

Gen. Von Horn Takes Over As Congo Threatens To Call Reds

By ANDREW BOROWICZ LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — Swedish Maj Gen. Carl von Horn today took command of U.N. military forces in the Congo as Congolese officials threatened to ask Soviet troops to intervene.

Von Horn and his staff arrived from Palestine. Troops for his force were already on hand from four African nations—Ghana, Tunisia, Morocco and Ethiopia—but most of the job of trying to restore order will fall on the 6,000 Belgian troops fanned out over the vast new central African nation.

The continued presence of the Belgian troops angered the Government of Premier Patrice Lumumba, and a Cabinet minister announced that the Soviet Union would be asked to send in troops unless Belgium withdrew her forces within three days.

The Congolese minister charged the U.N. force was not competent. The U.N. Security Council, prodded by the Soviet Union, is expected to meet Tuesday for a report on implementation of its resolution calling on Belgium to withdraw its troops from the Congo.

The Belgians had told the Council they would not pull back until the U.N. force could protect the thousands of European settlers in the former Belgian territory. At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters at Newport, R.I., White House press secretary James C. Hagerty declined comment on the threat to seek Soviet troops.

That situation the general Congo matter is before the United Nations," Hagerty said, "and whatever comment the United States will have will be made by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., chief of the U.S. delegation to the U.N."

At Leopoldville, confusion reigned in the temporary military headquarters set up in the airport control tower. No one was sure of the task of the newly arrived U.N. forces from four African nations.

Belgian paratroopers continued to occupy the airport, about 12 miles east of the city. Thousands patrolled Leopoldville's main streets. A 20-man unit from Ghana was sent to Stanleyville in Oriental province, where Lumumba and President Joseph Kasavubu have been for several days.

The premier, 34, did not deny the plan, and it was learned reliably his government already has drafted a telegram for sending to Moscow.

The Soviet Union approved the sending of a U.N. task force to restore order in the turbulent Congo but at the same time condemned "imperialist intervention in the African nations."

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev last week promised Congolese leaders "the necessary help which may be required for the victory of your cause."

Congolese leaders blamed the troubles in the country on the presence of Belgian troops, who showed no signs of withdrawing.

Even as Lumumba was conferring Sunday with Gen. Alexander, he got word that five planeloads of Belgian paratroops were dropped into Kindu, about 105 miles south of Stanleyville, to disarm Congolese troops in that river port on the banks of the Lualaba.

Demanding that something be done, Lumumba told the press: "That is a situation created in the Congo by Belgian troops." Actually the disorders commenced and the Belgians intervened when units of the Congo's army mutinied against their white Belgian officers.

Alexander brought only a token force of 30 Ghanaian troops with him. Dressed in British-type uniforms with black belts and carrying rifles, they got a smiling reception from Congolese soldiers at the airport. But the Congolese still ran the show.

Alexander flew to Stanleyville after Belgians in Leopoldville had told him they planned to drop paratroops in the city.

The general found Congolese patrols cruising the streets with rifles and machine guns mounted on vehicles, but otherwise the city appeared calm. Tension ran high, however, and white settlers showed fright.

After a six-hour visit, Alexander returned to Leopoldville, taking with him 17 English men, women and children. Embassy officials said missionaries in the Stanleyville area had decided to stay.

Pressure May Stem Cuba's Drift To Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuba's swing toward the Soviet Union appears to be slowing under pressure from its Latin American neighbors, diplomats said today.

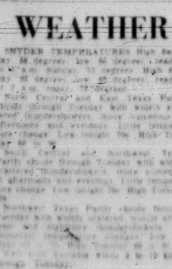

They pointed to a recent statement by a top Cuban official that the Cubans would fight any attempt to make their island a Soviet satellite. Cuba's apparent retreat from veiled threats against the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, and Havana's mild reaction to a proposed review of threats to Western Hemisphere unity.

The observations came as the Organization of American States prepared to give final approval by an overwhelming vote to a call for its foreign ministers to meet to consider resolutions which affirm hemisphere solidarity, the regional system, and democratic principles.

The 21-nation OAS Council meets at 4 p.m. to approve Peru's resolution for the ministerial meeting.

Diplomatic sources at the United Nations said another resolution dealing with Cuba's change to the Havana government that the United States is guilty of economic aggression may be relayed to the OAS.

U.N. representatives from Argentina and Ecuador were expected to propose the move today when the Security Council.

GIANT RUSSIAN TANKER ARRIVES — Two days late because of a Mediterranean collision with a Norwegian tanker, the huge Soviet tanker 'Peking' sailed into Havana Harbor with its bow crushed. HEADS FOR GOP CONVENTION Rockefeller Still A Rebel

By ROBERT T. GRAY CHICAGO (AP) — Gen. Nelson A. Rockefeller headed for the convention city today, at odds with fellow Republicans on several points including his refusal to second the nomination of Vice President Richard M. Nixon at the GOP National Convention.

Every current sign points to Nixon's nomination by acclamation at the convention, which opens July 25.

But Rockefeller, hailed by Republicans as a bright, new light in the party after his upset election victory in New York in 1958, has kept himself out of this mainstream of Republican activity.

Although agreeing that Nixon "for all practical purposes" is the nominee, Rockefeller has kept himself open to a draft. Some think his arrival today with a large corps of advisers and consultants marks the beginning of a last-ditch effort to win the nomination.

Rockefeller is chairman of the 96-vote New York convention delegation, which he has for 20 years held neutral. He may clarify his position today at a news conference, scheduled to be televised live in the East at 6:45 p.m. EDT.

Rockefeller appears Tuesday before a committee drafting the 1960 Republican platform. The committee, headed by Charles H. Percy, Chicago business executive, will organize Tuesday morning.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, Republican national chairman, and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona also will appear before the committee Tuesday. Rockefeller will urge the committee to adopt his views on subjects ranging from nuclear testing to medical care for the aged which he thinks should be handled through existing social security machinery.

On these and several other points he is in conflict with the national Republican administration. He has said much has been left undone in the fields of civil rights, national defense and foreign policy among others.

Rockefeller has refused consistently to endorse Nixon or accept second place has touched off GOP charges Rockefeller is a divisive influence in the party.

Candidates To Get Personal Briefing

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — An obstacle to President Eisenhower's supplying Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, with top-secret national security information appeared today to have been cleared in a hurry.

Through a spokesman, Eisenhower made it plain late Sunday that he was willing to make such confidential data available during the campaign to Kennedy and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, of Texas, on the one condition: That they—as well as the leaders of the Republican ticket—had to accept it personally and not through go-betweens.

Kennedy had indicated that he planned to have representatives accept it on his behalf.

A few hours after the president's terms were outlined to Kennedy and Johnson were accepting the Eisenhower condition, "I got briefed."

Kennedy previously had announced plans to have Adlai E. Stevenson and Rep. Chester Bowles (D Conn.) receive the confidential security information on his behalf.

Eisenhower's insistence on personal acceptance by the candidates was outlined at a news conference where White House press secretary James C. Hagerty reported these other developments.

At a two-hour Sunday meeting here, Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson discussed strategy for dealing with a Kennedy proposal to hike defense spending by up to three billion dollars. Kennedy, a few days before he was nominated last week said the increase should be voted when Congress reconvenes next month. The administration is against it on the grounds that enough defense money—almost 40 billion dollars—already has been appropriated for adequate security.

The conference between Eisenhower and Anderson also dealt with plans for checking other Democratic spending proposals, the administration, feels are unnecessary and postponed by seeking motives. The President plans, public expression of his views on this matter, about the time Congress reconvenes.

3. Eisenhower this week will issue a statement reporting the budget surplus for the fiscal year which ended June 30. A straight fund surplus to Washington, which projected the surplus at close to one billion dollars—five times as large as Eisenhower once predicted.

W. M. White Services Set

Willie Marion White died Saturday at 5:30 p.m. at his home in the Ganaway community near Hermleigh.

Born Oct. 16, 1891, in Kemper County, Mississippi, he came to Hermleigh in 1928.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ruth White, three sons, James of Hermleigh, Malcolm of Sisseton, and Charles of Pleasanton; two daughters, Mrs. Marvin Snow of Wolftrief and Mrs. W. E. Hardy of Mississippi; and one brother, Jimmy M. White Jr. of Dallas.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Central Baptist Church with Rev. Marvin Rogers officiating assisted by Rev. J. H. Skiles.

Burial will be in the Hermleigh Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Shows Fall In North Texas Area

By The Associated Press Thunderstorms hit portions of north central Texas early Monday and light showers activity continued in the hill country of southwest Texas.

The rains came on the heels of days and days of precipitation that dumped as much as 12 inches of moisture around Uvalde.

The 5th Armored Division of the Texas National Guard began its two-week summer training at Fort Hood Sunday and was greeted by a cloudburst which sent water rushing through one residential subdivision, causing damage, was reported here.

Lake Thomas Claims No. 11

An 11-year-old Coahoma boy drowned in Lake Thomas Sunday afternoon, bringing to 11 the number of people who have drowned in the lake since it was opened.

David L. Knox, son of Rev. and Mrs. David N. Knox of Coahoma, drowned on the southside of the lake near the Sportsman's Paradise Fishing Camp, according to Big Spring authorities.

Witnesses told Justice of the Peace W. C. Davidson the boy had stepped in an underwater hole while wading in apparently shallow water and that he had been pulled from the water within five minutes from the time he went under. They also said that the boy had not come up once.

David was born Nov. 2, 1948, in Okla. He is survived by his parents; three sisters, Nancy Marie of Coahoma, Ida Mae of Lubbock and Mrs. Mary Alice Lowrey of San Antonio; and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. L. R. Forsythe of Danville, Ark.

Funeral services are pending at the Nalley-Pickie Funeral Home in Big Spring.

Bids Asked On Paving

The Scurry County Commissioners Court this morning voted to advertise for bids on a new paving project and postponed selling the steel in the old Twenty-sixth Street bridge over Deep Creek until this afternoon.

Showers Fall In West Scurry Area

A brief thunder shower swept through the west part of Scurry County late Sunday.

Only a trace of moisture was noted at Snyder, but a few drops fell in the rain side of the city. Heavy showers fell between Snyder and Lake J. B. Thomas, but no rain of consequence was reported at the Snyder pump station on one track.

Triumphant Kennedy Seeking Seclusion

HYANNISPORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Joseph P. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, is seeking seclusion in his home here after an overwhelming welcome that almost brought tears to his eyes.

Kennedy flew back Sunday night from Los Angeles, where he had spent the last few days of his national campaign. He was met by his wife, Jacqueline, and his children, and taken full control of the national Democratic machinery.

The trip was a gay but tiring one. Kennedy was accompanied by his wife and children, and a large contingent of supporters. He was met by a large crowd of people at the airport.

Olgivana Wright To Be Guest Speaker At Mart

SAN FRANCISCO—Olgivana Lloyd Wright, widow of the late Frank Lloyd Wright, dean of American architects, will speak at the Market Week luncheon given by the National Home Furnishings League and the Western Merchandise Mart, Wednesday, July 27, in the Phoenix Room of the Mart.

Mrs. Wright, noted as author, lecturer, columnist, and teacher of philosophy, will speak about the "Influence of art's surroundings" to the audience of retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers, decorators, architects and others related to the home furnishings and building industries.

She is well qualified to address this subject. Along with her brilliant husband, Olgivana Lloyd Wright helped establish the celebrated Taliesin Fellowship in Wisconsin, in 1932, eventually followed by Taliesin West in Arizona. Since Wright's death in April of 1959 she has become executive head of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation. The organization continues as a unique educational institution, and provides architectural services throughout the world. Offices are located in Spring Green, Wisconsin; Taliesin, a Scottsdale, Arizona; Taliesin West; Honolulu, and here in San Francisco.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Bateman, 201 Craig Drive, and the future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Glass, 510 Thirty-third Street, Snyder.

The tea table was laid with orchid net over white taffeta and centered with a long, low arrangement of orchid stock and white gladioli. Suspended directed above the floral piece was a decorated bird cage with orchid love birds holding small plaques in their beaks with the names, "Nancy" and "Robbie". The wedding date, August 20, was nestled in the floral arrangement.

Orchid tapers in the background provided soft lighting for the setting.

Miss Carol Williams and Miss Jeannette Walker registered the guests in the bride's book and other members of the house party were: Mmes. C. D. Hallmark, J. M. Glass, Tom Davis Evans, Neal Heath, Alton Tompkins, Charlie Smith, Thomas E. Combs, A. B. Sterling, Thomas Simmons, John W. Key Sr. and Misses Margaret Nell Rogers, Betty Kittles and Shirley Quick of Palestine.

The marriage vows are to be exchanged on Saturday, August 20, in the First Baptist Church in Athens with the Rev. Lee Rainsour officiating.

Miss Bateman is a graduate of Athens High School and attended Henderson County Junior College where she was elected "Miss Future Teacher" and was a member of the band and Kappa Alpha Pi sorority. She received her degree in January from Stephen F. Austin State College where she was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary society in education.

Mr. Glass is a graduate of Snyder High School and will receive his degree from North Texas State College in Denton next spring.

Approximately 200 guests called during the receiving hours of 4 to 6 o'clock.

Exhaust Fans
 If your range is located on an outside wall, a good place for an exhaust fan is 12 inches above the cooktop. This eliminates the need for duct work in your kitchen. A fan can also be placed above the burners, in the ceiling. However, this requires duct work to the outside. The use of a hood will increase the efficiency of the exhaust fan in either position.

They're Not Just Whistling Dixie

By W. G. ROGERS
 ADVANCE—NEW YORK, June 16 (AP)—The big boom is music. It's the recorder—not the tape recorder, but the ancient instrument that's cousin to flageolet, penny whistle, and flute, with eight stop holes for finger tips, and one at the end to blow in. They range from soprano to bass, or from something you could tuck in your pocket, like a pencil, to something the size of a walking stick.

La Noue Davenport, a jazz playing Texan who switched from trumpet to recorder and is now president of the American Recorder Society, says more recorders are sold than any other music instrument—in his own family he must have at least four for himself, wife and their two sons.

Davenport and the Society have other astonishing figures about the recorder's phenomenal rise to popularity. Ten years ago this city could boast one player of stature, and a handful of amateurs; now it has a big handful of masters, and an estimated 75,000 to 100,000 amateurs.

New Yorkers in this season alone could have heard perhaps 100 concerts, and there were others in Austin, Tex., Chicago, Cooperstown, N. Y., Kansas City, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Wichita, Kans., Baltimore, San Diego and Santa Barbara, Calif., and certainly scores of other cities.

In 1940 there were 1,000 recorders sold, now it's one million a year. The recorder sound, Davenport says, is produced exactly like that in the organ pipe. Except for a flute, it's regarded as the instrumental sound closest to the human voice; pitch is adjustable; intensity varies; it is always of one magnitude, with no change loud or soft.

Davenport, just before he left for Europe on an ANTA tour with Pro Musica players, explained some reasons for the recorder's popularity.

"It is said to be easy to play. That's true, though only in a special sense. Its enormous advantage for the amateur is that he doesn't need to train up a particular set of muscles—a flute player, for instance, must begin with only five minutes of practice at a time. At his first try, too, the recorder amazes him. The instrument is inexpensive, from $10 to maybe $35 normally, whereas an oboe can cost $500.

"At first sight it is not an overpowering challenge, such as a piano.

"It has a fine repertory to draw on. Bach, Handel, Scarlatti, Vivaldi, and among modern composers, Britten, Hindemith, Persichetti, Bartok, and some compositions of my own and also of Erich Katz, who was the Recorder Society's music director from 1946 to 1958."

The Society (headquarters 114 E. 85th St., New York) publishes music and a quarterly called American Recorder. Founded in 1939 by Suzanne Black, daughter of composer Ernest Bloch, it has 16 chapters and 7,500 members, some in foreign countries, and there are comparable societies in England, New Zealand, Australia and elsewhere.

Arnold Dolmetsch, in Haslemere, England, was influential in 2ND AD SOC. THEY'RE 2 COL. 36 arousing interest in the recorder, as well as other ancient instruments, at the start of this century, and he visited this country in 1902. At Haslemere his son Carl, who also has been in the States, continues work with recorders.

Among Society members heard at a seasonal wind-up concert here were Davenport, Martha Buxler, Marjorie Forsberg, Bernard Krainin, Shelly Gruskin, Friedrich von Huene and Frieder Eggers. More than 200 persons attended, listened raptly and applauded warmly. It was sort of a family party where friends met friends, and resembled rather a college student audience than the groups usually seen in Carnegie Recital Hall. But as an indication that Pro Musica players may be more fun to play than to listen to, another group attracted the smallest audience this concert-goer ever saw to a Town Hall program in May.

Unpopular Foods
 Instead of discussing unpopular foods and beverages, we suggest that "compensation or reward foods" be included in the same menu. For instance, if the family doesn't like spinach, serve it as attractively as you possibly can. If your family likes hot bread, add a hot, buttered, crisp, fried chicken. Include at least one of their favorites in the menu, with the spinach and you'll reduce complaints. Garnishes such as slices of hard-cooked egg, slices of ham and pieces of bacon will give many vegetable dishes without discussing them.

TUMS
 These are made of the finest U.S.P. ingredients. A perfectly balanced formula of pharmaceuticals that leads to a healthy state. There's a void of peace and quiet in a little soft pill. Time so make a mental note to pick up a package of Tums today. You'll be glad you did!

Minnesota's Golden Voice Perks Up Drab Convention

By INEZ ROBB
The moments of grandeur attained by the Democratic party in Los Angeles can be counted on the joints of one finger. But that one moment revealed to the Democratic party at large and to the nation that both are in surprised possession of a gifted speaker blessed with intellect and a talent for the English language.

He is Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, junior Senator from Minnesota. The speech in which he placed the name of Adlai Stevenson before the convention was a jewel in a wasteland of nominating oratory that ranged from indifferent to bad.

McCarthy's brilliant 10-minute speech, which was by no means the turning point in the life of his candidate, may well be so in the life of the Senator. It gave him a national platform before a nationwide audience. It could be the first step in making him a national figure. It is inconceivable that the party, having stumbled upon such an able and stirring speaker, will not make wide use of him in the years ahead.

Despite the fact his candidate didn't have a ghost of a show, McCarthy's speech was the only one that lifted the noisy, impatient audience out of itself and the first to which it paid any attention. The Senator is a man of quiet eloquence rather than a breath-beater or a scorch-chewer.

In 1944, the Democratic party would do well to look to him as its keynoter. The Senator is in the new, young, look-age group too. At 44, he is only one year older than the party's nominee. A former school teacher and later a professor of economics and education at St. John's University, he served in the military intelligence division of the U. S. Army during World War II.

The Senator who lifted the crowd out of its lethargy on the Night of the Long Tongues, or that of the nominating speeches.

is a former member of the Farmer-Labor party, served five years in the House as a Democratic Congressman and was elected to the Senate in November.

It is my hunch that even some of the Democratic party bigwigs didn't realize what an eloquent and forceful speaker it was entertaining unaware until McCarthy's convention speech.

Some sage once said that man never speaks so eloquently as in a lost cause. But that cannot account for all the fire in McCarthy, or in former Gov. Herbert Lehman, 92, of New York, who with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, seconded Mr. Stevenson's nomination.

In the Democratic party, the old guard doesn't fade away, much less die. And when it goes down to defeat, it indicates to be a righteous cause, it goes down with guns firing and all flags flying.

Just to mix metaphors, those who watched Mrs. Roosevelt and Lehman, leader of the anti-Tammany faction in New York, man the barricades for Stevenson, must surely have been filled with awe and admiration for two senior citizens who took on all comers at that youth rally.

The convention overwhelmingly rejected their candidate, but the old spontaneous spark of life kindled in that cut-and-dried convention was provided by any appearance of Mrs. Roosevelt at the Sports Arena and by Stevenson's first appearance, when it seemed that he would surely be killed with affectionate admiration if not votes.

As for Lehman, when this old man has completely bald head glistering under the Kluges, rose to speak, he electrified the audience. This was no quavering pantaloon. His voice strong, position and fiery, filled that vast arena and literally made the rafters ring. It could have been the voice and delivery of a man 50 years his junior.

And it was to Mrs. Roosevelt, now in her mid-70's, that LeRoy Collins, permanent chairman of the convention, appealed to quiet the unruly mob of delegates and demonstrators on the floor of the convention. He had great difficulty all evening in keeping the mob in a semblance of order.

But when Mrs. Roosevelt, at Collins' urging, told the crowd, in her high-pitched, crows-in-the-aisles-by-golly, it did.

Tough Campaign Already Started

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—The 1960 presidential campaign will be the roughest and toughest in years. It has already started that way.

In his acceptance speech Friday night Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic Presidential candidate, could have been strictly noble, leaving the gunplay till later.

Instead, he fired the first speech of his campaign to make a savage attack on Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who almost certainly will get the Republican presidential nomination next week.

It was like deliberately warning Nixon he was in for a bad time. Kennedy, who acts cool, is a tough young man as he showed in his determined and successful effort to get the Democratic nomination.

His attack on Nixon was a shocker to newsmen who are used to the antics and tactics of politicians, not because it happened, since that was to be expected some time, but because it happened so early in the campaign. Nixon himself knows what playing rough means. He has played so rough in the past that some Democrats, and none more than former President Truman, despise him.

Then there's Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's running mate for the vice presidency. Johnson is no patsy, either. He got rough on Kennedy—some people thought too rough—before the Massachusetts senator beat him for the No. 1 place on the ticket.

Uncle Sam Is Nudging His Nephews

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam keeps nudging this or that nephew a nudge toward getting more business done one day by trying to make money a bit easier for corporate or government borrowers. The next day he is trying to get home building to start up at a little faster pace.

The federal agencies involved point out that this is far short of pump priming. They also deny that their aim is to head off a recession, which they insist isn't in sight.

And those who manage the nation's money supply and availability shy clear of any involvement in the political debate over how fast the economy should grow—a debate that seems sure to do some growing itself before November.

But whether the nudges to the economy are negative in the sense of merely easing financial pinching here and there, or positive in the sense of getting business on a definite upturn again, the nudges come along fairly regularly.

In the banking field they are mostly attempts to give commercial banks more money to lend business. The Federal Reserve lowered its charges on loans to member banks. From time to time it buys U. S. securities in the open market to increase bank deposits so that more money can be lent. (Unused as yet is the Federal Reserve Board's power to lower the amount of reserves member banks must keep with it.)

The banks insist the effects so far have been scarcely noticeable in their case. They haven't much more, if any, money to lend. But the Federal Reserve's lending to provide easier money is there for all to see. And short term interest rates have generally turned lower.

In the home building field federal agencies have eased up on credit terms and tried to make home mortgages more attractive to investors. The aim is to pep up building and home buying which have been running behind year ago figures.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board puts outstanding mortgage loans at around $13 billion dollars. But home builders complained that tight money last year and early this year made it hard to find more money for new mortgages, and thus cramped further building.

Top Heavies Clash Tonight In Denver

Sonny Liston, a knockout puncher who has created quite a noise in the heavyweight division, faces his toughest test tonight in Denver when he takes on clever Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz. in a 12-round match.

Liston, ranked No. 1 challenger to Champion Floyd Patterson by the National Boxing Assn. and Ring, could force his way into the title picture with an impressive victory. Patterson is obligated by contract to give Ingemar Johansson another chance to his next defense.

Folley, of course, could throw his way into the middle of things if he could whip Liston. The skillful boxer from Arizona is ranked No. 2 by Ring and No. 3 by the NBA which ranks Johansson No. 2.

The fight will not be seen on TV. The only TV show of the week comes from Chicago Stadium where light heavyweight Sonny Ray of Chicago and Billy Ryan of Boston tangled Wednesday night on ABC-TV.

Ray has a 19-10-6 record with seven knockouts. He lost to Willie Pastrano and drew with Alvin Johnson this year. Ryan has a 23-3-2 record with 17 knockouts.

Leonard Slips By Wall; Wins Open

Associated Press Sports Writer DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Star Leonard has been playing so badly that he almost canceled his entry in the Western Open. When he showed up, he said that the "last thing in my mind is winning."

But Leonard won, nevertheless, and won over golf's hottest player, and one of the game's most successful blue-chip performers.

The halving, Canadian, 45, who had to wait until he was 40 before he could afford to join the professional tour, defeated Art Wall Jr. on the first extra hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday.

Leonard won it with a six-foot birdie putt after Wall had just missed an eight-footer. They tied at 18-under-par-278 after 72 holes.

It took a sensational stretch run by Leonard and a stunning slump by Wall to force the playoff. Wall former Masters champion had not been over par in his last 10 rounds.

His 204 total after 54 holes—helped out by a record-breaking 66 in the second round—gave him a four stroke lead. Leonard was tied with five others, six shots back.

Leonard started rolling in birdie putts, and Wall kept slipping. Leonard caught him at 15 with a birdie. He Wall went one up at 16 with his only hole-in-one. He Wall lost it on the 18th, his six-foot putt rimming the cup for a bogie-in-line he had been in a trap with his second shot.

Most of the crowd of about 25,000 rimmed the green. Leonard, who had only two previous wins in this country, was leaning against a rail.

25-girl squad, determined in final trials here Saturday night, have moved on Emporia, Kan., for the 28-day training period at Kansas' State Teachers College. Officials predict Wilma Rudolph of Tennessee State will win both the 100-meter and 200-meter sprints at Rome next month.

The 400-meter relay team hopes to add another gold medal, and discus throwers Earlene Brown and Olga Connolly may finish one-two in the opinion of Coach Ed Temple of Tennessee State.

Mrs. Connolly, from Santa Monica, Calif., and Mrs. Karen Oldham, from San Diego, the top javelin thrower, won't report to the camp until Aug. 5. They have to go home to see about their children.

In 1952, American women won five events in the Olympics, with Babe Didrikson taking two of the gold medals. Since then, however, the United States never has managed more than two in a single Olympics.

Miss Rudolph won the 100 meters here in 11.5 and the 200 meters in 23.9 without being pressed. Teammates Barbara Jones, Martha Hudson and Lucinda Williams were second, third and fourth in the 100 meters and the four will make up the 400-meter relay team.

The two cripplers—Mrs. Brown, the Los Angeles weight star, and Willye B. White of Chicago—were stars of the trials because they came through with sparkling performances despite their ailments.

Mrs. Brown, with three sprained fingers that kept her from gripping the shot tightly, won the discus throw with 176 feet, 10 1/2 inches, and the shot with 38.19 m. Miss White took one leap and one only won the broad jump, but set an American record with 20-4 1/2. She didn't jump again because of a leg injury.

foot putt rimming the cup for a bogie-in-line he had been in a trap with his second shot.

Most of the crowd of about 25,000 rimmed the green. Leonard, who had only two previous wins in this country, was leaning against a rail.

"It was watching—and dying"—said Leonard.

Wall finished with 74, 2 over par at Western Golf and Country Club's 6,800-yard layout. Leonard, who got in only nine holes of practice here before the $25,000 tournament began, closed with 69.

Leonard's $5,000 triumph was his first on the U.S. circuit since April, 1958, when he won the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions. Wall collected $2,500 for second.

"I've been playing so badly I almost didn't come down here," said Leonard. "I was on the verge of playing well in the Canadian Open, but I couldn't drop a putt. I guess I was saving them all for this one."

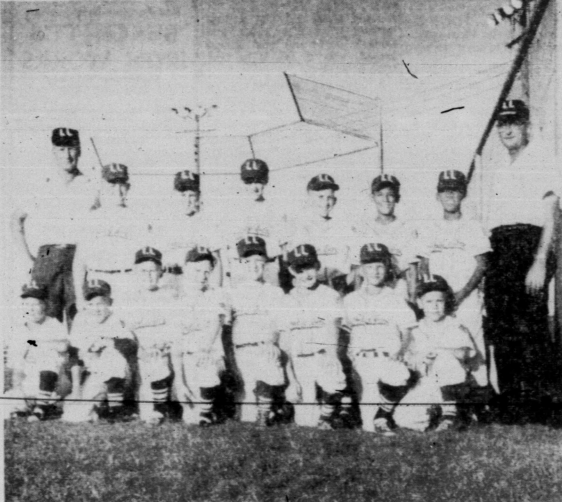

Doug Sanders and Gene Littler finished in a tie for third, one stroke behind Leonard and Wall at 279. Each won $1,750.

Walter Hayer, eighth-place, defending champion, Mike Souchak were another stroke back at 280.

Eddie Arcaro had won the Coaching Club American Oaks 3-year-old filly race twice. He covered with Hec and with Red. Delight in 1955.

CO-CHAMPIONS—The Little League Indians, although dealt a loss in their final game of the season, nevertheless had won enough previously to end the season with a 12-6 record and earn the co-championship of the loop. WHEW!—It was an uphill battle, but the above Little League White Sox proved their mettle here Saturday by winning their final game of the season and thus gaining championship status with the Indians in that League. ## AS REDMEN FALTER, SOX SURGE

White Sox And Indians Declared Co-Champions

The American Little League race went right down to the wire—and stayed there. The Indians—a game out in front going into Saturday's final double header—took it on the chin by getting

Britt Patey's big hit and Johnny Goano's steady four-run mound effort combined to enable the Sox to bounce the Yanks in their double contest. Patey, slotted as three-run homer in the first inning, then followed up with a two-run doubleheader in the fourth. Those were the two big blows as racked up by the Sox in their 10-bil assault on Thomas Newman all-though Mack Goleyon also aided the cause, with a double and a single.

Other Sox stickmen who contributed in a large part to the effort were Marvin Mayfield and Kenny Haskell, who singled twice apiece.

The Yanks had their moments of glory with Ranger Brewer leading himself as "rip hand" by slugging a bases-empty four-bagger in the first frame. Team mate Ted Wyster accounted for two of the Yanks' eight strikeouts, doubling and singling in three trips.

Goano whiffed seven and walked one in his opening effort on the hill while Newman fanned 11 and relinquished 16h. Sixties 20 six.

Clancy saved the Sox for the Pirates with his contribution to Ken Cal. McClain; Don Newcombe was chased by an umpire before he threw a pitch. Newark became involved in a dispute about a long ball left alive on his second out, to which the Pirates objected.

Dick Grant had seven hits in the doubleheader four in the first game and three when Vern Law lost to Bob Parkay.

Berrier Cuts Down Indians In the course of the week, the Athletics' young up-and-comer the Indian Super Probie Berrier was the mound MVP. Berrier was a maddeningly precise pitcher, 32 of which were singles. Richard Christian responded by being the batter's loss.

Chicago moved up in the American League race when both New York and Cleveland, running one-two, dropped doubleheaders. Detroit shipped the Yanks 12-2 and 3-2 and Washington took two from Cleveland 3-2 and 5-3. Chicago moved into third place with two victories out of five by beating Baltimore 2-1 and 1-0. Tom Bress' first home run of the year helped Boston win its seventh straight, 4-1 over Kansas City.

Los Angeles' first home run of the season came in the 11th of the year. The Cards shared Dick Ellsworth in the fifth when they scored five runs. Rookie Julian Javier drove in two with a single and Ken Boyer tripled with the bases loaded. Bill White hit home run No. 10. Sadecki completed the job on the Cubs, who scored a total of two runs in their four-game series at St. Louis. Musial's hits were the big noise, but White had a double and single to drive in two in the defeat of Bob Anderson.

Eddie Mathews' hit his 10th home run and Lew Burdette again hit for Milwaukee as Lou Gran-dall, who had a perfect four-hit night Saturday, ran his string to seven with three singles.

Hales Hamstrings Cards

Randy Hales ace southpaw for the Little League Braves, capped off the regular season in stellar fashion here Saturday by pitching his way to a 1-0 no-hit triumph over the league champion Cardinals.

In stifling the vaunted Cardinals, Hales faced only 24 batters in his six frame mound job, three bases on balls marring an otherwise perfect effort. He also struck out nine of his Redbird opponents, methodically setting at least one down on strikes in every inning.

His mates picked up only three hits off the deliveries of Ray Kiser and Kenneth Dieke—singled by David Holl, Roy Taylor, and Whit Boren—but managed to plaster their sole marker in the third frame without the aid of a bat knock, which proved to be the deciding margin of difference.

It is a simple truth that rural electrification has been the most important program inaugurated during the past quarter century for the rural areas of Texas—and America. And as the nation celebrates the joining of the fiftieth state to our Union, the Electric Cooperatives of Texas pay homage to the democratic principles which fostered the birth and growth of rural electrification.

Our rural areas, once deaf to the hum of electric energy and blind to the marvels it produced, are now ablaze with the efficient dependable electric services provided by electric cooperatives.

With pride in the past and confidence in the future, the Electric Cooperatives of Texas truly provide Partnership Power for Progress!

Party For B47 Crew Under Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — British and American intelligence agents have been investigating a party thrown by the crew of the RB47 American reconnaissance plane the night before it was shot down.

The party was at the picturesque 18th century inn, the Elephant and Castle, in the village of Brampton-in-the-Bush, besides the Thames.

There were reports that ever since the Soviet Union announced shooting down the RB47, U. S. intelligence agents have wondered if Soviet spies in Britain got word of the flight.

If they did Arthur Scott-Norman, is the innkeeper, said he is satisfied it didn't happen in his bar.

"You can take it from me they were not merry or anything like that," he said. "They were as discreet as ever, not saying a word about where they were going."

Beside the six crewmen of the RB47, the wives of two of them were in the party. The innkeeper and four members of his staff joined them at dinner. Four of the airmen signed the visitors' book.

He said that the airmen had planned another celebration party for the night of July 2. "When we've done our jobs."

They didn't return. Four of the crewmen, the Soviet Union reported, were dead. The other two were being held.

The United States, backed by Britain, claims the RB47 was shot down over the high seas. This heightened speculation that the plane's mission was more than a chance of coincidence. The Soviet Union claimed the plane intruded into Soviet air space.

Ikeda Faces Tough Task In Japan

whimpering approval of two Socialist opponents in both houses of Parliament to succeed Nobusuke Kishi, who stepped out after 3 1/2 years in office. Kishi is recovering from leg-stab wounds inflicted by a rightist assassin July 14.

Ikeda began selecting his Cabinet for installation within a few days.

A continuation of pro-Western policies through alliance with America is assured, although the government is expected to be short-lived. New nationwide parliamentary elections are planned this fall.

Ikeda's election never was in doubt. The Liberal-Democratic party, which has sizable majorities in both houses of Parliament, chose him last week to succeed Kishi as party president. The majority party president traditionally leads the government.

Ikeda, trade and industry minister in Kishi's Cabinet, has pledged to restore Japan's international prestige damaged by left-wing riots in May and June, and to pursue a "soft" policy of negotiation with the Socialist party.

But battle lines are already drawn for a bloody clash—possibly Tuesday—between 13,000 police and 30,000 to 100,000 striking workers. Communists and radical students are in a pitched battle behind barbed wire at the Mike Coal Mine in Kyushu.

A showdown appeared to be shaping up between the authority of police, trying to enforce a court injunction to clear out the strikers, and the same rebellious forces that kept Japan in turmoil with violent demonstrations against the U.S.-Japanese security treaty.

ACCORDING TO ACCOUNTING, you enter that figure right here—that seems to be what Kenneth Baker, owner of Baker Accounting Service Building on the northwest corner of the square, is telling brother Ronnie who is getting a little practical experience in the field of accounting this summer. Ronnie Baker is a junior student at the University of Texas majoring in accounting.

Baker Accounting Service Eases Bookkeeping Headache

If you shudder everytime you think of making a monthly report, a payroll tax or other reports concerning the bookkeeping end of your business and if your report system seems to always be leaving you worn out, don't tussle with them any longer. Look around for a helping hand.

Why bother with the headache and worry of endless reports when there is a remedy as close as there is a building on the northwest corner of the square?

Take the headache out of your bookkeeping by taking your problems to Kenneth Baker of Baker Accounting Service.

First Scouts To Jamboree Grounds

By SANKY TRIMBLE
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—First contingents of U.S. and world Boy Scout units move into Colorado today for the Golden Jubilee Jamboree.

By Thursday night there will be 55,000 youngsters on hand for seven days of fun, frolic and fraternalization. Every state and almost 70 foreign countries will be represented.

The first crew officially due to arrive at the 2,400-acre site near this Colorado resort center are 120 boys from Ridgefield, Conn., arriving by chartered airplane at mid-afternoon today. Several units arrive later in the day by bus.

More than 11,000 boys and their leaders move into the camp area Tuesday via train and special plane, with others showing up by bus. The jamboree officially opens Friday and breaks up with a gigantic outdoor ceremony Thursday, July 28.

Many of the early arriving units will set up their two-man tents, establish camp, and head for the hills in a sight-seeing tour until the jamboree begins officially. Others will remain after the camp ends to make tours of historic areas in the West.

As the first units peered their campsite in the shadow of historic Pikes Peak, everything was ready for the creation of Colorado's fourth largest city—temporarily. More than 3,500 service tents already are up. Many of the adult leaders and national and world scout leaders are on hand. Paid services—guaranteed to handle more than a million pieces of mail during the jamboree period—started over the weekend. Trading

Widow Of DeMille Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Constance De Mille, 87, widow of producer-director Cecil B. De Mille, died of pneumonia Sunday night in the mansion he built for her in 1916.

She had been in poor health for several years and was ill when De Mille died of a heart attack on Jan. 21, 1935, that the news was withheld from her for several days.

De Mille, born in East Orange, N.J., was the daughter of a Unitarian minister and the New Jersey state court of Essex and Apprais. When the bill completed his obligations, he then sought to pay her taxes, to seek a divorce on the spot.

Record National Output Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National output and income for 1960 should reach record levels, the government says in a new forecast.

The estimates announced Monday say that the nation's gross national product will reach $425 billion, a record, and that the national income will reach $300 billion.

Junior Editors Quiz on PLACES

QUESTION: For what is the Black Forest in Germany noted?

ANSWER: The Black Forest of Germany is the scene of many ancient German legends and fairy tales. It is noted for its mineral springs and there are many health resorts located near these springs. The forest covers part of the German states of Baden and Wurttemberg and the Rhine River flows past it for a distance of about 85 miles. Located in the mountain district of southwestern Germany, it is an area of small villages. Its name comes from its many dark fir trees. Perhaps one reason it is so well known is from the products of its villagers who have been many of their old customs and traditions. The people make wooden toys, cuckoo clocks and musical instruments which have been shipped all over the world. Here some children are seen looking through the window of such a village shop.

FOR YOU TO DO: If you are in a toy store or a jeweler's shop see if you can find any toys or clocks that were made in the Black Forest.

Maureen Schreiber of Elizabeth, N. J., won $10 for this question. Mail your question on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, Ad Newfeatures, in care of this newspaper. If duplicate questions are received, Mrs. Higgins will select the winner.

Wheat Vote Set Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wheat farmers will decide in a referendum Thursday whether they want to continue the present wheat price support program for the 1961 crop.

If marketing quotas for the 1961 crop are approved by the needed two-thirds majority, government controls will continue. Farmers who comply with their acreage allotments will be eligible for price supports of $1.78 a bushel, or 75 per cent of parity.

However, if the wheat farmers vote down quotas, price supports would drop to 50 per cent of parity for those growers who comply with allotments. But farmers who plant beyond their allotments would receive no price supports.

It is generally predicted by agriculture department officials and representatives of farm organizations that wheat will be approved for the 1961 wheat crop. If quotas are approved, all farmers in commercial wheat states with more than 15 acres of wheat who exceed their acreage allotments will be subject to penalties on the excess acreage.

Efforts in Congress to write new legislation affecting the 1961 wheat crop failed earlier this year. The Senate voted for a bill to hold the support level at 57 per cent of parity and cut the acreage 50 per cent. But the House rejected this and a bill of its own to raise the levels to 85 per cent of parity and reduce acreage by 25 per cent.

No Objection To Johnson

NEW YORK (AP)—Roy W. King, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, indicated Sunday night he doesn't object to Sen. Lyndon Johnson as a presidential nominee.

He added that while the idea of a Texan as vice president "takes a bit of getting used to," Johnson can get things done.

"Mr. Johnson is from Texas and is a good majority leader," said Wilkins on a television program.

Although no special friend of civil rights, Johnson generally speaking, and I think personally it is fair to say that Sen. Johnson himself doesn't have any personal prejudices.

He may not do as much as I would wish, but he has observed, but he'll get something done. Just as I got through a civil rights bill, which I thought was just about that big, but he'll get it through."

Accidents On Roads Claim 11 In Texas

By The Associated Press

Eleven accidents killed 31 persons in Texas during the week-end and other violence claimed another 10 lives.

The Associated Press violent death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended midnight Sunday.

An unidentified man died in the flaming wreckage of his car in Dallas late Sunday night. Police said positive identification probably would not be made until Tuesday. Two persons were injured in the two-car collision.

Noberty Arrendono died and Elias Garcia was injured Sunday night in a two-car collision south of McAllen. Both were from McAllen.

Jack Raymond Weaver, 35, was shot and killed early Sunday by a Houston service station manager who said Weaver robbed him. Police said Weaver was shot in the back of the head. They reported recovering about $150 which station manager Lloyd Stegell said Weaver took at gun point.

James Quimby, 40, was charged with murder Sunday in the shooting death Saturday at Houston of Dillard Childress, 33.

Willie Gibbs, about 50, a Paris Negro was killed Sunday in a car collision east of Paris on U.S. 82.

David Knox, 12, of Coahoma, drowned when he stepped into deep water at lake J. B. Thomas, about 40 miles northeast of Big Spring, Sunday.

Hilario Reyes, 16, of Kenedy, died Sunday when the car in which he was riding overturned near Kenedy.

Arthur Johnson, of Brownwood, died Sunday when his car and a pickup truck collided just east of Brownwood.

Arthur Edwards, 20, of Pasadena, was killed Sunday in a three-car crash on U.S. 75 a mile north of Galveston.

Staff Sgt. William Garrett of Clinton-Sherman Air Force Base, Okla., was shot to death Sunday in a northwest Fort Worth motel.

Robert Atkins, 21, of El Paso, died Sunday while working at the Phelps-Dodge plant in El Paso. Atkins brushed against a 440-volt power line and fell 30 feet from a traveling scaffold.

49th Begins Its Training

DALLAS (AP) — The 49th Armored Division of the Texas Army National Guard, quickly went to work today as its commanding general predicted a very intensive and successful 2-week training period.

Half of the division's unit worked on tactical problems in the field. The other half concentrated on weapons firing proficiency tests. The units will switch training schedules next week.

Heavy rains greeted the 10,000 members of the division as they arrived in camp Sunday.

A cloudburst after lunch sent water coursing through the mess hall of the 24th Quartermasters Battalion, whose home base is in Austin.

"A few tents in the division area fell but no appreciable damage was reported, said Maj. Gen. John Thompson Jr., division commander.

Alger Speaks In Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Rep. Bruce Alger of Dallas, Texas' only Republican congressman, speaks at a Republican fund raising dinner tonight.

Sunday Alger said the Democratic conservatives "capitalized on radical forces of the East and North" at the Democratic National Convention.

He predicted Texas conservatives of both parties will support the Republican presidential and vice presidential nominees.

He called the Democratic platform an "unconstitutional conspiracy to impose totalitarian control and regulation of our lives."

John James Trial Opens

WACO — AP — John James, 36, once on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals, was called for trial today charged with slaying an elderly customer in a Waco supermarket.

James, captured June 11 during a hijacking in Los Angeles, is charged with shooting John Blackford, 69.

Lonnie Lavon James, 22, a brother, is serving a 99-year sentence for his part in the slaying. Blackford attempted to halt the supermarket robbery Jan. 26.

John James has admitted armed robberies in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri and Ohio. Officers said his associates have described him as "one of the meanest men in Texas." When captured, he was armed with a .38-caliber revolver.
