ASSAILANT OF WHITE WOMAN SOUGHT IN SOUTH TEXAS

(By The Associated Press)

BEAUMONT, Dec. 4—Search for a negro suspected of criminally attacking and killing a white woman, Mrs. Mellie Williams Brockman, was under way today in this area. Hardin county officers believed they had identified the 30-year-old woman's assailant.

Mrs. Brockman was waylaid Saturday afternoon while driving to town from her home, five miles west of Kountze, in a light truck, alone. She was found dead beside the truck which had been set afire in what officers regarded as an attempt to destroy evidence. Her body had been seared by the flames.

Capture Denied

A rumor was current last night that the negro suspect had been captured and spirited away to an unnamed jail but officers denied it.

Officers searched the home of a negro and found that the man had been to his house, changed clothes and then left. Clothes found in the negro's house fitted the description of those worn by an armed negro Civilian Conservation corps workers saw in the vicinity of the spot where Mrs. Brockman's body was found.

A shotgun was in the house, along with three shells loaded with the same size shot as that with which the woman was killed. The negro seen by conservation corps workers was carrying a shotgun as he disappeared into a patch of woods.

Officers theorized that the negro had forced Mrs. Brockman to stop her truck by menacing her with a gun, then made her drive into a side road, where the alleged criminal attack was carried out before she was shot.

A report that a negro had fired a railroad bridge at Fuqua, Tex., sent a posse of officers and armed citizens there to investigate but a negro arrested was not linked with the Brockman killing.

Four of the 12 jurors who will decide the fate of J. R. Readhimer, 56, charged with murdering Stokes Campbell, a Floydada High school student, had been chosen when Judge Clark M. Mullican adjourned 99th district court at noon today.

Selection of the jurors from a special venire of 100 men began this morning and was to be resumed early this afternoon.

District Attorney Daniel A. Blair expressed an opinion the complete jury would be selected by 5 o'clock this afternoon if unanticipated difficulties did not arise.

With an "unwritten law" defense, Vert A. Readhimer, a son of J. R. Readhimer, was acquitted of murder by a jury in the same court in October.

State witnesses testified the younger Readhimer held Campbell while J. R. Readhimer shot him.

HUGE CROWDS ARE IN LUBBOCK TODAY FOR "DOLLAR DAY"

South Plains buyers were in Lubbock by the hundreds and thousands today to attend the December "dollar day" of Lubbock business houses and to make purchases for the Christmas holiday season.

Out-of-town buyers came early and all available parking space was at a premium from before opening time for the stores. During the noon hour the rush was unusually heavy and as fast as a car left a parking space another one was ready to occupy it.

"Best in months," "fine," "satisfactory" and "great" were some of the comments by store managers and owners on the day's results so far. Several stores did not answer the telephone, evidence of clerks and employes being too busy to answer.

One store reported the "best day since last fall," and other reported the best of the season.

All lines of business reported a rush of business. Drug stores were busy and hardware stores with toy departments reported that line was exceptionally well patronized.

Stores featuring Christmas gifts reported an exceptional trade for those goods. Many calls for packages to be wrapped in special holiday paper, were made.

David B. Shewey, 21, of Oklahoma City, was killed by the accidental discharge of a shotgun while hunting with his father.

SUSPECT ON BOND IN TRUCK MISHAP

W. E. Barnett, about 25, of Paris, Tex., charged by complaint Sunday in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court with being the driver of a truck which did not stop after a collision, was released from county jail in bail of $250.

J. C. Roberts, a former constable, driver of an automobile which was in collision with a truck early Sunday on state highway 7 about 6 miles southeast of Lubbock, signed the complaint. Barnett waived examining trial and was released later Sunday. The case was to be taken before a 99th district court grand jury today.

Two companions of Barnett were charged in justice court with drunkenness.

En route to Lubbock from Johnston's ranch, southeast of here, where he had served as a special officer at a dance, Roberts was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Johnson. Johnson is a former state highway patrolman. Three young women, who had abandoned an automobile which went into a ditch after, they said, the steering vice locked, also were in the Roberts car, a Graham Paige sedan. Roberts said the truck sideswiped his machine, which was off the right-of-way before it was stopped. None was hurt.

Jack Reaves and W. E. Renfrow, state highway patrolmen, subsequently arrested Barnett in a downtown cafe here.

TAX REVISION PROBLEMS UP

LIQUOR LEVIES WILL BE STUDIED; NEW INCOME SOUGHT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 — The big job of revising the tax structure to increase federal income by $400,000,000 annually was tackled today by the house ways and means committee.

This congressional unit, which originates all revenue measures, had before it recommendations of a subcommittee which has conducted an exhaustive study of methods by which the income tax may be administered to bring an extra revenue without increasing rates. It will consider, also, the liquor taxes to follow repeal in joint hearings later with the senate finance committee.

Proposals Not Ready

As the full house committee began its study of the sub-committee recommendations, it was informed by Acting Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury, that the treasury would not have its proposals ready until about December 15.

This will delay, somewhat, formulation of the new tax bill, but Chairman Doughton (D-NC) said he hoped the committee would have the measure ready for congress when it convenes January 3. Hearings are not to be held until late this week, he said.

Meanwhile, the president's interdepartmental alcohol committee is preparing recommendations for increases in levies on liquor. The present tax is $1.10 a gallon. With the administration expecting to receive about $500,000,000 in the first full year after repeal, and the treasury estimating consumption for that period will be 105,000,000 gallons, the levy would have to be greatly increased to obtain that amount.

Indications are that it will be

MAN AND TWO WOMEN HURT IN MISHAP

HEAVY GUARD PLACED OVER TRIO TODAY IN ARKANSAS HOSPITAL

(By The Associated Press)

FORT SMITH, Ark., Dec. 4.—Two women, identified by Constable Jack Pace and Deputy Constable Otto Kuykendall as the wife and cousin of Charles Arthur (Pretty Boy) Floyd, notorious Oklahoma outlaw, and a man believed by the officers to be Floyd, were under heavy guard in a hospital here today, following an accident in which the three were injured.

Another man, Fred Stiles, Fort Smith, believed by officers to be the driver of the automobile when the crash occurred last night near Charleston, Ark., died at a hospital here early today.

Women Are Known

Pace and Kuykendall said the women were Mrs. Ruby Floyd and Stella Collins, both of whom are known to have lived in Fort Smith for some time.

The man believed by officers to be Floyd gave his name to newsmen and hospital attendants as Bob Carney of Fort Smith. He was not questioned by police, but was placed under a police guard pending the arrival of Raymond Drake, officer of Sallisaw, Okla., with fingerprints. Floyd was born at Sallisaw.

Pace and Kuykendall, in regard to Floyd, said "we request you to announce that a positive identification has not been made yet."

"We are not sure that it is Floyd It looks like him He answers the description in every way."

Elusive as a wraith, Charles Arthur Floyd, Oklahoma's "Pretty Boy" public enemy, has sneered for three years at frantic man-hunters seeking him for a list of real or reputed crimes staggering enough to awe the most fearsome bad man of the roaring days.

Wanted for murder and accused of one bank robbery after another, Floyd repeatedly has wriggled through the tight lines of the law to gain carefully hidden hideaways in the hills of eastern Oklahoma or Western Arkansas, or to find concealment in the far-flung greater Seminole oil field where, legend has it, "Pretty Boy" played Robin Hood to the poor.

FOUR MEN KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 4 (AP)—Four were killed and two injured when a Great Northern freight train crashed into a rock slide at Milan, Wash., 24 miles north of here last night.

The dead: W. J. Barrett, engineer, William Krueger, fireman, Leonard Hargrove, brakeman, and J. T. Towhey, brakeman.

The injured: E. W. Horsall, conductor, and F. G. Cook, brakeman.

The dead and injured were all of Hillyard, a suburb of Spokane.

The men killed were riding in the cab of the huge locomotive that was pulling a train of 97 cars. With this weight behind them, the locomotive and tender were derailed and toppled over on their sides, the front end of the locomotive resting in the Little Spokane river.

Lindberghs Fail In Takeoff Attempts

BATHURST, Germany, Dec. 4 (AP)—After several unsuccessful attempts in the still tropic moonlight to get their big monoplane off the water, Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh indicated early today they might try again tonight to get off for South America.

Twice under a broiling sun yesterday the American fliers were balked in efforts to hop westward because of unfavorable winds and a too heavy load of fuel.

During the night they tried again, to no avail. Then they decided to await nightfall once more, in the hope that conditions would be more to their liking.

GULP-AND-PRAY AGE TO END TUESDAY AND SIP-AND-SAVOR ERA WILL BEGIN

BY RAYMOND CROWLEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—The cocktail hour tomorrow will find Manhattan's gulp-and-pray age ended and the sip-and-savor era begun—but the big town is not exactly hysterical about it.

Black-hulled steamers bore down on this port today, carrying old madeiras, rare burgundies and sauternes. Across the border in Canada bonded cars crammed with whiskies and liquers awaited word from Utah.

In many a metropolitan warehouse workmen stacked giant trucks high with liquor, ready to dash away, with supplies for tomorrow night's fetes in hotels and clubs. One warehouse alone, according to those in the know, holds 200,000 cases of aged-in-wood American rye, unblended.

New York City, never parched through all the thirsty twenties and thirties, was taking it all in stride, reading the columns of pointers on liquors and wines in the newspapers, and bent on getting the real stuff.

Most prognosticators foresaw for tomorrow night no such scenes as convulsed Broadway on the night of June 30, 1919, when the wartime prohibition act ushered in the dry era.

Then gay dogs, turned mournful, carted John Barleycorn's bier down the avenue, girls danced on tables in the cafe Des Beaux, flecking their escorts' shirt fronts with champagne; roisterers fairly swam

VOLGA THE VAMPIRE IS PROUD MOTHER OF BRAND NEW BAT OFFSPRING TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—What with repeal just around the corner and Colonel Lindbergh flying oceans again, New York's populace was caught completely unaware today by an extremely unusual occurrence at the Bronx residence of Volga the Vampire.

Volga, is the proud mother of a brand new offspring, a baby vampire bat. The event was nough to throw the entire personnel of the Bronx zoo into a frenzy of delight.

The baby is the image of its mama—a tiny leering bulldog face, protruding lower lip, sharp fangs, a little rat body covered with thick shiny silver-gray fur and claw-wings with a four-inch spread.

Vampire bats are extremely rare, and Raymond L. Ditmars, curator, said that Volga's baby "is worth its weight in gold."

Volga herself was captured by Arthur Greenhall of the University of Michigan, nearly at the cost of his life, in the Chilibrillo caves in the valley of Chagres, Panama. Almost nothing is known of the vampire bat's habits, and the baby vampire is considered by Ditmars as of "great scientific importance." Volga is the only one of her kind in a zoo.

The curator explained that the bat gets its name of vampire from the fact that it lives on warm blood. In Panama, its native habitat, it feeds on horses and cattle and often on

Coax Flavor From Your Roast Duck

By NEA Service

Duck, roasted with quartered oranges, is a recipe to tempt the palate of the "game" gourmet. It makes a handsome dish to serve right on the table and the novelty of having a roast topped with fresh fruit is sure to bring from your guests exclamations of praise for your culinary art.

Ducks usually are quite inexpensive, and they're splendid substitutes for turkey on holiday menus.

You can stuff a duckling with dressing—chestnut dressing always is good with game—or you can cook it plain. It's delicious either way.

One way to make sure of a delicate but unusual flavor in any game which you roast is to have a bottle of cooking wine on your pantry shelf.

A five-pound duckling will serve six people nicely. Be sure and select a fowl which is young and tender. Wash it thoroughly and remove any little extra pin-feathers that cling to the skin.

Roast the duckling in the oven for one hour. Remove it and take off some of the fat in the roasting pan. Add one tablespoon of flour to the fat and allow to simmer until it is a golden brown. Then pour in one-half glass of white wine. Boil it all down to half and then add the juice of two oranges and one cup of consomme. Strain the gravy over the shredded peel of one orange.

Place the duck on a platter and garnish around the breast and sides with quartered oranges. Pour the gravy over the whole thing.

LETTERS READ IN HEARING

ATTEMPTS TO EXTORT MONEY FROM KING GEORGE CLAIMED

LONDON, Dec. 4 (AP)—A public prosecutor read letters in Bow street police court today in an attempt to prove that Clarence Guy Gordon Haddon, 43-year-old engineer, sought to blackmail King George.

At the end of the hearing, Haddon, who claims to be the illegitimate son of the late Duke of Clarence and hence a nephew of the king, was remanded to jail until Tuesday.

From one letter the prosecutor read:

Extortion Plot Claimed

"It would only have taken a year's income from my late father to have made me the happiest and most contented man in the British empire. It would have meant so little to the royal family.

"The blessing of God would have been on their household for years whereas now I will be a byword to the world and so will the name of the royal family."

The prosecution contended the letters were written by Haddon to the king in an attempt to extort money.

From another letter, dated November 8, the prosecution read:

"Within a few days I am having made sandwich boards giving the particulars of my case. I shall personally carry this board about the streets of London in an attempt to secure justice."

In other epistles were mentioned a letter to the president of the United States and the preparation of petitions to the house of commons and the League of Nations.

"Hounded Like Criminal"

Extracts from the letters claimed that Haddon had been followed by detectives and had been "hounded about like a criminal for no other crime than that of being the son of the late Duke of Clarence."

Another mentioned "my backers" and a promise Haddon made "to get himself nto the law courts for the money they have spent on me and are still spending, in return for which I am to come before the eyes of the public."

In opening the proceedings, the prosecutor declared:

Most Of Cotton Is Graded As Spotted

Approximately 50 per cent of the cotton classed for Texas for the week ending November 30 was classed as equivalent to some one of the grades of the spotted standard, the weekly report of the division of cotton marketing of the bureau of agricultural economics shows. About 21 per cent was white middling and strict low middling.

Ten per cent was classed shorter then 7-8 inch in staple length; 56 per cent 7-8 to 29-32 inch and slightly more than 30 per cent was 15-16 to 31-32 inch. Seventeen per cent was classed as untenderable.

"Some 25 per cent of the cotton from district No. 2, the high plains, was white strict low middling and low middling this week," the report added. "Approximately 61 per cent was spotted. Slightly more than 29 per cent was untenderable on future contracts and 14 per cent was shorter than 7-8 of an inch in length. Eighty five per cent was 7-8 to 31-32 inch in length."

ANN DVORAK NOT SORRY SHE TOOK A FILM HOLIDAY

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 4 (AP)—Ann Dvorak ran away from Hollywood just when her career was getting a good start. And if she could live her life over, she'd run away again for at least a year.

Looking back on her world-circling honeymoon with Leslie Fenton, an adventure which seriously interrupted her motion picture career, Ann has no regrets.

"It gave me a chance to catch up with myself," Ann said today. "I had time to think.

"Nearly everybody thought I was foolish to run away. Once in a while I got panicky too, wondering if I had completely lost my chance at a career in Hollywood. But I never actually regretted my choice."

Before the trip Ann and Leslie lived in a more or less typically Hollywood manner in a typical movie house just on the edge of the film center. Now the Fentons live on an acreage in San Fernando valley, seven miles, according to their count, from the nearest actor.

Ann learned soon after her return what the trip was to cost her. She was not to be starred. She was lent first to another company and then she came back to Warner Bros. to play opposite Richard Barthelmess in "Massacre" a year ago, she would have been disappointed. But now, being in the "supporting cast" actually fits in with her plans. Her fan mail generally approves her absence in the interests of married happiness.

FIVE INJURED AND SICK PERSONS ARE RESCUED FROM NORTHLAND BY PLANES

Ice-Locked Ship Is Waiting For Storm

ST. PAUL ISLAND, Bering Sea, Dec. 4. (AP)—A hundred miles north of the Arctic circle in the bleak ice of the East Siberian sea, the ice-locked Soviet ship Cheliuskin, and its human cargo of 68 today faced another "heavy storm."

Baffled by storm three days ago in their efforts to abandon ship and cross the ice to shore, the party of Russian scientists prepared to weather a second storm, their wireless operator messaged.

The message, received by the naval radio operator here, described their situation as "okeh."

FORT McMURRAY, Alta., Dec. 4 (AP)—Five injured and sick persons, plucked from the lonely northland's long winter by rescue planes, received medical attention here today as two more airplanes sped over fast-freezing wastes to deliver the season's first mail.

Pilot Walter Gilbert and a priest from Fort Smith flew to the Great Bear lake area yesterday to carry in the five hospital cases to Alberta's end of the railroad.

Somewhere up around Fort Smith, or preparing to take off for McMurray on the 300-mile flight, was pilot Con Farrell. After delivering mail to Fort Smith he was to descend 100 miles north of here where the motorship Mabel is ice-locked with seven passengers aboard.

Meanwhile, W. R. "Wop" May, another flier with a long record of arctic and sub-arctic flights, was in the vicinity of Fort Simpson, 700 miles northwest of here, flying the first winter mail into the Simpson district post.

If Farrell succeeds in taking the seven passengers off the Mabel, the rescue will complete the removal of 25 stranded persons from the ship. It was frozen in six weeks ago by an early cold snap.

CIVIL WAR LOOMS IN CHINESE AREA

HONG KONG, Dec. 4. (AP)—Civil war, involving the newly established revolutionary government in Fukien province, loomed today.

The rebel administration was said in Chinese dispatches to have ordered an offensive against two neighboring provinces, Chekiang and Kiangsi, in southeastern China, and two divisions of troops were said to be moving into Kwangtung to assist in the defense.

Airplanes of the Nanking nationalist government, which the Fukien insurgents charge is in league with the Japanese, bombed four towns in Fukien yesterday, killing at least 20 persons and caused great property damage.

Through error the bombers fired on a group of cadets at rifle practice near Foochow, the capital of Fukien, with the result that ten boys were killed and 30 wounded.

A blockade, meanwhile, was apparently in force against Fukien, a maritime province. A gunboat seized a ship containing 800 rifles and bound for Foochow.

The south China government at Canton undertook defensive military preparations. It was unofficially reported Canton would not join an attack on Fukien unless $3,000,000 was forthcoming from Nanking.

Many pro-Nanking fascists, including army and navy officers, were reported to have been secretly executed at Canton.

A perfect black rose has been perfected by the Sangerhausen Rosarium in Germany after years of experimenting, according to reports.

ASONRY HELD PAST CRISIS

RGANIZATION IS ON WAY TO NORMALCY, LEADER CLAIMS

WACO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Dr. E. M. Wood of Anson, grand high priest of the Grand Royal Arch chapter of Masonry in Texas, asserted in his annual address today that Masonry apparently had "passed the great economic crisis, with the rest of the world, and is on the highway to normalcy."

"Matters of grave import have caused us to stop and reflect," he said. "We have been faced with the most far-reaching and disastrous financial holocaust ever known in the annals of time. There may have been more disastrous conditions affecting a limited space and people, but none that has assumed the magnitude of the one from which we feel we are just now, to some extent, emerging.

"Masonry Affected"

"Naturally, any calamity that affects the people as a whole in financial, social, moral and economic respects must, of necessity, affect the whole structure of Masonry. I believe that we, as an organization, have withstood the depression unusually well.

"When we recall that capitular Masonry was organized at the time when the Israelitish people were at the lowest ebb almost in their entire existence, and they were demoralized, sick at heart, almost ready to give up, and then and from then we have ever pressed on and on through all the vicissitudes, war and calamities that have encompassed us and in every instance come out intact and with a full realization of the purposes and designs intended by the great creator, when he communicated his purposes to our illustrious predecessors, we may feel assured that this catastrophe will have sunk into oblivion and the great moral and Christian influence on this great order shall go on and on to a more perfect day."

Grand Master B. F. Huntsman was on the program to deliver the annual address to the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters at the opening session in the afternoon.

FOUR ARE SLAIN

Wichita couple missing since Nov. 23 and feared slain, and the man last seen with them, Jack Wisdom, young ranch hand. The Pritchards' bloodstained automobile was found near Depew last week.

William R. Taggart, Oklahoma City insurance man, faced arraignment today for the courthouse slaying Friday of Bert Yount, 22, whom he accused of breaking up his home. Taggart's divorced wife, Ara, said after the shooting she believed her former husband was insane.

Three men were held in connection with fatal beatings at country dances. Buck McNeis was arrested near Durant in the death of "Pug" Alexander. Tom Dotson, 40, and his son, Booley, 17, were held at Sallisaw in the death of Jess Shank, 38, at the latter's home.

Held Without Bond

At Tahlequah, Sam Scott, 30, was held without bond for trial on murder charges in the fatal shooting of his tenant, W. D. Twilley.

The state bureau of criminal investigation prepared to delve into the 25-year-old mystery of the murder of Griffin Harnage, Tahlequah cattleman, at the request of the Cherokee county attorney.

Charles Sater, 60, of Dewey, was charged with the murder Saturday as a result of allegedly boasting he once killed a man. This Sater denied and told officers another man did the killing for $75 after he had refused.

Despondent over finances, L. E. A. Himes, 32, a farmer, killed his wife at Progville Saturday and then shot himself. Two days earlier, C. C. Bullis, 42, unemployed, killed his wife and himself near Sulphur.

bled to $2.20 a gallon. The tariff imported liquors amounts to $5 a and about 14,000,000 gallons expected to be brought in.

Besides planning to make corporations and individuals deduct their losses from income in the years they are sustained, the committee expects to strengthen the capital gains and loss provisions of the law. The subcommittee recommended that allowances for depreciation and depletion be reduced and that holding companies set up by individuals and corporations as a means of evading income levies be assessed 25 per cent of their net return.

Taxes imposed in the National Recovery act, estimated to return $212,000,000 to retire the $3,300,000,000 public works loan fund, will be repealed along with prohibition repeal.

Plans For Cattle Purchases Mapped

Plans for the purchase of 38 cattle from Lubbock county farmers for use in the local federal meat canning plant have been completed by O. G. Tumlinson, county agent. The animals are to be bought from Lubbock farmers.

Farmers who want to sell cattle to the government should register with me before noon of Monday, December 11." Mr. Tumlinson said. "A limit of five head will be set so that no one man can list more than that number. Each animal will be numbered and at a drawing Monday afternoon, 38 numbers will be chosen and owners of these cattle can sell to the government.

A price of not to exceed $1.75 per hundred pounds has been announced by the government. H. C. Harding, local purchasing agent for the government, will buy the cattle.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Cotton opened quiet, 2 to 4 points lower on disappointing cables, the unchanged government gold price and the decline in foreign exchange. Dec. 9.86; Jan. 9.92; March 10.06; May 10.17; July 10.29; Oct. 10.49.

There was some buying attributed to domestic and foreign price fixing, and southern selling was in comparatively small volume, but prices sagged off after the call under scattering liquidation promoted by firmer ruling of the dollar in foreign exchange markets.

December worked off to 9.83 and May to 10.14 with active months generally showing net losses of about 6 to 8 points at the end of the first half hour.

Three of the private end-November crop reports were issued with figures on the indicated yield in bales of 508 pounds gross ranging from 12,486,000 up to 13,249,080 bales while estimates of ginnings prior to December 1st ran from 11,825,008 to 11,895,000 running bales. These figures attracted very little comment. Trading continued quiet with fluctuations showing a tendency to follow the foreign exchange market. After selling off to 9.80 for December and 10.09 for May or about 10 to 11 points net lower, prices stiffened up 2 or 3 points from the lowest with the market quiet and steady at midday.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4 (AP)—Cotton opened somewhat easier today although cables were better than due. Sterling, however, was lower and gold was unchanged. After starting 3 to 5 points down, March rallied 3 points after the call to within two points of the previous close but soon eased again to 9.98 and May traded at 10.12, at these levels showing net losses of 4 to 5 points.

The market ruled quiet all morning with narrow price fluctuations. Prices eased moderately on a drop in sterling and somewhat easier stocks. March declined to 9.95 and May to 10.08, down 7 to 9 points from Saturday's close. Prices rallied two points around noon on some short covering and the price level at that hour was 5 to 7 points net lower. Traders appeared to be disposed to await the final government crop estimate due on Friday.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—The stock market performed in slow-motion fashion today and prices, generally, got nowhere in particular.

With no further increase in the gold rate, the dollar spurted in foreign exchange dealings. Sterling dropped nearly 14 cents and French francs yielded more than .13 of a cent. They recovered moderately later. Equity trading was around the dullest of the year. The ticker tape stuttered only occasionally in the early hours. While there was little stock for sale, buyers were extremely diffident. Grains sagged, but came back to their starting point. Cotton, rubber and silver softened. Bonds were irregular.

Shares of Canada Dry got up about 2 points and issues of Schenley, American Commercial Alcohol, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and National Distillers were up fractionally to a point. American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Johns-Manville, Du Pont, American Can, Allied Chemical, N. Y. Central, Ohio Oil, Standard Oil of New Jersey and Consolidated Gas eased. Some of the metals were a bit heavy.

GULP-AND-PRAY

in Greenwich Village's "third rail" and—at the stroke of midnight—a roistering mob of seamen raided six avenue's bars, stuffing their blouses with black bottles.

Tomorrow—in the opinion of that old-time host, Theodore of the Ritz—will be "a jolly but decorous day." Theodore, now manager of the Park Lane restaurants, said:

"I had feared an orgy—but from what I can gather, this will be an era of moderation, people will learn to drink in the continental fashion."

Jerome of Sherry's, who can look back on fifty years of opening doors to banquet halls, flicked a speck from his liveried arm and opined that "the young generation will need a deal of training, but in time the bathtub gin influence will die."

"I can remember that heartrending scene in 1919," he said. "And then the era of bootleggers. Horrid! I've never taken a drink since 1919; wouldn't make myself a criminal. But now I'll have my bottle at home."

In the Park Lane tomorrow night a "round the world bar" will open. Ten dollars goes to any one who can order a nanational drink the bartender cannot mix—whether it's Cuba's planter's punch, Germany's bowle or Austria's shorle morle. At one Harlem resort there'll be a drinking test: The patrons will try to guess which are pre and which are post-repeal drinkables.

JAMES DORAN RESIGNS

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 4. (AP)—Responsive to a sharp downturn in British exchange and to uncertainties of domestic financial conditions, grain prices ruled lower early today. Further rains over domestic winter wheat territory were also a bearish influence.

Opening 1-8, 3-4 lower, wheat afterward receded further. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 off, and subsequently sagged all around.

Cleaning Shops Go Back To Old Prices

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 4. (AP)—Declaring NRA code prices of 75 cents for cleaning and pressing men's suits and up to $1.50 for women's dresses "are ruinous," J. E. Moore announced today his three shops would go back to the old price schedule of 50 cents for men's suits and correspondingly lower prices for women's dresses.

"We don't want to do anything to impair NRA," he said. "Every employe is under it. However, these new prices are ruinous; they have cut business to nothing and forced the laying off of five employes instead of putting on more as the recovery code contemplated."

State Rests Today In Scottsboro Case

DECATUR, Ala., Dec. 4 (AP)—The state rested its case against Clanre Norris, second of the seven negro defendants in the Scottsboro case to be retried on a charge of attacking Mrs. Victoria Price, today.

Except for a moment when the jury was removed while Judge W. W. Callahan took exceptions to the action of Samuel S. Leibowitz, chief of counsel for the defense, the trial moved rapidly.

ITALO-SOVIET ACCORD SEEN

MAXIM LITVINOFF AND MUSSOLINI DISCUSS THEIR PROBLEMS

BY ANDRUE BERDING

ROME, Dec. 4 (AP)—Maxim Litvinoff turned from business to pleasure today—from talks with Premier Mussolini productive of an agreement on Italian-Soviet political collaboration to the formalities of diplomacy.

Chief of these was a reception by King Victor Emmanuel of the Russian foreign commissar and a banquet at the Soviet embassy. Tomorrow he will be a guest at the American embassy.

Problems Talked

Litvinoff, who arrived Saturday after concluding Soviet-American recognition negotiations in Washington, discussed with Mussolini problems of international policy and how to better the general political situation in the spirit of an Italo-Soviet non-aggression pact.

That much was reported in an official communique, between whose lines well-informed persons read that il duce obtained Soviet support of his efforts to solve the disarmament dilemma.

An exchange of ratifications of the Italo-Soviet non-aggression accord, it was said officially, will be made "as soon as possible."

Talks With King

The interview between Litvinoff and the king in Quirinal palace continued over an extended period. It was understood they did not touch on international politics in their conversations.

Afterward the Russian foreign secretary was driven in an automobile through the Pontine Marsh, the great reclamation district understood to be a public work of great interest to Litvinoff.

M. Litvinoff was entertained at lunch in the new city of Littoria, which has risen from the marshes uninhabitable until the recent completion of the reclamation project.

Mystery Blast At Amarillo Is Probed

AMARILLO, Dec. 4. (AP)—Investigators today were unable to explain a mystery blast which rocked Amarillo's east side last night. The explosion was at the city's outskirts and little damage was done, although pictures and mirrors were jarred from the walls of residences in the vicinity.

Guided by what they said was the odor of powder, persons living in the neighborhood found a hole three feet deep and four feet in diameter. No flash was seen, and W. T. Collman, weather bureau chief, scouted the theory that the cavity might have been made by a falling meteor.

Barrow Is Sought In Houston Sector

HOUSTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Clyde Barrow, notorious desperado of the southwest, was sought in Houston today.

Police believed Barrow and Bonnie Parker, his traveling companion, reached Houston yesterday and went into hiding.

C. R. Hasty of Waller reported that a man and a girl, answering the description of Barrow and the Parker woman, had picked him up between Waller and Hempstead and forced him to drive them to Houston.

Abernathy Woman Claimed By Death

Mrs. Elizabeth Stambaugh, 83, died Sunday afternoon at the home of a son, W. B. Stambaugh, at Abernathy. Funeral services were to be conducted this afternoon at Abernathy. Burial, directed by Rix Funeral home, was to be there. Several children survived Mrs. Stambaugh.

Dawes' Bank Repays Part Of Its Loan

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—Responding to an inquiry of the senate banking committee, the Reconstruction corporation has notified Chairman Fletcher that collections of $30,126,362 have been made on the corporation's $90,000,000 loan to the Central Republic Bank and Trust company of Chicago, headed by former Vice President Charles G. Dawes.

In a letter to the committee after it had asked for an itemized list of collateral, Chairman Jones of the corporation said $62,157,596.85 of the loan remains unpaid and that the collections thus far, include $3,283,958.95 in interest.

DIES OF INJURIES

SHAMROCK, Dec. 4. (AP)—Thrown from a horse late Sunday afternoon, Wallace Hill, 13, died from a head injury in a local hospital last night. He was the son of Guy Hill, manager of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce.

Lava Continues To Spout From Crater

HILO, Hawaii, Dec. 4 (AP)—Molten lava surged and spouted in the Mokuweoweo crater at the summit of that volcano since 1903.

A cascade of fiery lava seething across the plateau at the summit forms a pillar of smoke by day and of fire at night.

Two gigantic smoke plumes trailed from the peak early Saturday to give the first indication that Pele, Hawaiian goddess of fire, was stirring from her long sleep.

TOO ILL TO APPEAR

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Dr. Alice L. Wynekoop was too ill in the county jail today to appear before the bar in criminal court for arraignment on her indictment for the murder of Rheta, her daughter-in-law.

Carbon dioxide is present on Venus, ammonia on Jupiter, and oxygen on Mars, according to spectroscopic tests made by Prof. V. M. Slipher.

Thought For Today

O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame, how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.—Psalms, 4:2.

There is no restraining men's tongues or pens when charged with a little vanity.—Washington.

Public Torture

One of the most heart-breaking things about life is the thoughtless cruelty that human beings can show to one another.

A 17-year-old farm boy landed in jail in an Ohio town the other day. He had shot his brother-in-law to death "because he had brought disgrace to our family"; and back of his explanation there is a tragic example of the way in which this thoughtless cruelty can operate.

The brother-in-law had been convicted of assaulting a 14-year-old girl and had served time for it. And the young chap who finally killed him says that neighbors taunted him wherever he went because his sister's husband had turned out to be a scoundrel.

"They all threw it up to me," he explained. "I made up my mind that I never would let him live with my sister again."

Why, in a world which has tragedies enough anyway, must people exercise that thoughtless and vicious form of cruelty?

I wish I could go into a store and shop for things just as any girl.—Doris Duke, world's richest girl.

* * *

One thing you don't hear in the White House is gossip, and I'm so thankful I don't know what to do. —Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

A strictly photographed copy of a stage play, regardless of how excellent it may be as such, is to me a second-rate substitute for the original.—Ernst Lubitsch, film director.

It is from the realities of life that the highest idealities are born.—Clarence Darrow.

* * *

Any time baseball becomes crooked, you can bet I'll be back in Memphis and I won't be playing baseball.—Bill Terry, New York Giants' manager.

Just one more encore and I'll knock 'em cold.—Ruth Slenczynski, 8-year-old pianist, making N. Y. debut.

* * *

Modern courtship is a whole lot like running for governor of Texas. It costs too much to get yourself elected.

* * *

TEXANS are going to be treated to a demonstration of whether or not a candidate for governor can 'come back' when, next summer, two men who have in the past done well at the gubernatorial polls try it again.

They are Senator Clint Small, of Amarillo, and Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls, both widely known here.

* * *

Back in '28 Clint Small, then a native of Wellington, came very close to going into the runoff with Mrs. Ferguson and, if he had, he would have been elected.

Had he chosen a powerful East Texan for his campaign manager instead of picking a man from his own section, Small might have made the grade.

As it was, he scared both Sterling and Ferguson camps 'stiff'.

* * *

A YEAR ago last summer Tom Hunter —scarcely known outside of Wichita Falls—offered for governor and ran a strong third. People were sick and tired of the Fergusons and of the Sterling ring and flocked to the Hunter banner with a protest vote.

Apparently Mr. Hunter believes the protesters are still willing to protest in bigger and better numbers and will 'try, try again' next summer.

* * *

While he has nothing against either Mr. Hunter or Senator Small and believes either capable of giving the state a better administration than it has become accustomed to, The Plainsman never-the-less doubts that either is as strong, politically, as they were when they made their original stabs at the mansion in Austin.

Prize fighters and ball players come back sometimes and so do politicians—but the comeback trail is a rocky road, indeed.

What do you think?

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says even a woman of fifty can keep the bloom of youth easy enough; the hard part comes in not getting it higher on one cheek than it is on the other.

* * *

One of the local bargain hunters suffered a lapse of memory in police court the other day when he was hailed on a charge of running a stop sign.

"That", remarked the desk sergeant, "will cost you four dollars".

"Thank you just the same", came the reply, "but that's a just a little higher than I want to pay!"

* * *

NEAR Hugo, Oklahoma, Saturday a young farmer could no longer bear to see his four children suffer for something to eat so he procured a pistol, murdered his wife and then sent a bullet crashing into his own brain.

As a result he will no longer have to watch his children suffer but went to his grave not knowing but that his act would bring all the more suffering to them.

* * *

What will happen to those four children?

No one knows although, of course, it is to be hoped that they will be well taken care of and that their little stomachs never again will know real want for food.

But the chances are that another type of suffering will follow them for many a day and many a year because of their father's rash act.

As they plod through life they will bear the stigma in which they had no part.

They will be pointed out as "kids of that fellow who killed his wife and then committed suicide".

* * *

THERE is much suffering in this world. There always has been and probably there always will be.

What the young farmer failed to recognize was that there is much, much worse suffering than that brought about by occasional hunger.

* * *

O. O. McIntyre, the columnist, says Huey Long is 'washed up' politically and that even those who have stayed with the Louisiana political boss up to recent weeks are 'off him' now.

Those who would guard the nation's honor and would protect the reputation of the Senate will hope that Writer McIntyre is correct in his opinion.

No nation can very long prosper if it does not select for its rulers men who, like Caesar's wife, are "above suspicion".

* * *

WE shall soon see if an old dog may master new tricks. With repeal of prohibition becoming an actual, legal fact tomorrow the country before long will discover if the liquor interests have learned anything from the lesson taught them between today and 14 years ago when distillers failed to keep their houses in order.

Repeal of the 18th Amendment is just as much of an experiment as was the institution of prohibition by federal statute.

If distillers are of the opinion that they can pick up where they left off they'll soon learn differently.

Next time they may be confronted with a prohibition that will really prohibit, backed by an aroused public opinion which they have not yet faced.

Consumers' Board May Not Win Many Arguments But It Is Proud That It's At Least A Nuisance To Administrators

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Fighting profiteering in the face of an official policy of priceraising is a tough job.

The hamstrung staff of the NRA Consumers' Advisory Board is discouraging. It has wrecked some monopolistic proposals in NRA codes but failed to stop many others.

Some members think the staff should walk out in a body—in protest on behalf of the consumers, similar to that of Dr. Bill Ogburn and his associates weeks ago.

Dutcher

Another plan secretly discussed would defy the official censorship imposed on the CAB by permitting nationally known figures to affiliate themselves and then express their sentiments with loud roars.

A mingled consolation and discouragement is the antagonistic attitude of most NRA administrators toward the CAB. The staff at least knows it has a nuisance value, even though its demands are unheeded.

Chairman Mary Rumsey and Prof. Paul Douglas are working on a plan to establish consumers' councils over the county to protect consumer interests locally. Mrs. Roosevelt was sounded and approved the general idea.

But inherent difficulties remain. One bad feature of the secret plans involves a tieup with leading Democrats in the separate communities.

* * *

Better Luck For AAA

Dr. Fred Howe's Consumers' Counsel staff of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration is having better luck, thanks to sympathy from Secretary Wallace and Assistant Secretary Tugwell. Manufacturers dominate NRA, but not AAA.

Howe's office has the support of other factions in a joint effort to aid farmers and protect consumers while restraining middlemen. Countrywide demand for copies of its consumers' guide have exceeded the Department of Agriculture's capacity to produce them.

* * *

Hates Dictatorships

Friends of Amabassador Sumner Welles say his dislike for the Grau government in Cuba isn't due to failure of his hand-picked De Cespedes setup to stay on top.

Welles, they insist, has an inherent hatred of dictatorships and doesn't believe this government should support the present one in Havana after its disapproval of the Machado dictatorship.

Practical politics, however, will lead us to support the Grau regime if it lasts.

An Old Settler

Clerks checking the 125,000 job applications filed with the Tennessee alley Authority get an occasional laugh. For instance, an answer to the question, "Length of residence?" was, "Twenty-nine feet, 11 inches."

"Hush" Expert Found

Quiet snooping reveals Stephen M. DeBrul as responsible for NRA's failure to require full, frank statistics from codified industries. Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and government statisticians have been waging undercover battle on this issue.

DeBrul, former sales manager for General Motors, replaced Dr. Alexander Cachs, a real economist, as chief of NRA's division of planning and research.

Sachs and the Central Statistical Board had agreed on a full searching questionnaire form for industries to collect economic data.

But DeBrul came in and it was ruled out. He objected to "meddling in business."

Three-Minute Relief From Your Headache

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B. C.," 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B. C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. With Whir BARRY Under The Capitol Dome

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. (AP)—The old, meaningless state campaign slogan has been dusted off again.

George B. Terrell of Alto, one of Texas' three congressmen-at-large, would like to be governor. He issued a statement while here in which he said some existing bureaus and commissions could be consolidated" and there should be "more efficiency and economy" in state government. How many times have Texans heard that proposal the past decade?

"Always The Same"

Everyone who has run for governor in ten years has advocated "elimination, consolidation, efficiency, and economy." Thoughtful citizens have no doubt, speculated whether any progress ever has been made in that direction.

It seems as though every legislature adds a few more bureaus and commissions. The recent one set up a racing commission, a boxing commission, a pink boll worm commission, a farm sustenance commission, and others.

Terrell, who was commissioner of agriculture for several terms, has a name that the voters like. The Terrells have been successful politically in this state for a long, long time.

Still Undecided

Terrell said he was undecided whether he would run for governor or for congress in the new district where he lives.

"I would like to be governor, and would probably be a candidate if I were financially able to make the race," he said.

He said he had been solicited to make the race for a number of years but never had been financially able to do so.

"It is unfortunate for the state that a man cannot make a successful race for governor without spending a large amount of money, which is frequently furnished by some special interest," stated Terrell.

"I would like to see Texas return to a single economical government and be able to pay her honest debts when due.

"I believe with the knowledge I have of Texas conditions and the experience I have had in administering one of the executive departments, that I could materially aid in rehabilitating our state government and reducing the expenses to where the people could pay taxes."

Trolley Motormen Now Operate Buses

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 4 (AP)—San Antonio's network of street railways has been buried, and members of the street car men's union, while still employed, aren't running street cars.

Under terms of a contract between the city and the San Antonio Public Service company, the latter substituted buses for trolleys and covered the tracks with asphalt paving. The former motormen, still in the union, now are chauffeurs of the new buses.

Hits High Notes

Miss Virginia Le Rae, 25, Seattle, Wash., colorstura, practices her peak notes. In her debut in "Lucia" with the Chicago Opera company in New York she reached "G sharp" above "high C," a note never heard before by present New York critics. (Associated Press Photo.)

It's going to be just too bad when you come into this court for moonshining after repeal.—Federal Judge C. B. Faris.

I alone decide the policy of Germany, and when I give my word I have a habit of keeping it.—Chancellor Hitler.

"Complexion Curse"

She thought she was just unlucky when he called on her once—avoided her thereafter. But no one admires pimply, blemished skin. More and more women are realizing that pimples and blotches are often danger signals of clogged bowels—poisonous wastes ravaging the system. Let NR (Nature's Remedy) afford complete, thorough elimination and promptly ease away beauty-ruining poisonous matter. Fine for sick headache, bilious conditions, dizziness. Try this safe, dependable, all-vegetable corrective. At all druggists'—only 25c. NR TO-NIGHT

SPORTS

Grid Season Is Brought To End

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

The fellow, or set of fellows, who conceived the idea of this balloon baseball, or softball or playground ball or indoor ball or armory ball, surely doesn't, or don't, know his own, or their own, strength as a papa, or papas, of popular pastime, or bringer-upper of ideas.

* * *

First, it was outdoor soft ball, and a league was organized last summer with eight clubs. Then another league was organized, with ten clubs. They battled through a two-months season, and played a "little world series" for the softball championship of the city. That was with a 12-inch weapon.

* * *

THE CHILD GROWS

Then the wintry winds began to howl and the boys moved inside, settling down to a siege of indoor baseball with a 14-inch sphere. Eight clubs, the pick of the outdoor association, comprised the league. But base hits and home runs got too frequent for health and interest, and the 16-inch pellet was inaugurated. The season was brought to a close last week, after a "Shaughnessy system" play-off series, the scourge of the Texas League but a crowd-getter in the indoor game.

* * *

And now. Just look what you started, you bird, or birds, referred to in the opening paragiraffe! The women have taken up the game. They've chased the males off the painted diamond, and now will cavort and carom all over Sled Allen's Auditorium. It starts tonight, the latest quirk, with two five-inning games scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock. You may see the goings on for a dime, ladeez and gents, only a dime. Step right up!

* * *

HE EARNED IT

The grid season is over again, as you may have noted by the clean store windows and sidewalks. The athletic boys have cast aside their 1933 model garments of the gridiron, and Coach Pete Cawthon has cast aside his 1906 model in favor of a new automobile. Dutchy Smith and Dell Morgan are sporting new time pieces. ("Maybe," suggests a freshman, "they can tell when it's supper time next fall.") And everybody is happy. Over at the high school, Teachers Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman settle back with a grin behind shining professorial desks, their efforts at class room dignity precluded by a forced whisper and a natural mischievious smirk respectively. They've been through a tough and successful football season, too, and now a short rest for their pains.

* * *

When Timekeeper Mike Ahearn's gun sounded the close of the Texas Tech-Kansas State game last Thursday, it sounded the end of the present coaching regime's fourth season at the Matador institution. The story of Pete Cawthon's four-year period here is like an Horatio Alger yarn, but it fills the bill and the requirements Lubbock and Texas Tech asked of him, and them. Pete came when athletics at Texas Tech were at a pretty low ebb. Your correspondent is in no position to say why, because Pete's and his entry were timed together, and Matador news didn't drift far out of town prior to that time. Anyway, Cawthon and his crew of Smith, Morgan and Golightly went to work with the poor material they had, and won three games in 1930. The Matadors had won one in 1929, that over the Wayland university Jackrabbits.

* * *

Next season, the Bullfighters won six games, the most they had copped since 1925, the first year of athletics at Texas Tech. They lost three in 1931, reversing the order of the previous season. Came 1932 and Tech's entry into semi-big time football. The first game of the season went to Texas A. & M., and the last game of the year went to Simmons, in the greatest upset of Tech's history. Between the first and the last, however, the Matadors won ten games, which wasn't so bad. Now, 1933, they lose but one, playing the hardest schedule of their history, knocking over at least seven teams they wouldn't dared have played back in the lean years.

* * *

So we suggest that Coach Peter Willis earned that motor vehicle presented him by grateful citizens last Thanksgiving. And we further suggest, or emphatically contend, that Dutchy and Dell earned those clocks, too—every grain of gold in them. But it was not only for the 1933 season of 1933 that the Tech mentors were presented with gifts. Local citizens are grateful to them for a number of things, including the progress in things other than football team. They've brightened up the young campus marvelously, and they've staged three coaching schools that have netted the college and the town and West Texas more publicity and advertising than all the football teams and all the sign boards between here and Shanghai.

APPRECIATE EFFORT

They didn't give us champions, but you must go all the way around the table before you criticize Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman for it. Based on comparison of manpower, the Westerners of 1933 stand out as just about the classiest little team ever put out at Lubbock High. There's hardly a man on the squad who will make the all-district 1 team, but you can't blame the mentors for that. It wasn't a Lubbock year, that's all. But here's something that may be comforting: "I may get fired, or I may find a better job, but I'd sure like to have a hand in coaching the Lubbock team next fall. It's going to be a dilly, and no foolin'. It'll be worth the time and trouble just to see this Morris White play football." That was Coach Chapman's confidential testimony.

FANS REVIEW ONE OF MOST SPECTACULAR RACES ON RECORD

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Football uniforms were packed away among the mothballs today as followers of the great fall sport settled down to review perhaps the most spectacular campaign on record.

Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has there been a season marked by so many upsets climaxed Saturday by the unexpected defeat of both Army and Duke.

Only Princeton Unbeaten

When Saturday's results had been written the Princeton Tigers, alone among major elevens, could boast an undefeated and untied season, and, on that basis, at least, could claim consideration for the mythical national championship Southern California had held for two years.

As a matter of fact, it appears likely that any attempt to award the title to any one team, whether it be Princeton, Michigan, Minnesota, Stanford or any other outstanding eleven, would meet with strenuous protests from other sources. Southern California reigned unchallenged in 1931 and 1932 but the Trojans' defeat by Stanford several weeks ago not only relieved them of the crown but left the fight so wide open that it may take another full season to fill the vacancy to everyone's satisfaction.

Only Three Repeat

A study of the campaign reveals that only three sectional champions were able to retain outright their laurels of 1932. Michigan, although tied and outplayed by Minnesota, again captured the Big Ten championship; Nebraska, for the third successive year, was crowned Big Six titleholder, and Oklahoma A. and M. repeated in the Missouri Valley conference.

Stanford and Oregon shared the Pacific Coast throne occupied last year by Southern California while Utah, after winning the Rocky Mountain title outright for five years in a row, was forced this season to share it with Denver and the Colorado Aggies.

The split-up of the old Southern conference left two champions standing where only one stood before, Alabama in the Southeastern loop and Duke in the Southern.

Title In Dispute

The Southwest conference situation still is hanging in the air, awaiting a conference decision as to whether Arkansas, the actual winner, should forfeit all games in which the Razorbacks used an ineligible tackle.

Perhaps the greatest surprises of the year were furnished by Princeton and Notre Dame. The Tigers, kicked around badly in the 1929-30-31 seasons, had shown some improvement last year, their first under the coaching of H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, but few had expected such power and speed as they showed in running, through nine successive games this season, climaxed by Saturday's 27-2 route of Yale.

Notre Dame gave football two terrific jolts. The first came when the Ramblers scored only 19 points in their first eight games of which they lost five, won two and tied one. The second came on Saturday when they staged a rousing fourth-period rally at the Yankee stadium here to nose out Army's previously unbeaten eleven, 13-12.

Three major games will be played this Saturday, Tennessee playing Louisiana State at Baton Rouge; Southern Methodist battling St. Mary's at San Francisco, and Washington clashing with Southern California at Los Angeles.

PLAYOFF FOR TITLE

PARIS, Tex, Dec. 4 (AP)—The Paris Junior college football team will invade Texarkana Thursday night to play the Texarkana college Bulldogs in the first game of the playoff for district one, Texas Junior College Athletic association grid championship. Paris, Texarkana and Marshall teams finished in a tie for the district title when Paris defeated Marshall Friday night at Longview. Marshall drew a bye in the flip for opponents. Texarkana defeated Paris 15 to 0 here November 10.

RED HEINZ TO MEET KANTHE WEDNESDAY

JACK VAN BEBBER TO FACE ANDY TREMAINE IN PRELIMINARY

In his regular Wednesday night wrestling show this week, Promoter Sled Allen brings together again Professor Dick Kanthe, the Detroit strong man, and popular Tommy "Sunshine" Heinz, former San Diego flash, in the main event and pits two local favorites in a 30-minute semi-windup.

Kanthe and Heinz lashed the mat in a three-fall go two weeks ago, Heinz winning the last two falls and the decision over an enraged wrestler who carried the fight over the scheduled time with an attempt at fisticuffs and a battle with the referee. He is back to fight Heinz again at his own and by popular demand, anxious for revenge and the honor that goes with beating Heinz for the first time in the local ring.

Jack Van Bebber, national A. A. U. and Olympic champion, and Texas Tech coach, will meet Andy Tremaine, the extremely popular lad from Tucson, in the semi-final.

A 15-minute preliminary, principals of which have not been announced, will open the card.

CASPER LEADS IN SCORING

T. C. U. HALFBACK HAS SOUTHWEST LEAD WITH 66 POINTS

Charles Casper, Texas Christian halfback, continues to lead the Southwest conference scoring race with eleven touchdowns for a total of 66 points. However, Casper is not yet the champion scorer because the Southern Methodist Mustangs have a game scheduled against St. Mary's Saturday at San Francisco. Robert Wilson, Southern Methodist halfback, has a chance to beat out Casper—but a slim one. Casper scored two touchdowns Saturday against Southern Methodist to take a wide lead over other rivals.

Sweetwater Player Declared Eligible

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Eligibility of John Holbert, captain of the Sweetwater Mustangs, was upheld by the executive committee of district 3 of the interscholastic league, meeting at Colorado. The action cleared the championship of San Angelo's Bobcats, won here Thursday by defeating Sweetwater 12-0. Big Spring cast the only negative vote.

San Angelo meets Bowie High of El Paso, District 4 titlist, at El Paso, Dec. 9.

A few hours before it defeated Sweetwater here Thursday San Angelo protested Holbert's eligibility on the grounds the player was eight years old when he entered school at Manning, W. Va., in Sept., 1921. Sweetwater produced the family bible giving Holbert's birth as Oct. 28, 1913. The age limit is 20.

DUNDEE FACES CALLAHAN

NEWARK 160-POUNDER TO DEFEND TITLE FRIDAY NIGHT

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Vince Dundee, who won his world's middleweight title at Boston, has elected to make his first defense of it at the same spot.

The Newark, N. J., 160-pounder, recent conqueror of Lou Brouillard at the hub, will defend his championship against ndy Callahan of Lawrence, Mass., in the Boston garden Friday night. Dundee will be favored but Boston has been a "jinx" town for champions for several years.

Other Bouts Carded

Meanwhile one of Dundee's most dangerous rivals, Teddy Yarosz of Pittsburgh will meet Paul Pirrone of Cleveland in a preliminary of an all-star show at Cleveland tonight. The windup will bring together Tony Canzoneri, former lightweight king, and Cecil Payne of Louisville. Kid Chocolate, whom Canzoneri knocked out in two rounds ten days ago, will face Frankie Wallace of Cleveland, in another match on the same card. The featherweight championship Chocolate holds in the eyes of the New York State Athletic commission will not be at stake. All three bouts are at 10 rounds.

Freddie Miller, of Cincinnati, National Boxing association featherweight king, will encounter Paul Dazzo of Chicago in a non-title ten rounder at Chicago Wednesday night while Maxey Rosenbloom, light heavyweight king, engages Wilson Dunn of Oklahoma City in an overweight affair at Fort Worth tonight.

Students Save In School Commissary

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 4 (AP)—A co-operative housing scheme that saves money for students and helps absorb farm produce surpluses is in operation at the University of Indiana.

The project calls for the members to bring to the university during the school year 100 quarts of foodstuffs—canned vegetables, canned fruits, potatoes and other produce—to establish a common commissary.

In this way the costs of living are reduced so that room and board cost the members only $15 cash each month.

To defeat the Alhambra, Cal., horseshoe team, the Culver City Varsity team was forced to set a new mark of ringers per man per stake, averaging 66.1 ringers per team member.

Gridder's Reward

After Joe Laws, University of Iowa quarterback, made two douchdowns against Purdue, Mayor Harry Breene of Iowa City said, "You can have any job except mine." So they made Joe an honorary fire chief. (Associated Press Photo).

Charley Casper, Texas Christian—Counted two touchdowns against Southern Methodist.

WOMEN INVADE INDOOR GAME

DOUBLE HEADER WILL BE PLAYED TONIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

Indoor baseball a la femme will be inaugurated tonight at the Auditorium when the four teams of the newly formed league play a double header.

The first game is scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock, and will find the Myrick Building club playing the Southwestern Bell Telephone company team. In the second game, the Five Cent Magazine store team plays the All-Star team.

Each game will be for five innings, and the contests will be conducted similar to the manner in which indoor baseball for men has been conducted through the past two months.

Mildred Burge is captain of the Myrick Building club, Mildred Hatmaker heads the Southwestern Bell Telephone company team, Jean Pullem leads the Magazine shop team and Paulene Parker captains the All-Star team.

Committee Will Decide On Title

FROGS AND BEARS TO TIE FOR FLAG IF HOGS RULED OUT

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southwest conference fathers, with President D. A. Penick presiding, will convene Saturday at Dallas to clear away the mystery surrounding the conference "blind bogey" football championship. The eventual verdict will either give the University of Arkansas Razorbacks the championship or forfeit the Razorbacks title and give it to Texas Christian and Baylor.

The championship race closed Saturday with Arkansas topping the percentage column with four wins and one defeat. Texas Christian and Baylor finished in a tie for second place with four victories and two defeats each. Arkansas' status is in the doubtful column because of "Heinie" Schlueter, an ineligible substitute tackle, who played against Texas Christian, Baylor and Rice. Schlueter has been dropped from the University of Arkansas rolls, but Arkansas officials have refused to forfeit their victories over Texas Christian and Baylor.

Only Owls Beat Hogs

During the conference campaign, the Rice institute Owls were the only aggregation to whip Arkansas. The Owls turned the trick, 7 to 6. It was Rice's only conference win. Arkansas lost two non-conference games, a 20 to 0 decision to Louisiana State, and a 7 to 0 verdict to Tulsa university.

Should the conference athletic committee allow the Razorbacks to retain the title they won on the field, it will be the first time in conference history for the champion to leave Texas.

One non-conference game remains on the schedule. The Southern Methodist Mustangs leave Tuesday morning for San Francisco where Saturday they battle St. Mary's.

Closing their schedule Saturday, Texas Christian made sure of a tie for second place and a "committee decision" at the title by unleashing an attack that smothered Southern Methodist, 26 to 6. Charles Casper, picked at left halfback on the Associated Press' all-conference team, scored two touchdowns for the Christians in the third period to give them a lead the Mustangs had little chance of overtaking.

Bears Nose Out Rice

The Baylor Bears were forced to stage a last period rush to Rice's goal line to nose out in front, 7 to 6. The Owls got a tough break to lose the game. After scoring a touchdown, the Owls lined up for the placement kick. Sylvester booted the ball squarely between the goal posts but a Rice player was offside and Sylvester failed to kick on his second try. Baylor scored a touchdown when Hall carried the ball over late in the final period. Stringer made the placement kick that won the game.

On a straight season campaign, Texas Christian finished in front with nine wins, two defeats and one tie. The Christians played one more game than any other conference member. Offensively they scored more points than any other conference team, clicking for 208 points.

Eight members of the University of Michigan's starting eleven will be graduated next spring.

Lucille Robinson of Des Moines, Ia., women's western golf champion, is majoring in journalism and physical education at Drake university.

An Enterprising Young Merchant--

NEWSPAPERS are an important factor in the progress of the world, supplying all of the news from at home and abroad to every interested person at a negligible cost. The service which they render has come to be taken more or less for granted, but there is one factor that is deserving of your attention and consideration.

The carrier boy who delivers your newspaper daily, regardless of weather or other interfering forces, is the principal link between the publisher and the reader. It is through his enterprise and industry that you are able to enjoy the convenient service that characterizes newspaper delivery.

This young man in most cases is not a newspaper employee. He is an independent young merchant, buying and paying for his papers by the week and selling them on a weekly credit basis to his customers. His profits for the service that he renders are small, yet many of these boys, by thrifty management, are paying their way through school with their earnings and at the same time putting something away for the future.

Encourage your carrier boy in the thrifty habit which he is forming by paying him regularly for the service that he is rendering you.

BEEVES VIE IN TOURNAMENT

STEERS COMPETE FOR GRAND CHAMPION AT CHICAGO SHOW

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—The International Livestock exposition's annual tournament of beeves from which the year's grand champion steer will emerge gets under way today.

The beefsteak competition, in which prize meat animals of American herds parade before Judge Walter Biggar, continues two days. Swine and sheep judging started simultaneously, and first awards for percheron and shire draft horses were to be made today.

To Select Champion

At the end of the beef judging Biggar, a famous cattle breeder from Dalbeattie, Scotland, will name the hero of the exposition—the grand champion steer. One contender will be "McHenry Blackcap Hope," which won the junior feeding contest for James Padgett, 18, of Kellerville, Ill.

The rye and barley champions of the hay and grain show are Canadians. M. S. Middleton, of Vernon, British Columbia, won with his rye, and Nels Linden, of Wetaskiwin, Alberta, showed the best barley.

From North Dakota came the show's winning sweet clover, the exhibitor being E. J. Madson, of Angusville.

Nebraska Team Wins

Walter Kinch, a member of the University of Nebraska crop judging team, led his team to victory over Oklahoma A. and M. and North Carolina, which placed second and third in that event.

Harry Hege, of West Point, Ind., became the national 4-H club meat animal champion, winning one of four principal honors in the twelfth annual club congress held in connection with the exposition. Hege, 17, produced 423 superior animals during the past seven years. He won a $300 scholarship to Purdue university and a trip to the International.

Ohio State university's judging team won the intercollegiate livestock judging contest, annexing their second of the three victories necessary to secure permanent possession of the Spoor trophy.

Secret Service Is Directed By Woman

HARBIN, Manchuria, Dec. 4 (AP) A pretty Russian woman has been put in charge of the soviet secret service at Urga, capital of the sovietized region of Outer Mongolia, say travelers from that district.

The Mongols report that she frequently takes personal charge of carrying out sentences, even the death penalty, of culprits found guilty of plotting against the regime.

The reports state that she has organized an effective corps of men investigators and that she is relentless in pursuit of subversive elements.

COW TOWNS ALIVE AGAIN AS BEEF ON HOOF MOVES TOWARD MARKETS; LONG LINES OF CATTLE HEAD FOR RAIL CENTERS

It's "shipping time" for the west, so cowboys again drive huge herds in a long, dusty, thunderous—and colorful—pilgrimage to the nearest railroad centers in order that America will have its beef.

BELLE FOURCHE, S. D., Dec. 4 (AP)—In this colorful, pioneer western city—for years the world's greatest initial shipping point of livestock—there moves again the epic spirit of cattle.

It is shipping time for the west.

Slowly, at first scarcely perceptible, a thin spiral streak of leaden dust curls skyward from the horizon. It comes from miles to the west.

Gradually this winding streak becomes a fanlike cloud completely obscuring everything in its wake Blacker and blacker it becomes until suddenly the air is vibrant with the thudding roar of a thousand hoofs.

Racing Cowboys

From the right flank a cowboy shoots directly into view, so small in the distance as to seem almost in miniature. And another. Gradually as the dim, thick mass moves forward the din of clashing horns and thunderous hoofs increases, and the dust becomes heavier.

There come more throaty cries and again lithe riders, bronzed figures on swift ponies, shoot out in all directions. Following all these moves the "chuck wagon," breadbox of the outfit on the long drive to the railroads.

It is the cattlemen's annual pilgrimage to the closest shipping centers, that America's appetite for beef may be appeased. For weeks on end these western "caowtowns" live this scene. At least 2,000,000 head will reach American markets in the next few weeks.

The Range Passes

It is a cattleman story of the heyday of the old west's greatest industry. For "shippin'" today is but a grim reminder to the old cowman of those yesterdays when

"'Twas good to live when all the sod,
Without no fence or fuss,
Belonged in pardnership to God,
The gover'ment and us."
"Fenced in. . . ."

That, in the homely words of the few old time cattlemen left today, no longer active in the fall shippin', is the fate of the industry that was.

Crowded from the freedom of the open prairies through the influx of the smaller rancher, strangled in the clutches of a resistless immigration, yesterday's cattlemen are fast fading from the scene.

Settlers Crowd In

Briefly the transition has been this:

Illimitable free grazing lands, black with myriad herds of Texas longhorns. Days of heat and dust and rain; nights of lonely vigil under cold stars—but in the end, profits and a growing institution reaching out with its interests to the financial centers of two continents.

Then the homesteader filed in—typical of those who today seek a return to the land. Towns and cities sprang up on the sites of the old familiar chuck wagon. Steel rails crept through the valleys and bridged the water holes. Gradually the saddle was foresaken for the swivel chair.

The Old Horses Live

The old cattlemen tell of the feats of "tophands"—of Billy Clanton, who single-handed roped, in four and a half days, 4,200 head of Texas steers; of Dick Turbiville and Laramie Bill, who could keep four couples of wrestlers busy in calfropin' season.

"The oldtime cowboy has been misrepresented and maligned," says Dr. D. R. Evans, pioneer son of the range. "He is generally, and particularly in western thrillers, portrayed as illiterate, irreligious, libertine. On the contrary he was anything but that; he was 90 per cent hard working and reliable.

Among those associated with early range life were Senator Kendrick of Wyoming, Will James and Theodore Roosevelt.

Change Hits Cow Towns

Belle Fourche today like Cheyenne, Wyo., Miles City, Mont., and a few other once famous cow towns, falls into the canter of the fall shipping season.

Many carloads leave here daily. But times have changed. No longer do cowboys "snub" their ponies to the long hitching rail. No longer do they make profits on $8 steers.

Woman Farmer Too Busy For Relief

MANTECA, Cal., Dec. 4 (AP)—Farm relief problems do not interest Mrs. Sarah Sullivan, and the reason, she says, is that she is too busy.

Left a widow nine years ago, Mrs. Sulivan took over management of a 42-acre ranch besides caring for two small children. She plows, harrows and does other farm work and twice a week makes the rounds of 98 grocery stores in the San Francisco bay area to which she sells her melons and produce.

BUYS STATION

Dangerous Talk

CHICAGO.—There's nothing very dangerous about a little gossip over the phone but it almost killed Mrs. Margaret Rommell.

Mrs. Rommell was cooking dinner when the telephone rang. She ran to answer it and had a long conversation with a friend—almost too long.

In her haste to reach the phone, she left a gas burner open. Neighbors found her and revived her.

Congratulations

UNIONTOWN, Pa.—William Byers, 65, and his bride didn't mind the "serenade" because they knew that a noisy greeting from the boys of the community was an inevitable concommitant of marriage.

They withstood the tin-pan band, the tossing of junk into the front yard and the general noise making that goes with a "serenade" for a newly-wed couple.

But the live skunk the "serenaders" tossed into the house—well, that was a different matter, and seven youths must face disorderly conduct charges.

Ominous Copper

WHEELING, W. Va.—Over at Bridgeport, on the other side of the Ohio river, motorists are getting wary. Highway Policeman Arthur Kasson is a graduate of Ohio State University's school of embalming.

What To Do?

PORTLAND, Ore.—When a man's birthday falls on two consecutive days, should the birthday cake be served on the first or second day?

Chief Steward Jim Sager of the liner General Sherman was wrestling with the question because the birthday of Dr. Lewis S. Thorpe, of Covina, Calif., falls on Dec. 9. On that day, the ship will cross the international dateline, and the day following also will be Dec. 9.

Fast Stepping

COLUMBBIA, S. C.—R. C. Smith, who drives Fire Chief A. M. Marsh to blazes, believes in keeping up his powers of speed. He drove Marsh to a grass fire here, saw a rabbit run from the flames and ran after it. Two blocks later the rabbit weakened and Smith, gaining, picked it up and put it in his pocket.

BRONCHIAL INFECTIONS NEED CREOSOTE

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creomulsion with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops all coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creomulsion is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creomulsion by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creomulsion as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creomulsion on hand for instant use. (adv.)

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE THE CHAMPION TRAP SHOOTER

SHOOTING FROM SCRATCH, 25 yards behind the traps, Walter Beaver pulled out of an exciting tie to win the 34th Grand American—the first time it has been won by a limit contestant! He has been a steady smoker of Camels for years, and says: "I like their taste and mildness...they never jangle my nerves."

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES? If you smoke a lot...inside...outdoors...wherever you are...join the swing to Camels. You'll like those costlier tobaccos in Camels. You'll find them milder, better tasting, and they never get on your nerves.

A MATCHLESS BLEND

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

WALTER BEAVER, holder of the coveted Grand American Handicap, says:

"Winning a trap-shooting championship is partly a matter of luck, partly the result of practice and partly healthy nerves. I'm a steady smoker. People kid me about it at the tournaments. They say I never have a cigarette out of my mouth. During all these years I've been smoking Camels, not only because I like their taste and their mildness, but also because they never jangle my nerves."

It's no fun to feel that your nerves are ragged—and to wonder why. Check up on your eating...your sleep ...your cigarettes. Get a fresh slant on your smoking. Switch to Camels. Your nerves and your taste will tell you that Camels are a more likable cigarette—and that they don't upset your nerves.
