21 Junior High Football Players Escape Death In Bus Crash

Reagan Coach Praises Boys After Wreck On Burk Road

Twenty-one students of Reagan junior high school escaped probable death or serious injury early Wednesday night when a bus in which they were returning from a football game at Fairview burst into flames after overturning in a ditch six and one-half miles out the Burkburnett road.

Cecil Raley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raley, 311 Trout street, suffered a fractured hip, and 11 other boys with C. Z. Smith, driver of the bus, sustained cuts, bruises and burns. All were brought to the Wichita Falls Clinic hospital for emergency treatment following the accident and with the exception of young Raley all were released from the hospital.

Injured In Crash

The injured, in addition to Raley and Smith:

William Reynolds, cuts on wrist, legs and hands.

Cecil Aytes, burns on right ear and neck.

Jack Cossey, cuts on face.

Bill Stephens, cut and bruised left knee.

Frank Shaw, minor cuts on hands.

Orlon Smith, minor cuts and bruises.

Theo Williams, right arm cuts.

Clyde (Red) Nichols, cuts about the head and arms.

A. D. Beck, coach, cuts and bruises.

Henry Barry, cuts and bruises.

Jimmie Thomas.

According to Aytes, who is reporter for the junior high school, the accident occurred when the driver of the Wichita Falls Traction company bus became blinded by lights of another car. The bus swerved to the edge of the pavement, striking a culvert. With the impact the gas tank of the car was smashed and the bus immediately burst into flames as it vaulted into a ditch.

The bus driver, Aytes said, quickly switched off his motor before joining in the scramble for freedom. Aytes said he was sitting near the gas tank and he was enveloped in flames. A heavy leather jacket and boots saved him from burns more serious than he sustained.

Windows Kicked Out

As the bus landed in the ditch, Aytes said, all of the 21 occupants escaped by kicking out windows which were closed on account of rain.

All of the football equipment, its estimated value being about $800, was burned and many of the students lost clothing in the flames. The bus was wrecked by the fire.

Boys who accompanied the team to Fairview for Wednesday's football game and who escaped injury are:

F. Heffington, Leo Voss, John Skeen, Nelson Davis, J. R. Davis, Tex Logan and Max Sepkowitz.

Following the accident the occupants of the bus were brought to Wichita Falls by passing motorists.

"Miracle," Says Coach

Mr. Beck declared Wednesday night the accident was unavoidable and he absolved the driver of any blame. Mr. Beck stated that in avoiding an approaching car the driver moved to the edge of the pavement, the back wheel slipping into soft dirt at the edge. When the bus went over the culvert a front wheel which clung to the culvert kept the vehicle from sliding down a 15-foot embankment, he said.

It was a miracle, he said, that all of the boys escaped. All of the occupants displayed presence of mind and it required only a few seconds for the youths to scramble to freedom from the burning bus. Mr. Beck sustained cuts about his hands in breaking through windows to allow the boys to alight from the bus.

RAT BITES WOMAN

Enraged Rodent Leaps On Wichita Falls Woman

Attacked by a large rat at her home early Wednesday, Mrs. M. V. Truly, 1811 Ardath street, is suffering from three painful wounds inflicted by the rodent.

Mrs. Truly stated that she was working in a chrysanthemum bed at the side of the house just before the rat attacked her and believed that she had disturbed the animal from its shelter, causing it to become enraged. As she started to enter the house, the rat leaped upon her foot as she was placing it on the step and inflicted three deep wounds with its sharp teeth before it could be shaken off.

The rat escaped and no examination for rabies could be made. After the wound was treated, physicians minimized the danger from rabies but are taking precautionary measures against disease.

Wichitans have reported during the past few months that the number of rats here is on the increase.

RIVER PROBE ASKED HERE

Walton League Acts On Killing of Fish

Ben G. Oneal, president of the local Izaak Walton league, has asked Will J. Tucker, state fish and game commissioner, to send a representative to Wichita Falls county to inspect Wichita river and determine the cause of dying fish, Mr. Oneal announced Wednesday night. He has not yet received a reply to his request.

Investigation by the state game and fish commissioner's department was asked when it was discovered this week that fish are dying by thousands along the river. From a point beginning near the Byers bridge two miles northeast of the city and extending downstream for more than two miles are thousands of dead fish.

A group of Wichitans who made a trip of inspection along the river Tuesday took samples of the water for analysis to determine what causes the fish to die. The group was led by D. G. Whitney, owner of extensive acreage along the river.

ZEPP AT HOME AFTER FLIGHT SETS RECORD

LANDS THURSDAY

Eckener Awaits Clearing Of Fog to Put Ship Into Hangar

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Nov. 1 (Thursday) (UP)—The first transatlantic commercial dirigible Graf Zeppelin ended its round-trip to America here today.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, veteran of three transatlantic flights, brought the silver ship to the ground at 7:05 a. m. (12:05 a. m., Wichita Falls time) while a great crowd of spectators who came here from all parts of Germany shouted a proud welcome and breathed a thanksgiving for the safe arrival.

The Graf Zeppelin had set a record for speed on the return trip despite a battle with storms over the north Atlantic air lines. The dirigible landed at her home port 71 hours after departing from Lakehurst, N. J., naval air station.

Spectators at the hangar first sighted the ship at 4:30 a. m.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Oct. 31. (UP)—Nearing the end of the first round-trip commercial flight across the Atlantic, the dirigible Graf Zeppelin cruised over European soil towards Friedrichshafen tonight with a record-breaking voyage to its credit.

As the giant silver bag crossed France on its way to the German frontier, the suppressed excitement of crowds which lingered near its hangar here broke into restlessness, and indications were that the reception of the 64 persons aboard, including an American boy stowaway, would surpass the farewell demonstration when the Graf Zeppelin soared away for America just three weeks ago.

The Graf Zeppelin cruised up the Loire river past Tours, apparently intending to proceed via Paris, but the exact route towards Friedrichshafen was uncertain.

MONEY MAKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (US)—The Graf Zeppelin will earn $75,713.50 by carrying mail on its return flight to Germany, the postoffice department announced today.

The ground crew at the hangar here was dismissed late tonight with instructions to return for duty at 6:30 a. m. Thursday. Officials said they did not expect the Graf Zeppelin to arrive before 4 a. m. It was announced that Dr. Eckener had reduced the speed of the big craft and it was flying with throttled motors over the last stages of the trip.

The ground crew was informed that a cannon would be fired as a summons, if necessary, before 6:30 a. m.

Dr. Eckener informed the Zeppelin works officials by wireless at 11:30 p. m. (4:30 p. m., central standard time) that the dirigible would land at Friedrichshafen at 5 a. m. (11 p. m., Eastern standard time).

Deserted Wife Finds Sanctuary Here 35 Minutes Before Child Is Born

A woman penniless and deserted by her husband found a haven in the Salvation Army Wednesday night 35 minutes before the birth of her child.

The story of how the expectant mother came to the Salvation Army as time for her ordeal approached was told by Captain Z. H. Parker after the woman had been removed to the hospital.

Attendants at the Salvation Army headquarters gave assistance to the woman. The child, a fine boy, was born 30 minutes before a doctor could be secured. The mother and baby were transferred to a hospital on the arrival of the physician. The woman said she and her husband had worked all fall picking cotton and had saved enough money to bear the expenses of her motherhood when he deserted her in Tipton, Okla., taking the money and their automobile.

She first tried to secure work in Tipton, but being unsuccessful, went to Vernon before finally securing aid at the Salvation Army here.

Muddled Mystery Clouds Efforts To Learn Truth of Girl's Burning

Suspecting Maniac Attack, Police Seek Girl Friend and Cop Instructor in Voice

LAKE BLUFF, Ill., Oct. 31. (UP)—Conflicting stories and theories and over all a veil of mystery within the police station, prompted State's Attorney A. V. Smith today to take complete charge of the investigation into the maniacal attack on Miss Elfrieda Knaak, in the basement of the village hall here Tuesday.

Miss Knaak, daughter of a prominent family of Deerfield, Ill., former collere student and school teacher, was found propped up against the furnace in the building which houses the police station, her head, arms and legs badly seared. She is in a critical condition at the Alice Home hospital in Lake Forest.

Mumbles Name

The girl, herself, in a moment of consciousness today sent authorities scurrying into a new avenue of their investigation when she mumbled a name, apparently that of a girl, and said:

"She'll know why I did it."

Possibly linked to this remark, authorities said, was a letter received by Elfrieda at the hospital today, offering condolences. The letter was signed by "Ruth Lippert, Waukegan, Ill."

Miss Knaak formerly taught school in Waukegan and had several friends there. Police sought the Lippert girl tonight for questioning.

In her brief period of consciousness, Miss Knaak said she had burned herself in the village hall furnace "just before daybreak Tuesday."

Mumbles Story

"I arrived in Lake Bluff about 9:30 p. m., Monday," she mumbled. "I don't remember where I spent my time after arriving there until I went to the police station."

The girl's conscious moments have been few. Even if she lives, doctors say, she will be a helpless invalid, as her feet and at least one of the arms must be amputated.

Miss Knaak previously had insisted she burned herself in the furnace as proof of a "spiritual love."

Medical authoratives and investigators had practically discarded the theory of immolation.

Story Improbable

Dr. A. J. Rissinger, who has attended her, has contended the physical reaction would be too great to permit the girl to first place her arms and head into the fire and then her legs, in an attempt at self-destruction. The burns were too severe, Dr. Rissinger said.

Possibility of a love affair between the girl and Charles W. Hitchcock, the handsome village night policeman, also is being thoroughly investigated.

Mumblings of "Hitchy, where are you?" were reported to have been made by the girl and her mentioning of the "spiritual love" sent investigators to the home of Hitchcock, where he has been confined several days with a broken leg.

"I used to give Miss Knaak lessons in public speaking and salesmanship," the policeman said. "At one time I was in the Essanay comedies and in vaudeville. In recent months she came to the police station in the evening and we talked and I gave her advice about her profession.

"We never talked philosophy or religion or anything but business. I have a daughter almost as old as Miss Knaak."

SNOW AND RAIN PREDICTED FOR TEXAS - OKLA.

Lower Temperature Over Entire Section To Follow Rain

LATE COTTON HURT

Northwest Texas Soaked; Wheat Crops Given Big Boost

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 31. (AP)—Swooping out of Canada and the Rocky mountains, wintry weather is forecast for Oklahoma tomorrow, with rain and snow.

The weather bureau said tonight that the temperature may sink to 28 to 34 degrees tomorrow and that tomorrow night the thermometer may regiser 26 to 32 degrees. Cold weather is forecast for the entire state, with rain and snow in the western part. It will be colder Friday in the eastern section and fair and colder generally.

The threat of winter came at the close of a wet day.

CROPS HELPED OVER ENTIRE AREA, SAYS OATES

The rains which have fallen over the Wichita area during the last few days will aid crops through this section considerably in the opinion of M. B. Oates, agricultural agent of the Fort Worth and Denver railway.

A slight damage will be done to cotton which is still standing in the fields, though the rains and cold weather will open the remaining bolls of this year's crop, Mr. Oates believes.

Wheat over this area has suffered seriously on account of the lack of rain, and the moisture which has fallen in the last few days should bring out the wheat very rapidly. Feed crops, which are still standing over this section of the state, will not be seriously damaged by the rains, according to Mr. Oates.

COLDER WEATHER PREDICTED HERE

Colder weather for Wichita Falls and Northwest Texas and additional rains were predicted by the Associated Press weather forecast Wednesday night. The prediction for a drop in temperature followed heavy rains, which fell over the territory Wednesday.

Wheat Crop Aided

Slight damage was done to cotton that is still standing in the fields and will probably stop cotton picking for several days in the Wichita area, although wheat and grain crops will be materially helped from the ample supply of moisture which has fallen.

Reports from Amarillo and Stamford Wednesday night stated that the Panhandle territory was "soaked," while rainfall at Memphis and Plainview is estimated as having reached three inches since Sunday.

The heavy mist which hung over Wichita Falls Wednesday morning turned into a slow rain shortly before noon, and the .63 inches precipitation which fell during the day carried the local rainfall to 1.74 inches since Sunday. Temperature in Wichita Falls ranged around 50 degrees from noon until 8 o'clock

SPEAKER HERE HITS TAMMANY

Lightfoot Assails Work Of New York Group

Desertion of the Democratic party by Tammany hall and its supporters in New York four years ago resulted in the Democratic nominee being showed under by Coolidge votes and also in returning Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York to the governor's chair, according to charges made in the Wichita Falls Memorial auditorium Thursday night by Jesrell P. Lightfoot, former attorney general of Texas. The crowd was estimated at 200 by a reporter. Attendance of not more than 300 was estimated by J. R. Ogle, anti-Smith Democratic leader who said rains and bad weather reduced the crowd.

That Tammany opposed patriotism and those things which the American people hold sacred, and that this opposition started through its original organization with its opposition to George Washington and the Society of the Cincinnati, was also charged by the speaker who said Boss Murphy of Tammany started Governor Smith's boom for the presidency in 1920 at the San Francisco convention and continued it to the time of his death.

Tracts from Encyclopedia Brittanica and from Bryce's American Commonwealth which is used as a text in many colleges, were quoted to show the machinations of Tammany.

G O P "TEAPOT" CALLING TAMMANY BLACK, HE SAYS

HENRIETTA, Oct. 31.—Congressman Guinn Williams of Decatur who has just been returned to his seat by the people of this district by one of the strongest votes ever given a congressional candidate, made a plea here tonight for Democrats to stay with the party of their fathers, to support Gov. Alfred E. Smith for the presidency and to remember clearly, when voting, the scandal of Teapot Dome and other Republican corruption of the past seven and a half years.

"In the 64 years the Democratic party has been in office in the United States since its organization there never has been a breath of scandal against it," the speaker said.

"If all the wrong doings of Tammany hall were rolled into one, they would look like a Sunday school contribution compared to the Republican Teapot Dome and other scandals."

Donley Suddath, Clay county Democratic chairman, presided.

Streets Jammed As Halloween Celebrants Hold Annual Party

Rainy weather failed to dampen the ardor of young Wichitans who made much "whoopee" on the streets of the city Wednesday night in one of the most colorful Halloween celebrations ever staged here. Thousands paraded the "main stem" in costumes of every description and signal lights were operated until a late hour to protect the throngs against a heavy traffic.

Girls in gorgeous dress costumes dazzled the eyes of crowds along the streets, the girls braving the weather along with the rest to display latest modes in Halloween dress. The boys made merry in their part in ushering in All Saints day but watchful eyes of police kept their prankishness from being overly boisterous. Hundreds of children entered the "fashion parade" downtown and stores of Wichita Falls reported their heaviest sales of celebration costumes.

While the streets were crowded until a late hour, police activities were not increased materially although officers were called to several spots to quell minor disturbances among too enthusiastic celebrants.

FARM SESSION PLAN USELESS, SMITH CLAIMS

Republican Attitude On Problem Prevents Any Relief, He Says

LABOR DISCUSSED

Remedy By Law In Labor Disputes Promised By Democrat

By WALTER CHAMBLIN

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. (AP)—Gov. Alfred E. Smith tonight declared Herbert Hoover's proposal for a special session of congress to tackle the farm problem "seems to be a surrender for the purpose of securing votes" and demanded to know what could be accomplished at such a session in view of the Republican candidate's position on the farm question.

The Democratic standard bearer in an address prepared for a one-speech drive into New Jersey argued that Mr. Hoover's opposition to the "underlying principle behind the remedy for farm depression" was well known and said his rival for the presidency had "refused to accept the principle of the control of the exportable surplus." He added that without such control "there can be no adequate farm relief."

Appeal to Labor

Besides raking his opponent's position on this issue, the governor promised the workmen of the nation if the Democratic party were placed in power that in regard to the use of injunctions in labor disputes a "definite remedy by law" would be provided to preserve the constitutional guarantees of individual liberty, free speech and free assemblage.

The Democratic candidate also accused Mr. Hoover of failure to make his position clear on various issues in the campaign.

"I have made myself perfectly clear," he said. "The man who has not made himself clear is Mr. Hoover."

Fooling the People

Declaring he took as the text of his address the statement that "you can fool some of the people all of the time, all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time," the nominee asked why Charles E. Hughes had not accepted the Republican candidacy.

"He is the only one who is making any fight," he declared. "What are we up against? The same old thing that we have suffered for

PAT HARRISON SEES VICTORY

Southern Senator Interprets Vote Increase

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, member of the Democratic national advisory committee and in charge of the campaign in the South, today issued a statement declaring an analysis of registration figures compiled by the Associated Press "is indicative of a sweeping Democratic victory."

"These registration figures for the 48 states," he said, "are indicative of a sweeping Democratic victory next Tuesday. In the Southern states, where the severest opposition to Governor Smith was waged in the beginning of the campaign, there has been little or no increase in the registration.

"On the other hand, the registration does show that in those states where a rising tide is conceded to Governor Smith and where the Smith sentiment is strongest, there is unprecedented increase in registration."

As examples he cited Pennsylvania, with an increase of 83 percent, Massachusetts, with a 52 per cent increase; New York with a 49 per cent increase; Illinois with 31 per cent; and Connecticut with 58 per cent.

'I'M PROUD THAT I FOUND IT,' SAYS WIFE TEXAS JUDGE

Since Taking Orgatone Says She Feels Better Than She Has in Ten Years

"I am now enjoying better health than I have in 10 years and I owe it all to Orgatone," said Mrs. Sid Williams, residing at 1012 Sherman street, McKinney, Texas, in relating her experience with Orgatone to an Orgatone representative. Mrs. Williams is a prominent and well known citizen and is the wife of Justice Sid Williams.

"I am certainly proud and happy that I found Orgatone," continued Mrs. Williams, "for it is the first and only medicine I have ever taken in my 10 years of suffering that seemed to do me any real good. My main troubles were with my liver and stomach and about five years ago my condition became much worse than before and has been readily growing more serious since; after eating I would have a tight, bloated feeling, caused by the formation of gas and I suffered from shortness of breath which often times seemed to affect my heart. I was constipated all the time and had to take something for this trouble continually. I would go to bed tired and was nervous and restless, and couldn't sleep soundly and invariably I felt worse when getting up of a morning than when I retired at night.

"I read the testimonials in the local papers about the good Orgatone was doing right around us here and with the hope that it might help me too, I bought a bottle and I want to say my relief has been wonderful. It may sound exaggerated, but it's the plain truth, I felt better after taking my first two or three doses of Orgatone. After only a few days I found that the gas had stopped forming after I would eat and all that distressed feeling had left my stomach entirely. I haven't finished taking my second bottle of Orgatone yet but I have been entirely relieved of constipation and I'm not a bit nervous, I sleep like a child every night now and feel strong and full of vigor. Orgatone seems to take right hold of my troubles and got me over them and I feel like a different woman and I'm enjoying life more than I have in 10 years."

Genuine Orgatone is sold in Wichita Falls, exclusively by the Allison's Drug store, 716 Indiana avenue, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative who is meeting the public daily and charges nothing to explain his theories on health and hygiene.—Adv.

Bossy Gillis, A Jail Bird, Decides To Run For Legislature

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Oct. 31. (AP)—Andrew J. (Bossy) Gillis, Newburyport's imprisoned mayor, has decided to run for the state legislature, and what's more, he is not treating his campaign lightly. Although the "Bad Boy" mayor is in the middle of a two months sentence in the Salem jail, his candidacy is proceeding with much force on a flood of stickers with Bossy's name on them.

The mayor's decision to become a candidate for the legislature was believed to have been influenced by the fact that 3,500 persons unsuccessfully petitioned Essex county officials to parole the mayor.

The district, known as the 18th Essex representative district, comprises Bossy's home city of Newburyport and a number of smaller towns.

Gillis was jailed for violating a municipal law borbidding the operation of gasoline stations in certain parts of the city.

SCREEN TALK HEARD IN TEST

Secretary Navy Makes First News Reel Talk

By SAM LOVE
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Painless oratory came into being today with the first test of the photophone, the very latest gadget employed to make the movies talk.

All unwitting of the humanitarian uses to which their invention could be applied, engineers of the General Electric company and the Radio Corporation of America have been working on it for years.

A pre-review of the first sound news today revealed at once that they had builded greater than they knew.

"Here is something," remarked one unbiased listener, "to rank with the discovery of ether and laughing gas."

Wilbur First Orator

Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur was selected as the first orator to project himself over the new process, as he made his Navy day speech about the navy, its size, its plans and its importance.

It was a fair test, because while there are more appealing subjects than the size, the plans and the importance of the United States navy, there are also numberless duller ones. It was also fair because while there are perhaps more dynamic speakers than Secretary Wilbur, there are without doubt many in public life who cannot hold a candle to Secretary Wilbur.

"Washington, D. C.—

"Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur speaks upon the naval policy of the United States on Navy day," read the first subtitle.

The next subtitle read: "Hon. Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of the navy."

In a flash, there he was on the screen, standing at a speaker's table, fortified only with a glass of ice water.

Speaker Heard

"Ladies and gentlemen," spoke Secretary Wilbur, clearly, evenly, and with a deadly threat in his tones, "this has been a year of great advances in naval construction and naval policy. During this year we have added to our navy two great aircraft carriers, the Saratoga—"

At this point Secretary Wilbur's image faded from the screen, though his voice lingered on. In place of Secretary Wilbur appeared an interesting view of the aircraft carrier Saratoga, plowing through the Atlantic.

"And the Lexington—"

Whereupon the aircraft carrier Lexington appeared, throwing exciting plumes of water from its prow and humming with airplanes taking off and landing on its golf course of a deck. While Secretary Wilbur went ahead to give the tonnage and dimensions of the aircraft carriers the audience admired them. The speaker's image came again into view.

"We are also adding two new dirigibles to our navy," he was proceeding calmly—having a Navy day speech to make and making it—"both of which will be larger than the Los Angeles—"

The Los Angeles floated into view.

"—And even larger than the Graf Zeppelin—"

The Graf Zeppelin immediately appeared off Sandy Hook, nosing its way toward Lakehurst, and Secretary Wilbur went on to give the dimensions of the new U. S. N. dirigibles while the audience watched the Zep. He went on in this manner, taking up submarines, which suddenly appeared in a froth of foam in front of the listeners, and fighting aircraft, which zoomed in formation as he talked, to a thoroughly satisfactory ending.

The first Pathe sound news then went on to other matters, such as crying babies and the new Hudson river bridge, while the thoughtful audience marveled at the new oratorical benefit to humanity and tried to imagine how it may be applied to future speeches, especially by opposing factions on such subjects as temperance and public morals.

Court Remands Bexar County Theft Case

AUSTIN, Oct. 31. (INS)—Because of error in the admission of certain testimony by the state, the court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the case of L. O. # How an Expectant Mother Prepared for Baby's Coming

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering experienced during expectancy, as well as at childbirth, is entirely unnecessary.

Tight tissues, binding muscles, sensitive nerves—all tend to set up an aggravated condition—sapping strength and leaving the expectant mother unprepared to meet the crisis.

Mother's Friend is a comfort to expectant mothers. Externally applied, it relieves prenatal distress by relaxing tight tissues and muscles. And it is so soothing. Its daily use makes the skin soft and pliable.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Mother's Friend is the discovery of an eminent physician. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. For over three generations Mother's Friend has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Begin using Mother's Friend today. The sooner the better. Sold by drug stores—everywhere.

NEW TARIFF METHOD URGED

Raskob Favors Long Term Commission

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—John J. Raskob, Democratic national chairman, told a group of business men at national headquarters that "if Governor Smith is elected I would like to see him advocate a tariff commission with powers imbedded in the constitution like those of the supreme court of the United States."

The business men were assembled at headquarters especially to give the national chairman an opportunity to answer Republican claims that national prosperity is dependent upon Republican success on election day.

Members of the commission should serve, he said, "for not less than 15 years and should have the assistance of an adequate body of economists and accountants." He said the commission would make a scientific study of every industry to determine the degree of protection it should be given and that congress would be unable to initiate any tariff regulations except by a two-thirds vote.

"The two-thirds vote," he added, "necessarily would mean that both parties would have to be a party to any legislation enacted in this way.

"With our tariff laws made in this manner, never again would it be possible for the Republican party or any party to use the tariff as a campaign issue."

A halcyon is a kingfisher, and "halcyon days" are so-called because it was supposed that the weather was always peaceful when the kingfisher was breeding.

Atheist Extends Fight Against God

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 31. (UP)—The hunger strike that Charles Smith of New York has maintained for 13 days in protest to anti-Atheist legislation has served only to whet his appetite in a greater fight against such laws.

On the fourteenth day of his hunger strike, the President of the Association for the Advancement of Atheism was launched on a drive to nullify Arkansas' anti-Atheist law. And if he is successful in his attempt in Arkansas, he believes his victory will automatically nullify similar anti-Atheist constitutional provisions in at least five other states—Texas, Mississippi, the two Carolinas and Maryland.

War Arbiter Rules For Repayment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Judge Edwin B. Parker, arbiter under the settlement of war claims act, held in his first ruling today that, although congress had power to confiscate enemy property as a war measure, it had adopted "a legislative policy providing for the ultimate return of all enemy property or the proceeds of the sale thereof and for the payment of fair compensation for such enemy property as was taken or used by the United States itself during the world war."

Quanah Creamery Manager Resigns

Special to The Record News.

QUANAH, Texas, Oct. 31.—I. E. Byers, manager of the Gate City creamery since the establishment of this industry here in May, 1928, has resigned to enter business for himself, probably in Western Oklahoma. T. E. Stroud of Childress is his successor and assumed his duties November 1.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It cannot harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their systems. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person.

Get a bottle today, at any drug store and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open. For a free trial bottle, just use special coupon below:

FARMERS TAKE DAIRY CENSUS

Interesting Facts Revealed In Hereford Figures

Special to The Record News.

HEREFORD, Texas, Oct. 31.—Although incomplete, the dairy cow census conducted last week under the auspices of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce revealed some very interesting figures.

Secretary Arnold states that only part of the 11 districts are completed and figures are taken from these six districts. Inasmuch as the five remaining districts are rather heavy communities the estimate is made that the final figures will total double the amount of figures gleaned by the census taken by the Hereford business men and dairymen in the six districts.

District No. 1 where the census was conducted by the county agent, R. O. Dunkle and John Olson, manager of the R. H. Kemp Lumber company, led in number of cows being milked in any particular district.

A resume of figures compiled of the six districts covered gives the following figures: Number of milk cow owners, 158; number of milk cows owner, 1,305; number of cows being milked, 959; number of heifers or young she stock, 700; number men contemplating buying more cows, 80; number now selling cream, 118; number selling whole milk, 6; number willing to sell to creamery located in Hereford, 123; number interested in taking stock in creamery, 52.

Creamery Move Boosted

From the above figures it will be noted that the total of the milk cows owned and young heifers to milk reaches 2,035. A complete census of the county and the other districts which will be taken this week will in all probability show approximately 4,000 head of she milk stock with between 2,000 and 2,200 cows actually being milked. The results of the census thus far are very gratifying to those interested in the establishment of a creamery in Hereford and from data received from other points where creameries have been located. Deaf Smith county now has considerably larger production than will be necessary to support a good size creamery or even creamery and cheese factory combined.

Quite interesting also are the figures which reveal that of the 158 farmers interviewed who are milking cows, 124 are now selling cream or milk or butter. It will be noted from the figures that practically the entire number at this time are selling cream rather than whole milk. Of the 124 who are selling dairy products only one farmer stated his unwillingness to sell to a local creamery and the fact that 52 of these cow owners signify their willingness to take stock in a creamery speaks well for the consummation of the creamery planned at this time. Another very pleasing feature of this census, according to the enumerators, was the willingness of the farmers to give the information asked for and the concensus of opinion of the entire group which took the census is that Deaf Smith county is fast becoming dairy minded and bids fair to become one of the leading dairy counties of the Panhandle.

To Complete Census

Chamber of commerce officials state that the remaining districts in the county will be covered this week and that in all probability a general dairy meeting will be called at which plans will be presented for the organization of the new creamery. Information now on file in the local office indicated that the movement has gained considerable notoriety and interested dairymen from several states are writing indicating their willingness to become interested in the Deaf Smith county project.

Jack County Icthyol Plan Leads to Filing of Fraud Charge

FORT WORTH, Oct. 31. (AP)—Charge of using the mails to defraud was filed today against John L. Bordeaux of Fort Worth before United States Commissioner Flynn. Bordeaux was released under bail of $1,500.

Bordeaux is alleged to have promoted fraudulently a company organized to drill for icthyol in Jack county. The letter on which the charge is based, the government alleges, was placed in the mails Aug. 24.

"Icthyol is found in small quantities in some oil fields," Forrest McCutcheon, assistant United States district attorney, said. "It is used largely as a lubricant for fine mechanisms such as those found in watches."

TENDER YOUTH WINS FREEDOM

Slaying Suspect Is Granted Bail Because of Age

AUSTIN, Oct. 31. (AP)—Bail of $2,500 was granted by the court of criminal apepals today to Louis Enderli, 15-year-old Gonzales county boy, but bail was refused Emil Enderli, much older, in an appeal from district court's order holding them both in jail on charges of murdering William Whitehead, recently shot to death.

Since the law prohibits a death penalty for persons under 17 years of age, the boy's offense is automatically bailable, the appellate court held.

The appeal record showed that the elder Enderli pointed out Whitehead and told the boy, who carried a shotgun, to "go give him a good one."

E. H. Shaufler, general manager, said that dismissal of the men had nothing to do with the Santa Fe's taking over of the Orient lines recently. ## Wesley Girls Class Has Prettily Appointed Luncheon Wednesday

Members of the Wesley Girls Sunday school class of the First Methodist church held their annual luncheon at the Woman's Forum Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock, honoring the in-coming and out-going officers.

The tables were arranged in the shape of a W and were attractively decorated in autumn shades. Harvest colors and ideas were carried out in the table decorations. The appointments were autumn leaves tinted in the natural colors and shocks of wheat and pumpkins placed on the table added to the color scheme. Favors were miniature beetles and spiders.

The invocation was given by Mrs. J. B. McKinley and Mrs. W. W. Silk acted as toastmistress.

Mrs. A. C. Dulaney, attired as Father Time, toasted the in-coming officers with an original verse, bringing in outstanding characteristics of each one. Mrs. Sam Aoton, clad as a happy farmer boy and carrying a sheath of wheat on her arm, with snappy original verse toasted the out-going officers.

Complimenting Mrs. W. W. Silk, teacher, who is very fond of pictures, three attractive pictures were dramatized on the stage. "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," with Mrs. E. E. Holeman as the lover and Mrs. J. Truman Stevens as the sweetheart, was very effective while Mrs. A. D. Duck read the poem. In "The Old Fashioned Garden," Mrs. E. B. Lehrack was delightful as the old fashioned girl while Mrs. N. M. Clifford sang the song. Mrs. Holeman and Mrs. Lehrack also had parts in the "Angelus," depicting the harvesters while the chimes rang out to call them to prayer.

Dr. S. S. McKenney gave the benediction.

O' These Women

By LEOLA ALLARD

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (US)—One of the most interesting results of the marriage questionnaire sent out by a Chicago minister, is the advice from the greater percentage of those answering, that to be happy, married people should be utterly frank with each other, and secretive about their affairs so far as outsiders are concerned.

After years over the back fence, women agree that higher and thicker back fences are an aid to happiness.

If you don't want your husband to dunk his doughnuts, tell him and don't start a whispering campaign among relatives. If your relatives wonder, out loud, how you happened to pick a husband who would dunk a doughnut, tell them it's your husband and his doughnut, and you think it's cute of him to dunk it. Then get him aside and tell him, between kisses, that you wish he wouldn't.

But it really is becoming the fashion again.

To relatives, who always wonder how you dared to marry into such a nice family, but dunking is a blot on the escutcheon, if someone says: "Oh, lookie, the man dunks his doughnuts," it causes the blush of shame to mantle their cheeks. Relatives are the most sensitive people on earth, to the idiosyncrasis of in-laws.

I have known a wife's relations to advise a divorce because a husband insisted upon eating dinner at 7 o'clock. It was too late. And he mixed his peas with his mashed potatoes, making it impossible to have guests when he was at home.

If wives forbade the house to meddling mothers and bossy sisters and thrashed out this matter of sticking peas together with mashed potatoes, it could be adjusted without difficulty. Any wife would know how. If she knows how to get him, she knows how to train him, given anything like a break.

Did you know the least bite of parsley would kill a parrot? Nobody knows why. It's poison to them. It's like the advice of neighbors, in matrimonial difficulties.

Sisters are prone to say: "Oh, my dear, look at the men you could have had!" and get a wife all full of the idea that it was a bad choice, and that there is yet time if she hurries.

If the husband knew it, he could explain that she got the best there was. A man who has once convinced a woman that he is the cat's canary can do it again. And you know how cats feel about canaries. Then, too, a man can always drop a hint about knowing where there is another canary which he doesn't want, now, but could get.

Bingo! It's done.

Seal this up with a little paraffin and put it in your file box, and may you never need it.

Among the arms, munitions, etc., which Germany has either handed over to the Allies or destroyed are 14,000 airplanes, 315 submarines, 63 torpedo boats, 6,000,000 rifles and small arms and 107,000 machine guns.

Zoning Commission Asks City To Maintain Rules Pending Survey Here

A resolution to be presented at the next meeting of the city council was adopted by the city zoning commission at a called meeting Wednesday morning at the chamber of commerce, requesting the city council to waive the passing of ordinances repealing the present building line in residence districts, according to W. S. Curlee, chairman.

Ordinance Repealed

Action by the zoning commission was taken following the repeal of the present city zoning ordinance by the city council last Monday to allow for the construction of an apartment house on Brook and Victory avenues, a restricted residence district. Permission was given by the council to allow construction of the apartment house nearer the street than the ordinance permits.

The zoning commission is primarily interested in obtaining information on zoning, which will be presented before the public. Present plans are that the information will be presented before the various civic clubs of the city.

Reasons Cited

C. Y. Tully was secretary of the meeting Wednesday. Commission members present were: W. B. Hamilton, John W. Thomas, F. M. Rugeley, J. W. Cantwell, A. E. Kelly, B. D. Donnell and Mr. Curlee.

The resolution cited the following reasons for protest:

"First—It would injure property values, not only in this immediate vicinity, but throughout the entire city, on account of the lack of security which could be placed in established lines.

"Second—It would retard the development of that immediate section as a desirable residence section, especially for cottages or other single family dwellings.

"Third—It would set a precedent which, in the opinion of the zoning commission, would embarrass the council as a result of numerous similar demands which would be sure to result in the future.

"Fourth—It will make it more difficult and greatly handicap the zoning commission in undertaking to carry out its program for a comprehensive plan for modern city development.

"Because of the enormous work to be done by the zoning commission, we respectfully request that no changes be made and that no permit be granted for the erection of any structure, other than residences, where the erection of such building would tend to convert the property to use other than that already established, if the council can reasonably avoid it, until a comprehensive plan can be submitted by this body for your consideration."

Night Off Good Thing For Those Who Are Married, Woman Writes

Dorothy Dix Advises a Night Off For Married Couples—Shall This Wife Leave Husband She Does Not Love? What to Do With Sulky Husband.

Dear Dorothy Dix—I agree with you that all married couples should have a night off now and then, but how often? And should they take as their companion one of their own sex or the opposite sex? And how would you suggest that they amuse themselves on the outings?
—E. W. R.

Answer: Of course, every question connected with the domestic problem becomes an individual one for each particular husband and wife, and no hard and fast rules can be laid down that will cover every situation.

I think the chief thing that is the matter with matrimony is monotony. It gets to be a deadly dull grind because it's the same thing year in and year out, and that is why it gets on people's nerves and makes them want to jump the bars. Therefore, I think that the wise thing is to use preventive measures, to break the routine and to introduce as much novelty and change as is consistent with the circumstances.

So I suggest the night off for husbands and wives. No human beings, no matter how much they love each other, can be together continuously without telling each other everything they know and think and feel until they run out of conversation. For proof of this you have only to watch a husband and wife in any place of amusement. At the restaurant they will be sitting up in silence with never a word to say to each other. At the theater they will be reading the program from cover to cover, while all around them strangers will be gayly chatting.

And at home in the evenings there is a silence so dense you could cut it with a knife until some guest drops in and starts the conversational ball rolling. This is not because husbands and wives are not fond of each other. It's just because they are fed up on each other's society. But let either one of them go away for a few days and when they are reunited they talk their heads off.

So I think the main virtue in the husband and wife taking a night off separately would be that it would give each something fresh to talk about and make each one a more entertaining companion to the other.

But I certainly think that it would be a highly dangerous proceeding for either husband or wife to have a date with one of the opposite sex. Nor is this necessary. If you will eliminate the sex appeal, you will find that men prefer the society of men and women that of women.

No man really likes to play games with a woman, because he feels it ungallant to beat her and humiliating to be beaten by her. No man really wants to discuss sports or business or the stock market with women. And it's the same way with women. The topics that women have a real heart interest in bore men to tears, and so in every mixed crowd you will see the two sexes drawing into their own separate camps, unless they are flirtatiously minded.

The danger to the husband and wife with a member of the opposite sex would be that their "date" would come to mean something more than a casual companion. He and she would come to represent the holiday, the treat, the joy time of the week when one slipped the yoke for a little while and drew a breath of freedom, as against the other six days and nights of work and worry and duty and matrimony.

And the "date" would offer the inevitable comparison of one who was always pleasant and agreeable and dressed up and powdered and puffed and looking his or her best, with the companion of one's bosom who must show the toll and strain of the workaday world.

Husbands and wives need more liberty, but they have to be careful not to let it run into license. And more than any other people, they need to pray to be kept from temptation. —DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—Do you think if a man and woman do not love each other that to live together is any less sin because of the children? Don't you think that in such a case it is better for the parents to part, and that the children are better off with the mother, even though she has to leave them during the day to make a living for them, than for them to be reared in a cold home where the father and mother do not love each other?

I am a young woman, not quite in my 30's, and have two children. I worked when I was living with their father and I work now and can give them every comfort. It is I who suffer in this case, because it is my nature to be homeloving. I crave to love and be loved in return, but I cannot make up my mind that it would be right for me to marry again. Doesn't it take a real mother to smile when she is with her children when she could weep her eyes out?
—A DESPERATE WIDOW.

Answer: I do not think that a couple have the right to break up a marriage and half-orphan their children merely because they have ceased to be sentimentally in love with each other. It's not a case of feeling but of duty. We can't control our emotions, but we can our actions.

No power of the will can force a woman to thrill at the touch of a man after she becomes disillusioned with him, nor to see the fairy prince of her girlish dreams in a husband who proves to be a dull and commonplace individual, but she can still stand at her post and keep her home fires burning if he is good and honest and faithful and a loving father to his children.

But if the man fails as husband and father, and if after doing her best the woman finds it impossible to get along with him, and if the home atmosphere is one of strife, then certainly it is better for the children for her to take them and go where they can live in peace.

Certainly the life of the woman who has two little children dependent on her for support is hard enough, but you are wise not to marry again. For there are even fewer men who are good stepfathers than there are women who are good stepmothers, and the woman who is torn between her husband and her children, who has to see them mistreated by a man who resents having to support them, drinks the last drop of gall in the bitterest cup that is ever pressed to a woman's lips.
—DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—I have been married a little more than a year and find that when my husband and I have a spat I have to do all the making up and apologize all over the place even when he is in fault. Otherwise he pouts and sulks. I am sick of always being the goat. What shall I do? —MRS. T. J.

Answer: Well, the easiest way out is to keep on being the goat. It will save time and wear and tear on your temper and nerves just to kiss and make it up instead of fighting it out.

After all, what does it matter? Every woman has to keep the peace, if it's kept, in the home, and let her husband blame his faults on her and hold her responsible for his mistakes. The wise wife is she who lets him save his face that way, and who isn't too proud to say, "I'm sorry, let's make up and forget it."
—DOROTHY DIX.

The Day Book of a New Yorker

By GRANT DIXON

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—One of our oldest, but still one of our most aristocratic hotels still maintains a large lobby with plenty of seating space. And many elderly gentlemen of better days decorate the lobby. They are listed as furniture and fixtures. They are a strange mixture, and despite the fact that they are not paying guests the management never disturbs them or asks them to vacate. One man occupies, for several hours each day, a chair near the cigar stand. So accustomed has he become to sitting in this particular seat that he believes the space is reserved for him. The other day he left "his" seat for a minute to get some matches and when he returned he found it was occupied. "I shall have to ask you to remove," he said in a commanding tone. "But you left this chair. Surely it is not reserved," came back the new tenant. "It is my chair, sir; I must ask you to vacate." The occupant was reluctant to comply with the man's request and the argument waxed loud. Finally the elderly gentleman said: "Are you a guest here?" "I am, sir, and have been for weeks," retorted the possessor of the seat. "Then that being the case," came back the non-paying guest, "your place is up in your room and not in the lobby."

It is customary for playwrights, at the premier of their plays, to receive telegrams of congratulations. These come from actors, authors, managers and a agreat variety of people. The more popular the dramatist, the larger the number of telegrams. It is not unusual for some to receive as high as 400 messages on opening night.

Recently a well liked playwright topped the mark by being the recipient of 478 wires. As he was occupied with business about the theater he didn't open any of the envelopes that night and decided to read and acknowledge the messages when he had more leisure.

After two days, when the show was pronounced a failure, he settled down with his amanuensis and tackled this particular job. He was reading and answering the telegrams as fast as possible, when he reached 230 he was amazed to read that a relative had passed away, left him considerable money and that he was wanted in California at the earliest possible moment.

The scene is Tenth avenue. A rag man is making his rounds and yelling "Rags, any old rags." A woman puts her head out of the window, on the ninth floor of a tenement house, and calls for the man to come up. The poor fellow, after much effort, succeeds in climbing the stairs, but when he reaches the door is much out of breath. The woman is waiting for him with a four-year-old boy, frightened and crying. "Mr.," she said, "don't you put boys, who are bad, in your bag?" The details of the murder will be found in another section of the paper.

Commending the Women

THE RECORD NEWS wishes to commend the Wichita County Women's Democratic club and the Women's Hoover club for the character of the programs they have given over the radio this week.

The talks the women have given have been intelligent and fair discussions of the issues and the candidates and have been free from venom, abuse and vituperation. The same cannot be said of all the speeches by men we have heard in this campaign.

Where Winter Never Comes

A SAN SABA newspaper lets it be known that numerous pear trees are in full bloom at San Saba, "after having borne their usual crop in ordinary seasonal time." This should lead to the annexation of San Saba county to the San Antonio "winter garden" by the newspapers of that city at a very early date. If a second crop happened to be grown in the piney woods of East Texas, then would follow the announcement via the Alamo City newspapers that another addition of "the winter garden" had been added to the Bexar metropolitan district.

Stocks Mild Beside This

THE VARIETIES of freak and nonsensical legislation proposed in our American state legislatures are almost endless. But a California legislator has thought up one that ought to take the grand prize.

This solon, according to press dispatches, plans a bill which would require each California county to hang all its murderers on a public gallows erected in an open square in the county seat. All hangings would have to be advertised in advance, so that as many people as possible could attend.

It is a bit hard to believe that anyone would take this idea seriously, and the California legislature undoubtedly will toss the measure into the discard without delay. It is interesting, however, to know that there is extant a public servant, gifted with the responsibility of helping make the laws of a great state, who would sponsor such a proposal in all seriousness.

Politics Enters Its Final Stage

THIS IS round up week for politicians and campaign managers the republic over. There will be many surprises. Indications are that party lines have been broken in many commonwealths between the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans and the Canadian border and the Rio Grande.

There should be a tremendous outpouring of voters on Nov. 6. This is a democracy. Regardless of issues which are not issues and vital questions which should effect the people, the American voter, man or woman, should not shirk responsibility. Nov. 6 will not only be the end of the campaign of 1928 but it will be the beginning of the campaign of 1932.

These are the signs in the political heavens. They are easily interpreted. There is a new Democratic party in the United States, there are new faces throughout in the picture, old leaders have passed or are passing away and new issues are bobbing up which must be faced and the knotty problems involved settled at the ballot box.

A million Texans should go to the polls on Nov. 6 and register their verdict.

The Prosperity Farce

FORMER Postmaster General Albert Sidney Burleson spent 20 years in congress and eight years in the cabinet of Woodrow Wilson. This is his latest contribution to campaign literature:

"With the textile industry languishing, with thousands of mill hands idle or on part time, with coal mining in a state of collapse, with agriculture prostrate, we are in a near panic now and would be but for the safeguards of the federal reserve system of Democratic origin. It is all boloney to claim that any party can bring prosperity through legislation, yet many morons fall for such bunk."

What the farmer demands is a foreign market for his cotton surplus; what the wheat grower demands is a foreign market for his surplus; what the corn grower demands is a foreign market for his surplus.

All the tariffs in the world would not protect the cotton grower or the wheat grower when the surpluses are so great that the home markets are glutted and the foreign markets inactive.

There is a cotton crop of 13,000,000 bales. Perhaps 8,000,000 bales may be consumed at home. Seven million bales must be sold to foreign buyers for foreign millers.

Cotton is the new money crop of the South. Its price effects the purchasing power of the individual farmer and the purchasing power of the people at home is what interests the man engaged in commerce and finance.

WEST TEXAS LARGE AREA

This West Texas area is some state itself, if you will stop to consider. Because our county happened to be a little short on crops this year we figured the same condition prevailed over West Texas. But to read the many exchanges from West Texas counties that come to the leader, we are led to believe that the Garden of Eden has spread itself all over West Texas, and that we, here, are a very small fry in the "scheme of things." —Graham (Texas) Leader.

BUSINESS MEN INTERESTED IN AIRPORTS

McKinney business men have interested themselves in the necessity of providing a suitable landing field for the accommodation of air traffic and a committee has been appointed to investigate the matter and make recommendations to the chamber of commerce. Gainesville is similarly busy, having appointed a like committee which is expected to make its report within the next month. The town that remains without an airport will soon find itself out of quick touch with the world.
—Gainesville (Texas) Daily Register.

HOTEL STIMULATES CIVIC PRIDE

Hotel Childress is nearing completion and it is expected will be opened to the public about the middle of November, or by December 1, at the latest. The erection of this building is the largest and most important proposition which has ever confronted the people of Childress, and the way it was met and successfully concluded is quite a feather in the cap of our people.

Without disparaging the hotels of the city in the least, this hotel was needed as a fitting stimulus to the building spirit of Childress.

Le Bouef and Dreher Make Last Appeal

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Ada Bonner LeBouef and Dr. Thomas E. Dreher, under sentence to die for the murder of James J. LeBouef, husband of the woman, today applied to the state board of pardons for a "full pardon or in the alternative commutation to life imprisonment."

The petition states that the Louisiana supreme court was divided on the question of whether they had received a fair trial and that James Beadle, tried jointly with them, was the actual slayer.

Among the Moors, if the wife does not become the mother of a boy, she may be divorced with the consent of the tribe and can marry again.

That Ends Mr. CORN!

A touch of "Freezone" and he lifts right off!

The most painful corn, even one sensitive to touch of stocking, can't throb 10 seconds after "Freezone" comes in contact. All that's left to do, is lift corn right off, and it's gone!

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs only a few cents at any drug store, and is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, corn between the toes and callouses. Try it—today!

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

By JEAN MACON

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product for only 75 cents, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.

SELECMAN MAY SEEK SENATE

Anti-Smiths Boom Texas Educator

DALLAS, Oct. 31. (UP)—Anti-Smith Democrats today were reported leaning toward Dr. C. C. Selecman, president of Southern Methodist university, in their search for a candidate for the United States senate against Senator Morris Sheppard two years hence.

Asked concerning the possibility of Dr. Selecman being invited to enter the race, Alvin Moody, president of anti-Smith Democrats of Texas, said if Dr. Selecman could be prevailed upon to run "he could easily be elected over Senator Sheppard."

Opposition to Senator Sheppard, author of the 18th amendment, is based on his support of Gov. Alfred E. Smith for president.

Nueces County Precinct Chairmen Who Spurned Pledge Are Ousted

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Oct. 31. (AP)—Chairmanships of 10 of the 36 precincts in Nueces county were declared vacant by the county Democratic executive committee today because these 10 chairmen had failed to sign a pledge agreeing to support the entire Democratic ticket.

The committee also adopted a resolution that members of the Democratic party who fail to vote for and support the Democratic ticket in the coming general election are "no longer Democrats and should not be permitted to vote in the next primary or participate in the party conventions."

Places declared vacant will be filled at a later meeting.

Pittsburgh Rum Gang Is Revealed

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31. (AP)—Specific allegations in the government's claim that a gigantic liquor ring involving public officials exists here were made today by John D. Meyer, United States attorney in filing bills of particulars to indictments returned last June by a federal grand jury.

Meyer charged more than 400 saloons, clubs, confectioneries and other places in various parts of the city were operated under police and political control.

On the south side, Meyer said Francis Kirley, ward chairman, and John J. McArdle, police inspector, determined whether saloons should be closed or permitted to operate. In the "strip" district, the attorney charged John W. Orie, police magistrate, his brother, Stanley, and Luke Sullivan, member of the state legislature, issued orders for delivery of liquor. Thomas Oliffee and Samuel J. Garnet, another member if the state legislature, had charge of the sale of liquor on the north side, Meyer said.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"You'll have to promise to drive very carefully. I have a dozen eggs in this basket."

Health And Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy who can be addressed in care of this paper

The Eggplant

The eggplant was originally cultivated in the East Indies where it is highly prized for its egg-shaped white and purple fruits, which are served as a vegetable. It is steadily gaining in popularity in North America, but being a tropical plant, is grown principally in the warmer climates and transported north. In Europe the white eggplants are more favored, but in North America the purple variety has become the most popular.

Many people think that this vegetable does not agree with them, but I believe this is only because the eggplant is usually fried. When cooked in grease, eggplant is not only indigestible, but is actually less palatable than when prepared in other, simpler ways.

The eggplant does not resemble the hen's egg in food value, but is rich in organic salts and has enough cellulose to be valuable to the intestines. The eggplant is especially rich in potassium, and also contains many of the other mineral elements. Here are a few recipes for eggplant which you may find interesting:

Eggplant and Carrot

One large eggplant peeled and chopped, one bunch of carrots well washed but not peeled, and run together through the meat chopper. Place in a baking dish and add one-half cupful of water. Compress well and bake for 40 minutes. Add three tablespoonfuls of butter to the top just before serving, and season with salt as desired.

Corn and Eggplant

To the contents of one can of corn, add one small eggplant which has been chopped into small pieces. Place in a covered stewpan. Add one cup of water and two tablespoonfuls of butter, and cook 20 minutes.

Eggplant and Vegetables

Two small eggplants chopped, four potatoes sliced, one turnip diced and one carrot sliced. Add two tablespoonfuls of butter, and place in a stewpan with enough water to cover. Boil without a lid over a slow fire for 25 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Eggplant Patties

Chop an eggplant into small pieces and mix with equal parts of ground round steak from which all fat and gristle have been removed. Run the mixture through the food chopper, and add some finely chopped tomatoes, and mould into patties. Bake in a hot oven until brown.

French Fried Eggplant

If you insist on cooking the eggplant in grease, this is the best way: Cut in long slices and let stand for one hour. Dry on a cloth and drop into boiling fat and prepare as in French fried potatoes.

Cut eggplant in slices about one-half inch thick, soak in cold salt water for about 15 minutes, then boil in fresh water until tender. Place each slice in a baking pan on top of a slice of Melba toast, then place a slice of tomato on top of the eggplant. Bake for 10 minutes and serve with a lump of butter on top.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Soft Nails

Question: E. J. W. writes: "Please advise me what is wrong with my finger nails. Until a year ago they were fairly strong, but they have now become so thin that they bend over when I try to open a pen knife with my thumb nail."

Answer: Eat plenty of green vegetables, and take at least one meal a day of milk and orange juice. Use a pint to a quart of milk at this meal, and the juice of several oranges. This, together with the green vegetables, will give you the necessary minerals to grow strong nails.

Effect of Alcohol Poisoning

Question: A subscriber writes: "I have been having terrible pains in my feet due to poisoning from bad alcohol. Have tried so many remedies, but none seem to help me. Will you please advise me what to do to draw this poison out of my system?"

Answer: First of all you should adopt a well balanced diet and then increase your physical exercise to the extent that you induce a good sweat each day.

Nightmares

Question: Troubled mother writes: "My 8-year-old son has nightmares and walks in his sleep and often complains of headaches. At times he will have high fever lasting a half day. His limbs ache and frequently give way beneath him. He eats scarcely anything, prefering bread and coffee to all else, with sugar and cream. I have had him examined by several doctors and they all tell me he has kidney trouble.

Answer: Your son's trouble is too serious for me to attempt to advise you in this column. Do not be satisfied until you have a correct diagnosis made of his case. The nightmares may be caused by digestive disturbances due to his improper diet, but you must find out the cause of his high fever. This can surely be determined by a competent diagnostician.

FAVORITE JOKES OF FAMOUS FOLK

As Told by Them to FRANK E. NICHOLSON

By WILCY MOORE

Wilcy Moore is the star pitcher of the New York Yankees baseball club who was imported from the wilds of Texas. Between 1922 and 1926 Moore wasted a lot of time with the Texas, Western and Southern Association. Then Miller Huggins "discovered" him, put him in the world's series, and Wilcy knocked the old apple for a row of contracts.

WILCY MOORE

"You can't beat the story." Moore told me, "about the old lady who was paying a visit to the insane asylum which she had endowed. In the garden she came across a youthful-looking inmate fast asleep in a hammock.

"She waked him. 'Why aren't you working with the other men,' she asked.

"'Cause I'm crazy,' came the candid reply.

"'But surely crazy people can work,' argued the lady, pointing to some of the toilers.

"'Maybe,' was the reply, 'but you see, I ain't that crazy.'"

GLASS MAKING BIG INDUSTRY

Wichita Plant Serves Huge Territory

By H. COLEMAN
The Record News Staff

Breaking glass windows, the often uncontrolled desire of mischievous small boys, has become a well paid occupation in Wichita Falls.

But it is a highly specialized procedure, in the superheated blowing room of the Wichita Falls Window Glass company plant, and inasmuch as it takes a man with brawn and the work must be done during the very hours that school is in session, small boys need not apply for the job.

As the imagination might already have built up this strange occupation as one wherein a pile of rocks and a ready aim and a strong arm make the most of well placed windows, let us get this straight. When the windows are broken they really are not windows, but the refuse ends of unbelievable long glass cylinders which form the early stage in the manufacture of the high-grade window glass the Wichita Falls company produces.

Glass Cylinders

These cylinders are drawn from a fire clay pot of a molten glass mixture to a height of 44 feet, and width of almost four feet by means of a steel, curved lip pipe which is dipped into the molten mass and lifted slowly upward. Air pressure, which is controlled by an operator nearby, is produced within the glass cylinder to maintain the desired width on the upward trip. When the long glass pipe finally has reached its height it is broken off at the base and deftly lifted by means of a hoop and crane to semi-curved beds. Here the end with the steel pipe is cut off by means of a heated electric wire and then comes the job of the window glass breaker.

Lifting the heavy metal pipe with the half of a sphere of thick window glass attached he carries it to a deep wooden box and smashes the glass into a million fine bits. This removes all of the glass from the lip of the steel tube and breaks up the glass into small enough fragments to obviate further bothering with the refuse.

If a person never saw the many details in the manufacture of window glass a trip through the Wichita Falls plant would be a pleasurable education. Few persons realize the magnitude of this institution here and what its operation means to Wichita Falls. For instance, not many persons know that this organization is composed of over 235 highly skilled workers who command a pay roll of over $40,000 each month. And the thousands upon thousands of feet of window glass manufactured each month are disposed of in active markets in almost every section west of the Mississippi river. That means helping to build Wichita Falls at home and thoroughly advertising it away from home.

And through the efforts Frank Kell and J. A. Kemp this vast organization has come to be one of the greatest industrial enterprises in this city.

Of course most everybody knows that glass is manufactured from sand, or rather the silica contained in sand. That is a good place to begin a brief description of the manufacture of window glass. From huge storage bins a mixture of silica, lime, soda and salt cake is taken and dumped in accurately measured wheelbarrow loads into a pit which runs into a mixing cylinder. From here it is carried to a heavy door which is a direct entrance into a chamber 30 feet wide and 114 feet long. This chamber continually has a slush of molten glass five feet deep. And the temperature in this pit is never below 2,400 degrees.

Tackle Carries Molten Glass

On the opposite side of the pit are a series of doors which just top the lake of white, bubbling glass. Into these doorways is thrust a huge iron pot with a handle, perhaps 25 or 30 feet long. It takes four men to manipulate this giant ladle and while the doors are open the heat blowing against the workers is so terrific that frequent rests must be taken to cool off.

Loads of about 750 pounds of molten glass are taken out of the furnace and carried by means of a steel block and tackle to the opposite end of the fire room to waiting fire clay pots. The load is dumped into these pots, the steel pipes are lowered into the white mass and the trip upward is begun.

There are 12 of these fire clay pots, six of which are continually in use. Two pots are fastened to a swivel inverted "Y" shaped handle and while one pot is in use the other is turned underneath and undergoes a treatment under terrific heat which keeps the next batch of melted glass liquid while it is being drawn into the cylinder shape.

The use of electricity in the manufacture of window glass has become almost indispensable, according to W. H. Busby, general manager of the Wichita Falls Window Glass company. The drawing of the cylinders, the moving of huge cranes and transportation of many things used in the manufacture of glass are accomplished by means of electric power. This power is served to the glass company by the Texas Electric Service company.

"The use of electric power, as served us today by this big company assures us uninterrupted operation of our plant," said Mr. Busby. "Interruptions to us mean heavy losses and we cannot take any chances with shutdowns."

After electricity draws out the glass cylinders, it carefully, almost tenderly, lifts the 44-foot, delicate glass tubes from its bed of fire and places it, on a long cushioned rack.

Dipped in Acid

Here electricity cuts the tube into sections, well trained men deftly slit the tube sections into three curved pieces, place them on racks and send the curves to the flattening room. Here the curved pieces of glass are slid carefully upon revolving fire clay tables in ovens tuned up to a high temperature. Expert workers slide blocks of wood over the glass to smooth it out after the heat of the ovens flattens the sections. After that it is "easy." The flat glass, taken from the ovens is dipped into vats of muriatic acid to remove all fumes and prevent discoloration of the glass.

The sheets are then cut into flats in sizes all the way from 6 by 8 inches to 60 by 80 inches, by expert glass cutters who employ diamonds fastened into brass mounts for the purpose. These diamonds, part of the most expensive equipment in the manufacture of window glass, are often used for months before resharpening becomes necessary.

The Wichita Falls Window Glass company produces during each month of operation over 40,000 fifty-foot boxes of window glass, or over eight carloads each week.

Young Demos Swing To Hoover; Are Disowned

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 31. (AP)—Because he was informed the Harper county unit of the Oklahoma League of Young Democrats was prepared to insert an advertisement endorsing Herbert Hoover for president in a Buffalo Newspaper, James F. Rollins, state president, today revoked its charter.

The advertisement was to appear in this week's issue of the paper, Rollins said.

HARD LUCK RIDES YOUTH THRU CINCY

CINCINNATI—Wallace Jones' mother was seriously ill in Latonia, Ga. Wallace, short of funds, was in Columbus, O. So he figured it out and decided on riding the rods to Georgia.

He had reached Cincy when hard luck joined the party. He was nearly caught trespassing on railroad property. But he succeeded in making his way to Newport, Ky., where he decided to refresh his memory of food.

Wallace walked into a soft drink store and ordered a glass of buttermilk. All his ready cash, a $10 note, went across the counter. In due time a pint of hooch was delivered to him, instead of buttermilk, and no change from the tenspot.

Argument made no impression on the proprietor, so our hero went to the police, who confiscated the booze and arrested the proprietor. Following which Wallace left town empty as to purse and stomach—still bound for Georgia.

Stubborn Cough Quickly Ended by Famous Recipe

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that usually follow the "flu."

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Benefited Beyond Expression

Jacksonville, Fla.—"I read an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have been taking it now for four years and find it a wonderful medicine for weak, run-down women. I have benefited beyond expression by the Vegetable Compound and will gladly answer letters from anyone who is suffering and needs help."—Mrs. Rose Mosma, 2149 Walnut St., Jacksonville, Florida.

CONGRESS RACE GIVEN STRESS

Both Parties Appeal For Their Candidates

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (INS)—Additional appeals went forth today from both national headquarters to return a congress favorable to the president elected in the battle of ballots next Tuesday.

Usually a congress of the same party as the new executive is elected in the presidential campaign every four years, but this fight contains so many cross currents that the managements of both parties felt it necessary, in the closing days, to stress the importance of the congressional contests.

Usual Appeal

The appeals were along the customary lines— the new president's hands will be tied if he does not have a majority of his own party at the capitol, and pledges made during the campaign will be unfulfilled if he must fight an antogonistic congress.

It is conceded that little short of a landslide either to Herbert Hoover of Gov. Al Smith will disturb the balance of power held by the band of progressives in the senate. All the progressives up for re-election are considered virtually certain of being returned.

Thirty seats are at stake in the senate, one having been already filled by the re-election in September of Senator Hale of Maine. There is a vacancy from Pennsylvania because the contest over the election of Senator William S. Vare is still hanging fire. There is a fight in Illinois for the seat resigned by Frank L. Smith, with Vare, was blocked at the senate's door.

Demos in Power

Of the 30 seats, 20 are now held by Democrats, nine by Republicans and one by the farmer-laborite, Senator Shipstead of Minnesota.

Republicans claimed that all their candidates would be re-elected, and that they would make heavy gains among the seats now held by the Democrats. They are figuring on capturing places certainly in New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Missouri, Utah, Nevada and Wyoming, and predict at least an even change in New York and Rhode Island.

The Democrats retort that their opponents' claims are preposterous, for they expect to control the new senate by holding all their present seats and by gaining in Nebraska, Indiana, Connecticut, and possibly in Ohio and New Mexico.

Control of the house hinges on about 50 seats. The present lineup is 223 Republicans, 191 Democrats, two Farmer-Labor, one Socialist and eight vacancies.

COYOTES MAY PRESENT FULL STRENGTH AGAINST PLAINVIEW

PACK INJURIES ALL HEALED UP

Ineligibles and Cripples To Be Available

By GORDON FULCHER

With all injured members of the team rapidly returning to the squad in tip-top shape and prospects for the first real football weather of the season this week the Wichita Falls high school Coyotes expect to reach the best physical condition that they have attained this season when they engage Plainview high school Saturday at Athletic park in the first home conference game.

For the first time in weeks all of the foremost line candidates will be in shape for the contest. Jub Bell and Howard Scott, regular guards who have been injured almost all season, are back in uniform, while Hodgkiss, who was injured in the Vernon game, and Jack West, who was ineligible on his studies last week, will all be ready for the game this week.

The flock of reserves in both the backfield and line will doubtless get assignments during this week's contests unless Plainview produces much keener competition than it has demonstrated so far.

Deane Howell, T. Saye, Tom Beaty, Chick Holden and Earl Hutchinson, all of whom have seen some service in line play this season, will no doubt get long assignments in Saturday's game if the Coyotes sail smoothly through the early part of the game.

Jock Carstarphen, Clarence Bains, Dick Hambrick and Paul Dickey, reserve backs whom Coach Bud McCallum has spent a great deal of time in developing, probably will get chances against Plainview.

Coyote partisans think the game with Plainview will be the easiest in which the Coyotes have engaged in several weeks and will give McCallum and his men a chance for a badly needed breathing spell and an opportunity to test reserve material under fire before the more strenuous contests with Lubbock and Amarillo in the last two tilts of the season.

Frogs' Minds Get Brushing Up

T. C. U. Squad Drilled On Baylor Plays

FORT WORTH, Oct. 31. (AP)—Football was a mental process at T. C. U. here today. Held indoors by rain, the Frog grid squad had a long blackboard drill, followed up by calisthenics.

Baylor, next Saturday's opponent, has been rather thoroughly scouted and the Frogs studied the Bruin plays as well as diagrams of their own offensive activities.

Rains early this week will not injure the T. C. U. field, provided Friday is dry. Two of the last three clashes between the Frogs and Bears have been fought on muddy, rain-swept fields. Those two wet-day games resulted in ties, with T. C. U. winning on a dry field last year.

Some of the heavier linesmen who have started the last two games for T. C. U. may be on the sidelines Saturday, with Coach Bell likely to start regulars, lighter but a trifle faster.

Contest for American League Batting Crown Duplicate Of Battle Between Ty Cobb and Nap Lajoie

The returns are all in but it's a long, long count the fans are waiting for on the close race between Heinie Manush and Goose Goslin for the 1928 American League batting title. Unofficial figures vary so sharply that the outcome will be unknown until the official results are tabulated. It's the hottest finish since Ty Cobb beat out Nap Lajoie by one point back in 1910.

By JAY R. VESSELS

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—A lot of baseball games are decided by the margin of a dinky little base hit. The same thing probably will decide the 1928 batting championship of the American league.

Not since the memorable race staged by Nap Lajoie and Ty Cobb for the 1910 title has so much fuss been made over the outcome of the junior loop batting crown. That season Cobb, who hit .385, finally won out by one point. It now seems that not over a point or two will separate the champion and runner-up in the 1928 struggle.

The final official figures will not be known for a month or more, not until Irwin M. Howe of Chicago, the league's recognized authority, checks back on every game played. Howe's preliminary standing shows that Goose Goslin, Washington outfielder, leads Heinie Manush, slugging flychaser of the St. Louis Browns, by one point. His standing is: Goslin, .379; Manush, .378.

But two other unofficial scorers disagree with Howe. One of them gives the title to Manush and the other calls it a tie.

Here are the two unofficial standings:

| | |
|---|---|
| Goslin | .382 |
| Manush | .382 |
| Manush | .382 |
| Goslin | .377 |

If Goslin wins out it will be his first American league batting championship. Regardless of the outcome, the Washington slugger made a remarkable showing. He boosted his batting average approximately 50 points over his 1927 mark, hitting the ball so hard that the Senators could not spare him from the lineup even when his throwing arm was useless. The Goose rapped the ball at a .400 clip for the first half of the season.

Should Manush be awarded the title it would be the second time that he topped the league. He finished first with .377 in 1926, then slumped to .299 in 1927, a drop that paved the way for his transfer to the St. Louis Browns last winter.

Heinie promptly staged a comeback that stamped him as one of the American league's outstanding stars. His playing was of such high order that he came within two points of the most valuable player award of $1,000.

So if Heinie does lose out on the batting laurels by the one-point margin he will be entitled to a big, hearty howl about the breaks he didn't get.

AGGIE-STEER TABS SELLING

Record Attendance Looms For Turkey Day

Special to The Record News.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Oct. 31.—Heavy demand for tickets for the Thanksgiving day battle between the Texas Aggies and the Texas Longhorns, to be played at Austin this year, indicates that the forthcoming Turkey day tilt will break all attendance records for an Aggie-Longhorn clash, James Sullivan, business manager of athletics, has pointed out. If a new record is set it will be a formidable one for the Thanksgiving day game played at Austin in 1926 showed gross gate receipts of more than $76,000.

Illustration of the growth in attendance through the years at Aggie-Longhorn Thanksgiving day games is given in figures on receipts at some of the past games which Mr. Sullivan has in his files. For instance, look in 1909, 19 years ago, when the Aggies and the Longhorns met in the memorable Thanksgiving day battle at Houston, total receipts from the game were only $6,751.80. The Aggies proportion amounted to $2,194.24. The game in 1910 amounted to $2,917.03.

Figures for 1926 reflect the increase in popularity of the game through the years, particularly the increase in the Aggie-Longhorn game. Gross receipts of the 1926 game, played at Austin, were in excess of $76,000, A. and M.'s share of the net being around $31,000. Total receipts of the game played at College Station in 1927 amounted to nearly $51,000. A. and M.'s share of the net was nearly $25,000.

Services of officials for the 1909 game cost $150. The cost item for the 1926 game amounted to $462.23 and for 1927 to $452.94.

AGGIES HOPE FOR BIG FINISH

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Oct. 31.—Virtually eliminated from the conference race by defeats in their first two conference tilts, Texas Aggie gridsters this week buckled down to a period of unusually rigorous training, determined to make a Garrison finish in the three conference games yet ahead, those with with the S. M. U. Mustangs, Rice Owls, and Texas Longhorns. "It isn't the start, it's the finish that counts," is the slogan that has been placed on the bulletin board of the Aggies' training quarters, and the work early in the week indicates this will be the slogan for the remainder of the year.

Having reduced his squad to 30, Coach Dana X. Bible is bearing down with an ungloved hand in a final effort to build up greater aggressiveness in the Aggies' style of play. There was a marked lack of this characteristic in the performance against the Razorbacks last week, Coach Bible said.

Baer Facts

By ARTHUR (BUGS) BAER

(Copyright, 1928, by Universal Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Colonel House manipulated fame some sessions ago by saying nothing.

When called on for a speech he gave imitations of birds and animals.

He never ate alphabetical soup because he was afraid that it would form words in the spoon.

Lady Macbeth was going good until she chattered in her sleep.

President Coolidge's silence is explained by the fact that he had nothing to say. And knew it.

The present fall crop of fluttering radio stumpers might learn something from this mixed trio.

Every time you twirl the laughing knobs these nights you are smacked right in the face with yards of raw elocutionary material.

Every radio plant is in the wholesale language business.

Heavy storm clouds of parliamentary procedure and verbal affidavits are rushing through space on the wings of partisan oratory.

There is nothing sadder in life than a radio victim with Hoover ears listening to an animated set of Smith tonsils extolling the virtues of the Democratic candidate for the tall and dizzy office of president.

Picture a man whose acoustics are thoroughly Democratic being forced to inhale the aroma of a Hoover eulogy.

It is necessary to put drain pipes on your radio to carry off the lingual floods.

Words are pouring out of the loud speaker, leaking through the B batteries and seeping out of the condensors.

Every radio fan is knee deep in complimentary adverbs or looking for a Ford through the rushing torrent of boosting adjectives.

All this stuff may be making us more intelligent, but the radio companies should remember that education is not entertainment.

And that statistics are not melody.

We will be thankful on November the five, when all the returns have been protested and we can tune in on the knobs and again listen to the pleasing sound of a soprano gargling a majestic lullaby.

MAXIMUM GOLF COURSE TALKED

Executive Committee Will Consider Case

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—Meetings of the executive committee of the United States Golf association are just as executive as the name implies, but a soothsayer is not needed to name one subject to be discussed at the autumn meeting in New York Nov. 22.

It is just as certain as a six-inch putt that the executive committee will talk of the best maximum length for a championship golf match—18 holes versus 36.

The matter has been discussed before, but few golf followers would be surprised to see something done about it before the 1929 championship is decided at Del Monte, Calif.

There are many of the rank and file, as well as the powers that be, who would like to see all the championship matches at 36 holes, as opposed to the present plan of disposing of the first two rounds at 18.

UPSETS ORDER OF DAY NOW

Something Wrong When Contest Goes Right

By JOHN W. HEISMAN

(Famous Football Tactician and Former Coach)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (US)—There have been so many football surprises this fall that many are now surprised when they learn a game went the way they figured it should go.

The games of last Saturday brought out a number of things that will give the fan further thought for the morrow. They are:

That "Onward Christian Cagle" is without argument the best all-around back in the East.

That Strong of N. Y. U. and French and Guarnaccia of Harvard will now be added to the list of those likely to come in for prolonged consideration at the end of the season for positions on an all-Eastern team. Scull of Penn and Marsters of Dartmouth were already on that list.

Army Faces Task

That, inasmuch as Stanford is leading the bandwagon in the Pacific Coast conference and Nebraska gave Missouri a wallop that put the latter out for the count of 60, and inasmuch as both these winning teams remain for Army to face: Now, therefore, be it resolved that Army picked, beyond all argument, the toughest 1928 schedule of any team in America; and that if Coach Jones' men come through with a clean slate we will hail them unanimously as the American champions—no matter what kind of a record any other team may hang up.

That while field goals as a method of scoring are of less and less frequency, safeties are coming more and more into popular favor. If a team is a touchdown ahead in the scoring it's safer to make a voluntary safety and yield them 2 points (which don't win the game anyway) than it is to risk losing the ball to them so close to your goal line, for if a touchdown should follow for the opposition the game is likely to be lost.

That the Navy has come back into its own and will be a "tough bird" for the remainder of this season.

South's Strength

That Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt, in the South, must both have great teams, and that one of them is liable to come in for national claims as either Army, Illinois, Nebraska, Iowa, N. Y. U., Ohio State or Stanford. All of them have unusually high hurdles yet to negotiate before they can think of making any claims whatever.

That games often turn on small and unforseen incidents. Take that Minnesota-Iowa game. The stars of both these teams were their fullbacks—Nagurski for Minnesota and McLain for Iowa. Naturally, folks thought it would be a duel between these fullbacks, but neither of them counted for much in the game. Minn's touchdown was made by a sub after a brilliant 61-yard run, while Iowa's came about as the result of a fine individual effort by a halfback in traveling over 70 yards for a touchdown. And it was the dazzling work of a third-string quarterback, Ryan, that more than anything else netted West Virginia a victory over the strong Lafayette team, and by a wide margin.

Runyon Finds Flighter After His Heart in Young 'Kid Chocolate'

Ebony Cuban Has Just Everything and Besides That He's an Actor Who Likes Fighting

By DAMON RUNYON

(Copyright, 1928, by Universal Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—One of the greatest showmen I ever saw in the ring is this little black buzz-saw they call Kid Chocolate.

He comes from Cuba. The gallery at the old St. Nicholas rink Monday night sizzled with Spanish ejaculations as the boys up there stood yelling at Kid Chocolate.

I don't know how good Chocolate can fight. I can't tell from a showing against a blown-up fly-weight such as the Joey Ross that the Cuban knocked out in a round Monday night. Chocolate is in between a bantam and a feather-weight. He weighed around 122 pounds Monday night.

Now Joey Ross can possibly make 122 pounds without difficulty. And against 112 pound boys he is a tough little fighter. But against a big bantam, he naturally doesn't figure. So, as I say, I didn't get a real good line on Kid Chocolate. Offhand, my guess is that he is a marvelous little fighter.

Has Everything

He seems to have everything.

But most of anything he has showmanship.

He is a shiny black, a patent leather black. His black skin fairly shines in its blackness, as if polished.

He has long inky black hair, and he came into the ring Monday night with it plastered tightly to his little round skull, and then oiled to a rich luster.

He has a small luminous black face, a wide mouth with very red lips, and between the red lips a double row of big shining white teeth that seemed to sparkle under the lights as he showed them in a broad grin, bowing to all sides of him.

He wore black fighting shoes, with white stockings rolled down over the tops, and white anklets. His trunks were of black satin, with red waistband, the official trunks of the New York State Boxing commission, but new.

A Natural Actor

He came in draped in a swell brown silk dressing gown. You could see the fellow has a lot of natural actor in his form the way he took his bows. His body looks as if it were carved by a master hand out of polished ebony. He seems to be perfectly proportioned.

He closed his red lips over the white teeth as the bell rang, the smile faded, and he swung leisurely out of his corner to meet the oncoming, bobbing, little Ross with a long, snapping left hand. He poked and poked at Ross' face until Ross rushed him, then Kid Chocolate unleased a short right hand to the heart that showed his real power.

He ducked. He sidestepped. He stabbed, and he hooked with his left, crossed and uppercut with his right. He seemed to have everything, I repeat.

Fans Delighted

And always there was something showy about him. The crowds at St. Nick's, which seems to regard him as its own, was in transports of delight. Kid Chocolate has brought the old rink at 66th and Columbus avenue back to life.

They came close to packing it when he fights there. Most of them go to see him lick somebody, of course. But he has also gathered that more valuable following, the ringworms who go hoping to see him licked. He is the new star of the small clubs, the greatest since Ruby Goldstein was packing 'em in.

He is a greater showman than Tiger Flowers, the greatest showman of his time, this black boy from Havana. I had been hearing much of him from the regulars at St. Nick's, such as the Hon. Dave Levy, W. (Jewelry) Gibson, and scores of others whose noses are always hung on the lower strands of the ropes at the old rink on fight nights.

They were so enthusiastic, I felt they must be exaggerating. About one in fifty of these phenoms lives up to his billing. But as far as giving me a real bang is concerned, Kid Chocolate was all they said.

Likes Fighting

He is the first fighter I have seen in a long time who acts as if he likes to fight, as if he enjoyed the tumult of the mob. He seemed to be feeling Ross out for the first minute, then he sudenly turned on steam and fairly blazed with fighting fury.

He hit Ross with everything but the bucket, as the boys say. One of his punches connected with Ross' chops during the flurry, and Ross fell down, turned a back somersault and played dead for quite a spell.

Kid Chocolate leaned against the ropes as nonchalantly as if he were about to light a Murad, and as the timekeeper said "ten," Chocolate made a careless gesture to the crowd, as if to say, "there you are!"

I believe some of the lads are already comparing him to George Dixon, who was called "Little Chocolate" in his time, and who was bantam and featherweight champion. That's unnecessary. This Chocolate is good enough for these times as he is, though he may not be half as good as Dixon.

S. M. U.-TEXAS TO HURL BALL

Aerial Circus Assured For Saturday

AUSTIN, Oct. 31. (AP)—An aerial circus unmatched in Southwest gridiron history loomed today as the piece de resistance for football followers who will witness S. M. U. and Texas in their annual gridiron dispute here Saturday.

Reports of dark-horse ball carriers and new styles of attack to the contrary, it was a generally accepted belief around the Longhorn campus today that the unerring accuracy of Redman Hume and Sammy Reed in hurling passes was the hope that the Ponies held for a victory. Texas flashed an overhead drive in its game earlier in the season at Dallas with Vanderbilt.

King, Beular and others who wear the Orange would be acceptable members among the best of the leather-tossing fraternity, and Rhoades and Rose are proficient in plucking the pigskin from the air.

Bill Tilden Defeats Two Foes at Once

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 31. (UP)—William T. Tilden II, former national tennis champion who is under suspension because of a violation of the amateur writer rule, defeated two opponents at one time on the court here. Playing on the doubles court before 500 persons, Tilden defeated Capt. Spencer Peets and Raymond F. Loucks, Union college stars, 6-3, 8-6. After the double match, Tilden won a one-set singles match from Captain Peets, 6-3. Tilden is here with the road show "Dracula," in which he has the leading role.

DUNDEE ONLY BOXING CHAMP

Other Divisions Are Without Titleholders

By FRANK GETTY

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (UP)—Of the eight recognized championship divisions of boxing, only one has a champion ready to defend his title.

Suffering from inflation of prices, rather than from any other malady, the fight game seems destined to collapse.

Because of the very nature of human beings, however, it is highly improbable that boxing will not be quite as popular as ever this winter. Fight fans are long suffering and they must have somewhere to go on winter evenings.

What is required is a new alignment in the different divisions of the sport, a few new faces.

In the heavyweight division, the removal of Gene Tunney from the picture is bound to have a beneficial effect. The austerity, no less than the superiority of the retired champion, militated against the interest of the general public. It is one thing to be able to address a Yale class in Shakespeare, and quite another to defend one's title with one's fists.

Loughran Ambitious

Among the light heavyweights Tommy Loughran rules, but the Philadelphian is bent upon fighting heavyweights. He has been impressed by the statement that he is a logical successor to Gene Tunney, and he seems bent upon demonstrating his ability beyond his weight.

Mickey Walker seems to have grown beyond the legitimate and legal middleweight limit. When last seen in these parts, the Elizabeth bear cat weighed all of 180 pounds and carried it with difficulty. But Mickey is not leaving an idle class. There is Rene de Vos, the Belgian middleweight, Jack McVey, the colored contender, and a comparative newcomer who will bear watching, Joe Zelinsky of Binghampton.

In the 160-pound division remains that old nemesis of ambitious easterners, Dave Shade, who fights De Vos this coming Friday at Chicago to determine a logical contender for the title.

Dundee Only Champ

Joe Dundee, while he is one of the most unsatisfactory champions the modern prize ring has known, nevertheless is the one titleholder who is capable and ready to meet a challenger. The Baltimore welterweight was to have faced young Jack Thompson in Madison Square garden week after next, but an infected elbow caused the champion to abandon training and the bout has been postponed indefinitely. Meanwhile, Sammy Baker of Mitchel field and Jackie Fields, whom many consider the greatest welterweight in the ring today, will have it out for the job of runner-up.

In the lightweight division, Sammy Mandell, the champion, is nursing a broken collar bone, but Eddie Kane, his astute little manager, says the title holder will be ready for action within two months. Meanwhile, Joe Glick and Baby Joe Gans have been signed to see which is the more logical contneder in the 135-pound division.

Among the featherweights, things are at a standstill until little Andre Routis returns from France next year.

FAIRVIEW, Texas, Oct. 31.—Fairview high school defeated Coach A. E. Beck's Reagan Junior high school football team, 6 to 0, in a game played here Wednesday afternoon.

The field which was extremely muddy handicapped both teams in their play. Dud plunged over for the Fairview touchdown in the latter part of the fourth quarter after Fairview had recovered a Reagan fumble a few minutes before.

Rains Drench Western Texas

Wednesday night, with the minimum temperature for the day being 40 degrees.

Rains General

Rainfall around Locknei and Floydada was reported to have reached 1.65 inches Wednesday night, while slow and steady showers fell around Spur and Dalhart.

Hard rains continuing practically all day Wednesday were reported to have fallen along the Fort Worth and Denver line from Fort Worth to Childress by the Denver railway dispatcher here.

Heavy fogs and rains were reported by the Katy dispatcher as having prevailed Wednesday along the line in Southern Oklahoma, while conditions much the same as those in Wichita Falls Wednesday prevailed over the Wichita valley, according to the dispatcher of that railway.

LOCKNEY RAIN TOTAL INCREASES

Special to The Record News.

LOCKNEY, Texas, Oct. 31.—An additional half inch of rain fell here today, bringing the total to 1.65 inches since Sunday.

HALF-INCH RAIN AT FLOYDADA

Special to The Record News.

FLOYDADA, Texas, Oct. 31.—One-half inch rain fell here today, bringing the total since Sunday to one and one-half inches. Weather continues cloudy and misty. All roads are in bad condition.

PANHANDLE GRAIN HELPED BY RAIN

AMARILLO, Texas, Oct. 31. (AP)—Grain recently planted in the Panhandle wheat belt was aided by a slow, steady rain which fell today in and around Amarillo.

The precipitation, which totaled one-half an inch, brought moisture since Sunday to almost two inches.

STAMFORD FIELDS HELPED BY RAIN

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, Oct. 31.—The rains that started early Monday gradually increased up to Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. About noon today a heavy rain fell, and it is thought this will put a fine season in the ground for planting wheat and barley and may be the forerunner of a fine season for next year's cotton and feed crop. Farmers have plenty of stock water now.

TEMPERATURE SLIGHTLY HIGHER AT MEMPHIS

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, Texas, Oct. 31.—Rain has been falling the last three days in Hall county, the precipitation today being heavier than the other two days, and a total of about two inches has fallen. The moisture will prove very beneficial to what wheat there is in the county and will put much-needed moisture in the ground.

So far very little damage is reported to the cotton now open in the fields. The temperature is higher today than Monday and Tuesday, and there are no indications that the weather will be colder tonight.

THREE-INCH RAIN FALLS AT PLAINVIEW

Special to The Record News.

PLAINVIEW, Texas, Oct. 31.—Practically three inches of rain has fallen at Plainview and over this section this week. It rained at intervals from early Monday morning until Wednesday at noon. At 3 o'clock Wednesday the sun came out for the first time since Saturday.

Everyone is jubilant over the rain except possibly a number of the cotton raisers who will be delayed with their picking and pulling. Hale county has a heavy wheat acreage planted, and the rain will insure a heavy winter pasture for dairy farmers and carry the wheat well into the season. It is estimated that Hale county will have 30,000 bales this season. The ginning season was just getting under way when the rain interrupted.

Roads in this section are in bad condition and automobile travel has been delayed.

Special to The Record News.

SPUR, Texas, Oct. 31.—A slow rain, totaling .76 inches, fell here today. The temperature fell to 35 degrees.

Special to The Record News.

DALHART, Texas, Oct. 31.—A slow rain, totaling .94 inches fell here today, bringing the October total of rain up to 4.05 inches, the greatest amount of rain to fall here in this month in the last seven years, except 1923. Sown wheat was greatly aided.

Ohioan Plays Football Saturday and Occupies Pulpit on Sunday

DELAWARE, Ohio, Oct. 31. (AP)—On Saturday afternoons Norman Scribner of Baltimore faces excited audiences of football fans; on Sundays his audiences are attentive and subdued church worshipers.

Scribner, a tackle on the Ohio Wesleyan university football team, is financing his theological education by serving as a Methodist Episcopal minister.

The "fighting preacher"—his teammates call him that—a huge figure, six feet two inches tall, weighing 246 pounds, was one of the chief actors in the Ohio school's gridiron victory over the University of Michigan team.

On one week-end football trip, Scribner played against the University of Cincinnati team and the next day preached in the Cincinnati North Side Methodist Episcopal church. Last year Scribner served as the pastor at Cheshire and the year before at Kilbourne, small towns in Delaware county.

Scribner also is a weight man and holder of the discus record in the state intercollegiate association. He completed his preparatory work at Dickinson seminary, Williamson, Pa., but needing to improve his finances, he had to work several years before entering college. Consequently, he will not be graduated until next spring when he will be almost 30.

Waco Cubs Draft Two Minor Leaguers

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 31. (AP)—Eighteen minor league players will advance a step by the draft route this year, according to the announcement made here today by J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

The selections include:

By Wichita Falls, Texas: From Scranton, Pa., Fred Sitetiy; from Jacksonville, Fla., Edwin Ellis; from Greenville, S. C., George Spiers; from Joplin, Mo., Jack Crouch.

By Waco, Texas: From Corsicana, Texas, Anthony Pietruszka; from Chambersburg, Pa., Tom Blake.

No other Texas teams appeared in the list.

Fields-Thompson Go At Garden Abandoned

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—A match between Jackie Fields, crack California welterweight who knocked out Sammy Baker last night, and Young Jack Thompson, San Francisco negro, was abandoned today as a possibility for Nov. 16 at Madison Square garden.

Fields wired Tom McArdle, matchmaker, that he already had eliminated Thompson in a recent bout and preferred to await a shot at Joe Dundee's title. Dundee was scheduled to oppose Thompson in a championship battle here Nov. 16, but had to withdraw because of an infected elbow.

Favorites Look Best In California Open

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31. (AP)—A stiff wind swept over the Sunset fields public course today where the Southern California open golf championship is being played, but in general, the favorites came through with good scores.

The close of the qualifying tests, the second 18 holes of which were played today, saw the straight-shooting and youthful Fred Morrison, pro of the Midwick Country club, Alhambra, Calif., leading the field with a card of 145 for the 36 holes.

The field narrowed down to 64 and ties for the final 36-hole championship drive tomorrow.

CLUB ELECTION PARTY

Members of the Wichita club have been invited to bring their families and friends to an election party at the club Tuesday evening. A large attendance is expected to have dinner at the club and spend the evening in the lounge where a new radio set has been installed.

Owls, Crippled, at Work For Pirates

HOUSTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Despite the fact several of the most valuable players likely will not be able to start because of injuries the Rice Owl football squad is going about its practice session with a vim and vigor that augur well for the team's showing here Saturday against Southwestern.

It will take a well knit defense for the Owls to turn back the Southwestern Buccaneers Saturday. In Jancik, Young and Blackburn, the Corsairs have ball toters of outstanding merit. Jancik is said to be one of the most capable ball carriers in Texas.

Yale May Go West To Play Maroon in 1931

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. (AP)—Yale may come west for a football game with the University of Chicago in 1931.

Amos Alonzo Stagg, director of athletics at Chicago, today said he would accept the contest, if offered, but that he has had no correspondence or negotiations with Yale athletic authorities. The report was started in New Haven today, but Yale authorities withheld comment.

Longhorns Work In 'Thinner-Than-Airs'

AUSTIN, Oct. 31 (AP)—Texas university football players, training for "crucial" game here Saturday with Southern Methodist university, practiced today in track suits.

Rainy weather made full uniform training impracticable. The Longhorns took advantage of the relief from heavy work to improve their speed, of which they will need plenty to withstand the swift running and passing Mustangs from Dallas.

Church To Observe All Saints Day

The spirits of the departed will be honored at special services at the Episcopal church Thursday, All Saints day, with the rector, the Rev. William Bratton, officiating. Holy communion will be observed at two services at 7 o'clock and 11 o'clock Thursday morning. All Saints' day was set aside for such celebration about 1,400 years ago.

Democrat Assails Special Session Plans

eight years; a candidate for the office of the presidency of the United States who is unable to talk for himself."

The governor contended that as an "indication of the desperation of the Republican party on the farm question," Governor McMullen of Nebraska had hurried to Washington and urged the Republican candidate to make a promise to call the congress into special session in order to handle the farm question.

Farm Conference

"The story of these conferences is an interesting sidelight on the Republican candidate," he continued. "They must have begged him to say something, anything to make some appeal to the farmer. They must have pleaded for just a few kind words. Then word came from the headquarters of Mr. Hoover that the extra session was discussed, but no decision was arrived at.

"Immediately thereafter Senator Borah went into conference with the Republican candidate, and, following the conference, Mr. Hoover yielded.

"He spoke a kind word. He actually got himself to the point of saying 'extra session.' Aside from the fact that this seems to be a surrender for the purpose of securing votes, what would be accomplished at an extra session of congress in view of Mr. Hoover's well known opposition to the underlying principle behind the cause of farm depression?

Action, Anyway

"He has refused to accept the principle of the control of the exportable surplus, without which control there can be no adequate relief.

"He and his advisers on farm relief are in effect saying to the farmers of this country: 'We have given you nothing in eight years but broken promises. Forget the past; give us a renewal of power on the sixth of November; we will give you prompt action, but no relief.'

"As Senator Norris said, speaking to the farmers of the country: 'I want to say to them, as I look at it, if you still believe what you have been advocating, you haven't a leg to stand on unless you come out in this great contest and support Governor Smith. I am tired of promises'."

The nominee added he had no doubt the talk of an extra session would be regarded by the farmers of the country as one more promise that will produce no results.

The Democratic nominee also contended the Republicans were attempting to fool labor. He said the opposition party had declared in its platform that:

"We believe that injunctions in labor disputes have in some instances been abused and have given rise to serious questions for legislation."

Deceit Charged

He argued this to him constituted a "glaring example of attempting to fool the working man." He said the platform also contained a sentence pledging the Republican party "to continue its efforts to maintain this present standard of living and high wages."

"I cannot escape the conclusion that this matter about injunction," he went on, "was put into the platform without a study of what it really meant or where it really belonged. Somebody must have said: 'We have to say something about injunctions. Let us slip in a few words about it.'

"No pledge is made to pass the legislation. It is a matter of record that the Republican party has had eight years in which to cure the abuses by legislation, and not only did they not cure them but a Republican attorney general was one of the worst offenders in this regard and was guilty of as gross an abuse as can be found, when he himself—the attorney of all the people of the United States—applied for and secured from the court certain injunctions which merited and received widespread condemnation.

"If the Democratic party is entrusted with power under my leadership, you have my assurance that a definite remedy by law will be brought forth to end the existing evils and preserve the constitutional guarantees of individual liberty, free assemblage and speech and the rights of peaceful persuasion."

The nominee then said that women must not be forgotten and declared that as governor of New York, a 48-hour week for women had been provided and night work of women in industrial establishments prohibited.

Opposes Amendment

"All of this progressive and forward-looking legislation applicable to women," he added, "would be endangered if we attempted to tamper with the federal constitution along the lines desired by the National Woman's party.

"When one of the representatives of this organization questioned me over a year ago about my attitude to this proposed amendment to the constitution I told her in unmistakable language that I was unalterably opposed to it."

He said he had favored legislation that would remove all unjust discrimination against women so far as property rights or privileges are concerned, and had amended the civil rules so as to give them absolute equality in examinations for public office.

"So far as the nation is concerned," he continued, "I favor the equality of women with men in all political and governmental matters, and I favor an equal wage for equal service whether rendered by a man or a woman.

"The Republican candidate is noncommital on the amendment proposed by the National Women's party. The Republican vice presidential candidate has declared in favor of it. In fact, as a senator he introduced the resolution for the amendment to the constitution two years ago."

Miss Greathouse will sing her program in two parts. She will give half her selections preceding the address of the speaker of the evening, Tom Connally, Democratic nominee to the U. S. senate from Texas, and will conclude her program following the speech.

Miss Greathouse is expected to arrive here early Friday morning. She is making a concert tour of the nation. It is announced that no admission will be charged for any part of the program.

DROUTH ENDS RAIN RECORD

Precipitation For Year Below '27 Figure

The total rainfall in Wichita Falls for 1928 dropped below that for any corresponding period of 1927 for the first time during October, when the precipitation for the 10 months ending Oct. 31 was 25.92 inches as compared with 26.08 inches during the first 10 months of the previous year, according to records of the weather bureau of the Texas Electric Service company.

The rainfall during October 1928, was 1.93 inches up to 5 p. m. Wednesday, of which 1.74 inches had fallen since last Saturday night. The precipitation during October, 1927, was 2.29 inches. The total rainfall during 1927 was 29.16 inches.

The precipitation here since Saturday broke a drouth of more than two months, to the benefit of the small grain farmers, cattle men and oil operators. Fears increased, however, as cloudy weather was predicted for Thursday that the continued rains might be injurious to cotton, much of which is yet unpicked.

A new official heat record was set here for October when the temperature rose to 100 degrees Oct. 1. The highest previously recorded during the five years that the electric company's weather bureau has been maintained was 95 degrees.

The detailed weather report for October, 1928, as given Wednesday, follows:

Mean maximum temperature, 83.51; mean minimum, 59.29; mean, 71.40; maximum temperature, 100 degrees Oct. 1; minimum, 42 degrees on Oct. 23; greatest temperature range, 38 degrees on Oct. 5; total precipitation, 1.93 inches; greatest precipitation in 24 hours, .53 inches on Oct. 29 and 31; more than .01 inches precipitation recorded on eight days; number of clear days, six; partly cloudy, 12; cloudy, 13; thunder storms on Oct. 8 and 15; no snow, frost, hail or sleet.

The comparative record for October, 1927, follows:

Mean maximum temperature, 84.35; mean minimum, 55.42; mean, 69.88; maximum temperature, 93 degrees on Oct. 1; minimum, 47 on Oct. 13 and 14; greatest temperature range, 37 degrees on Oct. 14; total precipitation, 2.29 inches; greatest precipitation in 24 hours, 1.37 inches on Oct. 7; more than .01 inches of precipitation recorded on each of four days; days clear, 24; partly cloudy, 2; cloudy, 5; thunder storm on Oct. 1; no snow, frost, hail or sleet.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—Early advances on reports of cold rains in the South were followed by reactions under continued southern selling and liquidation in the cotton market here today, but selling off from 19.46 to 19.13. January rallied to 19.34 on covering and trade buying. That delivery closed at 19.20, compared with 19.30, at the close of the previous day, with the general market closing steady net 1 point higher to 1 point lower.

The opening was steady at an advance of 8 to 12 points on the unfavorable showing of the weather map, rather a sharp rally in the later Liverpool market, trade buying and covering. December sold up to 19.46 and May to 19.32 on this initial buying, or about 13 to 17 points above yesterday's closing quotations, but the demand was supplied at these figures and prices turned easier.

The showing of the weekly weather report seemed to encourage expectations of heavy ginning returns up to Nov. 1. This may have accounted for some of the selling, while there were also reports of no change in the southern spot basis, and claims of a slow spot demand. For a time the market showed considerable weakness with December selling off to 19.14 and May to 19.01, during the middle of the day or about 14 to 17 points below yesterday's closing quotations.

Offerings tapered off at the decline of some 28 to 32 points from the high levels of the morning, however, and the market seemed to attract some buying on an idea that its technical position had been improved by liquidation of speculative long accounts and trade buying on the declines. Rallies followed on covering which carried prices 4 or 5 points above yesterday's closing quotations, but the improvement was not fully maintained as there was a renewal of realizing or liquidation and some southern selling late in the afternoon.

Private cables said there had been hedge selling and liquidation in Liverpool but reported a broadening demand for cotton cloths from Egypt and the Near East and stated that the improved position of Lancashire spinners was maintained. Port receipts today, 87,668. U. S. port stocks, 2,099,871. Exports, 74,171, making 2,237,445 so far this season.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31. (AP)—An early bulge was followed by a rather sharp decline in the cotton market today due to selling on fears of larger crop estimates. December contracts sold down from 18.89 to 18.59. An afternoon rally on covering for over the holiday here tomorrow, carried the option to 18.84, but the improvement met realizing and it closed at 18.72, or 3 points net higher. The general market closed steady at a net advance of 2 to 4 points.

Liverpool cables were lower than due at the start here but local traders practically ignored the trend of the English market due to the weather map's showing of heavy rains in the belt and indications of a severe cold wave in the far Northwest which traders feared, would reach the cotton belt. First trades showed advances of 13 to 17 points and prices continued to gain after the start, the demand being further stimulated by warnings of a tropical disturbance in the Caribbean. December ultimately traded to 18.89, January 18.91 and March 18.90, or 19 to 20 points up.

Later in the morning recent buyers sold rather freely. This was attributed to fears of the effect of election uncertainty on the stock market and to expectations of larger crop ideas by private authorities. Before the offerings were absorbed December sold off to 18.59 and active positions generally to levels 30 to 31 points under the top and 10 to 11 points below yesterday's close.

In the afternoon the decline was checked by shorts covering for over the all-Saints day holiday here tomorrow and some trade buying on further reports of rain in the belt. Prices rallied 25 points from the lows but realizing developed in final trading and 10 to 12 points of the improvement was lost, January closing at 18.75 and March 18.72.

Pre-Election Influences Felt As Stocks Again Move Out Slowly

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (US)—Stocks declined further in another comparatively quiet session on the stock exchange, today. Persistent profit-taking and increased short selling offset what support there was forthcoming from bull leaders with an added number of traders withdrawing from the market until after election.

Closing rally in technically cornered stocks gave a better appearance to the list at the close and Nickel finished 7 points higher, Warner more than 6 and Kennecott over 2 points above Tuesday's final price.

American Radiator was one of the few strong features throughout as it responded to stock dividend possibilities first outlined here over two months ago.

Victor dropped 5 points and Atlantic Refining 3 but losses generally were held to a point or so. Industrials suffered most but oils and coppers dipped fractionally also, as did the rails, with quiet absorption again evidenced in the last named group.

Election Felt

Pre-election influences again dominated trading—or more correct would be to write, lack of trading. For while there appeared great confidence in the expression of Wall streeters as to the result of next Tuesday's voting, those who had cashed in profits were content to get out of the market for awhile. Others displayed a growing inclination to take profits if they had them.

Individual stock news was of no influence and both the bullish steel corporation earnings report and the optimistic utterances of President Sloan of General Motors fell rather flat. Both, however, will prove important factors when aggressive bullish operations are resumed.

The steel earnings, indicating at least $11.50 a share for the common this year, not alone promise early spilit up of steel common, but points to favorable news from independent steel companies if improvement in business continues as indicated.

Bulls Not Ready

The closing spurt in Nickel was evidence that bull leaders are not ready for a wide open break.

The strength of Warner was enhanced by an estimate of earnings of $3,000,000 this quarter with further increase expected from properties recently acquired.

Kolster remained a feature of strength for most of the session, coincident with quiet accumulation of International Telephone and Telegraph.

Grain

CHICAGO REVIEW

By THOMAS TEMPLE HOYNE

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. (US)—After dragging early in the session, grains developed enough strength to close higher today. At the finish corn looked particularly strong.

At the close wheat was ⅛ to ½c higher; corn was up ⅝ to 1c; oats were ⅛ to ¼c better; rye was ⅛ to ⅝c higher.

Wheat opened about where it closed on Tuesday and was close to showing symptoms of strength. It sold off and looked weak. The local crowd in the pit pounded it.

But the market firmed up as the session advanced, and late in the period had a sharp upturn. From the top of this it broke back the greater part of a cent in the last few minutes of trading.

There were plenty of rumors about what wheat was going to do. Most of them were founded upon belief in political influences.

Is This Where That Cold Is Rooted?

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes Get to Bottom of Trouble

Nasal catarrh is not only disagreeable and offensive, but that inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the air passages of the head, nose and throat may spread to the point where it is incurable and a danger to life.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes are composed of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries. The warm smoke vapor is inhaled into the affected air passages and will go where sprays, douches and salves cannot reach. They contain no tobacco or cubebs, and being harmless, are used by children, as well as adults.

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, plain nasal catarrh, catarrhal deafness, hay fever, asthma, bronchial irritations, or are subject to frequent colds, get from any druggist a convenient pocket-size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.
