Athletes To Be Honored At Annual Banquet

Turning out top-flight defensive secondaries for Texas Tech is an achievement claimed by Dale Evans, guest speaker for the Annual All Sports Banquet which is slated for 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the school cafeteria.

Evans' 1971 Tech secondary led the nation in pass defense. Prior to joining the TT coaching staff, he was dean of men and head football coach at Salem College.

A graduate of West Virginia University, Evans stresses studies, his own record serving as example. He earned both his BA and MA degrees within four years after enrolling in WVU.

Students in the athletic program, boys and girls, are selling tickets for the event. Tickets are $3.50 each.

Athletes and coaches will be recognized. Awards will be given to outstanding athletes in football, basketball, golf, tennis and track. A highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of the Fighting Mustang Award, an honor chosen by athletes themselves in secret balloting.

DASHING TO VICTORY - Marla Faver and Sharon Poarch came in one-two in the 60 yard dash event Thursday and will both represent the track Fillies in regional.

Ag-Mechanics Program Ok'd FFA Grounds To Be Improved

Oath of office was taken by Garland DePrang and Burley Faver as the board of trustees met Monday night for the first regular meeting since the election, which resulted in DePrang and Faver being chosen for another term.

The canvass of election returns and re-organization of board followed the swearing in of new members. Royce Collins was elected president; Uil Gunter, vice-president and Elmo Bryant, secretary.

Mrs. Rosalyn Sorley submitted her letter of resignation to the board, stating that she wished to devote more time to her family, help Archie in his business and work in the church more.

The board of equalization appointed by board members included Calvin Graham, Edwin Oliver and Tom Sluder with William DeBerry named as alternate.

Services with the Media Center in Lubbock were contracted for another year. The center offers computerized services to schools, such as payrolls and all types of record keeping.

Office, library and bus personnel were given contracts by the board with an increase in pay. Those receiving new contracts include Virginia Moss; tax assessor-collector; Edna Price, Doris Watt, Virginia Miller, Alva Roberson, Geneva Smith, office workers; Norma Lively, lunchroom supervisor and Ollie Ross, bus foreman and bus driver.

Dewey Hukill, representing Olton Stock Show Board, met with the board along with Alva J. Spain, county commissioner of precinct 1.

Hukill told the board that federal funds would be available from federal revenue sharing to make needed improvements on the Stock Show grounds provided the county was given a deed to it.

"A total of six lots belong to the stock show board and the Olton Chapter of FFA according to the original deed," Hukill told the board. "And since the FFA is under the guidance of the school, we felt it would be the proper thing to do if we came before the school board with our request before going to the FFA."

They propose to deed only three lots of the land to the county and in turn receive a 99 year lease from the county at a nominal charge. Then funds would be available for building a 40 x 72 steel building for the FHA girls, plus wash rooms for the show animals and rest rooms.

The board gave their approval for three lots to be deeded to the county.

In reports from the superintendent, a decline in enrollment of only two as noted. Average daily attendance was recorded at 935. The lunchroom is reportedly operating "in the black" with better than 95 percent participation of students.

The board voted to accept insurance coverage for Workmen's Compensation from the Texas Employers Insurance Agency as a new law states that workmen's compensation be a "must" for schools.

A plan to re-direct Ag IV to Ag Mechanics has been made by the school, Superintendent Turner told the board, and if the plan is approved at the state level, the local board would have to approve it also before it could begin.

Tommy Hancock, who would teach the course, would have to attend a

C-CA Sets 'Rap' Session

Is the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture being operated the way you think it should be? It is accomplishing all that you think it should? Have you ideas which might lead to improvement of our area? These are questions Carl McClure, president, would like to have answered.

A general meeting, for the purpose of discussing these and other questions that may arise, has been called for Monday, April 29 at 8 p.m.

All concerned citizens, whether members of the Chamber or not, are requested to be present for the "RAP" session in the school cafeteria, according to McClure.

Perseverance Pays Dividends

Patience, kindness and a large helping of encouraging words from her employer and teacher stopped Floy Sluder from giving up on a job she accepted in 1958. That reassurance kept her going with the work which eventually led to the ownership with her husband, Tom of Sluder Insurance Agency.

Confessing the frustration she felt when she began working for Roy Granbery in his insurance business, Floy says there were many times when she despaired ever learning "the ropes" of her work but learn she did.

In 1960, Floy began working with the late Howard Hall and, following his death in 1970, she and Tom purchased the business from his widow, Nettie.

Hall first learned insurance in Plainview and came to Olton in the summer of 1950. He and Eldon Franks founded an agency and opened for business in a frame building located about were Southwestern Public Service or Olton Cleaners are today.

Nettie remembers she never did learn the workings of her husband's business but did occasionally "office sit." She remembers, too, that in the business' early days they sold license plates.

Mrs. Leslie Kennedy began working with Hall in October of 1953 soon after he opened his office in the new building on Main which now serves the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Serving the interest of their "assureds" is the primary goal the Sluders have followed since the beginning of their insurance association.

To people seeking insurance, they believe, the local agency "is the company" and Floy and Tom endeavor to represent themselves and their companies to their customers with integrity and genuine concern.

"We're richly blessed to have such a wonderful community and such wonderful assureds," Floy says with a sincerity that shines through her words.

Insurance has changed greatly through the years since Floy began as a secretary for Granbery and then Hall. More awareness of the need for liability protection is one of the more notable changes.

Both the Sluders speak out of the vital importance of liability coverage for farmers. "Farming is BIG business in our area," they acknowledge "and farmers, perhaps more than any one, need to examine their insurance coverage and to know they are sufficiently protected for the unforeseen."

Sometimes, Floy says, experience can lead to a self-confidence that fails to recognize that accidents can still happen suddenly and with possible tragic results.

"Folks need to think, 'Am I liable' and to be protected against possible happenings."

Liability insurance, the Sluders explain, is a protection "too cheap not to have." Many people, too, do not realize the exposure they have, Floy says.

Insurance is more than protection to be sold, Floy feels. It is something a family or person needs to think out, to plan for all kinds of needs.

An important step which is sometimes neglected, Floy says, is the immediate reporting of an accident.

"It is very important that the agent be notified at once and particularly so for workmen's compensation claims. One of our general agents says, 'If you see a man falling off a ladder, report it before he hits the ground' - it's about that urgent," Sluder says.

Sluder Insurance Agency represents a number of major companies, all stock companies. Some of their older line companies include United States Fidelity and Guaranty, Transamerica, Providence Washington Group, Plains Insurance Company and Great Southern Fire and Casualty. One of their specialized companies is Ranger.

Recently re-done, the pretty carpeted, paneled office still includes a framed picture of a very early day, horse drawn fire truck which has become a sort of symbol of the business.

Moved from its regular spot, special agents calling on the Sluders immediately noted the missing feature and inquired, "What did you do to our firetruck picture?"

The Sluders are longtime residents of Olton and are two of the town's most loyal citizens. Tom, who came to Olton in 1928, worked 23 years with Olton Butane before entering the insurance business. Floy came to Olton as a sophomore and graduated from Olton High School.

Members of Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Sluder's four children are also OHS graduates. Tom Jr. lives in Dumas. Leabelle, Mrs. Orville Finch, lives in Dalhart. Essie Diane, Mrs. Leon Gheer, has lived in Canyon since her graduation from West Texas State and is secretary of the University president. Peggy Hull, the youngest, lives in Kimball, Neb.

The Sluders are very proud grandparents of seven grandchildren and find their greatest pleasures when they can find time to be together.

special workshop at Texas A&M for three weeks in order to be prepared to teach next year.

Students would be taught to work on tractors, farm machinery and all types of small machinery, Turner said.

"Of course, we will be limited but I feel it is far better than offering Ag IV. We had four boys signed up this year for Ag IV and four for next year. We have 13 that are interested in Ag Mechanics."

He said the school had enough tools already and that the budget was such that any extra ones needed could be bought.

The board gave its unanimous approval.

In final action, the board gave the "go-ahead" to Supt. Turner, who asked that paneling be put in the living room and kitchen of the superintendent's house. Also needed is a kitchen floor covering and cabinet drain board.

Sugar, Spice, And Sage

By Jan Sherman

I have found there is most definitely an art in neighboring. Sometimes we feel as though there is little we do each day in the name of art, but there is if you have taken the time each day to listen--simply listen.

Recently a friend of mine called. "I know you're busy,"she started, "but I'm about to climb the walls over here!" After listening, I gave some advice, however slight and promised I would think about what she had said and call back. In the meantime, I called CONTACT LUBBOCK, which is there night and day to help anyone with their problems. I knew I was the middle man and didn't know if I could relate the problems I found, but I felt as though I needed help in her case. Instead, I learned something much more amazing than what I had hoped. The woman on the other end gave me some help in what she said, but the best was that she said her job was mainly to listen--to give these people someone to talk to without judging them for what they told her.

We so often think that we have to give some sound, perfect advice when a friend consults us, when in reality, about half of the help to them is to simply listen and let them talk.

Often friends feel disgusted with themselves for the wrong things--the dumb things they've done that day. What an awful thing it is to feel as though we've failed in our jobs as Mothers, Fathers or another task of equal responsibility. We carry that load with us to the next day, feeling as if the burden will surely break us. What an awful way to live.

My suggestion is to take these problems, worries, fears, and guilts and apply generously one thorough prayer time. Through my reading and listening I've learned to ask forgiveness of these mistakes I've made--every one--big or little.

Accuse me of getting "religious on you" if you want to. I don't care. I'm not trying to preach. I'm just relating to you what works with me. I used to carry guilts of mistakes I had made all week, some times months. That's living in defeat. Try living day to day. Try reading Psalm 51:10. Ask for that forgiveness and read 1 John 1:9, then follow with a dab of Matthew 11:28-29. Know there is someone greater than neighbors to help you thru each day. Thank Him for it and forget those old problems and guilts. In the morning, when the sun is streaming merrily thru the window, ask for help thru the day, listing all the things that might get you down. That night start over again. You may have still screamed at the kids for something you shouldn't have, but there's no point carrying it around with you. Pray for continued strength, and help for the morrow. John says "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear...1 John 4:18.

Wilfred A. Peterson has something to say about the Art of Living Each Day:

"Each day is a lifetime in miniature...To awaken each morning is to be born again, to fall asleep at night is to die to the day. In between waking and sleeping are the golden hours of the day. What we cannot do for a lifetime we can do for a daytime. 'Anyone', wrote Robert Louis Stevenson, 'can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly, purely till the sun goes down.' Anyone can hold his temper for a day and guard the words he speaks. Anyone can carry his burden heroically for one day. Anyone can strive to be happy for a day and to spread happiness around. Anyone can radiate love for a day.

Anyone can rise above fear for a day and meet each situation with courage. Anyone can be kind and thoughtful and considerate for a day. Anyone can endeavor to learn something new each day and make some growth. When we fail and fall short, let us forgive ourselves and consider the words of Emerson: 'Finish every day and be done with it. Tomorrow is a new day; you will begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be cumbered by your old nonsense." Live a day at a time and remember that tomorrow is another today."

VIRGINIA JOHNSON

Cook Of The Week

Recipes are shared this week by a young woman with an enthusiasm for so many things that naming hobbies proved difficult. Virginia Johnson, our Cook of the Week, offers cookie recipes which have passed the "taste test" with her family and friends.

Virginia says she likes to cook and finds Glen, one of her six brothers, a willing "guinea pig" for new recipes she tries.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Johnson, Virginia also has three sisters. Her brothers, Kenneth, Glen, Clarence, Collin and David have all excelled in athletics for Olton schools and Virginia, along with her parents, have been their enthusiastic fans. Virginia is also a "Frog fan" since she received her secretarial science studies at Jarvis Christian College, TCU affiliate.

Reading and collecting books are at the top of Virginia's favorite pastimes. She also likes to try all crafts. She has recently become a tropical fish enthusiast.

Earlier this year, since she is technically considered "legally blind, Virginia trained at Criss Cole Rehabilitation Center in Austin. While she was in Austin she was thrilled to get to serve as a volunteer at the State School to work with persons handicapped mentally, visually and in hearing.

"It really makes you count your blessings to help those less fortunate," she says.

Virginia served as a teacher's aide in special education last year in Olton schools and found it very rewarding work.

With her family, Virginia attends Bohner Chapel Baptist Church.

Let's Observe A National Day Of Fasting And Prayer April 30

United States of America

Congressional Record

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 93rd CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 119 WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1973 No. 201

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 183 – National Day for Humiliation, Fasting, and Prayer

"WHEREAS, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men to owe their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is Lord; and

"WHEREAS, we know that we have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown; but we have forgotten God; and

"WHEREAS, we have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own; and

"WHEREAS, intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us; and

"WHEREAS, we have made such an idol out of our pursuit of 'national security' that we have forgotten that only God can be the ultimate guardian of our true livelihood and safety; and

"WHEREAS, we have failed to respond, personally and collectively, with sacrifice and uncompromised commitment to the unmet needs of our fellow man, both at home and abroad; as a people, we have become so absorbed with the selfish pursuits of pleasure and profit that we have blinded ourselves to God's standard of justice and righteousness for this society; and

"WHEREAS, it therefore behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness: Now, therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, that the Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974 be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins."

This is the first time the United State Senate has taken such a historic step since confirming President Abraham Lincoln's Call to Prayer in 1863. Our country faces crisis. Our nation needs a moral and spiritual awakening. If ever we need to pray--it is now.

Here is God's Promise!

"If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins, and will heal their land" (II Chronicles 7:14).

God wants to change the hearts of men and women. He wants to mend broken families. He wants to turn suspicion, hate, discord into love, forgiveness, harmony. God wants to give our nation a new birth of faith and freedom!

God is able—if we will turn from ourselves, look to Him and pray!

Join Millions of Americans in Prayer on April 30

On April 30 millions will be joining together to pray for change. Millions will be praying for a moral and spiritual awakening in our country and in the world. You can join them!

In your home, at the office, by yourself, with a neighbor, you can have a part in releasing the mightiest force for good known to man—prayer to a loving, all-powerful God!

There is a way to peace, equality, security, harmony.

Let's take the first step toward a new America!

To Help You Pray April 30

Pray for national repentance, acknowledging God's mercy and forgiveness (II Chronicles 7:14)

Pray that, as individuals, we will realize God's love and draw upon His wisdom and understanding (James 1:5; Proverbs 3:5, 6; I Corinthians 13).

Pray for young people and their families, that they may desire and be willing to listen to and learn from each other (Colossians 1:10; Ephesians 5:15-6:4).

Pray for the leaders of our country—national, state and local—that they may have wisdom, integrity, protection, guidance and an awareness of God's presence in mind and heart (I Timothy 1:6; Jeremiah 33:3).

Pray for those who are prisoners of drugs, alcohol, immorality, obscenity, pornography, crime, prejudice, unbelief and despair (Matthew 5:44, 45; John 8:36).

Pray for the purification of our thoughts and deeds, that we may be fit instruments and channels for God's love where we live, work, play and worship (Colossians 1:9-12; Philippians 4:6, 7).

Study these passages in the Bible:

Romans 13:1
I Timothy 2:1-8
Colossians 1:9-16
