Traffic Blocked And Crops Damaged By Heavy Rains

Thousands Of Acres Of Land Are Inundated

Rainfall, Varying From Bare Trace To 13 Inches, Visits Parts Of Texas; East Texas Is Heaviest Hit

Damage In Shelby County Is Estimated Near $1,000,000; Railway Bridges Washed Out And Roads Blocked

(By The Associated Press)

GENERAL rains which ranged from a trace to 13 inches seriously handicapped traffic and washed out crops in some parts of Texas, aided crops in others and resulted in lower temperatures generally over the week-end.

A wide strip of East Texas, extending roughly from the northern edge of the oil field southeast-ward to the coast at Beaumont, had the heaviest fall. The gauges at Beaumont showed 13.5 inches of rain from 7 a. m. Saturday until noon today.

Land Under Water

In the vicinity of Center, in extreme East Texas, thousands of acres of bottom land were under water, rivers went on a rampage, highways were blocked in Shelby and Panola counties and trains were delayed. Several bridges were washed away and automobiles careened into the swirling water but no one was hurt.

Tourists faced the prospect of waiting two or three days before continuing their journeys on roads other than cardinal highways. Thousands of acres of cotton and corn were under water around Center and Carthage. The rain at Center continued 26 hours, the heaviest in that section for 17 years.

Heat Wave Ended

The weather bureau's report showed that the most rain fell in the 24-hour period ending this morning at Bronson, Sabine county. The figure there was 8.20 inches. Many other towns and cities had an inch or more precipitation.

The rains ended quickly a protracted heat wave which had held the state in its grip for several

Mary Pickford Arranges For A Nevada Divorce From Douglas; Will Take Up Residence There

Actress Will Probably Take A Cottage Now Being Occupied By Carole Lombard, Who Seeks Divorce From Her Hubby Of Movie Fame; Recent Visit To Reno Is Disclosed

(By The Associated Press)

RENO, Nev., July 24. — Mary Pickford, it was learned today, plans to seek a Nevada divorce from Douglas Fairbanks.

A rift in the domestic affairs of the noted motion picture couple was revealed Sunday, July 2, when Miss Pickford announced "a separation is contemplated."

"If there should be a divorce," she said at that time, "the grounds will be incompatability."

Information from sources here today was that Miss Pickford completed arrangements to establish residence for the divorce in a conference with attorneys in Reno about two weeks ago.

The actress was said to have conferred with J. W. Dignan, member of the law firm which represented her in 1920 in her divorce proceedings against Owen Moore.

Dignan, however, refused to comment on reports his firm has been retained by the actress, saying only that "any statement will have to come from Miss Pickford."

He admitted she had been here recently, but denied having

Notorious Texas Outlaw Flees With Companions After Gun Battle; Brother And Wife Are Captured

(By The Associated Press)

DEXTER, Iowa, July 24. — Clyde Barrow, notorious Texas outlaw, today fought a machine gun battle with police in a wooded hide-away and tonight was dodging over western Iowa with a network of men in airplanes, armored cars, motorcycles, and automobiles — all connected by wireless—hot in pursuit.

Fleeing with him in a stolen automobile was a man identified as Jack Sherman and a woman, both of them believed badly wounded. They had hidden out near here in wild west fashion for a week with an arsenal of two machine guns, thirty-four automatic pistols, and five revolvers.

Two Are Captured

The machine gun battle brought about the capture of Marvin Barrow, brother of Clyde, and Marvin's wife. The Barrow brothers are wanted for four murders and wounding three policemen.

The chase for the Barrows began after a waiter in a restaurant reported one of the men had daily purchased five dinners and taken the meals into the woods. A farmer also informed authorities of finding blood-stained bandages near their camp.

The gun battle took place at the outlaws' barricade behind a fallen tree when a posse approached. Clyde Barrow and the other two escaped the posse by wading a stream and

Strike Is Called In Movie Colony

HOLLYWOOD, July 24. (AP)—Every union laborer employed in the motion picture studios of Hollywood was today ordered to walk out on strike at midnight tonight.

The strike was issued by Richard L. Green, international representative of the international alliance of stage employes and motion picture machine operators of the United States and Canada.

The strike was called on the grounds that the motion picture producers had violated a union agreements wherein they promised not to employ non-union help. Green said the producers had employed non-union men to replace the striking sound technicians who went out on strike at midnight, Saturday night.

Stock Market Stages Spurt After Illness

Advances Of $2 To $10 Shown In Some Shares; Alcohols And Metals Lead; Wheat And Cotton Also Rebound

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 24.—The stock market got out of bed today, took a long deep breath, and signaled its apparent convalescence with a spurting advance of $2 to $10 or more per share.

All categories of equities joined in recovery, although alcohols and metals easily were leaders throughout. Grains, in restricted trading at Chicago, were fairly firm and wheat jumped 2 to 3 cents a bushel at Winnipeg. Cotton came back for gains of $1.80 to $2.10 a bale, bar silver rallied nearly 2 cents an ounce, and other commodities displayed strength. Bonds improved, especially in the more speculative divisions.

Observe Short Day

In its first "short day"—trading opened at noon instead of the usual 10 a. m. in order to allow commission houses to clear away the huge pile of business that accumulated in last week's slump—the market took advantage of every minute and the ticker tape sped at a fast gait al-

Recovery Plan Goes Forward Amid Sounds Of Dissension

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—Amid some sounds of dissension, the industrial recovery administration strode lustily forward today in step with the pace set by President Roosevelt.

Hearings went forward on trade agreements drawn up for the oil, wool, textiles and lumber industries. Plans for setting under way the compact signing in the recovery push were not allowed to lag and the entire movement was given new impetus by the speech of President Roosevelt tonight.

Sentiment To Reconvene The World Parley Said Growing

LONDON, July 24. (AP)—Sentiment favoring reconvening of the world economic conference after the recess which begins next Thursday increased today as the monetary commission adopted its report for submission at the final plenary sitting.

The French delegation was reliably reported to be anxious that the parley should not adjourn indefinitely and Georges Bonnet, French finance minister, is understood to have made this clear in submitting as reporter the document outlining the work of the monetary group.

George N. Peek Gives Warning That Grain Market Practice Must Be Reformed; General Code Is Considered

Present Situation Described As Grave; Says Farmers May Have To Resort To Another Method Of Marketing

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 24.—In a warning to put their own house in order or the government would reform grain market practices, the farm administration informed the grain trade today that it did not recognize that the present trading regime "has any divine right to handle the farmer's products."

George N. Peek, chief administrator of the farm act, issued the warning at a conference of representatives of the grain industry shortly before they took steps to explore the possibilities of establishing a code of competition under which stringent regulations covering commodity marketing would be established.

Peek and other administrators, aroused over the recent sharp rise and fall in wheat, corn and other grain prices, expressed the intention of taking the initiative in "reforming grain marketing practices" unless the exchanges obtain results by mutual agreement.

Committees representing grain exchanges, terminal elevators and country elevators opened the effort to draft an agreement by beginning special studies to determine the possibilities of each for application of a code which would be submitted either under the farm adjustment act or national recovery act, or both.

Soon you will see this badge, in red and blue, reproduced in shop windows, on factories, on the labels of goods, on letterheads. It means that the proprietors of the factory or shop displaying the sign, or the makers of goods bearing it, are co-operating with the National Recovery Administration by adopting the working conditions which the administration believes necessary for recovery. The president himself has urged that organizations displaying this label be patronized rather than others which have refused to co-operate.

Chicago Gang Chief Is First Victim In Drive On Kidnapers

Forecast Of Bad Weather May Again Delay Take Off

NEW YORK, July 24. (AP)—A forecast tonight of thundershowers and head winds over the route General Italo Balbo and his squadron will fly to Shediac, N. B., made a take-off tomorrow unlikely.

The general ordered his men to be on deck at 5 o'clock (eastern standard time) however, and his final decision one way or the other probably will be made at the field.

Two Prominent Men Still Held For Ransom; Roger Tuohy Is Jailed With Three Henchmen In Hamm Case

(By The Associated Press)

WITH two prominent victims still held for ransom, the federal government Monday made its first charges—with a Chicago gang chief as the leading defendant—in the recent outbreak of kidnapings.

Under the surveillance of half a hundred armed police, Roger Tuohy and three henchmen were taken to Milwaukee, Wis., where they were named in federal warrants as the kidnapers of William Hamm, jr., millionaire St. Paul brewer, for $100,000 ransom.

Confident Of Convictions

"I am confident we shall be able to obtain convictions in the Hamm case," said Melvin H. Purvis, chief of the U. S. bureau of investigation at Chicago.

Hamm was kidnaped from near his brewery June 15. Federal authorities believe the kidnapers carried him across the Minnesota state line into Wisconsin, thus being liable for prosecution under federal statutes.

Arrested In Wisconsin

The Touhy gangsters were arrested at Elkhorn, Wis., last week after an automobile accident, taken to Chicago for questioning about the $50,000 kidnaping of John Factor, then returned to Elkhorn and Milwaukee Monday in preparation for prosecution in connection with the Hamm case.

In announcing the arrests officially at Washington, the United States department of justice also stated substantial progress was being made in the search for Factor's abductors.

At Oklahoma City, relatives and associates of Charles F. Urschel, kidnaped trustee of a $23,000,000 oil estate, announced they were ready to "make a contact with the kid-

President Calls On Employers To Put Into Immediate Effect Codes To Strengthen Recovery

Roll Of Honor Of All Those Who Join In Recovery Plan To Be Posted In Every Postoffice Of Country; Praise Given Cooperation Of Industry; To Mobilize Public Opinion

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 24.—President Roosevelt tonight called upon all employers in the nation to put into immediate effect the voluntary code to shorten working hours and elevate wage levels.

Summoning the country to a quick attack upon the depression, Mr. Roosevelt in a talk to the people announced his purpose to keep posted in the post office of every town a roll of honor "of all those who join with me."

"I ask," he said, "that even before the dates set in the agreement which we have sent out; the employers of the country who have not already done so—the big fellow and the little fellows—shall at once write or telegraph to me personally at the White House, expressing their intention of going through with the plans. And it is my purpose to keep posted in the postoffice of every town, a roll of honor of all those who join with me."

Cooperation Is Given Praise

Praising the cooperation so far given to the attempt for American industry to spread work and increase wages, the president said he recognized that a few men might try to thwart "this great common purpose by seeking selfish advantage."

He noted here are adequate penalties in law to meet this but he urged instead a voluntary cooperation and announced this would be the only instrument used "in this great summer offensive against unemployment."

"But we shall use them to the limit," he stated, "to protect the willing from the laggard and make the plan succeed."

People Will Pull Out

The president said the American people "will pull themselves out of this depression if they want to."

He expressed his belief that the people would mobilize the great force of American public opinion behind the plan to divide work and to give all living wages.

"The essence of the plan," he explained, "is a universal limitation of hours of work per week for any individual by common consent, and a universal payment of wages above a minimum, also by common consent."

Analyzes Full Program

In his third talk to the nation since his inauguration, the president analyzed the full program which congress gave him the power to carry through.

He said the credit of the nation had been maintained by balancing

Today's demonstrations included farm forestry, farm machinery, hand weaving and the making of butter, cheese, cakes, cookies, bread, syrup, hooked rugs, mats and moccasins.

Hamm Denies He Identified Members Of Kidnaping Gang

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 24. (AP)—William Hamm, jr., millionaire brewer, said tonight he had not identified members of the Roger Touhy gang as the men who seized him here June 15 and held him until payment of $100,000 ransom.

"I was not able to identify either by sight or sound of voices any of the Touhy gang members," said Hamm.

The brewer returned to St. Paul last night after a visit to Chicago where he viewed the suspects who were arrested at Elkhorn, Wis.

Officer Dies After Killer Stages Break

Policeman Falls With Bullets In Heart; Prisoner Is Shot Down And May Die After An Attempt At Liberty

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 24.—A killer broke away from his guard in the criminal courts building today, shot Policeman John Sevick dead and raced down the corridor toward freedom.

As bullets thudded against the door of the courtroom and audience and attaches ducked in panic from the line of fire, a bailiff snatched the fallen policeman's revolver and ran after the fugitive. He shot the gunman, John Scheck, twice in the back, but Scheck ran on down the court house stairs.

Accosted By Clerk

On the floor below a clerk accosted Scheck.

The gunman wheeled, leveled his pistol and pulled the trigger. It clicked harmlessly. He slumped to the floor. The bailiff's shots had taken effect. Physicians said he probably would die.

Carl Grundhoefer, co-defendant with Scheck on charges of bank robbery and murder, had sprinted from the bullpen with Scheck but

Texas Farmers Start Plowing

Actual Cotton Destruction Is Begun As Emergency Permit Blanks Are Received From National Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

COLLEGE STATION, July 24. — Actual destruction of cotton under the government's acreage reduction campaign slowly got under way in Texas today as county agents received supplies of emergency permit blanks from Washington.

O. B. Martin, director of the Texas extension service, assumed from reports from the agents that the work of plowing up the cotton had started in virtually every section of the state. They notified him as soon as the supplies arrived.

Permits Are Signed

Twenty farmers in Tom Green county in West Texas signed the permits before noon and took their plows to the field. Sherman reported that Grayson farmers also were quick to sign. At Corsicana, as elsewhere in the state, inspectors went out with as many contracts as Washington officials had approved.

C. A. Cobb, cotton expert in charge of the nation-wide campaign of the government designed to improve the cotton growers status, notified Texas officials that they might use any method they chose to destroy the cotton crop. State leaders interpreted the ruling to mean it would be possible for the growers to mow and rake the cotton but in any case the stubble left in the field should be destroyed also.

Mollisons Arrive In New York After Experience Which Almost Cost Lives

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 24.—Leaving their wrecked trans-Atlantic plane behind them, Capt. James A. Mollison and his wife, the former Amy Johnson, arrived in New York from Bridgeport, Conn., tonight, still shaken from their close brush with death but thankful to have reached their original destination safely.

"All we want to do is to go to bed for a good long rest," Amy said as they arrived at Floyd Bennett field in a giant amphibian plane.

The British couple, who successfully crossed the Atlantic only to crash headlong in a marsh last night with their goal literally in sight, were flown leisurely down from Bridgeport by Pilot Ralph C. Wickford.

Several thousand persons, many of whom had waited hours to greet them last night, lined the banks of Jamaica bay as the amphibian dropped down near General Italo Balbo's air fleet, and watched the Mollisons carried to a waiting automobile.

Both still wore bandages and Mrs. Mollison grimaced fre-

Slashed And Mutilated Body Of Boy Found In Bay; Missing Over A Week

(By The Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 24. —Slashed and mutilated before death, the body of Dalbert Aposhian, 7-year-old boy who had been missing from home a week, was found today floating in San Diego bay.

Autopsy Surgeons Elliott G. Colby and F. E. Toomey said the body had been in the water about four days and in their opinion "the body was placed in the water after death, which was caused by multiple mutilating operations and hemorrhage."

Police Chief Harry Raymond said a round up of all suspicious characters and known degenerates was in progress.

Mrs. George Aposhian, mother of the boy, collapsed when she learned of his death.

Police said there was a striking similarity between the crime and the unsolved murder of 11-year-old Virginia Brooks, who disappeared while en route to school in the spring of 1931 and whose body, trussed in a gunny sack, was found on Camp Kearny mesa by a sheppard a month later.

The boy's ears, eyes, tongue and lips were missing and the body had been mutilated further.

Jolson Tells Of Winchell Battle

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, July 24.—"It was a sock heard around the world. And I'm glad I did it."

Thus Al Jolson dismissed the matter of his Friday night unscheduled two-blow bout with Columnist Walter Winchell while stopping here en route from Hollywood to New York on an air trip today.

Between soup and coffee Jolson related first-hand his battle with Winchell for allegedly putting things in a scenario about Jolson's wife, Ruby Keeler. Miss Keeler did not accompany Jolson today.

Only evidence of the fight Jolson exhibited was a bruised little finger on his right hand which was responsible for both his blows planted on Winchell's chin while 4,000 Hollywood prize fight customers looked on.

DRY WEATHER

H. PLAIN vouches for the story he tells on dry weather. Back in 1917, so he relates, a woman built a hotel down at Seagraves. She ran out of money before the roof was put on the structure, so the furniture was installed, anyway, and the building opened for business. No roof was put on for a year and, in the meantime, so little rain fell that no damage was done.

And you thought this was a drouth.

SOME ORIGINALS

TULDON DANIEL, the little ice cream salesman who expects to be an artist when he grows up, made a start on the career today by bringing in several cartoons as a gift. His drawings and painting were carefully wrapped in paper and were undone with some ceremony before the presentation.

After all, no other artist or artist-to-be has presented me with an original copy.

IF YOU would be happy there is something in being poor and insignificant. Poor people do not get kidnaped. They do not get sued for alienation of affections.

Don't misunderstand me. Money looks like something that would be welcome any time any where, but there must be few people who retain happiness when it is acquired. If you don't believe that, look at the newspapers any day in the week.

There are stories every day of the movie actors and actresses who are changing mates. There are stories almost every day of wealthy people being kidnapped. One rarely ever reads of a rich person who marries once and then lives with that mate to the end. People in moderate circumstances are frequently happy but those who are very wealthy seem to have so little of the contentment that comes with having a home, enough to eat, a few luxuries and abiding love.

If you listen in on the conversations of high school or college girls you will frequently hear them say that they are "going to marry a rich man." Few girls admit they expect to marry hardworking, honest, sober men, even though they eventually choose men of this type. Frequently, however, one hears them say they expect to marry handsome men, wealthy men.

There are plenty of mothers, too, who seek wealthy husbands for their girls—mothers who are much more interested in having their daughters marry a title or wed into a family of some fame than they are in having their daughters happily married to some ordinary fellow who will stay at home nights and become a respected citizen of the town. There are plenty of these mothers who think more of their daughters' "position in society" than they do of the characters of the men they choose for sons-in-laws.

Most of us think that we could use money to some advantage if we were given an opportunity, but the news stories of just any day should serve as a sermon of consolation that we are just ordinary people who must be on the job every day in the year in order to have enough money to pay our rent, buy the groceries and have something extra for a picture show now and then.

We might be glad, even, that we have enough wealth to merit such headlines as "Rich Indian Sued For $200,000 Balm," "Deny Ransom Demands Met," "Wealthy Men Are Kidnaped" and so on.

Too much money usually means too much grief and too little just ordinary enjoyment of life—if we are to draw any conclusions from this parade of stories day after day. We should hope, we may believe, that we will not be too wealthy but that we have enough to keep us going and lack enough to keep us happy.

June-July Business Shows Faster Gains, Production Rising

Business acitvity, as reflected in the report of the National Industrial Conference Board, quickened its rate of gain during June and the first half of July.

The report shows that roughly 40 per cent of the ground lost between June, 1929, and March, 1933, has been regained since April; moreover the gains in productions and shipments in the past six weeks have come at a time of seasonal recession.

Automobile production passed May's relatively high record and marks for last year's corresponding period. Building contracts continued their gain, and steel and iron production registered increases.

Electric power production maintained a gain in keeping with manufacturing activity. Carloadings continued their upward trend.

Wholesale commodity prices advanced rapidly, and the average of all commodities passed the June average of last year.

Federal Government Takes Another Step In Texas Oil

KILGORE, July 24 (AP)—The federal government had taken another step to completely halt the flow of illegally-produced oil from Texas today by amending the "hot oil" ban to include refined products of crude.

Shippers were required, for the first time, to make affidavits that refined products of crude oil intended for interstate shipment were from legally-produced oil.

Capt. E. N. Stanley of the oil and gas division of the state railroad commission said that the railroads would require the affidavits from the shippers and that they, in turn, would be responsible to the government.

Taut Nerves
mean tired tomorrows

"Did you hear that noise...?"

How many times have husbands been awakened in the middle of the night by that tense question? How many times have wives been rudely reminded . . . "It's your imagination . . .!"

But, fear is something real. Taut nerves cause sleepless nights and tired tomorrows. A woman is afraid...and a man fails to make an out-of-town trip essential to his business. Serious illness often is traceable to fear.

May we suggest a simple remedy?

Have a telephone installed within easy reach of the bed. It's a comfort to know that police, firemen, physicians, await your call. And, wouldn't it be a pleasure to have a willing servant ready to run your errands, help you to visit with friends . . . 24 hours a day?

You can have a telephone for less than a dime a day. Call the Business Office. Say: "I want a telephone."

Kansas Farm Boy Is Back At His First Love, Astronomy; Uses Old Telescope

Clyde Tombaugh, Kansas farm boy who discovered the planet Pluto, renews acquaintance with his home-made telescope upon his return from the Universtiy of Kansas for vacation. The arrow in the sky points to Pluto.

BURDETT, Kas., July 24. (AP)—An old friend was on hand to welcome him when Clyde Tombaugh, farm boy discoverer of the planet Pluto, came home for the summer recess of the University of Kansas, where he is studying under a scholarship.

It was the home-made telescope built by Tombaugh five years ago from cast-off material around the farm — the instrument through which he made observations that brought him to the attention of Lowell observatory astronomers and started him on the road to fame.

A piece of roofing tin, parts of a discarded cream separator and an old binder and a nine-inch reflector ground from a piece of plate glass went into the telescope. It magnifies 400 diameters.

Tombaugh discovered the planet at the Lowell observatory near Flagstaff, Ariz., in 1930.

THE BEST BUY IN SAFETY!

THE BIGGEST BUY IN MILEAGE!

WHAT makes more people want—and BUY—more Goodyear Tires than any other kind?

They cost no less than other tires—so it must be because they give more at the same price.

Look at these facts and judge for yourself.

More SAFETY—by 10 to 77%

Everyone knows that brakes may stop your wheels—but it takes tires that grip to stop your car.

Just look at a Goodyear and you'll see why that's so. Goodyears give you traction where you need it—in the CENTER of the tread where it contacts the road.

SAFETY from blowouts in every ply

When any ply in a tire breaks down, it increases the hazard of blowouts. But Goodyear builds every ply of every Goodyear Tire, a safety ply with Supertwist cord—a full ply from bead to bead. This patented ply material protects you from blowouts because it can stretch and come back under the heat and strain of driving. Any Goodyear dealer can show you how it keeps its life and stretch long after ordinary cords break down.

97% more mileage by actual records

Because Supertwist cord also increases mileage—because Goodyear treads are built tougher every year—the accurate records of the nation's largest bus fleets show that Goodyear average mileage has increased 97% in the past five years. And you get the same features—the same improvements in Goodyear Tires for your car.

The best time to buy is NOW

The price of everything's headed UP. Cotton's up 100%—rubber's up 100%—the price of tires is bound to follow. So check up your tires now and replace risky, worn-out, slippery tires with the best buy in safety—the biggest buy in mileage—Goodyear Tires—preferred by more people than the THREE next largest selling makes combined.

Hubbers Meet Abernathy In Tournament Game This Afternoon At 3:30

Star Chunkers Ready To Hurl For Win Teams

Lubbock Beats Post, Abernathy Downs Lorenzo In Opening Games Sunday; Lorenzo And Post Play Tomorrow, 3:30

The Lubbock Hubbers meet Johnnie Rodgers' Abernathy sluggers here this afternoon in what promises to be one of the feature battles of the second annual Avalanche-Journal invitation tournament.

The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30 o'clock, and will be played at the College Avenue park.

Winners in Sunday's flashy games which opened a hot tournament, the Lubbock and Abernathy clubs, are due to battle for all they're worth today. The winner of today's game will establish itself as a tournament favorite, and the loser will have a chance to win by taking its next game later this week. A team must lose two games before it is eliminated from the tournament money.

Lorenzo and Post, losers Sunday, clash here tomorrow afternoon, the loser to be eliminated. A strong following of fans from the teams' home towns is expected. They jammed the park Sunday to witness exciting baseball.

Hot Games Sunday

In two games as neat and full of baseball brains and brawn as any fan could desire, Abernathy defeated Lorenzo Sunday, 7 to 4, and Lubbock's Hubbers edged out the Post-Rambler combination, 3 to 2. Young Hanks, pitched great ball for Abernathy, won his own ball game with a home run in the eighth with two mates aboard, breaking a 4-all deadlock.

Lefty Wright gave the Post team only three safe hits as Sled Allen's Hubbers took a 3-2 decision. Young and tough, he is ready to take the hillock for Lubbock again today, probably meeting Abernathy's Hanks.

Sunday's fans saw a couple of brilliant pitching duels, with all four moundsmen going the route for their respective clubs. Backed by support that was better than the average bush league fan sees, these chunkers put their hearts into the work and provided an afternoon of entertainment not frequently seen on South Plains diamonds.

Weaver Vs. Hanks

Carl Weaver, young, blue-eyed righthander, tangled with "Bud" Hanks, equally young and equally righthanded, in the opener. Lorenzo took a total of seven hits off Hanks, and Abernathy found Weaver for 11, four of them coming in the eighth when the Lorenzo cause was lost in a three-run scoring spree that broke a four-all deadlock.

Manager Johnnie Rodgers' team took a lead in the first, after Weaver had whiffed the first two batsmen Barrett singled, Holloway singled and Scott Prather singled, the last blow scoring two runs. Holloway having swiped second. Benton was at first.

Hershel Galey, who was a member of the strong Hubber club a couple of seasons ago, played a fine game behind the bat for Lorenzo Sunday. His zipping triple in the second resulted in a run when Wampler bounded to short. A smart double play, anchored at the plate, saved two or three runs for Lorenzo in the third when Galey stepped back on the plate for a forced out and completed the double by shooting the pill to Keesee at first on Scott Prather's infield roll. It came after Lorenzo had taken a one-run lead in the third inning, Boney Surratt and Huckabee scoring when the Abernathy defense momentarily snapped. Abernathy scored twice in the fourth for the lead, after which there ensued a battle between the moundsmen that lasted until the eighth. Lorenzo tied the count at 4-all when Galey, who had singled, scored on Wampler's single. Weaver cracked then to let Holloway and Ansley get singles. He had whiffed Barrett, and then fanned Benton. Hanks hit one to centerfield that should have been a single, but R. V. Galey let it roll on for a home run, the pitcher winning his own ball game. In despair, Weaver left the hill, but went back in to fan R. D. Prather for the third out.

Hubbers Score First

Lefty Doss Wright and Rabbit Middleton were the pitching duelists in the second game. For Post, it was three up and three down for three innings, and almost the same for Lubbock. The Hubbers had to play smart baseball in the third to score first. Burleson's sacrifice advancing Wright, who had walked. Ballard popped to short, and Cowboy Kyle, the guy they just barely can get out, singled to bring Wright in. The Rambler-Post combination tied the score in the fourth. Chaney, a pain to the pitchers and fielders, getting on by an error, swiping second. Catcher Satch Hill's nose and scoring on Henderson's single, the first of three safe hits allowed by Wright.

Hambright's single started the fourth. He advanced on Lefty Bettes' sacrifice, and scored on an error at second base which let Chuck Webster go safe. Hill, who had played a fine game as catcher, hit a triple that a faster runner could have stretched into a home run so score Webster, but Hill was caught at the plate in a double play. That constituted all of Lubbock's scoring. Thereafter the Hubbers were unable to hit Middleton but three times, and these in three different innings when two were out. Hambright and Burleson got two each, Kyle, Ballard and Hill getting the other of seven hits off the hefty Rabbit Middleton.

Post's last score came in the sixth when Mr. Chaney had a lot of fun at the expense of the Hubber infield and particularly off Hill. He was safe when Lefty Bettes elected to catch Middleton at second rather than make the putout at first. He advanced on a passed ball, then swiped third with everybody looking at him. They were still looking at him when he pounded over the home plate for a stolen run, with Hill grabbing at the elusive ball which he couldn't handle in time to make the putout.

Rain Interferes With Medal Round In Western Amateur

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 24. (AP) — A driving rainstorm kept par from being rocked groggy today by the crisp shots flying off the clubs of Jack Westland and Maurice Hankinson, in the first round of the Western Amateur golf tournament's 36-hole qualifying test.

But the storm, which caught Westland and Hankinson around the sixteenth hole of the Country club course, blew their hopes away as completely as it ripped the score sheets off the bulletin board.

Westland, the Walker Cup player from Chicago, finished with a 71 for the day's low score, while young Hankinson of Oklahoma City was a shot behind.

Two others, Gene Vinson of Meridian, Miss., and Zell Eaton of Oklahoma City, came in late with 73's. Keefe Carter, the 1925 winner, was next with a 73 to give Oklahoma City three of the first five leaders. His score was acquired through two steady nines of 37-36.

Senators Slam Ace Chunkers For Two Wins

Clouting Sens Jump On Lefty Grove And George Earnshaw For Double-Header Victory To Take League Lead

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—Slamming the offerings of the Athletics' two ace hurlers, Bob Grove and George Earnshaw, to all corners of Shibe Park, the Washington Senators today twice conquered Philadelphia to regain the lead in the American League pennant race with a half-game advantage over the idle New York Yankees. The scores were 5 to 2 and 10 to 6.

In winning the curtain raiser, the Senators handed Grove his fifth defeat of the year and snapped the star southpaw's winning streak at six games.

George Earnshaw was treated roughly in the nightcap, the Senators banging out 11 hits and scoring eight runs in the seven innings the big right-hander was on the mound. The assault was continued off Jock Coombs and Tony Freitas, with Bill McAfee, who replaced Alvin Crowder in the sixth, cracking out a homer and a triple in two times at bat.

Trailing 10 to 1, the A's put on a five-run rally in the ninth, featuring Jimmy Foxx's 28th home run of the season with two mates on base and circuit blows by Ed Coleman and Frank Higgins.

Amherst Defeats Enochs Team, 5-3

The Amherst baseball club won the only South Plains League game reported Sunday, defeating Enochs in a mild upset at Littlefield. The score was 5 to 3, and one of the hardest fought games of the second half in the northern district of the league.

Tahoka, scheduled to play Lubbock, entertained the Lamesa club in an exhibition game. Lubbock and Abernathy, other league teams, are playing in the tournament here and their league games have been postponed. Lamesa won the exhibition, 4 to 3, with the hitting and fielding of Murray McWhorter and Banta featuring the stubborn Lamesa attack.

Slaton, scheduled to play Abernathy was idle, and no report was made of a scheduled league game between Morton and Levelland.

The game at Littlefield was called in the eighth on account of a sandstorm, the score reverting to the seventh inning.

Walling, Weaver and Douglas Howell hit home runs for Enochs' three tallies, otherwise Pitcher Dixon held the Enochs club hitless and scoreless, the three hits being the only ones gathered from his fine exhibition. Amherst played errorless ball in the field.

Score:

Enochs ..... 020 001 0—3 3 1

Dixon and Waldon; Moore and Ratliff.

Joe Hauser, home run hitter of the Minneapolis Millers, was the first player to hit a ball over the deep right field wall of the Kansas City park.

For the second year in succession George Rogers of Fort Worth is archery champion of Texas.

Local Polo Team Loses To Lamesa

Astride fast ponies and wielding sticks with which they were more familiar, Lamesa's crack polo team won the fifth and "rubber" game of the season over Captain Harold Griffith's Lubbock team.

The score was 5 to 4, and the game one of the closest and hardest fought in the history of the South Plains. Against Lamesa's best team, the Lubbock riders showed marked improvement over previous contests. Aided by Parkinson, a former Lamesa rider, the Lubbock team made it warm enough for the more experienced Lamesa outfit.

Lamesa Scores First

Lamesa was off to a one-goal lead in the first chukker and added two in the third. Lubbock registered its first tally in the third. Both teams scored in the fifth and Lamesa tallied the winning goal in the sixth, a Lubbock rally netting two scores but falling one goal short.

Bob Hester playing the No. 4 and No. 3 positions; Shorty Williamson, Gaylord Hankins and Parkinson did the Lubbock scoring. Captain Griffith played in No. 1 position, and Hankins in No. 2.

Fulkerson played No. 1 for Lamesa, and Sheriff Gus White scored two goals playing No. 2 position. E. Barron played No. 3 and S. Barron, high scorer with three goals, No. 4.

A fair-sized crowd attended the game, which was Lubbock's second home contest of the season.

American Cup Team To Sail

U. S. Captain Criticized For Overtraining By Experts In France; Borotra Declines To Play In Singles

PARIS, July 24. (AP)—The burden of retaining the Davis Cup, emblem of international tennis supremacy, for France was placed squarely on the sturdy shoulders of Henri Cochet today as Jean Borotra definitely declined a singles assignment.

Cochet and Andre Merlin, fourth-ranking French youngster, were named by Rene Lacoste, non-playing French captain, to carry the singles battle against England, upset conqueror of the United States in the inter-zone finals. Borotra will pair with the veteran Jacques Brugnon in the doubles.

Confidence In Cochet

Lacoste said he was confident Cochet would rise to his old heights, take both his matches and that Borotra and Brugnon, Wimbledon champions, would win the necessary third point.

Lacoste also expressed confidence in the slightly-built, left-handed Merlin, saying the youngster was picked in preference to more experienced players because he "has the will to win."

The same English team whose stunning and dramatic 4 to 1 defeat of Ellsworth Vines and company was still a reverberating topic today will meet the French in the challenge round Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Fred Perry and Henry W. (Bunny) Austin will play singles and Perry will join with George Patrick Hughes in doubles.

Americans Criticized

The physical breakdown of the American singles ace, Vines and Allison, brought sharp criticism of American training methods and of Captain Bernon Prentice from French tennis experts.

Skeptical for years of the rigorous American methods, the experts were outspoken in their criticism, Jean Augustin of the Paris Midi, dean of the French tennis writers, charging that "the principal American adversary was their own captain."

"How can any country confide its sporting interests in a man who presented two players of great value resembling cadavers instead of athletes?" he asked.

Lenglen Comments

Suzanne Lenglin, former ranking woman player of the world, called the American training "unreasonable." Didier Poulain of L'Auto said that Allison "passed the summit of his form before the matches and Vines was bandaged like a mummy but still was permitted to practice Friday. This is a curious procedure."

Vines himself came to the defense of Prentice, especially as to his continuing against Perry after Austin already had clinched the victory for England and when he was in obvious distress.

Vines said Captain Prentice repeatedly urged him to retire before he finally collapsed on the court and that he had been given the best of care.

"It was only through my own insistence that he (Prentice) let me continue," Vines told the Associated Press.

The American team will sail for home Wednesday.

Frankie Frisch Succeeds Old Sarge Street As Boss Of St. Louis Cards; Is 1934 Skipper

Change Made "Because We Want To Win The Pennant," Says Sam Breadon; Club Is Now Eight Games Behind

ST. LOUIS, July 24. (AP)—Frankie Frisch, captain and second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals since 1927, was appointed manager of the team today, succeeding Charles E. "Gabby" Street.

President Sam Breadon said he was making the change in the "hope that under Frisch's leadership the Cardinals will shake off their slump and make this a winning year after all."

The Cards dropped into second division Saturday and are now eight games behind the league leading Giants. Optimistic fans, however, point out that the Cards of 1930 won a pennant after being twelve games behind the leaders as late as August 1.

BASEBALL'S BIG 8

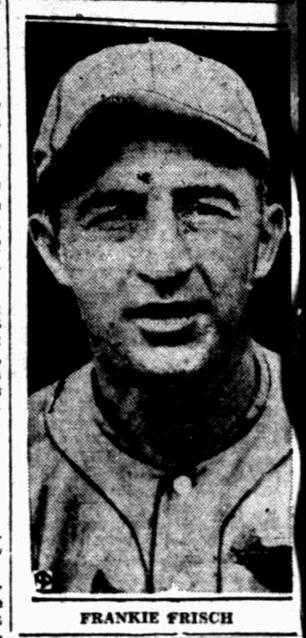

(By The Associated Press)

Jimmy Foxx's 28th home run of the season was his only hit yesterday and as the result the Athletics' slugging first baseman lost five points in his battle with Al Simmons for the batting leadership of the American League. The slump dropped Foxx to .355, only two points in front of Joe Cronin, who connected safely only three times in ten trips to the plate during a doubleheader. The other members of the Big Six were idle.

es And Hours Of Work For il Industry Are Left For ommittees; Johnson Says e Wants Action

ASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—s and hours of work in the oil stry tonight were left for com-es to settle while the hearing roposed codes for petroleum up other and more controver-phases of the two agreements have been proposed.

tspoken Hugh Johnson, the strial administrator, inter-ed the series of labor witnesses were asking more pay for their cular groups to suggest the tion of the committees.

Committees Divided

he will handle production labor, her employes who work on re-ries and pipe lines and the d workers in marketing and dis-ution.

ich will have representatives of recovery administration's labor sory board, of labor, the oil in-ry and a representative of the inistration.

The idea," Johnson said brus-y, "is to get these birds locked room and keep 'em there until come to an agreement."

he oil men, shirt sleeved because ntense heat, laughed and then auded vigorously.

Codes All Differ

he codes before the recovery ad-istration differed in almost ev-respect. One, drawn under the oices of the American Petro-n Institute, proposed a 40-hour with pay scales from 40 to 47 s an hour. Another put for-d by independent producers, ed for a 30 hour week in re-ng and producing, a 36 hours for retail agencies and a flat scale of 50 cents an hour.

oth groups, however, believed could agree on these differ-s but they saw no prospect for promise—unless directed by the ernment—on price fixing, with-wal of oil in storage, restrictions drilling, production regulation other matters that have kept oil industry in a state of up-val for years.

Sets Night Hearing

n an effort to hurry along the edings, K. M. Simpson, a dep-administrator, set a night ring for tonight but he announc-that time would be taken out to r President Roosevelt's appeal support of the movement to ment mass purchasing power. ven before members who had fted the code under the aus-es of the petroleum institute had mally presentd it today, Jack lock of Marshall, Texas, one of independent group, was on his to assail it. He sat down under ers but later contended that the roleum institute code "is con-ry to the spirit of the industrial in that it would permit the mation of a monopoly."

Benefits Large Firms

He said the agreement was drawn the benefit of the larger com-ies.

Virt Franklin, a member of the dependent Petroleum association America, attempted to reply di-tly to Blalock but Johnson again rned:

"I want no argument."

Franklin read a statement in port of the production section the petroleum code. He argued at only adequate regulation would p the "glut" of oil.

Asks Questions

Johnson asked several questions but the method of allocating oduction in the event of regula-n.

"I can't see how you would figure out," he commented but nodded . K." after Franklin assured him could be done "and on a fair sis."

Franklin said regulation of pro-ction would have to be accom-nied by "regulation of withdraw-from storage."

"If the oil stored from the East xas field were withdrawn," he d, "it could and would prevent al recovery. That oil might well kept there over a period of ars. Then those who stored it uld reap a sufficient profit to pay em for their trouble."

Sinclair Is Heard

Harry F. Sinclair presented a tatement on the labor provisions of e petroleum institute code.

Sinclair began his statement be-re the institute code was formal-presented and was stopped by nson.

"Does that mean I'm dismissed?" asked.

"Not dismissed, but postponed,"

FINGERS CONTROL USE AND GRIP OF HANDS

Improper use of the hands through failure to maintain a secure grip of the club, is often the source of much trouble. So much has been said against tight gripping to avoid tension that many players lapse into trouble in the other direction.

A secure grip must be maintained at all times, especially with the last two fingers of the left hand and the thumb and forefinger of the right.

This work of the fingers will not interfere with wrist action, and only through them can the hands control the club and transmit the full power of the swing.

OIL SALE INCREASES

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Continued increase in the use of low-cost bituminous types of paving and surface treatment, especially in the construction of secondary roads, increased the sale of road oil by 15.3 per cent from 1931 to 1932, says the United States bureau of mines.

Tennessee exports decreased more than $4,000,000 in 1932.

Jones Slated For Position

Spur Man Is Being Hinted As Public Works Administrator For Three States; Changes In Plan Announced

DALLAS, July 24. (AP)—The Dallas Times Herald printed a story today from its regular Washington correspondent stating that the name of Clifford Jones of Spur, former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been brought forward as a probable choice for appointment as public works administrator for the region of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

Jones had been slated for the position of state administrator when it was decided to substitute a plan of regional administrator with an advisory board in each state.

Later, Jones was selected as a member of the Texas advisory board with Col H. B. Moore of Texas City as regional administrator. Moore declined the position because of ill health.

Air traffic between the United States and Mexico doubled from 1931 to 1932.

Eskimos Pay Lindys Visit

Famous Flying Colonel Is A Hero To The Inhabitants Of Far North; They Sit Around Gazing In Awe

GODTHAAB, Greenland, July 24. (AP) — Eskimos, to whom Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh is as much a hero as he is to admirers of his aeronautic feats in less remote parts of the world, are traveling to Godthaab from great distances to get a glimpse of the American flier.

With his wife, Col. Lindbergh arrived Saturday from Labrador. They are making air maps of this northern region.

Day and night the Lindbergh plane is surrounded by a sizeable armada of Eskimo kyaks, or canotes. The Eskimos do not approach too close and they indulge in no demonstration, merely sitting and staring in wonderment and admiration.

The Lindberghs have begun paying a round of visits to Danish officials and also to Eskimo houses in the vicinity, returning the friendly Eskimo grin with kindly greetings.

The colonel expresses confidence that in the future Atlantic mail traffic and part of the passenger traffic will be by airways. It is his opinion that the northern route by way of Greeland is most suitable. He says he has not decided whether to extend his visit east of Greenland.

Mrs. Lindbergh will hop with her husband from Iceland to Denmark if he decides to go.

Thomas H. Carter Is Named To Represent Lubbock Union

Union men of Lubbock last night named Thomas H. Carter, a printer, to represent them on a city-wide committee which Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the national recovery administration, has asked the chamber of commerce to organize.

Dick Gosden, a carpenter, presided at the meeting in the Knights of Pythias hall at 1318 1-2 Texas avenue. Hours and wages under the Roosevelt "new deal" were discussed. The session, under sponsorship of Central Labor council, was well attended, it was said. N. L. Ball, printer, is secretary.

Imprisoned in the county jail at St. Joseph, Mo., Gus Pusateri, alleged liquor vender, had the bars painted silver and his cell done over in red and white lacquer.

Three Bodies Being Sought

Yachtsmen Begin Dragging For Victims After A Squall On Lake Overturns Boats; Half Of Fleet Smashed

PENN YAN, N. Y., July 24 (AP)—Yachtsmen began dragging today for the bodies of three of their companions believed drowned when a blinding squall smashed or sank half the fleet of the Kenuka lake yacht club yesterday.

The yachtsmen believed drowned were:

Dr. Donald I. Gleason, 47, Hammondsport dentist, who clung to the bottom of the overturned sloop Privateer until blown off by the wind.

Lawrence Woodside, 35, of Brooklyn, who tried to save his life by grasping the masthead of the overturned sloop Chanticleer, on which he had been sailing. The sloop sank and Woodside disappeared just before a motorboat reached him.

Arthur Conley, 26, Cohocton, believed to have been aboard the 14-foot dingy Lark, which overturned with four other boats being towed in a train.

AMAZING NEW TIRE

3 times safer—no extra cost

WHEN your car travels 40, 50 and 60—mile after mile—terrific heat is generated inside the tire. Rubber and fabric separate. A blister forms—and grows—until BANG! A blow-out! And the drag pulls your car off the road.

The Life-Saver Golden Ply, an amazing new feature of Goodrich Safety Silvertowns, resists intense heat. Rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming their cause.

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted three times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature. These SILVERTOWNS never blew . . . for the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give. Proved themselves 3 times safer from blow-outs at high speeds.

And that isn't all: Tests with leading makes of tires prove that Goodrich Safety Silvertowns have the most skid-resisting tread on the road.

Let us show you this safest tire ever built—now three times safer from blow-outs. The new Goodrich Silvertowns cost no more than other standard tires . . . so this blow-out protection is FREE!

Make It A 'Pep Meeting'

AN estimated throng of from 1,000 to 1,500 Panhandle citizens will gather at the Tri-State Fairgrounds in Amarillo next Monday night to do honor to Congressman Marvin Jones, State Senators Clint Small and Arthur Duggan and to State Representative H. K. Stanfield, Amarillo; A. B. Tarwater, Plainview; and Bob Alexander, Childress.

The gathering is being sponsored by The Amarillo Globe-News and will be in the form of a barbecue to which the entire citizenship of the Panhandle-Plains is invited. Tickets are 50 cents each—just enough to cover the expenses involved.

It occurs to The Morning Avalanche that such a gathering is something more than a courtesy to representatives of the Panhandle-Plains territory. It should be a sort of a "pep meeting", if you please, to further imbue Panhandle-Plains people with the idea that they should stand together, shoulder to shoulder, in legislative matters and in an effort to get a greater share of political favor in Washington and in Austin. It is no secret that the northwestern part of Texas has been a "stepchild" long enough and must take aggressive steps to secure better treatment.

Congressman Jones has risen, in the past two years, from "just another Southern congressman" to a power in the administration at Washington.

Senators Small and Duggan likewise have begun to hold strong positions in the upper house at Austin.

A section-wide rally of the sort planned should accelerate sectional consciousness and serve to arouse further interest of the electorate in matters politic.

It should be made a rousing affair.

EVEN MORE OF A MESS

Everyone knows about Chicago's school troubles.

In the midst of a virtual "taxpayers strike", the school board in America's second largest city ran out of money and the teachers went payless for months: in fact, they haven't yet received their entire salaries due them for services during the past two school terms.

Now the school board has decided upon a number of necessary curtailments for the coming school year and in making the decisions has aroused the ire of many a Chicagoan.

As a result a police guard has been thrown around the home and person of James B. McCahey, board president, to guard him from threatened onslaughts, making the whole business even more of a mess.

It seems to us to be a rotten state of affairs when a great city fails to pay its teachers and to keep its school system running; and again when a great city's school board cannot plan its work without danger of physical attack.

Just how long a self-respecting public will stand for that sort of thing is, of course, a matter for conjecture.

But it doesn't seem that it would stand for it very long.

ORATORY'S OPPORTUNITY

Present-day economic, social and political conditions have placed a premium on oratory the world over. People in distress will listen to anyone with a strong voice and a grievance, and men can sway the crowds who would not attract a curbstone audience under normal conditions.

Sidney Wallach in his booklet "Hitler, Menace to Mankind" states the historical fact that Hitler was a pitiful failure, an unknown and a no-nothing, until he "made the magic discovery in a beer hall that he could talk, that people would listen, that he could, in fact, prevail upon them to act."

But it is significant that Hitler made this discovery amid great chaos in Germany. The German masses would listen and would be prevailed upon because there was widespread national unrest due to the war, the depression, a weak republican form of government and general dissatisfaction over the Versailles treaty.

Dictatorships such as those established by Mussolini and Hitler are not created by the men who talk themselves into being dictators. They are the products of their times, which in both instances were times when people had developed a yen for strong talk.

Recent political campaigns found the American people more disposed to listen to oratory than they had been since Bryan's first run for the presidency. They will get over it as soon as they all get back to work.

Attorneys for a New York banker, seeking to clear him of criminal charges on grounds of insanity, are probably counting heavily on their disclosure that he paid income taxes.

Today's One-Minute Sermon

Behold, God is mighty and despiseth not any: He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, He doth establish them forever, and they are exalted.—Job 26:5-6-7.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By George Durno

IF you could walk off the street into the right places here you would see the ravenous bites patronage seekers are taking out of our Federal system.

Preferred lists have been made up in most government departments. Employes not lucky enough to be included get the axe and are replaced by Democrats. The cardinal sin is to be a Republican or be sponsored by one.

A shining example is the Home Loan Board and its subsidiary, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

RUMPUS: Even influential Democrats are up in arms about the way patronage is being dispensed in the Home Loan agencies.

They won't say anything out loud because they're afraid some official rumpus is going to be stirred up about it yet. In the privacy of hotel rooms they shake their heads.

"Something ought to be done," one Party leader said sadly.

William F. Stevenson is chairman of the Home Loan Bank Board and head of the Loan Corporation. Before being defeated as a South Carolina Congressman he was second ranking Democrat on the House Banking and Currency committee that drafted the bill creating the mortgage setup.

The Committee unanimously endorsed Stevenson for a job in it after he became a lame duck.

GRAVY: As soon as the Congressman took hold he declared a "South Carolina Day."

A. E. Hutchinson, who had been Stevenson's secretary for years in Congress, became Secretary of the board and also the corporation. He draws pay from both.

This would be against the law anywhere else but the Home Owners' Loan Act was drawn carefully. There are two jokers in the law. One permits payment up to $10,000 from both accounts. The other says the corporation shall determine its necessary expenditures without regard to the provisions of any previous law governing outlay of public funds. That eliminates the 15 per cent pay cut.

J. A. Hoyt and W. P. Goodman, both from South Carolina, are assistant general-managers. J. V. Mathews, also from that State, is assistant to the chairman.

A couple of South Carolina relatives are in the chairmans office. So is his former chauffeur.

But why run the list of personnel?

SPOTTER: A lad by the name of James O. Mann is reputed to have made up the "preferred list" of those who were in office when the Democrats arrived.

Mann is from Alabama and has just turned 21 years of age. He was a stenographer but under the New Deal he's Disbursing Officer.

Republican gave him his original job during the Hoover administration at the earnest behest of Democratic Congressmen.

SHINGLES: Getting jobs isn't the only way Democrats are deriving their just reward.

Quite a few party wheel horses who carry law degrees in their pockets have moved their shingles to town. Particularly those who were prominent in the early Roosevelt campaign stages are reaping a neat harvest out of NIRA.

Their technique is simple. They become attorneys for a faction of any given industry that wants to dictate the code for all its brethren. Selling themselves is easy on the strength of their reputed access to the White House and friendship with General Johnson.

Once the fat retainer fee is collected they form a new trade association and draw up a code. This code together with their prestige—real or imaginary—is waved in the face of the rest of the industry.

So far it seems to be working. The other factions get scared at the first gesture and come into camp by signing the code for submittal.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

TWO New York houses have worked out the neatest method yet of giving the Securities act the run-around.

They tried it out on a brewery issue. House A underwrote the entire issue but made no public offering or announcement. House B advertised that it was handling the issue.

When prospective customers showed up at House B they were told that the firm had no stock to sell but that—as a special favor to the client—it might be possible to get some from House A. If the customer was interested the transaction was speedily arranged.

Then the confirmation slip from House B made it clear that it was acting as agent for the purchaser—not the seller.

You see the point. House A doesn't come under the Securities act because it made no public offering and no representations. House B has no liability under the act because it acted only by request of the purchaser.

Yes, the issue was a big success. Other houses are planning experiments along similar lines.

SECURITIES: Industrial opposition to the Securities act is beginning to crystallize.

A manufacturer of heavy steel products has unearthed statistics to prove that 45 per cent of all goods produced in the United States are capital goods as contrasted with consumers' goods. Apart from replacements the sale of such goods can only be financed normally through capital expansion.

This manufacturer—a publicity expert—believes that the Securities act places an unfair handicap on businesses like his by making it much harder for corporations to raise capital. He is trying to organize a protest to the effect that the act will short-circuit recovery.

He isn't interested in having reserves set up to service bank loans.

REPUBLICANS: Inside Republican workers are having a tough time working up a wave of indignation against NIRA's intrusion on "individualism." Some of their staunchest and most powerful allies have deserted the ship.

SIDELIGHTS: It doesn't pay to call Stock Exchange authorities names . . . The president of Continental Motors did. . . . That's one reason why his stock was thrown off the Board. . . . It's back again now. . . . Thirty per cent more shares were traded last week than in the biggest week of the 1929 boom . . . Veterans say the public has never bought its stocks so blindly. . . . One customer ordered 10 shares of every stock with the word "American" in its name. . . . The total market value of one alcohol company's stock at present prices is more than $80,000,000. . . . The company's actual current assets are less than $20,000,000. . . . Some call it inflation . . . others call it infernal nonsense.

One of the most astounding of the many human oddities to be seen in the Believe It or Not Odditorium at the World's Fair in Chicago is the famed Kanichka, the "man with the ostrich stomach."

BEGIN HERE TODAY

BARRETT COLVIN, back in New York after years abroad, falls in love with ELINOR STAFFORD. He is 35 and she is 20. Elinor returns his affection but her jealous, scheming mother, LIDA STAFFORD, breaks up the romance by convincing Barrett that Elinor is a heartless flirt.

Rich MISS ELLA SEXTON, Elinor's aunt, dies and, to the despair of the relatives, leaves her entire fortune to Barrett. Lida Stafford has been flirting with VANCE CARTER. When Vance learns she will not divorce her husband, BENTWELL STAFFORD, he shoots Bentwell. It is uncertain whether the wounded man will live or die.

Barrett goes to see Elinor's aunt, BESSIE THROPE, to ask what he can do to aid the girl. He does not want Miss Ella's money and hopes to find some way to give it back to the rightful inheritors.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXI

The last thing Elinor wished that morning was the further strain of seeing Barrett Colvin. He had, with a blunt, inconsiderate strength she had not dreamed he possessed, overridden her suggestion that he should wait for the interview until her father was better. As she said those last words her voice caught.

"I must see you," Barrett repeated. "It is important for both of us—"

"I don't see how it could be, Mr. Colvin."

"I'll explain that. I wouldn't bother you unless it was really necessary. He had not meant to let bitterness creep into that last sentence but it had, in spite of the defenses of will that he had erected against it. Well, since she enjoyed toying with aging hearts it might amuse her to laugh at their stiffened creakings.

There was a silence. He broke it by saying, "I'm coming to see you immediately. "I'll only stay a few moments. Will you see that I am admitted? I'm only asking because it's really necessary—"

"Yes, I'll see you for a few moments, Mr. Colvin," she promised after another brief silence.

"Thank you," she heard. She put down the telephone. Benson stood waiting and she knew by his dejected look that something else of a troublesome nature had come up.

"It's the druggist, Miss Elinor," Benson stated miserably. "He won't leave the medicine unless it is paid for—"

Purse in hand, she hurried to the foyer where the delivery boy waited, a trifle insolent because of his instructions. She could still settle these small charges. But the two nurses, the doctor, the endless needs made by a critically sick patient—how would she manage to pay such bills? She had talked that morning to the one clerk in her father's decayed brokerage office. He had stammered that he needed his salary. He had two little girls and a wife who was not well. He had his own bills. Elinor had dropped to a chair rather too suddenly, talking with him.

"How are things at the office, Mr. Gerould?" she had asked.

"Bad," he told her bluntly, though his eyes were sympathetic. "You see," he stammered, "so many people were waiting with the expectation that Mr. Stafford would be remembered rather generously in Miss Sexton's will. The place is alive now with folks trying to collect what they can. I went down and saw the line this morning and turned right around and came away. The rent's overdue two months. The collector let it go, thinking—"

"Yes, I know," she answered dully. She moistened her stiffened, drying lips. "How much did my father owe you?" she asked. She could not let that go. The man had worked faithfully for her father for years. Besides there were his two small daughters and his ailing wife.

She paid him his salary with a ring worth twice the amount and $20 from her purse.

"I'm awfully sorry for you, Miss Stafford," said the clerk, leaving. Her answering smile was a trifle twisted despite her effort to keep it genuine. "Thank you," she answered. People were kind but kindness would not buy drugs, comfort and ease for her father. He must have the right treatment, his chance to get well.

Barrett Colvin's telephone call had come just after that.

She received him in the drawing room. She had not been able to step into the library since she had seen the blood stains on a Chinese rug that, light in hue, showed them clearly.

"Miss Stafford," she heard Barrett say and saw him bow. She murmured something vague.

"I'm going to sit down just a moment, please."

She settled after his words and he dropped to a chair facing her.

"I have a business proposition to make you," he began bluntly.

"Yes?" she prompted.

"A proposition that is—will be—entirely one of a business nature. Will you keep that in mind, please?"

"Yes."

"I know, Miss Stafford—I have made a point of learning — that your credit is almost exhausted and that your father's business was on the verge of collapse before this—accident."

Her rounded chin went up with a little jerk. He saw this and went on swiftly, smoothly.

"I know and you know that Miss Ella Sexton's will was unfair to your father and to your relatives, the Thropes!"

"Yes, but I don't blame you—"

"That doesn't matter. What you and I feel about blame—or anything—can't matter in this affair we must discuss. It's entirely a cold-blooded, emotionless affair which has to do with the righting of that unjust will. I want to give back to the Thropes the money they should have had and need. I want to give your father the money that will help him in his chance to get well. I shall never touch a cent of the money left by Miss Sexton. Unless you help me it will go to charities in no particular need of it. The money really belongs to the Thropes and your father."

She said nothing.

He paused. He saw her draw a deep breath. She looked remarkably like a little girl who is balked at her lessons.

"The Thropes and their boys, your father—" Barrett reminded slowly.

She whispered, "I don't know—"

Letters To The Editor

W. R. Campbell Answers Floyd Turner's Sunday

EDITOR, The Avalanche: If I may be permitted, I would like to answer Mr. Turner, in regard to the Eighteenth Amendment. Mr. Turner seems to have only two things in view, that is self and business, ignoring the religious or moral side. When a man or set of men resign themselves to that condition and can get a following they are fast headed for the rocks. And this fight concerning the liquor business is almost a fight to a man between the real Christian and the anti-Christian.

I personally know what the open saloon means to a town, community or nation. It is the worst enemy they possibly can have. You can no more regulate a saloon than you can the wildest rattlesnake for it has never been done and to say that if you will let it alone it will let you alone is a saying that is false to the core.

It is the same as saying you could turn a rattlesnake loose in your back yard with your children, if they will let it alone it will let them alone, which even the inmates of our insane asylums know better. No, the saloons never have been regulated nor never will.

This is a fact that I know to be true. Boys of all ages, when they had the money could buy from them. To repeal the Eighteenth Amendment might bring us a little gain in revenue, possibly would give us a little more business, in some respects would give us a little better price for some of our grain, but oh look at the men that the liquor business would absolutely disqualify for any kind of business.

That isn't all the saloon will bring with it. (Allow me to s... don't think there is a wo... the world than the open... "You can help me right a tragic wrong," Barrett went on. "You can give your father his chance to get well, give peace to the Thropes and an education to those three boys. Will you do this?"

"How?"

"By marrying me," he said slowly. She lost color and he went on hastily. "I'm asking you to live in my house as my guest for one year. In that way I can turn over to you and the Thropes the money that is morally, if not legally, yours and theirs. It's the only way to rectify the mistake of your aunt who unfortunately was sound of mind, if not of heart, when she made her will."

"But why for a year?" Elinor asked brokenly. She was oddly dizzy and disconcerted.

"Because," he answered, "a year will quiet any idle talk that may be. I don't want anyone to know the reason of our marriage. The world would misunderstand. It might possibly see me as a hero instead of a man who merely happens to be honest enough not to want to rob others. First Man To Father Human Race W... African; Dark Continent Was Cra...

BY F. B. COLTON
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—The first man who fathered the human race was an African, the International Geological Congress was told today, and the "Dark Continent," not Central Asia, was the cradle of mankind.

After developing into more or less human form somewhere in Africa, man spread from there over the rest of the earth, migrating in waves to Europe and Asia, said Sir Arthur Amith Woodward, British geologist. Latest evidence, he went on, discounts the theory prevalent among many scientists that man originated in the vicinity of the Gobi desert or Tibet.

Human remains of the pleistocene age (the last one or two million years ago) found in Africa are not as primitive as those from Europe and Asia, Sir Arthur explained, but more like modern man. These ancient Africans were less clever, however, for their tools were only chipped pebbles.

Modern man he pictured as coming to Europe as an invader from Africa, driving out neanderthal man, who had migrated earlier from the African homeland. The invasion was easy because in those days a land bridge crossed the straits of Gibraltar, and Palestine was well watered and wooded.

The three most famous remains of primitive men so far found—Peking man, or sinanthropus; Java man or pithecanthropus erectus, and Piltdown man or eoanthropus from England—all were offshoots ... original African man, Sir A... said, and early emigrants out o... rica before modern man. Joaquin and vicinity were exper- ncing the greatest flood since 1915, h great damage to crops and rail- d bridges washed out. Tele- aphic communication and train rvice were suspended for a time d a dam at Crystal Lake was shed away.

Damage Runs High

report from Center said that mage in Shelby county alone was imated at approximately $1,000,- 0. While no accurate gauge of nfall was obtainable at Center, it s believed the 48-hour downpour, ich abated early Monday night, had precipitated more than 13 inches.
All roads leading out of Center were blocked. Some of them were under water due to flooded creeks overflowing, while on others, bridges had washed out.
Besides the damage to roads and bridges, Center reported that the county's cotton, corn and watermelon crops were almost a total loss. Heavy loss of livestock also was feared, although a check on this was not available immediately.

Rails Washed Out

Center reports said half a mile of the Santa Fe railroad line was washed out five miles north of Center. The Southern Pacific railroad line also was washed out at Joaquin, 15 miles from Center. It was believed rail traffic over the lines would be disrupted for several days, according to Center advices.
Information reaching Center was to the effect that practically every highway and road in Nacogdoches, Rusk and Panola counties was damaged by the rain. Bridges were out and travel was at a standstill in a large part of the area.
Telegraph and other service lines were down at Center.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer
NEW YORK, July 24. (AP)—Recovery was striking in many of the financial markets today. Stocks rallied swiftly during their three trading hours and closed with net gains of roughly 1 to 10 points, thereby cutting a wide swath into last week's losses. Bonds were generally higher, while the same was true of commodities.
The latter opened before stocks, which began their day's work at noon and the higher prices for grains—at Chicago and Winnipeg—as well as better quotations for cotton, silver, rubber and other staples undoubtedly contributed to the initial strength of equities. Stocks started with a rush, calmed slightly under quick profit-taking and additional offerings from weakened speculative accounts, and then swung into a sweeping advance that recalled their performances of the spring and early summer. Turnover was 3,414,100 shares.
Brisk short covering as well as orders from "bargain hunters" and a general reaction from last week's puncturing of the speculative balloon served the market well. At the close advances of 2 to 6 points were liberally spread over the list, while a number of "specialties" did much better. Metal, alcohol and rail issues were prominent, but the rist proved to be inclusive.
The Associated Press-Standard Statistics composite finished at 83.4, up 8.2 points, compared with Friday's final of 75.6; the day's advance was the best since March 15.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT
NEW ORLEANS, July 24. (AP) — Cotton showed a steady upward trend in active trading today and the close was 41 to 45 points net higher.
The opening was firmer as Liverpool cables came in considerably better than due. Manchester said cloths and yarns were easier. First trades here were 18 to 25 points up and although prices quickly eased off 4 to 8 points, they rallied again in sympathy with a firmer opening of wheat and stocks.
Near mid-session prices reacted 11 to 16 points on easiness in wheat and heavy rains in Texas but turned active and firm in the afternoon on good trade buying and firmness in the stock market. There was a reaction of 2 to 3 points at the end on realizing and October closed at 10.62, or 41 points net higher and December at 10.85, or 45 points net higher.
Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 7 to 10 penny points up.
Port receipts 24,310, for week 40,338, for season 8,048,306, last season 10,104,421. Exports 27,884, for week 47,676, for season 8,268,255, last season 8,504,392. Port stock 3,112,493, last year 3,484,834. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans Galveston and Houston 99,168, last year 69,233. Spot sales at southern markets 3,779, last year 1,487.

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, July 24. (AP)—Cotton rose about 12 a bale today on short covering, combined with renewal of trade and commission house demand.
After reacting from 10.83@10.80, December advanced to 10.95 and closed at 10.91, with the general market closing very steady at net advances of 36 to 42 points.
The opening was of 18 to 25 points higher in response to buying through houses with foreign connections and a scattering demand attributed partly to the trade. It caused some irregularity but later prices worked up to 10.81 for October and to 11.11 for March, or about 25 to 32 points net higher.
Offerings then increased somewhat leading to reactions of 20 or 33 points but the market soon firmed up again on a renewal of buying. Highest prices of the day were reached in the late trading with October selling u pfrom the midday low of 10.40@10.73 while March advanced from 10.90@11.20. Closing quotations were near the best.
Exports today 28,004, making 8,425,350 so far this season. U. S. port stocks 3,150,569.

KANSAS CITY, July 24. (AP)—Cattle receipts at midwestern markets included a liberal supply of fed steers and long yearlings. Packers attempted to enforce a decline of 25 but met with only partial success as many offerings held steady and comparatively few were more than 10 to 15 lower. Western grass steers ruled steady to 25 lower.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, July 24. (AP)—Good demand was reported for all grains on the Fort Worth market as the week opened, but price ideas of buyers and sellers continued far apart due to the contract market situation and trading was by no means active.
Prices ranged as follows in the more or less nominal market, based on car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to destination:
Delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points:
Wheat No. 1 hard 97@1.02; barley No. 3, 60@63; No. 3, 59@62.
Sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 1.40@1.60; No. 3 milo 1.35@1.50; No. 2 kaffir per 100 pounds 1.35@1.50; No. 3 kaffir 1.30@1.40.
Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn No. 2 mixed 61@62; No. 2 white 63@66; No. 2 yellow 62@64.
Delivered Texas common points: Oats No. 2 red 43@46; No. 3 red 42@45.

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, July 24. (AP) — Despite announcement of two suspensions, one of them huge, the grain markets advanced sharply today, but later reacted. Influenced by uncertainties regarding conferences at Washington.
Wheat, rye and oats scored gains of 1 cents a bushel, and in some cases corn was up 2 1-2 cents. For the most part though, the corn market was weak owing to liquidation of big bankrupt speculative future delivery holdings.
Grain futures at the close were largely at the minimum prices fixed under emergency rules adopted by the Chicago board of trade during a three-day temporary stoppage resulting from unprecedented speculative hysteria that had hoisted prices skyward and then plunged the markets wildly downgrade in a volume of dealings never before equaled, a one-day total of more than a quarter of a billion bushels.
Wheat today closed steady at the average of the closing prices of Thursday, with rye unchanged to 1-2 advance, and provisions 30 to 75 cents off.

creeping through a corn field to a farm owned by Valley Fellers. Marvin Barrow was wounded so badly he was not expected to live.

Soar Over Highways

Park A. Findley, chief of the state bureau of investigation, and Adjutant General Charles Grahl of the Iowa national guard led the hunt tonight from an airplane. They soared low over highways to direct the several hundred men in the search.
The state department's station at Des Moines kept the wireless equipped cars constantly advised of the trend of the hunt. United States Marshal Fred Hird and several men with rifles and federal Investigator O. C. Dewey of Des Moines joined in the intensified search.
At the Fellers farm, Clyde Barrow lined Fellers, his son, Marvel, and an employe against the barn. With Fellers' car, he and his companions fled to Polk City, 38 miles east and just outside Des Moines. There they held up an oil station attendant, took his car and doubled back 40 miles to Guthrie Center.
Spotted by Findley, a posse of 200 men surrounded the fleeing trio.
They slipped away and were later reported 100 miles north of here in southern Kossuth county. Last reports had them about 60 miles northeast of Sioux City.

napers ourselves." They expressed willingnss to cooperate with federal officials but said, "our first interest is the welfare and return of Mr. Urschel."

Letters Are Received

Two special delivery letters were received at the Urschel home yesterday afternoon and immediately an attorney left in an automobile for an unannounced destination. Also three deputies left the courthouse in an automobile loaded with guns. A spokesman for the family said that the letters, however, did not relate to the kidnapers.
R. H. Colvin, head of the Oklahoma City federal bureau of investigation, last night ordered a 24-hour halt in federal investigation of the Urschel case. Relatives had asked that authorities withdraw from the case to enable them to contact the kidnapers.

Sign Being Sought

On the 18th day since his kidnaping, relatives of John J. O'Connell, jr., were reported seeking a "sign of good faith" from the gang holding him. They wanted a ring or some other personal possession of O'Connell to assure they were really dealing with the kidnapers.
Philadelphia authorities hunted as murderers the men who attempted to kidnap Frank A. McClatchy, prominent real estate salesman. He was shot and wounded fatally when he resisted the kidnapers.

Killer Breaks

was unarmed. He gave himself up, protesting his 21-year-old companion had forced him to run.

Fifth To Die On Duty

Sevick, aged 32, was fifth of the Chicago force to die on duty in the last month.
He had jumped to his feet as Bailiff Jack Kavanagh raced into the courtroom with the warning cry: "Look out! There's a man coming with a gun!" The officer let the fleeing pair pass from the room and then sent four bullets after them. They chunked into plaster walls and door.
Scheck, desperate, turned to face the policeman's gun and fired twice, both bullets entering the officer's heart.

Weapon Is Smuggled

The weapon had been smuggled to Scheck probably a few moments before his sensational break. In violation of criminal court rules, eight persons had visited him in the bullpen just after he was arraigned and obtained continuance on charges of robbing a Niles Center bank last April of $5,800 and, without provocation, murdering the cashier.
Hospital surgeons attempted to save the killer's life so the state may execute him.

RAINS ARE REPORTED

Sections of the South Plains had rain varying from an inch at Sudan to light showers at Littlefield and Levelland Sunday night, the Santa Fe railway office here said. Amherst reported a half inch, Bledsoe three quarters of an inch, and Happy half an inch. Rain also was reported at Wolfforth and Ropesville.

Support Urged For Huge Plan

the budget. The credit of the individual, he said, was being maintained by restoring the purchasing power of the dollar and by the home loan act, the farm loan act and the bankruptcy act.
He assured there would be no "smell of the pork barrel" in administration of the $3,300,000,000 public works program.
Turning to the task of building a "more lasting prosperity," he said "we cannot attain that in a nation half boom and half broke."

Two Things To Be Done

Two things, he declared, must be done to find better days: First, improvement of the prices of farm products; second, "bringing back industry along sound lines."
Mr. Roosevelt expressed confidence that farm conditions were improving and would continue so under operation of the farm act.
He then went into his appeal for wholehearted support for the national plan for shorter working hours and higher wages.

Johnson On Hand

Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the industrial recovery act, was in the room in the White House with the president as he spoke.
Talking picture cameras lined the side of the oval room on the White House ground floor to record the scene.
Others present included Mrs. Johnson, Marvin H. McIntyre, one of the President's secretaries; Miss Marguerite Lehand and Miss Tauia Tulley of the White House secretarial staff; L. W. Robert, assistant secretary of the treasury, and Miss F. M. Robinson, secretary to Johnson.

To Display Badge

Mr. Roosevelt directed his appeal particularly to the smaller employers, and said the great task depended upon these men who are in a position to hire from one to ten more workers each.
He proposed that the "badge of honor"—The insignia of the industrial recovery act—be displayed by all those who enroll in the national campaign.
"It will be clear to you," he said, "as it is to me, that while the shirking employers may undersell his cometitor, the saving he thus makes is made at the expense of his country's welfare."
"We are not going through another winter like the last," he asserted. "It is time for courageous action and the recovery bill gives us the means to conquer unemployment with exactly the same weapon that we have used to strike down child labor."

Man Dies In Hospital And Does Not Realize Ambition

DENVER, July 24. (AP)—Alexander Adair, whose early life of crime was followed by thirty years as a mission evangelist, died in a hospital here without realizing his one remaining ambition—to see his son, who had run away after a break with his father, and to effect a reconciliation.
Until he suffered a paralytic stroke two months ago and was taken to the hospital, Adair worked actively at the Volunteers of America mission he founded here 30 years ago. Unable to speak distinctly because of the stroke, he has lain on his hospital bed hoping that his son, Jesse, named for Jesse James, notorious bandit gang leader and once Alexander Adair's chieftain, would return to him.

seen her himself. Neither would he say whether she had conferred with his law partner, United States Senator P. A. McCarran, who flew here from Washington July 4 to attend, he said, to "a few business matters" and to make an independence day speech.
Two days later Miss Pickford was reported to have been seen at Carson City, but this was not confirmed.
"You should have asked Mary all about her plans when she was here," said Dignan, adding he did not know when she would return.
When and if Mary does finally comes here she will stay at a state line point near the fashionable Calneva lodge on the shores of Lake Tahoe.
Already residing in the cottage there is blonde Carole Lombard, also of Hollywood fame.
Miss Lombard expects to file suit either at Reno or Minden within the next three weeks for a divorce from William Powell, film star.
A romance of the World war days, heightened when they joined in efforts in behalf of liberty loan drives, culminated in the secret marriage of Fairbanks and Miss Pickford, March 28, 1920. The marriage followed a divorce by Miss Pickford from Owen Moore, film actor, and of Fairbanks from Ann Beth Sully.
The Pickford-Fairbanks union was considered one of Hollywood's most glamorous. They became Hollywood's "first couple," and were the guests of rulers and titled families when visiting abroad.
Then in recent years, Fairbanks began to travel extensively throughout the world and Miss Pickford remained at home where she maintained her interest and activity in pictures. It was then that talk of a rift in the romance first arose.

Bond of $4,000 in each of two cases of armed robbery which Jack Woodson faces was fixed yesterday by Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell. Woodson heard state testimony and waived an opportunity to testify. Jack Kinsley and Fonzie Winslo Gressett are charged in the same holdups. They are held in lieu of bonds of the same amounts.

County Commissioners' court, in regular session yesterday, approved accounts and had routine discussions. A committee of women of Lubbock County Home Demonstration council presented a six-month report of their work.

Suffering second degree burns on the face, arms, and hands, as a result of a fire which destroyed his home near Shallowater late Saturday, Y. A. Haymes, 54, was reported to be resting at Lubbock sanitarium yesterday.

A Lubbock man, Frank W. Beans, a fourth year trainee of the Citizens Military Training camp at Fort Sill, Okla., has been chosen as trainee regimental adjutant.

J. C. Street, local cotton buyer, has gone to Corpus Christi where he plans to buy cotton during the next two months. Mrs. Street, in Dallas visiting her daughter, will joint Mr. Street in Corpus Christi.

O. W. McLeod, John L. Stinson, William H. Bray, H. D. Boyd, and J. S. Sanders, Lubbock tailor shop operators, have returned from a state meeting in Waco upon the proposed code of fair competition of the cleaning and dyeing industry. South Plains plant owners and employes met here recently, preliminary to compiling suggestions from this region for consideration by state and national bodies in shaping the national regulations. The Lubbock representatives left Saturday for Waco.

Florists are falling in line with the government's recently enacted recovery program, O. W. Ribble, Lubbock florist, said Monday upon returning from state florist conventions in Temple and Oklahoma City. Mr. Ribble was one of the local florists called upon to arrange flowers at instructional sessions attended by about 300 florists from Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas and Missouri.

State To Ask Death Penalty In Kidnaping Of Woman

KANSAS CITY, July 24. (AP)—Assisted by a representative of the United States attorney general, the state of Missouri today began efforts to send Walter H. McGee, 38, ex-convict, to death on the gallows for kidnaping Mary McElroy, daughter of the city manager.
"Are any of you gentlemen opposed to the death penalty?" was the question answered negatively by the panel of 47 men approved, which tomorrow will be reduced to 12.
The abduction May 27 of Miss McElroy, 25, who was released 29 hours later on payment of $30,000 ransom, was termed "an outstanding case" by Joseph B. Keenan, special assistant attorney general of the United States who came here to participate in the prosecution.

Fate Of Postal Employes Is Resting On Business Boost

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—The fate of 12,000 postoffice employes caught within the sweep of governmental economy today appeared to rest on the possibility of increased postal business.
While the department made plans for a new tally of mail volume in hope of finding a substantial increase under the new lower rates, officials also were reported to be planning a "sales expansion" program of their own. This would involve efforts to swing into the postoffice business large volumes of communications now going to other systems because of swifter transmission.

Troubles Never Come Singly And Dave Gets Another Suit

LOS ANGELES, July 24. (AP)—Accusing David L. Hutton, jr., of threatening to knock his head through a concrete wall, Noland Tucker, a musician, filed in superior court today $5,000 damage action against Aimee Semple McPherson's husband, now in vaudeville.
Tucker, who also named Hutton's father, David Hutton, sr., as a defendant, charged the portly singer with battery. Tucker, former leader of the orchestra at Angelus Temple, Mrs. McPherson's four square gospel church, claimed Hutton, his father and a temple attendent ejected him forcibly from the church July 24, 1932.
After using force, Tucker charged, David threatened to knock his head through a concrete wall.

The Mollisons planned to spend several days resting.

Scout Hike Will Be Staged Friday

Touching all points of the Boy Scout compass of activity, an overnight hike and campfire court of honor for Boy Scouts and their dads will be conducted Friday afternoon to Saturday morning at the S. A. Henry farm near the city's northern limits.
"This is an all-round efficiency test," said D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council executive, of Lubbock, "because it covers camping, cooking, advancement, organization, training, and the interest of parents in what their boys are doing in scouting."
The scouts' training, industry, and cooperative spirit are tested in how they set up and carry through their camp, how they ajust to its conditions in assignment and performance of individual duties, how well they cook, how their study is reflected in court of honor recognition. The parents' interest in the education of their sons is reflected in how they attend the court, the executive added.
Troops will be judged on 10 points.
Executive Jennings has issued a bulletin describing the way to reach the camp site. The encampment will begin to assume shape at 1 p. m. Friday, supper will be prepared and eaten, dishes washed, and other arrangements made for the night between 6 and 8 p. m., when the court of honor, scheduled to sit 90 minutes, will convene. After breakfast, final inspection of camp sites will be at 8 a. m. Saturday.
Other approaching events on the scout calendar are:
Review of first and second class and merit badge study Wednesday, beginning at 7:30 p. m., in scout headquarters in City hall.
Council-wide swimming meet Monday, August 7, beginning at 7:30 p. m., at City pool here.

Texas Law To Regulate Manufacture And Sale Of Beer Is Given Approval

AUSTIN, July 24. (AP)—A Texas ... that would regulate the manufacture and sale of beer, passed by the 43rd legislature to apply in event voters at a special election on August 26, legalize 3.2 per cent brew, is approved as constitutional by the state attorney general's department.

Under terms of the law, effective September 15, as to regulatory features only in event a constitutional amendment is sanctioned by the voters, local option elections in political subdivisions dry when the state voted prohibition in 1919 may be held any time after July 1.

Counties Order Vote

Several dry counties had ordered vote on local option for the same by the constitutional amendment submitted to the electorate. The question whether the law could take such authorization before it had been determined whether beer could be sold anywhere in the state, was submitted to the attorney general by Mac Taylor, jr., civil district attorney of Dallas county. Gilbert Hooper, first assistant attorney general, upheld the law in every respect.

Texans will vote on the same day whether this state favors repeal of the national prohibition.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 44

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Like two charging bulls they came together, and like two wolves they sought each other's throat. Jane, her lithe young figure flattened against a tree trunk, hands pressed tight against her bosom, and eyes wide with mingled horror, fascination, fear, and admiration, watched ape and ape-man battle for possession of her.

The great muscles of Tarzan's back and shoulders knotted beneath the tension of his efforts. His huge biceps and forearm held at bay those mighty tusks. The long knife drank deep a dozen times of Terkoz's life blood. Then the great carcass rolled lifeless upon the ground.

The evil of centuries of civilization and culture was swept from Jane! It was a primeval woman who sprang forward with outstretched arms toward the primeval man who fought for her and won her. . . . And Tarzan took his woman in his arms and smothered her upturned, panting lips with kisses.

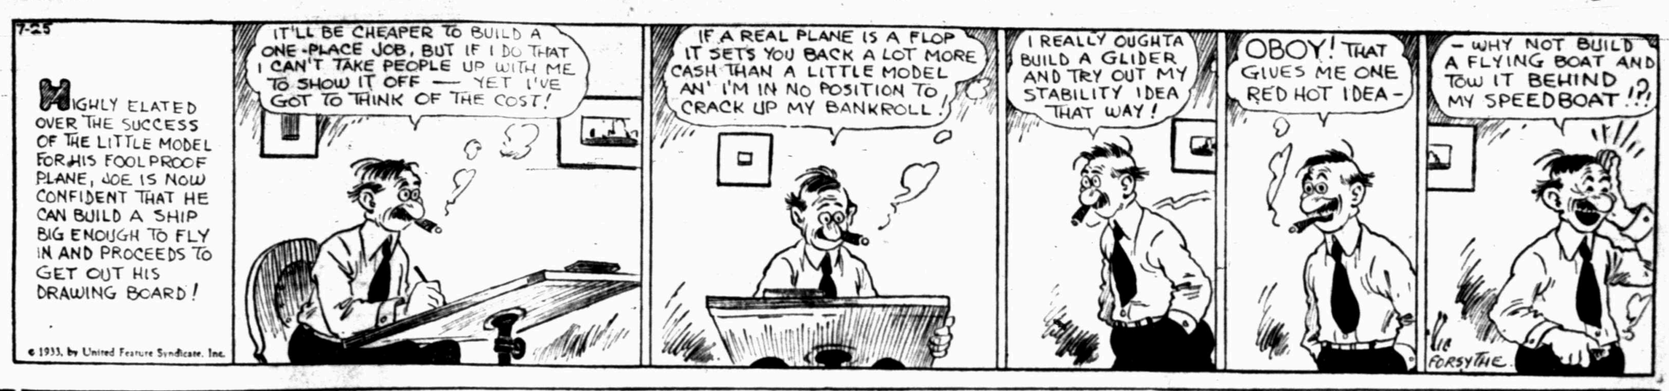

Suddenly her face suffused with scarlet blushes. She thrust Tarzan of the Apes from her and buried her face in her hands. He came close again and took hold of her. She turned like a tigress, striking his great breast with her tiny hands. Tarzan could not understand it.

A moment before Tarzan had intended to hasten Jane back to her people. That moment was lost. He had felt a warm, lithe form pressed close to his. Again he sought her . . . again she repulsed him. Then Tarzan took his woman in his arms and carried her into the jungle.

Plowing Of Cotton In Lubbock Area Expected To Start Today

Approximately 1,000 Applications Are Received Monday; County Agent Believes Work Will Start Tuesday

WITH approximately 1,000 applications for permits to plow under cotton acreage, distributed yesterday afternoon over the 29 communities in Lubbock county, O. G. Tumlinson, county agent, said last night he expected many applications to be filed in his office this morning. Plowing also may begin today.

"Some farmers ought to get to plowing by Tuesday," he said. "I received about 1,000 application blanks Monday afternoon and by 1:30 there were some going out to community committees. I sent 25 or 30 to each committee and told them to take care of the men who needed to plow up right away in order to plant feed.

Plowing To Start

"By Tuesday there should be some plowing started. We ought to get more permits in the mail the first thing in the morning. I am distributing all contracts through the community committees."

No definite acceptances from the secretary of agriculture have been received but they are expected Tuesday or Wednesday.

Farmers from every section of the county have been flocking to the county agent's office daily for nearly a week asking when permits would be received. Lubbock county's total acreage in cotton is 239,575. Of this, 98,927 acres, or 41.9 per cent, will be plowed up, if all the contracts, 2,497 in number, are accepted in full amounts.

Committeemen Here

Ches Merrill and V. L. Cade, members of the county committee, were here yesterday, ready to work on approving of permits, if necessary.

In a letter of instruction, C. A. Cobb, cotton administrator, pointed out that "because of the fact that a large number of offer blanks were not filled out properly and also because there was, and still is, delay in sending to Washington many of the offers, and for other reasons, the administration is not able to issue a blanket acceptance of all offers and an authorization for every producer who has made an offer to begin destroying the crop on the land offered.

The department is sending to county agents to be mailed producers, notices that the secretary is accepting or modifying and accepting offers for the cotton land. Where the offer blank is filled out incorrectly, "the administration is anxious that the producer be made aware of the errors in his offers before he starts destroying any of his crop," Mr. Cobb said, "so that he will have a clear understanding of the basis on which he is to proceed."

Recognizing that an "emergency exists," which makes it necessary for producers to plant feed or cover crops without waiting until formal notices are received, the agricultural adjustment administration is issuing a form on which the producer may request permission to proceed with destroying the crop covered by his offer.

Addressed to the county agent, the producer by signing it, "recognized his offer may have been improperly filled out, that he may have computed the payments due him inaccurately or that some similar mistake may have been made," Cobb said. "If the producer is willing to go ahead, knowing that there may be some adjustment made in his offer, an dthe county agent determines that such an emergency exists, "the agent may sign the order."

Post Makes A Secret Trip To Pay Respect To Fliers

NEW YORK, July 24. (AP) — Wiley Post made a secret journey last night to offer his congratulations on their flight and his sympathy for their injuries to James and Amy Mollison, who crashed at Bridgeport, Conn., after a flight from Europe.

The world flier left by automobile late last night, spent some time with the Mollisons in the hospital, and got back here about five o'clock this morning.

He made the journey secretly because he wanted the call to be purely personal and without any fanfare of public attention. News of it leaked out because he was recognized.

Abernathy Chamber Of Commerce Now Claims A Record For Its Continuous Service During Good Times And Bad

Special Correspondent

ABERNATHY, July 24—The Abernathy Chamber of Commerce claims a record for its continuous service through good times and bad for thirteen years. Although having a population of only 800 persons, Abernathy has found it pays to keep a civic organization intact especially during a depression.

The Abernathy Chamber of Commerce was first organized in 1920. Its first president was F. W. Struve, who is partners with his brother, Ben F., in operating the Struve Cheese factory. W. A. Richter served as the first secretary from 1920 to 1924. The next secretary was J. P. Nystel, who served from 1924 to 1926. C. W. Beens, director of Abernathy's famous band back in 1925 to 1927, served as secretary for one year, from 1926 to 1927. Nystel was again elected secretary in 1927 and has served in this capacity since then.

No Salary Reduction

The organization did not begin paying its secretary until 1928. An interesting fact to note here is that no reduction has been made in the secretary's salary since it was first passed upon.

The story of the organization of the chamber of commerce was told recently by Nystel. "In 1919 and 1920 when we had hopes of bringing in the Bledsoe oil well near Abernathy, we saw the need of a civic body so our citizens could work in unison should this well be successful," Mr. Nystel said. The well was not successful, but we saw so many things the chamber of commerce had to work for in our city that we did not disband. Our membership has been from 40 to 80 since we organized."

Early Meetings Held

The early meetings were held in the land office of H. Schulz, pioneer real estate agent in Abernathy. Meetings are now held in Nystel's office.

Among accomplishments during the organization's history are the sponsorship of community fairs in 1925, 1926 and 1927. In 1929 it sponsored its first poultry show, cooperating with the high school vocational agriculture teacher and students. The fourth annual poultry show was held in 1932 and plans will be laid soon for the fifth this year. The organization has also sponsored four dairy shows, the first in 1930. The vocational agriculture teacher and his students conduct the show with the chamber of commerce paying expenses and attending to some of the arrangements. Each of the shows saw increases in exhibitors, entrants and attendance every year.

Play Is Presented

One unique stunt performed by the citizens of Abernathy is the presentation of a play with an all-local cast in eight rural schools around Abernathy a few days before the dairy shows are held. An invitation to farmers to enroll and attend the shows is expressed by some spokesman traveling with the cast. The last show given had more than 60 in the cast.

Trades days during the summer months are also sponsored by the chamber of commerce. Those conducted in 1932 were highly successful, merchants reported. A home-products show was conducted in August of 1932, the first of its kind held here. Articles made and manufactured by Abernathy individuals and industries were exhibited during this event, which may become an annual show. Eleven local industries and two dozen individuals had displays during the affair.

Handle Charity Work

Charity work in Abernathy is also handled through the chamber of commerce. It was through its efforts Abernathy secured some of the Hale county Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan for wages for unemployed. Considerable civic improvements have been done with these funds, giving employment to more than 30.

Abernathy has no intentions of disbanding its chamber of commerce according to opinions expressed by merchant members, and will operate when business has "turned the corner," they say.

Plainview Girl Is Studying Fingerprinting In Spare Time

PLAINVIEW, July 24. (Special)—Studying fingerprinting in her spare time, Miss Mozelle Groner, secretary to Joe Sharp, county attorney, now wants to become an expert and she hopes to continue her work along that line.

Miss Groner graduated from a junior college at Marshall last June and accepted the local post. She became interested in the fingerprinting work in the office of Sheriff Nath Burkett. Now she hopes to go to Chicago and study there.

FACULTY COMPLETED

LITTLEFIELD (Special) — With the recent election of three teachers, the Littlefield school faculty is complete. Miss Corine Overstreet, Lubbock; Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Robinette of Klondike, Dawson county, and Morgan Layfield of Whitharral were named. Miss Wyvonne Mason and Miss Nora Bell were elected substitute teachers. H. T. Haynes of Ralls was elected negro school teacher.

Before the crowd in the grand stand knows what has happened, Brewster has reported the play.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

"It's some strain being the public's eyes at big sporting events," says Edson Brewster, who clicks out the play-by-play for Western Union. "I have to see everything and I have to see it right. I've got to keep my eyes on the field and a steady hand on the telegraph key every second. No wonder I am a steady smoker! But I do not worry about my nerves. I have smoked Camels for years. They are mild, and never disturb my nerves. I like them better."
