Two Americans Long Held By Chinese Reds Leave Shanghai

HONG KONG (AP)—Two American civilians long detained in Red China reportedly boarded a ship at Shanghai today. U. S. consular officials said four others are expected to leave by ship in the next two weeks. The six are on the list of 12 civilians detained in China up to 5 years for lack of exit permits. The Reds announced recently at Geneva that they were free to leave.

Clinton Anderson Said to Support of Candidate

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—It appears Mexico's two Democratic senators will see eye-to-eye on the presidential election. Albuquerque Journal, quoting an "unimpeachable source," says Sen. Dennis Chavez is going to back New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman for the nomination.

Mississippi Death Trial Nears End

SUMNER, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi's most sensational trial in years may end today with a country jury deciding the fate of two white men accused of murdering a Chicago Negro boy. A verdict is possible late this afternoon. Only character witnesses were scheduled for 24-year-old Roy Bryant and his 36-year-old half-brother John William Milam.

Big State Fair Buzzing Even Before Gates Open Tomorrow

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A fair before it opens it just as busy as after it's well underway. The New Mexico State Fair is no exception. Hundreds of people now through the fair the day before it opens, but all are busy getting ready for the nine-day run starting Saturday. Arc lights flash as plumbers finish laying new lines. Brilliant flags which line the entrance approach are being brought out, dusted and put in their stanchions. The carnival people are swinging heavy sledges for their tents and completing the wiring for the many rides and shows. You can see black-robed nuns clambering on ladders to the school exhibit section welding staples for the decorations. The men putting up a booth advertising beer relax with a sandwich at the tidy restaurant sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Electronics experts hook news wire circuits into the

Special Session Unchanged By Election

Legislature Unchanged for Simms' Call

By JOHN B. CURTIS
SANTA FE (AP)—The Simms administration geared itself with confidence today to its plans for next week's special session of the Legislature as originally scheduled. Gov. John F. Simms said last night "there is absolutely no doubt in my mind" that the Legislature, as it was constituted prior to Tuesday's constitutional amendment election, will meet on schedule Monday at noon. He made his 3 1/2 page formal statement after an unprecedented session in which he obtained the advice of 16 top attorneys. An aide of Simms cited the number of lawyers involved in the confab as indicative of the seriousness with which the question of validity had been viewed. A question had arisen in the (Continued on Page Six)

Pretty Little New Mexico Cotton Maid Happy On Job

By BILL RICHARDSON
ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A pretty little miss with sorta reddish-goldish-autumn leaf colored hair and a smile that would dazzle a mole, is New Mexico's maid of cotton. And its not a very weak limb to clamber out on to say that 21-year-old Patty Stewart will be way up there in the national maid of cotton contest this winter. Unpacking her bags at the "temporary" women's barracks at the University of New Mexico—old GI frame barracks which have been serving the coeds since the end of World War II—Patty proudly displayed a sharp looking wardrobe. All Cotton "It's all cotton too," she said. "All of it?" said the reporter. "Yes," (blush) "all of it." Patty hails from Hatch, in the heart of New Mexico's cotton-rich Rio Grande Valley, but she acknowledged she wasn't brought up on a cotton farm. That made no difference to the New Mexico cotton men who chose her to represent the state at the national contest in Memphis in December. And for obvious reasons. "Anyhow," she apologizes, "That's not as bad as the county dairy queen who didn't like milk." Likes Fabric Patty, as her wardrobe shows, does like cotton, and the cool, white fiesta dress she was wearing was a prime example. The New Mexico Cotton Ginners Assn., which selected Patty, is going to buy her a complete new cotton set of clothes before she makes her trip to Memphis to show the Southern belles what for. State GOP Leader Says Simms Has Created 'Chaos'

SANTA FE (AP)—State Republican Chairman M. B. Johns Jr. today accused Gov. John Simms of "attempting to disenfranchise the majority of our citizens" by his decision that the Legislature, as it existed before Tuesday, can meet validly in special session next week. "New Mexico now is being treated to the ultimate in chaos and confusion," Johns said in a statement as he left for Albuquerque to attend a regional meeting of Republican women leaders. "The will of the people is clear, their intent is clear, yet tempting to disenfranchise the majority of our citizens. What Simms has said, in effect, is that he is above the law. What he calls 'leadership' is patently a bungling attempt to mislead—not lead. "Our attorney general's office has said publicly that the law became effective at 7 p. m. Tuesday night. The governor's reply is, 'why should we bother with a mere technicality.' "Which opinion is right. The people are entitled to know."

Phillip Dunleavy, Prominent State Lawyer, Succumbs

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Phillip H. Dunleavy, former assistant attorney general and long prominent in state legal circles, died last night of a heart attack. He was 45. Dunleavy came to New Mexico 10 years ago from Chicago and was employed by U. S. Dist. Judge Sam Bratton. He later served as assistant attorney general under Joe Martinez.

Lonardi Has Triumphant Entry Into Buenos Aires As New Chief

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi made a triumphal entry into Buenos Aires today to take control of the provisional government of Argentina on behalf of the victorious rebels. The airfield in suburban Palermo was tightly guarded by troops and police armed with machine guns. A red carpet was rolled out for Lonardi. Thousands of citizens crowded around the airport limits, cheering wildly and waving flags. The military guards held them back firmly but made no move to dampen their enthusiasm. Before leaving Cordoba, Lonardi spoke of the possibility Peron might be brought to trial. "We want to make it impossible for him to again damage the country," Lonardi told a news conference. "In case he is brought to trial, the ex-president Argentine and enjoy all the guarantees and rights established in the constitution." He did not expand on the possibility of a trial, but if it took place it would be on criminal charges. The asylum granted Peron by Paraguay would prevent his arrest as a political prisoner. Lonardi said he wants to call elections to choose a new constitutional president and a congress as soon as possible.

Plummer Will Find It Easy To Get on 1956 State Ballot

SANTA FE (AP)—The office of Secretary of State Natalie S. Buck said today that "forming a new political party in New Mexico is a very simple matter." This was in connection with plans of Lester C. Plummer of Artesia, New Mexico head of the Interim Committee for a New Party, to place candidates on the ballot next year. Plummer has not yet been in touch with the Secretary of State's office. "Forming a new party can be done with a minimum of formality in New Mexico," a spokesman said. "We'll gladly accept any group that wants to form a new party, so long as it complies with the law's simple requirements." He recalled there were five parties on the ballot in the presidential (Continued on Page Six)

Ike Studies Red General Arms Cut Idea

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—Soviet Premier Bulganin has urged that President Eisenhower's plan for mutual aerial inspection and exchange of military blueprints be incorporated into a general disarmament program. The gist of Bulganin's personal message to Eisenhower came out last night and preparations were under way today to make public the text from the President's vacation headquarters. It was learned in Washington that Bulganin also told Eisenhower the proposed disarmament program should provide for prompt renunciation and abolition of all atomic weapons. A third chief point understood to have been made by Bulganin was that the program should apply to all military bases of both Russia and the United States, including those on foreign soil. In advance of Eisenhower's (Continued on Page Six)

At the same time, the Soviet leader told the U.N. Assembly that Russia is giving careful consideration to President Eisenhower's proposal for an "open sky" policy of mutual aerial inspection of Russian and U.S. territory. He submitted a resolution urging the Assembly to endorse a study of the Eisenhower plan, along with proposals submitted by Russia, Britain and France. New Mexico Vet Held on Dope Charges to Get Psycho Exam

NEW YORK (AP)—Arrestment for a Belen, N. M., man charged with possession of marijuana has been delayed for 30 to 60 days, New York police said today. Further hearings for Marvin Keminer will pend his release from the Bellevue Hospital psychiatric ward, where he was held for observation. Keminer was arrested Wednesday night with 20 pounds of marijuana worth about $30,000 in his possession. He was taken in on the west side, then brought to his hotel room. One pound of marijuana was on his person and another 19 pounds was found in the room, police said. Keminer, a disabled veteran who says he lost an eye while in the Air Force drew a pistol when officers brought him into his room. He was quickly disarmed. Police said he told them he had narcotics contacts in the Mexican border city of Juarez. They said he brought narcotics into New York by plane two months ago. Police said marijuana sells for (Continued on Page Six)

ROOSEVELT LAKE, Ariz. (AP)—The body of Karl C. Snow, 63, of Hagerman, N. M., was found yesterday floating in Roosevelt Lake. The Globe sheriff's office said a note was found in Snow's handwriting saying he was taking his own life. Sheriff Jack Jones said Snow's clothes were on the bank of the lake. A quantity of strychnine was found in them, but he was known to have been taking strychnine for a heart condition.

Hurricane Janet Is Year's Worst

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Janet, so powerful that her winds made ocean waters look like 'boiling buttermilk,' whirled westward in the Caribbean Sea today. Several of the smaller Leeward and Windward islands lay in the path of the storm and islands off the coast of Venezuela were not out of danger. "The water looked like boiling buttermilk," said Lt. Cmdr. Kenneth Mackie of Albany, N. Y., who flew a Navy Neptune hurricane-hunting plane into the eye of the storm.

booth set up by the Christian Science Monitor in the Industrial Building. There was once one Albuquerque newsman, since departed, who each year started off his first State Fair story with an account of how the petunia crop was doing. This year, the petunias are doing nicely, thank you, and their bright beds separate the walks and lighten the spaces between many of the buildings and barns. The men in charge of the livestock exhibit spread clean, fresh straw in the stalls preparing for the big rush of arrivals expected to start today. No livestock is yet on hand to speak of. Only from the poultry building does there come an occasional cackle. Poultry exhibits this year top all of the past 17, according to Superintendent C. P. Hay of Albuquerque. Poultrymen were standing amazed at one innovation this year—a big, insulated, air conditioned truck for hauling thousands of back chicks. The truck is owned by an Oklahoma firm which does a lot of business in New Mexico and which has walked off with prizes every year the fair has operated. Over in the racing grounds, things are calmer than in the remainder of the big 210-acre fairgrounds. Many of the race horse men have been on hand since seasons closed at Ruidoso and Raton. Strolling through the race grounds, most of the racing folk are sitting in the shade of the stalls talking over their chances on this year's program. From one stall comes the lonesome wail of a mouth organ. Probably the busiest place on the ground is the big School Building where Edwin Medina, state director of elementary education, races from one booth to the other and from there to the telephone lining up the big arts and crafts exhibit from New Mexico school children. Medina says the overall display this year tops that at any previous fair in quality with 47 schools represented from throughout the state. The schools—not the children themselves—win certificates on the basis of the judgement of an art evaluator from New Mexico Western College at Silver City. The awards are $50, $30 and $15 for superior, good and meritorious work. In the hobby show, which this year spreads through four large buildings, the most impressive thing is the miniature railroad exhibit, running the full length of the 160-foot building with inter-laced three and four-track layouts. The tiny railroad races through a painted backdrop of New Mexico mountains and scenery. Many trains will be able to run on the track at the same time controlled by three "switchmen" perched near the ceiling where they can see the whole spread. Also in the main hobby building are the bright coin and stamp displays. The trains, however, bid to be the favorite of the children at the fair, possibly even topping the midway.

Presbyterian Church Sets Family Day

First Presbyterian church is expecting 100 per cent attendance at its services this Sunday.

The day has many labels and meanings for the Presbyterian churches throughout the nation. To all it is known as Christian Education Sunday, but it has varied meanings in different localities. It is called Loyalty Sunday here, in which each member is asked to show his loyalty to the church by attendance and participation in the service. It is called by some "rally day" when the church as a whole comes together. It is promotion day for children in the church school when they are given certificates of promotion to higher classes and awards for faithful attendance.

It is also family day at church when the family and the church marks its progress during the past year and inaugurates its plans for the year to come.

Personal Mention

New Mexico National Guard Enlistments Look Good to Young Men Faced With Draft Number

By SANKY TRIMBLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

New Mexico National Guardsmen are dangling attractive bait before the eyes of young men faced with the prospects of extended active military service.

The guard is taking full advantage of the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 in a widespread program to swell its ranks to authorized strength and to offer a solution for young men who must serve and who at the same time want to complete their education.

Under the act, New Mexico young men who have passed their 17th birthday and have not yet reached 18 years and 6 months, may fulfill their military commitments by serving six months active duty and seven and a half years in a reserve component.

That component should be the New Mexico National Guard, leaders of the unit are telling the young men of the state.

Maj. Gen. C. G. Sage, says the 111th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Brigade, the state's guard unit, is taking full advantage of a quirk in the law to enlist the young men. The law itself provides that a young man serving his six months active duty will be paid $50 a month.

But if he serves the duty as a National Guardsman, he gets $78 a month for four months and then automatically goes to $85.50 a month.

Afternoon refreshment: cover a chocolate cake with mint-flavored frosting and serve with hot or iced tea or coffee. Use a standard 7-minute frosting recipe and when the frosting has been beaten and cooked over hot water for the required length of time, add two or three drops of green food coloring and one or two drops of mint extract. Beat until proper consistency and use for filling and frosting two 9-inch layers.

Panhandle A&M Tangling With Hotshot NMMI

By The Associated Press

Panhandle A&M of Goodwell, Okla., tomorrow begins the defense of its New Mexico Conference football crown, taking on the team that it rated the darkhorse of the little league.

The Aggies, two-time champions of the loop, will meet New Mexico Military at Roswell. It is the first conference game for each team.

The Aggies, again powered by fullback Tom Shaef, last week warmed up for the loop opener with a 12-0 victory over Colorado State. NMMI looked good in whipping Eastern Arizona Junior College 22-6.

While those two meet in the game that could have a lasting effect on the outcome of this year's race, Arizona State of Flagstaff will open its season with another conference battle.

The Arizona crew will be at home to Adams State of Alamosa, Colo., Adams, leaving the conference at the end of the football season, dropped a 19-0 opener to Colorado College last week.

One of the big surprises of the first-day activity last week was New Mexico Highlands. The Cowboys romped over Kansas Wesleyan 33-6. This week they will try to add more prestige when they go against New Mexico A&M of the Border Conference at Las Cruces.

The only other game slated sends New Mexico to Tucson, Ariz., against the university of Arizona "B" team.

Eleven Mad Bulldogs To Be Turned Loose In Ram Flock Tonight

SPORTS

Bullpups Meet Carlsbad "B" Here Tomorrow

A grimly-determined Artesia high school football squad, still tingling from last week's 21-6 upset by little Alamogordo takes the field at Portales at 8 p. m. tonight in a non-conference tilt against the Class A unbeaten Rams.

But Coach Reese Smith's boys are being fooled by the Class A designation this week nor are they in any way cocky about the outcome of tonight's game.

"The team is in a good frame of mind," Smith said this morning, "and they looked good in practice. They're mad about last week-end and I think they want to take that mad out on the Rams tonight."

And at Portales, Coach Max Norwood said "The Bulldogs will be the best team we meet this season, and we're not looking for miracles."

Last year, Artesia romped over the Rams 32-6 but Norwood hoped for a better outcome tonight in light of Portales' unbeaten record so far this season. The Rams dumped both Lovington and Jal.

Norwood is pinning his hopes on big 180-pound fullback Everett Frazier who racked up three Ram TDs last week against Lovington. But on the whole, the Portales line and backfield will be outgained by the Class-AA Bulldogs.

Back home, Smith & Co. are not being deceived by weight, since the little, but speedy Tigers of Alamogordo showed the Bulldogs what a small team can do.

Smith said that star halfback Jim Belvin, injured in the season's opening game against Lovington, will suit-up tonight and may see action although not in the starting lineup.

Belvin sat on the sidelines last week as Don Long filled in the Bulldog backfield. Long, along with the Big Three—Ratiff, Bratcher and Price—will again start for Artesia tonight.

Meanwhile, the Bullpups are getting in final drill sessions this afternoon for their meeting with Carlsbad here at Morris Field tomorrow night.

The B team regained some of the lost Artesia prestige at Alamogordo last Saturday when they brought back a 38 to 6 victory over the Tiger Cubs.

But tomorrow's game will probably be the top test of the season for the Pups against the bigger Carlsbad squad. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

Highland Hornets to Meet Unbeaten Clovis Wildcats

By ROBERT GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

Highland's state champion Hornets tonight open defense of their crown to head the hefty state for New Mexico high school football teams.

The Hornets will take on unbeaten Clovis in Albuquerque. It's each team's first Dist. 2AA game of the season. The winner of that one—the only district game for Class AA—will need only one more victory for the district title.

Otherwise around the state, a couple of important inter-sectional games heads the list for Class AA. The Alamogordo - Deming match tops Class A and the Fort Sumner - Alameda heads the Class B schedule. A pair of intra-city games and a host of district battles round out the list of the top-notchers.

Busy Weekend
All told, it's about the busiest weekend of the season for the schoolboys. Of the 67 teams in action this year, only seven will be idle this week. There are 34 games 14 of them district matches.

The long football weekend got started last night when Central of Kirland nosed out Aztec 33-27. Ronnie Jack got the winning margin with four minutes left on an 8-yard off-tackle burst. The score was tied 7-7 14-14 and 21-21 at the end of quarters.

Highland served notice last week that it intends to make it tough for any contenders to its title. The Hornets rapped St. Mary's 42-6, and showed a host of good backs and a solid line. Clovis came up with an 18-12 victory over Tucuman, making it two in a row for the Wildcats this season.

Rock to Fight In Title Tilt Next Summer

NEW YORK, (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano will be back in action next June. The possible victims include Cuba's Nino Valdes, hulking Bob Baker of Pittsburgh, Hurricane Tommy Jackson of New York or Floyd Patterson, the once-beaten Olympic champion of Brooklyn.

The invincible Brockton Blaster, having earned half a million dollars for his ninth-round knockout of Archie Moore in a spectacular brawl Wednesday night, has decided to go after a few more helpings.

It may not be as much as he earned with the colorful, cocky light heavyweight boss, but it figures to be plenty the way theater television is advancing by leaps and bounds.

Down 4 Times
Moore, who was knocked down four times and had his right eye shut, said he wants another crack at the rock-ribbed, steel-jawed Marciano but it is doubtful if the return will be made. Too many people remember what happened to Ezzard Charles in his second fight with Rocky after their thrilling first bout.

The 20-year-old Patterson does not seem a likely choice soon either. Now the No. 1 contender for Archie's 175-pound crown, the fast-punching youngster is being groomed as a heavyweight threat for 1957.

Baker may be the next choice.

Handicap Feature Opens State Fair 9-Day Race Meet

Winner of nine straight, including a decision over Valdes, the 28-year-old, 6-3, 210-pounder had been tcketed for a title shot before Moore's clamor and his wins over Valdes and Carl (Bobo) Olson got Archie his chance.

Valdes Hot
Valdes, another 6-3 husky, zoomed back into the picture by stopping England's Don Cockell in three rounds in London Sept. 13. It helped alone for two straight defeats by Moore and Bob Satterfield.

Jackson, a freakish fighter with unlimited stamina, could barge his way into the spot. A nonstop puncher but lacking in power, the 23-year-old, 6-2, 195-pounder has won eight straight since he was stopped in two rounds by Valdes 14 months ago.

Manager Al Weill, in naming Valdes, Maker, Jackson and Patterson as possible June opponents, said also he had received an offer for Rocky to box Italy's Franco Cavicchi, Europe's heavyweight champion, in Italy. There's not a chance Weill will permit Rocky to risk his crown outside the United States.

In announcing his decision to keep fighting, the 31-year-old Marciano told newsmen at a press conference, "I have no thought of retiring at 'the present time.'"

In a horse race at Monmouth Park this year, Papa Tony was the winner. Doctor Tony ran second.

ALBUQUERQUE —The New Mexico Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse Futurity Trials share the limelight with the $500 added Albuquerque Inaugural Handicap tomorrow as the State Fair opens a nine-day racing meet here.

More than 7,000 fans are expected for the first day of racing. The week's attendance should top 55,000 and a pari mutuel handle of more than 2½ million is anticipated.

Nine races are scheduled tomorrow and Sunday, featuring horses from New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and California.

The tenth annual Inaugural Handicap is the first of 15 feature races which highlight the week's schedule.

Other big races on tap during the week are the $1,000 added New Mexico Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse Futurities, the Gay Dalton Memorial Handicap, the Albuquerque Derby, the Championship Quarter Horse Handicap, the Shue Fly, the Juvenile Handicap, the Winner Take All, the Com W. Jackson Memorial Handicap and the Big State Fair Handicap.

Wyoming-Montana Tilt to Be Worst-Matched Game of Year

By FRANK PITMAN Associated Press Sports Writer
The pre-season forecast are correct—the Wyoming-Montana football game at Billings Saturday night is the most mismatched contest in the Skyline Conference this year.

It was predicted in an August issue of the Cowboys would gallop off the field. They voted Monday night. And after the way they played last week, the coaches are pretty good as forecasters.

The Wyoming rambled over Kansas State, 38-20.

The Montana club has been playing this week like it was going to the Cowboys on even terms.

Yankees Can Clinch A.L. Flag Today

By ED WILKS Associated Press
This is the day the New York Yankees can clinch the American League pennant and officially receive the Cleveland Indians to a game of fruitless frustration once again.

The Yankees, rumbling along on their eighth winning streak, can clinch their sixth banner in seven years with a victory in either the afternoon game at Detroit or the night portion of a double-header at Boston. And they can do without that if the Indians drop the afternoon game at Detroit.

The Tribe, losing five of the last six, comes up with another defeat. New York can lose all of its remaining games and still hang up the hunting in Yankee Stadium for the opening game of the World Series against Brooklyn Wednesday.

Manager Casey Stengel has had Don Larsen (8-2) to face Red Sox, who have lost seven games, in this afternoon's game. Byrnes (16-4) has the night assignment. Tom Brewer (10-10) and Willard Nixon (12-9) are the Boston choices.

Cleveland Manager Al Lopez, hoping for a miracle, has pitched Herb Score (15-10) to Detroit's Frank Lary (14-14), a rookie who hung one on the Tribe last weekend.

With three games left, Cleveland needs one more victory—or a split by the third-place Chicago White Sox—to clinch the No. 2 spot.

Washington, the club that topped the Tribe, and Baltimore are in a tussle for final placement. The Orioles, winning three straight, can clinch seventh place in the cellar by knocking the Senators in the cellar.

With a two-night twin bill tonight at Washington, the only undetermined position in the National League is fourth place. Philadelphia and Cincinnati are the contestants and the Phils clinch at least at tie by beating New York's Giants today while the Redlegs are idle. Philadelphia has three left, Cincy two.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By Don Jensen

QUESTION: I don't have enough valuable possessions to warrant getting a Personal Property Floater policy but I'd like to know if I could cover my golf equipment under some kind of special policy. Is there one?

ANSWER: A special Golfer's Equipment Floater covers all the risks at a low premium but you'd better ask a good insurance agent if that's the policy you should have.

If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we will try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

"Such a course," he said, "would undoubtedly best meet the need to call off the armaments race, build up confidence among nations and end the cold war."

Speaking of the Eisenhower aerial inspection plan, he said: "We recognize the importance of the President's proposals. We regard them as an expression of a sincere desire to facilitate the solution of the important problem of international control and inspection. And it is from this point of view that we are engaged in studying this proposal and its various aspects."

Cites Plan He said that Russia was particularly interested in finding out whether the Eisenhower plan actually would contribute to a reduction of armaments and to the outlawing of nuclear weapons.

Molotov challenged a statement by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles yesterday that "limitation of armament is virtually unattainable."

"This statement," he said, "throws doubt on the work of the disarmament commission set up by the general assembly."

Declaring that the "termination of the armaments race must be regarded as the primary objective," the Soviet foreign minister said: "The United Nations must speak up emphatically against the arms race and in favor of reducing armaments, outlawing atomic and hydrogen weapons and removing the danger of another war."

Bruins Taking Split T Into Action Against Maryland Terrapins Famed Single-Wing Style

By ORLO ROBERTSON The Associated Press Outstanding exponents of the split-T and single-wing styles of football clash tomorrow when Jim Tatum's Maryland Terrapins and Red Sanders' Bruins from UCLA meet in what shapes up the nation's No. 1 college gridiron attraction.

Colleges of all sizes swing into action for the big Saturday of the new season but the meeting of top-ranked UCLA and fifth-ranked Maryland at College Park, Md., figures to be the "big" game. Both came through unscathed in their openers last Saturday.

UCLA, boasting a powerful single-wing attack built around quarterback Ronnie Knox and featuring Sanders' balanced-line version of the style, easily defeated Texas Aggies 21-0 in the Bruins' opener.

By contrast, Maryland squeaked past Missouri 13-12. Tatum has called his split-T quarterback Frank Tamborello the best in his time at Maryland. But it is the Terrapins' line that could spell trouble for Knox and company.

The UCLA-Maryland game is the only one involving two teams ranked among the top 10 but every other member of the select group will be in action against major opposition.

Oklahoma (No. 3) takes on North Carolina in an inter-sectional duel at Chapel Hill, N. C. Michigan (No. 4) plays Missouri. Ohio State (No. 6) hosts Nebraska at Columbus. Pittsburgh (No. 7) clashes with Syracuse. Mississippi (No. 8) meets Kentucky in a Southeastern Conference clash that could go a long way toward deciding the league title.

Navy (tied for 9th) warms up for a rugged campaign against William and Mary. Southern California (tied for No. 9) plays Oregon in a Pacific Coast Conference tilt tonight.

There also are plenty of inter-sectional games among other top teams. One which will be watched with more than ordinary interest is Notre Dame against Southern Methodist at South Bend, Ind. The Irish were ranked 11th in the first Associated Press poll. They may be better than that.

Other inter-sectional battles bring together Illinois and California, Minnesota and Washington, executive branch is that at present no vacancies exist because of the 11 new seats provided by the amendment, nor is any duly elected representative deprived of his seat.

No Revolt Meanwhile, it appeared to observers here that there is little likelihood of any successful move by legislators to kick over the traces and attempt a special session of their own, in addition to the one called by Simms, in which their discussions are limited to Simms' call. This unofficial opinion was based on a study of bill draft requests, which carry little if any, hint of such intentions, and a study of the membership rosters themselves.

For the lawmakers to call themselves into session, they must muster three-fifths of the members of each house. With all the Legislature's conservatives and those of high party loyalty, it would be an extremely difficult task to buck the administration by lining up three-fifths of each house.

Among the reasons listed by Simms in support of his stand on next week's session were these: 1. Time-honored law says it is not logical that the Constitution could be amended to say that any representative elected for a two-year term shall not serve that term, including representatives elected from shoeing multi-county districts.

2. The Legislature clearly intended to create 11 additional elective seats in the House. A short term for any of these 11 on an appointive basis clearly was not contemplated by either Legislature or electorate.

3. The New Mexico maxim is that all legislators hold office until their successors have been not only elected, but qualified.

4. Existing statutes say the general election law governs all constitutional amendment elections in the absence of specific law. Under such logic the Canvassing Board will be required to certify the results of Tuesday's election.

"From an official point of view the Canvassing Board does not know of its own knowledge that Amendment No. 1 has even passed. Assuming that it did pass at 7 p. m. Sept. 20, when the polls closed, and assuming further that the Canvassing Board's action may relate back to that date there is ample legal authority for the proposition that Amendment No. 1, while it may become a part of the Constitution on Sept. 20, does not become operative until the spring of 1956, when the general election proclamation will be issued, and then only for the purpose of placing the names of legislative candidates on the ballots for the ensuing general election to be held in November of 1956."

5. There are statutory provisions that terms of state elective officials, including the Legislature, commence on Jan. 1 following their election.

6. The Legislature is the sole judge of its own membership. There is no court that can question the membership that so organizes.

Plummer—

(Continued from Page One) election of 1952, and there were six in 1948. The law says that new political parties shall, within 30 days after organization and at least 40 days before the general election, file their rules and regulations with the Secretary of State.

Such rules and regulations provide: For the government and organization of the party; the manner of calling and conducting its conventions; the mode of selection of delegates to conventions; the manner of selecting members of state central committees, the state chairman and all other officers or members of the governing bodies; the powers and duties of such officers and committees; the method of selecting nominees for such offices, and the means and manner of filling vacancies in such offices.

Plummer says his group, with national headquarters at New Orleans, has members at Albuquerque, Las Cruces, Carlsbad, Roswell, Alamogordo, Deming and Artesia. He says it advocates for a national ticket such personages as Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Herman Talmadge, Sen. William Jenner, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Sen. George W. Malone and Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah and others.

ICC Fixes Blame For Train Wreck

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission held today that failure to operate a westbound train "in accordance with signal indications" was the cause of a head-on collision of two Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway freight trains between Vaughn and Fort Sumner, N. M., July 5.

Five persons were killed and three injured in the accident. All were railroad employees.

The commission's report said an eastbound freight moving at about 20 miles an hour collided with a westbound freight moving at 50 to 55 miles an hour.

Ike—

The timing depended on when the President gets a go-ahead from Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who is in New York for the United Nations General Assembly meeting.

Meanwhile, the chief executive was drafting a reply to Bulganin. It will be made public, an associate said, "as soon as it can be made ready," but probably not before next week.

Following this there will be a Bankers Award program, honoring district cooperators in the Hagerman-Dexter, Roswell and Macho districts, who have completed at least 50 per cent of their soil and water conservation work.

WHO DOES IT?

Santa Fe, N. M., September 6, 1955.
Notice is hereby given that on the 31st day of August, 1955, in accordance with Chapter 131 of the Session Laws of 1951, W. M. Simmons of Artesia, County of Eddy, State of New Mexico, made application to the State Engineer of New Mexico for a permit to change location of shallow well and place of use of 45 acre feet of shallow ground water per annum by abandoning the use of Well No. RA-1513 located at a point in the SE 1/4 SW 1/4 of Section 5, Township 17 South, Range 26 East, N. M. P. M., for the irrigation of 15 acres of land described as follows: Subdivision Pt. NW 1/4, NW 1/4, Section 8, Township 17 S., Range 26 E., Acres 15
Old well to be retained for domestic purposes.
The 15 acres to be moved from to be dried up to further irrigation from shallow ground water.
Any person, firm, association, corporation, the State of New Mexico or the United States of America, deeming that the granting of the above application will be truly detrimental to their rights in the waters of said underground source, may protest in writing the State Engineer's granting approval of said application. The protest shall set forth all protestant's reasons why the application should not be approved and shall be accompanied by supporting affidavits and by proof that a copy of the protest has been served upon the applicant. Said protest and proof of service must be filed with the State Engineer within ten (10) days after the date of the last publication of this notice. Unless protested, the application will be taken up for consideration by the State Engineer on that date, being on or about the 5th day of October, 1955.
S. E. REYNOLDS,
State Engineer.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR EDDY COUNTY, STATE OF NEW MEXICO.
MARY LOUISE JEWELL SANDERS, Plaintiff, vs.
ELMER M. JEWELL, Defendant.
NOTICE OF PENDING SUIT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO, to ELMER M. JEWELL, GREETING:
You will take notice that there has been filed in the District Court of Eddy County, New Mexico, a civil action numbered 15370 on the docket of said Court, wherein Mary Louise Jewell Sanders is plaintiff and you, Elmer M. Jewell, are the defendant; that the purposes of said suit are to obtain a decree of the Court granting to the plaintiff the custody, education, and supervision of Ronald M. Jewell and Sheryl D. Jewell, the minor children born to your marriage with plaintiff, and that unless you appear, answer or defend herein on or before the 21st day of October, 1955, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for relief prayed for in her complaint filed herein and judgment will be entered against you in said cause.

The plaintiff's attorney is D. D. Archer, whose office address is Booker Building, Artesia, New Mexico.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal, this 8th day of September, A. D. 1955.
(SEAL) Marguerite E. Waller,
Clerk of the District Court.

IT WAS SAID in the long ago that we brought nothing into this world and that we shall take nothing out. That is true for all material goods. It is false in the realm of the spirit. You and I are writing day by the day the story that must forever be our history. We are garnering the harvests of the years and storing them in the granaries of heaven. As women and men come to the closing hours of life on the earth, they gather up the "fruit of the spirit." Love and joy and peace and longsuffering are not material. They are eternal goods.

HOW RICH ARE WE? When we stand before the heavenly cashier and ask for a statement, what will the little card carry as our record? Shall we hold in our hands a blank white card, with a dark background? Will the servant of the Most High say that our account stands at zero? How dreadful, when we discover we have been working and living for naught! But why wait? Most of us can guess what the bank account really is. Let's face that question now, for tomorrow we must know the final statement. Shall I make sure of my holdings in the divine treasure house? What is my harvest?
