CRASH TAKES TWO LIVES

A near head-on collision between an automobile and a truck claimed the lives of two more area persons last Thursday afternoon about 4:30, and left another passenger critically injured.

Killed instantly in the crash which occured about two miles northeast of Farwell on Highway 60 was Merle Woltmon, 52, a longtime resident of Bovina.

Dying shortly after being removed from the scene of the accident was Peggy Hardage, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hardage of Farwell.

Still in the Clovis hospital this week recovering from severe injuries is Lavoyda Billington, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterlyn Billington, also of Farwell.

Officials investigating the accident, which demolished both the car in which the girls were riding, and th pickup in which Woltmon was riding, surmise this as the sequence of events:

The girls were returning to Farwell from Friona, and were within sight of home when crashing into the pickup, which was attempting to pass a large transport truck going in the opposite direction.

There was no evidence of skid marks on the pavement to indicate that either vehicle had seen the other in time to make an effort to avoid collision, and the impact occured almost in the center of the highway.

Both girls were thrown from the car. Ambulances from Clovis removed the bodies and the injured Billington girl as soon as help could be summoned.

Strangely enough, Miss Billington received no broken bones, al-

FEDERAL HELP A POSSIBILITY IN IRRIGAITON

Sketchy information of what may prove to be vital legislation for farmers of this area trickled down to this newspaper this week. If reports prove to be accurate, it is now possible for farmers to borrow up to $25,000 from federal sources to install irrigation equipment.

Rates, terms, and details are not available at present, and the local FHA office, through which the loans will be handled, had not been notified through official channels of the measure.

Apparently, the legislation making available federal funds for this and many other farm improvements was effective Wednesday, after having been signed into law by President Eisenhower last week.

It is believed that the program will work two ways: Loans will be made from funds supplied by private lenders and insured by the government, or from funds appropriated by congress.

These loans will be available to those farmers who are unable to obtain credit from normal private lending groups such as the banks, insurance companies, individuals, and the like.

Although no official information has been received here as yet, it is rumored that farmers will discover that they can install wells for as little as $1000 down, have up to 20 years to repay at from four to five percent interest, and the only collateral necessary for the loan will be the well itself.

Obviously, this could have far-reaching effects for many farmers over a large area, and The Tribune will carry a full report on the new legislation as soon as it can be officially confirmed.

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP JR.

It certainly is a relief to get this election madhouse behind us, and now perhaps we can get back to our day-to-day schedule of work. An election such as the one just past is particularly trying for newspaper folk, as they have a great deal more to worry about than simply reminding themselves to cast a ballot.

We might add that it has been a most successful campaign for us as well as for Governor Shivers. In a friendly joust with our neighbor, Wilfred Quickel, we managed to land the family a round of club steaks with our prediction on how the vote would go.

Further proof of our accuracy may be found in last week's paper, where, if our memory serves us, we estimated that Gov. Shivers would win by 100,000 (or more) votes. And that was just about the size of it.

All of this, we might add, is helping us on that weather forecast, too. You will notice that the showers have let up, and that there doesn't appear to be much danger of the cotton or grain being hurt with a seige of wet weather.

This is all in the cards, and the ball is just now starting to roll our way. In fact, we have the strangest feeling that we are on the verge of entering an era of very good fortune. We only hope our hunch is right. Another six weeks will pretty well tell the tale.

One more mention of the weather: When is it going to freeze this fall? That's a pretty important question for all of us. We would appreciate some estimates on this from some of you observers.

* * * *

One of the letters which came to our desk too late for mention in the paper last week pertained to the Saturday Texas Demo primary. It was from K. K. Runnels, the Sage of the Sandhills.

When most people write a letter of vindictiveness and send it to a newspaper to be printed; they very handily fail to attach their name to it thereby guaranteeing that their work seldom if ever gets into print. We have no sympathy whatever with the spineless persons who will so strongly criticize certain others for certain things and be ashamed to let them know who their accusers are.

K. K. is far out of this class, however, as many of our readers know, we feel sure. There is no man on earth that can write a tougher letter than K. K., and he seems to take on just about all comers. One thing you can be sure of, however, is that he is always careful to make it implicit that the letter comes from him and represents his ideas and no one

Farwell Steers Open Season Friday Against Groom

Farwell High's 1954 football team—with a veteran backfield this year—will play the first game of the season, on the home field Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, Coach Carrol Cates announces.

Workouts began Monday of last week and have continued through this week, with some night practices to help get the boys in shape, for the initial game, which is a non-conference contest with Groom. The Groom team tied for second in the district last year, has 12 returning lettermen and is predicted to be strong this year.

Thirty-seven boys were suited up Monday, three of them returnees from the all-district team last year. They are Jerry Owens, sophomore; James Norton, junior; and Gene Hardage, senior.

"The team is looking pretty good" says Cates, but adds that the biggest weakness seems to be

ROYALTY, FARM BUREAU STYLE

Phyllis Fairchild Farm Bureau Queen, Misses Jesko, Cass, Neff Runners-Up

Miss Phyllis Fairchild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fairchild of Friona, was named Parmer County Farm Bureau queen Friday night, from a field of 37 contestants.

Each queen candidate was interviewed by Cotton John of KGNC-TV and made a 1½ minute address. Three out-of-county judges then selected Miss Fairchild as the queen. Aubra Ellison, Farm Bureau president, presented the queen with a bouquet, and her crown.

Runners-up for the title were Miss Clara Jean Jesko of Lazbuddie, second; Miss Gay Cass, Friona, third; and LaMona Neff, Friona, fourth.

Miss Fairchild, who will be a junior in Friona Schools this year, is 16 years of age, and is a member of Future Homemakers of America. The queen contest was the first such contest she had ever entered.

The queen will be featured on a Lubbock television program September 9, along with other county winners in this district. She will then compete in the district contest at the Lubbock Hotel September 18, against 12 other candidates.

Shivers Carries County By 1040-407 Margin

| Box | Shivers | Yarb'gh | Brwst'r | Scott |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Farwell | 225 | 48 | 199 | 32 |
| Friona | 320 | 131 | 231 | 122 |
| Lazbuddie | 116 | 72 | 107 | 52 |
| Lakeview | 29 | 6 | 22 | 12 |
| Black | 45 | 13 | 33 | 19 |
| Bovina | 142 | 90 | 112 | 72 |
| Rhea | 27 | 7 | 18 | 10 |
| Oklahoma Lane | 95 | 28 | 78 | 19 |
| Absentee | 41 | 12 | 37 | 10 |
| TOTALS | 1040 | 407 | 837 | 348 |

In a vote that ran surprisingly parallel to returns from the first primary July 24, Democrats of Parmer County returned to office Saturday Gov. Allan Shivers, who was seeking his third term.

Official returns from the county gave Shivers a 633 vote margin, for a win of better than 2-to-1 proportions. The tally was 1040 to 407. Compare these figures with the July 24 primary, which was 1097 to 474. Shivers about held his own, Yarborough lost strength during the interim, and some of the votes apparently came from supporters of Holmes and Davis, who numbered 54 in the county two months ago.

It was a smashing triumph state-wide for Shivers, also, as he rolled up a margin of over 92,000 votes, according to returns from the Texas Election Bureau.

Again, the strongest box in Parmer County for Governor Shivers was Farwell, where a margin of 4.7-to-1 was piled up Saturday. This, in spite of the fact that a funeral in which the entire community was interested, was being held on election day.

For associate justice of the Supreme Court, place one, Few Brewster easily nosed out Alfred M. Scott, 837 to 348.

Voting was considered as unusually heavy since there were no local decisions to be made in the runoff.

Rev. E. J. Keith Is New Pastor

Rev. and Mrs. Elbert J. Keith and two boys, Robert, 8, and James, 10, arrived Tuesday of last week, and he began his duties as new pastor of First Baptist Church, Farwell.

The Keith family had been living in Hart for the past four years, where he was pastor. Rev. Keith grew up around Lamesa, and attended school at Patricia. He has his BS degree in Bible from Wayland College in Plainview. His minor at Wayland was history. The pastor received his degree in 1952, after having been in pastoral work since 1940.

Mrs. Keith is a native of Andrews where she completed her high school work. She also has a degree from Wayland, with a major in education and a minor in English.

Previous to beginning his work here, Rev. Keith has served the Grandview Baptist Church in Dawson County, Mt. Blanco Church in Crosby County, Fullerton Baptist Church in Andrews and Afton Baptist Church in Dickens County and also the Hart Church.

The new pastor and family are well impressed with their new home, already expressing a liking for this community. The two boys are enrolled in Farwell school, and the pastor and his wife are getting settled in their new home.

SHOOTIN' FOR A '55 CROP

Farmers were wasting no time in getting their wheat allotment into the ground this week. Here's one rig being operated by C. I. Crow on the O. W. Rhinehart place just northeast of Bovina. Crow is disc plowing the 200-acre field, and planned to have wheat drilled in by this weekend, barring more moisture.

Wheat Planting Begins

It's wheat planting time once again, and already the bustle of starting off another major cash crop in this part of the Plains has begun.

Following the generous and evenly distributed rainfall over a wide area last week, most farmers rushed into their fields to make quick preparations for drilling in next year's wheat.

The Parmer County allotment this year is 118,000 acres, and observers report that they would not be surprised to see farmers use all of the allotment.

Considerable plowing has been underway during the past five or six days, and as we go to press, there will have been quite a bit of seed placed into the ground. In another two weeks, the job of planting should be done.

For a change, the wheat crop

Parmer County Fair Begins Fund Drive To Raise $1500 from Firms, Individuals

Businesses and individuals which in the past have made it possible for the Parmer County Dairy Show & Fair to succeed are again being called upon to respond with financial assistance for the organization.

An appeal is being made through the mails by the Association in the hope that a door-to-door campaign will not be necessary. By Tuesday of this week, "around $300" was reported to have been sent to Secretary-Treasurer Bill Sheehan in response to requests sent to 300 parties last week.

The Fair, which is the only event in which all of Parmer's communities have an opportunity to be represented, is scheduled for September 13-14-15, and will need about $1500 to pay for itself.

Sheehan emphasized that he would appreciate persons sending in contributions as soon as possible, and added that persons who received no letter would also find their contributions to be welcome.

Officers of the Association this year include Floyd Schlenker, president; Clyde Hays, vice-president; Joe Jones, general superintendent; J. T. Gee, assistant superintendent; and Sheehan. Directors are Eugene Boggess, A. L. Hartzog, and Walter Kaltwasser.

Contributions of $25 or more entitle the donor to booth space, and on Monday, six reservations had been made for booths. They included Maurer Machinery, Ethridge-Spring Agency, B. T. Galloway Implement, Parmer County Implement, Herring Implement, and Kirkland Pump Company. The machinery dealers will likely display their wares outside of the quadrangle.

Prizes for community booths were announced at $25, $20, and $15, with each additional entry receiving $10 regardless of judging.

Watch for Boll Worms, Farmers Are Advised

Cotton farmers are warned to keep a sharp eye out for the old boll worms in coming weeks, as the cotton crop is entering a stage where worm damage can be particularly costly.

Four insect meetings over Parmer County were conducted by County Agent Joe Jones last week, and about 70 farmers attended these meetings.

Teams of farmers which toured about 15 cotton fields were very encouraged at not finding an alarming amount of worms or eggs, but Jones warned that this is no sign that farmers should let down their guard.

"Keep checking your field constantly for insect trouble," he warns. "Conditions are favorable for boll worms, and if they are not controlled in the early stages, before they bore into the bolls, then there is little point in trying to control them afterwards."

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

One Thing for Communists: They've Sure a Different Slant

Through the mails this week came the second pamphlet ever to be mailed to us from the Communist Party in the U. S. The first booklet was sent out early this year, and was mailed from New York. Perhaps it is significant to note that the second booklet bore a Beaumont postmark, indicating, perhaps, that the influence of communism is not always limited to the northern and eastern industrial areas.

This piece of literature is entitled "The American Way to Jobs, Peace, and Democracy." It is well-printed, and excellently written (insofar as technicalities of composition are concerned).

Do you know what the Community Party line of the U. S. is? Would you like to hear what they are preaching right here inside the borders of our own country? Well, we think that you'll agree that it's really a different slant, compared with what you have been accustomed to in your newspapers. Look over a few of the choice selections we have taken from this booklet:

"Our country and its people rapidly are approaching a crisis. The storm clouds of a major economic depression are nearly upon us. Our nation's foreign policy has led us into a blind alley. Our traditional liberties are vanishing, being replaced with the ugly menace of McCarthyism . . ."

"There is an ever greater subordination of government to big business. The Eisenhower Administration is an administration of, by, and for big business. Corporate wealth—General Motors, U. S. Steel, Standard Oil and DuPont—America's biggest, richest, and greediest trusts, run the U. S. government just as surely as they run their own corporations, and for the same end of ever more exorbitant profits. . . "

"Our country, which won its national freedom in a great revolutionary war against despotic colonialism, now strives to prevent other people from having their 1776. Our economic royalists should "communism," but what they are after is the tungsten of Korea, the rubber of Indo-China, the oil of Iran and Venezuela, the diamonds and gold of South Africa, the sugar of Cuba and Puerto Rico, the bauxite of Guiana, the tin of Bolivia, and the immense super-profits derived from cheap colonial labor everywhere . . . "

"To combat depression we (the Communist Party), urge the defeat of all wage-cut attempts and a militant struggle by labor to raise wages on all levels, to shorten the work-week without a reduction in weekly earnings, and to curb speed-up. We advocate the lowering of consumer prices, an end to rent gouging, and a shift of the tax burdens to the rich . . . "

"The Communist Party, basing itself on the scientific principles of Marxism-Leninism, believes in socialism as the ultimate solution for the problems of our nation . . . "

"What is the truth about the Communist Party? The Communist Party advocates a peaceful path to socialism in the U. S. . . . "

"We deny that the Soviet Union or any country led and ruled by working people threatens our country, or could threaten our country. We resolutely oppose 'police actions,' wars of aggression, or wars of intervention in the affairs of peoples fighting to shape their own way of life as they see fit . . . "

"The Communist Party considers the emergence of a powerful trade union movement during these past two decades as the most important and positive development in our national life . . . "

Some of what you have just read will seem utterly fantastic, as it does to us. Yet, we feel sure that every American will benefit from reading for himself just what the communist line really is, as measured against everything American.

If you would care to look over one of these pamphlets, please stop in and we'll show it to you. This is the best collection of political bunk we have ever run across. But some people do not laugh it off as bunk. That's why we need more education on this real threat to our liberty. How can we fight communism unless we understand what it means?

Social Security: World's Greatest Gyp

Social security, some of our great "planners" have touted, is insurance for the common man, a group heretofore left unprotected against fate and old age. Social security, as we define it, is the world's greatest gyp. To us, it represents the very opposite of everything we hope to be American. And millions of us are sucking it in hook, line, and sinker, because we think we're going to get something for nothing. We could hardly miss the truth further.

We have pressured our national legislators into liberalizing and broadening the program until now almost everyone is FORCED to participate in this stinking mess which proports to protect us from disability and old age.

The latest group to be ensnarled by the tentacles of this social octopus are the farmers of America. They will soon discover that they will be forced to lay aside a part of their earnings toward the program, and of course they will have no control over whether they choose to do this.

We consider the social security tax as the most insidious ever invented. Something is wrong with the American people when they demand that their government provide for them a cradle-to-the grave security, because such is simply not possible. If you think you and your wife can live on $150 a month when you're 65, we think you are in for quite a surprise. And that's about the size of your pension even under the new revisions of the Social Security Act.

Undoubtedly, there must be a great many people who are in favor of social security, or we would not have it. But one question has never been answered for us: If social security is such a great advancement in insurance and pension plans, then why has it never been put on a voluntary basis?

NOTES From the Parmer County SCD

By STEVE BAVOUSETT

Everyone enjoyed the good rains we had the past week, but few people realize the amount of rainfall that is lost due to runoff.

We made a little study of Running Water Draw on Wednesday, Aug. 24. The study was made over an eight-hour period. You that saw the draw during the rains know that this was not the peak runoff.

The study was made where the draw crosses the Friona-Muleshoe highway.

This is what we found at this location: Water running at the rate of 440 cubic feet per second, or 198,000 gallons per minute.

Over an eight-hour period, 95,136,000 gallons ran down the draw. This is the same as water one inch deep over 3,520 acres.

It would take 225 good eight-inch irrigation wells pumping for eight hours to pump this much water. The cost of pumping this water would be $4,200.

We could say that $4200 ran down Running Water Draw Wednesday, Aug. 29, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. This runoff was from a rainfall that averaged about two inches over the watershed.

Running Water Draw carries just a small amount of the total runoff in Parmer County SCD. A big part of the runoff goes into lakes and other draws.

If we assume that one tenth of the runoff goes down Running Water Draw, we can see the loss each time we get a 2-inch rain.

Each time we get a 2-inch rain over the District we lose $42,000 worth of water. This is just what it would cost to pump the runoff water. If we were to take into consideration how much the crops would be increased, there is no telling what the value of the runoff water would be.

With this area getting as little rain as we do, you can see the importance of keeping each drop of rainfall where it falls.

What can we do to conserve the rainfall?

1. Put all irrigated land on the level or near-level. Most of our land needs to be bench leveled.
2. Terrace and farm dry land on the contour.
3. Control grazing on our range land so that grass will make enough growth to prevent runoff.
4. Plant deep-rooted legumes and farm land to improve structure of soil so it will take the water faster.

SCD Annual Banquet Tonight At School

The annual Parmer County Soil Conservation District banquet will be tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Farwell High School cafeteria, announce SCD officials.

Speaker for the evening will be Howard Boswell of Temple, editor of Soil and Water, a magazine owned by supervisors of the conservation districts of Texas.

He is an ex-assistant state conservationist.

Musical entertainment will be provided, also, and District officials are hoping for a big crowd out for the banquet.

Weed Work Tomorrow In Black Area

Parmer County farmers who are working with the Highway Department and the Santa Fe Railroad this week will turn their attention to another weed that threatens their farm profits: dotter weed.

Plans to control this parasite are now centered on the highway right-of-way near Black, and burning will be the method used to kill the weed. Farmers plan to work tomorrow (Friday) morning.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Phyllis Jean Fairchild, Parmer County Farm Bureau's Queen for 1954 has a busy schedule before her as a result of having been judged number one of thirty-seven very fine contestants. She is to appear with other county winners on Lubbock's KDUB-TV Thursday, Sept. 9, as guest of District Hub King, and Texas Farm Bureau. Then, on the 18, she will participate in the district contest where we hope she will qualify for state participation.

The judges had an extremely tough job, picking three or four of the loveliest from so many comely entries. Clara Jean Jesko, of Lazbuddie was second, Gay Cass, Friona, third, and LaMona Neff, Friona, fourth.

Mrs. Melba Miller and her assistants did a fine job in securing entries and lining them up. Joyce Miller provided some nice entertainment, though because of some back-stage confusion, she didn't have opportunity to present all of it. The stage was attractively decorated by Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. J. Sanders.

Paul Revere, seed analyst, Mr. Roberts, seed and field inspector, and an assistant, Mr. Metcalf of the Lubbock A&M Office, spent a day last week in fields in Parmer County. To you certified seed planters, they give this bit of important advice: Always keep the tags from the sacks of seed you plant until harvest time. This is the only way checks can be made on the source of faulty or impregnated seed when it appears in the field.

Tuesday night, members of the weed committee and County Agent Joe Jones, along with hi-way department oficials, met to discuss methods of curtailing the progress of dotter, a parasite type weed that has made its appearance in the county. It springs from the ground and leaches itself to other plants, deriving its livelihood from them at the expense of domestic plants.

POPPIN' OFF... WITH POP

In the congregation of a church during Sunday morning service was a young bride whose husband was an usher. Becoming terribly worried about having left the roast in the oven, she wrote a note to her husband, sending it to him by another usher.

The latter, thinking it was a note for the pastor, hurried down the aisle and laid it on the pulpit. Stopping abruptly in the middle of his sermon to read the note, the astonished pastor was met with this written injunction: "Please go home and turn off the gas."

Folks, take it real easy when driving through town this week, because school has started. Those little kiddoes may not be as careful as they should, since they're excited over getting to go to school.

Our Appreciation

It is through this means that we have chosen to attempt to say to our wonderful friends, how thankful we are for every act of kindness, large or small, which you have shown us during our grief over the loss of our daughter, Peggy. We know that there have been many, many kind deeds shown us that we have not even been aware of and we want to say that God sees these things and that they have meant so much to us. It is during a trial of this kind that we come to realize how wonderful and kind the people of this and other communities are.

Words cannot express all the things we would like to say, and although we can't understand why she had to go, Our Master knows and it is His love that strengthens us in this hour. May we all pray for the recovery of her classmate, Lavoyda.

God bless all of you.

The Walter Hardage family.

He is spending 8 weeks studying radio controlled airplane target airframe and engine maintenance.

A graduate of the Farwell High School, Private Herington entered into the military service on May 19, 1954.

At Fort Bliss, the Army's Antiaircraft Artillery and Guided Missile Center, thousands of enlisted men and officers are trained each year in the employment of antiaircraft artillery and in guided missiles. These students come from the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps of the United States, as well as from many allied countries.

NEW BULLETIN RELEASED BY EXTENSION SERVICE

College Station—Producers, processors and consumers of turkeys should find the information carried in B-234, Market Demand on Turkeys, of great value. The authors F. Z. Beanblossom and K. F. Schlamb, extension poultry marketing specialists, have outlined and illustrated with pictures the standards of quality for individual dressed and ready to cook turkey carcasses.

They pointed out that the aim of all producers and processors should be to sell turkeys with maximum quality and with as few defects as possible. Consumer satisfaction is more likely when turkeys meet grade A quality requirements, they say.

The bulletin is now available, without cost, from the office of any local county Extension Service agent or by mail from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Stop Taking Harsh Drugs for Constipation

Avoid Intestinal Upset! Get Relief This Gentle Vegetable Laxative Way!

AUSTIN—Texas voters, in record-shattering numbers, went to the polls Saturday and re-elected Governor Allan Shivers for an unprecedented third term.

Shivers claimed more than 53 per cent of the votes, which totaled higher than 1,460,000.

"I want to continue to be the governor of all Texans. I do not only want but I need the cooperation of every Texan who is interested in the future of Texas. We must go forward together and continue the fight for the rights of all the people of our great state.

"This is a great victory, not only for Allan Shivers, but for Texas. My family and I stand tonight with deepest humility and hearts overflowing with gratitude. This gives us a renewed determination for the future.

"I hope that all Texans will join me in a prayer tomorrow for the welfare of our great state and its wonderful people."

In his statement conceding the race to Shivers, Ralph Yarborough commented:

"We fought a hard, clean fight and we lost."

For Conservatives

Shivers' re-election was a triumph for the conservation Democrats as opposed to the liberal-loyalist faction.

Apparently the Shivers group will be in control of the state Democratic party convention, to be held in Mineral Wells September 14.

Essentially, although there were many issues, the campaign was a continuation of the long-running fight between the conservatives and the liberals.

Liberals vowed to defeat Shivers for his support of President Eisenhower as opposed to Adlai Stevenson.

Brewster Re-elected

Associate Justice Few Brewster was returned to the Texas Supreme Court as the result of his run-off race with Alfred M. Scott of Austin.

Drought Aid

Thirty-three additional Texas counties have been named by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson as eligible for federal-state cooperative drought aid.

Naming of the additional number, bringing the eligibility list now to 75, came shortly after state and federal officials announced that "rough spots" in the aid program had been ironed out in a series of conferences.

Counties included in the second eligibility list were okayed after a request by Texas Governor Allan Shivers that they be added.

Officials said that regulations of the program would now be enforced in the manner of last year's aid plan with eligibility of farmers not requiring a controversial pauper's oath or financial statement.

Schools

Texas schools will open to face last year's problem—a shortage of teachers and school rooms.

Research Director E. L. Galyean of the Texas State Teachers Association said that although the state stands 47th in the number of teachers with degrees, "there is an acute shortage of elementary school teachers."

Increases of teachers and classrooms have not been able to keep pace with a rapidly rising state enrollment figure, he said.

Farmers

Central Texas farmers this week completed the election of new committeemen to the ASC committee for Texas.

The committee administers a large part of federal programs for farmers. New community elections were part of a revision of ASC community personnel as drawn up by the U. S. Agriculture Department.

Draft Call

Texas' draft quota for October will be 1,122, State Selective Service Director Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield has announced.

The induction total is the state share of a national 23,000 draft call for the month.

In addition, 2,630 Texans will take first draft steps of physical and mental exams during October.

Mrs. Christian Home from Hospital

Mrs. Bennie Christian, who has been confined to a Clovis hospital, and suffering from polio, was returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Medley, Friday morning.

She is reported to be doing fine, and friends say she has no stiffness or pain. She is to remain at home for at least 10 days to rest and recuperate.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham and Muggins left Tuesday of last week for Denver and other points in Colorado. They reported a wonderful trip and pleasant weather during the week there.

AUSTIN—Texas voters, in record-shattering numbers, went to the polls Saturday and re-elected Governor Allan Shivers for an unprecedented third term.

Shivers claimed more than 53 per cent of the votes, which totaled higher than 1,460,000.

"I want to continue to be the governor of all Texans. I do not only want but I need the cooperation of every Texan who is interested in the future of Texas. We must go forward together and continue the fight for the rights of all the people of our great state.

"This is a great victory, not only for Allan Shivers, but for Texas. My family and I stand tonight with deepest humility and hearts overflowing with gratitude. This gives us a renewed determination for the future.

"I hope that all Texans will join me in a prayer tomorrow for the welfare of our great state and its wonderful people."

In his statement conceding the race to Shivers, Ralph Yarborough commented:

"We fought a hard, clean fight and we lost."

For Conservatives

Shivers' re-election was a triumph for the conservation Democrats as opposed to the liberal-loyalist faction.

Apparently the Shivers group will be in control of the state Democratic party convention, to be held in Mineral Wells September 14.

Essentially, although there were many issues, the campaign was a continuation of the long-running fight between the conservatives and the liberals.

Liberals vowed to defeat Shivers for his support of President Eisenhower as opposed to Adlai Stevenson.

Brewster Re-elected

Associate Justice Few Brewster was returned to the Texas Supreme Court as the result of his run-off race with Alfred M. Scott of Austin.

Drought Aid

Thirty-three additional Texas counties have been named by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson as eligible for federal-state cooperative drought aid.

Naming of the additional number, bringing the eligibility list now to 75, came shortly after state and federal officials announced that "rough spots" in the aid program had been ironed out in a series of conferences.

Counties included in the second eligibility list were okayed after a request by Texas Governor Allan

WHEAT —

this fall is getting off to a pretty decent start. In most instances, planting moisture has been sufficient, except in cases where too much preparation was necessary and the soil dried out.

While farmers' minds are on wheat for a few days, County Agent Joe Jones reminds that now is the time to start making plans for the best possible wheat crop next summer. Most good crops are well planned ones, he says.

The big majority of wheat acreage this year will be dryland production, but irrigation is becoming more accepted for this crop as every season passes.

"Most dryland farmers have learned a long time ago how to get the most out of wheat," says Jones, "but many farmers who are new at raising irrigated wheat have much to learn."

With this thought in mind, he set forth some recommended methods of obtaining good results for wheat grown under irrigation. There will be from 20,000 to 25,000 acres of this in the county next year.

"First of all," says county agent, "we know that there is a great variation in yields of irrigated wheat, indicating that culture has much to do with how successful the operation can be."

Pre-watering in many instances would be advisable this year, followed by a fall or early winter watering later.

Mrs. Christian Home from Hospital

Mrs. Bennie Christian, who has been confined to a Clovis hospital, and suffering from polio, was returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Medley, Friday morning.

She is reported to be doing fine, and friends say she has no stiffness or pain. She is to remain at home for at least 10 days to rest and recuperate.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham and Muggins left Tuesday of last week for Denver and other points in Colorado. They reported a wonderful trip and pleasant weather during the week there.

Farwell Schools Enroll About 450

Enrollment at Farwell Schools jumped past expectations this week, when the term opened Monday, with about 435 students registered, officials say. The above total represents about 300 pupils in grade school and junior high and about 135 enrolled in high school.

The eighth grade took the lead as the class with the largest number of students, with 48 registered there, and the first grade enrolled 36 youngsters.

Registration was completed Monday, and students settled down to another year of instruction. Class organizations had not been completed early this week, and the opening school assembly was postponed until today (Thursday) at 10 o'clock in the morning, and will be in charge of ex-students.

Curriculum for the high school includes the required subjects for graduation: four years of English, two courses in history, math and science. A special course is driver education.

Electives are: agriculture and homemaking, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, band, choir, Music I, and athletics.

Subjects taught by high school faculty members were also released. H. K. Milford teaches general science, chemistry and American history; Mrs. Milford, English; W. M. Roberts, geometry and algebra; Jack Williams, driver education; Mrs. Erma Jobes, music and band; Carroll Cates, football coach and biology; Calvin Murray, athletic director, basketball, algebra and math; Vance Zinn, speech and English; Robert Morton, agriculture; Mrs. Edna Cates, homemaking; and Mrs. Kenneth Fields, commercial subjects.

Leafworms, on the other hand, are something else. Farmers the first of the week who attended the meeting found "a few" leafworms in every field studied.

"If leafworms begin ragging the leaves, get in and do something about it," says Jones. "Keep after these worms until you get all the cotton made that you want, and don't let up until then."

The cotton checkers also reported minor infestations of lygus bugs, and evidence of where they had done some damage in stinging some bolls.

"The cotton picture looks good as a whole," says Jones, with a cautious note of optimism.

depth. "We just don't have as many experienced boys as we would hope to have", he maintains. With the freshmen and sophomores to back up the lettermen, prospects are good. The younger boys will also be members of the B squad, to gain experience. Tommy Lovelace, freshman quarterback, and Douglas Hillock, sophomore guard, were cited as good potentials.

In the pigskin roundup predictions for the coming year, Farwell was picked to be second in the district, with the Bovina Mustangs picked for the first place slot and Plains as third.

Coach Shelby Jobes is assisting Cates this year, and is serving as backfield coach. He will also serve in his regular capacity as junior coach. The Steers are using the split T formation, and are stressing conditioning, defense plays, forward passing, running, line play, punts and punt returns, kick-offs and try for points this week.

Billy Watts, who played a back position last year, has been switched to the end spot, and the coaches think Doyle Ford is looking good as a potential passer. They cited several fair receivers.

Fourteen returning lettermen are working out: H. R. Billingsley, James Roberts, Jerry Poteet, Don Pool, Don Geries, Gene Hardage, Wendell Pike, Robbie Foster, Billy Watts, Truitt Hardage, Troy Christian, Jerry Owens, James Norton and Harvey Lesley.

"The thing that has impressed me most" says Coach Cates, "is the team spirit thus far, and the hustle the boys are exhibiting in practice. The Steers will have a light squad, and the coaches are concentrating on speed.

Football tickets are now on sale for the season, and may also be purchased at the gate Friday night.

A while back the Ellison family got together for a picture, and Mrs. Buck Ellison, who lives north of town, sent The Tribune the picture. ## Enrollment Continues Steady Increase In Friona's Grade and High Schools

Enrollment continued to rise for Friona Schools this year, according to figures released from the office of Supt. Dalton Caffey. As of Monday, 158 students had enrolled in high school, and Principal Dillie Kelley expected "at least twenty more" before school gets underway.

That will mean an increase of about twenty percent in high school enrollment. And an increase of similar proportions is probably due in the grades, too. Enrollment through the eighth grade last year was 609. In 1954, school officials anticipate 650. The grade school students are registering this week, so no accurate figure on actual enrollment will be available until next week, but estimates have proved to be accurate in the past.

Several new faces will be on the campus this year, says Supt. Caffey, some of those being additions due to increases in enrollment; some replace teachers formerly hired.

Included as new additions to the faculty this semester are:

Mary Sheehan, who will teach one of the three sections for the second grade;

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Butler of Oklahoma City, Okla. He will teach health and science, she will teach English, in junior high.

Replacements include Mrs. Steve Bavousett, who will teach one of the three second grade sections (replaces Mrs. Evelyn Thompson);

Miss Viola Leonard, Duncan, Okla., 5th grade (replaces John Hanscomb;

Mrs. Lula Johnson, Oklahoma City, Okla., reading and spelling in junior high (replaces Mrs. John Hanscomb);

Mr. and Mrs. Carl White, Albuquerque. He will teach English in junior high ( replaces H. T. Childers), she, high school English, (replacing John Absher);

Wre Alexander, Denver, math, junior high (replaces Junia Fay Robinson);

And Mrs. Roy Campbell, Byers, Okla., math, junior high (replaces Harrison Cope).

That gives the Friona School system a 34-teacher faculty.

Varsity, "B" Squad Trim for Contests

Work was just getting serious this week for aspirants to Friona football teams, and Coach Raymond Cook has been putting about 25 boys through two-a-day workouts.

Contact training began Saturday, and Cook reported that most of the boys came up stiff, indicating that a lot of training is yet in store before a top-notch outfit can be fielded.

The first game of the season for Friona will be Thursday night (September 9) here when the Farwell "B" gridsters will come up to test the mettle of the Friona "B".

Tentative starting lineup for the Friona team:

C—Bryant Dukes, LG—Joe McLellan, RG—Sterling Prichard, LT—Weldon Tatum, RT— Don McMahan, LE—Leon Massey, RE—Phillip Weatherly, QB—Billy Barker (who now has the mumps, but should be recovered), LG—Allan Neff, RH—Charles Beaton, and FB —Larncin Blake.

The Friona B will run from the single wing T, says Cook.

* * * *

On the varsity side, they open the season the next evening with an old-time rival, Vega. Just what can be expected of the Longhorns this year is problematical, says Cook, but the Chiefs are making every effort to be in shape, and with only minor injuries so far, may be able to do so.

The Longhorns, who didn't suffer heavily from graduation last year, have been picked to win by area forecasters.

The probable starting lineup:

In conference play, which will include Springlake, Sudan, Dimmitt, Amherst, Kress and Happy as foes, Dimmitt has been picked to finish first, and Springlake second. Friona is rated fifth.

in & around FRIONA

While today's shopping emphasis is on modern, shiny, specialized "super market" type retail centers, the old-time "country stores" are still with us, too.

There's F. L. Spring, Friona pioneer, who is still doing a good business with his mercantile, gen'ral store, country store, or whatever you might like to call it.

He says he wasn't cut out for that super market stuff, and certainly makes no bones about his little store, which has a homey, warm atmosphere.

Staple items like sacked tobacco, overalls, work gloves, and molasses fit right into Frank's store just as do highly processed products such as frozen foods, ready-to-bake rolls, and the like.

Old Frank's stock covers a wide, wide line, and there's something on the shelf for every member of the family.

More than the selection, however, it's the management of the business that makes this a shopping point for many of the people who have lived in and around Friona for a long, long time.

There is no tale-swapper that can beat Frank, and he's always got time to jaw with his customers. People don't rush in, buy quickly, and rush out of F. L. Spring's store very often.

More likely, they are prepared to "sit a spell" and exchange some of the latest happenings. That gives Mr. Spring's store an atmosphere that is hard to duplicate.

Frank says that he came here in '26, and that he still has some of his original customers. That's going some, we think.

Then of course, there is the attraction of old-fashioned credit. This means more customers for Frank, but it means more headaches, too. Like the farm hand who recently walked off leaving behind a pretty good sized grocery bill.

Those things do happen, and Frank says it takes quite a bit of selling to catch up with what some of this kind of people do to him.

* * * *

Charlie Turner over at White's is passing out what probably is good advice for any of you people who may be thinking about going into business. He says that the fellows who get parking space for their stores are the fellows who are going to get the business. The time is coming, says Charlie, when people aren't going to shop stores they can't park directly beside, and avoid walking any more than is necessary.

"Young man," she said sternly, "why aren't you at the front?"

"Cause there ain't no milk at that end, missus," was the calm reply.
