Toxic Waste Well Threat Over

Sweetwater Resources Withdraws Application

Sweetwater Resources, Inc., according to Dr. Ernie Atkins, Chairman of the Fisher County Task Force Opposing The Hazardous Waste Injection Well, has withdrawn their application to place a toxic waste disposal well in South Fisher County.

"It appears from the information we have now that Sweetwater Resources, Inc., has withdrawn the application, that the threat of a well in Fisher County is over and that the issue is dead" commented Dr. Ernie Atkins. "We can't begin to name those instrumental in this victory for Fisher County. We are very thankful for all the help that was offered and extended during this ordeal," said Dr. Atkins.

The Fisher County Commissioners were honored with a mini banquet by the 4-H Ambassadors last Monday morning; asked to "get off dead center" on making a decision to move offices in the court house and asked to do some painting and purchase some building materials for the Pink Building in Roby.

New Flag Pole Will Be Erected At Belview Cemetery

There will soon be a new American flag waving on the horizon. According to Rotan City Manager Joe Dickson, the City of Rotan is in the process of erecting a new flag pole, in cooperation with the Fisher County VFW at the entrance to the Rotan Cemetery.

The new 30 foot cemetery flag pole is expected to be completed in 4 to 6 weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Fisher County Commissioner Billy Henderson. At a meeting last Monday morning of the Fisher County Commissioners he said, "We try to buy what we can in the county". This statement was made after a visitor implied that some money could be saved by going to Abilene and shopping at one of the so-called discount lumber yards. Glad Henderson is unafraid to express his opinion. I feel we need more Henderson's on boards, commissions and agencies in Fisher County - If you can get it at home, buy it at home. In all fairness, Judge Bennett was also of the opinion that Fisher County should shop at home.

NEW FLAG POLE INSTALLED: The flag pole watchers have a new pole to keep track of now. The City of Rotan just installed a new flag pole at the City Hall, on the West end of town. The pole was constructed and erected by the city employees. Fine job.

RAIDING FISHER COUNTY EDUCATORS: Former Rotan School Superintendent Alton Fields, now superintendent at Sanford-Fritch, North of Amarillo, is plucking educators from Fisher County - two at a time. He recently offered Roby High School Principal Guy Nelson a position and will also be employing Rotan teacher and wife of Guy Nelson, Lynda (Henderson) Nelson. Things are still a little un-official, but if Roby and Rotan give contract releases, look for Sanford-Fritch to have two new educators.

State Capitol Highlights

By Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

Texas Democrats will convene in special session next week prepared to write a state budget they hope will get them off the political hook for a long time.

Texas Republicans accused top Democrats of shutting them out of the budget process and violating the Open Meetings Act, to boot.

Gov. Ann Richards, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock, House Speaker Gib Lewis and four House members closeted themselves with Comptroller John Sharp's deficit-reduction plan at a Matagorda Island hideaway late last month.

Except for Gov. Richards, all are members of the Legislative Budget Board and six people make a quorum.

The Associated Republicans of Texas asked Travis County DA Ronnie Earle and Attorney General Dan Morales, both Democrats, to probe the legality of the meeting.

Morales called them "partisan political buzzards" and told them to file a lawsuit with their own money.

Richards said no decisions were made in secret, just a briefing by staff, thus no violation occurred.

GOP Challenges Richards

The governor has gotten a lot of "I told you so" mileage by boasting that the Legislature does not need to pass an income tax.

Her critics remind that her present stance is a change from her soft position, necessitated by the fact that until Sharp's plan was released, an income tax on her desk was a strong possibility.

And still is at some future date.

FINALLY: Ol' Whistle Britches from his Shinnery Ridge Ranch at Rough Creek was impressed that Dr. Ingo Scholz and Beate Schmidt, staff members of the German parliament, spent a few days mingling with U.S. Representative Charles Stenholm. They attended the open house of the new unit additions to the Rotan Housing Authority. One comment made by Beate Schmidt was, "One would never have the opportunity to see a countryside like this." They apparently could have taken a structured "touristy" trip to Arizona or San Francisco.

IGNORANCE: All of us know a few individuals who hold the D.I. degree - doctor of ignorance.

SIN: It almost always starts out as just a little fun.

AMERICANS: Who else but Americans can afford chairs that vibrate, beds that jiggle and cars that don't?

BEHAVIOR: Funny how temper gets men in trouble but pride keeps them there.

GOSSIP: A Royston farmer said the only this his wife ever got second-hand was gossip.

FINALLY, FINALLY: Ever wonder why when some witness offers to tell the truth, some lawyer is prepared to object?

Some say it's inevitable.

State GOP Party chairman Fred Meyer challenged Richards to put it on the line by promising to veto any income tax while she is in office.

Through a press spokesman, Richards declined and called the challenge "ridiculous, partisan game playing."

New Gubernatorial Powers

Meanwhile, Gov. Richards, who asked the Legislature last week to reorganize state government, has a plan that would give the governor sweeping new powers over most state programs and agencies.

The proposal would give the governor direct control over the criminal justice system, environmental protection programs, health and human services, economic development and transportation.

In a press conference, Richards wouldn't identify her primary targets. But in a proclamation officially calling the Legislature into special session on July 15, she made it clear she expects lawmakers to work on shaking up state government before adopting a new budget.

Cabinet-Style Authority

Under the plan, the governor would be handed cabinet-style authority to appoint executive directors of state agencies after the agencies are reorganized and consolidated into eight umbrella-type government departments.

Much of the reorganization would be similar to that already proposed by Sharp. But the plan developed by Richards' staff would go a major step further by having the governor appoint the agency heads, who now are named by boards and commissions.

"People believe there has to be more accountability, and we don't have it now," Richards said. "The notion of having a direct appointment of the departmental heads and the direction of an agency, making that person directly accountable to the governor, is a very important issue."

The idea of giving the governor authority to appoint agency chiefs has been endorsed by at least two key legislators, Sen. John Montford, D-Lubbock, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Rep. Ric Williamson, D-Weatherford, vice chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

Hutchison Skewers Taxes

State Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutchison has spent several weeks telling audiences there is no real deficit, just one contrived by Democrats who plan to increase spending 22 percent.

"Households and businesses don't increase spending 22 percent; why should government do so?" she asks.

Hutchison says Texas already has the second highest state and local sales tax and leads the nation in property tax increases.

Speaker's Trial Delayed

A state district judge postponed the pre-trial hearing on Speaker Gib Lewis' criminal ethics case to Sept. 24 because the Legislature will meet in special session next week.

Lewis was indicted on two misdemeanor ethics charges in December, but the hearing was delayed while legislators met in regular session this spring.

Other Highlights

* Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said his office will increase inspections of gasoline pumps and consider farming the task out to the private sector to save money. He said each year about 4.5 percent of pumps show inaccurate measurements.

* The State Board of Insurance lowered rates by 20 percent for credit life insurance on loans of less than five years, expected to save Texans $34 million annually.

* Texas health care officials have their eyes on Oregon where the Legislature there funded a bill to make the state guarantee basic health care to all poverty level citizens. A key word in this experiment is "basic." The state refused to fund many expensive treatments.

Headed In The Right Direction

One small sailing vessel sits on the horizon, surrounded by the vastness of the sea. The sky is becoming threatening, its azure blue surrendering to churning clouds of blackness. No longer is the sea an expanse of liquid sapphire, sparkling in the sun. It has become a manipulative gray monster, violently tossing the little sailing ship with angrily waving arms.

Just as it appears that the tiny ship will forever become a prisoner to the depths of the sea, a white cloud of billowing sails floats triumphantly from the mast of the frenzied craft, and it begins its voyage back to the safety of the shore... headed in the right direction.

We all encounter storms and crisis at some time in our lives. Yet, we need not succumb to them, for like the billowing sails, God is always there if we call on Him, waiting to rescue us... to head us in the right direction.

Look to God this week as you worship in your church or synagogue.

WTU Lowers Cost Of Electricity 7.8 Percent

West Texans trying to hold off the effects of summer temperatures received some welcome news from West Texas Utilities Co. The electric utility has lowered the cost of electricity 7.8 percent for July through September compared to costs for the last year.

According to Garvis Hinson, WTU's local manager, the interim decrease is part of WTU's request to lower the fuel cost portion of the bill to reflect the price it is paying for gas and coal to generate electricity. The Public Utility Commission of Texas will decide whether permanently lower costs should go into effect beginning in October, Hinson said.

Those final costs are expected to be about 2.5 percent lower than they were during the last 12 months. July through September are typically the months of highest use as air conditioners and heat pumps work overtime to keep inside temperatures as much as 30 degrees lower than outside temperatures. The actual size of each customer's bill will be determined by their use.

WTU also offers energy saving tips which can reduce costs through lower use. These include replacing air conditioner filters monthly; closing drapes to keep out direct sun; using heat-producing appliances (such as oven, washer, dryer, and dishwasher) during the cooler morning and evening hours; and many more ideas.

For booklets and tips on conservation, contact your nearest WTU office.

Thank You

I appreciate all the nice things that were done for me when I retired from the Rotan Independent School District, where I have taught school since 1952.

The flowers, cards, calls, clocks, plaques, lunches, dinners, words of kindness and other gifts were exceptionally thoughtful and will be golden memories added to my collection of memories concerning Rotan.

I especially want to thank the Rotan School Board members, Dr. Nolan Kinsey, Mr. David Hargrove, Mr. Jim Cain, Mr. Mickey Early, and all the employees of the Rotan Independent School District.

May God bless each of you,
Mrs. Marshall (Joyce Bigham) Hill

County Agent News

By Richard Spencer

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN by Richard Spencer

A common plant problem showing up in county plant problem tours is iron deficiency. The symptoms begin as a yellow leaf with green veins. Some plants such as pears, willows, sorghum ornamentals and lawns progress to completely yellow leaves then to creamy white leaves with brown to black burned margins and eventually complete death of the leaves. Most people try to correct this problem with iron sulfate (coppers) or one of the liquid irons, which are usually dilutions of iron sulfate. Iron sulfate will work on turf if applied dry at 10 lbs. per 1000 sq. feet. The root system on grass is only a few inches into the soil and some of the iron sulfate will reach the roots before it is "tied up" in our high PH soils. Trees and shrubs do not have as many roots that close to the surface. The majority of their roots will be in the first 18 inches of soil. Some people try putting liquid irons on the foliage but most give up after a couple of applications and end up with yellow leaves with green spots.

The person who is serious about curing iron deficiency should buy one of the chelated irons, either 138 Fe or Ferriplus. These chelated irons have an organic molecule that protects the binding site so the iron can be taken up by the root when it grows past it or soil water brings it by. Large trees and shrubs should have the iron placed at the dripline of the tree and beyond the dripline where the feeder roots are located. These irons are hard to mix with water. Avoid throwing in a container of water, it will become lumpy and not mix well. Either make a paste with a little water before diluting or place the iron in a sprinkling can and mix it with hose pressure. These chelated irons are expensive but they work when other irons will not.

by Louis D. Chedester SITUATION AT THIS HOUR

Some of the older cotton is approaching the 1/3 grown stage. Roby received a whiff of rain Sunday afternoon. Hot and dry conditions still predominate across the big 'ole area. (FJKSH)

FALL WEBWORMS

These little "fellows" have swooped into the 5 county area. Watch your fruit and shade trees!!!! Fall webworm moths are satiny white, sometimes with brown or black spots scattered over the front wings. Wingspread, about 1 1/2 inches. Larvae are pale yellow, black spotted, and quite hairy. They measure about 1 inch in length when grown. They form webs around leaves at the ends of limbs of many kinds of fruits, and shade trees. Two to 4 generations are common in this area. Eggs are deposited in scale covered masses on underside of leaves. Newly hatched larvae or worms feed on the foliage and spin a web over the foliage. The larvae can cause heavy defoliation in some years. Control measures include destroying both egg masses and small larvae when first noticed. Some suggested insecticides include Orthene, Diazinon, and Dursban. Be sure to read the label to see if material is approved for the trees that are infested.

You can wash a baseball cap on the gentle cycle. When clean tack the bill into back of the cap and air dry.

BOLLWORMS

Emory Boring, Extension Entomolo-

gist from Vernon predicted a egg lay, and boy, did we get one. We found 32 eggs per 100 plants in a field near Sylvester, Texas. A few small to medium worms have been found.

FLEAHOPPERS

These little pale yellow fleas are increasing in some fields around the area. Remember that in larger cotton (matchhead or larger) up to 30 fleahoppers per 100 plants can be tolerated. The percent square set is ranging from 80 to 100 percent.

APHIDS

Aphids (just females) are starting to gather in and around terminals. So far only light populations have been found. They just love to hang around, eat and --- "Gossip".

BOLL WEEVIL TRAPS Maximum number found:

Fisher 4; Jones 9; Kent 0; Stonewall 3; Haskell 6.

BENEFICIALS

These (good guys) are earning their keep. So far, they are chewing and sucking their way across the area, trying to keep the bad guys below economic levels. Our scouts have been finding lady beetles, nabids or damsel bugs, hooded beetles, big eyed bugs, and spiders. Hang in there guys.

TAX PLANNING
by James E. Rodgers, CPA

IRAs - YOUR INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE

Individual retirement accounts (IRAs) should be alive and well in your investment portfolio. Why? Because even a nondeductible IRA contribution can grow tax-deferred to many times its original value. All it really takes is a little bit of care and planning.

To start, select who will hold your investments. Custodians vary from banks to mutual fund companies to full service brokerage firms. Interview several different firms and choose the one which will best meet your needs.

After selecting your custodian, decide upon your investment strategy. Certificates of deposit (CDs) and Treasury obligations safeguard your principal, but equities (stocks) traditionally have a higher, long-term yield.

How important is yield in your IRA? Over a twenty-year period $15,000 will grow to $58,045 at 7%, to $69,914 at 8% and to $84,066 at 9%. If you don't understand the stock market, consider mutual funds. Many mutual funds have excellent management and can pool your money with thousands of other people's investments to provide higher returns for everyone.

Always contribute to your IRA early in the year instead of on April 15th of the following year. You'll get an additional fifteen months of tax-deferred earnings. At 10%, this could result in an additional $4,000 over ten years, $14,000 over twenty years, and $41,000 over thirty years.

Finally, monitor your IRA's growth periodically. If you find that your investment is yielding 7%, and another, equally safe investment is netting 10%, change your investment. A small, temporary decline in yield isn't critical, but a long-term drop of 1% can reduce your retirement funds by a substantial amount.

Contact us if we can assist you in maximizing the benefits of your IRA.

Historical Commission Working On Book

Fisher County Historical Commission had its regular meeting July 2nd. Work on the up-coming book "The Picture Book of Fisher County" is progressing well as many pictures have been turned in. At the July meeting some dead lines were set up. The book will go to press August 15th but people will be able to pre-purchase a book for $24.36 until the end of August. After August the price will be $29.50.

The book is to be dedicated to the service persons of Fisher County who were killed in action, and the profit from the book is to go toward a marble memorial to be erected on the Courthouse lawn. A committee, consisting of W.A. Cross, Glenn Upshaw, Bertha Warren, and T.O. Upshaw, is to work on this part of the book. Pictures of the following K.I.A.'s are needed and anyone knowing the location of these men's pictures can contact anyone in the F.C.H.C.: Oscar B. Boren, Charles G. Ince, Carrol W. Neepner, Robert P. O'Brian and Alton B. Wilson. July 20th is the dead line date for getting pictures for the book to a F.C.H.C. member.

Mondel Rogers, who is the state artist this year, has agreed to do the illustrations for the book sections. Pictures still needed are of the early doctors and the towns of Royston and McCauley.

There is to be a memorial service for A.P. Kelley - pioneer of Fisher County and Fisher County's third sheriff. The exact time the ceremony will be at Rotan Belvieu Cemetery will be announced later.

Four guests attended the July meeting: Don and Lela Hatter of South Fisher County, Bobbie McKinney of Rotan and Linda Anderson of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Members present were: Hooper Shelton, Dub Harvey, Willie McTurner, Connie Tutt, Thurman and Georgia Upshaw, Helen Noles, Jack and Jean Aaron, Lucille Adair, W.A. and Faye Cross, Obie Gene Kelley, Frank and Marjorie Mitchell,

Hustling Around Hobbs

By Joy Walker

by Joy Walker.....

Has it been hot enough for everyone? But they say that is what the cotton needs, and it sure does look good out this way.

I cannot believe that in the same copy of the Rotan Advance I had one granddaughter's wedding announcement and another granddaughter's birth announcement. That's what comes of having one daughter age 14, and one age 10 when one has another baby. Carol was 14 when Melody was born, and Sheila was 10, so I had lots of help.

Terrell Hess, son of Bruce and Sherry Hess of Marshall, Missouri, has been here visiting with his grandparents, James and Marguerite Nettleton.

Wayne and Joe Boydstun from Mesquite visited last Saturday through Friday morning with Frank and Mary Boydstun. Wayne's wife, Norma and daughter, Carlina, came Wednesday and went back with Wayne and Joe. Frank's sister, Myrtle House, from Peacock, spent the 4th with Frank and Mary and their company.

Linda Anderson from Colorado Springs, Colorado, has been here visiting with the Clarence Andersons. She came last Saturday and went home this Saturday. They really enjoyed her visit.

We were pleased to have J.C. Cave at church on Sunday. He came with Mrs. Billy (Loretta) Carter from Brownwood, and Darren Carter. They have all been here visiting.

Mickey Early brought our message at church on Sunday in the absence of Bro. Threatt and we really enjoyed having him. Pat Porter and her son-in-law, Wayne Jones from Sundown, were also at church Sunday.

Max and Phillip Burnett from Waco have been here visiting with Buddy Burnett.

Happy birthday to June Anderson whose birthday was Sunday and to Bro. Dee Threatt whose birthday was Tuesday.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. James Ratliff had a whole houseful of company. Mr. and Mrs. John Altman and Wanda Fuchs from Houston, Ed and Georgia Storie from Kingston, Oklahoma, Willis Ratliff and Maude Smith from Girard, Mr. and Mrs. Aacorn Bohanan and grandchildren, Denise and Chris from Stanton, and Kim and Tracy Knipe and family from Snyder all visited. Georgia Storie and Myrtle Bohanan are James' sisters, Willis is James' brother and Maude is his mother. Nina Altman and Wanda Fuchs are James' nieces from Houston. This weekend Mr. and Mrs. Richard Biecker from New Athens, Illinois, visited with the Ratliffs and with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ratliff and family who were also here. Trese Ratliff, son of Jim and Tracy, spent last week visiting with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Martinez attended the Cancer Society Barbecue on the 4th. There was such a big crowd present, and they were so grateful for all the donations. Saturday the 5th they attended the wedding of Matt Cross and Lisa Jones in Snyder. They also visited with Steve and Tachi Warren and family.

Mrs. Ginger Couch and family and Mrs. Doris Diamond and family from Dallas came to visit with Marcus Medrano for the 4th of July and they stayed until Sunday. They all went to the fireworks in Snyder on the 4th. Mr. and Mrs. Junior Lopez and family from Big Spring came to visit Saturday. Ginger is the new Principal of her school in Carrollton, so congratulations to her. They all went to church on Sunday and Marcus really enjoyed seeing his girls and their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd Etheredge and family from Durango, Colorado, spent Wednesday through Sunday with the J.W. Etheredges. David and Debra Etheredge and their family from Levelland were also there; they came Thursday the 4th and spent several nights with Randy and Vicky Etheredge and their family. Mrs. James Sherrill, from Sweetwater, LaTisha Kiker from Mesquite and Mrs. Debra Yearwood and family from Levelland all came Wednesday, also Mrs. Lealon Wilburn. On the 4th everyone went to Ann and Wendell Barretts including Sam and Roxie Etheredge, Mr. and Mrs. Corby Barrett and family from Illinois, Taina

Barrett from Lubbock and Charlotte Barrett from Wyoming, so they really had a big crowd and enjoyed all the visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilburn and Kyle from Anson and Mrs. Lealon Wilburn all visited Sunday with the J.W. Etheredges and their company.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maule are expecting all their children to be here for their 50th wedding anniversary which will be held Saturday, 13th at the Northeast Community Center. Congratulations to George and Josie. In this week's T.V. Guide I read that Brad Maule has just released an album of self penned country songs called "Living it Up". There is also a good picture of Brad; hope that his album is a big success. Wednesday I went to supper with Carol and Wilber as Greg was here from Crane; he was on his way to Fort Worth to the Belt Buckle Bonanza.

I have been talking to Mark and Melody and the little baby is doing just fine, and is so good, only eating and sleeping, so they are sure lucky. Of course she is the cutest little girl you ever saw, and I got to visit with them all Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of last week. Also saw Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Parrish. We came back from Austin late Tuesday. It was sure hot and humid down there and they had just received some rain, and then Wednesday and Thursday of this week, they got another 7 inches so they are really wet. Mark and Melody have already taken Kassie to her first Rodeo and she slept through the whole thing. Hope she will continue to be that good.

I also visited with Sheila and Donnie Gruben and Carye and their guests from Maine, Meredith Haegele. The kids seemed to really enjoy Texas and all the wide open spaces we have here; they returned to Maine on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Daniel and Autumn went to Cuba, New Mexico on Wednesday and stayed until late Sunday. They visited with Kathie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray York.

Well this is all for this week. See you next time.
