Democrats Move In After End Of GOP Convention

REPUBLICANS EVACUATE CHICAGO AFTER SAME TICKET—HOOVER AND CURTIS—IS CHOSEN

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 17—The big Republican show is over, but the Democrats are moving in with an even more imposing array of political stage-trimmings, and the pause will be only temporary.

Having renominated Hoover and Curtis, chosen Everett Sanders of Indiana their campaign manager, and melted down the great variety of prohibition views into a plank promising submission of a plan for modification, the hosts of the G. O. P. evacuated their Chicago haunts during the night with no lost motion.

Vanguard Arrives

Within a week, the Democrats will be in Chicago, in the same hotels, preparing for the opening of their own convention, in the same over-grown stadium on the west side, Monday, June 27. The vanguard was here before the Republicans were beyond the city limits. Advance agents of a dozen presidential candidates will be getting headquarters space in shape over the present week-end.

The Republicans left behind them the memory of at least two events which bid for places in political history. One, of course, was the sudden upward surge of sentiment for prohibition repeal, curbed only after a real convention battle. The other was the final victory yesterday of Vice-President Curtis in his candidacy for renomination.

For a time, even toward the end, it appeared Curtis was on the verge of defeat, despite the fact every key man in the convention under-

Gangsters' Guns Rub Out Barker

PUBLIC ENEMY SLAIN BY HEAVY VOLLEY OF GANG SHOTS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 17—A torrent of gangland bullets has drummed Public Enemy George (Red) Barker, associate of the Capones, out of the ranks of underworld leaders.

Today vacant was the throne he was reputed to have reared on labor racketeering, terrorism, bombings and a multitude of crimes of violence.

A heavy sedan, as police reconstructed the assassination, swept past him as he stood in front of the Norford hotel in Crawford avenue on the northwest side last night.

Fired From Flat

The death volley was fired from a flat across the street where the assassins apparently had lain in wait for hours and left empty cartridges and remnants of a dinner about. Two young men and a young woman rented the flat two weeks ago.

The gunmen pumped 18 rifle and pistol bullets into the body of "Barker the Immune," whom—until last night—neither the foes of gangland nor the arm of Cook county law had been able to check in the career of crime which he began in 1916.

Two men were held today for investigation in the slaying—Larry Evans, a waiter, and George Bickford, hotel clerk, who helped three others pick the gangster's lifeless body off the street and rush it to Keystone hospital.

Three physicians said no man could have survived the leaden torrent for more than a few seconds. Death, they decided, was almost instantaneous.

Barker had never been convicted in Cook county through years of persistent harrassment by police of a charge more serious than larceny—though murders and all forms of labor war violence had been laid at his door.

He "muscled in" on one union after another till at the height of his checkered career he was reputed to have had an income of $200,000 a year.

Thousands Watch As Negro Hanged

HARDINSBURG, Ky., June 17 (AP)—Five thousand persons watched in silence as Sam Jennings, 38, negro, was hanged shortly after sunrise today for a criminal attack on Miss Mabel Downs.

Watching from 20 feet away was Miss Downs and her father, E. P. Downs. "I don't feel sorry for him," she said. "He is getting his just deserts. I wouldn't mind pulling the trigger myself."

To the last, Jennings protested his innocence.

PLANES VISIT LOCAL PORT

TEN SHIPS STOP HERE BRIEFLY IN FINAL TRAINING FLIGHT

Completing spring training flights of the advanced army air corps from Kelly Field, San Antonio, ten planes visited Lubbock municipal airport briefly this morning. Three officers and eight cadets were in the party, the third group of army fliers to stop here this month.

Heading the flight was Major C. C. Johnston. Other officers were: Lt. D. V. Gaffney and Lt. Frank H. Robinson. Cadets bringing planes into the port were: Homer M. Cox, M. D. Unruh, John F. Fouche, jr., Hubert B. Duckworth, Clifton V. George, R. C. Weller and Fred D. Stephens.

The first plane arrived at 8:20 from Fort Sill, Okla. Others landed at intervals of approximately ten minutes. Departure for El Paso via Midland was in like manner, the last plane leaving at 10.15.

The fliers were greeted by Airport Manager W. C. Breedlove who directed servicing of ships and registration of the visitors. Sandwiches and coffee were served through courtesy of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

The student fliers will complete their work at Kelly Field, June 29.

Machine Gun Used To Rob Bank Today

FORT SCOTT, Kas., June 17 (AP)—Five unmasked bandits armed with a machine gun held up the Citizens' National bank here today, slugged Harry Parrish, assistant cashier, and Leslie Wolfe, teller, kidnaped three young women employes and fled with an undetermined amount of money scooped from the bank counters. The hostages were released before the bandits' car left town.

JOBLESS HELP BILL PUSHED

SOLONS CLEAR DECKS FOR SHOWDOWN ON RELIEF MEASURE

WASHINGTON, June 17—Aggressively clearing away the mass of legislation awaiting enactment, congress pushed on today toward disposal of its final big issue—relief for the unemployed.

Indications pointed to action on this troubled question in the senate tomorrow, with a major struggle in sight on whether to authorize an issue of bonds for further public works. The senate bill, sponsored by Democrats, calls for $500,000,000 of such bonds. President Hoover is flatly opposed to any. The house, by adoption of the Garner bill, is recorded for an outlay of $1,300,000,000. Senator LaFollette, the Wisconsin Republican independent, demands a five and a half billion dollar bond issue.

Bill Deadlocked

The economy bill was still deadlocked in conference, with no indication how the issue would finally be solved. But there was no present disposition to worry about it.

Hastening the adjournment expected some time next week, the senate sought to end the bonus payment question by voting down the bill today. It had passed yesterday the navy's appropriation measure, one of the last.

WAR VETERANS CROWD ABOUT THE CAPITAL

EXTRA POLICE CALLED TO GUARD AGAINST ANY DISTURBANCE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 17.—With the galleries packed by war veterans and several thousand more massed outside, the senate today pressed toward a vote on the $2,400,000,000 bonus bill which leaders predicted faced certain defeat.

As many as could jam into the visitors galleries did so when the doors were opened two hours before the senate met at 11 a. m., (Eastern Standard time). Meanwhile, the others milled around outside listening to a few speeches and otherwise whiling away the time pending a vote.

Police On Guard

Leaders of the former service men counselled against any disturbance. Extra police were stationed at the capitol to take care of any emergency which might develop.

Senator Brookhart (R. Iowa), an advocate of cash payment of the bonus took the floor at the start of discussion.

"The bonus army might as well assemble here as any where," Brookhart said. "They have no jobs. I can see no reason why 100,000, 200,000 or 500,000 shouldn't assemble here."

Police Superintendent Glassford, after an inspection of a gathering, across the street from the senate steps, ordered 35 additional metropolitan police to the scene to augment the 35 he already had stationed there to assist the capitol police.

Prepare For Action

In the meantime, police precincts in the vicinity were ordered to keep a full quota of reserves on hand

MUSSOLINI IS U. S. CRITIC

CLAIMS AMERICA HAS NO POLICY; SEES SERIES OF WARS

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, June 17 — Premier Mussolini was quoted in an interview published by the Daily Express today as caustically criticizing the United States and democracy generally and predicting a long series of "political, economic and military wars" for the world.

"America has no policy!" The correspondent quoted him as saying, bitterly and with "sardonic contempt."

This was in reply to a suggestion that the United States was "one of the life belts to which idealists are clinging for salvation in the world crisis."

Gives Impression

Il Duce summed up his impression of America, the correspondent said, in two words—prohibition and Lindbergh. (Evidently referring to the kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, jr.)

"Dry America will never find herself," he was reported as saying. "She must go wet to find herself. In the meantime Europe is drifting to disaster and revolution."

Smiling derisively, the correspondent said, Mussolini then turned his guns on democracy.

"Democracy is nothing," he said. "The people are nothing. In every country they are weary of talk. They need men of action. They cannot save themselves; they need saviors."

And he added: "There are no saviors."

Man And Daughter Stabbed To Death

GROESBECK, June 17. (AP)—A. C. Sharp, 55, and his 14-year-old daughter, Ester, were found stabbed to death in their apartment here yesterday. Coroner Ira Lawley returned a verdict of murder and suicide. He said Sharp apparently killed the girl as she slept and then took his own life. He had suffered business reverses.

Mrs. Sharp died several years ago.

Unidentified Gun Victim Is Buried

BELTON, June 17. (AP)—The man found shot to death on the Belton-Austin highway Sunday was buried yesterday. He had not been determined whether he had been murdered.

His car bore California license plates No. 7J5277. Officers learned these plates were registered in the name of John G. Seck. A magazine found in the car was addressed to Miles B. Harper of Dyersville, California.

'Pa' And 'Ma' Ferguson Ride Wave Of Tenth Campaign To City Today

BOTH SAY ONE PRIMARY TO BE ENOUGH

POLITICAL 'FIREWORKS' MISSING AS ISSUES HOLD VOTERS

BY CHAS. A. GUY
Of The Journal Staff

Riding the waves of the tenth Ferguson political campaign since 1914, two former governors of Texas, James E. and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson of Bell county, brought their 1932 drive into South Plains territory today, shortly before noon.

Forecasting the election of Mrs. Ferguson without the necessity of a run-off primary in August, the Fergusons quoted poll tax figures and other statistics to bolster their point. Without vindictiveness, without rancor, the only man and wife in the history of Texas to hold the gubernatorial office were both pleasant and confident as they reached the city, were met by a group of local admirers and, behind a motorcycle police escort were whisked to their hotel.

"Fireworks" Eliminated

The thousands of people who trek to Broadway and Avenue K this evening will hear a different sort of a Ferguson campaign oration, however. Applicable in description is the once popular song, "Big Bad Bill Is Sweet William Now!", which in this case can be revamped to read "Fire-eatin' Jim Is Somber James Now". The fireworks in the Ferguson campaign has been eliminated, Mr. Ferguson explained, for a number of reasons.

"I don't see any use", he said, "of carrying a chip on my shoulder. This is no time to shoot snowbirds out of season or to argue with 'two-bit' statesmen. The people are looking for relief—relief mainly from high taxes and high interest—and they're looking to Mrs. Ferguson to give them that relief. The only eloquence we're resorting to is the eloquence of figures—and, believe me, they're eloquent enough!"

Chicago Board Of Trade Faces Suit

AMARILLO, June 17 (AP)—Eight Panhandle wheat growers filed suit in federal district court here today against the Chicago Board of Trade, asking damages of $48,795 representing losses on wheat sales, an injunction against "pit" operations and long and short selling, and disclosure of the names of eight traders whom they allege control the wheat market.

The Uhlman Grain company of Chicago, with offices in Amarillo, and Fred, Paul and Richard Uhlman, are named as defendants. The petition charges that the Uhlman company is a member of the board.

HOOVER PLANS ON CAMPAIGN

WILL LAUNCH BID FOR RE-ELECTION FROM THE WHITE HOUSE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Heartened by the overwhelming support conferred on him and his administration by the Republican convention, President Hoover today began preparations for the stirring campaign he must wage between now and the November election.

He will launch his bid for return to the White House from the south portico of the presidential mansion, lookout out to the inspiring shaft of the Washington monument, unless plans now being made are altered. This first battle cry will be spoken a few weeks hence, after the Democratic party has chosen his opponent and announced issues on which it will contest Republican domination of the government.

To Be Notified

Then Mr. Hoover will receive formal notification of the nomination granted him yesterday amid acclaim and enthusiastic uproar in Chicago.

He and Mrs. Hoover heard it all by radio, and directly he dispatched to the convention chairman, Representative Bertrand Snell, his message of appreciation and his promise "to labor as I have labored" to meet the trials and difficulties now besetting the nation.

CHILE'S JUNTA OVERTHROWN

LEADER CAPTURED IN DRAMATIC COUNTER REVOLT TODAY

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 17.—Chile's socialist Junta, which went into power by overthrowing the government of President Juan Montero less than two weeks ago, was overthrown in a brief but dramatic counter-revolt early today.

Colonel Marmaduke Grove, military leader of the revolt of June 4 and head of the Junta since resignation of Carlos Davila last Sunday, was taken prisoner by the counter-revolutionary forces, together with his associate, Eugenio Matte.

The counter-revolutions comprised army and navy air force groups, apparently supporters of Senor Davila, who charged the Junta had gone over to communism.

Later today they turned the government over to a new Junta composed of Senor Davila, Senator Alberto Cabero, member of former President Montero's radical party, and former Deputy Nolasco Cardenas. The new Junta was foreworn to outlaw communism, but to continue the socialist republic established after the June 4 revolt along moderate lines, friendly to foreign interest.

Colonel Grove had announced he would die before he would surrender to the army groups, who beseiged the palace with eighteen field guns, but he finally was captured alive, and taken to a regimental barracks to await the new government's decision regarding his fate.

MOTHER, BROTHER STARVE CRIPPLED MAN TO DEATH TO DRIVE OUT DEVILS

(By The Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, June 17—Police today pieced together a story of the starving to death of a 26-year-old cripple by his mother and brother "to drive out devils that possessed him." The body, kept on a couch in their home, was found yesterday.

A diary kept by the brother recorded that death occurred April 4 and predicted that "he will arise from the dead" June 24.

The cripple, Grant Aubel, was found by officers investigating his disappearance, reported by neighbors.

The mother, Mrs. Annie Aubel, 55, who a few days before had turned a health officer away from the house saying "God won't let you in," was arrested with her son.

"God knows all about this," the brother, Paul Aubel, 30, a college graduate said. The mother and brother said they had given Grant food only once since March 20 "because the Lord told us to starve him to drive out the devils."

Paul said that on April 3, "the Lord told me to bind him hand and foot and cast him into outer darkness. I tied his hands and feet but he chewed the strings and I tied him again. He died the next morning."

CLUBMEN HEAR VISITORS AT MEETING

FERGUSONS GUESTS AT AMERICAN BUSINESS CLUB LUNCHEON

BY C. W. RATLIFF
Of The Journal Staff

Declaring that a return to the soil and application of old-time philosophy, "spend less than you make and work like the devil in the meantime" as the surest way for recovery from the present business depression, former Governor James E. Ferguson addressed members of the American Business club at the Hilton hotel today noon. Mr. Ferguson and his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, also a former governor, were special guests at the club luncheon which was attended by a hundred or more Lubbock business men.

"It's a hard task to make a speech to business men, especially in times like these," Mr. Ferguson remarked as he opened his talk. "It's kinda' like the old fellow who saw a boxcar down near Houston with the letters H. E. & W. T. on it. Asking someone what the inscription meant, he was told that it, was 'hell either way you take it. And that's just about the way it is now.

We're Sure To Come Out

"But I don't want to paint the picture too black," he continued. "We're going to come out of this, we don't know how and we don't know when but we're sure to come out sometime. But before we do, I believe there must be a recurrence to some of the oldtime ways and principles. We've got to get back to the old poor Richard philosophy, 'spend less than you make and work like the devil in the meantime.'

"I think that if you young men realize your responsibilities and when you do, the sooner we will return to semi-normal conditions at least.

"The situation as I see it is that civic clubs and organization have been dealing wrongly with the question of population. They've been spending too much time trying to raise the population of the towns. If you try to get too many peo-

Tech Registration Sets Summer Mark

Largest summer school enrollment in the history of Texas Tech was reported today by Dean James M. Gordon, who stated the total was now 1,365.

There are 564 men and 801 women enrolled. By schools the totals are: liberal arts, 1,043; agriculture, 76; home economics, 140 and engineering, 106.

One Man Slain In Denver Liquor War

DENVER, Colo., June 17 (AP)—Denver's sporadic liquor war flared anew last night, one man being slain and another beaten.

Morris Cohn, 32, previous liquor law violator, was shot three times in a battle over a huge liquor cache and died several hours later in a hospital.

BOTH FIREMEN AND WORKMEN ARE HURT

SIXTY-THREE INJURED IN BLAST SERIES ABOARD TANKER

(By The Associated Press)

MONTREAL, Que., June 17.—A series of terrific explosions tore the oil tanker Cymbeline wide open in Montreal harbor today and brought death to an estimated total of 23 men, and injuries to 63.

Ten bodies had been recovered at noon, nine hours after the first blast and 13 others were believed to be in the wrecked tanker's hold.

Firemen Are Injured

Fifteen of the injured were firemen called out to combat the flames that followed the first explosions.

Flaming oil shot 100 feet in the air when the first blast occurred as 100 workmen were rushing repairs on the Cymbeline in the great Vickers drydock. The dock was built in England and towed across the Atlantic to Montreal.

A number of minor explosions occurred and an hour later, while firemen were fighting the flames and searching for victims of the blasts, another detonation, more severe than any of the others, shook the damaged ship.

Fire Chief Killed

In this final blast Fire Chief Raoul Gauthier, former president of the Dominion Fire Chiefs' association and known throughout the dominion for his courage, was killed with four of his men.

The bodies recovered were those of Fire Chief Gauthier, Paul Henrichon, J. Debrienne, J. Hamelin and R. Noel, the four firemen who perished with him; and James Wilson, John Riddell, James Corbett, Donald Gunn and Willam Atherton, all employes of the Vickers company.

PIONEER DIES EARLY TODAY

MRS. G. O. GROVES IS VICTIM OF HEART ATTACK TODAY

The fast-thinning ranks of Lubbock county pioneers lost another member today with the death of Mrs. G. O. Groves, 73, of Abernathy. Mrs. Groves died at 8:30 of a heart ailment after a week's illness.

She and her husband had lived in Lubbock county for 41 years and were prominent figures in the development of Grovesville, a community which bears their name.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at Bynum-Morgan Funeral home. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Mrs. Groves is survived by her widower; three sons, A. R. Groves of Willard, N. M., Tom Groves of Shallowater and W. L. Groves of Monroe; a daughter, Mrs. Kirkpatrick of Beeville; a brother, Billy McGuire of Breckenridge, and a sister, Mrs. Katie Smith of Waurika, Okla.

MERCURY AGAIN HEADS FOR PEAK

Threatening to equal yesterday's maximum reading of 100 degrees, six points higher than 1932's previous peak here, the mercury reached the 97-degree mark by 12:20 o'clock this afternoon and was still climbing, the state experiment substation reported.

The silvery indicator was at 67 degrees before 7 o'clock morning. Prolongation of temperatures in the 90's or above is to be expected if present conditions continue to prevail, Don L. Jones, sub-station superintendent, said. Sixty-three degrees was yesterday's minimum temperature.

The highest reading has been recorded twice in Lubbock on June 16. In 1924 and again in 1928, the mercury was boosted to 106 degrees, the highest temperature officially recorded here.

Fort Worth Man Is Victim Of Shooting

FORT WORTH, June 17. (AP)—W. M. Loid, shot by a man who called him from his home last night, died in a hospital early today.

A suspect, arrested shortly after the shooting, will be charged with murder today.

Loid, who was 62, was called from his house last night by a man who said he wanted to "sell something." Several shots were fired as Loid opened the front door. The man quickly drove away and the wounded man went back into the house and told J. H. Mayben, 28, Dallas, to call an ambulance. Loid suffered a bullet wound in the abdomen.

Minor Thefts Are Reported To Police

Police reported no arrests after going to a downtown alley last night as a result of a report that some boys were stealing gasoline there.

Mrs. Allan Hill, 1903 Sixteenth street, reported to police last night that some one had entered a house at 1901 Sixteenth street after tearing off a screen and raising a window. Persons residing there were away, she said.

Some boys in an old sedan ran against a light post at Avenue Q and Fifteenth street, knocked it down, and sped away, police were informed.

Theft of seven white rabbits, including a litter of five little ones, late Thursday from pens at 1419 Avenue F was reported to police by J. F. Boles, of that address, whose small son owned the pets.

Whipping, Hanging Urged For Means

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Two days of whipping and then hanging was urged in the house today by Representative Blanton, (D., Tex.), for Gaston B. Means.

As discussion of a federal kidnaping bill began, Blanton said: "This bill should be amended to cover cases such as that of Gaston Means. His crime was one of the most despicable and heinous ever committed.

"They ought to put a whipping post outside this capitol, tie him to it and whip him for 48 hours. And then they ought to hang him."

Parties For Brides-Elect Are Leading Social Events During Week-End Here

MILLIONS HELPED TO HEALTH BY ALL-BRAN

Has "Bulk" and Vitamin B for Constipation; Also Iron for Blood

In ten years, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has gained an increasing number of friends. Today, it is used by millions with satisfactory results.

New tests show added reasons for the success of ALL-BRAN. Laboratory experiments prove it has "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

Another benefit of ALL-BRAN is that it has twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

The headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so often result from constipation can be overcome by this pleasant cereal. How much better than using habit-forming pills and drugs.

ALL-BRAN action is gentle. Its "bulk" is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal, or use in cooking. Tempting recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Misses Melba Mae Tatom, Ada Ruth May To Receive Pre-Nuptial Courtesies

Parties for two brides-elect are leading social events in Lubbock during this week-end and friends of the two are attending parties daily.

Miss Melba Mae Tatom, who is to be married to Homer Maxey next Tuesday, and Miss Ada Ruth May, who will be married to Doyle Jordan on June 28, are receiving the courtesies.

Mrs. Charles Adams, jr., is entertaining this evening in her home, 2106-B 13th street, as a compliment to Miss Tatom. Young women guests are to arrive at 7 o'clock and young men will join them at 8 o'clock for games of bridge.

At noon today, Misses Virginia Bacon and Voncile Gilkerson were hostesses with a small luncheon at the F. R. Friend home for Miss Tatom and a few of her friends.

A bridge-breakfast is to be given at 9 o'clock Saturday morning by Misses Maxine Clark, Kathleen Conrad and Mrs. Edward Blackwell, complimenting Misses Tatom and May. The affair will be in Miss Clark's home at 2406 Broadway.

As a compliment to her daughter, Mrs. James Freeman, of Houston, Mrs. A. W. Evans, 2307 16th street, is entertaining with bridge at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in her home.

Miss Weeks Hostess

Miss Margaret Weeks, 2436 20th street, entertained for the Town and Gown club Thursday evening. Mrs. E. L. Dohoney scored high in bridge games.

Those who attended were Mrs. Mary Doak, Mrs. George P. Evans of Palo Alto, Calif., Mrs. Horace Wilson of San Antonio, Messrs. and Mesdames W. W. Rix, Carl Svensen, W. H. Bledsoe, F. R. Friend, Dohoney, R. W. Wright and Miss Mabel Erwin.

Mesdames A. B. Cunningham and J. F. Hankins joined in entertaining for the 1911 Needle club Thursday afternoon at the Hankins home, 2309 Broadway.

Guests were Mesdames R. Q. Pierce, W. A. Bacon, F. R. Friend, W. O. Stevens, W. A. Myrick, jr., C. E. Maedgen, H. D. Woods, John C. Granbery, Paul W. Horn, R. A. Barclay and W. H. Bledsoe.

Games of forty-two were the diversion at the Maggie and Jiggs club party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. White, 610 Avenue O, Thursday evening.

The guest list included Messrs. and Mesdames J. G. Oslin, A. T. Cocanougher, J. D. Henson, D. Williford, Frank White and Frazier McCrummen.

Mrs. R. W. Wright, 1508 Avenue Q, is entertaining at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon as a courtesy to Mrs. George P. Evans of Palo Alto, Calif., and Mrs. Horace Wilson of San Antonio, who are the guests of their mother, Mrs. Mary W. Doak.

Another courtesy in a series extended to Miss Martha Dee Brownfield of El Paso is the dance which is to be given by her aunt, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, 2201 Broadway, in her home this evening.

An election of officers will be made in the Business and Professional Women's club this evening in a meeting at Hotel Lubbock at 7:30 o'clock.

The election was to have been held last week but was postponed.

Garden Club To Meet

Members of the Lubbock Garden club are meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. C. S. Mast, 2219 13th street.

Mrs. W. S. Moss, 1725 23rd street, was gracious hostess to members of the Congenial club in her home Thursday afternoon. Three tables were arranged for games of bridge. Favors were presented to Mesdames Maple Wilson and H. L. Allen.

Mrs. V. R. Plummer made high score and Mrs. Bill Watson was high in a general cut at the party given for the Ace High club by Mrs. C. A. Nowlin, 2006 9th street.

Members present were Mesdames Lola Shuey, H. R. Tucker, Dick Abbott, Olen Stewart, J. D. Shaw, Charles Files, Watson and Plummer. Special guests were Mesdames M. S. Cole, L. E. Grimes and Aubrey L. Woodfin.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Webb entertained for the Wednesday Night Bridge club at their home at 320-A Vernon avenue.

Mrs. Jim Hale and Neil Vanzant scored high. Others present were Messrs. and Mesdames C. W. Ratliff, O. A. Terry, Vestel Lott, Miss Marjorie Ann Ainsworth and Mrs. Vanzant.

A party that was to have been given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Dewey McClellan for the Thursday Bridge club has been indefinitely postponed.

Members of the Loyal Sisters Needle club and their families will attend a picnic at 8 o'clock this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Oslin, 2401 24th street.

Cedar vapors, used to repel moths in homes, soften paint used on woodwork by dissolving its drying oil.

Soap-Soap-Soap-Soap-- which can you believe the best?

A thousand and one brands of soap are flung at your head—which are you to choose?

What do you want in the soap you buy?

We believe you want absolute cleansing—positive proof of labor saving, sure economy—and decent treatment of soft hands and fine fabrics.

FOR ABSOLUTE CLEANING:
Select a soap that is all soap. Don't use a soap that contains silicate of soda* or tallow base. Both of these ingredients retard the cleansing process materially. Use a soap made of pure, sweet, vegetable and nut oils—these take out the dirt and put none in.

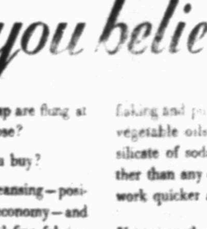

TO SAVE LABOR:
Select a soap that makes a rich, foaming suds in luke-warm water. Soaps with a tallow base require hot, boiling water to melt this base that holds them together. Boiling water not only adds labor—it destroys your clothes and roughens your hands.

TO SAVE MONEY:
Don't buy a soap heavy with water nor bulky by fluffing and puffing. Soap granules, made of pure vegetable oils, without a tallow base, without silicate of soda, without free alkali, will go farther than any other type of soap and will do the work quicker and easier.

FOR SAFETY:
Use a soap that requires no boiling. Boiling water destroys the fibres of fabrics as well as spoils your hands. A pure, vegetable soap works better in luke-warm water than most other soaps do with intense boiling. It leaves clothes sweeter-smelling, softer, and whiter. It rinses freely and clothes iron white instead of turning yellow under the heat.

White King Granulated Soap is a pure soap—made of sweet, clean, vegetable and nut oils. It has no tallow base, no silicate of soda, no free alkalis, no glycerine. It washes quickly in luke-warm water, makes a rich, foamy suds, requires no rubbing, no boiling and rinses out easily. Best for every household use.

*Silicate of soda serves only as a weight maker in soap—it has no cleaning value.

MARRIAGE LICENSES DECLINE SHARPLY IN EIGHTEEN SOUTH PLAINS COUNTIES

A preliminary report of the number of marriage licenses issued, as made by the department of commerce, shows that 129 fewer licenses were issued in the 18 counties of the South Plains in 1931 than in 1930, representing a loss of 15.7 per cent for the year.

Divorces fell off 34, or 10 per cent, there having been 299 divorces granted in these counties in 1931 and 333 in 1930.

The bureau estimated the number of marriages performed in Texas in 1931 was 40,507, loss of 4,667 or 10.3 per cent from the 45,174 performed in 1930. Divorces granted were 15,788, compared to 16,645 a decrease of 857 or 5.1 per cent.

In four counties, Crosby, Dickens, Lamb and Yoakum there were more marriages performed in 1931 than in 1930.

Lynn county lost the heaviest in the number of licenses issued the past year from the previous year, there being 31 fewer, or nearly a 50 per cent loss. Hockley lost 20, Dawson 19, Floyd 17 and Garza and Hale 16 each. Terry lost 11. There were three fewer in Lubbock county in 1931 than in 1930.

Crosby county gained 14, Lamb three and Dickens and Yoakum one each.

In divorces Borden county did not have a single one in either year. Garza did not have any in 1931 while four were granted the year before. Yoakum had three divorces in 1931 and none in 1930.

Lubbock county led in the loss of divorce actions in 1931 from 1930 there being 28 less. Dawson had 16 less and Scurry and Floyd nine less. The remainder of those showing a loss ranged from one to five. Motley had the same number of decrees.

Hale county had 11 more divorces last year than the year before; Gaines and Lamb county four more each and Yoakum three while Hockley had one more.

By counties the comparative figures were:

OFFICIALS TO ATTEND MEET

COUNTY DADS ARE TO BE AT WTCC BUDGET INSTITUTE HERE

Lubbock County Commissioners court, headed by County Judge E. L. Pitts, intends to participate in the budget making institute to be conducted here June 27 by the central public expenditures committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Dawson county's judge, Philip Yonge, has also notified the West Texas chamber's committee that he and several others from Lamesa will attend the Lubbock institute.

Leon Goodman, Midland mayor, will head the Midland representation at Lubbock.

L. E. Saunders, president of the El Paso Chamber of Commerce, will head El Paso's representation at the institute.

Otis Coles, chairman of the El Paso public expenditures committee; H. B. Harding, and E. H. Simons, manager of the El Paso chamber, will attend. Simons says the local committee was successful in getting seven hundred thousand dollars cut off of the current El Paso city budget.

TOM TO TEACH AT COLORADO STATE

A 1929 graduate of the school of agriculture at Texas Technological college, Ronald C. Tom, has been appointed a member of the department of animal husbandry at Colorado State Agricultural college at Fort Collins, effective September 1.

Tom majored in animal husbandry while a student in Tech and was a member of the junior and international livestock judging teams of 1928. He completed his master of science degree at Fort Collins in the summer of 1931.

The appointment of Tom to the Colorado college faculty is a signal honor and shows recognition now being given Tech by other colleges, W. L. Stangel, head of the Tech department of animal husbandry said.

Tom's home is in Lubbock.

GREAT FIGHT, SMALL GATE SEEN FOR SHARKEY-SCHMELING GO

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Change of management seems to have been the corrective measure taken in the interest of the New York Giants. A glance at any newspaper sport page of modern date will reveal the Giants in or near the upper division, which is composed of the four first clubs. Starting out from scratch, Bill Terry has skippered the team from bottom place to near the top.

John McGraw was a great manager—there have been and are few to compare with him—but it was about time for him to retire. It would have been fine for him if he could have retired when the Giants were nestling near the top, but quitting when he did gave his successor a fine opportunity to show his stuff.

* * *

The Giants have the stuff. There'll be few objections to that. On the New York team are some of the heaviest hitters—Terry one of them—and best pitchers in the majors. It was surprising to see them struggle along in the cellar while their hitters were leading the circuit. They seemed to need a bit of pushing, a little urging along. McGraw, growing too feeble to go out to the park some days, could not provide the drive. With a leader again they are ready to go. They're going, and unless we have baseball mixed up with golf, they're going to win more games during the remainder of the season than they lose. We're not handing Bill Terry all the flowers. He's a good baseball player and he may be a good manager. That is yet to be proven. The Giants probably would be just where they are if Dave Bancroft or Oscar Whiffle was major domo.

George W. Graves, chairman of the Olympic finance committee, has looked up the names and addresses of every sports writer in the country, it seems, and has mailed each and every one of them a letter asking for help regarding the raising of funds with which to stage the 1932 Olympiad. The trifling sum of $350,000—the amount which is expected to roll into the Madison Square Garden turnstiles Tuesday night—is needed before America can be represented by a complete team.

Heartily in favor of the Olympics and even sorry we shall have to forego the pleasure of attending the games in Los Angeles next month, this department nevertheless fears that it will not be able to do much toward helping the X Olympiad along, financially. Mr. Graves sends what he does not term a "last minute, high pressure call for help," but says the committee faces a real crisis. Less than 15 per cent of the amount needed has been subscribed, and the American committee fears that this country's entry must be curtailed. The governments of other countries come across with a lot of the dinero needed to finance teams through the Olympics, but as yet the U. S. government, richest of all, has failed to see the importance of turning loose a portion of its dough.

Lubbock already has been called upon to donate to the fund, and at the same time see a show for nothing. The occasion was the final "Fun Nite" program of the year sponsored by the Tech athletic department. A charge was made at the door. Where two thousand or more men and boys of the city had previously witnessed similar programs gratis, only a hundred or so, men and women, paid the last time. The contribution was small, but Lubbock at least had a part in it. Now if you feel it is your duty to contribute any more—the committee welcomes gifts from pennies to dollars (in fact, most of the money raised so far has come from boys and men who could offer no more than a few pennies)—you may leave your mite with Coach Pete Cawthon of Tech or with this department, who will see that it is mailed in at once.

The Lubbock Hubbers have scheduled a game with the fast Anton team for tomorrow afternoon. If you have been going to the Civic Club circuit games and have developed a yearning for a bit faster baseball, you might not be saddened by going out to Merrill park tomorrow afternoon.

* * *

This for out of town teams who have not booked games for Sunday: Merrill Park has been leased to Juneteenth celebrators for Sunday and Monday, and the Hubbers have not scheduled a game. They are wanting one, out of town, for Sunday afternoon. You should get in touch with Manager Clarence Fox at the Tech Bookstore, or this department. The local team has been strengthened during the past week by the addition of several new members. It promises a faster brand of baseball.

FIGHTERS ARE ANXIOUS TO BOX AGAIN

UNPRECEDENTED LACK OF INTEREST SHOWN FOR FIGHT TUES.

NEW YORK, June 17. (AP)—Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey may put on one of the greatest fights of modern times in Madison Square Garden's new outdoor bowl on Long Island next Thursday night, if they do, one of the smallest crowds in modern heavyweight championship history may be there to see it.

All indications now point to an unprecedented lack of interest among the customers. Those well-known dyed-in-the-wool fanatics who formerly would have thought no more of remaining absent from a heavyweight title fight than of passing up their daily dinner are doing both these days.

There has been much criticism of the Garden's action in scaling prices as high as $23. The latter figure, for choice ringside positions, is out of reach of many pocketbooks.

From an original estimate of $750,000 or more, the Garden now figures a "gate" of $400,000. And even that, in the eyes of some critics, seems over-optimistic by at least $100,000.

The fighters themselves seem to be concerned not at all about the size of the gate, anxious rather to renew their rivalry that ended so suddenly two years ago.

Leading boxing experts believe the bout will go the full limit of 15 rounds.

FIFTY WOMEN TO VIE IN TOURNEY FOR GOLF CROWN

WICHITA FALLS, June 17. (AP)—Preparations are being made for a starting field of at least 50 feminine golfers in the second annual championship tournament of the Texas Women's Municipal Golf association to be staged over the Weeks park course here next week. The tournament opens Monday with an 18-hole qualifying round.

Among the visiting players tuning up their games on the Weeks park course this week is Mrs. W. E. Henderson of Dallas, twice runnerup in Dallas municipal championships.

TWIN BILL WON BY BATON ROUGE

(By The Associated Press)

Baton Rouge took a firm hold on the lead in the Cotton States league by capturing both ends of a double header yesterday yesterday from El Dorado. Monroe again downed Jackson to strengthen its grip on third place, while the second place Pine Bluff Judges were victorious over Port Arthur.

Baton Rouge played nip and tuck baseball in the opener to win 3 to 2 over El Dorado and then both teams opened up hitting attacks in the second which the league leaders took 13 to 11 in seven innings.

Pine Bluff overwhelmed Port Arthur 11 to 2. Isbell and Nelson being touched for 14 hits while their Texas teammates got to Galeria for 9 safeties. Falk and Rawlins each got home runs and batted in a run for the Judges. Davis and Persons batted in three runs each. Nelson who succeeded Isbell shortly after the game started fared no better being touched for 11 hits and eight runs.

Monroe found Jackson easy, winning 10 to 1. The Twins might have shut the Mississippians out but Florrid put one right where Crawford likes them best and he smashed out a homer for Jackson's only tally.

MATCHES SLATED

SPARTANBURG, S. C., June 17. (AP)—Wilmer Hines, of Columbia, S. C.; John McDiarmid, of Fort Worth, Texas; Doc Barr, of Dallas, Texas, and "Lefty" Bryan, of Chattanooga, Tenn., were slated today to play in the semi-finals of men's singles in the Mid-Dixie tennis tourney here.

Matthias Alexander Castren was an eminent Finnish philologist.

COUNTRY CLUB FACES SLATON GOLFERS IN LEAGUE CONTEST

Resumption of the South Plains Golf league schedule following an off day dedicated to the West Texas tournament last Sunday finds the Post team playing at Lubbock Meadowbrook and the Lubbock Country club slated for a round with Slaton golfers on the Santa Fe course at Slaton.

Littlefield draws an off day Sunday, but will entertain the Post golfers a week from Sunday.

The Meadowbrook-Post match promises to be an interesting affair from two standpoints. The teams are fairly well matched and there is an additional feeling of rivalry that at times threatens to break out in general riot. On two occasions at Post, the Meadowbrook players came out second in practically everything. The Meadowbrook team roster has been revised and at least three new members will face Post here Sunday.

NATIONAL OPEN TO BE THURSDAY

NEW YORK, June 17. (AP)—The defending champion, Billy Burke, and the newly-crowned British open title-holder, Gene Sarazen, probably will carry all but a few of the gallery that flocks to the Fresh Meadow club, Flushing, Long Island, for the opening round of the National Open golf championship next Thursday.

Pairings for the first two rounds, announced today by the United States Golf association, link Sarazen and Burke as playing partners for the first 18 holes Thursday and the second eighteen Friday.

The field, as lined up by the U. S. G. A., will consist of 151 players, of whom only 10 are amateurs.

George Von Elm, who lost a heart breaking 72-hole playoff to Burke for the title last year, pairs up with MacDonald Smith for the first two rounds.

BASEBALL FANS MUST PAY TAXES

DALLAS, June 17 (AP)—The fan who shoves his hard earned cash through ticket windows to see Texas league teams play for the pennant will have to go deeper in his wallet and bring forth more cash after next Monday. J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas league, said today the new 10 per cent federal tax on amusements, and that includes baseball, will be absorbed by the game's clients.

Gardner pointed out that Texas league owners could not possibly absorb the tax after putting in a general cut in admission prices.

VETERAN WINS SECOND GAME OF SEASON

GRIMES HALTS GIANT WINNING STREAK AT SIX GAMES THURS.

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals may be expected to come right along, now that the veteran Jesse Haines appears to have recovered his form of the last two seasons.

Haines was a big help to the world champions last year, winning 12 and losing only three, but injured his arm about a month before the campaign closed and didn't get a chance in the big series. He signalized his return to form by holding Boston to five hits a week ago, and yesterday gave a convincing demonstration in blanking the slugging Phillies, 2 to 0.

Cubs Down Giants

The Cardinal cast-off, bristling Burleigh Grimes, pitched the league leading Chicago Cubs to a 2 to 1 victory over the Giants and broke a six-game winning streak for Bill Terry's crew. The spitballer yielded only seven hits.

Ray Kolp's great relief pitching after he relieved Larry Benton in the second gave Cincinnati a chance to come from behind and beat Brooklyn 8 to 6.

St. Louis, who was beginning to go places in the American league, succumbed to big George Earnshaw of the Athletics, 5 to 1. Lloyd Brown, Washington southpaw turned back Detroit, 4 to 0. Bill Dickey's eleventh homerun with two mates on base featured the Yankees' 6 to 1 victory over Chicago.

RIP RADCLIFF TO MAKE DETERMINED BID FOR TEXAS LEAGUE SWAT CROWN

BY BILL PARKER,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rip Radcliff, who led the Texas league in hitting last season, within the last three weeks has demonstrated he is going to make a determined bid for the swat crown again this season.

Radcliff, playing right field for Dallas, started the season with mediocre hitting. Three weeks ago he wasn't hitting .300, but he finally started cracking out base hits and is now hitting well in the .330 charm circle. His four hits last night played an important part in Dallas' 4 to 3 victory over Houston. However, it was Tex Jeanes' infield hit that scored Lou Brower that gave Dallas victory.

Beaumont, pacing the league toward the first half pennant, clouted four home runs yesterday to beat Tyler, 5 to 3. Schoolboy Rowe hurled for Beaumont and won his 7th game this season. Schoolboy, Fox Greenberg and Easterling got the homers. It was Easterling's 17th circuit wallop of the season and put him one in front of Joe Medwick of Houston.

House pitched splendid ball for San Antonio yesterday to beat Longrew, 8 to 3. Deb Garms was the only Longview player to give House trouble. He connected for four hits out of five trips.

Average daily attendance in North Carolina public schools indicates the state will need about 1,000 new teachers next year.

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Bill Dickey, Yankees—Clouted 11th homer with two on to aid in defeat of Whitesox.

Lloyd Brown, Senators—Blanked Tigers with five hits.

Leon Goslin, Browns—Found Athletic pitching for four consecutive hits.

Harvey Hendrick, Reds-Collected triple, double and single against Dodgers.

Burleigh Grimes, Cubs-Allowed seven scattered hits and snapped Giants' winning streak.

Jesse Haines, Cardinals-shut out Phillies 2-0, and clouted home run.

WET DEMOCRAT PLANK SEEN

RITCHIE SAYS G. O. P. STAND NOT MEANT TO BE FATHOMED

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 17 (AP)—Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, remarking the Republican party "apparently" did not intend its prohibition plank be understood, said he expected the Democratic convention to adopt a plank that would "mean the end of national prohibition."

Governor Ritchie, a contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, said in commenting on the Republican resubmission plank:

Very Significant

"It is all very significant. Here is the Republican national administration, elected in 1928 by the dry forces and now unable to stand up against the increasing wave of the anti-prohibition sentiment. A remarkably large minority in the convention were fearlessly for straight repeal. The rest were forced to admit at last that there must be some modification of the 18th amendment.

"It must have been a wrench for the Republican forces to conceive that something has to be done, and the pity is that their convention would not face the issue, instead of adopting a plank which apparently was not intended to be understood.

"I have every hope and confidence that the Democratic convention will adopt a plank which will mean the end of national prohibition and the return of the whole question to the states. I have been fighting for this for ten years, and now at last it is coming to be recognized as the only solution."

Convicted Cop Is Released On Bond

FORT WORTH, June 17 (AP)—Lonnie Wilkerson, former policeman who Saturday was sentenced to five years in prison for the fatal shooting of Buster Grimsley, 17, yesterday obtained his release under $5,000 bond and at once began preparations for an appeal from the conviction.

Wilkerson's bond was approved by Criminal District Judge Hosey, after the suspended policeman's motion for a new trial had been denied.

The Grimsley youth was shot as he fled with two companions who had been "shagging" golf balls at Ridglea golf course, at the approach of Wilkerson and Policeman Roy Montgomery.

ONE seal, that played the big bass horn, made notes come out that were forlorn. "It sounds just like a fog horn," said wee Duncy, with a grin.

"Each note that's played sounds just the same, but that poor seal is not to blame. Why, look! The seal has puffed so hard, I think he's getting thin."

Another seal slapped at the drum. Said Scouty, "He is not so dumb! He rests his head upon the drum and almost falls asleep.

"His flappers simply rise and fall. That isn't very hard, at all. Just listen to him, Tinies. Hear what good time he can keep."

SOON Duncy said, "I wonder what real tricks they know. As like as not, they've all been trained in something. I am going to have some fun.

"The rest of you can watch a bit. Pick out a place where you can sit." And so the Tinies all sat down to see what would be done.

A trunk of trick stuff stood nearby and Duncy said, "I guess that I will take this rubber ball and try some juggling stunts right now.

"I'll toss it to the seal, you see, and he will toss it back to me. You lads may not believe it, but that big seal knows just how."

THE ball went sailing through the air and Duncy promptly shouted, "There! What did I tell you? Gee, that seal is clever as can be."

Upon the seal's nose, safe and sound, the ball had landed. It whirled 'round. The seal then tossed it back to Duncy very cleverly.

"Now, watch!" said Duncy. "Here's a trick that you all will admit is slick." Once more he threw the big ball high. The seal reached out real far.

He bounced it with his little head. "That stunt's a good one," Scouty said. "I've heard that seals are really smart and now I know they are."

KAW BRAVES ARE PLEASED WHEN CURTIS CHOSEN

WASHUNGA, Okla., June 17 (AP)—Stoic Kaw braves, who never for a moment supposed Charles Curtis would not be renominated for the vice-presidency, grinned their satisfaction today.

In the absence of their woman chief, Lucy Tyiah Eads, other leaders discussed the possibility of a celebration. Emmett Thompson, wealthy Kaw, said he thought it would be held Sunday at the Washunga reservation.

Used To Honors

However, the Kaws refused to get excited. It was explained the Indians with whom the vice-president lived as a boy are so used to honors being heaped on their blood brother that his newest triumph was taken as a matter of course.

Only about 250 of them live on the reservation, which looks like any other little American town. They wear "store clothes" and listen to the radio just like anyone else. The tribe as a whole has dwindled to about 400 members, one-third of them fullbloods.

Nowadays only a handful have an income from oil royalties, many leases having been cancelled in recent years.

Mrs. Eads, comely matron who last year repulsed a move by fullbloods to end her 9-year rule as chief, lives in Lawrence, Kas.

LUBBOCK POLICE DEPARTMENT TO MAKE REPORT OF ACTIVITIES EACH MONTH

The Lubbock police department has issued a report of its activities from April 15 to June 1, figures for May being separated from those for the last half of April. In making the report, the department has readopted a policy abandoned several months before the resignation of John Lemond from the police chief's post, at which Wiley L. Metcalfe succeeded him. A report will be made each month.

The April 15-30 figures were included in the report to cover all of Police Chief Metcalfe's administration to June 1.

Thirty-seven arrests were made from April 15 through the 30th. A hundred six were made in May, exclusive of 129 arrests for traffic law violations. A total of 22 cases were filed in the last half of April, and 181 in May.

Criminal offenses in which charges were filed in May totaled 52, and were as follows: Drunkenness 42, fighting 1, disturbing the peace 4, violation of sanitary law 1, theft of less than $5, 2, and simple assault 2.

Five persons arrested the last half of April and transferred to county custody were three theft and two liquor law violation suspects. One arrest was made for a non-resident officer in that period.

Twenty-one cases were transferred to county authorities in May. The transfers represent cases, either misdemeanors or felonies, which can be filed only in justice, county, or district courts. May's transfers were: theft 8, assault 10, driving while intoxicated 2, forgery 1. Three arrests were made for non-resident officers in May.

Fines collected April 15-30 totaled $129.50, and in May $442, according to the report.

Mary Garden Will Return To Opera

CLEVELAND, June 17 (AP)—Mary Garden—the "Mary, Mary, quite contrary" of grand opera fame—is coming out of retirement to sing her favorite "Carmen" again.

Miss Garden, who last year left the Chicago Civic Opera company to "write a book and ride a mule" in Corsica, will be a head-liner in Cleveland's second annual season of outdoor opera in the municipal stadium.

The producers, Laurence Productions, Inc., announced today she already has sailed and is scheduled to arrive in New York June 21.

Miss Garden will appear with a supporting chorus of 1,000 in what is claimed to be the world's most elaborate outdoor opera. The season will run from June 29 to July 6, with "Aida," "Valkyrie," and new negro opera "Tom Tom" scheduled besides "Carmen."

ONE KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

FOUR OTHERS INJURED WHEN CAR OVERTURNS AFTER BLOWOUT

LAS CRUCES, N. M., June 17 (AP)—Howard G. Stogner was killed and his wife and child and two Arizona peace officers were injured, when an automobile in which they were riding was wrecked after a tire blew out near here late Thursday.

Fred Kenney, sheriff of Cochise county, Arizona, was given first aid here and rushed to an El Paso hospital in a serious condition. A. C. Grimes, deputy sheriff, also of Cochise county, and driver of the car, suffered severe cuts on the face and head.

Suffers From Shock

Mrs. Stogner was picked up unconscious but examination revealed she was suffering only from shock and bruises. Their daughter, May Elizabeth, 3 years old, was slightly hurt.

They were en route from their home at Santa Ana, Calif., to Crandall, N. M., when picked up by the officers who were going to El Paso for prisoners. They were picked up at Douglas, Ariz.

Stogner has a brother, Roland Stogner, at Breckenridge, Texas, and another, Harrison, at Arlington, Texas. A sister, Mrs. B. O. Peeve, lives at Roswell, N. M. Mrs. Stogner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ell Lankford, live at Crandall.

Thought For Today

Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?—Malachi 2:10.

* * *

WE shall one day learn to supersede politics by education.—Emerson.

Un-American

Nothing is much odder than the way in which the past couple of years have turned the average American into a sort of combination of Jeremiah and Job.

None of the jealous and suspicious Europeans have been able to say as many bad things about us as we have been saying about ourselves lately. Honest confession, of course, is good for the soul, and it's just as well that we are discovering that our civilization has its defects; but we're getting so that we overlook everything but the defects, and that isn't precisely healthful.

For example: The Lindbergh tragedy brings to the surface a horrible nest of human vultures, heartless chiselers, cheap publicity-hounds and other vermin, and we promptly conclude "This is what our America is breeding in these times."

True enough; but we forget the lonely central figures in the affair, who showed such magnificent bravery, such noble character through it all. America also bred Charles and Anne Lindbergh.

Then we turn to the recent exposure of municipal corruption in New York, and wag our beards sadly over the revelations of crookedness, incompetence and moral obtuseness in high places; and we remark sadly that this is the sort of mess America makes of municipal politics.

That is very ture—and yet America also bred Samuel Seabury, who exposed the whole business.

Next we get discouraged over the dilly-dallying of Congress in a time of national emergency, and we reflect that the republic is producing some fearfully inept statesmen these days. It is, to be sure; but it is also producing such high-minded, public-spirited and intelligent public servants as Senators Norris, Borah, Couzens and Wagner, who would be a credit to any parliament.

Do we read of the silly antics of the empty-headed rich who have more money than brains? Why can't we remember such men as William Turner of Chicago, the wealthy bachelor who has been living in modest circumstances and using most of his income to feed some 3000 school children daily?

The chiselers, the easy-money boys, the grafters and the rest—they're simply vermin clinging to a sound body. They must be exterminated, and their presence is a disgrace. But they aren't America. Let's never forget it.

Technicalities

The funny quirks that criminal law occasionally takes—to the delight of the crook—are beautifully illustrated in an appeal that recently landed in the Illinois supreme court.

Eight men were convicted of kidnaping a man for ransom. Their attorneys are asking for a reversal on the grounds that where a crime is a felony in common law—as in the case with kidnaping—the indictment must use the term "feloniously." And in the indictment in this case, that word was used in only one of the several counts.

Hence the lawyers want their clients turned loose.

The presence or absence of that word can have had nothing whatever to do with the fairness or unfairness of the trial those men got. Their rights cannot in any real sense have been infringed by its omission. And yet—so strange are the ways of the law—such a piffling technicality can be the basis for an appeal!

In the book of pictures showing the horrors of war, the most gruesome one was left out. Meaning, of course, a shot of a plate of army beans.

That Girl on Broadway says her bookkeeper boy friend won't get a vacation this year. His boss told him he'd get enough exercise running up and down the columns.

A lot of people don't believe what Jim Ferguson says but they like to hear him say it, just the same!

A pleasant visitor yesterday was Sterling B. Parkinson, of Chicago, who was concluding his first visit to Lubbock since 1912. A former member of the staff of the Chicago Tribune, Mr. Parkinson dropped into the office to take back, in the form of Avalanche-Journal papers, a picture of the progress of Lubbock and the South Plains. He aims to show them to his wife, who hasn't been to West Texas since she and her husband left a score of years ago, and to numerous friends who Mr. Parkinson fears think West Texas is still just wide open country.

There are numerous oldtimers about who will remember the honeymooning tenderfeet who came to Lubbock in 1912 from their Chicago home and settled on the property of Mr. Parkinson's father adjoining the Nick Beall ranch north of town about six miles.

Andy Wilson, then county clerk, kinda took the youngsters under his wing, looked after them and helped them and, since their return to Chicago five months after their arrival, has continued to look after the Parkinson property.

First night the young couple spent here was in the Lidel hotel, which, according to Mr. Parkinson, "seems to be the only building in town that hasn't changed much!"

NATUALLY, Mr. Parkinson is just like any other man who returns to Lubbock after being away 20 years. He tells you frankly that had he not seen the changes wrought he wouldn't have believed they could be true. He stresses the city's change from a town of 3,000 to its present scope; he stresses the change in every building site and everything else.

But he points out there is one thing that hasn't changed—the greatest possession the South Plains has—namely, the friendliness and the cheery hospitality of the people of Lubbock and surrounding territory.

"When my wife and I came out here," Mr. Parkinson said, "everybody was so kind to us. We were the worst tenderfeet in the world; they laughed at our efforts to farm our property and we expected them to laugh and laughed with them. But they were the most kindly, most helpful, most genuine and hospitable people in the world and the way I have been met and greeted during this visit proves to me that they still are.

"Take the people in Chicago, for instance.

"They are more hospitable and more friendly, less reserved and formal than the people of New England—a section which I frequently visit and with which I am well acquainted. But there is just as much difference between people of Chicago, and their attitude toward strangers, and the people of Lubbock as there is between the people of New England and Chicago.

"In Chicago a man may say: 'Goodbye. I'll see you again sometime.'

"You know that he doesn't give a darn whether he sees you again, or not.

"But down here, when a fellow says 'I'm glad I met you: Come back and see us,' you feel that he really means it!"

THE Parkinson property, which is still largely owned by Mr. Parkinson, was purchased by his father, Robert H. Parkinson, a Chicago lawyer, something like 50 years ago. Although the elder Parkinson had two sections at Tulia, the three north of here and four other sections 16 miles west of Lubbock, he never saw the land and, according to his son, 'never did know why he bought it.'

The family has continued to hold the property, however, seeing some of it advance in valuation from 50 cents per acre to $65 in boom times.

When Mr. and Mrs. Parkinson came here in 1912, Oscar Luykes was operating the Lidel hotel.

ALTHOUGH The Plainsman has never voted for either Jim or Mrs. Ferguson and this year expects to hold his nose and vote for Mr. Sterling, he expects to hear both Jim and 'Ma' in their "speakin's" here tonight.

There are two reasons why Lubbock and South Plains citizens should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear these two visitors.

One reason is that we should all try to find out as much as possible about the issues of the present campaign.

And the other is that the last time the Fergusons held the Governor's office they were more generous with Texas Tech than any chief executive so far—and that includes Dan Moody, who was given such a rousing vote out here and then vetoed a long needed library building!

Don't kid yourself about 'Ma' and Jim this year.

Political wiseacres have already counted them out but the truth of the matter is they're going to get a lot of votes—so many, in fact, that they're almost certain to land in the second primary and have a good chance of being nominated in the run-off, which of course is equivalent to election.

It wouldn't surprise The Plainsman a bit to see Mrs. Ferguson go back to the capitol—and if this be treason, make the most of it!

* * *

PREVAILING conditions are, to use a baseball term, "right down the Fergusons' alley." While it may be true that the famous 'Ferguson vest-pocket vote' is not as large as usual, due to the failure of a lot of folks in 'the forks of the crick' to pay the poll tax, there is another angle to be considered. That is, briefly, this:

There are a lot of people who are thinking about climbing on the Ferguson bandwagon this year who never gave it a thought before.

There are men right here in Lubbock, who fought the Fergusons tooth and toe-nail before, who this year will scratch their heads when you ask them how they're going to vote, and they'll say: "Well, I dunno. I'm kinda thinking about voting for 'Ma' because I don't like Sterling."

So don't count the Fergusons out just yet—at least until the ballots are counted.

GOT ANY JOBS?

The Plainsman is trying to help two young Tech students find a job apiece—any kind of a job that will keep them in school.

They are Burton and Ray Hackney, pre-law freshmen, from Sulphur Springs, in Hopkins county.

Anyone who can furnish either of these lads with jobs please communicate with The Plainsman at phones 13 or 14.

Ex-Senator France Beat Hoover In 7 States And Had 231 Delegates But Choice Made By Politicians Not Primaries

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
(Copyright, 1932, NEA Service, Inc.)

CHICAGO, June 17. — Careful search through Chicago disclosed only one candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

His name was Joseph Irwin France. He is an ex-senator from the state of Maryland.

Dutcher

Herbert Hoover didn't come. Dr. France intimated a belief that Mr. Hoover was afraid to come. After all, hadn't he, Dr. France, entered one presidential primary after another—nine states in all—and won the high vote in seven of them?

Dr. France wouldn't admit that he wasn't going to be nominated. He had tables to show—and a big sign over the entrance to his large, handsome headquarters at the Congress Hotel announced—that in states where primary laws provide for direct vote on candidates he had polled 1,222,766 votes as against Hoover's 99,579. Consequently, Dr. France claimed 231 delegates instructed by the voters and insisted that the voters had only given Hoover 19.

It all seemed pretty impressive and there was no question that it was Dr. France and not Mr. Hoover who had gone out and cleaned up such votes as were cast in the state presidential primaries.

The Primaries

THE only trouble was that Dr. France thought, or pretended to think, that the people and not the politicians were the ones who nominated presidential candidates.

The real function of Dr. France was to serve as a horrible example to prove that the presidential primaries have fallen into a state of decay, which in 1932 has given the coup de grace to the sweet theory that nominees are popular choices rather than those of political bosses.

Poor old Joe France stands as a loud advocate of popular government as traditionally identified with those primaries. Furthermore, one must admit that he acted the part of a candidate up to the last minute. He admitted that he himself might not be the nominee, but did insist that Hoover had been licked and that France had been the real obstructing force.

It seemed too bad about Joe, who is tall, handsome and altogether amiable. He is large, lumbering in gait, tanned and given to white suits, white and tan sports shoes and a bow tie. He laughed heartily as he dwelt on the political fate he and "others" were going to mete out to Mr. Hoover.

Interviewed, he recalled how he had gallantly toured the country in the interests of his candidacy—how he had been stuck in North Dakota snowstorms between speaking dates.

Jump to Hoover

ONE suggested that less than a couple of dozen delegates from the states where he had won the preferential primaries actually intended to vote for him. They insisted they were Hoover delegates. But Dr. France replied they had a moral obligation, that they were men of honor and that they would surprise everyone by doing just that.

"Take Oregon and North Dakota, which have almost identical laws," said he. "They demand that a candidate for presidential nomination specifically file his name. He may submit his platform. The law requires that the delegates elected support the preferential choice. And, although it is true that there is no penalty provided for failure to obey the wish of the people, I am sure that the delegates from Illinois, Pennsylvania, Nebraska and West Virginia are all honorable men and women.

"Long practice of disregarding the preferential primary has made an immoral act something to be winked at. That's why we expect to offer a rule pledging our party to considering the preferential primary results as binding on delegates."

Dr. France admitted that Mr. Hoover hadn't entered the primaries against him except in Maryland. His explanation was that the administration forces dared not risk a popular defeat. The explanation of the administration forces was that all Republicans were behind Hoover anyway, that no one took Dr. France seriously, so why bother? They did enter Hoover in Maryland, after the Republican state machine assured them that they could give Dr. France a sound licking in his own state which would effectually dispose of him. Hoover beat France, 27,000 to 17,000.

If he were to be victimized by a general disregard of primary votes, France said, his case could only be compared with that of Roosevelt in 1912, when primary delegates of T. R.'s voted for Taft. Not since 1912, he said, had there been any such serious breach of faith.

Pennsylvania Smiles

ONLY the Oregon delegates were willing to admit any obligation to the only presidential candidate in Chicago. There France won over Hoover, 64,000 to 18,000. One of the 13 delegates said he would break pledge and vote for Hoover.

But Russell Hawkins, head of the delegation, said he and the other 11 were unwilling to repudiate the "popular choice." They would vote for France, unless Hoover had a convention majority by the time Oregon's turn came, in which case each delegate would use his best judgment.

Spokesmen for North Dakota, where France won 36,000 votes and Hoover won none because he didn't enter, said nine of their 11 delegates would be for Hoover—they didn't know about the other two. An opinion from the state's attorney general said it would be quite all right. As for Pennsylvania, where France had 352,000 votes against Hoover's unrequested 21,000 in what France thought was a bid for 75 delegates, for Illinois, where he polled 345,000 against the non-entered Mr. Hoover's 1750 with 61 delegates involved, and New Jersey and West Virginia where France also won unopposed by large votes—

Well, their delegates just laughed. They said the fact that Dr. France had taken those primaries seriously was just a big joke on Dr. France.

If Germany calls a Hohenzollern back to the throne, they might as well throw away the old saying that a "burnt child dreads the fire."

Among the Neighbors

NEW YORK, June 17—In and about those myriad resorts of the "Flighty Fifties"—where you ring-the-bell-and-ask-for-Tony—considerable personal credit is being taken for the sensational switch of John D. Rockefeller, jr., to the ranks of the prohibition repealers.

Whatever the merits of their boasts, certain it is that they brought the New York speakeasy situation almost to Mr. Rockefeller's front door.

For several years he could number among his fairly-close neighbors a collection of the better thirst parlors. They were just up the street and down the street; around the corner and beyond the back yard.

And when John D., jr., purchased the property for the Rockefeller (Radio City) Center, considerable sections of New York chuckled over the fact that—for the moment at least—a Rockefeller was in possession of one of the city's thickest speakeasy areas.

To be sure, the buildings were soon torn down—but 49th and 50th had fairly swarmed with whisperlows.

While from the official town residence of Rockefeller, jr., at 10 West 54th Street, a good pair of binoculars might have revealed raiders at work and at play and bibulous boys and girls going their various gay ways.

Fifty-second to Fifty-eighth and Park Avenue to Sixth Avenue has long been a veritable checkerboard of popular drinkeries.

On various occasions rumors spread that Mr. Rockefeller had led a movement to do something about it. And didn't get very far!

All of which may or may not have had something to do with his final decision. But not many blocks from the severe Rockefeller mansion, a bit of back-slapping might have been observed accompanied by such comments as: "Well, I guess we done it, all right."

Rockefeller Routine

Such is the discipline of Mr. Rockefeller's town life, however, that the events in his own neighborhood may have reached him only through the newspapers or reports of intimates.

For during those periods when he dwells in 54th Street, he is up at 7:30 and at breakfast within an hour. He is being driven to the Standard Oil building by 9 o'clock and is usually at his desk within a half hour.

His lunch time is 12 to 1. Two to five are his hardest working hours in his office. When he departs, all personal memoranda and reports requiring quiet concentration go home with him. His office hours at home are unlimited.

In winter, he takes many such cares with him to Ormond Beach, Fla. During summer intervals he commutes to the Rockefeller country estate, Seal Harbor, Me., is another retreat.

A Fiddle, No Yacht

As for relaxation, Rockefeller, jr., has for years found it chiefly in his fiddle. Incidentally, intimates say that he is an accomplished violinist; in fact something of a virtuoso.

Until about eight years ago, he gave little or no attention to outdoor sports. Unlike most millionaires, he has never gone in for yachts or racing stables or polo ponies or other hobbies of the rich. Neither did his father. Only at the urging of Rockefeller senior, did he finally take a fling at golf.

The 54th Street home is a five story affair, requiring some 25 servants to operate.

Slightly less pretentious mansions, in 54th or 53rd Street and thereabouts, require about 25 waiters and bartenders to wait on the customers.

An Actor's Memorial

A note from Leo Carillo, the actor, saying he will soon build a theater in Los Angeles on the spot where his mother and father were born . . . An interesting memorial, if you asked me!

An Can She Whistle?

Never having heard mention that "the peanut vendor" might be married and have a family, the appearance of a daughter has surprised Broadway. She is "Marianna, the peanut vendor's daughter," and Don Azpiazu, who started the original craze, has just brought her in from Cuba. A tuneful little thing!

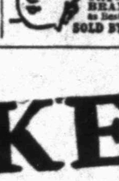

Jimmy Walker went to Detroit to attend the meeting of mayors discussing the unemployment problem. Of course no one will believe that the Seabury investigation had anything to do with Jimmy's interest in unemployment.

Hoover's sales tax plan may be all right, but from the way the Senate acted, his sales talk wasn't strong enough.

From the results obtained so far, they'll soon have to change it to the gone-but-not-forgotten man.

While Congress was looking about for something new to tax, its members would have done well to consider the wishes of future voters by placing a prohibitive tariff on castor oil.

CONVENTIONS

stood President Hoover wanted his unning mate of 1928 kept on the icket. There was wet opposition to im. There was a movement for a ounger and more spectacular igure. And there was an important undercurrent of opposition rowing out of the social war which had been waged in Washington, over precedence, between Mr. Curtis' sister, Mrs. Dolly Gann, and Alice Longworth.

Against this combined opposition, he Curtis people played an interesting game. At their head was Mrs. Gann herself, receiving constantly at her hotel, present in a ow at every convention session.

When the Curtis camp found it needed the help of the administration, it got it. Not openly, which might have defeated the purpose, but genuinely an deffectively.

States lukewarm toward Curtis for instance, but undecided where to go, were advised to put up favorite sons, and keep on the side-lines until they saw how events were turning.

It worked very well. When the roll was called, the opposition was widely split, and no one was without gunshot of Curtis. He himself did not quite have the needed majority, but under the circumstances,

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 1-4 higher in response to steadier Liverpool cables and continued showery weather in the eastern belt.

The demand tapered on the advance to 5.66 for December and after initial orders had been supplied prices eased. Favorable crop advices from the southwest, including reports of an almost complete absence of major insect damage in all sections of Texas despite general distribution of various insects, led to scattered selling. There also was a little southern selling here. July reacted to 5.23 while December sold off to 5.62, but the market was quiet around yesterday's closing quotations at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables said liquidation had been absorbed by trade calling and reported a fair cloth inquiry although the turnover was disappointing.

After selling a point or two below yesterday's closing quotations, the market steadied on further trade buying. There also was considerable buying here during the earlier trading through houses with Liverpool connections, presumably on the wider differences. Volume tapered off after the close of the English market but no particular selling pressure developed and prices held fairly steady at midday when active months ruled about net unchanged to 3 points higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 17 (AP)—The cotton market was rather disappointing at the opening today although Liverpool came in considerably better than due on easier sterling. Initial trades here showed no change. As New York opened higher, prices here rallied 1 to 2 points soon after the start, July trading at 5.28, October 5.48 and December at 5.62. This advance was helped by prospects for further rainy weather in the belt.

Later the market eased off again, losing the grain to a rather easier opening of the stock market. Near the end of the first hour the market was quite and steady and practically unchanged from yesterday's close.

The market ruled moderately steady all morning, with fair trading but narrow fluctuations. As stocks eased, cotton lost a few points, July dropping to 5.24, October to 5.42 and December to 5.58, or 4 to 6 points down from the early highs and 3 to 4 points under yesterday's close.

Near mid-session, as stocks improved somewhat, and mill takings for the week were about as due, prices rallied three to five points from the lows to levels about even with yesterday's close.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, June 17 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady: July 5.27; Oct. 5.46; Dec. 5.61; Jan. 5.69-offered; March 5.85-bid:; May 5.96-bd.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady: July 5.27; Oct. 5.52; Dec. 5.5; Jan. 5.74; March 5.88; May 6.05.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—A slow downward drift developed in the stock market today as buying power appeared to have exhausted itself.

German bonds perked up as the Lausanne conference seemed to have opened auspiciously and sugar remained a firm spot in the commodities, but traders in stocks seemed dispirited at the list's apparent inability to push through the resistance level encountered a fortnight ago.

Leading shares sold off a point or two in sluggish trading, recovered just before midday coincident with a little buying of Case, but then sagged again. Issues off 1 to 2 included U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Johns Manville, National Biscuit, American Tobacco "B", North American, Coca Cola, Union Pacific and Santa Fe. Oils held fairly steady.

A necropolis is a burial ground, usually of great size, or one found near the site of an ancient city.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP)—Grain values sagged today after a show of firmness at the outset. Traders took their cue from downturns of securities and almost ignored a rise in wheat quotations at Liverpool. Opening unchanged to 3-8 higher, wheat afterward declined all around. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 up and subsequently underwent a general setback.

Criminal Sessions Are Dismissed Here

Criminal sessions of 72d district court, which Monday began trial of a two-week criminal docket, have been dismissed until Monday.

S. E. (Slick) Melton, who pleaded guilty of prohibition law violation, was convicted Thursday by a 72d district court jury and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Melton's application for a suspended sentence was opposed by District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley.

Melton, whose $1,000 bond has been ordered forfeited by Judge Homer L. Pharr, returned to Lubbock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Collins, pleaded guilty of a prohibition law violation, and was given three years suspended.

Relieve Headache And Quiet Nerves In Three Minutes

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B. C.," a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common cold and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics, or such habit forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages wherever drugs are sold. (adv.)

BONUS BILL

for emergency use.

Representative Blanton (D., Texas) urged the veterans to remember that "your friends are counting on your good conduct," his voice was almost drowned out by cheers from the bonus army.

Blanton told the veterans that if they are patient "the bonus matter will be settled to your satisfaction."

The impromptu speech was made from the wall surrounding the park across from the capitol. At one time the number of veterans became so large that vigilant capitol police had trouble moving traffic.

"I don't think there is a man here who wouldn't rather have a job than cash payment of the bonus," Brookhart told the senate.

As the Iowan proceeded with his address the veterans in the galleries leaned forward intently. They maintained perfect order.

On the floor, the customary noises were absent. Members—regardless of their views on the question—paid close attention.

On each senator's desk lay the report of the finance committee which contended currency inflation would be disastrous to the country and that the veterans were no worse off than other citizens.

As they took their seats to respond to the quorum call, almost every senator glanced up at the crowded galleries.

While the senate debate continued, the crowd outside rapidly increased and speakers mounted a railing to keep up an unbroken effort to maintain order.

ple to move to town, unemployment is sure to be a problem.

Had Wrong Sow By The Ear

"We've had the wrong sow by the ear. Too many people have moved to town. I remember when not more than one-fifth of the people lived in the cities and now more than half of them are there. The division is too great and too much to expect of the rural population. They can't support the other half. It's a problem of preventing overgrowth of towns and cities that should confront you now and not undergrowth.

"I would say to you, young men, stop asking people to move to town. Let them stay in the country. Just as sure as everybody tries to live in town, it'll be the survival of the fittest and not much surviving and very little fittest.

"You've Been Made The Goat"

"The problem is up to you young men. You are the ones who will have to carry on when the old fellows like me are gone on. You inherit more responsibilities than opportunities. You've been made the goat. An annual interest bill of $16,000,000,000 alone hangs over your heads when agricultural revenue is only about $6,000,000,000. You are the recipients of a liability, not a legacy. Why, when we young fellows started out in our day, we started even, we weren't in debt and there was a country filled with natural resources and years of growth all around us.

"I say to you young men, take an inventory of yourself, your city, your nation and then don't try to kid yourselves, render a conscious statement and make up your minds to right things.

We Must Do Our Part

"Our natural resources are unlimited but we must do our part. We must husband these resources, school them and learn old fashioned economy in our private affairs and economy in government will take care of itself. That's the reason we have extravagant governments today, they've been the result of extravagant peoples."

Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson were introduced to the club by Ab Humphries, chairman of the Lubbock Ferguson-for-Governor club. R. J. Keller, president of the club, presided. James Kennedy was in charge of the program.

During the meal, vocal selections were given by Miss Olene Bates. Mrs. Paul Morgan accompanied her at the piano.

FERGUSONS, ON TENTH CAMPAIGN FOR OFFICE, BRING 1932 DRIVE TO CITY

ranged interview with the former governors. Mr. Ferguson, ten pounds heavier than when he was campaining here two years ago, is in perfect health although he looks a bit older and a bit bulkier about the midsection. He weighs 220 pounds and his onetime dark mane is now entirely gray.

Clad in the conventional black and white combination of Texas political attire—he wears no jewelry save an old-fashioned watch chain knotted to a belt-loop—"Farmer Jim', longtime champion of "the folks in the forks of the crick", plunged immediately into a discussion of the present battle for ballots.

Has One Main Plank

"Campaign psychology", he said, "is always founded on precedent and principles and ours, in this case, points to certain victory for Mrs. Ferguson. Psychology of politics", he repeated, "is always based on the voter's belief in self-preservation—and by that I mean that the people, when they do their own thinking, give their support to the candidate who they think will bring either affirmative relief, or who will relieve them of all their burdens.

"Applying this rule, the people have already lost all hope of any relief at the hands of the Sterling administration and they have already made up their minds that the Ferguson platform can be looked to for relief from their present afflictions".

On High Taxes, Interest

Chief plank in his wife's platform, Mr. Ferguson points out, covers reduction of taxes and interest.

"Both are exhorbitant", he said seriously, his gray-green eyes showing a sudden snap, "and they must be sharply reduced else the government will fall and revolution will occur".

Mrs. Ferguson, clad in a sensible and becoming straw bonnet, a simple traveling dress, wearing white gloves and carrying a brown pocketbook, did not care to discuss campaign issues.

"You've gotten everything from him", she said, "let me tell you about what I think of the Panhandle-Plains".

Her First Visit Here

Making her first visit to this section, Mrs. Ferguson, of course, was highly complimentary. Like everyone else, she sleeps better and eats more on the high plains than in the lowlands, although she explained that "Jim and I don't eat much when we're campaigning. We can't make speeches and travel around on a full stomach."

She stressed, however, the cordial reception being given them everywhere and remarked that crowds at Ferguson rallies have a larger percentage of women in them than when she made her other campaigns.

"Women Are Thinking"

"Women are like everybody else", said the 57-year-old grandmother of 12-year-old George S. Nalle, jr., and the mother of two grown daughters. "They are thinking more than they ever thought before. They're more interested in politics than ever before because they, like their husbands, are looking for relief".

The writer hazarded an opinion that being governor of Texas during the coming term will be a hard task, with lots of work, but the state's only feminine ex-governor was ready with an answer.

"It will be hard all right—but it will be easier for me because I know more about the job. There will be more work—but I'll be able to do it better. I'm not like Dan Moody. He said he enjoyed being governor, traveling around and taking the honor—but he didn't like the work. I like the work and I can do it!"

Holds Years Well

Despite a trying time in one term of office and two heetic campaigns since, Mrs. Ferguson does not show the effects of the strain. Her brown hair is streaked with gray but she does not look her years. Like her husband, she still retains her own white molars and, aside from a small wristwatch with a black ribbon band, wore no jewelry. During the conversation she removed her left glove but her third finger disclosed no wedding band or solitaire.

"Farmer Jim" referred only once to the 'honesty in public office' campaign which is always raised against his candidacy. The man who was removed from the gubernatorial chair more than a decade ago and who since has been barred from making the race in his own name, allowed that "I'm ready for that when they (meaning the Sterling organization) start it". There was a grim look in his eyes and the lines about his mouth tightened but he did not go further with the discussion, save to say that he was sure that the question would be brought into the campaign.

Brings Up Figures

"We've done a lot of studying in this campaign", he said, "and we're not fooled. Let me show you. Sterling got 473,000 votes when he defeated my wife in 1930. Mrs. Ferguson had 384,000.

"All right. If Sterling has lost 10 percent of his strength, my wife will win by 7,000 votes—and every Texan who is informed on politics knows that Sterling has lost at least 25 percent of his support!"

M. H. Wolf, of Dallas, a "big Baptist who, when he had it, gave the church a hundred thousand dollars or more", will cut deeply into the remaining Sterling strength, Mr. Ferguson opined. He said the race was between his wife and the present governor and intimated that the other eight candidates weren't being given any more consideration from the voters than their prominence called for.

Boasts Labor Support

The former governor said that there are 86,000 fewer voters in Texas this year than in 1930 and that "the figures show that the loss is just as heavy in Sterling counties as in Ferguson counties. We'll lose that way, fifty-fifty, with Sterling dropping as much strength as we do. But we'll make up that loss in Harris county, where Sterling lives—and for every farm vote that has been lost there has been a new city labor vote secured for the Fergusons", he concluded.

While interest in politics is uncommonly lax this year, Ferguson crowds have been large and satisfactory, Mr. Ferguson said. He has already spoken in Waco, Lockhart, Uvalde, Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, Dallas, Tyler, Beaumont, Houson, Corsicana, Wichita Falls and Amarillo, where he was last night. He leave here tomorrow for Sweetwater, where he and Mrs. Ferguson will speak tomorrow night before going to Austin for a rest. They expect to complete 20 more speeches between now and the first primary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are traveling without secretarial or managerial assistance and are "depending on our friends everywhere to help us". A traveling companion is Charles Spradley, of Dallas, longtime friend and once a legislator from Collin county.

BOY SCOUT TROOP IS REREGISTERED

Boy Scout troop No. 36 of Amherst has reregistered with 10 scouts, D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council executive of Lubbock, has announced. Lynn Smith is scoutmaster of troop No. 36, and Donald Britt and Burnice Walker, former scouts, are assistants.

About 20 Lubbock Eagle scouts, members of Tzedos Khivs, will leave early Saturday morning for a weekend camp at the South Plains area camp near Post.

Representatives of several service clubs have informed Executive Jennings their clubs will aid scouts to obtain jobs to earn money to pay their expenses at the annual camp.

That information was in a letter to scoutmasters prepared Thursday by the council executive. Scoutmasters in Lubbock were asked to give area headquarters a list of scouts in their troops who can attend camp only if they earn the money.

The first South Plains area troop which has registered 75 per cent of its membership and at least one adult leader for camp will receive a refund of $1 a scout, the executive announced in an accompanying bulletin. Banners will be awarded each troop having at least 50, 75 or 100 per cent of its membership and at least one adult leader in camp.

Plans are underway to conduct a playground baseball series at camp. The winners would receive a pennant.

BOOG-SCOTT HERE IN HIS CAMPAIGN

"I am the only cowman in the race for congressman-at-large," J. F. Boog-Scott, Coleman rancher and former sanitary board member, said here today. Mr. Boog-Scott arrived this morning for a stay in Lubbock to call on friends in the interests of his candidacy for place No. 3.

Mr. Boog-Scott pointed out that he had not filed for either places 1 or 2 because of the fact that Pink Parrish of Lubbock is in the first race and Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, Claude, is in the second.

"West Texas is entitled to two at least of the three places," the candidate said. "If the legislature had acted as it should have, we would have had two more districts out here.".

The candidate was accompanied by Sam Matthehwa, Coleman, who was first president of the first baby beef club in Texas. From here they go to Plainview and then to Amarillo. The two men will be here tonight.

ELLIS FRACTURES LEG

J. F. Ellis, 65, who sells newspapers daily on Lubbock streets, fell on the sidewalk at Broadway and Avenue G this morning and suffered a leg fracture. He fell backward over the platform of some small scales standing on the walk. Attendants at Lubbock sanitarium said the break, near the hip, made more serious by Ellis' advanced age, would necessitate more than the usual care.

Congress Candidate Visits In Lubbock

R. B. Hood, Weatherford, candidate for congressman-at-large, place number 1, was a visitor in Lubbock Thursday night and this morning. He is campaigning in the interest of his candidacy.

From here, Hood went to Tahoka, Lamesa and Big Spring where he is to make short talks today. He is speaking in San Angelo Saturday.

Hood is a former state representative and district attorney of Parker county.

WHEREABOUTS OF LANCASTER KEPT SECRET BY COPS

Peace officers today continued to be successful in keeping secret the whereabouts of Willie Lancaster, a former projection machine operator at the Palace theater here, arrested early Wednesday at San Antonio.

Lubbock police and sheriff's departments reported Lancaster was not in jail here. Efforts to find Lancaster at Texas ranger headquarters at Austin remained fruitless. Lancaster, known to Lubbock police as "White Pants Willie," was charged jointly with two other men here in the bombing early May 30 of the Lindsey theater.

IF SOME ONE could canvass the youngsters of the land for their favorite breakfast dish, he'd find a landslide vote for Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Every morning of the week, these crisp, toasted flakes start the day in millions of homes.

And what's better than a bowl of crunchy Kellogg's, served with cool milk or cream and fruit? Flavor that appetites can't resist. So easy to digest it furnishes rich energy for work, play—or just for feeling fit!

Mothers also appreciate the convenience and economy of Kellogg's. No cooking or trouble. Many servings from a package costing but a few cents.

Serve Kellogg's Corn Flakes for the children's evening meal. Kellogg's encourage restful sleep—how much better than heavy, hard-to-digest foods.

You'll prefer genuine Kellogg's. No other corn flakes have such flavor and freshness. For Kellogg's always reach you oven-fresh—because the flakes are completely sealed in an inside WAXTITE bag. It's a patented Kellogg feature. Look for the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

14-BUSINESS SERVICE

10.—Tailors, Hatters, Laundrys

WE THANK YOU

People of Lubbock and the South Plains, for your continued support of our new institution, for the past six months.

We positively are not in the dry cleaning business — as we leave that up to the tailors of the city . . . but we are concentrating all of our efforts on just one thought . . . "To give you the very best laundry service available," at a very nominal cost.

We know that you appreciate the service that we pledge ourselves to give you.

We "do not" give away something, in order to induce you to trade with us, as we feel that you appreciate quality work and realize that we can and will give you better laundry work, as we are doing now, than if we were giving something "Free"? . . . as, after all, you get just what you pay for.

However, if you want to send your dry cleaning along with your laundry, we will gladly get it, and take it to RESPONSIBLE cleaners, and return it to you at a very, very reasonable price.

Thanking you again, we are

ORDINANCE NO. 404
AN ORDINANCE ORDERING AN ELEC-TION IN THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, TEXAS, TO BE HELD ON THE 28TH DAY OF JUNE, 1932, FOR THE PUR-POSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE QUALI-FIED VOTERS OF SAID CITY OF LUB-BOCK, TEXAS, FOR ADOPTION OR RE-JECTION PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE EXISTING CHARTER OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, DESIGNATING THE TIME AND PLACE AT WHICH SAID ELECTION IS TO BE HELD, AND AP-POINTING PRESIDING OFFICERS THEREOF.

WHEREAS, on the 28th day of April, 1932, a resolution was duly passed by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas, providing for notice of its in-tention to pass an ordinance submitting amendments to the existing charter of said city; and,

WHEREAS, notice of the intention to pass such an ordinance was duly given by publication in the manner and for the length of time required by law; and,

WHEREAS, the charter of said city has not been altered, changed or amended for more than two years prior to this date;

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, TEXAS:

SECTION I

That a special election be held in the City of Lubbock, Texas, on the 28th day of June, 1932, for the purpose of sub-mitting to the qualified voters of said city for adoption or rejection the follow-ing proposed amendments to the exist-ing charter of the City of Lubbock:

AMENDMENT NO. 1:

To amend the first paragraph of Sec-tion 22 of Article 2 of Chapter 1 of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock, Texas, so that said paragraph shall here-after read as follows:

"Section 22. There is hereby created and established a Park Commission to be composed of five (5) members, all resi-dents of the City of Lubbock, and who shall be officially designated as Park Commissioners of said city. Said Park Commissioners shall hold their offices for terms of one, two, three, four and five years, respectively, and until their suc-cessors are appointed. The general con-trol and supervision of the parks within the City of Lubbock, now or hereafter to be acquired, is hereby vested in said Park Commission and all funds set apart for said parks, subject to the approval of the governing authorities, shall be under the control of said Commissioners, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of said Park Commission."

The other three paragraphs of said Section 22, Article 2, Chapter 1, of said City Charter shall remain unchanged.

AMENDMENT NO. 2:

To amend Section 1 of the Board of City Development amendment adopted at special election held December 16, 1929, so that said Section 1 shall hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1: Board of City Development. The Commission shall appoint what shall be known and designated as a 'Board of City Development', which shall be com-posed of fifteen members, who shall serve without compensation, and may prescribe the qualifications and duties of such board and shall annually appropriate one-half mill on the one dollar ($1.00) valu-ation of taxable property in the City of Lubbock from the general fund of said city to support the work of such board and annually levy a tax sufficient to raise said amount."

The other sections of said amendment to the City Charter regarding the Board of City Development shall remain un-changed.

AMENDMENT NO. 3:

To amend Section 24, Article 2 of Chap-ter 1, of the City Charter added by amendment adopted April 1, 1930, so that said section shall hereafter read as fol-lows:

"Section 24. Sale of Electric Light System and Water System and Plant and also 81 acres of land, to be voted on by people. The City of Lubbock shall not sell the municipal electric light system, or water system and plant, or the 81-acre tract of land purchased by the City from J. A. Wilson out of Survey Eighteen (18), Block A, Lubbock County, Texas, unless such sale is authorized by a two-thirds vote of the qualified tax-paying voters at a general or special election held in ac-cordance with law."

SECTION II

That the poll places and presiding of-ficers of said election shall be respectively as follows:

Said election shall be held in the office of the City Recorder on the first floor of the City Hall of Lubbock, Texas, and W. E. Ballew, Geo. W. Foster and R. B. Smith are hereby appointed as judges to hold said election.

SECTION III

That said election shall be held under the provisions of the Statutes of the State of Texas and the City Charter of said City of Lubbock, and all persons qualified to vote in said city under the laws of this State regulating general elections shall be allowed to vote therein.

SECTION IV

That the manner of holding said elec-tion shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas regulating general elections, when not in conflict with the provisions here referred to in the last preceding section.

SECTION V

That the form of ballots to be used in said election shall be respectively as fol-lows:

"Ballot"

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Do you vote to amend the first para-graph of Section 22 of Article 2, Chapter 1, of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock, Texas, by amending said para-graph so as to increase the number of Park Commissioners from three (3) to five (5), and fixing their terms of of-fice at one to five years, respectively? Do you vote to amend Section 1 of the Board of City Development amendment adopted at special election held December 16, 1929, by amending said section so that the Commission shall annually ap-propriate one-half mill on the one dollar ($1.00) valuation of the taxable property in the City of Lubbock from the general fund of said city to support the work of such board and annually levy a tax sufficient to raise said amount? Answer:

Yes
No

AMENDMENT NO. 3

Do you vote to amend Section 24, Article 2 of Chapter 1, of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock, Texas, by amending said section so as to provide that the City of Lubbock shall not sell the municipal electric light system, or water system and plant, or the 81-acre tract of land purchased by the City from J. A. Wilson out of Survey Eighteen (18), Block A, Lubbock County, Texas, unless such sale is authorized by a two-thirds vote of the qualified tax-paying voters at a gen-eral or special election held in accord-ance with law? Answer:

Yes
No

SECTION VI

All voters desiring to vote for the adoption of the proposed amendments shall permit to remain on their ballot with respect to such proposed amend-ment which they desire to have adopted the word "Yes" and those desiring to vote against the adoption of such pro-posed amendments shall permit to re-main on their ballot with respect to such proposed amendment which they desire to have rejected the word "No".

SECTION VII

The City Secretary shall at once mail copy of such proposed amendments to each qualified voter of the City of Lub-bock, Texas, as appear on the tax col-lector's rolls for the year ending Janu-ary 31, 1931.

SECTION VIII

A substantial copy of this ordinance shall be sufficient notice of said elec-tion and thirty days' notice of the time and places of holding said election shall be given by publishing such notice once each week for five weeks, the date of the first publication being not less than thirty full days prior to the date of election.

SECTION IX

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately from and after its passage.

Passed and approved first reading this 26th day of May, 1932.

Passed and approved second reading this 27th day of May, 1932.

J. J. CLEMENTS,
Mayor.

ATTEST:
J. L. HOLT,
City Secretary.

LUBBOCK COUNTY VOTERS MAY NOT HAVE REPEAL BALLOTS

COMMITTEE HERE HAS NO FUNDS TO PAY FOR REFERENDUM

Will Lubbock county voters have an opportunity to vote in the prohibition referendum ordered by the state Democratic executive committee? The question remains unanswered.

The county executive committee does not have funds with which to print the separate ballots ordered for the July 23 primary and County Chairman J. K. Wester declared candidates could not be forced to pay for them.

Wester's statement came after authority of the state committee to order the chairmen to prepare the separate prohibition referendum ballots was questioned by Murrell L. Buckner, chairman of the Dallas county Democratic committee. Buckner asked Attorney General J. V. Allred for a ruling on the matter.

"The referendum is unnecessary. It won't be given the opinion of Texas voters, but only that of Democrats who take the pledge," Wester charged. "Not more than one-third of Texas voters will express themselves in the referendum; and the Democrats should steer clear of the prohibition question.

Majority Agrees

"I'm not speaking the opinion of the committee, but I believe that the majority agrees with me.

"The state committee, or some individual, will have to pay for the additional ballots and for the extra time the counting will cause. We couldn't force the candidates to pay for them, and it would not be fair to ask them to."

Buckner, in his letter to Allred, said:

"The county committees have but one source of funds to pay for printing the primary ballots. That source is the candidates who are running in the primary, the necessary funds being raised by assessing those candidates.

"In my opinion it is fair and legal to charge this expense to candidates for the races they run, but I do not believe it is fair to charge them for printing a ballot in which they have no personal interest and from which they receive no benefit."

The Lubbock committee will meet at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the district courtroom to assess costs and to draw names for places on the ballots, Chairman Wester said.

SIX "PLIES"?

You can count six layers of fabric here, but the first two under the tread in this tire (or in any so-called "six ply" tire built this way) do not run from bead to bead. Some tire makers call these "plies," but they're really "breaker strips," so we call them that.
