Henry Frnka Not To Return Here

ANNOUNCEMENT GIVEN TODAY BY LUBBOCK HIGH COACH

Henry E. Frnka, head coach of the Lubbock High school Westerners, will not be here next year. Furthermore, his successor here has not been chosen.

The grid mentor, whose teams have been near top-notchers throughout the past half-decade, made the anonuncement this morning. It came after a series of conferences with the Athletic committee of the Lubbock Public school board had been held following Frnka's first announcement, made last Wednesday, that he was dissatisfied with the new contract offered him.

Goes To Greenville

Frnka said tal morning that he would take the position offered him by Greenville High school and would begin his labors as head coach of the 1930 champions of Class A, District eight, next fall. He will not leave Lubbock until after the close of the current school term.

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of schools, said that he was sorry to see the coach leave and Frnka, in turn, said that he regretted leaving Lubbock, but that he believed he was bettering himself by accepting the Grenville post.

"I have no idea who we will appoint, in Mr. Frnka's place", Mr. Duncan said. "We are going over the field of applicants, which will likely be large, and will appoint the man whom we think most desireable".

One of the leading candidates for the place, however, is W. B. (Weldon) Chapman, for the past nine years head coach of the feared Big Dam Loboes of Cisco High school. His record there has been good in one of the most hotly fought districts in the state interscholastic league. He, like Frnka and all but one of the college and high school coaches of Lubbock, is a graduate of Austin college and a former Kangaroo grid star.

Coach P. W. Cawthon, of Texas Tech, who coached Chapman at Austin college, is well impressed with his former player's coaching

SUICIDE REASON

That Hutton Bellah, former Altus, Okla., newspaper publisher, who committed suicide, deserted his wife and family a year ago and went to Yuma, Ariz., to assume a new identity because of financial troubles is the contention of Dr. C. A. Wright, Los Angeles, physician, whose wife is the sister of the first Mrs. Bellah. Bellah, shown below, was known at Yuma as William A. Lee.

HOOVER LAUDS RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

RECENT DROUTH WORK CONTROVERSY CITED BY PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13—In a speech recalling the recent drouth relief controversy, President Hoover today congratulated the Red Cross for its work in that disaster and for its dependence upon voluntary assistance exclusive of federal charity.

Mr. Hoover, who is president of the relief organization, declared it had again been put to a severe test "not only as to practical ability to meet national disasters but a test involving its whole moral and spiritual purpose."

Demonstration Cited

"You have, under most difficult handicaps," he said, "again demonstrated that it can meet and relieve human suffering in any national disaster."

James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations, said almost 800,000 families had received help from the Red Cross during the drouth and that more than two-thirds of thees have been restored to independence through farm loans or intermediate credit facilities.

PRICE CONTROL IS FAVORED

BORAH FOR FIXING OF OIL AND GAS PRICES BY GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13.—If anybody is going to control oil and gasoline prices, Senator Borah wants the government to do it.

In a statement yesterday he indicated he would approve legislation to make the petroleum industry subject to government regulations similar to those now applied to public utilities. He did not say what steps he contemplated in that direction, but asserted:

"We certainly will not consent to production being controlled without controlling the price the public must pay."

The Idaho Republican took this position toward administration moves seeking limitation of production and imports as a means of relieving the oil industry's depression. He challenged a plan discussed last week by the oil states advisory committee to restrict domestic production as well as the agreement among big companies to reduce imports.

Cleanup Committee Meets Here Today

Lubbock cleanup and paintup committee, which last spring directed a program which resulted in Lubbock's winning the Texas trophy for first ranking city in the state, was to meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at chamber of commerce offices.

The committee, of which W. B. Atkins is chairman, was to plan the 1931 program to get underway within the next several weeks.

Lubbock Boy Scouts will participate in a nail-pick next Saturday in connection with the cleanup program, Executive D. T. Jennings has announced. The scouts collected 5,799 pounds of junk from the streets as a part of last year's cleanup campaign, the executive said.

Crop Outlook For 1931 Favorable

ESTIMATE FOR SEASON IS RELEASED

MOISTURE SUPPLIES OVER STATE ARE ABOUT NORMAL

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 13—A report released today by the bureau of agricultural economics, division of crop and livestock estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture, stated the 1931 crop outlook compared favorably with that of the average year.

It reported that seeding of some crops had been delayed by frequent rains and cold weather during the last week of March and by frost which did some damage to early planted crops and fruits, especially in the northern half of the state.

Moisture Normal

The report said moisture supplies over the state were above normal. Pasture supplies were said to be 30 days earlier than last year.

The condition of Texas wheat April 1 was fixed at 90 per cent of normal compared with 80 per cent last year and 78 per cent for the ten year average. The crop was said to range from good to excellent in the main wheat areas. Moisture supplies were reported to be above normal with temperatures favorable except during the last days of March and early days of April when unseasonable cold weather in the Panhandle probably did some damage.

The probable production was expected to be 44,000,000 bushels as compared with 28,720,000 bushels produced last year.

Texas oats were reported to be 86 per cent of normal compared

REQUEST HUNT BE STOPPED

FAMILY OF KIDNAPED MAN FEARFUL FOR HIS SAFETY

(By The Associated Press)

MONROE, Wis. Apr. 13—Members of the family of Fred J. Blumer, 50, brewer, reported held by kidnapers for $100,000 ransom, today had requested the authorities to stop searching for him. Officers said they believed the request was made because members of the family were fearful for Blumer's safety.

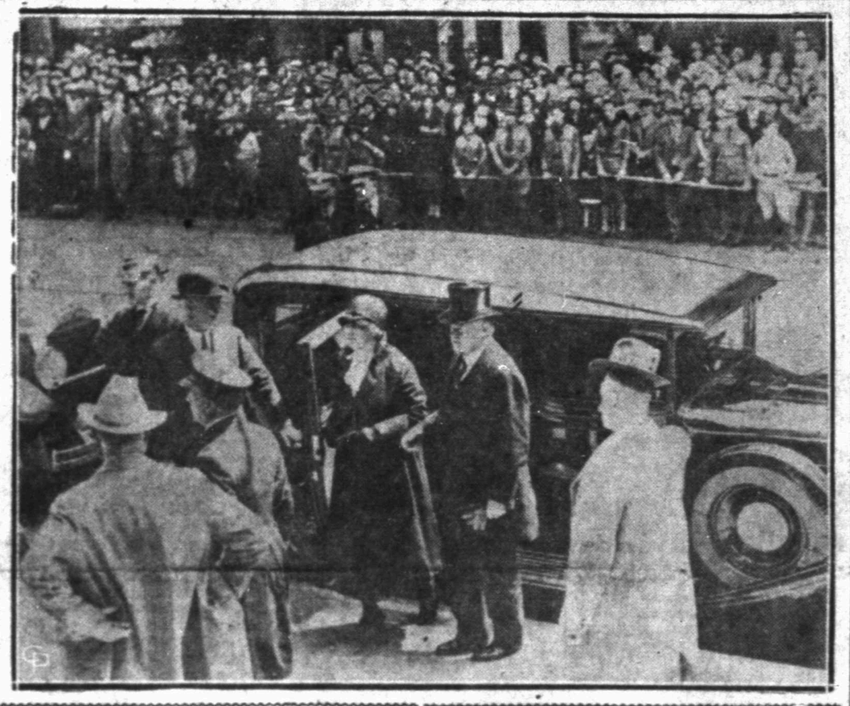

The search, however, continued but the investigators admitted they were without clues. Chicago detectives were working on the theory Blumer was held by remnants of Fred Burke's gang. His aides, the detectives said, may have kidnaped the man in an attempt to raise a defense fund for their chief. Burke is awaiting trial in Michigan for murder.

NAMING OF SPEAKER FACES REPUBLICANS

DIFFICULT TASK IS IN STORE FOR G. O. P. HOUSE MEMBERS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Returned from paying last tribute to their popular and powerful leader, Nicholas Longworth, House Republicans today looked to the difficult task of choosing his successor.

The speakership problem was a main topic of discussion among 40 Republican and Democratic Representatives during their trip from Cincinnati. Already candidates from various sections were appearing as prospective opponents to Democratic Leader Garner.

Tilson, Snell Mentioned

Republican Leader Tilson and Chairman Snell of the rules committee stood forth as among the leading eastern candidates. Members of the funeral party said that while Tilson starts wth a handicap founded on the contacts made as leader and close association with President Hoover, friends of Snell have begun an active and powerful campaign in his behalf.

From the west, the names of Michener and Maples of Michigan, Ramseyer of Iowa, Hoch of Kansas and Purnell of Indiana were prominently mentioned, with Michener and Ramseyer gaining strong consideration. It was considered that Wood of Indiaana would prefer to remain chairman of hte appropriations committee.

ONE LITTLE WORD TURNS BACK WOULD-BE CHURCH CONGREGATION

(By The Associated Press)

ANTIOCH, Ill., April 13.—Two hundred parishioners, led by the Rev. Philip Bohi and his church trustees, walked right up to the door of the Hickory Corners Methodist church yesterday and then walked right back again without trying to hold any services.

One little word, spelled "mumps" was the reason. It was written on a big sign that was nailed across the front door of the church, inside of which Clarence Spierling, his wife and two children watched the proceedings with interest. Near Spierling was his wife who is alleged to have shooed away one of the elders the other day, using the family shotgun.

The Spierlings claimed the trustees lost their right of ownership by failure to hold regular services and moved in with their dog to make themselves at hame more than a month ago when the house they occupied across the street was destroyed by fire.

10 PROSECUTE GRAPE FIRMS

TO SEEK PROOF GOODS SOLD WITH INTENT OF INTOXICATION

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13.—An intention to prosecute grape concentrate concerns whenever it can be proved their goods are "sold with an intent that they be used in the manufacture of a beverage which is "intoxicating in fact" was reiterated today by Prohibition Director Woodcock.

Woodcock included this statement in a letter made public today by the Washington headquarters of the crusaders. Both the federal dry way in Los Angeles, California and were asked a series of questions by the organization but onl ythe former replied in detail.

The crusaders' letter referred particularly to a firm represented in Washington by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant attorney general.

TROOPS ARE TO ENFORCE LAW

EJECT VETERINARIAN IN ATTEMPT TO MAKE TEST

(By The Associated Press)

TIPTON, Iowa, April 13.—The use of state troops, if necessary, to assure enforcement of the state tuberculin test law for cattle was requested of Governor Dan Turner today. The request was made by Sheriff Foster Maxson and followed the ejection from the farm of Dr. Peter Malcolm, state veterinarian, when he attempted to complete a test of the cattle at the E. C. Mitchell farm.

The governor gave no indication of what action he would take but said he would confer with Cedar county objectors to the state tuberculin test law provided they permit state veterinarians to complete tests of cattle at the Mitchell farm by 5 p. m., today.

FIRE UNDER CONTROL

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 13 (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin that destroyed a lumber yard and three dwellings here and two buildings across the Monominee river at Marinette, Wis., with a loss estimated at more than $1,000,000 was brought under control shortly after 9 a. m. today.

RICH CHICAGOANS ARE THREATENED WITH VIOLENCE UNLESS EACH PAYS $50,000; AUTHOR THOUGHT CRANK

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 13—The author of letters sent to wealthy Chicagoans, threatening violence unless each paid $50,000 was sought today by police and postal authorities, although some of the "intended victims" were convinced the missives were written by a nameless crank.

Receipt of the letters, which asked the prospective "victims" to mail checks to East Chicago, Ind., and which warned of machine gun attacks, acid torture and kidnaping, prompted authorities to increase their guards at the homes of those involved. Plain clothes men were also stationed at fashionable churches.

The writer used the aliases of William C. Edison, jr., George M. Madrid and Henry Wolfe. No trace of him could be found.

Among the recipients of the letters was H. Godfrey Haggard, the British consul in Chicago. His name was the only one made public by the authorities, but the Chicago Tribune said others to be threatened included Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Armour, Col. A. A. Sprague, and Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick.

Befriending German Spy Suspect By Harding Revealed By Letters

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 13—Two autograph letters ascribed to President Harding, written at the time he was a member of the senate and mentioning a woman "under the eye of government agents" as a German informer, were placed on exhibition in New York today. They are a part of a collection of historical documents assembled by Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach, noted collector.

The letters are addressed to "My Dear Jim" and are signed merely "W. G. H." They are concerned almost entirely with expressions of anxiety over a woman called "Carrie." There is no internal evidence to identify the woman and since the envelopes are missing the identity of "Jim" also is a mystery. Dr. Rosenbach declined to disclose the name of the person who sold the letters to him and said she had no information other than that which appeared on the surface.

For Girl's Safety

Written on the stationery of the United States senate, the letters emphasize the necessity for Carrie's remaining away from Washington when "feelings grow intenser and prejudices are more pronounced as the casualty list grows."

"She forgets," one letter states, "we are in war—hellish war—and she forgets how Germany treats those who are against the government.

The other letter remarks that "most of the stuff said about Carrie is all rot" and that "I know she is no German informer—couldn't be."

"Yet," the letter goes on, "these things have been reported. I have never doubted her ability to square herself with a reasoning government agent but I haven't wished her to undergo the annoyance of such a visit. The great peril is some unheeding, impassioned, self-appointed sponsors of justice and patriotism, who might humiliate or harm her. It is a pity that there can be such danger, but war is hell and sanity does

AIR ACCIDENTS SUNDAY CAUSE OF DEATHS

TWO ARE KILLED WHEN WING BUCKLES AT HOUSTON PORT

(By The Associated Press)

Airplane accidents caused the deaths of seven pilots or their passengers Sunday.

George Wein, chief pilot for the Curtiss Wright airport at Milwaukee, and his mechanic, Carl Jantz, were killed when a control wire snapped on their plane and sent them crashing 300 feet to the ground.

Crash At Houston

The right wing of the craft piloted by Gertin A. Munson, 30, buckled as a left bank was attempted and Munson and W. H. Portlan, 24, were killed at Houston, Texas.

At Sodus, N. Y., Hugh Shipley, Putneyville farmer, and Homer Potwine, garage employe, riding in a plane piloted by Robert Loope, were killed in a fall from an altitude of 300 feet. Loope was uninjured, but was so nervous following the fall that he could not give a coherent account of the fatal dive.

Walter Frick, 26, secretary of the Gray Eagle Flying service of Marion, Ill., was killed when stunting at the Marion airport. He nose-dived from an altitude of 1,000 feet and when he tried to level at 200 feet, the motor missed fire.

Citizens Asked To Suggest Projects

Invitations to suggest projects to be included in the program of work of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development have been sent to Lubbock citizens by C. E. Maedgen, president of the chambers.

A copy of the March Hub, monthly organ of the chamber containing a report of accomplishments on the last program of work, was sent with each invitation. Suggestions were asked pertinent both to the business or profession in which the recipient was engaged and to the city generally.

Some replies have been received, chamber attaches said.

Broadcast Notice Of Conclave Here

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce has asked two officers of the Texas Retail Merchants association to call attention to the association's annual convention here May 25, 26 and 27, when they speak by radio tonight.

MAN IS HELD IN JAIL AT CROSBYTON

AUTOPSY PERFORMED ON VICTIM'S BODY IN LUBBOCK

(Special To The Journal)

CROSBYTON, April 13—Awaiting completion of an autopsy on the body of Miss Elsie Forman, 19, of near Spur, a man who told officers he was J. N. Edmonson, 30-year-old mechanic, of Spur, is being held in the Crosby county jail here without charge.

The young woman's body was found in a room which she occupied with Edmonson at the Smith house, local hotel. Decision in an inquest was withheld pending outcome of an autopsy.

A physician who examined the body and internal organs at Lubbock, Sunday night, said he found no evidence of immediate cause of death. The stomach was removed and sent to state laboratories at Austin for analysis.

The young woman was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Forman, a farmer and his wife living ten miles west of Spur. Edmonson is a mechanic at a Spur garage.

Edmonson and Miss Forman registered at the hotel at 1 o'clock Sunday morning as Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Edmonson of Stamford.

Edmonson said that when he awoke at 11 o'clock he found the young woman dead, and that he remained in the room with the body until officers arrived there at about 1 p. m. Edmonson told an unidentified person in the hotel of the death and Sheriff Elmer Reed subsequently was summoned to the scene, it was said here.

Sheriff Reed expressed an opinion that Edmonson had dressed the body between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. The body was fully dressed when officers arrived.

The inquest was conducted in the hotel room. The young woman evidently had been dead several hours before 11 a. m., the time at which Edmonson said he awoke.

DEATH CLAIMS MAJOR MILES

UNCLE OF PRESIDENT HOOVER DIES AT AGE OF 87

(By The Associated Press)

PAWHUSKA, OKLA., April 13.—Death has claimed the man who opened his home forty-three years ago to a 14-year-old Iowa lad who now sits in the White House as president.

Major Laban J. Miles, uncle of President Hoover, and for half a century a worker for the welfare of the Osage Indians of Oklahoma, died yesterday afternoon at his home here at the age of 87.

He lived to see two dramatic contrasts enacted during his life.

The 14-year-old boy, who lived for a year with his uncle on the Osage Indian reservation here, became president of the United States.

And the Osage Indians, who were impoverished when he began working in their midst, as government agent, became the richest of all Indian tribes when oil discovered on their lands, spouted wealth in millions of dollars.

He Shouldn't Be So Hard To Find

SWEETWATER, April 13. (AP)—John Meyer, building contractor and operator of a tourist camp here, was searching today for a man who registered at the tourist camp last night as "Dr. Cooley, state of Washington." The man checked out this morning and when Meyer started to rearrange the room, he found $3,000 in currency.

ROBBERS MAKE MISTAKE OF HOLDING UP CAFE WHERE WORLD WAR VETERAN IS HEAD WAITER; TWO ARE VICTIMS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 13.—Three robbers made the mistake yesterday of trying to hold up the L'Aiglon Cafe, a Gold Coast establishment where Frank Abler, who had three years service with the German army on the western front, is the head waiter. As a result two of them are dead—victims of the marksmanship of Abler, who specialized in sharp shooting while serving with the German army.

More than two hundred persons were in the cafe at the time and dozens of men stood helpless while Abler proceeded to give a demonstration of his experience with an automatic shot gun. The slain men were identified as James Hirsch, 34, brother of a Chicago physician, and Charles E. Nelson, 26.

Abler killed one of the two in an exchange of shots with the robber as he stood leaning over a money counter with a pistol which he was pointing at the cashier, Mme. Augustine Andree. Abler exhausted his ammunition in the fight but ran to the basement for more, returning to engage the other two robbers who had lined up the guests. He fired more quickly than one of them and the second victim of his marksmanship fell dead. The other fled, possibly wounded, and escaped with a fourth man who remained outside in an automobile.

"Pouff" said Abler when newspapermen talked about heroism to him. "It was nothing. I just don't like the robbery business."

Thought For Today

They that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.—Job 4:8.

The wickedness of the few makes the calamity of the many.—Publius Syrus.

Plan For Isles

Commenting on the impoverishment in the Virgin Islands, which he recently visited, President Hoover declared, "Viewed from every point, except remote naval contingencies, it is unfortunate that we ever acquired these islands."

And perhaps Virgin Islanders are just as sorry as the president that the United States ever made the purchase. Since we took possession of this little trio of islands in the Caribbean 14 years ago, their profitable rum business has been ruined by the Volstead act and their commerce hampered by our shipping regulations. As a consequence thousands of natives have left the islands, and they are worse off economically than they were under Danish control.

But it is a mistake to assume that we can do nothing in restoring in some measure, the prosperity they once enjoyed. The natural charm of the islands, which have been called "The Gardens of Eden of the Caribbean," suggests, for one thing, that we might develop them as a resort.

It would require no superhuman effort on the part of the government to lure some of the thousands of Americans who travel to Bermuda, Cuba and Panama to the tropical playground which really belongs to them. As one writer described them, the islands comprise "the loveliest playground in the world. The tiny islands with their brilliant flowers and fragrant forests, glow like jewels in the blue of the Caribbean, each in a setting of sparkling white beaches and bays shimmering emerald and sapphire by turn. The Virgin Islands are fairy isles, homes of romance, basking in the lazy sun of the tropics."

As poor an investment as the $25,000,000 we paid for the islands may now seem, there is no denying they have possibilities as an all-year-round resort. It is a lamentable fact that this paradise must be called the poorhouse of the Caribbean.

"The Guess"

Every now and then the scientists seem to turn their backs on revolutionary new discoveries and come forward with laboratory experiments to prove that old, old beliefs and traditions held by our grandfathers are based on sound truth. A startling example is the announcement of Professor R. A. Baker of the College of the City of New York and Dr. Washington Platt of Syracuse, N. Y., that "hunches" have become recognized as reliable guide posts.

The general public, perplexed by much of the scientific vocabulary, understands a "hunch." It is the feeling that comes over a man on a bright spring morning that the interview before him will prove successful. It is the moment just before answering the telephone when some inner voice prompts the conviction that unwelcome guests are about to arrive. Hunches are common enough in everyday life but they are something new coming with the solemn endorsement of the American Chemical Society.

The two New York doctors made their investigation for the benefit of the society. Their canvass indicates that 200 modern scientists use the hunch method regularly in their research work. According to Professor Baker the scientific hunch comes after a long period of study, "but comes into consciousness when we are not consciously working on the problem. It is a process of creating thought."

"The intelligent guess," which is the laboratory name for the average man's hunch, has been responsible for the solution of hundreds of chemical problems. Now that it has received recognition perhaps that other vague quality, "woman's intuition," will merit the professors' attention. Woman's intuition would be almost sure to prove an absorbing study. At all events, the lay mind may be forgiven a comfortable satisfaction in learning that, in following hunches, it has had the right hunch.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says in this modern age the bride who goes home to mother usually finds that mother has gone home to grandmother!

* * *

APRIL FOOL! April fool! Nearly all last week this column was written by C. W. Ratliff while The Plainsman was out of town. Starting last Tuesday and continuing through Friday, C. W. did such a good job that both readers of this department have admitted to The Plainsman that they thought the regular conductor was merely improving.

* * *

That only goes to show it's the thought that counts and not the style of writing. New blood very often helps a situation and that's what C. W. provided this department with during last week. However, The Plainsman is back on the job for keeps and to let you in on a little secret, he's never going out of town again.

* * *

All of us are alike.

We get pepped up over making some kind of trip and when we get back we're so glad to be home we wonder why we ever wanted to make the trip in the first place.

In more than seven years residence in Lubbock, The Plainsman has never left the Plains without being glad to get back and that's no exaggeration.

* * *

BUT to get to more serious subjects, it appears that the State of Texas has about decided to penalize cigaret smokers. It's all right to chew gum or 'eating tobacco'. Smoking cigars is an inherent right, as the State Senate views the proposition. But if you happen to use tobacco in cigaret form you'll have to pay off for the privilege.

* * *

The Plainsman smokes less than a package of cigarets a day, which is no more, if not less than the average cigaret smoker. Further than that he owns no stock in any cigaret factory so his pocketbook isn't apt to get hurt much. But as has been said here before on so many occasions, "it's the principle of the thing that hurts."

* * *

IF the State Legislature wants a so-called 'luxury tax', why doesn't it assess all 'luxuries' alike?

Here's John Doe over here who likes to chew gum. Gum chewing, say for argument is the same to him as cigaret smoking to the average cigaret smoker. Why should John Doe get his gum tax free and the cigaret smoker be forced to pay more than his share of the freight?

It just ain't right. There's no answer to the question.

* * *

Any tax based upon personal likes and dislikes should touch as many citizens as it can touch—not as few of them.

The tax burden is everyone's burden in ratio to the ability to bear it on the part of the individual.

That's why the cigaret tax is unequitable and unfair.

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says it won't be long now until we'll have to pay taxes on our air castles.

DON Mitchell is training for the forthcoming West Texas Golf tournament to be held in Lubbock next month, and he has a real system.

Don always has had a hard time staying on the fairways and very often plays most of his game in the rough.

To offset the handicap he carries a rubber snake in his pocket and when he finally pitches out onto smooth ground he dangles the snake before his opponent's eye and says:

"See? I finally killed him!"

* * *

Here's a little item which appeared inconspicuously in Saturday's Avalanche:

"TRENTON, New Jersey, April 10. (AP)—Daniel Grosso was electrocuted at 10 o'clock tonight for the murder of John Enz, postal clerk, in a mail robbery five years ago."

* * *

The moral, of course, is in the last four words. It has taken the law five years to exact its punishment for a robbery murder which at least one jury (and probably more) has blamed on the defendant. "Crime Never Pays" in the long run but with such a condition it's hard to convince some people of the truth in the statement.

Marked Increase Shown In Last Few Years In The Number Of Women Who Have Been Named To Executive Positions

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 13—Women are still exceptions in the best government jobs, appointive and elective, but there has been a marked increase during the past few years in the number who have received appointments to administrative and executive positions.

The federal government employs 89,000 women, reports the National League of Women Voters after a survey of women in public office, and many of them serve as department division chiefs, supervisors of special department activities, librarians, business specialists, legal assistants, scientists, statisticians and naturalization officers.

Some of the more important jobs held by women are those which more or less obviously ought to be held by women. There's Chief Grace Abbott of the Children's Bureau; Chief Mary Anderson of the Women's Bureau; Chief Dr. Louise Stanley of the Bureau of Home Economics, and four women, who are in charge of the nurses of the War Department, Navy Department, U. S. Public Health Service and the Veterans' Bureau.

Women on Tax Board

But there is also a female member of the Board of Tax Appeals, the U. S. Customs Court and the Civil Service Commission. And there's Mrs. Bessie Brueggman, chairman of the U. S. Employes' Compensation Commission. Mrs. Anna Tillinghast is commissioner of immigration at Boston and there are women who serve as collectors of customs in North Carolina, Iowa, Hawaii, Tennessee and the Utah-Nevada district.

Mary O'Reilly is assistant director of the mint and is the most important person in that bureau. The Justice Department, deprived of Assistant Attorney General Mabel Willebrandt, still boasts a woman on the parole board as well as a female superintendent of the women's prison at Alderson, W. Va.

The Interior Department reports a woman serving as assistant commissioner of education and the State Department seems to have more women officials than any other department; the chief of the passport division, chief of the office of co-ordination and review, two assistant solicitors and four vice consus serving at Valparaiso, Beirut, Gerieva and Ottawa.

There are women trade commissioners at Shanghai, Oslo and Rome and assistant trade commissioners at Bogota, Barcelona, Madrid, Santiago (Chile), and Havana.

13 Women Sent to Congress

The League of Women Voters also notes that 13 women have been sent to Congress, including Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton, who served in the Senate for one day, to wit Nov. 21, 1922. Ex-congresswomen in the order of their election are Jeanette Rankin of Montana, Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, Mrs. Winifred Huck of Illinois, Mrs. Katherine Langley of Kentucky, Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick of Illinois and Mrs. Pearl Oldfield of Arkansas. Congresswomen of the present 72d Congress are Mary Norton of New Jersey, Florence P. Kahn of California, Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts, Ruth Bryan Owen of Florida, Ruth Pratt of New York and Effiegene Wingo of Arkansas, all widowed except Mrs. Norton.

There are 146 women legislators in 39 states, four fewer than in 1929 but 20 more than in the 1927-28 legislative season. They include 88 Republicans, 31 Democrats, four non-partisans, one Socialist and two elected by both Democrats and Republicans. Forty-six were re-elected and 12 are state senators.

Connecticut has 21 women in its legislature, New Hampshire 18 and Vermont 16. Legislatures without women in 1931 are Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Nevada, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Only Two Were Governors

Only two women have been governors—Ma Ferguson of Texas and Nellie Ross of Wyoming.

No woman was ever elected a lieutenant governor nor has any state ever experienced one as an attorney general, but at the first of this year women were serving as secretaries of state in Kentucky, Louisiana, New Mexico, South Dakota and Texas. North Dakota has Mrs. Bertha Baker serving as state treasurer for her second term and Arizona has a woman as state auditor.

Several women, especially in New York, serve on state labor, industrial welfare and industrial boards, the outstanding one being Miss Frances Perkins, head of New York's Department of Labor.

One on High Court Bench

There is hardly any administrative board or commission in state government organizations that hasn't had a woman member, the league finds.

Two Ohio women, Judge Florence Allen of the Ohio Supreme Court and Associate Judge Genevieve R. Cline of the U. S. Customs Court occupy the highest judicial posts ever held by women. Women are also judges in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania and in various big city municipal courts. They are clerks of the Supreme Court in Minnesota and Nevada, judges in many juvenile courts and probate judges in several states.

Several women are mayors of small cities and there's a sprinkling of them in county and municipal government posts over the country.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE. Six pamphlets add six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1439 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

THE SPRING DIET

The spring has always been the appointed period for doing something definite to renew the health. The custom of giving a "spring tonic", or sulphur and molasses" along, of course, with a good cleaning out of the intestines, is sacred by long observance.

Dr. Clendening

The custom had more point in other days and other conditions of living than it has now.

It is difficult to realize how much improvement in health has resulted from modern improvements that were not primarily designed for health giving purposes at all. For instance, railroads, cold storage cars, plumbing, etc. Our grandparents mostly lived on farms. They prepared for winter by getting sewed in their underwear, stopping up all the cracks around the windows, putting in a good supply of salt meat, preserves that had all the vitamins cooked out of them, potatoes, coffee and lard, and chopping plenty of wood. With the first blasts they shut themselves in and began to eat up their supplies. The railroad was twenty miles away over a rough dirt road, and did not bring any fresh food in any way.

By the time spring began to be expected they felt pretty droopy. They were tired of salt meat. Their gums were a little sore. They had a great deal of scruff on the skin of their hands.

When anybody asked them how they felt their regular reply was "Oh, I'll be all right as soon as I can get out and pick me a mess of greens."

This was very sound nutrition wisdom. The soreness of the gums indicated beginning scurvy from preserved and salt food. The greens had the vitamins in them which drove the scurvy away.

The value that is attached to 'spring" lamb and "spring" chicken is due not entirely to the tender quality of the meat, but also to the fact that a young animal born in the spring and eating the fresh new greens and herbs of that season will have some anti-scorbutic and anti-pellagra substances in its flesh.

Modern industry, as I say, has changed all this. You will not need a spring tonic nearly as much if you have been eating some fresh oranges or other fruit all winter. Nor will the baby need any sulphur and molasses if it has been having its cod liver oil regularly. The railroad and other forms of transportation bring to our door all the products of the orchards and the gardens of the south.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, April 13.—On the second floor of Sardi's Cafe, midtown rendezvous of the entertainment world there gathers each week a group of men from every walk of life who like to remember the days when they carried water for the elephants and sneaked under the flaps of the big tent.

There are brokers and bankers and explorers and aviators and ex-circus folk and tradesmen.

And by way of background for the particular weekly escape, they meet between a miniature white-top surrounded by plenty of tent show atmosphere. They are dyed-in-the-wool circus fans and they call themselves the Circus Saints and Sinners. They are one of two national organizations that have never forgotten the smell of sawdust and tanbark. The other is known as the Circus Fans.

Somewhere about mid-April, delegates will come from many parts of the nation for an annual convention already announced by old-fashioned circus handbills. Their banquets are held in rings, with sawdust on the floor. Their officers have titles taken from the circus argot.

There is a "fixer," a "second-story guy," a spieler, a shill and concession man. Commander Richard Byrd is "king of the high perch"; Clarence Chamberlin is an "Atlantic leaper"—and so it goes. The national president is Fred L. Pitzer, an officer in the Equable Life Insurance Association. An Associate officer is Frank Baldwin, Jr., of the Empire Trust Company in Manhattan. His father, the bank president, has retired to an estate in Richmond, Va., from which point, recently, he donated a large plot of land as a future home for aged circus folk.

Senator Watson and Senator Robinson were two of the first fans to join. George Duffy, the millionaire silk manufacturer, was another. Joe Cook, the theatrical man, holds an office. So does Courtney Riley Cooper, the writer of tent-show tales. Richard Ringling, a nephew of "Mister John" the circus boss, is an honorary vice president. Mayor Bright of Richmond, also has an honorary office.

The list of who's who could continue for several pages, and would include everything from authors and cartoonists to dentists and publishers.

But when it all started there was a gent by the name of Stanley Dawson, who had been for 35 years in the circus business and who knew thousands of people scattered over the United States.

One day Dawson decided that there were any number of persons who had a big circus hang-over from their youth. He called a meeting of the first dozen fans he happened to encounter.

There were 10 people at the original session, held some nine or 10 years ago. One was a horse doctor, one a town undertaker, one a cowboy, one a physician, a lumber dealer and a few tradesmen in odd lines. Out of this grew the original Circus Fans.

It so happened that in New York was one Freddy Benham, who had driven a circus wagon and graduated to a newspaper man who, with some others, decided that getting the old circus hounds together was a bright idea, and went to Washington for a foregathering.

After a time, a national convention—several in fact—happened to be held and one day the New York delegation found itself ruled out. Tht complaint arose that Manhattan has no circus lot; that circuses were held in an auditorium and not in a tent. So the branch known as the Circus Saints and Sinners came into existence—and some day they hope to endow a home for old performers.

Each year, when the big show comes to town, they have a get-together with some of the big show performers and staff; they attend in a body—

But alas, they are grown men now and they pay their way. No longer can they sneak under the tent or work their way into a seat in the "blues" section.

High-toned people, points out the office sage, are not necessarily people of note.

A Dutch boxer, after losing to his English adversary, kissed him in the ring. Apparently determined to get a smack in somehow.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

As Clowny jigged around a bit, said Scouty, "That looks like a fit. Say, if you call that dancing, let me show you how you're wrong. I'll really dance a step or two and show you something that is new. Step back among the other Tinymites, where you belong."

"All right," said Clowny. "If you're sure that I am really rather poor, let's see you please us with your stunts. You've bragged, so now make good." So Scouty did a funny thing. He swung into a highland fling. And when he stopped, he said, "Well, I have done the best I could."

The Travel Man was heard to call, "Say, I'll do better than you all. I'm getting old, and yet I'm young at stepping 'round about. Just watch me closely. You shall see that I'm as fancy as can be." And when he started jigging, everybody raised a shout.

In just a moment he was through. "Oh, my, that's all that I can do," he said, while puffing very hard. "We'd best be on our way. I'll lead you 'round the town a bit, as long as you're all feeling fit. We may as well see all that we have time to see today."

They loafed along a little street and stopped each time that they would meet a kindly, smiling native. Clowny always tipped his hat. The Travel Man, who noticed this, said, "Politeness never goes a miss. It makes me very proud of you each time that you do that."

And then they came upon a shop where they decided they would stop. A youth was working hard upon an umbrella frame. Said Carpy, as they gathered near, "Why, look, they make those things right here. He'll shortly put the cover on. Ah, gee, I'm glad we came."

(The Tinymites leave Rangoon in the next story.)

A thoroughfare in Washington has been named Constitution avenue. It's best to keep on the right side of this avenue.

Miss Mary Alice Griggs And Jack Copeland Marry Sunday Afternoon At Clovis

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

FINE FAMILY PRAISED

You and I are always interested in the successful parent. We are eager to discover the factors which have contributed toward success.

I wish my readers might have been with Mrs. Myers and me last Sunday afternoon as we visited in a certain lovely home. That home lacked just one thing to make it seem perfect; the father was not there. Death had claimed him about nine months ago. Yet he lived in that family, where the children talked of him as if he had gone away for a visit. They recalled the happy experiences they had enjoyed together while he lived. The girl of six noted with no evidence of sadness, "This striped dress is the one my daddy always liked."

The mother had no servants, but the children shared with her the household tasks. They showed a high regard for her and revealed good habits of self-control and consideration for other's rights. Yet there was no repression. Those children each spoke naturally and with ease and graciousness, just as if they were grown-ups enjoying their mother's humor and attempting now and then to outdo her at repartee.

• • •

The oldest boy rode home with us on his way back to his college, where his conduct and success at studies prove a great honor to his family. His speech is a joy to listen to, and the other children speak about as well. I supposed he must have read a great deal, but he assured me that he had not.

"Where, then, did you acquire your ease and charm of expression?" I inquired. He naturally was modest, saying that he did not possess the trait which I assigned to him. When, however, pressed a little, he replied: "Well, you see my dad and mother never made us feel we should not talk when we had company. Instead, they used to make us feel that we were worthy members of the family group and we just learned not to abuse the privilege."

Then I asked him where he and the other children had learned so much poise and consideration for other people. "You never have seemed to be spoiled kids, and yet you are not repressed," I added.

"You see," he rejoined, "mother was a good disciplinarian and father rarely said much or interfered with our fun, but when he did speak he had such a quiet way about him and he seemed so fair, that when he did call us down we felt a good deal ashamed of ourselves. And he and mother seemed to get along so well together."

"How about your mother's humor?" I next asked.

"I guess that helped, too," was his response.

Perhaps that was one of her greatest assets. Few parents have it to so large degree as she has.

• • •

Mrs. Myers and I have also concluded that this mother, and her husband, who had been an artist of considerable ability, had also acquired the happy trait of rising above small and unimportant things of life. They enjoyed the better, richer things and were not encumbered by those things over which so many parents fret and wear themselves out.

DOUGHNUTS ARE BETTER IF COOKED A FEW AT A TIME

Likewise Coffee Has More Delicious Flavor When Roasted in Small Lots

Experience shows that if too many doughnuts are put into the hot fat at once, the cooking process is hindered. The temperature of the fat is reduced and the doughnuts become greasy.

A similar situation occurs when coffee is roasted in bulk. It is difficult to apply the heat evenly, and as a result some of the coffee berries may be overdone and some underdone. Such variation in the roast causes disappointing variation in flavor.

Hills Bros. overcame this by inventing and patenting a process—Controlled Roasting—that roasts every coffee berry evenly. With automatic control of heat and speed of operation, a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters. Uniformity of roast and unequaled flavor is the result.

Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh when you buy it because it is packed in vacuum. This process takes air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, from the can and keeps it out. Coffee will not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if air-tight. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab on the can.

CLOSE RACES SEEN IN MAJOR LEAGUES; OPEN TUESDAY

FOUR OR FIVE CLUBS ARE POWERFUL

CARDINALS GENERALLY FAVORED TO REPEAT IN NATIONAL

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.,
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Another close race in the National league with at least four or five clubs in the running—that is the dope the day before the 1931 season opens. Optimism is the rule in the elder major league and few clubs are willing to admit they won't be close to the top in September.

The St. Louis Cardinals are generally favored to repeat their triumph but only after the hardest kind of struggle from the Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn Robins, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates. The concensus of experts has picked the five leaders to finish in that order with Boston, Philadelphia and Cincinnati bringing up the rear.

Cards Stand Pat

While all the clubs have added new playing talent in preparation for another tight race, the Cardinals, for the most part, are standing pat on their 1930 lineup. Chick Hafey, however, remains a holdout and Ernie Orsatti has been given his place in left field. The veteran St. Louis mound staff has been augmented by two promising recruits, Dizzy Dean and Paul Derringer.

With Rogers Hornsby, now manager, back in condition, the Chicago Cubs are brimming over with confidence. Hornsby has made no changes in last year's regular lineup but has acquired a lot of good reserves, both recruits and experienced players.

Robins Optimistic

Brooklyn's Robins plugged a few holes by trading some of their spare man power to the Phillies for Fresco Thompson, a steady second baseman, and Frank O'Doul, hard hitting outfielder, and also are highly optimistic. The New York Giants are counting on young Johnny Vergez to take care of third base while Freddy Lindstrom plays right field.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, handicapped by injuries last season, again are rated as a fifth National league contender. With Pie Traynor and Lloyd Waner back in shape, the Pirates should be much stronger.

Boston's chances seem to depend upon how their newly acquired minor league sluggers fare. The Phillies are counting on improved pitching to put them into the race.

Dan Howley's Cincinnati Reds still are in the process of rebuilding and have few hopes of climbing high in the standing.

GAMES ARE TO BE CONTINUED

INTRAMURAL TOURNEY AT TECH ENTERS 2ND DIVISION

The 54-game intramural basketball tournament at Texas Tech enters the second division of the double round-robin schedule tomorrow night after the two final games of the third round in the first division have been played. W. L. "Crip" Gollightly, Tech cage coach and supervisor of the intramural games, has initiated certain "reforms" for the rest of the season, outstanding of which is the ruling that teams must appear on the court exactly at the hour appointed for their games or lose by forfeiture.

As the sixteen teams of the four leagues resume play tomorrow evening the schedule holds that the sophs and juniors of the Aggie league and the Y. M. C. A. and Bookstore of the Independent league will play their third round games, beginning at 6 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the second division of the schedule will get under way with the "fish" and sophs of the Liberal Arts team playing.

Three games Wednesday and three Friday are scheduled for this week.

PITCHING DUEL FEATURES GAME

Carl Capps, youthful hurler of high school age, and Harold Crites, inmate of the local college, tangled in a pitching duel yesterday and after 11 innings of close baseball the Terrors, as the collegians chose to be called, were ahead of the Avalanche-Journal club, 8 to 7.

The score was reversed in regard to hits, the Avalanche carrier boys outhitting the Terrors, 8 to 7. The game was played on the carrier boys' park between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets in southwest Lubbock.

Errors played a large part in the game, the Terrors exerting a "strange influence" that resulted in frequent bungling on the part of the carriers. Capps' work on the mound was the outstanding performance of the day outside of some well executed short field work on the part of the collegians.

A letter written by Robert L. Warner from Salt Lake to Miss Thelma Dyer, Navasota, Tex., has been delivered to them at Twin Falls, Idaho, nearly 12 years after they had become man and wife.

SPYING ON SPORTS

In our feeble attempts to portray fully, fairly and squarely both sides of the proposed one-year transfer rule, instigated by M. H. Duncan, Lubbock school superintendent, which is holding a large share of the sport spotlight nowadays it is necessary first to picture the response and attitude supporting the rule and then, on a turn-about basis, to show something of the opposite attitude.

* * *

It has been established definitely that by far the majority of school superintendents and principals over the state are in favor of the rule which would make it necessary for a student to reside in town one year after transferring from another town before becoming eligible for football teams in the former school. A large number of coaches have supported the rule, but not nearly so many coaches as school superintendents and principals. This is due, in part, to the fact that superintendents and principals, NOT COACHES, have been questioned by the promoters of the suggestion.

* * *

What really is the determining factor in the passing of the rule is the attitude of the magnates of the Texas Interscholastic league, or, to be more specific, the way in which Roy B. Henderson, supreme power in the University of Texas organization, and Roy Bedichek, perhaps second in command, look at the proposed ruling. Both of these men have been quick to say that they were for the rule. And so, without further ado, it appears that the efforts of Professor Duncan have not been in vain.

* * *

Sports writers over the state recently have taken up the cry and a safe majority are strictly in opposition to the rule and have signified their intentions through personal columns and stories in opposition to the ruling to the last ditch. When the proposed rule was first announced to an unsuspecting public, a number of sports writers commented favorably, stating that they would like to see such a rule passed. As time goes on and spring training camps for promising gridsters offer encouragement through the long, hot months that must pass before another football season rolls around, ye scribes have come to the natural conclusion of all sport lovers; that is, a desire to see the great game prosper and to see good teams in deadly battle.

* * *

Sunday this column reprinted parts of a lengthy dissertation upon the proposed rule by Boyce House, Ranger editor. House lost no time in informing his public, and in a nicely illustrated way, just what he thought of the ruling. Being an Oil Belt man the usual conclusion is that he would naturally be "agin it", and he most assuredly is, but, we are certain, for more reasons than that of the ordinary Oil Belt variety, an honorable group to be sure.

* * *

Jinx Tucker, the Waco and Central Texas scrivener, cursed and booed consistently by less learned men but nearly daily and always when an authoritative statement is wanted, quoted by the men who oppose him, gives a new slant on the rule. It was written for the Waco paper but reprinted in the Interscholastic Leaguer, official publication of the league. Here's his message, in part:

* * *

"While we are in favor of any rule which would handicap the friends of various schools in their importations of athletes, we do not believe the one-year residence rule is drastic enough. such a rule will merely prolong the stay of the athletes in the schools, and will only help in the cases where the age limit catches the athletes. What the Interscholastic league should do is pass an absolute transfer rule, making all athletes ineligible at all schools save one where they started their eligibility. That would stamp out forever the importation of high school athletes."

* * *

Now if that were all of Jinx' monologue, it would be a point in favor of Duncan and the rule, but he adds another paragraph that emphasizes the above eye of sports lovers for high class entertainment as staged by the best of athletes, whether they are home grown or imported.

* * *

". . . In that event, the schools which wanted to persist in the importation of athletes could withdraw from the league, and form a circuit of their own. They might call it the Transfer circuit, get together and put certain prices on certain types of athletes, thereby keeping the prices paid from growing out of proportion to the ability of the men. They would, of course, have better football in that league, but all professional teams as a rule are better than the amateur teams."

ATHLETICS ARE FAVORED IN AMERICAN

TEAMS RENEW HOPES FOR TIGHTER RACE THIS SEASON

BY PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—Having watched their national league cousins reap gate receipt harvests for four straight years while they eagerly snatched World series glory, American league clubs set out on their 1931 baseball wars tomorrow with renewed but rather doubtful hopes of a tighter pennant race.

Most of the experts, accustomed to seeing the league stage a somewhat top-heavy pennant race for the past few years, predict just another romp for Connie Mack and his Philadelphia Athletics with only a little interesting crowding by Washington, New York and perhaps Cleveland. The club owners, however, join with their managers in predicting the closest race in years from start to finish and in first as well as second division.

A careful sifting of claims and hopes just before the big getaway indicates that the key to the situation is held by the Athletics, who have been running away with the flag for two straight years. Connie Mack, perhaps with a feeling of remorse has failed to strengthen his championship front for the 1931 campaign except for a few reserves while the rest of the clubs have strengthened their forces in varying degrees.

The big "if" of the race centers around the Athletic pitching staff. If "Lefty" Grove and Big George Earnshaw are as good as they were last year, the A's probably will repeat no matter what the reserves accomplish. If either of Mack's two pitching aces experience a poor season, and no reserve pitcher comes through in big style, the whole race may be turned upside down.

Senators Look Strong

Walter Johnson and his Washington Senators and the New York Yankees, piloted by the same Joe McCarthy who lifted the Cubs out of baseball's wilderness in the National league, are the two clubs which are expected to end the domination of the Athletics if any team does it. Of the two, the Senators look the strongest because of excellent pitching, a timely attack, a tight infield and the spirit that moulds championship teams.

Fielding is the big Cleveland problem. Errors on defense beat the Indians last year.

Detroit, Chicago, Boston and St. Louis all have been strengthened during the winter and spring shopping season but none is expected to startle the league by winning the pennant. Of the four, the White Sox appear to be the most improved.

ROOKIES WILL MAKE BOWS

VETERANS WILL FILL MOST POSTS ON MAJOR TEAMS

(By The Associated Press)

Veterans will fill most of the posts on the major league teams when the season opens tomorrow but a number of recruits, up for the first time, may break into the lineups as regulars. Aside from pitchers, the outstanding rookies who see mto have battled their way into a starting place include:

NATIONAL LEAGUE:
New York—Verges, third base.
Cincinnati—Heath, first base.
Phillies — Arlett, Outfield, and Mallon, second base.
Boston—Schulmerich and Worthington, outfielders, and Wilson, third base.

AMERICAN LEAGUE:
New York—Hoag, outfield.
Chicago—Simmons, outfield.
Detroit—Harvey and Gerald Walker, and Ivey Shiver, outfielders.
Cleveland—Vosmik, outfield.
Boston—Warstler, shortstop, and Van Camp, first base.

Detroit Signs Up Three New Players

DETROIT, April 13.—(AP)—Wallie Schang, Joe Dugan and Marty McManus signed contracts with the Detroit baseball club before boarding a train for St. Louis last night for the opening game against the Browns.

Schang and Dugan, catcher and infielder, spent the training season working with the Tigers without contract but were promised jobs if they showed they would be valuable to the team.

McManus, veteran Detroit third baseman, had been nursing an injured knee and until recently had been uncertain of being able to play regularly early in the pennant campaign.

Freeman Will Risk Crown With Negro

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Tommy Freeman, rugged battler from Cleveland, sallies forth this week with his welterweight crown perched on top his head. Young Jack Thompson, San Francisco negro from whom Freeman won the title, will try to knock it off.

Their 15-round struggle at Cleveland tomorrow night furnishes the high spot of the fistic schedule this week.

Two state interscholastic league records were equalled and as many district records broken in the meet Saturday. Hill of Lamesa navigated the century in 9.9 seconds, tying the state schoolboy record, and McClinton of Snyder ripped off the low hurdles in 24.5 seconds, lowering the district record by nearly one second.

Cisco High school won the quarter-mile relay wth a team composed of Jeter, Massingale, Connell and Miley. Snyder's relay team won the half-mile race, Lamesa, represented by Wiggins, Norris, Costin and Hill, took the mile relay and Plainview's team of Witkoski, Hart, Stoddard and Smith won the medley. THIS WEEK TO FIND LEADER IN PARADE

FIVE GAMES WILL BE PLAYED THIS WEEK IN SOUTHWEST

DALLAS, April 13 (AP)—The Texas A. and M. Aggies and the University of Texas Longhorns, each with perfect percentages, are leading the Southwest conference baseball pennant parade, but with five games scheduled this week, next Saturday is almost sure to find an undisputed leader.

The University of Texas Longhorns, many times winner of the championship, sounded their warning to other contenders Saturday when they made their 1931 bow by defeating the Southern Methodist Mustangs of Dallas at Austin, 6 to 0.

Rice Downs Frogs

The Rice Owls of Houston played excellent baseball Saturday to drop the Texas Christian Frogs of Fort Worth, 9 to 0. Ray Hart, Rice mound star, pitched a three-hit game.

Games scheduled this week:

Tuesday: Texas vs. Baylor at Waco.

Thursday: Baylor vs. T. C. U. at Fort Worth.

Friday: Rice vs. S. M. U. at Dallas.

Saturday: Texas vs. Texas A. and M. at College Station; Rice vs. T. C. U. at Fort Worth.

VINES IS WINNER IN HOUSTON TOURNEY

HOUSTON, April 13. (AP)—Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Calif., won the singles championship yesterday in the River Oaks Country Club's Tennis Invitation tournament. He smashed through in straight sets for a 6-3, 6-4, 10-8 victory over Bruce Barnes of the University of Texas.

The gangling student of the University of Southern California used a service so powerful it frequently all but knocked Barnes' racquet from his hand. Barnes was able to break that service only one time.

George Lott of Philadelphia and Junior Coen of Kansas City took the doubles championship Saturday. They downed Barnes and a fellow Texas university player, Earl Taylor, 7-5, 6-1, 6-1.

THREE HUNDRED WILL COMPETE IN STATE PLAY CONTESTS

AUSTIN, April 13 — With over three hundred school entered, the state one-act play tournament of the Texas Interscholastic league is approaching the finals of its fifth annual contest, according to Roy Bedichek, chief of the University of Texas league bureau. DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Bear sharp shooting against selected issues was resumed in the stock market today.

The list showed some rallying tendencies at the start but the trend was downward by the end of first half hour. Trading remained sluggish.

Vanadium was selected as a bear target and went down more than 4 points. Auburn, after rising 4 1-2, fell back 5 from the top. Air reduction lost more than 2.

Unconfirmable rumors of an increase in wholesale cigarette prices this week accompanied a further rise in American Tobacco "B," which got up 2 points to new high ground. It then ran into profit taking and backed up. General Motors sold up nearly a point, then reacted.

Issues selling off a point or so included U. S. Steel, General Electric, American Telephone, Dupont, and Worthington. Westinghouse Electric dropped a point to another four year low.

Sterling cables opened at $4.85 and 13-16, off 1-16.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today 1 to 3 points lower in response to easier Liverpool cables but orders appeared to be quite evenly divided and the market held within a range of 3 or 4 points during the early trading but this was supplied by realizing or liquidation combined with some commission house and local selling. At the end of the first half hour, May was selling around 10.30 and October 10.85 or about 2 to 3 points net lower.

Liverpool cables said some continental buying had been supplied by local selling in that market. It was a holiday in Alexandria but Egyptian futures wer 10 to 11 higher in Liverpool and the Indian spot quotation 4 points higher.

The market eased later in the morning under further liquidation coupled with local and New Orleans selling. May sold off to 10.22 and October to 10.79, making net declines of 8 to 10 points but the offerings were comparatively light and were well enough taken by shorts or the trade to cause rallies of 5 or 6 points from the lowest. At midday the market was quiet and steady with October selling at 10.86, or about 2 to 4 points net lower for the general list.

NEW ORLEANS PRICES

NEW ORLEANS, April 13. (AP)—Cotton here opened rather steady today despite much lower Liverpool cables than due and rather disappointing domestic textile statistics for March. First trades showed no change to three points down. The market eased off slightly after the start, May dropping to 10.28, July to 10.52 and October to 10.84, or four to five points under Saturday's close.

The market encountered good support at this dip from trade buying and prices rallied three to four points from the lows.

At the end of the first hour the market was steady and only one point under the previous close.

The market became quieter during the first half of the morning and prices eased off on realizing and selling on the less favorable March textile statistics than expected. May eased off to 10.20, July to 10.45 and October to 10.76, or 11 to 13 points under Saturday's close.

Later, however, some trade demand developed and prices rallied, held by firmer stocks, May advancing to 10.32, July to 10.56 and October to 10.89, new high and 11 to 12 points above the earlier lows.

At noon the market was steady and within two points of the top.

Grain Market

CHICAGO PRICES

CHICAGO, April 13. (AP)—Grains advanced early today, influenced by reports that European stocks of what were dangerously low and that flour supplies in the United States were scanty. Dust storms indicating persistent need of moisture in spring wheat territory northwest were also a bullish factor. Opening unchanged to 1 1-8 cents up, wheat afterward held near to the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 to 1-2 higher, and then continued firm.

The report said the severe cold spell and snow during the latter part of March set the ranges back some, but the damage was characterized as "not of much moment."

"The keg has been treated as a part of the apparatus for making liquor and the press has reported many raids in which kegs were seized which had been offered for sale."

Woodcock replied that the question of "intent" was involved, but added that there was "the practical difficulty of the proof of such unlawful intent."

"We have prosecutions against somewhat similar enterprises under way in Los ngeles, California, and Kansas City, Missouri," he wrote. "Such prosecutions will be made whenever the evidence of such unlawful intent is available to convince a petit jury beyond a reasonable doubt."

Later the same letter adds: "Now, about Washington. I must not, cannot say it to Carrie, and I had rather she did not know I am saying it to you, because she could misconstrue it, but she and Isobelle ought not come to Washington now, nor ought they go to New York. I had some inquiry made about things said, and the Washington trip last year led to suspicion about acting as informer (ridiculous, of course!) and the suspicion was confirmed by the long stay at Port Jefferson."

Only one surname is mentioned in the letters—that of an unidentified "Judge Monser," who was to be asked to help in a "hostess appointment" for Carrie.

The letters are considered valuable to a collector not because of their contents but because President Harding wrote few letters in longhand.

Challenge Thrown By Mayor Walker

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Mayor Walker, whose administration has become the subject of an investigation by the state legislature, threw out a challenge to his opponents last night.

"I come to you with no apology for my public life," he said at a dinner of the Jewish Theatrical guild. "I come to you asking no quarter. I come to you without propaganda and without an ill feeling to any individual in this city. I am, if I may say so in you presence, guilty of many shortcomings as men in public life go. But when that list shall have been completed there will not be included selfish political ambition that ever would permit me to trample upon another in the hope of elevating myself."

ROYALTY GETS RECEPTION

JAPANESE PRINCESS AND PRINCE ARE N. Y. VISITORS

NEW YORW, April 13 (AP)—Prince and Princess Takamatsu of Japan enjoyed a big day in their "city of dreams" despite the fact they are technically incognito.

There was a visit to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, military salutes and escorts, waving throngs, bands, a welcome at city hall, a luncheon with Mayor Walker as host, a visit to the National Broadcasting company studio and a special broadcast in their honor, a tour through the Chrysler building and a dinner from the city's Japanese residents.

The prince's radio speech, in Japanese, was translated by Kensouke Horenouchai, Japanese consul general in New York as follows:

"I am deeply moved by your cordial welcome tendered to the princess and myself in the name of your country," he said. "For four years New York has been the city of my dreams; for four years we have dreamed of visiting this great city. And as we stand here and listen to your friendly words of greeting, we feel that this city is as generous as it is great. May we ask you, Mr. Mayor, to give to the people of this great and generous city our thanks for their sincere greetings."

Today the royal couple will review the cadets at the United States Military academy at West Point.

SPAIN FACING CRISIS

REPUBLICANS OBTAIN MAJORITIES IN ELECTIONS

MADRID, April 13 (AP)—A serious crisis in Spanish affairs, brought on by yesterday's municipal elections which gave the republicans sweeping majorities in most of the cities, was believed imminent today with impending resignation of the Conde de Romanones, minister of state, and the Marquis de Alhucemas minister of justice.

No official announcement was made of their resignation, but it was understood they have made their decision, considering outcome of the municipal elections yesterday a vote of no-confidence in the cabinet of Premier Admiral Juan Bautista Aznar.

Turn Against King

King Alfonso's home ward, that containing the royal palace at Madrid, even went against him, an alderman representing the republican movement being elected. Madrid, Barcelona, Seville, Granada, all turned in large republican majorities.

The returns gave Alfonso, who was born a king and since has been victor over military rebels and political enemies alike who have assailed his throne, the task of answering what everywhere was considered a popular repudiation of his rule. There was no indication of how he would meet the situation.

There was much speculation as to whether the ministry, which probably will meet tomorrow, would postpone the provincial elections scheduled for May 3 and the parliamentary balloting which was to be held in June. Some believed that the king would cancel the forthcoming parliamentary elections and re-establish a dictatorship.

Melquiades Alverez, who has been one of those demanding that Alfonso "take a vacation from the throne" while a constituent cortes, or constitutional convention decided whether Spain was to continue a monarchy or republic, said:

"The triumph of the left is a logical consequence of the dictatorship of Primo de Rivera. The king should go. But the king will know his road."

The elections were held almost without disorder. Two army lieutenants and a civilian were wounded in a riot at Lerida. There was some fighting in Madrid but generally the country was peaceful.

SPUDDERS FINISH LAST EXHIBITION

WICHITA FALLS, April 13 (AP)—The Spudders have put their last exhibition game behind them and today dug into the last two days of spring training with a fairly well conditioned team. Excellent weather during the past week gave the athletes a chance to make real progress and they took full advantage of the opportunity.

Yesterday's game with Grover Cleveland Alexander's House of David team resulted in a 9 to 0 victory for the Texas leaguers. Flinn and D. Taylor limited the bearded boys to five hits while included in the Spudders' collection of 11 blows were a home run and a double by Red Badgro, a triple and double by Bob Fuss and doubles by Garms, Geygan and Taylor.

Dallas Bowlers Are Winners In Tourney

WICHITA FALLS, April 13 (AP)—Three of four championships went to Dallas Bowlers in the third annual tournament of the Texas Bowling association, which closed here last night. Waters of Dallas won the singles and all-events crown, with the Dallas doubles team of Montgomery and Moss winning in that event. Five-men honors were retained by a Wichita Falls team, Kruger Jewelry company. The winning scores were 702 in singles, 1,260 in doubles, 1,774 in all-events and 2,744 in five-men.

Oklahoma City bowlers won a lion's share of prizes including first money in the team event, but out-of-state topplers were not eligible to compete for state championships.

Class B crowns went to Burch of Wichita Falls in singles, Fenberg and Swanson of Pampa in doubles and Lions club of Pampa in the team event.

The association voted to return to Wichita Falls for next year's tournament, with John J. Laughlin and E. F. Fruechte of Wichita Falls re-elected president and secretary, respectively.

Second Baseman Of Steers Is Injured

DALLAS, April 13 (AP)—With Cecil Stewart, their star second baseman, out of the game for at least six weeks with a broken right ankle, the Dallas Steers plan to leave tonight for Shreveport to open their Texas league campaign Wednesday against the Sports. Manager Morse scheduled a short workout today. The Steers will practice tomorrow at Shreveport.

Morse was not sure this morning whether Meadows or Murray will be the opening pitcher for Dallas. Both have asked for the opening assignment.

Stewart broke his ankle yesterday in an exhibition game against the Fort Worth Cats in which Dallas lost, 12 to 10.

I gave up hope, as all I tried did no good. But six bottles of Konjola gave me better health than I had in ten years. I am doing all my own work, and am glad to endorse Konjola."

MR. J. F. McHENRY

And how happy Mr. J. F. McHenry, 1701 Brun street, Houston, was made by Konjola. He says: "Fifteen years I had stomach trouble; bloated so that I could hardly get my breath. Finally I was induced to try Konjola. After nine bottles, stomach trouble and nervousness disappeared. I hope this statement helps others to find the relief I did."

MRS. THOMAS HALL

Now read the greatful expression from Mrs. Thomas Hall, 303 1-2 S. Ervay street, Dallas: "Konjola surprised me beyond words. For 26 years I had neuritis. Many a night I sat up all night.
