Forty-Eight Die In Crash Of Airliner

Marcel Cerdan, French Boxer, Eleven Americans Perish On Peak In Azores

(By The Associated Press)

PONTA DELGADA, Sao Miguel, The Azores, Oct. 28—Salvage squads groped their way tonight about the charred wreckage of an Air France Constellation on a Sao Miguel mountain, seeking bodies of the victims and clues to the cause of the crash.

None of the 48 persons aboard survived, Air France announced. There was mourning in the fields of sport, art and business.

Marcel Cerdan, French middleweight boxer hoping to regain the world title, was one of those listed as perishing in the darkness early today on the 3,500-foot high Algarvia peak.

Yachtsman Perishes

Remigio Hernandorena, prominent Cuban yachtsman, was another aboard the air liner, bound from Paris to New York.

Miss Ginette Neveu, French concert violinist, the French portrait painter Bernard Boutet de Monvel and a group of American business men and women were others among the 37 passengers. Eleven Americans in all were aboard. Eleven crewmen made up the death roll.

Georges Carpentier, once a boxer himself, said in Paris that, in Cerdan, "France has lost one of its greatest champions. It is a true period of national mourning."

Charred bodies and fragments of flesh were found over a radius of 500 yards. Four or five bodies were more or less recognizable, but were not immediately identified, the searchers said.

Sheepherders in the vicinity said they saw the plane aflame before it fell. The craft crashed near the tip of the peak, 90 miles by sea north of the Santa Maria air base, where it had been scheduled to land for refueling.

The plane, in command of the veteran Capt. Jean de la Noue, 37, dropped out of radio contact with ground bases after sending a message at 2:50 a. m. (8:50 p. m. CST Thursday):

"Having accomplished first part of trip normally, ready to land at 2:55 on Santa Maria airdrome, Azores, weather being clear."

Eight hours later the wreckage was sighted on Sao Miguel, 90 miles north of Santa Maria, at the extreme southeast side of the rugged, Portuguese archipelago in the eastern Atlantic.

Air force officials said the weather turned bad. They could not explain why they had heard nothing from the plane after its 2:50 a. m. report.

Cerdan was flying to New York

Truman Signs Arms Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (AP)—President Truman put his OK today on a $1,314,010,000 outlay to help build up a global defense against Communism.

He took that action in signing the foreign arms appropriation bill which Congress voted just before it adjourned. The measure contains a billion dollars for European members of the Atlantic alliance, with the remainder earmarked for military aid to Greece, Turkey, Iran, the Philippines, Korea and the China area.

Before the bulk of the Atlantic pact defense allotment can be released, however, Mr. Truman must approve the master strategy plan now being drafted for use against any Communist threat in Europe. Final agreement on that mutual aid program is expected by December 1.

The arms bill also contained an extra $62,000,000 for U. S. military construction in Alaska and Okinawa—two of this country's strong points guarding approaches to the Pacific coast.

There is also $30,000,000 for economic aid to Korea; $7,250,000 for assistance to crowded school districts in defense areas; $6,000,000 in cash and $24,000,000 in contract authority for construction of Air Force experimental wind tunnels; and $5,500,000 to pay the government of Finland for Finnish ships seized in American ports at the start of the war.

The arms aid funds are earmarked this way:

For North Atlantic pact nations, $500,000,000 in cash and $500,000,000 in contract authority.

For Greece and Turkey: $211,370,000 in cash.

For Iran, Korea and the Philippines, $27,640,000.

For the China area, $75,000,000.

The bulk of the arms aid money cannot be spent until the President accepts unified defense plans being worked out by nations that have signed the North Atlantic pact.

One Man Killed In Train Wreck

LITTLE RIVER, Tex., Oct. 28 (AP)—A 33-car stackup of a Missouri-Kansas-Texas freight train near this little Bell county town early today killed one transient and injured two others and blocked traffic all day on the railroad's main line.

A broken wheel on the third car of the 45-car train was blamed for scattering the 33 cars and their contents along the track. One car was pitched into Little river. Others were stacked crazily along the right of way.

Rail Traffic Delayed

H. M. Warden of the railroad said traffic would not be resumed

Fog, Cooler Weather Forecast For Area

Fog similar to that which blanketed the South Plains Friday morning is expected to cover the area again this morning, but the Weatherman said the fog would lift by mid-morning or earlier.

Otherwise, the forecast called for partly cloudy today, tonight and Sunday, turning a little cooler Sunday night. A cold mass of air moving in from the Aleutian Islands may drop Sunday night temperatures from three to five degrees. Little temperature change is seen before then.

Friday morning fog stayed over the Municipal airport until noon, forcing a chartered Braniff DC-4 to fly circles around Lubbock for five hours and keeping scheduled airliners from landing. The Braniff four-engine plane, brought here to fly the Texas Tech football team to Houston, finally landed at 11:50 a.m., picked up the Tech team and flew to Houston.

Friday's fog was one of the densest seen here in months, and cut visibility to near zero on city streets.

Solons Demand Matthews Resignation

Protest Storm Rages Over Denfeld Ouster

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — A storm of protest broke today over the firing of Admiral Louis Denfeld as the Navy's top admiral, and at least two Congress members demanded that Secretary of the Navy Matthews resign.

Matthews met Denfeld face-to-face and offered him a new lesser post, but Denfeld kept silent on whether he will accept it or throw up his 40-year naval career entirely. An aide, Capt. Walter Karig, said the admiral probably would do the latter.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) called for Matthews to resign "so that a new top team can function properly." He said it is "imperative" for Matthews to quit.

GOP Solon Raps Matthews

Rep. Bates (R-Mass) also clamored for the scalp of Matthews, who insisted that Denfeld be shifted from the post of chief of naval operations. President Truman announced the shift yesterday.

Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass) said the ousting of Denfeld and announced cuts in naval strength had thrust "a dagger into the heart of the United States Navy."

Meanwhile, Capt. Karig, Denfeld's special aide, said a number of naval associates of Denfeld have told the admiral they were "ready to turn in their suits." Karig said Denfeld advised them all to stay in the service.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services committee said the ouster will be "dealt with" on the floor of the House in January, and in his committee's report on the armed services row.

Vinson charged that Denfeld had been forced to "walk the plank" in reprisal for his testimony before the House committee in angry hearings on the split in the military high command.

Deluged by expressions of sympathy over his removal, Denfeld said in a fighting speech to Navy men today that no other service and "no individual" is going to hurt the Navy.

And to a friend who telephoned from Houston, the 58-year-old admiral declared:

"I'm sure I did the right thing. I have no regrets whatever."

Secretary of Defense Johnson denied Denfeld was ousted in reprisal for his congressional testimony. Johnson injected a new twist into the bitter controversy in a letter to Rep. Bates implying that the admiral was removed because he lacked "the necessary qualifications" for the job as chief of naval operations.

In Boston, Bates demanded that Secretary of the Navy Matthews —not Denfeld—be fired.

Replying to Bates, Secretary Johnson said he had sent a memo to the civilian secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force saying "there must be no reprisals" as a result of the hearing on Capitol Hill.

Comment from Congress members generally sizzled with anger at what they termed the "purge" of Denfeld, and it was clear that President Truman's action in dropping the admiral had shocked a big

Setbacks Hinted For Chinese Reds

CHUNGKING, China, Oct. 28. (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists declared things were looking better on the civil war fronts today, but they forbade publication of any military news not issued through official channels.

The defense ministry threatened unspecified punishment of offenders against the press ban.

(Unofficial sources habitually have been the first to disclose news of government setbacks.)

Gen. Teng Wen-Yi, official army spokesman, told his weekly news conference that the Communists still were no nearer than 90 miles northeast of Kweilin, Kwansi province base. He said the Nationalists were giving as good as they got in fighting on that front.

Counterattacks Reported

Teng acknowledged Red capture of three towns 200 to 230 miles east of Chungking, but declared Nationalist counterattacks 230 miles southeast, near the town of Chinkiang, had forced the Communists to divert a whole army there as reinforcements.

He reiterated previous Nationalist announcements of a major victory on Chinmen island, off the coast of Red-held Amoy. The Reds who attempted to invade the island have now all been wiped out, he said, more than 20,000 being killed and 6,000 captured.

The Reds were conceded to be

Federal Pay Boost Okayed By Truman

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (INS)—President Truman today signed into law legislation providing pay increases to 800,000 civil service workers and 400,000 postal employes.

The civil service bill provides a $140 annual raise and the postal measure a $120 yearly increase.

Mr. Truman said in a statement that the civil service bill is a "major step forward" toward better personnel administration and effective government management.

Union Board Okays Strike At Dallas Aircraft Plant

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28. (AP)—The CIO United Automobile Workers union executive board today authorized a strike at the Chance-Vought Aircraft plant in Dallas.

Charles Mill, president of the plant local, appeared before the 22-man board, which unanimously approved his request.

The union, which recently won a bargaining election, is attempting to negotiate a first contract. In dispute are wages and other issues.

No date for the strike was set.

Millionaire Withdraws Offer To Endow Mississippi School

(By The Associated Press)

NATCHEZ, Miss., Oct. 28. — Millionaire George W. Armstrong announced tonight he has withdrawn his offer of a $50,000,000 endowment to Jefferson Military college.

"I have concluded to withdraw my offer to endow the college and to give my estate to the Judge Armstrong foundation now under attack by the Truman New Deal administration," he declared.

The 84-year-old wealthy Texas manufacturer and Mississippi land baron is known as "the judge" since his young days in Texas when he was a county judge.

His announcement was contained in a letter to Elliot Trimble, public relations counsel for the college.

It came as a surprise because the college board of trustees is scheduled to meet here at 9 a.m. tomorrow to take formal action on Armstrong's offer.

Armstrong indicated in his letter he withdrew his fabulous offer to the 147-year-old prep school in nearby Washington after a statement by trustees yesterday saying there is no desire or intention to alter or change the college charter and that "students of all de-

Living Costs On Increase

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—An increase of one-half of one per cent in the cost of living was reported today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The rise in consumer prices from mid-August to mid-September was the largest monthly increase all year.

The cost of almost everything the consumer buys went up a little, except clothing. Apparel prices were down about one-tenth of one per cent—or a nickle on a $50 suit of clothes. It was the eleventh successive monthly decrease in clothing prices and they now stand about 7 per cent lower than last year.

Comparisons Made

Living costs still were three per cent lower than the record peak reached in September, 1948. However, the level last month was 27 per cent higher than in June 1946, when price controls ended, and 72 per cent above pre-war August, 1939.

Higher price tags were applied last month to food, up 0.8 per cent; fuel, 0.9 per cent; house furnishings, 0.4 per cent; rents, 0.3 per cent; and miscellaneous goods and services such as automobiles, soap and doctor bills, 0.3 per cent.

Food prices were a little more than double what they averaged during the last five years before World War II, although they were down 5 per cent lower than a year ago.

No Effect On GM Pay

The higher living costs index had no immediate effect on the wages of General Motors workers, which are tied partly to the rise and fall of the BLS guide figure. Under their contract, wages are readjusted only once in three months. The next is due in November.

Food prices were dominant in the cost of living increase, International News Service reported, and an unexpected rise in meat prices was the chief cause of the boost.

As meat costs represent the bulk of food prices, the increase surprised the economists in view of predicted declines, particularly in pork, where a huge supply surplus is expected. The pork price

Leftists Merge For CIO Battle

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28 (AP)—The merger of the CIO's Farm Equipment Workers into the United Electrical Workers lent additional ammunition tonight for a slambang right wing-left wing battle at the CIO convention here next week.

The Farm Equipment Workers' executive board said in Chicago that the merger was approved by an 84 per cent majority, reducing the international union to the status of a division of the left-wing UE.

In merging with the electrical workers, the FE violated a year-old CIO order to join with Walter Reuther's right-wing United Auto Workers.

The FE has a membership of about 20,000; the UE about 400,000.

Merger To Be Ignored

CIO Vice President Allan S. Haywood said the newly announced merger would not be recognized by the CIO and will have no effect on the size of delegations representing either the FE or the UE.

"The jurisdiction belongs to the auto workers," said Haywood.

The FE is 11 months in arrears in its per capita taxes payable to the CIO and for this reason has no hopes of having a delegation at the convention.

But even if this happens, said Haywood, neither the FE nor the Strike Threatens To Stop Houston Buses Wednesday

HOUSTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—Houston's city buses will stop rolling at midnight Wednesday unless Federal conciliation or some sort of arbitration can end the deadlock between CIO bus drivers and the Houston Transit company.

Bus drivers, mechanics and maintenance workers voted 791 to 76 to strike, and they voted 840 to 26 to reject a company proposal of a 10-cent hourly pay boost and some other contract benefits.

Federal Labor Conciliator James O. Hubbard, advised of the strike vote, said he had no comment except that he would talk to the union and the company tomorrow morning about resuming conciliation meeting.

Austin Child Is Rescued After Fall Into 18-Foot Cistern Pipe

By BO BYERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. — Bobby Andrew Gow, a 3-year-old tyke with reddish golden hair, was rescued from the bottom of an 18-foot cistern pipe at 5:42 p. m. today.

He was rushed to a hospital where his condition was reported good.

Triumphant shouts and hand clapping applauded Bobby's appearance, climax to a feverish three-hour rescue effort.

"They've got him...he's alive," cried men and women as master mechanic M. R. Miller of the Austin Fire department lifted the tiny body from a hole cut in the side of the 8-inch pipe that had held him captive.

The firemen handed him quickly but gently to police Lt. Otto Ludwig, who transferred him to a stretcher. A cordon of police and firemen held back some 2,000 onlookers as the lad, wrapped in a blanket, was carried to a waiting ambulance and rushed to Brackenridge hospital.

His mother, Mrs. James Gow, accompanied him. The

MOVE 'THREATENS' CONSTRUCTION

Roofers Union Here Stages 'Walkout' On Pay Demand

ABOUT half of approximately 60 members of the Lubbock Roofers Union Local No. 214 refused to report for their jobs Friday as a protest to refusal of Lubbock roofing contractors to grant them a 12½ cents an hour raise.

The move, which neither union men nor contractors would term a formal "strike," carried a potential threat, however, of halting completion of work on millions of dollars worth of construction now underway in the city.

Numerous large-scale housing projects, business buildings and other work would be affected should the "protest" continue or develop until a full fledged walkout. Work on most projects continued with little or no interruption Friday, however.

Met Thursday Night

Decision to stay away from work and "go to the cotton fields," as some members of the Roofers union put it, was taken at a union meeting Thursday night, it was learned. The Roofers union had made their original demand and threat to walk out to the roofing contractors two weeks ago, it was said.

The roofers are now making $1.62½ an hour, union spokesmen said. They ask $1.75, after scaling down their original request of 25 cents an hour increase in half.

At least two of the smaller roofing concerns in the city reached an agreement with the union, the two being Western Roofing and Supply company and Sessums.

Larger Firms Hit

The four larger firms reportedly affected by the union's action were Hamilton Roofing Co., Lydick Roofing Co., Lubbock Sheet and Metal Roofing Co., and Texas Roofing Co., although a spokesman for the latter said all of its 30 union roofing workers reported for work Friday.

None of the roofing workmen showed up for work at the Hamilton Roofing company, reported Mike Stafford, manager and partner. "Although the union insists that this is not a strike," Stafford said, "no one came to work Friday."

The union workers, under Troy Ross, local business agent, met

Convict Undergoes Surgery To Correct Criminal Instincts

(By International News Service)

MIAMI, Oct. 28 — Handsome Charles Hinkley, a bad check artist who wants to go straight, regained consciousness today with no apparent ill effects from a delicate brain operation that doctors hope will curb his criminal tendencies.

The 25-year-old convict, who gave a swank New York address as his home, came out of an unconscious condition this morning that had lasted since he underwent the surgery at 11 a.m. yesterday in Doctors' hospital in the Miami surburb of Coral Gables.

Doctors said Hinkley was able to carry on a rational conversation but they added that it may take weeks before there is definite indication of the success or failure of "operation reform."

The surgery was performed in hopes that Hinkley would emerge with the "emotional instability of a baby," a condition that would enable him to be re-trained emotionally and perhaps lose his criminal instincts.

Two surgeons spent nearly three hours operating on Hinkley's brain. The surgery, known as pre-frontal lobotomy, consisted of drilling holes in the skull and inserting a spatula-like instrument to separate the pre-frontal lobes of the brain.

The intellect was thus "separated from the center of emotions."

BILLS AWAIT ACTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—The farm price support bill and some 14 others remained tonight on President Truman's desk awaiting his action before they become law or are discarded. The President can sign bills until midnight next Tuesday. Any not approved by then automatically dies.

DeWitt Landis, R. B. McAlister Get Pampa Radio Station Permit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Communications commission today granted a permit for a new standard radio station at Pampa, Tex.

Hugh DeWitt Landis and Ross B. McAlister obtained the permit for the station, to be known as KICA, 1230 kilocycles, 250 watts, unlimited time.

(Landis formerly was manager of station KFYO, Lubbock, and McAlister has been manager of station KICA, Clovis, N. M. It was not known here last night whether the men planned to move the Clovis station to Pampa.)

Air Force To Emphasize More Fighter Planes In New Setup

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 — The Air Force today virtually abandoned its program to convert Northrop heavy "flying wing" bombers to jet engines and announced that it will build more night fighter planes instead.

The move appeared to tie in with the general plan to rely on the B-36 for heavy offensive bombing, and to increased tactical defense against possible attacking bombers.

The cancellation stopped modification of seven Northrop YB-35A bombers which were to have had six jet engines. The conversion of one YB-35 into a turbodyne test machine also was stopped.

May Transfer Funds

The Air Force said consideration is being given to transferring the funds to build more F89 "scorpion" all-weather fighters at Northrop's plant in Hawthorne, Calif.

These are the radar equipped night fighters, 48 of which have already been ordered from this year's funds.

The revolutionary flying wing was designed and developed by John K. Northrop. First built with

Fall Business Pickup Hit

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28— The Federal Reserve board said today that the steel-coal strikes halted the recent business "pickup" and dropped U. S. industrial production to the lowest level in three and a half years.

At the same time, the Labor department announced that strikes caused 6,350,000 man-days of idleness last month—greater than in any preceding month since the spring of 1948.

The coal strike and the 45-day walkout of Missouri-Pacific railroad employes were largely responsible for the high figure.

Fund Claimed "Misused"

In another development, Ezra Van Horn, of Cleveland, operator's trustee on the United Mine Workers welfare fund, said the fund has been "dissipated" improperly and charged that John L. Lewis and Sen. Bridges (R-N. H.) were responsible for "misuse" of the money.

The reserve board's gloomy analysis of business conditions was issued as half a million CIO steel workers rounded out their fourth week of idleness and the walkout of Lewis' 375,000 soft-coal diggers finished its sixth week.

Adding a note of urgency to the steel strike peace talks under way in New York, the FRB forecast a 11½ per cent decline in industrial output this month as result of the shutdowns in the nation's two basic industries.

Idle Estimate Up

Commerce Secretary Sawyer previously estimated that five million workers will be idle by Dec. 1 if the strikes continue that long. The automobile industry has made plans to stop production by mid-November.

President Truman asserted, however, that the country is a long way from a national emergency. He said when that point is reached, he will use the injunction of the Taft-Hartley law in the steel-coal disputes to protect the national welfare.

For the time being, the President made it clear he is keeping

Warning Given On Bogus Bills

Federal officials in Dallas Friday spread an area-wide alert over West Texas for a man believed to be passing counterfeit $10 bills "issued" by the Federal Reserve bank at Richmond, Va.

Lubbock came in for a major share of attention in the search when it was learned the man had been seen here about a week ago.

Man May Pass $20 Bills

A United States Secret service broadcast, which said the suspect might also attempt to pass $20 bills on the Federal Reserve bank at St. Louis, described the man as a Mexican male, age 40 to 45 years.

The suspect, believed to have left Dallas for El Paso in a dark blue 1949 Mercury coach, was last seen wearing a dark brown shirt, light tan felt hat and a gray gabardine suit He reportedly left Dallas about noon Friday.

Efforts of a man to molest young girls here was called to police attention again Friday, following by a day another such incident.

Boy Accompanied Man

A student at the K. Carter school told officers a man in a blue coupe tried to get her to enter the car in the 700 block Ave. R during the noon hour. The girl said she refused and ran when the man got out of the car. A small boy was in the vehicle with the man, she said.

Baby With Rare Heart Ailment To Return To Lubbock

Billie Eugene Williams, the nine-month-old boy whose heart condition prompted Lubbock and South Plains residents to contribute a $736 "get-well" fund, will return to Lubbock today after medical examination in Galveston.

Capt. Tom Gregory of the Lubbock Salvation Army, said he had been advised that Billie Eugene will be released today, with physicians asking that he be returned when two or three years old for another examination and possible operation to correct his defective heart.

Mrs. Audie Ashworth, sister-in-law of the infant's mother, Mrs. B. A. Williams, will bring Billie Eugene to Lubbock by train. Mrs. Williams returned here on Tuesday to care for her other children.

Billie Eugene has been in the University of Texas medical school's diagnostic center at Galveston since Oct. 14.

Capt. Gregory said that in addition to the examination, the hospital had prescribed a medicine for Billie Eugene for use during his periodic attacks of blueness.

It was also learned that the diagnostic center charged $80 for the two-week stay, although Billie Eugene had been admitted with the understanding by Salvation Army officials here that the examination and treatment were to be without charge.

Capt. Gregory said hospital officials informed him that the bill was for the room, oxygen, an oxygen tent and penicillin.

Texas Jaycee Board To Meet Here Nov. 5

More than 300 Jaycees from 128 Texas towns will be on hand Nov. 5 when the annual fall board meeting of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce opens at the Hilton hotel, according to an announcement made Friday by L. D. Whiteley of Lubbock, a Jaycee national director and chairman for the meeting.

Whiteley said the two-day meeting which opens here Saturday week will mark the first time that any Panhandle or South Plains city has ever been host to an annual Jaycee board meeting.

President To Speak

The meeting here will have added importance, according to Whiteley, inasmuch as the national Jaycee president, Clifford D. Cooper of Alhambra, Calif., will make the keynote address.

Clinics, informatjonal speeches, business sessions and a dance are some of the activities planned for the visiting Jaycees, Whiteley said.

A special program for wives of visiting Jaycees has been scheduled, according to Whiteley. Mrs. Ethel Jean Land is chairman of the women's program, which includes a style show and bridge games.

Whiteley emphasized that formals are to be left at home.

He believes the registration mark may exceed 500 if weather conditions are favorable.

WHY does the costly steel strike continue?

The costly and unnecessary steel strike is now in its fourth week. The country at large is beginning to feel its disastrous effects. Employees and employers have already suffered serious financial losses. The situation will grow worse if the strike continues.

This strike was ordered by Philip Murray, President of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO). He and his Union must accept full responsibility for the strike and its damaging consequences. United States Steel did not want a strike and tried hard to prevent it.

More than three weeks have elapsed, and no proposal of any kind has been made to us by the Union for a settlement of the strike. On the contrary, the Union stubbornly adheres to its original ultimatum that we must agree in advance to pay the entire cost of insurance and pensions for our employees. That is the only issue. Unconditional surrender by us to this ultimatum is the price which the Union demands to call off its strike.

In an endeavor to negotiate with the Union a sound and fair program of insurance and pensions, United States Steel offered to pay up to 10c an hour per employee (more than $50,000,000 a year) toward the cost of insurance and pension benefits, the employees to make some additional contribution. This 10c was the amount which the Presidential Fact - Finding Board recommended we should pay. Our offer was flatly refused by the Union. It insists that we must pay the entire cost of such insurance and pensions.

The insurance program proposed by United States Steel would provide greater welfare benefits for our employees at less cost than our average employee is today paying under existing insurance and welfare plans. Therefore, our proposed insurance program will not reduce his take-home pay.

We have had long experience with an employee-pay-nothing (non-contributory) pension plan. We found it necessary to adopt a contributory pension plan ten years ago. More than 60,000 of our employees today participate in this contributory plan.

Contributory Social Security Has These Advantages:

1. Larger insurance benefits and pensions are provided

When the employee and the company both contribute, the larger contributions permit better social security benefits.

2. A contributory plan is safer

Company pay-all plans are uncertain. There may some day be no money or no company. Employees suffer, if the plan fails.

Furthermore, the contributing employee has a direct interest in the success of the plan. He will then strive to keep the plan financially sound and within proper bounds.

3. Contributory plans provide savings for employees

The employees' contributions go into a fund, along with the company's contribution. In effect, it is a savings account for the employee's own welfare. Under the usual contributory pension plan, if the employee dies before retirement, his family gets his pension contributions with interest. If he quits, he gets them back, with interest.

Under a contribuory plan, an employee always has something saved up for his protection. Putting aside savings is not a wage reduction.

4. Today's work provides tomorrow's welfare benefits

Under a contributory plan both the company and the employee lay aside something for the employee's future welfare and security. It is not the American way to ask for hand-outs or something for nothing.

5. A contributory plan is a voluntary plan

A contributory plan ordinarily gives the employee a choice. He can take it, or leave it. The inducement to join the contributory plan is two-fold. The employee is paying some of his own money for his protection and for his old age, and, if he is willing to do that, the company will more than match all he puts up in order to give him greater benefits.

Many People Know . . .

- That Federal Social Security is contributory.
- That the U. S. Government and most States have contributory pension plans.
- That many cities (including New York City) have contributory pension plans.
- That railroad pensions are contributory.
- That the majority of plans in American business are contributory.

But Few People Realize . . .

- That many of our employees tell us in letters that they want to contribute to a sound insurance and pension plan.
- That Philip Murray approved contributions by employees when he advised the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives in Washington on April 12, 1949:

"As to financing, our members have been willing to pay their due share of the cost of social insurance."

- That the House Ways and Means Committee in August, 1949, reported to Congress:

"The time has come to reaffirm the basic principle that a contributory system of social insurance in which workers share directly in meeting the cost of the protection afforded is the most satisfactory way of preventing dependency."

- That our emplyees have already lost more pay in this strike than their contributions toward a contributory insurance and pension fund would total in a whole year.
- That this is not a popular strike with many of our emplyees.
- That the real explanation of the steel strike is rivalry between labor union leaders—a desire by one labor union monopolist to outdo another.

Union politics are not a just or sufficient cause for the present steel strike—costly to the public, the employees, and the steel companies alike.

OUR POSITION: United States Steel favors a proper and financially sound program of insurance and pensions for its employees. We welcome an opportunity to negotiate a program of this character with the Union. As evidence of our sincerity, we have made an offer to the Union to pay more than $50,000,000 a year as our share of the cost.

COMPANY TO DRILL WILDCAT

Locations Staked For Four New Explorations In Scurry Fields

Locations for four explorations to test the Canyon lime reef of Scurry County have been made. All are to drill to 7,000 feet, using rotary tools. Three of the ventures are to be in the North Snyder field and one is in the Kelley field.

Sunray Oil Corporation No. 2 J. W. Newton is to be located in the North Snyder field, 660 feet from south and 467 feet from east lines of six miles north of Snyder.

The same company has also staked location in the North Snyder field for its No. 4 R. B. Brown.

The proposed drillsite is 467 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of tract 8, which is in sections 20 and 26, Block 1, J. P. Smith survey. That makes it miles north of Snyder.

Another North Snyder project is to be Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 3 G. E. Parks, which will be 1,980 feet from south and 680 feet from west lines of section 448, block 97, H & TC survey. It will be 11 miles north of Snyder.

In the Kelly field W. A. Moncrief, of Fort Worth, Bob Hope and Bing Crosby of Hollywood, Calif., and Paul Teas of Dallas, have staked location and are to begin operations soon at their No. 1 J. S. Griffin.

No. 1 Griffin will be 467 feet from north and west lines of section 208, block 97, H & TC survey. It is three miles west of Snyder.

7,000-FOOT WILDCAT IS TO BE STARTED

Lone Star Producing Company of Dallas is to start drilling immediately on a 7,000-foot wildcat to test the Canyon reef in Central Scurry County, four miles northwest of Snyder.

The venture, No. 1 R. W. Webb, will be 467 feet from south and west lines of the north half of section 17, J. P. Smith survey, and one-half mile north of Standard-Fryer Drilling Company No. 1 Wilkinson, recently completed discovery from the Canyon reef between the Kelley and North Snyder fields.

Drilling is to be with rotary tools.

CROSBY COUNTY TEST WELL IS PLANNED

Rogers Brothers & Stewart of Wichita Falls plan to drill a 3,200 foot wildcat to test the San Andres of the Permian in Central-South Crosby County, 20 miles north of Post.

The project is to be their No. 1 W. H. Belding, and others and will be located 990 feet from south and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 4, block D-15, WTRR survey.

NO PRODUCTION IN WELL IS LOCATED

Olson, Glasco, Chambers and Zonne No. 1 Green, Central Scurry County wildcat, two miles north of the town of Snyder and two miles south and three-quarters of a mile east of the closet completed producer on the southeast side of the North Snyder field, had reached 7,601 feet in lime and shale and was making more hole.

This venture has drilled through the Canyon section of the Pennsylvanian and is now in the lower section of that formation.

Up to now it has not logged any possibilities of production. Some sources report that it is to be continued to the Ellenburger. That has not been officially verified.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 157, block 3, H & GN survey.

PERMIT TO CONTINUE DRILLING IS ASKED

Stanolind Oil and Gas Company No. 1 Whatley, Central-North Scurry County wildcat, three miles north of the northwest side of the North Snyder field and 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 548, block 97, H&TC survey, was drilling ahead past 8,150 feet in lime and chert and is expecting the Ellenburger at any time.

This venture is in the Mississipian. It tried a drillstem test when total depth was 8,138 feet. The packer failed and there was no recovery.

Operator has filed an amended application with the Railroad Commission, asking for a permit to continue digging until 8,700 feet is reached.

That projected destination indicates that the operator intends to test through he full section of the Ellenburger . . . if and when it is found.

It is not likely that the project will have to go the full distance to 8,700 feet to investigate the Ellenburger.

KENT COUNTY TEST MAY BE DRILLED

Earl Calloway and J. H. Harvey of Corpus Christi have filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting a permit to drill their No. 1 E. E. Wallace as an 8,000-foot rotary wildcat in Southwest Kent County, 15 miles southwest of Clairemont.

Projected depth is to explore the Ellenburger.

Drilling is to get under way, using rotary tools.

The drillsite will be 660 feet from south and east lines of the north half of section 28, block 5, H&GN survey.

Bedridden Oklahoma War Vet Assured Of Getting Squirrels

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 28. (U.P.)—Florida game rangers can stop scurrying from tree to tree. A bedridden Oklahoma war veteran has been assured he'll get his two black squirrels.

Mrs. E. H. Bellard, Cleveland Heights, O., said she would see that M. J. Wallace of Wetumka, Okla., receives the animals he needs to start a black squirrel farm.

Mrs. Bellard, who arrived here yesterday from California, heard over her hotel radio that Wallace had, written the Florida Game commission a pleading letter asking for a pair of these rare squirrels. She said she knows Jim Grant of Ownes Sound, Ontario, Canada, can get the squirrels, for they're plentiful in that region.

Director Coleman Newman of the Florida commission had put his 200 game wardens on the search, promising Wallace "we'll get you a pair of black squirrels or break our necks trying."

Elderly Man Collapses, Dies On Dallas-Grapevine Highway

DALLAS, Oct. 28. (AP)—Several motorists saw a tall, elderly white-haired man stagger along the Dallas-Grapevine highway and then collapse last night.

He was dead before anyone could reach him. Officers said he had been hit on the head, possibly by the jutting fore section of a truck trailer. A social security card he carried was issued to Clifford Lockwood, 65.

He was being held at Parkland hospital until relatives could be located.

New Orleans Paper To Start Publishing Sunday Edition

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28. (AP)—The New Orleans Item announced today it would publish a Sunday edition effective March 5, 1950.

The Item discontinued a Sunday edition July 27, 1941, a month after its purchase June 29, 1941, by Ralph Nicholson.

Nicholson sold the Item last July 14, to David Stern III.

The Item's Sunday edition will make a second Sunday newspaper in New Orleans. The New Orleans Times-Picayune and States publish a Sunday morning edition.

Westerners Roar To 41-14 Victory Over Lamesa

10,000 Fans See Lubbock Win Opening 3-AA Tussle

By AL WILLIAMS
Avalanche Sports Writer

A brilliant 98-yard punt return by Left Halfback Wayne Stroud for a touchdown the first time Lubbock gained possession of the ball set the pace for the Westerners as they roared to a 41 to 14 victory last night over Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes in a District 3-AA football tilt before approximately 10,000 persons at Jones Stadium.

The Westerners looked like the number one team in the state that they are before the varsity retired in favor of substitutes shortly before the half. The first string never appeared again in the clash.

Tornadoes Try Hard

Lamesa tried hard and went down fighting before the power of the Westerners, who were stopped many times by a stout, but outweighed, Lamesa forward wall. Lamesa's tackling at all times was hard, and the Tornadoes running attack was inspired, but Lubbock's defense and offense could not be denied as the Cowpokes rolled up a 14-0 first quarter lead and added 13 additional points in the second stanza to rest with a 26-0 margin at halftime.

The victory was the seventh straight for Lubbock. Next Friday is an off date, but the following week the Westerners travel to Odessa for an all important district 3-AA clash that may decide the district race.

The Lamesa passing attack, which clicked 19 times in 40 attempts last week as Lamesa lost to Pampa, failed dismally against a vastly improved Lubbock defense. The first two passes were incomplete, and the third and fourth were intercepted by Stroud and subsequently turned into touchdowns.

While in the game Westerner Quarterback Bobby Brown completed three of four heaves, one for a touchdown to left end Garnet Reeves. Each team intercepted three passes, one Lamesa interception by Fullback Larry Lattimore being returned for a 30-yard touchdown in final quarter.

Following the kickoff by Tackle Douglas Ross, Lamesa took the ball and made one first down before End Jerry Phillips punted to Brown on his own two-yard line. Brown handed off to Stroud at that point. Fullback Malcolm Young made a key block as Stroud got the ball, and the speedy ballcarrier went to his right sideline and cut up the field behind perfect blocking for the score 98 yards away. Billy Presley converted the first of five times, and Lubbock was ahead, 7-0, early in the period.

Lamesa took the kickoff and again made one first down before Stroud intercepted one of Bobby Hawkins' passes, returning 13 yards to the Lamesa 27-yard stripe.

Six plays later Young plunged over for the score from the four-yard stripe. He fumbled on the play, but the officials judged that Young had crossed the double-stripe before losing his hold on the ball. Pressley converted with more than four minutes left in the quarter.

Another pass interception late in the opening quarter by Stroud set up the next six-pointer, and Lubbock drove 56 yards for the tally in 11 plays, with the series of downs carrying over into the second period.

The drive was highlighted by the plunges of right Halfback Charlie Williams and Young and a sensational pass completion from Brown to Stroud which Stroud caught as he was falling to the ground. Stroud carried over left guard for two yards and the touchdown.

Later in the fourth quarter Lamesa was stymied on a fourth-down attempt for a first down, and Lubbock took over on the Tornado 44.

Brown unlimbered his strong right arm, pasing to End Garnet Reeves to the 34, too tall to Billy Wright down the middle, and then to Reeves, who made a nice catch, for the touchdown. Presley's try for point was partially blocked and wide.

Lubbock substitutes poured onto the field with the Westerners in a commanding 27-0 lead, with five minutes left in the half. Late in the quarter Lamesa's Halfback Dick Echols intercepted a Morris Turner heave on his own 30 and returned to the midfield stripe.

The Tornadoes advanced the ball to the Lubbock 31 on line smashes by Echols, Lattimore and Hawkins and a pass to Halfback Delbert Dickenson from Hawkins, but time ran out following another completed pass, this time to Phillips.

On the first play of the third quarter, following Lamesa's kickoff, Westerner Halfback Mack Taylor made a driving, smashing type of run for 81 yards and another six-pointer. Almost stopped on two occasions, Taylor kept his feet

Levelland Lobos Rack Up 21-12 Victory Over Post's Antelopes

By KENNETH MAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

POST, Oct. 28 — The Levelland Lobos powered to a 21-12 win over the Post Antelopes here tonight in a non-conference battle.

The Antelopes, one of the two top title contenders in the South half of District 4-A, could not overcome the defensive play of the North half Lobos, even though they led, 12-7, at halftime.

Levelland opened the night's scoring early in the first period after taking the kick-off and racking up three first downs in a drive from its own 38. Quarterback Dee Windsor powered the final yard in a plunge over center. Left Half Perry Heard converted, and Coach Truett Rattan's Lobos led, 7-0.

Not to be outdone, the Antelopes came back after an exchange of punts to drive 38 yards before Quarterback Jack Kirkpatrick passed to End Gordon Carey for 12 yards and the score. Kirkpatrick missed the try for extra point.

Post failed to capitalize moments later on a fumble by the Lobos on their own 39, but midway of the second quarter the Antelopes recovered after Levelland's James Price fumbled a punt return on his own six. Kirkpatrick passed to Half Norman Cash for the tally and again missed the try for extra point.

A possible Lobo comeback was killed by the gun signaling halftime.

Levelland lost no time getting started the second half, however, driving downfield from its own 25 the first time it got the ball for its second score. After five first downs in succession Quarterback Don Wise went across for the score. Windsor carried over for the extra point.

The final tally of the night was made after the Antelopes were forced to punt from their 10, placing the ball down on the Post 29. Fullback Bobo Johnson went from there for the touchdown and also ran over the extra point.

Standouts in the Lobo backfield were hard to pick, with Glen Clarkson, Wise and Windsor, sup-

Slaton's Tigers Blank O'Donnell In District 4-A Tussle, 31 To 0

SLATON, Oct. 28. (Special)—Slaton's Tigers eased into a first-place tie with Post in District 4-A South tonight by blanking O'Donnell's Eagles, 31-0.

A crowd of 2,500 spectators saw Coach Clarence Tiffery's throw up an air-tight defense to capture their third straight conference win of the year.

Coach W. D. Jeter's O'Donnell crew battled gamely, holding Slaton to a 12-0 margin at the third-quarter mark, but the Eagle defense collapsed in the final stanza as the Tigers shoved across 19 points.

Ed Willis scored for Slaton in the first period on a five-yard run.

Willis also counted the second Tiger touchdown, from 20 yards out in the third quarter.

Cecil Bybee lit the fuse on the fourth-quarter Slaton explosion by scoring on a two-yard plunge. Later, Bobby Thompson went five yards for a counter, with Bob Taylor converting from placement. Curly Lewis intercepted an O'Donnell pass and went 35 yards for the closing Slaton tally.

Left Tackle Leon Moore and Harley Patterson, diminutive end, turned in outstanding line performances for the winners.

Right End Carroll Pearson and Halfback Bobby Gass paced the Eagle attack.

Crosbyton Defeats Matador Team, 34-6

CROSBYTON, Oct. 28 (Special)—Crosbyton's Chiefs, fighting to stay in the running in the hectic District 3-A grid scramble, tonight overpowered the Matador Matadors, 34-6, for their fourth conference win against two setbacks.

Coach Fred Cunningham's Chiefs jumped to an early lead and were never headed, although Rafe Nabors' Matador crew scrapped gamely all the way.

Russell Halder opened the Crosbyton scoring early in the first period. Lawrence Hargis added the extra point and the Chiefs were on their way. Hargis and Halder paced the winners' offensive, with Charlie Wheeler aiding in the scoring.

By halftime, the hefty Crosbyton team had a 21-0 lead.

Garland Rattan scored Matador's lone touchdown in the third quarter.

The Chiefs, enjoying considerable success with their ground attack, attempted only four passes, completing three.

Paducah Downs Fighting Tulia Hornets, 13-8, In 3-A Tussle

TULIA, Oct. 28. (Special)—Paducah's Dragons edged out a fighting swarm of Tulia Hornets, 13-8, here tonight in a District 3-A grid encounter.

A crowd estimated at nearly 1,000 fans saw the Dragons connect on long scoring passes in the second and fourth periods to gain the triumph.

Tulia scored a safety in the first quarter, and added a touchdown in the first quarter, and added a touchdown in the closing minutes of play.

Paducah racked up 11 first downs to seven for Tulia.

The victory was Paducah's second in five district games, while the defeat left Tulia with a 2-4 record in conference play.

Seminole Gains 7-6 Game Over McCamey

McCAMEY, Oct. 28. (Special)—Seminole's Indians squeezed through to a 7-6 triumph over McCamey here tonight in a District 5-A football thriller witnessed by 1,000 fans.

Both teams threw up tight defenses which kept the game a scoreless deadlock until the final five minutes of play. Then McCamey staged an 88-yard touchdown drive, only to have Seminole rebound with a touchdown followed by the game-winning conversion.

The accurate toe of Bert Affleck spelled the difference, as he sent the extra point placement soaring through the uprights.

After Bobby Strapp went over from five yards out for McCamey's touchdown, Seminole roared back to drive to the local's five-yard line. At that point, the Indians lost the ball on downs, but on the first McCamey play Stapp fumbled and Tackle Lucius Allen of Seminole recovered.

Guinn Hood then crashed through left tackle for four yards and the tying touchdown, which was followed by Affleck's successful kick.

Even then, Coach Gordon Wood's Seminole crew had to stave off another furious McCamey onslaught which was checked on the Indian one-yard line by the final gun.

The win left Seminole with a record of two victories, two defeats and two ties in 5-A competition.

Ropesville Beats Idalou

By TOM DAVIS
Avalanche Sports Writer

IDALOU, Oct. 28. — Ropesville's Eagles spotted Idalou's Wildcats a six-point lead in the first quarter and then soared to an easy 32 to 6 win in a District 4-B game played here tonight before an estimated 1,200 fans.

After Idalou dominated the first quarter, the Eagles stored twice in the second quarter, once in the third and twice in the final period.

The victory gave Ropesville five wins against one loss in district play. The Eagles will meet Meadow, with five wins and no losses, at Brownfield on Thursday in a game which should decide the District 4-B race. Idalou, last year's 4-B champ, has a 3-3 record, with tonight's loss.

Means Scores Three Times

Coach Bryan Boatmun's Eagles racked up 18 first downs and five penetrations, compared to five first downs and one penetration for the Wildcats. Four of the Idalou first downs and the lone penetration came in the first quarter, while the Eagles failed to make a first down in the opening frame.

The Ropesville captain, Kenneth Means, was plenty mean to the Idalou cause, scoring three touchdowns, passing for another and marking up long gains by running and passing.

Idalou took the opening kickoff on its 22-yard line, with Alvin Joiner returning to the 28. Coach W. L. Johnson's Wildcats then marched down the field with Joiner and Tommy Russell carrying to the Ropesville 3, where Travis Castleberry smashed through for the touchdown. A running try for the extra point failed.

Teams Tied In Second

Early in the second quarter, Ropesville began a drive from its own 24 that ended with the tying touchdown 13 plays later when Means cracked over from four yards out. Melvin Marcy failed to convert by running.

Minutes later the Eagles got a real break when an Idalou punt went only four yards and Ropesville took over on the Wildcat 25. From the 10-yard line, Means faded to his right and dropped a pass into the arms of Frankie Condra standing behind the goal line with Wildcats all around him. Another running attempt failed to register the extra point.

Late in the third quarter, Means counted again for the Eagles with a 13-yard run into the gravy zone, skirting the right side of the Idalou line. Jimmy Sims ran the extra point.

The final period opened with

Lockney's Longhorns Upset Favored Floydada, 38 To 13

By EMMETT SHOCKLEY
Avalanche Sports Writer

LOCKNEY, Oct. 28—The Lockney Longhorns upset the applecart in a big way here tonight, pounding Floydada's favored Whirlwinds, 38-13, before approximately 3,000 fans.

The scrappy Longhorn eleven recovered two Floydada fumbles for two touchdowns, intercepted a pass to set up a third, and recovered another fumble deep in Whirlwind territory.

But Curtis Kelley's Longhorns made the breaks as well as taking advantage of them, and they led from the first when they marched to a touchdown in 11 plays after receiving the opening kickoff.

Lockney End Jerry Cooper recovered a loose ball for a touchdown a few plays later, after a Lockney punt got away from Whirlwind safety Bobby Finley.

A pass interception by Guard Robert Huckaby on the Floydada 30 set up Lockney's third touchdown. The fourth came after Floydada elected to pass on the fourth down, and lost the ball on its 18-yard line to Lockney. Fullback DeJaun Strickland passed to End Charles Crouch for the touchdown.

Both Floydada touchdowns were set up by spectacular passes from Finley to End Junior Perry. Early in the second quarter, Perry was hauled down on the Lockney nine-yard line, after a pass good for 57 yards. The combination clicked again in the fourth period, the pass being good for 45 yards to the Lockney ten.

Floydada ends Ring and Trice did fine defensive work, Ring being especially effective knifing in through interference to get to the ball carrier.

The Lockney line was like a solid wall against Floydada running plays, and Lockney running plays, and Lockney backs were aided by excellent blocking, both in the line and downfield.

It was homecoming for the Lockney team, which played before Betty Joan Handley, a junior, chosen football queen for the occasion. She was escorted to a throne at midfield by co-captains Robert Huckaby and Mac Howard shortly before the game began. Attendants were Kay Norman, Glenda Readhimer, and June Wiley.

FLOYDADA	0	7	0	6	—13
LOCKNEY	13	12	7	6	—38

Scoring by Floydada: Touchdowns—McGuire in 2q (pass from Finley to Perry, lateral to McGuire); Robertson in 4q (left end from the 11). Extra points—Perry (pass from Finley).

Scoring by Lockney: Touchdowns—Strickland in 1q (one-yard plunge); Cooper in 1q (recovered loose ball in Floydada end zone); Strickland in 2q (two-yard plunge); Crouch in 2q (pass from Strickland); Ferguson in 3q (recovered Floydada fumble in end zone); Ferguson in 4q (five-yard run). Extra points—Strickland (running); Ferguson (running).

Floydada starters: Perry, le; Grubs, lt; Wilson, lg; Guthrie, c; Thomas, rg; Haney, rt; Trice, re; Jones, Finley, Robertson, and Ring, backs.

Lockney starters: Crouch, le; Shearer, lt; Huckaby, lg; Thompson, c; Jeffcoat, rg; Rowell, rt; Cooper, re; Ferguson, Smart, Strickland, and Howard, backs.

Floydada subs: Roberts, Hagood, White, Thomas, Ring, Teague, McGuire.

Lockney subs: Woods, Fortenberry, Baker, Gilbert, Griffith, Carthel, Meriwether, Conner.

Olton Wallops Anton, 32 To 0

OLTON, Oct. 28 (Special) — Olton's tricky Mustangs moved a step nearer the District 3-B football championship here tonight by walloping Anton, 32-0, before 2,000 homecoming fans.

It was the seventh straight conference triumph for Coach T. M. Cox's Mustangs, who now need only victories over Friona and Hale Center to capture the district title.

Olton took charge from the start tonight. Ed Burrus opened the scoring with a 67-yard touchdown spring on a left-end sweep. Jimmie Millsap converted to make it 7-0.

Huck Nichols scored on another spectacular run in the second quarter when he raced 65 yards after intercepting an Anton pass.

In the third stanza, Millsap scored from the five on a right end run. Later, Raymond Durham blocked an Anton punt, Nichols scooped up the ball and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. A pass from Millsap to Garland Rose added the extra point.

Gerald Allcorn jolted the Anton defense again the third period with a 72-yard scamper around right end to pay dirt.

Anton made seven first downs, but was unable to penetrate Olton's 10-yard line.

The Mustangs registered 11 first downs.

Olton's defense was sparked by Center Jack Duncan and Tackle Max Malone.

For Anton, Billy Ray Estes and Billy Ray Glasscock were outstanding in the backfield, while Center Donald Stone stood out in the line.

In a special ceremony, Miss Alene Carson, a senior in Olton High school, was crowned homecoming queen.

Dimmitt Rallies To Drop Friona, 40-7

FRIONA, Oct. 28 (Special)—Dimmitt's Bobcats came from behind tonight to overcome an early Friona lead, then rolled to an impressive 40-7 District 3-B grid triumph.

Scoring twice in each of the last three quarters, Coach J. W. Blaine's Bobcats racked up their sixth conference win against one loss to stay close on the heels of the first-place Olton Mustangs.

Halfback Everett Wilkinson romped across for four touchdowns and three extra points, giving him a total of 27 points for the night.

Coach Raymond Cook's Friona team drew first scoring blood in the opening quarter on a touchdown pass from Tommy Lacewell to Frank Reed.

But once Wilkinson and his Dimmitt mates got started, there was no stopping them.

Douglas Dennis and Gene Easley also scored six-pointers for the Bobcats.

Tackle David Behrends and End Loyd Leasure were Dimmitt's defensive standouts.

Wilson's Mustangs Gain 33-27 Six-Man Win Over Southland

SOUTHLAND, Oct. 28. (Special) — The Wilson Mustangs kept their perfect record in the District 4-B six-man football scramble here tonight by eking out a narrow 33-27 victory over a stubborn Southland team.

About 1,500 fans saw the Mustangs score in every quarter to take their fifth district win. Coach A. J. Sales' victors ran their point total for the season to 247 to 58 points for all opponents.

For the winners, Lenord Brieger, quarterback, and Center Carleton Wilke turned in outstanding games, while Gene Anderson played a good game for Southland.

Wilson made seven first downs to the losers four.

The winners scored 13 points in the first quarter; seven in the second; seven in the third and six in the fourth.

Your All-American Choice

My choice was the Army. Why? Simple. Because the Army has plenty on the ball. Top flight training, wide-open chances for fast promotion, world travel and security. I like the Army. It's the all-American line of an all-American team.

I chose the Air Force. I want to be ready for a part in the air age. There's no better place to do that than with the greatest air force in the world. In the Air Force, we not only learn, we help write the book. We're the first string backfield on the all-American team. You, too, have a choice between the two finest careers in America. Red Raiders Meet Top-Heavy Rice

Techsans Will Try For Upset Win Over Owl Team Before 25,000 Fans

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

HOUSTON, Oct. 28—Texas Tech's Red Raiders will attempt to derail the Rice Institute Owls' express here Saturday afternoon in the city's largest game of the weekend with an expected crowd of 25,000 fans on hand.

The thrice-beaten Raiders will attempt to do what only the Louisiana State Tigers have done in five games against the potent Owls. LSU took a 14-7 victory home to the Bayou state and Tech is hopeful of duplicating here tomorrow.

Rice has beaten Clemson, New Mexico, SMU and Texas, while Tech holds wins over Abilene Christian, West Texas State college, Tulsa and Arizona. Raider losses have been to Texas, Texas Aggies and Baylor.

Rain In Houston

The 37-man Tech squad's departure this morning was held up for four hours by dense fog, during which their chartered plane circled above the Lubbock landing field. The squad finally left Lubbock at 1 p.m., arriving here at 3:30 p.m.

The Raiders were greeted by cool temperatures and soaked streets from internittent heavy showers that fell here all day. The forecast for tomorrow wasn't encouraging, with the prediction calling for continued light showers and temperatures in the mid-70's.

The Raider schedule here was changed from original plans, the squad going directly to Rice stadium for a brief workout without pads and then going to the Shamrock hotel, headquarters on this trip.

The Raiders are without two players this week that might have made a big difference in the approaching game, Guard Don Williams and Quarterback Milton Rathbone. Otherwise the squad is in the best physical condition of the year. Center Red Phillips has recovered from the head injury suffered Wednesday, as has Guard Bobby Garner, and Center Bob Hix has recovered from his Thursday accident.

Fans May See Next Champions

Houston fans, eager to see a champion, are expected to crowd their way into the stadium here for their third glimpse of the Owls this season. Coach Jess Neely's squad, far from good physical shape, still is strong enough to regard this game as a breather. And the crowd, mindful of past lean years, is ready to see what many think will be the next Southwest Conference championship squad.

Rice will enter the game prohibitive favorites to win, with the odds pegged generally at 35 points. The line of reasoning is easy to follow. Texas walloped Tech 43-0 and the Owls skinned the Longhorns 17-15 last week.

Coach Neely, however, has lost the services of Halfback Van Ballard for the season with a broken collarbone. Center Gerald Weatherly, who dealt misery to the Techsans last year, is out with an injury. End Froggie Williams is expected to see only limited service, probably little more than to kick extra points. Guard S. J. Roberts is a doubtful starter and a doubtful player in the game.

Tech's Picadors Play Here Today

Power will be pitted against power, speed against speed, this afternoon at 2:30 in Jones Stadium when the Texas Tech Picadors entertain the Odessa Junior college Wranglers in what should be a topnotch football attraction for Lubbock and South Plains grid fans.

Admission to the game will be $1 per person, with no seats reserved and all seats on a first come, first served, basis.

Coach Red Coats of Odessa, a former Tech letterman, brings to Lubbock a Wrangler eleven that has won three of its five games so far and which lost another in the final 20 seconds. He will oppose a Picador eleven that has played only one game, a 59-7 rout of the West Texas State college junior Buffaloes.

Both teams feature sharp aerial games to augment fine ground attacks. The game could turn into an offensive duel between Quarterbacks Alfred Arnold and Burr Reynolds of Odessa and Carl Madison and Don Seale of Tech.

Or the running game of Halfbacks Loy Mead and Reynolds, who shares halfback and quarterback duties, could vie with Tech stars, Waldo Young, W. H. Barker, Carroll Drye, Sandy Welton, Chuck Reynolds and Hudson Routh.

For line plunging, both teams have standout players. Odessa boasts Fullback Toots Mathis, a 180-pound line crasher, while the Picadors have Ronnie Miller, a 190-pound smasher.

The Picadors probably have a weight edge in the line, with such linemen as Harold Harris, 260-pounds, and Edward Briggs, 270-pounds, at tackles, End Jim Thames at 220-pounds, Center Jimmy Williams at 195 pounds and many others tipping the scales at better than 190 pounds.

Odessa features the split T, compared to the straight T of the Picadors, with passing playing an important part in the Wrangler attack. Half of the Odessan's touchdowns this year have come through the aerial route.

The Wranglers have beaten three of their five junior college opponents, including Big Spring 19-8, Ranger 26-19 and Clifton 32-0. They have lost to San Angelo 26-20 and Cisco 12-0.

The probable starting lineups:

ODESSA JC	POS.	TECH FROSH
Hill	LE	Linne
Whaley	LT	Ribble
Young	LG	Barron
Walker	C	Williams
Schutte	RG	Gray
Cox	RT	Goff
Griffin	RE	Thames
Arnold	QB	Madison
Mead	LH	Young
Reynolds	RH	Barker

Bill Corum Named President Of Churchill Downs Affairs

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 28. (AP) Bill Corum, 54-year-old New York sports writer, fell heir today to Col. Matt Winn's Kentucky Derby shoes.

The board of directors named Corum as president of the American Turf association and Churchill Downs, a subsidiary. The internationally famous Derby is a feature of the spring racing season at the Downs.

The salary and other details of Corum's duties here will be ironed out later between him and a five-man committee of board members. A spokesman for the Downs said it has not been determined yet what duties if any Corum will retain as a sports columnist for the New York Journal-American and as a radio sportscaster.

Sandy Saddler Scores Knockout Over Rugged Paddy Demarco

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (INS) — Former featherweight champion Sandy Saddler scored the first knockout on rugged Paddy Demarco's record tonight when Demarco was unable to come out for the tenth round of their Madison Square Garden feature.

It was recorded as a ninth-round kayo for Saddler, who weighed 129½. The Brooklyn rough-houser weighed 134½.

Demarco, a 1-to-3 underdog, carried the fight to Saddler in the first three rounds and shook Sandy twice in the third with rights to the head.

However, the Harlemite took the initiative in the fourth and held it. He opened cuts under both Demarco's eyes, which eventually led to Paddy's downfall.

O. L. SLATON WINS, 13-0

Jimmy Crawford and Jimmy Welch scored touchdowns that gave O. L. Slaton Junior High school a 13-0 victory over the Carroll Thompson eleven Friday afternoon at Chapman field. Both tallies came in the first quarter of the game.

Wildcats Show Off Awesome Power

Littlefield Smashes Sundown Team, 66-0

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 28 (Special)—Littlefield's big, tough Wildcats put on another awesome display of power here tonight, crushing Sundown's outclassed Roughnecks, 66-0, in a District 4-A South game played before 1,000 fans.

The win was the third this year in district play for Coach J. S. Fikes' Wildcats, and boosted them into a first-place tie with the Sudan Hornets, who were idle this week.

Littlefield steamrollered its way to 18 first downs on a net gain of 447 yards from scrimmage.

The big Wildcat team, putting its 15-pound-per-man weight edge to good use, jumped away to a 26-0 lead by the end of the first quarter and was never in serious trouble. A tight Littlefield defense limited Sundown to 89 net yards gained.

Stephen Brock started the scoring procession by going 11 yards on an end run for a touchdown early in the game. Gene Renfro added the point from placement.

Frank Gage took a handoff and went 18 yards for the second Wildcat tally, with Renfro again converting.

Donald Crossley rammed over from three yards out for another tally, after which Renfro hit pay dirt on an eight-yard run.

On the third play of the second quarter, Brock gathered in a Sundown punt on his own five-yard line and scampered 95 yards to score. Crossley added the extra point.

Floyd Goff took a 20-yard pass for the next marker, with Gage providing the extra point.

Screen Pass Counts

A screen pass to Tom Bailes late in the second quarter resulted in another Wildcat score. Crossley converted to make the halftime count 47-0.

Crossley swept left end for 25 yards and a touchdown in the third quarter. Later in the same period, Charles Askew plunged two yards for a six-pointer. Brock made the extra point.

The final Littlefield tally came in the fourth stanza on Askew's 25-yard jaunt into the end zone.

Guards Billy Frank Davis and Jim Fowler were outstanding performers in the powerful Littlefield line.

For Sundown, End Troy King, Tackle Don McClaine, and Backs Neil Pearcy and Rex Holland were top men.

Levelland Triumphs

ported by Johnson and Heard, all sharing in the running attack.

Kirkpatrick's passing kept the Antelopes in the game, while Carey and End Jerry Odom were outstanding defensive players.

Levelland took to the air 13 times for six completions and 76 yards with one interception. Post threw 14 passes and completed four for 38 yards.

The Lobos made 16 first downs during the game, compared to five for Coach Bing Bingham's Antelopes.

Springlake Scores Fifth 3-B Win With Victory Over Spade

SPADE, Oct. 28 (Special)—Springlake scored its fifth District 3-B victory of the season here tonight by handily downing a weak Spade eleven, 40-6.

The visitors had things all their way from the opening gun.

J. J. Barlow got three touchdowns to lead the scoring. Junior Smith of Springlake scored two touchdowns and Dale Underwood chalked up one.

Spade made its lone tally late in the game when Earnest Truell went over from the two. The touchdown came after a 40-yard sustained drive.

Springlake had 10 first downs to the three for Spade. The victors racked up 254 yards total to 123 yards for the local team.

OKLAHOMA AGGIES LOSE

DETROIT, Oct. 28 (INS) — The University of Detroit squeezed Oklahoma A&M out of the top spot in the Missouri Valley Conference by taking a narrow 13-7 win over the Aggies in Detroit tonight. Both teams entered tonight's vital game at U of D stadium holding 1-0 records in league play.

Idalou Loses Tussle

Ropesville on its own 28. Means uncorked a pass to Glenn Hewlett good for 13 yards. Hewlett added another first down. A Means to Richard Arant pass took it to the Wildcat 25. Hewlett took another pass from Means to the 7, and then had his touchdown called back on a penalty. A Means to Hewlett pass put the ball back on the 4, and Means went over for keeps. Condra ran the extra point.

Willis Intercepts

Idalou received the kickoff, but a pass from the Wildcat 24 was intercepted by Billy Willis for the Eagles, who rammed it back to the Idalou 12. Hewlett and Means carried to the one-foot line, and Willis went over for the final touchdown. A running play for the extra point failed.

Means, Hewlett, Sims, Condra and Willis shared honors in the Eagle backfield, while Arant, end, and Billy Glenn Odom, center, sparked the sturdy Ropesville line.

Joiner, Russell and Castleberry were the standouts in the Wildcat backfield, while Lloyd Allen, end, Charles Gates, guard, and David Rackley, tackle, played well in the line.

In a colorful half-time ceremony, Ruth Barnhart, daughter of Mrs. J. O. Barnhart, was crowned Idalou High school football queen. Her attendants were Veda Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tanner, and Billie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lewis.

Hale Center Swamps Whitharral, 41 To 6

HALE CENTER, Oct. 28 (Special)—Coach Ralph Huntington's Hale Center Owls kept alive their District 3-B championship hopes tonight as they swamped the Whitharral Panthers, 41-6, before 650 fans.

It was the fifth district win against one conference loss for the Owls, defending 3-B champions.

Hale Center was in command all the way, with Huntington using reserves freely from the second quarter on. In fact, two substitutes, End Mathan Owens and Back Dennis Oliver, played leading roles in the Owl victory. Owens caught two passes, one on a spectacular diving catch.

Other Owls who took part in the scoring were Lee Jones, Bobby Johnson and Jerry Johnson.

Hale Center scored in every quarter.

Whitharral's lone counter came late in the game on a two-yard plunge by Fullback Glen Hughes.

The triumph kept Hale Center in third place in the 3-B race, a half-game behind Dimmitt and a game and a half astern of pace-setting Olton.

Coach Leahy Recovers From Flu In Time For Navy Game

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 28 (INS)—Coach Frank Leahy will leave South Bend early tomorrow by plane to rejoin his Notre Dame football team in Baltimore for the game against Navy.

Leahy was unable to depart with the Irish last night because of an attack of influenza. His physician reported, however, that he was considerably improved today.

and outran the last Lamesa defender, taking advantage of down field blocking.

The Cowboys again got the ball when Lamesa failed to make a first down on the Lubbock 33, and 10 plays later Turner jumped over from the one-foot line, Presley converting to give the winners a 41-0 edge.

Hawkins Pass Good

Following a pass interception by Westerner Halfback Billy Tooke, and failure to gain, Lamesa again received possession of the ball on a punt and marched 41 yards for a touchdown, with Hawkins passing to End T. J. Womack for the touchdown. Lattimore converted.

With the ball in its possession on its own 41, Lubbock's third string proceeded to lose ground all the way back to the 15 on two penalties. Then Pressley threw a pas which was intercepted by Lattimore on the 30 and run back all the way for the final score, with Lattimore converting with five minutes left.

Just before the game ended the Cowpokes got the ball on Lamesa's 18-yard stripe when Echols fumbled and End Bobby Day recovered, but time ran out after one play, that being a loss of five yards by Jack Weldon on an attempted pass play as End Marshall Crawford broke through for the vistors.

Standouts for Lamesa were Crawford, Phil Johnson and Robert Adair at tackle, Jim Bob Boothe and Donald Cotten at guard and Phillips and Womack at ends.

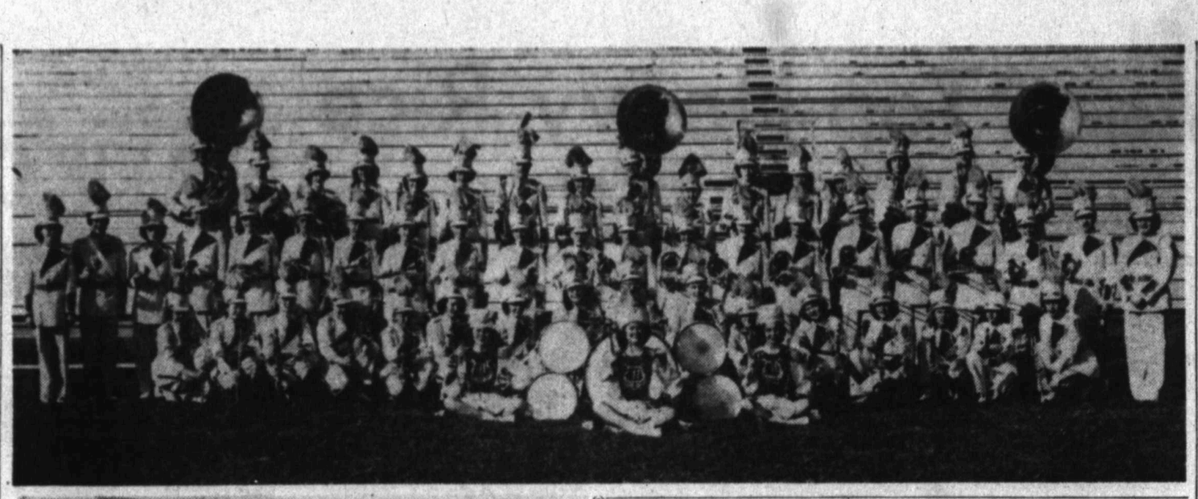

Echols and Lattimore shared most of the load in the attack for the losers.

Line Performs Well

For Lubbock, the entire starting line performed well, with Guard Sammy Modrall being at the bottom of many plays and Freddy Gray, Joe Brock, Douglas Ross, and Douglas Wienke doing commendable work in the middle of the forward wall. Ends Reeves and Wright did their usual bang-up job.

Aside from being outstanding on offense, Williams and Stroud were tops on defense, with Stroud's two interceptions being the breaks needed early in the game to give Lubbock a lead. Halfback Taylor carried the ball four times for 115 yards in relief of Stroud.

Lubbock downfield blocking was good, and the first team did not draw a single penalty the 19 minutes it was in the ball game.

LAMESA BAND MAKES HIT — Lamesa High school's fine band made a hit between halves at the Lubbock-Lamesa grid game Friday night, demonstrating that it rates the first division ranking given for marching and playing. The band, pictured above, remained in Lubbock last night and will leave here early today for Wichita Falls, where it will take part in the Hardin College homecoming parade today. The band recently won first place in the marching parade at the Brownfield Harvest jubilee. In the bottom picture are shown the drum major and majorettes, left to right: Audrey Sellers, Kay Wiggins, drum major; and Gloria Esmond. (Photos by Frogge Studio, Lamesa.)

Capot Scores Upset Win Over Coaltown

BALTIMORE, Oct. 28 (AP)—Eight legs churned around old hilltop today, and the four belonging to Capot gave the flashy three-year-old star a runaway victory over Coaltown in the 13th Pimlico Special.

Capot, brown son of Menow from the Greentree Stable, went out in front slightly at the start of this two-horse race between a pair of the top horses of the year.

He gradually drew away. At the end he sailed under the wire an astounding 12-length winner.

It was a bitter blow to the famed Calumet Farm, which had high hopes of seeing "Horse Of The Year" honors pinned on Coaltown, the stable's four-year-old handicap ace.

There were no records broken this dark, hazy afternoon, but Jockey Ted Atkinson didn't have to press for more speed once Capot got into high gear in the mile and three-sixteenths run. Capot was even eased in the final sixteenths of a mile.

Toronto Teddy kept his whip waving alongside the colt's head to hold his mind to the task.

Capot, making his first Pimlico start since he won the Preakness here in May, romped the route in 1:56 4/5. That was four-fifths of a second slower than his Preakness time, which is the track record.

CROSS COUNTRY RACES

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—The University of Texas cross country team will seek its second victory of the season over the North Texas State Eagles tomorrow afternoon at Denton. The Longhorns downed the Eagles here last week, 12-25.

Brock's Touchdown Rampage Sparks Denver City To 40-6 Win Over Tahoka

DENVER CITY, Oct. 29. (Special)—Damon Brock, an elusive 128-pound halfback, tonight went on a three-touchdown rampage to lead Denver City's Mustangs to a 40-6 non-conference triumph over the hapless Tahoka Bulldogs.

Coach Wilson Head's Mustangs racked up 21 points in the first half and were never headed as they coasted to their first win of the 1949 campaign.

Brock was the big gun in the locals' attack, breaking loose on scoring runs of 90, 80 and 15 yards. Sharing offensive honors with the little scatback was Frankie Howard, who galloped 80 yards for Denver City's first touchdown and later passed 15 yards to Wayne Baker for another tally. Melvin Reed accounted for the sixth Mustang marker by intercepting a Tahoka pass and racing 40 yards to pay dirt late in the game. Howard added four conversions from placement for the victors.

Denver City dominated play in practically all departments. The Mustangs, cellar-dwellers in District 5-A, made 276 yards net rushing and completed 12 of 17 pass attempts for 124 yards. Tahoka netted 79 yards on the ground, and 28 more on four pass completions.

For the winners, Center Melvin Reed and Tackle Clarence Reed played outstanding games in the line, while Brock, Howard and Lee Ivey shared honors in the backfield.

Clark Farr and Charles Hyles turned in top games for Coach Jim Foust's Tahoka team.

A crowd of 500 fans saw the game.

Farwell Steers Gain 44 To 13 District 3-B Win Over Amherst

AMHERST, Oct. 28 (Special)—Farwell's Steers downed the Amherst Bulldogs, 44-13, here tonight in a free-scoring District 3-B grid game witnessed by approximately 750 fans.

Farwell forged ahead early in the first quarter when Bob Poteet took a 10-yard pass from Don Ford.

Amherst retaliated in the second stanza on Roy Bryant's 20-yard touchdown run, and scored again when Bill Wright passed to A. L. Nuttal for 50 yards and a six-pointer. Bryant kicked the etxra point.

But after Amherst's second touchdown, Farwell took almost complete control. The Steers hammered away relentlessly at the Bulldogs defenses with a smooth-functioning attack.

It was Farwell's fourth triumph against three losses in district play, and the sixth setback compared to one win for Amherst.

Cowhands To Play Lamesa B

Lubbock's Cowhands move into action at 8 o'clock tonight at Chapman field against Lamesa's B team in an effort to post their fifth win of the season against one defeat.

In a previous tilt, the locals dropped Lamesa by a 32-0 count, and are heavy favorites to repeat that triumph. The Cowhands' only loss was to Odessa, 31-19, but last week the team proved its superiority by defeating Odessa, 39-0. Other victories were over Plainview, 31-0 and Midland, 59-12.

The Cowhands boast a smooth-running offensive, and the defense has been hard to crack except in the first game with Odessa. And that night pass defense was the weak spot.

Leading the ground game are Bo Sexton at right halfback and Johnny Tatum at fullback, and Dwayne Rampy can be counted on for much yardage from the other halfback position. Quarterback is Charles Brewer.

Probable starting lineup is: Don Jones, le; Bill Water, lt; Gerald Lloyd, lg; Milton Beech, c; Billy Breedlove, rg; Don Bacon, rt; Bobby Davis, re; Brewer, qb; Rampy, lh; Sexton, rh; and Tatum, fb.

Joe Louis, Pat Valentino Will Clash In Chicago December 7

CHICAGO, Oct. 28 (INS)—Retired world heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis and Pat Valentino will clash in a 10-round bout in Chicago, Dec. 7.

The International Boxing club announced tonight that the Illinois Athletic Commission approved the no-decision match "with gloves smaller than 12 ounces."

Heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles knocked out Valentino in the eighth round of a match in San Francisco, Oct. 14.

Ichthyophagous means fish-eating.

ONE OUTSIDER

NEW YORK — (AP) — George (Eck) Allen, West Virginia '36, is the only non-alumnus on Fordham's six man football coaching staff. Allen was an outstanding quarterback for the Mountaineers from 1932 through 1934.

Forty-Eight Die In Plane Crash

with his manager, Jo Longman, and trainer, Paul Genser, for a title fight Dec. 2 with Jake Lamotta. He lost the world middleweight championship to Lamotta in Detroit June 18. He has been a national hero to the French.

Miss Ginette Neveu, 28, noted French violinist was to give concerts in 21 North American cities next month. Her brother and accompanist died with her. Miss Neveu was described as "a fantastic success" on a previous tour of the United States in 1947.

HAD PERFORMED HERE

Ginnette Neveu, famous French concert violinist who was killed in the crash of the French airliner on an Azores mountain peak, had performed before Lubbock audiences. The French artist played a concert at Lubbock High School auditorium January 12 of this year as one of the highlights of the annual Tech Artist course program.

Marcel Cerdan, former world's champion and famed French boxer, also was widely known to Lubbock and South Plains sports fans. Cerdan defeated LaVern Roach of Plainview and now of Lubbock, South Plains middleweight was at the peak of his career, Cerdan won an eight-round TKO over Roach March 12, 1948, in Madison Square Garden.

Bernard Boutet de Monvel, 67, French portrait painter was the son of the equally well known artist Louis Boutet de Montvel.

Several business persons were among the Americans on the Air France passenger list. The Americans were identified as:

Kay Kamen, 56, of New York, owner of Kay Kamen, Ltd., a licensing representative for Walt Disney characters.

Mrs. Kate Kamen, about 42, active in advertising.

Philip Sales, New York, and his wife.

John Abbott, Butte, Mont., business man who was flying home from Syria with Hanna Abbott, his bride.

Raoul Silbernagel, 59, of New York, president of an importing firm.

Edward L. Supine, 39, of Brooklyn, a lace importer.

Mrs. Maud Ryan of Atlantic City, a French war bride in 1919.

Edward Gehring of Manhasset, N. Y.

Emery Komlos of New York.

Mrs. Irene Sivanich, Detroit widow.

Two Canadians, a Cuban and a Mexican were on the passenger list. The others were of French nationality or from the Middle East.

The Canadians were Guy Jasmin, editor in chief of the Montreal newspaper Le Canada, and his mother.

Sao Miguel is the largest of the nine islands in the Azores group. It has only a small airstrip and it would not be suitable for a large plane.

A truck driver saw the explosion in the night. The search was organized within an hour. The burned bodies were spread over a large area, about 500 feet from the tip of the peak.

Fog and rain hampered visibility. It was a steep climb to the site for medical aid men. Eight planes and two ships were dispatched to Sao Miguel to help.

The French government company said that since the start of its trans-Atlantic service July 1 1946, it had made 1,971 flights without an accident. Capt. de la Noue had flown the ocean eight times and had logged 6,700 hours.

The plane, 1,400 miles out of Paris, had gasoline reserves for about four more hours of flying at the time of its last report.

Cerdan, France's No. 1 sports figure, was gay when he took the plane at Orly field last night.

"With all my strength I want to get back that title that I so stupidly lost," he told friends. "For those who say I'm washed up I can say that, despite my 33 years and 110 fights, I feel myself at my peak."

Just before the takeoff, he telephoned his wife in Casablanca:

"I promise you I'll bring back the world title."

Cause Of London Plane Crash Remains Mystery To Survivor

LONDON, Oct. 28. (AP)—The crash of a Superior Oil company plane which killed four Americans and two Britons here early today is a mystery to the sole survivor, Co-Pilot Earl Sivage of Los Angeles.

Sivage's parents live at Wheeler, Texas.

"I do not know what happened," the 33-year-old flier said from his hospital bed. "When we crashed the cockpit was split open and I was thrown clear."

The twin engined plane went out of control as it roared off the London airport runway bound for Rome.

With his gasoline-soaked clothes blazing, Sivage was thrown 50 feet from the flaming wreckage. He rolled in rain puddles to put out the flames and saved himself from critical burns.

Two officials of the oil company were among the dead. They were Robert Allen of Los Angeles, vice-president in charge of Superior's foreign operations; and James Lewis, 40, of Los Angeles, the company's lawyer.

Also killed were the plane's pilot, Capt. Joseph Jordan of San Fernando, Calif.; Andrew Cole, of Long Beach, Calif., the wireless operator; and Sir Hugh Weightman, 50, and W. J. Horne, about 40, British officials of the Central Mining Investment Trust of London.

Child Is Rescued

father remained behind, swamped with questions from reporters and neighbors.

Bobby toppled into the pipe about 2:48 p. m. while playing. A 12-year-old playmate saw him fall and spread the alarm. His rescue came after excavation work by three steam shovels, compressed air hammers and volunteer picks and shovels.

"It's unbelievable, like a nightmare. I never saw so many people get together to help in all my life," said the father as he looked back at an afternoon in which he "had no conception of time."

"Oh, lord, just to see that boy..." murmured Gow when asked how he felt when they brought the boy out.

Gow said they knew Bobby was alive throughout the rescue work because the child cried when the flashlight beamed down the pipe was turned off. He quit crying each time the light was snapped on again.

Lodges 14 Feet Down

Bobby lodged about 14 feet down in the pipe when he dropped in feet first, and it was not known at the time of the rescue operations whether it contained water.

Workers were successful in working a rope over one of Bobby's wrists, but fears that the rope would slip and release the boy or cause him serious injury kept them from attempting to pull him up.

He continued to slip down the pipe as work progressed and was standing on the bottom when the hole was cut through. There was no water.

Neighbors with picks and shovels tore at earth and tree roots around the pipe until steam shovels and air hammers arrived to take over.

Mother Remains Calm

The mother remained calm when Bobby was brought out on the stretcher. She showed no signs of tears as she climbed into the ambulance.

At the hospital, attendants said the doctor ordered "no supper" for Bobby because the child was too excited. He received only a glass of warm milk.

Bobby's sister, Peggy, 12, excitedly recounted to people how her brother had fallen.

"Mother sent me to get him and I saw his head go down the hole," she said.

She said her father had kept the pipe covered with boards weighted down with a rock. Apparently the children had removed them.

Alarm Is Sounded

Three children were playing with Bobby at the time of the accident—Johnny and Jerry Schneider, aged 12 and 7, and Bobby's brother, Jimmy, 8. Johnny carried the alarm to Bobby's mother.

Police Lieutenant Otto Ludwig, one of the first to arrive, dug around the pipe most of the time. He burst into tears as Bobby was rescued.

The child's father, a printer at a local publishing firm, had stood at the side of the pipe's opening, calming and assuring his son while rescue work progressed. A light shining down the pipe played on the boy's hair and an oxygen line kept pumping into the pipe until workers cut through to the lad.

Condition Said Good

At Brackenridge hospital a room was waiting for Bobby when he arrived. Attendants reported his condition good.

The accident happened in an eastern suburban section of the city known as Govalle.

The family moved there about six months ago from Hackettstown, New Jersey.

Gow said he had nailed a cover over the shaft opening after moving into the modest, frame home last April.

"I had pieces of two-by-two for stanchions and had nailed boards down to them. I don't see how they got them loose," he said.

Gow recalled that he and the children had been picking stones out of a garden a short time before the accident happened.

Waiting For Dinner

"My wife called me in for dinner. I washed up and was getting ready to call the children when Johnny Schneider came rushing in and said Bobby had fallen in the well.

" 'What well?' I asked. I knew there were some wells out in the pasture further away, but I didn't think he meant the one in the back yard.

" 'The well right in the back yard,' said Johnny.

"I ran out to the well to see if I could see Bobby. Then I ran and grabbed a shovel and hoe. I don't know who called for the firemen and policemen. I don't believe it was 10 minutes before the fire department arrived and the police right behind them.

"I'll never be able to thank all of the people who helped. I don't even know their names."

Air Force Changes

conventional engines, a substantial number of the planes were ordered. Later it was decided to put jet engines in the boomerang-shaped craft.

Production of the "wings" on a large scale was abandoned after Air Force study boards decided to place chief atom-bombing reliance in the B-36.

SANDERS SCHOOL ROYALTY—Helen James last night was crowned Queen of the Sanders Elementary school Hallowe'en carnival by her escort, James Mullenix, who was named king of the carnival. Queen Helen, 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Gladys James of 720 Ave. C, defeated her closest opponent for the honor by several hundred votes. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Mullenix, of 717 Wolffarth. Both are sixth-grade students. A throng of about 300 persons attended the Hallowe'en carnival which was sponsored by the school Parent-Teacher organization. The Hallowe'en party was typical of several held in the city's schools and over the area last night. (Staff Photo.)

CIO Battle Looms

UE will gain any additional delegates.

The CIO Textile Workers meanwhile contributed $250,000 to support the four-week-old strike of the nation's steelworkers.

The contribution boosted the steelworkers' war chest from outside sources to $350,000. The CIO United Auto Workers executive board appropriated $100,000 to the fund earlier this week.

The textile workers, headed by right-wing President Emil Rieve, also were reported preparing to pass the hat among the union's 350,000 members. The goal of this drive would be another $250,000.

Important convention committees meanwhile were getting things ready for Monday's convention start.

The resolutions committee, under the firm leadership of CIO United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther, strengthened a foreign policy statement this afternoon after earlier left-wing opposition to a milder one.

Man Dies In Wreck

over the stretch before Saturday. He said traffic was re-routed via Llano and Austin.

The derailment caused the University of Texas football team to change from rail to airplane for its trip to Dallas for its game tomorrow with Southern Methodist.

The freight wreck was the second within 12 hours in Texas. Seventeen cars of a Texas and Pacific freight piled up Thursday night nine miles west of Big Spring. Two passenger trains were held up all night. No one was injured.

William Thomas Little of Casper, Wyo., was killed in the M-K-T wreck. He and the two injured men were riding in a coal car loaded with sheet iron.

Living Costs Rise

nevertheless was up.

The Agriculture department reported today, however, that prices paid farmers slumped 2.4 per cent between mid-September and mid-October, due to lower prices received on the farm for hogs, truck crops, cotton and corn.

This could result in a later reduction in consumer prices. To date dropping farm prices have not cut retail food costs much because of high transportation and labor costs, plus federal support programs.

Top federal economic authority said higher rents, accounting for a good portion of the living costs increase, may be expected to go up as progressive decontrol, authorized by Congress, becomes effective.

He said the unexpected pork price increase might have been caused by light slaughterings in the period with the bulk of the crop to be marketed later in the year.

The economist said, however, that the other increases, including rents, were not surprising, and that the entire report did not indicate any inflationary trend, INS reported.

Protests Made

In a more restrained vein, however, several Congress members declared it was inevitable that Denfeld should go after his bitter testimony that a "landlocked" high command was scuttling the Navy.

In a dramatic face-to-face meeting, Denfeld conferred with Secretary Matthews behind closed doors this noon to discuss a possible new assignment for the admiral.

A Navy communique, handed to newsmen, said that at the close of the conference "Denfeld asked time to consider developments affecting a new duty assignment."

It said Matthews assured Denfeld he would "do everything possible to make the remaining period of his service a fitting climax to his past distinguished record."

Offer To School

nominations may and shall be admitted to equal advantages of a liberal education."

The judge said the trustees' statement signed by Stanley N. Murphy, Gerald H. Brandon and Joseph E. Brown, "repudiates" one of the conditions under which he had agreed to endow the college.

The condition called for the exclusion of persons of African and Asiatic descent from the school.

Armstrong denied he was opposed to the Jewish and negro races as such but added "I am opposed to racial mongrelization."

Offer Is Denied

He denied also that he had made an offer to donate $5,000,000 to Southern Methodist university if trustees would bar Jewish students and discharge Doctor Umphrey Lee as president.

"I made no such offer," he declared, "and there was no such rejection."

"The only semblance for truth for this report is that Dr. Stone, president of Texas Wesleyan college at Fort Worth (which was founded by my father and my intimate friend, Bishop Boaz) solicited a donation for his college.

"I refused on the ground that it and SMU are Methodist schools and that SMU sponsors a lecture course subject to the approval of the Dallas Jewish synagogue; and on the further ground that the United Methodist church is a member of the Communist Federal Council of Churches.

"I only had some correspondence with Dr. Lee on that subject," he concluded.

Answers Trustees

Armstrong's statement was an answer to the trustees who said last night that they would not countenance any charter amendment requiring teaching of racial superiority or barring non-Christians.

Armstrong, an 84-year-old oil man, had offered the college an endowment of potential $50,000,000 value.

Earlier tonight Murphy, who is chairman of the board of trustees' executive committee, declared "there are some things that money cannot buy."

"There isn't enough money in the world to make us go through with a philosophy of education based on religious bias or anti-Semitic feeling," Murphy said.

Request Denied

"We will not consent to any alteration whatever of JMC's 147-year-old charter by an amendment which would uphold such a philosophy."

Armstrong and the proposed trustees had been scheduled to hold a meeting at 9 a.m. tomorrow to discuss the trustees' statement.

Armstrong placed two conditions upon the acceptance by the college.

1—A charter change providing that the school would be primarily for white Christians. No African or Asiatic or person of African or Asiatic descent would be admitted as a student or in the faculty.

2—A reduction in the board of trustees from 12 to five of which the Judge Armstrong foundation would name three.

The college accepted the conditions Monday. The board of trustees at the same time in an unannounced action declined a request that the school "teach the superiority of the Anglo-Saxon and Latin-American races."

Allen J. Armstrong, son of the donor, and business manager of the school, said Monday night that the school would "teach the superiority of the Anglo-Saxon and Latin-American races."

This, however, was not a condition to acceptance of the endowment stipulated by George W. Armstrong, the donor. He had expressed it as a wish.

SMU PRESIDENT DENIES SCHOOL ENDOWMENT OFFER

DALLAS, Oct. 28. (AP)—Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist university, said today wealthy George W. Armstrong, sr., did not make him a proposition of $5 million endowment for SMU if the school would bar Jewish students from classes.

Dr. W. Harrison Baker of Dallas, SMU trustee, said last night such an offer was made by the Fort Worth and Mississippi capitalist. He said Dr. Lee refused it, then Armstrong attempted without success to get the school's board of trustees to discharge Dr. Lee and reconsider the offer.

Beverly Thompson of Fort Worth, secretary of the Judge Armstrong foundation, told the Dallas News Armstrong had made tentative proposals of endowments for Southern Methodist, Texas Wesleyan college at Fort Worth, and other Methodist schools.

NEWS BRIEFS

Approximately 60 persons are expected to attend a bimonthly luncheon program of Lubbock County Bar association today noon in Hilton hotel and hear Attorney William H. Evans discuss eight constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 8 in Texas. Association members and members of other bar associations of this area had been invited to attend and bring a guest. Officials had asked, however, that those bringing guests complete reservations yesterday so that final plans could be made.

The regular Sunday morning Gideon Spiritual Feast and breakfast meeting will be held in Hilton hotel from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock. All Gideon members are urged to attend.

Graveside services for Jake Faverman, 35, Hobbs, N. M., who died after his plane crashed Tuesday, were held at Feldman Memorial cemetery at 11 a. m. Friday. Rabbi Julius Kerman of Congregational Shaareth Israel, Lubbock, officiated. Rabbi Kerman also officiated at funeral services held Thursday for Faverman in the Griffin Funeral home in Hobbs.

W. B. Hogan, jr., of 1513 Seventeenth, underwent major surgery Friday morning at West Texas hospital. His condition following the operation was pronounced "fine" by attending physicians. Hogan, who has been hospitalized since a car accident June 5, underwent surgery previously at Roswell, N. M., for a fractured hip.

Dr. B. F. Thielen, Paris dentist and brother of Mrs. W. W. Rix of Lubbock has been named a member of the board of regents of the American College of Dentists. He is one of eight dentists in the nation to be named to the post. Dr. Thielen is well-known to dentists in this area, having visited here frequently in the past.

Films of the 1948 football game between Army and Navy were shown Friday to members of the American Business club at a luncheon meeting in the Hilton hotel. Chief Petty Officer W. J. Spivey, navy recruiter here, supplied the one-reel film. George Dale presided and Rev. B. Watkins gave the invocation.

Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank left Friday for San Antonio where officials said they had detained A. J. Compton, defendant in two forgery by alteration complaints on file in the court of D. W. Robertson, justice of the peace. The defendant is accused of having "raised" two checks signed by H. V. Edsall from $25 to $225.

James T. Florence, 33, of Slaton, has been committed to Lubbock county jail under assessment of $100 fine and three days of imprisonment, records at the jail and in the district court's office showed Friday. An order of 72nd District Judge Dan Blair recited that Florence had violated terms of a Sept. 5 injunction enjoining him from interfering with his former wife and two daughters who had been given to her custody in connection with a divorce decree. Seven violations were described to have happened.

Justice of the Peace D. W. Robertson Friday set $300 bond for Roy Wilson, 44, after a hearing on affidavit of Wilson's wife, Lillie, that the defendant had threatened to kill her with a gun.

A number of local painters, members of the local painters union, will gather at the Lubbock Boys' club, Twenty-third street and Avenue K, today to work, club officials said Friday night.

A young waitress, Addie Calloway, of 1617 Ave. E, was still hoping Friday night for return of money she had been saving to attend, with government assistance, a school for the deaf. She told police she had lost a billfold Friday which contained $91 she had saved and papers important toward her entering of the school. A reward has been offered for the return of the property. Papers in the billfold identify the owner, police said.

Henry Luce Honored At Snyder Gathering

SNYDER, Oct. 28. (Special)—C. T. McLaughlin was host to a party at his ranch home 12 miles southwest of Snyder tonight, honoring Henry Luce, editor and principal owner of Life, Time and Fortune magazines.

Thirty-five guests from Abilene, Fort Worth, Dallas, Lubbock, Midland and Snyder were present.

Mr. Luce is in Texas for a three day visit, and will return to Dallas Saturday where he will attend the Texas University-Southern Methodist football game. He also is being entertained extensively in Dallas and Fort Worth.

The internationally known Luce described his visit to Texas as being "to get the feel of the state again."

Slump Is Predicted

The Federal Reserve board said industrial output went up two percentage points in September to a level of 172 per cent of the prewar average. The board warned that its index probably will be down to 152 the end of October.

The board said industrial output was "curtailed sharply in October."

Meantime, Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) a member of the Senate Labor committee, urged Mr. Truman to call the steel strike principals to the White House for a conference before resorting to "legal weapons" to end the strike.

Humphrey said the President should "use his good offices again." Mr. Truman intervened several times in the steel controversy last summer and won a 77-day postponement of the walkout.

Coal Men Mark Time

Lewis and northern coal operators, who walked out of negotiations with the United Mine Workers last weekend, marked time in their contract deadlock awaiting completion of the government's operations in the steel dispute.

Lewis is seeking an increase in the operators' 20 cent a ton contribution to the welfare fund in his present contract battle. The fund had to stop benefits Sept. 17 for lack of money.

Van Horn told a federal court, however, that the present $100 million annual welfare program is "adequate and sufficient" if properly administered.

Replying to a suit by George Livengood, Pennsylvania miner, attacking operations of the fund, Van Horn put all the blame on Lewis, union trustee and Bridges, neutral trustee.

West Texas Alerted

a 1949 Ford was reported to have stopped a nine-year-old girl on Fifteenth near College Ave. Thursday, following her some distance while asking her for directions to a certain address.

His actions, officials were told, were made the more suspicious by his summary breaking off of attention and driving away when the girl's father opened the door to his residence and looked out.

Man Described

Officials said the man wore no hat, had on a gray suit, had light curly hair, and was "heavy set."

Several recent instances of a man offering money to girls of that approximate age in efforts to have them accompany him into an alley have been reported here. One girl said a man threatened her with a knife near a school.

Police said a $20 electric razor was reported stolen from 1008 Ave. J, where C. D. Jordan, owner, had parked his car.

Robert Benson, 41, a Lubbock negro, was fined $25 and costs of C. E. Lynn's justice court after a plea of guilty of failure to leave information at the scene of an accident.

County officials told newsmen Friday that the Jake Hill charged Thursday with violating an injunction against trafficking in liquor is a Slaton negro. The added information was given after it was learned that a Lubbock businessman is also named Jake Hill. The latter is associated with Fred Gentry in a garage and repair shop in 2500 block Walnut, and has never been charged in such a case.

W. C. Beck, about 23, of San Angelo was adjudged innocent of a drunk driving charge filed in November, in a county court jury verdict signed by J. E. Tims as foreman and handed to Judge Walter Davies Friday afternoon. He was represented by A. C. Cooke of the firm of Dillard and Cooke.

A fine of $5 and county court costs were assessed Friday afternoon by Judge Walter Davies after D. C. Slade had pleaded guilty of check law violation, county court officials said.

Roofers Union 'Out'

with the roofing contractors two weeks ago and demanded a 25 cent an hour pay boost for journeymen on down. Later discussions lowered the raise demands to the 12½ cent level but this coupled with the warning that the workers would quit if they were turned down.

"We did not see how the union was justified in asking for a raise at this time," Stafford said, "so we had to refuse."

The Texas Roofing company saw all of its 30 roofing union workers report for work Friday, however. Woodrow Rampy, partner and manager, said that his workers came in as usual. "I do not think they will be talked into quitting," he said, "although several other union men came on the job and told them to quit Friday," he asserted.

Others Are Hit

Other Lubbock concerns crippled by the union's desire to "pick cotton" include various other firms handling roofing work.

"I have no definite plans about the situation," revealed Stafford. "But we are going to have to continue roofing sooner or later, with or without these union men who have walked off." The men, all members of the Texas association of the United Roofing Contractors plan to meet the first of the week to discuss the problem.

Lubbock City police were informed of the walkout by the roofing contractors and were requested to "keep an eye open for trouble" despite the fact that most of the roofers were positive there would be no violence over the issue.

Top Official Expected

Ross is said to be meeting Monday with representatives of the International Roofers association here.

Ross could not be contacted by newsmen last night for a statement, nor could any other member of the Roofers Union.

C. J. Lightholder, business manager and secretary of the Building and Construction Trades council, with which the roofers local is affiliated, confirmed the report that Ross would meet with International union representatives here Monday.

Harold Blank, manager of the Homer Maxey Lumber company and one of the partners in the new two and one-half million dollar Modern Manor building project now under construction in southwest Lubbock, said that the departure of the roofers would not interfere at the present time with the plans of the contractors. "We will go right on ahead and just hope that the difficulty is straightened out by the time we need our roofing done."

Other projects, involving millions of dollars in contracts, also face the threat of a tie-up if and when the work reaches the stage where roofers are needed and the strike is still underway.

Members of other unions said definitely they would not do the work customarily done by the union roofers, nor would they work with non-union roofers.

COMMUNISTS ARE SHOT

CHUNGKING, Oct. 28 (AP)—Nine Chinese-accused Communists died before a firing squad today in the biggest mass execution here in many years.

Absolute stillness, a condition few ever have encountered, is achieved in a new silent chamber. This no-echo chamber was designed and constructed for the testing of delicate instruments.

Lubbock Men Build Needed Four-Room Houses For Vets' Families At Rate Of One Every Eight Days

When Joe Stewart and Jack Saylor drive down the streets of their low-cost housing developments, the little children stand on the sidewalk and yell, "Hey Joe! Hi, Jack!" and housewives wave at them.

And that's not the most unusual thing about these two builders who are producing a four-room house every eight days for veterans who make $175 to $200 a month and can afford to make payments of $30 to $35 a month for a place to call their own.

Others Are Planned

Stewart and Saylor have built 80 four-room houses for sale in Lubbock this year, and they have plans to build 200 more in the coming year. They sell them to veterans under provisions of the G. I. bill, and nearly every day the waiting list of purchasers grows longer.

Right now they are building 24 homes of 780 square feet each on Fortieth and Forty-first streets between Aves. T and U. They have just bought 15 more lots adjoining these and will start 15 more houses soon.

These houses sell for $5,100 each for just the house, or for $5,500 with floor furnace, venetian blinds, inlaid linoleum in kitchen and bath, and metal wall tile in the bathroom. A $250 payment is all it takes to get one.

Can Have Money Back

The builders tell their customers that, if they are not satisfied, they can have their $250 back. So far there has been a marked absence of these.

Stewart and Saylor have been in business in Lubbock about 12 years, and have parlayed a small second-hand truck business into large holdings of real esate and several businesses.

Their official place of business is still Jack & Joe's Used Truck lot at 518 Broadway. They also own a junk yard, several other used truck and car lots, several buildings and other business property in the east part of the business district, and a great amount of rental property.

Did It Differently

When they went into the house-building business they did it a little differently. First they hunted land that "could be had right," as Stewart says. They bought it "right" and then bought materials "right" too — purchasing lumber, sheetrock and other materials in carload or truckload quantities, in many cases sending a driver to the mill or factory to pick it up and reduce the freight charges.

They pay spot cash for everything they buy. When they are building 24 houses, they buy 24 sets of plumbing and 24 sets of light fixtures and other materials all at once, getting a better price for the cash transaction and the large quantity purchase.

They hire labor conractors to do work for them, and when payday comes on Friday afternoon, checks are given to all hands — about 40 men are currently at work—and then the checks are cashed right on the spot, a convenience that the men like.

Work On Smaller Profit

"I don't believe you can find a similar house within $1,000 of our price," Saylor says, and you can see he means it.

The partners work on a smaller profit than is usual, since they expect to operate on a $300 margin per house.

"We could sell 100 in one week if we had them to sell," Saylor says.

The city building inspector's department says the Stewart-Saylor houses are in strict compliance with the city's building code. The Veterans administration guarantees loans on them, since they meet its requirements.

Each house is built on a 50-by-132½ foot lot, of conventional construction with reinforced concrete foundation, frame studs with sheathing and tarpaper covered with asbestos shingles, sheetrock interior walls, oak floor and sub floors separated by 15-pound felt, 210 composition shingle roofing on felt and wood sheathing. All plumbing pipe is copper.

Fixtures Are Installed

The interiors are papered, attractive light fixtures are hung, linen closets, bedroom closets, hot water heaters and cast iron enameled plumbing fixtures are installed and for those veterans who want them, venetian blinds and floor furnaces are installed.

Sidewalks and garages are not built, since the partners feel that those are things that a family can build when they can afford it.

The average payment on a house of this type on a G. I. loan runs $33 or $35 a monh including taxes and insurance. Stewart and Saylor turned down an offer to rent the current 24 houses for $100 a month each.

"We have something that a veteran with a family and making $175 to $200 a month can afford to own," Stewart explains.

In The City Limits

In the current development in southwest Lubbock, the project is in the city limits, but no utilities were available. The partners laid their own water lines and installed steel septic tanks until such time as the city can get around to provide these services.

Southwestern Public Service company installed a power line to the project immediately, and then the city installed a power line to duplicate it.

The current project is one of several the partners have engaged in. They have built others at Fortieth and Ave. W, near Hubber Baseball park, and in east Lubbock across the canyon they have outdone themselves and built four-room houses to sell for $3,750 each. On these they carry their own "paper" at a slightly higher rate of interest than the G. I. loans on which the bank carries the mortgage.

Crews Use Teamwork

Part of their success in holding down costs is due to the teamwork the building crews use. In the first place, all materials needed are kept on the site, avoiding delay.

In the second place, the different tradesmen are all on hand at the same time and do their various jobs at the time it needs to be done.

As a result, the houses are being finished at the rate of one every eight days and Saylor thinks families ought to be living in all of them by Christmas and still have time to get their Christmas trees up.

West Texas Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y Groups Meet

Tech To Be Host For Youth Session Today

Texas Technological college will be host to West Texas Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y club members today, when they meet for a one-day youth and government training session.

Chief purpose of the training program, to be under direction of Dr. Byron R. Abernathy, Tech government professor, is to provide background and suggested areas of legislation for the third annual Hi-Y model legislature to be held in Austin Dec. 9, 10 and 11.

One Of Twelve In Texas

Official delegates are expected to be here from Lubbock, Abilene, Big Spring, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Amarillo, Pampa and Borger.

The Lubbock conference is one of three similar training sessions being held in Texas. Another is to be held simultaneously at the University of Houston. The other session was held last Saturday at Baylor university, Waco.

Delegates to each of the three training sessions are to choose a candidate for governor to head the legislative session, with the runoff election set for Dec. 9 when the youthful legislators convene. Those attending the Lubbock session will also elect a lieutenant governor and the reading clerk of the house.

System To Be Outlined

The delegates will hear members of the Texas Tech government department outline the Texas legislative system and suggest reasonable areas within which new legislation might be drafted. The delegates will then take this information back to their respective clubs for discussion in preparation for drafting bills for the December model legislature.

The youth and government program was started in New York in 1936 by a YMCA secretary as an experiment to apply one of the basic laws of learning to the serious matter ofedeveloping trained citizens and community leaders. To date, 21 states have conducted one or more programs of youth and government.

Speakers Are Named

Speakers for the day include Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Tech, who will give the welcoming address at the 10 a.m. opening session. He will be followed by Dr. J. W. Davis, head of the government department, who will address the group on "Government in the State of Texas."

After a recess at 10:40 a.m. and ice cream in the college's dairy manufacturing department, Dr. Reginald Rushing, head of the accounting and finance department, will combine with J. W. Jackson of the government department and Preston E. Smith, member of the Texas House of Representatives from the 119th district, to give various ideas concerning needed areas of legislation in the state.

S. M. Kennedy of the government department will outline the method of drafting a bill for the legislature following lunch and a tour of the college by those attending. Final address of the day will be delivered by R. D. Mack of the government department and will outline the path of a bill on its way to becoming law.

Election of officers at 3:15 p.m. will close the one-day session.

Five Hurt In Crash 'Slightly Improved'

CROSBYTOWN, Oct. 28 (Special)—The condition of five persons, all members of the same family, who were injured, one seriously, in a two-car collision Thursday afternoon on Farm Road 387, about two miles southwest of Lorenzo, were described as "slightly improved" late tonight by attendants of Crosbytown Clinic-hospital.

The victims, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Duffey of Clarksville and their children, Marion Earl, 4; Effie Loraine, 16; Lethadell, 11; and Carl, 8; had come to Lorenzo to help in the cotton harvest. Their car, a 1940 Chevrolet sedan driven by Mr. Duffey, was practically demolished.

The accident happened when a 1940 Ford sedan, being driven by Earl Bonine, 38, who lives south of Ralls, swerved into the Duffy's automobile as they were passing each other. Bonine has been charged with driving while intoxicated and released after posting a $500 bond.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Duffey, who suffered a broken leg and serious cuts and bruises.

Disciples Of Christ Select Next Convention President

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28. (AP)—Dr. John A. Tate of Richmond, Va., today was elected president of the next international convention of the Disciples of Christ.

The Disciples will meet at Oklahoma City Oct. 15 to 20, next year.

Other officers included Mrs. R. A. Pearson, Abilene, Tex., second vice-president.

A program to bring about a merger with the Northern Baptists was approved yesterday. It would bring into one group the 1,800,000 members of the Disciples and the 1,500,000 Northern Baptists.

Photographers To Meet Here

Members of the Panhandle Professional Photographers association are to gather here tonight and early Sunday for their regular quarterly meeting, which will feature anual election of officers.

Between 75 and 100 operators of photographic studios and their employes from a wide section of the Panhandle-Plains area will attend the meeting, which opens Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Hilton hote.

Honoring early arrivals, a reception and open house is to be given by local members of the association at the Hilton hotel, starting at 9 o'clock tonight. Floyd Koen is president of the Lubbock group.

Until this meeting, the sessions were conducted in Amarillo, but Lubbock was selected as host for the October meeting upon invitation of the local group.

W. E. Perry of Perryton is president of the association and also of the Texas association. Other officers are: Jack Edwards, Amarillo, portrait vice-president; Irl Smith, Pampa, commercial vice-president; and Mrs. Nan Perry, Perryton, secretary-treasurer.

Speakers on Sunday morning's session will include Winston Reeves, Lubbock, who will report on the national convention and council meeting, of which he is a member; and a talk on business-getting ideas by Jack Rodden, Roswell, N. M.

Burritt S. Mills, Lubbock, engineer and business consultant, will talk on sales psychology, employe and customer relationship, employe training and other phases of modern business as one of the featured speakers on the afternoon program Sunday.

Don Hooper, Rochester, N. Y., representative of the Eastman Kodak company, will be another featured speaker Sunday afternoon.

A tour of the Reeves Camera shop and Engraving plant at 1707-09 Broadway will close the meeting Sunday afternoon.

Chicago Hog Prices Hit Lowest Point Since End Of OPA Controls

CHICAGO, Oct. 28. (INS)—Hog prices at the Chicago stockyards dropped to their lowest since the removal of OPA controls in 1946 when the top slumped to $17.75 today.

Prices generally were 25-to-50 cents lower than yesterday's close and reflected a 1-to-2 cent decline in the wholesale market.

Texas Young Demos Elect New President

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28. (AP)—County Judge Max Triplett of Hillsboro was elected president of Texas Young Democrats today as delegates voted to capsule their convention into one day instead of running through Saturday as initially planned.

The action to abbreviate the annual gathering of young politicos came after Gov. Roy Turner of Oklahoma wired that he would not be able to appear Saturday because of an emergency legislative session.

Five vice presidents named are Maynard Herbert, Corpus Christi; Mrs. Lucille Pillow, El Paso; Wayne Justice, Athens; State Rep. Joe Pyle, Fort Worth and Carl Abramson, Dallas.

Leslie Chappell of Fort Worth, treasurer; W. B. Williams of Dallas, chairman of the executive committee, and Claud Fleet of Fort Worth, vice chairman.

Mrs. Polly Strong of Houston was named national committeewoman and State Rep. Frank C. Oltorf of Marlin, national committeeman.

MAN STILL NOT IDENTIFIED

BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 28. (AP)—A man killed here by police early Wednesday as he ran from an attempted safe cracking remained unidentified today. Acting Police Chief Gus Krausse said his appearance did not fit the description of a man wanted for murder in Big Spring.

The United States had 1716.8 deaths daily during 1930, or a total of 626,283 for the year.

LUBBOCK HIGH SCENE FOR FINAL MEETING TODAY

Second Annual District English Workshop Session Opens Here; 90 West Texas Teachers Attending

Discussion of "Development of Critical and Judicial Reading Attitudes" will highlight the third and final general session this morning of the second annual District IV English Workshop-Conference.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Lubbock Senior High school.

The annual meeting began Friday afternoon, with junior and senior high school and college teachers of English from over District IV of the Texas State Teachers association in attendance. Approximately 90 persons attended the Friday sessions. A number of other teachers are expected to take part in today's session.

Meeting Opens Friday

The first session of the conference was held Friday afternoon. The main discussion topic was "Problems of Reading Comprehension." At 4:15 p.m. Friday, a special performance of "Twelfth Night" was presented for the visiting teachers in the speech auditorium on the Tech campus.

A dinner meeting was held last night at Luby's suburban cafeteria, with T. C. Janeway, Tech librarian, as principal speaker.

This morning's meeting will commence at 9 o'clock and end at 10:30, to be followed by a question and answer period for all teachers.

A business session, followed by committee meetings, will close the conference at noon today.

Principal speakers at this morning's session will be Mrs. James G. Allen, of the Tech journalism faculty, who will discuss critical reading of newspapers; and Mrs. Robert Dobson, of Wayland college, Plainview, who will discuss critical analysis in reading books.

The question and answer period will be directed by Miss Dorothy Lomax, director of secondary education in the Lubbock public schools. All teachers will be given opportunity to ask questions and make comment on the teaching of English and allied matters.

Speakers in addition to Janeway at last night's dinner meeting included Mrs. Gladys Sims of Lubbock, Mrs. L. H. McElroy of Seminole, Mrs. R. Briggs Irvin of Lubbock, and Dr. Allan L. Stout of the Tech English faculty.

Man Suffers Critical Gunshot Wound Here

George Pilcher, 55-year-old manufacturer's representative, was rushed to West Texas hospital in critical condition from a bullet wound in his head about 4 p.m. Friday, a few minutes after his wife reportedly found his pajama-clad body in a bathtub at their home at 2429 Nineteenth.

Hospital attendants pronounced Pilcher's condition "very critical." A .25 calibre bullet which entered the left side of the man's head was removed from his right temple, assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr told newsmen.

Officials said they were in possession of a .25 calibre pistol believed to have been connected with the shooting.

Mrs. Pilcher, who was alone with her husband in the house at the time of the accident, said she heard a noise on the second floor of the residence, and on investigation, found her husband slumped in the bathtub, blood running from the wound in his head. Mrs. Pilcher called West Texas hospital where attendants called an ambulance.

Pharr said the bullet entered Pilcher's head at the left temple ranging upward through the head and coming to rest just under the skin of the right temple. Amount of injury to Pilcher's brain could not be immediately determined. Pharr said the man's left temple was severely powder-burned.

Pilcher has been in ill health for sometime, and has been confined to his bed recently, Pharr said he had learned.

Five-State Burglary Ring Broken In State

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 28. (U.P.)—A burglary gang allegedly led by an Oklahoma City man has been broken up in Texas after stealing thousands of dollars worth of sewing machines in at least five states, officers here reported today.

O. K. Bivins and Bob Turner, Oklahoma crime bureau agents, said Donald Wayne Hunter, 26, has admitted thefts from high schools at Guthrie, Deer Creek, Wellston, Pawnee, Sulphur, Davis and Sayre. Hunter's home is in Oklahoma City, but he formerly worked as a sewing machine mechanic at Tulsa, the officer said.

"We talked to him at Van Zandt, Tex., where he's charged with burglary," Bivins said. "He gave us a statement admitting a lot of the burglaries but he can't even remember them all.

Four other members of the gang also have been arrested in Texas, where they reportedly stole hundreds of machines. Bivins said they also operated in Kansas, Louisiana, and New Mexico.

He said the group sold the machines at cities some distance from the schools where they were stolen—St. Louis, Dallas, Fort Worth, Little Rock, Ark., Shamrock, Tex., Decatur, Ill., and Oklahoma City.

The Oklahoma crime bureau has eight of the machines in its office, recovered from a local dealer who bought them from the gang. Bivins said the dealer has promised to round up nine more that he has resold.

HE FOUND OUT!

A Deflated Balloon

PAUL G. HOFFMAN, director of the European relief program, sent up a rather obvious trial balloon a few days ago. Subsequent events indicate his discovery that certain winds are blowing in a direction exactly opposite to what he had hoped, if not expected.

The trial balloon was his statement that the United States might have to continue the relief program long after 1952, the expiration year of the so-called Marshall plan. The presumption was that, among other purposes, the statement was intended as a sort of preliminary feeler of public sentiment toward prepetual relief.

But, regardless of whether Mr. Hoffman was seeking reaction to the idea, he got it. And the consensus of Washington observers is that the reaction has been unfavorable almost unanimously and, in a great many instances, with considerable vigor.

The response may not be the reason why Mr. Hoffman is in Europe now for the pointedly announced purpose of telling Marshall plan nations that they had better, to quote Washington press dispatches, "speed up their recovery progress—or else."

The only reasonable presumption possible as an explanation for these reports, which came from the highest State department sources, is that the administration is convinced that Americans as a whole are in no mood now to consider prolongation of the relief program. The news from Washington had all the earmarks of an almost desperate attempt to allay the indignation aroused by Mr. Hoffman's original statement.

It suggests that the present opposition to the perpetual relief is not merely a wind, but of the greater velocity of a gale.

New School Sites

LUBBOCK Independent School district has been fortunate in its Boards of Trustees. Without an exception we can recall, they have possessed in high degree the foresight and vision to anticipate and make provision for expanding needs.

The only time Lubbock has been acutely short of schoolroom space was during and immediately after the war, when building of nearly all kinds was in a state of almost complete paralysis. Even then, there was no shortage of sites for needed structures. Trustees of the past had looked ahead and made provision for this phase of expansion.

Attempting to anticipate the future needs of Lubbock has not been easy. The City has grown with great and sustained rapidity. The question inevitably has existed all along the line as to how long that growth would continue. Future school planning very often has required the purchase of sites which were open fields, well beyond the built-up areas. They were bought in the conviction, unfailingly justified by subsequent events, that the City would grow to and beyond those sites. Without an exception, we believe, they have been bought for much less than if the trustees had waited even a year or two.

Members of the present board followed the splendid example of their predecessors when, at their regular meeting this week, they named a committee to look around for more sites for future school buildings.

We have no idea what tracts may be chosen and purchased. But, for our part, we are more than content to entrust this matter to the board, with confidence as to the soundness of the actions approved and the adequateness of the provisions made for the future.

Someone To Love

BY IRENE LONNEN ERNHART
Distributed By NEA, Inc.

(THE STORY: Jenny's marriage to Ted Duncan has been unhappy because Ted cannot forget Liz Conover, who jilted him before his marriage. Even the arrival of twin sons fail to bring the Duncans together. One bright spot for Jenny is Ted's old friend Rick Morris, but Ted suspects Rick is in love with Jenny. Liz meanwhile has divorced Jim Courtney, with whom she eloped, and is setting her net for Ted again. She invites Ted to a cocktail party on the same day Jenny meets Rick on the street and invites him to her basement apartment for dinner. Ted comes home late, very late.)

TED had been drinking quite a lot. He was very gay and effusive, especially when he saw Rick. He kept saying, "I had to work late. That's my story and I'm going to stick to it. And if Jenny doesn't like it, you can cheer her up."

Between the two of them they got him to bed, and as he drowsed off he was still muttering about Rick being the one to "love her and take care of her."

"I don't know what to say, Rick," Jenny whispered as' they cleared off the table later.

Rick looked at her gravely. "You don't have to say anything."

"I don't think Tod's happy!" The words tumbled over one another in her eagerness to make excuses. "He doesn't care too much for his job, and we're in debt, his mother's sick, and—well, things keep piling up. But I'm sure everything will be straightened out."

"Of course, Jenny."

Jenny's eyes fell away from his. She twisted a paper napkin into a ball in her palm. "I'm especially ashamed of Tod for saying the things he did. He'll be ashamed too, tomorrow."

There was a queer look on Rick's face as he stared at her for an instant, as though he were about to say something.

He didn't speak, but Jenny knew all at once that Tod was right, and Nina had been right. Jenny herself had been incredibly stupid and blind. Rick was in love with her!

Tod wakened the next morning bewildered and contrite. She was pouring his coffee when he came out all shaved and ready to go to the office. "I hope I wasn't too obnoxious last night, Jenny."

"You weren't." She tried to smile.

"I remember saying something about—"

"Forget it," Jenny said. "All of it." She poured her own coffee and set the pot back on the stove.

"I can't remember much what happened after I left the party."

"Party?" She dropped her spoon in the saucer. It made a loud clatter in the stillness.

He gulped his coffee down and then looked at her. "You'll probably find out sooner or later anyway, so I might as well tell you. I went to a cocktail party at the Conover Agency. It was a special shindig for a client. A big shot."

JENNY felt a little numb. Or maybe she hadn't wakened up enough yet to grasp what he was saying.

He stood up and reached for his hat, from the top of the icebox where someone had put it the night before. "We had quite a time. There were even reporters there and photographers. That's why I thought I might as well tell you. They might sort of play me up a little on account of my football career." He flushed as he gave her a quick goodbye peck on the cheek.

"You mean you wouldn't have told me, except that I'd probably see the pictures and read about it in the paper?"

"Why of—of course I'd have told you." He turned his hat over in his hands. "Why should I try to hide anything. After all, Liz invited you too."

"Oh—Liz."

There was a long fridig pause.

"I knew you couldn't go on account of the kids, and—"

"Go on. You knew I didn't have the proper clothes either, that if I went you'd be ashamed of me."

"Jenny, for heaven's sake, don't be so dramatic. If I'd have thought you cared about going we could have got a sitter and managed a new dress."

She stood unmoving listening to the slam of the front door after him, and then his footsteps going up the stairs. One of the babies wakened and began to cry. She moved toward the sound automatically.

So Liz had asked Tod to the party, and he had gone, without telling her anything about it at all.

Tod phoned at 2 o'clock, his voice strained. "Jenny, I'm darned sorry about last night, and about the things I said this morning too. It's been on my mind all day." When she didn't say anything because she couldn't, he went on. "Jenny, are you there? Did you hear what I said?"

"Yes."

"And listen, I'll be home early, because I've got great news."

SHE was still apathetic after Tod had told her his "great news." "But Jenny, you don't seem at all excited. Think what it will mean."

"I am thinking."

He took hold of her shoulders and gave her a little shake. "If you're worried about me getting mixed up with Liz, just because I'm going into the Conover firm, you're being silly. Why, this is the chance of a lifetime!"

"We'll look for a house to buy, a suburban, where the kids can have plenty of fresh air and sun. And we'll buy a car. Gosh, won't it be swell to have a car again! Gee whiz, Jenny, you know when Conover called me over there this afternoon and made me this proposition, the first thing I thought

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

ON MY WAY from Washington to Harrisburg, Pa., the other day, I had an experience which seems to me rather typical of our American way of life.

Instead of going the direct route, I picked a much longer, but much more picturesque one, via Falls Church and Leesburg in Virginia, and then on, by side roads, to Harpers Ferry up to Hagerstown, Md., etcetera.

BRANDEIS

Here I was in our country's most historical section where almost every acre spoke of the price that was paid for that freedom.

It was close to noon and I got hungry.

I stopped my car and asked one of the natives whether he knew of a good place to eat.

He did, and told me exactly where I could get a juicy steak and a good cup of coffee.

As he was talking I noticed a road sign: "Sharpsburg 6 miles."

"Sharpsburg — Sharpsburg" I thought. "Doesn't that name register? Wasn't some big battle fought somewhere around here?"

I asked the native.

"Gee, I don't know," he replied, "I don't go in much for battles. I'm too busy with my farm work."

I thanked him and went on.

But instead of proceeding to the cafe he had recommended, I took that side road to Sharpsburg—and on the way I remembered.

Right outside of Sharpsburg is the Antietam National Battlefield Site—one of our sacred historical shrines. But this native American did not know, yet he lives within six miles of it.

Perhaps he did know once, but had forgotten.

He did not know or had forgotten that right here, within six miles of his own home, more than 12,000 Union soldiers and 10,700 Confederates were killed or wounded.

He did not know, or had forgotten, that, as a result of this battle Lee had to give up his invasion of Pennsylvania, and that here was the turning point of the Civil War.

So here was this native American who knew exactly where to find a good lunch, and unquestionably could have told me all about every grocer, hardware store and shoemaker in the section, completely unaware of his country's history, because of which he was now able to till his soil in peace and freedom.

I wonder whether in some eighty years from now those who will then be alive will be just as oblivious of this other war which ended just a short four years ago and as a result of which so much turmoil and controversy is still raging.

POSSIBLE CANDIDATES

Douglas, Lucas Lead

By ROGER WARREN
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The ending of Congress has started the annual speculation in Washington on whether or not the session developed any presidential timber.

It is not much sense for Democratic politicians to be day dreaming this early. Truman acts more and more as though he wants to stay another term, unless the Constitution is amended in the meantime.

Whenever Defense Secretary Johnson leaps into the headlines, the scribes hint he is building himself up for President and Harry has a bad morning reading the papers.

The Republicans are hoping that Johnson will get the 1952 nomination. They say that they would just needle him a bit and Louis would fly into a temper fit and boot away the election.

MENTIONED: Although, of course, every Democratic Governor thinks he has a President's pen in his knapsack, chief interest here is in members of Congress. Even if someone in the Federal setup should not be the top candidate, the records of Garner, Wallace, Truman and Barkley prove that the second spot in these years goes to District of Columbia habitues.

Among the several names mentioned because of rank as Truman's successor are Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, who, though popular and powerful, has an age handicap, and House Majority Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts. John's handicap is that he talks so long on every subject that as a candidate even the prosperous Democratic National Committee's money chest would not be big enough to buy radio time.

HANDSOMEST: Senator Scott Lucas, of Illinois, by his position as Majority Leader in the upper house, naturally is in a groove from which to advance. The women all say that he is the handsomest man on the Hill. He has had his ups and downs, trying to carry out Truman policies when the President has frequently changed his mind.

Lucas loves to have people like him. Hence, some of his more ruthless party associates think he was too much of a compromiser in a normally Democratic Congress.

The last high-pitched week kept him on edge. He told me that the day after the 81st quit, he woke up at five o'clock, for a moment thinking the pressure was still on. Early in the week, he was beaten miserably at golf. But the day after the session ended he carded the best game of his life.

LIKELY: The man of the moment, mentioned as most likely to get to the White House, is the other Senator from Illinois, Paul H. Douglas. He came from the faculty of the University of Chicago and has national renown as a progressive economist. At first he had the usual school master touch—always butting into debate and trying to teach his colleagues. But he soon discovered that this latter chore was too big even for a professor.

Steadily however his abilities have been recognized. He has made a deep impression on the press gallery. Elected as a Truman-Democrat by a plurality of more than 400,000, he has had the courage to stand against the President on several conspicuous occasions.

His spunk began long before he reached Washington. In the war he enlisted as a private in the U. S. Marines and rose to lieutenant colonel. He was twice wounded. He carries through life the mark of valor; his left hand is so stiffened by a wound that it cannot hold a paper. When speaking he deftly arranges his notes on his sleeve.

COLLEGE: Both he and Lucas would have to get the jump on their ambitious Governor, Adlai Stevenson, who thinks he is destined to be Illinois' Abraham Lincoln II. But the Senators are in a better position to attract national limelight than a governor.

The Democrats fared well once by picking a college "prof" as Presidential candidate. They have since been in quest of another Woodrow Wilson, Senator Fulbright of Arkansas was a college president but he is not yet in the Douglas class. Besides, he comes from a small state.

Greatest flop of the year is Idaho's singing cowboy, Senator Glen Taylor. Once he could give the Senate visitors' gallery the best show since old Huey Long.

But he played with Red fire and got too badly burned to survive another election. By running as a candidate for Vice President on the Wallace ticket, he sealed whatever chance he ever had of going places. His career can be summed up by the title of a movie now running in a Washington theatre, "The Fallen Idol."

SERIOUS: The 81st was a serious Congress—serious men dealing with serious problems. It ended quietly without horseplay.

It lacked picturesque characters. The only two who look like story-book Senators are Tom Connally of Texas and Clyde Roark Hoey of North Carolina, who never appears except in a long-tailed grey-blue coat and always has a fresh carnation in his buttonhole

Even on the hottest days in summer, he wears stiff choker collars of a vintage so ancient that colleagues maintain that he has to have them manufactured to order.

THANKS: The final session of another Congress lasted until New York night club hours. A Senator who had imbibed a bit took a cat nap outside the chamber in a darkened room. He woke up and saw a slit of light through the swinging doors.

He rushed forth and in bewilderment saw the room packed with Senators. Gazing at the clock he exclaimed, "Mr. President, what's going on here? Do you realize it's two o'clock in the morning?"

This year's Senate ended at 8 p. m. Just before the gavel fell a quartet of girl Federal employees sang, "Thanks for the money raise." Some thought it a very appropriate theme on which to end this particular Congress.

Solution For Problems Seen

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—An interesting item of news from the Department of the Army.

It now has 330 generals, and only 327 horses.

Looks like too many generals and too few horses.

But horses are, in truth, outdated. Horses can't make inflammatory speeches or write inflammatory magazine articles. Horses don't know anything about the atomic bomb, so they can't worry about that. Horses don't know anything about the B-36 except for that buzzing noise overhead, so horses can't argue about the B-36. Horses don't know anything either about big airplane carriers, so they can't get into any squabbles there.

STOKES

Yes . . . horses are passing out.

One Suggestion Made

There is, however, one use to which we might put a couple of good strong horses before they all disappear. This is an old use, and we might solve a lot of troubles by it, except that it is too absurdly simple, just as the injunction, "love thy neighbor," is so absurdly simple that human beings haven't dared to try it in 2,000 years.

We could do a modern version of "when knighthood was in flower."

We could dress up Harry Truman and Joe Stalin in suits of that ancient heavy armor, with spears and broadswords and pikes and such artillery, and mount them on a couple of good strong horses and let them have at each other in an international tournament.

OUR champion would wear his bow tie on the outside of his suit of mail, and their champion would wear that pipe dangling out of the front of his visor—for color and for purposes of identification. Each of course, would be carefully frisked beforehand by a joint committee of FBI agents and the OGPU to see they concealed no atomic bombs. We can't take any chances.

The tournament probably should be staged in a neutral place—Paris, perhaps. There is a tradition for that sort of thing in France. It's too bad the field of the cloth of gold is no more. What a spectacle that would make!

The United Nations would sponsor this contest and have all the rights for motion pictures, radio, television and all the concessions, such as hot dogs, peanuts, ice cream cones, caviar, borsch, whisky, wine, beer, and vodka and programs and pennants. Out of the proceeds it could help take care of the disabled men of the last war still in hospitals, men who are bedridden, men who are blind, and help build houses for people bombed out of their homes, and feed people who don't get enough to eat, and hire doctors for children who have rickets and tuberculosis from lack of proper nutrition.

Would Be Sellout

The show really ought to be a sellout. It should draw top-flight newspapermen, special writers, cartoonists, novelists, the best society, from all over the world. It's too bad that Anatole France and Will Rogers and Ring Lardner aren't around to cover it, for it would be very much to their taste and talent.

It might possibly be funny—Harry and Joe all loaded down with their armor, joggling about out there getting tangled up with their spears and swords and pikes—so funny that we could get a good enough laugh, all of us everywhere, to get some sense.

IT is, of course, too simple, and quite unthinkable, and so very undignified. Fie for having such a childish thought! Several hundred years ago it was very dignified and serious. But we have outgrown such simple pleasures and such simple solutions.

We must be dignified in the modern manner. It is only dignified now to destroy whole cities and blow the citizenry into little bits—men, women and children. A modern war is something in which everybody must have a part. It must be Democratic. We've outgrown that old aristocratic piffle with its nonsense about chivalry.

Maybe it's just as well that the horse is passing out.

This is work for generals.

PIANO'S SOURCE

The modern piano is a descendant of the primitive clavichord which appeared in Italy about 1400 A.D. Invention of the pianoforte is credited to Bartolomeo Christofori, of Padua, about 1709.

With tractors so big a factor in agriculture these days, the raising of horse feed has been sharply reduced.

'BLACK TUESDAY' ENDS ERA

World Rocked By Stock Market Crash Twenty Years Ago Today

By MILTON KAPLAN
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. — Just 20 years ago tomorrow the bottom dropped out of a golden dream—the stock market crashed with tremors felt round the world.

Stock prices plunged in a tidal wave of frenzied selling, fortunes in the millions were wiped out and men staggered away from ticker-tape machines, some to suicide.

Oct. 29, 1929, was a Tuesday—a day to be long remembered as "Black Tuesday"—in an era of wild giddiness.

Rhythm Spelled Whoopee'

In New York, Harold Lloyd was appearing in his first "all-talking" movie, "Welcome Danger." A young actress named Joan Bennett was starring in "Mississippi Gambler." And Eddie Cantor was patting white-gloved hands together in a rhythm that spelled "whoopee."

Women were wearing cloth coats with huge fur collars and trim. Women, and just about everybody, were playing the stock market.

"Black Tuesday" didn't just sneak up on people, like that. There had been plenty of warning. It was more like the stiffening right hand of a tremendous boxer's one-two punch.

Woman Loses $160.000

The market had been shaken down heavily on the previous Thursday—even a small brokerage office aboard the Cunard liner Berengaria at sea had seen one woman lose $160,000 in four hours of shipboard trading.

There was a one-day respite, during which the market returned to "normal" followed by a weekend of scurrying around in the usually quiet Wall Street area, and then the second wave of a mounting hurricane struck Monday.

When the brokerage offices were closed on that Monday, market experts estimated stocks had lost some $14 billion in value; more than 9,000,000 shares were traded, and American Telephone and Telegraph alone lost 34 points.

Business leaders and statesmen rushed into print with statements of reassurance.

Stock Exchange Engulfed

Then it happened, really happened, on Tuesday. The wave that had been building up engulfed the stock exchange in New York, Boston, Chicago, Toronto, Montreal, Philadelphia, San Francisco and around the country.

More than 16,410,000 shares were traded—while the businessmen and statesmen still gave out reassuring statements. John J. Raskob said: "Now is the time to buy." But everyone wanted to sell and get out from under.

In one Wall Street brokerage office, a small boy, just out of school, came looking for his mother, asking for an ice cream cone. The mother had just lost $15,000.

Reports Come In

And that night the reports started coming in of what the crash had meant to the man in Pittsburgh, or Des Moines, or Minneapolis.

In Providence, R. I., David Korn, 57, dropped dead of a heart attack while watching his fortune being ticked away.

There were suicides in places as far apart as Edgewater, N. J., and Santiago, Chile.

And in Kansas City, Mo., an insurance man fired two shots into his chest and sobbed:

"Tell the boys I can't pay them what I owe them."

Declines Reported In Auto, Truck Production In U. S.

DETROIT, Oct. 28. (AP)—Motor vehicle production in the United States this week will total 134,208 cars and trucks, Ward's Automotive reports estimated today.

The total, made up of 115,191 cars and 19,017 trucks compares with 117,271 cars and 18,385 trucks last week and 88,871 cars and 22,085 trucks in the corresponding week of 1948.

cemetery and the monuments to the brave and forgotten soldiers who died here in 1862.

I paid them a silent tribute—stopped at the next hot dog stand and had my lunch.

In a few days more I shall probably have forgotten all about this little episode.

But the thousands of men buried in Antietam Cemetery won't care.

Nor will the millions who died for us in Belgium, Germany and France, on Bataan, in the Pacific Islands and high up in the air.

Their "eyes have seen the glory of the Lord"—and that is enough for them. But is it enough for us?

WTCC Directors Are Named Here

Lubbock members of the board of directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce were announced Friday by Homer D. Grant, president of the local chamber.

They are W. O. Fortenberry, ginner-farmer; Ruel C. Martin, department store executive; C. I. Wall, vice president in charge of operation of West Texas Gas company, and Clarence Whiteside, city commissioner and laundry operator.

Another Lubbock member of the WTCC board is Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president emertius of Texas Technological college and past president of the regional chamber. All past presidents become life-time members of the directorate.

Activity Considered

The new directors succeeded Earl B. Collins, Joe Nislar, Harry Morris and Grant. All asked the board of the Lubbock chamber not to renominate them.

A primary consideration in selecting the new board members, Grant said, has been their active interest in seeking the solution of water problems of the Plains and of West Texas as a whole.

Whiteside is chairman of the temporary Canadian river water development committee; Martin is a member of the city water resources board; Wall has been one of the most ardent advocates of the Canadian project, and Fortenberry is one of the originators and leaders in the Plains Water Conservation association.

Grant said all have agreed to serve on the WTCC board. Their terms are one year.

Carnival Air To Prevail At Ropesville Hallowe'en Fete

ROPESVILLE, Oct. 28 (Special) — Dart throwing, grab boxes, bingo, crazy houses, sideshow barking—all the gaiety of a carnival will invade Ropesville Monday night for its annual Hallowe'en celebration in the high school building at 7 p.m.

Each room in the school will sponsor a booth and the Parent-Teachers association will have charge of foods. Hot dogs, chilli, sandwiches, cake, pie and coffee will be served.

Hobbs Airbase To Be Used For Storage Of Cottonseed

HOBBS, Oct. 28 (INS)—Sixty thousand tons of cottonseed bought by the Commodity Credit corporation in New Mexico will be stored at the Hobbs airbase.

A. E. Stokes, who leased the airport from the city, said that cotton seed from Pecos valley and the Roswell area already has been placed in storage.

Officer Misquoted In A-Bombing Report

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 28 (AP)—Cmdr. John S. McCain, jr., was misquoted by the Associated Press this week in a dispatch reporting submarine-launched missiles could carry an atomic bomb.

The dispatch dealt with a Navy announcement of plans to launch missiles from two submarines off Hawaii Nov. 7.

The Associated Press reporter, confronted with Commander McCain's denial, today conceded he misquoted him. The reporter said:

"When Commander McCain finished answering questions concerning the plan to launch missiles from two submarines, he was asked if they would contain an atom bomb war head. I thought McCain answered affirmatively. I must concede I misquoted him."

"The fact is," Commander McCain said yesterday in his denial of the AP report, "I don't know anything about the atom bomb. In my naval experience, I've never had anything to do with atomic experiments."

Commander McCain is in charge of submarine missile development. What he said was: "The submarine, with guided missiles, has become a siege bombardment weapon.

Women Pay Fines Here After Pleas Are Changed To Guilty

Three women who had posted three $200 bonds each in connection with pleas of innocent of vagrancy by prostitution went into corporation court Friday and asked permission to change their pleas to guilty as charged.

J. Solon Lea, city recorder who is presiding magistrate of corporation court, fined them a total of $100 each—$25 each for two offenses and $50 for the third.

The charges were in connection with consecutive vice raids Monday through Wednesday. Several other women were arrested at the same time. Most of those other cases have been disposed of.

Another step in connection with expediting the procedure of the corporation court was announced Friday, when Hunter Tolbert of 2119 Twenty-seventh commenced duties as clerk of the court.

James F. Moore, an attorney of 1808 Twentieth, recently assumed duties as corporation court prosecutor. He moved here from Sudan.

Tolbert and his family recently returned to Lubbock from Alamosa, Colo., where they had lived several months.

SWIFT ANIMAL

The cheetah has been used for centuries in India and Persia for hunting antelope and other game, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. Over short distances, the cheetah probably can outrun any other animal.

Wall Street

MARKET HITS SNAG

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP)—Profit taking sales helped to undermine a rising stock market today.

Discouragement over prospects for early settlement of the steel and coal strikes contributed to the first setback of the week.

Most losses were fractional, a handful extending beyond a point.

The market was the broadest of the year for the second day in a row.

Turnover amounted to 1,480,000 shares, compared with 1,760,000 yesterday which was the third largest of the year. Volume has dropped below the 1,000,000-share level in only one full session this month.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .4 of one point to 67.8. The rail group was the weakest.

A total of 1,146 individual issues were traded, of which 64 were marked down and 247 advanced.

New highs for the year were scored by 66 issues while only 4 hit their 1949 lows.

Today's setback was no surprise to Wall Street. More than a few observers have had their hands full trying to figure out what kept the price level rising in the face of the coal and steel strikes. The generally accepted explanation has been that a quick end to the strikes has been anticipated.

Railroad shares found the going a little rougher than most other groups. Even during the general rise in the market the carrier group has turned in a below average score.

Chesapeake and Ohio, most active issue—something of a novelty, incidentally—lost ½ point at 28⅛.

Fractional declines were also posted for Santa Fe 90⅝, Pennsylvania 14⅛, and Southern Pacific 44¼.

Dominating the market on the plus side was Chrysler, second most active issue, with a rise of 1⅝ points to 56⅜. Heavy buying followed news of an increased dividend and an excellent earnings report.

General Motors, also with the benefit of an impressive profit statement, moved up ⅛ to 67⅛.

U. S. Steel lost ¼ at 25. Bethlehem remained at 29⅛, Republic Steel was shaded ¼ at 21¾, and Youngstown dropped 1⅛ to 68⅝.

Texas Co. managed to gain only ¼ at 64 despite an extra and boosted dividend.

Lower prices were paid for Lockheed, Admiral Corp., Radio Corp., Consolidated Edison, Anaconda Copper, American Smelting, Socony Vacuum, Warner Bros., Du Pont, Studebaker, Dow Chemical, American Woolen, International Paper, Standard Oil (NJ), and U. S. Gypsum.

Ending higher were Goodyear, Woolworth, American Can, American Tobacco, Loew's and Johns-Manville.

Lower in the curb were National Union Radio, Starrett Corp., Cities Service, Calgary and Edmonton and Bunker Hill Mining (on an omitted dividend).

Higher were Kaiser-Fraser, Lone Star Gas, Rio Grande Valley Gas, Hollinger Gold, Creole Petroleum, Cessna Aircraft, and Ford Motor of France. Sales of 360,000 shares compared with 390,000 yesterday.

Price trends in the bond market were cloudy. Long-term U. S. government issues were clipped 1/32 or 2/32 of a point in over-the-counter dealings.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in slow trading today. Mill buying and local demand were offset by hedging and profit taking.

Aggressive mill and New Orleans buying rallied cotton futures into new high ground for the day in late trading.

Futures closed 40 to 95 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 28 (AP) — A late selloff in soybeans weakened the rest of the grain market today, repeating the pattern of the previous session. Soybeans lost a couple of cents on the drop.

Bookings of around 250,000 bushels, coupled with splendid harvesting weather, weakened corn. Wheat and oats eased with other cereals.

Wheat closed ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December $2.13⅝-¼, corn was ⅛-⅜ lower, December $1.16¼-⅓, oats were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December 71⅝, rye was unchanged to ¾ lower, December $1.41½, soybeans were 1½ lower to ½ higher, November $2.22½-¾, and lard was unchanged to 22 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $10.05.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard, 2.32½-38½.

Oats No. 2 white 88¾-89¾.

Corn No. 2 white, 1.54½-56½.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 2.14-19.

British, French Crisis Hamper U.S. Bid For International Unity

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Paul Hoffman, director of Marshall plan aid, is returning to the assault on hide-bound European trade practices at a particularly unpropitious moment.

He is asking for international unity while two key countries, Britain and France, cannot even display domestic unity.

George Bidault has just managed to form a new government in France after three weeks without one—the longest French political crisis of the kind in 50 years. And despite the good vote he received in the General assembly, there are strong doubts that he can last.

Britain Faces Election

The British Labor government also faces an election between now and July. And it is obviously uncertain of itself. Britain is in the midst of an historical economc readjustment which might, in the course of time, even remove her from the ranks of world powers.

Both Britain and France face bitter battles with inflation this winter.

In this atmosphere the ability of Europe to make any sort of daring decisions seems frozen.

And it is amid this atmosphere that the United States finds it must insist on new lines. One of the key reforms suggested is the elimination of import quotas—the eventual creation of one big market for the industries of western Europe among its total of 275 million people. Freely convertible currencies, removal of tariff barriers, abandonment of the cartel philosophy—full adherence to the principles of multilateral trade—are corollary objectives. The published idea is to make Europe get off America's back without diminishing its ability to resist the pressures of Soviet expansionism.

Success Not Certain

What happens if Europe and America are unsuccessful in these aims?

Well, for one thing, the West will be drastically weakened in the cold war.

Entirely aside from the cold war—if Russia did not exist or was a fully co-operative member of society—there would be grave portents.

The United States is deliberately damaging her own export trade to boost that of Europe, making non-profitable concessions, and spending her own resources trying to revive a good customer and sustain an ally.

Import quotas imposed because of inconvertibility of currencies, trade restrictions of all sorts, dry up market. Dried up markets cause depressions, and not just in Europe.

Specifications For $52,500,000 Texas Steel Mill To Be Released

DALLAS, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Lone Star Steel company will release to bidders in the next two weeks specifications for construction of a $52,500,000 steel mill in East Texas at Daingerfield.

E. B. Germany of Dallas, Lone Star Steel president, said the company has a commitment from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for a first mortgage loan of $36 million toward the financing of the project.

The mill would have four 188-ton open hearth furnaces; one 110-inch slabbing mill; one hot strip mill and a line for the manufacture of 350,000 tons per year of electric weld pipe up to 16 inches in diameter.

Funds for operating capital during the construction period have been arranged for from Dallas banks and the RFC, Germany said.

To complete financing, about $8 million in new equity capital will be required, he added, and an informal poll is being taken among the company's stockholders to determine approximately the amount of this new equity capital they wish to subscribe.

Silver Tea To Open New Deal Clubhouse

A silver tea giving the public oppoftunity to see New Deal's newly completed Community clubhouse will be given from 6 to 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Keys to the structure, financed by the county commissioners court at a cost of approximately $13,500, were presented to Monroe Home Demonstration club Friday afternoon at the clubhouse by Ottis Isom, county commissioner. Members of the club will be in the house party at the tea. A musical program will be presented.

The Home Demonstration club has sponsored the building project, with help of other residents of the community. Construction was started Aug. 22. Telford Lumber Co. of Lubbock built the structure, which is located across the highway from New Deal High school. The building, which has asbestos siding, is 50x36 feet and contains a 22x50 foot room for entertaining, a kitchen, nursery, two rest rooms and a children's playroom.

The entertaining room has knotty pine wainscoting. Upper walls are of green plaster. Green inlaid linoleum was used as floor covering.

The New Deal Lions club has volunteered to give a piano. The community will furnish the building. Money received at the silver tea will go into the fund for furnishings.
