by-line, word-by-word basis," he said. The United States accuses the Communist-led Pathet Lao guerrillas of violating the cease-fire.

reports indicated that U.S. military advisers were waiting to see how important the actions are. The capture of Padong prompted the United States to lead a Western walkout of the conference.

The leaders of the two factions in Laos opposed to Premier Boua Oum's Western-backed government gave their views on neutralizing Laos at Wednesday's conference session.

Stickney Hearing Continues Today

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—A hearing on a stay of execution for Howard Stickney, convicted murderer, resumes today without a transcript of the trial.

The judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday refused Dist Judge Cullen Briggs' request for the transcript.

"We see no necessity in your developing facts which are already in our possession," the judges wired Judge Briggs. "We refuse to have any of our records leave this court. If you develop any facts and grant the stay, you should proceed to certify them in this court in accord with Article 119 within 10 days."

Judge Briggs then sent a second telegram to the judges—K. A. Woodley, W. A. Morrison and W. T. McDonald—saying he needed the transcript in order to determine what evidence produced at the hearing was new. He asked for the transcript for three days.

Stickney was saved from the electric chair 40 minutes before he was scheduled to die shortly after Friday midnight when Judge Briggs granted a writ of habeas corpus. The next execution date is June 27.

Stickney, 21, is under a death sentence for beating Mrs. Clifford Farries to death on a Galveston beach in May, 1953. He also is charged with killing her husband but hasn't been tried on that charge.

Stickney's lawyer, Robert Looey, said he expects to prove that some testimony in the murder trial was perjured. He said the testimony was before U.S. Judge Allen B. Hanna, one of five federal judges who refused to grant a last-minute stay of execution last Friday.

"We are charging that they [the Houston district attorney's office] are suppressing evidence," Looey told Judge Briggs in court Wednesday.

A history of the case was read to the court by Harris County Asst. Dist. Atty. Sam Robertson. Stickney sat calmly in the crowded courtroom as lawyers argued over the admissibility of the history of the case. Robertson read the top of the prisoner's wavy blond hair shaved for the electric chair. His mother, Mrs. Frances Wagner of Houston, spoke to him encouragingly at court recess.

The first day's hearing was to determine whether Stickney is an incompetent prior to the hearing. He received medical examinations at Memorial Hospital here. Judge Briggs said he understood that Stickney would be given additional psychiatric examinations at the hospital.

Judge Briggs said at the opening of the hearing: "I will not tolerate stunts or carnivalesque conduct prior to the hearing."

As he spoke, a television cameraman rested his elbows on the judge's bench and shot pictures of him.

The judge noted statements regarding the case which he said an attorney had made "unfortunately."

RESCUED — Dr. Lamar Richards, 28-year-old Limon, Fla., optometrist, tells of his ordeal of 10 days in a one-man life raft off in the Gulf of Mexico with his brother, Eric, a Melbourne, Fla., roofing contractor. The men, who lived on two cups of water and one flying fish, were rescued and taken to Tyndall AFB hospital at Panama City, Florida. They had their last water seven days before rescue and reported in serious condition from burns and exposure. The plane in which they were flying crashed in the Gulf. (AP Wirephoto)

Preparation Is Explained

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says, before taking federal action in a civil rights problem, he first attempts to determine if the problem can be resolved amicably.

Kennedy, speaking Wednesday at the annual meeting of the National Association of Attorneys General, said he was well aware the civil rights question was a sensitive one in many areas.

He said that he follows a policy of nonintervention in civil rights until he has consulted with officials of the state involved.

He said it was his duty to enforce U.S. Supreme Court decisions such as anti-segregation rulings.

"Of enforcing the highest bench's decisions, Kennedy added: "The federal government is not trying to thrust anything down anybody's throat, but we have responsibilities and obligations."

The wedding was planned for today but Miss Bacall and Robards were turned down by the city registrar because they lacked some legal documents, manager Peter Witte said.

He added the couple engaged a Vienna lawyer to help them clear up the matter and get the papers here in time so they can be married Friday morning. Witte said the papers required included a certificate of Bogart's death and a divorce certificate for Robards.

Miss Bacall is 37, Chicago-born Robards is 39, he has been divorced twice.

Jackie Flies Home Today

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy flew home today, leaving her Greek hosts hopeful that her week-long vacation in this country will give its tourist trade a boost.

The 33-year-old wife of the American President—after a morning swim—left for New York aboard a commercial airplane which made a special stop in Athens to pick up her party of nine.

Prime Minister Constantine Karamanlis and his wife, who were Mrs. Kennedy's hosts here, went to the airport to bid her farewell. Mrs. Kennedy, sun-tanned and all smiles, thanked them for their hospitality as a small crowd of curious airport employees, passengers and newsmen applauded. Mrs. Kennedy was wearing a light aquamarine coat and had black accessories.

Before leaving, Mrs. Kennedy told Greek friends she would like to bring her two small children here for a vacation next summer.

After seven days in Greece, including a yachting tour of picturesque islands in the Aegean Sea, Mrs. Kennedy "has been delighted with it," her social secretary Leilia Ralridge reported.

Blast Shakes Humble Plant

HOUSTON (AP)—Humble Oil & Refining Co.'s huge Baytown plants were shaken with a double explosion at about 9:40 a.m. today. There was no immediate report of injuries.

A fire was burning at the company docks.

Humble's office said there was an explosion at a sewer line near the center of the plant, followed almost immediately by a second blast at the sewer terminal at the docks.

"It was pretty loud but muted," a spokesman said, adding that "it shook the countryside somewhat."

Plate glass windows in the solvent division office were broken. There were apparently no injuries from the first explosion, the company said, but it was not able to determine at once about injuries at the dock.

It was thought the fire was from accumulated combustible matter in the sewer that was burning itself out.

Dallas Restaurant Swindled By Waiters

DALLAS (AP)—Police say a plush restaurant was swindled of thousands of dollars by waiters who erased numbers on checks with ink erasers before sending them through the cashier.

Detective J. H. Boyd said Wednesday this enabled the waiters to send the same numbered check through the cashier the second time it was used at the 100-ft. O'Call restaurant.

Several employees, one of whom said he made $400 in three days, were held.

RAIN

scattered thunder showers to continue through Friday in all parts of the state.

One of Wednesday night's weather alerts embraced an area between Wichita Falls and Texas. The center was along a line from south of Wink to Big Spring, Texas.

A 120-mile-long squall line formed over the Waco and moved southeast. No damage was reported.

Although Waco got only a trace, Section received 3 inches of rain. Rosenthal 1.50, Chilton 1.50 and about 1.50 fell in the area around Temple.

Rainfall measurements in other sections included: Abilene 2.23 inches, Lubbock 2.05, Electra 2.2, Dallas 87, Wichita Falls 33, College Station 30, Fort Worth 28 and Victoria 18. Smaller amounts fell at numerous other points.

The Electra rain came as farmers were finishing the wheat harvest and only 5 per cent of the grain was reported on the ground. Section, north of Dallas, got a 1.63-inch rain.

Temperature lows Thursday morning ranged from 50 degrees at Dallas to 78 at Corpus Christi, Palacios and Galveston.

DEEP DISH Picnic pies of fresh peach or nectarine can be warmed over the coals in the aluminum foil pans in which they were baked. Strips of sharp cheddar cheese add to the zest of outdoor eating.

What A Peach Of A Pie!

This goes for our nectarine pie, too. Did you know that nectarine is a variety of a peach having a smooth, waxy skin and a firm, aromatic pulp? ... that peaches and nectarines grow from nectarine seeds and nectarines from peach seeds? ... that peaches and nectarines may mature on the same branch of a tree?

Let's leave this botanical information to the scientists and concern ourselves only with enjoying the fruit. Whether you use nectarines or peaches in making Deep Dish Picnic Pies, you've got a dessert to be pleased about.

Fresh fruit is mixed with granulated sugar and flour before spreading into aluminum foil pie pans, the struesel topping of brown sugar, flour and creamy butter is crumbled over.

These pies are at their flavor-best served warm, with a scoop of ice cream or a slice of sharp cheddar cheese atop.

DEEP DISH PICNIC PIES
5 servings
Preheated 350 degree oven
5 aluminum foil pie pans 9 1/2 inch
5 cups sliced nectarines or peaches
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/4 cup flour
6 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup flour
1 1/2 cup butter
Mix nectarines or peaches, granulated sugar and flour lightly but thoroughly, spread in pie pans. Mix brown sugar and flour. Cut butter into flour-sugar mixture until crumbly; spread over fruit in pie pans. Bake 25-30 minutes; remove to cooling rack. Serve warm with ice cream or Cheddar cheese slices.

Lumber Problem Answered
By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

QUESTION: Can you tell me something about moisture in lumber? I am getting ready to do some construction work and have received all kinds of conflicting information about green lumber, air-dried lumber, kiln-dried lumber and so on.

ANSWER: Green lumber costs less than lumber which has been dried, but it shrinks over a period of time as it begins to dry by itself. This causes warping, checking, nail-popping and many other difficulties. There are two common methods of seasoning lumber. One is to air-dry it, which is effective if done properly under good weather conditions. The other is to kiln-dry it, a more expensive process, but faster and more controllable. This method is much like placing a piece of meat in the oven and then controlling the cooking with a thermostat or similar scientific device. Sometimes lumber is air or kiln-dried perfectly, only to pick up excessive moisture when it is stored carelessly outdoors during the start of a construction job. Another way in which wood can pick up excessive moisture is when it is stored inside a house while fresh plaster is being applied. As the plaster dries, it gives off moisture which in turn is picked up by the lumber. The basic point to remember is this: lumber will pick up or lose moisture until it reaches a balance with the moisture in the air.

Care For Cooking Utensils

Take as good care of the skillets and other cooking utensils used at your kitchen pots and pans. Over-donating should be relaxed and easy, but it is no reason to let them down on cleanliness.

If you use iron cookware which rusts, for example, be sure to wash each piece thoroughly in hot soapsuds after using. Rinse it well and dry completely with plenty of paper towels. Thorough drying with the absorbent towels will prevent rusting. A rinse occasionally in a hot baking soda solution also retards rusting.

Rotan Beta Sigma Phi Hosts Bridge Meet

The Chi Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi of Rotan is sponsoring a bridge tournament June 24 and June 25 in the VFW Hall of Rotan. Registration will begin at 1 p. m. June 24.

Admission will be $1 per person per session. All bridge players are urged to select a partner and enter the tournament, according to Mrs. Neel Wright, publicity chairman for the event.

How Not To Spill A Pie

If you find it difficult to transfer a custard or pumpkin pie from the kitchen counter to the oven, make the filling in a quart liquid glass measure. Place the unbaked pastry shell in the preheated oven, pulling the shell out part way. Pour the filling into the pie shell, then gently push the shell back in place.

Father Was Bear Hunter

BEARS, BIBLES AND A BOY.
By Jesse David Roberts, Norton.

Most of Roberts' book is about his father Ed, and the old boy is worth writing about. He was a member of a self-reliant generation that combined hard work and sturdy principles in a blend that seldom is seen any more.

Ed and his bride settled in the Brant Lake region of the Adirondacks in 1887. Farming, trapping and some part-time logging were the means of making a living. And Ed became known throughout the countryside as a mighty bear hunter. He killed them not only for their pelts, but also to help the farmers who were losing sheep.

The bear stories are tall and amusing. But along with them are anecdotes about pioneer family life, a succession of hunting dogs and the old man's forthright and liberal interpretation of the Christian faith.

The author's style is a little old-fashioned, and the humor comes from the material rather than the writing, but somehow the flavor of the book is appropriate to the story. Readers who enjoy reliving pioneer life should find this book an agreeable experience.

Freshly-Cut Flowers Will Bring Cheer

Fresh-cut flowers do more to brighten up a sick room than anything else. When you're visiting a sick friend, take along a bouquet from your garden and you'll win a grateful smile and a warm "thank you."

Moisten several paper towels and wrap them around the stems of the flowers. An outer wrapping of dry towels will keep the moisture off your gloves or hands when you carry the flowers.

You can even add a dash of extra color to your summer bouquet by using colored towels. They now are available in aqua, yellow, and pink as well as white.

Los Angeles On Top Rung In NL Chase

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Los Angeles Dodgers are back on top in the National League race, gaining a half-game edge by beating the Chicago Cubs 7-0 Wednesday night. Pittsburgh dropped Cincinnati 5-4, and San Francisco tied the Reds for second place with an 11-2 job on Milwaukee.
 The St. Louis-Philadelphia game was rained out.
 In the American League, it's a three-way tie. Detroit beat Boston 4-2 and moved into a first place tie with Cleveland when the New York Yankees roughed up the Indians 11-5. The third place Yankees are only one game behind. Fourth place Baltimore, eight games back, lost 5-1 to Washington; Kansas City rocketed Minnesota 9-2 and the Chicago White Sox swept a two-night twinge from the Los Angeles Angels 4-1 and 9-3.
 The Dodgers knocked off the Cubs behind the five-hit pitching of Don Drysdale (5-3). It was his first shutout of the season. Backed by four double plays, Drysdale didn't allow a runner past first. He walked but two and struck out seven.
 Drysdale also belted a homer. So did Tommy Davis, who drove in three runs. He brought in one in the first with a sacrifice fly, and the Dodgers then chased loser Don Cardwell (5-3) with three

Austin Mound Ace Chunks No-Hitter

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Amarillo bettered its Texas League lead Wednesday night with a 4-1 victory over Ardmore, but a brilliant no-hit, no-run pitching show by Austin's Larry Maxie drew the spotlight.
 Maxie, a husky 29-year-old, showed that he's one of the league's top hurlers by not giving up a hit and making his season record to 7-0.
 The no-hitter allowed the Austin Senators to blank Victoria 2-0 and nudge the Rosebuds down a notch in the standings to fifth place. They swapped with Tulsa who defeated San Antonio 6-3.
 Second-place San Antonio is now a game and a half behind Amarillo.

ANOTHER STAB AT 49

Snead Sniffing For Open Title

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP)—What witch's brew does Oakland Hills' boiling cauldron hold for Sam Snead, the sentimental favorite in the 61st U.S. Open golf championship which opens today?
 Snead, 49, among an eager field of 150, was making his 21st U.S. Open start in quest of his first triumph in a heartbreak trail of near-misses since his first try 24 years ago, also among the same treacherous Oakland Hills Course.
 Snead has to beat defending champion Arnold Palmer, leading PGA money-winner Gary Player, four-time Open champion Ben Hogan—to mention a few—but most of all he has to whip the Open whammy against himself.

 The irrepressible Snead, at the moment shooting some of the finest golf of his picturesque career, disclaimed any flitters entering the 72-hole medal play event, concluding with a double 18-hole round Saturday.
 Palmer was rated a 5-1 favorite to win. South Africa's Gary Player, who dethroned Palmer at Master's champ was second betting choice at 6-1.
 "You all don't think I'm going to win it," grimed Snead. "I don't think so either. So if things go right, I'll surprise everybody, including myself."
 "I'll take four 71's and go fishing," that meant Snead figured a 284 would take the Open title won last year by Palmer with 280 at Denver's Cherry Hills course. Par for Oakland Hills is 35-35-70, a four-round total of 280.
 Palmer's only pre-battle statement was: "Let's go—at least 10 players can win this and I think 20 will take it."
 Snead has won the last three tournaments he has played—the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions, the Sam Snead Festival and the International Canada Cup. Only once in his last 12 rounds has Slammin' Sammy been over 70.

Clear Sailing To Semifinals

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP)—Ralph Morrow, gangling Oklahoma man with a yen to turn professional, went into the fourth round of the British Amateur Golf Tournament today with his way wide open to the semifinals.
 "Both the seeds in my quarter have been knocked out," said the tall, relaxed Morrow who hit the ball just about as far as anybody in the field.
 "I reckon, with a bit of luck, I can get at least to the semifinals. If I make it, then I'll probably come up against Joe Carr. Then it will be real tough."
 Carr is the 39-year-old Irishman who has won the title three times and is defending the crown this year.
 Morrow, from Oklahoma City, and Henry Timbrook, 40-year-old financier from Los Angeles, are the only American survivors in the last 32. Twenty-six Americans were entered when the championship opened on Monday.
 Four of the eight all-British seeds were left in the last 32. They included Carr, Michael Bonallack and Martin Christmas of England, and Jimmy Walker of Scotland.

The Ice Men Didn't Cometh To Bat ...

 One-sided? Yes, but the ice team didn't get to bat. It ended after the first inning of play.

Mississippi Boys Find Treasure Chest

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—A group of boys playing near the Mississippi River bank retrieved a small chest floating on the water and threw it on to the bank.
 The impact split the box, open and a stream of silver coins spilled out—touching off a stream of treasure-seekers armed with picks and shovels to the spot on banks at Natchez Under the Hill.
 The youngsters sold most of the spilled coins—mostly silver dimes and half-dimes dating from 1845-1860. Collectors could not estimate their total value or collector's worth.

Squads Begin Work

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Practice sessions began today for the two 30-man college football squads which will clash June 23 in the first All-America Bowl game.
 The game is sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association. The collection of stars includes nine of the 11 players on the 1960 Associated Press All-America team.
 Jason Morton is putting in his first season as head coach of the University of Alabama baseball team.

Frogs Off To Philadelphia

FORT WORTH (AP)—Two Texas Christian University athletes headed for the NCAA track meet in Philadelphia Wednesday.
 Representing TCU are Bobby Bernard, high hurdles victor in last week's meet of champions, and Jackie Upton, a top high jumper.
 Bernard scored his victory at Houston with a 14-2 over Don Styron of Southern Illinois and Rex Stucker of Kansas State.
 Upton, co-champion in the Southwest Conference meet, cleared 6 feet 8 inches in the meet of champions to tie for first.

Shark, Barracuda Fishing Outlawed

LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The town council has voted to outlaw fishing for sharks, barracuda or sting rays.
 "The sight of them being caught frightens tourists and makes them believe our waters are infested with dangerous fish," Mayor G. H. Colton said Wednesday.
 Ray Norton, president of the Broward Anglers Club, called the new ordinance "asinine."
 He wondered how anglers could notify the sharks, barracuda and rays not to bite when lines are thrown out.

Kentucky Man Says Fishermen Honest

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A C. Gandy's fishing worms on the honor system.
 He leaves boxes of worms on an outdoor table for the customers to serve themselves day or night and says the money is never short. Sometimes, he adds, it comes out a little extra.
 "I'd just as soon do business with fishermen as anybody," he explained.
 "You can trust every one of them—when it comes to bait."

Appointment Is Confirmed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has confirmed Joseph C. Swidler, a long-time partisan on the side of public power development, to be a member of the Federal Power Commission.
 Republicans raised no opposition Wednesday to Swidler, a lawyer who served in the Tennessee Valley Authority.
 But they served notice that President Kennedy may face a court fight if he tries to oust Republican Jerome K. Kuykendall as FPC chairman and replace him with Swidler.
 The President has indicated Swidler is his choice for the chairmanship, but has not yet said whether he would try to elevate Swidler to the post before Kuykendall's term ends a year from now.
 Confirmation was by voice vote, on which the Senate keeps no record as to how any member voted.

The formal opening will last through Saturday, June 17. During the opening days, store hours will be from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. Beginning Monday, the store will be open from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

The discount store is owned by Raymond Munden of Abilene. Manager for the store is Lester Warlick of Snyder.

Munden owns three stores of this type. The other two are located in Abilene and Sweetwater.

During the three formal opening days, customers are invited to register for a Ladies Elgin Watch, a barbecue grill and a men's Ronson electric razor. Favors will be given to the children during these days.

Prices of nationally advertised products are reduced for sale in the store with the elimination of the "middleman", according to Munden.

The store contains everything of a department store except clothing. Some of the merchandise for sale in the store includes drugs, sporting equipment, houseware, jewelry, toys and luggage.

The Star Discount Store is the only one of its type in Snyder.

The father of six, he says that his most cherished memory is overbearing one of his sons tell a friend. "I've got the greatest dad in the world."

Neutrality Stand Holds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Wednesday reaffirmed a policy of strict impartiality and neutrality in the dispute between the Netherlands and Indonesia over the ownership of West New Guinea.

State Department press officer Lincoln White spelled out the U.S. policy when asked to comment on a statement by Foreign Minister Subandrio of Indonesia that U.S. official circles would have no objection to seeing the sovereignty of West New Guinea transferred from the Dutch to Indonesia.

"U.S. policy toward resolution of the West New Guinea dispute has been to urge both sides impartially to resolve the matter peacefully," White said.

"We would have no objection to any solution acceptable to both Indonesia and the Netherlands government."

TEXAS IN THE CIVIL WAR

Invasion Try Fails

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

The North's last attempt to invade Texas in force came in April 1864 when badly outnumbered Confederates, largely Texans, turned back the Union forces only a few miles short of the Texas border.

This was the Battle of Mansfield or Sabine Crossroads in which Maj. Gen. Richard Taylor—the son of Gen. Zachary Taylor, a former U.S. president—distinguished himself.

Taylor picked the site for the battle, 20 miles east of the Texas border. He had 12,000 men in all, but only 8,000 at the battle site. His initial force included 3,000 infantrymen, 3,000 horsemen and 500 artillerymen. He was joined by 4,000 fresh infantrymen the second day.

Arrayed against this force was a Union army of 40,000 commanded by Gen. Nathaniel Banks, U.S. departmental commander from New Orleans, a former governor of Massachusetts.

Banks had an army of 25,000 advancing in a 20-mile wide column against Taylor. This huge force was supported by six Union gunboats or frigates and 20 transports in the Red River. Behind, 15,000 Union reserves awaited orders to advance.

When his scouts told him of the great Northern army bearing down on him, Taylor decided to retreat from a position near Pleasant Hill, La., to the final battle site. He left Brig. Gen. Thomas Green's brigade of Texas Cavalrymen, armed with shotguns, bowie knives and swords, to fight a rearguard action. Taylor was a great admirer of Green, boy hero of San Jacinto and later the hero of the Sibley Expedition at Valverde, N.M.

Other veterans of the Sibley Expedition also were at Mansfield—four fancy brass cannon brought back from Santa Fe by a young lieutenant—Joseph Saylor—who later was governor of Texas, and Col. William Redi (Dirty Shirt Bill) Scurry, also a veteran of San Jacinto.

"I enjoyed watching his method of managing his wild horsemen," Taylor wrote later. He said that "after some severe work" Green's Texans, shoguns blazing, arrested the progress of a superior force of enemy horsemen.

"I left Green and rode to Mansfield," Taylor said, "as he covered both roads."

The spot Taylor picked for the initial battle at Mansfield was a large open clearing. He and a group of soldiers rode onto this field with some Federal elements in hot pursuit.

Just as Taylor's horse was shot under him, the Federals were caught in an inflame from every side of the field as Rebel infantrymen loaded and reloaded their Texas rifles and Enfields.

The Yankees were repulsed with heavy losses in this first skirmish and showed little disposition to continue the fight as Taylor and his men waited.

Finally, the restless Taylor having heard of the large force held in reserve by Banks, ordered an advance.

The Federals were ready. The battle raged furiously as the Tex-

FIGHTING GOVERNOR—Shot from his horse in a charge on a strong Union position near Pleasant Hill, La., Col. Edward Clark, Texas' first secessionist governor urged his horse soldiers forward. Clark, called "contemptible, spry and pert" by the deposed Sam Houston when Clark succeeded the "Raven" as governor, covered himself with glory in this action, a part of the Battle of Mansfield. (Sketch by Dmitri Vovl For The Associated Press)

an-packed Confederates moved forward.

Gen. Alfred Mouton's Louisiana Brigade, containing several hundred Texans, took the brunt of the losses as Taylor's steady but costly advance continued. Mouton was killed and a French general, Prince Camille de Polignac, took command.

Banks, perplexed at the Southern advance in face of the heaviest Union fire, called up 3,000 reserves.

The Texans and their neighbors just kept moving forward despite losses.

By sundown the Southerners had advanced 4 miles beyond the original battlefield, had killed more than 1,000 Federal troops and taken 2,500 prisoners, and captured 20 pieces of badly needed artillery, thousands of small arms and 50 supply wagons.

Eight thousand Yankees were in full flight and the fresh division of 5,000 men were falling back too, but more slowly.

About this time, Gen. Edmund Kirby Smith sent a messenger from Shreveport to tell Taylor not to meet a superior Union force in general engagement. Taylor swore loudly and sent back a message that the battle already was fought and won.

Banks' retreat continued during the night and his forces fell back 15 miles to near Pleasant Hill. And 4,000 fresh Confederates joined Taylor the next day, April 9, but now it was Banks' turn for glory. His brilliant regrouping of his Union troops turned back the Confederates, but even so the Union losses continued heavy.

"The reason the fire was so fatal," the veteran explained, "was that our men were armed with old muskets loaded with buck-and-ball cartridges (one ball and 10 buckshot)." Clark lost three men killed and 10 wounded.

In the overall fight, Banks stopped the Confederates although he decided it would be too costly to push into Texas without continued support of his Red River gunboats, which were affording much of his force excellent covering fire.

The Union commander steered his army under the muzzles of the gunboats and continued his retreat back to New Orleans, the last invasion threat of Texas ended.

Mishap Fatal To Little Leaguer

COCOA, Fla., AP—A Little League baseball player died after being struck in the neck by a pitched ball.

The accident occurred in the third inning of a game Wednesday night while Burnt Pines, 12, was catching for the Moose Lodge team. The ball bounced off home plate and hit him in the neck between the chest protector and face mask.

The boy fell to the pitcher, then collapsed. Artificial respiration failed to revive him.

A doctor reported the ball apparently ruptured a large artery.

California To Speed Up Ballot Counting

SACRAMENTO, Calif., AP—California has a new election law designed to eliminate slow ballot counting such as kept the outcome of the last presidential race in this state uncertain for days.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown signed legislation Wednesday which requires absentee ballots to be returned to county clerks three days before election. Under the old law, these ballots could be returned up to six days after election.

Brown said slow counting of absentee ballots would have been serious if the nation were in a crisis.

Meet Slated For Board Of CRMWD

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District have been convened for a meeting in Big Spring on June 22, according to an announcement from Charles Perry, Odessa, president.

Topping what promises to be a busy session is a contract between Standard Oil of Texas and the district for use of surplus waters in oilfield repressuring. Sinclair Oil Company also is involved in the use of water for the Iatan-East Howard oil pool.

Directors also will go over tentative plans for a new headquarters building in Big Spring and may decide on authorization of a draft of final plans. E. V. Spence, general manager, has several progress reports to make on various projects, including efforts to overcome salt water pollution of the upper Colorado River. He also will report on contacts with the U. S. Geological Survey concerning additional topographic mapping which may be required in the district's study for a second lake on the Colorado River.

Six members of the board are due to begin new two-year terms on the board. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a. m. in the Settles Hotel.

Wheat Program Is Opposed By AFBF

WASHINGTON, AP—The American Farm Bureau Federation today opposed the Kennedy Administration's wheat program for 1962.

The Farm Bureau said the program would have little effect in halting costly overproduction of wheat.

The bill, laid before Congress Wednesday, would require a 10 per cent reduction in wheat planting allotments and would offer payment on retired land and high wheat support to cooperative growers.

Find Ship's Officer Slain

LOS ANGELES, AP—Crewmen missed the staff captain of the luxury liner Matsona as it headed to sea, bound for Honolulu. They checked his cabin and found Capt. Vernon Johnson, 47, shot to death.

The Matsonia returned to Los Angeles harbor Wednesday. Police, called by Coast Guard officials, said Johnson had apparently taken his own life.

Johnson's body was returned by carrier taxi and the Matsonia carrying 471 vacation-bound passengers, resumed its voyage.

Johnson's position on the Matsonia compares to that of a Navy ship's executive officer and had been a Matson lines officer since 1941.

Matson officials said they knew of no motive for the officer's death. No notes were found.

TO BE FOREWARNED---

Logic Of Benjamin Franklin Apparent In Eden Proposal

BY INEZ ROBB
Among the Founding Fathers, Benjamin Franklin was the embodiment of wit and hard-core wisdom. His maxims are so embedded in the national fabric that we Americans quote him daily, often without realizing the source of the borrowed sagacity.
But he never said anything more profound, either for his time or four ours, than his words to John Hancock at the signing of the Declaration of Independence, to wit:
" We must indeed all hang together, or, most assuredly, we shall all hang separately. I don't know whether Sir Anthony Eden is a student of Benjamin Franklin, but the essence of Ben's wisdom is in Eden's proposal for "a political general staff or its equivalent" to unite the Western allies--indeed, the Western world--in meeting the moonlithe political structure of communism.
Sir Anthony went on to say that such a political general staff could enable the West to cease reacting to events and start to shape them. Amen! Since World War II, the West has done little but to react to Soviet policy wherever it has chosen to stir up trouble around the world.
" We are still reacting, in this eleventh hour, to Laos, which drew the Communist drain, to Cuba and to the Congo. And God help us, we are now "planning" on how to react to a new Berlin crisis, which is inevitable, even though it has seemingly been postponed for another six months.
Eden proposes that the West begin to act in concert to save its own hide with a policy that will, for once, force communism to react to free men.
Before the anti-One Worlders begin to rush into action, Eden's proposal is no more a One-World proposition than is NATO. We have in NATO a model for a political general staff.

Khrushchev in his meeting with President Kennedy in Vienna made

Germaneness Rule Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Sen Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., told his colleagues Wednesday afternoon's session provided a perfect example of why the Senate should adopt a germaneness rule.
Such a rule would require that senators, in their speeches, stick to the business at hand. Under present rules, they may discuss anything.
The Pennsylvanian noted that the nomination of Joseph C. Swidler to the Federal Power Commission was taken up at 12:30 p.m., but that at 3:35 p.m. not one word had been said on it. Numerous speeches had been made on other subjects.
" But I believe in following the Senate rules we have," Clark went on, "and so I now aim about to make a one-half hour non-germanese speech.
" I hope it may exasperate my colleagues so much they will support my rule to require germanese in the Senate."
P.S.: Clark's speech with interruptions took 36 minutes.
An important new function of air conditioning is cooling the many tubes in electronic brains, which do not operate properly if overheated.

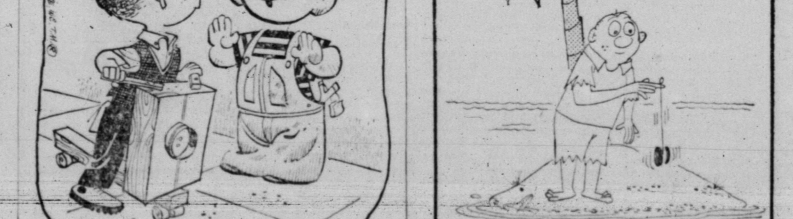

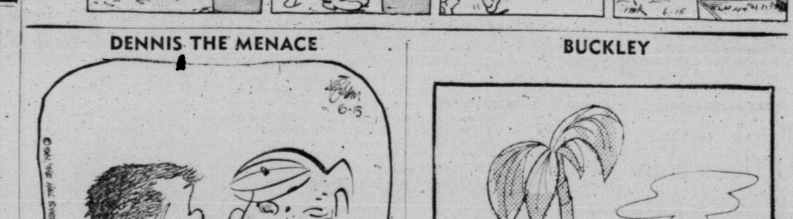

no effort to conceal his confidence that communism can and will win the world without a shot being fired. And why should he conceal this certainty of his when, once by one, communism has been picking off nations and territory since World War II?
Nothing could be more in Khrushchev's and communism's favor than the underlying lack of unity in the West, especially with our two great European allies, the Gaullie, and he is a very great man, is too obsessed with "la gloire" of France to bend his neck to save it from the nose and England is in great danger of hitherto treading the path not only to pacifism but to neutralism in the great struggle.
There are pessimists who believe that the West does not have either the will or the urge to save itself, that its preoccupation with piecemeal solutions will result in its piecemeal destruction.
At Paris's magnificent City Hall reception, President Kennedy made an eloquent address denying the validity of Oswald Spengler's major work, "The Decline of the West."
But the truth is that the West, if it is to survive, must show more energy, more decision and more unity. The nations of the West can no longer afford to ride off in all directions, unless they are content to hang separately. The West will never start "shaping events" instead of "reacting" to them until it can unite on a political program to counter communism.
" Sy Anthony has an idea as old as time: "In union there is strength."

Leaving Business To Become Minister

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) -- Eleven years ago Jim Saxon's vending machine firm did $600,000 in business. Now it is a $3 million enterprise.
But Saxon, 31, is leaving the concern July 20 to begin three years study to become a Presbyterian minister. He will enroll at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va. His wife and six children will accompany him.
Jim's father, J. Herman Saxon, sells vending machines. Jim's firm, which operates and stocks the machines, will be taken over by his father.
" The younger Saxon said he had been seriously considering the move for three years. " It got so I couldn't dismiss it anymore," he said.

Actress From Ireland Has Some Advice

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) -- Ireland's leading actress suggested today U.S. wives would enjoy life more if they spent more time spoiling their husbands instead of nagging them--or competing with them.
" The Irish woman takes it for granted that it's a man's world," said Siobhan McKenna, who has red hair, green eyes--and a serene temper.
" When I married, my grandmother told me, " Marriage is a partnership. As in all partnerships, sometimes one must give in--and it might as well be the woman."
" Irish women do--and I think they're the happier for it. Ireland has one of the world's lowest divorce rates, and Miss McKenna believes one reason is the people there have a more realistic idea about the role of the sexes.
" They set out with the idea that men and women are incompatible," she said, " but through love and affection they accept this incompatibility and make the best of it.
" So the first time they disagree, they don't rush off to a divorce court. They accept the fact they are different. They expect to disagree.
" What is the biggest mistake U.S. wives make?
" It's their not accepting a man as he is," said Siobhan firmly.
" That is a mistake.
" You can't really change people, and you shouldn't really want to. Advice is one thing. But nagging merely drives a man to be more what he is.
" Sometimes, too, women here are too ambitious for their husbands. They drive them to work too hard. Then, when they've made all this money, it's too late for love.
" Mind you, I think Irish husbands might work a little harder. But they work to live, not live to work."
Miss McKenna is married to actor Dennis O'Dea and has a 12-year-old son. Although she has an outside career herself, she feels " the best life for a woman really" is one in which she concentrates on her marriage and home.
Miss McKenna recently completed the role of the Virgin Mary in MGM's $10-million-plus film " King of Kings." She is excited now over the prospect of starring in " Playboy of the Western World," the first movie in many years to be made in Ireland with an Irish cast and financed by Irish capital.

Junior Editors Quiz on GEOGRAPHY

QUESTION: How much "tundra" is there in the world?

ANSWER: "Tundra" refers to the rolling, swampy plains which lie within or close to the Arctic Regions. These areas are shaded gray in our map. A tundra swamp is one of the most desolate places on earth. The ground is permanently frozen, only a foot or so thawing out on top in the brief Arctic summer. Trees cannot exist there; a few stunted shrubs and willows fight for existence in sheltered places. Surprisingly, the gloomy tundra has a short period of glory when small but showy flowers suddenly bloom in late summer. Animals include reindeer, Lemmings, foxes, wolves, hawks and in the Canadian area, a few of the fast vanishing musk oxen. Many shore birds migrate north to nest in the tundra, for there is an abundance of minute insects and crustaceans for them to feed upon. In Russia, there are a few small towns on the sea coast, but most of the tundra is uninhabited by man.

FOR YOU TO DO: Take a close look at the nearest swamp. For all its desolate look, there are many interesting animals living in it—insects, birds, muskrats. Such a study will give you more knowledge about the fascinating world you live in.

Jim Clark of Fulton, N. Y., wins $10 for this question. Write yours on a post card to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.

San Antonio Man Finally Coaxed Down

By JOE BENHAM
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A young service station attendant perched atop a building cooling tower for 4 1/2 hours Wednesday before deciding not to jump 23 stories.

Joe Smith, 21, moose over his wife's divorce plans, threatened repeatedly to dive from the Alamo National Bank Building.

Thousands watched from the street and over television as an Army chaplain, Capt. Carl Holden, climbed the tower and talked Smith into coming down. The crowd yelled as he descended.

"He made me realize what I had to live for," Smith said. "Mostly bringing up my daughter properly." She is 20-month-old Wray.

Taken to a cafe, Smith drank a glass of milk, gazed at his wife and said, "Hell, I'm not crazy."

Smith was given a psychiatric examination at Brooke General Hospital and released. He left with Holden, who persuaded police not to file charges.

Smith said in an interview he decided to jump after his wife, Linda, left him a note—the day after their third anniversary—saying she wanted a divorce.

"I felt empty and very lonely," he said.

Smith said the crowd, estimated by police at 15,000, figured in his decision not to jump.

"I really enjoyed this," he said, "because it made me feel that someone down there cared for me. When they—they looked like a bunch of ants working—jumping, I couldn't keep my mind on jumping. I am ready to face reality, even though the separation is inevitable."

See Smith said "I don't want to see him die" but that she no longer loved her husband. She said she agreed to let him have the daughter.

The Spanish imported Negroes from Africa into Cuba until 1886.

No Plans To Reduce Staff At Geneva

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Wednesday that there are no immediate plans to reduce the U.S. negotiating staff at the Geneva test ban talks.

Department spokesman Lincoln White was questioned about a New York Herald Tribune report that the Kennedy administration is now considering such a step.

White also said he did not know of any plans to recall Arthur Dean, chief U.S. negotiator at the Geneva conference.

Choices Are Few In Berlin Issue

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Lenient, legal or lethal.

Those are the choices for the West and Russia in settling their Berlin argument. The city will be steadily in the news, more although no crisis is expected soon.

President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev chafed each other's blood when they discussed West Berlin earlier this month. Each warned the other he meant business.

This city—whose ties are with West Germany—lies 110 miles inside Communist East Germany, which the West does not recognize as a legitimate government.

All supplies and people bound for West Berlin must pass through East Germany, which is under the Russian thumb. That's the main Russian weapon in this dispute.

Highly prosperous West Berlin—unlike the much less affluent East Berlin, which the Communists run—has become a pain to Russia.

It's a Western showcase, a Western outpost in the heart of a Communist land. And Khrushchev says it's used to create trouble.

It's also a harbor for Germans fleeing communism in East Germany.

Stalin tried to put an end to all this in 1948 by shutting off Western supplies to the city. President Truman wrecked that move with an airlift.

The West—meaning the United States, Britain and France—has troops in West Berlin and make this argument based on agreements with Russia growing out of World War II.

It has a right to keep troops there and the land-water-rail-air routes—over which people and supplies for West Berlin travel through East Germany—must be kept open.

This is the West's legal argument. As of now it is standing on that.
