States' Rights Candidate Speaks Here

Wright Warns U.S. Is At 'Crossroads'

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

GOVERNOR FIELDING L. WRIGHT of Mississippi, candidate for vice president on the States' Rights ticket, came to Lubbock Friday night, read a 30-minute prepared radio speech in a calm, dispassionate manner and at its conclusion, verily "let loose" extemporaneously to his audience in the district courtroom of the courthouse.

Wright, governor of Mississippi since 1947, was introduced by C. L. Harris, local attorney. Harris was introduced by John Lee Smith, local atotrney and former lieutenant governor of Texas. Both spoke briefly on behalf of the States' Rights party and its candidates.

People At Crossroads

In the beginning, Gov. Wright pointed out that "there are times in the course of progress of any people when a generation reaches a crossroads. Today we have reached such a time.

"We know where we are going . . . We are on our way to greater progress than ever before: industrial achievement, cultural advancement, and domestic tranquility.

"But," he added, "we have found, much as our forefathers did, that at each crossroads there are false guides who promise shortcuts to Utopia, false prophets who name the name of God of our fathers, but who speak on alien doctrine.

"This is such a time," he said, and "you and I, and every American who lives in this year of 1948 are the ones who will choose the way we must go."

Federal Control Assailed

One way is offered which proposes to deliver into the hands of Washington officials many matters which until now have been handled by us at home, Gov. Wright said. This way would take from the policeman on your block or the sheriff in your county matters which always have been a part of his duty. It would place these affairs under the jurisdiction of federal police. This is NOT the American way of life, he declared.

Another way, he said, is that of having the federal government confine its activity to federal functions such as foreign affairs and national defense, with other matters being left to the people to regulate through their state, county, and city governments as they always have done. This IS the American way, he added.

"We are not campaigning as Southerners," Gov. Wright declared, "but as Americans. We are not seeking to establish just the right of Southern States to govern their internal affairs, but are defending the right of every American state to act as it sees fit under its own laws and constitution and under

Loyalists Oust Korean Rebels

SEOUL, Korea, Saturday, Oct. 23 (AP)—Loyal troops have taken Sunchon from insurgents who revolted in the U. S. occupation sector three days ago, the south Korean army announced today.

The communique, issued through U. S. Army headquarters, said the town near the south central coast was recaptured at 6:40 p. m. yesterday (3:40 a. m. CST Friday). Sunchon is 135 miles south of Seoul.

The announcement said there was no late word on the situation southwest of Sunchon which includes the Yosu peninsula where the Korean army uprising began.

Pilots View Scene

A south Korean army spokesman said tonight he could not get confirmation of a report that loyal troops had recaptured Yosu from a rebel band.

U. S. Army headquarters had relayed accounts from Korean sources that Yosu was recaptured with almost no opposition and that there was fighting inside and around Sunchon, 20 miles northwest.

Korean liaison pilots, however, said they could see no major conflict around Sunchon, and the spokesman could only reiterate confidence that the rebellion soon would be stamped out.

Mop-Up May Be Long

Yosu, a south coast seaport 155 miles from Seoul, has 20,000 population. South Korean government officials said a pro-Communist revolt started in the army garrison there Wednesday morning and spread to Sunchon.

Korean defense officials said reliable estimates of casualties and of the rebels' total strength probably would not be available for several days. First estimates had said there were 400 dead and the rebels totalled 4,000, including civilians.

Mopping up the mutiny was expected to take a long time, as most of the Yosu garrison of 2,500 soldiers were local boys whose families might conceal them.

American occupation authorities finally agreed to help four American correspondents go to the scene 150 miles south of Seoul after President Syngman Rhee gave his approval. The trip was planned for Saturday.

STAR IS FINED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22. (AP)—Robert Walker of the films pleaded guilty today to being drunk and disorderly and paid a $50 fine in police court, but it was the woman who paid—more. Walker's girl friend of last night, Thelma Patricia Byrnes, 22, who was piloting the actor's 1949 car, was fined $150 when she pleaded guilty to drunken driving. She paid as an alternative to 30 days in jail.

AUSTIN WOMAN DIES

AUSTIN, Oct. 22, (AP)—Mrs. Gladys Hall Perrine, wife of Brig. Gen. Nat S. Perrine, died in a hospital at Austin tonight. She was 49. She suffered a stroke earlier in the week.

Contempt Citations Urged In Hearings

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22. (AP)—A two-man congressional subcommittee conducting a hearing today on the question of Communism in maritime unions announced that contempt of Congress charges would be recommended against two of its witnesses.

But Harry Bridges, the man who had been expected to take a star role, did not show up. His office said the leader of the CIO Longshore union was so busy trying to bring a speedy and successful end to the shipping strike that he had not been served with a subpoena.

French Troops Called To Deal With Strikers

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Oct. 22 — The French cabinet decided in an emergency session tonight to call up the 1948 class of soldiers who already had been discharged and gendarme reservists to deal with flaring violence in the 18-day coal strike.

At least two miners were killed in the first outbreaks of gunfire between strikers and law enforcement forces today, and the list of injured in several days of clashes mounted to 200.

The cabinet also ordered troops to use their arms in defending themselves against attacks, empowered district governors to ban any meetings.

Thirty Persons Injured

There was no immediate estimate on the number of soldiers and gendarmes involved in the call-up.

The interior ministry said the two miners were killed at Firminy, five miles southwest of St. Etienne, when miners counterattacked the police. Thirty other persons were injured.

There also were reports of shootings at three other mines, two in the St. Eitenne area and at Montceau-Les-Mines, about 100 miles to the north.

One of the dead miners was Antonin Barbier, 44, father of three children.

The government said it decided on the new measures—which included deportation of any foreigners taking part in the battles—because of "savage attacks" against police and soldiers.

Troops Now May Fire

These are launched, the cabinet said, "by masses of men armed with tools, crowbars and other iron objects" and have caused "important losses" among troops.

The Cabinet decided that troops henceforth will fire over the heads of attackers and then, if necessary to defend themselves, they can fire on the strikers. Previously, troops had been ordered not to fire. Some did today, however, for the first time since the strike began on Oct. 4.

The government appealed to

Winners Named At Brownfield

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 22. (Special)—Livestock judging was completed today as approximately 2,600 spectators viewed the exhibits and midway of the Terry-Yoakum fair here.

Final day's program of the four-day event, which got underway Wednesday with the second annual Brownfield Harvest Holiday and Merchants' Jubilee is set for Saturday. Officials have made plans for one of the biggest throngs of the entire program for the day.

Thursday's judging of community exhibits by George Samson, of Post, placed Gomez first, Wellman second, Union third and Sligo fourth. Officials said that the watermelons and butterbeans in the Gomez exhibit were of the finest ever seen in this section. Individual exhibit results have not yet been determined.

Ray Mowery, assistant head of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college, judge, place the livestock exhibits in the following order:

Jersey heifers under 1 year old, open class: Allen Orr, first and second; Jerry King, third. Allen Orr also exhibited the grand champion heifer.

Jersey heifers under 28 months

Lubbock Ministerial Group In Blast Against Football Cards

By A. B. SLAGLE
Avalanche Staff Writer

CITING what was described as "a grave situation" through operation of "a racket by which our youth are being exploited," the Lubbock Ministerial alliance, in regular session here yesterday, gave unanimous approval to a protest against the widespread use here of betting cards on football games.

The subject was presented at the meeting by the Rev. Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist church and president of the alliance, who called it "tragic that the future of a fine, wholesome sport like football should be threatened by this or any other gambling practice."

He asserted that "we can't sit inactive and see our youth exploited by a racket backed up by the power of the dollar."

Dr. C. A. Bickley, pastor of Asbury Methodist church, outlined what he said he had been told was the method of operation of the card game. He said one man had been arrested and fined recently in connection with sale of the cards, but he feared that a fine would have little effect on the practice because of "heavy receipts from such sales."

Concerning receipts the minister said he had been advised that the plan operates

ICKES BLASTS GOP 'ISOLATIONISM'

Dewey, Truman Aim Sights At Big City Voters Today

(By The Associated Press)

GOVERNOR Dewey and President Truman both aimed their sights today at big city voters in the East and Midwest during the wind-up week of the presidential campaign.

Their schedules for the remaining days until November 2 showed that both the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates will visit Cleveland, Chicago, New York and Boston. There'll be other appearances for both, too.

Dewey told a meeting of several hundred GOP workers in New York Friday:

Dewey Urges Restraint

"There is increasing evidence of desperation on the part of the opposition and they may intensify their campaign of fear, vituperation and abuse.

"I urge all of you not to respond in kind under any circumstances, whatever the provocation."

Dewey headed back to Albany today to begin work on his four remaining major speeches. He will leave there Monday midnight for Chicago.

President Truman charted a course through Pennsylvania today as a semi-windup to his campaign.

His today's schedule called for daytime speeches at Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Johnstown, with a major speech at Pittsburgh tonight at 8 p. m., CST. Mr. Truman will return to Washington before starting out his final campaign tour Sunday night.

Ickes Flays Dewey

Some periodic political financial reports were filed meanwhile at Washington. The CIO's political action committee, which is supporting Mr. Truman, said that up to October 19 it had received $312,324 and had spent $306,257. The national States' Rights Democratic campaign committee said it had received $108,528 and spent $96,542 between August 4 and October 20.

Russian Press Reported Korean Revolt Three Days In Advance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (INS)—The State department said today that Russian newspapers reported the uprising in south Korea three days before it occurred.

This was considered significant in view of the suspicion by U. S. officials that north Korean Communists touched off the so-called revolt in the southern area which is occupied by U. S. troops.

Sunday newspapers in Moscow carried a report from Tass, the Russian news agency, that disturbances had broken out in Taegu in south Korea.

Actually, the disturbance was in nearby Ulsan, where one policeman was wounded and four persons described as "rightists" were killed.

In addition, the so-called rebellion in south Korea did not get underway until Wednesday.

PLAN MOBILIZATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Top figures in American industry conferred today with government officials in planning for mobilization of the nation's total resources in the event of war. Arthur M. Hill, chairman of the Natioal Security Resources board, said other conferences are being arranged with leaders representing civic, labor, professional and other organizations.

BERLIN SITUATION 'DANGEROUS'

Connally Declares Russia Must Give Up Plans For World Rule

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 — Senator Tom Connally today said the United Nations should "in a voice louder than a cannon tell Russia we shall have peace."

The senior Texas senator, speaking before the annual conference of the Texas Manufacturers association, said Russia must give up her plans of world domination.

"We saved Russia during the war from defeat and humiliation," the former chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee said.

"But now she is an apostle of chaos, an evangelist of wreckage and ruin, and is conspiring against the rest of the world in an effort to convert us to her way of government."

Departing from his prepared speech, Connally said:

"I notice in this morning's paper that Vishinsky (Russian representative of the UN Security Council) has shown a "flicker or two of intelligence" in considering a compromise proposal for settlement of the Berlin crisis.

"At the present moment, the most distressing and dangerous

Allies Accept Neutral Plan, Soviets Silent

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Russia was asked in a resolution by the six neutrals of the Security Council today to lift immediately the Berlin blockade as part of an East-West settlement in Germany.

The four big powers were asked in the same resolution to implement by Nov. 20 their Moscow agreement to introduce the Soviet zone mark under four-power control as the sole currency of Berlin.

The resolution also provided for the convening of a four-power foreign ministers council within ten days after the currency settlement to reopen negotiations on German problems as a whole, and for lifting of transport and trade restrictions too and from the Soviet zone.

New Session Set

Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia presented the six-nation resolution to the council. He adjourned the meeting before the big four stated their views, setting the next session for Monday. A vote may come then.

An authoritative source said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky asked for the delay. UN officials speculated that he wanted time to get Moscow's reaction to the formal resolution.

U. S. Deputy Delegate Philip C. Jessup refused to commit his country but told a reporter that "in general we think that it (the resolution) is along the right line." A British spokesman said his delegation regarded the resolution as a satisfactory basis for settlement.

British Okay Plan

Vishinsky maintained his boycott of the debate, but scribbled notes furiously during the tense meeting, held in the theater of the Palais de Chaillot before 2,500 spectators. He was in high spirits when he left the council chamber. As to the resolution, he grinned and said: "I will have to look at it."

The British spokesman said the timing mentioned in the resolution—immediate lifting of the blockade and in immediate meet-

German Reds Set Government Plan

BERLIN, Oct. 22 (INS)—German Communists formally approved today a draft constitution for a Communist-controlled government for "all Germany" to be set up in the Soviet occupation zone.

Two hundred delegates representing the Communist people's congress approved the draft unanimously at a meeting in the reconstructed former Nazi propaganda ministry in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

The action was a counter-measure against plans to set up a separate government in western Germany.

Special Force Trained

While the delegates were approving the draft, it was learned the Russians are quietly organizing a special strong-arm political police force in the western sectors of Berlin as a weapon for future emergencies.

This completely trained and equipped militia on the surface is being assembled as a reinforcement reserve for police in the Soviet sector of Berlin. But western sources say it will be ready for action if the Communists try to seize control of the city.

Recruits will be trained in spec-

Stock Market Gains In Heavy Trading

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—The stock market raced upward today to near its highest point of the year.

Steel shares led the forward surge with most of the leading issues setting new high prices for 1948. U. S. Steel, for example, rose $2.75 to close at $87 a share, and new high marks also were set by Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet and Tube and Jones & Laughlin.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks gained a full $1, the largest rise since June 8, and stood at $70.80, only $1.60 from the 1948 peak established July 9.

Wall Street brokers said it was a pre-election market anticipating their prediction of Governor Dewey's election. At the same time the advance was based on Wall Street's more optimistic interpretation of foreign news and continued good earnings and dividend reports of corporations.

Greatest importance was attached to the fact that the volume of business expanded with rising prices to 1,800,000 shares, the largest since July 19, and considerably above the comparatively low level of trading for many weeks.

Dallas Market Operator Named In Treated Meat Complaint

DALLAS, Oct. 22. (AP)—B. H Collier, operator of the Superior Wholesale market here, was charged in six complaints today with selling meat containing sulphite, a preservative.

Charges against Collier were filed in county criminal court as similar allegations against G. L. DuBose were dropped.

DuBose was originally charged in the complaints because his name appeared on county records as owning the company.

Three Arrested In Bombing Here

Lubbock Man, Two Hobbs Residents Charged In Bus Station Incident

ONE PERSON posted $2,500 bond and two others were held in Lubbock county jail in lieu of similar bail, it was announced late Friday, in connection with charges of arson by explosive in the June 14 bombing of an office of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches, Inc.

Houston Miller, 34, of 520 Ave. O in Lubbock, operator of Miller Drafting service in 1100-block Fourteenth and a former TNW&O union bus driver, posted bond.

Statement Is Made

Clyde Lomax, 24, former Hobbs policeman, and Drew Storey, 42, Hobbs carpenter and painting contractor who formerly had been a Garza county deputy sheriff, were held in custody.

Lomax, it was announced, had signed a statement admitting he tossed a fuse-lighted half-stick of dynamite into the office of Hurley Carpenter, bus company official, after breaking a south window of the office with a rock.

Storey made no admissions, except a verbal statement that he accompanied Lomax to Lubbock from Hobbs the night of the bombing, investigators further said.

Both men waived examining trial in the court of C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, Friday morning, and bond of $2,500 each was set in binding them over to grand jury investigation Nov. 29.

Charges Are Filed

Miller, who declined to give a statement to investigators, was described in Lomax' statement as having gone to Hobbs a few days before the bombing and to have conferred with Lomax. After Lomax and Storey arrived in Lubbock Lomax held another conference with Miller, Lomax said.

Both Lomax and Storey identified Miller as having been the man Lomax talked with in one of the conferences, it was announced late Friday.

The charges, sworn to by Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank, were prepared by District Attorney Lloyd Croslin. Croslin filed two about 8 p. m. Thursday, then left with warrants for New Mexico. He was accompanied by E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, and Eubank.

At Hobbs, they joined Sheriff Grady Harrist and Texas Rangers

Truce In Holy Land Broken

TEL AVIV, Oct. 22. (INS)—A mortar duel between Israeli and Egyptian troops late today punctured the temporary truce that had brought a general halt to the war in the Negev at noon GMT (6 p. m. CST.)

A large Egyptian convoy from the costal base at Gaza tried to get through Israeli-held areas to supply the isolated Egyptian garrisons at Majdal and Isdud to the north after the UN-ordered ceasefire went into effect.

Israelis and the Egyptians in the convoy exchanged mortar and gun fire and the convoy was forced back to Gaza, the Arab capital which also was reported threatened by Jewish forces.

Israel Makes Gains

UN observers in Haifa said fighting also broke out in other sectors. The UN spokesmen did not specify the other sectors, but they were quoted as saying the cease-fire arrangement was not working satisfactorily.

Israel was in complete control of the 7,500-square-mile Negev desert in southern Palestine when the cease-fire went into effect at the hour fixed by UN mediator Ralph Bunche.

Stiff fighting raged almost up to the deadline.

This was the military situation in the Negev when the shooting stopped:

Egyptians Isolated

1. Israel forces were at the gates of Gaza, costal capital of Arab Palestine.

2. The Egyptian garrisons at Gaza, Isdud, Majdal, Falluja and Beit Jibrin were isolated by Israeli forces and failed in a last-minute attempt to escape.

3. Israeli troops were astride the railroad from Gaza to Egypt and controlled the coastal highway to Cairo.

4. Israeli troops consolidated their positions in captured Beersheba, fall of which yesterday severed the main Egyptian supply lines.

5. Israeli troops were reported in the outskirts of Bethlehem, six miles south of Jerusalem.

Ship Reported Afire Off Atlantic Coast

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23 (AP)—City-owned radio station WMH reported tonight it received distress messages from the S. S. Caracas saying it was afire 60 miles east of Cape Hatteras, N. C.

The message, received at 11:14 p. m. said: "Will leave ship in few minutes.

In New York, the Coast Guard said the ship was of Venezuelan registry and was of 3,799 gross tons.

Later, Radio Marine corporation in New York said it had picked up a message from the skipper of the Caracas saying that if it became necessary to abandon ship he would keep the automatic alarm on.

Negro Sought In Shooting Case

The sheriff's department last night was searching for an 18-year-old negro youth, wanted on an aggravated assault warrant charging that he shot another negro through the leg with a .22 caliber rifle.

The offense, which was believed to have occurred shortly after noon Friday on the H. R. Perry farm about one and one-half miles east of South Plains Army Air field, was allegedly the result of a noon-hour argument between Joe White, the injured party, and the suspect. Both were picking cotton on the farm.

White, who suffered the flesh wound through the thigh, was not considered serious in condition and had not been hospitalized.

Suspect Is Jailed

A 45-year-old Lubbock man was jailed last night on four informal charges—theft of a .22 caliber rifle, driving without headlights on his car, driving without tail lights, and driving without an operator's license.

The arrest was made by state highway partolmen from Plainview about eight miles north of Lubbock, after a party living one and a half miles west of Monroe reported that the suspect had stolen his rifle. The investigation, although incomplete last night, showed evidence that the arrested man concerned had been in a fight prior to his arrest.

Hugh Rice, Lamb county sheriff, informed Lubbock authorities last night that a one-half carat diamond ring in a white and yellow gold mounting had been stol-

Mothers Told Army Will Treat Men As Humans, Not Recruits

(By The Associated Press)

YORK, Pa., Oct. 22.—Gen. Jacob L. Devers told the mothers of America tonight that every youth drafted into the Army "will be treated as a human being, never a raw recruit."

The general, chief of the Army field forces, painted this picture of what will happen to the nation's youth in the peacetime Army in an address to a Pennsylvania convention of the American War mothers:

1. He will be sent to a post "as near home as possible."

2. His instructions will try "to establish a personal relationship with the incoming recruit."

3. He will be explained "the reason for everything he does which is new to him."

4. No matter how or when he arrives, "someone will meet him" and will be given "a chance to ask questions."

5. "His uniforms are individually fitted."

6. The Army will insist "that he write home."

7. He will be interviewed by his company commander and chaplain, each of whom also will write personal letters to his

Guests were Mesdames Frank Bledsoe, H. M. Lowe, Bailey Guess, Frank Guess, J. H. Barnhart, Jesse Koger, sr., Jesse Koger, jr., A. L. Boyd, J. N. Marks and Floyd Whitney. Members present were Mesdames C. E. Newton, Fred Motley, E. H. Bowden, J. W. Hairston, O. A. Cocks and Paul Roberson.

Rebekah Lodge Has Hallowe'en Party

Rebekah lodge held a Hallowe'en party at IOOF hall Thursday night with a radio show as its main feature. A program, "Hot Air," was broadcast over station "PUNK." Music was furnished by the Ear Splitters orchestra.

Charles Hayes served as master of ceremonies for the event. James Hodges furnished broadcasting equipment and made a wire recording of the program. Also during the evening the drill team, in costume, presented a special drill. Refreshments were served from a table decorated in the Hallowe'en motif.

Acuff Club Elects Officers Thursday

The 4-S club of Acuff community met in the home of Mrs. V. E. Railsback Thursday for a program and election of officers.

New officers are: Mrs. Tate Meadow, president; Mrs. Dub Dunagan, vice president; and Mrs. R. O. Moore, secretary-treasurer.

The program, "Music in the Home," was presented by Mrs. Moore.

Dr. J. D. Donaldson To Speak On Radio

Dr. J. D. Donaldson will speak on "Habits and Better Health" at 10:45 o'clock this morning over radio station KFYO. Dr. Donaldson is being presented by K. Carter Parent-Teachers association in a program that is part of a series sponsored by the Lubbock Council of Parents and Teachers.

Mexican Musician Is World Famous

One of the outstanding guitarists in the world today is Tito Guizar who with his singing Mariachis will be presented here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Senior High school auditorium. Guizar is a famous Mexican tenor.

He originated and developed the guitar slapping technique which he uses in accompanying himself and helps him manage to make one guitar sound like a whole Latin-American orchestra at times. Shunning the pick, he uses his strong fingers to bring out the tonal quality of the instrument.

Tickets are on sale at $1.80 for reserved seats and $1.20 for general admission. Beta Sigma Phi council is sponsoring the program to supplement funds to buy an iron lung for Lubbock.

Thanksgiving Lunch Planned By Club

Plans for a Thanksgiving covered dish luncheon to be held in the home of Mrs. Floyd Pipes, 2315 Seventeenth, Nov. 4 at 1 p. m. were made by Amiga club at a Thursday meeting held in the home of Mrs. John L. Vaughan, 1921 Twenty-second.

Present were Mesdames J. M. Wells, J. T. Meek, J. E. Benefield, R. D. Cole, Floyd Pipes, W. A. Terrell, R. R. Holmes, O. C. Ewing, Elda Mae Paulger, J. A. Barton, Alta Williams and S. C. Rawlings.

The women worked on a quilt and conducted a business session.

Sewing Is Done For Hostesses Of Club

Ladies Sunshine club of Smyer met with Mrs. Homer Daniels Tuesday with twelve members present. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the hostesses.

Mrs. Riley Rush will be club hostess Nov. 3.

Coring Underway On Terry County Test

Coring from 11,441 feet in an unidentified lime has begun on Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 E. M. Hinson, northeast Terry county wildcat, 10 miles northeast of Brownfield, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X, psl survey.

Operator tried a drillstem test at 11,426-441 feet. The packer failed and there was no test. A Schlumberger log was taken, and the coring was then started.

Informed observers reveal that the project has not yet reached the Ellenburger. Some interested operators expect it to find that formation at any time.

Drillstem Test Run

Argo Oil Corporation No. 1-N Jones, Northwest Gaines County possible discovery from the Devonian, 10 miles southwest of Denver City, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 496, block G, CCSD&RGNG survey, took a one hour and ten minute drillstem test on perforated section at 11,180-190 feet. Recovery was 450 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, and 480 feet of gas cut mud. No formation water developed.

A drillstem test is now being taken on perforated section at 11,150-180 feet. Top of the Devonian was picked called at 11,123 feet. The project is on a total depth of 11,205 feet, and the casing is cemented at that point. Producing ability of the project should be determined shortly.

Cooperative Refinery Association No. 1 Ellwood, outpost to proven producing area from the Glorieta, in the West Smyer field of West-Central Hockley County, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 12, block A, R. M. Thompson survey, was bottomed at 5,995 feet in lime.

The project has indicated on preliminary tests that it will make an oil well. A Lane Wells survey was to be taken and the pay section was then to be acidized, tested, efforts to complete will be undertaken.

Former Land Agent Amazed At Growth Of South Plains Area

Development of Lubbock and the South Plains area in recent years was a source of amazement to a former long-time resident who visited here Friday. He was William Zappe, who as a land agent here from 1922 to 1939 assisted in colonization of thousands of acres of land in the lower part of the South Plains.

Now a resident of Shiner, Texas, from where he operates extensive holdings in land and oil properties in several parts of the state, Zappe was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Beatrice.

Formerly a partner of the late Wm. D. Green, whose family still controls much property in this city and area, Zappe operated a land company which bore his name. He aided in colonization of the 26,000-acre Wilson county school land tract in the vicinity of Wilson in southern Lubbock and northern Lynn counties, and in settling by farmers of the several sections of the Emory Butler estate around New Home, in northwest Lynn county. He assisted also in colonizing 28,000 acres of the old T-Bar ranch.

Once owner of considerable property in the city of Lubbock, Zappe ruefully remarked that a lot on Nineteenth which he sold several years ago for $2,700 has recently sold for $45,000.

Youth Claims He Was Held In Virtual Slavery In Home

TORONTO, Oct. 22. (INS)—Ontario police today investigated the strange case of an emaciated, almost speechless 18-year-old boy who said he had been held in virtual slavery for more than a year.

The boy, identified as Gordon Kelley, haltingly told police that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith—whom he described as his "Aunt and Uncle"—had kept him locked in a clothes closet.

He said the Smiths starved and beat him.

The couple denied the boy's charges, but admitted that he had lived with them in their suburban home.

Police explained that the Smith home presents another odd wrinkle in the case.

Red Raiders Arrive In Tucson For Game With Wildcats Tonight

Arizona And Tech Tied For Lead In Border Conference Title Race

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 22. (Special)—Texas Tech's Red Raiders, on the long end of the odds for the first time in five weeks, arrived here this afternoon aboard a Continental airline's Convair and went to Arizona Stadium for a brief workout. Tomorrow night at 8 (MST) they will meet the Arizona university Wildcats under the lights in the tenth renewal of their rivalry.

Coach Dell Morgan's men stood the rapid plane trip in good shape and appeared ready to play before an estimated overflow crowd of 17,500 fans. Included in the crowd will be parents here for Mother's and Father's Day celebrations on the campus, as well as a delegation of Lubbock supporters for Tech.

Faith In Arizona Tradition

Although the Raiders are being favored by the betting fraternity, Arizona followers place faith in the tradition of Mother's and Father's Day games here. In the 17 years in which the tradition has been celebrated, Arizona has lost only twice. Texas Tech has never before been an opponent in one of these games.

The Wildcats, coached for the eighth year by Mike Casteel, will field a team that outweighs the Texans by almost 10 pounds to a man. The line will have a 15 pound advantage, while the backfield will give Tech three pounds a man.

TECH GAME BROADCAST

Ray McNally, sportscaster for KFYO, will set up the station microphone in Arizona Stadium tonight to broadcast the play-by-play action of the Tech-Arizona game. The broadcast will begin at 8:00 p. m. Lubbock time.

Arizona enters the game in the role of underdog, as they did when they upset favored Hardin-Simmons two weeks ago. They opened their season with a 14-6 victory over San Diego State, were walloped by Utah 48-14, turned in a stunning 20-14 victory over Hardin-Simmons and were smothered last week by Michigan State's powerful eleven, 61-7.

Teams Are Tied

Tech holds a 3-2 record up to this game. They opened with a 19-0 win over WTSTC, licked Texas Aggies 20-14, were snowed under by SMU 41-6, romped to a 41-20 victory over Tulsa and lost a heart-breaking game in the rain and to Baylor last week, 13-0.

Arizona and Tech are tied for the lead in the Border Conference, each with one victory, and this game may go a long way in deciding the final winner. The Raiders are defending champions.

The Raiders go into the game with only one regular on the injured list, Guard Milburn Haydon, still sidelined by a bad knee received in the Aggie game. Otherwise all the regulars are on hand to seek Tech's second conference victory.

The Wildcats are expected to throw a lot of passes at the Techsan defense, as well as running power plays up the middle. For the power work they will depend mainly on Charles Hall, the hefty fullback, while the passers probably will be Sol Ahee, William Penn, Bill Peterson and Bill Smetana, all of whom rate high.

Coach Castell, a canny head mentor, has modified the T to fit his theory of the best offense and it has paid off in highscoring games. Instead of the quarterback standing directly behind the center, he crouches slightly to the right and the ball is lobbed to him. From this formation he can fake handoffs, pass, plunge or handoff to other backs. It also makes possible pitchouts to a back in motion in the flat.

Tech spent the week polishing offensive plays, with emphasis on timing and blocking assignmentts, while running defense against Arizona plays. The squad stopped the Wildcat running game in good shape, but were weak on pass defense.

As a result, a wide open game is predicted for tonight, with Tech backfield speed pitted against Arizona aerials.

Mustangs Dump Fort Stockton

DENVER CITY, Oct. 22. (Special).—The Denver City Mustangs, in a smashing line offensive sparked by Fullback Jack Pritchard and Left Half Bill Price, whipped the Fort Stockton Panthers, 28-6, in a district 5-A conference battle here tonight.

Denver City took the lead in the first period when Price went across from the seven-yard line after an 85-yard march down the field. Later in the same period, Pritchard went through the line nine-yards for a tally. On a similar play in the second period, Pritchard scored again. Price went through the line in the final period for the last touchdown.

Quarterback Walter Scudday made the single Panther tally in the third period.

Wink Wildcats Hold McCamey Scoreless For 20-0 Victory

WINK, Oct. 22. (Special)—The Wink Wildcats held McCamey's Badgers scoreless for a 20-0 win in a District 5-A play here tonight. Substitute Quarterback Dow passed to End Woods for the first tally in the opening period.

Woods took a pass from Quarterback Drum in the next period for the second touchdown. Fullback Rollins scored the third touchdown in the final period in a 15-yard running play.

Pecos Defeats Golden Cranes, 14-7, In Non-Conference Play

CRANE, Oct. 22. (Special)—Pecos Eagles defeated the Golden Cranes, 14-7, in a non-conference play before a crowd of more than 1,500 here tonight. An Eagle pass play accounted for the opening score and a running play in the third was successful for the second Pecos tally. The Cranes scored in the second period on a running play.

Undefeated Post Antelopes Down Snyder Eleven, 32-0

POST, Oct. 22, (Special) — Post's undefeated Antelopes galloped through and passed over a hapless Snyder eleven here tonight to win 32 to 0 before 2,000 partisan fans.

After a scoreless first quarter, Post broke loose in the second period with two touchdowns. The first was scored by Junior Malouf, Antelope left half, who ripped through left tackle and dashed 70 yards for a score. The second came on a pass from Charles McGuire, Antelope quarterback to Malouf. The play carried for a total of 75 yards. Jack Kirkpatrick booted the conversion.

Shortly after halftime right half R. E. Josey, sped around end for 25 yards and the third score. Kirkpatrick converted. The fourth marker was made by McGuire on a plunge from Snyder's one-yard line. The final touchdown was racked up by Malouf on a 63 yard sprint through left tackle.

O. L. Slaton Juniors Beat Hutchinson, 7-6

O. L. Slaton's warriors tallied on a tricky second quarter double reverse pass play to nose out the J. T. Hutchinson Junior High Ranchers, 7-6, in a battle of Lubbock seventh and eighth graders.

The Ranchers scored in the early minutes of the tussle, after taking the opening kickoff and marching to the Warrior 10-yard stripe in just four plays. Back Chuck James hit End Buddy Myers with a short pass for the touchdown. A plunge for the extra point was short of the double stripe, but the Ranchers led, 6-0.

The Warriors roared back in the second stanza to take the lead in the encounter. The O. L. Slaton crew launched a drive that carried to the Rancher 20, then the Warriers uncorked a deceptive double reverse pass play that ended with Right Half Harold Teal tossing to End Mike Brady for the six-pointer. Fullback Jerry Martin plunged for the important extra point.

Abernathy's Antelopes Nose Out Paducah Dragons, 7-6

ABERNATHY, Oct. 22 (Special) —Halfback Robert Smith's extra point kick from placement provided the margin of victory as the Abernathy Antelopes nosed out the Paducah Dragons, 7-6, in a District 3-A tussle here tonight.

Abernathy went out in front in the first quarter, when Halfback Jimmy Miller blasted across the double stripe from the seven-yard line, then Smith connected for his game-winning extra point.

The Dragons chalked up six points in the third period on Back Joe Sandlin's eight-yard pass to Halfback Bill Rochelle, but Sandlin's kick from placement was wide to the left.

The win was the first in 3-A competition for the Antelopes, against three defeats.

Roughneck Attack Swamps Jackets

MULESHOE, Oct. 22 (Special) —Sundown's speedy Roughnecks scored in every quarter to trounce the scrappy Muleshoe Yellow Jackets, 35-13, in a north half District 4-A encounter here tonight.

The Roughnecks, who have lost only to Levelland in loop competition, took the lead in the first quarter when Back Bill McCulloch smashed over from the five-yard marker, following a recovery of a Mulseshoe fumble. Back R. A. Hensley converted from placement—first of five successful boots during the setto.

Muleshoe battled back with a first quarter tally, as Halfback Weldon McCarty climaxed a long march with a 22-yard touchdown gallop. The extra point try failed and Sundown led, 7-6.

Big Doug Ethridge, line-crunching Sundown fullback, put the Roughnecks back in front late in the period with a 20-yard buck through center. Another Sundown six-pointer in the second stanza, with McCulloch carrying over from the five, made the halftime score 21-13. Muleshoe had cut the Roughneck lead to 14-13 early in the period when Back Ted Lawler pushed over the double stripe from 10 yards out. McCarty plunged for the extra point.

The second half was all Sundown, as Ethridge passed seven yards to End Don McLean for a third quarter tally, and Back Bob Wheat smashed four yards for a tally in the fourth period. The final Roughneck six-pointer was set up by a brilliant run by Quarterback Neil Pearcy to the Muleshoe 20.

Seagraves Trounces Slaton Tigers, 19-7

SEAGRAVES, Oct. 22. (Special) —Before a partisan crowd of 2,000 fans, the Seagraves Eagles defeated the Slaton Tigers here tonight, 19 to 7, in a south half District 4-A game.

The victory broke a loosing skein that extended to 18 straight games for Seagraves. The Seagraves team outplayed the Tigers all the way as evidenced by 13 first downs to eight for the visitors.

Seagraves took the initial kickoff and moved straight down the field to tally the first touchdown, with Bill Hearne, halfback, lugging over from the two-foot line. The extra point from conversion was not made. The Eagles swelled their lead to 13 to 0 in the first period when Halfback Bill Ellis-ton whipped a 25-yard-pass to End Smith Bennett who ran the final seven yards to score. Bennett then converted.

Slaton came back in the second stanza with Smith, big fullback, ramming over from the three-yard line after Quarterback Lewis had spun 27 yards through the Eagle line. Smith rammed the line for the extra point, to make the halftime count 13 to 7. The third touchdown for the victorious Eagles came in the four quarter with Dean Kenney, halfback, sweeping the Slaton end for two yards, following a long drive downfield. Attempt at conversion again went awry. The last football victory achieved by the Eagles was at the expense of Tahoka two years ago.

A feature of the game between the halves was the crowning of Betty Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Horner of Seagraves, by Eagle Captain Kenneth Davis as queen of the Seagraves team.

O'Donnell Beats Whiteface, 19-6 Before Large Parents Day Crowd

O'DONNELL, Oct. 22. (Special) —O'Donnell's footballers honored their fathers and mothers tonight by soundly trouncing Whiteface 19 to 6 before one of the largest crowds of the year.

Whiteface broke the scoring ice in the first period when Oscar Powers intercepted an O'Donnell pass and ran it back 50 yards for a touchdown. The second quarter was scoreless, but after the half O'Donnell roared back with three scores. Halfback Jack Houston rammed over from the five-yard marker for the first touch to climax a 50 yard drive. Joe Talmer scored the second on a plunge from the Whiteface five, and Arvis Grogan broke through center for 42 yards for the final score.

Mustang Ground Attack Impressive

Sweetwater Swamps Lamesa Squad, 34-7

By CHOC HUTCHESON
Avalanche Sports Writer

LAMESA, Oct. 22. — Sweetwater's mighty Mustangs rolled over a spirited but outmanned Lamesa team 34-7 here tonight before a near-capacity crowd in a District 3-AA gridiron encounter.

The Lamesans, sparked by the trusty passing arm of Art Bizzell and the tank-like running of Johnsye Tankersley, bowed only after they had thrown a first-class scare into the invaders in the opening half. In fact, the Golden Tornadoes, even though they trailed by 14-7 at the midway intermission, held a decided statistical edge over their heavier opponents for the first two periods.

Tornadoes Threaten Early

But Sweetwater's vaunted ground attack, which sputtered because of costly fumbles early in the game, finally began to roll in the third quarter as the Mustangs completely overpowered Coach Bob Harrell's never-say-die Tornadoes. Lamesa held the spotlight in the first quarter, once driving as far as the Mustangs 11-yard line. Toward the end of the period, however, Coach Pat Gerald's Ponies took charge and launched a 62-yard advance that finally netted a touchdown in the opening minutes of the second quarter on Jack Pace's short sweep around left end. Jim Ronemus added the extra point to make the count 7-0, and it appeared that the Mustangs were on their way to an easy triumph.

The Tornadoes, however, still had some offensive fireworks of their own, and they promptly began a 71-yard march which reached pay dirt on Bizzell's three-yard plunge over right tackle. Bizzell's passes to Larry Lattimore, Jerry Phillips and T. J. Womack accounted for most of the yardage in the touchdown drive. A first try for extra point failed, but Sweetwater was offside on the play, and on a second try Lamesa knotted the score at 7-7 when Ronald Chapman split the uprights with a placekick.

Sweetwater quickly stormed back to regain the lead, however, as Tom McMillan sped 60 yards to a touchdown behind near-perfect downfield blocking. Ronemus again added the extra point.

In the second half, Lamesa continued to pile up considerable yardage, but in the scoring department it was all Sweetwater. McMillan broke through tackle and raced 23 yards to the Mustangs' third touchdown, and Ronemus hammered over right guard for four yards and the fourth Sweetwater tally. The closing Pony marker came in the final stanza on McMillan's 31-yard run on a quick-opening play over right tackle.

Lamesa made a valiant but vain scoring bid in the game's closing minutes, pushing to the Sweetwater three-yard line before losing possession of the ball on downs.

Anton Squad Whips Whitharral, 14-6

WHITHARRAL, Oct. 22. (Special)—Anton's Bulldogs capitalized on two touchdown gallops by Halfbacks Billy Glasscock and Bobby Harper to defeat the Whitharral Panthers, 14-6, in a District 3-B tilt here this afternoon. The win was the first loop triumph of the season for the Bulldogs, who had lost four previous encounters with 3-B foes.

The Whitharral eleven took the lead in the first quarter, when Back Joe Wade scored on a brilliant 60-yard run, but the Anton gridders surged back to tally in the second and third periods to notch the victory. Glasscock climaxed a long Bulldog drive in the second quarter to plunge across the double stripe from the two-yard marker, with Back Billy Estes smashing over for the extra point.

The Bulldogs clinched the triumph in the third stanza, as Harper circled end for 60 yards and the second six-pointer, Estes passed to Glasscock for the extra point.

Farwell Outpoints Tahoka 20-19 In New Title Game

TAHOKA, Oct. 22. (Special)—Farwell outpointed Tahoka 20 to 19 in a scoring duel here tonight that kept several hundred fans on the edge of their seats until the final gun sounded. The game was non-conference.

The Tahoka Bulldogs opened the scoring when Quarterback Bob Boyd passed nine yards to end Forest Strickland in the first period for the game's first touchdown. In the second period Quarterback Thomas passed 31 yards to end Ford for Farwell's initial counter. The same combination passed for the extra point. The Bulldogs again took the lead when fullback Tommie Chandler drove over tackle nine yards for a score. Duane Carter kicked the conversion point.

Shortly after the half Farwell marched 52 yards with Thomas scoring from the one-yard line. Thomas converted to put Farwell ahead 14 to 13. Thomas scored again for Farwell as the fourth period opened with a 19 yard run around end. Tahoka bounced back with another drive with Chandler scoring from the one-yard line. Chandler's attempt to run for the extra point failed.

Bulldogs Nose Out Crosbyton, 13-8

By JOE HITCHCOCK
Avalanche Sports Writer

CROSBYTON, Oct. 22. (Special) —The Spur Bulldogs unleashed an aerial attack here tonight to overpower a spurting Crosbyton eleven 13 to 8, giving Spur its third conference win in district 3-A.

The Bulldogs combined their two touchdown setups on long heaves with hard drives for a final victory. On the negative side they "gave" away eight points to their opponents on fumbles. The Chiefs chalked up numerous first downs but were unable to maintain a steady pace. Both squads had two conference victories and one loss. The Spur win put them in a second-place tie with Floydada also of district 3-A.

Spur scored first in the opening of the second quarter from her own five-yard line. Starting from the Bulldog 37-yard stripe, back C. Blair took a long toss to the 25-yard line. Five plunges put the ball on the five, and at the beginning of the second period Blair, on a reverse left-end sweep, crossed the goal standing. Back M. Lindsey kicked the extra point.

Receiving the ball after the touchdown, the Chiefs' ace back, Bill Simmons, quick-kicked on the second down to the Spur five-yard stripe from his own 37. Crosbyton then recovered a Bulldog fumble on the one-yard mark following two Spur plunges up as far as the 15-yard line.

Simmons was stopped cold twice, but on the third down with one foot to go he hit pay dirt. Kick for extra point failed.

Another Bulldog fumble a few plays later gave Crosbyton an additional two points. The Bulldogs received and were downed on the 26. A 15-yard penalty against the Bulldogs on the third down put the pigskin on the 19-yard stripe, and Spur lost six yards on the next play. Then Spur fumbled and was downed behind the goal for a safety making the halftime score 8 to 7.

Spur probably missed another tally by seconds before the halftime whistle. They had advanced to the Crosbyton five-yard line as the whistle blew ending the half.

From midfield at the beginning of the fourth quarter Lindsey again heaved to End M. Reynolds who raced to the three-yard line before being dropped by Simmons. Back J. Simpson drove across on the second Bulldog try for the tally. Kick for extra point failed.

Spur chalked up 15 first downs to 10 for the Chiefs.

Lockney Beats Ralls Jackrabbits, 20 To 0

RALLS, Oct. 22 (Special) — Lockney's Longhorns outrun the Ralls Jackrabbits for a 20-0 win in a District 3-A conference game here tonight before a crowd of more than 1,000.

The Jackrabbits failed to halt the Longhorn drive through the line in the first half during which all the scores were made. Lockney drove through for two touchdowns during the opening period and one in the second.

Fullback Jerry McCullough was the outstanding player for the Longhorns, and Left Half Billy Wood handed in a stellar performance for the Jackrabbits.

Floydada Hands Matador 34-6 Defeat In District 3-A Tilt

FLOYDADA, Oct. 22 (Special) —The Matador Matadors suffered a 34-6 defeat at the hands of Floydada's Whirlwinds in a District 3-A tilt here tonight.

The Whirlwinds opened a successful drive in the second period and Fullback Wayne Robinson went across for the first score. Right Half Bill Jeter made the next touchdown in the second period in a play from the 12-yard line. The third Whirlwind tally was scored by Bob Bishop, right half during the same period. Bishop plunged over again in the third and Jeter scored again in the final period.

The Matador tally came late in the third when Satto Gieske connected with a pass to Joe Pitts.

Springlake Scores In Last Minute To Beat Friona, 7-0

FRIONA, Oct. 22. (Special)—A long pass in the last minute of play spelled 7-0 victory for the Springlake Wolverines over the Friona Chiefs in a District 3-B battle here tonight.

Springlake made a mild threat in the second period and Friona went to the Wolverine eight-yard line during the same quarter. Friona again threatened in the third but the drives for each team bogged down.

LOBOES KEEP RECORD CLEAN

Undefeated Monahans Eleven Downs Andrews Mustangs, 21-0

ANDREWS, Oct. 22. (Special)—The powerful undefeated, untied Monahans Loboes kept a clean record with a 21-0 win in a one sided battle with the Andrews Mustangs in a District 5-A conference play before a crowd of approximately 3,000 here tonight.

The Loboes took the lead early in the game when Quarterback Eddie Sampson passed to Halfback Waldo Young for a gain of 52 yards and a touchdown. Back Weldon Boggos made a successful kick for the extra point.

After a scoreless second and third period, the Loboes again leveled a powerful offensive against the Mustangs which netted two touchdowns.

The second tally came when substitute Fullback Linne plunged across from the two-yard line for pay dirt after a Lobo drive up the field. Boggos' kick for the extra point was good.

Late in the final period, starting Fullback Roy Cathey intercepted a Mustang pass and went 50 yards to score.

The Mustangs failed to threaten during the game.

Backs Hart And Williams Pace Visitors' Smooth Offensive

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

Hardin-Simmons university's smooth-working freshmen, paced by the deceptive ball-handling and accurate passing of Quarterbacks Bobby Hart and Charlie Williams, pounded out a 35-6 victory over the Texas Tech first-year eleven before approximately 1,500 fans Friday afternoon at Jones stadium.

The hustling Techsans battled their traditional rivals all the way and, individually, several of the junior Raiders turned in brilliant performances. But the lack of an aerial attack, combined with poor defensive play in the secondary and a series of fumbles and bad breaks, nearly turned the encounter into a rout in the second half.

Fumble Sets Up Tally

A fumble on the opening play of the game set up the initial Hardin - Simmons touchdown. Halfback Bobby Close of Shamrock fumbled the opening kickoff and the ball was recovered by Chick Tiger, Hardin-Simmons fullback, on the Tech four-yard line. Tiger hit center for no gain, then picked up two yards at left guard. Hart, from Levelland, working from the "man under" slot on the Hardin-Simmons "T," kept the ball on a wide end sweep to the right and crossed the double stripe to give the visitors a 6-0 margin. End Kenneth Watson's extra point try was no good.

The Tech gridders surged back minutes later to tie up the count. Speedy Harold Haynes from Roscoe hit guard for one yard to the Tech 27, Lubbock's Dick Pirtle—running from the fullback post—smashed over tackle for eight paces, then Haynes broke over left tackle and raced 65 yards to paydirt. Jack Davis' extra point try was no good.

Hardin-Simmons' frosh went ahead to stay just before the end of the first period when Hart climaxed a 64-yard drive with a nine-yard sweep of right end to the goal line. Hart was hurt on the play, however, and had to be taken out of the tilt. Watson's conversion try was good and Hardin-Simmons led, 13-6.

The visitors tallied again midway in the second period, when Quarterback Williams hit End Bill Cagle with a 43-yard aerial that carried all the way to the double stripe. Watson again converted to give the Abilene eleven a 20-6 lead.

Lacked Scoring punch

The Techsans surged back with two long drives before halftime, but lacked scoring punch in sight of paydirt. Pirtle and a sprinter-halfback from Andrews, Jack Young, teamed to carry to the Hardin-Simmons' 15-yard marker, before an intercepted pass halted the march. Minutes later Young and Halfback Judson Brawner moved all the way to the Hardin - Simmons' 13-yard line, only to have four consecutive passes fall incomplete.

The show was all Hardin-Simmons in the second half. Williams hit Cagle with a 21-yard touchdown pass mid-way in the third period, then Tiger broke off left tackle for a 65-yard touchdown jaunt late in the quarter to run the tally to 33-6. The visitors chalked up two points on a safety in the final quarter, when Haynes' punt from the end zone was blocked.

Big Jerrell Price from Brownfield was the outstanding lineman on the field, stopping practically every Hardin-Simmons thrust at his side of the line, and Tackle Dick Andrews turned in a creditable performance. But the leaky pass defense and erratic offense gave the Abilene crew all the advantage they needed.

The Statistics:

Texas Tech Frosh		Hardin-Simmons
9	First downs	9
224	Total yards rushing	230
47	Yards lost rushing	26
177	Net yards rushing	210

Sudan Defeats Morton, 19 To 13

SUDAN, Oct. 22 (Special)—Morton got off to a one touchdown lead on Sudan here tonight in a District 4-A (North) conference game but couldn't hold their advantage and were dropped by the Hornets 19 to 13. The defeat practically eliminated Morton from the conference race.

A 60 yard run off tackle by Query netted Morton its first touchdown early in the first quarter, but Ross Hammock, the Hornets' one-man gang, led a drive that carried 70 yards for the Indians, finally plunging over for the score from the seven yard line. He then plunged over for the extra point.

In the second quarter Hammock ripped and drove through the Morton line to lead a 60 yard march that ended when he drove through tackle from the five for the score.

Morton tied the score 13 to 13 in the third period when the Indian's speed merchant, Yeary, broke loose for 50 yards to carry to the Hornet 10 yard line. The Indians plunged it over from that point.

Sudan broke the tie in the fourth quarter when Hammock climaxed a 50 yard drive with a plunge from the five yard line for a touchdown.

Buddy Wiseman, tackle and blocking back, and Cletis Whitmire, right guard, played sterling ball for Sudan, and Yeary was outstanding for Morton.

F. A. Masten, prominent land owner, could not be contacted late tonight regarding a report he would build Morton a new stadium if the Indians could score on Sudan.

Hale Center's Rampaging Owls Roll Over Amherst, 43 To 0

HALE CENTER, Oct. 22. (Special)—The rampaging Hale Center Owls, using practically every man on their squad, rolled over a badly outclassed Amherst eleven, 43 to 0, here tonight.

Left Half Eldon Davis opened the Owl attack with a touchdown in the first quarter, and then went on to score three more in succession. End Benny Shacklefore made a tally after he covered the ball behind the Amherst goal. In the second half, Coach Ralph Huntington threw in his second stringers, who rolled on behind Left Half Carlton Holland and Half Edward Weil, who made one touchdown each.

Left Half Bobby Johnson converted for one extra point. Weil made two conversions and End Jimmy Stokes made another two points.

Dimmitt's Bobcats Overrun Olton Mustangs, 32 To 13

OLTON, Oct. 22 (Special)—Dimmitt's Bobcats overrun the Olton Mustangs for a 32-13 victory in a District 3-B contest here tonight.

Olton captured the lead in the opening play when Halfback Wills went through center for 55 yards and a score. Ailcorn made the extra point. Wills intercepted a pass in the second period which opened a drive that was climaxed by a second touchdown.

The Bobcats, after scoring once in each of the first two periods, opened a lightning offensive in the third that netted three touchdowns. The final period was scoreless. Quarterback Lonnie Rice scored four of the Bobcats' five touchdowns.

New Deal Rolls Over Ropesville, 38 To 13

NEW DEAL, Oct. 22. (Special) —New Deal's surging Lions chalked up their third District 4-B victory here this afternoon by drubbing Ropesville, 38-13.

Halfback Keithel Henry paced the Lions to the win, returning a punt 74 yards for a touchdown and scoring again by running back an intercepted pass for 35 yards, but he received brilliant support in the secondary from Back John Jordan.

The Lions moved into the runner-up spot in the loop with the triumph, with a record of three wins and a single defeat.

Frenship Tigers Rally To Swamp Cooper Pirates, 14-7

FRENSHIP, Oct. 22, (Special)— The Frenship Tigers staged a last-half comeback to swamp the Cooper Pirates, 14-7, in a District 4-B conference tilt here this afternoon.

Cooper took the lead with a touchdown and an extra point in the second quarter but failed to score again.

The Tigers tied the score during the third period when Donald "Pete" Edwards, in an end play, went across for the tally. In the fourth period Duane Preston made the winning touchdown. Jimmy Hale carried the ball for the extra point on both conversions.

During the half-time period, Barbara Sanders, Frenship freshman was crowned football queen.

TRUMAN SLIPS UP

A Faulty Argument

THE STOCK argument of New Dealers continues to be that "the South has everything to lose and nothing to gain" from a refusal to support the Truman-Barkley ticket on November 2.

Mr. Truman's stump-speaking visit to the South this week—his second of the campaign—helps to refute his own argument. The South is receiving attention from political bigwigs in Washington it never has before. Heretofore the South has been largely ignored. Time, effort and other campaign expenditures in the South have been considered a complete waste upon a section of the country which would vote Democratic regardless.

The fact that rival political parties are firing some of their biggest oratorical guns in the South this year signifies a great deal. It proclaims their recognition of the fact that the South has asserted itself as a factor in national elections. It guarantees that those in power will fear the political consequences of continuing to treat the South like a neglected stepchild when distributing federal allocations.

In the past, the high Democratic brass has taken Southern support for granted—so much so that the South's blind loyalty to the Democratic party has been unappreciated. Political events of recent weeks and now transpiring have caused an awakening to the realization that the South might become an important factor in national campaigns when it chooses.

Regardless of the results of the November 2 election, the South's position in the national political picture will be stronger than ever before because of the new respect inspired by its course in this campaign. It has served notice that party politicians can't kick the South around without the risk of serious consequences.

Realistic Decision

TWO REALISTIC considerations dictated the rejection by the United Nations Assembly of the Russian demand to outlaw the atom bomb and to set up an international atomic energy control organization.

The first consideration was that the overwhelming majority of the 58 nations in the Assembly are wholly out of sympathy with the Russian political philosophies. The Soviet controls the Assembly votes only of itself and about eight satellite states.

The second consideration doubtless was the realization that such actions, if taken by the Assembly, would have been ignored. The UN would not have been in position to enforce them and its prestige would have suffered. But this consideration clearly was secondary to the opposition of most of the member nations in the Assembly to the Russian dictatorship.

The atomic situation thus remains as it was. Uncle Sam has the secret, with no indication of any weakening in his determination to reveal it except under his own terms. The situation is one which according to all indications, meets with the approval of most Americans.

An old timer is the one who can recall when he had to take castor oil as a boy, there was no tasteless variety.

(THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Shenstone feels a desperate need to Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nuns Farthing—after death. He is in his old attic room when Sabrina comes up. She is unaware of his presence but Hilary manages to get through to her a little and she seems happy. Hilary realizes she is the girl he would have loved, if something hadn't gone wrong out there on the frontier . . .)

XX

A FEW days later Sabrina sat dozing in a deck-chair on the lawn, while Aunt Effie moved along the herbaceous border snipping faded blooms into a basket. It was nearly 5. They were waiting for tea to come out to the table laid under a big tree.

The white lace cloth stirred in a languid breeze, the silver tray and flowered Worcester china glinted with shifting flecks of sunlight which fell through the whispering leaves above. A bowl of strawberries and an uncut cake had already arrived. Nuns Farthing drowsed in a peacefulness not of this bustling world.

Just as the little procession of Mrs. Pilton with the teapot and silver urn on a tray, followed by Jennie with a plate of thin bread-and-butter left the house and started across the lawn, an open green four-seater with a solitary man at its wheel turned in at the gate and swept noisily along the drive to the steps, where it drew up with a flourish.

Sabrina's heart turned clean over. Here was the dream coming true. He had arrived.

"Who on earth can that be?" muttered Aunt Effie, dumping her basket and shears behind Sabrina's chair and pulling off the disreputable gloves she wore to garden in.

"Just at tea-time, too, and with your father away for the afternoon. We shall have to offer him tea, I suppose. Tell Jennie to bring another cup, Sabrina, while I go and see who it is."

Aunt Effie hurriedly crossed the grass toward the car. Sabrina had got out of her chair and stood watching, a thumping in her chest—the door on the near side of the car was opening—"Bring another cup, please, Jennie"—"Yes, miss"—and now he was coming towards her with Aunt Effie beside him . . .

SABRINA, as she faced them, realized that her knees were shaking and her hands were icy paws. He had taken off his hat now and carried it in his hand, uncovering nondescript blondish hair well flattened down on a roundish head above a big neck. The collar of his blue shirt was a bit too tight. Expensive tailoring could not disguise the unyouthful bulkiness of his body in gray flannels. This was never Hilary. . . . .

"—well, yes, I could do with a spot of tea." His voice could be heard now, with its flat Mayfair note. "I had rather a scratch lunch in town soon after 12."

No, no, not Hilary—please God, don't let Hilary be like this. . .

"Well, we're very glad to have you join us at tea," Aunt Effie was saying cordially. "This is my niece Sabrina. This is Mr. Shenstone, dear."

"How do you do?" said Sabrina faintly.

"How d'ya do?" said the visitor, and his pale eyes rested a moment without interest on the white-faced girl who had risen to greet him, before they went on to the tea-table. "Good afternoon, Mrs. Pilton, still turning out those marvelous tea-cakes, I see! I suppose I shall make a pig of myself, as usual!"

"This is Master Hilary's favorite cake, sir—the one without currants. If you'd warned me you were coming, I could have made the other kind."

Relief surged through Sabrina. This was George! But of course it was George, she had known all the time it could never, never be Hilary . . .

"Yes— as a matter of fact," said George, and his florid face clouded over, "—as a matter of fact, I've got rather bad news about my brother."

"I'm sorry to hear that, sir."

"B-bad news?" stammered Aunt Effie, with a glance at Sabrina who was staring at him dumbly and holding to the back of a chair.

"We was killed out in India, a few days ago."

"I'm very sorry, sir—"

"IT came as a bit of a shock, though we hadn't heard from him for some time, and my mother had begun to be anxious. We thought—that is, we thought I had better come down here and see about his things . . ."

"Yes, of course—I mean—but you really must sit down comfortably and have some tea first, now that it's here," groped Aunt Effie.

Mrs. Pilton turned then and went away across the grass, her footsteps making no sound, her face as inscrutable as ever. It was no shock to her to hear that Hilary, proxy-child of her barren heart, was dead. For several days she had been schooling herself to the knowledge, so mysteriously come by in the Mendip dusk. Her anxiety now was all for the eager, restless spirit of him that had come home, and for the girl-child Sabrina who was somehow involved in his unfinished destiny.

"Do sit down, Mr. Shenstone," Aunt Effie urged him helplessly, herself collapsing into the chair nearest the tea-pot. "Sabrina, darling, you'll feel better when you've had a cup of tea—"

"Please, Auntie, will you excuse me—" gasped Sabrina. "I—really don't want any tea—"

She walked away blindly towards the house, breaking into a stumbling run when she had got as far as the drive.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

IT'S REALLY awful to be so suspicious.

By rights I ought to be ashamed of myself.

But, I suppose, having lived in sophisticated New York for so many years has made me, and thousands of others, that way.

It's all about a little letter that came in the mail today, addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Erich Bradeis.

It's signed Marion Stockham, and the postmark is Piqua, Ohio.

After I got through reading it I said to my wife, who had read it first, "I wonder whether Mrs. Stockham is making fun of me. If that note came from New York City I'd say it was sarcasm."

"Oh, don't be ridiculous," my wife replied. "In the first place people don't go to the trouble of buying such lovely paper if they want to be sarcastic. In the second place people from Piqua aren't that kind. Middle-Western people aren't New Yorkers. They are kind people."

I thought about it quite a bit and I guess my wife is right.

Why should Mrs. Stockham have gone to all the bother of buying that lovely little folder with a tiny girl writing "Hello" with an enormous pink ostrich feather?

And there is a sky-blue inkwell with roses all over it. Certainly no insult there.

And here is what Mrs. Stockham writes:

"Just returned from two weeks in the 'Bush Country of Canada and had a nice vacation. Caught a lot of fish and met a lot of Ohio people and some lovely Canadians.

"But I missed my 'nightcap' I had no Brandeis column to read. Your column is the last thing I read before closing my eyes. In the Dayton Herald on the last page is your column.

"I read the comics—also on that page—first, then the movie column, then yours, and then to sleep. Your column gives me such a happy feeling at the end of the day. It is good to feel that in this land of ours we can still write and live as we please.

"Sometimes I do not agree with you. Then I just sleep on it and things look better. But adopting you as a night-cap saves me headaches."

YOU see what I mean? Now I'll tell you what made me suspicious.

In his very sophisticated Broadway column, Louis Sobol had just told a similar story about a girl who had been pretty much of a pain in the neck to him. He saw her in a night club and said to himself, "What a change has come over her. Sweet-mannered and no longer fresh."

Then that sweet thing shouted at Louis, who was several tables away, and she shouted it loudly:

"Hey, Louis! I still read your column every night . . . puts me to sleep."

And he closes the episode thusly, "Sweet-mannered, my eye!"

There you have the difference between New York and Piqua, Ohio.

Thanks, Mrs. Stockham. I know you meant well.

CLARK UNDER FIRE

'Smear' Plan Charged

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Attorney General Tom Clark's attempts to "smear" the two anti-Communist investigators on Capitol Hill —Representative J. Parnell Thomas of New Jersey and Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan—are attributed by close-up observers to a desire to offset President Truman's references to their activities as a "red herring."

Together with the Vinson-to-Stalin proposal, the nagging money letter to Bernard M. Baruch and his "selfishness" charge against workers and farmers if they should vote against him, these are generally regarded as Mr. Truman's most damaging technical blunders in the campaign. If it were to be a tight race, these alone might account for his defeat, in the opinion of his aides.

TUCKER

Therefore, the obvious counterattack, which has been used by Republicans as well as Democrats ever since Theodore Roosevelt's day, was to discredit the principals in the anti-Red drama at the eastern end of Pennsylvania Avenue.

INVESTIGATING: Texas Tom Clark, for instance, has passed out word to Department of Justice correspondents that he is investigating alleged "pay roll irregularities" on the part of Congressman Thomas, who heads the House Committee on un-American activities. His revelations of apparent Roosevelt-Truman tolerance toward "Commies" in key places at Washington have been politically disturbing.

In the first place, the head of the "Justice" agency has no right to announce in advance that any individual is "under investigation." Headline indictments of this sort violate the oath of office which every A.G. must take on assuming this office. There should be no publicity of this kind until an indictment is actually handed down by a Grand Jury.

Secondly, Mr. Clark would have to indict one-third of the members of House and Senate, if he found that such political sins as nepotism and pay roll manipulation were federal offenses, which they are not. The fact is that he would not dare to move against an M.C. because he merely followed an old and recognized Capitol Hill custom.

SITUATION: This analysis of Attorney General Clark's behaviour does not constitute a defense or an extenuation of Parnell Thomas' alleged practice of paying off relatives with official moneys and of forcing members of his staff to "kick back" part of their comparatively niggardly salaries.

Even though other members indulge in these schemes, that is no defense for him. But the punishment for such a man is defeat at the hands of his constituents, and that has usually been the sentence when violators of the simple, human decencies have been exposed.

However, the misconduct of one individual, although he happens to be the chairman of the committee, should not be seized upon by Attorney General Clark to discredit the work of the full body.

Granting that the House investigators have not behaved too judicially—no Congressional inquisitors ever have—they have uncovered a threatening situation which has been hidden for almost twenty years.

SMEAR: The effort to "smear" Senator Ferguson is utterly outrageous, in the opinion of Democratic and Republican associates acquainted with the facts.

It has been charged that he has received "favors" and "gifts" from a Detroit firm, and that Mrs. Ferguson represented the company as a semi-lobbyist at Washington. Here are the facts:

The great corporation supposed to have dominated and corrupted the Fergusons is a $25,000 concern owned by the youngster who married their daughter, Charles R. Beltz.

He had worked as an aeronautical engineer in the Detroit area. Being an imaginative and aggressive youngster, he saw a chance to enter the furnace and air-conditioning field in one of Detroit's growing suburbs. But he did not have the necessary capital.

CRIME: Senator Ferguson loaned him $10,000 Mrs. Ferguson sold a piece of property that provided an additional $10,000. Mr. Beltz raised the remainder of the $25,000 capital. The Fergusons hold stock amounting to the total which they have advanced.

Thus, for doing what any father and mother would do for their daughter and her husband, they are shamefully "smeared." Their real crime, of course, is that Senator Ferguson dug deep into hidden history of the Pearl Harbor disaster and is now engaged in driving "Commies" out of Washington.

THRIFT: Massachusetts Republicans apparently believe that old-fashioned thrift of the Calvin Coolidge variety is still a political asset. For their snappy campaign newspaper, Teamwork, which is supervised by Albert L. Leman, former McClure editor, tells this story about Lieutentant Governor Arthur William Coolidge, who seeks reelection:

As a distinguished dignitary, he was invited to attend the Harvard ceremonies at which Secretary Marshall first proposed the plan for American economic assistance to Europe. But it happens that a sartorial requirement for guests at such affairs in the ol' "Hawhvawhd Yawd" is a high hat.

Mr. Coolidge does not own a topper, saw no reason for incurring such an expense and, so, he did not attend the affair. He read the Marshall speech the next day in a newspaper that cost only five cents, as against $40 for a silk stovepipe. He will probably run ahead of the Dewey-Warren ticket next month.

Many a brain-child gets out of control just like the human kind.

The cave man should have been happy. His wife wasn't all the time figuring on new wallpaper.

To keep ahead of his creditors, many a man thinks he must have a speedy automobile.

An old-timer is the one who can remember when a fellow put a potato over the spout on a kerosene can.

The modern wife never worries about her wayward husband unless he has the family car and she wants to use it.

It doesn't take much playing for the middle-age play-boy to play out.

It's hard to patch a friendship so that the patches can never be seen.

The old-time man who would fight at the drop of a hat has a son who will run for office upon receiving the second slap on the back.

Believe It Or Not -- By Robert Ripley

GOPs, SOUTHERN DEMOS BUSY

Truman On Spot In Tennessee

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

MEMPHIS.—Virginia has given to the political lexicon perhaps the most back-handed expression of Democratic support for President Truman typical in the south in this year of confusion and resentment.

It came in appropriate flowery rhetoric from J. Lindsey Almond, jr., former congressman, now attorney general of the state in the Senator Harry F. Byrd regime, who said "the only sane and constructive course to follow is to hold to the anchor of our fundamental faith and remain in the home of our fathers, even through the roof leaks, and there may be bats in the belfry, rats in the pantry, a cock-roach waltz in the kitchen, and skunks in the parlor."

STOKES

Just like that:

Here in Tennessee they do not go in for such flights of eloquence. But here, too, Democrats are most skittish about mentioning President Truman for fear of driving away support from their local tickets to Republicans or Dixiecrats.

There is, in fact, no campaign organization in Tennessee for the national Truman-Barkley ticket. It is sort of an after-thought, the national ticket. The regular state organization and it's a quickly patched-up new one to supplant boss Ed. H. Crump's defeated machine—is putting all emphasis on the campaign to elect to the U. S. Senate and to the governorship, respectively, Rep. Estes Kefauver and Gordon Browning who whipped the Crump machine in the primaries.

Neither of these two gentlemen is carrying any water for Harry Truman, but devoting all attention to themselves. The president may benefit from this, by proxy so to speak, on the theory that a big vote for these state candidates will reflect itself via the "straight ticket" voting route in the Truman vote. Gordon Browning described President Truman once as the lesser of two evils, which is not saying too much.

Harry Truman is running virtually alone here as in many other places.

Yes, he is doing very well, and it is due, perhaps more than any other one thing, to the way he is laying down the issues in his dogged and persistent campaign which gets back to the folks here through the newspapers and radio, even if they don't hear much from their state Democratic leaders.

Economic issues have influence in this state. One of the biggest, of course, is TVA, which has brought so many benefits to the people. They are made aware that this was created by a Democratic administration and that Republicans attempted in the last Congress to hamstring its expansion. TVA means something to people of all walks of life in the state.

Labor is strong here and in other cities of the state and it constitutes the basic Truman strength. Labor is very active and is carrying on an educational campaign, not only on economic issues, but also in the techniques of practical politics.

This is a big agricultural state. Some observers believe that President Truman helped himself with the farmers by picking up Harold Stassen's comment on price supports which the President interpreted to mean that Republicans intend to whittle them down, though Governor Dewey gave the price support principle general endorsement subsequently. There is a theory, how valid is not known, that the strong position of the administration on agriculture may wean away to the Democrats some farmers who otherwise are inclined toward the Dixiecrats. The Dixiecrat movement is strongest in this western end of the state where there is the biggest negro population.

Republicans have divisions of their own in the state. They grow from what appears to be a transition in the party here from the old to the new as exemplified in defeat of the old guard GOP at Philadelphia in the Dewey-Warren ticket and the platform and in indications that Governor Dewey plans to reorganize the party along more progressive lines.

That, at least, seemed to be the meaning of creation of a separate Dewey-Warren committee here by Herbert Brownell, jr., Governor Dewey's campaign manager. To head and direct this organization he selected Ralph M. Duggan, of Athens, in East Tennessee, who was active in the so-called "G. I. revolt" two years ago against the corrupt Republican machine in McMinn county which had a tie-up with the Crump machine and subsequently in instituting a good government regime in that embattled area. Mr. Duggan has constantly fought the Crump machine and is one of the up-and-coming new and young Republican leaders in the state.

Wall Street

MARKET BOARS AHEAD

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—Wall Street's pre-election stock market roared ahead today.

In the steepest advance in more than four months, prices moved up 1 to 6 points.

A steady stream of buying orders boosted the general price level to just below the year's top.

Backbone of the market were steel shares most of which sold at peak prices for the year. Demand spilled over into the railway, oil, motor, airplane and other groups.

Trading volume ballooned to 1,800,000 shares. It was the best day the street has had since mid-July and compared with 1,200,000 Thursday.

Most observers figured that today's surge of buying power was a natural. The price level, it was pointed out, has advanced without serious interruption since the first of the month.

The stock market traditionally weighs the economic future. The scales today are heavily weighted in favor of high-pitched business activity for months ahead. A recession may be ahead but few are worrying much over its size.

Many in Wall Street believe the attitude of a Republican administration, if a change should be made, would do much to create a more favorable atmosphere in which business and commerce could function.

Closing at or within a share of the year's tops were U. S. Steel at 87, Bethlehem 39⅝, Republic Steel 33⅝, Youngstown Sheet 88⅛, National Steel 114, Wheeling Steel 57⅛, Jones & Laughlin 39¾, and Dow Chemical 80⅜.

New Highs were established for a total of 51 issues.

Others ahead included General Motors 64⅞, Chrysler 61¾, Santa Fe 118⅝, Nickel Plate 190, U. S. Rubber 47, Standard Oil (NJ) 80⅛, Gulf Oil 75, United Air Lines 13¾, Eastern Air Lines 16¾, Westinghouse Electric 29½, American Telephone 152⅛, and N. Y. Central 17⅝.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in moderate trading today. Hedge selling was offset by mill buying, with New Orleans and local son both sides of the market. With a fair volume of producer offerings overhanging the market, favorable news did not have immediate effect on prices.

Japan reentered the market for 60,000 bales of United States cotton for November-December shipment, with prices too be based on March futures.

Cotton closed very steady.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (AP) — Feed grains turned downward on the board of trade today while wheat maintained a steady tone. Easiness in corn and oats was caused by less-urgent demand for the cash grain, particularly corn.

Purchases of cash corn on a to-arrive basis from the country expanded to more than 100,000 bushels. Prices in the spot market were off a few cents.

Wheat was aided by a weather bureau five-day forecast showing little prospect of rain in the southwest winter wheat area. Purchases of moderate quantities of flour by France also helped, as did trade reports of a slight pick-up in domestic flour business.

Wheat closed ⅛-⅜ higher, December $2.26⅝-⅞, corn was ⅛-⅛ lower, December $1.39⅛-⅜, oats were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76⅛.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22 (AP) — Wheat—No. 1 hard $2.41-2.44
Oats—No. 2 white 84½-.86
Corn—No. 2 white 1.80-2.00
Sorghums—No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.85-3.00

Gov. Wright Says Voters Must Decide Future Course Of Nation

the American constitution."

We are threatened at the present by those who, working within the framework of our laws, would abolish our way of government by perverting and deforming with alleged humanitarian ideals, the Governor asserted.

"These perversions are offered under the trade name of "civil rights" and "human rights" but men everywhere admit these proposals were advanced for no purpose other than as bait for the radical vote of a few jam-packed sections of a few big cities," he continued.

And at the same time they are encroaching upon the liberty of the majority everywhere in order to gratify a minority, he emphasized.

North's Tactics Scored

"They propose to change the government and its principles not by constitutional amendment, as was set out by our forefathers, but by legislative enactment," the nominee charged.

"To minimize our strength, these totalitarians call us sectionalists. That is false!"

But for every man in the South so called, Gov. Wright said, there are two in the north who have had the same experience. For every southern sheriff or policeman in the south who has been called cruel, bigoted, and ignorant by the radicals which control the other parties, there is a bluecoat of the New York police force who in his normal round of duty, has been labeled 'fascist' or 'cossack.'"

These name-callers, Gov. Wright declared, "are the enemies of all the American people, and all liberty loving Americans are their enemies."

To the audience, which applauded heartily in response, the speaker paraphrased Mr. Truman's message to the American farmer in his Philadelphia acceptance, when he said that if the farmers did not support the party in power, they were the most ungrateful people in the world. In paraphrase, Gov. Wright said, "If you do not support the principles of home rule and free self government, you are the most careless and negligent of any people who ever possessed that precious jewel that is freedom."

"Let me sound a warning to these minorities which are being used for cheap political purposes," he continued: "This year, if you conspire with a tyrannical majority to tear down constitutional barriers there will be nothing left to protect you in the future but the whims of demagogues and mobs. Once regard for that document is gone, what have you then to guarantee freedom of religion and speech, and right to trial by jury?"

Centralization of power is reactionary. Home rule is progressive. That is the perdict of history, Gov. Wright declared.

Plea Made To Texans

"The time has come when the people of Texas must decide what course they will follow. Will they follow blindly the administration now in power because it bears the false label of the Democratic party, will they in anger follow the party that was built on the philosophy of a strong, centralized government—the Republican party—or will they follow the only party which truly represents the principles of local self government, the States' Rights party of Texas?" Gov. Wright continued.

"We have been accused of being a 'splinter' party," Gov. Wright said, but in reality "we are the true Democratic party because we are true to the party principles and have not repudiated the basic party principle of 'support of state governments in all their rights, as the most competent administrations for our domestic concerns' as the national Democratic party did at the Philadelphia convention."

Not Racial Issue

"But if we are the 'splinter' party as we have so often been accused, then we're going to give Mr. Truman a bad case of lockjaw," Gov. Wright commented. His statement drew laughter and applause from his audience.

The States' Rights movement is not to destroy but to restore the two-party system in America as is was developed, he declared.

But, he cautioned, "let no man be deceived about the issue. The Southern revolt, the States' Rights movement, is not based on racial issues. It is a fight in which the first blow was struck by Truman, the force bills advocated by Truman provide only a skirmish in a total war that will determine for generations yet unborn whether America is to remain free or whether it will follow a path that leads first to centralization, then to despotism, and finally to destruction."

We have been patient long and have endured much, the speaker said, but Texas—and America—is at the crossroads. And "we are the only political group to which voters who stand firm for American principles can turn," he said in conclusion.

Put Talk Aside

Governor Wright then put aside his papers, confided that he "wasn't so good at reading prepared speeches, but liked to talk," and proceeded to do just that.

"This is a fight for future generations and not so much for us," he said. "I'm 53 years old, I guess it won't make much difference to me by the time the military governments are set up and it won't keep me from sitting on my front porch."

"But it will make a difference to our children and grandchildren. I've got two grandsons I'm mighty proud of, and it'll make a difference to them."

"Everyone believes when anything comes out of the State of Mississippi with the slightest racial tint that it's because our population is half negro and half white. Well," he said, "I've been a lawyer for over 30 years, and I once practiced law in a town where we had a negro justice of the peace. We elected him to that office without a negro vote."

The point, he said, was that "there isn't anyone who can tell us how to conduct our affairs better than we can, or how to live and get along together better than we already know how to do."

But this living and getting along must be on a segregated basis, he declared.

"The fight is down to rock bottom," he said. "It's a matter of whether you want to retain your right to govern your own state of Texas and run your own affairs yourself."

"Some of you here tonight are going to vote for Mr. Truman because you, and your father and grandfather before you, always voted the Democratic ticket," he said.

"You cannot vote for Wallace or Dewey or Truman," he continued, "without saying out to the world: I do not think our Texas Rangers, our sheriffs or deputies, are competent. I think the national Legislature should provide federal officers to come in and take over our state government and affairs."

"You must say you want the federal government to send in representatives to tell you who to hire, how to run your business, how to run your state.

"But if you do not want this, then vote States' Rights and retain the principles that are the American way!" he concluded.

Army Still Rugged

Gen. Devers, a native of York, told the mothers that the peacetime Army is going to be "considerably different from the Army you have heard described," and he added:

"As mothers of veterans, you have unquestionably overheard your sons exchanging reminiscences with other veterans. 'We had the toughest sergeant in the Army,' one will say. Then he will tell you how tough the sergeant was—a sergeant who was a benign foster father to everyone from recruits to new second lieutenants."

But Gen. Devers added, "make no mistake, the Army was and is rugged, too, but not as rugged as represented. Our sergeants could and can be rough and tough, too, if need be, as German and Japanese survivors will attest."

"American sons," he said, "are marching away again, not for the winning of a war, but for the preservation of peace."

He told the mothers a recruit will be treated as a person "of individual dignity and feelings, entitled to courtesy and consideration.

"He will like it."

on a franchise basis, whereby one man controls it in each city. This franchise holder, he said, pays 20 per cent of his sales to a national sponsor, and 15 per cent to youths and others to sell the cards.

The group of about two dozen ministers in the meeting, representing nearly half the churches in the city, voted a vigorous approval of a motion by the Rev. Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of First Presbyterian church, setting out that "we offer a strong protest against any individual or group of individuals making such a thing available to our youth."

Attending the meeting on invitation were R. W. Matthews, superintendent of the public schools, and Sheriff Grady Harrist. Both pledged cooperation against the practice, and in Sheriff Harrist's case against "all other law violations."

The association approved a report by a committee named at a previous meeting to work out plans for a union Thanksgiving service here. The service is to be held Wednesday night, Nov. 24, at the First Methodist church, with Dr. Grant to preside and Rev. Travis A. White, pastor of the First Christian church, to be the speaker. The offering is to be applied on expenses incidental to teaching of the Bible in the public schools.

The committee on arrangements consisted of Rev. Hubert H. Bratcher, pastor of St. John's Methodist church as chairman; Rev. Albert F. Laing, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene; and Dr. Jack Lewis, First Presbyterian pastor.

Melchior Is Given Warm Ovation In Second Performance

Another near-capacity audience sat spellbound for almost two hours last night for the second and final performance in Lubbock by Metropolitan Opera tenor Lauritz Melchior. Lubbock Symphony orchestra under the direction of William A. Harod accompanied Mr. Melchior for the program at Lubbock Senior High school auditorium.

Presenting the same program which thrilled a first-night audience Thursday night, Melchior received as great an ovation Friday night as that accorded in Thursday's stirring performance.

Following the program, Melchior graciously received many members of the audience backstage, presenting them with photographs and consenting to sign autographs. The heroic tenor, whose voice and impressive figure have become familiar to millions of music lovers all over the world, seemed to enjoy the event fully as much as did the audience and orchestra.

The two-night program equalled in interest, appreciation and attendance any such performance ever presented in Lubbock.

workers to oppose the Communist-led strike campaign which is aimed, it said, at "running national production and enfeebling the defense of the nation."

The ministry said militarized police fired only after being fired upon in compliance with strict orders. An eyewitness said at least 27 miners were injured, seven seriously.

Reds Fail Of Objectives

Police were reported to have opened fire with submachine guns on 1,500 attacking strikers at Cambefort mine near Firminy.

The strike has shut down almost all coal mines in France and the country has lost more than 2,000,000 tons of coal. Replacement coal coming from the United States would cost $22 a ton, making the net loss $44,000,000. That much coal would fill 200 Liberty ships.

Three Men Held In Bombing Here

Capt. Bob Crowder and Raymond Waters, all of Lubbock, and Dep. Sheriff Charlie Trimble of Hobbs—officials who had been working on the case several hours there.

The Hobbs men signed a waiver of extradition to Texas, and were returned here at 1:15 a. m.

Newsmen at Lubbock and Hobbs had been asked by officials to allow them until midmorning before "breaking" the story, so that they might untangle some of the elements of their investigation.

Charge Is Quoted

The charges accuse the men of having ". . . unlawfully and willfully caused an explosion of a house belonging to Texas, New Mexico & Oklahoma Coaches, Inc., by means of placing therein an explosive matter; to wit, dynamite, and causing the same to be exploded . . ."

Capt. Crowder, Sheriff Harrist and District Attorney Croslin released here an account of the investigation Friday, and Deputy Sheriff Trimble gave the Hobbs newspapers the story at the same time.

Lomax, an ex-serviceman, had been an oil field roughneck until joining the Hobbs police approximately two months before the bus terminal bombing here. He is unmarried and came from Coweta, Okla. He was a member at one time of the Oil Workers of America union. A few days before the bombing he was ordered discharged from the Hobbs police force after complaints that he had interfered with the duties of non-union bus drivers who had replaced union drivers on strike there. He allegedly had charged the non-union drivers with traffic violations in Hobbs, and bus company officials protested.

Worked As Carpenter

Storey is married and the father of one child. He had been making $2 an hour as a carpenter, some of the investigators were told. He had lived in Hobbs approximately two and a half years.

Lomax allegedly was told that he would be "paid" if he would bomb the terminal here. The bombing would stir excitement in a several-weeks strike that thus far had not affected the bus company's ability to recover from early stage difficulty in maintaining its schedules, and might direct public attention again to the fight of the union (Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen) to gain concessions from the employer bus company.

Lomax, allegedly accompanied by Storey, was said to have come here and studied the physical arrangement of the terminal's exterior and interior, together with outside property adjacent to the terminal; stood outside to determine whether there were witnesses, smoking a cigaret while leaning against a corner of the building, then to have walked a few feet eastward to the window, smashed it with a rock and tossed the dynamite into the office.

Sped Away In Car

Investigators were told that he then dashed southward to where the car was waiting on Fourteenth, a block south and a few yards eastward of the bus terminal and to have sped away. Storey was described in his statement to have been in the waiting car. Less than a block westward from where the car had been waiting, Lomax tossed under an empty bus parked near shops of the bus company a sack filled with dirt and pulverized dynamite, the fuse to which had failed to burn. Neither man heard the explosion, they said. The fuse on the bomb that exploded was from 12 to 16 inches long, it was related.

Investigators were informed that Lomax had been instructed not to toss the dynamite when anyone was in the official's office.

Hobbs News-Sun said Friday afternoon that Storey had claimed to be the bodyguard of Mayor J. Paul Heard of Hobbs, but that he never had any commission except one Heard obtained for him under Heard's official connection as commissioner of the state police.

The News-Sun also explained that Aaron White, Hobbs city police commissioner, resigned recently as a result of his insistence that the Hobbs police department insist that its members conduct themselves out of uniform as though they were on active duty, and had asked that Lomax be discharged from the force.

The newspaper told The Avalanche Journal that White had received written threats of personal injury in connection with his demands.

The Lubbock terminal, at 1215 Thirteenth, was bombed about 12:15 a. m. the morning of June 14. The office of Carpenter, assistant general manager, and that of Cecil Peyton, Superintendent of drivers, were damaged.

Driver Saw Bomb

L. P. Rheudasil, one of the drivers who did not go out on strike which was touched off May 21, saw the bomb before it exploded. He had just walked out of Carpenter's office when he heard the window smashed.

The strike found its way even before the bombing into 99th district court, when Judge G. V. Pardue restrained the union from interfering with conduct of the company's business. Indictments were voted by King county in connection with assault of one of the striking drivers, and another substitute driver, attacked at Abernathy, defended himself so stoutly that several men were worsted and withdrew from the scene.

No indictments were voted in Lubbock county.

Four union pickets were on duty the night of the bombing, but were walking only along the north front of the terminal and around the west side only to the baggage room—several feet from the corner of the building where the bomb-thrower allegedly watched for witnesses before tossing the bomb.

Handling Of Solon's Payroll Given Jury

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Justice department officials said tonight the department has started a grand jury investigation into the handling of payrolls in the office of Rep. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ), chairman of the House committee on un-American Activities.

The regular District of Columbia grand jury for the October term of court convened during the day, and officials said the cases presented to it included the Thomas inquiry.

The House committee which Thomas heads has been at odds with the Justice department in connection with the committee's hearings on alleged espionage activities among government employes.

Officials said Assistant Attorney General Alex Campbell was among those who went before the jury this afternoon. He was understood to have given the grand jury a report on an investigation by the FBI into published charges of irregularities in the handling of the payroll in Thomas' office.

Campbell told reporters late in September Attorney General Clark had received a petition from 17 lawyers in Thomas' home district requesting an investigation as a result of a series of articles by Drew Pearson, newspaper columnist, which alleged irregular practices in the handling of Thomas's office payrolls.

situation before the Allies rises from the action of the Russians in seeking to cut off access of the Allies to the city of Berlin," he said.

He described Russians as the only major cloud on the horizon of peace.

Connally said "our United Nations delegation, although oppressed and harassed by the maneuvers and agitations of those who oppose us, feel that war will not result in the near future."

He warned, however, that the United States, while seeking peace through the United Nations, must maintain an army, air force and navy second to none and must improve the atomic bomb.

Connally said he favors the abolition of the veto power within the UN's Security Council except in cases involving the question of war or resort to armed force.

ATTACK FEARED IF REDS THINK THEY CAN WIN

DALLAS, Oct. 22 (AP) — Lyndon Johnson declared here today that "I have no doubt in my own mind that the day Russia thinks she can attack this country successfully, she'll do it."

Russia will have the atomic bomb in another two years, Johnson told a luncheon meeting of the Dallas Reserve officers club.

Johnson, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, as U. S. representative from Texas is a member of the House Armed Services committee and the joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

He arrived here last night, but he wasn't talking politics, either in private or before the Reserve officers.

Johnson said he would make several speeches next week, all non-political, before groups which have invited him to speak. No radio broadcasts and no political rallies had been planned for the next 10 days before the Nov. 2 general election.

Johnson had nothing to say about his Republican opponent, Jack Porter of Houston, or about a Senate subcommittee's action in sending an investigator to Texas at the request of his primary opponent Coke Stevenson.

"I am concerned this week only with making a few speeches where I have been invited, and in becoming more familiar with the duties of my next job, that of senator from Texas," he said.

Porter predicted in a statement released here today that Lyndon B. Johnson, his Democratic opponent, will start campaigning again.

"Within a few days you'll see another amazing thing happen in Texas politics," Porter's statement said. "You'll see Lyndon Johnson start campaigning again —the first time in history a Democratic nominee has had to come back to the voters in a general election and ask them to send him to Washington."

End To Berlin Blockade Asked

ing of the four military governors of Germany to arrange for solution of the currency question—seemed acceptable.

The fact that each of the six neutral countries supported the resolution was a sign, he said, that Russia's only resource would be to veto it if she does not accept it.

Proposal Turned Down

The six-power resolution calls on the United States, Britain, France and Russia to prevent any incident which would aggravate the situation in Berlin.

The resolution was worked out after a series of conferences among the six countries and in talks between Bramuglia and the American, Soviet, British and French delegates. Before adjourning the meeting Bramuglia said the four big-power delegates and the Soviet Ukraine, the 11th council member, needed time to study it.

The meeting was held up 50 minutes by off-the-floor conferences at which well-informed sources said Vishinsky sought to amend the resolution to have the Soviet blockade lifted Nov. 20 when the unified currency would go into effect. These sources said the three western powers and the neutrals Argentina, China, Canada, Syria, Colombia and Belgium turned down Vishinsky's proposal.

Pleads For Adoption

At the session, Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton of Canada expressed hope that the resolution would be "the start of a great reconciliation."

Bramuglia made a strong plea for adoption of the resolution, declaring the big powers must use "means of reason, not force." He asked them to forget the prestige involved and said the question of world peace was much more important than the prestige of any one nation.

"We have reached the hour of decisions, harmonious decisions of benefit to all people," the Argentine said.

The resolution said that the council would act in accord with article 40 of the UN charter "in order to prevent an aggravation of the situation in Berlin, in particular by preparing the way to its settlement."

Mexican Proposal Okayed

Article 40 is part of chapter seven of the charter. This chapter contains the teeth in the UN enforcement machinery but article 40 calls for steps which can be invoked before stronger measures are taken. Under article 40 the council may call upon the parties concerned to comply with such provisional measure as it deems necessary or desirable.

Elsewhere in the U. N.:

1. In the assembly's political committee, the 58 delegates unanimously approved a Mexican proposal that the big powers get together and settle their differences.

Judges Are Named

Five judges were reelected to the international court of justice today. Three ballots were required to complete the selection. Four judges were reelected by the General Assembly and Security Council at day sessions, but a deadlock between the two bodies resulted when Judge Milova Zorici, of Yugoslavia, came up for reelection. The assembly, holding its first night meeting since UN convened here a month ago, reelected Zorici on the third ballot. Those previously renamed for nine-year terms were Judges Hsu Mo, of China; Abdel Hamid Badawi, Egypt; John Erskine Read, Canada; and Bohdan Winiarski, Poland.

3. Russia won a victory over the U. S. and Britain in the assembly's social commitee which voted 22 to 17 for a human rights amendment prohibiting slavery and the slave trade in all their aspects. Soviet delegate Alexei Pavlov claimed that 8,000,000 persons still are held in slavery in "certain areas of Africa, Asia and the American continent." He charged that the system of peonage in Latin America amounted to slave-like conditions.

English Workshop To Continue Here Today

Second-day sessions of the first annual District IV English workshop-conference are to continue this morning in room 252 of Lubbock Senior High school, following an afternoon session Friday at the High school, a dinner for visiting teachers at the Tech cafeteria, and a second session Friday night on the Tech campus.

This morning's session is as follows: A 9 a. m. discussion of the problems in teaching mechanics such as spelling, punctuation and grammar, with Dr. T. W. Camp and Mrs. Ruth Dykes as co-chairmen; a discussion at 10:30 a.m. of standards of English teaching in District IV, with Dr. Alan M. F. Gunn as chairman; and a report of the district committee on recommendations at 11:30 a. m.

A general committee meeting is scheduled for this afternoon at the home of Miss Glenys Honey, general chairman.

Approximately 125 teachers attended the Friday sessions, with about 80 in attendance at the dinner. Forty-two schools in District IV are represented, general committee members reported Friday night.

ial Soviet schools recently established in the Soviet part of Berlin.

Recruiting Underway

Their training will include street fighting tactics and "crowd control."

Soviet trained police officers are doing the recruiting quietly, with inducements of extra pay.

This "elite" force will be quartered in barracks formerly occupied by Hitler's palace guard near the Friedrichstrasse railroad station in the Soviet sector of the city, but members will be permitted to maintain residences in the western sectors.

Reds Break Promise

It was pointed out this special force will come in extremely handy during the Berlin elections in December. Former Nazis are not barred from the force.

The Soviet news agency revealed meanwhile that the Russians have gone back on a promise to free west sector police arrested during the Communist riot at city hall Sept. 6.

The news agency said three were given jail terms after "confessing" they had tried to provoke the riot on orders of officials in western Berlin.
