

EASTER

Hundreds Expected For Sunrise Rites

As the sun rises at 6:19 Easter Sunday, hundreds of residents are expected to flock to the City Amphitheater to hear the story of the Resurrection and the promise of peace in the annual community Easter worship services.

Guided by a committee of Big Spring residents, the traditional observance has grown each year of the 30 years since it was initiated.

Dr. Lance Webb, Methodist bishop from Springfield, Ill., a relative of Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, will be the speaker. He is a well-known theologian, author, lecturer and traveler, who has been active in the ministry and in ministerial and community concerns for many years.

Dr. Webb is a former chaplain to the Ohio State Senate and was named one of the ten Top Men of the Year in 1962 by the Columbus Citizen-Journal. He is current chairman of the commission on worship of the Methodist Church, in addition to many other activities.

A highlight of the program will be selections by the Big Spring High School Band, under the direction of Bill Bradley, and the combined choirs of Howard County Junior College and Big Spring High School, led by Kenny Sheppard, of the high school choral department.

Helped With Planning

Many citizens have helped plan the program, but one of the most active will not be able to attend. He is the Rev. Leo Gee, pastor of the First Methodist Church, who is confined to his home because of illness. Rev. Gee, who was to handle the offertory part of Sunday's program, will be replaced by the Rev. Dan Sebesta, pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian Church and the newly-elected Bible fund chairman of the Big Spring Pastors' Association. The offertory will go towards supporting the Bible class in the public schools.

Others helping plan the services have been members of the Ambassadors Club, who are to serve as ushers; the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs, other garden clubs and Mrs. O. S. Womack; work crews of the City of Big Spring, who have been "facelifting" the amphitheater in the past few weeks; and a color guard from Webb AFB, who will present the colors after the trumpet fanfare.

Call To Worship

Presiding will be the Rev. Homer Rich, president of the Big Spring Pastors' Association, who will lead the call to worship. Glenn Faison, music director at the First Baptist Church, is in charge of special music. Dr. Milton Talbot, president of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor Arnold Marshall will read the Scripture lesson. Offering the pastoral prayer will be Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Robert Deming, wing chaplain, Webb AFB. The Rev. John Beard will word the benediction.

Congregational singing will include "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"; "Christ the Lord is Risen Today"; and "Look, Ye Saints." Organist will be Mrs. H. M. Jarratt.

Police will assist with traffic, and Webb will operate special buses so that military personnel may attend services.

Bring A Blanket

There is only one reminder — bring a warm blanket as the early morning air is expected to be nippy. The weatherman has tentatively forecast fair and mild weather for the weekend, but in case of inclement weather, the observances will be held in the First Baptist Church, 701 Marcy.

U Thant Talking Too

PARIS (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant talked for an hour and 20 minutes today with North Vietnam's top representative in the West, presumably about the proposed meeting between representatives of Washington and Hanoi.

A communique from Thant's staff said his talk with North Vietnamese diplomat Mai Van Bo was "conducted in a cordial atmosphere."

The secretary-general said Thursday in Luxembourg, he believed Washington-Hanoi talks "could start within a matter of two or three days" but gave no indication on what he based his prediction. Earlier in the day he said the talks might start next week.

Last Straw

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Bexar County Sheriff's Department investigator Alvin Johnson announced Thursday — with some personal satisfaction — the breaking up of a car theft gang he said had stolen 300 cars in the past four years.

"What really got me working was when they stole my car in front of the courthouse," Johnson said.

Johnson Plans Hawaii Trip For Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today President Johnson will meet Wednesday in Honolulu with President Chung Hee Park of South Korea.

The announcement said Johnson would leave for Hawaii from his Texas ranch where he will spend the Easter Weekend.

DELAYED

The meeting with Park had been planned for last weekend, when Johnson was scheduled to fly to Honolulu to meet also with his advisers from Vietnam.

But that trip was canceled after violence erupted in the nation's capital and other U.S. cities following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Instead, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. military commander in Vietnam, and Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to South Vietnam, flew to Washington for conferences.

South Korea has nearly 50,000 combat troops in South Vietnam and has asked for a voice in any peace negotiations.

TENSIONS

The discussions also would presumably include South Korean tensions over signs of increased aggression by North Korea and the captured U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo and its 82 crewmen now held in North Korea.

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' draft quota for May is 2,131 men, all for the Army, state Selective Service headquarters said today.

SHOWERS TO DOWNPOURS

Mighty Wet Easter Forecast For Texas

By The Associated Press

It looks like Texas is in for a mighty wet Easter.

The Weather Bureau's extended forecast through Wednesday calls for rain in all sections of the state Sunday.

Forecasters say the precipitation should range from showers in Northwest Texas to heavy downpours in South and Southeast Texas.

Clouds thickened over Texas today as moist air poured into the state, flowing strongly from the southwest and with less vigor from the southeast.

Light showers fell in a Panhandle-Plains area embracing Amarillo, Borger, Plainview,

Artists' View Of Murder Suspect

FBI Order To Locate Suspect Is Withdrawn

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The FBI issued, then withdrew, a request that Florida police help locate Eric Starvo Galt, a white man, as the investigation of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. entered its second week.

Federal agents refused to say why they were seeking Galt, whose last known address was Birmingham, Ala.

A source in the Dade County Public Safety Department in Miami said the FBI bulletin began: "Reference locate and notify no warrant issued Eric Starvo Galt," then described Galt and the Mustang. The message concluded: "If located notify Agent Charles Bell FBI Miami."

"This meant they wanted him spotted, not picked up," the Miami source said. It was reported originally that a pickup order had been issued.

The bulletin, 3rd graf 33.

CAR SIMILAR

The bulletin distributed on the statewide police teletype network in Florida said Galt was driving a white Mustang. Witnesses in Memphis told investigators earlier they saw a man in a white Mustang drive away from the rooming house from which King was shot last Thursday night.

At about the same time the pickup order was sent in Florida, federal agents in Atlanta impounded a white Mustang that had been parked since last Friday at a public housing project near the Georgia state Capitol.

The message, withdrawn with the explanation that it was released by mistake, described Galt as a white male, 36 years old, about 5-foot-11 and 175 pounds with blue eyes and brown hair.

This roughly matched the description circulated by federal authorities the night of King's slaying.

Special Agent John Hanlong of the Miami FBI office, who withdrew the pickup order about four hours after it was issued said, "I cannot comment," when asked for further details.

The Florida teletype message said Galt was last seen driving a white 1966 Mustang hardtop, Alabama license 1-58993. Birmingham police said this tag had been issued to Eric S. Galt, 2608 Highland Ave., Birmingham.

In Atlanta, the residents who first told police about the abandoned white Mustang said the car bore the same Alabama license as given out by the FBI and bore two stickers which said "Tourista." Earlier reports

Rocky Still May Get In

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says there might be circumstances under which he would formally enter the presidential race before the Republican National Convention in August.

He made the statement in answer to a newsman's question Thursday, some time after he had repeated at a news conference that he was available for a draft at the convention for the presidential nomination.

The question was whether there might be circumstances whereby, instead of waiting for a draft at the convention, he "officially" could be a candidate before the convention opens in Miami Beach, Aug. 5.

"Could be," he replied. Asked to explain how this might come about, Rockefeller said only: "I just said it could be."

Rockefeller had said at the news conference that he still is available as a candidate if his party wants him, and he expressed confidence he could win in the November election if he were the GOP nominee.

Pair Freed Near Snyder By Kidnapers

SNYDER, Tex. (AP) — A young Fort Worth couple was kidnapped Thursday and the girl was raped. Officers in this West Texas oil center filed kidnapping charges today against three Louisiana persons, still at large.

Authorities in adjoining Borden County where the two were set free said charges of armed robbery and rape were being prepared.

BOND SET

Justice of Peace W. W. Matthews of Fort Worth set bond for Jessie Smith, Edna Martin and Harvey Webb at $20,000 each.

The couple told police of being seized at gun point while parked near Benbrook Lake outside Fort Worth about 12:30 p.m. Thursday.

The five headed into West Texas in the couple's automobile, which belonged to the girl's parents, police said.

Officers said the girl, 17, was raped and the couple was left on a rural road about 20 miles west of Snyder, two miles inside Borden County.

Sheriff Keith Collier of Borden County said authorities searched for two men and a woman, aged in their 20s, from Boyce, La.

Fort Worth police said an abandoned truck found near Benbrook Lake Friday morning had been rented last Monday at Bossier City, La., and was traced to the trio. They said there were four 22 caliber bullet holes in the side of the vehicle.

RESERVIST

Police identified the Fort Worth man as John Patrick McElroy, an Army reservist who recently completed a tour of active service. They declined to name the girl and said efforts were being made to notify her parents, who were reported visiting in Hawaii.

State police relayed a pickup order for the unidentified kidnapers, who were said by their prisoners to have mentioned supermarket holdups in Fort Worth and Dallas.

Collier said they also spoke of having a machine gun and it may be in the car with the wanted trio.

He said they were last seen driving northwest from Snyder in the general direction of Lubbock in a 1966 model white Oldsmobile with a black top. The automobile belongs to the girl's parents.

The sheriff related these details:

A rented pickup truck halted alongside the parked car occupied by the young couple and the kidnapers jumped out with drawn guns at a spot beside Benbrook Lake.

They drove away with their captives and the girl was assaulted before they reached Snyder. A station attendant there told officers the missing white car stopped for gasoline and it contained five occupants at the time.

ROBBED

McElroy and his companion were robbed of about $30 and a wrist watch before the abductors turned off US 190 into a farm road and released them about 20 miles west of Snyder.

They walked to the farm home of H. D. Holms, from which they were able to telephone the sheriff's office in Snyder about 25 minutes later.

The man accused of assaulting the Fort Worth girl was described as about 6 feet tall, weight 165 to 175 pounds, with a beard, sideburns and long hair, and wearing black jeans.

His male companion was said to stand about 6-foot-1, weight the same, with brown hair and blue eyes, and wearing a plaid shirt and gray-green pants.

The woman with them was described as tall and slender, and clad in a green skirt, white blouse and red tennis shoes.

Site Hassle Signals Problems To Come

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say the lengthening hassle between Washington and Hanoi over a site for preliminary talks signals the kind of difficulties expected when and if peace negotiations get under way.

OBJECTED

The White House objected to Warsaw, which the North Vietnamese proposed Thursday, on the ground the capital of Communist Poland would not provide a neutral, fair setting.

The North Vietnamese have so far refused to accept U.S. site suggestions that are known to include Geneva, Switzerland; Rangoon, Burma; Vientiane, Laos; New Delhi, India; Jakarta, Indonesia; Vienna, Austria; Bern, Switzerland, and Bonn, West Germany.

The United States also objected to Hanoi's choice of Phnom Penh, Cambodia, on grounds Washington no longer has diplomatic relations with the neutral nation, a situation raising communications and logistic problems.

Presidential press secretary George Christian said the U.S. government first learned of North Vietnam's proposal to meet at Warsaw from reading the Soviet news agency Tass — and only later received the Hanoi message through official diplomatic channels.

NO RESPONSE

The United States, he added, has not yet received a Hanoi response to U.S. proposals for sites in neutral countries. Other sources said the North Vietnamese, before their Warsaw proposition, had previously indicated they prefer an Asian locale and had named Rangoon — also deemed acceptable by Washington.

While President Johnson reportedly has not ruled out sending peace envoy W. Averell Harriman to Warsaw or Phnom Penh if the North Vietnamese insist, he is said to be pressing hard for selection of a neutral nation where both sides have diplomatic accreditation and facilities exist for rapid, private communications back to Washington.

The argument over a site generated fresh criticism of Johnson at home and abroad. Tass chided Johnson for U.S. reluctance to hold talks at Phnom Penh and noted past administration utterances about sending peace emissaries anywhere, anytime.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, told an audience in Lincoln, Neb.:

'SOMEPLACE'

"The President said several months ago that he would meet anywhere, anytime. Then the administration raised objection to meeting in Cambodia — which is someplace."

Johnson told a group of state legislators on June 16, 1966: "We are ready to talk anywhere, anytime, with any government. All they have to do to test us is name the place and date. They will find us there."

In his March 31 announcement of a "hold down in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam in a bid for negotiations, Johnson said: "Now, as in the past, the U.S. is ready to send its representatives to any forum, anytime, to discuss the needs of bringing this ugly war to an end."

NOT RENEGING

It was contended by administration spokesmen that the President was not going back on his word in balking at Warsaw and Phnom Penh as meeting sites, but rather was pursuing the U.S. national interest in pressing for a "suitable place," to send Harriman.

EASTER AND PASSOVER

Jerusalem Is Thronged By Visiting Worshipers

JERUSALEM (AP) — Thousands of Christian and Jewish pilgrims thronged Jerusalem today for Easter and Passover, which coincide this year.

Visitors jammed hotels, private homes and pensions. The overflow bedded down in schools and monasteries.

The Christians came for the annual Way of the Cross procession, tracing Christ's path to Calvary on the first Good Friday, and to celebrate the Resurrection on Sunday. The Jews came to pray at the Wailing Wall before sundown, start of the week-long festival of Passover commemorating the Exodus from Egypt.

Hebrew historians claimed that this is the first Passover in 3,258 years that a Jewish army has been stationed on the Red Sea, over which the Israelites escaped from Egypt, Israel's army also was there during the 1956 Suez war but pulled out of the Sinai Desert before Passover began.

Jewish housewives and cooks were busy preparing the seder feasts which at sundown inaugurate Passover. Seder was prepared for army units from the Syrian Golan Heights to the Suez Canal, with the biggest in the Sinai Desert near Mt. Sinai.

This Easter is the second Christian holiday to attract large foreign crowds to Jerusalem since Israel ended Jordanian control of most of the Christian holy places in the war last June. Israeli troops were on guard against any Arab attempt to embarrass the government with disruptive violence. The first such holiday, Christmas, also was heavily guarded and there was no trouble.

'Red Rudi' Hit, Students Riot

BERLIN (AP)—New Left students attacked the headquarters of West Germany's largest publisher with Molotov cocktails and rocks today as their hero and leader, "Red Rudi" Dutschke, lay in critical condition from a would-be assassin's bullets.

Ten persons were arrested but later released after the outburst of violence that followed the shooting.

GUNFIGHT

A 23-year-old man police said was Dutschke's assailant was also in critical condition after a one-hour gunfight with police. He was identified from his fingerprints as Joseph Bachmann, from Peine, in West Germany, but police said they had no other information on him.

Doctors gave Dutschke a chance to survive after they removed a bullet from his brain. The student firebrand was also hit in the right cheek and chest as he was getting on his bicycle late Thursday afternoon.

Dutschke was shot on the Kurfurstendamm, West Berlin's main street, as he left the office of the radical student organization he heads.

Word of the attempted assassination spread quickly, and 3,000 to 5,000 students marched on the headquarters alongside the Berlin Wall of Axel Springer's publishing concern. The students charged that the assassination attempt was inspired by attacks in Springer's papers on Dutschke and other student leftists.

MOB FIRE

The mob set fire to the garage of the publishing house. Flames shot skyward as gasoline exploded inside, and about a dozen delivery trucks burned.

Top officials hurriedly sought to prevent student resentment against the government. West

Kiwanis Told About Service

Horace Reagan will be the speaker and program leader at Lamesa Kiwanis Club next Tuesday. A number of his fellow Kiwanians plan to accompany him to the Dawson County seat.

Jim Thompson, program chairman, has announced that Horace McQueen, Lubbock, widely known after-dinner speaker and in high demand at clubs in West Texas, will be presented Thursday of next week. He is to be introduced by Kiwanis agriculture committee member Billy Smith. McQueen will screen films from Australia.

120 CONG KILLED, ARMS SEIZED

GIs Repulse Red Troops

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. foot soldiers, artillery and dive bombers repulsed 400 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops who stormed an American bivouac today and drove to within a few feet of the GI's foxholes.

After five hours of close-quarter fighting in War Zone C 49 miles northwest of Saigon, Vietnamese and Viet Cong fled, leaving 128 of their dead and more than 50 weapons on the battlefield.

CLOSE FIGHTING

All of the enemy bodies were killed inside or on the fringes of the American perimeter. AP photographer Al Chang reported from the battlefield that more bodies were probably farther out, victims of the massive air and artillery strikes.

Sixteen U.S. troops were killed and 47 wounded.

Chang said the fighting was at such close range that at one point the 25th Division infantrymen fixed their bayonets as their ammunition ran low. They didn't have to use them.

Two Americans were found dead inside their bunker. Around them were the bodies of eight Viet Cong, gunned down by the two Americans before they were killed.

A radio operator held out against 10 Viet Cong until a company commander, Lt. Richard J. Prairie of Kankakee, Ill., and three other infantrymen reinforced him. Prairie was awarded a Silver Star on the spot.

The heavy fighting broke a week-long lull in the Vietnam war and was the first major action reported in Operation Complete Victory, the biggest allied campaign of the war in which 100,000 troops are sweeping through 11 provinces around Saigon.

A battalion of 25th Division infantrymen on a reconnaissance mission had taken up defensive positions for the night in a clearing of a heavily wooded area.

Listening posts detected a heavy movement on the west side of the perimeter about 2:40 a.m. shortly after, waves of Viet Cong threw themselves at the camp.

NEW WEAPONS

The fighting lasted until 7:30 a.m. Shortly after the Viet Cong broke contact, tanks and armored personnel carriers reinforced the infantrymen and began sweeping the battlefield.

A U.S. spokesman said the enemy troops were wearing new uniforms, some of them black and some of them green. He said their weapons also were new or in good condition, indicating the troops were recent replacements who had come down the Ho Chi Minh Trail from North Vietnam through Laos and Cambodia.

Human Error Snags Shot?

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Human error coupled with poor inspection may have been responsible for engine failures during the launch of the second Saturn 5 super rocket.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration says there are indications that wires carrying a cutoff signal to engines on the booster's second stage "were interchanged," causing two motors to shut down prematurely when trouble developed in only one.

Another problem—failure of the Saturn 5's third stage to restart in orbit—may have been caused by a leak in one of two fuel lines leading into the engine's start system.

If so, "propellants reaching the spark plugs were probably insufficient or inadequate in mixture to achieve the proper start conditions," the space agency said Thursday.

Sources said crossed wires in the second stage and a faulty third stage reignition system are problems which could have been discovered by proper inspection and testing method while the 363-foot-tall rocket was being manufactured or checked out on the ground.

Dear Abby

A Penny-Pinching Dad

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I get along pretty well except when it comes to money. He drives a truck and averages about $250 a week, but if you ever saw our furniture you would think we were on welfare.

He gives me $20 a week for groceries. We have three growing children, and if it weren't for my garden and the freezer I don't know what I'd do.

My husband banks every penny he gets his hands on. Our oldest is ten and wants to take piano lessons, but my husband says we can't afford it. Our home is paid for, we don't owe a dime and we have over $10,000 in the bank. Please put something in your column to help me. He reads it and thinks you're smart.

TURNING GRAY: It may take more than a few words from me to part your husband from his money. The poor man seems to be obsessed with the fear of being broke (Probably due to a hungry childhood and a good memory.) I don't recommend extravagance, but a man owes it to his family to provide them with as fine an education (musical, too) and as pleasant surroundings as he can afford.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is always looking for dirt in somebody else's house. The minute she walks in she looks in the corners for a speck of dust that might have been overlooked.

I have even seen her open closets, cupboards, and drawers. It's a habit. She looks behind the davenport, under rugs and once I saw her look behind somebody's washing machine.

The minute she leaves someone's house, she says, "My, she's a terrible housekeeper." Or, "Not a trace of dirt—she must have just cleaned."

What is the matter with a person like that?

DISGUSTED: People who are constantly searching for flaws, imperfections and signs of "dirt" around others, do so in order to avoid seeing their own. Pray for them.

DEAR ABBY: We have a foreign exchange student from Asia country living with us. We were laughing hysterically while reading the letter in your column about the man who gave a "birthday" party every year for his wife who had been dead for twelve years. (He said he'd invite his friends for a regular "birthday party," after which they'd all go out to the cemetery to "talk" to Ruby and leave her a piece of birthday cake.)

Our Asian friend couldn't see anything funny about that. He said it's an old Oriental custom to visit the cemetery once a year, and take along some food for their ancestors to "eat."

McCarthy Backs Guaranteed Pay

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., has proposed a guaranteed minimum income and a federally subsidized health insurance program to raise the standard of living of the nation's poor.

NO RETURN — "has passed the point of no return with reference to domestic problems," the Democratic presidential candidate said Thursday night in a speech before more than 1,800 cheering students at Boston University.

The Minnesota senator described the report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders as "the most significant political document, I think, to be published in this country in this century."

McCarthy told the audience his strong showing in the New Hampshire and Wisconsin primaries meant that "public judgment has been passed" on the Vietnam war, which he called "not morally justifiable."

SAME PATTERN

At a news conference after his arrival in Boston from Lincoln, Neb., McCarthy said the call-up of reserves earlier Thursday "fits into the same pattern of continued escalation even while they sought negotiations," he said.

McCarthy's visit kicked off his campaign for the Massachusetts presidential primary April 30, one of which he is expected to win since his is the only name on the Democratic ballot.

But, Bay State voters may write in any candidate's name and state law allows them to use even a candidate's first or last name, or even his nickname as long as the voter's intent is clear.

However, workers for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy have yet to launch a write-in campaign.

C. W. Kesterson Found Dead Of Gunshot Wound

Clarence William Kesterson, 56, retired railway brakeman, met death from a gunshot wound, self-inflicted, Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, has ruled.

Kesterson's body, with a gunshot wound back of the right ear, was found on the rear floor of his former wife's car at 5:30 p.m. Thursday. The car was parked on the City Parking Lot at Second and Main. Mrs. Velma Kesterson, who is a saleswoman at Swartz Store, found the body in her car after she left the store to go home.

Officers said a new 22 caliber pistol was clutched in his right hand, when found. A box of cartridges, with only five removed was on the car seat, and there were four loaded cartridges in the pistol. Officers said Mr. Kesterson had been dead possibly two hours when his body was found.

He was removed by Alert Ambulance to Cowper Hospital and Clinic and then to Nalley-

Pickle Funeral Home.

Mrs. Kesterson told officers that she and her husband had been divorced for a year. He was listed as living at the Wyoming Hotel. Mrs. Kesterson and two of her three children live at 603 W. 15th Street.

Services for Mr. Kesterson are to be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Rosewood Chapel of the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Burial is to be in the City Cemetery.

He was born Sept. 18, 1911, in Tennessee. He came from Florida to Big Spring in 1926, and was employed by the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. from 1942, until he retired in 1964.

Survivors, in addition to his former wife, are one son, Kenneth Kesterson, Big Spring; two daughters, Mrs. H. E. Bost, Austin, and Valinda Kesterson, Big Spring; his mother, Mrs. Stella Tyson, Big Spring; one half-brother, Ed Tyson, Albany, and one sister, Mrs. H. A. McFarland, Fort Worth.

Two Men Jailed, Loot Recovered

Two out-of-town men are being held at the city jail for allegedly breaking and entering the car of Albert Gonzales, Coahoma, which was parked in front of Katie's Bar late Thursday.

Officers who investigated the incident reported observing two persons loitering on the grounds of the tavern. They later recovered several articles of clothing, which Gonzales alleges was taken from his car.

Administration Pros Hope Viets Shape Up To Task

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's avowed hope for a gradual shift of the major war effort from U.S. to South Vietnamese forces is based on an assessment that they stood up well under the Viet Cong winter offensive.

Pentagon sources said the assessment was made both by Gen. William C. Westmoreland and by Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, who will succeed Westmoreland as U.S. commander in Vietnam by July 2.

The views of both generals were made known to President Johnson and his top advisers in personal reports at the White House during the past few weeks.

ANNOUNCES THE ASSOCIATION OF

RAYMOND T. TORP, M.D.

IN THE DEPARTMENT

OF INTERNAL MEDICINE

Defense Clark M. Clifford was drawing on this military judgment in telling newsmen Thursday of a policy decision to turn over gradually the major effort to the South Vietnamese.

Clifford stressed that it is a long-range plan which he said will require "a period of testing to ascertain whether such a system will work."

Although Clifford appeared to be referring to a new decision, Pentagon sources said the new defense secretary had in mind the same decision about which Westmoreland spoke publicly when he was in Washington last November.

The record is replete with U.S. expressions of confidence and hope that the South Vietnamese forces would shape up to the task of shouldering the biggest part of the job of turning back enemy military efforts to overwhelm the country.

PRAISE

But in the past, the Vietnamese forces have fallen short of most expectations.

There were reports after the Lunar New Year offensive that many South Vietnamese units were at half strength—and thus highly vulnerable—because officers and men were on holiday leave. At the same time, U.S. forces had remained on a full war footing.

Although Vietnamese ranger, marine and paratroop units received praise for their fighting performance during the offensive, there were recurrent reports that other units retreated into strong positions for protection.

Westmoreland, in a speech to the National Press Club last Nov. 21, forecast that during 1968 it was intended to "turn a major share of frontline demilitarized zone defense over to the Vietnamese army."

CALL-UP

The administration has been speaking recently with increasing frequency about providing the South Vietnamese with M16 rifles and other modern equipment.

Clifford hitched the modernization plan to the intention to transfer the heaviest role in the war to the South Vietnamese, and he said that the shiftover of major responsibility is part of a parcel of "the President's decision to place a limitation at this time upon our troop level at a point not exceeding 550,000."

Clifford's statements came as he announced the call-up of 24,500 Army, Air Force and Navy reservists—10,000 of them destined for duty in Vietnam.

Just spread BONUS Type S. Wipes out. It takes care of matchweed (creeping charlie), dollarweed and other common lawn weeds as it fertilizes your grass. Results are amazing — weeds gradually curl up and disappear, as the fertilized grass grows thicker and greener.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Don't Leave Lamp Sockets Empty

Dear Heloise:

When it becomes necessary to "borrow" a light bulb from a not-so-often-used lamp, please DON'T leave the socket empty.

The empty socket is usually hidden behind or under the lamp shade. Anyone who attempts to turn the lamp on without the bulb, feels first for the knob to turn it on. They may easily stick a finger into that empty socket and get the shock of their life.

I advise strongly, to either disconnect the lamp at once when a bulb is taken out or to put the old, burned-out bulb in the empty socket until you get around to replacing it.

Either of the two methods prevents accidents. . . . Pete

Dear Heloise:

Try boiling ham in apple juice or with just a few sliced apples. This gives quite a zest to the ham. Something a little different. . . . Kathryn Gerould

Dear Heloise:

Like most of us, I've been shortening lots of dresses lately. I found a way to dress up the outfit even more.

Cut a double thickness of fabric and gather it around the button part of those "pop-in, pop-out" earrings you can find at the dime store.

The earrings are quite inexpensive and the material comes from the extra length of skirt you'd have cut off and discarded anyway.

Certainly gets compliments from gals who wonder how you ever got earrings to match your dress! . . . Diz's Wife

Hi Heloise:

Next time your husband starts to throw away the little gadget that comes with his electric shaver (that brush with the spiral bristle end and plain bristle end) . . .

Hold onto it, Heloise, they're selling something like it in the stores!

Simply use the spiral end for eyelashes and the other for brushing the eyebrows after using the eyebrow pencil — takes the harsh, lined look away.

I've been using mine now for at least five years. So many people have been surprised to hear about it, I thought it must be worth passing the idea along to you.

Happy brushing! . . . Thora Law

Dear Heloise:

To cool a can of cranberry sauce quickly, I usually put it in my freezer. One day I forgot about it.

Later, when I opened the frozen can it was a delicious sherbet and much nicer even than when just chilled. . . . Mrs. B.

Gals, we froze a can of cranberry sauce and tested it just to be sure. It did taste like sherbet! . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I remove cod liver oil stains from my little babies' nightgowns and undershirts by pouring glycerin onto the stain while the stain is still fresh.

I just massage the glycerin into the fabric between my hands as if I were scrubbing it with soap and let it set a while. Then I throw it into the washing machine and launder it the usual way.

The stain comes out every time. . . . U.S.M.

Some mothers give their baby that cod liver oil (or anything that stains) while he is taking his bath. Then if he drools it back up it washes off his skin — skin-skin!

Why don't you try it? . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

When you are fitted for a new pair of eyeglasses, it may be wise to save the old pair!

One day, after five-and-a-half years of wear, the bridge on my glasses broke. I was at home when this occurred and my old glasses came in mighty handy while having the broken ones repaired.

Sure better than nothing. . . . S. J.

Most Candidates Oppose 'Betting'

AUSTIN (AP) — Candidates for governor and lieutenant governor are "overwhelmingly opposed" to horse race betting, the Texas Council of Churches said Thursday.

It based the statement on replies to questionnaires the council sent to all contenders for nomination to these offices in the May 4 party primaries.

The council reported these findings: Expressing opposition to legalized pari-mutuel wagering were Dolph Briscoe, Waggoner Carr, John Hill, Preston Smith, Edward Whittenburg and Don Yarborough in the Democratic governor's race.

Eugene Locke declined to answer the questionnaire because, he said, some of the questions were too complex for a yes or no answer.

All three Republican gubernatorial candidates said they opposed horse race betting.

In the lieutenant governor's race, Ben Barnes and Gene Smith took similar positions.

Don Gladden did not answer the questionnaire.

The council said all Demo-

Hard Facts, Good Sense

Far from being morbid, teaching your wife to become a widow makes good sense, Walter Stroup told the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday.

The hard facts are that seven out of 10 wives will outlive their husbands. The odds being what they are, husbands would be smart to prepare their wives for this eventuality, he said.

Some of the things he listed were: keep your wife informed about your business operations, living costs, and even let her relieve you of operation of some business affairs; make adequate provision for a liquid estate through insurance, and perhaps arrange for systematic payment of benefits; teach to or keep reasonably current a wife's vocational skill; leave a will (it's more important than ever for small estates); acquaint your wife with the banker, accountant and attorney on whom she may need to depend; sit down and leave her a letter of instructions on management or disposition of the estate.

Reports from the District

2A-1 convention in Brownwood were brought by Dr. Marshall

Cauley and Schley Riley. Lions were reminded that the annual

Horoscope Forecast

FOR TOMORROW
—CARROLL RIGHTER

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A good time to tell your partners just how you can start your cooperative efforts so that you can have better relations in the days ahead. Keep to principle. Don't try to run the whole show yourself. Be cooperative.

Taurus (April 20 to May 20) The influence of Venus can make you very charming today and you can make a big impression on others. Get much done of worth. A coworker who has been pretty difficult of late is now quite tractable. Get together and get things done.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are able to formulate fine plans for getting what has been hard for you to do before this. Show others that you have a most quick and clever mind. Today's ingenuity can mean tomorrow's big profits.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 22) Family and outside business associates can disagree badly now, but remain objective and all goes well. Be sure to do some entertaining at some worthwhile place. Don't count the cost.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 23) Now you are able to operate in a more stylish fashion and understand what higher-ups want to accomplish and how you can help. Take the initiative in cooperating with right persons. Make life more pleasant and profitable for yourself.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Close ties expect you to act in a more practical fashion and not keep changing your mind all the time. Be intelligent. Adding to your abundance is easy and you can start that new savings account now.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Doing whatever will gain you more respect from others is fine, especially if you entertain them in an elegant fashion. Associates can be very helpful in helping you gain your aims. Show gratitude.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) Before you make those radical changes, take the time to assist those who are in trouble. This can lead to all sort of interesting situations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) Good allies are fashioned by your artistic and other talents and will give you the support you need to make a big success of them. Ideal day for recreation also. Do not drive too fast or you could get into trouble.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) You must carry through with obligations to others, so keep working away enthusiastically now. Those you labor with are a bit critical, but this is good for you, your morale. Speed up and off it is fine.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Those of an inventive nature are now willing to give you a helping hand where it counts the most so accept with alacrity, contact them early. Showing that you know how to enjoy yourself is wise, also. Be happy.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You need to show that you are a most practical and sensible person before you gain from others the favors you desire, the cooperation. Some business expert can give just the right advice you need. Ask for it.

C-City Lads Hurt In Gas Explosion

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Three Colorado City youths were burned about the face and arms by an explosion about 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, while exploring a storm cellar behind a vacant house at 824 E. 13th St.

All are hospitalized in the Root Memorial Hospital, where attendants said their condition is apparently serious, but not critical.

The three are Jim Mann, 14, son of Mrs. Doris Mann; David Harder, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harder; and Carl Guelker, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Guelker. All are students in Colorado City schools.

Virgil Eaton, Colorado City fire marshal, said the explosion apparently resulted from an accumulation of some sort of gas, but he declined to speculate on the source.

J. C. Wilkerson, manager of the Lone Star Gas Co., which has a gas line near the cellar, said that company experts are investigating the explosion.

The house at 824 E. 13th has not been occupied for about two years, but city records indicate that it belongs to James Watson, address unknown.

TREATED FOR CANCER

Danny Is Coming Home

By SAM BLACKBURN

Easter will be a happy season for a great many families, but you would have to look a long time to find a family as happy as that of P. J. Leuschner, 1706 Alabama.

About Easter Sunday, or perhaps, a few days later, Danny will be back home.

Danny Leuschner is the victim of cancer of the lymph glands. Eight weeks ago, he was taken from Big Spring to the famous M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston.

GRIM

There seemed a grim probability Danny would not return home and hardly any chance at all that he would come back in good spirits, no pain, and able to run and play.

Of course, Danny has not beaten his enemy — very few do. But it is also certain that he has made astounding progress and the cancer specialists at the Anderson clinic are extremely optimistic — enough so that they have told Leuschner his son can come home.

Danny has been undergoing cobalt treatments at the hospital. His case has attracted much interest there — largely because it is rare for a youngster of four to fall prey to cancer of the lymph glands. The cobalt has been amazingly effective so far and the swelling which had marred young Danny's face has almost entirely disappeared. The only reaction is that Danny has lost his voice — a condition due to the cobalt treatment, doctors said, and a condition which should clear itself up in the near future.

Danny can talk, but only in a whisper. It doesn't bother him, too much, though. He runs and plays and, when his voice returns, he will outwardly appear as any normal 4-year-old.

"Of course," said Leuschner, who works as an electronics specialist at Webb, "we know Danny has not won his fight. We do have hopes now, though."

It was about a year ago that the Leuschners first discovered Danny's problem, but it was only two months or so ago that the trouble was pinpointed and named. That was when he was sent to M.D. Anderson Hospital.

Mrs. Leuschner has been with him each day since. Leuschner has gone to Houston as often as he could. Danny's little brother, Michael, 7-months-old, has been living transiently with his grandparents.

"We will never forget how kind people have been to us," said Leuschner. "We are deeply thankful to the hundreds of kind folk who have shown so much sympathy for Danny. Their letters, cards and phone calls have done much to make our burden lighter."

"We are even more deeply appreciative to the numerous kindly men and women who generously made donations of money to help us defray the heavy expenses that treatment of Danny has caused. We will never be able to express our full debt to the people of Big Spring."

HAPPY WEEK

So Easter week will be a happy one for the Leuschner family. If all goes well, they will be a complete family again. All will be at home at 1706 Alabama, and Danny will be playing as he used to play.

And the Leuschners will have

EASTER WILL MEAN A LOT TO LITTLE DANNY
Tiny youngster, cancer victim, due home this week that warm feeling of knowing that they are not alone in their fight to save their young son's life. Their neighbors are fighting right alongside them.

HST Named Chairman By Humphrey Backers

By The Associated Press

Sure that their man will declare soon for the Democratic presidential nomination, backers of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, have organized United Democrats for Humphrey with former President Harry S. Truman as honorary chairman.

TWO DENIALS

A score of public figures, including two senators and five members of the House, were named Thursday as sponsors. But the only two governors on the list later denied they had authorized use of their names.

They were Gov. William L. Guy of North Dakota and Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee.

Humphrey, expected to jump into the race soon after Easter, said in Baton Rouge, La., Thursday night he stands on the record of the present administration and is "not going to retreat from it one bit."

"I do not intend to disavow either President Johnson or the Johnson-Humphrey administration," he said to the Louisiana AFL-CIO.

"I intend to stand up for the promises we have kept. I intend to take our message to the country—an affirmative, positive, hopeful message."

FOUNDERS LISTED

Besides Truman, founders of United Democrats for Humphrey include Sens. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma and Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. of Atlanta and A. J. Cervantes of St. Louis. George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO; James A. Farley, former Democratic national chairman; assistant House majority leader Hale Boggs of Louisiana and four other House members.

Elsewhere on the political scene, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said he is still available if the party wants him. And Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan, of California was showing signs of increased political activity.

Reagan aides said the governor who announced earlier this year he was all but cutting out national speeches, is scheduling several at which he will discuss "problems facing the country."

Rockefeller was asked at a news conference in New York if, in view of his March 21 statement, that he would not seek the nomination, he still wants to be president.

ANSWER IS YES

"If the party wants me," he replied, "the answer is yes."

In Washington, Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., said a Rockefeller booster group was setting out to round up convention delegates in favor of Rockefeller to convince him he's wanted.

"We'll do it in four weeks," Morton said. "We'll have more delegates lined up in four weeks than a mule can haul."

The new Rockefeller for President Committee will be headed by J. Irwin Miller, of Columbus, Ind., chairman of the Cummins Engine Co.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, stalling the Democratic nomination, advocated a guaranteed minimum income in a speech at Boston University.

MAN'S WORK

The Minnesotan also called for a federally subsidized health insurance program for the poor. The United States "has passed the point of no return with reference to domestic problems," he said.

McCarthy's rival, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, of New York, proposed a sweeping "national reconstruction" program at Lansing, Mich.

The building of needed schools, hospitals, parks, transportation systems and homes would benefit the nation and take the energies of thousands who cannot find work, Kennedy said.

"This is man's work," he said, "solid and substantial, by itself the best antidote to the debilitating and degrading welfare system."

Harris County Democrats Call For Yarborough Draft

HOUSTON (AP) — A group of Harris County Democrats chose Sen. Ralph Yarborough as their leader Thursday after they were told that Yarborough does not want to be a favorite son candidate for president.

Passage of the resolution by about 250 members of the liberal wing of the Party was viewed as a prelude to a statewide fight for control of the state's 104-man delegation to the national convention.

The conservative State Democratic Executive Committee endorsed Gov. John Connally as a favorite son candidate following President Johnson's announcement he will not seek reelection.

UNIT RULE

The Harris County group's resolution said in part, "We call for a statewide draft of Sen. Ralph Yarborough as the leader of a Texas delegation uncommitted to any political candidate and not bound under the unit rule."

The original draft of the resolution as approved April 1 by the group's executive committee called for Yarborough to take a favorite son role.

Chris Dixie, one of the authors of the original resolution, said the unit rule phrase was added after some members said that a delegation under the unit rule might exclude Sen. Robert Kennedy's supporters.

Bill Kilgartin, a Kennedy spokesman, said he supported the resolution and wanted backers for Sen. Eugene McCarthy and Vice President Hubert Humphrey also to be heard.

"I urge that all of us lay aside any differences that we may have had in the past and work for a victory over Connally's conservative establishment in Texas," Kilgartin said.

BAPTIST TEMPLE LAYMEN GOING TO CALIFORNIA

Baptists Map Crusade

Five men from Baptist Temple Church are paying their own ways and giving up a week of their vacation time to participate with the Rev. James Puckett in the statewide California Encounter Crusade which begins next week.

Rev. Puckett said that the group, which includes Bob Newsom, Ralph Barris, Tommy Jones, Dan Padgett and Alvis Harry, will leave next Friday at 6 p.m., traveling to Imperial Valley, Calif., by car.

"The crusade is being sponsored jointly by the California Southern Baptist Convention and the Baptist General Convention of Texas," Rev. Puckett said. "In the work of the SBC, the State of Texas is a much older and stronger convention, with approximately one and three-quarter million Southern Baptists."

"We feel we will be able to stimulate a true revival during the crusade."

The local men, joined by Aubie McSwain, Weatherford, who will assist in the crusade being sponsored by six small churches near El Centro, Calif. Their duties, Rev. Puckett said, will include teaming with Baptist laymen there for daily visitation; counseling those who make decisions at the nightly service; and conducting special age group services each day.

Rev. Puckett pointed out that

Discusses Needs Of The 1970's

ANDERSON, Ind. — The Church of God has disclosed plans from general offices here for a 1970 consultation of key state and national leaders to study needs of the movement in depth for the decade of the 70's. Dr. Charles V. Weber, executive secretary of the executive council, coordinating arm for the church's general agencies, said the consultation will be the second in recent years.

The decision climaxed a meeting here of approximately 100 key leaders from 40 states and Canada involved in intensive conversations concerning creation of more productive channels for communications and relationships on the church's state and national leadership levels.

The Church of God's outreach now is found in over 40 geographic areas of the world.

CHRIST'S PROMISE OF PEACE GOES OUT TO ALL ON EASTER

As thousands of the faithful commemorate the Crucifixion of Christ today, on Good Friday, the International Uniform Lesson Series for Easter Sunday reminds us of the good news and the promise of the Resurrection — and of Eternal Life.

Those who were moved to despair by Christ's death took heart when He arose from the dead to have everlasting life that long-ago Easter morning in the garden near His tomb. He comforted His disciples, and, at the same time, commissioned them — to spread the "good news" throughout the world.

And yet there are those who, even today, ask for proof of Christ's immortality. The proofs can be found throughout the Bible for those who are willing to believe.

The memory selection from John 20:21 tells the great promise of Christ to his followers — peace. "Peace be unto you; as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing — "He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertime back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Devotional For The Day

He who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (Matthew 10:38, RSV)
PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, we ask now for strength to bear whatever may be our cross today. Help us to bear it cheerfully, lovingly, and humbly. In the name of Jesus, who gave His life for us. Amen.

(From the "Upper Room")

Positive Approach

Frank N. Kard, president of the American Petroleum Institute, takes a positive approach to the travel problem as it relates to the balance of payments deficit.

He pointed out that of the 140 million Americans who spent their vacations last year exploring the scenic and historic attractions of the United States, 115 million (82 per cent) used their own automobiles.

On this basis he figures that of the estimated $30 billion Americans will spend on domestic travel for pleasure, $27 billion will be related to or generated by highway traffic.

Accordingly, he has challenged the nation's gasoline marketers to give increased emphasis to the "Discover America" theme in their advertising and sales promotions. This not only keeps money at home but it also stimulates the domestic petroleum industry.

Last year 18,500,000 Americans went abroad, spending $4.6 billion. Surely there are a few million of those who can be persuaded that there are wonders upon wonders at home they have not yet discovered. Everyone who stays and takes to the road closes the deficit gap just that much more.

Regional Planning

Texas earlier was a laggard in developing municipal planning, and only recently has planning begun to take hold as a major function in its state government. But, in curious contrast, Texas has leaped into national leadership in regional planning and intergovernmental cooperation.

This is important for several reasons. Metropolitan areas and their trade territories, fractured by political subdivisions, urgently need more regional planning and local intergovernmental cooperation for orderly maximum development. Texas is so big that our state programs, to be most effective, require coordination at the regional or metropolitan-area level. And finally, the proliferating federal aid programs are being geared increasingly to regional plans—as a requirement for benefits qualification—to improve their coordination and prevent duplication and conflicts of purpose.

Whatever their working names, the regional planning and coordinating agencies in Texas are taking the form of a council of governments (COG). In concept, the COG is a voluntary federation with representation relative to population from member local government, which contribute its financing supplemented by state and federal aid. The COG has neither taxing nor legislative power, depending mainly on consensus, but it is gaining power through growing control over state and federal aid channeled through it to the local level.

The Texas Legislature, which had previously authorized regional planning agencies, last session appropriated $250,000 in state planning grants to those which met federal standards for COG recognition. A like sum is expected to be appropriated in special session this year. Of the 21 areas considered by the Legislature as potential COGs, 18 already have such regional agencies in operation, and the three others are in the formative stage.

The next regular session of the Texas Legislature is expected to remedy the oversight of its predecessors by adopting the legislation devised by the Texas Research League and recommended by Gov. Connally. That would give COGs statutory status, improve authority for intergovernmental cooperation, set up a state agency for relations with regional and local political subdivisions and strengthen county government so that it can have a key role in this movement. This is the most important development in the state's governmental structure since the authorization of home-rule cities in 1913.

The Plight Of Public Workers

WASHINGTON — It is hardly a coincidence that garbage workers' strikes in two cities thus far this year have caused havoc. New York went almost to the point of breakdown as mountains of refuse accumulated and the dispute between Mayor John V. Lindsay and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller over a settlement did Rockefeller's reputation no good.

THE GARBAGE strike in Memphis brought Martin Luther King Jr. to the city to help the strikers gain recognition for their union and a living wage. In the first march that King led marchers were clubbed indiscriminately by Memphis police, according to eyewitnesses, after rampaging young Negroes started disorders.

The garbage workers had been on strike since Feb. 12. Mayor Henry Loeb, rated by officials here dealing with race relations as one of the most inflexible and narrow among mayors of principal cities, and the city council were intractable. For the workers, virtually all Negroes, this was the stony face of the white-power structure yielding nothing to what they felt were demands for minimum justice.

LOEB AND the city council can

Billy Graham

Is the Bible directly involved with man during his existence on earth, or does he have man to fend for himself, leaving given man the capability for isolated existence?

B.C. The Bible teaches that from the beginning God became involved with man, his problems, his temptations, and his redemption. God showed His concern for the first man when He came down to the Garden of Eden, calling, "Where art thou?" All through the Bible we see God concerned for man and his destiny. God's involvement reached the ultimate with Christ's coming to the world. The Bible says, "God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself." John 3:16 shows God's love for, and involvement with man. In fact, the Bible is a Book of God-man involvement, and from beginning to end it tells of man's relationship to God, and his plight when he breaks fellowship with his Creator.

On the material level, man can survive without God. He can make his way, grow his food, and build his empires. But, when he deliberately isolates himself from God, he pays a price psychologically and spiritually. The Bible says that man was created in the image of God, and try as we may, we cannot escape the Divine purpose and pattern. History is the saga of either man's adherence to God's law, or his defection from God, and the consequences of either. The Bible teaches that we were made for Him, and that our souls are restless until we find rest in Him.

Rockefeller Faces Rocky Road

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of Republicans promoting the presidential cause of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has set for itself a difficult task: To change in a month or two the course of their party.

That course appears to be propelling Richard M. Nixon toward the presidential nomination.

THIS IS NOT the first time Rockefeller partisans have organized in an attempt to alter it.

The new Rockefeller-for-President Committee is counting heavily on recent changes in the Democratic picture to turn the GOP in its direction. The crucial change: President Johnson's March 31 announcement that he would not seek or accept renomination.

Ten days earlier, Rockefeller had stepped back from the brink of active candidacy, declaring himself available but not running.

"I am not a candidate campaigning, directly or indirectly, for the presidency of the United States," Rockefeller said then.

That pronouncement led to the dismantling of the draft committee set up by Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew. It was geared to a May 28 Oregon primary contest between Rockefeller and Nixon.

SEN. THURSTON B. Morton, R-Ky., and his assistant, Duff Reed, took the next step, announcing creation of something called the Coalition for a Republican Alternative.

Actually, it was a coalition of little more than those two men. It was designed to hold things together, if possible, while the Rockefeller group figured out what to do next.

The committee represents that next step. One of its organizers, Rep. Charles E. Goodell of New York, conceded "It's an uphill fight. The odds are against us." But he said the organization can succeed in its efforts to turn the party toward Rockefeller.

MORTON said this could be done in a month. "We'll have more delegates lined up in four weeks than a mule can haul," Morton said.

But that figurative mule could face what amounts to a Nixon steamroller.

The Rockefeller partisans are counting on several things—none of which is in evidence yet—to bolster their cause.

First, they believe Republican leaders who tended toward Nixon will have second thoughts now that Johnson has stepped out of the competition.

Exciting Times For 'Cubby'

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm an old vegetable farmer, pill maker and casket salesman," said Albert R. Broccoli. "Some time I'd like to go back and rest on a farm for a while. My kids have been dying to see what a cow looks like."

But it isn't likely that Broccoli—called "Cubby" by everyone in the film industry—will retire to the rustic life soon.

HIS FIVE James Bond films which cost $22 million and have already grossed $150 million made him one of the most spectacularly successful producers in the history of motion pictures.

He plans seven more of the James Bond thrillers and is currently occupied with a $12-million venture, "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," a musical starring Dick Van Dyke and Sally Ann Howes.

Cubby has high hopes for "Chitty Chitty," which he described "a labor of love." He feels it even has a chance of doing as well as "Sound of Music," the Julie Andrews hit which has already rung up over $100 million on the cash register.

"THESE are exciting times," he remarked. "There really is no limit to how well a picture can do today—if it appeals to a wide family audience."

Cubby, a genial man with the affable grace and proportions of a brown bear, got into the film business inadvertently. "As a boy I worked in Long Island on the truck gardening farm of an uncle of mine who introduced Broccoli seed to this country," he said. "Later I jerked sodas and mixed cough syrups in a drugstore, and then I got a job selling funeral caskets."

"IT WAS PRETTY much like dealing in furniture, but still I found it a bit depressing, so I took a vacation trip to Hollywood."

There his cousin, Pat Di Cicco, the agent, introduced him to Howard Hughes and director Howard Hawks, and soon Broccoli found himself as "35th assistant director under Hawks, in charge of getting coffee for everyone on the set."

After serving 4½ years in the U.S. Navy during the World War II, Cubby became an agent for Lana Turner and several top stars. Then in 1951 he became a producer in London, where he has made all but one of his 40 films.

"WE BECAME what Hollywood calls runaway producers, and helped start the whole trend of producing pictures abroad," he remarked.

"But I never felt like a runaway. Those were rough years in our business, and I felt I could never get anything important in Hollywood—certainly not as a producer."

The biggest problem of a producer, said Cubby, "are the elements and artistic temperament—in that order."

Movement Of Joints For Arthritis Patients

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: I have arthritis in both knees, and for a while it was just awful. I cried every step I took.

I am on my feet a lot. Does this do more damage? I am 65 and go out to work three or four hours twice a week. People tell me I should stay off my feet. Is that true? — Mrs. M.G.

The correct answer to your question is not as simple as you (or your friends) might think, but it is important.

Arthritis means that joints have become worn or damaged. Such joints need rest—but they also need daily movement. I do not mean strenuous exercise. I mean movement.

If you take your friends' advice at face value and try to stay off your feet, the result probably will be increasing stiffness of the joints, and as they become stiffer they will be more painful when you do move them.

But, as I said, they also need rest. The answer for you is to have some of both: some movement, some rest. Set aside several periods during the day when you can sit or lie down and take the strain off those painful knees. At the same time, also make it a point to move about every day to keep the joints as mobile as possible.

Your doctor can prescribe medication to make you more comfortable. Heat (hot bath, or other means of applying heat) also will make you more comfortable.

If you are overweight, shedding some pounds will help.

Dear Dr. Molner: For a year now I have been troubled with vaginal trichomoniasis. The doctor has prescribed jellies and tablets. Every time I think it has cleared up, the itching starts again. What is the best treatment for this, and the cause? — Mrs. L. M.

The cause is a micro-organism known as a protozoan. The important trick in treatment is to be sure the husband is treated at the same time. For reasons not known, the protozoan irritates women but usually does not bother men as much. Therefore, the husbands do not realize that they may be harboring the same infection. Wife gets it cleared up; then infection starts all over again, from the husband who doesn't know he ought to have been treated, too.

An effective medication which can be taken by mouth is available for trichomoniasis. Sometimes two ten-day courses of treatment are necessary in stubborn cases. The medication is effective for both men and women.

Hemorrhoids can be cured: If troubled with fissures, fistulas, itching and other rectal problems, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald requesting a copy of the booklet, "The Real Cure For Hemorrhoids," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Walter's Wonderings

I wonder if persons who failed to vote in Big Spring's city election now regret that they did not exercise their franchise.

The latest frustration is a feeling of being cheated—like all the Texans who could hardly wait for a chance to vote against LBJ.

On the other hand, it's not very reassuring to LBJ Democrats to be left holding a set of coattails that nobody is wearing.

PAID YOUR income tax yet?

My bashful aunt, Marie Chastain, Durant, Okla., reports a woman wrote the Internal Revenue Service and asked if birth control pills were deductible and got this answer: "Only, if they don't work."

Distasteful: What most of us have for early spring weather.

Russia, we read, has science fiction. Some old UN hands will say it's used as the language of diplomacy.

LONG ISLAND dog can sniff out marijuana. Law officers, though, will say it's a plain case of pot luck.

Not riot control, but rumor control, is the big need.

Add compatible twosomes—the old farmer and his almanac.

Bullets will not win the war in Vietnam, an expert says. At the moment bullets seem to be far ahead in the win column.

Crowds mob Bobby Kennedy in California. Crowds in California, it seems, mob anybody so long as he's able to climb onto a soapbox.

IN A SPEECH at Paris, De Gaulle declared:

"At the various times when France was choosing to lead a hazardous life, she did not unfaithfully have the United States' support."

He must have been speaking of times other than the first and second world wars and the rehabilitation periods which followed both wars.

THE INDIANS had a way of dealing with big words. They simply drew a picture of them.

Some textbooks are said to be out of date before they're off the press. But who'd guess it from the price?

Still with us, the march of crimes.

When You Have To Eat Your Words

WASHINGTON — "How come Sen. Bill Fulbright has developed that paunch he's carrying around?" asked the Returning Traveler who'd been away for a while. "And why is Arthur Schlesinger wearing that prison pallor?"

Fulbright and Schlesinger never were the same after Lyndon Johnson hit the high spot of his career back in the spring of 1968, the Traveler was told. Fulbright lost his figure and bloated his waistline by having to eat all those harsh, craven and idiotic words he'd spoken about LBJ and anti-Communist warfare.

"IT MUST have taken Fulbright a long time to chew and swallow all that baloney of his," the Traveler observed. "If I recall correctly, the Arkansas egghead commenced back in the Kennedy Administration to recommend that we think about the unthinkable. He meant that we view with equanimity the presence of a Red dictatorship in Cuba. Shortly after Fulbright said that, it turns out that Castro was furnishing Khrushchev with a forward base for nuclear weapons. Then, when President Johnson prevented another Communist take-over by his classic intervention in the Dominican Republic, Fulbright said a whole lot of very foolish things. He said we ought to be tolerant concerning the evidence of communism in these Latin American revolutions."

YES, THE Traveler's memory was right about Fulbright's being wrong. It was around the time of the Lyndon Johnson's brilliant success in the Dominican intervention that Fulbright began to show a paunch from having to eat his own words.

"The chairman of Foreign Relations should have gone on a diet then and there," declared the Traveler. "But I correctly recall, Bill Fulbright not only made a series of university addresses under the title of the arrogance of power, but he expanded the speeches into book that was praised on the front page of the New York Times book review. Very likely this caused many more copies to be printed and circulated, and it's no wonder the senator began to lose his waistline if he had to swallow all the nonsense in that anti-American book."

"AND WHAT'S the matter with Schlesinger, the prolific historian and Presidential advisor?" the Traveler wanted to know. "What makes Arthur so pale and wan? Is he worn out from ghost-writing Bob Kennedy's campaign harangues?"

No, the Traveler was told, Arthur Schlesinger hasn't been able to get out in the sunshine lately because he's burning the midnight oil in rewriting the history books. Ever since Lyndon Johnson proved himself to be such a historical figure as a war-winner and peace-maker, some very major revision of the books is necessary.

"IT MUST come hard to Schlesinger to erase from the tablets of his mind all those historical misjudgments about LBJ," said the Traveler. "You'd have to say that Arthur was struck with the proposition that four-term Presidents and assassinated Presidents were good for the U.S.A."

All that is very true, the Returning Traveler was told. Not only Bill Fulbright but all those other blubbering peace-mongers were busting out of their bellmets from having to eat all those disgraceful discourses about how America couldn't win a war and didn't have a President who could outsmart a Chinaman. And fellows who set themselves up as historians, like Schlesinger, would have to go back and rub out all the ratings that put Lyndon Johnson low when in truth, he rates very high among those who have been our chief executives.

"SUCH is American life," declared the Returning Traveler. "It moves so fast that senators and historians had better develop a succinct description for every national crisis — 'Here it comes and there it goes.'"

Violence Is Futile

WASHINGTON—Insurrection in a free, prosperous country like the United States will be hard to explain to the world. Many of the rioters were educated persons, with good jobs. The looting and the arson can hardly be rationalized as just a protest against government for failing to bring needed reforms.

The answer lies deeper. Even the leaders of the Negro organizations differ as to the causes or cures. James Farmer, founder of the Congress of Racial Equality, for instance, pointed out in a speech over the weekend:

"MARTIN LUTHER KING would have been highly distressed to think that the blood he shed has given rise to further bloodshed."

From another Negro leader, James Meredith, came an outcry against the "hypocrisy" of the national mourning for Dr. King. In the same speech, he promised he would teach his young people to use a pistol in self-defense.

It will be assumed by many people that the rioters were poor individuals looking for the emotions of the hour. The Washington Post, however, described a typical rioter as follows:

"THE FIRST RIOT suspects in court here yielded a portrait of a typical suspect about 29, who attended 11 grades of school, has a job paying $5 dollars to $5.50 a week, and has not been in trouble with the law before."

"This is an amazingly respectable crowd, compared with the people we usually get here," says a weary interviewer from the D. C. Bail Agency. "They have firm home addresses, families, and few criminal records."

IN WASHINGTON, the first sampling shows, more than half the adult riot suspects were married. A large number work for the federal government, and many have some college education."

Unquestionably, as the Negro population has increased in the United States and much of it has moved into Northern cities, frustration has played a large part in creating unhappiness. Racial discrimination has been practiced again and again and he left its mark. So when an occasion like a "march" or "rally" arises, the temptation of the aggrieved is to wreak vengeance. Because most of the stores are owned by whites, they become the victims of the violence.

THESE SOCIOLOGICAL factors are not going to be readily remedied. Nor will new laws, containing overdue reforms, have any immediate impact on the psychology of a race which has long suffered from an inferiority complex and now takes advantage of current events to manifest a sense of superiority.

Opinions differ as to whether the police have handled the situation effectively. Efforts to apply vigorously the weapons of the law have been met with cries of "police brutality." A timidity has seized many of the mayors and governors. Even when the National Guard and federal troops are brought to the scene, they are cautioned not to fire any shots except by direct order and to avoid a display of force.

SURPRISINGLY enough, members of the clergy have seemingly lacked the influence to discourage rioting. Maybe it's because so many have themselves participated in "demonstrations" and "marches." But certainly if law and order are flouted and measures are not applied to discourage violence, the American people face more crises in the future. It may take even greater tragedies to wake up all segments of the population to the simple fact that violence is futile and that manifestations of vengeance merely breed reprisals.

Your Family's Silent Partner

Lying there on the doorstep, it can't speak. Or Move. Or Hear. But open it in your hands and it becomes a living, powerful partner in daily living. In the decisions you make, the opinions you form.

It takes you to the highest chambers of government. It takes you to the bloodiest streets of warring countries. It takes you to the heart of history in the making. In short, it tells you what in the world is happening and why.

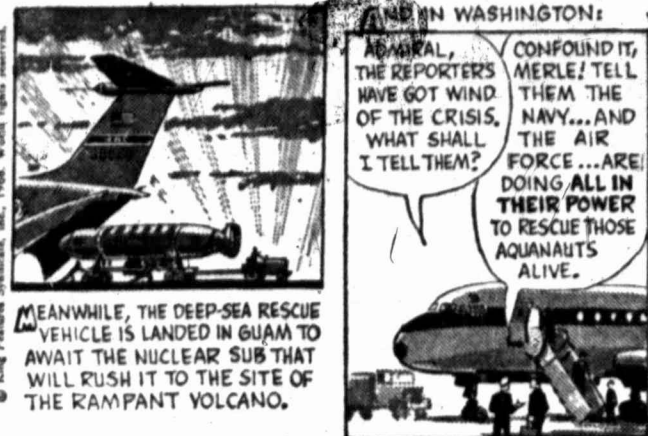

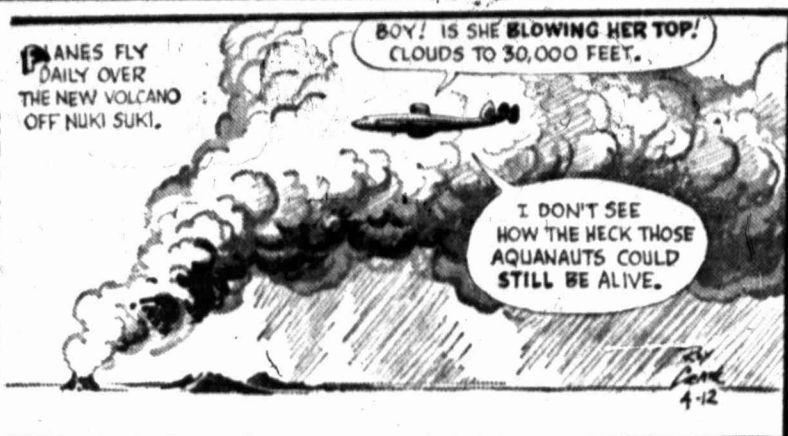

But people depend on it for needs beyond the need to know. It's where families turn when something's to be bought or sold. It's where hints on health, cooking, religion, amusements, dress-making, etiquette, marriage are found.

It's where charities first turn for help, and a place where a letter to the editor is published. It's where campaigns are fought and lost dogs are found. It's where criminals are exposed and newlyweds applauded. Where birth and death meet on the same page.

It's your newspaper, silent partner of the family, yet one that says so much, does so much for so many people... everyday without fail...

Nicklaus Is Hovering Near Masters' Lead

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Billy Casper, golf's quiet man, suddenly turned showman en route to the first round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament. Casper—for years a rather somber figure—capered and cavorted over the windy, rolling acres of the Augusta National Golf Course Thursday on the way to a four-under-par 68. That gave him a one-stroke lead over an international quintet including pre-tourney favorite Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, tough, young Tony Jacklin of England, Australian

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Abilene Cooper's Charley Buchanan could offer inspiration to Charley Brown of the "Peanuts" comic strip. Buchanan was "retired" three times in the same inning by Big Spring in that District 2AAAA baseball encounter in Abilene the other day, yet wound up scoring Cooper's lone run.

Big Spring's Gary Don Newsom ultimately put the tag on Buchanan at home and the Cougar base runner was called out by the plate umpire. Newsom then walked several steps down the line to bluff a runner back to first, where he juggled the ball and dropped it.

The base umpire, who had given Buchanan "life" on two earlier occasions on his tour around the bases, proceeded to rule that the Cougar was safe at home. The plate umpire pleaded "non vult contendere" when the Big Spring coaches challenged the decision, pointing out he had his back to the play. He made the initial call, however, and should have stuck by it.

There is an old saying around the Southwest Conference that the only way a prize high school athlete in Arkansas can leave the state is in a pine box.

The inference is that coach Frank Broyles and his spies exert so much pressure on home-grown talent and their families that the boys enroll in the Fayetteville school, if it is inclined to beckon their way.

One who did depart the commonwealth, however, is quarterback Dwight Moore, an all-state performer for Fort Smith's Northside High School.

It is told that one of the individuals who helped execute the coup was a former star quarterback for the Razorbacks, who became miffed at Broyles and his minions.

Fred Carr's bonus money from Green Bay amounted to only $15,000 and the UTEP grid star was a first round draft choice of the Packers.

It's quite unlikely that Philadelphia will go up in its $13,000 offer to ex-Big Spring Thurman (Big Daddy) Randle. Randle was hoping for substantially more.

The New York Jets were poised to snap up Carr in the draft but not Green Bay exercised the prerogative. Said Jet scout George Sauer, the former Baylor coach:

"I would have taken Carr if we already had ten all-pro linebacksers."

Shelby Metcalf, the Texas A&M mentor, said he was especially pleased to sign HJC's Larry Linder to a basketball scholarship because of the boy's great attitude.

Metcalf came here last month for the Region V Juco tournament for the expressed purpose of scouting and talking to Christian College's Joe Hamilton, knowing little if anything about Linder at the time.

Even if he doesn't land Hamilton, Metcalf says he considers the trip here richly rewarding because of Linder's aggressive play.

"It's a pleasure watching a boy like that and dealing with a family like the Linders," Metcalf said here last week. "They help make this business worthwhile."

Larry will major in business at the College Station school. He's a fine student.

American Legion baseball began as long ago as 1925 and in South Dakota, of all places. Many big league stars got their start in Legion ball.

In case you've lost track of the former West Texas State star, Pete Pedro, he performed last fall in the Continental League. A leg injury cost him a possible career in the big pro circuits.

Jeff Thomas In Command As Dogies Fell Angelo

SAN ANGELO — Stylish Jeff Thomas set the San Angelo junior varsity down with one hit in pitching the Big Spring High School B team to a 5-1 victory here Thursday.

Rickey Peurifoy counted a run for the Short horns in the third and that was all the cushion Thomas needed. He fanned six and walked only two.

The Dogies added another run in the fourth when Tommy McMurtrey crossed the plate after singling and saluted away the verdict with three in the seventh.

Thomas lost his no-hitter when John Hurt singled in the sixth. McMurtrey was the only player on either team to collect two hits. Charley Lewis of the Big Springers had the only extra-base hit, a seventh inning double.

The Dogies, who dropped their first three games, have now won three in a row. They meet the same team here Tuesday.

Meet Is Set At Sweetwater

The Lake Sweetwater invitational golf tournament has been set for April 26-27-28.

Deadline for entering is 5 p.m. April 26. The first day of the tournament will be given over to pro-am matches, and on the 27th and 28th there will be 18-hole medal play. Scores the first day will count toward the final result and also will determine in which flights the contestants will be bracketed.

Prizes will be awarded in all three flights. The entry fee is $15.

Defending champion is Jimmy Whitaker, Sweetwater.

Additional information may be obtained from R. L. Montgomery, pro for the Lake Sweetwater Club.

Eight Negroes Face Ouster At El Paso

EL PASO (AP)—Eight Negro trackmen from the University of Texas at El Paso stayed home today and faced expulsion from the El Paso team after saying they would boycott a Saturday triangular meet at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Coach Wayne Vandenburg and 14 of his athletes, including two Negroes, left for Utah by airplane. Vandenburg said earlier that team members missing the plane because of the boycott would be disassociating themselves from the team.

Seven Negroes issued a statement Thursday that they would not attend the meet because of what they said is a belief in the Mormon-operated BYU campus, "that the blacks are inferior and that we are disciples of the devil."

The original seven were joined today by Robert Boalts.

In Provo, BYU President Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson said there are Negro students at the school and asserted that the athletes' belief "is based on erroneous information and is untrue."

Vandenburg said he was "just trying to act like a coach. We have certain regulations and rules. It's a shock to me and a grave disappointment."

Among the seven athletes is long jump world indoor record holder Bob Beamon, who crossed Negro picket lines earlier this year to compete in the New York Athletic Club's indoor meet at Madison Square Garden.

Jose L'Official, a 440 and 880 runner, said, "We feel we should not compete and all of us who signed the statement feel we should not make the trip."

Others signing the statement include Kelly Myrick, Charles McPherson, David Morgan, Jimmy Love and Levi Portis.

The athletes also issued a statement critical of El Paso's participation in the Texas Relays at Austin last weekend after the assassination of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The athletes said Vandenburg could "have been more sympathetic toward us, the black athletes, concerning our feelings."

The announcement of the boycott follows an appearance during the weekend at El Paso of Dr. Harry Edwards, a leader of a Negro movement to boycott the Olympics, who charged that Vandenburg was exploiting Negro athletes.

"The athletes' statement said it 'does not mean we will not participate in any future meets if permitted. Since this is a Holy Week, a holy cause for all black, we feel our participating should not include the BYU meet for this coming weekend because of their belief that the blacks are inferior and that we are disciples of the devil.'"

Lucas To Beeville

Tommy Lucas, former coaching assistant at Abilene Cooper, has been named head football coach at Beeville High School, a Class AAA school located in the Lower Valley.

Alan King Show Keen, Devastating

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Alan King is a keen and angry observer of our society and is able to report on some of the irritants, great and small, in savagely funny terms.

In his NBC special Thursday night, the comedian went to work on an assortment of irksome matters that ranged in subject and importance from the size of postage stamps—too big—to an "explanation" of television programming practices that must have resulted in pink ears on any network vice president who happened to be tuned in.

King is a hero to the middle-aged, middle-class viewers who just don't understand hippies and flower children. He raked over "kids from nice homes who go to East Village" and went on to gurus, meditation and sitar players.

There was a timely musical spoof on the excessively grateful Academy Award winner's speech, presenting Liza Minnelli as an actress who after thanking everybody including her manicurist, threw humility to the winds and explained she really did it all by herself. And there was another that satirized the current crop of sexy violent films.

For the most part the show was bright, literate and often devastating.

Bob Hope, with Janet Leigh for company, came along on NBC immediately afterward with a "book" comedy, a change from his usual variety format for his last special of the current season.

Bob played a jaunty, would-be Lothario, bound for a holiday in a Latin-American country who immediately becomes a patsy in a wild plot to get stolen funds out of the dictator's nation.

It was an amusing, familiar sort of show, a miniversion of the sort of thing Hope so often does in his motion pictures. The plot lines were so predictable, however, that one constantly expected the performances to break into song and dance routines.

Burt A. Nix, 18, has been named recipient of a four-year Opportunity Award Scholarship at Texas A&M University.

A prospective May graduate of Big Spring High School, Burt plans to study toward a degree in chemical engineering. He is the son of Mrs. Faye Nix, 301 E. 13th Street.

Burt has been a member of the National Junior Honor Society and the National Honor Society, the Speech Club, Spanish Club and Science Club. He was president of the Science Club during his junior year.

Last summer he participated in a special honor's institute offered to the top 10 per cent of the senior class. Recently, he was one of eight named to participate in an extra-curricular computer training course.

In other activities, Burt has held line offices of the DeMolay chapter and its past master councilor (president). He also is area chaplain for the West Texas Area of DeMolay. At the annual banquet, he was presented the chapter plaque. Burt also is active in his church, the Anderson Street Church of Christ.

Ad Of The Times

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Ben J. Crumpton of Tampa has decided he will not be a candidate for president this year.

Crumpton announced his withdrawal through a classified advertisement in the Tampa Tribune gave no reasons.

"I thought I'd get in the swing with everybody else," a Navy veteran told a reporter.

Crumpton, who is studying accounting at the University of South Florida, said his decision is "irrevocable—maybe."

CONNALLY-YARBOROUGH FIGHT SEEMS CERTAIN

Texas Liberals Fan Old Feud

By The Associated Press

Sharp infighting over control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention seemed more certain than ever today.

Fanning an old feud between Gov. John Connally and U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, a group of Houston area liberals known as the Harris County Democrats urged that the state send uncommitted delegates led by the senator to the August convention in Chicago.

FAVORITE SONS. The State Democratic executive committee, controlled by the party's conservative faction, called earlier for Connally to take the role of a favorite son candidate for president, and the governor agreed to enter an active bid for this status.

Sen. Yarborough himself said Thursday that the Texas delegates should not be bound by the unit rule at the national convention in view of what could be the state's key position in the choice of a presidential nominee.

The senator cancelled a trip to an inter-parliamentary union meeting in Africa and headed back home for the Easter weekend. He said that President Johnson's decision not to run again "has so stirred events in the Democratic Party that I need to remain in this country at this time."

EASTER LULL. Then the Harris County faction met Thursday night. After being told that Yarborough did not want to be a favorite son candidate also, as some had urged, the group adopted a resolution stating:

"We call for a statewide draft of Sen. Ralph Yarborough as the leader of a Texas delegation uncommitted to any political candidate and not bound under the unit rule."

Candidates stumped ahead energetically in the Texas governor's race as the Connally-Yarborough feud simmered, but at least a partial lull was in prospect during the Easter observance.

Eugene Locke, one of the 10 Democrats vying for nomination as governor in the May 4 primary, said in Houston he had requested his organization not to campaign through the weekend, starting today—Good Friday.

At Arlington earlier, Locke cited the North Central Texas Council of Governments as a successful model for regional planning elsewhere in the state.

OPPOSES RFK. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith took occasion in Amarillo to make it clear that he opposes Sen. Robert F. Kennedy as the Democrats' candidate for president, saying his remarks about supporting the party nominee had been quoted out of context.

"How they could tie me in with a fellow like that I don't know," Smith said. "I am opposed to Robert Kennedy. I am committed to John Connally, and beyond that we're just speculating" on who will capture the nomination.

Shrugging off the pre-election polls quoted by some of his rivals, the lieutenant governor said at Abilene, "each candidate can usually find some poll that is favorable to him. Polls and surveys are so slanted—either for you or against you—that we can't believe in them."

Dolph Briscoe, a Democrat, declared at Denison that "Texas should serve notice to all that it cannot tolerate rioting and looting," he again expressed opposition to sale of liquor by the drink and horse race betting, along with support for a teacher pay raise during a swing also taking him to Gainesville, Sherman, Bonham, McKinney, Greenville and Terrell.

AD PRESSURE. Briscoe said support of his candidacy is growing especially in smaller cities. Without naming any of his opponents in this connection, he remarked, "I have no high pressure advertising agency but I do have people."

John Hill said he questioned the amount of experience cited by Lt. Gov. Smith during 18 years "around the government water hole." He accused Smith, as presiding officer in the Senate, of "thwarting the right of the people to be represented fairly by refusing to let their elected representatives have their say on the floor."

Mentioning that he was Gov. Connally's secretary of state until he became a gubernatorial candidate, Hill called that post "the place in Texas to learn the job of being governor... the closest office we have in this state to being the equivalent of a vice president."

Edward Whittenburg, at Harlingen, said that regardless of what a governor's committee recommends, he stands for a $1,000-a-year raise in base pay plus a $350 annual experience increase for teachers.

MORE MONEY. Whittenburg said it appeared "the committee on public school education was pressured into naming a premature statement on its report to show up Eugene Locke's unpopular position" on the teacher pay question.

Locke had said his stand on the issue would depend on the committee's report. That group then disclosed Monday that its members agree the teachers should receive more money but it mentioned no amount.

In visits to Dallas area suburbs, Democrat Don Yarborough proposed that 100 teams of economists and leaders in business, labor and other fields be formed to tour the nation wooing new industries for the state.

Speaking in Houston, Yarborough described $35 weekly compensation payments to workers a disgrace. He promised to seek legislation providing for workers to draw two-thirds of their base salaries as long as on-the-job injuries keep them idle.

TRUTH FIRST. Former Atty. Waggoner Carr, at Corpus Christi, told supporters, "Texas needs to lead the way toward improved Mexican-American relations." He suggested a special department at the University of Texas "to set up a training program for American citizens who want to work and do business with our neighbors to the south."

He said others running for the Democratic nomination spend millions on jingles and billboards but "the people know the truth—they know that Waggoner Carr has taken stands on all the key issues, and my opponents have not."

Pat O'Daniel, a comparatively light campaigner, called in Dallas for destruction of what he labelled a giant cartel between the state and federal governments.

"When elected governor," said the son of former Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, "this is one of the things I will do. I will not stop until the state government is completely free of all scandal and federal encroachment."

GOP CLAIM. Wallace Sisk, one of the three Republicans running for governor, said in a telecast to residents of the Austin and San Antonio areas that Texas has adequate laws to deal with crime and civil disorders.

Opening lead: King of ♦ West achieved a well earned upset of South's four heart contract by forcing the latter to commit himself before he was fully acquainted with his surroundings.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued with the ace, East discarding a club on the second round. West reasoned that his partner might be expected to score the third defensive trick by overruffing the dummy on the next diamond lead. Nevertheless, prospects for defeating the contract did not appear bright for, South was pretty well marked with the outstanding strength in clubs as well as the trump suit—to warrant his vigorous bidding.

It seemed to West that his queen of hearts offered the best prospect for scoring another trick, however, this remote chance hinged on inducing the declarer to commit himself in the trump suit before he had time to test the distribution further. So reasoning West led back the nine of diamonds—a suit preference signal requesting a spade shift.

North discarded a spade, East ruffed with the three of hearts and dutifully returned a spade. (If West had wanted a club shift, he would have led the deuce of diamonds for the ruff which asks for the lower ranking side suit). West's king of spades dislodged the ace and South was in the dummy for the first and last time.

Inasmuch as West had shown up with seven diamonds, declarer reasoned that he was apt to be very short in hearts, in fact, there was a good chance that West held only a singleton trump. On this basis, South took a first round trump finesse and West scored the setting trick with the queen of hearts.

Had East returned a club, declarer would have had time to test the trump suit by cashing a high honor from his hand first—because the North hand retains the spade entry to take a second round finesse in hearts. While it is true that South could have made his contract by refusing the heart finesse altogether, it is difficult to fault him for his decision. In any event, West merits full credit for earning a plus score for his side.
