Galveston Lashed By Vicious Storm

By The Associated Press

Wind blasts that exceeded hurricane force ripped parts of Galveston Thursday. Two fishermen were missing.

The storm struck from a line that spread destruction from near the Mexican border east to this coastal city.

Two men who went to check their fishing lines near Galveston remained unreported late in the morning and were feared drowned.

The wind tore down an oversized sign, called a "spectacular" on Galveston's Pleasure Pier in the Gulf of Mexico. Pier authorities said engineers inspected the sign three months ago and declared it would withstand winds of from 175 to 200 m.p.h.

The winds blew a tanker aground, sank a fishing vessel, virtually destroyed three homes and caused widespread lesser destruction in Galveston and immediate vicinity.

Some residents said the storm descended in what they called a "big, black, rumbling cloud."

One resident on a peninsula near Galveston declared "it definitely was a tornado."

"I heard it coming," said Mrs. Jerry Simpson of Port Bolivar.

Weather Bureau men officially clocked winds at Galveston at 87 m.p.h., well over minimum hurricane force.

On Bolivar Peninsula nearby, winds were estimated at 100 m.p.h.

The wind blew railroad cars off the tracks at Galveston.

Two youths not immediately identified went to check their crab lines in the Port Bolivar area shortly before the storm struck and were reported missing.

The Continental Grain Co. dock at Galveston suffered partial destruction.

Port Bolivar was without power or telephones for a time.

At Carrizo Springs, 300 miles west of Galveston, winds unroofed the city hall. Some sections of the town were without power lines for a time. At least 30 power poles in the area snapped.

The Jack Bell home in the Carrizo Springs area was destroyed. Two vegetable processing sheds were blown down. The Andrew Jackson home in Carrizo Springs was unroofed. Plate glass windows were blown in.

Near Cuero, 150 miles west of Galveston, what were described by witnesses as "twisting winds" blew down power lines and trees.

The W. W. Eatman farm near Cuero suffered destruction of a tractor shed.

Deputy Sheriff Buddy Ewing said Port Bolivar was "hit pretty hard."

He made the estimate of winds up to 100 m.p.h.

The Galveston Tribune said three houses were blown down at Port Bolivar, on a slender peninsula just northeast of the island city of Galveston.

The winds blew in the door of a new Methodist church, tore off screens from doors and broke picture windows.

San Antonio, midway and slightly north of Cuero and Carrizo Springs, underwent a thunderstorm. Lightning was blamed for destruction of one house and heavy damage to a second.

A small tornado tore through southern Beaumont, northeast of Galveston at 8:15 a.m. Thursday, tearing a part of the roof off a house.

Mrs. Frank Parsley Jr. said her mother, Mrs. J. C. Shankles, was in the mother's back yard. Mrs. Parsley said she rushed her mother onto a porch in time to save her from being hit by flying lumber from destroyed sheds nearby.

Mrs. Parsley said the roof was blown from her father's worm hatchery and "the worms are loose all over the place."

The Coast Guard reported a fishing vessel sunk at the end of the south jetty lighthouse at Galveston. Two crewmen were rescued.

The tanker Maxton was blown aground near the Galveston Yacht Club. Tugs freed it.

The Santa Fe railroad said several box cars were blown off the tracks in its Galveston yards.

A railroad spokesman said one caboose was blown against the control house at the roundhouse, causing considerable damage.

Rainfall at Galveston was up to three inches. Carrizo Springs measured 1.67 inches. Karnes County reported more than two inches in places. Karnes City reported winds up to 60 m.p.h. Lightning set off a fire alarm and storm - conscious residents scampered for storm cellars.

At Bay City, east of Galveston, strong winds and an electrical storm caused minor damage to homes, trees and buildings. The home of Mrs. Lillian Parker was struck by lightning.

Matagorda reported winds of 40 m.p.h. and Port O'Connor 55 m.p.h.

Judge Denies Role In Plot To Bribe

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens testified yesterday he never conspired to bribe a prospective witness.

He denied knowing Ed West, also charged with conspiracy to bribe a witness in a murder trial in which Stevens was the defense lawyer.

Stevens testified he employed Armond Chandonnet of Groom as an investigator but said he "never came to trust him."

The judge said of Chandonnet's testimony:

1. He did not know anything about a party allegedly arranged to embarrass Amarillo Dist. Atty. Wayne Bagley. He said he attended the party but left after 15 or 20 minutes.

2. Harold Erlandson, Amarillo bail bondsman, also charged with conspiring to bribe, told him a week before he met Chandonnet that his telephone wire was tapped. Stevens said he never tapped anyone's telephone line. "I've always been the tape, never the taper," he said.

3. He knew no reason why George McCarthy, Amarillo lawyer who is now one of his defense lawyers, should tap his telephone line as Chandonnet alleged. Stevens professed a high regard and warm friendship for McCarthy.

A pretty brunette secretary, Mrs. Joann Schultz, delayed the start of the morning session of the trial. A doctor said the state witness wouldn't be able to testify before Monday.

Dist. Judge Graham Purcell permitted the state to rest its case until Mrs. Schultz could testify.

She once worked in the Amarillo office of attorney Joe Brock, one of four others accused with Stevens of conspiring to bribe a witness.

Mrs. Schultz now lives in Borger.

The judge denied a defense motion for an instructed verdict of innocence.

The woman fainted as attorneys argued over whether she was able physically to testify.

Starkweather Due To Die Tomorrow

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, 19, confessed slayer of 11 persons, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Friday morning.

The execution is set for shortly after 6 a.m. CST at the Nebraska Penitentiary.

Starkweather, who has spent recent days reading the Bible and finishing a Western scene drawing, is to die for the slaying of a Bennet, Neb., school boy.

For participation in this slaying his former sweetheart, Caril Ann Fugate, 15, is serving a life term.

Caril has contended she was a hostage of Charles in January of 1958 when three members of her family and seven other persons were killed.

But Starkweather testified at her trial that she was a willing accomplice.

Wednesday Caril asked Gov. Ralph Brooks to temporarily spare Starkweather's life so that she might talk with Charles and "he could have plenty of time to tell the truth" about her part in the slayings.

Brooks rejected the plea, commenting that he felt that if Starkweather had further information to relate he would have done so by this time.

In a letter to Starkweather, Caril begged him to "least confess to a minister that I am innocent so that I won't be the only one that knows I am innocent."

Starkweather and Caril were convicted of the slaying of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennet. Killed with him was his girl friend, Carol King, 16, also of Bennet.

The bandy-legged redhead was tried on only one of the 11 deaths he admitted. Lancaster County Attorney Elmer Scheele gave no reason for selecting the Jensen case as the one on which to try Starkweather.

Pilots Rescued In Crash Of AF Planes

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Air Force planes collided and crashed into the Atlantic between Bermuda and the Azores today, the Coast Guard reported. They said the pilot of each plane was rescued.

The collision occurred at 6:45 a.m.

The Coast Guard said the planes were out of Sumter, S.C. The fliers were picked up by the cutter Mendota.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. tomorrow for Herman Blakely, 65, who died at his home at 2605 Avenue J at 11:15 p.m. yesterday of a heart attack.

Mr. Blakely, a retired farmer, had been a resident here 60 years. He was born Sept. 13, 1893, in Hamilton County. He was married to Versie Eoff. He was a member of the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ.

Glen Pace, minister of the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ, will officiate at services at that church, assisted by Bob Barnes, assistant minister there. Burial will be under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

One son, Alton Blakely, preceded him in death in 1944 while serving with the Air Corps in the South Pacific.

Survivors include the widow, five sons, Dale Blakely of Pharr, Chalmer Blakely of Odessa, Delbert Blakely of Porterville, Cal., R. L. Blakely of Snyder, Wayne Blakely, serving with the Air Force at Tucson, Ariz.; two brothers, Cohen Blakely of Odessa and Merille Blakely of Wichita Falls; and eight grandchildren.

AF Hopes To Launch Mice, Then Recover

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unofficial sources say the Air Force hopes to fire four mice into orbit around the earth today—and later recover them intact.

Western Aviation magazine stated: "Four mice will ride as passengers aboard a Discoverer III in a launch from Vandenberg Air Force Base with an attempt to be made for recovery of the payload capsule near Hawaii."

The Los Angeles Examiner said the launching would possibly be today.

Air Force officials released no information.

If the mice do go aloft, they will be the first animals the United States has tried to shoot into orbit and recover.

Discoverer II was launched April 13 from Vandenberg, 150 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Air Force planes from Hawaii were poised to recover the satellite's payload capsule, but a timing device failed and the payload wasn't dropped until the satellite was over the arctic on its 17th pass.

The nose cone was believed seen parachuting near Spitzbergen Island, north of Norway. A widespread search was made for it, but it was never reported found.

Western Aviation, a monthly trade publication, said that planes —trailing trapeze-like nets — will have 10 minutes to snare the falling capsule from Discoverer III if it parachutes into the Pacific area as planned.

The Air Force announced earlier that specially bred mice, of a strain thought sturdy enough for a space career, were being flown to Vandenberg for satellite tests.

Nose Cone Recovered

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Air Force hurled a tiny nose cone of the future 6,000 miles down the Atlantic today and recovered it intact four hours later.

It was the second consecutive time the Air Force retrieved a nose cone.

The Air Force announced some eight hours after a powerful two-stage Thor-Able rocket blasted aloft that re-entry and impact of the cone was spotted by a plane cruising near the impact area northwest of Ascension Island.

The cone, which carries some of the secrets for protecting the warheads of ICBMs of tomorrow, was hoisted aboard a vessel, part of the search fleet that rendezvoused near the impact area. The launching rocket, a Thor missile topped by a Vanguard, second stage, roared up at 1:40 a.m. and was in sight for more than two minutes.

27 At Underworld Session Indicted

By DANIEL LEHANE

NEW YORK (AP)—The power of the federal government today was turned upon the notorious 1957 underworld convention at Apalachin, N.Y., with 27 delegates indicted on charges of conspiring to balk probes of it.

Arrests of the defendants quickly got under way. Many already were in trouble, and some in jail, as a result of refusal to answer questions of various investigatory agencies previously.

The crackdown was the result of nearly a year's effort by a special crime-busting agency set up by the U.S. attorney general's office, with teams of agents working across the nation.

The Apalachin delegates came from many cities, and authorities since have been struggling to peg its purpose. The general opinion is that it was for tightening or altering control over a vast empire of rackets.

All 63 persons who attended the conclave were named in the indictment but only 27 as defendants.

The remaining 36 were tabbed as coconspirators. A federal spokesman said a person named a coconspirator but not a defendant is someone who had a connection with one or more defendants in a case but whose activities did not warrant an indictment. Such persons are not arrested.

Occasionally coconspirators agree to aid or testify in behalf of the prosecution.

The latter possibility seemed remote in this instance.

If convicted of conspiracy to obstruct justice, as charged in the indictment, the 27 defendants could receive five-year prison sentences and $10,000 fines each.

Some claimed those in attendance were top echelon figures of could receive five-year prison sentences and $10,000 fines each.

The indictment had been returned on May 13 but was kept sealed until 7:30 a.m. today.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics were said to have begun arresting defendants at 6 a.m.

The indictment was termed the result of months of round-the-clock work by members of a special group set up by the U.S. attorney general's office to combat big-time crime.

Some claimed those in attendance were top echelon figures of the Mafia, the notorious underworld society spawned in Sicily many years ago.

Participants in the gathering either refused to talk about it or claimed it was nothing more than an expression of friendship for the host, Joseph L. Barbara Sr., ill with a heart ailment.

Seven of those who attended have been held in jail here several months for refusal to answer questions of state crime probers. An eighth recently obtained freedom on appeal.

In the federal indictment, Barbara was named as a coconspirator, but not a defendant.

Three of the defendants, Joseph Profaci of Brooklyn; Pasquale Turrigiano of Endwell, N.Y., and Joseph Magliocco of Brooklyn, also were accused of perjury.

Other defendants were: Joseph Bonanno, Tucson, Ariz.; Russell A. Bufalino, Pittston, Pa.; Ignatius Cannone, Endwell; Paul C. Castellano, Brooklyn; Joseph F. Civello, Dallas, Tex.; Frank Cucchiara, Watertown, Mass.; A. De Simone, Downey, Calif.;

Anatale Evola, Brooklyn; Salvatore Falcone, Utica, N.Y.; Joseph Ida, Highland Park, N.J.; James V. La Duca, Buffalo, N.Y.; Louis A. Larasso, Linden, N.J.; Carmine Lobardozzi, Brooklyn; Antonio Magaddino, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Frank T. Majuri, Elizabeth, N.J.;

Michele Miranda, Forest Hills, Queens, N.Y.; John C. Montana, Buffalo; John Ormento, Lido Beach, N.Y.; James Osticco, Pittston; Anthony P. Riela, West Orange, N.J.; John T. Scalish, Cleveland, Ohio; Angelo J. Sciandra, Wyoming, Pa.; Simone Scozzari, Rosemead, Calif.

Important Session Tonight

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will meet with the other Big Four foreign ministers tonight at a dinner which could prove a turning point in the negotiations over a summit conference agreement.

Some high diplomats attached great importance to the dinner, though it is billed as purely social.

British and French officials said the assembly of 12 top men of the Big Four conference at Herter's villa offered an opportunity to get away from the repetitive formal debate of the regular sessions and come to grips with basic problems.

They even spoke of a possible series of such social affairs as a means of swinging the conference into more private negotiations.

U.S. officials, however, attempted to dampen growing interest in the dinner. They said there was no thought beforehand on Herter's part of trying to get any conference work done or to promote any secret diplomacy.

Officials of all three Western delegations conceded that it was literally impossible to predict ahead of time what would happen because Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko might create an opening or make a move which they cannot anticipate.

Gromyko is already beginning to prod the three Western ministers into letting them know what their terms are for agreement on a summit conference. Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and Maurice Couve de Murville of France are reported playing hard to get, chiefly because France and West Germany — meaning President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer—have insisted this is the best bargaining line to take.

The debate on contradictory Soviet and Western German peace plans is continuing but getting nowhere in the main conference sessions. The question all four big-power delegations are now worrying about is how and when to start secret negotiations.

East and West German delegations were not invited to the dinner. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville have been putting out word for days that there would be no point in having private talks if the Germans were included because the meeting would be too big.

Herter invited each of the other three foreign ministers and two advisers each for himself and for them. On the U.S. side, he asked Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and Asst. Secretary of State Livingston T. Merchant. In each of the other delegations he asked the No. 2 man and the top diplomatic adviser of the foreign minister.

Gromyko will bring along Valerian Zorin, deputy minister of foreign affairs; and Alexandre Soldatov, chief of the ministry's American department.

Charges Filed In Panty Raid

BEAUMONT (AP)—Mrs. Cecil C. Jones Jr., housemother at a Lamar Tech dormitory hit by a panty raid early Tuesday, resigned yesterday and filed charges against students she said took part in the raid.

Mrs. Jones had three students charged with trespassing and filed an additional charge of malicious mischief against one of the trio.

The students were free on bond pending a court hearing.

Police said about 200 boys took part in the raid which began shortly after midnight.

Dr. F. L. McDonald, Lamar Tech president, said school officials will investigate before deciding whether to take disciplinary action against the students.

Panel's Reaction Today May Determine Fate Of Session

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—Reaction today from the House Revenue and Taxation Committee on Gov. Price Daniel's tax program may determine the fate of the special session.

The committee will begin hearings on the bill by Rep. George Hinson, Mineola. It includes the proposed tax on natural gas shipped interstate, increased liquor, cigarette and motor vehicle sales taxes.

Committee members sent the temporary franchise tax increase bill to the House for consideration. It will increase the corporation tax from $2.25 to $3 for one year.

The abandoned property bill, revised by the administration after representatives killed it on the floor in the regular session, would lift about 20 to 25 million dollars from the deficit.

Rep. J. E. Winfree said his franchise tax bill would knock off 15 to 17 million more.

Secretary of State Zollie Steakley described the abandoned property bill, opposed by the Texas Baners Assn., as an instrument to put teeth in the present escheat law. It says money and dividends unclaimed for more than seven years go to the state.

The measure applies to bank savings, unclaimed funds held by life insurance corporations, deposits and refunds held by utilities, undistributed dividends of business associations, property held by fiduciaries and state courts and unclaimed mineral interests.

Opposing the bill were W. A. Pounds, Tyler, president of the bankers association, and attorneys Ogden Shannon, Fort Worth, and W. Dewey Lawrence, Tyler.

"Reports that the Texas Bankers Assn. is in agreement on the bill are not so . . . it has been finely drawn on judicial process but it is still a far cry from being a good bill," Lawrence said.

"It disturbs the voluntary relationship that exists between the banker and the depositor. If a depositor wants to leave funds in a bank he should be able to for one year, seven, 10 or 15 years. Where are they going to leave the money? They might put it where it won't be safe," he said.

Shannon objected to a provision requiring that money involved in escheat litigation be turned over to the state treasury before the court holds that it actually is abandoned property.

Steakley said the governor and Bates are willing to revise this section.

Pleasant Ruling Comes From IRS

Omar Burleson M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — IT IS SELDOM THAT ENCOURAGING news comes from matters dealing with income tax. One has emerged from recent rulings from the Internal Revenue Service.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN, in rural areas particularly, may find benefit in it.

PAYMENT OF WAGES TO CHILDREN of a taxpayer may be deducted as regular business expense, even though the money may be used for partial support of the child. Also, such payment does not in itself, affect the taxpayer's $600 exemption. The test is whether the parent contributes more than half to the support of the child.

RESEARCH AND PLANS for the demineralization of salt water has been discussed in this column previously. By reason of its importance, it deserves further mention.

THE INCREASE IN WATER USAGE points to two exceedingly important considerations for the future. First, every drop of water possible needs to be conserved. Second, a way must be found to provide more water in the future, even with the best water conservation practices.

IT TAKES 7 GALLONS OF WATER to flush a commode; 200,000 gallons to grow a ton of good roughage; 660,000 gallons to make a ton of synthetic rubber. Paper mills, textile plants and all the expansion of new industry require an almost unimaginable amount of water.

SURVEYS INDICATE A WATER SHORTAGE in the United States by 1980 unless new methods are found to convert salt water to fresh water on a practical and economical basis. It is estimated that skyrocketing population and tremendous industry expansion will lift requirements of the United States in twenty years to 597 billion gallons of water a day. In 1955 the requirement was 221 billion gallons a day. The Department of the Interior says there just is not that much water.

UNDER A $10,000,000 authorization from Congress, an undertaking will be aimed at greatly reducing the cost of converting salt water for domestic use. A plant some place on the Pacific Coast will be built, which will have a capacity of converting a million gallons of water a day at a cost of less than one dollar a thousand gallons. This should represent a 50 per cent reduction in the cost of present methods.

THREE PLANTS FOR DIRECT CONVERSION, from salt to fresh water, will be built on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf Coasts. Two others will be located inland for experiments and converting "brackish water," which is prevalent in our West Central Texas area.

WE THINK WE HAVE AN IDEAL LOCATION for such a plant, but the competition is severe. It is reported the States of New Mexico and Arizona have offered the Federal Government a million dollars to locate one of these two plants in their States and will contract to buy the fresh water produced at one dollar per thousand gallons.

Integration Sought In Dallas, Houston

DALLAS (AP)—Negro attorneys have asked federal courts to require immediate integration of schools in Dallas and Houston.

Dist. Judge Ben Connally set the Houston request on his docket for Monday. The Dallas request, filed here while Judge T. Whitfield Davison was holding court in Fort Worth, must be sent to Davidson before he can set a hearing date.

Attorneys, including chief counsel Thurgood Marshall of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, asked that the Dallas school board be ordered to comply with an April 16, 1958, integration order.

The Houston petition asked Connally to require integration on the basis of a two-year-old order calling for schools to be integrated "with all deliberate speed."

Houston, with 157,000 students, has the largest enrollment in Texas and the largest segregated school system in the nation. Dallas has the second largest enrollment in the state.

The Houston motion came exactly two years after Connally issued his "all deliberate speed" order. The action followed a four-day hearing on the request of parents of two Negro children who had been refused admission to all-white schools.

The same parents—Marion Williams, father of Beneva Williams, 14, and Mrs. Mary Alice Benjamin, mother of Delores Ross, 9—had yesterday's motion filed in their behalf.

The petition asks Connally to rule that the constitutional rights of the children—and all other children in similar situations—are being violated.

It also asks that the school board be ordered to allow them to enter, matriculate and study in Houston public schools.

Dr. Henry A. Peterson, Houston school board president, said desegregating schools "immediately or by the first of September, as I presume they are urging, would be disastrous both to the colored schools and to the public schools system."

LETTERS TO EDITOR

To The Daily News:

Monday, I presented to the Commissioner's Court a letter setting down the views of 64 and likely more county citizens regarding the Scurry County Health Unit. In the interest of clarity, the group wishes to make public the primary issues in that letter, as we feel the newspaper report did not catch the spirit of what we meant to convey.

We did NOT tell the court to buy new equipment for the unit as it now stands, though the information released from the court to the paper implied so.

We simply suggested a board of laymen, businessmen be named to remedy a situation in which, fantastically, the health department occupies a 13-room building, built in 1952 for $70,000, only three or four of the capacious rooms ever having been used.

We suggested this board explore the needs of the department here and its proper function. Should it be moved near the county hospital equipment, arranging for other public offices to occupy the enormous building? Could an agreement be made with the doctors here that they give an occasional free afternoon to help a strong health program? Why doesn't it function in enforcing beginning student's smallpox innoculation, not now done?

This group of ordinary citizens, non political and absolutely not gunning for any individual, meant to say "Investigate it". Instead, phrases about an X-Ray machine and a dentist's chair were lifted out of context without giving the whole picture.

Workers In Hospitals To Remain Idle

NEW YORK (AP)—Nonprofessional workers at six hospitals have voted overwhelmingly — 1,784 to 14 — to continue their 14-day-old walkout in a bid to win union recognition.

A previously secret 11-point truce program was read Wednesday night to members of Local 1199, Retail Drug Employes Union before balloting started.

Local President Leon J. Davis indicated the strike may spread to other hospitals.

The "memorandum of agreement," worked out with the aid of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, ruled out union recognition but provided for a grievance procedure in each hospital with a single arbitrator for all. His decision would be binding.

About 3,500 workers walked out of Mount Sinai, Beth Israel, Beth David, Lenox Hill, Bronx and Brooklyn Jewish hospitals May 8.

The hospitals have continued with the aid of volunteers.

Tribute Paid Ailing Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has paid affectionate tribute to cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles.

No change was reported in the condition of the former secretary of state, whose cancer illness has been complicated by pneumonia.

House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said Wednesday: "We miss him very much. I wish him well and pray that God showers His abundance on him."

McCormack said he had no doubt that history will recognize Dulles as one of the greatest secretaries.

Representatives Walter H. Judd (R-Minn) and Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa) said Dulles already ranks as America's greatest secretary of state. They expressed hope some miracle might spare his life.

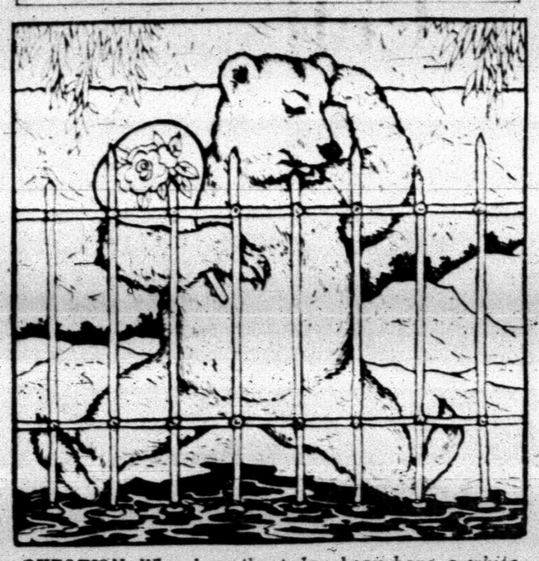
Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS



QUESTION: Why does the polar bear have a white coat?

• • •

ANSWER: The polar bear is a huge animal that lives on the ice floes and in the cold waters of the Arctic Ocean, near the north pole. Some polar bears are 9½-feet long and weigh more than 1,000 pounds. The polar bear has a thick coat of white fur, tinged with yellow. Its color makes excellent natural camouflage because the polar bear is hard to see against the white background of snow and ice. It kills other animals for food, mostly seals. It can creep unseen over the ice to kill the seals. Because of these heavy coats, polar bears must have a cool place to live. That is why zookeepers provide them with cool caves and icy pools to live in.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Visit a zoo and watch the polar bears at play. But don't get too near them, they are very dangerous animals.

Costly Fire Hits Business In Paris

PARIS (AP)—This North Texas city surveyed the damage today from its second major fire in three months. A raging blaze last night gutted the Ayers Department Store and damaged three other firms.

Two firemen suffered minor injuries.

Damage was estimated at $250,000.

The fire, discovered shortly before 10 p.m. in the Ayers store, roared out of control for more than two hours as firemen from Paris and Camp Maxey fought to keep it from spreading.

Fire trucks from Hugo, Okla., called but the fire was under control when they arrived.

The Ayers firm is one of the city's oldest and largest.

Firemen credited firewalls with saving other businesses along the north side of the plaza.

Beall Brothers dry goods firm suffered heavy smoke and water damage. Lighter damage was reported to a jewelry store, drug store and Woolworth firm.

The fire drew a crowd estimated at 1,500.

City fireman Alton Roten was overcome by smoke and volunteer fireman C. B. Woods suffered a cut hand.

A brisk wind hampered efforts to control the fire and threatened to spread it through the business district. Flames leaped an estimated 50 feet into the air when the roof of the Ayers store collapsed.

The stores are across the plaza from the scene of a March blaze which did an estimated $300,000 damage to the S. H. Kress store and two other businesses.

Traffic Tickets May Cost Diplomas

HAVERHILL, Mass. (AP)—Police Chief William A. Ross said today high school seniors found guilty of traffic violations after their prom Friday night will lose their diplomas as well as their licenses.

Ross said he had arranged with Acting Principal Donald Evans to withhold the diplomas of graduates convicted of auto charges.

He said the action was taken to help prevent serious accidents which have marred similar dances in this area recently.

Feeder Yields Money

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—When Roy Wilmuth opened his new chicken feeder he found $1,000 in it. He had bought the feeder at the hardware store of Ralph Stanley over the weekend. He returned the money to Stanley, who explained he had hidden it to keep burglars from finding it.

Panel Wants To Confer With Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Labor-Management Committee says it wants to hear firsthand James R. Hoffa's views on any retaliatory strike threat.

Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, denied Wednesday he had threatened a nationwide labor walkout if restrictive labor laws are passed by Congress. He was quoted as making such a threat in a speech Tuesday at Brownsville, Tex.

The committee said it wanted to question Hoffa in mid-June about corruption an will ask him then under oath about plans for any such strike.

Hoffa told newsmen there never would be a nationwide strike of the Teamsters Union. However, a story in the current issue of Life magazine quotes him as saying, "We may eventually have to do want labor unions do in Europe and call general strikes."

While Hoffa was making his denials the AFL-CIO, from which the Teamsters have been ousted, opened a major attack on the Senate labor bill.

The top policy group of the AFL-CIO said it wants federal legislation to help unions curb corruption but will fight any move to hamstring unions. It said the Senate bill which it once supported now is unacceptable because of its amendments.

The federation's opposition apparently focuses on a "bill of rights" for union members and picketing and hot cargo boycott bans added in amendments.

Denver Minister Is Named Moderator By Presbyterians

By LEONARD E. PEARSON

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A man who grew up on a farm and now is minister of one of the largest churches in his denomination will preside over affairs of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. for the next year.

Dr. Arthur L. Miller, senior Minister of Denver's Montview Boulevard Church, which has 4,000-plus members, was elected and installed Wednesday as moderator of the largest Presbyterian body in the United States.

He was elected over Dr. Herman L. Turner, Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Henry S. Randolph, New York City and Tionesta, Pa. Miller received 496 votes on the first ballot, Turner 223 and Randolph 222. Miller's election was made unanimous on the motion of Turner.

The new moderator is proud of his rural background. On May 31—the Sunday after the 171st general assembly, over which he was presiding today, adjourns—he will preach in the old Presbyterian church at Greenfieldsville, Ind., where he spend his boyhood. He also will spend a few days visiting two brothers and three sisters who still live in the region.

Dr. Miller was born 59 years ago on a farm near Greenfieldsville (pop. about 50) 50 miles north of Indianapolis.

He went to Indiana University, dabbled in journalism and became editor of the Daily Student, campus newspaper, before his graduation in 1922. Then he went on to Princeton (N.J.) Theological Seminary and later was graduated from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago.

At a news conference after his election he spent as much time discussing his early days in Indiana and his family as he did church and world affairs and his more recent experiences as world traveler.

He has served on numerous denominational committees and boards, is on the boards of Hastings and Parsons colleges, and is president of the board of trustees of Beirut College for Women in Lebanon. He held pastorates in four other states before going to his present church 12 years ago.

Dr. Miller spoke with pride of his wife, Lova, their one daughter and two sons, and six grandchildren.

He told newsmen that airplanes stewardesses often ask whether he is the playwright Arthur Miller whose wife is actress Marilyn Monroe, and he always replies: "No, I'm a preacher, and my wife is much more beautiful than Miss Monroe."

Dr. Miller, still as tan as a Hoosier farmboy, said: "Reconciliation is the great task facing the church today."

BUCKIN' THE LINE

THE GAME WARDEN OF Scurry, Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher counties, M. T. Rinehart, says fishermen and hunters of this area are getting a little lax on obtaining permits and licenses for their outdoor endeavors.

The permits and licenses are cheap, Rinehart points out and there's no excuse for anyone being caught without one.

Some may not know just what the requirements are for having licenses and permits. Rinehart made the following explanations towards the license requirements.

Anyone between the ages of 17-65 using a reel must have a state fishing license. Those under 17 or over 65 do not need a licenses to fish with a reel.

Anyone fishing outside of his own county needs a state license for any kind of fishing, whether it be by reel, pole or what have you. You do not have to have a license if you fish with a pole within your own county.

Anyone fishing at Lake Thomas must have a one-day permit which is 50 cents. Season permits may be obtained for $5.

Rinehart says he has issued numerous tickets the past few weeks for illegal hunting of quail. This is closed season for hunting quail, Rinehart points out, and anyone caught with one in his possession is subject to a fine of $10 to $200. Each bird in possession is a separate offense, Rinehart explains.

The game warden says he has issued 40 tickets to hunters shooting quail the past few weeks.

Rinehart also warns against hunters shooting across a public road which is subject to a fine if caught.

Roy Linn, a former game warden now retired, is assisting Rinehart in keeping the hunters and fishermen in line.

Warning Issued To Bait Dealers, Too

All bait dealers also need licenses, Rinehart says. The warden says there are a lot of people setting up bait businesses on the side and he points out that regardless of how big or little your business may be, all bait dealers must obtain licenses.

These hunting and fishing licenses are available at the county clerk's office and at most sporting goods stores in Snyder.

The game wardens, of course, want everyone to enjoy their outdoor recreation but they are hired to keep everyone in line and keep the people informed just what is right and wrong in this hunting and fishing business.

Tiger shortstop Jerry Fleming went hitless for the first time in 12 games Tuesday when the Bengals dropped that 8-7 heart-breaker.

Until Tuesday the last time Fleming went hitless was against Colorado City, April 21.

Fleming's 11-game hitting streak boosted his season average 127 percentage points. When the streak started he was hitting at an anemic .139 pace but then boosted his average to .266 during the next 11 games.

In other words, Fleming batted .429 during his hitting streak.

Norm Wanted To Play

You've heard of fellows who want to play ball so bad that they don't let his coach know when he suffers an injury.

Such is the case of the Tigers' Norman Gladson. Gladson pulled a muscle late in the game against Lamesa a week ago today but he didn't think it was serious and he decided not to let coach Speedy Moffett know about it, thinking his arm would get all right by the time he was to pitch again.

Well, Gladson didn't pitch any more until Tuesday at Mineral Wells. As the game wore on Tuesday, Norman was in pain on almost every pitch. Finally he told Coach Moffett that his arm was hurting and the junior righthander retired after three innings.

It looks like now Gladson won't be able to pitch anymore this season regardless of how far the Bengals may advance in the playoffs.

You just don't shake off an arm injury such as this overnight and Gladson apparently felt he would be letting his team down by pulling out without giving it another try. He didn't hurt the Tigers any Tuesday by starting as he left the game with a 6-2 lead. The only way he hurt the Tigers was not being able to go on but, then you can't blame him for retiring. If you've ever tried to throw a ball with a sore arm then you know how painful it is.

Injury-Riddled Tigers Out To Square Series

With the odds stacked against them, the Tiger baseballers went out to square the bi-district series with the Mineral Wells Mountaineers here today at 4.

Mineral Wells, although held to two hits in the series opener Tuesday at Mineral Wells, took advantage of 11 bases on balls and six Tiger errors to score an 8-7 victory.

Coach Speedy Moffett was in the dark this morning as to who would start on the mound for the Tigers today. Both of the Tiger aces, Norman Gladson and Tim Roberts, are ailing.

Gladson probably is out for the season regardless of how far the Tigers might advance. The junior right hander pulled a muscle in his right elbow during the second game of the District 3-AAA playoff series with Lamesa last Thursday.

The injury appeared to be only minor, however, and Gladson opened Tuesdays game at Mineral Wells. The injury reoccurred and Gladson departed after three innings.

Roberts wore a blister on one of his fingers on his pitching hand during the series finals with Lamesa Saturday and it hasn't fully recovered.

Moffett was leaning toward Terry Lee to start today's game. Lee used sparingly as a pitcher last year, hasn't seen any mound duty this season.

Charles Gladson, who finished up Tuesday's game, will be standing by in relief and it's possible Roberts may be ready for part-time duty.

Mineral Wells is expected to start David Visentine today. Visentine has a 2-6 season record.

If the Tigers manage to square the series today, the third and deciding game would be played tomorrow at Mineral Wells, starting at 4 p.m.

Moffett is making two changes in the Tiger lineup today from the one that started Tuesday's game.

In addition to Lee being the probable mound starter, Keith Moffett, who has been nursing an injured finger, will open at third base.

This is the way the Tigers are expected to line up in today's game.

Mineral Wells coach Pat Simmons is expected to start the same nine that opened for the Rams Tuesday with exception of pitcher.

Jackie Ingle, who started for the Rams Tuesday, will switch to third base today with Visentine taking the mound. Ingle is the top Ram batsman with a .366 mark. He got one of the two hits the Mountaineers garnered Tuesday.

The Rams are expected to take the field today in this manner.

Winner of the Tiger-Mineral Wells series will meet the winner of the Odessa Ector-Levelland series for the regional championship next week. Ector leads that series 1-0 by virtue of a 17-3 walloping of the Lobos Tuesday at Odessa.

Second game of the Ector-Odessa series will be played in Levelland tomorrow and if a third game is necessary, it will be played Saturday, also in Levelland.

The Tigers will carry a 15-14 season record into today's game here. Mineral Wells is 10-7 for the season.

TL Gains Advantage

Monterrey crushed Austin 11-0 Wednesday night for the most sparkling victory of the evening as the Texas and Mexican Leagues wound up their current series of Pan American Association play.

The Texas League has a slight edge in international play with 29 victories and 24 defeats.

No games are scheduled Thursday night.

The Mexico City Red Devils downed Amarillo 5-4 in the only other victory for the Mexican League Wednesday night.

In other games, San Antonio defeated Veracruz 7-1, Corpus Christi overpowered Nuevo Laredo 9-5 and Victoria walloped the Mexico City Tigers 15-3.

Poza Rica and Tulsa were idle.

Monterrey's Avilio Hernandez scattered seven hits, walked none and fanned 11 batters as the Sultans steamrollered Austin. Only two Austin players got as far as second base.

Victoria scored in every inning except the fourth in crushing the Tigers. Every man in the Victoria lineup got at least one hit except Felipe Montemayor, who walked three times and scored twice.

Four Veracruz errors, effective pitching by James Schamdevel and strong batting paced San Antonio's victory.

Amarillo and the Mexico City Red Devils went into the ninth tied 4-4. But rookie outfielder Jose Luis Padilla's triple and Hector Mayer's single spelled victory for the Red Devils.

St. Louis Cards Are On The Move

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals finally have made a move to see how the other half lives in that National League pennant chase.

They're still seventh, just five days free of the cellar and eight games shy of first place, but the Redbirds are on their first real winning streak of the season after whipping Pittsburgh and winless Bob Friend 11-1 Wednesday night.

It was the Cards' fourth straight success and they did it on the six-hit pitching of Wilmer Vinegar Bend Mizell and the second successive three-RBI game by Bill White, who has six hits in eight trips for two nights.

That put St. Louis within four games of the first division after Los Angeles slipped to fourth by splitting a twi-night double-header with Cincinnati. The fifth-place Reds beat the Dodgers 7-5 after an opening 8-4 defeat.

The San Francisco Giants retained second, ending Milwaukee's winning streak at six games, 6-3. Chicago's persistent Cubs remained in third with a 7-5 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

In the American League, Detroit plunked the New York Yankees into last place for the first time in 19 years with a 13-6 victory. Cleveland retained a half game lead, beating Washington 5-3 while the second-place Chicago White Sox defeated Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City rapped Boston 8-2.

Mizell (5-1) walked two, struck out four and shut out the Pirates on four hits over the last eight innings. The Cards had a six-run second inning.

Young Mike McCormick (2-2) tamed the Braves, with ninth-inning relief help from Sam Jones and three RBIs from Felipe Alou. The outfielder belted a two-run homer in the fourth off loser Bob Buhl, then doubled home a tying run and scored the clincher on Daryl Spencer's double in a two-run sixth.

Joe Pignatano belted a three-run homer as the Dodgers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the seventh inning after Roy McMillan missed second base on what would have been an inning-ending double play. Danny McDevitt (3-2) gave up 10 hits, after holding the Reds hitless for five innings, while beating Brooks Lawrence (3-4).

Don Newcombe, now 2-2 against his old mates, won the nightcap for the Reds with a six-hitter.

Ernie Banks' 10th homer, a three-run drive in the eighth, won for the Cubs and Moe Drabowsky (2-3), who needed relief after Harry Hanebrink's pinch two-run homer in the seventh.

Despite Slump Ole Case Remains Calm

By WHITNEY MARTIN
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The world champion New York Yankees are in last place in the American League.

Sports critics are thumbing through baseball record books to discover when last the haughty New Yorkers were in such humble circumstances at this stage of a pennant race.

Fans give varied opinions as to the causes of the strange situation. The ideas range from the opinion that the club has had it, to the hopeful—among its followers—suggestion that it is just a temporary slump that got out of hand.

The last time the Yankees were in the basement at an equivalent stage of the race was May 25, 1940. The last of the two times the club finished in the cellar was in 1912, and the last time it spent the season in the second division was in 1925.

The calmest, outwardly—man in all the confusion is Manager Casey Stengel, who maintained his aplomb even after the Detroit Tigers dumped the world champions into the cellar Wednesday by whomping them 13-6.

Perhaps it is because such a position is no novelty to the grizzled skipper. Before he hit the jackpot with the Yankees he hung his hat regularly in the second division. And in 1940, the year the Yankees were in much the same situation as they are today, he also had a club — the Boston Braves—in last place as late as Aug. 30, although he managed to rally it to finish seventh.

Quietly, and without bitterness, the man who has won nine pennants and seven world championships in his 10 seasons with the team discussed its problems.

The nearest he came to a threat was the comment: "I expect those pitchers of ours realize that they will have to do better than that 'what they did Wednesday' or they can't stay around."

He had previously pointed to lack of timely hitting as the basis for the troubles. He reckoned the hitting Wednesday wasn't too bad.

That he has confidence the team is better than its record might indicate was hinted by his statement that "I think three or four clubs will pay for those runs before the season is over."

Pirates' Face Out With Cut Hand

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Pittsburgh's ace relief pitcher, Elroy Face, cut two fingers on his pitching hand in an accident Wednesday.

He dropped a glass in his hotel room last night. He started to pick up the broken glass and cut himself on the top of the last two fingers on his right hand.

The Pirates said Face should be able to pitch in four days or so.

Six of the 10 rivals Hardin-Simmons plays in football next fall will be met outside Texas.

KER-PLUNK!

The Yankees are last.

The club that has won nine American League pennants and seven world championships in 10 years is in the cellar!

You have to go back to May 25, 1940, to find a set of standings that shows the New York Yankees in eighth place at this stage of the season. And those 1940 Yankees, too, were world champions. They had won four consecutive World Series, and had swept the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati in four straight in 1938 and 1939.

Yet that New York Yankee club too was last. By Aug. 9 it still was only a .500 team (51-51), and while it was to make a brief stand in first place, it finished third — missing a fifth consecutive pennant by three games.

Detroit was the champion, by one game over Cleveland and three games over New York.

Of the 16 players Manager Casey Stengel used as Detroit plunked the Yankees into the cellar with a 13-6 crash Wednesday, only Enos Slaughter was in organized ball in 1940. He was the 24-year-old country boy playing outfield for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Stengel? He was managing the National League's old Boston Bees, who escaped the cellar in the last month and finished seventh.

While the nation's baseball fans eyed the bottom of the AL standings, Cleveland clung to the top with a 5-3 victory at Washington Wednesday night. The Chicago White Sox remained within half a game of the Indians by beating Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City whipped Boston 8-2.

Right-hander Frank Lary gave up a two-run homer to Yogi Berra in the first inning, then blanked the Yankees on four hits until the ninth, when Mickey Mantle's homer and Berra's second scored four runs.

Eddie Yost had three of Detroit's 19 hits and drove in six runs with two homers, one a grand slam. That was after Charlie Maxwell singled home two runs for a tie in the fifth against loser Bobby Shantz (0-2) and Gail Harris then broke the deadlock with a homer that opened a three-run sixth.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs for the Indians. Herb Score (4-2) beat the Senators on six hits.

Dick Donovan (2-2) gained his first complete game for the White Sox with a four-hitter. The Sox, who twice came from behind, won it in the fifth on singles by Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly that made it 3-2.

A two-run single by Frank House gave the A's a 3-1 lead in the fourth. Roger Maris drove in three runs, two with his 10th homer.

Minneapolis Nears League Lead In AA

By The Associated Press

Minneapolis beat Indianapolis 7-6 in the American Association Wednesday night to pull within one game and a half of the league-leading Indians.

St. Paul beat Charleston 6-3 to stay out of the league basement.

Ft. Worth pounded out a 10-2 lead in the first five innings, then went on to defeat Houston 10-7.

Rain postponed the Louisville doubleheader at Denver and wind and rain stopped Dallas at Omaha. Dallas led 4-1 at the top of the fifth. The game will be replayed from the start later.

OUR VIEW

Water Issue To High Court

SAN ANGELO EVENING STANDARD

Complicated litigation over Rio Grande Valley water rights will get an answer in the higher courts. Findings will affect all of Texas where riparian rights are involved, and that includes West Texas streams where there is an argument over the impounding of flood waters which may affect riparian flow.

Where the natural flow of streams was greater in the early days because of living springs that long since have died, there is a continuing argument about the available supply. Riparian holders in some instances have been taking more water than in other days with the end result being that other riparian holders were denied what they held to be their right.

District Judge W. R. Blalock filed Monday a 100-page document of holdings in the complicated litigation at Edinburg.

Blalock held there are riparian rights to the waters of the Rio Grande. This was a key issue because Spanish land grants gave small river frontage and narrow strips of land extending miles back.

This gave rise to the question of whether a river front land owner has the right to irrigate from the river. Blalock held he does, but the case is almost certain to be appealed.

Appeal is intended chiefly to establish finally water rights and the findings are expected to take precedent in all Texas water rights suits attorneys said.

Blalock held there is no right to store riparian water in the river, since there is more flood water which could be stored behind Falcon Dam, than regular flow, which goes to riparian right holders.

Attorneys involved are from nearly all parts of Texas. They were mailed copies of the holdings.

Establishment of basic rights in the courts and by law relative to water is of transcendant importance in the light of the scarcity of water in some parts of Texas and the growing use thereof. The future of some Texas cities and of large irrigation interests could well be determined by the outcome of this litigation.

Belgian King Lets Royal Hair Down

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Baudouin, the 28-year-old bachelor King of the Belgians, has let his royal hair down on his current visit to the United States.

Seldom has a visiting monarch so charmed the people he met.

Aides said the slender King began to loosen up a bit in Texas. "I'm sorry I didn't get here when it was still the biggest state," he said. Still, his visit to the movie capital Tuesday started off stiff and formal.

But the royal aloofness cracked by the time he met Frank Sinatra and Gina Lollobrigida.

He and Miss Lollobrigida conversed in French and when a reporter asked him what he thought of the sexy Italian star, he made a noise with his teeth that could only be interpreted as a Belgian refinement of the wolf whistle.

At a luncheon, Baudouin's partner was actress Debbie Reynolds, who kept up a running conversation with him. She was later astonished to hear that he sometimes is called Baudouin the Silent by Belgians.

"I never met a more charming man," said Debbie. The King interrupted his split-second schedule to return with Debbie and Glenn Ford to the set where they were working.

A parade of 14 limousines plus a squadron of motorcycle officers preceded the royal limousine. On the trip over, he confided to Miss Reynolds and Ford: "I wish we could take off, just the three of us; we could have a lot of fun."

Later the same night, he attended a party at the home of a Hollywood director, where he danced until 1:40 a.m. with Miss Reynolds, Maria Cooper, daughter of Gary, and Cyd Charisse.

At Disneyland the following day, the King really had a ball. He rode in the engineer's cab of the Santa Fe and Disneyland Railroad that traverses a diorama of the Grand Canyon, and took the helm of the Mississippi River sternwheeler — and even sounded the steam whistle.

As he left Disneyland, he asked that all of the police and chauffeurs who had escorted him through southern California be lined up. Then he walked down the line thanking each one with a hearty handshake. He did the same with the press.

"I want to come back again," he said, "and spend more time."

Industry Leaders See More Gains

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaders in many industries are predicting further gains in sales and profits during the second half of 1959 — but at a much slower rate of increase than in the first half.

Most look for a business slowdown in the summer, which may be troubled by strikes, but a good recovery in the fall.

Firmness in prices is forecast for a number of industries. But some of the soothsayers see a further decline in the purchasing power of the dollar as wages tend to rise.

Let's look at some of the specific predictions.

Albert L. Nickerson, president of Socony Mobil Oil, thinks his industry has already seen its best earnings gains of the year. But he sees the year as a whole topping 1958.

F. O. Prior, chairman of Indiana Standard Oil, thinks second-half profits will run about 5 per cent ahead of 1958, domestic demand for oil products about 3 per cent ahead, demand for domestic crude oil 8 per cent ahead. He sees product prices fluctuating only seasonally, and the industry's trend toward cutting employment continuing.

L. L. Colbert, Chrysler president, sees a continuing comeback for the auto industry.

H. E. Humphreys Jr., U.S. Rubber chairman, sees the second half likely to trail the first half, but with a strong uptrend in the final months.

Little change in good prices is forecast by W. B. Murphy, Campbell Soup president. He says the food industry as a whole looks for a healthy second half, but with only modest gains in sales and profits.

Robert J. McKim, president of Associated Dry Goods, says the current favorable trend of retail sales will continue through the fall. The reason: record highs in personal incomes and savings, which put the public in position to buy.

R. S. Reynolds Jr., President of Reynolds Metals, sees a promising second half for the economy in general. His own industry should see a firming up of prices and a rising demand for its products, especially in overseas markets.

Home building will continue at the present rate, in the opinion of H. C. Turner Jr., president of Turner Construction Co.

Picnic Interrupted By Storm Warning

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Residents of one block in suburban Ruskin Heights got together for a front-yard picnic Wednesday night, the second anniversary of a terrifying night.

Exactly two years ago a tornado smashed every house in that block. The storm killed 41 persons.

Sixty-eight residents of the rebuilt homes attended the picnic. They were looking at pictures of the storm damage and telling newcomers what it was like when a tornado warning siren sent the party scurrying to basements.

It was a false alarm this time. The thunderstorm was a mild one.

This Congress Not Setting Records

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This Congress—as congresses go — is no fireball. Its work for the year so far is about par for the course. In mid-May a few pieces of major legislation finished, a lot more pending.

Congresses usually wind up in a rush in the last few weeks before quitting in midsummer. This one can be expected to do the same. If there's any surprise this year, it's this:

Relations between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress are still pretty gentle. Except for demanding that the Democrats keep down spending to balance his budget, he hasn't tried to use a whip.

There were guesses earlier this year — after the Democrats got overwhelming control of both houses in the 1958 elections—that they would take things into their own hands and romp over Eisenhower.

Particularly they complained early that he was asking far too little money to meet what they considered the country's needs. But his repeated demands for economy, which he made a major issue, seem to have chilled them a bit.

The one time they tried to rough him up—by lutting him with a bill they thought they could pass even over his veto—he knocked them flat, vetoed the bill, and made it stick.

This was when they tried to take some power away from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. This was not really a money bill at all. It would have taken from Benson his present power to veto loans by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Eisenhower's veto was the 138th he had made stick since taking office in 1953, without a single upset.

It may have forced the Democrats into more modest notions about pushing him around. But it's too soon to say.

The Democrats already are flirting with another veto, this time on a housing bill.

Other tests may lie ahead on airport aid and aid to depressed areas, for which pending bills passed by one or both branches exceed Eisenhower's proposals.

But the current fight is over housing.

Earlier this year Eisenhower proposed a $1,600,000,000 housing program. This was cut-rate stuff to the Democrats. So the Senate passed a $2,600,000,000 bill and sent it to the House.

There, after knocking down a Republican attempt Wednesday to get approval for a $1,300,000,000 bill, House Democrats went on to consider a $2,100,000,000 measure. That is 50 million dollars more than Eisenhower asked and 500 millions less than the Senate thought necessary.

No matter what kind of bill the House finally passes, if it's different from the one which got through the Senate, no bill can reach Eisenhower until both houses reconcile their differences and agree on one bill in all details.

Already the House Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, has warned the Democrats that even if the House bill gets passed in its present form, Eisenhower will veto it.

And the Democrats have no reason to think they can override this veto, either, after what happened on the last one.

Annulment Granted In Marriage On A Bet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pretty Anita June Jackson, 19, said that after their marriage ceremony her husband Rex, 25, left her.

She said that three days later he met her on the street, told her he had married her to win a bet at a party, and added: "Why worry? You're not hurt."

Mrs. Jackson's testimony won her an annulment.

Baptists Near Showdown On Outside Accrediting Agency

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A showdown loomed today on whether Southern Baptists will stand for continued regulation by an outside accrediting agency of the way they run their theological schools.

The issue, which touches a sensitive nerve in relationships among Protestants, was expected to go before the denomination's annual convention.

It stems from the intervention of the American Assn. of Theological Schools, an interdenominational accrediting body, in a smoldering dispute at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary here.

The seminary has been ordered to rectify certain conditions — or lose its accredited status.

In retaliation, the Rev. L. E. Barton of Montgomery, Ala., is pushing a move to get the convention to pull all six of its seminaries out of the association.

This would automatically cost them their standing with other theological institutions.

In circulars sent to Baptist leaders throughout the country, Barton has maintained that outsiders have no business telling Southern Baptists how to conduct their affairs.

They have never belonged to such interchurch cooperative groups as the National and World councils of churches, and Barton contends their seminaries should not be subject to any "ecumenical organization."

Top leaders of the nine-million-member denomination, including President Brooks Hays, have opposed any walkout from the association, saying it would be a grave blow at Baptist academic prestige.

Seminary officials also have worked to correct the original problem, involving the mass firing last summer of 13 professors, in compliance with criticisms by the association.

One professor has been reinstated. The dismissal of the others has been rescinded, and they have resigned.

They had originally assailed the seminary administration of Dr. Duke K. McCall as high-handed.

Meanwhile, the 15,000 Baptist "messengers" and visitors from across the country heard several reports, including a warning that Christianity is not keeping abreast of growing population.

They registered strong approval of a plea by Hays for establishment of racial justice and elimination of discrimination.

"This is part of the Christian gospel, and we must demonstrate that we believe it," the former congressman from Arkansas said. "It is the mission field on our own doorstep."

A two-way race developed in the election of a successor to Hays, with Dr. Ramsey Pollard, Knoxville, Tenn., and a surprise Georgia candidate, the Rev. Dr. Roy O. McClain of Atlanta, leading a field of five in the first voting. A run-off vote was set Thursday.

Money Not Only School Problem

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—To many Americans the basic problem in education is strictly financial—we need more money for more schools, more classrooms, more teachers.

To the 11½ million members of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, it's not that simple. To them the basis problem is: "How do we educate the youth of today to be the responsible adult of tomorrow?"

More than 3,000 PTA members from across the country have just concluded a four-day convention here. They were more concerned with delinquency than dollars, more interested in children than in bond issues.

The Associated Press asked the delegates to name the most pressing education problem. Here are some of their answers:

Educate all our young people to the best of their ability. We need more discipline and fewer thrills . . . Teaching our children allegiance to life's true values . . . We must do more to make our children want to stay in school . . .

Special programs for exceptional children—the mentally retarded, the gifted, the handicapped.

By a 2-1 margin, delegates filling out an AP questionnaire voted against lengthening the school year from its present average of 180-190 days. But, by a 10-1 vote, they plugged for summer school courses, tuition free, for students who wanted to raise their grades or take extra, outside courses.

The delegates said—by a 5-1 margin—that the public schools were meeting the challenge of the Soviet Union in the fields of science and mathematics.

About three quarters of the delegates said that many of the present problems in American education would disappear if teachers' salaries were raised.

Coed Attacks A Classmate

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Rosa Watterson, 20, who was attacked by a hatchet-wielding classmate while asleep in her college dormitory, remained in critical condition today.

Sheriff Laurence E. Brown said her assailant, Patricia Dennis, 22, Lyndhurst, Ohio, is being held on an open charge.

The two are first-year students at Warren Wilson Junior College at nearby Swannanoa. Miss Watterson is from Guilford College, N.C.

Authorities said Miss Dennis told them she was jealous of Miss Watterson because she had taken her friends away.

The sheriff said Miss Dennis went to Miss Watterson's room at 4:40 a.m. Others girls heard screams and rushed to the room. Betty Ferrell, 20, Orgas, W. V., was cut on the arm while trying to pull the girls apart.

CAB Approves Airline Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has approved formally a pact of six airlines to help each other financially when hit by strikes.

The pact, in effect since last October, was given tentative approval by the CAB last Jan. 26. Wednesday's formal 4-1 decision ordered one change in the agreement between American, Capital, Eastern, Pan American, TWA and United airlines.

The board objected to a provision in the agreement requiring a struck airline to route traffic to the other airlines in the pact. The CAB said this provision was not essential to the basic plan, did not serve the interest of the traveling public and must be deleted as a condition to approval.

Assistance in the pact is through payments based on the amount of additional business to an operating line as a result of the shutdown of another line.

The CAB disagreed with union protests that the agreement would inject the board into the labor relations field.

Injured Man Is Rescued From Tower

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A steelworker has only a fractured left arm to show for his harrowing 50-minute experience atop a 188-foot steel tower.

Robert Raley, 28, escaped possible death Wednesday when an elevator cable flung a four-pound shackle against him.

He staggered and fell to his hands and knees, clutching a board 12 inches wide and eight feet long on a tower at the new 14-story addition to the Fontainebleau Hotel on Collins Avenue.

Jim White, 21, a fellow worker, grabbed Raley around the waist and yelled for help.

Other workers scrambled up the scaffolding and lashed Raley to the board with their safety belts.

Firemen rushed a hook and ladder to the scene but the ladder reached only 100 feet. A Coast Guard helicopter hovered overhead but the wind was blowing 30 miles an hour and rain was pelting down.

"We were afraid to try to take him off," said Lt. Cmdr. Tom Hynes. "The wind was terrific and we weren't certain the men would know what to do with a stretcher or basket."

O. C. Perry, a fellow worker, said Raley went into shock.

"He was cold and shaking all over," Perry said. "We held him."

A doctor sent up some pills to ease the pain.

Finally, firemen and fellow workers lashed Raley to the plank with a rope and slowly lowered him through the scaffolding while hundreds watched. An ambulance carried the injured man to Mount Sinai Hospital.

J. E. White, job foreman for the Postom Bridge and Iron Co., Inc., was unable to say exactly what caused the cable to fly loose.

Report Negro Denied Room

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Reports that a Negro minister was denied a room at a swank Downtown Club circulated today at the auditorium where the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. is holding its 171st annual general assembly.

A block of rooms had been reserved at the Columbia Club for the church delegates. When some of them arrived Dr. Jesse Barber of New York, a Negro, said he was told he could not stay there.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, stated clerk, the chief executive officer of the church, announced that in that case none of the delegates would stay at the club. Other quarters were found for them despite a scarcity of hotel rooms because of conventions.

The club manager, Robert Wilson, told newsmen he knew of no such incident. But John M. Smith, chairman of the local assembly arrangements committee, and Dr. Blake and Dr. Barber confirmed it.

The controversy has not been mentioned in the assembly and indications were that it would not be brought up officially.

Drag Race Sentenced For Manslaughter

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A teenage drag racer accused of causing a traffic accident that killed three persons was convicted of manslaughter Wednesday.

Robert Clarence Fennewald, 18, was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000 in Circuit Court.

Witnesses said Fennewald was racing at speeds of more than 100 miles an hour last Nov. 23 in North St. Louis just before the accident. They said he forced the car he was racing into the wrong lane, where it collided with another car.

Flying Bank Robber Pleads Guilty

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A 25-year prison sentence stretches ahead for Frank L. Sprenz, 29-year-old "flying bank robber."

He pleaded guilty Wednesday to $25,958 robbery of the First National Bank at Hamilton, Ohio, last March 2.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge John H. Druffel imposed the 25-year term. Then, in a surprise move, Sprenz signed waivers to allow transfer here from Vermont, Pennsylvania and Maryland of federal charges of automobile and airplane thefts. He will be arraigned on those charges later.

Then comes a trial in Butler County, Ohio, for bank robbery in the Hamilton holdup. Still later, he'll stand trial in Summit County, Ohio, where he is wanted for armed robbery and jail breaking.

When all of those other charges are disposed of Sprenz will start serving the 25-year-term imposed Wednesday. Any sentences given him in the state courts will have to be served after the federal terms are completed.

During the long flight since his escape from the Summit County jail in Akron 13 months ago, Sprenz has flitted from Toronto, through a score of states, and finally into Mexico where he was caught several weeks ago. He is known to have stolen at least three planes during that time.

Sprenz' divorced wife, Alberta Mae, 26, has described him as brilliant. Certainly he's been clever. He has posed, at various times, as a college student, professional football player, a garage mechanic. He often used a toupe to hide his receding hairline.

He first ran against the police when he threw rocks at another boy. He was 11 then. Later he was sent to a reformatory, but walked away from the institution's honor camp. He served two Army hitches, but even then, he couldn't stay away from trouble. He stole an automobile to drive to the recruiting station and he was continually in hot water for stealing or being AWOL.

Between 1952 and 1957, Sprenz drifted from one legitimate job to another but then apparently turned to full-time crime.

Eggs, Poultry Are Bargains

By The Associated Press

Eggs, broilers, small turkeys and all cuts of pork are the thrifty buys in Texas this week.

Among fruits and vegetables, the U.S. Department of Agriculture rates cabbage, celery, sweet corn, all greens, lettuce, yellow medium onions and winesap apples as top buys. All are plentiful.

Carrying lower prices than a week ago are pole beans, cauliflower, cucumbers, bananas, tomatoes, new long white potatoes, okra and strawberries.

Good supplies of East Texas and Arkansas strawberries are available at in-season prices.

Priced higher this week are Texas grapefruit, lemons and green bell peppers.

New items at Texas markets this week include cherries, cantaloups and peaches, and local squash. Increased volume of tomatoes, blackberries, dewberries, green beans and bruce plums also is evident. Pineapple shipments from Mexico are larger.

Medical Research Bill Passes Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to establish a 50-million-dollar annual program of cooperative international medical research has been sent to the House by a 63-17 Senate vote.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen waged a futile floor fight against it Wednesday, basing his argument principally on its cost.

The bill's chief sponsor, Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.), said administration officials had endorsed its purposes.

Hill said this bill would help mobilize the world's top medical brains.

Much of the money would be used for grants for research in laboratories in this country and abroad; the achievements would be for the benefit of the entire world.

TOYLAND—The Toyland in its new home in Highland's Shopping Center is pictured above. A complete variety of toys of all types for all ages of children are included in the store. Along with several other businesses in the shopping center, the Toyland will have its formal opening tomorrow and Saturday.

Shopping Center's Formal Opening Is Scheduled Here

Six modern new stores are being formally opened this weekend in the Highland's Shopping Center on the Big Spring highway in south Snyder.

The new stores are located just north of the D&H Super Market opened earlier in the center.

The new stores are Roe's Appliance Store, Pittman Furniture and Floor Covering, S&H Green Stamp Store, Hillcrest Barber Shop and Toyland.

Roe's Appliance Store is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Roe who have operated the store here for the past 18 years, having established it at 2110 Avenue S, in a small building where it was located for nine years. Later it moved to 2207 Avenue S, where it has been located for the past nine years.

Roe's moved to the new Highland's Shopping Center location about two weeks ago and have a completely new stock of famous home appliances and merchandise.

Pittman's Furniture and Floor Covering store here is the third in the company's chain of stores. The home store is located in Sweetwater, and the other store is in Colorado City.

A complete line of fine home furnishings and carpet and floor coverings of all types will be handled by the firm.

Owners are Roy Pittman and Floy Pittman. Manager of the store here will be Bob Morris, an experienced member of the firm. Other personnel in the store will be Mrs. Dorothy Bonner, former manager of the Montgomery Ward Store here, Cecil Osborne, longtime resident of Snyder, and Aubrey Leonard.

Hillcrest Barber Shop is owned and operated by Dub Edwards, a barber in Snyder at the Derrick Barber Shop for several years. Associated with Edwards in the Hillcrest Barber Shop are Hugh Fairly and Alfred Rosson. Hillcrest Barber Shop, like other new stores in the Highland's Shopping Center, has all new equipment, and is completely modern.

The Toyland is another of the modern new stores in the center which is marking its formal opening tomorrow and Saturday.

The Toyland is owned by H. D. (Jake) Harmon, and is managed by Mrs. L. M. Harmon, Jake's mother. Assisting Mrs. Harmon and her son in operation of the Toyland is Nettie Crawford. The Toyland has thousands of toys of all types for all age children.

"We specialize in the traditionally popular toys, and the modernistic new toys of the space age," Harmon said.

The sixth new store in Highland's Shopping Center is the Sperry Hutchins Green Stamp Store. It is the redemption center for S&H Green Stamps for the Snyder area, and has a complete line of the firm's merchandise. The S&H Green Stamp store was formerly located adjacent to Piggly Wiggly Super Market on west Twenty-fifth Street.

Honor Student Tells Why He Had One B

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert Winn Jr., of Dallas, a senior at North Texas State College at Denton, got a $500 scholarship award yesterday by President Eisenhower. He had to explain the only B on his report card.

Winn's citation said his grades were not only near perfection but he was outstanding in extra curricular activities. His scholastic record showed 11 A's and one B.

"Just a minute," the President said. "What was the B for?"

Winn said he didn't have full time for his studies when he was campaigning for president of the NTSC student body and got a B in mathematics. He won the election.

Crosby Twins Are Not Much Alike

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Few twins are less alike than Phillip and Dennis Crosby, born four minutes apart 24 years ago.

Phillip Lang Crosby, the older, is a hearty, muscular young man with ruddy face and a crew-cut cottontop. He moves with the lumbering grace of a college football player, which he was at Washington State.

Dennis Michael Crosby is termed by his brothers the best natural athlete in the family, but he didn't have enough weight to play college football. Pale and sensitive looking, he is the shy one of the four. He also is the one with his father Bing's tendency to baldness, and he takes a ragging from his brothers about the toupees he wears for public appearances.

Different as they are in appearance and nature, the twins share one thing in common: domesticity. Both were wed to Las Vegas showgirls — Phil to Sandra Jo Drummond, Dennis to Pat Sheehan. Both have given Bing grandchildren. Dennis Michael Jr. was born in December; Phil's daughter Dixie Lee was born two weeks ago.

Unlike Gary and Lindsay, the twins seldom frequent Hollywood's night life. They entertain quietly in their homes. Phil lives in a handsome colonial house in Westwood, not far from the family mansion Bing now shares with his second wife, Kathryn Grant. Dennis has been living in Laurel Canyon, but is moving to a more sizable house with swimming pool in Brentwood. He has an adopted son, 7.

The twins followed Gary through grammar and prep schools but went to Washington State instead of Stanford. They went there for animal husbandry and agriculture courses because of Bing's wish for them to take over his big Elko, Nev., ranch. But they never made it. Why?
