W. D. McFarlane In Harmony On FDR Recovery Program

FELLOW CITIZENS OF THE THIRTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

I am leaving for Washington December 27th to aid the President in his effort to keep economic recovery on the upward trend. We will succeed, we must succeed. Our people, and the country, will not take a backward step, or suffer reactionaries to wreck our nation. I am heart and soul with the President in his efforts to restore economic recovery. We must all do our part. You will not permit chiselers and reactionaries, who have nothing but stale criticism, to succeed and thwart the honest and valiant efforts that are looking toward the betterment of conditions.

I have faithfully carried out my campaign promises of last year, and, at the proper time, will fully state my position on all legislative questions now pending. I am a candidate for re-election to Congress for a second term, based on my record of service rendered and will greatly appreciate the efforts of my friends in my behalf, which I am persuaded is in behalf of efficient government.

Some of those who opposed me two years ago may do so again. Reactionaries prefer to leave things as they are and can see little merit in progressive measures. It is their mode of thought.

In the fight for economic recovery, adjustments will, no doubt, be made in some of the measures heretofore adopted. In any readjustments, I will follow the President insofar as possible, keeping in mind the motto: "Equal rights to all; special privileges to none." You will always find me working for the rights of the masses, trying to relieve the tax burdens; better economic conditions; restore employment; open foreign markets and promote the general welfare of the nation.

In the aid of this battle, I ask your wholehearted support.

EXPANSION PROGRAM

Of the 1460 farm families in Knox County, a total of 1268 or 87 percent have been reached by some phase of extension work, either by the agent, through personal visits, office or telephone calls, special demonstrations, club demonstrations or letters by the Expansion committees of the County Council and the 10 organized clubs. Each community in the county had been reached either with the girl's club, women's club or special demonstration.

KNOX CO. CLUB MEMBERS TAKE PART MANY EVENTS IN COUNTY-DIST-STATE

The Knox County Home Demonstration Council, composed of the president and an elected representative from each of the clubs has sponsored many interesting and beneficial activities this year. In the ten home demonstration clubs with an enrollment of 258, and the ten girl's 4-H clubs with an enrollment of 232, one or more of the following activities have been entered:

An exhibit was sent to the Lubbock Mea Show, consisting of canned beef, pork and chicken. Two prizes were won by the county.

An exhibit of dairy products was sent to Albany Dairy Show and first and second places won by Knox County on whole milk.

A county-wide dress contest was held with 27 women entering dresses that had been made from their individually fitted patterns.

The woman's encampment was held in Haskell county this year with 35 attending from this county. Next year Knox county is to be hostess to Haskell county women and to Haskell and Baylor county girls.

Four delegates were sent to Austin to meet the Legislature. The county winner in the girls' bedroom contest and the winners in the county dress contest were given free trips to the A. & M. Short Course.

A bus was secured and a delegation of 7 4-H girls, 18 women and 1 man represented Knox county at the Short Course. This was the largest delegation that has ever gone from the county.

A county exhibit was held in Munday in September with approximately 500 containers on exhibit. The winning products were sent to the Dallas Fair.

Just recently a delegate was sent to Dallas to the meeting of the Texas Agricultural Workers Association and the new organization in Texas know as the Texas Cooperative Incorporated.

As a whole the year has been quite successful but the County Council has many more interesting plans and ideas to be carried out in 1934.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday completes another cycle. The year closes its doors to all its opportunities, privileges, anticipated joys and blessings. May all the disappointments and sorrows of the past year be forgotten as the new one unfolds the ever-beckoning future for us. It is certain that all of us at this time wish to express our gratitude for the kind deeds and grateful words that have been spoken by so many through the past year.

We give you a special invitation to worship with us next Sunday, both morning and evening. The past year has been fraught with many difficulties, but the outlook for the future is far better. Our finances are in better shape than they have been for several years. The spiritual pulse of the church is not as strong as it might be but the future is as bright as our faith in the promises of God. Sermon subject for next Sunday: "LOOKING BOTH WAYS." There will be special music.

You are always welcome to any or all of our services.

W. H. Albertson.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and sons will leave the latter part of the week for Austin, where Jesse George will resume his studies in the University of Texas, and the other boys will enter the public schools, and where Mrs. Kennedy will resume her duties in the office of the State Comptroller.

Cotton Option Contracts Are Being Received

W. E. Jones, county agent, was over from Benjamin Wednesday and stated that he had already received a number of cotton option contracts for the farmers of Knox county who availed themselves of the option privileges in the plow-up campaign last spring, and is mailing out notices to farmers just as the contracts are received, and he advises that farmers wait until they receive notice from him that the contract has been received before calling for same, as by doing so they will save themselves the trouble of making a trip to Benjamin.

Mr. Jones stated that farmers who took advantage of the option privilege are receiving approximately $14.00 per acre, as compared with $11.00 received by those who took the cash.

With the contracts will be full information as to how to convert it into cash, said Mr. Jones, and one of the differences in the checks to those issued heretofore is that they will be made payable only to the producer, and the landlord will therefore look to the tenant for his share of the money due.

Mr. Jones stated that he hoped to have full and complete plans for the 1934 crop program within a few days and hoped to begin active organization work by the middle of January.

Local Firms That Have Helped Build Knox County

By Marie Baxter and
J. E. Robbins

First National Bank in Munday

With the reorganization of the First National Bank in Munday in 1932 as a merger of the First National Bank of Munday and the First National Bank of Gore, was inaugurated a new deal that is destined to keep pace with the new and brighter outlook for Knox county. Inured with the avowed purpose of serving distinctly as a community bank, this financial institution, knowing that its future prosperity is unalterably wrapped in the future of Knox county, takes its proper place with the other enterprising business houses of this section in laboring for the further advancement of Knox county in a commercial and agricultural way.

Having that thought in mind, it's resources, aggregating more than a half million dollars, are primarily devoted in so far as possible to the development of the community in which it is situated. It's purpose is to help every worth while enterprise that may help Knox county. A worth-while and common sense purpose indeed.

The officers and directors of the First National Bank are a carefully selected body of men, able, competent and fit to manage a business structure so important to Knox county. Being local men they are naturally familiar with local needs and local people bringing that personal contact to their relations with you that is so frequently lacking in large enterprises. Possessed of such valued assets the First National Bank in Munday is Big Enough to Serve You Strong Enough to Protect You and Small Enough to Know You. A good bank in a good town.

The Fair Store, Munday

The Fair Store at Munday owned by George Salem since March 10, 1930, is popularly known throughout this community as the store "WHERE QUALITY PREVAILS AT PRICES YOU CAN AFFORD." Mr. Salem also operates a temporary branch store at Rule, which he first started in 1924 and operated until summer of 1933.

Ramona, Nelly Den, Mildred and Marcy Lee frocks are featured here, also Florsheim shoes, Stetson hats, and Curlee clothes.

The Economy Store, Munday

Over two years old and growing. That's the dry goods store of Sied Wahed at Munday, whose motto is COURTESY AND SERVICE TO ALL. Star brand shoes, A.B.C. fabrics, Phoenix hosiery, Yale and Carlton men's suits and overcoats, popular priced millinery and ladies' ready-to-wear are featured here.

John C. Spann, Munday

Mr. Spann started this cleaning and tailoring establishment at Munday in June 1922. Since that time he has proven his ability as a reputable cleaner. He is now operating under the Cleaners Code. Bring your cleaning, dyeing, pressing and repairing here and you will get good service—a good job and at a reasonable price. Men's furnishings are sold here. Phone 147.

Akers Dry Goods, Munday

A Knox County Booster, with a dry goods store at Munday, "Where Quality and Prices Meet." That's E. E. Akers, in business here since 1924. That's the recommendation enough for anyone. Mr. Akers has been a resident of Knox County since 1902, having come here when there were only a few stores in Munday.

J. Arthur Smith, Munday

Here's a Tailor Shop and Men's Furnishing store, a real store, a good store, in a good town; a store where your money goes further. J. Arthur Smith has owned it since 1910. "Friendly" shoes, Thoroughbred hats and Wilson Bros. men's furnishings are sold here and one-day service is given on all cleaning, the shop now operating under the Cleaner's Code. Phone 533.

Baker-Campbell, Munday

Thirteen years of reliable service have built this business from its humble beginning to its present position. There's no compromise between quality and price here. First, it must be of the best quality and then it must be priced fairly. This store was originally started here in 1902 by Baker and Bryant, and changed to its present ownership in 1920. W. A. Baker, one of the early settlers of this section and one who has been instrumental in the development of Knox county and J. C. Campbell, a resident of Knox county since 1902, are the present owners. They also operate a branch store at Weinert.

Hassen Co. Inc., Munday

Let's review the reasons why you will be benefited by trading at this store of Hassen Co. Inc., managed by E. N. Hassen at the year round. This store is a local independent store, possessing the same local interests as you. This store carries every product obtainable at other stores at the same general prices; nationally advertised brands, not just special brands of which you know nothing.

By buying with your home-town merchant, you buy with safety and confidence. This is a local merchant. Buy from your friend and neighbor. He can always serve you best.

G. A. Blanton, Munday

Nothing is more important to the growth and progress of any town or city than a modern up-to-date cleaning and pressing establishment. Knox County is indeed fortunate in having within it confines a business firm such as G. A. Blanton in Munday since March 30, 1933.

The plant is thoroughly equipped with all the latest and most improved types of machinery and a skillful experienced employee is kept busy at all times. Mr. Blanton has had the benefit of many years experience in his chosen field and can be depended on to render a service that ordinarily could be obtained only in larger towns and cities. We have no hesitancy in predicting a bright future for G. A. Blanton of Knox County.

The Hat Shop, Munday

'NEW STYLES WHEN THEY'RE NEW.' You'll find them at the ladies' shop of Mrs. Effie Alexander and Mrs. Nannie B. Smith, which they founded here three years ago. The styles will be new; the quality will be good and the price will be right. No one wants more than that. Gage and Gaylord Millinery, exclusive College Campus frocks, Allen-A Hosiery and Country Club Hosiery are features and you all know these are the highest grades of ladies' wear to be had anywhere.

The Home Bakery, Munday

All of the Home Bakery products are made with a mother's care—the home-like goodness—the superior quality—the day-in and day-out uniformity of these products could not result from ordinary ingredients or mediocre care.

Every one of the varieties of cake, pie, bread, and pastry sold by J. C. Elliott is the expression of a master baker, using the finest ingredients, in a clean, airy bakehouse. The Home Bakery products have won the favor of the housewives of this vicinity through merit alone.

A regular delivery service to Gore, Hefner and Rhineland is maintained, the products being sold to dealers in these communities.

Orchid Beauty Shop, Munday

To the eye of an artist nothing is at once so exquisite and so elusive as a lovely complexion. Fineness of texture, delicacy of hue, subtle changes of color—these thrill our sense of beauty, defy our attempt to capture them.

The artist perhaps more than most women, knows and values the gift of beauty. Knows that it should be guarded and cultivated to its greatest perfection and appreciates the means of realizing this end.

The shop of Miss Helen Houser provides every facility to enable you to maintain the beauty nature has endowed upon you. A perfect permanent wave can also be had at the Orchid Beauty Salon in Munday, and what is more beautiful and comfortable than a permanent wave. Phone 127 for appointments.

Haynie Beauty Shop, Munday

Principally these articles have to do with men who have in devious ways enhanced the prestige of this County; who have added to its strength or who have enriched its commercial legends.

This article relates the story of a Mr. C. H. Haynie whose business it is to enhance the beauty of our community by enhancing the beauty of our ladies and after all there are more important business than that? Even we hard and par-boiled men, though we hate to admit it, like our women a little bit better when they're all prettied up for us, don't we? When the color is bright in their face and eyes and their hair is nicely waved, say ain't they sweet.

Come on ladies, please us. Make an appointment now with Haynie's Beauty Shoppe and tonight you'll see that your man can appreciate his efforts too.

Mr. Haynie also owns a barber shop which he operates in connection with the Beauty Shoppe.

Jones & Eiland, Munday

Dealing in insurance, real estate, and loans, Jones & Eiland, successors to Mayes & Isbell about ten years ago naturally play an important role in the advancement of Knox County. They represent many of the old line insurance companies and always have on hand a desirable list of properties for sale, rent or exchange. And if you need a loan consult them too.

Munday Produce Co., Munday

With G. C. Stephens as its present manager, this firm, the Munday Produce Co., a branch of the Western Produce Co., was organized here about fifteen years ago. Those fifteen years have seen this business grow to one of considerable propor-

THE BACKBONE OF KNOX COUNTY

The title for this article has been selected only after the subject had been given much thought and consideration. It was our desire that the title should be significant of the basic value of the community; that it should be descriptive of the real commercial strength and life of the community; that in brief it should be a story, sufficient in itself, requiring no elaboration. The word BACKBONE is used advisedly. If you study it carefully you will agree that it has a wealth of meaning and we feel justified in using it in its most liberal sense, for it is our conviction that these men of whom we write are the real BACKBONE OF KNOX COUNTY.

The various stores, garages and other industries included in these columns, embrace places of distribution of nearly all of life's necessities and many of its luxuries and their importance to the civic and industrial welfare of Knox County cannot be overestimated. Most of these stores are owned and controlled by men living within the confines of the community, and all of them without exception are conducted by men who live in this section, men who have the welfare and interests of this community deeply imbedded in their hearts. All of them are competent and capable business men who have by their combined and individual efforts given this section, business places that are second to none in the STATE, for the quality of merchandise sold, the service rendered and the careful courteous treatment of its patrons. The writer has no hesitancy in making these assertions. These business houses require no exaggerated truths. They are sufficiently good without them.

Men and places of this kind have placed the name of KNOX COUNTY upon a high plane, a lofty pinnacle of moral, civil and industrial standing and as long as men of this type elect to transact business here just so long will this section maintain that enviable position.

One must remember that successful business houses are an absolute essential to the progress of any community. In fact a community cannot exist without them. They are dependent on your support, you and your community are in turn dependent on them, and a perfect spirit of co-operation between you makes the ideal thriving community.

The merchants listed in this "Who's Who Edition" are local people, a part of this community. Their interests and yours are one. They do not send profits to Wall Street. They keep them here, where they get them, to help make this a bigger and better community. They pay taxes here, contribute to your churches, your schools, your charities and other local institutions that are requisite to the welfare of any community; not for any selfish gain or reason, but because those local institutions are their own as well as yours. You cannot help taking from any community without eventually impoverishing it. The Lord gives us rain to replenish the streams from which we take our water, otherwise those streams would run dry. The farmer fertilizes his ground, that it may give more and better crops. He is sensible. The shrewd banker, always prefers to lend his money to the community from which he gets it. It comes back again in increased deposits. Isn't it good logic then, for you to patronize those merchants who have helped and will continue to help make this a bigger and better community. They are not asking charity. They offer a full measure of value for every dollar received. Their goods are priced fairly—all of them. You don't pay fifty cents for a dollar article and then pay a dollar and fifty cents for another dollar article. They do not resort to such subterfuge. You get sixteen ounces to every pound, thirty-six inches to every yard and one hundred cents of value and service for every dollar. Local merchants are local assets. KEEP THEM AND THEY'LL KEEP YOU.

Munday Cotton Oil Co.

From a little acorn grows the mighty oak. A small seed is planted and with the nourishment and stimulus provided by the surrounding earth, the little seed takes root and then timidly peeks its head above the ground and with reassurance slowly grows and increases in size till the advent of future years it becomes a mighty oak, strong, steady, reliable and still growing.

And so it is with the Munday Cotton Oil Co., which first took root here in 1926. During the ensuing years this concern, like the little acorn, grew and expanded, entrenching itself more deeply as the years rolled by, in the industrial firmament of Knox County. It's strength and healthy condition is clearly emphasized in the large volume of business transacted in the confines of Knox County and the able, efficient manner in which that business is carried on.

The Pendleton Gin Co., Munday

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson, that illustrious exponent of American Philosophy who is credited with that gem of thought wherein he says that if a man writes a better book, preaches a better sermon or makes a better mousetrap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door. And this is a verity that may be accepted quite literally in any line of endeavor.

I think Mr. Pendleton must have read that little epic of Mr. Emerson's, for he certainly adhered to the tenets of its teachings in the ginning business and if he has, it has surely been with profitable results, for there is a well defined and marked path to the door of the Pendleton Gin and the hinges of that door will never grow rusty. They are kept swinging to the tune of many satisfied customers.

The Pendleton Gin Co. has gins at Gore and Bomarton and has always worked right along with the cotton growers in this community. It is with extreme pleasure that we include in this review of Knox County the Pendleton Gin Co.

For many years this sturdy line of machinery has given them unfailing satisfaction and Mr. J. L. Stodghill feels it a pleasure to be agents for such products. Their long list of satisfied users is a source of gratification to them. Are you on that list too? Do you too know the satisfaction of using good farm tools? Won't you come in and be shown?

The firm also maintains a most modern service department, doing a general blacksmith business and acetylene welding.

Munday Motor Co., M. H. Stafford Proprietor

Though moderate in price, the Chrysler and Plymouth cars have all the essentials of the best cars, namely, PRICE, ECONOMY, COMFORT, APPEARANCE, POWER and SPEED—the six fundamental principles of any car. Search as you will, you will find no other car in their price field to excel them. You do yourself an injustice to buy any car without giving serious consideration to the Chrysler and Plymouth. With no obligation involved, Mr. Stafford would appreciate the courtesy of your inspection.

Panhandle Service Station, Munday

In every trade, every activity there is usually some outstanding factor, some person or business which has attained a recognized position of eminence because of its efficiency, or because of invaluable service rendered its patrons. In no trade does service and skilled workmanship count for more than it does in the automotive field, for auto repairing in this advanced era is without doubt one of the most essential contributions to the further progress of civilization. We can't get along very well, certainly not very far, unless our automobiles are kept going. Try to do without your car for a week and you'll see what I mean. For that reason we feel the occasion to be opportune to include in this review of Knox County's commercial life the name of Warren Bros'. Panhandle Service Station, dealers in Panhandle Gas, Flood tires, Willard batteries and a large stock of fine accessories.

Piggly Wiggly Store, Munday

This is an independent store. Been one ever since we started in 1929. We depend upon this community for our existence. O.K. Shoe & Harness Shop, Munday

A shop with every facility to expedite the work has been an important factor in the growth of the business and that coupled with the many years of experience Mr. J. W. Beaver enjoys will no doubt be instrumental in the continuance of that growth. He does shoe and harness repairing with skill and you can see how important that is when your job is done.

A. Golden, Munday

We all know that it is important to use care and consideration in the repair of an automobile. Many of us have experienced the results of poor workmanship, costly results generally. A poor mechanic is not hard to find and neither is a good one hard to find if you locate Mr. A. Golden, at Munday three years. You may bring your car here for repairs and know that it will be properly taken care of and at a price that won't strain your purse strings.

Early's Grocery, Gore

In August, 1933, Mr. Foy Early, formerly of Munday started this Red & White Grocery business in Gore. He started it right, with the right merchandise, the right principles and the right idea of treating people right. Naturally the business has grown. Any business carried on as this one has been would grow, and as Foy Early, a member of the NRA, is continuing along the same lines he began with, no doubt, will continue to grow. You'll always get real values and real service at the Red & White store of Gore.

J. M. Edwards Grocery, Gore

In a discussion of the growth and progress of Knox county, a word or two about one of its most distinguished merchants and citizens, Mr. J. M. Edwards, is quite apropos. Mr. Edwards, a native of Knox county, has been actively engaged in the Self Service Grocery business in Gore since 1929, succeeding his father, the late H. J. Edwards, has attained a position of distinction, of being both a good merchant and a good citizen of his community. When Mr. Edwards first opened the doors to his store for business, Ira Stalcup took over the management and he adopted a policy of dealing fairly and satisfactorily with his patrons, which policy he has continued to maintain, and as a result he can boast the fact that he is doing business successfully, with many of his original customers. Mr. Stalcup gets many new patrons and keeps his old ones.

J. C. Blankinship & Son, Gore

For twelve years now J. C. and J. H. Blankinship have conducted this harness and shoe shop at Gore. That these twelve years have been well spent is substantiated by the large volume of business now being transacted there. Harness is made and shoes and harness are repaired and Friedman Shelby shoes and accessories, harness and supplies are sold.

Stevenson, Hampton & Weber, Gore

Just a newcomer to Knox County's agricultural interests is the firm of Stevenson, Hampton & Weber, gins and cotton buyers who began the business last year. But they are a mighty welcome addition indeed for they have already taken their place in advancing the agricultural interests of this community. Their gin at Gore employs about twenty-five people in the seasons peak and its one of the finest plants in this section.

Gore Elevator Co., W. S. Hoard, Proprietor

Dealers in feed, grain, seed and coal, the Gore Elevator Co., which succeeded Mr. Hoffman to this business in 1918, is another of the many firms that have helped develop this county's agricultural interests. J. C. Woolridge Lumber Co., Gore

Of course you are proud of your home because it reflects your personality to your friends. It is a silent symbol of thrift, good judgment and individuality. To great extent, the manner in which it is maintained, determines its value to you and to your community.

If you have hesitated to make needed repairs and improvements because you thought they were expensive, then hesitate no longer. See the J. C. Woolridge Lumber Co. at Gore. Let them show you how low the cost of building materials is and how much better the materials are. Twenty-seven years of fair, square dealing to the people of Gore stand as a symbol of the position this concern has attained in this locality. It sells only good lumber and good building materials.

Highway Garage, Gore

It is casting no reflection on any other garage to point out the Highway garage as one of superior qualities, offering a service and grade of workmanship that we know will please the most critical. No hazardous or slipshod methods of mechanical repairs are tolerated here. Whether it is a small, minor repair or a complete overhauling, Mr. Coffman does it with the same painstaking care and thoroughness.

Morton Motor Co., Gore

This modern garage, established in 1906 has since that time harbored much of the town's trade; merited it and due to the service given and the quality of the work rendered, will continue to hold it. Their slogan is, Satisfy a Patron, and You Will Not Lose Him. The Morton Motor Co. tries mighty hard to satisfy and does.

J. W. Laningham Hdw. Co., Gore

It must afford Mr. Laningham considerable pleasure to know that his nine years of business effort have resulted in the fine hardware store and funeral parlor that stands today, a credit to both him and the fine little town in which it is located. It must give him pride as he views this fine place of business to know that it is the result of his own work and your patronage. A deep sense of obligation to you, his patrons, is felt for its was your patronage that made this store possible.

Mr. Laningham realizes the obligation and acknowledges it. May he adopt this medium to thank you for that patronage and assure you that he will always welcome such obligation and strive to discharge it in the form of even better service in the future.

R. Sanders, Vera

Local Firms That Have Helped Build Knox County

on your next ginning bring that cotton to the Farmer's Co-Op. Society, No. 1, where G. E. Savage is in charge. Your friends and neighbors have found satisfaction here and so will you.

Vera Gin Co., W. F. Snody, Mgr.
Mr. W. F. Snody, a man of many years experience in the ginning industry and an ardent worker in the cotton growers' interests. Is the manager of the Vera Gin Co., one of the pioneers of the industry, which was founded here about thirty-three years ago. Having a capacity of about five bales an hour, the gin lacks nothing in the way of up-to-date machinery to give you the promptest kind of service.

W. B. Feemster, Vera
Eight years of reliable service, handling Quality Goods at Quality Prices, are the principal reasons to which the success of this firm might be attributed. It's a fine grocery store, owned by a home-town man and handling things you'll like.

J. B. Dickson, Vera
One of the best Dry Goods and Notions stores of Vera is under that capable ownership of John B. Dickson. In 1930 it was started in a rather modest way and since that time the upright principles employed have won their reward, the store of John B. Dickson now being known as the Place in Vera to buy your dry goods and notions.

Vera Drug Co., Vera
The New Deal is not new. It's just going back many years when more people had to work and the wealth of the Country was not in so few hands. You can help in this New Deal by keeping your money at home where it has a chance to work for you again. Patronize this Drug Store and have your prescriptions filled there too. It is owned by R. C. Spinks, a man who has lived here near all of his life, a friend and neighbor as well as a business man.

R. B. Spencer Lumber Co., Weintert
The building interests of Weintert and the territory adjacent have been well taken care of in the past 25 years and this has been due in large measure to that concern you all know so well, the R. B. Spencer Lumber Co., of Weintert, managed by R. H. Jones.
Everything to build anything. That's what the R. B. Spencer Lumber Co. sells. That takes in a lot of territory but it is so. Don't forget that it is a very carefully selected line of building material too, from the lumber and nails to the hardware, roof and the paint to finish it.

Orient Drug Store, Knox City
Prescriptions are filled in the most careful way at the Orient Drug Store, no efforts being spared to assure the use of only the purest drugs and chemicals. This is a Rexall store, managed by H. M. Jones who attends to this department himself, with the utmost care. Your health is his wealth and it is the business of a drug store to safeguard health. Complete fountain service is a specialty here and cosmetics, stationery, school supplies and drugs and sundries are also sold.

Malouf Dry Goods Co., Knox City
There's a record of six years of reliable dealing behind this modern dry goods store which A. J. Malouf started in 1927. In these years Malouf Dry Goods Co. has always been able to hold old patrons and add some new ones. And there's a reason—Shetland Hats, Hummingbird Honors, Curlee Clothes, Friedman-Shelby shoes and popular priced New York lines of ready-to-wear are featured here. When Mr. Malouf opened his store here in 1927 he started in a 25 foot front building, but business increased until he was forced to occupy larger quarters, at that time he purchased the building formerly occupied by Bryant-Link Co., now having a 50 foot store frontage.

L. L. Davis, Knox City
The firm of L. L. Davis in the Red & White Grocery Store at Knox City since 1924 has in the course of its nine years of business life built an enviable reputation here for integrity and service, handling only merchandise of real merit and value. The Leader Store, Knox City

S. Amen, during which time it has advanced very steadily. It's a good place to buy your Brown-Bull Shoes, also Dr. Austin's health shoes, Mary Lee and Mary Lou frocks, Davis Hats, Careless Clothes, and all high quality dry goods and notions.

Knox City Grain Elevator, Knox City

A complete line of Feed and Grain is kept in stock.
Mr. Willis pays the top market prices for poultry, eggs and cream.

Frizzell Drug Store, Knox City
Never neglect the human body. Though it is almost perfect, it is but a machine and like all other machines requires constant attention, inside and outside—and Frizzell's Drug Store has in stock everything that is necessary to give that machine proper attention, inside and outside. Drugs, medicine, etc., will help the inside of the body and you can enhance it's outward appearance with soaps, perfumes, jewelry, cosmetics and the like. T. R. (Happy) Smith, manager of Frizzell's Drug Store carries them all in large quantities and equally large varieties. All prescriptions are carefully compounded by Mr. Smith, Mr. Frizzell and Mr. Golightly, who are all registered pharmacists.

J. M. Edwards, Knox City
When one studies the business career of J. M. Edwards, a native of Knox County, and owner of this store at Knox City, in the Self Service Grocery business at Knox City, Gore, Seymour and Bomarton, it is difficult to give credence to the generally accepted opinion that business is a cold, hard proposition, with no romance attached to it. If there is any romantic glamour about any business at all, then this one at Knox City, under the management of Mr. Charlie Keck since 1929, abounds with it. It's history from its inception would make excellent material for the great American Novel, depicting the rise of the American business man and also serve as an incentive to the younger element of the day.
Picture a business that began in 1929 in a very small way and then look at the firm's quarters now. Real progress. That's the whole story.

Knox City Dry Goods & Grocery, Knox City
The Knox City Dry Goods and Grocery Store is one of the best stores in this section, having been founded here two years ago by K. and J. Silman. It is really a worthwhile store and one that would reflect credit upon a much larger town. Fair, considerate treatment of the patron and quality merchandise; that's the formula used to build this enterprise to its present position.
Del Monte canned goods, cereal meats, Star Brand Shoes, dry goods, ready-to-wear and work clothing are featured and latest market prices are paid for eggs and farm produce.

Brazos Valley Gin Co., Knox City
Among the fine gins of Knox County is the Brazos Valley Gin at Knox City, under the management of W. R. Terry, a new man to Knox County but a very welcome one. He's not new to the ginning industry however, and already the volume of business being transacted at this plant has reflected his capable management. Being member of the N.E.A., the Brazos Valley Gin Co., has materially increased its normal number of employees to comply with N.E.A. requirements.

Knox City Gin Co., Knox City
The Knox City Gin Co., which was formed here in 1925 as successor to Swift Bros., has ginned close to 5,000 bales of cotton this year for growers within a radius of ten miles of Knox City. Cotton growers appreciate the exceptional service of this firm and the firm appreciates their patronage. That's how this business was built.

Cotton Growers Co-Op, Gin Knox City
Any firm like the Cotton Growers Co-Op, Gin of Knox City, which has attained the height of business success in a sense, to be envied. Yet there is placed upon this successful ginner an obligation that never ends, that he must constantly strive to meet and that is persistent in its demands on him. Success is not a destination; it is not a goal. It is never fully attained in life. Success is an achievement, first to be attained and then to be maintained, and in it's permanent maintenance only does it become an achievement. "Permanent" is a very definite word. It means constant, always.

The Cotton Growers Co-Op Gin has gained the distinction of success. Now it must maintain that position. Therein lies it's most difficult task. But I know and so does Mr. Barney Arnold, manager of this gin, know that continuance of those sound business principles it has used since the inception of its business will suffice to make that position secure, always, permanently.

Porter & White, Knox City
Specializing on their own make of feeds and A-1 Egg Mash, this concern, Porter & White, successors to the late L. C. Porter in 1924 has built up a large feed, grain and coal business. They have also contributed in a material way to Knox County's agricultural progress.

Ashcroft Chevrolet Co., Knox City
Consider this a moment; the Ashcroft Chevrolet Co. selected this car as a means of livelihood and a medium of service to you. They invested their money—efforts—and experience in it. In fact, they put their all into it. Isn't it then good logic for you to accept the judgment of men like these in the choice of your car? Shouldn't you at least afford them the opportunity to demonstrate it's many advantages to you; to show you it's fine points as they know them? And of which you may not be aware? A call on the phone, any time will bring one of their representatives to your door with a shining new Chevrolet car and you'll like it, too.

Warren Bros., Knox City
The new Ford V-8, represented by Warren Bros. at Knox City since 1918 is without doubt the leading motor car value of the year. When one thinks of this new eight, he can hardly believe his own eyes when he sees the car. Come in and see it and you'll place your order now.

Benjamin State Bank, Benjamin
The Benjamin State Bank has reached its present position by giving its depositors a full measure of safety as well as prompt and courteous treatment. Since it's beginning in 1929 it has always extended the most liberal treatment, consistent with prudent banking. The Benjamin State Bank wants your account, and aims to make its service to real value to you in order to secure and retain it.

Propps Motor Co., Benjamin
In 1914, almost with the advent of the automobile, O. D. Propps, a member of one of the pioneer families of Knox County, opened a garage at Benjamin. He took over the Ford agency in 1922, at that time selling the Model-T Ford. Now he sells the new V-8 and if you have not already done so, you should have Propps Motor Co. demonstrate this new car to you. It's merits are unsurpassed. Phone 54. Magnolia products, Goodyear tires and new and used Ford parts are sold here and four local people are employed.

General Foods Store, Benjamin
In Benjamin one of the leading independent stores is that of J. L. Galloway, who started this venture here in 1926, handling a fine line of Del Monte canned goods, Maxwell House Coffee, home killed meats, and fresh fruits and vegetables. Mr. Galloway pays top market prices for local farm products.

Benjamin Hardware, Benjamin
In 1930, J. H. Moorhouse took over this general hardware store at Benjamin which today is recognized throughout this section as a House of Merit and one deserving of it's large patronage.
McCormick-Deering Implements Rock Island plows are featured here and furniture, hardware, feed and coal are handled.

Benjamin Service Station, Benjamin
When people of this section or tourists passing through this vicinity want their cars repaired, or greased and oiled, they invariably call on Roland Rouse, a member of N.E.A., who for the past two years has so ably taken care of their needs along these lines. Gulf products are sold exclusively here and 3 local people are employed.

B. W. Snody's Gin, Benjamin
A man's personality is bound to play an unusually important role in his business. The qualities of a man, those traits which have enabled him to succeed, are worthy of note. In the early days when Mr. Snody was laying the foundation of character which was later to enable him to succeed in the ginning business, he faced and conquered obstacles which he would have found insurmountable had he not been the man he is today. The Mr. Snody was not born in the traditional log cabin, he can boast that humble origin which is the pride of the successful American business man, with a conspicuous record of success in his chosen line, cotton ginning. A record of unimpeachable integrity and without a blemish on his reputation; a man of administrative ability and one who has proved his capacity as a leader in the service of his village as well as in his own work.

J. C. Woodridge Lumber Co., Benjamin
It has ever been the policy of the Woodridge Lumber Co. in the course of its many years of business life at Benjamin, to treat you as they would like to be treated. That is why you'll find in this lumber and building material store only those brands of goods behind which they can put their own guarantee of satisfaction.

Benjamin Merc. Co., Benjamin
Mr. A. H. Sams, owner of this store, appreciates that his responsibility to his customers is two-fold. One is to hold fast to quality ideals and the other is to devote extra efforts in purchasing such goods at advantageous prices and to keep operating costs down to a minimum, thereby achieving what at first seems impossible—QUALITY GOODS AT LOW PRICES. He's been doing just that since 1926 when he succeeded his father the late P. C. Sams to this fine general store.

Cash Market, Benjamin
When you buy meats for your table you are interested mostly in one thing, QUALITY. Quality products are never disappointing and while Mr. J. A. McCaules unwaveringly maintains a high standard of quality, that is only half the story. It is not difficult to stock a store with high quality goods if one has no consideration for price boundaries. Nor is it difficult to offer low prices if one has no consideration for quality. He does both.

Truscott Mercantile Co., Truscott
Few businesses in Knox County have enjoyed the steady and consistent growth attained by the Truscott Mercantile Co., of Truscott, managed by Guinn Hickman and owned by T. B. Masters.

Since it's inception in January, 1931 the firm has gone ahead in the most progressive manner, enlarging their stock and bettering their service from year to year until now they enjoy and occupy an important niche in the business chain of Knox County. The firm's affairs are not confined to local limits, but extend over a wide area, and the large patronage they have is indeed a reflection of the high esteem in which they are held by the people of this entire section.

Browning Service Station, Truscott
A garage and service station at Truscott that is well worth mentioning is that of V. W. Browning who started here in 1924. When he does your work it is done right and the charges are very reasonable too. Hood tires and Panhandle gas and oil products are featured here. Mr. Browning being wholesale distributor for these products between North and South Wichita rivers in this section. Phone No. 65.

Farmers Co-Op Society No. 1, Gilliland
This review of Knox County, would be incomplete indeed if it did not include among it's columns a resume of the business career of the Farmers Co-Op Society No. 1, established here eight years ago. During these eight years engaged in the ginning business, the firm has lucrily blazoned its name upon the agricultural interests of Knox County, for it is very evident that a business house of this kind, providing as it does a needed and valuable service to the farmers of the community, is a most important factor in all that pertains to it's interests.

H. N. Claus, Rhineland
This general store at Rhineland, ever since its inception in June 1926, has played an important role in the commercial life of Knox County. It is a local firm that is dedicated to local interests, featuring nationally known products. All nationally advertised products behind which Mr. Claus feels justified in putting his own guarantee of satisfaction.

L. J. Kuehler, Rhineland

Get Rid of Malaria!

Banish Chills and Fever!

To conquer Malaria, you must do two things: (1) Destroy the infection in the blood. (2) Build up the blood to overcome the effects and to fortify against further attack. There is one medicine that does these two things and that is Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic! The tasteless quinine in Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic destroys the malarial infection in the blood while the iron builds up the blood. Thousands of people have conquered Malaria with the aid of Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is pleasant to take and contains nothing harmful. Even children like it and they can take it safely. Let the car speak for itself

HUNDREDS of thousands of people now own and drive Ford V-8 cars. Some neighbor or friend of yours has one. If we told you what we think of the car, you might say we are prejudiced, so we let the car and its owner tell you.

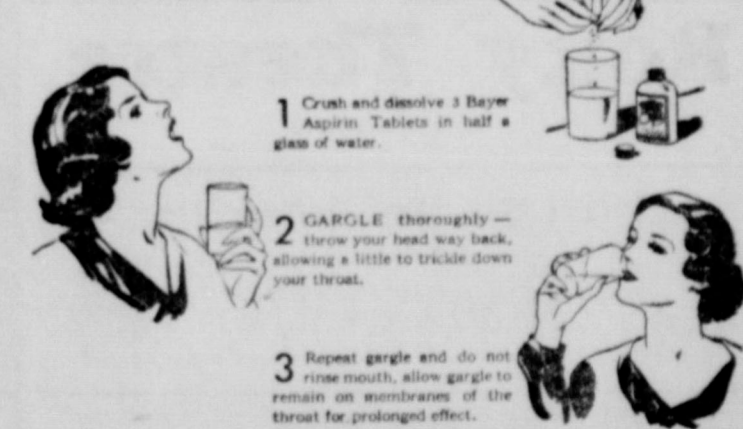

Economy of operation is one of the first points they will emphasize—the owner will boast of it and the car will prove it.

The 1934 car is even better than the 1933—and that was our best car up to its time. The new car is more beautiful—faster—more powerful—gives more miles to the gallon—better oil economy—is easier riding—cheaper to own and operate than any car we ever built.

You owe it to yourself and your pocketbook to ask our Ford Dealer to let you see this car, and let you drive it for yourself. At the wheel of the car you will be sure to reach a right decision. The Ford V-8 will tell you its own story.

Now! Ease Sore Throat Instantly!

Remember: Only Medicine Helps Sore Throat
Modern medical science now throws an entirely new light on sore throat. A way that eases the pain, rawness and irritation in as little as two or three minutes!

It requires medicine—like BAYER ASPIRIN—to do these things! That is why throat specialists throughout America are prescribing this BAYER gargle in place of old-time ways.

Be careful, however, that you get

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Glycerin won't help at all.
Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No cathartics (surgery) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm, in 10 minutes, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. Stop at drug stores.
Before "something just as good" for a may gripe, loosen bowels or acid retching. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. C. 1933, C. M. Co.

This Tractor gives you a new working capacity

IT'S what you get out of a tractor that determines how profitable it is to you. When you can get, as in the new Case Model "CC," a tractor that is as well fitted for plowing, tillage and belt work as it is for planting and cultivating row crops, you've got the advantage of a new and broader usefulness.

And when you can get in that same tractor the dependable power essential to handling good-sized loads, the light weight desirable for planting and cultivating, and in addition to that, fast speeds and easy handling for quick work, you've got the qualifications that mean greater working capacity.

The rear wheels in the Model "CC" can be moved out, from standard 48-inch tread for plowing to various treads, up to 84 inches, for row crop planting and cultivating.

Come in and let's go over the tractor together. You'll be interested in examining its many new and practical features.
