Council reviews budget proposal

By LUIS RIOS

The Colorado City Council made two award presentations for outstanding service and for an act of bravery and dedication and also reviewed the City Manager's Budget Proposal for the 1984-85 fiscal year during a meeting Tuesday night.

Volunteer Fire Chief Brian Bassham presented City Manager Rick Crowley with an award of recognition for his work with the volunteer fire department. Crowley announced his resignation effective March 23 to the City Council on March 6. He has taken an administrative position with the city of Rockwall.

Mayor Elmer Martin, on behalf of the City Council, also presented Crowley with the Mayor's Meritorious Award for his service to the city. The council also presented Gary Redwine with an award of recognition for assisting city personnel and actually saving the life of a Colorado City man in an incident in October.

Two committees were assigned by Martin to look into the procedure of hiring a new Police Chief to replace resigning chief Ed Wheat, who announced his resignation earlier last week.

However, the main item of discussion was the City Manager's Proposed Budget Outline to the council.

Under the proposed budget, citizens in Colorado City may possibly be looking at increases in several facets.

The actual general fund budget for 1983-84 was $1,183,606. The proposed budget for 1984-85 is $1,217,350.

The proposed budget asks for a three percent increase in the effective tax rate for ad valorem taxes, a garbage fee increase of $1.50 and 50 cent increase for water and sewer rates and a possible 5½ percent increase in the proposed budget from the actual expenditures from 1983-84.

The proposed budget was presented to the council for their review. The adoption of the proposed budget will be April 9, Crowley said.

There will be several budget hearings-workshops before that time, he added.

The proposed budget will also include for salary increases for city employees, Crowley said.

The increases will include a 10 percent increase for employees making less than $366.40 every two weeks, an eight percent increase

New fire station site topic of joint meeting

City Manager Rick Crowley, Mayor Elmer Martin and Colorado City Volunteer Fire Chief Brian Bassham received a vote of confidence from the CISD Board of Trustees on the proposed building of a fire station on CISD property east of the school administration building during a regular meeting Monday night.

The matter will have to be discussed with the CISD attorneys since the action may require transfer of state-owned property. If the CISD elects to sell the property, the land would have to be put up for bid sale, with stipulations on how the property may be utilized.

Crowley told the board that the city was looking at the possibility of obtaining half of the property between 11th Street and 12th Street and half of the property between the alley and drainage of the property in question.

Crowley also said that the group interested in finding the project had not begun the actual design of the building.

CISD board president S. L. "Mac" Morris called for a called meeting of the board for 7 p.m. Monday for further discussion on salary sche-

Local organizations sponsor fingerprinting

Volunteers from the Community Education Advisory Council and the local Kiwanis Club will be providing a free fingerprinting service to all Mitchell County students beginning today (Thursday).

The fingerprinting sessions will begin in Westbrook March 22 (today). Loraine students will be fingerprinted March 23 (Friday) and students in the CISD will be fingerprinted March 28-30, said CISD superintendent Charlie Uselton.

In the event that a child disappears or is abducted, it is essential that law enforcement officers have a clear and accurate set of fingerprints to assist in the investigation, Uselton said in a letter to parents and guardians of students of the CISD.

The program is on a voluntary basis. The children must have a signed parent or guardian consent statement to participate, Uselton said.

The fingerprints will be turned over to the parents of the students.

The fingerprinting program is a state-wide program, Uselton said. Alot of school districts in the state are using it, he added.

Heading up the volunteer fingerprinting are Lee Woods for the Advisory Council and Tom Lovell for the Kiwanis Club.

MADD organization to be chartered here

By TOM JAY GOSS II

Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) held their third meeting Monday night, and set April 19th for their organizational meeting. This meeting will be held at the Homestate Savings Meeting Room at 7 p.m. Officers will be elected.

MADD was organized in 1981 by a California woman, Candy Lightner, whose thirteen year old daughter was killed by a drunk driver the previous year.

The driver who killed Mrs. Lightner's daughter, was an alcoholic and was given a sentence, that in Mrs. Lightner's opinion, was too light, and worst of all, by September of 1981, he was eligible to drive again.

Mrs. Lightner questioned a system that would return a drunk to the highways, and began work to organize MADD, which was designed to force effective solutions to the drunk-driver problem.

The organization has spread over much of the United States, and several Colorado City women became interested in organizing a chapter. Leslie Perkins is a spokesman for the group and said Monday night that members would seek to educate the community as to how drunk drivers affect our local area and as to how drunks are handled by

Tip to Crime Stoppers reveals stolen recorder

A tip called into the Mitchell County Crime Stoppers resulted in the recovery of a reportedly stolen Panasonic video cassette recorder from the Westbrook school, said Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant.

The video cassette recorder reported stolen to the Sheriff's Department on February 14 was later recovered March 17 at approximately 9:30 p.m., Bryant said.

The recovery came shortly after the Sheriff's Department received the information from Colorado City Police Chief Ed Wheat concerning the Crime Stoppers information, Bryant said.

"The recovered recorder was due to the information furnished by a citizen to Police Chief Ed Wheat," Bryant said. "The recorder was recovered several miles north of Westbrook off the roadway near a bridge."

"No suspects have been named as of yet.

"This type of citizens' response is what is needed for the recovery of (stolen) items that Crime Stoppers needs."

Bryant said the video cassette recorder is expected to be released to the Westbrook school this week.

The Sheriff's Department has no leads and suspects in the other break-in at the Westbrook school where $400 in cash was taken from the school safe, Bryant said.

A man arrested on several outstanding warrants in Wichita Falls is in custody in the Mitchell County jail, said Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant.

Russell Day Hunt, 51, was arrested March 15 by the Wichita Falls Sheriff's Department.

Hunt had several sealed indictments returned against him by a Mitchell County Grand Jury October 21, 1983, Bryant said.

Hunt was arraigned on a sealed indictment charging him with felony theft. Bond was set at $5,000. He was also arraigned on two more charges of felony theft. Bond was set at $5,000 on one charge and $10,000 on the other charge.

Hunt was arraigned for issuance of a bad check (misdemeanor). Bond was set at $200.

Hunt was unable to post bond and he was transported back to Mitchell County March 16, Bryant said.

He is currently in custody in Mitchell County.

"Senior Day" program okayed by LISD board

The Loraine Independent School District Board of Trustees accepted the resignation of coaches B. D. Trice and Jack Petty and also voted to discontinue the annual Senior Trip by the graduating class during a special meeting of the board Monday night.

Loraine High school coaches Trice and Petty submitted their resignations to the board during a meeting February 14 to be effective the last of July. However, the resignations were not accepted at that time. The board accepted the coaches' resignations being effective following the school year, LISD superintendent Glenn Sanders said.

The board also voted to change the senior trip to a Senior Day during the called meeting.

"The Senior Trip in the present form has been cancelled," Sanders said.

The decision to change the trip came after no school sponsors could be secured to go with the students, Sanders said. The students in the past have been accompanied by two school sponsors and two sets of parents, Sanders added.

"A Senior Day will be subject to review by the board every year," Sanders said. "There will be no overnight stays. The activities of the Senior Day will be subject to board approval every year."

The Senior Day for 1984 was approved during the meeting Monday, however, the students must submit a list of activities for the senior trip to the board for approval.

"We have lots of consignments and they're still coming in," Morris said. "We have lots of two row farm equipment and a good selection of hand tools," he added. Morris said he expected more equipment would be brought in this week.

Refreshments will be served at the ag barn.

Barber withdraws from DA race

By TOM JAY GOSS II

Dan L. Barber 42, Colorado City attorney and oilman, announced Tuesday that he is withdrawing from the race for District Attorney of the 32nd district.

His withdrawal will leave Norman Arnett, 57, of Rotan unopposed for the District Attorney's post. However, Barber's name will be on the May 5 Primary ballot.

Governor Mark White has already appointed Arnett to serve for the rest of 1984, which is the unexpired term left by the resignation of Rusty Carroll as district attorney, effective March 19th.

Barber cited "the pressure of personal business" as the reason for his withdrawal. He said he was also preparing to move to Corpus Christi. He declined to comment further on the matter.

Barber joined his father, Dell Barber in the family law practice in 1970 and was later appointed by the Mitchell County Commissioner's Court in 1971 as County Attorney. He has been active in the oil business, farming and the practice of criminal law.

He is married and has two children.

The 1984-85 budget includes one new police officer, but a portion of that officers salary will result from budgeting less money for departmental overtime. The City will apply for a Criminal Justice Grant which might finance another portion of the new salary.

C-City B&PW Club holds regular meeting

The Colorado City Business and Professional Club, Inc. met for the regular business and dinner meeting, Tuesday evening, March 13 at 7 p.m. in the Civic Center.

He stressed that it is a continuing process that each one is a picture of public relations every day and with anyone who comes in contact with it–that we are not to ever be without it. He closed his discussion with a poem relating to his subject matter. He was given a round of applause.

The meeting was called to order by Club President Juanita Schafer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Reports of the Standing Committees were given.

dules for 1984-85, contract renewal for supervisors, principals and directors and the evaluation of teachers and other personnel.

The board also voted to hire Jerold Ray Epperson as a Middle School coach and physical education teacher for the remainder of the 1983-84 school year. The CISD board also approved the specifications for the installation of a central heating and cooling unit of the Middle School kitchen. The board also voted to advertise for bids on the project.

Other items passed were the adoption of textbooks by the textbook committee and the approval of the school calendar for the 1984-85 school year.

Next year's calendar will have some changes, said Uselton.

The CISD will have its Christmas vacation beginning December 20. The CISD let school out December 16 for the 1983-84 year. The new calendar will also allow for two weeks of Christmas vacation.

School will begin August 20 and end May 23 under the new calendar, Uselton said. Graduation will be May 24.

The only concern made evident by one school board member was the time period for the spring break.

law enforcement officers and the courts.

The group will also seek tougher laws as applied to drunk drivers, and tougher enforcement for the laws. Victims will be assisted by advising them of the things they need to do to obtain justice for themselves or those hurt by drunk drivers.

Mrs. Perkins said that the organization must have twenty paid members and must do some research on drunks, drunk driving, their arrests and punishment, before a charter can be granted.

Mrs. Perkins says that anyone interested in MADD's goals are eligible for membership. "Men or women," she says, "Really it's not just mothers anymore, it's everybody."

She says that the group has done the research needed for chapter eligibility and says that what MADD expects of each chapter is a group of knowledgeable people, able to answer questions and to talk to other groups about "how it works here." She says that education as to the evils of driving while intoxicated is "part of the deterrent to drunk driving."

At Monday night's meeting, DPS troopers Jame Burson and Frank Costabile presented a videotaped program made up from news broadcasts showing damage and loss of life caused by drunk drivers.

Mt. Zion to celebrate 100th anniversary

By T. P. FOWLER

Mount Zion Baptist Church will observe its 100th anniversary in a two -day celebration on Saturday, March 24 and Sunday, March 25. Opening services will take place at 8 p.m. on March 24. The grand finale is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, March 25.

The Reverend C. C. Beck of Kansas City, Missouri will deliver the centennial address. The Reverend Beck, who was called to pastor in Colorado City in 1946, served the Mount Zion pastorate for 21 years before he resigned in 1967 to move to Kansas City.

Mount Zion Baptist Church grew out of joint religious services held by members of the Baptist and Methodist faiths in Colorado City. Although these meetings began in 1883, it was early in 1884 when the Reverend C. Curry, a Baptist missionary preacher and church builder of Sherman, Texas, officially organized the congregation in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Dunn.

Mr. Dunn was elected chairman of Mount Zion's first Board of Trustees. Strangely enough, his wife, the former Flora Brooks Keen, a member of the Methodist faith, became a member of the first Board of Trustees elected by the members of Payne Chapel C.M.E. Church, which was also organized in the Dunn home.

Besides Elijah Dunn, the pioneer members of Mount Zion included Anderson Barnes, Robert Halford, Shelby Lisle, Manse and Nellie Pink, Mesdames Lucinda Dunn, Rhoda Dunn, Lula Lane and Lucinda Price; Miss Ardina Smith, who later married Perry Bracy and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cheeks, Mr. and Mrs. William (Turkey) Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill.

During the years from 1884 to 1889, the Mount Zion congregation was served by several itinerant preachers, including the Reverends C. Curry, James Allen and C. N. Pryor, who visited the congregation periodically and ministered to the needs of the members. Services were held in various homes, including the Dunn home, and other suitable places.

In 1888, the Mount Zion congregation purchased a tract of land which was located on East Front Street east of Lone Wolf Creek and south of the T&P Railroad. Plans were then made to erect a church building on the site.

According to a certificate printed in April 1889, the corner stone of Mount Zion's first building was laid on March 4, 1889. The erection of the building began on that date, and on April 14, 1889, the congregation entered the new church and listened to a "Thanksgiving Sermon" by Reverend C. Curry. The building was completed at a cost of $583.18, all of which was raised through contributions by the 22 members of the congregation, and by white and black residents of Colorado City.

In 1925, floods and flood threats involving Lone Wolf Creek caused the Reverend E. M. Clemmons and the Mount Zion congregation to seek higher ground and move to a location on Erie Street. In 1964, under the leadership of the Reverend C. C. Beck, the church was relocated in a new structure at 1404 College Street, which is the present site.

Available records and sources indicate that the Reverend James Allen was the pastor during much of 1889 and for the first six or seven months of 1890. He was succeeded by C. N. Pryor, who was also the teacher in the Negro school for several years. Following Reverend Pryor was Reverend F. H. Tribue. Then came Reverend Burgess and Reverend Skylark, who directed the destinies of Mount Zion until Reverend Miles Jenkins was called as pastor after the turn of the century.

After Reverend Jenkins came the following ministers, who are listed in chronological order: Reverends Quinon Burton, E. M. Clemmons, A. C. Doanes, J. S. Burton, S. Y. Nixson, S. R. Roberts, Nolan McCarter, A. W. Willis, C. C. Beck, Richard C. Hamilton, F. N. Nelson, A. L. Phea, Richard C. Hamilton (who returned in 1979), and Earl Shelton, who is the present pastor.

Since September, 1981 when the Reverend Shelton was called as pastor, the Mount Zion Church has continued to progress by steadily improving and expanding its services and facilities.

Local citizens tour Mexico

Margaret Brame and Billie Ruth Tartt from Loraine with Polly Hanson from Weslaco toured Mexico with the Sanborn Tours last week.

They departed from McAllen and cleared customs in Reynosa. A short time later they heard a loud noise which turned out to be the rubber tread peeling off one of the huge bus tires. The bus driver, Steferino, had a hard time changing the tire. This took an hour. Our next stop was in Cuidad, Victoria. Taking a short cut through the Sierra Madres, we next visited San Luis Potosi, a Colonial City, where we spent the first night.

We went sight seeing here the next morning, then drove to queretaro, a beautiful city with 400 year old aqueducts, which they still use. We arrived in Mexico City Sunday evening in time to get tickets to the Ballet Folclorics National of Mexico. This was really great. We stayed in the beautiful Del Prado hotel which has a huge mural of Mexican history painted by Diego Pinera, the famous Mexican artist.

The next day we drove out to the Silver, Taxco. The cobbled streets were so narrow and steep that we had to take taxis to get downtown to see the magnificent Santa Prisca Cathedral.

The next day the group drove to see the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe and out to the ancient Paramids of sun and moon. The next day we started toward home through San Miguel de Allende which was once the art center of Mexico. We spent the night in Matehuala and stopped the next day in Santa Rosa Canyon to view the huge mural carved into the cliffs of the mountain side. Finally we came out of the very foreign country of pesos, burros, bougainvillas, thatched roofs, oxen, beautiful cathedrals, many, many people, rocks, tourista, interesting cities, and manana by crossing the Rio Grande into Texas.

On Friday the Loraine ladies drove with Polly Hanson through the valley down to Port Isabel and on to South Padre Island where they ate sea food at the Getty Restaurant. The valley is still suffering badly because of the freeze that cruelly damaged all of the citrus trees and palms this winter. The Loraine people returned home Saturday.

Latimer speaks at B&PW meeting

Mrs. Rita Latimer of Colorado City was speaker when the Loraine B&PW Club held their March meeting in the Loraine Lions Club Monday night.

Hostesses for the meeting were Fielda Blair and Marsha Rickard.

Mrs. Latimer told of her life in Cuba before coming to the U.S. in 1962 when she was 14 years old. She and her brothers landed in Florida and stayed with friends until their parents joined them nine months later. She spoke of the awful life in Cuba under the rule of Castro. At one time her father was arrested and was in prison three months. The children were abused and the parents were helpless to do anything to shield them from the dictator.

How great it was she said to get to the United States. The family went west and settled in Abilene and her parents, both teachers, taught in Hardin-Simmons University and McMurry College there.

During the business session, the club voted to make a sign for "The Loraine Lions Club."

Ten members and one visitor were present.

KEY TO COUNTIES

County map to aid emergency services

By TOM JAY GOSS II

Emergency services in Mitchell County have a new tool to help them find people with problems. City folks can call for an ambulance and give their street and house number and the driver will be knocking on the door in three minutes.

Up until now, rural people have not had a similar locator. A new county map, prepared by Commissioner Paul Boyd Hunter, will help. It will obviously need the cooperation of the rural resident in knowing where he is on the map as well as a willingness by the involved service to check that location on the map.

The map has lines drawn at one mile intervals from east to west and north to south across the county. The lines from north to south are identified by letters of the alphabet. The other lines are numbered.

All of the roads in the county are numbered. The first number in the three figures making up the road number is the precinct the road is in. County bridges are numbered and the capacity in tonnage is given. For example, two bridges in the county are listed at "zero tons" and are safe for passenger cars only.

As an example, the knowledge contained in the map could be used in this way: Suppose, grandma falls and breaks her hip--you call the hospital, all excited, and say, "Grandma fell out of a tree and can you come and get her? Please hurry!" The ambulance dispatcher says, "We'll be right there; where do you live?" and you say, "On Rabbit Hollow, northwest of town." You hang up, and tell grandma the ambulance will be there in a minute. Meanwhile, back at the hospital, the dispatcher is scurrying frantically, trying to find someone who knows where Rabbit Hollow is. You take the story from here.

However, if you knew that you were between grids 7 and 8 and M. and N, the driver can look on his map (which he has) and sees that Highway 1229 splits that grid and he knows that he can get there from here. Maybe not in three minutes,but not much more than that.

Paul Hunter suggests that you find your grids and put those figures in the front of your telephone book.

The map is available at the county clerk's office for $1.50 or they will probably let you look at one for free. A map will be on display on a billboard in the courthouse. A copy of this map is on page

Hunter says that the map should benefit all emergency services, such as the ambulance service, sheriff's department, rural fire department as well as rural carriers, school bus drivers and oil people.

Ray Mason, supervisor of the Ambulance Service says, "This map, prepared by Mr. Hunter, is an extremely important map, and can be utilized by the ambulance service."

L. O. Schaffer, Fire Marshall and ambulance driver, said, "We need one, it's got to be useful to the fire department. The thing is, anyone can take this, whether he knows anything about the rural roads or not, and can find the location of the fire."

"I think it will be helpful," says Sheriff Wendell Bryant. "The thing is, that people will have to get used to using it. We hire so many young people who don't have any idea where the Old Brown road is.

"If rural people can tell them their grid coordinates, we wouldn't have any problem in finding them. On the other hand, we have a lot of people who know their location as "The Old Brown Road" and it's going to be hard for them to learn a new way of locating themselves."

All the experts agree that this map won't solve all the problems, but everybody thinks that it can help.

Piland leads golf team in Ozona

By TONY FRANCO

Led by Jay Piland's 18 hole total of 74, the Colorado High School golf team shot a 358 at Ozona's district tournament last Saturday.

Piland, a junior at CHS, shot a 37 for the first nine holes then repeated the score for his total.

Piland's score was the lowest of the tournament and put him in the lead for the district's medalist honors.

Ozona's Diran Halt and Crane's Trey Morgan finished second and third respectively with totals of 77 and 80.

The Golden Cranes won the meet with a team total of 329--followed by Ozona's 330, Sonora 349, Colorado City 358 and Coahoma 399.

Other individual scores for the Wolves were Kevin McLean's 44-90, Jardy Powell's 46-93, Blake Bingham's 49-101 and Gary White's nine and 18 hole total of 60-109.

Also competing at Ozona were Blaine Lemons, who shot a 51-105, Marty Davila 62-123 and Lonnie Clary 57-111.

"We've got to get down to 320-325," said golf coach Walter Staats. "We can do it, but we just didn't play very well."

Staats went on to explain that, unlike prior years, the district champion will be determined by accumulating the scores of the five district tournaments hosted by each district team.

Before, the district champion was determined by one district meet held just before regional.

Lone Wolf Relays

Track meet Saturday

By TONY FRANCO

The Colorado City Wolves, who have their own Lone Wolf Relays scheduled for Saturday, captured the Ozona Relays last Friday with 96½ points to 93 for Eldorado.

Dennis Rivera provided the Pack's lone first place finish by taking the 300 meter intermediate hurdles in a time of 41.25. In the 110 meter high hurdles Rivera added a second place finish with a 15.62 clocking.

Wolf sprinters Kevin Norman and Joey Ritchey finished second and third in the 100 meter dash with respective times of 11.34 and 11.39.

Jay Claxton and Wylie Dakan, running in the 1600 meter run, also placed second and third respectively with times of 4:43.42 and 4:55.5.

The 400 meter relay team of Larry Hamilton, Norman, Perry Conner and Ritchey ran a 44.4, good for third place.

Ritchey gave the Wolves another third place finish with a 23.51 clocking in the 200 meter dash.

Charles Iglehart, running in the longest race possible–the 3200 meter run, finished second with a time of 10:57.8.

Junior Don Randle ran a 2:03.79 in the 200 meter dash to add another third place for the Wolves.

Fred Dakan had the best showing in the field events by taking third place in the shot put with a heave of 47'.

With a clocking of 3:31.72, the 1600 meter relay team of Norman, Donny Davenport, Conner and Randle placed fourth.

Randle and Armando Rivera finished fifth and sixth respectively with equal high jumps of 5'10".

A. Rivera added another sixth place finish by pole vaulting an even 11'.

Johnny Rivera threw the discus 117'1" to finish in sixth place.

In the Lone Wolf Relays this coming Saturday, there will be three divisions–varsity boys, varsity girls and junior varsity boys.

Entered in the varsity boys division are Coahoma, Slaton, Post, Brownfield, Loraine and host Colorado City.

Kermit, Post, Bronte, Slaton, Loraine and Colorado City will compete in the varsity girls division.

Competing in the junior varsity boys division will be Post, Slaton, Coahoma, Brownfield, Spur and Colorado City.

The First National Bank and Chamber of Commerce will help with this year's Lone Wolf Relays.

Upon arrival, out-of-town coaches will again be treated with coffee and doughnuts as provided by the Chamber of Commerce.

Later in the day the First National Bank will provide workers with a barbeque dinner.

"It takes many local citizens to help put on a good track meet," said track coach Rick Robinson. "Each year we have volunteers that time, judge, announce, oversee field events and much more."

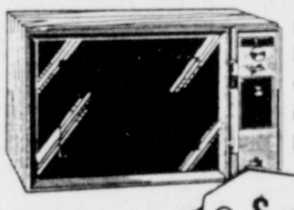

The scratch meeting is scheduled for 8 a.m., field events begin at 9 a.m., running preliminaries at 9:30 a.m. and running finals at 2:30 p.m.

The public is invited and urged to attend the Lone Wolf Relays.

News from...

Root Valley Fair Lodge

By PAM JARNAGIN

Root Valley Fair Lodge would like to take this time to express our feeling or irreplaceable loss at the passing our volunteer with more years of service to Root Lodge than any other volunteer, Mrs. Mary Lee Moore.

When Mary Lee came through the front door, everyone knew it. She began to gather the residents for their coffee clutch. She was free, clear and liberal with her advise, ideas and ready to back them up with any type help you might need.

Any need was a challenge. She was not deterred until the need had been met.

She would be the first to tell you she could not walk on water, but she could and would wade or swim, depending on what the situation called for.

Mary Lee was an individual with the rare gift of knowing her own mind and making you like it. Her unique way of expressing herself could bring a smile or laugh to any person, whether they were mad, sad, or indifferent.

She was what is known as a colorful character and had the ingredients legends are made of. The good deeds she did for the poor, down and out, up and out and all in between, known and unknown are too numerous to mention or conceive.

We at Root Lodge, want you to know Mary Lee is missed and cannot be replaced.

CHS competing in contest

Colorado High School will be competing in the District 6AAA One-Act Play Contest today (Thursday) at the Angelo State University campus in San Angelo.

The performance time for the CHS play is 3:30 p.m. in the Administration Building Auditorium.

The plays is "The Unknown Soldier," by Warren Frost. It is set in Rural Pennsylvania during the Civil War; the year is 1863 shortly after the battle of Gettysburg.

"The Unknown Soldier" was performed as the United States entry in the International Theatre Festival of 1975 that was held in Monte Carlo.

The director of the CHS production, Carl Beery Moore, noted, "This play is powerful in the area of character development. These have been some challenging people for our students to portray. The author's liberal politics in his 'anti-war' statement are not as important as the people he has created to make the statement. I am very pleased with the work our actors have done to bring this group of unusual individuals to life."

The curtain opens on the living room of Lucas and Jesse Foley, played by Oren Upton and Yvonne Lujan. Soon, the Foley's are joined by a "tough old broad" named Edna, played by Barbara Heredia; and another couple, Bert and Cora Miter, played by Kerry Wright and Raye Leigh Marion.

The atmosphere around this group of people is tense, awkward and deeply strange. They are apprehensive about the arrival of a young Corporal in the Union Army, played by John Mayo.

Upon his arrival, the characters reveal the reason for their tension and sadness. They become suspect as the plot makes an unusual turn that leads to a startling ending.

Moore's assistant director is Melanie Rees who will also operate the music and lights during performances. Backstage sound effects are accomplished through the work of Paul Marion and Andrew Pineda. The alternates for the production are Staci Wood and Carrmon Longley.

"The whole company of 'The Unknown Soldier' is excited and ready for the competition," Moore said, "so we would like to see as many home-folks in San Angelo as we can to watch our show."

CowBelles begin fund raising project

"Beef Feeds the Hungry" is the title of the American National CowBelles promotion as part of the National Ag Week March 16-22, according to Sarah Childs, ANCB Ag Day Chairman.

Funds collected will be presented in the form of Beef Gift Certificates to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy persons.

In 1983, the first year of this project a total of $11,400 in Beef Gift Certificates was presented to Col. Murray of the Salvation Army in Washington, D.C.

The 1984 goal is a $3 contribution from each CowBelle or any other person wishing to support the program and all monies are to be channeled through state CowBelle organizations and then to ANCB headquarters in Denver by March 31.

College night set at CHS

Colorado High School will be sponsoring a College Night for juniors and seniors and their parents at 7 p.m. on March 27 (Tuesday evening).

This is in the form of a college and career orientation program. It is an hour long presentation designed to inform juniors and seniors about how to choose a college or career, how to get into their chosen college, how to get financial assistance, if necessary and many other useful hints.

The program is presented by representatives from Howard College in Big Spring; however, they do not push Howard College. They try to inform students on the decisions that need to be made soon about college and career.

The program normally has three speakers, including a counselor and a financial aid person. All interested persons are urged to attend this very informative session.
