Panel Hikes Allowable For October

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission raised the statewide oil allowable today for the first time in five months, setting the October production factor at 33.5 per cent of potential.

The October percentage will permit maximum oil production of 3,154,384 barrels daily, compared to the current allowable of 3,125,028 under a 33 per cent factor.

The October allowable last year, 28.8 per cent, started a string of eight consecutive monthly increases which pushed the production factor to an all-time high of 35 per cent in May before a three-month decline set in.

Of the 14 major oil purchasers at the monthly statewide oil hearing, four recommended an increase in the allowable factor.

Major purchasers' nominations, in percentage and barrels per day, at today's statewide commission hearing:

32—Continental 35,500.

32.5—Gulf 213,300.

33— Atlantic 79,200; Sinclair 104,400; Phillips 122,078; Pure 47,550.

33.5—Sun 117,716.

34—Cities Service 74,000.

34.5—Standard of Texas 43,800.

35—Mobil 264,800.

Four purchasers did not nominate by percentage production factors. Their nominations, in barrels per day, were: Humble 390,200; Texaco 160,000; Pan-American 300,000 and Shell 173,300.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said the oil market is "in very good shape." He commented that gasoline stocks are down several million barrels from a year ago.

Texas May File Suit

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — State Engineer Steve Reynolds said Wednesday that Texas is considering a lawsuit against Colorado over non-delivery of water.

The New Mexico official met Monday with Texas officials and Justice Department representatives in Washington, D. C.

"We discussed with representatives of Texas," Reynolds said, "a draft of a complaint to be filed in the Supreme Court asking that Colorado be required to make delivery in accordance with the Rio Grande Compact."

The compact referred to is composed of Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. It is an agreement that, provided certain Colorado would release certain amounts of water at the New Mexico border. Delivery to Texas is measured at the Elephant Butte Reservoir in New Mexico.

The action must be approved by the New Mexico Interstate Streams Commission before New Mexico can sign the complaint in support of the Texas claim.

Fair Space Is Available

There may be a few commercial exhibit spaces available inside the National Guard Armory for the Scurry County Fair and plenty of outside exhibit space will be available, L. M. Dawson, head of the fair association, reported this morning.

Dawson said most firms which had inside commercial exhibits last year plan to do so again and they have reserved their space. However, there will be more overall space available in the armory this year due to a rearrangement.

Outside exhibit space will be marked off in an orderly manner this year.

Anyone who wants a commercial exhibit space, either inside or outside, should contact the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

LONG TRYOUT—Sen. Russell Long, D-LA., listens to a bit of advice from Sen. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., on the use of crutches as they engage in a bit of byplay outside the Senate chamber in Washington where they were on hand to debate the civil rights bill. Long, injured in a softball game at Louisiana State Society picnic in July, does not need crutches but accepted the good-natured advice. (AP Wirephoto).

Wage Legislation Ready For Ink

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation sending the minimum hourly wage to $1.60 in 1968 — above the government-recognized poverty income level — and extending coverage to eight million more workers awaits President Johnson's signature.

The Senate approved the compromise bill 55 to 38 Wednesday in almost exactly the form the President requested after rejecting Republican efforts to send it back to House-Senate conference for watering down.

Major provisions would:

Increase the present $1.25 minimum wage to $1.40 next Feb. 1 and to $1.60 a year later for nearly 30 million workers now covered.

Bring under the act for the first time non-Civil Service federal government workers, some farm workers, nonteaching employes of grade and high schools, and employes of hotels, motels, restaurants, laundries, transit systems, colleges and universities.

Broaden coverage to medium-size retail stores, bringing 1.5 million additional workers under the wage and hour law.

The $1.60 minimum would bring to $3,328 the gross income of a covered employe working 40 hours a week for a full year.

That is slightly above the $3,000 which some government agencies consider the minimum an average family must earn to stay out of poverty.

The present minimum wage yields $2,600 on an annual full-time basis.

Chief sponsor Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., called the bill the broadest expansion of the Minimum Wage Act since it was adopted in 1938. He said it would add $2 billion a year to purchasing power of low-income families.

Leathernecks Land To Block Red Infiltrators

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Ships and helicopters landed a reinforced battalion of U.S. Marines three miles south of the demilitarized zone between the two Viet Nams today to help choke off infiltration by Hanoi's regulars. A barrage of shells and rockets churned beach areas in advance. The Communists offered no resistance.

More than 1,200 American Leathernecks moved in to give a hand to two battalions of Vietnamese government troops already in the area. Briefing officers said the sweep is aimed against North Viet Nam's 324B Division, apparently resupplied, regrouped and moving again after losing nearly 1,000 men killed in Operation Hastings in July.

The action developed as the U.S. Command disclosed American combat deaths over five years in Viet Nam have passed the 5,000 mark. Seventy-one deaths last week pushed the total to 5,034.

Over-all, 238 of the allies were killed and 42 missing or captured during the week, while enemy losses were put at 1,166 killed and 218 captured. South Viet Nam's armed forces lost 174 men killed and 34 missing.

In addition to the 71 Americans killed, 450 were wounded and eight are missing. That compared with 74 killed, 570 wounded and 10 missing in the week of Aug. 28-Sept. 3.

U.S. squadrons pressed the air war on both sides of the border.

U.S. headquarters announced two planes — an Air Force F105 Thunderchief and a Navy A1E Skyraider — were shot down in raids on North Viet Nam Wednesday. A helicopter rescued the Thunderchief pilot. The Skyraider's pilot is missing. These brought to 370 planes the announced losses over the north.

The Marine assault was directed against enemy troops known to be in position within the demilitarized zone, a six-mile-wide buffer territory supposed to have been neutralized by the Geneva agreements of 1954, and just to the south of it.

UFO Was Red Satellite

CAPE KENNEDY (AP)—The "wingman" astronaut Charles Conrad Jr. spotted from the Gemini 11 spacecraft Tuesday turned out to be Russia's huge Proton 3 satellite.

The satellite was identified Wednesday by the North American Defense Command (NORAD) after it studied tracking records kept on all orbiting objects.

"We had a wingman flying wing on us here, off to my left, tumbling about one revolution per second," Conrad said when he reported the object. "We got some pictures of it."

At first, Conrad and astronaut Richard Gordon felt the object might have been part of Gordon's space walk equipment which had been thrown out of the capsule a short time earlier.

NORAD reported that the 12-ton Proton 3 was 279 miles away from Gemini 11 when it was spotted as Conrad and Gordon passed 180 miles above the Indian Ocean.

Some Western experts have speculated that the Proton series might be the forerunner of a Russian manned space station.

Geminauts Return With 7 Records

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Bringing home a bundle of seven space records, the Gemini 11 astronauts rode to a safe pinpoint landing in the Atlantic today to climax a sensational three-day mission.

America's newest heroes, Charles Conrad Jr. and spacewalker Richard F. Gordon Jr., ended one of man's most significant space adventures when they splashed into the sea within view of television cameras aboard the aircraft Guam.

They were quickly taken to the carrier by helicopter.

"This old world looks pretty good from the deck of this carriers," Gordon told the cheering crew of the carrier.

"But I'll tell you something else, it looks great from 850 miles up."

The smiling, heavily bearded astronaut was talking about Gemini 11's record-breaking trip Wednesday to the "top of the world."

"We had a very good flight," Conrad said, "and after a couple nights rest we'll be ready to go again."

An electronic chauffeur, an automatic system being tried for the first time, steered them through a blazing re-entry through the atmosphere and parked them just about two miles off the Guam.

This was closer than any other American manned spaceship has come to its main recovery ship. Gemini 9 held the previous mark, 3½ miles.

Gemini 9, however, still holds the record for closest to the aiming point — an area in the center of the landing zone.

It missed by only 300 yards, while Gemini 11 was more than a mile off that mark.

However, officials considered this good shooting for a first try at the automatic re-entry system, which relied on the spacecraft computer and guidance system.

Gemini 11 dropped into the sea at 10 a.m. EDT while sailors packed the deck of the carrier to cheer two fellow Navy men. Conrad is a commander and Gordon a lieutenant commander.

DEAN RUSK'S SON

Defends Concept Of Black Power

By JACK R. MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights worker David Rusk believes "black power" is a good concept.

The son of Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the black power movement is the logical result of a severe decline in white support for the civil rights movement "at a time when the real work has just begun."

Young Rusk, 25, No. 2 man in the Washington branch of the National Urban League, defines black power as the uniting of Negro masses in a "power fulcrum for change."

Yet he abhors certain statements by such black power advocates as Stokley Carmichael, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, who recently told a group of Washington Negroes, "If we don't get the vote, we're going to burn down the city."

"It's unfortunate," says Rusk, "that a basically good idea has to be abused in this way."

Rusk, who labors daily in the slums of the capital, dug into a second helping of cole slaw at a cafeteria and, between mouthfuls, offered this rationale for his position.

Despite civil rights legislation and the war on poverty, the average Negro in a big city slum "isn't noticeably better off today than he was 20 years ago — and the Negro on the street can see this." At the same time, "many of the white supporters of the movement feel that they have done their part and have lost interest since passage of recent legislation. And much of the student support has been drained off by concern about the war in Viet Nam."

Rusk took issue with the contention of black power proponents that the black man could or should "go it alone" in struggling to improve the Negro's lot.

Classrooms In Grenada Vacant

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A federal court order requiring Grenada, Miss., authorities to protect Negro pupils at newly integraged schools was being sought in Oxford, Miss., today while classrooms stood vacant.

U.S. Dist. Judge Claude Clayton ordered suspension of classes today while he hears a Justice Department plea for a preliminary injunction which would force local officers to protect the pupils and their parents.

In a federal court at New Orleans, La., the Justice Department was prepared to ask an order to require Plaquemine Parish, La., school officials to supply teachers, bus drivers and cafeteria workers at recently desegregated schools.

And in St. Bernard Parish, La., white parents have announced plans to start a private school to avoid integration.

In Washington, administration leaders decide today on future action on the civil rights bill now pending in the Senate. A vote Wednesday failed to reach the necessary two-thirds majority needed to cut off debate.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Gen. John Doar, top civil rights troubleshooter, was to present the government's case at Oxford.

Judge Clayton said he was closing the schools today because a number of Grenada officials would be in his court in Oxford, 45 miles away, and he was concerned something might happen during their absence.

The Negro children, under the protection of more than 300 highway patrolmen, attended classes peacefully with whites Wednesday for the first time since school opened Monday.

The Justice Department action in Plaquemine Parish asks that the school board be required to explain why the five desegregated schools are not fully staffed. In one of the schools, Woodlawn, the 12 teachers and 250 white pupils quit rather than attend with 31 Negroes assigned there.

W. German Sub Sinks In Gale

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — A West German training submarine with 21 aboard sank in a North Sea gale Wednesday and one survivor and two drowned crewmen have been picked up, the Navy reported today.

A spokesman said there is still hope for additional survivors because of reports that several of the crew were on deck when the submarine sank.

Naval sources said the 118-foot submarine Hai Shark was on the surface when hit by a fierce gale. One of two West German training submarines, she was en route to England, sources said.

The survivor picked up by the British trawler St. Martin told his rescuers:

"I was standing on top of the conning tower with four or five other men when the submarine suddenly sank like a stone."

The sole survivor was identified by the German Defense Ministry as a boatswain named Silbernagle. He was rescued more than 12 hours after the boat went down.

British, Dutch and Danish aircraft joined German naval vessels in a search for other survivors.

The Hai was en route to Aberdeen, Scotland, with her sister submarine, the Hecht, and a tender on courtesy visit.

Lake Site Land Being Purchased

Things are rolling rapidly toward an early start on the Colorado River Municipal Water District's huge dam across the Colorado River near Robert Lee.

Another land settlement has brought to 7,500 the acreage the CRMWD has acquired in the basin, and specifically in the area of the dam. This is over 45 per cent of the land needed for the project, said O. H. Ivie, general manager. Condemnation cases have been filed on the two remaining tracts in the dam site.

Thirty-four prime contractors have checked out plans on the dam project so far. In addition to Texas firms, there are two each from Iowa, Tennessee, Missouri, and Mississippi, as well as contractors in Oklahoma, Arkansas, North Carolina, Arizona, Kansas and Minnesota who have indicated plans to bid. Scores of suppliers have secured plans.

Bids will be opened in Big Spring at 2 p.m. on Oct. 6.

Ivie will be in New York to sign finally for the $30,000,000 revenue bond issue, and proceeds will be delivered to CRMWD Friday morning (Sept. 23). They will be re-invested the same day in order to be earning interest until they are needed.

The general manager said a number of contractors have been making on-the-site inspections in connection with figuring the job which will involve moving nearly 11,000,000 cubic yards of earth, gravel and rip-rap rock as well as a massive concrete spillway. The lake, at capacity, will impound 188,000 acre feet of water.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 and every boy I have ever liked has had a bad reputation. My family says, "Stay away from him! He is no good and everybody knows it!" [illegible] just because these guys make a mistake or two and get in trouble with the law, no matter how hard they try no one lets them forget their past.

You may ask, "Why don't you forget them and find a decent kid?" Well, I'll tell you why. I don't want a decent kid. He's got it made. His nose is clean and he has all the friends he needs because he's a "good" kid.

I want a NO GOOD kid who needs me and will appreciate my sticking by him and helping him go straight. "Bad" kids need friends more than "good" kids. Please print this. If my parents see it, it may soak in.

WANTS TO HELP

DEAR WANTS: A kid in trouble is usually a "troubled" kid. And in order for him to "go staight" he needs more than friendship. If you are truly motivated to help "bad" kids, do it right. Finish high school and then take the professional training required to become a clinical psychologist or a social worker.

Then you will be qualified to [illegible] missionary work [illegible] you have your heart set on, but don't, at age 15, attempt to rescue one from troubled waters, unless you yourself are an expert swimmer. You could both go under.

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to this fellow who can't keep his eyes off other girls. What he does when he isn't with me can't hurt me because I don't see it, but when we are together and he stares at other girls, it hurts me. He says blondes are his weakness.

I offered to dye my hair blond, but he says he likes me the way I am. Abby, do you think he will change after we are married? He says he will, but I don't know whether I can believe him. Any suggestions?

HURT

DEAR HURT: Take a good hard second look at this man. Don't expect him to change after marriage. Blonde-watchers usually get worse after marriage—not better.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I just want to know if I am as "childish" as my husband makes me feel whenever I have brought up this subject: I have been married for 19 years and I still don't have an engagement ring. When we were married a ring was out of the question, but my husband is a very shrewd business man who has done tremely well over the years and he could easily afford to buy me one.

He knows how much I've wanted a diamond because I have told him, but he says it's too late for an "engagement" ring now. I would still love to have one. Thanks for letting me tell this to someone, Abby. Do you think I'm "childish?"

BARE FINGERS

DEAR BARE: No. It may be too late for an "engagement" ring, but it's never too late to give a woman something she's always yearned for. Doesn't your "shrewd" husband know that diamonds have been man's best investment as well as a girl's best friend for years!

• • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO 'MUST KNOW HOW": In the eyes of the law, the common law marriage, under certain circumstances can be as legal as a formal wedding! If the relationship is given full legal recognition, the parties have full legal rights and obligations toward each other, and the common law marriage must be dissolved like any other marriage. Laws differ from state to state. Ask your lawyer to advise you.

Nominee Dies In Crash

STANLEY, Idaho (AP) — Idaho's Democratic nominee for governor, Charles Herndon of Salmon, was killed on a campaign flight over the wilderness area of central Idaho Wednesday.

He was one of four men aboard a twin-engine light plane that crashed into Elk Mountain about 13 miles northwest of Stanley during cold, foggy weather.

Three of the four were killed. The pilot, William Bir, 45, Twin Falls, Idaho, was critically hurt.

Killed besides Herndon, 55, were Robert L. Baldwin, 35, and Lloyd O. Crutchfield, 44, business men from Oklahoma City, Okla., who were flying to Bonners Ferry in north Idaho on Business.

They took Herndon with them to drop him off at Coeur D'Alene where he was to speak.

Democrats now will have to choose another candidate. The state Democratic Central Committee has legal authority to do that.

Water Field Recharged By District

During the past season, the Colorado River Municipal Water District put three times as much surface water back into the Martin County well field as it took out.

And soon it will start to put more water from Lake J. B. Thomas into storage in the deacquified zones of the well field.

The district recharged the well field with 347,000,000 gallons before operations were halted in the spring, according to Paschall Odom, assistant to the CRMWD general manager. Of this stored water, the district pumped back only 121,000,000 gallons during the summer, leaving 226,000,000 gallons of lake water still in storage there.

Odom said plans were to start reinjecting lake water in the well field Oct. 1 at the rate of 2 to 2.5 million gallons per day. This will continue until next spring when summer demands create a need for using this water for peaking purposes.

The CRMWD pioneered in lake water storage as a means of putting the source of supply nearer to Odessa, which is connected with the well field by parallel pipelines ample to carry water direct from Lake Thomas as well as the well field water.

CANTALOUPE MAKES a delightful pickle to serve with baked ham and many other main-course dishes.

Making Cantaloupe Pickle Is Worthwhile

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

HERE COOKS go — making cantaloupe pickle while the melon is still around. And here's the latest recipe we've tasted for this delightful relish that can be made at home at comparatively little cost.

The recipe is long, but the making of the pickle is not arduous. We've just tried to give you as many details as possible. A cook with many years of experience in making pickles at home gave us most of the tips offered here. Other tips we pass along from our own briefer experience because they cleared up procedures that puzzled us. We hope that all these tips will help you achieve a pickle of excellent flavor and crisp texture.

Cantaloupe Pickle

2 quarts prepared cantaloupe (See Recipe Notes)
2 tablespoons salt
1 tablespoon slaked lime powder (see Recipe Notes)
5 cups sugar
2⅓ cups cider vinegar
2 sticks cinnamon (each about 3 inches long)
1 tablespoon whole cloves
1 tablespoon whole allspice
1 piece dried ginger root (1½ to 2 inches)
Juice of 1½ lemons
½ lemon with rind left on, thinly sliced

Into a large non-metal bowl or porcelainized iron or enamelware kettle, turn the prepared cantaloupe. Add salt to 2 quarts cold water; stir until dissolved; pour over cantaloupe. Cover and refrigerate overnight.

Next morning, add the slaked lime powder to 2 quarts cold water; follow bottle directions for dissolving and dispensing it; reserve. Tie spices in a small piece of clean thin white cloth; reserve.

Now drain cantaloupe and discard salted water; rinse cantaloupe with cold water; drain. Return cantaloupe to bowl; pour the 2 quarts (about) slacked lime solution over it; cover and refrigerate overnight.

Next morning, turn cantaloupe into a colander, discarding the lime water; thoroughly rinse cantaloupe under cold running water; rinse again in several changes of cold water; drain and reserve.

Into a large kettle (porcelainized iron or enamelware), turn the sugar, vinegar and 2 quarts cold water; stirring until sugar dissolves, bring to a boil. Add reserved cantaloupe; over medium heat bring to a boil again; boil about 20 minutes. Add the spice bag; continue cooking until cantaloupe looks "clear." (Cooking time will vary — if syrup should become very thick before cantaloupe looks clear, thin syrup by adding a little hot water to the kettle.) About 5 minutes before cantaloupe is to be removed from heat, remove the spice bag and discard; add the lemon juice and lemon slices.

With a slotted spoon, tightly pack the hot cantaloupe pieces into hot sterilized fruit jars, adding a lemon slice to each; at once pour boiling hot syrup over cantaloupe to within ½-inch from top of jars, making sure cantaloupe is covered.

With a damp cloth, wipe outside of jars. Place clean hot-rinsed dome lids on jars; screw bands tight. Cool and store in a dark, dry, cool place for about 1 month before using. Makes 3 to 4 pints.

RECIPE NOTES

To prepare cantaloupe: Quarter the cantaloupes and remove seeds. Cut away rind. Cut cantaloupe into pieces that are about 1-inch long and ½-inch thick. Four to five pounds (2 jumbo or 4 medium) cantaloupes will be needed to make the 2 quarts called for; have cantaloupe hard-ripe — 3 or 4 days away from being perfect for table use.

Slaked Lime Powder: This is calcium hydroxide that comes in small bottles at some drug stores; if it is not in stock, the druggist may be able to obtain it for you. In using it, be sure to follow directions on the bottle for dissolving and dispensing it so that any undissolved powder is not used.

Adding Lime Water: If after the cantaloupe has stood in the lime water in the refrigerator overnight, it is not very firm, remove 1 quart of the lime water; dissolve ½ tablespoon of slaked lime powder in this liquid (following directions on the bottle for stirring and dispensing); return this strengthened lime water to the cantaloupe and other lime water and allow to stand for 3 to 4 hours. If cantaloupe is still not very firm, repeat the process, but this time let stand for only 2 to 3 hours. Then proceed with recipe directions for rinsing cantaloupe, preparing the syrup and cooking the cantaloupe.

Miles Of Hot Dogs

What will they think of next?

It's been determined by Meat Board experts that 190 million people consume hot dogs measuring 1.3 million miles yearly. That is enough mileage to make two round trips to the moon (955,428 miles) and 14 trips around the earth (350,000 miles).

The average hot dog is five and one-half inches long. The average per person consumption is 80. Paper and pencil, anyone?

Plus For Palatability

Roasts and steaks are much better tasting if they're cooked by slow, rather than fast, heat penetration. Fast cooking will often char the outside of the meat while the inside remains underdone. Then, if you should want to cook the roast or steak to the proper degree of doneness, the outside will be to overcooked for palatability.

American Business Women's Fall Enrollment Tea Set

The Scurry Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Assn. will hold its annual Fall Enrollment Tea on Sunday afternoon, September 18th, from three to five p.m. in the Community Room of the Snyder Savings and Loan Association. Mrs. Ellen Meador, Chairman of the tea, will be assisted by P. [illegible] Berry, Membership Chairman, [illegible] station.

ABWA is an educational organization, stressing the value of Business Women keeping up to date on business procedures and encouraging women to seek additional training which will qualify them for advancement in their chosen fields. It was founded in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1949, and now has over six hundred ten chapters, consisting of more than 86,000 members throughout the United States. During the past year, chapters throughout the country expended approximately $65,000.00 in scholarships to women seeking training in a wide variety of occupations.

The Scurry Charter Chapter was organized in September 1960 in Snyder. Each year the local chapter has awarded scholarships to deserving girls ranging in value from $100.00 to $300.00. The Scurry Charter Chapter also contributes annually to the National Scholarship Fund, from which interest-free loans may be obtained by qualified students sponsored by their local chapters. The Scurry Charter Chapter also helps support the American Field Service Program.

Membership in ABWA brings many benefits. Members are given the opportunity for a confidential analysis of their personality, which points out their weak points and shows them the way for personality improvements in these areas. Members are also eligible, at no extra cost, for ABWA's vehicular insurance coverage.

The chapter has outstanding businessmen, educators or professional people who speak on topics of current interest. In addition, each program includes a vocational talk by a member of the chapter describing the duties in her particular occupation. There members represent a wide variety of interests and talents and this affords other members an insight into the jobs at which other women are employed.

Members are also given excellent opportunities to develop qualities of leadership by serving as Committee Chairmen or as elected officers of the chapter. Other broadening experiences are obtained by attendance at District Meetings and National Conventions. The 1966 National Convention will meet in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on October 14-16. It will be attended by approximately 2,000 members. Chapter Candidates for Woman of the Year will be recognized and the name of the American Business Woman of the Year will be revealed. Snyder's candidate, Mrs. Vondell King, will be in attendance at the convention, together with other members of the Scurry Charter Chapter.

ABWA members stand out in every community. They demonstrate a capacity for leadership in business, social and educational activities. They plan carefully. They work together amiably and [illegible] completion the projects which they undertake. Any employed woman who is interested in belonging to ABWA, the 'organization on the go'', can get further information by contacting the Membership Chairman, Mrs. Hazel Berry, at HI 3-6801.

Proven cream makes wrinkles diminish or vanish in 2 weeks

With a substance new to cosmetics, named Genava, aging skin can start looking younger and younger — not older and older.

After a two-week trial on a selected group of women, a noted dermatologist reports on the ingredients in Genava:

"Disappearance of small wrinkles was accomplished in two-week period; even the very deepest wrinkles showed very great improvement."

Dr. W. P. also comments, "the small superficial wrinkles responded dramatically." And he adds that the skin was "more translucent and smoother in appearance."

These results are nothing short of amazing. And it took a new cosmetic compound to do it.

Genava was developed by the trustworthy Nina laboratory. Designed to be used twice daily — under make-up and overnight — it is absorbed instantly by the skin. Start using Genava today. In just two weeks your wrinkles will vanish or diminish greatly. Skin becomes more translucent, smoother. You will look gloriously younger! 1.65 oz. $3.50; 4 oz. $5.00

DEMONS MEET BLACK HAWKS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another 500-game round of Texas schoolboy football comes up this weekend and more than a dozen teams are playing for keeps.

While conference action is running in two districts, the feature games match rated teams in interdistrict strife.

Nederland, ranked ninth in Class AAAA, and Bridge City, rated No. 1 in Class AA tangle at Nederland Friday night in the top battle of the state.

Other feature attractions send Dumas, No. 2 in Class AAA against Phillips, the No. 8 outfit of Class AA.

Decatur and Iowa Park ranked 1-2 in Class AA, get together at Iowa Park.

The longest winning streaks in the state—Brownwood's 18 straight and Wills Point's 16 in a row—go on the line against worthy foes.

Brownwood, defending champion of Class AAA, takes on Gatesville, which bounced Coperas Cove 14-6 last week.

Wills Point is in more danger than Brownwood. It moves against Van of Class AA. Van beat Rusk 22-13.

Brownwood swung into the 1966 campaign last week with a 12-6 victory over Class AAAA Cleburne. Wills Point beat Quitman 12-0.

Madisonville, owner of the longest losing streak—now 40 straight, gets going against a team in its own class and not only can snap its embarrassing skein but win a conference game to boot.

It is in Dist. 21 of Class A that conference action starts as Madisonville meets Palestine Westwood. Corrigan clashes with Grapeland, Groveton takes on Alto and Trinity plays Diboll.

One conference game already has been played. That came last week when Hooks beat New Boston 14-6 in Class AA Dist 3.

The other district with conference games is 15 of Class AA where Fredericksburg meets Crystal City, South San Antonio rolls against Schertz-Cibolo and San Antonio East Central is at Del Rio.

San Angelo, the No. 1 team of Class AAAA, has an open date but the other No. 1 outfits have tough games, including Bridge City with its test from Nederland, and Sweeny, No. 1 in Class AA, against Dickinson, a team that'll be seeking revenge for being upset 24-0 by Angleton last week, just when it was in the ratings.

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—The Big 33 football game matching Texas and Pennsylvania apparently will be played again next year at Hershey, Pa.

When Texas defeated Pennsylvania 34-2 in August there were indications the game would be dropped unless it was played in Texas. And there was an NCAA rule against such an all-star game unless it was between adjoining states.

But now Al Clark of the Harrisburg Patriot News, promoter of the game, has asked Fred Cervelli of Orange, the Texas selection chairman, to select another group of all-stars to meet Pennsylvania in a fourth game at Hershey.

Clark said, "I don't believe a three-game series proves anything."

Pennsylvania won the first game in 1964 12-6 but Texas triumphed in 1965 26-10 and last year made it a rout.

The game at Hershey had been given special permission by the NCAA since it was started before the NCAA rule that limited competition only between adjoining states.

Golfers Try PGA Course

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (AP) —A field of 130 moved out today in the opening round of the $9,000 Texas PGA tournament with predictions that four rounds of par 71 will take first money.

The pros wound up practice Wednesday and during the week there had been only three par and two sub-par scores over the tree-lined, rugged 7,000-yard Great Southwest Golf Club course.

Troy Badget of Amarillo posted a two-under-par 69 to head the practice rounds Wednesday. Ross Collins of Dallas had a 70.

Amateur Marty Fleckman of University of Houston had a 69 early in the week, playing in the Texas Cup matches.

Chip Stewart of Dallas also had a 71 and Carl Gustafson, Cuero Park pro, fired a 70.

Defending champion Buster Cupit of Longview is on hand, along with seven other former champions.

The Texas Senior will be played in conjunction with the PGA, with scores of the first 36 holes deciding the championship.

Reverend To Become 9th Episcopal Bishop

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Rev. Willianm Paul Brands, 61, was to be consecrated suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas today.

The native of Missouri will become Texas' ninth Episcopal bishop and Dallas' second suffragan bishop in 10:30 a.m. services at St. Matthews Cathedral.

Brands has been rector of the Trinity Church in Fort Worth. He was elected suffragan bishop June 9 by a delegation of 400 laymen and 121 priests.

He is also adjunct professor at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth where he teaches English and philosophy.

Tommy Lee led the jockey colony at Delaware Park last year with 50 winners. He also led the riders there in 1961.

No. 21 Eludes Perry As Phillies Win, 2-0

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gaylord Perry, the first pitcher to join this year's 20-victory club, must have forgotten to pay his dues.

The San Francisco right-hander, who reached the charmed circle on Aug. 20, failed for the sixth straight time to record his 21st Wednesday when he was outdueled by Jim Bunning as Philadelphia blanked the Giants 2-0.

It was a costly defeat for San Francisco. With first-place Los Angeles and runner-up Pittsburgh both idle, the defeat dropped the Giants a full three games off the Dodgers' pace and left them two behind the Pirates.

Richie Allen was the man who did the offensive job for the Phillies. He was at bat with two out in the first inning when Johnny Callison was thrown out stealing. Then Allen, leading off in the second, walloped Perry's second pitch over the right-field fence for his 38th home run of the season.

Bunning, 17-11, took over after that. The veteran right-hander, who was beating the Giants for the fourth time this season, struck out eight, walked only two and scattered five singles.

He got some breathing room in the ninth when Frank Johnson, a Giant rookie, let Callison's drive get past him for a triple and Allen drove the run home with a sacrifice fly.

The two runs batted in gave Allen 106 for the season, third best in the majors.

In the only other National League games played Wednesday, streaking Atlanta topped the Chicago Cubs 3-1 and St. Louis downed Cincinnati 6-2.

In the American League, Kansas City shut out Cleveland 3-0, Boston shaded Chicago 2-1 and Detroit edged Minnesota 3-2. California at Baltimore and Washington at New York were postponed by rain.

Perry, 20-7, has lost five of the six games he has started since winning No. 20. He has given up 52 hits and 15 runs in 35 1-3 innings pitched over that span and his earned run average has jumped from 2.52 to 2.97.

The Braves won their eighth straight, scoring two runs on a one hit in the 10th inning to beat Dick Ellsworth. Felipe Alou and Ty Cline drove in the deciding runs, Alou on a sacrifice fly and Cline on a fielder's choice.

Only 961 fans paid to watch the game played in a light rain at Wrigley Field. It was the smallest crowd in the majors this year.

Tim McCarver walloped two home runs and Curt Flood and Lou Brock added one apiece as the Cardinals ripped the Reds. Ray Washburn got the victory with a six-hitter.

Big Money Bout Ready

HOUSTON, Texas (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay and Houston's Cleveland Williams sign formal contracts today for their November title fight in the Astrodome.

Promoters already are saying the bout could break the indoor record for a title fight and the all-time money mark.

The two fighters already have signed agreements but the formal contract must be approved by the Texas Boxing Commission.

The scheduled 15-round fight will be held Nov. 14 or 15, with a definite date to be announced later.

The formal contract signing (3 p.m., CST) also was to be held in the Astrodome, which will seat 66,000 for boxing.

The fight will be promoted by Texas Boxing Enterprises, headed by Earl Gilliam who says the fight stands to break the indoor record crowd of 23,306 which saw the 1941 welterweight championship match between Henry Armstrong and Fritzie Zivic. Gilliam said it also could top the all-time best money fight, the 1927 heavyweight match between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney which drew a live gate of $2,658,660.

Members of the Texas Boxing Commission will attend the contract signing. The commission apparently is going to sanction the fight although Texas is a member of the World Boxing Association, which recognizes Ernie Terrell as champion and Clay as the No. 1 contender. Clay is regarded as champion in most other circles.

Four Arrested As Burglary Suspects

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP)—Four Denison residents were arrested by Grayson County officers Wednesday in connection with widespread burglaries in the Lake Texoma area.

Sheriff Woody Blanton said John Homer Stevens and Roger Linsteadt, both 18, were charged with burglary and released on bonds of $2,000 each.

Two juveniles among the four arrested were turned over to juvenile authorities, Blanton said.

About a third of some $3,325 in stolen goods was recovered, the sheriff said, from homes of the youths and from pawn shops in nearby Durant, Okla.

Travis Eighth Opens Schedule

Three Snyder teams go into action tonight as another big football weekend gets underway.

Travis' 8th grade will be making its initial appearance of the season at the Junior High field with Sweetwater providing the opposition in a 6 p.m. clash. This game will be followed by a struggle between the Lamar 9th grade and Runnels of Big Spring. Also today, the Lamar 8th grade journeys to Big Spring for a 6 p.m. test of Runnels.

Area schools also return to the gridiron wars with Norton visiting Ira and Hermleigh at Wylie of Abilene in tilts set for 8 p.m. Friday. Aslo on Friday night, Hobbs entertains O'Brien while the Borden County Coy[illegible] travel to Klondike. The Gail school beat New Deal's "B" team, 14-6, in their first outing last week.

The Snyder varsity hosts Stamford in Tiger Stadium Friday night while the "B" team is scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. clash Saturday against Big Spring on the same turf.

SPEAKING OF CONFRONTATIONS!

Once Decisive President Like A Man On Tiptoe

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — For President Johnson the happy condition would be thunderous applause both in the flesh and in public opinion polls.

In his recent trips to the East and Midwest he found conditions heartening for a politician: big crowds, cheers, and a lot of handshaking, which seems important to him.

But in the past month two of the biggest opinion polls showed a drop in general approval of Johnson. His standing in the polls slipped from 54 to 56 per cent in midsummer to 50 or 51 per cent.

November's congressional elections may be taken as another barometer of the public attitude toward him. But they should not be considered an absolute.

The present Democratic-run Congress of 1965-66 under Johnson's prodding set a performance record in 1965 but did much less this year, partly because he had less influence this year.

If the Democrats suffer big losses in November — Republicans predict a gain of 40 to 50 House seats — Johnson will have an even tougher job of getting his programs through in 1967 and 1968.

Big Republican gains would be interpreted by some, particularly Republicans, as a loss of confidence in Johnson. This would not be necessarily so, for a couple of reasons.

The in-party traditionally loses some seats in an off-year election like this one. And then there are the cases of Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

For six of Eisenhower's eight White House years the voters gave the Democrats control of Congress while overwhelmingly endorsing Eisenhower and giving him two terms.

In 1946, seventeen months after Truman succeeded to the presidency, the Republicans won control of Congress for the first time since the early 1930s. Then in 1948 the voters elected Truman over New York's Thomas E. Dewey.

The polls indicate dwindling confidence in Johnson in such fields as civil rights, the economy and labor-management relations. Apparently he still has public support on the war in Viet Nam.

Thus his trouble seems to be in handling domestic problems. But there may be another reason for loss of confidence not disclosed in the polls: a public feeling, not necessarily conscious that Johnson has lost his zip.

He has not displayed in 1966 the same bang-bang decisiveness and endless energy he showed in 1965. For example: His sudden action in sending troops to the Dominican Republic in 1965 to thwart, as he said, a Communist coup.

At that time, three times within a week, he went on television to explain his actions. He repeatedly bounced on and off of television in 1965. He has done it much less in 1966, and that disappearance from the public eye may have hurt him.

And this year, with inflation threatening, Johnson hemmed and hawed for months before asking Congress to suspend the 7 per cent tax subsidy businesses get for capital outlays.

And he was anything but a vigorous leader when the machinists' strike shut down airlines for months and crippled public travel. As a result the administration's wage-price guidelines were smashed and haven't yet been restored in any tangible form.

Although Johnson devoted one whole speech this year to race relations, calling for restraint, his leadership here seemed far less than might appear called for as racial riots spread.

If Johnson in 1965 gave the impression of dashing with great self-assurance through the labyrinths of office, this year he has often seemed like a man on tip toe.

Let's Count The Bats In Our Belfry

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —How's your sanity index?

In a wacky world that seems to be getting wackier, it is only common sense for a fellow to pause now and then and count the bats in his own belfry.

A certain degree of balminess is acceptable in anyone. As Mark Twain pointed out, when you realize that everyone is a little bit crazy, the mystery of the world stands explained.

For the benefit of the perplexed, here's a handy home guide to help you figure our your SQ—Sanity Quotient. Ask yourself the following questions.

Do you repeat yourself like a parrot after the third martini at a cocktail party?

When your neighbor buys a new car, longer and more expensive than the one you own, do you have to stifle an impulse to creep into his garage in the dead of night and chisel a scratch in his car's shiny fender and let the air out of its tires?

If a restaurant waiter treats you with condescension, do you than 'cravenly overtip him in order to win his good will?

Are you afraid to leave an office party without dancing at least once with the boss' wife, even though you know she fox trots like a lame walrus?

When your wife isn't looking, do you sometimes succumb to the temptation to look through her purse or read the letters she gets from her lady friends?

While playing poker for keeps, do you have to lean over backward to keep from leaning over sideways and sneaking a look at the cards in the adjoining player's hand?

Is it your firm opinion that the guy next door cheats a lot more on his income tax returns than you do?

When the gals at the office get their heads together, do you sometimes feel that they are gossiping about you?

Are you convinced that it never rains except when you have on a freshly pressed suit, and that the only time you spill gravy on a necktie is when the necktie is brand new?

If you hand a bus driver a dollar bill, do you feel he invariably will take out his own grudge against the world by spitefully giving you 20 nickels?

At least once a week do you have a wild urge to punch one of your own spoiled offspring in the snoot?

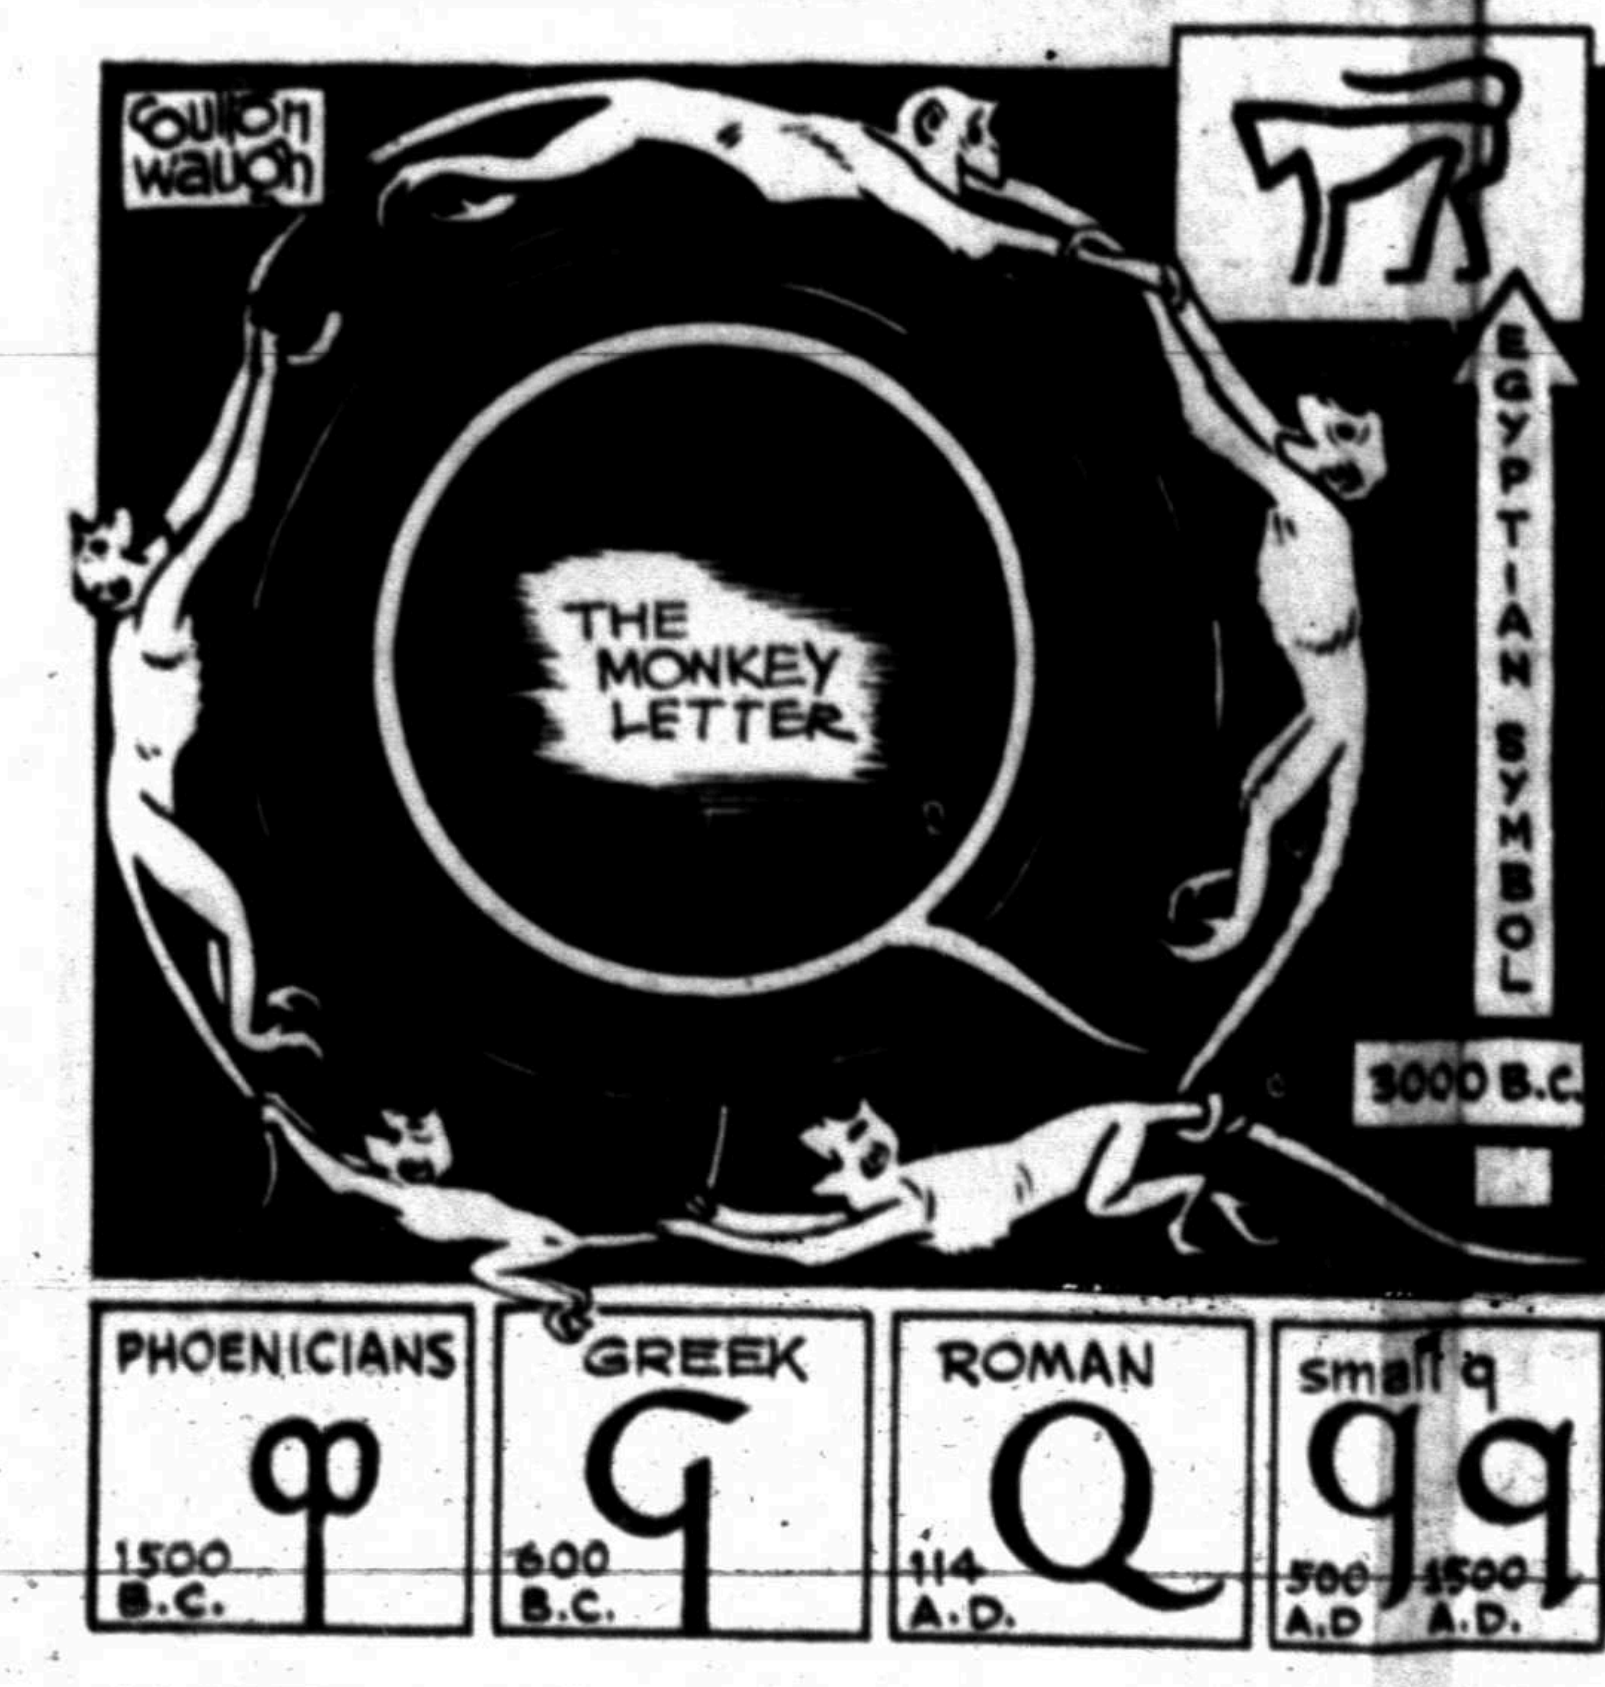
Do you feel that your luck is so lousy you couln't win at a racetrack even if all the horses but your choice were doped?

Do you find that the more money you earn the more worries you have?

Does everyone around you seem nuttier and more absurd than they did ten years ago?

Well if you have answered all the foregoing questions in the affirmative, you're as healthily negative about life and its problems as 95 per cent of the population.

Junior Editors Quiz on LETTER Q



QUESTION: Where did the tail on the letter Q come from?

• • •

ANSWER: Some authorities think that the letter Q came from a picture symbol of a monkey once used in the inscriptions of the Egyptians and as a letter in the ancient Semitic alphabet. Our picture shows the Egyptian monkey symbol, the tail of which may have persisted in the history of this letter, leading to the modern form. Of special interest is the fact that the Semites called this letter goph, which is thought to have meant monkey. On the other hand, the Phoenicians used what appears to be the symbol of a knotted loop or cord (below, left). The Greeks called the Semitic letter koppa, making it look much like our G. Taking this from the Greeks, the Romans closed it, and gave it a flowing tail, giving us Q in its modern capital form. The Romans were the ones who stabilized Q. They originated the habit of often following this letter with u, and giving it the pronunciation kw, which is the way we usually pronounce it when we follow it with u. The small q began to appear in the A. D. 500's. The vertical stroke was made on the right side of the round part to distinguish it from the small p.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: When reading school and other books which have footnotes or citations, look for q.v. This is quod vida in Latin and means "which see," or look it up. 9-15

Ford Rites Held Today

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. today at Big Spring for Mrs. Pearl Davis Ford, 52, who was found dead Tuesday night.

Walter Grice, Big Spring Justice of the peace, returned a coroners verdict of suicide. She had been shot through the head and a 12-gauge shotgun was found across her body.

A native of Borden County, Mrs. Ford had lived at Big Spring for several years, then moved to Lake J. B. Thomas for about eight years before returning to Big Spring in 1965.

Surviving are the husband, W. C. Ford; a daughter, Mrs. Jesse Madry of Big Spring; two sons, Doyle and B. C. Ford, both of Lubbock; five brothers, Johnny Graham of Canyon, Bethel Graham of Cisco, Marshall Graham of Ireland, Gilmer Graham of Midland and Melton Graham of Ira; five sisters, Mrs. Mildred Skelton of Ira, Mrs. Esther Miller of Midland, Mrs. Ruth Morgan of Odessa, Mrs. Della Brooks of Loop and Mrs. Laura Perry of Vincent.

The funeral rites were to be held at the Nalley-Pickle Chapel in Big Spring, with burial to follow in Trinity Memorial Park.

Fiesta Is Underway

A three-day Fiesta will begin this evening for Snyder area residents of Mexican descent.

The big Sept. 16 Fiesta event will reach a climax Friday evening when Miss Janie Rosas will be crowned Fiesta Queen at the annual coronation.

The coronation will be held at the Benitez pavilion, which also will be the site of dances for the three Fiesta nights beginning tonight.

US Strategists Talk Of Expansion Into Viet Delta

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. ground forces probably will extend their operations into South Viet Nam's delta region by next spring, sources indicated today.

Some senior U.S. military officers said there is a good chance the United States will have its infantry in the delta within six months. Others speak of this happening as soon as after the first of the year.

The South Vietnamese army now has chief responsibility for fighting the Viet Cong in the delta, the country's rice bowl and one of its most heavily populated regions.

That army's strongest boosters among U.S. military leaders here claim little more than a stalemate for the South Vietnamese in the delta. Its critics say the Vietnamese are losing there.

So far, the United States has limited its operations in the delta to advising South Vietnamese troops, providing helicopter support for them, mounting air power to back up Vietnamese army units and sending out Navy river patrols.

The broadening of U.S. ground fighting into the delta awaits the arrival of at least one more division.

Although the Marines consider the swampy, water-laced delta their kind of terrain, sources indicated the Army may get the main job of helping out the South Vietnamese forces there.

Some top U.S. military men think at least three U.S. divisions should be added to the three South Vietnamese divisions already there.

[illegible] assigned to a special amphibious force which U.S. leaders reportedly have been discussing. Such a seaborne force would float off the delta, striking ashore as needed.

The Marines traditionally also consider amphibious warfare their special domain and they can be expected to argue strongly for a principal Leatherneck role in such a force, which could be as big as a brigade. A brigade numbers about 5,000 men.

However, the Marines have their hands full in the opposite end of South Viet Nam from the delta. In that northern sector, North Vietnamese regulars now pose a major and continuing threat of invasion from across the buffer-zone boundary.

The Army, about five times the size of the Marine Corps, has greater manpower resources on which to draw in the United States.

Why hasn't the United States gone into the delta before?

U.S. military leaders reply that there was a more urgent need for American troops farther north, to counter infiltrating North Vietnamese regulars.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

ZIHUATANEJO, Mexico — The little paradise on the Pacific coast is beginning to get some action. For it long has been a favorite spot of everyone who visits here.

Now the land developers are getting into the act. Chopping up plots and acreage and making attractive deals with the public.

The current population is about 3,000 contented souls. The ones who do not fish for a living seem to run hotels. But it seems we will have the developers around town and this will mean a filling out of the bare spots on the mountainsides overlooking the bay.

It is a beautiful and quiet little town. No hustle and bustle and the natives never get restless over anything.

So we checked in at the Hotel Irma, where the cool breeze caresses you as you sit and sip tall refreshments while looking out to sea. The owner is Mama Rodriguez and the operator is 22-year-old Miss Irma Rodriguez who lends the hostelry a dignified and professional touch.

Mr. Thayer Waldo, the writing gentleman, said as far as he was concerned they could have the rest of the world. And propped his ukuleles on a chair while he sniffed at the ocean winds. Aunt Edith, his wife, gave somebody her part of material things and settled back to some tropical comfort.

In the days of old, Zihuatanejo and Acapulco were rivals for the Oriental trade of clipper ships. Acapulco is about 150 miles down the coast and at that time was in second place.

Zihuatanejo, it is reported, was a hustling little town with five or six times its present population. The ships came in and everyone was busily fighting off Sir Francis Drake and his constituents, who dropped in from time from time to lift the bank.

Something happened when the clipper ship trade fell off and the town quieted down. Everybody took to fishing.

A couple of decades ago Acapulco picked up and ballooned into a booming resort city. Zihuatanejo, hooked to civilization by a bum road, stayed quiet and peaceful. Thank Heaven.

The highway from Acapulco, however, was paved — all except the last 20 miles or so. Daily bus service rolls through. Hardy tourists in automobiles drive it.

Aeronaves de Mexico flies in from Mexico City three times a week and that takes care of its tourist traffic.

This is chiefly the spot for seekers of an off-beat resort. Of the four or five hotels here, the Irma is recommended by guide books and the gentlemen who are skilled at travel. Undoubtedly, more will go up in the next few years and the visiting business will begin to move.

So we sat in the last rays of the sunset on the little thatched terrace that overlooks the quiet bay. Across he water you can see the gorgeous Las Gatas beach. More about that later.

The sky caught fire over the mountains and the water in the bay turned an olive drab. The breeze picked up from the sea and we sat there letting it blow the south Pacific magic clear through our systems.

"Son," said Mr. Waldo, "if this place was a mite more beautiful I don't believe I could stand it. As it is, I doubt if I can write anything that would be sensible. Pass the tequila."

But I was contemplating the lights coming on across the bay. With great pleasure and comfort, I made him reach for what he wanted and didn't move a foot.

Growers Told Cotton Import Up Sharply

WASHINGTON (AP)— Cotton growers, under government pressure to hold down production now have been urged to face up to sharply mounting volumes of cotton product imports from abroad.

The irony of this situation was brought home to members of the advisory committe on cotton meeting here this week with Agriculture Department experts.

The group representing cotton interests was told that, although cotton exports this year may show little change, cotton product imports may be the largest in years.

Government officials said this country began the current crop year with stocks of 16,774 million bales and will end the year with about 12,800 million bales after adding in-season ginnings and deducting expected consumption and estimated exports of some 5,500 million bales.

That carryover figure looks good to government planners when compared to carryovers of more than 14,000 million bales in 1964 and the even higher surplus at the start of this year.

But the downtrend in domestic cotton surpluses doesn't look so good when lined up against cotton products imports. In terms of cotton equivalent weights, imports rose from 394,000 bales in 1961 to 751,000 bales last year.

The advisory panel was told that if imports continue at the rate of the first seven months, the total for 1966 will be near one million bales.

Government officials reported their expectation that the cotton reduction program within two or three years should bring surpluses down to manageable levels in terms of domestic use —if import volume levels off at about the same rate.

Inflation No Domestic Woe: It's An International Malady

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —The economic inflation that has brought a fever of interest rate and price increases in this country is [illegible] glimpse [illegible] is happening around the world.

Inflation, or the threat of it, is not a domestic ailment; it is an international malady.

Some nations are in serious trouble because of rising prices. In Brazil, for example, an item that cost $3 in 1955 might cost $100 now. And in Britain the situation has been termed grav

Inflation is caused by an excess of total demand—from government, labor, consumer, businessman, military—on the supply of goods and services that can be produced. Sometimes this demand is fueled by the availability of too much money.

The problem can be reduced by lessening demand. For a long time rising interest rates were used to take the enthusiasm out of buying and borrowing. Just as the high cost of a suit of clothes lessens enthusiasm for it, so does the high cost of borrowing lessen the demand for money.

The Federal Reserve, which regulates the supply of money, has recently been closing the faucet, lessening the amount of cash flowing into the economy.

The administration also has acted. By recommending that tax credits to business be suspended, President Johnson undoubtedly has made businessmen think twice before committing themselves to spending programs that would put more demands on the economy.

These measures are mild when compared with what has occurred in some countries. Most of the major industrial nations have been forced to tighten their belts.

Belgium has adopted price controls, the Netherlands has both monetary and fiscal restraints, Germany has wage and price limits. The measures have been very pronounced in Britain and Canada.

Finance Minister Mitchell Sharp shook up Canadians last week by warning of tax increases, by postponing the government's medical care program, and by deferring other spending programs.

One of Sharp's measures gives a good picture of how government can lift or lessen demand.
