At $6.80 Per Capita the Total Apportionment For State Will Be $5,381,581.20.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—According to a table prepared by the department of education, the revised figures show there is a total of 991,409 children in Texas between the ages of 7 and 17, of which 791,494 are white children and 199,915 negro children.

The state department of education has completed the tabulation and made the apportionment of the available school funds for the year ending Sept. 1, 1912, on a per capita basis of $6.80 for each child of scholastic age. This is the largest per capita apportionment in the history of the state, and, in the opinion of State Superintendent Brasley will be paid during the fiscal year without creating a deficit.

The following is the summary of children of scholastic age and of the apportionment.

White children male, 404,491; female, 387,007. Colored children, male 99,596; female, 100,219.

At $6.80 per capita, the total apportionment of the state available school fund is $5,381,581.20.

The number of children of different ages follow:

THE DECLINE IN COTTON IS CHECKED

Houston, Texas, Sept. 27.—The declining tendency in the cotton market which had become alarming the past few days was checked Tuesday before the close and final quotations showed an advance of 3 1/2 points in New York futures, with the market called firm, and 4 1/2 points up in New Orleans. Receipts at interior points were much lighter and rain fell in Texas, and these undoubtedly had some effect on the market. Disturbances in railroad operation were also feared. Southern selling was not so pronounced as on the preceding day, but still there was enough cotton for sale to prevent any great rally from the low prices.

Liverpool futures closed 4 1/2 at 8 points down.
October made a new low record when it sold at 10.3c. It rallied, however, at the close and made 10.3 1/2 in New York. The current option opened in New York at 10.30c, an advance of 22 points over the close of the day before, and finished at 10.24c, a net advance of 6 points. In New Orleans, September opened at 10.32c, an advance of only 2 points over the last price of the day previous, but closed at 10.34c, a net rise of 4 points.

Receipts at Houston today were considerably lighter, aggregating 11,707 bales, compared with 40,958 the day before and 24,915 the same day a year ago.

BILL POSTING CREWS FOR TWO SHOWS HERE

Gorgeous posters depicting acrobats in miraculous and death-defying feats, wild animals in tricks and acts obeying their trainers as docile as dogs and horses, glare and star from every wall and fence where paste can stick paper for miles around Wichita Falls and hangers with these same wonderful sights with dates in box-car letters have displaced the breakfast food and soap signs in the grocery store windows.

The bill posting crews for both the Hagenbeck-Wallace and the Sells-Floto circuses have been at work in and around Wichita Falls today and bill board and window space has been at a premium.

These crews travel in special cars and carry their posters and bill posting supplies by the railroad. The Sells-Floto show comes on October 10th and will be followed a day later by the Wallace-Hagenbeck show.

PRESIDENT TAFT AT TOPEKA TODAY

Topeka, Kansas, Sept. 27.—When President Taft arrived this morning in Topeka, the first important stop on his day's schedule, he found the city profusely dressed in patriotic attire and an enormous crowd on hand to do him honor.

A party of distinguished representatives of the State of Kansas accompanied the President from Hutchinson, while another party of State and city officials and leading citizens of Topeka was in waiting at the station to greet him when he stepped from his special train. After the welcome formalities had been concluded the President was taken in charge by the reception committee and escorted by a parade through the gayly decorated streets of the downtown district. At the conclusion of the parade the President delivered a brief address at the laying of the corner stone for the State Soldier's Memorial Hall to be erected in this city. At the conclusion of the program the presidential train left for Atchison and Leavenworth.

BALL IS IN RACE FOR THE SENATE

PROHIBITION LEADER OUTLINES HIS VIEWS—WILL SUPPORT RAMSEY AND WILSON.

FAVORS TWO PRIMARIES

Presidential and Senatorial Candidates He Believes, Should Be Selected Prior to Regular State Primary.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—The statement of Congressman Morris Shepard yesterday that he would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Bailey brought forth a similar statement from Col. Thomas H. Ball of Houston yesterday. Colonel Ball, chairman of the statewide prohibition forces in the announcement when he reached Austin yesterday to place his son, David, in the university. Soon thereafter he discussed his candidacy with friends and said to newspaper correspondents that he might have something interesting to say by nightfall. And later in the day he formally authorized the statement that he would be a candidate for the United States senate and returned to his home at Houston.

Along with the announcement of Colonel Ball that he will be a candidate for the United States senate, the statement comes from him that he will, during his canvass of the state, urge the election of Judge W. F. Ramsey of the supreme court to succeed O. B. Colquitt and likewise that he will urge Woodrow Wilson, as the man to bear the Democratic standards in the next national campaign over Judson Harmon and all others. He favors a presidential primary preceding the Democratic primary and thinks in this presidential primary the candidates for the United States senate in Texas should submit their names to the voters for an expression. Should any candidate for the United States senate fail to get a majority over his competitors in this primary, Colonel Ball would have the two high men fight it out in the regular Democratic primary to come later. He insists that he does not want the nomination unless he gets it from the majority of Democratic voters of Texas, and thus he outlines his first propositions in the campaign.

Colonel Ball spoke of his candidacy for publication only briefly, saying: "I will give to the public in due time my views upon public questions of interest, and pending such time, any person interested can ascertain how I stand upon any political question by oral or written request."

"My campaign for the senate will be pitched upon a high plan worthy of the great office to which I aspire, and should the candidacy of any one else on my views upon any public question embarrass any friends who have heretofore or may hereafter assume me of their support, a withdrawal thereof at any time because of the preference for another or inability to agree with me upon public questions will not in any way interfere with my continued appreciation of a personal willingness to honor me with support."

"I never hesitate to say how I stand and my consistency is well known, and since I favor the candidacies of Governor Wilson and Judge Ramsey, I certainly expect to do what I can to assist them when stumping the state. Some say that it will endanger my own candidacy. Be that as it may, I shall continue to be consistent, and pending such time, I will never let up in my fight against the whiskey ring in this state."

J. F. Walters, anti-prohibition leader, was asked if he was ready to announce.
"It is a long time until election day. The people of Texas won't be in such a big hurry to settle this thing," was his only comment.
In explanation of his idea for the senatorial primary along with the presidential primary which Colonel Ball proposes will be held in May Col. Ball says that it will be such a plan as will give every one a fair chance.
"That will give one candidate a majority and prevent any deadlock in the legislature in 1913. I don't believe the people would support a candidate who would refuse to enter into such an agreement," was his brief comment.
The primary proposed is of the character held when Senator Bailey and C. C. Ball were rival candidates for the Denver convention. It is not specially provided for and would necessarily be ordered by the state Democratic executive committee. It would cause the campaign especially that for the senatorship to open very early, and likewise it proposes quite an innovation if no one gets a majority in the first primary. Under the present Texas conditions and rules of politics, the plurality rule governs all sweepstakes and even the foot races in the Democratic party.
Colonel Ball will join in the movement for the presidential primary and will go a step further and urge the senatorial primary heat. These the big fight will continue between the two best runners to the end, for it is hardly supposed that any one man could get a majority in this senatorial fight the way the entries are coming in.

H. S. FOOTBALL PLAYERS ORGANIZE

At a meeting of the Athletic Association of the Wichita Falls High School yesterday evening, outlines and plans for the organization of a good strong team were discussed. Upon a motion being made, it was decided to organize at once. Carl Hammond was chosen captain and Prof. Meddows, manager.
Prof. Meddows stated this morning that while the team would probably be light, it would attempt to remedy this defect by hard training, and that several challenges had already been received from the teams of neighboring towns. Some very interesting football games are to be expected here this fall.

Miss Pauline Gebhart returned today from her vacation spent with relatives and friends at her old home in Hiawatha, Kan. Mrs. Gebhart remained in Hiawatha on account of the protracted illness of her father.

What might have been quite a serious accident, happened this afternoon about 3:30 o'clock near the corner of Ohio avenue and Seventh streets. Owing to the crowded condition of the city streets, the driver of a heavily loaded wagon of lumber was forced to swerve to one side in order to escape a collision with another vehicle. The sudden turn threw the wagon over the car tracks and the weight of the lumber, intensified by the sudden slight drop, broke the hub on one of the rear wheels of the wagon, thus spilling nearly five thousand pounds of lumber into the street and temporarily blocking the car line. No one was injured and traffic was soon resumed on the street.

Few Strike Breakers at Work In the Denison Freight Yards

Although local Katy officials deny that the strike has interfered with traffic on that line, local members of the carmen's union who are out on the picket line claim that there are many carloads of freight tied up in the local freight yards on account of the strike.

A dispatch from Denison says that eight strike breakers are at work in the Katy yards there inspecting cars and it is believed the company is expecting the arrival of more strike breakers tonight. Although some work is being done in the yards at Denison, the strikers feel that they

COLQUITT CONFERS WITH PRES. TAFT

PRESIDENT PROMISES GOVERNMENT WILL AID IN POLICING TEXAS BORDER.

PAY FOR EXTRA GUARDS

Visit to Hutchinson, Kan., in Line With Move to Cope With Possible Outbreak.

Hutchinson, Kan., Sept. 27.—Governor Colquitt, of Texas, had a satisfactory interview with President Taft Tuesday with reference to protecting the citizens of Texas along the lower Rio Grande border from the marauding bands of Mexican insurgents who have been dashing across the border and stealing the cattle, horses and other stock and provisions of the rancher and then returning to Mexico. The governor's proposition is to patrol the border with Texas rangers, the state police, who, he says, can accomplish much more toward restoring order than United States troops who have no authority to make arrests. It will be necessary to recruit the rangers from twenty in number to fifty. The captains of these police are paid $100 a month, the sergeants, each of whom has a squad of five men, $50 a month, and the ranger privates, $30 a month. Expenses in addition are also allowed the men.

The governor wanted assurance from the President that he would support an appropriation of federal funds for the additional rangers who would be needed and said just as he left for home last night that he had such assurance.

Governor Colquitt came to Hutchinson primarily for this conference. He explained to the President that while nothing of a serious nature had occurred, minor depredations were frequently reported and it was to stop them before they became serious that he sought governmental aid.

An unheralded Solomon has been discovered in Manchester, Conn., in the person of Policeman Sam Gordon. A housewife reported to the officer that a woman neighbor had locked up two of her choicest hens. When the policeman called on the holder of the hens she told him that they were her own property.

After much discussion Gordon took the hens and posted the two women on opposite sides of the street. Then he threw the hens into the middle of the road. Much to the complaining housewife's delight the two birds made as fast as legs and wings could carry them to the coop in her yard.

Said She Wouldn't Have Believed It

A week or so ago a woman stepped into the store and asked me if I really believed that Campbell's Baked Beans were as good and as cheap as home baked beans.

She said, "My family likes baked beans and wants them frequently. I bake them myself but it takes lots of time and once in a while I get weary of it. If I thought my family and I would like Campbell's Beans as well as my own I would be delighted for it would save lots of time."

I told her that a great many of my customers had had the same doubts but after one trial of Campbell's, had never baked beans again at home.

"Well," says she, "I'll try one can and see how they go."

Just the other day she ordered a dozen cans and said she wouldn't have believed that canned baked beans could be so good.

If you don't know Campbell's Baked Bean quality you ought to. Try them this week.

RESOLUTIONS FROM NAZARENE ASSEMBLY

The following resolutions were adopted at District Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene which met here last week:

Be it resolved, That we extend our thanks and appreciation to the people of Wichita Falls for so royally entertaining this assembly.

Also, to the hosts who have labored so faithfully trying to make the delegates welcome in their homes.

There was a time in the annals of history when we were so small, and few in number, and so little appreciated that we secured very little welcome wherever we went preaching this blessed gospel, but God has now so wonderfully enlarged our borders that as we come from the East, West, North and South to gather together here in this city, we make a mighty host.

This being the case, we so much more appreciate the welcome which we receive in the cities and homes as we pass along through life.

We wish to thank the daily papers for their excellent notices and reports of the proceedings of the assembly.

Also the Chamber of Commerce for their interest shown in entertaining the assembly and their liberal donation.

We also appreciate the courtesies shown us by the railroads and their officials.

We desire to thank the Methodist pastor and his people for opening to us the doors of their large and beautiful church.

To our well beloved Senior General Superintendent, Dr. P. F. Brees; our hearts swell up with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the privilege of having this dear old Father in Israel to preside over us all at this assembly. His every word, handshake, and even presence, seems to be fragrant with the flowers of the Holy Ghost.

We have left the overshadowing of the Holy One as we were encouraged and inspired afresh in this great work under his active instructions. We could not forget his dear wife. As they ripen for glory, may the richest blessings of God rest upon them.

To our beloved and much appreciated District Superintendent, W. E. Fisher, God only knows the toll and hardships of this great work, we feel that he has done his very best. We thank him for his faithful work and untiring zeal in looking after the churches in this district. We would not forget his dear wife who so faithfully stands by him while he prays. God bless them abundantly.

To our Secretary, W. F. Rutherford, and his assistant, Miss Mamie Tyre, who the Statistical Secretary, for their patience in recording and preserving the minutes of the assembly.

May the blessings of God rest on the preachers and delegates as they go to their fields of labor.

Again we say, God bless the people of Wichita Falls.

BAPTISTS TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES

Representatives Northern and Southern Conventions Meet at Old Point Comfort.

Old Point Comfort, Va., Sept. 27.—To adjust certain differences that have arisen between the two great divisions of the Baptist church in America, a joint conference was begun here today by representatives of the Northern Baptist Convention and representatives of the Southern Baptist Convention. Difficulties growing out of recent New Mexico organizations form the principal matter in dispute. Some New Mexico congregations withdrew from the Northern Baptist Convention, and joined the Southern with it, it is claimed, the cooperation of some Southern leaders. The action has produced considerable friction, which it is hoped will be removed by the present conference.

ELEPHANTS WHO WORK.

Perform Many Duties for Which They Receive Extra Pay in Peanuts and Dainties.

Without doubt the most intelligent and versatile pachyderms ever seen in America are the score of elephants with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows, which exhibit here October 11.

Their field of usefulness is not confined to pageantry and performances, though they are especially prominent in these dual roles. No elephant bearing in state Indian prince or potentate was ever more gorgeously robed and bedecked than these circus elephants in the Hagenbeck-Wallace street parade. Clothes of gold-finger velvet embroidered with silver thread and covered with brilliant ornaments, reach to the ground on either side, leaving only the heads of the ponderous beasts exposed. On their backs are immense howdahs, designed after the most ornamental of those used by East Indian dignitaries in the great durbar. The style or architecture is extremely oriental; there is extravagant use of gold leaf and jewels and the furnishings are of the costliest silks and satins. In the howdahs the elephant trainers are seated garbed in regal splendor, representing oriental potentates.

At the performance in the arena displays the elephants are divided in companies filling the three rings, giving a forceful illustration of man's mastery over the biggest brutes of the animal kingdom. These modern mastodons interpret intricate drills, the latest terpsichorean triumphs, including the famous Salome dance, form mountainous pyramids and elephant-line tableaux, play provoking jokes and in many other ways show astounding agility and surprising sagacity.

It is a noteworthy fact, however, that as working elephants this Hagenbeck-Wallace group of pachyderms excel. Trained and broken as beasts of burden on the public works of Ceylon, they have not been permitted to forget their earlier teachings. Driven by their trainers, they carry in their trunks the heaviest tent poles without apparent effort. The primitive method of pushing wagons with their heads is sometimes resorted to by them, or with ropes in their mouths they easily pull the largest trucks and dens, moving them with ease, though they be hub deep in the mire. At feeding time the elephants are sometimes led to the hay pile outside the tent. Each animal with his trunk picks up a hundred pound bale and carries it into the menagerie tent. With a stamp of the foot they break the binding wire and proceed to munch the meal they have thus prepared. As extra pay for their efforts they are given handfuls of peanuts and choice dainties that would delight the average child. They relish these with a gusto highly epicurean and show their gratitude by loud trumpeting. Such interesting sights as these are to be seen daily on the show grounds of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 27, 1911

After being out for 66 hours, the jury that heard the evidence in the case of Oliver P. Beaupre, charged with murdering his wife on the night of February 8, 1911, at Dallas, failed to agree and were discharged, eight being for acquittal and 4 for conviction. This is about the usual way that murder trials result when tried in a Dallas county court, which probably accounts for the fact that so many murders are committed in that city. Last year the average for Dallas county was a little more than one for each week. Or to be more accurate—fifty four killings for the year 1910. Three more months remain of the year 1911, and so far forty-four murders have been recorded for the nine months of the year 1911. At this rate the record of last year will be exceeded. If there is a city in the United States with a population of 100,000 that can show a worse record than Dallas for murders committed, this paper is not aware of the place. In fact, it begins to look as if Dallas holds the record not only for the number of murders committed, but for mistrials and verdicts of acquittal in murder cases when they are finally brought to trial.

There is this much to be said in favor of Congressman Choice B. Randall: He was the first, and so far as is known, the only man in Texas, who had the nerve to announce as a candidate for the United States Senate before Senator Bailey decided that he would not be a candidate for re-election, and that fact is going to gain for Randall a few thousand votes of itself. As for Congressman Morris Sheppard, there is not a brighter or cleaner man in public life in Texas today, and if elected to represent Texas on the floors of the United States Senate, there is not much doubt but that Texas will have just as brilliant and just as able representation as she now has in either Culberson or Bailey.

In announcing as a candidate for the Senatorship Col. Tom Ball of Houston, says never hesitates to say how he stands on any question, and forthwith says he favors Woodrow Wilson for president, Judge Ramsey for governor, is an favor of a primary election to be held in May 1912 in which all candidates for the senatorship should submit their claims, and the two receiving the largest number of votes be allowed to run the race through in a second primary. He also favors the primary plan for the selection of a candidate for president, and above everything else, says he will never let up in his fight against the whiskey ring in this State. He talks plainly and there is no excuse for one anyone to misunderstand his meaning. His announcement practically settles it that ex-Gov. Campbell will not be a candidate and perhaps that is better. This will give the ex-Governor a better opportunity to support Ramsey for the governorship, and if Ramsey succeeds in defeating Colquitt, Campbell will deserve and no doubt will be given a great deal of credit for doing the job. The time for him to ask and receive political honors will then be ripe, and as there is not a better or more thorough organizer or campaigner in the State, there is good reason for believing that his first ambition to defeat Colquitt with Ramsey will be realized, and will be followed by his elevation to the United States Senate to succeed Senator Culberson, who on account of ill health or for other reasons, may conclude to retire at the expiration of his present term.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henson, who it will be remembered were hurt in an automobile accident near Iowa Park not long ago, and who have since been recuperating in Miller's sanitarium, are now so far on the road to recovery that they were able to return to their home in Elgin today.

Men of Wichita Falls, Buck Up, Brush the Cobwebs Out of Your Eyes

Well, fellows, we suppose you are in the same boat we are—back from the mountains, the springs, the trout streams, or perhaps from the long deferred visit to the old folk back home—back at your desks and ready to hustle.

And that reminds us that the past summer months have not seen as much hustling as should have been done, even considering the season. In addition to that feeling of lassitude natural to the season—the let down to general business incident to this time of year, they brought us a pest that came in swarms that had the festive grasshopper and the seven-teen year locust beat a mile.

We refer to that long-faced, somber-eyed, pessimistic knocker with his gloomy cast predictions of all kinds of dire disaster to the business world and Wichita Falls in particular. And the worst feature of this insect's work is that it is absolutely without any foundation in truth.

There is not a thing in the economic condition of this country today to warrant any doubt of business resuming a normal, or even better condition of activity this fall and winter. But, unfortunately, and owing to a peculiarity of human nature, it has had its evil effect. Many men in "The Busiest and Best Built City in Texas" have gotten cold feet.

Did you ever hear the old story about Smith's fellow workman and associates conspiring to have each one of them at different times and places make some remark about how bad Smith looked—ask him if he were sick, etc., and of Smith finally going to bed, when in reality there was not a thing wrong with him physically. Well—it's the same thing in the business life of Wichita Falls. No good ever came from such a frame of mind.

A man may have planned a business deal that would greatly stimulate local business and turn into circulation a big sum of money. But he hears so many dire prophecies regarding everything being on the bum and going to remain so for some time that he finally becomes infected and gives up what would have proved a profitable venture.

Now then, Mr. Citizen, if you find yourself knocking, reverse. If you find your face growling, change it.

Postoffice receipts and business in other lines show an improvement over corresponding months last year. Hundreds are backing our convictions in a practical manner—building new homes, increasing plant capacity and building new and larger houses. And all this at the end of dog days—the season when all the little glooms seem to thrive.

Quit whining—buck up, brush the cobwebs out of your eyes and prepare to get your share of the good things that are in store for Wichita Falls this fall and winter.

Rent houses are at a premium; oil and gas development is bringing the city prominently before the investing public; new railroad facilities are early assured; additional industries indicate their intention of becoming a part of the city's life; there is lots of water in the lake and water holes for stock and the feed stuff crop is all right; a greater acreage of wheat is being sown for several years and better conditions exist that point to banner yield.

Townsite Sale of Wichita Falls Was Held Twenty-Nine Years Ago Today

"I am bid one hundred dollars for the first lot sold in this townsite—the city to be. Ladies and gentlemen, your opportunity has come. I look over this crowd and see these earnest, intelligent men and women and I can see the time these broad prairies—the richest soil under the heavens—will be teeming with life and industry—then there will be a city bulled here the magnificence and prosperity of which we can be fortunate today and anticipate this great city—you can buy today, and, I tell you, before next spring you will double your money—I am bid one hundred dollars for this lot, who'll bid two hundred?" In language something like this only with much more fire and spirit, for the crowd of bidders was enough to enthrone any man, the auctioneer twenty-nine years ago today on Sept. 27, 1882, opened the sale of the townsite of Wichita Falls. The sale opened with shouts and vigor and the first lot was knocked down in a jiffy for $410. This lot was the one on which the Barrett building now stands and was purchased by Judge J. A. Nabors, who now lives at Vernon.

The sale continued for several days and thousands of dollars worth of lots were sold. The sale was one of the most successful townsite sales ever held in Texas.

The Fort Worth and Denver railroad had just been completed to the new townsite from Fort Worth, and a special train was run from Fort Worth on the first two days of the sale, bringing great crowds each day.

At that time there were scarcely a dozen houses here and mesquite bushes and willows covered the ground now occupied by the business district.

J. C. Ward is one of the few now living here who was here at the time of the townsite sale. Ward and Stanley conducted a general merchandise business in a one story building where Pond's Laundry now stands on Ohio avenue. Another merchandise store was conducted on Ohio avenue, by White and Bailey, in a frame shack where the building now occupied by the Green Bros. Saloon stands. The postoffice was also located at this store. Mr. Ward says that as soon as lumber could be shipped in, the work of building started and during the first two years scores of one story frame buildings were erected on Ohio avenue and Seventh street. These shacks would be put up in a day, and on the second day would be occupied. Wells thirty feet deep would also be dug in a day.

Among the few others who attended the townsite sale still living in Wichita Falls are Judge J. H. Barwise, Mrs. A. H. Carrigan, Myron Barwise, W. E. Brothers, Alonzo Dickinson, W. J. Howard, Ed Wilson and R. E. Huff.

Although the real beginning of Wichita Falls was the townsite sale in 1882, there had been a few white settlers in this section for a number of years. Probably the first was a farmer named Gilbert, who located about ten miles north of the present city of Wichita Falls in about 1860.

The first townsite laid off here was in 1874. It was named Wichita Falls and was located on land owned by the J. A. Scott heirs. Lots were laid off on both sides of the river and a few were sold.

Within the last few days, complaints have been filed against four Wichita Falls automobile owners charging violations of the speed ordinances. R. E. Simpson, one of the number plead guilty, D. M. Perkins, another was found guilty yesterday, but was granted a new trial and his case set for four o'clock Friday afternoon. Complaints were also filed against Sam Sproles and F. P. Avis, but their cases have not yet been set for trial.

Attention is again called to the fact that all candidates for the Y. M. C. A. football team are requested by the new secretary, John G. Anderson, to meet tonight at eight o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building, corner of Seventh street and Lamar avenue.
