The Easter Story

"He is risen" is the glad Easter shout of Christians. Jesus Christ, put to death on a cross on Friday, his body then placed in a tomb, appeared on Easter Sunday morning — once again alive.

Christians greet Easter as a miracle — the triumph of the Son of God over death — and as a time of the renewal of their own hope.

But just what is this hope? Life everlasting, immortality of soul, resurrection of the body?

And what is its basis?

The Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Kepler, a leading Protestant theologian, scholar, teacher and author, searchingly studies and clarifies the hope of Easter in his latest book, "The Meaning and Mystery of the Resurrection," excepts from which comprise this year's five-part Easter series, beginning Monday in The Herald.

The book is published by Association Press, copyrighted by the National Board of YMCAs.

Dr. Kepler writes about modern man — his fears of death, his various opinions that life after death can be proved, cannot be proved, does not exist, exists but must be accepted solely on faith.

He also carefully examines the writings of prominent theologians and the relevant research into such other-than-religious matters as clairvoyance and extra-sensory perception.

Finally, in a consideration of what we can hope, what we can believe and what we can know, Dr. Kepler focuses on the Resurrection itself and alanyzes it, in both its mystery and its reality.

DR. THOMAS S. KEPLER

Dr. Kepler Writes For Laymen

Dr. Kepler is a leading Protestant theologian, distinguished for his scholarship and for his ability to convey religious concepts in terms meaningful to the average layman.

For more than 15 years he has been professor of New Testament in the graduate school of theology at Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, and during that period has turned out 28 books, the latest of which is "The Meaning and Mystery of the Resurrection." He was associate editor of the "Interpreters Dictionary of the Bible," a four-volume set published in 1962.

The 65-year-old Dr. Kepler was born in Mount Vernon, Iowa. As a young man he served in World War 1 and for a brief time was a high school teacher and athletic director. After earning his doctor of divinity degree at Cornell College and a Ph.D at Boston University, he studied at Marburg University in Germany and earned a doctorate of sacred theology at Cambridge in England.

Although ordained a Methodist, he began his ministerial career as pastor of Pawtucket Congregational Church, Lowell, Mass. He taught at Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, and Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., before joining the Oberlin faculty.

Dr. Kepler is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, the American Theological Society

Neutralist, Leftist Laos Fights Erupt

Clash Could Grow Into Major Battle

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Fighting has erupted between neutralist and leftist troops in central Laos and the government began Saturday an airlift of women and children from the danger zone.

Clashes continued in the Plaine des Jarres and a Western diplomat said Saturday "The situation has changed very much for the worse in the past 24 hours."

"The outbreak involves regular neutralists and a neutralist faction increasingly identified with the pro-Communist Pathet Lao. Neutralists and Pathet Lao were left in joint occupation of the Plaine des Jarres area after the 1962 Geneva settlement intended to take this Southeast Asia kingdom out of the cold war.

VISITED AREA

The chairman of the three-power International Control Commission, India's Avtar Singh, visited the area during the day and told newsmen fighting is continuing. He said Gen. Kong Le, commander of the regular neutralists, was trying to arrange a Sunday cease-fire meeting with the Pathet Lao commander, Gen. Sinkapo.

Reports from various well-informed sources said the fighting had not grown beyond skirmishes, but a woman refugee arriving in Vientiane said "It's getting hot over there for a battle."

Three assassinations, including the slaying Monday of left-leaning Foregn Minister Quinim Pholsena, have been linked to the widening split in the ranks of the neutralists.

The rift dates back to last November, when the leftist breakaway group shot down an American transport plane bringing supplies to the neutralists in the Plaine des Jarres.

NO COMMENT

Singh and his Canadian and Polish colleagues on the control group made a day-long trip to the area but declined to define their mission.

An earlier report of fighting came from Prince Souvanna Phouma, neutralist premier. He said a rebel-neutralist force under a Maj. Thiep attacked Kong Le troops in Xieng Khouang town, 115 miles north of Vientiane.

This was said to have occurred Thursday and Souvanna said Friday the situation "seems calmed down." But other reports conflicted with Souvanna's appraisal.

The airlift of women and children dependents of soldiers, bringing them to Vientiane from the danger area, underlined the concern. Six planeloads were lifted out in Soviet-built IL2 transports.

The United States sharply protested a statement by the Pathet Lao leader, Deputy Premier Prince Souphanouvong, accusing "American warmongers and their agents" of responsibility for the slaying of Quinim.

AT REGIONAL SPELLING BEE

Burma Narrowly Misses Top Spot

Burma Gentry, 13-year-old Howard County spelling champ, gave an excellent account of her spelling ability Saturday afternoon at the Regional Spelling Bee in Lubbock. She stayed in the ranks through thirty-two rounds, then faltered on "reverberate." Only eight of the 20 entries remained after she went down.

Casey Charness Jr., Lubbock, the regional champ, spelled down Johnny Mack Adams, of Andrews, on "intilogy," and then went on to spell one more word, "atathetic." The match ended at 5:55 p.m. after 974 words had been given out in 233 rounds. Charness and Adams were entered in their last year of eligibility.

Mrs. Gordon Gentry, Burma's mother, said she "felt that Burma had made a good showing." The Gentry's returned to their home at 1505 Cherokee at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Gentry said the officials at Lubbock were courteous and that she was pleased with the way the bee was handled.

Lubbock Avalanche - Journal officials said Burma was definitely among the strongest spellers entered in the bee.

Carpenter Hurt When Auto Skids

State Representative Ed. J. Carpenter is in Llano Memorial Hospital suffering from back injuries received in a one-car accident seven miles southeast of Llano on Highway 71 Friday afternoon. He was enroute to his farm near Vealmoor from Austin and was alone in the car.

He was reported in satisfactory condition Saturday afternoon but may have to be hospitalized for several weeks. A possible vertebra separation in his back resulted in the accident, which occurred when his car skidded and overturned on the rain-slick highway.

Attendants said Rep. Carpenter would be in a cast for at least six weeks and it was possible he might be returned to Austin, rather than to Big Spring or Coahoma, so that he would be nearer his duties in the House of Representatives.

Rep. Carpenter is a Howard County farmer, director of Coahoma State Bank, former Howard County judge, and former County Democratic chairman. He is serving his first term as representative from this district, the 78th.

BIG TURNOUT IN FORSAN CITY RACE

FORSAN — In the lone city government election held Saturday, amidst the county-wide school races, the City of Forsan elected three aldermen to office.

G. L. Monroney polled 72 votes in his first bid for a seat on the city council. C. B. Long with 75 votes and A. P. Oglesby with 71 votes were returned to office. Stanley Willis polled 11 votes and L. T. Shouts received a write-in vote.

It was a good turnout of voters, Mayor C. J. Lamb said following the election. A total of 76 residents cast ballots.

The three aldermen elected Saturday will join O. W. Scudday, J. B. Anderson and Mayor Lamb on the city council.

Kemp, Archer Win At Sands

Lonnie Kemp and Jack Archer of Ackerly apparently won places on the Sands Independent School District board in Saturday balloting.

Kemp polled a combined total of 86 in the Knott and Ackerly boxes, and Archer came next with 76 in the two boxes.

W. C. Fryar, incumbent, was next with 68, followed by Joe Lemmon with 60, Bobby Bayes with 54, Earl Newcomer, 46. Arnold Lloyd and Hazel Allred each received a write-in vote.

Fred Roman got a perfect vote of confidence in his home box for county trustee from precinct No. 1, getting all 58 ballots cast in this election.

By boxes, the voting went this way, according to complete unofficial returns:

	Knott	Ackerly	Total
Bobby Bayes	47	7	54
W. C. Fryar	45	23	68
E. Newcomer	16	30	46
Lonnie Kemp	12	74	86
Joe Lemmon	9	51	60
Jack Archer	1	75	76

Hansen Elected At Center Point

CENTER POINT—Write-in votes elected Leonard Hansen to the Center Point Common School District board here Saturday. Hansen, a farmer, received 45 write-in votes for the one vacancy to be filled on the board.

Billy Ray Brooks, the only other name to appear on the ballots, received 11 write-in votes. Hansen served on the Center Point board in the past but was not a member of the present board.

Stanton Has A Light Vote

STANTON — Two incumbents on the Martin County School Board were re-elected here Saturday unopposed and with not a single write-in vote against them. Each received exactly the same number of votes, 103.

Elected to the county board for another term was O. B. Bryan, member from Commissioner Precinct No. 1 and P. G. Yates, member at large.

James Biggs, an incumbent member of the present Stanton Independent School District board was re-elected with 133 votes. Neil Fryar, seeking the second post to be filled on the board, polled 141 votes. Eleanor Poe, with 15, Francis Graham with four, and J. D. Poe with 1 vote, were write-in candidates.

The vote turnout was described as light.

Forsan Has Spirited Voting

FORSAN (SC)—Three new board members were elected to the Forsan Independent School District board of trustees in spirited balloting. Elbow cast 65 ballots, Forsan 117.

Bobby S. Wash led with 107 votes, followed by Elmer G. Patton Jr. with 93, and Frank Philley with 86.

Others were: C. L. Gooch 59, Ray S. McKinnon 55, Roy Walraven (incumbent) 52, Jack Ellis Sr. 40, H. C. Tidwell received 15 write-in votes at the Elbow box.

Forsan gave J. D. Gilmore of Forsan a handsome vote for county trustee, 108-1 over James Cape.

Pete Banks and C. L. Rutherford, other members whose terms expire, had not been candidates.

By boxes, this is the way the vote stocked up:

	Elbow	Forsan	Total
Bobby S. Wash	19	88	107
Frank Philley	24	62	86
E. G. Patton Jr.	10	83	93
Roy Walraven	19	33	52

LAST CHANCE TODAY TO—

Take Part In Victory Over Polio Campaign

Today is your last chance to take part in the Victory Over Polio campaign here with Sabin vaccine.

If you took Type I and Type II vaccine, and missed getting Type III vaccine last Sunday, be sure to take Type III today. If you missed the other types, get Type III today anyway, and you can get the other vaccines from your family physician later.

It takes all three types for complete protection.

The make-up clinic today will be in the Runnels Junior High School gymnasium, from noon to 5 p.m. The vaccine is free, and it will take only a few minutes for your entire family to receive inoculation.

If you took previous vaccines, bring the inoculation card you were given at that time. Otherwise, fill out the authorization form (page 4-A of today's Herald) and bring it to save time.

You may give a donation if you wish, to help defray costs of the program. Any surplus after paying the costs of the program will go to the Crippled Children's Center.

About half the population of Howard and Glasscock counties took Type III vaccine last week. About 65 per cent of the populations took Type I and Type II vaccines. Campaign leaders are urging a big turnout today to equal that first showing.

Participants in the vaccine program not only protect themselves by taking the vaccine, but reduce the possibility of a community-wide epidemic. Remember the Type I, II and III refer to polio types, so complete your protection with the Type III vaccine.

Talbot, Brooke Win Two Seats On School Board

Harold Talbot was successful Saturday in a bid for another term and Bennett Brooke won the seat vacated by Clyde McMahon, board chairman, in the Big Spring Independent School District trustee election.

Talbot with 654 and Brooke with 624 won convincing majorities over Wayne Basden, 334, and Ray Thomas, 249. H. H. Rutherford, a write-in candidate in the County Board race, received 15 votes in the Big Spring district contest.

Incumbent Talbot has served on the board 3½ years. He was appointed to a seat on the board in September, 1959, and won his election in 1960. A native of Big Spring, he attended Big Spring High School and A&M College. He is in the real estate appraisal business.

Brooke is co-owner of the Edwards Heights Pharmacy and has been a resident of the city since 1953, coming here from Belton. He is a native of San Angelo and attended the School of Pharmacy of the University of Texas.

The board of trustees will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the administrative offices to canvass the results of the election and declare the winners. Following, new officers will be elected.

Breakdown on the two-box election, with Kate Morrison box figures in parenthesis, followed by totals:

Talbot 621 (33) 654; Brooke 604 (20) 624; Basden 212 (122) 334; Thomas 221 (28) 249; Rutherford (write-in) 8 (7) 15.

Rutherford, Gilmore To County School Panel

One incumbent and one newcomer apparently were elected to the Howard County board of trustees in balloting Saturday.

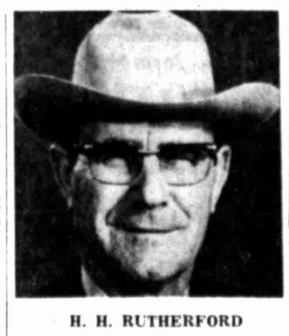

J. D. Gilmroe, Forsan, was returned as trustee from Precinct No. 2, according to complete unofficial returns, winning by a 20-vote margin over James Cape, Big Spring, 262-242.

H. H. (Hub) Rutherford, Big Spring, a write-in, apparently won over Fred Roman, Knott, by a 19-vote margin, 110-91, according to complete unofficial returns.

All candidates piled up heavy margins in their home boxes. David Gomez, who withdrew in No. 1, got 24 votes at the Kate Morrison box.

By voting places, the results were:

Incumbents Win In Coahoma Race

COAHOMA — The incumbents were returned to office Saturday in the Coahoma Independent School District trustee election. James Barr polled 75 and Clay Reid received 72, returning both to their seats on the school board.

Other hopefuls and their vote totals included Ray Echols 25, T. H. Greenfield 11, Hezzie Read 55, and R. A. Shive 5.

Observers pointed out it was a light turnout with 127 casting votes during the day. Voters also gave their support to J. D. Gilmore over James Cape, 90-14, in the Precinct 2 County Board race.

Moderate Turnout At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY — Voters turned out in moderate numbers Saturday to return one incumbent and elect one newcomer to the Colorado City school board.

Incumbent was Dr. Jene Steakley, 37-year-old dentist, who now enters his third three-year term on the board. He garnered 267 votes.

Leading the ticket was Ben Sparks with 273 votes. Sparks, 34, is a dirt contractor and newest school board member.

All candidates ran at-large for the two seats. Defeated were Porter Richardson, radio station executive, with 141 votes, and Toby Dearing, Col-Tex refinery employe with 120.

Lankford Loses

GAY HILL — L. C. Underwood Jr. edged Aubrey Lankford, incumbent, 31-17 in the Gay Hill Common School District trustee election Saturday, but the second incumbent, Jimmy Felts, was returned to his seat with 27 votes. Neal Spencer polled one vote.

Reviewing The

Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

Any loud noises you may have been hearing may have been hosannahs from this corner following the rain of last week. It slipped in and dumped over an inch of moisture before the Weather Bureau found out about it. It will be a tremendous boon to pastures, and there will be a lot of farmers who will crowd the season and get seeds into the ground. One pleasant by-product is apt to be one of the best showings of wildflowers in many springs.

* * *

Here's hoping that we will have an unusually strong turnout for the makeup on Type III of the Sabin polio vaccine. Remember it takes all three to do the job of protection completely — you wouldn't build two-thirds of a roof over your head.

* * *

The week brought more than its share of violence. Loma Doyle O'Neal was shot fatally and George L. Ives was charged with murder. Gloria Gomez died about a week after she had reported she had been beaten, and officers filed a complaint against Joe Lopez. Monday in Rotan, N. G. Haggard of Stanton died in a hospital. Mr. Haggard had been thrown from his car Saturday eve-

Glasscock County Elects 3 Members

GARDEN CITY (SC) — Two incumbents were returned to the Glasscock County school trustee board, and one new member elected in the election Saturday.

Edwin J. Bedner, new candidate, was high man with 138 votes. Sidney Hirt with 105 votes, and James R. Currie with 92, were returned to the board. Other candidates and votes polled were: R. D. Dobbs, incumbent, 70, and D. A. Penney, 51. Clyde Reynolds received 33 write-in votes.

Jackson Victor At Vealmoor

VEALMOORE — John Jackson won the vacant seat on the Vealmoor Common School District board of trustees Saturday, polling 15 write-in votes. Dwain Williams, incumbent, who was not seeking re-election, received 10 write-in votes. A total of 26 votes were cast.

The district gave its strength in the County Board race, Precinct No. 1, to Fred Roman, giving him 10 votes.

Don't Forget Your Polio Vaccine Today

Turning A Spade

Clyde McMahon tries his hand with a spade as Mrs. Lee Rogers and Johnny Johansen stand ready to lend a hand. It was all for the announcement that Clean Up, Paint Up and Fix Up Week begins Monday. McMahon is chairman of the Civic Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Johansen is city parks manager, and Mrs. Rogers has about the greenest thumb in town, as her yard on Washington Blvd. indicates.

Clean Up Week Begins Monday

The city's annual Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Week begins Monday continuing through the week, sponsored by the Civic Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Lee Rogers, chairman of the campaign, urged all residents to join in the spirit of the spring clean up effort and get homes and yards ready for a summertime of outdoor living.

George Zachariah, mayor, reminded residents that everyone will benefit from the program. In a proclamation, he pointed out that the campaign helps prevent fires, safeguards health, promotes safety and increases property values.

"Let's all of us roll up our sleeves and clean up, paint up and fix up," he concluded.

"The cooperation of individual residents of Big Spring is important to the campaign," Dr. Rogers said. "The success or failure of the drive depends on what we do." He listed these suggested projects that would lend help to the campaign:

1. Clean up rubbish from back and front yards;
2. Plant new grass in bare spots and pull sprouting weeds, trim hedges;
3. Paint exterior of homes and mend and paint fences;
4. Clear vacant lots of rubbish and plant them with flowers;
5. Plant a tree and repair sidewalks.
6. Clean out all rubbish and old papers from basements, attics and garages.

Campaign leaders expect City of Big Spring crews to make special trips through the city to haul away the debris of the clean up.

Meanwhile, residents were urged to make plans for the clean up drive and begin projects as soon as possible. Following the drenching rains of last week, gardeners were reminded it is a good time to get flower beds and gardens ready for the blossoming season.

Rapist Denied Mental Ward

PALO PINTO (AP) — A convicted rapist, accused of an 18-hour sex crime spree, must remain in jail rather than be sent to a mental institution, Dist. Judge W. J. Oxford ruled Friday.

The decision came after a hearing for Virgil Nelson Halford, 26, who sat mostly with his head buried beneath a table.

Occasionally Halford would rear his head to glance blankly across the courtroom. He showed no emotion and remained silent through four hours of testimony.

Oxford denied the petition after hearing from 10 witnesses.

"There is no showing in this record nor is it required by statutes that he be released or transferred to a hospital for treatment," Oxford declared.

Oxford said a psychiatrist may visit Halford at the convenience of the officials.

Halford is charged with raping a Mineral Wells girl, 9. He also is under indictment in Dallas County for attacks on teen-age girls in Garland and Grand Prairie. The three attacks occurred during a span of 18 hours March 17-18.

Rocky Charged

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (AP)—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt said Saturday that Gov. Nelson Rockefeller balanced the state budget by delaying payment of $11 million in income tax refunds and through other "fiscal contrivances."

Tough Report Is Expected From Education Panel

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Gov. John Connally told Texas college leaders Friday night he expects a "hard hitting" report from his committee to study higher education.

The governor told the Texas Association of Colleges and Universities he expects a "report and recommendations on anything, whether it may fall on waste or improper use of money, manpower and resources."

Russian Schools Called Overrated

FORT WORTH (AP) — The quality of Russian schools has been vastly overrated by those who hope to bring about federal aid to education in this country, an East Texas school superintendent who toured the Soviet Union said Saturday.

Q. M. Martin of Carthage said that when he was in Russia in November he found studies patterned largely after America's.

"In most cases, as we saw it, it was far behind ours," he said.

He said Russian schools seem to be making rapid strides forward.

Martin spoke at the convention of the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association, a Negro organization.

Castroism Building Future On Cuba's Young People

HAVANA (AP)—"Soon all of the countries of Latin America will be free, don't you think so?" the elegantly dressed teen-ager asked a group of Africans and Europeans at a diplomatic reception.

Throats were diplomatically cleared.

"And it looks as if Venezuela will liberate herself soon and start building socialism . . . Things are really hot there," she added triumphantly.

In her elegant sheath gown of beige lace, with her pretty round face meticulously made up, she could have passed for an idle maiden dabbling in international affairs to break the ice.

Yet she meant every word. At 18 she is a product and staunch supporter of the "new, socialist Cuba."

She works eight hours a day in a government office, then often spends half the night standing guard in front of her office building, a burp gun strapped over her militia uniform. She has been to Russia and Czechoslovakia, is studying Russian and accepts no creed other than that of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

She is certain the Cuban revolution will be picked up by other nations of the hemisphere. She feels that everything Russia does is good and the United States is to blame for all difficulties encountered in Cuban life, from the shortage of girdles and the rationing of nylon hose to a shortage of bananas.

Is she typical of all pro-Castro youth? Roughly generalizing on the attitudes of thousands her age, the answer is yes. To them, Fidel Castro, a prime minister in his middle 30s, has opened a new field, involving them directly in the life of the nation. They participate in the monolithic, slogan-filled politics, shoulder guns, drive heavy equipment, receive wide publicity in the press.

The government subsidizes all sports and encourages children to join political organizations such as the Young Pioneers of the Union of Communist Youths.

Complementing these are the schools of revolutionary instruction, where the student is thoroughly coached in the intricacies of Marxism-Leninism and its materialistic theories.

Thousands of Cubans study behind the Iron Curtain. Most, if not all, return convinced that Communism is the only way of life.

Mrs. Burns Dies Friday, Rites Today

Mrs. Riley K. Burns, 82, 611 Dallas, died at 8:40 p.m. Friday in a local hospital after four weeks' serious illness. She had been a resident of Big Spring since 1927 when she and Mr. Burns moved here from their ranch in Glasscock County.

Mrs. Burns was born Oct. 10, 1880 in Palo Pinto County. She moved to Glasscock County in 1907 and was married to Riley K. Burns in San Angelo July 23, 1907. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, Big Spring.

Funeral will be held at 3 p.m. today from the Nalley-Pickle chapel with the Rev. Robert F. Polk, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be at 11 a.m. Monday in the Fairmount Cemetery, San Angelo, under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Mrs. Burns is survived by her husband; four nephews, Kelly Burns, Arch Ratliff, both of Big Spring, Morris Burns, Los Angeles, Calif., and Weldon Burns, London, England; seven nieces, Mrs. V. E. Phillips, Mrs. Edna Blake, Miss Ann Ratliff, Mrs. Fay Pachall, all of Big Spring, Mrs. Mary Louise King, Stockdale, Mrs. James Mattimore, Dearborn, Mich., and Mrs. Clarence Stapleton, Abilene; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Sally B. Edmondson, and Mrs. Lou Graves, Big Spring; a brother-in-law, Mack Burns, Big Spring.

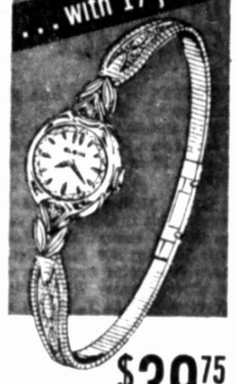

Pallbearers will be Elbert Long, John Roy Bizzell, A. L. Holley, Dr. O. E. Wolfe, Walter Bailey, Elmer Boatler, and C. O. Nalley.

Wichita Falls Over Top With Industrial Fund

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — This city has over-subscribed by $147,000 a million dollar industrial expansion fund.

The money is for laying out a 158-acre industrial site to bring industries to Wichita Falls.

At a celebration dinner Friday night, Mayor John Gavin said "Wichita Falls does mean business and will forge ahead in attracting new industrial payrolls."

A three-month campaign in collecting $1,115,656.

Plans are to hire a full time industrial director, develop a tract already purchased and set aside for industrial expansion and start of a campaign to bring in new business.

Award

Scientist J. Robert Oppenheimer, 59, was selected to receive the $50,000 Fermi Award, the Atomic Energy Commission's highest honor, for "especially meritorious contribution to the development, use or control of atomic energy."

Oppenheimer Says Security Rules Can Mislead Public

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, recipient of the highest award given by the Atomic Energy Commission, was quoted Saturday by the New York Times as saying that the public is often misinformed or misled because of security regulations.

The scientist was named Friday as winner of the Enrico Fermi Award of the AEC—the same agency that declared him a security risk in 1954. He was interviewed by Times correspondent Walter Sullivan at the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N.J.

Oppenheimer, who has headed the institute since 1947, made a strong plea for freeing science from the shackles of unnecessary secrecy, the Times reported.

The newspaper quoted Oppenheimer as saying that secrecy in regard to a neutron bomb could lead the public to believe that nuclear war could be made more tolerable. This, he said, could lead to a relaxation of efforts to avert such a war.

The Times also said Oppenheimer declined to discuss his past difficulties or the award even though it was obvious that he and his academic colleagues were delighted.

It was the AEC's interpretation of security regulations nearly a decade ago that led to Oppenheimer's removal as chairman of the agency's general advisory committee.

In the 4-1 vote that took away his security clearance, three AEC commissioners based their decision on "his persistent and continuous association with Communists."

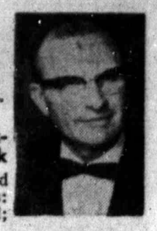

A fourth said Oppenheimer was disloyal in that he disregarded security regulations that restrict the association of a man in a sensitive position.

On the occasion of his interview, Oppenheimer released a prepared statement saying: "Most of us look to the good opinion of our colleagues and to the good will and the confidence of our government. I am no exception."

Caravan Planned

The West Texas Caravan, a touring group of leading manufacturers of building materials, is planning a product exhibit and meeting for Midland and surrounding area architects and contractors Thursday, at the Sands Motel, on Highway 80 in Midland. The exhibits will start at 5 p.m. concluding with dinner at 7 p.m. About twenty-five Dallas-based representatives will participate in the 1,000 mile tour of four major West Texas cities.

A QUESTION ON BAPTISM

In a letter I am asked: If baptism is essential to salvation, why does not Mark 16:16 say, "He that believeth and is not baptized shall be damned?" What the verse says is this: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Surely this language is plain enough.

Suppose a wealthy man, whose word is always honored, were to make this announcement in the newspaper: "He that believes me and jumps off the pier into Lake J. B. Thomas, shall receive $100.00; but he that disbelieves shall receive nothing." No one would think he could get this money by just believing without jumping into the lake; and there would not be a preacher in the county with dry clothing, an hour after the announcement was printed!

(Question considered further tomorrow.)

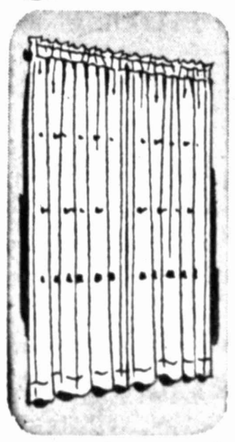

"Bishops and Deacons" (10:30 a.m.) and "Other Sheep Have I" (7 p.m.) are today's sermons. Hear them. Come in time for the Bible classes (9:30 a.m.)

Mrs. Jerry Ball, capital credits clerk for Cap Rock Electric, shows Ray Simpson, office manager, the first of a series of capital refund checks placed in the mail at Stanton last week. These total $125,670, the balance due 3,265 who were members in 1955. In August, $186,140 will be mailed to 3,439 as the balance of a refund due 3,439 members that year. The refund is the difference between income and operating and debt service costs.

Equal Rights Issue May Boil Again

By PEGGY SIMPSON

AUSTIN (AP) — The lawmaker speaks: "Of course I'm for women's rights. That's why I'd have to pass a sweeping constitutional amendment — it would rob women of too many protections under the law."

The woman speaks: "The men tell us to wait, they'll repeal the laws that discriminate, one by one. But you never see them rush to introduce the bills."

Briefly, these are the arguments on a hot-and-cold Texas controversy: Equal rights for women.

The temperature has been cool for weeks but it may sizzle again Tuesday night. The House Constitutional Amendments Committee will hear the Senate - approved women's rights measure.

A state Bar committee recently warned it would open a "Pandora's box of litigation."

Nearly two months ago hundreds of women showed up to prove to senators their enthusiasm for the proposal, sponsored by Sen. William Moore of Bryan.

The senators listened, said little, and with a minimum of opposition tossed the bill to the House.

"This is the best chance ever for passage," says Rep. Maud Isaacks of El Paso, co - sponsor of a similar bill last session that died in the Senate.

"Because of the women's political activity in the 1962 election, the men are taking a second look. Also, the governor and lieutenant governor asked for equal women's rights."

The legislature's two other women, Sen. Neveille Colson of Navasota, and Rep. Myra Banfield of Rosenburg, say they are also solidly in favor of women's rights.

"I know some men who are sincerely against the amendment and feel that women would lose rights in some respects — but I think the gains will offset any loss," said Miss Isaacks.

State Bar President Leon Jaworski of Houston has asked for immediate action against the bill which a lawyers' committee said might jeopardize established titles and require decades of judicial interpretation.

The attorney general's office estimated recently that at least 44 laws might be directly affected by a blanket "equal rights" amendment to the Constitution.

Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo says "There is not a single discrimination in the Constitution that the women are trying to amend. They're all in the statutes, which could be repealed."

The protective laws lawyers say would be jeopardized by the amendment include:

1. Community property laws. Now, the husband is legal owner of all community property and it is listed in his name. In case of divorce, however, the wife automatically receives half of the property. Lawyers say an "equal rights" amendment might prevent a divorced woman from getting any share.

2. Probate. A widow and children automatically get title to all property of the husband, or an equivalent allowance, even if his estate was insolvent. The same does not apply for widowers.

3. Homestead rights. Unmarried daughters have homestead rights, unmarried sons don't.

4. Penal code. A woman convicted of a crime "by commission or persuasion of her husband" cannot be punished by death, only a life sentence or less. In non-capital cases under the same circumstances, she cannot receive more than half the normally prescribed punishment. There is no such protection for a man who commits a crime under his wife's influence.

5. Working conditions. Women are limited in the number of hours they can work, men are not. Usually the limit is nine consecutive hours or 54 hours a week. Employers must in some cases also provide certain comforts for women employes.

Funeral Today For Mrs. Hull

STANTON (SC) — Mrs. Lee Emma Hull, 48, resident of Martin County since 1941, died in a Big Spring hospital Friday. She was born in Hill County in 1914.

Funeral will be conducted from the First Baptist Church, Stanton, of which she was a member, at 2 p.m. today. Officiating will be the Rev. W. H. Uhlman, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Jim Fields, Big Spring, and the Rev. J. R. Murdock, Weatherford. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Stanton, under the direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Survivors include the husband; two sons, Carroll Hull, Midland, and Donnie Hull, Stanton; a daughter, Mrs. Johnny Murdock, Stanton; a brother, C. J. Weatherred, Imperial Beach, Calif., and six grandchildren.

Martin Able To Sit Up Awhile

AUSTIN (AP) — Secretary of State Crawford Martin, injured seriously in a Thursday auto-truck accident, was able to sit up a while Saturday.

"He is showing wonderful improvement although it will be several days before we know the full extent of injuries to his eye," one of Martin's aides said.

Dr. C. M. Darnell said Martin could sit up again during the afternoon.

Gov. John Connally stopped by briefly to see Martin shortly after he entered the hospital.

Unemployment Drop May Delay Congress Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The dramatic drop in unemployment reported by the Labor Department last week could well mean that any tax cuts Congress votes would not go into effect until Jan. 1.

This would be a postponement from President Kennedy's target date of July 1, for a cutback in pay withholding. But there might be some consolation for taxpayers if the reduction were more substantial than Kennedy had recommended for a first stage.

House Ways and Means Committee members of both parties are speculating informally along these lines after a week of general, closed discussions with Treasury officials. Most are chary of public predictions.

It is obvious by now that if Congress passes a tax bill at all, it will not do so by July 1. Under the most optimistic timetable, the measure by then would be through the House and under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee.

But some members had talked of a push to put a tax cut into effect by Oct. 1. Unless unemployment, down in a month from 6.1 to 5.6 per cent, swoops upward again soon, Congress may not feel it is urgent to deliver a tax cut effective within 1963.

The argument for tax adjustment would shift back to enlarging the economy rather than averting a recession. Beside the improved employment picture, good retail sale reports and buoyancy in the stock market have dimmed recession fears.

Any discussions of the kind of tax bill the Ways and Means Committee may draft are at this stage extremely tentative, especially since Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., has given no inkling of his views.

There have been suggestions, however, along these lines:

1. Let the corporate income tax drop on July 1 from 52 to 47 per cent—as it will automatically unless Congress extends the higher rate again as has been done periodically since the Korean conflict.

The revenue loss would be partially offset by speeding up collections. Such a procedure would not greatly differ practially from Kennedy's proposal for a gradual corporate rate reduction and a payments speedup.

2. Cut individual taxes, effective Jan. 1, by something like $5 billion a year — nearly twice what Kennedy proposed as the first annual installment of his $10.2-billion cut. Let the state of the economy and the national budget determine further cuts.

Rating the chances of a tax cut a tossup, Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican member of the tax-writing committee, has said its attitude likely will be determined by the amount of budget-paring Congress does this month, as well as by the trend of the economy.

If the perky economy has tended to work against tax cuts, Congress' willingness, so far, to trim the budget could provide an offset.

The pace set on the first few authorization and appropriation bills suggests Congress may trim $6 billion or more from the $108-billion spending authority, which could mean some $3 billion pared from the $98.8 billion estimate of actual spending during the year beginning July 1.

This would be a far cry from the $10-billion to $15-billion reductions some Republicans have demanded. But it might, as one Ways and Means member put it, be psychologically sufficient to justify a tax-cutting vote, in many members' minds.

How Texas Solons Voted

On Morse, D-Ore., amendment, adopted 52-41, writing into mass transit bill labor compromise revisions: Against—Tower. Not voting—Yarborough.

On passage, 52-41, of mass transit subsidy bill: Against—Tower. Not voting—Yarborough.

MAN-MADE BELT

Radiation May Last 10 Years

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—A secret Air Force space venture has dug up additional evidence that the artificial radiation belt created by last summer's American high-altitude nuclear shot will last up to ten years.

This was reported Saturday by the Air Force's top research command—giving new flavor to a controversy that raged for months between the government and Dr. James Van Allen, discoverer of the natural radiation belts that bear his name.

A scientist of the Air Force Cambridge Research Laboratories disclosed that a satellite launched late last October by the Defense Department on an undescribed mission was actually loaded with scientific gear designed to probe the new radiation belt created by the July 9 American nuclear blast some 250 miles above Johnston Island in the Pacific.

RUSSIAN BLASTS

As things turned out, the satellite—described in only the vaguest terms at the time of launching on Oct. 26—not only probed the American - made belt, but was launched in time to get prime information on the series of three Soviet high-altitude nuclear blasts touched off between Oct. 22 and Nov. 1.

Dr. Ludwig Katz disclosed the American venture to newsmen making a tour of the key Air Force Space Research Laboratorics some 15 miles from Boston.

And top military officials at the facility—at Hanscom Air Force Base—indicated that the reason disclosed at the time was that it was tied up, merely by coincidence, with a hush-hush Air Force program of military space research in other fields.

Air Force spokesmen told a reporter that emergency plans to have radiation-sleuthing gear ride on a military-type satellite were conceived when the nuclear shot unexpectedly caused several previous satellites to lose at least some of their efficiency.

"We had things ready in about six weeks after we got approval for the study," said one spokesman.

DECISION MADE

Before the Air Force satellite was launched, the government had decided—largely on the basis of findings by the Telstar communications satellite—that the artificial radiation belt would persist much longer than had originally been expected, possibly for many years.

This view was steadfastedly opposed for months by Van Allen, who forecast that the artificial belt would disappear within a year.

Only recently, Van Allen reversed his stand, saying that various American satellites had produced evidence that now convinced him the man-made belt would persist for about a decade.

Van Allen was not very specific on which satellites had produced the evidence.

Air Force spokesmen said Saturday they felt the evidence dug up by their satellite figured largely in Van Allen's change of mind.

Dr. Katz, without making such claims, said the satellite—known only as "1962 Beta Kappa 1"—had found that: "Since the latter part of October, 1962, there has been little decrease in the intensity of trapped radiation," that was created by the July 9 nuclear detonation in the Pacific.

"The decay of the belt is so small," he told newsmen, "that a lifetime of five to ten years would not surprise me."

He said "Beta Kappa" and other Air Force satellites launched before and after the Russian high-altitude shots helped determine that the Russian shots—in contrast to the American one — produced an artificial belt that lasted only a short time. This was because the Russian shots were detonated at a higher altitude than the American blast.

School Fund Study Approved

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Board of Education approved for study Saturday a proposal which could boost the state's permanent school fund by millions of dollars.

Under the proposal, the board would ask the legislature to allow the sale of the board's holdings in municipal bonds. The board would replace these with corporate bonds.

Paul Haas, a board member, said the corporate bonds would yield up to .5 per cent more than municipal bonds. The board is prohibited from selling municipal bonds.

Doctor's An Indian Giver

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Harold Hicks climbed to the roof of the Biltmore Hotel and threatened to leap.

A policeman ordered him back from the edge. Hicks moved closer.

A minister tried prayer. Hicks prayed awhile and quit.

A doctor tried money. It worked.

Hicks had explained—to would-be rescuers just out of grabbing range—that he needed money to send to a sister in Kansas City.

The hotel doctor produced a wad of money in an envelope. The minister asked Hicks to write his sister's name on the envelope. And the policeman dragged Hicks back from the roof's edge, 13 floors above the street, after the minister grabbed his wrist when he reached for the money.

Hicks, 24, was taken to a hospital after the incident. Police said he was emotionally upset.

And the money? The doctor got it back.

Harry Hurt To Receive Foundation Fellowship

Harry Hurt Jr. has been designated to receive a National Science Foundation faculty fellowship for research at the University of California at Los Angeles.

He has been chosen to do research and study in space-aero engineering and will begin his new work in September.

HARRY HURT JR.

Hurt, the son of Mrs. Harry Hurt Sr., 1511 Runnels, and the late H. H. Hurt Sr., has been on the faculty of the University of Southern California for many years and is author of two texts.

In 1960, as a result of his work in flying safety, he published a manual for navy pilots, "Aerodynamics for Naval Aviation." Earlier he had been commissioned to organize a course in flight safety, and pilots from all branches of service as well as numerous foreign nations were assigned to the school. Hurt perceived that there was a gap between the science of aerodynamics and its application by pilots. The Navy gave the green light for him to create a text to help bridge this gap.

More recently, he completed "Fundamentals of Aircraft and Missile Structures," a text for the Air Force. All of his writing has been done in addition to his duties as instructor in the Aero-Engineering Course for Aviation and Missile Safety division of Safety Flight training at USC. Moreover, he has a busy schedule lecturing on flight safety and serving as an independent investigator on crashes and other aircraft failures.

Delighted at receiving the fellowship, he is eager to begin his research. The new assignment will permit him to dig into the dynamics of space.

A native of Big Spring, Harry Hurt was graduated from high school here in 1944, entered Texas A&M College as aeronautical engineer major. However, he signed for the Navy and did not get his degree until 1950. He worked for North American Aviation before joining the USC faculty. While teaching there, he studied at night and earned his master's degree. If he can ever carve out enough time in his busy schedule, he hopes someday to get his Ph.D.

He is married to Joan Beene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Beene, 2900 Cactus, and they have three children, Harry III, John David and Julie. The family makes its home in West Covina, Calif., a suburb of Los Angeles.

Rites Set For Mrs. Hull, 48

STANTON — Funeral rites for Mrs. Lee Emma Hull, 48, wife of Leslie Hull, have been set for 2 p.m. today in the First Baptist Church here.

Mrs. Hull, known affectionately by her friends as Snooks, died Friday at 2:15 p.m. in a Big Spring hospital after an extended illness.

Services will be conducted by the Rev. Jim Fields, Big Spring, assisted by the Rev. H. L. Bingham, Big Spring, and the Rev. J. R. Murdock, Weatherford. Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery under the direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Mrs. Hull was born in Hill County Sept. 30, 1914 as Emma Weatherred, and she was married to Leslie Hull Oct. 20, 1933 in Odessa. The family moved from Big Spring to Martin County in 1941. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Stanton.

Surviving are her husband, Leslie Hull; two sons, Carroll Hull, Midland, and Donnie Hull, Stanton; one daughter, Mrs. Johnny Murdock, Stanton; a brother, C. J. Weatherred, Imperial Beach, Calif.; and six grandchildren.

Social Welfare Group To Meet

The public is invited to hear a discussion on youth's problems in today's world at a regional conference of the Texas Social Welfare Association to be held at the Pioneer Hotel in Lubbock on April 16 at 9:30 a.m. The fee, including luncheon, is $5.

Theme of the conference will be "Youth Today—Normal? Nutty? or Nuisance?" The keynote speaker will be Dr. Fred R. Crawford, director of education and research, Timberlawn Foundation, Austin. Other speakers at the one-day session will include: Mrs. William Mingus, president, Lubbock Women's Club; Dr. Richard K. O'Loughlin, psychiatrist and neurologist; Don Rademacher, Austin, consultant to the Texas Citizen's Committee of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency; the Rev. William S. Smith, Lubbock Westminster Presbyterian Church; Dr. Holmes Webb, Ph.D., professor of education, Texas Tech.

Quick Thinking

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A holdup man forced department store manager Andrew Donchak to lie on the floor in a back room.

When the robber left to rifle the cash register, Donchak quickly pulled all the fuses from the store's fuse box, located in the back room.

The electrically operated cash registers wouldn't open and the bandit departed—fast and empty-handed.

Archives Get Two Collections

AUSTIN (AP)—Two manuscript collections documenting much of the Coastal Bend's history were presented to the University of Texas archives Saturday.

The collections were given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKamey of Taft, Mrs. Billy Rosson of Sinton, Mrs. Lillian Sanders of Portland, Mrs. Howell Sanders of Taft and David Sanders of Houston.

DEAR ABBY

He Needs His Head Examined

DEAR ABBY: You are the only person I can turn to with this problem and when you read it you'll know why. My husband likes a botle of beer after dinner. I don't object to that because he never has more than one. But he likes to drink it out of the baby's bottle and nipple! I thought he was clowning when he fixed it that way once, but now that's the only way he'll drink it. He never does it when anyone else is around, but it makes me sick. The baby is only 7 months old, but he looks so puzzled when he sees his father with a bottle, ooo. Is this serious or not? My husband is 26 and I am 23.

WORRIED WIFE

DEAR WORRIED: Your husband is either competing with the baby, or expressing a desire to go back to his baby days. I am not a psychiatrist, and your husband needs one. Ask your family doctor to recommend one. And soon! It's very serious.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school sophomore and my mother still wants me in the house at 12 o'clock sharp every time I go out on a date. How can I let her know I am not a baby any more?

NOT A BABY

DEAR NOT: She knows. That's why she wants you in the house at 12 o'clock sharp.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 22, single, respectable and lonesome. I am a small town guy who recently moved to a big city to take a day-time job and study law at night. Every evening I pass a certain bakery and see a girl working there. I can't get her out of my mind. She is tall and slim and looks about 20. She has beautiful dark eyes and hair. My problem is how to meet her. I don't know if she's married or going with someone or available. I'm afraid if I walk into the bakery and start a conversation with her she'll think I'm fresh and that will be the end of it. Have you any suggestions?

HONORABLE INTENTIONS

DEAR HONORABLE: Go into the bakery and buy half a dozen cookies. See if she has an engagement or wedding ring. If she's ringless, be just a very pleasant customer on first contact. A few days later, go back again and buy six more cookies. (This is to let her know you live alone: no family man buys six cookies.) Repeat this routine for about two weeks, and if she has any interest in you, she'll engage YOU in conversation. Otherwise, I hope you like cookies.

Railroads Keep In Step, T&P Man Tells ABClub

Willard C. Schultz, associated with the T&P Railway in Dallas, said the facts undermine the claims of those who insist America's railroads are refusing to keep in step with the times in a talk made before members of the American Business Club at their luncheon Friday noon at the Settles Hotel.

Schultz reminded his listeners that the railroads in this country are spending in excess of $1 billion a year for improvements and said his employers, since World War II, had underwritten the expense of such things as a new, heavier rail, an improved road bed, changed entirely from steam-powered engines to diesel, a centralized traffic control system, electronic machines used to provide instant information on the location of any car routed over its lines, 'piggy-back' equipment which made 'store to door' delivery possible now and other specialized equipment.

Schultz said new, modern freight cars now in use have just about made the old box car obsolete.

A film dealing with modern transportation, entitled "Science Rides The High Irons" and narrated by Chet Huntley, was later shown to the gathering.

Schultz was introduced to ABClub members by C. E. (Ed) Neal, assigned locally as district manager of freight sales by the T&P.

Club members were reminded that new members of the organization will formally be installed at the noon meeting scheduled for Friday, April 19. It will be the last installation for this fiscal year.

Five ABClub members missed Friday's luncheon due to the fact that they were attending the Regional convention in Odessa and more were to make the trip Saturday.

A plea was made to members to donate old neckties for use at the Big Spring State Hospital.

It was revealed that past presidents of the club, in a session held during the week; had nominated Bob Hickson and Merrill Creighton as president for the upcoming term. The election of all club officers will be held shortly.

Among guests present for the Friday meeting were Riley Foster, George Scott, Harry Blomshield, Kirk Faulkner and Leland Pearce.

Hickson served as moderator of the meeting in the absence of the regular prexy, Elmo Phillips.

Capt. Zahn Gets Award

Capt. Harry F. Zahn, 3560th Pilot Training Group Standardization Board Section, last week received the Air Training Command "Well Done Award" for an outstanding feat of airmanship performed by him on Jan. 9.

On Jan. 9, he and Capt. Robert K. Simm, Headquarters ATC, were on a T-37 instructor certification check mission. During the recovery from a spin maneuver and shortly before the aircraft was returned to level flight, a loud noise was heard and the T-37 pitched to a near vertical attitude. So violent was this maneuver that Capt. Simm's helmet shattered against the canopy.

It took the combined efforts of both pilots to forceably pull the stick back and raise the elevator sufficiently to break off a portion of the tail rudder which was restricting elevator movement. The plane was then returned to level flight, even though the remaining portion of the rudder was cocked 45 degrees to left.

Due to the strong crosswind at Webb AFB, both were advised to bail out.

However, they decided to attempt a landing at the Big Spring Municipal Airport and landing was made without further incident.

Burglars Enter Harber Grocery

Harber's Grocery, 4009 US 80 West, was burglarized some time Thursday morning when some one forced open a window to a work shop and then broke out a door glass into the store. Mrs. Lavern Harber told police seven cartons of cigarettes, a half stick of bologna, and $15 to $20 in small change were missing. The money was taken from the cash register.

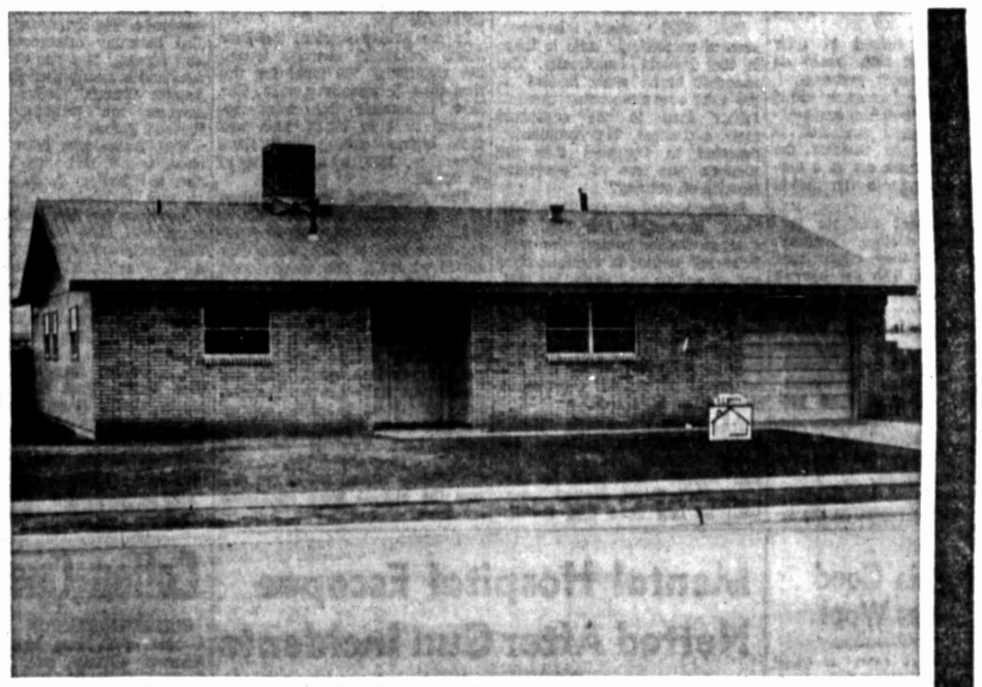

Mrs. Marie Smith called police to the Nancy Hanks Dress Shop, 204 N. Gregg, and said a pair of women's overalls had been taken from the store by shoplifters. She said two girls were in the rear of the store while she was waiting on a customer and one was carrying a large bag. She named one of the girls but said she did not know the other.

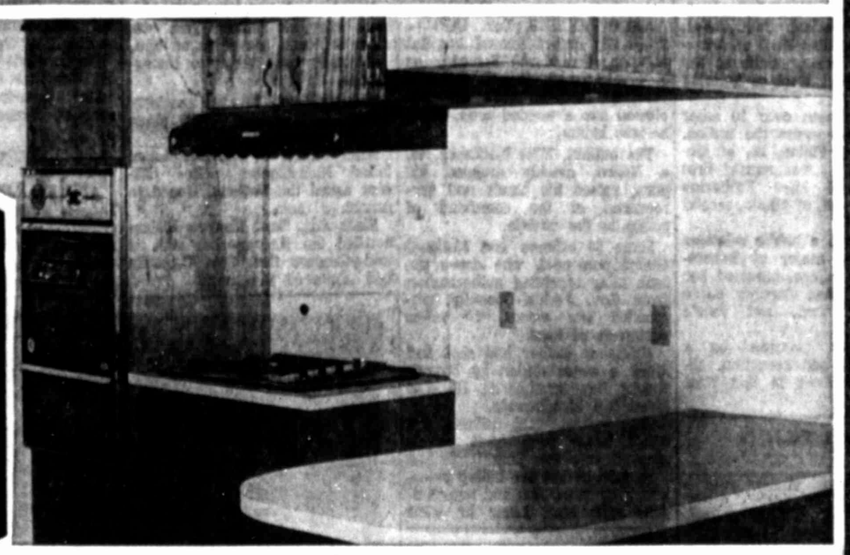

Porfirio Franco, 312 NW 4th, reported his 1962 pickup stolen from the rear of Franco's Lounge between 6 and 10 p.m. Friday.

Stock Market Rolls Up Its Biggest Advance Of The Year

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market last week rolled up its biggest advance of the year and did so on the heaviest trading since January.

Stock prices surged to their highest levels of 1963, based on the popular market averages.

The strong performance ended six weeks of "watching-and-waiting" as arguments sputtered in Wall Street as to whether the market would break out of a narrow trading range to the upside or downside.

Some prominent analysts predicted a sharp decline. Tuesday, it looked as if they might turn out to be right. The list backed away from an assault on the mid-February recovery peak and fell on news that U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and five other companies had been indicted by a federal grant jury on charges of conspiring to fix prices of steel products.

This was the same kind of news that accompanied the sharp plunge of last spring.

On the very next day, however, the long-awaited report on the securities industry by the Securities & Exchange Commission was made public. It was one of Wall Street's overhanging worries.

The SEC report, however, seemed surprisingly mild to those in the financial community. The sharpest barbs were leveled at the vast over-the-counter market, rather than to the organized stock exchanges. The commission reported to Congress that the markets are free of "pervasive fraudulent activity."

Stocks rallied on the New York Stock Exchange that day. The average broke through the mid-February barrier in vigorous style and surged to new peaks for 1963.

Thursday, the market bettered its highs for the year, aided by news that unemployment in March had its largest monthly drop in more than four years and by word of record department store sales in March.

The market seemed "tired" early Friday, but gathered renewed strength and climbed to still another new peak for the year. Wall Street seemed heartened by late news that the Soviets had accepted a "hot line" telecommunication system between Washington and the Kremlin to prevent the outbreak of accidental war.

In the Friday session, the Dow Jones industrial average topped the significant 700 level for the first time in exactly a year. The Dow industrials this week advanced 19.91 to 702.43. This was their highest closing level since March 30, 1962, when they stood at 706.95.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks last week rose 5.9 to 264.1. This was their highest reading since Dec. 15, 1961, when they closed at 264.6. The week's gain in the AP average was the biggest since the week ended Nov. 17, when they rose 5.9.

Turnover for the week swelled to 23,611,104 shares from 19,349,340 the previous week and was the largest since the week ended Jan. 19, when 23,805,760 shares changed hands.

The bond markets advanced slightly during the week. Corporate volume totaled $27,982,000 and was the highest since $28,630,000 for the week ended Feb. 8.

Bus Falls Into Canyon; 7 Killed, 18 Are Hurt

OROVILLE, Calif. (AP) — A Greyhound bus spun off a rain-slick mountain highway Saturday and carried more than a score of screaming passengers on a rolling 120-foot plunge to the canyon floor, killing at least seven and injuring 18.

The driver was among the dead.

The Reno-to-San Francisco bus, caught in a blinding rain squall, crashed through a metal guard rail, ripping out 50 feet, on the Feather River Canyon Highway, No. 40A, 17 miles east of Oroville. The crash scene is more than 80 miles north of Sacramento and 110 miles due west of Reno.

"Everybody was screaming," said Howard Hyatt, 52, a San Francisco seaman. He was treated and released from Oroville Medical Center Hospital.

"I was surprised to find myself still conscious when the bus hit bottom. The inside of the bus was just one mass of bodies and luggage."

Highway patrolmen and sheriff's officers pressed 50 spectators into service to form a line down the mountainside to the wrecked bus. Stretchers with the injured were shuttled hand to hand back up to the roadway.

One side of the bus was ripped out. Seats hung out grotesquely. Wreckage was strewn over 100 feet of the embankment. The wrecked bus came to rest at a 45-degree angle.

Hyatt, further recounting the accident, said:

"I had just remarked to a friend that I thought the driver was going too fast for the slick pavement. Just then I felt the bus skid and the back end came around to where the front should be.

"I thought for a while it was not going to go over. But it broke through the rail and started down."

The bus, making a gradual descent from the Sierra toward Sacramento, was on a comparatively level stretch of several hundred yards at the crash scene. But it had to negotiate two curves.

"I heard somebody scream," said an injured passenger, Mary Fritts, 17, a high school student from Portola.

"Suddenly I remembered someone once told me if I ever got in an accident I should relax.

"I tried to relax and then the bus started moving backward and went over the hill."

Olympic Champ Is Dismembered

RENO, Nev. (AP)—An unknown sadistic killer with a knowledge of anatomy was sought Saturday night for dismembering a pretty young British Olympic skier and scattering parts of her headless body around her apartment.

"Whoever did it had some knowledge of anatomy because of the way she was cut up," said Dist. Atty. William Raggio concerning the death of Sonja McCaskie, 24, a divorcee and mother of a child involved in a paternity suit.

"It might be someone who had a great emotional attachment to her. There was no evidence of anyone breaking into the apartment," he said.

Veteran police, gagging in horror at what they saw, discovered the tragedy Friday night.

The heart was on the living room floor near the front door. The torso, with three kitchen knives stuck in it, was stuffed into a cedar chest. Under the torso was the head, wrapped in undergarments.

A detective picked up a blanket on the floor and a severed foot fell out.

Raggio said 32 persons have been interviewed and three took lie detector tests.

One was David C. Conrad, 24, a graduate teaching assistant in the English department of the University of Nevada. He passed the test and was released.

Conrad was named in a paternity suit by Miss McCaskie as the father of her 10-month-old son.

Conrad told newsmen that the trial has been completed but the district judge has made no decision. He said he had dated Miss McCaskie but denied her charge of being the father.

A pathological investigation which may take several days is under way to determine the exact cause of death.

Chester Bowles Is Picked As Ambassador To India

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has picked Chester Bowles to be ambassador to India, the second time he has shifted his onetime major foreign policy adviser.

If the Senate approves, Bowles will be returning to a post he held a decade ago in the closing years of the Truman administration—this time with his influence at the White House under a cloud.

Diplomats are not certain at this point how highly the President regards Bowles' advice and this, they say, is a matter of great importance to India, faced as it is with difficult dealings with Red China.

In making known his selection of Bowles on Saturday, however, the President spoke highly of him. "A decade ago he was a pioneer in creating bonds of understanding between India and the United States," Kennedy said.

"Today, India is engaged in a difficult, long-term struggle to preserve its independence and its democratic institutions.

"I am, therefore, delighted that Mr. Bowles is willing to undertake this assignment. He has been a devoted, articulate, energetic public servant at home and abroad for 20 years."

In New Delhi, Bowles, 62, will succeed John Kenneth Galbraith, who is resigning in June to return to Harvard University, where he was a professor of economics before joining the foreign service.

In 1959, Bowles gave up a renomination for a House seat from Connecticut to be free to devote more time to Kennedy's presidential campaign. With Kennedy's election, Bowles was named undersecretary of state, the No. 2 post in the State Department.

Within six months there was widespread speculation that Bowles might be forced to resign. Kennedy expressed confidence in him, said Bowles would remain in the job. Four months later he was out in a State Department shakeup.

At this point, Bowles was named Kennedy's special representative and adviser on African, Asian and Latin-American affairs. While he had some policymaking assignments, his major role was as a speechmaker.

Honors Day Held At UT

AUSTIN (AP) — Today's complicated problems call for more than just disinterested search for facts, Dr. Rosemary Park, Barnard College president, told the University of Texas' top scholars Saturday.

"Nothing is as simple either in method or problem as you think at first," she said.

Dr. Park addressed an honors day audience that included Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, whose daughter Lynda was among university students recognized at the convocation. Miss Johnson is a new member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Honorary scholastic society for freshman women.

Dr. Park called upon the honor students not only to "enjoy the pleasure that comes with honest achievement," but to make contributions to the mass of knowledge they have inherited.

Graveside Rites For Youngster

Graveside rites for Juanita Lara, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guadalupe Lara, 204 NE 9th, who died Saturday morning in a local hospital, will be held at 8 a.m. Monday at City Cemetery. The Rev. Survivors are the parents; five brothers, Ramiro Lara, Jesse Lara, Juan Lara, Lupe Lara, and Raymond Lara; three sisters, Martha Lara, Celia Lara, and Victoria Lara, all of the home.

Rioting Disrupts Guiana Capital

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Rioting and looting raged through the night in downtown Georgetown and British colonial authorities put their crack Coldstream guards on the alert Saturday.

A charge that leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan sought to impose a Communist dictatorship had helped heighten political tensions throughout last week. The charge came from Negro opposition leader Forbes Burnham in the Legislative Assembly Wednesday.

Sen. Yarborough Will Speak Here

Ralph Yarborough, Democratic party senator from Texas, will be speaker here for the annual American Legion barbecue and World War I Veteran Party Saturday.

Roscoe Cone, chairman of the event, said traditionally all WWI vets are feted, as well as Gold Star Mothers. One veteran will be selected for an award of outstanding contributions as a veteran and citizen of the community.

A public meeting will be arranged for Yarborough as well, Cone said. The Legion event begins at 7 p.m. in the Legion Home.

Twisters Hit Coast Areas

By The Associated Press

Twisters struck two places on the Mississippi Gulf Coast on Saturday injuring several persons and causing considerable property damage.

The Pass Christian Yacht Club was struck by a waterspout that moved inland from the Mississippi Sound. The roof was torn off a boat repair section and the front porch damaged.

Mental Hospital Escapee Netted After Gun Incidents

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP) — A heavily armed mental hospital escapee surrendered Saturday as a National Guard armored vehicle, loaded with officers, plowed into a wooded area where he was hiding.

The patient, Ellis Whittaker, 49, a Negro, meekly dropped his guns, raised his hands and surrendered at the command of police in the vehicle.

Some 50 officers and National Guard personnel, who drove the tank after receiving authorization from Gov. John Connally, surrounded the woods, 20 miles northwest of here.

Whittaker earlier had shot and killed a horse ridden by Deputy Sheriff Ray Smithhardt. He also killed two bloodhounds.

The patient told officers "I didn't know quite what to do when I saw the tank."

He said he left one hiding place, taking his two rifles and two shotguns with him. Later he went back after his knives. This was when the tank moved in on him.

Whittaker was taken to Nacogdoches.

Householders in the vicinity where the capture took place armed themselves.

After efforts to rout Whittaker failed Nacogdoches police officers asked the National Guard to furnish a tank.

State Adj. Gen. Thomas Bishop notified the Nacogdoches unit at mid-afternoon that Gov. Connally had approved the move.

Warm Weather Back In State

By The Associated Press.

Clearing, warmer weather pushed eastward over Texas Saturday, a state made jubilant by million dollar rains.

The last of the hard rains fell in deep East Texas, measuring up to 3.50 inches at San Augustine.

At least eight deaths occurred on highways made slick by the rains.

By early afternoon, the only rain falling was at Texarkana. Nearly all Central and East Texas still was overcast, but the clouds were moving eastward.

Forecasters said Sunday should be a mild and generally clear and sunny day, a little warmer everywhere.

The soaking rains, the first general moisture of an exceptionally dry winter and early spring, were of immense benefit to virtually every farmer, rancher and home gardener in the state.

Some of the larger rains of the 24 hours to dawn Saturday were:

Lexington 3.16 inches, Madisonville 3.08, Center 3.03, Douglass 2.90, Chireno 2.72, Bryan area 2.65, Redland 2.44, College Station 2.40, Nacogdoches 2.11, Rusk and Groveton 1.90, Horger 1.79, Conroe 1.78, Maud 1.75, Lufkin 1.74.

BETTER RELATIONS?

Rusk, British Sign Polaris Missile Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk signed a Polaris missile deal with Britain on Saturday shortly before flying to Paris for important policy talks including a meeting with French President Charles de Gaulle.

The Rusk-De Gaulle conference Monday afternoon could result in narrowing the split in the Atlantic Alliance created by De Gaulle's blast last January at U.S.-European policies and his veto of Britain's entry into the European Common Market. There have been some hints in the last few days that France might like better relations with the United States.

The U.S.-British Polaris sales agreement was signed by Rusk and British Ambassador Sir David Ormsby Gore at the State Department.

The United States, following up an agreement made by President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan at Nassau in December, will sell Britain up to 100 Polaris missiles. Britain will build submarines and warheads for its projected nuclear force.

Rusk postponed until next Friday a conference on Berlin with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin in order to concentrate on preparations for his talks with De Gaulle and other Allied leaders next week. He had arranged several weeks ago to fly to the French capital Saturday night, but the trip has grown in importance both on account of the meeting with De Gaulle, which only was nailed down Friday, and a meeting with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization council late in the week in connection with formation of a multinational nuclear force.

The U.S.-British Polaris pact, as a substitute for the earlier U.S. agreement to sell Skybolt missiles to Britain, is part of a program by which Macmillan and Kennedy intend to commit airborne and submarine nuclear forces to NATO in the immediate future. The United States already has a Polaris submarine on station in the Mediterranean, NATO's southern flank, and two more will be assigned there.

The U.S.-British plan, welcomed by other Allied countries, except France, will go forward in spite of De Gaulle's determination to pursue an independent nuclear course. There has been some speculation in the last few days that even De Gaulle might be willing to cooperate at least to the extent of coordinating his independent nuclear strategy with that of the United States and Britain in NATO.

The Rusk-De Gaulle session in Paris could lead to reopening of high-level policy communication between Paris and Washington. The meeting will be the first between a U.S. foreign policymaker and De Gaulle since the French leader assailed President Kennedy's European policies in a news conference in mid-January.

French authorities have thrown out hints in the last day or so that the differences between Paris and Washington might be somewhat reduced. There has been speculation France somehow might cooperate with the NATO nuclear weapons force and France has told the United States it favors reducing European Common Market tariffs—a major aim of President Kennedy.

But U.S. officials are extremely wary about the outlook. They see no change in De Gaulle's basic devotion to French domination of Western Europe in his determination to reduce European military dependence on the United States.

Officially, the State Department took the position that Rusk's call on De Gaulle would be a normal "courtesy" visit. Privately officials agreed that it had at least the significance of a probing operation.

It's Time For 'Switchblades' In Legislature

AUSTIN (AP) — "It's getting about that time of a session when the boys put down the water pistols and grab their switchblade knives."

That's the candid comment of one veteran lobbyist on the legislature.

A glance at debate and committee calendars indicates there will be cuts, burns and bruises before the smoke settles.

Monday opens with a bang when the House Taxation Committee gathers to make recommendations on a $30 million tax parcel—revise the sales tax for $18.6 million and extend the franchise tax for more than $11 million.

The Monday committee sessions will center around such volatile subjects as removing racial intermarriage bans and replacing the poll tax with a 25 cent voter registration fee.

Tuesday the Senate Finance Committee will clear for floor debate a 1964-65 appropriations bill likely to top the House-passed spending bill by maybe $40 million. A House committee will discuss the Senate-passed loan shark control bill. Another House committee takes up the Senate approved measure granting women equal legal rights.

Wednesday there is a House committee hearing on abolishment of the death penalty in Texas—a measure its supporters say may save the lives of convicted torch slayers Carolyn Lima and Douglas Ashley.

Gov. John Connally heaved a sigh of relief after the passage last week of his plan to merge the Game and Fish Commission and the Parks Board. The merger proposal has caused more outspoken controversy than any other administration demand since Connally took office.

Its passage, along with approval more than a week ago of the higher education study, gives Connally two solid claims of success that will look good on re-election campaign literature.

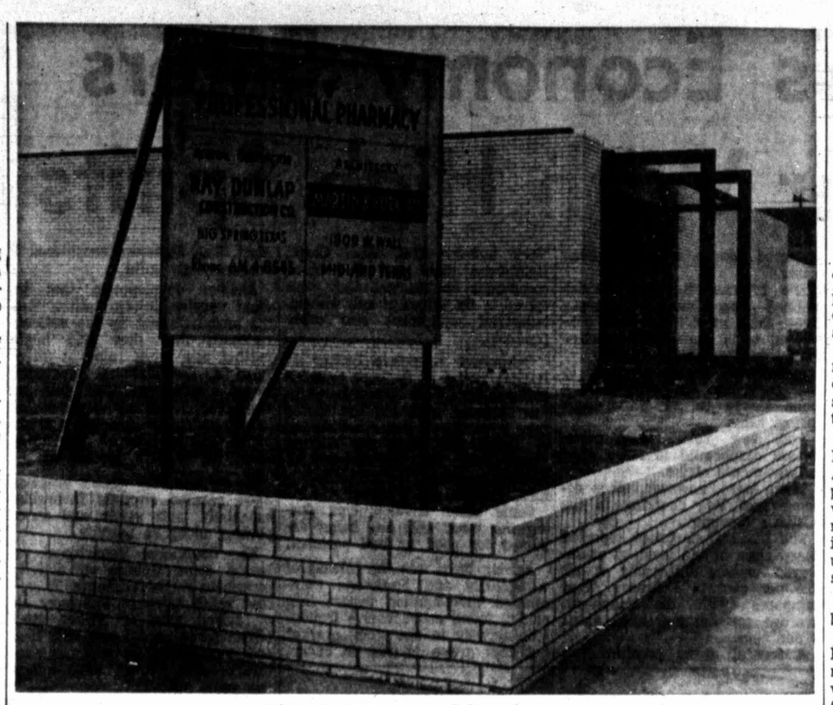

Another Connally proposal is not doing so good. The plan to revise operations of the State Banking Department has not attracted as much attention but it is the subject of considerable controversy among state finance leaders. It is still stuck in a Senate subcommittee.

As originally requested by Connally there would be a three member laymen board to replace the present Banking Board consisting of the banking commissioner, state treasurer and the attorney general.

College Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Loans have been approved by the Communities Facilities Administration to help two Texas colleges finance construction of dormitories for women students.

South Plains Junior College at Levelland was granted a $177,000 loan to build housing for 49 students. Another loan of $100,000 goes to Blinn College at Brenham for housing 40 students.

Is There Really A Farm Problem?

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The question is beginning to be debated as to whether this country actually has a farm problem as such.

Certainly it is generally agreed among farm leaders, members of Congress, and social and economic scientists that there is a surplus of manpower catalogued as belonging to agriculture. Too, there is agreement, perhaps not so wide, that agriculture produces too much.

But many are beginning to look upon what is generally classed as the farm problem—surplus manpower, surplus production and inadequate farm returns—as nothing more than a reflection of a greater problem.

This greater problem is one of unemployment and underemployment. It exists in urban areas as well as in rural areas.

For the most part, the rural unemployment and underemployment reflect the great scientific and technological advances agriculture has made since World War II. Using this new knowledge, new techniques and new machinery, agriculture requires fewer men.

The same thing is happening in the cities. Automation is reducing the need for man.

Those in agriculture who look upon rural problems in this light contend there is no more reason to refer to rural unemployment as a farm problem than there is to of referring to unemployment in the steel industry as a steel problem, or in the textile industry as a textile problem.

There are many in agriculture who believe that if the nation were able to expand its economy sufficiently to provide work for the unemployed and underemployed—whether they live in urban or rural areas—farm production would tend to stabilize with a minimum of government help.

They say that as national employment increased and continued to increase, and as agriculture grew more and more efficient, there would be a gradual decline in the number of farms. Year by year, the less efficient would tend to shift to other work or activities—if they are available.

Those remaining in agriculture would become more and more like their successful and productive cousins in industry. That is, they would have to become more and more expert in their fields. Not only in production but in learning, through cooperation and through advance studies of farm market outlets, how to adjust production on their own to avoid price-depressing surpluses.

It is contended that full employment in the nation would greatly increase the demand for food—particularly of meats, dairy products, fruits and vegetables.

Certainly Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman is giving more and more attention to the unemployment and underemployment aspects of rural America. He has estimated that there is the equivalent of 4 million unemployed in rural areas, including small towns.

Freeman is seeking to attack the rural phase of this problem through a rural development program. This program seeks to help local leaders set up or secure new industries. It also seeks to encourage the diversion of much unneeded crop land to recreation.

This program also seeks to help train people for non-farm skills and jobs. Freeman has said this program may well overshadow the farm commodity farm-aid programs within a few years.

King Shows How To Go First Class

NEW YORK (AP)—King Hassan II of Morocco showed New Yorkers what it means to go first class this week. His shopping trips seemed like something out of "The Arabian Nights."

The king, who ended a 10-day visit to this country Friday, included a little shopping for the royal household on his agenda.

So, with one sweep of his arm, he bought more cars than the average American will purchase during a lifetime.

With another wave of his hand, he ordered more blankets, towels, sheets, mats, robes, pillow cases and bedspreads than any housewife could ever dream of buying.

The whole thing took less than three hours.

On Monday night, he made his additions to the royal livery. He headed for an automobile showroom where 18 cars in the General Motors line were on display, especially for him. They ran the gamut from the most luxurious Cadillac to the simplest compact.

The king and his party looked at all of them within a half hour. He placed an order for at least five Cadillacs, and an unspecified number of other cars, through the firm's overseas division.

"There's never been anything like it," commented George B. Brown, a representative of the agency.

The king and his party headed for a textile house Thursday, where the night before the management had prepared for the royal shopping trip by having butlers, maids, a bartender, a supply of orange juice and Turkish coffee standing by.

The exact orders still haven't been tallied. Estimates range as high as 5,000 of the bedroom-bathroom items, including 150 blankets that will be packed to leave with the royal party. This trip lasted about an hour and 45 minutes.

But the problems didn't end there.

The king wanted the royal crest, coat of arms and monograms put on every item, some of which had to be finished for his departure.

"It's all been very hectic," one of the company's spokesman said, quite out of breath.

Zale's Marks 39th Year

Zale's Jewelry Co., now rated the largest retail jewelry firm in America, is winding up its 39th year of operation with 293 stores in operation with 3,000 employes. This is 73 more than a year ago.

Records reflect a sales volume of $74 million, more than three times the next largest firm in the field. All of this grew out of a store whice Morris B. Zale founded in Wichita Falls in 1914 after a brief period in Graham. He used a phonograph to attract customers, but he had two basic tenets: Give good value on liberal credit terms. He backed this with heavy local advertising. In four years he added a second store, the following year a third, a fourth in 1934 and acquired a manager, Ben A. Lipshy, who in 1957 was to become the firm's president. From 13 stores at the outset of World War II, the present chain rocketed.

Texas Farmers And Ranchers Happily Watch Week's Rains

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Texas farmers and ranchers happily watched rain fall this weekend, breaking the drought in some areas.

However, indications were that more rain would be welcomed even in the favored areas, while some sections still needed moisture desperately.

Before the weekend rains, John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, pointed out the fact that dry weather had held up crop germination, crop growth and pasture improvements. It caused continued heavy feeding of livestock in some sections.

Reports of district farm agents before the rains came:

Though some showers fell in the Panhandle over last weekend, moisture is very short. Dryland wheat must have rain to survive. Cattle are holding up well.

Onions are being set in the South Plains. Sugar beets and potatoes are planted. Fertilizer distribution and pre-plant irrigation are in full swing. Irrigated wheat is making good progress and much planting of cotton and grain sorghum is expected in late April. Livestock are getting feed. Ranges are in fair condition.

Part of the Rolling Plains got weekend showers, especially beneficial in the Wichita Falls area. Wheat growth is slow because of the lack of rain. Early fields are jointing. Irrigation is under way.

Moisture is very short in far West Texas and dry land grain is very poor. Irrigated grains are good. Range conditions were below average with a 90 per cent lamb crop in Crockett County and a 50 per cent crop in Kinney County. Cotton land is ready for planting.

Pastures are slow due to the drought in West Central Texas. Much grain is being plowed up. Sorghum planting will start with the first rain. Pecans are budding; goat shearing is complete; sheep shearing is on. Livestock are in fair condition with feeding still heavy.

Moisture is short in Northeast Texas and is especially needed on pastures. Wheat and oats were making good growth but under attack from greenbugs. Corn is being planted; orchards look good; and livestock are improving with only limited feeding.

Moisture in Central Texas ranges from short to very short. Oats are making little progress. Most corn and sorghum have been planted and moisture would help. Fruit trees are past the full bloom stage; sheep shearing is under way and pastures are greening but grazing is short due to the lack of rain. Livestock were in fair to good condition.

Moisture is short in East Texas and pastures are below average. Livestock are in only fair condition.

Rain is needed in all south central counties. The situation is best in the coastal counties. Sweet corn, potatoes, tomatoes and some sorghum are being planted but early growth has been slow due to the lack of moisture. Some feeding is still going on with oats furnishing light grazing. Fruit prospects were good.

Moisture is extremely short in all South Texas counties. Cotton, corn, sorghum and peanuts are still being planted in northern counties of the district. Cabbage, onions and carrots are being harvested. Livestock are in fair condition but are still being fed.

Meyer Wins Partial Victory

BEAUMONT (AP) — Suspended Sheriff C. H. Meyer has won a partial victory in the state's effort to remove him from office but further legal action will have to be taken before he knows his present standing in his fight against being ousted permanently.

Dist. Judge Wilmer B. Hunt, who came to Beaumont from Houston to hear the ouster trial, dismissed the jury Friday after it reported partial findings in Meyer's favor.

"We the jury, find for Charley H. Meyer," the jury reported to Judge Hunt. It voted in favor of Meyer on 13 of the 19 charges before it. It failed to reach an accord on the other six charges.

Foreman Jimmy L. Jordan told newsmen the jury was split 8-4 on the six charges.

Judge Hunt accepted the jury's findings. He did not immediately declare a mistrial.

"I don't know whether a judgment can be entered on this verdict," the jurist said. He said he would confer later with lawyers for both sides.

Administration Leaders, Cotton Men May Agree

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration farm leaders said Saturday that it and the cotton industry will be able to agree perhaps next week on general terms of a new cotton legislative program.

For weeks, there has been a deadlock over such legislation with disagreement over future acreage allotments and a method of making cotton available to domestic users on a par with foreign buyers now enjoying the benefit of an export subsidy.

Headway in eliminating differences was made at a closed meeting of representatives of cotton growers and with Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles Murphy.

Reports were circulated that the new legislation would provide for an equalization payment of around 6 cents a pound during the 1963-crop cotton marketing year to reduce the price disadvantage of domestic mills and that the payment would equal the export subsidy at the beginning of the 1964-crop year. The export subsidy now is 8.5 cents a pound.

It appeared likely that the legislation will provide for a choice production plan under which growers would be allowed to exceed their basic planting allotments by a specified percentage. However, production on the excess acres would be sold at the world price and not at the higher support price.

It was possible that small growers might get a part of their support commitment in the form of a payment from the government and the balance in the normal cotton loan.

CHECK THAT MAGNIFICATION

Visual Aid Research Turns Up Improved Magnification

Neefe-Hamilton Research Company, a wholly owned Big Spring corporation, has perfected a subnormal visual aid which in effect puts a reading glass in glasses.

Actually, it does more than that because greater magnification is obtained with negligible distortion and with minimum limitation.

The device, which scarcely differs from a regular pair of glasses, is available in powers that give twice or three times the magnifying power of regular bifocals.

Since its general appearance is similar to a bifocal, the patient's vision correction can be incorporated into the unit allowing vision at both distances. There also is a wide field of vision.

Basically, glasses are ground according to an individual's prescription. Then on the bifocal portion of one lens, a matching lens with prescribed magnification, is fused by plastic. (This could be done on both lens, but usually people with partial or subnormal vision warranting the aid prefer to have it put on the lens for their best eye).

The Neefe-Hamilton Research development is an outgrowth of a special light-weight cataract lens on which a patent is now pending. Magnification previously had been obtained by plastic superimposed on the corrective lens. But plastic, while light, is soft and becomes clouded with slight abrasion. The Neefe-Hamilton process got around this by utilizing the lightweight plastic for magnification, but covering this with a tough glass lens. Instead of the conventional heavy, thick cataract lens, the effect was a pair of glasses scarcely heavier than a normal pair. The same principal was applied to create the new aid for older people and others with subnormal or partial sight. Part of the process involves a plastic with permanent clarity and bonding properties.

The special aid is sold only by Hamilton Optometric Clinic here, however there are plans for expansion of production. Neefe-Hamilton has over 15 patents issued or pending in the field of optics. They include new advances in the fields of contact lenses, subnormal visual aids and general spectacle corrections. Principal officers of the company are Charles Neefe and Mrs. Allen Hamilton.

Reeder Named Honorary Ambassador For Big Spring

Roy B. Reeder, past president of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Reeder, left Friday morning for Dallas on the first leg of their airplane trip to Japan and the Far East.

Reeder left Big Spring with a special commission from Mayor George Zachariah and the city commission, as "Honorary Mayor ond Roving Ambassador-at-Large for the City of Big Spring."

The Reeders will take an active part in the New Life Movement in Japan, and will work in Shimoitozu Kokura, about 1,000 miles southwest of Tokyo and on Kyushu.

"Mayor Zachariah wrote a letter to Reeder, to carry along with the special commission, to function as a good will ambassador and to spread a good word about Big Spring among those with whom he comes in contact," City Manager Larry Crow said Saturday. "The presentation was made Thursday before the Reeders left for Dallas."

The Rev. Robert F. Polk, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will leave for Dallas, following the evening service today, and will fly to Japan Monday. He will be evangelist at the Sengawa Baptist Mission in western Tokyo.

Dr. P. W. Malone and daughter, Mary Frances Malone, have been working with the Billy Graham team in the Tokyo Crusade and will be in that area about a week.

Others going to Japan for the same type work will be Joe Dunn, who will leave April 15 for Kitoyoshi Mission at Kumamota, Kenin southernmost Japan below Nagasaki, and Rayford Dunagan, who will leave April 22 for Shinzaiya, Hemiji, below Hiroshima.

Wright Wants Inter-American Road Self-Paying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., recommended Saturday the creation of an Inter-American Highway Authority to supervise a system of fees and taxes that would make the road self -supporting once it is completed.

Wright, who inspected the Texas-to-Panama section of the Pan American Highway last fall for the House Public Works Committee, said it is "the most important symbol of Inter - American cooperation that we've ever had."

Nation's Economy Enters Quarter With High Spirits

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's economy stepped into the spring quarter with spirits high and prospects bright.

Several weak spots remain, but the outlook as the first week of the new quarter opened was better than many believed it could be last fall.

Steel production figures were up for the ninth straight week and there were predictions the coming quarter would hit a three-year high.

Auto production continued to gain and one executive said it's very possible the industry will have a third straight banner year.

The Labor Department reported that the March jobless rate reflected the biggest month-to month drop in more than four years, with the seasonally adjusted total shrinking from 6.1 per cent of the work force to 5.6.

New orders received by manufacturers in February set a record, retail sales were up in February to a record and it appeared March would be even better.

The Internal Revenue Service outlined new business expense rules that most observers considered to be far less restrictive than first indicated.

The stock market charged to new highs for the year, staging what looked to be a vigorous spring rally.

And New York City's newspapers reappeared in force after a three-month strike.

There were, however, other developments less cheering to the business community.

The Labor Department reported sharp rises in the level of unemployed teen-agers, saying it hit 15.6 per cent in February. That compares with the long-term average for the month of about 6 per cent.

A federal grand jury in New York indicted U.S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem Steel and five other companies on charges they conspired to fix prices of rail wheels, industrial equipment and other products.

Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges spoke of dangers to agricultural exports if European Common Market attitudes harden as they have shown some indications of doing. He said the United States may have to restrict industrial imports if U.S. agricultural exports are impeded.

Some other developments during the week still are being assessed for good or bad portents.

Among them was the release of a Security and Exchange Commission investigation report that said it found no pervasive fraudulent activity in the stock market but that grave abuses do occur. Most Wall Streeters considered it encouragingly mild.

Another development that invited varying interpretations was the announcement by the nation's railroads that they will begin putting new work rules in effect April 8. The National Mediation Board quickly certified this an emergency, thereby empowering the President to appoint a study panel and to prevent any union strike for 60 days. He did so.

On balance, the week's business news seemed strongly favorable, especially with steels and autos perking along so merrily.

The Commerce Department released some figures on activity elsewhere in the economy. It said that retail sales in February hit a revised total of almost $20.5 billion for a record and that new orders received by all manufacturers hit a record $34.6 billion the same month.

Stock sales for the week totaled 23,676,270 shares, up from the 19,419,050 of the previous week and 15,286,790 for the comparable week a year ago. Bond sales amounted to $27,982,000 par value, compared with $23,633,000 the previous week and $27,253,000 for the comparable 1962 week.

Legislative Work Week

AUSTIN (AP) — The legislature last week:

SENATE

Passed to the Governor bills to:

Merger the Game and Fish and Parks agencies; require cities of under 185,000 to match up to 3 per cent firemen's contributions to retirement funds; and reduced occupation tax on sulphur producers.

Agreed to House changes and sent to the governor a bill to authorize the Texas Water Development Board to acquire water storage facilities.

Returned to House with changes bills to:

Remove franchise tax on state banks; provide for tax on pool tables; amended securities act relating to sale of securities; permit expenditures by legal guardians from estates of wards; establish the Kilgore Research Center at West Texas State College; and authorize Texas A&I College to acquire land in Hidalgo County.

Passed to the House measures to:

Abolish the poll tax; establish teachers' sick leave program; establish annual voter registration system; allow cities to acquire historical sites; and revise code of criminal procedure.

HOUSE

Agreed to Senate changes and sent to the governor bills to:

Permit Sunday bowling; and raise age ceiling for recipients of aid to dependent children.

Failed to agree to Senate changes and asked for a conference committee on a bill to increase highway speed limits to 70 miles per hour.

Passed to the Senate measures to:

Realign congressional districts; increase to $500 the expenditures allowed without competitive bidding by counties; provide for the issuance of occupational drivers licenses; establish a student loan fund; increase from two to five the multiple of gas or oil production allowed over allowables in two consecutive months; and create courts of civil appeals in Corpus Christi and Tyler.

GOVERNOR

Signed measures to:

Create Padre Island Seashore; provide penalties for operation of aircraft while drunk; exempt the requirements of countersignatures by local agents for bid bonds issued in connection with public or private contracts; authorize the State Hospital Board to contract for medical care and treatment; authorize the State Hospital Board to carry on research in mental retardation; provide speed limits and littering regulations for parks in Gulf counties; change the name of West Texas State College to a university; providing that securities transfers be guaranteed by bank officers; increase benefits for retired teachers; regulate use of insecticides; raise fees for dealers and manufacturers license plates; and allow state institutions to purchase atomic reactor liability insurance.

NO SITTING DUCKS

Air Force Plans Fighter Dispersal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dispersal of more than 100 Air Force jet fighters next summer will reduce their vulnerability to Soviet missile knockout while keeping them in position to intercept any attacking Russian bombers.

The Air Force announced Friday that three squadrons of interceptors will be shifted, two beefed up, two others disbanded and their planes redistributed to other units.

Involved are 1,200-mile-an-hour F101 Voodoos and 1,500 mile-an-hour F106 Delta Darts in squadrons in California, Oregon, Washington State, Massachusetts, Delaware, and Maryland, just outside Washington, D. C.

In all, about 900 U. S. jets are assigned to the North American Air Defense Command.

The announcement said the dispersal is aimed at giving Air Force fighter interceptors maximum survivability in the event of a ballistic missile attack upon this country."

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and the Air Force have been concerned for some time about a situation which finds air defense units sharing fields with such prime missile targets as Strategic Air Command bombers.

Thus, defense officials have feared, the Russians might be able with a single nuclear missile blow to knock out both bombers and the U. S. fighters whose mission would be to meet any Soviet bomber assault following up a missile strike on this country.

McNamara told Congress recently the Pentagon proposes to disperse air defense forces further in the fiscal year starting July 1 "by providing additional facilities at a number of U. S. interceptor dispersal bases."

This action will permit the spreading out of about one-quarter of the interceptor force "for extended periods of time," he said.

During the Cuban crisis last fall, virtually all the interceptors —armed with nuclear-tipped air-to - air rockets — were dispersed widely around the country.

Another factor besides survivability is believed involved in the dispersal plan.

With the Soviet bomber threat expected to decline in the years ahead, the Air Force is building no more interceptor planes. The fighters it is buying and developing are tactical aircraft mainly for achieving air superiority over the battlefield and supporting ground assault.

The size of the interceptor force has been declining through attrition caused by accidental crackups and the like.

Thus, by dispersing, the fewer air defense craft can be put in better position to protect key points.

Bar Suspends Two Lawyers

AMARILLO (AP)—Two Amarillo lawyers were ordered suspended for a year Friday by the State Bar of Texas for alleged professional misconduct.

They were former Potter County Dist. Atty. Wayne Bagley and his law partner Harold D. Sanderson.

The Bar association acted after a hearing on charges of conflicting interest in the two lawyers' representation of a client who later was found legally incompetent.

Bagley was district attorney in 1960 when a Texas House Investigating Committee investigated alleged breakdown of law enforcement.

The investigation centered around former Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens. Stevens subsequently was disbarred in Texas and moved to Albuquerque, N.M.

Direct Line Talks Scheduled To Open

GENEVA (AP)—American and Soviet delegates are to open informal discussions this week on a proposed direct line between Washington and the Kremlin, Western officials said Saturday.

The Soviet Union announced Friday it was prepared to install such a direct communications link as a means of preventing accidental war and reducing world tension.

Soviet Ambassador Semyon K. Tsarapkin told the 17-nation disarmament conference Russia "is ready to accept at once, without waiting for general and complete disarmament, the suggestion that direct telephone or teletype communication should be established between the governments of the United States and the Soviet Union."

The direct line proposal was first made by the United States a year ago and reiterated in December when the Cuban crisis showed an urgent need for high-speed direct communications. Traditional coding and translating procedures and the protocol of diplomacy cannot keep pace with the split-second triggering of modern weapons.

American delegation sources said the direct line probably would be a permanent cable teletype circuit between Washington and Moscow. The circuit could be used for telephone conversations in case of need, but teletype is considered preferable since telephone conversations could raise complicated problems about the accuracy of reception and interpretation, and might make things worse instead of better.

Tsarapkin is expected to open informal negotiations on the subject Tuesday or Wednesday with U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle. They almost certainly will pass the matter on to telecommunications experts.

Tsarapkin's acceptance took American delegation officials by surprise, and no working papers on technical aspects were immediately available here. Nor does the U.S. delegation include a single telecommunications expert.

The original American proposal, contained in a draft disarmament treaty tabled on April 18, 1962, included U.N. Secretary-General U Thant in the direct line circuit. But there was no mention of the secretary-general when the United States pulled the proposal out of the general disarmament treaty last December and suggested it as a separate and immediate peace-keeping measure. Nor did Tsarapkin indicate that the Soviet Union was prepared to make Thant a third party.

Many technical problems remained to be worked out before the scheme can come into operation.

Help To Salk Institute

Rad Ware (right) hands a $1,000 check to Ronald Zink, state representative of the National Foundation, which will be used to help finance the Salk Institute, a research organization for the study of cells to be built at San Diego, Calif. Dr. Jonas Salk will head the organization. The institute will cost $15 million, plus $1 million annually for operation. Ware is chairman of the local National Foundation chapter.

FOREIGN BRAINS

Senators Protest U.A.R. Missilery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six senators appealed directly to President Kennedy Saturday to urge German and other governments to stop their scientists from helping build missiles in the United Arab Republic.

Their letter said numbers of German and other European nationals are working on missiles, air engines and air frames for President Gamal Abdel Nasser's U.A.R. in an activity "clearly designed to threaten peace in the Middle East."

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., and four other Republicans, Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating of New York; Thomas H. Kuchel of California, the assistant Senate minority leader, and Winston L. Prouty of Vermont signed the letter along with Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Specifically they asked the U.S. government to use its good offices with the governments of West Germany and other European nations to discourage participation of their scientists in the construction of missiles and other offensive weapons for Nasser.

The senators said a number of West German representatives have already expressed concern over the situation.

They recalled that Kennedy at his news conference Wednesday voiced concern about the balance of power in that part of the world.

The senators said a balance apparently now exists which would discourage military action, "but in a world that has seen many sudden scientific breakthroughs, who can say what can develop in weeks or days to shift suddenly the balance of power to the advantage of the U.A.R.?"

"That country under Gamal Abdel Nasser has a long record of searching for and using offensive advantages to the detriment not only of Israel but also of its Arab neighbors," the letter continued.

"Surely, in the face of these disturbing developments, it would be highly appropriate for the United States to reaffirm its deep and continuing interest in the security of Israel and other independent Middle Eastern states and to put renewed emphasis on measures designed to reduce Middle Eastern tensions.

"It does not serve the interests of either the United States or of world peace to have the situation continue. A word of urging from the United States would go far toward encouraging the already concerned German government and other governments to hold its nationals in line."

Ike Solution To Birchers: Ignore Them

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the best way to deal with the John Birch Society is to ignore it.

Eisenhower spoke to newsmen Thursday before a speech at Charter Day ceremonies for the University of California.

"I have no interest in the Birch Society. I know nothing about its organization. In my experience, I have handled other such movements as the Birch Society and I ignored them. I think that's the best policy."

The militantly anti-Communist Birch Society has strongly criticized Eisenhower's policies as president.

Its founder, Robert Welch, once described him as a "dedicated, conscious agent of the Communist conspiracy."

Speaking on the 95th anniversary of the university, Eisenhower said that education is the key to freedom and that "America's first line of defense runs through her university campuses." The former president received an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Highway Deaths

AUSTIN (AP)—State police said Saturday 520 persons have died on Texas highways this year. This compares to 455 deaths last year.

Birth Control Suit Splits Illinois Politicos

CHICAGO (AP)—Five members of the Illinois Public Aid Commission say they will fight to the U.S. Supreme Court a legal battle over birth control.

The IPAC—the state's welfare department—and the commission members were hit Monday by a taxpayer's suit which asked Cook County Superior Court to severely restrict the IPAC's birth control program.

The program, already in effect, offers to supply free contraceptives to any mother or married woman on relief who requests them.

The suit asks that the contraceptives be restricted to married women living with their husbands —and not given to unmarried mothers or wives not living with their husbands.

The birth control issue has made a jumble of political party lines in Illinois.

The suit to cut back the program was filed by Benjamin S. Adamowski, a Republican who lost the race for mayor Tuesday to Richard J. Daley.

William G. Clark, state attorney general and a Democrat, has said he does not intend to defend Illinois' Welfare Department in the suit because he believes its birth control plan is illegal.

Friday, Arnold Maremont, wealthy industrialist who heads the IPAC, countered by announcing he and four of the other nine commission members have hired a lawyer with money from their own pockets.

They promised to fight the suit to the U.S. Supreme Court.

On higher political levels, the state's two most powerful Democrats, Gov. Otto Kerner and Mayor Daley, are on opposite sides of the issue.

Kerner has backed his welfare chief's plan; Daley says he disagrees with it personally, but will not actively fight it.

In Springfield, state legislators of both parties have backed a pending bill to restrict the birth control program.

Maremont maintains the plan will save millions of dollars by preventing the birth of infants who will have to be supported by the public.

Three Killed In Car Crash

GAINESVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Three young men from Wichita Falls were killed and another was injured in a traffic accident west of here late Friday night.

One was Leon Huff Jr., 25, whose late father was a featured singer during the pre-war political campaigns of the former governor and senator, W. Lee O'Daniel.

Also killed were Johnnie Grimes and Winson Casstevens, both 20.

Seriously injured was Gary Vick, 18, who was moved from Gainesville to Wichita Falls.

Huff's father died several years ago in Oklahoma. He sang with the O'Daniel hillbilly band that gained widespread prominence on a radio program sponsored in the 30's by a flour company.

The car slipped off wet pavement eight miles west of Gainesville and skidded into a tree.

Russian Moon Probe Falls Wide Of Mark

MOSCOW (AP)—Lunk 4 passed within 5,300 miles of the moon Saturday, Tass reported, and yielded valuable information to Soviet scientists. It was the widest miss of any of the four Russian moon shots and Lunik 4 was reported doomed to become a satellite of the sun.

The Soviet news agency announced the instrument-crammed, 3,130-pound research vehicle—five times heavier than its 1959 model predecessors—passed the moon at 4:26 a.m. Moscow time at a distance of 5,281 miles.

That compares with a 4,700-mile miss by the pioneering Lunik 1; a reported hit with the landing of Lunik 2, and an approach to within 4,375 miles by Lunik 3 on an orbital flight that yielded pictures of the perpetually hidden back side of the moon.

A suspicion among foreigners that Lunik 4 did not do all Soviet scientists expected it to do was fed by the fact Tass spoke of its accomplishments only in general terms and wrote off the project in a 200-word communique.

The director of Britain's Jodrell Bank radio telescope, Sir Bernard Lovell, said he believed the Russians had failed—through human error or faulty equipment—in a serious attempt to land instruments on the moon. Lovell commented: "If the Russians do not succeed in making soft landings of instruments in the next six months their time scale in the manned moon program will begin to go very much astray."

The United States landed a 730-pound Ranger 4 on the moon April 26, 1962, but instrument failure made it a dud.

Tass said nothing about speculation since the launching Tuesday that this Soviet entry in preliminaries of a race with the United States toward a manned landing might try to photograph the moon or even establish a robot laboratory on the surface.

"The experiments and measurements carried out with the help of the Lunik 4 station have been completed," it said. "Radio contact with the station will be maintained for several more days.

"The probe has produced a vast amount of experimental material which is of great importance for the solution of a number of technical problems associated with the conquest of the moon. The data obtained is being processed at scientific centers."

Tass announced Lunik 4 will orbit the earth for a while on an irregular course, then will be drawn in time from the earth's gravitational sphere by the pull of the sun and the moon to become an artificial satellite of the sun.

In its first orbit, the agency said, it will fly as far from the earth as 434,960 miles and return to 56,927 miles.

"This ends publication of Tass announcements about the movement of the Lunik 4 station," the communique said.

The Last Laugh

HOUSTON (AP)—Every year since 1949, Andy Bargainer of Baytown has received a Harris County property tax bill and promptly tossed it into a wastebasket.

This year, the tax man sent a nasty note.

The tax man said a 65 by 300-foot strip of land will be sold for taxes unless Bargainer pays $87.66 in back taxes within 14 days.

Bargainer said he is keeping this latest notice for laughs.

He said he sold the strip to the state in 1948 after it had been condemned for highway right-of-way.

Bellamy Sued By Producers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Ralph Bellamy is being sued for $202,500 by three television producers who say he broke a contract with them.

Alan Woods, James A. Bank and John Kneubuhl said in the Superior Court suit last week that Bellamy agreed to star in the pilot film of a proposed television series they would produce.

The three said Bellamy broke an oral contract last Dec. 20 by making a pilot film for another company and repudiating a Nov. 19 agreement with them.

Jack Nicklaus Holds Top Spot In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Heavyweight Jack Nicklaus bulled through a harassing rain storm in 74 for a one-stroke lead at 214 and the comeback magic failed to work for defending champion Arnold Palmer Saturday in the third round of the Masters Golf Tournament.

Palmer, the man who performs fairways miracles, surged and then faded for a 73 and 220, which placed him six shots off the pace. The other member of golf's renowned "Big Three," Gary Player of South Africa, had a 74 for 219.

The nearest man to the 23-year-old Nicklaus, the game's sensational sophomore, going into Sunday's climactic round was a crippled old pro with a barrel of nerve, Ed Furgol, 46, who shot a 74 for 215.

Furgol's left arm is crooked and 8 inches shorter than his right, which also was damaged a few years ago in an automobile accident.

The drenching rain and cascading bogeys drowned the once bright hopes of big Mike Souchak, the 36-hole leader, and others who had been clustered near the top starting this wet, miserable day.

Souchak, hard luck man in three recent U.S. Opens, missed eight greens and failed to salvage his par at any one of them in shooting a nightmarish 79 for 218.

He was tied at this spot with an implausible little Oriental — smiling, bashful Chen Ching-po, the king of the Far East, who chipped in on two greens and sank a 20-foot putt on another for a 71.

Jay Hebert, the handsome Louisiana Cajun who had been tied with Nicklaus at 140 just a shot back of Souchak at the halfway point, took a horrendous 81 for 221. After leading the field at the 45-hole mark, he took two double bogeys and four bogeys on the nine finishing holes — a collapse that utterly defied belief.

Graying Francis (Bo) Wininger, tied with Souchak for the opening day lead, also blew sky high, shooting a 77 for 218.

So, when they tee it up Sunday in what promises to be a bright, sunshiny day, it will be Nicklaus at 214 and Furgol at 215, followed by Julius (Big Moose) Boros, former U.S. open champion, 216, Sam Snead and Tony Lema, at 217; Chen Ching-po, Wininger and Souchak, at 218; Player, Stan Leonard of Canada and Mason Rudolph at 219, and Palmer clustered with Australian Bruce Crampton, Don January and Dow Finsterwald at 220.

Any one of them is in a position to win it in the final 18 holes because of the fickleness of the tough 6,850-yard, par 72 Augusta National course but most observers felt that Nicklaus might be too stolid a man to shake.

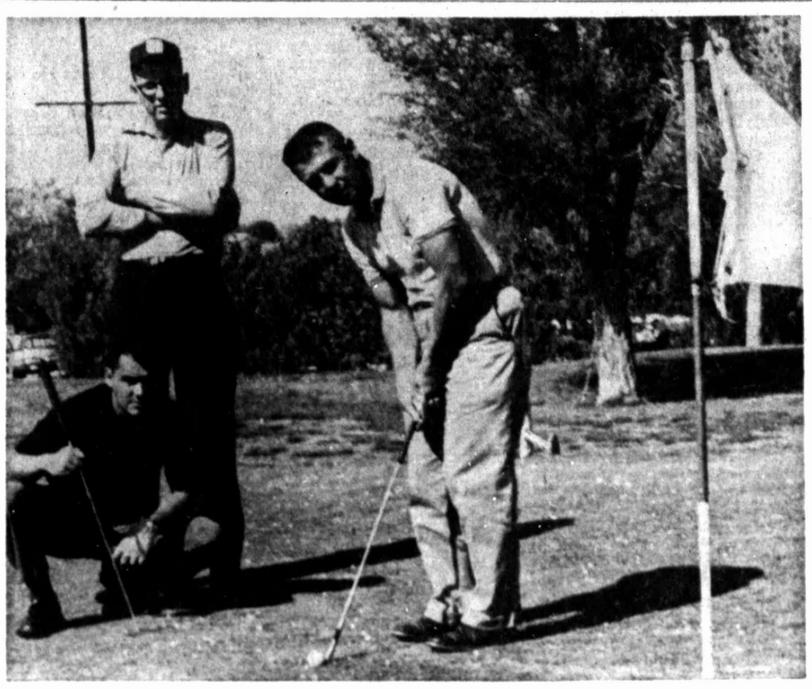

Nicklaus, who beat Palmer last year in a playoff for the U.S. Open title and a rich televised world series, had three bogeys in the first seven holes in a start that might have discouraged a lesser man.

But he pulled his big, sagging game together and reeled off 11 straight pars in a tremendous driving and putting exhibition.

A frigid putter spoiled a more rousing rally by Palmer and broke the hearts of his vast gallery—known as "Arnie's Army."

THE LEADERS:

Jack Nicklaus	74-66-74-214
Ed Furgol	70-71-74-215
Julius Boros	76-69-71-216
Tony Lema	74-69-74-217

Unheralded John Camien Shades Dyrol Burleson

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN (AP) — Rice's Fred Hansen vaulted 16 feet 1 inch, unheralded John Camien of Emporia Kansas State upset famed miler Dyrol Burleson and Texas Southern scored a six-relays sweep in the chill, windy Texas Relays Saturday.

Hansen tried for the world's record after soaring higher than any Texan but missed at 16 feet 4 inches three times.

His 16 feet 1 was one of only three records set in the big track and field carnival—the first time there have been so few in a quarter of a century.

A 6 to 8 mile wind and heavy track held down the runners, who were forced to go into the teeth of the wind.

Hansen was named outstanding performer of the relays for his feat. It was the first 16-foot vault in the history of the meet.

Camien's victory over Burleson and Bill Dotson, another 4-minute miler, was a sensation. The little Kansasan had to run his fastest mile to do it. He ripped off a 4:02.6, catching Burleson 40 yards from the tape. Burleson, the ex-Oregon star who had done 3:57.6, wound up second with 4:02.9. Dotson was third at 4:04.8.

Texas Relays officials had hoped for their first 4-minute mile. The record was 4:00.5 set by Wes Santee in 1955.

Texas Southern, which won five relays and set records in all of them here last year, then later won six at the Kansas Relays, was able to equal the latter feat Saturday because a relay had been added.

Texas Southern set only one record and that was an automatic one. It came in the distance medley—the relay that had been added to give six in the college class. The time was 10:13.9.

The other record was in the high school division where Toby Belt of Houston Westbury threw his shot 60 feet 9½ inches.

Texas Southern ran its streak to 21 out of 23 relay triumphs. The Houston Negro school once had a 36-straight skein but had it broken last year at the Drake Relays.

Ohio University's quartet of Bill Heller, Robert Crooks, Barry Sudgen and Darnell Mitchell won the most relays in the university class. The unpublicized visitors from the Mid-West captured the distance medley and two-mile relays. No other school won more than one.

Runnels Loses In Net Finals

Lamesa defeated Big Spring Runnels, 40-10, in the ninth grade finals of the Big Spring Junior High School girls' volleyball tournament here Saturday night.

Big Spring won consolations in that division, kayoing Snyder Travis in the finals, 44-38.

In eighth grade championship finals, Kermit turned back Big Spring Runnels, 45-15.

Lamesa copped consolations in that class, trouncing Seminole, 33-3.

The ninth grade all-tournament team was composed of Georgia Wise and Linda Lightfoot, both of Runnels; Cheryl Kasch and Robbie Chapman, both of Goliad; Williams, Hutchings and Villavos, all of Lamesa, and Dyess, Travis.

The eighth grade all-stars were Eva Miller and Gloria Correa, both of Runnels; Ladonna Stocks, Goliad; Stephens and Villavos, both of Lamesa; Bryson and Devolin, both of Kermit, and Calderon, Seminole.

Harney Fooled By Links Score

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Paul Harney, Worcester, Mass., golf professional, survived the 36-hole cutoff in the Masters tournament, but it took quite a bit of doing before he made it to the first tee for the third round Saturday afternoon.

Harney shot 152 for 36 holes and thinking it would not qualify for the final two days of play, he booked airplane passage home Friday.

A friend who remained at Augusta kept tabs on the scoreboard and learned that a score of 152 just would make the qualifying limit.

He had word left at a Washington, D.C., airport for Harney, who left Washington at 1 a.m. to fly back here. He flew to Atlanta, arriving at 3 a.m., then boarded another plane that brought him to Augusta at 7 a.m.

Boxing Death Reported

CARBONDALE, Pa. (AP) — A 19-year-old amateur boxer from Puerto Rico died Saturday night after being knocked out in the second round of a scheduled three-round bout during a benefit boxing show at the Carbondale Catholic Youth Center.

The victim, Francesco Velasquez, who is in the Army and stationed at the nearby Tobyhanna Depot, never regained consciousness after being knocked out by Earl Johnson of the St. Michael's school for boys of Hoban Heights, Pa.

Two doctors at ringside gave him emergency treatment and when he failed to respond, he was rushed to Carbondale General Hopital where he died 30 minutes later.

Velasquez' death was the fourth in the ring this year. Omar Olive, 18, died Feb. 7 while training for an amateur fight. Former world featherweight champion Davey Moore died March 25 of head injuries sustained in a championship fight against Sugar Ramos in Los Angeles March 21. Enso Burelli, an amateur, died last Tuesday after winning a bout at Brisbane, Australia.

Last year, Ring Magazine listed 14 deaths of boxers, not all in direct ring competition.

Odessa Permian Wins 2-AAAA Track Meet

By DOUG SPRADLING

SAN ANGELO—Odessa Permian lived up to expectations in winning the District 2-AAAA track and field meet here Saturday, scoring a total of 109 points.

San Angelo counted 95 points for a surprise second place finish, followed by Abilene Cooper, 78; Odessa High, 74; Midland High, 60; Abilene High, 31; and Midland Lee, 20. Big Spring failed to score.

First places for Permian were picked up by Kenny Jones in the shot put, who tossed the steel ball 56 feet 2¼ inches; and the mile and sprint relay teams.

First places for San Angelo were won by A. J. Williams in the broad jump, 100 and 220.

Geoffrey Earl of Midland shattered the mile record by negotiating the distance in 4:27.0. He beat the old mark by .8 of a second.

Bill Offill, Abilene, set a new mark in the high jump with a leap of 6-feet-3. Charley Giesey, Midland, held the old record of 6-1¾.

In addition to its two relay teams, Permian qualified three boys for Regional in individual events. San Angelo and Midland High qualified relay teams. The Bobcats also qualified four boys in individual events, Odessa High three, Abilene only one, Midland High two, Abilene Cooper four and Midland Lee two.

Williams was clocked in 10.1 in the 100-yard dash. Big Spring's R. L. Lasater holds the record in that event with a 10.7 clocking.

Celtics Defeat Royals, 125-120

BOSTON (AP) — Tommy Gunner) Heinsohn scored 34 points and the smooth, fast-breaking Celtics employed some decisive second-period tactics as Boston defeated Cincinnati 125-120 Saturday night.

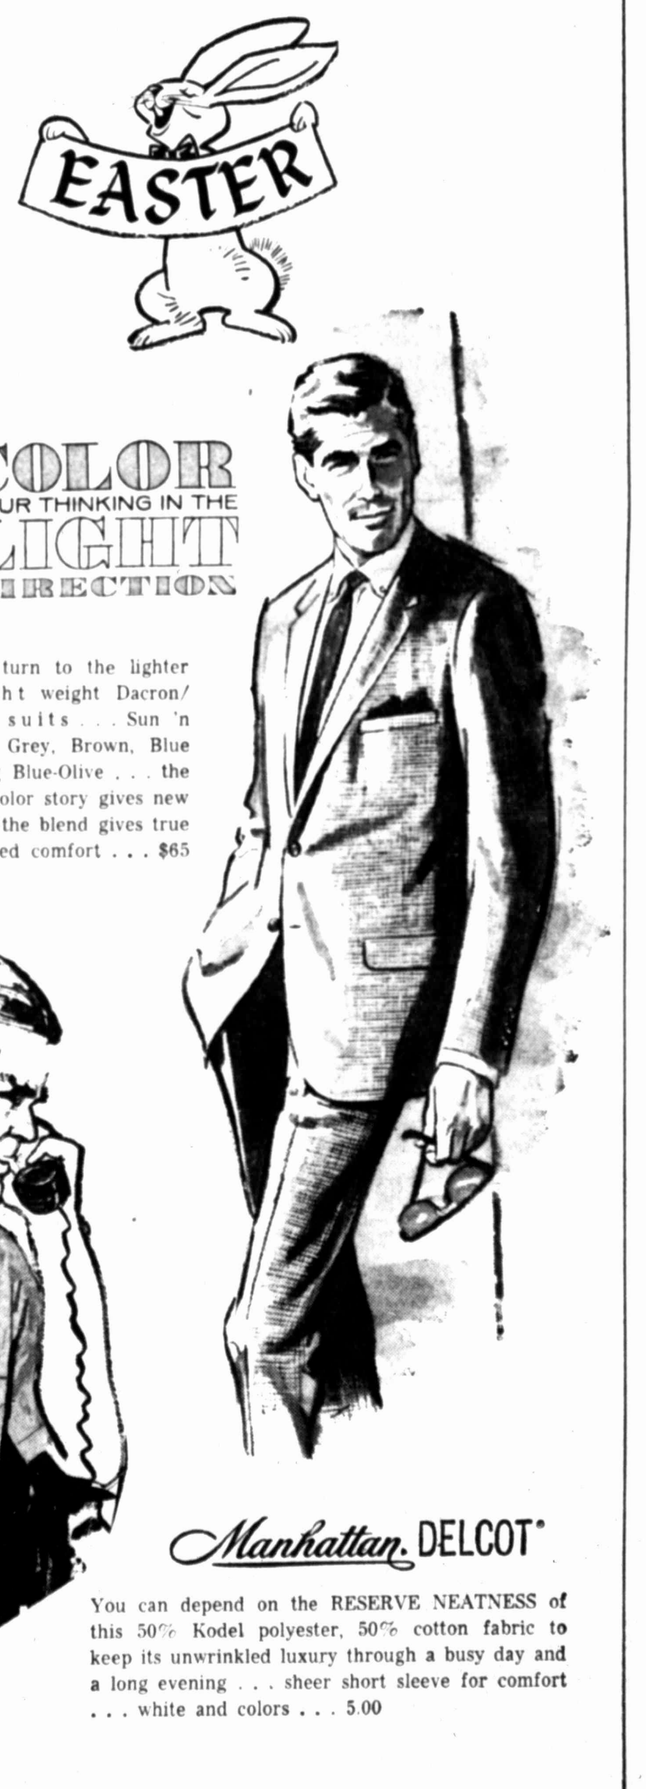

As a result, the defending world champions for the first time took the lead in the Eastern Division playoffs of the National Basketball Association, 3-2. Competition continues Sunday night at the Royals' home court.

The Celtics turned to a typical well-balanced attack and some tight defensive hounding to push Cincinnati to the brink of elimination.

Total Of 350,000 May See Openers

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A 45 per cent player turnover, including at least a dozen rookies, is anticipated when the major leagues open the 1963 baseball season next Monday and Tuesday.

About 350,000 persons, including President Kennedy, are expected to attend the 11 openers, two on Monday, the rest the following day.

The President, as is customary, will throw out the first ball at D.C. Stadium, where some 47,000 fans will watch the Washington Senators inaugurate the American League season against the Baltimore Orioles in Monday's only league game.

Don Rudolph, 31-year-old southpaw, figures to get the starting assignment for Mickey Vernon's Senators. He will be opposed by another left-hander, 23-year-old Steve Barber. Rudolph had an 8-10 record for the last-place Senators and Barber was 9-6 for the Orioles last year.

A capacity crowd of around 30,000 is assured for the traditional National League opener in Cincinnati. The Pittsburgh Pirates, with right-hander Earl Francis, 9-8, on the mound, will be the Reds' opposition. Lefty Jim O'Toole, a 16-13 perfomer in '62 has been given the starting nomination by Reds Manager Fred Hutchinson.

All teams except Baltimore and Washington will play Tuesday. The schedule and starting times EST:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York at Kansas City, 2:30 p.m.
Chicago at Detroit, 1:30 p.m.
Boston at Los Angeles, 11 p.m.
Cleveland at Minnesota, 2:30 p.m.
Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Los Angeles at Chicago, 2:30 p.m.
San Francisco at Houston, 2:30 p.m.
Milwaukee at Pittsburgh, 1:35 p.m.
St. Louis at New York, 2 p.m.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia, 8:05 p.m.

An unprecedented winter trading spree and an unusual flock of spring injuries, combined with the development of a number of rookies have changed the face of a great many clubs.

Houston, for example, will present an opening day line-up containing only two players, exclusive of the pitcher, who were in the 1962 inaugural line-up. They are outfielder Al Spangler and third baseman Bob Aspromonte.

Playing at second base for the Colts will be Ernie Fazio, the $75,000 bonus boy who has changed Manager Harry Craft's mind about sending him to the minors. Among the other Colt newcomers are Pete Runnels, American League batting champion acquired from Boston; Howie Goss, center fielder acquired in a recent trade with Pittsburgh, and rookie catcher Jim Campbell.

Other rookies named to grace opening day line-ups include infielders Nate Oliver and Ken McMullen, Dodgers; third baseman Bob Bailey, Pirates; outfielder Tommy Harper, Reds; shortstop Al Moran, Mets; infielders Tony Martinez and Max Alvis and outfielder Vic Davalille, Indians and third baseman Pete Ward, White Sox.

Veterans who have switched leagues during the past winter include Joe Adcock, Indians; Minnie Minoso, Senators; Roman Mejias and Dick Stuart, Red Sox; Stan Williams, Yankees; Bill Skowron, Dodgers; Don Schwall and Jim Pagliaroni, Pirates; Ty Cline, Braves; Jack Fisher, Giants; Stu Miller, Orioles, and Runnels.

Four new managers will be making their appearance—Johnny Pesky, Red Sox; Bobby Bragan, Braves; Ed Lopat, Athletics, and Birdie Tebbetts, Indians.

Veterans expected to miss the openers because of injuries include Roger Maris, Yankees; Roy Sievers, Phillies; Frank Thomas, Mets and Frank Robinson, Reds. Also currently sidelined with injuries are pitchers Bob Purkey, Reds; Vern Law, Pirates; Billy Hoeft, Giants and Dan Pfister, Athletics.

Port Neches High School is trying hard to lure Bum Phillips away from his head coaching job at Texas Western College in El Paso with a per annum offer of $11,500 — which would make him one of the highest paid mentors in high school circles . . . If Port Neches can't get Phillips, officials there would gladly settle for Gene Mayfield, the Borger coach . . . Mayfield may reason it's time to move on from Borger, although the pressure to field a winner probably would be greater at Port Neches than it would be at Borger . . . They say Wilford Moore, the former McMurry coach, lost out at Port Neches because his ideas were too old-fashioned . . . His critics pointed out he didn't win although his material was good . . . Moore, of course, caught on as head coach at Cleburne, where his annual stipend probably is about $9,250 . . . Don Seamster of Borger, who has played basketball several times against HCJC, recently was elected president of the HSU Student Association in Abilene . . . Numerous coaches who watched Loyola upset Cincinnati in the recent NCAA basketball finals expressed the belief that the Bearcats went into their delaying game too early . . . Newest rule to be adopted by the basketball rules committee probably will be to charge a timeout to a team when one of its players has to call for a recess to replace a shoe — that is if he is wearing low-cut, tennis-type footgear . . . There has been some agitation toward outlawing low-cut shoes altogether in basketball . . . Pistol Pete Pedro, the West Texas grid phenom, is running wild again . . . He gained 217 yards rushing in nine tries in a recent spring game at Canyon . . . Ohio State representatives have won Most Valuable Player awards in Big Ten basketball four straight years now . . . The award has been made since 1946 . . . In 1947, Glen Selbo, then with Wisconsin and later basketball and baseball coach at Midland (Texas) High School, earned the laurel.

Bud Aubuchon, formerly on the Amarillo High coaching staff, is the fellow who succeeded Gene Henderson as first assistant coach at Odessa High School . . . Amarillo High lost another coach recently when Wayne (Red) Cleveland quit to run a grocery store in Lockney . . . Clyde (Bulldog) Turner, who felt like his days were numbered as head coach of the New York Titans at the time, tried unsuccessfully to get the Garland High School coaching job before Chuck Curtis was named to the position . . . More than 40 ex-big league baseball players are now coaching in college circles . . . Their numbers include Charley Gelbert at Lafayette, Bob Garbark at Allegheny, Miss.; Carl Erskine at Anderson, Gil Coan at Brevard, Wilfred LeFebre at Brown, Roy Lee at St. Louis U., Bud Methany at Old Dominion, Ace Parker at Duke and Danny Litwhiler at Florida State . . . The morning gazettes are apt to go to press a lot of times this baseball season without the scores of West Coast games . . . Reason: San Francisco won't start its home night games until 8:15 p.m., which is 10:15 o'clock our time . . . Big Spring is losing a fine young coach in R. E. Dodson, who takes up residence in Garland in June where he will resume his coaching career . . . Dodson says his fondest hope is to have Garland and Big Spring tangle in a football playoff game sometime in the future . . . El Paso Fight May Be Held April 17

Back from El Paso, where they conferred with coach Bum Phillips of Texas Western College, four members of the Big Spring grid staff say they looked at game films until they almost went blind . . . Coach Don Robbins says the group picked up valuable pointers that are bound to stand them in good stead next season, however . . . All agreed that their visit proved more productive than if it had come during the Miners' spring workouts since Phillips would have had little time to chat with them at that time . . . Jack Irons, the local freshman at TWC, will play middle linebacker on defense . . . The United Football League voted recently to eliminate the two-point option after touchdowns and replace it with a 15-minute 'sudden death' overtime period . . . The UFL plays a low pressure type of pro ball . . . Doc Hayes, the SMU basketball coach, is expecting great things out of Mike Marsh, who becomes eligible for the sport again next season . . . Marsh has been looking sensational in workouts . . . Dennis Richardson, the ACC track great, ran a 9.6 hundred and a 20.8 furlong in a five-way meet here in 1960 for school freshman records that still stand . . . They say Richardson and ACC's Jerry Dyes may both wind up on the 1964 U.S. Olympic team . . . It appears that the El Paso fight featuring Gaspar Ortega, which Martin County's Melton McMorries will film for possible showing in U.S. military camps around the world, will go on around April 17 and that Mel Barker will form the opposition for Ortega . . . An El Paso concern will be commissioned to film the bout for McMorries . . . Melton had originally planned to give the contract to an Odessa party but its price was way out of reason.

Cranes Ready To Head North

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is the migration season for the rare wild whooping crane and the big question is: How many will fly north?

The Interior Department said Saturday that 28 of the big birds will start from Texas for the nesting area in Wood Buffalo Park near Great Slave Lake in Canada, 2,500 miles away. They usually leave in small groups over a period of six or seven weeks.

A total of 28 is 4 less than the number counted to have made the successful southern migration last fall and 10 fewer than the record 38 counted at the start of the northward migration last year.

Wildlife Service officials said 38 aerial surveys of the cranes were made at and near the Arkansas National Wildlife Refuge on the Gulf Coast between Oct. 19, when the first returning whoopers were sighted, and March 25.

The build-up was gradual, until a peak number of 32 cranes was noted Dec. 7 and again Dec. 20.

None of the counts since Feb. 15 has shown more than 29 cranes and most recent checks accounted for only 28.

Officials said they hope that some or all of the 10 birds apparently missing from last year's record flock have survived and will rejoin.

In 1946 only 17 whoopers, including 5 young, were counted throughout the winter. Officials are convinced, however, that about 22 adult birds came south that fall. Some either were missed in the surveys or were out of range when the counts were made, officials say.

There is speculation among them that perhaps this year's missing birds only wandered beyond the scope of observations.

Angels Decision Dodgers, 4 To 3

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jim Fregosi tied the game with a ninth-inning triple, then scored the winning run on an error as the Los Angeles Angels came from behind Saturday and defeated the Dodgers 4-3 in the opener of a two-game city series.

The Dodgers committed four errors and only one of the Angel runs was earned.

With one out in the Angel ninth, Felix Torres bounced a single past first base and Bob Sadowski went in to run for him. Fregosi, next up, hit a slicing line drive to right and the ball rolled to the wall when Ron Fairly missed on a try for a diving catch.

Sadowski scored on the triple and Fregosi came in with the deciding run when second baseman Nate Oliver dropped the relay throw from the outfield.

Brown Group May Purchase Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A syndicate headed by Paul Brown, former coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, probably will buy the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League for between $4.5 and $5 million, it has been learned. A source close to the Eagles said he was confident a majority of the 60 stockholders would vote to sell.

In Cleveland, Arthur Modell, president of the Browns, who fired Brown in January, cleared the way for the deal by saying he would release Brown from a contract obligation.

Modell said Brown signed a contract within the past 10 days which redefined his duties with the club but added that Brown could take another job if he so desired.

Brown, who would take over as general manager and coach of the Eagles, has six years remaining on a 10-year contract as vice president of the Cleveland team at an estimated $70,000 a year.

Brown had claimed that Modell breached their contract, which calls for him to be coach-general manager. He says he already was a vice president, the new post assigned him by Modell.

Brown was not available for comment Friday night.

He hasn't made a formal bid but he reportedly sounded out Eagles' officials about the availability of the franchise shortly after he was fired from his Cleveland post last January.

Frank McNamee, Philadelphia fire commissioner and president of the Eagles, declined to comment on the story.

It was understood that the 71-year-old McNamee and Joseph A. Donoghue, executive vice president and secretary, would be in favor of selling to Brown provided the team remains in Philadelphia. McNamee and Donoghue likely would remain with the Eagles.

Texans Offered $1-A-Year Pact

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The outgoing City Council voted Friday to rent Municipal Stadium for $1 a year for two seasons if the Dallas Texans American Football League team moves here.

But the council took no action on an offer of the Athletics baseball team to sign a seven-year contract for a similar deal. The finance committee of the council has recommended against it.

The contract with the Texans, approved 7-2 by the council, commits the city to spend up to $650,000 in bond funds for stadium improvements and construction of a practice field and headquarters building.

Lamar Hunt, owner of the Texans, has promised to move the team here if 25,000 season tickets are sold. The contract with the Texans would give the city 5 per cent of the gate receipts after the first two years and a half of the concession profits for the full term.

New Conference Is Given Name

AUSTIN (AP) — Officials of five Texas and Arkansas colleges decided Friday to name their recently formed athletic association the SouthLand Conference.

Charter members are Abilene Christian College, Arlington State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Trinity University, all of Texas, and Arkansas State College.

The schools' presidents had endorsed the name earlier.

The conference requires the member schools to participate in football, basketball and track with competition in other sports optional.

The athletic group was formed at a March meeting in Dallas.

Football championship competition in the SLC is expected to begin in 1965, officials said, but intra-conference games will begin this year.

Harry Craft May Go With Three Rookies

HOUSTON (AP)— The Houston Colts, with many new young faces, open their second National League season Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. against the defending champion San Francisco Giants.

Manager Harry Craft has indicated he may have three rookies in his starting lineup as the Colts, champions of the spring training Cactus League a second straight year, try to improve on their surprising 1962 eighth place finish.

Outfielder Al Spangler will be the only Tuesday starter who was in the starting lineup a year ago.

Most pre-season predictions have the Colts in eighth place again this year. Craft hopes the club can maintain its spring training momentum and get off to a faster start than in 1962.

The first two weeks will be double tough. The first 12 games are with the Giants and the runnerup Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers follow the Giants into town Friday night. After the six-game home stand, the Colts move to the West Coast to help San Francisco and Los Angeles open their home seasons.

The three rookies Craft has in mind are Ernie Fazio and Rusty Staub, both $100,000 bonus babies, and catcher John Bateman, whose signature cost the Colts only $77.

All three were impressive in spring training.

Fazio, the former Santa Clara collegiate star, starts at second base. Staub, 19, first baseman from New Orleans, is a starter for right field.

Bateman will catch if a hairline right thumb fracture suffered Monday by the Lawton, Okla., High School graduate responds to treatment.

Fazio will be the leadoff man, followed by Spangler, the left-fielder, and Pete Runnels, the 1961 and 1962 American League batting champion obtained in a winter trade with Boston.

Runnels will play at first and will be followed by Howard Goss at center, Staub at right, Bob Aspromonte at third, Bateman, Bob Lillis at shortstop, and Dick Farrell the pitcher.

Farrell had 521 strikeouts while recording a 10-20 season last year. Bob Bruce (10-9) and Ken Johnson (7-16) are Houston's probable pitchers for Wednesday and Thursday night.

Manager Alvin Dark plans to start his three best pitchers—Jack Sanford, a 24-game winner, Billy O'Dell, who won 19 games, and Juan Marichal, an 18-game winner.

Nick Werkman Wins Scoring Honors In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Seton Hall's Nick Werkman won major college basketball's scoring crown by the smallest margin in history and one-eyed Tommy Boyer of Arkansas wound up shattering two all-time free throw records.

Final NCAA Service Bureau statistics released Saturday show Werkman winning the major college scoring title by two-tenths of a point over NYU's Barry Kramer. Werkman scored 650 points in 22 games, a 29.5 average, while Kramer had 675 in 23 for a 29.3 mark.

Third place went to Bill Green of Colorado State University at 28.2 with Gary Bradds of Ohio State fourth at 28.0 and Bill Bradley of Princeton fifth at 27.3.

Boyer was No. 1 in foul shooting percentage, hitting .913 of his shots and becoming the first to win two successive free throw titles. In the process he shattered the collegiate career mark and set a record for consecutive conversions.

His .913 percentage was not up to his record .933 of a year ago, but over three years he sank .892, breaking the record of .858 set by Wake Forest's Jack Murdock, 1956-58. Boyer also hit 44 straight, breaking the record of 42 established by Duquesne's Dick Ricketts in 1957.

Other individual leaders were Houston's Lyle Harger with a record .656 field goal percentage and Paul Silas of Creighton in rebounds, edging Gus Johnson of Idaho with a 20.6 average to 20.3 for the runner-up. Harger broke the .647 standard set by George Washington's Joe Holup in 1956.

In the team standings, national champion Loyola of Chicago wound up the highest scoring team and former champion Cincinnati was No. 1 in defense. The Ramblers scored 91.8 points a game. The Bearcats were tops with a low of 52.9 points allowed each game.

Duke was No. 1 in field goal marksmanship, hitting .511 of its shots, while Tulane was the most accurate from the foul line with a .793 mark. Texas Western led in rebound percentage, .591.

District 6-A Meet Delayed

The District 6-A track and field meet, which was to have been staged in Memorial Stadium here Saturday, was moved back to next Wednesday due to the soggy conditions of the racing oval.

The rains practically ceased Friday morning but a portion of the track was still under water and coach Jimmy Spann, coach at Coahoma and director of the meet, decided to play it safe and delay the meet until Wednesday.

The cinder show will start at 10 a.m. while most of the race finals are carded to get under way at 2 p.m.

Texas League Still In Need Of 2 Angels

President Bobby Clark said Texas Little League officials are making plans to resume play this year, even though two sponsors are still needed.

Clark estimated it would cost each sponsor an estimated $150 for the season, in view of the fact that the league already has uniforms for the teams.

Saturday was "work day" at the Texas park, located on the Bauer school campus in the north part of town, and a fair crowd of volunteers showed up to help refurbish the playing field.

Players will be signed up Monday and Tuesday of the coming week. Officials will be on hand from 5 until 7:30 p.m. to check on birth certificates and sign the eligible boys.

Clark said that some friends of the league had volunteered to donate toward the upkeep of the two orphan teams but that more such commitments are needed.

Workouts will probably get under way sometime next week.

Bobcats Clinch 2-4A Golf Title

SAN ANGELO — San Angelo's Bobcats charged from behind to win the District 2-AAAA golf championship with a four-man aggregate score of 293 here Saturday.

The Cats trailed the Odessa Bronchos by going into the final of five rounds of play but the Red Hosses had to settle for a score of 309 Saturday.

Both teams earned trips to the Regional meet, which takes place at the Golden Acres Country Club in Odessa week after next.

San Angelo's total score for the five rounds of play was 1563 while Odessa wound up with 1577.

San Angelo supplied Saturday's medalist in Cecil Salazar, who fashioned a 69. Salazar was medalist for the year, too. Allowed to take his three best rounds, he fashioned a 214 for the year.

Second place in that department was won by another San Angelo player, Jerry Salazar, with a 54-hole total of 219. Salazar recorded a warm 71 Saturday.

Big Spring and Abilene High each had a 331 to tie for last place Saturday but the Steers easily beat the Eagles out in season's standings. Big Spring's five-round score was 1636 while Abilene had a 1692.

Big Spring was led by Norman Patterson, who toured the course in 76 strokes.

For the year, Patterson led the Big Spring players among those who played all five rounds, with an aggregate of 393.

David McCullah of the Steers had an 86 Saturday, Neil Robinson an 82 and Jodie Thompson an 87.

ANDY SHEPPARD (L), SHOWBOAT BUCKNER
Two stars due here Thursday

Harlem Stars Here Thursday

The Senior class at the local high school will sponsor an exhibition basketball game in Steer gym here at 8 p.m. Thursday, which will pit the touring Harlem Stars against the powerful E. C. Smith Construction company quintet.

The Stars are billed as the most talented and funniest basketball team on tour and they try to live up to their reputation.

Advance ticket sales, which can be purchased from any member of the senior class, sell for $1 (adult) and 50 cents (students). If the ducats are purchased at the door, they will retail for $1.25 (adult) and 75 cents (student).

Playing for Smith's team will be such players as Henry (Butch) Vicellio, 6-6, former Air Force Academy star; Delnor Poss, 5-11, one-time HSU great; Al Kloven, 6-3, formerly of Howard Payne; Melvin Lindsey, 6-0, Howard Payne; Bill Knipp, 6-3, another former AF Academy standout; Roy Hill, 6-2; Don Stevens, 6-0, University of Corpus Christi; Jessie Jackson, 6-3, Rice University; Dick Ebling, 6-2, HCJC; and E. C. Smith, 6-0.

Boid Buie is manager of the Harlem team. One of the club's brightest stars is Showboat Buckner, one-time star for North Carolina College in Durham, N. C.

Buie has one arm but he makes good use of it on the court. He formerly played with the Harlem Globetrotters and was the star of the Tennessee Tigers from 1942 through 1946.

Andy Sheppard is another standout on the Star team and teams with Buckner for a real zany act.

The team has traveled throughout the world and is about as well known in Hongkong and Manila as it is in this country.

The Stars began their season in Alaska back in September and have hit an estimated 40 states in their tour.

Proceeds from the game, over and above expenses, go toward payment of the Senior Class' gift to the school—an annual custom.

Steer Netters Lose In Meet

SAN ANGELO—Kathleen Baulch, Big Spring, lost in the semifinals of the District 2-AAAA girls' singles tennis tournament here Saturday to Faye Hooker, Abilene Cooper, 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Baulch defeated Mary Ann Richardson, San Angelo, in first round competition Friday, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3.

In other matches involving Big Spring players Friday, Mike Beene, Permian, ousted David Martin, Big Spring, 6-0, 6-0, in boys' singles; Tommy Hill and Tom Malaise, Permian, won over Dale Bullough and Bennett Brooke, Big Spring, 6-2, 6-1, in boys' doubles.

Also, in girls' doubles, Carol Nix and Carol Wooley, Lee, turned back Molly Hefner and Linda Mason, Big Spring, 6-0, 6-0.

Tennis Crowns Well Divided

SAN ANGELO — Johnny White, San Angelo, won boys' singles in District 2-AAAA tennis play here Saturday, defeating Gary Schmoeller, Midland High, in the finals, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

In girls' singles, Dabby Phillips, Abilene High, vanquished Faye Hooker, Abilene Cooper, in the finals, 8-7, 6-2, 6-1.

The Odessa High tandem of Bill Bane and Daniel Farmer trounced Tommy Hill and Tom Malaise, Permian, in boys' doubles finals, 6-2, 6-2, 6-0.

In girls' doubles finals, Carol Nix and Carol Wooley, Midland Lee, measured Betty Brister and Becky Bryan, Permian, 6-3, 6-3.

Scots In Front

LONDON (AP)—Jimmy Baxter scored two goals in two minutes Saturday and gave injury-hit Scotland a 2-1 victory over England at Wembley Stadium and the British soccer championship.

Lee Winner Over Eagles

MIDLAND—Midland Lee won its fourth straight District 2-AAAA ernoon, defeating Abilene High ernoon, defeating Abilene High despite the fact that Mike Murphy of the Eagles gave up only one earned run.

Murphy was tagged for three hits and his mates committed six errors behind him.

Tom Patrick and Bobby Weber divided time on the mound for Lee and Patrick was credited with the victory. Abilene now has a 2-2 record.

Score by innings:

Abilene	010 100 0—3 3 6
Lee	131 001 x—6 4 4

Murphy and Smith; Patrick, Weber (6) and Casbeer.

North Texas Wins Meet At Shawnee

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—North Texas State, led by Don Wilson's 54-hole total of 212, won the 4th annual Shawnee Intercollegiate Golf Tournament Saturday with a team score of 865.

Oklahoma finished second with 874 and Oklahoma State, winner of the three previous tournaments, was third with 884.

Others in the university division were Tulsa 894, Kansas 933, Wichita 933, West Texas State 947 and Oklahoma City University 951.

Wilson won medalist honors in a playoff with Oklahoma's Jim Awtrey, who also finished the 54 holes with a 212. Wilson birdied the second hole of the playoff to take the medal.

Club To Stage Scotch Round

Biggest turnout of golfers to compete in a scotch foursome at the Country Club this year may gather here today.

Recent rains have put the course in fine shape, coming as they did after club employes had topped the greens.

Play will get under way at 1:30 p.m. Merchandise awards are in the offing for winners.

Jerry Green, the club pro, said the course received an estimated 1.5 inches of moisture over a period of two days and it fell perfectly, without any runoff.

The greens were in fair shape, he added. The fairways desperately needed the rain, however.

Treadwell Named To Spangled 11

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Oregon State quarterback Terry Baker heads the 30-man West squad announced Saturday for the third annual All-American football bowl game to be played June 29.

Baker, who won the Heisman and Maxwell trophies for 1962, signed a five-figure contract to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Two other members of the West Squad that were tapped for Associated Press All-America honors last fall are tackle Bobby Lee Bell of Minnesota, and Johnny Treadwell, Texas guard.

Minnesota placed two other seniors on the squad to take the honors for the most number of berths. Missouri, Oregon, Nebraska, Texas and Baylor each placed two graduating footballers.

John McKay, coach of Southern California's national football champions, heads the West staff that includes Arkansas' Frank Broyles and Bob Devaney of Nebraska.

The East won last year's game 13-8 after the West had taken the inaugural 30-20 in 1961.

The game will be televised nationally (ABC).

Rookie, Duke Snider Crowd Into Spotlight

By The Associated Press

An 18-year-old rookie first baseman and a couple of old pappy guys took the center stage Saturday as the nation's major league baseball teams headed into the windup of their exhibition season.

Young Ed Kranepool, an $85,000 bonus baby with the New York Mets, cracked three home runs in the Mets' 7-2 victory over Baltimore at Portsmouth, Va.

In center field for the Mets was 36-year-old Duke Snider, making his first appearance for a New York team since his hey days with the old Brooklyn Dodgers.

The grey-haired outfielder, who had just joined the team from the Los Angeles Dodgers, contributed a running one-hand catch and a run scoring single as the Mets gained a share of the top spot in the National League exhibition standings.

Milwaukee's great lefty, Warren Spahn, hurled three perfect innings against the New York Yankees in the Braves 3-1 victory at West Palm Beach, Fla. The performance reduced the 41-year-old Spahn's earned run average to 1.67 for the spring.

The Los Angeles Angels came from behind with a two-run ninth inning burst and beat the Dodgers 4-3 in the opener of a two-game city series.

In the other games, St. Louis beat Philadelphia 4-1 at Jacksonville, the Chicago White Sox whipped Cincinnati 6-1 at Charleston, W. Va., Washington got a six-run sixth inning en route to a 9-5 triumph over Pittsburgh at Daytona Beach, outfielder Billy Williams drove in five runs in the Chicago Cubs' 8-5 victory over Boston at Salt Lake City and Kansas City swept two from Houston, 3-1 and 5-3 in 10 innings at Oklahoma City.

San Francisco vs. Cleveland at Sacramento and Detroit vs. Minnesota at Charlotte were canceled because of rain.

Ortiz Is Favored In Fight Tonight

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—Lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz, apparently fully recovered from the stomach ailment of a week ago that forced a postponement, still ruled a 3-1 favorite to defeat Cuban Doug Vaillant in their title bout Sunday night.

A crowd of about 20,000 is expected to pay more than $100,000 for the 15-rounder in the Hiram Bithorn municipal stadium.

Ortiz was stricken by stomach pains and nausea early last Saturday morning and the title defense scheduled for the same evening was postponed eight days.

The 26-year-old Puerto Rican-born champion resumed boxing workouts early in the week and finished his training with a three-round boxing drill Friday.

"I feel great," he said. "I'm sharp and ready. I'm going to win."

Vaillant, 25-year-old Cuban exile now living in Miami, was not too upset by the postponement. He, too, expressed confidence of victory.

This will be the second defense for Ortiz. The New Yorker won the crown by easily outpointing Joe Brown at Las Vegas, last April 21. In his only defense he knocked out Japan's Teruo Kosaka in the fifth round at Tokyo last Dec. 3.

Ortiz has swept his last six bouts, including a 10-round decision over Vaillant at Miami Beach, Sept. 2, 1961, before he was champion. His record is 39-4 including 13 knockouts.

Vaillant, ranked as the No. 3 contender by Ring Magazine and No. 4 by the World Boxing Association, has a 28-6-4 won-lost-draw record, including 15 knockouts. Neither has been stopped.

The fight is scheduled to start at 8 p.m., EST.

Debbysman Wins Gotham Stakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Gustave Ring's Debbysman surged up in the final strides at Aqueduct Saturday and beat out Bonjour and Crewman in a three-horse blanket finish for the $57,500 Gotham Stakes.

It was a major upset for a crowd of 55,061 who had established George D. Widener's Crewman the 3-5 favorite, although the colt was making his first start since he upset Never Bend in the $273,530 Garden State Stakes last Nov. 10.

Parice Jacobs' Bonjour, second choice in the betting at 5-1, had taken the lead leaving the far turn and appeared a winner until Debbysman ranged up on the outside and won by a neck at the wire.

Bonjour took second place by a head over Crewman who in turn was two lengths ahead of the fourth horse, Harbor View Farm's Omarbrad.

Bonjour is eligible for the Kentucky Derby May 4, but Debbysman and Crewman were not nominated. Debbysman, however, was named for the Preakness and Belmont and Crewman is in the Belmont. They are the other two races in the triple crown.

Queens Lose To Odessans

ABILENE — Wanda DeHart and Judy Goodwin, Odessa College, defeated HCJC's combination of Karen and Kay Butler in the doubles finals of the H-SU Girls' Tennis Tournament here Saturday, 4-6, 6-4, 6-0.

The Butler girls had advanced by turning back Cox and Spill, H-SU, 6-0, 6-1, and Alwatt and Wheeler, ACC, 6-3, 6-2, in that order.

Ham and Shellnut, H-SU, won consolation laurels by beating Cox and Spill in the finals, 6-0, 6-0.

HCJC did not have a singles player entered. Ann Elkins, Amarillo College, won singles by turning back Peggy Whitley, Wayland Baptist, in the finals, 6-4, 6-4.

HCJC's team of Lewis and Patterson lost a first round match in doubles to Roquenor and Dixon, North Texas, 6-3, 9-7, 6-1.

DeHart and Goodwin then humbled the North Texas pair in the semifinals.

10. NMMI No. 1—Roger Camp 86, Ben Bradley for 171.

Longhorns Shade TCU In Tennis

FORT WORTH (AP) — Texas thumped Texas Christian 5-1 in a Southwest Conference tennis match Saturday. The Frog doubles team of Paul Christian and Earl Van Zandt provided the only victory for the TCU squad.

Van Zandt and Christian whipped Hal Sparks and Jerry Walters, 12-10, 6-8, 7-5.

Mackerel Schools Now On Upper Gulf

By The Associated Press

Spring fishing is ahead of schedule, an outdoor writer says. That is except for the tarpon—one of the "sportiest scrappers of them all."

Gulf shrimpers, who usually bring in the first word on the tarpon, have sighted none. And, at the Brazos River at Freeport, a spot that has held special attraction for the fighting fish in the past, anglers are still waiting.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas built and still operates the first outboard cruiser in the Dallas area. Atwell's cruiser was a 20-footer launched on Lake Texoma in 1952.

The arrival of mackerel schools on the upper Gulf Coast has sent South Texans rushing for their fishing equipment, an outdoor writer says. He says the fastest, easiest way to catch a mackerel is by trolling fast and the best lure is a "hootie," a few strands of hemp or nylon tied on a hook to resemble a streamer fly.

Texas parks are expecting one million visitors this year, says Maurice Turner, chairman of the Parks Board. His estimate was based on pre-spring park activity.

One writer says that although the black bass is kingpin of most Texas lakes, that fish runs a distant second at East Texas' Lake o' the Pines where the crappie, or white perch, rules supreme.

He says the three-year-old lake is just reaching its peak and the "crappie are plentiful and big."

Colorado City's officials have scheduled a fishing rodeo at Lake Champion and Lake Colorado City this summer with $5,500 in prizes.

* * *

Some fishing outlooks:

Texoma—All fish hitting but big catfish are the best. Two anglers brought in 8 weighing almost 250 pounds.

Grapevine—Crappie fair.

Possum Kingdom—Fishing good with black bass and crappie doing best.

Whitney—Crappie and sand bass doing good.

Caddo—Blacks, crappie, bream biting good.

Belton—Anglers bring in blacks and sand bass primarily.

Lake o' the Pines—Blacks fair, crappie, bream and catfish doing good.

Bridgeport— Crappie hitting good in shallow water.

Freeport—Mackerel run reported.

Port Aransas — Mackerel runs and ling reported.

Galveston—Fishing slow except for sheepshead near jetties.

CHARLEY DOUGLAS AND FOE
Fun In The Kitchen

Ex-Fighter Takes On New Opponent

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—Retired boxer Charley Douglas, who was never knocked out in 56 fights, is taking on a new opponent on its home grounds —Italian cooking.

The 30-year-old native of New Bern, N.C., hung up his gloves last October and, in partnership with Pennsylvania-born Tony Giannone, has opened a restaurant in Rome.

Douglas, a Negro with a cheery smile and a hard right punch, came to Italy in 1957 and won considerable popularity in 30 fights.

His best night was in 1958 when he squared away against Duilio Loi, then European lightweight champion. Douglas gave the tough Italian one of his worst nights. Loi won a close decision.

Douglas won 35 of 56 fights in his American and Italian career. Ten fights ended in draws. He lost 11 decisions.

The team of Douglas and Giannone was formed shortly after Douglas retired.

Giannone, who once owned a restaurant in Mt. Vernon, N.Y., is secretary of a Rome boxing club.

Douglas plans to spend most of his time in the kitchen, turning out American dishes and trying his hand at Italian pasta.

"I know a trick or two about cooking that I learned before I ever stepped into the ring," he says. "My aunt used to run a restaurant back at New Bern and I used to help out in the kitchen.

Raiders Head For Mexico

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech's spring sports teams take advantage of next week's vacation to make some of their lengthier trips.

Red Raider trackmen have the best jaunt—to Mexico. The Red Raiders compete in the Monterrey Invitational Monday and Tuesday and take part in the Mexico City Invitational Friday and Saturday. Coach Don Sparks is to lecture to coaching groups at both cities and possibly at Saltillo.

Coach Jay McClure's golfers journey to Houston for the All-American Intercollegiate tourney Thursday through Saturday.

Texas Tech's tennis team had scheduled a trip to Beaumont, but Lamar Tech requested cancellation of matches there Wednesday and Thursday. Still on tap for Coach George Philbrick's netters are matches with Hardin-Simmons University and Abilene Christian College in Abilene Monday.

Coach Berl Huffman's baseballers tackle Sul Ross in Alpine, with a single game Tuesday and a doubleheader Wednesday.

Church Circuit Parley Slated

The Westside Baptist Church will be the scene of a meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday of persons interested in the formation of a Church Softball league.

Church league officials hold out hopes of obtaining use of the City Park diamond a couple of nights each week.

Judo Team Is 3rd In Meet

The Webb judo team finished third in the Southwest Area Sports Festival judo tourney held last weekend in Amarillo.

The base team represented the Big Spring YMCA and had two class winners and a third and fifth place finish.

The other winner was Airman 1.C. Francis Mulhall, 331st FIS, won the heavyweight title. Mulhall was a recent winner in the ATC tourney at Stead AFB, Nev.

Other Webb judoists were Airman 1.C. James Helsor, 331st FIS, who was fourth in the 180 pound-and-below class; Airman 1.C. John Gore, 331st FIS, third in the 160 pound-and-below class; and Airman 1.C. Roger Peterson, 331st FIS, fifth in the 160 pound-and-below class.

Game Set Back

ABILENE—The District 2-AAAA baseball game between Abilene Cooper and Midland High, which was to have been played here Saturday afternoon, was postponed until Monday due to wet grounds.

Steer Game Moved Back

Saturday's 2-AAAA baseball game between Big Spring and Odessa Permian has been reset for 4 p.m. Monday.

The contest will be unreeled here. Each team boasts a 0-3 conference record and will be seeking to escape the cellar.

Big Spring will play three games the coming week. The Longhorns go to Midland for a game with the Bulldogs at 4 p.m. Tuesday. They host Abilene High at 4 p.m. Thursday.

The game with Abilene was originally scheduled for next Saturday but was moved up due to the nearness of the Easter holiday.

Coach Roy Baird held off postponing Saturday's game until the morning of the game, when another cloud cover moved in.

Jack Roden is still lined up to pitch Monday's contest. The delay will give the big right-hander an added rest.

Crowding three games into one week probably means that sophomore Freddie Miears will probably get a starting mound call somewhere along the way.

Big Spring has an overall record of 8-11.

Dillards Nominate Couple For Futurity At Ruidoso

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.—The touch of class that would do justice to Santa Anita and Belmont Park stakes events can be found among the 95 juveniles remaining eligible for this year's renewal of the $60,000-estimated Ruidoso Downs Thoroughbred Futurity.

Heading the list of nominees is the brilliant Madadic, owned by Richard D. "Dick" Beren of Scottsdale, Ariz. A 2-year-old son of Guerrero-Truckle J., by Fair Truckle, Madadic already has won two of his five starts, breaking his maiden on January 23 at Santa Anita when he won in :33 1-5 for three furlongs.

Named because his wife was "Mad at Dick" when he bought the colt, Madadic then moved on to Phoenix's Turf Paradise to all but steal the show from the mighty American Comet on Turf Paradise Handicap day.

On this occasion, Madadic zipped four furlongs, around a turn, to win by almost 10 lengths in :46 2-5 seconds, a truly remarkable exhibition considering the muddy condition of the track.

Other outstanding candidates dotting the list of nominees include Franklin B. Cox's Marimott, a galloping winner first time out at Turf Paradise; Molly Hari and Ebony Mist, highly-regarded prospects owned by the John Dillards of Big Spring, Tex., and the trio of Blues To You, I'm Nosey Too and Roman Jack, owned by Ken Gaston of Roswell, N.M. I'm Nosey Too won at first asking at two furlongs, and Blues To You won under wraps in :46 2-5 seconds for four furlongs the first time out.

Ruidoso Downs opens its 54-day meeting Friday, May 17, and runs three days weekly (Friday, Saturday and Sunday, plus holidays) through Sunday, September 8, with more than $1,000,000 being offered horsemen in purse money.

Independents Need To Line Up In State

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas colleges made an excellent start toward putting football on a paying and satisfying basis through organization of the conference that encompasses Abilene Christian, Arlington State, Trinity and Lamar Tech of Texas and Arkansas State of Jonesboro.

But it didn't go nearly far enough. There are nine independents that need to be lined up with somebody.

Lamar Tech actually didn't need a conference since it already was in the Lone Star but it should be a big boost for the new league. There's an outstanding athletic program being conducted by the Beaumont college.

Schools still unattached in Texas are Houston, Hardin-Simmons, McMurry, Texas Lutheran, Austin College, West Texas State, Texas Western, Corpus Christi and Tarleton State.

Houston, of course, is aiming at bigger game, The Cougars want in the Southwest Conference or would take the Southeastern if no chance appears for the former. Houston still has applications on file with both of them. The Cougars can do all right as independents but could do real well if they got into a major conference.

Hardin-Simmons talked about joining the new conference but never was very positive about it. Just why the Abilene school chooses to go it alone when it's already in poor shape is difficult to figure. It seems that all of the Abilene colleges should be in the conference. That would create enough rivalry locally to insure a successful financial outcome.

McMurry, Texas Lutheran and Tarleton State definitely would appear good timber for the new league. Austin College operates on a no-scholarship basis and could hardly be expected to enter. West Texas State and Texas Western want in the Western States Conference along with the Arizona schools, which is quite understandable. They probably will get in shortly. Corpus Christi would have to emphasize football considerably more to make it a good prospect.

The new league should wind up with Trinity, Abilene Christian, Arlington State, Lamar Tech, Hardin-Simmons, McMurry, Texas Lutheran and Tarleton State. That would be a good eight-member conference.

There are some other prospects. Midwestern University announced a couple of years ago that it was planning to resume football. Whatever happened to this resolve isn't known.

Pan American in Edinburg would appear to be a good place for college football. This valley school has an ambitious athletic program otherwise.

The new league, as it now stands, represents a total population of 871,000, with a potential in the various territories of 2,300,000. Compulsory sports will be football, basketball and track, with baseball, golf and tennis optional.

It will conform to NCAA regulations, thus will have strong educational and athletic standards.

All of the schools have adequate athletic plants. Lamar Tech and Trinity can take care of 20,000 or better in their stadiums. Abilene Christian seats 15,000, Arlington State handles 10,000 and can easily expand to 22,000. Arkansas State handles 6,000 and is planning to increase to 10,000.

All of the schools have adequate gymnasiums for basketball.

The five have a combined enrollment of almost 25,000.

It should be a good conference.

All-America Golf Tourney Upcoming

HOUSTON (AP)—Houston and Western Illinois, two national championship teams, meet Wednesday in the opening round of the All-America Intercollegiate Invitation Golf Tournament.

First round pairings for the 16 teams placed Houston, the defending NCAA champion, against Western Illinois, the defending NAIA champion.

Other first round pairings: Texas Tech vs Eastern New Mexico, North Texas vs TCU, Texas vs Middle Tennessee, Northern Illinois vs Texas A&M, Oklahoma State vs Baylor, New Mexico vs Rice, and SMU vs Oklahoma.

Top favorites for the individual medal trophy include Kermit Zarley, the defending NCAA titlist from Houston, and Steve Spray, the NAIA champion from Eastern New Mexico.

Baseball Prosperity To Continue: Frick

By FORD FRICK
Commissioner of Baseball
Written for the Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—I have every reason in the world to look forward to the 1963 baseball season with great optimism.

Never has our national game been healthier nor more popular with the people of our country than last year. More than 25 million persons came out to see the major league teams in action.

More important to my way of thinking is the knowledge that there were 3,600,000 youngsters throughout the nation participating in organized baseball of some sort. That includes boys in American Legion, Babe Ruth, Pony and Little League baseball.

My interest in baseball lies far beyond that of the professional leagues. I regard baseball as an American institution, an important aspect in our way of life.

Believe me, I don't wish to use this as a sounding board for baseball but the fact is that the game has never been as attractive to our people as it is today.

Attendance figures in the last 17 years have increased by more than 104 per cent over a corresponding number of years before World War II. In the 17 years up to and through World War II, —1929-1945—a total of 148,988,935 persons attended big league games. In the 17 years since, 1946-62 attendance was 304,210,696.

The increase of 155,221,760 is greater than the total attendance of those first 17 years.

If baseball is dying it sure is a pretty healthy corpse.

Baseball can't be evaluated on attendance alone. I am interested in baseball as an American institution. It is an important avenue in our way of life. There is no wrong side of the street. It still is the greatest common equalizer. The only thing that distinguishes one player from another is his ability.

Baseball is not free of problems by any means. Still to be resolved is the minor league structure. This is the year we will test our new player development program organized last winter. We recognize it is not perfect but we hope to make the necessary adjustments so that by the year's end we will have our minor league program stabilized and solid.

Sunland Derby Slated Today

EL PASO — An even dozen of the southland's finest three-year-olds are poised for today's third renewal of the $7500 Sunland Derby.

Delightful warm weather is predicted and Sunland Park officials expect to host the largest crowd of the spring season.

Frances Lovelace's homebred Scorchum is the early choice to win the track's sophomore championship. The gelded black son of Lychnus - Miss Scorcher has accounted for five victories here this season including the Graduation Stakes and the City of Albuquerque Handicap.

Scorchum takes on a new rider, the veteran Johnny Longden, for his first try at the mile and one-sixteenth Derby distance. The ageless Longden will be looking for his 5,692nd lifetime victory, and with the front running tactics of Scorchum, the pair should be a perfect combination.

Topweighted at 123 pounds, Scorchum will be giving from two to 14 pounds to his 11 rivals, although he successfully carried a similar load in the 6½-furlong Albuquerque Handicap.

The superb filly, Diamond Lodge, who holds a win over Scorchum, appears to be his sternest opposition once again. Owned by H. T. (Shorty) Hornbuckle and Henry Hicks of El Paso, the chestnut daughter of Lodge Night annexed the Ispiracion Stakes in her last start, but was forced to settle for a dead-heat with Terry D, who is also a Derby contender. In that engagement, "Diamond" carried 120 pounds and picks up one, while Terry D, who carried 112, also is penalized a pound.

Diamond Lodge is a three-time stake winner at the meeting and proved she can handle the distance by her excellent win in the Benito Juarez Handicap at one mile. Her able trainer, Hank Masterson, has indicated that the fleet miss is as fit as human hands can make her and has assigned Gale Mower to pilot her in her most important race to date.

A filly has yet to win the Derby. The brilliant Little Juan captured the Inaugural running, while Temulac Stable's Prince Papule won the 2nd edition.

Midland oilman Ralph Lowe's powerful entry of Bay Ruler and Yard Man are considered dangerous and will undoubtedly be well-regarded in the wagering. Trainer Gerald Bloss has engaged Arthur Anderson to handle Yard Man, while Don Lewis will be up on Bay Ruler. Anderson departed from Sunland earlier this week for Fonner Park, but the able reinsman will fly to Sunland on Saturday.

The Arizona invader, Khal Pass, appears to be the dark horse. Lightly weighted at 114 pounds the H. W. Chapman ace is the recent hero of the Arizona Derby at Turf Paradise and must certainly be considered a contender. Last year Frank Colcord shipped in Queen of Theba from Phoenix and despite poor racing luck finished second behind Prince Papule.

Another import is Ray Bell's English bred Char Wallah. The handsome colt forced the pace in his first appearance here Sunday and might prove the upset factor.

Slippery Rock Farms' Deep Fathom is a three-time winner here and accounted for the six-furlong Zuni Sun Purse in the good time of 1:10 2-5.

Mar-Li-Sue, Bernie K, Boella, and Howdy are the lightweights of the field and are given only an outside chance for snaring the $4,380 first money.

The supporting feature has been named for the visiting Juarez Club Osiris. The six - furlong sparkler has attracted Bio Stable's Pal Fast, prepping for the $15,000 Sunland Park Handicap, and Challenge All, recent conqueror of Songman. The world's winningest rider, Johnny Longden will handle Pal Fast for his local bow. First race post time is 1:30 p.m.

Aussies Are Top Seeded

HOUSTON (AP) — Six of the world's eight top ranked active amateurs are entered for this week's River Oaks Tennis Tournament.

Of the 16 stars exempt from Monday's preliminary rounds, 13 are current or former members of Davis Cup teams from the U.S., Australia, Spain, Mexico and Britain.

Australians drew two of the top four seeded positions. Roy Emerson, the world's top amateur, drew the first spot and Marty Mullitan, a Wimbledon finalist last year, was ranked third.

Manolo Santana, No. 2 world amateur from Spain, was seeded second and Chuck McKinley, the top U.S. star, 4th.

McKinley, Frank Froehling, and Hamilton Richardson give the tournament the three ranking U.S. amateurs. Richardson won the Oaks title in 1956.

The tournament has had an all-Australian finals for two years, with Rod Laver defeating Emerson in both title matches while becoming the first foreign entry ever to win the championship. Laver has turned professional and cannot defend his title.

In addition to the four seeded players, Froehling and Richardson, exemptions went to Fred Stolle and Bob Hewitt of Australia, Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox of Mexico, Mike Sangster and Bobby Wilson, Britain's top players and to Donald Dell, Ron Holmberg, Andy Lloyd and Dennis Ralston of the U.S.

Hewitt and Stolle are defending Wimbledon doubles champions.

They are expected to make the Australian Davis Cup team this year.

Potential Surges Ahead In March

After a slow start during the first two months of 1963, new potential surged ahead during March too improve the year's figures.

Total 1963 new oil in the local eight-county area is 11,608.59 barrels. March contributed 4,829.20 barrels of this amount. The year, however, is 5,620.35 barrels behind the first quarter of 1962 when the three months saw operators ring up 17,228.94 barrels.

Dawson County, with 1,525 barrels of oil from five new wells, retained the lead during March. Howard County, registering 1,088 barrels, shot into second place ahead of Garza, which had an even 700 barrels of new potential.

Dawson County also was in the lead for the three-month period, with a total of 3,832 barrels of new oil, more than twice its nearest competitor.

Howard County marked up most of the 40 completions during March. It had 13, 11 of which are in the Howard - Glasscock field. Garza County had nine, Martin six and Mitchell and Dawson each had five.

Howard also chalked up 20 of the 50 new sites staked in the area. Mitchell and Garza each had seven. There were 10 failures, with two in Borden, Dawson and Garza counties. Howard, Martin, Mitchell and Sterling each recorded one.

A glance at the activity in each county during the month follows.

BORDEN

The county had its best month of the year with only two wells completed. New oil, however, was 587 barrels. The oilers were single producers in the Good, Southeast and Hobo fields. One new location was filed in the Von Roeder field and one wildcat and one Myrtle, West site were plugged and abandoned.

DAWSON

The Tex-Hamon field paid off handsomely again, accounting for more than half of Dawson County's March new potential of 1,525 barrels. It's two wells made 945 barrels.

Pan American completed a discovery in the Fusselman at No. 1 Roberson, two miles west of O'Donnell. It flowed 154 barrels of oil from perforations between 10,850-53 feet. Other wells are lone completions in the Ackerly and Britt fields.

Locations are two wildcats and four field projects spread out evenly among the Ackerly, Tex-Hamon, Welch and Wells fields. One wildcat and one Wells, South project were failures.

GARZA

Nine new wells put 700 barrels completed. The other two which brought the total potential to 1,088 barrels are single wells in the Snyder and Sara-Mag, North fields.

The Howard-Glasscock field also registered 15 of 20 new sites. Others are one wildcat, one in each of the Iatan-East Howard and Sara-Mag, North fields and two in the Snyder field. One Howard-Glasscock field attempt was a duster.

MARTIN

Most activity during March was in the Ackerly field, where four of the six new wells were finaled. Total potential was 591.20 barrels. The Mabee and Spraberry Trend Area fields each had one producer.

One wildcat was plugged and abandoned and another was staked. The Ackerly and Spraberry Trend Area each had one new project filed, bringing the county's total to three.

MITCHELL

Five oilers, four of them in the Iatan-East Howard field, recorded 338 barrels of oil. A Turner-Gregory well made 66 barrels of this total.

There were seven new sites, three in the Westbrook field and four in the Iatan-East Howard. One wildcat was a failure.

STERLING

Sterling County shared the no-production honors with Glasscock County during March. One Clark project was completed, but as a duster. A new location was staked in the Clark field and another was filed in the Triple M field.

Unique Book Traces History Of Oil Industry

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON (AP) — A unique book that crams 7,962 years of oil and gas history into 317 pages is being published Monday.

The compact "chronological history of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Industries" is backed by eight years of research that cost $100,000.

The 6,000 entries trace the history of the two industries from 6000 B.C. through 1962.

Most entries require five lines or less of copy but each records a specific date or year for an event of development significant to the history of the industries.

Subjects range from exploration and production to legislation, taxation, regulation and judicial decisions.

The first entry says Noah smeared bitumen asphalt on the inside and outside of his ark about 6000 B.C. The final entry reports the 1962 development of a downhole television system which made it possible to observe mechanical conditions thousands of feet below the earth's surface.

James Clark, author of the $30 book, says the chronological history was written to answer day-to-day questions which plague the researcher, writer, attorney, lawmaker, scholar, executive, and layman.

"One of its intentions is to inspire accuracy and eliminate error in the recitation of important dates and events in the history of the industries which provide the United States with 73.7 per cent and the world with almost 50 per cent of their respective energy requirements," Clark says in the book's introduction.

The book reports the industry's first recorded dry hole, a 500-foot test abandoned Dec. 21, 1860, on the shore of Lake Erie.

This was nearly 70 years before the Oct. 5, 1930, discovery of the East Texas Field, largest in the Western Hemisphere and larger than the next 20 U.S. fields combined.

Rig Activity In a Slump

MIDLAND—Rotary drilling operations in the Permian Basin Empire recorded a decline during the last week according to the Friday tabulation of Reed Roller Bit Company.

The total number of active rigs on the latest count was 205, a decline of 32 from the 237 listed in the West Texas-Southeast New Mexico region a week earlier.

The Friday figure also was down from the same week of last year when 257 working units were reported.

Despite the loss of four, down from 51 to 47, Lea County, N. M., held first place in the area.

The county-by-county survey, with previous totals in parenthesis, includes:

Andrews 16, (17); BORDEN 2, (3); Chaves 1, (0); Cochran 1 (1); Coke 0 (1); Concho 0, (1); Crane 7, (8); Crockett 4, (2); Crosby 1, (0); Culberson 1, (1);

Want Increases

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Oil purchasers asked the State Conservation Department to increase daily oil allowables during the May-June period to 1,132,134 barrels, up 41,762 barrels from March-April.

Texas Crude Tests Flowing Gas Pay

Texas Crude Oil Company and Sinclair Oil & Gas Company encountered flowing gas and oil in the Permo-Pennsylvanian in No. 1-23 State, Lea County, New Mexico, wildcat, 10 miles northwest of Lovington.

A 2¼-hour drillstem test was taken at 10,450-481 feet. Gas surfaced in five minutes. The volume was not gauged or estimated. Oil flowed out at the top in one hour and 55 minutes.

It flowed for the remainder of the test at the estimated rate of 20 barrels hourly. Choke size, gravity and other details of the test have not been reported. No water was developed.

The prospector is to drill deeper. It is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 23-14s-34e and cently opened two-well Permo-Pennsylvanian pool.

STARS

George Hammonds of Dallas has set a new objective for No. 1 Trees, North Pecos County wildcat, five miles southeast of Coyanosa and four miles northeast of a recent Wolfcamp gas-distillate discovery.

When the prospector started operations in August last year it was contracted to 12,500 feet. Early in March an amendment was filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting a permit to go to 14,000 feet.

Now the operator again has amended his filing and this time proposes to drill to 17,500 feet.

The operation is 1,980 feet from south and 1,320 feet from east lines of section 55, block 8, H&GN survey.

No official reports on the progress of this venture or of any tests which may have been taken, have been released.

• • •

Perry R. Bass of Midland and Fort Worth has filed an application to drill No. 1 G. P. Mitchell as a 3,700-foot Queen sand wildcat in South Winkler County, eight miles southeast of Wink.

It is 467 feet from south and west lines of section 20, block B-11, PSL survey. This operation is the third No. 1 Mitchell the operator has scheduled in section 20. The two earlier projects failed to produce.

• • •

Thomas T. Ellsworth completed No. 1-SA Grove as a dry gas discovery from the upper San Andres in the multipay Abell field of North Pecos County.

The pay opener potentialed for a calculated, absolute open flow of 3,280,000 cubic feet of gas daily from open hole between 2,134 and 2,284 feet.

It is 3½ miles east of Imperial and 550 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 26, block 9, H&GN survey.

• • •

Phillips Petroleum Company is trying for a producer at No. 4-A Griffith, stepout to the Atrice multipay area in Southeast Tom Green County, 10 miles southeast of Christoval.

The Harkey sand is being tested through perforations at 4,741-78 feet, after a 10,000-gallon fracture and the Strawn will be checked through perforations at 5,103-15 feet.

The operation is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 53, block 25, H&TC survey. It is one location south of the lone Strawn producer in the field and is a southeast stepout to Harkey production.

• • •

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 W. M. Allison, Northeast Terrell County wildcat to 11,000 feet to explore the Ellenburger encountered a slight amount of additional gas in the Strawn in the zone at 9,410-70 feet.

A 2½-hour drillstem test was run on that interval. Gas surfaced in five minutes at the daily rate of 5,700 cubic feet. Recovery was 130 feet of gas-cut drilling fluid.

Midland Company To Try For Gas Pool Extension

MEB Oil Company of Midland will try for a one-mile north and slightly west extension to the Fort McKavett (Canyon sand) gas pool East Schleicher County at No. 1 J. H. Treadwell.

It is a re-entry of the former Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Treadwell which drilled to 5,003 feet in barren Ellenburger and was abandoned in 1959.

The new operator plans to clean out to 4,100 feet for Canyon sand testing. The project is nine miles north of Fort McKavett and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 70, EL&RR survey.

• • •

Greathouse, Pearce & Davis of Midland No. 1 Sealy-Smith, Southeast Winkler County wildcat which originally started out to go to 9,400 feet to explore the Pennsylvanian, had reached 10,602 feet in shale and was drilling deeper.

It has amended its depth objective by requesting a permit to continue drilling to 10,800 feet to test the Devonian.

The prspector is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 75, block A, G&MMB&A survey, 16 miles southeast of Kermit and 4½ miles northwest of Moahans. It is 1¾ miles west of the multi-pay Monahans field.

• • •

Continental Oil Company No. 3 North Block 12 Unit completed as the third producer in the Block A-49 (Ellenburger) pool in West Andrews County, 22 miles west of Andrews.

It is a one location northeast extension to the pool and 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 4, block A-49, PSL survey.

On the potential test the well pumped 101 barrels of 41.8-gravity oil, plus 71 barrels of water in 24 hours from perforations at 11-274-373 feet which had been treated with 10,000 gallons of acid.

Commission Lists 191 New Oil Wells

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission says 191 oil and 35 gas wells were completed in Texas during the week.

The oil completions raised the year total to 2,407, compared to 2,665 in 1962. To date, 653 gas wells have been completed, compared to 898.

Nine wildcat oil wells were reported. A total of 150 wells were plugged, 74 of which were dry holes.

The total average calendar day allowable was 2,818,812, a decrease of 28,074.

Wildcats Have Poor Record

Exploratory drilling in the local eight-county area during the first quarter of 1963 has not fared well. Only two of 24 wildcat projects brought to completion were successful, less than the national average of about one in nine.

First strike for the year was a 32-barrel well brought in as a new pay for the Snyder field. Texaco in February completed No. 1-C Howard Fee in the Clear Fork, from perforations between 3,016,162 feet, after treating the zone with 1,000 gallons of acid.

The project had been staked as a Wichita-Albany and San Andres wildcat and was plugged back for the Clear Fork after the well produced no shows at a total depth of 4,900 feet. On the way down the San Andres, between 2,114-740 feet, yeilded only drilling mud.

Location is 2,060 feet from the north and 540 feet from the east lines of section 43-30-1s, T&P survey, on the southwest edge of the Snyder field. The same operator is now attempting completion, apparently with success, of the No. 2-C Howard Fee as the second well to pay from that formation.

The other discovery was Pan American Petroleum Corporation's No. 1 Willene Roberson, in section 70-8, EL&RR survey, about two miles west of O'Donnell in Dawson County. It made 154 barrels of 38-gravity oil along with 74 per cent water flowing from the Fusselman between 10,850-53 feet. Flow was through 32-64 inch choke. Location is about five miles northeast of the Adcock (Mississippian) pool.

Dobie Wins Cosden Award

James Dobie, junior chemistry student at Sul Ross State College, has been selected to receive the Cosden Petroleum Award for 1963, according to R. L. Tollett, president of the Corporation.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley R. Dobie, Alpine. Dobie graduated from Alpine High School in 1961 and has consistently been on the dean's list while attending Sul Ross. He has also served as a student laboratory assistant.

Elected to Alpha Chi, national honorary scholarship fraternity, Dobie is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Despite the fact that he is in the 1965 graduating class at the college, Dobie has already been granted a graduate fellowship at the University of Kansas. He will enroll in graduate school and specialize in physical chemistry this fall.

The Cosden award was established a year ago to honor the outstanding junior chemistry student at the college.

Oil Organizations Elect Officers

DALLAS (AP)—Two oil organizations elected officers Saturday at their conventions.

Gilbert Reeves of Tyler was elected president of the Texas Petroleum Marketers Association.

W. T. Schneider of San Angelo and Jack Walker of Marshall were elected vice presidents.

John Newell of Alpine was elected president of the Texas Oil Jobber's Association. Joe Horkey of Both organizations picked Houston for their 1964 conventions.

Contract Let

DALLAS — A general construction contract for the installation of process refrigeration facilities at the Block 31 gas processing plant of Atlantic Refining Company has been awarded to Bowden Construction Company, Odessa.

Pan American Told To Reply In Suit

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge Luther Bohannon heard arguments Friday on a motion to dismiss a $75 million damage suit against Pan American Petroleum Co., then ordered the firm to file a reply to the suit by May 1.

WE SHARE YOUR INVESTMENT COST ON NATIONAL FRANCHISE GRANT PROFITS IN EXCESS $10,000 A YEAR

No Franchise Fee or Royalty Payment

One of the country's most unique franchise grants is now available in this area. Established dealers from coast to coast operating in 40 states are realizing net profits in excess of $10,000 a year through a sensational advertising approach. Our national brand products that are represented in these stores are retailed on discounts up to 50%, which results in immediate business and early profits. This franchise is backed by a multi-million AAA-1 publicly owned company. In addition to your investment costs being shared, your portion of the inventory investment is protected in that we will buy back all saleable merchandise, in the event you care to relinquish your franchise. Your investment is flexible in direct relation to the trade area and consumer demand.

Investigate today as these franchises are being granted at a rapid pace—over 800 branches already in operation.

East Fourth Baptist Marks Anniversary

Fifty years as a church will be observed this week during a series of special services by the congregation of the East Fourth Baptist Church.

The anniversary date of the organization is actually Jan. 19, 1913, but members decided to commemorate the event with the pre-Easter meeting.

The church was never in more vigorous health in its half century ministry. In contrast to the handful of charter members, the church today has 820 resident members. During the 50-year period, more than 6,000 persons have affiliated with the congregation. The combined membership of East Fourth Baptist and the churches which grew out of it is 2,800, about one-third of the total membership in the Big Spring Baptist Association.

Moreover, four local churches have grown out of the church—Crestview (formerly North Side), Airport, Phillips and Baptist Temple. East Fourth also helped a Sand Springs church and supported missions in Indiana, Oregon, Colorado, California, Wyoming and the Grand Canyon College in Arizona.

When the church was created, its principal item of expense was $75 a month for the salary of W. T. Sherrod, the first pastor. By 1929 when a new plant was constructed at the present location, the budget was only $7,225. Now it is $69,000.

Church property, including a new $253,000 sanctuary completed in March of 1961, is valued at $400,000.

The organization meeting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Morrison, and most of the other charter members were from the First Baptist congregation. The new church, within a month, was christened the Evangel Baptist Church, and in October of 1913 the congregation purchased the Cumberland Presbyterian property at 3rd and Goliad for $2,250 and abandoned its meeting place in the WOW Hall. The name in 1922 was changed to East Third Baptist, and in 1929 when a new brick plant was erected at 4th and Nolan it became East Fourth.

One of the first churches in the city to operate on a budget system, East Fourth began to finance with pledge cards in 1923. It was a year later that one of its outstanding revivals was conducted by a Rev. Peachy with 26 additions.

Pastor of the church is the Rev. Jack Stricklan, who came here three years ago from Belmore Baptist at San Angelo. A native of El Paso, he was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1954 and from Southwestern Baptist Seminary in 1958, serving as student pastor at Martin's Mill in East Texas.

During his ministry here, the church has added 479 members, more than 150 of them by profession of faith and baptism. The sanctuary, halted midway in construction, since was completed.

Charter members of the church were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Morrison, J. S. Weaver, O. C. Howell, Mrs. Minnie Howell, R. I. Rushing, Miss Clara Bell Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLeod, W. P. Young; Miss Nora Harding, Mrs. Pearl Murphy, Miss Lucille Reagan, Mrs. B. Reagan, Miss Beatrice Bates, Miss Ollie Harding, Miss Sadie Pardon, Mrs. J. C. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDaniel, Mrs. R. L. Rushing, Miss Ethel McLeod, Paine McLeod, Mrs. S. L. Davenport, W. S. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wasson, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hull, the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Sherrod.

Church secretaries have been Josephine Mittel, Marguerittе Cooper, Wanda Don (Reece) Walls, Mrs. Dale Puckett, Mrs. Dick Davis, Lila Jo Smith and Joyce Justice (Mrs. Davis served from May 21, 1945-Sept. 15, 1947 and then resumed in 1949 the post she now holds).

Murder Trial Slated Monday

Claudie C. Aarons, charged with murder with a motor vehicle, goes on trial Monday in 118th District Court for the part he allegedly had in the death nearly two years ago of a 2½ year old Big Spring girl.

Gil Jones, district attorney, said he had set the trial for Monday on request of the defendant who said he wanted to get the matter settled. A state witness, Melvin J. McCuish, an airman, is being flown to Big Spring from faroff Okinawa to testify in the case. He is due in town in time for his appearance in the trial.

Judge Ralph Caton has called a jury panel to report in the court Monday. No other criminal cases are set for trial at this time but the remainder of the week will be set for civil cases, if the trial of Aarons terminates before the week ends.

Aarons, the district attorney said, was indicted for murder with a motor vehicle, as an aftermath to the death June 11, 1961 of Karla Jo Hopper, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hopper. The little girl was killed in a traffic mishap in front of the 66 Truck Stop on US 80 west of town. It is alleged in the indictment that Aaron pulled out in front of a car and that three cars were involved in the crash. The child was killed.

Board To Meet

A meeting of the board of directors for the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce will be held at noon Monday at the Settles Hotel. Dr. Carl B. Marcum, president, will be in charge.

LT. TOM McDANIEL REHEARSES SOLOISTS
Mrs. Wayne Keller, Mrs. Les Beauvais, Mel Ivey, Ira Schantz

St. Mary's Choir To Sing Cantata This Afternoon

The choir of St. Mary's Episcopal Church will present the cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," by J. H. Maunder today at 5 p.m. The choir is under the direction of Lt. Tom McDaniel, who will be the organist; piano accompaniment will be by Miss Elsie Willis.

The two soprano soloists are Mrs. Wayne Keller and Mrs. Les Beauvais. Mel Ivey, baritone, and Ira Schantz, tenor, will be guest soloists. Ivey is choral director at Senior High School, and Schantz is head of the local department at Howard County Junior College.

"Olivet to Calvary" depicts the last days of the Savior's life on earth. The rejoicing of the multitude with hosannas and psalms, the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, and the sad walk over the mount are all portrayed in the first part.

Part two opens with the Last Supper. Then follows the prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, the appearance of the hostile crowd, and the abandonment of Jesus by His disciples, finally, the scene before Pilate, the tragedy of the Cross and the triumph of Calvary conclude the cantata.

Booked For Rodeo

Billy Buschbom and his trained horse, Mr. Nifty, have been booked as one of the specialty acts for the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo May 29-30-31, June 1. Mr. Nifty does a series of tricks and dance steps at liberty, climaxing with "Lavade" in which he jumps high with all four feet in the air, kicking out with the rear feet. Other acts are being booked by Elra and Jiggs Beutler, producers for the local association.

UT Law School Honors Baker

AUSTIN—The University of Texas Law School honored Rex G. Baker, retired Houston oil executive, as its outstanding alumnus during the 1963 Law Day observance Friday. The day's activities—speeches, presentation of $1,300 in student awards and final arguments in the Hildebrand Moot Court Competition—were dedicated to Baker. In 1958 Baker headed the Committee of 75, a citizen group which made studies and recommendations during the university's 75th year on the future of the university system.

Police Check Nine Wrecks

Nine minor accidents, with some property damage but no injuries, were investigated by Big Spring police Friday. The first was at Thirteenth and Main with Loys Smith, 901 Runnels, and David Rhotan Jr., 112 Grant, listed as drivers of vehicles involved. Another, at 1909 Gregg, involved cars driven by Francis Frazier, 816 E. 8th, and Allman Mitchell, 430 Edwards Blvd.

Locations of other collisions, and drivers of vehicles involved, were: Sixth and Gregg, Allen Burnes, 1610 E. 17th, and Robert Henry Thomas, 506 San Jacinto; Sixth and Johnson, Owen Luther Ricks Jr., 1802 E. 18th, and Bobby Wayne Baker, 604 Steakley; First and Gregg, Delton Lewis Garnett, Lubbock, and Nathaniel Warren, 904 NW 2nd; Fifteenth and Shepard Lane, Katherine B. Polk, 2810 Coronado, and Sophie Boadle Carcoran, 107 E. 16th; 1200 block Lamesa Drive, F. C. Leroy Junek, Luther, and Ygnacia Gallego Soria, Welch; front of Big M Drive-In, Charles Ray Leek, 4216 Parkway, and driver who left the scene; 600 block Lamesa Drive, Willie James Bethea, 1001 NW 4th, and street light pole.

IT'S DUPLICATE

TROPHY WINNERS, Mrs. R. H. Weaver and Mrs. James Duncan, from left, received awards twice in two sectional tournaments. Mrs. J. H. Holloway and Mrs. B. B. Badger also were trophy winners.

The number of duplicate players is growing by leaps and bounds. What is so fascinating about the game? It is not just a game—it is a thinking person's pastime. Fun? Yes, but you will be put through your mental gymnastics during a session. There will be no room for an accumulation of cobwebs in the "think-tank" if you are to be even a fair player.

Many schools and universities are now offering bridge as a course in logic, and that is just what the game is all about.

Some 30 years ago, under the direction of Mrs. A. A. (Lillie) Williams a local bridge teacher, duplicate games were held for several years, both at the Settles and the Crawford hotels. The Elk's Couples' Duplicate Club is now holding its games in the same old Crawford Hotel ballroom in which Mrs. Williams conducted her sessions. For several years the game flourished and then gradually fell off after Mrs. Williams moved away. She is now living and is still teaching bridge in Hobbs, N.M.

The duplicate games were revived here when a young lieutenant at Webb Air Force Base organized the AFB Officers' Duplicate Club about eight or nine years ago, with only a handful of players. This young man was the late Lt. Carlton Ray Virden of Robstown. He worked diligently to stimulate interest in the games getting players from the base, from town and from the Midland clubs.

BIG SPRING CLUB hosts players on Tuesdays and Fridays. This Tuesday afternoon session included Mrs. V. J. Belda, Mrs. H. E. Goodwin of Colorado City, and Mrs. H. W. Smith who were guests for the afternoon. Standing, Mrs. Ty Allen, director.

After Lt. Virden's death, other officers or their wives took up the job of directing the games. Among them have been Capt. Harold Hart, Mrs. Kyle Riddle, whose husband was the commanding officer, Mrs. Sam Holman, now stationed in San Antonio, and Mrs. Roy Bruflat.

During a period when no one was available at Webb, games were directed there by Mrs. J. D. Robertson, a civilian player. The past year Mrs. D. E. Jonker of the base was named as director of this club. She is assisted by her husband, Capt. Jonker.

In 1958 players at the Big Spring Country Club decided another group should be organized. Mrs. H. E. Goodwin of

To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parker announce the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Linda Sue Parker, and Donald Patrick Dorsey, son of Mrs. Vivian Dorsey of Sufferon, N.Y., and R. F. Dorsey of Big Spring. The wedding is planned for June 15, at the First Church of God, 21st St. and Main.

Las Cruces Marriage Announced

Mrs. Lena S. Walters of 1606 Kentucky Way, and C. T. Domer of El Paso were married April 3 at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church in Las Cruces, N. M. The Rev. Everett F. Finley officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a pink suit of silk linen with which she wore matching slippers and a face-framing hat of roses and tulle. Her corsage was formed of pink rosebuds.

The couple has returned to Big Spring and will reside at 1606 Kentucky Way.

It's Duplicate Play For The Testing Of Strategic Skill

Colorado City, helping to get the group started, conducted several practice games. The first chartered game was held July 3, 1959, sponsored by the Ladies Golf Association. Profits from these games go into the treasury for club beautification.

This club was organized by Mrs. Elmo Wasson, appointed by the association president, Mrs. R. H. Weaver. Mrs. Wasson has continued to serve as director, assisted by Mrs. E. L. Powell, Mrs. Doug Orme, Mrs. J. Y. Robb and Mrs. R. R. McEwen Jr., as well as other members of the group.

Only two games were held when fire destroyed the club house. From July 17, 1959 through Oct. 21, 1960, sessions were held at Cosden Country Club. Oct. 28, 1960 was when the first game was held in the present clubhouse.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

The first annual club championship was in 1959. The Marie McDonald Trophy, a sterling silver goblet, given to the winning pair, is awarded each year to the club champions. Winners have been Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. James Duncan, 1959; Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Wasson, 1960, 1961 and 1962.

IN SESSION

NEW GROUP

The Tuesday duplicate session at Big Spring Country Club was begun within the past year, with Mrs. Ty Allen the director. Also recently organized was the Elk's Couples Duplicate Club with Grover Cunningham Jr., director. Mrs. Lloyd Nalls is director of the Cosden Country Club Duplicate group.

The clubs are proud, having a pair, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Duncan, who has won trophies twice in the open pairs events at two sectional tournaments. They were first place winners in the Midland Tournament several years ago, competing against scores of Life Masters, including Oswald Jacoby. Then proving that this win was not one of those lucky things which just happens, they recently came home with the second place trophy in the open pairs event at the San Angelo Tournament.

Two other local players who recently returned home with a trophy from a two-session event at Sweetwater are Mrs. B. B. Badger and Mrs. J. H. Holloway. Mrs. Badger and Mrs. Ayra McGann were first in their section and placed fourth over all in the Midland National Charity game held March 20.

UNDER CHARTER

All five of the local duplicate clubs operate under charters from the American Contract Bridge League with headquarters in New York. They are under the direct supervision of the Greater Permian Basin Unit No. 209 with headquarters in Midland. Officers of the Permian Basin Unit include Mrs. James Allison, Midland, president; Mrs. Wasson, vice president; Mrs. William B. Smith, Midland, secretary - treasurer; and Mrs. J. D. Robertson, Grover Cunningham Jr., Mrs. A. Swartz, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. John Stone, members of the board of directors.

The local clubs cooperate, not only in their weekly schedules, but with special series and winners' games and particularly the charity games where all proceeds go to the charities as designated each year by the national board of directors.

Herb And Spice In New Fabrics

Herb and spice colors are the newest fabrics to accent the glowing beauty of American walnut.

Parsley, sage, nutmeg, paprika and cinnamon tones are the latest upholstery choices. These muted colors bring out wood's beauty, it is said, and serve as a restful background. Teal blue also bears watching.

Brighter colors may be selected for walnut furnishings in a modern room or one without sunlight and requiring an uplift. In these instances, decorators recommend peacock blue, turkey red and colors from the lime, lemon and tangerine family. Walnut, the leading wood used in furniture manufacture, comes in many finishes from mellow natural to blond to dark tones. Thus, it is compatible with almost every fabric and color.

Plans Told

Miss Annette Parrish's engagemen and approaching marriage to Jimmie Gray is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Parrish of 1403 Princeton Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Gray of Lincoln, Neb., are parents of the prospective bridegroom. The wedding will take place at Westside Baptist Church Thursday, May 30.

SQUADRON SCROLL

Officers Election To Be Conducted By Wives

Since next week is the second one in April, it will be time for the wives' monthly student squadron meeting. This is to be important when the program will be the election of new officers. Also, Mrs. Anabel Stallings will give a cosmetics demonstration. Class 64-C is in charge of the Thursday, April 11, meeting and has set the time for 2 p.m.

The officers' board meeting, preceding the squadron session, will be at 1:45 p.m., Monday, in the Officers' Club.

Six German students in Class 64-D gave a party last night for the students and instructor pilots for their class at the Officers' Club. The six, E. Ringel, V. Keilman, S. Paul, M. Duchheim, D. Ortman and G. Goebel, were observing their promotion from aviation cadets to lieutenants in the West German Air Force.

Not to be outdone, the wives of 64-D met in the home of Mrs. W. T. Saylor last night to play bridge together.

At the home of Mrs. Robert Pedigo last Thursday a miscellaneous baby shower was given by Mrs. Ross Early. Cohostess was Mrs. Kenneth Furbush. Wives in 64-E enjoyed the angel food cake with strawberry topping, and then joined in games. Mrs. Robert Franco and Mrs. William Cooper were prize winners.

The base pavilion was the scene of a 63-G class party last night. Those attending shared a picnic supper and enjoyed dancing.

Members of Class 64-A were on hand to welcome home their tactical officer and his wife, Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Grill, at a party in the Officers' Club last week. Capt. Grill has returned from T-38 school at Randolph AFB.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Poyner were guests of Lt. and Mrs. Kenson Vance last week. The Poyners are from Jacksboro.

It is time to hunt up that Easter egg coloring kit and be sure there is plenty of eggs on hand. Apparently the parents enjoy the hard-boiled eggs and Easter traditions as much as the small fry.

Sands Senior Class To Present Musical

The senior class of Sands High School will present a musical revue "Golden Dreamers" in the auditorium at 8:15 p.m., April 8. Participating in the program will be elementary, junior high and high school students.

Tickets may be obtained at the door. Admission for adults is 75 cents and for students, 50 cents. Proceeds will be used for the senior trip.

TRIUNE

THE NEW FURNITURE CLASSIC

by Drexel

From the great furniture periods of centuries past, Drexel has created a correlated classic for today! Masterful design has been blended into one magnificent collection for living, dining and bedrooms. While completely classic in form, contemporary function cleverly threads its way through all pieces. All to be found in Triune — the traditional charm of Sheraton, the elegant traces of Empire and the regal look of Regency. Designers Henry and David Warren chose genuine sable mahogany and added accents of walnut burl for unsurpassed beauty. Further touches of charm may be had by electing top insets of Italian marble. You'll treasure Triune for its design excellence and meticulous construction, always yours in furniture by Drexel.

FAREWELL AFFAIR

Coffee Is Compliment For Three At NCO Club

A farewell coffee honoring three departing members was given Thursday evening by members of the Non-Commissioned Officer's Wives Club. Held at the NCO Club at Webb Air Force Base, the affair complimented Mrs. James W. Raughley, Mrs. Allan Poyfair and Mrs. Harry Barker.

The honorees received gifts from the club members. Mrs. Raughley had served the club as publicity chairman and Mrs. Barker held the office of vice president.

The departing members thanked the group for the cooperation received in the clubs activities. They expressed sympathy for Mrs. Jim Thomas, entertainment chairman, who was unable to attend the coffee. She is confined to a local hospital.

The refreshment table was covered with an ecru lace cloth and held a centerpiece of mums, tulips and gladioli which was presented to Mrs. Barker in appreciation of her service to the thrift shop. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Study Club Hears Talk By Gossett

Gregg Gossett, chairman of the Americans Freedom for Youth Group, Big Spring, was introduced by Mrs. W. M. Romans as the guest speaker for the Forsan Study Club Thursday evening at the school. Mrs. Romans also gave the devotion.

In his talk, Gossett stressed the people's need for appreciating their American heritage. A general discussion and question and answer period followed.

Hostesses were Mrs. L. T. Shoults and Mrs. Douglas Smith. Mrs. Tommy D. Albertson was introduced as a new member. Members were told that the club's press book had won, for the fourth consecutive year, the first place award in the Western District.

Committee chairmen were named as Mrs. Romans, membership; Mrs. C. B. Long, friendship; Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, federation chairman; Mrs. Shoults, budget chairman, assisted by Mrs. Roy Stockstill and Mrs. Fairchild.

The next meeting will be held April 26, a special event when there will be a flower and art exhibit at the school, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Luncheon Held By Susannah Class

The Susannah Wesley Sunday school class of the First Methodist Church met Friday in Fellowship Hall for a luncheon and business session.

The Rev. Joe Leatherwood, associate pastor, worded the invocation. A devotion on women of the Bible was given by Mrs. W. A. Laswell.

Mrs. Logan Baker and her group acted as hostesses, serving refreshments to 24 members and eight guests. The U-shaped tables were decorated with arrangements of spring flowers.

MR. AND MRS. E. LEE THACKREY

The Wonderful World Of Nature Is Explored By The Thackreys

By JO BRIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee Thackrey have not reached the middle years just waiting for something to happen. They examine and appreciate the world they live in with the awareness of scientists and the compassion of poets.

Thackrey is a soft-spoken man, almost shy in his gentleness. Not a dragon slayer—but the cufflinks he wears are made of dinosaur bone.

Mrs. Thackrey is the kind of woman who digs in her garden, and children seem to pop up out of the ground—wanting to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Thackrey live at 1500 Eleventh Place in a home that seems to suit them. It's a white stucco cottage where ivy is covering the walls and a miniature Schnauzer named Miss Honey keeps a wary eye cocked for cats.

The Thackreys came to Big Spring in the fall when he accepted a position in the geology department at Howard County Junior College. He is an instructor in the biology lab.

Thackrey spent his early years on cattle ranches in northern Nebraska where he lived with relatives after his mother's death. Graduating from high school in Valentine, he earned a B.S. degree at Kansas State University and a M.A. degree in geology at the University of Missouri.

He taught high school science for 11 years and was the principal of the Minneola, Kan., high school for six years. For five years he was the chief geologist for American Trading and Production Corp. in Midland. During one period he was a consulting geologist, living for several years in a trailer on wildcat well sites.

Mrs. Thackrey grew up in coastal towns such as Galveston and Houston, and later, Austin, where she met her husband. She has done practical nursing most of her life. Her favorite patients were older people. She is a past noble grand of the Rebekah Lodge, and belongs to the American Legion Auxiliary. She knits, crochets, sews, gardens—and likes outdoor sports such as basketball and tennis!

The Thackreys share many hobbies such as photography. Carefully catalogued are over 2,500 three dimension stereo color slides taken in many states, Mexico and Canada.

They have taken many geology and scenic trips in the Colorado Rockies in search of unusual crystal, minerals and gems. At Salida, Colo., they have a three-level mountain cabin with an unusual fireplace. Constructed by the Thackreys, it contains rocks, crystals and semi-precious stones collected over a 26 year period. The mantle is of solid rose quartz.

The Thackreys have two sons. Dr. Donald E. Thackrey of Ann Arbor, Mich., is the civilian editor for classified scientific publications at Willow Run Armed Service Base. Dr. Dean J. Thackrey is a veterinarian at San Diego, Calif., currently engaged with officials in fighting a rabies epidemic in that county and Tijuana. There are four grandchildren.

The Thackrey's like the city—and love the people. They feel a special bond already since three of his students donated blood during her recent major surgery.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

I wonder if the same mockingbird really does come back to our place each spring . . . When the sun came up the morning after the rain clouds cleared, the air was filled with the exuberant trillings of a mockingbird, and this one seems as saucy as the one we heard last year and many years before that. He seems so gay and full of joy that the little dowdy sparrows almost seem apologetic as they make their tuneless cheep.

Although Thursday skies were filled with rain that fell and fell and fell, very few, if any, women were held back from attending the delightful brunch at the Big Spring Country Club given by MRS. CARL STROM and MRS. LORIN McDOWELL JR.

The dampness of the day only brought out the ingenuity of the West Texas women. Not willing to go to the party hatless, and certainly not with one that was too old, there came the problem of how to wear a favorite chapeau through the rain and come into the receiving rooms looking like spring had sprung. The problem was solved in many cases by guests who simply split plastic bags and covered the hats, both large and small, in their entirety and tied the ends under their chins. The result was quite colorful—pink, blue and crystal clear but shiny. The lobby took on the appearance of a Lilly Dache showing.

Two who chose to wear smart black were MRS. DALE SMITH and MRS ELVIS McCRARY. Mrs. Smith's two piece outfit featured the popular fingertip length full coat with elbow length sleeves. Her hat was a black straw sailor. Mrs. McCrary's black suit dress buttoned from the ring neck to the hem and her sailor was also of straw with a perky turned up brim.

MRS. ROBERT HEINZE'S hat was a profusion of pastel organza roses and MRS. ROSS BOYKIN'S new white topper featured four large cabbage roses of organdy—real springy. MRS. BENNETT BROOKE brightened her beige suit with a scarf of orange chiffon and picked up the color with a matching flower on the side of her wide brimmed black hat. MRS. G. H. HAYWARD wore a becoming shade of blue in a suit of shantung . . . MRS. PETE COOK looked trim in a sweater and skirt combination of pretty pale green.

Annual Friendship Tea Held At Cauble Home

COAHOMA (SC) — The Mary Jane Club held its annual friendship tea Thursday in the home of Mrs. Jack Cauble.

The theme for this years tea was "Gay Nineties," and members of the club were attired in the original dress of that period. On display in the den were a number of articles, dating from 30 to 100 years old. One table of antique dishes and other articles, including a gold thimble, was loaned to the club by Mrs. Charles Read. On the serving table was a handmade cloth about 50 years old, owned by Mrs. Donald McKinney; and an ornate silver coffee service, belonging to Mrs. G. B. Harding. On display, too, were men's, women's and children's clothing.

Out of town guests were Mrs. D. Short and her small son who drove from Midland with Mrs. Troy Roberts in a 1923 Cadillac. One hundred four guests called during the afternoon.

MRS. CHARLES RAY BOLAND

Miss Fiveash Bride Of Charles Ray Boland

Miss Lida Lou Fiveash became the bride of Airman 1.C. Charles Ray Boland in a double ring ceremony performed in the Wesley Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. Thomas C. Boland of Ricardo, brother of the bridegroom, officiated in the nuptial rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiveash, 803 E. 14th St. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boland, 4334 Vestal St., Corpus Christi.

Green palms formed the background for an arch of blue wedding tapers in gold candelabra placed on each side of the altar. Forming a triangular arrangement were baskets of white gladioli and emerald foliage flanking the candles. White satin roping was used to mark the path to the altar.

Accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. P. Aslin, Mrs. Douglas Clemmens sang "Always." Mrs. Aslin also played nuptial selections and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of chantilly lace over white peau de soie styled with scalloped neckline and petal point sleeves ending at the wrist. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a tiara encrusted with pearls.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white gladelias and feathered chrysanthemums showered with French pique ribbon and hand - styled satin leaves.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Phyllis Palmer, Abilene, was the maid of honor. Miss Jo Ellen Fiveash, sister of the bride, and Miss Barbara Moelling, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants were identically dressed in blue street length dresses featuring bouffant skirts and square necklines worn with matching veiled hats and gloves. They carried semi-cascade arrangements of salmon pink glamelias tied with satin ribbon.

Serving as best man was Dan Fiveash, brother of the bride. Groomsmen were Airman Ron Pace of Webb Air Force Base and Kenneth Moelling, a cousin of the bride. Airmen Hollis C. Hoffman, Bob Green and Joe Moore, all of Webb, were the ushers.

Lighting the altar tapers were Miss Marjorie Kay Fiveash, sister of the bride, and Miss Suzinne Shurbet of Corpus Christi, a niece of the bridegroom.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, 803 E. 14th St. With the couple in the receiving line were the parents and the bride's attendants.

The refreshment table was covered with a white taffeta cloth and a white net overlay. A centerpiece of blue and white carnations was flanked by candelabra holding tapers. The three-tiered white cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Presiding at the register was Miss Judy Johnson. Members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Apple, Mrs. W. R. Smelser, Mrs. J. A. Wright, and Mrs. J. J. Shurbet of Corpus Christi, sister of the bridegroom.

Guests attending from out of town were Mrs. T. A. Burgamy, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sadler, Kermit; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bowling, Robstown; and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Alexander and daughter, Houston.

WEDDING TRIP

For a wedding trip along the Gulf coast the bride chose a traveling suit of black and white linen with which she wore white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon returning the couple will live here where he is stationed with the 331st Five Interceptor Squadron at Webb.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended West Texas State College. She is active in the Big Spring Civic Theater.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Carroll High School in Corpus Christi, attended Del-Mar Junior College there.

Catholic Meeting At Webb

The Catholic Women of Webb Air Force Base met Friday for mass and communion in the chapel, followed by a business session in the annex.

Prayer and a talk on First Friday devotions by the Rev. James R. Plummer opened the meeting.

Mrs. William Claire, out-going president, expressed appreciation to the members for their cooperation during her term of office. Nominations were made for new officers who will be elected at the next meeting. Mrs. Walter Morebeck and Mrs. Charles Head are in charge of the installation breakfast scheduled for May 3.

A reminder was given that the clothing and Catholic literature drive is still held. Donations may be brought to the chapel annex. The door prize was won by Mrs. Richard Roth.

Hostesses were Mrs. S. Torres and Mrs. Victor Reale. They served from a table covered with a pink linen cloth which carried out the Easter theme. A basket of colored eggs served as the centerpiece.

Mrs. William Backus was a guest.

Mrs. Straus Honored At Thomases'

Mrs. Bob Straus was complimented with a miscellaneous shower Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr. Mrs. Straus is the former Lana Lewis, daughter of James G. Lewis and the late Mrs. Lewis.

She was attired in a dress of royal blue knit on which she wore a white carnation corsage presented by the hostesses.

Hostesses with Mrs. Thomas were Mrs. Garner McAdams, Mrs. Travis Carleton, Mrs. Jack Cook, Mrs. Jim Zack, Mrs. Ike Robb, Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Toots Mansfield.

The refreshment table was covered with an imported Chinese white lace cloth designed in squares. The centerpiece was formed of white carnations and white Dutch iris. Napkins with the couple's names imprinted in silver were used with silver appointments. The guest list included 100.

WEBB WINDSOCK

By MOLLI HARTZOG

Skeet shooting classes for ladies, dead-eyed and otherwise, will begin Thursday, April 11, at 2 p.m. at the Webb skeet range. The only cost will be for shotgun shells and clay pigeons, the instruction by Lt. Frederick will be free of charge, and guns and jackets will be provided. No husbands will be allowed to kibitz, thus causing itchy trigger fingers, and Lt. Frederick has promised not to run, stalked though he may be by sheer terror. The first class will last only one hour, so don't be late.

The Night in Old New Orleans welfare benefit sponsored by the OWC and scheduled for April 20 at the Officers Club will be open to members and their guests, associate members and honorary members. We sneaked into rehearsal recently, and would like to report that the chorus lineups have some of the best looking dancers we have seen since Las Vegas. (The Officers Club pool-watchers should have a marvelous season this summer.) And star attraction, though it is being kept behind a tactful screen of silence, will be a flaming redhaired exotic dancer called Louisville Lou. And she's pretty, too. Show tickets are $1, and reservations will be necessary.

WEDDINGS

Among the spring weddings here at Webb, Lt. Charles Brame of the 3560th Squadron has a new bride as of March 30. The new Mrs. Brame, from Snyder, is the former Janice Young. The Brames first will attend an Air Force school at San Antonio, then return to Webb where Lt. Brame will be an instructor pilot.

While rehearsing for the children's style show one night last week at the Officers Club, the crowd, including the 40 models, was treated to a breath of springtime romance when a wedding party arrived from the base chapel heading for their reception held in the Ivy Room of the club. When the bride came through the rehearsal room on the arm of her new husband, she turned and held her floral bouquet up for the children to see. There was an immediate chorus of "oh's" and "ah's" and 40 pairs of young eyes lit up like Christmas. In the wake of the wedding party, it was a real struggle to get the little ones back down to earth. The girls were all starry-eyed and the boys all wanted to go along and have a piece of the cake.

BOWLERS' REPORT

The 331st squadron has been bowling in a couples' league since September, excepting a lull during the Cuban crisis, and recently had their end-of-league banquet at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant. Best bowlers of the group were Don Cooper and Maxine Marney who received trophies in recognition of their skill. The high averages were 173 and 117, respectively.

Mrs. Tom Nelson of the 331st received 17 trophies in recognition of her accomplishment Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Short. Mrs. Nelson's accomplishment is not due for another week or so, but has been heralded in traditional fashion with diapers, rattles, et al. Hostesses included Mrs. Richard Coil and Mrs. Don Hathaway and guests numbered 15. Mrs. Short will soon be hostess to Mrs. Raymond Short arriving from New Brunswick, Canada, via Houston for an Easter visit.

There has been a decline in flying during this rainy weather, but not the least among the advantages of soggy sundowns we find that our wealthy neighbors must eat indoors. There is nothing quite so disheartening as great numbers of neighbors, contentedly munching on patio charcoaled steaks while we must dine on liver, beans and hot dogs. May it rain forever.

Coahoma Group At Sul Ross Judging

COAHOMA (SC) — Gerald Okes and a group of FFA boys will be in Alpine this weekend to enter the grass and wool judging contests at Sul Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Anderson of Luther visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Darden.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Hays are visiting here from Graham with their sons and families, the Marion Hays and the Doyce Hays.

Miss Nuckolls Bride Of Kenneth Paul Dees

Marriage vows were pledged in a double ring service uniting Miss Sharion Lynn Nuckolls and Kenneth Paul Dees, Saturday afternoon in Kentwood Methodist Church. The Rev. Marvin James officiated before an arch flanked by baskets of white carnations and palms.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Nuckolls, 644 Manor Lane, and Mrs. L. V. Morgan, Rt. 1, and J. B. Dees of Abilene.

Frank Arner, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white raw silk dress, white accessories and white pillbox hat with brief nose veil. She carried a white orchid and a white Bible.

Miss Frankie Morgan, maid of honor, wore a sheath of champagne beige satin with matching pillbox hat. Her bouquet was of yellow feathered carnations.

The bridegroom's brother, Tyson Dees, was best man. Ushers were Jimmie D. Jones, the bride's cousin, and George Hill, cousin of the bridegroom.

RECEPTION

Guests were received by the couple and the parents in the hall at the church, where a refreshment table, spread with a skirted, white organdy cloth, was appointed with silver. The three tiered wedding cake was crowned with figurines of a bride and groom. Yellow and white were the colors used.

Miss Cathy Johnson was in charge of the register. Other members of the house party were Miss Joyce Gunn, Miss Linda McNew, Miss Karon Koger, Miss Francis Earnest, Miss Kay Earnest, Miss Frankie Morgan and Mrs. Gaston Lacky.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blanton and daughters of Hobbs, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Dees, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Southall, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bransom and daughter, Susan, Lubbock; Mrs. Tom Cannon, Mrs. M. J. McCoy and Mrs. Mary Hamilton, all of Lubbock; Mrs. Ben Whitaker, Snyder; Blanton Dees, Las Cruces, N.M.; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hightower and family, Andrews.

MRS. KENNETH PAUL DEES

WEDDING TRIP

The couple left afterward on a wedding trip to San Antonio. For travel the bride chose to wear a beige suit of raw silk, beige accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Fort Hood will be the couple's place of residence.

After graduation from the Big Spring High School, the bride was employed in local hospitals, and since has been employed with a Midland physician.

Dees, a graduate of Coahoma High School, attended McMurry College and Texas Tech at Lubbock. Presently in the Army, he returned from Korea April 1, and is now stationed at Fort Hood.

Diamonds Lead A Lonely Life

Diamonds should not be kept in the same box as other gems because diamonds' very hard surfaces will scratch the surfaces of other stones.

Diamonds, rubies and sapphires are easy to care for—they can be cleaned with a tooth brush and detergent—but their settings should be checked at least once a year.

Reserve Hot Water

Among recent developments in water heaters is one type of heater with a control that changes the water-heating rate automatically to replace hot water as fast as it is used. When only a little water is being drawn, the burner operates on an economical low flame, but when lots of water is called for, the burner increases in intensity to heat the water faster.

Solves Problem

Walnut accessories in good taste as gifts include candlesticks, trays, fruit bowls, canisters, or salad sets.

For Overwaxed Furniture

Furniture which has been overwaxed frequently becomes sticky or blurred. The remedy suggested by Donald H. Gott of the American Walnut Manufacturers' Association is a simple one It will restore a lustrous finish.

In a quart of warm water, place one tablespoon of turpentine and one tablespoon of olive oil. Swirl a soft, clean cloth in the mixture. Wring it out. Rub down the furniture briskly. Repeat as often as necessary until excess wax is removed and the surface is clear and satiny. Dry with a soft cloth.

When the furniture is thoroughly dry, apply a thin coat of paste wax. The wax should be buffed well for luster.

Meet Madame President

MRS. DON WILEY

Mrs. Don Wiley, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church for the past two years, is also the newly elected president to serve next year for the Junior Woman's Forum. Her other church activities include teaching the sixth grade class in the junior department. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley came to Big Spring six years ago from Wichita Falls. He is in the engineering department at Cosden Petroleum Corp. Their children are Mark, 6, who attends the first grade at St. Mary's School, and Paula, 4. Mrs. Wiley attended Texas Christian University, and is now enrolled in a psychology course at Howard County Junior College.

Beautiful Biscuits

Fine, delicate biscuits, the kind served at weddings and fine restaurants, are easy to make. Following a good recipe, be sure to preheat the oven to 450 degrees so the biscuits will start baking before the shortening melts. For soft sides, bake biscuits close together. For crusty sides, place them an inch apart. Bake 10 to 15 minutes, depending on size.

National Week Is Observed

Future Homemakers at Runnels Junior High School observed the National FHA Week which closed yesterday.

A special activity was planned for each day beginning with church March 31. Monday was when members wore red and white for Color Day, and on Tuesday—Apples for the Teacher Day—the executive council presented apples to the teachers.

Little Sister Day was Wednesday, when each eighth grade girl was taken on a tour through the homemaking department where she was served refreshments.

Cindy Jones, chapter president, made a guest appearance on the Hemphill Wells Showcase Thursday, observing Chapter Day. She explained the work done through the FHA program. On Friday, Community Day, all members helped to make tray favors for the Veterans Administration Hospital. The week closed with Family Day. Each member did something nice for a family member.

Sponsors of the Runnels chapter are Mrs. Betty Conley and Mrs. Florence Lenox.

HD PROGRAM Is On Sewing

Getting the most out of your sewing machine is the current theme for Home Demonstration club meetings. The more knowledge a person has about her machine, the greater pleasure it has for her, according to Mrs. Delaine Crawford, HD agent.

Selection of the proper needle and thread size are necessary to secure a perfect stitch. Learning to adjust the tension, pressure and stitch length in relation to different types of fabric will improve performance. These things are being pointed out to HD members in their programs by Mrs. Crawford. She stresses testing the machine stitch on a scrap of a garment's fabric before stitching on the garment itself.

The program was presented this week to the following clubs.

LOMAX HD CLUB

Mrs. Claude Roberts was hostess to seven members of the Lomax Club Thursday when the program was presented at the school Mrs. Don Jay of Dimmitt was a guest.

Plans for the May exhibit were discussed with Mrs. J. L. McIlvaine, Mrs. Neil Fryar and Mrs. James Moore named as the exhibit committee which will deliver and return the displays and remain at the exhibit during the day. Mrs. Simon Parum gave the council report, and the devotion was given by Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Parum will be hostess for the club April 18.

AIRPORT HD CLUB

Seven members attended the Tuesday meeting of the Airport HD Club at the home of Mrs. N. D. Green. Mrs. O. L. Teague was a guest.

A devotion was given by Mrs. E. C. Miller, after which Mrs. Crawford presented the program.

The floating prize was won by Mrs. Roy Spivey, and the next meeting announced for April 16 with Mrs. Miller at 1614 Bluebird.

Canopy Of Tile Easy To Clean

Those not in favor of canopies usually argue that they are dust-catchers and not worth the trouble of taking down for frequent washings, not to mention further complications caused by shrinkage. However, an ornamental canopy without any cleaning problems can be yours if it's made of ceramic tile.

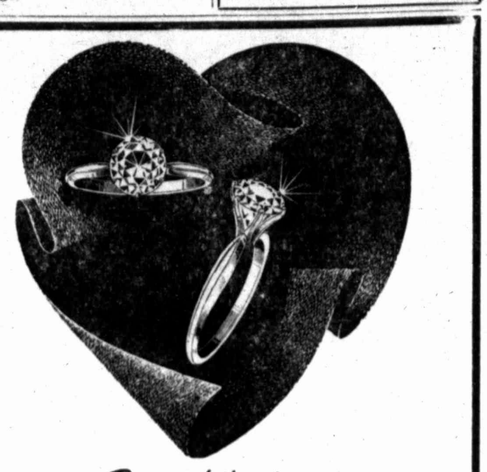

You'll never have to worry about scratches or replacement problems with a tile canopy or headboard. Shades and designs now available will make it easy to select the right tile to blend with bedspreads for both single- and king-size beds. The only real care needed is an occasional going over with a damp cloth.

THOSE WHO KNOW RECOMMEND TSO For Professional Eye Care

Texas State Optical's list of satisfied patients continues to grow . . . longer every year. Why? Because patients, who appreciate the fine professional eye care they consistently receive at TSO, tell their friends and relatives about the service. ■ More and more, new TSO patients visit the offices throughout the state because of a recommendation. They know they can depend on TSO, because of the reputation for high standards and fine quality that TSO has been building since 1935. ■ Guard against eye disease and poor vision with an annual, three-phase examination at Texas State Optical. The TSO Doctor of Optometry first records a complete visual history. Second, he examines your eyes internally for evidence of disease or defect, such as glaucoma or cataract. Finally, your eyes are examined for visual abnormalities, such as near or farsightedness, astigmatism, or muscle imbalance. Should the need for glasses be revealed, they will be carefully and accurately prescribed and fitted at TSO. ■ And the cost is reasonable—as low as $14.85 for single vision glasses — as low as $17.85 for invisible bifocal glasses, including examination, lenses and frame. Or if you have been considering contact lenses, single vision TSO Micro-Sight contact lenses are $65 complete, and bifocal contact lenses are also available at a reasonable cost. ■ Convenient credit is available at no extra charge. ■ So, if someone hasn't already—don't wait for a recommendation. Guard against eye disease and poor vision—visit the TSO office nearest you soon.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gilmore, Rt. 1, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ruby Pearl, to Kenneth Pitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Pitzer, Rt. 1. The couple will be married June 8 at the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. W. M. Irwin officiating.

Bouquets Are New Bonnets

The bouquets on the table at the Ladies Golf Association luncheon Friday were superb samples of the latest in spring hats, all provided by Hemphill-Wells Deparment Store. Held at the Big Spring Country Club, the luncheon preceded an afternoon of bridge.

The hats, arranged at intervals along the T-shaped table, featured tulip buds in shades of pink, blue violets, white poppies and other blossoms. And in the Easter motif was the main centerpiece, having a feathered, pink and yellow goose wearing a bonnet of natural straw, yellow jonquils and mums and a branch which bore miniature hats.

Colored eggs with faces and Easter bonnets were arranged the length of the tables, along with the decorative dessert, a simulated Easter basket.

Mrs. Zollie Boykin, presiding, introduced a new member, Mrs. John Gary. Guests were Mrs. Dixie Kilgore of Lamesa, Mrs. Malcolm Patterson and Mrs. Wanda Griffith.

The May event was announced as the golfers' luncheon when everyone will come in casual sportswear. May 14 was the date set for the club's invitational tournament, and on April 17 members were invited to attend the Permian Play Day at Midland Country Club. A Scotch foursome was scheduled for today.

It was reported that Mrs. Fred Lurting's team was winner in the bowling league. Mrs. Odell Womack reminded members to prepare for the gifts and gadget display to be held next fall in the homes of members.

Door prize was won by Mrs. E. O. Ellington.

Your Easter Suit

This most wearable outfit reflects the season's trend toward soft ease in cut, the suit-look in the ensemble. Bodice may match or contrast. No. 3147 comes in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. In size 14 the jacket and skirt take 3½ yards of 44-inch fabric; the bodice, 1⅛ yards of 44-inch.

Miss Soldan On Tour With Chorale Group

When the Collegiate Chorale of Texas Western College left yesterday on an International Good Will Tour of the Americas, the chorale's accompanist and vice president went along too. She is Miss Kathleen Soldan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Soldan, 1806 Donley.

With its conductor, Dr. Olav E. Eidbo, the 40-member ensemble of select student musicians has been booked for concerts in the United States, Canada and Mexico between April 6-21. The first performance was in Albuquerque and the tour will be concluded in Juarez or Chihuahua, Mexico.

Besides her place with the Chorale, Miss Soldan is vice president of Alpha Lambda Delta, and is treasurer, music chairman and Panhellenic representative of Phi Beta Chi sorority. Also, she is AWS representative of Tau Beta Sigma, and is student conductor and reporter for the band.

Choir Members At Evening Party

A party was held Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Gray for members of the Goliad Advance Choir who participated in the Odessa musical festival.

In the house party were Linda and Robbie Gray, Mrs. Floyd Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Don Morton, who assisted in directing games and group singing.

Presenting solos were Danny Johnson, Don Haney and Beth Hayworth.

Refreshments were served from a polished table centered with an arrangement of yellow roses. Twenty-five attended.

Happy The Life In Prisons

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Prisons just naturally have a hold on Mrs. Kathlyn Ordway, and that's just fine with her.

Mrs. Ordway recently left the Kentucky State Penitentiary here after a 15-year tenure as secretary to the warden. She left to become the wife of Elbert V. Nash, warden at Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Mrs. Ordway grew up with prison life as her father was a deputy warden and presently works at the Kentucky State Reformatory near Louisville.

Mrs. Ordway met Nash at a Central State Correctional Conference at Louisville. The man who introduced them, Ross Randolph, drew best man duty for the wedding. He is warden at Menard State Prison, Chester, Ill.

Seventh Birthday Anniversary Noted

KNOTT (SC)—Randy Walls was honored Friday evening with a party observing the seventh anniversary of his birthday. His mother, Mrs. T. J. Walls, was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Garrett, Mrs. Paul Lancaster and Mrs. Elbert Strickland.

Games were played by the 20 guests whose gifts to the honoree were opened afterward.

Carts Appear In Revival

Many housewives find a variety of uses for handsome walnut serving carts such as were widely shown in recent furniture collections. Some carts are of period styling, some frankly modern in line and approach.

The revival of the tea-cart does not mean that the housewife is going Victorian. This handy cart-on-wheels, usually with two shelves, often with drawers or a flip-open top, gets around at a modern pace. The cart can wheel out to the patio for an extra serving table at barbecue meals. It cango from kitchen to dining room holding dessert plates in readiness.

During an evening party, the cart can be rolled to the living room with a stock of snacks and sandwiches, the ice-bucket and beverages.

Some homeowners find it useful for carting small cleaning supplies from room to room.

Others use the cart as a permanent extra table or buffet server in the dining area. Often it is appropriated for teen parties in the family room.

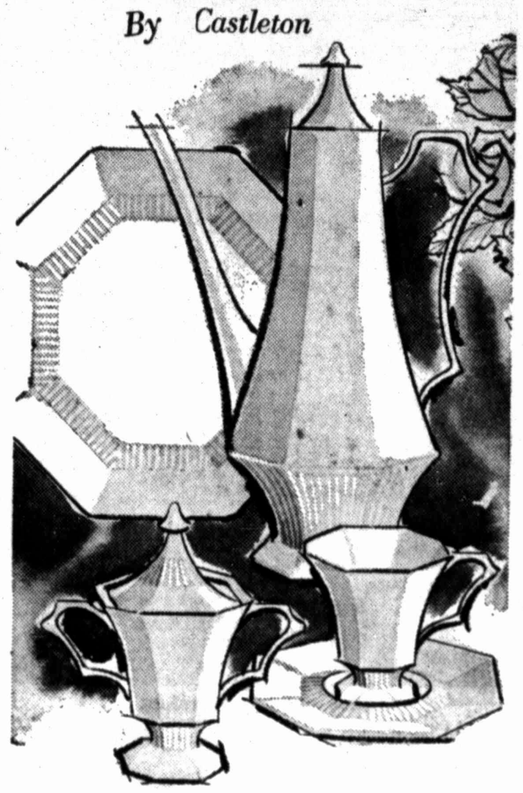

Some walnut serving carts have insets of glass, slate or ceramic tile. Many are scaled to hold electric hot-trays and other party aids.

Counter Space Inadequate?

One of the most common faults in kitchen planning is inadequate counter space and cabinets. New built-in kitchen appliances have created specific work areas, each requiring sufficient counter space. Countertops should be surfaced with a waterproof and stainproof material. A tile surface is impervious to heat, an important consideration if a countertop range is involved.

Whitaker-Baker Vows Said By Candlelight

The marriage of Miss Etta Louise Baker and Joe Dan Whitaker was solemnized in a double ring ceremony performed Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Hillcrest Baptist Church. The Rev. H. L. Bingham, pastor, officiated. The candlelit altar had basket arrangements of blue and white flowers and potted palms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Baker of Big Spring. The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Julian Henry, Big Spring, and Frank Whitaker of Vincent.

Nuptial music was provided by Phil Hall at the organ. He accompanied the vocalist, Miss Betty Morgan, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "I Love You Truly."

Given by her father in marriage, the bride wore a formal gown of bridal satin and Chantilly lace designed with scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves. The full skirt was slightly belled, and her veil of illusion was secured with a tiara of pearls. She carried white orchids in a cascade of lilies of the valley and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Miss Janet Prior was maid of honor, and bridesmaid was Miss Pat Curry. Their dresses were of blue polished cotton fashioned with belled skirts. They carried nosegays of white pompon mums and glamelias.

B. L. Cockrell of Ackerly was best man, with Donnie Baker, the bride's brother, and Jerry King, the bridegroom's brother, serving as ushers. Groomsman was Jimmy Whitaker, brother of the bridegroom.

Steve Baker, the bride's brother, was ring bearer, and her cousins, Phyllis Harris of Marble Falls and Brenda Kendall of Austin were the taper lighters.

MRS. JOE DAN WHITAKER

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the church hall, where guests were received by the couple, the parents and members of the wedding party.

The refreshment table was spread with white lace over blue. Blue was repeated in the centerpiece and the candles. The wedding cake, frosted white, was three tiered and topped with bride and groom figurines.

Miss Leola Vance was in charge of the register, with Miss Diana Spivey, Miss Betty Morgan, Mrs. Hack Miller and Mrs. Robert Baker, aunt of the bride, completing the house party.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Lillie Atchley of Marble Falls, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Kendall and daughter, Brenda, Austin, aunt and cousin of the bride; Mrs. Elmer Harris, an aunt, and children, Phyllis, Douglass, Jerry, Debra, Kathy and Deneise Harris of Marble Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Walker of Dallas.

WEDDING TRIP

The couple left afterward on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. For travel the bride wore a white suit with rose-toned blouse. Her accessories were of white patent, and she wore the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

Returning to Big Spring, the couple will reside at 1302 Blackmon Ave.

The bride, a graduate of Big Spring High School, attended Howard County Junior College Nurses School and received her Vocational Nurses license. She is presently employed at the Howard County Hospital Foundation.

Whitaker, who attended the Coahoma schools, is an agent with the Great American Life and Health Co.

Four Perfect Hands Dealt At One Party

GREYBULL, Wyo. (AP)—The rarest sight in bridge—four perfect hands—dealt this week at a bridge party here. It was the second time in less than a week that such a rarity has been reported in the United States.

The World Almanac lists the chance of getting a perfect hand in a specific suit as one in 635,013,599,600 but there is no calculation on the odds against four one-suit hands in a single deal.

The rarity occurred at a meeting of the Tuesday Evening Bridge Club in Greybull in a game matching women who have played together for nine years.

Mrs. W. G. Crane dealt herself 13 clubs, gave Jean Reed 13 hearts, Mrs. L. A. Knundson 13 diamonds and Mrs. W. R. Plummer, 13 spades.

Mrs. Crane bid seven clubs, Mrs. Reed bid seven hearts, Mrs. Knudson was dumbfounded when she sat with her 13 diamonds and had to pass since hearts are a more valuable suit. Mrs. Plummer then bid seven spades, the highest suit in the deck, and won the hand.

"We could hardly believe it when we saw it with our own eyes," Mrs. Plummer said later.

On March 30, a bridge club in Kankakee, Ill., reported four women held perfect hands at a game.

Scouts Are Presented In Boydstun Program

Cub Scouts of Den 7, Pack 14, were presented in a skit for the Thursday program of Boydstun Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Roy Watkins presided for the meeting held at the school, and a devotion was given by William Irwin.

Following the skit, Brownie Scouts of Troop 131 held a songfest under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Stanaland and Mrs. J. L. Christensen.

Mrs. Jack Barber reported on savings stamps, and the honor award went to Mrs. Floyd Hull's third grade room. Members were reminded that May 8 will be the last day for selling. Mrs. Dwight McCann reported that eight members had completed their 12-hour courses in "Education for Family Living."

Mrs. E. C. Bell told of the spring conference recently held in Lamesa, where Boydstun was represented by 11 members. Mrs. Watkins told of the P-TA Council luncheon and school of instruction.

A letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. Dwight McCann, City Council president, thanking the unit for its cooperation throughout the year.

Final Count On Cotton Shows Decline In County

Howard County's 1962 cotton production, as shown by the U.S. Bureau of Census figures on cotton ginning, was 26,890 bales.

According to the Plains Cotton Growers Inc., the production in Howard County showed the greatest decline over 1961 of any of the 23 counties served by the organization. Howard County had 48.4 per cent less cotton in 1962 than in the previous year. The 1961 ginnings were 52,115 bales.

The Census figures are slightly greated than the totals compiled by the Herald Feb. 16. The Herald contacted the gins of the county and the combined ginnings reported totalled 25,408 bales.

A few weeks later, the Texas Employment Commission released its total ginning report for the season and said the crop had been only 22,251 bales.

This report stirred considerable debate. Most of the organizations and authorities on cotton insisted the crop was not less than 25,000 bales. The U.S. Census figures as quoted by the Plains Cotton Growers Inc., seem to bear this out.

Two other area counties are in the territory served by Plains—Borden and Dawson. Borden County crop, as shown by the U.S. Bureau—was 10,000 bales. Identical with its 1961 production. Dawson County crop for 1962 was 137,730 bales. In 1961, Dawson County produced 208,802 bales. The 23 counties served by PGC produced a total of 2,328,293 bales of cotton in 1962 which was only .07 per cent less than the 2,344,803 bale crop of 1961.

Ten of the counties showed increased production in 1962 over 1961.

PGC commenting on the Howard County crop observed:

"Among the counties in PGC's territory, Howard County had the largest decline in production, percentagewise, with 48.4 per cent. This county is almost entirely dry-land and experienced a drought in 1962. Parmer County, which set a new record of 60,027 bales in 1961, jumped 33.8 per cent to 80,328 in 1962 for the biggest production increase of the group."

The PGC reported the Texas crop in 1962 was 4,735,659 bales and said that the 23 high plains counties in its territory produced more cotton alone than any state in the union, excepting Texas. The high plains counties produced 2,328,293 bales of cotton. California was second state in the nation in cotton production. It's 1962 crop totalled 1,934,844 bales. The 23 counties in the PGC area showed an overall decrease of only 16,510 bales under their 1961 crops. Texas as a whole showed a decrease of 1.4 per cent.

Three Capital Cases Docketed

Three capital criminal cases have been docketed for trail in the 118th District Court.

Judge Ralph Caton announced Saturday that A. C. Elliott, charged with rape, will be called for trial April 22. In the event it is not possible for Elliott to face trial on that date, Jerry Lee Parker, charged with murder, will go to trial.

If Elliott's case is called as scheduled, then Parker will be recalled for trial May 20. At the same time, it was announced that in the event something prevents Parker's case being tried May 20, then Roosevelt Carter, charged with murder, will be called.

Special venires will be required in these cases. Judge Caton estimated that 125 names will be drawn for each special venire with the first panel to be summoned April 22.

Elliott, an airman, is accused of having raped a 19-year-old babysitter in his home Sept. 3. Rape is a capital crime in Texas and subject to the same trail regulations as any other such case.

Parker, now at liberty on bond, is charged with having beaten Stanley Williams, 90-year-old retired farmer, fatally last August 26. At the same time, Mrs. Williams was beaten but not killed. Williams died of his injuries a few days after the attack. The crime was staged in order to rob the elderly couple, the state contends. The assault took place in the Williams home at 517 N. Benton.

Carter is held in the county jail, never having posted bond. He is indicted for the double murder of two young Negroes in a shooting affray in front of a tavern on the North Side. Killed were Jerry Johnson and Arthur Roland Williams; the shooting occurred Jan. 12.

He was brought before Judge Caton last week and stated he had no attorney nor money to employ one. The court appointed Wayne Basden and Dee Jon Davis as counsel for the defendant and instructed them to be ready to go to trail May 20.

Gil Jones, district attorney, has indicated the state is ready for trial in any of the cases.

Haston Moves Electric Firm

Kitching Electric is moving to a new location, at 1606-B Gregg, after being in the same location for six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Haston, who bought the business about a year and a half ago, said this week that the new building provided better arrangement for their business as electrical contractors.

A rear door will give the men access to their trucks directly from the work room instead of having to go through the front door to the curb.

The store was closed Saturday for the moving, and will be open Monday morning at 1606-B Gregg.

Haston has been in the electrical business for over 20 years. He has six employes, beside himself, and Mrs. Haston who is bookkeeper. All his business experience has been in Big Spring.

The firm does electrical contracting, trouble shooting, or any phase of electrical work in home or business.

Escapees Caught

Two teen-age boys, escapees from Boys' Ranch, San Angelo, were picked up by Big Spring police Friday afternoon following a call from the ranch superintendent. Chief Jay Banks said only one boy was listed as having run off, but that a second boy left without permission and was found with the first. They were 13 and 14 years of age and one of them had relatives in Big Spring.

Re-Enlistments High At Webb

The re-enlistments at Webb AFB totaled 77 per cent for March. Base retention NCO T. Sgt. Leroy Budke announced that base units had 10 out of 13 for a 77 per cent mark. Two of the 10 were first term airmen.

Re-enlistees included T. Sgt. Ferrol R. Holley, T. Sgt. Harry McMillan, T. Sgt. Nelson B. Robinson, S. Sgt. Curtis O. Barnes, S. Sgt. Denis G. Bussiere, S. Sgt. David Comas, S. Sgt. Paul L. Miller Jr., Airman 1.C. John H. Arndt, Airman 1.C. Donal G. Mitchell, Airman 1.C. Billy D. Weatherford, M. Sgt. Bobby F. Mimms, T. Sgt. Marion T. Rives, S. Sgt. Ronald D. Anderson, S. Sgt. Arthur F. Million Dollar Rain

We've just had another of those "million dollar" rains. No one rain may be valued accurately within itself, for a succession of timely rains is necessary to insure a yield. Any urgently needed rain, however, can well wear the "million dollar" appelation because it either initiates, sustains or insures a crop.

In this instance, it is the start of a crop and the timely appearance of new range cover which make this most recent rain a cause for thanksgiving.

Most ranchers were having to feed, and right on the heels of calving and lambing. Now, with warmer weather upon us, the lingering winter weeds will flourish rapidly while the spring crop and new growth of grass comes on. In some areas, modest amounts of stock water were impounded. In short, the outlook for the rancher has been almost revolutionized.

Actually, it is a little early yet for planting in the fields. This does not mean that we won't have planting, for before the week is out a lot of farmers will have their tractors roaring up and down rows, putting in early feed and even some cotton. In this county, experience has led many to pay more attention to moisture than to soil temperature.

If this continues to be as calm a spring as it has been thus far, farmers could come up with a good stand and a cover sufficient to offer their own protection. In that event, we would be on the first lap of a multi-million dollar agricultural blessing.

Time For Reflection

Regardless of whether there is any divine expectation of emphasizing any one period over another, we are now entering upon a week which by custom is conducive to spiritual renewal.

This is an excellent time to draw aside for at least brief periods of reflection. What really is the meaning of life, and what is the purpose of my existence?

It has been said that our gods are the things we can't poke fun at. In this light, we may well re-assess our devotions and our dedications. Are they really worthwhile, and are they, like the hope of eternal life, really enduring?

TOO LITTLE AND TOO LATE

Around The Rim

Loss Of Privacy To Mr. Bell

The phone company is beginning to bug me.

Oh, I like the operators, and can't really complain about the service. But Mister Bell is getting to be so big that he tells you what you can do, and he is running in a lot of automation, which is nerve-wracking to us old stay-putters who would just as soon go back to the hand-crank wall box.

NOW MISTER BELL is taking away what few privacies the ordinary household has left.

He convinced me that it would be a convenience to have an extension phone in the house, and I went along. The mistake was letting the second phone be right at the head of the bed. It sounds off invariably (a) at the time a fellow should be having his siesta; or (b) at an ungodly hour in the middle of the night. And it causes one who has been asleep to bolt upright with the first reaction that a fire alarm has just been touched off in the ceiling.

I DON'T KNOW about your phone bells, but ours are too darned loud.

I haven't devised a way to muffle 'em, so I did what any normal guy might do if he wanted to be undisturbed for awhile. I took the receiver off the hook.

AND NOW WHAT has Mister Bell done? He has assigned a man to monitor you, and in about 20 seconds here comes this character on your phone, blowing a screech whistle, and then pronouncing in golden tones that you must have a receiver off the hook, and please check it. In about five seconds here he comes again, and if you can get a nap with THAT going on, you're out cold.

I wish the character would wait at least an hour, before checking into my private life. He's so quick on the trigger that he sounds his gong while I'm holding the phone and looking up a number, and it takes a little while for an older person to find a number, you know? The first couple of days, I shouted back at him, "Oh, shut up!" But it didn't do any good.

HEARD LATER this is all by automation, which, as I said, is nerve-wracking. About three-fourths the phone calls you get, you don't want. At our house, they are either from someone wanting the Dream girl to play b-r-i-d-g-e (an ugly word we don't mention out loud); or they are from someone wanting to raise holy Ned about a piece that was in the paper; or else they didn't get their paper at all.

I HAVE THOUGHT about an unlisted number, but I have heard that Mr. Bell, for some unknown reason, frowns on this, too.

Seems to me that if Mr. Bell has got a character telling you to hang up the receiver, he ought to put on one that gives you a little advance warning: "This call is going to be one you won't like"; or, "this is going to be a wrong number"; or, "shall I tell them you aren't at home?" Now, this is what I would call helpful monitoring.

NEXT BEST THING, I suppose, is to put a phone booth in the yard. Could be used in emergencies, and left completely alone when I want privacy. But then, I would never have any change.

Mr. Bell may be like Uncle Sam: you can't beat him. But I like wistfully to think that maybe just once in awhile I could take the receiver off the hook.

Image Of Timidity And Uncertainty

WASHINGTON — Thousands of Soviet troops are apparently going to remain in Cuba indefinitely, and the United States government evidently isn't going to do anything about it but write notes. While the number of "withdrawals" is announced, no official information is forthcoming as to the number of replacements. For all the members of the Soviet army in Cuba wear civilian clothes.

There seems, moreover, to be a tacit and unwritten agreement that not only will there be no invasion of Cuba by this country but that the Soviet army on the island and Castro troops will be protected by the United States against all outside attacks or invasions.

THIS PARADOX is occuring while tens of millions of dollars are spent annually to create abroad an "image" of the United States that will command respect and support as against Communist imperialism. Billions are about to be spent, also in Latin America by our government in the battle against communism. Psychological warfare is today almost as important, if not more so, than diplomacy used to be.

But what kind of "image" is the United States creating in Latin America? And who is creating that "image"? It is not the official information agency, with its managed broadcasts, but the White House and State Department, which can by their acts and pronouncements produce unfavorable impressions on the peoples of other countries.

THE PRESIDENT has just directed that the Cuban exiles be prevented from liberating their fellow citizens by any acts initiated inside this country. This is a role of "neutralism" in the western hemisphere in place of the Monroe Doctrine. The explanation given by President Kennedy is that otherwise there might possibly be serious complications for the United States in Europe. This view, however, has already been interpreted in Latin America as a policy of timidity and fear. It is regarded as an abandonment of Cuba to Castro—as a means of strengthening him. The administration here may protest that this is farthest from its thoughts, but the policy may have that effect just the same.

THE PEOPLE of Latin America know the difference between resoluteness and irresoluteness. If it is a violation of the "neutrality" laws of the United States, for instance, to allow expeditions to take the big risks that exile Cubans wish to take to carry on forays along the coast of Cuba, then, it is asked, why does the United States government keep on making "unneutral" statements that tell those same Cuban exiles to look forward to resolution as a means of liberation? Such declarations were repeated several times by the administration in recent months. This had a profound effect on the anti-Castro Cubans. They came to believe that the United States government is behind them. But what do they see now? The Washington administration not only orders the Cubans seized if they try to launch any military raids from the country, but it has persuaded the British government also to seize raiders.

WILL THE Latin - American governments now feel morally bound to adopt the same course that Washington has urged on Great Britain? Will the Latin-American governments be requested by the United States to prevent the use of their territory as a base of operations for the Cuban exiles?

The psychological effect of the latest turn in the Kennedy-Rusk policies can only be damaging and discouraging to the people inside Latin America who have no illusions about the problem of Communist infiltration or Castro's deliberate attempts to subvert many countries in this hemisphere in aid of Communist objectives.

While the raids launched against Cuba would themselves be mere pinpricks or "ineffective," as President Kennedy sees it, it is out of such valiant and sacrificial expeditions that the spirit of revolution is stimulated and the morale of the insurgents is heightened where a dictatorship is in power.

THE "IMAGE" of weakness which the United States government is creating for itself abroad with respect to Cuba is in large part due to the openly but vaguely expressed fear of "international complications." This seems to accompany almost every move of American foreign policy nowadays where Cuba is concerned. The failure of the Soviet government to withdraw all its troops from Cuba, after five months of note-writing between Moscow and Washington, is being treated here with faint words of remonstrance. The fact that a European power has violated the Monroe Doctrine and maintains any troops or weapons on Cuban soil has been dealt with gently by the Washington government.

TO THOSE who constantly talk of "escalation" and the dangers of nuclear war, all this may seem expedient. But it is precisely the kind of appeasement that has led to war in the past. Indeed, the administration's policy is not only presenting in Latin America an "image" of fear of Castro and the Soviets on the part of the United States, but it could have the dangerous effect of making the people of Western Europe, as well as the captive peoples of Eastern Europe, also believe that, when the chips are down, the United States will not pursue firm policies against Soviet aggression anywhere.

Billy Graham

Do you believe that we will have another chance for salvation after death?—C. T.

No, I do not teach that we will have another chance to be saved after death. I believe that our days on earth are an opportunity to prepare for eternity. The Bible clearly says: "Now is the accepted time; today is the day of salvation," and, "how shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?

I wouldn't want to give people any more reasons for procrastinating the matter of their salvation than they now have. Putting off the matter of making things right with God is the result of a misconception of what true religion is. It is not merely a fire-insurance policy, or a matter of legalistic justification. God's desire is not merely to prepare you for death; He wants to make you fit to live. The new life He imparts does just that. Jesus said: "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

If we were given another chance to be saved after death, we would have missed the thrill of walking with God in this life. The Christian religion is not such a dreary thing that we must put off accepting it until the last possible moment. Christ not only saves us from the perils of the future, but from the pitfalls of the present. We need Him, not only in death, but every day of our lives.

Car Demand Putters Merrily Along

Not only is the automobile industry in the process of putting two good years back to back, but it is confounding its severest skeptics—its own economists.

"As autos go, so goes the country" has never appealed to the statisticians and economists of automobile companies. Rather, they have reasoned, "As goes consumer income, so go auto sales."

They've argued that the auto industry no longer is an "autonomous" economic force — an industry that could "take off" on its own—either up or down—and dominate the business cycle. It doesn't cause booms or recessions. Maybe it did when it was young, but not in its present age of maturity and acceptance.

This is partially defensive. The industry doesn't want to shoulder blame for recessions. From 1957 to 1958, for example, production fell 30 per cent, bringing widespread unemployment in Detroit. The economy slumped.

It is more comfortable to attribute such a setback to consumer behavior. Auto sales follow business. They don't lead — cause —it.

BOOSTS SALES

This consumer-does-it approach explains the 20 per cent jump in sales of domestic cars last year. Spendable income rose sharply—5 per cent. But so far this year, consumer income has hardly risen at all. Inference: Car sales sought to level off. Instead, 1963 shapes up as a better year—to date—than 1962. And this is shaping business.

Why is this?

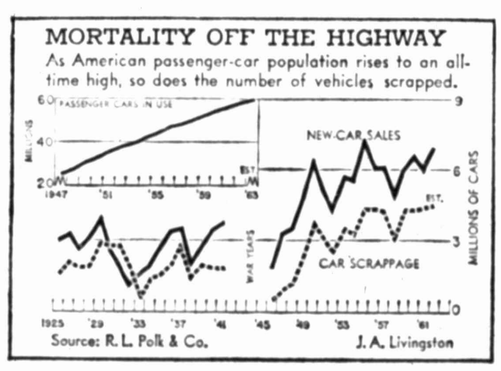

The obvious is sometimes the best answer. We now have 60,000,000 passenger automobiles on the road. Five years ago—in 1958—there were but 50,000,000. Ten years ago, there were 40,000,000.

Roughly, every five years there are ten million more cars to wear out—to be cannibalized for the scrapheap. Scrappage has moved up to a new high—around 4,500,000 cars a year.

To obtain a 7,000,000-car year, automobile dealers have to find only 2,500,000 new customers. The other 4,500,000 are car-owners who are trading up to newer models. Support at the bottom is support for the top. Used-car sales have been good and prices strong.

TEEN-AGE BULGE

The bumper crop of babies born in 1946 and 1947 also bolster the used-car market. These are the new and proud owners of drivers' licenses—at 16 and 17. Robert J. Eggert, a market research specialist at Ford, notes that the number of 16-year-olds increased by 1,000,000 in the last year.

These youngsters bug their families to buy a second or third car, usually a used car, or they go out and earn the money to buy their own "tinker toy." It's not only transportation but also a hobby.

Shock and recoil also explain the present high level of sales. The stock market crash in May of 1962 shook confidence. People felt poorer. Some undoubtedly postponed purchases. Then the market came back.

And don't forget that good sales of new cars breed more sales. The smart auto dealer knows that. If you sell one new car in a neighborhood, you've got prospects: "The Joneses have a new car—did you see it?"

SIXTY MILLION IMPACT

Finally, today's sales reflect the technological advance of the mid-fifties. By 1955, the best year ever, the automatic transmission had proved itself. People wanted gear-shiftless autos. Two good years—1956 and 1957—followed.

Those cars are seven and eight years old. They're ready to be scrapped—those of them that are still on the road. So perhaps James O. Wright, vice president of Ford, could be right in predicting another seven-million-car year for '64.

We are approaching a period in which sales of seven million cars will be standard because of (a) growth in the number of cars on the road and (b) scrappage.

In the last four years, only once have new-car sales been under six million—in 1961. And the average has been six and one-half million. Obviously, we're getting up there (see chart).

Sixty million cars can't be denied. They must be renewed constantly—unless Americans change their transportation habits radically.

Those eyesores of the countryside—the auto graveyards—are our newest business indicator.

Quorum Was Present

TAHLEQUAH, Okla. (AP) —This eastern Oklahoma town, once the capital of the Cherokee Nation, has a name which means "two are enough."

According to legend, the Cherokees sent three commissioners out to find a site for a new capital after the "Trail of Tears" journey from Georgia to Indian Territory. Two of the three commissioners met on the Illinois River here. After a wait for the third commissioner, one of the two finally said, "Tahle-quah" or "two are enough"—and the town site was settled.

Calls For Clear, Forceful Response

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Twice in recent press conferences President Kennedy has given turn-aside answers to questions about the American military policy for space. It would be an injustice to Mr. Kennedy, I think, to charge him with either a lack of frankness or a lack of awareness about the strategic importance of space weapons. No President has ever been more forthright or more knowledgeable than JFK. One must allow the President to make a distinction between a public policy on military space and a secret or executive policy on it.

BUT THIS DISTINCTION brings us up sharp against a paradox. Our democratic, pluralistic nation is secretive, or at least reticent, about its space strategy. The dictatorial, monolithic Soviet nation is just the opposite. Public statements and published books in Russia lay the Communist policy on the line, where it is subject to world scrutiny and world opinion. Here are the salient points of the Russian Space Warfare doctrine:

(1.) THE MISSILE has surpassed the soldier, though it has not eliminted him as a war-maker: For some time now the Soviet Strategic Missile Troops have been a separate branch of the Armed Services, on exactly the same footing as the Red Army, Navy and Air Force. The U.S.A. has no equivalent to this emphasis on missile warfare. Last month the Russians again upgraded the missile troops by promoting their commander, Marshal Sergei Biryuzov, to be chief of staff of all the Soviet armed forces. To put this in the American context, it would be the same as if President Kennedy named Gen. Tom Power, the SAC Commander, to take exclusive charge of all Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles (ICBM) and then appointed Power to take Gen. Maxwell Taylor's post as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

(2.) THE RUSSIANS, who formerly rated the Japanese-German "sneak attack" as a capitalistic gambit, have now officially accepted nuclear sneak attacks as a legitimate Russian strategy. Marshall Vasiliy Sokolovskiy stressed this point in the book, "Military Strategy," published last summer. Nuclear missiles, writes Sokolovskiy, "make up the foundation of massive armed forces" with the mission of "achieving the principle aims of war." He goes on blandly to add: "Mass application of nuclear-rocket weapons makes it possible within a very short time to incapacitate a country or a number of countries . . . populations on the orders of tens of millions." Until publication of this new Russian doctrine (the first since 1926), the Soviets took the position that they would repel any capitalist aggression and then counterattack.

(3.) THE RUSSIANS regard missiles and space weapons as the same thing, while we treat missiles in the war category and space craft in the peace category. Khrushchev himself said in 1961 that "the exploration of space is inseparable from the use of ICBM's." In March of 1962, Soviet Lieut. Col. Larionov, writing in "Red Star," accused the U.S.A. of "hatching" aggressive plans to militarize space (despite Mr. Kennedy's denials), and a month or so later Sokolovskiy wrote that "it would be erroneous to permit the imperialist camp to become superior in any way in this field."

All this may be tedious to read, but it is also imperative to heed. The Russians evidently believe—and publicly state—that space is a battlefield where they intend to be first with the mightiest weapons. The American response, it seems to me, should be equally clear and forceful.

Quiet Diplomacy Prelude To Action

WASHINGTON — Nearly three months have passed since France vetoed the entry of Britain into the European Common Market and as yet no plan is visible to counteract the confusion and uncertainty the veto created.

Among diplomats of the smaller European powers—those powers fearful of being locked in a Europe dominated by an old-fashioned Franco-German alliance — there is a deep disquiet. The fear is that in a period of drift, with no visible American initiative, President de Gaulle will achieve his end if only by default.

A STATEMENT De Gaulle is said to have made just before the fateful day and reported by his foreign minister to a few confidantes at the Brussel's meeting is widely credited here. The French President is supposed to have said:

"Britain will be kept out of the Common Market. This will bring about the election of a Labor government and that in turn will prove such a disaster that within three to four years Britain will be on her knees. Then the British will come in on any terms that we offer."

WHILE THIS MAY BE apocryphal — President de Gaulle's aims, intentions, policies are shrouded in the enigmatic personality of the man who exercises virtually sole authority in France—it has struck fear into the hearts of dedicated Europeans. They ask impatiently why the Kennedy administration has not been pushing moves to arrest the drift and to rally countervailing forces. Why, in particular, has not the effort been made to persuade Germany that the timing for the signing of a treaty of alliance with France is, to say the least, unfortunate?

THE ANSWER of the President is that just this is being done through the quiet channels of diplomacy. When the German defense minister, Kai Uwe Von Hassel, was here some weeks ago the greatest possible stress was put on the importance of Germany's joining in a multilateral NATO nuclear force. De Gaulle rejected the proposal, as he has turned against most NATO integration, which grew out of the Nassau conference in December.

EVEN GREATER STRESS on the need to check a drift toward a "Europe of the two" went into the talks with Heinrich von Brentano who was more recently in Washington. Former foreign minister and now leader of the Christian Democrats in Parliament, Von Brentano returned to Bonn determined to make sure that the Franco-German treaty should not be interpreted as a repudiation of NATO and a confirmation of De Gaulle's aims.

Reports from Bonn are said to be encouraging. Von Brentano has convinced the Christian Democrats that the treaty must contain a strong clause setting forth the area reserved for NATO. This is, of course, directly contrary to De Gaulle's objective. More important, it is a spoke in the wheel of 88-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

WHETHER THE VENERABLE chancellor can still exercise his veto over the Christian Democratic parliamentarians is the question. He has been keeping his own counsel at his vacation retreat at Cadenabbia in Italy. While presumably his time is running out—he has said he would retire in the fall—he is still the grand old man and so long as he is in office his word tends to be law.

While the choice put up to the Germans has not been as blunt as the French alliance versus the American presence in Europe, this has been implied. A "Europe of the two" plus a cluster of satellites could not encompass the Atlantic partnership that the President held out in his Fourth of July speech last year in Independence Hall.

IT WAS THE President's own decision that there should be no open break over the French veto. Such a break may well have been anticipated by De Gaulle and it would have played directly into his hands, or so the belief was in the highest quarters here.

The waiting game is not congenial to an activist such as President Kennedy. When it is compounded with calls for "leadership," for going to the people, for challenging De Gaulle in direct combat, it is especially hard. In mid-June the President is going first to Italy and the nto Germany. He will visit not only Bonn and Berlin but one other important city. Then, if his quiet and yet forceful diplomacy has had the results he hopes for, he will talk of action.

Drugs Effective In Cases Of Tendonitis

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My husband has pain and stiffness in his right elbow, and two doctors have diagnosed it as tendonitis. One suggested X-ray treatment and the other cortisone.

My husband finally consented to having a cortisone shot, which helped only temporarily. Should he try the X-ray treatment, or more cortisone?

He isn't having anything done now because he believes his condition is chronic and he "must learn to live with it."—Mrs. J. F.

I wouldn't be warranted in trying to decide an "either-or" question concerning a patient I've never seen, but here is one fact to keep in mind: Cortisone is very effective in these cases. However more than one injection may be required. If one shot afforded temporary relief, that's a good sign.

Heat and salicylates (aspirin) also are very effective.

Why not at least make use of whatever gives relief? That is no more than simple logic. Why suffer when you don't have to?

True, tendonitis (inflammation of a tendon) might be slow to cure, but I can't agree that it necessarily is chronic or something you "have to learn to live with" until a reasonable amount of treatment has been obtained.

There are ailments you have to learn to live with, and sometimes a doctor has a rough time in persuading a patient of that fact. But here it's the other way around. One injection of cortisone already has given temporary relief, and there are other means yet to be tried. (The heat and aspirin.)

There's another step which at times is helpful in cases resembling this one. Gout should first be ruled out. (Doubtless in this particular case this has already been done.)

Gout, sometimes settles in a tendon, as well as other places. Tests for excess uric acid give a ready indication as to whether gout is involved.

If it is, the obvious place to start is in treating the gout, rather than just its symptoms.

Dear Dr. Molner: I would like a copy of your leaflet on "Pre-Menstrual Blues," and enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 5 cents in coin for it.

Also can you tell me what to do about my ovulation problem? I have such pain I also swell so much that I'm hardly ever the size I'm supposed to be.—Mrs. E. W.

Excessive swelling (which is from accumulation of water in the system) is very often a part of the menstrual "blues," and the leaflet will help you with that problem. It can be controlled.

As to pain at the time of ovulation, some women have none; with others it can be disabling. It is called "mittelschmerz," or "mid-pain." There is no simple solution, but I suggest that you see a gynecologist (specialist in women's diseases) because at least the pain can be alleviated. However, I wouldn't guarantee that you can get rid of the discomfort entirely.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet "The Way to Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 20 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

MEN IN SERVICE

Army Pfc. Jesse L. Jackson, son of Mrs. Sybil Litton, Coahoma, recently completed three days of annual training tests with other members of the 8th Division's 16th Infantry at Baumholder, Germany. Fog, snow and mud hampered the infantrymen as they participated in attack and defense maneuvers against an "aggressor" force.

The 21-year-old soldier, a machinegunner in Company A of the Infantry's 1st Battle Group, entered the Army in January, 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Hood.

* * *

Airman 2.C. Raymond E. Coldewey, Loraine, is beng reassigned to Altus AFB, Okla., following his graduation from the Air Force technical training course for communications wiring specialists. Airman Coldewey was trained to seal, test and maintain communications cables used in the Air Force.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. V. Coldewey, Rt. 1, Loraine. The airman's wife is the former Ola Fern Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roberts of Lockney. A graduate of Loraine High School, he entered the service in September, 1961.

* * *

LUKE AFB, Ariz—1st Lt. William L. Perry Jr. of Houston, is being reassigned to a unit of the United States Air Forces in Europe, following his graduation from the Air Force training course for F-100 Super Sabre pilots Lt. Perry, already a rated pilot on flying status, is now qualified as "combat ready" in the supersonic jet fighter.

A graduate of Lamar High School, he received his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering and B.A. degree in English, from Texas A&M College. The lieutenant is married to the former Marian McDonald of Lamesa.

* * *

Airman 2.C. Dale L. Mowery, Austin, has arrived in France for a period of temporary duty under the Air Force's new overseas rotational assignment program, Operation Short Spurt.

Airman Mowery, a supply specialist, will return to his permanent unit following his Short Spur tour. Overseas assignments under the program are of only a few months duration.

The airman is a graduate of William B. Travis High School. He and his wife, the former Annette Harris, 607 W. 7th, Big Spring, have two children.

* * *

Army Sgt. Manuel Diaz, whose wife, Lupromero, lives in Stanton, recently completed a three-day annual training test with other members of Company D of the 1st Battle Group of the 8th Division's 16th Infantry at Baumholder, Germany. The test included defense, tactical, withdrawal, helicopter operations and attack maneuvers.

Sgt. Diaz, a squad leader in the company, entered the Army in August, 1958 and was last stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. The 27-year-old soldier is the son of Gilbert Diaz, Stanton. His mother, Mrs. Anita Diaz, lives at 1006 NW First, Big Spring.

* * *

James R. Sage, Big Spring, has been selected for promotion to chief master sergeant in the Air Force effective in April. Sgt. Sage was chosen for the highest enlisted grade in competition with the top noncommissioned officers in the Air Force.

The sergeant is an air traffic control superintendent at Beale AFB.

* * *

Johnny Hill, seaman, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. Hill, 601 E. 4th, Big Spring, serving aboard the ocean minesweeper USS Prime, participated in a goodwill visit to the Southern Philippine Islands while assigned to Far Eastern Duty with the Seventh Fleet.

* * *

Bobby J. Holliman, aviation structural mechanic third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Holliman, 210 Carey, Big Spring, of Air Anti-Submarine Squadron 33 at the Naval Air Station, North Island, San Diego, Calif., was present at the ceremony held, Feb. 21, in which the squadron received the "E" Award for battle readiness excellence. The award goes to the Pacific air anti-submarine squadron which achieves the most outstanding record of battle readiness during a competitive 16-month period.

* * *

Army Pvt. Adrian E. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian A. Porter, Sterling City Route, recently was assigned to the 1st Guided Missile Group at Fort Bliss, Tex.

Porter, a missile launcher crewman in Battery A of the group's 1st Guided Missile Battalion, entered the Army in June, 1962. He completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The 20-year-old soldier is a 1962 graduate of Big Spring High School.

* * *

Pfc. James S. Corcoran has returned from Korea, where he has been stationed in the Army the past 13 months, and will be reassigned to Fort Hood for special weapons training. Meantime, he is spending his furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Corcoran, Gail Route.

* * *

Marine Pfc. Jerry R. Pike, son of Jasper R. Pike, Route 1, participated in a major amphibious exercise held March 2 through 10 off the coast of Southern California. The exercise provided training for the men of the First Marine Division and the First Fleet.

Painting Was Upside Down

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — An award winning painting was discovered to be hanging upside down.

The painting, Yonna Beattie's semiabstract oil, "Autumn Leaves," is in the annual exhibit of the Painters and Sculptors Society of New Jersey at Jersey City Museum.

Mrs. Beattie noticed that it had been hung upside down, but blamed herself, saying she put eyehooks in the wrong place, misleading the museum.

William Gorman of Bayonne, one of the judges, said, "A good painting is a good painting whether it is hanging right side up or not."

And Mrs. Beattie said, "When you look at autumn leaves it doesn't matter which way you look at them."

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

Freshman Cheerleaders

Runnels Group Participates In Big Lake Band Festival

By MARY NEWTON

The Runnels band journeyed to Big Lake Saturday for the Regional Band Festival. Members of the band who were chosen to play in the Honor Band were Sheryl Gambill, trombone; Bill Davis, trombone; Kenneth Greenhill, bass horn; Judy Studeville, clarinet; Sandy McCombs, clarinet; Bobby Dean, drum.

National FHA Week was observed at Runnels last week. The names and records of eleven future homemakers were submitted to the council as candidates for Runnels' representatives to attend the State FHA meeting in Dallas on April 19-20. The council chose the two girls with the highest number of activity points for this honor. These girls are Jo Faris and Betty Pedro. Alternates are Susie Engle and Jan Stroup.

The eighth and ninth grade cheerleaders were chosen for next year. Those elected from the ninth grade were Sherry Hampton, Jackie Cook, Julia Vaughn, and Lupe Arista. Eighth graders are Ann Heath, Jeannie Johnson, Connie Carver and Laura Parks.

The art department displayed an attractive scene entitled "The Easter Parade."

The eighth grade students were given achievement tests last week. Freshmen will be given similar tests next week.

The Runnels volleyball teams played in the tournament Saturday.

Winnie Greenlees Among Inductees

Miss Winnie Greenlees, daughter of Mrs. Winifred Greenlees, 1501-B Sycamore, has been inducted into Phi Chi Theta, professional business sorority at Loyola University, New Orleans.

Others include Leslie Brightsen, Margaret Cloutier, Karen Cucullu, Elaine Engler, Carolyn Gueymard, Eileen Hill, Gloria Howe, Peggy Kleinschmidt, Mary Lonergan, Veronica Marsho, Kathleen McGoey, Sheila O'Hare, Karen Perrier, Gail Richards, Jean Riviere, Carol Stephens, and Mary White.

City Planning Driver's Course

A professional driver's course, sponsored by the Texas Department of Public Safety, will be held for city vehicle drivers from the police department, fire department, and department of public works, at the police class room beginning Monday morning.

Drivers taking the course will be trained as instructors for other city drivers, City Manager Larry Crow said. Chief Jay Banks of the police department said from eight to 12 men would be in the original class and would possibly include three men from Steere Tank Lines.

Policemen taking the three-day course, which will run approximately six hours per day, will be Sergeants L. D. Adams, L. D. Coppedge, Claude Morris, and Robert Dugan. Two fire department men will be Jim Brown and Hubert Clark.

SOPHOMORE GIVEN DISC IN CONTEST

Helen Hull, a sophomore from Sands High School, is this week's winner of the record to be given away by the Record Shop. The winner may pick up a certificate at the Herald and take it to the Record Shop to receive a record.

In addition to a free 45 rpm to be given away each week, Oscar Glickman, owner of the Record Shop, will offer a long-playing record as a bonus once a month.

Note: These students have not picked up their certificates at the office: Randy Thomas, Kay McBride, and Cherylene McModdies. They are urged to do so immediately.

Students Bring Home Honors

By MARTHA BURROW

Students who attended the University Interscholastic League Literary meet held at Borden County High School, March 29, brought home a bronze plaque for winning the high school division. Sands students who placed are: Martha Robinson, Ruth Lemon, ready writing; Annette Pierce, Donna Fleming, shorthand; Donna Fleming, science; Darlene Wright, poetry interpretation; Donna Fleming, slide rule; Robbie Brown, typing; Marlene Gibson, Anita Pierce, spelling.

Boys from the Sands agriculture department left Friday, April 5, to attend a livestock, wool and grass judging contest. The contest, held at Sul Ross, began Saturday morning with a barbecue sponsored by the college at noon.

The junior class presented their annual play "Act Your Age" Friday night.

Members of the boys track team entered the Invitational Track Meet at Flower Grove Friday. Other teams from the surrounding schools also entered.

Outstanding in the activities of the 1962-63 school year will be the "Golden Dreamers" presented Monday night at 8:15 p.m. by the senior class. The musical program will be varied including both religious and popular selections by elementary students and a choir of junior high and high school students. Admission will be 75 cents and 50 cents.

Sands will host the district girls' volleyball meet Tuesday, April 9, with district teams Flower Grove, Loop, Klondike, Dawson and Gail entering. Howard County will be the scene of the district boys track meet with the same teams participating on Wednesday, April 10.

Easter holidays at Sands will be April 12 through April 15. The Knott and Ackerly elementary students are planning Easter egg hunts and parties to celebrate the occasion.

To Train Here

Three members of the Imperial Ethiopian Air Force will arrive at Webb AFB April 15 for one week of training.

The three officers are Capt. Kassay Bekele, Lt. Berhanu Wold and Lt. Solomen Begashow. The officers will learn squadron operations, basic flying training methods and procedures, and standardization procedures.

Senior Class Will Sponsor Famous Harlem Star Team

By ANNETTE LEBCOWITZ

The senior class is sponsoring a special sports event, Boid Buie's Famed Harmem Stars vs. E. C. Smith's Construction Team, April 11. Game time is 8 p.m. in the Steer Gym. Advance admission price is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Tickets may be bought at the door for $1.25, adults and 75 cents, children. Money obtained from this project will go into the senior class fund for the senior gift.

This week at BSHS has been Future Homemakers of America week. Free coffee and cookies, made by the homemaking girls, were served in the teachers' lounge. A bouquet of red roses was given to the school for everyone to enjoy. For FHA week one chapter selected a teacher to help this week. Another chapter planned a party for Saturday at Moss Creek. The party was held from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The FHA girls attending the State Meeting are Chapter I, Betty Sorrells and Nancy Thomas; Chapter II, Ann Coyle and Sherry Stevenson; Chapter III, Andria Askins and Terry Macklin.

The homemaking girls are now selling the dessert addition of Favorite Recipes of Homemaking Teachers. The cookbook costs $2.98 apiece.

Last week the National Honor Society inducted five new members. Inducted were Jan Anderson, Sue Cook, Greg Gossett, Sandra Pool and Wayne Julian Baird.

Last week petitions for Student Council officers were taken out. The petitions started Monday and went through Friday.

The Library Club is planning to go to Monahans State Park Saturday, April 20.

The Latin banquet will be held Thursday, April 25 in the Big Spring High School cafeteria. The students will dress in Roman style. The second year students will act as the Roman citizens and the first year students will be the Roman slaves. The entertainment will be presented by the first year students.

The D.E. and I.C.T. clubs had their annual 27th year banquet Thursday night. The purpose of the banquet was to honor the employers of the students. The special guests who attended the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bently, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy. The banquet was held at the Cosden Country Club. The students planned and provided the entertainment. Each business employing a trainee will be awarded a merit certificate.

The D.E. and I.C.T. teachers, Mr. George Rice and Mr. Louis Maneely, are interested in interviewing junior and senior students for the school year 1963-64. They may be contacted in room 120 any period of the day.

Traditional Junior-Senior Banquet Highlights Year

By BETTYE CONGER

Friday, April 5, the annual Junior-Senior banquet was held at the Cosden Country Club. The theme, April Showers, was beautifully used throughout the ballroom. Johnny Knapp served as master of ceremonies. H. K. Elrod gave the response and Paula Gordon gave the prophecy. The class history was given by Danny Wash and the will was read by Blanche Ratliff. Entertainment for the banquet was provided by Dale White at the organ, as he played appropriate dinner music throughout the evening.

Seven seniors who started school together in the first grade will be graduating together. They are Lanell Overton, Duane Allison, Hubert Bardwell, Sharon Klahr, Danny Wash, H. K. Elrod and Junior McElreath.

Tryouts and election of cheerleaders and captains for next year were held Friday. Cheerleaders elected were Bettye Conger, Paula Gordon, Dena Parker, and Judy Hughes. Captain of the pep-squad will be Pam McKinnon and Joy Flynt. Mrs. Tom Spell is sponsor.

The boys' track team attended Levelland's track meet last Saturday. Hubert Bardwell placed first in low hurdles. Bright and early Monday morning, April 8, the team will take part in the district track meet which is held annually in San Angelo.

District Interscholastic League meet was held at Sterling City last Saturday. Sherry Kirkpatrick and Dwane Allison won first place in spelling. Roberta Hammack received second in ready writing and Susan Elrod ranked third in poetry interpretation. Forsan had entries in most every event both high school and elementary school.

After much vigorous campaigning, these girls were named as FHA officers for next year: Paula Gordon, president; Dena Parker, vice president; Jody Dodd, second vice president; Pam McKinnon, third vice president; Roberta Hammock, fourth vice president; Judy Hughes, fifth vice president; Sandra Klahr, secretary; Susan Elrod, treasurer; Patsy Gooch, parliamentarian; Lupe Cevallos, historian. Lanell Overton and Sandra Klahr have earned the trip to the State Convention which is to be held in Dallas this year. They will be accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. W. M. Roman.

The girls' volleyball team played Garden City, Tuesday night in their first district game. This game determined which team would advance to the district tournament to be held April 6 at Forsan. Forsan won the two out of three games. Garden City boys' team forfeited their game to Forsan the same evening.

Jane Powell Asks Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Jane Powell filed for divorce last week, charging husband Patrick W. Nerney with extreme cruelty.

Miss Powell, 34, asked for custody of their daughter, Lindsay Averill, 7. The complaint listed no community property.

She and Nerney, 43, a Beverly Hills business man, separated last Saturday.

They were married in 1954.

Holiday Dance Slated April 13

By KAREN KEE

The Big Spring YMCA is happy to report that Spring Conference was a real success this year. The delegates enjoyed a worthwhile convention and came back better equipped to lead next year's clubs.

Saturday night a dance was held in the YMCA gym. The Y is planning another dance for next Saturday, April 13, during the Easter holidays.

Last week the Hi-Y Youth Council set up the requirements which will have to be met by next year's officers. These include: Being a paid member of the club, having attended three-fourths of the previous year's meetings, having attended officers' training, having the ability to fulfill their particular office.

Nominating committees were selected in the clubs to draw up a ballot of officers. Elections will be held this week.

Breakfasts To Be Served Daily

The men of the First Methodist Church will serve breakfast in the Fellowship Hall at 7 a.m. Monday through Friday, during Holy Week.

Breakfasts will be followed by devotionals led by the Rev. Frank Charlton, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Abilene. Services will be dismissed by 7:45 a.m. enabling those who work to be at their jobs by 8 a.m.

Delegates Selected For State Convention

By CAROLYN WILSON

This week marked the ending of the contest which awarded two girls the right to attend the State Convention of Future Homemakers of America in Dallas. Girls wishing to attend were to write reports on their Homemaking activities. The winners were Judy Wolfe and Leitha Mason who will be accompanied by Mrs. Paul Allen, sponsor and Carolyn Wilson, who will sing in the state FHA chorus. The girls leave Thursday, April 18 and return April 20.

During FHA week, FHA girls planned three different events to show their loyalty to the FHA ideals. On Tuesday the girls wore red and white to signify their national colors; on Wednesday they dressed up to show the growing and progressing of their group.

COAHOMA

Thursday the members wore different attire to designate their future goals of homemakers. Everyday of the week a freshman girl read purposes or goals of the local chapter.

The high school and junior high bands have presented a number of concerts for the school students and also Thursday the bands presented concerts for the public.

The CHS boys participated in the district track meet this weekend. Next week will be the district volleyball tournament. Mrs. Rob Ethridge, volleyball director, will accompany nine team members to the tournament.

Last Sunday the FHA chapter attended the 8 a.m. mass of the Saint Mary's Church. The group was accompanied by sponsors, Mrs. Paul Allen, Mrs. Ray Swann, Mrs. Marvin Wright, Mrs. Lee Bennett, and Mrs. Freeze. The FHA girls have attended many churches in the past during the FHA week. After mass the group ate breakfast at Coker's Restaurant and then returned home in time to attend individual churches.

Next Monday both the FHA and FFA will have their regular monthly meetings at 7 p.m.

The boy and girl for the month of April is Tommy Menser and Sandie Clanton. Tommy is a sophomore, member of the Student Council, FFA and active class worker. Sandie, is a junior, cheerleader, member of the FHA, football sweetheart, and active member of the 62-63 basketball squad.

GOHAD

FHA Sponsors 'Twirp Week'

By KAREN ELROD

This week Goliad's Future Homemakers of America participated in National FHA week. Every day of this week was designated for a special activity. Monday was color day and the girls participated by wearing red and white which are the colors of the organization. Tuesday was "Apple for Teacher" day. Wednesday, the FHA girls entertained eighth grade girls in the homemaking department for "Little Sister Day." Thursday was chapter day, and Friday was Community day.

The FHA sponsored "Twirp Week" this week. After carrying boys' books and opening doors for the boys, the girls then asked the boys for dates to the big "Kids" party Friday night, concluding Twirp Week.

Monday morning, the freshman class visited Big Spring High School. At the high school, they were instructed in the scheduling of classes for the next school year. Every student received an information sheet which contained a list of all the courses and electives offered.

In accordance with the scheduling of freshmen, Mr. Ed Seay spoke to all the boys concerning Vocational Agriculture, and Mr. Douglas Wiebe visited the ninth grade advanced band students to discuss joining the high school band.

The eighth grade students were given achievement tests Monday and Tuesday. The ninth grade tests will begin next Tuesday.

The advanced choir visited the state hospital to perform for the patients Friday. Mr. Don Morton is the director.

Gary Phillips, Tommie Touchstone and Sue Burns were elected by the freshman class to represent them on the high school Student Council next year.

Burma Gentry, winner of the Howard County Spelling Bee, journeyed to Lubbock Saturday for the regional spelling bee.

School will be dismissed Thursday afternoon for the Easter holidays and will not resume until Tuesday of the next week.

Churches Announce Special Services

Palm Sunday and Holy Week services have been announced for several Big Spring Churches and will include special speakers and special music services.

Palm Sunday specials include the chancel choir rendition of Gabriel Faure's "Requiem" in place of the regular services at the First Methodist Church Sunday. Ted James, minister of music, said three soloists would be featured in the rendition.

Three services will be held Sunday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The first, at 8 a.m., will include Holy Communion, and Blessing of the Palms; at 10:15 a.m., Litany and Ante-Communion, Blessing of the Palms, and a sermon, "The Way of Renewal Through Suffering." A cantata, by St. Mary's choir, "Olivet to Calvary," will be offered at 5 p.m. Guest soloists will be Mel Ivey and Ira Schantz.

An Easter Music program, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, will be featured at the Wesley Methodist Church, with Dan Shockey conducting.

"Children in the Palm Sunday Parade" will be featured at the First Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m., and the children's choirs will sing.

The Rev. Donald M. Good, minister of Youth and Evangelism of the First Christian Church, Midland, will open Holy Week services at the First Christian Church, Big Spring, at 10 a.m. Sunday. He will also speak daily at 7:30 p.m.

Holy Week services at St. Mary's Episcopal Church will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and baptism administered at 5 p.m. Saturday. Other services will be held at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, 10 a.m. Friday, for a children's service, and 12 to 3 p.m. "The Three Hours."

Good Work

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—State Sen. Reuben Knoblaugh, Democrat, got a letter from a constituent last week as the Legislature ended the third week of a special session.

It closed this way:

"This session seems to have been particularly confusing. Keep up the good work."

STAMP NEWS

Food For Peace Stamp Due June 4

By HAROLD C. PERDUE

The design for the Food for Peace — Freedom from Hunger stamp was unveiled by Postmaster General Day in Washington March 21. The 5 cent yellow, green and red stamp will be issued June 4 in Washington at the opening of the World Food Congress. Theme of the vertical stamp is a stalk of bearded wheat, the symbol of the Food and Agriculture Organization.

FREEDOM FROM HUNGER

DESIGN RELEASED
For U.S. Stamp

The stamp is a companion to adhesives some 150 nations and territories are to issue in a cooperative effort against the hunger problem. Against a green background a single stalk of wheat appears in golden yellow. Arched above it, in white, is "Food for Peace"; below, also in white, are "United States" and the denomination "5." On the green base, in red, is "Freedom from Hunger."

Collectors desiring firstday cancellations of the Food for Peace stamp may send addressed envelopes, together with a remittance for the cost of the stamps, to the Postmaster, Washington, D. C., no later than June 4.

The stamp for the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg will go on sale July 1. The Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association is sponsoring a special cachet to secure funds to purchase additional land for the park. Singles are 25 cents, block are 40 cents, and number blocks are 65 cents. Send your requests and money to the Association, P.O. Box 1863, Gettysburg, Pa.

Costa Rica has overprinted and surcharged the 1962 Christmas stamps. Italy has issued a 30 lire anniversary of the Red Cross. Korea has released three new airmail pictorials. Transjordan is represented among new issues with eight pictorials showing different Christian and Islamic religious shrines in the Holy Land. The Mali Republic has issued two bicolors to promote zoological research. Spain has four new bicolors showing the Poplet Monastery.

stamp honoring Giovanni Pico della Mirandala, a philosopher-prince. Ceylon has released one 50 cent bicolored issued for the 25th anniversary of Ceylonese air communications.

The fine arts are again represented with San Marino's set of four paintings by Raphael. Columbia has issued two 60 cent stamps for the Vatican Eucumenical Council. One pictures a religious painting, the other a portrait of Pope John 23rd. France has added three new men to their "Famous Men" series with three multi-colored stamps.

Panama has surcharged three of the Glenn airmails for the 100th

Wine And Roses

Jack Lemon and Lee Remick begin their life together as they meet in this scene from the drama, "Days of Wine and Roses," story of two people caught up in the vortex of alcoholism. This adult picture begins today at the Ritz Theatre.

Too Much

Seems we have too many sergeants this week. Frank Sinatra, above, is one of the "Sergeants Three" and Andy Griffith gives his top kick a hard time in "No Time for Sergeants," double-billed Wednesday through Saturday at the Jet Drive-In Theatre. Andy is recommended as a comedian. Frankie is good for a few laughs, too, considering how much he resembles a sergeant.

Movie Tells Story Of Navy's Women

In U. S. Navy terms, "seagulls" are the wives and sweethearts who follow the officers and men of the fleet whenever and wherever they can.

It is a group of these seagulls, as personified by Connie Francis, Paul Prentiss, Dany Robin and Janis Paige, whose adventures, romantic and otherwise, are depicted with hilarious consequences in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's girl-pursues-man comedy, "Follow the Boys."

The picture was filmed in Panavision and color on locations on the French Riviera (with the U. S. Sixth Fleet anchored at Cannes as a prop) and in other picturesque spots in the south of France. It has Connie Francis following her hit in "Where the Boys Are" in another comedy part and singing four new songs especially written for her. It has amusing dialogue and situations as the feminine quartet chase after their male prey in a pink, broken-down, two-horse-power car called "Annabelle" which runs away and lands them in an irate French farmer's haystack.

Here are the dramatis personae:

Connie Francis as Bonnie Pulaski, a sailor's bride of two hours, who follows the fleet to France to make her wedding to Radarman First Class (Roger Perry) something more than a matrimonial event.

Paula Prentiss as Toni Denham, sophisticated heiress who seeks to marry her father's canning business to the prospective meat company of the U. S. Maitland's navigation officer, Peter Langley (Richard Long).

Dany Robin as the enigmatic French charmer Michele, who follows the fleet in search of a mysterious "Lieut. Smith." As it turns out, there is an actual Lieut. Smith (Russ Tamblyn) aboard the Maitland, who knows a French dish when he sees one.

Janis Paige as Liz, wife of Commander Ben Bradville (Ron Randell) who, after ten years of "seagulling," is determined that her husband transfer to a land-based job so that they can start a home and a family.

In the course of the proceedings, there is a general mix-up of these assorted couples and for awhile it appears as though each girl is following the wrong boy. But the various romantic tangles are finally sorted out in the heady atmosphere of sun, wine and gypsy music at an Italian grape-crushing festival to the accompaniment of song and dance, plus a wild ride in a Navy jet helicopter.

Respective producer and director are Lawrence P. Bachmann and Richard Thorpe.

The Music Man

Robert Preston, in the title role, and Shirley Jones lead the 76 Trombones number in this scene from the hit musical, "The Music Man," returning today to the Jet Drive-In Theatre. The movie version was based on Meredith Willson's highly successful Broadway version.

Dany Robin Dispels Some Ideas On French Women

"Foreigners have many false notions about French women."

So says blonde French actress Dany Robin, starring in "Follow the Boys."

"They see a French girl in a pretty dress," Miss Robin points out, "and automatically think that it must have cost a million dollars and come from one of the top Parisian fashion houses.

"We aren't given too much credit, you know, when it comes to wearing clothes. It's not the dress, it's the way you wear it. Any woman with intelligence should be able to make herself individual in her clothing styles."

Miss Robin pointed to the frock she was wearing and said, "take this dress, for example. I put a bow here and a few ribbons there and, voila, everyone says Dior."

As a matter of fact, she does wear Dior clothes. The famed fashion house designed four creations which Miss Robin wears in "Follow the Boys." But for ordinary occasions she wears less extravagant styles.

The pert actress also thinks that the French women's attitude toward love is misunderstood. "Sometimes," she says, "I'm even frightened to mention the word because all the English and Americans lean forward, slightly red in the face and think, 'Aha, now we're going to hear an expert.'

"You really must forget this idea that all French women are hot-blooded Latins dancing the Can-Can in the streets. Nine out of ten are highly competent women, good wives and devoted mothers."

Miss Robin lives in a beautiful country house at Montfort l'Amaury, some 40 miles from Paris, where she is a happy wife to actor Georges Marchal and a devoted mother to her 12-year-old daughter Frederique and seven-year-old son Robin. She takes a personal interest in the education of her children and rarely allows press photographers to take their picture.

"I want my children to regard me as a mother," she says, "not as a film star."

And that's the trouble with modern living. You need hardly exert a muscle today unless you feel so inclined. And most of us don't —including our children, whose participation in healthful activities has dwindled until almost one-third of them fail simple physical achievement tests.
If we are to improve our children's physical abilities, they must become more active.
Our schools can do much to help them keep fit. It can be started with a program that costs little, that takes a minimum of 15 minutes of vigorous activity each school day.
But parents must urge and support such programs. Parents must make known their concern for youth fitness where it counts —with local school officials. Take it up with yours—right away!
If you would like more information, write to The President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D.C.

European Singer In American Debut

Friday night the Ritz Theatre will present "Wonderful to Be Young," the Paramount Technicolor release which introduces to American film fans Cliff Richard, international favorite of teen-agers, whose record sales abroad exceed 12,000,000.

Cliff, who was born in India, started his singing career in England by forming his own musical group, "The Shadows," and touring with the boys. It was while they were appearing in a Longon theatre that they were approached by the Columbia Recording Company's representative. A recording test followed and in no time Cliff and his group had cut their first two sides for Columbia and were off to the races.

The star went on from there to his own television series, followed by a stage show, and subsequently into movies. In "Wonderful to Be Young" he dances for the first time, as well as sings. There are 14 musical numbers in the film.

CLIFF RICHARD
Betwixt and between

In the film Cliff portrays the leader of a youth club, which is in danger of being swallowed up in a land grab by his millionaire father. Cliff has never told the club members, including his girl firend, who he is, for fear that they would not accept him as one of them. He is caught in the struggle that ensues between the members and his father, with the story's action revolving around the fight to retain the clubhouse.

Also starred in "Wonderful to Be Young," are Robert Morley, distinguished stage and screen character actor, who plays Cliff's father, and dancer Carole Gray, as Cliff's girl friend.

O'Toole Has Harsh Words For TV Moguls

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "They talk about actors being childish," said Dean Jones angrily. "What about networks and sponsors?"

The slender, personable actor was reacting to the news that his show, "Ensign O'Toole," would not return to NBC for a second season. It came as a surprise to him and to others in the trade, since the nautical comedy was believed to be in the "safe" area for a renewal.

"I don't understand it," said Jones, shaking his head. "The ratings were good, the critical reaction was favorable, the public liked the show. 'O'Toole' is a good series; I know it is. And yet we got dropped."

How did it happen?

"Childishness. The sponsors wanted to move to a later time period, to pick up a more mature audience. The network wanted to keep the show where it was, Sunday at 7. Neither side would give in, so the sponsors canceled.

"Then the network said they could have another time, Wednesday at 8:30. But the sponsors wouldn't reconsider."

There was still hope that CBS would toss a lifeline to the troubled ensign. That prospect found Jones in a dilemma.

"When your show goes only a single season, that means it's a flop," he said. "I would like it to continue, if only to prove that it was a good show.

"On the other hand, I long for freedom. I don't like the idea of knowing that I have to work so many weeks at the same job. I don't like to be fenced in."

Jones' career demonstrates that. He spent three of his earlier years at MGM, where he worked more than any other actor on the lot, but to little avail. He asked to be let out, had a fling at Broadway in a flop with Jane Fonda and a hit, "Under The Yum-Yum Tree."

He told Four Star bosses Dick Powell and Tom McDermott he would do "Ensign O'Toole" and waited two years for the series to get a schedule.

Jones will have no problems if "O'Toole" is drydocked. He is now playing the film version of "Yum-Yum" with Jack Lemmon and Carol Lynley.

Pollution Deadline Extended For Sharon Ridge Oilmen

Two groups, engaged in plans for disposal of salt water in the Sharon Ridge oilfield, have been granted 30-day extensions for pit disposal by the Texas Railroad Commission. The two have 149 wells.

Deadline for desisting from open pit disposal of oilfield brine in the area is Sunday. Many operators have completed plans for injection of the brine.

Pearson, Seibert Oil Company of Texas, which recently purchased the leasehold interests of Southwest Hydrocarbon Company, notified the commission that it was replacing and conditioning lines in the field to handle salt water. It asked for an extension of time up to 45 days, and the commission granted 30 days. The Southwest Hydrocarbon lines are being adapted in part to transport the brine to injection wells and this means they must be internally coated and repaired. Involved in this are 12 leases in the Sharon Ridge 1,700-ft. zone, 69 wells; eight leases in the 2,400-ft. zone, 20 wells; two in the Clear Fork zone with two wells; a total of 22 leases and 91 wells.

A group including Ellis Drilling Corporation, E. J. Gray, J. C. Gray, Moore and Dobbins, et al, and Mrs. C. A. Procter have agreed among themselves to the joint disposition and injection of salt water, the commission was told. They have 27 wells on 1,318 acres. A 30-day extension of the desist order was granted to this group.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District, which presented studies to the railroad commission which resulted in the original desist order 10 months ago, has no comment on the extensions, said E. V. Spence, general manager. Originally the order was to halt pit disposal within six months, but it was extended four four months when the CRMWD said it had no objection if operators were engaged in efforts to dispose of the brines in such a manner as to avoid pollution of the Colorado River. The district had contended the brines were migrating into the river and making its plans for a second lake infeasible.

Income Tax Filing Deadline Is Near

Deadline for filing of reports on 1962 income for tax purposes is approaching.

Monday, April 15, is the last day wage earners can file and forward reports to the Internal Revenue office. Personnel of the IRS office has geared its schedule to offer advice and assistance to individuals who have not yet completed their tax forms. Monday of each week is the regular day for taxpayers who need such counsel to call at the IR offices.

Taxpayers are reminded that they are allowed to deduct for general sales tax payments. The following chart can be used, except in cases where they have proper receipts for additional deductions:

Incomes under $1,000—$5; $1,000-$1,500—$10; $1,500-$2,000 — $13; $2,000-$2,500 — $16; $2,500-$3,000—$19; $3,000 - $3,500 — $22; $3,500-$4,000—$24; $4,000 - $4,500 — $27; $4,500 - $5,000—$30; $5,000-$5,500—32; $5,500-$6,000 — $34; $6,000-$6,500 — $36; $6,500-$7,000 — $38; $7,000-$7,500 — $40; $7,500-$8,000—$42; and $8,000-$8,500—$44.

Also $8,500-$9,000 — $46; $9,000-$9,500 — $47; $9,500-$10,000 — $49; $10,000 - $11,000 — $51; $11,000-$12,000 — $54; $12,000 - $13,000 — $57; $13,000-$14,000 — $59; $14,000-$15,000 — $62; $15,000-$16,000 — $64; $16,000-$17,000 — $66; $17,000-$18,000—$68; $18,000-$19,000 — $69; $19,000-$20,000 — $71.

Figures in the table do not reflect payments of the 1.5 per cent special motor vehicle retail tax, which should be computed separately.

Annual Festival Dates Are Set

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Colorado City's fourth annual Tumbleweed Festival is set for May 10-11, according to Bob Reily, general chairman for this year's event.

The parade, featuring dozens of floats made from the spiny tumbleweed, will be held at 3 p.m., May 11. The luncheon, with Robert Calvert, Supreme Court Justice, as speaker, is scheduled for Friday, May 10, Reily said.

Mrs. Bonnie Johnston, chairman of the queen's committee, has set the first meeting of the committee for April 20 at 9:30 a.m. at the Chamber of Commerce, to work out details for the crowning of two queens.

Miss Mitchell County will be chosen Friday night and Miss Tumbleweed Saturday night. Miss Tumbleweed can be an out-of-county resident.

"Miss Tumbleweed will become eligible to enter the Miss Universe contest," Reily said.
