Retirement, career change for Shaw

Forty-three years at South Texas Lumber Company in Ozona enabled Harold Shaw to "make a lot of very good friends" and to see Crockett County change in many ways. Shaw retired, took his two weeks of vacation, and, not being one to just sit and do nothing, began work last week as Crockett County's purchasing agent. Shaw's knowledge of construction materials and what it takes to get a job done have taken care of three generations of Crockett County residents. He and his wife, Ann, came to Ozona from Sterling City just after the flood. People were rebuilding and getting straightened up again. There were no hunting leases and only a little oil activity in the north part of the county at that time.

The expansion of oil fields, gas discoveries, and the advent of commercial hunting in the county necessitated a change in the merchandise and size of the lumber company. The building was expanded northward approximately 20 years ago. Construction in the county led to the establishment of a concrete plant by the lumber company around 1960.

"We poured concrete all over the county," Shaw said. The education building at First Baptist Church was the first thing they poured. This phase of the lumber company operation ended 25 years ago.

One of the most memorable chores from his 43 years at South Texas has to do with Christmas. A customer bought a five foot metal kitchen cabinet with a sink in the middle and wanted it gift wrapped. Somehow he and Zelma Johnigan got it done. Gift wrapping a 300 pound anvil wasn't easy, either.

"I have enjoyed my time in the lumber yard," said Shaw. "There are always different things coming up, many and various circumstances. I've made a lot of very good friends through the years here and in neighboring counties and have had good relationships with a lot of the hunters, especially Louisiana hunters. All in all, it's been a joy."

Shaw is pleased about his new job as purchasing agent. Although there will be many different things item-wise, many will be the same. Spare time will still involve trips to the river. "I do enjoy my fishing," Shaw said.

The Shaws are parents of three children. Ronald and his wife Rhonda and their two daughters live in Ozona. Dean and Wendy Shaw and their three girls are in St. Louis, MO. Teresa and Doug Calvert and their son and daughter live in South Lake.

Harold and Ann are active members of First Baptist Church where he is a deacon.

Commissioners approve enhanced 911 system

The last county in the state to approve 911 service started down the road to having an enhanced 911 emergency system Monday. Crockett County commissioners voted to participate in the enhanced system, the last county in the Concho Valley Council of Governments to do so.

"Put it on the agenda. I will take

Forum to identify community needs

What does a strong Ozona and Crockett County look like? Does it include a diverse economy? Access to a wide variety of resources and services? A clean, safe environment for youth and adults? A strong agriculture and business industry? On Tuesday, April 27, at 6:00 p.m. at the Fair Park Convention Center, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Crockett County Chamber of Commerce will host the Texas Community Futures Forum in hopes of identifying issues to help make a strong community and county.

"In addressing the critical concerns of our county and community residents, we know that issues and situations are often complex and intertwined," said Miles Dabovich, County Extension Agent. "Healthy cities, water quality, ag profitability and sustainability, adequate housing and health care, education, youth development, economic development and community leadership don't just happen. We must all work together. That is why we are asking citizens of Ozona and Crockett County to join us in looking at the critical things that will need to be addressed in the next three to five years. On April 27 during the open forum, we will identify the most critical needs and concerns and prioritize the issues in terms of importance and the likelihood and ability to make an impact."

The products and benefits of this process will be many. All of the items identified locally will be posted and available on the Internet for county government, state agencies and other organizations and groups to review and use in developing their own strategic plans. The information will help all groups to more directly focus their activities and resources. And by working together, it will enable partnering groups to plan for individual, joint or coordinated action to effectively address all of the identified priority needs in a community.

By participating in this process, you and your organization will have access to a comprehensive needs assessment. It also will give you a chance to work with Extension and other groups in delivering targeted results during 2000-2003 that will truly make a difference in the lives of Texans and their communities.

"Your participation and support of this program will be greatly appreciated," said Dabovich. "We hope you will make plans to attend. Please R.S.V.P. by Thursday, April 22, at 392-2721 for a sponsored meal registration."

it," Sheriff Shane Fenton was reported as saying.

The sheriff's office is already dispatching 911 emergency services. An enhanced system, which will involve mapping the county and entering data into a computer to automatically display a caller's phone number and address when they dial 911, could take several years to implement. Some counties in the COG have taken as much as four years to do their addressing.

Several of the counties have done the addressing through their appraisal districts, using existing employees. Others have hired companies to do the addressing.

An addressing cost worksheet provided by COG for Crockett County shows $100,000.00 gross total costs. All the expenses in these items may not apply, however. The project will be done on a 75/25 match. If the county does not spend 75% of the $100,000.00, no matching money will be required.

The county will pay costs as they incur, then forward the bills to COG for reimbursement, less the 25% match. Upon completion of the project, if the 25% match is not required, the money deducted will be reimbursed to the county.

Deputy Steve Kenley, who was at the court meeting to represent the sheriff's office, emphasized that at this time no additional employees will be required to answer the emergency phone. Everyone needs to understand that people may have to be added later, Kenley said. "The sheriff's department initially took it (answering the 911 calls) as long as it is understood that the jailer will be away from the desk once per hour." Jailers are required to make cell checks once each hour.

Once the addressing project is completed, the state will allow funding for 10 to 20 hours per week for an employee to continue maintaining the addressing.

Bringing 911 to Crockett County is a project of Ozona Woman's Forum.

Early voting begins in trustee election

Early voting in the District 5 school trustee election begins April 14 and ends April 27. Early voting by personal appearance will be conducted each weekday at the school administration building, 797 Ave. D, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Applications for ballot by mail should be sent to Kathy Vickers, Early Voting Clerk, P. O. Box 400, Ozona, TX 76943. These applications must be received no later than the close of business on April 23.

Election day is May 1. Voting will be from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Crockett County Courthouse.

Candidates for the District 5 school trustee are Doug McNeely and Billy Cunningham.

Court discusses salvage yard contract

More questions were raised than answered regarding a proposed contract with the Perez salvage yard north of town when County Attorney Bill Mason met with commissioners Monday. Mason did tell the court that he has a copy of Mingo Perez' certificate from the state authorizing salvage. Mason said he would have a contract ready for the court members to examine when they meet in called session April 21.

The court discussed following legal avenues to clean up the junked automobiles in town. Owners will be given a chance to voluntarily work with the county to dispose of the junk first.

Arrival of the county's weather warning radio transmitter has been delayed until mid-May according to Judge Jeffrey Sutton. The unit had been expected in early April. A prototype is being field tested for a month before the unit is sent out, Sutton was told.

An agreement for operation of the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration's weather radio transmitter was approved by the court.

Commissioners voted to buy 53.9 acres of the Montgomery estate which is adjacent to the cemetery. A budget amendment for appropriation of funds for the purchase was also part of the motion.

No action was taken on an agenda item to consider repairing or purchasing a new/used asphalt distributor. Road and Parks Superintendent Eddie Moore asked that the item be tabled until he could learn what repair costs will be for the unit.

Also in need of repairs is the county's newest motorgrader, which was purchased new in 1991. The loader locked down Friday while working to move a drainage ditch near the 4-H Building, Moore said. A representative from Holt Company was here Monday to diagnose the problem.

Moore was told to proceed with a gate and caliche pad to provide emergency access to Chandlerdale West in times of high water. The location will be off the interstate access road west of town.

The court declined to accept fuel bids due to a change in required bid specifications.

Approval was given for a resolution to approve applying to the Texas Community Development program for funds to complete a sewer project. Water and sewer improvements have been made possible in the past few years through such grants.

Commissioner Pleas Childress explained the need to approve a resolution to be sent to the state supporting increased funding of the soil and water conservation program. Federal money for this has been cancelled at the federal level and passed to the states, Childress said, and if the states don't come through with funds, about half the soil conservation offices in the U. S. will be shut down. The court approved supporting the resolution.

They also voted in favor of a resolution regarding funds available through the Texas Narcotic Control Program for placement of a Drug Task Force officer.

No action was taken regarding an interlocal agreement with the school district for use of the convention center while Ozona Middle School is being renovated. This contract will be on the April 21 agenda.

Commissioners voted to appoint Nancy Moore to the health services board after a report by Jim Roddie, administrator.

During a report by Louise Ledoux, county librarian, commissioners were told that six inches of water got in the library basement during the last rain. The water, which entered the building in an area where sidewalk had been removed for new construction, damaged the library's collection of old newspapers and books for the annual book sale.

Also meeting with the court for monthly reports were Shelly Childress for Fair Park Convention Center, and John Stokes, county auditor.

Written reports were distributed from Ozona Fire Department, Crockett County Civic and Youth Center, Crockett County Sheriff's Office and Crockett County Historical Scientific & Museum Society.

Fire department members answered the following calls in March: assistance 2, grass 4, structure 2, oil field 1, vehicle 1.

At a meeting of the civic and youth center board on April 1, it was decided that high school students will not be at the center on Tuesday nights. This will be for eighth graders only. On Wednesdays, eighth graders will be allowed to use the center from 2:00 until 6:00 p.m. High school students only will have use of the center on Wednesdays from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The Sheriff's Office report showed 172 calls for service, 47 persons placed in jail, 40 civil papers received and 33 civil papers served during March.

NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATIONS WEEK April 11-17 is a great opportunity to say "thank you" to the "unseen first responders of 911 calls. Crockett County Sheriff's Department jailers/dispatchers are: Chief Jailer/Deputy Emilio Tambunga, Justin Moran, Sheriff Shane Fenton, Richard Vargas, Shawn Morrow, Mark Vallejo and Sammy Longoria. Not pictured is 911 coordinator and Chief Deputy Alton Davis.

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN — Republican lawmakers have come with a tax relief plan that sops up $3.5 billion of the state's projected $5.6 billion budget surplus for 2000-2001. Republicans in the House Appropriations Committee have proposed a budget for the next two years that includes:

- $1 billion to pay for cutting the state's 6.25-cent sales tax by one-fourth of a cent;
- $1 billion go toward raises for public school teachers;
- $1 billion for school building projects and retiring bonds;
- $500 million for business tax and consumer tax cuts.

The GOP plan does not include the cornerstone of Gov. George W. Bush's main idea for tax-relief: a $1.5 billion school property-tax cut. But the governor is open to proposals by House leaders, his spokeswoman Linda Edwards said.

Sen. Bill Ratliff, chairman of the budget-writing Senate Finance Committee, cast doubt over the House plan. Ratliff, R-Mount Pleasant, said consumers won't feel much difference between a 6-percent state sales tax and the 6.25 percent sales tax they are paying now.

On the other side of the aisle, Sen. David Cain, D-Dallas, proposes raising teacher salaries by $4,000 a year, or twice the amount of a GOP plan for teacher raises.

Most of the projected budget surplus would be needed to pay for raising teacher salaries and improving schools under Cain's plan, but Cain said Texans favor those things over a tax cut.

Plan Would Hike UT Funding
Meanwhile, last week, Sen. Ratliff proposed increasing the higher education funding allotment to the University of Texas by 6 percent, or about $26 million.

Under his proposal, the university budget would swell from its present $433 million to $458 million over the next biennium.

UT President Larry Faulkner said, however, it would take a 2000-2001 budget increase of at least $66 million for faculty and staff salaries to be on par with the nation's top public universities.

The House has proposed a much more modest increase of $16.2 million.

Grand Jury Indicts School District
A Travis County grand jury last week indicted Austin Independent School District and a deputy superintendent on charges of tampering last fall with Texas Assessment of Academic Skills test scores.

The indictments stem from a Texas Education Agency investigation that found the district and one of its top administrators removed the exams of poorly performing students in an effort to increase overall scores.

If convicted, the school district could face fines of up to $160,000. The deputy superintendent could face a year in jail, a $4,000 fine or both.

Debbie Graves Ratcliffe, spokeswoman for the Texas Education Agency, said of the charges, "It's unfortunate that a small number of employees have tainted the school district's reputation."

Austin ISD is the first Texas school district to be charged with a crime.

UT Wants On-Campus Hotel
The University of Texas at Austin wants to put a new on-campus hotel, parking garage and conference center on the site of one of its parking lots.

A 225- to 275-room hotel would complement the adjacent Joe C. Thompson Conference Center, university officials said. Construction could start in a year and be completed by 2002, University of Texas Vice President Patricia Ohlendorf said.

Cost estimates on the construction have not been made.

Shields Proposes New Agency
Rep. John Shields, R-San Antonio, has filed legislation that would assemble a commission of business owners and executives to identify duplication of services and waste in state government.

The commission would be styled after the Reagan-era Grace Commission, which exposed wasteful federal agencies, programs and expenditures.

Shields said the commission would consider merging the Department of Human Services, Health and Human Services Commission and Texas Workforce Commission.

Shields also is proposing a merger of the oil and gas regulating Texas Railroad Commission with the Public Utility Commission, which regulates utility rates.

Other Highlights

Rep. Lon Burnam, D-Fort Worth, has filed legislation that would base auto collision insurance coverage on the number of miles and amount of time a Texas policyholder drives.

CAPITOL COMMENT

U.S. SENATOR
KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON

FINALLY, A MISSILE DEFENSE

During the third week of March, the Senate debated a simple but profound question: Shall it be "... the policy of the United States to deploy as soon as technologically possible an effective national missile defense capable of defending the United States against limited ballistic missile attack?"

The Congress, at long last, made the right decision: We will deploy a missile defense system as soon as technologically feasible. As President Reagan said on an historic night 16 years ago, describing his vision for a missile defense: "Wouldn't it be better to save lives than to avenge them?"

This bill had been blocked by a filibuster for two years but ultimately had strong support from both sides of the aisle. As more and more members of Congress became convinced that a missile defense is critical to our nation's security, the support was overwhelming and even President Clinton dropped his opposition.

The need for missile defense is vital and the danger is growing every day. Chinese missiles can now reach our mainland. Apparently with U.S. assistance and through espionage, China has tremendously boosted its military space and missile capabilities in recent years.

China is now directly threatening Taiwan. It has even warned us not to include Taiwan in our defense umbrella.

North Korea probably already possesses the capability to target our shores. Iran and Iraq are not far behind. The Clinton administration, incredibly, said that we would have a warning time of 15 years before North Korea and Iran could acquire such missiles.

But in January, North Korea launched a ballistic missile over Japan, and it now appears that this ballistic missile was a three-stage missile rather than a less sophisticated two-stage rocket, as originally believed. That launch suggests North Korea is capable of a lot more than simply striking Japan, South Korea, Taiwan and U.S. bases in the Western Pacific. Very soon, it will be able to threaten attacks against the United States in Alaska and parts of Hawaii.

There never was a good argument against deploying a missile defense as soon as possible.

The bill we passed does not mandate a specific missile defense or authorize a particular funding level. It is simply a confirmed policy, and an extremely important step for our national security.

The bold, innovative nation that put a man on the moon can and will meet this technological challenge. Our top scientists have researched anti-missile technology for decades. We have had a formal missile defense program since President Reagan launched his Strategic Defense Initiative in 1983. An operational system is now within our reach.

Finally, we will strive to end this nation's shocking vulnerability to the world's most threatening weapons.

Helping Hands to honor volunteers

Over 100 million Americans are working to make their communities a better place. It is estimated that about half of all adults and teenagers in the United States volunteer, giving over 22 billion hours a year of their time. Those hours have a dollar value of over $209 billion.

"Helping Hands for the Elderly Inc. is fortunate to have more than 2,100 volunteers during a year's time," said Janet McDaniel. "We have all age groups involved in Meals on Wheels five days a week. When we move to our new building, more will be needed to accomplish all that we have planned."

April 18-24 is National Volunteer Week. Helping Hands will honor their volunteers with a reception on April 22 at the Crockett National Bank patio. The come and go affair will be from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m.

"We would not be where we are today if we had not had so many faithful volunteers," said Mrs. McDaniel. "We are looking forward to seeing each one who has helped us in any way over the years."

Garden Club members prepare for flower show

In preparation for the annual flower show, the Ozona Garden Club met at the civic center for a workshop on April 12. The three master flower show judges, Marolyn Bean, Mary Jo Mason and Marge Smith, led the workshop by arranging one of the designs listed in the show classes. Each explained her design interpretation of the theme title and answered questions and made suggestions. Other members brought designs and explained them.

During the business meeting it was reported that the planters for the Rehab landscape projects were ready for delivery.

Martha Weant reported that the Texas Department of Transportation is allocating funds for city beautification projects. The club agreed the embankments along I-10 would be ideal locations for the project. Further contact will be made to the state department chairman.

Hosting the meeting were Grace

Williams and Chris Beckham. Members present were: Debi Hamilton, Charlotte Harrell, Mary Jo Mason, Dorothy Montgomery, Jerri Lynn Pierce, Marge Smith, JoNel Stokes, Jan Van Shoubrouek, Martha Weant, Grace Williams, Ella Clegg, Nancy Childress, Vivian Childress, Chris Beckham and Marolyn Bean.

Trash-off beautifies community

Volunteers filled 451 bags with trash here April 10 as they participated in the Don't Mess with Texas Trash-Off. Organized by the Texas Department of Transportation and Keep Texas Beautiful, the Don't Mess With Texas Trash-Off is the 14th annual statewide clean-up in which volunteers plan local events to beautify their communities. This year, Ozona Chamber of Commerce joined in the project with the local TxDOT office.

In addition to the Adopt-A-Highway portion of the clean-up, volunteers scoured the roadsides within town to improve the appearance of the community. An item noted as the most unusual found was a bottle containing a syringe and needle. The item was picked up by a 7-year-old volunteer.

Groups participating and the number of trash bags they filled are: Lilly Construction, 11; UPR & Family, 75; VIP Livestock, 26; Black Trading Pens, 75; Ozona Chamber of Commerce, 64; Ozona National Bank, 100; Crockett County Sheriff's Office, 100.

Fort Lancaster State Historic Park

Fort Lancaster originated in 1855 as a federal frontier post along the Lower Road providing escort protection to pioneers traveling through the "wild west." In 1861, Confederate troops briefly occupied the fort until the spring of 1862. A little known Civil War battle occurred some four miles south of the fort in 1865. The Buffalo Soldiers of the 9th Cavalry, a black regiment, used Fort Lancaster as a subpost in 1867 and fought the only documented battle at the fort.

Today Fort Lancaster State Historic Park, operated by the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department, strives to keep the fort's history alive.

"The fort is an important piece of Texas history that needs to be preserved for future generations, and Texas Parks & Wildlife is committed to doing just that," explained park manager Cory Evans.

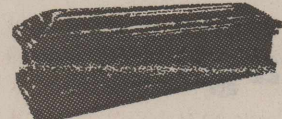

"Through our conservation, education, interpretation, and volunteer efforts, we protect a valuable part of Crockett County's past while providing a unique tourist spot for travelers," said Evans.

The park's volunteer group, the Old Fort Lancaster Frontier Garrison, hosts several "Living History Days" through out the year and participates in the Annual Living History Special Event in October. The park is now open Thursday through Monday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. but will permanently change its schedule Memorial Day and be open 7 days a week from 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

A Matter Of Conscience

By Dennis J. Prutow

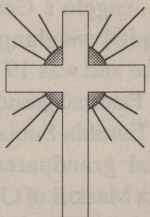

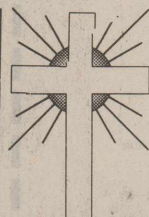

Conscience is important. It's an internal organ. It's not physical. It's spiritual. It passes judgement on everything you do. Your conscience says "yes" at times and it says "no" at other times. When your conscience says "no" after you have done something wrong, you feel bad.

Should you let conscience be your guide? Probably not. Your conscience can lead you astray because your conscience is not perfect. It is naturally unclear. Plus, it needs to be trained. A properly trained conscience can be a great asset and tremendous blessing. Before your conscience can be trained, it must be cleansed. Your conscience can actually get quite filthy. This is where Christianity comes in. The blood of Christ must "cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God" (Hebrews 9:14). Dead works are the things you do that are displeasing to God. You do not feel guilty when you do them because your conscience is not clean. A conscience prepared to serve God, says "yes" when God says "yes" and "no" when God says no.

Once you have a clean conscience you can properly educate it. You instruct your conscience by reading the Bible and learning how God wants you to live. This is discipleship. It is a lifetime task, but it is well worth the effort. You can actually begin to please God.

LIBRARY WEB PAGE

CCPL is well represented on the Internet as part of the Crockett County web site hosted and designed by The Ozona Stockman. We will be getting a new page added to our site to show the progress of our library remodeling and expansion. The page will feature pictures of the developing project and a story outlining the people and processes involved. Check it out at <http://www.ozona.com/library>.

New map and guide highlights Texas' role in Civil War

AUSTIN - The Texas Historical Commission (THC) has created a new map and guide featuring the significant role Texas played in the U.S. Civil War. The guide provides an overview of the state's involvement in the war, information on museums, and facts about monuments and historic sites with wartime importance.

The colorful brochure encourages travelers to examine and explore Civil War defenses, strategic expeditions and battle site locations throughout Texas. The guide, which is part of the agency's heritage tourism initiative, honors the tens of thousands of wartime Texas soldiers and those who remained on the home front.

To receive a free copy of Texas in the Civil War, call 512/463-6094, e-mail thc@thc.state.tx.us or write the THC at P. O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711-2276.

TIFTECH TRAINING

CCPL has received a $20,000.00 grant from the Technology Infrastructure Fund Board of Texas for Internet Enhancement. We will be able to purchase new computers, upgrade the existing computers, network all the computers, and upgrade to a very fast ISDN line for Internet access. We also received a grant from the Tocker Foundation to purchase new computer furniture. The Tocker Foundation is based in Austin and was formed to benefit small community libraries serving under 10,000 population. The new Internet enhancement will all go in the library expansion and should be up and running by the end of the year as the building is completed.

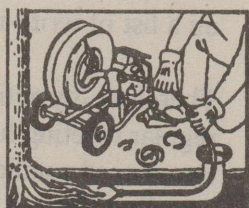

Mandated training is part of the TIF grant and Librarian Louise Ledoux has just completed a series of five training workshop lectures and labs covering the history of the Internet, policies on usage and management, and hands-on Internet navigation, search engines, and basic web page development. The TIF grant will allow the public library to enhance our present Internet access and provide the public with more computers and faster, easier Internet connections and usage.

1999 is an exciting year for the Crockett County Public Library with the building expansion and remodeling and various grants enabling us to improve our services to the community in a variety of ways. We will be prepared to enter the new millennium with improved and expanded services in every part of the library. Visit your public library, and see what we can offer for you.

EARL AND JANELISE BOWMAN AND SHILOH (the bobcat) — took time to have their picture taken by The Ozona Stockman in the downtown park before heading back home. The Bowmans and their pet bobcat were returning home to Lamesa after a trip to San Antonio. Shiloh, the cat, was raised by the Bowmans from a small three-week-old kitten. He has been declawed, neutered, and his fang front teeth have been ground off. The Bowmans said that Shiloh has made an excellent pet.

NOTICE OF NO ELECTION
 CROCKETT COUNTY CONSL.
 COMMON
 SCHOOL DISTRICT
 District No. 2

In accordance with law, the School Board of Trustees, at their regular meeting on February 10, 1999, ordered an election to be held on May 1, 1999, for the purpose of electing a school board trustee for Single Member District No. 2, and Single Member District No. 5. No proposition was to appear on the ballot.

In 1995, the Texas Legislature amended the Election Code to permit the cancellation of an election if the candidates on the ballot are unopposed and no write-in candidates have filed to challenge them and if no proposition is to appear on the ballot. This new law is in Section 2.051-.054 of the Election Code.

On March 23, 1999, the Business Manager for the School District certified to the Board of Trustees that Elliott Barrera had no opposing candidate for District No. 2, and no write-in candidate had filed to be placed on a list of write-in candidates.

Therefore, by action of the Board of Trustees at their regular meeting held April 13, 1999, the above-named unopposed candidate was declared elected to office. The Certification of Election, signed by the President and Secretary of the Board of Trustees, will be posted at the polling place on May 1, 1999.

A Tip for the Town...

Wow, Wowee!!!

The Levis and Lace 13th anniversary square dance was a grand success. Every event was well attended, and everything went well. The new graduates, Tina and Joe Moran and Gail, Jared and Chelsea Spence, sure did dance great. The callers were Roy Lombard from Del Rio and Bill Pritchard from Eagle Pass. They were accompanied by their beautiful wives.

Friday night we had a good crowd of visitors and dancers alike. From 8-10:30 p.m., we danced, laughed and had "loads" of fun. There was homemade vegetable beef soup served after the dance, which gave everyone warm bellies and helped everyone get a good night's sleep.

Saturday, April 10, was a day full of activities and excitement. At 2:30 p.m. there was a workshop led by the two callers, Roy Lombard and Bill Pritchard. They came a long way to fill our lives with a bit of "do-si-do", and they did just that and more. There were at least 35 people at the workshop which consisted of about three squares. For those who didn't get to experience the workshop environment, you missed learning the "Ozona Stroll". It's a call dedicated to the Ozona Levis and Lace Club.

At the workshop we learned new calls and we worked on perfecting our listening. The callers alternated calls, and it really added greatly to the fun. I came up with my own workshop motto, "practice is the perfect time to learn from others' mistakes".

At 5:30 in the afternoon we had a barbecue dinner, and there were over 100 people present to enjoy all the great food.

The dance began promptly at 7:45 p.m. with the "Grand March" which showed that there were enough people on the floor to form nine squares. This was followed by the flag ceremony which was presented by Boy Scout Troop #153 from Ozona. The "Star Spangled Banner" was then sung by me, Rita Longoria Rios. I was accompanied on the piano by Paula Hester, who did a wonderful job. A prayer was said by Daniel Flemming, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Ozona, and a welcome was given by Burl Myers.

We had people joining us from Ozona, Odessa, Midland, Del Rio, San Angelo, Crane, Sabinal, Winters, Bronte, Uvalde, Eagle Pass, and Mesquite. We gave a prize to the person(s) traveling the farthest distance. Patsy and Steve Parten from Mesquite received that prize for traveling 383 miles to come to the festival. Patsy is the daughter of Otis Nester who is the secretary for the Levis and Lace square dancers of Ozona. We had some special guests from the Ozona Care Center who attended the festivities. Thank you, Lilly Bell, Jewel Bailey, Frances Flannigan, Mrs. Curry and Hazel McDaniels, for attending our 13th anniversary square dance.

There were also other raffles that took place. The honey pot on Friday night was won by Ozona's one and only J. D. Brown who just happens to be the only charter member of the Levis and Lace square dancers. He was in it when it started in 1973 and got back in it when it got started again in 1976, which is why we were able to celebrate our 13th anniversary. This was the first time he had won anything and he was surprised. He won $65 with the ticket number 1006077. Chelsea Spence drew for the honey pot on Friday.

On Saturday we raffled another honey pot, a back massager and a foot massager. J. B. Pairish from the Castle Gap Square Dance Club in Crane won the $60 honey pot. LeRoy Cook, also from Crane, won the back massager, and the foot massager was won by Maxie Trowbridge from Brownwood. Alena Fay Hokit drew for the raffle prizes on Saturday night. Thank you to all those that participated. The table decorations were also raffled separately. Congratulations to all who won.

On Saturday night there were up to 10 squares on the floor for the last tip of the dance. That's 80 people on the floor at one time. There were many things to take place, like the Castle Gap Clowns from Crane, who we will challenge again, but you had to be there to really get the "jest" of what I am talking about. Don't miss the next dance.

These festivities would not have been possible if it had not been for the preparation of all the Levis and Lace members and friends. We have many to thank for all of their help, so please be patient.

Care center complaint survey reveals no problems

A survey at Crockett County Care Center conducted in response to a complaint due to deaths there from Dec. 1 to mid-March revealed that the complaint "was unfounded", Jim Roddie told commissioners Monday. "Basically, they found no deficiencies and no problems," the administrator said.

A routine survey conducted by an Austin Medicaid nurse revealed the need for only one minor change to one of the 10 resident records examined, Roddie said.

The care center has 50 residents as of this week, an average which pleases Roddie. Before his arrival, the average remained around 45.

As part of his report to commissioners, Roddie said two new washing machines had been purchased for the center. Options other than the Care-A-Van are being examined for out-of-town trips, and there have been problems with computers.

Commissioners approved a budget amendment to pay for the ambulance chassis/remount. Cost of the project is $48,000.00, and all but $16,000.00 of this will be paid for by insurance reimbursement for the ambulance which burned. This chassis remount unit is expected to arrive at the end of April, and the new ambulance will be delivered May 7.

Some of the equipment lost due to the ambulance fire is being replaced through a $23,000.00 grant from the San Angelo Health Foundation. Two defibrillators purchased with these funds will be placed in deputy's cars.

Court members also voted to appoint Nancy Moore to the health services/care center board. She will replace Jan Van Shoubrouck who recently resigned.

Chris Cornett has resigned as activity director to accept a job in this field in Dallas. Lupe Martinez, also an activity director, is on a leave of absence due to illness in her family. Medications aide Jan St. Clair, who is also a certified activity director, is helping in this area.

The ambulance service reported 28 runs during March, 10 local and 16 transfers.

A clinic report showed 778 visits during March, above average for the month, but down compared to January and February.

One act play advances to Regional competition

By Michelle Holtz
OZONA STOCKMAN WRITER

The Ozona High School one-act play advances to Regional competition in Abilene April 23 along with Eldorado High School.

Pre-kindergarten and kindergarten students to register April 22

Pre-registration for the 1999-2000 pre-kindergarten and kindergarten classes will be held Thursday, April 22, at the primary school library.

Pre-kindergarten students will register from 9:00 to noon. To be eligible to attend pre-kindergarten, a student must be unable to speak and comprehend the English language, eligible to participate in the National Free or Reduced-Price Lunch Program or is homeless. The child must be 4 years old on or before Sept. 1, 1999. Parents must have their child's birth certificate, shot record and Social Security card in order to register the child. If the child speaks Spanish, testing will be done to see if he or she qualifies for pre-kindergarten; therefore you will need to bring the child with you to registration.

Kindergarten registration will be in the library from 1:00 to 4:00 the same day, Thursday, April 22. Kindergarten students must be five on or before Sept. 1, 1999. Parents will also need to bring their child's birth certificate, shot record and Social Security card to registration. A copy of these documents will be made, and the originals will be returned to you. This is required by law 25.002 of the Texas Education Code.

The Texas Department of Health will be conducting a free shot clinic in conjunction with registration. Nurses from their staff will be on campus at Ozona Primary on Thursday, April 22, to immunize children who need these shots. As of Aug. 1, 1998, all children born on or after Sept. 2, 1992, are required to have hepatitis B immunization. The staff from the Texas Department of Health will be here to provide this hepatitis vaccination. Your child will not be allowed to register on April 22 if he or she has not had all required immunizations.

Ozona High School's scenes from "Death of a Salesman" by Arthur Miller and published by Dramatic Play Service Inc., and Eldorado's scenes from "Bus Stop" by William Inge, published by Dramatic Play Service will advance to the Regional competition to be held April 23 in Abilene at the Abilene Christian University's Cullen Auditorium. The first play will begin at 4:00 p.m. with performances running continuously with no break. Order of times will be determined later. Admission to the competition will be $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for students.

Other schools competing in Area competition were Iraan High School with scenes from "The Small World of Millie McIvov" by Ronald Burke published by Dramatic Publishing Company and McCamey High School with scenes from "The Lottery" by Brainerd Duffield published by Dramatic Publishing Company.

John Austin Stokes was named Best Actor. Amanda Carson, Ian Mathews and Tripp Farris were named to the All-Star Cast. Kayla Shurley was named to the Honorable Mention All-Star Cast.

Each student will receive a T-shirt, hats or beads, a skirt or a vest-like garment for the boys. All classes will have a piñata to break

"No regrets."
What are the chances of advancing to state?
"All we can do is perform our best and from there it's up to the judges."

Amanda Carson:
What's your best memory so far about One Act?
Winning District. We were all holding hands and everyone's grip got extremely tight when they announced Ozona.

Do you think that you or anyone else relates to their character? If so, how?
Everyone relates to some character in the play. They're everyday people just like us.

Did you think that the play would be doing this well?
I really don't know. It's totally up to the judge. All we can do is our best.

If someone asked you if you think they should be in OAP, what would you say?
It's a lot of hard work, time, and dedication. If you can handle it, then try it. You'll never know till you try it.

What has One Act taught you about life?
One act has taught me that the relationships I build in everyday life are the things I will remember forever. Life is whatever you make it.

What does One Act mean to you?
It's an escape. Everyday I am Amanda Carson, but when I am on stage, I'm whomever I portray. At the moment I'm Linda Larson

Any regrets about the hours and hours you spend preparing for the play?
NONE! How could I regret working so hard to go to regionals?

What are the chances of advancing to State?
We've worked extremely hard and we are going to continue to work just hard. Hard work gets you everywhere! But it all comes down to the judge.

What's your best memory so far about One Act?
"With all honesty, my best memory for One Act so far would have to be John Austin for best actor."

Do you think that you or anyone else relates to their character; if so, how?
"Yeah, I think we have to relate to our character. Otherwise we wouldn't be: Willy, Biff, Linda, Happy, etc. We would be John, Tripp, Amanda, Ian."

Did you think that the play would be doing this well?
"In the beginning, no. Now, yeah! We have grown together, stronger, than any other year. Once you have trust and respect you stick together. We have real talent and a great ensemble. It's what making this play so well."

If someone asked you if you think they should be in OAP what would you say?
"Are you ready to face your fears? Are you ready to grow up? Can you open up all your doors and share the stuff you hide?"

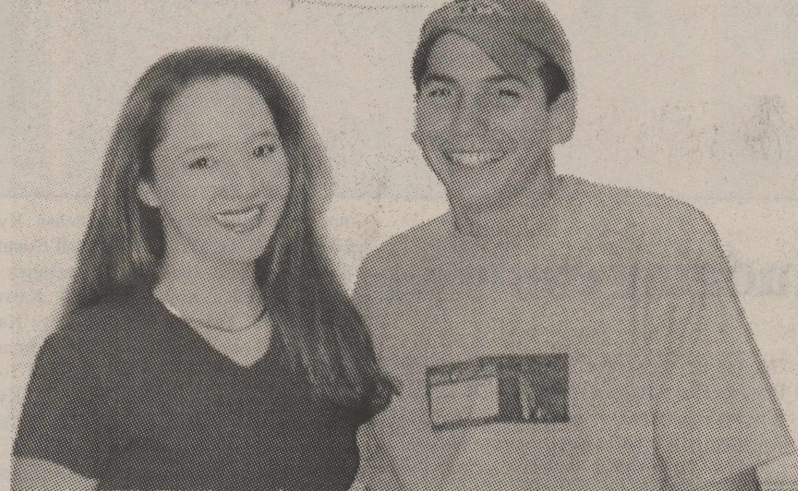

What has One Act taught you about life?
"Live every moment. Live for every moment. No regrets. Take things for granted. (This breath may be our last.) To hold on tight and never let go."

What does One Act mean to you?
"What does one act mean to me? Well what does life mean to you? Better yet, what does god mean to you? That's what theater means to me. It's my passion! The lightly music, crowds, emotions, growing, teaching, learning, being, becoming. (It's hard to explain)."

Any regrets about the hours and hours you spend preparing for the play?
"No regrets. I think we should go through life experiencing as much as possible. Not hiding back for anything."

What are the chances of advancing to state?
"Life is a 50/50 chance. You can live or die. We can go to state/or we can stay home. Depends on the judge. So I'll leave that up to him. But, I believe we are state material."

Karina

What's your best memory so far about One Act?
My best memory so far is advancing and going to McCamey. I cried when we found out that we were going to regionals. I was really excited and it was my first time to go with them out of town.

Do you think that you or anyone else relates to their character? If so, how?
I think Ian does. Happy it goes with him in a way.

Did you think that the play would be doing well?
I thought something might have gone wrong but everything went just fine.

If someone asked you if you think they should be in OAP what would you say?
I would tell them to go ahead. It's a great experience, and you make lots of good friends. It's fun!

What has one-act taught you about life?
That life is worth it and there's lots of beautiful things about it. Also that you live it once and there's no turning back.

What does one-act mean to you?
To me when I go it's a place to get away from my troubles. I leave everything negative from my mind behind.

Any regrets about the hours and hours you spend preparing for the play?
Even though I'm just an alternate it's still worth it. I get to help out and it feels good to be helping out.

What are the chances of advancing to state?
I feel positive about us going to state, and if we keep working hard we can.

What's your best memory so far about One Act?
My Freshman year I was the interviewer in the One Act Play "Shadow Box." One night we were waiting to get started and we were playing around with Traci's Wheel Chair and I was popping wheelies and started rolling back and fell off the set and busted with everyone watching on.

Did you think the play would be doing this well?
At first not at all but we really found strength in this play early on.

If someone asked you if you think they should be in OAP what would you say?
I'd say that it is definitely a lot of work but you build lifetime friendships. It's definitely a lot of fun. Just don't get Mrs. Casey mad.

What has AOP taught you about life?
Every play that we have done has taught us a lesson. But OAP in general has taught me to live life to the fullest and be there to be more caring to people's feelings.

What does OAP mean to you?
It means I get to do something I love with my dad! Nothing in OAP is better than that for me.

Any regrets about the hours and hours you spend preparing for the play?
Now, that depends on the audience. If they can get really involved in the play and if they love it, then it is worth it.

What are the chances of advancing to state?
They are really good if we can grow only up and not go down when it's crucial.

By: Mack L

John Austin Stokes

What's your best memory of One Act?
"The night after we found out we qualified for state my freshman year."

Do you think that you or anyone else relates to their character? If so, how?
"I think that I, and everyone else, can relate to Willy Loman in some aspect."

Did you think that the play would be doing this well?
"It's not substantial what we think. It's how well the judges think you perform."

If someone asked you if you think they should be in One Act, what would you say?
"If they are prepared to sacrifice their time and are willing to be dedicated they should definitely be in it."

What has One Act taught you about life?
"Hard work and dedication will one day pay off."

What does One Act mean to you?
"I can't really explain how I feel about One Act, I guess the only thing I can say is that I liked it enough to shave off the top of my hair."

Any regrets about the hours and hours you spend preparing for the play?
"Not one."

What are the chances of advancing to state?
"There's no way of knowing. All we can do is perform the best play and from there it's the judges preference."

Robert Quiroz

Robert Quiroz is a member of the OAP. He, as well as the rest of the OAP play crew has dedicated many long hard hours to this production. But all the hard work was all worth it when the OAP advanced to the regional contest after giving an excellent performance at the district contest. All the hard work was all put to worth when they advanced. This OAP puts in long hours and Robert says that there are no regrets at all about the long practices. He is very happy about the advancement. Roberts favorite memory in OAP is when they got in trouble for throwing gobstoppers and ice at cars and they got caught by a security guard and they were turned into Mrs. Casey, they were almost disqualified from state. Robert thinks that in a way everyone in the cast relates to the character, he thinks that Tripp is the best example of this, he plays the part of Biff. Like all the others on this crew Robert says that you must be willing to work long dedicated hours to be a success in the OAP. Participating in OAP has taught Robert how to bring his inner-self out and how to to become very dedicated. Roberts' hopes of advancing to state is very good, he says that there are no chances. All the way to state! We would like to tell the OAP to break a leg in the regional contest and wish everyone else good luck as well.

Kelli McNeely

A student at Ozona High School and also member of the one act play was asked questions about her role in the cast. Some of these questions ranging from her best memories to if she can relate to her character. McNeely's best memory of the OAP is the relationships that she has built with other members of OAP. Especially when Jonh, Mario, and Ian coming up with songs. For some of you wanting to join OAP Kelli says "It's a wonderful learning experience". Most of us know about the long hours the members put into the play but does Kelli regret being in the cast, "You're supposed to live without regret", she said. OAP has taught Kelli that life is always full of surprises. Her role in the cast is much like her, I like to have a good time, says Kelli. To Kelli OAP means becoming rich and famous (joke). So what does OAP mean to Kelli? Well you're just going to have to ask her. As we already know that he OAP had advanced to Regionals but how does Kelli feel about going to State, " Right now I'll knock on wood".

Career of the Week

This week's career is awarded to the Veterinarian. Becoming a vet is really easy if you love pets. As early as possible you should get experience with animals. Volunteer at local animal hospitals, shelters or even farms. Of course you need to have a good education in high school and in college. In high school, take college-prepatory courses with a focus on science, especially biology and chemistry. After high school, you'll need at least two years of college-level courses emphasizing physical and biological sciences. Most students enroll in four-year colleges, a bachelor's degree is not always required for admission to veterinary school. What is required are grades of "B" or better, in language arts, social sciences, humanities, mathematics, chemistry, biology, and physics. Some background in business will be useful, as well. The average starting pay of a newly graduated veterinarian was $31,000 in 1994. According to a 1994 survey by U.S. veterinary medical colleges and the AVMA, the average starting salary for veterinarians in public or corporate jobs was about 33,700. Veterinarians in government or corporate positions worked, on average, nearly 52 hours per week, slightly more than those in private practice. These veterinarians usually work more regular hours than do private practitioners, who are often on-call for emergencies. The number of hours you put in may depend in large part on the "culture" of the place you work: some will demand more from you, while others may demand less. Veterinary medicine is a science. To be successful, you need a life-long interest in scientific learning.

The Story of Dr. Pepper

By: Thomas Mossman

This story is just for the knowing of Dr. Pepper's orgin.

Wade Morrison, a young man who worked in a drugstore in Virginia, headed west for Texas after his romance with a local girl was thwarted by the girls father Dr. Pepper. Morrison wound up running the Old Corner Drug Store in Waco, Texas, but he still spoke of his lost romance. Charles Alderton, the pharmacist at the store, would mix all kinds of flavors together in making a special drink for his patrons. The drink became named for Dr. Pepper, in hopes of that it would help Morrison's romance. The drink itself was marketed by Morrison and a beverage chemist, R.S. Lazenby, who developed the unusual formula further. The interesting name was matched by clever marketing methods. The bottle carried the numbers "10", "2" and "4" because these were the times of day when this "friendly pepper-upper" was recommended to provide a lift of energy.

Rani Davis

Rani Davis is a member of the OAP crew. The OAP has advanced to Regionals after giving a great performance at the district contest. Rani doesn't have a best memory, she says that there are too many to remember. We also asked her what OAP means to her and what it taught her. She says that OAP has taught her how to become more committed to her work and it taught her how to get her inner self out, it taught her good morals about life as well. Rani says that you must be a very dedicated and committed to OAP if you are considering to become part of the OAP, it takes a lot of work. If you were to drive around the school around nine o'clock or ten you would see some cars still parked in the parking lot, this is because the OAP puts a lot of time and effort into their work. Rani says that there are absolutely no regrets about staying late to practice. All the hard work paid off. When the question comes up about advancing to state, Rani says that she hopes her and her team will advance, there is always a chance you just have to go out and go for it. Good Luck Rani and the rest of the OAP play.

The MELISSA Virus

There is a new virus that is becoming a threat to computer users called W97M.Melissa.A or W97M_MELISSA. This is a typical macro virus, which has an unusual payload. When a user opens an infected document, the virus will attempt to e-mail a copy of this document to up to 50 other people, using Microsoft Outlook. This virus infects both MS Word 97 and MS Word 2000 documents. It will turn off the security protection upon opening an infected document in Word 2000. This disables Word 2000 macro prompt the next time the document is opened. It infects Word 97 and Word 2000 by adding a new VBAS module named Melissa. The first payload e-mails everyone in your Microsoft Outlook address book. The second payload triggers once an hour, at the number of the minutes past the hour corresponding to the date. For example, on the 16th of the month, the payload triggers at 16 minutes after every hour. If an infected document is opened or closed at the appropriate minute, this payload will insert the following sentence into the document: "Twenty-two points, plus triple-word-score, plus fifty points for using all my letters. Game's over. I'm outta here." Like most macro viruses, this macro virus tries to hide its activity by disabling Tools-Macro in Word 97 and Macro Security in Word 2000. To hide its infection activity, it also disables the following options in Word 97: Prompt to save Normal template, Confirm conversion at Open, and Macro virus protection. With these options disabled, Word 97 does not warn or prompt while saving the NORMAL.DOT or while opening a document with macros in it. Norton AntiVirus users can protect themselves from this virus by downloading the current virus definitions either through LiveUpdate of from <http://www.symantec.com/avcenter>

/download.html. You can also find other programs on the Internet that will help protect you from the Melissa virus.

"Andrea Hiers"

One Act Play, how do you feel about it, what has it taught you, is it worth the time? These are some of the questions that we asked Andrea Hiers. Andrea says her best memory so far of OAP was advancing to regionals. She feels that everyone in the play relates to his or her character in some way. Andrea was never quite positive about the play doing well but she was always hoping it would. "We had a lot of ups and downs", Andrea says. She feels that if you want to be in the O.A.P that you should go for it, it gives you a chance to grow and learn. The O.A.P has taught many people many things but it has taught Andrea that things don't come easy. "Learning how to communicate is what the One Act Play means to me", Andrea stated. "Regrets no, I don't have any this is my last year, after this there wont be another chance to experience something like this", Andrea says. She feels it well be tough to advance to state but hopefully they can pull it off.

HOW EMBARRASSING

WRONG NUMBER

I WAS CALLING THIS GUY I HAD MET NOT LONG AGO. I DIDN'T KNOW THE NUMBER, SO I TOOK OUT MY PHONE BOOK OUT. I WAS LOOKING AT THE WRONG NAME, AND WHEN I ANSWERED I SAID "IS ANDREW, I MEAN JAMIE THERE?". I FELT SO BAD AND THE GUY SAID " SO YOU DO THIS ALL THE TIME?". I FELT SO DUM GOOD THING HE COULDN'T SEE MY FACE

BURP!

I WAS AT THE MALL EATING WITH MY FRIENDS. ALL OF A SUDDEN WHILE I WAS TALKING I LET OUT THIS BIG BURP. IT WAS LOUD AND EVERYBODY TURNED AROUND TO LOOK OUR WAY. I FELT SOO EMBARRASSED.

BUBBLEGUM

I WAS TALKING TO THIS GIRL AT THIS DANCE, AND EVERYTHING WAS JUST FINE. I WAS CHEWING GUM AND IT FELL OUT OF MY MOUTH WHEN I WAS TALKING. THE GIRL JUST CRACKED UP AND SAID SHE HAD TO GO.I WISH I HADN'T DONE THAT.

WINDY

I WAS WALKING DOWN THE STREET TO GO TO THE STORE. IT WAS REALLY WINDY, AND I WAS WEARING A SKIRT. WELL, IT JUST GOT SOO WINDY THAT MY SKIRT FLEW UP. WORST OF ALL WAS THAT A GROUP OF GUYS GETTING GAS SAW IT ALL, AND WERE ALL LAUGHING. I WAS SO EMBARRASSED.

MAJOR FLASH

I WAS CHASING MY FRIEND IN THE MALL. I WAS SAGGING BIG TIME, AND I DIDN'T NOTICE THAT MY JEANS WERE FALLING. BEFORE I KNEW IT MY JEANS WERE ON THE FLOOR. I PICKED THEM UP AND WENT OUTSIDE. I WISH THAT HADN'T HAPPENED TO ME.

Poetry

Unforgiven

It hurts to be shoved. You promised I would be happy. You said I was loved. Unforgiven. It hurt. I felt pain to be treated like dirt. There was no gain. Unforgiven. You want me to forgive. You say we can be friends. I want to live. You said my feelings would mend. Unforgiven. I will never forget. In my heart you made an incision. I will never regret my decision. You are forgiven. That was wrong. My heart had ache. You just sang a song for goodness sake. Unforgiven. I have feelings too. My heart filled with pain. I do feel blue. My heart is now stained. Unforgiven. When you see me don't flee. Just remember that your actions left you... Unforgiven.

Be My Dream Come True

Will you be my dream come true? I had a dream last night, a dream that we were together. I could see you so clearly, hear you voice so soft, and feel your warmth so warm. But that was just a dream I guess. I could even feel the happiness that we used to share, remember how happy we were together? I know its crazy but that's what I had a dream of last night, you and me together again. Wouldn't it be nice to be happy again, do you think that it my dream will come true? Am I trying to live in the dream that I had? Is the only hope I have of us being together again in my dream? If that were true believe this or not, I would rather live in my dream if that is the only way we can be together again. Only if it would come true, but I don't think that is going to happen anytime soon, this dream is more than my imagination its so real I know that I know we will be together again. Being together again is all I'm after, even if is only in my dreams.

Herbicide Offers Consistent Grass Control Year After Year

Sometimes it is tempting to wait and treat weeds and grasses late in the season after others have emerged.

Kenny Hamm
Zeneca Ag Products

That way, you could get them all in one shot, right? Wrong. The early ones are now too tall for effective treatment and your strategy has backfired. Plus, competition with weeds during the crop's crucial, early stages can rob yields before you realize there is a problem.

Early application of an effective postemergence herbicide allows you to treat immature weeds further protecting the yield and quality of your crop.

The ideal postemergence herbicide should:

- provide excellent control of annual and perennial grass species
- allow growers to create their own weed control program with tankmix flexibility
- be rainfast within hours of application
- work in any and all tillage programs.

For years FUSILADE® DX® herbicide has been one of the most popular postemergence treatments for controlling rhizome johnsongrass, and other tough perennial and annual grasses in cotton and soybeans.

Fusilade DX controls grasses by translocating through surface tissues and traveling to the growing points in the stems and roots, where it stops growth within hours. To use Fusilade DX effectively, apply to johnsongrass before it reaches the top of your boots, or about 8 inches high. Target annuals when they're toe-high.

This herbicide's flexibility allows you to broadcast, band, and direct or spot spray in any tillage system. Also, Fusilade DX easily tank mixes at a variety of rates with other herbicides for expanded control. In cotton, tank mix Fusilade DX with insecticides for timely, convenient insect control.

For the best control of grasses and weeds in cotton and soybeans year after year, count on Fusilade DX. Contact your local ag chem dealer for more information about Fusilade DX by Zeneca Ag Products.

"It is the largest in Mexico," says Alberto Galindo, Ozona veterinarian . . .

Annual trail ride grows each year in Mexico

Veterinarian-historian-author-trail ride organizer-all describe Alberto Galindo. Many here know Galindo through his work at Ozona Veterinary Clinic. Few in Ozona know of the annual trail rides started by Galindo five years ago.

His love of history and his hometown of Zaragoza, Coahuila, Mexico, led Galindo to start the rides to commemorate the founding of the city, which was on Feb. 1, 1753.

"I knew from the very start that it (a trail ride) was a good idea, on the principle that almost everyone owns a horse or a wagon. They just needed somebody to lead them somewhere, and for some reason to have fun with their own belongings, talent, tradition and the love for their country."

"So it happened; in five years we have multiplied exactly ten times."

The most recent trail ride at Zaragoza took place Feb. 5-7. "A little over two months ago, and thoughts of our trail ride are still fresh," said Galindo. "This was our fifth consecutive year, and the biggest of all." It was described as the largest in Mexico, some think the largest in the world, says Galindo. Reports from several people indicate that there were 1,721 men on horseback and 73 wagons, which included covered wagons, buckboards, surreys, two wheel carts and even a stage coach.

The stage coach, which belongs to the Galindo family, is a replica of an 1800s coach. It was copied from coaches at Alamo Village in Brackettville and the Mexico City Museum. Built in Zaragoza, the coach is of oak and pecan and leather upholstered. It has been in all five trail rides.

"Other events during the three days include typical Mexican festivities, bands, mariachis, charreada, horse races, mule races, comedians, singers, and the best of all - the trail ride parade as it comes into town after two days in the country if you can imagine tired and happy cowboys, dusty wagons and 2,000 horses."

Everyone is welcome, said Galindo. "Our participants come from all over - Texas, Illinois, Oklahoma, California, Mexico. All you have to do is contact me, and I will do my best for you to be there."

The Mexico Department of Tourism has become involved with the trail ride and prints outstanding souvenir posters designed by Galindo with a new theme each year. Representatives from the Department of Tourism, Coca-Cola, Wranglers, Dickie's and Carta Blanca attended this year's festivities. Among the prizes donated were three from Wool Growers in Ozona.

"SURE WE'RE READY FOR NEXT YEAR," say these boys who have just arrived in Zaragoza, Coah. Mexico after a two day trail ride. Photo Submitted by Alberto Galindo

Pesticide training and licensing to be held at Extension Office April 22

Anyone wanting to obtain a private applicator's pesticide license may do so by attending a pesticide licensing and testing on April 22 at the Crockett County Extension Office located at 1301 Ave. AA. Training will begin at 8:00 a.m. followed by the test at 1:00 p.m.

The purpose of the training is to prepare the participants for the test and to provide them with information on pesticide safety, laws and regulations, labels and labeling, and application techniques. The training is not only important but is required in order to get to take the test. The test is administered by the TDA, and all participants completing the test will pay $50.00 for their license.

A current private applicator's license is required when purchasing restricted use pesticides. Once a license is obtained, holders must then acquire certified educational units (CEUs) in order to keep their license current. This training is to obtain your license only, no CEUs will be available.

People who currently hold a license may want to come in and get a new license. Some of the old certified private applicator licenses do not allow for the applicator to supervise employees in using pesticides. Also, some producers may have not obtained their CEUs and therefore do not have a valid license. If an applicator is not sure of the status of his/her license, they may call 1-800-TELL-TDA, to find out information about their license.

This will be a good opportunity for people wanting a license for the first time, or for those wanting a new one. For more information, call the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Please RSVP by April 20 so that plans can be made for the training.

Do what you can, with what you have, where you are. —Theodore Roosevelt

NOTICE OF NO ELECTION
EMERALD UNDERGROUND
WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

In 1995, the Texas Legislature amended the Election Code to permit the cancellation of an election if the candidates on the ballot are unopposed and no write-in candidates have filed to challenge them and if no proposition is to appear on the ballot. This new law is in Section 2.051-.054 of the Election Code.

On March 23, 1999, the District Manager of the Emerald Underground Water Conservation District certified to the Board of Directors that George Bunger, Jr., John R. Jones and Nat Read had no opposing candidates for the positions of Director of the Emerald Underground Water Conservation District. No write-in candidates had filed to be placed on a list of write-in candidates. No proposition was to appear on the ballot.

Therefore, by action of the Board of Directors at their regular meeting held on April 5, 1999, the above-named unopposed candidates were declared elected to office. The Certification of Election, signed by the President and Secretary of the Board of Directors, will be posted at the polling places on May 1, 1999.
