Flomot Man Killed, Three Hurt In Crash

(Special To The Avalanche)

LOCKNEY, Sept. 28. — One man was killed almost instantly, and three other persons were injured, when a car crashed into a pickup truck about 2:15 p.m. today at the intersection of two county roads a mile east and four miles north of here, investigating highway patrolmen from Plainview said.

Dead was Norman R. Martin, 34, of Flomot, driver of the pickup. A cousin, Wade Martin, 50, also of Flomot, who was a passenger in the truck, received four broken ribs in the collision, and was in the Lockney Co-Op hospital tonight.

Lockney Youths Hurt

Ira W. Graves, 18, of Lockney, driver of the passenger car, was treated at the hospital for a cut on the leg which required sutures, and was released. His 16-year-old brother, Winifred Graves, also of Lockney, was not seriously injured, but was receiving x-ray examination for a possible fractured rib.

The pickup truck was going east and the car south, both toward the intersection. Graves, driver of the car, told highway patrolmen that he had just passed a parked car and trailer, and looked back to see if it were needing assistance. When he turned to the front again, he said his car was already within the intersection, where it struck the left side of the truck a few moments later.

Services Not Set

Deputy Sheriff Earl Cooper of Lockney was assisting the Texas Highway patrol in the investigation.

Carter Funeral home here, where Martin's body was taken after the collision, said that funeral arrangements were pending, but that services would be held in the Methodist church at Matador, with interment at Matador under direction of McDonald Funeral home.

Survivors include Martin's wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Martin, Flomot; three brothers, Lewis and J. C. Martin of Lubbock, and Quinn Martin, Matador; and two sisters, Mrs. Madelle Woods of Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Katherine Russell, Flomot.

The death of Martin brought the number of traffic fatalities in the South Plains area to 23 in the past 31 days.

Truman, Dewey Bearing Down

(By The Associated Press)

President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed their presidential campaign specials Tuesday into two of the critical states in the struggle for control of the senate—Oklahoma and Montana.

The Democratic nominee took a hand in an Oklahoma senatorial contest. Talking to a trainside crowd at Marietta in Oklahoma's heavily Democratic "Little Dixie," Mr. Truman said:

"I want you to send Bob Kerr to the Senate to take old man Moore's place. He never was any good, anyway."

Kerr is the Democratic candidate running to succeed Sen. Ed Moore, Republican who is stepping aside. His party has nominated Ross Rizley, now a House member.

Plans Stay In Oklahoma

The GOP presidential candidate scheduled a night address in Missoula, Mont. Here the Republicans are trying to unseat Sen. James E. Murray. His opponent is Tom J. Davis, a Butte fellow townsman.

Both parties have much at stake in the senatorial campaign. A loss of four seats in the Senate would cost the Republicans control.

The outspoken President listed a heavy speaking schedule in Oklahoma. He planned one of his longest stays of the present western swing in Oklahoma City 15½ hours.

He stood on the platform at Marietta with a background of

Three Men Burn To Death When Superfort Crashes In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 28. (INS)—Air Force officials announced tonight that three men were burned to death and 10 were saved when a B-29 crashed approaching Shemya Air field.

The officials withheld the names of the men who were killed and any word on condition of the survivors.

Officials said the motors conked out at a low altitude as the Superfort came in for a landing yesterday. The plane stalled and crashed near the runway, and the three men were trapped.

The plane had been on a weather flight from Ladd Field, Fairbanks.

IT'S "CIRCUS DAY AT THE FAIR!—Billed as "the world's greatest show," the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey big top comes to Lubbock and the Panhandle-South Plains fair today. Headline attraction at the fair, the circus will be presented in two performances at 2:15 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. Huge elephants, clowns, like those shown above, and an assortment of some of the most fascinating human and animal acts in the world today make up the extravaganza, which is expected to attract near-record crowds.

Lubbock School Children To Be Honored Today

It's 'Circus Day!' Big Crowds Expected To Jam Fairgrounds

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

THE BIGGEST single attraction ever presented at a fair in Lubbock, or anywhere else in the Southwest, offered the strong possibility of broken attendance records for the Panhandle-South Plains fair today.

The attraction is, of course, the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus. For one of the very few times in its history, this "biggest top" of all will be set up within a fairgrounds—the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds—for afternoon and night performances.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Circus day; Lubbock Children's day; Slaton, Southland, Post, Tahoka, Lamesa, Brownfield, O'Donnell, Plains, Seagraves, Seminole, Gail, Ropesville, Wilson, Meadow and Denver City day.

8:30 a. m.—Gates and exhibit buildings open.

9 p. m.—Judging of Jersey and Holstein cattle and Hampshire and Spotted Poland China swine.

10 a. m. until midnight—Forsythe and Dowis carnival midway in operation.

Noon until 1:30 p. m.—Final "Queen For A Day" broadcasts at the grandstand.

1 and 7 p. m.—Doors open to Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus.

2:15 and 8:15 p. m.—Circus performances begin.

8:30 and 11 p. m.—Seldon stratosphere act on the Midway.

Advance sales indicate overflow audiences for both showings—a total of some 20,000 to 25,000 spectators.

Record May Be Set

However, the setting of a one-day attendance record for the fair will not be easy. On children's day on Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1938, the official attendance count was reported at 45,737. Since that time, two Children's days have been provided. They are on Thursday and Friday this year.

But the possibility that a new record might be set is strengthened by the fact that this is Lubbock School day. Heretofore local school day has been a part of Lubbock Day, which was observed Tuesday.

Schools remained in session Tuesday, but they will be at recess today. The students who will be admitted to the grounds upon the payment of the federal amusement tax—5 cents for children under 12 and 10 cents for those over that age—insure a thronged fairgrounds, even while the circus performances are in progress.

Expectation is that the crowd will be an early one. If enough people appear who want into the grounds to watch the erection of the circus tops, the fairgrounds gates will be opened. Operators of the Forsythe & Dowis carnival said the midway will be ready to swing into operation whenever the crowd justifies. Expectation is this

UNLOADING TO BEGIN AT DAWN

Two Circus Performances To Be Highlight At Fairgrounds Today

THE first of the four long railroad trains of the Ringing Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus was due with the dawn in the Fort Worth & Denver yards today, coming from Childress.

A short time later, the unloading of the "big show" will start on the Santa Fe tracks near Economy Mills just south and east of the Broadway underpass.

It's Circus Day at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, and the flying Squadron, first in, with the cookhouse and the menagerie on its silver enameled, double-length flats, stocks and sleepers, was to be spotted and split on the railway ossing for swift unloading before Tommy Dix, the 24-hour man, finished waking the boxxes and scores of workingmen in their herths. Soon, long strings of dining department and menagerie tent wagons, cages and motors are scheduled to roll off the trains and join in picturesque cavalcades for the final haul to the show lot at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds where performances will be given at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. with doors open at 1 and 7 p. m.

Four Trains Scheduled

The first train was scheduled to arrive at 4:30 a. m. this morning, others at 6 a. m., 7 a. m. and 8 a. m. Immediately after arrival,

PRICE SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Schedule of prices for Circus Day at the fair today have been announced as follows:

City school children will be admitted to the fairgrounds, not to the circus, upon payment of the federal amusement tax of five cents for those under 12, and 10 cents for those over that age.

Adult admissions to the fairgrounds, not the circus, will be 35 cents, including tax, instead of the usual 60 cents.

Circus ticket prices are as follows: Children, general admission, 80 cents, plus state and federal taxes; Adults, general admission, $1.50, plus state and federal taxes; Reserved seats, an additional $1.20 (not including tax.)

Admission to the fairgrounds is necessary to see the circus, but the same low prices prevail to the fairgrounds today whether the person plans to see the circus or not.

the trains were to be shoved onto the Santa Fe tracks for unloading.

The big show features a revolution—a revolution in circus logistics. It's the traveling circus bowl under canvas, the new, steel port-

Woman Pilot, Young Son Are Missing In Canadian Storm

FORT NELSON, B. C., Sept. 28. (INS)—A plane carrying a woman pilot and her 12-year-old son from Alaska to the United States is missing tonight in a snowstorm which keeps search planes on the ground.

The plane was due at Fort Nelson, an outpost in the wilds of northern British Columbia, last night from Watson lake, Yukon. Aboard are a Mrs. Lintner of Anchorage, Alaska, and the boy, who was on his way to school in the United States.

The plane was last reported at 5 p. m. yesterday near the British Columbia-Yukon border, about 100 miles north of Fort Nelson. A blinding snowstorm which began at 9 o'clock last night and still continues may hide the plane altogether.

Attack On Red Policy Rocks UN Assembly

(By International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 28—Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak rocked the UN asembly tonight by bluntly describing Russia as a czarist wolf in Communist clothing.

Spaak poked a finger at the scowling Soviet delegation in Paris, described Communist conquests from the Baltic to the Black seas, and said:

"Your policy is more audacious than that of the czars.

"In every country you maintain a fifth column compared to which the Hitlerite organization was nothing but Boy Scouts."

It was the most damning speech against the Russians ever delivered by a key European leader from a UN rostrum.

Marshall Congratulates Spaak

It broke the usual calm of Secretary of State Marshall. He jumped up and shook hands with the squat bespectacled Spaak. So did other western leaders.

The speech along with a calm but firm one by French Foreign Minister Schuman was a prelude to these two important developments in the East-West "cold war":

1. The Anglo-American-French note to the Security Council aimed at branding Russia threat to peace because of her blockade of Berlin is finished and probably will be delivered late tomorrow.

2. The five Brussels pact nations—Britain, France, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Neterlands—announced agreement on common defense policies and the creation of a permanent military board to study "problems relating to the defense of western Europe."

Reds Said Conquerors

Spaak drew heavy applause when he said the western nations are combining and rearming because of alleged Soviet territorial appetite.

"We fear your government and your policy," he said sternly, "not because we are cowards but because we are looking ahead to a future tragedy that may face us.

"You conquered the Baltic (states), Poland, and others. Your policy is unready to quit Berlin and Vienna.

"It wants the Ruhr.

"We feel you on the banks of the Rhine—that is why there is fear."

The Belgian president of the important assembly political committee spoke extemporaneously in a fiery address that surprised but pleased the major western leaders who are always being called "warmongers" by Soviet leaders.

Fifth Column Hit

Spaak declared the sprawling and devious Communist fifth column was "at the roo tof all war," umn was "at the root of all fear." and added:

"No matter where in the world one looks there is this column attempting to weaken and subvert the common effort at reconstruction."

Spaak praised the Marshall aid plan so bitterly fought by Russia and said Communism may be all right for some lands but not in the west. He added:

"We do not propose to submit oursevles to any totalitarian doctrine. We want a state which serves the human being, and not a human being who has to serve the state."

Only Russia's second string delegates were present because

Spy Probers Claim Proof Witness Lied

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (INS)—House spy probers said today that a "forgotten" letter now in their possession proves that a New Yorker called in the atomic espionage inquiry is guilty of perjury.

Chairman Thomas (R-N. J.), of the House Un-American Activities committee announced he was turning over all the facts to the Justice department and requesting that the unnamed witness be indicted for lying under oath.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for Attorney General Clark disclosed that the Justice department was studying the committee's report which yesterday asked the prosecution of four Americans for atomic espionage.

Clark's spokesman indicated that the Justice department would have no comment until it completes the study. The report accused two atomic scientists, John Hitchcock Chapin and Clarence Francis Hiskey, and Marcia Sand. Hiskey's former wife, of conspiring to give Russia atomic bomb secrets during the war.

Dry Forces Lose Battle To Ban Liquor In Lea County

HOBBS, N. M., Sept. 28 (AP) — Dry forces who sought to have the sale of liquor outlawed in Lea county were defeated in a special election today.

The unofficial votes with all but two small precincts reported was 3,927 to retain legal sale and 2,451 against.

Lea county is in the southeast part of New Mexico and is the center of much of the state's oil activity.

The vote was described as the heaviest of any election ever held in the county and was particularly large in Hobbs. Here the count was 2,329 for and 1,043 against.

Supreme Court's Backing Is Given Johnson's Stand

Injunction By Coke Nullified

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Justice Hugo Black of the Supreme court ruled in effect today that the name of Rep. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) should be on the Texas ballot as Democratic nominee for U. S. senator.

The justice stayed a temporary injunction which had been issued in Texas keeping Johnson's name off the November ticket.

Black acted after a four-hour hearing in which he heard counsel for Johnson and his run-off primary opponent, Coke Stevenson, former Texas governor.

The justice specified that his stay would remain in effect until the full supreme court has had an opportunity to consider the dispute between Johnson and Stevenson.

May Act Oct. 4

The court holds its meeting on Oct 4. Black did not indicate whether the full court would consider the matter, but said if it did it might act on Oct. 4. The election takes place next November.

Black's action apparently opens the way for Johnson to get his name on the ballot. Stevenson got the injunction after the state Democratic convention found Johnson the winner by 87 votes out of about 1,000,000 counted.

Explaining his views at the end of the hearing, the justice stated:

"It's the universal rule in the United States that before a court interferes with an election there must be a statute clearly authorizing it.

Stay Is Granted

"It would be a drastic break with the past to permit a federal judge and the federal courts to go into the business of conducting a contest over elections held in a state.

"I think it's impossible to interpret present statutes that federal courts may go into a state and suspend its process of electing a senator or governor.

"There is no statutory justification of a federal court enjoining the steps of an election. I'm going to grant a stay until the full supreme court has an oppor-

1949 Cotton Crop Is Uncontrolled

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said today that farmers will be permitted to produce cotton free of government crop control again next year.

This year's big crop had boosted supplies to such a level there was some question whether it would be necessary to invoke control to restrict production in 1949.

The Agricultural Adjustment act of 1938 requires the secretary to proclaim marketing quotas when supplies surpass the so-called normal supply by more than seven per cent.

Total Near Top Level

In a formal announcement issued by the department, Brannan said this season's supply totals 19,164,000 running bales. The normal supply was put at 18,200,000. If the total had been 310,000 bales more, controls would have been required on the 1949 crop.

Under the control program, the department tells each grower how much cotton he may sell. Excess sales are subject to a stiff penalty tax. Controls, however, must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting at a referendum.

Cotton production has been free of federal controls since before the war.

Crickets In Texas Head For City As Fall Winds Blow

(By The Associated Press)

A cricket brings good luck to a household, according to a Greek legend.

If this be true, there was an awful lot of good luck fluttering around Texas Tuesday night.

Millions of black field crickets have attacked Texas towns and cities in suicide squadrons every night this week as soon as the lights go on.

Cool Weather Blamed

They hop on their powerful legs and flutter on their degenerate wings and bash their brittle heads against light bulbs. Then they die by the thousands. And you have to walk on their crackling bodies.

Why does the country Jake cricket get an overpowering urge for bright lights about this time every year? Has it been the mild early autumn cool spell?

The cool weather is one reason, said entomologist Charles A. King of Texas A. & M. Tuesday—but there are more reasons.

The black field cricket has spent the summer feeding and making chirpy music.

Crickets Get Warning

The male cricket literally fiddles. He elevates his wings above his back like two broad fans, and then moves them so that a sort of file at the base of the right wing rubs against a scraper on the base of the left wing. The resulting sound effects, called stridulating, are a series of raspings, like someone slowly snapping the teeth of a stiff comb.

Cricket music is not too popular in this country. But in Italy and in North Africa crickets are kept in cages so that folks can hear their fiddling.

When the first cold snap comes to the fields of Texas, the black crickets get a sort of warning, according to Jones.

The warning is: "It's later than you think!"

Between the first cool weather and the first freeze the crickets have to mate, lay eggs and get ready to die. Freezing weather kills almost all of them.

But every female lays some 300 tiny, banana-shaped eggs in the ground. These eggs lie

Probe Of Texas Vote Continued

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALICE, Sept. 28 — A supreme Court justice ruled in effect today that Lyndon Johnson's name could go on the Texas ballot as Democratic nominee.

But his ruling only set off more sparks in the flaming contest.

The secretary of state's office refused to put Johnson's name on the ballot.

Johnson sought, through the state supreme court, to put himself on the ballot.

Goes To State Court

These were today's top developments in the election contest between Johnson, U. S. representative, and his opponent for the senatorial nomination, former Gov. Coke Stevenson:

1. In Washington, U. S. Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black stayed a temporary injunction issued by Federal District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson. The Davidson injunction kept Johnson's name off the ballot. Justice Black said his stay would remain in effect until the full Supreme Court can consider the dispute.

2. Texas' assistant secretary of state Kirk Mallory said he would do nothing about putting Johnson's name on the November general election ballot until the U. S. Supreme court officially told him to do so. Johnson took the matter to the Texas Supreme court.

Ballots Are Mailed

3. Sample ballots with space for the Democratic nominee for senator left blank, were mailed to county judges today by the secretary of state.

4. Johnson's attorneys tonight petitioned the Texas Supreme court for a mandamus forcing the Secretary of State to put Johnson's name on the ballot. No action by the court was expected until tomorrow.

5. Two commissioners, appointed to investigate charges of vote fraud in three South Texas counties which could change the name of the nominee, decided to continue their probe despite Black's decision.

6. Stevenson said at Alice that "we'll figure out something, of course. I'm not going to let anyone steal anything from me as long as there is any remedy any-

Board Names 14 New Teachers

Appointments of fourteen teachers and other personnel in Lubbock Independent school district, an additional school nurse, and retirement of a teacher employed here since 1922 were approved by the board of education at a regular meeting in the school business office, 1007 Texas avenue, Tuesday night.

The board turned down a request by a number of parents of high school band members and others to send the organization to the Lubbock Westerners-Austin Maroons football game at Austin this weekend, but approved purchase of new band instruments.

The instruments will be used as replacements in the Senior high school band, for use in the O. L. Slaton and J. T. Hutchinson junior high schools, and in some elementary school bands.

Appointments Approved

The board faced with a shortage in band funds, chose the instruments as being of greater value to the school system as a whole than the trip to Austin, it was explained.

Retirement of Mrs. Ella R. Iles, negro teacher in Dunbar school, and an employe of the school system since 1922, was approved effective Sept. 30.

Appointments included: Mrs. Ruby G. Williams, Mrs. Lillian B. Davis, Mrs. Ruth L. Norton, and Mrs. Jo Anne Hunt, for McWhorter school; Mrs. Mildred K. Rogers, and Mrs. Jessie A. Skinner, East Broadway school; Mrs. Faye Woods and Mrs. Fay Westmore-

U. S.-Russian Talks On Lend-Lease Urged

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—The United States has called upon Russia in a new note to resume negotiations for settling its long overdue lend-lease account of $11,000,000,000.

Officials disclosed tonight that the State department had sent the note about two weeks ago to Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin.

The department kept all news of the action secret, they said, for fear of upsetting the delicate discussions with Russian officials on the Berlin blockade.

Top American officials felt Moscow might mistake a public announcement of the lend-lease note as an American maneuver to embarass the Russians at a critical stage in diplomatic negotiations.

Now that these talks with Moscow have collapsed, these officials revealed that the State department has:

1. Expressed willingness to talk over the latest Soviet counter proposal on lend-lease as a means of hastening agreement.

2. Suggested the two sides get together for their first face-to-face meeting on the subject since last March when negotiations were suspended.

First Little World Army Fades With Slaying Of UN Mediator

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Heard, read or seen:

"America," the Catholic review, takes up the touchy matter of protecting the lives of UN officials in its current and choice issue. And it reports that most members of the first little world army—so-called—have re-embraced the countries of their origin.

Last June 20 Trygve Lie, secretary general of UN, dispatched 28 uniformed men of assorted nationalities to Palestine. "You have one command, the United Nations and its mediator," he told them in a farewell speech.

They were given unloaded Smith and Wesson revolvers to be filled if Count Bernadotte felt there was a need. They were to guard his headquarters and patrol the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road.

What happened to them remains a UN secret. "America" says that they have been wandering back in the manner of the survivors of the children's crusade. Whether any were on hand at the shooting of the mediator remains unknown. Those who have returned, and talked, complain of abandonment and the scarcity of food. And a world security force, as envisioned by the UN charter, seems farther away then ever.

"Sure," the guy said. "You should open your mouth in Russia?"

Antarctic Film Shown In Sub

MGM has spliced together and sound-tracked a color film of Admiral Byrd's adventures in the Antarctica. It was previewed the other day in a submarine, of all places, lying on a mudbank off New London, Conn.

Out of the film and the filming has emerged some little known facts:

In its early stages, at least, it was a secret expedition But somebody gave it the code name "Operation Pole Vault" and when that was printed a few times the Navy decided that it was too informative. It was changed to "Operation High-Jump," which was suitably confusing.

One of the film's un-hammy stars is Dr. Paul Siple, who has spent more time in the Antarctic than any living man. He went there with Byrd in 1928 as a Boy Scout and stayed 13 months. Later he spent another four months there, followed by a 13-month recent stay. As a War department civilian scientist he will return there next Sunday for another stretch.

Ricky, (a husky dog born at Byrd's Antarctic camp in 1935, went back on Byrd's latest trip and remembered a game he used to play as a puppy— "run seal run." He picked on a big bull leopard seal this time—for the benefit of the cameras—and chased him into the water. Rickey died shortly after returning to America and was buried in Washington with full military honors.

Lt. (JG) Bill Kearns, co-pilot of the Byrd ship which crashed on the ice (and one of the survivors who underwent tremendous hardship before being rescued), has left the Navy and is studying for a diplomatic career at Georgetown university.

Bid Is Submitted On Local Road Project

A low bid of $309,574 on another important segment of the Lubbock highway dispersal system was submitted to the state highway commission in Austin Tuesday by Ernest Loyd of Fort Worth, according to the United Press.

The project involves 3.3 miles of grading, curbs, gutters, base and asphalt concrete paving on U. S. Highways 84 and 87 from the projected intersections of Broadway and Avenue A north of the city and extending generally westward. Other segments of the dispersal system will connect the new construction with North Avenue Q and North College avenue.

The highway commission lettings, according to the Austin dispatch, included 25 projects costing $3,873,000 in various parts of Texas.

Says Man Has Strange Powers That Work While He Sleeps

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," reveals the story of a remarkable system that often leads to improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant ousiness and professional success and new happiness. Many report improvement in health. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

The man, a well-known explorer and geographer, tells how he found these strange methods in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

He maintains that man, instead of being limited by a one-man-power-mind, has within him the mind-power of a thousand men or more as well as the energy-power of the universe which can be used in his daily affairs. He states that this sleeping giant of mind-power, when awakened, can make man capable of surprising accomplishments, from the prolonging of youth to success in many fields. Strangely, he says that this power works best while we sleep, when proper methods are used

HOUSE GROUP OPENS HEARINGS

CIO Electrical Union Is Called 'Pride And Joy' Of Communists

By DARRELL GARWOOD
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 — A congressional committee heard testimony today that the CIO Electrical Workers union is the "pride and joy" of the Communists.

One of the union's top officials refused to say whether he is a Communist.

Charges against the union were made by James J. Conroy, a self-styled former Communist and former member of the union. He described the UE as "the largest Communist-dominated organization in the United States."

James J. Matles, director of organization for the UE, then took the witness stand and refused to divulge his political beliefs.

Matles called the hearing, held by a House Labor subcommittee headed by Rep. Kersten (R-Wis.), a "political inquisition," and said:

"I refuse to answer under the first and fifth amendments to the Constitution. I will not permit you to get into my religion or my politics. I will not submit to your political inquisition."

Conroy described UE president Albert J. Fitzgerald as only a "front man" for the Communists. He said the "real" leaders of the union are Matles and Julius Emspak, its secretary-treasurer, and added:

"The UE Communist leadership has always been obedient to the command of their real boss, John Williamson, labor secretary of the Communist party."

Red Control Denied

Fitzgerald recently told the same subcommittee that he did not even know what the foreign policy of the Soviet Union was, and denied Communist control of his organization.

At a subsequent convention in New York, the union adopted a resolution denouncing the Marshall plan, and heard Henry Wallace, but did not endorse any candidate.

Conroy, however, declared there had been numerous exchanges of personnel between the UE and the Communist party, and said:

"Such exchanges of key people is only possible where the respective organizations are controlled by a common objective."

He said the UE gave temporary employment to Carl Marzani, a former State department employe, at a time when the latter was on trial for perjury in connection with alleged Communist affiliations.

Matles denied that the union had employed Marzani. Asked by Rep. Kersten whether he had heard Conroy's charges, Matles replied:

"I heard them, but I wouldn't call them charges. I would call them lies."

The committee is investigating charges of Communist infiltration which originally were made by James B. Carey, CIO secretary-treasurer and former head of the electrical workers.

LOTS OF FUN WITH COTTON CANDY—Kids of all ages love the varied confections they can get at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, and the three Lubbock ladies above were caught as they prepared to "dive in" on some of the fluffy cotton candy that is traditional at such events. They are Mrs. Robert E. West, 3106 Twenty-ninth, left, her 11-months-old daughter, Barbara Jean, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jerry West, also of Lubbock. Mrs. Robert West is an Australian war bride who met and married her husband while he was stationed there. "We have fairs in Australia, too," she told a reporter. They are pictured at the booth of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Scarborough of Wichita Falls, who have operated concessions at the fair for many years. (Staff Photo).

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

A NEW GIFT item for that special girl is a sterling silver lipstick set with a glittering birthstone ranging from the deep blood red of the January garnet to the opaque blue-green of December's turquoise.

FOR LARGE GALS—Fashion journals and style shows rarely ever pay attention to the stout girl and woman but if you look over a gathering of any sort you'll see that her name is legion.

In answer to the plea "But What About Me?" for those big gals, comes the advice "cultivate a smooth, effortless, Bergman-like pace.

Wear the best in tailored suits, choosing jackets with deep openings at the neck. Dresses should have good, clean, uncluttered lines and the fit of the clothes must be perfection itself; shoulder seams at precisely the right spot, tucks or darts to give fullness over the bosom.

To eliminate the least suggestion of strain across the arms, back, bosom or abdomen, clothes should fit somewhat loosely and easily.

That well-put-together look is the big woman's assurance of graceful charm.

DEMONSTRATIONS

THOSE shining aluminum trays in the exhibit sponsored by Gaines County Home Demonstration women in the women's building at the Panhandle-South Plains fair have caught the attention of hundreds of visitors.

To those who have wondered how they are made, we suggest a visit to the building this afternoon at either 2:30 or 4 o'clock at which time the women will give a demonstration.

Lubbock county women's day will come Friday afternoon when they show how hooked rugs are made.

IN THE MAIL

COULD you please tell me if a 1913 dime is worth anything? I have heard that it is.

Thank you.
Mrs. John F. Smith.
2806 Merthel.

DEAR Mrs. Smith: We called R. B. Fairly who is a coin collector and knows about such things. He says he believes a 1913 dime isn't worth any more than just a dime and with present day inflation that isn't much, is it? He added that a 1916 dime is sought by collectors.

PUPPY IS LOST

THE one-year-old dog that Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Maddox, 2207-B Eighteenth, bought for their infant baby ran away last Saturday in the excitement of getting the baby home. He is part pekingese and part cocker spaniel, black as midnight with white spots and a curly tail. If you see him you are invited to telephone 9082.

ENGLISH COLORS

IN CONTRAST to the colors worn by the American woman this fall, which set a new high in fashion history, colors for the English woman will reflect the "sombreness of the times," according to "The Drapers' Record."

There will be "lead grey," "mouse," "toad brown," and on down to "slime," which is described as a 'glutinous green."

The tendency, according to the Record, is towards "sad, sombre tones that are shadowed in black and dismal in effect."

Helen Ruth Daffern, Robert Maisen Marry

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Helen Ruth Daffern of 910 Ave. R and Robert Maisen of 1912 Twenty-fifth, which took place Sept. 18 at 10:30 a. m. at Levelland First Baptist church with Rev. J. H. Wright officiating.

The bride wore a blue suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Guests were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. B. B. Pirtle, and his sister, Judy, 1912 Twenty-fifth, and the bride's sister, Mrs. W. W Coursey, and Mr. Coursey of Levelland.

The couple is at home in Lubbock.

DEMONSTRATIONS GIVEN—Mrs. J. E. Laney of Hale Center route 1 is shown in top photograph in the leather crafts portion of the home demonstration clubs section in the Women's building at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, as she discussed hand carving and tooling Tuesday afternoon. Hale county presented the leather demonstration. Lower photograph shows the display of aluminum trays. Gaines county home demonstration club will be responsible for demonstrations on making aluminum trays to be presented today. Mrs. Lee Holtcamp of Littlefield, one of the home demonstration women on duty in the booth Tuesday, is shown in the picture. (Staff Photo).

Characters Of Club Members Sketched

Mrs. J. F. Hankins presented the membership of Athenaeum club Tuesday morning by reading entertaining sketches which revealed the women's characteristics, inhibitions, likes and dislikes. She said that each person has three characters: the one people think he is; the one he thinks he is; and the one he really is.

The club members attended a coffee in the home of Mrs. C. C. Coffee at 3419 Twenty-first.

Mrs. A. W Young presided and introduced three new members, Mesdames R. A. Tynes, Stella Brown and C. W. Denison. Twenty-four members attended.

The refreshment table was covered with a hand made Mexican drawnwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of marigolds.

Mrs. Young and Mrs. Bryan McDonald presided at the services.

Crocheted Cloth Is Popular Attraction

Attracting considerable attention in the Women's building at Panhandle-South Plains Fair is a crocheted tablecloth, which Mrs. J. H. Alexander of Wolfforth spent approximately 1,000 hours making

The cloth is the "blue ribbon cloth of blue ribbon cloths," having been selected for a trophy from among the blue ribbon or first place crocheted cloths at the fair. The same judges who chose the blue ribbon cloths chose hers for the trophy.

The National Crochet association has invited blue ribbon winners to enter their crocheted pieces in the national contest.

Mrs. Alexander's cloth contains 365 medallions. She used fine thread in making it.

Mrs. Gradie Bownds Installs Officers For Elizabeth Class

The successful voyage of a ship was theme of an installation service conducted by Mrs. Gradie Bownds, First Baptist adult 1 department superintendent, for the Elizabeth class Monday night in the home of Mrs. Q. B. Taylor, 3117 Thirty-first.

Officers were likened to officers on deck ship and responsibility for directing a successful voyage and the class' responsibility as a group was compared to sail making for Bible study, prayer, faith, love and service. Mrs. L. E. Parsons who illustrated the remarks with chalk drawings, was accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Rodgers as she sang "Open My Eyes," "Speak to My Heart," "I Surrender All," "Let the Lower Lights be Burning" and "Jesus Savior, Pilot Me."

Mrs. Robert Maeker, fellowship vice president carried out a color scheme of yellow, orchid and April green in the arrangement of dahlias brought from Mrs. D. C. Kennedy's yard which centered the serving table. Marigolds and perennial asters completed the decorations.

Thirty-two members and three guests, Mrs. J. W. Mallory and Mrs. Alfred Crosby, associate superintendents, and Mrs. C. O. Garner, attended

Raiders Drill For SMU

Raider Freshmen Meet Buff Fish

The Red Raider freshmen, one of the finest looking groups in recent years, will entertain the WTSTC Buffalo first year men Friday afternoon at 3 in Jones Stadium. It should be a good game, with both teams making their first appearance of the season.

Tech has come up with several players of top caliber, one of whom is touted as a second Doak Walker, Right Halfback Judson Brawner of Atmore, Alabama. Brawner is a big boy with speed and size who played four years of high school ball in Alabama, making all-state two years. He also enlisted in the Marines while in high school and spent about 10 months in the service.

Rex Pinson of Falfurrias, right guard, is another prize in the Raider freshmen line. The big boy is 224 pounds of guard and turns in a good performance. He will team with Jackie Cockburn of Denison, a six foot, 185-pound guard.

Dick Pirtle of Lubbock's Westerners will draw the starting left end assignment, along with Jack Davis of Littlefield, a six foot, 165-pound right end.

Jerrell Price of Brownfield, all-state selection and voted the outstanding lineman in the annual high school all-star game, will be at left tackle, teaming with Bobby Gene Dobbs of Breckenridge, a six foot, 205-pound lad.

At center will be Clint Gregory of Bowie, a six foot, 185-pound man.

Bob Close of Shamrock will be a left half, teaming with Brawner, while Ralph May of Sudan's Hornets, one of the strongest teams on the South Plains last year, will be at fullback.

The second string, practically as strong as the first eleven, will have either Gene Capps of Higgins or Gene McCanlies of Littlefield at left end, with Lewis Crosley of Eastland at right end. Tackles will be Robert Greene of Burkburnett and Dick Andrews of McLean. Don Anthony of Amarillo will be at one guard and Jimmy Martin of Wichita Falls will be at the other. Pat Crawford of Eastland has won the center spot on the second string.

The reserve backfield will have several "rabbits" in it, including Eural Ramsey of Shamrock at quarter, Jack Young of Andrews and Jack Haynes of Roscoe at the halves and Aubrey "Red" Phillips of Fort Worth Tech at fullback.

Scrubs Show Good Form In Workout

A spectator had his choice of three squads at Texas Tech yesterday; he could watch the varsity on defense against SMU plays; or he could watch a vicious scrimmage session between the reserves; or he might watch the freshmen getting ready for the Buffalo freshmen.

And all three might have been worthy of a spectator's interest all afternoon. The varsity was being trained against Coach Polk Robison's Mustang plays, while learning defense assignments, calling for versatility, were designed to break up the potent Mustang aerial attack, as well as their running game.

Break Up Plays

The Red Raiders, with no way of knowing what the dummy SMU team would try next, broke up the majority of plays. Occasional defensive lapses allowed the Mustang eleven to gain, but none of the plays would have gone for the distance. It was a reassuring performance.

As for the scrimmage session between the reserves, there was plenty of fury in the tackling and blocking, with some good running by the backs. J. W. Thompson, Bill White and Walter Maloney all showed to good advantage, while the defensive also looked sharp at times.

But Coach Dell Morgan wasn't happy about the blocking, nor the way the backs were running much of the time. He was in a rampant mood, criticizing mistakes and driving the team hard, trying to iron out the faults. More than anyone else, Morgan realizes that the Aggies were a breather in comparison to what SMU will throw at the Raiders. And he drove the players through a rough scrimmage in an effort to develop offensive power.

The varsity, preceding their intensive work on SMU plays, were sent through a long offensive session, stressing plays that Tech will use Saturday. No one at the Raider institution is thinking of defeat and the emphasis is on scoring a victory.

Tech is faced with one of the nation's top teams and the finest array of backs to be seen so far There has been a lot of talk about the weak Mustang line, but against Pitt, the line showed up well. Tech is capable of playing over its head and if the Mustangs are not up enough, Tech might upset them. But the probability of a Raider victory is offset by the uncertain possibility.

Despite this, the Raiders have only one thought in mind this week; to play their best and beat SMU.

Horne, Raadik Fight Tonight

CHICAGO, Sept. 28. (INS).—Middleweights Sonny Horne of Niles, O., and Anton Raadik of Estonia clash tomorrow night in the 10-round feature bout at Chicago stadium.

Promoters Irving Schoenwald and Jack Begun have hinted the winner of the Horne-Raadik match may get a non-title shot at middleweight champion Marcel Cerdan.

The last time Horne and Raadik fought was July 12 at Chicago's Marigold gardens, with the Ohioan winning a disputed decision.

About 10,000 fans are expected to watch tomorrow night's attraction.

New Mexico Lobos To Meet Texas Saturday

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (Special) — Texas meets its third straight state university football opponent, from a third different conference, here next Saturday afternoon, when the New Mexico Lobos invade Memorial Stadium.

Coached by the respected Berl Huffman, the Lobos assume the role of perhaps an overmatched but underrated opponent, coming from a Conference that has prided itself on aggravating Southwest Conference opposition with unexpectedly strong performances.

New Mexico's early-practice talent indicated an improved squad over the team that in 1947 won four and lost five, whipping such worthies as Kansas State and Drake.

Austin Maroons Test Lubbock Offensive

Lubbock High's powerful single wing attack, which has rolled up an average of nearly 200 yards rushing in three games this season, will be matched against Austin's speedy "T" formation and modified box offensive when the two Class AA elevens meet in a non-conference setto Friday night at House Park stadium at Austin.

The Westerners, who will meet their fourth tough foe in four weeks of play, have attracted attention over the state with their rapidly improving offense. The Hub city schoolboys started slowly, tallying one touchdown to tie Odessa at 7-7, then crossed the double stripe twice while absorbing a 21-13 drubbing by San Angelo.

But last week the Westerners overcame a 14-0 halftime North Side lead to stage a three-touchdown assault and defeat the Fort Worth crew, 21-14, in an upset triumph. The Lubbock gridders chalked up 266 yards rushing against the Steers, including a 73-yard touchdown gallop by Tailback Bobby Brown, and the downstate grid experts were favorably impressed by the smooth precision of the Westerners' center traps and off-tackle slants.

The Maroons, who have also met some of the top teams in the state, have shown rapid improvement in their offense department. The Maroons, using the quick-breaking "T" and a modified box on the attack, took a 27-7 drubbing from Brackenridge of San Antonio in their first tilt, then held powerful Waco to a 27-14 win in their second setto. Last week the Austin schoolboys entered the win column with a 7-6 victory over City conference Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio.

The Austin team is paced by a top group of speedsters in the secondary, including several of the boys who set a new Interscholastic league sprint relay record this spring. The Maroon gridders, like the Lubbock representatives, are inexperienced, but have gained valuable experience against top-bracket opposition.

The non-conference tilt, one of the feature games of the state schedule, is rated an even 50-50 choice by most of the schoolboy grid experts. The Lubbock eleven has shown a slightly better offense than Austin, but the Maroons' speed and home field advantage are slated to balance the scales. The Westerners will also be handicapped by making their second lengthy journey in two weeks.

Coach Pat Pattison, head Lubbock mentor, said last night that the Westerner squad will leave Thursday morning by chartered bus for Brownwood and Austin. The group is expected to spend Thursday night in Brownwood, moving on to Austin early Friday morning.

Getz, Marvel In Mat Feature

A triple main event will feature the regular weekly mat card at Sled Allen's arena tonight, with tough Al Getz of Pittsburgh meeting the undefeated Masked Marvel in the spotlight bout.

Getz and the Marvel battled in the local arena last week, with the Mask gaining a disputed decision Both grapplers participated in an out-of-the-ring altercation that resulted in a deep cut over Getz' eye, and the durable Dutchman was unable to return to the ring in time to beat the referee's count. Getz protested the decision, but the official—as usual—refused to reverse the verdict.

The match will be a two out of three falls, one-hour time limit setto.

Rex Mobley of Borger and Boston Billy Weidner are slated to meet in the first main event. Mobley has not lost a match since his return to the local arena, but he faces a tough test in Weidner, who recently won the Southwestern junior heavyweight crown from Wayne Martin of Tulsa.

Sammy Kohen of New York City and Bennie Trudell of Montreal, Canada, will clash in the second tussle.

Tickets will go on sale at 9 o'clock this morning at Wylie's drug. Matches start at 8:15 p. m.

Single game attendance record for the Arizona U. football stadium is 14,739, set last year when the Wildcats played New Mexico U.

Sub Rule Is Under Fire

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Football's full team substitution plan, made famous last season by Michigan and adopted this year by Army was under fire today from the "have-nots" with indications that legislation might be forced through to curb free replacements.

Columbia's Lou Little, chairman of the rules committee of the Football Coaches Association, tipped off the trend to handcuff the powerhouse teams with the big squads when he indicated that a "tightening" of the substitution rules might be taken up at the winter meeting.

Under the current rules many of the major colleges are using the two-team system. One entire team is used only on offense. On defense it is pulled out immediately and a whole defensive eleven sent into the game. This keeps both teams fresh and operating at maximum efficiency.

Little suggested that substitutions be limited to "two or possibly three players only" at one time.

Little's Suggestions

Little—who does not have the manpower to operate the two-team system — tried to straddle the fence even as he suggested limitation of substitutions.

"I favor the two-team system," he said. "Most of my boys play 55 minutes and it isn't good. For instance, my Lou Kusseros and Gene Rossides would be better, I'm sure, if they rested on defense and played only on offense. Present day football needs liberal substitutions to keep the maximum speed of the game at all times."

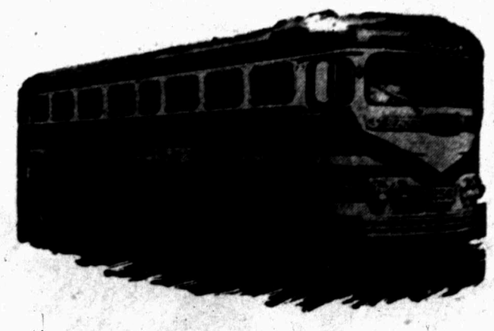

On the other hand, Little attempted to show that subbing teams as a unit detracted from the interest in the game.

Opposition to his stand was voiced by Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference.

"I am in favor of unit substitutions," Bushnell declared. "I believe that it is better because it prevents straggling substitutions after each play and thus additionally speeds up the game."

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

Most of the fans who attended the first meeting of the Lubbock Quarterback club Monday night were impressed favorably by C. R. (Pat) Pattison, the Lubbock High head grid mentor. Pattison answered every question honestly and completely, and expressed his willingness to co-operate with the club in every way possible. Coach Pat also made a couple of statements that drew praise from the fans. He said that he would not listen to any criticism of the boys as individuals, or make any comparison in the ability of any two of the players. That is one of the reasons why the boys think so much of their new mentor.

Dunbar Coach Damon Hill reported to the club that the Panthers have aided in the organization of a new district in West Texas for grid competition, and said that the Dunbar gridders are now fully equipped for play against any team. Lights have been ordered for the Dunbar field, but it is doubtful if they will arrive in time for use this season. All of Dunbar's early season games will be played away from home.

* * *

Those persons who read the Fort Worth version of the Lubbock-North Side game were probably surprised by some of the statements. Said the Star-Telegram scribe in part, "North Side's bid for one of the most shocking upsets . . . melted away." We just can't see how that statement will hold up. According to the official team rankings, Lubbock was barely in the top 20 before the North Side tilt. North Side had defeated Tyler and played improving Odessa to a two-touchdown triumph. The Westerners had only a tie and a defeat on their record. North Side held a tremendous weight advantage in the backfield, as well as having the home field edge. Any way you look at it, the Westerners couldn't have been more than a 50-50 choice.

Those persons who think the Westerners will be an easy choice over the Austin Maroons this weekend had better be careful. The Austin boys, sparked by one of the fastest backfields in the state, are improving rapidly and could give the Lubbock schoolboys more than they can handle. Reports from Austin indicate that the Maroons have a fine team spirit, plenty of hustle and fight and enough physical ability to become a district title contender by the time loop play gets underway.

* * *

The game against San Angelo taught the Westerners that you can't depend on "ratings" or pregame "dope" to give you a victory. Under present conditions, with inexperienced boys making up most squad rosters, there are at least 25 teams in the state capable of upsetting any of the leaders on any given Friday. The youngsters just cannot be depended on until they get more game experience. Austin has shown steady improvement with a green team, and will be set for the Westerners Friday night. The Lubbock boys will also face the added handicap of making the long trip to Austin, after having made the lengthy journey to Fort Worth last week. And unless a "blue norther" blows in, there will probably be considerable difference in playing conditions.

Citation Entered In Sysonby Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—Citation, Calumet Farm's three-year-old champion, meets older horses again tomorrow in the $25,000-added Sysonby Mile at Belmont park—his first start since returning to the east from his summer Chicago campaign.

Eight were named for the event, which will be a test of Citation's fitness for the $100,000 Jockey Club gold cup, a two mile affair Saturday.

Calumet will send a stablemate, the speedy Coaltown, along with Citation just to make sure, and the entry was quoted at about 1 to 4 Coaltown took the Jerome Handicap for three-year-olds in his last start at Belmont Sept. 15.

C. V. Whitney's First Flight, under 123, and Maine Chance Farm's Knockdown, 126, may give Citation his strongest competition, although the latter could do no better than seventh in the Stars and Stripes under 115.

Others entered are the Dixiana Pair of Star Reward and Spy Song, both 126; W. M. Jeffords' Natchez, 126; and another three-year-old, A. G. Vanderbilt's Loser Weeper, 119.

TRIPLE PASS THREATS—The Chicago Bears are better prepared to take to the air this year than any other pro football team, with three of the top passers in the nation in Bear uniforms. Owner-coach George Halas, famed for his strong offensive attack, came up with, left to right, Bobby Layne of Texas, Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame and the old standby, Sid Luckman, formerly of Columbia. Layne, Lujack and Luckman, the three L's, are really pounding along.

BEARDEN OVERCOMES INJURIES

Sports World Full Of Players Who Overcame Many Handicaps

By PAT ROBINSON
INS Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. — We like to hear stories of unusual moral and physical courage in the sports world. Stories of fellows who successfully overcame tremendous handicaps. Stories of fellows who don't know the meaning of the word quit.

We mean a fellow like Gene Bearden, the fine lefthander of the Cleveland Indians, a war hero who never let little things like a whole series of operations or a silver plate in his skull and another in his leg deter him from making good on the diamond.

You'd be surprised how many of these amazing fellows there are around the country. Coluumbia once had a winning high-jumper who had only one leg. City College of New York once had a totally blind wrestler who won the intercollegiate title in his division.

We have had one-armed ball players like Sam Grey who once played a season with the Browns. We've had one-armed football players, and sprinters and even bowlers who were totally blind.

We've seen Reggie McNamara riding a six-day bike grind with a bunch of broken ribs and there was a Belgian who once pedalled the last two days of such a grind with a broken foot.

Jack Coombs, pitching for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1910, set an American League record for shutouts in one season. He had 13.

Top Net Stars Are Defeated

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28. (INS)—Top Australian and English players went down to defeat today in the fourth round of the Pacific Southwest tennis championships.

England's ranking netters, Tony Mottram and Joy Gannon, were eliminated along with Australians Geoff Brown, Frank Sedgman and Billy Sidwell, although the captain of the Aussie team, Adrian Quist, stayed in the running.

Richard "Pancho" Gonzales, the Los Angeles public courts ace who recently won the U. S. Men's Singles title, took care of Mottram by scores of 6-2, 6-0. The victory put him in the quarter-finals against Quist, who defeated eighth-seeded George Richards of Los Angeles, 0-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Gannon, British woman champion, was eliminated by Mrs. Eleanor Cushingham of Hollywood, 6-0, 6-2.

Sturges Wins Again

Brown, Australian Davis Cupper, was defeated by Eric Sturges of South Africa, top-seeded foreign player, by scores of 3-6, 7-5, 6-3. Brown's crackling service gave Sturges a lot of difficulty and it wasn't until the second set that he was able to solve it.

Sedgman, one of Australia's junior members of the Davis Cup squad, was eliminated by hard-hitting Earl Cochell of Los Angeles, 6-3, 6-3.

Berlin Smuggling Attacked By U.S.

By WALTER RUNDLE
United Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Sept. 28 — American authorities cracked down today on the large scale smuggling of scarce items from the blockaded American sector of Berlin to the Soviet sector and the Russian zone of Germany.

American sector German police intercepted and confiscated at least five Russian-licensed trucks loaded with potatoes, coal, furniture, machinery and other materials in short supply.

More Seizures Expected

A. W. Moran, American Economics department head in the American sector, said it was likely many more trucks would be seized.

"Recent checks of our warehouses showed there have been a heavy drain on critical items through smuggling activities," he said, "Obviously, when we are flying food and other supplies into Berlin to keep our sector of the city alive, we cannot permit such operations to go on."

Meantime, Soviet propaganda organs in Berlin attempted to blame the western powers for the collapse of the Berlin renegotiations. They singled out American military governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay as their chief target.

Neues Deutschland, Communist party organ, claimed the negotiations were a success and that normal conditions could have returned to Berlin within eight days.

The newspaper said electric power will be cut, traffic restrictions will remain, unemployment will increase and 2,000,000 Germans will be compelled to endure "the long winter in dark and cold rooms."

The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN accused Clay of engineering the collapse of the conference of military governors in Berlin.

It said the three western commanders did not want to submit a report mutually agreed upon to the four occupation governments.

able grandstands, all on unit-trucks, each one complete from Duran upholstered chairs to steel stairways at its back. each truck-unit unfolds, forming an inclined steel deck, and joins its surface to those of the units on each side of it under the sweeping perimeter of the big top. The cushioned, folding chairs, bolted to the decks, are snapped upright, and there, in a jiffy, is a vast oval of red and blue cushioned chairs, tier above tier—the first circus bowl. It's the inventionn of Arthur M. Concello, young general manager of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus. He conceived it, blue-printed it and built it.

Many Attractions Offered

Among the 1948 super-attractions are: "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," the outstanding, overall Yuletide spectacle and top production smash of the performances, employing nearly 2,000 people and animals, imaginatively and lavishly costumed, designed again in humor, fantasy and splendor for children of all ages; the Monte Carlo Aerial Ballet, 60-girl, mid-air extravaganza, unprecedented in dazzling action and color; Dixie, dashing, brilliant horse, girl and equipage display of the Old South, a rousing rendezvous of riders, drivers and blooded steeds in Stephen Foster mood and melody, and The Circus Ball, great, gorgeous, kaleidoscopic finale, with rythmically swirling elephants, clowns and girls garbed in fantastic and stunning high-hat raiment. These extraordinarily impressive, animated panoramas produced by John Ringing North and staged by John Murray Anderson, New York and London theatrical genius.

Spearheading the scores of new features and acts from Europe, all first-time-in-America importations, are: Francis Brunn, the greatest juggler of all time, Unus, the wonder equilibrist who walks on his forefinger, the Zoeppes, Italian bareback riding sensations, with Cucciola, midget clown; Alberty, dome-high perch thriller, the Mandos Sisters, aerial novelty marvels; the Zavattas, hilarious hurricanes on wheels; the Ming Sing Troupe, Chinese equilibristic wizards; Trisco, flying trapeze equilibrist, and others of equal renown.

Many 1947 Acts Return

From last year's topflight overseas attractions are: lovely petite Rose Gould, soaring swallow of the big top; the breath-taking Alzanas, greatest of all high wire acts; the Loyals and the Bostocks, bareback riding stars; the Flying Behees and the Artonis; Chrysis de la Grange, aerial pinwheel; Mathies' Royal Bengal tigers; Orlando's Polar Bears, and Damoo Dhotre's leopards, renowned group of educated wild creatures; Vargas' and Eldridge's chimpanzee comics; Guerre's sea lions; Natal, manmonkey; Schuman's and Strassberger's Liberty Horses; Mlle de Valos', Jose Mosier's and the Countess de la Court's high school horses, and countless other attractions.

For the convenience of the public reserved seat tickets for Duran upholstered, cushioned chairs are now available at Wylie's Drug store, 1106 Texas street, as well as at the show grounds. General admission seats on sale only at show grounds.

After the night performance, the four streamlined, silver enameled circus trains will leave for Amarillo.

tunity to consider the matter—if it wants to consider it."

The injunction was issued on Stevenson's allegation that vote frauds occurred in three counties during the recent Texas run-off primary. The state Democratic convention found Johnson the winner by 87 votes out of 1,000,000 counted.

Black Quizzes Attorneys

Attorneys for Johnson asked Black to order stay of the injunction. They and Dan Moody, former Texas governor and attorney for Stevenson, presented their arguments to Black in the justices' chambers.

By numerous questions, Black sought to clarify the attorney's views on his authority to issue a stay. At one point he commented that either way he acted it appeared that one candidate or the other might be denied his rights.

"Suppose," Black asked, "that this injunction order is not vacated by Oct. 2. Will the election ticket be printed?"

Alvin J. Wirtz, attorney of Austin, appearing on behalf of Johnson, answered:

"Yes, the ticket will be printed. There will be no name of a Democratic nominee. There is a Republican nominee."

Dr. J. O. Haymes Will Attend Methodist Meeting In Ohio

Dr. J. O. Haymes, 2316 Eighteenth, superintendent of the Lubbock district of the Methodist church, will be among 800 Methodist leaders who will attend a nation-wide conference in Columbus, Ohio, Monday and Tuesday. At that time, the new quardennial plan of Methodism will be launched officially.

All district superintendents of the Northwest Texas conference will attend.

Known as "The Advance for Christ and His Church," the four-year program will have two major objectives: First, a world-wide preaching and teaching mission to deepen understandings and devotion of the church's eight and one-half million members, and second, an overall increase in giving that will undergird the church's missionary enterprises and overseas relief.

Trapeze Partner Wife Died In Accident

Swaying Flagpole Gave Seldon Idea For 'Stratosphere' Act

Some 16 years ago a circus aerialist idly watched a flagpole swaying in the breeze atop a skyscraper in a large American city. The idea ocurred to him that the flagpole principle might be developed into a spectacular aerial act.

He had been on the lookout for a "single"—an act in which he performed alone —for two years. In 1930 his wife and trapeze partner had fallen to her death while performing in Wilmington, N. C. He wanted an act which would not expose any other than himself to danger.

A. E. SELDON

The result of his meditations is the "Seldon Stratosphere act" which is presented twice daily—usually at 5:30 and 11 p. m.—as a free attraction on the midway at the Panhandle-South Plains fair. Fair officials are agreed that it is by far the most spectacular attraction of its kind during the 31 years' history of the exposition here.

Bitten By Circus Bug

A. E. Seldon, born on a Michigan farm 59 years ago, has been a performer 49 years—since he was 10 years old. His father took him to a circus when he was five, and he was bitten incurably by the circus bug. He practiced everything he had seen the performers do.

When he was 10, he was good enough to be featured on the trapeze and as a contortionist with a small circus, which he joined with his parents' consent. Since then he has toured at various times with practically all the big tops, played hundreds of fairs and operated his own show for eight years.

Then came tragedy, and the flagpole idea.

Seldon's present apparatus, which evolved from that idea. consists of a steel mast 95 feet feet high closely similar to a radio station aerial. On top of that is a 45-foot hollow steel alloy pole. The total height is 140 feet.

Apparatus Special Built

The act consists of exhibitions on trapeze swings at the 100-foot height, including balances on a chair on one of the swings. Then he does a head-and-hand stand on the top of the pole 140 feet above the ground, wholly without safety nets, as it sways back and forth through a 40-foot arc. Finally, he loops a noose around his neck and, with no other support, does a "slide for life" down a slanting cable 200 yards long from an initial height of 100 feet. It's quite an act.

Seldon built most of the apparatus himself. He is a structural and metallurgical engineer, trained by correspondence. The equipment, and especially the pole, was built with watch-like precision. The alloy is a special composition designed to combine strength with flexibility. The topmast pole consists of several pieces, joined together precisely. The joints give added flexibility. Seldon estimates he has spent some $70,000 on his performing apparatus since the first was built in about 1932.

The performer has had his share of accidents and, as he acknowledges, has been "scared half to death a thousand times." His worst mishap occurred four years ago when he crashed into an obstacle while doing his slide for life. Most of his right side was caved in and he was in the hospital several weeks.

Once before that the top pole started bending while he was doing his headstand. It curved into a horseshoe, but didn't break. He climbed over the curve and to safety. Another time the pole leaned crazily far to one side. Everyone, including Seldon, thought it was breaking. Subsequent examination disclosed that all of it had snapped except one narrow strip of metal.

But Seldon has no ideas of abandoning the act—not for a few years at least. He is looking to the future—not the past.

His thinking is in terms, not of a mere 140-foot pole, but one which may rise to a height of 200 feet.

in clusters of about 16 all winter and then hatch out in the spring.

If the crickets are making you awfully angry these—and one Dallas man reported angrily to police that a cricket had hopped down his throat—remember that the insects have little time and are awfully busy.

To get rid of crickets, King suggested that you spray lighted areas with a solution containing five per cent DDT and about the same doses of chloride camphene and chlordane.

"And it won't be long before all their feuding, fussing, fighting and fiddling will be over," said King.

Mary Linda Rushing, One, Of Seagraves, Is Death Victim

SEAGRAVES, Sept. 28. (Special) —Mary Linda Rushing, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rushing of Seagraves, died in the hospital at Seminole at 6:30 o'clock tonight after a short illness.

Joe H. Webb Funeral home here announced rites were pending contact with the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Guynes, who were believed between here and Knox City with a group of cotton pullers. Webb said he had appealed for aid in locating the grandparents, who were driving a blue 1941 Ford sedan, with both Texas and New Mexico license plates, and a two-wheel trailer.

The victim became ill at 7:30 a. m. today and died 11 hours later. Cause of death was reported as influenza-meningitis.

will be about 10 a.m., but it may be earlier.

SWIMMER OUT 'COLD'

If anyone wonders whether the water is cold in pools used by the "Water Follies" at the fair, just ask Miss Shirley Holden, of Somerville, Mass., one of the "aquabelles."

When she dived into the plunge for one of her numbers last night, she promptly lost consciousness. The shock of hitting the cold water knocked her out. Other members of the ballet carried her to safety and she soon revived.

She apparently had recovered completely last night and expects to be in the cast as usual during the matinee and night performances of the Follies Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

plenty of time to hear the "Queen" program in its entirety and to see the circus too. The circus will be set up in the race track area directly in front of the grandstand.

The only events to be canceled today because of the circus will be the performance of the "Water Follies of 1948." But this spectacular extravaganza will be presented at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m. daily on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Follies Draw Big Crowd

The attendance at last night's performance, incidentally, indicated that those planning to see the "Follies" will be wise to get their reserved seats without delay. After slender attendances Monday night and Tuesday afternoon, nearly 4,000 people were in the grandstand for last night's performance.

The word obviously is spreading that it is an outstanding show, and attendance is likely to grow during the latter part of the week. Overflow crowds will not be surprising at the remaining performances—especially those at night —if the weather continues favorable.

Those attending at night, however, will be wise to dress warmly. The nights are apt to get a bit nippy.

Seldon, the "stratosphere man," will give his usual free performances today on the midway at 5:30 and 11 p. m. The act, at the top of a 140-foot pole, is one of the most spectacular ever presented at a Panhandle-South Plains fair and is well worth seeing.

14,832 Attend Tuesday

Tuesday's Lubbock day attendance of 14,832 was short of the 25,076 turnout for the combined Lubbock and City School day last year. But the total exceeded the expectations of fair association officials.

Two important factors, they pointed out, have mitigated against new attendance records during the first two days of the fair. One is that a great many people have been holding back for circus day—planning to see the fair and the circus in one visit. Another is that different days have been designated for Lubbock Day and Lubbock School Day.

But the turnout was sufficient to keep the midway thronged during most of the afternoon and until near midnight. Visitors to the various exhibit buildings—and especially the agriculture building—were reported the most numerous in history.

One of the important features of Tuesday was the selection of Mrs. Douglas E. Stokes, of 1908 Ave. K, as "queen for the day."

Judging proceeded in the cattle and swine departments and will be completed today, clearing the way for the use of the judging arena for the three-day second annual South Plains Rabbit and Cavy show, which begins Thursday.

Justice Department Studies Probe Of New Jersey Solon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP) — The Justice department said today it has "under advisement" a request for an investigation of the way Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) has conducted his congressional office.

Assistant attorney general Alex M. Campbell, in charge of the criminal division, made public a petition received by Attorney General Tom Clark on Sept. 23, asking for such an investigation. It was signed by 17 New Jersey attorneys.

Spaak called on Russia "not to sabotage" UN work and "then we may recover the luminous faith of San Francisco" where the organization was born.

Marshall Plan Praised

At one point the Belgian premier offered to deal with Russia on this basis:

The west will cease its efforts for curtailment of the veto and revision of the charter "if you promise to cooperate and work within the genuine spirit of the charter."

French Foreign Minister Schuman avoided a direct clash with Russia except to announce the Western Allies won't quit Berlin, where he said the Rusians did not even offer "a minimum of goodwill."

Schuman termed the Russian blockade "an act of force" in appealing to the UN to end it.

Schman renewed a French proposal for a western European governmental move to establish a political union and praised the Marshall aid plan as a move toward such union.

The French leader generally backed the U. S. stand on Soviet abuse of the veto, the right of Italy to enter the UN; the atomic control plan and a Palestine settlement.

Schuman said Germany must be reconstructed on a democratic federative principle linked with a united Europe.

Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King accused Russia solely of torpedoing the atomic control plan and warned that "no nation, however great, can defend its freedom solely with its own resources."

Suspended U. S. Official To Appeal Loyalty Board Finding

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—Counsel for William W. Remington said today a regional board has ruled there are "reasonable grounds to believe" the suspended Commerce department official was "disloyal." He announced Remington will appeal to President Truman's loyalty review board.

Joseph L. Rauh, the attorney, released this statement from Remington:

"I have appealed the case to the loyalty review board with the request that I be given an opportunity to confront and cross-examine Miss Bentley."

Miss Elizabeth Bentley is the Vassar graduate who accused Remington of giving her "secret" information when she was a Communist spy ring courier during the war. Remington then was an official of the War Production board.

Harrison Demo Committee Will Ignore Loyalty Pledge Rule

MARSHALL, Sept. 28. (AP) — Harrison county's Democratic executive committee decided tonight to ignore a resolution of the state convention at Fort Worth requiring county committeemen to pledge loyalty to the Truman-Barkley presidential ticket.

The resolution at the Fort Worth convention Sept. 14 gave county chairmen a week to sign and file the pledge after receiving formal notice from the state executive committee. It gave precinct committeemen a week to sign the pledge after receiving notice from county chairmen. It provided for their automatic removal for failure to sign.

Thomas Y. Abney, Harrison county chairman, said he received the notice a week ago.

Butter Prices Take Sharp Drops In Wholesale Markets

(By The Associated Press)

Butter prices took sharp drops Tuesday in wholesale markets, and retail price cuts were due in many major cities.

On the New York wholesale market the price drop was two cents a pound to 66 cents. It was a net drop of 10 cents in eight days and the lowest price of the year, the New York mercantile exchange said.

In Chicago the wholesale price was 2¾ cents down yesterday, the lowest level since June 23, 1947. The price stood at 64½ cents a pound for top grades.

where." He was commenting on Justice Black's ruling.

7. Johnson made a lengthly statement at Austin attacking Stevenson and his supporters and adding. "I am very happy to note that the state's right to run its own elections has been vindicated by the Supreme Court.

Demo Group Backs Johnson

8. The state Democratic executive committe decided to actively support Johnson in the contest.

9. The probe here into alleged election irregularities brought out the fact that poll and tally lists of precinct 13, Jim Wells county, are missing. One of the probers, appointed by Federal Judge Davidson, said he would open all the county ballot boxes tomorrow. The other commissioner plans to open an investigation at Zapata tomorrow.

10. At San Diego, 10 miles from Alice, Commissioner J. M. Burnett held a routine investigation today, questioning eight Duval county election officials on election routine. All ballot boxes were accounted for and none were opened there.

Johnson was certified by the state Demo convention as the nominee over Stevenson by 87 votes out of almost 1,000,000 ballots cast. Stevenson claims that if irregularities are removed from the count in three South Texas counties, Jim Wells, Zapata, and Duval, he will be the winner. That is the object of the probe here and at Zapata by the commissioners.

The commissioners, W. R. Smith, Jr., and J. M. Burnett, decided to continue their probe after conferring with Federal District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson by telephone. Judge Davidson was the jurist who issued an injunction which in effect kept Johnson's name off the ballot.

Coke Studies Next Move

The commissioners said that Judge Davidson planned no action since he had not received official notice from Washington that Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black had lifted Davidson's injunction.

Burnett left Alice late this afternoon for Laredo. He plans to open a second hearing in Zapata at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Meanwhile, the hearing conducted here by Smith reconvened after a short recess called so the commissioners could telephone Davidson.

Ballot Boxes Opened

In today's hearing, an election official testified that both the election tally lists and poll tax lists of Precinct 13, Jim Wells county, have been lost.

After the late afternoon recess, two of the Jim Wells county ballot boxes earlier identified as being from precinct 13 were opened. One proved to be from precinct 13; the other from precinct 6. The second precinct 13 ballot box could not be picked out by its exterior appearance from among others in the courtroom.

The precinct 13 election judge, Luis Salas who earlier told of the missing poll lists and tally lists, identified one of the boxes opened as from precinct 13.

This box was without a lock. Commissioner Smith told Salas to see if he could find the missing poll and tally lists in the box. They were missing.

Johnson's Attorney Objects

The other box opened today proved to be from the Springfield, or No. 6 precinct.

Smith then told Salas to find the other precinct 13 box. He was unable to do so.

"Then we'll open all the boxes in the morning," Smith said. He adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

The boxes were opened and the investigation continued over the strong objections of Johnson's chief attorney here, Dudley Tarlton of Corpus Christi.

Official In Mexico

Tarlton maintained that opening of the boxes was in violation of state statutes and the state constitution. He maintained that the only agency with authority to take such action is the state courts.

"The boxes are subject to impeachment for we are in a position to prove they were subject to the control, peculiarly, to friends of Governor Stevenson," Tarlton said.

The precinct is one in which Stevenson claims enough fraudulent votes were cast to cost him the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate.

Earlier, Mrs. Tom Donald, wife of the former secretary of the county Democratic committee, testified that her husband was in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, when she heard from him last night. A subpoena was out for Donald.

Lists Are Missing

Telling of the missing lists, Salas testified that he "heard talk about irregularities" in precinct 13 on September 14 and borrowed Donald's lists to compare them.

"I took the lists home and compared them and then I put them in my car," Salas said.

"Before I had a chance to take them back, both his (Donald's) and mine were stolen."

Salas said he found the lists were missing when he returned to his car from a party.

The precinct official said that a box identified yesterday by Mrs. Juanita Hulsey, chief deputy county clerk, as that in which precinct 13 ballots were cast, was actually that of another precinct. It was marked "Nayer school."

Salas said he believes either a box marked "precinct 4" or "precinct 5" actually was the precinct 13 box. He identified the boxes by wires to which the locks were fastened. Both boxes were locked.

JOHNSON AGAIN TAKES TO HIGH STATE COURT

AUSTIN, Sept. 28. (AP)—Attorneys for Lyndon B. Johnson tonight made a new attempt in the State supreme court to force Secretary of State Paul H. Brown to certify his name as the Democratic nominee for junior United States senator from Texas.

They entered a motion for permission to refile their original petition and a supplemental petition for a writ of mandamus commanding Brown to certify Johnson's name "forthwith" by the quickest means possible.

To Take Action Today

The petition which they sought to file also names the county election boards as respondents, and asks the court to restrain Coke R. Stevenson from interfering in any manner with certification of Johnson.

Assistant Secretary of State Kirk Mallory said that he would do nothing about putting Johnson's name on the ballot until he had received formal notice from the U. S. Supreme court.

Chief Justice J. E. Hickman told the Associated Press tonight that the court would take no action on Johnson's motion until tomorrow.

Oklahoma party leaders as he called for record-breaking Democratic majorities.

A Republican victory, he said, would leave the country in "an awful fix." Leaving Gainesville, Tex., he said the Republicans have "made every effort to sabotage the public power program."

Foreign Policy Under Fire

The Berlin crisis found the major party candidates on common ground in taking a firm American stand.

On Mr. Truman's behalf, Rep. Sam Rayburn told a Texas audience that defeat of the President would risk unrest in the world.

Rayburn said he feared the result would be that our enemies might think we "were going back on our policy of world peace, of world concord, or world order."

On the other hand, Dewey said he aims for "competence in foreign policy" which he said our country does not have.

Dewey told a cheering Washington state audience that the world should understand that if he is elected America will have "vastly more formidable power when we get a vigorous, more forward-looking foreign policy."

Dewey Defends Congress

Dewey spoke out directly in defense of Congress as the "best" while Mr. Truman stressed again his theme that the Republican 80th had failed.

Gov. Earl Warren of California took note of the "troublesome times" and said "anything can happen, any day."

"I am more interested in national unity than in winning the election," the GOP vice presidential nominee said at Concord, N. H. He called for election of a Republican Congress, observing that victory for Dewey would be only half the task completed.

Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky doubled back to the northeast for a speech at Rochester, N. Y., after calling on Dixie Democrats to get behind the Truman-Barkley ticket. He spoke at Asheville, N. C., Monday night.

Henry Wallace was back in the south, campaigning before a mixed white and negro audience at Dallas for his Progressive party presidential ticket.

Texas Tour Ends

He said the violence on his recent egg-splattered southern trip occurred "where northern money is invested." Ordinary southerners "are just real folks," he said, but "southern reactionaries" are controlled by northern money.

Winding up a Texas tour spread over four days, Mr. Truman brought his campaign to the baby-kissing stage. But he was on the receiving end only.

Eight-year-old Barbara Scheurer gave him a flower at Sherman, Texas. Then she gave him a noisy smack on the cheek.

He made brief talks at Sherman, Whitesboro, and Gainesville, Texas. Then he moved on to Marietta, Ardmore, Davis, Pauls Valley, Purcell and Norman.

At Sherman, Mr. Truman said the welfare of the country is safe with the Democrats, but in the hands of Republicans "it isn't safe and it hasn't been safe for the last 100 years."

He said he had been trying to set out issues and had just got a copy of some of the comments of "the bitter anti-Truman columnists."

The President said that evidently they are "hurt" and also squealing like stuck pigs "because I am bringing home to the people what this 80th Congress did to them.

Houston Oilman Opens Bid For Senate Seat At Weatherford

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 28. (AP) —Jack Porter, Houston oil man, came back here to his old hometown tonight to ask the people of Texas to elect a Republican to the U. S. Senate.

Porter said in a speech prepared for delivery at 8:30 p. m. that a widespread demand throughout the state has developed for the Republican party to make a determined effort to elect a U. S. senator.

"Most of you were reared Democrats, the same as I was," he said, "but you were not taught the kind of Democracy that is being preached and paraded under the democratic banner today." He added that he had been a Democrat until 1940, when he was opposed to breaking the third term tradition and supported the Republican nominee. It was in 1940 that Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for a third term.

PIONEER RANCHER CLAIMED

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 28 (AP) —A member of the ranching Waggoner family of Texas, John L. Waggoner, 78, died last night at his Wise county ranch near Decatur. He was the nephew of Dan Waggoner, who founded a Texas ranching empire. John Waggoner operated ranches in Wichita and Wise counties. He had lived here more than 50 years.

Police Arrest Theft Suspect

The old adage concerning the return to the scene of a crime was demonstrated late Tuesday night at the fairgrounds. Gene Pope of Abernathy was reporting to Sgt. J. T. Alley, jr., of the police department concerning a man prowling in cars in the parking area, and said that a tire and wheel and a .22 rifle had been removed from his car.

While they were still talking, a car and man returned to the parking area. Pope pointed him out to the officer as the prowler in question. The man, a 34-year-old Anton resident, allegedly admitted taking the tire and tube.

Other Thefts Reported

At the police station, the rifle was found under the seat of the suspect's car, along with a special officers badge of the Lubbock Police department. The goods stolen from Pope were returned to him at the station.

Chick Fowler and Bob Clodfelter reported theft of a quantity of clothing valued at about $75 from a room at the rear of 1512 Ave. N. On the missing list were two sport coats, a corduroy jacket, one pair of trousers and five shirts.

Mrs. Frank Whiting of 2211 Seventh street reported that a ladies purse containing personal papers and a small amount of change had been stolen from her at an address in 2000-block of Eighth street.

Two juvenile brothers, 15 and 13, were held last night by county officials in connection with theft of batteries and a number of other items. Their arrest by two city policemen followed identification by a man to whom the boys had sold part of the stolen goods.

The 15-year-old boy was living with relatives in Lubbock, and the other was reported to be a runaway from relatives in Big Spring.

D. A. Bandeen, secretary and general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who spoke on West Texas water, laid stress on the fact that the WTCC has set up an advisory board of water engineers for the purpose of helping without charge any and all West Texas towns and cities to make surveys of their water resources with an eye toward possible future developments.

The service directors of the WTCC, L. A. Wilke of Abilene, spoke briefly on soil conservation, farm-to-market roads, and municipal water supplies.

Two other brief talks were made by Herbert Hilburn, editor of the Plainview Herald, and Hamlin Overstreet of Farwell, past president of the WTCC.

Present at the meeting were 75 men from the following town in the district: Amherst, Brownfield, Crosbyton, Farwell, Floydada, Hale Center, Levelland, Littlefield, Lockney, Lubbock, Muleshoe, Plainview, Post, Ralls Slaton, Springlake, Spur, Tahoka, and Tulia.

The WTCC officials will go from here to Panhandle to conduct a similar project clinic Wednesday. Other meetings in the area will be held in Quanah Thursday and in Decatur Friday.

Monetary Fund Members Warned To Check Inflation, Hike Output

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (U.P.)—The international monetary fund warned member nations today that world recovery efforts may fail unless they step up production and check inflationary trends.

The fund declared that recovery programs may be "frustrated" unless member governments balance their budgets and take other steps against inflation.

In a 125-page report submitted to the annual meeting of the 47-member organization, the fund told inflation-swamped governments to cut expenses, keep taxes up and encourage savings.

Recovery Plan Endorsed

The fund heartily endorsed the European recovery program and called it "of vital importance to all countries." But the reports said there is no single simple solution to the worldwide shortage of U.S. dollars.

"The European countries must themselves place their economies on a self-sustaining basis and carry through the policies necessray to complete recovery."

The report noted that nearly all European countries have boosted their production above prewar levels. But it urged "a further expansion of production" to provide surplus goods for dollar-making exports.

The report listed foreign exchange transactions totaling $544,000,000 from July 1, 1947 to April 30, 1948. U. S. dollars were sold at official fund rates to Belgium, Chile, Denmark, France, India, Mexico, the Netherlands, Norway, Turkey and England.

Cooperation Urged

Annual meetings of members of the monetary fund and its companion group, the International Bank for Reconstruction, got under way here yesterday. Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yun-We, chairman of the board of governors of both groups, called for cooperation among all nations to work for world-wide economic stability.

Sir Stafford Cripps, British chancellor of the exchequer, told the group that: "we must not allow ourselves to be discouraged" by difficulties created by "the stresses and strains of the international situation."

In a message read by Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder, President Truman declared that "conditions of economic stability and prosperity throughout the world depend upon the cooperative effort of all nations."

ABILENE, Sept. 28. (AP)—The 1949 March of Dimes campaign will be the greatest one ever conducted, Ed S. Stewart of Abilene Texas state chairman for the 1949 drive, said yesterday.

Stewart returned yesterday from the national conference of March of Dimes chairmen in Atlanta, Ga. He said a big drive was necessary to replenish the dangerously low funds of the national foundation for infantile paralysis.

Estimates are that this may be a record breaking year for polio cases, even surpassing the 1946 total of 17,363 cases, Stewart said.

GOP Holds Popular Vote Margin In Illinois, New Survey Shows

BY GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 28.—Illinois, which Roosevelt won in the last four elections, today gives a clear popular vote advantage to the Dewey-Warren ticket.

Institute interviewers throughout the state asked a scientific cross-section of voters this question:

"If the presidential election were being held TODAY how would you vote—for Truman or Dewey?"

ILLINOIS
(28 electorial votes)

Dewey	49%
Truman	40
No opinion	11

Neither President Truman nor Governor Dewey plan any campaign speeches in the state. Henry A. Wallace, presidential candidate of the Progressive Party will appear in Chicago, October 15.

GALLUP

Illinois voters in the survey reported today were not asked whether they would vote for Wallace. As of the moment, under a State Supreme Court ruling, Progressive Party electors will not appear on the ballot. This decision came on an appeal to the court based on constitutional grounds; that is, the Progressive Party claimed that the present Illinois election law in regard to the number of signatures necessary for a new party is unconstitutional.

Progressives in Illinois have taken new action before the State Supreme Court to obtain an order to the Board of Elections to show cause why the Party's electors should not be on the ballot. The party claims that it obtained enough signatures under the law to qualify.

Progressive Party candidates for local offices and four congressional nominees will have places on the Cook County ballot. Unless the Board of Elections is overruled, however, ballots in the rest of the state will carry no mention of the party's nominees.

Presidential election results in Illinois have in recent years closely followed the national voting pattern, being a shade less Democratic than the country as a whole.

In the last four presidential elections, for example, the Democratic vote in Illinois ranged from 2.1 to 3.8 percentage points below the national Democratic portion of the major party vote. The following table shows this interesting trend:

PER CENT DEMOCRATIC

Elections	Illinois	United States
1932	56.8%	59.1%
1936	59.2	62.5
1940	51.2	55.0
1944	51.7	53.8

In the last 12 presidential elections Illinois gave pluralities to the Democratic candidate five times and the Republican nominee seven times.

Cook county, which contains the city of Chicago, has more voters than any county in the country. In 1944 it had a greater total of Democratic and Republican voters than any single state except New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio and California. Despite the fact that 58 per cent of the voters in Cook County were Democrats, only six states, outside of Illinois, had more Republican voters.

Paris Fire Chief Dies While Fighting Apartment House Blaze

PARIS, Sept. 28. (UP)—Funeral arrangements were pending today for Chester B. Kemp, 51, Paris fire chief who died of a heart attack last night while fighting a fire.

Kemp collapsed on the fire escape of an apartment house during the fire in which an 80-year-old woman died of suffocation.

She was identified as Mrs. John Bishop.

Fireman J. D. Thomas said Mrs. Bishop was hard of hearing and could not hear the pounding on her door by persons trying to tell her of the fire.

The door was locked on the inside, he said, and she apparently did not know of the fire until she was overcome by fumes. Her body was found on the floor of her kitchen.

The fire broke out shortly after 9 p. m. in the three-story frame apartment building.

The two upper stories were burned away, but the first story was only slightly damaged.

Livestock, Agriculture Awards Announced

Hereford Group Winners Named

Taking championship honors Tuesday in the Hereford division of the livestock department of the Panhandle-South Plains fair here were Bob Domino 13, owned by W. D. Collier of Ralls, in the bull class, and Miss Rupert 44, owned by Arledge Ranch of Seymour, in the female class.

Results were tabulated Tuesday following completion of judging in that division late Monday. Judging was done by W. L. Stangel, dean of the division of agriculture at Texas Tech college.

Hereford Show Revived

Judging in other divisions was under way Tuesday. Jason O. Gordon, former county agent, is general superintendent of the livestock department, and Gerald Collier is superintendent of the Hereford division.

Hereford entries were accepted by the fair this year for the first time in recent years, indicating an expansion in prize money in the future into the beef classes of livestock. Prior emphasis has been placed by dairy types and the combination beef-dairy milking shorthorn.

Reserve championship in Hereford bulls this year was won by Bilt Rite Rupert 28, owned by Arledge Ranch, and the reserve champion female was Miss Royal Tone, owned by R. T. Alexander and Son of Canadian.

Judging results in the Hereford division were announced by Collier as follows:

LUBBOCK MORNING AVALANCHE

Lubbock, Texas, Wednesday, September 29, 1948

Check Forgery Is Investigated

A 34-year-old expectant mother was released upon her own recognizance Tuesday afternoon to report back today in connection with an investigation into forgery of a $40 check passed Tuesday morning to Furr Food Store No. 3.

Assistant District Attorney A. W. Salyars said the woman made a statement that she had forged three checks.

She said her husband had gone to another part of Texas to the funeral of his mother, who had died in an automobile crash. His father, it was understood, was seriously injured in the mishap.

The woman allegedly left the store in a taxicab which was followed by Chief. Dep. Sheriff George Eubank and Dep. Sheriff Frank Mitchell. The arrest was in 2000-block Main, where the suspect lives.

To File Complaint

A complaint, it was indicated, will be filed in the justice court of C. E. Lynn for grand jury investigation.

Sheriff Houser of South Bend, Ind., informed officials here that James D. Meister, charged here Sept. 23 upon oath of his divorced wife with desertion of two minor children, is in custody there and had agreed informally to waive extradition. However, Sheriff Houser explained, Meister had asked permission to pay for three months' child support, a period in which he allegedly is in arrears, and remain in South Bend, where he has a job. No decision definitely had been announced.

Thefts Are Reported

The sheriff's department Tuesday morning was investigating a rural burglary, and police said several theft reports had been made to that agency.

Two batteries were removed from an irrigation well house on the L. A. Howard farm two miles west of Idalou, and two deputies sheriff, George Eubank and Raymond Land, had gone there to investigate.

Radio Is Stolen

A $66.85 radio and electrical connections were stolen from the car of Loy Hubbard of 1007 Ave. S.

Dean Witt of Lubbock route 6 said a woman's purse and a billfold were stolen from his car, parked in 1600-block Fifteenth. Cash totaling $3 and important papers, including draft and naval

Dr. Jones To Speak At Student Meeting

First Convocation Is Set At Tech Today

The first student convocation of the year at 10 o'clock this morning in the gymnasium at Texas Technological college will be highlighted by introduction of student council officers, the new girl cheer leader, election of class officers, and the first official introduction to the student body of Dr. E. N. Jones, recently appointed vice-president, who will make the principal address.

In addition to these, Curtis Sterling of Clarendon, president of the Saddle Tramps, will speak to the students on "School Spirit."

Introductions Slated

Student council members to be introduced by Clint Formby, president of the Student Council, are George Wilmouth, of Claude, vice-president, Bill Reid, of Clarendon, business manager, and Margaret Clark, of Van Horn, secretary. Glenna Winston, of Brownfield, chosen by the student council meeting Monday night, is the new girl cheer leader to be presented to the students, and she will, in turn, announce her choice of a sister leader.

James G. Allen, dean of men and chairman of the convocations committee will open the meeting with a short welcoming address and an introduction of Formby. Formby will speak to the students on student council actions in the past and future.

The Texas Tech band will play marches before the convocation, and will close the meeting with a presentation of the "Matador Song," according to Professor D. O. Wiley, director.

Officers To Be Elected

Election of a president, vice-president and secretary for each of the classes will take place immediately following the convocation proper, when students gather separately in designated places for this purpose, Formby said. These elections will serve as a primary, and will be subject to run-off results except when one student receives a majority in the primary or is unopposed for office, he added.

For election of class officers, freshmen will remain in the gymnasium, sophomores will report to room C-101 in the Chemistry building, juniors to the Engineering auditorium and seniors will gather in the Aggie auditorium.

John Nance Garner First Broke With Roosevelt Over Recognition Of Russia, New Book Reveals

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (INS)—John Nance Garner's long disagreement with the late President Roosevelt was disclosed today to have stemmed from U. S. Recognition of Russia.

The former vice president vigorously opposed recognition in 1933, and told Roosevelt:

"These Communists have established a stable government. There is no doubt about that. But they have done it by one blood purge after another, behind closed doors, of which the world has had very slim reports.

"I wouldn't be in any hurry to recognize that sort of regime."

Circumstances of the dispute are set forth in a new book, "Garner of Texas," by Bascom M. Timmons, Washington newspaperman.

Timmons said the Russian recognition question caused their only serious disagreement in the first FDR administration. Timmons continued:

"The last two years of the second administration saw them in almost constant disagreements.

"From Garner's standpoint the reasons were: Bigger-than-ever spending programs; use of relief funds for political purposes; what Garner thought was Roosevelt's complete left-wing swing; Roosevelt's ever greater ambition for personal power; what Garner regarded as the coddling of Communists and fellow travelers and their infiltration into the government; and disagreements over executive nominations."

Garner was quoted as saying in 1936:

"In my opinion the kind of party Roosevelt seems to want to build up would not survive the next election after he was off the ticket. He wants to build up a personal party."

Despite disagreements, they remained on speaking terms. At the time of the German-Russian invasion of Poland, Garner is quoted as remarking to FDR:

"You haven't much choice, Cap'n. Either Hitler or Stalin would conquer and subjugate the world. Hitler by force and Stalin by chicanery, corruption, treachery and undermining."

Although describing Roosevelt as a "charming fellow" in one connection, Garner is represented in the book as having little admiration for the late president. He is quoted as calling Roosevelt a "chatterbox," who spoke 500 words for every one he listened to. He even questioned whether FDR was adroit politically, ascribing his rise instead to circumstances of the depression.

On the other hand, Garner is represented as speaking highly of Herbert Hoover. The Texan is quoted as saying:

"I think Herbert Hoover today is the wisest statesman on world affairs in America. He may be on domestic affairs, too."

Garner is further quoted as saying that the presidency should be limited to two terms, and that it would be a good idea if the country also put a different political party in power every four or eight years.

Mrs. Douglas Stokes Is 'Queen For Day'

Lubbock Woman To Get Home Recorder, Many Other Prizes

By OPAL DIXON
Avalanche Staff Writer

Winner of the "Queen for a Day" program at the Panhandle-South Plains fair Tuesday, Mrs. Douglas E. Stokes of 1908 Ave. K, will receive the answer to her wish, along with a trip to Salina, Kas., and numerous other prizes.

Her wish was for a home recorder, which she will use in making records of the voices of herself and four-year-old daughter, Linda Jo, to send to their husband and father, who is a technical sergeant in the Army Air Forces and is stationed on Guam.

To Visit In Kansas

She will leave by airplane Thursday for Salina, Kas., as guest of the "Queen for a Day" show, to be guest of honor at the Junior Chamber of Commerce Horse show. Her other gifts include a scepter, pin, pearls, manicure set, hat, gloves, suit, two dresses, photograph, ironer, pressure pan and a food package which will be sent to Europe.

Mrs. Stokes, who is blue eyed, brown haired and five feet tall, was wide-eyed as she sat back of the stage after the show, wearing her queen's robe and crown, and reflected on the awards she would receive.

She is to be accompanied to Salina by her sister, Mrs. Guy Manning of 1606 Twenty-ninth. Each winner of the "Queen for a Day" program may take someone with her as show guest on her trip. "I haven't even been able to talk to her. She's so excited," Mrs. Manning said of her sister late Tuesday afternoon.

The destination of the trip is a surprise each day. The trip given to the winner of today's show, which will be presented from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the fair grandstand, will be to a diffenert place

Any woman may write a wish on a card at the entrance to the grandstand before today's program. Twenty-one will be chosen as candidates, on basis of the question they submit. From the 21, five will be chosen as finalists. The remaining 16 will serve as judges to select two from the five. Audience applause will determine winner of the two.

The show is broadcast over the Mutual network, local outlet of which is KCBD, Jack Bailey is master of ceremonies.

Approximately 3,000 persons were present for Tuesday's show.

Mrs. Patricia Huntington of Veterans Village was runner-up and will receive the answer to her wish, a new suit for her husband, who is a graduate student at Texas Technological college. She also will receive a vacuum cleaner.

Other Contestants Named

Others among the five finalists were Mrs. Lorraine Martin of 1519 Twenty-third, who asked for bathroom door; Mrs. J. J. Tipps of 1919 Ave. Q, who expressed wish for a second honeymoon, and Mrs. Randa Matthews of Petersburg, who said her husband had gone hunting and planned to bring home a bear and she wanted to learn how to cook a bear.

Each received a prize.

Mrs. Jean Miller of Plainview, who was chosen "Queen for a Day" Monday, added another to her list of firsts when she and her husband, Ernie Miller, jr., left by Continental airlines for Hollywood, Calif., Tuesday morning. The trip was one of her awards.

Continental airlines presented Mrs. Miller with an orchid, which she said was her first orchid, before she stepped aboard the plane for her first airplane ride, which will take her out of the state of Texas for her first time.

She and her husband stayed at Hilton hotel Monday night and it was her first time to stay at a hotel.

B. Ridgely Mills, city traffic manager of Continental airlines, escorted Mr. and Mrs. Miller onto the plane. Leroy Land, who had escorted them around in the city, was present.

BERLIN CRISIS ALTERS VIEWS

Cripps Indicates Europe Union Idea Gaining Favor In London

By GEORGE DURNO
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Britain's top financial man, Sir Stafford Cripps, today indicated that Londan may be looking more favorably o nthe idea of a "United States of Europe" in view of the Russian crisis.

Cripps told an overflow audience at the National Press club that Great Britain was looking to the possibility of "international government"—not merely "international cooperation."

Such a proposal was made recently by France and given the official blessing of the U. S. government.

Atlee Opposed Plan

At that time, British Prime Minister Clement Atlee said the idea was premature.

This was before the break between East and West which is placing Soviet Russia on trial before the United Nations for threatening world peace in Berlin.

The British chancellor of the exchequer reviewed progress of the Marshall aid program in Europe—which he said was a beginning, not an end, of European recovery—and said:

"We have set up a council of top-ranking cabinet ministers under the chairmanship of that great European Mr. Spaak, to carry out this great experiment in international government—not international consultation by international government — and we must see to it that this instrument of cooperation that we have created is given every opportunity to prove its effectiveness in action."

Paris Meeting Held

Belgian Prime Minister Paul Henri Spaak heads the council of 19 western European states dealing with America's $6 billion program.

Following his speech, in a question and answer session, Sir Stafford was asked whether the current west European rearmament program would necessitate a revival of American military lend-lease, particularly for Britain. Cripps replied:

"That is not a question I would like to discuss. It depends entirely on future political developments, and they are not in my hands."

Representatives of Great Britain, France and the Low Countries comprising the "western union" military alliance, met in Paris yesterday with observers from the United States and Canada present.

Cripps discussed at length the need of Europe to achieve viability—the "coming to life," he said:

"I should be less than frank with you if I were to suggest that is going to be an easy thing to do, especially in such critical and unsettled times. For do not forget that these 19 countries have no common language, no monetary or financial system, and widely different economic systems."

The British treasury head ridiculed the thought that Britain was contemplating a devaluation of the pound to meet present day economic conditions. He said:

"We have no idea whatever of doing such a thing. That would merely increase the value of our imports and decrease the value of our exports."

Hale Center Methodist Church Is Presented Electric Organ

HALE CENTER, Sept. 28. (Spl.)—Mrs. J. M. Willson and her four children, of Floydada, have presented the new Methodist church here with a Hammond electric organ as a memorial to the R. E. Terry family, pioneers of Hale Center.

Mrs. Willson is a relative of the late Mr. Terry and Mrs. Terry, who now lives in Dallas. Rev. W. W. Adcock, minister, has announced that the organ will be in use by the first week in October, and will be played for church services by Hrs. Herschel Williams.

RIDING THE FENCE—If anyone tries to slip over the fence into the Panhandle-South Plains Fair, he'll soon find that the fences are adequately patrolled on horseback. Under direction of Deputy Sheriff John Barnett who has done this work at fairs for nearly 15 years, the men above and their horses "ride the fences" continuously. Left to right, on their horses, are Barnett, L. E. Byrd, Bud Reynolds, Tom Ansley, H. T. Moore, Kenneth Lofland, Fred Self and Alex Sharff. (Staff Photo).

THE RIGHT ACTION

HST And Louisiana

DISREGARDING bias, prejudice, motives and methods involved, the action of the Louisiana legislature to insure that the Truman electors will appear on the general election ballot in that state in November conforms to the American precept of democracy.

No matter how they may feel personally about individual candidates, most Americans will agree that Louisianans wanting to support Mr. Truman should have the opportunity to do so.

The same attitude exists as to all states and all political parties. It is not Americanism to seek the defeat of men or measures by denying, or restricting, the opportunity of individuals to vote their preferences.

It would be no more right to try to deny Louisianans the opportunity to vote for Mr. Truman than it is for the New Dealers of Texas to try to refuse Texans the privilege of supporting the State's Right ticket. Such restrictions are both un-American and un-Democratic.

Welcome, Ringling!

LUBBOCK and the South Plains always greet Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus with a "whoop and a holler."

This area is probably "the greatest circus country on earth," and when "The Greatest Show on Earth" comes to town, everybody's happy.

But this year, the people of this section of West Texas and of neighboring Eastern New Mexico have even more reason to toss their hats in the air over the big show's being in Lubbock, because this year the circus is playing at the Panhandle-South Plains fair—helping to make the fair the biggest success it ever has been in its 30-year history.

John Ringling North, Henry Ringling North and Arthur M. Concello, the principal owners and "big bosses" of the Ringling show, could have set up their tents at a location removed from the fairgrounds and by so doing injured the fair more than they would have their own gate. But, instead, they chose to co-operate with the fair because, as General Manager Concello puts it, "we have the same friendly interest in your institutions which we hope and believe the people here have in ours."

So Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus is here today, on the grounds of the Panhandle-South Plains fair—breaking all modern precedents, because RBB&B years ago adopted a policy of not playing behind fair gates anywhere.

We believe the people of this area appreciate the attitude of the Messrs. North and Concello; we believe the good will the great circus always has had here is increased and we are happy to pass along to the heads of RBB&B the appreciation of all concerned for their co-operation.

Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus is a big show, physically—and just as big in its attitude toward its patrons.

Things are returning to normalcy. The easy-payment plan is again with us.

When a man hitches himself to a Hollywood star, he doesn't seem to remain hitched for long.

Tryst

(THE STORY: A mysterious locked room on the top floor of Nuns Farthing, a rented country house, fascinates dreamy 17-year-old Sabrina. Father and Aunt Effie tell her the room belongs to one of the owner's sons and they are not to have the use of it. Sabrina questions Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, who says the room is always kept locked when "he" is not at home. Curiosity overpowers Sabrina and one rainy day she manages to pick the lock. The knob turns, the door opens, and she steps inside . . . Sabrina, Father and Aunt Effie first arrived at Nuns Farthing in March. A damp, chilly wind was blowing off the hills.)

II

IT was not a lovely house, at Sabrina's first sight of it, standing gaunt and gray against a barren hillside in the chill early twilight of that March day. Nothing much had been done about the garden, though a few bulbs seemed to be coming up. It was hardly late enough for lights, and the many casement windows watched them blankly as they came around the curve of the drive.

The housekeeper opened the door to them, and remarked that the fires never drew right in that wind. They switched on the electric light and walked about in a somewhat smoky atmosphere with their coats still on, looking hopefully into the strange rooms which enigmatically awaited their scrutiny; comfortably furnished rooms, clothed in chintz and good velour, well lighted and uncluttered with cast-off belongings of the family. Bella sniffed and scrabbled in the corners, and Aunt Effie said it really wasn't bad, and Sabrina—Sabrina shook and shivered like a little racehorse at the post as she crossed the threshold.

Home.

A spacious hall, with a wide oak staircase rising from its middle. Paneled walls, rather gloomy. Two big drawing - rooms, one opening into the gaden, and a library which was already Father's own exclusive den. A long dining-room opening off the back of the hall, with family portraits and a cold white marble mantelpiece. The kitchens and so forth lay beyond it. Upstairs, a central passage with rooms off either side. Nine bedrooms. Aunt Effie popping open doors, muttering busily to herself, efficiently questioning the housekeeper, while Bella pattered at her heels, gave Sabrina her choice of two. The first one had blue - and - white flowered wallpaper and chintzes, a window seat with a long view down the garden in blue twilight, a four-poster bed with chintz hangings—Sabrina drew a long sigh and pulled off her hat and tossed it into the armchair beside the dressing-table.

"This is it," she said simply, and for some childish reason she could not understand there was a lump in her throat and she wanted to cry.

"Well, just as you like, dear—Jennie will bring up your bag in a few minutes. Jennie is the housemaid," said Aunt Effie, and bustled away.

SABRINA walked over and pulled the chain of the bedside lamp, which cast an amber glow across the plump bolster. A book lay on the little table beneath it—just a novel, not very new, but suitable for reading in bed, as though the room had been expecting her. There were more books in built-in shelves beyond the bed. There was a writing-table, stocked with notepaper and pens and ink. Blue glass toilet things. Her room. Waiting for her. With a coal fire grate, and everything laid ready for the match. Her own coal fire in her own room. . . .

Aunt Effie put her head in at the open door.

"You and I will use the bathroom at the end of the passage," she said. "Opposite the upper stairs. Father can have the one next door to the big bedroom, all to himself. That will save trouble" she added darkly. "I'll be just across from you, in the green room. Come Bella, we'll find a place for your basket now." She vanished again.

It was when she went along the passage to look up the bathroom that Sabrina first noticed the other flight of stairs with that locked door at the top, and was caught peeking. The house, in its spaciousness and dignity and the simple comfort of its furnishings—what Aunt Effie called good value—was perfect in Sabrina's eyes. The exaltation of arrival was subsiding gently into a sense of deep satisfaction, and a healthy fatigue. But the riddle of the locked room was the finishing touch. And the room was actually mentioned in the lease as not being available for use by any possible tenants.

IT was not until several weeks had passed that Sabrina began not to be able to stop thinking about the room all day long.

She made a pretext for hunting up Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, and then lingered in the passage outside the kitchen.

"By the way," said Sabrina, elaborately casual, "have you got a key to that room—the one that's locked?"

"I have," said Mrs. Pilton.

"Could I see it some time—the room, I mean?"

"There's nothing much to see," said Mrs. Pilton. "He's got his books there, mostly—and the sort of odds and ends a man collects."

"Books," Sabrina's interest quickened.

"He's a great one to read," admitted Mrs. Pilton.

"So am I," Sabrina informed her eagerly. "I'd like to see his books sometime."

"I'm afraid I couldn't let you

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

DO you know that more than 300,000 boys and girls of many ages will be enrolling in art schools during this year?

Do you know that almost everyone of them has dreams of becoming another Rembrandt or Picasso or Grant Wood?

BRANDEIS

Mind you, the great majority of these potential immortals consider commercial art — by some of them called that branch of the arts by which one can make a living — far beneath them.

Their dreams and their ambitions have nothing to do with such sordid things as cigarets, breakfast foods or automobiles.

Tell them that some of the artists who do those wonderful illustrations for magazine ads get as much as $5,000 for each of them.

They'll sneer at you and say "Not for me. I want to be a real artist. I want to paint flowers and mountains and trees and a blue sky."

So that is why, wherever you live, you see those paintings of marigolds and roses and peonies in vases. That is why you see sand dunes and sea gulls and wild ducks and geese flying all over living room walls and store windows from Ogunquit, Maine, to Sacramento, California.

Just the other day we visited the home of a couple who had recently moved here from Ohio.

On the living room wall, in an expensive frame, there was the conventional painting of bananas, apples, grapes and pears, stiffly arranged in a bowl.

It happened that I had seen practically the very same painting in the home of someone else whom I had visited a few months ago.

That someone else had also once been an aspirant for fame but settled for a husband, a good home and three lovely children, also in Ohio.

But, during my visit, she had told me of her dreams and mentioned the art school she had attended.

SO, as I admired the fruit ensemble in this home we visited the other day, I casually asked the lady "Didn't you study at the Soandso School in Soandso, Ohio?"

She looked astounded.

"Yes, but how did you know?" she exclaimed.

"Oh, I happen to recognize the style," I said nonchalantly, and may St. Peter not bar the gate to me for this little hypocrisy.

You should have seen the satisfaction on my hostess' face. It seemed that, though she had to sacrifice art for housekeeping, she felt that her aspirations had not been in vain.

Very few of these 300,000 art students will ever become famous. Very few will ever make a living at fine art.

Many will go into advertising but still dream of the Elysian fields of landscapes and bananas.

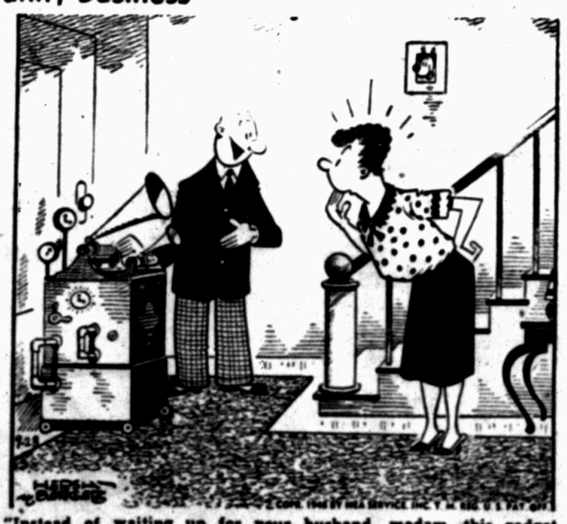

But all will have gained much by their urge to express themselves.

Self-expression! Without it life is dull. With it even a hot kitchen stove can become a pyre of beauty.

Never be afraid to express yourself. Never stop expressing yourself. Whether by word, by paint brush, by song, by typewriter.

That is the stuff dreams are made of. And dreams are the stuff that life is made of.

IF DEWEY ELECTED

FBI Head On Spot

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—J. Edgar Hoover's friends are passing out the private word that he may not be retained as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the event of Governor Thomas E. Dewey's election as President.

Among the reasons listed for his possible demotion or disappearance from the federal service are the F. B. I.'s alleged political handling of the investigation into the Pendergast machine's vote frauds in Missouri and his failure to dig up enough evidence to warrant indictments of notorious Communists by the blue ribbon grand jury sitting in New York.

TUCKER

Moreover, Mr. Hoover now ill with bronchial pneumonia, has been closely identified with the Roosevelt - Truman Administrations. Although he got his big start up the ladder under Calvin Coolidge, he was virtually an unknown until his authority and jurisdiction were broadened and strengthened by anti-crime laws enacted during the New Deal's first years.

As an experienced criminal attorney, prosecutor and racket-buster, Governor Dewey might want one of his New York or Albany associates to take over the post now filled by Mr. Hoover, according to the suspicions of the latter's cronies.

WARNED: However, Mr. Hoover will not be fired by Mr. Dewey, although his wings may be clipped under an Administration headed by such old police hands as Governor Dewey and Governor Earl Warren of California and it may find it expedient to resign.

As head of two of the nation's greatest commonwealths, they have seen at first hand how the federal sleuth's yen for headlines has damaged morale among their state and local enforcement officers.

The G.O.P. does not blame Mr. Hoover for lack of federal action against Missouri politicians or the "Commies" who paraded before the New York body. They have charged that he was under orders from Attorney General Tom Clark to pull his punches and, as a loyal public official, he had to obey his superiors. And, insofar as he could he has given assistance to the Parnell Thomas investigators on Capitol Hill.

The F. B. I. head will not be discharged by an incoming Republican administration for the realistic reason that his masterful management of publicity has made him a headline hero. There would be nationwide resentment if he were let out for what seemed to be political considerations. But he will be warned not to grab credit for arrests made, tips provided and cases broken by the local politzei.

AIMS: Oscar R. Ewing will continue to make political speeches for the Truman-Barkley ticket, although his recent Richmond address has been generally assailed as "shameful" because of its blatant bid for negro votes.

He told the non-political National Urban League, which consists of whites and blacks, that the colored people would be "betraying their race" if they did not cast their ballot for the President. Together with other racial incidents, his appeal may toss Virginia into the Republican column.

Federal Security Administrator Ewing naturally hopes for reelection of the Chief Executive who appointed him to his present office. But the real reason for his excessive political activity is that he aims at the Democratic nomination for Mayor of New York at the expiration of Mayor O'Dwyer's term, provided the latter does not run again. There has been talk that Mr. O'Dwyer might seek the Governorship or a seat in the U.S. Senate.

COMPLAINTS: Mr. Ewing, who rarely visits his office, is using it as a political springboard. In a recent reshuffling of regional directors of F.S.A. he filled at least half of the posts with political friends. Like himself, they are taking an active part in the campaign. Letters to the White House and to members of Congress are filled with complaints against their performance.

The Federal Security administrator's value as a campaign stumper is lessened by precedents established before he took office. He cannot sign any old-age, unemployment insurance or other social security checks, thereby making friends among the beneficiaries. Nor can he take even a peek at the names of people on F.S.A.'s rolls.

When former Congressman Martin Davey of Ohio tried to obtain the names of Buckeye State beneficiaries in a political contest several years ago, the F.S.A. ruled that its lists should be kept secret and confidential.

WORRY: Army-Navy-Air bigwigs are having a battle with the White House and Budget Director Webb over the size of national defense appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, which are now in the making. They have lost the first round, but they are dragging out detailed discussions until the end of the current conference of Foreign Ministers and sub-Ministers at Paris.

Should this get-together and the seemingly futile powwow at Moscow end with no definite or basic agreement with the Kremlin, the big brass may win reversal of the recent decision, under which they are restricted to a maximum of fifteen billions instead of the eighteen which they wanted.

Although they cannot submit this argument in their meetings with President Truman and Director Webb, they point out among themselves that Mr. Truman should not worry about the extra three billion, which may mean the difference between a balanced and an unbalanced budget.

"After all," say the supposedly non-political officers involved, "the 1950 budget will be Dewey's worry, not Harry Truman's."

STRAIN: But even the proposed fifteen billions may be only a paper figure, unless the national defense spokesmen win out over Messrs. Truman and Webb. They want to include in that sum one or two billions for ship construction, maintenance of 243 stand-by munitions plants, atomic research and several other items not regarded as strictly military, naval or air expenditures or responsibilities.

The financial strain which Stalin has imposed on the United States, not only for the current period but possibly for years ahead, is measured in the size of our defense spending. It has been expected that these funds would total only seven billion at the most with the termination of hostilities, as against the fifteen, eighteen or twenty billions foreseen for the future. And those unrosy figures take no account of the cost of a possible "shooting war."

OFFICIAL: The writer is advised by several editorial friends in the South that the official name of the Thurmond-Wright organization is the "States Rights Party." The title "Dixiecrats," which was pinned on this anti-Truman faction by a newspaperman in the early days, has been disclaimed officially.

It was a wise thing the old world wasn't created on an hourly basis. The chances are they would still be working on it.

Believe It Or Not -- By Robert Ripley

ACT RUN SMOOTHLY IN WEST

Dewey Campaign Well Planned

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WITH GOVERNOR DEWEY — To transfer from the campaign train of President Truman to that of Governor Dewey is like leaving a casual, free-and-easy stock company on tour, with its friendly, homey leading man who revises his lines to suit the occasion and even lectures his audience when he feels like speaking out, to join up with a slick New York musical whose leading man follows the script meticulously with a mechanical inevitability and wears a China doll smile that never wears off.

STOKES

Or, to change the simile, with the change of trains, Harry Truman is like that easy going grandpappy of whom he loves to speak, who sold knick-knacks to Indians and early settlers as he roved the early West, as contrasted with the more modern city feller who deals glibly and lavishly in land he never has seen, which, according to the crowd of the moment, might do for farms—if it would grow anything—or might possibly bear oil or gold—just possibly.

Act Now Smooth

This reporter, who traveled this same western circuit with the Dewey show four years ago, would like to note that this is distinctly a new and revised version. It has been polished up no end, almost too much, in fact. It is almost too mechanically perfect.

And the principles, for Mrs. Dewey now is very much a part of the act, have a new routine with new gestures and new stage effects. Tom Dewey can do things with his eyes and hands that one never suspected four years ago, and also has discovered new tricks with his deep and melodious voice which has been pronounced by radio engineers as perhaps the best on any circuit today, with a bottom and a top that register equally well—and that is something in this business.

Perhaps the acid test for any actor or would-be actor is to stand up in the Hollywood Bowl, up there alone, under the stars, against that brilliant back-drop, facing those rows of people who rise a myriad of spots in the darkness, upward to the rim, and among them whom there are always experts in show business.

Tom Dewey took the test and some of Hollywood's most talented players not only recognized an equal, but learned a few new tricks for the more formal, more solemn scenes in which they may have to appear later.

Unlike Harry Truman and his wife and daughter, who come into a meeting with the rest of their entourage and sit quietly on the platform while the local politicians go through the preliminaries, the Deweys always stage a delayed entrance, walking on to the platform or stage just the right number of seconds before the radio time begins, radiant and beaming like a bride and bridegroom in a musical extravaganza. The audience has been keyed up to the entrance not only by the anticipatory mention of the hero, but, finally, by the offstage whir from the unseen motorcycle escort and a last whine of their sirens, like an overture, to denote that curtain figuratively is about to go up and the Republican man of the hour to appear. The audience sits forward eagerly and the cue comes when tall Paul Lockwood, the Governor's faithful man Friday, rushes frantically to the front of the stage and places the precious manuscript of the forthcoming address on the reading stand at the front, fumbling nervously to have it just right.

In a great roar from the audience, with accompanying blasts from the band, the candidate of the Republican party stands, alone, before the crowd, smiling this way and that, finally raising his hands in a beneficient gesture to still the tumult—and the act begins.

Planned In Advance

Here before them, many in the audience think—and they may be fooled later—is the symbol of their long-delayed hopes for relief from the burden of New Dealism and the dawn of freedom under the free enterprise system.

These hopes have been built up in advance, either by comfortable and well-fed political orators who exude the prosperity of the moment as they complain bitterly about the last 16 years, or, as at Hollywood, by big name actors and actresses who come out and read the lines written for them, hoping they are true and that here, at last, may be the deliverer from the intolerable weight of taxation that bears down so heavily upon their well-tailored backs and their well-massaged shoulders, be they male or female, so that the swimming pool may be enlarged and a couple of more guest rooms added to the simple home in the canyons.

Governor Dewey fulfills their dreams, at least, in the physical perfection of his role and his sweet promises to end everybody's troubles. None ever performed better from that stage. As he pledges himself, "under these starry heavens," to change things in Washington, he looks upward and rolls his eyes like Elijah about to board the chariot of fire. As he denounces what has gone on in Washington, he brings his chin upward with a snap of his teeth and his eyes literally flash. For sly digs at the chicanery of Washington, he raises his eyebrows and grins archly. For his emphasis on "unity" and "marching along together" he folds his hands in a ministerial pose. Now and again he assumes the district attorney manner and shakes his finger angrily in the direction of Washington.

Eventually he is done and the crowd roars as he turns, graciously, and brings Mrs. Dewey to the front of the stage with him. At the Hollywood Bowl, the band appropriately struck up "God Save America." He pulled Mrs. Dewey forward in the circle of his arm, and the two stood there singing, like sweethearts in the finale, pretty picture indeed.

Hollywood never did it better.

Revival Of Inactive National Guard Announced By General

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the National Guard bureau, announced today the inactive National Guard will be revived soon.

The inactive National Guard, for which no provision was made after the World War II demobilization, will provide a reservoir of men, who because of work hours or other reasons are unable to take part in the active program.

It would permit them to enter active service without delay in the event of mobilization.

General Cramer said in a speech prepared for the national conference of the National Guard association:

"We are happy to announce that authority has just been received for the reinstitution of the inactive National Guard, the medium which in the days before the war introduced a factor of considerable flexibility into the operations of the National Guard.

"We shall implement this very shortly."

General Cramer said that by last June 30 the National Guard had more than 317,000 men, the greatest number in its history.

BONHAM, Sept. 28. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin early today destroyed a warehouse of the Jaques Power Saw company with a loss expected to exceed $75,000.

The building, formerly the mess hall at Jones Air field, a mile and a half north of town, housed engines, gasoline tanks, tires and parts for Jaques products.

MARKET STAGES RALLY

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—Rails and oils today provided the strength for a stock market rally of modest size.

Starting from the lowest level since early April, the market regained a little more than one-third of the sharp loss encountered yesterday.

Rails, closely followed by oils, stepped into higher ground shortly after the opening gong, and their combined action brought plus signs to most of the list.

Utilities were an exception. They moved narrowly most of the day and ended with small fractional gains and losses.

The volume of trading at 910,000 shares was disappointing to those looking for the conventional signs of underlying market strength. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced .6 of a point to 86.5. Both the industrials and rails were up .8 of a point, and utilities were unchanged.

Trading was a trifle broader than usual with 1,003 issues involved. Of these, 498 advanced and 291 declined. There were 79 new lows and no new highs for 1948 made during the day.

There was nothing in the foreign news budget that had a bearing on the market. The stock in realizing the seriousness of the impasse between Russia and western powers over the Berlin blockade apparently was absorbed yesterday.

At home, investors apparently decided the favorable reports on railroad net operating income in August was good reading. Major roads for the most part showed higher nets. Santa Fe declared an extra dividend of $2 in addition to the usual quarterly dividend of $1.50, the first extra paid in several years.

Rail stocks were fractions to more than 2 points higher. Santa Fe was up 2⅜ to 117¾. Southern Railway up 1⅛ at 43. Nickel Plate up ½ at 78¼, and Southern Pacific added ⅝ at 55⅞.

Phillips Petroleum announced a price increase of 35 cents a barrel for all crude it buys. Other major companies were noncommittal or said they contemplated no similar increase unless forced by competitive factors.

Phillips was up 2½ at 63, Richfield Oil up 1¼ at 31¾, Sinclair up 1⅛ at 24½, and Standard Oil (NJ) rose ¾ to 74¼. Others were up major fractions to around a point.

Grain

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Sept. 28 (AP) — Wheat—No. 1 hard 2.37½-2.42½.
Oats—No. 2 white 92¼-93¼.
Corn—No. 2 white 1.95-2.00.
Sorghums—No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. 2.37½-2.42½.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 28 (AP) — Commercial and commission house buying boosted grain futures prices today. Corn was up more than 3 cents a bushel and wheat about 2 cents at times.

Wheat closed 1 to 2¼ cents higher than the previous finish, December $2.25⅝-⅞, corn was up 2¼ to 3¼ cents, December $1.39-1.39¼, oats were ⅞ higher, December 73⅜-¾, and soybeans were 4⅜ to 5½ higher, December $2.40¼-½.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (AP) — Cotton futures were strong today in moderately active trading. Mill price fixing, the heaviest in more than two weeks, readily absorbed commission house selling and hedges.

Late afternoon prices were 75 cents to $1.25 a bale higher than the previous close. Oct. 31.54, Dec. 31.02 and March 30.82.

Futures closed 60 cents to $1.35 a bale higher than the previous close.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28 (AP) — Cotton futures advanced here today on trade buying and short-covering stimulated by the lack of first October notices and reports that large spot houses were ready to stop any tenders against that month.

Closing prices were steady 60 cents to $1.00 a bale higher.

Tryst

use them," Mrs. Pilton said firmly. "Even the family never touches his things. He's kept himself to himself, always."

"He sounds very mysterious and rather nice," suggested Sabrina cunningly.

"We don't see so much of him here since he's been grown," said Mrs. Pilton.

"Have you been at Nuns Farthing a long time?"

"Twenty years or more."

"Then you must have known him when he was a child."

"Oh, yes. He and Mr. George were always here for the summer holidays."

"Which of them is the elder?"

"Mr. George."

"Oh. I would like to see the room some time if you're not too busy—"

"I'm afraid not today, I've got the baking to see to."

Sabrina drifted away, feeling baffled. All that, and she had still not learned the name of this evasive creature whose room remained locked and whose things were not touched. Was he the family black sheep she wondered, and therefore unmentionable? Or was he the jealously guarded darling of them all? Impossible to discover which, from Mrs. Pilton's impassive face and noncommittal replies.

Only a few days after that, Sabrina climbed the upper stairs surrepititiously, to try the key of her own room in the lock. As she had expected, it refused to turn. And there were books in there that she felt sure she wanted to read. Thoughtfully she returned to her room, and her eyes were caught by a button-hook on the dressing-table, and a small pair of curved scissors. People even picked locks with hairpins. . . . She hadn't any hairpins. But Aunt Effie had. . . .

And now at last she stood inside the closed door, full of a pleasant wickedness, and looked about her.

CHIEF SPURNS PAY BOOST

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Police Chief J. W. Wheeler doesn't want a salary increase. He protested a $50 hike on the ground that it wouldn't be fair to other department heads. Wheeler says he likes Norman and has been "more satisfied here than any other place I have lived in my life."

Dillard To Appeal Conviction Here

Brewster E. Dillard, 37, who Tuesday morning was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, through his counsel excepted and gave notice of appeal to the court of criminal appeals.

Dillard was convicted of murder with malice in connection with the Nov. 1 shooting of Garlon Douglas Weaver, 39, at a service station on Texas Ave. The verdict was returned Saturday by a 99th district court jury of which John V. Shropshire was foreman. In a previous trial, last April, a jury failed to reach a verdict. A mistrial was declared.

Time Granted Defense

Judge G. V. Pardue Tuesday morning granted the defense 70 days from date in which to file a statement of facts and bills of exceptions, and Dillard and his sureties entered into a $5,000 recognizance with the court. His sureties were V. G. Allen, a prominent landowner, and Mrs. Alma Dillard, the defendant's mother.

Dillard's counsel, Burton S. Burks and J. E. Vickers, said they would order a transcript of records in the case Tuesday from District Clerk Royal Furgeson, the statement of facts from the court reporter.

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin appeared for the state at the sentencing.

Floydada Man Injured In Car Crash Shows Improvement

FLOYDADA, Sept. 28. (Special)—Alvie L. Jackson, 38, of Floydada, who Saturday morning was injured in a highway crash on the eastern outskirts of Floydada, and who since has been in a critical condition at Floydada Hospital, was reported by hospital attendants tonight to be "much improved," though still in critical condition. He was reported to be conscious part of the time.

Jackson, a farmer, suffered brain concussion, numerous cuts and bruises, and possible internal injuries, when the automobile driven by Orvid Stanton, 25, in which he was riding, struck the guard rail of a culvert and careened into a railroad signal post. Stanton, a painter, suffered head injuries, but was released from the hospital Monday afternoon.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

reserve cards, were reported taken.

Another purse, containing $25 and personal papers, including her marriage license, was reported stolen from Mrs. Roy Biggs of Comanche, in Lubbock. Police were informed of the description of a suspect.

Pistol Is Missing

A .38 pistol and an Army blanket were reported stolen from the automobile of Edward C. Gahl of 2413 Fourteenth.

Police said they had received a complaint from a Lubbock man that he had given $20 to another man in return for a promise to return with a bottle of whisky. The whisky was never delivered, he said—and neither was the $20. The suspect was described to investigators.

Two Are Fined

Police said they had fined two men $15 on each of two charges accusing them of drunkenness and use of abusive language toward arresting officials. One of them, investigators said, was carrying a toy pistol and a long knife.

Kenneth Willis, of dormitory 3 on Texas Tech campus, reported theft of fender skirts valued at about $25 from his 1942 Ford.

A leather purse, containing $1 in cash and a number of personal papers, was stolen from 1300 block Broadway, according to a report from John F. Case of 3112 North Fifth street.

Winners Named At Lamesa Fair

LAMESA, Sept. 28. (Special)—Main event of the Dawson county fair today was the judging of dairy cattle and swine, with results announced by the fair's general superintendent, T. A. Barfield. The fair opened here Monday.

The grand champion Jersey in the open division was exhibited by W. C. Taylor, the grand champion short-horn by L. O. Deatherage, and the grand champion female short-horn by Darrell Hanks.

Mickey Peterson exhibited the junior champion Jersey heifer in the junior division. No bulls were entered in the junior division, Barfield said.

Tech Man Is Judge

Swine show honors went to Royce Meyers, with the champion Poland China gilt; to Herschel, Raines with the champion boar, a 1000-pounder, in the Duroc-Jersey division; and to R. D. Spruiell, who exhibited the champion Duroc-Jersey female.

Carl Dyer of Texas Tech college, Lubbock, judged both events. Superintendent for the dairy cattle show was George Sealey, and for the swine show, Noel Cooper.

No judging is scheduled for Wednesday, Barfield said, but large crowds are expected to see the exhibits, all of which will remain on display. The grounds will open Wednesday at 1 p. m.

The cattle and hogs will be moved off the fair grounds Wednesday to make way for the second annual South Plains horse show Thursday, Barfield added. Numbers of entries from West Texas and New Mexico have been made in the horse show, which was a special feature of last year's fair.

Dog Belonging To Mexicans Is Sought For Rabies Check

Lubbock police were asked Tuesday noon by Chief of Police Martin Davis of Uvalde to broadcast description of a truck occupied by itinerant Mexicans—in efforts to determine whether a dog they were believed to have with them is mad.

Chief Davis said the dog had bitten three children at Uvalde two days ago and that the Mexicans had been requested to tie the animal up so that an observation period would determine whether he is infected. Instead, he said, they "took off."

The lives of the children may be at stake, the Uvalde officer said.

He asked that all officers be on lookout for the truck, a 1936 model with license MT 4033.

The Mexicans were believed to have left for the Lubbock section, Chief Davis said.

Driver of the truck was described as 32, five feet seven inches tall, weighing aproximately 150 pounds, and wearing a small mustache.

"He should have with him a black bulldog, the one which bit the children, and a white shaggy dog," he stated.

Four men who Monday afternoon were burned at the fuel division of Baker-Fleming Flash-O-Gas company at 3205 Ave. H, were reported Tuesday night by attendants at Lubbock Memorial hospital to be "doing fine."

Injured were Roy G. Montgomery, 27, of 235 Ave. H, Joe McMennamy, 25, of Veterans Village, Grady Jackson, 26 who gave his address as Lubbock, general delivery, and Austin Alexander, 36, a negro.

Montgomery and Alexander received first, second, and third degree burns of the face, neck, lower arms, and hands, and were suffering from shock, hospital authorities said.

McMennamy had first and second degree burns on the face, neck, and both hands, while Jackson had first and second degree burns of the face, hands, and right arm.

A fifth man, identified Tuesday morning as O. L. Stephens, was treated for first and second degree burns of the neck, face, and both hands, but was dismissed from the hospital.

Exposure time for taking an X-ray picture will be cut in half with use of a new high-speed X-ray intensifying screen now in production.
