Explosion Kills Three Firemen In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Three ranking fire department officers were killed and 24 other firemen and policemen injured today in an explosion confined entirely to the rear yard of a north Philadelphia chemical manufacturing plant.

The violent blast, without any fire, occurred minutes after a telephoned warning summoned the fire company to investigate the source of escaping fumes, thought to be ammonia.

A 15-foot-high steel tank mounted on a wooden platform in one corner of the yard exploded as firemen serched for the source of the fumes.

So powerful was the explosion that it slammed the firemen, and several policemen who stood nearby, against two 25-foot-high brick walls enclosing the yard.

Rescuers found the dead and injured lying grotesquely on the ground. The steel tank was torn in pieces. Several windows in nearby buildings were shattered.

Killed were Deputy Fire Chief Thomas Kline, and Battalion Chiefs John J. News and John P. Magrann.

The firemen, led by News, were called to the two-story Charles W. Berg laboratories plant building at 5:55 a.m. Outwardly, there appeared to be no signs of trouble. The blast came 10 minutes later.

News divided his men—half going to the front, the others accompanying News to the rear. Firemen gave this version of what happened after that:

Lt. Hayes D. Rommell, 38, broke down the front door and moved with his men to the rear of the shallow building, searching unsuccessfully for escaping gas as they went. The men wore oxygen masks.

Meantime, News noticed a puff of smoke which he assumed to be ammonia gas and ordered an alarm sounded to bring more fire equipment. He and his men reached a wide overhead wooden door, from the rear, just as Rommell and his men opened it from the inside.

Rommell stepped outside, then climbed on top of a stack of oil drums. At that moment the tank exploded.

"I was rolled along the ground like a rubber ball," Rommell said afterward.

News, believed killed instantly, was smashed against the brick wall. His fire helmet was found on the roof of a two-story building nearby.

Deputy Fire Commissioner George E. Hink said the cause of the fumes and the blast was a mystery.

"We searched the plant and we don't know where the fumes came from," Hink said. "There was no damage inside the place. We also have no explanation for what caused the tank to explode."

Capt. William Eckles of the fire marshal's office said the exploded tank contained a blend of chemicals used in the textile industry for removing spots.

Batchelor Sentence Cut To 20 Years In Review

Other Points In Verdict Upheld

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The life sentence given Cpl. Claude Batchelor, convicted of collaborating with the enemy in Korea, today was reduced to 20 years.

The announcement was made by Lt. Gen. I. D. White, commanding general of the 4th Army.

A review of Batchelor's court-martial has been made. The verdict that he was guilty of collaborating with the enemy while he was a prisoner of war in Korea was upheld. The dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances also were upheld.

The statement by General White said:

"The reduction in the sentence of the court has been done in the hope that Corporal Batchelor may profit by the rehabilitation program in the Army institutions.

"In America we pride ourselves on our quality of mercy. A young man who has lost his belief in American ideals may the sooner regain those ideals through the example of mercy.

"In the hope that Corporal Batchelor today, in retrospect, appreciates that the American way of life is worth much sacrifice and privation, I have reduced this sentence."

Batchelor was convicted at Fort Sam Houston Sept. 30 after a month-long trial. He is 22 and from Kermit, Tex. He spent 38 months as a prisoner of war in Korea.

Batchelor and Cpl. Edward Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va. were among 23 Americans who originally chose to stay with their Communist captors. Both changed their minds and returned. Dickenson was convicted last May on charges similar to those against Batchelor and was given 10 years at hard labor. His case is on appeal.

Batchelor's case now will be reviewed by a board appointed by the Army advocate general.

In the review White said:

"The vast majority of our soldiers never wavered in the face of Communist torture. In fact, many were decorated for outstanding conduct as POWs.

"The inculcation of these qualities is a responsibility of the parents—not the Army.

"The Army will do all it can, but in the short time we have available for character building, it is pretty difficult to accomplish what the young's man's entire early upbringing and environment have failed to do.

"If this training is not accomplished in the home, in the schools and in the church, it leaves a staggering and unwarranted burden on the Army."

White said the record of Batchelor's trial shows that he "voluntarily supported the Chinese Communist program during his entire period of captivity."

He said the record shows almost nothing in the way of mitigating circumstances and added:

"Corporal Batchelor was young, yet other POWs who resisted the Communists were also young."

He said the vast majority of our soldiers never wavered and "American parents may well be proud of the manner in which the majority of their sons fulfilled their responsibility to their fellow men, to their country and to their faith, under the trying conditions of Communist captivity. They resisted the inclination to profit personally from the misery or at the expense of others."

Ike To Leave Tomorrow On Rapid Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower puts to the acid test tomorrow his ability to stir up the voters and to win support for Republican candidates.

The White House announced last night that Eisenhower will take off tomorrow on a one-day flying campaign trip to Cleveland, Detroit, Louisville, Ky., and Wilmington, Del., in that order.

This will fellow close on the heels of his radio-television talk here tonight at a campaign rally staged by the Citizens for Eisenhower congressional organization. Mrs. Eisenhower will accompany him to the rally. The speech will be carried by NBC television and radio and by ABC radio.

It is scheduled for 9:30 p.m., EST.

Tonight's speech has been billed as an effort to arouse in the battle for control of Congress, to be decided at the polls next Tuesday, some of the "crusade" spirit of the 1952 Presidential campaign.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty announced that on tomorrow's trip the President will speak to airport crowds at each stop, with Republican candidates from the surrounding states on hand.

There are heated Senate contests in the four states he will visit.

Hagerty, asked by a reporter whether the four states were chosen because GOP Senatorial candidates were "in trouble," replied, "I do not admit your premise." He said they were selected because of central location and because, except for Kentucky, the President had not visited them during the campaign.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday his chief objective will be to dramatize his desire to see everybody vote in next Tuesday's election.

But the selection of the sites by the Republican National Committee and its financial sponsorship of the tour indicated party officials expect him to come close to the kind of barnstorming in which the President said last April 29 he would not engage.

Adenauer To Visit Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany gets down to the work of his 66-hour visit to Washington today. He has an early appointment with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Officials said the main topic would be general review of the state of Europe in the light of the new defense arrangements that would make Germany a sovereign and rearmed partner.

After talking with Dulles, Adenauer goes on to the White House for a talk with President Eisenhower, afterwards his host at lunch.

Dulles introduced Adenauer after his arrival yesterday at a brief airport appearance as "one of the truly great men of our times . . . The more I see of him, the more I admire his vision, courage and statesmanship."

Adenauer in turn expressed Germany's gratitude to Dulles "for his foresight, wisdom and steadfastness which were so much in evidence at the conferences where our fate was decided."

Bullock Announces For State Senator

Former State Senator Pat Bullock of Colorado City announced today that he would be a candidate in the special election to name a senator for the 24th district.

Gov. Allan Shivers has already indicated that he will call an election sometime in December to fill the post of the late Harley Sadler who died on Oct. 14.

Bullock, who previously served two full terms in the state senate after filling out part of another term, said he had made the decision to enter the race after careful consideration and "because I have had a great deal of solicitation from friends throughout the district."

There is one other avowed candidate. State Rep. David Ratliff of Stamford announced several days ago that he would be in the race.

Bullock first went to the state senate in 1942, being named in a special election to replace John Lee Smith, who was elected lieutenant governor that year. Bullock was elected to full terms in the senate in 1944 and 1948. After helping to redistrict the state, Bullock voluntarily retired after the 1951 session. He was president pro tempore of the senate in 1951.

"The next session of the legislature will have many issues and problems to solve which will directly affect people of this district and the entire state," Bullock said in making his formal announcement. "My friends say my experience in the senate will be of much value in solving these problems.

"I have had experience on every major committee in the senate and have been chairman of several of them. I sincerely want to serve my district and state, and it is hard to turn down friends in the district who think I will be able to do so in case I am returned to the senate.

Hemingway Is Winner Of Nobel Prize

By MICHAEL JAGERBLOM

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — American novelist Ernest Hemingway today won the 1954 Nobel Prize for Literature.

The 56-year-old writer, whose hard-boiled style and violence-packed tales set a pattern for 20th century prose the world around, will receive a gold medal and a check for 181,646 Swedish crowns (about $35,000).

The literary prize and the annual awards in medicine, chemistry and physics will be presented by Sweden's King Gustaf Adolf VI at a traditional ceremony here Dec. 10.

Winners of the physics and chemistry prizes still are to be named. Announcement already has been made that the Nobel Peace Prize will be withheld this year.

Hemingway is the sixth American-born author to win the literary prize. The awards were set up by the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite, who died in 1896.

CRMWD Approves $1-Million Budget

BIG SPRING — A million dollar budget was adtoped here Wednesay for what promises to be the first normal year of operation for the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

In submitting an estimate of $1,068,785 for revenues, E. V. Spence, general manager, reminded the board of directors that the district did not yet have a complete year with all facilities operating by which he could gauge revenues. Within a month Big Spring is due to receive water from Lake Thomas, completing the original phases of the project.

Operating costs for the year beginning Jan. 1, 1954 were pegged at $323, 185 and debt requirements at $306,158. This would leave a surplus of $439,442 to be applied to reserves, contingencies, improvement and extension, and retirement funds.

The budget, which under terms of the indenture must be approved prior to Nov. 1 each year, anticipated $362,440 from the City of Odessa, $224,140 from the City of Big Spring, and $108,143 from the City of Snyder, or a total of $694,-723 from the member cities which comprise the CRMWD.

Other sources of income are estimated at $350,400 from The Scurry Area Canyon Reef Operators Committee unitized repressuing project; $9,812 from Texas Gulf Producing plant near Odessa; $2,-100 from rural users, which would run the aggregate water revenues to $1,057,035. Anticipated revenues in the recreational fund would run the district's total for all purposes to the estimated $1,068,785. Total water requirements for the year were put at 7 billion gallons.

Spence pointed out that there was a strong possibility of additional surplus surface water being sold for secondary recovery purposes. Since this is not included in the budget, its materialization would provide further revenue cushion.

Breakdown on the proposed expenditures included $39,600 for royalties on water, $5,575 for operating city production systems for peaking purposes, $189,400 for system operation ($38,150 for labor, $141,250 for electric power, $10,000 for repairs and supplies), $53,115 for administration, $11,700 for recreational facilities, $1,725 for lease rentals and $2,500 for capital expenditures. Total for all salaries and wages for the district for the year would be $82,760.

At the meeting of the board, authorization and ratification was voted on a number of routine easements and right-of-way requirements and on one minor land exchange for road purposes. The president, R. T. Piner, also was authorized to execute an operating agreement with several private firms for operation of a radio antenna tower at Big Spring. Spence reported that the level of Lake J. B. Thomas is now 2,236.7 feet, which represents approximately 80,000 acre feet of water, or approximately 40 per cent of capacity in volume. S. C. Freese, member of Freese and Nichols, the district's engineers, said that the $158,000 cash in the construction fund should be adequate to complete pending work, including 15 million gallons storage at SACROC's filtration unit and at the Big Spring gate. He recommended that the remaining $600,000 in securities be held in reserve for other construction as might be needed, including installation of pumping stations to boost lake water to Odessa.

Attending from Snyder were Lyle Deffebach and James Rosser, who presented recommendations from the insurance committee. These will be considered by the board at its next meeting.

Iran Senate Okays Pact

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The Senate approved Iran's new oil pact 41-4 today and sent it to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi for final approval.

The agreement between Iran and a group of eight Western companies to get the multimillion-dollar Iranian petroleum industry back in operation passed the House (Majlis) a week ago 113-5.

The Shah's signature is expected immediately. The first tanker to take on oil under this settlement of the old dispute over nationalization of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. properties in Iran is due at the refinery center of Abadan Saturday.

The oil consortium to take over processing and marketing operations includes British, French, Dutch and five American companies — Standard of New Jersey, Standard of California, Gulf, Socony-Vacuum and the Texas Co.

A court source said last Sunday the Shah plans an unofficial visit to the United States for a medical checkup at Doctors Hospital in New York, and probably a vacation at Sun Valley, Idaho, after signing the pact. Queen Soraya will accompany the 34-year-old monarch, the informant said.

Hagler Unable To Make Bond

FORT WORTH (AP)—Attorneys for David Hagler, charged with murder in an Oklahoma torch slaying, said today the Fort Worth businessman would spend his 37th birthday in jail tomorrow unless the $20,000 bond is lowered.

"The bond at its present amount can't be made," said attorney Byron Matthews. He explained that Hagler's family had been unable to make necessary financial arrangements for the bail.

Judge Dave McGee, who set the bond, said the bond could be lowered if it were shown the defendant was unable to make it. However, he said no one had approached him in the matter.

An angle officers were checking today was the possibility the unidentified victim was an European.

Weeping Juror Gets Excused

By WILLIAM NEWKIRK

CLEVELAND (AP)—The state—in a surprise move — dismissed from the jury box today a woman who had wept and begged to be excused from trying Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the murder of his wife.

Reversing an announcement yesterday it was "satisfied" with the Sheppard jury list, the prosecution pointed a challenging finger at Mrs. Genevieve A. Pelsey, a cookie packer.

That left a jury of six men and five women.

A real estate salesman, James Roger Manning, was seated today to replace juror Thomas J. Solil who became ill.

The handsome osteopath is charged with bludgeoning his pretty, pregnant wife, Marilyn, in her bed July 4.

Testimony from a medical doctor now living in Phoenix, Ariz. may play a big role in Sheppard's defense.

Soviets May Oust Mrs. Sommerlatte

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen called on Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the Kremlin today to discuss the tense situation arising out of incident involving two American Embassy wives and their cameras.

Informants said Bohlen stressed the seriousness with which the United States regards the Soviet action in the case of Mrs. Karl E. Sommerlatte, wife of the second secretary in the Embassy, and Mrs. Houston Stiff, wife of the assistant Naval attache.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry has declared Mrs. Sommerlatte personally unacceptable in Russia, which amounts to a request that she leave the country. If Molotov persists in that direction despite U. S. protests and today's personal intervention by Bohlen, Mrs. Sommerlatte has no choice but to comply.

Mrs. Sommerlatte was accused of "hooliganism," the Soviet term for rowdyism, during an incident last Monday stemming from attempts by her and Mrs. Stiff to take some pictures of Soviet children. The United States says the Russians have the facts all wrong.

Today the Soviet press took up the case with stories campaigning vigorously against what it said was the "unworthy behavior of the wife of an American diplomat."

Most of the newspapers' indignation was directed against Mrs. Sommerlatte, who in the Russian version of the incident is accused of striking a Soviet workman. The newspapers demanded she leave the country.

But Mrs. Stiff says it was she who struck a blow in an effort to free Mrs. Sommerlatte, who was being forcibly held at the door of a workers' club.

The women were directed to the club when objections were made to photographing the Soviet children. Both Mrs. Sommerlatte and Mrs. Stiff said they did not want to see anything of the club, and had quite a scuffle trying to get out.

Finally Sommerlatte arrived at the club in response to a phone call from Mrs. Stiff. The women drove off with Sommerlatte after about an hour and a half at the club.

Pravda's account said Sommerlatte "ducked out of his car and showed pretended indignation toward those gathered near the club. He even displayed standard American bourgeois anti-Soviet remarks. But the workmen showed their self reserve and calmly watched his comical gestures and pranks. They told Sommerlatte to behave more calmly.

"After that he put the ladies in the car and drove away. The workmen are expressing their indignation at the behavior of the wife of American diplomat Sommerlatte which is not proper for a civilized woman."

The Literary Gazette published a letter from Natalia Zarubina, who was described as an old age pensioner who witnessed the incident.

Mrs. Zarubina said the women wanted to take pictures of the children near a heap of building trash.

"'What a strange fancy!' I thought," she wrote. "If the women would like to make photographs of children it could easily be done. Not 10 steps away there is a kindergarten. A little bit farther on is a home for the children of textile workers and next to it a club. Why is it necessary to photograph children near trash?"

Probers Seek To Determine If Edinburg Blast Premature

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) —Officers studied investigation results today in an attempt to learn if an elderly man who blew himself to pieces in the Hidalgo County Courthouse yesterday set off the blast prematurely.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Willard Perkin said they were considering a theory that Harry Miller may have intended to explode the dynamite bomb in the 93rd District Courtroom.

A damage suit decision in which Miller, a Duval County oil field worker, was to receive damages for a dynamite blast injury in 1950 was to have been announced in the court yesterday morning.

Several hundred persons were in the almost new courthouse, dedicated only last summer, when the explosion wrecked the second floor at 10:04 a.m. yesterday. Two women suffered severe shock. Others received minor cuts and bruises.

Perkin said the investigation showed Miller came to Edinburg Tuesday afternoon and went several places purchasing flashlight batteries and electrical wire. He said one filling station operator said Miller asked him to solder a wire to the flashlight batteries. When the filling station man started to use a welding torch, Miller warned that the box containing the batteries might "blow up" if an open flame was used.

Perkin said it was possible Miller was still working on the contraption after he took an elevator to the second floor and stood in a hallway outside the 93rd District Courtroom. The official said Miller might have been scraping a wire with a knife blade and caused a short that set off the explosion.

Chester Blodgett, Miller's attorney in the damage suit, said he still believed Miller did not set off the blast on purpose, and it went off accidentally.

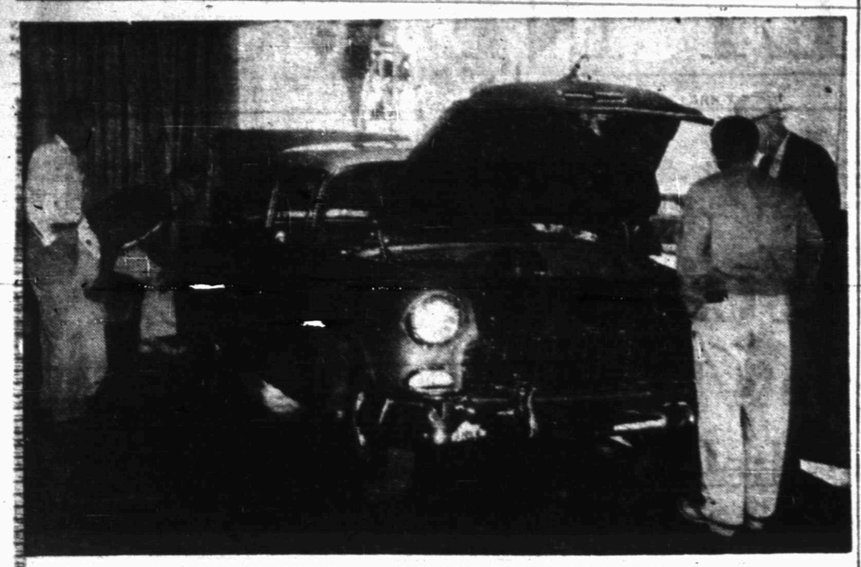
The district attorney's office had completed its investigation this morning but no inquest verdict was expected until some time this afternoon.

A construction company began tearing down an inside wall of the courthouse this morning to learn if any of the steel beams were bent by the terrific explosion. If the beams are damaged a major repair job will be required on the 1½ million dollar, 5-story structure.

Blodgett said a hearing had been held Tuesday on how much damages Miller should be awarded for his injuries. He said attorneys for both sides had made an agreed settlement but there was a technicality on just how much should be awarded. A decision on that was to have been made yesterday.

Perkin said Miller arrived at the courthouse at the time his case was to have been called, but the case was delayed for the hearing of another case. The blast happened before Miller's case was called.

Blodgett said Miller was a native of Buffalo, N.Y., and about 60 years old. He said he had been in this area of South Texas several years. Miller has a wife in Realitos, about 100 miles north of here.



NEW CHEVROLET INTRODUCED IN SNYDER

The new V-8 engine being introduced in the 1955 Chevrolets has proved to be as interesting to viewers of the new car as the completely redesigned body. Theo Lamb, owner of Lamb Chevrolet Co. here said this morning. Several hundred persons had visited his showroom this morning to see the new cars. A group of persons is shown above looking at one of the six new cars on display at Lamb Chevrolet today. Lamb said that prices of the new cars would be comparable to last year's prices, with a slight increase in the price of the car having been made, but freight rates have been cut. Development For River Is Planned

DALLAS (AP)—Complete development of the Trinity River within the next decade was pictured here by directors of the Trinity Improvement Assn. yesterday.

The directors also announced plans for a dedication program, tentatively set for spring, at Garza-Little Elm Lake, and a Trinity River Authority of Texas.

Ben H. Carpenter, chairman of the association's legislative committee, said President Eisenhower would be invited to the planned 2-day celebration.

He said a bill for creation of the Trinity River Authority would be ready for submission to the 54th Legislature.

Carpenter said the authority would be a governmental agency "invested with the powers of the state of Texas to effectuate flood control, soil-water-forest conservation, navigation, reclamation, alleviation of stream pollution, conservation of wild life, storage of water for municipal, agricultural, industrial and recreational uses, and the use for all beneficial purposes of storm and flood waters and unappropriated flow waters in the Trinity watershed."

The authority's territory would embrace counties wholly or partly within the river's watershed. Some counties with only a small portion of their area in the watershed would be eliminated.

Taxing power of the authority would be limited to a few cents and would be assessed only by vote of taxpayers within the watershed.

Carpenter told the directors it would be recommended that the authority finance its principal projects through pledge of its revenues.

John W. Carpenter, ITA president, commented:

"This program, including barge navigation from the gulf to Fort Worth, is the most important matter now under consideration by Fort Worth and Dallas businessman and other leaders throughout the watershed.

"Fourteen million acre feet of water now flows down the river every year to be wasted in the gulf. Proper conservation and utilization of this water alone can more than pay the cost of watershed improvements."

Marilyn Back To Cameras

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's back to the movie cameras today for Marilyn Monroe, who divorced Joe DiMaggio in a 15-minute hearing yesterday.

No comment was heard from the former New York Yankees baseball star on the end of their well-publicized, nine-month marriage.

Sobbing, the shapely blonde star, clad in a black flannel suit, told Judge Orlando H. Rhodes in Santa Monica Superior Court:

"I had hoped to have out of marriage, love, warmth, affection and understanding. But instead he gave me coolness and indifference.

"My husband would get into moods and wouldn't talk to me for long periods—five to seven days sometimes, maybe longer — 10 days. And if I tried to approach him, he usually said: 'Leave me alone.'

"When I asked him, 'What's the matter?' he replied, 'Stop nagging me.'

"He allowed me no visitors whatsoever. I don't believe I asked someone to our home more than three times during the nine months we were married. On one occasion when I was sick, he allowed someone to see me, but then only under tremendous strain.

"I offered to give up my work in hopes that would solve our problems. But that didn't change his attitude at all."

Under California law her interlocutory decree will be final in a year.

Processing Of Food Still To Build Up Cost

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today costs of processing and distributing foods next year will continue to exceed the costs of the food raw materials.

But efforts of the food industry to increase its efficiency should reduce some of the marketing costs, the agency said.

The department said that out of each dollar spent for food in 1955, the farmer is expected to get 43 cents and processing and distributing agencies 57 cents. This is the same way this year's foot dollar is being divided.

During the war period, the farm share rose to 52 cents. It has declined steadily since 1947.

The department said available information indicates net profits of firms manufacturing food and tobacco products were larger in the first half of 1954 than in the same period of 1953, while firms making textile products and apparel had sharply lower profits.

Average hourly earnings of employes in food marketing firms were said to have been a per cent higher in August of this year than a year earlier.

Atlantic Announces Its Profit On Huge Sale

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Atlantic Refining Co. says it will realize a profit of over 28 million dollars from sale of its marketing subsidiaries in the Eastern Hemisphere.

Henderson Supplee Jr., president, told stockholders in a letter yesterday that the properties were sold to Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., Ltd., who will pay most of the purchase price by deliveries of crude oil.

Supplee said the sale frees his firm from an "unequal competitive position" and affords opportunity to concentrate business development in the Western Hemisphere.

Vishinsky Wants Own Plan Pushed

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Political Committee took a day off today after unanimously approving a call for five-power talks on disarmament. The resolution was supported by both Russia and the West but veteran diplomats warned any real arms agreement was a long way off.

The vote, taken after two weeks of debate on the arms issue, came last night. It brought expressions of hope that the rare Soviet decision to join with the West in backing a common proposal might indicate a new era of cooperation.

The general air of satisfaction was marred somewhat by Soviet Delegate Andrei Vishinsky's statement that the disarmament talks might be doomed if the West insisted on using American proposals as a basis for discussion by the five powers.

Vishinsky wants the British-French proposal on which his own disarmament plan is based to serve as the foundation for negotiations.

The Soviet warning served as a reminder that East and West are still sharply split on fundamental points of disarmament. There is no indication the Soviets intend to relax their position despite recent gestures of cooperation.

The committee-approved resolution, which is certain to receive an okay from the General Assembly, has three main points:

1. It authorizes the U.N. Disarmament Commission to place the whole arms problem before a subcommittee consisting of Russia, Britain, France, the United States and Canada—the five sponsors of the resolution.

2. It calls on the subcommittee —which failed to reach any agreement in a series of meetings in London last spring—to make new efforts to agree on regulation, limitation and major reduction of armed forces and conventional armaments.

3. It calls on the committee to consider all arms proposals within its terms of reference.

The Russians refused to co-sponsor the resolution until the other powers agreed to delete any reference to the American plan, which provides for strict international supervision of disarmament. The resolution as approved make a general reference to "all proposals."

The Political Committee also voted to turn over to the subcommittee India's proposal for a standstill on atomic and hydrogen bomb production pending a worldwide disarmament agreement.

Conscience Overcomes Robber's Accomplice

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Joe Johnson, 28-year-old service station attendant, reported this incident to deputy sheriffs last night:

An old car drove up to his station. A man pointed a shotgun at him and demanded the receipts be given to his woman accomplice. Johnson handed over $30.

The woman hesitated momentarily and then suddenly shoved the money back to Johnson.

"This isn't right, honey," she said to the bandit. Before the car sped away, she said: "He's been out of work since January."

About one-third of Snyder's wooden one-room school buildings are shown above on the campus of the West Elementary School. This campus is the most overcrowded, using six of the huts, but all other elementary schools are also using such temporary structures which will be replaced by brick classroom additions to present modern structures if the proposed bond issue is approved by voters Saturday.

"Do what you have to do with what you have to do it with" is probably a good motto, but it has been forced to work overtime in the Snyder school system for the last few years. Shown above is what is called a concession stand at the end of one of the grandstands at the high school stadium. It is only a few boards nailed together in the shape of a crude box without sides, floor or roof. Old tin signs form a partial wall at the base. Plans to replace these are included in the program up for vote in Saturday's bond election as a tiny fraction of the total issue, which mostly is for new classrooms.

School Bond Vote Set For Saturday

Voters of the Snyder school district have just two more days in which to decide whether they vote to build more wooden buildings in which to school our children or whether to build brick classrooms.

Election polls at the school district tax office, 1922 Twenty-sixth Street, will open at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and remain open until 7 o'clock that evening. During that period voters who reside in the district and own property taxed by the district will ballot their decisions on a proposal to issue up to $2-million in tax bonds.

Of the $2-million proposed, 93.6 per cent is to be designated for building of classrooms and equipment for actual schooling in academic and vocational courses.

A relatively minute 6.4 per cent is to be designated for completing athletic facilities of the high school which were partially constructed in a previous program approved in 1950.

Although practically all the issue concerns the construction of 55 new classrooms for the elementary school buildings, the 6½ per cent for athletic facilities includes plans for adding wooden bleacher seats at the stadium, construction of a field house, rest rooms, improvement of the inadequate lighting system, and building of small concession stands at the stadium.

At present, there is only a small wooden shack used temporarily for a field house; two wooden framework skeletons bounded by tin signs at their bottoms are used for concession stands; and the stadium bleachers fall short of seating the turnouts at the games.

The fifteen-sixteenths of the proposed issue planned for classrooms and academic and vocational equipment is to relieve the present overcrowded condition of the elementary schools, in which there are already 400 more pupils than the buildings will seat. It is also to prevent such a shortage in the unforeseeable future.

Tickets Move Fast For Navy Band Concert

Tickets for the U.S. Navy band's performance here Nov. 7 are moving rapidly, and requests are being received for blocks of tickets to be sent to area towns, Shrine Club officials reported today.

Consequently, Snyder residents are being asked to get their own requests in as soon as possible.

"We want to take care of all Snyder people first," said Hilton Lambert, general chairman of arrangements for the sponsoring Shrine Club, "but we have already promised some of the neighboring towns some tickets and these must be sent within the next few days."

The Navy band will play three concerts here, one at 2 p.m., another at 4 p.m. and a third at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 7. The two matinee performances have been arranged primarily for high school band members from over the Snyder area, although a few adult tickets are available for each afternoon show.

Student tickets sell for $1.20 for the afternoon performances, while adult tickets are $2.40 each. For the evening performance, reserved seats (in the center section of the high school auditorium) sell for $3.60 each and tickets on either side for $2.40 each. The reserved seat chart is at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Ticket sales will not be allowed to exceed the seating capacity of the auditorium for either performance so that each purchaser will be assured a seat.

Junior High P-TA To Hold Halloween Carnival

The Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor its annual Halloween carnival Saturday night in the junior high gymnasium.

The carnival is to start at 6 p. m., and families who plan to attend early may buy sandwiches and dessert for supper there. Each room will sponsor a boothe, with the boothes to offer various types of entertainment and refreshment.

Proceeds from the carnival go into the PTA welfare fund to be used for work with students in the school, Mrs. David Harlin said. In the past, the fund has been used to buy eye glasses, clothing and other similiar items for needy students.

Dewey Challenges Demo's Eligibility

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey says it is up to "the courts to decide" if Averell Harriman is ineligible to serve as governor because he voted two years ago in a Washington, D.C., presidential primary.

Harriman, Democratic-Liberal party candidate for governor against Sen. Irving M. Ives in the Nov. 2 election, contends the vote in no way impaired the legality of his New York residence or his right to hold the office.

He said the vote was as informal "as a vote for your favorite baseball player."

Dewey said in a television-radio speech last night that Harriman broke five consecutive years of state residence, required to become governor, by swearing he resided in the District of Columbia.

"Did he tell the truth" Dewey asked. "Or did he commit perjury I don't know. That's for the courts to decide."

The governor did not indicate who, if anybody, would ask a court opinion. To newsmen who inquired after his speech, Dewey said:

"The entire subject is being studied."

William J. O'Shea, chairman of the Democratic State Committee's Law Committee, commented that he is confident he could defeat any Republican court challenge of Harriman's eligibility.

Dewey contended the Washington Primary, in June 1952, was "a real election of delegates to a national presidential convention."

"The rules are clear," he said. "No man can be a resident of both the District of Columbia and his home state. He can vote in one or the other. He can be a resident in one or the other—but not both."

Harriman, in his first comment on the Dewey charge, asked:

"How silly can we get?"

He later told a news conference that Dewey was trying to "steal" the Nov. 2 election for Ives "by default" and declared:

"Well, he won't get away with it."

Harriman said he had voted in the Washington primary and would not have done so if there had been any question that it would interrupt his legal residence in New York state.

He said sample ballots for the primary specifically stated that participation "does not prevent your voting in your home state in November."

"The people of Washington have no right to vote and there are no election laws in the District of Columbia," he said.

Harriman, who was in Washington at the time as U.S. director of mutual security, was a candidate in the presidential preference primary.

He won, defeating Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) and three other candidates, but lost out at the presidential nominating convention to Adlai E. Stevenson.

One reason he voted, he said, was to show his confidence to the people in Washington that they were not jeopardizing their November election votes in their home states.

Arguments Due In Suit

BEAUMONT (AP)—Two defense motions to have dismissed a suit for mineral rights to 500 acres of the Spindletop oil field were to be argued in district court today.

Plaintiffs' testimony ended yesterday.

J. Lawrence McBride, Nashville, Tenn., and other persons contending to be heirs of William Pelham Humphrey of Tennessee are the plaintiffs. Gulf Sulphur Co. and members of the McFaddin, Herbert, Kyle and Weiss families are defendants.

Today's arguments were to be on two defense pleas in abatement. One plea asked that the case be dropped on grounds that all necessary defendants are not involved in the current suit.

The other plea contended there is no need for the present suit because the issues involved were settled by earlier litigation.

William Pelham Humphrey acquired the land in 1835. Oil was discovered on the tract in 1901, opening on a large scale the now mammoth Texas petroleum industry, and has been the subject of nearly a score of unsuccessful suits by persons claiming to be Humphrey heirs.

U.S. Fleet Called Largest In History

LONDON (AP)—An authoritative naval publication says the fighting power of the U.S. Navy equals the combined strength of the other major navies of the world. The Americans also appear to be taking greater scientific strides than any other navy.

"Jane's Fighting Ships," a standard reference work on the world's navies, said in its latest edition yesterday the U.S. Navy of 5,000 vessels is the largest peacetime fleet ever maintained by any nation. Russia topped the United States only in numbers of submarines, Jane's said, but added that the Soviet Union is building up "substantial forces" of cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

Russia's underwater fleet was estimated at 370 to 400 vessels, as compared to 200 in the U.S. Navy.

Smaller Production Of Wool Is Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today production of domestic wool next year will be smaller than this year despite a recent boost of 16½ per cent in the government price guarantee.

The reason, the department said, is the fact that more sheep and lambs are being slaughtered this year than are being raised.

This year's production of shorn wool has been estimated at 229 million pounds, grease basis.

The department said that with economic activity and consumer buying power likely to continue at least at present levels, use of apparel wool by domestic mills next year is likely to be a little higher than this year. Mill use of such wool has been running about a third lower than last year.

Texan Serves For 31 Years In Washington

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A little gray-haired Texas lady who knows how to keep a secret is retiring from a top secretarial job in the government.

Miss Lois Ballard, a native of Mineola, will retire on pension Nov. 1 after 36 years of federal service, the past 31 years with the Post Office Department. Before coming here to a War Department job in 1918, in World War I, she taught school for a dozen years in Texas and Oklahoma.

Since 1933, when James A. Farley was postmaster general, she has had the responsibility of opening and handling disposition of all the mail that comes to the head of the post office department.

"Yes," she said, laughing lightly, "I've kept a lot of secrets. But the humorous thing about it is that I'd usually see the whole thing spread out in the newspapers two or three days later."

But most of the mail that comes to the postmaster general, Miss Ballard added, is routine matter.

"Mr. Farley received by far the greatest volume of mail of any of those I served," she said.

"Of course, a lot of mail had nothing to do with the postal system. You remember he was also chairman of the Democratic National Committee. During the depression he used to get a great many letters from individuals writing him for jobs, not only in the Post Office Department, but in other federal agencies.

In addition to her job of opening the mail, Miss Ballard also worked part time as receptionist for each of the postmasters general whom she served—Farley, Walker, Hannegan, Donaldson and Summerfield.

New Try Made To End Strike

LONDON (AP) — The government called waterfront employes and dock union leaders together today in a fresh attempt to end the stubborn dock strike which has paralyzed England's major seaports.

As the walkout, now involving 43,000 stevedores, went into its 25th day there were warnings that its effect on Britain's export trade is becoming calamitous.

"Goods for the Christmas trade overseas have been held up so long that major export sales are being lost," declared John Burghart, an official of the National Union of Manufacturers.

Elkan Simons, president of the British Jewelers Assn., said the stoppage is causing irreparable harm to Britain's export trade in jewelry, gift wares and fancy goods.

The British post office said many Christmas packages for distant points now cannot be delivered until after the holiday.

Mrs. Charles Egner, 3207 Forty-second Street, is preparing to taste a Czruchiki, a Polish wedding cookie that is supposed to bring good luck to newlyweds. The intricate design of this paper-thin pastry is achieved by being cooked on a trivet-like apparatus dipped in hot fat. The Egners recently returned from Detroit where they attended a Polish wedding. (Lee Watson photograph)

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Polish Wedding In Detroit Is Attended By Local Couple

By ANITA HALL

Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES EGNER, 3207 Forty-second Street, have just returned from a trip to Detroit, Mich. where they attended a Polish wedding. The bride, formerly Anna Przekup, and bridegroom, Frank N. Michelak, are friends of the Egner's and both of them have visited in Snyder in the past.

"You have never seen anything like a Polish wedding," Mrs. Egner said. When they arrived at the home of the bride-elect, her mother was "making a shower." It seems to be the custom for a close relative to hold the gift party. Mrs. Przekup was preparing refreshments for the guests with the help of two women. Mrs. Egner said that the cost of the food for the shower was $125. Seventy - five women attended, she said, and, as each husband came to call for his wife, he, too, would come in and eat.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and was immediately followed by the wedding breakfast which was attended by 150 guests. She said they served everything BUT bacon and eggs. There was a brief rest period preceding the wedding reception at seven o'clock that evening. A hall was rented, complete with ballroom and kitchen, for the breakfast and reception. An orchestra played for the Polish folk-dancing, polka and cossack daneing that continued until two o'clock the next morning. Mrs. Egner said that the bride's wedding gown weighed at least 10 pounds and that she was required by custom to wear it until after the reception. They were expecting 300 guests but approximately 400 attended, she said.

The Egners had planned to leave the next day but the bride told them they must stay for the Popvrigini to be held Sunday. This, it was explained to them, is when guests come to view the wedding gifts and eat again.

Three hundred pounds of potatoes, 100 pounds of onions, 70 pounds of veal, 70 pounds of pork, 70 pounds of round steak were bought to prepare for the feasts.

A "must" for every Polish wedding is the Czruchiki, a wedding cookie that is supposed to bring good luck to the newlyweds. It is a paper-thin pastry flavored with almonds and covered with confectioners' sugar. An extra amount of these cookies was made so that Mrs. Egner could bring some home.

Some of the best dishes of the Southwest borrow heavily from the finest Spanish and Mexican cooking. A typical dish is Tamale Pie which is fine for serving to a crowd.

TAMALE PIE

2 cups boiling water
2-3 cup cornmeal
½ teaspoon salt
½ pound ground beef
1 small onion, chopped
2 tablespoons margarine
1 small can tomato paste
¼ cup sliced stuffed olives
paprika
½ cup sliced ripe olives
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 teaspoon chili powder
½ cup beef bouillon or consumme
½ No. 2 can whole kernel corn
dash of cayenne pepper
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup shredded cheese

Stir cornmeal into rapidly boiling water. Cook and stir until thick. Remove from heat. Melt margarine in a heavy skillet and brown onion in it. Add ground beef and cook until meat is no longer red. Add tomato paste, olives, green pepper, chili powder, bouillon, corn, cayenne and salt. Stir well. Taste to be sure this is enough salt. Line a shallow baking dish with part of the cornmeal mush. Pour meat and vegetable mixture into lined dish. Drop remaining cornmeal mush in spoonfuls on top of meat and sprinkle shredded cheese over top. Dash paprika liberally over surface. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven one hour. Makes 8 servings.

Add crumbled crisply-cooked bacon to Welsh rarebit for extra-good taste. Delicious with a salad for Sunday-night supper!

Hermleigh Set For Carnival

Soc Hermleigh 2-18 .. ..

HERMLEIGH — The annual Halloween Carnival, one of Hermleigh's feature events of the year, will be held at the school gymnasium on the night of Oct. 30.

The carnival, on a full community basis, has been an attraction for school pupils and adults alike for several years. It was first started to give children of the community a meeting place to celebrate Halloween under proper supervision. Since the carnival was established as an annual event, property damage caused by over-ambitious Halloween pranksters has been kept to a minimum.

The Parent-Teachers Association is sponsor, and preparations have been underway for several weeks. Each class in school has a booth, and the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers also have their own booths.

The classes will select their queens and kings during the carnival. Voting is on the basis of one vote for each cent.

'Expert' Picker Is Moaning About Low Season Average

By HAROLD CLASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—If the geography experts ever remap the United States they will have to include a wide canyon, running from coast to coast and from border to border. It will be identified as Upset Gulch.

It will be partly filled with football forecasters and teams who can't keep up with the facts in this oh me, oh my season.

Last week this corner had 31 correct calls and 22 wrong for a .587 average, the lowest percentage ever registered during 11 years of picking supposed winners. The season's figures are 197 right, 85 wrong for .695.

Here are this week's picks:

Ohio State over Northwestern: Northwestern has nobody, but nobody to compare with Howard (Hopalong) Cassady.

Oklahoma over Colorado: John Bayuk, Colorado's famed fullback, will find that Oklahoma line too tough.

UCLA over California: Too much Uclan power but Paul Larsen of the Bears may keep it from becoming a route.

Arkansas over Texas A&M: But with full warning that many strange things have happened under a Texas moon and this game is a night affair.

Army over Virginia: The Cadets have come a long way since dropping that South Carolina opener.

Notre Dame over Navy: The first odds this week had Navy a 12-point favorite but off their games with Pittsburgh, the Irish are 35 points better than the Middies.

West Virginia over Pittsburgh: The all-winning Mountaineers meet their second test of the season—and it could be tough.

Iowa over Wisconsin: The Hawkeyes, by statistics, have the best pass defense in the land. They are the pick in the belief they can also stop Alan (The Horse) Ameche.

Penn State over Penn: Your television attraction, in which the deflated Penn Staters start with their comeback.

Skipping over the others without comment:

FRIDAY

George Washington over Richmond, Marquette over Detroit, Denver over New Mexico, Wofford over the Citadel.

SATURDAY

EAST: Boston College over Xavier, Boston University over Bucknell, Cornell over Columbia, Harvard over Ohio University, Brown over Lehigh, Colgate over Princeton, Rutgers over Temple, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Yale over Dartmouth.

MIDWEST: Purdue over Illinois, Michigan over Indiana, Iowa State over Drake, Kansas State over Kansas, Michigan State over Minnesota, Missouri over Nebraskan, Oklahoma A&M over Tulsa, Houston over Wichita.

SOUTH: Miami (Fla.) over Fordham, Mississippi over Louisiana State, Georgia over Alabama, Duke over Georgia Tech, Auburn over Tulane, Florida over Mississippi State, Kentucky over Villanova, North Carolina Tech over Furman, Maryland over South Carolina, Tennessee over North Carolina, Florida State over Virginia Military, Virginia Tech over William & Mary, Wake Forest over Clemson.

SOUTHWEST: Texas Christian over Baylor, Texas over Southern Methodist.

FAR WEST: Cincinnati over College of Pacific, Montana over Colorado A&M, Montana State over Idaho State, Southern California over Oregon State, Stanford over Washington State, Brigham Young over Utah State, Utah over Idaho, Oregon over Washington.

Galveston Has Port Arthur In Top Tilt

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Galveston, not often in the forefront of Texas schoolboy football and forced to show its best early, tries for the miracle this week—a victory over mighty Port Arthur, the team that's supposed to be the finest of all.

This game, matching undefeated, untied outfits with the District 8 championship in Class AAAA on the line, headlines a weekend in which the dwindling supply of unbeaten teams—now resting at 54—is fearful of vast inroads.

It's one of three games matching unbeaten teams in the state.

The spotlight also rests on Class AA where Stamford and Colorado City hook up in a game that's likely to decide the District 4 title and send one of division's most powerful teams forth to contest for the state crown.

In the same division, Ennis, unbeaten and untied, plays once-tied Waxahachie in the melee that's due to determine the District 19 flag.

There are important games from top to bottom as the field rolls down the stretch toward district championships that will be decided all the way around within the next three weeks.

Four games stand out in Class AAAA with the Galveston-Port Arthur clash the headliner. Tyler, undefeated but once tied, plays powerful Waco. Forest of Dallas Sunset team and San Antonio Brackenridge runs into all sorts of trouble with Ray of Corpus Cristi. Brackenridge is one of the undefeated and untied.

In Class AAA, Big Spring and Levelland play an important game in District 1 where Big Spring, unbeaten but once tied, meets the outfit that tied highly rated Breckenridge, while down in the Valley Pharr-San Juan-Alamo is shaky over its prospects against Kingsville.

Of the 54 unbeaten teams, 41, have undefeated, untied records. At least 10 and possibly more of these outfits appear in danger of falling by the wayside in the head of district championship drives.

The greatest record in the state is held by Paducah of Class A. This team has averaged over 58 points per game, numbering some of the Class AA teams among its victims. But Hale Center isn't far behind, with a 52-point average.

Leading teams of Class AA include Linden and Lamarque, which have averaged 42 points each, with Linden boasting the fabulous defensive record of giving up only 13 points in seven games. Mt. Vernon has the same defensive record but hasn't been quite so prolific in scoring itself. Mt. Vernon has averaged 35 points.

In Class AAA, the top teams appear to be Lufkin, which has run up 43-plus per game in six outings.

Rawls Leads 1st Round Of Fem Tourney

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Defending champion and medalist Betsy Rawls was rated the player to beat Thursday as the 19th annual Women's Texas Open golf tournament moved into its second day of match play.

The Spartanburg, S.C., entry carded a decisive 6-4 victory over Dallas' Mary Nell Weatherred Wednesday in first-round play to establish herself as favorite among the play-for-pay golfers.

Miss Rawls moved ahead on the third hole and stayed on top all the way in taking the match.

Other pros taking easy decisions included three who won by 9-8 scores—Betty McKinnon of Savannah, Ga., who beat Mrs. Charles True of Dallas; Betty Dodd of San Antonio, who defeated Mrs. A.R. Hancock of Gladwater, Tex., and Betty Hicks of Manhattan Beach, Calif., who downed Mrs. Gene Harding of El Paso, Tex.

Betty Jameson of San Antonio defeated Mrs. H. D. Wysong of McKinney, Tex., 6-5 and Betty Mims Danoff of Dallas eliminated Mrs. Dave Gaut of Memphis, Tenn. 6-4 in other pro matches.

Polly Riley's 7-6 victory over Peggy Springer of Lubbock, Tex., gave the Fort Worth woman the favorite's rating among the amateaurs. Miss Riley was the low amateur in qualifying rounds with a two-over-women's-par 77.

Junior High Teams Play In Big Spring

Both of Snyder's junior high school football teams will be tavored to win tonight when they go into games at Big Spring.

The seventh grade will begin play at 6:30 o'clock, while the eighth will meet its foe at about 8 o'clock.

Both teams are undefeated. The eighth grade, which has never been beaten, has won six games this season and scored 181 points to opponents' 31 for an average of 30-5. The seventh has won four games, scoring 105 points to 13 to average 26-3.

In previous games with the Big Spring teams this year, the eighth won 35-0 and the seventh 14-0.

Leading scorer for the eighth is Jimmy Allen, who has 64 points. Others are Roger Hensley with 36, Mickey McGrew with 30, Richard Mahan with 24, Jerry Procter seven, and Gale Courtney, Billy Rinehart, and Johnny Drake, six each.

Dick Hayes has scored 68 for the seventh grade, while Tony Perales has tallied the other 37.

Sooners Fly Into Denver

DENVER (AP)—Oklahoma's No. 2-ranked Sooners fly into Denver today to sniff the chilly, thin mile-high air before their important Big Seven football game Saturday at Boulder with Colorado's unranked Buffaloes.

The talk around town is that the Oklahomans are not taking any chances with the ever-dangerous Buffs and want to become accustomed to the climate before the kickoff.

But Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson discounts that interpretation of the Sooners early arrival...

"Our going to Colorado early has nothing to do with the altitude bugaboo," Wilkinson said before leaving Norman. "The better team will win whether the game is played at Boulder or Norman.

"We went to California on Thursday for our game there this season and the arrangement worked out nicely." Oklahoma won 27-13.

18 Now Have .300 Career Averages

NEW YORK (AP)—Eighteen major league baseball players headed by Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals finished the 1954 campaign with a lifetime batting average of .300 or better.

Williams, who completed his 13th year in the big time, hit .345 in 1954 and his lifetime average remained at .348, tops in both circuits.

Musial, a .300 batter this past season, lost a single point off his lifetime figure, but his .344 mark for 13 campaigns still is the best in the National League.

In addition to Williams, the other American Leaguers in the select .300 lifetime group are Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, .315; Billy Goodman, Boston, .310; George Kell, and Minnie Minoso, Chicago, .309; Harvey Kuenn, Detroit, .308; Johnny Pesky, Washington, .307; Bobby Avila, Cleveland, .306; and Enos Slaughter, New York, .304.

National Leaguers, besides Musial, at .300 or higher are Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn, .319; Richie Ashburn, Philadelphia, .312; Duke Snider, Brooklyn and Don Mueller, New York, .307; Smoky Burgess, Philadelphia, .305; Willie Mays, New York, .304; Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati, .301 and Carl Furillo, Brooklyn, .300.

Robbins, Evans Are Matched In Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Medalist Thomas C. Robbins of Larchmont, N.Y. was pitted against Chick Evans of Chicago, former U.S. Open and Amateur champion in Thursday's quarter-finals of the annual North and South Seniors Golf tournament here.

League Opinion Is Split On Athletics

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League became a house divided today as the club owners met for the second time in two weeks to decide the fate of their white elephant, the Philadelphia Athletics.

Ostensibly the meeting was called by League President Will Harridge to vote on acceptance or disapproval of the Athletics' sale to an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate.

It was learned, however, that Harridge probably first would call for a vote on whether to shift the beleaguered franchise to Kansas City.

On Oct. 12 in Chicago, the league approved the sale to Arnold Johnson, Chicago financier, and voted to move the franchise to Kansas City, contingent upon Johnson completing his $3,375,000 deal with Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Athletics.

Since then, however, the house of Mack, Connie and his two sons, Roy and Earle, signed papers for the sale of their stock to a Philadelphia syndicate in a deal involving approximately four million dollars. Both the Macks and the Philadelphia group are awaiting league approval.

Six of the eight clubs must approve a new owner. Any three can block approval.

As the meeting got under way, it was known that at least two clubs favored the sale of the A's to the Philadelphia group and two wanted the Philadelphia franchise moved to Kansas City.

Here is the way the clubs are believed to be lined up:

Those definitely for the sale of the Philadelphia group — Detroit and Washington.

Those probably for the sale to the Philadelphia group — Chicago and Boston.

Those definitely for the transfer to Kansas City—New York and Baltimore.

On the fence—Cleveland.

On the spot—Philadelphia.

Dan Topping, president of the Yankees and a leader in the fight to shift the A's to Kansas City, was expected to put up a stiff battle against the sale to the Philadelphia group.

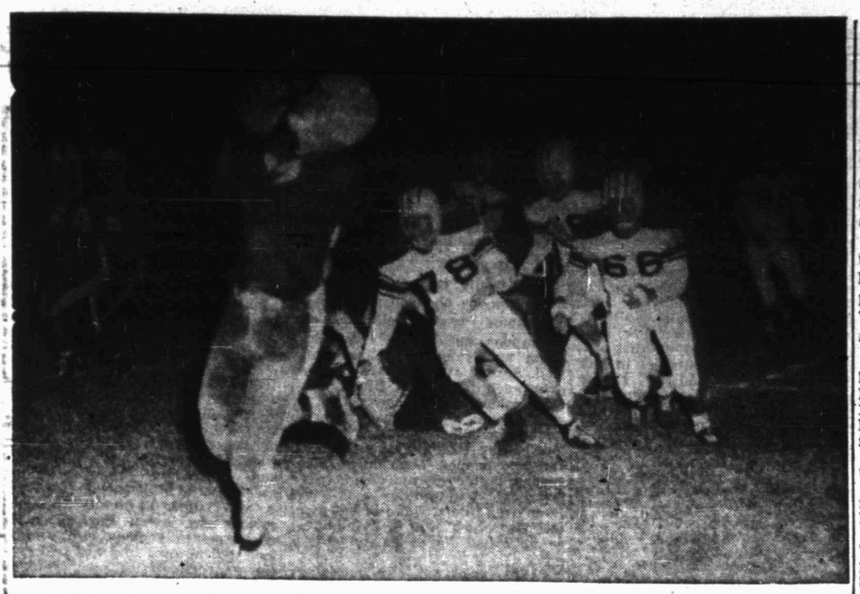
A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE—ALL-NEW FROM THE GROUND UP

CHIEFTAIN PONTIAC

811 25th St. Phone 3-3424

The University of Mississippi has not kicked a field goal since 1951. That year they lost to LSU 26-3.



Bill Lovelace was the biggest threat Vernon had against the Snyder Tigers last week in Snyder's first district win. While Lovelace made more than half the team's ground gain, he caught only one pass. This is it, and he lost three yards on it. Tiger linemen shown heading for Lovelace here are Shorty Grimmett, No. 78, and Steve Blair, No. 66. Pass defense is a speciality of the Tigers, who will meet one of the district's top passers tomorrow night here. (Lee Watson photograph)

Drills Get Rougher As Game Day Nears

Hard work is going into rugged drills on the practice field this week for the Snyder Tigers in preparation for their game here tomorrow night with the Plainview Bulldogs.

While the Tigers hold a victory over a team which downed Plainview, that will not stop them from readying for as big a battle as they would have with any other team. Plainview has been known to get up and strike at some of its roughest opponents, even after losing to some of the weakest.

Coaches John Conley, Horrace Bostic, and Hal Battle are putting the team through the mill, concentrating on team offense and pass defense. The Tigers have become more polished all around in each game and are much improved over the squad which started the season.

Snyder stepped up a notch in district standings with its win over Vernon last week and is now sixth in the eight-team loop. Another victory this week could possibly put the Tigers up to fifth place.

The Tigers have now gained more than a mile on the ground and almost a quarter-mile in the air in six games. Individually, here's how the Tigers stand in many departments:

Scoring — touchdowns, Gerald Crawford six, Jack Spikes five, Joe Baxter three, Jimmy Bennett two, Steve Blair one, Alan Snead one, Powell Berry one, Milton Ham one; extra points, Frankie Minton six out of 14 for 42.8 per cent, Blair one out of five for 20 per cent.

Rushing — Crawford, 450 yards in 57 carries, average 7.8 yards per carry; Baxter, 424 yards in 85 carries, average 4.9; Spikes, 359 in 62 carries, average 5.7; Bennett, 187 in 38 carries, average 4.9; Bernie Hagins, 29 in 18 carries, average 1.6; Berry, 13 in four carries, average 3.2; Carl McDaniel, 12 in four carries, average three.

Passing — Berry, 12 completions out of 23 attempts, or 52.1 per cent, for 262 yards, or an average of 21.8 yards per completion, two for touchdowns, four intercepted; Hagins, seven completions out of 23 attempts, or 30.4 per cent, for 175 yards, or an average of 25 yards per completion, for one touchdown, two intercepted; Bennett, one attempt.

Pass receiving — Snead, five for 140 yards, or an average of 28, and one touchdown; Bennett, four for 101 yards, or an average of 25.2, and one touchdown; Baxter, three for 81, or an average of 27; Ham, two for 55, or an average of 27.5, and one touchdown; Don McNew, three for 36, or an average of 12; Crawford, two for 24, or an average of 12.

Pass interceptions—Berry three, Baxter two, and Doug James one.

Punts — Snead, 25 for 28.4 average; Baxter, three for 26.6 average.

Punt returns — Spikes, five for 18.8 average; Baxter, five for 8.6 average; Blair one for 45; Berry, two for 14 average; Snead, one for five.

Kickoffs — Spikes, 15 for 40.4 average; Minton, seven for 40.1 average; Snead, two for 55 average; John Partain, two for 47.5 average.

Kickoff returns — Baxter, four for 15.7 average; McNew, four for 15.7 average; Crawford, one for 29; Snead, one for six; Berry one for one.

Fumbles — Hagins eight, Baxter five, Crawford five, Spikes four, Bennett two, McNew one, Berry one.

Fumbles recovered — Hagins seven, Blair four, Bennett four, Shorty Grimmett three, Minton three, Ham three, Crawford two, McNew one, James one, and Baxter one.

Six Loses Haven't Killed Bulldog Hope

By BOB CARROLL
PLAINVIEW HEARLD

PLAINVIEW — Plainview's Bulldogs are working just as hard in preparation for the Snyder game this Friday night as if they hadn't lost all of their previous six starts during the 1954 season.

Latest loss by the Bulldogs came Friday night here in Plainview when they fell before the powerful Big Spring Steers 34-7. The Bulldogs played a good first half against the Steers, trailing only 7-0 at halftime, and the only Big Spring score came with only 30 seconds remaining.

But the second half was a different story as the Steers scored almost at will against the Plainview eleven.

Lonnie Holland continues to be the star in the Plainview offense, but the sterling quarterback still needs more help from some of his teammates. He connected on five passes in 11 tries, one of them going eight yards for a touchdown to end Don Staggs. Holland also carried the ball nine times for 34 yards against the big Steer defense.

Outstanding ballcarrier for the Bulldogs in the game was junior fullback Penny Culp, who only broke into the starting offensive lineup two weeks ago. He picked up 40 yards against the Steers in nine tries.

David Kendall, Robert Taylor and Jack Williams also carry the mail for the Bulldogs.

The Plainview eleven has never been able to shake off the loss of big end Bobby Bryant who suffered a broken leg in the second game of the season. The bulldog's passing attack suffered with the loss of the 6-5 receiver and has never quite recovered.

The Bulldogs have played brilliant ball at times this season, but have never been able to play consistent ball, and their chances for the future don't appear too bright.

Lufkin Takes Top In AAA, Snyder 20th

DALLAS (AP)—Lufkin's 53-0 victory over Marshall and Breckenridge's 13-13 tie with Levelland last week added up to a new leader in the Dallas Morning News' poll of Class AAA schoolboy football teams.

The state's sportswriters gave Lufkin the widest first-place margin in the history of the voting when the Panthers' rout of Marshall gave them the best record and highest point total in the state.

Breckenridge, still unbeaten, took second place, while Port Neches, defending AAA state champion, was third.

The top ten, with records in parentheses:

1. Lufkin (6-0)
2. Breckenridge (4-0-1)
3. Port Neches (5-1)
4. Garland (5-0)
5. McAllen (5-1)
6. Palestine (4-1-1)
7. Big Spring (5-0-1)
8. Kilgore (4-1)
9. Levelland (4-1-1)
10. Pharr-San Juan-Alamo (5-0) and Sweetwater (2-2-1) (tie).

In the second ten were Austin McCallum (5-1); Texarkana (4-2); Nacogdoches (4-1); Alice (5-1-1); San Antonio Alamo Heights (5-1-1); Corsicana (3-1-2); Sherman (3-2); Harlingen (4-2); Vernon 3-2-1); Snyder (4-2).

Both Lufkin and Port Neches had easy triumphs last week while Breckenridge was deadlocked with Levelland in a left-handed upset. Lufkin's romp gave the Panthers 261 points for the year, while Port Neches reached 226 with a 33-0 whitewashing of Beaumont South Park.

John Lambert, junior tackle on the University of North Carolina team, is a shotputter on the Tar Heel track team. His home is Rocky River, Ohio.

Houston Gets 7-Foot Cager

HOUSTON (AP) — A basketball player who can lay the ball against the basket rim while standing flat-footed has given punch to University of Houston's prospects this season.

He's the first 7-foot basketballer to appear in Texas colleges and his name is Don Boldebuck, who played two years with Nebraska Wesleyan College where he was an outstanding star.

Boldebuck, who scored 1,759 points and led his team to the NAIA tournament twice—1952 and 1953—waited a year here to establish his eligibility under the transfer rule.

He came to University of Houston to see what he could do in stiffer competition and he will get it. Houston is in the Missouri Valley Conference that has such powers as Oklahoma A&M, St. Louis, Tulsa and Wichita. He also will play against Bradley and Murray State in nonconference games.

Boldebuck weighs 216 pounds and has speed. He can leap from a dead standstill and reach six to eight inches above the hoop.

Houston opens practice Monday with seven lettermen to go with the giant Boldebuck.

Mustangs Scrimmage Against Longhorns' Aerial Patterns

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

University of Texas pass plays clicked for Southern Methodist scrubs Wednesday with more success than the Mustang coaches liked and with a good bit more finesse than for Texas in the Longhorns' first six games.

The Texas pass plays, as run by reserve quarterbacks Jimmy Haynie and Hayes Gilliam in the SMU practice, drew wry praise from Mustang Coach Chalmer Woodard when they completed 85 per cent of their tosses. Woodard scheduled more work on pass defense Thursday.

At Austin, the principal worry seemed to be who would play against SMU Saturday rather than what strategy would be used. An almost unfamiliar first string was tabbed by Coach Ed Price for starting duty after a combination of injuries, disciplinary action and demotions robbed the squad of most of its first-string players.

Largest changes in the series which began Monday were fullback Dan Maroney's elevation to the number one spot in place of Bill Long, confined to his bed with chills and fever, and end Menan Schriewer's move to the sidelines with an ankle injury. His replacement hasn't been named yet, since sophomore wingman Morton Moriarity is also out with an injury. Tackles Buck Lansford and Langford Sneed also are injured.

Edward Hawkins will replace Billy Quinn at right halfback and Chester Simcik will move into Delano Womack's starting left half post, leaving quarterback Brewer as the only holdover from Texas' starting backfield of previous games.

Seven of the nine players ordered to move from Hill Hall, the Texas athletic dormitory, in a disciplinary movement Tuesday, missed Wednesday's drill while hunting apartments.

At the same time, Longhorn Coach Ed Price issued a statement in which he said he wanted to accept a "full share" of the blame for the team's disappointing 2-6 record. Price emphasized that Tuesday's eviction notices were not meant to be a "smokescreen" for overall failures. The players involved were ordered out of the dorm for "misconduct and breaking training." They retained their scholarships.

Injuries were also reported from the Rice and Texas A&M camps, although not in the carload lots revealed by Texas.

Rice Halfback Dicky Moegle was slowed by a bruised heel but put on full pads for a scrimmage cut short by rain. Moegle is expected to be ready to go Saturday against Vanderbilt.

Don Kachtik was out of the Texas A&M lineup with a broken nose, and Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant said he didn't know who would replace the Aggie fullback against Arkansas Saturday. The Aggies practiced lightly Wednesday.

The unbeaten Arkansas Razorbacks worked under the lights in preparation for the conference clash with A&M, the accent being on pass defense. Coach Bowden Wyatt kept the team shy on contact work for the second straight week.

The conference's weakest passing attack came in for some hard work at TCU, where Coach Abe Martin attempted to sharpen the team for Saturday's game with Baylor. Quarterbacks Ronald Clinckscale and Charles (Chuck) Curtis, who have passed for 23 completions in 70 attempts and a .329 record, worked long and hard on aerials.

Baylor also polished a passing game which already glistens as the best in the loop. The Bears, led by Billy Hooper, have completed 46 of 89 throws for a .517 percentage which includes six Hooper touchdown heaves. Wednesday's Baylor drill was held on a wet field.

BIG RALLY IS SET TONIGHT

The high school has scheduled for 6:30 o'clock tonight the biggest pep rally it has thrown this year.

The rally is being held in anticipation of tomorrow night's Snyder-Plainview game here. It will include a big bonfire. The gathering will be held on the vacant ground just east of the football field house.

T. D. Wiman, Jr., high school principal, said the public is invited to the rally.

Lobo Back Leads Loop

By The Associated Press

Sul Ross doesn't win many games but it isn't the fault of Norman Cash.

The hard-driving Lobo back leads the Lone Star Conference in rushing with 592 yards on 91 carries and in total offense with 671 on 95 plays.

Allen Boren of Sam Houston State tops in passing with 489 yards on 31 connections in 82 throws.

Raymond Meyer of Lamar Tech has the brilliant average of 45.4 to top the punters while Bob Baldwin of Sam Houston State is the No. 1 pass-receiver. He has caught 12 for 281 yards.

Sam Houston State is the leader in team offense with an average of 286 yards per game while Texas A&I is the leader in defense, allowing only 224.7 yards per contest.

The top scorer of the league is Baldwin, who has made 49 points—one more than Cash.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

Our corps of eight football game guessers has not yet been able to get its percentage back to 70 yet, but it is at least on its way.

Last week, the group had a season average of 52.1. It is now 62 per cent for picking 635 times right out of 1,024 chances combined.

For this week, the guest picker is the Rev. Ronald Hubbard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who is soon to move to Pampa. Already loyal to his future home, he picked Pampa over Midland this week. Other guests have been Bob Crowell, Clyde Godwin, Bill Morgan, Malven Stevenson, Charles Duran, Wayland Holt, and Miss Mary Lou Devenport.

Here are season averages for the entire group: McNair 66.4 per cent, guests 65.6, Eckstadt 64.7, Feather and Walton 64, Watson 60.9, Pope 58.5, and Gregg 51.5.

Here's a quote from Don Mouser, Plainview coach, speaking of the Snyder Tigers: "They seem to be the most improved club in the district. Week before last they outplayed Sweetwater, only to lose on a couple of bad breaks, 13-12. They took complete charge of Vernon last week, holding a 14-0 lead going into the last minute of the game when Vernon scored against the Tiger reserves."

For all ex-students of Colorado City High School, Friday will be homecoming day. Activities will be highlighted by the big C-City-Stamford game, which will just about determine who will be champion of the Class AA district. Registration of ex-students will start at 6 o'clock that evening in the lobby of the high school. A homecoming queen will be crowned during halftime at the game. On Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the ex-students will get together in the high school auditorium for an organizational meeting.

Proselyting Charge Leveled On Bowie

AUSTIN (AP)—A decision will probably be announced Friday on a charge that Bowie High School recruited a player from Burkburnett High School for its basketball team.

The executive committee of the Texas Interscholastic League took the charge, levelled last week by Burkburnett, under advisement yesterday after a hearing at which officials of both schools appeared.

Burkburnett, represented by Supt. of Schools R. M. Davis, coaches J. B. Tyler and Ted Averitt and student Tommie Dickson, repeated its charge that Bowie lured 6-foot 9-inch Carl Raleigh away from Burkburnett to work and attend school.

Bowie Principal Paul Taliaferro denied the accusation. He was accompanied by Supt. of Schools Claude Thompson and Mark High, Bowie contractor.

Last Chance Today For Ticket Drawing

DALLAS (AP)—Today marked the final chance for participation in drawings for tickets to the 1955 Cotton Bowl football game.

Applications must be postmarked by midnight tonight to be eligible for the mail ticket sale for the New Year's Day classic. Some 25,000 tickets are available to the public.

Applications for 48,000 tickets have already been received, making the yearly drawing necessary to determine which requests will be filled.

Famous Trichologist Will Demonstrate How To Grow Thicker Hair . . . And Guarantees It! Demonstration To Be Held Here

The new method of home treatment of saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Snyder, Texas, Friday ONLY Oct. 29, 1954. These private individual demonstrations will be held at the Manhattan Hotel on Friday ONLY, October 29, 12 noon to 9 p. m.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 20—In an interview here today Wm. L. Keele, internationally famous trichologist and president of the Keele Hair and Scalp Specialists, Inc., said: "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

GUARANTEED

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Keele said.

Once a person avails himself of the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days, your money will be refunded."

HOPELESS CASES DISCOURAGED

First the trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely shiny bald is he in this last category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin or colorless, the Keele treatment can perform wonders.

A complete, private examination is given by a trichologist to determine the condition of his scalp and cause for his hair trouble.

FREE EXAMINATIONS

This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. The trichologist makes no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination, the person is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, the person makes regular reports to the Keele firm in Oklahoma City to check the progress of the home treatment.

To spread the opportunity of normal, healthy hair to the thousands who are desperately looking for help, independent trichologists are visiting various cities throughout the United States to conduct examinations and start home treatment.

NO CURE-ALL

"We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness," Keele emphasizes. "If there is fuzz, the root is still capable of creating hair and we can perform what seems to be a miracle."

There is one thing Keele wants to be certain every man and woman knows. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

HAIR FOR LIFETIME

"If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Keele said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment, it all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

HOW'S YOUR HAIR?

If it worries you, call Trichologist R. Rance Pierce at the Manhattan Hotel in Snyder, Tex., on Friday ONLY, October 29, 12 noon to 9:00 p. m. The public is invited. You do not need an appointment. The examinations are private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

Autumn Comes To Table With Tasty Sweet Potato Dishes

The frost on the pumpkin and the autumn hues of trees preparing for a cold, cold winter very often aren't part of the seasonal wealth of West Texans.

Somehow, our Indian summer is just mostly summer, the frost comes late, and our trees don't seem to want to change into brilliant red and orange dress. But that's no reason to keep the autumn foods off the table. In fact, the Texas cook can often point with much pride to an abundant fall harvest that far outdoes what a Yankee housewife can find in the market.

Right now the very best of the fall crop is the sweet potato, or yam, a Louisiana and East Texas speciality created by the good earth for the month of October.

Yams and sweet potatoes are not the same. Yams, a much more tubular root than the sweet potato, are better known as the Chinese potato, for they are an ancient vegetable of Asia, tasting somewhat like the sweet potato. They are seldom grown commercially in the United States, and then only in the southeastern part. However, the more moist-fleshed sweet potatoes are often referred to as yams.

Unlike most vegetables, sweet potatoes are an every-meal food. They can be fancy, such as flavored with wine and fluffed up in orange cups surrounding a roast turkey, or they can be very plain, just baked with a little brown sugar and butter.

If it's a special breakfast dish your family is looking for, say, when everyone has time to enjoy the meal serve some special flavored griddle cakes with a hint of mellow sweetness that comes from adding mashed sweet potatoes to the batter. Mix the batter the night before, if you wish, and keep in the refrigerator. It's a thin batter that bakes fast and gives light, thin cakes.

SWEET POTATO GRIDDLE CAKES

1½ cups sifted all purpose flour
2 tablespoons sugar
¾ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 eggs
1¼ cups milk
½ cup mashed cooked sweet potatoes
¼ cup melted butter or margarine

Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Beat eggs; add sweet potatoes and milk; mix well. Combine with dry ingredients, mixing until smooth. Add melted butter or margarine. Drop by spoonfuls on hot griddle. Bake, turning to brown on both sides. Yields four servings.

For extra good griddle cakes, serve them with a spicy syrup or sauce. These two would taste excellent with the sweet potato mixture:

SPICY APPLESAUCE

1 cup canned applesauce
¼ cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup butter or margarine

Combine applesauce, brown sugar, nutmeg and cinnamon; bring to boil. Simmer five minutes; add butter or margarine, stir until melted. Serve hot on griddle cakes.

MAPLE-ORANGE SAUCE

1 cup maple syrup
½ teaspoon grated orange rind
1-3 cup butter

Combine ingredients in saucepan. Place over medium heat and boil two or three minutes, stirring well. Serve hot on griddle cakes.

SWEET POTATO GRIDDLE CAKES
. . . serve with hot, spicy sauce

Fried potato pancakes for breakfast make a hearty Texas meal, and sweet potatoes are just as adaptable. A perfect accompaniment for generous servings of scrambled eggs would be these ham and sweet potato patties.

HAM AND SWEET POTATO PATTIES

2 cups cooked ham, cut fine
2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 egg
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup pineapple, cut fine
2 cups crushed cornflakes
2 to 4 tablespoons fat

Combine all ingredients except cornflakes and 2 to 4 tablespoons fat. Shape into 8 patties. Dip in cornflakes (or use bread or fine cracker crumbs). Melt two tablespoons fat in skillet. Brown patties slowly, adding more fat as necessary. Fry on both sides until crisp and well browned.

When you are baking sweet potatoes choose ones of uniform size and similar shape, so the baking time will be the same for all of them. If you are boiling sweet potatoes, do it in the peel as they will peel more easily after cooking and more food value will be retained.

For interesting variety, baked sweet potatoes can be split open and flavored with honey, brown sugar, or a little orange juice and grated rind before serving. These toppings can also be added to sweet potatoes peeled and baked in a casserole. Peanut butter can be a touch of the unusual when baked sweet potatoes are scraped out while still hot and seasoned with butter, salt and peanut butter. Allow one-third cup of peanut butter for six medium-sized potatoes. Whip until blended. Pile lightly into the potato shells, sprinkle with chopped peanuts, and return to the oven until surface is browned.

Marshmallows are a very favorite accompaniment for sweet potatoes, usually topping them in a casserole. But this recipe calls for wrapping the sweet potatoes around the marshmallows.

MARSHMALLOW SWEET POTATO BALLS

2 cups cooked mashed sweet potatoes
1 egg yolk
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
6 marshmallows
1 cup crushed cereal crumbs
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

In a bowl combine sweet potatoes, egg yolk, salt and two tablespoons of butter. Divide mixture into six portions. Flatten portions; place a marshmallow in center of each. Shape potato mixture around marshmallow, leaving small opening in top. Combine crushed cereal crumbs with two tablespoons butter. Roll each sweet potato ball in buttered crumbs; place on greased cooky sheet. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Serve immediately.

Sweet potatoes are most seen in a casserole, either mashed and spiced or sliced and bubbling hot with brown sugar and butter. For a very light casserole, treat the sweet potatoes as if they were in a souffle, and serve the dish with leftover creamed turkey or chicken. An excellent meal.

LEMON SWEET POTATO PUFF

1-3 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1½ tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup milk
3 eggs, separated
3 cups mashed cooked sweet potatoes

Combine mayonnaise, salt, lemon rind, lemon juice and milk. Beat egg yolks and add to mayonnaise mixture; mix well. Add mayonnaise mixture to mashed sweet potatoes; beat until light and fluffy. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold into sweet potato mixture. Turn into greased nine-inch square pan. Sprinkle with grated cheese, if desired. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 to 35 minutes. Makes six servings.

Aside from deserving a place of its own as a vegetable, the sweet potato, when combined with meat, becomes a central one-dish meal.

An old standy-by is the sweet potato pie, where a regular meat pie has a light crust of sweet potatoes flavored with orange marmalade. The potato is also put on the bottom of the pie.

SWEET POTATO PIE

¼ pound pork, chopped
½ pound veal, chopped
3 cups seasoned mashed sweet potatoes
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg
2 tablespoons orange marmalade
2 tablespoons fat
¼ cup finely diced onion
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon ginger
¾ cup water
1 tablespoon cornstarch

Have butcher grind veal and pork together. Prepare about 2 pounds of sweet potatoes. Combine mashed sweet potatoes, bread crumbs, egg and marmalade, mixing thoroughly. Use to line a greased nine-inch pie plate on the bottom and sides. Melt fat over moderate heat in frying pan. Add onion and cook one minute. Add ground meat, pulled into small pieces, and cook until lightly browned. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, and ginger. Combine and add water and cornstarch. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Pour meat mixture into sweet potato crust. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., until potato is lightly browned and pie is thoroughly hot, about 30 minutes. Serve immediately in pie-shaped wedges. Serves four to six.

The old favorite, corned beef and cabbage, takes a twist for the better when the beef is cooked in a ring mold and filled with sweet potatoes creamed with cheese. The cabbage wedges are lightly sprinkled with paprika and served on the side.

CORNED BEEF RING AND SWEET POTATOES

4 cups cooked corned beef
2 cups soft bread crumbs
¼ cup chopped onion
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons horseradish
1½ teaspoons dry mustard
⅓ cup milk
2 cups grated processed Cheddar cheese
6 medium-sized sweet potatoes, cooked and peeled
Paprika

Put corned beef through food chopper or chop very fine. Combine corned beef, bread crumbs, onion, eggs, one cup milk, horseradish and mustard; mix well. Turn into very well greased eight-inch ring mold and bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 45 minutes to one hour, or until firm. Combine one-half cup milk and cheese; cook over low heat until cheese is melted, stirring constantly. Cut sweet potatoes in half lengthwise and add to cheese sauce. Heat to serving temperature. Unmold corned beef ring and fill center with cheese potatoes. Sprinkle lightly with paprika. Makes six servings.

In this easy to prepare casserole sweet potatoes and sausage are spiced with applesauce for a hearty meal. Add sauerkraut on the side to complete the menu, a perfect autumn dinner.

AUTUMN DINNER

6 medium sized sweet poatoes, cooked, peeled and mashed
2 eggs, slightly beaten
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
12 link sausages
1 No. 2 can sauerkraut

Combine sweet poatoes, applesauce, eggs, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg; mix well and turn into greased one and one-half quart casserole. Panfry sausages until browned. Arrange sausages over sweet potato mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Heat sauerkraut to serving temperature; serve with sweet potato casserole.

Sweet potatoes also take well to fish, and what goes with fish any better than wine? You can have all three in this fillet dish stuffed with sweet potatoes and baked in wine.

SWEET POTATOES AND FISH FILLETS

4 medium sized sweet potatoes, cooked, peeled and mashed
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
¼ cup minced onion
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
1¼ pounds fillets of sole
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
Salt and pepper
½ cup white table wine
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Combine sweet potatoes, one tablespoon butter or margarine, onion and salt and pepper; mix well. Spread sweet potato mixture over each fillet; roll fillets jelly-roll fashion around sweet potato stuffing and fasten securely with toothpicks. Place in greased, shallow baking pan and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Melt three tablespoons butter or margarine over low heat; add parsley and wine. Pour over fillets. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with a fork.

Believe it or not, sweet potatoes also appear for dessert. A sweet potato spice cake is an old favorite, but here is a new recipe for sweet potato refrigerator cookies, making about 72 cookies.

SWEET POTATO COOKIES

½ cup butter or margarine
2-3 cup sugar
1¼ cups sweet potatoes, cooked peeled, and mashed
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1¾ cups sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ cup chopped nuts

In a bowl cream butter or margarine; gradually add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Add sweet potatoes and egg and beat until well mixed; add vanilla. In a bowl sift together flour, cinnamon, nutmeg, salt and baking powder; add to sweet potato mixture with chopped nuts. Mix all ingredients until well blended. Shape dough into smooth roll and wrap in waxed paper. Chill until firm enough to slice. Slice ¼ inch thick and place on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes, or until cookies are done. For chocolate sweet potato cookies omit cinnamon and nutmeg and add two one-ounce squares of unsweetened chocolate, which have been melted, to dough after all ingredients have been added.

JAYCEETTES HALLOWEEN PARTY

Birthday Enjoyed By Siamese Twins

By RICARD J. BROWN

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Nature winked at the little Galyon boys and they came back smiling.

For them, life is a cumbersome shift of taking turns walking backward because Donnie and Ronnie are Siamese twins, joined at the abdomen. Somebody has to sleep on the bottom when they get tucked in at night.

But the boys were laughing today as they celebrated their third birthday with an ice cream and cake party for the family. Cowboy shirts and cap guns brought grins to faces as clean and bright as milk.

"They're just plain boy," their mother, Mrs. Wesley Galyon, says.

The blond, blue-eyed brothers started to walk last March and carry themselves to the television set. Mrs. Galyon said:

"They raise an awful fuss if it's time to eat and a pet program is on. They have wonderful appetites and eat just about everything."

Physicians said last year surgery would mean death for one of the boys because they share vital internal organs. Not enough vital organs for both have been detected yet to make separation advisable.

But their father said, "We'll never separate them. We don't even talk about it any more."

This birthday Ronnie is the taller but it was Donnie who once was the big one. Donnie is the "wriggliest" too, Mrs. Galyon said, so we have to put him on the bottom when they sleep at night. Otherwise he squirms around and they fall out of bed."

Mrs. Galyon recalls:

"Everything in their development happened at once. Donnie was first in everything, but it didn't take Ronnie long to catch up. In fact, Ronnie can say sentences now. Donnie's still at the single word stage."

And so the balance of nature swings back and forth between the bright-eyed brothers, first favoring one and then the other.

Toscanini's Orchestra Plays Without Maestro

NEW YORK (AP)—Arturo Toscanini's orchestra, the former NBC Symphony, gave a concert here last night without the Maestro—in fact, with the conductor's stand conspicuously empty.

After Toscanini announced his retirement and returned to his native Italy, NBC disbanded the group.

But last night they assembled at Carnegie Hall and won long and loud applause from a large crowd.

Concert master Daniel Guilet gave the men their cues.

Toscanini had been invited to return and conduct the concert, but his son Walter cabled from Italy that the Maestro was "firm in his resolution to remain in retirement."

Lattimore Case Brings Unusual Protest Before Federal Bench

By ED CREAGH
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the things Americans pride themselves on is that every man accused of a crime is entitled to a fair trial.

This works two ways, of course. Just as the trial must be fair to the accused, it must give the accusers — the government—a fair shake too.

Almost always when a cry of bias is raised it comes from the defendant. But now such a cry comes from the government, by way of the Justice Department.

The government claims it can't get a fair trial of Owen J. Lattimore, the long-controversial Far Eastern specialists, because the trial judge, Luther W. Youngdahl, is biased in Lattimore's favor.

And U.S. Dist. Judge Youngdahl, refusing to take himself out of the case, charges Justice Department lawyers with trying to intimidate the courts.

It's a strikingly unusual situation. Here is how it came about:

Late in 1952 a federal grand jury indicated Lattimore on charges of lying to a Senate subcommittee. There were seven counts in the indictment. The key charge was that Lattimore lied when he said he never had been "a sympathizer and promoter of communism and Communist interests."

Lattimore's lawyers went to court—asked that the indictment be thrown out. Their petition went before Youngdahl, a Republican governor of Minnesota until he went on the federal bench, and Youngdahl threw out four of the seven counts. He held the key charge and three others were too vague to have any legal meaning.

But he went beyond that.

He also voiced "serious doubt" in his written opinion, whether the three remaining charges would stand up in court either.

The government protested. It asked the U.S. Court of Appeals to put back the four counts knocked out by Youngdahl. The higher court did put back two of them. But it upheld Youngdahl 8-1 on the main issue and ruled the "sympathizer and promoter" charge must not go to a jury.

So the government, in effect, started over again. It laid its case before a new grand jury. And early this month Lattimore was indicted for a second time. This time that word "sympathizer" was left out. Instead Lattimore was accused of falsely denying he had been a "follower" of the Communist line" and a "promoter of Communist interests."

But the government wasn't through yet. The federal prosecutor, U.S. Atty. Leo A. Rover, formally asked Youngdahl to remove himself as the judge in Lattimore's forthcoming trial.

Rover said he wasn't questioning Youngdahl's honor or integrity. But he declared Youngdahl has "a fixed, personal bias and prejudice" in favor of Lattimore. And he said this is proved by the language Youngdahl used in ruling on the original indictment.

Under the law, all Youngdahl had to do at this point — without going into the $4 legal words involved—was either get out of the case or dismiss the government's protest. He didn't have to give reasons. In fact, as Youngdahl himself noted, the law doesn't let him pass on the truth or falsity of such charges as Rover made.

But Youngdahl, in announcing he would stay on the bench in the trial, chose to blister the hide of Rover and—by implication—of the whole Justice Department. He said those who challenged him acted irresponsibly and recklessly." And he declared:

"... I cannot escape from the conclusion that the purpose of the affidavit is to discredit, in the public mind, the final action of the courts, or else to intimidate the courts themselves."

Now this, if true, would be a pretty serious offense by any lawyer. But the Justice Department continues to voice full confidence in Rover. It hasn't said what it will do next. Nobody doubts more will be heard of this row before the Jan. 10 trial date rolls around.

Rhee Orders Probe Of Finance Officials

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today ordered his Cabinet to make "a thorough investigation" of alleged improper procedures involving South Korean government financial officials.

A National Assembly investigating committee reported last Tuesday that former Prime Minister and Finance Minister Paik Too Chin and other financial officials used "favoritism and pressure" to obtain improper loans for their friends.

Paik now is economic coordinator handling the U.S. aid program. He called the report "a political intrigue schemed by a group of ambitious men."

New Speed Mark Set

CHICAGO (AP)—United Air Lines said that a UAL DC07, aided by 50 M.P.H. tail winds, set a new commercial speed record of 5 hours and 7 minutes yesterday for the nonstop Chicago-Los Angeles flight.

Paine's Bust Gets Brushoff

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tom Paine's marble bust has been given the brushoff, but the dust is still there.

The marble likeness of the early American patriot continues to sit in the dank cellar of historic old Independence Hall.

Overruling the Philadelphia Art Commission, which voted on Sept. 22 to end a 78-year-old controversy by bringing the bust out of storage the National Park Service yesterday decided that it would be "undesirable" to put the statue on view.

The decision was made, said M. O. Anderson, superintendent of Independence National Historical Park, "after careful review of the National Park Service policy."

The bust, completed in 1876, is ineligible for Independence Hall proper because only art created in the period from 1776 to 1787 is permitted there, Anderson said.

Boys Armed With Toy Gun Bring In Pheasant

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — A pair of 5-year-old boys, armed with a broken toy shotgun, crowed happily over their hunting trophy—a live but dejected pheasant peering from an improvised coop.

The hunters, Jerry Lee Peck and Brian Maynard, surprised their parents when they brought home the bird, clutched in Jerry's arms.

The boys stoutly insist, "We shot it with our gun." Neither family has been able to solve the riddle.

Mergers Get Attention Of Government

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Mergers which spotlighted business this year and captured the attention of stock traders are coming under close government scrutiny. The aim of the study is to see whether the public gains or loses by them.

Leaders of big business argue that the public is the gainer. They say that competition between large corporations is keener because they have the brawn with which to fight harder and must fight hard or else fall of their own weight. They contend that making a bigger corporation out of two or more small, weaker ones results in more competition and that the public gains thereby.

The argument on the other side is that when a few big corporations dominate an industry, the little fellows die off one by one. And the public has very little choice when it goes out to buy products or services.

Since World War II, more than 7,000 mergers or other forms of one company acquiring another's business have been recorded. This year has seen a spate of big ones.

The Federal Trade Commission says it is studying 209 of these business realignments, chiefly in the field of autos, metals, chemicals, baking, dairy, paper and textiles.

The Justice Department has 28 merger plans before it, submitted by companies seeking its approval.

It has disapproved the proposed merger of Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube and warns that if the companies go ahead with their plans anyway, it will bring an antitrust suit in the courts.

Disapproval is based on Section 7 of the Clayton Act, as amended in 1950, which prohibits acquisition by one concern of the physical assets of another if the effect would be to lessen competition substantially or to tend to create a monopoly.

The steel companies insist their proposed merger would do no such thing, and, in fact, would actually give U.S. Steel, the giant in the industry, more competition.

Gold is one of the softest of the metals.

Racial Verdict To Be Mailed

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—A federal court decision in a segregation case involving Texarkana College will be mailed to the litigants.

Federal Dist. Judge Joe Sheehy said here yesterday at the close of the trial that eligibility of the plaintiffs to attend the college "regardless of race" concerned him.

Sheehy dismissed the term of court and told attorneys for the Negro plaintiffs and Texarkana College he would prepare his decision in the "very near future" and mail it to them.

In neither direct questioning nor in cross-examination was a witness asked to prove that the plaintiffs were graduates of an accredited high school, a point of eligibility to attend the college.

The three students who testified were Misses Wilma Dean Whitmore, Bobby Jean Whittaker, and Mrs. Betty Lee Washington Edwards.

Mountbatten Gets Honor

LONDON (AP)—Adm. Earl Mountbatten, commander in chief of Allied forces in the Mediterranean, today was named Britain's first sea lord.

The appointment, the highest in the British navy, gave the handsome 54-year-old admiral the post his German-born father, Prince Louis of Battenberg, was forced to give up under public pressure in the first World War.

Prince Louis played a major role in building up the British navy after he became first sea lord in 1912. He resigned two months after war broke out because his German name and ancestry was causing the government embarrassment.

Young Mountbatten, then a 15-year-old naval cadet, pledged himself to restore the family to an honored place in naval annals. His lifelong ambition was to become first sea lord.
