ASKS THAT POLAND AND LITHUANIA BE PUNISHED FOR WAR

CHARGED THAT THEY HAVE VIOLATED ARTICLE 16 OF COVENANT.

ASSEMBLY PASSES OVER THE ARMENIAN QUESTION

Committee Is Convoked This Afternoon To Further Consider The Matter.

By HENRY WOOD
U. P. Staff Correspondent.

GENEVA, Nov. 23.—Lord Cecil today demanded that Poland and Lithuania be punished, according to the League of Nations covenant for continuing at war after submission of their dispute to the league.

Cecil demanded the penalties set out in article 16 of the covenant be inflicted. The article provides that if any member of the league resorts to war in violation of the covenant, it shall be deemed to have committed an act of war against the other members. Punishment is the breaking of all relations.

The assembly passed over the Armenian question in the forenoon session, but Lord Robert Cecil convoked his committee of six for afternoon to consider it.

Cecil's motion that the league council be compelled to make public all documents in the Polish-Lithuanian settlement was under consideration.

Cecil declared the two countries had violated covenant articles by renewing their warfare in less than three months after submitting their quarrel to the league. This constituted a violation of the covenant, he asserted. He demanded that the penalty be inflicted as provided in article 16.

MUST SELECT A POWER TO SAVE THE ARMENIANS

GENEVA, Nov. 23.—Selection of a power to negotiate with Turkish leaders to "save Armenia" still was before the League of Nations today.

Yesterday's session was devoted to the Armenian situation, British and French leading opposing groups in debate as to the manner of procedure. The French plan for negotiation with Mustapha Kemal won the assembly's support after Rene Viviani had swept the delegates with his oratory.

Viviani's plan called the league council into session last night to draft an appeal to some power to undertake negotiations.

The council failed to act, however, and the problem still faced the league today. There were indications that British opposition to the French plan had prevailed in the council.

French references to America in yesterday's debate led to the inference that some delegates hope to avert drastic action regarding Armenia until the United States should be in position to help.

Suggestions during yesterday's debate that the league needed an armed force were greeted with tremendous cheers.

The British plan for "saving Armenia" was to appoint a committee of six to devise plans for action. It was adopted with the French plan, but was subordinated.

Curiosity of the Passengers Save Many from Death

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 23.—The curiosity of a score or more passengers aboard a Southern Railway accommodation train en route from Somerville, Tenn., to Memphis, and the presence of mind of a member of the train crew prevented what probably would have resulted in a heavy death tool today when a gravel train crashed into the rear of the passenger train after a crossing accident at White Station, near this city, in which one man was killed.

When the passenger train struck a truck, demolishing it and killing the driver, W. D. Gee, of Collierville, Tenn., all of those aboard with the exception of a woman and child, left the train to view the wreckage. A few minutes later the gravel train crashed into the rear of the passenger train, telescoping it. The woman and child, heeding the warning of the trainman, leaped to the ground just before the crash. The engine crew of the gravel train also jumped in time to escape injury. A count of the passengers later showed all accounted for and uninjured.

Tears Streaming Down Their Cheeks Announce Verdict

Schultz and serious injuries to William Donaldson, employes of a local traction company, struck by an automobile early last Tuesday morning while repairing street car tracks and protected by red lights, a woman's coroners jury today held City Solicitor Martin C. With tears streaming down their cheeks, the jury of women filed in and announced its findings.

DENY DISCOVERY OF PLOT TO ASSASSINATE PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE

Announcement Made To Clear Up Misunderstanding Of Report Monday.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The deficit incurred in the republican campaign to elect Senator Warren G. Harding to the presidency was approximately $1,500,000, Fred W. Upham, national treasurer, announced here today in a statement designed to clear up a misunderstanding of his report, filed at Washington yesterday. Washington dispatches fixing the committee's deficit at only $159,428.95 were based on the fact that nearly $1,400,000 in loans, which must be paid back, had been added to the total receipts, he said.

CONDITION OF HAMON SAID TO BE SERIOUS; SEARCH FOR WOMAN

WARRANT WILL NOT BE SERVED UNTIL INJURED MAN IS IMPROVED.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH HAVING FIRED THE SHOT

Both Parties Are Charged With Statutory Offense Says Ardmore Dispatch.

ARDMORE, OKLA., Nov. 23.—The condition of Jake L. Hamon, Ardmore millionaire, today was said to be serious although the wounded national committeeman was showing the temperature that usually follows a major operation. His temperature was 100 and his pulse normal. He was suffering considerable pain, but was in a cheerful spirit.

It was announced that the warrant will not be served on Hamon until he improves.

Mrs. Jake Hamon and their two children, a boy and a girl, who reside in Chicago, are reported to be en route to Ardmore.

Police Chief J. M. Chancellor expressed the belief that the woman was hiding in the city.

ARDMORE, OKLA., Nov. 23.—A search extending from Oklahoma to California was instituted for Mrs. Clara Hamon of Ringling, Okla., charged with shooting Jake L. Hamon, millionaire oil king and republican national committeeman. Mrs. Hamon, whose maiden name was Clara Smith, is a relative of the committeeman.

County Attorney Russel Brown of Carter county filed charges of intent to kill Hamon against the pretty woman and information charging the couple with a statutory offense. The charges were filed with Justice of the Peace Hal Cannon.

Mrs. Hamon is said to be fleeing to California. Brown declared that she checked her baggage to Kansas City, however, but did not leave on the train she intended to catch. Efforts to apprehend the woman before she crossed the state line proved futile.

Shot on Sunday.

First reports were that Hamon accidentally shot himself Sunday in a local hotel, where he lives, while cleaning a gun preparatory to a hunting trip in Texas. Hamon walked two blocks to a hospital unaided and reported his wound. The bullet was removed and his stomach drained of blood. His condition was improved, physicians stated today.

Frank Ketch, his manager, who issued a statement declaring the shooting was accidental, refused to alter his position when he learned of the charges against the woman. Ketch quoted Hamon as having said: "I shot myself, but I know nobody will believe me when I say that."

Kellie M. Roach, an insurance agent of Oklahoma City, who, with W. B. Nichols, was with Hamon Sunday afternoon, emphatically denied that any woman was connected with the case.

According to reports, Mrs. Hamon has been the miner's stenographer intermittently since 1914.

Married Hamon's Nephew.

Mrs. Hamon, it was said is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith of Ringling, Jefferson county. Smith owns a pool hall there. Her parents are said to be in failing health and are now recuperating at a resort somewhere in the south. She is said to have married a nephew of Hamon, but they are reported to have never lived together. The woman was a stenographer for the fifth Oklahoma legislature in 1915. Mrs. Hamon is described as being 27 years old and very pretty. She has a dark complexion, dark brown hair and eyes and is nearly five feet seven inches in height. Most of the time she dresses in a fur coat and her fingers are said to be covered with numerous diamond rings.

Hamon's wife and two children reside in Chicago. Hamon makes numerous trips to see his family.

FRIENDS REASSERT THE SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENT

ARDMORE, OKLA., Nov. 23.—With Jake Hamon's friends reasserting the accident version of the shooting and with Russel Brown, county attorney, reticent as to the details on which he bases his information charging Clara Hamon, with the accident, Ardmore today was in a maze of mystery.

In the meantime, Hamon himself, in Hardy's sanitarium, is said to be cheerful, considering the seriousness of his wound, and not overly concerned about the woman story that has been sent throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Clara Hamon, who was Clara Smith when Hamon first met her in Lawton years ago, is known to have been in Ardmore yesterday.

That she left either on one of the early afternoon trains, north or south, or by automobile, is the theory of the county attorney's office. The information filed with Hal Cannon, justice of the peace, states the bare charge of shooting against Clara Hamon, and of immorality against both Hamon and the woman.

Will Not Make Statement.

Hamon and his assistants would not say that witnesses are to be employed in substantiation of the charge against the two.

Efforts of Brown in having trains searched were in vain. Particularly hope that Clara Hamon might be lo-

ABOARD STEAMSHIP PARISMINA, Nov. 23.—The Parismina carrying President-elect Warren G. Harding to the Panama zone for a vacation was expected today at Cristobal.

Harding's schedule called for a golf game tomorrow, a trip up the canal and a visit to the president of Panama at Panama City. Thanksgiving dinner will be eaten with the president of Panama Thursday.

The president-elect is trying to keep a little time clear for recreation and has rejected scores of invitations which, if accepted, would keep him busy every minute of the time he is on the isthmus.

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM OF PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING

ON BOARD S. S. PARISMINA, Nov. 22.—(By Wireless to the Associated Press.—Delayed.)—As President-elect Harding approached Panama on his vacation voyage he was flooded with wireless messages inviting him to be guest of honor at a long list of public functions during his five-days visit to the Canal Zone. Most of the invitations he will be compelled by his vacation plans to decline.

Arrangements have been made for a stop of several hours at Kingston, Jamaica, on the return voyage. Leaving Cristobal Sunday, the party will reach Kingston the following Tuesday morning. A short outing has been planned ashore before departure of the vessel that afternoon.

DEATH TOLL MONDAY IS FIVE; CITY NOW VIRTUALLY CUT OFF BY CORDON BRITISH TROOPS

BELFAST, Nov. 23.—The death roll in Dublin yesterday totaled five persons. During the morning one of the sentries at the castle was attacked by armed men. The sentry fired, killing three of the attacking party. Two other deaths occurred during the raids which were carried out in the city throughout the day.

DUBLIN, Nov. 23, 11:14 a. m.—Frequent encounters between troops and small bands of sinn feiners occurred in the streets of Dublin during the night. The sound of shooting was incessant. So far as known, however, there were only two casualties. Military raids were being conducted throughout the city this morning. Many arrests were made.

Three sinn feiners were killed after an attack on sentries, the military said today.

The three were arrested Saturday night and imprisoned in a guard house. Yesterday two of them threw hand grenades at the sentries. The grenades failed to explode, being without detonators.

The third grabbed a rifle which a sentry had dropped in the excitement and was raising it to his shoulder when other sentries fired.

Dublin was virtually cut off from the world today by a cordon of British troops. Somewhere within the city 200 sinn fein gunmen who assassinated fourteen British officers were in hiding. The troops were surrounding the city while police systematically searched it for the gunmen.

Meanwhile the city lived in dread. Renewed large scale fighting between sinn feiners and police was expected at any moment. Shops had their shutters up. Thousands of people remained indoors, peeping cautiously out from behind drawn curtains when military ptrols paced down the streets.

A check up of the casualties in Sunday's shootings today showed a total of 27 identified dead, 14 officers and police, and 12 slain at the Croke park football field where black and tan fought sinn feiners, the police bullets flying into the crowd. The hospital records showed nearly 100 persons had received surgical attention.

Occupied by Troops.

The Dublin city hall and several of the city's hotels were occupied by troops today and the town was rapidly assuming the appearance of a city in the war zone during fighting in France. Tanks and military automobiles rumbled through the streets. Sentries with fixed bayonets paced up and down at strategic points. Hotel corridors and the lobby of the city hall were crowded with men in uniform, while couriers hastened here and there with messages. There were groups of troops, rifles held ready, in front of many houses which were being searched for sinn fein gunmen, and some streets were entirely blocked off by cordons at each corner while every house was gone through from cellar to garret in the search for the fugitives.

Reports from other parts of Ireland indicated that the guerrilla warfare between the sinn feiners and government forces was being maintained. Near Cork the body of Captain Thompson was found in a field. He had been shot. At Belfast, Head Constable Kearney died from bullet wounds. Near Skibbereen, a party of police was ambushed. One constable was killed and one seriously wounded.

Barbed Wire Entanglements.

Dublin today was surrounded by an entanglement of barbed wire. Back of that line lay troops and police, their machine guns and other arms ready for instant use.

Sentries, set to fire on the instant, guarded every entrance to the city. Everyone was stopped. Passes to newspaper men, priests, doctors and nurses were valueless. Sentries turned them all back.

Incoming trains were stopped until passengers could be searched. No outgoing trains were permitted.

Pedestrains avoided the outskirts of the city and remained indoors during the night. Frequent shots told of the tension of the city. Sentries and others fired on the slightest suspicious sound.

The army officers slain in the Sunday raids will be buried in British soil, according to plans announced today.

The flag draped caskets will be buried with full military honors.

INTENSE INTEREST MANIFEST IN DEBATE ON HOME RULE

By WEBB MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Intense interest was manifest here today in the debate in the house of lords on the Irish home rule bill.

Earl Dunraven, leading the opposition, was to move rejection of the measure. The opposition was developing considerable strength, so government leaders were becoming uneasy. The vote is not expected before Thursday. Viscount Grey was to make an important speech during debate this afternoon.

London newspapers today published full details of the killing of spectators at a hockey match at Croke park, Dublin, last Sunday, when black and tans fired into the crowd. They described the bloody football field on which they said pieces of the bones of the killed and wounded were picked up on Monday.

The Daily News in a Dublin dispatch gave what purported to be an eye witness account of the crowd—estimated by this newspaper at 15,000, penned between the ranks of volleying police, unable to scale the stone wall and running around in a terrified manner amidst the rattle of machine gun fire. Women and children screamed for mercy, the dispatch said. The stone wall was described as pitted with bullet holes.

A statement issued at Dublin Castle said the plan had been to surround the park with police and then have an officer call through a megaphone that gunmen were believed in the crowd and that everybody would be searched. This project failed, the statement said, because sinn fein pickets fired on the approaching crown forces and gunmen in the crowd also started firing, which precipitated a panic.

In an editorial the Daily News bitterly attacked the Dublin Castle movement as a piece of "criminal lunacy." The Morning Post urged immediate declaration of martial law throughout Ireland. The Daily Herald, labor newspaper, recommended massed "industrial action" to "halt the Irish war."

NUMEROUS CLASHES IN COUNTY OF CORK

CORK, Nov. 23.—Two sinn feiners were shot and one policeman seriously wounded in clashes at Millstreet, county Cork, last night. There were numerous skirmishes between black and tan patrols and the sinn feiners.

DISAPPROVED SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT IN IRELAND

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Disapproval of the present system of government in Ireland was expressed in a letter written by Leonard Wilde, who was shot and killed in the Gresham hotel, Dublin, on Sunday, which was received by Arthur Henderson, labor leader in the house of commons today. Wilde asked Mr. Henderson's advice as to "the best method of consecrating my life to the cause of real democracy in Ireland."

Wilde wrote that his observations had led him to believe "Ireland never could be coerced," and suggested his knowledge of Irish history might make him a valuable worker in the labor party "is that organization's fight in behalf of Ireland.

The parliamentary labor party's commission, which was charged with an investigation of reprisals in Ireland and which planned to leave for Ireland on Tuesday, has postponed its trip temporarily because of the present situation on the island. At a meeting of the labor party today resolutions were passed expressing "deep sorrow" over the recent assassinations and asking sides to agree to a truce.

MEN CAUGHT WILL BE TRIED ON MURDER CHARGE

LONDON, Nov. 23.—One of the sinn feiners who participated in the murder of 14 British officers, has been killed and three others were caught red handed, according to announcement by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, in the house of commons. The three caught will be tried for murder, he said. Latest reports, he said, were that the situation in Dublin was nearly normal.

It was unofficially reported that eight men, suspected of being sinn fein gunmen had been arrested at Sligo.

ARMED MILITARY OFFICERS MAKE NUMEROUS ARRESTS

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A creamery at Dharrow, near Nenagh, county Tipperary, Ireland, was burned this morning, allegedly by uniformed men, says a Central News dispatch. At Athleone, armed military forces visited the houses of many sinn fein sympathizers and made numerous arrests.

TOKIO, Nov. 23.—An attempt to assassinate Premier Hara was to be made on May 8 last, it is disclosed by the publication of the findings of a preliminary court which tried a former artilleryman named Ito, who was charged with planning an attempt against the premier's person with seven bombs.

Ito was hostile to the present cabinet, it was asserted, and came to Tokio, where he bought a revolver and explosives. He made the bombs out of four whiskey bottles and three cardboard boxes, but was knocked down accidentally by an automobile and the police discovered the infernal machine and unraveled the plot.

Snow Convicted And Given Twenty Years In The Penitentiary

Doc Snow's first murder trial is over. Twenty years confinement in the state penitentiary was the punishment assessed by the jury of twelve men who found him guilty of the murder of Marvin Caple on the night of September 30 in the alleged gambling house at Kemp City, which the deceased was assisted in raiding.

At 8:40 o'clock Monday evening there was a knock at the jury room door and the foreman announced that they were ready to report. The judge, the attorneys and the defendant were brought to the court room and the jury marched into the jury box. The verdict was handed the judge.

"We the jury find the defendant guilty of murder and assess his punishment at 20 years confinement in the state penitentiary."

The words resounded in the empty court room. When the last echo died away, realization of the verdict came to the defendant, who was alone. His wife and his parents who had been with him constantly during the long trial were not present.

Snow looked at the twelve men before him. He shook his head three or four times. Then he looked again and repeated the motion of his head. As the twelve men marched from the court room, he watched the procession and then turned to his counsel who was sitting a few feet away and his lips quivered, but there was no sound.

The jury had been out but four hours and a half and the verdict at that time seemed impossible. It appeared at five o'clock Monday evening as though no verdict would be agreed upon before Tuesday morning, as the jury requested a transcript of the testimony. The court asked them to limit their request to some particular testimony, which was done, and in an hour the requested transcript was before them.

The case went to the jury a few minutes after four o'clock Monday afternoon following the conclusion of the arguments. Special Prosecutor C. C. MacDonald closed the arguments and his address to the jury was pronounced one of the most eloquent speeches heard in the court room here. It was an address in which well chosen words and phrases expressed clearly and distinctly the points which the speaker chose to emphasize.

The address of Attorney Shields Heyser, counsel for the defense, was noteworthy inasmuch that he made a most earnest plea for his client's freedom, and at times cut through the chain of circumstances which the state had weaved about the defendant by testimony introduced.

Immediately after the verdict of the jury, counsel for the defense gave notice of appeal and the motion for appeal will be prepared and presented within the next two days.

The defendant, however, will be forced to remain in the county jail pending appeal as the statutes provide that any person found guilty of a felony wherein a punishment of more than fifteen years confinement is assessed cannot be released on bail.

The Doc Snow murder case was begun a week ago today. Last Tuesday afternoon the long and tedious work of selecting a jury was begun. The first witness was introduced Thursday afternoon immediately after the court convened after the lunch hour.

The public as a whole was greatly interested in the trial as was manifested by the crowds which packed the court room every day.

Two more indictments stand against Doc Snow. One for the murder of William S. Toney and the other for operating a gaming table. It was unofficially stated that his second murder trial would be set for the early part of January, 1921.

MORRIS & COMPANY SUBMITS SALE PLAN

Filed With The Supreme Court Of District Of Columbia Tuesday Morning.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Plans for the sale of the interests of Morris and company, packers, in stock yards and terminals, in such a manner as to permit their acquisition by livestock producers and the general public, were filed today in the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

None of the other packers is a party to the plan or mentioned in it. Interests which it is supposed to offer to the court under the plan are:

Kansas City Stockyards company, Kansas City, Mo.; St. Joseph Stockyards company, St. Joseph, Mo.; St. Louis National Stockyards, East St. Louis, Ill.; Oklahoma National Stockyards and Slaughter House, Ltd., New Orleans, La.; El Paso Union Stockyards company, El Paso, Texas; New York Stockyards company, New York.

Capital stock in four stockyards terminal railroads is listed. These lines for the most part are operated in connection with the Kansas City, East St. Louis, Oklahoma City and St. Joseph, Mo., plants and yards named.

Comply With Decree.

The proffer is in compliance with the decree made mandatory February 27, 1920, by the signature of Chief Justice McCoy and filed by Attorney General Palmer with the concurrence of the eighty-seven corporations and individuals, of which the Swift, Armour, Morris, Wilson and Cudahy interests were the principal members.

Morris and company offers a separate and individual plan by which all its capital stock holdings in stockyards and terminal companies are surrendered. If adopted, it is declared, the plan will immediately divorce Morris and company from all stock yards and terminals and the livestock producers will be given first opportunity to acquire them.

Can't Sell at Present.

Edward Morris, president of the company, said that these holdings could not be disposed of at present because of the financial situation and that the Morris interests had suggested to the court that all their capital stock in yards and terminal companies be immediately surrendered and cancelled and other certificates issued in lieu thereof in the name of some trust company as trustee, to hold and vote the stock until it can be sold to people outside the packing industry.

They also agree immediately to resign all positions with the stockyards and terminal companies. The capital stock will then be disposed of by offering it first to the livestock men, then to people living near the various plants, then to common carriers and finally to the general public. Such stock as has not been disposed of within a limited time may be offered by the court at public auction.

Chicago's Thirsty Said to Be Facing Dry Thanksgiving

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Chicago's thirsty saw a dry Thanksgiving day when Frank D. Richardson, federal prohibition enforcement agent for the Great Lakes district, today prepared to start "abatement of nuisance" proceedings against illicit liquor dealers and property owners who rent to rum selling tenants.

The biggest scare since the 18th amendment went into effect was thrown into Chicago's bootleg ring when Richardson announced the first three of fifty injunction suits were about to be filed.

Charles F. Clyne, district attorney today warned property owners to take steps to protect their property if they believe any tenant is selling liquor.

"The government intends to seize property in which liquor is sold and no excuses will be taken," Clyne said today.

Richardson's agents were busy today, it was announced, getting evidence against bootleggers.

Day Nursery Tea Wednesday Afternoon; Affair Is Expected to Be a Big Success

Arrangements are about completed for the Day Nursery Tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Culbertson, Eleventh and Harrison streets, Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The nursery tea is expected to be one of the biggest social and benefit occasions in the history of the league. Preparations are being made to entertain from six to eight hundred guests during the four hours of the afternoon, and a charmingly informal program of musical events has been planned.

The Culbertson home is ideally arranged for such an entertainment, and elaborate and beautiful decorations in keeping with the season will lend charm to the occasion. The hostesses have been selected from the league and the local literary, art and music clubs, and every detail of the guests' pleasure at an afternoon tea has been anticipated and arranged for by different committees.

A great deal of interest and comment has been aroused by the announcement concerning the baby drawing, but members of that committee refuse to give out any information other than the statement that such a drawing will be held, and a baby given away. The suggestion that the juvenile authorities might look with disfavor on such a proceeding met with the response Monday afternoon that "the proper arrangements had been made with the proper authorities concerning the drawing."

Another feature of the tea announced Monday will be the display of an oil painting from Emil Hermann's studio, "The Susquehanna Valley," a beautiful study in quiet, Autumn distance, suggesting the hearts' ease in a sweep of the golden valley section in October reaching to the calm, hazy skyline beyond. The painting is valued at $200, has been presented the league by Mr. Hermann to be auctioned off in December for the day nursery benefit.

MRS. WALTER CLINE ENTERTAINS LAST MEETING OF CIRCLE TWO

The final meeting of the year of Circle Two of the Methodist Mission society, south, was entertained by Mrs. Walter D. Cline Monday afternoon. Mrs. D. J. Cook told in an inspiring way of the sorrows of motherless and homeless daughters. Two charming solos were sung by Mrs. Martin Rowe, accompanied by Mrs. John Kay at the piano.

During the afternoon fifty-three visits to the sick were reported, and the second circle centenary pledges were paid in full. A delicious and artistic refreshment plate was served to the following members: Mmes. John Kay, J. W. Akin, C. B. Felder, W. J. Grisham, H. G. Harris, D. J. Carithers, W. F. Turner, Martin Rowe, W. ### STRICTLY ENTRE NOUS.

—I. M. D.—

No Spartan Stuff for Curly.

When I came up this morning, Curly
Locks was out at play;
A glowing bit of baby, clean and sweet,
And happy from the shining strands stop her yellow head
To the bits of sandals on her dancing feet.

And then somehow, the Earth went back on Curly Locks; it did—
On Curly Locks, who trusted it, and let
The naughty sidewalk slip right up and bang her on the head,
A bang no little kiddie could forget.

And Curly Locks sat right down on the walk (no stoic, she)
And opened wide her rosebud mouth, and called Upon high heaven to look down and witness all her woe.
(Though some folks would have said she just plain squalled.)

And when I had picked Curly up, and straightened out her clo'es,
And hugged her tight, and got her smile unfurled,
I couldn't help but wish that sometimes, when things bang me bangs,
I could sit down like that and tell the world.

"My own idea of right and wrong is my guide."—Congresswoman - elect Robinson.

Properly restrained applause. One might say, as Christ said of loving one's friends, in connection with His command to love one's enemies, "even the Pharisees do as much." Most of us are amenable to our own ideas of right and wrong. The trouble is, as a Route 2 Argyle, Texas, friend of ours would say, we are too "dang" set against being a little more careful whether our right ideas are really right, or just ours.

LUNCHEON FRIDAY NOON FOR MRS. R. L. SPAULDING

Mrs. R. L. Spaulding of Abilene, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Anderson, was the honoree at a charmingly appointed and most enjoyable luncheon given by Mrs. R. E. Shepherd Friday noon at her home on Huff avenue.

A colour scheme of yellow, in keeping with the fall season, was very beautifully suggested in the flowers centering the table, the nut cups, and the place cards, which were especially original. Only the Christian names of the guests were used, and each was instructed that the others were to be addressed in that manner throughout the luncheon and afternoon. Little verses on the reverse of the cards were read during the serving of the courses, and tiny ad cut-outs in one corner were guessed at. A five-course luncheon was served, after which the following guests spent a pleasant afternoon with the hostess and the honoree: Mesdames William Danforth, Frank Shepherd of Burkburnett, C. J. Hunter, and W. W. Anderson.

At any drug store named below, a 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent. Simply present the coupon.

Get this free tube. Its use will be a revelation. To you and yours the results will open a new era in teeth cleaning. Learn now what they mean to you.

Start Tonight

This new way to beautiful teeth

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You would never go without it if you knew.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat

You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brushing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And pyorrhea wrecks countless lives today.

An alarming situation

Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Very few people escape them. So dental science has in late years studied to combat that film.

Now we know how. The methods have been proved by careful clinical tests, made under able authorities. Now millions of people employ them, largely by dental advice. A new era in teeth cleaning is fast spreading the world over.

These new methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. A 10-Day Tube is given to everyone who asks. Now all who will may quickly know that film can be combated.

What you will see

A test of Pepsodent brings quick and unique effects. One sees and feels them clearly. And a book which comes with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers troubles caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film, and in ten days you can know. Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

Teeth will glisten when the film-coat goes

Get this free tube and watch it. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

You will instantly know that Pepsodent does what nothing else has done. In a few days you will realize what clean teeth mean.

TIDE AT BOSTON IS HIGHEST OF THE YEAR

Attains Rise Of Twelve Feet And Runs Over Wharves On Waterfront.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—A tide which backed by an easterly gale attained a rise of twelve feet, ran over wharves on the waterfront today, brought confusion to shipping at anchor and caused washouts on railroad tracks along the shore. It was the highest tide of the year and the stiffest gale. The wind reached a velocity of 60 miles an hour on harbor guages and came freighted with rain.

Only three vessels approached the port during the forenoon and none of these could dock under the conditions.

Row boats displaced automobiles as conveyances on Winthrop thoroughfares. The sea broke over the wall there, the waves reaching a height of forty and fifty feet and inundating the streets adjacent to the shore. Houses were flooded. At Winthrop beach a new pier was destroyed and conditions were so bad that school sessions were abandoned.

A warehouse that has been a landmark at Fort Beach, Marblehead, for nearly a century, was blown down.

MORTUARY.

Floyd Jacob Shapp.

Funeral services for Floyd Jacob Shapp, who was killed in the oil fields near Harmony, Okla., last Wednesday, were held in the funeral chapel of the Merkle & Lunn Undertaking company at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. The services were in charge of Rev. Pettinger, pastor of the First Methodist church, north. Burial was in Rosemont burial park.

Mr. Shapp was a brother of Mrs. F. H. Whaley of this city, and was 47 years of age at the time of his death.

A 40-foot fall from the top of an oil derrick in the Texhoma field instantly killed L. L. Lambeth, a young oil field worker, early Monday evening. No one witnessed the accident, but the man was dead when picked up by other employees of the company a few moments after the fatal fall.

Lambeth had gone to the top of a derrick on the Underwood and Emerik lease to straighten twisted cables and in the darkness lost his hold on the ladder, plunging from the full height to the ground. He struck on his head and shoulders.

Lambeth was 25 years of age and had been employed at the Underwood and Emerick lease for some time. He was unmarried and was not known to have relatives in this section of the country. The body was removed to the Hines Undertaking establishment and is being held there pending the arrival of Mr. Lambeth's father from Vernon, Missouri.

KATCHA-KOO PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE AT FIRST PERFORMANCE

A colorful spectacle of charming girls, brilliant costumes and gorgeous scenery in the setting of an interesting oriental comedy-drama were presented at the Wichita theater Monday evening when the initial production of "Katcha Koo" was given. As a home talent play it was an unqualified success and brought out some dramatic and musical ability of real worth in a number of the leading characters. The work of the choruses, as well as that of the soloists was all that could be expected and if there were blight irregularties and occasional "ragged edges" the audience tactfully overlooked these minor faults and accorded hearty applause to a company that was well deserving of merit.

Of the principals, the work of the four young Americans, Dick Horton, played by Paul Rutledge, Harry Bradstone played by Carl Sparks, Dolly, played by Anadel Bradshaw and Polly, played by Mabel Haley, was easily the most pleasing of the entire production. All of these parts called for a high degree of ability in the dramatic line and every member of the quartette handled his or her part with ease. The work of Miss Bradshaw was especially pleasing, calling for insistent encores on many occasions.

George Taylor as Katcha Koo, the holy fakir and leading character of the play, gave an excellent portrayal of the role. Equally pleasing was Miss Juanita Kinzie as Mrs. Chattle-Gaddin, the bereft widow of Katcha Koo. J. B. Bivens as the Maharaja of Hunga, Marguerite Fisher as Urbana and Ruth Nolen as Solejah carried the oriental roles in a thoroughly commendable manner.

The close of the play brought out a veritable fairyland of color when the stage was filled with nearly 300 tiny youngsters representing the various countries of the world. The intricate dances performed under changing lights made a sight which brought prolonged applause and which came as a fitting climax to the play.

AD CLUBS PLAN TO URGE HONEST ADVERTISING LAW

John Gould returned this morning from Waco, where he represented the Wichita Falls Ad club at the meeting, on Monday, of the executive committee of the Associated Advertising clubs.

An invitation to hold the next state conference, in January, 1921, in Wichita Falls, was extended to the committee, but Waco was chosen for the meeting. The 1921 meeting will stage an energetic effort to secure legislative enactment of an "honest advertising law," and the committee felt that Waco would be a more convenient point from which to wage the fight.

There are now 24 states in which such laws have been passed, and the state advertising organization hopes to see Texas added to the list next year.

THIRTY-FIVE TEACHERS TO ATTEND STATE MEET

Thirty-five or forty local school teachers are planning to attend the Texas State Teachers association which is to be held in Fort Worth on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, according to an announcement made at the superintendent's office Tuesday. The exact number which will attend from this city is not known, but 29 teachers have already signified their intention of attending the convention and three schools were yet to report, so it is believed that the number will easily reach that stated above.

The state association is an organization fostered by the state school board and all public school teachers are requested but not compelled to become members. There are over 100 members in the local system.

The meetings this year will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist church in Fort Worth. A number of prominent speakers, both in educational and commercial lines of the state, have been secured to address the convention. Lee Clark, superintendent of the local school system, is scheduled to make an important address. Mr. Clark is now in Austin and it could not be learned what his subject was to be.

Schools will be dismissed on Thursday and Friday of this week.

SCHOOL BONDS ARE SOLD AND BUILDING PROGRAM IS STARTED

Word has been received by W. W. Brown, business manager of the Wichita Falls schools, that another $50,000 worth of the $300,000 school bond issue recently voted had been sold. The announcement came from John D. McCall and J. A. Blain of Dallas, who are handling the sale of the local bonds.

This sale brings the total amount of bonds disposed of to $150,000, or just one-half of the entire issue. Of this latter amount $90,000 of the sales have been paid and the board is proceeding with its building program with the cash derived from the early sales.

Work on the new wing of the Austin school is progressing as fast as the weather will permit, and it is the hope of the school authorities to have the building ready for occupancy by the first of the year. One hundred and fifty additional students will be cared for when this is completed.

At a recent meeting the school board also accepted plans from a local firm of architects for the addition of an entire floor to the Sam Houston school and for the erection of the new building at the corner of Kentucky and Jalonick streets. Authorization of the erection of these structures was made early last month and work will be started as soon as contracts for the construction can be let. The addition to the Sam Houston school will house 150 pupils while the new school will have accommodations for 300. Both are expected to be ready for use at the beginning of the second term.

EIGHTH STREET TAILOR SHOP BURGLARIZED MONDAY NIGHT

Several three-piece suits and three men's overcoats were stolen from the Eighth street tailoring shop, 902 Eighth, early Monday evening. The robbery was reported to the police Tuesday morning and detectives are working on clues which they believe will land the culprit responsible for the robbery in jail.

It was stated to the police that a negro who has had dealings with the local authorities on different occasions, is believed to have broken into the shop and escaped with the wearing apparel.

The negro is reported as having been in the tailoring establishment Monday evening in an effort to buy a suit of clothes to which he had taken a fancy. This attempt was unsuccessful, chiefly because he wanted the articles on credit, and it is thought that he returned later in the evening and helped himself.

Mrs. Preston Lea and children left today for Corsicana, where they will spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Lea's mother, Mrs. P. M. Lea. It is expected that Mr. Lea, who is with the hunting party near the Guadalcupe river in the San Antonio country, will return via Corsicana at Thanksgiving and join them.

OPPOSE ABANDONMENT OF THE U. S. PASSPORT SYSTEM IN OPERATION

THE HAGUE, Nov. 10.—American diplomatic officials abroad who are in possession of evidence of propaganda schemes originating in Moscow are opposed to any attempt to abandon the United States passport and visa systems now in operation. This is because they are convinced that the Russian soviet government has been attempting to send hundreds of dangerous agitators to the United States.

Wartime passport regulations have been considerably modified, both for Americans and foreigners seeking American visas, in the past few months and every attempt will be made, it was said, to make travel as easy as possible abroad next summer. But, in face of the evidence which has accumulated during the past few months, believed to indicate a determined effort by the bolshevik government to spread its jurisdiction to America, the diplomatic officials do not wish to surrender their most potent safeguard against it—passport control.

"So far as the would-be emigrant is concerned," one American official said, "things have just been so simplified for him that, in ten minutes time, providing his own government considers him a worthy subject and has so evidenced this by giving him a passport, he can answer all the questions we want to know about him. If he is satisfactory, he can get his visa the same day and be on his way to the United States speedily.

"The American traveling abroad will get all the assistance possible to give him. If he frets because of the necessity of securing visas from various other consulates, if he wishes to visit several countries and objects to frontier inspection, he must remember that perhaps the man who sat next to him in the railway car was a bolshevik or an anarchist, en route some place with a bomb, who might be stopped at the frontier before he could throw the bomb.

"Americans coming abroad will save themselves much difficulty if, just as they go to the bank before leaving to get a letter of credit, they will secure at foreign consulates in America visas permitting them to enter all the countries they wish to visit."

While most of the bolshevik agents enroute to America seek to get through on false seamen's certificates or by other surreptitious means, according to American officials here, there are a number of nervy ones who appear at American passport bureaus, from time to time, and request legitimate visas.

During a recent week at an American passport bureau in Holland, out of 25 persons refused visas four were known to be revolutionary agitators, and three were international criminals.

The United States surgeon general's office has recently established at some of the big embarkation ports in Europe bureaus of sanitary inspection and quarantine, which, co-operating with the local medical authorities, seek to prevent diseased emigrants from going to the United States.

"The whole effort," one official said, "is, by passport control and medical inspection, to control the situation on this side, thus relieving Ellis Island and the other immigrant stations at home of much work."

PROPOSE SOLUTION ARMENIAN QUESTION AT GENEVA MEETING

GENEVA.—The American delegates to the Phil-Armenian League have presented a memorandum to the congress of the Armenian league now in session here, proposing to the League of Nations assembly a form of government and administration for Armenia. The American delegates to the Phil-Armenia gathering are Walter George Smith of Philadelphia, H. C. Jacquith of New York City and Dr. William W. Peet of Fall River, Mass.

The memorandum sets forth that "the greatest and most urgent need of Armenian people today is that of settled political institutions with security from aggression." As to sovereignty, it says: "In our opinion the sovereignty of the Armenian race reposes in the people themselves inhabiting those political areas in which the Armenian race is dominant."

As to mandates over Armenia, the memorandum states: "We hold strongly to the view that the people of Armenia are capable of evolving and building up an independent administration which will ultimately possess the attributes and be able to discharge the functions of a well ordered state and we therefore prepared to support by all means in its power any mandatory acceptable to the Armenia race, providing always that the terms of the mandate are such as will admit of the establishment in due time of a responsible government for Armenia holding those sovereign rights and possessing that international status which is implied in the recognition given in the recent treaty to the Armenian republic.

Period of 20 Years.

"We suggest that the mandate should be conferred for a terminal period of 20 years only subject to periodic extensions of five years at the request of a representative Armenian government and with the approval of the League of Nations.

"During the whole period of the tutelege of the people of the territory of the Republic of Armenia, the conduct of its foreign policy should be vested wholly and reservedly in the mandatory.

"During the whole period of the continuance of the mandate, the conduct and control of the military and police forces of the administration of the territory should be vested wholly in the mandatory.

"All persons of whatsoever race, class, creed or nationality resident, sojourning or carrying on business within the limits of the territory shall without exception be amenable in all respects to the laws for the time being in force.

"No concession, grant, monopoly or other privilege whatsoever of a commercial, economic or other character should be given in the territory of Armenia except by the national government thereof with the approval of the mandatory power and acting in pursuance of the express will of the national parliament.

"The national government of the territory should not accord any preference to goods imported thereto from the territories of the mandatory or of any other state a member of the League of Nations without the previous sanction in writing of the council of the League of Nations."

The territory proposed to be included within the mandate is described in the memorandum as the present geographical area of the Republic of Armenia and such Armenian districts as in process of time may be incorporated in that republic by international agreement.

PROHIBITION VIOLATIONS REPORTED LESS FREQUENT

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—Violations of the Texas prohibition laws are less frequent than when the statute was first enacted, according to W. A. Keeling, assistant attorney general, who said that the sale of intoxicants in the form of extracts and medicines has decreased considerably. He added that this may be due to the fact that most of those who drank patent medicines, hair tonics, etc., and survived now realize the deadly effects of these mixtures when taken internally.

Shortly after the law went into effect there was also a large quantity of different kinds of ciders, wines and cordials with an illegal per cent of alcohol put on the market and the state pure food and drug commissioner's laboratory was deluged with samples for analysis which were sent in by county attorneys and inspectors of the attorney general's department. Activity of these officials has evidently discouraged the manufacture and sale of these beverages, as little is heard of them now.

Wide publicity given to deaths arising from the drinking of wood alcohol also has had its effect, Mr. Keeling said, adding that "bootleg" whiskey often is referred to as "undertakers' cocktail." Some whiskey and tequila still come in over the Mexican border, officers report, but on the whole there is less drinking of intoxicants in the state than ever before.

RELIEF EXPEDITION TO POLAND IS TO RETURN

WARSAW.—The American typhus fever relief expedition to Poland, the first organization of its kind in the history of the United States army, is preparing to leave soon for America, the work which the expedition organized to be carried on by the Polish health department. The expedition came to Poland intending to remain four months but its service was extended on two occasions, the work having been started in August, 1919.

In recognition of their sevices to Poland in the campaign against typhus fever the Polish government recently awarded the commemorative cross to the following members of the organization: Lieutenant Colonel Harry L. Gilchrist of Cleveland, in command; Major Lee R. Dunbar, Gloversville, N. Y.; Major Frank Dixon, Franklin, Ind.; Major Willis P. Baker, New York City; Captain Paul H. Streit, Marlin, Tex.; Lieutenant Robert C. Snido, Lexington, Va.; Lieutenant Arthur Fox, Philadelphia; Lieutenant Harold L. K. Alico, Waltham, Mass., and Lieutenant Alfred N. Bergman, Omaha, Neb.

More than 40 commissioned officers and 500 enlisted men, all of them volunteers, have been affiliated with the expedition from time to time, the organization consisting of about 200 men when the work began. During the stay its members have been distributed in all parts of Poland where there was danger of the spread of typhus, the Americans being attached to the different Polish sanitary organizations.

VICTIM OF POPULAR JEALOUSY.

In M. Venizelos' description of the causes of his recent defeat the Dallas News sees an almost literal catalogue of the causes of the recent democratic disaster. The Greek premier ascribes his loss of power to "the weariness of the people with politics, their desire for rest and for a return of the soldiers from the front" and to "the emphasis placed by opponents on the charge that he was putting Greece into the hands of foreign nations." The News thinks that with the exception that nobody charged President Wilson with imperialistic ambitions the list given by M. Venizelos includes virtually all the reasons for the defeat of Mr Wilson, counting the democratic failure as defeat for him. "Like the Greeks," the News goes on to say, "the people of the United States had become weary of politics and, like the Greeks, a considerable part of them, notably those of German descend, desired the return of the soldiers which we still have on the Rhine to aid in enforcement of the peace treaty. And, like Venizelos, Mr. Wilson has been charged with a policy which would place his country 'in the hands of foreign nations.' He, too, has been the victim of 'popular jealousy.' He, like Venizelos, had won fame throughout the world; * * * And, in Greece, as in the United States, this fame, instead of exciting the country's pride, excited a feeling of resentment kindred to that which moved the ancient Greeks to banish Aristides because he had become renowned for his sense of justice. It is hardly necessary to add that here, as in Greece, there had grown up 'various grievances against the internal administration'."

Republics are notoriously ungrateful; M. Venizelos' political downfall, coupled with that of Sonnino in Italy, might lead to the conclusion that ingratitude extends also to democratic monarchies.

CHILDREN'S DAY A SUCCESS.

Children's Day at the Texas State Fair was a success from every standpoint. It took to the fair the greatest crowds that ever assembled there, and it gave to nearly 200,000 children a very enjoyable day that will be long remembered. The newspapers of the state generally did somewhat to make a success of the idea which came from Mayor Wozencraft of Dallas, and now the Dallas mayor sends us his appreciation for what was done hereabout toward that end, saying:

"Your co-operation made possible the success of children's day, and in behalf of the city of Dallas, of all of the children, their teachers and the orphans who attended the fair, I thank you for your generous assistance.

"I feel that it is doing things like that which justifies our existence and I know that you, as I, got more pleasure out of the day than did any of the k'ds. Nevertheless, your splendid co-operation set a standard for future years at the Fair and I want you to know that I, personally, appreciate your courtesy."

The which makes one feel like helping again, if need be.

Action of the Interstate Commerce commission in ordering New York railroads to ignore the New York Public Service commission's decision in intrastate rates and to make those rates conform to the recent increases granted on interstate business probably means that the same orders will be given to the railroads in twenty other states, including Texas, where state commissions have refused all or part of the increases sought by the railroads under the federal commission's decision. In the New York case the New York commission granted the increased freight rates on intrastate business that the federal commission had given, with the exception of milk. It declined to raise passenger and baggage and pullman rates on the ground that passenger rates were established by statute. The Interstate Commerce commission instructed the New York railroads to raise those rates to conform with the interstate rate increase. In most of the states, even where the full increase was not granted, substantial advances were; and in most of the states, as in New York, passenger fares are established by legislative enactment, which the state commissions held themselves powerless to change or repeal. It seems from the order in the New York case that the federal rate-making body arrogates unto itself power to overturn state commissions' orders and even state legislatures' enactments if they conflict with the Interstate Commerce commission's decisions—a ruling that certainly should be taken to the court of final resort before it is finally accepted, because, if that contention is upheld, it makes state commissions superfluous and, insofar as railroad rates and regulations are concerned, state legislatures equally so. One of the Interstate Commerce commissioners, Mr. Eastman, dissented from the majority ruling, he contending that the decision was beyond the lawful power of the commission, and that seems to us a statement of sound public policy, whether it is the final decision or not. As a matter of fact, when it is considered that railroad operating conditions are vastly different in the states, even in the same section, and that it is impossible even by zones to establish rates for a whole section of the country that are fair and just to both the railroads and the public of the states included in that section, it seems obvious that the state commissions are better capable of determining fairly what rates should be within their jurisdictions than any body which undertakes to establish such rates under a blanket ruling.

President Bizzell of the A. & M. college is advocating that men be educated in the responsibilities of marriage and asserts that esthetic unity in the home will be much more usual when the colleges and universities of the country have recognized the need for such training for young men as well as for young women. Proving his faith by his works, Dr. Bizzell told the women of the Texas Federation that he was speaking to the young men of the A. & M. once a week along different phases of the problem of agreement between man and wife and trying to impress upon them the need that they be pleasant, considerate, courteous and tactful in their homes. Dr. Bizzell used to be president of the Texas girls' college, the College of Industrial Arts at Denton; and we suspect that the inception of his idea that young men should be trained for the responsibilities of home-making came from the very great success that college has made in preparing young women for the trials and tribulations and joys of wedded bliss. The fact that the several hundred graduates the C. I. A. has turned out have yet to appear in a divorce court, and that the institution's grandchildren are making a wonderful record for health and strength, with infant mortality rate reduced to a minimum is to be considered pretty fair evidence that home-training has succeeded for girls and not unreasonably leads to the converse belief held by the A. & M. prexy, that young men would respond to and benefit from similar training adapted to t'other side of the house.

Organized labor's opposition to unlimited immigration is upon rather a selfish ground, the fear, that is, that it means a reduction in wages through a surplus of workers. But organized labor, in its fight to secure the imposition of real restrictions against the entry of hordes of aliens, will have the support of thousands of others who would welcome every foreigners potential of making a good citizen and inspired to seek this land by the desire to make this his permanent home, subscribing to our governmental and social ideals and becoming a real part of the American fabric. Under present conditions the United States is not capable of absorbing a million or more aliens a year and keep it up, as it appears it will have to do unless speedy legislation is enacted to draw the lines tighter; and American labor organizations are not to be blamed, we think, for seeking to reduce the number of alien arrivals to the limit of economic and social absorption and to raise the standards for entry to the point where ultimate amalgamation and assimilation will be possible.

That seems to have been a studied affront which the Mexican government has given Senator Fall of New Mexico in Mr. Pesquiera's instructions to Mexican consular agents on the border not to vise Mr. Fall's passport for his proposed trip to Mexico City, for Mr. Pesquiera certainly would not have issued any such order on his own initiative, a conclusion which leads inevitably to the belief that his action was on specific orders from General Obregon as the real head of the Mexican government. Senator Fall has consistently and persistently urged intervention by the United States in Mexico. In season and out he has sought to make much of the chaotic conditions prevailing below the Rio Grande as a sound reason for America's taking a hand in Mexican affairs and President Wilson's policy of "watchful waiting," which seems in the end to have secured the desired result without the necessity of blood-spilling by American soldiers, has had no bitterer critic than the republican senator from New Mexico. As chairman of the senate sub-committee investigating Mexican affairs and with his report presumably ready for submission at the December session of congress, Mr. Fall has it within his power to do the new regime in Mexico much good or harm. That fact in itself is illuminative of the depth of his offending in the eyes of the Huerta-Obregon government, because ordinarily it would be considered good policy to placate so influential an adversary, or at any rate, not grossly to offend him. At that, our sympathies rather lie with Pesquiera, and we can but wonder at Mr. Fall's desire to visit a country about which he has talked so scathingly.

Keeping Sugar Prices Up.
(Toledo Blade.)

According to a New York newspaper, American bankers have decided to advance money to Cuban sugar growers to help them to hold their crop back from the market in order to compel an increase in price.

If bankers in this country are lending support to any such movement they are woefully out of touch with public sentiment and with the principles that guided the government and banking organizations throughout the country. Secretary of the Treasury Houston declared some time ago that it was not the business of the government either to aid in holding prices up or in depressing them. The American Bankers' association at a recent meeting condemned any effort to use government money arbitrarily to hold up or force down prices or otherwise "interfere with normal economic influences." The bankers also condemned speculative hoarding in agriculture or other industries.

The country is tired of profiteers and their ways and the people by economy and thrift have so lessened the demand for commodities that there has been a general lowering of prices in spite of the efforts of some forces to keep them up. Only a shortsighted business man will overlook the wisdom of moving with the trend of the times.

Just Folks
By EDGAR A. GUEST

There Comes a Time When Words Won't Do.

There comes a time when words won't do,
However fine the thoughts you say,
They will not wrive the care away,
Or make the gray clouds into blue;
Then suffering and anguish needs
Not kindly thoughts, but kindly deeds.

There's no philosophy can soothe
The aching heart beset by grief,
Death hurts in spite of our belief;
Speech cannot troubled water smooth,
In such an hour all mortals need
The comfort of a helpful deed.

A word of courage now and then
Will spur the faltering spirit on,
Rekindle hope when hope seems gone;
But there are times of trial when
By real service we must share
The cares that others have to bear.

True friendship then must step aside
To prove in some substantial way
The tender thoughts its lips would say,
Must share the burden and be tried
Until its friends shall smile again,
Or otherwise all speech is vain.

However fair the speech may be,
It cannot lighten real distress
Nor change man's woe to happiness,
Nor serve a friend's necessity;
Then true devotion swiftly speeds
To prove itself by helpful deed.

The Terrors of the Night.

What different people we all are in the day time and at night.

I do not off hand remember just when Dr. Jekyl made his transformation into Mr. Hyde, but it seems as if it must have been at night.

And yet I do not mean to imply by that that we become wicked at night—just that we change!

For one thing we are all more nervous at night. "The terrors of the night" is a phrase which carries a meaning to even the bravest of us. It is easier to believe in danger at night. Here is an odd example of the way we associate danger and the darkness.

I have a friend who allows her two children, aged seven and 14 (one of whom can swim pretty well, the other not at all)to paddle up and down the river in a boat. She even goes away for the day and leaves them to look after themselves, with the river as their playground. And yet when someone asked her to spend the evening at a house on the next street, leaving the children along in bed for a few hours, she would not do it. "Something might happen to them," she said with a shiver.

Yet I feel sure if the chances for danger under the two circumstances could be computed, it would be seen that there was far more chance of something happening to them in the daytime than there was at night. It was simply the sense of danger that night brings, I think, that made her feel that way.

I suppose it is a heritage from our remoted ancestors—when night truly was a time for man to keep safe in his cave and let the wild beats have sway.

Most of us, also, are more emotional at night. We are less inhibited, more expansive. We are more easily moved by sentiment than in the daytime. Any actor will tell you that it is far harder to "put over" an emotional play on the same kind of audience at a matinee, than at the evening perfomance.

Certain functions of the mind work better in the evening and others in the daytime. For instance, I would say that the imagination was in better working order at night and the judgment in the daytime. For this reason any letter that one writes at night should always be re-read in the daytime before it is sent. And any plan formulated at night should be looked over in the cold light of day before it is put into action. Likewise no situation should be given up as hopeless until one has had a chance to think it over in the evening as well as the daytime.

Men are even more affected by this condition of dual personality than women. Everyone knows what men are like when they first wake up in the morning! Though women have the name of being more temperamental, they certainly are not so in this respect.

DEATH RATTLE OF CALOMEL IN SOUTH

Dodson Is Destroying Sale of Dangerous Drug With His "Liver Tone."

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's Dodson's guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store an dget your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything afterwards adv.

WHY?—

Do We Call a Cat "Puss."

(Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

This common term for the household pet is really nothing more than the ancient Gaelic and modern Irish name for the cat which, in those languages, would be called a "puss" and the application of the name to a different animal than that to which it legitimately belonged carries us back to the time of the Norman conquest.

At that time and for two or three generations afterward, the fashionable language among the upper classes in England was a mixture of Latin and Norman-French. Those who spoke pure Latin called the hare by its Latin name, depus, while others, who spoke a jumble of both languages assumed that the name was Norman and ,supposing the first syllable to be the article "le," converted lepus into the theoretically French "le puss." In time, however, the Anglo-Saxon "hare" replaced this and "puss" was reserved as an affectionate term for the cat.

RIPPLING RHYMES
By WALT MASON

Tuesday, November 23, 1920.

Astrologers read the early hours of this day as most unfortunate. Uranus is in benefic aspect in the evening.

Up to three in the afternoon it will be wise to proceed along routine lines of work or business, for Mars, Uranus and Jupiter are all adverse.

During this sway the tendency may be toward irascibility. Beware of entrance to a quarrel.

Uranus this morning makes the mind hospitable to sinister suggestions, the seers declare, but late in the evening changes to kindly rule.

It will be well to delay all big commercial ventures until a more favorable configuration prevails.

All effort at this time should be toward the cultivation of a confident, optimistic frame of mind in which self does not dominate.

The seers declare that the danger to the nation is due to the fact that the personal element enters too strongly into all public service.

Uranus has power to increase all the weak and evil propensities when the planet is adverse, astrologers declare, for the influence is subtle and insistent.

Military operations that affect Turkey or the Near East are again presaged.

Losses by theft and fraud will continue to be numerous during the winter. This is said to be part of the reflex of materiality.

While there may be many seemingly threatening conditions ot this time, astrologers read much that is encouraging in the aspects of the stars.

There is to be such an extension of learning and such a general interest in education that the nation will attain highest place among the people of the world, it is prophesied.

Persons whose birthdate it is should pursue the regular course of life during the coming year. Changes will not be satisfactory.

Children born on this day may be headstrong and impulsive, but of good judgment. They should be trained to go ahead slowly in business affairs.

The Great Blessing.

I had a weary siege of sickness that called for pink and purple pills; my humble roll lost all its thickness when I had paid the doctors' bills. And pharmacists and well trained nurses were chasing to me up the road, and undertakers with their hearses were hanging round my sad abode. Now I am feeling very better, the gout and mumps have left my frame, likewise lumbago, croup and tetter, though rheumatix still plays its game. No longer do I wear a plaster, there is no poultice on my form, and I'm not scared by bleak disaster, or by the ills that round me swarm. If one has health he is a craven to talk of grief and trouble sore,—and croak, like Edgar Allan's raven, such balderdash as 'Nevermore." Health is the only thing that matters, beside it other boons are vain, and men are surely mad as hatters who kick when they are free from pain. Recovered from my indigestion, and convalescent from the itch I face my taks without a question, and life seems full and sweet and rich. Yes, ugly problems crowd around me, and threats and things invade my den, but they can't daunt me or confound me, for I am feeling well again.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO SHOW YOUR TALENT IN PHOTOPLAY ACTING

Local movie fans who have cherished dreams of becoming famous photoplay stars are to be given a chance right here in Wichita Falls, according to an announcement by H. S. Ford, manager of the Dye, Ford and Rogers enterprises in this city.

A contract has just been closed with the Community Photo Play company of Los Angeles to film and screen a mile a minute comedy drama, "The Girl From Wichita Falls," which will be "shot" on the stage of the Majestic theater and which will have a cast composed entirely of local talent.

The Los Angeles concern is a strictly producing concern which is interested only in the production of community plays and in the development of moving picture talent. They have been in this business for several years and have filmed "The Girl From Denver," "The Girl From Larime," "The Girl from Tulsa," and various other girls from a wide assortment of towns. The picture will include only local people, local scenes and local events, and will be filmed in full view of the public on the Majestic stage. Sections will be taken each day and when completed the entire film will be shown at a local theater.

Paul L. Hofler, who will act as camera man in the filming of the play, is now in Wichita Falls and is making preliminary arrangements for the production. He asks tha tany one who desires to appear in the picture send or phone their names to the Majestic and they will receive instructions as to when and where to appear. The cast will be chosen by the director and will be taken on merit alone, so that those who believe they possess latent powers which may elevate them to heights of fame will now be given an opportunity to find out just how far off they really are in their suppositions.

The remaining personnel of the producing company will arrive in this city from Los Angeles Tuesday and will start work at once. Charles Le Witt, an experienced director, will be in charge of operations and will select the cast and direct the play. Charles Pique will come in the capacity of electrician and will be in charge of the technical effects. Among other things his equipment will include eight Winfield-Kerner motion picture studio lights which give a combined power of 800,000.

A special feature of the work will be the work of the laboratory man, Art Morrison, who will develop and print the film from day to day as it is taken. He carries some 3,000 pounds of baggage, included in which are developing tanks, drying racks, blank film and all the equipment found in a modern picture studio laboratory.

Mr. Hofler as camera man and Maudie C. D. Bash as auditor will complete the staff.

The actual filming of the picture will require some little time as aerial views of the city and special scenes in the oil fields will be used as settings for the play. It is the plan of the directors to make use of the surrounding fields to a large extent and in this respect Wichita Falls enjoys a great advantage over its less fortunate neighbors who do have the famous oil resources.

All of the "shots" and all acting will be directed by Mr. Le Witt, and it is his intention to turn out a really good photo play. The story which is to be used is said to be a fine one and the fact that if any exceptional talent is discovered in Wichita Falls it will mean a fine profit for the Community Producing company is enough to insure careful attention on the part of the directors.

A great deal of interest has been aroused in the project and much conjecture is being heard as to who "The Girl From Wichita Falls" will be.

DR. SMITH RECEIVES A HANDSOME CADILLAC CAR A GIFT FROM J. I. STALEY

Dr. R. C. Smith, all puffed up with pride and appreciation, burst three buttons from his vest Monday. His face shone, his eyes sparkled, and his hands would have trembled had they not been under the professional control that comes with years of medical practice.

In fact, the ordinary, average, every day mortal, with ordinary, average, every day nerves, unquestionably would have run a fever of 104 had he been in Dr. Smith's position of glowing warmth. "Doc" Smith had received a present, a gift from a patient and a friend, and Boy, Howy! it was some little gift—a new, shining Cadillac suburban car.

J. I. Staley is guilty. Last February Staley was a sick man, a mighty sick man. Dr. Smith labored long, late and often over J. I., and finally pulled him through. Yesterday Staley and Mrs. Staley called on Dr. and Mrs. Smith and to the utter astonishment of the latter, presented the shining Cadillac.

Dr. Smith is pleased—just how pleased and how delighted, he cannot himself say. And J. I. Staley is quite contented and happy—and healthy. 'Tis enough.

FRANCE NEEDS FARMERS; IMPORTS FROM POLAND

PARIS.—Scarcity of farm labor is but one of the many problems arising from the war which France is seeking to solve and as a result food prices continue high. So serious has the situation become that large farm owners have demanded that the government go into other countries in an effort to secure workers who will remain on the farms and provide food for France. Acting on these requests and with the consent of the Polish government this country has recently established a farm-hand recruiting mission in Warsaw.

The farmer-soldier of France suffered heavily during the war, forming as he did the bulk of the French armies. The percentage of mortality among the peasants was great, while wounds rendered other thousands unfit for service in the fields. Combined with this was the bringing of the peasant into contact with the life of the towns and cities and the wages paid there, all of which has cut a wide swath in a country which before the war was noted for its large and industrious population.

Since the establishment of its farm-hand recruiting bureau in Warsaw 500 demands had been made upon the government for this imported labor and it has already begun transporting 3,600 farm workers to this country, all of whom sign contracts to remain on the farm for a certain period. To further their contentment and efficiency the government also contracts to bring their families with them and to house them.

NEW TEXAS LEAGUE PRESIDENT BUSY SELECTING UMPIRES AND PREPARING SCHEDULE FOR 1921

Doak Roberts, newly elected president of the Texas League, has not yet fully decided where to establish his headquarters for next year, but it is a well known fact that the site selected will be either in Corsicana or Dallas. Both towns are anxious for him to get his mail from their postoffices and a definite decision from the new prexy should be forthcoming soon.

The club owners have yet to act on the question of his salary. While Morris was in office, the job is said to have paid less than $200 a month, but there was a liberal expense account attached to it. A plan now under way seems to be to increase the salary and make the president pay his own traveling expenses. Should he locate in Dallas, the league will also pay his office rent.

Just now Roberts is looking over the field for new umpires with the hope that he can get a more competent staff for next year. It is his plan to employ only men who will be worthy of the respect of the players and before he actually signs up an umpire he will submit his name to all the club owners.

The Texas League is sadly in need of new umpires and if President Roberts can remedy the situation he will have gone a long way towards making a success out of his position. Trouble often arose on the field last year because the umpires did not have command of the situation. Neither players nor fans had much respect for the majority of arbiters who worked around the circuit last year.

President Roberts is also drafting schedules for 1921. Here is another chance for him to improve on the work done last year. There wasn't a club in the league that got the raw deal that the Spudders did when the schedule was announced and 'Skipper' Salm certainly will not stand for another such deal this year. The success of the franchise here was more or less problematical at this time last year and that undoubtedly accounted for the prize package that was handed Wichita Falls. Times and conditions have changed, however. The president will prepare at least six schedules, each different, this year and mail copies to each of them in advance of the January meeting which is to be held in Galveston.

Brooklyn Sets Two Overtime Records For Major Leagues

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Two new major league records were set in the National League last season in the matter of overtime endeavor. The extra inning mark for a single game was raised to 26 innings and the record for consecutive rounds was increased to 58 in three days.

Brooklyn's champions were concerned in both performances and strangely enough, the Robins themselves held one of the old marks. When Brooklyn and Boston played their 26 inning 1-1 tie on May 1, they beat the major league record by two rounds. It had been held by the Philadelphia and Boston American league teams at 24 innings since 1906. Brooklyn and Pittsburgh held the previous National league record at 22 innings.

Following that May 1 battle Brooklyn played a 13-inning battle with Philadelphia on May 2, making a total of 58 rounds consecutively. The previous mark of this sort was held by Brooklyn and Pittsburgh. It was 45 innings.

American league teams were hooked up in overtime scraps only 55 times this year, compared to 54 in the previous season.

RUTH FINALLY BAGS HOME RUN; SIGNS UP FOR 10 MORE GAMES IN CUBA

HAVANA, Nov. 23.—During the baseball games played by the New York Giants in this city, Babe Ruth has had a batting average of .345, but has only made two home runs. He scored five runs, and his efforts with the bat resulted in two homers, three triples, three doubles and a brace of singles. He struck out six times.

He has signed with a local promoter for 10 games in this city. He has attracted crowds to the games with but one ambition—to see him wallop the ball out of the park.

RICH REWARDS HAVE BEEN WON IN THE PRIZE FIGHTERS' RING

By HENRY L. FARRELL,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Parents with "get rich quick" ideas for their offspring should start raising their boys to be fighters.

What is a B. A., an LL. D. or a diploma in engineering compared to a two-fisted graduate of the ring school who can go out and earn $200,000 for not more than an hour's work?

Jack Dempsey, who doesn't know but what Chaucer was a race horse, is to get $300,000 for not more than fifteen rounds of boxing some nice afternoon next summer.

Georges Carpentier, whose arithmetic has been acquired counting purse money since he was twelve years old, is to get $200,000 for being the necessary second principal in the bout.

In addition, both are to receive 25 per cent of the motion picture rights.

If the bout goes long enough, the celluloid post-mortem of the affair will be worth a cool million.

In addition to the purse and movie money, Dempsey and Carpentier will cash in heavily after the fight.

If Dempsey retains the title, movie and exhibition work with a theatrical tour of the country should net him a small fortune.

If Carpentier wins the title all he will have to do the remainder of his days will be to count the money that pours into him from his European admirers. Even if he loses, his services will be worth almost as much.

With the tendency of the modern fighter to hold his purse strings tight, neither one will have to worry about the future after their little meeting.

Verily, verily, raise your boys to be prize fighters.

LANDIS PREPARING TO OPEN NEW BASEBALL OFFICE IN CHICAGO

Decision Regarding Division Of White Sox Money Is Expected Soon.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Records of the old National baseball commission have been transferred from Cincinnati to Chicago in preparation for the opening of offices here for Judge Landis as ruler of the major leagues. By a visit to Cincinnati last week, Judge Landis familiarized himself with the workings of the old national commission and soon is to begin consideration of baseball problems.

One of the first important decisions expected, according to reports, is the decision of about $15,000 among members of the White Sox team which earned second place money in the 1920 race. Strong opposition has arisen in some quarters to the proposal to exclude from shares the seven former White Sox players under indictment for participation in throwing the 1919 world's series.

They played with the 1920 White Sox until the confessions of Eddie Cicotte and Joe Jackson which led to their indefinite suspension just before the closing series of the season. Charges were made openly by several of their team mates that the seven were involved in attempts to "throw" games during the 1920 season, but the grand jury indictments took no cognizance of these charges.

Meanwhile the $15,000 due the second place team as its share of the 1920 world's series receipts remains in the hands of the two members of the old national commission, Presidents Heydler and Johnson of the National and American Leagues.

The remaining members of the 1920 Sox team have voted to split the sum into sixteen and one-half shares, making about $900 apiece, and excluding the seven suspended players. This settlement has been opposed on the ground that while indicted, the seven Sox have not been convicted and some of them deny the charges of crookedness. Arguments before Judge Landis as the supreme arbiter are expected to decide the settlement soon.

ONLY ONE DEFEAT IN 20 YEARS IS RECORD OF ONE SOUTHERN INSTITUTION

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 23.—The end of the 1920 football season finds one southern college with a record of only one defeat in twenty years. Morehouse college, a negro institution, lost a game ten years ago, but for ten years prior to that time and since then the word "defeat" has been known at the school only as it applied to Morehouse's opponents. Morehouse has played games annually with the leading negro teams of the south, including Tuskegee institute, Atlanta university and Morris Brown.

CHICAGO FANS WELCOME RETURN OF EVERS TO OLD STAMPING GROUND

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The date for a home-coming banquet to be tendered Johnny Evers, new manager of the Chicago Cubs, has been set for December 17. Judge Landis, recently appointed chairman of the National commission, will be asked to act as toastmaster. Many baseball officials from other cities are expected to attend. Jack Hendricks and Roger Breshnahan, American association managers, have sent in reservation requests.

PURYEAR AND BEREHER MATCHED FOR 15 ROUNDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Earl Puryear, bantamweight boxer of Tulsa, Okla., considered a formidable contender for the championship now held by Pete Herman, has been matched with Charlie Bereher, of New York in a fifteen-round bout here on Thanksgiving day.

Ryan and Martin Draw.

OKLAHOMA CITY, November 23.—"Mick-ey" Ryan of San Antonio and Pewee Martin of this city fought ten rounds to a draw here last night. Both are lightweights.

HAS BENNY "GONE BACK"

Has Benny "gone back?" The lightweight champ will be given a severe test when he faces Joe Welling at Madison Square Garden in their approaching fight.

EASTERN COACHES ARE PANNED FOR WRETCHED SHOWING OF TEAMS

By HENRY L. FARREL
U. P. Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Decapitation of coaches, the popular winter pastime of disappointed students and alumni, is getting under way. One of football's funny idiosyncracies is the intolerance with which students look upon an unsuccessful coach.

Tad Jones was called in midseason last year as the Moses to lead Yale out of her bog. Jones didn't do it this year. Yale had a disastrous season and Jones' status as the head of the department is uncertain.

Larry Bankhart, last year's coach at Colgate; Foster Sanford, football coach at Rutgers, and Chet La Roche, freshman coach, are being named as his successor.

Gil Doble went to Cornell this year and made an early season sensation out of a lot of nondescript talent. Then the bumps came and the students started yelling. They could find nothing faulty in his work, but they set upon him for not allowing the team to elect a captain.

John Heisman, former coach of Georgia Tech, started out in the same whirlwind fashion at Pennsylvania, but his machine floundered after the half way mark and he is running the gauntlet of criticism.

Bob Folwell, new tutor of the Navy, lost two big games, but he seems fortunate in having a constituency that will bear up under anything if they are given a victory over the Army.

In the west they seem less inclined to shift about and the football administrations seem almost permanent. Wilce at Ohio state, Zuppke at Illinois, Richards at Wisconsin, and William at Minnesota are kings of their own domain.

CARDINALS WILL START SPRING TRAINING WITH MORE THAN 20 ROOKIES

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—More than 20 youthful players, several of whom have already had their major league baptism, are scheduled to go south with the St. Louis National league club when the spring training season opens. Manager Rickey has 22 in line at present, and the list is expected to be enlarged. The collection includes 11 pitchers, five infielders, four outfielders and four catchers.

The pitchers are Lou North, Mike Kircher, John Scott, Walter Schulz and Frank Woodward, all of whom saw several weeks' service with the Cardinals in 1920, and six newcomers—Chester Boyer, Ranger, Texas; Frank Dodson, Fort Smith; George Lyons, Sioux City; Arthur Reinhart, Milwaukee; Arthur Riviere and Leo Weber.

The two catchers are Carlos Tiny Griesenbeck, from Cisco, Texas, and George Gilhan, of Suffolk, Va., neither of whom has been seen in action here.

Two of the recruit outfielders are returning to the club after a year in the minors. They are Clarence Muel ler, Fort Smith, and Ed Bogart, Joplin. The other pair are George Miller, from Haggerstown, Md., and Dorsey L. Carroll, Memphis.

The new infielders are Adams, a shortstop from Danville, Va.; Ray Blades, Memphis; Irving Wimmer, a local semi-pro; Bottomley and Ezzell, whom Scout Charley Barrett is bringing from Texas.

NORTH TEXAS HIGH SCHOOLS MAY JOIN CONFERENCE

DENISON, TEXAS, Nov. 23—If present plans are successful, North Texas high schools will be incorporated in a North Texas conference and athletics of the schools will be put under the control of a central organization selected by the members of the conference.

Coach Sam McMillan, physical director of the Denison public schools, is originator of the plan and other schools of the district have received his proposal with such enthusiasm that a meeting of the schools will be called soon after the close of the football season for the preliminary discussion.

In addition to Denison, McKinney, Bonham, Sherman, Whitewright, Whitesboro and Denton high schools have taken an interest in the plan.

TOLEDO GOING AFTER FOURTH BOWLING TOURNAMENT

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 23.—Toledo is going after its fourth national bowling tournament. Bowling promoters made this clear when they brought about a visit from A. L. Langtry of Milwaukee, secretary of the American Bowling congress. It is planned to send a large crowd of boosters to the Buffalo meeting to land the tournament for Toledo in 1922.

VERNON AND PADUCAH TO MEET THANKSGIVING

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—Vernon high school will play football against Paducah here Thanksgiving afternoon, and the contest is expected to be about the hardest fought of the year. Both aggregations are about on a par, judging from comparative scores, and both have expressed their determination to win their last game of the season.

CENTRE COLLEGE TO PLAY ONLY POST SEASON GAME WITH T. C. U. IN FT. WORTH

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—The famous Centre College football squad from Danville, Ky., will play its only post-season game here New Year's day with Texas Christian university, P. F. Fox, assistant athletic director of T. C. U. announced today.

Fox also said Centre had signed an agreement to play in 1922. Centre will bring along about 24 men for the clash with the "Horned Frogs," it was said.

WICHITA FALLS POLO CLUB BRINGS BACK FOUR LOVING CUPS

Local Mallet Wielders Now Claim Championship Of West Texas As A Result Of Dallas Victory.

The Wichita Falls Polo club has returned from Dallas bringing the championship of West Texas and four silver loving cups emblematic of good handsome lickings administered to the Dallas Polo club last Saturday and Sunday. The local horsemen and mallet wielders ran away from their Dallas opponents and won as they pleased.

The Wichita club took the opening game by a score of 7½ to 1½, and Sunday's game 7½ to 1½. Most of the scoring was done in the early periods, or "chukkers," as the English prefer to call 'em, after which the Wichita club contented itself on playing a defensive game.

Pictures of the games will be shown at the Majestic theatre in this city Wednesday, a Pathe Weekly photographer being "Johnny-on-the-spot" throughout the two contests.

The loving cups were corralled by Zeb Nixon, Warren Jennings, Robbins and Wilfong. Hemphill and Fletcher also played, "Doc" Fletcher distinguishing himself by taking a spill from his pony that fortunately brought no serious results.

Arrangements will be made to bring the Fort Sill polo team to this city for a series of games in the near future and the Dallas club will probably be here some time after the first of the year.

Having established a reputation by handily trouncing Dallas, the club has been invited to embroil itself in another polo session that will send the club up against a number of crack teams of the southwest. The invitation was received last evening by Acting Mayor Curlee from Lieut. N. D. Brophy of the Kelly Field Polo club at San Antonio, and read as follows:

"Invite polo teams to enter tournament at Kelly Field November 28. Stable accommodations available."

As Acting Mayor Curlee is no more interested in playing the wild game of polo than he is in a feverish set-to of checkers, he promptly turned the message over to Horace Robbins—and the local polo club will reach a decision on the invitation tonight. It is hardly possible, however, that the Wichita men will be able to make the trip on such short notice.

BRESNAHAN OUT TO SPEND PROFITS FOR NEW BLOOD

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 23.—Roger Breshnahan, president of the Toledo baseball club of the American association, is "scouring the country" for players for his 1921 club. Roger made money in the 1920 campaign and is going to spend it, he says, to bring a pennant to Toledo for the first time in the history of the American association. Breshnahan has not yet signed a manager.

The SPORTLIGHT by Grantland Rice

(Copyright, 1920, New York Tribune Inc.)

BEYOND THE GAME.

We may not see beyond the Game,
What waits across the final Score.
Nor know what phantom dreams acclaim
The future League that lies in store.

No football comes, no given sign,
No beckoning, no backward glance,
Where Fame's dead roses guard the line
Beyond which Life may not advance.

We may not look into the sleep
Where lilies lean across the day;
How broken there—how long or deep
Where life's lost winds kneel down to pray!

For knowing, we might find the sting
To take all heart from valiant strife.
Or, Death's Gray League too fine a thing
To give one other day to Life.

PITT VS. PENN STATE.

Last Thanksgiving Day it was generally taken for granted that Penn State would win from Pitts, and when the former tossed a forward pass from behind its own goal line for a touchdown Pitts crumbled swiftly.

This was Penn State's first victory after six straight years of reversals at the hands of Pop Warner's Panthers.

One of the big features of this contest will be the backfield duel between Tom Davies, of Pitts, and Charlie Way, of Penn State.

Davies and Way are two of the greatest backs in the country. Way is the best broken field runner in the East, while Davies is an all around star, who can gain ground against almost any type of defense whether it be through a line or around an end.

Herb McCracken closes his football career in this game, where Pitts loses a star.

PICKING A WINNER.

Penn State, with victories over Dartmouth, Nebraska and Pennsylvania, the two latter by wide margins, may be a slight favorite.

But there is little to choose between the two elevens. Pitts has victories over West Virginia, W. and J., Pennsylvania, Georgia Tech and Lehigh, with a Syracuse tie.

Penn State's closest call came from Lehigh. Pitt's two close calls came from Pennsylvania and Syracuse. Pitts has played a harder schedule to a certain extent, although Pitts has beaten no team as strong as Dartmouth's.

On the general dope of the occasion the two machines are evenly matched, with no advantage either way. Warner has as good a chance to win as Bezdek has, and the break of the game, with the tilt of luck one way or another, should decide the final result.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Four or five weeks ago, or back around young October, the Army had a distinct advantage over the Navy. Bolstered up by the presence of French and Storch, of Rutgers, Coach Daley started with a much stronger machine than the Army array of a year ago.

The Navy got away badly, but since that first defeat has been gathering strength each week.

The game last year was extremely dull, as the Army had no offense and the Navy attack was not a goal crosser.

The contest on Saturday should be quite different. In French, West Point has one of the most brilliant backs of the year, a fast, broken field runner, who will start excitement more than once.

Against Notre Dame the Army had but little to show beyond the individual brilliance of French. But that was the Army's first hard game. And it's only hard game to date.

The Navy has had a better schedule for machine-making purposes. The game with Carolina State brought defeat. Hard games with Princeton and Georgetown have also helped.

So in the matter of seasoning the Navy will be in a better way than its rival from up the Hudson.

The Navy has a good line, flanked by two fine tackles, two of the best in the East. This means more than a trifle to any line defense. It remains to be seen how the Navy ends can handle French or what the Navy offense will show with a shift from Dobey to Folwell. But the attack will very probably be more open.

This contest, just as the Pitts-Penn State meeting, should be extremely close, with more open field ground gaining than any one saw in the closing battle a year ago, very much more, in fact.

The Army defense against Notre Dame was none too good, as Gipp and others ran amuck most of the afternoon. But along that line the Navy will have no Gipp to fire pointblank when the attack begins.

CAPT. HENRY STRONG GIVES NEW VERSION ON CHISHOLM TRAIL

Captain Henry Strong of Wichita Falls, one of the pioneers of West Texas, who was a guide in the service of General Randall S. Mackenzie in the early '70s, discussing the origin of the "Chisholm Trail" which connected West Texas with the border towns and railway terminals of Kansas many years ago, asserts that there is much error connected with the traditions concerning the trail and its origin, and even concerning its location.

"In the first place," said he, "the man who started the trail was John S. Chisum, and not Chisholm. I cannot imagine how this erroneous spelling got started. Chisum was a bachelor. Jeff and Pits Chisum were his brothers, and he had some half brothers. The half brothers and his mother lived near Paris, Texas.

"John Chisum came to old Bolivar in Wise county and brought his cattle with him. The old Chisum house near Bolivar was standing a year ago, I was told.

"The trail started above Bolivar near the old Chisum ranch at Red River station, which was a station on the old stage line between Fort Arbuckle and Fort Belknap. Then it ran northward through Indian Territory, past the site of the present town of Chickasha, to Baxter Springs, Kansas. Chisum was the first to use it, though many others afterward followed it.

"A trail from the south joined this trail near Chisum's ranch, coming up from Fort Worth and passing this place.

"Of course, it must be understood that a cattle trail of this kind was not like a road; it was very wide. The cattle had to subsist as they traveled and they were grazed over a belt of territory perhaps as much as six miles wide. It was more like a zone than anything else.

"After making his first drive to Kansas, Chisum moved his cattle to Coleman county and located on Horne creek, where Tickum now stands, and opened a store there. Emory Peters managed it for him. In making trips to Kansas, he drove both to Baxter Springs and Abilene. Later he drove many of his cattle across the plains by way of China Ponds to Horsehead Crossing on the Pecos, where his brother Pits received them and took them to Las Vegas and delivered them to Charlie Goodnight and returned to Horsehead Crossing for more cattle.

"Goodnight and John Chisum were partners in the cattle business at this time. Chisum bought many cattle from the local cattle men at the Conchas, Colorado Pass, Brownwood, the Pecan Bayou, Williams' store and the San Saba country, and he drove these as well as cattle from his own ranch into New Mexico. Later he moved all his own cattle to Lincoln county, New Mexico. He never drove cattle over the Chisum trail after the war.

"Others used the old trail, but later it branched to the west up in the territory, and went to Wichita, Kansas, and to Honeywell and Coldwell, Kansas. Then in 1879 or '80, it was abondoned for a more direct route to Honeywell and Colwell which came up from San Antonio and Fort Griffin, past Vernon and crossed the Red river at Doan's store near the initial monument on the 100th meridian, and passed near where Mangum, Oklahoma, is now, and very near the east line of the Texas panhandle.

"Emory Peters, who managed Chisum's store at Tickum, lived in Denton the last I knew. Pits Chisum married late in life and the last I knew of him, was living east of Paris. Jeff Chisum never married, and if John married I never heard of it.

"Among the first men to follow up the old trail after the last drives of Chisum were Earp and Mosely, Charlie Campbell of Commanche, Kingsbury and Homisly and others from the Jim Ned country. Henry Ford from Williams' ranch was a regular trail man. Then there were the South Texas people, Old Man King, from the Neuces, Jim Elison, Adams, Bill Kennedy and many others. Many from North Texas drove it and men from Missouri and Kansas came to Texas to buy cattle and drove them up the old trail."

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—Canvass of returns on presidential electors from the last general election will be started by the state election board today, according to C. D. Mims, secretary of state, who said that the canvass should have started yesterday, but the law pertaining to presidential electors was confused with another statute, which provides that returns on state officers be canvassed forty days after the election, or on December 14 this year. Presidential returns from some of the counties are not yet in but the board will canvass those they have received.

CONDITION OF RAMON SAID TO BE SERIOUS

cated on the north bound Santa Fe was shattered when report fron. Paul Mead, at Ponca City came in late Monday night, saying that thorough search between Ponca City and Newkirk failed to show the woman on the train.

Frank Ketch, Hamon's manager, in his various townsite and business ventures, was frank in his discussion of the shooting affair, but he deviated not a whit from his original version.

"I have spent nearly 48 hours," he said, "checking up every detail as originally reported by Hamon. I found the shells as he said he had left them, and all articles in his room as he had described. He told me that he was loading his .25 automatic which he always carries when on a trip, and that as one of the shells was inserted the explosion came. He had been planning a hunting trip to Texas and Montana. No one was in the room with him.

Report a Conversation.

"One report has been that a person in an adjoining room heard Hamon in conversation with a woman, and that the conversation indicated a quarrel. I have run this report down, and have absolutely assured myself that no person was in an adjoining room, and that Hamon was alone. If a woman had shot Hamon I would be among the first to want the full details, but since Hamon himself denies it and since I can find no substantiation of the report, I am not disposed to give it credence. I suspect that political enmity for Jake may have had something to do with the starting of the story."

Ketch declared that he did not know the relative of Hamon's who is said to be the husband of Clara Hamon. This relative is reported to be a nephew, formerly living in Fort Worth, Texas, and later being associated with Hamon in one of his many ventures. Clara Hamon lived in Oklahoma City two years ago, her house being listed in the city directory of 1918-19 under that name.

Politically, Hamon's star has risen in ratio to the rise of his financial star. During the republican national convention in Chicago in 1912 Jake, it was said, did not even have a ticket to the big affair, until one of the Oklahoma crowd of "ins" got him one. He had always been active in politics and had his ups and downs. The year 1912 was a "down" year.

But with wealth came political power, and by 1919, in the historic battle against Jim McGraw, Hamon attained the honor of which he had dreamed for so many years—republican national committeeman.

Jake Hamon is said by Oklahoma City friends to have met Clara Smith first in Lawton when Hamon lived there. Clara Smith, then about 17, was a clerk in a Lawton store. Hamon in those days was not wealthy. Since 1913 or 1914 Clara Smith has been associated at intervals with Hamon in office work.

Not only was Hamon not wealthy in the days he first met Clara Smith, but he was the reserve.

Always a soldier of fortune, commercially and politically, he had encountered hard times.

It was not until he conceived his townsite and railroad scheme that luck began to turn his way.

That a townsite and a railroad in the southern part of Oklahoma might be a money making venture as his belief and so strongly did he adhere to it that he resolved to get financial backing of no mean proportions.

Although he didn't know John Ringling, he decided that a circus man of international repute and great wealth would be the sort who might be interested in a townsite and railroad project.

The story is told that the knocking of a cocktail glass in a New York bar room was the means by which Hamon introduced himself to John Ringling, the circus magnate. Ringling it is said, had been pointed out to Hamon and Hamon had followed him into the bar of the hotel. In the apologies that followed the cocktail incident an acquaintance was struck, and to make a long story short, Ringling tied in on the townsite and railroad deal.

About the time the project was well under way oil in large quantities began to show up in the region of the Hamon-Ringling venture. The financial skies grew quickly bright and Hamon being a penniless adventurer, suddenly graduated into the millionaire class.

Within three or four years he had become one of the few largest independent oil producers in the world. His fortune is conservatively estimated at $30,000,000.

POLICY FOR $200,000 IS DELIVERED BEFORE SHOOTING

CHURCHES MAY ADD JAZZ TO ATTRACT YOUNG FOLKS

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23.—Jazz music may be introduced in the churches here to attract the younger element.

Syncopation and zip instead of the ancient hyms was suggested by Ralph Baldwin, former president of the Cleveland Baptists Young Peoples Society.

"We are living in a jazz age and I wonder if a jazz church ought not to be the next development," he said. "I would not have you change the story but I wonder if another variation of the tune might not better catch the ear of the young people in our churches."

Baldwin said he would discuss the matter with a number of ministers in the hope of convincing them of the soundness of his idea.

The total pipe line runs for the week for the Burkburnett and northwest extension districts were estimated at 367,800, for the Texhoma field, 34,200 barrels, and for the K. M. A. field, 33,600 barrels.

SON HEARS OF MOTHER WHOM HE THOUGHT DEAD THROUGH TIMES ARTICLE

An article published recently in The Times which made inquiry as to the whereabouts of one Herman Pepper has resulted in the locating of the man and of reuniting him with his mother in Germany, whom he believed to be dead.

A letter was received by the local police department from the German mother, asking that they make efforts to locate her son who was believed to be living in Wichita Falls. The letter came from Coln Sulz, a small village located on the Rhine river a short distance from Coblenz.

An exerpt of the request was published in The Times and a short time later Keppeler reported at the police station and inquired as to the particulars of the letter from his mother.

He has been working at his trade in this city, that of a mosaic tile artist, and had not written home because he believed that his mother had died in the year 1914. A cablegram has been sent to the German village by Keppeler and he is awaiting a reply.

A short talk on the "Value of Culture" was given by Rev. H. D. Knickerbocker and short addresses in a humorous vein were also given by C. W. Reid and W. W. Anderson. President William Viner presided.

The University Club has been sending speakers to the high school every week to talk on educational subjects and a request was received last week from the Alamo school asking the club to send a speaker there if possible. The matter was placed before the committee and in the future other schools beside the high school will undoubtedly be furnished with speakers every week.

SAYS THAT FEDERAL AGENTS ARE SEEKING TO INDICT FARMERS

PRODUCERS ARE URGED TO HOLD THEIR CROPS REGARDLESS OF THREATS.

DECLARE EFFORTS HAVE MET WITH OPPOSITION

Appeal Is Issued By President Of The National Farmer's Union Of America.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Declaring he understood that "federal agents are already going over Kansas, Iowa and other states trying to get evidence necessary to the indictment of men who are urging farmers to hold their crops," Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' union, through a statement issued today appealed to members of his organization to stand together and not sell their products at present "ruinously low prices."

"Show that you have the moral courage to go to jail, if necessary," Mr. Barrett advised members of the farmers' union. "The word seems to have been passed around that farmers were to be taught a lesson, they were getting troublesome."

The farmers' answer to claims of over-production, Mr. Barrett said, should be, "We will simply lessen production." This was "no idle threat," he said, adding:

"From every part of the country comes the promise that this policy should be adhered to until the country wakes up to the fact that it must either go on short rations or pay you wages high enough to live on."

Efforts of the farmers toward co-operation, Mr. Barrett said, has met with strong opposition from the first. He charged that "deliberate efforts" had been made to prevent them from buying collectively.

"For seven long, weary years," the farmers' union president added, "the farmers of this country had placed over them a secretary of agriculture not in real sympathy with and with little understanding of the needs of agriculture, and who as secretary of another department is being used apparently to enforce deflation of farm products."

Mr. Barrett's appeal further stated that the only course left to the farmers was to help one another and by raising sufficient money to finance more adequately our business undertakings so that we can hold and market farm products in a businesslike, orderly fashion."

POUR 86,300 GALLON BEER IN SEWERS AT NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23.—Beer of pre-war strength to the amount of 86,300 gallons with 7,000 gallons of cereal beverage diluted to prohibition strength went into sewers here today when the Consumers Brewing company, in process of liquidation, figured it was cheaper to destroy the product than keep it.

GATHER FOR TRIAL EVENTS IN PULITZER TROPHY RACE

MINEOLA, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Attracted by the promise of new world's flying records, air plane enthusiasts gathered at Mitchell Field here today for the first of the trial events for the Pulitzer trophy race, Thanksgiving day. Planes rated as the speediest in the world were entered in the preliminary.

Air service pilots confidently predicted their pet machine, the 600-horse power plane which was the entry of the United States in the James Gordon Bennett races at Etampes, France, would eclipse the record of 192 miles attained in France. Lieutenant C. C. Mosely, who went to France as alternate to Captain Rudolph Schroeder, was selected as pilot.

SENSATIONAL INCIDENT IN THE DUBLIN EXCHANGE COURT

DUBLIN, Nov. 23.—The Dublin Evening Mail today published news of a sensational incident which is alleged to have occurred yesterday morning in the exchange court, resulting in the death of Richard McKee, Peter Clancy and a man named McClune.

These men, acording to the newspaper, were arrested durinh the week-end and kept in a room of the exchange court, pending transfer of the prisoners. The Mail alleges that the prisoners seized arms stored in the court and atttempted to escape. It also alleges the court guard was fired on, and, returning the fire, killed the three men.

Clancy, it is stated, was a member of the sinn fein "inner circles," which has been directing recent operations of the organization. McKee was an expert on explosives and McClune is said to have been an officer of the republican army.

PROFITEERS BUY BIG "ANCESTRAL" ESTATES

LONDON, (By Mail.)—Ancestral estates are now within easy reach of the ambitious profiteer. If he likes, and if the profiteering has been good enough, he can buy one for himself and one for his wife.

There are many historical ancestral estates with shooting, fishing, forests, farms and all romantic appendages on auctioneers' lists at present.

Lord Breadalbane, Lord Wimborne, Lord Blyth, Lord Swaythling, Sir Richard Williams-Bulkeley, Sir Frederick Dunbar and Lady Joicey-Cecil are all offering large tracts of their estates, and Sir George Duckworth King has decided to sell the famous Wear House Estate, an ancient place where Lord Courtenay, about 1312, diverted the river from the neighboring town because the inhabitants displeased him.

NEW YORK PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT AGENTS BUSY

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Prohibition enforcement agents in New York are doing everything in their power to give the "hooch hounds" little or nothing to be thankful for Thursday.

HAS RECOMMENDED IMMEDIATE CHANGE HANDLING SUPPLIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Immediate revision of the present method of disposing of surplus government stores to prevent speculators from buying federal property from one government and reselling it to another branch of the government at a higher figure, is recommended in the annual report of Major General J. L. Chamberlain, inspector-general of the army, to the secretary of war, made public today.

The necessity for the proposed action is indicated by a recent investigation that disclosed that one department of the government sold surplus cement for $1 per ton to a civilian who immediately sold the same cement to a branch of the war department for $6 a ton, the report states.

Concerning hazing at the military academy at West Point, General Chamberlain said that while the practice has not yet been entirely eliminated, considerable favorable progress has been made to that end.

Hospital Criticized.

Criticism of the hospital facilities at Camp Benning, Ga., is voiced in the report, the equipment there being characterized as "entirely inadequate."

Prompt measures to check abuse of the army uniform are recommend, the report declaring that "civilian authorities have not always co-operated to stop such abuse."

Other recommendations of the inspector-general include:

More care with regard to promises made recruits, particularly with regard to the army's educational courses, in order that all pre-enlistment promises may be fully complied with.

Abandonment of civil instructors at army schools.

Renewal of the clothing allowance for enlisted men, a change in the type of collar on the service coat and more care in seeing that each recruit has one new, well fitting uniform.

LOCAL COURTS

SUIT AGAINST PIPE LINE FOR POSTED PRICE OIL

A jury in the 78th district court is hearing the evidence in the case of R. B. Waggoner vs. the Steiner Oil corporation for judgment to an approximate amount of $50,000. It is alleged in the complaint that the defendant company purchased the oil without the signature of the plaintiff on the division order at a price which was below the regular market price during the months of October, November and December, 1919, and January, 1920. Attorney Fred Weeks represents the plaintiff while the defendant is represented by Louis H. Porter of Dallas.

OIL LEASE CAUSE OF SUIT AND CROSS ACTION

A suit styled Thomas Van Ever vs. J. W. Grant is being tried in the 89th district court. It appears that the defendant had a lease on a certain forty-acre tract and that he assigned the lease to the defendant, and in the agreement the plaintiff gave the defendant $750 for a note in return. The suit is for recovery of the amount of the note. The defendant, however, has instituted cross action on the grounds of failure to carry out a contract.

NEW COUNTY OFFICIALS TAKE OFFICE DECEMBER 1

Newly elected county officers seemed to be confused in reference to the date they take their seat of office, according to Judge J. P. Jones of the county commissioners court, who states that he has had many inquiries.

According to article 3044a of state statutes, the newly elected officers will take their seat of office on December 1, 1920. There were many who had the opinion that it was the first Monday in December, but the law is very plain on the matter of the date. The date this year falls on Wednesday.

MEXICAN SOLDIERS PURSUE BAND OF ALLEGED REBELS

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—Detachments of about 100 Mexican federal soldiers from Matamoras and Reynosa today are pursuing a band of alleged Mexican rebels who late yesterday captured the railroad station at Ramierez, about 22 miles west of Matamoras. The rebels are said to have crossed the Rio Grande from the United States at a point 25 miles west of Brownsville.

They carried off the telegraph operator at Ramierez, it is said, after cutting the wires.

Latest reports here said the rebel band was in imminent danger of capture. It was reported the rebels were under the leadership of Marciano Gonzales.

CONSTRUING THE WILL OF FIELD COST $500,000

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Construing the will of the elder Marshall Field cost the estate of the multi-millionaire merchant prince $960,000 for attorneys' fees alone, Judge Charles M. Foell of the superior court allowed that amount today to attorneys for the estate in the suit to contest the will. The suit grew out of the efforts of Peggy Marsh, London music hall singer, to obtain a share of the late Henry Field's interest in the Field millions for her three year old son, whose father, she claims, was Henry Field.

The legal talent represented in the case embraced such well known lawyers as Elihu Root, former secretary of state, and Edward Dunne, former governor of Illinois.

FIRST STATE BANK OF POLYTECHNIC IS ROBBED OF $8,500

FORT WORTH, Nov. 23.—The First State bank of Polytechnic, a suburb of Fort Worth, was held up at noon today by bandits and robbed. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

Currency to the amount of $8,500 was secured. Just at the noon hour, two bandits entered the bank, picking a time when no one was present except Cashier Roy Jackson. They forced him at the point of a pistol to enter the vault, which they locked. They proceeded to loot the bank at their leisure, departing in an automobile toward the south.

A pedestrian, passing in front of the bank building, heard the shouts of the cashier. He released him and the alarm was given. One thousand in silver was overlooked by the bandits.

LARGE SUM MONEY HAS BEEN SMUGGLED ACROSS TO HOLLAND

CHARGE IS MADE BY HERRMAN MUELLER, FORMER CHANCELLOR.

BANKING FIRM CHARGED WITH AIDING GERMANS

Amount Involved Said To Aggregate Two Hundred And Fifty Million Marks.

BERLIN, Nov. 23—One hundred eminent persons, among them Crown Princess Cecelia, Prince Eitel Friedrich, Prince August Wilhelm, the late Prince Joachim, Count Radolin and Princess Wanda Radziwill, have smuggled to Holland money aggregating 250,000,000 marks, asserted Herrman Mueller, former German chancellor, in the reichstag today.

The former chancellor interpellated the government relative to the activities of the firm of Crusser and Phillipson, bankers, which is declared to have carried on an extensive business in smuggling property out of Germany.

It was asserted the head of the banking firm had been enrolled in the German army and was on good terms with the nobility and that the concern had "been known publicly as a special firm for the carrying on of contraband in goods and capital."

"The government," he continued, "learned a few days ago that millions of its cash and securities were standing to the credit of German subjects with the firm of Crusser and Phillipson in Amsterdam, and that these millions had gone there through an intermediary in contravention of German laws. The public prosecutor started an inquiry into the flight of this capital and the firm's books have been seized. Proceedings are pending against a number of persons who sent money to Holland, but I am unable to give exact details. It is correct that among the persons having accounts with the company are members of princely houses and some of the Hohenzollern family. The finance department has been instructed to demand security up to the highest possible figure from customers of the Crusser bank.

"When one reads the list of people who did business with this bank he must blush with shame. Every effort was made to apprehend Crusser by surrounding his office, but he was warned and succeeded in escaping."

Prof. Kahl, a member of the German people's party, declared Herr Mueller was "trying to throw mud on the Hohenzollerns and the monarchy." He asserted Crusser had only once visited Crown Princess Cecilie and then only to hand her a letter from the crown prince.

UNABLE TO INTEREST AMERICAN CAPITAL IN PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Inability to interest American capital on a large scale in the nation's insular possessions, particularly the Philippine Islands, greatly retarded development of the great natural resources of the islands, according to the annual report of Major Frank McIntyre, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department to Secretary Baker. General McIntyre urges American bankers and business men to interest themselves in the trade and development possibilities of the outlying possessions, declaring that "large tracts of the best agricultural land in the world await developments," and that in a number of fertile provinces the population falls below twenty persons per square mile, while there is an unsupplied labor demand in other agricultural provinces having a population of 250 per square mile.

Action has been taken by the Philippine legislature to provide for the exploitation and leasing of lands containing petroleum and other mineral oils and gases, the report said.

"The progress of Porto Rico under the organic act of 1917 has been very satisfactory and continues so," the report says, the island having just completed one of the most prosperous years in its history.

THREATEN NEW SCANDALS IN CHICAGO POLICE RAID

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—New scandals in Chicago's police department threatened today following announcement by Charles Fitzmorris, police chief, that influential gamblers arrested in raids on vice quarters Sunday were not measured and photographed for records of the bureau of identification.

Chief Fitzmorris announced an immediate investigation will be made of how these persons escaped the Bertillion room. He also was angered by the small fines judges meted out to those trapped in the raids.

ORDER IS RESTORED IN BOLOGNA, SPAIN

Eight People Killed And 63 Are Wounded In Socialist-Nationalist Riots.

BOLOGNA, Nov. 23.—Order was restored here today after the killing of eight persons and the wounding of 63 in socialist-nationalist riots.

The day opened calmly, both nationalists and socialists promising to preserve the peace.

About 2 p. m. a number of socialists hoisted a red flag on the Asinelli tower. Immediately a crowd of nationalists stormed the tower, removing the red flag and supplanting it with the national emblem. An attempt by other socialists to aid their defeated colleagues was foiled when police and royal guards closed the square.

Socialists within the square raised a cheer and asked that a red flag be floated from the balcony of the city hall. Apparently believing nationalists were attempting to storm the hall, someone dropped a bomb from the balcony. Many were injured by the explosion and the royal guards opened fire.

The socialists rushed to their meeting place with the crowd in pursuit. The crowd was met by a volley at close range from the socialist headquarters and Giordani and Colliva, constitutional members of the minority, were killed.

WHEAT TOUCHES LOW LEVEL IN SOUTHWESTERN KANSAS

PRATT, KAN., Nov. 23.—Wheat touched a new low level in southwestern Kansas yesterday when the Pratt market was quoted at a dollar thirty cents. Iuka, six miles from here, had a $1.25 market.

Corn is quoted at 25 cents in Iuka and 30 to 35 cents in Pratt.

Wheat will go to a dollar predicted J. D. Frisbie, manager of the Pratt flour mills.

"We might as well face the music," he continued. There is no need to hide the truth. Wheat is bound to go down and I believe it will touch the dollar mark."

SENATOR FALL WILL NOT ATTEND THE INAUGURATION

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Nov. 23.—Senator Fall of New Mexico wired Colonel Chapa of Governor Hobby's staff that he would not attend the inauguration of President-elect Obregon at Mexico City.

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism.

A very common form of Rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infest the blood. The one and only sensible treatment, therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs, and routs them entirely out of the circulation.

This is why S.S.S., the greatest known blood purifier is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, and will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

New York Stocks—Grain and Provisions—Cotton—Livestock

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The cotton market was irregular at the opening today, December being 5 points lower while later months were 1 to 15 points higher. There was some Wall street and local buying on the reports of a better tone in the stock market and December rallied after the call on covering by shorts in advance of the notice day tomorrow. No improvement was reported in the goods trade situation however, while Liverpool was relatively weak and there was a renewal of southern hedge selling under which prices soon turned easier with January selling off from 16.35 to 15.90 and March from 16.10 to 15.84 or about 18 to 29 points net lower on the active months.

The decline carried January contracts off to 15.75 and March to 15.70 with active months generally showing net losses of 25 to 44 points. Offerings then became less active and there were rallies of 15 to 20 points from the lowest with trading quiet and the market fairly steady around midday. Trade advices from Liverpool said the decline there had been partly due to distressed liquidation of straddle accounts on the advance in sterling exchange rates.

Trading was quiet during the middle of the afternoon but prices held steady on covering and buying for a reaction with December selling at 16.45 and January at 16.25, or 6 to 15 points net higher.

The cotton market closed steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Spot cotton quiet; middling 17.30.

New Orleans Cotton.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23.—Poor cables and reports of easier spots in some sections of the belt caused a drop of 10 to 20 points in the early trading in cotton today but the effect of an easier money situation was seen in the reactions which quickly followed the first downward movement. At the end of the first half hour of business the more active months were 2 to 15 points higher than the close of yesterday. January traded down to 15.22 and rose to 15.45.

Selling that was attributed to English operators checked the upward movement and brought about a new decline. Offerings increased on talk of further spot liquidation. In the trading up to 11 o'clock the market dropped to levels 20 to 40 points under the close of yesterday, with January down to 15.01.

In the second half of the session the character of spot news changed completely and the market firmed up rapidly on reports from points in the belt that the situation was improving. Prices were lifted until at 1:30 they stood at new high levels for the day with January up to 15.65 and the list at gains of 20 to 37 points over yesterday's finals.

The cotton market closed steady at net advances of 38 to 46 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Brisk demand today for cash wheat for export had a bullish effect on the future market. On the upturn in prices, free selling took place and a sharp reaction occurred. But rallies quickly ensued and improved financial conditions, including an advance in sterling exchange, were generally regarded as strengthening factors. Opening prices, which ranged from half to four cents higher, with December $1.61 to $1.61½ and March $1.57 to $1.59, were followed by backsets to well below yesterday's finish and then by substantial fresh gains.

Corn was swayed by the action of wheat. After opening ¼ to 1c higher, with December at 65½ to 65¾c, the market sagged somewhat and then rose.

Traders in oats took their cue from the course of other cereals. The market opened ¼@½c up, May 48¾ to 48½c, eased off temporarily and then ascended with considerable vigor.

Lowest quotations of the season in the hog market had a depressing influence on provisions, despite grain strength.

Subsequently the fact that in many quarters it was believed liquidation had been completed brought about further advances. The close was nervous, 7½ to 9c net higher, with December $1.68 to $1.68¾ and March $1.63¼ to $1.64.

Shorts, including some of the most aggressive recent bears, bought heavily on the advance in corn. Prices closed unsettled, 2¼c to 3½c net higher with December 67½ to 67¾c.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Stocks were buoyant at the very active opening of today's session, recording further substantial rallies from their recent protracted reversal. General Motors was the outstanding feature on announcement that control had been acquired by Morgan-Dupont interests. A block of 15,000 shares sold at 16½ to 17½ against yesterday's final price of 15⅛. Crucible Steel made an initial advance of 3½ and gains of 1 to 4 points accompanied the early buying of American and Baldwin Locomotives, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, Chandler, Studebaker, Stromberg, Pierce-Arrow, United States Rubber, American Smelting, Houston Oil, Atlantic Gulf and Retail Stores. Rails were overshadowed by the demand for industrials and specialties, but their tone also was strong.

Low priced rails became increasingly reactionary during the mid-session, New Haven and St. Paul extending their losses. Reading and Atchison also were driven back and declines among shippings, oils and specialties, including food and tobaccos, ranged from 1 to 3 points.

Popular rails, equipment and oils rallied 1 to 2 points later but the undertone elsewhere continued sensitive to pressure. The closing was heavy.

SUDDETH TRIAL AT HENRIETTA STARTED SECURE TEN JURORS

(Special To The Times.)

HENRIETTA, Nov. 23.—In the trial of W. S. Suddeth, charged in indictment with murder in connection with the killing of Mack Perkins, ten jurors had been selected up to noon Tuesday, and it was expected a full panel would be had and the taking of testimony begun early in the afternoon session of the court.

The case is the first criminal trial to be taken up at the present term of the Clay county district court, and due to the prominence of the defendant much interest is being manifested.

Mack Perkins, a service car driver, was killed one night last summer, after he had driven his car containing the defendant and two women about the country for several hours. During the progress of the drive, it was said a man claiming to be the husband of one of the women, approached the car and demanded a financial settlement for alleged wrongs done him.

SHOOTING OF JAKE HAMON RECALLS THE GORE CASE

ARDMORE, OKLA., Nov. 23.—The shooting of Jake L. Hamon today recalled the case of Senator Thomas P. Gore in 1913 when Minnie Bond of Oklahoma City sued the blind senator for $50,000 damages, alleging Gore had attacked her in her room at a hotel in Washington. At the hearing Gore claimed it was a frameup of political enemies. The jury returned a verdict for Gore. Frank Ketch, Hamon's manager, suspects that political enmity was responsible for the story that a woman shot Hamon.

ALDERMAN CURLEE GETS NEW SWEEPER TO CLEAN STREETS

The city purchased a new street sweeper last night, as exclusively predicted in yesterday evening's Times. Several thousand letters have been received today expressing amazement, and wondering how in tarnation The Times got its famous "inside advance dope." Shh-h, it's a secret.

The sweeper recommend by Street Commissioner Curlee will cost the city $7,500, and the Elgin company, its manufacturers, also will agree to repair the present sweeper which has been in service five years and resembles the automobile Paul Block was attempting to sell last week.

The council also passed the traffic ordinance on its second reading last night, after respectfully turning down the request of a chamber of commerce committee that a clause enforcing the use of dimmers on automobiles be inserted in the measure. It was pointed out to the committee that the state law covers that subject, even though the constitutionality of the dimmer paragraph of the statute is under question at the present time.

F. N. Lawton, manager of the city's new industry, the water works, briefly reported that the water company had turned over supplies and material valued at $63,000. The council had not expected this generosity, and each alderman felt greatly cheered and comforted thereby.

Property owners on Burnett street, between Sixth and Seventh, requested the city to lay sidewalks in that block. The matter will come before the council again next week through petition.

CHURCH AND STAGE CLOSELY LINKED

LONDON.—Never before in London have church and stage been so closely linked together.

While most of the plays now running in London are of a sermonizing disposition, preachers are taking advantage of this to attract large congregations to their churches by preaching sermons on the subjects which hold footlight sway.

In the little church of St. Thomas, Rev. Clarence May has started a series of sermons, each one dealing with a moral as pointed out by the stage. His first sermon was on the "Unknown," a play by Somerset Maugham, which has for its foundation the problem "Has the war killed faith?"

The next sermon dealt with "The Wandering Jew," a play in which Matheson Lang is showing the sufferings of the Jews through the ages.

Another sermon has for its basis "The Crossing," a play dealing with an earthbound soul in which the dead appear in "spirit form" o the stage and converse with the living.

"The Right to Strike," a play which is drawing multitudes to the Lyric theater, also drew multitudes to the Rev. May's church when he announced it as his text for the next sermon on his list.

May intends next to discuss the problem of human hypocrisy as it reveals itself in "The Prude's Fall," now being played at Wyndham's theater.
