRESNO, Calif., Feb. 11. (INS)— A sharp but "spotty" earthquake, with its epicenter placed about 15 miles from Fresno, was felt throughout most of the lower San Joaquin valley shortly after 3:06 p. m. CST today.

There were no initial reports of damage

Light fixtures swayed, dishes and windows rattled and office buildings in some areas quivered.

Dr. V. C. McKim, seismologist at Fresno State college, estimated the center of the quake was about 15 miles from Fresno with a shock force of about six. A shock force of seven is considered by seismologists as destructive.

Houston Will Get $6,000,000 Stadium

HOUSTON, Feb. 11. (AP)— City councilman Harry Holmes, Jr., had good news for Houston and all of Texas today — good news about a stadium that will outstrip all others in the nation.

Some 50 Houston men — those capable of raising $6,000,000 to build the plant — told Holmes at a meeting last night they would do just that.

The group assured Holmes that private citizens could raise $3,000,000 to complete financing of the stadium. Revenue bonds would provided an equal sum.

The meeting was private, but Holmes said today he had been told "not to worry" about the 110,000-seat stadium.

Warren S. Bellows, Houston contractor and president of the Chamber of Commerce, agreed to take over as general chairman of a steering committee. Others asked to serve on sub-committees to contact Southwest Conference schools interested in football games in the big plant.

Oilman George Strake drew loud plaudits when he said he felt "reasonably sure" Notre Dame would be glad to play an annual football game in Houston if the stadium were built. Strake is a member of the board of trustees of the Indiana school.

Cold Wave Forecast

Plains area, the weather man pointed out. While some of the flurries probably will be heavy, the total precipitation likely will be light, it was pointed out.

Diminishing wind velocities are forecast for Sunday, but temperatures are not expected to reach about the middle 20's. The cold wave will lose some of its steam Monday afternoon, the station said, when a rising trend sets in.

Mercury High Friday

Temperatures Friday ranged from a minimum of 29 degrees to a high of 67 degrees during the afternoon. The rise failed to match the earlier January record of 69 degrees, however. Strong southwest winds caused dust blowing in some sections of the South Plains.

The Weather station pointed out that one year ago today the South Plains was undergoing a cold wave with temperatures falling as low as nine degrees. The maximum on that day was 23 degrees.

To Hit Most Of State

The cold wave is expected to sweep over much of the state by late Sunday, The Associated Press reported.

Some snow flurries were forecast for parts of West Texas and the northwest section of East Texas Sunday.

Mild, mostly sunshiny, spring-like weather prevailed in the state Friday. Early morning temperatures were crisp but general above freezing. Later afternoon readings were in the fifties, sixties and seventies.

During Sunday much colder weather is forecast for all East Texas, The Associated Press said. In the Dallas-Fort Worth area for example, the forecast calls for an early Sunday reading in the upper twenties, dropping to near 20 during the day. A Saturday high of near 70 is expected in the same section.

Lubbock Bowling Teams Win Three Games At Playmor Lanes

Three matches were unreeled in the women's City Bowling league at Playmor Lanes Thursday night. One match, between the league-leading Hub Laundry and Hemphill-Wells, was postponed.

All teams were three games winners, blanking their opposition. Lubbock National defeated Mission Orange, but Marcelle Curlee rolled a high series of 445 and took individual honors with 181 pins for the losers. Judy Reed led the winners with a 160-409 series.

State Drug was unable to match Lubbock Packers and lost three games. Nell Gamble led the Packers with a 169-444 series, and Peggy Gamble scored 131-344 for the losers.

In the final contest, the Bell Ice keglers blanked KCBD. Pat Hoetger of KCBD had the highest series with a 138-397. Lovie Beavers led Bell Ice toppling 130 pins for her high game and having a 372 series.

SMU Extends Matty Bell's Grid Contract Five Years

DALLAS, Feb. 11. (AP)— Matty Bell's contract as athletic director and head football coach at Southern Methodist university has been extended five years, the Dallas News said it was learned today.

Bell's contract had two years to run when the extra five years was tacked on.

It was learned that H. N. (Rusty) Russell, first assistant coach, has been offered a new long-term contract.

Russell has been considered for the head coaching job at Vanderbilt.

The news said that the offer to Russell was made before he became a candidate as coach at Vanderbilt.

The terms of Bell's new contract were not revealed.

Illinois Town Plans Ceremonies Commemorating Lincoln's Birth

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 11 (INS) — Springfield, Abraham Lincoln's shrine city, tonight put the finishing touches to ceremonies commemorating tomorrow's 140th anniversary of the great emancipator's birth.

The city will be host to many celebrities, including Vice President Alben W. Barkley and national American Legion Commander S. Perry Brown.

Barkley is slated to address a luncheon meeting.

Brown and Illinois Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson will place wreaths at the base of the imposing memorial erected to Lincoln in Oak Ridge cemetery and participate in a 15-minute nationwide broadcast from the tomb.

Eisenhower Recalled

porting Forrestal's attempt to stop inter-service bickering over unification.

Columbia Okays Leave

The defense spokesman said Eisenhower's appointment was designed to iron out "difficulties in the joint chiefs of staff."

He pointed out that these "difficulties" fall into two categories:

"1. The question of agreement on strategic problems.

"2. The accumulating jam of routine work that isn't getting prompt attention because there is no one around to . . . instruct the joint chiefs."

One of the principal difficulties encountered in the effort to achieve greater unification has been the problem of assigning roles and missions to be carried out by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The defense official revealed that Eisenhower actually has been performing the duties of his new office in an unofficial capacity since last December.

Eisenhower has received permission from Columbia university to be temporarily absent from his post as president.

May Assign Roles, Missions

The spokesman was asked if Eisenhower will eventually succeed to the permanent rank of joint chiefs chairman. He replied: "I don't think so."

The official said that Eisenhower's job of "planning for various approaches to strategic problems may also involve so-called roles and missions."

He said that three things have tended to create a backlog of "routine work" for the joint chiefs:

1. The fact that Leahy has been sick and away from meetings of the joint chiefs.

2. The problem of military assistance to western Europe and other countries.

3. The annual work connected with legislative proposals.

Living Costs Drop

nearly four per cent on that day on the commodity markets.

Barley, corn, cottonseed oil, lard and tallow all dipped to new postwar lows and reached levels under the prices prevailing when wartime price controls first were lifted in June, 1946. Hog and steer prices receded to their lowest point since October of that year.

The commodity exchanges recovered substantially after their slump. Today the market was nervous but rallied after early price skids.

Last week's price decline, if not recovered, will result in wage cuts for 200,000 General Motors workers.

Under the unique GM work contract, wages are keyed to the cost of living and adjusted every three months. The next determination date is April 15.

A new wage level is now being figured on the basis of retail prices as of Jan. 15. The scale will be announced later this month.

consider, if necessary, a temporary halt in single home building to speed construction of mass dwelling units. He also called for extension of the rent law with tighter controls.

On the steel question, Secretary of the Interior Krug said he thinks it may be necessary to give the government mandatory powers to divide the scarce supplies among essential users. He told the economic group that demands are "far in excess" of the amount available for national defense needs as well as the country's industries.

While the Senate Labor committee took a recess in its hearings on Taft-Hartley repeal, Senator Ellender (D-La) said in a radio talk it would be "unthinkable" to scrap the 1947 labor law in favor of a "lop-sided Wagner act." The committee will resume its hearings on that subject Monday.

Truman, Churchill To Speak To Same Group On Consecutive Days

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11. (AP)— President Truman and Winston Churchill are going to speak on consecutive days at the same scholastic gathering at Cambridge, Mass.

The White House doesn't know yet, however, what chance the two will have to see each other.

Britain's wartime prime minister has agreed to address the mid-century convocation on the social implications of scientific progress on March 31. Mr. Truman accepted an invitation to talk to the same group April 1. The affair will be held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Officials Schedule District 18-A Meet

School officials and coaches of teams eligible to compete in the District 18-A girl's basketball tournament, which will include the first and second place winners of six counties— Lubbock, Lamb, Hale, Bailey, Cochran and Hockley, will meet here at 7:30 o'clock Monday night at Roy Boyd's office in the court house for an important district session.

Site and date of the District 18-A tourney will be determined at the meeting, as well as the selection of game officials. The meeting will be held under the direction of Chairman Toby Waggoner, principal and coach of the New Deal school.

Several sites have been mentioned in connection with the district tournament, including the Amherst and Lubbock High gymnasiums. There is a possibility, however, that officials will reach an agreement on another court.

The winner of the District 18-A competition will compete for the state championship at the Hillsboro tourney next month.

Drilling To Continue

Mayor W. H. Rodgers and Commissioners W. B. Price and Clarence Whiteside concurred in his proposal. Commissioner John Spikes did not attend the meeting because of illness.

The officials emphasized the expectation—shared by practically all geological opinions obtained—that any water discovered will be unfit for consumption or irrigation.

But, they argued, the risk of a few thousand dollars is justified by the possibility of a discovery which would be worth millions of dollars to Lubbock and the South Plains. Estimates are that the cost of the present test, if carried to 2.000 feet, will approximate $10,000.

Meanwhile, the commission directed that samples taken from the 942-foot sand be "checked and double-checked" by laboratory analysis.

Tests To Be Made

Carl H. Gelin, West Texas manager for the Layne-Texas Co., said this will be done. Samples were taken to Texas Technological college, which will cooperate in making the laboratory tests.

There is a possibility that the contamination of the water samples, which was salty and bitter to the taste, came from strata above the 942-foot formation. But drilling operators said the possibility is extremely remote.

The sample also will be tested for chemical and mineral contents, in the possibility that these might be present in sufficient quantities to justify development.

Mayor Rodgers suggested also that a salt water supply, even if unfit for domestic or irrigation purposes, might be useful when and if a long contemplated water-softening plant is built with bonds voted for that purpose in 1945. Salt in large quantities is an essential ingredient in the operation of a softening plant, the mayor explained.

Report Due Soon

Gelin said he expected a first report on the Tech laboratory test within a few days. Other analysis also may be made of the samples.

He also reported that deepening of the test would be started at once.

He added that the drill had penetrated 57 feet without reaching the bottom of the water formation from which the samples were taken. A sand of 57 feet was described as one of extraordinary thickness. But Gelin said that an accurate estimate of the quantity of water in the formation will be impossible without an actual pumping test, which would require special equipment and involve considerable additional expense.

tend from Feb. 15 to May 1 the date for submission of the legislative budget.

The Ways and Means committee set no limit on the length of its social security hearings.

Members agreed to consider first the provisions dealing with old age assistance and aid to dependent children and the blind.

Mr. Truman's request that social security be pushed ahead was made to Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex), and House Democratic leader McCormack, Mass., at a recent White House conference.

The White House request also was transmitted to Rep. Doughton (D-NC), chairman of the ways and means committee.

Further discussion of the building program, detailed consideration of the $166,746.66 summer session budget, reallocation of the student activity fee, and other finance matters are scheduled for this morning's meeting.

Will Attend Meeting

The board voted to send a delegation to Waco, Feb. 18, for a meeting of representatives of the 16 other state colleges to discuss issuance and allocation of bonds to the various schools under the college building amendment plan.

Under the plan and through use of general funds, buildings totaling approximately $4,000,000 could be built on the campus within the next ten years, board members indicated.

In the campus rehabilitation program, the board authorized expenditures of approximately $50,000 for such work.

Program Is Started

"We, as per your instructions, have started a complete rehabilitation and reconditioning of the entire campus," Dr. Wiggins told the board. "We're trying to get the plant back into operation on an efficient basis and reclaim a major portion of the buildings which have been allowed to get into a general run-down condition."

In detailing the estimated cost of the rehabilitation program, Dr. Wiggins revealed that $28,593 would be needed for the Chemistry building alone. The board had previously, in today's meeting, authorized an expenditure of $9,293 for plastering the entire basement floor of the building. A new roof is needed on the Textile building and replacement of gas mains, painting of buildings and other repair work was included in the reconditioning estimate.

Authority Was Asked

Dr. Wiggins requested authority of the board to seek emergency appropriations from the legislature for the larger items in the program as only $50,000 for such work had been entered in the new budget.

Approval of a $3,750 fund for scholarships for qualified citizens of Latin-American countries and possessions of the United States; changing payment of salaries from nine full payments to four and one-half payments each semester; use of Jones stadium for the annual ABC-Boys' Club rodeo for a fee of $1,300 and allocation of a five-acre area in the northern part of the campus for use by the Tech Rodeo association were other matters passed by the board Friday morning in addition to personnel changes.

Numerous faculty changes and additions were approved in blanket action along with other recommendations by Dr. Wiggins involving administrative and personnel problems.

New Members Approved

New faculty members approved included: C. Wade Gilbert, John T. Hickerson, Samuel G. Jackson, as instructors and A. Marion Westbrook and Norman G. Igo as part-time instructors in the department of Civil Engineering; William E. Green as temporary instructor in department of Economics and Management; Dr. William H. Gordon as part-time professor of sociology; Owen L. Caskey as instructor in the department of education and psychology; Louise Battin and Frank Potter as graduate teaching assistants; Vernon D. Wade as part-time instructor in the department of electrical engineering; Mary Martin, temporary instructor in the department of marketing and secretarial administration; John M. Marshall, as assistant professor, and E. H. Ford and C. W. Coffee as instructors in the department of mechanical engineering; and David C. Rich, temporary instructor of the department of physics.

All faculty appointments were for the spring semester, 1948-49.

Also approved was employment of Charles Frederick Libby as supervisory custodian of buildings and J. H. Grimsley, former custodian, as locksmith.

In the business office, Quida L. Arnold, Cora S. Spivey, Shellagh Vessey were employed as clerks; Lila Beth Whitley as assistant in the department of dormitory collections and Viola Marie Collins as secretary to the auditor; and Peggy Lois Boyd as clerk in the purchasing office.

Employment of Antonette L. Howard, Jean E. Butcher and Charlote M, Brand as clerks in the library was also included in the blanket approvals.

Resignations accepted were: Danca Dixon, secretary to the audifor; Charlotte Berger, payroll clerk; Chester Burl Hubbard, instructor in economics; Vivian Lynn Dobbs, Otellia L. Hill, Betty L. Norris, and Ruth Markhan, library clerks; Dorothy Young, assistant reference librarian; and Addie Belle Mauzey, instructor in secretarial administration. A leave of absence was granted to Mrs. Byron Chappell, instructor in speech.

An informal discussion between board members and the college athletic council last night centered on athletic business and the Southwest conference situation. Some sort of announcement may be forthcoming from the meeting today, it was indicated.

In election of officers, Charles C. Thompson, Colorado City, was re-elected chairman; Mark McGee, Fort Worth, vice chairman; and W. T. Gaston, secretary. At the request of Gaston, Frank Junnell, assistant to President Wiggins, was appointed assistant secretary of the board.

The board voted to hold its next meeting at Austin, April 11, at which time members of the legislature will be contacted regarding the various needs of the college.

Attending the Friday session besides Thompson, McGee, Wiggins, Gaston and Junnell, were other directors: Robt. B. Price, El Paso; Chanslor Weymouth, Amarillo; Charles Wooldridge, Dallas; Kyle Spiller, Jacksboro; Leon Ince, Houston; and O. B. Ratliff, Lubbock.

Norway Answered

Minister Bevin in London Monday.

As he boarded a plane, Lange said "there is no inkling of truth" in reports the State department put pressure on him during his stay to link Norway to the North Atlantic alliance.

"The situation has cleared as result of my visit," he said, "and my recommendations will depend on my reflections on the way back."

Lange first saw Acheson last Monday and raised a half dozen major questions regarding the Atlantic treaty proposal and the role Norway might play in it. He presented today a memorandum of the questions he raised in the first meeting and received answers from Acheson.

No Pressure Brought

While the meeting was secret, it was understood that in general Acheson covered these points:

1. The United States and other North Atlantic countries— seven are now negotiating a treaty draft here—would be glad to see Norway join the group when it is enlarged before the treaty is put into final form and readied for signing. But no official invitation was issued to Norway to join and responsible informants insisted that no pressure was exercised to influence the Norgegian foreign minister one way or the other.

2. The United States, subject to Senate approval of the treaty, will make the strongest possible commitment to give prompt and effective aid if any one of the countries in the alliance is attacked, but only Congress can declare war.

Objective Is Peace

3. Military action, therefore, cannot be committed in advance. But in joining the alliance, the American government would subscribe to the principle that an attack on one member nation was an attack on all and this would be interpreted as a moral commitment to fight.

4. The objective of the security system, under the United Nations charter, is peaceful and not, as the Russians have charged, aggressive. It is based on the principle that aggression by any country would be discouraged by confronting that country in advance with a powerful array of allied nations.

5. Norway, like every other member of the group, would be expected to dovetail its defense plans with over-all western grand strategy for defense, but it would not be required to provide advance bases, a point which the Russians recently raised with the Norwegian government.

CANADA'S PRIME MINISTER ARRIVES FOR PACT TALKS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (INS) — Canadian Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent arrived in Washington tonight for a visit with President Truman, during which they will discuss the North Atlantic defense pact.

The prime minister, who, has not seen the President since becoming head of the Ottawa government, came to Washington at Mr. Truman's invitation. He will stay at the Canadian embassy during his two-day visit.

Accompanied by Ambassador to Canada Lawrence Steinhardt, St. Laurent landed at National airport from Ottawa tonight and expressed hope that the defense alliance will be ready soon. He told reporters:

"We are, all hoping everywhere that arrangements soon will be at the stage where there will be concrete proposals for the consideration of the governments concerned."

St. Laurent alighted from the twin-engine Canadian government plane for a two-day conference just a few hours after Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange left for London.

Royall Believes U. S. Can Meet All Comers From Jap Positions

HONOLULU, Feb. 11. (AP) — Secretary of Army Kenneth C. Royall told a press conference today he believed the United States is "in a position in Japan to meet all comers" in the event of war in the Orient.

Royall added that in his opinion "a war in the Far East involving us is not likely."

Royall is en route to Washington after conferences with General MacArthur in Tokyo and an inspection of U. S. defenses in the western Pacific.

Asked if the United States would have to withdraw from Japan should war break out with Russia, Royall replied:

"I know of no plan to materially reduce our troops in Japan.

Garrison Cut Planned

"I am as confident as General MacArthur, and he has as good knowledge as anybody, that we are in position in Japan, in event of a war in the Far East involving us, to meet all comers."

As for a reduction of Hawaii's army garrison strength from 40,000 to 7,000 in two years, Royall said he felt the reason was "pretty obvious."

"There have been more stresses in some parts of the world than in others," he observed.

Royall said the Army faced a 25 per cent reduction in June from the 900,000-man strength it expected to have because of budget limitations on military spending.

"The most important consideration in our national defense," he said, "is the preservation of our economy, and we must cut our military cloth to fit our economy."

Beaumont Junk Dealer Given 30 Year Sentence For Killing Wife

BEAUMONT, Feb. 11. (AP) — Harold Ward, 32-year-old Beaumont junk dealer, was found guilty today of murder in the death of his 15-year-old wife here last Nov. 7. A District court set his sentence at 30 years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Joyce Ward was found dead in her trailer home. Beaumont City Detective Willard Sinclair testified that Mrs. Ward's body had been bruised and that he found a stab wound. He said he found numerous blood covered articles in and outside of the trailer.

The verdict was returned at 9 a. m. today. The jury had deliberated since 2:45 p. m. yesterday.

T. U. Officials Release Sketches For Dental School At Houston

HOUSTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—University of Texas officials today released architectural sketches of a $4,250,000 school of dentistry building planned for construction at Houston's $100,000,000 Texas Medical center.

Dr. Frederick C. Elliott, dean of the dental school, expressed hope the five-story structure will be constructed in 1950. He said current plans are dependent upon approval of the state legislature of a request for $2,500,000.

Elliott said the new building will present the latest in teaching facilities, including unit laboratories, small rooms in which four students will study sciences.

He said the new type laboratories will permit students to remain in their own units instead of going fro... one laboratory to another while studying the various sciences.

Doomed Man Asks Judge Not To Pray For 'Mercy On His Soul'

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. (AP)— "Do me a favor, please, Judge," pleaded the man who killed a friend.

"Don't say what the other judges say when they sentence a guy to the chair. Leave out the words 'may God have mercy on your soul.' Send me out with a smile."

Then Judge Carmine J. Marasco began to intone the death for the prisoner, Frank Bruno, 33.

As he reached the last phrase —"may God have mercy—" the judge's lips continued to move silently. But there was no sound in the hushed courtroom.

"Thanks, Judge, thanks very much," said Bruno as he was led away.

He is to die in Sing Sing's electric chair during the week of March 13 for the 1946 slaying of Carlo Zarcone, 27, his close friend.

549 Refugees From Europe Arrive In U. S.

BOSTON, Feb. 11 (INS) — America opened its doors today for 549 displaced persons who arrived in Boston on board the SS Marine Flasher for a new life in a new land.

The displaced persons, their eyes filling with tears as the transport was warped into its berth, were greeted by the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner."

A two-year-old boy, one of 116 children aboard the ship, became the first passenger to go ashore. However, Little Lumbyr Twerdochlib wasn't too happy about it. He was suffering from the measles and was rushed to Haynes Memorial hospital.

Two nuns were among the Marine Flasher's passengers. Sisters Ona Belvertaita and Bronsilava Balciunaite were dressed in fur-trimmed coats with gaily colored kerchiefs and print dresses. They explained that nuns in Germany cannot get material to make the customary religious habit because of shortages.

The nuns, who with other passengers made the stormy voyage from Hamburg, Germany, will live in the convent of Our Lady of Vilna in Worcester.

No Quick Action Seen On Dispute

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11—Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath said tonight the controversy among Texas Democrats over their national committeeman was a matter for settlement by the full national committee.

National headquarters here yesterday received formal protests by the Texas State Democratic executive committee and the state convention against Wright Morrow of Houston serving as Texas national committeeman.

Would Put In Skelton

They asked he be replaced by Byron Skelton of Temple.

Asked for comment on this latest development the Rhode Island senator, who also serves as national party chairman, said the matter would be referred to the full national committee at its next session.

"No meeting is in prospect at any time soon," he told a reporter.

He then substantiated, with the terse observation "that's right," the views expressed earlier in the day by John Redding, director of press relations at national headquarters of the party.

Redding had said that while the Texas case was important, it alone does not justify calling a special session of the full committee, which is comprised of a man and woman from each state, the District of Columbia and territories.

National Meeting Required

A meeting of the entire national committee will be necessary to settle the Texas dispute, Redding said.

Tom Tyson of Corsicana, secretary of the Texas state Committee, said yesterday he mailed the protest to the national committee on Tuesday.

He said that until last week he had thought the protest was sent to Washington in December.

Crosbyton Show To Open Today

CROSBYTON, Feb. 11 (Special) The annual Crosbyton Livestock show, sponsored by the Crosby County Show committee and Crosbyton merchants, will offer $305 in premiums to prize winners Saturday in FFA and 4-H club competition.

Two divisions, baby calves and swine, will be judged by Dean W. L. Stangel of the agriculture division at Texas Technological college and other judges.

Times Are Set

Calf judging is scheduled for 10:30 a. m., swine judging for 1 p. m.

Dr. Bill Romane is the general superintendent of the show. John Davis is superintendent of the calf division and Walter Knapp is superintendent of the swine division.

Two outstanding prizes will be a registered Jersey calf to be given by Wood Implement company to the outstanding FFA boy and a registered Hereford calf to be given by Crosbyton Implement company to the outstanding 4-H club boy.

The show will be conducted at Crosbyton airport.

Pedestrians Claimed Often At Fault In Traffic Mishaps

AUSTIN, Feb. 11 (AP)—An official of the Texas Safety association says that a pedestrian who gets hit by an automobile is usually as much at fault as the driver.

"Half of our pedestrian fatalities—and that's nearly 250 a year—occur because people insist on violating safety regulations by crossing streets and roads carelessly and at places not designated as crosswalks," said Albert Sidney Johnson, association vice president, today.

He added that one - fourth of of the pedestrians killed in Texas had been drinking.

"About 20 per cent of the rural pedestrian deaths can be attributed to walking on the right side of the road, with traffic, instead of against the traffic on the left side of the road," he said.

Truck Driver Is Arrested In $88,500 Theft From Mails

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—A young truck driver was arrested early today on a charge of stealing a cash shipment of $88,500 from the mails at Waukesha, Wis., less than a month ago.

Postal Inspector Elmer J. Holmes identified the man arrested as Clarence C. Stankowski, 24, Waukesha, a contract mail driver. The money disappeared Jan. 13 while it was being shipped from the Waukesha National Bank to the Chicago Federal Reserve bank, and was found in a culvert two days after the robbery.

Holmes said Stankowski has not admitted the charges. He had been given seven lie detector tests.

TAKE IT EASY, JUDGE

SAVANNAH, Ga. (U.P.) — "Ray Lax, Judge," said the man as he stepped to the front of the court. "Oh, I'm not upset," said Judge Emmanuel Lewis, who had had a hard day. He was informed that Lax was introducing himself.

Petersburg, Abernathy Stores Entered

$30,000 In Loot Is Taken In Burglaries

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 11. (Special)—A report that burglars within the last month had taken as much as $30,000 in merchandise and negotiable bonds at Petersburg and Abernathy was confirmed this afternoon by Sheriff Ted Andrews of Hale county.

Not more than approximately $1,500, representing clothing and a typewriter taken Sunday night from Haygood's Drygoods store at Petersburg, was an actual loss, however, the sheriff said.

Bonds Are Taken

The remainder of the burglary loot was removed this week from Struve Mercantile store at Abernathy, and consisted of a few dollars from a cash register, and $20,000 in non-negotiable bonds, a $20,000 note and a $1,000 life insurance policy.

The note, the bonds and the insurance policy can be reissued Frederick W. Struve, who owned most of the loss, said.

"As a matter of fact," Sheriff Andrews said, "Mr. Struve seems mostly concerned with the loss of a billfold in which the papers were contained—he had owned it approximately 30 years."

Investigation Made

Dep. Sheriff Bill Dunn, accompanied by Raymond Waters, Texas Ranger stationed in Lubbock, returned Thursday night from checking in various Texas and Oklahoma places where two men under investigation of more than 200 burglaries in recent months had been. One of the suspects, Robert Curtis Bagwill, 17, also faces a murder charge in connection with the slaying of a Stephenville service station operator.

"Most of the loot taken from the Petersburg store was probably too bulky to attract those two men, however," Andrews said he believed.

Lithuanian Liberation Leader Says Reds Fortify Baltic Coast

CHICAGO, Feb. 11 (INS) — A Lithuanian liberation movement leader said today Russia is fortifying the Baltic seacoast and is building a strong submarine base at Memel.

He is Vacys Sidzikauskas, 55, chief of the executive council for the liberation of Lithuania, headquarters of which are at Tubingen, in the French zone of Germany.

Sidzikauskas said his report of Russian fortifications came from underground sources in Soviet-occupied Lithuania.

'Ole Man River Runs Uphill According To Scientific Research

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—Now the scientists have come up with a new one. The Mississippi River flows uphill.

Dr. Lorenz G. Straub, head of the University of Minnesota hydraulics laboratory explains it this way:

The earth is thicker at the equator than at the north and south poles. The thickness increases by roughly one mile for every 480 miles north or south of one of the poles. That figures out to about 13 miles difference between the polar measurement and the thickness at the equator.

Because the Mississippi River is 1,200 miles long, the mouth of the river turns out to be about two and a half miles further from the center of the earth than the source.

Imported Bubble Gum Fad Goes Over With A Bang In Turkey

ISTANBUL, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—"Texas! Cowboy! Jumbo! Mickey!" they shout at you on Istanbul's main street these days. They are trying merely to sell bubble gum, the latest cultural import from the United States.

The gum actually isn't imported, only the idea and the names. But if the name isn't American and explosive, it isn't Turkish bubble gum. The enterprising Turkish traveler who brought the idea and the formula back from the States probably never dreamed he would see such chewing and such bubbling.

If a taxi-driver has to finish his bubble gum before he can give you your change, calm yourself. And if you stop to put a ten kuras coin in the outstretched hands of the corner beggar girl, don't be surprised if she has to swallow her bubble before she can say "May Aallah bless you."

Morrow Protest Letter Revealed

(By The Associated Press)

TEMPLE, Feb. 11.—The Temple Telegram says that "the strongest summary of the case against Wright Morrow of Houston as Democratic national committeeman" has been sent to the national Democratic committee by Tom Tyson of Corsicana.

Tyson is secretary of the Texas Democratic executive committee. The Telegram says Tyson's letter transmitting the committee's official protest on Morrow included the statement that Morrow "is even booed when he appears as a leader of our party."

Letter Is Quoted

The Telegram says Tyson wrote to national Democratic chairman J. Howard McGrath:

"The plain fact is that the loyal Democrats of this state will not follow him (Morrow), nor lend their support to any movement or project of which he is head or leader. It is unceasingly embarrassing to many of us that he is even booed whenever he appears at public gatherings as a representative or leader of our party.

"We cannot expect cohesion or unity as long as he remains in office as national committeeman."

The Tyson letter accompanied a certified copy of the state Democratic committee's resolution, passed by a vote of 46 to 6 in Dallas Nov. 18. That resolution demanded Morrow's immediate ouster and cited alleged breaches of party loyalty by Morrow. The letter was received by the national committee in Washington yesterday.

Release Is Approved

A copy of the letter was released here tonight by Frank W. Mayborn of Temple, president of the Temple Telegram. The Telegram said Tyson and state chairman John C. Calhoun of Corsicana stopped at Temple Wednesday night, enroute to Austin on other business, and the letter was read to Mayborn and to Byron Skelton of Temple. The state committee and the state Democratic convention called on the national committee to replace Morrow with Skelton.

The Telegram said it was agreed that the letter would not be released in Texas until it had been received in Washington. But it was learned from Washington that Senator McGrath did not plan to read the letter and resolutions until tomorrow. So it was decided to go ahead with the release of the letter, Mayborn said.

Conduct Cited

The paper says the letter traces in detail Morrow's conduct in the Democratic party and states he failed in loyalty to the Democratic party in these respects:

"He was a conspicious leader in the faction known as the Texas Regulars in 1944," a group which opposed the Roosevelt-Truman ticket.

"In 1948 after the national con-

Blind Austin Youths Conduct Scout Troop

AUSTIN, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—That Boy Scouts work leather, made model airplanes and build things with hammers and saws would seem only normal most of the time.

But with an Austin troop, there is one thing that's unusual. These boys do things without eyes.

Scoutmaster Charles R. Young says that Austin has the only blind Boy Scout troop in Texas, and one of a very few in the nation.

Except for a few variations, the Texas School for the Blind troop members pass the same tests to receive merit badges and work at the same hobbies as other scouts with vision. They can do about everything but become an Eagle Scout, Young said. They cannot pass the life saving test or undertake such things as bird study.

Otherwise, his boys are right at home. And several weekends a year they go camping, pitch tents and cook outdoors.

Faulty 'Beanstalk' Script Has Jack Happy At Giant's Arrival

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 11. (U.P.)—A youngster participating in a "Jack and the Beanstalk" play over television station WCMT failed to read his script correctly at a crucial moment.

"Good news, good news, here comes the giant," the youngster read.

"Hold it," said the announcer as he corrected the script with the words, "goodness, goodness, here comes the giant."

AREA OIL TESTS PUSHED

Work On Cochran Test Slated To Continue; No Showing Made

Drilling is to continue at No. 1 Adams, Stanolind Oil & Gas company wildcat adjacent to the Landon field in extreme south-central Cochran county. The well has already reached a depth of 11,000 feet, at which electric log surveys have been run.

The prospector missed the desired pay in the Strawn lime section of the Pennsylvanian, which produces regularly in some wells in the Landon pool, and made hole to 11,000 feet. It is now deepening from that point.

How much deeper the venture will be taken has not been determined but as it was running high on formations so far penetrated, operator believes the procedure worthwhile. It possibly might be carried on down for an Ellenburger test.

Location is 1,063 feet from west and 457 feet from north lines of the south half of the south half of section 13, block L, psl survey.

Reports that this venture has been temporarily abandoned are in error.

In the same vicinity, flanking the Landon-Strawn pool, Stanolind No. 2 Edwards, 660 feet from north and 528 feet from west lines of section 13, block LL, psl survey, was preparing to bore ahead from 10,215 feet in Cisco lime of the Pennsylvanian.

On that bottom, a drillstem test was attempted. Because of a mechanical failure, the examination was not secured.

Official top of the Cisco have not been reported.

Temporarily Abandoned

Frank and George Frankel have temporarily abandoned their No. 1-104 University, south-central Andrews county wildcat, on a total depth of 6,125 feet in dry lime. No shows have been reported.

It is about eight miles south and a little west of the town of Andrews and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 14, block 9, University survey.

Takes Drillstem Test

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1-B B. A. Moore, north Scurry county venture, 10 miles northwest of Snyder, and 1,880 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 492, block 97, H&TC survey, took a one hour drillstem test on a Pennsylvanian lime formation at 7,193-7,238 feet.

Recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. It is to make more hole.

HORSE IN A HURRY

DETROIT (U.P.)—Charged with speeding his junk wagon into the side of an automobile, Louis Small, 62, explained to the judge that his horse, Bob, just couldn't help being in a hurry. "He always speeds to get home for supper," he said.

TIME HIS ALLY

Lincoln's Birthday

IT MAY be difficult for those who revere the memory of Abraham Lincoln to realize he was one of the least appreciated and most unmercifully criticized during his lifetime of any President of the United States.

Lincoln haters were not confined to the South. Critics who hurt and grieved him most in the struggle to preserve the Union were some of his closest associates, including members of his Cabinet.

The campaign of 1860 in which he was elected President was the bitterest in American history, before or since. Lincoln received only 39.5 per cent of the popular vote, but won an electoral college majority because three opponents divided his opposition. He was re-elected in 1864 after another bitter fight, with Gen. George B. McClellan his opponent.

His conduct of the Civil war was constantly under fire. He was given chief blame for defeats. Critics screamed that successes were achieved despite, rather than because, of Lincoln's leadership. When he was assassinated, he was under violent attack in the North because of the humanitarian treatment he advocated for the prostrate South.

In life and in dying, he was deprived of the comfort which assuredly would have been given his sensitive soul by the feeling that his efforts were appreciated. Praise for him was scant, condemnations frequent. "Monster" was a term he read and heard often. No one imagined—Lincoln least of all—that time was to establish his unchallenged place among the greatest of the great of this or any other nation.

The fact this happened is one of many inspirations supplied by Abraham Lincoln, born 140 years ago today. It offers proof that the good men do, or attempt, usually lives after them. It should inspire those who strive unappreciated—sometimes condemned—for the betterment of others. Such people usually fare more happily than Lincoln. Generally they live to enjoy some credit for their efforts and achievements, wholly unalloyed by the vitriolic attacks which were the continuing lot of Abraham Lincoln even to the day he died.

Pudding's Proof

WHEN a bill setting minimum wage scales for policemen and firemen was being debated in Austin two years ago, supporters argued the proposed rates were less than those being paid in most cities of Texas.

Opponents warned the bill would be the entering wedge for continuing efforts in behalf of further wage increases by lobbies maintained by the affected policemen and firemen. The bill passed, and what happened?

The lobby has been busy for months and now is in Austin working for a bill to boost minimum wages an average of about $50 a month. Helping in the effort to drive the wedge deeper into the tax log are police and fire department delegations from cities as widely separated as Houston and Amarillo and Fort Worth and El Paso.

The development leaves no question as to who is justified now in saying, "I told you so." Unfortunately, any satisfaction given by such an exclamation doesn't help prospects for the taxpayer's pocketbook.

Now, Take That New Lincoln Baby, F'rinstance—

Beware Of Romance

By ROBERTA COURTLAND
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

XXV

MERRY drew a long breath and made herself get changed for dinner. Since she and Kin were having dinner there in the apartment, she put on a housecoat, a far more glamorous gown than she would have chosen for one of Marshallville's most formal parties—a garment of pale rose-colored satin brocade, printed with large paley gleaming golden roses, belted about her slim waist, the wide, billowing skirts brushing the tops of her golden sandals. A pale gold ribbon threaded through her brown curls and she was ready.

Kin looked at her in swift delight as she came in, and asked, "well, well, and how did the unfortunate young man react to the broken date?"

Merry laughed. "Oh, he wasn't happy about it, but it will do him good! He was beginning to assume certain proprietary airs."

Lissa's well trained butler announced dinner, and when Kin and Merry were at the table, Kin said cautiously, "Not that I wish to throw my weight around or be an old-fashioned parent, but I suppose the young man in question was Mike Channing? I seem to stumble over him every time I come into the place."

"Do you like him, Dad?" Merry did not realize that her voice was anxious.

"Oh, he's a nice enough guy, I'm sure. Of course the man I'd be willing to see you marry, chick, hasn't yet been born! And I doubt if he ever will be! Anyway, you're much too young to even think of marriage."

Merry laughed. "Leave us face it darling. I'm almost 18. And down home a girl who reaches that age and who isn't 'keepin' steady comp'ny' is considered well on the road to being an 'old maid.' You wouldn't want me to be an old maid, would you?"

BUT Kin, to her surprise, did not rise to her gaity. Instead he laid down his fork and leaned toward her.

"I want you to be whatever guarantees you the greatest happiness, chick," he told her solemnly. "If you will be happy as a career girl—"

"I wouldn't, Dad I'm not smart enough to have a career. I'm just an average, everyday, middle-of-the-road girl—born to be a wife and mother, I suppose."

"I hope so," said Kin gravely. "I'm still old-fashioned enough to believe it's the best possible career for a woman, chick. But dangerous."

"I think you're the type that would love one man until you die. You're not one to give your love lightly, and once it's been given, it'll be for keeps. So be very careful, won't you, chick?"

Merry drew a deep breath and there was a little mist in her eyes.

"I'll try, Dad."

They were finishing dinner, and had just decided to have coffee in the living room, when the butler came in and announced, "There's a gentleman, Miss Carson, Mr. Channing."

Merry looked up startled.

"Ask him to join us for coffee, Payson," suggested Kin and raised his eyebrows at Merry questioningly, to which she nodded

They entered the living room from the dining room as Mike came down the three low steps from the foyer. His good-looking face was a trifle grim, and Merry stared at him, puzzled.

"So you were telling me the truth," said Mike, and to Kin, politely, "Good evening, Mr Carson."

"Hello, Channing, come in," said Kin entirely without warmth. "I think you'll find Merry usually tells the truth I've known her for almost 18 years and I have found her quite truthful."

"Well, I haven't known her so long, sir, and my experience with women hasn't equipped me to understand a girl like Merry. Though I'm working on it I assure you."

THE butler brought in the handsome silver coffee service and put it down. Merry seated herself behind it, her cheeks pink, her eyes puzzled and resentful of Mike's behavior.

"Will you have some coffee, Channing?" suggested Kin politely.

"I suppose Merry has told you that she and I are going to be married?" Mike brushed aside Kin's politeness.

"Mike!" protested Merry sharply

"Why, no, as a matter of fact she hasn't." Kin and Mike were taking no notice of Merry's startled, indignant eyes. "Suppose you tell me."

"Gladly. I've been pursuing her madly since the day I first met her. I have every intention of marrying her, and no intention of waiting much longer," began Mike.

Kin said curtly, "Just a moment, Channing. You seem to forget that Merry has something to say on the subject."

"Merry is also in love with me," Mike said shortly.

"I'm not a bit sure I am," flashed Merry, and added helplessly, "Oh, this is the craziest conversation. Dad, he's been going on like this for ages, but I still didn't think he meant it. I still don't think so."

"Then you are far more stupid than I thought," Mike told her sharpely. "What am I supposed to do to make you take me seriously?"

"Just behave a little more naturally," said Merry sharply. "The very first date we had, you started pitching woo."

"A more revolting expression I've seldom heard," he snapped. "I told you then ! thought I was falling in love with you."

"And admitted you didn't like the idea."

"And I still don't! But darn it, there it is. I'm in love with you, and I'm miserable when I'm away from you."

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

THIS column is written especially for Joe Stalin of Moscow, Russia.

I would have sent him the full-page advertisement in this morning's paper, but I think there is some kind of a law that says private individuals must not communicate directly with heads of foreign governments, and I don't want to go to jail.

BRANDEIS

The advertisement is published by the Radio Corporation of America and is headed "An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

Due credit for this bit of wisdom is given to Benjamin Franklin who is supposed to have uttered it in 1733.

Now to the ad itself.

It starts:

"For his outstanding contributions to electronics, particularly to the development of television, Dr. Vladimir Kosma Zworykin—Vice President and Technical Consultant of RCA Laboratories—has received the Gold Medal Award for Achievement of the Poor Richard Club, presented each year on the anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin."

Farther down in the text, after enumerating some of Dr. Zworykin's important contributions to the advancement of television, the advertisement continues:

"Recognition of the importance of these advances came in the Twenties, when Dr. Zworykin's important contributions to the advancement of television, the advertisement continues:

"Recognition of the importance of these advances came in the Twenties, when Dr. Zworykin described them to Brig. General David Sarnoff, head of RCA. Envisaging the immense potentialities of all-electronic television, General Sarnoff enthusiastically encouraged Dr. Zworykin to continue his work.

"Since then, millions of dollars have been spent by RCA in the development of television IN THE INTEREST OF NATIONAL SECURITY AND AS A SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC." The capitals are mine.)

I HOPE Joe Stalin will read this ad.

None of our statesmen seem to have been able to convince him that we are really a Democracy, that our one great aim is national security and service to the Public. AND NOTHING ELSE.

If Joe Stalin has a "Who's Who in America" in his Kremlin library, he will find that both Dr. Zworykin and Brig. General Sar-

PARTY FEUD CONTINUES

GOP Leaders Clash

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Two high-explosive swashbucklers on the Republican side of the House aisle—Rules committee Member Clarence J. Brown of Ohio and former Majority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana—are only now approaching speaking terms after a grammar school boys' exhibition of childish, political soreheadedness.

In miniature, their personal display of temper and rivalry reveals what is wrong with the raging Republicans today. Save for his private comments on his political protege, even Al Smith and the late F.D.R. kept their bitter feud on a fairly lofty level. Only their cronies knew how much they hated each other.

TUCKER

EMBITTERED: Mr. Brown was Senator Robert A. Taft's pre-convention manager, and the big, bulky Clarence had every reason to believe that Mr. Halleck would support a fellow-Middle Westerner at the Philadelphia convention. Mr. Brown counted on the boy from Indiana to deliver his delegation to Senator Taft.

But the ambitious Hoosierite, despite his relatively minor role in the party, thought he saw a chance to cop the vice-presidential nomination. In a surprise move, he threw his support to Governor Thomas E. Dewey, and, with Pennsylvania, he helped to smash the Taft-Stassen coalition against the Albany entry.

But Mr. Dewey could not afford to have as running-mate one of the most reactionary Republicans in the House, and the man largely responsible for giving some substance to the Truman charge that the 80th session was a "do nothing body."

The public snub embittered Mr. Halleck, personally and politically. His resentment boiled over when, in addition, the Democratic sweep robbed him of his majority leadership.

OPPOSITION: Nor was Mr. Brown, a normally dour individual, in a particularly happy mood when he returned to the Capital for the January session. In fact, it is doubtful if there are two grumpier individuals on the House side today than Clarence and "Charley."

As a leading member of the anti-Truman, bi-partisan alliance on the Rules committee, the Ohioan had swaggered around as one of the most influential figures on "the Hill." He could dictate the fate of legislation, and he was one of the organization's strong men.

In fact, his bitter opposition to many rather liberal, Senate-passed measures was, with Halleck's obstinacy, largely responsible for so many losses of Republican House seats last November.

Oddly enough, although he headed Senator Taft's campaign, he seemed to take special delight in bucking and blocking measures which the Ohio Senator had steered through the upper chamber.

POST: But Mr. Brown, like Mr. Halleck, lost his halo soon after his return to Washington for the current session.

In revising rules of procedure, the Democrats quickly stripped the committee of that name of its czaristic power over legislation. The erstwhile Buckeye boss became only another member of the minority.

Nevertheless, he was strong enough to pay off old scores against Mr. Halleck. When the Hoosierite lost his majority leadership, and when Former Speaker Martin stepped down into the Minority Leader's shoes, Mr. Halleck demanded the next most important post. He wanted to be Assistant Minority Leader, or Republican Whip.

But Mr. Brown argued, quietly and effectively, that Representative Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, who handled that job during Republican rule, should be retained. Mr. Martin, who also disliked the Halleck sellout to Dewey, agreed. So, "Charley," like Mr. Brown, is merely a member of the opposition.

OFFICE: Messrs. Brown and Halleck are now speaking to each other, although so far only through the loudspeaker system in the House.

A few days ago, when Mr. Brown was assailing the Truman Administration from the well, Mr. Halleck stood up alongside the minority bench, grabbed the "talkie" instrument and interjected a few rhetorical questions in an attempt to amplify the Ohioan's indictment.

Without lifting his eyes from his notes, Mr. Brown snapped:

"I thank the gentleman from Indiana."

Although Mr. Halleck lost out as Minority Leader, he still keeps the luxurious office space that goes with that post. Mr. Arends must do his "whipping" from remote and inconvenient quarters in the House Office Building a block away.

In short, the G.O.P. bosses in the House have a post-election "mad" against each other.

REDS: Although the House Un-American committee under both the Dies and Parnell Thomas regimes admittedly deserved criticism, a windup survey entitles them to considerable credit: They did awaken millions of citizens to the dangers of Communist designs in this and other countries.

In its ten years of life, this group published 600,000 copies of documents dealing with the Reds' philosophy and procedure here and abroad. The most popular has been a pamphlet entitled "100 Things You Should Know About Communism in the U.S.A." More than 500,000 copies have been distributed. The second best seller has been "100 Things You Should Know About Communism and Labor."

In addition to the direct demand, which exceeds present supply, summaries of all findings have been reprinted in newspapers and magazines, and relayed over the radio. The general support for the Administration's anti-Russian program is due largely to this propaganda.

The trend towards more and better federal pensions, unemployment compensation, subsidies, social security, medical services, etc., gives rise to the hope that the day may not be far off when the government will supply all our necessities and we can spend all our money for luxuries.

It is remarkable or something that in many a case when a man contracts amnesia, one of the first things he forgets is his wife.

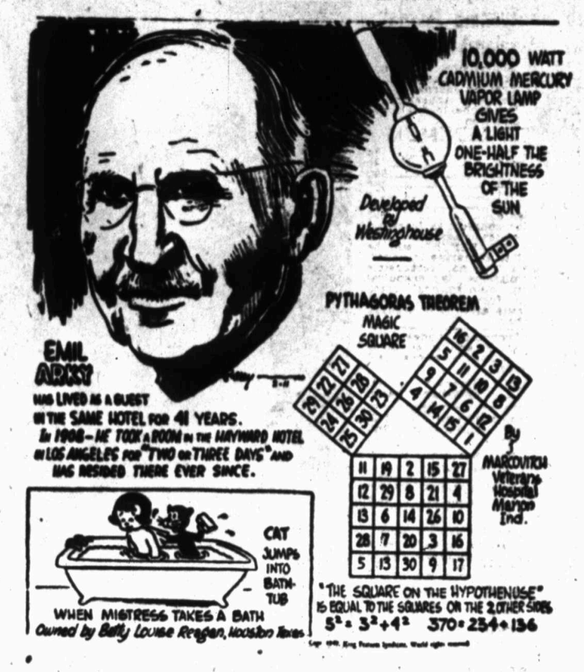

"The best automobile driver is a high grade moron," says a traffic expert. The trouble is, though, that most of our cars are driven by morons in the lower brackets.

Elementary arithmetic that many supposedly adult citizens don't know: Whenever the government supports the people, the people support the government in an equal amount, plus high handling charges.

If the average person were to give a good kicking to the one responsible for most of his troubles, he couldn't sit down for a week.

About all the earth the meek will ever inherit will be thrown over them with a shovel.

Believe It Or Not - - By Robert Ripley

GOP LEADERS MAY FACE PROBLEM

Dewey Still Not Out Of Picture

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Governor Thomas E. Dewey does not look like the late William Jennings Bryan. He does not act like him. He does not think like him. He does not, in fact, in any way remotely resemble the bulky fellow with the curling locks and the big black hat and the parson's coat who for so long was a dominate influence in the Democratic party, and ultimately to the annoyance of the regular leaders.

But, despite all these differences, the Republican party may have something approaching a William Jennings Bryan on its hands in Tom Dewey. This is not to suggest that the still-young and vigorous New York governor will equal the record of the "great commoner" by winning the nomination of his own party for a third time, though he did break precedent by becoming the only defeated candidate of the Republican party to be renominated.

STOKES

Looking To Future

However, it would be foolish to predict at this time that Thomas E. Dewey would not again be his party's candidate, unlikely as it may seem, with the surprises possible in politics. For evidence it is necessary only to bring up the last election, which fooled so many experts.

But, whatever happens, anyone who watched Tom Dewey's performance at the Lincoln dinner here could be sure that the young man intends to be an influence in his party, just as was Mr. Bryan for so many years. There were no dulcet tones of the swan song in his speech, rather to the contrary. This was not a man who was retiring. After all the shellacking he took from the Republican elders recently at the Omaha national committee meeting, he came back smiling and confident and threw it all back in double measure. And, significant as anything else, he personally arranged for this interesting resurrection. He is plainly up to something.

His whole speech was addressed to the future.

William Jennings Bryan, at the age of 36, captured the imagination of his party's convention and then of the rank and file of his party at a point in our history when a new popular revolution was sweeping up on the farms and in the cities. By his appeal to the rank and file he literally stole the party away from the old-line Democratic party bosses who had been playing a game of "tweedledum and tweedledee"—as Franklin D. Roosevelt once described it—with the Republican party since the Civil war. He kicked the bosses around and, like Mr. Roosevelt after him, became the big boss, himself.

Any Old Guard Republicans who are nervous might stop reading here, even though they remember the rest of the Bryan story—how the then-young man not only went on to win a couple of other nominations in 1900 and 1908, but also turned up at the Baltimore Democratic convention in 1912 to dictate a nomination, that of Woodrow Wilson. He was still around, messing into things, in 1924, at that Madison Square Garden fiasco where he got second place on the ticket for his brother Charles.

He started early. So did Tom Dewey who won his first nomination at 42; his second, at 46.

GOP Split Admitted

The Dewey technique now is clearly to appeal to the rank and file against the old-line party bosses. Previously he has been on his manners with the bosses, gentle and beguiling, though fully aware that it was his popular rank-and-file support that gave him the nomination twice contrary to their wishes. He was brutally frank at the Lincoln dinner, though still polite. If he would really toss off the wraps there's no telling what might happen.

The times are appropriate. The party is in the throes of an inner revolution that has broken into the open. Governor Dewey frankly recognized that publicly, thereby giving it a push. He is conscious of its potentialities. He took the first opportunity to seize upon it and capitalize it. If successful he might continue a powerful factor in the party, whether he ever is the candidate again or not.

This revolution is healthy and all to the good. Governor Dewey sees a chance for the party to become a young man's party. Its titular leader, as he called himself with a wry smile, is a young man. The two outstanding candidates for 1952—if he is not himself one, too—are young men, Harold Stassen, who is 41, and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, who is three months younger than Tom Dewey.

Each is a personality, and you may find personalities outweighing issues in the party by the next presidential election.

ARE YOU YOUR HUSBAND'S LITTLE VALENTINE?

GIVE HIM YOUR LOVE WITH THESE REMARKS:
1 That you are tired of staying at home and want a car!
2. That you never get to do anything only cook, wash dishes and dry the baby.

BE SURE TO REMIND HIM THAT:
1. Your friends have bought a good car from Womble Olds and we can afford it if they can!
2. Every time you do start out in the old car something goes wrong and you have to take the bus after all.
3. You want to see your folks more often. You see his family every day (they only live around the corner) but you haven't seen mom for a month.
Oh, there are thousands of little meanies to say. By the time you've said these, you'll be able to conduct your own campaign.

THEN: BRING HIM IN AND WE'LL WORK ON HIM.
Maybe you will get the car and maybe you won't, but think of the fun you'll have!

(NO BRICKBATS PLEASE)
ANYWAY
You'll like our way of doing business!

Solon Fears Red Grasp In Orient

By NEIL SHAW
INS Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 11—U. S. Senator Owen Brewster (R-Maine), charged today in Sacramento that "if Stalin had been in charge of our State department for the past three years he could not have done a better job to serve the cause of Communist penetration in China."

Brewster, in Sacramento to speak tonight before a Lincoln day dinner sponsored by the Sacramento County GOP Central committee, declared also:

"Here on the shores of the Pacific at the Golden Gate this age old vision of a united world at last had its dramatic birth.

Fears Reds In Orient

"The child is having a tough time. The iron curtain of Communism threatens to clang down on the open door in the orient."

Brewster asserted that the American doctrine of "this century of a free and peaceful orient is threatened with destruction by the advancing hordes of a modern Genghis Khan."

The U. S. senator, who is cochairman of the Senate GOP Policy committee, went on to say that:

"Certainly no one on the West Coast will have any illusions as to American trade with a Communist dominated China on any other terms than seem at the time advantageous to the masters of the Kremlin.

Before elaborating at a news conference on his ideas of the situation in the orient, Brewster expressed these beliefs:

Mention Labor Law

1. That no one in Washington, D. C., takes seriously the "talk" that the Taft-Hartley labor law will be repealed. He said doubtless it would be somewhat modified, but will remain substantially the same.

2. That Alaska stands a better chance of gaining statehood than Hawaii because Hawaii's plea for statehood may be hotly opposed by southern lawmakers who see in such a move a new racial problem.

3. That there is little chance of President Truman's newly proposed four-billion-dollar tax boost getting the approval of Congress because it will be battled by "all Republicans and some strong Democrats."

4. There is a "good chance" of the Republicans controlling the next Senate. "We only need seven more to gain control," Brewster said.

Air Conditioning Has But Little Effect On Heart, Survey Shows

CHICAGO, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—People with heart trouble can go into an air conditioned theater on a hot summer day and not worry about any ill effects.

That conclusion was reached in a study made by the University of Illinois.

Experiments were made on 10 healthy male medical students, ranging in age from 19 to 29, and on 16 cardiac patients, from 25 to 72 years old. Results showed that there is little difference in the way persons with heart disease and those with normal hearts react to sudden changes in temperature.

Horatio Alger's Success Story No Longer 'Acceptable' Reading

CHICAGO, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—The books of Horatio Alger, Jr., whose rags-to-riches tales were once the success inspirations of American boys, no longer are acceptable reading for young people, a librarian reports.

Only a few of Alger's 135 books which sold 200,000,000 copies to past generations, can be found on library shelves now, Miss Helen Kinsey, American Library Association book specialist, said in an interview here.

Miss Kinsey, who advises many libraries in the selection of books for youngsters, said that books of a more acceptable character-building theme are substituted for Alger's works. Alger wrote unlikely stories of the fortune that came to poor boys of good character.

Such Alger novels as "Ragged Dick" and "Phil the Fiddler" are "slovenly written and out-dated," Miss Kinsey said. Only small libraries in country communities have his books on lending shelves today.

Bohemia's Fresh Water Pearl Supply Protected By Government

PRAGUE, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—Landlocked Bohemia soon will have its own private pearl supply.

A colony of pearl-bearing fresh water shellfish was discovered several years ago in the Otava river, in southern Bohemia, and has been officially protected so it could multiply undisturbed. In a few years it expected to be large enough to permit regular harvesting of the pearls, which are said to be of excellent quality.

The fresh water "pearl-creators," as the Czechs call them, are rare in this part of the world because they need fresh-rushing water with a high oxygen content for full development.

Besides the pearls, Czech industry plans to use mother-of-pearl from the shells for buttons and ornaments.

STOCKS CONTINUE DROP

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. (AP)—The stock market stayed on the downgrade today.

A feeble try at a rally trimmed some losses, and lifted a few stocks into the plus column, but declines of fractions to 2 points or more were in the majority at the final bell.

The decline, the latest in a trend which has been under way with only minor interruptions for three weeks, put the general level of prices at the lowest point in almost eleven months.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .2 of one point to 63.1, a bottom since March 18 and less than 3 points from the 1948-49 low.

Volume of business contracted to 880,000 shares from 980,000 Thursday.

Trading had little urgency behind it, in part because of the Saturday recess in observance of Lincoln's birthday.

Farnsworth Television and Radio, the most active issue, recouped a small fraction of recent heavy losses. The stock closed ¼ higher at 1⅝, which contrasted with a 1948-49 high of 11⅝. Heavy selling walloped the issue in connection with a proposal for sale of the company to International Telephone.

American Telephone, up ¾ at 146, and Central Railroad of N. J., 1⅛ higher at 24½, made a good showing. Others a little higher included Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Kennecott Copper and American Woolen.

Nickel Plate dropped 3½ to 73 and Allied Chemical lost 2 at 171½.

Also down were U. S. Steel, Packard, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Schenley, Consolidated Edison, International Nickel, American Can, Westinghouse Electric, Dow Chemical, U. S. Gypsum, Southern Pacific, Gulf Oil, Barnsdall Oil, Paramount Pictures, and International Paper.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 (AP) — Cotton futures were easy in early dealings but moved higher later on short covering and mill buying, partly influenced by the extended holiday week-end. Commission house selling and hedging at one time had depressed prices more than $1 a bale under the previous close, reflecting nervousness over the Washington developments of commodities. The continued hand-to-mouth buying in cotton textiles and smaller activity in the spot cotton market contributed to the dullness in futures.

Cotton futures rallied into new high ground for the day in late dealings on mill buying and short covering.

Futures closed 60 cents a bale higher to 30 cents lower than the previous close.

City Transit Workers' Strike Cripples Travel In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11 (AP)—Men and women truged the streets of Philadelphia like a vast army of ants today as a strike of CIO transit workers choked off the main arteries of travel in the nation's third largest city.

Most of the 3,200,000 passengers who ride daily over the 1,500 miles of subway, trolly and bus lines of the Philadelphia Transportation company lines in the city were resourceful enough to reach their jobs.

Many were late. Some never made it. Snow-crusted streets heaped an extra hardship on the laughing, joking throngs who inched their way to town aboard slow-moving, jammed-to-capacity suburban railway trains, by foot or by flagging down the unending stream of passing autos.

1948 Fire Loss Sets New High

By KENNETH MILLER
United Press Staff Writer

BOSTON, Feb. 11.—The greatest fire loss in United States history occurred last year, enough to pay nearly $5.50 to every man, woman and child in the country.

Ninety per cent of the record $800,000,000 that went up in flames in the U. S. and Canada could have been saved by common sense and adherence to existing fire codes, the National Fire Protection Association reported.

Some 11,000 persons perished, with twice that number injured and maimed for life. The No. 1 hazard as usual was careless smoking.

In addition, the money lost would pay a full 12 months' salary to every factory worker in Rochester, N. Y., and San Francisco, Cal.

California Troubled

The greatest single death blow was the crash and explosion of a passenger plane at Mt. Carmel, Pa., last July 17 in which 43 died, among them the showman Earl Carroll.

But California was the nation's "hot spot," with nearly 10 per cent of the country's record number of 268 large fires, each causing more than $250,000 damage, centered there. The state also had 33 fires costing more than $1,000,000 apiece, the association said.

Several new hazards have come up in the past year to plague fire-fighters. The report said they include self-service gasoline stations and television installations now mushrooming over the countryside.

17 Die In One Fire

The largest building fire loss was in the Brach Candy Co. plant in Chicago, where an explosive starch dust mixture in the air touched off a $5,000,000 blast and killed 17 workers.

The biggest dollar loss of all occurred on the ocean, however, when the Army transport Joseph T. Connolly caught fire last winter en route to Europe with coffins to bring home American war dead. Though the ship was taken in tow several times, it finally broke away and drifted the seas, a ghost hulk. Both vessel and cargo were written off as complete losses amounting to $6,000,000.

Second only to the Chicago candy company fire in dollar loss on land was the blaze in a Durham, N. C., food and grocery warehouse Oct. 8. Firemen fought to put out the flames smoldering in thousands of cereal sacks for days. Insurance companies paid the owners $2,260,000.

Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 99th District Court of Lubbock County at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 14th day of March A. D. 1949, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 27th day of January A. D. 1949, in this cause, numbered 16493 on the docket of said court and styled W. M. FORMER AGENT BEING WATCHED

General Says Power Of Soviet Spy Organization Is 'Staggering'

By JOHN RICH
INS Staff Correspondent

TOKYO, Feb. 11 — Gen. Douglas MacArthur's military intelligence chief declared today that the power of a world wide "master organization" of Soviet spies is "staggering."

Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby declared that there was no reason to believe that pre-war Japanese members of this espionage organization were not now spying for the Soviets.

Gen. Willoughby and his agents compiled the U. S. Army's report on the Richard Sorge Soviet spy ring in pre-war Japan.

Whereabouts Known

When asked about the present whereabouts of "20 or so men and women of various nationalities" who operated with Sorge and were released by American amnesty for political prisoners, the intelligence chief said:

"We know where they are and what they are doing."

Gen. Willoughby reported that Red espionage agents in the Sorge group, those who operated in Canadian atomic case, and spies working in the United States, all followed a similar pattern of activity. The general added:

"There is no reason to believe that this pattern does not exist in other countries."

Selected Two Nisei

MacArthur's intelligence director then cited an example of the power of the world wide "master organization."

He related how two Nisei (American-born Japanese) were selected by the Sorge organization for a mission in Japan. He said:

"The power of such an international Communist espionage unit to pick out two members of the American Communist party and send them to Japan to do work is an amazing thing . . . the power of such a secret organization is staggering.

"The unit picked two American Nisei members of the party and sent them to Japan.

"The organization worked with administrative arrogance. It was able to say to so-and-so in Chicago that he should report to San Francisco where he would be given a ticket, a passport and instructions."

Gen. Willoughby declared that his intelligence department has more evidence against Agnes Smedley, New York writer, than appeared in the Sorge report published yesterday. The report referred to her as "a spy and agent of the Soviet government."

(Miss Smedley, in New York, said this charge was a "despicable lie" and declared she would sue Gen. MacArthur if he "waived his immunity.")

Gen. Willoughby said that he himself would be "morally delighted to waive immunity" and invite a suit by Miss Smedley. He stated, however, that he would have to consult his superiors on whether it would be advisable to set such a precedent.

Looking At Life

noff were born in Russia—the one in Mourom in 1889, the other in Uzlian, Minsk, in 1900.

He will find that both were the sons of poor parents, that both came to America, were given every chance to make good, were shown everything that is to be seen in this country and taught everything that they wanted to learn.

Regardless of race, religion and origin they were given many honors when they deserved those honors—and today both of them are outstanding citizens of the United States; both have been taken into the American family and are considered an integral part of our own lives and activities.

Incidentally, "Who's Who in America" lists hundreds of foreign-born Americans, all of whom found their opportunity in this land that has no iron curtain.

Doctor Of Locks Retires From Duties After 58 Years On Job

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—"Doc" William Tibi is putting away his little black bag after 58 years of practice.

But his retirement will go unnoticed by the American Medical Association, because Doc's patients were jammed locks and safes.

Tibi assumed the title after a few years of running out on emergency calls from frantic Pittsburgers. Besides solving puzzling lock problems, Tibi also practiced the "lost art" of keymaking at his shop.

Tibi filed keys by hand and boasted he could turn out six hand-made products in the time "them new-fangled machines turn out one."

Swedes Use Old U. S. Aircraft Carrier In Merchant Marine

BALTIMORE, Feb. 11. (U.P.)—The U.S.S. Archer, a jeep aircraft carrier which saw service under the American and British flags during the war, will return to sea again soon as a merchantman, this time flying the Swedish flag.

The reconverted warship has been renamed the S.S. Anna Salen and will fly the house flag of her new owners, Rederi Pulp of the Sven Salen shipping firm in Stockholm, Sweden. Officials of the Bethlehem Steel Key Highway shipyard at Baltimore said the reconversion, which cost $1,500,000, was one of the largest on record.

Protest On Morrow

vention Mr. Morrow expressed himself according to the public prints of his home city as favoring a referendum whereby it would be decided whether Truman and Barkley would be allowed to run in Texas as Democrats—this when he was acting as national committeeman from Texas.

"The leaders in the . . . Dixiecrat movement . . . included many prominent members of the Harris county (Houston) delegation of which Mr. Morrow was a member.

"Mr. Morrow was invited to appear before the (state conventions) committee on party officers and he declined to appear."

The paper says Tyson also wrote that in his opinion as a lawyer the September State Democratic convention in presidential years has the right to reverse actions of the earlier May convention, and cited court cases in support of that view. Morrow was named committeeman by the May convention at Brownwood. The September convention voted to oust him.

"Personally I cannot think of a solution so devoutly to be wished as Mr. Morrow's speedy and voluntary withdrawal from this controversy," Tyson wrote.

In Fort Worth recently, answering a suggestion by Rep. Patman of Texas that he resign, Morrow said he didn't intend to quit.

Morrow was in Fort Worth for a meeting of a group of party leaders who left up to him the number of fund raising Jefferson-Jackson day dinners which would be held in Texas.

He has denied he has been disloyal to the party.

Milk Price Reduction Is Announced In Houston Area

HOUSTON, Feb. 11 (AP)—Houston milk prices began to fall today.

The South Texas Producers association announced that effective February 20 it will reduce its prices from $7.15 a hundred pounds to $6.80.

The Borden company said it will not wait until the producer's reduction becomes effective. Instead, it will make a one-cent per quart cut starting tomorrow.

Other companies have not taken action but officials indicated they would follow Borden's move as soon as the association's reduction goes into effect.

Northern Ireland Votes To Remain In United Kingdom

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Feb. 11. (AP)— Voters preferring to stick with Britain have easily turned back a challenge for control of Northern Ireland's parliament by backers of Eire's new Republic of Ireland.

Returns today from the general election Thursday quickly clinched a majority for candidates pledged to keep Northern Ireland in the United Kingdom.

At nightfall the United Kingdom faction held 21 seats to seven for the opposition, with 14 to be decided.

In the old parliament, the lineup was 35 to 17.

The street cars, trolley coaches and buses of America carried 25 times as many passengers last year as the nation's railroads.
