The SDN Column

It's really a small world and if you think inflation is bad here, just try a few other places.

That is part of a message from Joe and Nelda January who packed up a little over a month ago and left their comfortable home at 3733 Avondale and headed for Nigeria where Joe accepted a foreign assignment with Mobil Producing Nigeria.

"Quite a change from Snyder," the letter from Mrs. January begins. It was written on June 20.

"It hardly seems possible that it was a month ago today that we left. But there are so many Texans over here, I sometimes forget I've left. Two couples from Midland arrived the same week we did. Two families from Beaumont arrived last week. Another from Hobbs, N. M., so you see the world isn't so large after all. Of course there are many who have been here several years. My neighbors upstairs are from Scotland, the couple across the court are from Louisiana and Spain — and we Texans. We have our own UN.

"We attend church in a small black mission and it's not too different from some little country churches we have been to.

"And ladies, don't complain about prices until you pay $3.15 for a bottle of regular shampoo. The bills here are Naira and cost $1.53. The dollar's shrunk again! The cents are kobo.

"The climate is much like the Rio Grande Valley. The flowers are beautiful. Our yard looks like a botanical garden with bougainvilla, hibiscus, caladium, retamo, fire trees, wild African violets (red) and many others that I can't name.

"The people are very friendly over here and make you feel quite welcome. I know we'll enjoy our stay. Hope that Snyder continues to prosper and grow. We will see you in a year."

★ ★ ★

A year seems like a rather long time, but of course the Januarys already have been there a twelfth of that. And, of course it is not unusual to find Texans wherever you go, and no matter how good it seems "over there," they usually are keeping an eye on the calendar with a view toward returning home.

One of the advantages that a Texan finds in a foreign land, whether it be Arkansas, Oklahoma or Nigeria, is the fact that his chances of finding new audiences for Texas tales are enhanced. Nearly everybody in Texas already knows the virtues of the state, provided he has been here two weeks or more.

But travel and foreign duty by Texans is beneficial to those who come in contact with them in distant lands. And who knows but what our own inflation will catch up and even surpass that of Nigeria one of these days. Unless the inflation express is derailed, it may be there before the Januarys get back next year. — WACIL McNAIR.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, July 3, the 184th day of 1973. There are 181 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1962, Algeria became independent after 132 years of French rule.

On this date:

In 1583, the Russian czar, Ivan the Terrible, killed his son, Ivan, during a fit of rage.

In 1608, the French explorer, Samuel de Champlain, laid the foundations of the Canadian city of Quebec.

In 1775, George Washington took command of the Continental Army at Cambridge, Mass.

In 1863, the Civil War Battle of Gettysburg ended after Confederate Gen. George E. Pickett's troops suffered severe losses in his famous charge.

In 1898, the U.S. Navy defeated the Spanish fleet in the harbor at Santiago, Cuba, during the Spanish-American War.

In 1950, U.S. and North Korean troops clashed for the first time in the Korean War.

Ten years ago: President John F. Kennedy returned to Washington from a 10-day European tour that took him to West Germany, Ireland, Britain and Italy.

Five years ago: Gen. William C. Westmoreland was sworn in as Army chief of staff at a Pentagon ceremony.

One year ago: North Vietnamese troops were shelling Hue in South Vietnam and attacking the city's northern defenses.

The Weather

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Monday, 95 degrees; low, 67 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. today, 67 degrees.

Northwest and Southwest Texas: Clear to partly cloudy with no important temperature changes through Wednesday. Isolated late afternoon and evening thunderstorms panhandle and extreme southwest portion. Low tonight 64 to 72 except upper 50s mountains. High Wednesday 93 to 103.

North Central and Northeast Texas: Clear to partly cloudy and hot through Wednesday. Scattered thundershowers southeast portion late afternoon and evening. Low tonight 73 to 77. High Wednesday 93 to 98.

South Central and Southeast Texas: Mostly cloudy and warm with showers and scattered thundershowers south portions. Cloudy to partly cloudy and warm with scattered, mostly afternoon and early evening showers and thundershowers north, increasing east portions Wednesday. Low tonight 70 to 80. High Wednesday 87 to 97.

Port Arthur to Port O'Connor: Southeast winds 10 to 18 knots through Wednesday, becoming gusty in scattered showers and thundershowers.

Port O'Connor to Brownsville: Southeast winds 10 to 20 knots through Wednesday, becoming gusty in showers and thundershowers.

AIM WILL IMPROVE WITH PRACTICE—Chris Isaacson, 3, of Bolingbrook, Ill., tries to drink some water from a garden hose, but misses and gets the water on his face. Chris didn't mind too much since the temperature was in the 80's, but it might help if he'd open his mouth too. (AP Wirephoto)

Area All Set For Annual Independence Day Event

Thousands of Snyder and Scurry County residents and neighbors are expected to assemble tomorrow in Towle Memorial Park for the annual Independence Day celebration, as the community observes a general holiday.

There will be continuous activity in the park from 8 a.m. until the huge fireworks display brings the festivities to a close after dark.

Several events which have become fixtures in the July 4 lineup will be held, along with some new ones. Two added features that are expected to attract considerable attention are a tractor pull and a country and western band battle.

The tractor pull, which provides competition among tractor drivers and their respective machines, will be staged at 2 p.m. near the Little League baseball park. This event is gaining popularity throughout the country and this will be the first time ever for such an exhibition here.

The bands will begin their activity at 1 p.m.

Other major events will include the tennis tournament, the parade, horseshoe pitching contest, the fishing rodeo sponsored by Jaycees, bingo sponsored by the Boys' Club, and the annual Independence Day Art Show, which will be held in the Towle Park Barn.

Here is the schedule for the day:

8 a.m. Tennis tournament begins.

9 a.m. Opening ceremonies.

9:30 a.m. Parade.

10:30 a.m. Horseshoe pitching.

11 a.m. Boys' Club Bingo; Jaycee fishing rodeo.

1 p.m. Battle of the bands begins; art show opens to public.

2 p.m. Tractor pull.

Prior to the fireworks display, the Snyder Chamber of Commerce will award a number of prizes, topped by a color television set.

Many other merchandise prizes have been contributed by local merchants. Newest additions to this list include panty hose from the Tot-2-Teen and a radiator cleaning and repair job by Geno's Radiator Service.

Some 60 merchandise prizes will be awarded.

Nixon To Speak On Watergate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon will speak on Watergate "in an appropriate forum" after the Senate Watergate committee concludes the current phase of its three-pronged investigation, the White House says.

The announcement by presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler came Monday from Nixon's San Clemente complex.

In Washington, meanwhile, the committee's chief counsel announced that the panel would conduct hearings every weekday from next Tuesday through Aug. 3.

The committee, chaired by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., has estimated it will complete by August its work on the phase involving the break-in into Democratic National Committee headquarters at the Watergate office-apartment complex and the subsequent cover-up.

Counsel Samuel Dash also listed Monday the names of 20 witnesses the committee plans to call after resuming its hearings next week. Congress is in recess this week for the Fourth of July holiday.

In San Clemente, Ziegler ruled out a Nixon news conference before the conclusion of the committee's first phase. Nixon has not held a news conference since March 15 and last spoke publicly on the Watergate scandal May 22.

The presidential spokesman said he could not be specific about when Nixon planned to speak out or in what manner.

But it was the first time the White House has said flatly that the President would respond to testimony given to the committee. Ziegler also said Nixon would not appear before the committee or before a federal grand jury probing the Watergate scandal.

Ervin, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., the ranking GOP member, and Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., late last week said they felt Nixon should testify voluntarily in some manner before the committee.

None of the committee members could be reached Monday night for comment on Ziegler's statements.

Former White House counsel John W. Dean III testified for five days last week.

Federal Grant Made To WTC

WASHINGTON — Congressman Omar Burleson today announced approval of a $3,585 veterans-cost-of-instruction payment to Western Texas College by the U.S. Office of Education.

Institutions which increase their enrollment of veterans by 10 per cent over the previous year, and who meet other requirements of the Education Amendment of 1972, are entitled to payment for certain veterans enrolled in undergraduate programs.

Food Advisory Committee In Closed Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's Food Advisory Committee planned a closed session today to work on proposed new food price controls after being told that the current freeze will cause higher prices.

Food industry spokesmen Monday predicted food shortages because of the 60-day freeze. They also forecast disruptions in the economy.

The committee also heard from Kay Ryan, a government consumer specialist, who said she would prefer some food shortages to a continuing upward spiral in food costs.

Ms. Ryan, who is consumer counsel to the Cost of Living Council, also told the committee that consumers lack confidence in the administration's ability and commitment to control inflation.

The Food Advisory Committee is working on proposals to regulate the food industry that would be included in the administration's new Phase 4 price control program. The controls are to replace the present freeze.

Nations Open Conference On Optimistic Note

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — The European Security Conference adopted an agenda today that could lead to increased human contacts between East and West and endorsed the Eastern European boundaries drawn up behind the Soviet Red Army after World War II.

The 35-nation meeting attended by foreign ministers of the United States, Canada and Europe agreed that a second stage of negotiations in Geneva should go ahead with parallel work on contacts and final acknowledgement of the borders as a way to foster European peace.

The agenda had been worked out in preparatory sessions and was adopted at the conference opening session at which U.N. Secretary General Kurt Waldheim predicted a "new Europe" may be dawning.

The Geneva negotiations were expected to begin in September and could lead to a super summit in 1974.

The Soviet Union accepted the widening of human contacts after long deliberations. The Russians noticed that this was the precondition for Western participation in the conference. In exchange for taking up the human contact proposals, the Soviets got inclusion of the principle of inviolability of frontiers, fixing the status quo in postwar Europe.

The powers set aside differences in gathering in the modernistic Finlandia Hall for the start of the one-week foreign ministers meeting. Finland, as host country, formally opened the sessions.

"Our cooperation is not directed against any state or continent and should constitute an important contribution to world peace and security," said Ahti Karjalainen, the Finnish foreign minister, as the foreign ministers and other representatives of the United States, Canada and all the European nations except Albania took their seats.

Karjalainen, speaking for the neutral host country, related the conference to other efforts toward East-West detente and said the over-all objective is "stability and enduring peace."

Five of the leading Western ministers—U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Britain, Walter Scheel of West Germany, Italy's Giuseppe Medici and Canada's Mitchell Sharp—arrived together shortly before the conference opened. They came from a party in London Monday celebrating Sir Alec's 70th birthday.

Rogers said the meeting was "one of the most important international conferences since World War II." He said he believed it would turn out "to be of real significance."

For the United States and its allies, one of the major issues was how far the Soviet bloc would go in easing its restrictions on contacts between its people and those in the West.

Charges Dropped On Ex-POWs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The secretaries of the Army and Navy have decided to drop aiding-the-enemy and other misconduct charges against seven Army and Marine enlisted men who were war prisoners in North Vietnam.

Pentagon sources said today that Army Secretary Howard Callaway and Navy Secretary John Warner found there was insufficient evidence on which to try the former POWs before courts-martial.

An eighth enlisted former POW, Sgt. Abel L. Kavanaugh, 24, Denver, Colo., also was charged, but he killed himself last week. Pentagon sources said the charges against him were null and void when he died, but that his record would be formally cleared.

The actions by the two top civilian officials of the Army and the Navy leave charges pending against two officers, Navy Capt. Walter E. Wilber, 43, of Columbia Crossroads, Pa., and Marine Lt. Col. Edison Wainwright Miller, 41, of Tustin, Calif.

Charges of aiding the enemy and misconduct were filed against Wilber and Miller, both veteran fighter pilots, last week by Rear Adm. James B. Stockdale, who was a senior POW commander.

The misconduct charges against the eight enlisted men were filed on May 29 by Air Force Col. Theodore W. Guy of Tucson, Ariz., who commanded a POW compound for nearly five years.

Many of the specifics behind Guy's formal charges never were made public officially, but Guy previously had denounced some POWs he had commanded as cowards who, he said, "openly collaborated with the enemy" and caused physical harm to some of their comrades.

Alice Now Hurricane

MIAMI (AP) — Alice, the first tropical storm of the 1973 season, reached hurricane strength today as she moved north toward Bermuda.

The National Hurricane Center in Miami said Alice had winds of 76 miles an hour, one mile above hurricane strength, and was expected to pass near Bermuda late today. She was 175 miles south of there at midmorning.

Residents of the island, 700 miles southeast of New York City, were warned to prepare for gale force winds and heavy seas.

"Alice is bearing down on Bermuda at a speed of 12 miles an hour and should continue on this track for the next 24 hours," weathermen said.

Water Contract Plan Approved

A contract plan enabling residents living outside the city within a five-mile radius to tie onto rural water supply lines was approved by the Snyder City Council last night.

The action was taken following a discussion with representatives of the rural water supply corporations who purchase water from the city. They indicated that their respective boards would be hesitant to become involved in such contracts.

Following the discussion, the council approved a plan whereby the city would permit each applicant to enter into an individual contract with the city for a fee in lieu of city taxes. Under terms of the contracts with the water supply corporations, the city has the right of approval of all taps within five miles of the city limits.

The plan adopted provides for an annual fee of $120 for each residential tap within 1½ miles of the city limits, a fee of $80 for each residential tap 1½ miles to 3 miles from the city limits and $50 for each residential tap 3 miles to five miles from the city boundaries. Such taps will be available for one-family residences only at this time.

A $10 fee was agreed upon for agricultural taps for watering livestock only.

Heretofore the city has been reluctant to grant tie-on applications within its five-mile jurisdiction because of efforts to encourage development of residential property inside the city which would be on the city tax roll. A plan for a fee in lieu of city taxes has been under study for some time.

Sam Joyce and Scott Casey met with the council to discuss development of an extension of Colonial Hill Addition. They requested permission to burn some brush which will be removed from the property to be developed under supervision of the fire department. This was granted, provided it can be worked out with the fire department and without liability to the city.

Bids for cleaning, repairing and painting two elevated water tanks were tabled for further study, while a bid of $2,160 for purchase of two eight-inch altitude valve was accepted. The successful bid, submitted by Western Industrial Supply of Amarillo, was the lower of two submitted.

Passed on first reading was an ordinance changed the zoning of a portion of the Beacon Lodge property from a C-2 (commercial) zone to an R-2 (two-family residential) zone

Also approved on first reading was the 1.2 per cent rate increase for Lone Star Gas Co. which had been agreed upon at the June meeting of the council.

An ordinance annexing 1.503 acres at the west edge of the city was okayed on its first reading.

A required public hearing on proposed expenditure of federal revenue sharing funds was held and the accompanying appropriation ordinance was approved.

A request for approval of a location in North Snyder for installation of liquefied petroleum gas storage tanks, submitted by Bobby McCormick, was tabled for further study.

Following the action on the regular business agenda, the county held a work session on the city budget for the fiscal year beginning next Oct. 1, which is now being prepared.

Inlaws anniversary becomes hairy problem

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1973 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Like so many others I can't believe I am actually writing a Dear Abby letter. My inlaws' anniversary is coming up so I called my mother in law and told her that John [my husband] and I wanted to take her and Dad out for a small dinner celebration on their anniversary.

She said she'd ask Dad and would let me know. She called me back the next day and said [and I*quote], "Dad said he was not going anywhere with John until he gets his hair cut."

I couldn't believe my ears! John is over 21 and nobody has to tell him when to cut his hair. He wears it longer than he used to, but it's clean and well-groomed and not really long by today's standards.

When I told John about it he said, "Well, I guess we won't be with them on their anniversary."

As things stand now, we aren't speaking to his parents until we get an apology. Don't you think we deserve one?

DAUGHTER IN LAW

DEAR DAUGHTER IN LAW: I happen to believe that John has the right to wear his hair the way he wishes, and his parents also have the right to absent themselves from his company if they so desire, but I wouldn't hold out for an apology. Start talking. But be careful what you say.

DEAR ABBY: It's Little League baseball time again and I need your help. The father of one of these boys piles all these boys in the back of his pickup truck—some with their feet hanging over the side, and you know how boys are—they don't sit still, and some of them like to show off.

I have been driving behind them in my car and my heart has been in my mouth many times. The driver of the truck can't keep his eye on the boys in the back, and sometimes he's watching scenery instead of the road ahead of him.

I have heard this man's wife say they both read your column, Abby, so maybe if you print this it will do some good.

I don't want him to think I don't appreciate his hauling those Little Leaguers around, because I think he's great, but I worry.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Here's your letter . . . right over home plate.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to inform R. L. C. and others who have also lost items in restaurant checkrooms, that she has a very good chance of recovering her loss from the restaurant management under bailment laws, regardless of the signs proclaiming "Not responsible for loss of personal property."

I would like to add that a practical business law course is a valuable investment for anyone.

DAWN IN FLORIDA

DEAR DAWN: I also took a course in "business law" and I would like to add, "A little learning is a dangerous thing." When one has a legal problem he is ahead to hire a competent lawyer and pay him for what he knows.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SENIOR CITIZENS: Some of my most fascinating and informative mail comes from Senior Citizens. Will you please send me a postcard telling me what YOUR biggest problem is? Money? Failing health? Loneliness? Boredom? And if you have no serious problems, send a postcard telling me how you manage to stay happy. A million thanks!

Absentee Voting Now Underway

Absentee voting began yesterday at the county clerk's office for the special referendum to be held Saturday, July 21.

Scurry County voters will determine whether the county will enter into contracts for a show barn at the coliseum and new county jail facilities.

Absentee voting will continue until Tuesday, July 17, according to Mrs. Beverly Ainsworth, county clerk. She said that no one voted yesterday.

Snyderites At A&M On Top Ranked List

COLLEGE STATION—Eight students from Snyder have earned "Distinguished Student" ranking at Texas A&M University, announced Registrar Robert A. Lacey.

The undergraduate honor is awarded students who have excelled academically. Recipients must earn at least a 3.25 grade point ratio (out of a possible 4.0) during the previous semester.

"Distinguished Student" ranking is limited to 10 per cent of TAMU's undergraduate enrollment.

The Pacific continental shelf has a maximum width of 50 miles.

3 Hurt In Fire Truck, Car Crash

Three persons were injured in a car-fire truck collision at Thirteenth Street and College Avenue at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Snyder Ambulance Service for treatment were John Herman, 35, 3108 Fortieth Street; Ruby Faye Risinger, 28, and, Lon William Risinger, 2.

Hospital Authorities this morning said the man and woman sustained leg injuries and concusions and abrasions. The boy had facial lacerations.

Fire Marshall Darby Scott said the fire truck was going west on Thirteenth Street and the car, about a 1965 Model Oldsmobile, was going south on College Avenue prior to the collision at the intersection. There was considerable damage to the car. Driver of the fire truck was N.Y. Benitez. None of the firemen were injured. They were enroute to a grass fire on the west side of Walton Construction Company at the time of the collision.

City Police also investigated two other mishaps Monday. The first one occurred at 12:29 a.m. at the Freeman Truck Plaza at Huffman and Clairemont Road. Involved were a 1965 Model Pontiac driven by Flora S. Kirkpatrick, 2701 Avenue Y, and the 1973 Model Mercury of Mark Lambert Hailey, 3302 Forty-third Street.

The other one occurred at College Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street at 11:37 p.m. Involved were a 1968 Model Ford driven by Betty Garza Jasso, Clairemont Road, and a 1968 Model Pontiac operated by Angelia June Howell, 202 Thirty-fourth Street. Damage was minor.

Grants Go To Area Schools

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Omar Burleson announced today that three school districts in Scurry County will receive Office of Education grants. The Hermleigh Independent School District will be allocated $295; the Ira Independent School District will receive $150; and the Fluvanna Independent School District will get $102.

These funds will be used to provide programs and projects to meet the special education needs of educationally deprived children in pre-school programs, elementary schools, and certain selected secondary schools if the local educational agency determines there is a need.

The grants have been made available under Part C of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act which provides special programs for educationally disadvantaged children.

BOATS SWEPT OVER DAM—Small power boats and wharves are swept over dam Sunday in Holyoke, Mass., after being broken away from their moorings on the swollen Connecticut River. The area had been under heavy rains for days, plus all the water from streams in the north, which placed the river near flood stage. (AP Wirephoto)

Snyderite Gets Scholarship

DENTON—William John Tate of Snyder is among 294 North Texas Sate University students awarded scholarships for the 1973-74 academic year by the University Scholarship Committee.

NTSU State Scholarships, which account for some $204,000, were awarded to students of all classifications with the stipends ranging from $100 to $1,000.

Twenty-three other students will receive grants from other sources also with stipends ranging from $100 to $1,000.

Tate, son of John D. Tate, Route 3, received an NTSU State Scholarship.

Knapp Conviction Affirmed

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed today the conviction of former Rep. Walter Knapp of Amarillo on a charge of theft by false pretext.

An Austin jury sentenced Knapp to four years in prison May 23 after convicting him of using $1,200 worth of postage stamps obtained on his House expense account to buy a used pickup truck.

Knapp served in the legislature during the 1960s and held such major committee assignments as the House Appropriations Committee. He ran for the state Senate in 1970 but was defeated by Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo.

The court split 3-2 in upholding Knapp's conviction with Judge W.A. Morrison writing the majority opinion. He was joined by judges Leon Douglas and Wendell Odom.

Judge Truman Roberts wrote the dissenting opinion, and he was joined by presiding judge John Onion Jr.

Texas Simmers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

All of Texas simmered as hot air poured inland from the Gulf of Mexico today.

Although a few light showers still fell in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and a little rain southwest of Houston, none brought enough moisture to offset the early July heat wave.

Temperatures mounted Monday to 101 degrees at Wink and 104 at El Paso in West Texas, and top marks at most other points climbed well into the 90s.

Dallas Route Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amtrak says start of the proposed new passenger route through Dallas has been postponed indefinitely.

The corporation said the delay is caused by inability to reach agreement with the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The Dallas service, which would have changed the routing through much of Texas, originally was scheduled to begin June 10. It then was postponed until June 29, and later to Aug. 12.

The announcement was made at the close Monday of another meeting with Southern Pacific before the National Arbitration Panel.

Amtrak has proposed routing the Texas Chief, which now goes from Fort Worth to Houston on Santa Fe tracks, through Dallas. This would require use of Southern Pacific tracks from Dallas to Houston.

Southern Pacific contends the tracks are not safe for passenger travel and would require $7.7 million to repair.

Monday's meeting was adjourned after railroad lawyers said they had not had time to respond to an offer made by Amtrak June 26.

The arbitration panel gave the railroad until July 16 to respond and ordered new hearings for July 24.

SIB Sets Public Hearing July 10

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Insurance Board will hold a public hearing July 10 at 9 a.m. on the floor of the House to determine whether car insurance rates should go up or down.

Joe Christie, chairman of the board, said he hoped the evidence would justify a reduction for a majority of the state's 40 statistical rating territories.

But he noted the board must consider the impact of new laws as well as the number of accidents, the cost of claims and inflation.

"The impact of comparative negligence, repeal of the guest statute, the offering of personal injury protection and other new insurance laws" will have to be studied, he said.

Confessions Of A Hit Man

KILLER. By Joey, with Dave Fisher. Playboy Press. 318 Pages. $8.95.

Joey, not his real name, is a professional killer. It's a job most people wouldn't care to apply for. But to Joey, who the reader is assured is a very real person, it's just a job. Or, as he puts it, "I don't even call it murder. To me it's a way of making a living.... It's my profession."

Regardless of society's feeling toward Joey's work, his story is a moderately interesting one. A desperately poor kid who grew up tough, it was natural for Joey to turn to crime as a livelihood. As he is quick to point out, there really weren't any alternatives.

After serving his apprenticeship as a numbers man, Joey was offered his first contract when he was 16. He took it and as the years passed he "sent 38 deserving men to their early graves."

Don't Wait To Spend The Money

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Loosen your money belt or borrow the funds needed to invest in that vacation or retirement home. This is the time, too, to invest in home improvements you may have postponed, suggests one homeowner, who says procrastination can be expensive in these times.

For example, a mason has upped an estimate for replacing a flagstone walk from $325 to $700 in one year. Until he was shown his original estimate, the contractor couldn't believe he had made it (in writing.) He argued it is necessary to pay higher wages to his crew and he must pay more for his materials.

The painting job postponed by this homeowner will now cost $400 more than it would have cost a year ago. And in the meantime the house has looked untidy, he remarked.

He is particularly "wild" that he has let a little dream second house with a stream slip away from him. He might have been able to swing that little house two years ago, but he didn't want to spend the money. Yet he will need a retirement home in a few years.

People everywhere talk of the little Shangri-la they might have had "for a song" and "just a few years ago." If pressed, they might agree it was just as difficult then to budget the small sum as it is to put the larger amount now needed into budget focus. He who hesitates in this real estate market might expect such eventualities, this homeowner insists. He advises studying every investment based on the current economic trend.

Anyone interested in such a house should consider that the real estate market really has no place to go but up.

A sock-it-in-the-bank type, as this homeowner was, might have a good wad when he retires. But if he plans to buy a retirement future with it, it might take a big hunk of his savings—one reason such real estate investments shouldn't be postponed if one can afford it now. And the property can be enjoyed for a longer period.

The same applies to home improvements, he insists. All things being relative, the value of the house should increase when improvements are made, and you can enjoy the improvements sooner.

Banks can provide funds for home improvements, and some improvements can be tackled painlessly to the mortgage with slight increase in monthly payments.

Year after year some families get farther away from their goals—an extra room, swimming pool, remodeled kitchen or the little vacation house.

You will not want to dissipate life savings, but you might look realistically at improvements that are "like having money in the bank," the man says.

Here is a guide suggested by this homeowner who has revised his own spending goals:

...If the home improvement increases the value of your house, then it is a good investment, and the sooner you make it, the better.

...Investment in a vacation home may be as good or better then some other investments one might make, especially if a house is rentable when not in use. In some areas, however, real estate has become too inflated in recent years. Check out real estate sales made within the last decade in the area. Talk to legal counsel. Banks also can supply good information. It is possible that a house can be outlandishly priced for a particular location.

There are legitimate ways to be talked out of money when you are anxious to invest.

Use common sense in buying an old house. Be sure you do not need to make a lot of expensive improvements in the house—septic tank, well, plumbing, electricity, heating. A house may be "dirt cheap" but labor and materials aren't, especially in outlying areas with long portal-to-portal charges.

If a great number of improvements are needed, forget it. The cost of remodeling an old home can be prohibitive. Many a person has had to forfeit a bucolic setting with its unimproved house, old barn or other outbuilding, because they couldn't afford the remodeling costs.

But when you find a good sturdy house you can afford, buy it. Otherwise don't look for one. Indecision can lead to frustration.

Greenery May Cause Harm

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Summer foliage that delights the eye may also cause thousands of poisonings when part of an innocent-looking plant ends up in the digestive system, according to experts.

Dr. Frederick F. Newirth, medical director for Firemen's Fund American insurance companies, says even the most commonly cultivated plants have a lethal effect when eaten.

"That makes it imperative," he added, "that children be taught that it is dangerous to eat any part of any plant."

Newirth noted that such common plants as hyacinths, narcissus, daffodils, oleander and dieffenbachia can cause death.

Other plants that may prove fatal if eaten include mistletoe, foxglove, daphne, golden chain, rhododendron, yew, twigs and leaves of wild and cultivated cherries, and jimson weed.

Newith said that the smallest sampling by a curious child can lead to serious illness and even death. He emphasized that many other plants when eaten may cause serious discomfort and illness.

Protection For Market Investors Is Improved

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of columns on the problems faced by investors when their brokers go out of business.

NEW YORK (AP) — Protection for stock market investors has been improved since the broker-dealer collapses of 1968-1970, but a rising curve of liquidations is still tieing up millions of dollars of customer assets.

Moreover, there appears to be little assurance that the shakeout won't continue if trading volume remains low. Depressed income and higher overhead, especially for electronic equipment, has many brokers on shaky financial ground.

These conclusions emerge from a study of various government and industry measures developed during the past three years to protect the investments of the nation's 31.7 million stockholders when their brokers go out of business.

It was made at a time when forced liquidations and mergers are again rising. A government-industry corporation is now liquidating 87 firms, and the New York Stock Exchange has 68 members under surveillance beeause of finances.

Nevertheless, the study shows that while brokerage houses are being forced out of business by poor bookkeeping, misconduct, higher operating costs and mismanagement, it is far less likely that:

1. The collapses will occur so suddenly as to catch regulatory officials unaware.

2. The liquidations will bring a recurrence of the confusion that accompanied the collapse of broker-dealers in the 1968-1970 period.

Customers still may have to wait many weeks for return of assets left with liquidated brokers. The earliest completed liquidation by the Securities Industry Protection Corp. took 70 days, and in some instances the proceedings have lasted well over a year.

This does not mean all customers had to wait that long. Some received their money and securities in a few weeks.

While customer losses were uncommon even before SIPC, there was no assurance of reimbursement other than the bankruptcy laws, which make general creditors of customers, and the increasingly reluctant voluntary action by the industry.

SIPC, pronounced sipic, is widely considered to be the chief improvement in customer protection since the debacles of 1968-1970. It guarantees investors against losses of up to $50,000 in cash and securities resulting from liquidations.

Created by Congress, it is financed by broker-dealer assessments and hopes eventually to accumulate a $150 million fund. It is about half-way to that goal. In addition, it has the power to borrow $1 billion from the Treasury.

Based on financial and operational reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the various exchanges, SIPC can determine if a firm needs to be liquidated. It has authority to arrange for a trustee and to immediately contact customers.

But before a firm lands in the hands of the protection corporation, its behavior is restrained and guided by several other important regulatory changes made since 1970 that most government and industry officials believe hold the potential for greater investor protection.

In January of this year Congress adopted Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Act of 1934 that spells out the limitations on use of cash and securities left in customer accounts.

Fully paid customer securities or cash that are left with the broker must, for example, always be under his control or actually in his custody.

Fully paid customer securities or cash cannot be used by the broker in any way at all. Securities cannot be hypothecated, that is, pledged for loans. The cash cannot be used in the broker's own business, as sometimes occurred in the past.

Exchanges have tightened their own regulations, although a New York Stock Exchange spokesman conceded that its own surveillance is only as good as the records provided to it by members. Fraud is still possible.

A computerized securities depository, in which changes of ownership are made through bookkeeping entries while the certificates remain immobilized, is cutting down on theft, loss and errors of identification.

Boyle Jumps To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Some reformers believe that high taxes are a good way to curb sin. But since confirmed sinners are pretty determined people, it is likely that high taxes only make them more ingenious or, at times, a little more uncomfortable. But sin is kind of like education: it isn't what you paid for it that counts — it's what you get out of it.

Cats and women are getting away with more today than dogs and men did a generation ago. The world is getting more feline and female.

Some people say they don't feel the inflation so much anymore. That's because they are like a fellow dunked in the middle of the icy Atlantic ocean in February. He becomes numb before he drowns.

Only a man in love with a woman can be married to her 50 years and still find her a mystery. But that doesn't make him the dumbest man in his neighborhood. It makes him the richest.

If you think your neighbors call too often and stay too long, why not try a simple solution? Just serve lemonade.

For every person who is afraid of dying, there are three who are afraid of living.

Now that July is here, we can all recall what we were trying to remember last April — better get the living room air conditioner repaired right away.

Throwing away or giving away an old sport coat is one of the greatest sacrifices a man has to make in his life. A well-worn jacket, a pair of cracked and wrinkled but comfortable shoes, even a tie he thought he looked dashing in back in 1946 — these are mementoes of his yesterdays he clings to, even though they have been in the closet unworn for months or even years. When he puts them on and his wife or children laugh at him, he feels it is a sacrilege. To him they are not mocking his garb; they are mocking the man he once was and still feels himself to be. If they are thrown away, he feels, he is expendable, too. That hurts. A man likes to think that all things about his life will last forever.

There is a conjecture among scientists and philosophers that in time the human race will be reduced to a single gender. Well, that doesn't seem too awful. Most of us have spent our lives enjoying one gender — usually the other one.

Junior Editors Quiz on SORGHUM

QUESTION: What is sorghum and what is it used for?

* * *

ANSWER: Sorghum is the name of a group of plants in the grass family. It is a cane-like annual plant, resembling corn, but instead of ears, it has a large branch of small seeds at the end of the stalk. It is native to the warm sections of the old world, and now is raised in the United States — in the southern states and the western plains. There are many varieties of sorghum. It prefers a mild climate and is harvested about 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 months after the planting of the seeds. Many of the sorghums grow successfully with little moisture. The stalks are tall, ranging from 6 to 14 feet high, depending on the species.

Many valuable products are derived from sorghum. A syrup, comparable to molasses, is squeezed from the stems of the sweet sorghum. Some types of sorghum are cultivated as a grain for feeding livestock. There is also a crop of sorghum raised for chicken feed. One variety is raised for use in making wallboards and brooms.

SIGNS LETTER OF INTENT—Bruce Harvey, Abilene High School graduate, has signed a letter of intent to play golf for Western Texas College. Standing are his father, William Harvey (left) and WTC golf coach Bob O'Day.

Abilene Lad Signs Pact With WTC

Burce Harvey, 1973 graduate of Abilene High School, has signed a letter of intent to play golf for Western Texas College.

Harvey is the eighth freshman golfer to sign with WTC and will join five returning sophomores on the Westerner team.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey of 4096 North Tenth Street in Abilene, the 6-2, 210 pound linkster is a two-year letterman on Abilene High's golf team, having been captain his senior year.

Young Harvey received the Everisto Martinez golf award in his senior year. The award, given in memory of Everisto Martinez, former Abilene High School golfer who was killed in Viet Nam, is presented to the outstanding golfer at AHS and is based on attitude and conscientiousness on and off the golf course.

Harvey was medalist in the triangular golf tournament at Brownwood Country Club this year with the teams from Abilene High, Cooper, and Brownwood. His best round in district play was a one over par 73 in the tournament at Big Spring Country Club.

A "B" student in high school, Harvey will pursue a general academic course at WTC.

He played football during his sophomore year at Abilene High School. Other than golf, his hobbies include swimming and bowling.

WTC golf coach Bob O'Day in commenting on signing Harvey said, "Bruce is strong and has a good long game. He moves the ball a long way off the tee box. If he improves on his short game, he should make a good college player.

"Bruce has a good attitude on and off the golf course. I am pleased to sign a golfer from Abilene High School. He has two years of good high school golfing experience because he played in one of the best high school golfing districts in the state."

White Sox Get 3 Runs Off Clyde

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas Manager Whitey Herzog told David Clyde to smile but the Rangers' bullpen made him weep.

Clyde, the 18-year-old whiz who was the first choice in baseball's free agent draft last month, then went to the mound for his second major league appearance. He beat Minnesota last week, allowing one hit and two runs while walking seven and striking out eight in five innings.

This time, he went six innings before a blister forced him to the sidelines. The White Sox managed three runs—two of them unearned thanks to Clyde's own throwing error—on four hits while Clyde walked two and fanned six.

Clyde turned a 4-3 lead over to the bullpen but Bill Melton greeted Don Stanhouse, the fourth Texas pitcher, with a game-tying single in the eighth inning and Ed Herrmann doubled home the winner in the ninth.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Minnesota Twins moved into first place in the West Division by four points over Oakland with a 5-2 triumph over the Kansas City Royals while the A's were losing to the California Angels 4-2, the Boston Red Sox nipped the New York Yankees 1-0, the Milwaukee Brewers shaded the Baltimore Orioles 5-3 and the Detroit Tigers edged the Cleveland Indians 4-3.

Consecutive doubles by Steve Braun and Larry Hisle touched off a three-run fourth inning that helped the Twins beat the Royals.

From Prison To Baseball

DETROIT (AP) — Ron LeFlore is one of the newest signees in professional baseball, but the 21-year-old outfielder isn't your ordinary dew-eyed rookie.

He graduated from the one of the game's toughest sandlots—Southern Michigan Prison on Monday and a few hours later was signed by the Detroit Tigers.

"It was beyond my wildest dreams," LeFlore said after signing the contract.

For 3½ years, LeFlore was an inmate at the Jackson, Mich., prison at Jackson, serving time for robbery.

He discovered baseball in prison.

"That's all there was in prison—3½ years of baseball, baseball, baseball," he said. "I played during the summer and really got involved in it."

During that time he became the star of a prison team that played over 40 games a year. He also played football and basketball.

He hit .509 in 1971, followed with a .487 in 1972 and was going along at a .569 clip before he was paroled.

LeFlore was recommended to Detroit Manager Billy Martin early in May while the Tiger skipper was speaking at the prison.

"I talked to Mr. Martin and he said to come out to Tiger Stadium for a tryout when I was home on a furlough pass," LeFlore recalled.

So, two weeks ago, LeFlore showed up at the Detroit ballpark and reminded Martin of his promise.

"He was hitting balls into the upper deck the day we had him at Tiger Stadium," Martin said. "Whether he can hit or not on a regular basis, that's the only question."

Giant, Astro Girls Win

The Snyder Well Service Giants nipped the Mets 8-7 and the Kentucky Fried Chicken Astros slipped past the R,S&P Cardinals 16-15 in Miss Softball America action here last night.

The Giants' Ann Beurlein twirled a 5-hitter, giving up two home runs to Elbia Hernandez, a triple and two doubles to Mary Jo Simmons. The Giants collected eight hits off Sheryl Neeley and Ronda Read. Ann Beurlein stroked two doubles and a single, LaRonda Cain socked a triple and a single, Cindy Clayton hit a double, and Sylvia Lopez and Daphne Strickland each hit a single.

The Astros collected 10 hits. Pam Gray stroked three singles, Pat Halford hit a double and a single, Kim Harlin and Jerri Murphy hit two singles each, and Christy Jenkins hit one single.

The Cardinals, although they lost, collected 17 hits. Connie Weber socked two home runs, a double and a single, Norma Garcia stroked a home run, double and two singles, Becky Digby hit two doubles and a single, Julie Loesch hit a double and a single, and Kelly Jones and Stacy Stuard each hit one single.

Giants, Cards Win LL Tilts

The Giants pounded the White Sox 16-2 and the Cardinals flailed the Cubs 11-0 in Little League action here last night.

The Giants' Zane Sterling fired a two-hitter, giving up a double to Tommy Blackard and a single to Carey Welch. The Giants collected six hits off Welch. Zane Sterling socked a home run, a double and a single, Greg Merritt stroked a double, and Gary Martin and Scott Crenwelge each hit a single.

The Cardinals' Sid Everton twirled a 1-hitter, giving up only a single to Mack Davis. The Cards collected six hits off Davis. Sid Everton hit a home run and two singles, Bobby Ford and Randy Hodges each stroked a double, and William Robinson hit a single.

Boston's John Curtis cooled off the Yankees on eight singles and Dwight Evans drilled an opposite-field home run in the fifth inning to give the Red Sox their victory.

The Yankees maintained their four-game lead over Baltimore in the East Division but had their 13-game home winning streak snapped.

George Scott blasted a tie-breaking two-run homer off reliever Grant Jackson with two out in the eighth inning, powering the Brewers past the Orioles.

Pedro Garcia and Darrell Porter hit solo homers for Milwaukee.

Mickey Stanley hit a two-run homer but a passed ball charged to Cleveland catcher John Ellis let in the run that enabled the Tigers to beat the Indians.

Ken Berry's three-run homer off Vida Blue in the second inning and run-scoring single in the eighth sparked the Angels over the A's. Berry's homer followed walks to Bob Oliver and Richie Scheinblum. Deron Johnson homered for the A's.

In National League action it was: Cincinnati 4, Los Angeles 2; Montreal 2, New York 1 in 10 innings; St. Louis 7, Philadelphia 4; San Francisco 9, Atlanta 5, and San Diego 8, Houston 5.

Cubs, Sox Win FL Tilts

The Cubs clipped the Cardinals 12-4 and the White Sox slipped past the Giants 11-9 in Farm League action here last night.

The Cubs' George Alvarado fired a 5-hitter, giving up three singles to Joey Withers and two singles to Peter Velasquez. The Cubs collected 16 hits. Freddy Quiros and James Bruns each stroked a double, Chuck Bane hit four singles, John Donaldson hit three singles, Mike Valentine, Jeff Kincaid and George Alvarado each hit two singles, and James Wallace hit one single.

The White Sox collected 16 hits. Tony Slaughter and Jeffery Pylant each hit a double and two singles, Bill Cox stroked a double and a single, Jesse Hernandez and Mike Wimmer each hit three singles, and Ronnie Rosas and Robert Dupuy each hit one single.

The Giants collected 10 hits. John Goodwin stroked two doubles and a single, Tommy Holder hit a double and two singles, John Igo hit two singles, and Kevin Harlin hit one single.

Hodgins To Be Honored

GOSHEN, N.Y. (AP) — Canadian Driver-trainer Clinton Hodgins will become the 18th person to be enshrined in the U.S. Harness Writers' Living Hall of Fame Sunday, July 1.

The ceremony, honoring the 66-year-old native of Clandeboye, Ont., will take place at the Hall of Fame of the Trotter.

Patriots Sign Bill Phillips

BOSTON — The New England Patriots of the National Football League signed linebacker Bill Phillips, formerly of the Denver Broncos, and John Tanner, a defensive end from the San Diego Chargers.

Oilers, Dodgers Win Teen Tilts

The Oilers blanked the Bullets 2-0 and the Dodgers shelled the Braves 9-3 in Junior Teenage League baseball games here last night.

The Oilers' Phil Robinson fired a 1-hitter, giving up only a single to Kyle Sikes.

The Oilers collected four hits off Charles Hammond. Phil Robinson tripled and singled, while Mike Quiros and Tony Cobb each hit singles.

The Oilers scored one run in the 4th off Robinson's triple combined with a fielder's choice. They got their other tally in the 6th off a single by Robinson combined with a single by Quiros.

The Dodgers' Roy Villanueva fired a 3-hitter, giving up a double to Robert Stoneman and singles to Anthony Lewis and to Randy Gressett. The Dodgers collected six hits off Gressett. John Hopkins and Barry Blalock each stroked two singles while Gary Greenlee and Brad Browning each hit one single.

The Dodgers tallied three times in the 1st off singles by Hopkins and Blalock combined with errors. They added two in the 2nd off two walks, an error and a single by Brad Browning. They pushed across another run in the 3rd off singles by Greenlee and Blalock combined with a walk. In the 5th, they scored twice off five consecutive walks. In the 7th they added a final tally on two walks and some shaky fielding.

The Braves scored once in the 6th. Stoneman tripled and scored on Randy Gressett's single. They added two runs in the 7th off two walks and a single by Anthony Lewis.

Joe Frazier Stops Bugner

LONDON (AP) — Joe Frazier says he's back. And heavyweight champion George Foreman watched the return.

With Foreman in the crowd, Frazier knocked down European champion Joe Bugner in the 10th round and pounded out a 12-round decision Monday night.

It was Frazier's comeback from the humiliation he suffered at Foreman's smashing fists in a two-round debacle in Jamaica last January.

"I think I'm back now," said the 29-year-old former champion as he sat in his dressing room fingering a bulging bruise that was closing his left eye.

The decision was clearcut for Frazier.

Most ringsiders at the Earl's Court arena thought Frazier had won at least nine rounds while British referee Harry Gibbs, the only judge, scored Frazier winner of six rounds and the 23-year-old Bugner winner of four, with two even.

Frazier weighed 208, six pounds lighter than when he fought Foreman and the lightest he's been since he outpointed Muhammad Ali March 8, 1971.

Nixon Undertaxed On San Clemente Property

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon has been undertaxed at least $25,000 over the past three years because of the low assessment on the Western White House at San Clemente, the Orange County Register says.

The undertax could run as high as $55,000, the Santa Ana newspaper reported Monday.

The Register said the Orange County assessor's office valued the 24.6-acre estate at $1.29 million last year, despite the fact that Nixon paid $1.5 million for it in 1969 and that $700,000 has been spent since then for improvements.

County Assessor Jack Vallerga was quoted by the Register as saying the 1973-74 value placed on Nixon's property is at $1.37 million.

The state Board of Equalization, which monitors assessment practices in California, is investigating alleged irregularities in the value placed on the home and property, the Register said. It quoted Abe Goldman of the board as saying:

"We've been looking into the President's San Clemente property for more than a month. It's a complicated affair and we haven't completed our study, but it's fair to say the President's property hasn't been assessed at anywhere near its real value."

Goldman told the newspaper that the $1.5 million purchase price should have been the starting point for determining the estate's "fair market value," and that the improvements added later also should have been considered.

The improvements, some of which were paid for by the General Services Administration at the request of the Secret Service, include landscaping, an eight-foot block wall, a beach cabana and a six-hole golf course.

But in 1970, when most of the improvements were made, the Orange County asessor said the estate was worth only $1,087,600. That figure remained the same in 1971 and rose by $206,400 in 1972, the Register said.

The Register said that based on information supplied by the county tax collector's office, Nixon has saved $25,588 in property taxes the past three years because his property has not been valued at the $1.5 million purchase price.

"In addition, if you figure at least $400,000 of the improvements enhanced the value of his home, then he has saved another $30,000 in taxes since 1970," tax collector Bob Citron was quoted as saying.

In a related matter, the Register said there are no records available in Orange County to substantiate the President's claim that he had sold most of his San Clemente property—all but the home and 5.9 acres—to New York industrialist Robert Abplanalp.

Nixon made that claim last May in response to Register articles questioning his source of funds for the purchase of the Western White House.

The Register said tax bills on all the property are paid out of a trust fund administered by Title Insurance and Trust Co., based in Los Angeles.

Postal Workers Get Bargains

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postal employes are carting away at bargain prices furniture and office equipment declared surplus by the U.S. Postal Service and put up for sale to its employes.

Among the bargains are used electric typewriters worth up to $400 new selling for $45.

Postal officials said the sale was arranged because the service is moving from its huge, ornate office building on Pennsylvania Avenue to a new $30-million headquarters purchased in the L'Enfant Plaza complex across from the Mall.

"By selling to the employes we may not only possibly give employes a bargain but we are saving the expense of having the equipment moved," a postal spokesman said. "The articles are not of sufficient quantity or condition to warrant formal competitive disposition by GSA (General Services Administration)," he said.

The Postal Service is not bound by regulations that require most government agencies to turn disposable property over to GSA. That agency then makes the items available to other government organizations, or sells or donates them to state or local governments or approved nongovernment organizations.

Last Thursday morning, postal workers spilled onto the Pennsylvania Avenue sidewalk for the first two-day sale, which featured several hundred wooden and metal desks, many of them executive size, for $25 to $35; leatherette couches for $50 and matching chairs for $35; 300 to 400 wooden office chairs at $8 apiece, and 40-odd electric typewriters and office machines—some worth upwards of $400 new—for as little as $45.

By Friday afternoon, most of the items had been sold on an "as is" basis. This meant that the Postal Service took no responsibility for the condition of the items and the purchasers had to carry them away at their own expense.

In one office of the Pennsylvania Avenue building—an office formerly occupied by a senior Postal Service official—was a forgotten cardboard poster bearing a photo of Postmaster General E. T. Klassen and a neatly lettered quote: "Service is the only thing we have to sell."

JD To Probe Sterilization

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal poverty program official says as many as 11 minors may have undergone "involuntary sterilization" at a Montgomery, Ala., birth control clinic.

The official, Randal C. Teague, operations director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, also said the Justice Department may be called in to investigate the federally funded clinic. He said its officials may have violated state law requiring parental consent for all surgical procedures.

He said Alabama law prohibits its minors from giving consent for any surgical procedure. Any sterilization operation performed on a minor without the consent of a parent or guardian is considered "involuntary sterilization" and an OEO investigation team "has reported to us that there were actually 11 incidences involving minors," Teague said.

In Montgomery, Joseph E. Conklin, the director of the Montgomery Community Action Program, refused to comment on Teague's statements. The Community Action Program ran the clinic.

Last week, Orelia Dixon, the director of the Montgomery agency's family planning center, said the clinic had arranged for 11 such operations in the past year.

Her comments came after a suit was filed on behalf of two young black girls, sisters, who were sterilized at the center.

"A lot of very serious legal questions are being raised," Teague said. "At some point the Department of Justice is going to have to become involved."

He said an OEO inspection team began to probe the Montgomery program after the lawsuit asking for $1 million in damages was filed.

Teague said nine similar instances were mentioned in the team's preliminary report, delivered Monday.

Local Agent In Session

Robert H. "Bob" Watlington, C.L.U., General Agent for National Farm Life, attended the 46th annual meeting of the Million Dollar Round Table in Seattle, Wash. June 24 through June 28. The theme of this year's meeting was "The Challenge of Change."

Watlington served on the Speaker Liaison Committee. It functioned to assist the featured speakers through the week.

He has attained the M.D.R.T. membership for three consecutive years and has attended the annual meetings, which are educational seminars where the insurance industry's top producers gather to freely exchange ideas and information.

Approximately 2,600 life insurance underwriters representing 20 nations attended the sessions, which were held in the Seattle Center, former location of the 1962 World's Fair.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN — If you ask the average family physician to help you solve the problem of overweight, he's likely to respond with enthusiastic encouragement, and a diet program tailored to your individual health needs.

But he won't guarantee any specific weight loss, because he knows that each body type has its own way of metabolizing.

That doesn't satisfy the craving some people have for "instant beauty," so they are quickly attracted to the advertisements which claim, "Lose 20 pounds in 20 days."

Many become disillusioned when they don't shed the pounds like the "before" and "after" model whose photographs were shown in the ad.

But wait a minute:

Were those "before" and "after" pictures really of the same person? Or, was one photo taken in poor lighting while the subject slumped to increase the girth of abdomen, and the other photo taken under glamor conditions — with tummy sucked in, chin up, and chest out?

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division has received many complaints about operations of some "health studios" which specialize in claims of an almost-instant metamorphosis for the overweight person.

Through our own investigations, we have found that sometimes the photographs are misleading.

And other deceptive trade practices by some health spa operators are being uncovered in state and federal complaint follow-ups.

Owners of legitimately-operated health salons are cooperating in the investigations. And there are many of these establishments which do serve a useful and healthful purpose.

After all, the average person — especially, the average overweight person — lacks the intense discipline required to monitor his or her eating habits, and stick to an exacting program of exercise. And they can use a little "group therapy" to keep them inspired in the war against unwanted pounds.

Unfortunately, they are sometimes prey to the type of operator who would promise them anything, and too often, the result is a flattened wallet, instead of a trim figure.

Some of the deceptive practices you should be on the watch for include:

-The "bait-and-switch" tactic, in which the operator advertises a claim that his studio can rid you of "10 pounds in 10 days" or "20 pounds in 20 days" (there seems to be a magic in twice-repeated numbers), but when the consumer goes to sign up for the quick course, she is talked out of that, and talked into a more expensive long-term contract.

-The advertised inference that the facilities will be there for you to use at your convenience. Often, it is discovered, the times are very limited, and if your own schedule changes, you may not be able to take advantage of the program for which you've paid.

-The heavy pressure to buy a "life" contract. One man paid a rather high sum for a "life" contract, and when he died a few days later — never having taken one treatment, his family was unable to get any refund. Others have complained that they started a course, but had to drop out at their physicians' insistence, and could not get a proportionate refund.

-Claims that passive exercise devices automatically can produce weight loss. The Federal Trade Dommission declares that is mesleading.

If you're considering the idea of enrolling in a health club, take enough time to see just what you'd be getting.

Visit the place during its business hours, without an appointment. Talk to some of the members. One question to ask would be what sort of attention they actually receive. The claim of "personalized care" sometimes is not carried out.

Inspect the equipment. Look over the studio to see if it is well-run and sanitary.

Inspect the contract you are offered if you do decide to join. There have been complaints that the consumers signed "applications" to try out a facility, and later learned that they really had signed a tight contract, committing them to long-term payments.

If you have reason to believe you are being deceived, do not hesitate to get in touch with your local better business bureau, your district or county attorney, or the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

Man Charged In Slaying

SAN AUGUSTINE, Tex. (AP) — A woman was killed and five other persons, including three law enforcement officers, were shot by a former mental patient Monday in this remote East Texas area.

Victor Van Lacy, 67, was charged in connection with the slaying of his common law wife, Mattie Mae Clark, 58. He also was charged with five counts of assault with intent to murder for the other shootings.

San Augustine County sheriff's deputies refused comment on the incident, but witnesses said that three officers, an ambulance driver and an onlooker were hit by shotgun blasts as they made their way to Van Lacy's house.

The shooting began at about 8 a.m. when Mrs. Clark was shot, and ended two hours later when Van Lacy surrendered to officers at this home in the Attoyac bottom region 20 miles south of San Augustine.

Ambulance driver Lonnell Garner, 45, was hit in the arm and shoulder as he drove up to the house in response to a call from an unidentified woman.

Deputy Sheriff Richard Davis, 20, was hit in the face, and Roger Williams, accompanying Davis, was reported in poor condition with head wounds.

Sheriff John Hoyt also was shot in the face as he tried to cross a 30-yard stretch from the road to the house.

Department of Public Safety Patrolman Doyle Pittmon suffered a minor shoulder wound.

All the wounded except Williams reportedly were recovering.

Van Lacy was a former patient at Rusk State Hospital.

Mexican Trade Fair Set

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A Mexican trade fair will be held here Sept. 10-14 that could herald the establishment of a permanent Mexican trade center, sponsors of the fair say.

In an announcement Monday, sponsors say the fair will involve 250 Mexican manufacturers who will be selling 1,000 different products to buyers who may number as many as 1,000.

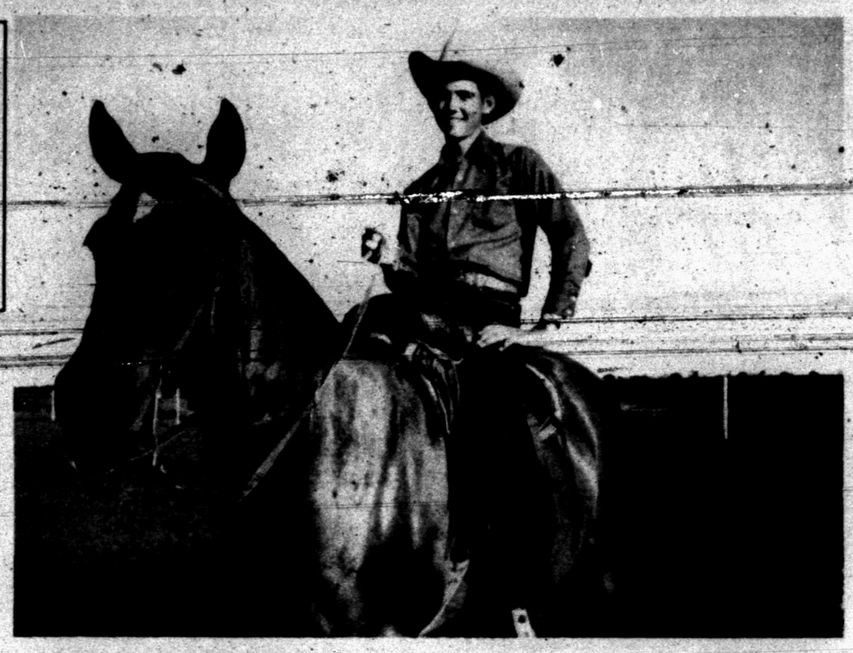

Roane Harwood, president of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, says, "At a time when the parity of the peso with the dollar gives Mexican products a decided monetary edge over Japanese and European exports, we expect sales to buyers to be brisk."

According to Harwood, one of the long-range benefits of a successful trade fair would be the location here of a permanent trade center.

Armando Gomez, Mexican Trade Commissioner, was quoted by the chamber of commerce here as saying: "We believe that your city is a logical distribution point for our goods, partly because it is so convenient to the industrial and artisan centers in Northern Mexico."

The chamber of commerce, the City of San Antonio and Mexico's Foreign Trade Institute are joint sponsors.

The chamber of commerce here and Gomez claim the fair will be "most ambitious" in Mexico's history.

TAKING A BREATHER—Ross Preston of Ira takes a pause in his afternoon workout at the Preston's arena west of Ira. This young man was one of the local youths who took honors at the Borden County Junior Rodeo in Gail the past weekend. Ross, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Preston, placed first in the steer riding and third in the tie-down roping. He also was runner up for the all around award in the 13-15 age group.

Locals Win Honors In Borden's Rodeo

Several Snyder youths rode away with the honors at Borden County's Junior Rodeo the past weekend at Gail. Local contestants, competing against 300 cowgirls and cowboys from various towns in this region won two of the three all around awards presented for outstanding performance.

In the 12 and under age group, Kathy Harrell won the all around and Mandy Tubb, another Snyder cowgirl, was runner up. Guy Miller, a Borden County youth, and Ross Preston of Ira were the all around winner and runner up, respectively, in the 13-15 age group. There was a tie in the 16-19 age group, between Jan Hall of Post and Janice Browne of Gail. Each of these top contestants received a pair of spurs donated by V.O. Raspberry of Post.

Placing in the individual competition in the 12 and under age division went as follows: Barrel Racing—Kathy Harrell, Chuck Canon, Mandy Tubb. Pole Bending—Kathy Harrell, Charla Howard, Tana Springer. Flags — Becky Ragan, Kathy Harrell, Mandy Tubb. Ribbon Roping—Mandy Tubb, Travis Rhinehart, Charla Howard.

The 13-15 division winners were: Barrell Racing—Jeanne Hudson, Kathy Griffin, Joy Gene Baysinger. Pole Bending—Diane Woodall, Jeanne Hudson, Guy Miller. Ribbon Roping—Kelli Youngblood, Jim Bob Phillips, Ray Bennett. Tie-Down Roping—Guy Miller, John Anderson, Ross Preston. Steer Riding—Ross Preston, Mark Beavers, Jim Dorland.

Results in the 16-19 age group proved the following contestants superior: Barrel Racing—Claudia Swan, Freda Wilson, Janice Browne. Pole Bending—Jan Hall, Janice Browne, Nan Clayton. Ribbon Roping—Randy Ogden, Chris Marshall, Steve Miller. Tie-Down Roping—Rex Cox, Max Jones, Rick Hendley. Bull Riding—Charles Atkinson, Bob Wall, Freddy Huff.

Champion buckles donated by the Borden County Junior Livestock Association, were presented to each of these contestants in the top three places in each event of the rodeo.

Two Pastors Stripped Of Credentials

DALLAS (AP) — Two Texas pastors have been stripped of their credentials as ministers in the Presbyterian Church U.S. (PCUS) and are prohibited from participating in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper (communion) in any church of that denomination.

Charging acts of Schism, the Administrative Commission of the Presbytery of the Covenant gave public notice Monday that the Revs. Eric McQuitty of First Church of Paris and Dan H. McCown of Fifth Street Church of Tyler have been divested from their office of PCUS ministers, effective immediately.

Both churches voted recently to withdraw from covenant and PCUS and align with Vanguard Presbytery, and organization of dissident churches who split from the denomination to organize a more conservative branch called The Continuing Presbyterian Church.

Covenant denied both requests.

In further action, the Administrative Commission sent to the session (ruling body of local churches) of each church a notice to order a congregational meeting.

The purpose of such meetings, said Dr. R. W. Jablonowski of Fort Worth, chairman of the commission, is "to permit an airing of grievances for interpretation and specifically to assure all communicants of the desire of Covenant that they remain as loyal and participating Presbyterians with the life of PCUS."

Dr. Jablonowski said that it was with "sorrowful heart and deep regret" that the commission ruled that the two pastors "no longer possess any rights or authority.

Nixon Stresses Unity Of Purpose

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon says the greatest lesson of the nation's birthday is "the importance of unity of purpose, of all Americans sharing in the future of our country."

"If we seek that on this Fourth of July, as the patriots sought it on theirs, we need have no fear of our destiny," Nixon said in an Independence Day message issued on Monday.

Discoverer Of Pluto Retiring

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — Clyde W. Tombaugh, who discovered the planet Pluto in 1930, has retired as a professor of astronomy at New Mexico State University.

Tombaugh, 67, received the Jackson-Gwilt medal and gift of the Royal Astronomical Society of Great Britain in 1931 for his Puto discovery.

He described his studies of the planet, which included 14 years work at the Lowell Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz., as a "grand tour of the heavens."

He also said he considers important his 1950s studies searching for natural miniature satellites orbiting the earth.

"It assured us that man could travel safely to the moon and planets without colliding with smaller satellites that may have been orbiting the earth," he said.

Navy Gets First Female Chaplain

WASHINGTON (AP) — Navy Lt. (j.g.) Florence Diana Pohlman has become the first female chaplain in the U. S. military services.

Miss Pohlman, 32, was ordained Sunday at the National Presbyterian Church here. She was sworn into the Navy Monday by Adm. Elmo Zumwalt Jr., chief of naval operations.

She will begin a Navy training program for chaplains in Newport, R. I., and then report to the Naval Training Center at Orlando, Fla., to provide religious counsel for Navy men and their families.

Lt. Pohlman is from San Diego, Calif.

US Puts Export Controls On Scrap Iron, Steel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has slapped stiff export controls on iron and steel scrap metals after domestic prices reached a 16-year high. Curbs on corp exports may also be under consideration.

At the same time, Commerce Secretary Frederick B. Dent announced late Monday he had eased a five-day total embargo on the exports of soybeans and cottonseed—major animal feeds at home but vital foodstuffs for human consumption abroad.

When soybean controls went into effect June 27 Dent warned that, if any substantial increase in export demand for corn developed as a result, limits on the flow of corn overseas would be necessary.

State and Commerce Department officials said they are continuing to watch for this possibility.

But a second look at U.S. domestic requirements for soybeans convinced the Commerce Department that it could release 33 million bushels of produce for export. The amount represents about one-half of unfilled contracts for delivery in the remainder of the 1973 crop year.

Dent also announced that 750,000 short tons (2,000 pounds compared with 2,240 pounds for a long ton) of soybean-oil, cake and meal can be exported by Aug. 31. This amounts to 40 per cent of the unshipped contracts.

The Commerce Department announced when controls first were placed on soybeans and cottonseed that it would announce on July 2 the quantities that would be available for export and the methods to be used in the allocation of the available supply.

The amount made available was larger than expected after sharp reactions in Japan and the European Economic Community developed last week when the controls were announced.

The Japanese government, which has been depending upon the United States for foodstuffs, hinted that it would turn to the Peoples Republic of China for soybean supplies. But China itself was short on soybeans and had to buy 600,000 tons from the United States.

The freeze on metal exports affects orders of more than 500 tons placed after July 1.

The Commerce Department said it took action after domestic needs for iron and steel scrap and expected exports reached an estimated total of 54.4 million tons, or 18 per cent more than the previous high last year.

Japan takes about one-half of the total U.S. exports of scrap iron and steel. Yasushi Fukuko, assistant director of the ministry of international trade and industry, iron ore section, said the ministry decided Monday to limit U.S. scrap iron imports in 1973 to five million tons.

Japan's imports this year from America would have reached six million tons otherwise, he said.

Ziegler Apologizes

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — The Western White House says the bill to hike Social Security benefits that it mistakenly had announced as signed into law is expected to reach President Nixon's desk today.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, apologizing for Sunday's error, said the President definitely would sign the measure to increase benefits by 5.6 per cent next July 1.

Ziegler attributed the error to confusion about parliamentary maneuvering that preceded Congress' annual Fourth of July recess.

Clip and save this vacation checklist.

- ☐ REFRIGERATOR OR FREEZER: Change thermostat control to slightly warmer (or "Vacation") setting according to the manufacturer's recommendations.
- ☐ DISHWASHER: Make sure it's empty. Shut the door, but do not latch.
- ☐ DISPOSER: Run and flush with cold water.
- ☐ ELECTRIC RANGE: Make sure all switches are in the "Off" position.
- ☐ WASHERS: Turn off water supply at faucets.
- ☐ WATER HEATER (ELECTRIC): Turn off at circuit breaker panel. When you return, run a small amount of water from a hot water faucet to make sure there is water in the tank before you turn the circuit on.
- ☐ TRASH COMPACTOR: Remove any accumulated trash.
- ☐ TELEVISION SETS: Unplug from electric outlet and disconnect the antenna lead-in cable.
- ☐ CLOCK RADIOS, ETC.: Check these and all other items with automatic "On-Off" controls. Disconnect the ones that won't be needed.
- ☐ LIGHTING: Be sure that all lights are off except those needed for security, such as: 1) yard light and/or other exterior lighting with automatic controls — on at dusk, off at dawn; 2) portable lamp in living area with automatic control; 3) hall or bathroom light.
- ☐ AIR CONDITIONING: Normally, air conditioning should be turned off completely while on summer vacation. However, if there is anything in your home that might suffer heat damage, the thermostat setting could be raised 5 to 10 degrees above normal operation and the unit left on. For comfort, you might have a friend or neighbor turn on the unit the day of your return.

COUNTY AGENT BILLY ROACH
...still getting educated

Farm Agent Due Masters Degree

Scurry County's agricultural agent, Billy E. Roach, has completed the requirements for a master of education degree at Texas A&M University at College Station. After 19 years with the Federal Extension Service, Roach decided to further his formal education at A&M to keep in stride with these advanced times.

Even though much of a county agent's knowledge is acquired through informal, on-the-job education, Roach believes that newly established scientific methods of study are necessary to effectively sell his services. One of his main areas of study while attending the summer session involved studying methods of presenting information for the producers in ways they will accept. Other fields of study were various types of weed control and phases of agronomy.

He went on to explain the history of the Extension Service as an informal educator for the United States Department of Agriculture. The Extension Service was founded in 1914 to dissiminate progressive information through agriculture agents and home economists to the public.

Roach received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Sul Ross University in 1949 and started his career in Tulia as assistant county agent. After five years, he came to Snyder where he has served area residents for almost 14 years. Roach will receive his master's degree at a formal service in College Station Aug. 17.

Betty Grable Dies At Age 56

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Lung cancer has taken the life of actress Betty Grable, the World War II pin-up girl with the beautiful legs.

Miss Grable died here Monday night at St. John's Hospital. She was 56.

She was treated at the hospital last May and was readmitted last Friday. She also had been hospitalized in May 1972, forcing cancellation of her appearance in "No, No, Nanette" in Melbourne, Australia.

Miss Grable had posed in a white bathing suit, glancing over her shoulder with a coy smile, early in World War II. Almost three million copies of the pin-up picture which showed her shapely legs to their best advantage were distributed, mostly to GIs who displayed them in their barracks or carried them in sea bags or footlockers with their personal belongings.

The photograph was made by 20th Century-Fox studio while she was under contract there.

Through the years, the blonde singing and dancing star mintained her trim measurements: 37-24-35.

Her 42 movies during the 1930s and 1940s grossed more than $100 million. She set a record of 12 consecutive years in the top 10 of boxoffice stars.

The Treasury Department in 1946-47 listed her as the highest-salaried American woman. She earned more than $3 million during her career.

Her movies included "Million Dollar Legs," "How to Marry a Millionaire" and "Follow the Fleet." In 1956, she made her last film, "How to be Very, Very Popular." Later, she toured with different acts and starred in a Las Vegas night-club production.

Born Dec. 18, 1916, in St. Louis, Mo., she was the daughter of Conn and Lillian Grable. Her father was a stockbroker.

In 1937, she was married to actor Jackie Coogan. She divorced him two years later.

She married band leader Harry James in 1943 after appearing with him in the movie "Springtime in the Rockies." They had two daughters, Vicki and Jessica. James and Miss Grable were divorced in 1965.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

In addition to her daughters, she leaves a sister, Mrs. David T. Arnold, and four grandchildren.

Bar Opens Convention

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)— The State Bar of Texas opens its 91st annual convention Wednesday, July 4, with about 4,000 Texas attorneys and judges expected to attend.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe heads a list of top state officials scheduled to address the convention. Others will include Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Secretary of State MARK W. White Jr., Speaker Price Daniel Jr., Atty. Gen. John Hill and State Insurance Board chairman Joe Christie.

Luncheon speakers will be U.S. Sens. Lloyd M. Bentsen, D-Tex., and Fritz Hollings, D-S.C.

Other featured speakers include Chairman Edward B. Miller of the National Labor Relations Board; Brig. Gen. Clyde R. Mann, judge advocate general of the Marine Corps, and Asst. U.S. Atty. Gen. J. Stanley Pottinger.

The convention closes Friday night.
