

Red Ship Searched, But No Weapons Are Found

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Navy party boarded a Russian-chartered Lebanese freighter today, and reported more than two hours later that no offensive weapons material was aboard.

The freighter, Maruca, was permitted to sail on for Havana with a cargo described as 12 trucks, sulphur, paper rolls, and parts for trucks.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester told a news conference that the Navy had received a message saying that the boarding party was returning to the destroyer Joseph P. Kennedy at 10:20 a.m. EST. The message reported that "no prohibited material" has been found on board.

The message said all the Maruca's papers were in order and the boarding party had obtained a copy of the cargo manifest.

"Cargo 12 trucks deck loaded," the message said. "All holds loaded to capacity. No passengers."

The stopping of the Maruca was the second interception announced and the first reported boarding by the Navy since it clamped a quarantine on Communist arms shipments to Cuba Wednesday morning.

The Maruca, which Sylvester said was listed in Lloyd's Shipping Registry as a British-owned World War II Liberty ship, was given permission to proceed on a course for Havana.

The vessel reportedly flies a Lebanese flag.

The boarding party, of undisclosed size, went aboard the Maruca at 6:50 a.m. (EST) 180 miles northeast of Nassau in the Bahamas.

Sylvester said that the destroyer John R. Pierce set out at 2 p.m. Thursday to intercept the Maruca, assisted by tracker airplanes.

The Pierce made contact about 10:30 p.m. Thursday and was joined by the destroyer Joseph P. Kennedy after midnight. The Kennedy was named for the President's brother, a Navy flier killed in World War II.

During the rest of the night, the Maruca headed on a south-southwest course at 12 knots, Sylvester said.

The freighter informed the Pierce that she had a cargo of sulphur, paper rolls, and truck parts.

The destroyers trailed the Maruca by about two miles under orders to stop her and board at first light.

Sylvester told a news conference that "until the boarding party returns after looking at the manifest, inspecting cargo and interrogating the personnel we cannot be sure of the composition of the cargo."

The Maruca is a Lebanese-flag ship, built in 1943 with a length of 441 feet, a beam of 57 feet and 27 foot draft. Sylvester said she sailed from Riga, in Communist-occupied Latvia on the Baltic Sea, under charter to the Soviet government.

The boarding party was commanded by Lt. Cmdr. Dwight G. Osborne of East Paterson, N.J., and Lt. Cmdr. Kenneth C. Reynolds of Coronado, Calif. Osborne is executive officer of the Pierce, and Reynolds executive officer of the Kennedy.

The Pierce is skippered by Cmdr. James W. Fount of Greensburg, Pa., and the Kennedy by Cmdr. Nicholas M. Mikhalovsky of Staten Island, N.Y.

The first ship to be intercepted was the Soviet tanker Bucharest but she was not boarded and was allowed to proceed for Cuba after the Navy had checked her hatch work from afar to determine that she was a legitimate tanker and that her trim in the water indicated that she was fully loaded with fuel.

Sylvester gave this chronology of the boarding operation:

At 6:24 a.m., est, the commanders of the two ships ordered boarding parties away. The Kennedy lowered its whaleboat at 6:29. At 6:32, the Maruca lowered a Jacob's ladder for the boarding party.

At 6:46, the party was alongside and boarding, and at 6:50 the party was aboard.

There was a possibility that still another ship had been intercepted and allowed to pass on to Cuba. The Cuban radio reported the arrival early today at Havana of a ship, the name of which sounded like Vinitza, and described it as the first Soviet vessel to "pass the imperialist blockade." The broadcast said the ship had been intercepted but not searched.

The ship the Pentagon said was intercepted was tanker named the Bucharest, which was allowed to proceed to Cuba. There was no immediate comment in Washington on the Vinitza.

Pyramid In Wilderness Is Unearthed

By SPIRO ELIAS

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—A South American archaeological expedition has unearthed a pyramid in the wilderness, about 21 miles south of Amman, which it believes is associated with Moses.

The pyramid—about 140 feet high with walls 55 feet wide—is the biggest single structure ever unearthed in Trans-Jordan or Canaan.

It was discovered by a Venezuelan expedition led by Prof. Julio Ripamonti, of the Venezuela Central University.

Ripamonti told The Associated Press that the pyramid dates to the late bronze age, around 1250 B.C. Inside is another smaller building, and in between the two are 12 small chambers which he believes may represent the 12 tribes of Israel.

Ripamonti said the outer pyramid was built with walls six feet thick.

A huge rock basin and a stone with an undecipherable inscription also were discovered.

Next to the mountain is a deep ravine known today as Wadi Afarit, (Devil's Ravine).

"This was my first clue," Ripamonti said, "because according to Jude of the New Testament, Moses' body was disputed between the Archangel Michael and the devil."

Ripamonti has not found Angel Valley but in the vicinity there is today a Wadi Dnayas (Churches Valley).

Ripamonti said that if the pyramid was not Moses' tomb, it might be a memorial to mark the site where Moses first saw the promised land, or to mark the place where he died.

Alternatively it might be a temple for Bethoor, in which case Moses' tomb should be somewhere nearby.

Three More Jurors Picked For Billie Sol Estes Trial

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Evidence grew today that a jury may be selected in the Billie Sol Estes theft and swindling trial today, paving the way for a weekend recess.

Meanwhile, defense attorney John Cofer announced that another Estes case, scheduled to start Monday in Amarillo, has been postponed with no definite date set.

Attorneys picked three more tentative jurors today well before the luncheon recess and at that time needed only 11 more of the required 32, of which 20 will be struck from the list.

The Amarillo case charges violation of the state anti-trust law. Cofer said a decision on when it will be held will be made Nov. 12.

Cofer continued to ask for a continuance of the trial, but the judge added more documentary evidence today to support his claim that citizens know too much about the case for his client to find an impartial jury.

Estes is the bankrupt former financier and promoter once reputed to be worth $150 million. His empire crashed last March when the federal government arrested him on fraud charges.

As usual, Estes sat impassively as a racially mixed cross section of Tyler citizens took seats as potential jurors to try the West Texas promoter on charges of theft and swindling.

Over defense objections, Judge Dunagan twice interrupted the lawyers to ask questions designed to assure that the prospective jurors understood what they were being asked. Chief defense lawyer John D. Cofer objected each time demanding that the court let him go ahead. Each time Judge Dunagan calmly said he intended to satisfy himself about qualifications of jury members if counsel failed to ask the proper questions.

Estes is accused of theft and swindling in inducing T. J. Wilson, a Pecos farmer, to sign a mortgage for purchase of another "ammonia" fertilizer tanks.

The state contends Estes stole the money and converted the tanks to his own use. Defense lawyers maintain he simply paid $7,500 to borrow the credit of Wilson, the mortgage actually was worthless, and Estes was in possession of the mortgage at all times.

Among the 18 accepted for possible jury service were the first woman on the panel and a Negro cleaning plant owner, first of his race to be questioned for the chore. They were the only two accepted without challenge by the defense.

The woman who may be locked up with other jurors until a verdict is reached, once the panel is completed, is pretty black-haired Mrs. Frances Fisher. She identified herself as a divorced mother of two small children living in Tyler with her parents.

Also seated, subject to final challenge, was Samuel T. Bell, middle-aged Negro owner of a cleaning plant.

Except for these two, lawyer John Cofer challenged all prospective jurors on the ground they had read in the newspapers or heard on radio or television about some phase of the multifaceted Estes case. Judge Dunagan overruled Cofer in each instance.

Among other things, the defense asked if jurors could decide impartially on the possibility of a suspended sentence for Estes. The state objected, and the court ruled the question might be asked only if the Estes' lawyer applied for suspended sentence before the case goes to the jury.

11,000 PERSONS GIVEN TYPE II

Over a thousand Type II Sabin vaccine doses were "shot out" to citizens of the Scurry County area here yesterday during a makeup day held at the Health Center.

That number, coupled with those taken Sunday, brings to over 11,000 the number of doses taken during the second stage of the drive. Type I had already been distributed here in September, while the third and final Type III is slated for December according to Jaycee project co-chairman Doug McGlaun.

From the top of the pyramid facing west it was possible to view Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the distance.

Ripamonti believes Moses' tomb may be found under the pyramid or in one of the rooms. Excavations will resume next August.

South of the pyramid a sizable cave with a lime ceiling was found. In it were bronze-age pottery and human skulls and bones. Inside the cave is a tunnel in the direction of the pyramid leading to a bigger cave—still unexcavated.

East of the pyramid an olive press or wine press was unearthed to indicate that the now barren area was cultivated 3,000 years ago.

The professor conducted Jordan's King Hussein around his discovery. Ripamonti showed Hussein large pieces of wood of all types used in pyramid building, including bamboo in a wonderful state of preservation.

Six Vietnamese Killed As Teen-Ager Hurls Grenade

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A teen-age Vietnamese boy hurled a grenade into a crowd today as an aircraft exhibition in front of the Saigon City Hall, killing at least six Vietnamese and injuring 38.

Two of the dead were soldiers and two children. Six of the injured were in critical condition. Today was Republic Day, a national holiday, and more grenades were hurled—apparently by the Communist Viet Cong—as the day wore on.

One thrown at a U.S. officers' hotel did not explode.

Another exploded in a suburb near the airport, but no casualties were reported.

The youth responsible for the fatal blast was believed to be a member of a Viet Cong assassisination group known as "Volunteers for Death." He reportedly threw the grenade into a helicopter on display but someone inside the aircraft threw it out.

After the blast the youth broke into a run. Dozens of police and bystanders jumped him and beat him severely before a police van hauled him away.

A second of the youth found carrying two grenades nearby also was arrested.

The blast occurred next to an A-1H fighter plane on display in front of City Hall. Nearby are the U.S. Information Agency building and U.S. military officers' hotel.

Vietnamese were packed into the mall, looking at the plane, various types of artillery, a tank and a helicopter. The crowds panicked, but police restored order quickly.

President Ngo Dinh Diem, whose presidential palace was bombed by two renegade air force pilots Feb. 27, was in his palace half a block away when the bombing took place. An hour earlier Diem had watched from a grandstand during a military parade along the waterfront nearby. He was protected on the stand from exposure to the crowds, who could not see him.

The Communist Viet Cong had been expected to cause trouble on this day, the seventh anniversary of the founding of the South Viet Nam government. U.S. Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Jr. warned Americans earlier in the week to stay off the streets.

Police and soldiers patrolled the streets. Automobiles and pedestrians alike were barred from streets near the palace.

U Thant Trying To Start Negotiations

By TOM HOGUE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Acting Secretary-General U Thant met with representatives of the United States today in an effort to set up negotiations to end the Cuban crisis. He scheduled meetings later in the day with Soviet and Cuban diplomats.

Two top-ranking members of the permanent U.S. delegation to the United Nations—Ambassadors Francis T. P. Plimpton and Charles W. Yost—met with Thant in the absence of Chief Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson who had rushed to Washington for consultations.

The first meeting took place at 11:30 a.m. EDT in the 38th floor office of the secretary-general. Thant arranged to see Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin at 4:30 p.m. and Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia-Inchausti at 5:30 p.m.

In Washington, Stevenson conferred with President Kennedy and attended a meeting of the 12-member executive committee of the National Security Council at the White House.

While both Moscow and Washington lifted some of the world tension by agreeing to preliminary talks, the United States continued its blockade of Cuba and kept up its demand for removal of Soviet missiles from Cuban tanks.

Moscow Radio announced the Soviet Union's strategic rocket troops have been ordered on a state of increased combat readiness.

Krasnaya Zvezda (Red Star), the defense ministry newspaper, said: "The unprecedented aggressive actions of U.S. ruling circles toward the Cuban republic and other states could not but provoke retaliatory measures from the Soviet government."

Premier Khrushchev's conditional acceptance of Thant's negotiation proposal was seen by Western diplomats in Moscow as preparation for him to appear before the United Nations. They said he also apparently had directed Soviet ships carrying arms to turn back from Cuba.

Washington sources said the Soviet ships turning back include most of those suspected of carrying offensive weapons, among them was a huge vessel designed to transport missiles.

A White House authority emphasized "there are still Soviet ships headed toward Cuba, and the only way this government can get precise information on some of these ships or the cargo they are carrying is through the quarantine."

The first Soviet ship stopped by the Navy blockade was an oil tanker, the Bucharest. She was not boarded and was allowed to proceed Thursday after an exchange with the blocking ship. The tanker was due to dock today and Havana Radio said the crew would be honored at a big celebration.

U.S. strategists believed the climax of the crisis was still to come with the issue up to the Kremlin for weeks.

UF Drive Near Half-Way Mark

A total of $18,022.75, or 47 per cent of the $38,000 goal, had been accounted for at noon today in the Scurry County United Fund campaign.

Reports were continuing at a special report desk set up in the office of the Texas Electric Service Co.

The division reporting the highest percentage of its quota this morning was the Branch House Division, under the chairmanship of Hicks Allen. That division had reported 98 per cent of its quota of $3,200.

The "Hero" medal, awarded to the division having the highest percentage of quota divided by the number of days worked was won again by the Professional Division headed by J. Mark McLaughlin. It was closely followed by the General Division.

Other division reports included the Employment Division, $891.40, or 10 per cent of its quota; Public Employees, $328, or 20 per cent; Women's Division, $185, or 5 per cent; County Division, $370, or 14 per cent; Advance Gifts, $11,248.50, or 53 per cent; Special, $675.50, or 32 per cent; General, $658.50, or 32 per cent; Professional, $895, or 70 per cent.

The next scheduled report meeting for all divisions will be announced early next week. United Fund headquarters reminded volunteer workers and potential contributors alike that the current campaign is heading into its final week, with Nov. 3 set as the final day of the drive. All concerned were asked to do all possible to assure the successful completion of the campaign. The latest to join the activity this week were the Public Employees and County, or Rural Divisions.

Team captains and workers in the Public Employees division are George Patterson, captain, Warren Boyd, George Lee, Bill Kinney, L. E. Griffin, K. O. Pitzer, and Chester Simmons; Dan Cotton, captain, Doyle Gallman, Ray Pevler, Thane Mebane, Bill Zimmerman, Earl Abercrombie, J. C. Massingill, Bill Herring, W. M. Dabbs, St. Miller, G. G. Greene, and Jay Ramsey; Homer Ray, captain, Jay Banks, and Joe Middleton; and J. C. Williamson, captain, Tommy McMahon and Carl Stokes.

The Rural Division, Mrs. Alvin Koonsman, chairman, launched its portion of the campaign at a meeting Monday afternoon. The quota for this division was set at $2,600. The Rural division was the first to achieve 100 per cent of its quota last year, and Mrs. Koonsman urged those present to equal that record this year. Community captains of this division are Camp Springs, Mrs. Jim Beaver and Mrs. Eldon Perry; Canyon, Mrs. Jim Stirling; China Grove, Mrs. O. N. Laster; Clairmont Road, Mrs. Wiley Brice and Mal Anderson; Cottonwood Flat, Mrs. Dell Roy Helms; Dermott, Mrs. Bert Sellers; Dunn, Mrs. Martin Murphy; Ennis Creek, Edwin Parks; Fluvanna, Mrs. Joe Landrum; Glenview, Mrs. Thomas Rogers; Inadale, Mrs. Jimmie Beck; Ira, Mrs. Fred Gullett, Mrs. Corky Kruse, and Mrs. Emil Kruse; Knapp, Mrs. Raymond Robinson; Lloyd Mountain, Mrs. Alvin Koonsman; Lone Wolf, Herman Stahl; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Loy Logan; Pyron, Mrs. Dale Hess; and Union, Howard Hogue.

whether the solution would be military or peaceful.

As the peace efforts focused on the United Nations, demonstrations for and against the U.S. blockade continued around the world.

Western Europe's newspapers greeted with relief the willingness of the United States and the Soviet Union to talk. But many feared the crisis may smolder for weeks.

Thant announced he would separate talks with the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba, beginning today with U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson.

Stevenson indicated to newsmen he would insist on proof that Soviet arms shipments to Cuba will cease and the Soviets will halt the erection of missile bases in Cuba if the three nations agree to meet at the negotiating table.

Boy's Club Dedicated To Constructive Youth Work

"Fun with a purpose."

As contradictory as the above statement might seem to be, it is nevertheless the unofficial slogan of the Scurry County Boys Club, located at 1500 Twenty-ninth Street. It puts into a nutshell the beliefs of the people who work with the organization.

Financed primarily by United Fund contributions, the Boys Club endeavors in every way possible to provide opportunities and experiences which will teach a boy to use his leisure time constructively. The leaders of the club feel that constructive use of free time aids in the development of the whole boy as a busier, happier, healthier, growing citizen.

An expected 700 boys will have been active members of Snyder's Boys Club by Dec. 31, 1962. Membership is open to any boy 6 to 18 years of age. A nominal fee ranging from 25 cents a year for boys 12 and under to $1 a year for boys 17 and older is charged.

In 1961 the club was allocated $12,000 by the United Fund. Following the deduction of the director's salary and the payment of the utility bill, approximately $400 remained each month to pay for equipment and essentials for the club.

This year's United Fund budget also calls for the allocation of $12,000 to Boys Club. According to Herb Barnett, executive director of the club, plans call for the continuation of the activities program and the expansion of the building program presently underway at Lake Thomas.

What does the organization do with the money that the people of Scurry County give to the United Fund and to Boys Club? Just about any wholesome activity imaginable is offered to members after school hours and on weekends.

Organized since June, 1953, the club operates its doors Monday through Friday from 3:30 to 6 p.m. and again from 7:30 to 9 p.m. On Saturday activities are sponsored from 9 a.m. until noon. A person who drove by and decided to see BOYS CLUB Page 2

PAPA NEEDS NEW SHOES---TOO!

Americans Need To Button Lips For Success As Spies

By INEZ ROBB

We Americans are a nice, friendly, outgoing people. But we talk too much for our own good and for that of our country, too.

We like to learn to button up our lips, in the frank opinion of Robert Hayden Alcorn, one of the key men in the hush-hush and vitally important OSS (Office of Strategic Services) during World War II.

"I hope we know everything about Russia and the Russians. I'm certain they know everything about us," Alcorn said a few days ago. "Ours is a completely open society and we Americans are warm, outgoing characters who talk our heads off."

"For this reason, the average, honest, patriotic American doesn't make a good espionage agent or spy," added Alcorn, whose authoritative history of the OSS, "No Bugles for Spies," is being published today by David McKay. Alcorn, who was responsible for financing OSS operations all over the world, was a close associate of Gen. William (Wild Bill) Donovan, originator and director of OSS throughout the war.

"On the other hand, the English are taciturn, very tight on security and make excellent agents," the author continued. "So do Latins. By nature, Latins are romantic and they love intrigue. It borrows a Latin to go in a straight line if any detours are possible."

Nonetheless, the great majority of agents in OSS were American men and women who operated brilliantly and with incredible courage all over the world, as Alcorn acknowledges proudly in this book. Indeed, "No Bugles for Spies" is a tribute to the lonely, dangerous work of supremely brave men and women who are still nameless.

"There are no bugles for spies, or flowers, either," he explained at luncheon. "Espionage isn't a pleasant business. In fact, it is a horrible business. There are times when it is necessary to send your own agent, with wrong information, into enemy territory with the sole purpose of getting him captured by that enemy."

"When a spy is captured, his book is closed. He is never acknowledged by his superiors. It is as if he had never existed. The spy is the loneliest man in the world. He is always on his own."

"But unpleasant as espionage is, it is absolutely essential for the survival of a nation in both war and peace," Alcorn continued. "It is of the utmost importance that this nation know everything, EVERYTHING, about any potential enemy. I only hope we know as much about Russia as I feel they know about us."

Americans are apt to think spying a dirty business, and fob it off. But other nations, Alcorn pointed out, perfect it constantly, with money no object. According to the author, it is an open secret that the most famous and push of beauty shop operations in many parts of the world was financed by a European government (an ally) between the two world wars.

"This government rightly deduced that the shops would attract diplomatic wives as well as the wives and daughters of key men, and that their careless gossip would be invaluable. It was," Alcorn added.

There is one chapter in "No Bugles for Spies" that is not for the faint of heart or stomach. It details the savage tortures inflicted on Allied agents captured by the Germans.

"I hesitated before I wrote that chapter," Alcorn said. "But people forget too quickly. I want them to remember!"

Did we Americans ever resort to torture of an enemy agent, I asked.

"Never," said Alcorn. "never. The bestiality of men or nations that resort to such tactics is beyond comprehension."

Rumors Put Stocks On Wild Spree

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The love affair between the stock market and Dame Rumor rarely has been more evident.

Rumors send prices down and new rumors send them up. This has held true this week both for prices in general and for prices of individual stocks which responded to rumors about how the particular company would fare in view of the latest rumor.

Prospects for different industries and for individual companies were revised almost hourly as stock traders listened to the latest inside dope on how the Cuban trouble was shaping up.

Wild swings in prices resulted. And often these affected public views of the emergency—and in turn fed fresh rumors. An amateur speculator proceeded at his own risk.

Wall Street has its own ways of getting rumors and of spreading them. It needs official announcements. But more often it tries to anticipate them—frequently with notable success, and sometimes with none at all.

Traders who guessed right could have made a lot of money this week. For example you did if you sold early Monday in expectation of the President's ordering of a blockade of Cuba, and then bought at the low point Wednesday morning in expectation that stocks would rebound at the first rumor—substantiated or not—that Soviet Premier Khrushchev would seem to be backing down.

And commissions on the huge volume of sales and purchases helped out the brokerage houses that had been languishing in near-dead markets.

Because stock trading is nationwide, Wall Street has the advantage of a news or rumor network of its own. True or false, such word is fed into the boardrooms before it has time to be evaluated and reach print or the news broadcasts.

The Street also has access in many cases to inside corporate information. Example: A company put on notice to be ready for a national emergency may know before the public does that such an emergency is in the making or feared. This information often reaches outside ears—bankers, brokers, businessmen having contacts with the firm.

Plane Is Used To Catch Rattlesnake

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Student pilot John Smiley, 32, has found a new way to catch rattlesnakes—with an airplane.

Smiley was bringing his plane in for a landing when he spied the snake on the runway.

"Rattlesnake sighted on final approach," Smiley radioed the airfield tower. He landed and taxied the plane over the serpent, pinning it to the concrete with one wheel.

A field service truck drove up and its operator smashed the snake's head.

Junior Editors Quiz on YOU

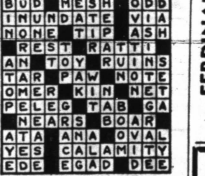

QUESTION: Why do we blush when we are embarrassed?

ANSWER: Our bodies are criss-crossed with an enormous number of very tiny tubes called capillaries. The blood passes through them and delivers oxygen through the capillary walls, taking waste in exchange. There are nerves, something like electric wires, connecting capillaries to the brain. These can sense the capillaries to expand so that they are suddenly filled with more blood. This is what happens when you blush; blood is suddenly rushing into your capillaries, making your face look red. Our bodies are wonderfully arranged to take care of sudden emergencies. One of the ways help is given to us is to have more blood than usual pumped through our bodies. If you are in great danger, for instance, your heart will beat fast, providing you with more oxygen than usual. This gives us quick power so that we can think and move fast in order to get out of the danger. In the same way, more blood helps us to get out of embarrassing situations. Now is this fresh blood going to help Jane in our picture? It can't give her the answer she is hunting for, but by making her brain go faster it will suggest that she should prepare more carefully for her lessons next time.

FOR YOU TO DO: If something has happened to make a person embarrassed, don't make it worse by going on talking about it. The polite thing is to change the subject.

Steers Eye Pesky Owls

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas Longhorns, winners of 19 of their last 20 games but still able to lose a lofty ranking with one little slip, try to swat a usually troublesome Rice Owls Saturday in the big game of the week in Southwest Conference football.

Unbeaten for the season, carrying the No. 1 national tag and meeting a team that hasn't won one in the last five, Texas is favored by two touchdowns but not because Coach Darrell Royal wants it that way.

Mindful that Texas hasn't beaten Rice in Houston in a decade and having to play in the Owls' own backfield, before 71,900 wide-eyed fans, Royal has said with a plaintive note that he'd like to feel confident of winning by just one touchdown.

Two more conference games are on the schedule and one of them could give the league race one of the quirks that makes it so interesting and uncertain.

The one team, other than Texas with a perfect conference record is Southern Methodist, which won its first game in eight only last Saturday in a 13-7 betting of Rice. Southern Methodist plays Texas Tech at Lubbock. A Southern Methodist victory coupled with a possible Texas loss would put the Methodists on top of the race.

The Methodists are favored by six points to beat winless Tech although they are playing the Red Raiders on homecoming day. The other conference inside has Texas A&M trying to knock over Baylor at Waco on the Bears' homecoming. It is a survival battle with the loser to fade from championship contention.

Baylor, which finally hit the champs predicted for it in a 24-7 trouncing of Texas Tech last week, is a 6-point pick to knock over the Aggies.

Arkansas meets independent Hardin-Simmons at Little Rock in a game the Razorbacks will be expected to win without getting up a good sweat. This same Hardin-Simmons team was swamped 39-0 by Tulsa and Arkansas wacked Tulsa 42-14.

Texas Christian, the other conference member, rests after two straight victories that put the Christians back into the conference race.

Three out of four last week and a record of 19-1-1 for the season, take these selections with reservations:

Texas-Rice — Texas by three touchdowns.

Southern Methodist-Texas Tech — A tossup but with the Methodists most likely to win the toss.

Baylor-Texas A&M—The Aggies haven't generated enough offense to meet Baylor's scoring power, so it's Baylor by a touchdown.

Arkansas-Hardin-Simmons — Imagine what an upset this could be—but it's all in the imagination: Arkansas by about 30 points.

Grid Doubleheader Set Here Saturday

A "double treat" is on tap here Saturday night when both the Snyder Tiger B team and Travis 7th Blue Devils will play in a grid twin bill on the Tiger Stadium turf.

Snyder B will play host to Colorado City B in the first of the two battles, with that kickoff slated for 8:30.

Tiger B, coached by Bill Hartsfield and Roy Carter, saw a two-game winning streak snapped by powerful Midland Lee last week, going down by a 12-20 count. The locals now stand 3-4, with their two triumphs having been by 26-14 and 22-8 over Sweetwater and Lamesa, respectively.

Injured quarterback J. N. Wall is still out of the Tiger lineup, and Richard Waters has been granted the starting quarterback assignment in his place. Joining him in the backfield will be Gary Bergeron at fullback and Albert Williams and Arthur Claxton at the halfbacks.

Manning the forward wall will be ends Phil Moore and Richard Elkins, tackles Phillip Floyd and Jerry Owens, guards J. B. Murphy and David McKinney, and center John Finkle.

Defensive starters include Jeff Graham and Jim Moss, guards; Floyd and Owens, tackles; Murphy and Dan Smith, ends; Finkle and Claxton, linebacks; Williams and Jerry Wilson, halfbacks; and Robert Force, safety.

Edison Tough

Snyder fans will be afforded a look at one of the strongest junior high teams in the state when Travis 7th's foe—San Angelo Edison—roars into town for the 7:30 nightcap.

Lamar 9th got a taste of the Edison wall last week when the Angelenos roared to a 42-0 win. In Julio Guerrero, a do-it-yourself halfback, the Edison eleven boasts one of the finest future schoolboy prospects ever. He personally accounted for 34 of his team's points against Lamar.

Edison has suffered only one loss this season, going down before Big Spring Rummels 20-30. The Travis Blue Devils are also a once-beaten outfit—losing out to Big Spring Goliath by 6-12—and have four victories to stack up against that one loss, including a 20-6 revenge win over their Goliath tormentors.

SMU Alleged To Be Feeling 'Dollar Pinch'

DALLAS (AP)—Losing football teams and sagging box office receipts have put Southern Methodist University's athletic department in dire financial straits, Los Angeles Times Herald sports staff said Thursday.

Cox wrote that the athletic department has been able to contribute financially to the school and that the university administration is attempting to determine if SMU can stay in big time football.

The Mustangs have won only two football games in a two-year period and only one this year. Cox quoted a source as saying that turnouts of 15,000 persons for the Southern California and Rice games were just about half enough to finance the university's athletic program.

Cox said the faculty appeared to be upset and that some of the professors thought there was too much emphasis on football and not enough on academics.

Local, Area Grid Slate

FRIDAY
Snyder (2-3) at Lamesa (4-1), 7:30 p.m.; Robert Lee at Herrin (2-3); Gail (4-0-1) at Dawson; Hobbs (3-3) at Divide; Blackwell at Ira (0-4).

SATURDAY
Colorado City B at Snyder B (2-0), 7:30 p.m.; San Angelo Edison at Travis 7th (4-1), 7:30 p.m.

HUNTING TROPHY—Young Kirk Burks, 2802 Thirtieth Street, proudly displays the young elk he killed on a hunting trip to Pagosa Springs, Colorado. Many Snyder hunters have reported success on their trips to the mountains this year.

BOUND FOR DUTY—Named as tri-captains for tonight's game against the Lamesa Tornadoes are Tiger guards Glen Banks and Pete Greene and halfback Darrell Aldridge.

KICKOFF SET FOR 7:30 TONIGHT

Bengals In Lamesa For Launching Of 3-3A Play

That time has arrived—the time to forget all those non-district "warm-up" games and to settle down to the more serious business at hand.

That particular business has to do with kicking off the District 3-AAA race tonight. The Snyder Tigers will have a hand in the proceedings beginning at 7:30 in Lamesa's Tornado Stadium in one of the three headlined battles of the evening.

Elsewhere on the district front, it will be anything but quiet. The other four members will all be touching off their conference campaigns when Sweetwater (1-3-1) travels to San Angelo for a duel with the defending champion Lake View Chiefs (2-0) and Broughtfield (2-1) embarks on its maiden voyage within the 3-AAA confines with its trek to Colorado City (1-4).

Coach Horace Bostick's Tigers will enter tonight's game sporting a 2-3 record over the non-district span. They defeated Andrews 7-0 before being upended by Levelland 6-14, then bounced back to topple Big Spring 14-8. Since then they have suffered consecutive losses to Kermit (0-12) and Stamford (7-10).

The Turs, coached by Al Langford, raced through their first four contests in undefeated fashion before being surprised by Hereford, 14-27. Included in that string were wins of 21-6 over Midland, 8-7 over Andrews, 13-6 over Kermit, and 24-14 over Odessa Ector.

They will be relying heavily on the running of fullback Jay White, the district scoring leader with 42 points, and the passing and running of quarterback Sherrill Kidd when they take the field against the Bengals.

Shouldering the bulk of the offensive load for Snyder will be sophomore-rushing leader Leslie Brown, who is averaging 8.1 yards on 33 carries; 160-pound senior fullback Bob Pena, who has rushed for a total of 173 yards; and the "double W" passing quarterbacks of the team—senior Dalton Walton and junior Jimmy Wilson.

Walton has connected 50 per cent of the time, completing 12 of 24 tosses for 162 yards, while Wilson has found the mark on 13 of 20 aerials for 153 steps. Brown is their favorite receiver. He's hauled in 13 packages for 206 total yards.

Bengal Defense Shines

It is said that a good offense is the best defense, but Snyder has found the reverse to be true in its case. A hard-nosed defensive unit, sparked by the likes of linebackers Pete Greene and Darrell Aldridge, tackle William Robinson, and middle guard Larry Lee, has been the force which has held Tiger foes to less than nine points per game on the average.

The Turs hold the series edge in a rivalry which began in 1955 with 11 victories and six losses. Two other games resulted in ties.

"Recent history," however, shows Snyder to be ahead. In the seven meetings recorded beginning in 1964 the Tigers have won four, lost two, and fought to one 3-0 standoff. Lamesa may boast of the most recent triumph, though—last year's 12-7 decision.

Named by Coach Bostick to start on the defensive unit for the Tigers are middle guard Lee; tackle Robinson and Paul Daniel; ends Tim Hardin and Billy Stewart; linebacksers Greene, Pena and Aldridge; and deep men Brown, Jimmy Taylor and Gail Potter.

Snyder will be vastly outweighed in both the line and backfield giving away over 15 pounds to the man on the starting offensive unit.

Every Tornado starter listed boasts more heft than his Tiger counterpart, with Lamesa's average being 173.1 pounds to the player to Snyder's 157.3.

The Tigers are in good physical shape for the important district inaugural.

Named to serve as game captains are Aldridge, Greene, and Glen Banks.

Prospects for mild but nippy weather are good for the evening, with a southeast and even a record crowd predicted.

Giants Picked To Puncture 'Skins

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League hits the halfway point in its 1962 season Sunday, with the Green Bay Packers and Washington Redskins still unbeaten, and with the Los Angeles Rams winless.

This doesn't figure to be the case seven weeks from now when the season ends, but when is the lightning going to strike?

Last week, 5 correct, 6 wrong: (32-27-1).

New York over Washington: Redskins have plenty of talent and desire but Giants too strong physically.

Green Bay over Baltimore: The Packers go for seventh straight. Packs defense once more may prove confusing to Colts' quarterback John Unitas.

Detroit over Chicago: Lions have flanker Terry Barr back and that helps Milt Parn's passing. Bears haven't re-established running game and Lions' big defensive line can concentrate on Billy Wade's passing.

St. Louis over Dallas: This week's upset, and it comes on heels of tongue lashing by Coach Wally Lemm that team shows something or he goes.

Pittsburgh over Cleveland: The Steelers usually good for one victory over Browns each year and Bobby Layne, John Henry Johnson and big defense still fresh enough to do it.

Philadelphia over Minnesota: Sonny Jurgensen now has Hopalong Cassidy as another swift target and Eagles not as bad as 1-4 record indicates.

San Francisco over Los Angeles: Good chance for 49ers to get one in against West Coast rivals, who are missing two starting offensive linemen and hurting from injuries on defense.

AFL
Boston over Oakland: Patriots on title drive with Babe Parilli at reins and Raiders locked in doldrums of six-game losing string.

Denver over Buffalo: Broncos, too, are eyeing title and have full head of steam after last week's victory over Houston.

San Diego over New York: Titans can't cope with Chargers' strength defensively.

Dallas over Houston: The second battle of the Alamo, and the Texans — Dallas-type — have more artillery and shock troops.

BLUE DEVIL 7TH PRESERVES STATUS

Junior Highs Halve Four

Four junior high grid games were entered into by Snyder eleven Thursday, two of which resulted in wins and the other two in losses.

A peek at how it all came about follows:

Rummels 30,
Lamar 9th 0

BIG SPRING—Rugged Rummels 30 of this city sent Lamar of Snyder tumbling here Thursday, rolling to a 30-0 win on the strength of a bruising ground game.

The Yearlings touched off scoring in the first period on a 30-yard scamper, then followed up in the second with two more TDs on a sweep covering 60 yards and a 50-yard punt return.

Their final tally was realized in the third stanza on the longest run of the evening, a 70-yarder.

The most serious Texas threat occurred in the same quarter. It was then that they drove to the Yearling 18 before a fourth-and-two blast into the line was rebuffed and the ball went over to Rummels.

Guard Leonard Whitten stood out defensively for the Texans, whose offense was spurred by quarterback Bill Blum and fullback Freddy Johnston.

Rummels 6

Lamar 8th got there "firstest," and—following a harrowing second half—with the "mostest" here last night in gaining a 14-6 revenge victory over Big Spring Rummels.

The win was the fifth of the season for the Texans as against one loss to the same Rummels eleven. The Texans scored twice before Rummels ever got a chance to run an offensive down following a time-consuming defensive drive and subsequent recovery of an onside kick.

On receipt of the opening kickoff Lamar cranked up on its sustained 75-yard goaldrive that ate up most of the first period. Fullback Tommy Sinclair scored the TD from seven yards away, gobbling up a fumble in his own backfield and skirting end for the tally. Rob Golden blasted his way over right tackle for the conversion.

On the ensuing kickoff, indecision on the part of a Lamesa receiver helped to lead to another quick TD when the ball was allowed to lie dormant on the one-yard line until a Blue Devil pounced on it there.

Quarterback Jimmy Ramage sneaked over from there and Marko Tavarez ran the conversion to give Travis a comfortable 22-0 halftime advantage.

Ken Pollard raced to the first of two second half touchdowns on a 20-yard bolt, after which Valdez picked up the two-point conversion on a run. Jerry Smedley streaked 65 yards for the final Blue Devil.

Murray Bowden's extra point snafu was picked off, so that the Texans eventually left the field at intermission nursing a 14-0 lead.

The Yearlings came a clawing back in the second half to dominate play. Quarterback Jerry Rogers rounded right end on an eight-yard sweep to put what was to be their only points on the board midway through the third canto. The extra point run was felled.

Late in the third period Sinclair fumbled just a few yards short of the Rummels goal, and the Yearlings recovered the bobbie. From there, Rogers skipped 96 yards around right end for an apparent touchdown, but the effort was nullified by penalty.

Lamesa 24,
Travis 8th 16

LAMESA—Capitalizing on two fumbles that led to a pair of touchdowns, Lamesa dealt Travis 8th of Snyder its first loss of the season here Thursday, winning out by a narrow 24-16.

The Blue Devils had won three and tied one prior to being handed that initial setback.

A short buck through the line in the opening quarter, coupled with a successful conversion, gave Lamesa an 8-0 lead early in the game. Dickie Watson scored on a three-yard quarterback sneak and David Cedena ran over the points to tie it all up at 8-8 in the second period, however.

Prior to the half Lamesa took the lead again on another short stab and converted to inch out in front, 16-8. Travis bobbles set them up for both those first half markers.

Following a scoreless third canto the running of Juan Hernandez put the Blue Devils back into contention. He raced 60 yards to set up a touchdown, carried it on over from the Lamesa eight, and ran the points to deadlock the contest once again.

Lamesa held the final say, however, when a 50-yard paydirt sprint put them into the throne room.

LAMESA—Snyder's Travis 7th Blue Devils unleashed an awe-inspiring offensive attack and a solid defense here Thursday in rushing to a 38-0 win over Lamesa's first-year men.

Ramon Valdez got the ball rolling early in the game on a 50-yard scoring run and ran the points for an 8-0 lead, then rang the scoring bell again on a 10-yard sprint to up the ante to 14-0 early in the contest.

Looking Back

From The Snyder Daily News
Oct. 26, 1952

The Snyder School board awarded a contract for $18,000 to Martin Builders to construct a warehouse of common brick on the maintenance yard between Avenue L and M on Thirtieth Street.

Fireworks began to fly again this week between citizens of Scurry County and Pioneer Airlines. This time it is because Pioneer is advertising Snyder as a city served by that line.

8 Years Ago
From The Snyder Daily News
Oct. 26, 1957

The Snyder High School band has been cited for national recognition by the national approval board of "First Chair of America," a national yearbook for outstanding high school bands, orchestras, and choruses.

About half the property owners along Thirty-seventh Street from the Sweetwater highway to the Big Spring Highway have made right-of-way agreements with the county for widening of the street, Doyle Farmer, Precinct 3 commissioner, said.

Gas-Filled Tanks To Be Lifted Today

NATCHE, Miss. (AP)—Army Engineers say the second of four tanks—each containing 275 tons of deadly chlorine gas—is scheduled to be lifted today from the bottom of the Mississippi River near here.

The first of the four sunken tanks was hoisted Wednesday, placed aboard a waiting barge and shipped to the Wyandotte Chemical Co. plant at Geismar, La., where it arrived Thursday.

Wyandotte owned the tanks which sank in the river 19 months ago on the barge carrying them.

There were no mishaps in the lifting of the first tank, although authorities had taken extreme precautions in event of any leak, including a massive evacuation plan for some 80,000 residents of the area.

Broadway Novelty Has Showmanship

NEW YORK (AP)—As a Broadway novelty, "Tchin-Tchin" glitters with adroit showmanship—which may be enough to conceal a nagging flaw.

Margaret Leighton and Anthony Quinn—there's a casting contrast—in the drama which arrived Thursday night at the Plymouth Theater.

The pair have an emoting fiesta with a combination of racy language and sophisticated subject matter that ranges through infidelity, abortion, intoxication and seduction.

Heightening the visual impact are a batch of rapid-change settings by Will Steven Armstrong that provide a whirlwind tour of New York's charms and blights.

"Tchin-Tchin," a Chinese word that means "hello" and "goodbye," is an apt title for the play that Sidney Michaels has developed from an avant-garde Paris original by Francois Billeaud.

Miss Leighton, who can do superb things in high British style with a line like "Pamela, you must be extraordinary again today," portrays the prim wife of a surgeon who is off in amorous orbit with the beguiling spouse of Quinn, a rough-and-tumble concrete contractor from Italy.

The stellar pair meet with the aim of reclaiming their errant mates, who remain invisible throughout the proceedings. The oddly-assorted tandem moves gradually from wary friendship to alliance in loneliness.

This is the point at which unsettling ambiguity sneaks in. From realism, the mood shifts to introspection and symbolic fantasy, with interludes of wild Marx Brothers farce.

Since each is at the start a well-poised spirit, their descent into an irresistible vortex of despair, disillusion and degradation becomes a playwright's conceit. He has changed direction—or perhaps the sheer magnetism of the stars has affected the concept.

Peter Glenville, who took over the direction from Warner Leroy, handles his principals, and three lesser players with sharp skill.

Rare Kidney Disease Cited

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP)—A medical researcher reports that a rare kidney disease that is a major cause of death among dogs also takes many human lives.

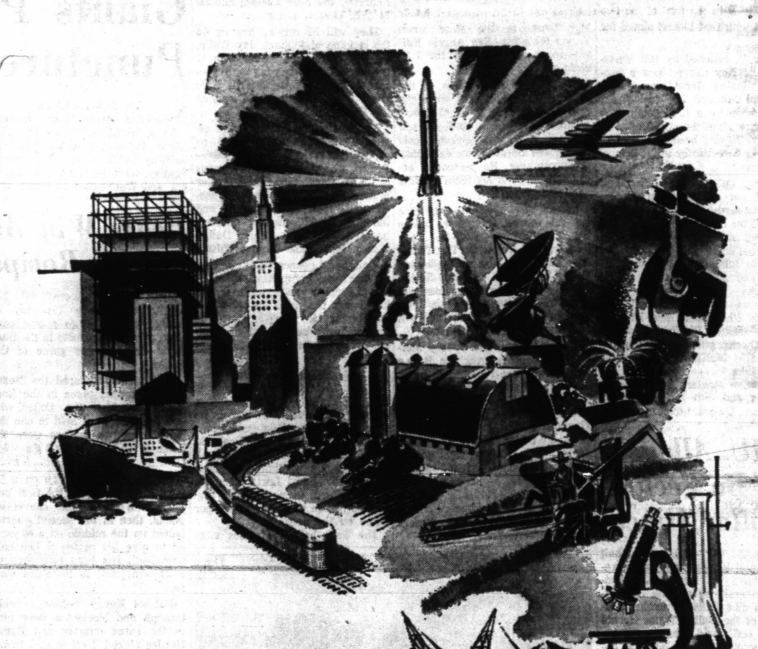

Dr. Hans H. Zinsner of Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York said Thursday he based his conclusion on a three-year study of the mysterious disease—pyelonephritis.

Zinsner said he discovered the disease present in one of every five autopsies performed on humans, regardless of the actual cause of death.

The disease probably is responsible for five per cent of all deaths in the nation today, he said, a speech at a medical symposium sponsored by the International Business Machines Corp. to discuss the use of electronic computer in medical and biological research.

All One Gives to God

COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

"LORD, HELP ME"

...she cried. But it was too late. A duty had been shirked... a responsibility neglected... a damage done. Grief is evident. She overlooked an opportunity and a life was lost. Life? What is it?

St. James said, "Life is a vapor that appears only for a little while." Every worthwhile life spends its self serving others. Every good life has a vital glow... it lends meaning to many little deeds that is determined by a few great decisions. Then don't procrastinate. Don't have to repent in anguish for neglecting God, His church or a friend. Be a faithful church-goer, a dependable community citizen, and a booster of all good things.

Then, whatsoever you ask in His name shall be given.

You In The Church
The Church in You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

So They May See == Psalm 91 == So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
