Brother Admits Quarry Slaying Of Youth, Girl

LOREN TRUESDALE CONFESSES KILLING BROTHER AND SWEETHEART WITH HAMMER; JEALOUSY IS GIVEN AS THE MOTIVE IN DOUBLE MURDER

(By The Associated Press)

LIMA, O., Sept. 2—One of the most baffling crimes in Ohio history, the "quarry murders" of Earl Truesdale, 20, and his sweetheart Thelma Woods, 19, was solved today, police said, by the alleged confession of Loren Ellsworth Truesdale, Earl's 23-year-old brother.

The elder brother was arrested by private detectives last night and gave the alleged confession, officers said, in the presence of his mother and father. Jealousy caused by rivalry in love was described as the motive.

Bodies In Quarry

The younger Truesdale and Miss Woods were slain the evening of Memorial day, 1931. Their bodies, weighted with stones, were found several days later in an abandoned water-filled stone quarry at the outskirts of this city.

Loren's confession, the officers said, told of meeting Earl and Miss Woods in downtown Lima the night of the crime. They bought some liquor, the confession said, and then drove to the quarry.

There, the brothers argued about the girl and Loren got a hammer and struck Earl on the head. "He had taken several girls away from me," Loren was quoted as explaining.

Leaving the younger brother dying, Loren returned to the girl, and when he told her what he had done she threatened to report him. The confession said he then struck her with the hammer, and attempted to conceal the killings by sinking the bodies in the quarry.

MAYOR TO ASK VINDICATION AT POLLS

ROOSEVELT ASSAILED BY JIMMY; McKEE IS SUCCESSOR

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—James J. Walker is mayor no longer—and the bitter words of his "au revoir" rang through the political world today.

Looking like a wraith of the former sparkling "Jimmie," the man who rose from Greenwich Village obscurity to world notice handed in his resignation last night while Governor Roosevelt prepared to call him again today for another session of his long hearing on removal charges. Joseph V. McKee president of the board of aldermen, automatically became mayor.

Flays Roosevelt

Almost as sensational as his abrupt resignation and his more-than-a-hint that he would seek vindication by running again was the Tammany mayor's undisguised assault on the manner in which Gov. Roosevelt, national leader of the Democratic party, conducted his hearing.

"Un-American" — "extraordinary inquisition" — "travesty" — "mock trial" — "perversion of the executive power" — "studiously unfair" — "biased judge" — were some of the phrases that studded the statement he gave out on his resignation.

He announced the purpose of his resignation was to "change the venue."

"I can change it to the supreme authority, the people themselves," he said. "I can change the place of trial so as to take it away from a biased judge acting illegally and in an avowed usurpation of power, with a personal interest in the outcome that disqualifies him as a matter of common decency from acting as a judge in the matter."

Governor Silent

"Nothing at all to say," was Gov. Roosevelt's only comment last night. But from Samuel Seabury, counsel for the Hofstadter legislative investigating committee which dug up

HEARING ENDED

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 2 (AP)—Governor Roosevelt formally and officially ended the sensational Walker ouster hearing today before a gallery of his legal advisers, reporters and a few surprised tourists who had wandered into the "hall of governors."

MOVE BLOCKED IN HOUSE BY OPPONENTS

PARLIAMENTARY RULES INVOKED TO DELAY CONSIDERATION

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 2.—Clamor for an investigation of alleged law violations and irregularities in the Democratic primaries of July and August spread to both houses of the Texas legislature today.

Parliamentary law was invoked in the house to preclude consideration of a resolution proposing an investigation by that body of alleged law violations and irregularities in the primaries.

Efforts Blocked

When Representative J. C. Duvall of Tarrant county sought to have an investigation resolution, presented to the house, members refused to suspend a rule to permit it to be read and considered. The time for consideration of resolutions had expired.

It would have required a two-thirds vote to suspend the rule. The members voted 69 to 49 to suspend.

Representative Duvall gave notice that the resolution would be presented on the next legislative day.

The resolution proposed a thorough inquiry into "charges that illegal practices were indulged in prior to and during the primary elections held in Texas during July and August."

Anticipating the resolution and hoping for an interesting debate, such as occurred in the senate yesterday on a similar proposal, the galleries had filled with spectators.

Initial efforts to start a legislative inquiry of the close race between Governor R. S. Sterling and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson were commenced in the senate yesterday.

Debate Bitter

The proposal to create a committee of nine senators to make a broad, thorough investigation stirred the upper house to an all-day debate that increased in bitterness as it progressed.

The senate state affairs committee later recommended that the resolution proposing the inquiry be adopted by the senate. It was to come to the floor for final consideration later.

Opponents of the senate investigation gained temporary advantage this morning when they mustered sufficient strength to prevent the senate from taking up the resolution immediately.

The house refused to concur in a

DALLAS, Sept. 2, (AP)—The controversy over the Democratic gubernatorial nomination became more involved today when Ferguson forces moved to prevent any steps being taken toward an official tabulation of results of the run-off primary until the state executive committee assembles at Lubbock Sept. 12, the day before the party's state convention.

SUCCEEDS JIMMY WALKER AS MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY

With the resignation last night of Mayor James J. Walker of New York City, Joseph V. McKee, below, president of the board of aldermen, automatically became mayor. McKee, a Tammanyite and former school teacher, will hold office until the next mayoralty election. He is shown in various poses beneath a panorama of lower New York.

County Vote To Be Tabulated Saturday

NO CONTEST SEEN IN LUBBOCK PRIMARY ELECTION VOTES

Lubbock county's official vote will be tabulated by the Democratic executive committee in session Saturday morning beginning at 10 o'clock in the courthouse.

Leaders in the runoff primary campaign here of Ross S. Sterling and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, candidates for governor, said today they doubted there had been an appreciable amount of irregularity in voting and that they did not anticipate any contest of this county's vote in the gubernatorial race in last week's election.

The statements were made by Geo. R. Bean, an official of the South Plains Good Government league, which sponsored Sterling's campaign, and by Hill Stewart, chairman of the Ferguson-for-Governor club here.

Each man said, however, that should the candidate he supported in the race decide to contest this county's vote that full cooperation would be given locally to the effort.

I don't think there has been any appreciable number of illegal votes cast in Lubbock county," Mr. Bean said. "If there are any such votes, I want them cut out, regardless of for whom they were cast."

Chairman J. K. Wester of the Democratic party in Lubbock will be in charge of the canvass Saturday. He has announced that actual ballots will not be checked, but that poll lists and tallysheets will be compared.

This county gave Sterling a majority of 766 votes, according to the unofficial count.

Gray-Haired Texas Woman Takes Hike

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—A gray-haired grandmotherly woman of 64 from Texas is among the latest hitch-hiking visitors to the nation's capital.

The broad blocks separating Washington's points of interest did not weary Mrs. Jane Yates of Fort Worth as she set about sight-seeing today, for not only had she come on foot—spelled by a few rides, of course—all the way from home, but had made the trip by way of Niagara Falls and New York.

Mrs. Yates says she is without funds.

She is planning to walk back to Texas.

FUNDS WILL BE PUT TO WORK

BILLIONS ARE TO AID NEW CONSTRUCTION AND AGRICULTURE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2—Ways for putting some more of its billions immediately to work in two huge industries—construction and agriculture—were today's chief concern of the reconstruction corporation.

Maximum employment was the yardstick announced for corporation financing of self-liquidating construction projects. Harvey C. Couch, director in charge of this loan field created by the relief act, added that the corporation meant the most work in the shortest possible time.

Projects Studied

With this objective, it is analyzing 194 proposed projects and Couch said the first of the self-liquidating advances may be expected next week. The proposed Belt Line bridge at New Orleans, estimated to give three years work to 8,500 men, is receiving particular attention.

For agriculture's assistance the corporation is speeding plans for getting eight credit corporations into operation. Ford Hovey of South Omaha, Nebraska, yesterday was named to direct these functions.

A man who refused to identify himself was found at the same hotel earlier in the day with a critical gunshot wound in the chest. He was not expected to live.

Rebels Surrender In Ecuador Fight

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 2. (AP)—Loyalist troops forced the surrender of the last contingent of rebels against the government today and Alberto Guerrero Martinez, president of the senate, was installed as acting president of the republic.

Senor Martinez occupied the presidential chair for a time in 1934, during the illness of President Cordova. He has been active in politics many years and on at least one occasion was arrested by the ruling powers on charges of plotting their downfall.

PAMPA CAFE MAN SHOT TO DEATH

PAMPA, Sept. 2 (AP)—Bullet wounds suffered in a shooting in front of a cafe here last night caused the death today of John Cluge, 40, proprietor of the cafe.

Henry Carmichael, a bystander, was wounded in the arm by a stray bullet.

After the shooting W. H. Mann, a carpenter, surrendered to officers. County Attorney Sherman White said he would file a murder charge against Mann.

A disagreement of comparatively trivial nature precipitated the shooting, officers were told.

Rubio Again Denies He Will Quit Post

MEXICO CITY, Sept. (AP)—Another denial that President Pascual Ortiz Rubio would resign or ask congress to give him a leave of absence was published today within a few hours after the 35th congress was convened.

Only a few days ago the president denied he had resigned, and insisted his relations with Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, Mexico's strong man, were cordial.

JAPAN DRAFTS NEW TREATY

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Sept. 2.—Japan will undertake the internal and external defense of the new Manchurian state, Manchukuo, under the terms of a basic treaty to be signed between the two governments before Sept. 15.

This was revealed today by the foreign office, which announced there were no "secret clauses" in the document. The pact will give Japan right to station troops throughout Henry Pu Yi's state and a military convention will be signed later covering that phase of relations.

The agreement will provide a defensive alliance between the governments and a guarantee of mutual respect for territorial sovereignty. It will be submitted to the principal foreign powers in advance.

Defense Move Made In Slaying Trial

First defense move in court in behalf of Hugh Walker, Jess Covington and B. L. (Barber John) Richardson, charged with murder, was made Thursday with the filing of motions to require the state to furnish a list of prosecution witnesses and their "known whereabouts."

Separate motions were filed by the attorneys, Robert J. Allen, Ben Kucera, and W. F. Schenck. The motions, it was said today, probably would be acted upon by Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court when the regular term opens Monday. At the same time the state is expected to file application for special venires in the cases.

Walker, Covington and Richardson were indicted for murder in connection with the shooting to death of Frank V. (Leather Hat) Brown at Woodrow May 30.

POSTAL TOTAL SHOWS GAIN

AUGUST RECEIPTS IN LUBBOCK ARE ABOVE SAME 1931 MONTH

Lubbock postal receipts for last month were $1,363.06 more than for August of 1931, Postmaster John L. Vaughan said today.

The total for the past month was $781.92 more than July's receipts, although last year August showed a considerable loss as compared with the previous month.

Receipts in August totaled $9,336.03 as compared to $7,972.97 for the same period in 1931. The turn in postal receipts began in July when that month gave $8,554.11 in comparison to $8,306.14 for the previous July.

Mr. Vaughan attributed the advance both to the three-cent stamp for letters and for a small increase in volume, noticeable in advertising material.

Yesterday there were 300 or 400 pickets here, but this morning only 150 remained and the situation was described as quiet.

EAGLE PASS IS FLOODED BY OVERFLOW

RESIDENTS EVACUATE AS BUSINESS AREA IS INUNDATED

(By The Associated Press)

Flood waters of the Rio Grande and its raging southwest Texas tributaries surged toward the Gulf of Mexico today, inundating towns and washing out bridges, railroad tracks and highways.

Unusually heavy rains on the watershed of the normally well-behaved border river were responsible. Precipitation in some sections exceeded ten inches, while practically the entire area had more than four inches in the past three days.

Old settlers could not remember when the river had been higher.

Bridge Damaged

At Del Rio the international bridge leading across to the Mexican city of Villa Acuna was damaged badly. Two-thirds of the $150,000 structure was washed away. The bridge was built three years ago.

An iron bridge over Devils river, which was in flood, was carried away, disrupting highway traffic to the west. Five miles of the Southern Pacific railroad track west of Del Rio was out.

A surging yellow torrent overflowed the banks of the Rio Grande at Eagle Pass, inundating a large part of the American city and the Mexican city across the stream, Piedras Negras.

Residents of both cities were fleeing to high ground with their belongings. Merchants of Eagle Pass strove desperately to move their goods before they were ruined by water.

Buildings Crumble

Several two- story buildings in Eagle Pass tumbled down as their foundations crumbled. In low-lying residence sections of Piedras Negras adobe house gave away and fell in ruins.

The Rio Grande had risen to within a foot of the floor of the new million dollar highway bridge linking the border cities. Debris was crashing against its railing.

A railroad bridge one mile downstream was under water and it was feared that it might be washed

FRANCE STUDIES GERMAN DEMANDS

PARIS, Sept. 2. (AP)—Confirmation that France will consult not only co-signatories of the treaty of Versailles regarding Germany's armaments memorandum, but also the American government was furnished today in official quarters.

It was explained that the essential juridical reason for American consultation is that military, naval and air clauses contained in the Versailles treaty which the United States never ratified are embodied in the separate peace treaty which the United States negotiated with Germany in 1921. America drives all rights and advantages emanating from that part of the Versailles document.

After denying a report that the cabinet yesterday had rejected the German memorandum, an official spokesman said France would examine the German initiative in complete collaboration with other powers, including the United States.

Increased Rainfall Feature Of August

August was characterized by increased precipitation and humidity, by decreased evaporation and wind run, and by normal temperatures.

Precipitation was 1.08 inch more than the normal of 2.07 inches, bringing the excess for the year to 4.24 inches, or to a total of 16.79 inches, the state experiment station reported.

Maximum temperature for the year, 102 degrees, was registered in August. The minimum last month was 53 degrees, and the mean temperature was 77.3 degrees. Eighteen days were clear, nine partly cloudy, and four were cloudy.

ALCOHOL HELPFUL IN TREATMENT OF SOME DISEASES, HARMFUL IN OTHERS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 2—Alcohol has been found beneficial in treating some diseases but injurious in others by Dr. Harold E. Himwich and Dr. Louis H. Nahum of the Yale medical school.

Results of their study showing that alcohol increases the acidity of the blood to points formerly believed incompatible with life were made public today here and at Rome, where Dr. Himwich read a paper at the international congress of the federation of societies for experimental biology.

In diseases such as tetany, where the blood contains an abnormal amount of alkaline substances, the scientists determined the acidosis of alcohol acts as a neutralizing agent.

Small doses of alcohol were found to be helpful in treating diabetes, for they counteract the effects of partially oxidized fatty acids.

On the other hand, the research showed administration of alcohol to pneumonia patients delays recovery by increasing acidosis.

The "hangover" following intoxication they concluded, is caused by the accumulation and persistence of lactic acid in the blood. This substance, which does not disappear as quickly as the alcohol, also is found after strenuous physical exercise and is believed responsible for a feeling of fatigue after hard work.

ITALIAN YOUTH PROVES SENSATION WITH UPSIDE DOWN STUNTS AT RACES

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2.—An Italian youth with a smile as wholesome as Lindbergh's is the stunting sensation of the National air races.

He is Lieut. Andrea Zotti, whose stunts begin, end, or are wholly made up of maneuvers with his plane upside down.

In his native country the 25-year-old lieutenant, who has been flying for only four years, is commander of the Escadrille Folle, a squadron that specializes in inverted aerial acrobatics.

Taking off in normal fashion, he soon turns the wheels towards the sky and, hanging head downward, waves to the air races spectators as he begins a series of wide circles around the field.

His skill makes the maneuver look simple but, in his own words, "the most difficult thing I do is to go around the field upside down."

Next hardest, he classed, is the inverted spin—one of the most dangerous maneuvers in aviation stunting.

The favorite with the crowd, however, is a vertical "S". Flying upside down, he begins at the bottom of the letter, pulls the plane up so he is on the outside of a half-loop, then completes the upper part of the S by executing the half of an inside loop which leaves the plane at the end as in the beginning of the stunt, on its back.

THREE AMERICAN SERVICE AVIATORS TELL OF RESCUE BY MARINES AFTER LEAP FROM PLANE IN JUNGLE STORM

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sept. 2 (AP)—Three American service fliers today revealed how they jumped from their plane in the darkness of a jungle storm and reached safety because of a tenacious search by fellow marines, two of whom lost their lives in the quest.

They were Lieut. Clovis C. Coffman of San Antonio, Tex., Sergt W. E. Scofield and Corporal R. R. Townsend, who crashed 60 miles from Bluefields in the Sequia district Aug. 21. With them in another plane at the time was Lieut. Arthur F. Bunney of Grand Rapids, Mich., the flier who reported their plight.

Two Fliers Killed

The three rescued men have just arrived here and expressed sorrow to learn that Lieut. R. P. Rutledge, Fustus, Mo., and Sergeant O. B Simmons, Hamilton, O., had lost their lives in a crash while seeking to aid them in the jungle.

Lieutenant Coffman said his and Lieutenant Bunney's plane were flying patrol and became separated in thickening weather. Suddenly visibility vanished entirely, and Coffman was forced to fly blind. The winds of a storm forced him into a spin, he "over-pulled" trying to come out and went into another.

"I figured the soup was too thick to pull out again before a crash," Coffman said, "so I signalled to Scofield and Townsend to bail out. I followed and Scofield came down near me. My 'chute caught on a limb, and I hung about 30 feet above the ground. Before Scofield could get to me, the limb broke and I was temporarily knocked out.

Found Other Flier

"When I revived, we covered about five miles through the jungle hunting Townsend, but darkness interrupted. Scofield piled up leaves over the two of us to keep out the rain. We slept through that horrible night as best we could, only to find Townsend sleeping within 100 yards of us at daylight.

"We started to make a raft and try to float down the nearest river, but soon we heard the roar of a motor. The plane we soon saw was flying around the spot where we left our 'chutes, so we made signal flags of our underwear, and attracted its attention.

"From then on life was fairly easy, with ships dropping supplies, and guiding a land patrol to us. It was nine days before the patrol got through, but those marines made it and brought us back to safety."

PEACE REIGNS IN STRIKE

GOVERNORS ASKED TO HELP BATTLE FOR HIGHER PRICES

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 2 (AP)—Peace reigned along all fronts of the now suspended farm strike today while leaders of the movement sought gubernatorial aid to further their fight for higher produce prices.

Proclamations from the governors of Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota, calling on farmers to withhold their produce from the market, were suggested to the executives of the affected states by Woodbury county members of the Farmers' Holiday association who offered to withdraw their pickets from the highways if such action is taken.

The suggestion was made to Milo Reno, head of the holiday association, in a telegram, copies of which were sent to the governors. Reno approved of the idea and said the gubernatorial proclamations and withdrawal of pickets "would do a lot to prepare for the conference of governors of midwest states Sept. 9."

The governors' conference which is scheduled to be held in Sioux City, Ia., will seek means to settle differences between farmers and produce buyers over prices and bring the holiday movement to a conclusion. To date Governors Turner of Iowa, White of Ohio, Olson of Minnesota and Shafer of North Dakota have indicated they will attend or be represented at the meeting.

The strike situation was quiet last night with the exception of one arrest at Omaha in connection with picketing activities.

College Farm Will Offer Employment

CANYON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The West Texas State Teachers' college farm located on the site of the old T-Anchor ranch will employ 25 college boys beginning September 20 when the fall session of the college opens. The young men under the supervision of Professor T. M. Moore, of the agricultural department, do all of the work of the farm which is maintained as a laboratory for the department.

Among the young men chosen from among more than 100 applicants are George S. Gandy, Plainview; Ronald Davis, Bovina, and Cagle Teague, of Childress. All have been workers on the farm before.

WASHINGTON—The latest human disease plague to yield to science's probing is typhus fever, Surgeon General H. S. Cumming, of the U. S. Public Health Service, has announced a typhus serum composed of fleas ground up to form the basis of the vaccine. It has been used with satisfactory results in guinea pigs infected with the fever.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE NEW FINANCING PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The treasury department is expected to announce early next week a big refinancing program variously estimated from $1,000,000,000 to $1,400,000,000.

The operation is made necessary through the maturing September 15 of two short term obligations totalling $712,504,500; possible requirement of $250,000,000 for the reconstruction corporation; a possible $200,000,000 for the optional public construction program in the relief act; $100,000,000 for general expenses, and probably $125,000,000 for the home loan bank system.

What nature the re-financing will take cannot be ascertained at the treasury. Secretary Mills is slated to return to Washington from New York Labor day to make known the plans. But it was reported in some quarters the operation would be a combination of long term and short term financing.

At present, the general fund deficit is $395,981,000 and the balance $343,380,000.

Meanwhile the treasury has received the first semi-annual repayment to the federal land bank revolving fund. It amounted to $100,880 and came from 10 of the 12 banks in the system.

The fund grows out of the $125,000,000 emergency capital stock subscription congress authorized in January to enable the banks to further assist farm loan associations in granting loans to farm buyers.

It reflects a $403,520 stock subscription by national farm loan associations and amounts to five per cent of the total loans they have made through the system from Jan. 1 to June 30.

Under the farm loan act, 25 per cent of the stock subscriptions from the farm loan associations goes toward retiring government owned stock. As the government is repaid, the money goes into a revolving fund from which the 12 banks may draw.

Dock Business At Beaumont Is Good

BEAUMONT, Sept. 2 (AP)—Activities at Beaumont municipal docks are reminiscent of former boom days. A check revealed 200 cars of freight were on hand for loading into holds of 10 vessels in port.

One hundred and 27 cars contained lumber; two cotton; one carbon black, two rice and 21 feed. Others had miscellaneous cargoes. This check does not include many carloads of timber pushed off railroad cars into the Neches river to await arrival of steamers.

The cargoes are destined to ports in northern and southern Europe, the West Indies, and the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards of the United States.

Sings And Flies

CLEVELAND, O. — Jimmie Haizlip, transcontinental speed king, can sing as well as go places in a hurry. "You should hear him in the bath tub," said his wife. "He sings beautifully."

Easy To Name

NEW YORK—Keepers didn't have to think long before finding a name for a 15-pound baby yak born at Central park zoo during the eclipse yesterday. They promptly named him "Clipsie."

No More Secrets

SYDNEY, Australia—Perhaps the moral of this is: Wives shouldn't hold out on their husbands. A Ballarat man lit a cheerful grate fire as a favor to his wife, who was out shopping. When she returned she screamed. She had been using the grate as a savings bank and 25 pounds she had put aside for a fur coat had gone up the chimney.

"Dark Dog Days"

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—Eclipse day was "dark dog day" to old-time southern negroes. The title apparently originated from eclipses during "dog days." Old negroes say it means bad luck and "folks should stay in the house all day."

Take No Chances

DANNEMORA, N. Y.—Clinton prison officials figured some of the convicts might take advantage of the astronomical stir and depart. So every inmate went into eclipse in a locked cell while the moon was gnawing away at the sun.

Negro Baptists To Meet At Houston

HOUSTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—Negro Baptists will meet in national convention here from Sept. 7 to 12, W. M. Jenkins, editor of the Christian Union Herald and president of the National Bible congress, has announced.

Five thousand delegates, representing most of the states of the nation, will be here, he said. Some 150 negro churches in Houston and nearby will make arrangements for housing the visitors.

NEW YORK MAN WEDS 7501ST TIME; ALL BUT LAST ONE WERE ALL IN FUN

Hal Shubert as he married for the 750st time . . . Marguerite Wegely is the bride. The Rev. Wilber T. Clemens is the pastor.

By NEA Service

NEW YORK—The title of world's champion bridegroom has been bestowed upon Hal Shubert, who was married here the other day for the 7501st time.

Though not one of Shubert's matrimonial ventures has ended in divorce, he isn't a bigamist. And though he has been wed as often as twice a day, he believes marriages should be "permanent" and intends that his most recent one shall be so.

That is because all of Shubert's 7500 other marriages were staged while he was filling the star role of Abie in the famous long-run play, "Abie's Irish Rose," and his marriage to Miss Marguerite Wegley, and actress, was theonly real one.

Despite his wide experience as a bridegroom, Shubert went through several rehearsals of his oft-repeated "I do" before the ceremony was held.

The bride, formerly of Pittsburgh, is a former stock company ingenue who has retired from the stage.

DEFEAT LAID TO MISINTERPRETED CAMPAIGN TALK

AUSTIN, Sept. 3. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Moore of Texas City, defeated for renomination to the Texas legislature after two terms' service, feels she was denied her place again through a misunderstanding.

She was disappointed, she said, because she wanted to hang up a legislative record that would discourage those who criticize women as unfit to help with the making of laws.

"I shall be a candidate two years from now, hopeful that I may yet realize my ambition of proving women can be level-headed in politics and not swayed by emotions and prejudices," she said.

Mrs. Moore attributed her defeat to misinterpretation of a statement she made the day before the primary.

"I told a group that I was against the Eighteenth amendment," she said. "That statement was distorted and misinterpreted. Word was spread that I had said I was against repeal of the Eighteenth amendment. We did not learn about the misunderstanding until after the polls closed."

"B. C." Relieves Your Headache In 3 Minutes

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B. C.," 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B. C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quiting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. CHAPMAN FACES "GREEN SETUP OF FOOTBALL POSSIBILITIES"

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Gus Moreland, the Texas boy who is making good on the big city links, has already shown the boys up who failed to name him on the Walker Cup team as it was originally announced. They gave him little consideration after he won the Trans-Mississippi, but their hand was called when he won that semi-final match in the recent Western Amateur.

As if to scare the lad, they matched Gus and his partner against the toughest amateurs England could send over for the Walker Cup series yesterday. You read the results this a. m., or you should have. The Americans made a clean sweep of the "doubles" matches yesterday. They play the singles today, and again Gus draws a tough customer. He's one lad who is not easily frightened. City lights and tall towers fail to impress him, and England's best amateurs are just as many more country golfers to him.

Pop Boone, in his Palaver in the Ft. Worth Press, laments the fact that Fort Worth let Moreland slip away to Dallas. Gus tried to attend T. C. U., and Pop was supposed to get him a job. That is, Pop was on the job-finding committee, or sumpin', and Pop fell down on the job. Gus went to Dallas and S. M. U. Pop, however, gives the lad credit for what he's done and goes so far as to say that Moreland's winning ability at golf will bring Dallas and S. M. U. more publicity than a championship football or baseball team. He's not far wrong, at that. It might not have been the case a few years ago, but golf has made such an encroachment upon the public's mind and time that a leader gets more applause than formerly was the case.

Speaking of golf and golfers John Edmisson, the City Open champion, returned a day or two ago from a cross-country drive of about five thousand miles which carried him near the center of big time golf and big time courses. Up and down the Pacific coast he saw some pretty fair layouts, and realized an ambition to play over the famed Pebble Beach links. His score was—, well, we won't mention the score, but it wouldn't have won a caddy tournament in Lubbock. Fed four good balls to fish in the Pacific ocean, he said, but otherwise had a good time.

The Westerners got started yesterday. There was quite a gang of them out at the junior high school practice field. Forty-two. And more to come. Pinkey Lowrey dished out 48 uniforms. Some of the boys were unable to work out yesterday, and there were several who had not drawn uniforms. The squad probably will be well above fifty by the time school starts next week. Of this number, about 30 will be retained on the Westerner squad. The rest will pass into the hands of Swede McMurry. Cowhand coach.

Swede got home day before yesterday after a summer near Kerrville where he directs a boys' training camp. He and Mrs. Swede and John McMurry III were out house-hunting yesterday. This department hasn't shaken the hand of the newest member of the family, but judging from Swede's descriptions, the lad is bound for a big league football career. He has a voice, arms, legs and torso that, although only a few months old, establishes his right to consideration for a place on the 1948 ball club.

We felt a little better about the high school football situation after looking at the boys go through the initial practice yesterday. You never can tell what will happen in a football season. We're not playing the boys up as title contenders before we see how they react to pressure, but they won't lie down and be trampled upon by anybody's ball club.

There will be some new faces in Westerner colors this fall, and some of them may make the grade. Rufus Ryan came down from Amarillo last year and looked good in spring training. He gets by the transfer rule because he did not help represent Amarillo High in football. He's a strong candidate for the quarterback position, and Burl Huffman, backfield coach, thinks he's got it.

A fellow by the name of Snodgrass, Hugh Snodgrass, enters Lubbock High from Monroe. He is eligible because Lubbock is the nearest Class A school to Monroe. He hasn't had much football experience, if any, but he's pretty big and you who have seen county basketball tournaments know he's an athlete.

G. B. Wimberley didn't play football at Littlefield, but he had a brother who made our all-district Class B team year before last. He's big and tough looking, and is out for a tackle position.

RAW MATERIAL OFFERED IN ABUNDANCE

HIGH - SPIRITED GRID ASPIRANTS ANSWER WESTERNER CALL

Weldon B. Chapman, coach of Lubbock High school's Westerners, looked over the practice field where forty-two uniformed boys were trying to do things with a pigskin, and remarked as follows:

"The greenest setup of football possibilities I ever saw. Plenty of raw material, and some of it looks good already, but it's very raw. A few brains mixed here and there, though, among those kids. The leaders will show themselves before long, and maybe their knowledge and ability and eagerness will permeate the rest of the club."

Tackles Job

A weaker coach might have been disheartened by what he said on the Junior High school practice field yesterday when the first division of the Westerner football squad, which inherits the District 1 and District 2 football championships, but Chapman hung aboard and grimly set about the business of whipping the lads into shape.

If most of the boys were new to the game, if they didn't know how to get down in formations, if they never played a game of football in their lives, they were high-spirited and eager at yesterday's session.

As early as eight o'clock yesterday morning the doors to the high school gymnasium and dressing rooms were crowded with candidates come to receive football clothes. E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic business manager of Lubbock High, dished out football pants, jersies, shoes, shoulder pads, head gear and other accessories until after noon. The boys were ordered to the first practice at 2:30 o'clock on the junior high school campus.

Running around the gridiron, a series of setting up exercises, a bit of passing and a few fundamental signal drills constituted the first workout. Coach Chapman delivered a brief address by way of introducing the season and the plans outlined for practice and playing.

The Westerners probably will take it easy for the first few weeks. With the playing season delayed until October 1, by interscholastic league ruling, there is danger of growing stale in practice. The coaches will seek to prevent this by instituting a varied practice program, not too stiff and not too easy.

Move To Fair Park

By the first of next week, perhaps, the squad will move to its training quarters at Fair Park. Just now the dressing rooms are being repainted and repaired, and the football field itself is in a state of repair. Workmen promise to have the field and the clubhouse ready for use next week.

Those lads reporting for the first workout yesterday afternoon were as follows:

Dalton Blagg, O'Dell Blackwell, Robert Stone, Alton Hankins, Lewis Speer, Wayman Newton and Sterling Cone, ends; Louis Spear, George Janes, Harold Gaines, Edgar Doherty, Charles Rice and G. B. Wimberley, tackles; Hugh Newton, Robert Hale, Bob Vaught and Frank Duncan, guards; Chester McCarty, Howard Bain and John Henry Scoggin, centers; Rufus Ryan, Joe Nelson and Arthur Bradshaw, quarterbacks; Bill Davidson, Tol Terrell, Rayburn Hale, Sam Bradley, Weldon Hall and Maurice Snyder, halfbacks; Robert Godeke and Truman Hutson, fullbacks, and Dudley Adams, Wayne Prather, Billy Dykes, Phillips, James Hunt, Jack Quinlan, Ed Simmons, Claudie Paulger, Jetton Meador, Lad Schropshire, Haws Hyatt, Charles Calhoun, Sumner Reed, Chester Harris, Frank Atcheson, B. H. Turner, Kenneth Butts, E. C. Blythe, Hugh Snodgrass and Calloway Gamel.

DON AND WOOD TO VIE FOR HONORS

DETROIT, Sept. 2. (AP)—The two fleetest hydroplanes afloat were receiving their final grooming today for the renewal of the Harmsworth trophy race shortly after sunrise tomorrow.

Kaye Don, British challenger for the symbol of speedboat supremacy, was in seclusion while last minute adjustments were made to Miss England III, holder of the world record of 119.89 miles an hour and the craft with which Don hopes to take the trophy "back home."

Gar Wood, who has weathered six previous challenges since he brought the plaque to America in 1920, hoped to make his first run over the new Lake St. Clair course with Miss America X during the day.

No one doubts that, barring misfortune, the Harmsworth record of 89.913 miles per hour established in the first heat last year by Don in Miss England II, will be shattered by the speedier boats, racing over a faster course.

Don estimates the maximum speed his 4,400 horsepower craft can produce with the fuel available at around 117 miles an hour.

Czar Alexander I of Russia brought up the question of disarmament before nations as early as 1816.

Americans Lead British Golfers

WALKER CUP PLAYERS LACK THREE POINTS OF ANOTHER WIN

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP)—The well-blended American Walker Cup team lacked early today but three points for its seventh consecutive victory over Great Britain's greatest amateur golfers. It had eight chances to obtain a winning margin in the 36-hole singles matches at the Country club.

The Britons, who have not been successful in this international play since it was inaugurated in 1922 suffered their most humiliating setback of the series in yesterday's 36-hole Scotch foursomes.

Although Francis Ouimet, National Amateur titlist and team captain, was experimenting with new blood, he and his men completely routed the challengers.

George Voigt and Jess Sweetser, the lead-off pair, drubbed the Hartley brothers, Rex and Lister, 7 and 6, and Ouimet, who combined with young George T. Dunlap, jr., of New York, was equally effective against John Stout and John Burke, the long-hitting Anglo-Irish pair.

Even the outstanding British combination of Captain Tony Torrance and John DeForest, the current British champion, were swept back by the rush made by the American recruits, Gus Moreland of Dallas and Charley Seaver of Los Angeles, for a 6 and 5 victory.

The closest shave the American team received was the 5 and 4 victory turned in by Don Moe of Portland, Oregon, and Billy Howell of Richmond, over Eric McRuvie and Eric Fiddian.

SENATORS WIN OVER YANKS

WASHINGTON MAY BE ONLY CLUB TO WIN SEASON SERIES

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

To the Washington Senators may fall the honor of being the only club in the circuit able to take the season's series from the New York Yankees, heirs-apparent to the American league throne.

The Yankees already have clinched the 22-game series with Cleveland. Detroit, St. Louis, Chicago and Boston and can get no worse than a tie with Philadelphia. But with 20 games already in the records, they have gained no better than a draw with Washington at 10 victories apiece. Single games today and tomorrow will give the Senators a chance to win the series.

Crowder Downs Yanks

Washington won its tenth decision over the Yankees yesterday 6-2. Alvin Crowder gave up only five hits until one was out in the ninth. Then he handed walks to Ben Chapman and Lyn Lary. A pinch single by Charley Ruffing sent one run over and a fielder's choice accounted for the other. The Senators meanwhile had hit Herb Pennock and Ed Wells at opportune moments.

In the only other major league game, the Athletics nosed out Detroit, 5-4. Al Simmons and Bing Miller clouted home runs off Tom Bridges in the sixth frame, each time with a man on base, to provide the winning margin.

BEAUMONT AND DALLAS FACE REAL TEST

CRUCIAL SERIES MAY DETERMINE SECOND HALF TITLE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The most crucial series of the season was on the Texas league schedule today, bringing together the league leading Beaumont Exporters and the second place Dallas Steers in a four-game series that promised to determine the second half championship. The Steers invaded Beaumont one game behind. A doubleheader was scheduled today, a single game tomorrow and the same Sunday.

The Exporters prepared for the Dallas invasion by testing their defense yesterday in beating Fort Worth, 12 to 1.

The big guns of the league leaders clouted fourteen hits behind the four-hit pitching of Jelly Collier to smother the Cats.

Steers Beat Buffs

Dallas gained confidence for the Beaumont series by beating Houston, 5 to 4. Brilliant relief hurling by Oscar Fuhr, venerable southpaw, kept the Steers within one game of Beaumont. Fuhr relieved Minogue with the tying run on base and none out.

Izzy Goldstein, Schoolboy Rowe and Sandy Herring were available for Beaumont pitching duty today. George Murray and Hal McKain were probable pitchers for Dallas.

In the only other game yesterday, Galveston beat Longview, 6 to 3. Lefty Darrow turned in his fourteenth win this season.

San Antonio and Tyler were rained out.

AUTOS ARE SAFE

CHICAGO, Ill.—Almost never are people in autos struck by lightning, according to the National Safety Council. The reason is that a driver, because of the car's body, is completely surrounded by electricity conducting metal. In addition, wet rubber tires provide an electrical connection to the ground. Autos are safer, therefore, even though, like all objects that rise above the ground level, they may attract lightning.

QUARTER-FINALS REACHED TODAY IN TURBULENT PROFESSIONAL TOURNEY; DEFENDING CHAMP WINS HIS MATCH

ST. PAUL, Sept. 2. (AP)—The turbulent struggle for the National Professional golf championship boomed over the quarter-final front today with the defending titleholder, a trio of noted contenders and a brigade of dark-horses fighting on.

Tom Creavy of Albany, N. Y., was in the big scrap after a great comeback in his second round match against Johnny Perelli, San Francisco putting genius, and with him were Olin Dutra of Santa Monica, Calif., big Ed Dudley of Wilmington, Del., and wee Bobby Cruickshank of New York.

Frank Walsh of Chicago was there, too, but was classed among the long shots because of his absence from strenuous competition because of a serious accident last winter. Grouped with him were Herman Barron, Port Chester, N. Y., Al Collins of Kansas City, who felled Johnny Golden of Noroton, Conn., in yesterday's classic upset, and Ralph Stonehouse of Indianapolis, foe of the champion in today's quarter-final battle over 36 holes.

AMAGE TO CROPS IS EARED IF WEATHER DOES NOT CLEAR

louds in this vicinity were clear- partially at noon today, but re was no positive assurance t the siege of rain of this week s broken. During mid-morning a zzle of rain fell here.

eports from all sections of the ith Plains indicated cotton pro- ers were expecting boll worm in- tation if clouds and rain contin- . Precipitation this morning was orted at Spur. Rainfall here ursday totaled .57 of an inch, the periment substation reported.

Reports Received

Meadow, Ropesville and Brown- ld reported half an inch for past 24 hours up to late yes- day; O'Donnell, Slaton and Ta- ka had about as much, with the ritory between Slaton and Sweet- ter having from an inch and a if to two inches for the previous hours, the Santa Fe reported. yder reported one and three- arters inches and Sweetwater a two inch rain.

North and west there was almost rain reported by the railroad. Ralls, Crosbyton and Lorenzo re- rted light showers up to a quar- of an inch. Lockney and Sea- aves had showers.

Trouble Expected

Cotton men are expecting serious uble if weather conditions do not n into clearer skies and warmer ather. Boll worms and other in- t pests have been reported, but serious trouble so far has been orded. However, the menace of ol weather with no sun is said be a boll worm breeder.

Lubbock during August received 5 inches of rain. Of this 1.34 fell last three or four days. Scat- ed showers in the first part of month did little good to cotton, was said.

Normal August rainfall is 2.07 hes. The excess for 1932 was 8 inches or over 50 per cent above rmal.

hate resolution fixing the pay of islators during the special session ried at $8 per day. The house pre- usly had proposed that the $10 nstitutional maximum per diem be epted. The resolution now will go free conference.

"Steal" Is Charged

The bitterness of the gubernatorial e was reflected yesterday in the ended argument on the resolu- n, climaxed by the charge by nator Archie Parr of Benavides, eran South Texas political lead- that the resolution was "a heme of the Humble and Texas companies to steal the election." The latest unofficial returns to Texas Election Bureau showed s. Miriam A. Ferguson leading vernor Sterling by approximately 00 votes. Senator Walter Wood- rd of Coleman who offered the vestigation resolution, said he be- ved that when the facts were de- oped Mrs. Ferguson would not be titled to the Democratic nomina- n.

Senator Tom DeBerry of Bogata rged the senate not to authorize h an investigation.

Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galves- joined with Senator Woodward charging that thousands of il- al votes were cast in the primary. charged specifically that votes re cast in the East Texas oil area persons who were residents of lahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and her states. He said he and Gov- nor Sterling had received letters egging that thousands of votes re cast illegally.

"We've got the spots where fraud s been practiced," he declared.

Senator Will Martin of Hillsboro, opponent of the resolution, rged that the "cohorts of Gov- nor Sterling were calling on the tate to appropriate the state's oney to carry on an election con- t for Governor Sterling. He said believed there were not more an 12 illegal votes cast in his dis- ct and that none of these were purpose."

Sees "Ma's" Defeat

Woodward enclosing his argument the resolution, said that "my nion is that the committee can llect enough information in a week at the state Democratic executive mmittee won't name Mrs. Miriam Ferguson as the nominee." The ecutive committee will meet at bbock September 12.

The legislature finally laid aside raneous matters and knuckled wn to consideration of emergency tters submitted to it by Gover- r R. S. Sterling.

Both houses recessed to permit mmittees to consider bills design- to carry out the governor's rec- mendations that the state high- y fund assume outstanding bonds ued by counties and road districts build roads now a part of the te system; permit insurance and lding and loan concerns to partic- te in the benefits offered by the eral home loan banks, and pro- als to otherwise relieve taxpayers economic burdens.

Hearings were set for this after- on before groups in both houses. The senate already had passed a remitting interest and penalties delinquent taxes provided they e paid on or before Dec. 31, 1932.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—Cotton futures opened very steady, 23-28 higher in response to firmer Liverpool cables and crop complaints from Texas.

Southern selling and realizing was readily absorbed, while buying was stimulated by a private report placing the indicated crop at 10,775,000 bales. This, combined with fears of insect damage following the rains in western and central belt sections, brought in covering or re-buying by recent sellers and by the end of the first half hour December was up to 8.82 with the general list showing net advances of about 40 to 43 points.

Liverpool cables attributed the advance there to covering and continental buying, but said business in cotton goods was becoming more difficult with more mills closing in Manchester. A report from Dallas said rains in the western late cotton territory of Texas would most likely increase insects in the areas which hitherto have had best crop prospects and which are beginning to show appreciable damage from weevils and boll worms.

The early advance met considerable realizing and some southerly selling but offerings were absorbed on reactions of 10 to 12 points and the market held fairy steady later in the morning. December contracts after selling off from 8.82 to 8.71, were ruling around 8.75 at midday or about 36 points net higher. Another private report was published placing the condition at 56.6 and the indicated yield at 11,098,000 bales.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2 (AP)—Cotton opened firm and active today. Liverpool cables came in 21 to 23 penny points better than due which was equivalent to 23 to 24 points which was not a full response to the strength of Liverpool. The market eased off 7 points right after the start on realizing but soon rallied again owing to much rain in the belt and to a rumor that a prominent private authority estimated the crop at only 10,779,000 bales. October traded as high as 8.80 and December at 8.78 or 25 to 36 points above yesterday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was firm at the highs and seemed to be trending upward.

Following the activity of the first hour, the market became somewhat quieter but continued very steady, supported by bullish private crop estimates and much rain in the eastern belt. Early in the second hour October advanced to 8.83 and December to 8.80 or 38 points above yesterday's close. Near mid-session prices eased off 3 to 5 points from the top on some realizing but the undertone continued very steady. Two private crop estimates were issued, one of 10,778,000 bales and the other of 11,098,000 bales. Both were considered bullish.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—Upturns in stocks and cotton and advances in wheat prices at Liverpool gave Chicago grains an upward trend at the start today. "NEAR-SIGHTED" CLUB MEMBERS THANKLESS LOT

Receiving membership payments in the "near-sighted" club is a thankless task. Ask Randolph Rampy, day desk sergeant at the police station.

"Thank you, madam," Rampy told a Lubbock matron yesterday as she paid $2 for running over a "stop" sign.

"Well, I'll say you're not welcome," was the retort as she folded the receipt and slipped it into her purse. The woman was one of about 30 who joined the club Thursday.

Educate Motorists—Ticket writing is the popular out-of-door sport for traffic officers who find motorists running stop signs, etc. Yesterday more than 30 such tickets had been written. Some women were among the violators. Officers stated they were anticipating considerable work in educating persons to come to a full stop at a sign.

Teachers to Meet—Lubbock public school teachers are to attend an annual meeting at the senior high school auditorium at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Supt. M. H. Duncan said today.

Mr. Duncan went to Plainview to speak at the opening of the public school system's fall term there this morning.

Enrollment Extended—Because of inclement weather this week, students may enroll at senior high school during regular hours Monday and Tuesday, Principal R. W. Matthews said today. Registration was to have ended this afternoon. Enrollment this morning exceeded 900, the principal said. He had anticipated a registration of about 1,000 by tonight.

Drunks Charged—Three men, arrested and charged with drunkenness Thursday night, were released on their own recognizance to appear later, it was said at the police station today.

Jail Doors Open—For the first time in nearly a month and a half the doors of city jail swung wide open this morning. The jail was tenantless, but if police followed an announced intention of arresting a large number of persons who have failed to pay fines the cells will be filled again by late today.

Raincoat Stolen—Theft of a raincoat from an automobile at 2514 Twenty-First street was reported last night to police.

Clovis Boy Held—A 15-year-old Clovis, N. M., boy whom officers said was "tough" was in county jail today in connection with an attempt made Thursday night to cash a $5 check at a drug store here. The check, signed by the boy, was said to be worthless.

Wilson Returns—Vaughn E. Wilson, county attorney, was in his office this morning after a vacation spent at Corpus Christi and Rock Port. The county attorney, Mrs. Wilson, and their family returned Thursday. Excellent fishing was reported by Wilson.

WALKER RESIGNS

the material on which the unfitness charges were based, came this statement:

"The charges against the mayor were fully proved and corroborated in many instances by documentary evidence which was undisputed, and by the admissions of the mayor.

"The mayor's resignation in the face of this record is equivalent to a confession of guilt."

Seabury has charged that Russell T. Sherwood, accountant, handled nearly a million dollars in transactions for the mayor before vanishing. Walker denies the charges.

The mayor, who has become pale and ill, spent part of his last day in office at the funeral of his brother, George F. Walker, in St. Patrick's cathedral. His frail shoulders shook and tears streamed down his cheeks.

Walker submitted his resignation after conferences with political leaders reported to include John F. Curry, leader of Tammany Hall, and John H. McCooey, Democratic leader in Brooklyn.

Vallees Agree On Formal Separation

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—Hyman Bushel, attorney for both Rudy Vallee and Mrs. Fay Webb Vallee, announced today that the Vallees had concluded a formal agreement of separation.

"Mr. and Mrs. Vallee have concluded a formal agreement of separation," he said, "and have adjusted without the unnecessary unpleasantness frequently attendant upon a situation of that kind and to their mutual satisfaction their future right and obligations.

"A a lawyer I am not at liberty to disclose the terms of their agreement, and although I do not say that no such course will be adopted, no proceedings have been instituted to bring about a complete dissolution of their marriage."

West Texas Judges Take Up Problems

AMARILLO, Sept. 2 (AP)—West Texas county judges and commissioners considered further problems of taxing and finance at their semi-annual convention here today.

Yesterday the association wired members of the state legislature to urge speedy enactment at the present special session of measures by which the state would assume county and road district highway bonds. County tax levies must be fixed Sept. 12. About 150 delegates were here from 46 counties.

TEXAS FLOOD

away.

The Eagle Pass power and water plant was partially submerged. Officials said the city probably would be deprived of its normal supply of drinking water for several days.

A report from Del Rio told of many ranch houses on the banks of the Rio Grande and its two main tributaries in that section, the Devils and Pecos rivers, being washed downstream. Both tributaries drain vast areas of the rain-soaked cattle and sheep country.

Many head of drowned cattle and sheep were seen floating down the streams.

The stream plant of the Central Power and Light company at the mouth of Devils river, on the Rio Grande, was damaged extensively.

The plant was erected three years ago at a cost of $1,500,000 and has been used to generate electric power.

Seven employes of the plant were trapped on its roof and forced to remain there all of last night. They were rescued this morning.

Most of the plant was wrecked as flood waters poured through it, but the seven men clung to the roof until rescued. Parts of the building fell but machinery was not shifted. A number of cottages around the plant were swept away.

Residents of the Laredo section were warned to prepare for high water when the flood's crest reaches there. The Rio Grande already had risen to a dangerous stage at Laredo but it was expected to go higher.

Mexican and American government officials were moving records out of their buildings at the international bridge. A flood ten years ago caused considerable damage to official records and every precaution was being taken to avoid a repetition of the loss.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. Shipp of Belton, who have been visiting in Slaton, visited Miss Nanny Marie Cook here Friday.

There are nickelodeons again in Springfield, Mo., One movie house has announced a "5 and 10" admission scale.

MOSES PREDICTS HOOVER VICTORY

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—A prediction President Hoover will be re-elected "after a hard fight," and by a majority of at least 22 electoral college votes, was made last night by Senator George H. Moses, New Hampshire Republican.

He expressed an expectation a smaller total vote would be cast this year than in 1928.

"We've figured that the Hoover-Curtis ticket will get an irreducable minimum of 288 electoral votes, 22 more than a majority.

In 1928 Mr. Hoover received 444 votes, to 87 for "Al" Smith.

Senator Felix Hebert, eastern campaign manager, announced Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the late president, and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, wife of the late New Jersey senator, have accepted posts on the women's advisory committee.

39,884 Americans Visited In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 2 (AP)—A total of 39,884 American tourists visited Mexican interior points last year, the department of interior reported to congress today, excluding many thousands who came from border cities without need for entry cards.

A total of 11,512 foreigners emigrated from Mexico last year, and 7,819 Mexicans left for permanent residence abroad. Forty foreigners were expelled for various reasons.

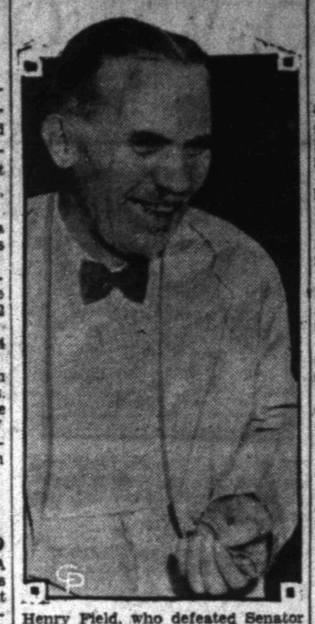

The department prohibited the exhibition of four motion pictures which were considered defamatory to Mexico. They were "Broken Wing", "The Dove," "My Sin," and "Girl of the Rio."

FALLS UNDER TRAIN

DALLAS, Sept. 2 (AP)—J. C. Seigfried, 34, of Dalhart, fell beneath the wheels of a freight train he was trying to board in the railroad yards here early today. His left foot was badly mangled.

Brookhart's Foe

Henry Field, who defeated Senator Smith W. Brookhart for the Republican flomination to the United States senate in Iowa, arrives in Chicago in a happy mood to tell newspapermen just how he managed it. Field continued on to Washington to attend the Hoover notification ceremony.

Hatcher Will Vote For Col. Thompson

DALLAS, Sept. 2 (AP)—W. Gregory Hatcher of Dallas, who unofficial returns from Saturday's run-off primary showed ran behind Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo in the race for a four year term on the railroad commission, said today he would vote for his opponent in the general election if the report of the Democratic executive committee showed Thompson leading and no fraud is uncovered.

Tea leaves are plucked from a plant every seven or eight days.

WIDOW FREED OF KILLING HUSBAND

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—Amid the soprano cheers of an unruly courtroom audience, Dorothy Pollak won her freedom Thursday from blame for the killing of her husband.

Judge Harry M. Fisher accepted her story that despite Joe Pollak's threats and beatings and unfaithfulness, she loved him, then shot him dead as he rushed at her, knife in hand.

"The law of self defense," Judge Fisher said, "is the law of nature and the right of every human being."

The comely widow, pale, bewildered, slumped in her chair as a chorus of cheers rose from the feminine audience. The crowd followed Mrs. Pollak into the jury room, swarming about her and showering kisses.

"The first thing I am going to do is to see Joe", she said. "I am going to his grave tomorrow. I still love him. I feel badly about what I did."

Tropical Storm Is Broken Up Today

MERIDIAN, Miss., Sept. 2 (AP)—The tropical storm that blew out of the Bahamas to menace Florida and the Gulf coast for nearly a week had broken up today into squalls and gusty rains.

Three deaths and superficial property damage were counted against the disturbance as its force was dissipated yesterday over eastern Mississippi and surrounding territory.

Thought For Today

The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.—Job 20:27.

* * *

By the very constitution of our nature evil is its own curse.—Chalmers.

Criticism And Money

Mrs. Eddie Cone of Chicago went to a night club one evening and didn't like the music. Thereupon she achieved a career.

Mrs. Conne told her husband she could compose a better song than the one the orchestra was playing. She wrote it on the back of a menu card, took it to a song publisher and presently the song was a hit. Mrs. Conne, who writes music under a pen name, now has several hits to her credit. Telling the story of that first attempt at musical composition the other day she said: "I'm glad the music in that night club was so bad."

Probably plenty of other people have been annoyed by the sounds of blatant orchestras. Probably also though they had tried to write something better they would not have found publishers. Mrs. Conne, however, had the courage of her convictions. How many men and women, convinced they can do something as well or better than their neighbors, fail to put their convictions to the test? They bemoan others' failures. They criticise, but they don't set to work.

Mrs. Conne did—and has been rewarded. There's a lesson in that for those who would write songs or "build a better mouse trap."

A Benefit

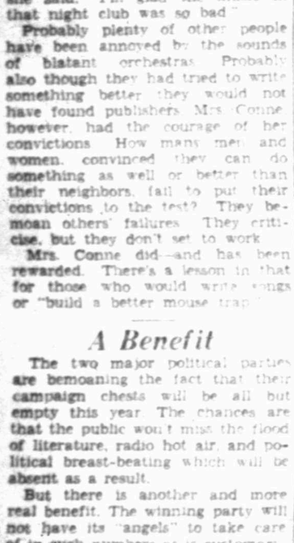

The two major political parties are bemoaning the fact that their campaign chests will be all but empty this year. The chances are that the public won't miss the flood of literature, radio hot air, and political breast-beating which will be absent as a result.

But there is another and more real benefit. The winning party will not have its "angels" to take care of in such numbers as is customary.

With the donors of $100,000 checks reduced to ranks the chances of getting men really qualified for public places will materially improve.

People are not quite so much interested in what the governors of the Carolinas once said to each other as they are in what the governor of New York said to the mayor of New York.

Flapper Fanny

People who fail to lead blameless lives have only themselves to blame.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says even when she buys the most expensive silk hose, sometimes she only gets a run for her money.

A woman dreads nothing more than the possibility of her first love turning out to be her last.

NO LESS than a dozen times in the past ten days have inquisitive souls inquired of The Plainsman: "What kind of a man is this fellow Knapp who has come out here to be president of Tech?"

And no less than a dozen times has The Plainsman been forced to admit that he had never even seen Doctor Knapp, much less had an opportunity to get an impression of the man.

But the other night your humble servant happened to have dinner next to the new Tech president, had a lengthy and varied conversation with him and later heard the educator in one of the finest informal addresses ever given in these parts.

And in the vernacular of the street, permit your correspondent to report that "this fellow Knapp will do, in a big way."

And not only will he "do", but if The Plainsman is any judge at all of human nature Doctor Knapp will soon become a prime favorite in Lubbock and the surrounding country. He is the type to command respect and admiration from all types of individuals.

IN the first place, he is a humorous man who enjoys a funny story and intersperses his remarks with comical anecdotes. Further, his looks and actions belie his 62 years. He looks little more than 50 and certainly conducts himself in a manner expected of a man no older than that, and his interests are varied. Despite his wide reputation as a successful educator, dean and college president, he does not give the impression of being academic.

On top of that, his manner of speech, his topics of conversation and his treatment of various subjects prove that he is a man tolerant toward others, yet possessor of the strength of character to choose his own way of thinking and stay with it.

Particularly to Tech students and faculty members would The Plainsman whisper: don't be surprised if his silken glove covers an iron hand; don't be surprised if, in discussion, he pounds a ready fist upon nearby table and says exactly what he thinks.

In other words: don't be surprised if Doctor Knapp proves himself to be the type of man that steps right out after hearing all sides of a question. He appears to be that sort.

FARMERS likely will find that Doctor Knapp knows more about farming than they do—more about real dirt farming, not downtown agriculture.

The average run of us is likely to discover that there's nothing stiff about this new citizen, who occupies one of the most prominent positions if not the most prominent, in the South Plains area.

And above all the President is a pleasant man, an easy man to meet and talk with.

The Plainsman will be the most surprised individual in town if Doctor Knapp fails to carve for himself a niche in the halls of service and fellowship in his new field of endeavor.

The Plainsman can stomach almost any amount of Ferguson hokum until Jim starts talking about "the campaign of the poor people" in which he was active during the past primary. Jim may be honest, he may be misunderstood, he may be everything else under the shining sun; but he's not a "poor man" and he's the "poor man's" candidate only by self-appointment.

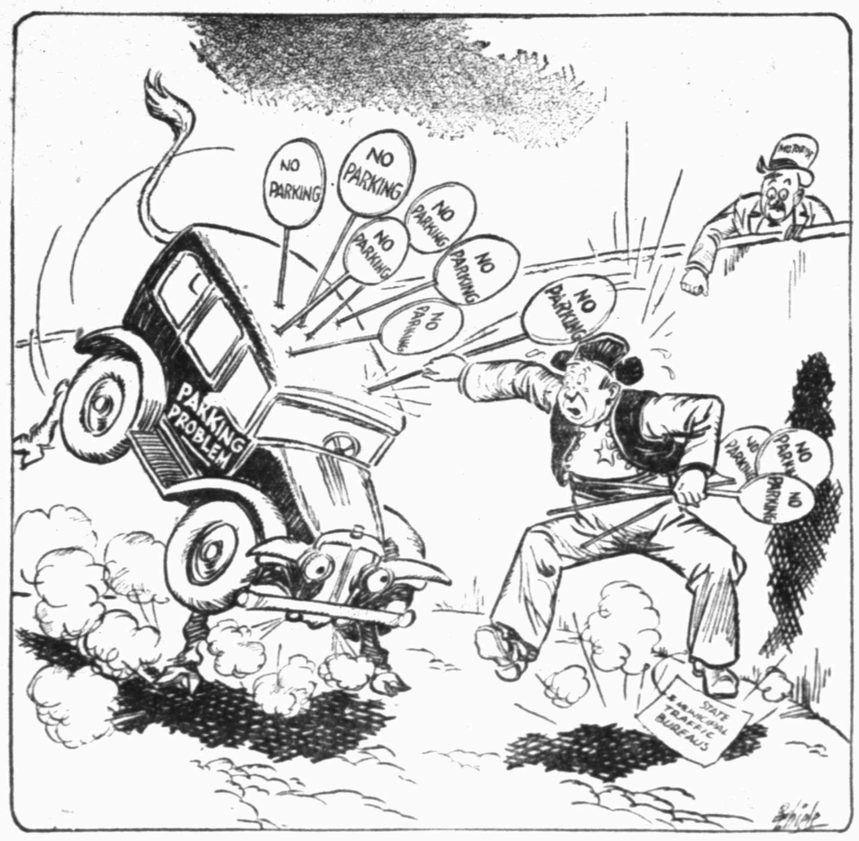

YUM! YUM! CHICKENS!

The Plainsman and his tribe enjoyed a pair of plump, tasty prairie chickens today at noon through the courtesy of Bill Watson of the South Plains Coaches. Were they good? Boy, Howdy!

The delicacy was a treat around the old home shanty because neither the Mrs. nor your humble servant had ever eaten prairie chicken before—because we'd never before been given the opportunity.

We sure are appreciative Bill, we sure are!

Here Are Facts On What Must Be Accomplished Before Volstead Act And Eighteenth Amendment Can Be Changed

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—President Hoover's acceptance speech and the division among the dry leaders as to how to act in this presidential campaign have stimulated everybody to speculating again on the question when the country really can expect to get rid of its prohibition laws.

Dutcher

The wets want to know whether there is any hope that the present Congress, which stayed good and dry—but not as dry as usual—in its last session, will not kindly modify the Volstead act at its next session, which begins in December after the elections. Some of them even profess a hope for passage of some amendment repealing the 18th amendment which could be submitted forthwith to the states.

The mechanics of the situation are chiefly:

That majority votes in House and Senate can change the Volstead act assuming there is no presidential veto, whereas two-thirds votes in both houses plus ratification in three-fourths of the states is necessary for any change in the constitution. Some wets believe it will be several years before repeal or revision can be attained.

The Situation in Congress

The next Congress is certain to be wetter than the present one and is likely to have a wet House majority, but it won't meet for at least 15 months unless called into special session after coming into existence next March.

In test votes during the last session the wets got from 169 to 187 votes in the House and a top strength of 26 in the Senate, indicating the greater difficulty of passing wet legislation through the upper chamber whose members, furthermore, come up for re-election only once every six years.

The question now is whether, in view of the wet declarations of both party platforms and both party presidential candidates, wet victories in primaries and elections which indicate the rapid general trend, enough members will be willing to switch next winter to create wet majorities.

Not many candidates this year will be found completely repudiating their party platform and presidential candidates but whether enough of them can get together on any specific measure between November and March remains to be seen.

The Political Angle

Politics may complicate the congressional situation. Roosevelt is out for modification and light wines and beer as soon as it can be achieved, whereas Hoover has dealt only with resubmission of the amendment.

The obvious possibility is that most Democrats, following party leadership, might support modification next December with 90 or 100 wet Republicans falling in line. The parties are jealous of each other, however, and modification probably could not be passed over a Hoover veto.

The question of the constitutionality of light wines and beer arising from the amendment's protection of intoxicating beverages would almost surely be raised and it might be enough to block modification or cause a veto.

The Glass Amendment

If the present Congress doesn't do anything about prohibition there is a good chance that the next one will be called into special session next spring to take action, especially in case Roosevelt is elected.

Prohibition comes up in the Senate right at the start of the session in December. The Senate will have before it, as unfinished business, the resolution of Senator Carter Glass of Virginia for submission of an amendment which would repeal the amendment but prohibit the saloon and prevent transportation of liquor into a dry state. This is just the sort of thing President Hoover advocates and the first vote is expected to be on a motion of Senator Norris to refer the resolution to the Judiciary Committee.

Several states will hold November referenda on their state prohibition laws and the wets anticipate victory in most of them. Unless such laws are repealed, only about ten states would be legally wet regardless of what was done about the federal laws.

If you fall for that "poor man" stuff when Jim's talking check up on him, one look at the income tax squabble in which he's engaged with the federal government will knock the socks of that "poor man" masquerade.

Fur will fly in many parts of Texas tomorrow when officials gather to count the muddled vote of the primary election of a week ago.

It'll be some job, all right, all right and there's no mistake take about it.

The Plainsman doesn't expect much change to result from the official tally, but he does expect plenty of change after contested counties and precincts are investigated and illegal votes thrown out.

The contest trail is long, winding and steep but it's going to be interesting to follow.

There are "big doings" going on at Austin right now as the plans of rival factions are being laid.

IN EFFORT TO MAKE BOTH ENDS MEET, RAILROADS CONSIDER WAGE REDUCTION

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—The railroads, in their efforts to make both ends meet, are now seriously discussing the matter of a reduction in basic wages. Payroll readjustment proposals range from 10 to 25 per cent in basic scales.

If the railways should eventually effect a reduction in basic wages of, say, 20 per cent, it would mean a saving of $175,000,000 a year even with the present reduced working rosters.

Committees to consider the question have been named by the eastern, southeastern and western presidents' association.

Beginning last February, a temporary wage cut of 10 per cent was accepted by the railway workers' organizations. The reduction is to continue until the end of February. Unless some other arrangement is completed in the meantime, the employes will revert to their former pay.

While railway labor organizations already have made known their opposition to any other revision of wages, carrier officials hope to arrange preliminary discussions with union leaders headed by A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the successor of David B. Robertson as chairman of the Railway Labor Executives' association.

GO TO CHURCH

SOMEWHERE SUNDAY

LET'S KEEP UP THE ATTENDANCE DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS

Roger W. Babson Says:

The Church All-Sufficient

A Sermon by John T. Smith, pastor of the Broadway Church of Christ

There is revealed in the Bible a church which is undenominational and non-sectarian: A Divine institution, whose name, nature, and nativity are clearly revealed in the New Testament.

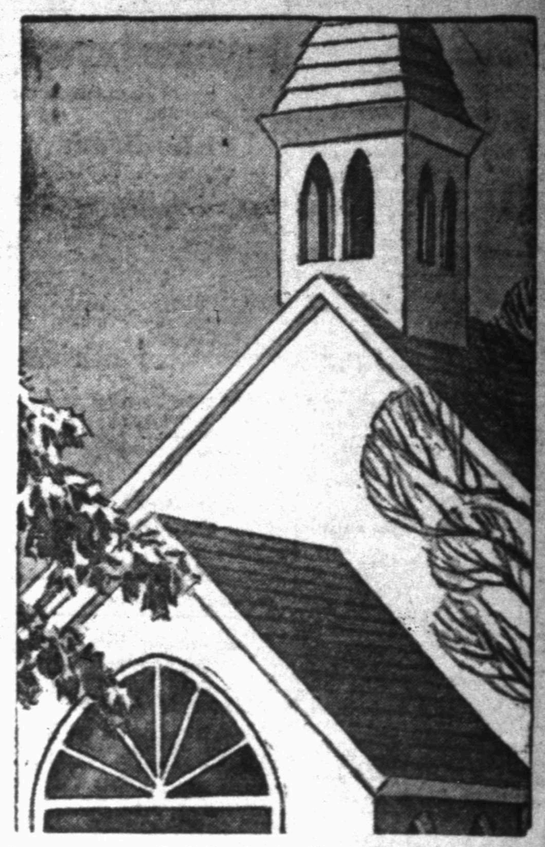

The Saviour announced His intention to build it, when shortly before his death, he said (Mat. 16:18) "Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it".

Some twenty-five years later, Paul charged the Ephesian elders (Acts 20:28) "Feed the church of the Lord which he purchased with his own blood".

In writing to this Ephesian church, the same apostle gave exhortation (Eph. 5:25) "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it."

This is a Heaven born and blood-bought institution, which came into being hundreds of years before modern denominationalism was even thought of. God built it, through Jesus Christ. As such, it is certainly a perfect institution, adequate to man's every need: All-sufficient for the Salvation of the world, and as an institution in which and through which all its members are to work to the pleasing and glory of God.

As God's institution, it was to lastt for all time, and to be for all people. In Daniel's interpretation and explanation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream (Daniel, Chapter 2), he described four world kingdoms which were to rise and fall in succession, the last of which was the iron or Roman kingdom. He then said (2:44), "In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed—and it shall stand forever." Again Daniel said (7:13-14), "And I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that ALL PEOPLE, NATIONS, and LANGUAGES, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and HIS KINGDOM THAT WHICH SHALL NOT BE DESTROYED." The writer of the Hebrew epistle said that we have received that kingdom. (Heb. 12:28), "Wherefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be SHAKEN (moved). Or 20th Century New Testament, "Therefore let us, who have received a kingdom that cannot be SHAKEN, (moved or overthrown) be thankful—".

In the fifteenth chapter of Acts, in his speech to settle the question of the practice of circumcision among the gentiles, James says as he quotes in part from prophet Amos (Acts 15:14-18), that the words of the prophets agree with the speech Symeon had just made, for said he, "It is written, After these things I will return, (saith the Lord) and I will build again the tabernacle (family, lineage, or descent) of David, which is fallen; and I will build again the ruins thereof, And I will set it up: That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, And all the gentiles, upon whom my name is called—".

David's Tabernacle or lineage was to be re-established therefore, in order that the gentiles should be brought in. James argued that it had been built again, and that the gentiles, as such, without being circumcised or proselyted, had a right to come to Christ and be members of His body.

In Acts second chapter, Peter quotes David as saying, "Thou wilt not leave my soul unto Hades"—" and then adds, "David being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ." Thus the throne of David, and the Tabernacle or lineage of David was re-established when Christ was raised from the Dead and went home to the Father to be seated at his right hand and crowned "King of Kings".

From that time until now this splendid institution has been operating among the various nations and peoples of the earth. That it is God's institution, originally designed for "all people, nations, and languages", to be an everlasting one, or one that shall not be destroyed, evidences to every thoughtful person, who believes this sacred word, that it is perfect and all-sufficient to day.

Surely Jehovah would not give to the world an inadequate, imperfect institution, and leave it to the wisdom and inventiveness of man to perfect.

What is the Church? I fear that even in this age of enlightenment, many are confused and in doubt about what the church is.

It is not a material structure of brick and mortar or stone, but a spiritual building, which Paul describes as the body of Christ. Hear him in (Eph. 1:22-23), "And he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body—". See also, (Col. 1:24) "—For his body's sake which is the church". Since the church is Christ's body, there could only be the same number of churches of Christ that there are bodies of Christ. (Eph. 4:4) "There is one body". (1 Cor. 12:12) "For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ". Verse 20 says, "But now they are many members, BUT ONE body". One body—one church. "BUT ONE body"—BUT ONE church.

This body is composed of saved men and women. In writing to the Corinthians, whom he denominated "the church of God—at Corinth" Paul said (1 Cor. 12:27), "Now are ye the body of Christ, and severally members thereof."

Peter refers to such as living stones, out of which the spiritual house (church) is built (1 Pet. 2:4).

All of the members or living stones are subject to the same head. In (Col. 1:18) it is stated that "Christ is the head of the body". All must get their instructions and marching orders from him. All are to live by the same rule, and observe the same things. In this way only can the church be the representative of Jesus Christ here upon the earth.

Only as the church gets its orders from, and is obedient unto the Head, can it be a divine institution, with a divine mission. In so doing, it will carry out to its conclusion the work which Christ—its head and founder—came to accomplish, namely, the world's redemption. In recognition of that honor and that obligation, the church has been spoken of as "the Feet of the Lord", to carry his gospel to the ends of the world: It has been denominated "the Hands of the Lord", to minister in his holy name: "The Mouth of the Lord" to disclose the unsearchable riches of his love: It has been styled "the Handmaiden of the Lord", to go at his bidding.

The mission and purpose of the church therefore, is but the mission and purpose of its Head, and these find expression in two passages of sacred truth. (1 Tim. 1:15) Paul writing to Timothy said: "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."

He came to re-establish right relations between God and men. So must the church be thus engaged. Hence upon the church has he laid the responsibility of preaching the gospel to the whole world. The other passage is (Mat. 7:12), in which Jesus himself said: "All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets". Re-establishment of proper relations between man and man. Thus is summed up in these passages all there is of Christianity. Re-establishment of right relations between God and man, and between man and man.

Is the church adequate to the task? First, Is it all-sufficient for the salvation of the world? Is it able to carry the gospel, which is God's one and only power to save (Rom. 1:16) to all the world, without the aid of any kind of human organization? I affirm that it is. It was able when first established, because that matchless apostle to the gentiles said in (Col. 1:23), that it had been "preached in all creation under heaven" at the time he wrote. There is certainly nothing in New Testament teaching which would suggest to any one that the early disciples had any kind of organization through which to do this work, save the church which Jesus built. Paul declares that the church of the living God is the pillar and ground (the support) of the truth. (1 Tim. 1:15).

Second, Is the church all-sufficient as an institution in which and through which christians can do all God wants them to do, only as humble members thereof?

I accept it as such, and call upon anybody to name one thing which God desires or requires, which we can't do only as members of his body.

We can worship God acceptably . . . . without any organization save the church, and without adding one thing to the New Testament worship. Certainly no one will question this statement.
We can feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick, provide for orphans, comfort the distressed, etc., without any organization except the church.

We cannot be the Divine institution, carrying out the Divine mission, unless we do these things. Let us hold up the church as the "Light of the world", and as Paul directed, render glory to God "in the church". (Eph. 3:21).

PERFECTS COLD LIGHT

PARIS, France—Georges Claude, French inventor is known generally for his efforts to extract power from the sea at Matanzas, Cuba. Few people know that he is the inventor of the widely used neon advertising light. His latest discovery is a new cold light which is nearer daylight than anything yet discovered. This light is produced in a tube containing a mixture of rare gases through which an electric current passes. Claude claims it can be produced cheaper than electric light.

MADISON, Wis.—If new vaccine which may prove of value in combatting tuberculosis has been discovered by William D. Frost, agricultural bacteriologist at the University of Wisconsin. This vaccine, the result of 29 years of research, is obtained from tubercle bacilli treated by ultraviolet rays. While not a cure or positive inoculation against the disease, it is said to be valuable in producing immunity to it.

Cinnabar was a name originally applied to the red "dragon's blood" that came from India.

QUICK REPORT REQUESTED

COUNTY CHAIRMEN OF STATE URGED TO RUSH RETURNS

DALLAS, Sept. 2. (AP)—Albert Sidney Johnson, secretary of the Democratic state executive committee, today asked all county chairman to make official reports of next Saturday's canvasses of primary returns as soon as possible.

County committees canvass the returns one week to the day after the party's run-off primary last Saturday.

Johnson said he had completed arrangements for his official tabulation, to begin Monday. Both candidates for the gubernatorial nomination have been notified that they may have representatives present.

The Texas Election Bureau's unofficial tabulation gave Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson a majority of about 2,400 votes over Governor R. S. Sterling. Because of the closeness of the vote Johnson urged county chairmen to exercise the utmost care in making their tabulations.

Johnson's tabulation will be ready for the state committee when it meets in Lubbock Sept. 12 to canvass the vote. He said he expected to have official returns from all the 254 counties in the state. He has received complete returns ever since he has been secretary.

Littlefield Cuts City's Valuations

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 2. (Special)—Valuations of city property here were cut $717,000 by the city commission, Mayor T. S. Sales announced, cutting the receipts of the city for the next year to $47,000, or 010,000 under last year.

Valuations this year will be $1,173,000 compared to $1,890,000 last year. The same rate of $1.50 per $100 valuation was retained.

Receipts are estimated in the budget as follows: taxes, $17,500; delinquent taxes, $14,500; water sales, $12,000; sewer service, $3,000; other receipts, $370; total $47,370.

Expenditures are estimated as: water department, $7,500; city hall and offices, $3,500; street department, $5,000; police, $2,000; fire department, $1,500; jail and other expense, $1,000; bond payments and interest, $22,150; other expenses, $2,200; leaving a surplus estimated at $2,120.

PESKY PEST YEAR

WASHINGTON.—In addition to the depression and the unusual weather, 1932 has proven the most prolific bug year in a decade. Bugs are so numerous and pestiferous this year that they are forsaking the rural districts in some instances to infect city streets. Some of these bugs are the oat louse, the tobacco horn worm, bean beetle, chinch bugs and the Hessian fly.

PLANE THAT TRIMS WINGS IN AIR IS SAID FASTER TAKING OFF AND FLYING

TEMPLELHOF, Germany (AP)—A plane that "trims" its wings while in the air has undergone tests before aviation experts and the Berlin air police.

Prof. Werner Schmidler, Breslau mathematics teacher, is credited with invention of airplane wings with variable surfaces.

This he accomplishes by attaching to the body of his plane two additional smaller wings which, when not needed, rest inside the fuselage.

It is claimed that the use of auxiliary wings makes flying safer and more economical.

Demonstrations here showed that the inventor's plane, when starting with enlarged wings, rose within a few seconds. It required half the time to lift itself from the ground that an ordinary craft needed.

The plane automatically increased its speed from 70 miles to 90 miles an hour when the auxiliary wings were removed during flights.

On the other hand, the innovation also works as an air brake when applied during the landing manoeuvre. The larger wing-surface proves a strong resistance to the wind and automatically lowers the landing speed by 20 per cent.

A German mathematics teacher has designer a plane with auxiliary wings removable in flight. Greater speed in taking off and in flight are claimed to result.
